

Appendix I. Oakland University Student Congress Bylaws

I. University Student Congress

A. Financial Authority

1. Authority over the University Student Congress funds rests with the University Student Congress in compliance with University Student Congress Constitution
2. University Student Congress financial accounts
 - a. Must maintain a master account, hereby known as the “Main Account”
 - b. Must maintain an account for the processing of funds generated from the Student Activities Fee
 - c. Per the policies of Oakland University, the University Student Congress must maintain a minimum balance of $5,000.00 in its Main Account
 - i. These funds must remain uncategorized in each University Student Congress budget, and be replenished should they have been used in a previous semester, and this minimum balance must never be reallocated to any other line items
 - ii. Per University policy, these funds may be accessed in the event that the Congress is presented with an unforeseen expense or expenses that were not allocated for in a budgetary period
 - a. Unforeseen expenses include such items as bills whose total is greater than was allocated for and bills from previous semesters, due to increases in labor costs, material costs, etc., and cannot be due to negligence
 - b. Unforeseen expenses do not include items such as programming not previously created in a given budget, a forgotten item in a budget, and presidential discretionary
 - c. The University Student Congress Financial Affairs Director, in conjunction with the Student Body President, shall determine whether an expense is considered “unforeseen;” however, these individuals are responsible for planning accordingly within their budget to prevent unforeseen circumstances to the best extent possible
 - d. The Legislature shall be notified in the event these funds are accessed and must approve the expenditure ex post facto by a majority vote; in the event that the expenditure is not approved the minimum balance must be immediately replenished from the budgetary line item Uncategorized Funds, or from another budgetary line item should adequate Uncategorized Funds be unavailable
 - d. Cannot be used to fund any student organization or club sport expenses unless Oakland University Student Congress is co-sponsoring an event or initiative with another student organization or club sport
 - i. For an event or initiative to be considered co-sponsored, Oakland University Student Congress must be directly involved in the planning process of the event or initiative and all advertising material for the event or initiative must identify Oakland University Student Congress as a co-sponsor
 - a. If a co-sponsor bill is passed by the Legislature, the bill sponsor and/or co-sponsor(s), with oversight of the Marketing Director, shall be held responsible for overseeing the Host Organization’s compliance to these Bylaws.
 - b. If a co-sponsorship bill is passed by the Legislature the bill sponsor and co-sponsor(s), with oversight of the Marketing

Director, shall be held responsible for making sure that the Oakland University Student Congress is advertised in every way the Host Organization offers

- c. If Host Organizations do not comply with Article 1, Section A Sub-Section 2d Item i. of these Bylaws, then co-sponsorship funding shall be withdrawn and transferred back into the line-items in which the funding originated.

3. The University Student Congress shall create a budget on a semester-by-semester basis, those being Summer, Fall, and Winter
 - a. None of these budgetary periods may be combined together to create a single budget
 - b. The aforementioned budgets may not allocate or otherwise spend more money than is available for that particular semester
 - c. The budgets for each period may provide money for programs and initiatives that will take place in another budgetary period, provided the funds used are available within the budget of the period the request is made; those requesting funds must prove that they cannot reasonably wait to request funding until the actual budgetary period within which the program or initiative will come to pass
