Damage Mounts as 4-Inch Rain Soaks Michigan

Highways and Homes Suffer in Downpour; Reported Receding

A weekend siege of rain caused thousands of dollars in damage throughout the county as close to four inches of rain spilled into hundreds of basements and made many roads impassable.

County lakes and rivers were reported at nearly flood stage throughout the deluge that began Friday and continued intermittently through last night.

Many county residents out for a Sunday drive became bogged down in road washouts. The Automobile Club of Michigan reported thousands of calls from stranded motorists and many "stuck in the mud" cases.

But county officials report most of the flooded areas receding today except for portions of Northwestern, Greenfield, and Grand River which are still closed to traffic.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts cooler temperatures on the way for Pontiac and vicinity. The mercury is expected to drop to around 30-34 tonight.

Pontiac Police and Oakland County Sheriff Dept. reported a rash of calls on flooded basements and stranded motorists beginning early yesterday.

Heavy rains that poured into the Elks Temple at 114 Orchard Lake avenue will necessitate refinishing the 12 bowling alleys in the basement according to Walter A. Giddings, secretary for the Elks.

CALLS FLOOD BOARD

Deputy Thurman Sauvage said the sheriff department switchboard "looked like a Christmas tree" during a flood of some 200 calls. Police reported around 75 calls from throughout the city.

6,000 Girl Scouts to Pitch Camp in County for National Roundup

By JANET ODELL

Six thousand Girl Scouts and their leaders will descend on Highland Recreation area the latter part of June. The first large scale, national Roundup of senior Girl Scouts will take place from June 29 to July 11.

John Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, met last week with representatives from the national Girl Scout staff to discuss plans. Julian Salomon, camp consultant and director of site and facilities, outlined details of the physical setup of the camp.

The Roundup was authorized by the Girl Scout national board four years ago. It will be the most dramatic demonstration since covered wagon days of American girls and women creating comfortable homes in the midst of primitive conditions with a minimum of equipment.

Twenty-four hundred small tents will be erected by the teenage girls for their living quarters. Stacks of boards will be converted into tables and benches. Charcoal stoves will be set up for cooking three meals a day.

Thirty large tents are to be raised for administrative "offices." These include a commissary, trading posts, hospital, information centers, snack bar and post office.

By a special act of Congress a detachment of the Fifth Army will help set up and maintain the Roundup. In attendance will be 56 Military Police and 146 hospital personnel. Michigan State Police will also assist.

SPECIAL POST OFFICE

The United States Postoffice Department will set up a special subsection to handle the thousands of pieces of mail going in and out of the camp. A special telephone hookup — Milford, Roundup 1956— will be used.

The largest mass-movement of teenage girls in history will get under way during the week of June 24. Buses will meet trains as they arrive in Detroit and will bring the girls to the Highland area.

Every state and territory of the United States will be represented. In addition, there will be campers from Canada, Mexico, Columbia, Brazil, the West Indies, England,

Gaza Flareup Angers Israelis

Three Reported Killed in Weekend Skirmish; Dag Calls for Peace

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel said today its casualties from weekend incidents on the Egyptian-Israeli border mounted to three dead and one wounded.

Egypt and Israel, parties to a 12-day old cease-fire agreement, each blamed the other for the flareup.

The accusations came as U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold neared the end of his peace mission to the Middle East, began April 6. He held a final meeting in Cairo this morning with Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi.

An official Israeli announcement said a second soldier died today as a result of a mine explosion under a military vehicle. The first was killed yesterday at the time of the explosion near Izhak village close to the frontier of Egypt's Gaza Strip. Israel also reported a farmer was killed in another incident yesterday.

Sources in Cairo close to Hammarskjold expressed belief the disturbances would not affect the outcome of his mission.

He planned to leave Egypt later today for his last discussions with officials in Israel, winding up his mission. He is due to report back by May 4 to the U.N. Security Council in New York.

A well-informed source in Cairo said Egypt now was willing to accept Hammarskjold's proposal that Egyptian and Israeli forces on the demarcation line be pulled back out of sight of each other. The exact distance would be determined by terrain and local circumstances.

Police, Civic Groups Plan Annual Car Safety Check

With the signing of a proclamation by Pontiac Mayor William D. Donaldson, final plans for a city-wide automobile safetyfeature check May 7-13 are fairly complete, according to Clyle R. Haskill, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce safety committee which is sponsoring the event.

He said that plans this year include stationing of Pontiac policemen at five check points located in the city.

The policemen will issue warning summonses to motorists whose cars are found to have defective equipment. Drivers will have 72 hours in which to show that defects are repaired or have to pay fines, Haskill said. Cars which pass the test will win windshield stickers.

The check is voluntary, but Donaldson urged drivers to take part, saying that every car should be examined at least once a year in view of the many traffic accidents caused by faulty equipment.

Teams from Pontiac High School driver training classes and from city service clubs will check these items: brakes, front and rear lights, exhaust systems, windshield wipers, tires, steering, glass, rearview mirrors and horns.

Haskill listed these points for the check: W. Huron and N. Saginaw streets, to be manned at night by Rotary and Optimist clubs; Auburn avenue near E. Boulevard S., Exchange and Lions clubs; W. Montcalm avenue near Summitt street, Kiwanis club; N. Johnson avenue near State street, Civitan club; and Orchard Lake avenue near Berwick boulevard, Downtown and West Kiwanis clubs.

The Pontiac police department and the Pontiac Automobile Dealers association are cooperating in sponsoring the event locally, Haskill said.

Motorist Faces Watery Problem

HELP WANTED — An unidentified Pontiac resident yesterday morning found W. Howard street between Saginaw and Baldwin tough going. Heavy rains late Saturday and early Sunday poured two feet of water into the area blocking up drains and causing the above condition. Similar flooded streets were reported throughout the city and area. A wrecker was called to the scene by the Pontiac Police and the stranded car was soon on its way.

Cuban Rebels Squelched; Rights of Citizens Frozen

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Cuba's Cabinet today ordered a 45-day freeze on constitutional guarantees after 70 civilian rebels attacked an army base 60 miles east of Havana in an apparent bid to take over the country.

The government of President Fulgencio Batista said the reovlt at the Domingo Goicuria army base, just outside Matanzas, had been crushed swiftly with 11 rebels killed and a number wounded. It said only three Cuban soldiers were wounded.

The army announced that former President Carlos Prio Socarras, who has been repeatedly charged with plotting against the government, had been arrested with a number of his friends.

Gen. Francisco Tabernilla, army chief of staff, said Prio Socarras, who was ousted by Batista in a bloodless revolt in March 1952, had been taken into custody "to protect the personal safety of the former President."

The government communique said all police, army and navy leaves had been canceled and all members of the armed forces ordered to quarters.

The Cabinet's move to suspend guarantees went into immediate effect. The action must be confirmed by Congress, but approval appeared certain.

The suspended guarantees are freedom of assembly, inviolability of mail and freedom of speech and of the press. There was no indication, however, that the government intended to put on censorship.

Under the decree, the government also is empowered to hold arrested persons incommunicado as long as it desires.

Birmingham Earns High Safety Rating

Birmingham was among four of Michigan's cities to compile perfect three-month records for traffic, the National Safety Council revealed today.

Flint, Wyandotte, and Battle Creek are other state cities without a fatality in 1956.

Birmingham was honored for its top ranking in the 10,000-25,000 classification.

Flint was the largest city among 278 in the nation with perfect slates. Flint was in the 100,000 to 200,000 bracket, while Wyandotte and Battle Creek were rated among places with 25,000-50,000.

Detroit was second in the classification of cities with over a million residents.

'54 World Population Set at 2 Billion Mark

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations says the world's population in 1954 was 2,652,000,000, give or take as much as 133 million for possible error. Some countries don't report as well as they might.

Anyway, the world's population is bouncing upward at the rate of 40 to 66 million a year, the U.N. estimates.

2 Killed, 6 Hurt in Plane Crash

Cyprus - Bound British Transport Loaded With Soldiers' Families

STANSTED, England (AP) — A transport plane loaded with British servicemen, their wives and children, bound to strife-torn Cyprus crashed on takeoff today. Two persons, a serviceman and a child, were killed. Six were injured seriously.

* * *

The four-engine York plane, carrying 45 passengers and a crew of 5, rumbled off a shoulder of the runway at this Royal Air Force field and spun, crumpling under the strain. Five persons were trapped in the wreckage, but were freed quickly by firemen.

Eyewitnesses said the big plane, civilian counterpart of the World War II Lancaster bomber, lurched off the runway just as it began to rise.

A wheel dug into soft ground and the plane smashed a wing and crumpled the fuselage as it swerved.

Of the passengers, some were infants less than a year old, and 14 were older children.

Airport firemen raced to the scene and sprayed the wreckage. No blaze broke out. U.S. Air Force personnel at the base also helped and brought in heavy rescue equipment.

GM Labels Report 'Unfair, Not Factual'

DETROIT (INS) — General Motors Corporation today labeled a report from a U. S. Senate subcommittee on antitrust and monopoly as "unfair, emotional and not factual."

The report from the subcommittee was released last Wednesday and it urged "that GM should begin to break up its auto empire."

The GM statement said:

"General Motors officials submitted voluminous information to the subcommittee on every phase of our business . . .

"This report does not fairly represent the record of the hearing. Instead it reflects the same emotional, rather than factual, approach to the 'case study' of General Motors that prevaded the hearings themselves."

5 Killed, 20 Injured in Italy's Mille-Miglia

ROME (AP)—The Italian government was asked today to ban future runnings of Italy's Mille-Miglia thousand-mile road race. Five were killed and about 20 injured in the auto classic yesterday.

The demand by Socialist Deputy Fernando Santi came after newspapers had called the race a "massacre" and said that new safety precautions taken this year were inadequate.

'Opening Day Three Months Too Early'

Trout Anglers Gloomy - - Cold Water Chills Luck

Editor's Note—The following article is the first of a series by Jack Patterson, Pontiac Press outdoors writer, in which he will give his account of the trout season in Michigan.

By JACK PATTERSON

If memory serves us correctly we mentioned recently in this column that there is plenty of room for debate as to the desirability of opening the trout season on the last Saturday in April. We can now categorically state that room for debate no longer exists. It's too early—about three months too early.

PATTERSON

The morning of the 28th found us more or less comfortably ensconced among the probationers of Sleepy Hollow. Included in the full roster of members present were Ed Barrett, Bob Glenn, Roy Corwin, Bob Nelson, Ross Thompson, Chuck Rogers, this fisherman and guest Elton "Mike" Kerr of Birmingham.

Opening day dawned as every day in the past six months in this area, cold and overcast. It was one of those days, as Mike Kerr pointed out, when you wished you were home and father was here. The weather definitely ruled out dry flies. It also ruled out wet flies, nymphs and streamers.

As a matter of fact, as we discovered after considerable effort, it ruled out worms. Many man hours of experimentation, hard work and hard fishing produced absolutely nothing—and we mean nothing.

The culprit, of course, was cold water. Our alder-bordered crick is a natural for many fat brook trout on opening day and throughout the season, as far as that goes. But with water temperatures hovering around a chilly 40 degrees, the only activity was on the part of the fishermen.

Checking on our closest neighbors we learned that only three polar bears out of the vast roster of Camp 24 had turned up to exercise their April 28 prerogatives.

A. Floyd Blakeslee, Vic Blakeslee of Farmington and Charles Corwin went through the motions in the frigid waters and did precisely as well as we did. They agreed that this was an opening day that will long be remembered, but not with any particular fondness.

Down the road a bit we learned that Paul Sparrow had found fishing conditions something less than ideal. That isn't exactly the way he put it, but you can sort of get the idea. Same story as elsewhere.

Official Praises Soil Bank Plan

But Sees No Initial Benefit for Farmers in Oakland County

President Eisenhower's soil bank proposal does not have as much to offer for some 2,064 Oakland County farmers as for larger acreage farmers in the country, Lyle Abel, county agricultural agent, said this morning.

But Abel did add that the program "seemed like the best thing to come along for farmers in a long time."

He said the county farmers eventually might benefit from the plan, if accepted by Congress, as it would reduce surplus crops permitting a boost in prices of farm commodities.

The proposal, President Eisenhower's major 1956 farm recommendation, contemplates paying subsidies to farmers who agree to remove from production land they otherwise would plant crops already in surplus.

The wheat and corn farmers of the county would be most affected if the plan passes, Abel said.

"The program is aimed at reducing all agricultural products," Abel said.

"If one of our farmers had 30 acres of corn in production and there was a surplus of corn, the plan would call for putting 20 per cent of the acreage in the acreage reserve."

"In order to tell how this plan would affect county farmers, it would have to be considered on an individual basis," Abel said.

"Our farmers need to keep in production as much of their land as possible for production of grain and hay for livestock," he added.

6,000 Girl Scouts to Camp in County

France, the Netherlands and Denmark.

Already some of the water pipes have been laid and areas are being readied for the tents. It will take one square mile of land just to pitch the tents.

BUILD PERMANENT ARENA

As a permanent gift to the state of Michigan the Girl Scouts will leave an open-air arena seating 10,000 persons. There will be no permanent buildings on the site. The girls will do some conservation work for the state during their stay.

The theme of the Roundup is "Americana." Each day there will be formal and impromptu demonstrations of various phases of American life. The public is invited to visit the camp daily from 10:00 a.m. to sundown.

On July 4 a patriotic Spectacular will take place. President Eisenhower has been invited.

On July 7 a cast of 2,000 Scouts will present a festival of our American Heritage. Gov. G. Mennen Williams is to be the honored guest that day.

The evening of July 9 will see an inspirational interpretation of Girl Scout history with a cast of 1,000 girls. All 5,000 Roundup campers will close the ceremony by singing a special version of "God Bless America" which Irving Berlin has been asked to write.

Local girls attending the Roundup are Jovita Benavides, Joyce Meyer and Marceline Dennis of Pontiac. Gayle Schenck of Westacres and Becky Odell of Commerce and Mary Lynne Gravelle of Four Towns will be other members of the group. From Rochester Susan Ebbert will join the Scouts and from Clarkston Dorothy Staley.

Mrs. Leland Jones is local chairman of the Roundup. Dorothy Hollister is in charge of training the local Roundup patrol. Carolann Bingham, Field Director of Northern Oakland County, will be on the waterfront staff at the camp.

More than half of America's 5,000,000 Jews live in New York City. About 100,000 children attend Jewish religous schools in the city.

Adventurous Fish Meets Downfall in Flooded Yard

Bobby D. Hurst of 168 Sanderson Ave. didn't have to go far for his fishing yesterday.

Braving yesterday's downpour, he walked out on his father-in-law's front porch and spotted a fish enjoying a swim in a nature-made pool of a foot of water in the front yard.

Grabbing a rock, the 19-year-old insurance salesman waded after the large fish. One strike on the head and Hurst had himself a catch of a 17-inch sucker.

His father-in-law, Lewis H. Toler of the same address, said the water came from the over-flowing Clinton River.

Toler said he spotted four other fish in his front yard before the water began receding late yesterday.

"I believe my son-in-law had himself a fine fish dinner yesterday after the catch," Toler added.

15 Persons Die in State Mishaps

Carlton Byers, 15, of Detroit was shot to death Saturday night. Police said the gun was fired by Byers' friend, Clarence F. Warren, also 15, who said he knew the gun was loaded but didn't think the bullets were in firing position.

Traffic deaths included:

Harold A. Knamiller, 61, of Dearborn Township.
Fred A. Bearse, 52, of St. Clair Shores.
John Vensel, 38, of Monroe.

Bobo the Baboon Likes Telephone Poles on Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Drunks in the vicinity of Pico and La Cienega — an area totally unlike the Belgian Congo — were reported swearing off the stuff today.

* * *

Until Friday, Bobo had been an added attraction in a cage at a filling station. Then her owner decided to give her to the zoo but when the man from the zoo appeared, Bobo broke away from her cage and took off.

* * *

For awhile yesterday, it looked as if she was trapped atop a roof but as her owner climbed up to grab her, she took off across telephone wires. She's still swinging.

The plane fell in a field and burned near Grand Ledge, 10 miles west of Lansing, killing Mayor Jessie L. Louisiana authorities flew here yesterday to claim the bodies.

The three were en route to a national conference on metropolitan problems which opened yesterday at Michigan State University.

Disarmament Talks Mired in Indecision

LONDON (AP)—Side talks between members of the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee were scheduled today amid growing indications the six-week-old negotiations are about to suspend on a note of indecision.

Harold E. Stassen, U.S. representative at the negotiations meets privately with the chief Soviet delegate, Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. Policy talks were also scheduled between the United States, Britain, France and Canada, the four Western members of the five-nation group.

Most observers felt the subcommittee talks have reached an impasse. They believe the group has little alternative but to report its scanty progress to the 12-nation U.N. Disarmament Commission and await new instructions.

The commission will probably reassign the five-power subcommittee to its task.

Local Vandalism Blamed on Gang of Juveniles

Papa Dorssers Pondering Bills of Mass Wedding

BLENHEIM, Ont. (AP)—This little Dutch farming community in southern Ontario settled back to normal routine today in the wake of celebrating Canada's largest mass wedding.

* * *

And papa Leo Dorssers, who saw six of his 15 children married yesterday, contemplated his farm chores—and the wedding bills.

With four unmarried children still at home, the sturdy Dutch truck farmer said he was in no hurry for more weddings.

"We have to get over this one yet," he said. Bustling, gray-haired mamma Dorssers wearily agreed.

The multiple wedding of his four daughters and two sons cost "maybe $800, maybe $900," Papa said, "but I haven't added up all the bills yet."

A sudden thunderstorm failed to dampen the wedding ceremonies in tiny St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, nor the 12-hour round of festivities which followed.

House Group Okays New Farm Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Agriculture Committee today unanimously approved a new farm bill containing most of the provisions endorsed by President Eisenhower.

* * *

The bill, drafted by Chairman Cooley (D-NC), contains Eisenhower's soil bank plan, but not the authority he asked to make advance payments under the plan. Under this arrangement, the government could have paid as much as 500 million dollars this year to farmers who agreed to take surplus cropland out of production.

Cooley indicated to newsmen that the advance payment provision is virtually certain to come up when the bill reaches the House floor.

Birmingham Country Club reported that flooding waters from the Rouge washed two foot bridges away and caused an estimated $1,500 damages.

The Pontiac Fire Dept. was called to the Bethany Baptist Church at 15 Mark St. to pump four feet of water out of the church's flooded basement.

Waterford and Avon Townships both reported a siege of calls throughout Sunday with some roads in Avon Township forcing water into many cars that attempted to travel flooded streets.

The Oakland County Road Commission said all four county districts worked day and night on wash-outs of county roads. Calls continued to flood the office this morning of residents reporting impassable highways.

Halsted road between 13 and 14 Mile roads were reported closed to traffic due to high water. In addition, Drake road south of 15 Mile Rd. was declared impassable by the commission.

Despite the number of homes reported flooded, no cases of families being evacuated were reported to law enforcement agencies throughout the county.

Birmingham Police said they received many phone calls on flooded basements. The Rouge River was reported near flood stage early Sunday.

In Detroit, thousands of automobiles were stalled in flooded streets. Many were completely submerged as residents awoke Sunday morning.

While southern Michigan was being drenched with rain, up to four inches of snow blanketed areas in northern Michigan around Pellston, Sault Ste. Marie and Traverse City.

Superintendent of Pontiac Dept. of Public Works Joseph W. Jewell reported most of the flooded basement reports originating around the Pontiac Creek area.

Hardest hit was between Huron and Orchard Lake avenue and west of Franklin boulevard, Jewell said.

In outlying areas throughout the county, wrecker service was hours behind for motorists mired in muddy side roads.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in Pontiac was 35 degrees. The mercury registered 46 at 2 p.m.

A little farther down the road, Joe Clark, man of many parts and ex-officio mayor of Curran was found sulking in solitary splendor. If you don't believe our version of fishing conditions, just ask Joe.

Despite the foul weather, streams in this area are low and clear. Present doses of rain and snow won't help much, but everything is ready for a warm day or two, and some SUN to take the chill off the water. The bigger streams hereabouts are a trifle warmer but any great success so far on the fisherman's part is pretty much a matter of luck.

Perhaps the nicest thing about the set-up is that it can't get any worse. Any change from what we've got now will be a help. Or will it. A glance out the cabin window as this is being written, reveals visible snow on the ground. Oh bully!

Water Fluoridation Item on Tonight's City Agenda

BIRMINGHAM—Fluoridation of the city's water, ordinances on swimming pools and buses, and a recreation budget come to the city commission's attention tonight.

Two state health department officials will present their stand on the adding of fluorides to the water supply. Commissioners had asked official advice on the process before considering it for Birmingham.

Drafted by the city attorney are two ordinances, one to govern swimming pools and another buses.

Filtration and chlorination of water and issuance of permits are covered in the pool ordinance. It requires around the pool fences and locked gates, except when a person over 16 years is present.

No bus company can be established without the city's vote on its necessity, according to the proposed bus ordinance. A hearing, called two weeks ahead of time, would be required. Licensing would follow approval of the police department and the city's taxicab commission.

An anti-litter ordinance is being presented in rough form tonight, and three letters complaining of an isolated litter situation will be read.

A hearing on the assessment roll for paving Holland street east of Eton road will be held tonight. Also, Eton's paving from Yosemite to Lincoln, again appears on the agenda. A new resolution calling for a 41 foot width may be passed, or the old one specifying a 33 foot width, according to the city manager.

German Composer Returns to Homeland

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Paul Abraham, who composed some of Germany's most popular light operas, returned today more than 20 years after he had fled from Nazi oppression.

The Hungarian-born Jewish composer arrived aboard a chartered plane which brought aliens deported from the United States for health reasons. Most of the passengers were mental patients.

Abraham had been a patient in a New York mental hospital since he had suffered lapses of memory, according to a West German consulate officer. However, his musical abilities had not been impaired, the officer added.

Kefauver Sees Even Chances in Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) —Sen. Estes Kefauver says he feels he is now competing on even terms with Adlai Stevenson for Florida's support at the Democratic National Convention.

"On previous trips here I felt that Stevenson had a slight edge, but now I believe we have cut in to his strength and think that the margin is about even," the Tennessee senator told newsmen in an interview last night.

Both Kefauver and Stevenson have covered large areas of Florida in their campaigning for its 28 convention votes. The primary will be held May 29.

Kefauver is making a five-day tour of northwest Florida, where Stevenson is rated to have some of his greatest strength.

Lausche Dominates '56 Buckeye Election Campaign

By ROBERT VINCENT

COLUMBUS (INS)—The name of one man — five-term Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche—dominates all three major phases of Ohio's 1956 election campaigns.

The 69-year-old chief executive is running this year for the United States Senate, and his retirement from the governor's chair has precipitated a wide-open race among five Democrats and two Republicans to succeed him.

In addition, Lausche is certain to be Ohio's "favorite son" Democratic candidate for the presidency, although Lausche himself doesn't take seriously his chances of landing a spot on the national ticket.

SEEKS BENDER'S SEAT

Instead, the bushy-haired, cigar-smoking Lausche is concentrating his unorthodox campaigning—and very little it has been to date—in his attempt to wrest the senatorial seat of the late Robert A. Taft from a fellow-Clevelander, Sen. George H. Bender, who took it away from a Lausche appointee two years ago.

Although disgruntled, anti-Lausche Democrats have entered a handful of delegate candidates against the governor in the May 8 primary, for practical purposes there is no contest either for Ohio's 58 delegates to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago this summer nor for the Republicans' 56 votes to the San Francisco conclave.

When Lausche announced that he would permit his name to be used as a candidate to keep control of the delegation away from "political bosses," other candidates decided not to contest the Lausche vote-getting magic in the Buckeye state.

TO LOSE 2 VOTES

The governor is certain to lose two delegates, however, since his candidates were disqualified in two Cleveland districts because of an insufficient number of signatures.

But he is virtually certain to win the other 56 votes. This bloc, added to his support from conservative Southern Democrats, would place him in a formidable position at the convention should a deadlock develop among Adlai E. Stevenson, Estes Kefauver, and others now actively seeking the presidency. Further, it is believed that Lausche would accept nomination for the vice presidency.

On the Republican side, Ohio's delegates are nominally pledged to U. S. Sen. John W. Bricker, who is holding the delegation for President Eisenhower.

Eisenhower was not yet available when Ohio's filing deadline passed, and Ohio law requires the written consent of a candidate before convention delegates may run pledged to him. There is no other Republican slate.

In the battle for the Senate, Lausche generally is regarded as a strong favorite over Bender, who won the short term by less than 2,800 votes over Thomas A. Burke after the death of "Mr. Republican."

TOP VOTE-GETTER

Political observers recall that it was Burke's first attempt at statewide office, while Lausche holds virtually every Ohio voting record in winning his record-breaking five terms.

The record will stand, incidentally, since Ohio voters have now approved a constitutional amendment increasing the term of governor from two to four years — effective in 1958—but also limiting a governor to two terms.

Bender, for his part, is emphasizing the need to retain a Republican to support the Eisenhower administration in the organization of the Senate. But to win, Bender must first unsell Ohioans on Lausche, who is — in his own independent, party-jumping way—waging a sort of "I Like Ike" campaign of his own.

Lausche's frequently-expressed regard for the President is so strong, in fact, that it may prove another damaging factor against his already-remote chances of winning a spot on the national ticket.

Regardless of what happens in the senatorial race, the state's 23-member congressional delegation is certain to remain strongly Republican. The present 17-6 party split is not expected to be altered materially, if at all.

For governor, the Democrats have a wide-open race among former Toledo mayor and federal price stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle; Cleveland Municipal Judge John E. Sweeney; Columbus businessman Oscar Fleckner, a former liquor director in Lausche's cabinet; anti-Lausche W. Reider, and Youngstown Mayor Frank Kryzan.

The Republicans will choose between Attorney General C. William O'Neill of Marietta, a former speaker of the Ohio House now completing his third term as Ohio's chief legal officer, and John W. Brown, former Medina mayor who is winding up his second term as lieutenant governor.

Art Gallery Fountain Froths With Suds Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Gallery of Art fountain was frothing yesterday but the 86-degree heat didn't have anything to do with it.

Pranksters dumped another large dose of bubble bath into the big fountain, sending mounds of suds bubbling forth.

Wins 4-H Grant

EAST LANSING (AP) — Melvin Thompson of Ravenna has been granted a national 4-H club foundation fellowship to work with the International Farm Exchange Program in Washington. Thompson was a delegate to Turkey under the Farm Exchange Program in 1951.

There can be more than 50,000 earthworms in an acre of soil.

The black-browed albatross can barely take off or land in still air, but once aloft the bird can soar indefinitely, barely flapping its wings. Thus, the fierce winds of the Falkland Islands serve the seafowl admirably, the National Geographic Society says.

Bob Considine Says:

You Must Pay to Advise the Government

NEW YORK (INS) — It costs government on what action it money to advise the United States should take if Laughing Boy Khrushchev's guided H-bombs began pulverizing us.

If you don't believe it's expensive to provide such advice, your attention is directed to the plight of a group of editors recently invited to meet at the Waldorf with Edward B. Lyman, director of public affairs for the Federal Civil Defense Administration.

"I am embarrassed that it is necessary to add one sour note," Lyman wrote to his voluntary advisers when the meeting plans were arranged.

"After diligent research in all the rule books and conferences with our lawyers and fiscal people, I find there is no legal way in which we can pick up the tab for this affair, despite the fact that FCDA is getting the benefit of some extremely competent and high-priced advice for nothing.

"So I am afraid it will have to be Dutch. The Waldorf's price is $10 apiece for lunch (which includes the use of the meeting rooms) plus tips and refreshments.

"Although this situation is common throughout government, it never fails to give me a red face. If I were a private citizen I'd write a letter to the editor saying 'There ought to be a law!' "

* * *

P. S.—The tab came to $15.40

Rocky Marciano follows Grace Kelly who followed Greta Garbo who followed Gene Tunney in retiring undefeated. Would have made a nice double wedding if they had known it in time. One could see them having hosts of retiring and undefeated children and grandchildren.

* * *

Rocky retired "for my family." Mrs. Marciano didn't want to see him hurt any more than did the wives of the 43 men he flattened want to see THEM hurt.

A second reason behind the retirement of the heavyweight champion is that he might have been afraid that continued success would break him financially. Joe Louis won himself into a monumental tax deficit through the years.

In order to pay the $1,000,000 he owes in back taxes Joe would have to have a fight in which his share alone would come to a bit over $11,000,000.

* * *

Grace Grimaldi, Monacan housewife, etc., has turned her back on her game at a point in her career roughly comparable to Rocky's point of progress in his own.

Rocky will be called "champ" as long as he lives, provided he doesn't yield to heavy demands to try a comeback as soon as some young bull paws into eminence.

Grace, if she stays put, will be a sought-after actress until she's old enough to play Whistler's Mother without making up for the part.

That's roughly Garbo's experience. She left 'em clapping for more and that must be a much more rewarding way to pass the ensuing years.

* * *

As for Tunney, he still stops traffic though he ceased pitching leather about the time stockbrokers were taking dry dives out of Wall street skyscrapers.

ROADS KILL US

The House of Representatives has passed the highway program. Now it's up to the Senate to make it stick. Jack Williams, president of the American Trucking Associations, gives the solons a thought for the day:

Inadequate roads, not necessarily daredevil driving, are killing thousands of Americans every year. The terrible toll will drop, he insists, when people can drive everywhere on roads built for something more modern than a mule.

When someone's counting on you...

you can count on life insurance

One of the most exciting experiences for any family is buying a home. It is probably the biggest purchase most families ever make. But along with the satisfaction of a new home come new responsibilities.

Fortunately, your life insurance helps you meet these responsibilities with greater confidence. One of the purposes for which you can use life insurance is to guarantee payment of your mortgage in full—should you not live to complete the installment payments. Many homes are now "free and clear" because life insurance money was available to cancel the mortgage.

If you would like more information about how your life insurance can guarantee payment of your mortgage, the best person to advise you is your own life insurance agent.

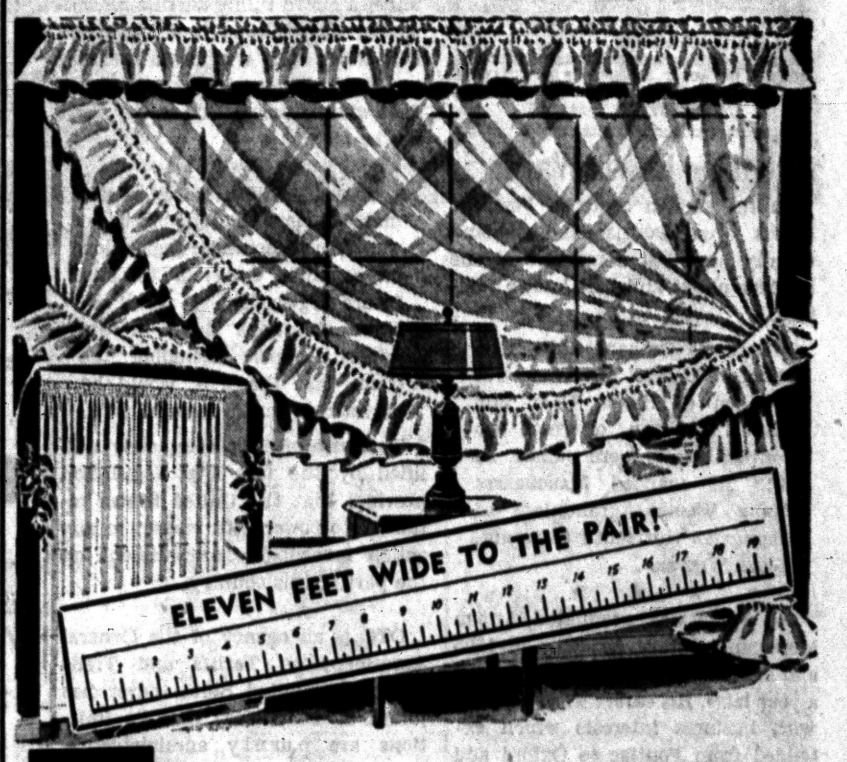

You will also find helpful suggestions in the new booklet, Your Life Insurance—and How to Use It. It explains how policies can be used for mortgage protection, educational purposes, family protection and your own retirement. Your free copy will be mailed promptly; simply send your name and address on a postcard to Dept. K.

Yours free!

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1956

Frederic Lewis Ward

In the sudden death of Frederic Lewis Ward, Pontiac and Oakland County have lost a member of one of their oldest and best known families.

Born at Orchard Lake, September 22, 1876, Mr. Ward was the son of Henry Clay and Mary Day Ward, for whom two Pontiac streets were named. In 1912 he married Marguerite Parke Wisner, grandniece of Michigan's thirteenth Governor, Moses Wisner.

Mr. Ward was graduated from Michigan Military Academy in 1895 and from Bay City Business College a year later. His career was identified with business interests which extended from Pontiac to Oxford and British Columbia.

Founder of a gravel business on Orchard Lake Avenue, he later extended his interests to the Oxford area. There his Ward Sand and Gravel Company eventually grew to be one of the world's largest operations of its kind. In British Columbia he was the owner of the River Dredging Company of Vancouver.

Though much of his business activity was centered outside the City, Mr. Ward always was interested in Pontiac affairs. He was a member of the First Methodist Church, Orchard Lake Country Club, Pontiac Elks' Lodge and the Detroit Club.

A courteous, kindly man, he will be mourned by a wide circle of friends who will remember him as one who contributed significantly to the development of Pontiac and Oakland County.

Bradley Report Urges Sound Pension Policy

As could have been expected, the report of the President's Commission on Veterans' pensions is a document worth everyone's attention.

The report properly recognizes the Government's obligation to assist those who have suffered hardship and disability while serving their country. It also recognizes that veterans must be helped in re-entering civilian life and that they must not feel their service was a penalty.

Sensibly the report rejects the idea that just because a man has worn the uniform, the Government owes him a living. This makes the question not whether veterans should be assisted, but how.

For seriously disabled veterans the commission recommends more liberal pensions. For those whose disability is non-service connected, the commission points out that social security and private pension plans have grown to safeguard all citizens against the ordinary hazards of life.

Veterans organizations won't like this report. But that doesn't alter certain facts. Already half our population is made up of veterans and their families and 700,000 more men are being discharged every year. Nonetheless, commission researchers say that most veterans do not believe the Nation owes them a living.

Anyone sincerely interested in the welfare of all veterans should hope that Congress will move in the direction pointed out by the Bradley report.

Ike Wins OTC Test

The administration won an important trade policy test when the House Ways and Means Committee approved its bill to authorize U. S. membership in the Organization for Trade Cooperation (OTC).

Not only did the committee vote 17 to 7 to approve the bill, but recommended that it be sent to the floor under a closed ruling barring amendments. In addition, it accompanied this action with a studious majority report which must hearten the President who had expected a bitter fight on the bill.

Contrary to critics, the report makes it clear that the bill in no way affects domestic legislation or commits Congress to any future legislation. It also answers objections listed in the minority report including the claim that the U. S. would be outvoted in the 35 member OTC.

This argument is completely nullified by the fact that legislation provides that the United States retains veto power with respect to any action involving a commitment on the part of this country.

OTC is an agency of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade which the United States never has joined on the theory that its functions are purely administrative. However, the Administration considers U. S. membership in OTC essential if we are to get the benefits we should from extension of our reciprocal trade policy.

Fair Sex Continue to Be Best Baseball Forecasters

of 275 Starr Ave. It was awarded to the contestant who named the American League player who would be leading the league after the games of April 27, and who had been at bat at least 25 times. That player was of the Cleveland Indians, with an average of .467. Out of 1,652 contestants, only 16 predicted that Wertz would be the player. Mrs. Boardman made an exact estimate on his average, .467. One other entrant,

Jeanne Tarchalski

of 248 Osmun St., placed it at .468, and

of 644 Northview St., predicted it would be .469, so it will be seen that the fair sex were the best predictors. They have won $1,875 of the $2,250 worth of bonds given away in the MAT annual Baseball Contest since 1948.

The standings of the top players who had been at bat 25 times at the close of the contest follows:

The Paying Teller

David Lawrence Says:

Vice President Nixon Becomes Victim of Newspapers' 'Guilt by Association'

WASHINGTON — "Guilt by association" has caused many an outburst of indignation in recent years by so-called "liberals" and others who have said it is rank injustice to associate the name of an innocent man with someone either accused or suspected of wrong doing.

But the pious organizations dedicated to the crusade against "guilt by association" seem to be weeping no tears and issuing no statements of lament at the smear job done in the last few days on Vice President Nixon by certain news dispatches and headlines.

The American people read in the last few days such headlines as these: "Nixon's Aide Gets Probe Subpoena," "Probers Call Nixon's '52 Manager," "Nixon's 1952 Manager Involved in Inquiry on Clothing Contracts," and "Nixon's '52 Manager Got Legal Fee in Fraud Case."

WHOLE TRUTH OMITTED

The headline writers themselves were certainly not at fault. They rightly based their headlines on what the news articles and dispatches conspicuously emphasized in the first few paragraphs. Not one of the articles in the various Eastern newspapers which printed the above headlines told the people the whole truth, which is that Murray Chotiner was campaign manager not only for Nixon but also once for Earl Warren, now chief justice, when he was elected governor of California.

Nor did the news articles tell the reader that Chotiner was the campaign manager for Sen. Knowland when he ran in 1946 and also in the 1952 primary when he won both the Republican and Democratic senatorial nominations. Nor did the articles state that Chotiner was campaign manager in Southern California for Gov. Dewey of New York when he ran for the presidency in 1948.

None of this information was, of course, really pertinent to the story except that, if one man — Nixon—was mentioned, all others should in fairness have been included. The inference left with the reader was that Nixon was somehow implicated in an alleged wrongdoing on the part of Chotiner. There seems to be an overeagerness on the part of political opponents these days to smear the vice president.

JUST A FRIEND TODAY

There was, indeed, no more reason for the headlines to speak of "Nixon's aide" being in trouble than to call him "Chief Justice Warren's aide." Actually Chotiner today isn't the "aide" of Nixon, nor is he his campaign manager. He is not a member of Nixon's staff or of Warren's or Knowland's. He is a close friend of them all.

What the news articles didn't tell the reader is that Chotiner is perhaps the leading lawyer in criminal cases in Southern California and that his law practice is confined to this type of activity while politics is with him an avocation.

A headline saying that a lawyer got a legal fee from a client involved in a fraud case would not have been news. It was the fact that the lawyer in question was once a manager for Nixon which seemingly made it news. Yet there is no evidence to back up such a plain case of "guilt by association."

NAMED IN SENATE QUIZ

The client of Chotiner named in the Senate inquiry got into trouble during the Truman administration when some government contracts for clothing for the Army were allegedly obtained under fraudulent means. Since then the client in question was tried and convicted. It was in 1953 that the client employed Chotiner personally on legal questions growing out of the episode.

There isn't the slightest scintilla of evidence — nor will any ever be produced, because there is none—that Nixon knew even the fact that Chotiner had any such client. The news articles, following the exposures by a Senate committee which insisted on summoning Chotiner for testimony, properly reported the committee action and that the Democrats were pressing it but there has been nothing to indicate that Chotiner's relations with his client were anything but the normal relation of a lawyer practicing in criminal cases.

Not so long ago the National Lawyers Guild, a radical organization, raised a fuss because some of its members were criticized for defending Communists. It was rightly argued here that no lawyer in good standing, and himself not implicated in the Communist conspiracy, should be condemned in the court of public opinion because he chooses to give any defendant the benefit of his counsel.

Mothers Are Again Advised to Have Babies Born Home

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Nineteenth-century hospitals that still maintain the show window nursery, so-called, for new-born infants get all babies who are unfortunate enough to be born there off to a poor start.

In these cold-blooded institutions, designed primarily as settings for the "Calling Doctor Whosis!" drama put on by interns and nurses, the new born baby is snatched away from the mother soon after birth and whisked away to the show window where the lorn little one will have the intimate company of a dozen other unloved babies, plus the ministrations of a near-nurse who gives them all an equal chance to catch whatever anyone happens to have. Thus epidemics of infantile diarrhoea have killed too many infants who would have been safe in their mothers' arms.

The customers submit to the contemptuous treatment accorded them by the officious hospital attendants, from the haughty clerk who interviews them on admission to the disdainful nurse who enforces the rules and regulations, as strictly as a prison warden could wish. The customers behave more like Russian peasants than free Americans. That's because they don't know any better.

Most of the poor souls have had some schooling, maybe as much as you and I had, but this schooling squeamishly and prudishly ignored such indelicate subjects as pregnancy, childbirth, and infant care. The public schools today avoid these subjects lest parents protest. So most Americans approaching and presumably preparing for parenthood are not prepared and do not bother to prepare for it, because they haven't the gumption, the dignity, or the self-respect. They just drift along idly until the time comes, and then they fold their hands and leave everything to the doctors and nurses at the hospital.

One typical American listened for a while to a discussion of natural childbirth (Childbirth Without Fear, by Grantly Dick Read, M. A., M. D., Harper and Brothers, $2.75), exclaimed that she'd have no part of it — when her time came she was going to the hospital, have an anesthetic and wake up when it was all over!

Whether Dr. Read's method becomes popular in America or not, certainly every prospective parent (not just the prospective mother) should become familiar with the principles on which it is based.

A little book which answers a good many questions about pregnancy and childbirth is Childbirth, by Carl H. Davis, M. D., and Donita Ferguson, Harpers, $2.50.

Another excellent book for prospective parents is To Prospective Mothers, by Wm. E. Hunter, M. D., F. A. C. S., and Bernard H. Smith, B. A., M. D., Bruce Humphries Inc., Boston, $2.50.

Signed letters, not more than one page of 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Urges Readers' Support for Mental Health Week

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

This being Mental Health week, I would like to pass on to the people of Pontiac a few interesting facts about mental illness.

There are 650,000 patients in mental hospitals. There are 250,000 people who will go to mental hospitals for the first time this year. One of every twelve children born each year will go to a mental hospital sometime during his lifetime. There are only 8,500 psychiatrists and only 593 hospitals for the mentally ill. Mental illness is the nation's number one health problem.

The mentally ill need your help. You can do your part for the war against mental illness by volunteering to help at the State hospital and by contributing money for research in mental health.

There is also an organization called Recovery, Inc. It is a form of group therapy and self-help combined. Recovery meetings are held in the basement of the Bethany Baptist Church Thursday evenings at 7:00.

Feels Sorry for People Such as Wallet Thieves

Now that spring is here and everyone should be happy, it seems some people feel the opposite.

While in Pontiac this week my billfold was taken from my purse. The money was not great, but the personal things, driver's license and such would be of no value to others. Also the pictures of my family can never be replaced.

France Faces Expansion of Bitter Algerian Conflict

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

France has suffered another political reverse in trying to settle the Algerian situation.

Ferhat Abbas, leader of the Algerian moderates, now has joined forces with the national liberation front in an all-out struggle for freedom from French rule.

Abbas, in a Cairo news conference, has pledged an interminable guerrilla war and has spoken significantly of the nationalist rebels receiving "new weapons." The origin of the weapons is not disclosed, but presumably they are being shipped via Egypt.

There also are threats of carrying the war into France. Mohammed Khaider, leader of the "Committee for Liberation of the North African People," already has suggested that violence might strike France, where he says there are 450,000 Algerian residents.

* * *

Abbas' interview has caused an uproar in French political circles in Paris.

SOOTHING TALK

French Socialist Premier Guy Mollet and Robert Lacoste, minister residing in Algeria, are seeking to reassure their political allies and their own party members on the consequences of the Abbas declaration and other recent developments in North Africa.

* * *

France has pledged independence to Tunisia and Morocco after years of guerrilla warfare, but is trying to hold onto Algeria by force.

Lacoste says he hopes to send 150,000 troops to Algeria by June 15 to wipe out the nationalist rebellion in a country that France regards as a department of metropolitan France.

The prospect of the French sending in even more troops in a mass attempt to crush the rebels by sheer numerical superiority is certain to hike the warfare in Algeria.

* * *

Atrocities are being committed. Both sides admit this. French men, women and children are being mutilated and hacked to death. The Algerians charge that the French also have mowed down hundreds of prisoners.

Lacoste himself has acknowledged that "excesses" have been committed by French troops. But he says that he has investigated and punished the responsible people.

France has been in Algeria for more than a century, but has failed to assimilate Algerians.

And the bitterness is such today that Mohammed Khaider says "if we had the hydrogen bomb, we would use it."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Crane Advises Streamlining Figure to Recapture Youthful Zest, Romance

Overweight? Unloved? Then solve both problems at once by streamlining your figure. You can't feel like a sports roadster with the chassis of a truck! So lower your blood pressure and zoom your romantic charm by following the famous diet plan described below. You can lose 10 pounds in 10 days. It's safe for it doesn't require the use of dangerous drugs.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-343: Zola G., aged 37, is very attractive but much too fat.

* * *

Dr. Crane, my family doctor says I have high blood pressure," she began.

"It has reached 175. But he says if I will diet, that should bring it down considerably, for I now weigh 164.

"I am only 5' 3" and tipped the scales at barely 120 when I was a bride.

"But I find it so difficult to diet. I can't control my hunger. Is there any secret for curbing one's appetite?"

DIET FOR CHARM

Dieting is both a means of insuring longer life as well as much greater physical charm.

* * *

Millions of Americans are digging their graves with their teeth. But meanwhile they are also reducing their ardor to the platonic level because their obesity kills romantic allure.

If you wish to regain some of the zest and romantic thrills of your youth, then streamline your figure.

So work up your resolution. Get angry at yourself. Then make a public declaration that you are starting on a diet now; not next week.

There are two things you must combat at the start to be sucessful. First, your stomach is stretched, so must shrink it down in the first few days, so it will then register "Full" on maybe half your present intake.

* * *

Second, you need encouragement by seeing an initial fast weight loss. For if you struggle and deprive yourself of delicacies for a week but then find you've lost only one pound, you are likely to say:

LOSE 10 LBS. IN 10 DAYS

To lose 10 lbs. in 10 days, however, is a tonic to your ego and gives you renewed fervor for continuing on your diet.

So here's my famous dehydration plan by which you can diet successfully and safely without taking drugs.

Men are allowed 1,200 calories per day and women 800. But your stomach may gnaw on that reduced input unless you meanwhile dry up the secretion of acid (gastric juice).

Some of our common dieting drugs do just that, namely, dry up gastric secretion, but you can accomplish the same thing by limiting fluid intake.

So on your first day, drink only 1 glass (eight oz.) of total fluids, meaning milk, coffee, soup, fruit juice, etc.

* * *

On the second day, you are entitled to two glasses of fluids. The third day you may drink three glasses, and then stay on that three-glass daily input through your 10th day.

Then you should be down at least 10 lbs. or more. If you are working at hard physical labor in excessive heat, obiously you can't limit your liquid intake so greatly, but for average workers in cool weather, this dehydration plan proves very satisfactory.

EAT PROTEIN

Your body breaks down fat into water and carbon dioxide, so you can gain extra water from the fat that is melting away.

A camel's hump is composed of fat, not water, but in the camel's use of that fat on a long journey, it manufactures 10 gallons of water.

Since there is no storage of protein in your body, be sure you consume 400 to 600 calories worth of protein foods daily to keep your muscles strong.

For further advice, send for my booklet "How to Lose 10 lbs. in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. It offers caloric values of various food portions, etc.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

GOK Disease to Be Known as Yoo Yoo

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If you have every suffered the disease known as GOK (and millions have) you may be interested to know there's a new name for it. It's now called yoo yoo.

Dr. Margaret Ann Storkan, Redondo Beach, told the California Medical Assn. convention it used to be that whenever a disease was not clearly defined in the mind of your physician, it was labeled GOK, which translated meant "Gosh only knows."

In order to standardize the nomenclature, Dr. Storkan explained, a physician at sea with your symtoms will now classify it in his files as "yoo yoo."

Translated, it means: complete ignorance of the nature of the disease both as to location and cause.

Adenauer Asks Red Help for Unification

STUTTGART, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer called on the free world nations last night to enlist Russia's support in reuniting divided Germany.

* * *

He assailed as "false and dangerous" opposition charges that his regime has been slow in seeking reunification.

"Such speeches," he said in an address closing the annual covention of his Christian Democratic party, "make the free nations afraid of a rebirth of national socialism" (nazism).

* * *

Slick Bandit Hires Taxicab for Holdup Tour

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Miles Smith, 50, is in jail today booked on suspision of robbery. Police said he hired a cab for a zany tour of holdup sites.

* * *

The booking came after a filling station attendant last night identified Smith as a gunman who held him up for $69.50 while a cab waited outside.

Cabbie Richard E. Hilger, 27, told police that Smith boasted that he was going to stage a robbery. However, the cabbie said he laughed it off as a gag at first.

As the tour went from filling station to supermarket to cafe, the cabbie said he got suspicious. He even hailed a passing policeman and told him about the strange passenger. But even the policeman laughed it off as a joke.

* * *

But the cabbie got really suspicious when the passenger disembarked in Hollywood, paid a $7 fare plus "a good tip" and commented:

"Well, here's your share."

Develop Mature Habits Like Growling

Circus Animals Now Imitate Adult Humans

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—The reason the circus is better today than ever (not only the box office attendant, but also the press agent assures us of that) is that the animals are becoming more like adult people.

* * *

They used to behave like nice, well-trained children (remember when you could count on an elephant to wear funny hats and eat ice cream cones?).

Now they have developed more human, mature habits like growling at people with almost civilized fierceness; and the best act in all three rings is a tiger named "Johnny" who is cynical regarding his fans and bored by the whip.

"People used to be able to see themselves only in the chimpanzees," says Michael Burke, executive director of Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey, "but now all the animals have human traits which hold the mirror to mankind."

It has not been determined scientifically whether animals lately have begun emulating humans—or vice versa. But the fact is true.

REALISTIC LADY

"Probably the most realistic lady we have in the circus these days," says Burke, "is a 75-year-old elephant named Ruth. Ruth is the ideal in femininity—talented, hard-working, unspoiled and affectionate."

* * *

If she likes you, and old Ruth likes almost everybody, she'll wrap you in her ever-lovin' trunk and convey you wherever you're going.

She's the last one to leave the lot at night, because it's her job to pull down the tent poles and help load circus equipment on the 80 railroad cars. Yet she's also a bright entertainer—can stand on her head and kick her heels and carry scantily clad girls with the best of them.

Burke, a man with the docile air of one of his new baby giraffes, has nearly 400 animals and upwards of 1,200 people in his care as he prepares to speed through 133 American cities this year.

* * *

"The people are slightly harder to manage than the animals because they cannot be kept in cages," he says in what must be one of the deepest-thinking philosophies of the season.

FEMALES BEHAVE

Female animals are also easier to manage than males, which is also deep analysis. "They are less rambunctious," Burke explains. "It's roughly the difference between small boys and small girls."

* * *

"Various kinds of animals satisfy the various types of taste in people who come to see the circus," Burke goes on. "The tigers appeal most to the men, I would say, because in the tiger is the embodiment of life's thrills and beauties and dangers.

"Kids like the chimps, because they're funny, and the bears and elephants because they're big. Horse-players like the horses. And women . . ."

Burke shrugged. Well, who ever knows for sure what a woman likes, he said.

* * *

As for his own duties, 38-year-old Burke is aided by dozens of animal trainers and hygiene experts who do everything in their limitless powers to keep the circus pets healthy and contented.

WELFARE GUARDED

"People often write in and say they worry about whether or not it's fair to keep wild animals in cages, and make them perform every day. We just assure these folks that there are SPCA officers on hand at all times to see that everything's well with our crew.

* * *

"You know," muses Burke philosophically, "I think that once wild animals get in the swing of circus life, they enjoy it as much as the rest of us do.

"Actors get bored with playing a role over and over again, but not our animal cast.

Minister Bitten in Snake Rite

Medical Aid Refused as Police Arrest Preacher in Alabama Incident

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A rattlesnake bite suffered while he was handling the reptile at a church service yesterday left Lloyd Hill, 37, sick and in pain, but he refused all offers of medical aid.

* * *

Hill and two other men including the preacher at the Pentecostal Holiness Church were charged with handling a dangerous snake in a manner to endanger the life or health of others. Hill is from Fort Payne, Ala.

The law is a misdemeanor punishable on conviction by a maximum sentence of six months in jail plus a $150 fine.

* * *

Booked on snake handling charges in addition to Hill were Clarence Cole, 49, of Valdosta, Ga., and William George Reed, 30, of Pinson, Ala., identified as the pastor.

Witnesses said Hill picked up the poisonous snake and handled it about five minutes before returning it to the case. He made no outcry when the snake sank its fangs into his right hand, they said.

* * *

Cadillac

Spring Tonic That Lasts All Year!

His heart is light and his eyes are bright this morning—for he's greeting the spring at the wheel of a 1956 Cadillac.

Springtime comes and springtime goes, of course—but the thrill of his Cadillac will go on and on—month after month and year after year.

And what a thrill it is!

First, there's the sheer satisfaction of owning the "Standard of the World"—the undisputed leader in all that makes a motor car a joy to possess and to utilize.

Then there's the thrill of driving it—with its wonderfully smooth, quiet, powerful engine—its easy, positive steering—and its big, soft, authoritative brakes.

There is the contentment that comes with Cadillac's amazing economy.

The first cost of a Cadillac is surprisingly modest—upkeep, over the years, is unbelievably low—and operating costs rival those of any car in the land.

And now, in all modesty, may we speak of one other satisfaction he enjoys as a Cadillac owner?

We believe that, throughout the years of his ownership, he will be as pleased with us, as his dealer, as he is with the wonderful car itself. It is our constant endeavor to treat our customers as they are entitled to be treated as owners of the world's most distinguished car.

Why not come in some day quite soon—take a demonstration drive at the wheel—and arrange to greet the spring in a Cadillac of your own?

We think you'll be delighted to learn how much your present car is worth in trade—and to find how quickly you can obtain delivery on the Cadillac of your choice.

Change Slated at State College

Western Michigan Set for Reorganization to Become University

KALAMAZOO (AP)—A major reorganization of Western Michigan College has been announced.

The reorganization sets up five separate schools with their own deans. It reportedly is the first step toward converting the school into a university.

President Paul V. Sangren said the change is aimed for "greater ease in administrative affairs" in the face of booming enrollment.

Sangren will continue as the school's chief executive officer but will delegate some of his duties to two new vice presidents. They are Dr. Russell H. Siebert, who will act as dean of academic affairs, and Dr. L. Dale Faunce, dean of student and public affairs.

* * *

The college will divide its academic program into schools, each headed by its own dean. They are education, business, applied arts and sciences, graduate studies and liberal arts.

The changes are effective July 1.

Western Michigan now has an annual registration of about 7,500 students. There were 5,750 enrolled last fall for the fall, winter and spring academic year. The school had a summer term registration of an additional 1,800.

The State Board of Education, meeting in Mount Pleasant, approved plans for reorganization submitted by Dr. Sangren after he explained to the board the growth of the college.

New Water Line Has 169 Users

Sylvan Heads Foresee 200 Consumers Soon on City System

Sylvan Lake City Manager, Ernest L. Ethier has announced that 169 residents have taken out permits for tapping to the city's new water system which initiated last December.

He said a survey taken last fall indicated that more than 200 property owners will soon be using the $275,000 system.

Ethier added that water bills were mailed April 6 and are payable at the city treasurer's office for a 30 day period without penalty.

In other Sylvan Lake affairs, the manager announced that beginning tomorrow a 10 per cent penalty will be added to sewer service bills that were due during April.

Sylvan Lake residents have been urged to place all brush, rubbish, and refuse collected during spring cleaning at the curb tomorrow morning for the annual spring pick-up of trash in the city.

Inkster Motorist Dies of Attack in Wreck

MONROE (AP) — Lee Peters, 58, of Inkster, died of a heart attack yesterday while driving his automobile on U.S. 24, a mile north of the Michigan-Ohio border.

Peters' car swerved across the highway, struck an oncoming car, plunged through a guard rail and went 150 feet down an embankment.

For a time it was thought he might have died of injuries suffered in the accident, but coroner Norman Capaul pronounced death due to a heart attack.

Seeking Aid From State

LANSING (INS) — The Michigan Archeological Society today asked the State Conservation Commission to take over two Indian sites in the state to preserve them.

One site on Cass River, in Sanilac County bears the only Indian picture writing in Michigan. The other is on Rifle River in Missaukee County.

Detroit Boxer Digs; Finds Human Bone

DETROIT (AP) — Police pressed for more clues today after a dog dug up a bone that doctors have identified as a human thigh.

The bone was discovered Saturday night by Henry Gerst Jr., who occupies the lower flat of a two-family frame home. His pet boxer brought it to him.

* * *

Several doctors identified it as a human thigh. They said it came from "someone about four feet tall and at least 19 years old." Police quoted Dr. W. T. Love, assistant Wayne County medical examiner, as saying if the bone came from under the porch of the home —which has a concrete base—it had been there "probably not much more than a year."

* * *

Police said they would look for additional bones at the scene. If no others are found they plan to turn the original over to a bone specialist for analysis. "We'll pick up from there," said one officer.

Rocks Ground Tug in Presque Isle Harbor

ALPENA (INS) — A 65-foot tug Bobby Bill was stuck on rocks in Presque Isle Harbor at Stoneypoint today, 300 yards from her dock near the new stone quarry.

* * *

A small Coast Guard vessel from Middle Island was unable to free the craft. The crew of Bobby Bill made it safely ashore.

Coast Guard officials say the craft had a damaged rudder and was unable to clear the rocks.

Chicago Mayor Talks at MSU Conference

EAST LANSING (INS) — Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago told the National Conference of Metropolitan Problems yesterday that such city problems are "studies in human relations."

* * *

Mayor Daley was the lead-off speaker at the four-day affair sponsored by Michigan State University. About 200 persons are participating in the conference.

Daley said there has been too much talk about laws, city boundaries, governmental forms and "too little about persons who make up metropolitan populations and public officials who govern the areas."

* * *

He said answers to metropolitan problems are more likely to be found in working with people than by using punch cards or mechanical devices.

Depending on grade, it takes about two tons of bauxite to make one ton of aluminum oxide (alumina) and 1.9 pounds of aluminum oxide to make one pound of metallic aluminum.

This program has the approval of the Oakland County Dental Society, the Michigan Department of Health and the Pontiac and Oakland County Health departments, said Josephine Seeley, coordinator of health services.

Newsman's Tip Proves to Be True

Texas Reporter Chasing 'Big Story' Charged With Complicity in Robbery

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Police arrested three men yesterday and said they had recovered more than $95,000 in cash in what they called a $300,000 burglary.

* * *

Police said the money was recovered in a raid on the home of Harvey Marley, 31, in San Antonio by Houston and San Antonio police and Texas Rangers.

Marley and Edwin Roy Hamlett, 34, Houston automobile salesman, are held in jail here. San Antonio police are holding Arthur Eckert, a used car dealer.

The three men are charged with burglary and felony theft in the looting of a closet safe the night of April 22 at the home of Paul D. Denny, a bakery owner.

Police said the raid was the result of efforts of San Antonio sports writer Dan Cook to solve the burglary and get his "big story."

* * *

Cook, of the San Antonio News, took $3,055 to Houston police last Thursday and said he and Jimmy Parks, San Antonio boxing promoter, had taken the money from Hamlett and Jimmy Hicks, an automobile dealer, in an effort to solve the burglary. Police called the story "fantastic" and arrested Cook and Parks on charges of robbery by firearms. They were freed under $10,000 bond.

SECURITIES BURNED

Police said they can not account for about $261,000 of an estimated $300,000 in cash, government bonds and negotiable securities they said were stolen from the Denny closet safe.

They said about $160,000 in securities was burned, $95,000 in cash was recovered in San Antonio yesterday and they are holding a Cadillac automobile purchased last week by Hamlett for $3,205. These amounts are in addition to the $3,055 which Cook turned over to Houston Police Chief Jack Heard.

* * *

Denny reported to police on the night of the burglary that the safe holding $100,000 in securities and $10,000 in cash had been stolen while he and his wife were at church.

Asked last night if the safe held as much as $95,000 in cash, Denny replied:

"BIG AS BRINKS"

"I think it did. I'm not sure."

He said the total amount of cash "might be" over $100,000 but not as much as $200,000.

When Cook went to Houston police last Thursday he said that he had received a tip that a job had been staged here. He said he was given the name of Hamlett and an automobile license number.

* * *

Cook said he saw a chance for his "big story" and talked Parks into helping him.

Cook said he and Parks went to the homes of Hamlett and Hicks, an automobile dealer who was Hamlett s employer, posing as police officers. He said he and Parks roughed up the pair in order to find out where Hamlett had hidden the money.

ADMITTED PART

Police said they do not know what will happen to the charges against Cook and Parks.

Houston Police Lt. A. C. Martindale said "Hicks strictly had nothing to do with this robbery."

Verification of Cook's story began to develop Saturday when the safe stolen from Denny's home was found west of here.

* * *

Houston police picked up Hamlett Saturday night. They said that after four hours of questioning Hamlett admitted he participated in the Denny robbery and named Marley as his accomplice.

The police also said that Marley told them he gave $5,000 to Arthur Eckert, San Antonio used car dealer, to buy "a pair of race horses." Eckert was arrested on charges of felony theft.

Rain Delays Opening at Pontiac Speedway

Heavy rains washed out the planned weekend opening of the Pontiac M59 Speedway. The track was a sea of mud, manager Dick Dewey announced, which prevented Saturday's open house and Sunday's modified hardtop program.

The open house has been rescheduled for this Saturday, Dewey said, with Sunday's show sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of West Pontiac acting as the grand opening at the M59 oval.

Adlai Courting Votes in Oregon

Ballot Gives No Names; Presidential Candidates Seek 'Write-In' Victory

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson wooed Oregon's Democratic vote today in a series of informal talks from here to Astoria, a hundred miles to the northwest, and back again.

* * *

He asked the people to write in his name on the presidential ballot in the May 18 primary election. Because no one filed, no names are on the ballot, but he and Sen. Estes Kefauver are waging a campaign for write-in support.

Oregon's 16 votes at the Democratic National Convention will be pledged to the one who gets the most.

SPAGHETTI EATER

Stevenson wound up a relatively quiet day yesterday by walking among some 1,500 persons attending a spaghetti supper, chatting and shaking hands with little interruption for four hours. He ended smiling and seemingly fresh in a renewed appeal for support.

* * *

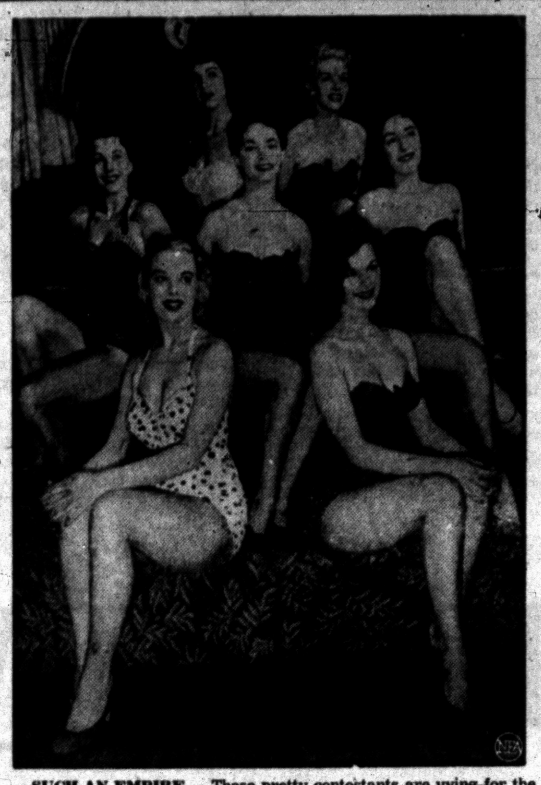

He was introduced to 10,112 fans at the first game of a baseball double-header between Portland and Sacramento of the Coast League and stayed so long at the game—won by Sacramento 7-6—that he was late for the spaghetti supper's start at St. Ignatius Church hall.

VICTORY IMPERATIVE

Stevenson, who arrived here Saturday night from Chicago, said he regards the Oregon primary as of special importance because of the psychogogical effect it may have on the people of Florida and California, in whose May 29 and June 5 primaries he and Kefauver are entered.

* * *

He told the supper meeting that a victory in the fall election "is imperative . . . to stop the deadly decline of America's influence in the world, and to resume progress at home by quickly replacing our present single-interest and part-time management."

Dixie Senator Proposes Bill for Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—No one could be appointed to the Supreme Court without five years' experience as a judge of a lower federal tribunal or a state supreme court under a law proposed yesterday by Sen. Smathers (D-Fla).

* * *

Smathers, a critic of the Supreme Court's decision outlawing racial segregation in the public schools, said he would introduce such a bill today because "the court should be reserved for judges."

* * *

Red Leader Re-elected

TOKYO (AP) — Pyongyang radio dealt a blow today to speculation that North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung might be on the skids because of world communism's current attack against the "cult of the individual." The North Korean radio announced that Kim has been re-elected secretary of the North Korean Workers (Communist) party.

Bricker Urging Regulation of TV

Senator Hits CBS, NBC With Monopoly Choking Smaller Stations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Renewing his demand for federal regulation of television networks, Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said yesterday the two major chains are threatening the existence of smaller networks and stations.

* * *

He said the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Co. have established "an unprecedented economic stranglehold" on the industry. CBS promptly disputed his conclusions.

* * *

Citing what he said was heretofore secret information from Federal Communications Commission files, Bricker said CBS, NBC and their 73 affiliated stations in the northeastern area had a combined net income in 1954 of about $90,600,000, while all other stations and networks suffered a combined net loss of about $300,000.

* * *

"That this is economic monopoly cannot be denied," he said.

A denial came from Frank Stanton, president of CBS, who said Bricker "has presented a grossly inaccurate picture."

"By no accepted standards does CBS have anything even approaching monopoly in the television broadcasting business," Stanton said.

* * *

Officials of NBC withheld comment pending a study of the Bricker report, made for the Senate Commerce Committee, which is studying television problems.

Red China Farmers Now in 'Collectives'

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China says agricultural cooperatives have absorbed 90 per cent of its 120 million farm families. The Communist state is driving for total collectivization of its farms by 1959.

* * *

Peiping radio said 55 per cent of the farm families are in "fully socialist cooperatives." This means some 66 million families have relinquished any claim to personal possession of land or property.

* * *

The rest were reported living on semisocialist agricultural cooperatives. Under this setup farmers nominally own the land but give it up for shares in the cooperative.

2-Faced Clock Gives the Folks 2 Different Times

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — It's a real two-faced clock that tells you one story when you're going east and another when you're going west.

* * *

* * *

The Tennessean, which supported the move to shift Nashville clocks voluntarily to Daylight Saving Time, had the face of the clock on its side of the building on "fast" time.

* * *

GI Pays His Taxes With Great Pleasure

PARKERSBURG, W.Va. (AP) — District director P. L. Charles of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service says he has received back a check for $23.61 from an Air Force staff sergeant — the sergeant's refund on his 1955 income tax.

* * *

Charles said the sergeant is married, the father of one child and earned slightly more than $3,000 last year.

Accompanying the check, Charles said, was a letter which read:

* * *

"It is with great pleasure that I give this money to Uncle Sam. In the past three years, I have visited 33 countries and those visits convinced me that we are the only 'real free people' in the world. Let us pray that we will remain free."

Thieves Snatch Gun From Sleepy Guard

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Thomas Pruitt, 65, a night guard at Truckers Inn, knew something was missing when he awoke.

He had been hired after thieves broke into the place two weeks ago. He had been provided a cot for naps and a 12-gauge shotgun.

* * *

Do-C-Do Celebrates Ninth Anniversary at Banquet

42 Couples Attend

Dinner Highlights Successful Year

The oldest square dance club organized under guidance of the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation completed nine years of activity with a dinner dance Saturday evening at Waldon Woods.

Do-C-Do Square Dance Club began in 1946, under the direction of Stuart E. Richter, then recreation director for the City of Pontiac. Clare DeLauder served as the first president of the club.

Though squaredancing is not on the program for summer, the group plans picnics, hayrides and swimming parties. During the dance season, which begins each October, members enjoy twelve dances, climaxed with a dinner-dance.

Do-C-Do has held their dances in the Webster School on Thursday evenings. They have danced to the tunes provided by an orchestra, adding to the gaiety of their parties.

THE CALLERS

Calling the lively quadrilles and instructing the members during the past season were Dr. George Harkless, Vere Hodges, Stanley Hutchinson, Louis Irwin, Sam Joan, Rex Lawrence, Gordon McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. John Streit and Enar West, all club members.

The membership of 50 couples during the past year has been directed by Harley Levely, president; Mrs. John Streit, vice president; Lanetta Rowston, secretary and William Brown, treasurer.

'RAINBOW'S END'

The dinner-dance, with the theme "Rainbow's End," was planned by the members of the board of directors and officers. Colorful parasols and spring flowers centered the banquet tables. Accenting the theme was a huge rainbow at the end of which was a "pot of gold."

Wayne McCandless served as toastmaster. Original poems by Mrs. Turris McCully were read as a tribute to Dr. Harkless, head of the callers club and Gordon McLeod, representing the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation.

Newly elected officers who were introduced are George Olson, president; William Brown, vice president; Helen Kline, secretary and Robert Newill, treasurer.

* * *

Volunteer of the Month Announced

Mrs. Whitney Murphy of Cortwright street has been chosen to be honored as the April volunteer-of-the-month by the Central Volunteer Bureau.

Although Mrs. Murphy is a full-time receptionist in the offices of Dr. Maurice Thome, she spends many hours each week as a volunteer in a Family Care home.

Family Care homes have been established by Pontiac State Hospital to help with the socialization of patients. There are forty-six of them in the seven county area served by the hospital and they house some 300 patients. While in the homes, the patients maintain their hospital status but most progress rapidly to the convalescent stage when they are allowed to go home for visits.

As a volunteer in this program, Mrs. Murphy arranges and participates in social activities for a group in a Family Care home in White Lake Township. When asked how she happened to become involved in this project, she answered, "Curiosity. I saw an ad in the paper and it aroused my curiosity.

"I was, and still am, impressed with this wonderful way of helping rehabilitate mental patients. The more I know about it, the more I want to keep it going.

"From week to week," she went on, "we can see the improvement. It's such a great source of satisfaction to be able to help these people."

An attractive blonde, Mrs. Murphy's young appearance belies the fact that she is a grandmother. Of her four children, only Bryan, the oldest, is not married. The others are Mrs. Clyde (Sally) Groat, Roger, and Mrs. S. E. (Sue) Funderburk. There are six grandchildren.

During Mental Health Week, which began Sunday, Mrs. Murphy will be on hand at the hospital to answer questions concerning the Family Care program.

Many, many other volunteers are needed at the State Hospital—clerks, stenographers, therapists—to help spread the professional's time. Placements may be made through the Central Volunteer Bureau, a Pontiac Area United Fund service, or by contacting Miss Marguerite Parrish, a member of the Bureau, at the hospital.

Mrs. Hunter Joins Maple Leaf Club

Mrs. A. J. Hunter of Toronto was received as a member of the Maple Leaf Luncheon Club at the Friday meeting at Hotel Waldron. Mrs. William McClure was honored on her birthday.

Mrs. Wendell Newman, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Dale Moats and Mrs. Lloyd Randall were hostesses of the day.

The club was invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Everett Harris this summer for a group picnic.

Children Use Shyness as Armor

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Some weeks ago a music teacher neighbor of the W.'s organized a children's orchestra. She invited the 8-year-old Jerry to become its drummer. He agreed—and at first got praise for his effort.

* * *

Lately, this has changed. To Mrs. W. the neighbor often complains of Jerry's failure to "project" a performance like the other children. She criticizes his shyness and talks much of parents' obligation to "adjust" children.

Mrs. W. asks, "What would you do in our situation?"

First, I would regtter that it had involved Jerry in a bad bargain. It gives this music teacher his free services as drummer for her orchestra. It gives him discomfort and criticism.

Second, I would rejoice over his "shyness." Instead of seeing it as the poor "adjustment" the music teacher suggests it to be, I'd see it as Jerry's resistance to her demandingness. Instead of trying to help him get over it, I'd do all I could to encourage him to keep it.

I'd say, "Do you know how you could please me very much? You can go up to Mrs. So-and-So on your very next rehearsal day and say, 'I am not coming here again to play your drum because I don't enjoy playing it any more.'"

DON'T HESITATE

I would no more hesitate to put these words into the mouth of my child than I'd have hesitated to spoon cereal into it when he was too young to spoon it there himself. Nor to go along with him on the day set for his rejection of this bad bargain.

* * *

A shy child is one who senses the presence of an attacker in his environment. He uses self-effacement to elude criticsm.

"If we consistently encourage the shy child to stand up to his attacker in resisting words, he discovers that he has survived open defense—and no longer needs to turn to self-effacement for safety."

The trouble is, shyness is often a child's shelter against our chronic criticism.

If we have a shy child, it's very foolish to start worrying about how guilty we are.

* * *

When we fight for his right to resist other attackers in words, we begin to cherish the self-respect we are defending.

The instant the child knows that this has happened to us, he loses his fear of us. And finds the strength to be honest with us too.

Waterford Civic Music Group Opens Annual Drive

Only the longest neck, the straightest back should try this bulky top but it can be beautifully becoming on tall, well proportioned women.

The new fuller look in coats from Paris, with the emphasis on back interest, is already in the shops. Everything that tends to top width makes hips seem slimmer. But if tendency to round or fleshy shoulders, do not attempt bulkt at top.

Mrs. Ware Spreads Hamburger Buns With Mustard First

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

There probably are as many recipes for fixing hamburger as there are cooks in this country. The one we have for you today is a quickie sandwich recipe. It should make interesting late evening refreshments.

Mrs. Leslie Ware is today's cook. She is a member of a child study club and of the Junior Pontiac Women's Club. Her hobbies are silversmithing and ceramics.

BROILED HAMBURGER BUNS
By Mrs. Leslie Ware

Slice hamburger buns. Spread with mustard. Cover with a thin layer of seasoned hamburger, being careful to spread it right to the edge of the buns.

Broil in the oven until meat is done. Cover with the other halves of the buns and serve immediately.

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Any woman can look young at any age, if she puts her mind to it, says Nat Abelson, an expert in turning out fashions to flatter the wearer and fool the public.

* * *

"There aren't any old ladies any more," says Abelson. "Whistler's mother could have looked like his sister if she had just taken off that shawl, thrown away that rocking chair, splurged on a new hairdo and a new dress."

Abelson started making women's dresses shortly after his marriage, when his mother-in-law complained that she couldn't find any pretty clothes that fit her. He's been doing it ever since, with notable success. Here are some of his rules for selecting an outfit that will be flattering to the larger figure:

"First be honest with yourself, and recognize your best and worst points. Then choose your clothes to play up your good points and conceal your bad ones.

"Select a flattering neckline. Call attention to the top. Soft touches about the neck and bodice are always flattering.

This season the most popular outfit for women of all ages, says Abelson, is the costume with full-length coat and matching dress in twin prints—the coat in one fabric, the dress in another, the print the same.

Vocational Department Planning Fall Schedule

The Pontiac Council of PTA, in conjunction with the Vocational Education Department of the Senior High School, is planning a survey to determine what program of Adult Education will meet the needs of this community.

For years classes for adults in home economics, business education and vocational occupations have been offered where there was a definite need and when enrollments were large enough to warrant a class. The facilities of the Senior High School were made available, and competent and qualified teachers were employed to conduct these evening classes.

* * *

This program is self-supporting; a registration fee on a pay as you go basis is charged to defray the expense of the instructor and the material used.

Some classes in hobbies and crafts were available when the demand for them was great enough.

To enlarge and provide an enriched program for more people presents many problems. To determine the needs and desires of the people of this community, the Council through its local PTA units, plans to contact PTA members and other adults in their districts. A listing of possible classes that may be offered will be sent through the schools to parents.

Several phases of Business Education and Vocational classes will be offered, as well as in Craft, Art and Home Economics. Many miscellaneous classes may be available if enough people express a desire for them.

These could include from Americanization and Citizenship classes to driver education or lip reading, cake decorating or parliamentary procedure, or Parent Education classes in understanding your teenager or preschool child. Any subject matter not listed, but for which a definite need or desire is shown by enough people to form a class, efforts will be made to set up the facilities for it.

With the completion of the James Madison Junior High School and the probable construction of multi-purpose buildings, more facilities and housing would be available in establishing a good adult education program.

* * *

Persons who are qualified and interested in teaching one of the many facets of adult educational requirements are needed. If you are a specialist or proficient in the line of leathercraft or fly tying, or perhaps ceramics or china painting, etc., others may be eager to learn your craft. The Vocational Education Department of the Senior High School would like to know and list these people in order to meet the present and future expressed educational needs of the adults in this community.

The results of this survey will aid the Vocational Department in knowing the classes needed and will give them the opportunity to develop this program during the summer, and to obtain competent instructors and adequate facilities by the time these evening classes will begin in the fall.

Favorite cottons of the season include satiny poplins, crisp piques, soft broadcloths, cotton satins and dainty sheers such as voile and dotted swiss—all with the new finishes that make wash day a breeze.

White linen painted with wallpaper pattern of yellow and black flowers is used in this slender dress with button detail. Designed by Sophie, it's a welcome addition to a summer wardrobe.

Those popular halters for warm weather that insure even suntan. Each of this gay trio takes just a yard of gay fabric in the smaller sizes.

No. 8393 with Patt-O-Rama included is in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 14, 1 yard of 39-inch for each style.

PTA Convention Dates Given

More than 3,000 delegates, representing ten million members in some 41,000 local PTA units across the nation and Hawaii, are expected to attend the 60th annual convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers in San Francisco, May 20-23. The theme of the convention is "The Family and the Community: Each Shapes the Other—The PTA Serves Both for Healthy Children in Healthy Communities."

In keeping with one of its objects, the promotion of the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community, the PTA is offering an unusual feature at this year's convention.

Delegates will see demonstrations of outstanding activity in the areas of health, juvenile protection, secondary education, parent and family life education, recreation and education of exceptional children. A panel of authorities on these subjects will discuss how local PTA's can adapt such activities to the needs of their own communities.

Kate Smith's Return to Public Told by Batelle

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

(Copyright, 1956, By International News Service)

Last night, Kate Smith walked out on a stage and into American homes via the TV screen in her first such appearance in many months. The reason she was there—and hadn't been for such a long time before—is part of the remarkable human story of one of the great American entertainers of all time. Despite her fabulous popularity for more than a quarter of a century, Kate Smith still is almost more legend than fact to most of her fans. Starting today, famed reporter-columnist Phyllis Batelle tells the Kate Smith story through the words and eyes of Kate Smith herself and the man who has been by her side for 26 years, Ted Collins. This is the first of three articles.

Such a land of sudden fame is America that "Success Stories" become dull and commonplace and unenchanting. Then one day you walk into the sunlit parlor of a monumental institution named Kathryn, "Kate" Smith, and the tarnished Cinderella tale is shiny again, and unique.

Here is a woman devoid of the accepted assets of glamour who has received 25,000,000 fan letters and grossed $35,000,000.

Here, as regal as a Wagnerian diva and as yakkety as a backfence conversation, is a woman whom a U.S. President called "America Herself." A woman who disapproves of worry and temperament, who is too simple and direct to make headlines, and who has the business acumen of a child of five.

* * *

ABRUPT OCCASIONALLY

If he is abrupt with a remark, it is only to protect his 46-year-old protege from answering too many questions that might disturb her emotionally.

For instance, Kate readily answers questions about her plentiful figure—a professional trademark, but nonetheless a sensitive subject to any woman. "The plain fact is that I am a large woman in a field supposedly restricted to the slim and glamorous of my sex," she says.

But when the conversation gets deeper, and Kate's pretty, plump face grows more serious, Collins calmly interrupts.

"Okay," he says, "So much for weight."

At this, the fabulous Miss Smith looks quickly toward him and grins. She obviously is grateful.

* * *

Kate was a scarcely-known singer and dancer in Broadway revues and Collins was a young recording manager for a record company when they met 26 years ago. She was billed absurdly as "Tiny Little," and the fans came to the theater to laugh uproariously at her antics.

For $450 a week, Kate could not complain. But she wasn't happy either.

Collins came to the theater one night and, instead of watching her perform, he listened to this girl's tremendous, clear-as-a-crystal-stream voice, untutored but unmatched.

When he went backstage and offered to make her a "serious" singer, "Tiny Little" Smith cried. In appreciation.

They entered into a verbal 50-50 partnership in which Collins was to be sole guide and manager of her professional affairs.

* * *

"He told me," Kate recalls now, glancing over at Collins with devoted good humor, "that all I had to do was never ask any questions, and we'd get there. Just do everything he asked me to do, and let him handle the worries, and I put myself in his hands, and we did get there."

Collins, a good looking man who stands perhaps two inches shorter than Kate, looked back at her seriously. "You did it, too. Everything. In 25 years, Kathryn canceled only six shows out of about 9,000 she was asked to give."

In that quarter-century, through the endlessly strenuous weeks, this unique partnership accumulated a great deal of money and almost as much gossip.

COLLINS MARRIED

Though Collins is married and a grandfather, a great bulk of Kate Smith's fans still believe that she and Ted are secretly wed. Other people, including gossip columnists, have hinted for two decades that theirs is a "Svengali-Trilby" relationship. There is no hypnotism between Kate Smith and Ted Collins, but from the standpoint of the utter dependency of one upon the other, there is indeed a sound basis to the comparison.

Kate refuses to conduct an interview, or to perform, without Ted's being close by. When she is putting her feeling for her manager in the simplest possible terms, she says: "He is a true, good friend and a wise counsellor, and whatever success I have had or may have is due entirely to Ted Collins, the man who took me and my work seriously and made it his chief concern."

In return, Ted has never talked much about his devotion to Kate, beyond saying "I am proud of everything she has done." He has, however, proved his sense of responsibility toward her in more positive ways. Once the owner of the New York Yankees pro football team, and manager of other successful show business personalities, he has deserted them all to devote full time to the life of Kate.

* * *

He would virtually lay down his life, in fact, for her.

"He almost did," she recalls, looking over bleakly at Collins as if she feared he might, yet, collapse on the spot. Last December, she said, he suffered a heart attack the afternoon before she was scheduled to make a guest appearance on the Ed Sullivan television show, which she finally made last night.

"He knew that I wouldn't go on if he was sick, so he didn't call a doctor. He just lay down and thought well maybe this heart attack will pass away.

* * *

"Then the next day he got worse, he got worse and I thought—and the doctor thought—he wasn't going to survive. I canceled everything, of course, and vowed I wouldn't come out of retirement until Ted got well . . ."

* * *

Homemaker Should Be Specialist

By ANNE HEYWOOD

As any gardener knows, if you want to get fruit, you must prune the tree. You have to chop away the non-essential branches, for the greater good of the harvest.

* * *

The same thing holds true for housewives.

By the nature of your work, you have to do a variety of jobs, from budgeting to dusting, from cooking to decorating.

I'm not recommending total surgery, eliminating entirely the ones you don't like. But it does seem the better part of wisdom to shift the emphasis a little and put the bulk of your time and energy into the areas you like the best.

* * *

To try to be superb at everything — marketing, and cooking, decorating and sewing, cleaning and laundering—is going to make a nervous wreck of you.

It is better to do adequately the things that need doing and then concentrate on those that are fun.

MANY REASONS

There are many reasons for doing this.

In the first place, it makes you a specialist in something. Maybe, like a friend of mine, you love the cooking part best.

* * *

Her mending piles up, but then eventually some neighbor takes it on, in exchange for one of her heavenly pies or a batch of delicious brownies. She is an expert at the barter system and is one of the happiest women I know.

* * *

PLANS TO CATER

When this woman finds her children grown and gone, she won't be at loose ends, totally unemployed and useless. When that day comes, she plans to start a small catering service and have the time of her life.

* * *

If you would like to follow her example, one helpful step in the right direction is to face the fact that you don't positively adore every single phase of homemaking; that, indeed, there are parts of it that bore you to death.

Then figure the ones you like and begin to specialize in them.

My Housewives' Career Guide may help you in figuring out your specialty. I'll be glad to send it to you if you will send me six cents in postage, care of The Pontiac Press.

Samuel Dudley Honored

Samuel Dudley was honored on the occasion of his 83rd birthday with an open house at his home on Augusta avenue Sunday afternoon and evening. Over 100 friends and relatives attended the affair, a surprise to Mr. Dudley, given by his wife.

* * *

Among those attending were members of the Exchange Club who presented him with two books "The Life of Lincoln," by Carl Sandburg and "Andersonville."

Mr. Dudley is well known for his work in the Pontiac School system, he was principal of Pontiac High School for 11 years and dean of the Junior College until his retirement in 1941. His teaching career covers 45 years, 30 of them spent here in Pontiac.

* * *

The Dudley home was decorated Sunday with bouquets of pink shaded flowers. The centerpiece on the refreshment table was of pink roses and snapdragons featuring tiny band instruments among the flowers. The miniature instruments commemorated his work as the originator of the Pontiac High School Band in 1912.

S. M. DUDLEY

The band won its first all-state championship under his direction in 1916.

Preceding the open house, the immediate family, their sons, Harold and Roy and their families had dinner at Devon Gables.

Make Offer to Reward Ring Finder

Woman Recovers Diamond She Left in Lounge

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "Several evenings ago I inadvertently left my diamond ring in the woman's lounge of a restaurant to which I go occasionally.

"When I arrived home and realized what I had done, I telephoned the owner of the restaurant and told him of my loss. Another woman patron found it and turned it over to the properietor. I am very grateful to her and would like to know if a reward is in order. Please let me hear from you."

Answer: To offer a reward is certainly in order. If the finder is very well-to-do it should not be considered disccourteous if it is refused. On the other hand, it is more likely to bring the average finder great pleasure.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I just received an invitation to the wedding of a relative taking place in a city over 500 miles from here. Of course they know it will be impossible for me to go and it was undoubtedly sent in courtesy.

"However, the invitation asks for a reply and I am wondering if, under the circumstances, a reply is necessary, and wouldn't this require a gift?"

Answer: Because of the distance it might not be necessary to acknowledge it; although it certainly would be courteous to write a note to the bride if you know her at all well, regretting your inability to be present and sending her your best wishes. If you are fond of her, a present would be in order.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When drinking a cocktail that has fruit in it, such as a slice of orange, lemon or pineapple, is it proper to eat the fruit, or is it put there simply for flavor? If it may be eaten, what does one do with the rind?"

Answer: Usually one does not eat the fruit which is essential for flavor and decoration. But you may eat it if you want to—holding it by an edge of the rind, and leaving the uneatable rim of this in your emptied glass.

9-Day Reducing Diet

Deadline Furnishes Impetus to Slenderize

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Being human, most of us need the whip of a deadline in order to accomplish what we should. Writers are known to fight their deadlines and even the little woman in the home might procrastinate if it were not for the demands of her family.

My point is this—women put off losing weight, over and over again, until some crucial occasion spurs them into action.

This impetus may be anything from getting ready to be a bridesmaid in a wedding, going on a vacation, preparing for the Easter Parade, for swimsuits, or seeing an old beau, to doctor's orders for health reasons.

My 9-Day Reducing Diet rewards one with a loss of from 5 to 10 pounds in nine days. This is a pleasant sort of deadline. You know that you can lose so many pounds within a given short time.

SECOND TUESDAY

Breakfast

One egg, poached or boiled
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

Luncheon

One portion salmon

Here's tomorrow's 9-Day Diet breakfast — One egg, poached or boiled; one thin dry slice of whole wheat toast; black coffee; one glass skimmed milk.

Celery sticks
One-half cup steamed carrots

Dinner

Minute or club steak (small)
One-half cup string beans
One-half cup squash
One glass skimmed milk
Orange slices

* * *

If you would like to have my 9-Day Reducing Diet which gives you a loss of from 5 to 10 pounds in nine days' time send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Pack Beauty Kit With Exercise, 9-Day Diet."

Chapters Meet Here

Daughters of Pontiac, 186, entertained the Past Mistress Club of Michigan at the Elks Temple Thursday. Mrs. Anna Hitchcock of Flint, presided at the meeting attended by 35 members from Pontiac, Detroit, Flint and Port Huron.

Uganda will have a textile mill.

Memorial Service Held

Mrs. J. L. Van Wagoner conducted a memorial service for five former members of the Women's Association of the First Congregational Church at their Friday meeting.

The women so honored were Mrs. J. Kirk Campbell, Mrs. Harold Dudley, Mrs. Belle Harper, Mrs. Maude Jenner and Miss Carrie Harger.

Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Ruth Spurlock of the Red Cross. Her subject was "Prejudice and Mental Health."

Mrs. William Gordon, president of the Pillar Club, presented a set of dishes in honor of Miss Alice Shattuck. Miss Shattuck was superintendent of the Primary department of the Sunday school for many years. The dedication was written by Mrs. John Morrison and Beulah Phillips.

The luncheon was served by the Colonial group, with Mrs. Fred Voelker in charge. Her committee included Mrs. C. H. Purdy, Mrs. D. R. Wilson, Mrs. Oscar Lundbeck, Mrs. Eugene Gump and Mrs. J. R. Crary.

Mrs. George Wasserberger, Mrs. Hazel Scott, Mrs. Robert Tarr and Mrs. Marcus Scott also assisted.

Vocational Guidance Discussed

"How Can Parents Help Children Choose Their Work?" was the roll call question for members of the Child Culture Club Thursday evening at the Walled Lake home of Mrs. Jorma Sarto.

Mrs. Frank Gross, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Ralph Harrison who spoke on "Vocational Choices." Mrs. Harrison stated that children's day dreaming and play acting are influences of self-expression.

She told of the five classifications of vocations professions, agriculture, trades and industries, business and homemaking, all of which require a period of training. Mrs. Harrison said that a lack of wholesome home life, of love and security can be the deciding factor in determining a successful homemaker for both men and women.

Mrs. Floyd Blanzy was a guest of the evening. The group will meet with Mrs. Dale Swanson of Birmingham May 24.

Youngsters are less likely to track up kitchen floors on rainy days if you put paper plates next to the back door for them to deposit their rubbers into.

Calico Cotton Takes Paris by Storm

PARIS (INS)—Calico cotton has gone a long way in Paris.

Taken from the folk costumes of French peasants, this modest fabric is now being used for elegant city clothes, charming cocktail skirts, fashionable evening dresses and even for summery table-sets.

At cocktail time, Parisiennes will wear calico peasant skirts made of four ruffled, horizontal bands. They look most coquettish when worn over white eyelet petticoats, with the edge peeping out all around the skirt hem.

Paris Designer Countess De La Falaise has created a calico evening gown of black cotton with a tiny pink and white pattern. It is a bareback and strapless affair with a flaring, ground-length skirt. The upper edge, framing the decollete, is trimmed with a two-inch wide band of white eyelet.

Calico kerchiefs are now popular in Paris wound around the head peasant manner or used as napkins on the lunch table.

* * *

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

Let's Have a Garden

This is garden week for Junior Editors, and nearly everyone is busy planning some kind of garden.

Here is Sam, who means to have a crop of fine vegetables. He has planted the seeds carefully, and is marking the beds so he will know exactly what is in each one.

Now paste the pictures on cardboard and cut out the parts carefully. Choose one of the seed packets and run a toothpick through it, as shown in the small sketch, then thrust the toothpick through the holes above and below Sam's raised hand, so the stick will pass the back of his hand. Poke the lower end into the ground. You can put toothpicks through the other seed packets, and stick them into the ground anywhere you like. Poke some toothpicks at the back of the garden too, and they will look like real supports for the pea vines.

(This idea was first submitted by Marcia Anderson, Richmond, Va. Junior Editors awards $10 for usable ideas, so send yours in care of this newspaper. (Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures)

Iron Curtain Fleer Is 'Publicity Hound'

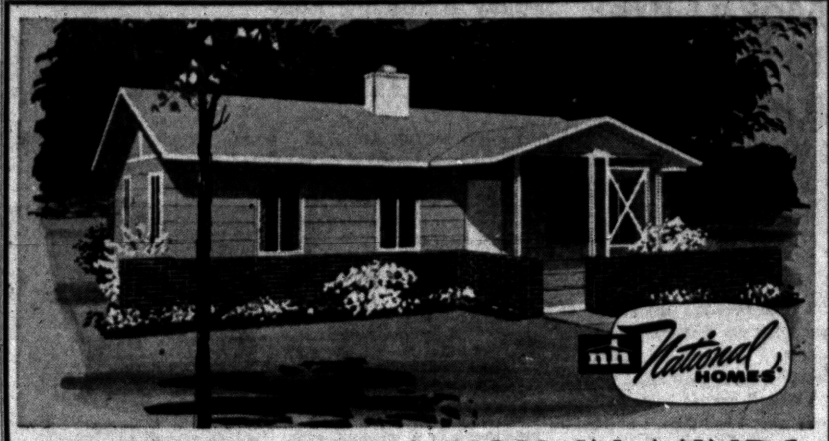

EISENSTADT, Austria (AP) — Police say 18-year-old Fritz Hammerl spun a "complete fairy tale" in his story of driving a farm tractor under fire through the barbed wire and minefields of the Communist Hungarian border to Austrian sanctuary.

* * *

Hammerl had related that the gunfire of border guards—one of them his own brother—killed three companions.

* * *

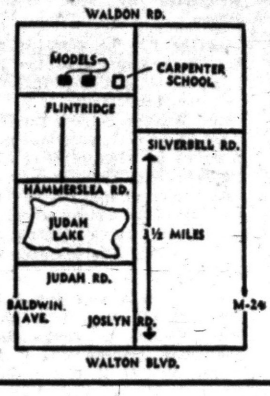

Authorities called Hammerl a publicity hound. They said a border check failed to prove his story. Now they are trying to figure out what to do with him. The youth now claims to be an Austrian citizen.

Ten park employes under the supervision of William Aho, parks supervisor, and Lyle D. LaVoye, parks foreman, have been working installing old and new equipment at all the parks.

Assisting the workers last Saturday to remove all debris accumulated over the winter were some 200 Boy Scouts from local troops.

Bright new signs will welcome visitors this year to the areas scattered throughout the city.

In addition to the large picnic benches so popular with summer outings, 25 picnic grills have been placed in Murphy, Oakland, Beaudette parks with some to be added later to Jaycee Park.

Trash containers have been conveniently located in all areas and people are urged to throw picnic waste into the barrels but not to burn the trash, Aho said.

Children can look forward to swings, teeter-totters, and jungle-gyms in all but Jaycee park. Caretakers will be available at Murphy and Oakland parks.

These two areas will each have four horse-shoe courts and two shuffle-board courts.

Tennis enthusiasts will find courts at Murphy, Oakland, and Beaudette parks.

For those seeking softball games, a choice can be made between Rotary Park and Optimist playground. Aho said two baseball fields and two softball diafonds will be added to Jaycee Park this season.

He urged that everybody enjoy the many facilities offered at the seven different locations. They are expected to remain open until October.

READY FOR THE FIRE—All that's missing now is the fire and the wieners on one of the many picnic grills being installed in three of the city parks which open officially May 1. Shown assembling one of the stoves in Oakland Park is parks employe James Beeler. Picnic tables will also be available in most of the parks for Pontiac residents to enjoy a summer outing.

FOR THE KIDS—Parents won't find it hard to keep the kids entertained when they have a family outing in a city park beginning May 1. Swings like the one being put up by Lyle D. LaVoye (below) and Warner I. Irwin, parks workers, in six parks and one playground will help keep the children occupied.

Dewey May Run for Senate Seat

Rumor Circulating That Ike May Ask Candidacy to Defeat Lehman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Taylor (R-NY) says President Eisenhower may ask former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, to seek the Senate seat now held by Sen. Lehman (D-NY).

* * *

Taylor, Republican national committeeman from New York, said he is "firmly of the opinion that if President Eisenhower requested him to run Dewey could not very well turn the request aside." Dewey has said he intends to remain in private life.

Taylor made the comment in a radio interview recorded here for broadcast last night in Watertown and Massena, N.Y.

LEARNED LESSON

"There would be legitimacy in such a request," Taylor said, "since Dewey was an important factor in persuading the President to run both in 1952 and again this year.

"The President wants a Republican Senate and the election of a Republican senator in the State of New York becomes most important because of the meager majority of Democrats now in control of that body."

* * *

Taylor, asserting New York's Republicans "learned a lesson" in the 1954 gubernatorial defeat of Sen. Ives (R-NY) by Gov. Averell Harriman said "any substantial Republican candidate can be elected over Sen. Lehman."

* * *

Lehman, who most observers think will seek re-election, has not made known his intentions.

Lehman, also a former governor of New York, defeated Dewey in 1938 in Dewey's first attempt to win the office. Lehman's margin of victory was about 60,000 votes of the three million cast.

Thousands Welcome Red Leaders

LONDON (AP)—Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist boss Nikita Khrushchev returned to Moscow today and told a welcoming crowd their trip to Britain was of great political and practical significance.

The Moscow radio broadcast an account of the Russian leaders' arrival by plane on the final leg of their journey home from their 10-day tour and said they were warmly applauded by tens of thousands of persons at Moscow's big military airport.

Bulganin and Khrushchev flew in from Kaliningrad, the former German city of Koenigsberg. They had sailed there from Portsmouth aboard the Soviet cruiser Ordzhonikidze.

BULGANIN GIVES MESSAGE

Bulganin took the speakers' rostrum, a red-decorated stand, after he and Khrushchev were greeted with official congratulations and flowers.

While Khrushchev stood near, he told the crowd lining the ramp the visit to Britain "was of great political and practical significance in Anglo-Soviet relations and the whole international life."

In Britain, Bulganin said, he and Khrushchev met "both champions and opponents" of improved relations with the Soviet Union.

TO CONTINUE PEACE POLICY

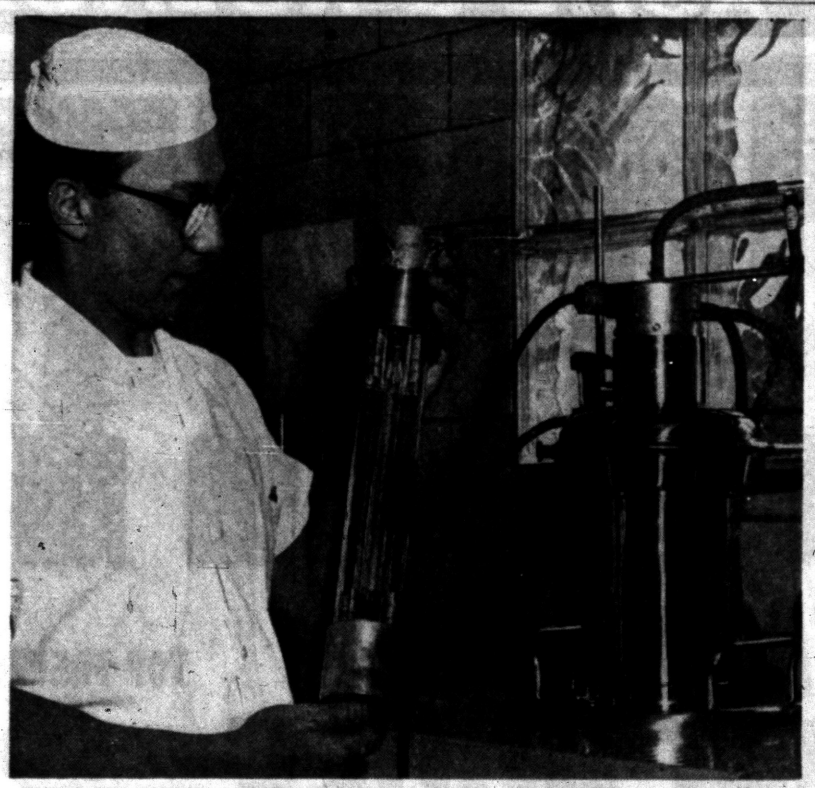

Opponents, he asserted, did not want to recognize changes which he said had taken place in international life.

"We went to Britain with the sincere desire of finding a common language," he said.

Concluding, Bulganin said the Soviet Union would "continue to conduct a peace-loving policy."

Before he finished, the Soviet Premier had a word of complaint about not being able to get around with the politicians ease shown by former Premier Georgi Malenkov on his London month.

"Unfortunately we had no opportunity to meet the people and to talk with them," he said.

Adlai Leads Rivals, According to Survey

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today a state-by-state survey shows that Adlai E. Stevenson currently has "a larger reservoir of indicated delegate strength" than any of his rivals for the Democratic presidential nomination.

A Washington dispatch to the Times said its correspondents reported it was unlikely that Stevenson or any other candidate could win a first-ballot nomination at the Democratic convention.

Allies to Test U.S.S.R. Bid for Arms Halt to Mideast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles and the foreign ministers of Britain and France probably will confer this week on a formula for testing Russia's offer to join in a general embargo on arms shipments to the Middle East.

* * *

The possibility of bringing Middle East arms shipments once again under some kind of control is regarded here as slight but worth looking into.

* * *

Dulles will leave for Paris tomorrow to attend a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and diplomatic talks on a variety of international problems, dominated by the continuing Palestine crisis, Russian maneuvers and the Cyprus dispute.

* * *

He will get a first-hand report from Britain's Selwyn Lloyd on the visit to London of Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Pemier Nikolai Bulganin.

REDS TO TAKE PART IF—

Just before leaving London last Friday, Khrushchev said if it were possible to agree on an arms ban "through the United Nations or otherwise" Russia would take part. He said that as long as other nations sold arms the Soviet Union would do so.

* * *

The reaction here was one of great suspicion. Communist Czechoslovakia began selling arms to Egypt last fall, and Moscow comment then linked the transaction to the development of the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact in the Middle East.

Deportation Set for Detroiter Who Told Truth

DETROIT (AP) — Because Otto Weyer told the truth about an almost forgotten lie, he is headed for deportation to Germany.

* * *

Returning to Detroit, he identified himself as a native American.

The incident was all but forgotten until last July. During the course of examination for citizenship, Otto was asked if he ever falsely claimed citizenship.

"Yes," he replied, "I believe I have."

* * *

Then he related the instance of his swimming trip. He told newsmen: "I was put under oath. I thought I'd better tell the truth."

The story came to light Saturday night when Otto's father Joseph, 50, was found in a cold rainstorm at midnight on the Belle Isle Bridge. The father was released after observation at Receiving Hospital.

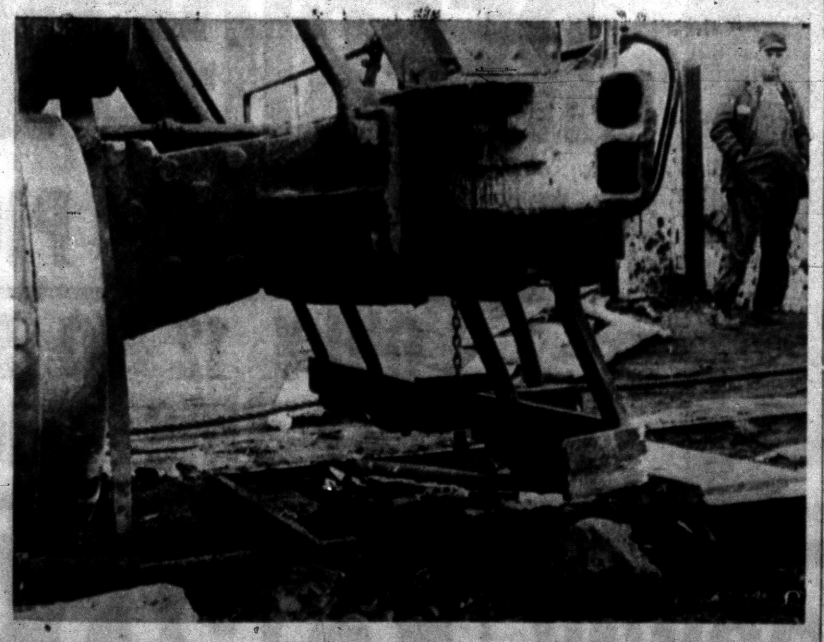

"My son, my only child, is going to be deported," he told police. "I just can't face up to all my troubles."

The Weyers came from Germany in 1950.

An immigration official said Otto is being deported because of his one entry gained "through false and misleading statements."

THE BIG PUSH — It was just like the time your car got stuck in the mud, but even 100 bumper jacks wouldn't help in the situation above. Workers are shown in the three-hour struggle last week to free Old No. 8314, a steam engine of the Grand Trunk and Western Railway. No. 8314 had her wheels stuck in the grooves between track and cement at a spur-line crossing on N. Saginaw street. She had chugged gently off the track when one of the rails split. Workers called for more than jacks and a simple push. Efforts to back the engine onto the track with the help of inch-thick boards failed. A switch engine tried to pull No. 8314 free and in the attempt snapped a one-inch steel chain like string. The cable was passed backwards from the rear of No. 8314 to a pulled fixed to the rail with the chain. Then it went forward to the switch engine, which had backed in ahead of No. 8314. The idea was, when the switch engine went forward, Old No. 8314 would go backwards. The boards were placed to guide the wheels onto the track. The second attempt succeeded. Then officials hurried to look at the few feet of twisted rail which had immobilized the huge engine so long.

Young Arthur MacArthur Shuns West Point Career

NEW YORK (INS)—Young Arthur MacArthur—last of the MacArthur military dynasty that led American soldiers in five wars—plans to attend Columbia University rather than West Point.

The University confirmed that the 18-year-old son of Gen. Douglas MacArthur had been accepted to matriculate next fall in the undergraduate school.

Like his grandfather, whose name he bears, young MacArthur would probably become a civilian soldier—as a member of the Reserve Officers training Corps at the university.

FOLLOWS GRANDFATHER

His grandfather became a non-professional soldier during the Civil War. He later received the Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery. In 1866, he became a regular army officer and led troops in several Indian campaigns and in the Philippines during the Spanish-American War.

He retired in 1909 as a lieutenant general, six years after his now-famous son, Douglas MacArthur, was graduated from West Point. Since then, Gen. Douglas MacArthur has carved out one of the greatest military careers in American history serving as a general in World War I, and as commanding general in the Pacific in World War II.

Arthur MacArthur had been quoted as saying, "I want to be a good soldier like my dad." On his eighth birthday he received a wooden sword. Among the gifts the musically - talented youth received when he became 13 was a zither.

WAR CHANGES GOAL

Friends of the family speculated the war-torn, formative years of his life may have influenced young MacArthur to seek a civilian profession. He was born in Manila. His fourth birthday was celebrated as Japanese shells dropped on "the rock" of Corregidor. His mother could find only a can of post exchange peanuts for his birthday present.

He escaped with his father and mother and went to Australia. He went back with his father as the tide turned, lived the post war period in Japan, governed by his father, and first saw the United States in 1951. He was then 13 years old.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some 3,000 delegates of the United States Chamber of Commerce were advised today not to succumb to the "synthetic good will" of the same Kremlin leaders who were part and parcel of the great Soviet bloodlettings."

President Boyd Campbell of Jackson, Miss., declared in a prepared keynote address for the Chamber's 44th annual meeting that "the same old gang is ruling Russia — minus Stalin."

* * *

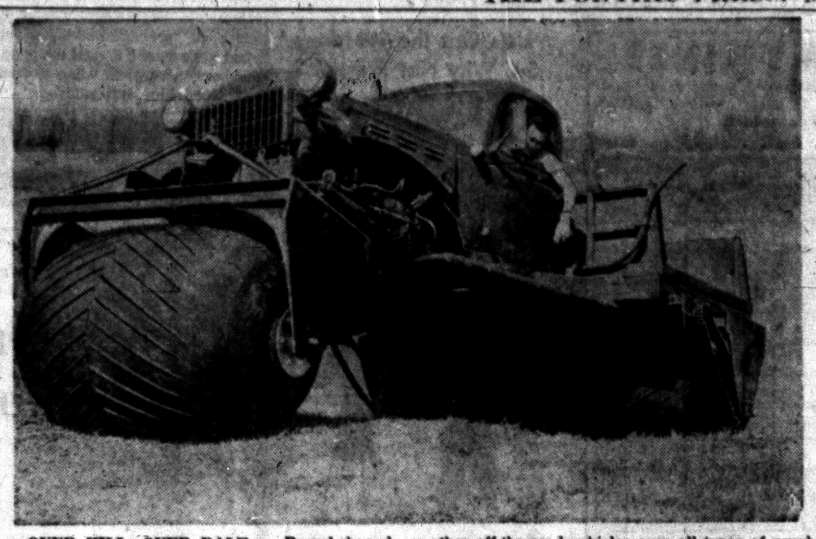

The Chamber's 1,700,000 affiliated business men and women, he said, will insist on "keeping America's defense impregnable while we watch and wait for more convincing evidence of the Soviet's regeneration."

CONVICTING A GHOST

Campbell said it is evident that Russian leaders, in repudiating Stalin's record, have found it easy to "convict a ghost" and are "getting away with it in too many corners of the world."

America must keep its guard up, he said, until Russia has liberated slave laborers and illegally held war prisoners, freed the satellite countries, and "done everything possible to expiate her crimes against civilization."

Theme of the opening Chamber session was "For Human Betterment." A dramatic presentation of the peacetime potential of nuclear energy, opening in a darkened auditorium with a filmed representation of an atomic bomb explosion, was arranged to follow an address by evangelist Billy Graham on "Moral Responsibilities in the Atomic Age."

OVER HILL, OVER DALE — Barrel-shaped tires, able to go where other tires "fear to tread," are shown negotiating an incline during test runs at Wingfoot Lake Airship Base in Akron, Ohio. With its driving force transmitted from the motor through the rear axle by any conventional drive system, the tire can take trucks, trailers and other off-the-road vehicles over all types of rough terrain. Speeds up to 65 miles per hour have been achieved with the new "Terra Tire," product of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. The low-pressure inflation, wide-load dispersement and thin pliable walls enable the pneumatics to swallow up rough, uneven surfaces by conforming with rather than resisting them.

Senate Group Rejects Aid for President Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee rejected yesterday the idea of creating an "administrative vice president" in the White House, proposed by former President Hoover to help relieve the chief executive.

* * *

Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass), the chairman, said for three other Democrats and three Republicans on a Government Operations subcomittee that the President already "has sufficient authority to delegate the performance of administrative functions to subordinate officials . . ."

Food Plant Destroyed by Fire in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A block-square food processing plant was destroyed in a roaring fire yesterday after flames erupted from a boiler room.

* * *

The Northwest Packing Co.'s No. 1 plant and general offices were leveled. Firemen checked the flames after a two-hour fight, hampered by low water pressure. No employes were in the building and no firemen were injured.

* * *

The loss included a large supply of dog food, valued at $500,000.

Firemen did not list the cause immediately.

Mexico Leads in Lime

MEXICO CITY — Mexico, the world's main producer of limes, expects a 1955-56 crop of 2,315,000 boxes, about the same as last year. World production is expected to total some 4,600,000 boxes.

Snake Pops Out of Drain to Surprise Tub Bather

ST. LOUIS (AP)—William F. Power, 19, finished taking a bath and pulled the plug. Out of the drain popped a snake.

* * *

"It scared the daylights out of me," he said. "I was just paralyzed."

Before he could scramble out of the tub, the snake bit him on the big toe of his right foot. He suffered no ill effects. The snake was a nonvenomous type.

He Wasn't Kidding

FORT FRANCES, Ont. (AP)—Mrs. Emma Del Zotto, 52, was sweeping out her neighborhood grocery store at closing time when a youth entered and demanded money. Thinking it was a neighborhood resident playing a prank, she brandished her broom to shoo him out of the store. The youth brandished a sawed-off rifle, convinced her he wasn't kidding and made off with $15.

Automobile Show in New Coliseum Draws Thousands

NEW YORK (AP)—With the International Automobile Show now being held in New York's new Coliseum, foreign manufacturers are hoping to boost their growing sales in this country.

* * *

Sales of imported cars in the United States have increased five times in the past six years, industry sources reported. European makers participating in the show expect this is only the beginning of a big expansion in their business in this country.

American manufacturers have also taken exhibit space to show how well their models compare with foreign design and styling. Most U. S. cars on display are luxury models and those inspired by continental sports car designs.

The show includes automobiles from Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany and Sweden. In the past year manufacturers from these countries have reported U. S. sales totaling 58,000 cars, compared to 12,000 sold in 1949.

Prices of cars on display range from about $1,000 for Germany's four-wheeled, one-cylinder Isetts Kleinwagen to more than $25,000 for custom made models.

* * *

U. S. companies in the show are General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and Studebaker-Packard. Gaylord Cars, Ltd., of Chicago plans to show for the first time its ultra luxurious, custom made Gaylord.

Millions Suffer From Phlebitis

Swollen Leg Disease Blamed on Circulation Trouble

LOS ANGELES (AP) — About 10 million Americans have swollen legs due to circulation trouble and most of them are in need of some kind of medical treatment and changes in their way of life, a Los Angeles physician asserted today.

* * *

The affliction is called phlebitis, an inflammation of one or more veins in the legs. In some cases blood clots develop in these veins and produce serious consequences, sometimes death. But the great majority have only a disabling or painful affliction, and it can be treated by medical means and a few changes in the routine of living, said Dr. Roy J. Popkin of Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

* * *

Dr. Popkin, who reported to the California Medical Assn., said treatment consists principally of reducing the swelling by conventional medical means and of rearranging the life of the patient to keep his feet off the ground.

* * *

People with this trouble should not dangle their legs, Dr. Popkin said. They should sleep with their feet elevated a few inches, usually on a pillow. Before they get out of bed they should put on an elastic stocking or bandages, as the doctor prescribes.

* * *

Their work, Dr. Popkin added, should be something that permits them to keep their legs outstretched, such as the feet-on-the-desk position.

Connecticut Church Damaged in Blaze

NORWICH, Conn. (AP) — Fire swept through the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church yesterday, causing damage estimated at half a million dollars.

* * *

Deputy Fire Chief William Larochelle estimated it would cost twice that amount to replace the church.

The fire broke out shortly after the 8 a.m. Mass started. There were 300 people in the church.

Sexton Michael LaMothe, saw smoke coming from the sacristy, a room off the alter. He stood up and pointed to the rear exits. The parishioners started filing out.

* * *

Eskimo Travels Many, Many Miles to Advertise Beauty of Alaskan Life

By ASAGOOK CHESTER SEVECK
Written for The AP

SEATTLE (AP) — On March 29, 1956, I started by airline from Kotzebue, Alaska (Small Place). I stop in Fairbanks, Alaska, over night and in Seattle to Los Angles.

* * *

I'm surprised and see many many strange things, many peoples different kind of color and talk different languages. To many cars running and go different direction.

TWO EYES OPEN

I keep open my two eyes always and watching myself very careful. Good country. Easy life but it make me lazy man. I don't have to warm up the water when I take a bath. I don't have to fixing my bed, I don't have to sweep the floor, I don't have to use step up and down, I use elevator.

* * *

Good country, good food, good home, big houses, clean. The stuffs selling very cheap, easy life if I got money in my pocket, no money no work no eat and very hard life as poor Alaska Eskimo.

ROCK STREETS

Every day go different radio, television stations. We walking day by day. My mukluk (fur-lined boots) holes already walking on cement and rock street.

Aslo we go to Mexico. The people in Mexico look like Eskimo, but they trying sale the things in every where in the street, many, many people trying my mukluk everyplaces we walk in the street. The worst part is two girls following me about three long blocks to trying to buy mukluk they from $15.00 to $25.00.

* * *

Then we started homeward 16 of April and reach San Francisco. On 25th we come to Seattle.

The most I don in my trip, walking, Eskimo dancing, answering the question about the Alaska how cold and how much hot in summer time, Eskimo life.

I FORGET FISH

The important part I do is to see live animals. I shake hand a live seal I never did in my country. Also almost I lost my hand, I hold a fish in my hand to let the shark-whale see them from the water. A pretty girl hold me with her arm around my neck, I may forget my holding a fish in my hand.

* * *

I may looking and thinking over that pretty girl, and then a shark jump about eight feet took my fish from my hand and splash water all over my clothes. I hold just the tail of a fish in my hand and the pretty girl go right away after I get wet my clothes and lost my fish.

This trip I learn more how to live right. I should talk and plan first with my business neighbors or my friend before we start to build some thing to make better and to make easier job quick done and build well.

* * *

All my life I enjoyed and like to travel and working. I think I am highest longer miles travel than anybody in Alaska.

Crime Declines Across Country

FBI Reports Slight Dip; Juvenile Offenders Defy Downswing Trend

WASHINGTON (AP) — Confirming preliminary estimates, the FBI reported today there was a slight decline in major crimes in the United States in 1955, the first drop-off in eight years.

* * *

However, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover described the decrease amounting to two-tenths of 1 per cent, as "almost negligible when viewed in the light of the fact that this is the fourth consecutive year that the estimated number of crimes exceeded the two million mark."

STILL HIGH

Last year's major crime total was estimated at 2,262,450 compared with 2,267,250 in 1954.

The bureau made public the statistics in its annual "uniform crime reports," based on data supplied by police departments throughout the country.

* * *

The report said that 1955 crime, despite the drop from the year before, was still 18.7 per cent higher than the 1947-54 annual average of 1,906,260 major offenses.

This, the bureau said, demonstrated that the crime rate has increased much faster than the national population.

JUVENILE ON RISE

"Whereas the national population has increased an estimated 9 per cent since 1950," it said, "crime has jumped 26 per cent—an increase almost three times as great as the population."

The 1955 crime reports reflected these statistics:

One major crime committed for each 73 persons in the general population, with 124,300 criminal attacks on persons, or 470 more than in 1954.

* * *

Hal Boyle Says:

Women's Curiosity Lengthens Their Lives

NEW YORK (AP)—"Would American men, if they talked as much as American women, also live as long, too?"

Dr. Ira M. Altshuler, a Detroit psychiatrist, at least sees this as a possibility.

HIDDEN HOSTILITIES

He has a theory that the big silent male, by keeping his trap shut too much, bottles up his latent hostilities and vexations. But the little lady, when she riles up, gets it out of her system pronto via her vocal cords. She talks herself calm.

Dr. Altshuler, who may fail to emerge as the average American woman's No. 1 pinup hero of the year, also leans to the view men shorten their lives by working too hard to keep their wives happy.

* * *

He points out that the average wife "can rest when she chooses." He says household gadgets and the supermarket have made her life "one long day of leisure."

* * *

KNOW HOW TO REST

There certainly is a great deal of truth in his observation that housewives know the art of resting better than their husbands.

They are never more than 30 paces from a couch or sofa at home and all day long, in between chores, they flop down, stretch out for a few quick moments and take life's load off their minds as well as their feet.

If men had half as much sense, they'd run their life at the office the same way. What makes the tired businessman so tired is that, after a wearing three-hour luncheon, he returns to his job and makes one big decision after another.

What he should do is this: After making a decision, he should stretch out on a sofa for half an hour and rest his huge clashing brain cells. Then he'd be ready to arise and resolve another of those crucial issues that confront him all day long—to hear him tell it.

At the end of a day spent alternately in making decisions and taking siestas he'd return home as full of eager energy as his wife. He'd be glad to take her out more often for a night on the town.

Women worked themselves to death fairly young in the old days. Boredom also probably helped shorten their lives.

The ordinary active housewife today gets more done about the house in a few hours than her great grandmother did in two days. She runs a prettier house, too. But she doesn't stop with that.

The home doesn't circumscribe her universe. She takes more interest in the school her children attend. She takes an interest in the fields of sport, art, politics and culture—and even her husbands's work. She isn't merely a slave to her home, as her great grandmother was. She knows five times as much about what is going on in the world.

* * *

There are proably many reasons why women live longer than men, including the fact they may be basically built of sterner stuff.

But surely one reason for the superior longevity of woman is—aside from her greater commonsense in taking proper rest when she needs it—her superior curiosity. She is actually intellectually more interested in exploring the endless and stimulating variety that life holds.

* * *

Interest is what keeps people alive. Men usually get bored with life easier than women do, and that certainly is partly why they let go of it sooner.

Men in later years have to find a hobby to keep from drying up—and giving up. But with women life itself is their favorite hobby.

BOATING TIME AGAIN — At Square Lake, some boats are all painted, ready for the summer season, and others, like this one, are awaiting their owners' scraping and painting efforts. See New Drop in Farm Income

Agricultural Leaders Say $400,000,000 Less Than in 1955

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Agricuture Department expects net farm income this year to be 10 billion, 400 million dollars — 400 million dollars less than in 1955 when income fell nearly a billion below the previous year.

The department's forecast of probable net income this year takes into account the increased price supports for basic commodities announced recently by President Eisenhower.

The president said that the increased support prices over those previously announced by Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson for 1956 crops would boost farm income by half a billion dollars.

Supports for wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts are still lower than those of a year ago, despite the recent hikes in 1956 support prices of basic crops.

Adding an optimistic note to the gloomy income picture painted by the department, officials said that the projected figures do not take into account possible increases in income that could occur from further changes in farm programs.

Prospects for the remainder of 1956 — according to the department's report on "the farm income situation" — indicate that farm prices, farm costs and farm incomes will likely be maintained fairly close to current levels.

Is Hamburger Slipping?

Lawmakers Rule Out This Undignified Word

Residents of Pleasant Ridge are in a dither here because Edgar M. Fry, owner of the Pleasant Ridge Dairy at 24126 Woodward, would like to erect an 11x6 foot sign, with 14-inch letters spelling out the lowly word "HAMBURGER" surrounded by flashing yellow lights.

Fry maintains his place is being by-passed by customers for places who have the gaudier signs.

City commissioners maintain that the word "hamburger" is undignified and have suggested such names as "Steak House" "Fine Food," "Dairy Bar" and "Snack Shop."

Fry says he has a legal right to put up the sign and only made his plans known to the commission out of courtesy.

In the meantime the commision is planning to adopt an ordinance that would regulate future signs.

Kiwanis to Hear Student Debate

Rochester Ninth Graders to Argue School Policy at Meeting Tonight

ROCHESTER — The vocational guidance committee of the Rochester Kiwanis Club will have charge of tonight's program following dinner at Bebout's Restaurant.

A debate on the topic "A Get Tough Policy Should Be Instituted in Our Schools" will be given by ninth graders under the guidance of Dan Eskin of the high school faculty.

On the affirmative side will be Don Peters and Larry Hill. Mary Stewart and Chuck Stone will have the negative side. Moderator will be Kenneth Koonce.

Plans are being made for the All Sports Banquet on May 7, an annual athletes night sponsored by local club. General chairman is past president George Ennis.

Rochester Civic Center Plan Approved

ROCHESTER—Plans for a Rochester Civic Center—expected to become a focal point of beauty as well as utility for the whole Avon Township area — moved another step forward with the approval by the village council of a preliminary development study of the center.

The plan includes a municipal building with large parking area and, in the future, an open air theater and auditorium.

The long range program provides a swimming pool and games court in the auditorium, and would serve as a hub of the community recreation program.

The entire development area for the site includes 20 acres of land. Of this acreage, 14 acres are presently under village ownership, one-third acre is the site of the Avon Township Library at Fifth and Pine Sts., and the rest is privately owned. Adjacent open land is owned by Avon Township, and is partially developed and maintained as Avon Park.

Design of buildings will take advantage of the natural topography by being built two-level, with one the level of Sixth street and the second level below and opening to the north.

Important to the aesthetic and recreational potentialities of the proposed center is the rapidly flowing, picturesque Paint Creek. Currently village labor has been used for filling, grading and changing the course of the creek which flows through the site.

The stream channel has been relocated and deepened to eliminate danger of future floods. Preliminary work will advance this summer toward the development of a lagoon, and the adjacent plantings and landscaping.

Family Night to Be Wednesday at Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Family Night at the Community Activities Building, 5640 Williams Lake Rd., will be held on Wednesday evening.

A potluck supper will start at 6:30, followed by a short program. Members of a local accordian class will entertain during the evening.

All families in the community are invited to attend, with a special invitation to newcomers.

By EARL WILSON

Boyishly bashful about the latter project, he broke into a wide grin at his Essex House apartment and told me:

EDDIE FISHER

"Debbie's gained one or two pounds—that makes her about 101."

"Are you prepared for fatherhood?" I asked.

"I'd better be. But it does seem funny . . . gonna be a father. Debbie had some gowns fitted for her picture . . . but now . . . well . . . since this happened . . . she had to have 'em fitted over."

"What's the name of the picture you and Debbie'll make?"

"'Bundle of Joy'"—and he grinned sheepishly again. "Debbie keeps saying she'll be able to be in it. She says she can work . . . until 10 to 12 weeks . . . and the baby's not due until Nov. 10 . . . so . . . you know . . ."

Eddie's giving up his New York apartment for their new home in the Pacific Palisades where he, Debbie and the baby will settle down.

"How about it now that you're about to be a father?" I asked.

"Not yet!" he said. "But the day I become a father—when I'm giving out cigars — then you can print it!" And the bashful grim made it clear that it would be a very, very proud day for the singer of "Oh Mein Papa."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Keefe Brasselle and his honey, Arlene DeMarco said they'd bought furniture for their N.J. home . . . Pat O'Brien may play a rabbi on TV's "Crossroads" series . . . Garry Moore's whole TV show will take a three-week vacation in July with Faye Emerson and Skitch Henderson subbing . . . Zarah Norbo, Miss Sweden of '55, flew to San Juan for a naval charity ball.

Singer Peggy Lee on Third Honeymoon

The couple, each 33, were married here Saturday night in a closed movie theater used by a religious group for its Sunday services.

It was Miss Lee's third marriage. She was divorced from guitarist-composer Dave Barbour in 1951 and from actor Brad Baxter in 1953. Martin had been married once before.

Methodists Seek New Ministers for Bigger Flocks

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Hard pressed to keep its pulpits filled, the Methodist Church today readied plans for a sweeping expansion in facilities for turning out new ministers.

The proposals, scheduled to come before the church's law-making General Conference today, call for enlarging the seminary program to graduate 2,800 new pastors a year — up from a past peak of 927.

NEW SEMINARIES

A church study commission recommends stepping up the capacity of the present 10 Methodist seminaries and establishing two new ones.

Bishop Tippett said the church at present needs 1,200 new clergymen a year, to fill vacancies that occur through retirement or death, and will need 1,600 others a year to keep up with church growth.

Bishop Tippett estimates there will be 1,400,000 more Methodists by 1965, worshipping in about 3,500 new churches. This would give the denomination, already the country's biggest Protestant body, about 11 million members in about 43,500 churches.

That's Detroit Honesty

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A Detroit gas company completed a three-year search for a former customer, a newspaperman who began working here 37 months ago. The company presented him with a refund check for 40 cents.

TOUCHY POINT — The Column of Axum, above, in Rome is subject of a current international controversy. The pillar, carved in Abyssinian style, was brought to Rome as a war trophy by Italy's Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, when Mussolini's armies conquered Ethiopia in 1936. The Ethiopian government has formally requested restoration of the ancient monument, while a neofascist group in Rome threatens to destroy it.

Folsom Facing Alabama Voters

'Tepid Attitude' on Race Segregation May Void Convention Chances

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Gov. James E. Folsom and his challenged stand on racial segregation will be the center of attention tomorrow when Alabama Democrats go to the polls.

* * *

MAJOR ISSUE

Voters in the Democratic primary will also elect a national committeewoman and 52 delegates to the Democratic National Convention. They will nominate candidates for Congress, presidential elector and several state and district offices.

The segregation question has been a major issue for convention delegates as well as in Folsom's race against two opponents.

* * *

The delegates will go to the national convention unpledged. An Associated Press poll answered by 46 of the 80 candidates indicated Adlai Stevenson is the choice for Democratic presidential nominee over Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York. Three candidates favored Kefauver; none Harriman.

"HOGWASH" CHARGE

Folsom is opposed by Roy D. McCord of Gadsden and State Rep. C. W. McKay Jr., author of the nullification resolution which Folsom called "hogwash" and refused to sign after it passed the legislature.

* * *

Folsom insists he has always been for segregation and has promised that white and Negro children will never attend grade school or high school together in Alabama "as long as I am governor."

Couldn't Happen Again

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Mrs. Albert Meyer, who solicits business by telephone for her window-salesman husband, picked a name at random and called Mrs. Alex Halbman, a stranger to her. As she hung up, Mrs. Meyer's door bell rang. There was Alex Halbman, selling vacuum cleaners. She recognized his name on his brief case.

Hollywood Headlines:

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Talk about storming the box-office! Jimmy Stewart and Audie Murphy are to be teamed by Universal-International in Norman Fox' powerful Western of Montana, "Night Passage"—and I can hear the exhibitors cheering.

The two biggest grossing pictures in the history of the studio are Jimmy Stewart's "The Glenn Miller Story" and war hero Audie Murphy's "To Hell and Back." Put those boys together—and it's as good as a gold strike.

The glamorous Swede, Anita Ekberg, will offer a Cook's tour of fashion for all those who see her in "Hollywood or Bust" with Martin and Lewis. Anita will wear Edith Head designed clothes appropriate to all the Hollywood show places.

She'll also be seen at all the big hotels, and all the places that the visiting firemen want to see. This is a personal idea of Hal Wallis, and mighty clever, I call it. Anita plays herself of course.

TECHNICAL LAWSUIT

I am very glad that Anne Baxter is not seeking to take the $14,000 house away from John Hodiak's parents. The suit is a technical one because John left no will, and under the law the house would go to his and Anne's 5-year-old daughter, Katrina.

Anne has had a guardian appointed for the little girl and is cooperating to see that the parents get the house which her attorney, Gordon Youngman, says she wants them to have.

I was surprised when he told me it was a technical suit. The parents of Hodiak had stated that they had put their own money into the house in repairs and improvements, and they were apparently very worried.

KATHY TO LECTURE

New Ann Arbor Armory

ANN ARBOR (INS)—The Army says construction will begin within six months on a new $200,000 armory for the Ann Arbor area. It will be located near Pittsfield Township.

Martha Raye Sued for Affection 'Theft'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Martha Raye is "completely shocked" by an alienation of affections suit brought against her by a 20-year-old mother, says the comedienne's attorney.

* * *

The suit was filed Saturday by Mrs. Barbara Ann O'Shea of Westport, Conn., wife of a former bodyguard of the TV star. Mrs. O'Shea contends that Miss Raye gave her police husband Robert money and "costly gifts" while he served as her bodyguard. O'Shea is 27. The O'Sheas have a 15-day-old child.

* * *

"Miss Raye is completely shocked at this totally unexpected action," said Miss Shirley Woolf, the comedienne's attorney. "She has never had any romantic alliance with Mr. O'Shea."

O'Shea also denied the charges brought in the suit.

Smokeless powder was used by the U.S. war department at Sandy Hook, New Jersey, for the first time in 1891.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

There were a lot of "ifs" and "buts" in Rocky Marciano's announcement to quit the ring.

Mrs. Marciano said, "it was his decision." Rocky said his family "begged and pleaded with him" to retire.

"I could be down to fighting weight in two or three months," he said in tending to dismiss the out-of-shape angle for retirement."

Joe Louis "retired" and was "re-retired" by Ezzard Charles and Marciano himself.

"I hope I can profit by others' mistakes," said Rocky, "Joe Louis couldn't make it and there's no reason for me to try," he added.

But only to continue to cloud the announcement, he climaxed this statement by saying he will "TRY to stay retired," leaving any finality in his decision up in the air.

It would seem that way since Jim Norris of the IBC said he thought a September fight would draw a $500,000 gate against any of the five contenders.

Of course Norris made this statement before the Federal government started its investigation of the IBC.

HELPS RELAX PRESSURE ON IBC

Right now Rocky's decision actually takes some of the pressure off the IBC since the government contends Norris and company have practiced monopoly by exclusively controlling championship fights.

Notice that the IBC immediately started making plans for an elimination process of heavyweights. What could be better for the IBC right now than to start the eliminations to show that all of the contenders are getting a fair shake at the crown?

After the number of contenders diminish and until a pretender to the crown is found, what would be better than to have Rocky suddenly announce his comeback?

We can believe Rocky was sincere in his reason of having a debt to his family, but a boxer who has never been beaten in 49 straight fights surely can't give the impression that he is washed up.

We believe Rocky will be back. He himself ended the conference saying "so long for a while."

SERIOUS TALK—John Landy, Australia's crack miler who holds the world's record at 3:58 arrived in San Francisco from Melbourne only to be met with numerous questions immediately upon arrival. He will run in two California races, May 5 and May 12th.

Work Started Today on $4-Million Track

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Ground was broken today for a new 14 million dollar Roosevelt Raceway harness track. It is the first race track construction in metropolitan New York since Belmont Park was built in 1905 and will be ready for the 1957 season.

Chiefs Add CMC Relays to Win String

By H. GUY MOATS

Some of the finest prep talent in the Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania areas attempted to stem the onslaught of Coach Wally Schlaerke's youthful cohorts a week ago Saturday, and failed.

And, on Saturday they went back to Mt. Pleasant to collect, for the second time, the Central Michigan College outdoor relays. Only a few short weeks ago this splendidly balanced track squad captured the CMC indoor event.

Saturday's 70 point title-winning effort was 15 points better than runnerup Lansing Sexton (55½) could muster. It was accomplished, too, under about as bad conditions as could be met. Despite rain, cold, wind and sloppy going the PHS crew drove on its winning way. Flint Northern was third with 46, Arthur Hill had 35½ for fourth place and Lansing Eastern 34½. Birmingham 23, Bay City Central 16½, Battle Creek Central 15, Muskegon Heights 13, Saginaw Eastern 12½, Detroit St. Joseph 9, Detroit Catholic Central 8, Waterford 6½, Midland 6.

Class C section, held coincidentally with the Class A meet, was won by Reed City, defending champion, 53 1-6 points. Lansing Everett took second with 49½ points.

Only one record was set in Class A. That was Hayes Jones remarkable 14.9 high hurdle victory that helped the slightly-built star collect a 16 point total for individual meet honors. Hayes won the low sticks in 20.6 and broad jumped 20 feet 6 inches to take that event. He also ran anchor leg in the shuttle hurdle relay, to place 3rd.

Jones gave a spectacular exhibition in the shuttle event. After an untried sophomore, Jim Kellar, fell on the third last hurdle, Jones was left with a 35 yard deficit. But he set sail and cut down the lost distance by 25 yards. Flint Northern won the event at 1:04, with Ann Arbor second.

Hayes' hurdle mark cut two-tenths of a second off Jim Chesney's 1955 record. The event was run in mud and rain, through puddles that apparently didn't slow the speedy lad a whit.

Chiefs won two relays, tied for 1st in a third one. They won the sprint medley with Archie Brooks (440), Charley Robinson (220), Freeman Watkins (220) and Charley Spann (440). Time was 2:36.

They took the middle distance (mile and a half) event, with Roger Coats (880), Larry Beamer (440), Jimmy Shorter (440) and Bill Douglas (880). Time was 6:16.0 with Douglas' 2:10 as anchor.

Watkins, Robinson, Shorter and Spann tied Sexton for 1st place in the 880 relay at 1:38.8. That was 7 full seconds over the same team's effort at Mansfield.

Perry Williams won the mile in a demonstration of stamina over a waterlogged course. He did it in 4:52.0 with Arthur Hill's Dick Fisher 2nd, some 25 yards back.

Slippery footing gave Chiefs' Hudson Ray and Alex Barge their worst time of the last two years. Ray went out at 5-6, in a 3-way tie with Dick Savage of AH and Bob Stevenson of Birmingham, for 4th. Barge was 3rd at 5-8, Lon Thurston of Midland, 2nd at 5-10 and Joe Thompson of Sexton won it at 5-11.

Saturday was the first time in more than a dozen meets that the PHS pair has failed to get over six feet.

While Schlaerke was happy over the victory, that gave his team its 15th straight meet win in two years, he called it "the most unpleasant meet of all we've had. We're glad to get it out of our systems."

Chiefs meet Flint Northern here on Tuesday at 4 p.m. and then go to Saginaw Arthur Hill Friday for the annual Valley championships.

Peach Blossom Won by Rawls

Betsy 1 Stroke Ahead of Crocker to Capture Hometown Tourney

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP)—Betsy Rawls finally won her hometown's Peach Blossom Open Golf Tournament.

She triumphed in the $5,000 event here yesterday by firing a final round one-over-par 72 that gave her a 72-hole total of 292 and first-prize money of $900. It was her first victory in the 4-year-old tourney established in her honor.

Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., was third. She won $540 with a 295 total after a 74 on the final round.

Marlene Bauer Hagge of Asheville, N.C., was one stroke back of Miss Berg in fourth place. She shot a final 77 for a 296 total and $450.

Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., who had a three-stroke lead after the third round, lost her touch and soared to 81. That gave her a total of 297 and put her in fifth place, where she was tied by Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., who shot a closing 78. Each collected $348.75.

REACHING FOR LONG — Dale Long of the Pittsburgh Pirates evades a tag by Dodger first baseman Gil Hodges as he dives back to first in the first game of the Ebbets field doubleheader which the Pirates won 10-1 and 11-3. Long had to get back to first after Dodger centerfielder Duke Snider collared a drive by Frank Thomas. The double setback knocked Brooklyn out of first place in the National League.

Pirates Blast Dodgers, 10-1, 11-3

Attention Ted Kluszewski. If you don't get back in that Cincinnati lineup and start swinging that home run bat at a $40,000-a-year pace, Wally Post is going to be grabbing the heavy sugar.

Post, a farm boy from St. Henry, Ohio, is a vastly underrated slugger who can hit a ball as far as anybody in the game. They still talk about the ball he hit at Ebbets Field last year in batting practice.

They dug into the record books at Cincinnati yesterday when the 26-year-old outfielder hit four home runs as the Redlegs swept a doubleheader from Chicago 5-4 and 8-4. Only one man, Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals ever hit more. Stan set the record of five on May 2, 1954.

Post also hit one Saturday to make it five in three consecutive games, also one short of the major league record of six held by Tony Lazzeri, Gus Zernial and Ralph Kiner (twice).

With the help of Post's slugging, Manager Birdie Tebbetts' Redlegs finally climbed up to the .500 mark in the won-and-lost column after a sad start. (You may remember that Post struck out four times on opening day.)

The big news of the Sunday results from the point of league standings was Brooklyn's double defeat by Pittsburgh 10-1 and 11-3. The double disaster dropped the world champion Dodgers out of the National League lead while Milwaukee, idle for seven straight days, took over on a percentage basis.

Ramon Monzant, 23-year-old New York Giants righthander from Venezuela, turned in one of the season's best pitched games with a one-hit 8-1 victory against Philadelphia to get the Giants an even break. The only hit off Monzant, who fanned nine, was a first-inning single by Del Ennis off the glove of shortstop Al Dark that drove in a run.

★ ★ ★

Baltimore beat Washington 8-6 with the help of Tito Francona's two-run pinch homer. Hal Smith and Billy Gardner also hit homers for the Orioles and Roy Sievers and Jim Lemon for the Senators. Sievers and Karl Olson also homered in the second game, won by Washington 5-4 on Dick Tettlebach's single with the bases loaded in the ninth.

Brothers Among Gymnasts

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — The United States' Olympic gymnastics squad, the first featuring brothers and the second to be coached by Penn State's Gene Wettstone, set its sights today on the 1956 Melbourne games.

Wettstone, who coached the Olympic gymnastics team in 1948 when Finland won, was named manager and coach of this year's squad yesterday after directing his third straight AAU championships-final Olympic tryouts.

Jack Beckner, 25, University of Southern California graduate student, won an easy first place among the more than 30 entries in the all-around scoring used to pick the six-man team. He finished no lower than eighth in the six qualifying events and received 105.9 points out of a possible 120.

His brother, Dick, 28, a Los Angeles school teacher, finished third with 102.35. Karl Schwenzfeier, 23, of Philadelphia, an Air Force lieutenant and Penn State gradate, finished second with 102.4.

The other three spots went to Abie Grossfeld, 22, University of Illinois freshman from New York City, Joseph Kotys, 30, a Kent State University (Ohio) senior from Cleveland and Armando Vegas, 20-year-old Penn State sophomore from Los Angeles.

Illinois Takes Big Ten Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Illinois moved into first place in the Big Ten baseball race as the campaign opened in inclement weather.

The Illini swept three games from Purdue mainly on relief pitcher Bill Frentz' talents. Frentz put down a 9th inning rally Friday to preserve a 2-1 triumph and finished up both ends of a doubleheader Saturday as Illinois grabbed 6-5 and 7-2 victories.

All ten teams saw action in Friday's openers but two doubleheaders were postponed Saturday as was the second game between Wisconsin and Iowa. Bad weather caused the postponements.

Wisconsin, 6-4 victor over Minnesota Friday, whipped Iowa 2-0 Saturday. The two victories put the second-place Badgers within striking distance of Illinois.

Indiana and Ohio State's defending champions won their openers but were rained out of doubleheaders Saturday against Michigan State and Michigan, both beaten Friday.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Golf's fourth annual Tournament of Champions is a matter of record today and once again the champion of the champions is Gene Littler and his hot putter.

Littler made it a wire-to-wire victory, just as he did a year ago, and his last-round 71 was more than good enough to hold off the final challenge of Cary Middlecoff.

Littler went into the final round with a five-stroke bulge over Cary. At the windup Gene's 281 was four strokes in front of Middlecoff's 70 for 285.

The final duel over the sun-baked Desert Inn Country Club course was a rousing one in the early stages, when Middlecoff pulled up to only two strokes behind Littler on the seventh hole.

★ ★ ★

But Littler's putter made up for his tee-to-green game, and a 19-foot pressure putt for a par on the ninth, and much of the same type of play in the run for home, won the tournament.

Out of the $38,500 purse Littler collected $10,000.

Laine cashed in, too, for the second straight year. He bought Littler in the legal auction in mid-week. He paid $16,500 and then, as last year, sold third shares to two friends, Don Frankel of Los Angeles and Chauncey Needham of San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

Their share from the total auction pool of $192,000 was $69,120. This was a little less than the $72,000 the same partnership won last year.

★ ★ ★

Laine said Littler will get at least 10 per cent, or around $7,000 and probably more.

Crane Athletic Teams in Split

The Crane baseball team plagued by six errors dropped a 5-3 decision in the first game of league play.

Cleveland scored four runs in the fifth inning of an abbreviated six inning game on two hits and four Crane errors.

The Crane tennis team also played a shortened match but was victorious 3-0. Cranbrook wins came in the first singles with Jerry Dobson, and in the first two doubles teams.

Derby Trials to Start Tomorrow

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky Derby will be run for the 82nd time over Churchill Downs' history-steeped track Saturday but right there ends the certainty concerning this renewal of the $125,000-added classic for 3-year-old thoroughbreds.

The picture as to the size of the field, the physical condition of the stars of America's No. 1 turf show and even the name of the probable favorite was indeed a confusing one today as the vanguard of an expected crowd of some 100,000 fans moved into this horse-minded Ohio River city.

Not since Count Turf beat 19 so-so rivals in 1951 has the mile and one-quarter run for the garland of roses been so wide open. And that statement is made with all due respect for Needles, the sensation of the Florida season who has been made the early choice at 2 to 1.

The strapping son of Ponder, 1949 Derby winner, has been idle since climaxing a brilliant winter campaign with victory in the $100,000-added Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

He hasn't even had a real workout unless the mile and a quarter in 2:09 and a fraction last Saturday might be called that. And it took the bay colt's veteran trainer, Hugh Fontaine, a good half-hour to persuade his charge to cut loose with a bit of speed.

The Florida-bred Needles, who'll carry the silks of the D. and H. Stable owned by Bonnie M. Heath and Jack Dudley of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., is so adverse to hard work in the morning hours that Fontaine had indicated he'll bow to the colt's wishes and let him off with a couple of speed tests this week.

Out along the Downs' backstretch, where Needles' intricacies often dominate Derby conversations, there was talk of a field of 14 facing the barrier at 4:30 p.m. EST Saturday. The race will be televised and broadcast by CBS from 4:15 to 4:45 p.m.

But the size of the starting field could well be 15 or 16 or even only a dozen. Swaps beat Nashua and eight others last year while as many as 22 got the word "go" from the starter in 1928 when Reigh Count won.

★ ★ ★

Win Five Titles

Pontiac Netters Dominate

Pontiac's talented paddle-swingers dominated the Oakland County Open table tennis tournament Saturday and Sunday at Webster School, winning five out of ten championships and finishing runner-up in four divisions.

Carol Ryan annexed the women's singles crown by defeating Ellen Tiffany in an all-Pontiac final, 21-14, 9-21, 21-18, 21-14.

Gloria Rose and Miss Tiffany combined to win the women's doubles title by besting Mary Jacober and Miss Ryan in another all-Pontiac final. Miss Tiffany joined a Detroiter, Archie Coffman, to win the mixed doubles title over Miss Ryan and the veteran Perc Secord.

Secord kept the senior men's singles crown in Pontiac by downing Bill Byrnes of Detroit, 21-18, 21-14, 21-16. John Wettlaufer of Pontiac defeated Detroit's George Payotelis to win the junior men's singles title.

Wettlaufer and Waterford's Jerry Kruskie bowed to the Detroit tandem of Payotelis and Leo Griner in the finals of the junior doubles.

Archie Coffman trimmed Bill Rapp in an all-Detroit final to take men's singles, Douglas Andre of Royal Oak defeated Griner to win boys' singles, Rapp and Hershey Miller decisioned Payotelis and Richard Darke for men's doubles honors, and Detroit's Harold Baker defeated Don Williams of Grand Rapids for the novice title.

MUCC Board Convenes

The semi-monthly session will be held at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, with district field representative Kenneth Silver of Genesee in charge.

Fishing and other conservation matters will be discussed. OCSC's Howard Shelley reports. Luncheon will follow the meeting.

By Patty Berg

Immediately after the clubhead contacts the ball with a short iron, it will take a divot—if properly executed. It is important that you contact the ball first and turf afterwards in this shot.

The natural action of the swing after contacting the turf is to let the clubhead follow after the ball. There should be no effort on your part to stop the action of the swing.

CLUB WILL TAKE DIVOT IN SHORT-IRON SHOT

Let the clubhead follow after the ball. Weight shifts naturally from right to left as the club nears the top of follow-through. Hands and arms are swung high and the body faces the objective.

Your weight will shift naturally from right to left as the club nears the top of your follow-through. The right heel will come up from the ground and the entire left side acts as a brace to balance your body.

At the top of your follow-through, your hands and arms will be swung high and the body faces your objective. The head and eyes are the last to move in this direction.

In using the short irons, remember to employ a club long enough to reach your goal. Never underclub yourself and then try to put added power into your swing. If the shot calls for an 8 iron, use it—swinging the club with confidence.

The short irons can make the difference between bogies, pars or birdies in your score. Practicing your short irons can not be stressed enough. The short irons require deep concentration, for you are trying to place the ball in a particuar spot.

Hazards which might lie in the path of your shot should be mentally erased from your mind as you line up your shot, hit it crisply and follow-through to the finish. If you hit properly, these hazards will not interfere with your shot. So eliminate them before you start your backswing.

Remember, the hands and wrists control the short iron swing at all times. Grip the club firmly and hit it a sharp descending blow for best results.

Tigers-Indians Split Twinbill

DETROIT (AP) —The long ball spelled both victory and defeat for the Detroit Tigers in a doubleheader yesterday.

But the only hit that counted was a 10th inning blast by Bill Tuttle into the left field lower deck that wiped out a masterful three-hitter by Score and gave Detroit a 1-0 triumph.

Five Detroit pitchers couldn't stop the assault in the second game as the Indians rocketed five home runs over the fences in an 8-4 win.

* * *

The 22,222 paying patrons who sat through the chilly, rain-doubleheader in Briggs Stadium were treated to a pair of sizzling performances. They saw the 22-year-old Score whiz a third strike past 13 bewildered batters, then lose the extra-inning contest when he grooved a fast ball to the Tiger centerfielder.

They saw a sparkling Detroit defense and gritty clutch pitching shut off three spirited Cleveland threats. And they saw the hometown club's leading pitcher —plagued by arm trouble most of the spring—make his first start an impressive one.

Many thought they might be treated to a no-hit performance in the second game. Bob Lemon, the veteran Cleveland righthander, didn't allow anything that even resembled a base hit through six and one-third innings.

It was Al Kaline, the Major Leagues' leading batter in 1955, who broke it up with a ringing double down the line in left. Lemon weakened in the final two innings, allowing three hits in each of the last two frames.

He had retired two batters and walked Gene Woodling before ex-Tiger Vic Wertz, currently one of baseball's "hottest" hitters, powered the longest home run of the day into the upper right field deck above the 390-foot mark. Al Smith followed with a shot into the left centerfield seats to send the Indians off to a 3-0 lead.

CLOUTS ONE—Tiger outfielder Bill Tuttle slammed a 10th inning homer with two outs to break up a pitching duel between Herb Score of Cleveland and Detroit's Bill Hoeft to give the Tigers a 1-0 victory in the first game of a doubleheader at Briggs Stadium yesterday.

Smith got a round-tripper in the fifth off Virgil Trucks, scoring two runs ahead of him. Trucks got himself into trouble by hitting Bob Avila with a pitched ball and walking Wertz. Young Hal Naragon got the fifth Cleveland home run—a one-run blast in the sixth.

Madelans Leads St. Mary

Orchard Lake St. Mary's thinclads Sunday afternoon, on the home field, swamped a Mt. Clemens St. Mary team 94 and 2-3 points to 14 and 1-3.

The near-shutout was engineered by a series of 1st places in all but the 220 yard dash and a tie in the 180 low hurdles.

Pete Madelans' 13½ points was the meet's individual tops, but the only double winner was Stan Majewski who took the broad jump (19 feet 9½ inches) and the high hurdles (17.1) plus 3rd in the low sticks and a part in the 880 relay team's win.

Madelans won the pole vault (9 feet 6 inches) tied for 1st in low hurdles, was 2nd in the high sticks and ran on the winning half mile relay team.

Sprinters Best at Drake

DES MOINES (AP) — Sophomore sprinters Dave Sime of Duke and Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian are capable of cracking the world record of :09.3 in the 100-yard dash.

That is, the opinion of Drake Relays Director Bob Karnes who watched Sime take the Drake record down to :09.4 in a sensational duel with Morrow in a cold rain and upon a water-logged track last Saturday.

"They have all the potential and I think both can do :09.3 or better," Karnes said, adding:

"And I think, too, both Sime and Morrow will be U.S. representatives in the 1956 Olympics."

Sime's remarkable dash broke the oldest Drake Relays record. A :09.5 romp by the late Roland Locke of Nebraska in 1926 had stood up through the years except for matching performances by Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette in 1932 and Jesse Owens of Ohio State in 1935.

The Duke flash was voted the "outstanding athlete" of the relays in a poll of experts. He received 22 of 25 first-place votes. Two went to Ted Wheeler, Iowa distance runner, and one to J. W. Mashburn, Oklahoma A&M's dash and middle-distance star.

However, Bob Gutowski of Occidental College bettered the pole vault record of 14 feet, 6 inches by soaring 14-8¼. The event was held in the field house but Gutowski's figures will be listed as a Drake record, carrying the notation, "held indoors."

Other individual winners Saturday: Joe Savoldi, Michigan State, 120-yard high hurdles, :14.2; Bill Nieder, Kansas, shot put, 54-11¾; Dick Haddon, Occidental, high jump, 6-6½; Kent Floerke, Kansas, hop, step and jump 47-0; Phil Conley, California Tech, javelin, 207-6½; Phil Coleman, Chicago Track Club, invitational mile, 4:19.

Straits Bridge Work Resumes Schedule

ST. IGNACE (AP)—Work on the Mackinac Straits Bridge continues on schedule.

A spokesman for Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp., which holds the contract for the substructure, said there are 400 men at work on the job now and employment will reach a peak of about 1,000 this summer.

Soft Spots Mar Stock Advance

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market advanced today but there were soft spots in major areas in the early afternoon.

* * *

Many individual issues were strong, and some minor groups were buying favorites. Gains of 1 to 3 points were rather frequent, and some went on to around 6 points at times. There were losses amounting to about a point.

* * *

Trading and quite fast initially and then slowed somewhat to a pace less than Friday's 2,760,000 shares. A rush to buy at the opening put the tape behind as much as two minuutes for a short time. Demand was a reflection of Friday's strength that resulted in the best showing in more than a month.

Cement stocks, which were outstanding Friday, were higher today. Meat packers, active and higher Friday, enjoyed an early buying spate and then became quiet.

Only Old Beans Escape Decline

CHICAGO (AP)—All gains except old crop soybeans declined on the Board of Trade today in the wake of the heaviest and most widespread rains in many months over the grain growing territory.

Much of the loss was recorded right at the start as commission houses had fairly large selling orders on hand when the market opened. Thereafter a little rally got under way but it did not suffice to get prices back to the previous close.

May and July soybeans were exceptions to the main trend. They opened on gains of a few cents in response to a report of heavy soysbean crushings during March. Most of this gain was lost in subsequent dealings. New crop soybeans had an easier tone from the start.

Wheat near the end of the first hours was ¾ to 1¾ lower, May $2.35¼; corn ½ to 1⅞ lower, May $1.50⅛; oats ¼ to ¾ lower, May 65; rye ¾ to 1½ lower, May 1.29½; soybeans 3 cents lower to ½ higher, May $3.15¾, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $14.12.

Milford Residents Injured in Crash

Three members of a Milford family remained hospitalized today with injuries suffered in a Saturday afternoon accident at the intersection of Farmington and 14 Mile roads. Three others were hurt in the collision.

Most serious of the injured was 10-month-old Joette Weikle with a fractured skull. Her sister, Phyllis, 8, received a fractured left collarbone and multiple contusions. Mrs. Sabina Weikle, 25, mother of the girls, is being treated for a fractured left wrist and minor head injury.

Slightly injured in the two-car accident were Mrs. Jean Fulks, 27, and Emilio Genta, of Walled Lake, and Norma Dykes, 10, of Milford.

Mrs. Fulks and Genta were the drivers of the vehicles which collided, according to Redford State police. They reported the cars crashed while going through the intersection during the heavy rainstorm.

Red Cross Will Discuss Mutual Aid for Disaster

Two new policies in disaster preparedness activity of American Red Cross will be discussed when a five county mutual aid meeting is held Thursday, May 10 at the Oakland County Chapter House on Franklin Blvd.

At a recent meeting of staff representatives from Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and Genesee and Monroe counties held in Detroit, it was agreed that unless the home chapter is affected by disaster, the chapter executive will go to the scene to give aid and to report available personnel and material resources of the chapter.

First aid teams from the five counties will automatically travel to the stricken area if it is within a 60 mile radius of the home county.

Officials stress the importance of close cooperation with state police and the great need for more amateur radio operators in all of these counties.

In time of disaster, telephone lines are not always available. Sometimes the amateur radio operators are the only means by which disaster teams can keep in touch with what is going on, chapter members report.

G-Man Testifies in Graham Trial

Agent Contends Alleged Bomber Did Not Give Reason for Action

DENVER (AP)—An FBI agent who heard two confessions from John Gilbert Graham says the 24-year old murder trial defendant never did explain exactly why he blew up an airliner that plunged his mother and 43 others to death.

Graham has since denied the truth of the confessions, which the FBI said he gave last Nov. 13-14.

The trial entered its 13th day today with continuing testimony from Special Agent James R. Wagoner, chief questioner for the FBI when Graham made his admissions.

A typewritten, signed statement by Graham and an oral confession as related by Wagoner were placed before the seven men and five women jurors Saturday over defense objections. Entered as direct evidence, they give the state grounds for demanding the death penalty when the case goes to the jury — probably the end of this week.

DESCRIBES BOMB

Graham is charged in the death of his mother Mrs. Daisie E. King, 55. In the confessions, he said he stuffed a 25-stick dynamite time bomb in her suitcase before it was stored on a United Air Lines plane that exploded last Nov. 1 near Longmont, Colo., 11 minutes after leaving Denver.

After Graham signed the confession, Wagoner said, he asked him why he bombed the plane.

"Graham said he didn't know—said he couldn't remember why," Wagoner testified.

"He denied he did it to inherit her estate," he added. "Graham said he wanted to kill himself five years ago and he believed maybe he did this because he wanted to end his life. He said if he caused the crash he would be found out and his life ended. He said if he was not found out he intended to tell someone and his life would be ended."

Hardware Store Looted in Weekend Burglary

Oakland County Sheriff's detectives began investigation today into a weekend breakin at a Telegraph Road hardware store. Several articles of merchandise were reported missing.

Two outboard motors, a portable typewriter, several guns and fishing reels, a plastic gun case, and traveler's clock were among the articles alleged to have been stolen from Anderson Hardware, 2182 So. Telegraph Rd., Bloomfield Township. The store is owned by Keith Anderson of Detroit.

Sloan Foundation Offers $56 Million in Value for Sale Tomorrow

NEW YORK (AP)—A massive block of 1,278,833 shares of General Motors Corp. common stock, worth more than 56 million dollars at current prices, is slated for public offering after the close of the market today.

* * *

It is a secondary offering. The stock is being sold—not by the world's biggest car manufacturer—but by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation to diversify its portfolio of securities.

A nationwide syndicate of underwriters, headed by Morgan Stanley & Co., hopes to obtain clearance from the Securities and Exchange Commission later today to permit a formal offering before the market opening tomorrow.

The shares to be offered for sale came to the Foundation on the recent death of Mrs. Alfred P. Sloan Jr. She was the wife of the recently retired GM board chairman.

The Alfred P. Sloan Foundation is a non-profit corporation organized in 1934 to provide financial support for approved projects administered by educational, scientific and charitable institutions.

Bomb Blast Victim on 'Satisfactory' List

* * *

Police said they had no clues as to who had placed a homemade bomb on the Dixon front porch at nearby Englewood.

Dixon was hurt seriously, and his sister and two aunts suffered minor injuries when a box containing the bomb was opened in the living room of the Dixon home Saturday evening.

Dixon, a University of Dayton student, had planned to wed Miss Sarah Louise Pfarrer, 21, Saturday.

Waterford Man Hit by Auto on Dixie Hwy.

Pontiac State Police said John Beahan, 47, of 2747 Silverside St., did not require hospital treatment.

Auto Death Is Ruled Probably Accidental

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today the death of a Ferndale man in his parked car Friday night was "probably accidental," but investigation will continue.

Ziem said an autopsy by Dr. Richard E. Olson of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital indicated Pleasant Lillard Graham, 31, had died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

But Ziem said the gas tank of Graham's car was empty, and the ignition had been turned off before he was found.

Ziem now theorizes that Graham turned off the key when the car ran out of gas, but remained in the car and died of the cumulative effects of the gas. There was no indication of a struggle, he said.

Offshore Waters Cause Problem

Nations' Ownership of High Seas Still Disputed Throughout Globe

WASHINGTON — International jurists are seeking an answer to a puzzle as old as the saga of seafaring: How much ocean can a nation call its own?

Under modern theory the high seas belong to everybody. By time-honored precedent a nation may control no more of its offshore waters than an eighteenth-century cannon could shoot—one league or three nautical miles. In actual practice nations throughout the world are putting "No Trespassing" signs on coastal belts extending from four to 200 miles from their mainlands.

Some neighboring nations think that is bending the principle of freedom of the seas too far. Out-of-bounds waters present a particular problem to far-ranging fishermen and planners of hemispheric defense. In an effort to settle the intricate problems of oceanic geography, however, the United Nations this year will receive proposals from its International Law Commission for new rules befitting present-day conditions.

World seas were not always free and common to all nations, the National Geographic Society says. Nearly every great maritime power, at one time or another, staked a claim over immense areas of water. In some instances alien ships had to call at certain ports, and pay ceremonial honor to the "mistress" of the seas.

EXCLUSIVE HIGHWAY

The first Phoenicians no doubt considered the Mediterranean Sea to be their exclusive highway. At the height of its power as a city state, Venice looked upon the Adriatic Sea as a private lake and levied tribute upon foreign ships. The Roman Empire, after victory over Egypt, claimed the entire Mediterranean as Mare nostrum or "Our Sea."

Ocean-grabbing became flagrant in the sixteenth century. Spain and Portugal literally divided up the waters of the New World. When Great Britain ruled the waves, the North Atlantic was referred to as the "English Sea." The right to claim sovereignty over high seas was not questioned.

A Dutch jurist, Hugo Grotius, so forcefully enunciated the principle of freedom of the seas in 1609 that it was gradually accepted by all nations. His compartriot, Cornelius van Bynkershoek, is credited with popularizing the cannon-short rule.

* * *

Today, fewer and fewer nations accept the three-mile limit. It is unlawful, for instance, for foreign fishermen to drop nets within 12 miles of Soviet Russia, Colombia, or Guatemala. Chile, Ecuador, Peru and 70-mile-wide El Salvador claim 200-mile belts in the Pacific Ocean.

Pontiac Man Injured When Car Is Rammed

Injured when his car was rammed in the rear while waiting for a traffic light at S. Saginaw and E. Wilson streets Sunday morning, Phillip F. Bruno, 33, of 6 Sheffield Dr, was released after treatment in Pontiac Genreal Hospital.

The other driver, Barbara Brazier, of 1028 LaSalle St., was not injured, Pontiac police said.

TO NEW POST—Albert F. Nufer is being transferred by the U.S. State Department from the post of Ambassador to Argentina to a similar post in the Philippines.

Spaniards Helping U.S. Wives to Cook

MADRID — When hundreds of American engineers, servicemen, and contractors began arriving in Spain to build United States air bases, their wives faced a problem.

Few, if any, of the women could cook Spanish meals or buy the ingredients, because of language difficulties.

A Government agency, the Spanish Olive Oil Institute, stepped in and started a free cooking school under Don Jose Sarrau, a noted chef.

The women soon realized that the Spaniards had an ulterior motive—every recipe they learned called for either olive oil or sherry wine, Spain's principal exports to America.

Head Bump Suffered by Woman in Mishap

Only a forehead bump was suffere Sunday night by Vola J. Holder, 43, of Detroit, whose car struck a tree off Hess street, authorities said.

She was released after treatment in Pontiac General Hospital.

The U.S. death rate from Pneumonia has dropped from around 55 per 100,000 inhabitants in 1935 to around 8 per 100,000 a year today.

News in Brief

Driving while under the influence of liquor resulted in a $80 fine and costs of $15 Saturday for a Northville man, David McIntosh, 22, paid the court after pleading guilty to the charge before Justice Herman Roth of Walled Lake.

Pleading guilty to a charge of dumping on the highway, Robert C. Werstine, 19, of Redford Township, was committed to the Oakland County Jail for 60 days. He was arraigned by Justice Allen C. Ingle of Farmington Township.

Raymond J. Rust, 28, of Clarkston, was fined $35 with $15 costs after pleading guilty to reckless driving Saturday. He was arraigned before Justice Willis Lefurgy of Waterford Township.

Pleading guilty to a charge of possessing beer, Robert Garrison, 19, of 274 W. Brooklyn Ave. Saturday was fined $30 and jailed five days by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Gigantic TV Industry Is Changing Social and Economic Habits

(Ten years have passed since the first commercial television stations sent out their "rain-streaked" pictures to a handful of viewers. What has the first decade of this revolutionary medium meant to viewers, to the stars? Following is the first of six articles.)

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
INS Staff Writer

* * *

It's the nation's biggest postwar industry, a multi-billion-dollar phenomenon of the jet propelled age. It is changing the social and economic habits of 165,000,000 Americans. It has radically and dramatically altered the lives of entertainers.

TV claims some resounding successes — the expansion from three television cities in 1948, New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, to 430 stations today covering all 48 states; audiences that the networks say run as high as 70 million for an event like a presidential address.

This has been a fabulous decade for TV, but the brickbats have been flying with the bouquets.

* * *

The comedians complain about "overexposure" — appearing too often — and nurse ulcers brought on by a frantic battle for ratings in audience polls.

Irate parents, educators and clergymen have complained about "overexposure" on the part of some bosomy actresses, and the inclusion of too much crime and violence at times when children watch.

BALKS AT COLOR

* * *

Major networks, which used a lot of talent ready-made for them in other entertainment media, can't always hold on to the stars TV itself develops. Grace Kelly, Eva Marie Saint and Charlton Heston, among others, made their reputations on TV and then moved on to Hollywood.

TV, in spite of its trials and tribulations, has grown greatly in strength and popularity in the past decade—particularly in the last eight years.

Great stars such as Arthur Godfrey, Ed Sullivan, Milton Berle, Phil Silvers and Lucille Ball have been built up into household names and agree that TV is the greatest entertainment medium.

* * *

Entertainers aren't the only ones to recognize the potentialities of TV. Sen. Estes Kefauver, now a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, was virtually unknown nationally until the televising of crime hearings by a Senate subcommittee he headed.

PRESIDENT'S CHOICE

President Eisenhower, whose roster of advisers includes one on television, actor Robert Montgomery, has indicated that his campaign for reelection this year will be conducted largely via TV appearances.

* * *

Such events have been ready-made for television. But TV's first 10 years have been marked by a great deal of experimentation, technically and in program content.

Sports, including wrestling, and old, cracked and crackling movies were a major part of the fare in the early years of TV. Today there are plenty of ancient movies televised, but there are 90-minute shows that cost hundreds of thousands of dollars to produce and are months in preparation.

Recently a new Laurence Olivier movie, "Richard III," had its American preview on TV — three hours, and in color for the handful of people with color sets.

* * *

TV is now available to about 97 per cent of all homes in America, according to Harry Ommerle, vice president in charge of CBS-TV programs.

All of this is a far cry back to Feb. 12, 1946, when NBC's coaxial cable from New York was hooked up with Washington, D.C., putting the nation's capital on the TV map.

* * *

(Tomorrow: Ed Sullivan reveals that talent he got for $200 in 1948 can command $50,000 today.)

Creative Patient in Hospital Bed for 28 Years

DENVER (AP)— For 28 years Isadore Berman has kept a pledge to himself not to become dulled by long hospitalization.

At 63, Berman is still a patient at American Medical Center which he entered when he was 35. He is still under care for tuberculosis.

As librarian at the hospital since his admission, Berman not only has kept track of 17,000 volumes but has learned to play the piano and violin, taught himself to read Spanish, Greek and Italian, among other things.

Capital Boasts Historic Areas

Names Like Gettysburg, Valley Forge Highlight Scenic Spots

WASHINGTON — Historic areas surrounding the nation's capital, highlighted by such names as Valley Forge, Gettysburg, Mount Vernon and Appomattox, are combined in a fact-filled 10-color wall map just issued by the National Geographic Society.

The most comprehensive portrayal ever made of the region, the map spans 350 years of events since the English landed at Jamestown in 1607. It was timed to serve the Society's more than two million members as springtime roads lead to Washington and the historic places of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Virginia.

Containing nearly 4,000 words of descriptive facts, the work combines "a map and guide book," says James M. Darley, the Society's chief cartographer. Titled "Round About the Nation's Capital," the map is the 34th supervised by Darley during his 35 years with the Society. It is the 137th published as a periodic supplement to the National Geographic Magazine.

Research assistants to the 17 cartographers who drew the map collated information from many sources into the 303 notations. The Society's previous map of the reaches of Washington appeared in July, 1938, and a pocket map of greater Washington in September, 1948. There was this difference: the earlier ones were essentially location maps. The new one packs historical facts alongside place names, and covers a much larger area.

* * *

Present - day America takes shape visibly among the names harking back to pre-Revolution and Civil War periods. Highways, railroads, tunnels and airports are designated, while notes on principal cities relate their major attractions and history. In one instance, the map peers ahead in time: completion of the Baltimore Harbor Tunnel to expedite motor traffic north of the Capital is scheduled for 1958.

Disabled Composer Safe —Returns Home Alone

* * *

His wife, who had filed the missing persons report with police, called back to say that her husband had driven in the driveway at dawn. She hung up without giving details.

Governor's Driver in Three-Car Crash

DETROIT (AP) — An automobile driven by Gov. Williams' chauffeur was involved in a three car accident yesterday in which two persons were injured.

Sgt. George C. Kerr of the Michigan State Police, the Governor's chauffeur, was alone in the vehicle. He had driven Gov. Williams to a banquet in Detroit.

Police said the car Kerr was driving and one driven by Richard Hage, 29, of Riverview, collided first. Hage and his wife, Gertrude, 28, both were injured. Kerr's car then collided with one driven by Stanley Nowakowski.

Kerr was questioned by Detroit police and released.

Traffic Deaths Touching Peak

Safety Council Predicts New All-Time Record Due During 1956

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council says the nation may be headed for a new all-time record of traffic deaths in a single year.

The March death toll was the highest in history.

* * *

If the present trend continues, the council observed, the 1941 all-time record of 39,969 deaths may be surpassed in 1956.

The March toll was 2,960—320 more than March 1955 and 94 higher than the previous record of 2,866 for the month, set in 1937.

13TH MONTH

It was the 13th consecutive month of increased traffic deaths. The toll for the first three months of 1956 was 8,590, second highest first-quarter total on record. The record first quarter total of 8,615 deaths was set in 1937.

The mounting rate of traffic deaths prompted Council President Ned H. Dearborn to declare a "traffic accident emergency." He wired each state governor to urge an "all-out effort" to curtail traffic accidents.

UNITED EFFORT

He also sent the traffic toll records to the President's Committee for Safety in advance of four regional conferences to be sponsored by the committee in May. The first meeting convenes tomorrow in Atlantic City with follow-ups at Miami, Chicago and San Francisco.

"These might well be called emergency conferences. The death toll certainly underscores the urgency of these public support meetings," Dearborn declared.

* * *

Dearborn called on the driving public to make a "United effort" to cut down the death rate.

Despite the growing national toll, the council said 15 states and 155 cities have reduced traffic fatalities so far this year.

'Fifth Disease' Virus Isolated in Lab Studies

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Discovery of the virus causing a strange "fifth disease" in children was reported today to the Society of American Bacteriologists.

* * *

The fifth disease is erythema infectiosum, so called because it can be mistaken at times for measles, German measles, scarlet fever or another rash disease, roseola infantum.

MORE COMMON

Erythema infectiosum, hitting in epidemics, brings a harmless reddish rash on the face and other body parts. It may be more common than supposed.

The virus causing it was isolated from secretions of sick children, said Doctors Georges H. Werner, Albert Ketler, Philip S. Brachman, and Geoffrey W. Rake, of the University of Pennsylvania.

* * *

The virus can be grown in monkey kidney tissue, just like polio and other viruses. This will aid in understanding how it's related to other virus diseases like measles—maybe from a common parent virus — and in making a vaccine if one is needed.

Soviets Lower Gates for German Citizens

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union says it is flashing a green light for any West Germans living in Russian Territory to go home if they want.

* * *

West German Ambassador Wilhelm Haas told the Russians April 22 that 1,000 Germans still were prisoners in Russia. He handed the Russians a list of the names and exact addresses, compiled over a period of years with the help of repatriates and German organizations.

"In the event of its being established that this list of persons includes German citizens wishing to leave for the German Federal Republic," the note said, "repatriation in such circumstances will not meet with any obstacles."

Bermuda has a natural fish aquarium, known as "The Devil's Hole," which gets its water supply from the ocean through a subterranean passage a quarter of a mile long.

Plan Thumb College

BAY CITY (AP)—Cost of a two-year college serving Bay City, Saginaw and Midland has been estimated at $8,000,000 for construction and $1,000,000 a year to operate. A survey committee reported it could be financed by a 15-year bond issue pledging $1 per $1,000 tax levy each year above the present $15 school-county limit.

Winner Gets Dirt

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (INS) —The prize to be awarded the winner of the "Miss Atomic Energy" contest in Grand Junction May 10 is—naturally—a truckload of high grade uranium ore.

The truckload of "dirt," however, will be worth about $500.

Ike Asks Americans to Join Wilson Tribute

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower has called on Americans to join in honoring Woodrow Wilson centennial anniversary of his birth this year.

In a formal proclamation, Eisenhower hailed the World War I President as a leader who "gave to this nation and to the world a concept of peace based on justice and freedom and supported by the brotherhood of man."
