Snyder to receive Googasian Award

Vice President for Student Affairs Mary Beth Snyder will receive the 2001-2002 Phyllis Law Googasian Award at an award luncheon Thursday, March 21, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Oakland Center Gold Rooms.

Cost of the luncheon is $15 per person. To make a reservation, contact Laura Schartman in 511 O'Dowd Hall at (248) 370-2387.

The Phyllis Law Googasian Award recognizes women who have contributed to the advancement of women at Oakland University through distinguished leadership, scholarship, advocacy, mentoring, program development and other activities. Conferred by the OU chapter of the American Council on Education Network for women leaders, the award was created to honor Phyllis Law Googasian, Trustee Emerita, for her commitment to the university and the advancement of women.

This is the tenth year the award is being presented. Past award winners include Phyllis Law Googasian (1992), Margo King (1993), Cathy Rush and Liz Barclay (1994), Jacqueline Loughheed (1995), Jacqueline Scherer (1996), Suzanne Frankie (1998), Joan Rosen (1999), Mary Otto (2000), and Natalie Cole and Martha Zingo (2001).

The Phyllis Law Googasian Award Luncheon is being held in conjunction with the National Women's History Month activities on OU's campus.
