College fairs feature OU admissions

Future students can find out what Oakland University has to offer by attending one of almost 50 college fairs in Michigan and Ohio. OU admissions advisers also will be on hand during three national college fairs in Michigan and Ohio.

Stop by OU's table at any of the fairs to:

- ask admissions advisers questions about OU
- learn more about OU academic offerings
- get information about financial aid
- pick up an admissions package

"If you're interested, you can also schedule a time to visit Oakland University's campus to find out even more," said Samino Scott, assistant director of admissions. "Whatever you want to know about OU and the college admissions process, an OU adviser will be there to help."

OU admissions advisers will attend college fairs throughout the state from mid-September through November.
