Career Counseling Center helps open new opportunities

Oakland University's Adult Career Counseling Center is offering free-of-charge computer-assisted career guidance and individual counseling for adults who are considering a career change or who are re-entering the job market.

The career advisers help clients through self-exploration focusing on interests, abilities and values as they apply to careers. Services include one-on-one counseling, computer and written career assessments, decision-making, educational planning, resume and cover letter writing and interviewing skills.

The Adult Career Counseling Center is open Monday through Saturday. For more information, call (248) 370-3092.

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in Oakland County, Michigan. The university has 110 bachelor's degree programs and 63 graduate degree and certificate programs. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st-century workplace and society, Oakland University is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences and the Schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Nursing and the Honors College.
