Pontiac Passes New Ordinance on Milk Sales

Commission Heads Off 'Outside' Firms, OKs License Fee Plan

Pontiac city commissioners avoided a court fight over the city's contested milk ordinance by hours last night, when they passed a new one "with a little more legal teeth in it."

This was to the liking of about 85 Pontiac dairy workers and officials who sat patiently in City Commission chambers as officials were torn between which of two alternate ordinances they favored.

The workers, members of United Dairy Workers Local 183, AFL-CIO, were lobbying for any ordinance which would assure them economic protection from about four Detroit dairies reportedly interested in selling milk in Pontiac.

The old law kept Detroit dairies out because it required all milk sold in Pontiac to be pasteurized here. The newly-adopted law might make it prohibitive for them to sell here, due to the high licensing and inspection fees they would have to pay for their thousands of farms.

Commissioner William W. Donaldson looked at this "protection" in another way. "Our main concern with this type of ordinance is the health and welfare of the public, and not to stifle competition," he said in being the only commissioner to vote against the new ordinance.

Actually, the new 20-page ordinance, which takes effect immediately, will do both.

Commissioners moved fast to get it on the books as the city today is to show cause in Wayne County Circuit Court why the court shouldn't issue an injunction restraining the city from enforcing its existing 1920 ordinance.

Starting Funds for Bradley Crew Families

CHARLEVOIX (AP)—The Charlevoix Junior Chamber of Commerce today opened a Christmas disaster fund for widows and families of crewmen lost in the Carl D. Bradley sinking.

Tom Simons, chamber president, said the group was accepting donations to the fund through Post Office Box 145 at Charlevoix. All contributions will go directly to the bereft families with the chamber assuming cost of forwarding, he said.

A similar fund was started Wednesday by Grand Rapids businessman Herbert E. Trapp who sent $100 to the Rogers City disaster fund. Trapp was a boyhood schoolmate of some of the drowned crewmen.

Search Goes On for Lost Sailors

Mayor at Rogers City Proclaims Saturday as Official Mourning Day

By The Associated Press

CHARLEVOIX (AP) — An almost hopeless search for other survivors of the ill-fated Carl D. Bradley went on today as plans were completed to honor the ship's 33 crewmen who presumably perished in the Lake Michigan shipping disaster.

Coast Guardsmen aided by State Police and volunteers planned another sweep of northern lake islands for possible survivors and bodies of seamen who perished in the tragic sinking Tuesday night.

Also sought was additional equipment from the Bradley which might offer clues as to what happened to the 615-ft. limestone carrier which broke up and sank in a violent storm.

Official hope of finding further survivors was all but gone at Coast Guard headquarters here.

"Weather conditions are against us," said C. W. O. Joseph Etienne, commander of the Charlevoix Coast Guard group, "But the service always feels there is a slight pos-

Life Sentence Fixed by Jury for Girl, 15

From Our News Wires

LINCOLN, Neb.—A jury today found Caril Ann Fugate guilty of first-degree murder for helping Charles Starkweather on a killing rampage last January. The jury fixed life imprisonment as the punishment.

Starkweather, 19, was convicted on identical charges last May and drew a death sentence.

The jury verdict against Starkweather's 15-year-old ex-sweetheart was delivered at 11:10 a.m. The trial began nearly four weeks ago.

Caril was charged with aiding and abetting Starkweather in one of 11 killings attributed to him.

By its verdict, the jury of seven men and five women tabbed Caril a helpful companion to Starkweather.

Rejected was Caril's plea she was forced into her role by fears for her own life and threats of harm to her family.

Caril's fate was announced to newsmen jammed in a hallway outside the courtroom, moments after the solemn-faced jurors filed back into the courtroom following more than a day of deliberation.

As Bailiff Bill Paulson read the verdict to reporters, it was read simultaneously inside the cortroom by the jury foreman.

Under Nebraska law, the jury's life sentence is binding upon the court.

Caril specifically was convicted of aiding and abetting mass slayer Charles Starkweather — her red-haired boyfriend — in the murder of Robert Jensen, 17, Bennet, Neb., last Jan. 27.

SENTENCED TO DIE

Starkweather was convicted of the Jensen murder May 23 and sentenced to death in the electric chair. He now is awaiting an appeal to the Nebraska Supreme Court.

The jurors found Caril guilty on both counts of an information filed against the 91-pound Lincoln school girl. They were that she helped in the slaying of Jensen and that she aided and abetted in the robbery of Jensen.

Caril buried her face on the shoulder of defense attorney Merril Reller and wept convulsively as the verdict was read in the tense atmosphere of the courtroom.

Barge Fire Threatens Ohio Dam

GOLCONDA, Ill. (AP)—A terrific explosion and spectacular fire swept three loaded gasoline barges on the Ohio River Thursday, causing possibly one death and creating a night of suspense at a government dam.

A last minute shift in the wind saved the dam, Lockmaster John Cummings said. He had feared the floating infernos would ram the structure.

One barge floated over the dam after its gates were lowered. A second rammed a concrete abutment on the Kentucky side and burned. The third stuck on a sandy island and burned.

George Lowry of the towboat Barbara Lee was missing. Three others in the crew were treated for mild burns.

Apparently little damage was done to the dam and locks. The loss of the three barges and 48,000 barrels of gasoline was estimated at $300,000.

The blast erupted shortly after 5 p.m. at Carrsville, Ky., across the river from Rosiclare. After the flash and wave of searing heat, Lowry was reported missing. Search parties combed both sides of the river for him.

Curious spectators lined the shore for miles.

Offer West Berliners Partial Freedom Pact

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany signed an agreement today assuring West German civilian traffic freedom of movement in and out of West Berlin, authoritative sources said.

The reported agreement, at the height of a new crisis over the isolated old German capital has no effect, however, on the explosive question of control of Western Allies supply lines to the divided city.

Rather, it appeared to be an assurance to the 2,200,000 West Berliners that they will not be affected when and if the Soviet Union pulls out of the four-power occupation agreement and turns control of Allied supply lines over to Communist East Germany.

A West Berlin official said the agreement "is a positive sign of relief of tension."

The bulk of West Berlin's supplies moves from West Germany over a 110-mile highway-rail link and a network of canals.

Western military traffic uses these same lifelines. However, it is checked through Soviet controls as agreed under postwar four-power agreements.

The United States, France and Britain do not recognize East Germany and refuse to have any dealings with its regime.

In the 1948-49 blockade, the Soviet Union not only stopped military traffic but civilian as well. This created the need for the airlift.

Under present circumstances, an airlift would be designed to support only the 10,000 Allied fighting men plus Western civilian officials and their families.

Sources said the East-West German agreement also provided for an exchange of West German steel for East German soft coal, mainly for the supply of Berlin.

The West Germans have always felt they hold a trump card with the East Germans in the Berlin dispute because of the interzonal trade issue.

East Germany is anxious to continue interzonal trade in order to help fulfill its ambitious economic plans.

Trade talks between East and West Germany were carried on a semiofficial basis in Berlin. As before, they were regarded as being of a technical nature, which did not involve Bonn recognition of East Germany.

The agreement on access to Berlin would not interfere, however, with any Communist plan to close the border between East and West Berlin. West Berlin officials freely predicted this will be the next East German move.

By this action the East Germans could cut off free travel without passports between the two sectors of the city to close an escape hatch through which more than a million East Germans have fled to the West.

However, it would not hamper the normal flow of trade through regular customs in the same way

Within $19,000 of Goal —Pontiac Drive Closes Next Tuesday

The Tenth Anniversary Appeal of the Pontiac Area United Fund today moved to within $19,000 of its goal, with contributions totaling $482,000.

Additional pledges, coming primarily from the Industrial Division, boosted the campaign to 96 per cent of its $501,000 goal.

Philip J. Monaghan, campaign chairman, expressed complete satisfaction with the progress of the Industrial Division, chairmanned by Semon E. Knudsen and the Women's Division under the direction of Mrs. Donald E. White.

"The Commercial Division has the biggest job to do between now and next Tuesday. However, I'm sure not a one of the Division's solicitors will rest easy until they have surpassed their quota," stated Monaghan.

Next Tuesday's final Report Luncheon will bring down the curtain on this year's drive which is raising funds to support the UF's 55 community service agencies.

The Industrial Division continues to collect the lion's share of the necessary funds needed to finance the agencies' operations through 1959. The more than 1,700 supervisors and other United Fund workers under Knudsen have raised $297,766 with additional funds still coming in.

Both corporate gifts and individual pledges have been raised over last year, according to Knudsen.

Firm gifts from the nine plants included in the Pontiac Manufacturers Assn. total $124,959.64. This represents an increase of more than $2,000 over last year's corporate gifts.

The average employe contribution has hit a new high of $12.02 or an increase of $1.26 over 1957.

The Commercial Division, co-chairmanned by Judge Clark J. Adams and Berkeley Voss, has recorded $158,486 or 88.4 per cent of its $179,371 quota at campaign headquarters.

The Women's Division is now up to $25,747.57 or 123.8 per cent of its $20,790 goal.

Crack Shot Fells Prize

Police Hunt 'Deer' Slayer

Pontiac State Police and conservation officers are looking for a crack-shot deer hunter today who has a first rate "hard luck story" he'll never be able to tell.

According to Police reports, the dismayed "deer slayer" was apparently engaging in the illegal practice of "shining deer", using a light to attract and hold the deer's attention, at night.

Palmer Bundy, owner of a farm at 12645 Rattalee Lake Rd., Springfield Township, told officers that someone in the area had been using the illegal method to kill deer on his property.

Police reported that the unknown hunter succeeded in making a "kill" last night, expertly dropping his prey with a single shot squarely between the eyes.

Unfortunately, his "prize" was a 3-year-old short horned Durham cow, valued at $350.

Pontiac General Budget Outlined for Next Year

Net operating losses of $45,420 are predicted next year in a deficit budget of $3,217,150, proposed to the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night.

Allowing for no new wage increases and forecasting additional revenues from a new operation in the east wing, the budget will be considered at a special meeting Dec. 4.

Failure to complete the expansion program was the explanation behind expectation of financial losses for the third straight year.

Though labor negotiations are not yet completed, it was announced that the union had withdrawn a demand for $90,775 in across-the-board wages, or an average $125 per year per employe.

Instead, the union is to be offered $22,292 in vacation, sick-leave and bonus benefits, it was decided.

Only the fringe benefits and the step-raises already in effect were included in the budget, prepared by the hospital's administration and recommended by the board's finance committee.

Thirty-two beds have been placed in operation in the east wing and it was estimated they will bring in an $87,970 profit next year, trimming an anticipated loss of $133,390 in the new addition.

Located on the third and fourth floors mostly for convalescing patients, the additional beds are expected to be occupied 70 per cent of the time, providing some relief from the financial snarl the hospital has been in since the building program began more than two years ago.

While the new, 226-bed addition is completed and in operation, remodeling of the original building — now known as the east wing — has been stalled because of unexpected repair costs.

Not designed to be financially successful without the 144 revenue-producing beds projected for the remodeled east wing, the addition is now operating with 232 beds,

Commission OKs Pontiac General for Three Years

Placed on one-year probation a year ago, Pontiac General Hospital has been given full approval by the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals for the normal, three-year period, it was announced last night.

Approval means that the hospital's standards of patient care meet the high requirements of the Joint Commission, said Dr. John D. Marra, medical director of the hospital. It also means that the hospital is approved for intern training, he said.

The action recalled the long controversy between the hospital and Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger, who was ousted from its medical staff in August for personal misconduct.

Dr. Marra, former chief of the medical staff who led the fight against Dr. Sullenberger, believed that the Pontiac surgeon's dismissal was "a big factor" in the hospital's reinstatement with the commission. Dr. Sullenberger has denied that the probation had anything to do with him.

Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator, felt that completion of the hospital's new addition was taken into consideration by the joint commission.

Dr. Marra said that the commission made only "minor recommendations" for the improvement of the hospital's service.

Royal Oak Boy, 8, Crushed to Death

Playing after school with his brother and a chum, Rudd Lance, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Lance, 4403 Seminole St., Royal Oak, was crushed to death yesterday afternoon when the family's oil tank fell on him.

He was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital. His skull had been fractured.

The tank, next to the garage, had been filled with 200 gallons of oil only two hours before.

The boys were playing tag, and Rudd had dived under the tank. When his playmate jumped from the top of it, the leg gave way and the heavy drum fell.

Aw Gee, Boys, He Was Just Being Friendly

WAKAYAMA, Japan (UPI) — Fisherman, Ryotaro Okado, 39, dined today on bear steak, but it was touch and go for a while.

Okado went fishing alone in the middle of Bear Bay.

A 245-pound black bear had the same idea. He might have been lonesome for he climbed into Okado's boat.

Okado climbed out and began swimming for the shore.

The bear followed.

Then three other fishermen raced to the rescue waving oars. The bear climbed into their boat. They climbed out and began swimming for the shore.

The bear followed.

They scrambled ashore and ran into reinforcements of 50 other fishermen armed with harpoons.

There was bear steak for all today.

TO BE DEDICATED SUNDAY — Built of Indiana limestone in shades of buff, light gray and romona red, the new Kirk in the Hills, 1340 West Long Lake Rd. will be dedicated at three services Sunday. Following the death of Wirt C. Rowland, original architect, the Detroit firm of George D. Mason & Co. was engaged to continue the work. O. W. Burke & Co. of Detroit were the builders.

New Kirk-in-the-Hills to Be Dedicated Sunday

Kirk-In-The-Hills, a new Gothic church which closely resembles the classic architecture of Melrose Abbey in Scotland, will be dedicated Sunday.

Dr. Harold C. DeWindt, minister of the Kirk, will preach on "Now—to Build Men" at the extra service at 8 a.m. as well as the 9:30 and 11:15 morning services.

Built among rolling hills and gardens, the church is the fulfillment of a dream that began many years ago in the mind of the founder, the late Colonel Edwin S. George.

The 40-acre country estate including his palatial home, Cedarholm, on West Long Lake road were given to the Detroit Presbytery and accepted in the fall of 1947. Construction of the church was started in 1948.

Rising to a height of 168 feet, the Tower of the Apostles links the church to the cloister and the Kirk house, the former George home is now used for Sunday School and meetings.

The cloister with its seven bay windows, a replica of the Melrose Abbey cloister, contains medallions of men and women who have made outstanding contributions to the world.

The interior walls of the sanctuary are of white stone. The carved black walnut pews for 650 persons are cushioned in cherry red velvet. The beams are dark oak.

A stone dated 1246 A. D. from the original Melrose Abbey is set in a column next to the entrance to the side aisle of the west transept.

A 61-bell carillon, the gift of one of the church officers, is expected to be installed in the church tower in about a year. The bells will weigh 38 tons and will range in size from the great seven ton bell to the smallest one weighing near 25 pounds.

deathly still room. Reller patted her shoulder comfortingly as the grim jurors heard their verdict read by a court aide.

Caril's weeping could be heard above the judge's voice as he thanked the jury for its patient and thoughtful consideration of the case. She managed to raise her crimson face to look in apparent reproach at the jury box. But no juror looked at her.

County Attorney Elmer Scheele, who handled the prosecution, had to be summoned to the courthouse from his home before the jury filed out after signalling it had its verdict. The empty courtroom quickly filled with spectators as the word spread.

Caril's father, William Fugate, her sister, Barbara Von Busch, her grandmother, Pansy Street, and an aunt, Mrs. Leola Campbell, filed into the courtroom and sat in the first row, immediately behind the table where Caril was to sit.

Then Caril was led in, walking more slowly than she normally had throughout the trial.

Reller, who had sat immediately in front of her during the trial, moved his chair back to sit beside her. She held fast to his hand as they awaited the reading of the verdict.

sibility that some men may be found alive."

Only two men, Frank Mays and Elmer Fleming, both of Rogers City, apparently survived the storm-churned waves which broke the freighter in two about 45 miles west of here in 330 feet of water.

Mass funeral services and an official day of morning have been announced at Rogers City, hometown for 31 of the 33 crew members believed lost in the sinking.

Eighteen bodies have been recovered.

At Rogers City, some 90 miles across the tip of the Lower Peninsula, Mayor Kenneth P. Vogelheim proclaimed Saturday an official day of mourning. Eleven of the 18 sailors whose bodies were recovered Wednesday will receive a mass funeral Saturday in St. Ignatius Roman Catholic Church.

Funeral services also will be held at St. Johns Lutheran Church for at least two other victims, Vogelheim said.

The mayor's proclamation said every Nov. 18 hereafter "shall be dedicated in Rogers City to our loved ones who on that date lost their lives."

Even with its six added beds, the addition is expected to take in only $3,083,760 next year if it is occupied 87.7 per cent of the time, the average on which the budget estimates were based.

Not figured in the budget was an estimated $156,000 in depreciation of the hospital's physical plant and equipment next year.

The only source of discussion last night was provision for $1,750 in raises for three top administrative employes.

Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator, argued that the salaried personnel in question deserved "consideration for their excellent work," but Cecil J. Cosgrove, a trustee, contended that salaried employes shouldn't get raises if hourly employes didn't.

William P. Babcock, vice chairman of the board, reported that the union's offer to postpone wage negotiations until next June had been turned down.

"The hospital's financial position would still be as cloudy then as it is now," said Babcock, the board's chief negotiator.

Euler and James Clarkson, board chairman, observed that the proposed budget did not reflect an accurate picture of next year's finances.

"At best, it is only a hazardous guess," said Clarkson. "We haven't had much experience in the addition to base predictions on, and at the same time hope to open up more beds in the east wing."

Still a question mark is the future of the building program. Because of its shifting fortunes this year and the resultant financial fluctuations, the hospital failed to adopt a budget for approval by the City Commission, although seven tentative budgets were readied.

Euler, Babcock and City Manager Walter K. Willman made a bid for financial help from the Detroit Area Hospital council yesterday, asking for a $300,000 grant to help finance the repairs.

The council's planning committee took the plea for aid under consideration, Euler reported.

The repairs involve replacement of worn out heating, lighting and plumbing installations in the east wing.

Euler reported that the hospital's day-to-day financial picture was continuing to brighten, with occupancy up to 90 per cent, financial losses for last month down to $5,300, the employe-patient ratio "well in line" at 2.35 per cent, and the average patient-day costs at $42.09, or "down a little."

Commission Passes New Milk Ordinance

A hoarse City Attorney William A. Ewart will go to the Detroit court today and inform the judge of the repeal of the old law, which, he said, should toss the Detroit dairy's case out of court.

Ewart's hoarseness stems from more than two hours of reading the two proposed laws up for consideration last night. Assistant City Manager Robert A. Siterer and City Clerk Ada R. Evans shared in the tedious task of reading through the 35 pages of both.

Besides the detailed description of how, for the safety of the public, milk in Pontiac must be handled, the other major section pertains to charges to be levied by the city for the initial inspection of milk plants, vehicles, personnel and producers' farms.

This license charge will be based on the distance from the Pontiac City Hall of the applicant's milk plant. If it is within five miles, the cost will be $75 for inspection of plant, personnel and vehicles, and $5 for inspection of each farm.

If the plant is located outside the five-mile radius, which would include those dairies in Detroit, the charge is a little steeper. It will be $100 for plant inspection, and the same $5 for each producer's farm.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles, although he voted in favor of the new ordinance, said he did so "with a certain mental reservation."

"The city is placing these high licensing fees to circumvent the high court ruling which said any one can come in here and sell milk," Miles said.

Board Flashes Green Light

2 Junior High Additions Ok'd

School construction matters were the major items before the Pontiac Board of Education last night, with the board giving the green light to additions to two junior high schools.

After reviewing plans with the architectural firm of H. E. Beyster & Associates, Inc., of Detroit, the Board ordered detailed drawings to be made for an addition to Madison Junior High School.

The new addition will contain 10 classrooms, a special education classroom, two science rooms, a typing classroom and an art room, in addition to other facilities.

Construction of the addition is scheduled for completion by September, 1960. Cost is estimated at $449,000.

Detailed drawings for the Washington Junior High addition were ordered by the board after reviewing preliminary plans with the firm of Eberle M. Smith Associates, Inc., of Detroit.

The addition to Washington will house a new cafeteria, instrumental music room, two art rooms, three classrooms, a science room, special education room, two vocal music rooms, in addition to other facilities. Cost is estimated at $493,345.

The Board authorized H. E. Beyster & Associates to draw up plans for an addition to Bagley School, but voted to delay the construction project because enrollment estimates by school officials were too high.

The firm was ordered to proceed with drawings for a stage at Bagley and to advertise for bids. Cost of the stage is estimated at $16,000.

The board questioned representatives of the firm on a maintenance problem involving wood used in school multi-purpose rooms.

Acknowledging the present finish on the wood is unsatisfactory, the firm reported that further studies are being made.

In other business, the board approved additional released time for kindergarten teachers who participate in scheduled parent conferences when necessary, not to exceed eight days per year.

A request by the Memorial Baptist Church to use facilities at Longfellow School through next June was granted.

The Day in Birmingham

Community Might Lose Its Ambulance Service

BIRMINGHAM — Local ambulance service in the Birmingham area may end unless Mike O'Hara can collect some $9,000 he said is owed to him.

Owner of the Birmingham Ambulance Service, 855 E. Maple Ave. said bills of $10-$15 each have accumulated over the past four years by persons who have used his ambulances.

Many have complained the fees are too high even though every call means a trip outside the city.

O'Hara opened his ambulance service here four years ago, three years after two funeral directors discontinued providing such facilities.

The expense of the vehicles, plus the number of unpaid bills, were the principal reasons they dropped their service the directors said.

During the three-year period without local ambulances, Birmingham residents had to depend on out-of-town firms. This often proved slow and uncertain, and resulted in several complaints to the Police Dept. by families of accident victims.

O'Hara, whose two ambulances answer police and fire department calls, receives about $400 a year from the city. To maintain the service the area needs, he said he has six persons on the payroll for 24-hour duty.

He said his rolling stock is valued at nearly $40,000.

"It is a difficult decision to make," O'Hara said. "But I can't operate without income. If these bills were paid I'd be in business again."

Members of Birmingham Student Council and Varsity Club each have voted $200 to the Scholarship Fund in memory of Harry Klimushyn Jr., 17-year-old Birmingham High School senior class president who died early this month from injuries received in a sandlot football game.

Mrs. Carol Darling, dean of students, said this morning $460 had been received from the youth's family, students and faculty members. She said the fund is expected to reach at least $1,000.

Gifts for college entrance fees will go to the most deserving six boys and girls graduated from Birmingham High School during the next three years.

The youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klimushyn, 31555 Eastlady Dr., Southfield Township, faculty members and student representatives, will name the recipients.

Fire damaged the home of William Follis, 1568 Ruffner St., early last evening when a hotplate being used as a vaporizer in the bedroom set fire to curtains and one wall.

Firemen said the liquid on the hotplate had boiled over, causing a flash fire. No one was injured.

Damage was estimated at about $50 by firemen.

Daniel E. Randall

Service for Daniel E. Randall, 66, of 1847 W. Farnum St., Royal Oak, a former Birmingham resident, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery.

Mr. Randall died unexpectedly yesterday at his home. He was a retired district manager for the Goodyear Rubber Co. and a member of St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham.

Surviving are his wife, Marion; two sons, Walter E. of Royal Oak, and Edward C. of Akron, Ohio. Two brothers and four grandchildren also survive.

Fire in Pontiac House Causes $750 Damage

A fire in a two-story frame home at 327 Ferry Ave. last night caused an estimated $750 damages, city firemen reported today.

The fire, confined to an upstairs bedroom, was reported due to careless smoking. The home is occupied by Charles Lewis.

Strike Fund Proposed

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey says he will recommend at the union's next convention that the UAW raise a strike fund of "at least $100 million."

In Hospital 42 Days, Kingfish Still Critical

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The condition of Tim (Kingfish) Moore still is critical, attendants at General Hospital reported Thursday.

Moore, a trouper 58 of his 70 years, rose to prominence when he began portraying the Kingfish in the "Amos 'n Andy" television series. Re-runs of the 79-film series are being shown in many cities across the nation.

Israel Increases Hotels

JERUSALEM — Accommodations for tourists in Israel's hotels, tourist cottages, hostels, and church hospices almost doubled in 1957, rising from 6,000 to 10,000.

Dry Campaign in Poland

WARSAW (UPI) — The Polish government next year will try to slake the nation's thirst with beer and soda pop instead of vodka. The government's drive to produce more beer and fruit drinks in 1959 will be coupled with an anti-alcohol campaign on radio and in the movies.

Fuel represents about 40 per cent of the cost of operating a tractor.

New State Officers Named

To Head Farm Bureau

Walter W. Wightman, Fennville fruit and beef cattle farmer, has been elected president, and Robert E. Smith of Fowlerville vice president of the Michigan Farm Bureau by the Board of Directors following the 39th annual meeting of the organization this week.

Wightman moved up from vice president. He succeeded Ward G. Hodge of Snover, who was elected president in 1954 and served four terms.

Four changes in the Farm Bureau's top management staff were announced by its board of directors:

J. F. Yaeger of East Lansing, who has served as executive secretary, treasurer, and general manager since 1952, announced his retirement from those posts and will continue as consultant on cooperative affairs.

In this position Yaeger will represent the Michigan Farm Bureau and associated companies to the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, American Institute of Cooperation, United Cooperatives, Cooperative League of the U.S.A. and other groups.

Earl E. Huntley of Charlotte was appointed acting executive secretary and general manager. Huntley is manager of Farmers Petroleum Cooperative, Inc., a Farm Bureau Service Company.

Norwood D. Eastman of East Lansing, was promoted from assistant secretary to secretary of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Leon S. Monroe of East Lansing was appointed treasurer. Monroe continues as comptroller for Michigan Farm Bureau and associated companies.

"Membership in Farm Bureau," said Yaeger, "has reached an all-time high of 72,000 farm families. They are served by Farm Bureau farm supplies, petroleum, automobile, fire and life insurance companies that did $30,000,000 of business this year."

Imlay City Pastor Takes Colorado Post

IMLAY CITY — The Rev. Paul A. Wittrig, who recently noted his 20th anniversary as pastor of the Bethany Mennonite Church here, has accepted the pastorate of the Beth-El Mennonite Church in Colorado Spring, Colo.

He will take over his new position Feb. 1.

Tourist Group Elects 14 From Oakland

Oakland County residents were elected to three offices and 14 directorships of the Southeastern Michigan Tourist & Publicity Association at the group's 33rd annual meeting.

The officers are: E. M. Shafter, Royal Oak city manager, vice president; Robert Emerick, Pontiac Motor Division, executive member and B. B. Kimball, Pontiac Motor Division, advisory council member.

The county directors elected to represent Oakland County were: Lloyd L. Anderson, member of the board of supervisors; John W. Anhut, Botsford Inn; Leonard N. Bassin, Holiday Motel; Mrs. J. E. Cosgrove, St. Christopher's Motel; Murray A. Cotter of Adrian Cotter, Inc. and Louis Dorman of Old Mill Tavern.

Others were: John W. Fitzgerald, Pontaic Press editor; David H. Gerhard, Consumers Power Co.; R. M. Greggs, Greggs Motel; Morton Graddis, Mt. Holly Ski Club; Howard Heldenbrand, Waldron Hotel; John W. Hirlinger, Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce; W. A. Laking, city Ferndale; and Mrs. Laura Turner of Devon Gables.

Americans today are nearing the Biblical age span of three score years and 10. The most recent life expectancy tables show a child today has an expectancy of about 69.9 years.

Oakland Township Tops Goal With $2,600

OAKLAND TOWNSHIP — More than $2,600 was collected in the Oakland Township Community Chest fund drive, topping the goal of $2,500, Wendall Kelley, chairman, announced.

A pep rally for campaign collectors, addressed by Philip Johnson, township community chest president, was cited by Kelley as one of the big factors in putting the drive over this fall.

'Cactus Jack' Garner Will Be 90 Tomorrow

"CACTUS JACK" GARNER, one of our most colorful Vice Presidents, will celebrate his 90th birthday tomorrow. Today, like any other day, JOHN NANCE GARNER is spending the time in his usual manner—just reading and living.

When he left the Vice Presidency 17 years ago and retired he vowed never to get mixed up in politics again. He has been true to his word and maintained strict silence on all elections and office seekers.

For a man who spent 30 years in the House of Representatives and ultimately was its speaker, plus two terms as Vice President, avoiding politics might appear odd.

GARNER'S life today is one of rest. When you are reminded that he served with THEODORE ROOSEVELT in 1903 and through to FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT, it is easy to understand why he prefers a quiet country life.

Since the death of Mrs. GARNER in 1948, "CACTUS JACK" has lived alone and follows the life of a country squire. Much of his time is spent reading history—some of which he helped make.

He is still alert and lively and his voice reverberates like the one-time powerful statesman from Washington that he was. Commenting on his age, he is reported as saying that he wanted to live to be 93 so that he would have spent more time as a private citizen than he did in public office.

Since GARNER avoids politics, he will discuss economics and recently he had this to say: "If I had to borrow here and there to run a business, it wouldn't work. The same goes for the Government. To overspend now is bad for future generations. Every patriotic American, whether he has children or not, should consider the future generations."

The PRESS agrees with every word of this former well-liked VP and wishes him well in his desire to reach 93.

Better Rules Proposed for Regulatory Bodies

A proposal for a much needed reform in all Federal regulatory bodies has been recommended by Atty. Gen. WILLIAM P. ROGERS.

Specifically he urges the Federal Communications Commission to disqualify three of the four applicants for television Channel 10 in Miami because of undercover attempts at influencing the decision. Mr. ROGERS emphasizes that he is proposing a general rule for the FCC as well as all other such agencies. FCC powers extend over a wide field including airline routes, and railroad and public utility rates.

Because of unsavory tactics by competing interests to obtain a license to this Florida channel, the Attorney General suggests that all regulatory bodies adopt the simple rule that any person having matters before agencies and who tries to influence them secretly, would lose his case automatically.

The House investigating subcommittee currently is looking into Channel 4 in Pittsburgh. Committee member Rep. WOLVERTON, (R-NJ) says that the evidence shows when two leading contenders for the license could not buy each other off, they arranged a merger with payoffs totaling $150,000 to other applicants.

One Court of Appeals has said "from the moment he (an applicant) ceases to depend upon the justice of his case and seeks discriminatory and favored treatment, he becomes a corrupter of the Government itself and is fortunate if he loses no more than the right he seeks to obtain."

The FCC was set up some years ago because new problems of communications were more than Congress could deal with. It was expected to provide expert and honest regulation and to make awards in the public interest. To put it mildly, it would appear that this rule has not been followed.

Question Divides New York Community

Why Did White Kill Union Boss?

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

CHESTER, N. Y. (UPI) — The plight of Malcolm R. White, the mild-appearing, 48-year-old factory president who shot and killed a union organizer, was a topic of animated discussion in Chester and vicinity today.

Sentiment regarding the unusual case is divided in the community. There are some who say he was a fine and respected man. Others have their reservations.

White, head of the Chester Cable Corp. is lodged in jail at nearby Goshen, awaiting action by the Orange County grand jury. He is held on a first degree murder charge for having slain Alfred F. Dugan, 52, a union organizer with a police record, near his picketed plant on the morning of Nov. 13 last.

According to Robert Houston, proprietor of a TV store on Chester's main street, White was "a nice fellow, mild-mannered, soft-spoken, sociable and generally respected."

Leo Gallie of Florida, N. Y., a machinist at Chester Cable Corp., and a shop steward for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union, quoted White as having said:

"I'll close the place down before I'll do business with a man like Dugan," Gallie said White had posted Dugan's criminal record on a bulletin board in the plant. He claimed it was "difficult to reason with White regarding the grievances of the man."

Theodore R. Manna, who runs a store in Chester, described White as "a quiet man, who has come in here, made a purchase, and left quietly."

Meanwhile, the wheels of justice were grinding. District Attorney Abraham S. Isseks presented "the people's case" to the Orange County grand jury.

The prosecutor called 11 witnesses before the jury. They were five State Police officers, two employes of the cable company, two union officials, one deputy sheriff and a pathologist.

White's 79-year-old lawyer, Henry Hirschberg, had previously written to the district attorney and to Magistrate Peter B. Bush urging that White be given a public hearing—preferably some day next week.

Isseks' action in presenting the case to the grand jury apparently blocked the holding of a public hearing. The District attorney explained that whatever action the grand jury takes—whether it will indict White or not—supersedes all other elements in the case.

The grand jury must act before Dec. 1 when it is scheduled to disband. Iseeks made no recommendation to the jury, merely presenting the case.

White meanwhile was making the best of his confinement in a cell in the Goshen jail. When visited by Hirschberg, the prisoner said he was "in terror" of Dugan. He claimed that when he met the union organizer on a highway one-half mile from the plant, Dugan came toward him with his hand on his hip pocket and that he thought the man was out to "get" him.

White fired seven shots from his automatic. He had obtained a permit to possess a weapon only a month ago. Dugan's body was found sprawled on a highway, two bullets in his back. Police theorized that Dugan had turned and was running away when shot.

It developed that Dugan was unarmed.

Hirschberg indicated that if White is brought to trial the defense will be justifiable homicide—self-defense. According to Hirschberg, the issue comes down to the question of White's state of mind prior to the shooting. He contends White was a man who led a good life but who had become harassed by labor trouble" and got involved in an unfortunate episode."

The Country Parson

"People don't make us angry—they simply make conditions right for us to make ourselves angry."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Only Weaklings Scared of Being Called 'Chicken'

The young person who takes his (or her) first drink, smoke, "goof ball," shot of morphine or heroin, "sniff" of cocaine, barbiturate or benzedrine (amphetamine) tablet does so, usually, because he's a weakling. He hasn't the intelligence, the courage or the character to say "No, thank you" when friends (if you can call 'em friends), associates or gang leaders invite, urge or dare him to have one.

DR. BRADY

"Cone on, chicken," they say in effect, "just one won't hurt you — everybody else is having one. You going to be different?"

It is not only juveniles that are delinquent but — unfortunately for our country's welfare—many mature adults, prominent in the public eye, betray the same defect. For example, a high government official attending many social functions in Washington is a teetotaler, but circulates carrying a glass half filled with pop, so everybody will think he is drinking.

EVIL INVASION

But the prodigious growth of the "cocktail" evil and the invasion of the American home by beer, wine and liquor via radio, television, movies, magazines and newspapers in the past two or three decades, combines to give growing children a view of life quite different from that which you and I saw when we were growing up.

What with the ready availability of beer, wine and liquor, the insistent idea that everybody drinks at least an occasional "social" glass, and the belief that children today do not need and may resent being asked to take the pledge—it is a wonder that anybody at all reaches the age of 21 without having acquired the drinking habit.

Just why does a young person of normal IQ take his or her first drink of beer, wine or liquor—a young person, that is, with character gained from home training? This, it seems to me, is a question of vital importance. I have pondered it for years.

I have sought the views of many, young and old, teetotalers, moderate occasional or social drinkers and confirmed alcoholics. The most enlightening answer, I think, was that of a periodic drinker, who, in a sober interlude, explained:

"At times I drink to excess because I feel the need of a stimulant, or rather I just want to feel better . . ."

Two ways of saying the same thing. For feelings of inferiority—caused by weak character, and often by poor health due to inadequate diet—are essential causes of alcoholism.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Suggest Ways to Eliminate Specific Driving Hazards

Well, it happened again and will happen more if something isn't done to slow down some of the trucks with heavy loads making left turns onto Dixie from Telegraph. I've seen different drivers come out from under the bridge and they see the light is green at Dixie. They step on the gas and eight times out of ten the light turns yellow or red by the time they get to it, and around they go, regardless of the light.

The load jackknives and over goes the load, the truck in the ditch. I've seen pedestrians walking on the shoulder of the road at this point, and it was just luck that no one was there when the truck went over. I know of four or five trucks that have tipped over at this same place.

The only way to stop this high speed is a sign reading "15 miles speed making left turn onto Dixie Highway." We have very good truck drivers on the road, but there's always someone who gives our first class truck drivers a black eye.

J. M. K.

One of the most dangerous driving hazards is the driver who neglects to turn on his headlights at dusk until he absolutely needs them to see where he's going.

Don't these drivers realize that, although they can see the road from other automobile lights, they're not easily seen until someone is nearly upon them? It's almost impossible to see an oncoming car if the background behind the car is dark. And parking lights aren't enough. They're deceiving, if nothing else.

This same thing is true of dawn driving and driving in fog. Fellow drivers, let's be mindful of others. It takes merely a pull or turn of the knob and very little mechanical energy to turn on your lights. Don't be afraid of turning them on a little early — that never endangered anyone's life. As someone else has said, "Aim to live."

If East Germans Seize Control, What of Berlin?

By REINHOLD ENSZ
Berlin Associated Press Bureau

BERLIN — What happens if the East German Communists get control of roads, rails and air corridors leading to West Berlin?

Will they be content to allow the Western Allies to maintain a base 110 miles inside their territory once the Russians pull out of the four-Power occupation agreement?

By shedding the 13-year-old occupation pact, the Russians would leave the Allies without any agreement on how to get into the city. The Western Allies would have to negotiate with the East Germans, something they have refused to do.

The East Germans regime already has shown what it can accomplish in the way of road blocks on the long route to Berlin.

Since 1955, the East Germans have had full control over civilian traffic between West Berlin and West Germany. They have repeatedly harassed traffic and demanded stiff taxes from all westerners who use the highways or canals.

In the case of trucks, the taxes are so high that truckers to West Berlin would make no money but for subsidies from the West German government.

Having had experiences with the East German border guards, the West Berliners are asking themselves:

What will the East Germans do to the Allied convoys and supply shipments which maintain their 10,000 troops in West Berlin?

The Allies have said they will use force to remain in Berlin. But what if the Communists play it smooth, and nibble away, year after year? How long will the Western Allies remain?

This is the question that worries the 2,200,000 West Berliners.

At least 99 per cent of West Berliners have no stomach for Communism. They have a bustling city in which beautiful buildings are going up every day, where one can buy almost anything, provided one has the money.

The West Berliners have no desire to have their city taken over by the drab Communist economy that has surrounded them since 1945.

When Soviet Premier Khrushchev first made his threat Nov. 10 to pull out of East Berlin, West Berliners reacted calmly. Many thought Khrushchev was making propaganda wind for the East German regime. But this week Pravda, the Soviet Communist Party newspaper, let the world know Khrushchev was not kidding.

But neither Khrushchev, nor Pravda said anything about the 400,000 Soviet troops stationed at various bases in East Germany outside East Berlin.

The ending of four-power occupation in the city of Berlin would not affect these troops. They would stay in Germany.

But what happens to the 10,000 Allied troops in isolated West Berlin?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Crane Suggests Gifts for Oldsters

Here are some gift ideas for birthdays, Christmas and other occasions. They are far superior to the usual items which we generally offer our aged parents and grandparents, for they rejuvenate old folks and furnish soul tonics to buoy up their spirits. Scrapbook this case, and act upon it now!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z-377: Melba G., aged 45, is a very devoted wife and mother.

"But my problem isn't my husband or my children," she began. "No, it pertains to my mother, aged 74, who lives alone in a little town.

DR. CRANE

"She still gets around moderately well with a cane and walks to church in good weather.

"But she can't see very well since she has cataracts. I have asked her to come live with us, but she prefers to stay in the old family dwelling.

"Dr. Crane, I'd like to do more for her, but what else can I do?"

GIFTS FOR OLD FOLKS

God certainly expects us to live a full life while we are here on earth.

That means we should enjoy 100 per cent vision instead of 25 per cent. And we should have 100 per cent hearing instead of 30 per cent.

Thanks to modern scientific progress, it is usually a simple job to remedy semi-blindness due to cataracts. The eye surgeon can neatly remove the frosty pane (white lens) of at least one eye.

Shortly thereafter, he will fit eye glasses to the patient, who then may be able to read the fine print in this newspaper or thread a small needle.

Hardly any form of surgery is more dramatic than the removal of cataracts so don't hesitate to make this the Mother's Day or Christmas or birthday gift for your aged parents.

The cost isn't exorbitant, either, so see that your loved ones live a full life clear up to their deathbed.

And hearing aids now work miracles for folks who are so deaf they must be shouted at constantly. Such folks miss many of the bird calls and other beautiful sounds in life.

Neat little transistor hearing gadgets are now available which fit into temple bars on your eyeglasses.

And they aren't expensive compared with similar merchandise for the kitchen, or the automobile.

Furthermore, unused organs tend to deteriorate faster. So it is doubly wise to restore vision and hearing to your old folks, or they may become blind or deaf much faster, just from disuse of the retina or ear.

STAY YOUNG

Americans are imbued with a desire for long life, which is commendable, but don't live the last 25 years in semi-darkness or in silence or without good teeth for enjoying food.

Give your elderly relatives a set of sure fitting dentures. Bundle them into your car and take them to the physician or dentist, since they will often refuse to go, under their own power.

Older folks become unduly frugal and stingy about indulging themselves with necessary eye surgery or glasses, hearing aids and dentures.

So quit giving socks and ties and aprons and other surplus wearing apparel which they just stuff into dresser drawers, unused.

Instead, give them a cataract operation and new vision. Restore their hearing so they can converse with their grandchildren and relish music.

Furnish them attractive, tight fitting false teeth which make them look 10 years younger and which let them eat the menu of youth.

After you do these things, then get them a TV and radio, plus a Hi-Fi set for your church-going parents, so they can hear the wonderful religious hymns as sung by Jimmy Dean, Pat Boone, Ernie Ford and others.

Remember, old folks need spiritual calisthenics and soul tonics just as much as iron tonics for their blood!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Oppose 11½-Mile Road Expressway

FARMINGTON—The State Highway Dept. ran into strong opposition yesterday from Farmington Township and Southfield city officials fighting to throw a road-block into the proposed 11½-mile road expressway connecting the Bright-on-Farmington U.S. 10 expressway with Northwestern Highway.

Lashing out against the state's plans at a public hearing at the Groves-Walker American Legion Post 376 in Farmington were Supervisor Frank J. Stephenson, representing Farmington Township, and Councilman Thomas Costello, spokesman for the city of Southfield.

Portions of the 8.2-mile expressway would cross both of these communities.

More than 250 persons jammed the post hall to hear State Highway Dept. officials outline plans for the proposed link, its effects on communities and the methods of acquisition of property for right-of-way.

Stephenson pointed out that the township board already has asked the Highway Dept. to by-pass the township entirely. "We are still on said.

"Our professional planners have not been consulted," Stephenson said. "We have spent thousands of dollars in an effort to plan our community's growth and development, only to have our plans ripped asunder by state and federal highway departments who propose to split our township through the middle with an expressway.

As an alternative, Stephenson recommended the Highway Dept. consider expressways along lines between municipalities, rather than cutting directly across a township, city or village.

Costello read into the record a resolution stating that the Southfield City Council will "vigorously oppose such expressways, trunklines or highways as that now under consideration."

Novi Village Council President Walter Tuck said his city also wanted to go on record as being against the expressway.

Farmington Schools Supt. Gerald V. Harrison said the Board of Education had been assured by the Highway Dept. that overpasses would be provided where the expressway lies near schools.

He stated, however, that he future school owned by the wanted this to include sites for school district.

The 3½-hour hearing was conducted by Joseph Wilbur, Highway Dept. hearings engineer. Other State Highway officials at the meeting were Frank Simmons, public hearings representative; J. A. Wills, Pontiac district engineer, and Floyd Lippert, district right-of-way representative.

David Harker represented the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

The hearing did not have a question and answer period. Such hearings, as required by law, are held to take testimony.

A transcript of the proceedings will be studied by the Highway Dept. and the U.S. Bureau of Roads before final plans for the $14,500,000 project are acted upon.

Graduate of Old School Watches Rite for New

HADLEY—Progress is welcomed in all phases of life, but when it comes to parting with the little old schoolhouse, it is tinged with a feeling of sadness and nostaliga.

Among the spectators at ground-breaking ceremonies yesterday afternoon for the new Hadley Elementary School was George Halpin of 838 Church St., Lapeer.

It was a happy scene. It meant this little hamlet soon was to have a new seven-room school.

For Halpin, it meant a lot more. He was a graduate of the 86-year-old school that will be torn down to make way for the new one.

Turning the first spadeful of ground, signalling the beginning of construction of the new building on the site of the present school, was Dr. Robert Stern, vice president of the Lapeer Board of Education.

Present for the simple but important ceremony were Supt. Clyde K. Schickler and Ronald Wagner, administrative secretary.

The present Hadley School, is the oldest in the county. It houses kindergarten through seventh grade pupils.

Pleads Innocent of Killing Wife

Royal Oak Township Mate Held in Slaying of Woman at Bus Stop

Clift Register, 40, unemployed Royal Oak Township laborer accused of slaying his wife with a hatchet on a Detroit street corner Sunday, pleaded innocent yesterday when arraigned in Detroit Recorder's Court.

He is being held without bond, pending examination Nov. 24.

Police said Register, of 10517 Fanwood St., told them he beat his wife, Louise, 38, with the blunt side of a hatchet because "she was running out all the time" instead of taking care of their nine children.

The slaying also led to the arrest of a witness to the act.

Antonio Iacovacci, 43, of Highland Park, who said he attempted to stop the fatal bludgeoning, was arrested by Detroit Police two days ago on a warrant for theft of an outboard motor from a parked car Nov. 6.

He pleaded innocent and waived examination in court shortly after Register's arraignment.

Iacovacci told newsmen after the slaying that he was a Marine sergeant and a judo expert.

After reading the accounts of the slaying in newspapers, police got a warrant for his arrest on the theft charge. He was never in the Marines, they said.

PATERSON, N. J. (UPI)—Mrs. Gelsomina Del Vecchio, who takes a nip with her daily cup of coffee, celebrates her 107th birthday today. She attributes her longevity to eating everything, drinking everything and not worrying about anything.

However, Mrs. Del Vecchio doesn't smoke. She says she has not been ill in the last 50 years.

2 Missionaries Guests of Honor at Baptist Church

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A "Missionary Christmas" program will be held this evening, at 7:30 at the West Bloomfield Baptist Church, 4900 Orchard Lake Rd., in honor of their missionaries, Elizabeth and Horacio Peinado of Bolivia.

Former members of the church and friends have been invited to the program which will feature a sound color film, "Before the Harvest," and slides of the Peinados and their field.

The Rev. Jim Parker of Sunnyale Chapel will bring a missionary devotional message. Special music by Frank Dering, carol singing and light refreshments will round out the evening, according to chairman Dwight W. Butler.

The Rev. Arthur Smith of Toronto, Canada, will be the guest speaker and musician at the 7 p.m. service Sunday at the church. At the 11 a.m. worship service, the Rev. Jr. Richard Muntz, pastor, will bring the sixth message in a series from the book of Jonah, "The Sign of the Prophet Jonah."

Finds Loophole for Tax Losers

County Treasurer Says Provision Allows Levy Up to 1 Pct. of Rolls

The chief deputy treasurer of Oakland County said today most of the municipalities affected by industrial assessment valuation cuts by the Michigan State Tax Commission, can escape tax increases by relying on a certain state law provision.

This "excess of roll" provision, said Lloyd Sibley, allows townships or cities to levy not more than one per cent of tax rolls on any one taxable item, such as school or city, township or county taxes.

"This will produce a little added revenue which should give the communities help in getting by the commission reductions without raising taxes this year," Sibley explained.

This will probably hold true in all but two of the 10 Oakland municipalities which this week saw property valuations of three big utility and one automobile firm cut down from original valuations, on which taxes are based.

The two "drastic areas" which will have to find other means to offset these losses, are the cities of Troy and Oak Park, Sibley said.

Troy, home of Ford Motor Co.'s Implement & Tractor Division, found that the commission had trimmed the valuation of this company's property from $1,891,600 to $1,608,850. Property of the Consumers Powers Co. in Oak Park was sliced from $760,040 to $433,465.

Leslie A. Rice, Troy treasurer, said the cut in his area only affected the Birmingham school district falling inside Troy. He said a "tax rate adjustment of some kind" will have to be made.

Virgil C. Knowles, city manager and assessor of Oak Park, said he hadn't as yet found how to make an adjustment to make up for the loss of tax monies to the city and four school districts there. "This thing hit us a little too fast," he said.

Other affected areas due to cuts granted to the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. and the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co. were West Bloomfield, Milford, Commerce, Lyon, Holly, Farmington, and Rose Townships, and the city of Northville.

'I Can Get It For You Wholesale'

Chicago Man Helpful to Dave Beck

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—David Daniel Beck Sr. was one of some 400 persons who could get it wholesale from Nathan Shefferman, Chicago labor relations consultant, testimony in Beck's income tax evasion trial showed Thursday.

Miss Florence Ouska, tall, bespectacled bookkeeper for Shefferman, said her employer handled thousands of dollars of purchases at wholesale prices for his business and labor union friends, including Beck, former head of the Teamsters' Union.

Miss Ouska produced five large envelopes which contained check stubs and other papers having a bearing on Beck-Shefferman transactions.

The government, which accuses Beck of evading $240,000 in income taxes during 1950-53, is expected to attempt to place each document into the trial record.

Miss Ouska said Shefferman "wanted everybody to be happy."

She said he would order an item for a friend, get billed for it at wholesale cost and then later collect from the friend.

Shefferman's name has cropped up repeatedly in the trial, which started Nov. 10.

The Senate Rackets Committee, in its investigation of Beck linked Beck and Shefferman in numerous transactions.

Hare Victory Margin May Exceed 300,000

LANSING (UPI)— The official canvass of the Nov. 4 general election vote appeared likely today to push the victory margin of Secretary of State James M. Hare above the 300,000 mark.

Lacking final figures only from Hillsdale County, a worksheet compilation by the State Elections Bureau of locally canvassed returns gave Hare a margin of 309,441 over Republican Raymond A. Plank.

The Hillsdale vote, when added in, was expected to cut back the Democratic winner's plurality to slightly over 306,000.

Although figures are nearly complete, they will not be formally reviewed and certified by the State Board of Canvassers until next week.

The nearly complete returns showed no significant change in the outcome of any of the statewide races.

Subject to certification, they established the margin of Democrat James P. O'Hara as 2,768 out of nearly 172,000 votes cast in the seventh district, making him the narrowest winner for Congress.

Crystal Ball Was Cloudy

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Nathaniel Thomas, who describes himself as "the world's greatest psychoanalyst," didn't see this one coming. Thomas, who peddles by mail courses on telepathy, magic and mind reading, was given a six-month sentence yesterday for mail fraud.

Machine Diverts Blood in Intracardiac Surgery

LONDON — Technicians in England have devised a machine that short-circuits the heart and lungs to allow intracardiac surgery in a bloodless field.

The device temporarily carries on some of the cardiorespiratory functions when part or all of the natural process is impaired. It also provides complete diversion of the blood stream away from the heart and forces the flow through isolated organs.

1 in 4 Wells Drilled, Dry

NEW YORK — Since 1859 American oil drillers have sunk 1,663,000 wells. The record shows that one out of every four wells drilled was dry.

Hal Boyle Says:

Light One Candle for My Wife's Birthday

NEW YORK (AP) — My wife, Frances, has a haggard look today.

The same thing happened at this time every year.

She is haunted by a fear. She is afraid somebody will jump out before or behind her and holler: "Happy birthday!"

My wife isn't unaware of the pleasures of social occasions. She would accept an invitation to watch a blood transfusion, and even give blood if it would help make a better party. Anythin gto get out of the house.

She loves all these gatherings except the ones where the people leap out and yell "Happy birthday!" and mean her.

Her inherent modesty then interrupts her pleasure. That and the knowledge she will face an inevitable question—age.

To tell the truth Frances is shy about her age. Where can you find girls like that any more? She knows that sooner or later one of the guests is sure to ask, "Francie, how many candles should we put on the cake?"

Frances, shimmering in feminine splendor, loves this question. She loves it with the same shimmering passion that Eve greeted Adam with when he asked innocently, "I'm hungry. Isn't there another apple in the icebox."

To Frances, her age is an inviolate secret, and if a foreign power—or a woman next door—should get this information and spread it around, for sure it would be a tough century. Where I live, anyway.

It does me no good to brag on her when friends press me on the subject.

"All I know is that when Cleopatra was unrolled before Caesar," I remark, "My wife didn't object to the project—but she did try to pick the pattern of the rug.

"Then there was that moment before Yorktown. Frances criticized the hors d'oeuvres, did admire the battle.

"Later there was the congress at Vienna, and my wife shook her head. The draperies, yes. The people, no. She missed Gettysburg, and arrived late at Appomatox, and she said that ceremony would be better remembered today if it had had the sure feminine touch. She has never retreated from this position."

Well, late at night, at a birthday party for Frances, when the power of the martinis equals the strength of human sympathy, my wife gets a kind of awesome respect a woman really deserves. Particularly, one with all that background.

The guests have a pure unalloyed sense of pleasure at being in the presence of true greatness, and I must say, as her husband, I sensed the same thing long ago.

What if she didn't whip Charlemagne in hand-to-hand combat? The big question is, where was he when she was ready?

Frances accepts birthday tributes with a gratitude that is sincere but has a frosty reserve. She holds her secret and intends to. Sooner or later a guest always asks, "Oh, Frances, how many candles should we light on your birthday cake?"

And Frances turns to me, and there is but one answer: "One candle forever."

Happy birthday, Frances.

Less than 2.5 per cent of Americans over 14 years cannot read or write any language. Most of the illiterates are in the older age groups.

He Had a Reason

LISBON (UPI) — City workers engaged in demolishing an ancient building learned yesterday why workman Lourenco Martins concentrated so much time on the same spot. Police charged Martins with stealing $1,400 worth of jewels from a jewelry store next door after digging right through the wall.

The Baltic sea is said to be less salty than the ocean.

Scavenger Cells Change Action

Destroy Red Corpuscles in Leukemia Cases, Lab Experiment Shows

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Scavenger cells that usually defend against disease turn against normal red blood cells and destroy them in cases of leukemia in mice it was reported today.

There was no sign of this traitor-like behavior on the part of scavenger cells until leukemia appeared, however, said Eric and Ruth Ponder, a husband-wife research team at Nassau Hospital.

Scavenger cells normally move through the body devouring foreign bodies like dust in the lungs and disease-causing bacteria.

The American Cancer Society which supported the research reported the phenomenom of scavenger cells, or phagocytes, gone awry.

Leukemia is a cancer of the blood-making parts of the body, the lymph organs and bone marrow.

The body of a leukemia patient is filled with immature and useless white blood cells—and there is a deficiency of red blood cells.

When leukemia appears in mice the Ponders found, the scavenger cells run wild and gorge themselves on red cells in the spleens of the diseased animals.

Whether there is a relationship between this type of behavior in mice and in humans is not known.

141,319 Cars to Roll Off Line This Week

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's auto plants, virtually all working overtime, will build 141,319 passenger cars this week, Automotive News said today.

The highest weekly volume so far this year, the output will compare with 117,834 cars produced last week. In the week ended Nov. 23 last year U.S. plants built 151,846 cars.

This week's truck output is estimated at 23,900 units, compared with 23,678 last week. In the corresponding 1957 week 23,483 trucks were made.

Canadian output this week is expected to total 6,730 cars and 1,319 trucks. Last week dominion factories built 6,649 cars and 1,144 trucks. In the comparable 1957 week they produced 8,914 cars and trucks.

Children on Quemoy Return to Schooling

TAIPEI (AP) — Quemoy's children went back to school today after a perilous three-month vacation given them by Communist guns.

All primary schools on the island fortress reopened. Shellfire damage had been repaired and shelters dug for pupils and teachers.

The six schools on neighboring Little Quemoy remained closed. They were leveled by gunfire and have not yet been rebuilt.

The Chinese Communists kept their guns silent on this even-numbered day of the month. They fired 530 shells Wednesday.

Sugar Coating of Pills at the Danger Point

TORONTO (AP)—Sugar coating of pills has gone too far, says an article in the Journal of the Canadian Medical Assn.

Dr. Henri J. Breault singles out sugared pills of aspirin. He says 121 cases of headache tablet poisoning were recorded in Windsor, Ont., during a 240-day period. One victim died.

If a child finds the bottle of pleasant-tasting tablets he may not stop with one or two, he says, and there is no known antidote.

"The flavoring or coating of bitter and distasteful medicines has apparently defeated its purpose by making drugs too attractive and similar to candies," says the Journal.

The steel industry between 1950-57 reinvested $3.6 billion or 54 per cent of its total earnings which helped generate more support for prosperity and employment in other industries.

Easy Way
TO STRIP PAINT FROM CARVED SURFACES

Savogran's Regular Strypeeze, a highly efficient semi-paste remover, works quickly on all finishes. Clings well to carved, grooved surfaces. Try a wood dowel or cuticle stick for getting softened paint from crannies.

Ask for Regular Strypeeze, or new Strypeeze Special water-rinsable type, at your paint or hardware store. They're the paint removers with the Good Housekeeping Seal.

Birds Resent Fliers' Pet

Penguins Attack Big Dog

(UPI correspondent Maurice Cutler covered the U. S. Navy's Antarctic "Deep Freeze" explorations in 1956 and now has returned for this year's geophysical explorations.)

By MAURICE CUTLER

MCMURDO SOUND, Antarctica (UPI) — Penguins and German shepherd dogs apparently don't mix.

This is the verdict of Lt. Earl D. ("Buzz") Dryfoose, of East Greenwich, R. I., a United States Navy aviator who flies in the South Polar regions in support of International Geophysical Year scientists.

"The Penguins chased Utz all over the place," the 30-year-old native of Springfield, Ill., reported. "They pecked at him and beat him with their flippers."

Utz, a five-year-old almost bilingual Schaeferhund from Farmisch in Germany, is one of the few domestic animals that have visited Antarctica. He is the only animal other than the team of nine Huskie dogs which live at McMurdo's "Dogheim."

Dryfoose and Utz are inseparable and the big brown dog flew all the way from Quonset Point, R. I., in the Navy R4D8 Dryfoose piloted to the Antarctic for the first time last year.

But Utz almost didn't make it to the frozen south.

The dog, which obeys commands by his master in both German and English, was ordered to be shot by quarantine officials at Nandi airport in the Fiji Islands last month when he was en route with Dryfoose to the Antarctic.

Dryfoose said he told the officials "in no uncertain terms that they'd have to shoot me first." The dog was kept on the plane at Nandi and was not able to get off for another 43 hours until the Dakota-type plane arrived at Christchurch, New Zealand, where it was impounded and quarantined.

Utz gets along well with the Huskies at McMurdo, eats the same food they do and apparently thrives in the temperatures which are just getting above zero this month.

Dryfoose said the dog has disobeyed him only once. He explained that this happened in the United States when Utz refused to come in from temperatures which were more than 30 degrees below zero.

At home, Dryfoose and his wife Bobbie also have "Duchess," Utz' mate, which they brought to the U. S. from Naples, Italy. The two dogs, and a Dachshund and a Siamese cat play with the couple's two daughters, four-year-old Deborah and one-year-old Jeanne Louise.

Dryfoose admits that Utz is not much of a watchdog and added that because of his gentle disposition, "he's as good a watchdog as a canary bird."

Utz flies with his master on polar reconnaissance flights and journeys to supply scientific parties out on the trail. On these flights the dog jumps out of the plane and rolls in the snow and follows his master.

In addition to his 12-thousand mile flight to the Antarctic, the dog has traveled across Europe, the Atlantic and twice across the United States since it. Dryfoose picked him up three years ago.

In the Antarctic, Utz has three meals a day instead of the one he received at home, and sleeps in the officers' barracks at the foot of his master's bed.

Educational figures show that an average American woman gets 8.5 years of schooling as compared with the average American man who receives 8.3 years in school today.

Will Durant Compiles List

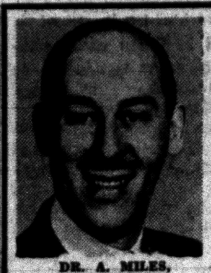

10 Books That Shook World

LOS ANGELES (AP)—What 10 books have had the most powerful effect on human thought and history?

Will Durant, historian and philosopher, has compiled a list. He calls it "The 10 Books That Shook the World."

They are the Analects of Confucius, the Dialogues of Buddha, the Bible, the Koran, John Calvin's Principles of Christian Religion, Copernicus' Revolutions of the Celestial Orbs, Diderot's Encyclopedie, "Social Contract" by Rousseau, "Origin of the Species" by Charles Darwin and Marx's "Das Kapital."

"In these books you have an outline of the mental history of mankind," said Durant at a meeting of book lovers sponsored by the Los Angeles County Library.

Bagwell Takes New Position

Will Return to Staff of MSU as Director of Scholarships

EAST LANSING (AP) — Paul D. Bagwell, defeated Republican nominee for governor, has returned to the Michigan State University staff as director of scholarships.

His appointment, effective Dec. 1, was approved by the State Board of Agriculture, MSU governing body.

Bagwell resigned as head of the Department of Communications Skills and was granted a leave of absence from the faculty from Aug. 9 to Nov. 30 to run for governor.

He fell a victim to Gov. Williams' bid for a sixth term.

In his new position, Bagwell will direct the university's program of scholarships provided from public and private funds. His duties will include coordination of scholarship activities, on and off the campus, and with junior colleges and high schools in the state.

As scholarship director, he will be responsible to Dr. Thomas H. Hamilton, vice president for academic affairs.

The position of scholarship director previously was held by J. Robert Stewart, who resigned Aug. 1 to become athletic director at St. Louis, Mo., University.

The position has been filled temporarily by John D. Wilson, administrative assistant to Hamilton.

Bagwell currently is vacationing in the South. He took a leave of absence two years ago for an unsuccessful campaign for the office of state auditor general.

On that occasion, he did not give up his department head post.

James H. Denison, assistant to MSU President John A. Hannah, refused—saying it was university policy—to disclose Bagwell's salary but said it was the same as before the last leave of absence.

Upon launching his primary campaign, Bagwell said he was getting $14,000 a year.

Later, Hannah set the exact salary figure at $14,200. He said the new post was of equal responsibility and importance.

School Building Law Prospects Said Good

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman who had no luck with school construction legislation last session said today its prospects are bright in the new Congress.

"I feel confident such a bill will be introduced," Rep. Frank Thompson (D-NJ) told a reporter.

Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY) said in a separate interview he thought the Democratic victories in the recent congressional elections were a mandate from the people for action. Celler said that among the items the people want are more and better schools.

Thompson sponsored a bill last session to authorize 1½ billion dollars in federal aid to school construction over a five-year period. A tie vote kept it bottled up in the House Education Committee.

In 1957 the House, on a 208-203 vote, killed a bill which also would have authorized 1½ billion in aid. School segregation and states' rights were issues in the fight.

Social Register Drops Whitney and Marquand

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1959 edition of the New York Social Register is minus the names of such personages as Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, novelist John P. Marquand and Georgia Rockefeller.

The latest edition of society's blue book, out Thursday, also dropped socialite Timothy Fales, who last week married entertainer Josephine Premice, a Negro. Fales' elimination, however, stemmed from his earlier divorce from Ellen Wood, former model.

Marquand lost his listing as a result of his divorce from his second wife.

Miss Rockefeller, formerly of Greenwich, Conn., was dropped for marrying unlisted J. Harden Rose of Lockport, Ill.

U.S. and State Flag 'Equal' in Virginia

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. says the U.S. flag will fly atop state-owned buildings only on an equal basis with the Virginia flag.

This means, he added Thursday the U.S. flag will not be displayed over the state flag on the saem halyard. He said, hoewver, his policy statement should not be construed as derogatory to the federal government or the national flag.

"I not only respect, I worship the flag of my country," the governor said at a news conference. He said it did not seem appropriate for the U.S. flag to be displayed in a position of dominance on a state building.

The question arose because of the long absence of the national flag from the state Capitol flag staff. The governor said, the U.S. flag "will go back" as soon as another staff is erected.

Almond said the policy has no connection with the controversy over the authority and powers of the states and the federal government.

Seeks to Strike Out Proxy Marriage

CATANIA, Sicily, (AP) — Nuccia Bonaventura is asking the court of appeals to strike her proxy marriage to a dead man from the town register.

Nuccia and Sofio Altomare were childhood sweethearts. He migrated to Venezuela, planning to send for Nuccia when he had saved enough money.

Sofio sent the money but Nuccia had trouble getting a visa. To expediate things, the couple decided on a proxy marriage. A priest married the couple several weeks ago, with a relative standing in for the groom.

A few days later Nuccia got a letter from friends of Sofio in Venezuela. He had been killed in an automobile accident the day before the marriage ceremony.

Japan Expects Engagement of Prince Soon

TOKYO (AP) — The chief of Japan's imperial household agency called today at the home of Michiko Shoda. Almost unanimous speculation was that he went to complete arrangements for her engagement to Crown Prince Akihito.

Some type of announcement about the prince's marriage plans is expected next week.

Their daughter Michiko and the prince, both 24 years old, met on a tennis court at a summer resort at Karuizawa in August 1957. The prince is rumored to have pushed aside strong opposition by Japan's prewar peerage to his marrying a commoner.

Other Japanese girls have been mentioned as possible brides for the scholarly young prince but this was the first time Usami was known to have visited the homes of any of their parents.

Decisions Made by New Device

Machine Considers All Angles, Comes Up With Course of Action

By RAY CROMLEY
NEA Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH (NEA) — If you have trouble making up your mind, take heart.

Scientists are now developing a machine that could make your decisions for you.

In some dream future, you might ask one of these electronic devices to "settle" an argument between you and your wife. The question: "Shall we go to the mountains or the seashore?"

You could ask, "How can I become more popular?" or, "What career should I follow?" The machine would come up with a recommended course of action.

Within the next two years the computer will be usable for industrial problems such as, "How should I vary my factory production from hour to hour to make the biggest profits?"

There's no guarantee, of course, that anyone will pay any attention to its answers.

The gadget has one weakness: To give you the right answer, it first must guide you into some failures. The machine uses these failures to lead you to bigger successes. It can't help if you can't afford a mistake. Don't ask it, "Should I take a swing at that cop?"

At present, this electronic machine works in the same way as an old-fashioned cook. She puts in a pinch of this and a pinch of that. She sees how it works out. Then she adds a dab of this and a little more of that. She observes how this affects the taste. She continues this trial and error operation until she's satisfied with the result.

Scientists say this is the way most persons reason, whether it's thinking about personal problems, business or foreign affairs.

What's the advantage of the machine? Scientists say it can operate faster than a man can think. It is more consistent, more decisive, "smarter," less likely to give up. Says one developer: "The machines will never answer, 'Oh shucks, what's the use."

This comparatively simple, electronic device, named the Opcon, is the development of research scientists at the Westinghouse Electric Corp. Dr. Robert Hooke was a leader in its origin.

Against Closing Negro Schools

Governor of Virginia Condemns Policy He Considers 'Unequal'

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. says he is opposed to any retaliatory policy of closing Negro schools in areas where white schools are locked under the state anti-integration laws.

He told his news conference Thursday Virginia will continue its fight to preserve segregated public schools, but the state must stand on a policy of equal treatment for all, regardless of race.

"I want to see as many children as possible, both white and colored, receive the best we can offer in educational facilities," Almond said. "Many outside of Virginia would feel that it (closing Negro schools) would be a vicious and retaliatory blow against the Negro race. I would not want to be charged with harboring such a spirit."

The governor did concede that the federal courts might force some school integration. He said the state "might have to choose new plateaus" in continuing the fight. But he ruled out any thought of naming a legislative commission now to draft new laws.

Almond has said he will name a commission to work up a new legislative program if and when the present massive resistance structure is tumbled by the courts. A special three-judge federal court heard testimony on the constitutionality of the school closing law Wednesday, and the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals will open a hearing on the constitutionality of the massive resistance program Monday.

Propeller Damage Turns Liner Back

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The S.S. President Wilson, with 500 passengers aboard, was in drydock today for replacement of a damaged propeller.

The liner, headed for the Orient, turned back just a mile outside the Golden Gate Thursday because of the propeller's vibration.

American President Lines officials said that apparently a submerged object struck the propeller but that divers were unable to guess what it was. No one aboard felt any jolt.

They expect the ship to resume its trip Saturday.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Davie Ragland is back in the Marines.

How much of a tour the 5-year-old will have is not known. His mother has had enough of life in the corps.

Davie's first hitch started in January before he underwent urethral surgery. He wanted to go into the serious operation in full dress Marine Corps blues.

His mother, Mrs. Maurice Ragland, wrote the Marine base at Cherry Point, N.C. The Marines came through with a tailor-made set of pint-sized blues that fit like a glove.

A bugle was purchased. White gloves followed. Davie learned taps and reveille.

"We'd all wake up to Davie playing reveille. We went to bed with Davie playing taps. We ate to the chow call. I might as well have been living at a Marine base," Mrs. Ragland said.

"I thought it was cute for a while, I scolded Davie one day," she said. "He listened quietly. When I finished he looked at me and said—'At ease.'"

That ended the sergeant's days in the Marines. The bugle disappeared. The uniform was set aside. Civilian life returned.

But old soldiers die with difficulty.

Last week the Marines at Cherry Point reminded Davie Nov. 10 was the 183rd birthday of the corps. They sent him a card three feet high and two and a half feet wide.

It was a call to arms.

Davie found an old drum in his closet. After some practice he decided to be a Marine drummer.

"I need a sword for my uniform," he told his mother.

"I guess we're headed for another showdown," Mrs. Ragland sighed.

The filament in an average electric light bulb is about 21 inches long before it is coiled and placed in the bulb.

UAW to Seek Order for Ex-Cell-O Talks

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union says it plans to seek a federal court injunction ordering the strike-bound Ex-Cell-O Corp. "to bargain on a national agreement."

Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer, said the union also has filed unfair labor practices charges against the company "for failure to bargain on a new national contract."

Some 5,000 UAW members struck Ex-Cell-O plants at Detroit and Traverse City and Fostoria, Lima and Bluffton, Ohio, five weeks ago.

Mazey said "we really don't know what the company's objection to a national contract is. All they will say is that the contract is 'unworkable,' but they won't say why."

Company spokesmen said they were "forced into signing a national agreement in 1955 by a strike situation and our experience with a national agreement was not a happy one. We think the new contract should be on a local basis."

Antarctica to Hold 1st Military Parade

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—Antarctica's first full-scale military parade will be held at McMurdo Sound next week.

It will be a farewell parade for George Dufek, retiring commander of "Operation Deep Freeze."

Dufek, now on a visit to Little America, will return to McMurdo on Monday. He is due to fly out to Christchurch, New Zealand, a few days later.

A red carpet of fluorescent rayon—used for antarctic survival tents—will be rolled out to his plane's doorway. A band is being recruited.

Churchill's Stature Undiminished by Critics

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Throughout England late this month, there will be celebrations of the premature appearance on earth 84 years ago of Winston Leonard Spencer Churchill.

He was, according to the latest chronicler of Sir Winston's life, "a gloomy red-headed child whom the family had not expected until some time in January of the following year."

Today, according to this same biographer, he is "the very luckiest old man. You know why, of course? Because there is never going to be a de-Churchillization, as there has been a de-Stalinization and in certain quarters a de-Rooseveltization.

"Everything bad has been said by now of Winston Churchill, and none of the bad things have diminished him. His reputation is safer than mother love."

The speaker is a fair-haired British youth named Geoffrey Bocca, who was once a rewrite man in New York for Lord Kemsley's chain of British newspapers, and is now a rather irreverent authority on Britain's fallen and risen stars. Geoff wrote the best seller, Elizabeth and Philip," and the controversial "The Woman Who Would Be Queen" about the Duchess of Windsor, and his latest, "The Adventurous Life of Winston Churchill" appears on bookstands this month.

"Churchill has always been treated with irreverence in England," he said, "and come through it nobly.

"At the age of 26, when Victoria was alive and life was rather stuffy, he was as wildly popular as Elvis Presley.

"In the first decade of the century he was hated as 'the most unpopular man in England.' In the second decade, he was discredited. In the 1920's he was merely disliked by the people. In the '30's he was utterly eclipsed. By wartime there was nowhere for him to go but up.

"You see why I call him a remarkably lucky old man?"

Biographer Bocca's next book, "The Uneasy Heads, a Report of Monarchy," deals with less fortunate personalities — in his words, "the figureheads, fatheads and frustrated heroes" who are the uncrowned royalty of Europe.

The most interesting of the dozens of men who might have been kings or princes if their monarchs had not been overthrown, is George Karageorgeovitch, the only prince behind the Iron Curtain.

"He is the elder brother of King Alexander, who was assassinated in 1934," Bocca says, "and he really should be the king of Yugoslavia today. But as a youth he was very violent—used to knock people down in fits of hysteria. They thought him mad, quite naturally, and he was incarcerated in a castle just outside Belgrade from 1922 to 1941.

"When they let him out, he moved into a house in the old residential section of Belgrade. He lets out flats to minor diplomats, and keeps one flat for himself. He's in his late 70's now, and lives pretty well on a small pension Tito gives him, but he's a hopeless old man, as most might-have-been kings naturally must be . . . broken, and close to broke."

As an indication of what a remote life this once-wild Iron-Curtained monarch lives, Bocca later interviewed Umberto of Italy, another uncrowned head, who cried: "You interviewed Karageorgeovitch? Isn't that incredible! He's my uncle, and I didn't think he'd been alive for 10 years!"

Rackets Group May Probe Charge Against Hoffa Jury

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets investigators indicated today they may look into disputed allegations of a possible effort to influence a jury that acquitted Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa of bribery charges.

The Rackets Committee, now beginning a 10-day Thanksgiving recess, also indicated it may check further into charges of cash payments to Hoffa by trucking industry advisers.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy developed both allegations Thursday in questioning John Bridge, a Chicago labor relations consultant to truck lines.

Bridge, final witness in five days of committee hearings on labor union boycotting and violence, rigorously denied both charges.

The alleged jury influence scheme came up when Bridge acknowledged he had written a letter to John L. Keeshin of Eagle River, Wis., a truck line operator, that "our friend will go on trial in Washington on June 17 with conditions somewhat more favorable for him."

Hoffa, international president of the giant Teamsters Union, was acquitted by a federal court jury here in July of last year of charges he conspired to bribe a Rackets Committee staff aide. The committee then was investigating Hoffa.

The Bridge letter also said, "the various contacts suggested at the Bismarck Hotel have been concluded with favorable results."

Bridge said this referred to a meeting he called of truck line operators at which plans were made for some operators to try through their local press to obtain publicity that would put Hoffa in a better light.

Kennedy said this explaation "seems unbelievable to me." But he said that it is correct the letter mentioning favorable results would make it seem to be an effort to influence the jury.

Bridge emphatically denied that was the intention.

He Looks Like Keelty, So He Is —but He Isn't

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Aides to Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin Thursday spotted a man at the next table in a Revell highway restaurant whom they thought to be James Keelty, president of the Baltimore Orioles.

But they couldn't be positive. He looked a little older.q

Albert W. Quinn, assistant to the governor, introduced himself and found the man was indeed Jim Keelty, but he was surprised to find anyone knew him in this area.

His card showed he was associated with an electronics laboratory in New York City. He hadn't heard of the Baltimore contract and baseball executive of the same name.

Streets Without Cars Not Entire Success

PAMPA, Tex. (AP)—This west Texas city's first experiment with the downtown mall—streets from which autos are barred—was not a complete success.

A teen-aged driver, whom police did not identify, crashed through a barrier Thursday, struck a displayed 1959 car, and rammed it into four other automobiles on display.

A spectator, Clyde Jonas, suffered a broken leg when he was pinned between two of the scrambled autos.

Police, who said damage was between $1,000 and $2,000, quoted the 17-year-old driver as saying his brakes locked.

Fortune Goes to School

LONDON (UPI)—William Stone, "The Squire of Piccadilly," left most of his 1,000,000 pound fortune ($2,800,000) to his old school, Peterhouse College at Cambridge. That will make Peterhouse, one of the smallest colleges at Cambridge, the richest in the University despite heavy death taxes. Stone died at the age of 101.

Bell Telephone Business Rises

Expects to Gain Close to 2½ Million Phones by End of 1958

NEW YORK (AP) — Bell Telephone business is on the way up again after a recession lull, Frederick P. Kappel, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., told the Bond Club of New York yesterday.

Last winter and spring new telephones were added at a rate about 40 per cent lower than 1957, Kappel said. A pickup starting this summer has sent installations racing ahead of last year's pace in the second half.

Kappel estimated the Bell system would gain close to 2½ million telephones in 1958 compared with a gain of 2,800,000 in 1957. This would bring the total of Bell phones in service to 54¼ millions more than 80 per cent of all the nation's telephones.

He said 1959 probably would be a good but not record year of expansion for the telephone companies. For the fourth consecutive year, Kappel said, Bell construction will exceed two billion dollars.

The world's biggest public utility pruned 1958 construction because of the recession, he disclosed. But instead of cutting back drastically, which would mean racing the motor later in order to catch up, he said, AT&T went ahead with its financing and built quite a lot of useful margin into its plant.

Octane rating was established as a basis of gasoline value in World War I.

Bob Considine Says:

New Jet Passengers Should Be Briefed

NEW YORK—The airlines would do well, it seems to me, to give some kind of tape-recorded briefing to the countless passengers who soon will be filing into the doors of the jets.

The cockpit crew is too busy during the take-offs and landings to familiarize people with the somewhat startling differences between this kind of transportation and that to which the customers have long been accustomed.

The steward or the stewardess might take care of that chore, but few of them are experienced enough, or sound authoritative enough, to do a proper job.

The tapes should be made in basic English, and whatever other languages seem fitting, and should be kept as brief as possible.

For example, the Boeing 707 (and presumably the DC-8 and Convair's 880) may roll for as many as 40 seconds before taking off. Most airline passengers have been schooled to worry a bit if their plane rolls more than 20 seconds on the ground. The Pan Am 707 in which we flew to Paris last month was doing 180 miles an hour before it lifted off the strip at Idlewild. That's 75 m.p.h. faster than is required for a DC-7 or big Connie to leave the ground.

A few feet off the ground there was a resounding "whoomh!" — the sound and slight shock of the great landing gear being quickly pulled up.

It's a magnificently effective gear, but it caused wonder among the passengers who had no idea that the tremor in the huge craft meant that everything was working right, not wrong.

Fifty feet off the ground, an eerie silence fell upon the engines. I'd bet that 90 per cent of the more than 100 passengers on the plane looked out their windows instinctively, to see if the propellers were still turning. There are, of course, no propellers. Again, it meant that everything was dandy, not ominous. But how could a person tell!

Then there is the question of landing. That, too, should be gone into—vocally—as the jet prepares to touch down. The prescribed pilot practice is to bring the jet in quite high, rather than the gradual let-down to which millions of passengers have been duly conditioned through the years. The aim, of course, is to save fuel, which is gulped in vast quantities at low levels.

You come into the area of the field at perhaps 20,000 or 25,000 feet, and you are sailing along more smoothly and silently than ever before in the history of transportation when suddenly the pilot lowers the landing gear. You felt you were suspended in air before that; but now as the huge gear breasts the windstorm it sounds as if a locomotive rolled by quite near to you. You slow down a hundred, perhaps 200 m.p.h.

When the wheels touch the strip —at perhaps 160 instead of the accustomed 105 — two remarkable "spoiler" flaps rear upward from the top of the wing and push against the wind that is racing by. People are accustomed to flaps which extend down, not up. The 707 has these, too; it's the ones that go up that need explaining. They, too, are among the marvels of this plane, and similar craft turned out by Douglas and Convair.

What is unnerving to the uninitiated, however, is the fact that the rearing of the "spoiler" reveals the ribs and struts and skeleton construction of the great wing itself.

It should be explained that since there are no propellers to throw into reverse, this method not only serves as an air brake but presses the wheels down firmer on the strip, thereby increasing the efficiency of the massive breaks.

This is a great machine, the 707. A little speech of introduction to its wonders could only enhance its acceptance by the traveling public.

All of the states have laws which require children to start school but they vary greatly in the starting age. Many begin at the age of 6 years but some set 8 years.

More Foreign Ships Here

CLEVELAND (AP) — Foreign ships using Cleveland's port facilities increased 30 per cent this year and customs officials say even more overseas shipping can be expected in 1959. The St. Lawrence Seaway was credited for the increase. Three hundred and ninety foreign ships visited Cleveland during 1958 compared with 299 in 1957.

PRESENT 'STATE FAIR' — A theater in the round will be the type of production the Lake Orion Community High School seniors will present tonight at 8 in the school's gymnasium. Members of the cast for "State Fair" rehearse a scene where Paul Pensyl (center) of 281 Indian Lake Rd., brings home the prizes he has won in a game at the fair. His father, (left) is played by Kent Winship of 946 Orion Rd. Karen Miller of 55 Mouton St., is the mother.

Students to Battle Teachers

By SALLY COLLINS

Tonight Walled Lake High School students will have an opportunity to battle their wits and athletic abilities against their teachers during the annual Students vs. Faculty game.

Each team will have their own cheerleaders for the game which begins in the high school gymnasium at 8 p.m. For the students will be Linda Chabot, Rosemary Kreza, Rhele Diver, Sandy Capel, Carol Sommer, and Louann Pirtle.

Lucy Park, Joan Anderson, Mrs. Pat Lobdell, Mrs. Mary Farrow, and Mrs. Pat Ash will lead the roots for the faculty.

The student cheerleaders will wear costumes representating Siam, Mexico, Spain, France, Germany and Hawaii. The faculty leaders will wear gorilla costumes to denote the "fierceness" of the faculty.

Student team manager is Bob Smith and Mike Godfrey is in charge of lining up student players. Any senior boy is eligible to join the student team.

A dance, sponsored by the student council, will follow the game and end at 11:30 p.m. Chairmen of the dance committees are Nancy Riffenburg, tickets; Jane Narrin, refreshments; and Louann Pirtle, publicity.

DEMONSTRATES WRESTLING

Yesterday, Bertrand Shurtleff, a teacher of English for the past 20 years, presente dan assembly entitled "Wrestling Revelations." He demonstrated through audience participation the basic holds in wrestling and the effect of each one.

Feature Square Dancing Tonight at Avondale

By CAROL MAZUREK

Tonight the seniors and juniors of Avondale High School will sponsor the annual Sadie Hawkins-Little Brown Jug dance. Square dancing will be featured.

Three Educators Attend Science Workshop Today

Three Marlette Community Schools educators are attending a three day regional elementary science workshop in Flint today.

No Page Next Week

Because of the observance of Thanksgiving week and the fact that area schools will not be in session Thursday and Friday, The Press will not publish a school page Friday, Nov. 28.

Council to Sell Coach Tickets

By SUE PIERCE

The West Bloomfield Township High School student council is planning to sell student bus tickets for away basketball games.

The away game schedule will be divided into two seasons of four games each. Season tickets will be sold for the bus for $1.40. Tickets go on sale Dec. 9.

Some 70 students raised $500 last week during their door to door soliciting program for the annual Share the Fare drive, sponsored by the American Field Service.

The money will be used to finance the foreign exchange student program.

By BARBARA SHAVER

Pontiac Northern High School choir members have selected the style and color of robes they want to wear and now they are trying to figure out an effective fund-raising campaign which will earn the $1,500 they need to pay for them.

A mallard green robe with a reversible pennant stole and a Northern monogram in the middle of the back was selected by the robe committee consisting of Dick Eley, Nicky Trietsch, Lynne Thompson, Ron Hutchinson, Pam Huntley and Tom Eley.

The stoles will have a mallard green monogram on the white side and a white monogram on the red side.

NEW TEACHING METHODS

Something new has been added to the teaching methods of Neil W. Gray's French classes. The students listen to the records and tapes made in French by Gray and also Marcel Didier, a student from Luxembourg who speaks in his native language, French, for the pronunciation exercises.

The sound room is now being finished and soon each student will have a booth of his own. Gray will then use a control panel to talk to individual students or to the entire class. This is the first time these methods of teaching languages have been used in Pontiac.

This week the seats and curtains were installed in the new auditorium. The gymnasium and hand ball court floors were also completed this week.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

FIVE ACES: It's a deadlock between "It's Only Make Believe" (Conway Twitty) and "To Know Him Is to Love Him" (The Teddy Bears) for top spot this week, with the latter looking like a winning bet.

Second best is "Tom Dooley" (The Kingston Trio) still hanging in there. Third in sales is "I Got Stung" (Elvis). In fourth spot is "Topsy" (Cozy Cole) and last on the top five list is "Lonesome Town" (Ricky Nelson).

Current entertainers rarely match the genius of Cliff Edwards. He needed no supporting cast; just a stool, a ukelele and Cliff Edwards alone in a spot of light on a large dance floor or stage was a "spectacular" unequaled by present-day performers.

Most of his records are now collectors items, several of which made him a "top" attraction during the 1920s. One recent LP, available but little known, is "Ukelele Ike Sings Again" on the Disneyland label.

Oddly enough, Edwards gained fame under assumed names. For one generation he was Ukelele Ike, for a later age he was the voice of Jimminy Cricket. Through both eras he set a fantastic record by selling an astounding 74-million single discs. This rather obscure LP, complete with red hot jazz band, is one of his best.

ALBUM DEPT.: Capitol's November batch of LPs now in record shops includes some tasty musical treats. Audio bugs should eat up "Experiments in Sound" (T-981) by John Richards & his Ork., interesting both musically and technically.

Vocal LPs of note include two great products of two great female belters—"Things Are Swingin'" by Peggy Lee with Jack Marshall's group and "Judy in Love," a Judy Garland at her exciting best backed by old standby Nelson Riddle.

For jazz devotees, Capitol offers two fairly good album contrasts in "Latin Lace" (T-1082) by the George Shearing Quintet and "Big T's Dixieland Band" (T-1095) by Big T's (Teagarden's) Dixieland Band.

Getting something new to wear is always an exciting event for shoppers. In this case it takes two, as Mrs. Noble Heitmeyer consults with daughter, Jo Ann, on a new jacket.

Watching Shoppers Is Often Enlightening

BY LYDIA ROTHMAN

Most shoppers have a definite purpose in mind when they enter a store — shoes for the children or food for the dinner table.

Shoppers are also interesting to watch — there being a variety of methods employed in making a purchase.

For instance there is the lady who knows just what she wants — and wastes no time about her selections. She can also be a menace to fellow shoppers . . . we have an acquaintance who was nearly run down by such a shopper — and she was only five feet tall.

Other shoppers take more time making their selections. They enjoy looking at everything and wander about the stores having a wonderful time before deciding what to buy.

Luncheon Talk at Zonta Club

Mrs. Walter Teeuwissen Jr. gave a Thanksgiving message before members of the Pontiac Zonta Club at Hotel Waldron Thursday noon.

Marker Art to Be Shown

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BIRMINGHAM — Sunday afternoon at the Kingswood School galleries, Thomas Marker will open an exhibit of his paintings and art work. The show will be at the school in Cranbrook until Dec. 17.

Mr. Marker, a native of Michigan, has been living in Birmingham for the past 17 years. His sponsor for the one-man show is Clifford B. West who is associated with Kingswood.

Mrs. Donald Kiskadden of Detroit, Mr. Marker's sister, and Mrs. Witham McClelland of Rochester, his niece, will assist during the afternoon and at the 4 o'clock tea.

Mrs. Ferd M. Broock entertained at luncheon today for bride-elect Mary Elizabeth Turner who will be married Nov. 27 to James Lovell. Mary has been here for several weeks visiting her future father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Lovell. Her home is in Wahiawa, Hawaii.

Her mother, Mrs. Margaret Turner, arrived last Wednesday and her sister, Mrs. Alan Peterson, came Tuesday. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gilray Jr. of Avondale road.

Each visitor has arrived with gorgeous leis, and of course all flowers for the wedding will be flown over the day before the wedding.

Mrs. Gilray, who is a former schoolmate of the bride-elect's mother, gave a luncheon Thursday and Mr. and Mrs. Gilray will be hosts at a supper party for both families.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Smart left early this week for their respective winter homes —the Pease's near Hobe Sound and the Smart's at Fort Lauderdale. They plan to meet "halfway" for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Haines, who will move to Los Angeles soon, were surprised last Friday evening when friends entertained at a progressive dinner which started at the William L. Martins.

Other hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Karlton Pierce and the S.M. Vasses.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving A. Duffy have as houseguests this weekend Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Newberry of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis will have a family Thanksgiving at their home on Crestlake road.

Besides their own children will come Catherine, Helen and James Coyle from Toledo.

Frank J. McGinnis Jr. will come from Western Michigan College and others will be their son-in-law and daughters Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Eckout, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hayes and children, and Maureen and Sheila McGinnis.

Scholarship Applicants Screened

U. of M. Club Host to Students

University of Michigan Alumnae Club of Pontiac entertained Pontiac Northern and Pontiac Central High School students, who have applied for regents-alumni scholarships to the university next fall, Mrs. Collis Scott was hostess at the Thursday evening affair at her Franklin boulevard home.

Pontiac alumni have been assisting the alumnae club scholarship committee for the past two weeks, interviewing applicants and filling out evaluation forms for the committee on university scholarships. All applicants had final interviews at this meeting.

Each accredited high school in the state is entitled to at least one regents-alumni scholarship provided a qualified graduating senior applies.

OTHER AWARDS MADE

In addition, a number of awards at large are made on the basis of statewide competitive comparison of qualified applicants from participating schools. More than 500 awards are made each year.

The scholarships — designed to give financial aid to promising students who otherwise would not receive a college education — cover semester fees for the freshman year at the university in any of the undergraduate schools or colleges.

Awards are made by the Committee on University Scholarships with the assistance and advice of university alumni and the high school principal and teachers in the applicants' communities.

CHARACTER STRESSED

Doris Haynes, president of the alumnae group, and Mrs. Donald Brownlee greeted applicants. On the evening social committee were Margaret Steward, chairman; Mrs. Richard Wells and Patricia Raeside.

Relatives Can Buy Pictures

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Our daughter was married recently and of course pictures were taken of the wedding. Several of our nearest relatives have expressed a wish to have a picture of my daughter. As you know these pictures are quite expensive and I am wondering if furnishing them with pictures is our responsibility. Will you please tell me how this situation is handled?

Answer: This is a very difficult situation because each and every loving relative and friend not only would like a picture, but expects to be given one, and they are so much more costly than one imagines.

I would suggest that you tell those who ask for them that you wish you could give each one a picture but that they cost (however many dollars apiece) and that you cannot afford to give them. Then explain that if they really want one they can order one from the photographer who will be delighted to take their order.

"Dear Mrs. Post: One of the men with whom my husband works stopped at our house last Sunday afternoon to see my husband about a business matter. His wife waited out in the car for him. Do you think I was rude not to go out and ask her to come in? She was a complete stranger to me."

Answer: If you knew his wife was waiting in the car you should have asked the husband if she would not like to come in and then, unless he assured you she would rather not, gone out and invite her to join you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A group of us were having a discussion on the proper thing for a man to wear to a night club if he does not wear evening clothes. Some thought a dark suit should always be worn, and others thought that any suit except a sport suit, would be just as acceptable. Will you please tell us which is correct?"

Answer: If he doesn't wear a tuxedo, he ought to wear the darkest suit he has, and most certainly not a "sport suit."

Group Sees Play, Film

Vera Murphy and Roberta Davis were in charge of the program, "A Decade of Human Rights," presented when members of Junior Wesleyan Service Guild of Central Methodist Church met Tuesday evening.

A play entitled "The Peoples' Struggle for Freedom" was also presented. Taking part in the play were Helen Kinney, Judy Palmer and Vera Murphy. Miss Murphy also showed a film on India. Hostesses at the affair were Miss Kinney and Mable Smith.

Alpha Alpha Unit Hears 2 Speakers

Program chairman Mrs. Bert Anselmy introduced speakers Mrs. Jerry Swanson and Mrs. Mary Hedlund, who discussed "The Art of Entertaining." They gave ideas for preparing buffets and cocktail parties.

Mrs. Fred Baumgartner, chairman for the Christmas dinner, announced that event will be held Dec. 11 at Devon Gables. Secret Pals will be exchanged at the gathering. Mrs. Ben Sweeney has announced that gifts for children at Pontiac State Hospital also will be collected at the dinner.

Teachers View Slides

Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald showed slides of her African trip as a guest at the Teachers Exchange Club meeting Thursday evening at Devon Gables.

Hostesses were Mrs. John Borsvold, Mrs. W. M. Robertson, and Mrs. Marjorie Cotterman.

Others were Mrs. Monson Lowell, Mrs. M. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne de Beauclair, Grady Smith, Jane E. Strom, Carol Cotterman and Mrs. Jeanette Hillebrand.

Sontag to Speak at Clinic Dinner

Dr. Lester Sontag, nationally known child psychiatrist and director of the Fels Research Institute at Antioch College, will be speaker at the Annual Dinner of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic on Feb. 5.

Mrs. Clarke Andreae will be in charge of the dinner which will be open to the public.

Madeline Half, clinic director, has reported that applications for assisting the Clinic are at an all time high with 65 requests in October.

Do-C-Do Club Adds Director to Board

Harold Brady was elected to the board of directors when Do-C-Do Square Dance Club met at McCarroll School Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Costello served refreshments.

Mrs. Humbaugh Is Hostess

Child Culture Club Meets

Mrs. Irvin Humbaugh was hostess to the Child Culture Club at her Elizabeth Lake road home Thursday evening. Mrs. Neil Nelson conducted the business meeting.

Speaker was Mrs. John E. Harding, homebound teacher in Oakland County. She visits children who are physically unable to leave their homes to attend school.

If the children are well enough, the teacher attempts to keep them up to standards set by the board of education, in the hope that some day they can enter school.

The next meeting will be a Christmas bazaar to be held at the home of Mrs. Dale Swanson of Birmingham.

Hooray for Her! — Abby

Mother-in-Law Far from Teched If They Come When She Whistles

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

ABBY

"DEAR ABBY: I married the oldest son in a family of twelve children. They are good honest people, but some of their ways are hard for me to take. When we visit them in the country, my mother-in-law blows a whistle to call everybody to the table. You'd think she was calling hogs! She runs her house like an Army post; breakfast at 8, lunch at 12 and supper at 6 p.m. If anybody is late (including my husband, who is 26), he can't eat until everybody is finished and he has to eat it cold, all by himself. Don't you think the old lady is a little tetched?"

SUE

DEAR SUE: The "old lady" is far from tetched. I'll wager she never has a problem with children who "aren't hungry now" and straggle in to eat at odd hours. She's dumb like a fox. Hooray for her!

"DEAR ABBY: Every night between 5 and 5:30 p.m. I pick up my wife with my car; as she comes into the car I always kiss her. Several times when we arrive home she says, "You didn't kiss me tonight!" I know that I DID kiss her but she forgot. This has been the reason for many fights between us. Can you give me some advice?" — JAKE

DEAR JAKE: When you get her home, give her a kiss she won't forget!

"DEAR ABBY: I am writing to you in hopes that you will not only give me advice but will print my letter to warn others not to make the same foolish mistake. I loaned $500 to a good friend of mine. I was ashamed to ask him for an "IOU." I did not ask any interest either. After two years, all I have collected is $50. When I asked my friend for the balance he actually looked me square in the eye and said that HE NEVER BORROWED ANY MORE THAN FIFTY DOLLARS FROM ME! Please, Abby, don't tell me to chalk it up to experience and forget about it, because I cannot afford to forget about $450 in cash. It was my life's savings and I worked hard for that money. What shall I do?"

TAKEN FOR A RIDE

DEAR TAKEN: (And you certainly were!) It will be difficult to collect any money if you have no written proof that you loaned it. Get a lawyer.

"DEAR ABBY: I have been living in the neighborhood of a peculiar-acting woman for six years. Our friendship has been an off-again, on-again affair. Sometimes she is very friendly with me and then again she will tell me off and not speak to me for a month. Right now she is having one of her mad spells. Our children play together. I want to know if my boy should invite her children to his birthday party?"

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Let your child invite whomever he wants. Your relationship with the parents should not enter into it.

Exercise Does It

Takes Time to Build Up Calves

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "Will you please tell me if I am doing the right exercise to make my calves larger? I rise high on my toes and then lower my heels to the floor. I do this about 100 times a day but it doesn't seem to be doing much to help. I have been doing this every day for about two weeks."

A. You are too impatient. It takes longer than that to build muscles and that is what you have to do in order to enlarge your calves.

Q. "Are hormone creams and lotions harmful to the skin? Will they cause cancer?"

A. Most physicians now feel that hormone creams are harmless. If you have a history of cancer, you should check with your doctor.

Q. "My copper red hair is beginning to turn gray. Would the vitamin that is fed to the flamingos at Hialeah (Florida) to preserve their color help my hair? And what vitamin is it?"

A. I did not know that these birds were given a vitamin which is supposed to preserve the color of their feathers. However, the only vitamins which have been suspected of having some direct effect on hair are those of the B family.

Q. "I am very much underweight but my problem is that when I eat the things which would make me gain weight I break out with pimples."

A. Women who want to gain weight often make the mistake of stuffing themselves with lots of very rich food. The result is often the one you mention. Remember that vitamin deficiency is one of the causes of underweight. Therefore do not neglect your vegetables and fruits and juices in an effort to eat heavier fare.

To enlarge your calves rise high on your toes, then lower heels to the floor. But you must keep at it; even 100 times a day every day for two weeks is not enough as a reader discovered.

It is often a good idea to eat five smaller meals a day rather than three very large ones. You can add more butter than your slimmer sister, use whole milk instead of skim milk and enjoy salad dressings and ice cream, and cake but eat plenty of the other foods, too.

You also need plenty of sleep and outdoor exercise and should try to cut out as much hurry and worry as possible.

Q. "I have some large scars on the top of my head which show through my hair. My hair is thin. What can I do to hide these scars?"

A. You can get very clever small hair pieces which are pinned on with hair pins to cover the bald area.

Mrs. Etta Hibler was hostess at her Mohawk road home for a salad luncheon for Martha Circle.

Church Group Meets at Atwell Home

Cohostesses were Mrs. Isabel Selden and Mrs. Lester Kindy. Margaret Steward spoke on "Missions."

To repot plants that are brought into the house for winter, use two parts of garden soil, one part peat moss, and one part sand.

Among employes to be honored are Elizabeth Borrae, who has been with the hospital 23 years, and Gertrude Buxton, Patricia Retsel, and Alois Tanghe, 21-year employes.

Additional honorees for years of service include Elva Templeton and Bertha Tangh, 19 years; Denise Decesare, 17 years; Barbara Kemp, Mary Sweier, Mary Millenbach, and Mary A. Johnson, 16 years; and Gertrude Harley, Russell Downing, Ruby Horn, Blanche Barger, and Charlotte Sims, 15 years.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Meets at Luther Home

Margaret and Virginia Luther were hostesses at their Lincoln street home to members of Xi Pi Exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi for a dinner meeting Tuesday evening.

Following the dinner, Jean Warnock, president, conducted the business meeting and the Luthers gave a description of their European trip taken this summer.

The next meeting will be a Christmas Party Dec. 16 at the home of Elizabeth Halsey.

Silver jewelry hand wrought in the metal shop at Cranbrook Academy of Art will be among items at the annual Christmas exhibition and sale from 8 to 10 p.m. Friday and Nov. 22, 23 and Dec. 6 and 7 from 2 to 5 p.m. in the art galleries. Richard Mazur (left) shows a silver pendant made by Michael Jerry (right) to Mary Lou Abel who is working for master's degree in design.

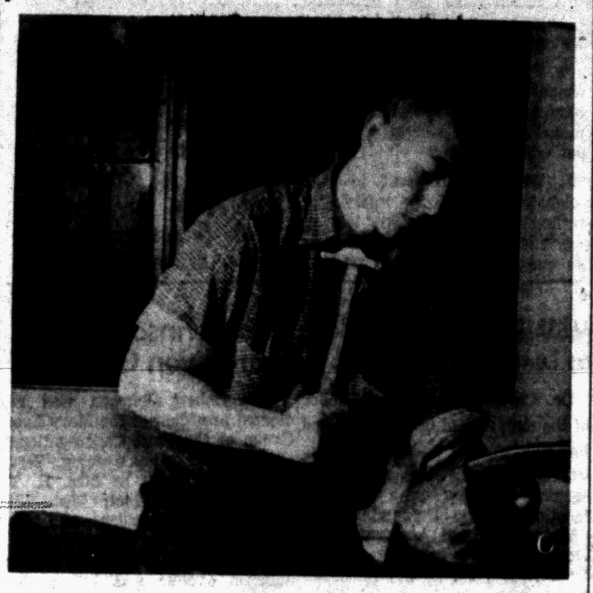

You May Need Air Humidifier

If your hands redden and crack these winter days, there may be a more lasting solution than use of hand creams, only.

There's a possibility that air in the home is too dry; perhaps addition of a humidifier to the heating system will solve the problem, permanently.

Homebound Wife Apt to Get Stale

By RUTH MILLETT

Once a wife has let a husband develop the easy-chair-every-evening habit, it's hard to break him of it.

A wife writes: "My husband works long hours for six days a week, and on Sundays he doesn't like to visit friends or have anyone visit us.

"This I can understand, because he wants to rest and he is also tired of talking and seeing people. What I can't understand is his not wanting to take me out to dinner and the movies at least on our wedding anniversary.

"We went out about three times last year. That included a visit to a friend's house on a Saturday night. I don't think I'm being overdemanding to feel that we should go out one night a week, because a wife comes back from an evening out with a brighter outlook on life.

"As I know, nagging will get me nowhere and I want him to take me out because he wants to. Would you write something in the paper that might help me?"

I don't know any magic words that would make a stay-at-home husband WANT to take his wife out to dinner and to a movie once a week.

But if your husband happens to read this particular column—you can always fold the paper so that he can't miss it—I might be able to persuade him that he SHOULD get you out of the house more than three times a year.

Listen, Mister: A wife whose husband never takes her out for an evening's fun and companionship goes stale on the job. And a marriage that isn't brightened by the companionship of friends, some social life, and by getting out and going places together grows mighty dull, especially for the wife who is at home all day and naturally doesn't want to stay at home every evening, too.

Just because a man works hard all day doesn't mean there's no way for him to relax besides sitting in his easy chair until he falls asleep every night. Recreation is also relaxing.

Why not surprise your wife this evening by saying out of a clear, blue sky, "How about a movie?"

Her pleasure at actually having you suggest it may even warm your heart enough so that next week you'll want to take her out to dinner, too.

Grind Up Whole Orange for Old Fashioned Cake

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Today's recipe is for a cake that is a little out of the ordinary. It's an Orange Nut cake. This is a nice, moist cake, but one that doesn't raise too high.

Mrs. V. L. Summer of Drayton Woods treasures this recipe from her grandmother. Cake decorating is one of her hobbies. She also loves gardening and sewing.

ORANGE NUT CAKE
By Mrs. V. L. Sumner

2 eggs
1½ cups sugar
½ cup shortening
¾ cup sour milk
1 teaspoon baking soda
¼ cup hot water
1 cup raisins, ground
1 large orange, ground
3 cups sifted flour
Pinch salt
½ cup nuts

Cream sugar and shortening together. Add eggs and beat well. Dissolve soda in hot water and add. Add sour milk, alternately with sifted flour and salt. Stir in ground raisins, orange and nuts.

Bake in greased 9x13 pan at 350 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes.

Jealousy of Adolescent May Hurt Both

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Harry W. owns what he calls "My beat-up heap."

The week his high school football team was playing an important game in another town, Harry somehow got involved in a pledge to drive seven friends to the game and the party following.

Then he began to doubt his car's ability to accommodate them and their bulky party clothes. Finally, on the night before the game he asked his father for a loan of the family car.

Unfortunately, that afternoon Mr. W.'s barber had called his attention to his growing bald spot.

As Harry appealed for help with his plan for enjoying himself, his father noted the 17-year-old thickness of his son's brown hair. He noted the taut flatness of Harry's stomach and the way the smooth column of his throat rose out of his old T-shirt.

He thought of his own middle-aged body and the youthful experiences that still awaited Harry — and barked with sudden and intense irritation, "No."

Then, of course, he proceeded to make it sound reasonable. And talked at great length of his obligation to make Harry think before making promises he couldn't keep.

If you have not felt jealous of your adolescent child, you must be ready for heaven.

Most of us have. I don't see how it can be helped. Our adolescent's sexual attractiveness comes into blossom at the same time that ours is becoming a little worn. If we weren't a little jealous, we'd be inhuman. The sensible thing is to know we are.

Otherwise, like Harry's father, we can be manipulated by our unknown jealousy into all kinds of spiteful "No's" which we must then labor on to make sound righteous.

But when we admit our natural jealousy of our beautiful young creatures, there's gain for us as well as for them. We are not only able to give them more reasonable treatment but can use our envy of them to our own advantage.

Knowing that we wish we had their slim bodies and clear eyes, we may start cutting down on those double martinis and patries.

Though we realize we can't have 17-year-old bodies again, we may start better care of the ones we have.

Carole K. Spear, Neil Gotting Wed in St. Vincent Rite

The bride is the daughter of Harold Spear of Louisville, Ky., and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mildred Page of South Parke street.

Wet Spots Seep Into Otherwise Dry Panorama

By The Associated Press

There were a few wet spots in the northern tier of states but dry weather prevailed in most other parts of the country today.

It was fairly cool in the eastern half of the country but warmer air spread into northwestern sections.

A series of weak cold fronts moving rapidly across country caused considerable temperature fluctuations. One which passed through the Mississippi Valley dropped temperatures 5 to 12 degrees lower than Thursday morning in the upper and mid Mississippi Valley.

It was a little warmer east of the Midwest cold air but it was 10 to 20 degrees cooler along the northern Florida and Carolina coast as cold air passed across the Atlantic coastal areas. One of the biggest temperature drops was at Cape Hatteras, N.C., with the 40 degree reading 20 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier.

Rainfall was light and confined mainly to two small areas—along the Washington-Oregon coast and in the lower Great Lakes region. An inch of snow was reported in upper Michigan. Showers were forecast in New England.

What's Dis Heah, Andy? Why Dat's Letter From Ike!

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Andy, 'splain this to me: I got this letter from the White House—"

"Now, wait a minute, Amos. You been dreaming again. Ain't that right Kingfish?"

"Yeah. Sure sounds that way, Amos, you got as much chance of gettin' a letter from the White House as you is to become Kingfish of the Mystic Knights of the Sea."

Amos was right, though.

The White House itself made the announcement Thursday.

President Eisenhower named Gosden as one of a 10-man delegation to represent him at the Nov. 28-Dec. 4 inauguration of Don Adolfo Lopez Mateos as President of Mexico.

Gosden, a one-time tobacco salesman from Richmond, Va., has played golf with Eisenhower at Denver. The White House described him as a long time personal friend of the President.

The 59-year-old Gosden — or rather, the Amos he long portrayed — has been a household word to radio and many TV fans almost since the crystal set days.

Amos is a wistful, trusting soul — often the victim of the boastful Andy — originated by Charles J. Correll — and the big dealing Kingfish. They are just a few of the colorful characters who populate the comedy-variety series.

Million Dollar Hotel Planned in Lansing

EAST LANSING (AP)— Plans for a new one million dollar, 100 room hotel, two stories high and with an outdoor swimming pool have been disclosed here.

Local residents near the site, next to the Lansing-East Lansing line, have protested and zoning difficulties would have to be ironed out to permit a start of construction.

Mervin F. Cotes, Lansing industrialist, said plans call for local financing and lease of the proposed structure for operation to a midwestern hotel chain.

Report Bulganin Is Seriously Ill

Reliable Sources Claim Ousted Soviet Official Undergoing Treatment

MOSCOW (UPI) —Marshal Nikolai Bulganin who was replaced as premier last April is seriously ill and undergoing medical treatment in Moscow, reliable sources said today.

Nature of his illness was not disclosed. The 63-year-old Bulganin also was reported ill last June and in 1955 when he was unable to receive a visiting Finnish delegation.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev disclosed last summer Bulganin had undergone an operation in a Moscow hospital. He made the statement at a party at the British Embassy in honor of the queen's birthday.

His 1955 illness was announced by the official Soviet news agency Tass, the first time such an announcement had been made about a Soviet official since Josef Stalin suffered a stroke in March 1953.

After his June illness it was announced that Bulganin had taken up the post of chairman of the Economic Council of the Remote and Minor Stavropol Area. This was followed by his elimination from the presidium of the Communist Party's Central Committee.

Last week Khrushchev denounced Bulganin as a member of the Malenkov-Molotov "anti-party group" which opposed Khrushchev's economic plans. This led observers to conclude Bulganin had been removed from his job in Stavropol.

2 Polio Clinics Slated Dec. 3, 4 in Waterford

Two more Parent-Teacher Assn.-sponsored Polio Clinic's have been scheduled in Waterford Twnship for Dec. 1, 3, and 4.

A second-service clinic will be established at the William Austin Burt School from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., Dec. 1, with Stringham and Lambert schools also participating.

This clinic will be open for one evening only, rather than for two evenings as previously announced, according to co-chairmen Mrs. Max G. Coleman and Mrs. Phillip C. Meacham.

Any child or adult in the area is eligible to attend the clinic, and cost is $1 for each injection. Clinic officials stressed the fact that those persons who received first injections at the November clinic, are now eligible for the second.

The Donelson School will have its first polio clinic from 5 to 8 p.m. Dec. 3 and 4, according to PTA health chairman Mrs. John Edwards.

Nine nurses from the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital have offered to administer the polio service under the supervision of volunteer Dr. Joseph L. Schirle.

There will be follow-up clinics at the Donelson School in January and next summer Mrs. Edwards said.

Trooper for 29 Years, Retiring From Force

LANSING (AP)—Sgt. John E. Pennala, 53, commanding officer of the State Police post at Brighton, will retire Jan. 3 after more than 29 years of service.

State Police announced the retirement yesterday.

Pennala has headed the post since June 1949.

WHO'S AFRAID OF THE DOCTOR? — You'd never guess this lively five-year-old has a hole in his heart. Stephen Smith, whose parents brought him from their London suburb home to the United States for surgery they hope will give him a chance for a normal life, plays with a balloon aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth arriving in New York. A hometown group raised funds for the trip and operation costs.

Students Donate to Clinton Fund in Birmingham

"Give up a coke for Clinton."

Students are being asked to donate a dime — the price of a coke. Already $300 has been collected from classmates.

The Birmingham school newspaper, "The Highland," is sending letters to editors of other student newspapers in the nation, asking them to join the drive.

The project was started by five Birmingham journalism students, Mike Forster, Margo Mensing, Jack Mitchell, John Hyde and Ann Lawrence. They said they contacted Clinton's superintendent of schools and learned $250,000 was needed to rebuild the bombed school.

An editorial in the school paper said ". . . we, you and I, can rebuild the Clinton High School. Each of us will only have to give up the pric oef one coke. That's all, just one coke, and we can buy the bricks to rebuild Clinton."

The first person to be educated to lead a full productive life despite being both blind and deaf was Laura Bridgmen, who was born in Hanover, N. H., in 1829 and attended Perkins School for the Blind near Boston.

8 Jackson Men Put in Solitary

Convicts Get 30 Days for Part in Strike on Monday

JACKSON (AP) — Eight convicts have been sent to solitary confinement for 30 days for their part in a sitdown strike of some 300 inmates at Southern Michigan Prison on last Monday.

They are among 11 accused of being ring leaders in the strike, which resulted in the prison's 4,000-plus inmates being sent to their cells. The strikers were herded without incident from a textile and metal stamping plant where they worked.

Two of the 11 were cleared by the prison's disciplinary board and another sent to a psychopathic ward.

Bannan refused to disclose names of the 11 men, saying he didn't want "mothers calling me."

The warden described everything as under control at the prison, world's largest walled penitentiary. Sixty-four state troopers summoned when the strike broke out, but never called into action, were sent back to their posts.

Slayer of 4 Children Enters Guilty Plea

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Orland D. McMillan, 43, who shotgunned four of his five children to death as they slept in their home near Sparta, today pleaded guilty to murder.

McMillan was charged specifically with the murder of his son, Ronald, 7. Also killed the night of Sept. 23 were Bonnie Jane, 6; Richard, 22 months, and Michele Yvonne, 10 months.

McMillan, dressed in a brown pin-striped suit, white shirt and tie and wearing glasses, was returned to the Kent County Jail where he has been held without bond since killing the four children.

Shoes for left and right feet were shaped alike for many years. It was not until about the Civil War days that separate patterns were used.

Hope for 'Quiet' Vacation

Puerto Rico Is Forgiven; Bentleys to Visit Island

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) has forgiven Puerto Rico.

Bentley and his wife are flying there Saturday for a two-week vacation, which they hope will be a quiet one.

The Owosso congressman probably couldn't be blamed for staying as far as possible from that Caribbean paradise, or at least from some of its citizens.

Bentley was one of five congressmen shot on the House floor in 1954 by Puerto Rican nationalist fanatics.

A .30 caliber pistol bullet pierced his lung, stomach and diaphragm and shattered his liver. For several days he was given only a 50-50 chance of survival.

But that's all past, Bentley said today. An "all-is-forgiven" type goodwill tour soon after the near-tragedy erased any ill-feeling that might have existed.

"We were so royally entertained and everyone was so gracious and wonderful there," Bentley said, "but we were so rushed that I didn't get to enjoy a rest at all.

"This time," he said, "we just want to enjoy a quiet vacation."

General News Editor of AP Dies Suddenly

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) —Paul R. Mickelson, 59, general news editor of The Associated Press, died today in New Rockelle Hospital.

He was stricken ill Thursday. The nature of his ailment was not immediately ascertained.

Last week, Mickelson attended a meeting of Associated Press managing editors at Frenck Lick, Ind. Returning to his desk in New York, he had worked through Wednesday.

Mickelson had spent his entire career as a newsman with the AP, which he joined in Chicago in March 1922. He served in a number of AP bureaus, as a sports writer, general newsman and executive, before being named general news editor April 7, 1944.

He covered many national sports events and was the creator of a popular AP sports column, the "Sports Trail." Frequently, he signed himself "The Old Professor."

"PRM"—the signature he used — had a facility for humor which enabled him to ease tensions at crucial times in the reporting of great news events.

OLD TIGERS — Headed for Cleveland in yesterday's trade are second baseman Bill Martin (left) and pitcher Al Cicotte. It was the first major deal of the season. The Tigers also sent infielder Osse Alvarez to the Indians in the swap.

Tigers Get Mossi and Narleski in Trade

Admits He 'Gave Up Plenty'

Lane Feels Sure Martin Will Boost Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—General manager Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians, forced to give up two top hurlers to land scrappy Billy Martin, said today the deal could pay off both on the field and at the gate.

While admitting the Indians, "gave up plenty," to get Martin, Lane pointed out that the fiery infielder, "could make us one-two-three in next year's race, possibly the difference of 300,000 to 400,000 in attendance."

The Indians obtained Martin and pitcher Al Cicotte from the Detroit Tigers yesterday in exchange for pitchers Don Mossi and Ray Narleski and infielder Ossie Alvarez.

Martin, 30, was traded to the Indians exactly one year after he was sent to the Tigers in a 13-player deal with Kansas City.

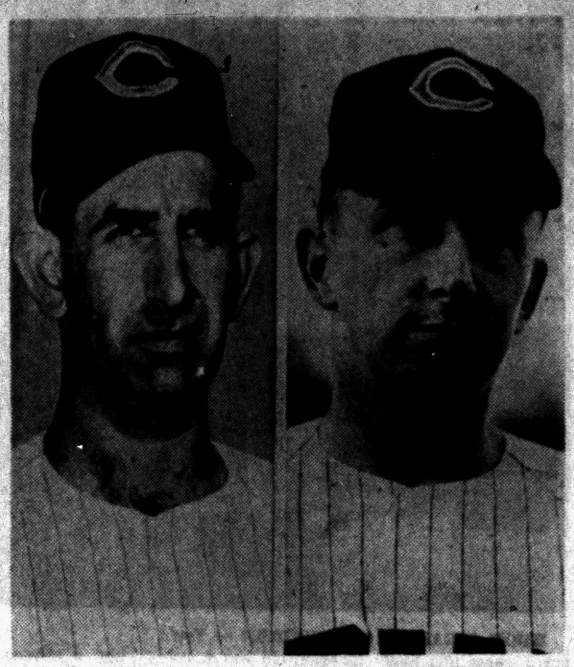

The infielder, who played on six pennant winning teams with the New York Yankees starting in 1950, failed to show any visible signs of being jolted after he learned he had been traded for the third time in 17 months.

Martin, sent from New York to Kansas City during the 1957 season allegedly as the result of a birthday party in the Copacabana that turned into a brawl, said, "It will be nice to be back on second base again.

"It's no fun moving," he added, "but I've got a job to do there." Martin indicated he would be happier playing regularly at second base with the Indians than shifting to short and third as he did with the Tigers.

Although Martin failed to put "new life" into the Tigers last season, both Lane and Tribe manager Joe Gordon are counting on him as their regular second baseman.

Lane also noted that with Martin on second, the Indians can switch versatile Vic Power to third, ending a chronic problem at that spot.

AP Wirephotos

NEW TIGERS — These are the new Tigers who came in the trade from Cleveland. Both are pitchers, Don Mossi, (left) and Ray Narleski. Narleski who was 13-10 last season was the key figure in the trade for Detroit. Mossi was 7-8 for the Tribe.

Billy Martin and Al Cicotte Go to Indians

Shortstop Alvarez Will Also Come to Detroit in Deal

DETROIT (UPI) — Billy Martin, using a phrase from Bill Norman, "came to play." But it takes more than one man to make the Tigers play and today brash Billy is the property of the Cleveland Indians.

The Tigers picked up much pitching help in Ray Narleski and Don Mossi, acknowledged as the best relievers in baseball until the Tribe staff was depleted by age and injuries necessitating the use of the two as starters.

Detroit also sent pitcher Al Cicotte to Cleveland and obtained Ossie Alvarez in a trade that was announced yesterday but had been brewing since the World Series. Alvarez played with Washington last season and was traded to Cleveland recently

The worrisome thing about the trade, as far as Detroit fans are concerned, is that even fiery Billy couldn't ruffle the Tiger fur.

Exactly a year ago yesterday, Martin was traded to Detroit amid glowing optimism that he would make the Tigers a pennant contender. Billy had a reputation as a gutty, winning ballplayer, built up when he was with the Yankees.

"I only know how to play one way — to win," Martin said. He never gave less than 100 per cent according to Jack Tighe, and Norman.

"Billy will do a good job with Cleveland," Tiger general manager John McHale said. He was playing out of position for us. That was our fault, not his."

Martin couldn't understand the lack of competitive drive in the Tigers. Long accused of being a complacent club, the Bengals proved no different with Martin and by the end of the season he was a "loner."

"They just don't seem to want to win," Martin said as the Tigers neared their fifth-place finish.

And of all the Tigers, Martin probably was on the toughest spot of all. He was switched to shortstop, not his normal position. When his fielding proved inadequate he was shifted to third base and played there on an in and out basis.

Gaining Narleski and Mossi should greatly improve the Tiger pitching which was sporadic and had no dependable bullpen man.

McHale said it was up to Norman whether they will be used strictly as relief help or also as starters. He added it is possible one of the regular four starters of the past few seasons—Frank Lary, Jim Bunning, Paul Foytack and Billy Hoeft — may be used as trade bait for a proven shortstop.

Martin hit .255 for the Tigers after coming from the A's. He was traded to Kansas City by New York during the 1957 season after his birthday party with several Yankee stars in the Copacabana turned into a brawl.

Never an easy-going player on the field, Martin was a throwback to the Gashouse Gang era of the St. Louis Cardinals. He never hit .300 during the regular season but was a top clutch hitter. He played with six Yankee pennant winners and set a world series record in 1953 by batting .500 in 24 appearances including a pair of home runs.

Narleski and Mossi were the relief aces of the near-decade that Cleveland pitching was the best in the American League. Last season Narleski started in 24 games in addition to relieving in 20 others.

He posted a 13-10 record and a 4.08 earned run average. Mossi worked in 43 games with a 7-8 mark and 3.88 era.

Both Alvarez and Cicotte are playing in the Cuban Winter League. It marks the fourth Major League club Cicotte has been assigned to in less than a year. He started 1958 with New York, went to Washington, then Detroit's Charleston farm club and back up to the Tigers.

Wings Tie, 4-4

Detroit Holds Second Place With Deadlock

Montreal Overcomes 3 Early Leads in Wild Game at Forum

MONTREAL (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings opened their current roadtrip with a 4-4 standoff against the Montreal Canadiens last night and moved into a second place deadlock in the tight National Hockey League race.

Detroit held a lead over the front-running Canadiens three times but the high-powered scoring battle ended in a tie when Jean Beliveau matched the two-goal stunt of Gordie Howe.

The tie permitted the Red Wings to move into a second place dead heat with the New York Rangers. The Red Wings go from here to Boston for a game Saturday afternoon with the Bruins, the second contest of a four-game trip.

Last night's forum crowd was treated to a scoring display by the top marksmen of the league of recent years as the two teams put on concentrated offensives in the first two periods.

Detroit, trying to administer the Canadiens' fourth straight home ice defeat, held leads of 2-0, 3-2, and 4-3 but the Canadiens came out even in the end. Their last rally in the second period created the ultimate 4-4 tie.

Howe got both his goals in the first period and Beliveau drove in one in the first and his second in the second session.

The classy Detroit forward shot his eighth of the season in the first 47 seconds of play. He trapped a teammate's long shot and flipped in the puck.

He got his second at 19:49 on a 60-foot blazer that put Detroit ahead again 3-2. Beforehand, Norm Ullman had scored for Detroit, making it 2-0 for the Wings, and then Bernie Geoffrion and Beliveau counted in succession for Montreal to tie it up.

The hot duel resumed as soon as play began in the second period. Beliveau tied it up a second time at 3-3 by scoring at 2:02.

Detroit took the lead for a third time when Alex Delvecchio beat goalie Jacques Plante at 4:39. Again, and for the last time, it was tied with Montreal's Dickie Moore counting at 14:51.

Paces Lakers to 121-102 Victory Over Syracuse Nats

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Minneapolis Lakers, rallying behind a superlative 37 point effort by rookie Elgin Baylor, ripped Syracuse 121-102 Thursday night to snap a six-game National Basketball Assn. losing streak.

Baylor's outbrurst enabled him to take over the league scoring lead with 322 points in 13 games to 307 for runnerup George Yardley of Detroit.

Besides his scoring heroics, the 6-6 Seattle University rookie contributed 10 assists and 14 rebounds to the Lakers' fifth victory in 13 starts.

Jim Norris' Illness Delays Boxing Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — A grand jury's investigation of corruption in boxing which has led to the indictment of five men was temporarily stalled today by a medical report that will keep sports promoter Jim Norris from giving testimony.

Supreme Court Justice Jacob Markowitz, acting on the medical report, yesterday quashed a subpoena calling for Norris' appearance before the grand jury. He held that for Norris to appear would "endanger his health and life."

Norris has suffered two heart attacks. He was president of the International Boxing Club when he was served to appear before the New York County Grand Jury on March 28.

Judge Markowitz based his decision on a report by court-appointed Dr. A. Wilbur Duryee, a New York cardiologist, that Norris is suffering from "advanced heart disease."

Newberry Market Table Tennis Power

Newberry Market was listed as the team to beat in the Pontiac Table Tennis Association today following a convincing 5-1 trouncing of Nutrilite Food last night.

Newberry is deadlocked for 1st place with A & W Root Beer, which blanked L. H. Cole 6-0 last night. Other scores were Capitol Barbers 4, Pankey's Hanger Grill 2, Poole Hardware 4, Huron Cleaners 2 and Arnold Sign Co. 3, Dorris and Son 3.

Newberry Mkt.	25	Arnold Sign Co	18
A & W	25	Dorris & Son	16
Nutrilite	22	Pankey's	16
Capitol Barbers	27	Poole Hardware	7
L. H. Cole	16	Huron Cleaners	6

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers Thursday signed Kenny Washington, UCLA all-time great and later a star with the Los Angeles Rams, as part-time scout.

After Taking Turn For Worse

Ott Improves Again

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Famous baseball slugger Mel Ott rallied slightly today in his grim fight to survive injuries from an automobile smash-up last week.

Physicians at Touro Infirmary here said the former New York Giant's chances for life were "slim but better" following eight hours of delicate kidney surgery in which an artificial kidney machine was used.

Ott and his wife, Mildred, both 49, were critically injured Friday night when their car smashed head-on into another vehicle in the Gulf Coast resort town of Bay St. Louis, Miss., near New Orleans. Doctors described her condition as convalescent.

The kidney machine was used on Ott to relieve bladder pressure which had built up steadily since the collision. Physicians said Ott's kidneys were now functioning on their own.

Ott's condition worsened yesterday when he was brought to New Orleans from a Gulfport, Miss., hospital, where he and Mrs. Ott were being treated.

Physicians had reported steady improvement until yesterday when the kidney malfunction, aggravated by shock in the accident, again placed him on the critical list.

Ott, an ex-outfielder and Giant manager who holds the National League record for home runs, now faces a series of tests to determine the extent of kidney damage.

A Touro spokesman, who described Ott's condition as "thoroughly smashed up," said further tests awaited the former athlete to probe the extent of other injuries.

For the past two seasons, Ott has been a member of the Detroit Tigers broadcasting team. During the winter he lives in suburban New Orleans with his wife and a daughter, Barbara Ann.

43 Below Par in Florida Play

Weaver and Ellis Lead $15,000 Invitational at West Palm Beach

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Golfers had to beat par today to stay anywhere near the leaders in the $15,000 West Palm Beach Invitational tournament.

A new competitive course record of 65, seven under par, already was in the books and 43 of the touring pros broke par in opening play yesterday. The tournament ends Sunday.

Sixteen others carded par 72s over the 6,745-yard course in the greatest exhibition of sub-par golf the West Palm Beach Country Club course ever saw.

Leading the pack were two 26-year-olds, Bert Weaver of Beaumont, Tex., and Wesley Ellis Jr. of Aldecress, N.J. Weaver shot 31-34 and Ellis carded 33-32 to clip one stroke off the record equalled earlier in the day by Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., and Mike Souchak of Grossingers, N.Y.

FIGHTS FOR LIFE — Mel Ott, former National League star and currently a broadcaster with the Detroit Tigers, fights for his life after surgery last night for a blocked kidney following an auto accident. He had a relapse but has rallied slightly.

Macauley Takes Over as Hawks' Hoop Boss

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Easy Ed Macauley might have a tough time living up to his name now that he is the new coach of the St. Louis Hawks.

He's working for fiery Ben Kerner, who has disposed of two coaches in less than a year while each had the team in first place. University All-America and a nine-year veteran of the National Basketball Assn., was named by Kerner after the owner fired Andy Phillip from the coaching job.

The 30-year-old Macauley said

he hopes to become a bench coach, although he will remain in uniform until the cut-down date Dec. 15. He plans no big shakeup of the Hawks.

"I don't think a coaching change at this time will bring about a rapid change in team play," Macauley said. "It will take time. And don't forget, I will be up against some smart cookies."

Under Phillip, who had been in charge of the club for only 10 games, the Hawks were leading the NBA's Western Division with six victories and four defeats.

Kerner maintained Phillip was losing control of the players. The club had appeared disorganized as compared with last season.

Macauley, who discovered he had been offered the coaching job last summer but decided against it, said Kerner used a "Russian roulette" approach this time."

"I told Ed he had three choices facing him as far as pro basketball is concerned," Kerner said with a smile. "First, he could be coach of the Hawks. Second, I could make a deal for him with Philadelphia. Third, if he didn't want to go to Philadelphia, he would have to retire."

Laughing, Macauley said, "Ben had seven bullets in that gun. What could I do?"

Kerner, unable to contact Phillip by telephone, telegraphed him yesterday, "You have been relieved of your coaching duties as of now."

Phillip, a long-time Boston Celtic player and one-time member of the Illinois "Whiz Kids," was angered when he learned via radio newscast that he had been fired.

NEW COACH—Popular former St. Louis U. All-America, Ed Macauley took over as head coach of the St. Louis Hawks of the pro league. Owner Ben Kerner fired Andy Phillips after only 10 games in the NBA.

85 Cars Expected for OCSC Contest

Another big, and fast, field of sports cars is expected for Sunday's OCSC Sports Car Club's one-day event, Sunday, over the newly paved course at OCSC.

This test will be a "surprise type event" says Bob Moody, club official who announced that spectators will be permitted to view the thrilling runs over a twisting, tough course, for the first time. Best place to see the runs is the start-finish straightaway stretch.

Both sports and sedan types will take part, with 85 expected. Cars will come from at least a dozen Michigan and Ohio areas. Contests begin at 10 a. m., wind up about 5 p. m.

Huron Bowl in Debut Saturday at 2:30

BPAA Tourney Times Set

Pontiac's representative in the 48-team Bowling Proprietors' Association of America National Team Match Game championship at Star Lanes in Southfield will swing into action Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

Huron Bowl, competing on the "B" squad, will also be on the firing line again Saturday night at 9 and Sunday at 12 noon and 6:30 p.m.

Included on the same squad will be Detroit powers Stroh's and Pfeiffeh Beer. Stroh's won Detroit's two top leagues last season which are currently led by Pfeiffer's.

The present Stroh's team consists of Tony Lindemann, Bob Crawford, George Howard, Al Savas, Fred Riccilli and Bob Korn. Such stars as George Young, Billy Golembiewski, Joe Joseph, Bob Kwolek and Bob Mitt will be rolling for Pfeiffer's.

Falstaff Beer of St. Louis, Mo., will be the "A" bracket as defending champion and current ABC titleholder. Former Detroiters Buzz Fazio, Steve Nazy and Harry Smith pace the Missouri team.

Bowling from Pontiac will be Les Rothbarth, John Nickell, Dick Carmichael, Jay Lovett, Clark Balch and Joe Bonfiglio.

The top four teams, based on total pinfall for 12 games on Saturday and Sunday, will move into the round robin finals which will be held Monday and Tuesday.

In the finals, each team will bowl each other team once in a four point match with one point being awarded for each game won plus one point for total pins in the three game match. On Tuesday night, there will be a position round with the first place team facing the second and third place team bowling the fourth. In the vent of any ties, total pins will determine the place.

Mossi Shed No Tears Concerning Trade to Detroit

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI) —Southpaw Don Mossi, a fixture with the Cleveland Indians pitching staff for the past five years, shed no tears today over being traded to Detroit.

"I was kind of surprised to hear about it but think I'll get a chance to work more," he said. "they didn't use me very much last season at Cleveland. They were concentrating on younger pitchers and I didn't get a chance to work as much as I liked."

"I'm looking forward to playing for the Tigers," Mossi said. "Everybody says Detroit is a good baseball town and a good outfit to work for."

Downs 185-Pounder

Three more successful Pontiac deer-hunters have reported after brief stays in the northland. Adrian R. Coon, 1695 Woodward Ave., took a fine 9-pointer (185-pounds) at Lewiston, hunting with John Lamb, 34 Marquette St. who bagged a 150-pound spikehorn.

James Nesbitt, 3719 Gainsborough, Pontiac, downed a fine buck, near Greenbush in Alcona County on Monday. His deer was the only one in a party that included his father, James Nesbitt SSr. of Pontiac and brother-in-law Don Conklin of Greenbush.

Duffy, Tukey Oppose Big 10 Aid Plan

Peace, Harmony Reign on MSU Sports Panel

EAST LANSING (UPI) — All was peace and harmony last night at a panel discussion on Michigan State University athletics.

Athletic director Biggie Munn, Dr. Harold Tukey, MSU's Big Ten faculty representative and athletic council chairman, and coach Duffy Daugherty were panelists on "MSU Sports, Fact and Rumor," a meeting sponsored by the Union board.

Tukey said present "sentiment is flowing toward fuller athletic scholarships. The present grant in aid program based on need puts a price tag on prospective athletes after their parents' ability to contribute to his education is figured."

"If it's decided that an athlete's parents pay $337 this becomes a price tag. It is a notice to other conferences of the price needed to get him. This type of program encourages what we've tried to discourage."

An amount of $3,000 from the athletic budget is used for tutoring MSU athletes And when Daugherty made the point that MSU athletes have higher grades than average students, a student panelist charged that any student that is tutored will get higher grades.

"Anyone that can block and tackle we'll tutor," Daugherty countered. "We have a big investment in these athletes and we mean to help them along."

Daugherty also said he favored a national letter "of intent" that would regulate recruiting of prospective eligible athletes. Daugherty joined Tukey in opposing the current Big Ten grant in aid program based on need.

In discussing the round robin scheduling of conference schools, Munn remarked, "I wish we could play the final game of the season in the Rose Bowl."

"We should play the 10th game in some hot-weather section of the country like Texas or Oklahoma," said Daugherty.

Soviet Skaters Like U.S. Pros

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Russia's America-bound hockey team is so fast and skilled that under amateur rules it could compete with the best pro teams in the U.S. and Canada, says an American hockey official.

"Under pro rules, of course, National Hockey League teams would be just too tough for them," said Don Clark, manager of the U.S. National team which played the Russians on their European tour last winter.

The Russians return the visit this winter, playing in seven cities. The 1959 U.S. National Team, in training at the University of Minnesota, will be the opponent in three games.

Goal—Harry C. Batchelder Jr., Peabody, Mass; Donald Cooper, Wrentham, Mass.; Jack McCartan, St. Paul.

Defense—T. H Harvey Jr., 2nd Lt., Army; Ed Hickey, East Boston, Mass.; Ray Karnuth, St. Paul; Ed Kirrane, Brookline, Mass.; Jack Newkirk, Minneapolis; Ed Owen, St. Louis Park, Minn.; Jim Westby, Minneapolis.

Lions-Bears Are Bitter Rivals

Standing Room Crowd to See Sunday's Game

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When it comes to bitter rivalries in pro football, the annual two-game series between the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Bears takes a top rung position.

Sunday's contest at Briggs Stadium promises to be another one of those games and the fans themselves are anticipating as much since a standing room crowd is already certain for the 1:30 kickoff.

Last year the teams split the series. Chicago went in Detroit 27-7 but the Lions turned the trick and moved into a playoff with the 49ers by winning at Wrigley Field, 21-13.

This year they met in the exhibition season at Dallas and the Bears managed a 24-17 decision in a rough and tumble affair which put a total of 13 players on the injury list.

The Bears still have hopes of catching the Baltimore Colts for the title but they must win the rest of the way and have the Colts lose all four.

Detroit came up with its finest offensive performance of the season in defeating the San Francisco 49ers last week, 35-21. Tobin Rote connected for three scoring passes and halfback Gene Gedman also passed for an 81-yard TD.

Since the Bears have the best record in the NFL against rushing, it appears that the Lions will have to take to the air more frequently.

Chicago has allowed only 868 yards in eight games on the ground. Willie Galimore and Rick Casares are among the top eight runners in the league. Galimore is second in scoring with 11 touchdowns.

Casares has gained 444 yards while Galimore has gained 427.

The Bears were hurt with the announcement that end Harlon Hill is out for the season with a severe leg injury.

In the overall series dating back to 1934, the Lions have won 16 and tied two in 48 games, but since 1951 the two teams have split even in 14 meetings.

Steel Bowl Tourney Pairings Announced

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh announced today pairings for its eighth annual Steel Bowl basketball tournament here Dec. 12-13.

Defending champion Duquesne will face Clemson and Pitt will play Miami of Florida the first night. The winners meet for the title the following night. The losers will play a consolation game.

Army-Navy Duel at Philly Nov. 19 a Sellout Again

Capt. Slade Cutter, director of athletics for the Naval Academy, said Wednesday that the 98,593 tickets available were oversubscribed and some applications had to be cut.

Navy is host team this year for the game to be played Nov. 29 in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

Ticket applications closed Oct. 14, and the ticket mailing process is now under way.

In addition to the paying customers, there will be some 4,000 guards, concessionaires and working press at the game, Cutter said.

Johnny Sain Named A's Pitching Coach

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics Wednesday signed Johnny Sain as pitching coach.

Sain, a pitcher in professional baseball nearly 20 years, had his best season with the Boston Braves in 1948 when he won 24 games and lost 15.

He joined the New York Yankees and in 1955 came to the Athletics.

Sain, who will continue his motor car business at Walnut Ridge, Ark., will join the A's next spring at West Palm Beach, Fla.

It's all-star football time again and The Pontiac Press gets into the act by announcing its third annual All-Oakland County honor team Saturday.

Needless to say, not everyone will be happy with the selections. Nevertheless, the Press sports department takes great pride in presenting these boys tomorrow in the firm belief that they're the best in the neighborhood.

There has never been an all-star squad which pleased everybody. We know that this one will be no exception to the rule. But it's truly a representative honor team, covering every section of Oakland County.

The highest echelon, Oakland's "cream of the crop," will be comprised of 13 players — the regular 11-man unit plus two defensive stars.

Honor squads will also be named in classes A, B and C, each class listing a first and second team as well as an honorable mention roster. In addition, a 30-man team honoring boys from outside the county is in the offing.

Rounding out the honor page will be the announcement of Oakland County's Coach-of-the Year and the two coaches who gave him the stiffest opposition for the award.

With full realization that some football fan somewhere in the county — or a coach, for that matter — will not agree with every selection, we boldly forge ahead and print it anyway.

As Admiral Farragut once said: "Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead!" Look for the county's all-star gridders tomorrow.

ODDS AND ENDS

Walled Lake's annual fall sports banquet is scheduled next Wednesday night at 6:30 in the high school cafeteria. Letters will be awarded to football and cross country athletes. Bill Yeoman, assistant grid coach at Michigan State, will be the guest speaker.

The 8th grade football team at Troy Baker Junior High School has just ended its 6th straight undefeated season. The future Colts won all five games this year and their unbeaten string features only one tie in the last 30 starts. Gary McKinnon, Ernie Steele, John Denison and Bill Muir were the sparkplugs.

There were 35 varsity letter winners at the Madison High football banquet last Tuesday evening. Bob Dove, end coach for the Detroit Lions, was the guest speaker.

Saginaw Valley coaches and writers met in Flint on Tuesday night to pick the All-Conference football team for 1958. The honor squad will be announced in The Pontiac Press on the Saturday after Thanksgiving — Nov. 29.

Olympic Head Confident

8 Gridders From State on Gem City Bowl List

ERIE, Pa. (UPI) — Eight Michigan football players will be in the first annual Gem City Bowl game in Erie on Thanksgiving Day, promoter Mike Cannavino said today.

Cannavino said four of the players will come from Michigan State, two from Michigan and two from Detroit. The Spartans are fullback Don Arend, quarterback Mike Panitch, end Dick Barker and lineman Ron Rickens.

End Gary Prahst and fullback Gene Sisinyak from Michigan and Bill Dando and Dennis Schroeder from Detroit complete the list, Cannavino said.

Cannavino, owner of the Erie Sailors, the Detroit Tiger farm club in the New York-Pennsylvania League, said the game will be played for 16 charities with players from the Midwest, New York and Pennsylvania.

He said Ara Parseghian of Northwestern will coach the West team and Frank Regan of Villanova the East squad.

Orange Bowl Invitation at Stake for Syracuse

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—If Syracuse defeats West Virginia impressively Saturday, the Orangemen will get an immediate invitation to play Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

W. G. Ward, schedule chairman for the Orange Bowl committee, made that announcement Wednesday after the committee authorized representatives to make an on-the-spot decision after the game at Morgantown, W.Va.

OSU Favored Over 'M'; MSU to Start Seniors

Tradition Lies in Annual Tilt With Buckeyes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—A successful season at Ohio State is measured by the outcome of the Michigan game and all indications are that the Buckeyes and Woody Hayes will still be in favor in Columbus tomorrow night.

The cautious Buckeye fans point out that it's "traditional game Saturday" in the Big Ten and anything can and usually does happen in the OSU-Michigan, Minnesota-Wisconsin, Purdue-Indiana and Illinois-Northwestern games."

The optimistic followers, looking at Michigan's 2-5-1 record, are envisioning a lopsided victory to atone for some of the upsets the Wolverines have sprung.

Michigan looks back to its glory games with the Buckeyes, recalling the feats of Bennie Oosterbaan and Bennie Friedman in 1925-26-27.

OSU's "High street alumni" only have to look back at the past few years when Howard (Hopalong) Cassady cast a pall over mammoth Michigan Stadium in 1955 when he led the Bucks to a 17-0 victory that put Michigan State into and dropped Michigan from the Rose Bowl.

Or last year when Bob White bashed through the Wolverine defenses in pacing OSU to a 31-14 triumph.

Although Michigan is going through the throes of its worst season since 1936, an air of cautious expectancy hangs over the game. The Buckeyes have been burned too often by the Wolverines—they've won 34 against only 16 defeats and four ties—to go in overconfident.

But the Bucks still have White, who caused Iowa no end of trouble last week, a stronger line than Michigan's and a faster backfield.

The Wolverines promised to beat Indiana "for Bennie" last week and if they couldn't beat the Hoosiers, a club OSU nailed 49-8, it looks like Oosterbaan will have to go back to the Minnesota game for his last Wolverine victory.

And, after the annual freshman intrasquad game, frosh coach Don Dufek summed up next year's sophomores as a fairly sound unit with somewhat better than average speed but lacking in depth so Bump Elliott may be facing the same problems next year in his first as head coach.

Bears Acquire Rudy Bukich From Redskins

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rudy Bukich, erstwhile third string quarterback of the Washington Redskins of the National Football League became the official property of the Chicago Bears Thursday.

But Bukich, claimed by the Bears after the 'Skins asked waivers on him Tuesday, said he isnt sure he'll sign with the Chicago Club.

Bukich said he plans to go to Chicago Friday to discuss the situation with Coach George Halas of the Bears. asked if the discussion might concern salary, Bukich said:

"That's about it."

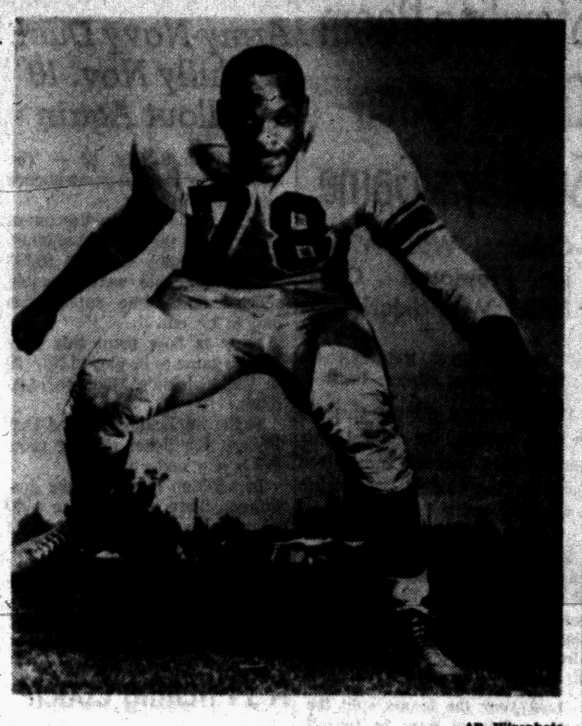

He said he talked to Halas Thursday and that Halas is "very interested in me."

Dismal Season Comes to Close at E. Lansing

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Duffy Daugherty has been pointing to Saturday's finale to a dismal season as if it were the opening game of the 1959 season.

In a way it is.

"I hope our juniors and sophomores can display their real potential so the people will know we have the makings of a good football team for next season," Daugherty said last night after sending his crippled club through its last full scale workout of a season marked by five straight losses.

The Spartans close out the old and ring in the new here Saturday before Kansas State—a team that will be gunning for its first victory in a six-game series with Michigan State.

An all-senior lineup — probably without All-American end candidate Sammy Williams—will start for MSU. But underclassmen who will be around for the rugged nine-game schedule next year will bear the brunt of action.

Daugherty praised the 13 retiring seniors as "fellows who have contributed enormously to two fine seasons before running into tough luck this time around."

But he has been spending most of his time this week with sophomores and juniors who will be "the heart of our comeback attempt starting against the Wildcats and continuing right through next fall."

Williams and guard John Middleton remained doubtful starters after yesterday's workout. Both were injured last week.

The Spartans yesterday showed the snap and spirit that had been missing much of the season.

"Kansas State is a better team than it was last year," Daugherty said. "If you remember, last year they caused us a lot of trouble."

The Spartans, a worse team than they were last year, won 27-9 over the Wildcats in 1957.

German Rider Wins 2nd Jumping Title

In second place was Lt. Roberto Vinals of Mexico, riding Chihuahua II, who forced Winkler to a third jump-off before being eliminated.

Two American riders tied for third place, both only reaching the second jump-off. They were Bill Steinkraus, of Westport, Conn., on Ksar d'Esprit, and Hugh Wiley, of Towson, Md., riding Nautical.

Upset of Aussie Ace by Bucholz Meet Feature

SYDNEY (AP) — Hopes that the United States might regain the Davis Cup this year soared today as young Earl Buchholz whipped Mal Anderson, crack Australian Davis Cupper, in the New South Wales Tennis Championships.

The 18-year-old from St. Louis played like a champion in downing Anderson 6-3, 6-3, 9-7 in a second round match. Word that he was giving Anderson the game of his life caused intense excitement. Hundreds of spectators at the White City Courts forgot the other matches and raced to the center court to watch the upset.

Del Flanagan Whips Turner in Comeback

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Irishman Del Flanagan's 10-round demolition of Gil Turner put the apparent grasp today of a long-coveted title shot.

"The International Boxing Club promised me that if I beat Turner decisively I'd get a title fight," Flanagan said after his crushing victory over Turner. "I've done everything they've asked. I don't see how they can overlook me now."

Flanagan clubbed him, speared him with jabs, outfooted him and demoralized him. The victory was such a landslide that Judge Johnny Deotis scored it 100-81, in each round but one. Referee Johnny Stanton had it 100-83 and Judge Jimmy Perrault scored it 100-87.

Unsung Colombian Sets Canada Cup Pace

Hogan, Snead, Ireland Trail Aussies

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Americans Ben Hogan and Sam Snead sought to overtake the Australian entry in the team race for the Canada Golf Cup today after a hectic first round that produced several surprises and an individual leader from Colombia.

The United States tandem went into today's second round with a total of 143, the same figure registered by Ireland. Each was one stroke behind Australia.

Miguel Sala, a little known Colombian, playing in his first international match, turned in a three-under-par 69 to lead the world's greatest golfers in the individual competition. Only six other players among the 63 from 32 countries broke par.

But it was the two iron shot artists from Australia, Frank Phillips and Ken Nagle, who fired the best combined score, a two-under-par 142 for the lead in the team race. Phillips was one of four players to shoot 70 for second place in the individual standings, while his partner Nagle had a 72.

Hogan, the four-time United States champion, had to sink a six-foot birdie putt on the final green to put the American team in a second place tie with Ireland. Hogan finished with 72 while his partner Snead registered a 71.

Behind the top three teams came Argentina and Great Britain tied at 144, Scotland 145, Brazil 146, Spain and the Philippines 148 and Colombia 149.

In addition to Sala, Phillips and Snead, the others who broke par were Harry Bradshaw of Ireland, Flory van Donck of Belgium and Leopoldo Ruiz of Argentina with 70s and Bernard Hunt of Great Britain with a 71.

Disappointments in opening day play were defending champion Japan and strongly favored South Africa. Japan had a shaky 154 for 13th place and South Africa 154 for 17th place.

Torakichi "Pete" Nakamura, the defending titleholder, started poorly with a 4-over-par 40, then steadied for a par 36 on the back nine for a 76. His partner Koichi Ono was steadier with a 36-39 for 75.

Hogan three-putted the first hole from 15 feet and took a double bogie six on the eighth where he three-putted after pushing his tee shot into the woods. Snead missed a 3-foot birdie on the sixth and also on the 17th.

A crowd of 12,000, the largest ever to see a golf match in Mexico, ran and whooped over the fairways on the 7,216-yard Club de Golf Mexico course.

Rose Charges False Claim

New Aussie Net Pro Mad

"Hopman told the Lawn Tennis Assn. of Australia that I was making three to four thousand pounds (about $7,500) a year out of amateur tennis," Rose said.

"I might have been making that much, but not out of tennis."

"Any money I made in the last 10 years has been from sporting goods firms," Rose continued. "I never violated the amateur code."

Rose was scheduled to arrive here from Melbourne to sign Kramer. The promoter said his new recruit will make a minimum of 15,000 pounds ($33,600) in the next year playing on a percentage basis.

Cotton Bowl for AF?

DALLAS (AP)—Air Force Academy will play in the Cotton Bowl barring a calamitous result in either of its last two games, the Dallas News said Thursday night.

The Cotton Bowl Athletic Assn. probably will delay its formal offer until after the Air Force team finishes its season, against Colorado at Boulder, Colo., Nov. 29, the News added.

Pontiac Men Get Bear, Deer, Rabbits

Successful Hunting Trip

One of the most diversified game bags reported this fall by Pontiac hunters was that brought back yesterday from the Upper Peninsula by the four Wilmot boys, their father and Bud Carnes and Harry Bradley.

Bradley, who with Vernon Wilmot, (3474 Loon Lk. Shores) is a Pontiac Motors employe, downed the bear, a 300-pound female 18 miles Southwest of Crystal Falls. Bradley remained in the UP trying for a deer. The party took three bucks, (4-6 pointers) averaging about 150 pounds dressed, and seven big, fat rabbits.

The party included, besides those mentioned, "dad" Delmar Wilmot who left PMC in 1956 after 31 years as general labor foreman, now operates a hardware store at 1175 Baldwin avenue. Other Wilmot boys were Lynn, Gary and Richard.

"We saw many bucks up there," Delmar said. "There was a little snow Tuesday, but not enough for tracking."

TCU's Don Floyd Lineman of Week

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Big Don Floyd, who plays such perfect football spearheading the mighty Texas Christian line that he has had only one small penalty called against him, was "tickled to death" today at being named lineman of the week by The Associated Press.

His coach, Abe Martin, rejoiced too, "We're real proud of Donnie," Martin said. "He certainly is deserving of the award. He's done a grand job for us all F'all."

Outfielder Charley Maxwell holds the record for most home runs by a left-handed hitter with the Detroit Tigers. He had 28 in 1956.

Loss Could Finish Fromhart

Titans Close Play Saturday

DETROIT (UPI) — If nothing else, the Detroit Titans will outmanpower the Dayton Flyers tomorrow in Detroit's final game of 1958.

Flyer coach Bud Kerr is bringing only 25 men to Titan Stadium. Kerr, dissatisfied with a number of reserves and with a squad depleted by injuries, will be seeking a third straight victory over Detroit.

But the Titans are favored to win and break even for the season. Detroit carries a 3-4-1 record into the game and the Ohio school is 2-7. Five of the Dayton losses were by shutouts.

Titan coach Wally Fromhart also has injury troubles. Quarterback Lou Faoro and halfback Bruce Maher are the only two players who have started in every game.

Veteran guard Emerson Dromgold, starter in the first eight games, is out with a knee injury but could see some action. End Dennis Flynn, sophomore regular the last six games, sprained his ankle in practice early this week.

A top performance could seal another contract for Fromhart. A loss could finish him. Although there had been reports Fromhart already was hired for next season, Detroit president Fr. Celestin J. Steiner said the matter hasn't been taken up.

They were beaten badly only twice, by Arizona State and Boston College. Even against unbeaten Air Force, Detroit had a chance to win until late in the game.

This will be the final game for athletes who entered Detroit prior to the Gus Dorais scholarship program, the plan Titan friends and alumni hope will put Detroit high on the list of the better independents.

Nine seniors, including Faoro, will be winding up their Titan careers.

Chisox Farm System Begins to Pay Off

The biggest concentration of home grown talent is in the outfield where five of the eight outfielders have come up through the Sox chain. They include Jim Landis, who batted .277 in the American League last season; John Callison, who finished the season with the Sox after a banner year at Indianapolis; Jim McAnany, Joe Hicks and Norman Cash.

Common Faith Unites All Arabs

Also Share Language, Customs and Memories of Moslem Empire

WASHINGTON—In popular fancy the Arabs are sloe-eyed nomads of the Arabian deserts. In fact, however, only a minority would fit that description today.

The Arabs are those people of many lands whose first language is Arabic. In addition to the language they share, most Arabs are united by their faith in God as revealed by the prophet Mohammed. In many cases, they are also bound by ties of customs, blood and historical alliances that reach over many political frontiers, the National Geographic Society says.

The common language and culture give the Arabs considerable cohesion in facing the non-Arab world, despite their many rivalries. An old Arab proverb says, "My brother and I will fight my cousin—my cousin and I will fight the foreigner."

In the 7th century A.D., Mohammed, a resident of Mecca in what now is Saudi Arabia, heard a voice speaking to him as he meditated in a cave. This voice, identified as the angel Gabriel, was a sign to Mohammed that he was to give mankind a new revelation of God.

With the faith preached by Mohammed, the Arabs forgot their internal quarrels and embarked on a path of conquest almost unrivaled in history. In a few score years, the Arab armies swept westward across North Africa, turned into Spain, and pushed into southern France. In the east, they overran vast territories as far as China. They Arabicized huge areas from Iraq to Morocco and from Palestine to the Sudan.

PRESERVED LEARNING

As scholars replaced soldiers in the great empire built by the Arabs, Moslems of many backgrounds became the leading savants of mathematics, astronomy, geography and medicine. Moslem scholars also preserved the writings of the Greeks that were later to stimulate the minds of Europeans emerging from the Dark Ages.

As the centuries passed, however, the great empire built by the Arabs fell into decay amid religious splits, dynastic quarrels and general corruption. Today little is left of the glories of the empire, except such structures as the Alhambra of Granada, Spain.

Big Hangar at Idlewild to House Jet Airliners

NEW YORK (UPI)—A roof more than twice the length of a football field will cover the new American Airlines jet airliner hangar at Idlewild Airport.

More than 325 tons of materials will be used to cover the structure according to Allied Chemical's Barrett Division which is supplying 3,000 rolls of felt, 300,000 square feet of roofing insulation and 300 tons of pitch for the job. The building will house the first jet airliners available for domestic travel.

Improves Picnic Spots

WASHINGTON — During 1957 the United States Forest Service expanded nearly 700 camp and picnic grounds in the national forests and developed more than 200 new ones. The service completely rehabilitated 560 of the 3,425 sites needing major repair.

Smugglers Ignore U.N. Force

Dope Traffic Flowing Through Israel to Egypt

By ELIAV SIMON
United Press International

BEERSHEBA, Israel (UPI) — International dope smugglers, following a time-honored route, continue to use Israel as a short cut to their Egyptian markets.

The change from Turkish to British to Israeli rule of Palestine has not deterred the smugglers, who travel from Lebanon, Syria, Greece and Turkey to Egypt by way of Israel.

Israeli police report they are slowly gaining on the narcotics smugglers, although the results of their daily, or nightly, raids are still relatively unimpressive.

In 1950, police netted 838 pounds of hashish and 24 pounds of opium. Last year, they grabbed 2,330 pounds of hashish and 1,323 pounds of opium. They also found a small amount of heroin, a late arrival in the Middle East narcotics market.

Almost this entire amount was headed for Egypt, which is estimated to use 1,543,500 pounds of narcotics a year. Israel's total estimated consumption is 88 pounds a year. However, addiction in Israel has risen slightly over the years, and it is now estimated that there are between 3,500 and 7,500 addicts in the country.

Authorities point out that even if addiction were to disappear completely in Israel, the traffic would continue across its borders until the neighboring states take determined steps to wipe out the smuggling.

When the Israelis occupied the Gaza Strip during the 1956 Sinai campaign, they found in a police station more than 20 pounds of unmarked dope. International law requires all drugs to be marked, with details of its confiscation, if it is contraband.

The discovery indicated to Israeli authorities that the Gaza police were themselves dealing in hashish and opium. Residents of the Strip confirmed that the dope was used to bribe or reward informers and spies.

The United Nations Emergency Force stationed on the Israel-Egyptian border is not equipped to deal with such matters and ignores dope peddlers entering Egyptian territory.

The Israeli police claim the Arab governments are not seriously concerned about the narcotics problem except, possibly, in Egypt, where drug addiction has reached a scale that could hamper that nation's economic and social progress.

Corn Is Firm, Others Ease

CHICAGO (AP)—Corn showed some firming tendency but other grains and soybeans eased slightly in slow early dealings today on the board of trade.

Soybeans were off major fractions of a cent, mainly because of hedge selling and continued light liquidation. There was a feeling among some brokers that the market had been somewhat oversold in yesterday's board declines but there appeared to be nothing in commercial influences to inspire reinstatement of positions.

Near the end of the first hour the market was mixed with wheat ⅛ cent a bushel lower to ¼ higher, December $1.95¾; corn ⅛ lower, December old type contract $1.15¼; oats ⅛ to ¼ higher, December 65⅞; rye unchanged to ⅜ lower, December $1.31; soybeans ⅛ to ⅝ lower, January $2.17.

GM Appoints Two to Relations Posts

Appointment of Thomas E. Groehn as assistant director of news relations for General Motors was announced today by Anthony G. De Lorenzo, GM vice president in charge of the public relations staff.

Mr. De Lorenzo also announced appointment of William M. Lovell to succeed Mr. Groehn in charge of Detroit area news relations.

Both men are members of the GM News Relations Section, formerly called the Press, Radio and Television News Relations Section. It is headed by Edmund Steeves.

Mr. Groehn is a former Detroit newspaperman who joined General Motors in 1943 as a member of the Public Relations Staff. Previously he worked on the editorial staffs of the Detroit Times and the Detroit News, serving the News as labor editor.

He is a 1936 graduate of the University of Michigan.

Mr. Lovell joined the GM Public Relations Staff in 1952 after working for United Press, serving as bureau manager at Madison, Wis., Springfield, Ill., and Des Moines, Iowa. He is a 1940 graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

Even in times of high employment, about one-half the people in the U. S. above 14 are not in the labor force since they are not working or looking for work to do.

Stock Market Irregular Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was irregular in heavy early trading today.

Key stocks gained or lost fractions to about a point.

Aircrafts, tobaccos and drugs were on the upside. Motors, rubbers, coppers, airlines and oils were mostly lower.

Steels, rails and utilities were mixed.

The market was irregularly lower in an opening marked by heavy trading. The ticker tape was behind transactions for a period of 12 minutes. As the tape caught up, gains and losses became fairly even.

Pfizer advanced 2 points or so on a proposed 2½-for-1 stock split and raised dividend, Youngstown Sheet dropped about 2 in continued response to a Federal Court ban on the firm's proposed merger with Bethlehem. The latter was about unchanged.

North American Aviation resumed its climb on word of a big defense contract, gaining a sizable fraction. American Motors dipped about a point, backing away from a 2¼-point rise yesterday on predictions of better earnings than estimated.

Goodyear, United Air Lines and Du Pont were off a point or so. Loew's and Douglas Aircraft rose about a point.

Opening blocks included: Lily Tulip unchanged at 90 on 10,000 shares; General Tire up ⅝ at 41½ on 7,000; North American Aviation up ⅛ at 40¼ on 7,000; General Motors off ¼ at 48½ on 4,000; and American Motors off ⅛ at 34 on 3,000.

Pontiac Township Man Injured in Accident

A Pontiac Township man, John G. Dodge, 74, of 2164 Knollwood St., was injured last night when his auto smashed into a parked car, according to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

Dodge was treated for chest injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released. Deputies said his auto struck a car owned by Joseph L. Henderson, 29, of 2168 Oaknoll Rd., Pontiac Township, parked in front of Henderson's home.

Board Meets at Waterford

Educator Gives Report on New System of Training Teachers

A report on a new type of teacher training for Waterford Township teachers was presented by Assistant Superintendent Chandos C. Reid at last night's board of education meeting.

Dr. Reid is directing an in-service training program in the school system for the first time allowing professional personnel to acquire college credits while teaching.

Approximately 100 teachers meet every Tuesday from 4 to 9 p.m. taking 11 different courses. Credits are acknowledged by Wayne State University, Eastern Michigan College and the University of Michigan.

Another phase of the in-service training course is grade level meetings of teachers for extensive conferences in ways of solving various problems which arise in the classroom.

Expert consultants from various colleges and educational institutions are helping to direct the new program which has proven very successful, Dr. Reid said.

An offer made by Robert Burke of 3684 Embardero St., for the board to purchase his lot adjoining the new Cooley Elementary School in Drayton Woods was referred to the building committee for further consideration.

The lot is next to the entrance of the school and Burke is asking $1,850 for the land.

Shunck provided the board of education with a detailed statement of the policies dealing with the maintenance, custodial and transportation personnel of the school system for 1958-59.

Detroit Trio Held for Thefts in Area

A trio of Detroiters apprehended as burglary suspects by Birmingham Police Tuesay morning have admitted the break-in of a Groveland Township gas station, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Detectives.

David E. Bates, 17, of 3992 Benitau St., his brother Archibald, 22, of 1147 Philip Ave., and Victor A. Ostrowski, Jr., 17, of 9340 Cairney St., were arraigned before Independence Township Justice William H. Stamp yesterday.

Each pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime. They were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraignment set for Nov. 24.

Each was returned to the Oakland County Jail after failing to furnish bond set at $1,000.

Detectives said the suspects also confessed to having committed three brak-ins in Macomb County. They were first booked on a charge of possessing burglary tools after Birmingham patrolmen stopped their pickup truck and searched it early Tuesday.

Knife Slaying Case Defendant Arraigned

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Arraigned this morning on a charge of first degree murder in the stabbing death of a mother of four, Luther J. Green, 28, of 20815 Woodside St., stood mute.

A plea of not guilty was entered for him by Township Justice of the Peace Mark Howard.

Green is charged with the fatal knifing of Mrs. Ann Mosley, 33, of the same address. She was stabbed seven times Wednesday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mattie Hill, 21376 Reimanville St.

Green will be examined Dec. 11 in circuit court. He is being held without bond.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL TOWNSHIP Meeting and Election and of Registration of Voters.

Whereas, at a meeting of the Township Board of the Township of White Lake, Oakland County, Michigan, held on the 17th day of November, 1958, a franchise ordinance was adopted, entitled as follows:

An Ordinance, granting to Consumers Power Company, its successors and assigns, the right, power and authority to lay, maintain and operate gas mains, pipes and services on, along, across and under the highways, streets, alleys, bridges, and other public places, and to do a local gas business in the Township of White Lake, Oakland County, Michigan, for a period of thirty years.

Whereas, said Consumers Power Company has heretofore filed its written acceptance of said franchise, and has requested that the question of confirming the grant thereof be submitted to the qualified electors of the Township, at a special election to be held for that purpose, and has also paid to the Township Board the estimated expense of holding such special election; and

Whereas, there has been theretofore filed with said Board, a petition signed by at least twelve electors, requesting that a special township meeting and election be called for such purpose;

Now, therefore, pursuant to resolutions adopted by said Board, notice is hereby given that a special meeting and election will be held in said Township at:

Precinct No. 2: Fire Hall at 7525 Highland Road,

on Wednesday, the 7th day of January, 1959, for the purpose of voting on the confirmation of the action of said Township Board in granting such franchise.

The polls of said election will be opened at 7 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as may be, and will be held open until 8 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time. The Township Clerk will be in his office on the 8th day of December, 1958, said date being the thirtieth day, as determined by statute, preceding the date of said election, for the purpose of reviewing the registration, and registering such of the qualified electors of the Township as shall appear and apply therefor, which registration may be made on said date between the hours of 8 o'clock A.M. and 8 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time.

Said franchise as granted by said Board is on file with the undersigned Township Clerk for the purpose of inspection by the qualified electors.

By Order of the Township Board.
Dated, November 17, 1958.

B. A. McKEACHIE,
Township Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE GRANTING TO CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY, its successors and assigns, the right, power and authority to lay, maintain and operate gas mains, pipes and services on, along, across and under the highways, streets, alleys, bridges and other public places, and to do a local gas business in the Township of White Lake, Oakland County, Michigan, for a period of thirty years.

SECTION 1. The Township of White Lake, Oakland County, Michigan, hereby grants to the Consumers Power Company, a corporation authorized to transact business in Michigan, its successors and assigns, hereinafter called the "Grantee," the right, power and authority to lay, maintain and operate gas mains, pipes and services on, along, across and under the highways, streets, alleys, bridges, and other public places, and to do a local gas business in the Township of White Lake, Oakland County, Michigan, for a period of thirty years, as aforesaid, said Grantee shall faithfully perform all things required by the terms hereof.

SECTION 2. In consideration of the rights, power and authority hereby granted, all of which shall vest in the Grantee for a period of thirty (30) years as aforesaid, said Grantee shall faithfully perform all things required by the terms hereof.

SECTION 3. No highway, street, alley, bridge or other public place used by said Grantee shall be obstructed longer than necessary during the work of construction or repair, and shall be restored to the same order and condition as when said work was commenced. All of Grantee's pipes and mains shall be so placed in the highways and other public places as not to unnecessarily interfere with the use thereof for highway purposes.

SECTION 4. Said Grantee shall at all times keep and save the Township free and harmless from all loss, costs and expense to which it may be subject by reason of the negligent construction and maintenance of the structures and equipment hereby authorized. In case any action is commenced against the Township on account of the permission herein given, said Grantee shall, upon notice, defend the Township and save it free and harmless from all loss, cost and damage arising out of such negligent construction and maintenance.

SECTION 5. The rights, power and authority herein granted, are not exclusive. Either manufactured or natural gas may be furnished hereunder.

SECTION 6. Said Grantee shall from time to time extend its gas distribution system to and within said Township, and shall furnish gas to applicants residing therein whenever the amount of gas to be furnished thereby shall provide an adequate and reasonable return upon the cost of making such extensions and providing such service.

SECTION 7. Said Grantee shall be entitled to charge the inhabitants of said Township for gas furnished therein, the rates, including minimum charges, as approved by the Michigan Public Service Commission, to which Commission or its successors authority and jurisdiction to fix and regulate gas rates and rules regulating such service in said Township, are hereby granted for the term of this franchise. Such rates and rules shall be subject to review and change at any time upon petition therefor being made by either said Township, acting by its Township Board, or by said Grantee.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall cease and be of no effect after thirty days from its adoption, unless within said period the Grantee shall accept the same in writing filed with the Township Clerk, subject to confirmation of the grant hereof by at least a majority of the electors of said Township voting thereon at a regular or special township election to be held in the manner provided by law. Upon the acceptance and confirmation hereof, this ordinance shall constitute a contract between said Township and said Grantee for a period of thirty years from the date of such acceptance.

Card of Thanks 1

I WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE many dear friends, neighbors and acquaintances for their kind words and acts of kindness during my recent bereavement. Special thanks to Moore Chapel; Sparks-Griffin Funeral home.
Mr. Ray Fleetwood & family.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR heartfelt thanks and gratitude to all the many friends, neighbors and employers in our bereavement for our son, Tom. There are no words to express how we feel about their generosity.
We also wish to thank the Funeral Directors for their help and courtesy.
Our sincere appreciation is extended to our family doctor for the endless help and understanding he gave Tom and ourselves
From the bottom of our hearts we thank each and every one.—
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hatfield.

WE WISH TO THANK ALL OF our friends, relatives and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the recent bereavement of our husband and father, Mr. Olen Shaw. Special thanks to Rev. Gerald Gibson, Pursley Funeral Home and Welcome Rebekah Lodge 246. Mrs. Olen Shaw, Mrs. Keith Van Kleek and Mrs. Elmer Cone.

FHA to Revise House Standard

Smaller Lots, Lower Ceilings Allowed but Room Size Increased

WASHINGTON (AP) — Smaller houses, lower ceilings, and smaller lots will be permitted under revision of the Federal Housing Administration minimum standards for new dwellings.

The new requirements, which builders must meet if their houses are to qualify for FHA mortgage insurance, will take effect around April 1.

Inside kitchens now will be acceptable with mechanical ventilation, and with artifical light substituted for windows.

Storage requirements are increased to 425 cubic feet from 300.

Halls must be at least three feet wide.

Each living unit must have at least two habitable rooms and a bathroom, except that in a two-family house one apartment may be an efficiency unit.

Minimum lot sizes are no longer specified, but the FHA will pass on the adequacy of a lot.

Ceiling heights may be dropped to 6 feet 9 inches in the basement, to 6 feet 8 inches in halls and baths. Other ceilings may vary with total room average of 7 feet 6 inches.

Radar Will Replace Ground Observers

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Radar soon will replace the 280,000 civilian volunteers who spent many hours in the past nine years watching for enemy planes in American skies.

The Air Force announced Thursday the ground observer corps will disban Jan. 31. The reason: the human eye cannot keep up with requirements of the jet and missile age.

Several radar networks—across the arctic, Canada and the U.S. northern border, and along the Atlantic and Pacific coasts—now protect the United States. The Air Force believes these networks would spot jets and missiles along before they flew over the GOC's 16,000 observation posts.

In addition, the Air Force said new automatic equipment can collect and interpret observation data faster than the GOC's 50 filter centers.

Oversight Embarrasses Buffalo Traffic Head

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)— Henry W. Osborbe, traffic director for the city of Buffalo, was at a church dinner when a policeman took the floor to ask the owner of such-and-such an automobile to move it because it was blocking a doctor's driveway.

He Gets Punch in Mouth for Obeying Speed Law

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Earl Mulliken obeyed the 25 mile an hour speed limit as he drove home and ignored the bleating horn of the mortoris behind him.

When Mulliken got out of his car in his driveway, he noticed the horn-blowing driver stopped in front of his house. The other driver got out of his car, demanded why Mulliken hadn't got out of his way, then punched him in the mouth. Mulliken's denture was broken.

A GREAT LOSER — Henry Morgan is fast becoming famous for his wrong conclusions as a television quiz panelist with "I've Got a Secret." He's very blase about it all, though. Henry says "Women take it much harder than men when they fail to come up with the right answer." He should know, having been on the show for seven years now.

Lush Champagne Set Welcomes Belafonte

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—They sat there in their diamonds and pearls, with their minks and chinchillas dripping over the champagne buckets, the men looking very starched in their black ties — and waited there for the slim young man who not long ago worked in a hamburger stand to bounce out and enchant them.

WILSON

Harry Belafonte slithered out hips first.

"Get him!" growled one ringsider through a Corona-Corona cloud. "We got to wear a black tie, and he comes out in a red shirt, with no tie at all!"

What a ringside it was! Merle Oberon, Ann Miller, Polly Bergen wearing glasses, Ernie Kovacs wearing cigar, Edith Adams wearing full-length chinchilla, Pat Boone, Terry Moore trying to divide herself between young Bob Evans and a South American insurance executive named Ernest Lee—and up on the messanine Fredric March, who came gingerly down to dance with Mrs. Jackie Robinson.

Middle-aged matrons drank in Belafonte through their contact lenses, once he got swaggering. Plump but hungry escorts laid down their knives in mid-meal lest the sound of knife aganist plate shatter the silence that paid him a remarkable homage.

EDITH

When finally he concluded with "Matilda," he asked the red-coated waiters to sing it, then called out across the assembled wealth and fame, "Last year they made me an honorary member!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Harry Truman congratulated Mike DiSalle on winning the Ohio governorship; told him "I was afraid my appointing you Price Administrator might have hurt you politically" . . . Joel McCrea visited the Roundtable, watched son Jody play the bongos . . . Singer Sam Cook was injured in an Arkansas auto crash; his valet was killed . . . Irony: Liz Taylor's next film, "Two For the Seesaw," has her falling in love with a married man.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Since people aren't surprised by anything anymore, there's a move afoot to abolish the exclamation point.—Ima Washout.

Elaine Stritch walked out early on the screening of "Perfect Furlough," in which she's featured. She said, "If I don't get the guy at the end, I can't watch it." . . . That's earl, brother.

Guesses Wrong for Six Months

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Henry Morgan is a panelist on "I've Got A Secret," who refuses to believe that getting the right answer is a life or death matter.

As a matter of fact, Morgan once went for six months on the Wednesday evening CBS-TV panel quiz show without guessing anything correctly.

"Nobody seemed to notice it," he said the other day. "I scarcely noticed it myself. Audiences generally think that panelists are dumber than they are anyway. I'd rather have fun on the show than get the right answer."

"I've Got A Secret," with Garry Moore as host, has been on television seven years now. Morgan has been on the panel since a few weeks after the program began.

Morgan believes that in general among TV quiz panelists "Women take it much harder than men when they fail to come up with the right answer. I suppose it traces back to the battle of the sexes. They want to prove that they're as bright as men."

As far as can be ascertained Morgan has only one prejudice in the great game of guessing on TV.

"I don't like animals on TV. Garry likes 'em and every once in a while he brings one on. But I can't stand 'em. I refuse to ask an animal a question on television. It's idiotic."

Besides appearing on "I've Got A Secret," Morgan offers an interesting program on CBS Radio Sunday evenings called "Sez Who?" and does two broadcasts a week for a local New York FM station.

Inclined to be pessimistic, Morgan nevertheless optimistically sees signs of intelligent conversation returning to television.

"I've been waiting for the day," he said, "when you actually could go on television and have fun with ideas and things. There are signs of it now in Ed Murrow's 'Small World' and in that week of conversations Arthur Godfrey had on his morning program with Jackie Gleason.

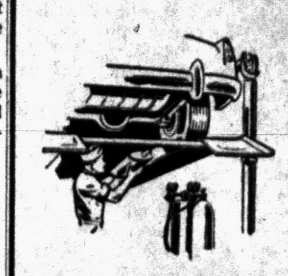

"That sort of thing has to come back or we're all dead."

Rich Policeman Quits

NEW YORK (UPI) — The resignation of Patrolman John Gaul, 39, from New York's finest after 18 years on the force means he will lose his pension — but Gaul is not worried. He just inherited 2½ million dollars from an uncle who died last January.

About 200 billion out of America's estimated annual production of 485 billion matches are given away with the purchase of retail tobacco products.

Rockefeller Delayed by Crackup at Rio

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Delayed by a crash which closed the Rio airport, Nelson Rockefeller hoped to take off for New York today after a 13-day vacation in Venezuela and Brazil.

The governor-elect of New York was scheduled to arrive home about 2 a.m. ST Saturday.

Czechs Housing Shortage May End in 12 Years

The broadcast said the central committee of the Communist Party met here last week and decided to do something about the housing shortage, pensions and wages. The commentator said about 1,200,000 apartments would be required to provide adequate housing for every family by 1970.

There are now 360,000 names on the waiting list for apartments throughout Czechoslovakia, the broadcast said.

To Appear for Parole With Citizens Citation

Collins, 38, helped police capture two bandits last summer. When the aawrd was to be presented, Collins was in jail awaiting trial on larceny charges. He was sentenced to 30 days and failed to get the honor.

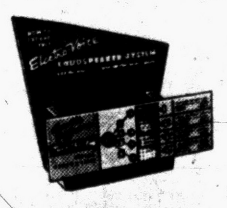

Pennsylvania police requested Collins' return for parole violation on his release Wednesday.

Collins, waiving extradition, asked for his citation, Commissioner Herbert W. Hart, appraised of the case, said: "Collins deserves the citation for what he did. He'll get it now. I am not judging what he wants to use it for."

2 Fire Engines Crash

WARWICK, R. I. (UPI) — Uncertain of the exact location, two fire engines took different routes to a grass fire on Midget Avenue. At the intersection of Midget Avenue and Nausauket Road, they crashed. No one was hurt but both engines were damaged.

Hope Dims for 3 Boys Missing in Mountains

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The search for three Boy Scouts missing since Saturday in the snowy Santa Rita Mountains may end today.

"I don't see how the boys could possibly be alive in this freezing weather," Sheriff James W. Clark said. "If we don't find them in the next two days, there's not much chance (of finding them) until spring."

He said the organized search would end today unless new leads were found.

Thursday night bloodhounds picked up a scent on the 7,000-foot level of 9,400-foot Mt. Baldy, where the youngsters were last seen.

"I don't want to arouse false hopes but the dogs did uncover something," said Russ Cone. He and Tom Cox, both of Los Gatos, Calif., arrived at search headquarters Thursday with their bloodhounds. Cone indicated the scent was found in an area previously overlooked.

Missing are Mike Early, 16, David Greenberg, 12, and Michael La Noue, 13, all of Tucson troop 70. They undertook a mountain-climbing expedition — against the advice of their scoutmaster — with three other scouts. The others turned back after a driving snowstorm hit the mountains Saturday afternoon.

French 'Party Line' Gives Out Campaign Talks

The newly formed Union for the Republic, a collection of right-wing Gaullists headed by Information Minister Jacques Soustelle, has set up a switchboard to play recorded party policy statements to voters who call in.

U.N. Eyes Plan on Outer Space

Makeup of Committee Present Concern of East, West Factions

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) 8 eat and West maneuvered today over the compsotion of a U.N. committee to make recommendations for international cooperation in outer space exploration.

It was Moscow's next move. Negotiations were held up while Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin awaited the Kremlin's reactions to concessions offered Thursday by the United States and 19 nations associated with it in an outer space proposal before the U.N. Assembly.

The U.S. group agreed in principle for the first time to a Soviet proposal to create a permanent U.N. committee for international cooperation in exploration of outer space for peaceful purposes.

But the 20 nations did not go along with the Soviet suggestion on the makeup of a preparatory group that would study and recommend means of using outer space peacefully.

The Soviet list included the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union as major powers, India, the United Arab Republic and Sweden as neutrals, Argentia for Latin America, and Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia for the Communist bloc.

Delegates said they expected there would be several private east-west exchanges, particularly on the committee lineup, before any agreement is reached.

The United States had suggested a 9-nation body, but would be willing to boost the number to 18.

2 More Polio Cases Reported in Oakland

Two more polio cases were reported to the county health department last week, bringing this year's total to 58, according to Dr. John D. Monroe, health director.

One was reported in Springfield Township, the other in Royal Oak, he added. During the same time last year, 27 cases occurred throughout the county.

Business Mixed With Pleasure

Ike Relaxes in Augusta as 10-Day Holiday Begins

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Vacationing President Eisenhower takes out after par again today at one of America's most testing golf courses.

Relaxing in a kind of old-shoe comfort at the Augusta National Golf Club, the President played 18 holes shortly after arrival from Washington Thursday afternoon. The weather was just about ideal — brilliant sun with the temperaforecast is for more of the same.

The President is being joined today by Mrs. Eisenhower, who delayed her departure from the White House to be hostess at a luncheon for United Nations women delegates.

The Eisenhowers plan a 10-day stay, through the Thanksgiving Day weekend, at the club where they have spent many vacations. The temporary White House once again is a cozy white frame cottage — called "Mamie's Cabin" — near the 10th tee.

This is the President's 21st visit to Augusta since he was elected six years ago.

Next week his golf may be mixed with business conferences — sessions with government officials expected from Washington for discussion of the legislative program and the budget Eisenhower will send to Congress in January.

But press secretary James C. Hagerty said every effort will be made to keep business at a minimum through the weekend. This is the President's first extended vacation since his September stay at Newport, R.I.

University to Give All-Year Courses

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) —Pennsylvania State University has taken the first tentative step toward eliminating the traditional summer vacation. One aim is to fill the voids in a college student's education.

Dr. Eric Walker, president of the university, announced Thursday that as of next summer undergraduate courses will be given all year.

The students won't be required to attend summer school.

But Dr. Walker said "it is my hope that many of our students will grasp this opportunity to enrich their background and training by taking elective courses during the summer months."

The summer program also is designed to help handle the sharp enrollment increase expected during the next decade.

Demonstrators Ask Older Men to Quit

CHARLEROI, Pa. (UP) — "We got your our pensions. Why don't you retire?"

So read signs carried by some 100 union members trying to persuade fellow employes over 65 to take their pensions and make room for younger workers who have been furloughed.

Michael J. Torhan, a leader in organizing the demonstration Thursday at the nearby Allenport plant of Pittsburgh Steel Co., said it was not sanctioned by United Steelworkers local 1187 which represents about 2,600 workers at the plant.

Baby's Cry Fills Pause in Score During Concert

DENISON, Tex. (AP)—A baby's cry last night stilled the baton of conductor Paul Kletski as he directed the Dallas Symphony Orchestra in the overture by Carl Maria Von Weber.

"It was the only thing to do," smiled the maestro after the concert. "You see we were playing very small, very softly, and Weber put the pause in the music."

cided to hold them until spring. He said the material would outline citizens rights under the Constitution. Foreman said some people had complained that they had been "harassed by agents."
