Film Capital Toasts Its Top 1956 Performers

who presented Yul Brynner (center) with his Oscar as the year's best actor. Producer Buddy Adler, winner of the Irving Thalberg Award as an outstanding movie-maker; and Cary Grant who accepted the trophy won by Ingrid Bergman (below), named best actress of 1956.

INGRID BERGMAN

Hollywood Oscars Thrill Movie Makers and Stars

HOLLYWOOD — The movie industry has given its highest honor to Ingrid Bergman, who left Hollywood amid scandal and criticism eight years ago and hasn't returned.

The 42-year-old Swedish star won the Academy Oscar—her second—at its 29th annual awards presentations last night. The prize was for her sensitive portrayal of the bewildered Russian princess in "Anastasia."

Miss Bergman, in Paris, was the star in absence of ceremonies in which Yul Brynner won the top-actor award for "The King and I" and "Around the World in 80 Days" was acclaimed the best picture of 1956.

Ingrid, told on awakening this morning that she had won her second Oscar, said she was "absolutely delighted and very happy."

Winners of supporting-player awards were Dorothy Malone, as a sexy Texan heiress in "Written on the Wind," and Anthony Quinn, as eccentric artist Gauguin of "Lust for Life."

Ingrid was the wife of a Beverly Hills surgeon and the mother of his daughter when she went to Italy and became the mother of a child by Italian director Roberto Rossellini. She later married him. "Anastasia," which marked her return to American films, had a European locale. Miss Bergman asked onetime costar Cary Grant to accept her Oscar in case she won.

A top studio executive who asked not to be identified said last night that he tried five years ago to cast Miss Bergman in a film, but encountered so much industry pressure he had to drop the plan.

ALL FORGIVEN — "Now that Hollywood has awarded her its highest honor," he added, "I know that all is forgiven, that she will be welcomed back to Hollywood by the industry—and, I'm sure, by the public."

Kidnaped by Desert Bandits

Iran Pushes Hunt for U.S. Woman

TEHRAN, Iran — Government officials said today that troops and police had picked up a paper trail left by a pretty American woman kidnaped by bandit tribesmen who killed her husband and another U.S. aid official.

Government sources said they believed the band of nomads, about 12 in number, had kidnaped Mrs. Anita Houvar Carroll, 35, Issaquah, Wash., to "sell her on the Arab coasts of the Persian Gulf and the Gulf of Oman."

More than 1,000 Iranian troops and police were reported closing in on the bandits fleeing across the Tangeorkh Desert of southeastern Iran. There was some speculation they might be trying to escape into Pakistan.

Reports reaching the capital from the remote area said the search force had "found little pieces of paper thrown away by Mrs. Carroll as she was forcibly taken away." The reports said the hunters found the paper trail very useful in their pursuit.

The dead Americans, according to Iranian officials, were Mrs. Carroll's husband, Kevin, 37, a Point Four area development adviser for Kerman, Iran, and Brewster A. Wilson, 33, Portland, Ore., a regional specialist for the Near

ANITA CARROLL

Mother in Washington Fearfully Awaits News

ISSAQUAH, Wash. — "We had a letter from our daughter just last week. They never mentioned any danger—never a word about anything to worry us."

Mrs. John Houvar recalled the letter today as she tried to keep busy at the motel she and her husband operate at this little roadside town east of Seattle. She struggled to keep back a mother's tears as she talked of the bandit slaying of her son-in-law, Kevin Carroll, and a companion in Iran and the apparent kidnaping of her daughter, Mrs. Anita Carroll, 35.

"Anita loved to travel," the distraught mother related. "She wasn't afraid of a thing. She trusted everyone. I suppose that's the way you get living in a small town."

Willman Hears Water Report

Attends Detroit Meeting Hoping to Find Source of Auxiliary Supply

Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman learned today what might be the best possible source for a much-needed auxiliary water supply for the city.

Willman attended a Supervisors Inter-County Committee meeting in Detroit at which the National Sanitation Foundation presented phase one of a water, sewage and drainage survey aimed at solving problems for Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw and St. Clair Counties.

The manager said the report would be a big factor in the city's decision as to where to seek water supplies.

"We hope the report will clear away some of the hurdles which we have been facing with the two possible sources available," the manager said.

WATER PURCHASE

He was referring to the purchase of Detroit water, and a Oakland-Macomb Authority merger with private capital to secure water.

Willman said the possibility of buying Detroit water was jarred by a recent act of the House of Representatives in Lansing. It passed an amendment to a bill, proposed by Rep. Leslie H. Hudson of Pontiac, which would restrict Detroit to selling water to outlying areas only after city consumers had all the water they needed.

Reuther Denies Discount Buying

Says He Never Heard of Shefferman, After Probe Testimony

DETROIT (INS) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther has accused Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) of "political immorality," and said he had never heard of Nathan Shefferman, who told Senate probes he made "discount" purchases for Reuther and other union officials.

Shefferman, a personal friend of Teamster President Dave Beck, testified before the committee that the only item he recalled purchasing for Reuther was a "left-hand door refrigerator."

However, Reuther replied that the house in which he now lives and the two houses in which he previously lived, along with all the household goods and appliances which he now owns or has owned during the past 21 years, have been paid for "with my personal funds."

In a lengthy telegram to Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), chairman of the Senate rackets committee, Reuther said: "The leadership of the UAW is irrevocably committed to the struggle, in cooperation with other decent trade unionists, to drive every crook and racketeer and gangster out of the American labor movement as we have driven the Communists from positions of leadership and power."

"We will not be stopped by diversionary actions nor be intimidated by the smear campaign against the UAW which Senator McCarthy, in his continuing career of political immorality, is engaged."

Senate Probers Privately Check Beck's Affairs

Teamster Boss Heads for Seattle Home After Recess Is Called

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probes turned today from public to private checking into their charge that Teamster President Dave Beck misappropriated $320,000 of union funds.

While Beck headed homeward to Seattle, Senate staff investigators dug for details that he had refused to provide on grounds his answers might tend to incriminate him.

Beck, head of the nation's biggest labor union, left the witness

Label Dummy Beck

SEATTLE (AP) — Suspended from a wire strung between two utility poles along a Seattle street late last night was a stuffed dummy bearing a placard inscribed: "Dave Beck." The spot was less than a block from the Seattle — and Western — headquarters of the Teamsters Union.

Stand yesterday a wilted Fifth Amendment witness facing possible contempt of Congress action.

"We are not through with Mr. Beck," Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) of the special Senate committee conducting the inquiry told reporters.

"He will be a matter of continuing interest to the committee and further testimony may be desired."

McClellan recessed the hearings indefinitely yesterday after accusing Beck of "flagrant... disrespect for honest unionism," "arrogant contempt" for members of his Teamsters Union and "utter contempt" for the committee.

WONT COMMENT

Beck declined comment on McClellan's tongue lashing.

He told the committee "I'll be able to come out of this clean and white 100 per cent" if he gets a chance to testify in a court. He said he expects to do so because of his income tax troubles with the Internal Revenue Service.

Beck said he would not attend a meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council, which has been called Friday to consider his repeated use of the Fifth Amendment's protection against self-incrimination.

A code of ethics adopted by the council early this year calls for expulsion of any labor official who uses the amendment to avoid answering questions about union affairs.

Beck remained outwardly confident but disinclined to talk, when he left Washington for Seattle by commercial plane this morning.

Beck brushed aside most questions from newsmen and went quickly to his seat.

Asked whether he was happy to be leaving Washington he replied no, and added that he was hurrying home primarily because of the illness of his wife. Asked whether his opinion of politicians had changed, Beck laughed and asked "What do you think?"

McClellan announced he expects about a two-week recess before the committee resumes hearings.

Alternate Routes Could Only Take 'Overflow'

Strategy Can't Divert Suez Traffic

CAIRO (AP) — Western governments will find it virtually impossible to turn the Suez Canal into an idle ditch by building more pipelines and supertankers.

Military, diplomatic and economic pressures have not shaken Egyptian President Nasser's grip on the strategic waterway. Some Western leaders are advocating all-out development of alternative routes to minimize Nasser's ability to blackmail the world through his control of the canal.

'Chief' Finds a Wigwam

HEAP BIG CHIEF RETURNS — The legend that Chief Pontiac is buried at Apple Island in Orchard Lake was lightly challenged yesterday when, according to Mayor William W. Actually, the "Chief" is a seven-foot plaster-of-paris statue presented to the city by Lee Anderson (right) of Lake Orion.

First Appointment With Lodge

Dag, U. N. Diplomats Discuss Nasser Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold returned to New York today for a busy round of conferences with diplomats anxious for news of his Middle East talks with Egyptian President Nasser.

Arriving at New York's Idlewild Airport, Hammarskjold said he hoped his talks with Nasser would "prove helpful."

Hammarskjold refused to answer newsmen's questions but read this brief statement to them:

"When I left New York on Tuesday of last week, I went to have informal exploratory talks. I have had such talks in Cairo and only in Cairo."

"My talks in Cairo reached a point at which I felt it would be better to return to New York to continue similar talks in the United Nations. I hope the talks in Cairo will prove helpful, and that the talks here will also be useful."

In Cairo, meanwhile, Nasser's chief political aide Wing Cmdr. Ali Sabry, said in an interview that the Egyptian government "believes Hammarskjold is convinced of the soundness" of Egypt's position on the Suez Canal.

Sabry said Egypt would allow no foreign supervision whatsoever of the canal's operation.

Aides said one of Hammarskjold's first appointments would be with U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and that he would lunch with Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson and Norwegian Ambassador Hans Engen, both of whose nations are members of the secretary general's seven-nation Middle East Advisory Committee.

Hammarskjold was to meet with the full committee this afternoon. The other members are Brazil, Ceylon, Colombia, India, and Pakistan.

Warmer Weather, Showers Predicted

Scattered showers are likely tonight and tomorrow, but the weatherman says that warmer weather will accompany the drizzle.

With a low of 32 to 34 tonight, the mercury is expected to climb to a high of near 50 tomorrow. A high of 47 was expected today, and early morning sunshine caused the mercury to rise sharply from a sub-freezing 31 to 39 between 8 and 10 a. m.

Downtown Pontiac's lowest temperature prior to 8 a. m. was 27. At 1 p. m. the mercury read 43.

Police Hunting Factory Owner for Questioning

Bodies of 11 Recovered After Two Explosions Raze Fireworks Plant

MEXICO CITY (AP)

Rescue workers dug through a wrecked block of rubble today seeking more victims of two explosions in a fireworks factory that left more than 100 Mexicans dead or injured. Police hunted the factory owner for questioning.

Eleven bodies — four of them firemen — had been recovered late last night.

A hundred persons were hospitalized. Many were not expected to live.

Most of the casualties resulted from the second blast which came as hundreds of curious neighbors watched firemen fighting the fire after the first explosion.

Because it was lunchtime, the factory — in a poor residential district — apparently was empty.

Police said they wanted to question Antonio Joyas Chavez, owner of the factory. Officers said his adjoining warehouse was illegally filled with dynamite and other explosives.

WINDOWS SHATTERED

The factory was less than a mile from Mexico City's International Airport and many windows in airport buildings were shattered. The sound of the two explosions could be heard over the noise of noonday traffic in the heart of the city five miles away.

Authorities gave this account: Nicolas Lome Munoz, a watchman, saw smoke curling from the factory, located on the Mexico City-Puebla highway which passes the airport, shortly before noon.

He told his wife to call firemen and then tried to halt the spreading flames with buckets of water. The woman was unable to find a telephone.

The first explosion occurred at noon, leveling the plant and damaging nearby buildings. The blast killed the watchman, hurling his headless body 90 feet onto the highway.

RUSH TO FACTORY

Firemen from the airport rushed to the factory and sought to halt the racing flames. Hundreds of curious flocked to the scene and milled around watching the firemen.

Fifteen minutes later the warehouse exploded with a roar that could be heard for miles.

Four firemen, a policeman and five spectators were known to have died in the second blast. Ambulances and police converged on the area and began moving the injured to hospitals in relays.

The explosions left a crater nearly 100 feet long and 30 feet deep where the factory and warehouse had stood. Damage was estimated at $320,000.

Arrest 3 Men Who Left Farm

Trial to Be Arraigned in Burglary; Sought by Jackson Officials

Three prisoners who walked away from the Jackson Prison farm yesterday are in the Oakland County Jail this morning awaiting arraignment for a breaking and entering charge.

The men, Curtis Gibbs, Richard May and Leo Brake were arrested by Troy patrolmen Robert Mortensen and Raymond Major Jr. about 3:30 a.m. today at Iowa and Dequindre roads in Troy.

Troy police report they apprehended the three men after they checked the car the men were driving because it lacked an outside rear view mirror and the rear window of the auto was steamed.

Earlier, patrolmen had discovered the glass of the front door of the W & B Super Market, 34771 Dequindre Rd. broken. They arrested the three men for investigation of breaking and entering when they found several bags of groceries in the car.

Further investigation showed the men had walked away from Jackson earlier in the afternoon and were driving a stolen car.

Says State to Top 8,500,000 by 1957

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's growth will leap from its present 7,500,000 to between 8,500,000 and 9,000,000 persons in the next 10 years, a Michigan Bell Telephone Co. official says.

H. E. Crampton, Bell assistant vice president for business research, writing in the Michigan Business Review, said he foresees personal income in the state increasing during the period by about 600 million dollars.

By 1966, personal income of adults will average about $3,915 compared to $3,143 today, said Crampton. He said for the state as a whole personal income should rise from $15,400,000,000 last year to 22 billion dollars in 1966.

Doctor's Orders Keep Mrs. Beck From Tuning In

SEATTLE (INS) — Mrs. Dorothy Beck, 58, wife of Teamster Boss Dave Beck, was under doctor's orders today to stay in bed and not listen to broadcasts of the Senate's labor racket hearings.

Her personal physician, who asked not to be quoted by name, said Mrs. Beck is suffering from high blood pressure aggravated by a bronchial inflammation.

He said she had been confined to bed for the past two days and described her condition as neither critical nor serious but rather as "causing concern."

Her doctor said her blood pressure had troubled her for some time and added that worry and tension "certainly don't help."

He said he issued positive orders that she was not to listen to a single word of broadcast or telecast in the Senate hearings.

The Becks have been married since 1918.

May Delay Checks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Dept. officials have said the issuance of checks to farmers for retiring land under the soil bank program may be delayed until after harvest time.

They explained there are a number of regulations covering participation in the $1,200,000,000 program which must be checked with individual farms before payment may be made.

Cornerstone Laid for Safety Building

Many future occupants of the new Public Safety Building yesterday felt a little closer to moving into their new home as the cornerstone was laid at the $375,000 structure on East Pike street.

Making up a crowd of more than 100 chilly spectators were members of the Pontiac Police and Fire Depts., as well as representatives of the Municipal Court. All watched Mayor William W. Donaldson apply the mortar with a chrome trowel, and see the cornerstone lowered in place.

Jack A. Fredman, contractor for the building, located just north of the City Hall, promised police, fire, and municipal court personnel they will be in their home by July 1.

The edifice, constructed from capital improvement funds, will house the police department, fire department administrative offices, and two courts with offices for judges and lawyers. It will also have on the second floor the city's first jail.

INTRODUCES GROUP

Mayor Donaldson introduced his fellow commissioners during yesterday afternoon's brief ceremonies outside the flag-draped Pike street entrance of the building. Former commissioner Harcourt S. Patterson also was introduced.

City Manager Walter K. Williams, Police Chief Herbert W. Straley, Fire Chief John F. Schroeder, Municipal Judges Maurice E. Finnegan and Cecil B. McCallum, and architect Leo J. Heenan, who designed the building, spoke briefly.

Overseer of the event was a seven-foot statue of Chief Pontiac given to the city by Lee Anderson

Many Found Less Critical

Re-Appraise Heart Attacks

DUARTE, Calif. (INS) — The medical profession has reappraised the heart attack and has discovered that some of them are no worse than a bad cold.

Dr. Myron Prinzmetal, a Los Angeles heart specialist, told about it at a meeting at the City of Hope Medical Center yesterday.

He said that the formerly held view that all coronary artery attacks immediately threaten the life of the patient has been abandoned.

He said that he and his associates concluded that mild attacks, producing only a small scar tissue in the heart, do not require long and expensive treatment.

To test the theory they produced small infarcts (scar tissue areas) in the hearts of experimental animals.

The results confirmed the theory. In fact, the infarct areas turned out to be stronger than normal heart muscle.

So some 23 patients, most of them young doctors, who had suffered mild heart attacks, were given a program of only two weeks in bed, instead of the six weeks that formerly had been prescribed. Then they were sent back to work.

Prinzmetal said that contact has been maintained with only seven cases, but with these there has been no new attack and no other signs of trouble.

MEMO FROM CAESAR

Teachings Intrigue Rome

(Twentieth in a Lenten Series)

Tiberius Caesar to Pontius Pilate...

Greeting:

Your agent Junius' report to my mother on the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth has been making the rounds in Rome. And, I must say, it has stirred up more interest in the fashionable circles than it has among our sages and religious leaders.

The latter, I am afraid, are more interested in their temple politics than in any stimulating new thought.

In the private homes, it is another matter. The wealthy patrons, who have poets and philosophers read their works at banquets and soirees, have devoted as much as a full evening to a recitation of Junius' report and a discussion of its contents.

Most of the disputants contend that mortal human beings would have to be much more nearly perfect than they are to follow out the precepts of the Nazarene teacher. But Livia has taken up the struggle for him. She insists that as an ideal to be striven for, his beliefs could have a powerful effect on both morals and manners.

She pointed out that if accepted on a national scale, Jesus ideas would even end war. (Then where would men like you and I be, dear Pilate! Maybe the Nazarene is dangerous after all... No, I'm only jesting.)

By the way, what is this about your local leaders showing jealousy of Jesus' popularity? I smell an intrigue. And I should be able to recognize the scent; intrigues we have here by the dozen. The outcome is usually not so gruesome as it was with John the Baptist, but I, myself, take the precaution to have most of my food tasted for poison.

Was it not Plato who would have had philosophers be kings? I wonder how long a philosopher would last as Caesar right now — or even as Governor of Judea for that matter, eh?

Perhaps some day that will come to pass. It may even be that men will progress to where they can behave as your Nazarene urges. But that time is not yet.

Indeed, if Junius' report may be taken literally, I do not imagine it will be too long before there will be some pretty virulent opposition against this man Jesus. His gentleness has too much militancy about it to go unchallenged.

Let me know the developments...

Wives of Police Forgive Hubbies, to Aid in Election

Although they were denied the right to become an auxiliary to their husbands' organization, the wives of the Pontiac Police Officers, known as the POW's, have consented to forgive and help out their husbands.

At the request of Herbert C. Cooley, President of the Pontiac Police Officer's Association, the ladies said "they would help their husbands carry out the final stages of the campaign for civil service for Pontiac Police officers which comes to a vote Monday."

Cooley said at a special campaign meeting last night that the women agreed to carry on a telephone campaign Friday through Sunday, as well as helping out near the polls on Monday.

After three ballot votes which included two ties and one stuffed ballot box, the association earlier in the month voted to deny their wives the request to organize an auxiliary. Since then the wives met and decided to organize anyway for a social purpose. They call themselves the Pontiac Police Officer's Wives.

AMEND BOARD

The vote, if secured Monday, would amend the trial board section of the City Charter and place the police along with the city firemen under a code based on state civil service laws.

Capt. Charles Evans, acting secretary of the Pontiac Municipal Employees Joint Council said the council voted unanimously to endorse civil service for the Pontiac Police Department.

This council is composed of representatives of the Pontiac Municipal Employees Association, the Pontiac Fire Fighters Association, Local 100 GCEOC (Government and Civil Employees Organization Council), and the police association.

Hollywood Oscars Thrills to Winners

ing portrayal of a Texas oil family in "Giant." He won the 1951 directorial Oscar for "A Place in the Sun."

Dynamic producer Mike Todd, accepting the best-picture award for "Around the World in 80 Days," his first picture, said, "This is especially wonderful for me because it's my first time at bat."

Quinn told reporters he was so surprised at his victory that: "I feel just like Harry Truman."

In an acceptance speech which Miss Majorie said later she couldn't recall, she dedicated her Oscar to her 16-year-old brother, Bill Maloney of Dallas. A lightning bolt killed him in 1954 on a golf course.

Brynner, 41, born on the island of Sakhalin near Siberia of Mongolian and Romanian parents, won his Oscar in his second starring picture. The shaven-headed actor accepted the award from wild-haired Italian star Anna Magnani.

The most awards went to "The King and I." Beside Brynner's, it scored in five minor categories. Next was "Around the World in 80 Days," with five Oscars.

A surprise winner was the song "Que Sera, Sera" (Whatever Will Be, Will Be), written by Ray Evans and Jay Livingston.

Authorities said the pair burglarized five taverns in Beaufort, N. C. before going AWOL from Cherry Point Marine Base March 2, then raided two taverns in Adrian, one in La Salle, Mich. and two in the Toledo area.

Kelley and Raymond will be prosecuted here in burglary charges, then turned over to authorities in Michigan and North Carolina.

The court automatically enters a not guilty plea when an accused person stands mute. The mute plea will enable Hoffa, at the proper time, to attack the jurisdiction of the court and its right to issue the warrant under which he was arrested. He would be recognizing the jurisdiction of the court if he pleaded guilty.

Gas Strike Hits Northern Ohio

Pickets Halt Deliveries From Toledo Terminal; Wages Chief Issue

The 29-day gasoline strike moved outstate today when Detroit pickets moved into Toledo and Bryan, Ohio in an attempt to stop deliveries to this area.

A spokesman for a Toledo Shell Oil Co. terminal said the pickets had not stopped operations, but he added that the company does not plan further deliveries into Michigan at this time.

Pontiac and Detroit area service stations have relied heavily upon independent and outstate deliveries since the Oil, Chemical, and Atomic Workers Union Local 11-339 struck eight major suppliers of gas and fuel oil here.

These deliveries have enabled most motorists to get their normal tankfuls.

Chief issue in the dispute in wages. The OCAW is negotiating for new contracts with the companies, to include 25-cents hourly wage boosts.

William Flower, Toledo representative of the union, said other terminals there are threatened by strikes.

Reportedly, the Detroit strike is part of a national effort by the union to win new contracts that include substantial pay hikes.

Bargaining sessions were scheduled with Socory Mobile Oil Co. today and with Texaco representatives Friday. Other struck companies are Standard, Pure, Sinclair, Gulf, Shell, and independent Aurora, supplier for Speedway 79.

Three incidents of violence occurred yesterday as pickets in Detroit attempted to stop deliveries. No one was reported injured.

Absentee Ballots Must Be Secured by 2 on Saturday

Saturday at 2 p.m. is the deadline for Pontiac voters to secure absentee ballots for Monday's biennial spring election.

City Clerk Ada E. Evans said the clerk's office in the City Hall, 35 S. Park St., would open especially Saturday for last-minute voters who will be unable to go to the polls Monday.

The election of seven to state posts, three Supreme Court justices, and a local issue on the Police Officers' Assn.'s move for civil service, makes up Monday's ballot.

AWOL Marines Jailed in Burglary Probe

TOLEDO (AP) — Two AWOL Marines are in jail here today in connection with a string of tavern burglaries extending from Cherry Point, N. C., to Adrian, Mich.

They were identified as Corp. Thomas W. Kelley, 25, of Toledo and PFC William T. Raymond, 19, of Hartford, Conn. They were arrested Tuesday in the home of a relative of Kelley.

Authorities said the pair burglarized five taverns in Beaufort, N. C. before going AWOL from Cherry Point Marine Base March 2, then raided two taverns in Adrian, one in La Salle, Mich. and two in the Toledo area.

Kelley and Raymond will be prosecuted here in burglary charges, then turned over to authorities in Michigan and North Carolina.

U. of M. Professor Talks on Eye Cancer

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A University of Michigan eye specialist says parents of a child who has cancer of the eye "should be urged to discontinue having children."

Dr. Harold F. Falls, Associate Professor of Ophthalmology, said yesterday the disease retinoblastoma (eye cancer) presents "perhaps long-run impairment to the genetic makeup of future generations."

He said an adult who as a child survived the disease "should make a decision about sterilization." It is definitely known, he said, that such a person could transmit the disease to half his children.

Dr. Falls gave his views in an interview in the Michigan Journalist, student newspaper.

Retinoblastoma appears in children between the ages of two months and four years. A child who has the disease must have one or both eyes removed to live.

Supermarket Theft Brings Prison Term

CLEVELAND (AP) — Robert Elway, 35, Mendville, Pa., and Harold Hesse, 27, Lincoln Park, Mich., were sentenced to prison terms of one to seven years yesterday for theft of $6,058 in checks and cash.

The loot was taken from an east side (Foodtown) supermarket where Hesse was an assistant manager.

The Day in Birmingham

Quarton Traffic Study Shows Conditions 'Bad'

BIRMINGHAM — Commissioner, Carl Ingraham, has requested a traffic study in the Quarton School area on Birmingham's west side. Ingraham reported conditions as he found them last Monday and labeled them dangerous and ridiculous.

He said a one-way traffic sign used only during school hours was placed in the center of the street and was ineffective. Ingraham said he saw several cars drive around the sign and continue in the wrong direction.

"The sidewalk in front of the school," he said, "looks like a sign-makers convention. I never saw so many signs in one place—nor so many violations."

"Cars were parked all along by signs that said parking was prohibited. I also saw several drivers make U turns which again according to the signs was not allowed in that block."

"In asking city manager, Harold K. Schone, to investigate the conditions, Ingraham declared he felt the signs increased the danger to children rather than lessen it."

"I know," he said "we can not have a policeman on duty at all of our schools. I also know traffic

Visiting Irish Mayor Arrives in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Jewish and Irish community leaders joined hands today to host Dublin's visiting Lord Mayor Robert Briscoe.

Briscoe will be taken to the City-County building in Detroit after his arrival at Windsor International Airport.

Windsor's Mayor Michael J. Patrick, Detroit councilman Edward Connor, will join representatives of the Allied Jewish Appeal and Irish organizations in greeting Briscoe.

Various Detroit Irish organizations will honor the lord mayor at a luncheon.

Briscoe will open the Detroit Allied Jewish Appeal campaign tonight.

The Dublin mayor leaves Detroit tomorrow for Los Angeles. His American tour is on behalf of the United Jewish Appeal and Irish trade and tourism.

Japanese Star Tabs U.S. Men as 'Very Fast'

HONG KONG (INS) — Japanese film star Shirley Yamaguchi on the subject of men, Western style vs. Eastern: "American males are very fast. They don't waste time on anything."

"Japanese and Chinese males are kind of bashful. They have more courtesy and take more time to come to conclusions in many matters, including love."

The beautiful Shirley arrived in Hong Kong today from the U. S. to make two movies.

Edison Says Mining May Hurt Power Plant

LANSING (INS) — Detroit Edison Co. spokesmen say salt mining by a new process may be undermining footings of a huge $2.5 million dollar power plant in River Rouge.

The spokesmen, appearing before a state House committee, urged passage of a bill to regulate the mining operation and hold operators responsible for damages to adjacent property.

Representatives of the salt industry denied Edison's charge and said no remedies are required until actual damage can be proved.

Huron Hotel Sold; Plan to Remodel

The Huron Hotel, for more than 50 years a downtown Pontiac landmark, has been sold for an undisclosed price.

Purchased in 1939 by Joseph Salti, 35 Cherokee Rd., from the Riker estate it has now been sold to a partnership headed by Charles Gersten, 286 Ottawa Dr.

Gersten plans to completely remodel and renovate the 32-room structure. The lobby will be enlarged and new furnishings are planned in each room.

The Huron will be mainly a residential hotel, with some transient trade. The sale was handled by Partidge Realty of Pontiac.

Killed Crossing Street

DETROIT (AP) — James Brazell, 67, of Detroit, was injured fatally yesterday when he walked into the side of a truck while crossing a Detroit street.

He was a member of one of Detroit's Masonic Blue Lodges, the Consistory and was a 32nd Degree Mason. He also held membership in the Plumb Hollow Golf Club and the Riverside Kiwanis Club.

He is survived by his wife Rose, a daughter Mrs. E. R. Friess of Birmingham, two grandchildren, three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Kirscher of Toledo, Mrs. Elizabeth Kimball and Mrs. Minnie Kelly of Seattle.

Services will be Saturday at 1 p.m. from Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Funeral Home, with burial in Acacia Park Cemetery.

John R. Howard
The son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Howard III of 720 Chesterfield Rd. Mr. Howard, 21, died yesterday shortly after a collision with a truck at Woodward and Coolidge in Royal Oak. A native of Detroit, he came to Birmingham with his parents in 1936 and was graduated from Birmingham High School in 1955. He was a pre-law junior at Michigan State University. He attended the First Presbyterian Church.

Besides his parents he is survived by a sister Dianne at home and his maternal grandfather, Thomas E. Curry of Detroit. Complete services will be at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. at 11 a.m. tomorrow. The Rev. Dr. W. Glenn Harris will officiate.

'Olympian' Nuptials Held

PRAGUE (INS)—Olympic champions Olga Fikotova and Harold Connolly were wed in three separate ceremonies yesterday, touching off a hands-across-the-iron-curtain celebration by the excited people of Prague.

The pretty Czech discus thrower and the Boston hammer tosser were trapped for a while in a mass of well-wishers. One policeman said 15,000 persons were jammed into Town-Hall Square and inside the Catholic and Evangelical Churches, scenes of the religious ceremonies.

Police were called out to make spectators faint. At one point the press around the couple was so great that Olga's parents were unable to proceed with plans to observe some of Czechoslovakia's old wedding customs.

Another custom, placing a horse collar around the bridegroom's neck, was broken by Olga. She snatched the horse collar from Connolly's neck, saying she did not want to be his "boss."

FAIRY-TALE ROMANCE

Several enthusiastic wedding guests said the romance of the Czech and the American, which began at the 1956 Olympic Games in Melbourne, was like one of Bohemia's cherished fairy tales.

To a reporter, it was also reminiscent of last year's wedding in Moscow.

Connolly, 25, and Olga, 24, were cheered repeatedly when they arrived at the 18th century Town Hall for the civil ceremony by a Communist official, and when they later went to the Catholic Church of San Tyn and the Evangelical church of San Salvador.

Security for You

Railroad Retirement Closely Tied to SS

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer
Railroad workers, like federal employees, have their own government retirement program, set up by special laws.

But, unlike the Civil Service retirement system, the Railroad Retirement program is closely tied to Social Security.

For example: A railroad worker is guaranteed that in no case will he get less in benefits from Railroad Retirement than he would if his railroad service were covered by Social Security. And, a railroad worker who has not put in 10 years of railroad service isn't eligible for benefits under the Railroad Retirement System, but his work record is transferred to Social Security.

In many ways, the operation of the Railroad Retirement System parallels the Social Security program.

PAYROLL TAXES

Railroad Retirement is supported by payroll taxes on the worker and his boss. The tax is 6 1/2 percent (vs. 2 1/2 for Social Security) for both employers and employees, and the tax can't be refunded when the worker leaves the railroad industry.

The taxes are collected by the Internal Revenue Service, and the money goes into the Railroad Retirement Fund of the U. S. Treasury. The funds are invested in government bonds at interest; it not needed immediately to pay benefits.

The Railroad Retirement Board keeps a record of each railroad worker's service and earnings under the employee's Social Security number. This number is used by employers in reporting the worker's earnings and service to the board.

Like Social Security, the size and kinds of benefits open to a railroad worker are based on the number of years of railroad service and the wages he received for that service.

To a degree, the benefits of the Railroad Retirement program are similar to those of the Social Security system, except that more benefits and more liberal payments are generally available to the railroad worker. The better railroad benefits are due to the higher taxes paid by the railroad worker and his boss.

Here's a comparison as an example:

When a railroad worker retires he eligible for an old-age annuity at 65, if he has 10 years of railroad service, or at age 60, if he has 30 years of railroad service.

FOR WOMEN

Under Social Security the age of eligibility for retirement payments is 62 for women and 65 for men, no matter how long a person has been covered by the Social Security system.

The Railroad Retirement program also provides a more liberal disability payment set up than Social Security, and there are two types of disability payments.

A railroad worker who is totally disabled is eligible for an annuity at any age if he has 10 years of railroad service and he's permanently disabled for all regular work.

Under Social Security, the period of work required to be eligible for disability payments is less, but payments can't be made to anyone under 50.

A railroad worker who's unable to perform his regular railroad job because of a disability, but not necessary other types of jobs, is eligible for an occupational disability annuity (1) at age 60 if he has 10 years of railroad service or (2) before age 60 if he has 20 years of railroad service.

The Social Security program has no such disability provision.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service.)

Driver Makes Spectacle of Missing Eyeglasses

HOPEWELL, Va. (AP) — Ray Hayes missed his eyeglasses. He figured he'd dropped them when he got in his car, so he circled the block to take a look. He asked a policeman at the intersection if he'd seen anything of the missing glasses.

"Yep," said the policeman, "I have. They're right there crushed under your right front tire. I was just going to pick them up when you drove up."

OIL REFINERY AT HAVANA — Eventually, they hope the crude will flow out of Cuban wells. Confidential geological reports indicate huge

No One Is Discouraged by Day Wells as Oil Fever Grips Island of Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba (NEA) — A violent epidemic of oil fever grips this huge, green, alligator-shaped Caribbean island.

Tough, big-pawed oil field hands from all over the world crowd Cuba's cheap, colorful, open-front bars swapping reports and rumors of big strikes and deep, dry holes.

In the fancier bars where frozen daiquiris flow freely at a buck a throw, the talk among the New York financier types is all of big oil stock deals, confidential geological reports indicating huge reservoirs of black gold and of big syndicates being formed for new explorations.

Flying over Cuba's green-carpeted plains and hills you can spot the unnumerable tiny patches of cleared ground with the familiar drill rig in the center, surrounded by tiny sheds and trucks. Rough roads cut to these patches from the main highways.

The virus responsible for this oil fever was planted on May 1, 1934, when a wildcat poked an ancient drill through salty crust formation in a south central section of the island. It drew Cuba's first oil from a sedimentary formation.

It's called the Jatibonico field and is estimated to contain about a million and a half barrels. This is a drop in the oil can compared to the estimated reserves in Iran or Venezuela.

But the significance of the strike is the fact that the type of oil that the Jatibonico field is producing — and its geology — indicates there is probably a lot more oil where that came from.

And the big hope, of course, is that Cuba will eventually become a world source of oil on the scale of Iran or Venezuela.

Ever since the May 1 strike, increasing millions of dollars worth of manpower and equipment have been thrown into the feverish search for the oil which is believed to exist in great abundance beneath Cuba. The past year, for example, close to a half a million feet of holes have been drilled.

When the closing of the Suez Canal interrupted the flow of oil from the Middle East a newly-frantic interest developed in oil prospecting here not equalled anywhere else in the world.

The fact that all of this expensive searching has not produced a major new strike since the Jatibonico discovery does not dampen the enthusiasm of the companies footing the bill, nor of the men in the fields who continue to drill dry holes.

Every new piece of geological trating effort now being expended in Cuba.

A further indication of the confidence which all of the big oil firms have in the eventual discovery of huge oil reserves here is the construction by Shell, Esso and Texaco, this year of major new refineries here at a cost of nearly 100 million dollars.

At first the plants will refine the crude oil imported from the U. S. and elsewhere for the needs of the island. But eventually, it is hoped they will be refining Cuba's own crude.

Housewives' Union Fails to Get Support

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP) — Two Superior men who attempted to organize a housewives' union have reported to Chief of Police Arthur Buchanan that they spent $50 on postage and supplies and failed to get a single application for membership.

The one dollar registration fee was to have entitled members to the privilege of sending two written grievances to a board of review.

Chief Buchanan said the woman who asked police to investigate the promotion scheme told him she, personally, wasn't interested in joining as she had been married 40 years and figured there was no point in "asking for a change in conditions at this late date."

Much Lumber Used

WASHINGTON — About 1,250,000 board feet of lumber enough to build 125 average-size new homes — were used to construct the stands near the White House and Capitol for the presidential inauguration.

'Labor Must Clean House or All Be Smeared' — Carey

WASHINGTON (INS) — President James B. Carey of the AFL-CIO electrical workers declared today that organized labor must "clean house soon or we will all be smeared."

He denounced the racketeering element in the labor movement in the keynote address at a conference of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department on Administration of union health and welfare funds.

Carey is a member of the AFL-CIO Executive Council which will meet Friday to decide whether to take action against Teamsters' President Dave Beck for invoking the fifth amendment at Senate racket hearings.

He did not refer to Beck or any other labor leader by name. However, Carey recalled testimony before the Senate committee that a special consultant for the health and welfare fund of the West Coast Teamsters had received $300,000 a year for his services.

The AFL-CIO leader added: "Let's be frank with one another. The plundering of health and welfare funds by phony labor leaders and their broker friends has apparently run into millions of dollars."

"Any union officer who misappropriates any union welfare money is a traitor to the labor movement. More than that, he is a traitor to humanity."

Carey recalled that the old CIO some years ago ousted the Communist element from its ranks, and said trade unions are now "in a life and death struggle against racketeers, crooks, thieves and gangsters."

He said: "What comes out of this fight will determine the future of democratic unionism."

"For our own protection it is absolutely necessary that we denounce and renounce such characters pretty soon or we will pay a terrible price for permitting ourselves to be associated in the public eye with these phony and misguided union officers, who obtained $350,000 in commission over a four-year period at a total premium amounting to $2,500,000.

The electrical workers president said he had heard recently of "one unscrupulous one-time union leader who quit the ranks of organized labor, turned broker and is now earning $40,000 a year."

He added: "There can be no justification for these vultures feeding off the hard-earned dues of working people."

DESTINATION CANADA — Britons queue up outside Canadian immigration office in London to seek new homes in the West.

Mass Exodus to Australia; Canada a Protest to Britain?

LONDON (NEA) — Not since the potato famine of 1845, which drove thousands of Irish to the New World, has there been anything like the present heading flight of Britons from the United Kingdom.

Britons no longer queue all night in front of the Canadian immigration office as they did at the height of the "Westward Ho" fever, but when the office opens at 9 a.m. there is a lineup three abreast and several blocks long.

These are not disgruntled old people who would chance their fortunes in Canada. They are young married couples, for the most part, under 35 and with two or three children — "the seed stock of the nation," a Londoner commented sadly, after surveying the long lineup.

Nor do they have any compunction about turning their backs on the British Isles. "We're seeking a future for our children," a young lathe operator from the Midlands told me. His wife, also waiting in line with one baby in her arms, another in a pram, nodded her assent.

Canadian officials have suddenly gone coy about giving out exact immigration figures, but at the present conservative estimate of 400 applicants accepted daily, over 100,000 Britons will either be in Canada at the end of 1957, or will have made steamship reservations for the following year. The present shipping shortage, with all available passages booked through October, is the only thing that is stopping the exodus from being greater.

In contrast, only 36,000 Britons a year went to Canada in the last 10 years.

At the Australian and the New Zealand immigration offices the story is the same. Inquiries at Australia House have risen from 701 in the first week of November to 3,205 in the first week of January.

AUSTRALIA AIDS
To encourage immigration, the Australian government pays all but a small fraction of the would-be immigrant's boat fare. The number of these assisted passages to Australia has risen from 375 a week in November to 1,100 a week in January. This, of course, does not include the Britons who pay their own fare.

Even more revealing, however, is a recent public opinion poll which indicates that two out of every five Britons questioned would emigrate if they were free to do so. Discontent with Britain which is greater now than at any time since 1948, is evenly spread through supporters of all political parties, according to the poll.

The emigration itch has placed the British government in an embarrassing dilemma. On the one hand, the government is on record as encouraging emigration at the rate of 150,000 to 200,000 emigrants a year; but on the other, it has sought to maintain a balanced emigration policy of drawing from all sections of the population.

Government officials now admit this policy has broken down. Far from drawing from a cross-section of the population, Canada and Australia are attracting young people, including a high percentage of skilled workers, scientists and technicians.

In a recent survey of Cambridge University undergraduates, 11.3 per cent of the male students polled had decided to emigrate after graduating, while another 27.6 per cent were considering doing so. Scientists made up 44.7 per cent of the prospective emigrants.

PIONEER OR PROTEST?
Is Britain seeing a resurgence of the pioneering spirit? Or is the rush to leave Britain a silent, but devastating comment on the lack of opportunity at home?

Undoubtedly, the economic consequences of Suez—gasoline rationing, higher prices, short-time working in some basic industries and the prospect of more austerity—has had a lot to do with the flight from Britain.

A machinist from the Ford plant at Dagenham, queuing up to go to Canada, told me: "What can I do? I'm now working only three days a week, with the prospect of production being cut back even further. The employment exchange is full of auto workers like myself, either declared redundant, or working short-time. What future is there for us?"

In most cases, however, the decision to emigrate has not been a sudden one, but has been discussed in the family for at least a year before the first steps are taken to secure an application.

Lack of opportunity and incentive were the reasons given by Cambridge undergraduates for their decision to emigrate. They complained that brains and initiative are penalized severely by a taxation system which places the man who earns $7,800 a year in the surtax group.

British trade union restrictions are also a target for criticism. The mine workers' decision not to allow Hungarian refugees to work in the pits, even though British coal mines are woefully lacking in manpower, has been resented here by all strata of society. Such restrictive practices are cited as one more reason for quitting Britain.

WANT HOMES
The desire to own their own home and to give their children a free education is causing many skilled workers to look to Canada and Australia.
The lathe operator from the Mid-

Vote 2 State Officers Pay Raise of $5,000

LANSING (U) — Only the Governor's signature was needed today to raise the pay of the State Highway Commissioner and the Superintendent of Public Instruction by $5,000 a year.

The pay increases were all but assured yesterday with Senate approval of two bills to boost salaries for the two posts from $12,500 to $17,500. Gov. Williams already has come out in favor of higher pay for his administrative board.

Effective date of the increases is July 1, when the winners at next Monday's election will take office.

measures underwent minor amendment, then were returned to the lower chamber where the changes got swift approval yesterday.

Bills also have been introduced to give $5,000 pay raises to the Governor and other members of his administrative board such as the Attorney General and State Treasurer. All are hung up in a Senate committee and likely will remain there.

None of these would take effect until Jan. 1, 1959, the date of the next elective term for those posts.

Dedication Planned for Lansing Marker

LANSING (U)—The fourth formal dedication ceremony under Michigan's historical site marking program will be held on the state capitol grounds at Lansing April 2.

The aluminum marker on the main entrance of the capitol grounds marks the site of Michigan's third state capitol.

The first capitol was in Detroit and the second, also in Lansing, was about a block away from the present building.

Previous markers formally dedicated commemorated the Dutch pioneers at Holland, Lincoln's only Michigan speech at Kalamazoo and the Grand River near Williamston.

ceremonies. The state historical commission said that about 50 such historic markers will be placed by summer.

James A. Bland, composer of "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," was born in a suburb of New York City.

Know the Fish Before Starting to Cook It

Although the flavor, texture, appearance and size of fish varies according to the variety, the basic rules for fish cookery are few, and easy to follow.

Cook fish at low temperatures just long enough so it flakes easily and falls away from any bones. This helps keep fish moist, and brings out its delicate flavor.

As a rule, fat fish, such as salmon, white fish, and lake trout are most desirable for baking and broiling, because their fat will keep them from becoming dry.

Lean fish, such as cod, halibut, perch, haddock and pike are preferred by some for poaching and steaming, an excellent way of preparing lean fish is to wrap it in aluminum foil and bake it for 30 minutes at 350 degrees. It leaves no fish odor, and the moisture is sealed in, so basting is not necessary. Lean fish can be baked open if basted frequently.

Both lean and fat fish are well suited for frying.

It Looks Like Spring

A tasty before-dinner drink in the non-alcoholic category can be made as follows: To four cups of chilled apple juice add two tablespoons lime juice. Pour into glasses; garnish each with lime slice. Yields six to eight servings.

PEAR CARDINAL — Fruit continues to be more popular as a dessert all the time. In the above picture ripe, fresh Anjou pears have been poached in a vanilla syrup. The crimson sauce poured over the top has a dash of lemon juice and maraschino cherry juice or grenadine syrup for an unusual flavor.

Poach Pears in Syrup; Top With Crimson Sauce

There is many a recipe served to Queen Elizabeth but among the few she has chosen as her favorites is a dessert featuring fresh pears and known as Pear Cardinal. The original recipe had a very complicated and detailed method of preparation so for simplicity's sake, and for the sake of the unassisted homemaker of today, the recipe has been simplified though still retaining the original idea and basic flavors.

Ripe, fresh Anjou pears are ideal for a dessert of this type. Pared and poached in a vanilla syrup, Anjous become evenly tender and creamy white. They hold their shape well and unlike other fruit, do not become mushy as they cook. Pears are picked before they are fully ripe so that the texture can mature gradually and become smooth and free from grit cells.

Pear Cardinal takes its name from the crimson sauce that is poured over the top. It is a combination of fruit-flavored red jelly as a base, with a dash of lemon juice for tartness and maraschino cherry juice or grenadine syrup for an unusual subtle flavor. The complete dessert, comprising a delicately flavored Anjou pear topped with Cardinal Sauce, is a work of art—with most of the work taken out of it.

Served chilled, each one complete on your finest dessert plates and accompanied by a dish of sour cream, you will be chosen Queen for an evening among your family and your guests.

PEAR CARDINAL

3-4 fresh Anjou pears
2 cups water
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt

Sauce

1 cup or 12 oz. jar strawberry or other red jelly
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons maraschino cherry juice or grenadine syrup

Peel pears, leaving stem on. In shallow saucepan, mix together water, sugar, vanilla and salt. Heat to boiling point; add whole pears and simmer 20-25 minutes or until pears are tender. Turn pears occasionally in syrup holding by stem. Remove from heat and let pears cool in syrup. Chill.

Prepare sauce by heating jelly, lemon juice and maraschino cherry juice or grenadine syrup in top of double boiler over boiling water. Heat until smooth; stirring occasionally. Remove from heat and chill.

To serve, place on pear upright in each serving dish. Spoon sauce over top and serve with sour cream. Serves 5 or 6.

Ham 'n' Cranberry Mix

Brown slices of boiled ham slightly in skillet. Place a slice of ham on each slice of buttered toast. Top with a slice of cranberry sauce. Sprinkle grated sharp American cheese over all. Arrange on broiler pan. Place under broiler to melt cheese. Serve immediately.

CORN MEAL BISCUITS

Yield: 12 biscuits

1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 1/4 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup yellow corn meal
1/4 cup shortening
1/2 cup milk

Sift together flour, Baking Powder, and salt into a mixing bowl. Blend in corn meal. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk all at once. Stir lightly with a fork, just enough to moisten all the flour. Knead gently about 1/4 minute on lightly floured board. Roll dough 1/4 inch thick. Cut with 2-inch cutter. Place on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake in a 450° F. (very hot) oven 12 to 15 minutes.

Do-It-Yourself...

Remember, it's the fresh ingredients in your home-baked recipe that make things taste better, stay fresh longer.

New aluminum inner-seal keeps taste in, keeps air out... Hills Bros. original TASTE-LOK®

The first instant coffee that smells like coffee!

If you'll just pour yourself a cup of new Instant Hills Bros. Coffee, we believe you'll find—it's wonderful!

Coffee aroma, coffee taste

You get a heart-warming whiff of real coffee aroma as you raise the cup. And when you taste this new instant, the real coffee flavor is full and satisfying. It's that rich, true coffee flavor that lingers in your taste-buds.

We've captured coffee goodness

The flavor's in this coffee, because we've found the way to capture the elusive flavor "esters"—the delicate flavor tones that are usually lost in manufacture. Ours is a new special process, different from anything else in the coffee business.

And we keep this aroma and flavor for you. We pack our coffee in a flavor-protecting vapor which is locked inside the jar by an inner-seal of aluminum foil that keeps taste in, keeps air out, Hills Bros. original TASTE-LOK®.

We can promise you really good coffee in an instant. We've worked and tested for twenty years to accomplish just this.

We hope you'll try it

We think you'll agree when you try new Instant Hills Bros. Coffee that it brings you something new and wonderful in coffee drinking enjoyment, as well as convenience and economy. It costs no more than other good instants, you can make it in cup or pot—you get a good cup of coffee, fresh, fragrant and flavorful, every time—No Work... No Waste... Good Taste®.

Instant Hills Bros. Coffee is on your grocer's shelves right now—in 2-ounce and 6-ounce jars. Our family is proud of it. If good coffee is important to your family, we hope you'll try our product and share our pleasure. Today's a good day to start.

Serve Breakfast Eggnog

Here's an idea for those people who have little appetite at breakfast time — the ones who fade before lunch! First, a glass of fruit juice, then a delicious and energizing eggnog — goes down easy! For each serving add 2 teaspoons real New Orleans molasses and 1 cup of milk and there's breakfast-in-a-glass, rich in the one vital element — iron — that milk lacks, but that molasses has to give.

Egg White Is Base of Gingerbread Trim

Mock whipped cream makes a good topping for spicy gingerbread. Beat one egg white at high speed until foamy, and gradually add 1-3 cup sugar and the juice of one lemon. Beat until stiff. While beating, slice one large ripe banana and add it to the egg white mixture. Beat until it stands in peaks.

Thread sliced pineapple on wooden spoon handle to drain over bowl.
