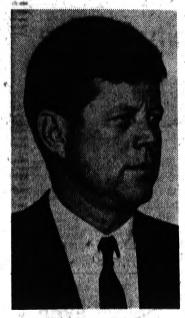
Tributes Quiet for JFK's Birthday



JOHN F. KENNEDY

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) —John Fitzgerald Kennedy would have been 47 years old today.

★ ★ ★

The birthday, in all likelihood, would have been celebrated with a family gathering at the Kennedy compound of summer homes at Hyannis Port, the place the late president called "home."

As president, he took an extended Memorial Day weekend away from the White House to begin his summer round of visits to the seashore.

There'd always be a party for the children—there are more than 20 Kennedy small-fry—and customarily they had presents for "Uncle Jack." Sometimes there were small presents for the children, too.

★ ★ ★

With that over, the adult Kennedys would gather for dinner and a quiet observance of the birthday.

FUND RAISER

One year, the Massachusetts Democratic party set up a fund raising birthday dinner and Kennedy made an evening round-trip flight to Boston to attend it.

This holiday weekend, there will be no gathering of the clan at the seaside compound.

Six months and one week ago, an assassin's bullet killed Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

But the President's widow, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, and his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, flew to Hyannis Port to take part in an international television program on John F. Kennedy's spiritual legacy to the world.

TELSTAR RELAY

The president's other brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., will join Irish Prime Minister Sean Lemass for part of the program to be relayed by Telstar II from Dublin.

Other segments beamed by Telstar bring in former British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, from England, and West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt of Germany.

Part of the program will be devoted to the Kennedy Memorial Library, for which $10 million is being raised. The library is to be built near Harvard University.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, the late president's mother, appeared last night on CBS television to comment on pictures of her son and others of her family. CBS commentator Harry Reasoner said the pictures never had been shown publicly before.

Talks Resume in Hillsdale Strike

K Says Cosmonauts Photographed Bases

PARIS (AP)—A former U.S. senator quoted Soviet Premier Khrushchev today as saying Soviet spacemen have taken photographs of U.S. military installations and he assumes U.S. spacemen do the same when they pass over Soviet military installations.

William Benton, former Democratic senator from Connecticut said Khrushchev offered to display them to President Johnson "if he wishes."

And said Benton, Khrushchev jokingly suggested that the United States and the Soviet Union might exchange such photos.

Benton said Khrushchev was apparently suggesting that the United States obtain aerial inspection of Cuba from outer space and thus avoid any new crisis in the Caribbean.

Benton talked to Khrushchev yesterday in the Kremlin. The senator met with reporters after arriving in Paris, where he is U.S. envoy to the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization which has its headquarters here.

★ ★ ★

Benton told newsmen today that Khrushchev apparently was suggesting that the United States abandon reconnaissance flights which might encounter Cuban antiaircraft fire. President Johnson has said such flights are necessary and will be continued.

NIKITA QUOTED

Benton quoted Khrushchev as follows:

"Neither President Johnson nor I want another crisis over Cuba. This is the time for sober sense to reign."

★ ★ ★

"It is something of international concern. It involves international law."

Blast Shatters Ontario School

WINDSOR, Ont. (UPI)—An explosion shattered the St. Thomas School in suburban Riverside early today seconds before the morning bell was to call 300 pupils in to classes.

★ ★ ★

Fire department officials said a power shovel working near the school pulled apart a two-inch gas line.

A water heater in the janitor's room in the basement of the three-story structure was believed to have ignited the gas moments after early arrivals had been evacuated.

Truck driver Karl Coates, 34, of Windsor, and the janitor, Ralph Parent, 49, told police they smelled gas when the line broke. They sounded the alarm and cleared the school of students and teachers. Most of the students had not entered the building.

No one was reported injured.

★ ★ ★

The janitor and teacher Kenneth Pressello, 23, were opening windows in the empty school when the blast occurred. Neither was injured.

Damage to the building was extensive.

Nation Plans Big Weekend

Warning Is Issued on Traffic Hazards

By United Press International

Thousands of families streamed from the nation's big cities and towns today bound for a Memorial Day weekend at their favorite beach or fishing spot.

★ ★ ★

The first holiday weekend of the summer vacation season started with a warning from the National Safety Council that between 410 and 490 Americans would die in traffic accidents.

A United Press International count at 1 p.m. (Pontiac time) showed that 46 persons had been killed on the country's streets and highways since the holiday officially started at 6 p.m. local time yesterday.

While thousands fled to beach parties, picnics and sporting events, others prepared for brassy parades and memorial services in recognition of the nation's fallen veterans.

★ ★ ★

A special observance was planned for tomorrow at the white archway spanning the hulk of the sunken battleship USS Arizona in Pearl Harbor.

KILLED IN ATTACK

The archway commemorates the 1,102 men entombed in the ship when it was sunk Dec. 7, 1941, and honors all other men killed in the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor that morning.

★ ★ ★

Approximately 50,000 persons were expected to file through cross-crowded Arlington Cemetery to visit the grave of the late President John F. Kennedy and the Tomb of the Unknowns.

MOBILIZING TROOPS — Loading a field kitchen in preparation for duty in the strike-torn town of Hillsdale are National Guard members called up from Company B, Marshall. Company D of Coldwater has also been called to the area, by order of Gov. Romney, to keep peace after a series of incidents in a long strike.

HILLSDALE (AP) — While National Guardsmen patrolled a factory where a strike had exploded into a near-riot, negotiators began talks today that Michigan's governor said would continue "until they produce results."

Two persons stood charged with assault to commit murder in the shotgun wounding of a plant guard and one plant guard was accused of unlawful discharge of a firearm.

Agreement to resume previously sporadic negotiations in the 3-month-old strike at Essex Wire Corp. came last night after a five-hour series of meetings in Gov. George W. Romney's office at Lansing.

"The meetings will be held for a reasonable period each day until they produce results," the governor said. "They have agreed to stick to it for the purpose of working out a contract."

★ ★ ★

Romney sent the National Guard to Hillsdale. He declared a "state of public emergency" and ordered the Essex plant shut down and its guards disarmed after a near-riot Wednesday night.

BESIEGED JAIL

More than 250 persons besieged the Hillsdale County Jail and smashed its windows with rocks after police arrested three persons at the picket line at the plant.

It was the latest violent incident in a series which began when the International Union of Electrical Workers called 180 members out of the Essex

Encourage Cuba Exiles, Senate Committee Urges

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate committee urged today that anti-Castro exile organizations' ties in Cuba be encouraged and strengthened "to maintain and broaden the fire of disaffection and eventual revolt.

"Castro and communism must be expelled from Cuba," asserted a report by a Judiciary subcommittee. "They will be buried the deepest, if buried by Cubans — on the island and in exile."

In issuing the report, Chairman Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said recent events indicate anti-Castro operations are entering a new phase and "the time has come for a meaningful infiltration of Cuba, and concerted effort to topple the regime."

The report took issue with congressional advocates of a U.S.-Supported Cuban government-in-exile.

But it advocated finding of formula for unity among Cuban exile groups looking to creation of an organization which "could authoritatively address governments, international bodies and public opinion, in the cause of Cuban freedom."

Although subcommittee member Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., concurred in the report generally, he said he disagreed particularly with the suggestion that U.S. policy toward Cuba is well-defined and clearly articulated.

The subcommittee said the "generally widening gulf" between the exiles and elements combatting the Castro regime within Cuba "is a disturbing, but perhaps inevitable aspect of political development within the refugee community."

Greater U.N. Role Eyed for SE Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials are reported seriously considering the possibility of the United Nations undertaking a larger role in war-torn Southeast Asia than has so far been suggested.

This is one of the lines of action expected to be discussed when American policy-makers meet in Honolulu Monday and Tuesday to work out recommendations for President Johnson.

After studying the recommendations, Johnson may make some initial decisions on the U.S. course of action.

With the Communist offensive in Laos apparently slowed down, the air of urgency over the Southeast Asian situation has eased.

The Honolulu conference will take a long-range look at the problems of trying to secure peace and stability in Laos, Viet Nam and Cambodia, as well as discuss the immediate problems arising out of the Communist offensives.

Expanded military action by the United States is another of the possible courses to be considered. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said in a speech a week ago that, if Communist aggression continued, the result could be "to expand the war."

Johnson announced the Honolulu meeting yesterday, saying the purpose of the cabinet-level talks would be "to review the situation in the entire area" of Southeast Asia.

Some Sun for Holiday

Temperatures will be warmer tomorrow with the high climbing to around 70.

A low of 40 was recorded in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. The mercury stood at 60 at 2 p.m.

Vans Cited in GMTC Boom

Manufacturing of van - type delivery trucks established last fall has resulted in addition of over 1,000 GMC Truck & Coach employes, Calvin Werner, GMTC general manager, said yesterday.

Werner, speaking to Pontiac Rotarians at a luncheon at the GMTC administration building, described business as "booming here at GMC T & C."

Werner, also a General Motors Corp. vice president, told Rotarians that the truck and coach division is off to the best sales start in over a decade of truck and bus building in Pontiac.

"Domestic retail deliveries through May 20 were up 17 per cent over the comparable period a year ago," Werner said.

Translated into unit volume, Werner said, this amounted to 41,500 trucks and buses for the first 4½ months of the year.

100,000 PLUS

"The fast sales pace leads us to expect a 100,000 - plus truck and bus year for the first time since 1951," he said.

Werner predicted a continuation of the brisk truck and bus sales pace.

"What's more," he said, "growth factors point to continued progress by the automotive industry as a whole."

★ ★ ★

The ability to offer the buyer a wide range of products was cited by Werner as one of the most important contributory factors in increased truck sales.

"This has been our goal at GMC T&C, and with the introduction of the new line of light delivery vans, we have attained it," he said.

He pointed out that the fall of 1962, the decision was made to assemble all of General Motors integral van - type delivery trucks in Pontiac.

He explained that a former warehouse area was converted into a truck assembly plant which he called the most modern delivery van assembly plant in the industry.

★ ★ ★

The assembly operation covers approximately 315,000 square feet and produces over 200 units a day.

To Ease Traffic Jam

Drain Portion Finished

The Clinton River flowed serenely through a new concrete river bed for the first time this week, clearing the way for work that will ease some not-so-serene traffic congestion on South Saginaw.

City Engineer Joseph E. Neipling said today that the first portion of new Clinton River Drain construction to be utilized is the big, double-box culvert under Perimeter Road right-of-way near East Huron.

"The river enters the big culvert almost directly north of the Secretary of State branch office on East Huron and flows through to the outlet just east of Union," Neipling said.

"It's a significant step," he noted, "because Oak Construction Company now can complete paving the Perimeter Road section over the river from East Huron up to Mount Clemens.

★ ★ ★

"With that done, and some minor construction such as curbing completed south of East Huron, the road can be opened from South Saginaw around to West Huron."

FINISHED IN JULY

Rough estimates are that the work will be done sometime in July. The loop highway has been open from Mount Clemens around the top of the central business district to West Huron since last fall.

★ ★ ★

The leg running from South Saginaw to Mount Clemens has been closed, although portions have been used temporarily to detour traffic around other construction sites.

Construction on Perimeter Road approaches and turnarounds has limited two-way traffic to only one side of South Saginaw, from about Franklin Road north to Whittemore, for more than a month.

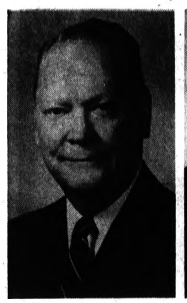
With the opening of the Saginaw-Mount Clemens leg of the loop highway, all northbound Saginaw traffic at that point will be routed onto the Perimeter Road, Neipling explained.

★ ★ ★

"Saginaw, from Whittemore south to Franklin will be one-way southbound, easing the rush hour traffic jams there," he said.

★ ★ ★

Work on the final phase of the Perimeter Road (Cass extended south from West Huron to South Saginaw) is slated for completion this fall.



RICHARD C. WOODHOUSE

N. F. TROST

Truck Sales Chief Gets New GM Post

Appointment of Richard C. Woodhouse to the newly created position of general sales manager for GMC Truck & Coach Division was announced today.

Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division, said that Woodhouse will direct all truck and coach sales activities.

Woodhouse previously headed the truck sales operations.

Also promoted in the division was N. F. Trost, 5550 Brookdale, Bloomfield Township, formerly truck service manager. He will report to Woodhouse as general parts and service manager.

★ ★ ★

Trost will be responsible for product service, national parts warehousing and sales distribution.

★ ★ ★

Woodhouse of 4230 Orchard Way, Bloomfield Township, brings experience in sales to his new post. He joined General Motors in 1924 with AC Spark Plug Division, Flint, and later served as a statistician with Cadillac Motor Car Division from 1925-27.

SALES MANAGER

In 1930, Woodhouse was named regional sales promotion manager of Yellow Truck and Coach Manufacturing Co., a predecessor of GMC Truck & Coach.

He later served as western sales promotion manager, sales promotion representative in the central region, retail sales manager at Buffalo and sales promotion manager in Pontiac.

In 1942, Woodhouse assumed added responsibilities as manager of parts and service merchandising. Three years, later he was promoted to regional sales manager in Dallas, serving until 1949 when advanced to assistant general truck sales manager.

He was promoted to general truck sales manager in 1952.

Trost joined GMC in 1961 as assistant director of reliability. He was named truck service manager last year.

Prior to coming here, Trost was general manager of a west coast aircraft supplier plant. Prior to that, he spent 15 years with Allison Division of General Motors at Dayton, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

He served in Ohio as production engineering manager, assistant sales manager, sales manager and manager of inspection and quality control.

BUDGET INFORMATION — Henry D. Price, chairman of the budget steering committee of the Pontiac Area United Fund, distributed budget information to the more than 60 committee members at a meeting last night in the Waldron Hotel.

UF Committee on Budget Discusses Fund Requests

More than 60 members of the budget steering committee of the Pontiac Area United Fund met last night at the Waldron Hotel to discuss responsibilities involved in analyzing budget requests of some 21 local agencies.

★ ★ ★

Henry D. Price, chairman of the budget committee, challenged committee members to equate the needs of the community for agency services with the funds that will be available.

The 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund goal will be set in August following further review by the budget committee and the United Fund's board of trustees.

Last year's requests totaled more than $974,000. Minimum budget needs were set at $817,975.

★ ★ ★

Charles Brown, division manager for Consumers Power Company and 1964 industrial division chairman of the UF, said last night that the outlook for the fall fund drive seemed bright.

HIGH EMPLOYMENT

Brown based his optimism on present high employment and prospects for continued growth of the area.

He cautioned, however, that "we must at all times adjust our sights to the community's ability to support increasing requests for services."

Fred Haggard, president of the AFL-CIO Oakland County Council and a member of the UF's board of trustees, spoke on, "The Responsibility of the UF to the Community."

★ ★

HEARINGS MONDAY

Hearings on budget requests from various organizations will begin Monday and continue through June 25.

★ ★ ★

The public is invited to attend all hearings slated for 7 and 9 p.m. at the Community Services Building, 132 Franklin Blvd.

Last night's dinner was sponsored by Buckner Finance, Home and Auto Loan and Oakland Loan Companies.

Airline Review Will Be Sought

City Chamber Unit Set to Petition CAB

Max Adams, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, today said the chamber's aviation committee would petition the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) to review need for airline service here.

A CAB examiner recommended Wednesday that North Central Airlines (NCA) be allowed to delete Pontiac and two other Michigan cities from its route due to low patronage.

The aviation committee has been fighting such a move.

★ ★ ★

"We've gone through two years of hearings," Adams said, "and we still feel there are things involved other than patronage of NCA flights."

ASKED HEARING

Adams noted that the local committee had asked to be allowed to present its case to the CAB, but was not given that chance.

"We will again ask for an oral hearing before the board, before the recommendation can be put into effect.

"The airline service is no good to us as it is," Adams agreed. "What we need are direct flights to Chicago and Cleveland and we have statistics to show local business interests would support such flights."

★ ★ ★

The examiner's recommendation will become effective in 30 days (June 26) unless a petition is filed requesting a review. The petition must be filed by June 21.

TRANSFER FLIGHTS

In answer to similar requests for service to Cleveland and Chicago, NCA initiated morning and evening flights in the summer of 1961 to and from Detroit, where passengers could transfer to Cleveland and Chicago flights.

The flights averaged about one passenger per day outbound from Pontiac over a three-month period and were discontinued.

Support for a proposed Oakland County community college was voted last night by the Pontiac School Board.

The board urged Pontiac citizens to approve the college proposals at the polls June 8.

Then the President and Mrs. Johnson drove to Arlington Cemetery and placed a wreath of red, white and blue flowers on Kennedy's grave.

More than 40 top government officials, White House aides and Democratic committee officers who served under Kennedy attended the 10-minute service in the state dining room of the White House.

Millage Split Set for County

Tax Allocation Board Divides Year's Funds

The Oakland County Tax Allocation Board yesterday set final rates for splitting the 15-mill county tax levy this year among schools, townships and county government.

★ ★ ★

Each mill is worth $1 in taxes for every $1,000 of the total $2.3-billion equalized valuation placed on property in the county.

By unanimous vote, the six-member board allocated 5.26 mills for county government, .11 mills for Oakland Schools (special education), and 9.63 mills for 30 school districts, less allocations to townships where they apply in the districts.

The final rates give county government .07 mills more and school districts .07 mills less than they received last year.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-two townships were given the same allocation they received last year. Amounts varied from 1 to 1.38 mills.

MORE DOLLARS

All participating units will receive more actual tax dollars than they got in 1963 because of a $108-million increase in the county's equalized valuation due mainly to new construction.

County government will get some $12.4 million in taxes this year toward next year's budget, for an increase of about $1 million.

The county had sought 5.9 mills toward a total proposed budget of $18.4 million, the difference to be financed by receipts paid for county services.

★ ★ ★

About $1.25 million will have to be pared from the proposed budget to keep it within expected revenues. The county's budget for the current year is $16 million.

OWN RECOMMENDATION

In setting the rates, allocation board members accepted their own recommendation Tuesday while acting as a committee. As a committee, they voted 4-2 to make the recommendation.

GMC emblem and others are supplied to Chevrolet, Werner said. The vans are very similar but not identical, according to Werner's description.

Werner said employment at the division stands at 12,885, including more than 1,000 persons added as a direct result of the van operation.

The employment total, he said, is one of the highest figures in the history of the division.

★ ★ ★

"Fortunately, these new jobs more than compensate for the tragic loss of Baldwin Rubber," he said.

CONSTANT CONCERN

The experience of the rubber company's closing suggests that a community must always be as concerned about providing a favorable environment for the well-being and growth potential of its existing industries as it is in romancing outsiders, Werner said.

Last November, the first 211-cubic-foot cargo space vans rolled off the assembly line but it wasn't until January that the plant was in full production.

Since that time, we have produced more than 19,000 units, Werner said.

★ ★ ★

He added that it was against policy to specify what this represents in dollar volume, but he said, "I assure you the aggregate sum can't be written in less than eight digits."

DOMESTIC SALES

Werner said that the division's domestic truck sales are well ahead of the industry as a whole.

"For the year to date, our sales are 18.9 per cent ahead of 1963, while the industry is up 16.9 per cent."

Werner said GMTC is currently a strong number one in coach production and a solid number 4 in trucks.

★ ★ ★

"As a result of this, we can all stand a little taller," he said.

Werner was introduced by Pontiac Press Editor John W. Fitzgerald.

Following the luncheon, Rotarians and guests toured the plant.

Claims LBJ After Catholic Degree, Vote

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—Elly M. Peterson, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, says President Johnson has asked a Roman Catholic university in the East to award him an honorary degree to help him win favor with Catholic voters.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Peterson did not name the university when she made the statement here yesterday during a speech to the Fairfield County Republican Women's Clubs association. She refused to identify it when questioned in Washington later.

Holy Cross College, a Catholic institution at Worcester, Mass., announced on April 14 that Johnson would speak and receive an honorary degree at the college's commencement on June 10.

A spokesman for Holy Cross told the New York Times last night that "to my knowledge, President Johnson never called us."

He said, the Times reported, that the charge sounded like "partisan politics — somebody with an axe to grind."

In New York City, where the President, a Protestant, was making a series of speeches at Democratic rallies last night, White House Press Secretary George Reedy said it was the first he had heard of the matter.

"Who made the charge?" Reedy asked. "A Republican? Well, let's leave it at that."

The council serves more than 9,500 boys and 3,300 adult volunteer leaders in 75 communities in a 1,000 square-mile area comprising 90 per cent of Oakland and Macomb counties.

Another highlight of last night's meeting was the presentation of the Silver Beaver Award by the Council to four veteran adult volunteer scout leaders.

Recipients were Charles A. Brucker, 39 Mill, Oxford; Albert C. Graebner, 7175 Richardson, Commerce Township; Norman R. Graham, 705 Joslyn; and Dr. Rees.

The Scouts' National Court of Honor, on the basis of nomination by a local council, determines recipients of the Silver Beaver Award.

HIGHEST HONOR

The award is the highest honor which a local council can bestow upon a scout leader for "distinguished service to boyhood."

David N. Griffiths, divisional buyer, purchasing department, Delco-Remy Division of General Motors Corporation, Anderson, Indiana, was the featured speaker at the meeting attended by 250 adult volunteer scouters and their wives.

He spoke on the Scouts' 1964 national theme, "Strengthen America's Heritage."

Wheel on Paris Plane Collapses; None Hurt

PARIS (AP) — A Trans World Airlines Boeing 707 jet bound for New York skidded off the runway at Orly Airfield today after its nose gear collapsed. None of the 86 passengers or 14 crew members suffered injury, an airlines spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman said Capt. Steve Hawes, New York-based pilot, noted some unusual vibrations in the nose gear as the plane gathered speed for takeoff. Instead of taking any chances he braked the plane and it turned off the runway.

Fire Death Record

EAST LANSING (AP) — Fires claimed a record number of lives in Michigan last year, state police reported Thursday. The annual fire marshal's report showed a record 86,845 fires claimed 273 lives. Property damage was estimated at $59.15 million — a 10-year high, police said.

Romania Defies Russia, Eyes British N-Reactor, Aid

LONDON (AP) — Communist Romania, already defying the Soviet Union's economic mastery, has made overtures to buy nuclear power reactors from the United States and Britain, qualified Western diplomats reported.

The Romanian approach is expected to be the subject of high-level American-British consultation.

Each of the Allied powers seems to be waiting for the other to make a first move before giving the go-it-alone Romanians a definite no or a qualified expression of interest. Nuclear power reactors in which the Romanians have shown an interest could manufacture plutonium for nuclear bombs.

Informants said an economic delegation led by Aurel Cimpeanu, secretary-general in the Romanian ministry of foreign trade, visited London early in April and told the Board of Trade its government would like to buy equipment for both a thermal and a nuclear power station.

The British reply by all accounts was discouraging. The Inter-Allied Coordinating Committee, which controls export of strategic material to Communist lands, embargoed such equipment in 1962.

Apparently a Romanian delegation to the United States led by Deputy Premier Gheorghe Gaston-Marin also raised the question with American authorities.

Evidently the Americans, like the British, restrained themselves from giving an unequivocal no. The whole issue appears to have been left open for decision at White House level.

Both the Americans and the British have no inhibitions about selling reactors to nations considered friendly. In the past they have competed keenly for such orders.

Buyers must pledge, however, to use such reactors only for peaceful purposes.

★ ★ ★

Communist countries presumably would give such a pledge, but Western authorities undoubtedly would demand the right to check against cheating. Whether such safeguards would be acceptable to the Reds is another question.

On Mrs. LBJ's Farm

Tenants Reject GOP Aid

AUTAUGAVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The Charlie Cutlers—tenants on Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's farm — have spurned an offer by a group of young Republicans to fix their leaky roof.

"If they ain't gonna do it right, it ain't no use to start," Cutler's wife Willie said after a group of young Republicans knocked on her door yesterday and offered a complete repair job for the aging roof.

"Like they want to do it," Cutler said, "would be like buying yourself a new hat without no new clothes."

What Cutler meant was that he thought any repair job ought to include an entirely new foundation for his shack, new bannisters, imitation brick siding and a new porch.

TENANT FARMER

Cutler is a 75-year-old tenant farmer on the Alabama farmland owned by the President's wife. Cutler and his 63-year-old wife got into the news recently when two Republican congressmen toured the land and reported conditions of unparalleled poverty.

The young Republicans showed up at the farm yesterday wearing ten-gallon hats and sporting "Goldwater for President" lapel buttons.

"They wanted to start on top of the house, and I didn't want to start there," Cutler said. "I wanted them to fix it from the ground up."

But that was merely the preface to his reaction. Cutler just didn't like the idea at all.

Baby Sitter Knifed; Mother Is Guilty

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A mother admits she was guilty of disorderly conduct for stabbing a baby sitter who refused to return the baby until the mother had paid a $2 baby sitting fee.

Carroll Herring, 21, of Buffalo had been charged with second-degree assault for stabbing Miss Patricia Calhoun in the leg, when the latter attempted to impose what a judge called a "baby sitter's lien."

★

Mrs. Herring said she became angered when Miss Calhoun would not return the Herring baby until a $2 fee had been paid. Mrs. Herring had left her child in Miss Calhoun's care at the Calhoun home last Saturday night.

Your Heart Has Nine Lives—XI

Wives Can Aid in Preventing Premature Coronaries

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the 11th in a series of 12 articles condensed from the new book, "Your Heart Has Nine Lives.")

By ALTON BLAKESLEE and JEREMIAH STAMLER, M.D.

That morning—she always remembered—the telephone rang while she was having her second cup of coffee.

Diane and Bob had gone off to high school, and she was planning details of the coming day, and mentally phrasing the sprightly letter, larded with maternal advice, she would be writing to her son in college.

Then her world shattered.

". . . afraid bad news . . ." the telephone voice said. ". . . your husband . . . heart attack . . . so very sorry . . ." those were the main words announcing she was suddenly a widow at 43.

Little more than an hour before, her husband had left for work, cheerful enough and seemingly in perfect health.

Very likely, many wives could help to prevent the premature heart attacks of their middle-aged and young middle-aged husbands, if they only knew how.

And in complete innocence, they may be dooming their own sons to early disaster from heart disease through lifelong habits which they permit or encourage them to adopt and follow now.

In this affair of the heart, women have a personal and three-fold interest—not only the hearts of their husbands and their children, but their own hearts as well.

In our society, this biological rusting doesn't come along so early or so brutally among women. American men seem to be five to 20 times more vulnerable to "coronaries" during middle age than women. But this blessing gradually diminishes, and after about age 65, heart attacks strike women almost as frequently as men.

ESTROGEN

The female sex hormone, estrogen, seems to be a prime reason for this immunity. But after menopause, or change of life, women produce less of this hormone.

Other differences could be significant.

Fashion stresses slimness; a woman running a household often engages in more actual exercise than her husband at a desk; women eat many of the same foods as their husbands, but may eat less, and in early decades of adult life, relatively high blood cholesterol levels are not so ominously frequent among women.

★ ★ ★

But young women and young middle-aged women do not escape scot-free from the ravages of artery disease. One or a combination of conspirators can lessen their "immunity." Each of the risks becomes more serious after menopause.

THE DANGEROUS THIRTIES

Extra pounds hike the risk, and can come along all too easily with critical epochs in the lives of many women.

One such period can arrive with marriage, if the girl who has scrupulously watched her weight and calories for a trim figure lets herself go once she has a wedding band, or because she begins oversampling her own cooking.

After her first baby, she may continue eating more than she really needs, and slowly gain weight. Or as children grow up, she may become less active physically. Food can also become a major comfort in coping with disappointments, unhappiness, or depressions.

For women, the danger period in weight gain usually comes in the mid-30s and mid-40s, roughly a decade later than for the average American man. Excess pounds are less dangerous for women, perhaps or even probably because of the sex hormone, estrogen.

★ ★ ★

Cigarettes are statistically linked with a three to six-fold greater risk of heart attacks among men. Whether smoking carries similar risks for women has not been investigated. But women now are smoking much more than they did 30 years ago, and this might be having a detrimental influence.

★ ★ ★

As guardian of family health and as chef, a woman can make a major contribution to her husband's efforts to protect himself from the risks of premature heart attacks and strokes.

To start with, she can urge and even cajole him to get moving down that road—to have regular physical checkups and to follow a doctor's advice on controlling health hazards.

She can buy and prepare foods to keep blood cholesterol down, and calories under control. She can help him obtain enough rest and relaxation, to avoid unnecessary emotional stresses and turmoil, and encourage him to get more exercise beyond policing the yard or painting a room.

WHAT MOTHERS CAN DO

As a mother, are you pointing your children toward early trouble from degenerative diseases of civilization? The first signs of the artery disease appear in childhood and teen-age years. Habits acquired then can persist and sabotage health and heart.

Modern mothers frequently worry too much whether a child is eating enough each and every day. Some live by the "clean plate rule," cajoling and even bribing a child to eat everything served up to him, at a risk of turning him against nutritious foods.

★ ★ ★

Growing children are hungrier at some times than others, and their own appetites are pretty good guides as to what their bodies really need. Good, sensible food habits can and should be set up in young years.

As child or teen-ager, is your youngster developing sound physical health through enough exercise and play at school, after school, and around home? Or is he well on the way to becoming one of the army of habitual sitters, riders and spectators rather than performers?

Arteries and hearts can only suffer as legs come to be regarded as mere supports for standing, or troublesome appendages to be folded into cars.

Afternoon and evening snacks tend to be very high in calories and saturated fats with soft drinks, rich confections, and ice cream creations, cookies, chips, fatty hamburgers. Teen-agers needn't forego these refreshments, but parents by example and quiet, frank discussion of health can give children a sounder perspective on the best choices of foods.

And by example, parents can also guide a child not to start smoking, no matter how much it is presented as an essential for fun and sophistication.

How a mother teaches her children to live now may determine if they are alive and well a quarter-century hence.

And along the way, a woman can strive to benefit her own heart as well.

Court Requests Pollution Proof

Bloomfield Hills Swim Program Still Pending

Do Bloomfield Hills School District students carry hidden dirt? Will their splashing pollute Walnut Lake?

An Oakland County Circuit Court suit over the district's plans to establish a swim program beach at the lake remained afloat yesterday pending testimony about mass hygiene.

Judge Frederick C. Zeim said a restraining order blocking construction of the beach would be continued until a hearing Tuesday to permit attorneys for eight private property owners to prove charges the beach would be a health hazard.

The complaint was raised by plaintiffs' attorney William B. Hartman, who charged scores of students using the 120-acre lake could cause pollution.

★ ★ ★

He cited a Battle Creek court case where swimmers were barred from a lake used as source of drinking water.

ORDERS EVIDENCE

Judge Ziem replied that Walnut Lake was not used for drinking water and ordered Hartman to produce evidence pointing to possible pollution.

School district attorney John Gilray contended youngsters enrolling in the summer water program would shower before being transported to the lake and said pollution would be negligible anyway."

This brought "ohs" and "ahs" of disagreement from property owners in the courtroom, drawing a rebuke from Judge Ziem that disorder would not be tolerated in court.

School officials hope to spend $9,600 to develop the beach property, part of a 46-acre future junior high school site, into an outdoor classroom since the district presently lacks an indoor pool.

IN MEMORIAM — Echoing taps at Memorial Day services in Milford and Highland Township tomorrow, Don Phillips (left) and Mike Wixom will be among area residents honoring their war dead. The two youths are members of the Milford High School band, which also will march in a Memorial Day parade. The day's activities will feature flag ceremonies, religious tributes and the parade.

Communities Plan Tributes to Dead on Memorial Day

Parades, picnics and a pause . . .

These will characterize Memorial Day 1964 — the day set aside for the nation to honor its sons who have died in the service of their country.

Communities throughout the area have planned public tributes.

Milford American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts will begin their day at 6:30 a.m. with a joint detail conducting flag ceremonies at both halls.

Services will then be held at Milford Memorial, Oakgrove and St. Mary's cemeteries.

★ ★ ★

Joining the Milford group at 9 a.m. at the West Highland Cemetery will be members of the Hi-White VFW Post. They will then move on to the Highland Cemetery at 9:30 a.m.

An 11 a.m. parade through downtown Milford will precede the program scheduled for Riverside Park, where Rev. Donald Simon of Christ Lutheran Church will be the speaker.

Oakland County Circuit Judge James S. Thorburn will deliver the Memorial Day address in Rochester.

Tomorrow's ceremonies there will get underway when boy scouts and the Rochester High School Band raise the flag before the American Legion Hall.

The parade which will start at 10 a.m. will pause at the memorial to World War II veterans at Main and Second for a wreath - laying ceremony.

The Civil Air Patrol will raise the flag at Mt. Avon Cemetery. The program will include a salute to the Civil War dead by the Women's Relief Corps, recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Thorburn's address, a salute by the VFW and American Legion firing squad and taps by the high school band.

In Keego Harbor, marching units will proceed from the Heart of the Lakes VFW Post No. 2706 home at 10 a.m. to the Veterans Memorial Plot.

Mayor Vernon Edward will speak and present a wreath at the plot. Representatives of other civic organizations also will pay tribute to the war dead there.

Warren Mendez, past commander of the Hulet-Braverder VFW Post No. 5587, will conduct services at the Holly Soldiers Monument in Lakeside Cemetery.

The ceremony with various civic organizations will follow a 10 a.m. parade starting at the Township Hall. Rev. Robert Watt of Calvary Methodist Church will deliver the invocation and James Weathers, VFW chaplain, the benediction.

Lesinski Won't Seek Reelection

LANSING (AP) — Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski, in a sentimental swan song Thursday night, told the Senate he would not run for renomination as lieutenant governor and later added he has not yet discounted the idea of seeking the Democratic nomination for governor.

Lesinski, who estimated he has broken at least 10 gavels during his four years as presiding officer of the Senate, was presented his last gavel as a going-away present.

★ ★ ★

The shrewd, rotund, cigar-chomping Lesinski has been one of the most colorful figures in the Capitol in recent years.

Lesinski announced at the windup of the Senate session Thursday night, "This is my swan song. I am bringing to a close 10 years in the House and four in the Senate as presiding officer."

NOT GIVEN UP

Lesinski said later he has not yet given up the notion of possibly trying out as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor. U.S. Rep. Neil Staebler of Ann Arbor is so far the only announced Democratic candidate.

Lesinski said he would announce his decision on his governorship intentions next week.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, he said, he intends to either return to private law practice in Detroit or seek a Detroit judgeship.

The possibilities could include either a Circuit, Appelate, or Probate Court judgeship, Lesinski said, depending on where the offices are open.

Lesinski has made no secret about his judgeship ambitions and reportedly was miffed when he was bypassed for several appointments by former Govs. G. Mennen Williams and John B. Swainson.

Hospital Alters Building Plans

Avon Twp. Directors Decide on Addition

AVON TOWNSHIP — Avon Center Hospital's Board of Directors has dropped plans for a new hospital and substituted a proposed $700,000 expansion at the present site.

Dr. J. V. Wilkes, chief of staff at the osteopathic institution, announced that construction of ground-level additions will begin this summer.

He said first phase of the work is already under way, with laying of 7,700 feet of sewer line from South Street to the hospital, Avon and Rochester roads.

"The Avon Center Board of Directors encouraged expansion of our present facility at this time rather than build an all new hospital on the land we purchased at Rochester and Orion roads," Dr. Wilkes explained.

★ ★ ★

"The length of time to construct a new hospital and the higher financial obligations were the primary factors behind this decision."

GROWTH PLANS

Included in the hospital growth are plans for a new administration building and lobby; enlarged x-ray, physiotherapy, nursery and emergency departments; and space for 45 additional beds.

New surgery, delivery and kitchen-dining rooms are also slated.

Some 50 new employes will be required as a result of the expansion, calling for a total annual payroll of more than $500,000.

Financing of the entire building program is being borne by the hospital's 32 osteopathic physicians, each of whom has agreed to a voluntary assessment annually until the mortgage is retired, according to Dr. Wilkes.

Dems 'Just Starting'

Legislature Finishes

LANSING (AP) — The legislature completed its work today —and state Democrats said they were just starting theirs—amid hints that Gov. George W. Romney might call lawmakers back for a special session.

In three moves Thursday, Romney and lawmakers cleared up the confusion shrouding the state's 1964 elections and paved the way for rapid adjournment of the session.

★ ★ ★

Lawmakers were scheduled to adjourn at noon today. But even before they had a chance to pack their bags, rumors circulated of a special session to deal with another election problem—the inclusion of county and township officers in the fall voting and the long, unwieldly ballot that could result.

The first move Thursday was Romney's. He signed the so-called "Massachusetts ballot" bill, assuring Democrats of enough time to complete a petition drive to place the issue before the people in November.

PUT TO VOTE

The effect of putting the matter to a vote would be to block its use in November. The bill eliminates straight party voting.

It could hurt Democratic chances, since the party relies more heavily on straight-party voting than do the Republicans.

★ ★ ★

Immediately after Romney signed the Massachusetts ballot bill, State Democratic Chairman Zolton Ferency opened fire. Said Ferency:

"George Romney has taken from the voters of Michigan a choice which is rightfully theirs."

TAKE FROM VOTERS

The Democratic Chief said the bill took from voters the choice of voting their party with a single motion of the lever or pencil.

The Democratic Party, he said, "will join with other coalitions of concerned citizens to preserve the right which has been taken away by this act."

Romney defended the bill, saying it makes "voting more meaningful (and) produces a more accurate expression of voter opinion, and will increase voter control of their government."

It still permits state party voting, Romney said, since each candidate's party will be "clearly listed."

AFTER BILL SIGNED

Once Romney signed the bill, Democrats held to earlier promises of immediate effect for a primary election bill, which apparently would have allowed two primaries, one on Aug. 4 and one on Sept. 1.

With immediate effect, it can become law before the scheduled August election and substitute for it the September date.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Russell Strange, R-Clare, chairman of the House Elections Committee, said a special session will be necessary to clear up the county and township officers question.

Romney, who told the legislature in a special message May 6 that "action on these matters is essential", said Thursday, "I will deal with the question after the legislature decides what it will do."

House GOP Floor Leader Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, said he thought there was "probability" that a special session will be called to deal with various loose ends on elections, including the county and township officers' problem.

"Besides that, we've got some other matters on elections in Wayne County," he added.

★ ★ ★

House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, said he couldn't tell yet whether a special session is in the offing.

"If it looks like there is great need, then the governor probably will call us back."

Romney said Thursday he hoped the legislature would pass a resolution asking for a popular vote on a constitutional amendment to remove either the county officers or the township officers from the fall ballot.

Rocky, Barry Views Clash in Hot California Campaign

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are lecturing Californians on what's bad for the Republican party as they stump the state in hot pursuit of California's 86 votes at the GOP National Convention.

Goldwater contends Rockefeller's policies would be the "kiss of death" for the party.

Rockefeller says the party must remain "out in the main stream of American life rather than be pulled into an offside eddy by extremist groups."

The California primary on Tuesday will decide who will take that choice block of delegate votes into the convention starting here July 13.

BARRY CONFIDENT

Goldwater, campaigning in the Los Angeles area, said Thursday he's confident he'll win on Tuesday and if he does, "then I think there's no question that we can win on the first ballot."

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller, working in the San Francisco region, has not retreated from his stand that "things look bright" for him on Tuesday and that he will come to the convention with 400 of the 655 votes needed for nomination.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater accused Rockefeller of seeking votes in California "on the implicit basis of a threat to bolt the party" if he doesn't like the party's nominee. He challenged Rockefeller to pledge allegiance to the party's choice, whomever he may be.

The Arizona senator said former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton and Michigan Gov. George Romney have disavowed any part in a "stop Goldwater" movement.

STAND ALONE

"This now means that Gov. Rockefeller stands alone in his refusal to commit himself to support the party's choice," Goldwater said.

Rockefeller answered that it was understandable that the three were maintaining neutrality.

★ ★ ★

"They are all ambitious and hope lightning will strike," said the New York governor. "What other position could they take?"

Rockefeller then recalled a Goldwater statement that Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's followers were supporting Rockefeller in a "package deal." He called that a Goldwater "attempt to distract the decision of the voters in next Tuesday's balloting."

NEW FRONTIER

Goldwater said Rockefeller holds New Frontier views on medical care to the aged and aid to education and that such thinking would "put the kiss of death upon our party in this election."

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller placed himself in flat disagreement with Goldwater views on the United Nations, foreign aid, Social Security, income tax laws and proposed sale of the Tennessee Valley Authority "for a dollar."

★ ★ ★

The New York governor said the party must "offer a constructive alternative to the Democratic administration now in power in Washington—an alternative that will appeal to the majority of the American people."

Kin Says Ruby in Suicide Try

Light Bulb Broken 'for Electrocution'

DALLAS (UPI) — Jack Ruby smashed his jail cell light bulb with a spittoon yesterday because he wanted to stick his finger in the bare socket and electrocute himself, his brother Sam said.

The 54-year-old former striptease club operator and convicted slayer of accused presidental assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was subdued by guards and received only a cut finger.

It was his second jail cell outburst since his conviction.

Sheriff Bill Decker said Ruby did not rest well Wednesday night and suddenly threw his eyeglasses to the floor about 4:45 a. m. (CST), shattering one lens.

★ ★ ★

Jailers entered the cell to clean up the glass, and the haggard Ruby seized a spittoon and tossed it at the cell's light bulb, shattering it. A jailer wrestled Ruby to the bed in the cell.

SPEAKS TO BROTHER

Sam Ruby said he spoke to Jack later on the phone and learned that "He broke the light bulb to get the socket bare so he could stick his finger in there and electrocute himself."

Sam said his brother still has delusions about Jews being killed because of what he did and imagines that his other brother, Earl Ruby of Detroit, has been slain.

"He is having very strong guilt feelings," Sam said.

★ ★ ★

Ruby rammed his head into his jail cell wall April 26 in another apparent suicide attempt. The same day, guards caught him trying to tear his denim prison uniform into strips which could have been used to made a noose.

DEMAND HEARING

Ruby's legal battery maintained that he has gone insane since his conviction. They demanded an immediate sanity hearing before a jury.

The jury that convicted Ruby rejected his plea of insanity at the time of Oswald's murder.

★ ★ ★

Ruby has been undergoing treatment by psychiatrists in his jail cell. He has also been undergoing a series of physical examinations.

World War I Was Planned—Stupidly

(Editor's Note—This is another in a continuing series on World War I, appearing in The Pontiac Press during the summer.)

By PHILIP VAN DOREN SMITH

DRAWINGS, JOHN LANE

The First World War did not just happen; it was planned. It was planned badly and stupidly, but it was planned.

The Germans had been projecting the details of their armies' movements for so many years that they had to revise them to keep them up to date.

The French also had a master plan to attack Germany, but they did not have a good defensive plan.

The British had no plan; they expected to remain neutral.

★ ★ ★

Russia was depending on the three factors that had defeated Napoleon a century before: vast area, inexhaustible manpower, and bitter winter weather.

COUNTS ON GERMANY

Austria was counting on German armed might to back up any move she made.

All these countries, except England, had various treaties and alliances.

None except Germany had enough powerful modern weapons in the hands of highly disciplined troops.

★ ★ ★

The British Navy was the world's biggest, but the Admiralty was watching the growth of German sea power with great apprehension.

SMALL, WELL-TRAINED

The British Army was small but professionally well-trained with soldiers who were the best riflemen in Europe.

The French Army was large but it did not have the right weapons.

The Russian Army was largest of all and could quickly be made even larger, but the men were without modern equipment and there were not enough officers to command a second mustering of troops.

★ ★ ★

The Austrian Army was a poor copy of German's.

GERMAN GUNS

The weapons that were to count were the 3,500 heavy guns the Germans were ready to use to blast their way through.

The French 75s were beautifully engineered but too small to hold off the German vance.

All the armies had machine guns, but no one could forsee the effect they were to have upon the conduct of the war. No army had enough of them; the Germans had most.

FEW AIRPLANES

Airplanes were few and of little importance. They were to increase rapidly in numbers and effectiveness during the next four years.

The navies had reached a high state of development, but they were not to be decisive — except for the submarine.

Completely new for warfare were radio communication, deadly poison gas, autmobiles, effective armored tanks and torpedoes and airborne craft which could be directed toward a target. (Stationary mines and balloons had been used before.)

★ ★ ★

But military men had little experience with the results these innovations would have on actual conflict.

19th CENTURY TRAINING

The high commands had 19th Century battlefield training to fight a 20th Century war.

They had to learn their lessons on the battlefield and that was the tragedy which was to cost millions of lives and billions of dollars.

Technology had advanced too rapidly for men to understand how it would affect human destiny.

A simple pistol was enough to known the world askew at Sarajevo.

PROBLEM: Pat your head and rub your stomach.

DO THIS: Try patting your head with both hands at the same time, and it is easy.

★ ★ ★

Try rubbing your stomach with one hand and patting your head with the other, and it is quite difficult.

★ ★ ★

HERE'S WHY: Automatic back-and-forth motions or circular motions of the hands and arms are performed easily, because the nervous system has been adapted to them through much repetition.

Any change from the pattern formed is difficult and must be controlled by active thought in the brain.

If your power of concentration is sufficiently strong, it can overcome the habit pattern and these motions can be performed.

12,000 Troops Seek Algerian Mountain Rebels

ALGIERS (AP) — More than 12,000 troops combed Algeria's Kabylie Mountains today in an attempt to wipe out the last military opposition to President Ahmed Ben Bella.

Skirmishing and ambushes in the past three days have taken about 30 lives, both military and civilian, travelers from the area reported.

The Arab government troops were reportedly systematically searching the small stone houses of Berber tribesmen in the densely populated area. Villagers said the army was hauling away truckloads of persons suspected of helping the guerrillas of the Socialist Forces Front.

Informed sources said Ben Bella has been preoccupied with the Kabylie problem since his return from Moscow and Cairo on May 17.

ASSASSINATION TRY

He is rumored to have escaped an assassination attempt, automatically blamed on the Socialist forces, last Friday in the grand mosque of Algiers. Witnesses saw him and his bodyguards flee from a back door of the mosque in their stocking feet.

Hint Scranton for VP Slot if Goldwater Nominated

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater has hinted he may want Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton as his running mate if he wins the Republican presidential nomination.

Goldwater said Scranton — himself an undeclared contender for top spot on the GOP ticket —would have "everything to win and nothing to lose" in a race for the vice presidency.

★ ★ ★

It was the first time Goldwater had dicussed a possible vice presidential choice.

Goldwater talked about Scranton Thursday at a news conference aboard a campaign bus.

HE'S ON LIST

"If it gets down to the point where I have to participate in the selection of a vice presidential candidate, he'd certainly be on that list," the Arizona senator said.

Goldwater told campaign workers in Santa Barbara, a victory over New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in Tuesday's presidential primary would cinch the Republican nomination.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater admitted later it would be "foolish" to deny that Rockefeller is gaining ground in California. But the senator said he is still in the lead and the governor can be stopped.

Goldwater added that a loss in California would not put the nomination out of his reach. He insisted again that Rockefeller does not have a chance of winning the nomination for himself. He said he would support the governor as the party's nominee but added: "I doubt I could do anything more for him than work in my own state unless it would be by nationwide radio or TV." Goldwater said if he lost the presidential nomination bid, he would be busy running for re-election to the Senate.

RAPS TREATY

In his campaign appearance in Santa Barbara and Glendora, Goldwater criticized the consular treaty agreed upon by the United States and the Soviet Union on grounds President Johnson kept it a secret from Congress and the people.

"The secrecy which surrounds the treaty has no place in American foreign policy negotiations," he told some 800 people at a Glendora dinner. "I'm going to see to it that this treaty is given full disclosure to the American people."

★ ★ ★

Goldwater added if he decides the agreement is not in the national interest he will fight in the Senate to see that it does not become a treaty of the United States.

Prime Minister Nehru

Death takes a leading actor from the stage of world affairs.

India's prime minister, the 74-year-old JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, succumbed Wednesday to a heart attack. A paralytic stroke last January had severely handicapped the Indian chief of state and seriously impaired the leadership of the country.

NEHRU, an aristocrat raised in the lap of luxury, was moved by ascetic MOHANDAS GANDHI's persuasion and compassion for his British-oppressed countrymen to join the crusade for independence.

That goal was reached in mid-1947, and on the assassination of Gandhi six months later, Nehru undertook the formidable task of fashioning a democracy out of a heterogeneous pattern of ex-colonial areas, princedoms and satrapies with a present population of about 470 million.

As the head of government, he steered a careful but perilous course in world politics, playing off East and West against each other in the cold war. In doing so, he was frequently denounced by one side or the other, though winning praise and cooperation from the non-aligned or neutral nations.

★ ★ ★

History's evaluation of NEHRU is yet to be made, but there can be no doubt regarding his personal integrity and dedication to the fortunes of his nation and its people. His passing will be deeply mourned the world over.

★ ★ ★

With Nehru's death, India and the community of nations have a vital interest in his successor. True to the tendency of most strongmen to resist establishment of a recognized second in command qualified to assume the top post in emergencies, the prime minister had taken no conclusive steps in that direction.

The ideological and political attitudes of the country's emergent leadership will thus have far-reaching effect and will be critically observed by all foreign powers. Of related concern will be the administration of the shaky domestic economy.

Floyd E. Cremer

War veterans in Oakland County had no better friend than FLOYD E. CREMER, who died Wednesday. He was the man they turned to when in trouble.

★ ★ ★

Both as County Veterans Affairs' director for the past five years and before, Cremer worked unstintingly for his former comrades-in-arms.

As a wounded Air Force gunner, he began helping his fellow patients while still hospitalized. It became his life work.

★ ★ ★

On the eve of Memorial Day, we salute Floyd Cremer — a true servant of his fellow men.

Waterford Twp. Wise in Planning for Future

Waterford residents who doubt the need of the proposed water system are ignoring the history of neighboring communities.

It's easy for residents who have their own wells to protest the expense of the new system, and say it isn't necessary. But you can't wait until thousands of wells are dry before starting to procure a satisfactory source of water.

Birmingham and Pontiac both were communities drawing their water supplies from wells. As the water table dropped further and further, they realized another source had to be provided before all the wells went out of service.

The increased use of water per person, and more persons using water, cannot be denied.

For some time, there was talk of a joint endeavor to build a pipeline to Lake Huron, but this never really got going. The alternate solution was to purchase water from Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The Waterford project is going to be costly, of course. It means more taxes. Why blame the township board members for this? They see the coming need, and must do something about it.

★ ★ ★

Persons who make their homes in undeveloped areas must consider the eventual cost of city-type improvements such as water, sewers, libraries, and adequate police and fire protection.

★ ★ ★

It is the duty of the township board to anticipate the growth problems, and try to solve them before they become critical.

Lack Successor of Nehru Stature

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Mohandas Gandhi picked Jawaharlal Nehru as his political heir. But Nehru, who died Wednesday as India's only prime minister in its 17 years of independence, groomed no one to succeed him.

MARLOW

He was an intellectual who never learned to delegate authority. The result could be gruesome. India has 450 million people in one of the poorest and most jammed countries on earth.

Nehru, a democrat who had enough blind worship among the Indian masses to be a dictator, had sought to guide his country along the democratic path.

Seventeen years of democracy—in a country where about 340 million people are illiterate—may have been too brief a time to create any real dedication to the democratic principle.

★ ★ ★

In India now, there is no one in sight with the stature of Gandhi or Nehru.

LED FIGHT

They not only led the fight for Indian independence before it was achieved in 1947—thus becoming symbols of it—but by the very nature of these two men their leadership was more than just political.

It was also spiritual, which is unique in the 20th Century. They were selfless, with their only interests India and its people.

While Gandhi's leadership and vision were tremendous, and he was a miracle for India, he himself was inefficient. Example: He concentrated decisions in his own hands, was his own foreign minister. The result was called an "administration jungle."

★ ★ ★

Gandhi put together his philosophy of civil disobedience and nonviolent resistance under the influence of many sources, including the Sermon on the Mount, Henry Thoreau, Leo Tolstoy, John Ruskin, Percy Bysshe Shelley, and India's early Jain sect which preached Ahimsa, the principle of noninjury to living things.

USED NONVIOLENCE

He used nonviolence against the British in India when the British had all the power and the Indians had none. Nehru went along with Gandhi on nonviolence as a tactic to be used when useful, to be abandoned when not.

The influences on Nehru were different from those affecting Gandhi—liberalism, Socialism, Marxism. But he was not a Communist. He was a Socialist who sought to bring his country abreast of the times through socialism.

After Gandhi's assassination Jan. 30, 1948, just a few months after Indian independence, Nehru became the dominant figure and remained so until his death.

Perhaps Nehru's greatest contribution to his country was in being an inspiration to its people, for through that he managed to keep the country and its people glued together as he gave them a sense of direction.

Give Reasons for Proposed Drag Strip

We need a drag strip in the Pontiac area so our children won't have to drive 50 to 100 miles to put their cars in competition. Driving this far is much more dangerous than having a drag strip close by. It will also bring money to our area through restaurants, gas stations, etc.

★ ★ ★

The Dragcar Racing Association is composed of both young and old who are interested in promoting driving safety. It teaches the younger generation to drive safely, to abide by the state laws and local ordinances, to get pleasure from driving ability, to get along well with others and to keep their cars in good mechanical condition.

★ ★ ★

A drag strip is a quarter-mile paved strip with automatic starters and timers and is used to test your car for performance and speed within a certain time and distance.

'Whites Keep Adding Requirements'

Two VOP articles have stated that as soon as the Negro "cleans up his back yard" he will be accepted by the white community. At first the whites wanted the Negro to get an education —he did. Next, they wanted him to become a property owner—he did. Now they ask him to "clean up his yard." What next? Dr. Ralph Bunche "cleaned up his yard," yet he meets discrimination. Willie Mays "cleaned up his yard" to the tune of an $85,000 house only to have bombs and threats cast his way. A well-known doctor of the Pontiac-Bloomfield area "cleaned up his yard" with a house and land worth $100,000. The Negro is tired of fulfilling requirements only to have another rung placed on the ladder. What qualifies the whites to be in a position to "give" human rights?

Something happened in church that has never happened to me before. A man told his son to save the pew next to him. No one was there when I took it but be bawled out his son loud enough for us to hear. It made us feel like strangers in our own church. Had he asked I would have gladly moved. I hope the Lord gives this man a more tender heart so he doesn't do this to a stranger.

David Lawrence Says:

JFK's Image Lingers in Capital

WASHINGTON — Today would have been the forty-seventh birthday of the late President John F. Kennedy.

LAWRENCE

Six months have passed since he was assassinated, but it is difficult even now to express exactly what his absence has meant here in the nation's capital.

While Mr. Kennedy's personality no longer permeates the government, he has left behind the image of a dedicated public servant which will be remembered for years to come.

★ ★ ★

Nobody knows what kind of record Mr. Kennedy might have made if he had been reelected this year. There were many observers here who felt that in a second term he would have benefitted from experience and maturity in office.

For his basic reaction to public affairs was characterized by a spirit of devotion—he was a politician at heart, but he wanted to be fair and deal with public questions objectively.

There have since been some personnel changes in the government, and many people feel that Lyndon Johnson is making a good president, too, although his methods and personality are different from his predecessor.

★ ★ ★

But what produces serious reflection today, just as it did six months ago, is the amazing change in history that an assassination can bring about within seconds of time.

EVERY REPORT

The presidential commission headed by Chief Justice Warren is still investigating every single report or rumor and every piece of evidence concerning the tragic event.

There have been intimations that the commission has not found anything not already reported and that a deranged mind was primarily responsible for what happened.

But even if more details are furnished and the circumstances that helped to bring about the act of insanity are set forth in scientific detail, it will take many years before the effects of the tragedy itself will be seen in full perspective.

★ ★ ★

Many memorials are being planned, and some critics say that perhaps too many of them are being suggested. The story has many aspects.

DEDICATED HIMSELF

An ambitious young man who had all the money he needed and could have turned to private business ventures to increase his fortune dedicated himself at once to public service, but lost that same opportunity to serve after a brief career in the White House.

Many people who do not have extensive financial means also endeavor to serve the government because they are imbued with a spirit of unselfishness.

But to a large extent, because John Kennedy had no financial worries for himself or family, he could devote himself wholeheartedly to public service. In wartime, he had risked his life so he knew what the dangers were in line of duty.

★ ★ ★

In fact, he had privately discussed with some of his staff the personal risks in the presidency. It is a subject of which presidents are constantly reminded.

PARADOX LEFT

The tragedy also left a paradox of its own.

For while precautions of the most minute nature can be taken to prevent a repetition of such events, the truth is that few people familiar with the complexities of crime in America believe that there is any way to make sure that someone with a rifle, posted on the top of a building, won't try at any moment to do what the assassin of President Kennedy did.

★ ★ ★

While the feeling here in Washington after six months is difficult to express, John F. Kennedy is missed. There was something about his personality which was different from that of any other president.

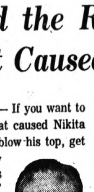
Bob Considine Says:

Read the Russian Book That Caused K to Fume

NEW YORK — If you want to read a book that caused Nikita Khrushchev to blow his top, get yourself a copy of "Both Sides of the Ocean," by Viktor Nekrasov (Holt, Rinehart, Winston Publishers).



CONSIDINE

Nekrasov won the Stalin Prize in 1947 and is (or was) one of the most highly praised and paid novelists in the Soviet Union until "Both Sides of the Ocean" appeared in serial form in Novy Mir, Russia's Saturday Review.

Nekrasov had the audacity to criticize the way he and other Soviet visitors to America in 1960 were treated by their Russian overseer-guide.

He had a few nice things to say about the U. S., too, including a kind of thank-you note for our helping Russia win the war.

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev publicly castigated him, demanded that he be kicked out of the Communist party.

'60 EXPERIENCES

In view of the current political race, and various ceremonies commemorating what would have been President Kennedy's 47th birthday, this portion of Nekrasov's 1960 experiences might interest you:

". . . That evening we watched television and listened to Kennedy and Nixon, two young, energetic millionaires.

"Which one of them would win? Either way, how would the world be changed?

"In New York we saw hundreds of posters and photographs of the two smiling candidates, enormous banners hung across Broadway, urging you to vote for one candidate or the other, and at every street corner there were young people with clear, ringing voices starting up discussions and passing out leaflets.

"On the corner of Broadway and 42nd Street, we even saw Henry Cabot Lodge, the Republican vice presidential candidate; he was driving along in a car that was covered with flags and he was shouting through a megaphone. (Ed. Note: Who said 'enry dogged it in '60?)

"This contest between two powerful capitalists made little difference to us Soviet people. Wasn't it all the same whoever won?"

June Primary

The Sacramento Bee

The most important decision facing Republican voters in the June primary is delegates to the convention supporting New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and United States Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The Bee recommends Gov. Rockefeller for two compelling reasons: Rockefeller would be infinitely superior as President and a Goldwater victory could cripple the GOP in California as an effective political party. Rockefeller is the more qualified for the immense challenge of the office of President. He has had extensive experience in foreign affairs and he is chief executive of the giant state of New York. His views on the important issues facing the world are generally moderate, well thought out and based on fact rather than emotion.

Goldwater, voicing the threat of renouncing the nuclear test ban treaty with Russia, pulling out of the UN, and breaking off relations with Russia, is unthinkable as President. If he conducted the office in the manner he proposes, he would be a constant threat to the peace and well-being of the United States and the world. His domestic policies would move us back to the days of McKinley with his talk of "voluntary" social security and ending the graduated income tax.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Kuchel, the most successful and popular Republican in the state, has endorsed Rockefeller. He exemplifies the great and successful tradition of the GOP in California which began with Gov. Hiram W. Johnson and flourished under the governorship of Chief Justice Earl Warren. The future strength of the GOP and the continuation of a viable two-party system in California argue overwhelmingly for the selection of the Nelson Rockefeller delegates in the GOP presidential primary.

Struggle for Nehru's Post Threatens India With Political Crisis

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A struggle for the government leadership left vacant by the death of Prime Minister Nehru threatened today to plunge India into political crisis.

Rivalry among candidates for prime minister threatened to break into an open battle which could do serious harm to the nation and Nehru's ruling Congress party.

The capital's newspapers devoted front pages to the cremation rites for the 74-year-old Nehru Thursday. But editorial pages were given over to somber reflections on the future.

There were demands that the Congress party settle its quarrels quietly and make a unanimous choice, to avoid feeding the fires of factionalism and separatism that kept Nehru from tearing India apart.

RISE TO OCCASION

"In this hour of great sorrow," said the Indian Express, "the Congress party must rise to the occasion."

The Statesman said Nehru's "reluctance to nominate or groom any one of the leaders as his clear and undisputed successor would not have been so disquieting had he left behind a well-disciplined cadre dedicated to the ideals of Nehruism or even a well-disciplined party machine."

After Nehru's death, President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan designated Home Minister G. L. Nanda acting prime minister, to serve until the Congress party, as the majority party in Parliament, elects Nehru's successor.

A Congress spokesman said party leaders had not decided when to hold the election.

The leading candidates are minister without portfolio Lal Bahadur Shastri, Acting Prime Minister Nanda and Finance Minister T. T. Krishnamachari.

Shastri was one of Nehru's best friends and has widespread support in the party. A well-informed source said he had assurances of support from President Radhakrishnan and Kumaraswami Kamaraj, president of the party.

Nanda draws his backing from the party's Socialist wing. Krishnamachari gets his support from conservative businessmen and from his native South India.

The two dark horse candidates are Indira Gandhi, Nehru's daughter, and Morarji Desai, a conservative former finance minister who has threatened an all-out fight.

Living Costs Bring Raises

DETROIT (AP) — Nearly a million hourly - paid workers in auto factories and supplier plants will get a penny-an-hour wage increase in June on the basis of increased cost of living figures announced Thursday by the Labor Department.

The increase will bring to 14 cents the total cost-of-living allowances under present contracts between the United Auto Workers Union and the auto industry. The contracts gear wages to the rise and fall in living costs.

An estimated 250,000 salaried workers at the auto companies will receive upwards adjustments of $5 or more in their quarterly allowances for living costs.

The Detroit consumer price index, on which the auto contracts are figured, rose 0.2 per cent in April to 108. That meant it took $10.80 to purchase items that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period, base years for the automotive index.

10th Victim Dies From Fire Dance

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The 10th victim of the Samoan fire-dance disaster in the parish hall of All Hallows Catholic Church last Saturday night died in a San Francisco hospital Thursday.

Fee Tafea, 26, a private policeman in San Francisco, had suffered burns over 90 per cent of his body.

Five died at the scene and over 100 were injured. Some still remain in critical condition.

Great Lakes Level Up Average of 4 Inches

DETROIT (AP)—The level of the Great Lakes has climbed an average of four inches during May, but Lakes Michigan and Huron still are two inches below the previous all-time low for this date, the U. S. Lake Survey reported today.

The survey predicted the lakes would rise another two inches on the average during June, although Lake Erie would drop one inch.

Husband Pays Way for Guest

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: A friend of mine is coming to stay a week with my husband and me this summer expressly to go to the Fair.

★ ★ ★

My husband plans to take his vacation while she is here so that we can all go together.

I would like to know if he will be expected to pay her admission every time we go and also for any entertainment we take in while we are there?

★ ★ ★

A: If you invited your friend to stay with you and go to the Fair with you and your husband, he should pay her admission and be prepared to pay for all entertainment, which she probably won't allow him to do.

★ ★ ★

But if she told you she was coming to the Fair and you invited her to stay in your house while she was in New York, or if she asked if she could stay with you, she should pay her own admissions and any expenses at the Fair, although your husband might treat her now and then to dinner or to some entertainment.

Q: Will you please tell me the proper amount to tip a taxi driver?

★ ★ ★

A: For a short ride of under a dollar, he is never given less than 15 to 20 cents.

For a longer ride, 15 per cent of the meter's reading is about right.

Some people tip more than this if the driver has been pleasant and helpful or if the weather is bad and taxis are hard to find.

First Showing Set for OU Collection

Oakland University presents the first formal public showing of its permanent art collection June 2 through June 25 in the University Art Gallery.

The exhibition features works collected since development of the University's Art Department in 1960, as well as works on temporary and extended loan.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Damie Stillman, assistant professor of Art History, reports there are between 40 to 50 pieces on exhibit including paintings, graphics and sculptor.

Among the paintings is "The Pond" by Wolf Kahn and "Black Rock" by Jimmy Ernst. Two prints of medieval manuscripts are among the many other prints including works of Renoir and Schmidt-Rottluff.

There are several pieces of African primitive art and primitive sculptures in the collection.

Hand Lines Revealing Woman Vexed by 'Hex'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In June of 1962 I was visiting a friend who is an older woman and a member of my church.

ABBY

While sitting on her front porch she looked down at my hands and a very frightened look came across her face.

She then proceeded to tell me that the lines on my hands revealed that I should watch out for chest and respiratory infections.

Then she said I should not sing in the church choir because of this possible chest trouble.

★ ★ ★

But what bothers me most is that she told me I could expect some very bad luck in the summer of 1965.

★ ★ ★

I just can't shake this thought, and am walking around like a condemned woman.

Should I believe her? Would you call it witchcraft?

CONDEMNED

★ ★ ★

DEAR CONDEMNED: I would call it "NONSENSE" and would put it out of my mind immediately.

If you want further reassurance, visit your doctor for a thorough checkup.

★ ★ ★

And ask him to give special attention to your chest and respiratory system, but don't tell him why or he might send you to a psychiatrist.

DEAR ABBY: Last Christmas my husband and I received gifts from his brother and sister-in-law, who are over in Germany.

I fooled around and never did get around to writing to thank them. Is there anything I can do now?

EMBARRASSED

★ ★ ★

DEAR EMBARRASSED: Yes. You can write and apologize for your tardiness, and thank them. Better late than never.

DEAR ABBY: Tell the woman whose neighbor shocked her by wearing flesh-colored elastic swim trunks in his yard to sun-bathe and do his gardening that I have a neighbor who tops hers.

★ ★ ★

He wears swim shorts and a wool jacket to go out and shovel the snow!

He drinks grass that has been put through a blender, and he parks his Volkswagen up on his lawn like a kid would his bicycle.

And this is the pay-off. He calls everybody else "crazy."

MRS. B

DEAR ABBY: You can sure tell a lot about people by the way their children answer the telephone. We have taught ours to ask, "WHOM IS CALLING, PLEASE?"

MRS. G. J. L.

Troubled? Write to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press.

Polly's Pointers

Put Novels Together

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Polly's Pointers are read carefully in our home and we frequently glean excellent ideas from your column.

Splendid full-length novels appear in most of our monthly magazines.

Before discarding old magazines, I remove the novels and sew the pages of each book together. They could be stapled.

Thus the stories are kept intact and are easy to handle when being read in bed. I also lend these novels to friends and shut-ins. — LOLA

DEAR POLLY — After the birth of our last child, I hit upon the idea of getting more mileage out of my maternity smocks.

Some of the readers might like to try it, too. Buy enough material in either matching or contrasting colors to go with the simple cotton smocks.

Make bloomer-type panties for each and you have several pairs of baby doll pajamas that are cool, comfortable and quite attractive, too. — MRS. J.A.L.

DEAR POLLY — When trying to fill a small-mouthed bottle (or even a large one) and a funnel is not handy, use either a toothpick or a kitchen match.

Just insert the end into the bottle, pour the liquid down over the toothpick or match and you will not spill a drop. — MRS.B. J.R.

Share your favorite homemaking ideas . . . send them to Polly in care of The Pontiac Press. You'll receive a bright, new silver dollar if Polly uses your idea in Polly's Pointers.

Have You Tried This?

Tossed Salad Has Zing

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

If you're planning a get-together for Memorial Day, perhaps you would like a good tossed salad recipe.

Mrs. L. L. Schiefler has one to suggest, as well as a hot bread to accompany it.

Mrs. Schiefler is active in a sorority group, in PTA and in civic activities.

REGAL TOSSED SALAD
By Mrs. L. L. Schiefler

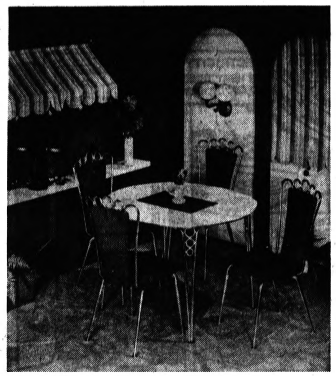
Mix 1 clove garlic, mashed, with 4 or 5 green onions. Moisten with 2 tablespoons salad oil. Pour over a can (3½ oz.) French fried onion rings. Add to 2 quarts mixed salad greens.

After mixing the above, add the following:
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ cup salad oil
1 raw egg (just toss it in)
¼ cup fresh lemon juice
3 ounces Roquefort cheese

Mix well and serve.

Hot Bread

Butter French bread with soft butter, celery salt and onion powder, mixed. Place in foil lined pan, putting grated cheese between slices. Sprinkle with caraway seed. Bake at 450 degrees for 15 minutes.



Ringed detail lightly embellishes the brass finish base of this 42x42-inch angled round table that extends to 59 inches. Matching chairs, upholstered in vibrant red suede-like vinyl, are a bright foil for white plastic table top. Easily contrived decorator touches: Fruit spangled awning and shade in pink to red stripes; "potting shelf" with its candy scale and vase of flowers; baskets of fern. Furniture by Daystrom Furniture, South Boston, Va., retails for about $159.

New Knicker Knocks Knee

Knickers are those knee-length breeches that daddy nostaligically recalls from his childhood.

★ ★ ★

They may very well be recalled again in about 20 years by the current crop of small fry, for knickers are regaining fashion ground.

Once novelties in high style, and high priced childrenswear lines, they are now popularly priced.

★ ★ ★

Today's knickers don't bag at the knees like Dad's did. They are trim with elasticized leg bands, (no nasty buckles) and keep the knee socks up.

America, with only 6 per cent of the world's population, produces and consumes approximately 40 per cent of the world's goods, according to John Davis Lodge, president of Junior Achievement, Inc.

State OKs $14.8 Million

School Aid Hike Is Approved

LANSING (AP) — An increase of $14.8 million in state school aid—including $2.50 per pupil, across - the - board for every district — was approved Thursday by the legislature.

Carried right down to the wire after being stymied in a conference committee for several weeks, the bill passed on a House-Senate compromise on the across-the-board figure.

As approved, the bill carries Gov. George W. Romney's proposal for an increase of $10 per pupil, from $224 to $234, with an increase in the deductible millage factor from 3⅞ to 4¼ mills.

The millage factor is used in figuring how much support a district must provide for its schools from local taxes.

The $10 per pupil increases still cost the state an estimated $10 million.

The revision was intended to ease the burden imposed on local taxes in districts of low assessed valuation.

The dispute had developed a senate amendment adding $3 per pupil for all districts, regardless of their valuation, to the bill.

Not subject to the millage factor, the $3 increase would have cost the state an estimated $5.7 million.

HOUSE BALKS

House members balked at this across-the-board increase, contending it did nothing except commit the state to spending more money for school aid, without relieving pressure on local property taxes.

Some wanted the $3 removed, others urged that it be made

Some wanted the $3 removed, others urged that it be made subject to the millage factor to benefit the low valuation districts.

In the windup Thursday, however, House and Senate agreed to a compromise of the across-the-board figure at $2.50, reducing its cost by about $900,000 to a revised total $4.8 million.

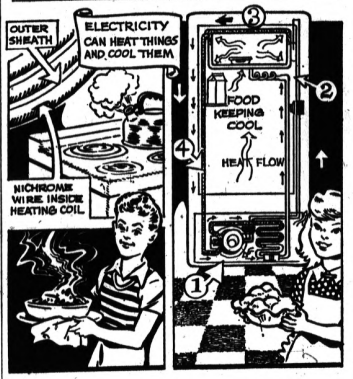
The House approved the bill 89-3 and the Senate 22-8.

Hut's Window Exit Not Always Safest

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP)—Pungulani Mgwele often leaves his mud-hut home in Northern Rhodesia's eastern provinces via the window.

He used the same exit while staying at the government rest house here, but the window was on the second floor. Mgwele is in the hospital with a fractured arm and hip.

Junior Editors Quiz on ELECTRICITY



QUESTION: How can electricity both heat things on a stove and cool them in a refrigerator?

ANSWER: Electricity works in different ways to perform these two operations. In the electric stove, the electric current passes through coils of specially constructed wire, made of nickel and chromium and often called "nichrome."

These coils resist the passage of the current although they let a certain amount through. This resistance makes the wire very hot.

The wire is insulated with magnesium oxide and enclosed in a metal sheath, which, while it turns red hot, prevents spilled fluids from getting inside.

An electric refrigerator works because an electric motor at the bottom (1) compresses a liquid "refrigerant," usually called Freon, and pumps it around the edge of the box through tubes (2).

Pressure is reduced as the liquid enters the freezing unit at the top (3) and it turns into vapor which absorbs the heat, causing the refrigerator to grow cold.

The vapor is carried down (4) to the condenser at the bottom where it discharges the heat, is turned back to liquid, ready to repeat the cycle when needed.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Wet your hands and wave them rapidly about. Notice they will feel cool for quite a while. This is because liquids, when they vaporize into the air, carry off heat, just as the refrigerator cools off as the refrigerant vaporizes.

LBJ Journeys to Old School in Texas

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson made a memory-filled journey today to Texas—and his high school of 40 years ago — after exhorting New York Democrats to work for a "great victory" in November.

Johnson flew here from New York in the early morning hours.

★ ★ ★

He had only two appearances on his schedule for a ranch weekend—one tonight to address the graduating class of Johnson City's Lyndon B. Johnson High School, where he was graduated in 1924, and the other to speak to University of Texas graduates in Austin Saturday night.

NOVEMBER APPEAL

The President made his November victory appeal during a circuit of Democratic fund-raising functions in New York Thursday night. The finale brought 17,000 persons to Madison Square Garden for a two-hour program of entertainment and a Johnson speech.

Appearing at a $100-a-plate dinner of Young Democrats, Johnson said: "Start working tonight for a great victory for the Democratic party next November. And now give us your hand and your heart and your help."

Using phrases reminiscent of both Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy, Johnson spoke of crusades and new frontiers.

The chief executive said that Democrats regard "politics and government as a crusade—not a chore." And he added, "I've come up here tonight to ask you to join that crusade."

It was Republican Eisenhower who talked repeatedly of a "Great Crusade" when he first won the presidency in 1952.

Johnson plucked a Kennedy-esque chord after saying that Democrats must look beyond pending civil rights and anti-poverty legislation and, in the future, "offer new programs to solve new problems."

"This is why," he said, "the Democratic party is the place to be—the excitement is here—the satisfaction is here — the frontiers are here."

KENNEDY

It was Kennedy who talked of "New Frontiers" in the 1960 presidential race.

Johnson's first appearance in New York was at a dinner of the President's Club—an organization of $1,000 contributors.

The President circulated from table to table, shaking hands, but did not eat.

★ ★ ★

At Madison Square Garden, Johnson asked "for the support of all citizens to complete the work so nobly begun by our martyred president—John F. Kennedy."

"I ask you to march with me along the road to the future—the road that leads to the great society," he said. "This is the work of the Democratic party."

Johnson said his administration exemplifies the spirit of five New York political figures of the past—Al Smith, Robert F. Wagner Sr., Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Herbert H. Lehman and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Judy Is Off Critical List, but Ailment Still a Mystery

HONG KONG (AP)—Judy Garland was taken off the critical list at a Hong Kong hospital today, but the nature of the illness that put her in a coma for more than 12 hours remained a mystery.

"She looks very much better now," said American actor Mark Herron, her traveling companion. He added, however, that she was not yet able to talk or eat.

The 41-year-old singer collapsed yesterday afternoon at her hotel, and Herron rushed her to the hospital in a taxi while Typhoon Viola was hitting the island city with 90-mile-an-hour winds. She was given oxygen and other emergency treatment.

Herron said Miss Garland was suffering from "overexhaustion." Earlier one nurse said she had a heart attack while another in the same ward described the illness as "poisoning."

★ ★ ★

The attending doctor refused to say anything about the nature of the illness.

DENIED OVERDOSE

Herron denied rumors that Miss Garland had taken an overdose of sleeping pills accidentally.

"She takes only a normal amount of sleeping pills as many performers do," he said.

The actor said the singer's bad reception in Australia could have "some bearing on her illness."

★ ★ ★

"No one can take a beating like this without being hurt," he said.

He reported she was "terrified by the typhoon" but added he could not tell whether this contributed to her illness.

NOT WELL

Herron said Miss Garland had not been feeling well since she arrived Saturday from Australia and had left the hotel only once, on Wednesday, to consult a doctor.

He declined to say why she saw the doctor, adding, "It is too personal for me to say anything."

Miss Garland's sister, Sue Gumm Cathcart, 48, died in Las Vegas, Nev. Tuesday night, but Herron said Judy had not been told.

★ ★ ★

"We will tell her when the doctor advises us to," he said.

National Guard Patrols

Strike Mars Normally Quiet Hillsdale

HILLSDALE (AP)— Hillsdale, where National Guardsmen patrol today to keep the peace, normally is a quiet, tree-studded city. It counts almost 1,000 students at Baptist-affiliated Hillsdale College among its 7,629 residents.

Breaks in community tranquility began Feb. 28 — three months ago—when 180 members of the International Union of Electrical Workers walked out on strike at the Essex Wire Corp. plant.

Now nearly everyone has chosen sides.

"Some of us try to stay out of it, but then we catch it from both sides," a barber complained.

DISRUPTS TOWN

"This strike situation," says Sheriff Ralph Gilbert, "has disrupted the whole town."

The latest in a series of violent disruptions came Wednesday night. A mob of 250 to 300, breaking windows with rocks and throwing eggs, threatened to storm the Hillsdale County Jail and liberate five arrested on the picket line.

★ ★ ★

This caused Gov. George W. Romney to declare "a state of public emergency" and call out the guardsmen. Mayor C. Aubrey Paul told Romney the situation had grown beyond the ability of local officers and state police to handle it.

★ ★ ★

Only a month ago the situation appeared returning to normalcy, after 60 days of strike-born violence.

REPORTS TRUCE

Company and IUE negotiators reported a truce was imminent, that union leaders had agreed to send their members back while contract bargaining proceeded.

This truce collapsed on April 27. The union refused to return to work, charging that the company was imposing conditions on the return of workers.

★ ★ ★

The union said it had agreed to an "unconditional" return, but that management, among other things, wanted to recall a few at a time without regard to seniority and refused to recall any it considered guilty of strike "misconduct."

★ ★ ★

There has been management-union bitterness from the start. The union, among other things, is demanding wage rates equal to those Essex pays in its Fort Wayne, Ind., plant. They are 40 to 60 cents an hour higher than the $2.43 hourly paid here.

HIGHER WAGES

Essex conceded wages were higher in Fort Wayne and explained: "That is one reason why this plant is in existence. We wanted lower operating costs. . .Hillsdale needs us and several more like us. It isn't growing."

Strikers get a $15-a-week food allowance, plus financial aid for some other thing on a basis of need. The company has been operating its 180-man plant with a force of approximately 40, including supervisory employes and imported armed guards. The union claims the latter are illegal strike-breakers. The company says it isn't so.

★

Violence has dogged the strike almost from the start.

An explosion splintered the roof of the Essex plant. Strikers overturned cars driven by non-union replacements. Cars struck down two union pickets. Another picket charged he was knocked unconscious by a pellet fired from a gun.

A volley of stones smashed plant windows. The company then produced its armed guards, and the union divided its strikers into three shifts, keeping one on call near the plant at all times.

TENSION GROWS

Tension shot up quickly at the beginning of May.

Police reported one of the company's foremen was missing. They found the charred remains of his car and launched an investigation, but have yet to prove or disprove the disappearance is strike-connected.

★ ★ ★

Fifteen masked men seized the municipally owned power plant and threatened to shut off power to the Essex plant, but finally left without disrupting service when told the entire city virtually would be affected if Essex power was cut off.

Two guards escorting imported workers home were forced off the road at nearby Jonesville Tuesday night. One was shot in the leg and another slugged with a baseball bat. That same night a picket reported his face had been slashed.

SOME PROGRESS

Once a federal mediator explained Essex and UAW negotiators were making some progress toward a settlement because:

"Labor and management said hello his morning."

Hillsdale wishes they were back to being even that cordial again.

First Use of Troops Since '37 GM Strife

HILLSDALE (AP) — For the first time since a General Motors strike in Flint in 1937, Michigan National Guard troops have intervened in a labor strife-caused public emergency.

The recollection is that of Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert and Col. Joe Max Smith.

They were executing orders here today under proclamation by Gov. George W. Romney. It follows a fierce outbreak in a 91-day strike by International Union of Electrical Workers Local 810 against the Essex Wire Corp.

The clampdown supports the work of about 40 state police officers with the entire operation directed by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

ASSIST POLICE

"Our mission here is to assist and cooperate with local police," explained Gen. Neifert. "We're taking our orders from the state police," he added.

★ ★ ★

Unauthorized persons were detoured without incident from the plant area Thursday by the guardmen. Union pickets removed signs and shanties as they, too, were ordered off the premises.

Plant guards were disarmed and escorted away.

'NO PROBLEMS'

"No problems," Smith reported to Mayor C. Audrey Paul.

The troops were told by Smith to be prepared for pup tent living through Memorial Day.

They dined on C-rations Thursday night, but the field kitchen was set up in time for breakfast.

The city's mood was one of relief over a break in recent tension. But there were some misgivings over what might have been done to Hillsdale's reputation.

FIRST VISIT

The out-of-town newsman calling his home office was asked by the telephone operator whether this was his first visit to the city. On a "yes" answer, she fretted: "I hope you don't give us a black eye because of this."

Mayor Paul is confident that it will be overcome.

He has been assured by Smith that a scheduled Saturday parade of children in a pageant of flags can go on as planned through the business district.

Some youngsters were at curbside as the National Guard trucks arrived Thursday. They waved greetings to stern-faced troops but got no response.

BLAME SPECTATORS

The recent flareups here were blamed by some officials on spectators.

City Police Chief Harold G. Caulkins, boss of a six-member force, said, "The biggest rabble rousers were people that had no interest either way in the dispute."

City Manager Orville E. Meyer believed the violence was directed "at a particular group of individuals."

Firepower Hiked on U.S. Jets

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Twenty-millimeter cannon that can spew 6,000 rounds a minute are being installed in jets defending the southern U.S. coastline to give them more firepower against Cuba - based Russian Migs.

★ ★ ★

The Vulcan cannon, fastest firing cannon in the world, are considered well-suited to air battles with enemy fighters, Brig. Gen. Arthur G. Salisbury of the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) explained yesterday at the meeting here of the aviation-space writers association.

He said the six-barreled Vulcan guns are being installed on about 50 1,400 - mile - an-hour S104 jets stationed at Homestead Air Force Base just south of Miami and Webb Air Base at Big Spring, Tex.

The F104s were assigned to the southern defenses during the 1962 Cuban crisis. Some of the jets already outfitted with the additional armament have been put on five-minute runway alert, it was learned.

★ ★ ★

But sources said the decision to add the gatling-type cannon to the regular F104 armament of Sidewinder air-to-air missiles was not related to the recent rise in Cuban exile activity or to concern over the possibility that Russia will turn over to Cuba the operation of Soviet antiaircraft missiles on the island.

Constitution, Law OK Emergency Call

LANSING (AP) — Powers given him both by the State Constitution and state law were used by Gov. George W. Romney in emergency in strike - torn Hillsdale.

Under the terms of "public emergency," civil law remains in effect. The next step, under state law, would be martial law, under which military authorities would be in charge.

★ ★ ★

Control by civil or military authority is the principle difference between the two, according to Solicitor General Robert Derengoski.

The State Constitution says the governor "shall be Commander in Chief of the armed forces and may call them out to execute the laws, suppress insurrection and repel invasion."

BROAD APPLICATION

With broad application to the Hillsdale situation, this is the section under which Romney exercised constitutional power to order 230 National Guardmen to assist state police in policing the city.

State law gives the governor power to proclaim a state of emergency "during times of great public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe or similar public emergency within the state."

★ ★ ★

He can act on his own volition or, as in this case, at the request of local officials.

The law further states,". . . the governor may promulgate such reasonable orders, rules and regulations as he deems necessary to protect life and property or to bring the emergency situation within the affected area under control.

"Without limiting the scope of the same, said orders, rules and regulations may provide for control of traffic, including private and public transportation within the area or any section thereof, designation of specific zones within the area in which occupancy and use of buildings and ingress and egress of persons and vehicles may be prohibited and regulated. . .."

It is this section of the law, Romney's aides said, by which he ordered the Essex Wire Co. plant to close down its operations except for a skelton maintenance crew.

MRS. HACKWORTHE

Woman Held in LBJ Threat

Ex-Mental Patient Arrested in Texas

HOUSTON (AP) —A plump, thrice-married, gray-haired woman and former mental patient was in custody today, charged with threatening the life of President Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Johnnie Mae Hackworthe, 59, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, was arrested yesterday by Secret Service agents. She was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Ralph Fowler who ordered her held under $25,000 bond.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Jerald Mize said the White House had received a letter from Mrs. Hackworthe threatening Johnson's life about two weeks ago.

He said agents arrested her at the Houston address on the alleged threatening letter. Although she calls Brenham her home, she has lived recently in Houston.

★ ★ ★

Mize said the woman was arrested by federal authorities twice before — in 1955 and 1960 — and charged with writing threatening letters to President Eisenhower.

3,161 VOTES

Mrs. Hackworthe, a frequent candidate for public office, got 3,161 votes out of about 1.5 million in the May 2 Democratic primary race won by Gov. John Connally.

Mize said Mrs. Hackworthe had been committed to a mental hospital in Austin after the 1955 threat against Eisenhower. The federal charge was dropped.

Later she was found sane by a Harris County jury and freed.

Mize said he would recommend a mental examination.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hackworthe calls herself a prophetess and operates what she calls the American Bible College near Brenham. But Lane Bertran, agent-in-charge of the Secret Service here, said "The college exists only in her mind."

Graceful, Flaring Blooms Characterize New Petunia

NEW PETUNIA — An outstanding new petunia is Capri. If you can't visit Capri this summer, the next best thing is a planting of this new blue petunia—as blue as the waters off this famed vacation spot. It is a large flowered F1 hybrid variety, and the nearest to a true blue in petunias.

Remember the blue petunias of not so long ago? They were called "blue" but when one read the descriptions, this was modified to purple-blue, blue-purple or violet; and the actual flowers were even less blue than the descriptions.

★ ★ ★

In the new, single, F1 Grandiflora Hybrid Capri, color-conscious gardeners will find not only the bluest of all blue petunias, but one of remarkable substance.

The segments of the large but gracefully flaring blooms slightly overlap, thus reinforcing each other and producing flowers of unusual stamina which remain fresh long, either on the plant or when cut. The heart of each blossom is touched with gold at its center—like sunshine breaking through clouds—to give added charm.

It is however not for its color alone that Capri, this bluest of petunias, is outstanding. As a result of its compact, short jointed growth, the rather slim but strong stems bear easily their burden of buds and blossoms, fitting themselves proudly into any planting scheme.

★ ★ ★

Untrained plants attain a spread of some thirty inches or more, but with a little judicious pruning may be kept to half that width. Its natural growth is more compact than that of Blue Magic, formerly the most popular near-blue variety, and it blooms earlier and more continuously than that variety.

GOOD FOR CUTTING

In fact the newer, more compact-growing single petunias—of which Capri is an excellent example—are much more satisfactory for cutting and for arrangements than are the older sorts.

The slim but wirey stems "stay put" in a design, and the individual flowers remain longer in good condition. Another great advantage is that the stems themselves assume graceful curves—a pleasing contrast to such straight, stiff-stemmed blue flowers as larkspur, delphinium, campanula or centaurea.

If you like to arrange flowers, Capri is for you. It's not a bad idea to put in a few extra plants somewhere especially for cutting.

★ ★ ★

While petunias have long been popular because of their easy culture, they were considered by more advanced gardeners as a sort of beginner's flower, which anyone could grow, to produce bloom in quantity rather than of high quality.

Recent introductions of the greatly improved varieties in both the Hybrid Single Grandifloras and the Multiflora Doubles are rapidly changing this image of the petunia. These new creations are giving the petunia a higher status, well deserved in the world of annuals.

Wide-awake gardeners are beginning to realize this and no longer hesitate to give them favored positions in their plantings.

A variety such as Capri, outstanding in color as well as in flower form, plant habit, and in continuity of bloom, cannot fail to enhance the attractiveness of any flower border, window box or planter.

Pumpkins Need Time

Imagine growing pumpkins that average 100 pounds in weight! Just think of all the pies you can make from even one of these big fruits!

To say nothing of the gorgeous autumn decorations for Halloween and Thanksgiving that you can arrange around even one of these mammoths!

Big Max, as a new variety is named, grows up to six feet in circumference; has bright yellow-orange flesh which is three to four inches thick.

★ ★ ★

Its outer appearance is from a round to a flattened-round shape. The skin is pinkish-orange and slightly roughened.

120 DAYS

It requires 120 days from the planting of the seeds to the time these big pumpkins are mature.

For very largest fruits, space the hills to allow plenty of room for the vines to spread.

Give the plants a thorough soaking with the hose when rains do not fall.

Let Daffodils Finish Cycle

Don't cut back the green leaves of tulips and daffodils when they finish blooming.

Allow them to ripen and manufacture food for the bulb and next year's blooming season.

When they yellow and appear dried, they are ripe and have completed their cycle.

Apple Scab Troublesome

Apple scab can pay a call on any growing area in Michigan. If not controlled, it will create havoc in an orchard.

The first sign of scab appears on the flower bud leaves. Olive green blotch-like spots appear on the underside of the leaves.

Regular leaf scab lesions are on upper surface of leaves. When the lesion is immature, it is an olive green. As it ages, it takes on a velvety look.

When scab affects the fruit's flowerbud, the gray and indistinct lesions are difficult to see.

★ ★ ★

But as the disease progresses, the knobby scabs become a velvety olive green changing to a dark, often cracked scab.

CONTROL FUNGUS

To control this fungus, scrupulous sanitation, ground spraying during the dormant season and a regular fruit spraying program prove helpful.

Timing is vitally important if you're to keep ahead of the infecting fungus spores.

Protectant sprays are applied before rains and before the fruit is attacked. A chemical barrier than discourages the germinating spore.

★ ★ ★

An eradicant spray, such as lime sulphur, destroys the fungus within a period of time after infection.

The lime sulphur is effective for 72 hours after infection takes place.

Also make certain that the apple trees are given adequate spray coverage. Missed leaves and fruit are ideal harbors for disease.

New Roses Available This Spring

There will be a wide selection of new roses at your favorite garden shop this spring. The catalogs also indicate a wide range of colors. Here are some of them:

★ ★ ★

WORLD'S FAIR SALUTE, a velvety, aromatic red hybrid tea, the 1964 Rose of the Year of Jackson & Perkins, honoring the fair which opened April 22 in New York. World's Fair Salute is a tall, bushy plant with long, pointed buds that open to 5-5½-inch flowers.

GOLDEN LUSTRE, yellow-apricot hybrid tea, aromatic; CORALITA, an orange-coral climber with 4-inch blooms; grant lavender hybrid tea, all by J & P.

LAVENDER DAWN, lilac-scented lavender - pink floribunda, with 2-3 inch flowers, 2-3 feet tall; Ole (O-lay), a vermilion-red hybrid with 3-4 inch flowers, offspring of El Capitan and Roundelay; Joseph's Coat, presented as a 3-dimensional rose which may be grown as a bush, climber, pillar, rambler or fence cover, with clusters of blooms ranging in color from cardinal red to orange, lemon, crimson and apricot. All are from Armstrong.

Sprouting Times for Seeds Varies

Do you know that even under the best growing conditions different flowers and vegetables sprout in different lengths of time?

Five to seven days is sufficient for seeds of radishes, beans, cucumbers and sweet corn while carrots, beets and parsnips take 10 to 15 days.

★ ★ ★

Parsley seed usually takes 3 weeks to sprout and seeds of columbine, larkspur and forget-me-not take as long as parsley or a few days longer to break through the ground.

PLANTED BORDER — Privacy and peacefulness come from a well-planted backyard that screens and beautifies garages and other structures.

Get the Jump on Trouble

Spray Roses Routinely

A good clean-up job around flower beds, rose beds and shrubs in fall is the best insect and disease protection. Early spring clean-up and burning of diseased leaves, especially from rose beds, will also save summer problems.

Michigan State University horticulture specialists suggest that you spray early and well. Read labels and abide by directions.

There are some good all-purpose sprays on the market that control both diseases and insects in yards and gardens. Sometimes you need to treat for specific problems, too.

Here are some MSU rose gardening tips:

- For scale on evergreens use Sevin or Malathion.
- For red spider mite use any good miticide or Kethane, Tedion or Oratron.
- Aphids on any plants can be controlled by Malathion.
- Anthracnose on sycamore and pine can be stopped by organic mercury at the time of bud swelling and another spraying 10 days later.
- Dusting is easier than spraying and can be effective if air is still and the foliage is covered with dew or moisture at time of application.

If you have more than an average sized yard you may wish to mix your own all-purpose spray.

ALL-PURPOSE SPRAY

To make one gallon use:

1 gallon water
2 teaspoons 57% malathion emulsion
2 tablespoons 50% DDT
2 tablespoons 50% Captan

It is wise to mix ingredients thoroughly in a pail before pouring into the sprayer.

Don't spray too sparingly, but enough is enough. After spray is running off plant, the job is done.

Spray most ornamentals about once each month, May through August. But roses need to be sprayed every week or ten days. Think of it as a preventive measure.

Save Hidden Spot for Compost Pile

Serious gardeners save a hidden spot for a compost pile.

Well rotted compost worked into the soil is an excellent spring tonic for garden plants and shrubs.

Tent Caterpillars Invade Gardens

Tent caterpillars are busy at work in fruit trees and shrubbery.

When you see the tell-tale white weblike masses, if the worms are tiny start spraying immediately.

★ ★ ★

It is not necessary to prune out the area affected. A good drenching with DDT will usually suffice. Check in a few days and if there are still some wriggling survivors, repeat the spray treatment.

When the worms are very small, you can also wipe them out of the crotches of branches with a stick sw¼ab dipped in kerosene.

If the worms are well grown before you notice the invasion, wait until early morning or after sunset to spray. They will then have returned to the web nest for warmth.

When you are baking a spice cake, you should — as a rule — sift the spices with the dry ingredients to make sure they are evenly distributed.

2 Hybrids Introduced at MSU

Lush double snapdragons and an orange-blooming house or garden plant of the Easter Lily type were introduced at Michigan State University's Florists Day in College April 7.

The colorful and rich-looking new snapdragons, called Pennline, were released by the Pennsylvania Agricultural Research Station in November, 1963, according to Dr. Kenneth Sink, a former Pennsylvanian who is now conducting cooperative research at MSU.

Pennline actually consists of five true breeding lines of outside double and outside-inside double flowering snapdragons, Dr. Sink explained.

The outside doubles have extra petals on the outside of each floret. These may be strap-like or they may encircle the normal floret.

The outside-inside type have outside doubleness, but also have other petals which fall inside the true floret.

GENETIC STUDIES

Dr. Sink is involved in genetic studies on the special characteristics of Pennline, being conducted as a joint project of plant breeders at Pennsylvania State University and MSU.

The gorgeous lilies—five varieties, yellow through orange—are actually a garden hybrids produced by Jan De-Graaff in Oregon, according to MSU researcher Dr. Richard Stinson.

The MSU research on 1,000 bulbs furnished by de Graaff has actually been slanted at developing short-stemmed blooms for potted plants and long stems for cut flowers, Dr. Stinson said.

MSU research has also shown that the bulbs require six weeks cold storage if they are to blossom evenly, and that they should be planted three to the pot to be attractive, he added.

Friable Soil Best for Plant Growth

To grow good plants of any kind, the soil must be loose and friable, well-drained yet retentive of moisture.

★ ★ ★

To bring this about it helps to incorporate into it when spading it over each spring, a 2-inch layer of compost, peatmoss, leaf-mold or other humus.

This is best done with a spading fork, for it breaks up the lumps easily and allows the humus to mix with the soil.

★ ★ ★

Such materials also tend to lighten heavy compact soils, especially if used in connection with an inch or two of sand, or gravel, and increase the water-holding powers of light, sandy ones.

ROCHESTER

By FRED ENNIS

Each year, in the interest of better class relations and "just plain fun," the student council of Rochester High School presents "Falcon Day."

★ ★ ★

Today will find three classes of RHS competing against each other in field games and athletic contests.

Featured will be a tire roll, a girl's sedan chair race with girls carrying a teacher, and an obstacle course.

New on the "Falcon Day" schedule are a blind crab crawl, a piggy back race, and a girl's softball game.

Admission charge will not only admit students to "Falcon Day" games but to the dance following. All profits from the day will go to the American Field Service fund of the student council.

★ ★ ★

A new student government organization has been added to the RHS in the form of an officer's council.

Malcolm Slingerland, vice president of this year's council and president elect of next year's council, proposed the resolution that all class officers and the student council officers would form a council to promote better cooperation and school spirit and to cut down on class rivalry.

WALLED LAKE

By SUE GERVAIS

The sophomore class of Walled Lake High School recently selected the style for their class rings, which come in four sizes.

Rings are embossed with the school seal and are inscribed with the owner's initials.

★ ★ ★

Scitamard members closed the school year with a recent banquet which saw them elect two of next year's officers; Linda McDermott, president; and Janet Schliskey, secretary.

★ ★ ★

Awards, scholarships and Walled Lake pins will be presented at the traditional swing out program next Friday. Sophomores will then sponsor a tea in honor of the senior class.

★ ★ ★

Seniors, parents and friends will attend the baccalaureate service June 7. The Rev. Robert Eagle and Rev. W.C. Grafe will speak.

BIG SQUEEZE — Nellie Fox of the Houston Colts drops a bunt in front of home plate as teammate John Bateman charges home to score in the 8th inning of the game with the Milwaukee Braves yesterday. Catcher Ed Bailey threw to Warren Spahn at first to get Fox and the Colts won the game, 4-2.

'Face' From Scoreboard Causes Phils to Protest

By The Associated Press

There were 8,649 fans in Forbes Field, but Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch noticed a Face in the scoreboard.

So he protested.

National League headquarters now has a rather delicate decision to make.

Here's what happened Thursday night as the Phillies lost to Pittsburgh 6-5 and dropped into second place behind the San Francisco Giants, who defeated St. Louis 2-1 on Willie Mays' 18th homer.

Mauch protested as the Phillies came to bat in the sixth inning, complaining that he had spotted a face in the left field scoreboard. Mauch said it belonged to ElRoy Face.

Knowing full well that faces in scoreboards often steal signs, Mauch said this Face had no business there.

HE WAS THERE

The Pirates' relief specialist admitted he was in the scoreboard.

"I went there just before the first Philadelphia hitter came up in the sixth," he said. And, said Face, he had a reason for being in the scoreboard:

He was using the rest room facilities there.

The case now goes to the National League jury, Warren Giles presiding.

While the Phillies and Giants were exchanging place in the standings, the Los Angeles Dodgers and Cincinnati played the longest game of the season —with neither team winning. It ended in a 2-2 tie, called because of curfew after 17 innings, and will have to be replayed.

Elsewhere in the NL, a suicide squeeze bunt by Nellie Fox gave Houston the tie-breaking run in a 4-2 victory over Milwaukee and the Chicago Cubs defeated the New York Mets 2-0 on Billy Williams' 11th homer and Larry Jackson's three-hit pitching.

FIRST LOSS

In the only American League game scheduled, Kansas City capitalized on four Chicago errors and handed Juan Pizarro his first loss by beating the White Sox 4-1.

After the early skirmishing, including Mauch's protest, the Phillies took a 5-4 lead in the eighth on Roy Sievers' sacrifice fly. The Pirates tied it in their half of the inning on a homer by Willie Stargell, then won in the ninth on a walk to Jim Pagliaroni and singles by Stargell and Dick Schofield.

Curt Simmons, now 6-3, scored the Cardinal run in the fifth inning on Curt Flood's double and had the Giants blanked on five hits until the eighth. Cap Peterson then led off with a walk, and waited two outs before Mays connected. Mays' shot was touched by a fan in the stands and the ball was knocked back onto the field but the umpires waved him home.

The Dodgers and Reds were scoreless until the 12th. The Dodgers scored two against Cincinnati starter Jim Maloney on his throwing error and a run-producing single by Tommy Davis. The Reds then tied the score in their half on run-scoring singles by Leo Cardenas and Johnny Edwards. It stayed that way until the 12:50 a.m. local curfew time ruled a halt.

Fox' bunt with the bases loaded and the score tied 1-1 in the eighth scored John Bateman with the tie-breaker for the Colts and tagged Warren Spahn, now 4-4, with the defeat. Mike White's single accounted for the other two runs. Hal Woodeschick, who hasn't been scored on in his last 10 relief appearances, preserved the victory for Ken Johnson, 5-4.

Road Champ Jimmy Clark in Pole Spot

Crowd of 250,000 Awaits Memorial Day Racing Classic

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Scot Jimmy Clark, world roadracing champion, will charge across the starting line of the 48th Indianapolis 500-mile auto race Saturday, determined to break a string of American victories going back to Howard Wilcox in 1919.

His effort may bring out the biggest paying crowd ever drawn by an American sporting event, upwards of 250,000.

★ ★ ★

Italian Dario Resta, in a French Peugeot, was the last foreign winner in 1916 before World War I closed the old 2½-mile racing oval for two years. The foreign factory teams never came back in force.

Clark smashed qualifying records in a new British-American hybrid car, a dagger-slim green Lotus built by Colin Chapman of London and powered by a new Ford special racing engine mounted over the back wheels. It's a much improved version of the car in which Clark finished a close second to Parnelli Jones last year.

BIG EFFORT

Ford, in the biggest corporate effort to win the race in modern times, provided the new overhead cam engine to seven of the cars starting Saturday. Only Ford engineers have been permitted to touch the screaming beauties.

★ ★ ★

Rodger Ward, twice winner of the 500 and no worse than fourth in the last five Memorial Day classics, may have the biggest challenge to the three Lotus-Ford in a rear-engine Ford built by A. J. Watson, creator of six 500 winning cars, including Jones' 1963 Agajanian Special.

Ward was third-fastest qualifier and will share the front row at the start with Clark and Bobby Marshman, who reached 160 m.p.h. in practice with a '63 Lotus powered by one of the new Ford engines.

Jones had to settle for the second row in his aging Watson roadster. He had an alternate new rear-engine car, but it had bugs and was parked for this year.

FORMER WINNER

Two other former winners in the field are A. J. Foyt, defending U.S. Auto Club big car champion, and Troy Ruttman, the youngest winner in 500 history when he took the 1952 event at the age of 22. Foyt will be the No. 5 starter and Ruttman No. 18. Both will drive conventional Offy roadsters.

★ ★ ★

Ward will be starting for the 14th straight year, at the age of 43. Eddie Johnson, 45, will start for the 11th time in another Thompson-Ford.

Walt Hansgen of Bedminster, N.J., one of seven first-time starters, will be one of the senior drivers at 44. A noted sports car racer, he is rated a genuine contender in a new Huffaker rear-engine Offy owned by Kjell Ovale, San Francisco sportsman.

Starter Chuck Stevenson, 1962 U.S. champion, also is 44.

The other newcomers are Bob Harkey, 33, Charlotte, N.C., in Jim Rathmann's 1960 winning roadster; Ronnie Duman, 32, Dearborn, Mich.; Bob Mathouser, 36, Omaha; Dave MacDonald, 26, Riverside, Calif., and Johnny White, 32, Warren, Mich.

There will be nationwide television of the long, noisy show for the first time but it will be on closed circuit to about 175 theaters and arenas.

There were 12 accidents during this year's practice and time trials, but the only driver hurt was Pedro Rodriguez of Mexico City, who has been released from a hospital after treatment for burns and a back injury.

The only foreign driver who made the field, besides Clark, was Jack Brabham, Australian now racing out of England. He built his own rear-engine Offenhauser. He started the 500 once before in 1961 and finished ninth in an underpowered Cooper-Climax.

'Grass Is Greener . . .'

Ex-Tigers Helped by Change

DETROIT (AP)—The familiar phrase "The grass is always greener on the other side," may not always ring true. But a number of former Detroit Tigers are finding the going more to their liking with their new teams.

Curiously, most of the players doing well as members of other National or American League teams are pitchers. The Tigers themselves have been unable to solve their pitching troubles since the start of spring training.

★ ★ ★

Jim Bunning, who went to the Philadelphia Phillies along with catcher Gus Triandos in exchange for Don Demeter and pitcher Jack Hamilton, has a 5-2 record.

Burning's earned run average is just over 2.00 and he is third in the NL in strikeouts.

REAL GREEN

For Kansas City slugger Rocky Colavito, the grass has not only become greener, but the A's green uniforms apparently also are to his liking.

Going into Thursday night's game, Colavito had hit 12 homers and batted in 29 runs.

Don Mossi, considered all washed up and waived by the Tigers during spring training, recorded his first victory of the season last Sunday in a two-inning relief job for the Chicago White Sox.

★ ★ ★

Another lefty, Willie Smith, has a so-so 1-2 record with the Los Angeles Angels. But his earned run average—0.90—may have some of the Tigers brass scratching their heads.

Smith went to the Angels in exchange in exchange for Pulie Navarro, whose ERA is 6.30.

Another former Tiger hitting his stride and winning big with another club is pitcher Bob Bruce. Bruce, 5-10, in three seasons (1959-61) with Detroit, Houston Colts. He had a combined record of 15-18 in two previous years with the Colt .45s.

TRADE HELP

The Detroit front office, meanwhile, could well be wondering where the Tigers would be if it weren't for the victories recorded by the pitchers picked up in various trades.

New Tiger hurlers have recorded 10 of the 18 victories chalked up by the mound staff this season.

Dave Wickersham, who has six of them, was Manager Charlie Dressen's choice to open a four-game weekend series against the Chicago White Sox tonight. It will be the first meeting of the season between the two teams.

Ed Rakow and Larry Sherry have each picked up a pair of victories.

Lefthander Mickey Lolich tops the older Tigers with four victories in seven decisions.

Prep Nines Open Tournament Tonight

When Pontiac Central and Walled Lake open the 1964 High School Baseball Tournament at 7:30 p.m. today under the lights at Jaycee Park, the hitters will be attempting to steal some of the pitchers' thunder.

The eight teams entered in the Pontiac Press-Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department tournament generally have relied on pitching to carry them during the season.

But they are not without their talented batters, and in some cases, fielders.

Walled Lake, for instance, will display one of the better infield combinations around the circuit, keyed around shortstop Rick Trudeau and second baseman Jim Broome.

John Thomas, Don Robinson and Fred Ferguson have provided much of the Vikings' punch along with Trudeau.

Central will rely heavily on the bats of Mike Doty and Nell Roberts in tonight's contest. Offense has been a problem for the Chiefs, however.

Royal Oak Kimball has Dan and Terry Sherban to lead its hitting attack, the former being one of the top receivers in the county.

Romeo's Benny Payne is nearly as effective with the bat as he is on the mound, and has hitting support from sophomore catcher Bob Rowley and Mike Simunic.

★ ★ ★

Carl Stefanski of Rochester is one of the more potent outfielders around and Kettering's sophomore surprise Craig Collins has shown fine bat-wielding ability.

DOUBLE THREATS

Pontiac Northern's Mike Burklow and Roger Hayward are not only standout hurlers but they carry big bats at the plate also and have a solid infield backing them up.

They will have to retire three of the most effective batters in the Wayne-Oakland League.

Milford's Jim Ward, John Kaspar and Ed Sparkman have given fits to opposing mound staffs.

★ ★ ★

Following tonight's opening game, there will be three tomorrow.

Romeo and Kimball will square off at 3:30 p.m. in what could be the best of the opening four tilts.

Then at 6 p.m. Kettering will tangle with Rochester followed by the Pontiac Northern-Milford contest at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets for the entire tournament are on sale at each of the participating schools and at the Parks and Recreation department in City Hall.

★ ★ ★

For $2 adults will be admitted to all four tournament sessions (this week and next) and there is a $1 charge for students.

For individual sessions the cost is $1 per adult and 50 cents per student.

The winning team will receive a giant permanent trophy plus individual trophies for the team members. Also, a most valuable player award will be made.

All awards are donated by The Press while the city recreation department retains all proceeds from the tournament.

Clippers Clip Talbott, 13-2

The Clippers made their first win of the city men's baseball season a convincing one Thursday night with a 13-2 drubbing of Talbott Lumber.

The winners pounded out 12 baseshits but only two for extra bases, and were aided by seven Lumbermen errors.

Defending league-batting champion Felix Brooks rapped out three hits including a two-run first inning double to lead the attack.

He scored three times, also, and drove in another run with a single.

The contest was halted after five innings by the ten-run rule. The next league game at Jaycee Park will be 8 p.m. Sunday between Huron-Airway, the leader, and Talbott Lumber, the bottom nine.

Bill Signed to Hunt Elk

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney Thursday signed into law a bill to permit a special limited Elk hunting season in Michigan.

The special season this fall will mark the first time since the turn of the century that elk can be hunted east of the Mississippi.

The new law provides for a special $25 elk license for Michigan residents only and permits the State Conservation Department to establish an open season on elk where there is a shortage of food, evidence of crop damage and over-population of the herd.

Purpose of the season is to control the population explosion among the elk.

Homers Highlight Softball Play

Ed Shipp belted a pair of home runs to lead Arro Realty to a 6-2 victory over Sam Reeves in an American League softball game last night.

The victory was the third without a loss for the league-leading Arro squad.

★ ★ ★

In a second American game, UAW No. 594 knocked off Elks No. 810, 6-2, for its third win of the season.

In the National loop, Orchard Lanes remained atop the standings with a 4-0 mark after edging Pontiac State Hospital, 9-8. Local No. 653 No. 2 extended its unbeaten string to three in the International League with an 8-4 triumph over Lytell & Colegrove.

Harry Avesian hurled a two-hitter to keep Arro Realty unbeaten. His teammates hopped on losing pitcher Carl Atwood for three runs in the first and put the game away with three in the sixth.

The Elks picked up only four hits in dropping their second game. The union squad rapped out nine hits off Gary Boe.

Cliff Pulkas collected three hits in five attempts to pace Orchard Lanes. Virgil Ernest banged out three for the losers.

Local No. 653 No. 2 picked up five runs in the bottom of the fourth to win the game under the four-run rule.

WATERFORD ACTION

In Waterford Township, John Fellenbach scattered five hits in pitching Dixie Bar to a 13-0 win over Huron Bowl, and Taig's Tree Service came from behind to nip Pink Poodle, 7-6.

A two-run home run by Ray Jergovich in the opening inning gave Fellenbach all the support he needed. The 10-run rule ended the tilt in the fourth.

Pink Poodle scored a pair of runs in the top of the seventh to take a 6-5 lead, but Taig's knotted the score on a triple by Warren Robertoy. Robertoy scored the winning run on an overthrow of third base.

Gary Hines and Chuck Steinhelper picked up inside-the-park home runs for Taig's.

Hollywood Stars Plan to Play at Warwick

GRAND BLANC (AP)—Eight entertainment world personalities have sent word they intend to play in the Pro-Am tourney, one day before the opening of the Buick Open Golf tournament June 11.

Barring changes in professional engagements, comics George Gobel and Gary Morton; singers Gordon McRae, Dennis Morgan and John Raitt, and actors Robert Sterling, Jack Kelly and Bob Wilke, will be in the field of 200.

Hal Reniff, relief pitcher for the New York Yankees, won only four decisions in 1963 but he was credited with 18 saves for the American League champions.

The New York Mets won only two of 18 games from the Los Angeles Dodgers last season.

Teeing Off

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

"Two Michigan golfers will be lucky to make the National Open, and it's not really fair," one of the tired golfers was commenting in the Pine Lake clubhouse after last Monday's 36 hole local qualifying rounds for the USGA.

"What's the use of wearing yourself out for 36 holes of local qualifying and another 36 in sectional qualifying, only to have the touring pros come into the field here and take all the spots," he added.

What upset the young golf pro was the fact that several times the touring pros have been in the Detroit sectional field because they have been in this area at the time for the Buick Open.

That will be the case again this year. The sectional qualifying will take place Monday, June 9th at Franklin Hills and the biggest bulk of touring field will be here because they take part in the Buick Open at Warwick Hills couple days later.

"None of our club pros can beat the touring pros who play just about every day of the week. It's really not fair to have them take up most of the spots when many of the Michigan players look forward to playing in the Open."

The Buick Open people were upset a few years ago because the top players omitted the Grand Blanc tournament in favor of the British Open in early July.

So the tournament at Warwick Hills was switched to June and has run prior to the National Open.

The big names now stay away from the tournament using the excuse that they are warming up for the Open, and now Michigan golfers, pros and amateurs, are upset with the Buick dates because it hurts their chances to get to the USGA due to the touring field in sectional qualifying.

SHORT PUTTS

The 13th annual Press Invitational Prep tournament was another big success last Monday at Pontiac Country Club and high school teams over the entire lower Michigan have asked for entry in the event.

We were sorry to see Birmingham Seaholm drop out of the tournament, one of the charter teams and winner of five trophies.

In Seaholm's place, Milford entered as the 20th team which is the maximum number of entries. There are nine other schools which have asked to enter, and many schools are upset because they are not invited each year.

MAXIMUM TEAMS

It is the rule of the tournament that the maximum will be 20 teams. This is 100 players and one reason is that this number is the most which can be adequately handled to complete play by mid-afternoon.

* * *

Each year every team which has been in the tournament the previous season is re-invited first. They have the right to accept or reject entry. If the team turns down entry than another team is substituted.

The unfortunate thing about it, is that once a team drops out its chances of getting back in are very slim. The school must go to the end of the waiting list.

Pete Green, once the medalist in the Press tournament, and a member of the Seaholm team which held the former team record, was enjoying a big day himself with a 69-69—138 medal honors at Pine Lake while the prep players were touring Pontiac Country Club.

* * *

He was quite interested in the results of the Press tourney when he finished his fine rounds at Pine Lake and especially wanted to know how Seaholm had fared.

"Seaholm turned down entry this year," Green was told. "What?" Green replied, "It was the best tournament our teams ever entered."

Name Golfers Having Woes in 500 Meet

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A glance at the bankbooks of the leading contenders in the $70,000 Speedway Open Golf Tournament leads you to believe the war on poverty has advanced even to the PGA front.

* * *

While most of the big money boys fight for par today just to avoid the cut after the third round, their poorer brethren—headed by George Bayer—are edging toward the $12,000 top prize in this fifth-richest sponsored meet on the current tour.

Bayer's last big payday came in 1960 when he won the St. Petersburg Open, and you can take it from him—that's too long between visits to your banker.

* * *

Now playing out of Incline Village, Nev., Bayer is ranked 48th on this season's money list with $5,275—no petty cash, but only a shade of Jack Nicklaus' earnings of $48,035.

NINE UNDER PAR

At the halfway stop, Bayer was two strokes up on the field with a nine-under par 133—while leading cash collector Nicklaus was buried with a 141, in an 11-way tie for 42nd place.

* * *

Of the four pros knotted in second at 135, only two are among the top 50 in winnings—Bob Rosburg in 26th with $11,295 and Kel Nagle in 36th $6,787. The others, rookie George Archer, the first-round leader, and Dean Refram, have had very few paychecks this season, but both hope to correct that oversight this weekend.

Kettering Downs PCH on Bases-Loaded Triple

A bases - loaded triple by outfielder Bill Dedrich in the top of the seventh inning carried Kettering to a 9-5 triumph over Pontiac Central yesterday at Wisner Field.

The game brought an end to the regular season for both teams, and the victory upped the Captains season mark to 12-4.

Both teams are entered in the Pontiac Press - Pontiac Parks and Recreation tournament which opens tonight at Jaycee Park.

The victim of the Captains' uprising in the seventh was sophomore Tom Howard, making his first appearance on the mound in a varsity uniform. The game was tied 5-5 when he entered and he took the loss without giving up a hit.

Two walks and an error loaded the bases and Howard hit Dale Manning to force Ken Hackett across with the lead run. Junior Al Arellano replaced Howard and Dedrich greeted him with a triple to clean the bases.

4-10 RECORD

Central, winding up the campaign with a 4-10 record, jumped in front 3-0 in the second inning.

An error brought Wally Logan across with the first run and the other two came in on run-producing singles by Craig Zadosko and Glenn Sutt.

Second baseman Andy Miceli cracked a triple in the third to send in Kettering's first run and he scored the second on a single by hot-hitting Craig Collins.

The Captains took a 5-3 lead in the fifth on three singles, an error and a two-run double by Bob Bogert.

Neil Roberts' triple sent Mike Doty across the plate in the Chiefs' half of the fifth and he scored the tying run on a single by Logan.

Manning came on in relief of Rick Pankey in the fifth inning and silenced the Central bats to pick up the victory.

Seek Advice Before Child Enters School

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Dear Dr. Nason: Our daughter is 10 days too young to enter kindergarten in the fall and I am afraid this will be a handicap for her.

DR. NASON

She is tall and sturdy for her age; speaks two languages, is active, afraid of nothing: goes ice skating, swims, rides a big bicycle and always plays with older children. She is an aggressive child and a little bossy.

There is an excellent private school which will accept her. This school is run by a different religious faith than her own. Would it be good or bad for her to start school at this age?

Mrs. V.A., Sacramento, Calif.

★ ★ ★

Many things enter into a child's readiness for school. You have said nothing about your daughter's interest in reading or numbers. Talk the matter over with the principal of the private school you mention.

Perhaps you can tell from this discussion whether the school will prove to be a help to you in guiding your child's development.

Always remember it is not the home OR the school, but home AND the school that mold the child.

Dear Dr. Nason: I think my complaint about homework is different from most you probably get. I am not quibbling with homework itself, but with the amount of it we must do.

I think two or two and a half hours a night is fine, but when it comes to three and four hours a night, I object. It limits the amount of leisure a growing ninth-grader needs and also the amount of sleep.

As a ninth-grader I am worried. If I have this much homework now what will it be like in high school?

L.B., Hyattsville, Md.

Some students take much longer than others to do their homework. Very often the rate at which students do homework is a matter of habit and they can speed up just by deciding to do so. TRY.

Dear Dr. Nason: Our 12-year-old daughter's carelessness and indifference in some of her subjects worries us. Example: She makes mistakes on tests such as 9 times 1 equals 7 or a misplaced decimal point causing an answer to a problem to read $5.40 when it should be $540.

Yet, when as a family we watch the TV program "College Bowl" she is able to answer along with these college students questions about kinetic theory and potential energy.

Does she make careless errors because she concentrates too much on what she likes?

★ ★ ★

Mrs. D.W.R., Dayton, O.

The answer to your question is "No!"

When test takers' thinking is completely centered on the method of solution, errors in arithmetic often occur.

★ ★ ★

Advise your daughter to recheck her papers before turning them in. During this check have her concentrate on finding errors. With her thoughts centered on simple arithmetic or spelling, the mistakes will stand out to be corrected.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

One of the most frequent questions I am asked is, "Don't experts ever make silly bids?"

The answer is that they do, and sometimes wind up resolving that if they had their life to live over they would become chess players.

JACOBY

North's one spade opening was in this category. He toyed with the idea of opening with three or four spades or even passing. He finally decided to see what a one spade opening would lead to.

When South responded with three hearts, North wanted to take his opening bid back, but the boat had left and he had to make the best of his situation.

So he bid three spades and hoped that lightning would not strike him. South's four club bid gave him a chance to show his heart preference. When South went to four no-trump, North breathed a sigh of relief and responded five clubs to show no aces.

Then South went to five no-trump and here is where expert North came through in first class style.

He looked at his 10 points. Then he looked at his seven card spade suit. Then he noted that his partner had shown a heart suit first and all four aces later on.

In that case, there ought to be 13 tricks lying around for anyone who wanted to take them.

North took one more look at his 10 points and closed the bidding at a lay down seven on trump.

Bond Prices Climb in May

NEW YORK (AP) — Bond prices climbed in May.

Government bonds chalked up gains of as much as 1¼ points over a month ago. Just about every treasury bond advanced, many ¼ of a point or more.

The 3s of 1995 spurted 1¼, the biggest single - month gain for a treasury bond in more than a year and a half. In March, this bond was the biggest loser, dropping 1 6-32.

Several other long-term maturities were up ¾ of a point or more. Other advances ranged from 2-32 in near issues to more than ½ point in some intermediates.

Steels a Strong Feature

Market Has Irregular Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels were a strong feature as the stock market extended a mild, irregular decline through its second week.

The steels were spurred by reports that the pace of orders was so strong the usual summer lull promises to be smaller than usual.

Investors in steels also were encouraged by statements of industry leaders, gathered for the annual meeting of the American Iron & Steel Institute, that 1964 may be a record year for the metal.

Trading was highlighted by a further cooling off of the "mineral-find" issues which have flown high in recent weeks on the basis of natural resource discoveries.

BRIEF HINTS

Other highlights included a strong but brief rally of drug stocks involved in oral contraceptives, because of hints the Roman Catholic Church might re-examine its attitude toward these products, and strength in savings-and-loan holding companies.

★ ★ ★

The Dow Jones Industrial Average this week took a slight loss of .31 at 820.56.

The Associated Press average this week declined .8 to 306.0.

Most Markets Closed

NEW YORK (AP)—Most stock exchanges and commodity markets were closed today for observance of Memorial Day.

The Chicago livestock market is open.

Losses Broad on Grain Mart

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market fell into a steady downward trend most of the time this week and finished with fairly broad losses in all commodities on the Board of Trade.

★ ★

Wheat had an active flurry of buying on Monday which analysts said may have been its last for some time. It was linked with reports of unfavorable crop conditions in parts of the western Great Plains. Profit cashers raked the market the next day, though, and the pressure never actually ceased thereafter.

U.S. Ahead in War of Chickens

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)— The U.S. poultry industry is winning the chicken war with the Common Market, say two poultry experts.

M. H. Simmons of Siloam Springs, Ark., general manager of Plus Poultry, Inc., and board chairman of the Institute of American Poultry Industries, says some Common Markt countries are buying American chickens again despite a 40 per cent tariff.

★ ★ ★

And he said, the chicken war sent American poultrymen scurrying for new business. They found it in Latin America and the Far East.

Japan took 10 million pounds of U.S. poultry last year and will take 20 million pounds this year, Simmons said in an interview.

EXPORTS UP

Ed Harms, executive secretary of the Arkansas Poultry Federation, agreed. He said poultry exports are up 38 per cent over last year, mostly because of the new markets.

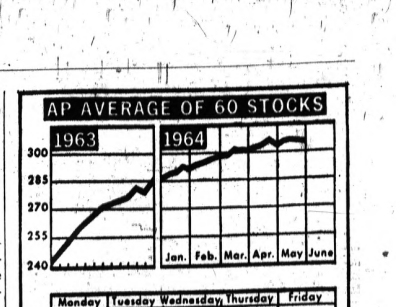
Still, said Simmons, two of the six members of the European Common Market — West Germany and Italy—are among the biggest buyers of American chickens.

★ ★ ★

"The tariff has done more to decrease the profit of the importer than to reduce the retail price," Simmons said.

Simmons said he hoped negotiations under way in Geneva would provide relief "in the way of lowering the import duty."

In addition to Italy and West Germany, Common Market members are France, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Belgium.



STOCKS, COMMODITIES—For the second straight week, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined, closing yesterday at 306.0 from 306.8 of a week earlier. The commodity index moved lower for the third consecutive week, closing yesterday at 161.6 from 162.5 in the preceding period. Livestock showed the biggest loss.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I have never invested before, and it has been suggested that I begin by buying Reis (Robert) on the American Exchange and J. I. Case preferred on the N.Y. Stock Exchange. I would like in this manner to feel my way into the business of investing." J. C.

A) If you will allow me to say so, buying your suggested stocks would be feeling your way very much in the dark indeed, far as investing is concerned. Each stock is highly speculative.

Reis sells for less than $1 a share and Case 6½ per cent preferred for $6. Reis has never paid a dividend and has reported a deficit for the past five years. Case 6½ per cent preferred has paid no dividends since 1960, and the company has shown a deficit in 3 out of the past five fiscal years.

I urge you not to speculate with an initial investment.

I would make first purchases from highest quality issues such as American Telephone.

★ ★ ★

Q) "Will you please explain why the great variation exists in the market prices of various high grade stocks in relation to their earnings? For example, Socony Mobil sells at 14 times 1963 earnings and Jersey Standard 18 times. J.C.

Penney sells at 25 times earnings and Safeway Stores only 18 times." B. H.

A) That is a very intelligent question, since it strikes at the root of market pricing. What you refer to is the price-earnings ratio, which analysts use more commonly refer to as the multiplier.

It is not always easy to see why the multiplier varies in high grade stocks. The usual reason is that the higher the growth pattern the higher the multiplier.

Sometimes the market sees a rising growth curve ahead, as in the case of Penney. When it does, the multiplier rises and we see it at a higher level than for Safeway, which actually has completed a period of steady record.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Circuit Judge Smooths Out Lake Fight

In a holiday mood, Circuit Court Judge Frederick C. Ziem has temporarily smoothed the troubled waters of Elizabeth Lake.

Stepping between owners of two neighboring public beaches on the Waterford Township lake Judge Ziem yesterday ordered a disputed string of barrel buoys relocated.

He also issued a show cause order in a suit brought by Walter Uhrainec, owner of Walter's Beach, against Donald R. Ingland, operator of Terrence Beach.

Uhrainec charges that Ingland placed buoys which interfere with his access to the lake and would cripple his Memorial Day opening plans.

Judge Ziem told Oakland County Sheriff's Lt. Don Kratt to temporarily reset the buoys so as not to hinder either beach's operation during the holiday.

Business Notes

Clair L. Johnson, president of Johnson & Anderson, Inc., consulting engineers, 2300 Dixie, Waterford Township, has been appointed to a new Governor's Task Force on Water Rights, Use and Pollution Control.

Johnson of 3585 Lotus, Waterford Township, won one of 22 members appointed by Gov. Romney to the committee.

Dems Want Ballot Debate

Challenge GOP on 'Massachusetts' Law

Expected opposition by Oakland County Democrats to the new "Massachusetts ballot" law crystallized today with a challenge to debate the issue with county Republicans.

★ ★ ★

Democratic County Chairman Sander M. Levin directed an offer to Republican chairman Charles L. Lyle to conduct a series of public meetings to debate the ballot. Lyle indicated he would decline.

"If both parties are proud of their different positions," said Levin, "then I conclude both parties will not be afraid, but will be eager, to engage in a series of forums."

He added that petitions will be circulated in the county as part of a statewide Democrat effort to get the ballot placed as a referendum question in the November election.

★ ★ ★

Hearing of the debate challenge, Lyle stated:

"The so-called 'Massachusetts ballot' is in reality the people's ballot and requires no defense on my part."

17 USING IT

"Seventeen other states are using it successfully and there are no cries of disenfranchisement coming from anyone in these states."

★ ★ ★

Levin said the "Massachusetts ballot," which would place candidate names so as to prevent straight party voting, would create confusion at the polls.

★ ★ ★

He explained the three-minute limit for voters to make their selections, and passage of the law a week ago without any public hearings, were the Democrats' central objections.

Back College Proposal

Waterford Township Board of Education members last night unanimously endorsed passage of the proposal to establish a community college in the June 8 school election.

In Romney Telephone Address

Home Rule Support Pledged

Gov. George Romney yesterday pledged his support to strengthening county and local government as in the best interests of Michigan's citizens.

He was speaking by telephone to supervisors and other officials of six counties in the Detroit metropolitan region at the Veterans Memorial Building in Detroit.

The occasion marked the 10th anniversary of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, which the governor commended as a successful effort by Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, St. Clair and Washtenaw counties to solve mutual problems through joint council.

Romney's telephone call was broadcast into the auditorium from his office in Lansing. He said he was taking time out from a conference with officials from strike-troubled Hillsdale to make the call.

"I am dedicated to the enactment of provisions of the new constitution to make local government more effective, especially through county home rule," he said.

MORE TAX FUNDS

Romney added that, in his opinion, the state's role in local affairs should be relegated to making more tax funds available for local units of government to carry out their responsibilities to the people.

He noted that the state is spending more this year in local communities for such things as schools, clinics and hospitals than ever before.

Many of these institutions, he said, are operated by cities and counties.

★ ★ ★

The governor also said Michigan is winning its war against poverty. "The best poverty program is to put people in new jobs . . . we have 55,000 more people at work than a year ago.

'ECONOMIC UPSURGE'

"Michigan is experiencing an economic upsurge greater than at any other time in its peacetime history.

"We are undertaking, through legislation, to make Michigan as attractive as possible to industries here, and it's paying off with unprecedented expansion."

Representing President Johnson at the meeting was Hobart Taylor Jr., special counsel to the president and executive vice chairman of the president's committee on equal employment opportunity.

He said that with more rural people flocking to urban centers of the nation, local government must tackle the problem of adapting these people to urban jobs, mainly through vocational training.

FEDERAL FUNDS

He added that federal funds are available for vocational training, and he was quite sure that they could be applied to community colleges where such training is included on the curriculum.

"Local government can play a large part in retrieving under-utilized Americans," Taylor said.

"On the local level we must be increasingly concerned not only with the problems of transportation, water supply and industrial development, but also with human problems such as poverty, the level of general education, the development of our young and the care of our aged.

★ ★ ★

"Essentially, it is a matter of developing a rounded program which will enable all our citizens to make their greatest contribution to the mutual welfare in surroundings where they may live the good life."

NATIONAL RECORD

Taylor congratulated the Inter-County Committee on its "nationally recognized record of providing leadership in solving such problems."

Committee Chairman Edward Connor presented awards to two members and one former member for "enduring efforts for cooperation among the six counties in the Detroit metropolitan region."

★ ★ ★

The awards, engraved bronze plaques, were given to Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors; David Levinson, supervisor from Birmingham; and Bernard Kalahar, former member and past chairman of the Macomb County board.

House Okays Appeal Courts

Three 3-Judge Units Established in State

LANSING (AP) — A bill establishing three 3-judge appellate court districts in Michigan received immediate effect in the House yesterday.

The bill — implementing a provision of the new Michigan Constitution — follows a directive handed the legislature in a unique letter from the Michigan Supreme Court early this year.

It makes Wayne County a separate district, establishes a second district of 16 counties surrounding Detroit, and sets up a mammoth third district stretching from the Indiana border to Lake Superior — taking in the remaining 66 counties.

The bill matches the State Senate version, author by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, which was passed in April.

Roberts had predicted a subsequent House attempt to create nine single-judge districts would be put aside in favor of the three-three plan.

★ ★ ★

The Senate bill now joined by the House bill complies with a State Supreme Court opinion that three districts of three judges each is called for in the new state constitution.

Disagreement over structure of the appeals court had threatened to revive a House-Senate battle that resulted in death of a court bill in the second special session of 1963.

Districting Pleases Pontiac Candidate

Pleased with the state's legislative reapportionment, Pontiac optometrist Dr. Lynn D. Allen Jr. has announced redistricting will not change his plans to run for the State Senate.

Republican Allen, 38, of 110 Wenonah said he would run in the north half of the county as he previously planned.

★ ★ ★

His district, the 20th, includes the City of Pontiac and 16 townships and is the largest of three Senate districts alloted Oakland County.

PROPOSED ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PONTIAC

An ordinance to amend the second preamble paragraph and Section 1 of Ordinance No. 1424 of the City of Pontiac, adopted by the City Commission on May 2, 1961 entitled: "An Ordinance Authorizing the Issuance by the City of the Pontiac, Michigan, of $3,530,000 Sewage Disposal System Bonds."

Whereas, by decree entered November 30, 1960, the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, in Chancery, in the case of the People of the State of Michigan, ex rel of the Water Resources Commission of the State of Michigan Plaintiff, v. the City of Pontiac, a municipal corporation, Defendant, No. C-32898, ordered installation of certain sanitary sewer improvements, which said decree provided in part as follows:

"It is

"That the City of Pontiac shall comply with the plaintiff's Final Order of Determination and construct such necessary sewage disposal facilities including sanitary interceptors, collecting sewers and appurtenances in accordance with the plans and specifications heretofore submitted and approved by the Michigan State Health Commissioner."

and

Whereas, by Ordinance No. 1424 the City Commission authorized issuance and sale of $3,530,000 General Obligation Sewage Disposal System Bonds of the City dated July 1, 1961 for the purpose of defraying the cost of constructing a new sewage treatment plant and improving, enlarging and extending the East Boulevard sewage treatment plant and constructing an interceptor sewer and other pipelines between said plants; and

Whereas, the City has been advised by its consulting engineers, Jones, Henry and Williams of Toledo, Ohio, that it is necessary to acquire and construct the Murphy Park Sanitary Sewer in order to abate the pollution condition on which the chancery decree hereinabove mentioned was based; and

Whereas, there remains from the proceeds of sale of said General Obligation Bonds authorized by Ordinance No. 1424 the sum of approximately $390,545.00; and

Whereas, it is the determination of the City Commission that said funds remaining from the proceeds of sale of said General Obligation Sewage Disposal System Bonds dated July 1, 1961 should be used for the purpose of defraying part or all of the cost of the Murphy Park Sanitary Sewer in order to abate the pollution condition that said sanitary sewer is designed to solve, it being the intent and purpose that said bonds be issued pursuant to said court decree hereinbefore referred to and the provisions of Sections 7 and 8 of Act 320, Public Acts of Michigan, 1927, as amended; and

Whereas, in order to use said funds it is necessary to amend Ordinance No. 1424 in order to include in the description of the project to be financed said Murphy Park Sanitary Sewer; therefore

The City of Pontiac (Michigan) ordains:

Section 1. The second preamble paragraph and Section 1 of Ordinance No. 1424 are hereby amended to provide as follows:

Whereas, in order to comply with the terms of said decree it is necessary for the City of Pontiac to improve, enlarge and extend its existing sewage disposal system by constructing a new Auburn sewage treatment plant, by improving, enlarging and extending the existing East Boulevard sewage treatment plant and by constructing an interceptor sewer and other pipelines between said plants and by constructing the Murphy Park Sanitary Sewer (hereinafter referred to as the "project"); and

Section 1. White Youths Attack, Hurt 2 Newsmen

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) Groups of white youths injured two newsmen and roughed up several other persons Thursday night when Negro civil rights demonstrators marched into the city's old Slave Market Square.

The jeering crowd of 50 to 60 whites broke through police lines to smash cameras and beat James P. Kerlin, Associated Press photographer, and Ervin Gans, 43, a sound man for the National Broadcasting Co.

* * *

Gans, of Dallas, Tex., was admitted to a hospital where doctors said he suffered deep scalp cuts and a possible skull fracture. His condition was listed as good.

Kerlin of Miami was bruised but said he apparently wasn't seriously injured.

POLICE STRUGGLE

Police, some armed with clubs and others accompanied by dogs struggled to keep whites and Negroes separated as the noisy whites drowned out a prayer said by the Rev. Andrew Young, representative of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The attack on about a dozen white newsmen occurred when the 300 Negroes started to march out of the square.

Believe Reds Aim for Rival Laos Rule

TOKYO (AP)—Communist propaganda attacks on neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma are believed to portend the setting up of a rival Laotian government in Red territory.

* * *

Unconfirmed reports, brought back by neutralist officers who served in Communist-held regions of Laos, say a former public health minister, Khamsouk Keola, a dissident neutralist recently fired for refusing to return to his post in Vientiane, has been picked to head a cabinet of dissident neutralists and Communist Pathet Lao members.

* * *

Should the Communists make such a move, they probably would claim their coalition represents the legal government set up by the 1962 Geneva agreements guaranteeing the neutrality of Laos.

According to the reports, the Communist-sponsored government would include four Pathet Lao and two neutralist cabinet members from Souvanna's original coalition. Both the neutralists have been dismissed and two of the Pathet Lao absentees have been temporarily replaced by the Vientiane regime.

DEPUTY PREMIER

Prince Souphanouvong, chief of the Pathet Lao, would be a deputy premier of the new government, as he is of Souvanna's coalition, according to the reports.

The Pathet Lao have not recognized the changes in Souvanna's regime. For the last week they have been insisting that since he joined forces with the rightists, he lost his right to be premier.

* * *

On May 24, Prince Souphanouvong charged that Souvanna had wrecked the coalition.

On May 2, the Pathet Lao radio an unusual quoted by Radio Peking — said Souvanna Phouma "transformed the government into a pro-U.S. tool."

SEEKING AID

This attack was prompted by the premier's disclosure that he was seeking foreign military aid to resist the Pathet Lao attacks on neutralist positions.

Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai challenged Souvanna's actions in a message to British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, who had appealed to Peking to help stop the Pathet Lao drive.

If Souvanna Phouma "becomes the leader of the rightist group, which is alleged to have incorporated both the neutralist and rightist groups, he will completely forfeit his political standing," Chou replied.

Board Awards Milk, Bread Bids

Milk and bread bids were awarded last night by the Pontiac School Board.

Total value of the contracts was estimated at $75,000 and $18,000 respectively.

The milk contract went to two local firms, Nye Dairy, 585 Oakland, and Maple Leaf Dairy Co., 20 E. Howard, who submitted a combined bid.

School officials said the combined bid was allowed because the contract was too large to be handled by any one firm.

* * *

The Nye-Maple Leaf bid was $.0515 for the half pint of milk, which is the schools' biggest item. This price is the same being paid this year to the two dairy companies.

REMAIN SAME

Prices on other dairy products also will remain the same as this year under the new contract.

Only one other firm submitted a bid.

In other business last night, the school board passed on a tentative reorganization of the vocational education department.

Slated to be adopted for the 1964-65 school year, the plan would call for two additional teaching personnel and two additional secretaries at a total cost of $20,000.

* * *

However, school officials expect a "substantial" portion of the increased costs to be reimbursed by state and federal monies.

* * *

The school board also approved a series of personnel changes. Included was the creation of a department head for the orthopedic unit at Mark Twain Elementary School.

DUTIES OF TEACHER

The position, which will be added as the duties of a teacher, will go to someone already in the school district, according to schoolmen.

The position carries with it a $200 raise in pay.

Changes in the length of contracts for seven helping teachers, an audio - visual specialist and the director of school health services were approved.

The director of health services, Miss Josephine Seeley, had her contract extended one week. This will allow her time to start work one week before school begins in the fall.

The helping teachers had their contracts extended two weeks by the board's action.

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer said that this would permit them to come in early in the fall to help set up a series of annual preschool workshops for new teachers.

The workshops are presented each fall as in-service education for new teachers.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

JFK's Birthday Observed With Quiet Tributes

MAKE OVER PAGES

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) —John Fitzgerald Kennedy would have been 47 years old today.

★ ★ ★

The birthday, in all likelihood, would have been celebrated with a family gathering at the Kennedy compound of summer homes at Hyannis Port, the place the late president called "home."

As president, he took an extended Memorial Day weekend away from the White House to begin his summer round of visits to the seashore.

There'd always be a party for the children—there are more than 20 Kennedy small-fry—and customarily they had presents for "Uncle Jack." Sometimes there were small presents for the children, too.

★ ★ ★

With that over, the adult Kennedys would gather for dinner and a quiet observance of the birthday.

FUND RAISER

One year, the Massachusetts Democratic party set up a fund raising birthday dinner and Kennedy made an evening round-trip flight to Boston to attend it.

This holiday weekend, there will be no gathering of the clan at the seaside compound.

Six months and one week ago, an assassin's bullet killed Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

But the President's widow, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, and his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, flew to Hyannis Port to take part in an international television program on John F. Kennedy's spiritual legacy to the world.

TELSTAR RELAY

The president's other brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., will join Irish Prime Minister Sean Lemass for part of the program to be relayed by Telstar II from Dublin.

Other segments beamed by Telstar bring in former British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, from England, and West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt of Germany.

Part of the program will be devoted to the Kennedy Memorial Library, for which $10 million is being raised. The library is to be built near Harvard University.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, the late president's mother, appeared last night on CBS television to comment on pictures of her son and others of her family. CBS commentator Harry Reasoner said the pictures never had been shown publicly before.

The Post Office Department marked the birthday with the first issue of John F. Kennedy memorial stamps.

Stamp dealers and collectors converged in Boston, where the Boston Post Office will postmark the five-cent stamps "first day of issue."

The stamp bears a portrait of Kennedy and a reproduction of the eternal flame that burns at his grave.

★ ★ ★

In Dallas, the John F. Kennedy Citizens Memorial Committee will officially launch a fund

Renew Hillsdale Talks

Union, Firm to Meet Until Accord Found

2 Held in Shooting; National Guard Still in Control of Area

HILLSDALE (AP) — While National Guardsmen patrolled a factory where a strike had exploded into a near-riot, negotiators began talks today that Michigan's governor said would continue "until they produce results."

Two persons stood charged with assault to commit murder in the shotgun wounding of a plant guard and one plant guard was accused of unlawful discharge of a firearm.

Agreement to resume previously sporadic negotiations in the 3-month-old strike at Essex Wire Corp. came last night after a five-hour series of meetings in Gov. George W. Romney's office at Lansing.

"The meetings will be held for a reasonable period each day until they produce results," the governor said. "They have agreed to stick to it for the purpose of working out a contract."

★ ★ ★

Romney sent the National Guard to Hillsdale. He declared a "state of public emergency" and ordered the Essex plant shut down and its guards disarmed after a near-riot Wednesday night.

MOBILIZING TROOPS — Loading a field kitchen in preparation for duty in the strike-torn town of Hillsdale are National Guard members called up from Company B, Marshall. Nation Plans Big Weekend

Warning Is Issued on Traffic Hazards

By United Press International

Thousands of families streamed from the nation's big cities and towns today bound for a Memorial Day weekend at their favorite beach or fishing spot.

★ ★ ★

The first holiday weekend of the summer vacation season started with a warning from the National Safety Council that between 410 and 490 Americans would die in traffic accidents.

A United Press International count at 11 a.m., EDT, showed that 29 persons had been killed on the country's streets and highways since the holiday officially started at 6 p.m. local time yesterday.

While thousands fled to beach parties, picnics and sporting events, others prepared for brassy parades and memorial services in recognition of the nation's fallen veterans.

★ ★ ★

A special observance was planned for tomorrow at the white archway spanning the hulk of the sunken battleship USS Arizona in Pearl Harbor.

KILLED IN ATTACK

The archway commemorates the 1,102 men entombed in the ship when it was sunk Dec. 7, 1941, and honors all other men killed in the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor that morning.

★ ★ ★

An expected 50,000 persons were expected to file through cross-crowded Arlington Cemetery to visit the grave of the late President John F. Kennedy and the Tomb of the Unknowns.

Greater U.N. Role Eyed for SE Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials are reported seriously considering the possibility of the United Nations undertaking a larger role in war-torn Southeast Asia than has so far been suggested.

This is one of the lines of action expected to be discussed when American policy-makers meet in Honolulu Monday and Tuesday to work out recommendations for President Johnson.

After studying the recommendations, Johnson may make some initial decisions on the U.S. course of action.

With the Communist offensive in Laos apparently slowed down, the air of urgency over the Southeast Asian situation has eased.

The Honolulu conference will take a long-range look at the problems of trying to secure peace and stability in Laos, Viet Nam and Cambodia, as well as discuss the immediate problems arising out of the Communist offensives.

Expanded military action by the United States is another of the possible courses to be considered. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said in a speech a week ago that, if Communist aggression continued, the result could be "to expand the war."

Johnson announced the Honolulu meeting yesterday, saying the purpose of the cabinet-level talks would be "to review the situation in the entire area" of Southeast Asia.

Officials said the talks would be secret, and that recommendations would be reported only to the President.

Secretary Rusk, after attending Prime Minister Nehru's funeral in India, is scheduled to visit Bangkok, Thailand, and Saigon, South Viet Nam, this weekend on his way to Honolulu.

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson and Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada conferred for half an hour last night in New York. It was believed the principle topic discussed was Communist inroads in Southeast Asia.

LBJ Wooing Catholic Vote?

Elly Says He Asked for University Degree

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)— Elly M. Peterson, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, says President Johnson has asked a Roman Catholic University in the East to award him an honorary degree to help him win favor with Catholic voters.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Peterson did not name the university when she made the statement here yesterday during a speech to the Fairfield County Republican Women's Clubs association. She refused to identify it when questioned in Washington later.

Holy Cross College, a Catholic institution at Worcester, Mass., announced on April 14 that Johnson would speak and receive an honorary degree at the college's commencement on June 10.

A spokesman for Holy Cross told the New York Times last night that "to my knowledge, President Johnson never called us."

★ ★ ★

He said, the Times reported, that the charge sounded like "partisan politics — somebody with an axe to grind."

IN NEW YORK

In New York City, where the President, a Protestant, was making a series of speeches at Democratic rallies last night, White House press secretary George Reedy said it was the first he had heard of the matter.

"Who made the charge?" Reedy asked. "A Republican? Well, let's leave it at that."

Mrs. Peterson said in her speech:

★ ★ ★

"As I understand it, Lyndon O. Johnson picked up one of his ever-present telephones, placed a call to a well-known Catholic university in the East, and personally 'requested' that they give him an honorary degree in this election year—doubtless as insurance that he will stand high with Catholic voters even if he manages to dump (Atty. Gen.) Bobby Kennedy."

Sun Will Dart In, Out Among Clouds

The sun will dart in and out among the clouds when Pontiac area residents mark Memorial Day with a 10 a.m. parade and services honoring the nation's fallen heroes of past wars and those serving today in the Armed Forces.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts fair and cool with a low of 36 to 42 tonight.

Temperatures will be warmer tomorrow with the high climbing to around 70.

A low of 40 was recorded in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. The mercury stood at 60 at 1 p.m.

Urges Senate Committee

'Strengthen Anti-Castro Units'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate committee urged today that anti-Castro exile organizations' ties in Cuba be encouraged and strengthened "to maintain and broaden the fire of disaffection and eventual revolt."

★ ★ ★

"Castro and communism must be expelled from Cuba," asserted a report by a Judiciary subcommittee. "They will be buried the deepest, if buried by Cubans — on the island and in exile."

In issuing the report, Chairman Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said recent events indicate anti-Castro operations are entering a new phase and "the time has come for a meaningful infiltration of Cuba, and concerted effort to topple the regime."

The report took issue with congressional advocates of a U.S.-Supported Cuban government-in-exile.

★ ★ ★

But it advocated finding a of an organization which "could authoritatively address governments, international bodies and public opinion, in the cause of formula for unity among Cuban exile groups looking to creation Cuban freedom."

★ ★ ★

Although subcommittee member Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., concurred in the report generally, he said he disagreed particularly with the suggestion that U.S. policy toward Cuba is well-defined and clearly articulated.

★ ★ ★

"To include in this report a summarization of Cuban policy in the form of a blanket assertion of net progress is ill-advised and uncalled for," Scott said in a statement.

"Our policy as to Cuba, in fact, is ill-defined, fumbling, and certainly not clearly articulated."

The subcommittee said the "generally widening gulf" between the exiles and elements combatting the Castro regime within Cuba "is a disturbing, but perhaps inevitable aspect of political development within the refugee community."

★ ★ ★

"Responsible ties, however, do exist," the report added; some exile organizations do command loyalties within Cuba."

★ ★ ★

The report called for changes in the immigration laws to provide for the annual admission of "a reasonable number" of refugees from all over the world as "a true reflection of all America's concern for the homeless and oppressed."

Vans Cited in GMTC Boom

Manufacturing of van - type delivery trucks established last fall has resulted in addition of over 1,000 MC Truck & Coach employes, Calvin Werner, GMTC general manager, said yesterday.

Werner, speaking to Pontiac Rotarians at a luncheon at the GMTC administration building, described business as "booming here at GMC T & C."

Werner, also a General Motors Corp. vice president, told Rotarians that the truck and coach division is off to the best sales start in over a decade of truck and bus building in Pontiac.

"Domestic retail deliveries through May 20 were up 17 per cent over the comparable period a year ago," Werner said.

Translated into unit volume, Werner said, this amounted to 41,500 trucks and buses for the first 4½ months of the year.

100,000 PLUS

"This fast sales pace leads us to expect a 100,000 - plus truck and bus year for the first time since 1951," he said.

Werner predicted a continuation of the brisk truck and bus sales pace.

"What's more," he said, "growth factors point to continued progress by the automotive industry as a whole."

★ ★ ★

The ability to offer the buyer a wide range of products was cited by Werner as one of the most important contributory factors in increased truck sales.

"This has been our goal at GMC T&C, and with the introduction of the new line of light delivery vans, we have attained it," he said.

He pointed out that the fall of 1962, the decision was made to assemble all of General Motors integral van - type delivery trucks in Pontiac.

He explained that a former warehouse area was converted into a truck assembly plant which he called the most modern delivery van assembly plant in the industry.

★ ★

The assembly operation covers approximately 315,000 square feet and produces over 200 units a day.

To Ease Traffic Jam

Drain Portion Finished

The Clinton River flowed serenely through a new concrete river bed for the first time this week, clearing the way for work that will ease some not-so-serene traffic congestion on South Saginaw.

City Engineer Joseph E. Neipling said today that the first portion of new Clinton River Drain construction to be utilized is the big, double-box culvert under Perimeter Road right-of-way near East Huron.

"The river enters the big culvert almost directly north of the Secretary of State branch office on East Huron and flows through to the outlet just east of Union," Neipling said.

"It's a significant step," he noted, "because Oak Construction Company now can complete paving the Perimeter Road section over the river from East Huron up to Mount Clemens.

★ ★ ★

"With that done, and some minor construction such as curbing completed south of East Huron, the road can be opened from South Saginaw around to West Huron."

FINISHED IN JULY

Rough estimates are that the work will be done sometime in July. The loop highway has been open from Mount Clemens around the top of the central business district to West Huron since last fall.

★ ★ ★

The leg running from South Saginaw to Mount Clemens has been closed, although portions have been used temporarily to detour traffic around other construction sites.

Construction on perimeter road approaches and turnarounds has limited two-way traffic to only one side of South Saginaw, from about Franklin Road north to Whittemore, for more than a month.

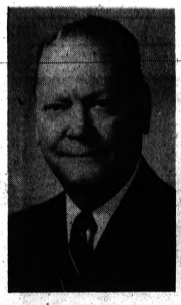
With the opening of the Saginaw-Mount Clemens leg of the loop highway, all northbound Saginaw traffic at that point will be routed onto the perimeter road, Neipling explained.

★ ★ ★

"Saginaw, from Whittemore south to Franklin will be one-way southbound, easing the rush hour traffic jams there," he said.

★ ★ ★

Work on the final phase of the Perimeter Road (Cass extended south from West Huron to South Saginaw) is slated for completion this fall.



RICHARD C. WOODHOUSE

N. F. TROST

Truck Sales Chief Gets New GM Post

Appointment of Richard C. Woodhouse to the newly created position of general sales manager for GMC Truck & Coach Division was announced today.

Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division, said that Woodhouse will direct all truck and coach sales activities.

Woodhouse previously headed the truck sales operations.

Also promoted in the division was N. F. Trost, 5550 Brookdale, Bloomfield Township, formerly truck service manager. He will report to Woodhouse as general parts and service manager.

★ ★ ★

Trost will be responsible for product service, national parts warehousing and sales distribution.

★ ★ ★

Woodhouse of 4230 Orchard Way, Bloomfield Township, brings experience in sales to his new post. He joined General Motors in 1924 with AC Spark Plug Division, Flint, and later served as a statistician with Cadillac Motor Car Division from 1925-27.

SALES MANAGER

In 1930, Woodhouse was named regional sales promotion manager of Yellow Truck and Coach Manufacturing Co., a predecessor of GMC Truck & Coach.

He later served as western sales promotion manager, sales promotion representative in the central region, retail sales manager at Buffalo and sales promotion manager in Pontiac.

In 1942, Woodhouse assumed added responsibilities as manager of parts and service merchandising. Three years, later he was promoted to regional sales manager in Dallas, serving until 1949 when advanced to assistant general truck sales manager.

He was promoted to general truck sales manager in 1952.

Trost joined GMC in 1961 as assistant director of reliability. He was named truck service manager last year.

Prior to coming here, Trost was general manager of a west coast aircraft supplier plant. Prior to that, he spent 15 years with Allison Division of General Motors at Dayton, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

He served in Ohio as production engineering manager, assistant sales manager, sales manager and manager of inspection and quality control.

Airline Review Will Be Sought

City Chamber Unit Set to Petition CAB

Max Adams, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, today said the chamber's aviation committee would petition the Civic Aeronautics Board (CAB) to review need for airline service here.

A CAB examiner recommended Wednesday that North Central Airlines (NCA) be allowed to delete Pontiac and two other Michigan cities from its route due to low patronage.

The aviation committee has been fighting such a move.

★ ★ ★

"We've gone through two years of hearings," Adams said, "and we still feel there are things involved other than patronage of NCA flights."

ASKED HEARING

Adams noted that the local committee had asked to be allowed to present its case to the CAB, but was not given that chance.

"We will again ask for an oral hearing before the board, before the recommendation can be put into effect.

"The airline service is no good to us as it is," Adams agreed. "What we need are direct flights to Chicago and Cleveland and we have statistics to show local business interests would support such flights."

★ ★ ★

The examiner's recommendation will become effective in 30 days (June 26) unless a petition is filed requesting a review. The petition must be filed by June 21.

TRANSFER FLIGHTS

In answer to similar requests for service to Cleveland and Chicago, NCA initiated morning and evening flights in the summer of 1961 to and from Detroit, where passengers could transfer to Cleveland and Chicago flights.

The flights averaged about one passenger per day outbound from Pontiac over a three-month period and were discontinued.

UF Committee on Budget Discusses Fund Requests

More than 60 members of the budget steering committee of the Pontiac Area United Fund met last night at the Waldron Hotel to discuss responsibilities involved in analyzing budget requests of some 21 local agencies.

★ ★ ★

Henry D. Price, chairman of the budget committee, challenged committee members to equate the needs of the community for agency services with the funds that will be available.

The 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund goal will be set in August following further review by the budget committee and the United Fund's board of trustees.

Last year's requests totaled more than $974,000. Minimum budget needs were set at $817,975.

★ ★ ★

Charles Brown, division manager for Consumers Power Company and 1964 industrial division chairman of the UF, said last night that the outlook for the fall fund drive seemed bright.

HIGH EMPLOYMENT

Brown based his optimism on present high employment and prospects for continued growth of the area.

He cautioned, however, that "we must at all times adjust our sights to the community's ability to support increasing requests for services."

Fred Haggard, president of the AFL-CIO Oakland County Council and a member of the UF's board of trustees, spoke on, "The Responsibility of the UF to the Community."

Heading the eight individual panels comprising the budget committee members are James Howlett, D. B. Eames, Wright Cotton, Andrew J. Wilson, Lowell Eklund, Dr. John Marra, Harold Goldberg and Theodore Wiersema.

HEARINGS MONDAY

Hearings on budget requests from various organizations will begin Monday and continue through June 25.

The public is invited to attend all hearings slated for 7 and 9 p.m. at the Community Services Building, 132 Franklin Blvd.

Last night's dinner was sponsored by Buckner Finance, Home and Auto Loan and Oakland Loan Companies.

Contract Talks at Hillsdale Plant Started Again and smashed its windows with rocks after police arrested three persons at the picket line at the plant.

It was the latest violent incident in a series which began when the International Union of Electrical Workers called 180 members out of the Essex plant Feb. 28 demanding a contract.

Romney said his emergency order, which brought 230 guardsmen to Hillsdale, would remain in effect "until we can be certain the purpose for which it was intended are accomplished."

★ ★ ★

Walter Probst, Essex president, charged the governor exceeded his authority in shutting down the Essex plant.

LEGAL ACTION

"If we are not allowed to resume operations next week we will take legal action to reaffirm the American constitutional right to engage peacefully in lawful occupation," Probst said.

Romney's emergency order bars "picketing, demonstrations or public assemblage."

In Washington, the union's national president, James B. Carey pledged Romney "the complete cooperation of the IUE" in restoring law and order.

★ ★ ★

Carey said the union last March urged the company "to halt any efforts to resume production and instead join us in good faith bargaining."

READY TO MEET

He said the "IUE is prepared to sit down at the bargaining table on an around-the-clock basis until . . . an agreement can be reached."

Romney said the reason for declaration of a "public emergency" was an apparent break down in local law enforcement in Hillsdale.

Millage Split Set for County

Tax Allocation Board Divides Year's Funds

The Oakland County Tax Allocation Board yesterday set final rates for splitting the 15-mill county tax levy this year among schools, townships and county government.

Each mill is worth $1 in taxes for every $1,000 of the total $2.3-billion equalized valuation placed on property in the county.

By unanimous vote, the six-member board allocated 5.26 mills for county government, .11 mills for Oakland Schools (special education), and 9.63 mills for 30 school districts, less allocations to townships where they apply in the districts.

The final rates give county government .07 mills more and school districts .07 mills less than they received last year.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-two townships were given the same allocation they received last year. Amounts varied from 1 to 1.38 mills.

MORE DOLLARS

All participating units will receive more actual tax dollars than they got in 1963 because of a $108-million increase in the county's equalized valuation due mainly to new construction.

County government will get some $12.4 million in taxes this year toward next year's budget, for an increase of about $1 million.

The county had sought 5.9 mills toward a total proposed budget of $18.4 million, the difference to be financed by receipts paid for county services.

★ ★ ★

About $1.25 million will have to be pared from the proposed budget to keep it within expected revenues. The county's budget for the current year is $16 million.

OWN RECOMMENDATION

In setting the rates, allocation board members accepted their own recommendation Tuesday while acting as a committee. As a committee, they voted 4-2 to make the recommendation.

'Cosmonauts Have Photos of U.S. Bases'

PARIS (AP)—A former U.S. senator quoted Soviet Premier Khrushchev today as saying Soviet spacemen have taken photographs of U.S. military installations and he assumes U.S. spacemen do the same when they pass over Soviet military installations.

William Benton, former Democratic senator from Connecticut, said Khrushchev offered to display them to President Johnson "if he wishes."

★ ★ ★

And, said Benton, the Soviet leader jokingly suggested that the United States and the Soviet Union might exchange such photos.

Benton said Khrushchev was apparently suggesting that the United States obtain aerial inspection of Cuba from outer space and thus avoid any new crisis in the Caribbean.

Benton talked to Khrushchev yesterday in the Kremlin.

GMC emblem and others are supplied to Chevrolet, Werner said. The vans are very similar but not identical, according to Werner's description.

Werner said employment at the division stands at 12,885, including more than 1,000 persons added as a direct result of the van operation.

The employment total, he said, is one of the highest figures in the history of the division.

★ ★ ★

"Fortunately, these new jobs more than compensate for the tragic loss of Baldwin Rubber," he said.

CONSTANT CONCERN

The experience of the rubber company's closing suggests that a community must always be as concerned about providing a favorable environment for the well-being and growth potential of its existing industries as it is in romancing outsiders, Werner said.

Last November, the first 211-cubic-foot cargo space vans rolled off the assembly but it wasn't until January that the plant was in full production.

Since that time, we have produced more than 19,000 units, Werner said.

★ ★ ★

He added that it was against policy to specify what this represents in dollar volume, but he said, "I assure you the aggregate sum can't be wirtten in less than eight digits."

DOMESTIC SALES

Werner said that the division's domestic truck sales are well ahead of the industry as a whole.

"For the year to date, our sales are 18.9 per cent ahead of 1963, while the industry is up 16.9 per cent.

Werner said GMTC is currently a strong number one in coach production and a solid number 4 in trucks.

★ ★ ★

"As a result of this, we can all stand a little taller," he said.

Werner was introduced by Pontiac Press Editor John W. Fitzgerald.

Following the luncheon, Rotarians and guests toured the plant.

Wheel on Paris Plane Collapses; None Hurt

Believe Reds Aim for Rival Laos Rule

TOKYO (AP)—Communist propaganda attacks on neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma are believed to portend the setting up of a rival Laotian government in Red territory.

* * *

Unconfirmed reports, brought back by neutralist officers who served in Communist-held regions of Laos, say a former public health minister, Khamsouk Keola, a dissident neutralist recently fired for refusing to return to his post in Vientiane, has been picked to head a cabinet of dissident neutralists and Communist Pathet Lao members.

* * *

Should the Communists make such a move, they probably would claim their coalition represents the legal government set up by the 1962 Geneva agreements guaranteeing the neutrality of Laos.

According to the reports, the Communist-sponsored government would include four Pathet Lao and two neutralist cabinet members from Souvanna's original coalition. Both the neutralists have been dismissed and two of the Pathet Lao absentees have been temporarily replaced by the Vientiane regime.

DEPUTY PREMIER

Prince Souphanouvong, chief of the Pathet Lao, would be a deputy premier of the new government, as he is of Souvanna's coalition, according to the reports.

The Pathet Lao have not recognized the changes in Souvanna's regime. For the last week they have been insisting that since he joined forces with the rightists, he lost his right to be premier.

* * *

On May 24, Prince Souphanouvong charged that Souvanna had wrecked the coalition.

On May 2, the Pathet Lao radio an unusual quoted by Radio Peking — said Souvanna Phouma "transformed the government into a pro-U.S. tool."

SEEKING AID

This attack was prompted by the premier's disclosure that he was seeking foreign military aid to resist the Pathet Lao attacks on neutralist positions.

Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai challenged Souvanna's actions in a message to British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, who had appealed to Peking to help stop the Pathet Lao drive.

If Souvanna Phouma "becomes the leader of the rightist group, which is alleged to have incorporated both the neutralist and rightist groups, he will completely forfeit his political standing," Chou replied.

Milk and bread bids were awarded last night by the Pontiac School Board.

Total value of the contracts was estimated at $75,000 and $18,000 respectively.

The milk contract went to two local firms, Nye Dairy, 585 Oakland, and Maple Leaf Dairy Co., 26 E. Howard, who submitted a combined bid.

School officials said the combined bid was allowed because the contract was too large to be handled by any one firm.

The Nye-Maple Leaf bid was $.0515 for the half pint of milk, which is the schools' biggest item. This price is the same being paid this year to the two dairy companies.

REMAIN SAME

Prices on other dairy products also will remain the same as this year under the new contract.

Only one other firm submitted a bid.

In other business last night, the school board passed on a tentative reorganization of the vocational education department.

Slated to be adopted for the 1964-65 school year, the plan would call for two additional teaching personnel and two additional secretaries at a total cost of $20,000.

However, school officials expect a "substantial" portion of the increased costs to be reimbursed by state and federal monies.

The school board also approved a series of personnel changes. Included was the creation of a department head for the orthopedic unit at Mark Twain Elementary School.

DUTIES OF TEACHER

The position, which will be added as the duties of a teacher, will go to someone already in the school district, according to schoolmen.

The position carries with it a $200 raise in pay.

Changes in the length of contracts for seven helping teachers, an audio - visual specialist and the director of school health services were approved.

The director of health services, Miss Josephine Seeley, had her contract extended one week: This will allow her time to start work one week before school begins in the fall.

The helping teachers had their contracts extended two weeks by the board's action.

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer said that this would permit them to come in early in the fall to help set up a series of annual preschool workshops for new teachers.

The workshops are presented each fall as in-service education for new teachers.

From egg to extinction, a broiling chicken's average lifetime is nine weeks.
