SEHS Student Receives Western Region Preservice Art Educator of the Year Award

Katelyn Reyes, an SEHS student and president of OU's student chapters of the National Art Education Association (NAEA) and Michigan Art Education Association (MAEA), has won the Western Region Preservice Art Educator of the Year Award, one of only four regions at the national level. The award will be presented at the NAEA National Convention in March.

"I'm utterly shocked and extremely grateful," Katelyn said.

Congratulations, Katelyn!

IN THE NEWS

Win a Free Copy of the 2020 Caldecott Medal Winner or Honor Book!

The 2020 Caldecott winners will be announced at the ALA Midwinter Conference on Monday, January 27, 2020, but in anticipation of the big event, the ERL will be holding a Mock Caldecott Contest.

Stop by the ERL to browse a selection of notable picture books, which will be on display beginning Thursday, January 2, 2020. Titles on display have been suggested as potential medal winners by various professional journals, libraries and other institutions that are holding Mock Caldecott events. Most will also be available at public libraries if you can't make it onto campus to read them.

A master list of the titles on display is available in the ERL and online for those who want to get started reading over break. Cast your ballot for the book you think might win, and if correct, your name will be entered into a drawing for a free copy of the winning title. If the book you choose is named as one of the Honor books, a separate drawing will be held for a chance to win your title.

All ballots must be submitted to the ERL by Friday, January 24 at 5 p.m. Paper ballots are available at the circulation desk in the ERL. Pick one of the ERL's or write in your own suggestion. Everyone (faculty, staff or student) who submits a complete ballot will have a chance to win. Talk to Barb Campbell if you are interested in having her work with you on behalf of your class to facilitate voting.

Good luck, and happy reading!
