News Shorts

The 1967-68 Ascendent will go on sale next week in front of the Book Store. This year Oakland's yearbook will be 184 pages long and will feature colored art work as well as the usual pictures of students and the campus. Students appearing in the book will be identified and there will be a good deal of written copy as well as the pictures. Most of the Ascendents have already been sold at the presale price of $4.00, but a limited number will be on sale at $5.00 per copy.

Oakland University's 9th annual Principal-Counselor-Freshman Conference will be on Wednesday, April 3 from 8:45 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The conference will enable counselors and principals to discuss with their former students their general adjustment to college life. Such discussions assist the high schools in better preparing students for the transition from high school to college and also assist the University in better preparing for this transition. Student interviews will be held in the Vandenberg Cafeteria from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. and freshmen have been notified of their appointment times.

This Wednesday, The Publications Board announced its selection for editors and business managers for student publications during the Spring and Fall semesters. Selected were: Norman Harper as Editor for the Observer during the Spring semester, Mike Honey as Editor for the Observer this Fall, Mark Bennett as Business Manager for the Observer this Fall, Shari Woolard as Ascendent Editor, and Van Thornton as Ascendent Business Manager.

Language Department Programs, scheduled for April 1 as part of the Fine Arts Festival, have been moved from the Wilson Hall Auditorium to the Sports and Recreation Building. The presentations will still take place at 12:15 and 7:30 p.m. The move was necessitated by the new set for the Meadow Brook Theatre.

The Philosophy Department of Oakland University will present a lecture by Professor Monroe C. Beardsley at 3:30 p.m. in 190 Science building on Monday, April 1. Professor Beardsley, Chairman of the Department of Philosophy at Swarthmore College, will lecture on "The Aesthetics of Bad Art." Coffee will be served.

College and the Black Student, will be sponsored by Alma College, Alma, Michigan, on their campus, Friday through Sunday, April 19-21. The conference is open to students of all races but will focus on the inadequacies of American Higher Education for Negro students. Dr. Archie Epps, Assistant Dean of Harvard College, is the keynote speaker. All students interested in attending this conference should contact Bill Peterson, 113 OC, Ext. 2213.

Oakland's Commencement will feature a film this year instead of the usual speaker. The film was made during the last two years of Mrs. Matilda Wilson's life and features a tour of Meadow Brook Hall with Mrs. Wilson's comments. The film is 28 minutes long and was produced by Shelby Newhouse, noted WWJ Radio personality and a member of the Friends of Oakland University. Mr. James Hicks, manager of the Meadow Brook Festival, noted that the film is in color and has "a highly emotional impact on the audience."

The Chancellor's Ball will be held at the Kingsley Inn Grand Ballroom in Bloomfield Hills, on Friday, April 5, 1968. Ticket prices are $10.00 per couple for dinner and dance, and $4.00 per couple for the dance alone. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. following a reception at 7:00. The main course of the meal will be prime rib of beef. The dance will start at 9:30 and last until 12:30. Music will be provided by Bob Turner and his Orchestra. Tickets are on sale at the Student Activities Center, and only a limited number of dinner-dance tickets can be sold. Ticket sales will end two days prior to the Ball, on April 3.

University Elections Set For April 3,4

Next Wednesday and Thursday, April 3 and 4, are election days on Oakland's campus. University wide student elections will be held for 35 University government positions.

The 35 spots for which the candidates will be competing are 14 seats on the Student Activities Board, 15 on the College of Arts and Sciences Assembly, three seats on the University Senate, and three students to the Commission on Student Life.

To help acquaint students with the candidates, the Student Activities Board has arranged a "Meet the Candidates Meeting" scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday evening in the Gold Room on the main floor of the Oakland Center. In this issue the Observer has printed short position-qualification statements to help students choose wisely.

The Student Activities Board, sponsors of the upcoming elections, urge everyone to take an active part in selecting their representatives in the University Community. SAB officials expect some added excitement about this election, because, for the first time voting machines will be used to register the ballots cast. The machines are on loan to the University from Avon Township.

Faces Deportation

Saghir Ahmad, Assistant Professor of Sociology, has received notice from the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) in Detroit that he is subject to deportation by the U.S. Government if he does not leave the country by April 15. Ahmad has been in the United States since August 1966 on a Practical Training Visa, which expired in February, 1968. He has taught at Oakland the last two years.

Apparently, Mr. Ahmad has been ordered to leave by the INS without regard for normal administrative procedure. The letter he received on March 21, telling him to leave the country, came as a shock, since he had been assured the last four months that he would have no problems remaining in this country.

In February, when Ahmad's visa expired, the University requested the Detroit office of INS to grant him Alien Residency. University officials were informed that unless the newly-established Waiver Review Board of Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) waived the Immigration Bureau's requirement for spending a total of eight months out of the country before establishing Alien Residency, Ahmad could not remain in the country. The University then applied to the HEW Waiver Review Board for a waiver of the 8 month requirement.

When Ahmad received notice from the INS that he would have to leave the country two things became obvious: 1) contrary to administrative procedure, the INS in Detroit acted without first awaiting the advice of HEW, which is to rule on the matter April 3rd, 2) the University had not taken action to insure that Ahmad's situation in the University would remain stable. Herbert Stoutenberg, Administrative Assistant to the Chancellor, however, had acted as liaison between Varner and Ahmad, and assured Ahmad that the matter would be taken care of.

Yet when the March 21 notice was received by Ahmad, it was found that the University had made no contact with either Senator Hart or Congressman Broomfield, both of whom could take action on Ahmad's behalf. It was also discovered that the Chancellor had little knowledge as to what procedure could be taken to retain Ahmad, and that in fact, he was under the impression that Ahmad's case was routine and there was little to be done.

Since Varner has been informed as to the irregular procedure of the INS, and to the fact that the University could attempt to intercede on Ahmad's behalf, he has called Senator Hart's office to try to save the situation. Hart can attempt to influence the HEW decision, or he can introduce a private bill to retain Ahmad in the country.

As the matter stands at present, the INS ruling will remain in effect unless the HEW Review Board waives Ahmad's eight month departure requirement. Since the INS has already usurped procedural authority in the matter, it remains unclear as to what effect such a ruling would have. It also remains unclear as to the reason the INS is behaving in such an abrupt and irregular manner in the first place.

To support Chancellor Varner's efforts through Senator Hart and HEW to keep Ahmad in the country, a student "Ad Hoc Movement Against Deportation" Committee has been formed. The group is circulating a petition supporting Varner's efforts which will be sent to Senator Hart. The committee urges that all those concerned should write to Senator Hart immediately expressing support for Professor Ahmad.

OU Students Aid McCarthy In Waukesha

Last Friday, 27 Oakland students traveled to Wisconsin to canvass for Senator Eugene McCarthy for President. The students left Oakland at 10:00 Friday morning and returned at 3:00 a.m., Monday morning. This weekend, a similar trip, involving at least 75 Oakland students, is planned.

The trip began with a short rally at Metropolitan Airport to welcome Senator McCarthy to Michigan. McCarthy gave a short speech and at 3:30, the students then left for Wisconsin aboard four Greyhound buses.

The students arrived at Waukesha, Wisconsin, a small town 20 miles west of Milwaukee, at 10:30, Friday night. Though they had been told that food and lodging would be paid for out of the $10 they paid at the start of the trip, this did not prove to be true. The people of Waukesha contributed large amounts of food, students still had to pay for many of their meals, and some were forced to pay 50 cents per night to sleep in the gym of a local college.

On Saturday, organized canvassing began. Each student was given a list of registered voters and a map with the streets where these people lived. They were then briefed on McCarthy's stands on various issues and given a summary of the topics which might be of concern to the people of Waukesha. In as diplomatic a manner as possible, boys with beards and girls in mini-skirts were asked to work in the office rather than canvass.

University Senate

Editor's note:

The following are position statements made by the candidates in the Student Government Elections. Not included are statements from candidates running in the following uncontested races: Chairmanship for the Student Activities Board, Executive Board, and the Assembly of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Cynthia Attwood... My qualifications for the University Senate center around the fact that I am now a Senator. Although I at times object to candidates who run on their experience, that is just what I'm doing. Because I feel that in order to be a good Senator, it is necessary to have worked with the Senate. I will work as hard next year as I have this year to be a good student representative.

David F. Black... Throughout my six semesters at Oakland, I have been very active in efforts to institute change within the University Community. If elected to the University Senate, I want to make my militant voice heard so as to insure that students have a direct say in making the decisions that effect our lives.

Charles DeRousie... Present and future decisions of the University Senate will have a direct impact on the goals of the University. Students' interests should be a prime concern in these decisions. I will represent the best interests of the students and will work for the realization of these interests.

David Robert Mandy... The academic rulings of this organization affect the entire student body. The importance of the few student representatives to delineate student views, ideas, and suggestions is imperative. Since I've been a resident and commuter, a member of the Parking Appeals Board, and a club president, I feel that I can best represent the student attitude.

Frank J. Richter... My qualifications are, University Senate, one year, Editor of Student Review of Faculty, Oakland Undiapered. I hope to continue my efforts on the University Senate, to assure the students of Oakland University, a meaningful voice in the Academic policy decisions that will affect their daily lives. I feel that my three years at Oakland together with one year's experience as a University Senator have given me the background and ability to responsibly run for this position.

Robert Simmer... I believe my positions in the past year as president of Commuter Council and a member of various other groups qualify me to run. My platform is to publish and distribute impending actions of the Senate which are relevant to the student, rather than just becoming elected and then forgetting the students whom I represent.

Dave Yennior... I favor: (1) non-priority parking for personnel and students alike (2) uniform law enforcement (3) Cafeterias for commuters and residents combined (4) SAB and Pub. Bd. merger (5) return to OU's "founding principles" (6) opening all 1400 acres to hikers (7) conserving Oakland's natural beauty (8) unionization of student employees (9) standardized grading system (10) student prices for all Meadowbrook and Fernald performances (11) "open houses in accordance with U of M (12) full civil rights in athletics (13) increased student role in decision-making.

Commission on Student Life

Lloyd T. Collins... Through my experience as floor Vice President and Vandenberg Social Council Representative I have become familiar with many aspects of student life. I also gained valuable experience with campus wide activities through my participation in Dorm Social Council. I am sensitive to the needs and desires of students and have both the time and energy to do justice to this office.

Marlene L. Ellis... As a 1968 delegate to the National Association of College and University Residence Halls (NACURH), I have found that in comparison with other Universities, Oakland does not have a communication problem between administration, faculty and students. However, this doesn't mean that there isn't a need for extensive improvement of administration, faculty and student relations. I feel that now is the time for students in this institution to elect leaders who will work towards solving this problem as well as the many other difficulties that the students of this university face. As a candidate to the Commission on Student Life and the Activities Board Planning Committee, I feel that if elected to either or both of these positions I will assuredly help to terminate our communication problem, to recommend that University funds should be allocated to the newly formed Human Relations Council, so as to increase its stability, to suggest a change in the housing contract rulings, and to advise in the planning of student affairs.

Steve Gaynor... There are many little conveniences that could be introduced to enhance campus life. An example would be park benches around Beer Lake or shady spots on campus. Another idea would be to have a nature trail in the woods behind the barn theatre. These and similar programs would make campus life much more enjoyable.

Marsha Guerrin... I am an interested student running for the Commission on Student Life. As qualifications I was involved in my high school student government in Virginia as representative to the Activities Council. I feel the Commission should mainly define the rights of the students in regard to the University and feel that this interest can best be used on the Committee on Student Legal and Social Rights within the Commission.

Hannah Kornheiser... While our future as a University remains uncertain because of what some of us feel is legislative ineptitude there are other problems we must contend with. Besides academic matters such as the confusing grading system, the non-academic question of recruiters and freedom of speech on campus must be solved.

Dick Nickols... If I'm elected, I will, to the best of my ability, work not only to maintain the present standard of the Commission, but to improve upon it. I feel confident that if the students at Oakland place their trust in me, I will prove myself worthy of their trust.

Linda Rosenberg... The Commission was begun last year to examine all facets of student life and make policies concerning the rights of Oakland's populace. The students, faculty and community are being effected by Oakland's growth together. Compromises must be made and my aim is to listen, question and express your voice to the committee, suggesting pro and con on the forthcoming issues--then try to make these decisions beneficial for all. I am asking for your trust and vote--

Thank You

Allocations Board

Ingo Rolf Dutzman... Having an office on the Allocations Committee is a responsibility which I have faced before and would like to face again.

Gary Lincoln... The Allocations Committee is entrusted with $15,000 of student fees. The committee appropriates money to clubs, organizations, and campus-wide projects. Among the activities it finances are the Speaker's Series, the Concert Series, the Off Campus, the Weekend Movies, the Winter Carnival, and Commuter Council. These activities are fine, but we must have more interesting activities, thus giving Oakland's students a wider social climate to function in.

David Robert Mandy... The Allocation Committee budgets the student activities fees and disperses these funds to university organizations representing the Student Body. As a resident and club president, I feel that I can best represent the Student Body as to which organizations are deserving and worthy of these funds.

David Shedlarz... The platform I am presenting encompasses three basic ideas. 1st - Through this office I will try to create a more efficient allocation of funds to groups and organizations within the university community. Secondly, I believe that I can efficiently perform the duties which this office entails because of my participation in campus government and my sincere interest in directing and forming the policies of this growing university. Thirdly, most important I will try to use this position to aid any worthwhile idea which will help to enlarge and create new activities in the university community.

James Verschuere... The Allocations Committee of 1967-1968 holds a very impressive record and I am proud to have been a part of this group. The Allocations Committee has set the precedents and guidelines which will be important for future committees. I am running because I believe the next Allocations Committee will need much help in dealing with the ever growing problems of student organizations. I feel my experience would be an asset to the next committee and I wish to offer my services as an experienced candidate, who seeks to continue to work for the students of Oakland University.

Fred Zeidman... The Allocations Committee is a responsible part of the Student Activities Board. Should I be elected, I will serve the Allocations Committee in a responsible manner. For qualifications in this area I can only offer a willingness to work which I have demonstrated in my duties with radio WVV.

University Activities Planning Committee

Jack Benson... I am experienced in the frustrations of working on the Student Activities Board. Since it looks like I'm the only member of the UAPC running for re-election it is necessary (or at least would be nice) for me to be re-elected. My platform is continuing the progress for UAPC next year. Remember: Benson Never Hedges!

Meryl Friedman... I feel qualified to hold a position on the Student Activities Board Planning Committee as I am a student who becomes involved with many campus functions and activities. I realize fully the importance of well-planned functions. If elected to the position, I hope to succeed in planning for the students - with what they want being of primary importance.

Renee Peregrine... Oakland University needs responsible student leadership and responsible student participation, as a freshman, I have felt the need for progress in this area, and I feel that I can successfully perform as a student leader. One of the most important student government areas is the University Activities Planning Committee. It is responsible for granting campus activities and funds to respective clubs. If I am elected to the UAPC I will endeavor to integrate the activities of the clubs and student interest. I will also work for the betterment of the campus as a whole. I'd appreciate your support in the coming elections.

Chris Swartout... This is my first try for a position in student government, therefore my only qualification and my platform is: "I'll try harder for you." I'll try and make O.U. an even greater place.

Mark Platt... Qualifications...House Council, Jewish Students Organization, coach for IM Basketball, Safety and Lounge Chairman for Vandenberg. We need more wide range activities at Oakland, thus bringing the student into the focus of university life. More men of the caliber of John Kenneth Galbreith (sic) are needed to enhance our Speaker's Series and the name and reputation of the University. The weekend movies have just got to be better! We just can't take another semester of those flicks! We have to stop the idea of Oakland becoming a "suitcase college" by strengthening our weekend activities.

Michael L. Rivard... That which qualifies me for this position is that I am a second-semester freshman, and I do have a grade-point average of better than a 2.3. If elected, I hope to help get the student to become a recognized part of the University through planned activities. I feel that extra-curricular activities play an important role in the education of a person especially if wide-spread participation can be obtained. I think that it is the job of the Student Activities Board's members to see to it that students are aware of what's going on, and to establish an interest in the student's to be a part of its activities. All I can promise is that I'll do my best!

Chris Swartout... This is my first try for a position in government, therefore, my only qualification and my platform is "I'll try harder for you." I'll try to make the planning committee a forward looking and dynamic group.

Michael Wagner... As a candidate for a position on the University Activities Planning Committee I favor activities which will bridge the activity gap between dorm and commuter students. The key to achieving this goal is found in two general areas: good publicity of campus events and the wise scheduling of these events. The student apathy or a good portion of it can be, I think, attributed to a lack of one or both of these things. If elected, I will do my best to see these ideas implemented.

Aid McCarthy

The people of Waukesha, for the most part, were highly receptive. Nearly all accepted the campaign material and many students were invited into the homes. What seemed to impress the people most was that the students cared enough about the election to come all the way from Detroit.

Personal Comments

To The Editor:

If the average Oakland student feels somewhat in the dark about the upcoming campus-wide Student Elections, I can't blame him. There are now 35 positions to be filled. The significance of each post has not been clarified. Commuters, in particular, are disadvantaged since notices were sent out to them only a week in advance of the petition deadline!

In the fall elections there were half as many positions to be filled and still problems arose. First, students responded poorly to the vacant posts (despite a push-back of petition deadlines.) Second, under one-third of the student body bothered to vote (although polls were open for two consecutive days.)

Nevertheless, OU blunders forward and structures a monster equivalent to 35 human bodies. If students don't wise-up fast our leadership will become even further divided and easily suppressed. I contend that the Oakland student is not apathetic-just spread too thin. We have no concentration of student power, only a diluted mess.

To the Editor:

This Sunday, when I returned from the McCarthy Campaign trip to Wisconsin at 3:00 in the morning, I found that my car had been buried under three feet of snow by Oakland's friendly Grounds and Maintenance crew. I would like to thank Officer Jack Calvert, of the Department of Public Safety, who not only loaned me his shovel, but spent half an hour of his time helping me dig out my car.

To the Editor:

In the same way that in the past it has been possible to return books and pay the fine at a later date, it has also been possible to renew books with charges on them without having pay the fine at the time of renewal. This is no longer so.

Could someone please explain this policy and its necessity?

To the Editor:

Returning to the dorms from the library, I saw the van that is used by the Meadow Brook Theatre driving off of the walk which runs from Vandenberg Hall to the Oakland Center. In its wake it left a trail of torn up grass which took two years to grow in. It seems that a group which receives so much consideration from the University and which dominates the use of some of its facilities could take a little more care with the physical properties of its host.

CHOICE 68 Left's Big Decision

by Bill Swor

For student radicals these days, the menu has been sparse. Vilified by the press and Congress, scorned by the majority of classmates, and lambasted for their flowing locks and other hygienic offenses, they seem to have nowhere to go.

Their views, remain largely ignored, and their protests, correspondingly, have disintegrated into displays of cynicism and emotional diatribes. CHOICE 68, the National Collegiate Presidential Primary, will probably either solidify the skepticism of the radicals or cause them to re-evaluate their thinking.

If a sizeable percentage of college students do participate in the election, and, indeed, do succeed in exerting some pressure over the policymakers of the country, then the radicals may well channel their energies into the drive to lower the voting age to eighteen.

If the Primary fails, however, to a long silent student moderates or to influence American policy, then leftists will probably remain convinced that only forceful and, if need be, violent action will produce acceptable political ends. But of more immediate concern is whether the radicals will participate at all in CHOICE 68.

Unfortunately, it's too soon to begin forecasting whether the radicals will respond. One fact that is certain is that they do have a chance to mobilize.

Swimmers Finish Season in Georgia

by Mike Mellen

March 19, Mr. Van Fleet and the seven team members who qualified left for the N.C.A.A. College Division Swimming Championships March 21-23 at Emory College, Atlanta, Georgia.

This final meet involved Oakland's swimming in three relays (400 yard Medley Relay, 400 and 800 yard Freestyle Relays), two individual events (100 yard Backstroke and 200 yard Individual Medley) and two diving events (one and three meter diving.) The 800 yard Freestyle Relay (Krogsrud, Mickelson, Engelhart, Campbell) averaged 1:57.0/200 yard to set a new school record of 7:41.1. Likewise the 400 yard Medley Relay (Engelhart, Krogsrud, Allar, Campbell) swam a new record of 3:52.9 and the 400 yard Freestyle Relay (Krogsrud, Mickelson, Engelhart, Campbell) swam a new record of 3:22.2. Also the individual events and Art Colton's diving were representative of their season best.

The sports staff would like to commend Mr. Corey Van Fleet and his swimmers for a job well done this year. We also hope that next year will be more successful than this year was.

It's Been Grand, Kenyon

Everyone these days is coming out with their All-America Basketball choices. This bit of March madness has been going on for years. The electors take their job quite seriously and the ones who are chosen are usually the cream of the college crop.

But it's often a very hum-drum bit of prose when the team is announced. For example, Center-Hayes, Houston. Very drab. Stanley Woodward, a New York sports writer came up with a better idea; his first team went something like this:

- C Mann, Furman
- F Proto, Col.
- F O.Sakin, U.C.
- G Awn, Wisconsin
- G Grand, Kenyon

Get the idea? With a tip of the cap to Mr. Woodward and Lyall Smith, consider these first and second teams for the 1967-1968 season.

First team

- C Sinkda Navy
- F Belzof St. Mary's
- F Crissmus Carroll
- G C. DeHurda Buffalo
- G Yurabuncha Ferris

Second Team

- C Eizuf Texas
- F Moonover Miami
- F Noaz Ark.
- G Buebupe Purdue
- G Yurinda Army

None of these lists are complete without a selection for the coach-of-the-year award. Nobody has the heart to vote against good old I. Brusswiffe, Colgate.

Korean Karate Class Commences

Tae Kwon Do, the Korean art of self-defense will soon be offered to Oakland students. The Michigan Tae Kwon Do Association will start their spring classes on April 3rd.

Tae Kwon Do is the ultimate form of karate and instead of emphasizing self-defense above all, it also aims to give the student a more meaningful life.

The course will be taught under the supervision of Sang Kyu Shim, the ranking Black Belt in the United States. Master Shim first introduced Tae Kwon Do to American servicemen ten years ago. Today it has grown to large proportions with twenty branches in the Detroit area.

Anyone interested in forming a campus club or learning more about Tae Kwon Do contact Ext. 3175.
