

Wednesday, May 23, 2001

OU faculty and staff to hold golf outing

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

Oakland University faculty, staff and retirees have a chance to take to the links Thursday, June 21, in the 24th annual OU Faculty/Staff Invitational Golf Outing.

This year's outing will be on the back nine of Katke-Cousins Golf Course. The format will be a four-person scramble with teams assigned randomly and mixed by skill level and gender. Check-in is from 5-5:15 p.m., with a 5:30 p.m. shotgun start.

Two hole-in-one contests also are scheduled, with a car being offered as one of the prizes. The make and model of the car and other prizes have yet to be determined.

Registration fees are $45 per person and include greens fees, cart, grilled dinner, beverages and snacks on the course and prizes.

Checks should be made payable to OU Faculty/Staff Golf Outing and sent to Paul Franklin, coordinator of campus programs, Center for Student Activities Office, 49 Oakland Center.

Visit the OU Faculty/Staff Invitational Golf Outing Web site to register for the event. For more information, contact Paul Franklin at (248) 370-2400 or franklin@oakland.edu.

SUMMARY

Oakland University faculty, staff and retirees have a chance to take to the links Thursday, June 21, in the 24th annual Faculty/Staff Invitational Golf Outing.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Wednesday, May 23, 2001

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Wednesday, May 23, 2001

Article Start Date: Wednesday, November 26, 2003