Faubus Again Tells Guard to Bar School Integration

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (P)—National Guardsmen—but only a handful—reported for duty at Central High School again today amid increasing rumors that Gov. Orval Faubus may withdraw them entirely before the end of the week.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (P)—Gov. Orval Faubus ordered the National Guard to take stations again at Central High School today and the hour of decision appeared to be approaching in the critical Little Rock integration controversy.

It is "foreseeable" that the Guards may be withdrawn this week, Faubus said in a television interview last night.

He also said "there were certain areas of agreement" that developed in his conference Saturday at Newport, R.I., with President Eisenhower.

Police Tow in 8 More Cars

Drive on Parking Violators Seen as Police-Judge Feud

The Pontiac police crackdown on drivers who owe on past parking tickets moved forward slowly over the weekend, with eight cars towed in out of 282 being sought.

The all-out drive has been interpreted by some as a feud between the department and Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum. Last week the judge ruled the city's parking ordinance unconstitutional to the extent that it permits towing in of cars for past parking tickets.

Judge McCallum said such action constituted seizure of private property without due process of law and he acquitted a defendant charged with assaulting an officer who was trying to tow the defendant's car in.

McCallum was immediately challenged by Police Chief Herbert W. Straley, who said, to his knowledge, a municipal judge has no power to declare an ordinance unconstitutional.

Straley ordered his men to pick up any car the Traffic Violation Bureau listed tickets against.

Judge McCallum, terming the chief's action "boy's play," said he would give any motorist who had his car taken in on past tickets a writ of replevin to recover the vehicle without paying an impounding fee.

Adenauer Wins Big Victory in West Germany

Increases His Majority in Favor of NATO, Western Strength

BONN, Germany (P)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer won an immense election triumph today and immediately pledged that West Germany would throw "all its political and moral weight" behind the Western alliance.

The 81-year-old chancellor was returned to power for another four years in yesterday's voting in a victory so complete it stunned his neutral-minded Socialist opponents.

It surprised even his own supporters and the Communists in East Germany were glum.

His Christian Democratic Union which won an absolute majority for the first time in a free German election four years ago not only retained that majority but increased it in an outpouring of more than 31 million votes.

Adenauer's third straight national election victory since the West German Republic was created in 1949 was a heavy blow to the Soviet Union and a triumph for the United States.

Fearful of West Germany's mounting economic and military power, the Russians had pulled all possible strings in an effort to defeat the iron-willed chancellor.

So confident of success that he did not wait up for the final returns last night, Adenauer was smiling and joking when he met reporters at the chancellery entrance this morning.

He interpreted the election results as a strengthening of "the forces seeking world peace." The world had waited in doubt for the result, he said, wondering whether Russia's hopes that Bonn would quit NATO would be realized.

Only Steak Smokes at This Club's Party

FAIR LAWN, N.J. (P)—The only thing that smoked at the beef steak dinner given by Nerhard W. Bess here yesterday was the steak itself. None of the guests did.

The affair at Bess' home was the annual dinner for members of "Nictotine Anonymous."

Bess used to smoke 10 cigars a day plus cigarettes and a pipe until quitting six years ago on doctor's orders. He formed the group with 60 others who meet at his home each year and give a contribution for medical research.

Bess, a textile manufacturer, said that only one former member has fallen back into the habit since the group's existence.

SUMMONS ISSUED
U.S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies issued a summons to Faubus to appear Friday for a hearing on a petition to enjoin him from interfering with the enrollment of the Negroes.

Faubus' information and FBI reports presumably will be aired together—if the hearing takes place at all.

It appeared today that unless some specific word comes from Faubus, Negro students will not attempt to test the situation by again trying to enroll at Central High.

Probe May Call Teamster Before Union Election

Hoffa Hearing Hangs Fire

WASHINGTON (INS)—Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) will meet with racketeers committee investigators today to decide whether to resume hearings on Teamster Vice President James R. Hoffa prior to the union's election.

Chairman McClellan also will receive a report from counsel Robert F. Kennedy on what the latter called a "productive" eight-day investigation of Hoffa's activities in his home town of Detroit.

The Teamster vice president was kept under subpoena at recent hearings after being accused of a tie-up with New York racketeers Johnny Dio and questionable use of union funds.

Hoffa, through his attorney, George S. Fitzgerald, asked that he not be called for any hearings between next Wednesday and the Teamsters convention which opens Sept. 30 in Miami.

If Hoffa's reappearance before the committee is delayed, Kennedy said, there was a possibility sessions could be held on the new material without his presence.

McClellan returned to Washington yesterday after a vacation in Hot Springs, Ark.

In Detroit, Republican State Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemeyer says his state party won't seek Teamster boss James R. Hoffa's support when it tries to crack the Democratic hold on the labor vote in the 1958 gubernatorial election.

Meanwhile, in Chicago, Thomas J. Haggerty, former milkman who seeks presidency of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, today claimed backing of the 12,000-member General Truck Drivers Union, Local 938, of Toronto, Canada.

Haggerty said he plans to campaign in the East next week.

Peter J. Hoban, Haggerty's campaign manager, announced the Toronto local's endorsement and that of Local 835 of Gary, Ind.

Hoban is president of the Chicago Milk Wagon Driver's Union, Local 733, of which 52-year-old Haggerty is secretary-treasurer.

Hoffa has claimed support of 75 per cent of the international union's convention delegates. Haggerty took sharp issue with this claim.

The Chicago candidate said that he will move at the Miami Beach convention for an election by secret ballot, to "enable each delegate to vote as his conscience dictates, without pressure or intimidation by floor campaigners for any candidate."

Budget Drawn for Supervisors

$10.7 Million Suggested After Committee Hassle Over Appraisers

A $10,732,014 budget was recommended to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors today, following controversy over appraisers appointed by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore.

The budget was tabled one week for study.

The Legislative Committee was given until January to study the present system of appraisals under which it is possible for Judge Moore to appoint as appraisers supervisors who ultimately control his salary.

A motion by Mrs. Harrie Phillips of Huntington Woods met opposition from Oscar Beamer of Hazel Park and five other supervisors. Mrs. Phillips said she wanted the committee to have time to study the question in "peace and quiet."

Beamer, however, urged that supervisors go on record immediately as opposing Probate Court appointments to supervisors who are not attorneys.

A parliamentary hassle on the question was resolved when Pontiac Supervisor Robert R. Boyer called for an end to the debate. The vote for the motion was 66 to 6.

Mrs. Phillips said there are two basic weaknesses in the Oakland County form of government. City supervisors, she said, are appointed and "not really representative" and the Board of Supervisors has to rely far too much on committee reports.

Phone Installers Picket in Pontiac

Join Nationwide Strike; Dial Calls Go Through, Long Distance Tied Up

Telephone installers of the Western Electric Co. were picketing the Pontiac office of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. at 54 E. Huron St. as part of the nationwide walkout which began at 6 a.m.

Fifty per cent of Michigan Bell employees, including 62 operators, refused to cross picket lines to report for work, according to Raymond H. Storm, Pontiac district manager.

However, only long distance calls and others requiring an operator will be affected by the strike, he said. Use of supervisory personnel will restore "nearly normal" service by mid-afternoon, Storm said.

Hampered also by the walkout will be installation of new phones in the Pontiac area. In outlying county areas, where installers rely on assignments by technicians from the Pontiac office, work will go on until present assignments run out.

Involved in the nation are 23,800 installers in 44 states and the District of Columbia. The four states not affected are Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Montana where local telephone companies maintain their own equipment.

DIAL SYSTEM OPERATING

Storm said local calls, virtually all by dial system, were going through as usual.

The installers are members of Local 4090 of the Communication Workers of America, AFL-CIO. A total of 1,050 are expected to be affected in Michigan.

Postmidnight negotiations failed early today to avert the walkout. Talks were scheduled to resume later today.

The strike is against the Western Electric Co., manufacturing arm of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The principal issues upon which the negotiations stalled were wages, allowance for travel time, and the duration of a contract.

3 SIGN CONTRACTS

A Western Electric spokesman said three of its small manufacturing plants had signed contracts this morning covering 2,200 installers in Minnesota, Nebraska and New York.

The CWA called 18,500 employees off the job when the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. was struck at 6 a.m. Forty-five cities were hit.

The 25 pickets in Pontiac formed with signs around 6:30.

Expected to be slowed by the strike was the completion of installing the phone and inter-communication systems at the new Public Safety Building.

Northeast Plane Falls in Swamp on Foggy Flight

DC 3 From Boston to New York Cracks Up Near New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (P)—A Northeast Airlines plane with 24 persons aboard, flying from Boston to New York through fog, crashed and broke up in a wooded swamp last night.

The pilot, copilot and eight passengers were killed. Thirteen passengers and the hostess were injured and hospitalized. Doctors placed the names of at least five on the danger list.

The plane was only half a mile from the New Bedford Municipal Airport and was preparing to make a scheduled instrument landing when it crashed through trees and swamp growth and cracked up on a tiny knoll.

Two airport employees said they heard the plane crash at 8:50 p.m., but it was nearly three hours before the first rescue team could reach the scene.

The only access to the spot was by foot. Fire fighters' ladders were used as bridges across the swamp and the adjoining Paskamansett River.

Dr. Robert Siegel, 46, gave this description: "The swamp was soggy and mud and water oozed up to our knees when we first attempted to cross it. We broke branches to form a bridge and tried again. After several attempts we made it."

"Some people were outside the plane. They were moaning. We entered the plane first. We checked the dead. We got hypoxia to the survivors and bandaged the injured."

George Nelson, building custodian at the airport, said on his return from the crash scene: "Both wings of the plane were ripped off, and it looked like the plane had nosed in at a 45-degree angle. The fuselage was torn open like an eggshell. The nose of the plane was about 50 feet from the fuselage."

George H. Danforth, 55, New York, one of the passengers, said: "When I came to, believe it or not, I was 30 feet away from the plane. I was strapped in my seat." (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Police Careers At Stake Today

Circuit Court to Review 1 Case; Civil Service to Decide 2 Others

The careers of three Pontiac police officers are in the legal machinery today as the circuit court agreed to review the firing of one officer and the Civil Service Commission meets tonight to decide on the firing of two others.

Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland agreed this morning to review the firing of Patrolman Louis Romeo dismissed by the commission on July 9 on charges of insubordination.

Judge Holland denied a motion by City Attorney William Ewart to reject the petition of review on technical grounds and gave Ewart 15 days to produce the transcript of Romeo's hearing before the Civil Service Commission and file his answer to charges that the commission's decision was unfair.

At 7:30 tonight, the commission will hold a public hearing to decide whether or not to fire Det. Sgt. Raymond Meggitt and Det. Robert Emery.

Both men have been accused of dereliction of duty in allowing an arrested suspect to escape on Sept. 5.

The officers maintain their dismissal is neither merited nor properly documented under state law.

Meggitt is a candidate for president of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn., and Emery a candidate for vice president. They maintain Meggitt's activities in the association lies behind the dismissal charges brought against them.

Husband Slayer at Peace in Jail

Sledgehammer Weapon of Wife Who Feared 'Jekyll-Hyde' Mate

DETROIT (INS)—A 30-year-old Detroit mother of three said today that for the first time in five years she found peace—in jail.

Five-foot, 11-inch Mrs. Margaret Smar admitted to homicide detectives that she battered her husband, Michael, 36, to death with a two-pound sledgehammer Saturday night.

She said last night in jail was the most peaceful night she has had in years and she asked that she be allowed to remain there.

The 170-pound woman said she lived in constant fear of her husband who she described as a "Jekyll-Hyde character who was a 'nice guy' at work and a 'big man' in local saloons." She said, "he kicked me around where it wouldn't show."

According to a police report, Mrs. Smar waylaid her husband when he came home from work Saturday. She struck him two or three times with the sledgehammer, police said, then strangled him with a dish towel "because I couldn't stand his dying moans."

Her 150-pound husband, Michael, was her second who she married "because I felt sorry for him. He drank all day."

She described her first husband, father of her eldest child, as "a drunken bum," but said she married him because her mother urged it.

Mrs. Smar said her husband, a machinist's helper at the Detroit News, was always in debt and refused to give her money "for doctors or for shots and tranquilizer pills for my nerves."

Milford Driver Leaves No Doubt Where He Went

A Milford man accused of drunk driving has his day in court Saturday, with just cause.

South Lyon Justice of the Peace Bernard Snell levied a fine of $70 and costs of $10 when he learned: The driver veered from the road, crashed through the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lloyd, 404 Pontiac Trail.

He went through one side of the Lloyd garage, and out the other, trailing lawn equipment.

Continuing his destructive course, he drove another 30 feet before ramming the Lloyd house, jarring the stove and moving the bathtub. The 58-year-old driver? He was unhurt.

Is it true that many moving things veer to the right in this hemisphere? Do they veer to the left in the southern hemisphere? Yes, it is true that in this hemisphere things veer to the right. A shell from a big gun will veer several feet to the right when fired in the northern latitudes, if it travels several miles.

Ocean currents veer to the right in this hemisphere, as does weather—such as the hurricane. This tendency is known as either Coriolis Force or Ferrel's law. And it is reversed when we cross the equator.

In the southern hemisphere things veer to the left. So when people talk about the veer to the right, there is something to it. Whether this force affects vines growing around trees, water in the sink, etc., is still a matter of debate.

13 Meet Death in State Traffic

Two Women Killed in Separate, Similar Nearby Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thirteen persons were killed in Michigan weekend traffic accidents, but cooling fall weather and rain eliminated the usual summer rash of drownings.

Two women, both in cars driven by their husbands, were killed on U.S. 131 on the outskirts of Grand Rapids within a mile and a half of each other Sunday night in separate accidents.

Mrs. Esther Freyermuth, 56, Lowell, was killed when a car driven by her husband, Carl, collided with another. And Mrs. Cornelia Kamp, also 56, Grand Rapids, was killed when a car driven by her husband, Anthony, collided with another.

Carl W. Cox, 35, of Elkhart, Ind., was killed Sunday night on U.S. 112, 15 miles west of White Pigeon when his car went out of control, sideswiped another and struck two trees.

Robert C. Clark, 40, and his son, William, 21, both of Mesick, were killed Friday night when their car collided with a school bus carrying 32 Middleville High School football players to practice near Hastings.

Dause Jones, 30, Rosebush, was killed Saturday in a car that collided with a parked truck on U.S. 27 in Harrison.

Anthony D. Betzing, 34, Pontiac, was killed Saturday when his car hit a parked truck in Pontiac.

Mrs. Rose Michaels, 60, Manistique, was struck and killed by a car while walking near Manistique Saturday.

John Leslie Barrett, 37, Hubbard Lake, and Raymond Robert Beyer, 24, Alpena, were killed Sunday in a two-car head-on collision in Ossineke Township.

Harold Nelson, 21, Otsego, and his 18-year-old wife, Mildred, were killed Sunday when their convertible missed a curve and overturned in Van Buren County.

Patricia Nelson, 18, Sundell, was injured fatally Sunday in a three-car pileup one mile south of AuTrain. Four others were injured, one seriously.

seize property without a court order and force people to plead guilty without even a court hearing, they are mistaken," the judge said. "A parking ticket doesn't mean anything legally until the police swear out a warrant against the offender and that is the way they should proceed."

The judge noted that because the police have tickets against a given license number, it does not mean the owner is guilty. "It could easily be that another person was driving the car when the violation occurred. The owner is entitled to his day in court if he wants it."

Chief Straley retorted, "Until the city commission repeals the ordinance, we will enforce it. That is our sworn duty."

Neither the city attorney nor the city manager has volunteered to enter the dispute, William Ewart said. "The police did not consult the city's legal department on the implications of the judge's ruling and we have no official comment," City Manager Walter K. Willman said. "This is a matter strictly for the chief to decide, not me."

Zoo Is Setting of Shower for Hippopotamus

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Cleo, the expectant hippopotamus, was guest of honor yesterday at one of the biggest baby showers ever held in these parts.

Between 4,000 and 5,000 persons, most of them children, gathered at the Swope Park Zoo for the affair.

Cleo waddled out of her pool and watched the opening of gifts—apples, carrots, cabbage and 21 bales of hay with red and white ribbons on each bale.

Baby bottles were the 5-gallon economy size, with a 1-gallon size for "night feedings."

Cleo gazed impassively until two men held up a hippopotamus diaper—an 8-foot-square of canvas. Then she opened her cavernous mouth wide as possible.

"Look, she's laughing," shouted a little boy.

She probably was. Cleo couldn't have been yawning at her own party because William T. A. Cully, zoo director, says she is very refined.

with my head down and my feet up, looking up into a sea of mud." "Danforth suffered only a rib fracture.

The plane a twin-engine DC3, was on a flight from Boston to Hyannis, Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard, New Bedford and New York.

LATE DEPARTURE
Due in New Bedford at 7:42 p.m., it took off from Martha's Vineyard almost an hour late because of the murky weather.

Wesley Lagoon, on duty at the New Bedford airport control tower, last heard from the plane at 8:46 p.m.

He said the plane radioed the control tower that it was making a routine approach on instrument landing. Lagoon called back but got no response.

He said the ceiling at the airport was 200 feet; visibility was one mile and it was foggy.

Four minutes after contacting the airport, the plane crashed. It broke up into several sections but there was no fire.

NO WARNING

Nancy Lehan, 24, Brockton, Mass., the stewardess, said the plane was making the approach to New Bedford airport when it hit tree tops and crashed. She added that there was no warning of the crash.

Miss Lehan's injuries were listed as fractured pelvis and leg and a possible punctured lung.

The pilot, Vincent L. Pitts, 35, Wellesley, Mass., was a combat flyer in World War II and flew in the Berlin airlift of 1948-49 before he was made a flight captain by Northeast Airlines in 1953.

Copilot Roger W. Sweetland Jr., 33, Arlington, Mass., joined Northeast as a pilot in 1952 and was made flight captain in November 1956.

Charles A. Chace, a vice president of the First National City Bank of New York, died of injuries more than seven hours after the crash.

THOSE INJURED

Among the injured treated at St. Luke's Hospital was Mrs. Joan von Koschembahr, 32, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, daughter of millionaire industrialist Charles Grief Raible of Cleveland and wife of a German baron.

Also injured was Buford Rubin, 30, operator of a Washington public relations firm, who boarded the plane at Martha's Vineyard with Mrs. von Koschembahr.

Pontiac Asked to Lease Buses

Request by City Lines Results From Growing Loss of Revenue

Officials of the Pontiac City Lines, Inc., have asked the city to consider leasing the company to help pull it out of the red.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said he would arrange a meeting with officials so that the proposal could be outlined in detail. He added he might confer with city officials in Jackson, where such an arrangement has been worked out.

The company has been steadily losing money due to lowering patronage, especially during the past eight months, according to E. W. Dreescher, transportation superintendent. It made only $537 during July, with August profits being worse, he explained.

Dreescher mentioned that another alternative might be increasing fares. "But this usually scares off the riders," he stated.

The leasing proposal would exempt the company from paying $17,000 in city taxes annually, the official said. The proposal would mean the firm would continue to run the lines under lease by the city.

The firm has been operating in Pontiac since 1936 as a subsidiary of the National City Lines, Inc., of Chicago.

Begin Wrapping Cables on Mackinac Bridge

ST. IGNACE, Mich. (AP)—The last major construction job preceding completion of the Mackinac Bridge gets underway today when workers begin wrapping the cables on the 100 million dollar span.

Huge wrapping machines will start about a quarter of the way up the north tower and wrap toward each other.

Each machine will wrap three wires over a heavy coating of red lead and pull it up water-tight. The final wrapping will be coated with three layers of paint.

The bridge is scheduled to open Nov. 1.

Detroiters Pay Last Respects to Mayor Cobo

DETROIT (AP)—Hundreds of city employees left their jobs early today to pay their last respects to Mayor Albert E. Cobo. The body of the 63-year-old mayor who died last Thursday after a heart attack has lain in state at a Highland Park funeral home since Saturday morning.

He was to be taken to the Scottish Rite Cathedral at Masonic Temple shortly after noon today for the final Masonic rites to be conducted by the Detroit Commandery, No. 1 of Knights Templar, with Canon Charles W. Hughes of St. Alban's Episcopal Church officiating.

Cobo, who served as mayor for nearly eight years, will be buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

All city courts planned to close at noon today in respect for the mayor and City Controller John H. Witherspoon recommended that city offices also close then to permit employees to attend the funeral.

More than 8,000 persons filed past the mayor's bier Friday afternoon when his body lay in state for nearly three hours in the lobby of the City-County Building.

Some 3,000 persons viewed the mayor as he lay in state at the funeral home, among them his widow, Mrs. Ethel Cobo, and his two daughters, Mrs. Jean Colman and Mrs. Elaine Hurst.

Standard Cuts Price on Gas to Its Dealers

The Standard Oil Co. announced this morning that it will reduce the price of both standard and premium gasoline to its dealers, one cent per gallon.

The reduction will be effective immediately in the Detroit Metropolitan and Pontiac area, according to Frank J. Swindell, Detroit Division Manager. It follows a reduction of 1.9 cents per gallon announced Aug. 13.

Swindell said that the temporary reduction is being made to enable the company's dealers to be more competitive at the retail level. Although the dealers' price cannot be set by the company it is expected that all dealers will follow suit, reducing the retail price accordingly.

Car Crash Injures 2 Slightly on Saturday

Two persons were injured Saturday night in an auto accident on Auburn Ave., at East Blvd.

Sylvia L. deSteiger, 23, of 59 Monroe St., hit a car making a left turn in front of her at the intersection. She suffered chest injuries and was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where she was treated and released.

The other driver, Herman E. Goodman, 24, of Van Dyke, was not hurt, but a passenger, Garry L. May, 6, of 258 Osmon St., was bruised.

Jet Plane Accompaniment American Legion Parades

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The colorful American Legion parades some 50,000 strong on the boardwalk of this famed resort city today with a jet plane accompaniment. Up to half a million spectators were expected.

The holiday spirit of the parade came between committee meetings and the opening tomorrow of general sessions of the Legion's 39th annual convention.

The 12-hour parade, probably the largest anywhere in the world, was being staged for the first time here.

Vast quantities of remedies for the treatment of bilsters were waiting at the end of the line of march.

Storm Carrie Near Bermuda

Air Force Pulls Back Planes; Hurricane Is 175 Miles Away

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Carrie threatened Bermuda with 50-mile-an-hour winds today and the Air Force pulled back its hurricane hunter airplanes to safety at West Palm Beach, Fla.

Six of the B50s, including one crippled ship, were ordered back. Two of the aircraft were held on the ground at the island resort, 900 miles east-southeast of Cape Hatteras, N. C., and would fly into the eye of the storm before heading for the Florida base, the Air Force said.

The Air Force laid plans for staggering flights and keeping one plane with the storm at all times.

One B50, which lost an engine while tracking Carrie, was limping into West Palm Beach today under the command of Capt. Nick Kanter, a former Detroit detective.

The Weather Bureau's 5 a.m. EST. advisory said the storm, with peak winds of 115 miles an hour, was located by aircraft 175 miles east of Bermuda. Little change was expected in size or intensity the following 12 hours.

Meanwhile, the Weather Bureau at New Orleans reported a tropical depression in the Gulf of Mexico and predicted some 'buildup' through today. The bureau said that the low pressure area was about 500 miles south of the Louisiana coast with estimated winds of 25 m.p.h. in squalls.

Hysteria Rules as Russians Flee 'End of World'

MOSCOW (AP)—A science fiction story about the end of the earth sent hysterical residents of a Black Sea city fleeing into the country, the newspaper Soviet Russia reports.

The trouble was caused by a serialized story in the newspaper at Tuapse telling them of a huge fiery mass rushing toward the earth.

Deciding that this yarn had the fabric of truth, some Tuapse residents sold or deserted their belongings and fled, Soviet Russia reported yesterday.

If they had just stayed around for the final installment their fears might have been eased. The last chapter told of how Soviet scientists destroyed the approaching fiery mass.

Have Same Names But Different Injuries

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—Emmanuel Pimental suffered a broken leg today when struck by an ambulance en route to St. Luke's Hospital from the scene of a Northeast Airlines crash.

The ambulance was taking Armand Pimental (no relation), a rescuer who had collapsed, to the hospital. Armand was discharged after treatment. Emmanuel was held.

The Day in Birmingham No Hearings, Lawmakers Process Communications

BIRMINGHAM — For the first time in many weeks, no public hearings are scheduled for tonight's commission meeting. Commissioners, however, will process a number of communications including one from Attorney Forbes S. Hascall.

Hascall, representing the Birmingham Eccentric, informs commissioners that there is a discrepancy in Assessors Plat No. 3, concerning the property on the east side of Maple Avenue, between Elm street and Adams road.

The Eccentric, he said, has purchased property there, for the construction of a new business building.

The discrepancy of lot lines makes it unadvisable for the company to start construction, he said. Hascall asks that the matter be given immediate attention by city officials.

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley will present a report on the action of license traffic courts, with the idea of possibly establishing such a court in Birmingham.

Moxley said the police department has for some time studied procedures in other cities, particularly Flint. The teenage court there, he feels, is the best in the area.

His report to commissioners will include a complete summary of the Flint court and an endorsement from Probate Judge Arthur Moore.

Judge Moore has agreed to assist in the formation of such a court here.

Moxley concluded by saying that Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, school superintendent, is in full agreement with the plan and desires to present it to the school board at its meeting tomorrow.

Bloomfield Village PTA, under the chairmanship of Mrs. F. J. Kreissel is planning its annual fair for Oct. 25. Booth classifications and chairmen already have been named.

Mrs. Thomas Restrict is co-chairman, with Mrs. W. C. Heller in charge of publicity.

Clarence A. Davis Service for Clarence A. Davis, 71, of 27215 Springbar Rd., will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Presentation Church, Detroit. His body is at the Ted C. Sullivan Funeral Home, West McNichols road, Detroit.

Mr. Davis, who died Saturday,

Adenauer Triumphs in German Election will be a safe foundation for the policies of NATO under the leadership of the United States," he said slowly and deliberately.

"Germany will be able to give all its political and moral weight to this policy."

"The aims of the policy are a controlled disarmament, a relaxation of international tension, reunification of Germany and genuine peace for all nations."

The Adenauer victory was a bitter pill to 56-year-old Erich Ollenhauer, the Social Democratic leader who wanted West Germany to turn to a more neutral position between East and West.

Wilhelm Muelles, Ollenhauer's chief lieutenant, commented that both the United States and Russia had contributed to the Adenauer victory. The bitter Communist opposition to Adenauer helped him, Muelles argued. The fact that the strength, he added, "deserves respect because the whole world was against us."

The Communist East German radio said the Adenauer victory was won by "terror in the style of Hitler's storm troops" and threatened European peace. The West German Socialists, it added, had failed to make the best of their opportunities.

A victory for the Socialists could have forced a drastic readjustment of U. S. policy in Europe.

As the Socialists and minor parties conceded defeat, Speaker Eugene Gerstenmaier announced the new Parliament will convene Oct. 10 or 11 in Berlin, the old capital of the Reich.

Presumably Parliament will use this session 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain of Communist East Germany to name Adenauer to his third term as chancellor. The East German propaganda machine kept up its attack on Adenauer to the very last.

Right Solution Now Brings Winner $200

Winners may have emptied the pot, but already it's back at the $200 mark. Surely it's worth a few minutes of time and fun for a try at removing the cash from Pot-O-Gold again.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

Female Robin Hood Turns Into Diplomat

By PHYLIS BATTLE
NEW YORK (INS) — The cool hands and the warm impulses of "The White Witch" of plastic surgery have been at work again.
Among the readers, there may be some who have not heard of "the witch," for she lives and loves and operates (literally, as well as figuratively) in unusual ways.
Her name is Dr. Genia Sakin, and the reason she was given her dramatic title are two: First, she is lovely and almost platinum blonde and second, there is sorcery in her fingers.

Dr. Sakin has a Robin Hoodian outlook on life. She charges high fees for her plastic surgery, and then spends the money gaily upon rich people in New York to travel the world, performing thousands of operations, free of charge, upon the faces and bodies of the poor.

"I just run out of money," she says, in a heavy Yugoslavian accent, "so I am home. This time I have a message to give people."

MISSION OF MERCY
Dr. Sakin's latest mission of mercy was in Japan and Manila, where in a few months she performed approximately 500 free "reconstruction operations" on Oriental victims of war and disease. But on this trip, she also found time to stir up an emotional revolution which promises to ease the tense relationship between Japan and America, made taut by the controversial Girard case.

"The first night I arrived in Tokyo I was alone, so I picked up a paper in English, and the whole thing is filled up with the Girard case," she recalls. "And the way they write it—in a very angry tone — I know there is hatred against Americans in Japan."

It occurred to Dr. Sakin immediately that the American people in Japan should be doing something for the six children of Mrs. Naka Sakai, the victim of the tragic case—if not purely for humanitarian reasons, "then at least to make life more easy with the neighbors."

NOTHING DONE
But nothing was done. And during the next two months, as the blonde surgeon traveled from Tokyo, to Osaka, to Hiroshima, performing her hundreds of surgical miracles, she became more and more "shocked."

"The papers everywhere keep raving, the hatred keeps growing, and Americans keep doing nothing. Finally I can't bear it, and I fly back to Tokyo and tell a doctor who speaks some English that I am going to call on the Sakai family, if only to express my sympathy."

When it came to any new angle on a matter as touchy as the Girard case, news traveled fast. In one day, while Dr. Sakin was preparing to travel the 70 miles from Tokyo to the Sakai home—while she was asking directions and arranging for an interpreter—the newspapers, radio and TV stations became aware of what she was up to.

As a result, when the blonde witch removed her shoes at the humble stoop of the Sakai home and walked in to exchange ideas and tears with the widower and his children ("I put on already dark glasses; I knew I'd cry"), the event was fully reported by a crew of cameras and reporters.

On that day, Dr. Sakin—in her usual selfless fashion—pledged all the yen she had left to be put into a "Sakai family fund."

at the Mitsubishi Bank Ltd., of Tokyo, and urged that all other Americans help too. "A Japanese man without a woman is helpless, awful sight," she says, "and six children must not grow up to hate. . ."

On her way back to the U. S., Dr. Sakin spent seven weeks in Manila, performing free operations. As she returned this week, she expected to find that her "fund" had grown immensely, but instead she discovered: "Only the poor Japanese, those I operated on and some others, have contributed. The Americans have done nothing."

Dr. Sakin began her healing career at the age of five in Yugoslavia, sewing up the ripped ear of a baby goat with ordinary needle and thread. She did it single-handedly.
It appears this may be just one more operation she must handle alone.

On 2 Fronts — Words, Credit

Fight Against High Prices

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — The battle against rising prices has been waged largely on two fronts — words and credit.

Denunciation of the rising cost of living has been heard all over the land from cottages to the White House. The Federal Reserve Board has tried to hold down speculative inflation by keeping borrowing expensive and credit hard to get.

Prices have kept right on rising, nevertheless.
Must the cost of living keep on rising if everyone is to have a well-paying job? Can we get stable or lower prices only by risking or inviting a depression? That is the direction the debate is taking now.

Prices on many goods go on rising although there are many signs that demand is slackening.

This gives a rosy if somewhat dubious glow to many statistics, such as retail sales, inventories, the total of personal incomes.

To keep the financial aspects of the price upsurge under constant study President Eisenhower is setting up a group of top flight officials.

Effectiveness of the Federal Reserve's policy of keeping money tight is confirmed today by the U. S. Treasury in offering investors 4 per cent on three billion dollars of its securities — an offer that sent down the price of its older bonds, bearing a much lower interest rate.

Although many now think a slackening in business activity is more likely than a resumption of the boom, they doubt if this in itself will halt the rise in prices right away.
Their argument is that even if sales fall off, business may go right on seeking higher prices to counter a declining profit margin and labor may go on demanding higher wages with the still rising cost of living as one reason.

They contend that this could lead to a drop in unit sales, an increase in inventories, and finally a cut in production and employment — with rising prices keeping the dollar volume of the statistics still glowing.

The name calling between labor and management is likely to grow.

shiller. Labor leaders contend prices have been raised unnecessarily because management is too greedy for profits.

A management spokesman, the National Assn. of Manufacturers, has just announced that a study of the after-tax profit margin on sales show them to be dropping, proving that "the current inflationary rush is due to rising costs of labor and the continuing heavy tax burden, and not the greed of manufacturers for exorbitant profits."

Keep Children Out of School

75 Waterford Families
Protesting Lack of Bus Service in Area

More than seventy-five families living on Hospital road between Cooley Lake and Elizabeth Lake roads in Waterford Township, have been keeping their children home from school because of no bus pick-up.

Residents claim that school buses that are routed down Hospital road, drive by almost empty, and when they reach the school building, are still not half filled up.

John E. Hills, administrative assistant in charge of transportation, explained that this year the state aid program provides bus transportation only for those children living beyond a one-and-a-half mile radius of any school.

However, the Waterford Township Board of Education is paying the difference and retaining the same one mile from school policy, in effect last year.

With the opening of the new William Beaumont school on Elizabeth Lake road, children that formerly were transported to Waterford Center school, must now walk one-half mile, either to school, or to the pick-up area.

Parents feel that it is not safe for their children to walk along busy Hospital road, and petitions are being circulated by residents in the area for immediate bus pick-up.

The parents of children involved, are planning to meet at 6 p.m. Thursday at the William Beaumont school and attend the regularly scheduled Board of Education meeting, en masse. Ralph Blair of 6327 Elizabeth Lake road is chairman of the group.

Market Takes a Step Down

NEW YORK (U)—The stock market was a shade lower in very quiet dealings early today. Pivotal stocks mostly showed fractional losses although there were some equally small gains scattered throughout the list. Trading slowed down after an only moderately active opening.

Minor pressure appeared to be exerted against the aircrafts with Boeing, Douglas and United Aircraft all down small fractions. Most airlines and oils also eased.

Utility issues had a steadier tone than the rest of the list. Consolidated Edison, Consolidated Natural Gas and Commonwealth Edison posted small advances.

Steels, rubbers and motors were mixed

Large blocks were conspicuously absent at the opening. Royal Dutch was off $\frac{1}{2}$ at $53\frac{1}{2}$ on a 1,500 share block while General Dynamics sank $\frac{3}{4}$ at $56\frac{1}{4}$ on 1,000 shares.

Other opening blocks included 1,500 shares of Sperry Rand at 21%, up $\frac{1}{4}$, and 1,500 shares of General Motors at 41 $\frac{1}{4}$, off $\frac{1}{2}$.

Liquidation Cuts Prices on Grains

CHICAGO — General liquidation appeared in most grain pits on the board of trade today and prices eased from Friday's levels. Wheat futures declined as much as two cents a bushel at times, influenced by good rains in the Southwest over the weekend and disappointment over the small amount of acreage going into the soil bank.

Corn was off on news that the Commodity Credit Corp. had sold around 2½ million bushels of the feed grain from government stocks and indications of more CCC-sales to come. This had a depressing effect on free corn.

Soybeans were down nearly two cents a bushel on prospects that harvest would get into full swing soon. Although the weather bureau forecast cooler weather over the corn and soybean belt with temperatures five to 10 degrees below normal there was no indication of early frost.

Near the end of the first hour, new style wheat was 1 to 2 cents a bushel lower, Sept. $2.13½; corn was ½ to ¾ lower, Sept. $1.22½; oats were ½ to 1½ lower, Sept. 65¼; rye was 1½ to 1¾ lower, Sept. $1.31; soybeans were 1¼ to 1½ lower, Sept. $2.36¼; and lard was 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, Sept. $12.40.

Lacks Gratitude; Chipmunk Bites Royal Oak Girl, 12

A 12-year-old Royal Oak girl was the victim of bad fortune Sunday, as she tried to help a floundering chipmunk at the Franklin Cider Mill in Bloomfield Township.

Jane Louise McCarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. McCarty of 1112 Pinehurst St., Royal Oak, was bitten on the hand by the struggling chipmunk as she helped it from a pond it appeared to have fallen into, State Police

The program showed a C Defense notion of what would happen during an air attack by "my planes" from the North region. Live studio news reports by announcers were intermingled with film clips showing an Air missile base and the Air National Guard in action.

A few moments later the chipmunk died. The chipmunk was taken to the State Police lab in Lansing for tests to determine whether or not it died of rabies.

"All the Arab countries are now independent, but their independence is so recent that they are still touchy about it," Glubb said. The United States had good intentions in sending arms to Jordan, he added, but "these facts do not prevent them from being sensitive about it."
