TERRACE LUNCHEONS SERVED WITH OR WITHOUT ART FOR 'DESSERT'

The Scholar Shop invites all members of the University community to lunch on Tuesdays and Wednesdays through August at Trumbull Terrace. There's a salad buffet luncheon for $2 or sandwiches served a la carte. Either way you should find dining in the sylvan setting a relief from construction-wracked Oakland Center.

The luncheons are part of the "Adventures in Art" series, featuring talk-demonstrations by area artists, fashion shows and open rehearsals of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Lunch begins at noon and the programs, for those who care to stay, start at 1:30. Admission for the symphony open rehearsals--which start at 2:30--is $1 and for all other programs 50 cents.

In the event of rain, the following schedule will be observed: luncheons served in Vandenberg Hall's dining room, the fashion shows on August 6 and 13 held in the east dining room, and lecture-demonstrations by artists given in Meadow Brook Theatre.

IT'S ROCK-A-BYE TIME Remember last year's Pop Festival--that rain-spattered event that covered the muddy Festival grounds with a wall-to-wall carpeting of bare feet, bell-bottom pants, blue sunglasses and floppy hats? Well, here it comes again. As a replacement for Jose Feliciano and the New Christie Minstrels, who canceled out of their Special Events Series engagement last week, Russ Gibbs of the Grande Ballroom in Detroit is presenting a 3½-hour show of hard rock beginning at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. It's called Michigan Rock Nite at Meadow Brook. The groups Gibbs has lined up are known as the Third Power, the Sky, All the Lonely People, the Wilson Mower Pursuit, and the Savage Grace. Admission $2.50.

SURCHARGE CONTINUES Faculty and staff, as well as those on the student payroll, are reminded by the accounting and payroll department that withholding rates in the coming weeks will be unchanged. Congress has extended the present 10 percent federal tax surcharge until August 1 and has a bill pending that will extend it to the end of 1969 but reduce it to 5 percent for the first six months of 1970.

MORE PARKING PLANNED Work has begun on the expansion of the parking lot north of Vandenberg Hall and west of Wilson Hall. The physical plant department asks your cooperation in helping keep traffic out of the construction area.

GROW A BEARD

An Oakland Chapter of the University Brothers of the Brush has been established to foster campus participation in the Rochester Centennial observance, which continues through mid-September. An invitation to join was sounded by George E. Richards (engineering) in these words: "Grow a beard, sideburns or mustache--one at a time or all at once--grow one wild hair and qualify to wear the badge of a brother. You can even cop out with a shaving permit. Do not fall victim to the restless Rochester Keystone Kops." For further details contact Richards in 142 Science, ext. 2321.

CU PAYS 5½ PERCENT

The Credit Union announces it is paying 5½ percent on new money invested in time deposits, effective right now. Interest is compounded and paid quarterly for the highest true return on time certificates in the area, according to the Credit Union.
