Oakland Whips Deficit

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.
An open letter to the money-troubled Michigan legislators:

You think the state has a deficit. So did Oakland County yesterday — until its supervisors did something about it. And it was only a matter of minutes before the deficit was erased and a new balance blossomed.

Supervisors' jaws dropped when Mrs. Genevieve C. Schock of Berkley — the flower of the Board of Supervisors — reported that the Board's flower committee spent more than it took in last year.

Does this ring a bell with any of you legislators in Lansing?

However, no cries of "we'll have to mortgage the courthouse fund" rung out in the Supervisors' Room Monday. Instead, the age-old custom of passing the hat was invoked.

Although Mrs. Schock modestly asked for unspecified "voluntary contributions," fellow Berkley Supervisor John G. Semann moved that supervisors kick in two dollars apiece.

'ROW' STARTS

"You're out of order," shouted Sydney Frid of Northville.

"Are you declaring a moratorium for state employees?" inquired Donald L. Swanson, chairman of the Michigan State Fair in addition to his duties as supervisor and mayor of Southfield.

But Swanson dug deep and produced two greenbacks for passers-of-the-bags (with all the men on the board not one volunteered a hat) Faye H. McCartney and Elizabeth W. Mitchell, members of Mrs. Schock's "Sack 'em Committee."

When the money was counted, Chairman Schock beamed a wide smile, reporting $162 had been dropped in the bags. (Some county officials helped bulge the kitty as there were but 75 supervisors on the floor.

So things once again looked rosy for Oakland County's once-wilted flower fund.

"We'll be as economical as we possibly can," promised Mrs. Schock. Such economy, of course, will depend on how many county officials are taken ill or pass to the great beyond.

EXAMPLE SET

You see, legislators, something can be done about a deficit.

By the way, Mrs. Schock's committee spent $138.49 while taking in only $134.19, for a "whopping" deficit of $4.30.

"And the funds were audited," Mrs. Schock was quick to add.

So stick with it legislators, if Oakland County can get rid of a $4.30 deficit you should be able to handle one of... say, what has it come to now?

Williams Fails to Settle Crisis Tiff With Beadle

Dash Hopes of Avoiding Another Payless Day for State Employees

LANSING (UPI)—Hopes for avoiding another payless payday were dashed today when Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair) failed to reconcile conflicting views on Michigan's cash crisis.

"It was more or less a sparring match" the Senate GOP leader said after a 15-minute meeting this morning with the governor.

Beadle insisted the state administrative board, which disclosed yesterday it could delay a payment to schools longer than expected, was not justified in ordering a payless payday for 28,000 workers Thursday.

In another development early today, Senate Republicans were looking again into the possibility of using money in the liquor fund to tide the state over until new tax revenues come in.

The meeting followed these developments last night:

—Williams paid a rare personal visit to the Senate to apologize to Beadle for keeping the Senator waiting most of the day and for a telegram that was printed in newspapers before it reached Beadle.

—Confusion among Williams' cabinet on the deadline for payment of a $35,500,000 bill prompted Republicans to renew claims that the cash crisis is a hoax.

—The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill to "unshackle" the treasury by allowing transfer of cash among funds.

—Senate Republicans rejected Williams' offer to draft a bipartisan tax program in return for Senate action to cash in the veterans trust fund.

—A bill to tap the federal government for $5 million dollars to pay next year's bills made its appearance in the Senate.

Both Beadle and Williams spent most of their time yesterday in separate discussions on whether Michigan actually has a dollar shortage.

There was considerable confusion yesterday when state treasurer Sanford A. Brown admitted up until last Wednesday he thought $35,500,000 in primary school interest money was due May 15.

Auto Passes Safety Check

RECEIVES HIS STICKER—Orrin P. Huntoon Jr. of 124 Osceola Dr. (seated in the auto) was one of the first to have his car safety-checked yesterday at the start of the five-day annual May vehicle inspection program in Pontiac. Looking on are (from left) George D. Eastman, public safety director; Harold Marshall, Robert Flynn and Clifford Metty, all members of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce Traffic and Safety Committee which co-sponsors the safety check with the Pontiac Automobile Dealers Assn. The safety check lanes will be open from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. and 5:30 p. m. to 8 p. m. until Friday in five areas throughout the city.

Khrushchev Has Sole Authority to Deal for Reds

President Also States Ideas on Steel, Policy, Political Issues

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today a summit conference will be a foregone conclusion if the foreign ministers conference opens the way to easing East-West tensions.

The President also told a news conference once again that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is the only man who can deal authoritatively for that country.

Eisenhower was asked how much progress there would have to be at the Geneva foreign ministers conference beginning Monday to justify a later meeting at the summit.

The President said that he wasn't in a position to give a specific reply, but does hope for some progress at Geneva.

Any development there which gives enlarged hope for decreasing East-West tensions would mean, Eisenhower said, that a later summit session was a foregone conclusion.

The conference brought these comments from Eisenhower on other matters:

STEEL—In the long run, the United States can't stand idly by and do nothing about any new wage-price spiral which might stem from the industry's negotiations with its workers.

Eisenhower said anew that he deplores the idea of any government intervention or move to control wages and prices as contrary to the American system.

TRUMAN—Asked whether he feels former President Harry S. Truman has been evading his invitations to the White House, Eisenhower replied he wanted to make one thing clear. Whenever he invites anyone on a personal basis—as distinguished from a formal invitation—he always emphasizes he will understand if the man invited is unable to attend.

POLITICS—The President said he hopes the 1960 Republican presidential nominee will win even more votes in the South than he did in 1952 and 1956.

He had been asked whether he thought Vice President Richard M. Nixon or New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller could do as well as Eisenhower did in the South.

The President touched off a round of laughter by asking the reporter whether he had any candidates other than Nixon and Rockefeller. There are other possibilities (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Postmaster Objects to 'Girdle'

Downtown Mail Space Too Small

Is the government planning a federal building here that will be crowded and incapable of expansion?

Present plans for remodeling the old main post office into a federal building indicate this may be the case.

The two-story building at E. Huron and Perry street is now under control of the General Services Administration (GSA), which is currently in the process of dividing up the first floor for future use of three agencies—the Post Office, Internal Revenue Service and Social Security.

It's the 10,000 square feet of floor space on the first floor that is causing the most concern.

Present GSA specifications call for 4,985 square feet to be used for postal purposes and 4,221 by the two other agencies, with the rest devoted to corridors.

The specifications are in the hands of the architectural firm of Heenan & Pollar Inc., which is designing the remodeling.

PM PROTESTS

The space is being divided on the basis of present needs.

Robert C. Miller, acting Pontiac postmaster, said present postal operations downtown could "barely" fit into the space allotted.

"It would be like squeezing a new girdle onto an old bulge," he said.

Miller said there would be no extra room for handling extra-heavy mail at Christmas time. Nor would there be room for handling any additional carrier routes, he said.

The downtown office handles the bulk of Pontiac mail—everything east of Johnson avenue.

Although the new post office on

W. Huron street does more business, most of its activity is for the benefit of the areas outside of Pontiac that are served here.

Crowded facilities downtown could mean later mail service for the downtown section and some homes, Miller warned.

Sorting service for new Pontiac routes would have to take place at the westside office, farther away from the delivery points he explained.

Miller doubted whether the post office could maintain a 24-hour self-service station in the federal building under present plans.

Under the GSA plan, the Office of Internal Revenue is scheduled to leave the office it is renting at 65 Oakland Ave.

This spot, which the Internal Revenue Service has been using for about a year, is generally considered the most attractive Internal Revenue office in the state.

The office serves populous southeastern Oakland County, as well as Pontiac and surrounding areas east to Rochester, and west to Walled Lake.

The space provided by the GSA in our present location is satisfactory and allows sufficient room for expansion," said Lyle D. Russell, administrative superintendent of the Pontiac office.

But the Internal Revenue Service is concerned about whether it could expand existing services if it moved to the federal building.

Its concern is so great that the GSA has given it permission to negotiate with the architects for more space.

Design of the first-floor quarters have undergone two revisions so (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Lynch Victim Found in River

Negro, Kidnaped From Poplarville Jail by Mob, Identified by FBI

BOGALUSA, La. (AP)—Two peace officers dragged the body of Mack Charles Parker, the Poplarville, Miss., lynch victim, from the receding waters of the Pearl River near Bogalusa Monday.

The FBI in Washington announced identification of the bleached body.

The gruesome discovery by an FBI agent and a Mississippi highway patrolman pinned down the fate of the 23-year-old Negro, charged with the rape of a pregnant white woman.

It didn't lead officers any closer—apparently—to the hooded mob that kidnaped Parker from his jail cell in Poplarville on April 25, two days before his trial was scheduled to start.

The FBI agent and his companion spotted the head, one arm and a shoulder above the water line in a drift three miles south of the Poplarville-Bogalusa bridge across the Pearl River.

Miller Chosen by Ike for City Postmaster Job

President Eisenhower today nominated Robert C. Miller to become Pontiac's postmaster.

Miller, who has been acting postmaster since February of 1958, was recommended to the White House by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield in January from among 10 local applicants.

The nomination is now subject to Senate confirmation.

Miller, 31, of 194 N. Berkshire Rd., Bloomfield Township, is one of the youngest postmasters serving a major office.

Oakland's New Judges Fitted for Robes

THE NEW LOOK — Four of Oakland County's newest Circuit Court judges were measured for their black robes yesterday by Monroe M. Osmun, Pontiac haberdasher, in the office of Judge William J. Beer. Being measured first is Theodore F. Hughes, who will ascend the bench for a six-months term July 1. From left are Stanton G. Dondro, Osmun, Hughes, Frederick C. Ziem and Judge Beer, who is already on the bench but getting robes of his own for the first time since he was appointed last August. Dondro and Ziem will begin regular six-year terms Jan. 1, 1960.

Winnie Comes to See Voters to Pick 2 for School Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sentimental journey has brought Sir Winston Churchill to Washington once again "to see some of my comrades of wartime days." Sir Winston, now 84, stepped slowly and carefully from President Eisenhower's personal plane Monday as Eisenhower and a crowd of about 500 persons welcomed him at Washington National Airport.

But his voice was clear and vigorous. The Churchill wit was there too.

"I always love coming to America, but I shall not say—as most people who are traveling nowadays about the world seem to do—everything I think," he remarked.

Eisenhower grinned, and the crowd laughed, at this apparent

Voters to Pick 2 for School Board

May 11 Is Deadline for Nominating Petitions; Election Is June 8

Two seats on the Pontiac Board of Education will be at stake in the annual Pontiac School District election June 8.

Nominating petitions for candidates are available at the Board of Education offices, 40 Patterson St.

Deadline for returning the petitions to the Board offices is 4 p. m. Saturday. They must bear the signatures of 50 registered voters.

Expiring are the terms of Board members Monroe M. Osmun, manager of Osmun's Men's Wear stores, and the Rev. J. Allen Parker, pastor of the Newman AME Church. Both plan to seek re-election.

Board members are elected to four-year terms. The deadline for registering for the election in the City of Pontiac is May 11. Registration may be made in the city clerk's office at City Hall.

In outlying areas of the Pontiac School District, the registration deadline is May 29.

Shah Out Courting Women and West

LONDON (AP)—The Shah of Iran today began an official visit to Britain reportedly with two unofficial problems on his mind—a future wife and closer ties with the West.

The moment the dark-eyed, twice-divorced potentate stepped off his train, some of the very people who could make those dreams—if they are his dreams—come true, appeared before him. Standing in spring sunshine in the center of a quarter acre of red carpeting at flag-draped Victoria Station were:

Pretty Princess Margaret, Queen Elizabeth II, Prince Philip, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, and two of his cabinet members.

Nobody in London is suggesting a romance between the 39-year-old Mohammed Shah and the Church of England princess.

bassy, and go to New York for several days before returning to England.

British Embassy officials said Sir Winston's remarks at the airport are the only public statements he plans to make during his visit.

Eisenhower greeted Churchill as "my dear friend of wartime days" and, recalling that Sir Winston's mother was American, said "We claim at least the maternal side of him."

Churchill agreed that the United States is "my mother's" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

News Flashes

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Weather Bureau today forecast severe thunderstorms for portions of southeast Wisconsin, northeastern Illinois, Lower Michigan and northwestern Indiana.

The alert said, "Thunderstorms are expected to develop in southeastern Wisconsin this afternoon and move southeastward. A few of these thunderstorms are expected to become severe in an area along and 60 miles either side of a line from Madison, Wis., to Goshen, Ind., during the period from 1 p. m. (CST) to 7 p. m. today. Large hail and damaging surface winds are expected with intense thunderstorms."

LANSING (AP)—A constitutional amendment to abolish the Michigan Senate was urged here today by a top national labor leader.

"We have enough here to start a ground swell in that direction," Emil Massey, secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers, told a meeting of union jobbers here today.

Grand Rapids Ousts City Manager Oakes

GRAND RAPIDS — City Manager Donald M. Oakes was fired yesterday and replaced by his deputy, Alfred H. Rypstra.

The City Commission discharged Oakes by a 4-3 vote in the afternoon and approved Rypstra by a 6-1 vote last night. Oakes had been city manager since 1953.

The commission gave no formal explanation for Oakes' ouster. Oakes said it was because of his policy toward the police department but a leader of his opposition denied this.

Oakes charged he was fired because of "my backing of the police department and their vice, numbers, dope and prostitution raids."

He was a member of the Episcopal Church.

Surviving are two sons, Eric and Alfred, both of California; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Horton of Milford and Mrs. Enne Walz of Lapeer; one brother and two sisters, all in England, and seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Nacker died Monday at his home. Before retirement he had been employed as an engineer at the Cadillac Motor Co., Detroit.

Surviving are his wife, Pearl; The family requests memorials be given to the Michigan Heart Assoc.

Slayer Electrocuted After 10 Years Delay

BELLEFONT, Pa. (AP) — Cleveland Thompson died Monday night in Pennsylvania's electric chair for slaying a Pittsburgh bartender nearly a decade ago.

Thompson, 36, was strapped into the chair at Rockview State Penitentiary at 10:02 p.m. and pronounced dead at 10:05 by Dr. J. G. Weikel.

An unsuccessful appeal to Gov. David L. Lawrence for executive clemency last week ended a series of court appeals and 10 reprieves that delayed Thompson's execution for 9½ years.

The State Pardon Board last month denied a request for commutation of sentence, to life imprisonment.

In two trials, Thompson was convicted of slaying Pittsburgh bartender Wallace Russell on Sept. 13, 1949. At each trial he was given the death sentence.

Cleary College Booms

YPSILANTI — Cleary College President Owen J. Cleary says enrollments at Cleary this spring jumped nearly 14 per cent over the same period a year ago. He said the bulk of the college's enrollment came from seven southeast Michigan counties with "a high percentage of this group native to Washtenaw County."

Sponsored by the YMCA Physical Education Committee, the clinic on Friday and Saturday will be open to persons between the ages of 26 and 65.

Dr. Cureton is director of the physical fitness research laboratory at the University of Illinois and served for 12 years as a faculty member at Springfield College.

All interested persons may register in advance for the physical fitness testing part of the clinic at the 'Y'. Cost of a reservation is $10.

Lena Charges Record Could Ruin Her Career

NEW YORK (AP) — Singer Lena Horne has gone to court to try to stop sales of a record album that she says is so technically deficient it would hurt her career.

Miss Horne said in a suit filed Monday in State Supreme Court that her voice and Harry Belafonte's were recorded separately and their voices were united later in duets by technicians of the Radiop Corp. of America.

When she heard the result, she said, it was so bad as to be "irreparably damaging to my career." She is seeking $100,000 damages and a temporary injunction halting sales.

OK School but Not Pool

DUNDEE (AP) — Voters in the Dundee School District, a Monroe County farming community, approved 584-347 Monday a $1,350,000 bond issue for an addition to Dundee High School. Rejected 506 to 417 was a $225,000 bond issue for a high school swimming pool.

Township to Choose Winner in Penny Vote

Seek 5 'Miss Orion' Finalists

LAKE ORION — A number of attractive prizes and a queen's title await the winner of the "Miss Orion of 1959" contest which will reach a climax Thursday evening with the selection of five finalists by a panel of four judges.

Sponsored by the Orion Community Center, Inc., the contest will take place at 8 p.m. in the Orion Township Hall on M24 just south of the village limits.

To be eligible to compete a girl must be single and between 17 and 21 years of age.

Entrants may bring their application forms to the township hall the night of the contest if they haven't turned them in before then.

Mrs. Louis Gudemoos and Mrs. David J. Johnston, co-chairmen of the event, said today.

Residents of the township will pick the winner by buying votes for their favorite candidates at a cost of a penny apiece. Canisters for the girls will be placed in a number of stores and shops throughout the township.

TO CHOOSE MAY 28

Miss Orion's identity will be revealed at a Fashion Show to be staged May 28 at the State Theater on S. Broadway St. Some 40 models will show the latest clothing and accessories from Ellen's Bridal and Specialty Shop.

Ticket chairman is Mrs. Harold C. Fox.

The queen will receive a white evening dress, evening bag and shoes, a two-piece nylon children negligee set with slippers and a year's supply of hose.

The lucky title holder will preside over the Lake Orion Centennial Spectacular July 3, 4 and 5, will help officiate at the local post office dedication on the Fourth and ride in the Memorial Day parade.

In addition, as a queen Miss Orion will be eligible to ride in the State Fair opening day parade, compete for the "Miss Michigan State Fair" title and be a candidate for the Romeo Peach Queen crown.

Former AF Soloist to Sing at Utica High

UTICA — Bob Kerns, a former soloist with the "Singing Sergeants" of the United States Air Force Band, will be featured in a recital at 8 p.m. Friday in the auditorium of Utica Community High School.

Kerns is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kerns of Pontiac, formerly of Utica. His father still has his offices in Utica.

The young vocalist recently gained national recognition by his three appearances on the Ed Sullivan Show. In 1957 he was the winner of the Grinnell Opera Scholarship.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Kerns plans to continue his studies abroad later this year.

The recital is sponsored by the Utica Community High School Music Department. Reserved seat tickets may be purchased from high school band or chorus members.

Oxford, Avondale Vote Mill Hikes

Board of Education members in the Avondale and Oxford-Area Community School Districts both can go ahead now with adoption of their next year's budgets after receiving voter approval yesterday.

Royal Oak Gets 2nd School Vote

7-Mill Issue Defeated in March to Be Offered on June Ballot

ROYAL OAK — Voters will be asked again to approve a seven-mill tax for school building and operating expenses.

Superintendent of Schools James C. Covert yesterday received 335 petitions bearing 4,022 signatures from members of the HOPE (Help Our Public Education) Committee.

The group has been circulating petitions for the past two weeks to get voter approval to have the tax increase issue put on a June ballot.

A similar proposed millage increase was defeated 7,876 to 5,810 in the March 2 school board election.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Don Currie said the signatures are now in the process of being verified. The school board has 60 days from the time the petitions were submitted to put the issue back on the ballot.

of millage hikes for school operation.

Voters in the Oxford School District favored a proposal to raise five additional mills for school operation by a 125-vote margin. The tally was 597 to 472.

The proposal carried primarily in Precinct I where voters cast their ballots in the Oxford Junior High School. There the millage increase was approved by a vote of 497 to 347.

In Precinct II where the school electorate voted in the Addison Township Hall, the proposition lost out by 25 votes. The count there was 125 "no" to 100 "yes."

The Board had asked for the millage increase to maintain the present school program with some improvements and to care for the anticipated growth in student enrollment.

TO PAY DEFICIT

The extra millage also was needed, school officials said, to help pay off the existing deficit which will amount to $90,000 over the two-year period which ends June 30.

Should the proposition have been defeated, the alternatives were possible closing of one or more elementary school buildings and curtailment of special department programs on the high school level, they added.

Another eventually could have been half-day sessions, Board members had warned the electorate.

The additional millage will be levied for three years.

The Avondale Board had asked the voters to authorize the transfer of six mills being dropped from the building fund to the operating fund for the next five years.

4-1 MARGIN

Casting their ballots in two precincts, the school electorate favored the millage transfer by a vote of 427 to 91. The margin was over four to one in both polling places.

In Precinct I, 222 persons cast votes approving the proposal while 34 opposed it. In Precinct II those who favored the transfer outnumbered those against it by a vote of 205 to 57.

Endorsed by the Board of Education and the Citizens Committee, the extra millage for operation was needed, both groups said, to forestall curtailment of school operations and services.

It will also be used to pay off short-term loans and return the district to a pay-as-you-go system of financing after years of deficit spending, school officials had told the voters before yesterday's special election.

Davisburg Gets Scrubbing Down

Jaycees Spark Effort to Spruce Up Village, Remove Eyesores

DAVISBURG — The village had a face-lifting last night when the Junior Chamber of Commerce kicked off its cleanup campaign.

The Springfield Township Fire Department gave the streets a good scrubbing with the fire hoses and the Jaycees painted their newly-acquired building in preparation for its grand opening as a used furniture retail outlet.

Jaycees and firemen worked together in razing the old mill site, eliminating the old mill and thick brush which constituted a blight on main street here.

A Jaycee-sponsored village dance will be held June 6 at the Park Pavilion. At that time winners in the cleanup contest will be announced.

Prizes will be offered by the merchants to residents and civic groups judged to have done the most work toward rejuvenating the village.

The new barbershop, replacing the one that burned down recently, also is nearing completion.

Police Nab Man

in 115 M.P.H. Chase

UTICA — A 39-year-old Utica man who tried to outdistance a pursuing Romeo State Police car at speeds up to 115 miles per hour came out second best early this morning.

John O. Cosart of 11591 Diamond St. was lodged in Macomb County jail, Mount Clemens. He was to be arraigned today on a charge of reckless driving. Troopers also said he had been drinking heavily.

The chase started on Hall road east of Utica and continued for about four miles, troopers said, at 115 miles per hour.

It was not until Cosart entered the city limits and tried to elude his pursuers on side streets that he was forced to the curb, police said.

Battle Against Pests Under Way Again

WASHINGTON — The perennial battle against crop-destroying insects is getting under way again as the spring season brings new life to farm fields.

The agriculture department's pest control division reported today outbreaks of grasshoppers in some sections of California, cutworms in Alabama, greenbugs in Texas, Hessian fly in Nebraska, the chinch bug in Texas and Kansas, the army cutworm in Nebraska and the corn earworm in Arkansas.

Zero Celebrates Birth of Twins; She Can Take It

ALTONA, Man. (AP) — Zero, a cow, is recovering with nothing worse than a severe hangover today after celebrating the birth of her twin calves by drinking two gallons of antifreeze.

Her owner had left the liquid in a bucket in his barn after draining it from a tractor. Zero decided it was just the thing to quench her thirst after the blessed event.

The farmer called veterinarians, agriculture department representatives and even the poison center at Winnipeg Children's Hospital seeking an antidote. None could be found. So Zero sweated it out.

Polio Clinic Slated at Clarkston Schools

CLARKSTON — The Sashabaw and Pine elementary schools' PTAs are sponsoring a joint polio vaccine clinic at Pine Knob School tomorrow.

The clinic will be open from 1 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. All inoculations in the series, including booster shots, will be available at a cost of $1 each.

Children whose parents have signed the necessary waivers will receive their polio shots during the afternoon session.

Jeanne Talpos, Ferndale High, and Elaine Helen Coulton, Royal Oak Dondero High School.

"This is a new type award," reports Paul D. Bagwell, director of scholarships. "They were made to those students who in our judgment should be able to quality at the end of their first year for the new Honors College."

The Honors College is a universitywide, flexible program at MSU for students of high ability.

Recipients of the honors scholarships were selected from students who recently competed for Alumni Distinguished scholarships and General Motors scholarships and whose scores were sufficiently high to recommend them for the new awards.

Valedictorians and salutatorians are also considered for the awards.

Honors scholarships cover the tuition fees for four years or 12 terms at MSU. The students are required to maintain a satisfactory grade level as prescribed by the university's scholarship committee.

Williams' Current Suggestion Strikes New Low for Governor

Governor G. Mennen Williams is still plunging madly down hill. His current "offer to compromise" on the tax muddle in Lansing is pretty silly. It has all the earmarks of a "WILLIAMS solution."

"If Republicans will give in completely on using the Veterans Trust Fund, and let me have my way 100 per cent, I will agree to discuss the tax program which I am struggling to cram down their throats. I will approach the whole thing WITH AN OPEN MIND."

Well, isn't that sensational!

Does Newsprint in Color Appeal to You?

Would you prefer your newspaper on colored paper? You can have it that way. It isn't very hard.

Studies have been made by a group of "experts" who seem to believe that we should frequently use a soft shade of green—or, a light brown with a green ink.

Startling?

Perhaps it is, but that's the way of the future. The paper makers can produce any shade, the business requests. It's more or less a matter of indifference to them. On certain special occasions The Press has used colored paper. We employed green several times and used peach once or twice. Special advertising sections and tabloids have been printed on colored stock.

We don't aim to be revolutionary about this, but we're alert to the future and you'll never find us lagging behind the parade.

Just out of curiosity, how would you like a sort of "dotted Swiss?"

U.S.-Mexico Discuss New Farm Labor Pact

A commission representing both the United States and Mexico is meeting in Mexico City to work out terms for the renewal of the 1952 farm labor treaty which will expire in June.

To meet farm labor shortages during World War II, Congress authorized the importation of Mexicans and West Indians under international agreements. That program still is being continued on a reduced scale to meet seasonal needs.

Mexican farm workers are supposed to be paid the prevailing wages but often they are willing to work for less than Americans. There have been complaints that they compete unfairly with domestic migrant labor.

Both Mexican and U.S. unions are pressing for a voice in the proceedings and the U.S. Department of Labor, which administers the foreign worker program, is said to be in favor of higher wages. Labor Secretary JAMES P. MITCHELL points out that under Federal supervision new and better wage standards have been established for Mexicans, housing and food have improved and transportation bettered.

Even so, all migrant labor is far down the economic scale and has been called the most neglected group in our economy. A minimum wage law which would apply to all migratory workers is being sought as a means of combating exploitation.

If his opponents will surrender completely on Proposition A, WILLIAMS will review the tax problem with them and THEN DO WHAT HE PLEASES. SOAPY, you've outdone yourself. Only you could think of this as a "compromise."

The trust fund constitutes the Republicans' greatest wedge, so, WILLIAMS naively suggests his opponents surrender their biggest weapon and leave him with all his own guns intact—at which time he will "agree to discuss the whole thing with an open mind."

"Whose open mind?" we ask timidly. WILLIAMS? Phooey!

"Sic semper tyrannis."

David Lawrence Says:

U.S. Can Learn From Churchill

PARIS—What memories Winston Churchill can bring to Washington this week! If he is philosophically inclined, he can point up the fallacies of our times in terms of the lessons of history.

Just 40 years ago in Paris, while writing about the peace conference, this correspondent learned about the already famous British statesman who had occupied during the latter days of World War I the position of First Lord of the Admiralty, corresponding to secretary of the Navy in the United States.

Alongside him was another young man—Franklin D. Roosevelt, then assistant secretary of the Navy—who spent much of his time in London working out the details of the all-important blockade of the English channel against enemy submarines.

Roosevelt was proud of that assignment and of what was accomplished, and he once talked to me at a luncheon in the White House about the true significance of that military maneuver which helped to shorten World War I.

But, going back before that war to the days of 1912, the newspapers were filled with comments about Churchill's suggestion of a "naval holiday." It was my first experience with the concept that armament might be limited by international agreement.

The proposal, of course, failed because the dictatorship in Berlin then wouldn't agree, just as there is no chance of agreement today with the dictatorship in Moscow.

"SPHERES OF INFLUENCE" Maybe it was the difficulties encountered by the League of Nations in the 1930s which led Winston Churchill, when World War II was nearing its end in Europe just 14 years ago this week, to suggest in an article in "The Saturday Evening Post" that perhaps there should be a return to the system of alliances and that "spheres of influence" might well be recognized.

But the pressure for a United Nations finally prevailed in 1945, only to be superseded soon in large part by a system of alliances now known as the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, on one side, and, on the other, as the Warsaw Pact set up by Moscow to form a defensive alliance among the "captive" countries behind the Iron Curtain.

Today it is a "balance of power" which again keeps the peace of the world, and, in a sense, the old European theory has been vindicated. But some of the newer ideas show signs of even bigger momentum.

Thus, President Wilson proclaimed the ideal of "self-determination" for all nations, and this tended to encourage the smaller countries to gain their independence from the big powers. The sentiment persists today in Africa and in Asia as nationalism moves on painfully, though persistently, to achieve its ends.

The problem presented not so long ago in Hungary and even today in Tibet is much the same as it used to be. The underlying hostility against dictatorship and against the enslavement of whole nations of people remains in a world that is still far from peaceful after two world wars.

Maybe also Sir Winston will soliloquize on the strange vicissitudes of life. For on his 23rd birthday, while a correspondent in the Boer War in 1900, he wrote to a relative in New York: "There is so much I want to do in the world and so little time for me to do it."

For Sir Winston, because of his father's frail health, never thought he himself would live to a ripe old age.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Cholesterol Business Will Soon Be Forgotten

A reader sent me a newspaper clipping which stated there is good evidence that the nation "might well find a reduction of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) by cutting the fat intake in half."

Arteriosclerosis is rare in nations of low-fat diet, such as Japan and Korea, the clipping said. It was suggested that people should exclude from their everyday diet or use only a minimum of cream, margarine, butter, fatty meats and solid fats for cooking. The use of liquid oils for cooking was advised. It was added that milk, however, is a fine food.

My piece in the same paper, maybe the same issue, said that butter, milk, cream, animal fats, egg yolk, liver are the high cholesterol items. "I feel sorry for the poor soul who likes these foods but excludes them or restricts his use of them because cholesterol may be 'deposited' in arteries, heart, joints etc."

The reader who sent me the two clippings wants to know, who is right.

WHAT ABOUT INDIA The observation that arteriosclerosis is rare in Japan and Korea warrants the inference that cholesterol causes cardio-vascular (heart-artery) degeneration and that coronary occlusion or thrombosis should be rare in India. Coronary degeneration, however, is as frequent in India as it is in America.

The clipping did not allude to the fact that Japanese and Koreans, prior to American invasions, have walked a good deal where Americans ride or just sit. Nor was the influence of the cocktail and the highball considered.

Although the amount of cholesterol in the blood varies widely in health, some specialists regulate the patient's diet by the level of cholesterol in the blood—as determined by periodic chemical tests. In my opinion this is highly questionable practice.

Cholesterol is a normal, physiological constituent of the blood; there is some cholesterol in every cell in the body; and no one can say arbitrarily that a given level of cholesterol in the blood (milligrams per hundred cubic centimeters) indicates whether or how much meat, milk, eggs or butter the patient may have.

Within the next 10 or 15 years the cholesterol business will have been forgotten, just as the red meat theory of the 11th century is now forgotten.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a signed self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

People Should Have a Say in State Money Raising

The Legislators in Lansing are really making a spectacle of themselves. Dr. Dempsey, news analyst, says the cry will be raised to do away with political parties, but I think he is planting this idea for someone else, although the actions of some politicians may add fuel to the fire.

The people should certainly demand a special election to have the right to make a choice of how needed money should be raised. We the people had better flood Lansing with letters to this effect now.

Workers and welfare people, especially, should write to the Governor since it is the Democrats who are holding out against putting it to a vote.

Majorettes Honor Pontiac's Name

The Land O'Lakes majorettes, soon to start the busiest season of parades and contests that they have ever had, will also start with a new name.

To honor the new Pontiac car they call themselves The Pontiac Star Chiefs. Their parade costumes will be bright yellow with full Indian headdresses in varied bright colors. For contests, they will wear a blue and gold military uniform with West Point hats and white plumes.

From now on until the end of December, they expect to appear in front of more than 250,000 people and travel all over the Middle West in their appearances. Any girl eleven years or older with some experience in majorette work can still enlist in the parade unit of the corps. Call Mrs. Dahl MU 4-3794 for further information.

But He Passes Up Two Chances

HST Would See Winnie

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry S. Truman hopes he'll see Winston Churchill during the British statesman's American visit, but he already has turned down two chances to do so.

One invitation came from President Eisenhower, asking the former President to attend a White House stag dinner in honor of Churchill Wednesday night.

Truman said "I was already tied up."

The other came from the British Embassy, inviting Truman to lunch there with Sir Winston the same day. Truman said he could not make that either because of prior engagement.

Truman's schedule sends him to New York Wednesday afternoon for a series of events leading up to a celebration of his 75th birthday anniversary Saturday.

There has been a definite coolness between Truman and Eisenhower since the 1952 campaign. Truman has never been back to the White House.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, disclosing the stag dinner invitation, said Eisenhower has invited Truman to attend various ceremonies several times previously.

He mentioned the ceremonial interment of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery last year, the 10th anniversary of NATO last month.

Reporters asked Truman if he really couldn't go to the dinner or just didn't want to go.

"I said I couldn't go," he said with a laugh. "You can put any interpretation that you like on that."

3 to 15 Years in Jail

For the theft of $4.55 from a Hazel Park gas station, Larry Morgan, a 22-year-old Ferndale parole violator, was ordered returned to Jackson Prison for a term of from 3 to 15 years yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

Judge Adams sentenced Morgan, of 741 E. Marshall St., after reminding him that the burglary he had pleaded guilty to April 29 was his third felony and that it was a violation of parole.

2 State Men Ruled Dead in Canada

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—The two Western Michigan men who disappeared last Nov. 6 on a plane flight were declared dead by the British Columbia Supreme Court yesterday.

The court acted in the disappearance of Clarence T. Janik of Cadillac, father of five children, and Frederick E. Royce of Grand Rapids, father of two.

Janik and Royce, businessmen, vanished on a flight between Calgary and Kamloops in a twin-engine Piper Apache plane. Apparently they crashed in rugged mountain country. No trace of the plane ever was found.

Acquaintances said Janik had $100,000 in life insurance and Royce $50,000. The court ruling permits the families to claim the insurance.

Paris Plaster Job Fails

West's 'Wall' Not So Solid

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

With the Geneva foreign ministers conference only days away, cracks in the West's so-called solid front continue to be distressingly evident.

Despite assurances from Washington, London, Paris and Bonn that the Western ministers would be in full agreement by the time they meet Soviet foreign minister Andrei Gromyko in Geneva on May 11, it also is evident that not one of the Western powers has switched from the basic hands that produced disagreement in the first place.

Last week U.S. Secretary of State Christian Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Minister Maurice Couve de Murville met in Paris in a pre-conference session designed to erase their differences.

The result was a vaguely described "package plan" to be presented to the Communists, wrapping up as a whole the questions of Berlin, German reunification and European security.

Each one of these has defied solution singly.

Yet we now propose to settle them together.

Further, it has been admitted that for its "package plan" the West has no alternative proposal.

Yet, from the Western position it is difficult to see how there could be much room for compromise.

DEMAND WITHDRAWAL

The Russians have demanded that the Western Allies remove their 10,000-man occupation force from West Berlin or face the possibility of war.

They have said that on May 27, or on a date soon after that, they will turn over to their East German satellite land and air controls to West Berlin. And they have demanded agreement on some kind of plan for Germany as a whole, on the threat that, in the event of failure, they will conclude on their own a separate treaty with East Germany.

The Western Allies position now is that we will not be driven from West Berlin by threats.

The United States, France and West Germany believe that no new agreement is necessary on West Berlin where Western troops now are stationed both as a result of post World War II agreement and by request of the West Germans themselves.

The British, with the same end in view, would be willing to negotiate on Berlin if it would encourage a larger agreement.

On German reunification, the Russians speak of "confederation"—meaning international recognition of a permanently Communist East Germany under some kind of loose economic and cultural link with West Germany.

Two Rescuers Rescued With Boy in Ravine

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A slippery, slimy slope slew 'em in Elysian Park Monday.

First victim was Tracy Smith, 12. He skidded into a steep ravine. There was no climbing out. Witnesses called an ambulance.

Ambulance attendant Sidney Krueger leaned over the edge. Oops, he slipped. Down he went, on top of Tracy. Two down.

Ambulance driver Ray Barry peered over the brink. His feet went out from under him and there they were, the three of them. The heavy grass was too slick to climb.

A fireman's rope got 'em out—unhurt.

Paw Paw 100 Years Old

PAW PAW (UPI)—aw Paw has planned a week long centennial celebration next August 16-22. A pageant of the town history will be presented every evening of the celebration.

Any other arrangement would be totally unacceptable to the Russians whose greatest fear is a unified, hostile Germany.

The British would negotiate on some sort of military disengagement in Europe, possibly leading to a neutral zone. Such a plan is opposed by the U.S., France and Germany on the basis that it could only lead to new advantages to Russian forces vastly superior in manpower.

Many Western diplomats already are predicting freely that the Russians will reject at once the Western package plan.

Christian Herter's job is twofold: first, to parry the bayonet thrusts of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, and second, to prevent the Western wall from crumbling from within.

Sentence Wixom Man in Theft of 2 Autos

Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams yesterday sentenced Ray V. Miller, 33, of 29922 Old Plank Rd., Wixom, to a prison term of 1-to-5 years for the theft of two cars.

Miller, an ex-convict, pleaded guilty April 20 to stealing one car from the Lincoln-Mercury plant in Wixom, stripping it of its parts, selling them, and then stealing a second car. A neighbor noticed two cars in Miller's garage and called police.

To Fire Animal Into Space Soon

Will Ride in Nose Cone of Jupiter Within 60 Days, Says Medaris

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The United States will fire a live animal, probably an ape, into space within the next 60 days, says the chief of the Army's space program.

Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the Army Ordnance Missile Command, did not say what type of animal would ride in the nose cone of a Jupiter missile, but he indicated the best guess would be a monkey.

He told of the coming venture at a news conference Monday.

The launching will be another step in the program aimed to put a man in space. An effort will be made to recover the nose cone after it plunges earthward through the atmosphere.

Medaris was asked to comment on the True Magazine article which said the Soviet claim of firing its 'Lunik' probe past the moon was a "big Red lie."

"I have enough positive information," Medaris said, "to state that there was an instrumented object out there in space where the Russians said it was."

An underground four-story garage is located below Union square in San Francisco and the garage attendants, like firemen, use metal poles to slide between the various parking levels.

$234,000 Paid Estate of Plane Crash Victim

NEW YORK (AP)—The estate of a man killed in the Midland, Mich. plane crash a year ago has received a $234,000 settlement believed to be the highest of its kind.

Papers filed in Westchester County Surrogate's Court yesterday disclosed the out-of-court settlement.

John K. Weiss of Harrison, N.Y., an executive of the Fund for the Advancement of Education, a Ford Foundation subsidiary, was among 44 passengers killed in the crash April 8, 1958.

He left a wife and five children, and his estate sued Capital Airlines on grounds of negligence.

Oregon has about one-sixth of the timber that remains standing in the U.S.

What Became of the 11, Mr. K?

Khrushchev Questioned on Fate of U.S. Airmen Shot Down Sept. 2

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev himself has been asked what happened to 11 American airmen whose plane went down over Soviet Armenia last September.

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson discussed the matter with the Soviet premier Monday on orders from President Eisenhower.

Details of their discussion were not made public. But presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said "The ambassador's representation dealt particularly with the President's concern for the fate of the 11 members of the crew who are still missing and unaccounted for."

Seventeen men were aboard the unarmed C-130 transport plane when, this country alleges, it was shot down Sept. 2 by Soviet fighter planes near the Turkish border. The plane admittedly was off course and inside Soviet territory.

The Soviets returned six bodies to American authorities. They insist they don't know what happened to the rest of the crew. They denied attacking the plane.

Three months ago the U.S. government made public a dramatic tape recording of what it said were radio voices of Soviet fighter pilots as they closed in on the American transport.

The Kremlin denounced the tape recording as a farce, a fraud and a forgery.

Find Boy, Missing During Tornado Alert

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—A missing boy alarm gave Wichita a second emergency during a tornado alert Monday night.

About 500 persons got thoroughly soaked while searching in wind, rain and darkness for David Merritt, 4, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert K. Merritt.

When the tornado alert sounded, Mrs. Merritt headed for a neighbor's storm shelter, carrying a 6-month-old son and leading her other four boys.

David didn't reach the shelter. Hundreds answered radio appeals for searches.

Two hours later the frantic mother checked a house across the street, where no one was at home.

David was inside, safe and dry. "He's okay," the family doctor said, "but he's coming down with the mumps."

The mother was treated for shock.

Nasser Lashes at Reds for His Own Protection

(This is the second of three dispatches explaining Gamal Abdel Nasser, president of the United Arab Republic, and his policies.)

By WILBUR G. LANDREY

CAIRO (UPI)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser attacked Russia and the Communists because they challenged his leadership of the Arab world.

Western money could never have bought the fury that Nasser has now turned against Nikita Khrushchev and the Reds. The Eisenhower Doctrine was a flat failure as far as the Arab world was concerned.

Many in the West have expressed surprise at Nasser's attack on the Soviets but a leading Western diplomat here commented: "The turn against the Communists could have been predicted. Nasser acted according to the book."

The "book" called for opposition to any outside interference in the Arab world. Some Western diplomats here long predicted Nasser and the Russians would clash when the Communists penetrated too far in the Arab Middle East.

SHOWDOWN INEVITABLE
As the Communists gained in Iraq and challenged Nasser's hold on Syria, a showdown became inevitable.

When Nasser rose to power, his first enemy was the "imperialist" West which then occupied bases in Egypt and elsewhere in the Arab world.

He refused to join the Western anti-Communist pact and fought to drive Western soldiers and influence out of the area.

His mission was to unify the Arabs into an independent force. By his victories over the West, he made himself the symbol and leader of a resurgent Arab nationalism.

Like the neutralism of India and Yugoslavia, Nasser's positive neutralism opposed membership in either world bloc. But there were differences.

India spoke softly and tried to lessen tension by promoting compromise on both sides. When Russia withdrew aid, Yugoslavia turned to the West for help.

At the beginning, Nasser's enemy was the West alone. His friend was Russia, which supplied the arms and aid he was unable to get from Washington, London or Paris.

Daily, the Cairo radio and press lashed out at the Western "imperialists" and reported new Western "plots" against Arab nationalism.

When Nuri Said linked Iraq with the West in the Baghdad Pact, Nasser organized the other Arabs against him.

ASKS WORLD SUPPORT
When the United States withdrew its offer of aid to help build the Aswan High Dam, Nasser hit back by nationalizing the Suez Canal.

When Israel, Britain and France attacked Egypt, Nasser called on world public opinion for support and turned military defeat into diplomatic victory.

When the Eisenhower Doctrine was announced, Nasser fought it as another attempt to draw the Arabs into the Western bloc.

He also fought King Hussein of Jordan and King Saud of Saudi Arabia, who opposed Nasser-style nationalism and leaned toward the West.

But Nasser never joined the Soviet bloc. From the early days of the revolution he ordered sporadic crackdowns on Communists at home. He insisted he was "neutral."

And when the Communists began to gain power in Iraq after the July revolution and challenged Egypt's union with Syria, Nasser proved his consistency.

He condemned Communist penetration as bitterly as he had Western "imperialism."

Massive Soviet aid did not deter him from attacking Khrushchev when Russia tried to interfere. The honeymoon was over.

As Nasser often said: "Never did we mean to exchange one imperialism for another."

Craze Engenders New 'Disease': Hula Hoopitis

TORONTO (AP)—If your youngster develops mysterious pains, may be too much hula hooping. Dr. Z. H. Zaidi, chief of pediatrics at Ottawa General Hospital, cites several case histories in the Canadian Medical Assn. Journal to illustrate "some hazards of this unusual form of exercise."

A girl, 7, had such sharp pains in the chest, legs and neck her mother thought she had rheumatic fever. An 11-year-old developed fever, sore throat and dizzy spells. A boy the same age had excruciating leg pains.

A few questions proved that all three children had indulged in strenuous hula hoop sessions. Dr. Zaidi said the pains from too much hooping can be practically identical with those usually indicative of pleurisy, appendicitis, rheumatic fever or osteomyelitis.

Bob Considine Says:

Red Spy Students 'Suffer' by Living Like Americans

NEW YORK — Breathes there a reporter with a soul so dead, who never to himself has said, "I wish the story had been true."

The story, in this instance, concerns the Ukrainian town of Vinnytsa (pop. 30,000).

There, according to an article in a Swedish military journal, since denied officially by the U.S.S.R., the Soviet Union had established a school for spies earmarked for eventual service in the U. S.

There they learned to speak American, rather than English, drove Cadillacs (all Americans have a couple of Cadillacs in the barn, the Kremlin is sure), argued Democrat-Republican politics, baseball, juvenile delinquency, Hollywood, television and learned to smoke cigars and drink bourbon. It would have been interesting to see the results. It takes no particular imagination to conjure a movie, a play or a novel about such a town, and the corroding effect of the American way of life on the sturdy apple-cheeked comrades who reported for schooling there.

They all pass the spy exams, cum laude, are smuggled into the U. S., fan out over the country . . . and run for mayor.

Julius Richter, the Vienna-born violinist, went to work at Luchow's Restaurant here in New York in 1923, brandishing his $10,000 Gagliano violin (circa 1800).

Last Sunday night he played "Tales of the Vienna Woods" for the 31,300th time — and it was as lovely as the day he first waved a bow at it.

Eddie Sgarbo's outlook on the 1959 racing year, for 3-year-olds: "Tomy Lee, Sword Dancer and First Landing will be beating one another all year long."

READY FOR SEAWAY — Foreign and domestic commerce of more than 4,350,000 tons is handled annually by the deep-water port of Muskegon, second only to Detroit in Michigan in terms of total activity. A 5 by 2-mile lake, with depths ranging from 30 to

'Sawdust City' Once Said Doomed

Muskegon Looks Forward to Seaway Boom

This is the 19th in a series of articles on Michigan's industrial and cultural achievements written by Michigan newsmen as an introduction to Michigan Week 17-21.

By CHARLES H. WOODRUFF
Business Editor, Muskegon Chronicle

MUSKEGON — Known as the "first city" on the eastern shores of Lake Michigan, Muskegon should have been a ghost town over half-a-century ago. That it did not die, and now faces a bright future in the seaway era, is a tribute to the hard work and foresight of civic leaders and the courage of its citizens.

Many Michigan cities boast histories of triumph over disasters natural and economic — victories testifying to the versatility of the state's populace and basic soundness of its economy; but Muskegon, perhaps more strikingly than the others, provides an object lesson in economic resilience.

From the date nearly 200 years ago when the first fur trading operations opened here, the community has twice weathered the demise of basic industries, survived two disastrous fires, a paralyzing depression and other major economic upheavals.

A vital factor in this ability to "bounce back" is the city's location on one of the finest sheltered, deep water harbors on the Great Lakes. Without the harbor, the city would never have been founded.

It is most appropriate for Michigan, and particularly so for its port cities, that the 1959 Michigan Week posters show the state's official bird, the robin, jauntily wearing a sailor's cap, pointing to Michigan and the seaway as it stands out on the globe of the world.

Muskegon's determined progress from a sawmill town in 1837 to a major port on the seaway route has been traced many times and detailed minutely during the city's centennial and the 100th anniversary of its daily newspaper, the Muskegon Chronicle, in June 1957.

The sawmill era started the year Michigan became a state, in 1837, with construction of the first mill by Benjamin Wheelock, an agent for Muskegon Steam Mill Co. Others followed and by 1887 some 47 mills were cutting 800,000,000 board feet of lumber a year — more than had ever been cut at any single point.

A windjamming fleet of over 2,000 sailing vessels carried the lumber to national and world markets and the community acquired the titles "Lumber Queen of the World," and "The city that cut the lumber to build Chicago and a hundred prairie towns." It was estimated the industry created 40 millionaires.

The lumber boom lasted nearly 50 years. But by 1880 the pine forests, which lumber barons had assured the doubting would "last forever," were denuded. The community had recovered from a great fire in 1874 which destroyed over one-fourth of the city, and had just regained its feet when the lumber bubble burst.

In the 1890's — with a few very fortunate exceptions — the area's lumber millionaires packed up and deserted a city they predicted would become a ghost town. Another disastrous fire swept the town in 1891 and many more residents left. "Sawdust City," it was said, "is doomed."

That this was false prophecy is amply attested by the fact Muskegon's population then about 15,000, now numbers over 110,000 including in its metropolitan area the contiguous cities of Muskegon, Muskegon Heights, North Muskegon and Roosevelt Park.

More significantly, from a standing start in the 1890's, the community has become a major state industrial center with the largest concentration of grey iron foundries in the world and wide product diversification among over 150 manufacturing firms.

In the brief span of a decade, Muskegon changed from a dying lumber town to a thriving industrial city. This is virtually overnight, the way such growth is reckoned, and the achievement is a monument to the vision and astute business sense of a small group of community leaders.

These men, among them Charles H. Hackley, a lumber millionaire who became the community's principal benefactor, helped finance many industries. Among those established in 1891 are three which remain to this day as Norge Division, Borg-Warner Corp.; Shaw-Box Crane Division of Manning, Maxwell & Moore, Inc.; and Morton Manufacturing Co.

The neighboring city of Muskegon Heights was created through an unusual land lottery venture which resulted in attracting several large industries, and others were brought in through financial assistance arranged by the Chamber of Commerce, city of Muskegon and the then-unique Industrial Fund building loan plan.

Continental Motors Corp., the world's largest manufacturer of internal combustion engines, was reorganized here after the turn of the century and by 1910 sixty major industrial plants had supplanted the 47 sawmills.

Jury Called for Rape Case

Special Session Set to Try 4 White Men in Negro Coed Assault

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) —

The Leon County grand jury has been summoned into special session Wednesday to consider the case of four white men charged with the mass rape of a Negro coed.

The jury had been scheduled to take up the case June 1, but the date was shoved up by Circuit Court Judge W. May Walker at the request of State Atty. William D. Hopkins because of "the great public interest."

The four are in the county jail. They have made no request for arraignment or bond.

"We would resist any request for bond between now and Wednesday," Hopkins said.

Florida A. & M. University students who boycotted classes Monday as part of a demonstration to focus attention on the case said they would return to school today. Another mass meeting was called for tonight.

The 19-year-old Tallahassee girl was taken from her escort at gunpoint early Saturday following a college dance. A sheriff's deputy captured the four men after a 95-mile an hour chase. The girl, bound and gagged, was still in their car. Florida forbids publication of a rape victim's name.

Those arrested were Patrick C. Scarborough, 20, Tallahassee, an Air Force man on leave from a change in station from Alaska;

William Collinsworth, 24, a telephone lineman; David Ervin Bagles, 18, a high school student; and Ollie Stoutamire, 16.

Florida's maximum penalty for a rape conviction is death. No white man has gone to the state's electric chair for raping a Negro.

Quarantine Lifted for 1,300 on Ship; Just Chicken Pox

BREMERHAVEN, Germany (AP) — A smallpox scare aboard the U.S. luxury liner America turned out to be only chicken pox. The ship was to sail back to New York today on schedule.

The ship's doctor reported a suspected case of smallpox when the 33,961-ton vessel arrived Monday. For 20 hours the 500 passengers and 800 crewmen were kept under quarantine.

The America sailed from New York via Cobh, Southampton and Le Havre. Most of the passengers were U.S. military personnel and their families. Smallpox aboard would have meant 14 more days aboard ship for all.

The stricken passenger was identified only as a U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel.

Nehru Offers Asylum to All Tibet Refugees

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament today India will grant asylum to all Tibetan refugees "unless something is known against any particular person."

He said about 8,700 Tibetans had crossed the various Himalayan passes into India since the Tibetan Air Force man on leave from a change in station from Alaska; against the Chinese Communists.

Xway in Toledo Opens May 22

Provides Nonstop Link to Ohio Turnpike From Riverview

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Formal opening of the portion of the Detroit-Toledo Expressway connecting Ohio and Michigan will be held at the State Line May 22.

The completed section stretches from the Ohio Turnpike through Toledo north to Riverview, Mich.

This section is the first toll-free, controlled-access highway between Midwest states on the interstate system. There are about 16 miles of road in Ohio and 34 more completed in Michigan.

Total cost so far has been about 65 million dollars. The final segment into Detroit, costing 154 million dollars, is slated for completion by 1967.

The formal program is still in the planning stage but it includes a dedication at the State Line at 11 a.m. and a luncheon in Toledo at 1 p.m. Michigan Gov. C. Mennen Williams is scheduled to attend the program.

The new road generally follows U.S. 25 north of Toledo as Interstate 75. The other portion is in Toledo as Interstate route 280.

Timid Toes Crushed in the Great Stampede

NEW YORK (AP)—It's a big mystery to me, but for some reason people are always stepping on my toes. Literally, I mean.

My feet seem to have a strange attraction for other people's feet. I can get a shoeshine and in no time at all — crunch — somebody has clumped onto my brogans, leaving a big smudge, if not wounded toes. *

Even without a fresh shine, I still get it. But I have found by dint of lengthy investigation and observation that the pedal collisions come faster after a polish — sometimes in less than a minute. *

My foot size has nothing to do with it, because I wear an insignificant 7½ shoe. Anybody ought to be able to miss anything that small. Few do. *

Even my good wife is an offender. My feet are not sacred even in my own home. She can be standing 10 feet away and the next thing I know she too has stepped on them. *

And my two youngsters have unerring aim.

Still, I get it from all sides. In the office, on the street, just anywhere. I must be jinxed. The problem is, what to do? *

I could sit on my feet, but there would be times when this would prove something of an inconvenience. *

I could quit wearing shoes. This, too, would have its drawbacks, and doubtless broken toes. *

Perhaps equip my shoes with spikes. I'd get sued, sure as anything. *

Keep my feet in my pockets? Nice trick. I'd even try that if I could be sure somebody would unravel me afterward. *

Well, there you are, and here am I, scuffed shoes, sore toes, and all. Maybe somebody knows the answer. I don't. *

I think I know now why those knights of old wore those armor-plated suit-and-shoes.

Officers Search for Other Martins

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Oregon and Washington law officers were watching the Columbia River today for the bodies of the rest of the Ken Martin family of Portland.

The remains of two children, Susan, 10, and her sister, Virginia, 12, have been found in the river. Still missing are Ken Martin, 54, his wife, 48, and another daughter, Barbara, 14.

The Martins vanished Dec. 7 while on an automobile trip up the Columbia River for Christmas greens. No trace of them was found until Susan's body was picked up Sunday near Camas, Wash., a few miles upstream from here. Monday Virginia's body was found floating against the spillway gates above Bonneville Dam—40 miles upriver from Portland.

This led police to believe the Martin car plunged off a highway into the river or one of its tributaries further upstream. The tributaries are rising now from the annual spring snow runoff.

Men required to operate the complex machinery of a modern battleship represented an aggregate of 1,500 years training and not less than 2,500 years of experience.

U.S. Is Accused of Arming Kurds

Iraqi Reds Maintain Point Four Missions Help Rebels

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—Iraqi Communists claim American Point Four missions in Iran and Turkey are arming Kurdish tribesmen rebelling against the regime of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem.

The Communist newspaper Ittihad al Shaab charged that U.S. missions of economic and technical specialists supplied Kurds machine-guns and grenades for attacks on police posts near the Iranian and Turkish borders.

Baghdad radio for the third day warned the people against foreign infiltrators and saboteurs in confirming reports of rebel activity among the Kurds.

The radio accused President Abdel Gamal Nasser of the United Arab Republic, Washington and London of "sending infiltrators into Iraq for sabotage and murder."

Baghdad Radio said that Red-organized civilian militia will be given new security duties "since other countries have sent infiltrators into Iraq."

Meanwhile, U.S. Ambassador John D. Jernegan left for talks in Washington. Jernegan said his trip was a routine call on his new boss, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Silver was discovered in Arizona in 1983 near the present city of Prescott.

Truman, Churchill Had Much in Common

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two aging men out of the history books who visit Washington this week—Harry S. Truman and Sir Winston Churchill—have in good measure what any leader of history needs as a minimum: Courage, vision, and determination.

Some never had much more than that. Others had something extra: flamboyance, or extravagance, or daring, or recklessness, or cruelty, or cunning, or patience or great compassion.

Both Truman and Churchill had an extra something—call it an attitude—which set the tone of their leadership in such a way that it symbolized the spirit of their countrymen at a time of great trouble.

Churchill, who worked under more terrible handicaps, will surely hold the larger place in history. But Truman, responding to the less glittering requirements of his time, shaped and changed the world, too.

Churchill, by his mastery of Britain's greatest pride, its language, articulated for the masses of his countrymen their reactions to terror and barbarism.

He did more than that. He became their rallying point. The nobility of his phrasing—so plain and understandable that all could identify themselves with him—gave Britons a sense of historic mission.

He was the flower of their civilization and they became one with him. His defiance was their defiance. His unflinching will was their own indestructibility.

If any man in history can be said to have carried his people to victory with him on the sheer strength of his indomitable and incorruptible spirit, it was Churchill.

Truman DIFFERENT Truman had tone of a different kind, but only in details. Less colorful. That was sure. Less articulate, too. But his attitude was the same.

He was never able by the magic of his language—for he lacked the knowledge, the feeling and the mastery of Churchill in that field—to lift his people to heights that exceeded their own imagining.

But then, of course, Truman never had to. His problems were different and he did not have to arouse his country from its shattered runs, to confront its crises. Nevertheless, many millions of his fellow Americans were able in one way or another to identify themselves with him.

He was a plain, unpretentious man, self-made, self-confident, with a quick temper, a quick response to danger, and a profound sense of the importance of remaining free.

With this natural and well-known understood foundation, what Truman symbolized when danger from the Soviet Union came was America's own historic conception of itself: a strong land which wishes no ill will to anyone, will endure pressure but only up to a point, is willing to fight for what it believes is right, and confidently believes in the ability of human beings to achieve a good life if given a chance.

There was a measure of self-interest in this country's willingness, under Truman's leadership, to pump billions of dollars in economic aid into Western Europe. It helped stop the onrush of communism.

But there were also sympathy and concern for both the welfare and the freedom of the West Europeans. They were given another chance, at American expense, to achieve a good life.

When Stalin began his first post-war pressure on Greece and Turkey, Truman unhesitatingly reversed the whole historic course of America's peacetime isolationism by rushing aid to the Greeks and Turks.

This action was more than an historic reversal of American foreign policy. Through it Truman acknowledged and accepted for the United States the responsibility thrust upon it by the second World War. The immediate effect was to stop communism in southern Europe.

When next Stalin tried his luck with the Berlin blockade, he was thwarted again with the bold and imaginative Berlin airlift.

In all these things, which required American sacrifices, Truman had the support of his country. When Stalin for the last time in his life tested American willingness to go to any lengths to stop him, and let the Korean War begin, Truman answered instantly by taking the United States into war.

Communism was stopped cold. It was the last time the Reds tried direct aggression.

Jail 42-Year-Old Retiree for Not Leashing His Dog

ENID, Okla. (AP)—Curtis Phillips started a 15-day jail term Monday for allowing his one-eyed hound dog Oscar to roam free.

The city dog catcher saw Oscar running loose and issued a complaint against Phillips, his neighbor.

The city court judge gave Phillips, 42 and retired, his choice: a $15 fine or 15 days in jail.

"I don't do any work so I might as well stay in jail," said Phillips. But his defiant wife said Oscar would run free all the time, instead of taking his usual early morning sprint, as long as Phillips is in jail.

Federal Health Plan Due

By RAY HENRY

A health insurance plan for government workers probably will be approved by Congress during the next year. What form the plan will take and how much the government will pay toward the plan are still being worked out. A Senate subcommittee is now holding hearings on the subject.

To help the subcommittee, the Eisenhower administration submitted a proposed plan, but asked that it not be put into effect until at least July 1, 1960.

Here are some of the details: Who would be covered: With few exceptions, all government employees and their dependents would be eligible for the insurance.

Total monthly cost: For a single person, the cost would be about $5 a month. For employees with dependents, the premiums would be about $15 a month. These payments would be paid at the rate of two-thirds by the employee and one-third by the government.

Maternity benefits: The $50 deductible feature wouldn't apply to maternity expenses. Actual expenses of hospitalization, care, delivery and treatment would be paid up to a maximum of $200 for a normal delivery. Higher benefits would be paid for complicated pregnancies.

Hospital benefits: Practically all expenses incurred in a hospital would be covered by the plan.

This would include charges for semi-private room and board, general nursing care, use of operating rooms and other facilities and equipment, laboratory exams, blood transfusions, X-ray, dressings, drug and medicines, anesthesia and oxygen.

Medical and surgical benefits: Almost all medical and surgical expenses would be covered so long as they are for service or materials performed or prescribed by a doctor.

Major illness: The plan would cover expenses for a long-term illness, such as cancer, tuberculosis, polio or muscular dystrophy, or for a series of illnesses.

But, the total of all benefits paid for each insured person couldn't be more than $7,500 in any one year or more than $15,000 in a lifetime.

Injured Russian Seaman Regains Ability to Speak

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A Soviet seaman, unconscious when rushed here in an international air-sea mercy mission nearly a month ago, is now talking—both Russian and English.

Evgenij Ivanovich Gneushev, 23, of Vladivostok, "has completely regained his ability to speak," a bulletin from Elmendorf Air Force Base Hospital said Monday.

Gneushev was transferred to the hospital here April 9 by U. S. Coast Guard cutter and amphibian, four days after he was injured in a fall into a hold of a Soviet refrigerator ship.

Baby Black Market Linked to Magistrate

NEW YORK (AP)—Ex-city Magistrate Stephen S. Scopas was charged yesterday with participating in a big-money black market operation to place Greek war orphans for adoption in this country.

Scopas, the first American of Greek descent to serve on a New York City bench, resigned Saturday night at the demand of Mayor Robert Wagner.

The 49-year-old lawyer was accused of taking part in arrangements for the sale of 30 Greek babies or children in transactions totaling at least $70,000. Authorities said couples paid as high as $2,500 to adopt a child.

Scopas pleaded innocent in Special Sessions Court yesterday and was released pending trial June 15.

Hogan said the ring provided orphans for families who were unable to meet requirements for adopting children here, or who were impatient at delays in legal procedures.

GIVE YOUR CHILDREN A CHANCE!

Polio isn't licked yet! In fact, among children not vaccinated, paralytic polio cases actually increased in 1958 over 1957. More one-year-olds were stricken than any other age group.

If your youngsters are still not protected against this feared disease, insist that they start and complete the full series of polio shots NOW.

The 1959 polio season is fast approaching. The sooner your children are polio-protected, the safer their futures will be. And since polio strikes all ages—be sure to get your shots, too. See your doctor or health department NOW.

Swim Suits Make Big Splash

Here are two suits for a sunny stroll up the beach followed by a refreshing dip. For the active life nothing beats a knit suit elasticized for slim, trim fit. It could be a sheath, sleekly understated with its Empire bengaline bow, or a stark two-piece that fits like a coat of paint. In wonderfully clear colors, tangerine or turquoise, these Rose Marie Reid winners are equally pretty on the sand or at sea.

Decorate the beach this summer with gloriously colored swimming stripes. Delicately distinguished by the careful melding of many muted colors into widened bands and cast in figure-moulding lastex, here are three decidedly attractive silhouettes: the swim-dress, the draped swim-sheath and the two-piece. Color-fast hues are green/gold, orange/gray, or blue/violet. Available locally.

2-Piece Suit Crests Fashion Wave

The two-piece suit has come in on the crest of fashion this season. The more conservative suit has either a skirted or a moderately modest maillot trunk. It incorporates the foundation features of bra and panty girdle and comes in both latex and elasticized knit fabrics. (For double-darers, Rose Marie Reid has two cotton print suits that can be cinched down at will into a Bikini. They can be worn in the privacy of the backyard, at private pools or on a secluded beach.)

The attractive and flattering one-piece swimsuit is still tops. Its silhouettes vary to suit the figure of the wearer. There is a sleek sheath, the draped sheath, the maillot, the swim-shorts and the pert and pretty dressmaker. Solid colors are more interesting than ever... grape, teal, bali red, mango, palm green, pineapple, coconut and blue lagoon. Prints come in all-over abstract block or floral combinations.

Since most vacation wardrobes require more than one suit, a cotton suit is a practical choice for a spare. The pleated-skirted dressmaker is popular and youthful. Combined with a jacket or skirt, it creates an attractive and versatile ensemble.

All in all it should be quite a season for the Society of Girl Watchers.

She's a Massachusetts Judge, Grandma to 7

Jennie Barron Is Mother of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Jennie Loitman Barron of Brookline, Mass., judge of the Superior Court of Massachusetts and grandmother of seven, was named today the American Mother of 1959.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Daniel A. Poling, president of the American Mothers Committee Inc., before a distinguished group of mothers chosen from each state, assembled at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to hear the decision of the national jury.

HOME RATES FIRST

Judge Barron is the mother of three daughters. Throughout her life she has been active in community, state and national organizations. Although she has been outstanding in her profession of law since her marriage, she always put her duties as wife and mother ahead of professional demands.

Born and educated in Boston, Judge Barron is the daughter of Russian immigrants. She received her B.A., LL.B. and L.L.M. degrees from Boston University and in 1918 was married to Samuel Barron Jr., a lawyer. They practiced law as the firm of Barron and Barron.

Their daughters, all graduates of Wellesley College are: Erma, now Mrs. Philip Wernick, mother of three sons;

Recreation Director Will Address PTA

David R. Ewalt, director of parks and recreation for the city of Pontiac, will be the speaker at the Jefferson Junior High School PTA meeting Thursday evening. The meeting will begin at 7:30. Mr. Ewalt will explain the summer recreation program.

New officers will be installed. They are David Simmon, president; Fred Smith, father vice president; Mrs. G. V. Carless, teacher vice president; Mrs. Fred Smith, secretary; Roy Norton, treasurer.

Deborah Blazer, who died in 1956, leaving three children; Joy, the youngest, also a practicing attorney, mother of one and wife of Dr. William B. Rachlin, a surgeon. Both surviving daughters are active in community work in and around Boston.

BASIS FOR SELECTION

Selection of the mother of the year is based on six qualifications:

First, she must be a successful mother.

Second, she must be an active member of a religious body.

Third, she must embody the traits of courage, cheerfulness, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and homemaking ability.

Fourth, she must exemplify in her life the precepts of the Golden Rule.

Fifth, she must be active in public affairs.

Sixth, she must be qualified to represent the mothers of America in all responsibilities attached to her role as mother of the year.

Mrs. Sekles Heads Women's Association

Symphony Unit Elects Officers

Officers were elected by Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Women's Association at its final meeting of the season, held Monday afternoon at the Pine Lake road home of Mrs. Norman Buckner.

Serving for 1959-60 are Mrs. S. V. Sekles, president; Mrs.

Arnold Hillerman, first vice president; Mrs. Ivah Baker, second vice president; Mrs. Charles G. Ulligan, recording secretary; Mrs. Aleck Capalis, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Herman Dickstein, treasurer.

Guest speaker was Francesco Di Blasi, conductor of the orchestra. He discussed the problems of organizing and maintaining a symphony orchestra and announced the program for the coming year. The Michigan Opera Company of Detroit will present the second act from the opera

"Tosca," by Puccini, with Maria Roumell singing the leading role on Oct. 13.

Emma Kountz, pianist, will be featured at the Dec. 8 concert, and an all orchestral program will be presented Jan. 26.

On March 8, Philip Steinhilber, organist, will be guest artist. John Dalley, violinist, will present the April 19 program.

Social committee for the Monday meeting were Mrs. Julian Levine, Mrs. Helen Teitgen and Mrs. Herman Dickstein. Mrs. J. C. Walker, president, presided.

Buffingtons Return

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ross Buffington have returned to their home on Pontiac drive after spending several weeks at Zanesville, Ohio, where they were called during the illness and death of their son, John, former Pontiac resident. He was manager of the Holland Furnace Company in Zanesville.

Party Honors Wilma Allen

Mrs. Jerry De Massellis of Drayton Plains honored Mrs. Wilma Allen of South Anderson street with a surprise party. Mrs. Lillian Cummings assisted.

Mrs. Allen will marry Delmont George of Brendle Lake this fall.

Guests were Mrs. Harvey Leningier, Mrs. Harold Hunt, Mrs. Roland Grace, Mrs. George Jenko, Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, Mrs. Raymond Stiger, Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. Claude Graves, Mrs. Joseph C. Moery, Mrs. John M. Beaudin and Mrs. Lewis A. Young.

Central School Plans Festive Fair Thursday

Central Elementary School PTA will hold its annual fair at the school from 5 to 9 p. m. Thursday.

Main attraction of the evening will be a magic show featuring Milky the Clown. Other fair features will include a makeup room, hayride on the playground, fish pond, teenage dancing, a game room, white elephants and Abbott and Costello movies. Chairmen are Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Tom Marsh and Mrs. Gerald Butler.

Chili will be served in the cafeteria from 5 to 6:30 p. m. From 6:30 until 9 p. m. hot dogs will be offered.

Little Girl Favorite

When party fashion strides in on tots' feet, the note is more T-strap than anything else. The shade is vanilla ice, a neutral that goes well with white or other color.

Mrs. Thomas Marsh gives a demonstration of some of the exotic things to be offered by the "Makeup Room," a feature of the Central Elementary School Fair, to Janice Marsh, center, and Penny Sue Braden. The fair, sponsored by the PTA, will be held from 5 to 9 p. m. Thursday at the school.

Waterford Signs Famed Boy Choir

With the Waterford Township Civic Music Association's annual membership drive in full swing this week, officers have announced the scheduling of the Columbus Boy Choir for Dec. 12. Other concerts will be announced at the conclusion of the drive.

The internationally known Columbus Boy Choir concert will feature Gian-Carlo Menotti's Christmas opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors." It is the second year the group has presented this opera.

Auditions of young boys in the Waterford Township area will be made by officials of the Columbus Choir, for possible membership with the group. The 25 boys in the choir are all under 15 years of age, according to New York Civic Concert Service representative William Maki.

Two or three additional concerts of caliber equal to the Columbus Choir will be scheduled throughout the season.

Only season tickets are available. No single admissions will be sold at the door on concert nights, Maki pointed out.

Members of Waterford Civic Music Association may also attend the concerts of Civic Music groups in other cities. In this area, groups are organized in Lapeer, Rochester, Wayne and Trenton.

Schedules of these associations' concerts will be sent to all Waterford members so that they may attend from 12 to 15 concerts on their membership cards without additional charges.

Those wishing to join the association can contact Mrs. Lyndon Salathiel for further information.

Headquarters have been established at the Community Activities Center for the one-week-only membership drive.

Hospital Association Elects Officers

The Oakland County Hospital Association elected officers for 1959-60 at its meeting Saturday afternoon at the hospital. Officers are Emma Howard, president; Mrs. B. B. Roush, vice president; Mrs. Horace Young, recording secretary; Mrs. Clark Adams, treasurer.

The following members were appointed to committees: Mrs. Adams, Mrs. L. A. Farnham, Mrs. Ross Stockwell and Mrs. M. L. Shadley, hospital purchasing committee; Mrs. J. C. Walker, Mrs. Philip Francis, membership committee; Mrs. Shadley, Mrs. L. R. Sampson and Clarence Patterson, publicity; Mrs. Harry Going, custodian.

Mrs. Harry Going was absent because of illness. This is the first meeting she has missed in 30 years.

Mrs. Adams reported the association spent $3,514 this past year, on purchases for Pontiac General Hospital. These included a sitz bath, oxygen tent, resuscitator, 2 Baron feeders and new system blood bank equipment.

Next time you iron your handkerchiefs, sprinkle them with witch hazel instead of water. Notice the fresh, "clean" odor.

Psi Chapter of Sigma Beta Holds Brunch

A Mother-Children brunch was held by Psi Chapter of Sigma Beta Sorority, Inc. Sunday at Devon Gables.

Michael Thornberry paid tribute to mothers and Mrs. Frank Thornberry answered with an original poem expressing her thoughts on children.

Mrs. Edward O'Brien, Mrs. Charles Fournier and Mrs. Jerry McKay also took part. A Pontiac Central High School vocal quartet made up of John Bacon, Lynn Walker, Sam Hartman and Thomas O'Brien sang several selections.

Toastmistress was Mrs. James DeFlorio.

Make Covers for Potholders

It's less trouble to keep kitchen potholders looking presentable if removable covers of washable fabric are added. These "slip covers" wash and dry more quickly than the entire potholders — and also there's less chance of matting the padding.

Dear Abby ...

You've Got the Right Idea, Mom!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: Our son never gave his father or me one moment's trouble. He was an honor student, got an award for outstanding scouting, carried a paper route (won a cash prize for being tops in that, too) and is assistant to the Sunday school teacher. He is four months short of being the age of consent and, Abby, he came to me and said he got a girl in trouble. She is the girl he's gone steady with for a year; and I was shocked, but I told him I would help them get married as soon as possible. I want to save her reputation, and besides these kids are very much in love.

"His father is trying to stand in the way and refuses to sign for them (the girl is under age, too). She's a good girl from a good family of our faith but I can't deal with my stubborn husband. He says the boy is too young to accept the responsibility. Can you say something to help?"

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Ask your clergyman to talk with your husband. From your letter, these young people have every chance of making a successful marriage. If the clergyman can't get the moral message to your stubborn husband, a lawyer (in view of the fact that girl is under age) can spell out what "responsibility" means in the eyes of the law.

"DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl who babysits to earn extra money. I would like to know what everybody has against a girl having her boy friend keep her company when she baby-sits? I would never do it without permission, but I notice more and more mothers tell me right away that I can't have my boy friend visit me. Don't they trust me? Please print your answer because many of my friends want to know, too."

BORED SITTER

DEAR BORED: Baby sitters should regard babysitting as a paid job and not a place to entertain their friends. A baby sitter who cannot get along for a few hours without her boy friend at her elbow is not fit to have children in her care. A child could awaken any time, and deserves the "sitter's" undivided attention.

"DEAR ABBY: My husband is a Junior Executive with a well-known National Company. He travels for them and I sometimes go with him. When the hotels put fruit and flowers in my room with the manager's card, I always drop a little "thank you" note when I return home. My more sophisticated friends say this is very "country girlish" of me. I want to do the right thing and would like your opinion."

COUNTRY GIRL

DEAR COUNTRY GIRL: When in doubt—say "Thank you." No gift (even if it's obviously a "gesture") should be ignored.

"DEAR ABBY: There is a boy and gal around our way who are really mad about each other. The problem is that they will not admit it. They make a darling couple and everyone thinks they belong together. We are their best friends and it is up to us to get them together. How should we go about it?"

J. AND R.

DEAR J. AND R.: Don't try to cook up a romance between two people who have no interest in each other just because they make a "darling" couple. If they are really "mad" about each other, they will be the first to know.

Do your parents trust you? Get Abby's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants to Know." Send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby in care of this newspaper.

Isn't Nice to Give Prize Away

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: At a bridge party the other day I won first prize for highest score. As the prize was an item of which I have several, I gave it to one of the other women. It seemed senseless to keep it when someone else could make good use of it, and since it was something that I was not bought especially for me, I saw no harm in what I did.

"Some of the other women present criticized me for this and said that I was very rude to the hostess. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?"

Answer: I am sorry, but even though your intention was kind, it was rude to your hostess. What you should have done was to keep the prize you won and later given your friend one of your own duplicates.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it permissible to invite the bridegroom's father to the wedding, and not his wife when he has remarried? My daughter's fiancé's parents are divorced and his mother refuses to come to the wedding if her ex-husband's wife should be present. The bridegroom lives with his mother although his father has sent him through college and has done much for him financially, and naturally he would like his father to be present at the wedding if possible."

Answer: The bridegroom's father will certainly not come to the wedding without his present wife. I suggest that he and his wife give a wedding supper for his son and daughter-in-law to follow the regular reception to which he will invite his immediate family and special friends.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When eating at a lunch counter, is it proper to ask a person who is sitting with an empty seat on either side of him (or her) to move over so that two friends may sit together?"

Answer: If he has not yet been served you may ask if he would mind moving over to the next seat, but not if he has his lunch in front of him.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Should an ice-cream soda, or any cold drink, served with a straw be lifted up and over to the mouth, or is it proper to lean over and drink from where the glass stands?"

Answer: It should be lifted to the mouth.

Barefeet Dangerous

Put Your Shoes On, Lucy

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We always think of home as a safe place to be, but actually it is one of the most dangerous spots. Also, judging by reports, there must be more barefooted gals in homes than in the mountains.

Out of approximately 9,700,000 accidents which occur in the United States during a year, about 4,250,000 take place in the home. Most of these involve the feet.

Doctor Herman Sonderling, dean of the Maurice J. Hewi College of Podiatry in New York City, warns against both bare feet and the habit of padding about the house in soft slippers or old "beat up" shoes.

First, the barefooted or poorly shod woman is more accident prone than the one who is well heeled. As Doctor Sonderling points out, she exposes herself to accidents from climbing on kitchen ladders, stools and chairs. Her bare feet are exposed to splinters, bruised arches; her stance is unsteady when reaching and there is always the chance that she may drop a can on her foot.

Also there is danger of slipping on waxed or wet floors. A busy housewife has hundreds of opportunities to stub her toes, chip or split her nails, causing deformities or thickening of the nails. The chances of infection are legion. Tacks, nails, splinters, sharp-edged toys or tools, can start an infection.

Of course from the esthetic standpoint the woman in the home is much more attractive in shoes. I myself never have seen but two pairs of pretty feet in my life.

From the standpoint of foot health Doctor Sonderling says the barefoot, poorly shod habit is bad. He feels that walking for short periods on soft earth will strengthen foot muscles but that walking on hard surfaces is a different matter.

Our feet need protection from the shock of walking. It is true that primitive man went without shoes but he walked on the ground and years of practice toughened his feet.

Doctor Sonderling points out that the arch of the foot is a triangle and needs a base for support. That base should be a firm shoe sole. Without this the triangle may collapse under body weight and up and down motion of the legs and body, when walking.

A leather base is prescribed to keep the arch from weakening and leather uppers hold the foot in its proper shape, supply support and yet "give" comfortably with our movements.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Take Care of Your Feet" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 14. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

John L. Carters Return With Friend From Brazil

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Carter and their two sons, formerly of Joslyn road, returned Monday from Taubate, Brazil, where Mr. Carter was plant manager for Willys-Overland for the past three and a half years.

With the Carters is George Washington Sousa, a 19-year-old friend of the two boys, Ronnie, 14, and John, 18.

When the boys first moved to Taubate, they had a great deal of difficulty with the Portuguese language. It was George who came to their rescue and helped them learn the language.

In appreciation, the Carters are entertaining him with a trip through the United States. He will be their guest until July 25 when he will decide whether to stay longer or return home.

"He can't get over all the automobiles in Pontiac. He didn't know there were so many of them in the world," says Mr. Carter about his guest.

Waterford Board Okays Township Rezoning Change

A controversial piece of property was rezoned from residential to commercial by a 4-3 vote at last night's Waterford Township Board meeting.

Although more than 25 residents were present to protest the zoning change, the four township trustees overruled Supervisor Elmer Johnson, Clerk James Seeterlin and Treasurer Dorothy Olson's "no" vote.

The property, 200 feet on Walton boulevard and 150 feet in depth on Clintonville road, was rezoned for construction of a gasoline station.

Senators Open Door to Jobless

State Committee Will Hear Complaints About Failure of TUC

LANSING (AP) — The Senate Labor Committee today opened its doors to jobless workers wanting to air their gripes on legislative delay in extending temporary unemployment compensation.

Hundreds of Michigan's more than 300,000 jobless are expected to converge on the capital city to urge legislative support of an enlarged jobless aid program. The Michigan AFL-CIO set up the all day conference, a follow-up to the national AFL-CIO march on Washington.

Chairman John P. Smeckens (R - Coldwater) said his labor committee, if necessary, would eat their meals in the committee room and stay in session to-night to discuss the proposed TUC program with conference delegates.

The committee also expected to meet with Gov. Williams on a Democratic - Republican impasse that has blocked legislative approval of a bill to extend temporary benefits up to 13 weeks.

Heart of the disagreement was a Republican amendment which would countermand a state supreme court decision awarding unemployment pay to Michigan Ford Motor Co. workers idled by a 1953 Ford strike in Canton, Ohio.

Ford and others claimed it enabled unions to force companies to finance strikes against themselves through their contributions to the unemployment compensation fund.

Democrats want a simple extension of TUC to July 1, affecting about 28,700 workers whose benefits expired April 1.

The bill also carries a $1 or $2 cost-of-living raise in maximum benefits for about half of those eligible.

Integration Delay Tossed Out by Court

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals today threw out the seven-year school integration moratorium in Prince Edward County. It ordered the county to consider the admission of qualified Negroes to white schools in September.

The decision set aside U.S. Dist. Judge Sterling Hutcheson's order giving the county until 1966 to move toward classroom race mixing.

The Appeals Court sent the case back to Hutcheson with directions to issue an order forbidding the school authorities to take any action affecting the enrollment or education of Negro children on the basis of race.

Vandals Break Many Windows at City Schools

Several thefts and complaints of malicious destruction of property were reported to Pontiac Police Monday.

More than a dozen windows were reported broken by vandals at Hawthorne and Emerson Elementary Schools, police said.

Peter Maynard of 3340 Main St., Drayton Plains told police someone stole a revolver from his car while it was parked at 921 Joslyn Rd.

Joseph Thebolt of 100 W. Howard St. reported to officers that someone broke into his home through a rear window and stole an estimated $70 worth of miscellaneous items.

Court Orders Blood for Baby

Overrules Parents as Detroit Doctors Fight to Save Life

DETROIT (AP) — A newly-born baby was given blood transfusions yesterday after a court order overruled parental objections founded on a religious belief.

Probate Judge Nathan J. Kaufman, acting on a doctor's urgent recommendation, issued an order making the child — known only as "Baby Boy Collins" — a ward of the court, and thereby allowing the transfusions. The baby was only 21 hours old at the time.

"Baby Boy Collins" was born Sunday with a defect in his blood system.

At 1:30 p.m. he was brought to Children's Hospital. He was dying, doctors said. A transfusion was ordered. But the father objected.

Dr. Wolf Zuelzer, chief of the hospital's laboratories and child research center, took steps to get court authority.

"We had a dying baby on our hands," Dr. Zuelzer said, "and something had to be done in a hurry."

Judge Kaufman was called from a meeting outside his court. He returned to his bench immediately and at 2 p.m. signed the order.

The judge said he acted without knowing the names of the parents. They later were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins of suburban Taylor Township, members of Jehovah's Witnesses.

"Baby Boy Collins" was still alive today. His condition was critical, however. Doctors said they could not yet say whether he would live.

Hollywood Headlines

Two Young Film Makers Finally Are Recognized

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Film industry moguls are always talking about the need for new talent, but they seldom do anything about it.

With a dozen top stars demanding fabulous salaries, new box office draws are a must. Just as urgent is the need for new talent in the creative field. The great directors and producers are growing older and more content to sit back on their capital gains.

Two young fellows exemplify this neglect of new creative talent. They are the brother team of Denis and Terry Sanders, who are now hitting the big time. But it wasn't easy.

Terry is tall, slim and 27. Denis is shorter, chunky and 29. They both like to write and cut their own films, though they share the duties with others. Principally, Terry is producer, Denis the director.

"It wasn't easy to convince studios that we could make a picture," said Denis-Terry, "even after we made 'A Time Out of War.' Sure, we could probably have gotten a horror movie to make. But that would have typed us."

"A Time Out of War" was the film the Sanders made while they were students at UCLA. A two-reeler about a Civil War encounter, it won an Academy Award and top honors at the Venice and other film festivals.

Did this convince the major studios? Nope. The boys still had to prove themselves.

They did it by whipping up their own project. They passed up the monsters to choose a classic by Dostoevski. But instead of playing it in 19th century Russia, they switched it to present-day Santa Monica, a Los Angeles suburb. The result: "Crime and Punishment—U.S.A."

"We shot it on location and in a rented studio in 12 days," they reported. "The cost was $100,000, which was put up by Allied Artists, ourselves and some private investors."

The picture is an excellent piece of film-making, well-paced, exciting and moving. There are moments when the skimpy production shows.

The picture was shown to the brass at MGM. Within five days, Denis and Terry were signed to make a film a year for five years.

The most remarkable thing about "Crime and Punishment—U.S.A." is the performance of George Hamilton as the bearded young murderer. He's a socialite, the son of Mrs. Anne Hamilton Spalding of Palm Beach, Fla., and this was his first acting chore. He was signed to an MGM contract on the strength of it.

Delay Walkout at Rochester

Threatened Strike of 350 at Parke, Davis Gets Reprieve

Mediators today effected a delay in a threatened strike of 1,650 production workers at Parke, Davis and Co., one of the nation's largest drug manufacturing firms.

The walkout would have affected some 350 employees at the company's plant near Rochester. These include 270 production workers and 80 salaried personnel.

Local 11-146 of the Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers Union agreed to set back, for several hours at least, a 10 a.m. strike deadline for further talks with the mediators.

The union had set the strike deadline at the company's plants in Detroit and the Rochester area after a breakdown of negotiations.

Seven weeks of bargaining failed to produce an agreement to replace a contract that expired April 30. Talks were broken off yesterday.

The company also was deadlocked in contract negotiations with local 1288 of the International Assn. of Machinists. The local represents 325 machinists and power plant employees.

TALKS BREAK UP

State and federal mediators reported no progress in talks that broke up last night and were resumed this morning. The IAM's contract also expired April 30.

The union demanded automatic recognition at the company's new medical research laboratories in Ann Arbor when they are opened later this year.

The company said it was willing to transfer any employee affected by the move of operations, but it would require a National Labor Relations Board election to determine what union, if any, would represent the workers.

Both unions demanded an eight per cent wage increase. The company offered 2 1/2 per cent. Other issues included fringe demands plus the union representation at the new Ann Arbor laboratory.

The company said the present average hourly pay of production workers is $2.41 and that of IAM members $2.85 1/2.

St. Joseph Hospital Plans All-Day Exhibit May 12

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital will show its new "Roads to Recovery" next week.

As part of National Hospital Week, which begins Sunday, the hospital will put on an all-day display Tuesday in the auditorium of McAuley School of Practical Nursing, 126 Fulton St.

The doors will be open to the public from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. The latest equipment will be shown in connection with the theme of Hospital Week — "More Roads to Recovery."

The Moersch respirator, used in crushed chest injuries, will be on display, as well as two exhibits connected with treatment of cancer.

One will cover treatment with radioactive drugs, the other will detail the developing field of cytology, which is the study of cancerous cells.

The latest in oxygen therapy equipment will be exhibited, along with such standard procedures as intravenous feeding.

The equipment will be placed on display both by the hospital and by hospital equipment companies.

Part of the display will be a fully equipped hospital room, with the latest style electrically operated hospital bed.

The hospital plans to show two other sides of its activities. One exhibit will feature displays from the hospital's medical library and medical research program. Another will feature some of the complex business machines used by the hospital administration.

HARRIMAN WILL SEEK TALK WITH KHRUSHCHEV

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Gov. Averell Harriman, who was U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union during part of World War II, says he hopes to have "a very frank talk" with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev during a visit to Moscow.

Harriman, a Democrat, will leave next Saturday for a month's visit to the Soviet Union as a private citizen.

Eight public hearings are scheduled tonight, covering intention to proceed with 8 curb and gutter projects on the following streets:

Lehigh avenue, Baldwin to University; Tennyson avenue, Hollywood to Bonnie Briar Bush subdivision; Jefferson avenue, Blaine to Summit; Ivy street, Montcalm to Kennett; Victory drive, between Mt. Clemens and Mt. Vernon; W. New York avenue, Baldwin to Walton; Tasmania avenue, Maines to Riverside; and S. Jessie street, Prospect to Raeburn.

Commissioners will be asked to order special assessment rolls covering unpaid bills for weed cutting last year.

Up for consideration is a request from the City Beverage Co. for a new warehouse at 61 Jackson St.

Car Strikes Boy, 7, in Front of Home

A 7-year-old Pontiac boy was in fair condition today at Pontiac General Hospital with head injuries suffered when he was struck by a car Monday afternoon in front of his home.

Stephen S. Weitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weitz of 630 Melrose St., was struck by an auto driven by Nancy L. Sherman, 20, of 821 Melrose St.

Witnesses told police the boy ran out in front of the auto.

Freddie Agabashian, one of the most respected veterans of the Indianapolis Memorial Day "500" race, admits he is inclined to be superstitious.

He won't say however that his 12th race a year ago was his last for reasons of having a superstitious fear for the number 13 which would be up this May 30th.

Now connected with Indianapolis Speedway as a commercial representative of an auto parts firm, Agabashian says he is through with racing "because I'm 45, happy, and don't feel I should press my luck too far."

He is also head of the Champion Highway Safety Program which consists of "500" veterans who tour the nation's high schools and military bases to lecture on safe driving habits.

Agabashian may have called it quits for driving in the big race, but he still remains close to the sport he loves most. Many drivers and mechanics call on him to test drive their cars and to diagnose chassis and handling problems.

"You know I learn something every time I drive this track," Agabashian commented as he took this writer over the 2½-mile raceway at speeds we previously only imagined ourselves going.

The tour of the track was being made in a regular passenger car owned by the Speedway, and at 75 mph, Freddie called our bluff when we asked him if he had the brakes on.

When the needle passed about 110 it seemed like we were going 250 and all we could do was gulp and apologize for the dare.

Agabashian pointed out that in a racer the speed does not seem as great as it does in a regular auto because the racer hugs the track whereas the passenger car being more elevated gives you the feeling of an airplane getting ready to leave the runway.

"There's Jerry Unser getting ready to take a few practice spins," Freddie noted as we came to a stop. "He should be a strong favorite this year," Agabashian added.

(We remembered Freddie saying this and it came as a great shock to learn Saturday evening that Unser cracked up Saturday afternoon and suffered serious injuries and burns).

Agabashian pointed out that the racers really do better than 170 miles an hour on the track. "You must remember they slow down for the turns and so a driver doing an average of 138 mph is really going about 175 on the straightaways."

We commented that there must be a terrific tenseness on the part of the driver at such high speeds. "On the contrary," Freddie said, "a driver actually has to do something to break the monotony at times so he reads the score board or tries to read everyone else's card."

He refers to the card which is held up by a member of driver's pit crew for the purpose of giving him a signal or a message.

"It's just like stealing baseball signals, sometimes we can figure out the strategy of one of the leaders," Fred concluded.

What do many of the drivers do during their leisure time? There are 9 holes of golf inside the oval and another outside the track, or they will "cruise" around at about 130 mph to "relax."

Wisconsin 5th School to Oppose Rose Bowl

CHICAGO (AP) — There will be some fast shuffling in the next two weeks if the Big Ten is to continue playing in the Rose Bowl football game after 1960.

Wisconsin yesterday became the fifth conference member to vote against renewal of the pact. If all five schools which have voted against the game stick by their guns at the conference meeting in Ann Arbor May 20-23, it will mean an end to post season football for the Big Ten.

However, The Associated Press learned there is a behind-the-scenes campaign to have one of the five negative schools abstain from casting an official vote at the meeting.

If this is achieved, then the vote would be 5-4 in favor and the Big Ten would continue participating in the Pasadena New Year's Day classic.

When learning Wisconsin joined Minnesota, Ohio State, Illinois and Northwestern in voting against the game, West Coast officials took a wait-and-see attitude.

The AAWU, made up of California, UCLA, Southern Cal and Washington, will replace the Pacific Coast Conference which will be dissolved June 30.

The current Rose Bowl contract with the Big Ten expires after the 1960 game.

Big Ten schools in favor of continuing the game are Michigan, Purdue, Michigan State, Iowa and Indiana. Ohio State always has voted in favor and might yet switch and vote for continuance.

LADY BYNG WINNER — Alex Delvecchio of the Detroit Red Wings is the winner of the Lady Byng Trophy for the 1938-39 season in the National Hockey League. The award is presented annually to the NHL player who does the best job of combining playing skill and sportsmanship.

Lady Byng Trophy to Delvecchio

Wing Vet Nips Andy Heberton in Conduct Vote

Toronto May Withdraw Offer for Alex; Coach Against Top Behavior

TORONTO (U) — "I don't want any Lady Byng winners on my club. I'll fine any player who wins the Byng Trophy."

George "Punch" Imlach, outspoken coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs, made those comments today in the wake of Alex Delvecchio's victory in the Lady Byng voting and reports that the Detroit left winger would be traded to Toronto for four players.

The trophy is given "to the player exhibiting the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability."

"Do you think I'm crazy enough to give up four players for one?" asked Imlach. "Is Delvecchio that good? He didn't score 20 goals and he didn't get more than a couple of penalties."

"So what was the guy doing. My only conclusion is that Delvecchio was doing nothing. I don't care who it is, no player in this league can go through 70 games and get only a couple of penalties if he's checking. He's bound to trip or board someone."

Delvecchio edged Andy Heberton of the New York Rangers for the Lady Byng award in the closest vote ever for a National Hockey League post-season trophy. Only five-tenths of a point separated the two in the balloting of hockey writers and broadcasters in each of the six league cities.

Delvecchio collected 86.8 points and Heberton 86.3 in the split-season voting. Heberton had a more productive season, scoring 33 goals and 29 assists for 62 points. Delvecchio had 19 goals and 35 assists for 54 points.

However, Delvecchio served only six minutes in penalties while Heberton was put off for eight minutes. Heberton won the trophy two years ago.

Others high in the voting were Camille Henry of the Rangers with 66 points; Don McKenney, Boston, 31; Andy Bathgate, New York, 18 and Eddie Litzenberger, Chicago, 13.

The university's board of trustees will meet Saturday and is expected to recommend the faculty group re-consider its vote against the bowl.

If this maneuver doesn't succeed, then the factions interested in continuing the game will have to persuade one of the negative schools to abstain from voting.

Back in 1951, there was a similar 5-5 logjam but when the final vote was cast one school abstained and the issue went through by a 5-4 count, extending the contract for a three-year period.

Burkemo and Partner Win Opening Pro-Am

Wally Burkemo and one of his Franklin Hills members, Ronnie Kottler, combined to win the Michigan PGA's opening pro-amateur golf tournament of the year Monday at Plum Hollow Golf Club.

Burkemo equaled par 72 on his own and some timely assistance from Kottler enabled the two golfers to card a best-ball score of 65. Three teams tied for 2nd place with 66. An all-time record total of 162 teams competed.

Pirates Add Coach

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today announced the appointment of George F. Detore, 32, as a member of the coaching staff.

Bosox Offer Tigers Chance to Step Up

Giants on Top After Shading Reds

Face Cleans Up for Pirates

By United Press International

The Pittsburgh Pirates have done an "about face" with Elroy Face.

Off to the worst start in the National League when they lost their first five games, the Pirates have bounced back at a .692 pace and have moved to within easy reach of the tightly-bunched league leaders.

And the "big man" in the comeback has been the little, 155-pound relief ace from Stephentown, N.Y., who has scored three of the Pirates' nine wins, saved another game and has a 1.93 earned run average for seven appearances totaling 14 innings this season.

Face cleaned up in tidy fashion again Monday night when the Pirates shaded the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, and thus moved into fifth place only two games behind the first-place San Francisco Giants. The victory was the Pirates' third straight, their fourth in five games and their ninth in 13 since April 15 when they dropped their fifth consecutive game.

During the same three-week period since April 15, the Giants show an 8-7 record, the Los Angeles Dodgers an 11-7 mark, the Milwaukee Braves a 7-8 slate and the Cincinnati Reds an 8-8 pace.

The in-again, out-again Giants went back into first place by nine percentage points last night with a 5-5 win over the Reds while the Dodgers went into second place with a 5-3 victory over the Braves in the other National League activity. The Boston Red Sox beat the Kansas City Athletics, 8-4, in the only American League game.

The Pirates, whose last four victories have been by one-run margins, scored both their runs in the eighth inning after being limited to three hits by Bob Anderson.

Face shut out the Cubs in the ninth inning to preserve big Ron Kline's second triumph of the year. Kline yielded only four hits in eight innings and retired 14 straight batters during one stretch.

The Dodgers maintained their mastery over all-time great southpaw Warren Spahn as Gil Hodges, connected for two homers, a double and a single and Don Demeter hit his seventh homer. Johnny Podres, aided by Art Fowler in the ninth, gained his third win despite homers by Ed Mathews and Joe Adcock.

Jackie Jensen drove in two runs with his fifth homer and Dick Gernert knocked in three runs with two doubles and two singles to help Boston's Don Monbouquette win his first game.

Boston Minus Top Hitters in Tonight's Game

Dykes Plans to Open With Bunning Against Rookie Jerry Casale

DETROIT (UPI) — The Tigers get another chance to take a step back on the long comeback road tonight when they entertain the crippled Boston Red Sox.

Boston still is without its biggest bats—Ted Williams, Gene Stephens and Vic Wertz. Wertz was inactive over the weekend with a pulled shoulder muscle. Stephens, who hits in Briggs Stadium nearly as well as Williams, broke his right arm in Chicago last Friday and will be out six weeks.

Williams still hasn't played a game this season due to his spring training neck injury and isn't expected back until about May 12. The Red Sox currently have Bill Renna in left, Marty Keough in center and Jackie Jensen in right.

For the first time this season, the Tigers had a chance to relax yesterday. Bill Norman had the club working out on every off day in an attempt to snap the team out of its slump with no success.

After Sunday's double victory over the Yankees, Jimmy Dykes proclaimed yesterday as a day off, although several players, including Larry Doby whose average has skidded to .234 when he went hitless in the twin bill, staged an impromptu workout.

Dykes also made an appearance at the stadium to sign his contract. With the rush trip from Pittsburgh and the games Sunday, he didn't have a chance for the formalities.

"At least the Tigers still want me," Dykes said with a grin. "In Cincinnati last year, a city of about 500,000, there were 499,999 who wanted me back to manage—all but one and he was the one who counted—Gabe Paul. And I thought this was a land of majority rule."

Dykes' reward for picking up the Red Sox last August and taking them to fourth place finish was dismissal. "When Paul asked me to take over when Birdie Tebbetts quit, he told me it was for the interim. I thought it would just be for three days and I was sure of it when we lost our first two games."

Dykes said his formula for perking up the Red Sox was a simple one. "I'm a great believer in relaxing and that's what I told them to do. I told Detroit (he pronounces it "Deetroit") the same thing Sunday."

Dykes said he'd start Jim Bunning (0-3) against Boston rookie Jerry Casale (1-2) tonight.

Boone-Simpson Deal Runs Into Trouble

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago White Sox trade deal with the Kansas City Athletics—infielder Ray Boone, for Harry (Suitcase) Simpson—appears to have hit a snag.

Reports today indicated Boone may retire from baseball rather than report to Kansas City.

However, the 35-year-old major league veteran, planned to meet with Bill Veck, new 54 per cent owner of the White Sox, before making a final decision.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Misplaced drives.

DIAGNOSIS: Failure to plan ahead.

TREATMENT: The unthinking golfer who tees up his ball and slams away in the general direction of the hole will never get the full benefit of whatever driving ability he has. To get the full benefit, thought should be given to placement as well as distance.

Before hitting a drive, consider the type of second shot you are setting up for yourself. The illustration shows a cagey player sacrificing some distance to insure an open second shot. He is taking a slightly longer route to the green but a much safer one.

You may feel that the advice given here would apply only to the experts—on the grounds that most golfers have trouble just keeping the ball on the fairway. But I contend the advice applies to all golfers. Golf is a game of strategy as well as power. This is as true of the duffer as of the expert.

Try giving more thought to drive placement and your average score will drop.

HIS NIBS, MR. HOGAN—The smiling boy on the right is Felman Williams, who won the city marbles championship Saturday at Oakland Park. Williams, a 5th grader at Bethune School, defeated Bill Kelly (left) of Malkin School in the finals of the 12th annual tournament sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department in cooperation with The Pontiac Press. Williams received the Press trophy for his achievement.

Downs Hawkins in Playoff

Hogan Colonial Winner

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Ben Hogan, who aspires to become the first man in history to win the National Open five times, said today he hoped that playoff victory for the Colonial National Invitation was a "good omen."

He won his fifth Colonial as he beat Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., by four strokes yesterday. It also was the first time Hogan won a tournament five times and he has taken 65 over the years. Hogan shot a 1-under par 69, Hawkins 73 yesterday.

Hogan said he was going to play some more tournament golf before the National Open "because that's the only way you can get ready for it." So he expects to enter the Memphis, Tenn. Open three weeks from now.

Hogan beat Hawkins by rolling up a 4-stroke lead in the first seven holes, then coming in with just straight golf. The two tied for first place in the Colonial tournament when they shot 285 for 72 holes and the playoff was to decide which got $5,000 first money. Hawkins received $3,000 for second place.

All of the players on the tour, including Hawkins, already are in Oklahoma City for the Oklahoma City Open starting Thursday.

Hogan has played more tournament golf this year than any year since 1955 when he lost to Jack Fleck in a playoff on the National Open. That day Fleck was using Hogan clubs (Hogan has a club manufacturing concern here) and yesterday Hawkins was using Hogan clubs.

"At first I thought it might be a repeat of that Jack Fleck match," grinned Hogan.

Ben appeared confident he might win the Open. He said he was putting better than he had in five years.

Drayton Merchant Buys Silver Lake Golf Club

The Silver Lake Golf Club at 2602 W. Walton Blvd., Drayton Plains, has been sold to Frederick Green, owner of a Drayton Plains men's store.

The nine-hole golf course has been in existence for more than 30 years, and owned by William C. Fleischauer for the last 16 years.

Green said that there will be no change in policy or increase in rates.

Tomy Lee Heads West for Rest Derby Champ By-Passes Preakness and Belmont

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Derby champ Tomy Lee, sound but tired, heads west tonight for a rest.

Like Determine five years ago, the little English-bred colt got the big one and is bypassing the other legs in racing's Triple Crown, the Preakness and the Belmont.

Trainer Frank Childs said he'll rest Tomy Lee until the Hollywood Derby on June 27, then bring him to Chicago for a couple of big stakes later this summer.

"He's had three hard races in a row and is kinda off his feed," Childs said. "We thought it better to skip the Preakness. That's a real tough race."

The trainer decided earlier Monday the Triple Crown wasn't for his colt as he made plans to pass the 1 1/2 mile Belmont, on June 13.

Tomy Lee had a real battle on his hands in the Kentucky Derby. He raced head and head with Sword Dancer from the backstretch to the wire, getting there by only a nose.

Titan Tossers NCAA Hopefuls

U. of D. 9 Reaching
New Heights; May
Land Tourney Berth

DETROIT (UPI) — The University of Detroit's basketball team, a patsy in past years, has soared to new heights this season and if the Titans continue at their present rate, they may get an at-large bid to the NCAA district 4 tournament.

The Titans and Notre Dame are the chief contenders for at-large spots in the tournament, which also takes in the Big Ten and Mid-American Conference champions.

Detroit, always hampered by the inability to make a southern conditioning trip in the spring as the Big Ten teams and Western Michigan do, carried an eight-game winning streak into heavy action this week. The Titans were 9-1 after their last game on April 23 and since had been idled by weather conditions.

The Titans were scheduled to play Hillsdale today, Toledo Wednesday, Ferris Thursday and Alma Friday.

Notre Dame was 16-3 after the weekend, including a rout of Michigan last Thursday.

Huron Bowl Hits 2478 to Lead Locals in WIBC

Special to the Press

BUFFALO, N. Y. — Huron Bowl, captained by Gen. Bradley, is pacing several Pontiac teams which have competed in the WIBC tournament this far.

The Huron women totaled 2478 over the past weekend as Oakland County legions swung into action for the first time. Local entries will be bowling in the tourney throughout May.

Other Pontiac scores posted thus far have been Ward's Furniture, 2270; Stroh's, 2210; Griff's, 2155; Talbot's, 1997; Rouse Pflastering, 1985; and A. N. Hickson, 2007. A 2873 total heads the pack.

NBA Move to Stir Up Action

3 Middleweight Title Matches Possible in '59

Sugar Ray May Try to Win Back Lost Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Boxing Assn.'s title-vacating action against Sugar Ray Robinson is bound to stir up plenty of activity in the rings and possibly the courts.

Instead of just one middleweight title fight this year, there may be three — provided by a couple of champions.

Why two champions? Well, there's still Sugar Ray, who says he's not retiring. And then there will be the winner of the proposed Carmen Basilio-Gene Fullmer scrap to determine the NBA's successor to Robinson.

The Basilio-Fullmer winner then will have to face another leading contender, undoubtedly Spider Webb of Chicago, by NBA edict.

The NBA's long heralded move against Sugar Ray was announced yesterday by Dr. Ward Wylie, president of the boxing body. Dr. Wylie said members of the NBA's executive committee were polled and they voted unanimously to strip Robinson of his title.

Sugar Ray, hasn't fought since he regained the middleweight crown from Basilio in Chicago, March 25, 1958.

"Robinson has failed to keep his agreement with the NBA to defend his title," said Dr. Wylie in announcing the title-stripping decision from Mullens, W. Va.

He said the NBA would recognize the Fullmer-Basilio winner, Syracuse promoter Norm Rothchild said he had signed both champions for Syracuse in the summer.

Robinson had been warned several times by the NBA that he was long overdue to risk his title under the six-months defense rule.

New York, which is not a member of the NBA, has given the dapper Harlem businessman until May 15 to sign for a title fight with Basilio. And they have the backing of the State Supreme Court.

Robinson moaned that the NBA had "dealt me a foul blow. They can have their own champion and do what they want about it. But I'm not retiring."

He indicated he still may fight Germany's Gustav Scholz, the European champion, and possibly in Europe. The New York Athletic Commission, in taking its action against Sugar Ray, ruled Scholz was not a fit opponent at this time. The German is ranked as the No. 4 contender.

Sweden, Brazil Win in Tennis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

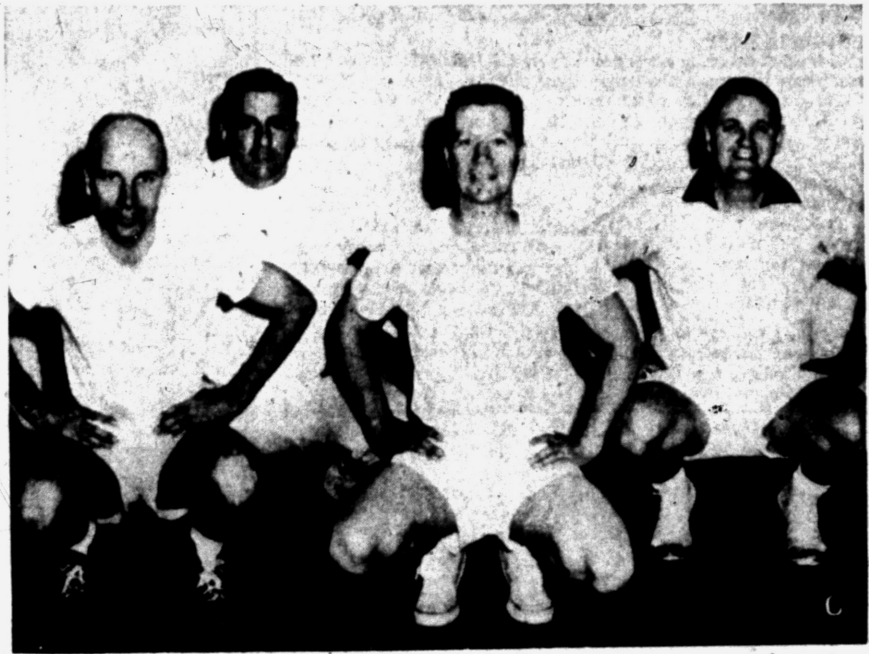

Sweden and Brazil made a clean sweep of their matches with Hungary and West Germany, respectively, as play in the first round of the European Zone Davis Cup competition neared completion.

Great Britain, which drew a bye in the first round, already has advanced to the third round through its victory over Luxembourg.

Sweden took the two final singles matches to sweep Hungary, 5-0. Jan-Erik Lundquist disposed of Stephen Gulyas, 6-3, 7-5, 6-1, and Ulf Schmidt went to four sets to defeat Andrew Adam, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4 and 7-5.

Brazil won 4-0 over the West Germans as rain prevented completion of the fifth match.

Brazil now will meet Poland in the second round, and Sweden will meet Chile.

Rams End Drought; Avon Miler Ties Record

Milford Nine Continues Unbeaten

Milford kept its victory streak going as St. Fred was ending a losing skein on the high school baseball front yesterday.

The Redskins won their 7th straight contest belting Brighton 8-0, while the Rams were dumping St. Rita 6-2 to end a winless drought at six.

Baseball dominated Tuesday's action but track got into the picture at Fitzgerald where the usual three duals were held under the lights with Avondale miler Dick Hutchinson tying his own league record in 4:44.

A two-hitter by Terry Anderson gave Milford its 5th successive Wayne-Oakland triumph. He and Jim Scheiber had two hits apiece, Bob Porritt gave up only three safeties, got four himself and stole home once in Clarkson's 10-0 rout of Holly. It was the Wolves' initial loop triumph.

Bloomfield Hills came from behind twice to down West Bloomfield 5-4 with John Dixon's homer starting the deciding rally. Bruce Withers won in relief beating John Lucadam. The schools also met in golf with the tables turned. The Lakers won out 161-171 at Pontiac Country Club featuring a 37 by Barry Johnson and Larry Hollister's 38.

Phil Bieri hurled the St. Fredrick win, pitching shutout ball after a rough 1st frame. The Rams scored all their runs in the early innings. St. Clement whipped St. James 6-1 in another Suburban Catholic game.

Hutchinson also won the broad jump and Tom Greenlees starred but Avondale had little else in an 81-27 track wallowing by Clawson. Freshman Bill Burnett paced a sweep of the shot put by breaking his own school record of 45 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

Mel Thomas and Flint Central defeated Cranbrook for the 2nd time 6-2, losing a shutout when the Cranes pulled a punt on a double steal. He allowed just two hits. Thomas had no-hit the locals earlier.

Chiefs, Huskies Collide for First Time on Track

For the first time in the new sports relationship between Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern High Schools, track teams representing the schools will collide today.

Today's dual meet takes place at 4 p.m. on the Northern field.

There was a great deal of interest in the meet, despite the fact the Chiefs are heavy favorites. The four-time Michigan high school champions have just tucked away their first important victory of the season, winning the University of Detroit relays, in a stretch duel with Redford, 34 points to 31 1/2, for the runnersup.

Huskies, starting their very first season on track and field, under the direction of Dick Marsh, have accumulated a lot of experience.

"We've started from scratch, and have a long ways to go," says Marsh. "But we have some good boys, and the small squad works hard."

Probably the leading performers for the Huskies are Mike Montgomery, a half-miler, Ed Murray, sophomore miler and Mike Fedynik, pole vaulter. Fedynik, also a sophomore, has bettered 11 feet several times. Mike Merwin is a consistent placer in the dashes.

There could be a hot race in the 880, between Chiefs' sophomore Ken Byrd, and Montgomery. Both have been clocked around 2:06-8.

Chiefs unquestionably hold an edge in dashes, hurdles, the jumps, shot and relays. Return of Bill Ratcliff to action after an illness that followed the first PCH meet, has boosted Chiefs' strength in the dashes.

Fred Brooks, ace high jumper, dash man, hurdler, spearheads the Chiefs' squad. Bill Pritchett has come a long way in recent weeks to pose a real threat for the shot, against any area, or Valley opposition. He has consistently tossed the lead ball over 51 feet.

College Boxer Dies After Bout

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A Texas A&M sophomore from Dallas died Monday from injuries received in a boxing match at Sam Houston State College at Huntsville.

Curtis Raymond Lyons, 19, died in Methodist Hospital, where he was admitted after the Thursday night bout with Fred White of Sam Houston State.

Lyons was injured when he was knocked out in the third round of a scheduled three-round match.

Algerian Leader Lefevre Has Right-Wing Support

Plots to Abolish De Gaulle Regime

ALGIERS (AP)—One of the men who played a key role in killing the French Fourth Republic last year now is plotting the doom of the fifth. He says the victory of his movement is only a question of time.

He is Dr. Bernard Lefevre, a quiet soft-spoken physician, one of the seven men who plotted the mob attack on the government building here last May 13. The attack led to the collapse of the fourth republic in Paris and brought Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power.

Now, like thousands of right wing Europeans in Algeria, Lefevre feels De Gaulle has wasted the victory and is leading France to disaster and Algeria to autonomy.

"My aim is to abolish the present government and I am not hiding it from anyone," Dr. Lefevre said in an interview.

He is the leader of the "movement for the Establishment of a Corporate Order" and member of the Algerian Public Safety Committee, one of the principal opposition forces to De Gaulle. His word means a lot to a dozen more extremist organizations who feel De Gaulle has betrayed them.

At this stage Lefevre is not worrying about his organization in Algeria, where his ideas seem firmly entrenched. His movement, he said, is penetrating the army and continental France.

CITIES PROGRESS

"We have made tremendous progress," said Lefevre, a short man in his early 40s. His corporate state doctrine has become the byword in many right wing circles in Algeria.

"The corporate state would abolish popular suffrage and replace it with competence and hierarchy," he said. The movement would be based on representatives of professions and not on political parties, which would be eliminated.

Algeria, according to Lefevre, should be considered another French province. He believes De Gaulle wants to give the North African territory internal autonomy after squashing the national rebellion and withdrawing the army.

"But De Gaulle is wrong," Lefevre said. "We have seen through his plan. And we are vigilant. Next time we strike it will not be a county fair, a popular picnic like last May 13."

"Remember, we are winning support everywhere, including the army. There are too many fools who expected great things of the Fifth Republic and now are bitterly disappointed. We don't need many to start a revolution. And the mass will follow."

"I am afraid, however, that this time blood will have to flow."

Panama Watch by OAS Ends

New Landing Reports Now Believed Just Fishermen's Tale

PANAMA (AP)—The Organization of American States ended its four-nation air-sea watch for new invasion attempts against Panama's coast "tonday."

OAS military observers prepared to pull out as Panamanian officials said reports of new mystery landings on Panama's Pacific coast appeared false.

A government spokesman said that some 30 men who reportedly landed in small boats Saturday night at Bahia Honda, 150 miles from Panama City, may have been fishermen.

Air observers spotted the landings while scanning the shores for any further invasion attempt by forces opposing President Ernesto de la Guardia's government.

The United States, Colombia, Ecuador and Guatemala participated in the OAS patrol, which was ordered after about 90 Cubans enlisted by Panamanian opponents of De la Guardia landed last week on the Caribbean coast. The popular uprising they expected didn't materialize, and the invaders surrendered last Friday.

The patrol force included 21 U.S. planes, most of them based in the Canal Zone, the U.S. minesweeper Falcon, destroyer Robinson and a U.S. Army boat; a frigate and two jet planes from Colombia, two transport planes from Ecuador and two pilots from Guatemala.

Teleprinter Rate Hike Requested by AT&T

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The American Telephone & Telegraph Co. yesterday asked the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for a 4 per cent increase in leased teleprinter service rates.

The AT&T said it suggested this as a first step toward their ultimate goal of earning 10 per cent on net investment for these services.

The company also urged restoration of the major part of last August's 15 per cent cut in AT&T charges for leased telephone grade service, including telephoto.

These reductions had been ordered by the FCC to bring AT&T earnings on those services down from 15 per cent to about 7½ per cent of net investment.

The telephone company's program was outlined in documents distributed over the weekend to the FCC and other participants (including news gathering agencies, American Newspaper Publishers Assn. and the National Assn. of Broadcasters) in the FCC investigation of a T&T and Western Union rates and regulations for leased telephone and teleprinter services.

The investigation is now in its fourth year and present indications are it will be concluded within the next few months with a final order from the FCC.

Officers Like Punch Bowl With That Beat-Up Look

QUONSET POINT, R. I. (AP)—Officers love every dent in an aircraft carrier's hull.

The bowl was damaged back in 1898 aboard the battleship Indiana when she took a mortar shell hit in the Spanish-American War.

Recently officers sent it to a New York jeweler for cleaning. The jeweler removed the dents. The officers rushed it back with orders—restore the dents, at our expense. The jeweler did. The officers picked up the chit.

Scholars Battle to Keep Latin Alive in England

OXFORD, England (AP)—Latin scholars girded themselves for battle to keep their beloved dead language alive at Britain's leading universities.

Some chaps who go in for science and all that want to drop Latin as a compulsory subject for entry to Oxford and Cambridge.

It's caused the biggest fuss since the ancient universities decided to let in the girls. And for lovers of tradition, it's just as serious.

The storm is due to break in Oxford today at Congregation, the university parliament. Sir Cyril Hinshelwood, a distinguished professor of chemistry, will propose abolishing compulsory Latin and making it one of several optional subjects — including Russian.

"It wouldn't be hard to call the man a cad," one traditionalist bitterly remarked.

Corn, Soybeans Holding Steady

CHICAGO (U) — Corn and soybean futures were steady but other grains were slightly easier today in early Board of Trade transactions.

Most price fluctuations were within small fractions either way from previous closes with trading generally slow. Trade influences were small and minor.

C. M. Galvin, statistician, and Francis I. DuPont & Co. issued today their first estimate of the year of winter wheat production. It indicated a yield of about 93 1/2 million bushels based on conditions as of May 1. That figure is about 33 million less than the estimate by the Department of Agriculture on April 1 conditions.

Near the end of the first hour the report had imparted some firmness to wheat. At that time wheat was unchanged to 1/2 cent a bushel higher, May $1.94 1/2; corn 1/2 to 1/4 higher, May $1.26 1/2; oats 1/4 to 1/2 lower, May 66 1/2; rye 1/4 higher to 1/2 lower, May $1.42; soybeans unchanged to 1/4 higher, May $2.28 1/2.

Nobel Scientist to Lead Nuclear Protest to Nikita

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Prof. C. F. Powell, Nobel Prize winner and professor of physics at Bristol University, England, is to lead a delegation of scientists to Moscow within 10 days to call on Premier Khrushchev to stop H-bomb tests.

Powell, who has just completed a lecture tour in Australia, announced the plan at Darwin. He declined to name other members of the delegation but said American philanthropist Cyrus Eaton is financing the trip.

After calling on Khrushchev the party will visit other heads of government.

Members of the party were nominated at meetings of scientists held during the past four years. Powell said, and added:

"Three countries now have atomic weapons. Soon there will be four and then shortly after may be five or six. The chances of accidents happening will then be very great.

"Governments of all countries must realize that the effects of a third world war, in which atomic and H-bombs would inevitably be used, would be catastrophic."

To Arraign Youths After Crime Spree

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Two runaways from a boys school who staged a three-day crime spree in northern Michigan were held today for court action.

Chippewa County authorities said probate (juvenile) court would be asked to waive jurisdiction over Jay M. Holloway, 16, of Muskegon. The other, Robert Squires, also 16, of Grand Rapids, would be left to juvenile custody.

The pair, runaways from the Star Commonwealth for Boys at Albion in southern Michigan, were captured yesterday after a week-end spree that included car thefts and an abduction.

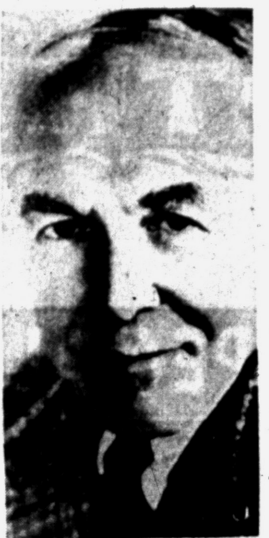

No one was injured and the kidnapped victim, Charles L. Carly, 38, of Mackinaw City, escaped.

MacLeish, Mauldin, Taylor Win 1959 Pulitzer Awards

NEW YORK (AP) — "JB," a cartoonist for "Stars and Stripes," the Army newspaper, Mauldin made Willie and Joe, a bedraggled pair of GIs, symbols of the fighting American infantryman.

The prizes for journalism, except for the medal, carry $1,000 cash awards. Awards for literature and music are for $500 each.

The 43rd annual prizes were awarded by the Columbia University trustees on recommendations by the Advisory Board on Pulitzer Prizes. The awards have been given since 1917 through a bequest in the will of Joseph Pulitzer, newspaper publisher who died in 1911.

His prize-winning cartoon was published after the Soviet Union forced Boris Pasternak to give up the Nobel Prize in literature. The cartoon's caption was: "I won the Nobel Prize for literature. What was your crime?"

A campaign against vice, gambling and corruption in Utica, N.Y., that achieved sweeping reforms won the 1959 Pulitzer Prize medal for meritorious public service for the Utica Observer-Dispatch and the Utica Daily Press, members of the Gannett group of newspapers.

"The Travels of Jamie McPheters," the adventures of a boy and his father during a wagon-train trek to California in the 1849 gold rush, was named the best American novel of 1958. Its author, Robert Lewis Taylor, 36, of Sharon, Conn., has written eight other books and numerous magazine pieces.

MacLeish's triumph was announced three days before his 67th birthday. The tall, gray-haired former librarian of Congress is professor of English at Harvard and lives at Cambridge, Mass.

His winning play opened on Broadway last Dec. 11. Last month it won the American Theater Wings Antoinette Perry award as the best Broadway play of the season.

As a three-time Pulitzer Prize winner, MacLeish is bracketed with Carl Sandburg, Lincoln scholar and poet; Thornton Wilder, novelist and playwright, and cartoonist Rollin Kirby and Edmund Duffy.

Only three men have won four prizes each. They are poet Robert Frost, playwright Eugene O'Neill and Robert E. Sherwood, playwright and biographer. Mauldin, 37, won his first Pulitzer Prize in 1945. As a wartime

'Y' Fun Club Signs Members

Program Will Provide Summer Play, Trips for 240 Youngsters

Registrations for the Pontiac YMCA Summer Fun Club are now being accepted at the 'Y' building, 131 Mt. Clemens St.

The club capacity is 120 boys and 120 girls. Applicants will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost is $3 for 'Y' members and $9 for non-members.

The program will run from June 29 through August 7.

Summer club activities include swimming, outdoor sports, wood-working, handicrafts, singing, trampolines, movies and educational trips.

Journeys for which an additional fee will be charged will be to the Detroit Zoo, Cinerama, the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, and Bob-Lo Island.

A child may register at the 'Y' without his parents accompanying him, according to Robert Wisdom, youth director, but all applications must be made at the 'Y' building. No phone calls are being accepted.

Any child eight years or older may participate.

There are a few openings for club leaders for which boys and girls 12 or older may qualify. Wisdom said.

Sun Has Gotten 2 Pct. Brighter in Past 5 Years

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — For five years the sun has been getting brighter says a team of Lowell Observatory astronomers.

They said Monday the sun is 2 per cent brighter now than when they started a study five years ago.

Harold Johnson, head of the project, said the brightness probably moves in cycles and may decrease.

"But we are not sure now," he said, "our studies will have to continue at least six more years for a definite answer."

The astronomers agreed there is no danger of the earth or other planets being reduced to ashes.

But what if the brightness increase continues? In 50 years the sun will be twice as bright as now, one astronomer said.

What would that mean to mankind? "Don't ask me," Johnson said.

If Hollywood's Kookie, Look at Public - Actress

By EARL WILSON

"So help me God," Claudette Colbert said, "I promise you there is more scandal in the ordinary cross-section of the public than among the so-called 'kookie characters' of Hollywood."

She sat in her Park Avenue apartment discussing this because she's to head a CBS-TV show called "Women" on May 19—and wherever you find scandal, you find women.

"If you think all the society belles are dolls—did you ever notice that in the society columns all the daughters have different names than their mothers?"

"And that gal Connie who murdered her lover—if that had been an actress!"

Miss Colbert shuddered in the slacks and tan cotton shirt that Perry Como sent her after she did his TV show—a copy of the sweat shirt he wears.

The "Women" TV show she's doing was shot in Chicago—the particular question being whether people are marrying too early now.

"In 1930, the average marrying age for girls was 22, in '36 it had gone to 20, and it's 19 now."

"Is that too young? As I unfortunately did not have any children, I don't know."

"My best friend's two daughters got married very young, have children and are deliriously happy. But I remember their mother hit the ceiling."

"I also remember my husband taking both her arms one day and saying about one one daughter: 'She did not commit a murder—she got married!'"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jason Robards Jr. will deny it, but he recently got a quiet divorce and was married in Connecticut to an actress whose name he's trying to keep secret. (He's the father of three) . . . Henry Fonda's talented daughter made a sensational screen test for Josh Logan and was picked by Warners for their picture, "Tall Story." Her father, far from interceding for her, hasn't even seen the test.

Rhonda Fleming and Kim Novak don't appreciate Zsa Zsa Gabor going to the Cannes Film Festival—ahead of them, when they were invited . . . Jazz star Jerry Mulligan's wife is getting a Mexican divorce, clearing the way for him to wed Judy Holiday.

Bob Hope got dizzy while taping his TV show, may postpone his New York trip to open "Alias Jesse James" . . . Henry Belafonte's ex-wife Marguerite told Jet magazine, "The first time I married for love; next time it'll be to improve my financial status."

EARL'S PEARLS: Every man is free to choose his own government—blonde, brunette or redhead.

Comic Roger Price tells of the TV hucksters who agreed that Lincoln was right: "You can fool some of the people all of the time—and that's the crowd we gotta grab!" That's earl, brother.

TV News and Reviews

Arthur Murray Party Is Visual Chew for Toilworn

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—There are many simple objects of pleasure whose merits escape me: The glutinous pizza pie, parades, girls in field hockey uniforms, mounds of pop-up toasters in hifi, automobiles, cuddly greeting cards, the Reader's Digest, Grandma Moses, home movies and all acrobats.

To this list, I would add NBC-TV's Arthur Murray Party.

I must confess the popularity of Arthur Murray Party is a complete source of bafflement to me.

I find it not nearly so interesting, say, as a hot bath or a conversation with a parakeet or a perusal of the collected wisdom of Yogi Berra. It is perhaps the nearest thing to betel nut in the Western world—a kind of visual chew for the toilworn.

Last night, emcee Kathryn Murray, a lady with more self-confidence than King Kong, swiveled through a half hour of . . . well, a half hour of. Two composers, Al Hoffman and Dick Manning, came on and played some of their old hits—Mairzy Doats, Chi-Baba Chi-Baba, Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo and Hot Ziggity—and as the oldsters say, they sure don't write songs like that anymore.

Anyway, the whole half hour—as it is every week—was a serene in zero, a kind of omelet in goose eggs. It was shut down for the evening by Kathryn's husband, Arthur, who walked on stage with the ease of a man whose body had been starched and ironed by mistake.

SHORT SHOTS: Half hour shows like last night's The Texan on CBS-TV and Wells Fargo on NBC-TV remind me of the radio shows I used to listen to as a kid—Jack Armstrong, Orphan Annie, Buck Rogers. Only back then, adults scoffed at such trips. Today, they sit entranced, in front of their screens.

ABC-TV's Voice of Firestone turned out a rather stodgy tribute to Richard Rodgers last night and Rodgers himself had very little to say that was interesting about his own work—obviously, he is beginning to look upon himself as a grand old man of the theatre and takes himself far too seriously.

Pair Sentenced for Store Theft

4-Time Loser Receives 5 to 15 Years; Buddy Put on Probation

Leroy E. French, a 49-year-old Pontiac truck driver, headed today for another stretch in prison after Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams sentenced him to from 5 to 15 years in Jackson Prison for stealing $200 and blank money orders from a Pontiac drug store.

Another Pontiac man arrested for the same crime, James Mattson, 25, of 758 E. Mansfield Ave., was placed on three years probation and assessed $100 court costs by Judge Adams.

French, of 755 E. Mansfield Ave., had three previous felony convictions, Judge Adams pointed out in sentencing him.

Both French and Mattson originally had stood mute March 30 to breaking and entering during the nighttime, but on April 13 changed their pleas to guilty.

They were charged with stealing the money and money orders from the Furtney's Drug Store, 774 Jollyn Ave.

Forging the checks, police said, was made possible after French broke into a Clarkston coal yard and took a check protector.

Eying Reports Lunik Nothing but a Hoax

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Space Committee has decided to investigate claims that Russia's man-made planet Lunik was a hoax.

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La.) said the committee would spend two days next week delving into this and other matters.

Brooks said he would invite magazine correspondent Lloyd Mallan to appear along with officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

Mallan claimed in a recent article based on a series of talks with Russian scientists that Russia's claim of having sent Lunik soaring past the moon and into orbit around the sun last January was nothing but a "big Red lie." He said Lunik "does not exist and never did."

State Bill Asks Tax on U.S. Government

LANSING (AP) — A bill to remove the state sales tax exemption on purchases made by the federal government from Michigan contractors has been introduced in the Senate.

Republican Sens. John P. Smeekens of Coldwater and Clyde Geering of Holland estimate their measure will bring at least $5 million dollars a year into the state treasury.

They say the bill will avoid the necessity for further taxes on individuals or businesses.

Smeekens adds:

"While the legislature may have been justified in granting exemptions to the federal government, this justification became obsolete when Congress saw fit to have the federal government go into competition with private business."

Six Enlist in Navy Here During April

The Pontiac Navy Recruiting Station has announced the enlistment of six Oakland County men during April.

The only Pontiac recruit was Benny R. Harper of 269 Norton Ave.

Others were James G. Adams and Austin R. Crisman, both of Waterford Township; Marty J. Swartz of West Bloomfield Township; James M. Neph of Oxford and Thomas A. Glaspie of Berkeley.

Harper, Adams and Swartz chose to undergo their nine weeks of recruit training at Great Lakes, Ill., while the others have reported to the Naval Training Station at San Diego, Calif.

Nevada became U.S. territory (and later a state) in 1848 by the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo which ended the U.S. war with Mexico.

Truman Urges Increased Aid

Says U.S. Can Afford Long-Range Program of Mutual Security

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman advised Congress today not to cut the foreign aid program unless things are so bad it cuts its own salaries.

"I don't think there is any need to cut congressional salaries or to scuttle the mutual security program," he said. "We can provide adequate funds for both."

Telling the House Foreign Affairs Committee it is better posted on the details of President Eisenhower's $3,330,000,000 proposal than he is, Truman steered away from dollars and cents recommendations.

He made one exception: "The administration has asked for 700 million dollars (for the Development Loan Fund) but their own spokesmen, before the first of the year, were saying that this fund needed from one billion to 1½ billion dollars this year. Therefore, I do not think you ought to slash the administration request; I think you ought to increase it."

The Development Loan Fund helps underdeveloped nations to finance projects which regular banks normally won't handle because of the risks involved.

Truman said the authorization for the fund "ought to be a five-year program." He noted the Marshall Plan to rebuild war-devastated Europe was such a program.

Under Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Monday the State Department would not recommend a veto if Congress voted a five-year authorization for an enlarged fund. He said, however, he was not convinced the country has been sold on such a program.

Only 2 Have Filed for Waterford Posts

Although seven Waterford Township residents have taken out petitions as candidates for Board of Education posts, only two have filed for election June 8, according to Superintendent William Shunk.

Incumbent Edmund Windler of 5601 Hatcher Rd. and M. Virginia Ross of 6101 Adamson St. have filed for the two positions which expire this year.

Windler's and Marshall E. Smith's seats are to be filled. Terms run three years.
