Holiday Walk offers special price night

OU faculty, staff, students and alumni association members may bring family members to the annual Meadow Brook Hall Holiday Walk on Thursday, Dec. 13, for the special price of $6 per person.

The 2001 Meadow Brook Hall Holiday Walk Exhibition, "Flappers and All That Jazz" will focus on the exciting era of the 1920s, the decade in which Meadow Brook Hall was constructed, women won the right to vote, prohibition was in effect and jazz music took center stage.

A combination of family history and objects from the collection will be used to help tell the story of this tumultuous time in American history, from Matilda Dodge Wilson's early involvement in women's clubs to the incredible success of the Dodge Brothers Motor Cars, to the stock market crash of 1929.

The expanded 20-day show will run from Dec. 1 through Dec. 20 and will include three late nights by popular demand. As in the past, tours are at your own pace with docents stationed throughout the house to provide information and answer questions. The 2001 MBH Holiday Walk is sponsored by Verizon Wireless.

Objects to be exhibited include several flapper style dresses including the yellow cut velvet gown designed by Peggy Hoyt and worn by Matilda Dodge Wilson to her housewarming party in 1929. Compacts, jewelry, feather fans and other fashion accessories from the period also will be included in the exhibit.

Architectural blueprints and original drawings documenting the design, construction and decoration of Meadow Brook Hall will help to tell the story of the popularity of Tudor-revival style architecture in the 1920s.

Jazz music will play on the 1923 Steinway player piano. A collection of records, 1928 radio and a Victorola used by the family will be exhibited.

The story of Charles Lindbergh's first nonstop flight from New York to Paris will be told in Daniel Dodge's bedroom. A childhood hero of Danny's, Meadow Brook Hall's collections include numerous newspaper clippings documenting Lindbergh's life and achievements and a beautifully illustrated map of Lindbergh's famous flight.

Dolls, furniture and a child-sized tea set from Frances Dodge's playhouse will be exhibited in Frances' bedroom.

Pre-prohibition whiskey stockpiled by John Dodge will be exhibited in the Games Room and art deco objects including Lalique glass will be exhibited in the French Room.
