Meadow Brook Hall to host Family Fun Festival

Meadow Brook Hall's fourth annual Family Fun Festival, sponsored by Target, is set for Sunday, Sept. 19, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. This year's theme is inspired by Dr. Seuss, whose wildly popular characters first appeared in the 1930s.

Children and parents can meet their favorite Dr. Seuss characters in front of the hall and be escorted by "Thing One" and "Thing Two" to Knole Cottage. Once there, families may tour Knole Cottage – the built-to-scale, fully functioning playhouse of Frances Dodge – and enjoy storytelling.

For further recreation, children may take part in the "Yertle the Turtle" scavenger hunt as well as create their own hats and fishbowls and color their own "Green Eggs and Ham" placemats. Other activities include a unique twist on Twister and face painting. In keeping with the glamorous 1930s theme, children also can play dress up in costumes of the period.

Tours of the hall also will be available during the festival.

Admission to the Family Fun Festival is free. Concessions will be available for sale. For more information, visit the Meadow Brook Hall Web site or call (248) 370-3140.
