

Monday, April 15, 2002

New post-master's program offered

Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services (SEHS) is accepting applications for its Post-Master's School Counseling Specialization Program. The deadline to apply for fall semester is Wednesday, May 1.

The 12-credit program is designed for individuals who have masters degrees in counseling. Course work may be completed in one year, and completion of the program can lead to a school counselor license. Classes are scheduled in the evening and on Saturdays.

For more information or to apply, visit the Department of Professional Development and Education Outreach Web site or contact them at (248) 370-3033 or pro-development@oakland.edu.

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in Oakland County, Michigan. The university has 110 bachelor degree programs and 70 graduate degree and certificate programs. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st-century workplace and society, Oakland University is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences; Schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, and Nursing; and the Honors College.

SUMMARY

Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services (SEHS) is accepting applications for its Post-Master's School Counseling Specialization Program. The deadline to apply for fall semester is Wednesday, May 1.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, April 15, 2002

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, April 15, 2002

Article Start Date: Friday, September 12, 2003