President Bush to introduce OU student

Oakland University student and AmeriCorps volunteer Lenwood (Lenny) Compton will sit next to First Lady Laura Bush during President Bush's State of the Union address tonight in Washington, D.C. The president will introduce Compton sometime during his speech and congratulate him for his service to the community.

The White House invited Lenny to attend the speech as the president's guest and arranged for him to be flown to Washington today. Compton and President Bush first met last October when the president visited Michigan for a Republican rally.
