OU to host events for World AIDS Day

Oakland University is hosting events in recognition of World AIDS Day on Wednesday, Dec. 1. Events include a presentation on "Safe Sex and Preventing HIV" by the Midwest AIDS Prevention Project (MAPP) from noon to 1 p.m. in the Oakland Center's Fireside Lounge. Attendees will receive a free safe sex prevention packet.

Two sections of the AIDS Memorial Quilt also will be on display in the Fireside Lounge for the day. There also will be free HIV testing from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Oakland Center's Lake Huron Room.

All events are free and open to the public.

For more information, contact the Center for Student Activities at (248) 370-2400 or csa@oakland.edu.
