

Monday, November 5, 2001

Saturday tours offered for future students

Oakland University is inviting high school students interested in applying to OU to get a taste of college life by visiting campus during one of the scheduled Saturday tours.

Saturday tours offer a comprehensive view of campus and student life. The tours run from 10 a.m. until noon on Nov. 10 and Dec. 1.

"Saturday tours are a really good opportunity for future students to get information straight from a current student's perspective," said Samino Scott, assistant director of admissions.

Current OU students are on hand to answer questions and give advice.

For those students who cannot attend a Saturday tour, campus tours also are held during the week. Students can participate in daily tours Monday through Friday starting at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

To reserve a spot on a weekday or Saturday tour, contact OU's Office of Admissions at (248) 370-3360 or (800) OAK-UNIV.

SUMMARY

Oakland University is inviting high school students interested in applying to OU to get a taste of college life by visiting campus during one of the scheduled Saturday tours.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, November 5, 2001

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, November 5, 2001

Article Start Date: Tuesday, December 16, 2003