

Friday, December 3, 2004

OU hosting meeting about master's degree program

Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services is holding an information meeting about its master of arts with initial secondary teacher certification (MAT) program on Tuesday, Dec. 7, from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Doyle Center for Professional Development, located at 7273 Wing Lake Road in Bloomfield Hills.

Individuals who are interested in earning Michigan teacher certification for grades 7 through 12 are invited to attend.

The program is a collaborative effort between Oakland University and the Bloomfield Hills School District. With the exception of student teaching, classes are scheduled on evenings and weekends to accommodate adult learners.

Program information is available on the Professional Development and Education Outreach Web site or by contacting Professional Development at (248) 370-3033 or pro-development@oakland.edu.

SUMMARY

Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services is holding an information meeting about its master of arts with initial secondary teacher certification (MAT) program on Tuesday, Dec. 7, from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Doyle Center for Professional Development, located at 7273 Wing Lake Road in Bloomfield Hills.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Friday, December 3, 2004
Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Friday, December 3, 2004
Article Start Date: Friday, December 3, 2004