Army Troops, Guard Gather in Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Regular Army troops trained in riot control were flown into Maxwell Air Force Base today for use, if needed, in protecting civil rights demonstrators tomorrow on a march from Selma to Montgomery.

Reliable sources reported the soldiers were members of the 503rd Military Police Detachment from Ft. Bragg, N.C.

A detachment from the 720th Military Police Battalion was quartered in the gymnasium of the Craig Air Force Base in Selma. It was not known where the unit was from.

There were reports that two battalions of regular Army troops had reached Selma by early morning.

* * *

Alabama National Guard commanders declined to give information on the number of National Guardsmen federalized by President Johnson for protecting the marchers.

The President issued two orders from his Johnson City, Tex., ranch. One directed the Secretary of Defense "to use such armed forces of the United States as he may deem necessary."

The other set forth that Gov. George C. Wallace "has advised me that the state is unable and refuses to provide for the safety and welfare" of marchers.

"As a consequence of such inability and refusal of the state of Alabama and by reason of recent events in and about Selma and Montgomery, Ala., there is substantial likelihood that domestic violence may occur in connection with such march, with the consequences of obstructing the execution and enforcement of the laws of the United States," including the court order authorizing the march.

Wallace had told the President in a telegram that he was willing to call up the Alabama Guard to protect the marchers, but said the state cannot afford to foot the bill, estimated at $360,000.

Wide Track Proposals to Be Presented

A State Highway Department representative will meet with city officials Wednesday to present some "positive recommendations" on resolving the problems of Wide Track Drive.

The 10 a.m. session at City Hall was announced yesterday by City Manager Joseph A. Warren, and is nearly a month ahead of the April 20 meeting promised by the highway department.

The solutions to be proposed by Max N. Clyde, engineer of traffic operations for the department, are the result of a tour he took of Wide Track in January.

At that time he was sent to study the loop road by Acting Highway Director Howard Hill.

Warren said that all interested parties are invited to attend the meeting.

Clouds Threat to Gemini Shot

Weather May Delay 2-Man Space Flight

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Clouds of doubt hung over Cape Kennedy today: doubt that the weather would be favorable for the Tuesday flight of the Gemini spacecraft "Molly Brown," and doubt that Ranger 9 would be ready to leave tomorrow on its mission to photograph the moon.

* * *

The weather forecast was cloudy for the inaugural flight of the Gemini, which is designed to maneuver, to change ilts orbital path.

Astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young, whose mission is to test the spacecraft, will fly it backward and forward, even sideways, and alter their orbit up to 50 miles by firing jetlike thruster engines.

But a Tuesday launch is questionable. Weather men predicted heavy clouds over the Cape that would prevent vital camera coverage of the Titan 2 booster's lift-off. Bad weather was also forecast for the Atlantic in the area where the space buddies would splash down if they ran into trouble during the launch phase.

* * *

Ranger 9's problems were different. Program scientists were poring over results of a simulated countdown yesterday, trying to isolate a problem that appeared in the second stage ground equipment guidance system.

GROUND EQUIPMENT

They said it appeared to be caused by ground support equipment rather than something in the Agena rocket itself.

Ranger 9, last of the moon photography series, is scheduled for launch between 4:11 and 5:14 p.m. EST Sunday.

Its target is the crater Alphonsus, estimated to be 10,000 feet deep and 50 to 60 miles across.

Future Dubious for Michigan's Tax Relief Bill

House Dems Push Measure Through; Senate May Be Tough

LANSING (AP)—A battle-scarred, much-amended senior citizens tax relief bill was on its way today from the House to the Senate—where it faces an uncertain future.

The Democratic-backed measure passed the House yesterday on a near party-line vote of 62-36 after Democrats fended off more than a score of Republican amendments in the second three-hour debate in two days.

Four Democrats voted with the minority Republicans. They were Reps. H. James Starr of Lansing. Charles Conrad of Jackson, Bill Huffman of Madison Heights and Arthur Law of Pontiac. Five Republicans did not vote.

Sen. Garland Lane, D-Flint, chairman of the powerful Senate Appropriations Committee, to which the bill would be expected to be assigned, hinted at rough going for the measure.

* * *

This would contradict a prediction by House Majority Leader J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, who said Democrats intended to get the bill through both chambers and to Gov. Romney's desk "as soon as possible."

TAX EXEMPTION

The bill, with costs estimates ranging from $21 million to $40 million, would grant a property tax exemption on the first $2,500 of state equalized valuation on a homestead with a $10,000 assessed valuation.

* * *

A corresponding grant would be made to renters in homesteads of $10,000 and less up to $20,000 true cash value. All recipients would have to live in the state at least seven years.

WRECKAGE RECOVERED—A wrecker lifts a car which jumped a guard rail last night on the median of I-75 in Pontiac Township and plummeted 20 feet into the Clinton River. The driver, Robert Southard, was found dead in the median, south of the river.

Car Rolls 3 Times on Freeway, Ends Up in the Clinton River

Two persons died last night in a single-car crash in Waterford Township, and a third man was the victim of a freeway accident in Pontiac Township.

Dead are: Richard Thompson, 42, of 9050 Mandon, White Lake Township; Danny Burke, 20, of 3994 Oak Knoll, Waterford Township; and Robert J. Southard, 22, 340 Concord Place, Bloomfield Township.

Southard's body was found at 7:14 a.m. in the median of I-75, south of Auburn, in Pontiac Township.

The car he was driving was found north of his body, submerged in the Clinton River.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies speculate that Southard was northbound on I-75 when he lost control of his car.

They said the vehicle apparently rolled over three times in the median. Southard was thrown from the car. The 1965 sedan then bounded over a guard rail and plunged 20 feet into the river.

NO PASSENGERS

Skin divers searched the river bottom around the car this morning and found no trace of possible passengers in the car.

It is believed that Southard was on his way to the State High School Basketball Tournament in East Lansing when the accident occurred early last evening.

Thompson and Burke were

U.S. Staying in Viet—Johnson

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson underscored today what he called U.S. determination to remain in South Viet Nam as long as it is necessary to control Communist aggression and terrorism.

He told a news conference at his Texas ranch here that changes in the situation may require changes in tactics. But he declared the United States will do whatever is necessary to accomplish its mission in Southeast Asia.

Johnson repeated the U.S. policy stand — for the 48th time, he said — as he announced that U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor will return to Washington March 28 for a week of consultations.

The President said that Taylor's visit to Washington is part of a regular, periodic review aimed at insuring "that our effort in Viet Nam is as effective and efficient as possible."

Johnson recalled words he uttered a year ago and told his news conference:

LONG AS NEEDED

"It is and it will remain the policy of the United States to furnish assistance to support South Viet Nam for as long as is required to bring Communist aggression and terrorism under control."

Johnson said U.S. policy remains as it was a year ago — and as it was 10 years ago.

For, he asked, if a small country like South Viet Nam cannot be insured its independence and peace, what will become of other tiny nations around the world?

* * *

Johnson said that this country is working for a peace in which nations may develop their own resources and live without pressure or fear of domination from any quarter.

STEADFAST GOAL

"This is the peace that will remain the steadfast goal" of his administration, he said.

On Monday, Johnson said, he will have completed 16 months in the presidency. He

State Junior Miss Wins

Patrice Gaunder, who took the Michigan title here in February at the Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Michigan contest, was crowned America's Junior Miss.

"I'm still numb — I can't believe it," said the brown-eyed brown-haired beauty after the finals in the national pageant.

"There's a great responsibility involved in representing America's teen-agers. I don't know if I can do it. But I am sure going to try," she added.

* * *

WAS SHARED

Her triumph was shared by 40 of her closest friends who sold pies, washed cars and saved their allowances to travel more than 1,000 miles to see the talented teen-ager compete for the national title.

The new Junior Miss sang a number from "Camelot" for her talent presentation because "it was easy and I'm not much of a singer."

Patrice was awarded a $6,000 scholarship, a coast-to-coast tour, many other prizes.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gaunder. Her father is a teacher and coach at Eau Claire High School.

DOUBLE WINNER

Patrice was a double preliminary winner in the categories of youth fitness and poise and appearance.

At Lakeshore high school, she is an 'A' student and a member of the glee club.

In addition, she has won a

Mrs. E. M. Estes Dies at Age 48

MRS. E. M. ESTES

Mrs. Cathryn Palmer Estes, wife of Pontiac Motor Division's general manager, E. M. Estes, died suddenly yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of a stroke.

Service will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, with burial following in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy, by the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

Mrs. Estes, 48, lived at 1085 Waddington, Bloomfield Township.

Active in community affairs, she was a vice president of the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Women's Auxiliary; on the board of the Michigan Cancer Fund, North Oakland County Unit; and a member of the Tribute Fund of Pontiac Area United Fund.

Mrs. Estes also was a member of the National League for Nursing and the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital.

She worked with the Oakland University scholarship fund and Project Hope, and was a member of Christ Church Cranbrook.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Estes is survived by three sons, Thomas P. of Akron, Ohio; Edward W. of Rochester and William E., a student at North Carolina University; three grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Marion Barton of Indianapolis, Ind.

The family suggests any memorials be made to the Tribute Fund of the Pontiac Area United Fund or St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Building Fund.

Old Man Winter Delaying Exit, Despite Hopes

Winter was to leave at 3:05 this afternoon, but it hasn't finished packing yet. Cold temperatures still are around for tonight and tomorrow, and possibly Monday, with snow flurries, too.

* * *

The low expected tonight ranges from 8 to 18, to be followed by a high of 22 to 30 tomorrow.

* * *

Today in the area, winds were westerly at 5 to 15 miles an hour. They will become southwesterly tonight.

Eleven above was this morning's record low. By 2 p.m. the mercury managed to move up to 23 in downtown Pontiac.

Soviet Cosmonauts Land Flaming Ship in Cool, Soft Snow

MOSCOW (AP) — The Voskhod 2 spaceship made a scorching descent into the earth's atmosphere, but it had a cool, soft landing on deep snow, the Soviet Union said today.

The two cosmonauts aboard were reported well but there was no official word on their post-landing activities 24 hours after their descent to earth.

* * *

Voskhod 2 landed Friday at Perm, a city at the foot of the Ural Mountains about 725 miles east-northeast of Moscow. There was speculation that officials had trouble reaching the site.

The Tass news agency said "in the dense layer of the atmosphere, the spaceship was enveloped in flames," but the landing was "soft." The Voskhod came down in deep snow, Tass said.

COVERED IN FLAMES

In response to a telephone inquiry, the newspaper Pravda said all previous Soviet space ships were enveloped by flames on reentering the dense layers of the atmosphere and there was no cause for alarm.

Moscow newspapers carried no new details on the landing and no pictures of it.

* * *

Official Soviet announcements said Pavel Belyayev and Alexei Leonov, the first man to leave an orbiting satellite and float in outer space, carried out their assignments perfectly. They completed 17 orbits in space.

But the announcements said nothing about picking up the two cosmonauts and returning to a debriefing area for medical checks, the normal procedure in the past.

COLD WINDS

Perm airport officials said by telephone the cosmonauts landed in strong winds and freezing weather. The temperature was 26.6 degrees Fahrenheit with winds of about 20 miles an hour. It was not snowing at the time of landing.

* * *

Official accounts said the cosmonauts landed inside the space capsule which returned to earth with the aid of parachutes. Pravda said it was the first landing directed entirely by the pilot inside the space craft.

Cong Bomb Plot Thwarted

U.S. Embassy Was Target of Explosives

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Police today seized two Viet Cong agents driving into Saigon on a scooter truck rigged with explosives and said their mission was to bomb the U.S. Embassy.

* * *

The plot was thwarted when police discovered 25 pounds of plastic high explosive aboard a three-wheeled scooter truck, rigged with a time detonating device set to go off in 30 minutes.

The two men riding it, both presumed Viet Cong terrorists, were arrested and the mobile bomb was defused. The truck was intercepted several miles from the embassy.

Police said the two had planned to park the scooter in front of the five-story concrete embassy building. The detonating device was set for noon — when many embassy workers normally leave for lunch.

* * *

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor was in his office when the explosives were found.

STREET DAMAGE

The bomb probably would have caused major pedestrian casualties but it was not believed large enough to have done serious damage to the building.

* * *

Vietnamese authorities said nine persons were injured by a terrorist grenade yesterday instead of seven as reported earlier.

First runner-up in the Junior Miss Pageant was Jane Pilotti of Mount Vernon, Ohio. The other three runners-up, in order, were Barbara Foote, Caribou, Maine; Diane Steen, Fairmont, Minn.; and Linda Bronstein of University City, Mo.

Bids on Cars to Be Opened

Meeting Set Monday for Waterford Board

Bids on four new police cars will be opened at Monday night's meeting of the Waterford Township Board.

Two of the cars will replace vehicles presently being used by the police department. The other two will be added to the fleet due to expansion of the department.

In other business Monday, the board will hear a progress report on the Waterford Township community school program.

Robert Lawyer, coordinator of the program, will discuss its growth since last September when it was launched with the aid of a grant from the Mott Foundation.

* * *

Board members also will determine the extent of the township's 1965 road chloride program and so advise the Oakland County Road Commission which does the work.

Also slated for board attention is a requested refund for a building permit that hasn't been used.

Discussing his attitude toward news conferences — a subject on which he has run into some press criticism — Johnson said he wanted to make available all the information he could, consistent with the national interest.

RESERVE JUDGMENT

But he will continue to reserve to himself the matter of how and when he held conferences, he said.

He said he considers it the duty of the press to report his information, and to make any comments it sees fit.

He said he would try to hold at least one formal, full-dress press conference a month, "even white tie, if you choose."

* * *

Today's news conference is the 39th on-the-record sessions he has held, he said, and 16 have been covered by radio and television.

INFORMAL MEETINGS

There have been other informal meetings with members of the White House press corps. He said he had had nine informal walks with members of the press corps. He told the reporters they could expect to be invited to walk again.

He went on to list other contacts by interview, telephone social contacts and the like. He said there were also nine special announcements or television appearances.

Johnson declined to answer a question about whether the United States would supply arms to Israel to replace the supply cut off by West Germany.

* * *

"We don't think it is desirable to speculate on any prophecies that may or may not work out," the President said, and added the administration would meet that problem as it came up.

OTHER POINTS

On other points, Johnson had these comments in response to questions:

Space race—"While the Soviet is ahead of us in some aspects of space, we are ahead of them in other aspects."

He had been asked the relative positions in the light of the Russian achievement this week in having one of two cosmonauts leave their orbiting space capsule.

* * *

This achievement by Russia, he said, emphasized the importance that man himself will play in space.

Vandals Batter Shelby Schools

UTICA—Vandals caused over $5,000 damage at two Shelby Township schools last night, according to township police.

* * *

Four driver education cars parked at the rear of the Utica Community High School, 47255 Shelby, north of Utica, were extensively damaged. Car windows, windshields and tail lights were broken, holes punched in trunk lids.

More than 33 plate glass windows, approximately 4 by 8 feet, were smashed. The vandals apparently used beer bottles to smash the windows and glass doors.

At the Shelby Junior High School, 51770 Van Dyke, 17 plate glass windows were smashed. There was no evidence of what instrument was used.

Jean High, head custodian at the two schools, estimated damages.

Home Burns in Waterford

Fire destroyed a Waterford Township home shortly before midnight last night.

The blaze, which swept through the residence of Mrs. Rose Tollina, at 6992 Terrell, was reported at 11:58 p. m.

Waterford Township Fire Marshal Russell See said Mrs. Tollina was not at home when the fire started under the bedroom floor. A faulty furnace is believed to be the cause.

Firemen said when they arrived the bedroom was consumed in flames, which had also broken through the outer wall.

Four pieces of fire fighting equipment fought the blaze for more than three hours.

The building, which was valued at $9,500, was destroyed, along with contents, valued at $4,000.

Waterford Men Unhurt as Plane Lands on Road

A Waterford Township pilot yesterday landed a single engine plane on a superhighway in West Virginia after the craft developed an oil leak while flying at 7,500 feet.

Joe Haveman, 32, of 2290 Jones planned to use the same stretch of highway today as a runway to get the small plane airborne.

Haveman and passenger-photographer Richard Johnson, 30, of 89 Panama, Waterford Township, were not injured in the emergency landing.

The craft is owned by Clark Aerial Survey Corp., 3444 Highland, Waterford Township. The pair were doing an aerial survey of the Charleston area when the leak occurred.

West Virginia State Police routed traffic around the plane last night while a mechanic worked to repair the oil line.

Pontiac Fiscal Problem

Where Will City Get Needed Money?

By L. GARY THORNE

News Analysis

A single fact floats to the surface of the troubled financial waters around Pontiac City Hall.

Voters said no to the income levy this week, 6,647 to 2,637, but the fact remains Pontiac needs more money.

* * *

Both sides — for and against — in the income tax argument agreed almost at the outset last fall that municipal affairs could not long be financed by present property taxes.

* * *

Seemingly, the agreement would be even more widespread as a result of the tax campaign.

However, many observers doubt if voters are prepared to turn around right now and approve probably the only alternative to the income tax — a hike in property taxes.

The seven-member City Commission has the task of selecting a course of action. The commission unanimously backed the income tax.

In the debate over the merits of the income tax and what would happen if it failed, some commissioners had thought the move would be for the property tax increase.

Of course, this, too, must go to the electorate for approval.

Will this be the commission's decision?

NO CITY TAX

Opponents to the late income tax proposal point out that Thursday's results indicate not a vote against taxation generally, but merely a vote against a city income tax specifically.

Oddly perhaps, city officials are treading strange political waters.

For example, past property tax proposals have been rejected on the premise that the city did not need the money.

* * *

DEFINITE NEED

Outwardly, it is agreed the city needs more money. Such agreement probably is not unanimous among those who pull the levers behind the curtains of those little booths.

* * *

The City Commission's course of action will be governed by the single fact left in the wake of the tax defeat, but other considerations must be weighed.

* * *

These might include action in Lansing on a state income tax, the austere 1965 city budget and, naturally, the City Commission election in April 1966.

Registration Next Week for Spring Adult Classes

BIRMINGHAM — The added education department of the Birmingham Public School System will start taking registrations next week for its spring term of classes.

Interested adults can register between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily at the added education office in the board of education building, Chester and Martin.

Classes will begin the week of April 5.

The spring term list this year includes 64 classes covering foreign languages, the arts, business, homemaking, industrial arts and a wide range of topics for self-improvement and recreation.

* * *

A new home modernization course is designed to aid the home owner who either wants to do it himself or wants to become familiar with modernizing so he can contract for the work.

REFLECT INTERESTS

Because the program is designed to reflect the interests of the community, the department will offer any course for which facilities and instructors are available.

A requested course will be given if at least 12 persons enroll.

Brochures listing the courses have been mailed to all residents of the school district, but other persons can receive them by calling the added education office.

* * *

Late registrations will be accepted through the first class meeting if enrollment permits. However, advance enrollment is urged.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Birmingham will hold two special services tomorrow to dedicate its newly remodeled edifice at 191 N. Chester.

The original building was dedicated in 1928.

In March 1959, a large addition was constructed on the south and west sides of the church, and the Sunday School area was enlarged and remodeled.

Shortly thereafter, an extensive remodeling of the church was begun, with the interior of the original edifice removed and rebuilt.

* * *

The project was completed in 1961 but, as with all Christian Science churches, could not be dedicated until it was free of debt. The services Sunday are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Plan Complex in Waterford

Developer to Build $1-Million Center

Plans for a 15-acre complex of retail stores, professional and business offices in Waterford Township were revealed today by Edwin Gage, a Birmingham real estate developer.

Gage said the development, to be called Waterford Plaza will be located on the northwest corner of Crescent Lake and M59.

Eventual cost of the project will exceed $1 million, Gage said, with 50,000 square feet of building planneed for the start.

Construction is expected to begin this summer, with completion of the first part of the project in midsummer 1966. The entire project is planned for completion by midsummer of 1967.

Preliminary approval for rerouting a part of the Clinton River on the property has been given, Gage said. Kieft Engineering of Clarkston has been retained for the construction of a waterwheel planned as the view for patrons of a proposed restaurant on the site.

AREA DEVELOPER

Gage, of 345 Berwyn, Birmingham, was the developer of the Tel-Huron and Elizabeth Lake Shopping Centers in the area as well as a public golf course now under construction.

Harry Denyes, Pontiac architect, has been retained for the study and design of the new project.

River Rouge Wins State Class B Title

EAST LANSING (UPI) — River Rouge today outscored a scrappy South Haven team, 14-2, opening the final period to wrap up an 87-65 victory and grab its fifth straight Class B state basketball title in the first of four finales in the 40th annual tournament at Michigan State's Jennison Fieldhouse.

The victory made Rouge coach Lofton Greene the state's winningest prep cage mentor.

Greene, who took over at the suburban Detroit school in 1943, had directed his teams to almost 400 wins and eight "B" championships.

Jet Missing Near China

WASHINGTON, (AP) — A United States Air Force F105 jet fighter is missing on a flight from Okinawa to Formosa parallel to the Red Chinese coast.

The Defense Department, announcing this today, said the pilot appeared to have suffered either a heart attack or a blackout from oxygen failure.

The pilot of an accompanying F105 tried to arouse the pilot of the other plane by radio, then sought to divert the plane but was unable to do so. Short of fuel and with weather turning bad, the second plane was compelled to head back to Kadena Air Base on Okinawa.

Incompetents and Frauds

U.S. Warns of Income Tax Phonies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service has issued its annual warnings against incompetent and fraudulent income tax advisers.

An IRS spokesman said today that at laast two such warnings have been sent out through the service's district offices. They list, in general terms, some of the things taxpayers should look out for if they enlist help in preparing their returns.

* * *

The warnings may be especially pertinent this year since more taxpayers are probably seeking help because of the changes made last year in the tax laws.

Anyone who can sign his name is eligible to become a "tax adviser" so far as federal regulations are concerned. But any advisers who defraud taxpayers or misrepresent their qualifications may be subject to legal action under laws covering other businesses.

FREE HELP

The government offers free help for taxpayers at IRS district offices and by telephone.

But the lines often are long and many people find it profitable to hire a consultant or adviser. However, the taxpayer must provide the basic information to the adviser and the taxpayer remains responsible for his own return.

There are several types of tax return preparers. Lawyers and certified public accountants have special training for this purpose and they subscribe to codes of ethics.

Anyone who passes an examination given by IRS, or who has worked for IRS as a revenue agent for seven years, is entitled to a government certificate stating that he is qualified to prepare tax returns.

NO CERTIFICATE

Others operate without a certificate or other formal evidence of their qualifications. Persons in this category may have become thoroughly familiar with tax regulations through informal training or long experience.

* * *

The government offers these tips on how to choose an adviser, and how to avoid getting hooked by a confidence man:

—Be on guard against a person who offers to make out your return for a fee based on how much he can save you.

—Beware of the "expert" who claims to know the angles on how to get questionable items past the government men.

BLANK FORM

—Never sign a blank tax form and let the adviser fill in the blanks later; it's like signing a blank check.

—Do not sign a return made out in pencil — it easily can be changed.

—Pay taxes only by check or money order, and make certain it is made out to Internal Revenue; use a separate check to pay the adviser's fee.

—Be on guard against the adviser who suggests that you have a tax refund sent to his home or business address.

Pontiac Income Tax Rejected by Voters

Pontiac voters have turned down an income tax as the solution to the city's cash problem.

That still leaves the problem to be solved.

Critics of the income levy must now turn to and help solve our fiscal woes. There was never any doubt that Pontiac needed more money. It was just a question of how to raise it.

★ ★ ★

It is now clear that the residents do not want an income tax.

We feel the next step is a complete examination of our city's fiscal needs and methods of raising funds for these needs.

This should be done by a strong and talented committee which has the respect of the community.

★ ★ ★

It must study our services and obligations, and then come up with a solution which will be more than a stop-gap answer.

★ ★ ★

There must be no delay, or we will face further curtailment of municipal services which are minimal in a number of areas.

Our city commission should not and must not adopt an attitude of defeat, merely because its solution has been vetoed.

A-B-C's of Education Offered by Dissenter

"I quit school when I were sixteen," is the simple and sole message on a sign posted in subway cars in New York City.

This soft sell with the obvious grammatical error is intended to impress youngsters with the folly of dropping out of school.

★ ★ ★

Unfortunately, slogans sometimes have a way of backfiring. One cynical letter-writer to a newspaper pointed out that it only illustrated the sad state of education.

"If, after 10 years of schooling," he asked, "a boy or girl hasn't learned the difference between 'was' and 'were,' how can you justify any additional investment in his or her education?"

Strong Action Urged in U-M Faculty Stir

We had long thought that irrational campus conduct was confined to segments of the student body.

But there is growing and dismaying indication that supposedly mature and enlightened faculty members are not above lapse into comparable irresponsibility.

Of such shocking nature was the plan advocated by a University of Michigan professor to cancel a day's classes in protest against the Administration's policies in Viet Nam.

Speaking for a like-minded group of faculty numbering 46, Prof. WILLIAM GAMSON termed the proposed action "in the best interests of Viet Nam, the United States and the rest of the world," and had invited others of the university's staff to join the movement.

Although the plan for class cancellation was itself cancelled under pressure from university heads and government leaders, the attitude of the ringleader and his supporters is to be strongly condemned.

★ ★ ★

Their impetuous and unpatriotic action brands them as unfit for faculty posts. Moreover, it implies total disavowal of their example-setting responsibility in indoctrinating undergraduates with respect for established authority and the orderly process of government.

If every individual or group of individuals were free to vent dissatisfaction with elected officials by overt acts of rebellion or dereliction in conduct of offices affecting society, only disaster for our form of government lies ahead.

★ ★ ★

The group of academic malcontents has no place at U-M and effective action should be taken to exorcise the core of insubordination that reared its head.

Rights Struggle Late in Starting

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON—Time, timing and presidential leadership in the civil rights struggle, not only now but for a century past, will get far more scrutiny after present tensions have subsided.

MARLOW

This is the question involved: Why didn't presidents since the Civil War provide far more leadership in obtaining full civil rights for Negroes?

Two events near the end of the last century show the indifference.

Because of popular demand, Congress in 1894 passed an income tax. In 1895 the Supreme Court declared it unconstitutional. In 1896, the court said it was constitutional to segregate Negroes if they got equal treatment.

The popular interest and conscience weren't aroused by this decision making Negroes second-class citizens but it was so aroused by the income tax verdict that the nation in 1913 approved the Constitution's 16th Amendment approving the income tax and thus throwing out what the court had said.

★ ★ ★

But the nation was never interested enough in the Negroes to approve another amendment nullifying the court's verdict that Negroes could be segregated or urging other decisive action to cancel the verdict.

REVERSED EARLIER DECISION

Nor did Congress do anything about it until after the Supreme Court itself in 1954 reversed what it did in 1896 and declared segregation by its very nature unequal and therefore unconstitutional.

Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman concerned themselves about the Negro. But the steps they took were only mild beginnings.

Both presided in troubled times. Neither had broad support on civil rights. If they had fought harder for those rights, their support might have been greater.

★ ★ ★

Dwight D. Eisenhower was President in 1954 when the court banned segregation. Starting then, he could have given very vigorous leadership but didn't. He even declined to say whether he approved the 1954 court decision, saying simply it was his job to enforce the ruling.

PICKED UP SOME SPEED

He picked up some speed later, for he sponsored the first civil rights bill passed in this century in 1955 and the second, in 1960, was approved by Congress during his administration. And he used troops to back up a federal court order desegregating the Little Rock high school.

President John F. Kennedy was more vigorous than Eisenhower on civil rights, but never as all-out as Johnson. It is the Supreme Court, which left the Negroes segregated for 58 years after 1896, that has been the most persistent leader since 1954.

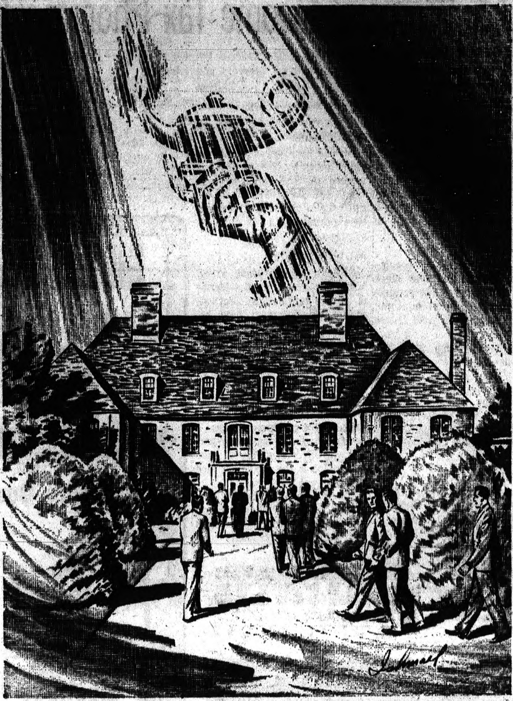
The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL



Wainwright House in Rye, N.Y., is the international headquarters for the Laymen's Movement, including research and training center. It includes a sanctuary and retreat for the contemplation of the power of faith. The Laymen's Movement was founded in 1941 by a group of dedicated businessmen in Montclair, N.J., who had deep concern for the moral and spiritual climate of the business community. Their principle was that each man's religion in today's world must be worked at and lived each day to be meaningful. The Laymen's Movement played a major role in establishing the meditation room at the U. N., a prayer room for all faiths.

Wainwright House was given in 1951 for the use of the Laymen's Movement by Mrs. Philip K. Condict, daughter of the late Col. Jonathan Wainwright who served in World War I. It stands to members all over the world as a symbol of a stepping stone from the church to the whole world. The plaque in the entrance of Wainwright House affirms this, for on it is written, "To the Greater Understanding of God."

Days of All Faiths:

Gabriel Will Blow the Trumpet

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

The world, at least the western part of it, believes that the Day of Judgment will be announced by a trumpet blast. "For the trumpet shall sound," says St. Paul (I Corinthians 15:52) "and the dead shall be raised," and no Christian seriously thinks it will be any other way.

And who will blow the trumpet? Is there anyone who doubts that it will be Gabriel? "Gabriel blow your horn" is one of the best known of all spirituals.

★ ★ ★

Gabriel the archangel is God's announcer, a sort of "official spokesman" of the heavenly court. His name does not support this tradition — Gabriel means "man of God" or, more loosely, "hero." But whenever Gabriel appears in the Bible he comes with a message right from the Throne, and it is only natural to expect that he will bring the last great message, too.

★ ★ ★

His reputation as the bringer of celestial news comes from three recorded appearances. In the Book of Daniel (9:21) he told the prophet about the coming of the Messiah. It was a long time before he came to earth again, and then he came twice, in appearances only six months apart. Luke 1:10 tells of Gabriel's announcement to Zacharias that John the Baptist would be born to him and his wife Elizabeth.

★ ★ ★

His third and greatest message was the one commemorated in the Christian calendar, when he brought to a teen-age Jewish girl the news that she would be the mother of man's Savior. It is proper that Gabriel should be remembered on the eve of his most important announcement.

Naturally, Gabriel is the patron saint of postal, telegraph, and telephone workers.

TOOK MOHAMMED TO HEAVEN

Mohammedans, too, do honor to Gabriel. They believe Gabriel took their prophet Mohammed to heaven and there revealed to him the "prophetic lore" on which the Muslim faith is based. They also believe him to be the spirit of truth, and the most favored of all angels.

The term "Gabriel's Hounds" does not mean anything to most people in this country, but in Scotland it is familiar to everybody. Actually, the "hounds" are wild geese, but heard at night they do sound a little like yapping dogs. Superstition says these are unbaptized souls, doomed to wander until Gabriel blows his horn on the Last Day.

PROTECTED FROM CHRISTIANS BY MUSLIMS

For the most part, the lives of scholars are not very interesting to read about, and the life of St. John Damascene is much the same as the other. He studied, he wrote, he was a godly man.

But this eighth century man of Damascus was different in some important ways. For one thing, he lived with the Muslims and fought the Christians. And the Muslims wouldn't let the Christians touch him. The big argument going on at the time was about ikons, that is, holy pictures. These pictures were, and still are, precious to the easterners, as statues are to much of the western church. The Emperor, a westerner, wanted to get rid of them. From behind the protection of his friendly Muslim ruler, John attacked the Emperor and left him no logical leg to stand on.

Once the Emperor, through a trick of forgery, duped the Muslim ruler into cutting off John's right hand for an alleged disloyalty, but this was no problem. John took the hand into his chapel and prayed, and the severed member was promptly rejoined to its arm. John at once put it to work writing a hymn of thanksgiving.

Another unusual thing about John was that he did most of his theological writing as a layman. He became a monk fairly early in life, but not a priest. He was finally ordained, but it changed nothing. He continued in the same monastery and went right on studying and writing.

In 1890 John was declared a Doctor of the Church, of whom there are only twenty-nine in history. He is also known as the last of the "Greek Fathers of the Church."

There is objection to a free fishing license for those over 65. I suggest that fishing licenses be raised to $3 and licenses be removed from boats. Will Vote for a New Road Commissioner

When I look out my front window or walk the board across the ditch to my mailbox or car that is parked in the street, I am concerned about freedom and what our tax money goes for.

Without notice, the County ditched the road, leaving the driveways blocked, and the road commissioner said it was county property and there is nothing we can do about it. Where is the taxpayer's right? I intend to cast my vote for a new road commissioner.

Takes a Dim View of Writer's Ideas

I don't understand Mr. Lawrence's view on the country's racial situation and the use of the Constitution as a method toward ending it, as stated in his article Monday. He seems to take a dim view of racial demonstrations; however, he's all for this country's glorious Constitution and thinks the courtroom is the answer.

★ ★ ★

He has evidently overlooked the fact that demonstrations seem to be the only method that assures the Negro of his constitutional rights. I am a Negro and maybe it's because of this that I have taken a dim view of Mr. Lawrence's article.

Readers Reply to Woman Who Hit Puppy

Did it ever occur to "Disgusted" that all dogs in the street are not chasing cars? Sometimes the temptation to cross the street is hard to resist for young children and puppies alike.

★ ★ ★

A good driver is always watching for either of these, especially while driving through a subdivision where there are so many young families.

A GOOD DRIVER

Considering the circumstances, the driver that hit the puppy on Dundee should have had enough time to come to a slow stop. That is, if she had the car under control and was observing the speed limit on a residential street.

CONCERNED

I agree dogs should not run loose and do cause many harming accidents. The woman who hit the dog on Dundee was in no such danger.

★ ★ ★

I, too, had a problem explaining why this woman did not stop after hitting the puppy. I wonder how she explained this to her children.

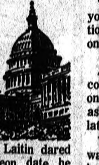
Press Aide's Job Stiff-Paced

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA)—White House press secretary George Reedy's new assistant, Joseph Laitin, quickly found out that his new job was a lot stiffer-paced than his press agentry for the Budget Bureau, a quiet backwater.



The first week he was in the White House, Laitin dared to keep a luncheon date he had made long before.

"While I was at the restaurant I had two urgent telephone calls," says Laitin. "When I got back, I found a pile-up of work that kept me an hour beyond the time I expected to leave."

★ ★ ★

Pennsylvania Republican Chairman Craig Truax, talking to some Young Republicans in a Washington suburb, offered them the hard facts of political party financing. Said he:

"Most political parties are either just getting out of debt or just going back in."

★ ★ ★

When the Republicans' new Co-ordinating Committee met recently in the capital, the conference table included one former national chairman (Thruston Morton), one retiring chairman (Dean Burch) and the man taking over on April 1, Ray Bliss of Ohio.

This circumstance caused one observer to burst into song:

"Triple your pleasure, triple your fun, you've got three national chairmen instead of just one."

★ ★ ★

A veteran newsman was accosted by friends while strolling on Pennsylvania Avenue and asked what he had been up to lately.

Waving his hand airily toward the White House in the background, he replied:

"Covering the Government of the Absurd!"

★ ★ ★

Senators' aides handle close to 100 per cent of their bosses correspondence. One staff man estimates that a third of his office's correspondence belongs in the "secretary-to-secretary" category.

TRIPLE YOUR PLEASURE

"Take Christmas cards, for example," he explains. "A secretary in our office will sign the boss' name to cards she has picked out and mail them to the people on the boss' list. The recipients' secretaries will check off their lists and mail return cards. Our secretary will then check off her list and everything's fine.

"But nobody except the secretaries ever see either card."

★ ★ ★

Another senator's aide says his office sends 20 or 30 Senate calendars — regarded as "prestige items" in Washington — to a special list every year. This year, he adds, he sent an advance letter announcing the calendars.

"Two days later," he says, "we got five letters thanking us for the calendars. All of the letters said how pretty they were.

"Unfortunately, we hadn't even sent the calendars out yet."

Young Burma Monks Dispute Buddhist Abbots, Go on Rampage

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — Monks in Yesagyo, 60 miles south of historic Mandalay, went on the rampage yesterday, beating up people, stoning houses and shouting slogans, the Working Peoples Daily reported today.

Disorder broke out after authorities in the town requested monks to refrain from putting up antigovernment posters, the official paper said.

The militant wing of young monks in Mandalay and surrounding towns have been agitating in the wake of this week's Buddhist abbots convention in Rangoon which has urged that some discipline be introduced into the monkhood.

The abbots want a "code of conduct" established which would ensure that monks strictly adhere to the teachings of Lord Buddha. Young monks are violently opposed to any reform.

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP) — Princess Margaret was running a temperature today and her doctor advised her to remain in bed.

The princess, who is on a 10-day visit to Uganda with her husband Lord Snowdon, was taken ill yesterday after a visit to a game park. She canceled all her engagements, including a dinner last night with Prime Minister Milton Obote.

Members of her party said it was not known when she would be able to resume her engagements.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The official Chinese Nationalist Central News Agency said today the fuse had been lighted for an all-out revolt by intellectuals against the Communist regime in mainland China.

The agency quoted letters purported to have been written by anti-Communist action committees at Tung Chi University, Shanghai; and Chungshan University, Canton.

It said copies had been obtained by secret Chinese Nationalist agents on the mainland.

The agency said the anti-Communist movement was initiated in a letter from the action committee of Tung Chi University to Chungshan.

According to the agency:

The action committee of Chungshan University acknowledged the communication in a letter dated Jan. 22, saying:

* * *

". . . We are determined to lend warm support for your revolutionary call and to join in a common endeavor to hold high the torch of freedom and overthrow the tyrannical regime of Mao Tzetung . . . ."

BONN, Germany (AP)— The West German parliament is expected to vote next week on two bills that would extend the hunt for Nazi murderers until 1980.

* * *

The bills, passed by parliament's legal committee yesterday, would also exempt from prosecution Nazi criminals whom West German courts consider minor offenders.

West Germany has a 20-year statute of limitations on murder. On Nazi war crimes, it goes into effect May 8. The new bill would extend the prosecution period to 30 years and would date war crimes from 1950 instead of 1945.

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Another body has been recovered from the Granduc mining camp in northern British Columbia, wrecked by an avalanche last month. Three bodies are still missing and 23 have now been found.

The latest one recovered was that of Herman Orlaw, a carpenter.

The Granduc Mining Company said between 13 and 20 men are cleaning up the camp and searching for the remaining bodies. Mining is not expected to resume for at least two months.

Health Care Bill's Backers See Light Treasury Drain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The multiple health and Social Security bill being drafted by the House Ways and Means Committee would provide a pay-out of almost $5 billion a year in various benefits, preliminary figures indicate.

However, statistics gathered by the bill's backers list only a relatively minor part of this total as coming out of the Treasury — the kind of expenditure that figures in the budget.

The rough figures with which the bill's drafters are working include these estimates of payout during the first full year of operation:

Hospital and nursing home benefits, $2 billion; optional medical benefits $1 billion; expansion of the existing Kerr-Mills system to include more categories of health care beneficiaries, $400 million; increased Social Security retirement payments $1.5 billion.

GREATER PART

The greater part of this $4.9 billion total would be financed by increasing the base and the rate of the payroll tax which now pays for Social Security. Committee members and technicians working out the financing arrangements are understood to be trying to hold the drain on the Treasury to a range of $600 million to $800 million.

* * *

The increased payroll tax would be calculated to cover nearly all the $2 billion hospital cost and all of the $1.5 billion retirement increase.

SUPPLEMENT

Half the medical supplement cost, or $500 million, would be paid by premiums charged those who participate. The remaining demand on the Treasury would be offset in several ways.

* * *

One would be an income tax deduction change which, in effect, would reduce or eliminate the government subsidy in the medical section for recipients affluent enough to pay income tax. Another would be savings in the present cost of health services because some of the load would be picked up by the new hospital plan.

* * *

The federal governmenment, during the fiscal year that ended June 30, spent about $466 million as its share of state-federal health programs for the aged and dependent, and the total will be higher this fiscal year.

QUALIFICATIONS

While detailed projections were not immediately available, officials noted that about half the persons receiving such benefits would qualify for the payroll tax-financed hospitalization provided under the new plan.

Farouk Estate at $3 Million

ROME (AP) — The estate of ex-king Farouk of Egypt was estimated today at about $3 million. Most of it will go to his 13-year-old son, Fuad.

Farouk's Rome lawyer, Carlo D'Amelio, said last night that Fuad would get the bigger share, with smaller portions going to Farouk's three daughters and nothing to his two ex-wives.

The lawyer declined to indicate the value of Farouk's estate.

Italian newpapers today estimated it as $3 million. When Farouk left Egypt in 1952, there were rumors — never substantiated — he had sent $50 million abroad before his exile.

★ ★ ★

Fuad flew here early today from Geneva in time for the expected transfer of his father's remains from a Rome Morgue to a Rome Cemetery.

Farouk's walnut coffin was closed late last night. The family plans to arrange for permanent burial, probably in Saudi Arabia, compliance with a wish of Farouk.

The 45-year-old exiled monarch died in a restaurant early Thursday of a heart attack.

Waterford Man Found Innocent of April Fatality

A Waterford Township man was found innocent of negligent homicide yesterday in the traffic death of a Detroit youth last spring.

James M. Fridlington, 43, of 4100 Cass-Elizabeth Lake, was acquitted by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury before Judge Stanton G. Dondero.

Fridlington had been charged with the April 25 death of Mitchell J. Orlap, 19, in a crash at 12 Mile Road and Middle Belt, Farmington Township.

Orlap was riding a motorbike Fridlington driving a truck.

Says School to Close While Holding Nose

ADRIAN (AP) — Dr. Eleanor Skufis, director of the Lenawee County Health Department, ordered Victorsville Rural School in the Blissfield district closed Friday.

During her inspection, a doorknob came off in her hand, she declared the water supply unsafe, discovered a skunk had a den under the building, and learned the flush toilets wouldn't work.

Dismiss Case for City Teen in Car Death

A negligent homicide charge against a Pontiac youth in connection with a fatal auto accident last October was dismissed Thursday by Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib.

★ ★ ★

The charge against Robert Walker, 19, of 1101 Berkley was dropped during an examination when a defense motion for dismissal was unopposed by the prosecution.

Walker's car collided with one driven by Lester A. Webster, 56, of Flint, Oct. 8 on Dixie in Springfield Township. Webster died two hours after the accident.

Walker was hospitalized due to injuries he suffered.

★ ★ ★

This and his attorney's involvement in a lengthy circuit court case resulted in a five-month delay of the examination.

Officers Installed by Employes' Unit

The Pontiac Municipal Employes Association last night at the Elks Temple, installed Raymond J. McCoy, 209 Florence, president for the coming year.

★ ★ ★

Other new officers are: John Gusman, first vice president; Mrs. Goldie Taylor, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Allan, secretary; and Mrs. Roma LaVergne, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Trustees of the 160-member organization are James Johnson, William Emeigh, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins and Percy McConnor.

Back to Texas Courts

Judge Denies Ruby Bid

DALLAS (AP) — Further legal maneuvering was assured today in the bizarre case of Jack Ruby, presumably still in state courts and possibly before the same judge who sentenced him to die.

U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson refused Friday to take jurisdiction.

★ ★ ★

Then the condemned slayer of President Kennedy's assassin rose, with the court's permission, to deliver this bitter comment on the courtroom session:

"Nothing satisfied me. So what good did it do? You can't win."

Ruby made the remark during a 30-minute lecture on lawyers, conspiracies and sanity — one of his few public utterances since Nov. 24, 1963, when he shot Lee Harvey Oswald.

REMOVAL SOUGHT

Lawyers for Ruby's family had asked the federal court to take jurisdiction, remove Joe Tonahill as a defense lawyer and disqualify Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown, who heard the state court murder trial, for a sanity trial.

Judge Davidson simply turned the case back to the administrator of Texas' 1st Judicial District, Judge Dallas Blankenship of Dallas, for assignment to a state court.

★ ★ ★

Blankenship said later he would let Brown decide who should preside for the sanity trial.

"If for health reasons — he's had a heart attack — or any other reason Brown wants to disqualify himself, I will appoint another judge," Blankenship said.

DECIDE LATER

He will decide later, Blankenship added, on the various issues in the case. These include:

1. Whether Tonahill remains as a defense lawyer. Tonahill says Ruby is insane and the defendant's rejection of him has no standing.

2. A date and court for Ruby's sanity hearing.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has refused to hear Ruby's appeal until after a sanity ruling.

SICK MAN

At Friday's hearing Tonahill called Ruby a "very, very sick man." Ruby looked at the floor.

Tonahill, a member of the original defense team, said he should remain because he has been with the case all the time. He said the dispute over lawyers began when Sol A. Dann of Detroit wanted "to incorporate Jack Ruby. We would not tolerate this."

★ ★ ★

Ruby asked permission to speak. Judge Davidson allowed the pudgy defendant to talk at the counsel table without being placed under oath.

At one point, Ruby said: "I think I'm doing pretty well for an insane man."

Sixteen months after he killed Oswald, Ruby said: "Don't ask me what took place in my mind. I don't know.

"If I'm a person that sounds insane at this moment, then the whole world is crazy," he added.

U.M. Wage Floor Date Is Moved Up to July 1

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The effective date for a $1.25 minimum wage for the University of Michigan's approximately 1,600 employes was pushed ahead Friday by the Board of Regents.

July 1 of this year was made the effective date. Originally, the $1.25 was to have been reached in stages by 1967.

Find 35 Dead in Mine Blast

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—The number of known victims of an explosion in a coal mine in northern Turkey reached 35 today after rescue teams pulled seven more charred bodies from the debris.

Officials of the Cheltek Coal Mines said there was little hope of finding the other 33 missing miners alive.

Officials said the feared death toll of 68, would be Turkey's worst mining disaster.

News in Brief

Robert D. Grouch, of the College Heights Trailer Park, Pontiac Township, yesterday reported the theft of $530, according to Pontiac Police.

In Case You Didn't Notice, It's Spring

AP Photofax

GLAD WINTER'S OVER—Mrs. Melvin Klaustermeier of Minneapolis, Minn., is still trying to dig out from the last snowfall yesterday. Over 11 inches of snow hit the area Wednesday, and the wind piled it in huge drifts.

Quoth the poet: "Spring, with her golden suns and silver rain, is with us once again."

Today — and never mind what a heartless thermometer may tell you — is the first day of spring.

★ ★ ★

It's printemps in Paris, Primavera in Naples and Barcelona, earraic in Tipperary, kaeetz in Tel Aviv, Fruehling in Frankfurt, viosna in Warsaw. haru in Nagasaki.

It's the moment of rebirth, the dawn of promise, the symbol of unquenchable life.

VERNAL EQUINOX

Officially, the lovely lady arrives in the United States today at 3:05 p.m. EST. This is the time of the vernal equinox. For Old Man Winter, the hour has struck.

But the old curmudgeon is like a certain kind of cocktail-party leech; he never knows when to go home.

Last year, Wyoming's heaviest snowstorm came on Mother's Day. This week, storms pole-axed the Midwest and north-central states; tornadoes swept parts of the South. The threat of snow persists today for sections of the country.

Still, the heralds already are at hand.

FLOWERS BLOOM

The cheerful snowdrop no longer is alone in the garden. Even along the gray Atlantic Coast now crocus, jonquils and tulips — promising a riot of yellow and white — are pushing up green shoots. Pussywillows and tree tulips are budding. The tinge of pale yellow, a sure sign of approaching spring, glows in the willow trees.

Chinese proverb: "Flowers feel the nearness of spring long before the farmer can."

So do merchants and maidens. In New York bright spring colors gleam on store fronts and in windows. When it rained the other day green and yellow umbrellas blossomed on Fifth Avenue.

As for the winter just past, it brought a crazy quilt of weather, a patchwork that ranged from mild to normal to brutal.

ROLLER COASTER

The thermometer rode a roller coaster in some states.

In Virginia the mercury dropped 40 degrees in 12 hours In Nebraska, on Dec. 18, it was 33 below in the northwest; five days later, it was in the high 70s in some places. In less than two weeks Los Angeles saw the mercury rise from 39 to 88.

Columbus, Ohio, had record highs and lows, 63 Dec. 30 and 11 below Jan. 17.

★ ★ ★

The rainfall in Oregon broke all December records. Several weather stations reported more than 40 inches in that month. Three houses were washed down the Umpqua River. As they approached a draw bridge, the span was opened and they floated out to sea.

CALIFORNIA RAIN

In California the U.S. Geological Survey said, the December rains were 260 per cent above normal.

There was a December record in Alaska, too — 71 below in Tok. But no all-time record. The Anchorage Weather Bureau said that was in Tanana, January 1886 — 76 below.

Minnesota took a pounding. The National Guard used a 20-ton personnel carrier, loaded with hay, to reach 50 stranded horses. They were only four miles from the barns. Sleet covered their faces, blinding them and impeding their breathing.

★ ★ ★

Indiana had a pleasant winter phenomenon. Hundreds of robins remained through the winter instead of going South. Ornithologists' theory: The enormous growth of the suburbs brought enough people to wooded areas to feed them.

NOT BREAD ALONE

But birds, like men, do not live by bread alone. The poet, Douglas Malloch, wrote:

★ ★ ★

"Ah, that's the reason a bird can sing—

"On his darkest day he believes in spring."

President Johnson's Call-Up of National Guard Is Fifth Such Action in South Since '57

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's call-up of Alabama Guardsmen today was the fifth such action in the South since 1957.

* * *

All were triggered by racial crises.

* * *

Two of the previous ones also came in Alabama. The others were in Arkansas and Mississippi.

* * *

The Alabama Guardsmen will be charged with maintaining peace during the five-day, 50-mile Selma-to-Montgomery civil rights protest march which begins Sunday.

It was not clear whether there would be any Negroes among the activated Guard force.

AUTHORITY GIVEN

Johnson gave the secretary of defense authority to call up any or all of the Army and Air guards.

There are no Negroes among the state's 14,000-member Army Guard. The National Guard Bureau said, however, that there are two Negroes in the 1,941-man Air Guard.

* * *

Most of the instances in which the federal government has mustered Guardsmen have involved enforcement of court orders to integrate public schools and state universities.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower federalized 10,500 Arkansas Air and Army Guardsmen in September 1957 in a clash with Gov. Orval Faubus over admission of Negroes to Central High School in Little Rock.

COLLEGE DISPUTE

In October 1962, the late President John F. Kennedy called out about 8,000 Mississippi Guardsmen during the riotous integration dispute at the University of Mississippi in Oxford.

The following year, Kennedy acted twice.

* * *

In June 1963, he ordered 17,000 Alabama Army and Air Guardsmen into federal service before Gov. George C. Wallace stepped aside and allowed Negroes to enter the University of Alabama.

* * *

Three months later, Alabama Guardsmen were back in federal service in a new government battle with Wallace, this time over public school integration.

In most instances, the bulk of the Guardsmen were released from federal duty in a matter of days. Many were allowed to stay at home and on their civilian jobs while technically in federal service.

* * *

In some cases, however, Guardsmen were kept on active duty for months. The last 125 Alabama Guardsmen ordered up in June 1963 were not returned to civilian life for about five months.

While on federal duty, the Guardsmen draw pay and allowances as a regular soldier or airman of comparable rank.

* * *

An Army spokesman estimated that pay and allowances would average about $15 a day per Guardsman while on federal duty.

STATE PAYS BILL

When a governor summons the guard as state troops, his state pays the bill.

Governors have mustered guard units as state militia in seven racial situations since 1956 — including twice in Alabama to cope with violence stemming from "freedom rides" and a church bombing in Birmingham.

* * *

Guard Bureau records show that governors in Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, Maryland and New York also have used National Guard units to handle racial unrest.

Support Given to Rights Bill

ND President Raps Negro Vote Denials

WASHINGTON (AP)—"There are certain areas where just the attempt to vote is tantamount to committing suicide," said the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, president of Notre Dame University.

* * *

A member of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, he appeared before a House judiciary subcommittee Friday to give enthusiastic support to the administration's voting rights bill. It proposes actions the commission has been urging for six years.

* * *

"No single issue has produced a greater consensus among our commissioners," Father Hesburgh said.

MAKE AWARE

"We have long felt that if only the American people could be made as intensely aware as we have been of the wrongs that have been inflicted upon some of their fellow citizens, there would be quick and decisive action."

* * *

He outlined some of the cases of Negro vote denial that he said produced that awareness.

* * *

Two women over 80 decided they finally would try to register in Humphreys County, Miss., Father Hesburgh said. The registrar threatened to cut them out of the federal food commodity program if they persisted and they left. Their joint income was $47 a month.

STORE OWNER

Another woman who supported her six children by operating a small store tried to register after years of being afraid.

* * *

"She said her prayers and felt she was not alone, so she walked in," he told the subcommittee. "She was given a very difficult test and that concerned her. And as she was leaving she was photographed.

* * *

"Then 15 minutes after she got back to her store the sheriff appeared with a warrant for her arrest. She was locked up for the night and fined $300 for not having a county beer license. She had federal, state and local licenses and had been in business eight years."

* * *

In Humphreys County today, he said, where there are 5,561 Negroes not one is registered.

MINISTER'S FAMILY — Mrs. James J. Reeb, whose husband, a Unitarian minister, died last week after being clubbed by white men in Selma, Ala., boards an Air Force plane yesterday in Boston for a flight to Casper, Wyo. The plane was provided by President Johnson. The children are John, 13; Karen, 6; Stephen, 3; and Anne, 5. Their parents grew up in Casper.

Roosevelt Theme: Full Speed Ahead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — James Roosevelt is quite serious about it: he wants Sam Yorty's job as mayor of Los Angeles.

For 10 years Roosevelt has been the congressman from the city's 26th District.

* * *

Now, suddenly, at 57, he has plunged into municipal politics.

NOT EASY

Getting elected won't be easy. The smart money says short, scrappy Samuel W. Yorty can defeat the towering son of the late Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt at the April 6 primary election.

But Roosevelt is gaining ground with an expensive campaign — television, personal appearances, and a Kennedy-like approach to precinct work.

* * *

Both men are predicting victory.

JOB HAZARDS

Both are Democrats, although the post is officially nonpartisan. The miracle is, considering the job's occupational hazards, that anyone would want it.

Yorty has been fighting ever since he won the office in 1961: fighting the powerful 15-member city council, fellow Democrats, and some news media.

* * *

"Government by tantrum," Roosevelt calls it. Not so, says Yorty — it's just the price paid for showing leadership in the "weak mayor" position assigned by an antiquated city charter.

WHY MAYOR?

Why does Roosevelt want to be mayor?

"The threat to orderly governmental processes in Los Angeles is real — and all of us must do our utmost to oppose the forces of disorder and extremism," he says.

Roosevelt admits to no aspirations beyond the mayor's office.

But political insiders readily offer this interpretation of Roosevelt's plans and possibilities: "If he loses, he can still go back to Congress. If he wins, he'll have a chance to build a following in population heavy Southern California, move toward the governorship or the U.S. Senate, perhaps as soon as 1966.

Democrats are already taking sides.

In Roosevelt's corner — according to Yorty — are Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Democratic National Chairman Eugene Wyman.

And in Yorty's corner — according to Roosevelt — is powerful State Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh.

* * *

Roosevelt isn't averse to employing the names of his parents and the memory of John F. Kennedy to strike at Yorty — who showed his maverick streak in 1960 by supporting Republican Richard M. Nixon for the presidency.

* * *

Roosevelt has a big appeal with the Negroes and labor. But neither group votes heavily at a city election.

Yorty's men figure he has the vote of Republicans who would rather vote for a maverick Democrat than one named Roosevelt, and the Democrats who prefer the known quantity, Yorty, to the unknown, Roosevelt.

Priest, Student Leave Selma Jail

SELMA, Ala. (UPI)—An Ann Arbor Catholic priest and a Harper Woods man yesterday gave up their plan to remain in jail until Tuesday to protest what they considered unjust arrest during a civil rights demonstration.

Rev. Pat Jackson of St. Thomas Catholic Church and Paul Bokulich, a Wayne State University student from Harper Woods were arrested Wednesday along with 34 others for parading without a permit and attempting to picket the home of Selma Mayor Joseph Smitherman.

Rev. Jackson and Bokulich had just left their cells when civil rights demonstrators marched on the Selma City Jail to protest their arrests.

"We made our point. It was not practical to protest further and nothing more could have been gained," said Fr. Jackson as he and Bokulich left the jail.

Bokulich and Rev. Jackson came to Selma Monday by car from Ann Arbor with several other Michigan priests and Catholic laymen. They joined other civil rights demonstrators protesting the nonregistration of Negroes in the city as well as lack of equal facilities for Negroes.

SUGGEST LEAVING

An attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people suggested that Rev. Jackson and Bokulich give up their protest at the jail.

The others arrested Wednesday were released after a night in jail. They had signed statements to appear in Municipal Court Tuesday. Rev. Jackson and Bokulich refused to sign similar appearance bonds.

The group which Rev. Jackson and Bokulich were arrested with was attempting to demonstrate in front of the home of Smitherman. They were halted a block from the mayor's home and arrested on a charge of illegal picketing. The charge was later changed to parading without a permit.

* * *

Rev. Jackson explained his purpose in coming to Selma and his protest in a note to a reporter. It said:

"My presence here and the charge upon which I am being held is a direct outgrowth of an immoral system which breeds inhuman and grossly unjust treatment of people endowed with all that dignity flowing from their creation by God in His own image.

"I believe that the law I am accused of violating is itself unjust and that my detainment is unjust. I therefore cannot dignify these injustices by availing myself of those means which are extended by the very authorities responsible for the injustices here involved."

Bokulich said he would remain in Selma for next week's 50-mile march to Montgomery.

Rev. Jackson said he was undecided about his remaining for the march.

* * *

Rev. Jackson came to Selma in response to a call from the National Catholic Conference on Interracial Justice to aid the civil rights cause in Alabama.

Wedding in Lansing for Paula Braden

The Church of the Resurrection in Lansing was the setting for the marriage today of Paula Louise Braden to Thomas John Emery.

★ ★ ★

Daughter of Mrs. Louis Emery of Calvert Street and Howard Braden of Midland, the bride appeared in a sheath gown of white peau de soie.

Rochelle lace fashioned the deep yoke and chapel-length train which fell from the waistline.

She donned a bouffant veil of silk illusion and held a bouquet of white gladioli and ivy arranged in a crescent.

Roberta Gertiser of Lapeer attended as maid of honor and Kathy Pangborn of Lansing was bridesmaid at the morning ceremony.

Edward Emery assisted his brother as best man and Lawrence Emery was an usher. They are the sons of the Leo Emerys of Lansing.

Nick Kostopolus of Lansing was groomsman. Thomas Almus and Thomas Fink completed the usher list.

After a church reception, the couple left for a northern honeymoon.

She attended Lansing Community College and Central Michigan University. Mr. Emery is an alumnus of Michigan State University.

Parents Tell Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rounsville of Troy announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeannette Marie, to Pvt. Eric Walter Nykanen, son of Mrs. M. Nykanen of Detroit and Bernard A. Nykanen of Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

Her fiance is stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps at Camp Pendelton, Calif.

★ ★ ★

Need Not Send Gift for Bride

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My daughter will be a bridesmaid for a girl in her office. My husband and I do not know the bride or her fiance. We did, however, receive an invitation to the church and reception. I sent regrets for the reception, but we will go to the church service.

Are we obliged to send the bride a wedding present? I don't think a gift is necessary, but my daughter says we should send one since we received an invitation to the reception. Will you please tell me the correct thing to do?

A: As you do not know the bride, her parents or the groom and you were obviously invited only because your daughter is a member of the bridal party, no gift is required, especially since you are not going to the reception.

★ ★ ★

Q: Our company is planning to send out formal invitations to a large dinner they are giving in several weeks. They want to keep it informal as far as dress is concerned.

Will you please tell me how this is indicated on the invitations?

A: Include the words, "Informal Dress" in the lower right hand corner of the invitations opposite the r.s.v.p.

Suggest You Supply Needs ---He Needn't Shop at Night

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: After 12 years of marriage, how dumb can a wife be? Almost every evening after supper, Joe would ask me if I needed anything from the drugstore or the all-night grocery store. (You know, a woman always needs something.)

I would tell him and he'd take off. If one of the kids wanted to go along for the ride, he'd always make up some excuse why they couldn't go. Anyway, he'd never take any of them with him.

He would be gone two or three hours. Then he'd come home with a magazine or toothpicks or some little item he picked up for me, and he would always have "bumped into somebody" who held him up for a couple of hours. Now I realize that Joe just wanted to get out of the house.

What do you suppose my Joe is out looking for?

JUST CAUGHT ON

★ ★ ★

DEAR JUST: I don't know. What does he need?

DEAR ABBY: I recently read an article in a popular women's magazine on the matter of "allowances" for school children.

The author advised mothers to get together with the parents of other children in her child's class and decide on a certain amount so that all the children would have the same spending money, and therefore feel that they "belong."

Inasmuch as you came out against "codes" for teenagers, I wonder how you feel about this?

MRS. A.

DEAR MRS. A.: Again, this is a decision that should be made by each parent, and not by a "group." A child's allowance should be determined by how much his parents think they can and should spare.

This will vary, since all children do not have the same economic backgrounds. I believe that more important than the feeling of "belonging" to a group is for a child to understand that he "belongs" to his family, and must live according to their moral and economic standards.

Hills Residents Plan 'Spring' Vacations

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Tommy Bachman will be home this weekend from Culver Military Academy to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bachman Jr.

Next week end the Bachmans leave for some skiing in Aspen, Colo. Their son Bill who attends the University of Colorado will join them there.

★ ★ ★

At the end of April, Mrs. Bachman's parents, the L. F. Weyands of San Francisco will be houseguests in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wells.

CANADIAN WEDDING

The Weyands and Bachmans will travel to Ottawa, Ont. to attend the wedding of Mr. Weyand's nephew, Paul Weyand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Weyand of Cedar Bend Drive.

★ ★ ★

The LeRoy Dahlbergs recently returned from several weeks of skiing in Aspen. After a short time at home Mrs. Dahlberg and her son Lyle are headed for Otsego to ski during Lyle's vacation.

Mrs. Ernest Jones and her children Stephen, Janet and Mark are also spending a long weekend at Otsego.

PRE-PLAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Darragh have planned a dinner party prior to St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook presentation of "Big Knife" on April 2.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Theodore Yntema is in New York visiting her daughter Gwin. She is also attending committee meetings of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, where she is a trustee.

Friends are hearing from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wellock who are at their home in Honolulu, Hawaii of the many visitors they are seeing from Michigan.

Last week, they honored Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey with a dinner party at the Country Club. Eight couples from Michigan were present.

The Baileys are on a trip to the Orient.

PEO Sisterhood Celebrates

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Richard Justice, Mrs. Burton Mitchell, Mrs. Martin Wager, and Mrs. Paul Thams.

Back From Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Ryan of Devonbrook Lane have returned from a three-week vacation in Hawaii. They visited former Pontiac residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Jr. who live in Scottsdale, Ariz., en route.

Salary Is Reasonable, But Who Gets It?

By JOLLY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—I have just learned from my friendly neighborhood banker that I, along with 29,999,999 of my coworkers, earn $8,285.68 a year at the going rates for all the jobs we hold under the general title of "housewife."

★ ★ ★

The Chase Manhattan Bank's Economic Research Department has conducted a survey which reveals what tasks the average housewife performs daily, the number of hours she spends on each, and the rate of pay for these jobs on the labor market.

Their statistics show that America's 30 million homemakers are worth $159.34 a week on the hoof, which is usually where they are during the 99.6 hours they're on the job.

FIGURES WRONG

As one of that number, I take issue with some of their figures.

In the role of food buyer I may indeed spend 3.3 hours a week at the rate of $1.50 an hour, for a total of $4.95.

But shouldn't I get overtime pay for the extra minutes I spend licking the trading stamps?

For the job of nursemaid—44.5 hours at $1.25 per — I'm entitled to $55.63.

I no longer have any little ones around, but we wives who play nursemaid to boys over 40 surely deserve a bonus.

That total of $9.30 for 6.2 hours of dishwashing must be for those who have any army of little kilowatts helping out.

I'm a strictly nonautomatic dishwasher myself, and I spend much longer than that acquiring my rose-colored detergent hands.

NO SEAMSTRESS

In all honesty, I'll have to return the check for $3.25 I'm allowed as seamstress at $2.50 an hour.

Even if I could sew, I'd find some way to keep from spending 1.3 hours a week at it.

Being a cook for 13.1 hours a week at $2.50 an hour sounds about right.

But why don't we just take that $32.75 it adds up to and eat out?

Also on the list are dietitian, housekeeper, laundress, practical nurse, maintenance man, gardener and chauffeur.

But in our household I have numerous other positions the bank economists never even thought of.

I'm not sure how much certifed public accountants are getting these days, but I spend quite a few potentially golden moments making the bank balance come out even, keeping records and figuring out how to rob Peter to pay Paul.

★ ★ ★

My part-time job as a psychiatrist should bring in additional revenue.

Every night my husband comes home, lies down on the couch and starts telling me his problems.

Then, of course, there's my detective work, for which I'm on call 24 hours a day to find a lost cuff link or locate an important paper.

I spend more than half an hour every morning in a very specialized job, trying to get my husband out of bed.

Pontiac Man Is Married

In a recent ceremony at the Mary Star of the Sea Catholic Church, Port Hueneme, Calif. Emelyn Ambrosio Evans exchanged vows with Construction Battalion Builder 3.C. Thomas Ronald Niedjelski, U.S.N.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Evans of Port Hueneme. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Niedjelski of Dexter Road, Pontiac Township.

The couple will reside in Oxnard, Calif.

School Aide Tells AAUW About Survey

Jerry Blanchard, director of the Curriculum Materials Center for Waterford Township schools, spoke at the March meeting of Waterford branch, American Association of University Women.

★ ★ ★

Miss Blanchard presented a progress report on the information that the Citizens for Local Action on Social Problems (CLASP) have gathered. This group is surveying the township.

Hostesses for the coffee hour following the talk were Mrs. Charles Welsh, Mrs. Euell Smith and Mrs. Palmer Burns.

★ ★ ★

Women interested in AAUW who hold baccalaureate degrees may obtain further information about becoming members of the Waterford branch by contacting Mrs. Gerald Irish or Mrs. John Bills.

The next meeting will be April 13.

The James C. Allens of Worlington Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Elaine to James Patrick Tomlinson Jr., son of the James P. Tomlinsons of Bloomfield Village. The September bride-elect attends the University of Detroit. Her fiance, a graduate of Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., is a graduate student at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Leone Reed Gives Concerts

Plays Melodies on Cowbells

PLAYS COWBELLS—Mrs. Leone Reed of 1205 Merry, Waterford Township, plays "We're Marching to Zion" and "Onward Christian Soldiers" on her copper cowbells to keep in practice for performances in Oakland County churches. A pianist, she made tape recordings of piano accompaniment tuned to standard pitch.

Anyone who hears the clear, tinkling sound of cowbells as he passes the McMillan home, 1205 Merry, Waterford Township, may look for a herd of cows in neighboring fields.

★ ★ ★

The cowbells are real but there are no cows.

The chances are Mrs. Leone Reed is ringing her musical cowbells as she practices for concerts of sacred music at churches, women's clubs and schools.

The 27 bright, copper cowbells were imported from Belgium.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Arnold K. Westfall of Michigan City, Ind., topped the bells with leather handles and keeps them tuned for Mrs. Reed at standard pitch.

The bells are set up as a piano keyboard in sharps. The keys range from G below middle C to an octave and a half above middle C.

★ ★ ★

The smallest cowbell is about an inch high, the largest nearly four inches with a three-inch in diameter base.

The Indiana pastor also makes and tunes sleigh bells for playing. The cowbells hold the tuning for a long time, Mrs. Reed said.

Mrs. Reed and her daughter, Mrs. Hector McMillan and children, make their home together.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. McMillan and her six sons returned to Pontiac before Christmas from the Congo where her missionary husband was killed by rebels Nov. 24.

★ ★ ★

A graduate of Bob Jones University, Mrs. Reed taught piano in the Public School System for three years before going into home missionary work. Her late husband, Arthur, died in 1938.

She has worked as home missionary, church secretary, director of Christian education and as director of children's choirs in six states as well as Washington, D. C.

Her four daughters were raised and educated in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Besides Mrs. McMillan they include Mrs. Robert Schmidt in Foldotna, Alaska, whose husband is a commercial fisherman on Cook's Inlet; Mrs. Larry Dawson, whose husband is head of a missionary school in the Dominican Republic; and Mrs. Maurice Peterson, wife of the pastor of First Baptist Church in Melvin.

CENTRAL METHODIST

Mr. and Mrs. James Makawa from Southern Rhodesia will tell of their country at the 6:30 Lenten cooperative dinner program Wednesday in Central Methodist Church.

The Makawas came to America in 1961 under the auspices of the church. They attended MacMurray College earning degrees in history. Currently they are attending Michigan State University where they are working for a master's degree in the field of history.

They came to Central Methodist as Crusade Scholars since they hold scholarships through the Methodist Church. The Makawas hope to return to Rhodesia to teach in high schools there, Pastor Milton H. Bank said.

Guest Speakers at Local Churches

A series of lectures on "The Emotional Problems of the Home" began last night at the Pontiac Seventh-day Adventist Church, 156 Mt. Clemens.

* * *

Archa O. Dart, home and parent educator of the World Headquarters of Seventh-day Adventists in Washington, D.C., is the speaker for the series which continues through Thursday.

The Adelphian Academy Choir, Holly, is offering a musical program at the Youth Rally at 3:30 this afternoon in Pontiac Northern High School. Mr. Dart will speak to the young people following the concert.

Among Mr. Dart's subjects during his stay will be "Wholesome Attitudes," "Making Obedience Fun," "The Teen Age," "Juvenile Delinquency" and "What Makes a Happy Home?"

Throughout the lecture period the church official will hold counseling sessions for members of the church and community.

* * *

Mr. Dart is a professional marriage counselor and child guidance worker in addition to his administrative duties as head of the Adventists home and school relationships program.

Author of numerous books, he is editor of "The Adventist Home and School" magazine published in Washington.

FIRST METHODIST

Rev. Perry A. Thomas, pastor of Asbury Methodist Church, Flint, will be guest speaker at the 6:30 dinner Wednesday evening at First Methodist Church, South Saginaw at Judson. His topic will be "British American Adventure."

* * *

Rev. Mr. Thomas was born in Pontiac and was always a part of the life of First Methodist Church where his father was Sunday School superintendent.

* * *

He attended Asbury College, the University of Chicago and the graduate school of Theology, Oberlin College. He was ordained in 1954 in the Detroit Annual Conference.

Prior to his present appointment he was pastor of Commerce Methodist Church.

During the summer of 1964 Rev. Mr. Thomas with his wife and five sons were in Egnland where he was an exchange pastor. His hobby is art and ceramic and metal sculpture.

Adult membership Training Classes will be held in Pastor Carl G. Adams' study at 7:30 Thursday evening.

The Booster Class will get together for a cooperative supper at 6 p.m. Friday.

The Women's Society Study Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Raymond Boone, 19 E. Iroquois at 10 a.m. Monday. The Pearl Baxter Circle will be hostess to the general meeting of women and Easter program at the noon luncheon Thursday.

Appalachian Institute Choir Offers Concert

The choir of the Appalachian Bible Institute of Bradley, W. Va. will present a concert of sacred music at 7 p.m. Sunday in Sunnyvale Chapel, 5311 Pontiac Lake, Waterford Township.

* * *

For the past 12 years the choir has been under the direction of Rev. Calvin C. Beukema, instructor of music at Appalachian Institute. He also directs the weekly broadcast over 18 stations in eastern states.

The 23-voice choir will present a program consisting of hymn arrangements and anthems. Several small groups will also be featured.

Piano accompaniment will be supplied by Mrs. Lester Pipkin, instructor in piano.

* * *

The Appalachian Bible Institute is a college level school for Christian young people interested in training for Christian service. It was founded in 1950.

The school is located on a 95-acre campus near Beckley, W. Va. The Rev. Lester Pipkin has been president since its beginning.

Presbyterian Youth to Hold Conference

EAST LANSING — "Christian Ethics and Social Pressures" is the theme of a conference for Presbyterian young adult leaders March 26-28 at Michigan State University.

* * *

More than 100 young adults from the Presbyterian Synod of Michigan will explore the role of the church as an ethical force in today's world, and examine how the church should relate to the dehumanizing forces in today's society.

"Shaping a Christian Ethic for Today" and "Man's Situation" are the subjects for addresses by Dr. Harold Walsh of the MSU Department of Philosophy.

Representing the church in the discussions will be the Rev. Harry Wright of Presbyterian Neighborhood Services, Detroit.

* * *

MSU's University Committee on Church Related Programs is sponsoring the event.

National Conference in Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill. — Dr. Paul Tillich and Louis Kahn head a list of distinguished speakers scheduled to appear before the 26th National Conference on Church Architecture in Chicago, April 27 through April 29.

More than 2,000 architects, clergymen and church building committee members from all over the United States are expected to attend the conference, which will convene at the Pick-Congress Hotel here.

★ ★ ★

More than 50 leaders in the fields of architecture, theology, religious education, ecclesiastical arts and church finance will participate in the program.

Discussion at seven clinic sessions will focus on problems encountered by every church group contemplating a building program, and how each church can best solve its particular problems.

East Side Church Heads Association

A special service will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow in the East Side Church of God, 343 Irwin, for those wishing to be a part of the newly organized United Missionary Association.

According to the Rev. Matthew Scott, pastor of the East Side Church and president of the association, the group will take part in citywide affairs. "Our main purpose is to win souls to Christ," he said.

Heading the publicity is Rev. Joseph Blackshere of New Jerusalem Baptist Church.

Pastor Scott said everyone is welcome regardless of race, creed or color.

Greatness Is Aligned to Handicap, Adversity

BOSTON (AP)—Upset by problems? Here's a consoling thought from Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston:

"More men have been made great by crosses than by crowns; conversely, more men have been made soft, even ruined, by crowns than by crosses. More men have been blessed through handicap and adversity than have been perfected through affluence."

Assisting Migrants

Council of Churches to Become Agency

At its recent meeting in Asheville, the board of directors of the North Carolina Council of Churches voted to become the contracting agency to administer Federal funds appropriated under the Economic Opportunity Act for education, child care and other services to the state's migrant workers.

★ ★ ★

The Council's committee on ministry to migrants has conducted a comprehensive program for migrants and their families using church and individual contributions.

The Federal funds and the Committee's experience in the field, said the report, will permit an expanded ministry without any government controls.

The board also voted a resolution reaffirming its support of the National Council of Churches and another declaring its opposition to capital punishment.

Elected new president of the Council was Episcopal Bishop M. George Henry of North Carolina who succeeds Dr. George R. Whittecar.

★ ★ ★

The admission of the North Carolina Conference of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church (Negro) brought membership in the Council to 16 denominations.

Our Lady of Refuge Host for Council

The Altar Society of Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church, Orchard Lake will be host to the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, North Oakland Deanery at 10:30 a.m. on March 25.

★ ★ ★

Members and guests are asked to bring a sandwich. Dessert and beverage will be provided.

Highlight of the day will be the speaker Mrs. O. E. Wolford, national president of the Council of Catholic Women. "Giving Yourself Away" will be her topic.

An election of officers will be included during the business session.

Young People in Play

Fifteen young people will take part in the play, "The Search," at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in Greater Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, 603 Midway. Mrs. Pearline Williamson is the director.

ROMANIAN PRESIDENT DIES—The president and Communist party chief of Romania, Gheorghe GheorghiuDej, 64, died yesterday in Bucharest.

Romanian Leader Dies at 64; Shaped Policy of Independence

VIENNA (UPI) — Romanian President Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej, architect of his nation's growing independence from Moscow, died yesterday in a Bucharest hospital. He was 64.

Gheorghiu-Dej's death was announced by the official Romanian news agency. It came a day after parliament reelected him president.

The parliament, now in session, was expected to elect a new president soon.

Until then, experts said, Gheorghiu-Dej's presidential duties would be assumed by the three vice-chairmen of the state council — Ion Gheorghe Maurer, who is also premier; Stefan Voite and Avram Bunanciu.

* * *

Gheorghiu-Dej, who was also the Communist party leader, had been hospitalized with pneumonia and hepatitis. He lapsed into a coma shortly before his death.

NEW POLICY

The late president was responsible for the shaping of a nationalistic new Romanian policy under which Romania defied the Kremlin's domination of the Communist Eastern European nations.

Gheorghiu-Dej was elected secretary general of the Romanian workers (Communist) party in 1945 and held this post to his death with a one-year break from 1954 to 1955.

He was Romanian vice premier from 1948 to 1952 under the regime of Petre Groza.

In May, 1952, he was appointed prime minister at the request of Moscow, then under Josef Stalin.

* * *

On Oct. 4, 1955, he was unanimously elected first secretary of the central committee of the Romanian Communist party and at the same time stepped down as prime minister.

He became president in 1961.

Huge Dams, Irrigation Projects Planned

21 Nations Cooperate to Harness the Mekong River for SE Asia

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — The Mekong, one of the great rivers of the world, runs through some of the poorest countries of the world — Cambodia, Laos, South Viet Nam and Thailand.

The name has become well-known in recent years because of the bloody battles fought with the Communist Viet Cong in the river's delta land south of Saigon.

All the while, 21 countries have been cooperating in a gigantic and costly development project which they say will bring a richer life to 50 million people who live in the 236,000 square miles of its lower basin.

U.S. agencies have been talking of the river as a sleeping giant. They say the river's mighty volume of water has enormous potential for power, irrigation and transport.

The Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East — ECAFE — will be told in formal reports next week that the giant has one eye about to open a tiny fraction.

Two irrigation and power dams on tributaries in northeastern Thailand will be completed this year, a year ahead of the earliest time considered possible when the Mekong scheme got under way in 1960.

One dam at Nam Pong cost $21 million and the other, at Nam Pung, cost $6 million.

Officials here for an ECAFE meeting said that $9 million was spent to get basic information about the river before planning began. A part of this was $3 million for 40 permanent river gauges.

PLEDGED MONEY

So far, $68 million has been pledged by participating countries. Officials say this is just a tiny start.

"We think we will spend $2 billion by 1980 on dams, power installations and irrigation works," said Dr. C. Hart Schaaf, executive agent of the Mekong committee. "And this will not exhaust the resources of the river by a long shot."

* * *

Schaaf, an American administrator from Fort Wayne, Ind., said Cambodia, Laos, Thailand and South Viet Nam have contributed 45 per cent of the funds to date, with the remainder from the 21 outside countries.

Canada did a $1.3-million aerial mapping of the river. The United States made a $2.5-million project plan for a huge dam across the main river at Pa Mong. It may eventually cost $400 million, but would irrigate 2.5 million acres.

U.S. INTERESTS

"The United States is profoundly interested in Mekong," said Dr. Walter M. Kotschnig, the chief American ECAFE representative.

"If and when things settle down, the United States will consider this as a real opportunity to start one of the real developmental projects of the world."

* * *

Schaaf said harnessing of the lower Mekong would make it possible to grow two or three rice crops a year instead of one.

People of the lower Mekong, he said, would have cheap and plentiful electricity instead of the present expensive power generated with imported fuel. Flooding would be controlled.

Among the projects is a sort of two-way dam on the Tonle Sap River. In the dry season it drains the Great Lake of Cambodia into the Mekong. When the Mekong floods, the Tonle Sap reverses and flows into the Great Lake.

YEAR-ROUND FISH

The dam would keep more water in the great lake, control the flooding, and make the lake a great year-round source of fish.

The Mekong rises in the mountains of Tibet and empties into the South China Sea, just south of Saigon, 2,600 river miles away. Its course in the lower basin is 1,500 miles.

The other 19 countries that have helped are Australia, India, Japan, New Zealand, Pakistan, Britain, Belgium, Nationalist China, Denmark, Finland, France, West Germany, Iran, Italy, Israel, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, and the Philippines.

Among Honest Londoners

Some 'Fare' Chiselers

LONDON (UPI)—Now it can be told. Londoners aren't all that honest.

London's Transport Authority reported that it lost about $84,000 in fares Monday during an unofficial strike by subway booking office clerks.

Passengers were put on their honor to drop the correct fares in buckets placed at stations.

It was first reported by the authorities that the system was a great success.

Londoners were made proud to feel so honest.

THEN THE TALLY

Then they tallied the receipts.

The result: Only $140,000 was collected on the day of the strike. On a normal Monday, collections total about $224,000.

North Central Permit Extended by Air Force

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—The Air Force has agreed to extend use of Kincheloe Air Force Base to North Central Airlines, Rep. Raymond Clevenger, D-Mich., said Friday.

Clevenger said the extension was granted until July 1. North Central's landing permit was to have expired April 1. The extension was granted to enable Sault Ste. Marie to complete work on a new terminal and parking facilities, he said.

GOP Committee Raps Dem Tactics

DETROIT (AP) — The Republican State Central Committee criticized the legislative Democratic majority Friday night for "irresponsible tactics" in its rejection of Gov. George Romney's budget.

The committee, meeting again today, reportedly would not take action on the Genesee-Lapeer County stand against a type of news ban by Genesee County Prosecutor Robert F. Leonard.

Leonard, a Democrat, has forbidden police to make public certain information connected with criminal acts prior to court action.

Hobby Is Highlight of Home

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Big-game hunter Dr. M. C. Worster of Erie Drive, Orchard Lake, has trophies that would fan a spark of envy in the heart of even the most lukewarm of nimrods.

But his mounted beauties don't transform the lovely Worster home into a "museum of natural science."

"My husband's trophies are hung only in his game room and in the informal recreation room," said Mrs. Worster.

★ ★ ★

"None are displayed in our living and dining rooms or in the other sections of the house."

The lakeside living and dining rooms feature a pale gold, monochromatic background in carpeting, walls and draperies.

Treasures, like the Chinese brass gong on the fireplace wall, which were collected by the doctor on his worldwide tours, add a distinctive touch to the area's decor.

A fruit arrangement spills over the natural container on the novel coffee table made from a Hawaiian monkeypod tree. Egyptian camel racks, complete with leather cushions and bells, nestle under the table's rim ready to be put into service as an ottoman or extra seat.

The blond mahogany furniture in the dining area is accented by chairs with gold-striped cushions and backs. To create an interesting focal point, Mrs. Worster has inserted bulbs repeating the room's color scheme, green, blue and gold, in the three cutwork ceramic cylinders hanging above the table.

Designed for comfort, the wear and tear of dripping bathing suits and fun-loving teen-agers—the Worsters have two, Pam, 15, and David, 19—the ground - level recreation room is furnished in moisture resistant fabrics and wicker occasional chairs.

Among the game trophies in the room are a zebra skin rug, a hartebeest, a wildebeest, a caribou, a Cape buffalo, and pelts of a Somali leopard, a tiger and a grizzly bear.

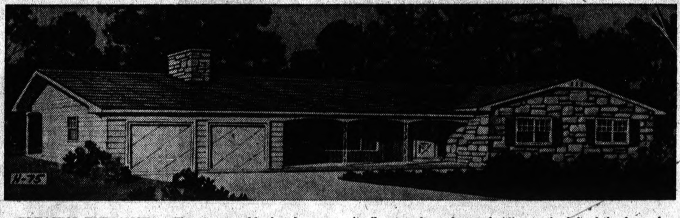
FLOOR PLANS — Excellent utilization of all available space has been made by architect Lester Cohen in floor plans of H-75, including area in rear of garage, with its covered porch leading into dining room via sliding glass doors.



PLEASING ENTRANCE — There's a world of welcome to the front-door area of this three-bedroom ranch house, with its flagstoned porch, wood siding to the left of the foyer door and stone veneer to the right.

Traffic Pattern Is Tops in Efficiency

A major request from a family planning a larger home, usually its second, is for plenty of space.

Understandable, of course. But perhaps an even more vital request should be for space that a family can handle.

If the new house is just big, it may be a burden in more ways than one. Not too many householders have budgets that will permit them to call in help to take care of the maintenance tasks, even if such help were always available, which it isn't.

The wise family, therefore, will look for a house which gives it the necessary living area for both formal and informal activities, but with no waste of space.

In the latest House of the Week, architect Lester Cohen set out to design just such a house.

COMPACT DESIGN

It's a three-bedroom, two-bath, ranch with rooms that are large but not too large, but most of all, with a compact arrangement and a traffic pattern that effectively utilize every inch of available space.

The woman of the house knows what a pleasure it is not to have the living room and dining room unnecessarily walked across during the comings and goings of an ordinary day — especially when there are children around.

In Design H-75, the youngsters, or anyone else, can use either the front or back doors and get to the kitchen, family rooms or the bedroom wing without crossing the more formal rooms. And access to the basement is just as easy from the outside as it is from the kitchen and family room.

Another feature achieved with good traffic control is privacy in all areas, especially those that are mother's special domain.

The kitchen work area in this house is so arranged that she can be busy in her U-shaped work section and keep an eye on children in the family room or maintain control of dining room activities.

The master bedroom has its own bath, plus a dressing room and two closets. The second bath is accessible to the other two bedrooms and the rest of the house.

★ ★ ★

There's a fireplace in the living room, which is set back from the bedroom wing, so that its large front window looks out on the attractive front porch.

DINING ROOM

The dining room has sliding glass doors leading to a covered porch that is shielded by the rear wall of the two-car garage.

Combined, the living room and the dining room form an eye-pleasing L-shaped entertaining area.

Storage is provided for clothes, linens and extras in eleven closets in this house. With a big garage and a full basement, the average family will find no complaint about "putaway" space, another item on the big-enough-but-not-too-big side of the ledger.

★ ★ ★

The living area is 1,679 square feet, which does not include the two porches, garage or basement. Over-all dimensions, including the garage, are 72' 6" by 36' 6", a suitable size for the usual 100' suburban building lot.

H-75 STATISTICS

Design H-75 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, family room, three bedrooms, two baths, a dressing room, a rear porch off the dining room, another at the front and a two-car garage with space for a work bench and toys. The total habitable area is 1,679 square feet. The over-all dimensions, including the garage, are 72' 6" by 36' 6".

Stop Scum; Soften Water

Homeowners living in hard water areas—85 per cent of the country, to be exact—may think they have licked the problem of sticky, clinging soap curds in the wash by using a synthetic detergent incorporating some type of water softening agent.

Actually, this is no more than a token solution to the problem. The detergent used may do a good job of tying up the water hardness during the wash cycle in the automatic clothes washer—fine. So far, so good.

But when the wash water drains out, to be replaced by the hard, unprotected rinse water, there is nothing to prevent a fresh deposit of water hardness scum, dulling the appearance of freshly laundered articles.

The only effective way to eliminate the hard water problem once and for all is to install modern home water softening equipment. Many municipalities partially soften water, sometimes down to about 5 grains of hardness. However, since water of 3 or more grains is considered hard, there still is need for home equipment.

★ ★ ★

Hard water, responsible for the familiar ring in the bathtub, film on freshly-washed glassware and silverware, rough and reddened hands, and dingy-looking washes, is more than an inconvenience.

1965 Range Features Novel Oven

An oven that pulls out for easy, stand-up cleaning highlights a new compact built-in electric range.

The new range, with glass oven door, was shown for the first time at the National Association of Home Builders exposition in Chicago.

Just as builders have liked the easy, quick installation of the compact range, homemakers will like the easier cleaning made possible by the addition of the pull-out oven.

Equipped with four fast-heating surface units and a spacious undercounter oven, the new range can be installed in any 33-inch width, standard depth cabinet, or suspended in an opening between cabinets. It's installed quickly because opening dimensions are not critical.

★ ★ ★

A generous overhang on the range top, plus a wide trim at sides and bottom, cover seams in the cabinet opening. A clean, uncluttered appearance and a snug, custom fit are assured with any type or style of cabinetry arrangement. Once positioned, the range is easily secured by four thumbscrews.

FILIGREE PATTERN

There is an attractive squared-up filigree pattern on the see-through glass door. A newly styled door handle, covered with a smart and durable wood-grained vinyl, is similar in appearance to those on most 1965 refrigerators.

The range has no control panel at the rear. Instead, controls for surface units and oven are on a recessed panel at the front of the range.

Other models in line are available with or without automatic oven controls; and the newly announced range has provisions for an optional rotisserie.

★ ★ ★

Furniture Refinishing, Fun for Hobby

Furniture refinishing is one of the most intriguing and rewarding of hobbies. Unfortunately, the initial step — removing the old finish — can sometimes be a little annoying. Even worse, it can be downright messy.

Occasionally you will hear or read about someone who removed an old finish quickly and simply. Don't let it make you overconfident.

It's not likely to happen to you. The removal of most finishes requires time, patience, care and a quality varnish remover.

Make up your mind to that and you'll get good results.

* * *

Since many removers are flammable and toxic, be sure to read the label on the container to determine what, if any, precautions must be taken while doing the job.

ANOTHER POINT

Another point to determine is whether the particular remover you are using must be neutralized or washed from the wood after the old finish has been taken off.

The remover is applied with a paint brush with light pressure, moving in one direction only and not brushing it out as might be done with some kinds of paint.

After waiting anywhere from 20 minutes to 45 minutes, try scraping with a putty knife.

* * *

If the old finish begins to come off easily and with fairly light strokes, continue with the job.

But if there is any resistance, put down the knife and apply another coat of remover right over the old one. Wait a while and then try again.

The more old coats there are on the furniture, the more applications are necessary. (Varnish removal and the application of varnish, shellac, lacquer and other finishes are covered in Andy Lang's helpful booklet, "Wood Finishing in the Home," which can be obtained by sending 25 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Know-How, P. O. Box 954, Jamaica, N. Y. 11431.)

* * *

When the use of a putty knife might damage the wood, use a small brush or steel wool.

An old toothbrush is especially handy for carved woodwork. The putty knife, by the way, should have a dull rather than a sharp blade and it should be held at a low angle rather than upright to avoid gouging the wood.

Some putty knives have tiny pieces of metal sticking out from the ends. If yours has, be sure to file them off so that there is no possibility of scratching the wood.

* * *

If you are using a clear finish in redoing the furniture, it is important that every surface imperfection be smoothed, with sandpaper or steel wool.

When the old finish is off, but a slight stain remains, it may be necessary to use a bleach to prepare the surface for the clear finish.

If paint is to be the finish, this stain need not be removed, but a coat of shellac or other sealer will give added insurance against any trouble from the stain.

Engelmann Spruce Fine for Interiors

Engelmann spruce is a favored wood for interior paneling and trim.

* * *

Its nearly white color and small, tight knots lend great character and beauty to wall surfaces and cabinetwork.

Garage Roof Transformed Into Patio, Deck

Cramped for space? A patio or sun deck could be the solution.

* * *

For many homeowners, this extra space may be found on the garage roof.

Wherever you build your patio or sun deck, it will benefit you to surface it with a durable material such as quarry tile. This rugged old standby will withstand the roughest weather and wear.

Quarry tile is now available in a variety of sizes and shapes, plus a wider range of permanent colors than ever before. For those who want a slip-proof surface, there are tiles with carborundum specks added.

* * *

If you have a flat-topped garage, you can easily acquire a sun deck by adding stairs and railing. Garages with pitch roofs often can be rebuilt without great expense.

High Styling-in budget housing

CONCENTRATE on this exquisite dining area. Just the candelabra. Not just any candelabra. This one is designed for this home exclusively. High styling has been brought to low cost housing by a national manufacturer who mass-produces houses on the assembly line like cars. The dwellings come complete, furnished in magnificent decor, and are relocatable, mobile for delivery to your homesite, lakeside, or mountainside. A wide array of high style models are displayed at Colonial Mobilhome Sales.

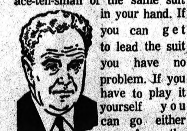
Opening lead—♣ 10

By JACOBY & SON

The two-way finesse is a situation that is likely to confront every player several times each session of play. A typical situation is for you to find king-jack-small in dummy and hold ace-ten-small of the same suit in your hand. If you can get to lead the suit you have no problem. If you have to play it yourself you can go either way for the missing queen.



JACOBY

The Official Encyclopedia of Bridge says, "Sometimes a missing queen can be located without resorting to any guesswork at all."

Today's hand is their example. The bidding to the no-trump grand slam was short and sweet. North counted up his 16 high card points, asked his partner to repeat his bid to make sure that he had heard correctly, added 16 to 21 (the least his partner could have for his two no-trump opening) and bid the grand slam.

West opened the ten of clubs and South noted that he had only 12 top tricks and that the 13th depended on picking up the queen of diamonds.

He wanted as much information as possible before trying to locate that missing queen, so South ran off 10 tricks in spades, hearts and clubs. While doing this he noted that East showed out on the second club lead. This meant that West had started with six clubs. Then West followed to three heart leads and to all three spade leads.

This accounted for 12 of West's cards and meant that he could not hold more than one diamond. Hence, South led a diamond to dummy's king and finessed against East with complete certainty of success.

♥♣CARD Sense♠♦

Q—The bidding has been:

East	South	West	North
1 ♣	Dble	Pass	2 ♣
Pass	2 ♦	Pass	2 ♥
Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠K 9 7 6 ♥A 10 8 4 ♦K J 6 5 ♣2

What do you do now?

A—Bid three hearts. You are still forced to bid and you have heart support.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner continues to three spades. What do you do now?

Answer Monday

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Sunday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Take lead in financial action. Partner or mate may have grandiose ideas. Be sympathetic — but curb any actions leading to extravagance. Then ambience features productivity.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): If you attempt to push views you lose out. Maintain principles. But be quiet about them. This is no time to antagonize others. Key is maturity — and PATIENCE. You will get results!

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): There is nothing concrete to hold you back. But you seem to fear those in authority. Speak up! Do so in dignified manner. Others want to hear your views. Stress CONFIDENCE plus COOPERATION!

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Best to seek company of sincere friends. Companion who has been loyal in past can be of real aid. Steer clear of one who advocates sensationalism. Attend church of choice.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): If you insist on being provincial . . . you will create your own obstacles. Good to test, probe, take a chance on abilities, beliefs. FEEL FREE. Welcome opportunity and challenge.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Key is HARMONY, cooperation. You may be called upon to deliver "message." Accept with good humor. Aspects feature discovery, sparkling ideas, group entertainment.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Draw line between creative imagination and mere day-dreaming. Be aware, alert. Avoid self-deception. Face facts as they exist. APPLIES ESPECIALLY TO POSSESSIONS.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Don't attempt to grab limelight. Stress need for cooperative action. Partner or mate needs attention, reassurance. Set wonderful example. You will be more than repaid!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Be discreet. Heed words of one who offers spiritual nourishment. Take time to be true to own convictions. Then you have sense of achievement. Good for INTROSPECTION.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Focus on PRACTICALITY OF AMBITIONS. Take initiative in smoothing over differences with friends. Don't harbor grudges. If you smile . . . you will be smiled upon!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): You can gain most through REASONABLE ATTITUDE. Applies especially in dealing with family members. Fine time for entertaining at home. Dine with one important to your future.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Gain indicated through written word. Read your paper. Check special features. Key to puzzle is available. Be OBSERVANT. Good to write letter you have been "putting off."

★ ★ ★

IF SUNDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you have fine sense of humor. But often you make mountains out of molehills. Learn to relax! Then many problems dissolve. You become a happier, more productive individual.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Scandal could erupt which is connected with national secrets.

For Monday

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Vitality reappears. You're better able to plan . . . put ideas into concrete form. Find out true meaning of recent experience. Gain object lesson from CANCER-born individual.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Stress sincerity of purpose. Then associates aid. Your objective is within reach. But you should require privacy, time to think. Be true to principles. Hold off on excess spending.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): Unusual social affair tonight could be beneficial. Check details. Be ready to explain ideas, interests. Have facts, figures available. Aim spotlight on mate or partner!

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Highlight work, career efforts. Important to keep communication lines open. Listen and assert — be AWARE. Many are intrigued with your ideas. NOW you should express them!

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): Family member needs special praise. Be mature. Realize by giving — you also receive. Obtain hint from GEMINI message. Good Moon aspect highlights romance, travel, CHANGE.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Family affairs dominate. Funds are needed for home improvement, education. Keep mind open . . . discuss issues. Then arrive at decision which guarantees HARMONY AT HOME.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Solid gain indicated. Comes about through short journey, message or report. Light thrown on legal questions. You are favored. Know this — act with confidence. Smile!

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Obtain valid hint from today's TAURUS message. Your desire to add to possessions is strong. But avoid waste, EXTRAVAGANCE. Be specific, selective. Highlight QUALITY.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Stress originality of thought, action. No time to follow the crowd. Be your own leader. Set example for others. Present original ideas. Your efforts due for recognition.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): You may be slightly irritated because of alleged injustice. But when facts come to light story takes on different tone. Discard rumors. Insist on going DIRECTLY TO SOURCE.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Friend who recently completed journey due to make "confession." Handle situation in an intelligent manner. Your greatest asset will be sense of humor. Don't cast first stone!

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Common sense required to evaluate tricky question. Be aware of details, fine print. Others do not have all facts. Be determined. Express self-confidence. Then mystery vanishes.

★ ★ ★

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are not afraid to tear down in order to rebuild. Your name could be in lights! You are an outstanding individual, capable of capturing imagination of the public.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for SAGITTARIUS, CAPRICORN. Special word to GEMINI: Say NO to one who suggests plan with legal complications.

Wolverines Meet UCLA Tonight

Michigan Whips Princeton, 93-76, to Reach Finals

From Our Wire Services

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Michigan's top-ranked Wolverines get the chance tonight they have waited more than a year for — a shot at UCLA and the NCAA basketball title.

Coach Dave Strack's Big Ten musclemen overcame Bill Bradley and the Princeton Tigers, 93-76, and UCLA's defending champions waltzed past Wichita, 108-89, in semifinal games Friday night.

Michigan was knocked off by Duke in the semifinals last season in its quest for its first national cage crown, but it managed to win the unofficial title this season by edging the Bruins in the final United Press International coaches poll.

The Wolverines, who outweighed Princeton by 27 pounds a man in the starting lineup — had their hands full in the first half against the Tigers. Bradley gave Oregon's largest basketball crowd ever — 13,197 — all it expected of him during that first 20 minutes. He scored 19 of his 29 points and Princeton once had a 5-point first-half margin.

But Michigan pulled ahead 40-36 at intermission and when Bradley got his fourth foul a little over a minute into the second half, it was only a matter of time. He fouled out with only five minutes to play and Michigan promptly scored 10 points in a row.

All-America Cazzie Russell had 28 points and 6-feet-7 Bill Buntin 22 for Michigan.

"We didn't play particularly well, but no one seems to in a tournament," said losing Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff of Princeton.

"Michigan sputtered too, but there's nothing like rebounds. That's where they won it," he said.

Coach Dave Strack of Michigan said he felt his team's rebounding on the offensive backboard early in the second half was a key point.

★ ★ ★

"We were jittery in the first half, but the rebounding was sound. I felt, no, I knew we were a better team than Princeton — better than we showed in our first game with Princeton in December," he said.

"Our plan was to get the ball to Bill Buntin. I felt if we could do that, we would win. We didn't feature Russell too much, but then he always gets points anyway."

UCAL All-America Gail Goodrich scored eight of his 28 points, had three steals and two assists in a 20-4 UCLA burst that gave the Bruins a 57-39 lead and pointed them to the record scoring total for a semifinal game, their third straight over 100 points and seventh of the season.

Troy Bumped in Semifinals

By FLETCHER SPEARS

LANSING — The basketball season came to a close one game too soon for Troy's Colts.

The Colts, who were bidding for their first state basketball championship, collapsed in the second half and dropped a 55-53 decision to South Haven in a Class B semifinal tournament game here.

It was South Haven's second appearance in a semifinal game and its first victory. The quintet was slated to meet River Rouge at 11:30 this morning for the title.

South Haven won the game with a 32-point performance in the second half while Troy was netting only 18 markers.

The winners trailed by four going into the final quarter, 43-39, but they took the lead (53-52) on a short jump shot by sophomore Kennedy McIntosh with 58 seconds left in the contest.

TIES GAME

Troy's 6-5 Chris Beacham knotted the count at 53-all 10 seconds later with a free throw, but McIntosh made it 54-53 with 20 seconds left with a foul shot.

The Colts still had time for a try at a basket but a pass by Bud Hether sailed out of bounds and the Rams took over.

Guard David Guminski was fouled with four seconds left and pushed in one of two free throws to complete the scoring.

Beacham, who paced the Colts to the Oakland A League title this season, scored 17 points in the first half as Troy took a 35-23 lead and he wound up with 27 to take game scoring honors.

★ ★ ★

Beacham penetrated the Rams' defense for easy layups repeatedly in the opening half but the winners closed the holes in the final two frames.

AIDS BEACHAM

Guard Doug Schroeder trailed Beacham in the scoring column with nine points.

South Haven's five starters wound up in double figures. Guminski, banging away from the outside, paced the attack with 13 points.

★ ★ ★

Reuben Yelding, Bill Plochocki, Bill Sledge and McIntosh collected 10 apiece.

The semifinal visti was the second for Troy and the second loss. The team was ousted by Buchanan in 1955.

Southfield Wins, 82-59 to Gain Class A Final

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

EAST LANSING—Alas, 'tis spring, but instead of the Robin it is the Blue Jay who is chirping his happy song today.

The Blue Jays in point are those from Southfield High School who invaded Jenison Fieldhouse in East Lansing and literally wiped Detroit Southwestern from the court, 82-59, in the state basketball semifinals last night.

It has taken seven tournament games, but the hustling Jays finally convinced the experts they have earned the right to meet powerful Benton Harbor in the state championship tonight.

The No. 1 rated Tigers from Benton Harbor thrashed Saginaw Valley champion, Saginaw High, 86-76 in the second game of the jammed fieldhouse.

★ ★ ★

Southfield coach Bob Neff, wiping his brow amidst the wild chirping Jays in the locker room shouted a rebuttal to the unbelievers who kept saying his team should have been eliminated three games ago.

"Everybody washed us out during the season, but they don't realize we lost three one-point games and five games by a total of seven points. And they also forget that Rick (Coleman) was out during most of these defeats with an injury."

"I just want these kids to keep a cool head and they'll do okay against Benton Harbor," he added.

★ ★ ★

The big Southfield surge after a 9-8 season, is credited to little guard Rick Coleman, a transplanted Hoosier who again last night was the knight in shining armor.

HITS 36 POINTS

Coleman poured through 13 of 23 field goal attempts, added 10 of 13 free throws for 36 points and dazzled the Prospects from Detroit with his passing and floor play.

Three Jays, Coleman, Ray Schlaff and Rick Smigielski accounted for 77 of the 82 points, but Jim Burgess a starter who didn't even have a free throw attempt provided the key rebounding along with Schlaff and Smigielski.

It was Schlaff who was red hot in the opening quarter. After Southwestern jumped to a 12-6 lead, Schlaff hit the tying bucket with 3:10 left to make it 12-12 and from this point the Blue Jays simply filled their nest with points.

The first period ended 21-13 and when Southwestern moved to within three points, 35-32 at 1:45 left in the half, Smigielski hit to make it 37-32 and then Coleman hit two free throws, a three-pointer and then another basket to make it 44-34 at halftime.

★ ★ ★

When the third quarter started, Schlaff scored the first two buckets to make it 48-34, and the biggest margin when time out was called in the period at 1:26 was 60-42. The quarter ended 62-46.

With six minutes left in the game, Southfield started control passing with a 65-52 lead.

Southwestern began fouling and the Jays made good on 10 of 13 free throws during this time.

There were no ifs or buts about Southfield's triumph. The Jays hit on 33 of 73 shots for 43 per cent and grabbed 43 rebounds, while Southwestern managed only 23 of 82 attempts for 28 per cent and 40 rebounds.

Burgess hauled down 14 from the boards and Schlaff 12, definitely big factors as the Jays managed to get two and three shots at the bucket.

Tonight the Blue Jays go Tiger hunting to start this cold debut of spring.

Benton Harbor Tumbles Saginaw

Tigers Record 86-76 Victory

Hull Paces Defending Champ in Scoring

From Our Wire Services

EAST LANSING — Benton Harbor's basketball team is back in its customary spot in the state high school basketball tournament.

The top-ranked and defending state Class A champ was forced to do a little scrambling last night but came through with an 86-76 victory over Saginaw's Trojans, the Saginaw Valley Conference champions.

With the victory the Tigers now move into tonight's finals against Southfield.

Southfield will have to do something about Benton Harbor's Ellis Hull to keep alive hopes of an upset. Hull, a 6-1 junior, pumped in 40 points against Saginaw.

This is only two points shy of the tournament scoring record of 42 set by Ernie Thompson of Saginaw in 1962.

BIG ASSIST

Hull had a hefty assist from L. C. Bowen, the only other Tiger scorer in double figures, with 25 points.

Benton Harbor was sluggish starting out, allowing Saginaw to take early 8-4 and 17-13 leads. The Tigers several times trailed by five points before making it a 36-all tie at the half.

★ ★ ★

Saginaw was pressing desperately and the 20 Tiger points on free throws to eight for the Trojans was more than the winning margin.

Roy Hinton had 22 points and Herb Riley 20 for the losers.

LANSING — River Rouge earned a shot at its fifth straight Class B basketball title last night by knocking off Kingsford in a semifinal clash, 83-67.

★ ★ ★

The victory was the 40th in a row for Rouge on the tournament trail and they went after No. 41 this morning at Jenison Fieldhouse in East Lansing with South Haven providing the opposition.

Rouge, with 23-2 over-all record, jumped in front of Kingsford by six points at halftime and outscored the losers, 26-14, in the third period to wrap up the decision.

Frank Price collected 22 points and Sam Campbell added 19 to pace the Rouge attack.

Paul Santoni pushed in 17 for Kingsford which finished the season with an 18-4 record.

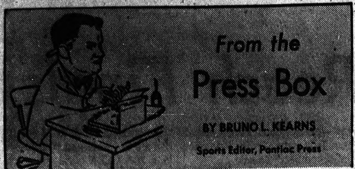
Red Wings Score Six More, Only Add One Point



From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

We finally made it!

Don't know what the official classification would be, but we, The Press Sports Department, have been named to the All-Star Writer's Team, as chosen by the Eaglet voters at Orchard Lake St. Mary's.

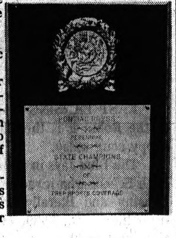
★ ★ ★

During the past seven years, for All-Country, All-State and All-Everything in football, basketball, swimming, wrestling, track, baseball, golf, tennis and even marbles, The Press has presented something like 600 trophies and awards to athletes, coaches, teams and even animals.

There are so many honor and all-star awards given over the years by those in press, radio and TV media who watch, cover and scrutinize athletes and athletics, beauty contests and food growers and every other conceivable event, that it would be impossible to list them.

But, from Orchard Lake St. Mary comes another first, to give an award to those who normally do the awarding.

As we prepared to leave for Lansing yesterday for the state tournaments this note and plaque arrived.



The message read:

> Gentlemen of The Pontiac Press Sports Department.
>
> As you prepare to depart for the Capitol City of this Wolverine State to witness the quadruple coronation rite, we deem it our pleasure and privilege to bestow upon you a crown of your very own.
>
> Whereas the results of today's and tomorrow's contests remain to be fought for, there is no possibility of an upset in your class.
>
> Long may you gloriously reign,
>
> Gratefully yours,
> The Eaglet Clan

On the beautiful plaque was inscribed: "To the Perennial Champions of Prep Sports Coverage."

Now we know how the all-county player, the all-star or the best-in-show winner feels.

★ ★ ★

We gratefully and humbly accept the award, promising to go all out each season to defend our title, even though from our judges, the reader, we receive three negative letters to every single positive letter they send to us.

But, such is life. Even all-stars make mistakes.

It's still nice to know some people recognize our efforts and the good for which we strive.

Thank you, gentlemen of St. Mary.

Bengal Bunts Bother 'Bo'

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Bo Belinsky, known as a man who can handle his liquor and girls, couldn't find the handles on a couple of Detroit bunts Friday, opening the door for a 5-4 Tiger victory over Philadelphia.

With the Tigers trailing 4-3 in the last of the eighth, Bill Roman singled off Belinsky and Mickey Stanley and Ray Oyler beat out infield bunts which Belinsky couldn't handle. Willie Horton drove in the tying run on a sacrifice fly and Jackie Moore's infield grounder brought home the clincher.

Phillies' manager Gene Mauch was thumbed from the game for protesting what he thought was a force out at third on Oyler's bunt, fielded by shortstop Ruban Amaro, who attempted to force Roman in a foot race to third.

All the Philadelphia runs came on homers off Detroit starter Joe Sparma. Clay Dalrymple blasted a three-run homer in the fifth. Roman hit a homer for Detroit.

BLANK LOSERS

Denny McLain, who took over from Sparma, blanked the Phillies over the last four innings and got credit for his first exhibition victory ever.

"I've waited a long time for this baby," said McLain. "I know these games don't mean anything, but when you're young and trying to break in, they mean a lot."

Tiger manager Bob Swift said he was impressed with McLain's performance but was unhappy with Sparma.

"Joe threw some balls up there that had nothing on them," said Swfit.

The Tigers were to meet the Milwaukee Braves at West Palm Beach tonight.

Three Detroit Bowlers Reach Tourney Finals

DETROIT (AP) — Three Detroiters and a Southerner survived in the Professional Bowlers Association's $35,000 Continental Open Friday night for today's finals battle for $5,000 top money.

Veteran Bob Strampe of Detroit, winning 12 of his 16 games in the semifinals, led the way with a 40-game score of 9,101, including 600 bonus pins, and assured himself of at least $2,500 second place money. Forty games were rolled in the preliminaries.

Strampe faces the winner today of a round-robin among the three other survivors — Jim Robinette, Falls Church, Va., youngster; Billy Golembiewski, Detroit veteran, and Dave Soutar of Detroit, a pro rookie.

Robinette finished second with an even 9,000, Golembiewski third with 8,984 and Soutar fourth with 8,863.

Pontiac's Mike Samardzija was in 9th place and earned $1,050.

★ ★ ★

Strampe, in second place at the semifinals halfway point, smashed to the top Friday night in the final eight games with a hot start. He rolled a 278 to a 224 by Ed Thomas of Logan, Ohio, in his first game and followed this with a 248-204 victory over Soutar.

The third and fourth place winners Saturday will get $1,500 and $1,300, respectively.

LA Team Wins Gloves Trophy

2 Detroiters Champs as Amateurs Finish

By The Associated Press

★ ★ ★

Only one of the eight gloves champions is more than 19 years old. He is welterweight Don Cobb, 22, of St. Louis. Both Cobb and 18-year-old Marcus Anderson, a featherweight, made it two straight national crowns.

DETROITER WINS

Middleweight Al Jones of Detroit and lightweight Frankie Anderson of Kansas City, who like to throw punches in volleys, scored TKO title victories. Light heavy champion Larry Charleston of Detroit has a sledgehammer left.

★ ★ ★

The stubby little Miller brothers of Fairvew, Mont., became the first brothers in Golden Gloves history to win national titles the same night. Flyweight Roland (Boom Boom) Miller, 19, competing on the Minneapolis team, edged Earl Large, Roswell, N.M., with a whirlwind third round rally.

Mell Miller, 17, on the Billings, Mont., team, won the bantamweight crown by outpointing 24-year-old Eddie Gonzales of Fort Worth.

Los Angeles had 19 team points, Detroit, Kansas City and Fort Worth 16 each, Minneapolis 13, Billings 11, St. Louis, Huntington and Roswell 10 each.

HAPPY DAY — Phil Rodgers lets out with a yelp after finishing his second round in the Jacksonville Open with a course record 65 at Selva Marina Country Club. Rodgers is 7-under par but still one stroke behind leader Dick Rhyan who fired a total, 69-67—136.

New York Ties on Late Goal

Ullman Tallies Three; Rangers Bomb Crozier

By The Associated Press

The New York Rangers can't seem to handle Detroit's National Hockey League leaders but they've begun to give Roger Crozier, the Red Wings' young goalie, nothing but trouble.

Despite a three-goal effort by red-hot Norm Ullman, Detroit settled for a 6-6 standoff against the Rangers Friday night in the only NHL game scheduled. The tie boosted the Wings' first-place margin over Montreal to four points and gave them a 9-2-2 season edge over New York.

★ ★ ★

The Canadiens entertain third-place Chicago tonight while the Wings rest after firing 16 goals in their last two games. They riddled last-place Boston 10-3 Thursday night.

SECOND GOAL

Jean Ratelle's second goal of the game, with 3½ minutes remaining, earned New York a tie and dropped Crozier into second place in the race for goalie honors and accompanying prize money.

Chicago's alternating goalies, Glenn Hall and Denis DeJordy, have allowed three fewer goals than Detroit — 162-165 — with each team having played 66 games. The Toronto Maple Leafs also have yielded 165 goals but have played one less game than the Hawks and Wings.

★ ★ ★

Ullman scored an unassisted goal in the second period — while Detroit was short-handed — and netted two more goals in the finale for a season total of 38, tying Chicago's Bobby Hull for the NHL lead.

The slick Detroit center also added an assist against the Rangers and now trails league point leader Stan Mikita of Chicago by six points, 84-78. Ullman had five points against Boston Thursday night.

The fifth-place Rangers fell behind 2-1 after the first period, rallied for a 5-3 lead in the second period and blew the advantage in the third session before Ratelle's 10th goal in his last 10 games drew them even again.

New York visits Toronto in tonight's other game. The Maple Leafs are at New York Sunday while the Wings, seeking their 13th straight victory on Detroit ice, host the Black Hawks.

Halfway Lead to Rhyan at Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Dick Rhyan Jr. vaulted out of obscurity into the halfway lead of the $57,500 Greater Jacksonville Open in the rain Friday.

Rhyan shot 34-33—67 for a total of 136, eight under par and one stroke ahead of the field.

But the Columbus, Ohio, golfer had to share attention with a slimmed-down Phil Rodgers of Perdido Bay, Fla., who is making a comeback at the youthful age of 26.

Rodgers broke the course record with 33-32—65 and moved into second place at 137.

The first day leaders, slender Gardner Dickinson Jr., and British Ryder Cup player, Bernard Hunt faded into the pack when they soared above par with 142 and 143 respectively.

Gary Player of South Africa, failed to make the 146 cutoff as he shot a 76 for 151 total.

Arnold Palmer shot 70 for 144.

Pickford, Covert in 'D' Title Duel

From Our Wire Services

Pickford's basketball squad gave the Upper Peninsula hopes of a state championship by knocking off Leland, 70-67, in Class D semifinal action last night in Lansing.

★ ★ ★

The winners were slated to move onto the Jenison Fieldhouse floor today at 3 p.m. to meet Covert, a 75-67 victor over previously unbeaten Barryton.

Pickford rallied in the fourth quarter to pull out the victory over Leland.

The game was tied with 2:10 remaining when Charles Bennin pushed in two free throws to put Pickford ahead, 69-67, and he added another moments later to close out the scoring.

Bennin scored 14 points in the first stanza and wound up with 23 for the evening. Pickford went into today's finals with a 20-4 mark.

★ ★ ★

Barryton finished with 23-1 record and Covert upped its mark to 23-1.

Jim Sarne led Covert's attack with 28 points and Dave Graf pushed in 27 for Barryton.

Michigan Tech Posts Ice Win

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Mighty Michigan Tech got two goals from Fred Dart and alternate goalie Rick Best fashioned the first shutout in the 18-year history of the NCAA hockey tournament for a 4-0 semifinal victory over host Brown Friday night.

The triumph sent the Western Collegiate Conference playoff champs into the final against Boston College Saturday night and restored Western prestige. BC had upset North Dakota 4-3 Thursday night.

A Western team has won the national title for 10 straight years and 15 of the past 17. Tech now has made the finals in all four NCAA visits.

Rec 5 Ousted by Bad Start

Pontiac's Booth Builders started slowly and never caught up Friday night as they dropped a 69-55 championship decision in the Inter-City Class B recreation basketball tournament at Detroit.

Nankin Township's Dearborn quintet led, 13-5, after one quarter and, 36-23, at intermission en route to the title. The defeat eliminated the last area recreation team from post-season play.

Dick Glover's 23 points and Willie Hughes' 17 paced the Dearborn entry; while Kirk Evans had 17, and Roy and Bill Allen 14 and 11 respectively for the Pontiac cagers.

Port Huron Six, Again, Leading IHL Flag Race

MUSKEGON (AP) — Port Huron's Flags broke a 2-2 tie with four goals in the final period to defeat Muskegon 6-2 in an International Hockey League game Friday.

The victory gave the league-leading Flags a two-point advantage over the idle Fort Wayne Komets in the IHL race. Ken Saunders sparked the Port Huron attack with two goals. Bryan McLay had two for Muskegon.

Ex-N.L. 'Powder Puff' Reasserts Power Stuff

By The Associated Press

The rabbit bat that Felix Mantilla discovered in the American League last year seems to have stuck with the veteran utility man.

Mantilla, who had only 29 home runs in seven National League seasons before coming to the Boston Red Sox in 1963, suddenly found muscles he didn't know he had when he played regularly for the first time in his career last year.

Mantilla's power eye is on target again this spring. He has hit two homers for the Red Sox, his latest a two-run shot Friday that helped Boston to a 6-1 exhibition baseball victory over the Chicago Cubs.

EX-MATES FALL

Mantilla's old Milwaukee Brave teammates dropped an 8-2 decision to the Chicago White Sox with four errors — three by first baseman Rice Carty — keeping the Braves in trouble.

Three Minnesota rookie pitchers handcuffed the New York Yankees as the Twins whitewashed the American League champs 5-0. Mel Nelson, Gerry Fosnow and Dave Boswell shared the two-hitter while Jimmie Hall's three hits and two doubles by Tony Oliva paced Minnesota's 14-hit attack.

The Yankees "B" squad meanwhile, plastered Washington 12-5. Rookie Chet Trail drove in four runs for New York while the Senators' Don Lock hammered two home runs.

★ ★ ★

The Houston Astros got shutout pitching from Don Larsen, Larry Yellin and Darrell Brandon and blanked Kansas City 2-0. The Athletics managed just four hits against the trio.

METS RALLY

The New York Mets pushed five runs across in the ninth inning and edged the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals 6-5. Bobby Klaus' bases-loaded single drove in the tying and winning runs for the Mets who snapped a seven-game exhibition losing streak against the Cards.

Pittsburgh pushed across two runs on three hits and two wild pitches in the 11th inning and beat Cincinnati 6-4. Homers by Jerry Lunch and Gene Alley had given the Pirates the early lead.

★ ★ ★

Veteran catcher Dick Brown's two-run homer in the 11th inning gave Baltimore a 7-5 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blow, Brown's first circuit of the spring traveled 400 feet over the left center field fence.

The Los Angeles Angels breezed by the Jalisco Charros in Guadalajara, Mexico, as Dick Simpson drove in seven runs with a pair of home runs.

Coach Studies Crane Fielders

Cranbrook Nine Set for Spring Training

Cranbrook's baseball fortunes will probably be determined mostly by coach Dave Barney's success in finding steady fielders to back up returning pitchers Steve Hanway and Bill Price.

The Cranes posted a 5-12 mark last season and no regular returns to his starting position, excepting for the hurlers.

Hanway is a lanky southpaw who was 3-7 with an earned run average under three runs per game last spring. He will captain this year's nine. Price is a junior right-hander who had 2-4 last year.

Barney is moving junior outfielder Bob Foster behind the plate and is trying to decide what will the best spot for versatile Tom Pfaff, a senior.

Juniors Rod Davies, third base, and Ted Lowrie, outfield, are the other letterwinners along with senior fly chaser Pete Werbel. Some sophomores and possibly a freshman or two will receive close scrutiny from the coach.

★ ★ ★

The Cranes will depart Monday for North Carolina and their annual southern training trip. After working out in Winston-Salem, N.C., they will move to Ironton, Ohio, for their season opener Mar. 30, and then to Cincinnati for five games. Their slate will open April 12 against Seaholm.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Except for a close finish in the mile and 600, the girls stole the show by setting two meet records in the 25th annual Knights of Columbus track meet at the Cleveland Arena Friday night.

Three U.S. Olympic gold medal winners were beaten — Billy Mills, Bob Schul and Ollan Cassell — and Schul was almost lapped by Dave Ellis of the Toronto Track Club in the three-mile.

★ ★ ★

Ellis and most of the other Canadian performers had a great night.

Jim Grelle of Portland, Ore., well-known for his strong kick in the mile, whipped past Mills, of the Marines, to win by five yards in 4:10. Mills, who will run for the United states in Great Britain and Berlin next month, captured the 10,000-meter run last year in Tokyo.

CANADIAN WINS

Bill Crothers, a 24-year-old pharmacist from the Toronto East York Track Club, legged the 600-yard run in 1:11, three-tenths of a second ahead of Cassell, gold medal winner on the U.S. 1,600-meter Olympic team. It was Crothers' seventh straight indoor victory this year.

The top female stars were Iolanda Balas of Romania in the 800-yard run.

Mrs. Balas, a leggy, 6-foot-1 blonde, cleared the bar at five feet, 10½ inches for a meet record. She already holds the world's record of 6-3 and has pending a world's indoor record of 5-11½.

Miss Hoffman, national AAU titleholder in the half-mile, broke her own meet record set last year with a 2:12 clocking in the 80, winning easily by 17 yards over second place Sandra Knott of Cleveland.

★ ★ ★

Mel Hein Jr., of the Striders won the pole vault with a 16-foot effort. The 24-year-old junior

QUARTER CENTURY AWARD — Semon E. Knudsen (left), of 31500 Bingham, Bingham Farms, Chevrolet Division general manager, receives a 25-year ring from Larry Averill, 1532 Tottenham, Birmingham, division general sales manager. Now in his 26th year with General Motors, Knudsen was made a special member of the sales department's Quarter Century Club during a reception in Detroit for the 37 men in Chevrolet's nationwide sales organization who celebrated their 25th anniversary in the past year. Knudsen is a former general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

Bills Piling Up in Legislature as Introduction Deadline Nears

LANSING (UPI) — Hopeful lawmakers are dropping more and more bills into the legislative hopper as the deadline for introduction looms less than a month away. Twenty bills were introduced in the House yesterday on what is generally an "off" day.

Among the proposed legislation were measures to:

- Establish a five-day, 40-hour workweek for policemen in cities of more than 10,000 population with time and one-half for overtime (Rep. David S. Holmes Jr., D-Detroit).
- Allow the Board of Managers to lease the Upper Peninsula State Fairgrounds for periods of up to five years; and the leasing of the State Fairgrounds to private organizations — conditional upon implovments—up to 30 years (Rep. Einar Erlandsen, D-Escanaba).
- Require the state to appoint city or county examiners for driver's licenses (Rep. Mrs. Maxine Young, D-Detroit).
- Allow special elections for referendums for sale of liquor - by - the - glass (Rep. Arnell Engstrom, R-Traverse City).
- Create a teachers' professional negotiation commission (Rep. Bobby D. Crim, D-Davison).

Five other measures were introduced in the House similar to bills already pending in the Senate. They include proposals to:

- Provide that purchasers of automobiles can deduct the alloted trade-in from the purchase price for sales tax purposes (Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee).
- Make any person convicted of violating the Federal Civil Rights Act ineligible to hold public office (Rep. Thomas W. White, D-Detroit).
- Regulate billboard advertising along interstate highways (Rep. G. F. Montgomery, D-Detroit).
- Amend the constitution to allow for a state graduated income tax (Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit).

Instruments in Spacecraft Made in State

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Gemini spacecraft scheduled to carry two United States astronauts into orbit next Tuesday also will test 10 guidance indicators developed here.

They are the work of Lear Siegler, Inc., instrument division, a major Grand Rapids employer.

The star of the cockpit panel grouping devised by the LSI Instrument Division is the incremental velocity indicator. It is to provide pilot Virgil Grissom and copilot John Young with a visual display of changes in spacecraft velocity necessary to achieve rendezvous with other orbiting vehicles, a requirement for proposed manned flights to the moon.

6 DIRECTIONS

LSI spokesmen say it shows velocity in six directions — fore and aft, left and right, up and down.

Other LSI instruments on the Gemini cockpit panel include: attitude director indicator to show the spacecraft's attitude in relation to the earth's surface; flight director controller; propellant tank pressure indicator; cabin and suit temperature and pressure indicators and secondary oxygen quantity indicator to show reserve oxygen supply.

Seek Mother Who Left Baby

DETROIT (AP) — A mother who abandoned her month-old baby in the ladies' room of a bus station was sought by police today.

Doris Turner, 19, of Detroit said the mother handed her the infant girl Friday and said, "just hold her until I get her clothes. My husband is waiting outside with our baggage. The baby's name is Jean and she's a month old."

The mother never returned and Miss Turner called police.

The woman was described as a bleached-blonde about 22.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kopf, 54, of Portsmouth, R.I., told officers the woman got on the bus at Toledo, carrying the baby in her arms and accompanied by a man and a small boy.

The baby was taken to Detroit's Receiving Hospital.

Temporary Role on Road Group Ended by Upton

LANSING (AP) —Former State Rep. David Upton, R-Benton Harbor, the reported center of a controversy that threatened to block Senate approval of the chairman of the new highway commission, has resigned as commission administrative assistant.

Upton announced Friday he was leaving the $15,000-a-year post he assumed on a temporary basis last Jan. 12. He had been named to help in the transition from an elected state highway commissioner to an appointed four-man commission.

Upton and Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, caused a stir in the 1962 election campaign of former Democratic Highway Commissioner John Mackie in questioning the safety of a highway bridge opened shortly before in Berrien County.

Senate Democrats reportedly planned to hold up the approval of Chairman Ardale Ferguson because of the commission's choice of Upton.

Queen, Jackie May Have Lunch Together

LONDON (AP)— Queen Elizabeth II and the United States' former first lady, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, may get together at lunch at Windsor Castle May 14, following dedication ceremonies of the President Kennedy Memorial at Runnymede.

★ ★ ★

British sources reported yesterday that Mrs. Kennedy will bring her daughter Caroline with her to England. They will stay at the London home of Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill.

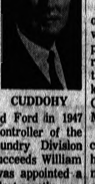
Business Notes

Carl L. Stanke, 4871 Burnley, Bloomfield Township, has been appointed an account executive in the Birmingham offices of Meldrum and Fewsmith, Cleveland - based advertising agency.

STANKE

Stanke comes to M & F after 10 years as advertising manager for Esso International, Inc., in New York, the overseas sales organization for Standard Oil of New Jersey.

Richard M. Cuddohy, 26881 Captains, Franklin, has been appointed general manager of Ford Motor Co.'s Engine and Foundry Division, according to Charles H. Patterson, executive vice president.



CUDDOHY

Cuddohy joined Ford in 1947 and has been controller of the Engine and Foundry Division since 1952. He succeeds William D. Innes, who was appointed a group executive last month.

It's Do or Die in Steel Talks

Top-Level Bargaining Will Start on Monday

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Basic steel contract talks enter the door- die stage Monday with the start of top-level bargaining on wages and other key benefits.

Scheduling of the first such talks came Friday amid indications the United Steelworkers Union was clearing the decks for the final 40 days of bargaining that remain before it can strike the nation's steel mills May 1.

★ ★ ★

The union announced the addition of two men to its six-member top negotiating team. This was an apparent concession to I. W. Abel, union secretary-treasurer who ran against incumbent David J. McDonald for the union presidency and could take over during negotiations.

Start of top-level talks Monday will lift basic steel negotiations from the company-by-company level and put them in the hands of a dozen or so key men.

TALKS RESUMED

Talks involving the union and the 11 major steelmakers resumed last week after a two-month recess for the union's still unresolved election.

An announcement of by McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, said these talks "have progressed to the point where they will be recessed from completion of current discussions."

Exactly when this will be remained unclear. Some of the bigger companies such as U.S. Steel still have numerous local problems to settle. The company-by-company talks are recessed for the weekend.

Phone Firm Tells Wages Paid in '64

The 609 Pontiac employes of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. received $3,489,613 in wages during 1964, according to Charles B. Woodhead, area manager of the firm.

Bell's 3,915 employes in Oakland County received $27,704,209 in wages during 1964, Woodhead said.

The company has 22,000 employes throughout the state. They received $153,498,448 in wages for the year, an all-time record, according to Woodhead.

In addition to Michigan Bell's payroll, the Western Electric Company manufacturer and supplier for the Bell system paid its 1,473 Michigan employes $11 million, and AT&T's long lines department paid $3.4 million to its 540 employes in the state.

★ ★ ★

This makes Michigan Bell and its two Bell system units the fourth largest nongovernmental employer in the state with its people living in more than 400 Michigan communities with total wages of nearly $168 million.

Winkelman's Sets New Sales Record

Winkelman Brothers Apparel, Inc., with a Pontiac store at 7 S. Telegraph, set new sales and earning records in 1964 according to Isadore Winkelman, president.

Earnings for the year ended Jan. 30, 1965 rose 26 per cent on a sales gain of five per cent. Fourth quarter results also set new records for the organization.

Consolidated sales for the full year totaled $29,999,478 against $28,513,185 for the previous year.

Net income was $811,285, or $1.70 per share, compared with earnings during the previous year of $541,929, or $1.34 per share.

Railway Gives Answer on Line Across State

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Receipt of a Chesapeake & Ohio Railway reply to parties seeking to preserve the line's single-day, round-trip passenger run between here and Detroit was acknowledged Friday by Ingham County Circuit Court Judge Marvin Salmon.

The judge did not disclose contents of the reply but said he has taken it under advisement and will issue an opinion early in April.

For Commuters and Communities

Struggling Railroad Poses Big Problem

NEW YORK (AP) — A railroad struggling for its life poses a problem not only to the line and its employes but to scores of communities and thousands of riders.

The specter is one of commuters moving to the city for lack of other transportation and the resultant impact on the economies of towns and villages.

★ ★ ★

A case in point is the financial plight of the New Haven Railroad.

The New Haven, though it operates in the populous and industrial northeast between New York and Boston, slipped into bankruptcy four years ago.

RISING COSTS

Its trustees said it could not maintain service through its own revenues because of rising costs and loss of freight to trucks. Trustees have gone to court and the federal government to curtail and eventually eliminate passenger service.

Hard hit would be 25,000 commuters who ride the line daily to their jobs in New York from New York's Westchester County and Connecticut's Fairfield County, a well-to-do suburban area north of New York City.

★ ★ ★

Commuters traditionally are home owners and pay local taxes accordingly.

If the commuter should leave, the impact on real estate values and local tax income can only be conjectured.

Isn't there some other way than rail to commute.

The first thought is to drive. But that would mean imposing 25,000 or so more cars into the traffic tangle that already throttles Manhattan.

★ ★ ★

Then there is the expense of driving — about $120 a month.

As for buses, the United Communities for Railroad Action, one of the citizens' "save the railroad" committees, says:

INITIAL COST

"Provided all franchise arrangements could be worked out, initial cost for buses and terminals would be approximately $100 million. And present highways are already crowded to capacity."

The New Haven's trouble first was signaled when fares were raised regularly until they reached the point of diminishing returns. The fare now from New Canaan or Darien in Connecticut is $49.60 for a monthly commutation — more than double the cost 15 years ago.

★ ★ ★

Federal officials said March 10 they could not support aid measures proposed by New England senators because the bills called for too much federal participation and for operating subsidies contrary to long-standing federal policy.

This did not sound encouraging for a subsidy plan advanced Jan. 21 by Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and John N. Dempsey of Connecticut.

GRANTS PERMISSION

U.S. Dist. Judge Robert P. Anderson gave the road permission Feb. 15 in New Haven, Conn., to seek authority from necessary government agencies to first curtail and then eliminate passenger service.

★ ★ ★

Anderson said in a memorandum accompanying his order:

"If the public interest so urgently demands the continuance of the New Haven's passenger service, as the states seem suddenly to have discovered, they should have stopped taxing its property a long time ago."

Anderson also called the Rockefeller-Dempsey plan "incomplete and inadequate."

BASIC PROPOSAL

It proposed basically that New York and Connecticut each provide $5 million for buying new coaches and refurbishing old ones, the amount to be matched by $10 million from the federal government.

Additionally, New York's Westchester County and Connecticut would post $400,000 each toward maintenance costs.

Travel by Missile Seen Logical Step for Future

HAMILTON Air Force Base, Calif. (AP) — "A ticket to Tokyo," you'll say 10 years from now — and rocket there in 30 minutes. Wild dream? Read on.

Supersonic aircraft flying at 2,000 to 5,000 miles an hour are much too slow for one of the nation's top Army missilemen, Maj. Gen. Andrew R. Lolli.

★ ★ ★

"I say take the big step — skip the supersonic aircraft and go directly to missile transport," declared Lolli, commander of the 28th Region, North American Air Defense Command.

Interviewed at his headquarters, Lolli stressed that he is discussing possibilities rather than policies.

LESS THAN HOUR

Within a decade, he says, men and material could be rocketed safely to any spot on the globe — or around the world — in less than an hour. The briefest round-the-world trip would utilize counter rotation of the earth.

Impossible? "Not at all," asserts the general. But his timetable, he emphasizes, depends on the size and direction of the national effort. Aiming toward development of supersonic planes will simply postpone rocket transport a few years, according to Lolli.

★ ★ ★

Air Force Gen. Bernard A. Schriever agrees the day will come "when we will be flying missiles over the country as we do jet planes today." Schriever heads the Air Force Systems Command at Dayton, Ohio.

Two basic barriers to rocket travel — excessive gravity forces and noise — already have been licked, Lolli said. "And American genius and industry can do the rest."

SPEEDUP DEVELOPMENT

Technological fallout from the aerospace program will accelerate development of missile transport, Lolli believes.

Extolling what he describes as the phenomenal reliability and accuracy of modern U.S. missiles and rocket launchings, Lolli insists that they readily can be developed for troop and freight transport, then civilian travel.

★ ★ ★

He points to a concept developed by Philip Bono and colleagues of the Douglas Aircraft Co. Bono is project manager of the Douglas missile and space systems division's advance launch vehicle section.

The Bono rocket ship would take off and land vertically at spaceports no larger than present airfields. It would accelerate relatively slowly and gently, then streak to its destination at more than 17,000 miles an hour.

The cross-country sections would be so far above the earth that sonic boom problems would be eliminated.

Increasing speed, declares the general, is the key to progress of this nation and the world.

"Every step we take in this direction helps make and keep America strong," he says.

Tax Tips

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The following income tax information is supplied by the Internal Revenue Service.)

QUESTION: My daughter was a college student until she was married in December, 1964. Her husband works and they are filing a joint return. I contributed almost her entire support for the year. Am I entitled to claim her as a dependent?

ANSWER: Since your daughter elects to file a joint return with her husband, you cannot claim her as a dependent. If you contributed over 50% of her support during the year and her husband filed a separate return, you would be allowed to claim her as a dependent.

For the answer to your question, call your local Internal Revenue Service Office.

Mental Health Chapter Chief

WAGNER

William H. Wagner of 3620 Kenmore, Berkley, has been elected president of the Oakland Chapter, Michigan Society for Mental Health.

He succeeds Dr. Edward Raney and will serve as a member of the society's state board. Wagner is also vice chairman of the Oakland County Community Mental Health Service Board.

The Michigan society was incorporated in 1937 to try to alleviate the problems of mentally ill children and adults and the retarded.

Today, it has 13 staff employes; a state board of directors from business, industry, labor and the professions; and a lay and professional membership representing all geographic, political and philosophic viewpoints in Michigan.

Junior Editors Quiz on DUST

coullon waugh

QUESTION: What is dust composed of?

ANSWER: What is considered true dust is made of particles of matter small enough to float in the air — smaller than one-thousandth of a millimeter.

There is much coarser dust, of course, of a larger size. Dust is composed of tiny fragments of a great many materials, such as mineral matter, cinders, soot, ashes, particles of wool, cotton and hair as well as wood shreds, pollen grains and spores from plants.

Outside, the wind picks up much mineral matter, such as the crumbling substance of rock, as well as fragments of soil from mud flats and plowed fields.

These sources account for most of the dust of the atmosphere. When it is very dry, much precious topsoil may be carried off from the land as dust. In the 1930's, great damage was caused to farm lands in some of the states by dust storms moving in this way.

Dust, however, is more than a nuisance in your room or a threat to farmland.

Carried high in the air, dust helps to form rain, for water vapor often condenses on the tiny particles, becoming heavy enough to fall.

Did you know that dust can help in detective work? By analyzing dust collected in a room, one may get vital information about the people who have lived there.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Next time you dust your room (why not do it now?) look at the dust in your dustpan and think how curious it is that some of it may be coming down again some day—along with cooling, refreshing rain.

Man From U.N.C.L.E. a Hit After Rough, Rocky Start

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Some television series sell themselves; others have to be sold. Place "The Man From U.N.C.L.E." in the latter category.

THOMAS

The international spy thriller-spoof had a rocky beginning, striving more for thrills than spoofing. It failed to generate much excitement in its early weeks, and the wise money was chalking the series up as a loser.

But then the production minds began finding their way through less tortuous plot pathways, meanwhile injecting more of the bottled-in-bond humor. NBC switched the show from Tuesday to Monday nights, and ratings improved. Next season it is scheduled for Friday — in color.

STIMULATING

The young crowd began to embrace "U.N.C.L.E." To stimulate this interest, MGM sent the series' stars, Robert Vaughn and David McCallum, to key cities, especially where the national ratings are tallied.

The reaction to their visits has been clamorous. Industry sources credit these tours with playing a large part in achieving a renewal of "U.N.C.L.E." for next season.

McCallum, a Scottish actor with a distinguished acting background, seems at first blush an unlikely subject for screaming teen-agers. Yet he draws them on the tours. What's more, he likes it.

"It's rather exciting, really," he observes. "as long as you are not in any particular danger. And I always assure myself that I have proper protection from the local police."

Still, his appearances can be hazardous. For instance, Dallas, where he made the mistake of allowing one girl to kiss his cheek. The rest of the crowd wanted to follow suit, and McCallum was pinned to a fence, and his jacket was shredded before help arrived.

"But these tours are a great way to see the United States," he added, "and the attention one gets is a surprising but gratifying result of the business of being an actor. It's a form of recognition, and that's what we all seek."

On Network Control

FCC Calls for TV Hearing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) will give a public airing to a dispute over whether a large part of prime time television programming should be taken away from network control.

The FCC voted 4-2 yesterday to call for hearings and issue publicly a proposal to limit network ownership. Supporters of the plan say it would improve networks and other opponents disagree.

An official announcement of the proposed rule will be made Monday, coinciding with the beginning of the 43rd annual convention of the National Association of Broadcasters here.

The proposal which the FCC has under study would limit control by networks to 50 per cent of the programs broadcast during the prime viewing hours, generally between 7 p.m. and 10 p.m. Networks now control about 90 per cent of these shows.

Backers of the plan claim that limiting network ownership would allow advertisers and independent producers to develop their own program ideas, diversifying television programming.

SHATTER STRUCTURE

An idea of the opposition the FCC faces was provided by NBC Board Chairman Robert W. Sarnoff, who told the annual meeting of NBC television affiliates in New York yesterday the proposal would "shatter the structure of television."

* * *

Sarnoff said the law gives the commission no direct regulatory control over networks and condemned the FCC for "a chronic urge to regulate."

Hatcher Backs Education Unit

ANN ARBOR (AP) — President Harlan Hatcher of the University of Michigan expressed enthusiastic approval Friday of the report by Gov. George Romney's blue-ribbon higher education committee.

Dr. Hatcher, without going into specifics, said the report would have a salutary effect on the future of Michigan's higher education. He said he had yet to read the report in detail.

* * *

The committee recommended against permanent branch campuses of existing universities. It recommended a four-year school for the Flint area but did not specifically comment on U-M's plans to expand its Flint branch to a four-year operation. Hatcher and Romney had had opposing views on this.

Plunge of Tour Bus Kills 31 on Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A chartered bus taking school-children on a sightseeing tour plunged off a mountain highway near Taipei today, killing 31 persons, Chinese Nationalist police said.

Four hospitals reported admitting 70 injured and said many of them were in critical condition. Police said the bus plunged 70 feet in its fatal fall. Of the 31 persons killed, 25 were children.

Ex-Wife Is Suing Jack Webb to Prevent Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jackie Loughery, former beauty queen and ex-wife of producer Jack Webb, is suing to prevent their divorce from becoming final next Wednesday.

* * *

The Superior Court action, filed yesterday, alleges that she signed a property settlement while under the influence of drugs and medication.

Miss Loughery, 34, received an interlocutory divorce decree from Webb March 24, 1964.

Under terms of the agreement she signed, Miss Loughery will receive $35,000 as settlement of community property rights. She is also to receive $99,000 in alimony over a five-year period.

* * *

But she contends she and Webb were joint owners under the community property law of holdings valued in excess of $750,000.

* * *

Miss Loughery was Miss USA in the Miss Universe contest of 1953.

She and Webb were married June 24, 1958, in Studio City, Calif.

Car Rolls 3 Times on Freeway, Ends Up in the Clinton River

Two persons died last night in a single-car crash in Waterford Township, and a third man was the victim of a freeway accident in Pontiac Township.

Dead are: Richard Thompson, 42, of 9050 Mandon, White Lake Township; Danny Burke, 20, of 3994 Oak Knoll, Waterford Township; and Robert J. Southard, 22, 340 Concord Place, Bloomfield Township.

Southard's body was found at 7:14 a.m. in the median of I-75, south of Auburn, in Pontiac Township.

The car he was driving was found north of his body, submerged in the Clinton River.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies speculate that Southard was northbound on I-75 when he lost control of his car.

They said the vehicle apparently rolled over three times in the median. Southard was thrown from the car. The 1965 sedan then bounded over a guard rail and plunged 20 feet into the river.

NO PASSENGERS

Skin divers searched the river bottom around the car this morning and found no trace of possible passengers in the car.

It is believed that Southard was on his way to the State High School Basketball Tournament in East Lansing when the accident occurred early last evening.

Future Dubious for Michigan's Tax Relief Bill

House Dems Push Measure Through; Senate May Be Tough

LANSING (AP)—A battle-scarred, much-amended senior citizens tax relief bill was on its way today from the House to the Senate—where it faces an uncertain future.

The Democratic-backed measure passed the House yesterday on a near party-line vote of 62-36 after Democrats fended off more than a score of Republican amendments in the second three-hour debate in two days.

Four Democrats voted with the minority Republicans. They were Reps. H. James Starr of Lansing. Charles Conrad of Jackson, Bill Huffman of Madison Heights and Arthur Law of Pontiac. Five Republicans did not vote.

Sen. Garland Lane, D-Flint, chairman of the powerful Senate Appropriations Committee, to which the bill would be expected to be assigned, hinted at rough going for the measure.

★ ★ ★

This would contradict a prediction by House Majority Leader J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, who said Democrats intended to get the bill through both chambers and to Gov. Romney's desk "as soon as possible."

TAX EXEMPTION

The bill, with costs estimates ranging from $21 million to $40 million, would grant a property tax exemption on the first $2,500 of state equalized valuation on a homestead with a $10,000 assessed valuation.

★ ★ ★

A corresponding grant would be made to renters in homesteads of $10,000 and less up to $20,000 true cash value. All recipients would have to live in the state at least seven years.

Army Troops, Guard Gather in Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Regular Army troops trained in riot control were flown into Maxwell Air Force Base today for use, if needed, in protecting civil rights demonstrators tomorrow on a march from Selma to Montgomery.

Reliable sources reported the soldiers were members of the 503rd Military Police Detachment from Ft. Bragg, N.C.

A detachment from the 720th Military Police Battalion was quartered in the gymnasium of the Craig Air Force Base in Selma. It was not known where the unit was from.

There were reports that two battalions of regular Army troops had reached Selma by early morning.

★ ★ ★

Alabama National Guard commanders declined to give information on the number of National Guardsmen federalized by President Johnson for protecting the marchers.

The President issued two orders from his Johnson City, Tex., ranch. One directed the Secretary of Defense "to use such armed forces of the United States as he may deem necessary."

The other set forth that Gov. George C. Wallace "has advised me that the state is unable and refuses to provide for the safety and welfare" of marchers.

"As a consequence of such inability and refusal of the state of Alabama and by reason of recent events in and about Selma and Montgomery, Ala., there is substantial likelihood that domestic violence may occur in connection with such march, with the consequences of obstructing the execution and enforcement of the laws of the United States," including the court order authorizing the march.

Wallace had told the President in a telegram that he was willing to call up the Alabama Guard to protect the marchers, but said the state cannot afford to foot the bill, estimated at $360,000.

'Won't Leave Nation to Reds'

U.S. Staying in Viet—Johnson

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson underscored today what he called U. S. determination to remain in South Viet Nam as long as it is necessary to control Communist aggression and terrorism.

He told a news conference at his Texas ranch here that changes in the situation may require changes in tactics. But he declared the United States will do whatever is necessary to accomplish its mission in Southeast Asia.

Johnson repeated the U. S. policy stand — for the 48th time, he said — as he announced that U. S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor will return to Washington March 28 for a week of consultations.

The President said that Taylor's visit to Washington is part of a regular, periodic review aimed at insuring "that our effort in Viet Nam is as effective and efficient as possible."

Johnson recalled words he uttered a year ago and told his news conference:

LONG AS NEEDED

"It is and it will remain the policy of the United States to furnish assistance to support South Viet Nam for as long as is required to bring Communist aggression and terrorism under control."

Johnson said U. S. policy remains as it was a year ago — and as it was 10 years ago.

For, he asked, if a small country like South Viet Nam cannot be insured its independence and peace, what will become of other tiny nations around the world?

★ ★ ★

Johnson said that this country is working for a peace in which nations may develop their own resources and live without pressure or fear of domination from any quarter.

STEADFAST GOAL

"This is the peace that will remain the steadfast goal" of his administration, he said.

On Monday, Johnson said, he will have completed 16 months in the presidency. He

Wide Track Proposals to Be Presented

A State Highway Department representative will meet with city officials Wednesday to present some "positive recommendations" on resolving the problems of Wide Track Drive.

The 10 a.m. session at City Hall was announced yesterday by City Manager Joseph A. Warren, and is nearly a month ahead of the April 20 meeting promised by the highway department.

The solutions to be proposed by Max N. Clyde, engineer of traffic operations for the department, are the result of a tour he took of Wide Track in January.

At that time he was sent to study the loop road by Acting Highway Director Howard Hill.

★ ★ ★

Warren said that all interested parties are invited to attend the meeting.

Clouds Threat to Gemini Shot

Weather May Delay 2-Man Space Flight

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Clouds of doubt hung over Cape Kennedy today: doubt that the weather would be favorable for the Tuesday flight of the Gemini spacecraft "Molly Brown," and doubt that Ranger 9 would be ready to leave tomorrow on its mission to photograph the moon.

★ ★ ★

The weather forecast was cloudy for the inaugural flight of the Gemini, which is designed to maneuver, to change ilts orbital path.

Astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young, whose mission is to test the spacecraft, will fly it backward and forward, even sideways, and alter their orbit up to 50 miles by firing jetlike thruster engines.

But a Tuesday launch is questionable. Weather men predicted heavy clouds over the Cape that would prevent vital camera coverage of the Titan 2 booster's lift-off. Bad weather was also forecast for the Atlantic in the area where the space buddies would splash down if they ran into trouble during the launch phase.

★ ★ ★

Ranger 9's problems were different. Program scientists were poring over results of a simulated countdown yesterday, trying to isolate a problem that appeared in the second stage ground equipment guidance system.

GROUND EQUIPMENT

They said it appeared to be caused by ground support equipment rather than something in the Agena rocket itself.

Ranger 9, last of the moon photography series, is scheduled for launch between 4:11 and 5:14 p.m. EST Sunday.

Its target is the crater Alphonsus, estimated to be 10,000 feet deep and 50 to 60 miles across.

State Junior Miss Wins

Michigan's Junior Miss became the choice of the nation last night at Mobile, Ala.

Patrice Gaunder, who took the Michigan title here in February at the Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Michigan contest, was crowned America's Junior Miss.

"I'm still numb — I can't believe it," said the brown-eyed brown-haired beauty after the finals in the national pageant.

AP Photofax

NEW JUNIOR MISS—"Absolutely unbelievable" was the way Patrice Gaunder described how it felt to win the title of America's Junior Miss. Crowned last night in Mobile, the 17-year-old Stephensville girl was chosen Michigan's Junior Miss in Pontiac in early February. She is with her mother, Mrs. George Gaunder.

"There's a great responsibility involved in representing America's teen-agers. I don't know if I can do it. But I am sure going to try," she added.

★ ★ ★

Patrice, 17, is a senior at Lakeshore High School and lives in Stephensville, a small town near St. Joseph on Lake Michigan.

WAS SHARED

Her triumph was shared by 40 of her closest friends who sold pies, washed cars and saved their allowances to travel more than 1,000 miles to see the talented teen-ager compete for the national title.

The new Junior Miss sang a number from "Camelot" for her talent presentation because "it was easy and I'm not much of a singer."

Patrice was awarded a $6,000 scholarship, a coast-to-coast tour, many other prizes.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gaunder. Her father is a teacher and coach at Eau Claire High School.

DOUBLE WINNER

Patrice was a double preliminary winner in the categories of youth fitness and poise and appearance.

At Lakeshore high school, she is an 'A' student and a member of the glee club.

In addition, she has won a

Fear 52 Drown in India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Fifty-two persons are feared drowned in the sinking of a boat carrying religious pilgrims near Bhakra Dam, 200 miles north of New Delhi, Indian authorities said today.

Mrs. E. M. Estes Dies at Age 48

Mrs. Cathryn Palmer Estes, wife of Pontiac Motor Division's general manager, E. M. Estes, died suddenly yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of a stroke.

Service will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, with burial following in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy, by the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

Mrs. Estes, 48, lived at 1085 Waddington, Bloomfield Township.

Active in community affairs, she was a vice president of the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Women's Auxiliary; on the board of the Michigan Cancer Fund, North Oakland County Unit; and a member of the Tribute Fund of Pontiac Area United Fund.

Mrs. Estes also was a member of the National League for Nursing and the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital.

She worked with the Oakland University scholarship fund and Project Hope, and was a member of Christ Church Cranbrook.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Estes is survived by three sons, Thomas P. of Akron, Ohio; Edward W. of Rochester and William E., a student at North Carolina University; three grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Marion Barton of Indianapolis, Ind.

The family suggests any memorials be made to the Tribute Fund of the Pontiac Area United Fund or St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Building Fund.

Old Man Winter Delaying Exit, Despite Hopes

Winter was to leave at 3:05 this afternoon, but it hasn't finished packing yet. Cold temperatures still are around for tonight and tomorrow, and possibly Monday, with snow flurries, too.

★ ★ ★

The low expected tonight ranges from 8 to 18, to be followed by a high of 22 to 30 tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Today in the area, winds were westerly at 5 to 15 miles an hour. They will become southwesterly tonight.

Eleven above was this morning's record low. By 2 p.m. the mercury managed to move up to 23 in downtown Pontiac.

Soviet Cosmonauts Land Flaming Ship in Cool, Soft Snow

MOSCOW (AP) — The Voskhod 2 spaceship made a scorching descent into the earth's atmosphere, but it had a cool, soft landing on deep snow, the Soviet Union said today.

The two cosmonauts aboard were reported well but there was no official word on their post-landing activities 24 hours after their descent to earth.

★ ★ ★

Voskhod 2 landed Friday at Perm, a city at the foot of the Ural Mountains about 725 miles east-northeast of Moscow. There was speculation that officials had trouble reaching the site.

The Tass news agency said "in the dense layer of the atmosphere, the spaceship was enveloped in flames," but the landing was "soft." The Voskhod came down in deep snow, Tass said.

COVERED IN FLAMES

In response to a telephone inquiry, the newspaper Pravda said all previous Soviet space ships were enveloped by flames on reentering the dense layers of the atmosphere and there was no cause for alarm.

Moscow newspapers carried no new details on the landing and no pictures of it.

★ ★ ★

Official Soviet announcements said Pavel Belyayev and Alexei Leonov, the first man to leave an orbiting satellite and float in outer space, carried out their assignments perfectly. They completed 17 orbits in space.

But the announcements said nothing about picking up the two cosmonauts and returning to a debriefing area for medical checks, the normal procedure in the past.

COLD WINDS

Perm airport officials said by telephone the cosmonauts landed in strong winds and freezing weather. The temperature was 26.6 degrees Fahrenheit with winds of about 20 miles an hour. It was not snowing at the time of landing.

★ ★ ★

Official accounts said the cosmonauts landed inside the space capsule which returned to earth with the aid of parachutes. Pravda said it was the first landing directed entirely by the pilot inside the space craft.

Cong Bomb Plot Thwarted

U.S. Embassy Was Target of Explosives

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Police today seized two Viet Cong agents driving into Saigon on a scooter truck rigged with explosives and said their mission was to bomb the U.S. Embassy.

★ ★ ★

The plot was thwarted when police discovered 25 pounds of plastic high explosive aboard a three-wheeled scooter truck, rigged with a time detonating device set to go off in 30 minutes.

The two men riding it, both presumed Viet Cong terrorists, were arrested and the mobile bomb was defused. The truck was intercepted several miles from the embassy.

Police said the two had planned to park the scooter in front of the five-story concrete embassy building. The detonating device was set for noon — when many embassy workers normally leave for lunch.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor was in his office when the explosives were found.

STREET DAMAGE

The bomb probably would have caused major pedestrian casualties but it was not believed large enough to have done serious damage to the building.

★ ★ ★

Vietnamese authorities said nine persons were injured by a terrorist grenade yesterday instead of seven as reported earlier.

Bids on Cars to Be Opened

Meeting Set Monday for Waterford Board

Bids on four new police cars will be opened at Monday night's meeting of the Waterford Township Board.

Two of the cars will replace vehicles presently being used by the police department. The other two will be added to the fleet due to expansion of the department.

In other business Monday, the board will hear a progress report on the Waterford Township community school program.

Robert Lawyer, coordinator of the program, will discuss its growth since last September when it was launched with the aid of a grant from the Mott Foundation.

★ ★ ★

Board members also will determine the extent of the township's 1965 road chloride program and so advise the Oakland County Road Commission which does the work.

Also slated for board attention is a requested refund for a building permit that hasn't been used.

Discussing his attitude toward news conferences — a subject on which he has run into some press criticism — Johnson said he wanted to make available all the information he could, consistent with the national interest.

RESERVE JUDGMENT

But he will continue to reserve to himself the matter of how and when he held conferences, he said.

He said he considers it the duty of the press to report his information, and to make any comments it sees fit.

He said he would try to hold at least one formal, full-dress press conference a month, "even white tie, if you choose."

★ ★ ★

Today's news conference is the 39th on-the-record sessions he has held, he said, and 16 have been covered by radio and television.

INFORMAL MEETINGS

There have been other informal meetings with members of the White House press corps. He said he had had nine informal walks with members of the press corps. He told the reporters they could expect to be invited to walk again.

He went on to list other contacts by interview, telephone social contacts and the like. He said there were also nine special announcements or television appearances.

Johnson declined to answer a question about whether the United States would supply arms to Israel to replace the supply cut off by West Germany.

★ ★ ★

"We don't think it is desirable to speculate on any prophecies that may or may not work out," the President said, and added the administration would meet that problem as it came up.

OTHER POINTS

On other points, Johnson had these comments in response to questions:

Space race—"While the Soviet is ahead of us in some aspects of space, we are ahead of them in other aspects."

He had been asked the relative positions in the light of the Russian achievement this week in having one of two cosmonauts leave their orbiting space capsule.

★ ★ ★

This achievement by Russia, he said, emphasized the importance that man himself will play in space.

Vandals Batter Shelby Schools

UTICA—Vandals caused over $5,000 damage at two Shelby Township schools last night, according to township police.

★ ★ ★

Four driver education cars parked at the rear of the Utica Community High School, 47255 Shelby, north of Utica, were extensively damaged. Car windows, windshields and tail lights were broken, holes punched in trunk lids.

More than 33 plate glass windows, approximately 4 by 8 feet, were smashed. The vandals apparently used beer bottles to smash the windows and glass doors.

At the Shelby Junior High School, 51770 Van Dyke, 17 plate glass windows were smashed. There was no evidence of what instrument was used.

Pontiac Fiscal Problem

Where Will City Get Needed Money?

By L. GARY THORNE

News Analysis

A single fact floats to the surface of the troubled financial waters around Pontiac City Hall.

Voters said no to the income levy this week, 6,647 to 2,637, but the fact remains Pontiac needs more money.

★ ★ ★

Both sides — for and against — in the income tax argument agreed almost at the outset last fall that municipal affairs could not long be financed by present property taxes.

★ ★ ★

Seemingly, the agreement would be even more widespread as a result of the tax campaign.

However, many observers doubt if voters are prepared to turn around right now and approve probably the only alternative to the income tax — a hike in property taxes.

The seven-member City Commission has the task of selecting a course of action. The commission unanimously backed the income tax.

In the debate over the merits of the income tax and what would happen if it failed, some commissioners had thought the move would be for the property tax increase.

Of course, this, too, must go to the electorate for approval.

Will this be the commission's decision?

NO CITY TAX

Opponents to the late income tax proposal point out that Thursday's results indicate not a vote against taxation generally, but merely a vote against a city income tax specifically.

Oddly perhaps, city officials are treading strange political waters.

For example, past property tax proposals have been rejected on the premise that the city did not need the money.

★ ★ ★

Now, however, an income tax measure is rejected with at least the possible indication that a property tax proposal might fare better at the polls.

DEFINITE NEED

Outwardly, it is agreed the city needs more money. Such agreement probably is not unanimous among those who pull the levers behind the curtains of those little booths.

★ ★ ★

The City Commission's course of action will be governed by the single fact left in the wake of the tax defeat, but other considerations must be weighed.

★ ★ ★

These might include action in Lansing on a state income tax, the austere 1965 city budget and, naturally, the City Commission election in April 1966.

Home Burns in Waterford

Fire destroyed a Waterford Township home shortly before midnight last night.

The blaze, which swept through the residence of Mrs. Rose Tollina, at 6992 Terrell, was reported at 11:58 p. m.

Waterford Township Fire Marshal Russell See said Mrs. Tollina was not at home when the fire started under the bedroom floor. A faulty furnace is believed to be the cause.

Firemen said when they arrived the bedroom was consumed in flames, which had also broken through the outer wall.

Four pieces of fire fighting equipment fought the blaze for more than three hours.

The building, which was valued at $9,500, was destroyed, along with contents, valued at $4,000.

Waterford Men Unhurt as Plane Lands on Road

A Waterford Township pilot yesterday landed a single engine plane on a superhighway in West Virginia after the craft developed an oil leak while flying at 7,500 feet.

Joe Haveman, 32, of 2290 Jones planned to use the same stretch of highway today as a runway to get the small plane airborne.

Haveman and passenger-photographer Richard Johnson, 30, of 89 Panama, Waterford Township, were not injured in the emergency landing.

The craft is owned by Clark Aerial Survey Corp., 3444 Highland, Waterford Township. The pair were doing an aerial survey of the Charleston area when the leak occurred.

West Virginia State Police routed traffic around the plane last night while a mechanic worked to repair the oil line.

Birmingham Area News

Registration Next Week for Spring Adult Classes

BIRMINGHAM — The added education department of the Birmingham Public School System will start taking registrations next week for its spring term of classes.

Interested adults can register between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily at the added education office in the board of education building, Chester and Martin.

Classes will begin the week of April 5.

The spring term list this year includes 64 classes covering foreign languages, the arts, business, homemaking, industrial arts and a wide range of topics for self-improvement and recreation.

★ ★ ★

A new home modernization course is designed to aid the home owner who either wants to do it himself or wants to become familiar with modernizing so he can contract for the work.

REFLECT INTERESTS

Because the program is designed to reflect the interests of the community, the department will offer any course for which facilities and instructors are available.

A requested course will be given if at least 12 persons enroll.

Brochures listing the courses have been mailed to all residents of the school district, but other persons can receive them by calling the added education office.

★ ★ ★

Late registrations will be accepted through the first class meeting if enrollment permits. However, advance enrollment is urged.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Birmingham will hold two special services tomorrow to dedicate its newly remodeled edifice at 191 N. Chester.

The original building was dedicated in 1928.

In March 1959, a large addition was constructed on the south and west sides of the church, and the Sunday School area was enlarged and remodeled.

Shortly thereafter, an extensive remodeling of the church was begun, with the interior of the original edifice removed and rebuilt.

★ ★ ★

The project was completed in 1961 but, as with all Christian Science churches, could not be dedicated until it was free of debt. The services Sunday are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Plan Complex in Waterford

Developer to Build $1-Million Center

Plans for a 15-acre complex of retail stores, professional and business offices in Waterford Township were revealed today by Edwin Gage, a Birmingham real estate developer.

Gage said the development, to be called Waterford Plaza will be located on the northwest corner of Crescent Lake and M59.

Eventual cost of the project will exceed $1 million, Gage said, with 50,000 square feet of building planneed for the start.

Construction is expected to begin this summer, with completion of the first part of the project in midsummer 1966. The entire project is planned for completion by midsummer of 1967.

Preliminary approval for rerouting a part of the Clinton River on the property has been given, Gage said. Kieft Engineering of Clarkston has been retained for the construction of a waterwheel planned as the view for patrons of a proposed restaurant on the site.

AREA DEVELOPER

Gage, of 345 Berwyn, Birmingham, was the developer of the Tel-Huron and Elizabeth Lake Shopping Centers in the area as well as a public golf course now under construction.

Harry Denyes, Pontiac architect, has been retained for the study and design of the new project.

River Rouge Wins State Class B Title

EAST LANSING (UPI) — River Rouge today outscored a scrappy South Haven team, 14-2, opening the final period to wrap up an 87-65 victory and grab its fifth straight Class B state basketball title in the first of four finales in the 40th annual tournament at Michigan State's Jennison Fieldhouse.

The victory made Rouge coach Lofton Greene the state's winningest prep cage mentor.

Greene, who took over at the suburban Detroit school in 1943, had directed his teams to almost 400 wins and eight "B" championships.

Jet Missing Near China

WASHINGTON, (AP) — A United States Air Force F105 jet fighter is missing on a flight from Okinawa to Formosa parallel to the Red Chinese coast.

The Defense Department, announcing this today, said the pilot appeared to have suffered either a heart attack or a blackout from oxygen failure.

The pilot of an accompanying F105 tried to arouse the pilot of the other plane by radio, then sought to divert the plane but was unable to do so. Short of fuel and with weather turning bad, the second plane was compelled to head back to Kadena Air Base on Okinawa.

Farouk Estate at $3 Million

ROME (AP) — The estate of ex-king Farouk of Egypt was estimated today at about $3 million. Most of it will go to his 13-year-old son, Fuad.

Farouk's Rome lawyer, Carlo D'Amelio, said last night that Fuad would get the bigger share, with smaller portions going to Farouk's three daughters and nothing to his two ex-wives.

The lawyer declined to indicate the value of Farouk's estate.

Italian newspapers today estimated it as $3 million. When Farouk left Egypt in 1952, there were rumors — never substantiated — he had sent $50 million abroad before his exile.

★ ★ ★

Fuad flew here early today from Geneva in time for the expected transfer of his father's remains from a Rome Morgue to a Rome Cemetery.

Farouk's walnut coffin was closed late last night. The family plans to arrange for permanent burial, probably in Saudi Arabia, compliance with a wish of Farouk.

The 45-year-old exiled monarch died in a restaurant early Thursday of a heart attack.

Waterford Man Found Innocent of April Fatality

A Waterford Township man was found innocent of negligent homicide yesterday in the traffic death of a Detroit youth last spring.

James M. Fridlington, 43, of 4100 Cass-Elizabeth Lake, was acquitted by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury before Judge Stanton G. Dondero.

Fridlington had been charged with the April 25 death of Mitchell J. Orlap, 19, in a crash at 12 Mile Road and Middle Belt, Farmington Township.

Says School to Close While Holding Nose

ADRIAN (AP) — Dr. Eleanor Skufis, director of the Lenawee County Health Department, ordered Victorsville Rural School in the Blissfield district closed Friday.

During her inspection, a doorknob came off in her hand, she declared the water supply unsafe, discovered a skunk had a den under the building, and learned the flush toilets wouldn't work.

Dismiss Case for City Teen in Car Death

A negligent homicide charge against a Pontiac youth in connection with a fatal auto accident last October was dismissed Thursday by Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib.

★ ★ ★

The charge against Robert Walker, 19, of 1101 Berkley was dropped during an examination when a defense motion for dismissal was unopposed by the prosecution.

Walker's car collided with one driven by Lester A. Webster, 56, of Flint, Oct. 8 on Dixie in Springfield Township. Webster died two hours after the accident.

Walker was hospitalized due to injuries he suffered.

★ ★ ★

This and his attorney's involvement in a lengthy circuit court case resulted in a five-month delay of the examination.

Officers Installed by Employes' Unit

The Pontiac Municipal Employes Association last night at the Elks Temple, installed Raymond J. McCoy, 209 Florence, president for the coming year.

★ ★ ★

Other new officers are: John Gusman, first vice president; Mrs. Goldie Taylor, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Allan, secretary; and Mrs. Roma LaVergne, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Trustees of the 160-member organization are James Johnson, William Emeigh, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins and Percy McConnor.

Judge Denies Ruby Bid

DALLAS (AP) — Further legal maneuvering was assured today in the bizarre case of Jack Ruby, presumably still in state courts and possibly before the same judge who sentenced him to die.

U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson refused Friday to take jurisdiction.

★ ★ ★

Then the condemned slayer of President Kennedy's assassin rose, with the court's permission, to deliver this bitter comment on the courtroom session:

"Nothing satisfied me. So what good did it do? You can't win."

Ruby made the remark during a 30-minute lecture on lawyers, conspiracies and sanity — one of his few public utterances since Nov. 24, 1963, when he shot Lee Harvey Oswald.

REMOVAL SOUGHT

Lawyers for Ruby's family had asked the federal court to take jurisdiction, remove Joe Tonahill as a defense lawyer and disqualify Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown, who heard the state court murder trial, for a sanity trial.

Judge Davidson simply turned the case back to the administrator of Texas' 1st Judicial District, Judge Dallas Blankenship of Dallas, for assignment to a state court.

★ ★ ★

Blankenship said later he would let Brown decide who should preside for the sanity trial.

"If for health reasons — he's had a heart attack — or any other reason Brown wants to disqualify himself, I will appoint another judge," Blankenship said.

DECIDE LATER

He will decide later, Blankenship added, on the various issues in the case. These include:

1. Whether Tonahill remains as a defense lawyer. Tonahill says Ruby is insane and the defendant's rejection of him has no standing.

2. A date and court for Ruby's sanity hearing.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has refused to hear Ruby's appeal until after a sanity ruling.

SICK MAN

At Friday's hearing Tonahill called Ruby a "very, very sick man." Ruby looked at the floor.

Tonahill, a member of the original defense team, said he should remain because he has been with the case all the time. He said the dispute over lawyers began when Sol A. Dann of Detroit wanted "to incorporate Jack Ruby. We would not tolerate this."

★ ★ ★

Ruby asked permission to speak. Judge Davidson allowed the pudgy defendant to talk at the counsel table without being placed under oath.

At one point, Ruby said: "I think I'm doing pretty well for an insane man."

Sixteen months after he killed Oswald, Ruby said: "Don't ask me what took place in my mind. I don't know.

"If I'm a person that sounds insane at this moment, then the whole world is crazy," he added.

U.M. Wage Floor Date Is Moved Up to July 1

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The effective date for a $1.25 minimum wage for the University of Michigan's approximately 1,600 employes was pushed ahead Friday by the Board of Regents.

July 1 of this year was made the effective date. Originally, the $1.25 was to have been reached in stages by 1967.

Find 35 Dead in Mine Blast

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—The number of known victims of an explosion in a coal mine in northern Turkey reached 35 today after rescue teams pulled seven more charred bodies from the debris.

Officials of the Cheltek Coal Mines said there was little hope of finding the other 33 missing miners alive.

Officials said the feared death toll of 68, would be Turkey's worst mining disaster.

News in Brief

Robert D. Grouch, of the College Heights Trailer Park, Pontiac Township, yesterday reported the theft of $530, according to Pontiac Police.

ROMANIAN PRESIDENT DIES—The president and Communist party chief of Romania, Gheorghe GheorghiuDej, 64, died yesterday in Bucharest.

Romanian Leader Dies at 64; Shaped Policy of Independence

VIENNA (UPI) — Romanian President Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej, architect of his nation's growing independence from Moscow, died yesterday in a Bucharest hospital. He was 64.

Gheorghiu-Dej's death was announced by the official Romanian news agency. It came a day after parliament reelected him president.

The parliament, now in session, was expected to elect a new president soon.

Until then, experts said, Gheorghiu-Dej's presidential duties would be assumed by the three vice-chairmen of the state council — Ion Gheorghe Maurer, who is also premier; Stefan Voite and Avram Bunanciu.

* * *

Gheorghiu-Dej, who was also the Communist party leader, had been hospitalized with pneumonia and hepatitis. He lapsed into a coma shortly before his death.

NEW POLICY

The late president was responsible for the shaping of a nationalistic new Romanian policy under which Romania defied the Kremlin's domination of the Communist Eastern European nations.

Gheorghiu-Dej was elected secretary general of the Romanian workers (Communist) party in 1945 and held this post to his death with a one-year break from 1954 to 1955.

He was Romanian vice premier from 1948 to 1952 under the regime of Petre Groza.

In May, 1952, he was appointed prime minister at the request of Moscow, then under Josef Stalin.

* * *

On Oct. 4, 1955, he was unanimously elected first secretary of the central committee of the Romanian Communist party and at the same time stepped down as prime minister.

He became president in 1961.

Huge Dams, Irrigation Projects Planned

21 Nations Cooperate to Harness the Mekong River for SE Asia

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — The Mekong, one of the great rivers of the world, runs through some of the poorest countries of the world — Cambodia, Laos, South Viet Nam and Thailand.

The name has become well-known in recent years because of the bloody battles fought with the Communist Viet Cong in the river's delta land south of Saigon.

All the while, 21 countries have been cooperating in a gigantic and costly development project which, they say will bring a richer life to 50 million people who live in the 236,000 square miles of its lower basin.

U.S. agencies have been talking of the river as a sleeping giant. They say the river's mighty volume of water has enormous potential for power, irrigation and transport.

The Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East — ECAFE — will be told in formal reports next week that the giant has one eye about to open a tiny fraction.

Two irrigation and power dams on tributaries in northeastern Thailand will be completed this year, a year ahead of the earliest time considered possible when the Mekong scheme got under way in 1960.

One dam at Nam Pong cost $21 million and the other, at Nam Pung, cost $6 million.

Officials here for an ECAFE meeting said that $9 million was spent to get basic information about the river before planning began. A part of this was $3 million for 40 permanent river gauges.

PLEDGED MONEY

So far, $68 million has been pledged by participating countries. Officials say this is just a tiny start.

"We think we will spend $2 billion by 1980 on dams, power installations and irrigation works," said Dr. C. Hart Schaaf, executive agent of the Mekong committee. "And this will not exhaust the resources of the river by a long shot."

* * *

Schaaf, an American administrator from Fort Wayne, Ind., said Cambodia, Laos, Thailand and South Viet Nam have contributed 45 per cent of the funds to date, with the remainder from the 21 outside countries.

Canada did a $1.3-million aerial mapping of the river. The United States made a $2.5-million project plan for a huge dam across the main river at Pa Mong. It may eventually cost $400 million, but would irrigate 2.5 million acres.

U.S. INTERESTS

"The United States is profoundly interested in Mekong," said Dr. Walter M. Kotschnig, the chief American ECAFE representative.

"If and when things settle down, the United States will consider this as a real opportunity to start one of the real developmental projects of the world."

* * *

Schaaf said harnessing of the lower Mekong would make it possible to grow two or three rice crops a year instead of one.

People of the lower Mekong, he said, would have cheap and plentiful electricity instead of the present expensive power generated with imported fuel. Flooding would be controlled.

Among the projects is a sort of two-way dam on the Tonle Sap River. In the dry season it drains the Great Lake of Cambodia into the Mekong. When the Mekong floods, the Tonle Sap reverses and flows into the Great Lake.

YEAR-ROUND FISH

The dam would keep more water in the great lake, control the flooding, and make the lake a great year-round source of fish.

The Mekong rises in the mountains of Tibet and empties into the South China Sea, just south of Saigon, 2,600 river miles away. Its course in the lower basin is 1,500 miles.

The other 19 countries that have helped are Australia, India, Japan, New Zealand, Pakistan, Britain, Belgium, Nationalist China, Denmark, Finland, France, West Germany, Iran, Italy, Israel, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, and the Philippines.

Among Honest Londoners

Some 'Fare' Chiselers

LONDON (UPI)—Now it can be told. Londoners aren't all that honest.

London's Transport Authority reported that it lost about $84,000 in fares Monday during an unofficial strike by subway booking office clerks.

Passengers were put on their honor to drop the correct fares in buckets placed at stations.

It was first reported by the authorities that the system was a great success.

Londoners were made proud to feel so honest.

THEN THE TALLY

Then they tallied the receipts.

The result: Only $140,000 was collected on the day of the strike. On a normal Monday, collections total about $224,000.

North Central Permit Extended by Air Force

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—The Air Force has agreed to extend use of Kincheloe Air Force Base to North Central Airlines, Rep. Raymond Clevenger, D-Mich., said Friday.

Clevenger said the extension was granted until July 1. North Central's landing permit was to have expired April 1. The extension was granted to enable Sault Ste. Marie to complete work on a new terminal and parking facilities, he said.

GOP Committee Raps Dem Tactics

DETROIT (AP) — The Republican State Central Committee criticized the legislative Democratic majority Friday night for "irresponsible tactics" in its rejection of Gov. George Romney's budget.

The committee, meeting again today, reportedly would not take action on the Genesee-Lapeer County stand against a type of news ban by Genesee County Prosecutor Robert F. Leonard.

Leonard, a Democrat, has forbidden police to make public certain information connected with criminal acts prior to court action.

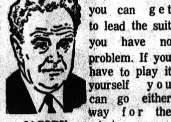
By JACOBY & SON

The two-way finesse is a situation that is likely to confront every player several times each session of play. A typical situation is for you to find king-jack-small in dummy and hold ace-ten-small of the same suit in your hand. If you can get to lead the suit you have no problem. If you have to play it yourself you can go either way for the missing queen.



JACOBY

The Official Encyclopedia of Bridge says, "Sometimes a missing queen can be located without resorting to any gueswork at all."

Today's hand is their example. The bidding to the no-trump grand slam was short and sweet. North counted up his 16 high card points, asked his partner to repeat his bid to make sure that he had heard correctly, added 16 to 21 (the least his partner could have for his two no-trump opening) and bid the grand slam.

West opened the ten of clubs and South noted that he had only 12 top tricks and that the 13th depended on picking up the queen of diamonds.

He wanted as much information as possible before trying to locate that missing queen, so South ran off 10 tricks in spades, hearts and clubs. While doing this he noted that East showed out on the second club lead. This meant that West had started with six clubs. Then West followed to three heart leads and to all three spade leads.

This accounted for 12 of West's cards and meant that he could not hold more than one diamond. Hence, South led a diamond to dummy's king and finessed against East with complete certainty of success.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Sunday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Take lead in financial action. Partner or mate may have grandiose ideas. Be sympathetic — but curb any actions leading to extravagance. Then ambience features productivity.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): If you attempt to push views you lose out. Maintain principles. But be quiet about them. This is no time to antagonize others. Key is maturity — and PATIENCE. You will get results!

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): There is nothing concrete to hold you back. But you seem to fear those in authority. Speak up! Do so in dignified manner. Others want to hear your views. Stress CONFIDENCE plus COOPERATION!

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Best to seek company of sincere friends. Companion who has been loyal in past can be of real aid. Steer clear of one who advocates sensationalism. Attend church of choice.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): If you insist on being provincial . . . you will create your own obstacles. Good to test, probe, take a chance on abilities, beliefs. FEEL FREE. Welcome opportunity and challenge.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Key is HARMONY, cooperation. You may be called upon to deliver "message." Accept with good humor. Aspects feature discovery, sparkling ideas, group entertainment.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Draw line between creative imagination and mere day-dreaming. Be aware, alert. Avoid self-deception. Face facts as they exist. APPLIES ESPECIALLY TO POSSESSIONS.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Don't attempt to grab limelight. Stress need for cooperative action. Partner or mate needs attention, reassurance. Set wonderful example. You will be more than repaid!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Be discreet. Heed words of one who offers spiritual nourishment. Take time to be true to own convictions. Then you have sense of achievement. Good for INTROSPECTION.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Focus on PRACTICALITY OF AMBITIONS. Take initiative in smoothing over differences with friends. Don't harbor grudges. If you smile . . . you will be smiled upon!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): You can gain most through REASONABLE ATTITUDE. Applies especially in dealing with family members. Fine time for entertaining at home. Dine with one important to your future.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Gain indicated through written word. Read your paper. Check special features. Key to puzzle is available. Be OBSERVANT. Good to write letter you have been "putting off."

★ ★ ★

IF SUNDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you have fine sense of humor. But often you make mountains out of molehills. Learn to relax! Then many problems dissolve. You become a happier, more productive individual.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Scandal could erupt which is connected with national secrets.

For Monday

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Vitality reappears. You're better able to plan . . . put ideas into concrete form. Find out true meaning of recent experience. Gain object lesson from CANCER-born individual.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Stress sincerity of purpose. Then associates aid. Your objective is within reach. But you should require privacy, time to think. Be true to principles. Hold off on excess spending.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): Unusual social affair tonight could be beneficial. Check details. Be ready to explain ideas, interests. Have facts, figures available. Aim spotlight on mate or partner!

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Highlight work, career efforts. Important to keep communication lines open. Listen and assert — be AWARE. Many are intrigued with your ideas. NOW you should express them!

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): Family member needs special praise. Be mature. Realize by giving — you also receive. Obtain hint from GEMINI message. Good Moon aspect highlights romance, travel, CHANGE.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Family affairs dominate. Funds are needed for home improvement, education. Keep mind open . . . discuss issues. Then arrive at decision which guarantees HARMONY AT HOME.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Solid gain indicated. Comes about through short journey, message or report. Light thrown on legal questions. You are favored. Know this — act with confidence. Smile!

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Obtain valid hint from today's TAURUS message. Your desire to add to possessions is strong. But avoid waste, EXTRAVAGANCE. Be specific, selective. Highlight QUALITY.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Stress originality of thought, action. No time to follow the crowd. Be your own leader. Set example for others. Present original ideas. Your efforts due for recognition.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): You may be slightly irritated because of alleged injustice. But when facts come to light story takes on different tone. Discard rumors. Insist on going DIRECTLY TO SOURCE.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Friend who recently completed journey due to make "confession." Handle situation in an intelligent manner. Your greatest asset will be sense of humor. Don't cast first stone!

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Common sense required to evaluate tricky question. Be aware of details, fine print. Others do not have all facts. Be determined. Express self-confidence. Then mystery vanishes.

★ ★ ★

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are not afraid to tear down in order to rebuild. Your name could be in lights! You are an outstanding individual, capable of capturing imagination of the public.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for SAGITTARIUS, CAPRICORN. Special word to GEMINI: Say NO to one who suggests plan with legal complications.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

We finally made it!

Don't know what the official classification would be, but we, The Press Sports Department, have been named to the All-Star Writer's Team, as chosen by the Eaglet voters at Orchard Lake St. Mary's.

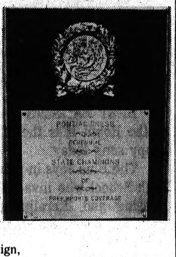
★ ★ ★

During the past seven years, for All-Country, All-State and All-Everything in football, basketball, swimming, wrestling, track, baseball, golf, tennis and even marbles, The Press has presented something like 600 trophies and awards to athletes, coaches, teams and even animals.

There are so many honor and all-star awards given over the years by those in press, radio and TV media who watch, cover and scrutinize athletes and athletics, beauty contests and food growers and every other conceivable event, that it would be impossible to list them.

But, from Orchard Lake St. Mary comes another first, to give an award to those who normally do the awarding.

As we prepared to leave for Lansing yesterday for the state tournaments this note and plaque arrived.



The message read:

Gentlemen of The Pontiac Press Sports Department.

As you prepare to depart for the Capitol City of this Wolverine State to witness the quadruple coronation rite, we deem it our pleasure and privilege to bestow upon you a crown of your very own.

Whereas the results of today's and tomorrow's contests remain to be fought for, there is no possibility of an upset in your class.

Long may you gloriously reign,

Gratefully yours,
The Eaglet Clan

On the beautiful plaque was inscribed: "To the Perennial Champions of Prep Sports Coverage."

Now we know how the all-county player, the all-star or the best-in-show winner feels.

★ ★ ★

We gratefully and humbly accept the award, promising to go all out each season to defend our title, even though from our judges, the reader, we receive three negative letters to every single positive letter they send to us.

But, such is life. Even all-stars make mistakes.

It's still nice to know some people recognize our efforts and the good for which we strive.

Thank you, gentlemen of St. Mary.

Bengal Bunts Bother 'Bo'

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Bo Belinsky, known as a man who can handle his liquor and girls, couldn't find the handles on a couple of Detroit bunts Friday, opening the door for a 5-4 Tiger victory over Philadelphia.

With the Tigers trailing 4-3 in the last of the eighth, Bill Roman singled off Belinsky and Mickey Stanley and Ray Oyler beat out infield bunts which Belinsky couldn't handle. Willie Horton drove in the tying run on a sacrifice fly and Jackie Moore's infield grounder brought home the clincher.

Phillies' manager Gene Mauch was thumbed from the game for protesting what he thought was a force out at third on Oyler's bunt, fielded by shortstop Ruban Amaro, who attempted to force Roman in a foot race to third.

All the Philadelphia runs came on homers off Detroit starter Joe Sparma. Clay Dalrymple blasted a three-run homer in the fifth. Roman hit a homer for Detroit.

BLANK LOSERS

Denny McLain, who took over from Sparma, blanked the Phillies over the last four innings and got credit for his first exhibition victory ever.

"I've waited a long time for this baby," said McLain. "I know these games don't mean anything, but when you're young and trying to break in, they mean a lot."

Tiger manager Bob Swift said he was impressed with McLain's performance but was unhappy with Sparma.

"Joe threw some balls up there that had nothing on them," said Swfit.

The Tigers were to meet the Milwaukee Braves at West Palm Beach tonight.

TWO ANGRY TIGERS? — Princeton Tigers Bill Koch (22) and Bob Haarlow seem intent on charging the referee as he calls a foul under their basket during second half last night. The man in striped shirt ruled in favor of Michigan's Larry Tregoning (on floor) whom Princetonians are actually stumbling over, rather than chasing the official. Michigan also won the game, 93-76.

Red Wings Score Six More, Only Add One Point

New York Ties on Late Goal

Ullman Tallies Three; Rangers Bomb Crozier

By The Associated Press

The New York Rangers can't seem to handle Detroit's National Hockey League leaders but they've begun to give Roger Crozier, the Red Wings' young goalie, nothing but trouble.

Despite a three-goal effort by red-hot Norm Ullman, Detroit settled for a 6-6 standoff against the Rangers Friday night in the only NHL game scheduled. The tie boosted the Wings' first-place margin over Montreal to four points and gave them a 9-2-2 season edge over New York.

★ ★ ★

The Canadiens entertain third-place Chicago tonight while the Wings rest after firing 16 goals in their last two games. They riddled last-place Boston 10-3 Thursday night.

SECOND GOAL

Jean Ratelle's second goal of the game, with 3½ minutes remaining, earned New York a tie and dropped Crozier into second place in the race for goalie honors and accompanying prize money.

Chicago's alternating goalies, Glenn Hall and Denis DeJordy, have allowed three fewer goals than Detroit — 162-165 — with each team having played 66 games. The Toronto Maple Leafs also have yielded 165 goals but have played one less game than the Hawks and Wings.

★ ★ ★

Ullman scored an unassisted goal in the second period — while Detroit was short-handed — and netted two more goals in the finale for a season total of 38, tying Chicago's Bobby Hull for the NHL lead.

The slick Detroit center also added an assist against the Rangers and now trails league point leader Stan Mikita of Chicago by six points, 84-78. Ullman had five points against Boston Thursday night.

The fifth-place Rangers fell behind 2-1 after the first period, rallied for a 5-3 lead in the second period and blew the advantage in the third session before Ratelle's 10th goal in his last 10 games drew them even again.

New York visits Toronto in tonight's other game. The Maple Leafs are at New York Sunday while the Wings, seeking their 13th straight victory on Detroit ice, host the Black Hawks.

Pickford, Covert in 'D' Title Duel

From Our Wire Services

Pickford's basketball squad gave the Upper Peninsula hopes of a state championship by knocking off Leland, 70-67, in Class D semifinal action last night in Lansing.

★ ★ ★

The winners were slated to move onto the Jenison Fieldhouse floor today at 3 p.m. to meet Covert, a 75-67 victor over previously unbeaten Barryton.

Pickford rallied in the fourth quarter to pull out the victory over Leland.

The game was tied with 2:10 remaining when Charles Bennin pushed in two free throws to put Pickford ahead, 69-67, and he added another moments later to close out the scoring.

Bennin scored 14 points in the first stanza and wound up with 23 for the evening. Pickford went into today's finals with a 20-4 mark.

★ ★ ★

Barryton finished with 23-1 record and Covert upped its mark to 23-1.

Jim Sarne led Covert's attack with 28 points and Dave Graf pushed in 27 for Barryton.

Three Detroit Bowlers Reach Tourney Finals

DETROIT (AP) — Three Detroiters and a Southerner survived in the Professional Bowlers Association's $35,000 Continental Open Friday night for today's finals battle for $5,000 top money.

Veteran Bob Strampe of Detroit, winning 12 of his 16 games in the semifinals, led the way with a 40-game score of 9,101, including 600 bonus pins, and assured himself of at least $2,500 second place money. Forty games were rolled in the preliminaries.

Strampe faces the winner today of a round-robin among the three other survivors — Jim Robinette, Falls Church, Va., youngster; Billy Golembiewski, Detroit veteran, and Dave Soutar of Detroit, a pro rookie.

Robinette finished second with an even 9,000, Golembiewski third with 8,984 and Soutar fourth with 8,863.

Pontiac's Mike Samardzija was in 9th place and earned $1,050.

★ ★ ★

Strampe, in second place at the semifinals halfway point, smashed to the top Friday night in the final eight games with a hot start. He rolled a 278 to a 224 by Ed Thomas of Logan, Ohio, in his first game and followed this with a 248-204 victory over Soutar.

The third and fourth place winners Saturday will get $1,500 and $1,300, respectively.

LA Team Wins Gloves Trophy

By The Associated Press

★ ★ ★

Only one of the eight gloves champions is more than 19 years old. He is welterweight Don Cobb, 22, of St. Louis. Both Cobb and 18-year-old Marcus Anderson, a featherweight, made it two straight national crowns.

DETROITER WINS

Middleweight Al Jones of Detroit and lightweight Frankie Anderson of Kansas City, who like to throw punches in volleys, scored TKO title victories. Light heavy champion Larry Charleston of Detroit has a sledgehammer left.

★ ★ ★

The stubby little Miller brothers of Fairvew, Mont., became the first brothers in Golden Gloves history to win national titles the same night. Flyweight Roland (Boom Boom) Miller, 19, competing on the Minneapolis team, edged Earl Large, Roswell, N.M., with a whirlwind third round rally.

Mell Miller, 17, on the Billings, Mont., team, won the bantamweight crown by outpointing 24-year-old Eddie Gonzales of Fort Worth.

Los Angeles had 19 team points, Detroit, Kansas City and Fort Worth 16 each, Minneapolis 13, Billings 11, St. Louis, Huntington and Roswell 10 each.

HAPPY DAY — Phil Rodgers lets out with a yelp after finishing his second round in the Jacksonville Open with a course record 65 at Selva Marina Country Club. Rodgers is 7-under par but still one stroke behind leader Dick Rhyan who fired a total, 69-67—136.

Halfway Lead to Rhyan at Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Dick Rhyan Jr. vaulted out of obscurity into the halfway lead of the $57,500 Greater Jacksonville Open in the rain Friday.

Rhyan shot 34-33—67 for a total of 136, eight under par and one stroke ahead of the field.

But the Columbus, Ohio, golfer had to share attention with a slimmed-down Phil Rodgers of Perdido Bay, Fla., who is making a comeback at the youthful age of 26.

Rodgers broke the course record with 33-32—65 and moved into second place at 137.

The first day leaders, slender Gardner Dickinson Jr., and British Ryder Cup player, Bernard Hunt faded into the pack when they soared above par with 142 and 143 respectively.

Gary Player of South Africa, failed to make the 146 cutoff as he shot a 76 for 151 total.

Arnold Palmer shot 70 for 144.
