Men's basketball head coach walks the line of steadfast determination

Before the Mid-Con basketball tournament tipped off last Saturday, men's basketball Head Coach Greg Kampe shared with The Post what his expectations were.

"We're going there to win the thing," he said flat out and without pause.

We all know now that fate had other plans, but Kampe's play-to-win philosophy never wavered. Peer into Kampe's determined mind in an intense round of Q&A page 19
