CO*ED DORMS DEAD

As all of us expected the proposal to make Fitz and Anibal co-ed fell flat. Anibal will be all female and Fitz will remain an all male dorm. The reasons given for the final decision rested mainly on the structure deficiencies of the two dorms in question. Gary Durst worked hard on this proposal and asked today if he had any comments he replied:

It is unfortunate that the opportunities for co-education will be so restricted in the fall; however none of the blame for the situation can be placed upon the present administration. I have confidence that the new administration is willing and eager to work with the students to make future decisions.

In other business the Dorm Council began proceedings on Women's key privileges. A proposal was introduced on the subject by the Dorm Council, Women's Judiciary Board, and the Women's Legislative board all working together. To be honest the prospects for such a situation in the fall look dim.

The Council also set up a committee of Tom Volgy, Tom Tobias, Jay Korinek, Dean Appleton, Carol Wilson, and Dean Dutton to go over the proposed men's Judiciary Board. This committee will report back to the Council on various proceedings.

The Council also took action on House Committees. This plan calls for a small committee in each dormitory to work with and implement the Dorm Council. A complete proposal concerning this plan can be found in the back of this issue.

EDITORIAL

All of this summer I've been paying money to hear the Meadowbrook concerts. I pay the same price that any person would that has never even heard of Oakland University. I pay while the Brookies ride in free. Am I a fool?

My fellow residents say "Yes". Any resident who will pay the buck and not take to the "boomdocks" is a fool. I think I am a fool for an entirely different reason. Any resident who will willfully pay the same price as a non Oaklander and watch the Brookies get in free is a fool because he is letting the adminies cheat him.

Most other Universities have reduced rates for their own students for cultural events on campus. Many events are free to students, but not here - If its free for us, its free for everyone. The administration is trying to teach us to be men, they show us absolutely no favoritism. In fact they seem to want us to work under adverse conditions. Anything we get we have to work for. Maybe "Mothers" would be a better title for the administration rather than adminies.

I find this situation a disgrace to Oakland. It seems to make our philosophy say, "Don't come to Oakland if you want culture." In a way this is true. I could enjoy the same amount of cultural activities out of Oakland for the same price if I went to Port Huron Junior College. Might I say that I can not go to the events at Port Huron for the same price as J.C. students.

What's wrong? Are we so hard up for the money that we need the buck from the residents? If we are it might interest you to know that we're not getting it. The only way you'll get it is to hire twelve men to patrol the woods at a $1.25 an hour. If my guess is right you'll find out that still won't get the buck even by patrolling. So whgt do you say fellows? Why don't you be kind hearted and benevolent and bestow on us the favors that students get and expect from other Universities.

INQUIRING REPORTER

Due to the recent epidemic, which we think was Boccacism Q (not as dangerous as B.D.). It was decided to query a few interested intestines as to the calories which we are forced to consume.

What do you think should be done with the food at Oakland?

Klava: I don't live here anymore (spoken in a relieved tone of voice.)

Linda Erdman: I can't remember the prayer but you yell "Yay God" and throw the tray over your head.

Jon Buller: (amid loud peals of naseous laughter) They can take it and o o o o o

Mel Kozek: A mandatory dose of Bromo-Seltzer should be served with every meal.

Ron Kaiser: Feed it to the dogs - if they haven't killed them off already.

Doug Thorp: Because the looks and the smells of the food largely determine the taste - I think dark glasses and nose plugs should be served with every meal.

Dan Phillips: I like it. I like raw vegetables. I like starch potatoes - because I don't eat the damned things anyway. I love jello. In fact I just love food. I don't care how its fixed. I guess I just have Polish tendencies so don't ask me to comment. You're not writing this damned stuff down are you?

ADVICE

Dear Nita,

I know that this letter will never be printed just like all the other letters that aren't going to be printed that I see in the newspapers daily.

I'm in a dilemma. It seems like every time I read The Observer I get a terribly nauseous feeling in my solar plexis, I break out in a cold sweat, and by page number four I feel blashed with intellectual boredom and insipidness.

I don't know what the cause of my illness is. I've gone to Mrs. Cartmell and Dr. Lowy and they claim that I'm in excellent physical and psychological condition. My social record is O.K. by Herbie. I'm in good financial shape. I'm so hard up for a diagnosis that I'm finally coming to you, Nita. Please advise.

Turned Off

Dear Off,

There's really nothing wrong with you, Luv. When I can take it, I read The Observer myself. What you think of as a personal ailment is really quite quite common among Observer readers.

From now on I suggest you read The Observer when you're drunk or about two hours after a protein-packed meal (and wear dark sunglasses).

Hugs and kisses,
Nita

Ken Seiffert: Feed it to Chancellor Varner. See if he rides the fence on that one.

Mike Silvestre: Wait till I wipe my mouth and flush the toilet.

Marcus Zajaak: It might not be so bad if the help would wash the flug and toe jam off their hands and send the cooks on vacation.

Cool It, Rheba

by Nezzie Kicapoux

They're air conditioning North Found and O.C.
 Now won't they be nice places to see
 When it's hot and muggy to a high degree;
 But wait, the announcement is not finished yet,
 For though they're conditioning all of O.C.
 Only the administration complex in North Found will be.
 Structural troubles they say are the blame
 For not treating all of North Found the same;
 But this building was built from one plan
 So this excuse is as good as a hole in a dam.
 They claim the A.C. is unbearably hot
 But please name the place, just one place, that is not.
 Let profs and their students sweat in the heat,
 As long as the administrators' collars stay neat.
 Now here is the reason we know fits the best
 For not cooling all North Found, and this is no jest,
 Both the A.C. and O.C. are used by guests.

(Since Nezzie went to two drinking parties this week, he naturally has twice the poetic output.)

The Raving

by Nezzie Kicapoux

As I studied late one night
 Over plato and J.S. Mill,
 I heard a singing under
 My window sill.

"Tis some Brookies" I muttered, singing at my chamber door-
 Only this and nothing more.

Singing at the top of lung power
 100 decibels to threshold of pain
 In four part harmony they sing
 Enough for one's soul to stain.

Won't these Brookies ever take leave
 of my chamber door?
 Quote the Brookies "Nevermore".

One, two, three and four till the reenforce-ment come
 To double and part till
 My life is done.

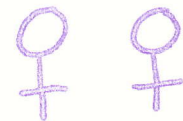

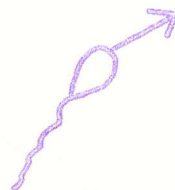

How much longer will these Zits
 Sit at my chamber door
 Quote Brookies "Eve rmore".

The Schubert mass they sing for
 Their souls to elevate
 My souls shudders
 It's had all it can take.

Won't they ever quit that infernal rot.
 Quote the Brookies "Nevermore."

Giving up- to the O.C. Iran
 To escape their malignant vice.
 Oh Christ- Pan the campus
 They are singing "Three Blind Mice."

Will the dorms again house this infected sore
 Quote the residents "Nevermore!"

But you should see him swim!

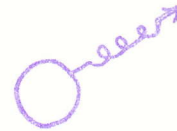

WHAT SORT OF MAN READS FITZ BITZ

Fitz Bitz readers are suave and particular. They appreciate the finer things in life and know how to get them. They aren't socially minded, that is, they would rather drink cheap beer than low alcohol content champagne. Their rooms are decorated so as to enhance the elegant designing in each penthouse. The Johny Walker bottles contrast the walls but match the atmosphere of the dorm.

Fitz Bitzers have a fine taste in woman. They have a critical eye for the statuesque in womanhood but are also concerned with willingness of each Gothic beauty. Most Fitz Bitzers date girls off campus.

Our boys have a fine taste in clothes but do not lose sight of the practical. They love fine tweeds and irridescents but realize that the man is more important than the clothes. If a broad can't be picked up in a pair of bermudas and a sweatshirt, she can hit the road.

In short Fitz Bitz readers are drunken sex fiends. (Source: 1965 Dean's Report on Men)

FITZ GOES DOWN FIGHTING

Yesterday Fitz played the Pickwick Club. What everyone thought would be a romp fell far short of their expectations. Fitz led in the game until the late innings when a Pickwick rally put them ahead 9-8. In the last half of the seventh Fitz put on a threat as they had runners on first and second with only one away but failed to score. With two down Pete Gates came to the plate, the leading hitter on the Fitz team. The pitcher wiped his forehead and delivered the pitch. All was quiet in Fitz as the Mighty Gates popped out.

Earlier in the game Mike Sylvestre had a tremendous home run. With one of the most co-ordinated and most powerfull swings that I have ever seen, Mike slugged the ball past everyone's reach. (I'm sorry Mike but I forgot what else you wanted me to say.)

Earlier in the week the Faculty split a double header with the Commuters winning the first 15-6 and losing the second 5-4. Next week the post season playoffs begin.

She's kinda shy

PROPOSED ADDITION TO THE DORMITORY COUNCIL CONSTITUTION

Article V: House Councils

Section I: Establishment

Each dormitory shall establish its own House Council of duly elected members, elected at the beginning of each trimester not more than one week after the election of the Dormitory Council representatives.

Section II: Membership

- 1 There shall be one member elected from each floor of the Dormitory.
- 2 Additional members will be those members of the Dormitory Council and the Dormitory Social Committee elected from that Dormitory. (The election of the members of the Dormitory Social Committee members shall be one member for 40 students or 1 per wing in Fitzgerald, Anibal and Pryale, and 1 per floor in Hill House and # Five.)

Section III: Duties

The House Council shall discuss and legislate on the issues arising within that dormitory. All policy decisions must be ratified by the Dormitory Council. The Advisors of these House Councils shall be the head Residents of each respective dormitory. Major changes shall be put to a referendum of the residents of that dormitory.

Section IV: Powers

- 1 The House Councils shall have the power to establish their own constitutions. These constitutions must be ratified by both the dormitory and the Dormitory Council.
- 2 The House Councils shall have the power to establish an executive committee providing a Dormitory Council member be an ex-officio member of this executive committee
- 3 The House Councils shall have the power to form subcommittees as they deem necessary.
- 4 The House Councils shall have the power to make recommendations to the Dormitory Council through its Dormitory Council representatives.

Dear Resident Student:

The Dormitory Council urges you to vote in favor of this proposal next Wednesday, August 4, before dinner.

It is hoped that this addition to the Dormitory Council Constitution will increase the efficiency of the Dormitory Council, provide more representation for the individual student, and foster interest and enthusiasm in each dormitory.

The interest and participation of the resident students in this summer's Dormitory Council has been greatly appreciated. With your vote in the affirmative on this proposal the Dormitory Council can look forward to another productive semester.

Sincerely,

Sary Querst, President
