OU president to deliver University Update

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

Oakland University President Gary Russi will deliver the annual University Update on Thursday, Sept. 18, at noon in Meadow Brook Theatre. Russi will examine efforts toward realizing the university's 2010 vision and its continual mission to provide a high-quality education that prepares learners for the workplace and society. Some of the topics he will focus on include:

- the university budget;
- resource development, including the capital campaign, lobbying, major research grants and partnerships;
- curricular development integral to OU's 2010 vision;
- strong undergraduate education;
- undergraduate research;
- quality graduate programs;
- growth of student services;
- inspired faculty;
- diversity;
- community outreach.

All OU students, faculty, staff and members of the community are invited to attend the address. A reception with light refreshments will follow the address.
