Transfer students invited to open house

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

Oakland University's Office of Admissions is inviting undergraduate students who are considering transferring to OU to a Transfer Open House on Thursday, April 4, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Oakland Center Gold Rooms.

Students will receive information on:

- academic programs
- admission requirements
- financial aid
- general education requirements
- transfer credit procedures

To receive a credit evaluation, students must bring their transcripts from each college attended and a self-addressed stamped envelope so the evaluation can be mailed to them.

Students also will learn about OU's educational programs, including:

- College of Arts and Sciences
- School of Business Administration
- School of Education and Human Services
- School of Engineering and Computer Science
- School of Health Sciences
- School of Nursing
- Bachelor of General Studies
- Honors College

"The students who come will get a good overall view of what we have to offer at OU," said Brenda Brendel, admissions events planning assistant. "Students can talk to representatives from many departments and services, ask questions, pick up literature, or even fill out and turn in an application if they wish. We try to offer them as much information as possible that evening."

Refreshments also will be served.

For more information, contact the Office of Admissions at (248) 370-3360, (800) OAK-UNIV or ouinfo@oakland.edu.
