

Tuesday, March 27, 2001

TV star, OU alum coming to campus April 3

Oakland University alumnus Steve Blackwood will receive the 2001 Matilda Award and make a special appearance to sign his new CD, "I Don't Worry 'bout a Thing," on Tuesday, April 3, from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. at OU's Bookstore in the Oakland Center on the university's campus.

Blackwood is a jazz musician and star of "Days of Our Lives." He also has appeared on "NYPD Blue," "The Nanny" and "Dr. Quinn Medicine Woman."

Blackwood was born in Detroit and grew up in Warren. He graduated from Oakland University in 1978 with a bachelor's of English degree.

The Matilda Awards are annual awards given to honor Music, Theatre and Dance students who have excelled in performance, academics and/or service. Alumni arts achievement and community service also are recognized.

The Matilda Awards are named after Matilda Wilson, founder of Oakland University, to honor her memory and her legacy. For more information, call (248) 370-2032.

SUMMARY

Oakland University alumnus Steve Blackwood will receive the 2001 Matilda Award and make a special appearance to sign his new CD 'I Don't Worry 'bout a Thing'...

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Tuesday, March 27, 2001

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Tuesday, March 27, 2001

Article Start Date: Wednesday, November 26, 2003