Williams Hails Stevenson as 'Articulate' Spokesman Who Will Clarify Issues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, himself sometimes mentioned as a presidential possibility, hailed Stevenson as "one of our most articulate citizens." And hopes were expressed by some Stevenson supporters that he soon can be brought to Detroit.

Elsewhere on the political front, State Republican Chairman John Feikens said the CIO has taken over the Democratic Party in Michigan. And two Republican legislators said their television rebuttal to Gov. Williams on the mental health issue Sunday was not paid for out of state party funds.

The governor, commenting on Stevenson's move in Chicago Tuesday, said, "This is a period of great decisions and of look forward to a clear statement of his position on the great issues of our times."

He also said:

"All Democrats, and most Republicans, too, I believe, will wish Stevenson good luck and will applaud his assertion of a right which belongs to all native-born Americans—the right and privilege of submitting himself and his ideas to the American people in another of our great quadrennial debates."

In Detroit, Ben Goldstein, president of the "Volunteer Democrats" in Michigan, said he expects Stevenson to speak at a rally in Detroit's Veterans Memorial Nov. 29.

Democratic State Chairman Neil Steabler said Michigan Democrats will help Stevenson in any way they can without prejudicing themselves as regards other candidates.

Meanwhile Rep. Robert E. Waldron (R-Grosse Pointe Park) said "not one penny" came from the Republican state committee to finance a television rebuttal to Gov. Williams on the knotty issue of facilities for mentally retarded children.

Waldron and Rep. Richard C. Van Dusen (R-Birmingham) appeared on a TV program Sunday shortly after Gov. Williams had aired his side of the issue.

Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor), a leader of the Republican "Young Turks" in the House, appeared with the governor and supported his stand. He then demanded to know whether state funds were used by his two colleagues on the other program.

Waldron said that "when we heard of the governor's planned blast we merely passed the hat among Republican House members and got a willing and generous response."

Dulles Will Give Geneva Report

White House Requests Country-Wide Network Time for Address

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — The White House announced today it has requested radio and television time for Secretary of State Dulles to report to the American people on the Geneva conference after his talks here with President Eisenhower tomorrow and Friday.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said he expects Dulles to deliver his report on the new deadlock between East and West on Friday night from Washington.

The announcement came as President Eisenhower, kept indoors by cold and rain, dictated letters and read at his country home.

Because of the weather, the President dropped plans to open up shop in his new downtown Gettysburg office today.

The bad weather also cancelled plans for Secretary of Commerce Weeks to fly here for a conference with Eisenhower. Weeks will come tomorrow instead.

Besides conferring with Weeks he will see Budget Director Rowland Hughes and take a personal hand in charting the government's spending course for the next fiscal year. Then at 4 p.m. Dulles is due in with a report on Geneva.

He chatted a while with aides on the enclosed porch after breakfast, then set about dictating some thank-you notes dating from his seven-weeks hospitalization in Denver as well as some business and official correspondence.

Cold Wave Grips Midwest; Fog Shrouds Detroit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter played a preview over a large section of the nation today as an area from the northern and central Rockies eastward through the Missouri Valley was locked in the grip of a cold wave.

The Weather Bureau at Chicago issued special cold wave warnings for most of the Midwest with Wednesday night temperatures expected to hover around the zero mark. Meanwhile, the cold air early Wednesday continued to spread eastward and southward toward the Ohio Valley and the Gulf of Mexico.

Dense fog that grounded airplanes and forced ships to anchor in the Detroit area, lifted today and sea and air travel resumed.

The fog rolled in behind storms that struck Southern Michigan, Ohio and Indiana yesterday.

The Willow Run Airport said it canceled 175 flights during the 12-hour period that planes were grounded.

Rain, Snow Flurries Predicted for Pontiac

The weatherman predicts rain changing to snow and turning much colder for the Pontiac area tonight and Thursday.

The low tonight will be around 30 and the high tomorrow 32-36.

In the southwest portion of the state one to three inches of snow may accumulate, making driving conditions hazardous.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 47 degrees. The thermometer reading in downtown Pontiac was 50 at 2 p.m.

Plane Saboteur Faces Colorado Murder Trial

State Will Ask Death Penalty; Prosecution Is Due About Jan. 1

DENVER (INS)—Denver District Attorney Bert Keating began gathering evidence today to prosecute a first-degree murder charge against John Gilbert Graham, 23, who has admitted planting a time bomb in an airliner.

Keating filed the murder charge against the part time college student in Denver District Court yesterday after the federal government turned the sabotage case over to the state of Colorado.

The district attorney said he will seek the earliest possible trial date for Graham who will be arraigned tomorrow in Denver District Court.

Keating already has announced his intentions of asking for the maximum penalty for Graham—death in the gas chamber at the Colorado State Penitentiary.

Graham is accused of putting a homemade dynamite bomb with a timing device aboard a United Airlines DC6B that exploded and killed 44 persons, including his mother, near Longmont, Colo., Nov. 1.

W. A. Patterson, UAL president, signed the information against Graham yesterday which specifically charges the murder of Mrs. Daisy King, 53, Graham's mother.

The FBI, which cracked the case after five days' work, offered its "full cooperation" last night to Keating.

In Washington, a spokesman for the federal agency added the FBI would "continue its investigation and render all possible service" asked by the Denver district attorney.

Keating immediately assigned his top investigators to gather evidence after receiving the bizarre case. He said he would ask District Court for an early trial date. He estimated he would have the case fully prepared for prosecution around Jan. 1.

Graham has alternately lounged peacefully in his cell bunk or paced the small enclosure of his cell out of boredom. His appetite is good.

He apparently was emotionally unmoved yesterday after receiving his first visitor, the pastor of his church, The Rev. Lloyd C. Kellams of Lakewood Community Methodist Church.

They talked in whispers for 15 minutes. Later Graham wrote letters.

Ford Sale Set Jan. 16

NEW YORK (AP) — The seven investment firms named to handle the public offering of 6,952,293 shares of Ford Motor Co. stock recommended yesterday the stock be sold in the week beginning Jan. 16.

Pontiac's First Flag Received by Commission

CITY'S FIRST FLAG — Without an official flag since its inception as a city in 1861, Pontiac last night was presented with its first municipal banner. Designed by Milton F. Erickson, of Union Lake, it was presented to the City Commission by the Pontiac Assn. of Insurance Agents. Mayor William W. Donaldson (left) accepts the flag from J. L. Van Wagoner and Max E. Kerns, of the association. Looking on are Commissioners Roy V. Cooley and John E. Carry. The flag has a blue field with a white seal and gold fringe. The city's name is in red on a white strip.

Admitted Killer Will Be Quizzed

Suspect Being Taken to Kansas City Where Woman Was Slain

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Officers planned today to question ex-convict Arthur Ross Brown further on the slaying of pretty Mrs. Wilma Allen before filing additional charges against him.

Brown, arrested in San Francisco Monday, confessed the kidnap-slaying of 34-year-old Mrs. Allen while being questioned about other crimes. Mrs. Allen was the wife of William R. Allen Jr., wealthy Kansas City automobile dealer.

Brown, held on a Dyer Act charge of transporting a stolen automobile across state lines, waived a hearing in California and was scheduled to arrive here by plane this morning.

The Dyer charge was filed merely as holding device, officers pointed out. U. S. District Atty. Edward L. Scheuffler said Brown would be arraigned on the charge pending further investigation.

Under State Statute

Patrolman Seeking Trial by Mayor, Commission

A Pontiac patrolman suspended after reportedly ignoring Mayor William W. Donaldson's request that he arrest a drunk has asked that the mayor, rather than the Police Trial Board, hear his case.

Ockerman was scheduled to appear before the trial board. Instead, he chose to invoke a state law which allows war veterans to appear before the mayor or City Commission.

According to Donaldson, he spotted a drunk on the street, then soon after happened upon Ockerman. He told the officer of the drunk and recommended his arrest, he said.

He stated Ockerman told him he had to buy a filler for his ballpoint pen first but would then seek the drunk. Donaldson said he subsequently met another officer who apprehended the drunk.

Also leading to Ockerman's suspension was a charge that he hung an old violation ticket on his private car so he could leave it in a municipal parking stall all day.

Ockerman, 32, has been on the force since 1944.

Under a new provision of the law, known as the Veteran's Preference Act, City Attorney William A. Ewart will conduct the hearing.

He will present his findings to the mayor and City Commission for a decision.

Several commissioners indicated a dislike for the procedure, but it was pointed out there was no alternative under the state statute.

City Manager Walter K. Willman added the discomforting thought that 82 per cent of the city's policemen were veterans and could bypass the trial board should they ever be suspected of violating rules.

Here's a Store That Doesn't Have Front Door

CINCINNATI (AP)—This city has a store without a front door.

The supermarket's customer passes through an "air curtain." The movement of air in the curtain forms an invisible wall, keeping the heat in and insects out. It is the first supermarket in the United States to employ the air curtain unit developed in Switzerland.

Parking Lots Step Closer as Ordinance Gets Reading

A $600,000-plus municipal parking program moved into sharper focus last night as the City Commission heard the first reading of an ordinance authorizing a revenue bond issue to finance the program.

Final reading is scheduled for next Tuesday and 10 days later it will go to the State Municipal Finance Commission for approval, said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

State action will take about 30 days. Willman said he expects the bonds can be marketed by Feb. 1, provided the finance commission approves.

The municipal program, which will provide 624 added 5-cent-an-hour parking spaces at four downtown locations, will actually cost $633,447.

But $33,447 will come out of the city treasury.

The fourth lot in the program will be handled under a separate financial deal. Located off Auburn east of Saginaw, it will be leased for the present from the State Highway Dept.

It will furnish space for 67 autos when opened. Part of it will be used to straighten the Orchard Lake-Auburn jog at Saginaw in the future. The city will buy what is left.

Major lot will be a 3-section 328-auto facility in the Lafayette-Wayne-Pine-Jacokes section.

Another will be on West Lawrence west of Cass. It will run through to West Pike and accommodate 148 vehicles.

The last will serve 81 cars and is located on West Lawrence at the foot of Wayne.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States pressed today for quick Security Council action on applications of 18 nations for U.N. membership in a move to head off a long General Assembly debate.

The call, which received British support, prompted hurried consultations among council members to fix a meeting date. Informed sources said the 11-nation body might meet early next week.

* * *

But it also touched off an emergency caucus among the 22 nations sponsoring Canada's proposal to admit all 18 applicants including disputed Outer Mongolia.

* * *

The sponsors decided that the Canadian plan—which was reported to have the support of 42 countries despite U.S. opposition to Soviet-backed Outer Mongolia — should be the subject of general debate before the council acts.

Dulles Criticizes Soviet Motives

Secretary Claims Reds Were Given Orders Not to Talk Seriously

GENEVA (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles told the final session of the Geneva conference today that Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin apparently had sent Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov here "with orders not to discuss seriously," the reunification of Germany.

Dulles blamed Soviet resistance to reuniting Germany through free elections on fear that such an action would threaten Moscow's hold on the Communist satellite countries of Eastern Europe.

Dulles spoke after the Big Four agreed without argument to break up the present conference without any specific time or place for another meeting.

They did this by accepting a communique which they agreed to issue later today. It was a very brief document registering by implication the total failure of the meeting to provide solutions or make substantial progress

The communique was described as reporting only that the foreign ministers had met as their chiefs directed them to at the summit conference in July, that they had covered their assigned problems in their discussions, that they would recommend that the future course of their discussions be settled through diplomatic channels.

Companion Hurt as 450,000 Flood State's Forests

Accident Total Below Last Year's Record for Opening Day

A Walled Lake man was killed and 11 others wounded by gunfire Tuesday as an estimated 450,000 hunters took to Michigan woods and fields to open the 1956 deer season.

Lloyd Coe, 58, of 3635 Union Lake Rd., died at 7:30 a.m. when another hunter's gun accidentally discharged, struck Coe's hunting companion in the arm and ricocheted into his chest near Ewen in Ontonagon County.

Three others lost their lives from heart attacks and another was asphyxiated during the opening day.

The bullet that killed Coe first struck Amos Bentley, 47, also of Walled Lake, shattering his upper arm as the two walked through the woods.

The shot was reportedly fired by Gordon Laramie, 25, of Detroit, who collapsed after the shooting and was taken to a hospital in Land O' Lakes, Wis., suffering from what was diagnosed as a nervous breakdown.

A Birmingham resident, Ray Kidd, 52, of 2375 N.W. High, was among three who were severely burned when a bullet struck a lantern and set fire to their cabin between White Pine and Ontonagon.

Others reported wounded the first day included David Brocker, 17, of Belleview; Sally Schagel, 18, of Prescott; Clarence Harju, of Kaleva; Stanley Nelson, 39, of Twin Lakes; Bernard Janeck, 40, of Commerce; Linden Nickert, 43, of Carson City; Robert Andrews, 23, of Lansing; Robert Morrison, 37, of Detroit; and Rosemary Stakus, 34, of Dowagiac.

The relatively small casualty list was attributed to rainy weather which kept the majority of hunters indoors. Nine hunters were

Ah, Yes, Hunting Has Begun

Nimrods Roving Woods; Paratroopers Stay Home

MT. CLEMENS (AP) — A scheduled mass paraehute jump into the Huron National Forest east of Mio was called off yesterday by the air-sea rescue service of Selfridge Air Force Base.

The reason: The opening of deer hunting season. The Conservation Commission advised that hunters with itchy trigger fingers might accidentally open fire as parachutists crashed through the trees.

* * *

LaLonde had been hunting in the Johannesburg area with his brother, Joseph, 37, and he was in such a hurry to get home he took Joseph's car keys.

Joseph went hunting again last night — for a locksmith. His deer rifle is in the car.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The trophy mounted over State Trooper Elmer Lowe's fireplace came from a buck that couldn't duck. The buck wandered onto a highway yesterday and was hit by a truck.

CADILLAC (AP)—The Chamber of Commerce has prepared plaques for deer hunters who bring in the largest deer, the smallest buck, deer with the longest tail, the buck with most points and the trophy with the widest rack.

BIG RAPIDS (AP)—Clyde Hansen of Lansing yesterday was among the proud deer hunters displaying downed bucks from the Big Rapids area on opening day — but Hansen's trophy weathered a barrage before dropping.

He told companions the seven-point buck escaped eight shots fired by another hunter and 12 fired in two magazine loads by Hansen. The Lansing man's 13th blast downed the deer, Hansen said.

Vandalism 'Parents' Fault'

If the teen-age vandals from Keego Harbor had been brought up more conscientiously, their destructive spree last weekend would never have happened.

That's the opinion of Pontiac pedestrians, interviewed yesterday afternoon. Without exception, all the people who consented to comment condemned the boys' parents.

But most didn't want to say anything. In fact, five out of six people approached refused to talk about what was evidently a touchy subject.

MRS. McCOOL

Mrs. Earl McCool, of Drayton Plains, commented:

"The majority of that kind of thing starts in the home. There's not enough discipline. The kids are allowed to stay out late, and start running with the wrong kind.

"But it's not always the parents fault. I don't know . . . it's hard to say. It's a shame. You sometimes wonder what this next generation's coming to."

H. J. Pammenter, of Waterford, had a quick first reaction: "They ought to be paddled, hard."

In a more thoughtful vein, he continued, "I don't know. The parents will pay for it, and it's probably their fault. Generally seems to be. But how can you say?"

KNIGHT

Mrs. Fred Schwartz, of Walled Lake, said:

"Too often it comes back to the parents. Parents have to spend time with their youngsters. It isn't a simple problem."

JOHNSON

"If the parents aren't interested in their kids, who is?"

"Parents should be stricter," he said.

"If they'd been in school, it wouldn't have happened," said Mrs. Anderson Lamb, of 3[illegible] Ditmar Ave.

New Driver Law to Be Studied

Special Group Plans Survey to Evolve Rules for Administration

LANSING (AP) — A committee of educators and safety experts will meet Monday to work out a plan to administer Michigan's newly-enacted driver education law.

* * *

The law increases drivers licenses fees to finance driver education programs in public high schools. School districts will receive $25 for each student enrolled in a driving course.

In addition, the law provides that no youth under 18 can receive a driver's license after Feb. 1, 1957, unless he has passed an approved driver education course.

State Supt. of Public Instruction Clair L. Taylor said the group would start working out standards for the course.

They will determine the number of hours of classroom instruction required, the number of hours of actual driving experience, qualifications required of teachers and other standards.

A public hearing will be held before the standards are adopted as part of the state administrative code.

* * *

Attending Monday's meeting will be the Department of Public Instruction safety education committee, members of the State Safety Commission, university officials, the inter-industry highway safety committee, the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit, the Automobile Club of Michigan and school superintendents.

Five Die in Hunting Mishaps Opening Day killed, eight died of heart attacks and 46 were wounded during the opening day of deer season last year.

The first buck brought across the Straits of Mackinac belonged to Ralmor J. Katona, of Garden City. The deer, a 150-pound, eight-point buck, was shot in the Rudyard area.

Snow was expected to fall in the Upper Peninsula today, increasing the possibility that the second day of the 16-day season will see a larger deer kill than the first.

Hold Examination on Murder Charge

Samuel Vaughns, 73 Crawford St., is being examined today in Municipal Court on a charge of murdering a Detroit man Oct. 28.

A construction worker, Vaughns admitted to Pontiac Police that he shot Willie Henry, apparently after a quarrel over a woman.

The shooting took place at the corner of Bagley and Hibbard. Vaughns said he shot Henry with a shotgun after Henry drew a revolver. Vaughns was in a car at the time.

Two Men Hospitalized When Autos Collide

Bernard Watson, 24, of 98 S. Merrimac St., and Lake Orion resident Reginald T. Shepard, also 24, were taken to Pontiac General Hospital yesterday afternoon after their cars collided at Perry road and East Walton Boulevard.

Shepard, who suffered a fractured knee, was reported in "good" condition this morning. Watson was treated and released.

Sheriff's deputies said each of the two men claimed the other had run a red light.

Pet Lovers Pick Dogs' Monikers for Applications

Yesterday six new applications for incorporation were filed. The applicants: Cocker Bldg. Co., Pomeranian Bldg. Co., Poodle Bldg. Co., Scotty Bldg. Co., Spaniel Bldg. Co. and Terrier Bldg. Co.

* * *

The incorporators, all in the building and subdividing business, are V. David Leavin, Anthony T. Sangermano and E. W. Schrader.

Explained Schrader, "We're all dog lovers from way back. I've been raising Irish setters for a long time myself." Dogs will be more than welcome in the new subdivisions, he said.

Walter Denison Named to Post

Appointed an assistant Oakland County prosecutor today was Walter R. Denison, 24, of 53 Bloomfield Terrace, Bloomfield Township, Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem announced.

Lang will head the prosecutors' South Oakland bureau in the county office building at 111 S. Troy St., Royal Oak. He will assume duties now handled by Assistant Prosecutor Donald A. Brown who will work for the county on a part-time basis as Braun did.

Denison graduated from Cranbrook in 1949, received an A.B. degree from the University of Michigan in 1953 and a law degree from the University in 1955. He was admitted to the bar last month.

The new prosecutor is married and has one child. He will begin work next Tuesday.

Walkout Is Possible at Fisher Body Plant

Issues still unresolved at the bargaining table may result in a walkout Sunday or Monday at the Fisher Body Division plant here, a top union official said yesterday.

"Management has not settled the numerous speedup cases and related issues," said Harold A. Grant, president of Fisher Body Local 596 (UAW-CIO).

Grant said General Motors Corp. has been advised the union's international executive board intends to authorize a strike at Fisher Body.

"Since five days notice of intent is required by the UAW-GM contract, a strike could take place Sunday or Monday unless the issues are resolved," he said.

The local last week requested the international board to authorize a strike.

Policeman's Dog Sounds Alarm to Raise Family

Patrolman Robert F. Roland said he found his home at 208 W. Longfellow Ave. full of smoke after the dog roused him early this morning.

The Rolands' three children, ages 2, 3 and 4, were not harmed.

Patrolman Resigns From Police Force

Captain Crisp said Flanagan wanted to seek other employment.

High School Debaters Win in Saginaw Valley Contest

Pontiac High School Debate Team took first place yesterday in the Saginaw Valley Conference debate tournament, held at the high school. This was the second in four SVC tournaments. In the first, held Nov. 3 at Bay City, PHS tied for second place with two other teams.

More than 150 debaters representing six schools participated in yesterday's 36 debates. Topic was the national high school question, "Resolved, that the federal government should guarantee higher education to qualified high school graduates through grants to colleges and universities."

Each school took part in 12 debates. Pontiac debaters won 10 and lost 2 debates; Flint Northern High was second with 7 wins; Arthur Hill and Flint Central High teams tied for third place with 6 wins each.

Bay City Central was next with 5 wins, and Saginaw Eastern finished last with 2 wins. Sixteen regulars and 10 alternates comprised the Pontiac teams, coached by speech instructor Walter Smith.

The conference championship will go to the school that wins most debates in the four tournaments. Pontiac now has 17 victories and 7 defeats, while Central and Northern High of Flint are tied for second place with 14 wins each. The next tournament will be held Dec. 8 at Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw.

World to Learn Ford Earnings

Figures Will Be Given Next Month; Magazine Says $50 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — Newsweek Magazine reports that net income of the Ford Motor Co. "should hit 50 million dollars, or somewhat better" in 1955.

* * *

Newsweek said in its Nov. 21 issue it "has learned the most tightly kept secret in modern-day American business"—how much money the family-controlled Ford company is making.

"The best year in Ford's history—until 1955—was 1950, a year that set new records for most automakers," the magazine said. "In that year, it has been reported, Ford earned some 250 million dollars after taxes—and the report is almost exactly accurate."

Ford earnings long have been a matter of conjecture. The company, being privately owned, has not had to report them. The figures will be released next month with the Securities and Exchange Commission when 6,952,293 shares of Ford stock are offered to the public by the Ford Foundation. This sale will make the firm a public company.

Present Ford Motor stock is to be split before the public offering into three new classes of shares. Newsweek said that on the basis of 350 million dollars net for this year, per share earnings would be about $6.60 and a price of $60 a share for the stock would be likely.

Commission Picks 7 Board Members

Five incumbents and two new members were named to the Zoning Board of Appeals by the City Commission last night.

Re-appointed were Leslie R. Tripp, John E. Linabury, Harold J. Hackett, Maurice Fitzgerald, and Mrs. Lee Hill. Newly named were Allen Booth and City Commissioner Harry W. Lutz.

Kefauver Seeks Federal Law to Halt Practice of Interstate Sale of Babies

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) says the next session of Congress will be asked for strict federal laws to "stop the interstate sale of children."

* * *

After his U.S. senate subcommittee on juvenile delinquency had heard two days of testimony about baby adoption practices in Alabama, Georgia, Florida and Kansas, Kefauver said last night a law is necessary "making it a federal offense to sell babies across state lines."

"I do not believe repressive legislation will clear up this baby-selling business," Kefauver said, "It remains for local action to eliminate this problem. Young women, properly cared for and with kind consideration of their problem, are not targets for baby salesmen.

"Nevertheless, legislation is needed. As we view it, this legislation must insure that interstate adoptions are subject to professional review before children are placed in new homes."

JUDGE MAKES PROFIT

In its Miami hearings, the subcommittee heard testimony about a heavy traffic in babies out of Phenix City, Ala., Augusta, Ga., Wichita, Kan., and Miami to all parts of the nation. Many were illegitimate children. Some were taken away from their parents in court.

Ernest Mitler, special counsel for the subcommittee, testified that Juvenile Judge Harry Woodward of Augusta sent more than 400 children from there to other states and charged the adopting parents an average of $250 for his service. Woodward defended his methods as legal and ethical under Georgia law.

Reporter Mary Grice of the Wichita Beacon testified that 15 lawyers in that city are "selling babies to the highest bidder." She added that there is "no law in Kansas to prevent such practices."

* * *

Atty. Gen. John Patterson of Alabama told of baby selling and the close connection between juvenile delinquency and organized crime in Phenix City. And Reporter Jane Wood of the Miami Daily News testified that when she posed as a rich woman looking for a baby to adopt, two Miami doctors offered to sell her babies at prices ranging from $1,000 to $3,000.

The subcommittee will wind up its Miami hearings tomorrow by taking testimony from several Florida mayors on programs to curb and control juvenile delinquency.

3 Area Men Among 38 State Troopers

Three area men were among a class of 38 new State Police troopers recently sworn in as probationary officers by Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, and two non-area men in the group have been assigned to Pontiac post.

Clayton C. W. Beach of Lake Orion, a former U. S. Marine, will be assigned to the Jonesville post.

Also joining Pontiac State troopers is Peter R. Basolo, of Caspian.

A former Pontiac resident, Gerald R. Mausolf of Harbor Beach, has been assigned to the Ypsilanti post. Mausolf was a Marine in the Korean theater.

Congress Asked to Review Fines

Senator Wants Tougher Penalties, Jail Terms for Antitrust Violations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) wants Congress to raise the present $50,000 maximum fine for a criminal antitrust violation. He also would prevent corporations from paying such penalties for their convicted officials.

* * *

O'Mahoney, chairman of a Senate Judiciary Antimonopoly subcommittee, made the suggestions before taking additional public testimony today (10 a.m. EST) on the position of General Motors Corp., in the sales of buses.

Joseph W. Burns, chief counsel for the committee in its extensive study of General Motors, said yesterday that "it is reported that GM now has in excess of 75 per cent of the bus manufacturing business in this country."

He said GM "is the dominant company in the bus manufacturing industry," including both city and intercity type buses.

* * *

O'Mahoney's call for tougher antitrust penalties, including prison terms, came after William C. Dixon of Pasadena, Calif., a Justice Department antitrust lawyer from 1944 to 1954, said it took eight years of court actions to complete one case alleging restraint of trade.

Dixon, who prosecuted the case, said this involved National City Lines, Inc., a holding company which acquired local transit companies, General Motors, the Mack Manufacturing Corp., and oil and tire companies that supplied local bus systems.

* * *

GM and other suppliers put up funds for National City Lines, Dixon said, and in return got preferred stock and oral or written contracts for sales of 85 per cent of the buses, tires, petroleum products and other supplies.

He said this resulted in a criminal indictment for unlawful conspiracy to monopolize in 1947, and a conviction in 1949 after an appeal to the Supreme Court.

2 Area Artists Share in Exhibit's Award Money

Two area men were among 28 Michigan artists who shared in more than $3,500 prize money awarded at the 46th annual Michigan Artists Exhibition last night.

Local Youth Injured in Scooter Collision

Driver of the automobile, Mrs. Betty M. Pazder, 3032 Auburn Ave., told Pontiac Police the accident occurred when the boy made a left turn in front of her car at Auburn and Paddock Sts.

Ringing Alarm Foils Orion Factory Breakin

Thieves who broke into the M. C. Manufacturing Co.'s factory in Lake Orion apparently were scared off by the ringing burglar alarm before they had time to steal anything, factory officials said today.

Sheriff's deputies who investigated the alarm reported the would-be burglars had first broken a window, then climbed in and opened a door to enter in style.

Condemnation Group Holds First Meeting

Three men appointed by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick to handle condemnation proceedings for the continued widening of M24 held their first meeting yesterday.

They are John Q. Waddell, a local realtor; Rolfe H. Smith, of Roy Annett Inc., and Attorney Walter R. Denison.

The trio will inspect the property in question this afternoon, said Waddell.

Romulus Motorist Killed in Telegraph Accident

DETROIT (AP) — Robert J. Pidgeon, 35, of suburban Romulus, was killed yesterday on Telegraph road (U.S. 24) in the collision of his car and a freight truck.

State police said Pidgeon was the 55th person to die in a traffic accident on Telegraph since the first of the year.

MRS. KNEALE

Mrs. E. Kneale Dies Suddenly

Led Active Life Serving Church, Red Cross and Other County Societies

Mrs. Earle C. (Marjorie) Kneale, widely known in the city and county for service in church and social work, died suddenly at 1:15 this morning in her home, 586 Merrill St., Birmingham.

* * *

Born in Allegan County May 28, 1897 she was the daughter of David and Edith Payne Weaver. On May 26, 1926, she was married in Pontiac.

A member of All Saints Episcopal Church, Mrs. Kneale had been active in the Pontiac Branch of Needlework Guild, the Carol Brooks section of the Guild, the Oakland County chapter of American Red Cross, the Visiting Nurse Association and Guild Two of her church.

She began work in the Red Cross in 1932. When chairman of the motor unit, she started with three assistants but soon had many volunteer workers.

* * *

Mrs. Kneale had taken both the standard and advanced courses in first aid and motor mechanics. She was also trained in home nursing and as staff assistant.

Prior to moving to Birmingham four years ago, the Kneales made their home on Ottawa drive.

Surviving besides her husband, are her mother, a sister, Mrs. Harry Schreiber of Demarest, N.J. and a brother, Clarence P. Weaver of Lewiston, N. Y.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Friday in All Saints Episcopal Church with the Rev. C. George Widdifield officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call after 7 o'clock this evening at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

* * *

Gifts in lieu of flowers may be made to the Memorial Fund of All Saints Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Albert Burrows

Mrs. Albert (Viola Terry) Burrows, 75, of 239 State St. died yesterday afternoon at Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of one month.

Born in Port Sanilac July 7, 1880, she was the daughter of George and Amanda Platts.

Mrs. Burrows had been a resident of Pontiac 50 years. She was a member of the February Group of the First Presbyterian Church, Better Homes & Garden Club and a life member of chapter 228 of the Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. Goldie B. Mailahn of Auburn Heights and Walter E. Terry of Pontiac.

The funeral will be at 3:30 p.m. Friday in the Sparks-Griffin Chapel with her pastor, Dr. William H. Marbach, officiating. Burial will be in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Lloyd Coe

Lloyd Coe, 58, who was killed Tuesday morning while hunting near Ewen in the Upper Peninsula is at the Brown Funeral Home at Bruce's Corners near Ewen.

Mr. Coe made his home at 3635 Union Lake Rd.

He is survived by his wife, the former Avis Rice, his mother, Mrs. Jennie Coe of Commerce; a son, Robert, of Commerce; a brothr, Fred of Pontiac; two sisters, Mrs. Clyde Hazen of Walled Lake and Mrs. Edmund Drake of Farmington.

Mr. Coe will be brought home for service and burial. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Fred W. Mast

Service for Fred W. Mast, 74, of 146 Pingree St. will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday in the Voorhees-Siple Chapel with the Rev. Carl W. Nelson of St. John's Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Mr. Mast died at his home Tuesday after a two year illness.

Berant A. Ohme

Service for Berant A. Ohme, 66, of 2441 Mt. Clemens St. will be held in the Pursley Funeral Home this evening at 7 o'clock. He will then be taken to Slayton, Minn., for service and burial.

Mr. Ohme died yesterday morning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a brief illness.

Harry B. Sherman

Word has been received of the death yesterday of Harry B. Sherman of Midland, a former Pontiac resident.

Mr. Sherman was a former newscaster of a local radio station and had been prominent in affairs of the Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, the former Nellie Armstrong and one son, Ralf of Detroit.

The funeral will be in Midland Friday.

William H. Wilson

Word has been received of the death of William H. Wilson, brother of Elmer G. Wilson, local representative of Equitable Life Ins. Co.

Mr. Wilson was born March 13, 1874, one of eight children.

Mr. Wilson, 81, had worked in the comptroller's office of the City of Detroit 25 years.

While on his way Friday to a cabin near Roscommon for the weekend with several co-workers, he was taken ill in Flint and stopped at the home of his niece, Mrs. Beulah Wertman, 1320 N. Detroit. He died there Monday.

Besides his wife, the former Ray McLean, he is survived by his brother Elmer of Pontiac and Detroit.

Service will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Harper Milligan Funeral Home, Florence and Hamilton Sts., Highland Park.

Burial will follow at 2 p.m. in the Marlette Cemetery, with the Rev. Samuel Linderman of St. Paul Methodist Church, Highland Park, conducting the graveside service.

Christine Ann Zujko

Prayer service will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home for Christine Ann Zujko, 17-months-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Zujko of 132 Illinois Rd. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

The baby was born May 23, 1954 in Pontiac and died yesterday. Besides her parents, a brother, Richard and a sister Elaine, both at home, survive.

The Day in Birmingham

Three Governing Boards Act in Separate Sessions

BIRMINGHAM — Action came out of separate meetings held last night by the Board of Education, Planning Board and Building Code Board of Appeals.

Briefly, the Planning Board recommended immediate adoption of an earlier proposal made by Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley to the City Commission, a plan which would eliminate some of the all-day parking in the area immediately surrounding the new municipal parking lot.

Board of Education members will secure an appraisal on two parcels of property adjacent to which would make way for a six-room addition there.

They also reviewed preliminary sketches for the Birmingham High School swimming pool. The architect is working on plans for an indoor-outdoor type pool, where sliding doors would eliminate two walls when desired. A Citizens' Study Committee had recommended changes, incorporating indoor-outdoor construction into the plans.

DERBY SCHOOL POOL

Board members were advised that bids for construction of a pool at the new Derby Junior High School will be received Dec. 13.

Asked for an opinion by the City Commission on whether a swimming pool ordinance should be incorporated into Birmingham's building code, the Building Code Board of Appeals recommended last night that a separate pool ordinance be drafted here, possibly accomplished by making reference to a 19-page Detroit pool ordinance.

That ordinance is under Department of Health jurisdiction and the board asked that before any ordinance is adopted, it be sent to the local Health Department, the appeals board and the Recreation Board (regarding any public pools) for approval.

* * *

"Holiday Decorations" will be the theme of Mrs. Hazel P. Dunlop as she addresses the Newcomers Club following its 12:30 p.m. luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Community House. Her talk will be brought to life through demonstrations with holiday greens, fresh flowers, table appointments and other accessories.

A lecturer with the J. L. Hudson Co. Speakers Bureau, Mrs. Dunlop is the author of the book, "Let's Arrange Flowers," as well as numerous magazine articles. Other activities keeping Newcomers busy include monthly bridge parties and 10 bowling teams.

* * *

Jack Christianson, Detroit Lions football star, will be the guest speaker at the second annual Youth Banquet, starting at 5:30 tonight for all senior and junior high school students of the First Presbyterian Church.

Speaker at the Men's Club dinner at 6:45 p.m. tomorrow will be Jack White, Detroit radio newscaster.

Parents will visit their children's classrooms from 7 to 8 p.m. tomorrow, before attending Our Lady Queen of Martyrs' School PTA meeting. The Rev. Hugh Dunn, sociology instructor at the University of Detroit, will speak, with refreshments to follow.

* * *

City Commission action on Monday saw lawmakers approve a resolution calling for the redemption of $65,000 in automobile parking system revenue bonds, which have been paid through special assessments for construction of Municipal Parking Lot No. 1.

Commissioners had questioned the right to use these funds for other off-street parking facilities but were advised otherwise by bonding attorneys.

* * *

Each member will bring a gift for the white elephant party to follow tomorrow's 7 p.m. dinner of the Business Women's Club. Chairman for the party at the Community House is Mrs. Louise Pratt, assisted by Mrs. Hazel Lawler and others.

* * *

Mrs. Webster Buell

Service for Mrs. Webster (Marjorie M.) Buell, 32, of 15775 Birwood, will be at 11 a.m. Friday at St. James Episcopal Church, with burial in Roseland Park Cemetery. Mrs. Buell was killed yesterday in an auto accident in Farmington Township.

At the time of her death she was secretary for Webster Builders, Inc., Royal Oak.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mardi Jeanne and Robin Elyse; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Prescott; one brother, Allen, and a sister, Mrs. Willis Walstead.

Modern Doctors Accused of Indifference to Patient

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The public's main gripe against doctors and hospitals is that they don't seem to be human enough, says a new study of people's feelings.

* * *

Only a fifth of the people interviewed thought physicians charged too much. Most did think hospitals cost too much.

Their main criticism was a feeling that doctors and hospitals gave an impression of not caring deeply about the human patient, said Dr. Earl Lomon Koos, professor of social welfare, Florida State University, Tallahassee.

He said the remedy seems to be better human relations.

Only 19 per cent throught doctors' fees were too high, Dr. Koos said in a talk prepared for the American Public Health Assn.'s 83rd annual meeting.

* * *

But half criticized doctors for 'being unwilling to make house calls" or insisting that patients, unless severely ill, come to their offices or to the hospital. About as many objected to long waits in doctors' offices.

NO HUMAN WARMTH

And 64 per cent indicated that modern doctors, concentrating on techniques to find and combat illness, "lacked the human warmth of the old-time general practitioner (who possibly knew less about medicine but more about his patients)," Dr. Koos said.

* * *

He quoted one woman as saying, "If we could feel that we mean something to Dr. Blank, I'd be happy with him. But I'm sure he has to look at baby's history, or have his nurse tell him who we are, so he'll know what to call me . . . It's like running through an assembly line to go to his office . . . I'm sure, though, that he knows his medicine."

How To Hold
FALSE TEETH
More Firmly in Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

Fossil plants are created in two ways: By preservation in a bed of rock of the plant itself in a form similar to coal and by turning into solid rock by substitution of minerals for the water in the plant.

$40 Mountain Holds Rich Uranium Ore

IWAIZUMI, Japan (AP) — Farmer Shoichi Sato, 60, thought he had a fair deal when he sold his mountain for $40 ten years ago. But today he is a very unhappy man.

For years, the slope, which rises 300 feet above Sato's farm, yielded nothing.

So when a mining company came to him and said it wanted to buy it to look for manganese, Sato willingly agreed.

The mining company sank a shaft, bored several deep, prospecting wells and spent millions of yen . . . but no manganese.

A year ago, the owners ruefully wrote off the mountain as a dead liability.

Last April, a semi-official team of geologists and physicists from Tokyo spent a week surveying the mountain with high-precision radiation equipment. Now their report is in.

It was far from dead, they said.

Same Insurance on New All-Proof Steel Dwelling

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J. (INS)— A hurricane-proof house—also fireproof, waterproof and termite-proof—is being erected for steelman Lawrence Schacht on a hilltop in South Orange, N. J.

How did it happen? Mr. Schacht says it just came naturally.

A structural steel fabricator himself, when he decided to build a house for the family, he did it in the only way he knew how—of steel-frame construction like a skyscraper, only shaped differently.

Outwardly, it resembles any redwood; but because of its structural steel skeleton set in a solid concrete foundation and its industrial-type roofing, building experts acclaim it as the safest house in the world.

The pay-off: Mr. Schacht has it insured as a brick-and-wood dwelling, because as yet no insurance rating exists in New Jersey to cover a steel-frame house that is hurricane-proof, fireproof, waterproof and termite-proof.

Movie Helps Police

ESCANABA (AP) — Edwin Habermehl, 46, of Tawas City, ran afoul of the law and his wife has a movie record to prove it. She recorded the entire proceeding with a home movie camera Monday as her husband pleaded guilty to a pre-season deer hunting charge and was fined $32 by Justice of the Peace A. T. Sohlberg.

Straggler Kills Himself

MANILA (AP)—A Japanese straggler who was captured early this month after 11 years in Luzon jungles hanged himself today, a Philippine army spokesman said. Seaman Noboru Kinoshita, 33, previously had asked Filipino army guards to kill him because he was ashamed to return to Japan in defeat.

Pawnbroker 'Uncles' Now Vanishing Clan

LONDON — Every week in Britain one or more pawnbrokers' shops close. The trade is dying.

* * *

"The Welfare State has ruined our business," the "uncles" say. "People do not need small loans now." Full employment and good wages have ended the Monday queues to "pop" the best Sunday suit.

One remaining old-fashioned "uncle," 84-year-old William John Penley, says he still has plenty of trade. But the people now looking for the sign of the three golden balls are no longer working men with their tools to pawn for the weekend.

"Now it is middle-class men and women with jewelry, gold and fur coats," he says.

Strictly speaking a palace is the residence of a sovereign or ruler, but word is more loosely applied to any exceptionally large and lavish house.

Works for Herself

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The University of Louisville homecoming queen is arranging her own coronation. Miss Doris Goodknight, 19, named queen Monday, happens to be chairman in charge of arrangements for halftime ceremonies at Saturday's game with Toledo University. "I had no idea I was ordering flowers for myself," she said.

Plane Sabotage First in Nation

Colorado Crash Recalls Unsolved Flying Mishap Over Indiana in 1933

WASHINGTON (AP) — The time bombing of an airliner in Colorado goes into the official record as the first sabotage disaster in U.S. commercial aviation but recalls an unsolved 1933 case in which evidence pointed to a parallel.

* * *

The one essential difference is that the blast which sent a United Air Lines DC6B down near Longmont, Colo., Nov. 1 with 44 dead was traced to John Gilbert Graham, 23. He confessed a plot to collect $37,500 insurance on the life of his mother, one of the passengers. Nobody was ever accused in the earlier crash which killed seven over northern Indiana the night of Oct. 11, 1933.

Civil Aeronautics Board investigators in the Colorado disaster recalled the old case when the explosion from a source "foreign" to the plane itself, and had the old files dug out.

By coincidence the 1933 case involved a plane licensed to the company which later developed into United Air Lines.

* * *

Witnesses told of an "explosion or concussion of sufficient violence to shake the ground" and asserted, "it wasn't the gas tanks."

Wreckage was gathered and investigators told of fragments riddled by "particles of metal which were driven with bullet - like speed."

Northwestern University's Crime Detection Laboratory determined there had been a "violent explosion in the rear portion of the plane. This was produced by a high explosive of the type of nitroglycerine, dynamite, TNT or some similar substance."

The other experts made closely similar findings.

U.S. Surplus Foods Used by State Folk

LANSING (AP) — Nearly a million persons in Michigan benefited from federal surplus foods distributed by the state last year in the largest year since 1947.

* * *

State Controller James W. Miller said that about 15 million pounds of food valued at five and a third million dollars were distributed.

More than 700,000 children in 3,527 schools were the principal beneficiaries. Others included 175,000 welfare recipients in 25 counties and Detroit, 54,000 residents of public institutions and 41,000 children in non-profit summer camps.

The allocations included 3.5 million pounds of butter, 1.7 million pounds of cheese and more than a million pounds of dry skim milk.

Jet Bombers Hit Major U.S. Cities

Hostile Aircraft Evade Radar Defense to Attack in 'Sagebrush' War

FT. POLK, La. (AP)—The United States learned a sharp and realistic lesson today about the vulnerability of its cities to atomic attack by jet bombers.

A comparative handful of swift bombers, streaking inland at low altitude, evaded an elaborate radar warning system and waiting interceptor planes and aimed simulated nuclear bombs at air bases located in Southern states from Florida westward through Louisiana and northward as far as Virginia.

They were "enemy" aircraft participating in the giant Exercise Sagebrush, a "tactical" maneuver to test application of modern ground and Air Force weapons and tactics to battlefield fighting.

When the aggressor planes set off this mock war with their strike last night, defending forces had ample warning that trouble was coming. Only the time of attack remained a surprise. Yet initial reports indicated that a substantial number of the attacking planes foiled radar warning systems and suddenly appeared over target airfields before fighters could raise to intercept them.

* * *

Radar did pick up the images of some of the fast-flying bombers and there were some interceptions. But, for the peace of mind of defense planners of the nation, the first reports suggested that too many of the enemy succeeded in their mission.

7,000,000 Lbs. of Turkey to Be Gobbled Up by GIs

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Armed Forces will consume an estimated seven million pounds of turkey on Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's day.

In addition, said the Pentagon, hungry GIs around the world will enjoy giant masses of cranberry sauce, mints and pumpkin pie, sage dressing and giblet gravy with their three holiday meals.

Mel Torme Divorced by Wife in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The wife of Crooner Mel Torme won a divorce when she testified that the "velvet fog," as Torme is called by his admirers, sounded more like a foghorn at home.

Mrs. Florence Ann (Candy) Torme complained before a judge: "He often would yell at me. I was under a doctor's care for the last three years of our marriage and lost 15 pounds."

Custom Built

Poor dad had to have the pram made to order, to accommodate the triplets. But it's more compact and practical than three single carriages.

You could apply the same principle to insurance—does it fit your needs? Is it compact and practical, or is it so scattered that it may leave you without complete protection?

Are you paying for protection you may no longer need—while you are unprotected at more vulnerable points?

Grand Haven Plant Makes Soda Fountain Equipment

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Steel makings for the fizz in a soda or the buzz in a milk shake mixer come out of a Grand Haven plant by the truckload.

It's the busy Bastian-Blessing Co., where stainless steel is bundled in blankets before being shipped to customers spread around the world.

The firm fills two to five semi-truck trailers every working day with expensive soda fountain and luncheonette equipment. Custom built, it usually goes out one truckload to a customer.

The company products provide facilities for keeping food warm, displaying it, washing dishes, making toast, storing it and flipping up a quick set of flapjacks.

The Bastian-Blessing Co. has been in the soda fountain business since 1908, when it was founded by Lewis G. Blessing, now 83, and the late Charles L. Bastian.

LOST HIS SIGHT

Blessing, who still works six days a week supervising operations at the plant, was a young salesman when he started out with Bastian an expert on carbonators.

Bastian lost his sight a short time before the partnership was formed, but obtained almost 60 patents on his carbonating devices. With Blessing on the selling end, the firm prospered.

Now the plant employs more than 400 persons. The home office is in Chicago, where soda fountain parts, carbonators, high pressure gas regulators and cylinder valves are manufactured.

New gadgets are constantly being added to the line, such as a flash water cooler that produces 400 ice cold drinks an hour. A drink dispenser mixes and serves four different kinds of soft drinks. Other devices include a waterless food warmer and a dishwasher that handles 3,600 dishes in eight hours.

BUFFED STEEL

The stainless steel that makes up the counters is buffed and polished so that welding seams are invisible. In this luxurious field, the fountain sink is marketed, not as a sink but as a "sanitation unit."

The company has sent soda fountains flying by air freight to customers as far away as Venezuela. And you can lean your elbows on a Bastian-Blessing counter top in such widely assorted places as bowling alleys, ships, schools, hotels, supermarkets, hospitals and dime stores.

Feminine Reply Thwarts Young Political Desire

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (AP)—Pottawattamie County Treasurer Walter Lehman, chatting with a 10-year-old boy and his 5-year-old sister who were in his office with their mother, asked the lad what he wants to be when he grows up.

"I want to go into politics," the boy answered.

"All right," Lehman said. "Let's see how smart you are. Who's the speaker of the House?"

Meet John Gilbert Graham, aged 23.

Society has a terrible account to settle with this confessed air sabotage murderer of 44 persons, including his own mother. To him belongs the shocking distinction of having murdered more persons in one crime than any other killer in American criminal history.

Graham has admitted that at Denver he placed a dynamite bomb aboard a United Airlines plane which exploded and crashed 32 miles north of there on November 1. One of the 44 victims of the explosion was his mother, Mrs. Daisy King, who was en route to Anchorage, Alaska, for vacation.

The sabotage slayer's arrest and confession followed some excellent reconstruction work on the plane's wrecked baggage compartment proving that there had been an explosion. A check by the FBI then uncovered the fact that there was an insurance angle in the case. Graham had taken out a $37,000 accident policy on his mother's life, naming himself as beneficiary.

The charge on which Graham was arrested by the FBI was that of sabotaging a defense facility. Because Federal law has not yet caught up with the air age, the maximum penalty for that crime is 10 years imprisonment.

For that reason the Federal authorities have waived jurisdiction so that the State of Colorado can prosecute him on a charge of murder for which the penalty is death in the gas chamber. That makes sense.

Plans Afoot to Reduce President's Work Load

One of the satisfying results of President Eisenhower's illness is the effect it has had in spurring plans to lighten the man killing burden of his office.

These plans are being projected not only for the convalescing President's special benefit but in the interest of the health and welfare of future White House occupants. Such action is sorely needed and is long overdue.

For years there has been agitation for elimination from the President's work load of much of the routine politicians call "baby kissing." In that category falls such things as buying the first flower in a fund raising drive, receiving and being photographed with local beauty queens and pinning medals on deserving citizens.

Other routine which taxes the President's strength includes acceptance of diplomats' credentials, entertaining visiting foreign personages and attending receptions in their honor.

It has been argued with good reason that the President shouldn't have to pass on such matters as appointments of class 5 and 6 career service officers in the State Department. Neither should he have to approve the foreign routings of United States air lines nor sign all armed forces commissions.

We agree with those who contend that routine duties should be left to the various executive agencies involved. Some legislation will be needed to authorize delegation of these time and energy consuming executive tasks. It should be enacted in the next session of Congress.

Strobel's Resignation

Unfortunately there seemed to be no other solution than resignation for the case of Peter Strobel, U. S. Commissioner of Public Buildings.

According to facts revealed by a House Judiciary subcommittee headed by Rep. Celler, Strobel's case is much like that of resigned Air Secretary Talbott.

★ ★ ★

Reportedly Strobel, who had been placed in charge of $365,000,000 worth of Federal buildings, retained a 90 per cent interest in his firm of engineering consultants. He also was accused of soliciting business for that firm from a company in line to get business from his Federal department.

★ ★ ★

Strobel himself contends that everything he did was honorable. He considers criticism of his position an attempt to embarrass him and the Administration. There also is evidence that General Services Administrator Mansure, his superior, was aware that he had retained an interest in the engineering firm.

Even granting Strobel's contentions, his position in the Government was untenable. It wasn't his critics but his own acts which embarrassed the Administration and made necessary his resignation under fire.

who again will be its marshal, he assures local people and those from a radius of many miles that they will be glad they crossed off Dec. 3 on their calendars.

The office observer points out that 1956 will not have as many long weekend holidays as the present year. Memorial Day and July 4 will be on Wednesday and Christmas on Tuesday.

Their Symbols of Hope All Die of the Same Disease

David Lawrence Says:

Recovery of the Stock Market Reflects New Optimism Concerning Ike's Health

WASHINGTON — Now that the Stock Market has recovered almost all the loss it sustained after the news of President Eisenhower's illness, it is apparent the same people who feared a change in national economic conditions if he ceased to be President now believe such a development will not materialize because he will be well enough to be renominated and re-elected.

* * *

When the President is seen by millions as he runs rapidly up six steps to a television platform at Denver, they do not see an invalid or disabled man. Likewise, when Sunday newspapers print pictures showing Ike swinging a golf club on the White House lawn, millions begin to argue that, if Ike is well enough to play golf, he is well enough to run for a second term.

There's a different feeling in America now about the availability of Eisenhower for a second term than there was when newspapers first reported the heart attack. It was then described as a "mild" attack. But, because it happened to the President, publicity far exceeded anything that would have been noted in the case of any other citizen with a similar attack.

News bulletins conveyed the idea of a far more serious illness. Democratic leaders became gleeful about a wide-open convention and a certain Democratic victory in 1956. Anybody who remotely suggested Ike might run was denounced by these Democrats as "sadistic" or as trying to "commit murder." It is now obvious that Democrats who took that attitude were engaged in wishful thinking. Their solicitude for his well-being in a state of expected retirement increased proportionately as they saw their chances of victory rising —at least in their own minds.

NO PRESSURE ON IKE

But there were Republican leaders and cabinet officers who assumed a heart attack wouldn't prevent Ike from running. They didn't put any pressure on the President.

Today, the President begins work in his Gettysburg office and has a chance for another six weeks of relative seclusion and rest. This ought to make him much stronger physically when he returns to the White House in January.

Eisenhower probably will not discuss his future plans with political leaders till after January. The impression here is that he will wait till doctors give him their size-up in January and, if they think he can continue in public office, the President will frankly report to the American people what the doctors have told him.

It is doubtful, however, whether in any initial statement declining to run, Eisenhower will base his decision solely on reasons of health. It is expected he will be well enough in the opinion of his physicians to stay in office.

What many people have forgotten is that, even before his illness, the President showed plainly that he would like to serve only one term. He made no secret of his uncertainty about a second term. That dilemma was not resolved when the illness came.

If the people almost unanimously want Eisenhower to serve, and if the need for his services is expressed on every side so that he considers it to be a sincere demand, the chances are he will accede to it.

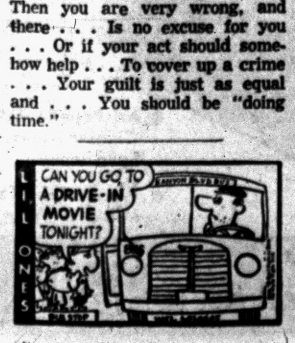

That's the rationalizing which is sending the Stock Market up nowadays and keeps the country in a state of hopeful optimism that the present era of stability in domestic affairs and a trend away from war will be continued under the Eisenhower Administration for another five years.

Physicians Still Mystified About Curvature of Spine

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

That's difficult to explain. The answer is that I do write about it sometimes.

Medical textbooks are still vague about the cause or causes of spinal curvature and as nearly as I can judge from current medical literature and the views expressed by recognized orthopedics authorities most doctors today have no better understanding of the deformity than had the doctors of the nineteenth century.

Curvature to right or left is called scoliosis. This occurs most frequently in school children, but the name scoliosis means crooked-disease and has nothing to do with school.

Old timers opined that improper school desks, carrying school books under one arm instead of knapsack fashion, and too much homework and piano practice and cheating the growing child out of his regular forenoon and afternoon play at recess were contributing factors, and I think they were right about it.

ROUND SHOULDERS

Round shoulders, hump - back, hollow back or sway back is called kyphosis. Extreme hollow back or swayback is called lordosis.

The young person with scoliosis (right or left curvature) is likely to have a "high shoulder" or "high hip," which the child's mother, or a dressmaker, or a clothing salesman first notices.

Any growing child whose posture is poor should get a break — examination and advice or treatment by a physician before the functional deficiency or deformity becomes fixed and no longer subject to correction, because of crooked bone growth.

Parents sometimes try to cover up their neglect of this duty to the child by constant and utterly unjustifiable scolding and harsh commands to sit, stand or walk straight.

NATURAL WALK

If a child is well nourished he or she will sit, stand and walk straight because it is natural for a healthy young person to do so.

By this time you will see I'm getting around to that tiresome old teaching of mine. If you do, maybe you and your trick specialist or "clinic" racketeer can have a good laugh about Brady's everlasting harping on malnutrition (nutritional deficiency) as a cause of most everyday ailments . . .

That's right. I do.

In my opinion nutritional deficiency is the chief cause of spinal curvature. Especially inadequate daily intake of calcium and vitamin D.

CALCIUM SOURCE

Milk is the best source of calcium. Sunshine is the best source of vitamin D — sunshine or skyshine on skin, that is.

A growing child who consumes not less than 1½ pints (three glasses) of milk daily and wears as little clothing as he likes is most unlikely to acquire any spinal deformity.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

'Child's World May Lead Him Into Unseen Danger'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Hansel and Gretel, well-endeared to us all in familiar story, have their counterparts on every street of our cities. The scenes shift, the names differ, but the lure of gingerbread houses and sugar plum chalets entice our wanderers across streets, down alleys and into the tangled unknown.

Our children live, for a while, in their own world. Their strange affinity for the imaginary unfits them for ready adjustment to this. Their elfin minds cannot endure without an intimacy with gay fairies, horrid giants and even surrounding brightness of God.

Two of our children, brother and sister, hand in hand, on some adventure about which they never stopped to tell any of us ran into the path of an automobile. Here collided the two worlds, one the world of the child, the other the world of practical living.

They were too much absorbed in childhood to care, understandingly, about automobiles. We must not blame them as they go off on this great adventure and disappear from us in the hidden depth of the beyond. What they seek is there. The Voice that calls them will not disappoint them or remind them of danger in God's universe.

Shall we not stop and ponder a little at the impetuous children about our knees? Our world was not really designed for them. We must bless them for not casting aside all at once their highly exciting ways for our dull ones. While they do make these kind concessions for us, it will be well that we look to it when they are about pellmell on some urgent call for witches, dragons or God.

Business Should Belong to Both Political Parties

BY MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

As the presidental election year looms, the problem for the United States is to perpetuate the two-party system with a minimum of divisiveness at a time of international tension.

When it was reported that Paul M. Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was shopping around Madison Avenue, New York, for an advertising agency to handle campaign copy, my immediate response was that it was the duty of the profession to give service to both parties.

While, as individuals, enterprisers have their preferences for party labels and personalities, the institution of business should aim to be nonpartisan. There are many reasons for this objective. The most pressing is that a vital point of difference between the American system and totalitarianism is that our setup contemplates an opposition.

Rotation in office and a free choice among voters of personalities and platforms are characteristic of the American system. In totalitarian countries, there is one slate only.

* * *

From a strictly commercial angle, the typical corporation caters to customers affiliated with both parties and also to independents and likewise has similar diversity among shareowners.

In the circumstances, it would impair corporate goodwill for the chief executive in public expressions to align the company narrowly with a partisan group. Businessmen, however, should not shrink from advocating prudent policies which will contribute to material well-being.

CHANGE SINCE '33

The foregoing principle of aloofness from narrow partisanship was almost universally accepted as a truism prior to the New Deal which took office on March 4, 1933.

* * *

Since that time the tendency of New Dealers and Fair Dealers and some outside pressure groups to conduct a cold war with business has had the undesirable effect of creating the impression in some minds that there was a probusiness party and an anti-business party.

Prior to that time, the annals of American business indicated that prosperity and depression were rather evenly divided among both Democratic and Republican administrations, indicating that the trend was affected more by economic than by political factors.

Even today the Jeffersonian Democrats are as enthusiastic about the American free choice, private enterprise system as any Republicans.

* * *

But on the part of the CIO, ADA, and from a wing of the Democratic party, there has been a recent tendency to berate the Eisenhower admininstration for friendliness toward business.

UNFORTUNATE POLICY

From a long-term standpoint, apart from immediate considerations, such coupling of business with a single party is unfortunate. It makes it more difficult for business to retain the nonpartisan posture, which is desirable.

* * *

The dilemma would disappear if control of the Democratic Party returned to the Jeffersonian wing, as represented by such personalities as Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia or Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

As a middle of the road personality, President Eisenhower could render a service in clarifying the importance of preserving the two-party system.

He could also create a better understanding of the impact of politics on business. It would ring true if he would divest himself of any credit for waving a magic wand which brings prosperity.

In order to take his remarks out of any self-serving category, the President could well debunk the superficial tendency to credit the political "ins" with economic well-being and to blame the "ins" for any setback.

There is a big nonpartisan opportunity to bring light into this whole area, which has been confused by attempts of office seekers from both camps to pull the wool over the eyes of the public.

Salesmen Abandon Secret Weapon When They Go to 'Greener Pastures'

Homer threw away his secret weapon, so he kept losing in every new city which he picked. Salesmen must beware of the "greener pastures" fallacy. Stick to the same territory, for whenever you go into a strange area, you must begin all over as a cold canvasser. That's tough work and low paying.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-393: Homer L., aged 47, was once a $25,000 per year automobile salesman in Detroit.

* * *

"But he got sold on the idea he could make more money in Chicago," his brother told me.

"After seven years in Chicago, however, he was making only $12,000, so he decided Los Angeles was a better town.

"After five years there, his income didn't equal that in Chicago, so he skipped onward to Seattle.

GREENER PASTURE

Since a salesman is also very easily "sold," when he hears somebody else give a glowing account of the greater advantages in another city, he tends to "buy" the idea on the spot.

Homer was really a star salesman. But he forgot that whenever you leave a large, satisfied clientele of customers to compete in a strange town, you must start out "cold canvassing."

You simply throw away your advantage that has been earned laboriously through all those years in the old sales field.

* * *

For example, Homer had hundreds of customers to whom he had sold new cars in Detroit.

Originally, he had had to work hard to recruit them. Occasionally he spent as much as several hours just making the initial contact.

But once he had won the friendship and sold the man, all he had to do the next year was telephone him and say:

"Bill, our new models are out and I can give you a dandy trade-

SECRET ASSETS

So he could sell many cars almost by a 5-minute telephone conversation, at least after he had cultivated his Detroit market for several years.

* * *

He could rely on them to insure next year's volume of business. And he didn't need work as hard to make his $25,000 as he had labored to make the $3,000 his first year in the automobile business.

But when he journeyed to Chicago, he didn't know a soul, so he was starting from scratch. He has no backlog of 250 satisfied, friendly clients. So he couldn't do business over the phone.

Naturally, when he arrived in Chicago he didn't equal his Detroit volume, for he had thrown away his best asset—those 250 friendly clients.

Furthermore, he was older now, so he didn't have quite the pep to do that rigorous cold canvassing. Because his Chicago record didn't equal his Detroit income, he passed the buck by saying Chicago was a bum town.

So he went to Los Angeles. Again he lost his 7-year build up of friendly clients back in Chicago.

Every time a salesman moves from an old, familiar territory, he tosses away his best financial asset.

* * *

So—stick to your territory! Even if you change your company, stay where you know the ropes!

And if you leave the entire automobile field, pick some other line that will permit you to stay in the same region and sell your new line to your old clients. For they are always the financial ace up your sleeve.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Kariba Dam Project to Boost Industries

RHODESIA — Southern Rhodesia expects great results to follow completion of its $238,000,000 Kariba project to dam the Zambesi River and form the world's greatest lake, Salisbury reports.

Garfield Todd, Prime Minister, who flew to America recently to get help in financing the spectacular project, said several industries now are ready for establishment on completion of the hydro-electric program.

Loans from the World Bank are counted on to aid in the financing. Rhodesia's problems are "good problems", the Prime Minister said. The Government finds it difficult to provide the services necessary to keep pace with the country's development.

Union Banishes Monkey Worker From Orchard

LONDON — When D. Wightman discovered that his pet monkey could shin up fruit trees and pick cherries better than any human, on his farm near Ashford, England, he had an idea.

He allowed the monkey to join his orchard workers, who were amused at its speed and skill. But shortly, unionists said union rules had no use for monkey tricks that might give other employers ideas.

* * *

A monkey consuming about a pound of nuts a day seems one of the best bargains nature has to offer, he says. They could be trained to pick crops and perform routine factory processes at far lower cost than complicated electronic equipment.

South Africans Seek State-Run Public Lotteries

CAPETOWN — At least 90 per cent of the public wants a State-operated lottery and South Africa may have one sooner than most people think, according to R. Badenhorst Durrant, of Turffontain.

It will be adopted to provide additional funds for hospitals, Durrant predicted. He opposes all forms of dividend bonds, which have been urged as an alternative to state lotteries.

Under one such plan the Government would borrow $28,000,000 from the public over 20 years at 2½ per cent. Hospitals would receive about $9,000,000 and prizes would be distributed annually to those who subscribed.

Let the Visitors Decide: They're the Pathfinders

"Letting people choose their own paths should save a lot of unnecessary traffic on the grass," explained Parks Supt. Gerald Williams.

Per capita consumption of lard by Americans dropped to 10.2 pounds in 1954 compared with 11.3 in 1953.

Get Ready to Slink--the Vamp Is Returning

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Slit your eyes, honey, and take a tight grip on your man. The age of the "vamp" is coming back.

* * *

Nita Naldi just slithered into town and said so. And being an old vamp herself (in experience, we mean), Nita knows.

"Definitely, there's a revival coming," she said, nervously gliding around her hotel room. "Dior is showing vamp-couture clothes, Broadway has a new musical called 'The Vamp.' And there's just a sort of slinkiness in the air, don't you think?"

But one thing worries her. The censorship. There was no such word in the good old '20s, and Nita feels it will cramp vamps' styles.

"If you ask me—you did ask me, didn't you dear?—no woman can be expected to vamp competently if she's going to have to be refined about it."

* * *

Miss Naldi, believed to be the third best vamp of her day, superslunk only by Theda Bara and Pola Negri, claims that it's not an easy business. "You can never walk, you always must slither or glide," she says, "and you don't talk; you say what must be said with your hands and eyes."

MORE SLITHERING

On screen, she spent almost an hour, once, saying "maybe."

"Maybe," she claims, "takes more slithering than a flat yes or no."

* * *

Miss Naldi, still sultry when she's wearing the proper makeup, is in town to coach Miss Carol Channing, the star of the new musical comedy about the silent films of her heyday.

She is glad that the musical "spoofs" the vamp period, rather than glorifying it, because it was not a very comfortable era in her life.

"We vamps were always embarrassed to be taking women away from their husbands, in movie after movie. And I, for one, got incredibly tired of kissing people.

"Why, without censors, a kiss could last forever. And when you kiss someone you scarcely know for a great length of time, it is just—well, you can't imagine how tedious!"

Miss Naldi says she was a showgirl for John Murray Anderson in New York when she was first approached by Fox in Hollywood to make a film, in which she would be called upon to vamp.

"I turned it down, darling, because they offered me $75. Imagine, $75 for all that eye-rolling, when dear Andy paid me $300 just to stand there and smile."

FINALLY GAVE IN

In the middle of the bathtub gin period, however, she succumbed for more money and went to the coast to become a budding vamp. At first, she was not a tremendous success. Too wide-eyed.

* * *

But she quickly got the knack of it. "We all had someting in common besides vamping all over the place," she remembers now. "We were all blind as bats. Why, Theda couldn't see a foot ahead of her and poor dear old Rudy (Valentino) groped his way through most of the love scenes.

"It was those aluminum reflectors they used to get extra light from the sun. You may have thought vamps purposely had an Oriental look, but that's nonsense.

"We were just squinting."

* * *

Miss Naldi says she does not think the vamps of 1956 will be quite so wicked-looking as those of 30 years ago. But inherently they will be more dangerous, because women have picked up more wiles and dainty deceits. She sums it up like so:

Illini President Proposes Plan

Says Business Should Pay 'Replacement Fee' for College Professors

EAST LANSING (INS)—A university president suggests that each business which lures a college professor away from his school job should pay the college a "replacement" fee.

* * *

Dr. David D. Henry, president of the University of Illinois and former president of Detroit's Wayne University, spoke at the opening session of the 69th annual meeting of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities.

Dr. Henry put a $40,000 price tag on college professors and said that is the amount a business should pay for luring a teacher away from his school. He said:

"A grant of $10,000 in scholarships and fellowships, and $30,000 to the institution where the man was last employed, or three or four years of salary of a senior faculty member would help to make up the administrative loss occasioned by the man's leaving."

* * *

Dr. Lewis Webster Jones, Rutgers University president, told the meeting that the nation's land grant colleges and universities must exercise greater economy and more efficiency to meet growing enrollments "in the dyhamic spirit of the American revolution."

* * *

Dr. Jones, who also is president of the association, called the land-grant college movement "a natural development from and practical expression of, the spirit of the American Revolution."

Fair Job Office Gets First 4 Complaints

DETROIT (AP) — Sidney Shevitz, chairman of the Michigan Fair Employment Practices Commission, states the commission has received four formal complaints of job discrimination during the first month of its operation.

The complaints are under investigation, he said. Complaints to be valid, he added, had to be based on circumstances occurring after Oct. 14, the effective date of the new state law.

Shevitz said the commission is attempting to organize a staff to work out of Detroit and Lansing. Yet to be named is an executive director at $8,500 a year and an assistant director at a salary to be set by civil service.

The chairman said, "We have found a feeling of cooperation on the part of employers and have assured them we don't intend to swing a club."

Contract Bids Open for Seaway Project

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has set the stage for bidding on one of the major portions of the St. Lawrence Seaway project—the 860'x80' Robinson Bay Lock.

Administrator Lewis B. Castle of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. announced that plans for the lock are now available for inspection by potential bidders. The contractor will be required to excavate about three million cubic yards of earth and 13,000 cubic yards of rock before the lock can be completed.

The plans and specifications, consisting of 270 drawings, may be viewed at Army engineers offices at New York City and Chicago and may be obtained from the district engineers office at Buffalo.

Phone Official Dies

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Walter F. Plett, former division supervisor of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., died Monday at his home. He was 69. Plett, who retired from Michigan Bell in 1951, formerly worked for Citizens Telephone Co. and Michigan Bell at Cadillac where he was born.

Farmers Sing the 'Benson Blues'

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Farm Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I've got a bad case of the Benson blues."

* * *

So said Farmer Robert Lee of Larimore, N. D., at a recent Senate Agriculture Committee when asked how he felt about Secretary of Agriculture Benson and the Eisenhower administration farm program.

A lot of farmers—and Republican politicians as well—have the same kind of blues if what they told the senators at more than a dozen hearings in major farming areas — and newsmen in interviews — is an accurate gauge.

The most outspoken criticism of Benson was voiced most frequently in areas where the National Farmers' union is strongest. This farm organization has been closely associated with Democratic policies and leaders.

MANY ADMIRE BENSON

But in Iowa, California, Indiana and Ohio, where the rival Farm Bureau Federation is strong, Benson seldom was mentioned.

Many farmers say they admire Benson for his "sincerity, honesty and courage in standing up for what he believed to be right."

But they add they do not believe his policies offered much hope in a farm situation dominated by surpluses and overproduction.

On the other hand, strong support for the secretary was found among business and professional men and white collar workers in urban areas.

LITTLE MORAL SUPPORT

Benson was given little moral support by members of his own party among the committeemen at the hearings. His only outright defense came from Sen. Holland, a Florida Democrat.

There was a strong tendency among farmers to associate the flexible support program — which most often was referred to as the "sliding scale" — with Benson rather than with President Eisenhower.

Much of the farmer criticism of Benson reflects a feeling that flexible supports will not do the job which the secretary claims they will do.

Many find fault with Benson because he set up and then withdrew measures designed to prevent the diversion of surplus wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanut land into the production of other crops this year.

BE MORE EFFICIENT

Benson has emphasized a need for farmers to become more efficient. Some farmers have interpreted this as indicating that the secretary believes that all "small and less-efficient farmers should be squeezed out of farming."

Many blame him for this year's sharp drop in hog prices saying he encouraged "overproduction" of livestock grains that was followed by a further drop in grain prices.

Many farmers are advocating a "soil bank" plan under which farmers would be required to take a uniform percentage of their land out of production.

Next: Class Conflicts.

Dulles Flying Home; Plans SEATO Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles, returning from Geneva tomorrow, is expected to start arranging promptly a trip to the Far East.

Its primary purpose, it was learned today, would be to attend a third meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization Ministerial Council. The date would come sometime during January, February or March.

A site will have to be selected for the early-1956 meeting.

The eight pact members—United States, Britain, France, Philippines, Pakistan, Thailand, Australia and New Zealand—would work this out through diplomatic exchanges in the normal order of making arrangements.

Plans Christmas Party

Nixon, Wife Reach Florida for Brief Stay

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrived at Palm Beach International Airport last night and went at once to Delray Beach where, he said, he hopes to get in five days in the sun.

He and his wife came here from Washington. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Earl Wallace Jr.

Nixon said he was here on no particular mission but that he merely took advantage of an opportunity to get away from his official duties and would spend much of the time on the beach with "perhaps a little golf."

The bald eagle is more abundant in Alaska than in other portions of the United States.

What New Reserve Act Means to Your Boy

Trainees Retain Rights to Jobs

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
(Third of 3 Articles)

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Uncle Sam has made a major move to encourage young men to get in on the new six-month military training program which excuses them from the draft and regular active duty.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell has now interpreted the new Reserve Force Act to give these six-month trainees maximum rights to their old jobs.

His announcement is of importance to every young man of 18 or younger who is faced with deciding whether to get in on the new program. It is important to every firm in the U. S. employing young men.

There has been some confusion on interpretations of re-employment rights under the basic military training law. But Secretary Mitchell removes all doubt on a man's right to his old job under the new reserve act.

* * *

When a man completes his six months of service his former employer is obliged to give him back the job he had or one of "like seniority, status and pay," according to Mitchell. If an employer fails to do this the man can take his claims to a federal court.

* * *

Furthermore, the man is protected against being fired for six months after he returns to that job. That is, except for a specific cause such as drinking, or stealing from the boss, Mitchell explains.

When a man completes his training he is required by law to attend drill 48 evenings and spend two weeks in camp each year.

ON THE JOB AS A SOLDIER under the new six-month reserve act, Pvt. Daniel G. Schiewtz of Dayton, Ohio, drives a jeep at Ft. Knox, Ky. When training ends, he has full rights to old job.

This obligation continues for seven and one-half years.

But his job rights also are protected by federal law during this period. He must receive a leave of absence for the two weeks of training. And when he returns it must be without reduction in his seniority, status and pay. Employers are not required to pay the men for this period but some of them are doing it.

* * *

However, the reservist has a responsibility in the procedure for getting his old job back. He must apply for it within six months after he has finished his regular training. And he must apply for reinstatement within 30 days after he completes his two weeks in camp each year.

* * *

There is a penalty for a man who fails to keep up his active status in the reserves when he completes his six months of training. The Army can call him back to active duty for 45 days.

But even in this situation the law protects the man's job. When he finishes his 45 days of penalty duty, his former employer is obliged to give him his job back on the same basis as though he was returning from normal active duty.

The re-employment rights of men who are drafted are for longer periods than those provided for the reservist trainee.

Draftees have 90 days in which to apply for reinstatement. And they can't be fired without cause for one year.

* * *

In case a six-month trainee is in the hospital when his time of service is completed, his re-employment rights begin when he is discharged from the hospital.

* * *

A subject under study by the lawyers of the Department of Labor is the re-employment rights of members of the National Guard who take the six months training program.

Labor Department attorneys have held that under the basic draft act guardsmen have only those re-employment rights which are provided by the individual states.

An unofficial interpretation by them holds that the same rule applies under the new reserve act.

But there has been no case requiring a specific decision on the matter so far. And there is pressure by the National Guard to have the new reserve law changed to give guardsmen the specific right to sue in federal court for their job rights after they have completed the six months training.

6,000 Miles in 11 Hrs. Seen by Air Lines

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—By 1960 the air traveler may breakfast in Copenhagen and arrive in Los Angeles in time for the morning coffee break.

* * *

The jets SAS plans to install on the transpolar route will cover the 6,000 miles in 11 hours, actual elapsed time. But the passenger traveling West will gain nine hours. A plane leaving Denmark at 8 a.m. by Copenhagen clocks will be in California at 10 a.m. PST.

Nilert, speaking at a luncheon celebrating the first anniversary of the SAS transpolar route, predicted that "between 50,000 and 75,000 passengers" will fly the route the next four years.

* * *

He indicated SAS expected to double the over-the-top air trade, which saw 6,616 passengers booked in the inaugural year. The line is installing 14 Douglas DC7Cs, pending construction of a jet fleet, and Nilert said flights will be made daily each way starting next summer. They have been on a three times a week basis in recent months.

* * *

The DC7Cs, Nilert said, will cut the flying time to 17 or 18 hours, compared to 24 or 25 for the present DC6Bs.

California Fashions Brim With Bright New Ideas

Separates from Tabak of California make a costume. The fagoted blouse of black or white cotton satin has a small shirt collar. The strict, slim skirt has angle pockets. Both take to cover under a velveteen-collared short shaft coat cut along the straightest lines.

Californians carry their love for sports from cars to clothes. The Georgia Kay design above is one meant for active living, consisting of a short trench coat cut of "Sail Ho," a cotton twill-like fabric, complete even to the brass loops for adjustability of sleeves and belt. Worn under it are navy walking shorts in the same fabric as the trench coat.

The extra wrap that adds spice to a wardrobe is the little coat of silky fleece by Lee Herman of California. Trimmed with imported lace overlaid with brilliants, it is the perfect evening coat for resort into spring and summer wearing. Sleeves are slit at the base, and cut bracelet length, with the same jeweled lace trim that edges the jacket.

A slim column coat from M. Michaelson of California bears traces of the Far Eastern influence currently featured in fashions for resort and spring 1956. The side slit straightness of this coat points to a Chinese ancestry. The fabric is natural, imported Italian silk, illumined with brilliant solitaires for buttons. The uncluttered but distinctive silhouette may be a trend-setter.

Newcomers Waiting for Second Call

Illness Prevented First Visit From Neighbors

By EMILY POST

"We made an attempt to call on new neighbors, but they told us, when we telephoned before going to see them, that there was sickness and asked us to come another time.

"They have said nothing since then, and as we have seen the sick member up and about we wondered if they could be waiting for us. We rather thought it was up to them to set a time."

Answer: While it might be the natural impulse of some very informal or very self-assured neighbors to set a time, it seems to me more natural to hesitate. Remember they are the strangers and you the older residents.

Rules of etiquette have always been very hampering to the former. In other words, if they are at all conservative it is almost certain that they are waiting for further encouragement from you.

In any case, it would be friendly on your part to go to see them or to invite them to come to see you at a definite time.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My cousin recently passed away and in the obituary notices all members of the surviving family were mentioned except his stepfather to whom he was deeply attached and who brought him up. The stepfather is very hurt at this seeming disregard of him. Was it incorrect to make no mention of the stepfather?"

Answer: According to what you say, it certainly was. His omission was shocking.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper to address a gentleman as "senator" both in correspondence and when speaking to him? The person I am referring to was a member of the United States Senate for many years but is now retired."

Answer: Since he has retired and served a long term, you go on calling him "senator."

Hears Address on Books

Mrs. Philip Bernstein of Detroit was speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob.

In honor of Jewish Book Month, Mrs. Bernstein gave a dissertation on Jewish literature. She indicated the relationship of history and literature.

The importance of books in the home was brought out by her talk. She also read excerpts from various books to show the works of different authors for adults and children.

Mrs. Bernstein said that Jewish literature is and can continue to be an inspiration and guidepost to building a better world for the future.

She is on the board of Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Community Council and is president of the Jewish Council for Women's Organizations, Detroit. She is also a member of the steering committee for the Jewish Book Fair to be held in Detroit Dec. 3-6.

Washington Junior Plans Open House

Boys' Club Mothers Plan Carnival Friday Evening

A carnival sponsored by the Mothers' Club of the Boys' Club will be held Friday beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the Boys' Club on East Pike street.

* * *

This will be the main fund-raising project of the year given by the Mothers' Club.

The Mothers' Club was started in 1945 shortly after the organization of the Boys' Club and met first at Pontiac High school. Then the club met at Eastern Junior High School and the YWCA until the construction of the Boys' Club in 1951.

The purpose of the club is to help the boys and to aid in the purchase of equipment for the club. In the past, the mothers have furnished the Boys' Club kitchen, have provided draperies for the games room, and have planned the annual father and son banquet held during Boys' Week in April.

* * *

The mothers also serve refreshments to boys on the club teams and the visiting teams following sporting events at the cub.

40 MEMBERS

*

At present there are about 40 members in the Mothers' Club. Seven charter members still active are Mrs. Delbert Hammett, Mrs. Ford Snyder, Mrs. Stephen Bone, Mrs. Floyd Halpin, Mrs. Harold McKensie, Mrs. Melvin Wells and Mrs. Herman Dennis.

* * *

The group is planning a cakewalk, white elephant sale, duck shoot, nail drive, lifesaver toss and a fish pond, among the 28 booths being readied for the Friday evening affair.

There will also be a park-your-car service, a sale of dolls and doll clothing, sales of gifts items and sandwiches and coffee.

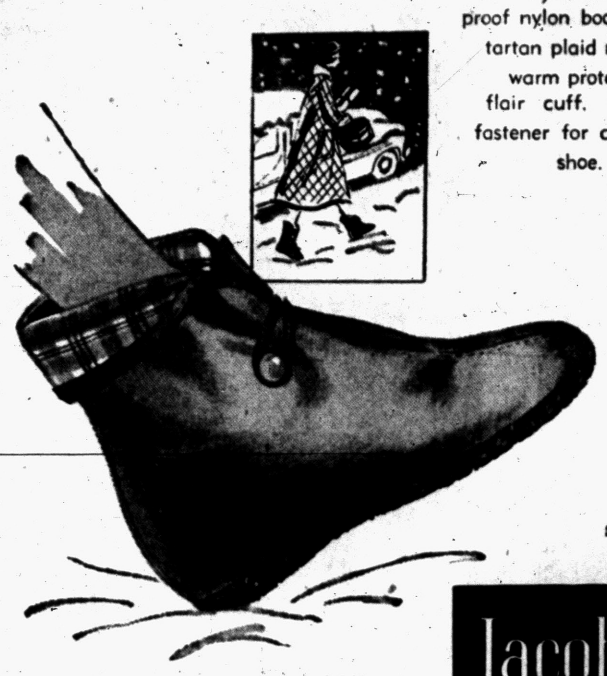

An added feature to aid in the family enjoyment of the night is the babysitting room where parents may leave their younger children while attending the carnival with their sons. Prizes will also be awarded.

Joe Chevalier (right), Boys' Club instructor, gets ready to take a practice shot at the duck shoot booth which is being prepared for the giant carnival Friday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the Boys' Club on East Pike street. Jim Jeffreys (left) is the Boys' Club member who will be in charge of the booth.

Two Jobs Are Better Than One

By ANNE HEYWOOD

One of the biggest problems faced by young career girls is that of learning to live on a small salary, in a job where the future is promising but the present is underpaid.

* * *

Some girls solve it by giving up the promising job and settling for one with far less future but with a comparatively high starting salary.

Because, like it or not, the job that offers the best training, and the greatest opportunity, is all too often the one that pays very little to start.

But the wise girl figures out some way of living on a low salary for the sake of the future. She does this by exercising incredible economy or by supplementing her salary with extra pay from a week-end or evening job.

* * *

That, it seems to me, is the wise way—but it does take a good deal of doing.

The first step is to figure out exactly how much extra money, per week, is needed. Then, figure exactly how many hours you can devote to the supplementary job, without suffering fatigue and lowering your effectiveness on your main job.

To try to make an extra 50 dollars a week, for example, is unrealistic and impossible.

* * *

And to figure on working every evening for six hours, plus all day Saturday and all day Sunday, is also unrealistic and impossible. You might end by losing both jobs.

EXTRA 15 HOURS

A good rule of thumb is to think in terms of no more than 15 hours per week extra, for about one dollar per hour, bringing in an extra 15 dollars a week.

Also, don't try to do, on the extra job, the same kind of work you do in your regular job.

* * *

If you are a secretary, don't do secretarial work in the extra 15 hours—it will exhaust you.

Instead, think of something like babysitting, selling, teaching dancing, or helping a veterinarian at a kennel—depending, of course, on your interests and skills.

* * *

A secretary who loves to cook does the cooking on Saturdays and Sundays for an overworked career mother; a billing clerk babysits from 6 until 11, three nights a week, for a young couple, both of whom are attending evening college.

A bookkeeper works for a kennel all day Saturday and half of Sunday; a salesgirl types for three hours per evening, five evenings a week; a typist makes slipcovers in her free time.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS McCLEARY

Rosemary Kazakos and Thomas McCleary were married Saturday in St. Michael Church. She is the daughter of Mrs. Lonella Murray of South Edith street and the late Levi Murray. He is the son of Mrs. Anna McCleary of North Perry street and Lloyd McCleary of Cottage street.

Rosemary Kazakos Wed in St. Michael Ceremony

Rosemary Kazakos became the bride of Thomas Lee McCleary Saturday in St. Michael Church. The couple was married by the Rev. Norman Thomas in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lonella Murray of South Edith street and the late Levi Murray. Thomas is the son of Mrs. Anne McCleary of North Perry street and Lloyd McCleary of Cottage street.

The bride chose a wedding gown of pure silk featuring a fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. A fingertip veil fell from a small headpiece. She carried a prayerbook with a white orchid and stephanotis. The prayerbook was a gift of the bridegroom's mother.

Sara Murray, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore an eggshell and pink-colored gown with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her floral headpiece was of pink carnations which were repeated in her colonial bouquet.

Richard LaLone served as best man.

Mrs. McCleary wore a light blue and black checked suit with gold accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gold-colored roses.

The bride's going-away-costume was a blue knit dress with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside in Lansing where he is attending Michigan State University.

Schedule Talks on Civil Defense

Lillian Davidson of Camley drive will be hostess to the Pontiac Branch of AAUW Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The civil defense committee will handle the evening's program, a panel discussion concerning the civil defense of our city. William L. Collins, director of CD for the city of Pontiac, and Louis G. Jarrendt, director of CD for Oakland County, will guide the discussion.

Yule Party Planned by Esther Court 13

Plans were made for a Dec. 23 Christmas party when members of Esther Court 13, Order of the Amaranth, held a cooperative dinner recently.

Mrs. Harley Bowers, Mrs. Pierre Shafer, Mrs. Margaret Lacy, Mrs. Gladys Ziem and Mrs. Ernest Taylor took part in the meeting of the Mount Clemens Court Tuesday.

District BPW Plans Meeting in Mt. Clemens

Mrs. Charles Leaf opened her home on Cass Lake road to members of the President's Council of District One, Business and Professional Women's Club, for their meeting Tuesday evening. Representatives of 19 clubs in the district were present.

Plans were completed for the next district meeting to be held Feb. 5 at Hillcrest Country Club in Mount Clemens.

The meeting will honor all past presidents of each club as well as past district chairmen.

Horticulture Therapy Volunteers Tour Pontiac State Hospital

One hundred and twenty-five volunteer horticultural therapists from hospitals throughout Michigan were taken on a tour of Pontiac State Hospital Tuesday.

* * *

In each of the several wards visited by the group, volunteers from this area were busy working with patients, assisting them in flower arrangements and with corsage making.

Pointing to the need for better understanding of the mentally ill, Dr. LaCore cited the recent statement of the surgeon general of the United States, Dr. Leonard Scheele, who announced that at the present rate, "one out of every 12 children will spend some time in a mental hospital."

* * *

One half of all hospital beds are filled by the mentally ill, Dr. LaCore said, and there are 680 mental hospitals in the country.

Giving further statistics, the medical superintendent said that 82 per cent of mentally ill patients are treated in state hospitals and there are 31,000 patients in these hospitals today.

Pointing to the current issue of providing care for mentally retarded children, Dr. LaCore explained that the children being treated at Pontiac State Hospital are not mentally defective.

They are emotionally disturbed youngsters.

Continuing, Dr. LaCore said that it has been estimated that 600 beds are needed in the state for children who are emotionally ill.

Reviewing the history of Pontiac State Hospital, Dr. LaCore told the volunteers that Pontiac's hospital was the second state institution, having been built in 1878 and accommodating 300 patients.

Today this hospital houses 3,100 patients, has a staff of 21 medical doctors, 500 nurses and attendant nurses, 20 social workers, 11 occupational therapists and 10 recreational therapists.

* * *

Pontiac State Hospital is known throughout the country for its excellent training program and doctors and staff members come from all parts of the world to receive this kind of training.

The visitors were told something about the treatment of the mental patient beginning with his admission to the hospital. Along with the mental examination, the patient is given a physical examination.

Staff members throughout the various departments begin working as a team, always keeping in mind that the important thing is to help the patient gain insight into his problem which will enable him to readjust and return to his community.

Psychiatry and religion do mix at Pontiac State Hospital, Dr. LaCore told the volunteers. He said staff members work hand in hand with the clergy in the treatment of the patient.

He cited as an example a patient who mistrusted all doctors, but was able, through the help of his minister, to return to his home and make a good adjustment.

In closing, Dr. LaCore told the group that intelligence and mental illness have no connection. The most intelligent person can suffer from mental illness, he explained.

Speaking briefly before the luncheon at Devon Gables was Mrs. Eleanore McCurry who praised the volunteers at the hospital and told of their value to the community.

Mrs. William H. Burlingame, coordinator of Southeastern Michigan Horticultural Therapy Council, conducted the workshop held at Devon Gables.

Horticultural therapy volunteers throughout Michigan were given an opportunity to visit Pontiac State Hospital Tuesday to see the work which is carried out by volunteers in the program. Later they gathered for luncheon and a workshop at Devon Gables. Mrs. William H. Burlingame (left) of Birmingham is coordinator for Southeastern Michigan Horticultural Therapy Council. Photographed with her (left to right) are Mrs. Edgar B. Flint of Birmingham, a member of the board of Visiting Nurses of Detroit; Mrs. Kenneth Long of West Iroquois road and Mrs. William A. Hyland of Birmingham, volunteers in the Horticultural Therapy Department at Pontiac State Hospital.

Mrs. Kenneth Nichols presided at the Monday meeting of the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County. The group met at the Hotel Waldron.

* * *

Members were also invited to the Friday meeting of the Royal Oak Republican Club by Mrs. Ferdinand Henkle, president of the Royal Oak club. An address by U.S. Rep. Alvin Bentley of Owosso will follow the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

Mrs. Frank Stout of Ottawa drive will be hostess to the Federation for its next meeting.

* * *

Plans for a countywide rally were announced by Mrs. George Brown.

Mrs. Harry Henderson and Mrs. William Kennedy reported to the group on the recent meeting in Lansing. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Kennedy are chairmen for the Christmas party to be held Dec. 12 at the Hotel Waldron.

HOLIDAY HANDS

Will your hands be a complement to you at Thanksgiving dinner. In a way, well groomed hands are more important than hair dos. Many times you can wear a hat when you are dining, but did you ever see anyone at the table with their gloves on?

The procedure in hand care isn't as difficult as for your hair. But for some reason many feel that well groomed hands aren't important. We can hide them under the table, or stick them in our pockets, but occasionally we must extend them to some one we know is always meticulously groomed.

Try now to form the habit of pushing back the cuticle when you wash your hands. Frequent soaking in warm oil and buffing each day will help greatly to strengthen brittle nails.

Bad Feet Cause Winter Ailments

When the thermometer takes a dive, and snow and sleet cover the ground, sniffles and other assorted winter aches become the bane of our existence. Medical men say that much of this misery needn't be, if we just remember that good winter health starts from the ground up—with proper care of the feet.

If you're interested in the unhappy details—not only colds, but also poor circulation, frostbite, chilblains, scaly skin and rheumatic pains are among the ills that often result from poorly cared for feet.

You'll benefit by giving your feet a nightly soaking in warm water, followed by a cool rinse and a dusting with a foot powder. Follow these recommendations, and you'll get through Winter's snow and slush with a minimum of the discomforts you had last year.

California Men Get Frilly Shirts

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., (INS)—Who said women wear all the frills?

'Taint so—at least not out California way where well-dressed gentlemen are blossoming out in wine velvet tuxedos and ruffled polka-dot shirts?

This natty new style trend was unveiled by California men's wear designers at a $30,000 wing-ding in Palm Springs.

Western fashion dictators also decided men don't need pockets. Presto! Slim-line suits with nothing to put phone numbers in.

"Well-dressed men don't bulge their coat pockets with personal belongings," one designer pointed out, "so why have pockets at all?"

In a strong bid to revive the colorful era when men wore plummage, the California designers came up with fancy Mexican wedding shirts, paisley prints from India, hand-woven French-African tribal patterns—the new men's look for next year.

One "showpiece" shirt, which will retail for $150, was made of pure Oriental silk satin with brilliant embroidered birds front and back.

Parents Use Daughter as Weapon

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Mrs. H. says her husband's attempts to undermine her discipline of their children have become the major problem in her life.

* * *

He is especially indulgent toward their 13-year-old daughter. As a result, this girl is apt to meet any denial by her mother with the threat, "I'll get Daddy to let me do it."

Mrs. H. writes: "Sometimes I think I should take my chances—and leave my husband if this is the only alternative to having my children put against me."

In Mrs. H.'s city is a local office of the Family Service Association of America. I hope she'll seek it out. For in marital tension of this kind that seems to be approaching crisis, we need the nearby, regular support of skilled and trusted judgment.

* * *

In the meanwhile, it will be a good idea if Mrs. H. will stop fighting her husband's efforts to manipulate her daughter's feelings—and guard her own against his influence.

DIFFICULT TASK

This will be no easy task. In a resented marriage, we almost inevitably suffer from a need to accuse our partner. His children's misbehavior offers us our most hurtful instrument of attack.

* * *

So we'll nag about the troubles the youngsters cause us to emphasize our disappointment in the spouse who fathered them. We'll actually provoke the child to defy us so we can cry, "See what marriage to you has reduced me to!"

And even while we cry it, we won't have the slightest suspicion that we're accusing the child to hurt her father, just as he excuses her to hurt us.

But to realize what we've been doing can be a wonderfully softening experience. For the first time we'll begin to appreciate the child's most difficult position between one parent who tells her she's all bad and the other who suggests she's all good.

* * *

We'll understand how we have used her for our own purposes—and begin to feel with our own feelings instead of those that malice wants us to feel.

In Mrs. H.'s situation, it's no special trick to recognize a husband's shortcoming. That's easy. The problem is registering our own reactions to it—in seeing how our behavior has been directed, not by us at all, but by what Mr. H. has made us feel by his subversive indulgence.

* * *

I have the idea that Mrs. H. will readily understand what I am saying. Her letter expresses great distress over her husband's manipulation of their children's feelings toward her.

Part of her distress is surely concern for herself. And probably it represents her own secret realization that her husband's indulgence toward their children has forced her to take positions she doesn't want to take.

Novel Fudge Will Please Children

Mrs. C. E. Lewis Adds Peanut Butter to Cocoa Candy

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Next to chocolate, peanut butter is probably the favorite flavor of most children. They will enjoy some Peanut Butter Fudge made from a recipe given us by Mrs. Charles E. Lewis. Maybe they can make up a batch of it themselves.

Mrs. Lewis has a job outside her home that keeps her busy most of the day. She finds time to be a member of the Mother's Club of the Boy's Club. Favorite leisure time activities are crocheting and working with her house plants.

PEANUT BUTTER FUDGE
By Mrs. Charles E. Lewis

2 cups granulated sugar
1 tablespoon cocoa
3 tablespoons white corn syrup
3 tablespoons peanut butter
1 rounding teaspoon butter or margarine
⅔ cup milk

Mix sugar and cocoa, add syrup and milk. Boil until mixture forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove from fire and let cool three minutes. Add butter and peanut butter and beat until thick. Pour into a buttered pan and cut into squares.

Getting first-hand information on the new Peg-A-Bow board is Mrs. Orlen Younger (right) of North Roslyn drive. The demonstrator, Mrs. Robert Wilman of Jackson, is showing Mrs. Younger the simple operation of the inexpensive aid to fancy wrapping which is being sold at a local store.

Bow Tying Made Easier

There are six simple peg settings, each outlined on the board, from which a person can make many decorative bows. The bows can be used for placecards and party favors as well as packages.

The Peg-A-Bow, invented by a former Jackson woman, Mrs. Ruth Batton Merrill, now of New York City, is simple to handle. Mrs. Merrill got the idea for the board when she took a course in bow tying in New York.

She became tired of measuring ribbon, as instructed, and decided to design some sort of device to help her.

Teachers' Club Holds Meeting

Members of the Teachers' Exchange Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Cotterman on Ottawa drvie for a dessert supper and a "Poly Party" program under the direction of Mrs. Iris Chamberlain.

Plastic items and toys were purchased by the group. Proceeds will be used for a charity program.

Mrs. Pearl Turro, Mrs. Arthur Forton, Mrs. Clayton Giegler and Faye Donelson were guests of the club.

Mrs. Mary Wagner presided at a short business meeting. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Merrill Stephens.

'Kard Kapers' to Be Presented by Soroptimists

Plans for their "Kard Kapers" have been made by members of Soroptimist Club of Pontiac. The "Kapers," an annual card party, will be hed Nov. 30 in the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building. Mrs. Richard Paschke is chairman of the affair.

Mrs. Arnold Hillerman presided at the Monday business meeting at the Hotel Waldron, and reports on the 44th Midwestern Regional Conference at Dayton, Ohio, were given by Mrs. Hillerman and Mrs. Raymond Swackhamer.

The club voted to participate in "Christmas on the High Seas," an American Red Cross project. Tentative plans for a Christmas program were made.

Newest Missile Rises 600 Miles

CHICAGO (INS)—Some details of a guided missile with a hydrogen warhead and a speed of 10,000 miles per hour have been unveiled.

* * *

It is the Atlas (SM-65), a surface - to - surface liquid - propelled rocket with a 600-mile ceiling the details of the weapon are contained in a paper distributed among 4,500 engineers at the annual meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in Chicago.

The Atlas is multi-stage and intercontinental in range. It has been tested only in the laboratory.

"Its speed and altitude maximums are close to those required to become a real orbital missile, or artificial satellite. Control of Atlas may not yet be perfected. Perhaps it would remain high in the air, or perhaps it would land, say, in Russia, and expose the United States' most advanced secret."

Reform Rally Slated

ZEELAND (UP)—More than 1,000 persons are expected Nov. 25 at the annual youth rally of the Reformed Churches of Michigan in Zeeland's First Reformed Church. Dr. Garrett Heyns, warden of Ionia Reformatory, is scheduled as principal speaker.

A group of Canadian investors has purchased a stretch of beach at Mamee Bay and plans to build a hotel to accommodate 250 guests. It will cost more than $1,000,000.

Fraternity Boys Start Porker Off to Tour Colleges

CHICAGO (INS)—A shoat named Clarence has started a trip around the country as a guest of Triangle Fraternity.

Students at the Illinois Institute of Technology started the pig on its way by taking it to the Purdue chapter house. Purdue boys will take it to another campus until 18 chapters of the national social fraternity of engineers and architects will house it at one time or another.

If he behaves himself, Clarence will be guest of honor at a banquet in Chicago next spring. If not, the pig may be the main course.

Performs Good Deed After Jail Sentence

BOSTON (UP) — Federal Judge George C. Sweeney yesterday deferred sentence against a convicted bookie so Atty. August Krosky could be driven to his home in Lynn by the defendant.

After Krosky's client Henry G. Ryan of Lynn was sentenced to a month in jail and fined $500, the lawyer advised the judge:

"I have no way to get back to Lynn (10 miles from Boston). Ryan drove me down and if he can't drive me back, I'm stranded."

Judge Sweeney commented: "You're quite an optimist."

Then he deferred sentence a few hours so Ryan could drive Krosky to Lynn.

Husband Pleads Guilty to Charge of Polygamy

FARMINGTON, Utah (UP) — Carl E. Jentzsch, 54, Farmington electrician accused of having five wives and "at least" 20 children, pleaded guilty to charges of unlawful cohabitation yesterday.

One Poor Paper Weakens Nation

Managing Editors Told Responsibility of Press Is to Report News

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UP) —Newspapers "provide the very sinews of democracy" and "must get the news, however difficult it is to obtain," Coleman A. Harwell of the Nashville Tennessean told the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. today.

* * *

"Insofar as one newspaper in America fails in its responsibility, democracy is by that much weakened," Harwell said. "And the voice of democracy loses that much of its effectiveness everywhere."

EDITORS CHECK THE AP

His speech opened the annual meeting of the APME at the Broadmoor Hotel here. Harwell is chairman of the APME Continuing Study Committee. In this program, managing editors examine annually the reporting job of The Associated Press, seeking ways to help the cooperative news gathering agency improve its service to its member newspapers and broadcasting stations.

* * *

The duty of newspapers to be "strong and clear voiced" applies not only in national affairs but in "the hundreds and hundreds of city councils and school boards and tax bodies and other public groups throughout America," Harwell said.

Seems Akronites Never Believed in Retirement

* * *

Dr. M. D. Ailes, former city health director, was past 70 when he stepped aside in favor of a successor. Now he's busy with private practice.

Cyrus S. Eaton, 71, rises at 5:30 a. m. workdays. Only two years ago he won the chairmanship of a major railroad.

SLOWED DOWN

At 87, attorney Clyde Berry has "slowed down," but still reports to his office and handles cases. And there's realtor R. K. Crawford, 85, hard to see at times because his secretary reports he "just dashed out again to keep an appointment."

* * *

"You'd be surprised just how valuable a man is with 70 years' experience," he said at that time.

Kavanagh Removes Road-Building Block

LANSING (UP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh has removed one legal roadblock to the construction of highway and railroad separations on many major road construction projects.

Kavanagh held that the state highway commissioner may contract with railroads on grade separation projects.

This reversed a letter opinion of the attorney general's office issued a year ago which held that all projects must be approved after hearings before the State Public Service Commission.

Kavanagh said that grade separations may be built under agreements made between the highway commissioner and the railroads and that the commission then may issue an order based on the agreement. All such agreements are subject to review by the State Administrative Board.

Lana Turner Sought for Forgetting Hearing

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — A bench warrant has been issued to ailing film star Lana Turner after she failed to appear in court at a hearing on an oil suit.

The actress had been called into superior court for examination in a suit filed by Robert L. Daniels for $18,000 he claimed is owed him by oilman J. Robert Neal. He wanted to collect from Miss Turner if he could not collect from Neal. She assertedly was about to pay Neal $20,000 for interest in oil property.

Unsightly Fire Hydrant Made Chrome-Plated

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UP)—This city now has one chrome-plated street fire hydrant.

It replaces one that was painted yellow, like all the others, in front of the La Jolla home of Dr. Edward Courtney, a dentist.

Dr. Courtney thought the yellow one was unsightly. He negotiated with the city water and fire departments to send the hydrant to the plating company.

The job cost him $200, plus a $22.50 city charge.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Facts Remain—Reds Want the World

By J. M. ROBERTS
(AP News Analyst)

You can get up a pretty good argument on both sides as to whether it is wise to end one unsuccessful international conference by announcing plans for another.

The factors involved are both tangible and intangible. Not all are directly involved with the major question, which is the tug-of-war for Germany.

The chief intangible factor is that scheduling another four-power meeting now tends to continue the situation which began when the summit meeting was planned, in which unfounded hopes for East-West settlements interfere with prosecution of the Western defense program.

Russia's clear demonstration this time that she pursues a strictly "Heads I win, tails you lose" policy should be a damper on this tendency. Nevertheless, the tendency to mark time pending scheduled negotiations is always there, and is especially noticeable in connection with such things as West German rearmament.

OTHER SIDE OF COIN

The other side of this coin is that during the latest negotiation period Red China has also been marking time in her political approach, if not in her military preparations, on the Formosa question.

Highly significant, however, is the fact that Russia, grabbing a long-awaited opportunity to infiltrate the Middle East, was not deterred by her interest in the facade of the Geneva spirit.

The Allies may hope, by scheduling a new conference, to delay Russia's direct approach to West Germany on the reunification issue.

SINCERITY?

Russia began setting up machinery for this approach before the summit conference, intending to go ahead with it after the conferences which she knew would fail. But the reasons why she should not violate the "truce" created by continuing negotiations, and why she cannot refuse to enter them, seem almost as cogent as for the Allies.

Both sides at Geneva have made many moves designed primarily to influence nations which are not yet definitely committed in the cold war. An appearance of sincerity in trying for settlements is important in this contest.

There is not the slightest reason to believe, however, that another conference next spring will bring the contestants any closer to agreement.

The facts of life will remain as they were before the summit conference and the foreign ministers conference, and as they have been ever since Russia devised her plan to conquer the world through communism.

More than $1,800,000 worth of dairy products were imported by Jamaica during 1954, nearly double those of the year before.

Governor of Jersey May Be 'Favorite Son'

Meyner told a news conference, "there has been discussion of the favorite son device, but whether or not it's the sort of thing you want to try is another question."

Meyner also said it "would be presumptuous of me" to assure Adlai E. Stevenson or anyone else of New Jerseys 32 votes at the convention.

The Indian Government has abolished export duties on all articles of iron and steel.

Sugar, transformed into industrial alcohol, is used extensively in the manufacture of explosives.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Bold Burglar 'Works' in Open Display Window

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Police have been unable to solve the mystery of a $5,000 diamond burglary in a downtown jewelry store although the crime apparently occurred before hundreds of Helena shoppers. The bold burglar snatched the loot from a display window between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. Passersby evidently thought the person was an employe changing the window, police said.

Bamboo Is Extensively Used Within Pakistan

KARACHI, Pakistan — Bamboo is a mainstay of life in the villages of southeast East Pakistan, says the National Geographic Society. Houses are made of it. The villagers eat the green shoots. They cook rice in green bamboo sections. They hunt with bamboo blowguns. They use bamboo for chairs, mats and fences. They smoke bamboo pipes and travel on bamboo rafts.

Eagle Now Listed as Occupational Hazard

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (AP) — J. N. Davidson, a phone company lineman, had a new one for his list of occupational hazards: "Attacked by eagle." He was just starting to spike his way up a pole when the bird flailed at him and then withdrew.

A game warden found the bird — an American Bald Eagle — had apparently been wounded by a hunter. He tried to heal the symbolic American bird but finally had to destroy it. The eagle had a wingspread of 6 feet, 6 inches.

Rabbit Influx Worries Conservation Officials

LANSING (AP) — Rabbits brought into the state by sportsmen to train beagles are spreading out over Michigan in such numbers that the State Conservation Department is worried.

The animals aren't the ordinary cottontails but a strain of San Juan rabbits — the type that swept through Australia. The big rabbit burrows deep — from two to eight feet — and has been known to undermine buildings. He also can do a great deal of damage to crops.

Bob Considine Savs:

Dems Line Up for Nomination Free-for-All

CHICAGO (INS) — Adlai Stevenson declared Tuesday. Estes Kefauver will declare about Christmastime. Dick Russell of Georgia will ejaculate, "I declare, I'm too old to declare."

Ave Harriman, Gov. Lausche, Soapy Williams and a number of others will be presented by their friends, and not resist beyond a deprecating, "Shucks, fellows."

Bypassing the 1952 banner-carrier with one bone-crushing compound complex sentence, the Tennessee senator says that the Exprez is the boss and will back only the man he thinks will put up the best fight. The senator added, with a show of dimple, that H. S. T. didn't plan to put any blocks in the senator's way.

* * *

We'll see. If somebody had asked Stevenson six months ago if it were possible that Truman would not be 110 per cent in favor of his nomination, Stevenson would have been understandably indignant.

Had not old Harry given them hell in Stevenson's behalf up and down the country? Had he not on a dozen public occasions plugged his name and pined for the day when the Republican rascals in Washington were replaced with an entire new set of rascals? You bet your sweet life!

'I'M FOR ADLAI'

The first thing Gov. Harriman said on TV the night he won somewhat surprising victory over Sen. Ives, Tom Dewey's tiger, was "Gulp." Almost the next thing he said was "I'm for Adlai Stevenson in 1956." Up till then Stevenson had taken no part in the convention.

* * *

Well, boy, it's up to Carmine DiSarpo now to explain that static cut out what Harriman said he was for Stevenson for in 1956. Was he for him for vice president? Assistant secretary of Navy? Ambassador to Iceland? Clarification should be coming just as soon as the Harriman camp can dredge up the best answer.

Truman? He's for everybody now, and nobody. Stevenson, all of a sudden, looks just like every other hopeful to the independent man from Independence.

The others in the race were openly for Stevenson, too, but one and all are backing up, not because they think less of this urbane and intelligent politician but because everybody now wants the role that only Stevenson appeared ready to take a few months ago.

* * *

Before the Eisenhower heart attack the prospects of defeating him, if he ran again, and all signs indicated he would, were as bleak as any political prospect since Alf Landon's chance against F. D. R. in 1936.

Every poll, every sounding, showed that Eisenhower was personally more popular than ever; that the public and business, big and little, had such profound respect for him that it placed him in a category seldom if ever enjoyed before by a chief executive.

Every black mark against the adminisration was the fault of someone around him, not the fault of the man himself. There was unprecedented peacetime prosperity and employment and the most careful scrutiny by his potential political foes found no soft spot in his armor.

STEELED TO RUN

It was against such a figure that Stevenson was resigned, in his own heart, to run. He approached the call as Archie Moore might accept a return match against Rocky Marciano.

The manner was "if it has to be it has to be . . . let's get it over with, quick." But, at least, Stevenson was ready. Nobody else yelled, "Leave me have him."

The woods were filled with Democratic candidates who were wont to clap the lonesome challenger on the back and say. "Get in there and fight, Addy old pal; they can't hurt us!"

Now it's going to be a struggle, perhaps a good deal more acrimonious than will be the campaign of 1956 itself. In the sparring for the nomination, Stevenson will sorely miss the portable platform which the Democratic governors and senators in the race carry with them.

Some of them can seize, on their present political height, and attract more attention than Stevenson can get after a week of setting up press conferences and buying radio and TV time.

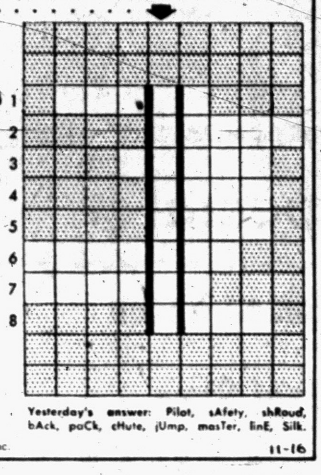

We're in for lively time. Brass knuckles will not be checked with the derbies.

Rubberized Material Used in Asphalt, Tar

MALVERN, Ark.—A new rubberized material is being produced at a Malvern plant specifically for use in asphalt and tar.

It is made from unvulcanized synthetic rubber latex and minute particles of barytes, a chemically inert material.

The material, a very fine, dry, gray powder, is produced in a paving grade for bituminos concrete, a mixing grade for rubberizing asphalt before its use, and a type for rubberizing tar for jet-fuel-resistant airfield surfaces.

The West German 1955 fruit crop decreased about 35 per cent from the year before, largely because of abnormally cold and rainy weather during the blossoming period.

Hal Boyle Says:

NEW YORK (AP)—A fable:

An old man in a small boat by the fringe of a river bending to the sea was patiently netting minnows.

Time had made him a philosopher of sky and land and water. A boy rowed up to him and said, "teach me to catch whales."

* * *

"Why?" asked the philosopher.

"My father, Angelo, is a tuna fisherman," explained the boy. "But I do not wish to fish for the tuna. I want to catch a whale."

"I know your father, and I understand why he doesn't search for the whale," replied the philosopher. "But why did he send you to me?"

"I don't know," said the boy. "He only told me that if I couldn't be happy with tuna and must seek the whale I should go and take lessons perhaps from the minnow man. Can you help me?"

The boy's face was ecstatic.

"I know your father, the tuna fisherman, and I also know why he has never hunted the whale," said the philosopher, his cheeks flushing, "and I know why he sent you to me. But I will try to teach you."

* * *

The philosopher taught the boy how small fish run in schools, and how to net them. Then he taught him how fish get scarcer and rougher as they go to college, and how it takes an equal endurance and fortitude to match them. And then he told him the patience and strength and skill of arm—and the bravery—it required at that time to stalk and harpoon a whale.

Then he said he sent him forth: "You have learned all I can teach you about what must be done. Nothing is left for you to do."

The boy, now grown to young manhood, left him. He sought and found the blowing whale.

Years later, in middle age, stumping on one leg, the boy came back to the philosopher, and sat in his boat and said half-reproachfully:

* * *

"I'm tired of hunting whales. You never searched for whales yourself, did you? Why not?"

And the old man answered placidly, "No. The nature of the minnow taught me all I needed to know. But some people have to dare the whale. Each must learn in the only way he can find it out."

The other fishermen watched and wondered as the old, old philosopher and his former scholar resumed the netting of minnows, rippling the stream with echoes of uproarious laughter at times as they discussed the ambitions of whales and mankind. But they never went for tuna.

* * *

Judge Suggests Vote for Toll, Free Roads

MANCHESTER, Mich. (INS) — Detroit Traffic Judge John D. Watts has suggested a statewide referendum on the dispute over toll roads and free roads.

Watts, speaking at a meeting in Manchester last night, said:

"We've got to have roads and we've got to have them now. The thing that is holding them up is the terrific quarrel over whether the new highways shall be toll or freeways.

"Perhaps as a means of settling the question, we should have a referendum throughout the state. Let the people decide whether the new highways should be toll or free."

Overseas Christmas Gift Packages Should Be on Their Journey Today

Today is the deadline for mailing overseas gift packages for those who want to be sure of delivery by Christmas. Pontiac's acting postmaster Leslie H. Dean Sr. warned.

Air parcel post packages mailed up to Dec. 1 usually will reach their destination by Christmas. However, Dean advised that mailers take into consideration that bus or rail transport may be necessary after the package arrives overseas, causing delay in delivery.

At the same time, Dean urged domestic mail patrons to start shopping now and plan to mail early for Christmas.

For the first time this year, a free illustrated pamphlet is available at post offices, giving types and sizes of cartons best suited for shipping and hints on packaging fragile or hard to mail items.

Boxes should be strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard or other solid material. Each box should be securely tied with strong cord both around the box itself and a second time around the outside strong paper wrapping. Addresses should be included on the inner box, and on the outside wrapping.

Address should be printed in ink or typed. A return address should appear on every parcel, preferably in the upper left hand corner.

Generally speaking, firearms, liquors and animals (with certain exceptions to specially authorized shippers) are taboo, as are poisons and explosives.

Size and weight limits vary according to the place of mailing and destination. A free pamphlet containing size and weight limits and postage rates for domestic mail is available at the post office.

Books may be sent at a special low rate of postage, but must not contain other articles to be mailed. Packages containing money or valuable items should be registered. Others may be insured.

This Christmas a new mail service, "certified mail," is available, for use in sending such items as checks, savings bonds and gift certificates. Fee for this service is 15 cents in addition to regular first-class postage. A record of delivery of certified mail is maintained and the sender may obtain proof of delivery if desired.

Terry Moore Sues Rave for $2 Million

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — A two-million-dollar libel suit has been filed against Rave magazine by screen actress Terry Moore.

An article concerning the actress and the opening of the Hilton Hotel in Istanbul, Turkey, in the October issue of the magazine was "malicious, false, libelous and degrading," the complaint alledged.

Jil Drops Her Plan to Prosecute Susan

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Jil Jarmyn has decided not to prosecute screen star Susan Hayward, who Miss Jarmyn said socked her with a hair brush.

"I've been through a humiliating experience that I want to forget," Miss Jarmyn told Dep. Dist. Atty. Van J. Whiteside yesterday. She withdrew her request for a battery complaint against Miss Hayward.

Miss Jarmyn earlier told police she dropped in for coffee Nov. 3 at actor Don (Red) Barry's home only to become engaged in a wrestling match with the pajama-clad Miss Hayward.

Loss at Races Leads to Family Suicide Pact

Violent Jitterbug

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Christine Hibbs yesterday lost a $47,600 damage suit against a hotel for injuries she said she suffered when a jitterbug knocked her down in the hotel's ballroom. She said she tried to avoid the jitterbug but that he backed into her and knocked her to the floor, causing her to break an elbow.

Monkey Bites Girl, 7

ST. JOSEPH (AP) — Police shot and killed a spotnose African monkey Monday after it bit and scratched a 7-year-old girl. The monkey, which had escaped from its owner, attacked Nancy Livingston as she was on her way to school.

Hughes Will Make Civilian Products

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Industrialist Howard Hughes has announced the creation of a new division of Hughes Aircraft Co. to market the firm's research products commercially.

In an announcement, Hughes said:

"Formerly developments of the company's research have been utilized only in the Falcon guided missile and electronic systems for interceptor airplanes.

* * *

"In the future, those products which have commercial application will be introduced into the general market through the Hughes Products Division."

Canners to Meet

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Michigan Canners and Freezers Assn., has announced its annual meeting will be held Dec. 5 and 6 here. William U. Hudson, of Oakland, Calif., president-elect of the National Canners Assn., is scheduled to speak at the first luncheon meeting of the group.

Quick Decision

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Postmaster Donald R. Biron didn't have to think long before he marked an envelope "addressee deceased" and returned the letter to a woman in Smith River, Calif. She had addressed the letter to "Oliver W. Holmes, Holmesdale Rd., Pittsfield, Mass." Holmes was a 19th Century author and father of the late Chief Justice Holmes. He had a summer home in Pittsfield.

McLeod Hedges on Passport Ban

Security Chief Employs 'Executive Order' Rule at Senate Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scott McLeod, the State Department's security chief, was called back to a Senate hearing today to tell "who actually made the decisions" in denying three disputed passports.

* * *

Chairman Hennings (D-Mo) asked for the information yesterday as McLeod appeared before the Senate subcommittee on constitutional rights.

McLeod, whose duties include general supervision over the Passport Division, said he didn't know. He was told to find out and report back.

MAY NOT TELL

He told reporters later he did not know whether he could furnish the information, if he found out, because of a presidential order holding certain matters in the executive department confidential.

The cases involved are those of Dr. Linus C. Pauling, California Institute of Technology scientist and Nobel Prize winner; Judge William Clark, former chief judge of the Allied High Courts in Germany; and Martin D. Kamen, professor at Washington University in St. Louis.

Drop in Chicken Pox Recorded Locally

Flareups of chicken pox and measles in Pontiac and Oakland County leveled off during the past week, according to reports from Dr. John D. Monroe, health director.

Chicken pox dropped to 14 cases from the previous week's 33, and measles was down to 33 as against 43 the week before. Polio was at the zero mark, but there were scattered cases of mumps, whooping cough, scarlet fever and intestinal disorders.

Following is a breakdown of both city and county reports:

PONTIAC

	Past Week	Prev. Week	Year Ago
Chicken Pox	3	7	4
Measles	28	28	2
Mumps	0	1	0

Delayed Action

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Police arrived too late Monday to assist at the birth of a child to Mrs. Claybourn Brown but they managed to make themselves useful by rushing Mrs. Brown to Butterworth Hospital where a second child was born minutes later. Mrs. Brown and her twin daughters were reported in fine condition.

Is This a Record?

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Police said John Henry, a civilian employe of March Air Force Base, was involved in separate collisions with six autos in one day. They booked him on charges of hit-run driving, drunk driving, driving without an operator's license and failure to yield the right of way. Everybody's all present and accounted for, however.

Hollywood Headlines:

Audrey and Mel Discuss Film Version of 'Ondine'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Vincente Minnelli confirmed to me that while Audrey Hepburn and Mel Ferrer were here they discussed with him the possibility of his directing "Ondine," their stage play, as a movie.

Vince said he would love to do it but he still has to direct "Tea and Sympathy," and there is rewriting from day to day on "Lust for Life," the story of Van Gogh starring Kirk Douglas.

"'Lust for Life' is a very sensitive story," Vince told me. "We filmed about two-thirds of it in Europe and have about a third more to do here."

BUYS STAGE HIT

When boss Don Hartman hung up the long distance phone to Irene Selznick in New York, Paramount was in possession of Irene's stage hit "The Chalk Garden."

British and quite whacky, it's a mixed-up story about a weird household which appears to be perfectly normal outwardly. But it is actually run by a domineering butler who stays in bed most of the time and issues his orders to the members of the family from upstairs.

The deal is so fresh that Don hasn't decided on a screen east, but Gladys Cooper is so good in the play she may well wind up in the movie.

"You've been misinformed," said Susan. "I'm perfectly happy at 20th, although I have done some talking about my future plans. However, this all is as nebulous as the fact that I might be on Mars next year. Who knows where any of us will be this time next year?"

JESSEL AND QUEEN

London was all agog over the remark George Jessel made to the Queen Mother when he was introduced to her after the royal variety show.

Said Georgie to the dowager queen, "Without any impertinence at all, I'd like to say you'd be just as lovely if you had no title."

One William Hickey took up the cudgels in defense of Georgie and said to him, "For goodness sake don't apologize, Georgie. I expect the Queen Mother was delighted after all the formal remarks that are made to her day after day."

After two years and four months absence from Hollywood, writer-producer Sy Bartlett has returned and gone into partnership with Gregory Peck in Melville Pictures, a company which will star Greg and other stars.

He tells me that he and Ruark, whose "Something of Value" is on the best-seller list, are trying something new. They will not publish their novel until they first sell it to a studio for a motion picture.

MEL'S EX TO WED

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The ex-Mrs. Mel Ferrer will marry Howard Warshaw, well-known modern American painter, next summer. Warshaw has had several exhibits here and also teaches an art class in Santa Barbara.

Lovely, exotic Rita Gam is Joe Di Maggio's current date in New York. One thing, Joe isn't doing type casting. Rita's completely different from Marilyn Monroe.

Stopped to chat with Virginia Mayo and Michael O'Shea, who tell me their daughter will have her second birthday next week. "And then," said Mike, "I'm taking her out stepping." Mike and Virginia have never gotten over the hand-holding habit.

Sens. Potter, Wiley See Lakes Support

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Two Republican senators—Wiley of Wisconsin and Potter of Michigan—predicted yesterday that the Senate will approve at its next session the deepening of Great Lakes channels of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

* * *

"It is unthinkable that there should be any delay next year in achieving this goal," said Wiley in a keynote speech at the Great Lakes Harbor Association meeting.

* * *

And Potter told the group he was "confident Congress will authorize this 115 million dollar project early next session."

Dies After Car Crash

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Norman Frazier, 22, of Grand Rapids, died Monday at Butterworth Hospital of injuries suffered last Tuesday in an auto crash on M50, west of the Kent-Ottawa County line. Frazier, alone in his car, struck a tree along the road. He was Ottawa County's 26th traffic victim in 1955.

Mitzi Gets Nest Egg

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A financial nest egg that has been accumulating since she was a minor has hatched handsomely for screen star Mitzi Gaynor. The 24-year-old actress picked up $16,250 yesterday from County Clerk Harold Ostly. The money represented 10 per cent of her earnings impounded under a 1947 court order.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

A PAPER BAG MASK

This is a funny mask that will surprise you when you put it on.

Paste this picture on the front of a strong paper bag. Leave a margin of about an inch all the way around it. The bag should be large enough to pull over your head. Slit the bag a little at the sides so it will come down well around your neck.

Cut out around the dotted lines of the eyebrow and curl the pieces forward. This will make the eyebrows look bushy.

Cut around the edge of the nose so it will lift up and fie on the top of your nose.

After you have cut the various places, color the ends on the inside in some bright color, red or blue or green — something very unusual.

If you'd prefer a mask to cover just your face, paste this on a sheet of strong paper large enough to go over your face with an inch-wide border around the picture to strengthen it. Then make a hole by each ear and tie on the mask with string.

Junior Editors pays $10 for any reader's idea that is used. Write your suggestion to "Junior Editors" in care of this newspaper; it cannot be acknowledged or returned.

30 Million Fishermen Spend Billions on Hobby

CHICAGO—Fishing is big business. America's more than 30,000,000 anglers spend more than $1,500,000,000 on their hobby each year.

Another $500,000,000 to $75,000,000 is spent by this group alone for outboard motors, boats and equipment and maintenance of boats and motors.

They lay out at least another billion for travel expenses and about $40,000,000 for license and other fees.

An Expressed Ruler

Tibetans have never used the expression "Dalai Lama," Mongolian for "Wide Ocean," for the venerated rulers of Lhasa, says the National Geographic Society. The Dalai Lamas have been spoken of as Gyalpo Rimpoche, "Esteemed King." To their immediate families they were known as Kundun, "the Presence."

Swedes Get Rent Rebate

STOCKHOLM — Rent rebates granted to families with small incomes and at least two children are one of Sweden's several types of housing subsidies. The upper income limit on this type of aid is set so high that about two thirds of all families that meet the requirement on children are entitled to this subsidy.

Board Sees School Safety

Ask State Group Review Policies

Farmington Township Buys Caution Lights; May Add 10 Buses

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Safety and transportation were the principal concern of members of Farmington School Board at Monday's meeting.

* * *

The Board proposed the addition of 10 new buses to the district's present 22 in order to transport all children at the same time.

General feeling among board members is that a uniform starting time, putting all children who must walk on the streets at the same time, would to some extent "constitute a safety factor."

"Most drivers will slow down when they see a large group of children, whereas they often pay little attention to one or two," Harley Thompson, board member, said. "Older children walking with a group also tend to look after smaller ones."

The purchase of caution blinkers was also approved. One single and seven pairs of the lights will be bought, providing two for elementary schools. "We can't keep fighting this transportation problem without some built in safety program," Wendell Brown, president of the board said.

LEVEL PLAYGROUND

A report from the field superintendent stated that the high school is ready for acceptance except for final installation of lockers and trim. Elementary schools should be completed this week. Thompson suggested that leveling off of play grounds should be done now, otherwise heavy machinery can not get in until late spring.

The School Board will meet with the Township Board tonight at 8 p.m. in the town hall to discuss transportation problems.

The board on its own motion will ask the State Board of Education to review Farmington transportation policies and bus routes and submit their opinion.

Set 2 Meetings for Parents at Williams Lake

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Two meetings have been scheduled this week for parents of children attending Williams Lake School.

Tonight at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium Mrs. Clare Hubbell will explain modern methods of teaching reading to parents of first graders.

Assisting with group discussions will be first grade teachers Mrs. A. T. Williams, Mrs. K. H. Dye, Mrs. B. H. Meninga, Mrs. Andrew Gillette and Patricia Knudsen.

Tomorrow at 4 p. m. those parents interested in helping with a noontime recreation program will meet with assistant principal Donald Smith for a planning session.

Waterford Church Plans Work Night

WATERFORD — A work night has been planned for 7 p.m. Thursday by the Waterford Community Church for those who can help.

This will replace the regular Sunday School Board meeting.

He's Not Superstitious

OAKLAND, Calif. (INS) — Oakland Police are hunting for a non-superstitious safecracker. Among the $4,950 in loot he took from the lineman's club were the $2 bills which tavern operator Joseph Siter had collected as a hobby—225 of them.

County Deaths

Mrs. Sumner Jewett

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Service for Mrs. Sumner Jewett, who died in Detroit Monday, will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from the White Lake Presbyterian Church. A prayer service will be held at 9 p.m. tonight at the Neeley Funeral Home, corner Meyers Road and Northwestern Highway. The body will be at the funeral home until noon Thursday.

Mrs. George Hameline

LAPEER — Service for Mrs. George J. (Mary Jane) Hameline, 84, was held today in the Baird Funeral Home, with burial in Roseland Park Cemetery, Detroit. Mrs. Hamline died Monday in Lapeer County General Hospital.

Your PTA Is Planning:

Waterford Center School to Hear German Student

WATERFORD—Open house sponsored by the PTA will be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at Waterford Center School.

The annual book display will feature a variety of children's books which can be ordered by the visitors.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Horst Weinert, a German exchange student, who will speak on his impression of our educational system and how it compares with that of Germany. A discussion period will follow Weinert's speech.

Marcella Schalip, Doralene McNally, and Carole Roeser, a vocal trio, accompanied by pianist, Pat Yeiser will offer a number of musical selections.

Refreshments will be served by room mothers of fifth grade pupils.

Waterford Township

Thursday, Hudson Covert teachers will discuss methods and techniques used in teaching the basic subjects of the curriculum, starting at 7:30 p. m.

Auburn Heights

The PTA will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. at Auburn Heights School.

John W. Hirlinger, assistant manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and secretary of the Business Ethics Board, will speak and show a film on "Everybody's Business."

Refreshments will be served by second grade teachers and home room mothers.

Parents are asked to go directly to their children's rooms.

The business meeting will be at 8:15, followed by refreshments served by the first grade home room mothers. A nursery will be provided for children three years of age and over.

There will also be a bake sale, sponsored by the Girl Scout leaders.

Waterford Township

Donelson School PTA will meet Thursday evening at the school. Each room will hold "Open House" from 7:30 to 8:30 for parents to visit with the teacher and look at the work being done by their children.

The Library Club will sponsor a display of books from the Old Prof's Book Store and entertainment will be furnished by the Waterford High School Boys' Ensemble.

Refreshments will be served by the third grade mothers.

Seek Parking Space at Fisher Body Plant

Permission for Fisher Body Division workers to park back of curbs on streets near the Fisher Body plant was asked of the City Commission last night.

Harold A. Grant, president of Local 596 (UAW-CIO), told the Commission production was at a peak at the plant and the company is striving to purchase new property for expanded parking facilities.

In the meantime, he said, workers are parking between the curb and log boundaries of the company lot and are being ticketed daily by police.

Teenagers in Home After Court Hearing

Charged with vandalizing three Cass Lake summer homes, two Keego Harbor teenagers were taken to the Oakland County Children's Home yesterday after a preliminary Juvenile Court hearing.

They will await another hearing next Tuesday.

The boys, age 13 and 14, were caught by police Monday after a neighbor reported seeing them tearing shingles off the roof of one of the vacant dwellings.

The pair admitted entering the homes of Sam Borin, Joseph Lenhard and Louis Lumberg, all on Cass Lake Front. The three owners live in Detroit.

Furniture was slashed, radios broken, paint poured over a television set and dishes and glassware smashed throughout the homes. Walls were marred with lipstick and paint.

Exhibit of Photos Opening Friday at Kingswood

A one-man exhibit of photographic art by Harvey J. Croze opens Friday in the art galleries of Kingswood School Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills.

President of the Contemporary Photographic Society of Michigan, Croze is also official photographer for the Cranbrook institutions.

On display from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays will be photograms, candid shots, large color reproductions, abstract pictures and montages.

Sign of Prosperity

SAGINAW (AP) — Another sign of prosperity:

About 425 persons have applied for residence in Saginaw's new 236-apartment federal housing project. But only about 100 of them are eligible for the low income dwellings. Most of the others make too much money — more than the $3,100 to $3,500 permitted.

Pressmen Protesting

KALAMAZOO (AP) — About 200 printing pressmen and helpers stayed away from their jobs at the Sutherland Paper Co. Tuesday night. Spokesmen for them said they were protesting the elimination of one man from each shift in a job reclassification.

A Lucky Sportsman

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (INS)—Phil Frick of Fort Scott, Kan., borrowed a rod and reel from a nearby farmhouse while duck hunting in order to retrieve a bird that fell into a pond after he had bagged it. He caught a bass on his first cast, the duck came in on the second.

Insurance Firm Completes Move

Michigan Life Opens in $1,250,000 Building at Royal Oak

ROYAL OAK — The Michigan Life Insurance Company has moved its headquarters from downtown Detroit to Royal Oak.

They are open for business on the top three stories of their great new $1,250,000 building at Coolidge and Thirteen-Mile roads.

The tremendous job of moving the firm, which started three months ago, and with as little interruption of "business as usual," was completed over the weekend.

A branch of the Wayne Oakland bank will occupy part of the first floor. Goodbody and Company, stockbrokers, will also maintain an office there.

Reluctant Shippers May Delay Seaway Work

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Construction of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway may be delayed by a crackdown on shippers failing to comply with the federal "Dangerous Cargo" Act.

A coast guard spokesman told the Great Lakes Harbor Assn.'s convention yesterday that action will be taken in a few days against shippers in local ports who ignore the act regulating the handling of dynamite and other explosives.

Gideons and Auxiliary Will Meet on Thursday

WATERFORD — The Pontiac Camp of Gideon and Auxiliary will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Spence, 1034 Canterbury Dr.

Slate Annual Roll Call

DRAYTON PLAINS — The local chapter of the WCTU will have annual roll call at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, at the home of Mrs. L. G. Rowley, 6700 Williams Lake Rd.

Saturday Dances Held for Waterford Adults

* * *

Free instruction in square dancing will be given from 8:30 to 9:30 Saturdays and the public is invited.

Slate Closed Meeting for Complaint Case

ROYAL OAK (AP) —A four-man Employe Relations Committee here has scheduled a closed meeting in City Hall Thursday night to determine whether its investigation of Fire Chief Clyde Wray is complete.

* * *

Ellery A. Laidlaw, a committee member, said the public and the press will be barred.

"We want to determine whether the committee has arrived at a satisfactory report on the matter," he said. "If not, we will have to hold additional hearings."

The committee is investigating complaints made against Wray, 53, by 30 of his firemen.

* * *

'Past Imperfect' Due This Week at Clarkston High

CLARKSTON — The seniors of Clarkston High School will present their class play, "Past Imperfect," in the high school auditorium, Thursday and Friday nights.

The three-act play tells the story of the stern mother and grandmother trying to control their average teenage children of today. A flashback in scene two reveals the not-so-perfect past of the mother. And in act three, all threads are tied together in a happy ending.

"Past Imperfect" is being directed by Gayle Engel, teacher.

Cast includes Bonnie Meyers, Valeria Hoyt, Kay Robinson, Buzz Neubacher, Rita Kunkle, Acey Hayes, Bill Shanks, Gary Robertson, Clyde Kizer, Ronald Johnson, Betty Anderson and Nathan Riffle.

Proceeds of the presentation will go toward the senior class trip to Washington, D.C., planned for May.

Deborah Society Names Officers

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The Deborah Missionary Society of the Lakeland United Presbyterian Church met recently at the home of Mrs. Roy Lambert, 7289 Williams Lake Rd. and an election of officers was held.

The officers who will take office in January are Mrs. Vernon Lockert, president; Mrs. Glenn Nelsey, first vice-president; Mrs. T. Nelsey, second vice-president; Mrs. Leo Currin, recording and corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Alex Warnock, treasurer.

Also, Mrs. Jack Spencer, efficiency and literature secretary; Mrs. Cyril Newman, thank offering and prayer group secretary; Mrs. Robert Cranick, temperanre and reform secretary; and Mrs. Charles Matthews, project chairman.

Detroit Motorist Held for Reckless Driving

Detroiter Clifford Gleason, 38, is in Oakland County Jail awaiting trial for reckless driving after a collision yesterday on U.S.10 near Walton Boulevard.

Gleason, who admitted to State Police that he had been drinking, was driving a car which collided with a semi-trailer driven by Leon McKeeber, 27, of Detroit.

Slate Swiss Bazaar at Ortonville

By MARTHA LEWIS
Press Correspondent

ORTONVILLE—A bit of Switzerland will be brought to this vicinity Nov. 17, when the Ortonville Women's Club sponsors its "Swiss Bazaar" at Masonic Hall.

* * *

Invitations have been issued to area organizations and hundreds are expected to browse among displays of wood carvings, music boxes, miniature cowbells and figurines of peasantry.

There will also be linen scarves and handmade handkerchiefs; the Tobler chocolate for which the people of the Alps are famous, and a variety of note cards and gift wrappings.

There will be something for everyone, including a toy display, say the sponsors, and "every article is an authentic work of Swiss art."

TO DON COSTUME

Mrs. B. L. Hamilton and Mrs. LaVern Boutell, bazaar managers, will be in costume to greet the guests.

Hostesses to greet guests and clerks to serve will attempt to assist all with an air of old-world friendliness. Tea will be served, along with Mailanderli and Totenbeinli cookies made from Swiss recipes.

* * *

Members of the club have set bazaar hours from 2 until 9 p.m., to make it convenient for men to shop, as well as women.

TV, Granny May Cause Some Children's 'Colds'

HOUSTON (AP) — Television and grandmothers could be indirect and innocent causes of recurrent "colds" in some children, the Southern Medical Assn. was told today.

* * *

Many kids watch TV while "lying on a rug," and mold and dust from a rug can touch off an "allergic" type cold in children sensitive to such material, Dr. Almon F. Halpern of Dallas told the group's 49th annual convention.

He said chemicals are available for spraying rugs and overstuffed furniture in the TV room, and these can "quite effectively control" harmful airborne materials.

* * *

As for grandma, he said while she might be up and around and apparently "healthy," she might also have chronic bronchitis which could make her a "healthy carrier" of germs which her grandchild could catch.

Halpern, speaking of certain children of preschool age who get a respiratory infection "about once a month," put it this way:

"The presence of a 'healthy' individual in the child's environment may be the sole cause of a recurring acute respiratory infection.

"This person may be a mother with a 'chronic sinus,' a grandmother with a chronic bronchitis, or an older sibling (brother or sister) who attends schools and who has frequent colds.

"In some instances we have had to treat the entire family with vaccine or sulfadiazine prophylactically before successfully controlling the child's infection."

He said the "vaccine" referred to is the so-called "cold shot" vaccine which includes various types of bacteria.

Brothers-in-Law Hurt as Car Strikes Tree

Brothers-in-law Ralph Enix, 26, of 249 S. Telegraph Rd., and Fowler L. Hatfield, of Jacksboro, Tenn., were injured when their car hit a tree early today.

Enix told police that the car ran off the road when he failed to make a turn at N. Johnson Ave. and Elizabeth Lake Ave.

Benefit Dance Slated at St. Andrew's Hall

ROCHESTER — A pre-Advent dance will be held at St. Andrew's Church Hall on Saturday, Nov. 26. Proceeds of the dance are to be used for the purchase of school playground equipment.

Jesse White will call for the square dances, and music will be provided by a local orchestra.

At 10 p.m. the Arthur Murray Studios of Birmingham will present Irene Novak and George Gage in an exhibition of Cha Cha and South American dances. Skilled in the art of South American dancing the couple will gladly demonstrate other numbers upon request.

Tickets may be obtained at the door. An anonymous donor has supplied the dance committee with prizes. Dancing will be from 9 until 1 o'clock.

Wolverines 'Sight-In' Weapons for OSU Clash

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's Bennie Oosterbaan, aiming at football's juiciest target, has given his Wolverines firing practice at Ohio State's Buckeyes and their "one man gang."

For the 2nd straight week and the 2nd time since the season began, Oosterbaan put his squad through a scrimmage session yesterday. Last week it paid off in a 30-0 victory over Indiana. This week there is much more at stake—the undisputed Big Ten title, a trip to the Rose Bowl and a victory of vengeance over old rival Ohio State.

It was the Buckeyes and their All-America, Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, who smashed Michigan, 21-7, in the season finale last year, squeezing the Wolverines out of a title tie and a chance at the bowl.

Most of the Michigan squad remembers that Ohio victory. Even those who don't have already received academic schooling on what to expect from the rugged, fast Buckeyes.

Matt Patanelli, the Michigan assistant coach who scouted the Buckeye victories over Iowa and Indiana, warned that incentive will not be enough this week.

"Cassady is all they say he is," Patanelli said grimly, "and more. He is the greatest back in the country."

Patanelli described the other Ohio horses as Jim Roseboro, Don Vicic and Frank Ellwood.

Ellwood, the Buckeye quarterback, is the 2nd highest scorer to Cassady's 13 touchdowns. He scored five TD's while directing the Ohio team, but curiously enough he hardly ever passes.

"They haven't thrown a pass in their last two victories," Patanelli said "but that's no guarantee they won't throw against us."

Roseboro took over the right halfback slot from Jerry Harkrader, who hurt his ankle early in the season. Now, even though Harkrader has improved, he's finding it difficult to keep Roseboro out of the lineup. Roseboro is Ohio's 2nd most potent ground gainer behind Cassady.

Although their yardage averages are about the same at six a try, Cassady is used almost twice as much as Roseboro or any other player on the team.

Cassady's signal has been called 133 times and he has powered for 812 yards.

"I don't know how you would explain the fact that they don't fumble, except to say that they're a well schooled team and don't make mistakes," Patanelli said.

The Buckeyes have the lowest fumbles made and fumbles lost averages in the Big Ten.

With 168-pound Leo Brown at right end, the Buckeye line averages 208 pounds — but without Brown the other six 1st string Buckeyes average 215 pounds largely because of Parker's 248-pound frame.

Wins 41 Straight
Unbeaten Football Team Finds Schedule Trouble

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Forty-one straight football games without a defeat—a streak one of the best in the nation — have produced some problems for the East St. Louis High School.

* * *

It's becoming more difficult each year to schedule games. "It's tremendous the way they stay away from us," said Fred Cameron, head coach.

* * *

Pupils have adopted "a ho-hum attitude" toward winning. It takes a powerhouse opponent to draw a large crowd at home games. Most of the 1,460 pupils can't even remember when the Flyers last lost a game—to nearby Belleville High on Thanksgiving Day, 1951. Belleville, unbeaten in nine games this year, takes on the Flyers this Thanksgiving Day, too.

* * *

One tie mars the record. That was a 12-12 contest this year against St. Louis University High, described by Wirt Downing, the principle here, as "the best team in St. Louis, possibly in Missouri."

The victory string began under Downing, who retired as head coach and became principal this year. Cameron, his assistant for nine years, became the head coach.

Downing played under Don Faurot, now the University of Missouri coach, when Fanrot was at Kirksville, Mo., State Teachers. The Flyers use the split-T formation originated by Faurot.

* * *

But the coaches here have never hesitated to change formations to suit the material at hand. Downing thinks many high school coaches make a mistake in trying to fit players into some orthodox style of play.

Oregon State Can Grab PCC Title Saturday

USC Must Beat UCLA; Uclans Still Choice for Rose Bowl

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Oregon State, an inexperienced and seemingly innocent entrant in the Pacific Coast Conference football race this year, has a chance to make off with the conference championship Saturday.

* * *

That would close conference play, giving Oregon State a 6-1 record and a percentage point advantage over UCLA and its 5-1 record. Then the nine conference schools will vote on which team to send to the Rose Bowl. Usually that is the champion. But it does not have to be. The schools can be expected to vote for the strongest team, and looming large is the 38-0 defeat UCLA handed Oregon State earlier in the year.

In addition UCLA has a more impressive season record of 8-1. Oregon State has a 6-2 season record.

* * *

Even that record is a surprise, for the Staters last year lost 8 of 9 games and looked particularly inept as UCLA walloped them, 61-0.

Among the reasons for the upsurge is a man who watched from the UCLA bench as Oregon State went under last year. He is Tommy Prothro, 34, backfield coach at UCLA from 1949 until he accepted the head coaching job at Oregon State this year.

Prothro says the big thing is the spirit the players have generated, but he could very well mention some more tangible assets—John Witte, Joe Francis, Sam Wesley, Bob DeGrant and Wayne Fournier, to name a few.

FORGETS FOOTBALL — Lynn Beightol, 20-year-old Maryland quarterback, relaxes at home in College Park, Md., with one-year-old Larry while his wife and Bonnie, 3, take time out with a book. Beightol who led his team to victory last Saturday over Clemson, has taken over the No. 1 spot because of the illness of the undefeated Terrapins' ace quarterback Frank Tamburello, now a patient in a Baltimore hospital. It was announced yesterday that Maryland, rated No. 2 in the latest Associated Press poll, has been picked to play in the Miami Orange Bowl Jan. 2.

Pioneers Top Prep Team; Maples Ranked 5th Best

Amazing Ann Arbor, which seemingly has forgotten how to lose a football game, today was acclaimed the No. 1 team in the final Associated Press high school poll of the season.

With the fall of Bay City Central, coach Hank Fonde's Pioneers drew overwhelming support from the state's high school football writers and sportscasters.

Ann Arbor received 21 of the 26 first-place votes in the final balloting of the season.

On a basis of 10 points for a 1st-place vote, 9 for 2nd and so forth, Pioneers polled 253 points to 224 for runnerup Grand Rapids Catholic Central.

Bay City Central, which had held the No. 1 position for four straight weeks, toppled into 3rd place following its 13-12 upset to Flint Central.

Second ten was composed of Niles, Muskegon, Saginaw Arthur Hill, Alpena, Kalamazoo, East Detroit, Royal Oak and Flint Northern, Grosse Pointe and Muskegon Catholic Central and Midland.

Ann Arbor now has a 52-1-2 record under Fonde. The lone defeat was to Toledo Scott by a 12-7 score in the 1st game of the 1951 season.

Since then, however, the Pioneers have rolled through 38 games without a loss—the state's finest Class A record.

Approximately 22 roller skaters successfully passed proficiency tests in 10 events last night at Rolladium rink, and earned the fololwing awards:

Kaline Happy Over Choice as Top Soph

"Flattered" He Was Compared to Musial and Williams

BALTIMORE (AP)—Al Kaline, a modest and never very talkative youngster, had only one thing to say when told yesterday he had been picked as the American League's Sophomore of the Year.

"I'm very happy."

It was quite a speech for the brilliant young Detroit outfielder who led hitters in both major leagues with a thumping .340 average.

* * *

He banged out 27 homers, drove in 102 runs and was the only major leaguer to collect 200 hits, it was noted by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America who selected him.

Kaline said he was particularly flattered that he had been compared to Ted Williams and Stan Musial in the announcement.

* * *

Rather than discuss himself, Kaline viewed American League prospects for next year and predicted another close race.

He said with improved pitching fifth-place Detroit would be up with the leaders next year.

Ameche Still Tops in NFL Net Yardage

Rushing Lead Cut by Howie Ferguson of Green Bay

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Howie Ferguson, the Green Bay Packers veteran running mainstay, cut sharply into the ground-gaining lead of Alan Ameche, the Baltimore Colts' fullback, National Football League statistics showed today.

Ameche is still the top man in the league with 707 yards gained on 142 carries for a 5-yard average per carry. Ferguson has gained 633 yards on 128 attempts for a 4.9 average and during the last two weeks has cut Ameche's lead from 194 to 74 yards.

Third place in the ball-carrying department is held by defending champion Joe Perry of San Francisco with 541 yards.

Another challenge popped up in the passing department where Eddie Brown of the Chicago Bears has bounded from 4th to 2nd place. Otto Graham, Cleveland Browns ace who was throttled by the Philadelphia Eagles, keeps the lead with 108 attempts, 58 completions for 987 yards and five touchdowns. Brown has thrown 118 times, completed 64 for 1,016 yards and five touchdowns.

Graham's completion average is .537 per cent and his average gain per pass 9.14 yards. Brown has a .542 completion average but his passes averaged only 8.61 yards per toss.

Tom Fears, veteran Los Angeles end, jumped all the way from 7th to 1st place in pass catching with nine nabs for a total of 36, one more than Harlon Hill of the Bears. Billy Wilson of San Francisco and Pete Pihos of Philadelphia.

Swink Gets 'Best Back' Vote

The Associated Press

Jim Swink of Texas Christian, latest of the many storied backfield aces to emerge in the Southwest Conference, today was named The Associated Press Back of the Week.

If the 6-1, 180-pound junior halfback from Rusk, Tex., had any detractors he did a great job of of sending them sprawling last weekend in his one-man show against Texas. The Horned Rogs, closing in on the Cotton Bowl, didn't need any more than Swink to bring the ambitious Longhorns back to earth.

* * *

It was a 47-20 game and Swink went across for four touchdowns. Only one was commonplace, coming on a 1-yard plunge. The others were true Texas spectaculars — with Swink swinging along on runs of 62, 57 and 34 yards. In 15 plays, he piled up 235 yards—the top one-game total of the season for major college play.

Among other things, he also booted two conversions, giving him a total of 26 points for the game as TCU handed Texas its worst conference whipping of all time.

* * *

Jim also hauled two kickoffs back 33 yards. He returned a punt 13. On defense, he intercepted one pass, broke up two others and made two unassisted tackles.

All this was accomplished in 39 minutes playing time.

TCU Coach Abe Martin, who's had to come up with new adjectives for Swink each week, didn't have any doubts that it was the "greatest exhibition of ball carrying I ever saw."

* * *

Hard-hit Ed Price of Texas termed Swink "one of the best, if not the best, backs in the country. His performance not only was the greatest individual show I have ever seen, but also the best I've ever heard of."

Last weekend's game afforded great opportunities for many backs but none approached Swink's brilliance.

U of M in Top Shape, OSU Is Ready, Writers Told

DETROIT (AP)—Nobody wanted to be heard loud and strong, but there were lots of mumbles at the Michigan Football Assn. meeting yesterday about the Rose Bowl, its trials and its tribulations.

Everyone knew the situation: If Michigan is beaten or tied by Ohio State Saturday, Michigan State goes West. If not, Michigan goes.

Under his breath, Bill Snypp, Ohio State publicist, will tell you:

"Sure, I think we're going to beat Michigan. Our club has been getting stronger each game and last week we played the best game of the season. A short while ago no one thought we had much of a chance against Michigan, but that feeling has completely changed now. We've been getting better while Michigan has been hanging on a good part of the season.

Then, Les Etter, Michigan's publicist, says:

"Our club will be in the best shape it has been all season for the game Saturday. We know what trouble Ohio State can give us but we have the advantage of being at home and that means a lot."

Fred Stabley, Michigan State's publicist, asked to talk about his team's game Saturday with Marquette, said:

"I've heard there's another game Saturday. I expect 45,000 fans in East Lansing and 45,000 radios. We've got a ban on radios in Macklin Stadium, but I'd sure like to see the police keep them out this Saturday."

"Those radio fans won't have to look for a station to find the Michigan game," mused Etter. "There are 16 stations and Mutual and NBC networks picking it up."

"We've got five special trains coming up from Ohio," said Snypp, "and they'll carry some 4,000 rooters."

Leading Driver Is Suspended

Safford Placed Under Ban in NY, His Horses Barred From Tracks

NEW YORK (AP)—George P. Monaghan handed out more penalties in his continuing investigation of harness racing yesterday and then ridiculed as "absurd" a report that he was ready to resign as state commissioner of the sport.

* * *

Topping the list in the latest cleanup was the suspension of Frank Safford, a leading driver and owner, until June 1, 1956. Safford's horses, 20 trotters, were barred from New York tracks for the same period in the action.

* * *

Monaghan, one-time New York City police and fire commissioner and assistant district attorney, said Safford had "testified falsely under oath" and had associated with a known gambler."

The "gambler" was identified by Monaghan as Byron (Doc) Evans of Yonkers, N. Y. Evans was barred from New York tracks for life by the commissioner, who said Evans' gambling record "dated back to 1935."

* * *

It was the second time in a year that Monaghan has set down Safford, who is from Southern Pines, N. C.

Doak Sees Play Getting Dirtier

Backs Graham's Stand That Something Should Be Done About It

DALLAS (AP)—Doak Walker, former Southern Methodist All-America and now a Detroit Lions star, says that dirty football is increasing in the National Football League.

* * *

In a telephne conversation with the Dallas Times Herald yesterday, Walker said he had to agree with Otto Graham, quarterback for the Cleveland Browns, that dirty playing is on the increase.

"I agree with Graham that something should be done about it," he said.

* * *

Walker said that there are a few more players using dirty tactics this year and that it was usually the same players week after week that engage in it.

Walker urged that referees oust dirty players from the game and said that suspension or a heavier fine would help eliminate unsportsmanship-like tactics on the gridiron.

Gotham Racing Shows Decrease

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York racing season, which ended yesterday, showed a slight decrease in betting and attendance from 1954 figures while neighboring New Jersey reported an increase.

The '55 betting total in New York was $355,649,464, down 2.2 per cent from the $363,255,993 wagered last year in one less day of racing.

Attendance for this year was 4,288,409, a 2.9 slip from '54.

In New Jersey, the year's business at the betting windows was $260,838,133, an increase of more than 4 million over a year ago. Despite a hot summer and fall storms, attendance was up about 14,000 over '54 with a total of 2,868,296.

In Maryland, a 23.7 per cent increase was reported in betting at Laurel, which closed yesterday. The total was $16,633,905 for the 15-day meeting.

OSU May Call on Soph to Start Against U-M

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With regular right halfback Jerry Harkrader definitely out of Ohio State's season finale with Michigan Saturday, and his running mate, Jim Roseboro, a doubtful starter, all eyes are turned toward a 199-pound sophomore from Toronto, Ohio.

Reserve halfback Don Sutherin's presence in the Ohio State football picture took on greater significance as the Bucks got their first mid-week workout of the year in Ohio Stadium yesterday.

Sutherin, often referred to by coach Woody Hayes as "a hard nose who has the possibilities of being a real football player," could see considerably more action than he has in the past, although Hayes is hesitant to admit it.

Sutherin, in previous games, has been used primarily to take advantage of his punting and kickoff abilities. With limited experience at both halves and at the fullback post this season, he stands a chance of a starting assignment against the Wolverines. However, he has yet to carry the ball in a college game.

Name Werket, Henry to Lead U.S. Skaters

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—John Werket of Minneapolis and Ken Henry of Chicago will lead the U. S. Olympic speed skating team in 1956 for the second time.

Co-captains of the team in 1952, Werket and Henry were renamed to their posts today by Manager Herb Schwarz, St. Paul, and Coach Dell Lamb, Milwaukee.

Hamner Operated On to Cure Arm Ailment

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Granny Hamner underwent an arm operation yesterday to cure a condition that cut his effectiveness this past season for the Philadelphia Phillies.

Hamner, the National League All-Star second baseman in 1954, fell from a .299 batting average that year to .257 last season. In addition, his fielding was hampered by the condition, described as a frayed tendon in his left arm.

Frosh to Try Again

EAST LANSING (AP) — An intersquad game scheduled by the Michigan State freshman team yesterday was postponed by a downpour of rain.

Weather permitting, the freshmen will play a full-length game this afternoon (at 3:30 p.m.) in Macklin Stadium.

Golden Gloves Boxers Sought for Workouts

All amateur boxers wishing to participate in Golden Gloves competition are urged to begin training immediately. The Community Gym on the corner of Wessen and Lull is now open for activity at 6 p.m. every night except Saturday and Sunday.

Golden Gloves competition is held in open and novice classes and in all weight divisions. A novice fighter is one who has never boxed before.

Al North, Boris Bisogni, Bill Strange, and Chuck Richards are in charge of workouts at the gym.

If enough interest is indicated, a city Goldern Gloves tournament may be held at Pontiac High School sometime this winter. Otherwise, a selected group of the best fighters will enter the Port Huron tourney.

Laud McLaughry for Achievement

BOSTON (AP) — Deormand (Tuss) McLaughry, former Dartmouth coach, today was named recipient of the fourth annual George C. Carens Award for outstanding football achievement in New England.

McLaughry, who resigned last year from the Dartmouth job after 34 years as a college coach, will receive the award at the annual Captain Dinner Nov. 28.

Correlation 5th in Comeback Try

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (AP)—Correlation, winner of two $100,000 races in 1954, now trying a comeback after a nine-month layoff, ran fifth in a field of six in the featured Teralice Purse at Tanforan yesterday.

King Ranch's Bisco won the 6-furlong go in 1:10 4-5, paying $10.10.

Correlation rested after treatment for leg infirmaries, loomed up menacingly in the stretch but tired and was beaten by 2 lengths. He appeared to pull up sound.

As a 3-year-old, Correlation won the $100,000-added Florida Derby and the $100,000-added Wood Memorial.

Yanks, All-Star Tilt Rained Out in Japan

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — The New York Yankee exhibition game with the Okinawa Service All-Stars was rained out today. It will be played as the first contest of a doubleheader tomorrow. The far east Air Forces All-Stars play the Yanks in the second game.

The Yankees came here after a triumphal tour of Japan, where they won 15 of 16 games and tied the other, 1-1. Next stop is Manila, where they play two games.

Vic Didn't Play Enough
Pro Football's Second Highest Scorer Still Would Prefer Baseball Career

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins' Vic Janowicz, currently pro football's second highest scorer, says he still would prefer a baseball career.

He said today he thinks he could have starred as a big league baseball player if he "really had been given a chance to prove it."

The 25-year-old halfback, a former Ohio State All-America, played with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1953-54 as a part-time catcher and third baseman. He declined a 1955 contract.

"I never got to play enough with the Pirates," he told a reporter. "They never even used me in exhibition games. I just can't play like that, not knowing from one day to the next if I'm going to be in the game."

* * *

But he said that "definitely" he would have preferred baseball to football as a career.

Janowicz, serving his first year in the National Football League, had a prompt answer:

"It may not look rough from the grandstand. But believe me, it's really rough. You get down there close some time and look."

Janowicz, in eight games this season, has scored 60 points. In that respect he is tied with George Blanda of the Chicago Bears. The two trail Doak Walker of the Detroit Lions who has 69.

* * *

He sad his love for baseball dated back to his high school days at Elyria, Ohio. This interest got sidetracked at Ohio State, where it was just about all football. Then the old yen came back when he played ball at Camp Polk, La., in the Army, and later in the Mexican League.

Benny Heaps Praise on Ends Kramer, Maentz; Hayes Calls Cassady Greatest He's Ever Seen

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan and Ohio State will meet for the Big 10 football championship Saturday but it might well turn out to be a battle between Ohio State's Howard Cassady and Michigan ends Ron Kramer and Tom Maentz.

While Coach Bennie Oosterbaan lauded his two great ends to Chicago football writers via telephone yesterday, Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State was equal in his praise of Cassady.

* * *

Oosterbaan said he has never seen two greater ends than Kramer and Maentz on one team.

The Wolverines need Saturdays game to clinch the Big 10 title and a trip to the Rose Bowl. A loss or a tie would give Ohio State the title and allow Michigan State to represent the Big 10 in the New Year's game at Pasadena.

Hayes praised his team for its great comeback after losing to both Stanford and Duke and still being able to move towards a title game against Michigan.

* * *

"We were being compared to the great 1954 Ohio State team," Hayes said, "but our boys worked hard and managed to improve. The turning point was the Wisconsin game (Ohio State 26, Wisconsin 16) where we were considered a team that could go on its own."

"We've been accenting our strength and minimizing our weakness," said Hayes when asked why his team didnt pass more often. But, Hayes added, "wait until Saturday to see if we can prove it."

Hayes said All-America backs can hurt a football team because of publicity but he refused to place Cassady in that category.

* * *

"He's the greatest. He takes publicity in stride and gives you the best he has," said Hayes.

Oosterbaan admitted his team was in top condition but added that if the Wolves could stop Cassady, "you stop most of Ohio State's offense."

* * *

Hayes was immediately concerned over Kramer and Maentz who are expected to be at their physical peak against the Buckeyes.

Duffy Fears State Is Too Relaxed

Expects Bad Time Against Marquette 11

The coaches are trying to talk it up that Marquette might be tough, but this is a proposition that is pretty hard to take seriously in view of the Marquette record.

Marquette has been a very tough opponent for us in the past," said Coach Duffy Daugherty. "There is no reason to expect anything but trouble Saturday."

There hasn't been too much talk on the squad about the Michigan State prospects of getting a Rose Bowl bid, although there have been some wry comments wishing Ohio State luck against Michigan.

Daugherty is philosophical about the setup.

"The issue is completely out of our hands," he said We're not stewing about it, because we have had a very fine season in our own right. If lightning strikes and we get the bowl bid, fine. It not, we're going to be very happy with what has happened this season."

Yesterday's workout was all indoors, due to the mucky condition of the outdoor practice field.

The sophomores were getting a lot of attention because it's likely that they'll be seeing plenty of action against Marquette. Also, the coaches already are thinking about next year, when they'll have to figure on replacements for 13 graduating seniors.

Late word was that the ticket sale for the Marquette game will be better than expected. The ban against televising the Michigan-Ohio State game is helping out. Also, high school students are getting a bargain price of one dollar for a ticket.

The athletic ticket office, shooting previously at 45,000, now expects that attendance should top 48,000 if Saturday's weather is anything near decent.

Prep Coaches to Take Part in Cage Clinic

More than 200 high school coaches of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and other nearby states will attend the Third Annual Basketball Coaches Clinic at Michigan State University, Nov. 18-19. Many from this area are expected to attend.

Forddy Anderson, head Spartan basketball coach, will direct the clinic in the big Jenison Fieldhouse, scene of state prep basketball finals. Clarence (Biggie) Munn, director of athletics, will give the official welcome at 10 a.m., Friday.

Midget Program Opens Saturday

Annual Midget basketball program for all 5th and 6th grade boys, co-sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department and the Board of Education, begins this Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Program will be held every Saturday morning.

Program will be conducted at five locations in the city—Owen School, Bagley School, McConnell School, Jefferson Junior High School, and the Pontiac High School boys gymnasium. Boys should report to the program nearest their home.

Basketball fundamentals will be introduced at the 1st six morning sessions through games and simple drills designed for the abilities of the age group. After the Christmas holidays teams will be divided and classified according to skill and past experience, then placed in competition with teams of equal ability.

Knicks Take Tumble From Unbeaten Ranks

Last undefeated team in the eight-member National Basketball Association hit the floor with a resounding thud last night as St. Louis poured in 42 points in the last quarter for a 121-to-95 victory over the New York Knickerbockers.

The defeat was the 1st in five games for the Knicks but it did not affect their Eastern Division lead. It was the 2nd triumph in three starts for the Western Division pacesetters.

Spartan Partisans Speculate Over Results of Late Game With Michigan

EAST LANSING (AP)—A favorite topic for speculation lately around Michigan State is what might have happened if State had played Michigan later in the season.

State had to play a lot of sophomores and the new men could be expected to gain experience and become more valuable as the season progressed.

Then the MSU multiple offense started rolling.

Stanford was whipped 38-14. Notre Dame and Illinois were beaten by identical 21-7 scores. Wisconsin and Purdue were shut out by identical 27-0 margins.

And the score against outclassed Marquette in the final game of the season is likely to run to a ridiculous high even though Daugherty is sure to give his 2nd and 3rd stringers and sophomores a good chance to romp.

The gradual buildup of the Spartan scoring punch this season explains why the MSU partisans wish Michigan had been scheduled for later in the season.

In 1953 and 1954, the Michigan-Michigan State game was the next to last one on the schedule.

But the story for the next three seasons will be the same as this year.

Clash between the neighborhood rivals will be the 2nd game of the season again in 1956, the 3rd in 1957 and the 2nd in 1958.

Michigan traditionally takes on Ohio State the last game of the season. So there isn't much chance of Michigan State getting into that choice spot.

Hilltopper Back Hard to Match

Pittsburgh Quarterback Thrives on 1st Tries

PITTSBURGH—Pete Neft, Pittsburgh quarterback who broke into the starting lineup for the first time against Duke, has a record of luck for firsts.

The first time Neft handled the ball in college, he scored a touchdown on a quarterback sneak—against Oklahoma. In his first starting role this season, he showed the way to an upset against previously undefeated Duke.

Looks Like Good Year

Arizona Star Heads for 2nd Grid Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With two games left in the football season, Luppino has rushed for 1,106 yards to maintain his lead by 20 over Texas Christian's redoubtable Jim Swink, NCAA Service Bureau statistics showed today.

* * *

* * *

Luppino, a 5-9, 170-pound junior from LaJolla, Calif., won the crown last year with 1,359 yards. Right now, he's only 78 yards short of the two-season record (2,543 by Rudy Mobley of Hardin-Simmons in 1942, '46) and but 25 behind the high for two consecutive seasons (2,490 by Howard Waugh of Tulsa in 1951-52.

* * *

Luppino also is the biggest work horse of the season, driving in on 163 plays. Next comes Stanford's Billy Tarr with 153. Swink has made only 118 trips, but his 9.2 yards a try average tops the leaders.

Ohio State's Howard (Hopalong) Cassady is third among the rushers with 812. Only Luppino (138.3), Swink (135.8) and Cassady (101.5) have averaged 100 or more yards a game.

* * *

Welsh, who completed 11 passes against Columbia for 176 yards last week, also is No. 1 in passing yards (1,143) and in completion percentage (.623). Claude Benham of Columbia, who heads the completion race with 87 over the 78 hit by Purdue's Len Dawson, is second in pass yard with 978. Wisconsin's Jim Haluska is No. 2 in accuracy with .563.

* * *

Kaline, Banks Tops

NEW YORK (AP)—Al Kaline, brilliant outfielder of the Detroit Tigers who led the American League in batting last season, has been voted the junior circuit's sophoore of the year by members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America.

The 20-year slugger, youngest batting champion since Ty Cobb paced the American League back in 1907, won the honor in a landslide vote, as expected. Of the 99 major league writers who cast ballots in the annual Associated Press poll, 91 voted for the Baltimore native who signed with the Tigers for $35,000 bonus following his graduation from high school.

The fleet-foted youngster with the accurate arm and powerful wrists enjoyed the most promising sophomore season since Ted Williams and Stan Musial were at similar stages in their career. He not only led both majors with his .340 batting average but was the only big leaguer to collect 200 hits. He proved his power by banging 27 home runs and driving in 102 runs.

NEW YORK (AP)—Ernie Banks, who hit more home runs in one season than any other shortstop in the history of baseball, was named the National League's Sophomore of the Year today in a virtually unanimous vote by members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America.

* * *

The lean, wiry infielder of the Chicago Cubs received all but 3 of the votes of the 99 writers who participated in the annual Associated Press poll. Henry Aaron Milwaukee's young outfield star attracted 2 votes and Sam (Toothpick) Jones fireball pitcher of the Cubs got 1. Banks thus joins Al Kaline the spectacular outfielder of the Detroit Tigers who won the sophomore honors in the American League.

* * *

The 175-pounder set a new record for shortstops when he clouted 44 home runs and his 5 grand slam homers surpassed the greatest feats of all sluggers past and present, including Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmy Foxx and Mel Ott.

Ernie did not miss a game last season. As a matter of fact, he hasn't missed a game since he reported to the Cubs in mid-September, 1953.

* * *

Although he averaged only .295, Banks amassed 355 total bases, scored 98 runs and drove in 117. He was third in the league in home runs and led his club in every batting department though he was tied in doubles at 29 each with teammate Gene Baker.

* * *

Ernie was just as impressive on defense. He led all National League shortstops in fielding and that included Johnny Logan, Pee Wee Reese, Roy McMillan and Alvin Dark. The new Chicago idol made only 22 errors and compiled a fielding percentage of .972 to take the shortstop fielding title away from Logan, who held it for the previous three years.

First Southpaw Winner

First southpaw to win the American Bowling Congress tournament singles title was Marshall Levey of St. Louis. He tied with a 624 series in 1907 at St. Louis, then won the rolloff.

Opportunity for Murff

Red Murff, who will get a chance with the Milwaukee Braves next spring, has won 113 minor league games as against 70 defeats while pitching six years in the minor leagues.

Newcombe Talks Contract Terms

Insists on $30,000; Don Bitter Over Cut of Last Year

BROOKLYN (AP)—A scowl on his face and a chip on his shoulder, big Don Newcombe arrived in town today to talk contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"I'm asking for $30,000 and that's exactly what I'll settle for," snapped Newcombe, apparently still bitter over the 12½ per cent cut he was forced to take last year.

Brooklyn Vice President Buzzy Bavasi was the unlucky official assigned the task of talking to Newcombe, a fellow who was armed with some imposing statistics.

ABC Tournament Plans 79-Day Run

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—The 1956 American Bowling Congress tournament will be held March 3 through May 20 in the new Rochester War Memorial Building. The 79-day event is scaled to handle 6,478 teams on 40 alleys. The sixth annual Masters tourament is May 12-16 and the fourth annual mixed doubles on May 20. Huge Boxer Lacks Punch; Fans Boo Draw Decision

LONDON (AP)—The trouble with Ewart (Pottie) Potgieter, who weighs as much as a couple of light-heavies, is that he can't hit any harder than a welterweight.

Not that there's anything timid about welters, you understand. But a guy who stand 7-3 and weighs 325½ should be able to punch with more authority.

* * *

Pottie, a 21-year-old South African, is that big and his punches were that futile last night as he plodded through 10 rounds against Canadian James Parker, a mere 6-3 and 225.

* * *

At best, Potgieter was a disappointment in the bout which was to serve as a test of his ability in his bid for a U.S. appearance. Pottie had knocked over all nine of his previous foes as a pro, but Parker, rarely active these days, was his first experienced or accredited opponent.

Sixteen Day Meet Opens at Pimlico

BALTIMORE (AP)—Horse racing comes to Pimlico in Baltimore today and if the volume of business done at nearby Laurel is any indication, the home of the Preakness will be bulging with bettors.

Laurel closed yesterday with a total of $16,633,905 wagered over a 15-day fall racing meeting — an improvement of 23.7 per cent over the take for last fall.

Laurel had competition from Garden State in New Jersey for one week of its meeting. Pimlico has no competition for a 16-day meeting which closes Dec. 3.

First, you take a few million dollars and add a couple more

Then go on a talent hunt for those rare and gifted men who know the art of brewing and its peculiar blend of craft and science.

Next, you fix up a brewery — a shining showplace of modern brewing equipment.

Now you bring the elements together — and promise to use only the very choicest ingredients.

Lastly — you spend a hundred years or so improving and improving and improving.

It sounds like a lot of trouble? Well, perhaps it is. But it's rewarding, too. Because that's how Blatz was born — and today it's the largest-selling beer in Milwaukee and all Wisconsin. Mighty popular here in Michigan, too!

Norris, Weill Clash Over Rocky's Trips

Norris, president of the International Boxing Club which has promoted all the heavyweight champion's fights, said Marciano shouldn't be touring the country refereeing bouts, that he should be getting ready for a February title defense.

* * *

* * *

The argument was significant in that the IBC's exclusive contract with Marciano ran out recently and hasn't been renewed. Under the contract, the IBC held rights to promote all the heavyweight champion's fights, either by itself or in conjunction with other promoters.

* * *

"Therefore," he commented, "I feel that he should be fighting and defending his title. We just got through doing a million dollars with Archie Moore and now is no time for Rocky to be running around the country on a refereeing tour."

* * *

* * *

"He could fight the winner of the Dec. 7 bout in Cleveland between Nino Valdes and Bob Baker," said the IBC chief. They are the leading contenders behind Moore.

What does Weill think of all this?

* * *

"I'm still the manager of Rocky Marciano—the only manager he's got," snapped the bespectacled little pilot of the champion. "This is not barnstorming, but a good will tour."

* * *

"As for Rocky fighting in February, I haven't given that a thought," continued Weill. "He needs three or four months to get in condition. I won't discuss anything until I come back from the West about Dec. 22 or 23. I'll talk to Mr. Norris then about future business."

Although Marciano now is free to sign with any promoter willing to outbid the IBC for his services, Norris was not particularly worried on that score. There isn't another promoter operating who can match his fat check book.

"I've been busy and so has Weill, and we just haven't had a chance to sit down and talk it out," he said, explaining the lapsed contract.

NCAA Vetoes Iowa Request

Permission Held Up Despite Sellout of Notre Dame Game

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—An appeal for relaxation of the NCAA televiion code to provide a statewide telecast in Iowa Saturday of the Iowa-Notre Dame football game apparently has failed.

* * *

William B. Quarton, general manager of station WMT-TV here, yesterday asked Chairman Asa S. Bushnell of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. for permission to feed the game to three other CBS stations in Iowa.

Bushnell said in New York last night the NCAA television committee "has no power to relax these rules." He added:

"The rules which limit television to sold out games to the home areas of the two competing teams are part of a plan adopted by the membership as a whole."

* * *

WMT-TV received tentative permission to telecast the game at South Bend, Ind., but the remainder of Iowa will be "blacked out."

* * *

Quarton sought the multiple hookup to combat what he called the "prohibitive costs for just one station." The other stations involved would be KRNT-TV, Des Moines, KGLO-TV, Mason City, KVTV, Sioux City, and WHBF-TV, Rock Island, Ill.

Quarton was not available immediately for comment on Bushnell's reply.

Area Deer-Slayers Miss Early Tries, Get Few Bucks

By JACK PATTERSON

CURRAN — This piece has, by necessity, to deal with local matters, local around here, that is. We feel a great, deep obligation to our readers that we like to go deer hunting, too.

PATTERSON

Sunrays, which sneaked in with a whiff of rain and a thin little patch of sleet found us out under that down jack pine we mentioned yesterday. It was a splendid idea to so locate ourselves. Deer whizzed by in substantial number and had we stayed awake no doubt we'd have been back in the cabin before the breakfast coffee cooled but that a little too much to ask for one who has been rolled out at 4 a.m.

So we goofed on the morning shoot, So did Roy Corwin, who missed his customary opening day easy shot at a six-pointer. That is about the way the day went except that the weather ran through pretty much the circle—from rain to snow to rain again—then clear skies, and toward nightfall rain again.

Had trouble all day getting Chuck Rogers and Charlie Wood out of the cabin. Like all such slug-a-bed's they missed out on the big moment of the day.

It came about like this. Henry McNally, Rochester, was the commanding officer of a shooting box on the Oakridge, named in his honor and complete with flagstaff and suiatble ensign. He called the signal for the evening effort. "Colonel" McNally deployed his available forces consisting of the CO and Pvts. Corwin and Patterson.

With great cunning the "Colonel" laid out a main line of resistance cleverly withdrawn down wind from the fort. It's just about the last possible moment before darkness completely obfuscated our sights.

The handsome fork-horn attempted to infiltrate our position on Pvt. Patterson's end. A hastily drawn shot confused the invader and it attempted a flanking envelopment.

Unhappily for the enemy it exposed itself to concentrated enfilade fire and "with downcast lashes", we're the first to admit that Patterson's final shot caused the intruder to lose all interest in further escape.

After a rather interesting practical session in deer anatomy we got back to the cabin in the dark and set off without delay to see what the several hundred shots from neighboring Camp 24 meant, if anything. Found in camp survivors Floyd Blakeslee, Vic Blakeslee, Charles Corwin, L. H. Cole, Dave Edstrom, Bob Oliver, George Petroff, Glenn Griffin and Ralph Novell. Noted, on way up the road that three rather smallish deer adorned the pole.

* * *

Pointed questioning revealed that the three had fallen in order to Vic Blakeslee, Glenn Griffin, Ralph Norvell.

* * *

That's the way it goes, though, and we have pointed out to Wood and Rogers all day you don't shoot deer lying around the cabin. Today we'll look in at some of the other doings.

Final Basketball Pilots Meeting Slated Nov. 21

Final meeting for managers of Class A and B basketball teams will be held by the Parks and Recreation Department on Monday, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the employes' lunch room of the new City Hall.

All adult basketball teams considering entry in the Parks and Recreation leagues must be represented at this meeting. Teams not represented will be omitted from league schedules.

Discussion at the last meeting will cover team classifications, league organization, playing schedule, rules and regulations, and play-off procedures.

Sixteen teams have indicated interest in competing in the city adult leagues thus far. Only three—Shaw's Jewelers, last season's Class A champs, Davis Machinery, Class B winner last season, and newly-organized Sun Life—have volunteered for the Class A circuit.

Teams indicating interest in Class B or possibly Class C competition are Louie's Tavern, GMC, Lake Side Royals, Fisher Local, Elks 723, Griff's Grill, Booth Homes, Stone Front, Andy's Service, and Nicholie Insurance, plus three other squads as yet unnamed.

Spieser in TV Bout Faces Paddy Young

CHICAGO (INS)—Chuck Spieser, former Michigan State University student, battles 27-year-old Paddy Young in a 10-round light heavyweight battle in Chicago tonight which will be televised nationally.

Spieser learned his boxing at Michigan State University and gained experience sparring with Chuck Davey, another Spartan student who flunked in an attempt to win Kid Gavilan's world welterweight title.

Spieser also has lost to Pastrano but has won his last three bouts, knocking out Frank Degazio and stopping Willie Troy for two of the victories.

MSU Hockey Squad Opens Schedule Nov. 24

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State hockey team will open its 24-game schedule at St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y., on Nov. 24.

The Western Intercollegiate opener will be Dec. 2 at North Dakota. The Spartans play their 1st five games on the road but close out with eight games on home ice.

Leach Equals Father's Feat

Young Orion Hunter Bags Two Geese With Single Shot

Larry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Leach, 3357 Indianwood Road, Lake Orion, bagged two handsome Canadian wild geese with one shot from his 20-gauge double-barreled shotgun last Friday near Lake Orion about 8:15 a. m.

Two birds with one shot is not the rarest occurrence in the world, but it just so happens that Larry's father performed the same feat two years ago at the same location.

It was the 1st goose ever caught by young Larry, who has been hunting for three years. One goose was dead upon falling, the other was only wounded and had to be shot a 2nd time. Both of the beautiful birds weighed about 10 pounds.

Attached to the leg of one of the geese was a tag bearing the inscription: Write Jack Miner, Kingsville, Ont., Canada. Below that were the words "Released in February 1952. Added at the bottom of the tag was the Biblical quotation from 1st Peter: "He careth for you." Miner operates a bird sanctuary in Canada.

Cold Weather Forecast Aids Deer Prospect

Rain, Above-Freezing Temperatures Limit Opening Day Bounty

DETROIT (AP)—A forecast of colder weather today brightened prospects for Michigan's deer season as hunters from throughout the eastern United States combed the Northern timberlands where 58,000 animals were killed in two weeks last year.

The season began yesterday but a drizzling rain and above-freezing temperatures held down the crowds and the kill.

* * *

Entertainment star Arthur Godfrey hunted without success with a bow and arrow. Heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano will hunt in the Upper Peinsula area tomorrow.

The season lasts 16 days with the limit of one buck. Bow and arrow hunters are allowed to kill does.

* * *

The Michigan Conservation Department predicted a kill this year of about 65,000.

There will be about 20 hunters per square mile in the popular sections of the Northern Lower Peninsula.

One hunter, Lloyd Coe, of Walled Lake, Mich., was killed by gunfire yesterday. Last season nine hunters were killed and 46 wounded.

Alabama has won four Southeastern Conference football titles and tied for one since the conference was formed in 1933.

Oil Wells Reap $1,000 Daily for Movie Studio

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A movie studio which let an oil company drill on its back lot is netting more than $1,000 daily.

Universal Consolidated Oil Co. says it has completed seven producing wells on the 20th Century-Fox lot. The wells produce 3,000 barrels of oil a day, worth $7,890, and six million cubic feet of natural gas, worth about $1,000.

The studio's cut under an 11 2-3 per cent royalty deal is $1,031 a day.

Exiled Leader Returns to Secure Home Rule and Set Up Monarchy

RABAT, French Morocco (AP)—Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef was flying home from exile today with the avowed aim of creating a constitutional monarchy in Morocco and securing a large measure of home rule in negotiations with the French.

Exiled two years ago, he was bejng brought back as a result of nationalist pressure, including terrorist bombings and shootings and guerrilla warfare.

* * *

Some of the Sultan's extreme nationalists have become disillusioned with him because of his stress upon French-Moroccan friendship and "interdependence" rather than Moroccan independence.

* * *

The 41-year-old Sultan took off from Paris this morning in the same four-engine plane that brought him from his exile in Madagascar a few weeks ago. A party of French dignitaries saw him off. The Sultan's wives, concubines and household servants followed in another plane.

In a parting statement, he expressed satisfaction with the way French officials had understood his views of Moroccan problems.

Director of Movies Dies of Stroke at 65

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Movie director Lloyd Bacon, 65, who turned out such hits as "The Singing Fool" and "The French Line," died yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage.

He had been ill more than a year and entered the hospital Oct. 20.

* * *

He broke into movies as an actor before World War I. He served as a wartime naval officer and returned to write and direct many of the Mack Sennett two-reelers.

For Warner Brothers he turned out 60 films in 14 years. Later he moved to 20th Century-Fox, where he made one of his last pictures, the musical "I Don't Care."

ARMY SEIZES POWER IN BRAZIL — Newsmap locates the principal cities of Brazil where the army, led by Gen. Henrique Texeria Lott, former war minister, has seized the reins of government. Acting President Carlos Luz, who just a few days ago took over when President Joao Cafe Jr., took a leave of absence following a heart attack, boarded a warship and sailed from Rio de Janeiro, but said he intended to retain his post.

Turkey Expert Knew Bird Who Dodged Ax 7 Years

KALAMAZOO (AP) — They say a turkey is so dumb it keeps its mouth open in the rain and drowns.

* * *

"They're wrong," says John Eddy, whose nearby Grand Junction turkey farm has housed some 100,000 turkeys in the last 18 years. "The turkey ought to graduate Phi Beta Kappa. "Why I had a Tom once that was so smart he outwitted my Thanksgiving ax for seven years—and that's an art. He got my wife to make him a pet and he died of old age."

Eddy's business suddenly increases about this time each year. Then his farm is about 5,000 turkeys quieter for a short while beginning Thanksgiving day.

But each year 300 hen turkeys lay eggs and Eddy is back in business. He is a man who knows turkeys.

TURKEY'S SMART

"People always call turkeys stupid for facing the wind instead of turning their backs to it," he says. "The bird is just being smart. That way the wind presses his feathers close to the body, keeping the turkey warm. The other way his feathers would be ruffled away from his body.

"And you can't get a turkey to eat corn in the hot summertime. He knows the carbohydrates contained by corn will raise his body temperature.

"Another thing — just try to follow a hen to her nest. She'll zigzag all over the place and lead you a merry chase. Leave her alone and she goes directly from the feeder to it."

It was 18 years ago that Eddy inherited the turkey farm from his folks. He's been making Thanksgiving dinners ever since —this year to the tune of some 5,000.

Every March Eddy puts 2,100 eggs in each of three large incubators. By May 1, he has 6,000 chicks. And by the time they are around 25 to 30 pounds there are 5,000 of them.

Ancient City Producing Fragrant Logs for Nation

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — This ancient city is going to be responsible for smoking up much of the nation this winter.

Jesus Rios, whose family has operated a wood yard here for years, is shipping out huge truck loads of pinon wood from the nearby Sangre de Cristo mountains almost daily. The orders are going to almost every part of the nation.

Pinon, when burned, gives off a fragrant odor. It is in increasing demand over the nation for use in fireplaces.

Proud Chesty Trees

Washington's Olympic Peninsula possesses the world's largest Sitka spruce, 51 feet 6 inches in circumference at chest height; the largest western red cedar, 66 feet and 1 inch in girth; and the largest Douglas fir and western hemlock with circumferences of 53 feet 4 inches and 27 feet 2 inches respectively.

Mixed Dealings on Stock Market

* * *

Most changes were fractional, but the outside range of gains and losses went to around 3 points.

General Motors, yesterday's most active issue off ⅝, started today on 15,000 shares off ¼ at 52⅛ and then slipped.

Chrysler, yesterday's second most active issue up 3⅞, opened today on 8,000 shares up 2 at 100¾. After the opening, it went down a little from its peak.

* * *

Montgomery Ward, up 6⅜ yesterday, and Sears Roebuck, up 7⅛ yesterday, held steady today. Sears started with a gain of 1½ and then dropped back for a small loss. Montgomery Ward was unchanged to a shade lower.

'56 Studebaker Has 'Big Look'

Firm Discards European Styling Concept; Boosts Horsepower

DETROIT (INS)—The European styling concept of Raymond Loewy that has dominated the design of Studebaker for the past 10 years is completely abandoned in the entirely new 1956 line of passenger cars.

Instead of the "swoop-down" look of former years the new Studebaker has higher front and rear fenders, hood and rear deck to give it the "big car" appearance it has lacked since 1946.

The styling is set off with a wide laced grill and chrome-hooded headlamps connected with a molding that sweeps across the side to the rear door and then curves upwards on the high rear fenders.

The Studebaker-Packard Corp. styling division in Detroit gets credit for Studebaker's "new look" as well as for the styling of the Packard and Clipper lines. The division is headed by William N. Schmidt who the corporation wooed away from the Lincoln Division of Ford Motor Co.

The new line will be introduced by Studebaker dealers beginning next Thursday, Nov. 22. It includes sedans and station wagons in the full President V8, Commander V8, and Champion Six series.

To satisfy those who have admired the former "sports-type" look of Studebaker the company is breaking out at a later date a high-powered "Golden Hawk" to compete with Ford's "Thunderbird" and Chevrolet's "Corvette."

The President two and four-door sedans and the Pinehurst station wagon are powered by 195 hp V8's, the Commander two and four-door sedans are sedanet by 170 hp V8's while Champion Sixes develop 101 hp.

Mechanical features include a new automatic transmission, new "safety fin" brakes and a color lighted speedometer. Studebaker calls the transmission "Flightomatic." It is said to provide instant power response and smoother shifting.

Harold E. Churchill, vice president and manager of the Studebaker Division, said that despite the bigness and stepped-up horsepower of the new models they still are designed for the same fuel economy that has won Studebaker the Mobilgas Economy Run Sweepstakes award the past two contests.

The new cars have all the well-publicized safety items of other cars as well as such new features as a "safety-fin" brake drum that increases the cooling area by 100 per cent and adds to the braking efficiency.

Corn Sales Jump After Cold Wave

CHICAGO (AP) — A cold wave sweeping across much of the Midwest livestock feeding belt brought buying into corn on the Board of Trade today. The yellow cereal gained more than a cent at one time.

* * *

Oats firmed in sympathy with corn. The rest of the grain market had early difficulty in setting a definite trend. But as dealings progressed other cereals tilted higher in sympathy with feed grains. Trading was slow.

* * *

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ⅜ higher, December $2.05¼; corn ½ to 1 cent higher, December $1.25¾; oats ⅛ to ¼ higher, December 64⅞; rye ¼ to ½ higher, December $1.12¾; soybeans ¼ to ¾ higher, November $2.34¾, and lard 10 to 23 cents a hundred pounds higher, November $11.75.

EUROPEAN LOOK SUBDUED — A "big car look" will replace the rakish, low lines that have been typical of Studebaker designs since 1946 when the 1956 models make their appearance in dealer showrooms November 22. Horsepower in the new line will range between 101 in the Champion to 210 in the President "Classic" series. The cars will be on display locally at Russ Cox Sales & Service, of 3342 Auburn Ave., Auburn Heights; P. C. McKibben, of 8145 Commerce Rd.; and David Motors, of 608 N. Main St., Rochester.

Payment of Death Claims Shows Rise

Michigan families received $70,605,000 in life insurance death payments during the first nine months of this year, compared with $66,879,000 in the corresponding period of last year, the Institute of Life Insurance reported today.

The number of policies that became claims in the first three quarters was 42,871, which compares with 40,317 for the same period in 1954.

"The tremendous rise in life insurance buying and the increase in ownership since World War II are reflected in these current payments," Holgar J. Johnson, institute president, said in announcing the figures.

For the nation as a whole, $1,660,071,000 was paid as death claims under 1,238,327 policies in the first nine months of this year, compared with $1,542,734,000 under 1,168,719 policies in the similar period of last year.

Board Proposes 2-1 Split of J-M Stock

This would convert the approximately 3,200,000 shares of common stock outstanding into approximately 6,400,000 shares.

L. M. Cassidy, board chairman, said stockholders will be asked to approve the proposal at their regular annual meeting on March 9, 1956. To implement this action, stockholders will be asked to increase the authorized amount of stock from 4,500,000 shares to 9,000,000 shares.

Business Notes

Richard Mutschall, State Employment Security Commission official, will speak on changes in unemployment laws at a dinner meeting of the Central Chapter, Independent Accountants Association of Michigan, Thursday evening at the Rotunda Inn in Pine Lake.

Mutschall, who is a supervisor in the commission's audit section, will explain new procedures associated with the revised laws, and will emphasize the specific responsibilities of employers in filling out and filing forms.

Peron Unionists Battling Regime

Newest Government of Argentina Claims That Strike Is Failing

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina's anti-Peron government and Peronista labor leaders were still locked in a struggle for supremacy today. Thousands of workers obeyed the Peronistas' general strike call, but other thousands ignored it.

The new provisional government headed by Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu, which took over Sunday after ousting Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi from the presidency, arrested 146 persons in the Buenos Aires district alone for inciting people to strike, capital police said.

The Aramburu regime met the strike challenge in a showdown fight with the big General Confederation of Labor (CGT), which was the main support of Juan D. Peron, Argentina's former dictator. The government declared the strike, which started at midnight Monday, "is failing."

But the fact remained that the walkout hit hardest in some of the more essential industries, such as meat packing, metal working and petroleum.

NOTICE — THE ZONING BOARD OF Independence Township, Oakland County, Michigan, will hold a public hearing on December 7, 1955 at 8:00 P.M., at the Township Hall, Clarkston, Michigan, to consider proposed changes in Township Zoning Districts and to consider a proposal to amend Ordinance No. 2, the Township Zoning Ordinance, to provide for a new Zoning District to be known as Residence 2 in which apartment houses and multiple dwellings may be allowed and to establish conditions attendant thereto. A draft of the proposed Ordinance amendment and a map showing proposed changes in Zoning Districts may be examined at the Township Hall during regular Township office business hours.

Hare Continues Kavanagh Case

Probe Fails to Discover Employe Who Canceled Bad Driving Charge

LANSING (AP) — Sec. of State James M. Hare said today he is still pushing, without success so far, an investigation to learn who canceled a bad driver citation against Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh.

* * *

The case against Kavanagh, dropped last Janurary, was revived this fall after publicity and resulted in Kavanagh being put on a modified probation to incur no more moving violations in the next year.

"So far I am baffled," Hare said. "I have questioned the five people in my department most closely concerned sereval times and have found nothing. All of them agreed willingly to take a lie detector test. I am withholding that step while I run down one new lead which might clear the thing up."

Hare said his deputy now is working out a new ogranizational scheme which will pinpoint responsibility for such cases in the future.

"The trouble was," Hare said, "that at the time this happened the head of the division who would have been responsible was absent and there were three or four men assuming his responsibilities . . ."

* * *

Hare said his investigation is further hampered by the fact that five employes of the office who might have had an opportunity to cancel the Kavanagh citation have since left state employment.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commission OKs License for Used Auto Parts Firm

After batting the matter around for more than two months, the City Commission last night issued a license to a South Saginaw street auto parts firm.

The Commission rescinded previous action denying a license to M & S Auto Parts, 401 S. Saginaw St., then agreed to issue a permit after hearing a new report from Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

The new license permits the company to conduct business only at 401 and not on adjoining property onto which it has expanded.

It was established that such a business operated at 401 before zoning was changed in that section. Thus the company can continue operations there under the non-conforming use rule.

In other action, the Commission heard first reading of an amending ordinance which would allow dairies in Commercial 2-zoned areas.

Public hearing on the ordinance will be Dec. 13, along with a hearing on an ordinance rezoning to Commercial 1 Lot 38, assessor's plat 13.

A memorial resolution honoring Sam A. Cohen, long-time Pontiac businessman and civic leader who died recently, was adopted unanimously.

Action was taken to provide for future extension of Highwood north of Columbia and land in the area was rezoned to manufacturing 1.

Deeds for streets in Pontiac Knolls Subdivision were accepted and action taken to vacate four other streets in the area. The vacated streets existed only on maps.

Referred to City Attorney William A. Ewart was a communication concerning injuries suffered by a woman while crossing Saginaw street at Mt. Clemens.

Also referred to Ewart was a summons in an injunction suit filed against the city by an auto parts company which was refused a license by the city.

Commissioner John A. Dugan (District 5) was appointed a committee-of-one to investigate parking problems at a church in Joslyn Gardens Subdivision.

The Commission concurred with a City Plan Commission report recommending rezoning land east and west of the proposed Glenwood avenue extension to residential 2 and commercial 1 classifications.

Public hearings were held and resolutions passed authorizing City Assessor W. Raymond Ransom to prepare special assessment rolls for the following project:

Water main in South boulevard from Bradford to Meadow; Tex avenue from South boulevard to end of existing main; Meadow avenue from South boulevard to Michigan Airline Railroad.

'55 Yule Job Bids Dip for Detroit Post Office

DETROIT (AP) — Postmaster Edward L. Baker reports there were 5,000 applicants for Christmas jobs at the main post office on the opening day of accepting applications yesterday. This compared with 7,000 on the first day a year ago.

Baker said that in the past the turnout for Christmas jobs has reflected the city's employment situation.

McGuire Sisters' Act Rocks the Copacabana

By EARL WILSON

AMERICA LAUGHS!

The McGuire Sisters, three little gals from Miamisburg, O., are the town's newest nighttime sensations. Their act at the Copacabana is smart, pretty, entertaining and oh, so different—it says something nice about Godfrey.

Eddie Fisher, Jan Murray, Sophie Tucker, Peter Donald and Frank Parker applauded the three sisters in their white rhinestone-bedecked gowns. Comedian Morty Gunty on the same show is sure to be a star soon. He mentioned, for example, that when he got married his wife wanted him to give her a joint bank account, and he did.

"It had just two names on it," he said, "her married name and her maiden name."

I liked his story about a schoolteacher who pulled and hauled and tugged to get a little boy's galoshes on. The boy said, "I hate to disappoint you, teacher, but those aren't my galoshes." The teacher perspired, pulled and tugged and got them off. "They're my sister's," the little boy said. "She let me wear them today."

THE McGUIRE SISTERS

★ ★ ★ ★

Comedian Joey Adams took a lot of kidding when a radio show was done about his new book, "Strictly for Laughs." A character who'd been lavishly praising Joey's book asked, "By the way, what did he say in the dedication? I didn't get that far in it."

FEATURING NEW DOG ACT

B. S. Pulley, the comedian, was in a show featuring a dog act; so one night he took the dog to a Chinese restaurant, tied a napkin around its neck and sat it at the table; he also kept talking throughout the meal to the dog. As he left, the manager ran after them with the check, but Pulley said, "Give it to the dog. He invited me."

World's Worst Pun (from Art Mogur, the Boston bard): "The magician's model was so cold, he couldn't thaw her in half" . . . "Then there was the Texas millionaire who had four Cadillacs, one for each direction."—Sterling Sherwin, S'Francisco.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

The Harwyn, big rival of the Stork Club, is doing such turnaway business, it's opening a new upstairs room for parties . . . Socialites raise money for Jane Russell's WAIFs at a party given by Arnold Jurden at Cafe Carlyle . . . Though Jayne Mansfield has a dozen movie offers, Julie Styne and George Axelrod of "Rock Hunter" have her under contract till June '57.

Joe DiMaggio bowed out of Billy Reed's weekend junket to entertain troops in Greenland . . . Johnny Meyer, who arrived the other day, introduces pretty Diane Anderson as "my fiancee" . . . Gretchen Wyler is back in "Silk Stockings," against doctors' orders . . . Pretty Nancy Walters gave up her 25Gs-a-year modeling job to work on CBS-TV's "The Big Payoff" and study singing.

NANCY

WHITE HOUSE BUZZ: Ike may cruise in southern waters aboard a warship in the spring . . . One of the most requested TV shows in Denmark is—"Medic" . . . Rocky Graziano's take for the movie sale of his bio will pay him $210 a week for 10 years.

EARL'S PEARLS: Ima Washout claims that one old man has been having such glamorous dreams lately that now he's wearing his specs to bed.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Bob Olin read the biography of horse player Joe E. Lewis, and is surprised that it doesn't have a photo-finish.

★ ★ ★ ★

Prefers Video to Film Making

Will Appear Sunday in 'The Devil's Disciple' by G. B. Shaw

By JOAN HANAUER

NEW YORK (INS) — Maurice Evans would rather do television than make Hollywood movies, because California is 3,000 miles away from the New York home he shares with six dogs.

* * *

Evans, who hosts "Maurice Evans Presents" on NBC-TV, will present himself, along with Dennis King, Teresa Wright and Ralph Bellamy, in George Bernard Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple" Sunday.

"It's only because of my association with Shaw in the theater that I was able to get the rights to do it—I feel very privileged," the English-born actor said.

The man famous for his presentations of Shaw and Shakespeare says he likes theater, television, movies — "anything goes, as long as there's an audience.

* * *

"You reach a lot of people with films," he commented, but added that making movies has its drawbacks. "If an actor doesn't give up his whole life to it, the motion picture industry is 3,000 miles away from one's home. I guess the dogs have something to do with it. I have six West Highland white terriers and they're mostly all related."

Evans has a few intersets other than dogs — he has produced two of the top hits currently on Broadway, "Teahouse of the August Moon" and "No Time for Sergeants." Aside from hosting his show and appearing on it, he plans to star in Shaw's "The Applecart" on Broadway.

VIEWS ON G.B.S.

"Just the other day I picked up my morning paper, turned to the theatrical section, and there was my picture. Shouldn't happen to anybody before breakafst.

* * *

"Most people think you see your picture and say 'How Lovely,' but more often it's 'Oh-oh, what are they saying now?' "

What they were saying was announcing his forthcoming Shaw play. On the English and American stage he has appeared in numerous G.B.S. productions, and about Shaw himself he says:

"It's remarkable how he's lasted—he's just now really coming into his own. He sure wrote before his time, that old boy. He probably won't be another Shakespeare, but from 1903 to 1955 is a pretty good span for a playwright."

* * *

Evans' first part in another classic — a dramatization of Thomas Hardy's "Far From the Maddening Crowd" which he performed in at age 11. He achieved success on the London stage when he grew up, except for a brief spell when he went into the dry cleaning business.

In 1935 Katharine Cornell "imported" Evans to the U.S. to play Romeo to her Juliet.

CHICAGO STYLE

"The only thing I knew about America was what I had seen in 'Chicago' movies," Evans said, smiling. "I almost bought a firearm to protect me from the gangsters.

"I really did buy a fur coat, because I'd seen so many bitter snowstorms in American films — that's the influence of the motion picture. The moths have got the coat now."

Fame, Evans insists, has its drawbacks.

"I've suffered at more women's club luncheons," he said. It's always creamed chicken and peas, usually in a pastry shell.

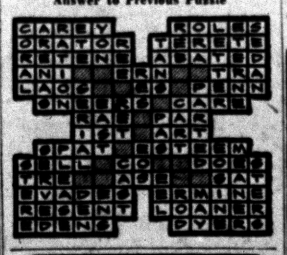

"I went to one in Chicago once. There was this vast assembly of women. The chairlady got up and announced that she had so much pleasure in introducing Orson Welles. When told who I was she improved on it by saying she had been out of town and didn't know who I was, but here I was.

Detroit Boy Killed

DETROIT (AP) — Robert Campbell, 3, was killed Tuesday when struck by a car while crossing a street with his 18-year-old sister, Zenobia. She was injured seriously.

She Got Them Back

LOYAL, Okla. (AP)—Two ancient automobiles stolen from Mrs. Lottie Dohe two years ago were back with the owner today. The Oklahoma Crime Bureau tracked them down in the hands of other ancient car enthusiasts who bought them through want ads. One is a 1915 Model-T. Parents of three boys now in military service made restitution to the buyers and the cars were turned over to Mrs. Dohe.

Cotton consumption in Denmark in the year ended July 31 amounted to 40,000 bales of 500 pounds each, a decline of 9 per cent from the previous year.

Tragedy Strikes

CLEVELAND (AP) — Toolmaker Victor Doubek, 50, and Mrs. Ruth Zajowski, a 43-year-old widow, got a marriage license yesterday at Lakeside Court House. Shortly after they drove away in Doubek's car, it slowed and came to a stop against a utility pole. Doubek had died of a heart attack.

Methodical Investigation Discovered Young Saboteur of Colorado Airliner

DENVER (INS) — High-powered methodical police work was responsible for the arrest of the 23-year-old college student on suspicion of planting a time bomb that caused a United Air Lines plane to explode in mid-air and kill 44 persons Nov. 1.

* * *

The agent was Roy K. Moore, who said a "joint operation" was responsible for the apprehension of the Denver University student whose mother, Mrs. Daisy King, was one of the disaster victims.

Moore was reluctant to give details of his probe that began when the FBI was called into exercise "investigative jurisdiction" in the case.

FBI GETS GREEN LIGHT

The FBI entered after James N. Peyton, chef investigator for the Civil Aeronautics Board, said the blast that tore apart the United Luxury Liner DC-6B east of Longmont, Colo., was "bomb-like."

That gave the federal agents the green light and routine, painstaking effort did the rest.

Two phases of the probe opened immediately: reconstruction of the ill-fated plane began in a heavily-guarded warehouse north of the Denver municipal airport, and a methodical person-by-person check of the crash victims and survivors.

The plane reconstruction dealt with tiny pieces of metal and fabric ranging up to large chunks of twisted steel and aluminum alloy. Pieces of cardboard were used to fill in blank spots where it had been impossible to recover metal apparently powdered over the beet fields near Longmont by the force of the blast.

IN BAGGAGE AREA

Piecing the aircraft together proved conclusively that a bomb had blown out the No. 4 baggage compartment. In fact, the force of the explosion caused the tail section of the aircraft to end two miles away from the main crash scene.

The Continental Casualty Co., of Chicago held policies on 13 of the crash victims. The policies ranged from $12,500 to $62,500. But continental officials were unable to help FBI agents except to rule out several connected with the plane who, by this time, were certainly suspect.

CHECK-OUT GIVES CLUE

Not until the government men hit Mutual of Omaha Insurance Co. did they strike pay dirt. Mutual has so-called "teletrip machine" units dispensing insurance policies at the Denver municipal airport.

Mrs. King, 53, had a mutual policy on her for $37,500—not too much or too little insurance on an airline passenger. A son, John Gilbert Graham, was the beneficiary.

Further investigation showed Graham—potential heir to an estate worth in excess of $150,000—had knowledge of explosives.

Also, Graham was a parolee on a forgery conviction. The suspect was arrested after more detailed investigation.

Ziegler Expects Straits Ferries to Top Record

LANSING (AP) — A record for auto traffic on the Straits of Mackinac state ferries was predicted by State Highway Comm. Charles M. Ziegler today.

Ziegler said the ferries carried 804,936 cars in the first 10 months of the year, an increase of 7.6 per cent. This rate of increase has been maintained throughout the year, he said.

Ziegler estimated that 940,000 cars will be transported in 12 months, compared to 900,782 in 1953, the present record.

Brazen Teenagers Defy Police in Grand Rapids

Minutes later they drove around the corner, pulled up at a police gasoline pump and filled up their tank. When Patrolman Lewis C. Zahn came along, they brazenly asked him to put the cap back on their gas tank.
