$331,079 Given as Current Total in UF Campaign

Lyndall Asks All-Out Effort in Last Week to Reach $525,823 Goal

Gifts totaling $331,079 were announced yesterday at the Pontiac Area United Fund report luncheon in the Elks Temple.

The campaign goal is $525,823, with eight days

Campaign Manager Frank
S. Lyndall expressed confidence that untiring efforts would put the drive over.

Commercial Division Chairman
Ralph T. Norvell introduced "Miss Torchy" for the day, Brenda Shelton, 2, of 546 Third Ave.

"Brenda is typical," said Norvell, "of youngsters receiving help from the United Fund."

"She has a fine home and is as healthy and happy as any youngster can expect to be. But should misfortune befall, it's comforting to know United Fund-supported agencies are available to help out."

Norvell then called up three youngsters representing UF organizations which Brenda, of her brother, might benefit by joining.

Introduced were Patricia Rainey, 8, of 4 Liberty St., a Girl Scout member; Carol Valenti, 8, of 241 S. Tilden Ave., a Camp Fire Girl member; and Larry Rogers, 9, of Clairmont Place, a cub scout.

The breakdown of gifts to date shows $1,330 from the Waterford Township residential division, 24.5 per cent of quota. Pontiac city residential has collected
$1,476, or 15.5 per cent. Pontiac Township has $21, or 2.4 per cent.

The Waterford commercial total was $345 or 10.4 per cent. Pontiac commercial has $31,178, about 22 per cent of its quota.

The general manufacturers' division has $1,900, or 32 per cent of quota, totaling $106,398.
Employees of association industries have contributed $138,682 or 88 per cent.

Firms included in the Pontiac Manufacturers' Assn. have collected company gifts of 98 per cent of quota, totaling $106,398.
Employees of association industries have contributed $138,682 or 88 per cent.

John Brady, solicitations chairman for firms in the Manufacturers' Assn., complimented American Forging & Socket Co., Fisher Body Division, Pontiac Varnish Co., and Universal Oil Seal Co. for exceeding their quotas.

Norvell expressed hope that citizens would realize the "splendid job" being done by volunteers in the UF drive "and open their hearts generously."

Expect Flood Toll to Hit 400

Ruins of Italian Towns Yield More Dead; Hope for Missing Fades

SALERNO, Italy (UP)—The wreckage of towns along the ravaged Gulf of Salerno gave up still more bodies today and the final death toll from Italy's greatest flood disaster was expected to reach or exceed 400.

The known dead numbered 228 this morning when seven more bodies were dug from wrecked homes at Molina di Vietri and Ponte Romano.

Hope was abandoned for many of the 300 or more persons listed as missing. It was believed many were swept out to sea or buried beneath their broken stone homes.

State funeral services were held in Salerno's cathedral today for victims of the flash floods and land slides which hit a 10-mile stretch of shoreline late Monday and early Tuesday.

Property damage was estimated in the millions of dollars. Hundreds were injured and about 5,000 left homeless.

By last night beds had been found for all the homeless and blankets, food and medical supplies were arriving in a steady stream.

Miss Torchy at Luncheon

TORCH DRIVE SYMBOL—Brenda Shelton, 2, of 546 Third Ave. is held by Ralph T. Norvell, chairman of the Pontiac Area United Fund Commercial Division. Brenda represented "Little Miss Torchy" yesterday at the UF report luncheon in the Elks Temple. Norvell cited Brenda as typical of youngsters who might benefit in later life from membership in UF supported agencies, such as the Girl Scout Brownies or Camp Fire Girl Bluebirds.

Heavier Penalty May Face Parmenter in Stock Deals

Eugene A. Parmenter, 54-year-old ex-stockbroker being held on a larceny by conversion charge, may face a stiffer charge of embezzlement, Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today.

The suspect is charged with manipulation and theft of investors' funds while employed at the W. H. Protiva investment company here.

Conviction of embezzlement calls for a 10-year maximum prison sentence and a $5,000 fine while larceny by conversion carries a penalty of five years in prison and a $2,500 fine.

Ziem explained that embezzlement is theft from an employer while larceny by conversion is theft from someone other than an employer, such as an investor.

Under questioning yesterday
Parmenter admitted taking $80-000 in investor's funds between 1943 and 1948 but claimed that all but $20,000 had been used to cover his manipulations and much of it was lost on bad speculations in 1947. He said he spent the $20,000 on himself and his family.

Ziem said the accused man would probably be arraigned late this afternoon or Friday morning but more questioning and a check of the defunct firm's books are planned.

Saturday Is Deadline on Political Charges

In order that everyone will have an equal chance on local and national campaign issues the Press will observe the customary deadline on statements.
No last minute charges about candidates or new arguments concerning special issues will be published in the Pontiac Press after Saturday, Oct. 30. This pertains to both news columns, Voice of the People, and political advertising.

A new bridge over the Clinton River will be included in the loop around the Telegraph road
intersection, Willman explained.

Cost of the Perry street widening is estimated at $700,000, split on the same basis as those for the grade separation.

The city's share will be about $175,000 plus additional right-of-way expense, said Willman.

Both projects can be built in one construction season, the city manager stated.

Grade Separation Set for 1955; Perry Street Widening in '56

Pontiac City Manager Walter K.
Willman has received a letter from the State Highway Department stating that the Orchard Lake avenue-Telegraph road grade separation is planned for construction in 1955.

The widening to four lanes of north Perry street from East Bu-ron street north to the city limits is scheduled for 1956, said Willman.

Total cost of the grade separation is estimated at $500,000, not including sums yet to be paid for right-of-way. The federal government will pay 50 per cent, the state 25 per cent and Pontiac 25 per cent, or $125,000.

Pontiac's costs will probably increase slightly as more right-of-way is purchased, said Willman.

A new bridge over the Clinton
River will be included in the loop around the Telegraph road
intersection, Willman explained.

Adenauer Meets With Ike, Dulles at White House

Trio Are Confering on Political and Military Future of West Europe

WASHINGTON (INS)—
German Chancellor Konrad
Adenauer meets with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today in a new atmosphere of confidence over the military and political future of western Europe.

This feeling was marked in statements by both Ade-nauer, who said "the U. S. has saved Europe from ruin and breakdown," and Dulles, who stated that by the success of the London and Paris conferences in unifying western Europe "a very black vista was changed to one of hope."

The secretary added that goals of the talks were "nothing less than the salvation of western salvation itself."

The issues to be discussed between the two foreign ministers—Adenauer also holds the por-folio of foreign minister—make the discussions among the most momentous held in Washington in recent times.

They are expected to talk about Russian reaction to the Paris accords which point the way to a new, in some ways better European Defense Community, and probable Soviet tactics to prevent the effectiveness of the Paris agreements.

In addition, the two leaders will discuss briefly the restoration of German sovereignty and interim measures to give Germany virtual independence until the Paris treaties are ratified.

Sources close to Adenauer say that he is convinced that the only chance of uniting Germany through free elections, and bringing about the withdrawal of the Red army from the eastern zone, lies in having West Germany tied firmly to a strong European military alliance.

These aspirations would be carried a long way to fruition if the Paris agreements are made firm and carried out. Today's talks were designed to contribute to this process.

It is considered doubtful that the three men will discuss U. S. military aid to Germany since the question was settled to a large

Huntmen, 5, Bring Them Back Alive

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—A pair of 5-year-old boys, armed with a broken toy shotgun, crowded happily over their hunting trophy—a live but dejected pheasant peering from an improvised coop.

The hunters, Jerry Lee Peck and Brian Maynard, surprised their parents when they brought home the bird, clutched in Jerry's arms.

The boys stoutly insist, "We shot it with our gun." Neither family has been able to solve the riddle.

Lauds MSC Yearbook

EAST LANSING (UP)—The Michigan State College Wolverine student yearbook, has been judged one of the three best college yearbooks in the nation by the Associated Collegiate Press, it was announced today.

Meanwhile John A. Streitt, assistant director of the department, reported 35 youngsters are signed up for the window painting contest.

They are working on downtown merchant's store windows.
Prize winners will be selected Saturday morning. Cooperating in the activity is the Pontiac Kiwanis Club.

Buzz said three changes have been made in the party program set for tomorrow night.

Wever Junior High School will have its dancing party right after school rather than in the evening, and the Lakeside Homes affair will be for high school age youths, rather than junior high school students.

The McConnell School program has been dropped.

Other parties and dances are scheduled at the following schools:

Ferguson Greeted by Chief Executive

Sen. Ferguson's schedule tonight includes a talk in Detroit at a dinner honoring Mrs. Golda Myerson, minister of labor for the State of Israel. He also will make appearances in the First, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congressional districts in Detroit.

City Labor Leaders Back General Hospital Addition

After touring Pontiac General Hospital this week, eight Pontiac labor leaders promised to renew their efforts to get solid union backing for the hospital bond issue.

The Oakland County CIO Council in September endorsed the hospital bond issue and recommended passage of the measure, which would provide additional bed space at the city hospital.

When the labor delegation visited the hospital, it was 32 patients above its 198-bed capacity and the visitors had to make their way around hall beds and through bed-jammed sun parlors.

Hospital authorities reported today that there were 34 patients in hall beds. This totals 117 per cent over the hospital's 198-bed capacity.

"If we ever had any disaster or explosion at one of the plants or an epidemic in Pontiac, we wouldn't have any place to put people," said Fred Haggard, county CIO council president.

"And if there was a fire in the building, I don't know how they would get the people out of there," Haggard added.

"General conditions are poor," he said. "The doctors have no lounges or consulting rooms. There is no place for visitors. It certainly is not the hospital administration's fault. There is just no room."

Haggard added: "Industrial plants here in Pontiac are paying

Queen Follows

NEW YORK (UP)—Queen Mother Elizabeth of England spent her first day here much like other visitors to the big town—she toured the Metropolitan Museum of Art and saw a Broadway show in the evening.

The royal tourist also attended a luncheon given in her honor yesterday by the Canadian Club in the Waldorf-Astoria, and unveiled at the club a formal portrait of her daughter, Elizabeth, Queen of England.

The gracious, charming Queen Mother said her daughter "will great country, Canada's close neighbor and friend."

The club gave her a gold medallion.

President Plans Cadillac Square Campaign Talk

3 Other Cities Included in Flying Tour; Plane Lands at Wayne Major

From Our Wire Services
DETROIT—President Eisenhower will deliver his campaign speech in support of Michigan Republican candidates in Detroit's Cadillac Square tomorrow.

The White House today announced the following schedule for Eisenhower's flying campaign tomorrow:

7:25 a. m. EST leave Washington.

9 a. m. EST arrive Cleveland
Municipal Airport.

10 a. m. EST take off from Cleveland.

10:55 a. m. EST arrive at Detroit's Wayne Major Airport then drive to Cadillac Square in front of City Hall for address.

1 p. m. EST leave Detroit (takeoff).

1:45 p. m. CST arrive at Stanford Airport, Louisville, Ky.

2:45 p. m. CST leave Louisville.

5 p. m. EST arrive New Castle County Airport, Wilmington, Del.

7 p. m. EST leave Wilmington.

7:40 p. m. EST land at National Airport, Washington.

Eisenhower's speech tonight before a meeting of the National Citizens for Eisenhower Congressional Committee will be carried by TV and radio at 8:30 p. m. EST.

Jubilant Michigan Republicans are rushing preparations today to welcome the President.

During his two-hour stop, he will greet Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) and GOP gubernatorial hopeful Donald S. Leonard and make a speech in their behalf.

The Detroit visit is one of four announced by the White House as the President prepares to throw his Sunday punch into the election which could give him either a Republican-controlled Congress or one dominated by hostile Democrats.

Ferguson, who faces a stiff re-election battle from Democrat Patrick V. McNamara, said the President's visit would "assure a wider margin of victory for the entire GOP ticket" in Michigan.

"His visit will show the extent of his interest in the composition of the next Congress," Ferguson said.

"This will stimulate a surge of voter interest in this final week.
He sees the importance of electing Republicans for peace and prosperity in America."

Warmer With Rain Forecast for Pontiac

Frost hit Pontiac again last night as the mercury dipped to a low of 35 degrees. However, the U. S.
Weather Bureau says it will be somewhat warmer tonight with a chance of showers tomorrow morning.

A low of 40 to 42 is expected tonight with partly cloudy skies continuing through Friday, when the mercury should reach a high of 46 to 50.

Yesterday the temperatures in downtown Pontiac hit a high of 55 early in the morning and kept dropping until the mercury registered 37 shortly before midnight.

At 8 o'clock this morning, the thermometer registered 36 degrees, but had risen to 53 by 2 p.m.

Lathrup OKs Share in Cost of Evergreen Sewer Project

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Six Oakland County communities came a step closer to solving their sewage problems jointly when the City of Lathrup Village this week adopted a resolution approving its share of the tentative cost allocations for construction of the proposed $2,740,000 Evergreen interceptor sewer.

The Lathrup council had held out in the project, claiming that its $179,000 outlay would not be equitable.

Lathrup City Administrator Leonard Watchowski said yesterday the council still thought the cost could be reduced for all participants, but added that "whatever amount we may be overcharged will be offset by combining with other communities."

"The interceptor is a fine solution to the problem in the Rouge basin," he said. The sewer would carry sewage into Detroit for treatment.

Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, and Bloomfield, Southfield and Troy townships are the other municipalities making up the district. All but Troy were cited by the Michigan Water Resources Commission for pollution of the Upper Rouge Valley.

Southfield Township, which would bear the greatest share of the costs ($1,700,000) will vote next Tuesday on a millage increase to provide the necessary funds.

With only eight days gone in the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin Torch Drive, Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, campaign director, said today that solicitors have collected $3.5 per cent of the $186,338 quota. A total of $99,746 has been turned in for the "give once for all" campaign. Mrs. Quinn added that a trend toward heavier personal contributions may be offset by the fact that this year's quota is also slightly higher.

The urged solicitors to continue their efforts since early returns always make the sum collected after the first week seem high. Some of the early returns are being counted on heavily for their personal donations, Mrs. Quinn said.

United Foundation interest in the schools keeps mounting, according to Mrs. Quinn, who stated that winning posters in a UF-sponsored contest are now on display in local store windows.

A retirement dinner held last night honored Sgt. Leo A. Stiers on his last day with the Police Department. Stiers, who had over 20 years of service to his credit, was presented with two pieces of matched luggage.

At the same time, Police Chief Ralph W. Mosley announced the promotion of Patrolman Richard B. Brown to sergeant.

A reminder comes from City Clerk Irene Hanley that absentee ballots can be obtained from the clerk's office in the Municipal Building until 2 p. m. Saturday, for next Tuesday's election. Offices in Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township will also remain open until that time.

Miss Hanley stressed that each request must bear the signature of the voter and not just any member of the family. A reason for the request and a mailing address are required.

Junior high school young people at the First Presbyterian Church will hold their Bazaar's Night party starting at 7 tomorrow, when they call on members of the parish for old clothing which will in turn be sent overseas for needy youngsters.

Final performances of "Season in the Sun" will be given at 9 p. m. tomorrow and Saturday night by the Village Players. Wolcott Gibbs' comedy will be presented at the Village Playhouse, under the direction of Mrs. A. J. Daley.

Despite newly-arrived, blustery weather, the audience will be transported via arm-chair seats

"in" the Atlantic Ocean, to a summer cottage complete with beach and sand dunes. Tickets are available at the door or at Marley's Yarn Nook.

City commissioners this week approved a request from the Steel Door Corp. to provide sewage and water services for a factory it plans to build between the east end of Lincoln avenue and the Grand Trunk Western Railroad.

The plant will be partly in Birmingham and partly in Troy Township.

In the same connection, lawmakers favorably considered the relocation of Cole street to the west and the sale of a portion of city-owned property, but took no final action.

The Royal Oak Army and Air Force Recruiting Service reports one Birmingham enlistment during the month of September. Carl B. Bartleson, 19, of 432 Baldwin Ave., took the branch of his choice, the Ordnance Corps, by enlisting, Sgt. Michael O'Brien stated.

O'Brien said the "buddy system" is still in operation, where boys in groups of two to 40 can enlist, taking their own branch within the army.

$234 Torch Fund Stolen From School

BIRMINGHAM — A safe accidentally left open last night in the Barnum Junior High School office netted a burglar $234 collected by students for the United Foundation Torch Drive, police said today.

The money was easy prey for the thief, since the doors to the school had also been left open for a water ballet performance last night.

Police said Herbert R. Hengst, principal, told them he thought he had locked the safe.

54 per cent of the taxes and the majority of their employees have Blue Cross benefits. Most have a semi-private room contract, but because of the crowded conditions they have to take a hall bed instead of one in a semi-private room.

At the hospital were Tommie Barnett, president of Local 733 (Universal Oil Seal); Otis Lawrence, president of Local 636 (Wilson Foundry); Robert Boyer, representing Charles Currie, head of Local 633 (Pontiac Motor Division); and Jack Hodges, president of Local 394 (GMC Truck and Coach Division).

Others were Tim Daily, representing William McAuley, regional director; Michael McAleer, vice president of Local 125 (Baldwin Rubber); Harold Ryner, head of Local 44 (Nelson Mfg. Co.) and Haggard.

Also in attendance were Mayor William W. Donaldson, John Dugan, mayor pro-tem, hospital director Lauretta Paul and hospital board trustees William P. Babcock, Charles Yeager and Willis M. Brewer.

Miss Hanley stressed that each request must bear the signature of the voter and not just any member of the family. A reason for the request and a mailing address are required.

Harry Leighton Dies on Trip

Retired Veterinarian Suffers Heart Attack on Way to Florida

Dr. Harry F. Leighton, 78, widely known in Pontiac and Oakland County as a veterinarian, died suddenly Tuesday night. He suffered a heart attack in Gunterville, Ala., while en route with Mrs. Leighton to their winter home at 414 Fifth Ave., Zephyr Hills, Fla.

Dr. Leighton was born in January 1875, in Athens, Maine and was the son of Leonard and Mary Leighton.

While he was quite young the family moved to Massachusetts, where he received his early education. He entered the Univ. of Pennsylvania in 1900 and was graduated as Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

Before coming to Pontiac in 1923, Dr. Leighton practiced in Bradock, Pa. His first hospital here was on South Paddock St. In 1929, he built a larger animal hospital at 794 N. Perry St. He served the community there until his retirement in 1945.

He is survived by his widow, Rilla.

Dr. Leighton is being sent to the Funeral Home at Zephyr Hills, where service will be held Saturday.

The 78-year-old statesman's schedule called for him to talk with Dulles and his advisers during the morning before going to the White House at noon for more discussions with President Eisenhower.

The start of his visit yesterday was marked by a white-tie dinner at which Dulles, the host, called the German chancellor "one of the outstanding statesmen of our time, and indeed, I think it can be said, of all times."

Returning the compliment, Adenauer told the dinner group that "I think Secretary Dulles made the essential contribution to save Europe," at the London-Paris talks.

Schoolboy Kills Pal in Firearm Accident

DETROIT (INS)—An eighteen-year-old Detroit basketball player, a senior at Central High School, was fatally wounded last night by a friend in what was apparently an accidental shooting.

Raymond Raines, the victim, was hit in the temple when Spencer Edwards, 16, fired a .38 caliber revolver. The youth said he did not know the gun was loaded and told police that he and Raines had been close friends for four years.

Young Edwards said he pulled the trigger "to scare him" when he and four other youths were gathered in a basement lavatory of the General Custer School.

Police are investigating a possible gang connection with the shooting after three other youths, who witnessed the shooting, said Edwards was carrying the gun as protection against the "Hot-Rodders," a teen-age gang which they said had threatened them.

Commuter Injured Jumping for Train

BIRMINGHAM — Elliott E. Redies, 43, of 623 Hanna St., felt a taste of death this morning, as he fell between the wheels of a moving train and the Grand Trunk and Western Railroad Co., platform and lived to tell the tale.

Miraculously, he escaped with head and face cuts, and possible fractured ribs. He was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

Mrs. Redies said her husband ran to catch the commuter train, which he believed was just beginning to move.

The train was evidently traveling at a faster rate of speed than he thought, she said, and he missed the train step. He threw himself to one side, and landed between the wheels and the platform.

More pedestrians are killed during the hours of dusk and darkness than during the hours of daylight.

DR. MORTON SOBEL

Dr. Morton Sobel Will Speak Friday

Following the Sabbath Eve. Services tomorrow night at Temple Beth Jacob, the Fireside Program will be held.

Dr. Morton Sobel of Detroit will be the leader of the Discussion Topic, "Civil Rights and National Security." Dr. Sobel is the director of the Michigan Regional Office of Anti Defamation League of B'Nai B'rith.

The Edward R. Murrow film from the "See It Now Series," on Senator Joseph McCarthy will also be a part of the program.

City Democrats Plan Dance for Candidates

Pontiac City Democratic Club will sponsor a dance for Oakland County and state Democratic candidates in the Hotel Roosevelt ballroom Saturday, beginning at 9 p. m.

"The public is invited to come and meet the candidates," said Mrs. Charlotte Shearer, entertainment committee chairman.

Tickets will be available at the door.

More pedestrians are killed during the hours of dusk and darkness than during the hours of daylight.

President to Visit Michigan on Friday

Williams, opposed by Leonard in his bid for a fourth term as Michigan's chief executive, termed Eisenhower's visit a "political errand" and said he would not be on hand to greet the President.

Although Williams said he felt it would be "inappropriate" for him to "intrude" on the President's visit, he urged Michigan citizens to turn out and give him "the welcome and courtesy which is due the nation's chief executive."

To show Michigan's deep respect for the presidential office I am ordering the commanding general of the Michigan National Guard to be present during the President's visit with an honor guard," Williams said.

Meanwhile, it was politics-as-usual as the election deadline neared.

McNamara, in a blistering speech against Republican economic policies, assailed the federal tax reduction which helped General Motors roll up a $65,000,000 profit during the first nine months of the year.

Williams hit at Republican charges of "statism in Lansing" during his three terms in office.

Singling out his opponent for criticism, Williams said Leonard resigned as State Police commissioner because he failed to talk the GOP-controlled Legislature into enlarging his force.

Ferguson, who spent Wednesday touring Monroe County, said in a Wednesday night television talk he did not approve of unions throwing their weight behind political machines.

He said he feels "the same way about it if the management of a corporation uses the funds entrusted to it for political purposes."

Leonard attended nearly a score of industrial plant meetings in Detroit Wednesday and told workers not to listen to "distorted facts" concerning unemployment. He said the situation was not as bad as the Democrats claim.

Leonard's meeting with the President will rule out a planned rally at Wesson and Bagley streets at 11 a. m., according to Richard I. Moore, assistant chairman of the Oakland County Leonard for Governor Committee.

The gubernatorial candidate will be accompanied to the airport to see the President by his county campaign chairman, Ben Jerome Jr., said Moore.

Leonard still plans to attend a rally from 9 to 10:30 a. m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Clergymen outnumber bartenders three to one in Texas.

Irish Speaker Rambles Past World Record

OLDHAM, England (U)—Kevin Sheehan claimed a world record for nonstop oratory today. He has been talking continuously since Monday morning.

Rambling hoarsely toward his goal of 127 hours, the 25-year-old Irish babbler was already well beyond what he said was the previous mark of 36 hours—"held by some Russian."

Sheehan is holding forth in a local ballroom.

He reported to newsmen: "I am suffering from headaches and swollen glands but I am going to carry on until my record is unbeatable."

His topic: "The Uncanny Things of Life."

Motorists, Go Right— or You'll Be Wrong

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP)—The Oklahoma Criminal Court of Appeals ruled Wednesday that a driver can use only the right side of a road.

The ruling upheld the conviction of Isaac West on drunk driving charges. West contended he had a constitutional right to use either the right or left side of a highway.

Man Suffers Injuries When Car Hits Ditch

William Beaupre, 25, of 843 Melrose Ave., told Waterford Township Police he apparently fell asleep at the wheel and was thrown from his car when it ran into a ditch at Hatchery and Airport Rds.

Beaupre was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for knee and forehead injuries.

Expect Decision Soon on Jet Base in Cadillac Area

CADILLAC (U)—The Air Force is expected to make an announcement in two weeks on the final site for a jet air base to be constructed in Northeastern Michigan.

Secretary of the Air Force Talbott toured a proposed site for the base 10 miles west of Cadillac yesterday. He said a final decision on the location of the proposed base would be made in two weeks.

The Air Force secretary also made an aerial survey of the "homestead" site for the base in Benzie County. An aerial survey of the Cadillac site already has been made.

Last summer, Talbott was quoted as telling a Wexford County delegation seeking the fighter base, that he had already decided on the Benzie County location.

Woman Hit by Car

Mrs. Ruth Bouford, 43, of 111 Edison St., is reported in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with arm and leg injuries and cuts suffered yesterday when she was struck by a car on N. S. 10 one-half mile north of Scott Lake road.

Hal Boyle Says: U.S. Women Should Tint Hair to Enhance Husbands

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Does the average wife change the color of her hair so that it will go well with her husband's necktie or new pair of shoes?
Of course not. But why not?
Wives for some time have been dressing their husbands in a way to make them serve as a dull masculine backdrop to their own feminine finery.
But why shouldn't it work the other way? Why should a man go to the trouble and expense of buying himself a blue cornflower for his lapel on an evening out, and then have his wife ruin the whole effect with her mouse-brown hair?

Or suppose you've bought a snappy new polka dot tie. Is there any reason why your wife can't accentuate it by coloring her hair in a polka dot pattern, too?
"Oh, you know I simply can't do a thing with my hair," she'll plead lamely. Don't fall for that old guff, fellows. If you've got a snazzy charcoal pink shirt, there is no excuse—except laziness—if your bride says she can't match it with a charcoal pink coiffure.

My authority is Edmund d'Auriol, U.S. representative of L'Oréal of Paris, the world's largest hair cosmetics firm. He says American women, despite all the money they spend on beauty aids, are stick-in-the-muds when it comes to coloring their hair.

"They now go to their hair-dressers and must pick from a paltry 30 tints," he said, shaking his head. "A woman should be able to pound the table and demand any color in her thoughts."

"There are at least 1,000 to choose from, and the number is limited only by the imagination."

"If you will excuse me, we pride ourselves, being French, that we know more about color than anyone. It is in our blood. We can see maybe 144 different colors between red and blue."

"We have not been able to find in the American language words to describe all our colors. Your words are too brutal. Our brown golds, for example, have more femininity than your brown golds, so we call them brownette golds."

The parent Paris firm uses two traveling circuses to advertise its color wares, a feat no American soap company has yet matched.

"We even hair-tinted a live tiger," said d'Auriol modestly. "The stripes disappeared completely, and the animal emerged a beautiful baby blonde with luminous spots."

"We also tinted a horse platinum blond. It took pails and pails of color. No, we haven't tinted an elephant. It doesn't have enough hair. All you can do with an elephant is paint it."

Faced with this example of French enterprise, the American soap industry can rise to the challenge in only one way—by laundering a whale on television.

"Our goal is simply to take a girl of 16, bring her age up to the age of 22, and keep her there until she is 72, all by employing hair colors," said d'Auriol. "That is the dream of every woman."

"American women are just beginning to be really hair-conscious about their hair. In France one out of four women tint their hair regularly. In America only one of 40 do."

"But, oddly, more women in Brooklyn tint their hair than in any other city in the world, including Paris. Psychologically, I suppose it's because they want a change."

D'Auriol's own favorite hair colors are muted topaz blonde, pale dry champagne, smoky silver blonde, and frosty pale blonde, which he describes as "the sky of Paris squeezed from a tube."

Think I was kidding about having your wife's hair match your polka dot tie? Well, listen to d'Auriol: "Fashion mannequins in Paris

SURIN an Original Contribution to RELIEF OF RHEUMATIC- ARTHRITIC PAIN

No cure or treatment—SURIN brings fast, comforting temporary pain relief!

DON'T TAKE ONE WORD FOR IT—but rely on the published medical report on SURIN, which proves its effectiveness in relieving rheumatic-arthritis pain! SURIN was tested for months by doctors in a famous clinic... tested on chronic rheumatic patients with these significant results:

DOCTORS FOUND—that when SURIN is applied at the point of pain, its unique ingredient, acetyl beta methyl choline penetrates quickly, deeply to step up the action of the endocrine glands... out of a case... speeding pain relief in minutes! Clinicians who tested it stated that with an increased period of temporary relief at point of pain, patients often experience increased freedom of joint movement. This is the substance of solid facts published in a medical journal.

SURIN IS SWIFT—DIRECT! No matter how long you've suffered arthritic-rheumatic pains, do try SURIN! It works without stomach upsets which can be caused by internal dosing... you feel smooth on SURIN at the point of pain... because it starts to act as fast as you apply it... bringing relief in minutes!

A NEW KIND OF CREAM OINTMENT! Don't expect SURIN to look or act like other "rub-on-rub-in" salves or liniments. It is not harsh or irritating. SURIN gives the skin a pleasant, mild, cooling sensation to overcome the local heat caused by congestion. SURIN is pure white—pleasant to use—goes on smoothly, washes off quickly and is harmless to clothing!

GUARANTEE SURIN ON CASH REFUND! Get a jar of SURIN today. Get instant relief in minutes—or we'll refund your money—no questions asked.

NOTE: SURIN is the trademark of the company, but the name SURIN is used by permission of the company, and is not a trademark of the company.

started that some time ago—originally with black and white, then pink and gold, red and blue and finally deep gold and black leopard spots.
"Now many French ladies color their hair that way. But the color that more and more prefer is bordeaux wine. It looks like a glass of red wine held up to the light."

Maybe this is what your own wife needs. Why not hold her up to the light, and give her a long thoughtful look?

Financier Takes Snooze as Burglar Pounds Safe

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Adolph H. Bohm, snoozing in a rear room at his loan company, was awakened by a vigorous pounding on the door.
Sleepily, he admitted police who arrested a man found hiding in the basement. The police told Bohm that while he was sleeping a front window had been smashed, the firm's burglar alarm had sounded, and the handle on the company safe had been pounded off with a hammer and iron bar.

Cotton textiles comprise India's chief industry and it produces about 4.3 billion yards of cloth annually.

CATCHY SIGN—Ludington (Mich.) doesn't have a cemetery named "Dead End," as it would seem. The sign, examined by Paul Peterson, of Ludington, was placed to discourage motorists from making a detour along this route. Scores of tourists have stopped to have their pictures taken by it.

City Employees' Pensions

Important among the issues confronting Pontiac voters November 2 will be a charter amendment for revision of the city employees' pension system.

The special ballots are headed Charter Amendment No. 1. Approval would result in revision of 11 sections of the charter's chapter 18. The aim is to bring the pension system into line with systems of cities in Pontiac's population group.

If approved, the amendment among other things would increase the basic pension $20 a year. Membership service pensions would be increased 17.4 per cent. Also the thirty year limit for credit membership is removed.

Another result would be to make the maximum pension of $1,800 a year applicable only to prior service pensions. Additional cost to the city for these revisions would be $30,000 a year.

We know of no good argument against these first changes in a pension system launched January 1, 1946.

Vote "Yes" on Charter Amendment No. 1.

Mob Rule Slapped Down

Thanks to the courage and good sense of top Delaware officials, an attempt to prevent desegregation in a high school at Milford has suffered a sharp setback.

A Delaware Chancery Court has ruled that 10 Negro students at the Milford school have a clear legal right to attend. Moreover, the Milford school board is to be enjoined from excluding these students while their suit for permanent admission is pending.

When the Milford board of education decided to begin desegregation without waiting for Supreme Court decrees as to methods, these 10 students became part of a student body of 1,700. Following agitation by one BRYANT BOWLES, the board changed its collective mind and the 10 students were returned to the school they formerly attended 20 miles away.

BOWLES is the outside organizer of the National Association for the Advancement of White People. He was arrested at the order of Gov. C. CALES BOGGS on a charge of conspiring to violate the State education law by leading a boycott of the schools.

If the school board hadn't retreated from its original position, it is quite probable that BOWLES never would have been able to stir up foes of desegregation. Happily, indications are that most citizens of Delaware stand with their Governor and Attorney General on the side of law and order.

Molotov Elections

Representatives of Western Powers meeting to implement the London agreement for rearming Germany have a new reason for spurning Russia's latest proposal.

That reason is the recent "election" in East Germany in which the puppet Communist government reported a 99.3 per cent majority.

Soviet Foreign Minister MOLOTOV has offered to discuss free elections for all Germany — on one condition. That is that the West agree to a new Four Power parley at which he would have another opportunity to try wrecking both German rearmament and European unity.

These developments have brought to the fore a clearer picture of the Russian concept of a "free election." In this latest, as in past examples, voters were marched to the polls for compulsory and open voting for a single list of Communist approved candidates.

There is no room on the ballots for "yes" or "no" and they must be dropped unchanged into the boxes under the eyes of police. The few who abstain or dare to use the voting booths provided for mere show, are subject to prosecution on charges of "aiding the war-mongers."

These details are important here for two reasons. First, Mr. Molotov and the East German commissars carefully inspected and approved preparations for this election. Second, it now is clearer than ever that when he says he is willing to discuss free elections for all Germany, he means the kind just held in East Germany.

In other words, Mr. Molotov's offer to discuss free elections for all Germany is bait the West couldn't swallow. It also is a warning to those in France and Britain who would make a risky deal for German unification at the expense of European unity and defense.

Dire Predictions
 Old Authority Would Have Us Prepare for the Worst

Reason: What if a man expects his wife to listen to, he shouldn't use the same one too often.

According to the one hundred and sixty-third edition of

The Old Farmer's Almanac, just received, we can expect dire extremes during the coming winter. From early in November until late in March it will be "cold, windbound and white." There will be plenty of snow for both Thanksgiving and Christmas. "Boisterous storms" are promised for early in December, and the worst weather of the winter will be during the first week of the new year. The first 10 days of February are to bring "a fine blizzard," and disastrous floods are due in March.

Since the average date of the first killing frost in the Pontiac area is Oct. 15, we're doing pretty well this autumn.

Thanks for the letter over the signature of "Impartial Observer," which says, "That televised cabinet meeting and Ike's non-political talks will echo next Tuesday strongly in favor of the Republicans. And the Democrat big wigs know it, and cannot devise any action to even remotely offset it."

Rochester Minister Expresses Christian Views on 'Charity Bingo' Proposal

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full text and address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical to its nature.

I have watched with some interest your newspaper items on the proposal to legalize lotteries in Michigan. It seems that only the people who are in favor of it have been writing to the paper.

It is difficult to see how anybody with a Christian insight can rationalize lotteries, particularly in the face of the corruption in government and our economic circles today. It is also hard for me, as a Christian, to understand how other Christian people can support an action which actually defeats the Christian concepts of stewardship.

Who is going to give in the manner which Christ would want them to give to their churches and charities, when these same groups say in effect, "We are running Bingo parties and lotteries and will make a killing in raising a lot of funds this way."

I think of that picture in the New Testament in Luke where Christ is hanging on a cross and the Roman soldiers are gambling for his clothes. I wonder if it would have made any difference if those Roman soldiers were conducting a Bingo party and the proceeds were going to a local charity.

This still would have been just as much a tragedy. One can hardly visualize those Roman soldiers dying on a cross for humanity any more than one can visualize Christ gambling for another man's clothes or taking part in a Bingo party. Let that be our standard for judgment.

What would Christ do? If we will ask that question about our efforts, I think we will all vote "No" on proposal No. 4 to amend our constitution. This is no time for Christians to straddle the fence.

Public Not Responsible for Hospital, Says Voter

These letters pleading to the citizens of Pontiac to give money to build an addition to an institution such as Pontiac General Hospital, must be well rewarded by someone.

Does the Pontiac General or any other hospital give any free services to anyone? Remember, these patients on beds in the corridors are paying the same rates as the patients occupying rooms. I cannot see any reason why paying customers should have to pay for the erection of a hospital any sooner than they should for other profitable places of business.

In this what we call free enterprise? Pontiac General Hospital is not a place of mercy. It is a place for making money just like the bars, lunch rooms, pool rooms, garages, grocery stores or any other place where the public is served and pays a fee for services received.

Should the citizens be taxed to help pay for an addition to John Brown's bar just because his business is overflowing? I agree that would be wonderful for Mr. Brown, Pontiac General or any other place of business if they are fortunate enough to find the poor suckers to do it.

Why doesn't someone suggest a hospital insurance plan, whereby the people who make contributions can receive benefits in return for the money they put into the business. Therefore the hospital would be able to repay the people who make it possible for them to care for their overflowing business.

Keep This Administration, Suggests 'Daily Reader'

Perhaps the old phrase, "There is so much bad in the best of us and so much good in the worst of us" should make Democrats and Republicans alike think before they speak. Most of us wanted a change in the 1952 election. A change from the time F. D. R. told us none of our boys would go on foreign soil to fight.

He also told us a chicken would be in every pot. When did they get there? Only after war started and our boys were in every part of the world, many suffering untold misery as P. O. W.'s and many never came back at all.

When that was over, work began to slack so without consent of Congress, Truman decides our boys must go again to stop (Continued on Page 14, Col. 1)

Selfish Children Blame Stepmothers for Almost Anything They Do Wrong

Dorothy's case is no exception in America. I am citing it to shatter the wrong notion that has developed from the Cinderella story. For one such story can blacken the reputation of millions of wonderful stepmothers in succeeding generations.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
 Case M-351: Dorothy Q., aged 41, is a stepmother.

"Dr. Crane, 18 years ago I married the most wonderful man," she began enthusiastically.

"He was a widower with two daughters, then of pre-school age. 'And I have been very happy as a stepmother. I love the girls and they love me.'

"That doesn't mean that everything has been sunny sweet every day. Sometimes the children are naughty, as is normal.

"When needed, I have spanked them, for their own good. And my husband gave me a free hand to run the house as I wished, which I have done.

"I think our daughters respect and love me as much as if I had been their own flesh-and-blood mother. And I look on them in the same way.

"Why do stepmothers almost invariably get pictured as mean and selfish women, Dr. Crane?"

Aunt Het

Just one such story in childhood will color the thinking of people throughout an entire nation. For in childhood we are unusually impressionable. And once we have made up our minds, as a result of just one terrible portrayal of a wicked or cruel stepmother, we tend to generalize.

So we erroneously imagine all stepmothers are cruel, which is obviously not the case.

It is a pleasure for me to present the true picture of average stepmothers throughout the land. They are wonderful women. And their stepchildren usually realize that fact.

Selfish children carry a chip on their shoulder, so to speak, and if they are naughty, they refuse to admit their error.

Instead, they blame the stepmother for being mean. In most cases, stepmothers are no meaner than the flesh-and-blood mothers would have been in the same situation.

But the children conveniently overlook that fact, since it is a common human custom to project the blame for our own faults upon the shoulders of anybody else whom we can make the goat.

Stepmothers have been made the goat for centuries, and in all lands.

Fairy tales have partly been responsible for such attitudes. You may recall the story of Cinderella.

Gradual Piling Up of Minute Injuries to Joint Structures Hazard of Football

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
 A report published in the "Boston Traveler," Oct. 17, '53 said that up to that time there had been eight football player fatalities, two of them high school boys aged 17 and 19.

How many boys have died for the old alma mater this season I have not yet learned, but whether any young lives have been sacrificed or not I beg to repeat what I said here a year ago:

"I tell you, parents, this (high school) burlesque of men's play is a vicious subversion of education."

Football is a grown man's game, and high school boys, even lanky ones, are not full-grown men. Sometimes coaches and others who do not like my teachings assert that basketball is just as severe a strain on the high school boy's heart as football is, so why don't I inveigh against high school basketball.

I know of no scientific measurements to determine whether football or basketball is the greater strain, but no matter now. One thing at a time.

David Lawrence Says:

Divided U. S. Government Always Means Trouble

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Are the American people in for trouble if they choose a divided government next Tuesday? The record shows that, when the Congress is controlled by a majority of the political party opposite to the president, there ensue consequences really harmful to the welfare of the country.

Thus the panic of 1933 and the prolonged depression of the 1930's were due in large part to the petty partisanship of a Democratic House of Representatives elected in the middle of President Hoover's term in 1930.

The worldwide depression was ending everywhere else during 1933 and would have ended in America but for the tactics of the Democrats who blocked the recovery measures proposed by President Hoover. This was the time when Hoover, in a vain outburst of indignation, accused the Democrats of "playing politics with human misery."

Likewise, extreme partisanship—on which neither party seems to have a monopoly—was a contributing factor to the outbreak of World War II. It was a Republican Congress elected in November 1918—in the middle of the term of President Wilson, Democrat—which prevented a year later the entry of the United States into the League of Nations.

This partisanship gave the start to the strong isolationist crusade of the 1920's. It was at first solely a Republican attitude, but later, in the '30's, isolationism became almost as strongly the Democratic attitude in Congress. It was a triumph for political demagoguery. As a consequence, Hitler was convinced that the United States would remain aloof—would not enter a World War or would come in too late to prevent his conquest of Europe.

A divided government is always a risk for the American people, no matter how devoted a person may be to his own party, he must recognize the fact that, when Congress is in control of one party and the president comes from the opposite party, the temptation to play politics is never passed up.

Today the Democrats are in a sense aware of the dangers in the past record and, to gain votes for themselves, they are promising to cooperate with the President. But, since only two years away is the bigger stake—the winning of the presidency itself—it must be realized that the day after election next week, if the Democrats win, they will begin to carry out their 1954 strategy. Their chance to put the Republicans in the hole is through day-by-day action which embarrasses the Republican President.

This is not to say that, on certain major questions of foreign policy, cooperation will not occasionally be effected. It is really in the domain of domestic policy where the mischief largely will be done and through the insidious process of crippling amendments to popular measures.

Going back to 1918, when the House of Representatives went Democratic midway in the administration of President William Howard Taft, Republican. It will be recalled that there were many "pop gun" measures—as they were playfully labeled in those days—which were passed by the House and forced through the Senate, where a split Republican party helped them on.

These bills were not put forward sincerely but with the knowledge that they would surely be vetoed by a Republican President. Yet the publicity about the benefits allegedly withheld from the groups to be favored by the "pop gun" bills helped to develop the negative tide that wrecked the Republican party in 1912 and gave the presidency that year to the Democrats in a walk.

Perhaps the most detailed record from a firsthand source as to the sabotage of constructive legislation by the Democrats who controlled the House, as against a Republican President, is given by Herbert Hoover in his memoirs published in 1952. He writes:

"Promptly at the opening of the 1931-32 session the opposition refused to enter into any program of cooperation although several major measures had been agreed upon the previous October. . . . The imperative items of RFC (Reconstruction Finance Corporation) and Federal Land Bank legislation were not passed until the end of January 1932, and then with serious delays of needed authorities. I secured restoration of only part of these deleted powers in July 1932.

"The Federal Reserve authorities were delayed until mid-February. The creation of the home loan banks was held up for eight months and then passed in emasculated shape. The banking reforms, so essential to recovery, were delayed . . . the bankruptcy reform laws were delayed . . .

But what happened when a united government—all branches being Democratic—came into power in 1933? The swift action of Congress is often referred to as the legislative miracle of "the 100 days."

The news reports from all over the country today indicate a widespread apathy and indifference toward the congressional elections. The American people evidently have not been sufficiently warned of the dangers of a divided government.

That's why, if the Republicans lose out, America may find itself soon in a whirlpool of political partisanship such as has heretofore turned the nation abruptly away from a calm, steady course, with economic recovery ahead, into the stormy seas of political discord and business disturbance. Jailed Priests Fool Commies by Using Latin

HONG KONG (AP) — Catholic missionaries reaching Hong Kong after long periods in Chinese Communist jails joke among themselves that if enough Catholics get in enough Communist jails, Latin may become a live language again. The priest use Latin to communicate with one another.

One group of priests in Shanghai jails used Latin messages on the top of toilet buckets.

A bucket did not always come back to the same cell. It made the rounds until it found some who could read Latin. He would scratch an answer and in time it might get back to the original writer.

In the meantime the bucket might find its way into half a dozen other Latin-writing cells and quite a conversation would develop. Sometimes important messages were conveyed but usually it was merely an effort to let one missionary know that he had a fellow in a nearby cell, and to pass on a word of cheer.

DALLAS (AP) — A man who owns a young bull sought a peace bond against a neighbor woman who fired two shots at the animal, and missed.

The woman testified she shot after the bull chased her to her porch, butted a car in her driveway, then butted a garbage can in her back yard.

The judge denied the peace bond and told the owner to keep his bull at home.

U.S. Navy Equal to All the Rest, Book Reveals

LONDON (AP)—An authoritative naval publication says the fighting power of the U.S. Navy equals the combined strength of the other major navies of the world. The Americans also appear to be taking greater scientific strides than any other navy.

"Jane's Fighting Ships," a standard reference work on the world's navies, said in its latest edition yesterday the U.S. Navy of 5,000 vessels is the largest peacetime fleet ever maintained by any nation. Russia topped the United States only in numbers of submarines, Jane's said, but added that the Soviet Union is building up "substantial forces" of cruisers, destroyers and submarines.

Russia's underwater fleet was estimated at 370 to 400 vessels, as compared to 200 in the U.S. Navy.

Adlai Admits Selling Shares

Stevenson Tells Paper He Regrets Following Brokers' Advice

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—The Rochester Times-Union reported yesterday that Adlai E. Stevenson said here that he had sold a large part of his common stock holdings a year ago, on his brokers' advice and "much to my regret."

A Times-Union reporter showed the 1952 Democratic candidate for president an editorial in the New York Daily News that asked whether Stevenson had sold a number of "blue chip" stocks that he had listed in a report on his personal financial and tax status during the 1952 campaign.

The editorial said a Queens attorney, Ben Lieblein, had telephoned the Daily News to ask: "Has Stevenson held onto those stocks, or most of them, during the 21 months of Eisenhower when he says we've been flopping into a depression? Or has he sold them?"

Stevenson told the Rochester newspaper he sold stock a few months after the Eisenhower administration took office on the advice of brokers that included Robert Lovett, former defense secretary under President Truman, and Prescott Bush, Republican senator from Connecticut.

"I'd be a great deal better off if I'd not sold the stocks," Stevenson said. "That's why I'm going to have to go to work."

He reportedly plans to open a law office in Chicago. He was here to campaign on behalf of Democratic candidates for election next week.

Earmarks Collection

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—The note with the five cents which Bob Shroobere, treasurer of La Jolla's First Baptist Church, found in the collection plate read: "1 cent to bidg. fund, 1 cent to preacher, 3 cents to God. (Signed) Bobby."

Plan Housing Center

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—A new national headquarters for the home building industry is going up here. The National Association of Home Builders is erecting a two million dollar, 8-story National Housing Center. It will be ready within a year. It will serve as a central source of information about the home building business.

Private industry spends an estimated 140 million dollars per year for research on agricultural products and machinery. Public expenditures total 107 million.

Feathered Stowaway

DARLINGTON, S. C. (AP)—Farmer Nelson Allford, after a five-mile ride into town noticed people staring and laughing. He looked around to see one of his white Leghorn hens sitting placidly atop several bales of hay on his pickup truck.

BUYERS ATTEND IMPORTANT MEETING IN NEW YORK CITY

Attending an important meeting of the Consolidated Clothiers in New York City recently were 194 buyers representing more than 250 major clothing stores in America, with a dollar volume estimated conservatively at 40 to 50 million dollars. Pictured above is a group of some of the buyers from Chicago, Denver, Detroit, San Francisco, Miami, Baltimore, Raleigh, Los Angeles, Omaha and other vicinities. Third from the left in the front row is Sidney Barnett of Barnett's Clothes Shop of this city, long affiliated with Consolidated.

A resolution was passed commending Barnett's on their forthcoming 50th Anniversary with recognition of their high reputation and long standing as Pontiac's oldest men's clothing store. Plans were formulated to procure exceptional values from leading manufacturers for this event. Emphasis was stressed on maintaining the policy of selling only first quality, high grade merchandise at lower prices with small profits to obtain Big Volume and fast turn-over. Barnett's opened in Pontiac in 1880 and announcement of their 50th Anniversary sale is on page 17 of today's Press.

Fowl, Ham, Pork Top List of Bargains for Halloween

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fowl, ham and pork top the list of Halloween bargains in many of the nation's food stores this week. Loin of pork is down sharply in many cities while fowl is selling at the lowest prices in 18 years. Both items are being heavily promoted by the larger chains as "specials" for the holiday week-end.

Traditional Halloween items also get top billing. Apples, nuts and red grapes are in plentiful supply; pumpkins are of good quality and moderately priced.

Some of the more popular cuts of beef—including sirloin steak and rib roast—carry higher price tags this week. Seafood devotees will find good buys in shrimp and oysters.

Fowl probably offers the outstanding bargain of the week. Chain stores are cooperating with chicken farmers in an all-out promotion drive which aims at cutting down the nation's hen population, currently at a record high.

With egg prices at depressed levels, poultry farmers are killing off their hens at a relatively early age and sending them to market. In some cities fowl can be had at retail for less than 25 cents a pound—the lowest price since the depression thirties.

Egg prices may have hit rock bottom; large grade "A" whites are up anywhere from two to six cents a dozen this week. They're still a standout bargain.

Grocers have a double incentive for promoting apples—there's a huge surplus in many areas, and this is National Apple Week. The Courtland and Macintosh varieties are particularly attractive.

Other good produce buys include red "Emperor" grapes from California, seedless grapefruit from Florida, and potatoes from Idaho and Maine.

Melons are available in a wide variety of flavors, colors and shapes. Along with the popular honeydews, there are Spanish, Casa, Crenshaw, Persian, Santa Claus and Leopard melons. These are indications this week that the general trend in food prices may have reversed itself and headed up. After declining for four weeks in a row, the Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index jumped nearly two per cent, wiping out all of the decline registered since late September.

O'Dwyer in Gotham, but Not for Politics

NEW YORK (U)—Former Mayor William O'Dwyer returned to New York last night after an absence of 3½ years.

He expressed no interest in politics and denied that "subpoenas" connected with a 1951 Senate probe had anything to do with his visit. He said he was here for "business and pleasure."

Smiling and looking fit, he arrived by plane from California, where he had testified before a congressional committee probing Communist activities in Mexico. He served as U.S. ambassador to Mexico.

Several hundred well-wishers were on hand to greet him, including blonde Miss Arline Robert, general coordinator for the current Broadway play "The Fifth Season." She embraced him.

Big Lobsters Displayed

BOSTON (U)—Boston's Museum of Science displays what it claims are the two largest lobsters on record. Caught off the Virginia Capes, they weighed 42 pounds, 7 ounces, and 38 pounds, 12 ounces, respectively.

SUITS!

You ladies will save enough to buy those extra things you want!

SAM BENSON

Ypsilanti Publisher Honored at Dinner

YPSILANTI (U)—George C. Handy, president and publisher of the Ypsilanti Daily Press, was honored last night at a civic dinner celebrating the 50th anniversary of the newspaper.

Congratulatory letters and telegrams were received from business and government leaders, including President Eisenhower. Handy received citations on his public service as a newspaperman from the Ypsilanti Rotary Club, the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce, the Michigan League of Home Dailies and Michigan State Normal College.

Handy has been associated with the newspaper ever since it started publication in 1904. At the start of his newspaper career he worked on a part-time basis while attending Michigan State Normal College here.

India has about 8,000 public hospitals and about 92,000 registered doctors.

Group to Suggest 3 School Changes

LANSING (U)—The State Educational Finance Study Commission, which has been working for two years, agreed today to set an early January deadline for recommendations to the Legislature on three major subjects.

One is a proposal to eliminate 871 local school districts which no longer operate their own schools. A second is improvement in school tax assessing methods, including use of the state equalized values for computing taxes and possibly a permissive county assessor system.

A third is a new formula for distributing state aid to schools with emphasis on making all districts bear as much of the financial load themselves before becoming eligible for state aid.

Committee members said in view of the annual increase of 70,000 children in school enrollment that more state aid will be necessary.

Educator Believes Video Causes Mental Inactivity

PARIS (INS)—Dr. William S. Carlson, president of the State University of New York, urges America's universities to combat "passive listening" among TV audiences.

Dr. Carlson says he believes television is hypnotizing people into mental inactivity. "American higher education must take this to heart," he said.

The university president contends TV is making Americans

"passive listeners" who mechanically accept many things they are told without reservation.

"The whole phase of visual is reaching a danger point," Dr. Carlson declared.

"Too many TV viewers are losing a normal desire to think out personal and national problems for themselves. They are letting TV programs do it for them," Dr. Carlson, in Paris on a European survey of his university study tours, said there are things more important than TV shows, modern comforts and leisure time.

"Americans must acquire a better appreciation of America's domestic and foreign problems or they can't gain a real understanding of what's happening in Europe and the rest of the world," he said.

The educator believes the American TV public should have opportunities to discuss freely the country's problems on TV forums or at similar meetings.

He said Americans must be awakened to a "questioning mood" with open minds concerning European and Asiatic problems. He believes America's universities could aid greatly toward this end.

Dr. Carlson said that liberal thinking and freedom of expression in the United States "has probably been dampened" by recent "witch-hunting, book-burning and teacher-purging attempts." But he doesn't think it is serious.

"Book-burning and attempts at teacher-purging were deplorable and totally unnecessary," Dr. Carlson said.

"People must be given the basic truths of communism to understand it. How can anyone know the facts if they are denied them? And the tendency in the United States has been to deny the facts."

However, Dr. Carlson does not believe the so-called "Red hyteria" that swept America has altered American educational methods.

United States educators are "very alert" to any possibility of Red "infiltration" in the educational system, he said, and would do everything to prevent it.

Dr. Carlson added the control and survey of America's educational methods can be left safely in the hands of its educational institutions.

unemployment. More boys were injured and killed in action.

Parents, we are now without a shooting war. Doesn't your flesh and blood appeal to you more than keeping up with the Jones?

I understand Social Security has been advanced. Mr. Dondero worked hard on the St. Lawrence Seaway bill which will bring more employment.

So I think we will be wise to give the present administration more than two years to undo what has been done.

Says Charities Fail to Receive Much Money

We are being urged by radio, TV and newspapers to help the widows, starving children and handicapped by voting "Yes" on Proposal 4. They are trying to persuade us that this Constitutional Amendment is for "Charity Binge."

I would ask these unidentified groups or persons, two questions: 1 — Are they themselves misled or are they intentionally trying to mislead the public? Nowhere does the proposal mention bingo. The amendment provides not for "harmless" bingo but would allow all kind of lotteries.

2 — Do they really think that "charity" would benefit or are they again deliberately misleading the public?

The recent exposures in New York is one good example. In one instance a "charity" for children with respiratory diseases received 11 cents out of $10. One per cent for the "charity" and 99 per cent for the promoters.

Another case was the charity for fighting cancer. $7,000 went to fight cancer while the balance of the $125,000 went to the promoters. When you open the state for gambling, it is impossible to keep out the professionals and gamblers who take most of the receipts.

If this proposal passes, Michigan will be able to take its place right along side Nevada and Pontiac will take its place along side Las Vegas. Vote "No" on Proposal 4!

Says, Build Hospital by Public Subscription

I am wondering if by any chance the city and county planners haven't confused the proposed sites for the courthouse and hospital. It seems to me the logical place for a courthouse is in the center of the city where it now is, but certainly not for an addition to a hospital at its present location.

I'm sure the hospital would never have been placed there had the planners realized the terrific amount of traffic which has developed on West Huron St.

Parking conditions now are very bad and I am not in favor of congesting property or homes in the vicinity for needed space as this would be very expensive and possible some owners.

Why not consider another more quiet location and also investigate the possibility of having the project sponsored by some other agency than the City.

Pontiac already has furnished a very fine hospital which can be used as a receiving hospital. Now I think it is the privilege and duty of social, civic and religious groups of this entire area to provide more hospital space rather than the City since only approximately fifty per cent of the present patients are city residents.

I believe there are groups in Oakland County who would be interested if approached by doctors and those interested in more and better hospitals.

Says Wilson Great Man Despite Recent Statement

It is unfortunate for the Republican party that Secretary of Defense C. E. Wilson gave his illustration of bird dogs and kennel dogs. Naturally, the labor part of the Democratic party will resent the remark and he has placed a cudgel in their hands. Though Secretary Wilson may not have intended to convey what some have inferred.

It would seem that the Republican party may suffer as the result of this unfortunate statement and while the Secretary has apologized to the country for his mistake, pulling out the nails does not pull out the holes and politicians often have good memories.

Those in high office should be very wise in their remarks in a time of electing members to Congress and it is hoped that Democrats and labor leaders will exercise proper charity for the Secretary of Defense who is a great man.

Vote! Vote! Vote! Urges L. H. Smith, Sr.

At the biennial election to be held Nov. 2, kindly remember your privilege as a voter to go to the polls and register your vote in behalf of your country so that the best laws possible may be enacted for the best interests of all the people of these United States of America.

In voting you not only cast your vote representing yourself but you are voting by proxy for your children and grandchildren for many future generations.

Remember the boys over in Korea and in other distant lands half around the globe ready to sacrifice their lives and the mutilation of their bodies for your protection.

Now what can we do to support these heroes? Go to the polls and cast your ballot that they may know we are behind them with our full devotion and that their sacrifices may not be in vain.

Come fathers, mothers, sweethearts and wives. Let us give them our all that they may not suffer and perhaps in vain.

Charity Gambling Legal but Immoral for Others?

With the vote on legalized lotteries coming up next Tuesday for the voters' approval or disapproval, I think that the comment of our rector the Reverend C. George Widdifield in the weekly parish letter to his parishioners should be read by all. I quote:

"It is a rather common assumption that there is in our society a double moral standard: One to which Christians adhere, and a less strict standard acknowledged by those who have no particular loyalty to Christ. This, I think, is a just assumption. At least, Christians ought to have a higher ethic than that of the world generally."

"If this is the case, what kind of curious reasoning can make gambling a legal and therefore morally acceptable activity for the Christian Church (and other charitable institutions), and illegal and therefore an immoral activity for everyone else. The people of Michigan will be asked to decide this issue by ballot on Nov. 2."

"Bishop Emrich once said: 'It would be a deadly blow to America if our people began to look toward "easy money" rather than toward work, or if they began to rely on chance rather than industry and thrift.' We might add that the Christian church will be doomed if it should come to depend on legalized lotteries for its support rather than the generosity and thankfulness of its people."

'I.M.A.' Voter States Opinions on Election

Here are a few of my personal opinions on the coming election and related subjects: Segregation: Lincoln removed shackles of servitude. Eisenhower removed shackles of tradition.

Legalized bingo: The fact that certain organizations would use bingo to raise money indicates that the flow of money is mainly in one direction. It is gambling by any definition. Proponents say it will help the needy, feed the poor, etc. In reality such money would be taken from those who can least afford to lose. Vote "No."

Captive Candidates: Those who are sponsored by special interest groups. I heard of a statement made to a man wanted as candidate, by a special interest group, for state representative. "You only have to be in Lansing when bills of interest to us are on the floor."

Anyone elected to public office is a representative of everyone in his district and cannot morally or honestly give his allegiance to any one pressure group. If the pay of our state lawmakers is insufficient for a decent living, without having another job or business, it would seem that some revision in pay scale is in order.

Columnist Feels Lousy, but Giant Hankie Helps

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Had your fall cold yet? Just had mine still feel lousy. One nice thing happened, though. Got a gift from Jackie Gleason.

"Here's a hankie for your cold," the note said. The hankie measured 81x90 inches . . . it was a sheet.

Sniffingly, I asked Jack Parr about rumors he may quit CBS' "Morning Show." He confirmed he's angry about "pressure" and "interference" and is making a "serious decision." He's also pondering another offer.

Few remember Jack was with Marilyn Monroe in "Love Nest" in '51. And now Jack says, "Under California community property law, Joe DiMaggio's entitled to half Marilyn's assets. If he gets them, he'll never be able to get into his suits again!"

Girl Watchers outnumber Bird Watchers 23.7 to 1, according to Don Sauer's "Girl Watchers' Guide" which lists the popular types to watch. For example: "the Clock-Watching Boudoquer," "the Late-Rising Pubthrust," "the Blue-Jeanned Ranchwrecker," "the Rosy-Cheeked Promhopper," "the Quarterback-Collecting Sweetersweet" and "the Well-Preserved Fortynius."

SANDRA DORNE

Girl Watchers like to go on field trips, the author says, and he suggests excursions to 5th Av., NYC; Main St. in Dallas; Chestnut St., Philadelphia; Euclid Av., Cleveland; Grant and Post, San Francisco; William Penn Place, Pittsburgh, and in St. Paul—never mind, it's too cold.

The author contends that Girl Watchers are often married to understanding girls who, themselves, are worth watching and, he could have added, need watching.

11 Senators Enter Oregon Campaign

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) Eleven U. S. senators will campaign in Oregon today in the hard-fought contest between Republican Sen. Guy Cordon and his Democratic challenger, Author Richard L. Neuberger.

Speaking for Neuberger are Senators Henry Jackson and Warren Magnuson, both Democrats from neighboring Washington, and Sen. Wayne Morse, the Oregon independent.

Seven visiting Republican senators backing Cordon are Frank Carlson of Kansas, Frederick Payne of Maine, Frank Barrett of Wyoming, George Malone of Nevada, Edward Thyne of Minnesota, Herman Welker of Idaho and Arthur Watkins of Utah.

M'Carthy Urges GOP Congress to Battle Reds

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says Republicans should forget their differences, "close ranks" and "concentrate on the election of a Republican Congress."

McCarthy made this statement in a letter to William Randolph Hearst Jr., publisher of the New York Journal-American.

Hearst had queried the Wisconsin senator concerning reports that thousands of his followers would stay away from the polls Nov. 2 or support Democrats as a result of some GOP leaders' attitudes toward McCarthy's methods of proving communism in government.

McCarthy said, in a letter being printed today by the Journal-American: "Our party is bigger than any one man. It is big enough to embrace people of differing viewpoints."

"In my opinion, the election of a Republican House and Senate is a far better way to fight communism than to turn the control of the Congress over to the party which, although it has in it many men who are strongly anti-Communist, nevertheless on the whole has neglected in the past to protect the interests of the people."

"It takes a little time for a man who has been isolated too long in prison to adjust to the idea of freedom and contact with other people," she added.

Utah Lab Has Instrument of Exceptional Perception

SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—An intricate instrument that can detect the presence of a material when its quantity is only one part in one million is typical of the equipment of the nation's newest and most modern metallurgical research center.

The $1,250,000 laboratory and pilot milling plant, erected by the Kennecott Copper Corp. on the University of Utah campus here, was dedicated formally last summer.

Some laboratory operations have been under way in the research center for several months under the supervision of S. E.

Zimmerley, research director for Kennecott's western mining division.

Behind the tinted glass windows of the laboratories, a staff of 50 men studies a wide variety of metallurgical problems, particularly those applying to the low-grade copper ore operations of Kennecott in Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

One specific project is designed to improve the recovery of copper and other metals, both from the native ore bodies and existing process.

Another important phase of the center's work, a spokesman said, is designed to increase the percentage of gold recovered from ore mined by Kennecott's Utah copper division at its huge Bingham open pit.

The instrument that can detect a material when only one part is present in one million is a spectrophotometer, which utilizes known color refractions of various types of substances.

Its operator is Dr. R. E. Wood, formerly of Provo, who has been on the center's "pioneer" staff for nearly a year.

He insists the spectrophotometer "is simple" but to an uninitiated newsman, its controls look more complicated than those of a jet fighter.

Although the ultra-modern research center is located on the University of Utah campus, the Kennecott Copper Corp. will control all its operation and activities for the next 50 years. In 2004, it will be turned over to the university as a gift.

In comparison with other members of the solar system, the earth may be called the "seawater planet." More than 70 per cent, or about 140,000,000 square miles of its surface is covered with seawater.

Joe Was Cool, Sobs Marilyn

Actress Sheds Yankee Clipper After Recital of Marital Woes

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Marilyn Monroe yesterday won a divorce from Joe DiMaggio, sobbing that he gave her only "coolness and indifference" and sometimes wouldn't talk to her for 20 days at a time.

Dressed in somber black, the blonde star took the stand and in reply to Attorney Jerry Giesler's questions, testified:

"My husband would get into moods and wouldn't talk to me for long periods—five to seven days for some times, maybe longer—10 days. And if I tried to approach him, he usually said: 'Leave me alone.'"

She said that when she asked the former baseball star "What's the matter?" he replied "Stop nagging me."

"He allowed me no visitors whatsoever. I don't believe I asked someone to our home more than three times during the nine months we were married. On one occasion when I was sick, he allowed someone to see me, but then only under tremendous strain."

"I offered to give up my work to help him, but he didn't change his attitude at all."

"I had hoped to have out of marriage love, warmth, affection and understanding. But instead he gave me coolness and indifference."

Giesler asked her how this affected her health.

The screen's No. 1 box office draw replied: "I've been under the care of a doctor for some time."

She added that she tried to make a go of the marriage.

After testifying falteringly for five minutes she was dismissed from the stand.

Her business manager, Mrs. Wes Melson, testified that she was a visitor at the DiMaggio home on a number of occasions and declared that the former Yankee Clipper was "very indifferent and not concerned at all about Mrs. DiMaggio."

She added that DiMaggio caused his wife great unhappiness and mental and physical suffering.

After a 15-minute trial, the divorce was granted by Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes. There was no alimony nor community property.

The couple has no children. DiMaggio did not contest the divorce.

Chances for 5-Yolked Egg Are One in Billion

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The chances of a five-yolk egg are one in a billion.

Alfred McNamee Jr. said his firm handled about a billion eggs in 38 years and found only one with five yolks. Double yolks are common, he said, but triple yolks showed up only once in each 100,000 eggs. And in a billion eggs there were just three-four-yolkers—and the one five-yolker.

INSTRUCTION BALLOT, COUNTY OF OAKLAND

NOVEMBER 2, 1954

INSTRUCTIONS—To vote a straight party ticket make a cross (X) in the circle (O) under the name of your party. Nothing further need be done. To vote for a candidate not on your party ticket, make a cross (X) in the square (□) before his name.

If two or more candidates are to be elected to the same office, and you desire to vote for candidates not on your party ticket, make a cross (X) in the square (□) before the names of the candidates for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket, and strike out an equal number of names on your party ticket, for that office.

If you do not desire to vote any party ticket, do not make a cross (X) in the circle (O) at the head of any ticket, but make a cross (X) in the square (□) before the name of each candidate for whom you desire to vote.

If you wish to vote for a candidate not on any ticket, write or place the name of such candidate on your ticket opposite the name of the office.

Before leaving the booth, fold the ballot so that the initials of the inspector may be seen on the outside.

Ernest Hemingway Wins 1954 Nobel Literature Award

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—American novelist Ernest Hemingway today won the 1954 Nobel Prize for Literature.

The 56-year-old writer, whose hard-boiled style and violence-packed tales set a pattern for 20th century prose the world around, will receive a gold medal and a check for 181,646 Swedish crowns (about $35,000).

The literary prize and the annual awards in medicine, chemistry and physics will be presented by Sweden's King Gustaf Adolf VI at a traditional ceremony here Dec. 10.

Winner of the physics and chemistry prizes still are to be announced already has been made that the Nobel Peace Prize will be withheld this year. Hemingway is the sixth American-born author to win the literary prize. The awards were set up by the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite, who died in 1896.

Hemingway, whose adventurous life matches the exploits of many of his heroes, was picked for the honor by the Swedish Royal Academy of Literature.

A source close to the academy said its members decided that since Hemingway was slated to receive the award eventually "we might as well give it to him now, before he kills himself" in some exploit.

Earlier this year, when it was feared that Hemingway had been killed in a plane crash in Africa, many newspapers criticized the academy for not giving him the prize.

The author of such classics as "A Farewell to Arms," "For Whom the Bell Tolls," "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" and "The Old Man and the Sea" was chosen over a strong state of candidates. Among the other contenders were Iceland's Halldor Laxness, Greece's Niko Kazantzakis and France's Albert Camus.

Previous American literary prize winners included Sinclair Lewis in 1930, Eugene O'Neill in 1936, Pearl

Buck in 1938 and William Faulkner in 1949. St. Louis-born poet T. S. Eliot, now a British citizen, was given the award in 1948.

Hemingway, tall and husky, is an expert big game hunter and deep sea fisherman. A veteran of World War I, he covered the Spanish Civil War and World War II as a correspondent.

He is a native of Oak Park, Ill., but has lived in Spain, France and other European countries. He spends most of his time now on his estate near Havana.

Hemingway always has based his realistic, hard-hitting writing on his own varied experiences and first-hand observations around the world.

"The Old Man and the Sea" told vividly of the victory and defeat of an old Cuban fisherman. Considered a masterpiece of simple, powerful writing, the short novel won the 1953 Pulitzer award for fiction.

Among the author's other well-known books are "The Sun Also Rises," 1926; "To Have and Have Not," 1937; and "Across the River and Into the Trees," 1950.

Hemingway, one of six children of a physician, never attended college. He started his writing career as a cub reporter on the Kansas City Star.

Detroit, Windsor Men Win in Sweepstakes

DETROIT (INS)—A Detroit man won $140,000 and a Windsor man $28,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes.

The Detroit, 58-year-old Leonard E. Gable, an unemployed auto body inspector, said he was pleased to add: "What's the use of getting excited." Maybe he was thinking of the $30,000 that will go in taxes. Mrs. Gable thinks they might buy a one-story house to make it easier on her heart condition and then leave on a cruise of the south seas.

Over in Windsor, Plumber George Conrick's boss gave him the rest of the day off. Conrick says he hopes to use the $28,000 to send his five children through college.

621 Killed in 25 Years

Careless State Nimrods Draw Fire From Lansing

LANSING (UP)—Michigan hunters—who have killed 621 and injured 2,645 of their own species in the past 25 years—are drawing sharp fire from the two men responsible for gunproofing Michigan's outdoors.

Conservation Director Gerald E. Eddy and State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said measures to prevent "irresponsible" hunters from totting firearms will be brought before the 1955 legislature in an effort to curb mounting accidents.

Most drastic change in hunting statutes would be a provision permitting the Conservation Department to refuse licenses to hunters who have wounded others.

"Our hands are tied now," Eddy said. "We feel hunters should be kept out of the field if it is determined by a Board of Review they are careless."

"Only through carelessness and negligence is it possible for a hunter to shoot himself or another hunter," Eddy said. "More consideration of the 10 commandments of gun safety and a little common sense will go a long way in cutting accidents."

Childs said police records show Oct. 1-28 hunting accidents claimed nine lives and injured 77. Of the fatalities, six were from self-inflicted wounds. Five teenagers were killed and 24 minors injured.

"There is no reason why good hunting should be purchased at the cost of 27 deaths and 232 injuries in one year," Childs said in reference to 1953 accidents.

Injuries reported Tuesday included: Roland Capen, 12, Buchanan, shot by another hunter; Joseph Hardy, 45, Vandalla, shot by another hunter; Donald Smith, 12, Flint, shot in the abdomen by another 12 year old, and Dick Holihan, 12, Flint, who shot off his toes.

Michigan's 1953 hunting report gives an indication of the state's accident rate.

One fatality per 48,000 hunters and one wounding per 3,900 hunters was noted during the small game season while one death per 26,000 hunters and one wounding per 7,700 hunters was noted during the deer season.

British Star Spurns Bid to Royal Variety

LONDON (UP)—British movie star Susan Stephen stunned the theatrical world today by announcing that she has withdrawn from the annual royal variety show.

Too busy making a movie, she explained.

The yearly extravaganza staged especially for Queen Elizabeth II is to be held next Monday at the Palladium Theater. Bids to take part are treasured by the grease-paint set. Comedian Bob Hope, for instance, has flown here all the way from Hollywood.

"It is not really correct to say that I refused to appear," the 22-year-old Miss Stephen told newsmen. "I just felt I could not do justice to the occasion by going on unprepared."

World's Largest Hole Looks Deeper From Shovel Working at the Bottom

ABOARD SHOVEL NO. 44, BINGHAM COPPER PIT, Utah—(UP)—From the top looking down, the Bingham Copper Pit—the world's largest hole in the ground—looks mighty deep. From the bottom looking up, it seems even deeper.

Since 1904, more than one and one-half billion tons of dirt and rock have been hauled from the gigantic pit in the Oquirrh Mountains, 30 miles southwest of Salt Lake City.

Only 19 pounds of copper are recovered from every 5,300 pounds of ore and waste moved by the electric shovels and bustling trains that snake along the mine walls.

But, with the tremendous volume handled, this small payoff percentage is still enough to make the Bingham pit, pride of the Utah Division of Kennecott Copper Corp., the source of about one-third of America's annual domestic copper production.

Thousands of visitors drive through a 7,000-foot vehicular tunnel every year to an observation platform to watch the operations—particularly the spectacular afternoon blasts that loosen the rock along the 33 ledges, each 64 feet high, that make up the perimeter of the rough cone-shaped pit.

The view they get, though, is entirely different from the one that Cyril (Red) Robinson, 43-year-old operator of Shovel No. 44, gets from the "5750 level"—the bottom of the pit.

Robinson mans the intricate controls of a huge electric mucker that has a six-cubic-yard dipper on the end of its long boom. Each time the steel teeth of the dipper bite into the blast-loosened rock, more than 10 tons of ore are picked up.

Swinging the dipper around, Robinson deftly drops the load into waiting 87-ton railroad cars, which carry the rock out of the pit and along the east slope of the Oquirrh to the mills at Magna and Arthur, on the shores of Great Salt Lake.

On one recent dayshift, Robinson and his two assistants broke all Bingham production records by loading 133 cars with 11,571 tons of ore.

Looking out his cab window, Robinson can see steps mounting up the western side of the pit for 2,110 feet—higher than the Empire State building. Across the top of the irregularly shaped hole the distance is nearly two miles in one direction and one in the other.

Behind him, working on the "toe" of the bank where the loosened ore has been removed, Robinson can see Tony Brunette, one of the drilling and blasting foremen and a Kennecott employee since 1916, directing crews that bore the holes into which charges of 250 pounds of dynamite are placed. Each charge, in holes 22 feet apart, breaks up about 2,200 tons of rock.

One of Brunette's crews on a caterpillar track-mounted drill rig, deviated right in the Bingham pit, is composed of two Navajo Indians, Jack Johnson and Kee Tsoie, who drill deep holes rapidly as directed by Art Fike, level drill foreman.

Over-all supervision of the mining activity is directed by J. C. Landenberger Jr., general superintendent of mines for Kennecott's Utah division. Bingham mine superintendent is V. S. Barlow.

They call the shots—for the removal of ore and waste—from a three-story office building perched aside Carr Fork, just off Bingham's long main street.

When they leave their office to check on activity down in the pit, they climb aboard a gasoline-powered, radio-equipped "speeder," which the operator, Norman Wankler, carefully pilots along the 168 miles of circular tracks, bridges and switchbacks and through the tunnels that carry them from level to level.

Negro Colonel Awarded Star

Benjamin O. Davis Jr.
Is 1st of Race to Become AF General

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower yesterday named the first Negro Air Force general. He is Benjamin O. Davis Jr., a 41-year-old native of Washington now serving as director of operations and training of the Far East Air Forces.

Davis, who is the son of Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, a retired Army officer, was promoted from the rank of colonel to the temporary rank of brigadier general under the President's directive. His father was the first man of his race to become an Army general.

A 1936 graduate of West Point, the new Air Force general flew 60 combat missions as a World War II pilot serving in Italy as commander of the 332nd Central Postal Directory. Born in Washington Dec. 18, 1912, he was graduated from high school in Cleveland and attended Western Reserve University and the University of Chicago before going to West Point.

Since then he has held a number of high positions including the post of commander of the Lockbourne Army Air Base in Columbus, Ohio. His citations include the Legion of Merit, the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters. He has held the permanent rank of colonel since July 27, 1950.

Bob Considine Says:Reporters' Mere Presence
No Reason to Shift Trial

CLEVELAND (INS)—The presence at the Sheppard trial of a few New York reporters has been called to the attention of the judge and prospective jury as one reason why Dr. Sam can't get a fair shake.

The viewer with alarm in this respect is Bill Corrigan, a fine old lawyer with a grand courtroom manner. He's Sam's chief lawyer and says he's so sure the man has been foully accused that he hasn't even talked free with him or the family. Just wants to see justice done.

Bill was a reporter before he went into the lawyer dodge and made real good. Off-stage he's as nice a gent as you'd want to meet. We had a good long chat the other morning in the press room in the gloomy court and jail building in which Sheppard's fate is being decided.

Ten minutes later Bill was pacing the cramped little courtroom, red of face, denouncing the handling of the story by one of the Cleveland papers, and pounding a stack of out of town papers as proof that the story was being over-played and to the detriment of his man Sam.

With a wave of his arm he indicated me and announced my arrival on the scene—as he had earlier singled out Dorothy Kilgallen. Nobody seemed very impressed. Bill's references were flattering and embarrassing. But he quickly got back on his theme: that the trial should be sent somewhere else in the country, or postponed until people stopped talking about it and reading about it.

The judge would hear none of this, and said Dr. Sam had to face up to things here and now. The judge seemed to feel that, just as there will always be a Wales (he's Welsh and has a delightful burr in his voice) there will always be newspaper coverage of a trial.

Using Corrigan's argument, none of the great trials in history could have taken place. There was always an out of town reporter on hand. Wonder how many changes of venue or postponements Jimmy Kilgallen, Gene Fowler, Inez Robb, Edwin C. Hill, Mike Berger, Walter Winchell, Ed Leahy, and the late Arthur Brisbane, Damon Runyon and Mike Claffey would have caused, if precedent was involved with Corrigan's beef in the Sheppard case?

The only detached spectator at the Sheppard trial is Mrs. Viva Sumergate. The relatives of Dr. Sam and those of his vily done-in wife occupy all but one seat in the last two pews of the colorless little courtroom. Mrs. Sumergate, a confirmed courtroom buff, has the end seat on what has come to be known as the Marilyn Sheppard bench.

The rest of the room in court is taken up by reporters, the jury, counsel pro and con, the judge and the several courtroom personnel.

Mrs. Sumergate, an animated dowager type, has a better reputation for good attendance at trials than most judges and bailiffs. She drives her husband to work nice and early each weekday and then lights out for the nearest court to spend her day. Cleveland courthouse reporters tell me that an ancient forebear of Mrs. Sumergate was an authority on tumble routes to the Place de la Concorde's guillotine during Robespierre's best days.

Mike Ucello, the jailer, was saying during a recess that Dr. Sheppard is a model prisoner.

"Never gripes," Mike said. "Quiet fellow. He hung up some pictures his kid drew. He mingles real good with the others up there. Nobody picks on him; in fact they seem to like him. They're a mixed-up bunch; eat thieves, hoodlums, people like that. He's taught a few of them how to play chess, but they haven't got brains enough to play it good. They've taught him pinocle, and he's getting good at it. Never plays for money, that fellow."

"He eats what we give him. Lunch is the big meal. Today it was chili. Yesterday it was sauerkraut and mashed potatoes with kabassi—that's Polish sausage. Tonight he gets baloney sandwiches and turns in at nine and shuts off his portable radio, just like the rest. It's a rule, see?"

African Church Gets Old Locomotive Bell

JAMAICA, N. Y. (AP)—Instead of announcing the approach of a Long Island train, an old engine bell will call the Basimbiti tribe in Tanganyika, Africa, to religious services. Maryknoll missionary Denis E. O'Brien, a former Marine sergeant, wrote friends that his new church lacked a bell. Long Island railroad officials donated a 275 pound bronze and steel bell and railroad shop workers made a special bracket for it in their spare time.

Seeing a Needler Needled Delights Most Americans

By LAURA E. HOBSON
NEW YORK (INS)—Two friends named Pat and Mike—who else?—discovered they'd both been going to the same psychiatrist, but that neither had as yet mentioned knowing the other was a patient too.

Being practical jokers by nature, they decided to cook up a real gruesome nightmare and then each report it, with every detail identical, as his own dream of the night before.

Nothing vicious, of course, was intended in the little trap they were setting—it was all just for laughs and to hear the learned medicine perhaps admit he was stumped.

They invented a lulu of a dream, a beautiful, Freudian mish-mash of purest ray serene, and the very next day first Pat, then Mike, reported it in toto.

When Mike left the office, he found Pat impatiently waiting on the street for him. Mike looked pale, wild-eyed; he opened his lips but no words came out.

"You chickened out," Pat accused him. "You didn't go through with your part of it after all."

"I told Dr. X every word," Mike finally said in a shaken voice. "And he listened to every word. But then all he said was, 'That's strange—this is the third time today I've heard that identical dream.'"

This little story of Pat's and Mike's come-uppance always comes to mind whenever I hear about some wise guy who tries to outwit somebody else, to show him up for a fool or a knave—only to have his scheme backfire in his own face.

Every college classroom seems to contain one such obnoxious type, a fellow or girl whose sole desire seems to be to trap the professor on some point, catch him in some way that reveals his dismal ignorance as compared to the student's own brilliance.

Every business office with more than a handful of employees is also pretty sure to contain at least one clever, clever person who's simply bent on making the other workers look silly or careless or dim-witted. And when by some chance it's one of these groups who gets the pink slip in the weekly envelope, it's just too darn hard for the rest of the folks not to feel one swift shaft of unworthy delight.

Unworthy the feeling may be—in a strict beatific scale of values. But human and natural it certainly is.

To see the trapper trapped, the needler needled is something not at all like seeing really innocent people getting hurt or humiliated by life.

The trapper or the needler isn't innocent at all—although it's often true that the motives behind the needling are buried so deep that nobody suspects they're there. Except the surprised victims.

Sometimes I wonder if there isn't a touch of this instinct, to needle or trap, in a great many otherwise good souls, who'd deny with their last breath that they could possibly be so base.

But couldn't that explain, in part, the popularity of the quiz shows and panel shows on radio and television—the "stump the experts" shows where the whole idea is to trap the so-called superior ones?

I think it's highly possible, myself, and applaud any such prearranged and amusing ways to let folks unleash some of their impulses to show up the professor, the doctor, the office, the neighbors.

But it's just a theory, and perhaps I'd better check it with some expert myself.

Someone as smart as Pat and Mike's Dr. X!

It requires about 15 minutes of camera shooting time for each minute of finished film to be produced on a typical television drama show.

Naked 2-Year-Old Stops Cars With Street Dance

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—A naked 2-year-old boy pranced into a busy street. Traffic stopped until a Boy Scout ushered the youngster back to the safety of the curb.

The little fellow repeated the

Pittsburgh Area Plans New Sewage System

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh and 63 neighboring communities plan a sewage disposal plant costing 70 million dollars.

The project, designed to help clean up the Ohio River, includes 63 miles of sewers, several pump stations and a treatment plant with a daily capacity of 150 million gallons. It is to be finished by 1958.

Highest automobile road in the U. S. is said to be that winding to the summit of Mount Evans, an altitude of 14,360 feet.

Proposal No. 4

Bingo Amendment by Far Hottest Issue for Decision at November Election

(Editor's Note: This is the third and last of a series of articles dealing with the public questions on Michigan's Nov. 2 General Election ballot.)

LANSING (AP) — The shrill cry "Bingo" is heard in the land again this fall — but this time it comes from the mouths of campaigners and not from the geese on the platform with the turkey under his arm.

In Michigan this fall the proponents and opponents of bingo are battling in full force with newspaper, radio, television, platform and word of mouth advertising to pass or defeat a proposal to legalize bingo.

Actually, and technically, the issue is not bingo but legalized lotteries. However, the issue was drawn by those most interested in bingo, and proposal No. 4 on the ballot has become known as the bingo proposal.

The Michigan State Supreme Court has held that bingo is a lottery. The state's 1907 Constitution says flatly: "The Legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets."

The dictionary says that a lottery is "a scheme for the distribution of prizes by lot or chance."

So bingo is illegal in Michigan. It has been illegal since 1907, at least, but everyone knows it was played widely and openly until about two years ago under a gentlemen's agreement that local law enforcement officials would not bother it if the local people wanted it and the state would not step in unless bingo fell into the hands of commercial gamblers.

So bingo was generally the game of small church, fraternal and veterans groups, some of whom also conducted plain lotteries — that is, the sale of tickets giving you a chance to win a new car or television set.

The law's crackdown fell first on bingo in Detroit two years ago and spread rapidly across the state. Unable to restore the "gentlemen's agreement" except in isolated areas, bingo players organized "the Michigan Association of Nonprofit Charitable Organizations" and set about obtaining a constitutional amendment to restore their game.

They succeeded, over many legal and financial hurdles, in obtaining enough signatures to put the proposal on this fall's ballot.

The proposal is to broaden the anti-lottery ban in the Constitution to legalize "subject to statutory limitations" lotteries conducted by or lottery tickets sold by nonprofit charitable organizations, as defined by law.

"Subject to statutory limitations" and "defined by law" means that the Legislature shall decide what type of lotteries are legal, shall define "nonprofit charitable organizations" and shall prescribe the method of controlling this form of gambling.

There has been no decision as to what limitations the Legislature would enact. The Legislature is waiting to learn whether the people approve of the change first.

With both political parties keeping hands off the issue, the protagonists in the fight are the bingo group's association and the Michigan and Detroit councils of churches, which oppose bingo on the ballot.

Charles R. McLean of Lansing, counsel for the association, says it is composed of local chapters of the American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, Catholic War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans, the Moose, Elks, Eagles and Odd Fellows lodges, the Detroit Firemen's Fund, letter carriers' associations, Townsend Clubs, American pension clubs, conservation leagues and similar groups. Some are active in some counties and not in others. Only the Veterans of Foreign Wars had backed bingo on a statewide basis.

The president is Edward MacLaughlin of Merrill, a representative of the Moose lodge and housewares salesman. He has not denied reports that he sells bingo prizes, but reportedly only does so on a small scale. Other officers are Stanley Rozycki of Detroit, a prominent Democrat; Mrs. Toletta Fair of Lansing, a housewife representing the VFW Auxiliary; and treasurer Edward Lindner of Lansing, a retired factory foreman representing the Odd Fellows.

McLean says the officers have watched their county units closely to keep out the infiltration of men or money from bingo prize salesmen, commercialized interests or racketeers. He said the association expected trouble from these sources, but has had none.

McLean said the association fixed quotas for its county units last September on a $60,000 war chest basis, to cover both the circulation of petitions and the advertising campaign. He won't say how much will be spent, but he conceded the budget had to be reduced because the county units did not contribute as asked.

Speaking for the association, McLean said its campaign is based on the theme that bingo helps the hungry, the homeless, the widowed, the aged and the orphaned by allowing citizens to play a harmless game as they contribute.

Answering the major opposing argument that bingo will open the door to commercialized gambling, McLean says:

"The amendment was purposely drafted in broad language without any definitions because we did not want to leave any possibility of a loophole in the Constitution which would permit chiseling and profiteering and would be hard to change. We feel we can trust the Legislature to enact a law requiring a license and close supervision of the use of the proceeds. Then, if any loopholes turn up they can be quickly closed at the next session of the Legislature. We feel the churches should join with us in seeing to it there are good controls. Many counties are permitting bingo now without any controls."

McLean said the association "wants just as bad as anyone to see the proper law passed because we know that the privileges will be withdrawn if it is abused."

For the other side, the Rev. Dean A. Nordhurst, secretary of the church-sponsored Michigan Committee Opposed to Legalized Lotteries, said his group is composed of Protestant and Jewish groups with the backing of the Michigan and Detroit councils of churches, the Presbytery of Detroit, Rabbi Leon Fram of Temple Israel in Detroit, and every major Protestant group in Michigan. The Knights of Columbus has announced it is opposed to legalizing bingo.

Chairman of the committee is Dr. J. Russell Bright, assistant to the president of Wayne University.

Actress Facing Jail for Hit-Run Death

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Lynne Baggett faces a probation hearing and sentence Nov. 17 on a felony charge of hit-run driving in the death of a 9-year-old boy.

A jury convicted her yesterday of that charge but acquitted her of a second felony count of manslaughter. The hit-run charge carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

The 27-year-old blonde testified she "blacked out" and fled after a collision in which Joel Watnick died last July 6.

Reconciled Wife Carries Actor From the Court

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Sonia Sorel, celebrating her decision to reconcile, picked up actor John Carradine yesterday and carried him out of a courthouse building.

The display of exuberance occurred as the couple left a half-hour session with Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle of the Domestic Relations Court.

Carradine and his wife announced they would resume their marriage on a 90-days-or-longer basis. Carradine agreed to drop his charges of misconduct, but his divorce complaint alleging cruelty will not be withdrawn until the reconciliation period ends.

Drama Critic, 72, to Wed Actress Julie Haydon, 44

NEW YORK (AP) — George Jean Nathan, 72-year-old drama critic and a bachelor, plans to marry 44-year-old actress Julie Haydon.

She appeared in Tennessee Williams' "Glass Menagerie" on Broadway in 1946, and since has been acting in television.

Provoos Reindicted in Maryland Trial

BALTIMORE (AP) — John David Provoos, once a clerk in a San Francisco bank, has been reindicted on seven charges of "overt acts" of treason in World War II by collaboration with the Japanese.

A onetime Army staff sergeant, Provoos was convicted of treason in New York in February 1953 and sentenced to life. Then a federal appeals court upset the conviction on the grounds that he should have been tried in Maryland, because he was a prisoner at Ft. Meade at the time of his original indictment.

Send an Unbossed Representative to Lansing!

It's time for a change. It's high time the people of Oakland County were represented by a man who is interested in the welfare of ALL the people.

Let's sweep out the cobwebs at Lansing. Let's start the year with a clean slate, with a man pledged to think out each bill before voting "yes" or "no."

FRED ELIAS is the man.

Elias, with his many successful years of business experience behind him, will bring to Lansing fresh, new, unbossed ideas. He'll get things done, bringing some logic and planning to solve Oakland County's problems. And he'll never let our great county be pushed around by upstate legislators.

Elect Elias to assure your representation at Lansing.

Great Voice Is Heard as Concert Season Opens

By DONNA ANDERSON

One great voice spoke to Pontiac Wednesday evening. Francesco DiBlasi stepped from the wings and commanded the oneness of purpose that makes a symphony orchestra.

Pontiac Symphony Orchestra's 1954-55 concert season has begun. Musicians on the stage of Lincoln Junior High School looked out onto a sell-out audience—and opened their program.

And one of the men who shook hands with the Pontiac Symphony concertmaster was Mischa Mischakoff, concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The guest artist's warm smile of welcome greeted concert-goers as he began the ever-loved Mendelssohn Concerto in E Minor for violin and orchestra.

Anyone who has ever held the tenderness of the concerto's andante movement close to his heart was certainly overwhelmed by this performance.

And perhaps that heart pounded a little harder because it was Pontiac's own symphony playing accompaniment for the master.

In opening its concert the orchestra stepped back 100 years before J. S. Bach. A toccata and fugue by Frescobaldi, greatest of 17th century organists showed that Pontiac Symphony has powers to explore all that the world of music has to offer.

Mr. DiBlasi and his musicians kept their promise as they showed Mozart's masterpiece, Symphony 35 in D Major (Haffner) to Pontiac.

The moods of Debussy's famous piano piece "Clair de Lune" lost none of their haunting fragrances with orchestral interpretation.

Opening measures bowed by a few strings soon commanded entrance of other instruments. With the in-tangible thread of "moonlight interwoven by muted strings, oboe and flute solos. "Clair de Lune" emerged, as usual, an entrancing offering.

Brilliant programming, encompassing as complete a show of forms as one would find in any concert hall embraced the laughter and effervescence of the man who once said, "Give me a laundry list and I'll set it to music."

The rollicking and martial Overture to "La Gazza Ladra" by the "character" of opera greats, Rossini, concluded the program.

But the story doesn't end there. Men and women who care about Pontiac; who consider the man who builds a symphony as ingenious and important as the man who designs a great bridge or cures an intolerable ill, looked happy—and a little more relaxed Wednesday evening.

They are members of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Association and its auxiliary, the Women's Association who have stood behind orchestra personnel with selfless determination since the comparatively recent reorganization.

These tireless workers, with the orchestra's conductor and associate conductor, Celia Merrill Turner, have joined the orchestra to be one great cultural spokesman for Pontiac.

Your reporter couldn't resist a hesitant step to eavesdrop on a pre-concert conversation.

"Isn't it wonderful," one woman said, "that we can find great music so close to home—and all this free, supervised parking?"

That is Pontiac speaking. It wants its orchestra. Pontiac Symphony, now, is like a child with a brilliant mind—we can expect great things from him if his environment will give him a chance.

New Shades Sought for Fall Hose

Checking your fall wardrobe, you'll probably find you've overlooked one item that's gone all out for color harmony this fall—hosiery. The new stocking shades are keyed to new fall colors in order to achieve that much-desired, all-one-color costume look.

For evening wear, you'll find cobwebby-sheer sandalfoot hosiery in delicate tinges of pink, gold, blue or gray to wear with your pastel-colored dressy clothes.

To wear with all-black costumes, there are smoky off-black tones or dramatically black stockings to flatter the legs with shadowy color.

Decorative figures in new fall stockings, too. Some are trimmed with a fine thread of sterling silver sewn into the seam, adding shimmering highlights to the sheer, dark nylon.

There are very pale pink stockings trimmed at the top with a four-inch band of black lace sewn around the welt.

And many of the evening sheers have tiny black velvet bows sewn at the back for feminine glamor. The bows are detachable, too; they can be snapped off before laundering.

For sportswear, there are textured stockings to provide the costume link. There are shadow-check textured nylons to give the effect of tweed mixtures and blend in with tweed or textured woolen sportswear.

Shower Is Given for Mrs. Mickie

A cradle cake flanked by tapers and flowers was an attraction at a pink and blue shower given in honor of Mrs. Hollis Mickie of North Paddock street, Tuesday evening.

Twenty-one employees of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital gathered at the shower, which was given by Mrs. James Wilson and Mrs. Leon Wolverson in the latter's Ivy street home, to honor their former fellow worker.

Sue Dennison Becomes Bride

Sue Carroll Dennison became the bride of Paul B. Thacker in a ceremony performed Sept. 5 in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Thacker of Auburn avenue.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arth Dennison of Newton place. The Rev. Perry Horton performed the rites.

Program Given by Music Guild Tuesday Evening

Mrs. Hazel Gessinger's Rochester home was the meeting place for the Tuesday meeting of Pontiac Music Guild.

Mrs. Don Derragon, program chairman introduced Mrs. Carl Clifford who gave a resume of her experiences while studying at the Mozarteum during the Music Festival at Salzburg, Austria this past summer.

Colored slides of a western trip were shown by the hostess and by Mrs. Roy Wright, a guest. Oscar Schmidt showed slides of a trip to Banff, Lake Louise and Jasper National Park.

Mr. Schmidt, guild president, will be a delegate to the Michigan Music Teacher's Convention to be held at Michigan State College on Nov. 1 and 2.

Others attending this convention will be Mrs. Carl Clifford, Mrs. William Heitsch, Mrs. Lester Snell, Mrs. Schmidt, and Mrs. Martin Wager.

BETTY CLARK

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Clark of Clarkston are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Ken Squires, son of Mr. and Mrs. Day Squires of Omar street. The couple are planning a spring wedding.

Coming Events

Navy Mothers' Club 355, will meet at the Naval Training Center this evening at 7:30.

Ladies Auxiliary 1230 of the Eagles will observe birthday night this evening at 8 in the hall at 280 West Montclair.

Mapleleaf Club will meet Friday at 1 p.m. in Hotel Waldron. Visitors are welcome.

Pontiac City Banquet will meet with Mrs. Maxwell Doerr, 114 Ottawa Dr., Monday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Charles Allen will be hostess. Program will be a talk on How to Decorate with Christmas Greens.

Houseguest Entertained by Family

Mrs. Drouillard Visits W. E. Cashins Before Florida Trip

Mrs. Alice Drouillard of Hastings, formerly of Pontiac, has been visiting for one week with the family of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Cashin Jr. of Chippewa road. Mrs. Drouillard left Tuesday to spend the winter at Daytona Beach.

Mrs. Charles Little has returned to her home on Seminole avenue after a three week visit with her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Howell of Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Ball of Island Park drive have had as their houseguests for the past month, their aunt, Mrs. Frank Hopson of Eastern, Conn. During her stay Mrs. Hopson visited with many friends and relatives in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Clarke Jr. of Avondale avenue are announcing the birth of a daughter, Anne Millicent, born Oct. 22 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Orion Shaw of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Clarke of Holly, formerly of Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bridges (nee Yvonne Scott) of Morganton, N. C., are announcing the birth of a son, Larry Russell, born Oct. 4. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ramos of Oakland avenue, recently returned after a 10 day trip to Morganton.

Suede Takes Steam

Treat your suede shoes and bag to a kettle-steaming and brush cleaning, rather than suede dressing which might rub off on your ankles and hands.

Mother Singers Meet in Rochester

The Pontiac Mother Singers met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Everett Monroe of Rochester, for their October dinner and business session. Mrs. Milton Reddeman assisted the hostess.

Plans were made to attend an operetta and also for a Christmas party. Mrs. Harry Dickie will entertain the group Nov. 18 for a dinner meeting.

Keep Things Handy

If the baby's clothes are in the bedroom and he's bathed in the kitchen, you're wearing yourself out going back and forth. Set aside a drawer or space for his towels and soap and clothes that's near the sink.

Donations Made, Reports Given

Mrs. Hazel Burns and Mrs. J. Donald Moore gave reports for the members of VFW Post 1370 auxiliary who attended the Tuesday meeting held in the South Saginaw Street club rooms.

Donations were made to the National Home in Eaton Rapids, Cerebral Palsy fund and Americanism. Members also doubled their proposed hospital gift and United Fund contribution.

It was announced that a district rally will be held Nov. 21 at Walled Lake. The group sent a gift to the national president and to the department president. New members welcomed were Mrs. Lynn Poole, Mrs. B. L. Jones and Mrs. Howard Kelch.

Anniversary Celebrated by Gold Star Mothers

Chapter Nine, American Gold Star Mothers observed its tenth anniversary Tuesday evening at the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue.

The chapter, which is sponsored by Cook-Nelson Post Auxiliary, was organized by Mrs. Lauretta Stockwell on Oct. 11, 1944 with 19 charter members.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Sybilla Stevens, retiring president. Americanism was the theme of the speech presented by the guest speaker, Lynn Allen.

Madame Schroeder and Jacqueline Kosky, accompanied by Mrs. Hugh A. Watson, presented vocal solos. A skit was presented by Arthur Neitz and was followed by western numbers with Jack E. Stockwell playing violin and Robert Bailey accompanying him on the guitar.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Fred Metzger of Saginaw; Mrs. Arthur Kirkwood of Dearborn; Mrs. Robert J. D'Darmond, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Howard Nichols, Mrs. Rose Jannik, Mrs. William Paul, Mrs. Roscoe Harp, Mrs. Louis Mitchell and Mrs. John W. Rowan of Royal Oak and Mrs. Earl W. Dahlie and Mrs. Irving Emery of Roseville.

Mrs. Arno Hulet, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Charles Crawford, Mrs. Ernest Ogden and Mrs. Russell Thompson represented the Cook-Nelson Auxiliary. Those from Navy Mothers Club 355 were Mrs. William Christie and Mrs. Weller Keenbaugh. Mema of America were represented by Mrs. Edgar Thomas, Mrs. Duncan McVean, Mrs. Bessie Brown and Mrs. William Jones. Mrs. Harold Muller of the Daughters of America was also present.

Presiding at a refreshment table decorated with gold and bronze chrysanthemums were past presidents, Mrs. J. Albert Green and Mrs. Fred Parsons. Chrysanthemum and rose corsages were presented.

Party Slated by New Citizens

Pontiac High School cafeteria will be the setting for a Halloween party for the Pontiac New Citizens League on Saturday evening.

Plans for this party were completed when the league's executive board met recently in the Ann Arbor avenue home of Janice Antona, league president.

Arrangements were also made for the annual citizenship dinner to be held Nov. 4 in the high school cafeteria. Mrs. Paul Kern will speak at this meeting. It was announced that Nov. 2 is the deadline for reservations for this event.

Church Circle Holds Meeting

Mrs. Leo Mineweaver opened her home on Montclair street Wednesday to the Mary Martha Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church.

Thirteen members and one guest were present as Mrs. Von Bandy was welcomed as a new member. Gowns for Korean relief were worked on and projects of the future were discussed.

Mrs. Irl Williams led the group in devotions, using as her theme, "City Lights and Shadows." The November meeting will be a work meeting at the home of Mrs. Williams.

Have Sitter Care for Baby Like Mom

If you're a working mother and must leave Baby in someone else's care, it's best to see that he's handled in much the same way that you'd care for him. It's a good idea to have the sitter watch when you bathe and feed him.

But leave written instructions in addition, so that she can refer to them as needed.

Many Treasures of Old Lavish Living Era Ended Up in Pawn Shops

Follies of Fashion Ideas Decried by Both Sexes

By ANNE HEYWOOD

It pleases me to see how many men are beginning to read these articles, and sometimes their comments are most interesting. Take the following, for example, from an irate husband in Maryland:

"Every year this time, my wife and all the rest of the women make a noise like a lot of sheep and want to run out and buy the latest crazy creation that Paris has dreamed up. My wife is quite pretty, and in the summer, when she wears simple clothes, she looks all right.

But now she's in one of the most idiotic looking suits you ever saw, with a hat that makes her look downright ugly.

"Why do they do it?"

About a week later I got a letter from a wife, equally irate.

"Last night," she said, "my husband started giving me the old stuff about my horrible new hat, and why do I let them pull me around by the nose, and so forth.

And I told him that the way men dress all summer in the cities is just as crazy, maybe crazier, than anything women ever do. All through July and August, he wore suits with jackets, and tight shirts with long sleeves, and ties practically choking him. So he said that men have to, the companies insist on it.

"Look who's talking about what sheep-women are!"

Let me recommend that all such husbands and wives read a new book by Elizabeth Hawes, author of "Fashion Is Spinach." This one is called "It's Still Spinach," and Miss Hawes really sounds off about both subjects.

She thinks both men and women would look better, and be more efficient, if they simplified their garb, and she writes a highly amusing book about it. Her chapter about men's clothes will make any woman howl, but a few chapters later, the laugh will be on her, when Miss Hawes delightfully dissects the designers who set the trend.

This is an opinionated book, but it is guaranteed to give husbands and wives several months of heated discussion, even if they've been married so long that they think there's nothing left to talk about!

The reason there are seldom two women's hats alike is that milliners try not to make the same mistake twice.

The perfect gift is this beautiful floral arrangement encased in an effective shadow box. A flacon of famous perfume is set within an artistic

Obligation Belongs to Her Family

Bride May Expect Visitors Without Sending Invitation

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: "Isn't it up to the new bride to invite relatives of both families and nearest friends to her house as soon as she is settled? My son has been married for several months and his bride has not invited any of our relatives to come to see her. I feel very bad about this as they all have given her lovely wedding presents."

I have never heard of a bride being expected to invite people to come to see her. It is the obligation of both families to go to see her when she returns from her wedding trip. To have her sitting and waiting for people to come to see her and nobody coming is certainly neglecting her and a very sad picture.

Dear Mrs. Post: In my travels all over the United States I have met many families with newly acquired daughters-in-law. In most instances, when mothers-in-law and fathers-in-law are addressed, the words "Mother Smith" and "Father Smith" are used.

Other daughters-in-law use the cold approach and say "Mr. and Mrs. Smith." On the other hand, some even address their parents-in-law by first names. Just what is the correct address for a daughter-in-law to use?

If the parents don't suggest anything closer than "Mr. and Mrs. Smith," then the daughter-in-law is rather helpless unless her husband suggests something else for her to call them.

Dear Mrs. Post: I am the organist of the church in which my son is going to be married. I have been asked to play at his wedding. However, I feel that this would not be proper for the mother of the bridegroom. What is your opinion?

If the organ is close to the altar so that you can have a clear view of the ceremony, it is perfectly all right. Otherwise it is unfair.

Girl 'Friend' Not Worthy of Her Title

Advice Is to Keep Next Beau Away From Her Kind

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

The plotting and politicking some of you do in the name of sweet romance! You line up go-betweens to put on the pressure. You organize little side-issues to create jealousy. You sponsor anonymous phone calls in order to elicit information.

Your best girl friend is, of course, your arch ally in these crimes. You can count on her being on your side always, you think. She's the perfect ambassador of good will. She'll patch things up when you can't. She'll bring you back together when you don't seem to make any headway alone.

Until suddenly you realize that you shouldn't have stirred the pot so fast. You should have solved the thing quietly alone without benefit of any best friend's best-meant assistance. Just as this girl is beginning to find out. She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: I like him a lot and have been out with him often. I thought he liked me, but I've just found out differently. My best girl friend told me that he told her he'd just been stringing me along, he had never liked me at all—in fact, he liked her, my girl friend!

She suggested that now that he liked her she'd have a wonderful chance to get back at him for doing that to me. She went out with him last night and again to-night—and I'm afraid she's getting to like him though she says she's just leading him on.

Do you think that by going out with him she'll eventually fall for him? She has always fallen all over him and if I know her she'll take advantage of him because he likes her.

What do you think of her as a friend? Is she doing me more harm than good by going out with him? Please tell me what to do."

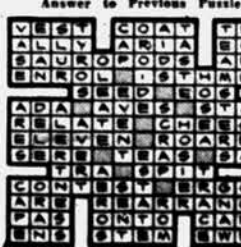

Your girl friend, I'm afraid, is up to no good. She's full of sympathy over the way your romance with him turned out. But it sounds as though she's pretty pleased over it too.

What good can her dates with him do you? Is she likely to tell him "You don't like me, you like my girl friend. And you're not being one speck fair to her in taking me out tonight." (If he thought that she wouldn't be with him.) Is she likely to paint rosy pictures of your charms and talents while she runs herself down? Is she likely to make any real effort to put him back on the track to you?

No, she's out to have a good time herself. She claims it's to punish him for what he did to you. But that's only what she told you—she's being all eagerness as far as he's concerned. If she used to fall all over him it's because she liked him even when he was your beau. And now he's hers—and she's happy about it.

What can you do, but grin and bear it? And enlist no help from her again. She rushed into the breach and ran off with the prize this time. With her cooperation, of course. Say nothing more about it. And keep your next beau away from that girl friend!

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Do You Remember the Golden Age?

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

Just 25 years ago this month the stock market crash lowered the boom which knocked out, probably forever, the lavish living habits of a world where income taxes were hardly felt and great fortunes could be not only made but kept.

I remember reporting on one woman of that period, who lived on a million-a-year scale. Walking into a smart dressmaker's shop and telling the incredulous saleswoman: "I'll take all the articles in the window, please." Ten minutes later, she rolled away in her gay limousine with a hat, suit, stockings, shoes, fur coat and fur piece—and a receipted bill for more than $5,000.

She explained casually as the articles were being packed up that she hadn't been intending to shop that day but couldn't resist stopping when she saw that all the items in the window happened to match exactly the color of her limousine.

One rich westerner used to buy 40 pairs of shoes every season—a pair to match each of her dresses. As a matter of fact, another bought 800 pairs of shoes in one year, but perhaps she shouldn't count since she ended up in a mental institution.

Women determined to live up to every cent of their fabulous incomes could—and did—find such aids as perfectly-matched strings of pearls and rubies. One woman-about-town habitually wore a $300,000 square-cut 127-carat diamond on a chain round her neck without being slugged by bandits.

A fine way of spending change in the rich old days was on magnificent estates. A business executive did his home completely in reproductions of antiques, storing the antique originals which he feared might collapse. This same man had 30 bathrooms, the cheapest of which cost $12,000. Each was done in marble with onyx and gilded bronze trimmings. The bowling alley, I recall, followed a prehistoric cave motif, and the swimming pool was a replica of the water theater at Versailles.

Place plates signed by famous artists cost $1,000 and soup plates $2,000 the dozen. This was just the beginning! One dinner set for 12 put the owner back a cool $70,000. Tablecloths alone could be worth as much as $15,000 apiece—as why shouldn't they when to make each, women in a famous factory worked with magnifying glasses 14 hours a day for two years.

I remember being invited (because I was a reporter) to a deluxe party on Long Island for which the proud father was billed $40,000. At a luncheon later, a hostess paid $1,000 just for place cards. And at a dinner for 200, a famous widow gave gold-and-diamond cigarette cases to all her male guests, and gold-and-diamond compacts to the women.

After the sudden events of 1929, it may surprise nobody to learn, many of these treasures wound up in pawn shops and were a great help in tiding suddenly impoverished spendthrifts over the worst of their troubles.

It's "anchors away"—there's a new idea in hosiery comfort that you'll latch on to right away. The nylons with "the four freedoms" are here. In short—no garters. These won't slip and there's just a gentle cling above the knees.

IF at-home costume—

The one-piece lounge costume for short, while the tall, leggy figure wears velvet or blazer over pants to cut leg length.

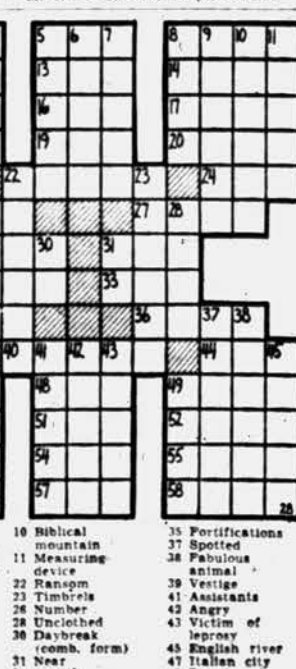

Miss H. C. — A bigger-than-ever popularity is predicted for velvet, for its soft drapability, for its casual ease, for the glowing colors and this new glow surely is flattering in at-home costumes.

Bleach Dye Stains

If your hairdresser accidentally spills some of that hair coloring solution (otherwise known as tint or dye) on your favorite washable fabric dress, here's the simplest and best way to remove the stain: Just soak the garment for several hours in a controlled suds detergent solution to which 1 tablespoon of hydrogen peroxide has been added.

Shoes, Dress Click

For a chic look this fall, get shoes to match, rather than contrast with, your favorite dress-up outfit. Gloves in the same fabric are a fine trick, but don't wear matching shoes and gloves and dress all at once.

Leathers Now Resist Water, Dirt

New Suede Holds Color and Can Be Dry-Cleaned

Were you ever drenched by a sudden downpour while wearing a new suede leather jacket?

Did a waiter ever spill soup all over your new leather coat?

You needn't worry about such mishaps any more. Modern science has put an end to these hazards.

U. S. tanners are now producing suede leather that is crock-proof (the color won't come off) and resistant to water and stains. Other newly developed leather finishes make it easy to clean smooth leather garments with a moist rag and a mild soap, no matter how light in color or delicate in texture.

New technological developments make it possible to dry-clean suede leather garments by conventional methods and at approximately the same price as fabric garments while maintaining velvety sheen and luster of fine suede.

This is all part of the technological revolution in the leather garment field which has made leather popular on both Fifth avenue and Main street.

These new leather finishes and treatments are good news, indeed, since this is the biggest season in history for leather fashions.

For sports, utility and fashion, the entire family is going for leather garments, suits and coats as never before.

And leathers are versatile. They range from the rugged leathers in the warm, scuff-resistant jacket which junior wears to school, to soft and clinging leathers preferred by the Paris designers for their high-style creations.

Fall Conference for WSCS Set for Friday

Feet Deserve Attention

If you've been breaking in your fall shoes, you know your feet should have the attention and pampering they deserve.

A weekly pedicure is important for the health and beauty of your feet. If your feet are neglected and have calluses, corns and ingrown toenails, they cannot do the job of balancing your weight properly.

Start your pedicure by soaking your feet in a foot bath filled with warm soapsuds and water. Using a small brush, scrub your feet. Working up a rich lather, carefully scrub each toenail.

Dry your feet thoroughly and before you start clipping your toenails study the direction in which they are growing now to determine whether you've been cutting them correctly.

If they are growing in a slanted direction, you've been cutting them incorrectly, and you may have had painful, ingrown toenails in the past as positive proof.

To prevent any further pain or discomfort, cut your toenails straight across. This method of cutting also adds support to the toenail and aids it in protecting the tender flesh of the toe tips.

You may have some difficulty in cutting your toenails properly with manicure scissors. One firm has a toenail clipper with a new cutting edge, which, they claim, cuts and shapes toenails correctly. Attached to the clipper is a toenail file with a curved end for safe toenail grooming.

After trimming your toenails, use a pumice stone on the calluses on your heels. Then, lubricate your feet with baby oil.

Country Club Elects Officers

Drew C. Haneline was re-elected president of the Birmingham Country Club at a recent meeting.

Named to other offices were S. E. Dubois, vice president; C. F. Guilmet, secretary and H. M. Stiller, treasurer.

Elected to fill three-year terms as directors were W. T. Birnie, G. I. Connelly, A. V. Lott and H. M. Stiller. Other directors are J. C. Nick, Gale Stringer, A. G. Swenson, C. R. Turner and O. J. Wilson.

All Saints Guild 8 Sets Holiday Event

Guild Eight of All Saints Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. Walter Whisnant on Gordon avenue, Wednesday evening. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Claude Lessel. Devotions were given by Mrs. Amy Harper and a report on the St. Peter Home for Boys was given by Mrs. Clarence Chamberlain. Plans for a Christmas bazaar to be held Dec. 2 were discussed.

Mrs. Herbert Humphreys of Oshawa, Ont., was a guest. The next meeting will be held Nov. 10 at the church.

State Child Study Group Gathers for Annual Conclave in Ann Arbor

Some 400 delegates, representing 130 active clubs and 4500 members, gathered Wednesday in First Methodist Church, Ann Arbor for the annual Michigan Child Study Association convention.

Mayor William E. Brown Jr. welcomed the group to their two-day conclave at the general session in the morning and Deborah Bacon, Dean of Women at the University of Michigan spoke on "The Warm Heart Plus the Clear Mind," emphasizing the helping role of woman.

The afternoon was divided into sectional meetings on pre-school children, in-betweeners, pre-teens, teen-agers, and older citizens, followed by a tea at the home of Mrs. Marian Reicher, wife of the president of the University of Michigan.

Dr. Howard Y. McClusky, professor of psychology in the University's School of Education, was the speaker at the banquet held Wednesday evening in the Michigan Union building.

Introduced by past-president Mrs. C. O. Creal, he immediately announced that he had changed the topic of his talk from "What have we learned about working with children?" to "Parents are teachers, too."

"We're so busy with the mechanics of the home—washing, cleaning, earning money, getting meals on time—that we overlook the teaching function of the home," he began.

"There are some certain inherent advantages in the home as a place of education. The child in the home is more manageable than any other time in his life cycle. He is completely dependent on his parents, and the parent has the right time to be the instructor."

Dr. McClusky then listed the things which should be taught but which are more often just picked up in the home: language behavior, the basic problems of handling money, work habits, the adjustment to different ages, the basic attitudes toward sex, hostility, religion and democracy.

He pointed out the advantages of meal time as a happy instruction period. "The big shots take their clients out to dinner when they want to put a deal across. Parents should follow suit. Don't make it a gripe session—that's the way ulcers start."

The speaker emphasized the "contagion of example" and the "normal context of events"—the teachable moment.

At the conclusion of his talk he was presented with a citation for

Owen School to Be Setting for Hoedowners

Witches and goblins will decorate Owen School Saturday evening for the Hoedowners Ball.

The dance which will be held from 8:30 until 11:30, will mark the beginning of the official season of the Hoedowners Square Dance Club, sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department.

Ralph Monroe, president of the organization, says 40 couples will attend the dance. Program plans are being made by B. D. Hart, while the Ray Freeburys will decorate the hall.

There is still time to join a square dance club for the full season or to join a beginners' group for instruction. Anyone interested should contact the Parks and Recreation Department.

School Elects New Officers

Mrs. Jack Harned was recently elected president of the parent-teacher fellowship of Emmanuel Christian School.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Jack White, vice president; Cleone Rasmussen, teacher vice president; Ross Vaughn, father vice president and Mrs. Kenneth Dudley, secretary.

Mrs. Howard Newbanks is treasurer; Mrs. Harold White, hospitality chairman; Mrs. John Landon, publicity chairman. Mrs. Theron Stickle is principal of the school and Dr. Tom Malone is superintendent.

Junior League Will Sponsor Christmas Sale

A Christmas sale featuring items made by the Detroit League for the Handicapped, a Detroit Red Feather organization, will be sponsored by members of the Birmingham Junior League, Nov. 4 and 5 at the Village Store in Birmingham.

Among the items made by the handicapped, homebound people, will be anything from ski boot covers to table linens and stuffed toys and infants' wear to kitchen accessories and Christmas novelties.

The sale will be held from 9 until 5 on Thursday and from 9 until 9 Friday.

Candy Apples Add to Party Fun

Prepare Syrup, Let Kids Dip In Children Love Dunking Own Treats in Goosey, Delicious Mixture

The do-it-yourself craze extends even to the younger set and food. We have always advocated letting children help in the kitchen; they love to do it, and it is excellent training for the future.

Mrs. Leo Shanks Jr. of Voorheis road and Mrs. A. G. McConnell Jr. of Edgely drive share our belief. They are the leaders of a Brownie troop at St. Benedict School.

Tuesday afternoon, when the Brownies had their Halloween party, Mrs. Shanks and Mrs. McConnell had bright red syrup ready for the little girls to dip apples.

With 18 children, none older than eight years, it was impossible for them to do the actual cooking. But each girl could dip her apple into the sticky syrup, swirl it in a bowl of cold water and set it in the pumpkin centerpiece. Everyone had a good time. Below is printed the recipe which the women used for the candy apples.

CANDY APPLES

4 cups granulated sugar
2 cups white corn syrup
1 cup margarine
Red food coloring

Bring ingredients to a boil and cook until mixture gets to the hard crack stage when tested in cold water. Keep over hot water to keep syrup from hardening. Dip skewered apples. This amount will dip about 25 medium apples.

If any syrup is left over, pour it out on a greased pan for lollypops; put a skewer in each pop before it hardens.

Split and Butter Rolls for Buffet-Style Dinner

When you are serving buffet-style, it is always best to split and butter rolls ahead of time and then heat them.

If French or Italian bread is served you can butter the slices, too; but be sure to have the bread keep its original form because it looks most attractive that way. Cut the slices all the way through so guests won't have to struggle to take a piece while they are holding dinner plates or trays.

Try Baking 2 Pies at Once, Eat One, Freeze the Other

Make it now — eat a wonderful lemon pie two months from now! Welcome news to the homemaker is the fact that lemon meringue pie is just as simple to freeze as any other kind and has more advantages. If you use a few little tricks.

Thanks to modern conveniences like a freezer or freeze compartment in your refrigerator, it is easy to bake two pies at once, eat one and freeze the other for a future day.

The frozen one will be just as good as the one you ate the day you baked it!

Trained home economists in the test kitchens of a citrus fruit company have tested and re-tested a variety of lemon pies in order to work out the most convenient methods for you and to avoid uncertain results with this delicious, ever-popular dessert.

For best results, freeze the baked pie shell with only the filling in it. Freeze the unbeaten egg whites to be used for the meringue separately. Or, use them up and make the meringue with fresh egg whites when the time comes.

On the day you want to eat the pie you follow three steps as easy as A B C. Make a meringue, spread it on the unthawed pie, bake briefly to brown the meringue. That's all you need do to serve a mouth-watering, delicate pie without any clutter or fuss.

FREEZING THE PIE

Bake the pie shell in a regular or foil pie plate, pour in the cooled filling, cover with a piece of tape. Place in foil, or moisture-vapor proof paper or in a plastic bag and fasten securely. This way, the pie is protected and other foods can be stacked in with it. Store at zero degrees.

Length of time frozen lemon pie can be kept in the freezer successfully is longer than you'd think. A lemon meringue pie using fresh lemon juice (meringue made at serving time) was baked and frozen on Dec. 8 in the test kitchen. It was eaten on Feb. 2 — with flaky crust, good flavor and consistency in the filling, good volume in the meringue — a delicious pie!

MERINGUE

If you freeze the egg whites, be sure there is no egg yolk in with them. Thaw them at room temperature two or three hours before making the meringue. Egg whites can be frozen as long as the pie, at zero temperature (or below).

When you have made the meringue, it goes right on the frozen pie (no thawing here) and immediately into a 350 oven where it will brown in 15 to 20 minutes.

Spread on the cold pie, the meringue acts as an insulator (like Baked Alaska) and will cool in less time than usual after you take it from the oven.

TIPS FOR PERFECTION
Freezing will not change a poor pie into a good one — the frozen version is never better than the original. For a perfect pie, be sure to cook the filling long enough. When the filling is thick enough it will hold its shape and not "weep." Be sure to beat the egg whites thoroughly so as to have a high, light, fluffy meringue that will hold up.

Other types of lemon pies can be home-frozen successfully too. The following pies were frozen successfully in the test kitchen. Heavenly Fluff (cinnamon type). Magic Lemon Pie (made with sweetened condensed milk with whipped cream topping). Two Crust Lemon Pie. Lemon Cheese Pie — crumb crust. Lemon Tarts.

Jonathans Save Time in Making Applesauce

Time savers are the crisp, spicy red Jonathan apples which may be used for applesauce without paring or coring.

Simply wash the apples, remove stems and cut in quarters. Simmer in small amount of water, covered, until apples are soft, about 10 minutes. Press through a food mill, colander or sieve; stir in sugar and cinnamon to taste. Add grated lemon peel if desired.

Add Zip to Rarebit

Weich rarebit is a universal favorite. To give added zip, sprinkle chili powder over the bubbling golden mixture just before serving. Looks pretty and tastes oh, so good.

Crunch Dessert Easy, Nutritious

If you're looking for a delicious dessert to add to your collection of family favorites, get your scissors right now and prepare to snip out this recipe. It's Cranberry Crunch, a something-different dish that brings 'em back for seconds. But aside from being so delicious, this dessert will rate high with you because it's easy, economical and nourishing. Easy because it calls for only five ingredients. Economical because it's made with instant whole wheat cereal, the kind with extra wheat germ added.

The cereal also accounts for much of the good nourishment because, being whole wheat, it provides whole-grain nutrients essential to good health.

Cranberry Crunch is good served cold with ice cream or your favorite whipped topping. Or serve it warm from the oven with ice cream or vanilla or lemon sauce. Add here's a take-it-easy tip for you if you prefer to serve it warm: Make the Cranberry Crunch in the less-buried hours of the morning. Then, shortly before dinner, pop it in the oven. And when the family is ready for dessert, bring it out, fragrant, steamy hot and delicious.

Cranberry Crunch Dessert
1 cup uncooked instant whole wheat cereal
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 can (1 pound) cranberry sauce, jelled or whole
Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees). Grease 8-inch square pan. Mix instant whole wheat cereal, flour and brown sugar in 10-cup bowl. Cut in butter with pastry blender or two knives until mixture resembles coarse crumbs.

Press half of cereal mixture into bottom of pan. Cover with cranberry sauce. Top with rest of cereal mixture. Bake on center rack of oven 45 minutes.

Serve warm or cold, topped with a heaping tablespoon either of whipped cream, a commercial topping or ice cream, or with a lemon or vanilla sauce. Makes eight 2 x 4-inch servings.

Lemon Crates Vanish

Have you noticed that your grocer is taking lemons from corrugated paper cartons instead of from nailed wooden crates? This new method of wholesale packaging was developed by the California experiment station. Estimated savings amount to 39 cents a box and about 3 million dollars a year.

Add half a cup of finely chopped water cress to a standard baking powder biscuit recipe. Serve with fried chicken.

Crunchy Cake Wakes Appetite

Pineapple Crunch Cake tempts lazy morning appetites. The topping of cinnamon, brown sugar and nuts hints at how good this coffee cake will taste.

The real surprise comes when you bite into it. It has a center layer of crushed pineapple and more of the cinnamon-sugar-nut mixture.

Pineapple Crunch Cake

1½ cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk
3 tablespoons melted shortening
Cinnamon nut crumbs
½ cup crushed pineapple, well drained (8 ounce can)

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine egg, milk and shortening. Add to flour mixture, stirring until mixture is smooth.

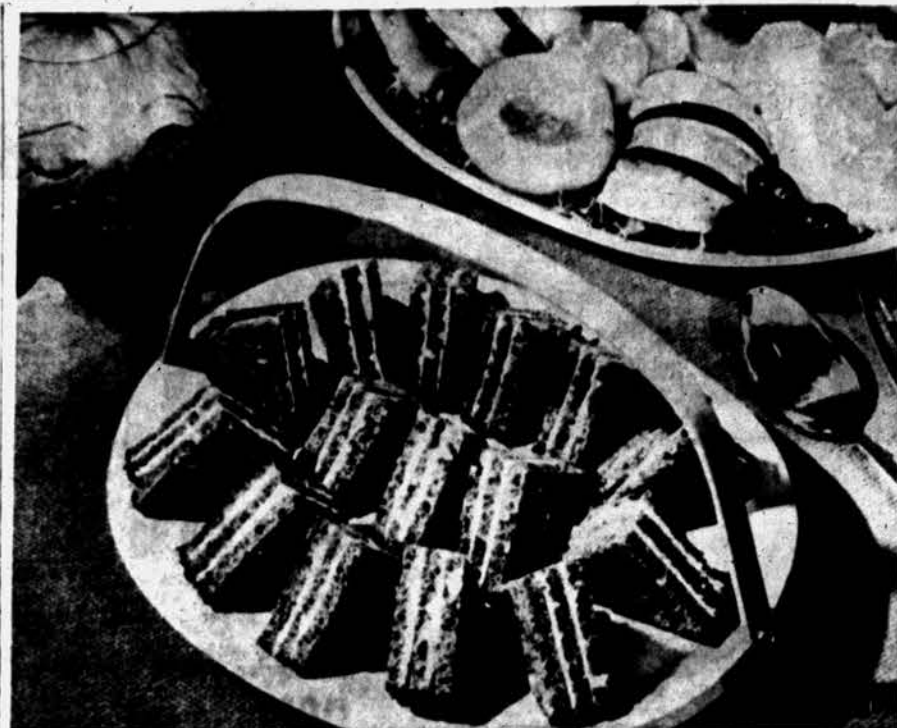

Pour one-half of batter into greased 8-inch square pan. Sprinkle with one-half cinnamon nut crumbs. Spread pineapple over crumbs.

Spread remaining batter evenly over pineapple and top with remaining cinnamon nut crumbs. Bake in moderately hot (400) oven 25 minutes. Makes one coffee cake.

Cinnamon Nut Crumbs

½ cup sifted enriched flour
½ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup chopped nuts

Mix flour, brown sugar and cinnamon. Cut or rub in butter or margarine until mixture is crumbly. Add nuts, mixing lightly. Sprinkle over coffee cake batter.

PUMPKIN NUT BREAD—Whether you're having a party or just a snack for the family on Halloween, this new pumpkin nut bread is the perfect refreshment solution. It's temptingly spicy and is good either served with butter or made into sandwiches.

Put Spice Into Halloween With Pumpkin Nut Bread

Pumpkins and Halloween practically go hand in hand — and here's a delightful new way to use pumpkin in the refreshments as well as the decorations of the day. This pumpkin nut bread, as its name implies, has pumpkin for flavor and color and chopped pecans for crunchiness.

A skillful merger of spices plus orange juice and rind brighten up the already good pumpkin flavor.

Spicy pumpkin nut bread is so good it may well go to the table with only a light buttering to set it off.

For truly glorious eating though, make little triple decker sandwiches of it, using cream cheese as the filling. Serve with a fruit plate for either snack or party fare.

Pumpkin Nut Bread

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon allspice
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup coarsely chopped pecans

1 egg slightly beaten
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup solid pack canned pumpkin
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon orange juice
½ cup evaporated milk
3 tablespoons butter, melted

Sift together the flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices into a large mixing bowl. Stir in nuts. Beat egg in medium-size mixing bowl. Blend in sugar, pumpkin, orange rind and juice, milk and butter. Add to dry ingredients all at once and stir just until dry ingredients are moistened.

Turn into a well-greased 1-pound loaf pan, 8½x4½x3½ inches. Bake in moderate, 350-degree, oven until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean, about 30 minutes.

Loosen bread from sides of pan with spatula or pancake turner. Turn out onto cooling rack. May be served warm or cold. Makes one loaf.

Squash is plentiful and reasonable priced. One acorn squash usually makes two or three servings.

Learn How to Fix Meals With Peppery Personality

How well-seasoned is your knowledge of pepper? What are peppercorns and when do you use them in cooking? Is there a practical advantage in using a pepper mill at the table? What is the difference between white and black pepper and when should each be used?

Ground black pepper is easily used more often in this country than any other spice, but there are other forms of pepper the home-maker should also know about.

Pepper comes from the berry of a climbing vine. When dried, the berry is called a peppercorn. This is the whole form of black pepper.

The homemaker can make wide use of whole pepper if she remembers that the flavor is not released until the peppercorn is ground or subjected to heat. For proof of this, hold one in your mouth. You'll find next to no taste, unless you bite into it.

Commercially ground pepper retains all of the flavor needed for good seasoning, but grinding the peppercorns at the table is a delightful gourmet experience.

Since heat also releases flavor, peppercorns make good seasoning agents for stews, soups and other long-simmering dishes. Their flavor is given off more slowly than in the case of ground pepper. Just drop them in the pot and the long cooking will bring out the flavor gradually.

White pepper is a slightly milder form of pepper than black and is used in cooking when more delicate flavor and light color is desired. Incidentally, it comes from the same berry as black pepper.

White pepper is the product of the white, inner kernel of the peppercorn, whereas black pepper comes from the entire peppercorn which includes a dark outer husk. Look at ground black pepper closely and you'll see it is actually a mixture of dark and light particles.

4 whole peppercorns
Water to cover

Cook tongue until tender (three to four hours) with peppercorns and enough water to cover in covered kettle. Do not remove tongue from cooking water until it is cool enough to handle. Remove skin and root end. Slice and serve with the following raisin sauce:

Raisin Sauce
3 tablespoons margarine or butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups tongue stock
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
1/2 cup seedless raisins
4 whole peppercorns
2 whole cloves
1 teaspoon powdered dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Melt margarine or butter in a saucepan. Blend in flour. Remove from heat and stir in tongue stock. Add remaining ingredients.

Cook until slightly thickened, stirring frequently. Serve over sliced tongue or ham. Yield 8 to 10 servings.

Curried Applesauce Sparks Ham, Kraut

For a fall dinner, the combination of grilled ham (now much less expensive), curried applesauce and sauerkraut has a luscious appetite appeal.

Gertrude Lynn, one of New York's top thinker-uppers of delicious recipes, originated this combination.

Curried Applesauce With Grilled Ham and Sauerkraut

1 teaspoon curry powder
1 tablespoon sugar
2 cups canned applesauce
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon finely minced onion

Combine curry powder and sugar; add to applesauce with lemon rind and onion. Chill.

Arrange grilled ham steak on platter. On one side of platter arrange seasoned canned sauerkraut, and on the other side arrange the curried applesauce.

Makes four-six servings.

Broil Bacon on Rack

When you are broiling bacon, it's a good idea to use a rack in a shallow pan. Place the fat edge of each slice so it overlaps the lean edge of another slice. Broil several inches from source of heat about three minutes on each side, turning once.

New-Fangled Milk Used in Old Standby

Here's old-fashioned rice pudding made with thrifty new-fashioned dry milk.

Raisin Rice Pudding

1/2 cup rice
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 cup instant dry milk powder
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
2 cups water

1 cup raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained)
1 egg (slightly beaten)
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Place rice, sugar and 1 1/2 cups water in top of double boiler. Cover and cook over hot water about one hour, or until all water has been absorbed.

Sprinkle nonfat dry milk powder and nutmeg over surface of 2 cups water. Beat with rotary beater until blended.

Add milk mixture and raisins to rice. Continue to cook 40 to 45 minutes; remove from heat.

Gradually stir in beaten egg and vanilla. Serve hot or cold. Makes 4 cups—four to six servings.

The crispness of fall days seem to cry for hearty pork roasts. Add a dash of sawdust seeds to the roast before you pop it into the oven. The taste is wonderful with pork—with veal, too, for that matter.

Chill Gelatin in Freezer

Chilling a molded salad may be hastened by placing the hot liquid gelatin mixture in the refrigerator freezer section for about 10 minutes. If, however, the liquid becomes congealed and you want to add some solids, melt over hot water and re-chill to proper consistency.

Apple Cookies Suit the Season

Having a Halloween party? Or getting ready for trick or treat callers who are sure to be ringing your doorbell on All Witches Eve?

A timely suggestion for party eats and treats are today's 10-minute apple cookies, made with oatmeal. These cookies have unusually good keeping qualities so make them in quantity and have some left over for school lunchboxes and mid-afternoon snacks.

10-Minute Apple Cookies

- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup quick cooking oatmeal
- 1 cup raisins
- 1/2 cups red delicious apples, chopped
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
- 2 cups flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup chopped walnuts, optional

Cream shortening with sugar. Add eggs and blend well. Stir in oatmeal, raisins, chopped apples and lemon peel. Sift flour, measure and sift again with salt, baking powder, soda and cinnamon. Stir into creamed mixture. Add walnuts if desired.

Drop from a teaspoon onto a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

KRAUT, PORK AND APPLESAUCE—Sauerkraut dish. The creamy meat dish provides an excellent teamed with pork is an old story; but sauerkraut contrast in looks and taste to the more highly seasoned vegetable-fruit dish.

Kraut Accents Pork Stroganoff

Looking for a new recipe to serve next time you feel something festive is in order? Why not investigate this recipe for Pork Stroganoff with Kraut 'n' applesauce?

It's an unusual and exciting way of preparing a tried-and-true flavor team. Your food budget won't be dented either.

The kraut is given a taste-twist by adding canned applesauce and chopped pimientos, and the pork gets an epicurean touch with fresh mushrooms, onions and sour cream.

We're sure you'll find this a dish of distinction to offer at your dinner table. Cups of fragrant tea are the ideal beverage accompaniment.

Pork Stroganoff with Kraut 'n' Applesauce

- 1 pound fresh pork shoulder, cut in strips
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup chopped onions
- 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 1 cup chicken stock or bouillon
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 No. 2 can sauerkraut
- 1 cups canned applesauce
- 1 tablespoon chopped pimientos

Sprinkle pork strips with salt and pepper. Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine and add pork. Sauté over medium heat until all sides are lightly browned; add onions and mushrooms and continue cooking until onions are tender.

Add chicken stock or bouillon; cover and continue cooking until pork is tender, about 45 minutes. Add sour cream and heat to serving temperature.

About 20 minutes before pork is done, combine sauerkraut, applesauce, pimientos and remaining 3 tablespoons butter or margarine. Cook over medium heat 20 minutes.

Serve pork mixture over sauerkraut. Makes four servings.

Marinated Liver Good When Deep Fat Fried

Even people who don't like liver usually admit it tastes good this way! Cut the liver in 1-inch cubes and marinate in French dressing for an hour or so; drain the liver, roll in flour and deep fry in hot fat until well browned.

Spice Avocado Spread

Add chili powder in goodly amounts the next time you're serving avocados for a cocktail spread. Spark lavishly with lime juice. Add chopped fresh tomatoes if you choose. It's a party treat.

All Out of Some Ingredient? Learn What to Substitute

By JANET ODELL, Pontiac Press Food Editor

The other day when I was doing some baking, I found that I didn't have enough shortening to make all the recipes I had planned. You know, that was sort of a challenge. When it happened, I was more determined to make what I had begun.

But how to do it? In this particular instance it was easy. One of my recipes called for melted shortening so I simply substituted salad oil.

The above brings up the question of what can be substituted for what. Let's start with shortening. It is not a good idea to substitute liquid shortening for solid shortening unless the recipe calls for melted shortening.

If you have only salad oil, you can always make a chiffon cake or an angel food cake. But if you MUST substitute, seven-eighths cup of salad oil equals 1 cup butter.

Remember 10 years or so ago when we had sugar rationing? We had to have a whole new set of recipes that specified corn syrup or honey instead of sugar. Here also, don't try makeshift substitution; hunt up a recipe that calls for what you have. You will be more satisfied with the result.

On the other hand, there are certain substitutions you can make. Three level tablespoons of cocoa plus 2 teaspoons of shortening are the equivalent of 1 ounce (one square) of baking chocolate. Blend the cocoa with the sugar or flour used in the recipe.

No pastry flour in the house? That's all right. Just take 2 tablespoons of flour out of each cup of all-purpose flour called for, and your recipe will be fine. Incidentally, if you will add 2 tablespoons of cornstarch in place of the flour you've removed, you'll have the equivalent of a famous brand of cake flour.

When a recipe calls for cornstarch, 2 teaspoons of flour may be used instead of 1 teaspoon of cornstarch. You may reverse this too, using the lesser amount of cornstarch in place of flour.

One-fourth teaspoon soda plus one-half teaspoon cream of tartar is the substitution for 1 teaspoon of baking powder. But I have found no substitute for cream of tartar.

I was caught in the middle of a cake recipe that called for cream of tartar and found I was out of it. The cake didn't rise, but it tasted good enough as a pudding for guests to take second helpings.

Cream of tartar has one peculiar use. Dissolved in water, it will help remove rust stains on white material if you boil it up for 15 minutes or so.

Molasses, honey, maple syrup and corn syrup are more or less interchangeable. Which one you use determines the flavor of the finished dish.

You need never be without sufficient milk now days. Just keep a box of dry skim milk in the house. The new instant version lets you mix and use the milk immediately.

You may mix it with water or simply add one-fourth cup dry milk with the other dry ingredients and add 1 cup of water instead of the 1 cup of milk called for.

I often use coconut in place of nuts in a cookie recipe. Dates and raisins can be interchanged if the dates are cut fine. Of course, there again the flavor will be a little different.

Cooking need never be dull. Experiment with different ideas as you go along; then when an emergency faces you—such as lack of a certain ingredient—you won't be flustered.

Buffet Salad Teams Macaroni, Apples

Indoor buffet suppers are back again, and for easy pre-party preparation why not choose a hearty macaroni salad to round out your menu?

Guests will love this crisp and colorful version served with frankfurters, cold cuts or cheeses.

Macaroni Apple Salad

- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 quarts boiling water
- 2 cups elbow macaroni (8 ounces)
- 2 medium-sized red apples, chopped
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped parsley
- 1/2 cup sliced blanched almonds
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil.

Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Rinse with cold water; drain again.

Combine remaining ingredients with cooked macaroni; mix lightly but thoroughly. Chill before serving. Makes 6 servings.

Have you tried this? Add 2 teaspoons of grated orange or lemon rind to your pastry the next time you bake a fruit pie.

New Sausages Are Precooked

Pump sausage links top a quick macaroni casserole for a luncheon or supper dish prepared in a matter of minutes. The sausage is the new brown 'n' serve type which is being introduced in this area.

It is fully cooked as purchased and may be heated through on the top of the casserole without pre-cooking. Because the infra-red cooking given the sausage also removes waste drippings, there is no greasiness in the dish.

The radiant cooking captures the flavor of the sausage at the peak of freshness and one-half pound of the fully cooked sausage makes four to five servings, the equivalent servings from a full pound of regular pork sausage which shrinks half in cooking.

Quick Sausage Luncheon
1/2 pound brown 'n' serve sausage
4 cups cooked elbow macaroni
1 1/2 cups condensed cream of tomato soup
1/2 cup sliced pimiento olives
Combine macaroni, soup and olives. Place in a baking dish, 7x11x2 inches. Top with sausage links. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 15 minutes. Makes four servings.

Glorify French Fries

The favorite French-fried potatoes can take on a new glamor by the simple act of sprinkling a when you take them piping from the hot fat. Gourmet fare, for sure!

QUICK SAUSAGE LUNCHEON—This easy luncheon casserole makes use of the new brown 'n' serve sausage now available in the meat case of your favorite store. Elbow macaroni, canned tomato soup and stuffed olives complete the dish.

Health Sandwiches Feature Sardines

Once tried, this sandwich filling is sure to be used often.

Sardine Health Sandwiches

1 3/4-ounce can Norway sardines
1 large carrot
1 scallion
2 or 4 tablespoons mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing
Salt and pepper
Sliced bread
Lettuce or romaine

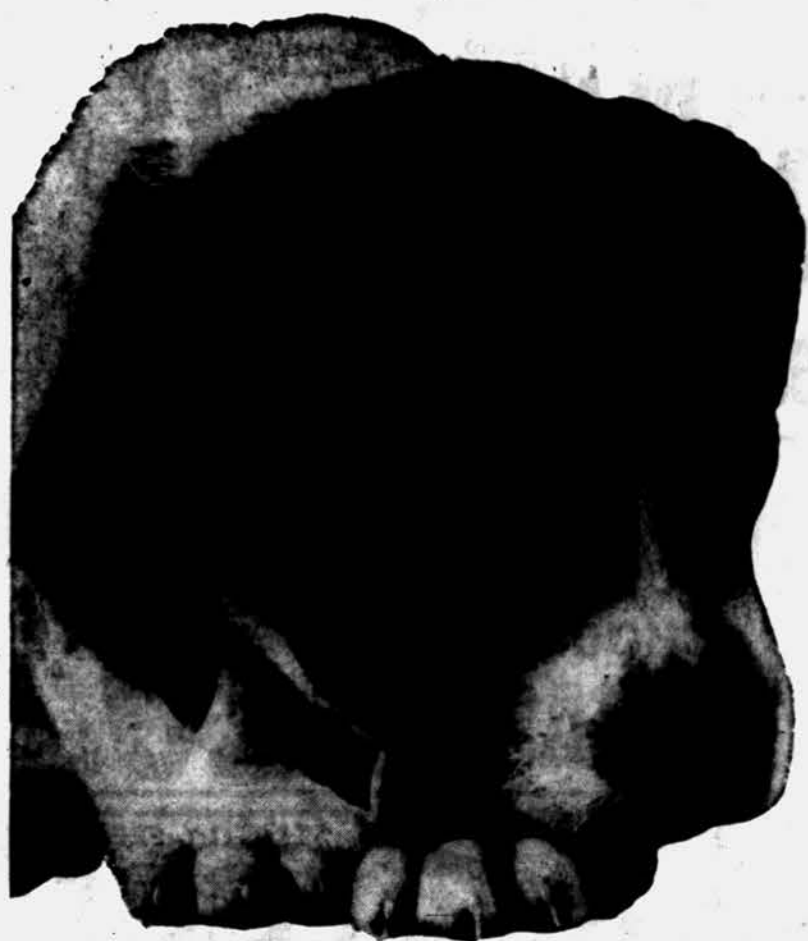

Empty sardines into mixing bowl with oil from can; mash. Grate carrot medium-fine; there should be a generous one-half cup packed down. Mince scallion (including green tops) there should be 2 or 3 tablespoons.

Mix carrot, scallion and mayonnaise with sardines; add salt and pepper to taste. Makes almost 1 1/4 cups filling.

Make sandwiches of the filling, bread and lettuce; use 2 to 5 tablespoons of the filling for each sandwich, depending on thickness of bread and preferences. Cut in triangular halves.

Friskies Dog Food Guards Against HIDDEN HUNGER*

* Caused by a lack of certain food elements essential to normal growth and health.

UNLIKE PEOPLE, your dog can't tell you when his vitality is running low. Unknown to you, the food you are giving him may lack essential food elements he needs for normal growth and health.

IN DOG FOOD, as in everything else, you get what you pay for...no more. Cut-rate brands are no bargain. You may think you are saving a few pennies a day, but these foods cannot possibly give your dog Friskies' protection against "Hidden Hunger."

FRISKIES provides your dog with every known food element he needs. Friskies gives him rich, red horse meat, from choice steaks, chops and roasts. Every ingredient is certified by U. S. Government meat and food inspectors. The Government seal on the can guarantees this. CONSIDER FOR A MOMENT, isn't your dog's love and affection worth the extra protection you give him when you feed Friskies? It's the "table-quality" dog food that's backed by over 50 years' experience in animal nutrition.

Celery Victor Enhanced by Three Gourmet Tricks

Vegetables can be fun to prepare, and mighty fine eating too, when you know how to dress them up without disguising their natural flavors.

Take your cue from the chef on this Celery Victor specialty which can be served as a vegetable entrée, as an appetizer-salad or, more elaborately dressed, as a plate salad, making up almost an entire meal.

It is always the hidden tricks of the chef that lift a seemingly familiar food into the gourmet bracket. You'll find three such in this recipe. Two we'll let you discover for yourself.

The other is MSG—nature's own wonderful flavor enhancer, that brings out good tastes in all foods and is a special must for vegetables.

It restores garden-fresh flavors that have diminished through standing and storage... makes vegetables taste "just picked" succulent... delicious.

Celery Victor

4 hearts of celery (1½ pounds)
1 cup chicken broth
¼ teaspoon MSG
½ cup French dressing
Anchovies
Tomato wedges
Lettuce or watercress

Wash celery thoroughly without separating stalks. Cut lengthwise into two or four pieces, depending on size. Cut off most of leafy tops.

Place celery in pressure saucepan with broth and MSG. Cook at 15 pounds pressure for six to eight minutes, or simmer in broth in covered saucepan until celery is tender. Remove and drain.

Place celery in shallow dish; pour French dressing over and marinate for one hour or more as it cools. Turn occasionally. Chill thoroughly.

Arrange celery with two strips of anchovies over each heart, with tomato wedges, on watercress or lettuce. Serves six to eight.

To serve as a plate salad, add a generous portion of crabmeat, lobster or mixed seafoods with mayonnaise; sliced or halved hard-boiled eggs, wedges or slices of tomato, and such contrasting colorful garnishes as fresh lemon, ripe olives, small pickles or pimiento strips.

Trick or Treat Crowd Will Appreciate Gum

Want to win youngsters' thanks instead of pranks when Halloween comes rolling around? It's easier than pie, less of a burden on little tummies, and costs a lot less, too. Just treat 'em to sticks or packages of wholesome, tasty chewing gum.

Chewing gum is a real Halloween treat inspiration, because no matter how much gum a youngster receives, he won't have too much. Besides, even if little spooks and goblins descend on you in droves, you can treat them all without making a big dent in your pocketbook.

Chewing gum is easy to dispense, too. It's compact, neatly and securely wrapped, and a cinch to handle.

Kids Will Love 'Friendly Flip'

This is the Friendly Flip. He'll grin from ear to ear for your moppet's after-school snack. If you give him a jelly bean tooth or two to show.

Jelly beans and mint rings create a whimsical face you can do in seconds just to make eating fun for a child.

This fellow is bigger than real. You'll find his real-life brothers with baked-in grin packaged individually, at your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department.

Flips are cookbook quality sponge layers with creamy marshmallow filling. Not too sweet—not too much—for an after-school treat.

It's a finger food, to enjoy with a big glass of milk.

Put Tuna in Rarebit

Cat-Face Tarts Tasty, Amusing

How about black cat tarts, with a filling of appetizing mince-meat, as highlights of your Halloween party refreshments? They go well with fruit and cider, nuts and raisins, all traditional Halloween fare.

And they help carry out the traditional decorative theme, too. Arranged on a tray, they make a highly decorative centerpiece for the refreshment table.

Just make one-crust mince-meat tarts. While they are baking, cut scraps of pastry into tiny pieces for eyes, noses, mouths, for the cats' faces. Also, cut some long triangular pieces for ears.

Bake them to a delicate brown. When the tarts are partly cool, arrange the pastry features on the tops of the tarts, and stick two little ears upright in each. NEW SAUSAGES—STUB 5

One 9-ounce condensed package of mince-meat and one recipe of pastry make from six to eight tarts, according to size.

Halloween Black Cat Tarts
1 9-ounce package condensed mince-meat
1 1/2 cups water
3 tablespoons sugar
Pastry

Break condensed mince-meat into small pieces. Add water and sugar. Place over heat and stir until lumps are thoroughly broken. Boil briskly for one minute. Cool.

Line small tart pans with pastry. Spoon cooled mince-meat into them. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) until crust is golden brown.

When tarts are baked, cool slightly and decorate each with two eyes, a nose and a mouth cut from pastry and browned, with two small ears stuck upright at the top of the tart.

BLACK CAT TARTS—Cat-faced tarts made of mince-meat are sure to be favorites with the teenagers at a Halloween party. The eyes, nose and

Treat 'Beggars' to Apple Juice

"Trick or treat" is the merry demand on Halloween when you answer your overworked doorbell. So, in the spirit of the occasion, offer a treat . . . apple juice!

It's appropriate, acceptable and agreeable. It's delicious, delectable, and delightful. It's healthful, happy and heartening. In short, a good bet for the time and occasion . . . and an economical one.

You can dress up the juice, or simply serve it as it comes from bottle or can, depending on your mood. But no matter what your choice, apple juice, is an easy refreshment and a most welcome one in which to toast Halloween, or, indeed, to offer at any time to anyone.

Apple juice is the pure juice of apple. Crisp, fresh-picked apples are placed between heavy presses and out streams their golden juice, rich, tangy, the very flavor-heart of the apple.

For Halloween "trick or treat," you might offer apple juice fixed in one of these fun ways:

Halloween Brew
Pour chilled apple juice into tall glasses or paper cups; place lemon or orange stick candy into each glass. The candy is used in place of a straw.

Sparkling Apple Juice Julep
3 cups chilled apple juice
1 1/2 cups chilled gingerale
4 maraschino cherries with stems
Just before serving, combine apple juice and gingerale. Pour over ice cubes in tall glasses. Garnish with maraschino cherries. Yields four servings.

Store Steak Properly

You can buy a steak three to five days ahead of the time you plan to use it, but see that you store it properly. Make sure the steak lies flat on waxed paper and wrap it loosely. Keep the steak in the coldest part of your refrigerator—but not in the freezing compartment—until you are ready to cook it.

Sauces, Garnishes Tame Wild Taste of Game Birds

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

One of the neighbors went by the other day with a large cock pheasant he had shot in the nearby woods. I half envied him, remembering how good pheasant tastes. Then one of my co-workers reported that he had shot some wild ducks.

Everyone is getting into the act, except me. But I can give you ideas how to cook your wild birds.

Unfortunately, some wild ducks have a fishy or muddy taste that spoils their eating. If you will soak them two or three hours in strong salt water with a tablespoon of soda added, some of that taste will be removed.

Then stuff them with celery leaves and apple; but throw away the stuffing before you serve the ducks—it absorbs the wild taste.

I know that some cookbooks say never to soak the game and to cook ducks only to the rare stage. You may do as you like. I simply offer a means of getting rid of an unpleasant taste.

Here is a sauce that is wonderfully good with wild duck; it is equally good with venison. Better clip and save it.

Hunter's Sauce
1/2 cup red currant jelly
1/2 cup port wine
1/2 cup catsup
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Combine all ingredients in a small saucepan; stir over low heat until jelly and butter are completely melted and sauce is piping hot.

Serve warm with wild duck, venison chops, venison steak, roast venison, ham loaf or baked ham. Makes 1 cup.

Instead of just roasting wild duck every time, why not try barbecuing it once? This recipe calls for pecans in the dressing.

Barbecued Duck, Pecan Dressing
Prepare ducks for roasting. Mix the following ingredients for dressing:

1 cup chopped celery
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup minced raisins
1 cup chopped pecans
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 beaten eggs
1 cup scalded milk

Stuff ducks with the dressing and sew up the openings. Bake as usual and baste the ducks with your favorite barbecue sauce during cooking.

What do you serve with game? Of course you want the bird to be the piece de resistance, so plan everything else to complement the duck or pheasant.

All kinds of fruit garnishes are appropriate: Fried, candied, stewed, broiled or baked. Tart jellies, green peppers, pimientos and practically all types of relish are also appropriate. Many people like to serve wild rice with game.

Orange is a natural accompaniment for duck. This is the beginning of the citrus fruit season, and you might like to serve poached orange slices with your next wild duck dinner.

Poached Orange Slices

1 cup water
2 cups sugar
Juice 1 lemon (3 tablespoons)
Sliced oranges

Combine first three ingredients in an aluminum skillet or a shallow saucepan and simmer five minutes. Wash and cut seedless oranges into slices three-eighths-inch thick, and drop them into the hot syrup. Simmer until tender. Lift out and serve hot.

The syrup may be used several times if a little more water and sugar are added each time.

Serve Broiled Eggs as Sunday Special

Now is the time to enjoy more eggs in family menus. They are low in price, very good in quality and one of the best sources of top-grade protein.

For Sunday breakfast, why don't you surprise the family with broiled eggs with buttered bread crumbs?

Broiled Eggs
Heat just enough fat to grease a shallow skillet or flame-proof baking dish. When fat is just hot enough to sizzle a drop of water, break eggs and slip into skillet—from a sauce dish if preferred.

Cook on top of the range just until edges turn white, about one minute. Turn skillet in heated broiler and broil eggs at moderate temperature to desired doneness, two to four minutes.

Variations
(1) Pour 1 teaspoon of cream per egg into skillet when edges are white and before placing in broiler.

(2) Sprinkle over eggs 1 teaspoon grated cheese or buttered crumbs before placing in broiler.

Spareribs Taste Best With Kraut, Applesauce

Spareribs just naturally call for sauerkraut and applesauce. And the easiest way of serving either kraut or applesauce is from a can or jar. Open and heat . . . neat, quick and delicious.

Canned apple slices are also zesty with spareribs and kraut . . . and are simple to serve, hot or cold.

Forty-four per cent of American families with school-age children use 16 or more pounds of apples per month, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Porcupine Soup Whets Appetites

Rice Porcupine Soup is an ideal prescription for lagging or ravenous appetites. In fact, it's just plain good eating.

It is a quickly made soup, pungent with bay leaf and smacking of the flavor of good, old-fashioned homemade soup. The uncooked rice in the meat balls fluffs up so that the meat remains juicy and flavorful.

Here is a recommended menu:
Rice Porcupine Soup
Lettuce and Tomato Sandwiches
Chocolate Cupcakes
Milk

Rice Porcupine Soup
1/2 pound ground beef
1/2 cup uncooked rice
1/2 cup minced onions
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup diced carrots
1/2 cup diced celery
1 10-ounce can condensed tomato soup
4 cups water
1 small bay leaf

Combine meat, rice and half of the onions, salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly. Shape into 18 balls. Brown in heated shortening.

Place meatballs in 4-quart kettle. Add carrots, celery, tomato soup, water, bay leaf, and remaining onions, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil. Lower heat and simmer slowly about 45 minutes. Remove bay leaf.

Serve piping hot with crackers or hard rolls. Serves six.

RICE PORCUPINE SOUP—Condensed tomato soup is the base for this interestingly named soup. Add tiny balls of rice and ground beef, season with vegetables and bay leaf; result is a main dish soup for hungry children who troop in for lunch.

Serve Colorful Parfait

A parfait for dessert. Fill glasses with pistachio and vanilla ice cream. Garnish with orange and raspberry sherbet. Have these on hand in bulk form and store in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator.

Keep honey in a dry, warm place. At low temperatures it may turn cloudy or crystals may form, MSC home economists note.

Molded Salads Sparked by Refreshing Mint Tang

Self-molding individual salads are convenient for a score of occasions. A bright minted pineapple-grape salad not only tastes wonderful with fried chicken, turkey or meat, but dresses up the table, too.

Color, crispness and freshness are the special virtues of the best salads. Canned pineapple is a favorite salad ingredient the year 'round. It's as versatile as lettuce in the way it combines with all sorts of salad makings.

The flavor blend of mint, pineapple and grapes in this recipe makes it extra choice. Make this cool-looking salad-in-a-mold ahead or even the day before you expect to have guests for dinner. Here's how:

Minted Pineapple-Grape Salad
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 cup lightly packed mint leaves (or add 3 or 4 drops of mint flavoring to the boiling water)
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/4 cup sugar
Juice of 1 lemon
Few drops of green coloring
2 cups seedless grapes
6 slices pineapple

Pour boiling water over mint leaves and mash with wire potato masher, cover and let stand 15 minutes. Soak gelatin in cold water for five minutes. Bring mint leaves to a boil, strain and pour over gelatin.

Add sugar and stir until gelatin and sugar are dissolved. Add lemon juice and a few drops of green coloring. Cool until syrupy.

Fill individual molds about half full of whole grapes, spoon gelatin over and stir lightly to coat all the grapes. Place a pineapple slice on top of grapes and spoon more gelatin over to cover.

Chill until firm. Unmold on a bed of greens. Serves six.

Contrary to many notions, it is not harmful to cook foods in aluminum utensils, say MSC home economists.

ELECTION DAY CAKE—When you invite folks over to watch the returns on television, this is the perfect snack—Election Day Cake. In old New England tradition, Election Day Cake is being featured this year by bakers all over the country.

Munch Election Day Cake as You Listen to Returns

Early in the 1800s Hartford, Conn., originated the idea of eating a special cake on election day. If your candidate won, you ate your Election Day Cake with elation and thanksgiving; if you were mourning his defeat, you choked down your tears with the same cake.

This year commercial bakers are featuring a 1934 version of the traditional Hartford Election Day Cake.

Election Day Cake is neither a fruitcake nor a nut bread. It's a yeast-raised cake full of fruit and raisins, spices and nuts. You may serve it in any number of ways.

The one pictured above features elephants and donkeys made of hard sauce. You may dust it with confectioner's sugar or frost with plain sugar frosting. A creamy mocha sauce is also good.

Connecticut Hard Sauce
Cream thoroughly one-third cup margarine or butter. Add gradually and continue creaming 1 cup sifted confectioners sugar. Add one-half teaspoon vanilla extract. Mix well. Chill. Makes 1 cup sauce.

To make election day hard sauce donkeys and elephants—On a piece of waxed paper placed on a cookie sheet, spread hard sauce with a spatula.

Chill in refrigerator or freezer until hard. Cut on donkey and elephant shapes with cookie cutters.

Mocha Sauce
Combine in top of double boiler two egg yolks, one-fourth cup sugar one-sixteenth teaspoon salt and

Bottom Round Cut Best for Boiled Beef Supper

Bottom round is a good cut to choose when you are planning a "boiled beef" supper. Cover the meat with water in a kettle, add some whole pickling spices, a small onion, a rib of celery and a small carrot. Simmer for a couple of hours or until the beef is tender when pierced with a kitchen fork. Serve, sliced very thin, with horseradish sauce made from the beef stock.

For Pantryshelf Salad

Here's a pantryshelf salad. Put a can of fruit cocktail (unopened) in your refrigerator freezer compartment overnight. When you are ready to serve, cut both ends from the can and push out the frozen fruit. Cut in slices, arrange on lettuce and serve with a dressing of whipped cream mixed with mayonnaise.

Atomic Wastes Regulation Set

Water Resources Board Gives Rules Governing Disposal of 'Hot' Refuse

LANSING (UP)—The State Water Resources Commission adopted Michigan's first set of restrictions governing disposal of atomic wastes Wednesday when it established regulations for disposal of wastes from radiolotope research in Macomb County.

The commission approved an order governing treatment of atomic wastes at the General Motors Technical Center in Warren Township before the wastes are dumped into Bear Creek.

In other action the commission: 1. Declared the city of Ionia in default for failing to take proper action against a plating company accused of maintaining improper disposal systems for poisonous chemicals.

2. Ordered continuation of a survey of causes of fish taint in the Manistee Lake.

3. Took under advisement complaints that the Schwinger and Sons slaughter house, Bloomfield Township, Saginaw County, is causing an "unbearable" odor by discharge of blood into Deerfield Creek.

4. Accepted a report by the Waterfret Paper Co. that it plans to cut its discharges into the Paw Paw River by 50 per cent.

5. Received a request by the Kalamazoo Paper Co. for increased operations.

And Now It's Official: Gin Ruled Intoxicating

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (UP)—The Oklahoma Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that gin is intoxicating.

The decision cited a Georgia Supreme Court opinion holding that brandy, whisky, gin and rum are intoxicating "simply because it is within the common knowledge and ordinary understanding that they are intoxicating liquors."

Helen Hayes Is an Actor's Actress in Her First Performance or 969th

By EDDIE CANTOR

When the history of the legitimate theater is written, no one will be given more space than Helen Hayes. She's influenced the American theater for more than 25 years.

For an artist of this stature, it may surprise you to know that her friends think of her as sweet, for, in addition to her wisdom, dignity, and a discerning eye for the right play, she retains a naive, childlike attitude that can only be labeled sweet.

For instance, one evening we were discussing the power of prayer and Helen said, "Recently I realized—much to my surprise for I've been doing it unconsciously—that every night just before I go to sleep, I repeat the same little prayer of my childhood. Me, a grown-up woman, an actress, a mother, a wife, saying, just before I close my eyes—'And please, dear God, make me a good girl.'"

Few people know that offstage Helen has an amusing speech idiosyncrasy. The Hayes mind works so fast her tongue can't keep up with it and her thoughts often come out comically scrambled.

One time, when visiting the George Kaufmans, Helen mentioned she'd like to get rid of her piano. She said, "Anyone who wants my piano is willing to it." Kaufman kiddingly answered, "That's very seldom of you," but his humor was lost on Helen. Her mind was already racing to something else. Genius on the double!

She is an actor's actress—she listened as attentively to the speeches of her supporting players on the 969th performance of "Victoria Regina" as she had on opening night. Brothers and sisters, this takes acting.

She may deny it, but I don't think Helen Hayes is crazy about Hollywood. She was great in "The Sin of Madelon Claudet." Did you see it? She didn't. She thought it was horrible. She was wrong.

Helen Hayes gave one of the greatest performances I have ever seen on the screen in this picture. When it played in New York she and her husband, Charles MacArthur, who wrote it, got up enough nerve to go to see it.

As they watched it and recalled all the headaches that had accompanied its making, they began to mutter and groan. A man with a tear-streaked face sitting behind them leaned forward and said, "If you don't like the picture, other people do, so keep quiet or I'll call the usher." They quietly stole out and have still never seen the picture.

Four Heirs Must Wait Till 50 to Get Fortune

LONDON (UP)—Four adult grandchildren of the late millionaire shipowner Sir James Caird learned yesterday they will inherit £50,000 pounds ($700,000) apiece—when they are 50 years old. The oldest is now 31.

The will of Sir James, who was 90 when he died, specified that his estate be divided equally among his granddaughter and three grandsons.

Rule Suicide in Death of Retired Principal

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UP)—

Death of a retired Cleveland school principal whose body was found in a swimming pool weighted with a concrete block was "obviously suicide," the county medical examiner reported today.

Detective Robert T. Smith said Lawrence M. Marshall, 74, apparently tied a clothline to a building block and looped it around his neck before entering the pool of a neighbor late Tuesday.

Mrs. Marshall told police her husband had been ill and depressed and for the past three months and had "threatened suicide by implication" for the past 12 years.

Marshall was retired principal of Wilbur Wright Junior High School in Cleveland. He came here three years ago from Cedar Springs, Mich.

The body will be sent to Bay City, Mich., for burial.

Orchestra Plays Carnegie Hall Without Maestro

NEW YORK (UP)—Arturo Toscanini's orchestra, the former NBC Symphony, gave a concert here last night without the Maestro—in fact, with the conductor's stand conspicuously empty.

After Toscanini announced his retirement and returned to his native Italy, NBC disbanded the group.

But last night they assembled at Carnegie Hall and won long and loud applause from a large crowd. Concert master Daniel Gulliet gave the men their cues.

Toscanini had been invited to return and conduct the concert, but his son Walter cabled from Italy that the Maestro was "firm in his resolution to remain in retirement."

'Joe Macbeth' Story Bought for Use as Film

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Just before Mike Frankovich flew out from Hollywood he let slip that he has bought "Joe MacBeth" by Phil Yordan.

Now, hold your breath boys and girls, this is Shakespeare's "MacBeth" modernized, somewhat the way "Carmen Jones" was taken right from Bizet's opera "Carmen."

Joanne Dru and John Ireland like the idea so well that they are talking a deal with Mike. Joanne would play Lily MacBeth, otherwise Lady MacBeth, and John would be Joe MacBeth, a Chicago gangster. Banquo's ghost is called "Banky" throughout.

If they agree, it will start shooting in London in December for United Artists release.

I'll make a sizable wager that Nicole Maury will play Mary Magdalene in "The Galileans."

Universal-International has had scouts all over the world searching for a beauty to be in its film from the Frank L. Slaughter best seller, and from the hundreds of faces and figures submitted the choice finally narrowed down to Nicole from Paris, Myrian Verbeck from Belgium, and Gia Scala from Rome.

The girls arrived in New York Monday, on route here for final testing. But Nicole was so lovely in "Little Boy Lost" with Bing Crosby that I can't see why U-I would choose an untried girl. This young actress could do justice to such a really important role.

Arthur Freed is giving Howard Keel the Clark Gable role in "San Francisco." Well, Howard's got a voice and the looks, but whether the fans will be happy with any substitute for Gable is a question MGM will have to settle.

Jane Powell will play the Jeanette MacDonald role, but it won't be for sometime because Jane is leaving right after her wedding Nov. 8 for a month's honeymoon in Europe. And, in addition, there is "International Revue," in which the Keel-Powell combination is co-starred. That's because of the hit "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" has made.

The Mel Tormes had the fright of a lifetime when they were awakened by their maid stumbling into their room to tell them the house was on fire. They rushed to their two-and-a-half-year-old son, Stephen, who was already choking from the smoke.

The firemen discovered that hot ashes from the fireplace had started the fire when they dropped down into the basement onto a pile of wood stored there. Said a fireman, "If you hadn't been awakened, you and the baby would have been smothered to death from the smoke."

Snapshots of Hollywood at random: When Lex Barker was ordered back from Hawaii and away from Lana to do publicity stunts for "Justice Comes to Tomahawk," he called his studio, "Barker comes to U-I, but there ain't no justice."

Mrs. Howard Keel flies to New York this weekend to meet her husband, returning from London. They'll have a three-week holiday in the big town but return here in time for Thanksgiving dinner with their two daughters.

And speaking of vacations, Steve Forrest, who has just completed "Boulevard in Paris" in France, is taking his wife for a motor tour of Europe. They won't be back in Hollywood until Christmas.

Man of Action Updates Athens

Greek Works Minister Even Leads Raid Upon Streetcar Tracks

ATHENS (UP)—At 3 a.m., one day a year ago, a handsome, well-dressed man and a gang of laborers watched a streetcar pound down its track in the heart of Athens, shattering the quiet of the night.

"Now!" cried the leader. The gang jumped into the middle of the street, hooked up torches and started cutting the streetcar tracks along Patissia Boulevard.

The man who led this raid on the privately owned streetcar tracks was Constantine Karamanlis, minister of public works. He did the job when he grew tired of the traction company's delays in removing the tracks. He wanted to widen the street for vehicular traffic and substitute trolley buses. He got away with it, the traction company never followed up a threat to sue.

Karamanlis, a man of action, is perhaps causing more changes in the face of Athens than any man since the days of Pericles, 2,350 years ago.

The 46-year-old minister has 482 public works projects under way, including dams, irrigation, roads, bridges and ports.

"I get the money, somehow," he says.

He talked the Cabinet into putting a 3 per cent levy on all rentals in the capital area. Attica, to get under way the Yliki water project to supplement Athens' water supply. Out of this same money he is putting in the first modern sewage system.

The Pireus port organization had been running huge deficits every year. Karamanlis took it over, and this year, he says, it produced $1,730,000 in revenue. This is being used for extensive improvements, including sewers, streets, bridges and harbor improvements in Pireus.

Other projects include two magnificent boulevards—Patissia and Queen Sophia—in the heart of Athens.

Turns 3 G's Into $56,000

CHICAGO (INS)—Philip Trinski,

56, a Chicago grandfather who picked an Irish sweepstakes winner worth $56,000, explained his choice of the winning dust this way: "I was buying it for three generations. I took a ticket marked GGG."

Cherry Promotion Fund Sinks to Low

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—Michigan's Cherry Commission will have its lowest income this year since the Legislature adopted a cherry advertising assessment law seven years ago, the commission's secretary said today.

T. C. Stebbins, secretary of the commission, said the commission will have an income of about $75,000 this year for use in promotional and advertising activities. That's about a 30 per cent drop over last year's income of $110,000 and about half of the commission's income of $140,000 in 1950. Stebbins revealed the commission's income at a meeting of the commission here Tuesday but no action was taken on how the money will be spent because a quorum was not present. Stebbins said only four of the commission's nine members were on hand for the meeting. The commission's income comes from cherry growers who under state law must pay the commission $2 for each ton of cherries they grow that are processed. Stebbins said this year's cherry crop was about 91,000,000 pounds compared to an average crop of 140,000,000 pounds during the last five years.

$2.5 Million in Silver Sent From Denver Mint

DENVER (U)—Mrs. Alma Schneider, director of the U.S. Mint here, announced about 2½ million dollars worth of silver coins were shipped out yesterday in a heavily guarded truck convoy. The destination was secret because "we certainly don't want to take any chances on hijacking," she said.

Woman Jumps to Death After Marilyn's Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U)—After attending the hearing at which Marilyn Monroe divorced Joe DiMaggio yesterday, a 28-year-old mother of two children leaped to her death from the 10th floor of another building, police reported. Officers said they learned that Mrs. Selma Leonore Silbert had made other attempts to end her life.

Results Speak For Rennel
So Does Grand Rapids Lady

Rennel appeals to old friends and invites new users. Good results encourage good words for the product. That is what prompted Mrs. Pearl Brown, 7 Travis, Grand Rapids, Mich. to rely on Rennel Concentrate. She writes: "When I came to Grand Rapids to visit an aunt I was so much overweight that I was just tired out all the time. Since my aunt used Rennel and had lost a lot of weight, she said with it I could, too. With the very first bottle I felt better and even started losing weight. Now I have lost 75 lbs. Most has disappeared. The pleasure of feeling well and being regular are mine, thanks to Rennel. Your drug store has liquid Rennel. No need to starve yourself—no tablets needed to fortify you against weakness for you eat normal regular meals. No wishful thinking. Just follow simple directions. STEPS TOWARD NEW LIFE—This baby girl takes a step toward a new life, with new parents. Through the Michigan Children's Aid Society, a United Fund agency, she has been placed for adoption with parents judged to be an ideal match for her. The society conducts detailed studies of both parents and child before making such placements.

Your Gift to United Fund Aids Unfortunate Children

Young children caught in the web of their elder's troubles are the chief concern of one United Fund agency, the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

Whatever the cause—divorce, desertion, neglect, abuse, serious illness of the parents—these children need the care of other parents, at least for a while.

The Michigan Children's Aid, 318 National Bldg., places and supervises these youngsters in licensed foster homes where they receive not only food, shelter and clothing, but love and affection. The society also places youngsters for adoption.

When a child is boarded, his own parents pay what they can. When they have insufficient funds to support the child, the Children's Aid foots the bill. This is made possible almost entirely by Pontiac Area United Fund money.

Collections from parents have dropped during the past year increasing the society's costs, according to Miss Orle Endelman, children's aid director.

Miss Endelman explains the society's work as four-fold:

"We serve the youngsters by investigating any reported cases of neglect or mistreatment.

"We supervise conditions in the child's home when he is to remain there. For, after all, a child's own home is the best place except in cases of extreme trouble.

"We board children temporarily in foster homes.

"We place children for adoption and a great part of our job is working with unmarried parents towards making satisfactory plans for their children."

The society has more parents wishing to adopt than children available. "Of the 70,000 children placed for adoption yearly in America, only about 25 per cent are handled through agencies such as the Children's Aid," Miss Endelman said.

The others are placed by physicians and attorneys or taken by relatives.

This means, she said, that often a child is not matched to its prospective parents, as in the case of agency placement.

Proper matching, she said, can only be done by an agency qualified to make a thorough and complete study of both the child's and prospective parents' background.

The Pontiac branch of the society serves all Oakland County. It provided some 31,198 days of foster home care to 198 children in 1953.

If the United Fund reaches its goal in the present drive, the society will receive $34,110 to finance 1955 operations.

Syngman Rhee OrdersFinance Investigation

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today ordered his Cabinet to make "a thorough investigation" of alleged improper procedures involving South Korean government financial officials.

A National Assembly investigating committee reported last Tuesday that former Prime Minister and Finance Minister Paik Too Chin and other financial officials used "favoritism and pressure" to obtain improper loans for their friends.

Paik now is economic coordinator handling the U.S. aid program. He called the report "a political intrigue schemed by a group of ambitious men."

There were 35,968 polio cases in the U.S. in 1953.

to United Fund Drive

The Pontiac Area United Fund and three other local organizations have been selected as recipients of donations by the Circle Players, a drama group sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept.

The Women's Auxiliary of Pontiac General Hospital, the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra and the recreation department will share the players' contributions with the United Fund.

Try-outs for the group's first play of the year will be held tonight at Pontiac High School, starting at 8. Any adult interested in theatrical activity may attend, according to Patricia Stites, director.

The first production will be a three-act comedy, "The Curious Savage" and is scheduled for presentation in late November or early December, Miss Stites said.

Freud Associate Talks of Women

Calls American Female More Neurotic Than European Opposite

LOS ANGELES (INS) — An internationally famous psychoanalyst says American women talk more, are more neurotic and resort to divorce more often than European women.

The paradoxical reason, according to Dr. Theodore Reik, friend and student of the late Sigmund Freud, is that American women have achieved equality with men.

The former Viennese collaborator of Freud made his observations in an interview prior to a recent series of lectures in the Los Angeles area. He said:

"A woman renounces her superiority when she accepts equality. Women should not compete with men."

Dr. Reik said women in this country must be many things which she need not be in Europe—"she must be a businesswoman, a wife, a mother and a sweetheart."

This, he added, leads "to a certain turning away from women in men," a condition he described as "not healthy." He said it also accounts for the high American divorce rate. Dr. Reik continued:

"Women in this country talk more because of the tendency toward equal rights. In Europe, when a man takes out a girl, he does his utmost to amuse, fascinate and charm her with his witty conversation and carefully-tailored compliments. She listens and relaxes."

"But observe a young man and young woman in this country. You will see the girl talking rapidly while the man sits back and listens. She is trying to fascinate and attract the man."

The result, he said, has been the virtual abandonment of the courtship by American men.

The psychoanalyst observed that men generally are less patient than women, "but in the United States there is a certain impatience to be seen in women in marriage."

"The woman, frying pork chops, says impatiently to her husband: 'You want me to cook your meal and look like Hedy Lamarr, too.'"

He blamed this situation on the failure of mothers to educate their daughters to be proud of being a woman and a homemaker.

He expressed shock over the "terrible language" used by American college girls today.

Mountbatten Named British Navy Head

LONDON (AP)—Adm. Earl Mountbatten, commander in chief of Allied forces in the Mediterranean, today was named Britain's first sea lord.

The appointment, the highest in the British navy, gave the handsome 54-year-old admiral the post his German-born father, Prince Louis of Battenberg, was forced to give up under public pressure in the first World War.

Prince Louis played a major role in building up the British navy after he became first sea lord in 1912. He resigned two months after war broke out because his German name and ancestry was causing the government embarrassment.

Young Mountbatten, then a 15-year-old naval cadet, pledged himself to restore the family to an honored place in naval annals. His lifelong ambition was to become first sea lord.

Norwegian Freighter Now Out of Trouble

NEW YORK (AP)—A small Norwegian freighter, which yesterday flashed an SOS off Newfoundland but later reported she needed no help, was reported today to be riding out a North Atlantic storm in good shape.

The 295-foot, 2,700-ton Germa had signaled for help, saying its bridge had been swept away by smashing waves.

Nature Winked at Them

Siamese Twins, 3, Take Turns Walking Backward

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Nature winked at the little Galyon boys and they came back smiling.

For them, life is a cumbersome shift of taking turns walking backward because Donnie and Ronnie are Siamese twins, joined at the abdomen. Somebody has to sleep on the bottom when they get tucked in at night.

But the boys were laughing today as they celebrated their third birthday with an ice cream and cake party for the family. Cowboy shirts and cap guns brought grins to faces as clean and bright as milk.

"They're just plain boys," their mother, Mrs. Wesley Galyon, says.

The blond, blue-eyed brothers started to walk last March and carry themselves to the television set. Mrs. Galyon said:

"They raise an awful fuss if it's time to eat and a pet program is on. They have wonderful appetites and eat just about everything."

Physicians said last year surgery would mean death for one of the boys because they share vital internal organs. Not enough vital organs for both have been detected yet to make separation advisable.

But their father said, "We'll never separate them. We don't even talk about it any more."

This birthday Ronnie is the taller but it was Donnie who once was the big one. Donnie is the "wriggliest" too, Mrs. Galyon said, "so we have to put him on the bottom when they sleep at night. Otherwise he squirms around and they fall out of bed."

Mrs. Galyon recalls: "Everything in their development happened at once. Donnie was first in everything, but it didn't take Ronnie long to catch up. In fact, Ronnie can say sentences now. Donnie's still at the single word stage."

And so the balance of nature swings back and forth between the bright-eyed brothers, first favoring one and then the other.

Tour of Jail Leaves Inmates Well Fixed

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—It was open house at Clark County Jail and darned if everybody didn't want to get in—or out—of the act. Deputies said yesterday they found three cell bars partially sawed and uncovered a nest of hacksaw blades and crude weapons.

Some 1,000 residents toured the jail Tuesday night as part of a campaign to push a $450,000 bond issue for a new jail. Deputies decided yesterday to shake down the inmates to make sure nothing was smuggled in.

Universe Map Takes Shape

Palomar Astronomers Finish 5 Years of Sky Atlas Pictures

WASHINGTON—The most extensive map of the universe ever attempted is taking shape on Palomar Mountain in California.

In the National Geographic Society-Palomar Observatory Sky Survey, astronomers are systematically photographing the heavens out to a distance unmatched by any previous sky survey. They have just completed their most successful winter's work, the survey reports. The first section of a history-making sky atlas is scheduled for publication in 1955.

Hundreds of large photographic plates, taken in pairs in red and blue-filtered light, are being fitted into this atlas. Section by section, the tremendous survey of space visible from the latitude of Palomar is being recorded.

In the fifth year of the work, better photographic materials and long periods of good weather aided the survey's progress. Twice as many acceptable plates were made as in the previous best year. The survey is building toward an eventual total of 1,758 plates, or 897 pairs.

Palomar Observatory's "Big Schmidt," a 48-inch wide-angle telescope camera is being used for the mapping project. Following the large-scale charts thus made, the giant 200-inch Hale telescope at Palomar then can be aimed at pin-point areas of the sky to study particular features with greater light-gathering power.

With this telescope team, sky survey astronomers probe fantastic distances. Stars, galaxies, clusters of giant nebulae, space dust and gas are being recorded out to an average distance of three trillion miles (3,000,000,000,000,000,000).

Never before has such a comprehensive mapping project been attempted on the visible universe. When the sky survey atlas is finished, it is expected to furnish astronomers with enough new material for a century of study.

Dog Has Heart Attack

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP)—A dog collapsed and died after running up three flights of stairs in an apartment house here. Dr. Richard T. Gilyard, veterinarian, said the animal's death was due to heart failure.

HANDY HELICOPTER—New York City police use a helicopter to lift a "victim" out of the water to be transported to safety. The rescue was conducted by members to show how they are using their latest equipment.

Friday Game 24th in PHS-RO Series

Navy Eager to Get at Irish

By GEORGE BOWEN
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (P)—"I feel we have the best chance to beat Notre Dame Saturday since I've been here," said Navy Football Coach Eddie Erdelatz Thursday.

"This game isn't afraid of Notre Dame or any team for that matter," he said in reporting on the attitude of his Middles toward the game before an expected 60,000 in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium.

The Middles undoubtedly are eager to get at the Irish. Several upon being congratulated for playing a good game after last Saturday's 52-7 victory over Penn replied "wait until you see next week's."

Navy hasn't beaten Notre Dame since 1914 and Erdelatz has coached the last four losers.

This year the Middles are off to victories in four of their first five games and threaten the Academy's best football record of 7-1-1 since 1943. That Navy team tied Notre Dame 6-6 and lost to Army in the last game.

Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan called Navy "great" in a telephone interview from Coach Erdelatz's office. The Navy coach winced at such high praise but he too has declared this is his best eleven from the standpoint of hustle and desire.

The Irish, too, have lost only once in four games. Purdue was their conqueror while Texas, Pitt and Michigan State fell by the wayside. Pitt took Navy's measure by two points and the victims were William & Mary, Dartmouth, and Stanford besides Penn.

Frank Foster, Navy scout, has informed Erdelatz to expect to meet most of the same players and type of offense he encountered from Notre Dame last season. Notre Dame won 38-7.

Nine of the 11 first stringers played against the Navy last year, Foster said. "Their type of play hasn't changed a great deal either," he said. "Their backs drive hard and they go for short yardage."

Washington '11' Collects Third Unbeaten Title

Tramples Lincoln, 25-0, Yesterday to Conclude Perfect Season

Washington wrapped up its 3rd consecutive undefeated junior high league championship yesterday with a 25-0 trouncing of Lincoln.

Victory gave the Braves a 4-0 mark for the season and concluded their 1954 schedule. The circuit's four other teams have one game each left to play.

Coach Em Ghilani's champs packed all their scoring into the last two periods. Alex Whitlock started the rout when he scooped up a Lincoln fumble in the last few minutes and raced 85 yards to the Rail-splitters' 10. Bill Lamson cracked for the final yards to the 1st TD.

Willie Shaw added two more 1st-quarter scores, dashing 30 yards on a sweep and returning a punt 45 yards. He passed to John Phlegm for one extra point.

Richard Moss went 15 yards for Washington's final tally in the 2nd period.

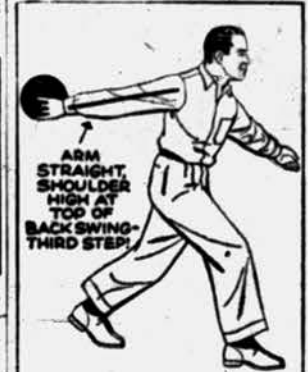

Washington 19 0 0 0-25

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

CASE—Abbreviated Swing. In golf the pro stresses a firm left arm to groove the swing for both power and direction. In bowling, the right arm must be straight for timing and control.

No kinking at the elbow; no changing the swing from a natural length to a cut-off, abbreviated one. With this possible exception, though not recommended: When shooting across the alley at the 2, 6, 9 or 10 pins.

At right hand pins, some bowlers find that a shortened stride and shorter swing works out best. Practice alone can determine what to do.

In the regular first (strike ball) delivery, however, concentrate on a free swing, after the push-away, so that the arm is straight at the top of the backswing when the third step is being completed, as in the sketch. The free swing lends itself readily to sound footwork, swing and accurate release of the ball.

166-Average Bowler Hits Near-Perfect 290

Jack Orders, a 166-average bowler for the Union State team in the Superior Merchants League, turned in the highest game in the 3½-year history of the Land O'Lakes Recreation Monday night.

Orders got "9 pins and a wiggle" in the 1st frame, spared out, then tossed 11 straight strikes for a 290 game. He lives at 6812 Saline in Windate Park, Waterford.

Chiefs' Eleven in Unusual Role of 'Underdogs'

Acorns Come Here With Impressive Record for Season's Play

By BILL MARTIN

Football teams of Oakland County's two largest Class A schools will clash here Friday, when Pontiac High's Chiefs entertain Royal Oak.

The meeting, 24th between the two teams since 1913, will find Pontiac in the unusual (for this series) role of underdog. Chiefs have won 14 of the encounters, lost seven and tied two.

This year, however, Coach Jim Manilla's Acorns come into the contest with an impressive record of four victories and one loss. PHS squad has dropped four straight decisions after winning its last two starts.

Last season's game resulted in a 21-7 victory for Royal Oak to snap a Pontiac 3-year winning string in the series.

The two teams have met only one common foe, Wyandotte, this year and both beat the Bears by nearly identical margins. Pontiac took a 27-13 victory while Royal Oak came away with a 27-12 triumph.

Chiefs will face one of the biggest lines they have opposed all year against the Oaks. Big Ed Bartz, 6-foot 2-inch 230 pound tackle, anchors a forward wall that averages 183 pounds per man.

Manilla lost Dick Nash and Jack Drawbaugh, his 1953 "touch down twins" by graduation, but appears to have capable replacements in halfback Darrell Harper and fullback Roy Bolden.

The latter leads the team in scoring with four touchdowns, while Harper and quarterback Frank Finney have three apiece.

Acorns run from both a single-wing and straight T behind an unbalanced line. The attack has paid off with a total of 79 points for Royal Oak against 33 for its opponents.

Evans to Meet N.Y. Medalist

Former Open, Amateur Champ in Quarterfinal Round Play

PINEHURST, N. C. (P)—Medalist Thomas C. Robbins of Larchmont, N.Y., was pitted against Chick Evans of Chicago, former U.S. Open and Amateur champion in Thursday's quarter-finals of the annual North and South Seniors Golf tournament here.

Robbins defeated J.H. Ackerman, Princeton, N.J., 5 and 4 Wednesday, while Evans edged Maurice Smith, Kansas City, 1 up.

Spencer Overton, Baltimore, who edged Paul Hyde of Buffalo, N.Y., 3 and 2, was paired against Ray Robertson, Indianapolis, who stopped Jack Brittain, Woodhaven, Long Island, N.Y., 2 and 1.

Other pairings had defending champion O. V. Russell of Pinehurst vs. J. W. Roberts, Columbus, Ohio, and Col. C. D. McAllister, Orlando, Fla., vs. Douglas Hill of Cincinnati, last year's runner-up.

Cain Hoy Stable Is Given High Position

CHARLESTON, S. C. (P)—The Cain Hoy racing stable of South Carolina plantation owner and New York philanthropist Harry F. Guggenheim has become a top name in racing circles.

The name is a phrase in Gullah, the language of old-time Negroes that dates from slave-holding days. Cain means "grass," while "Hoy" is the Gullah word for "tall" or "high."

And the Cain Hoy stable the last year has been riding high in the tall grass.

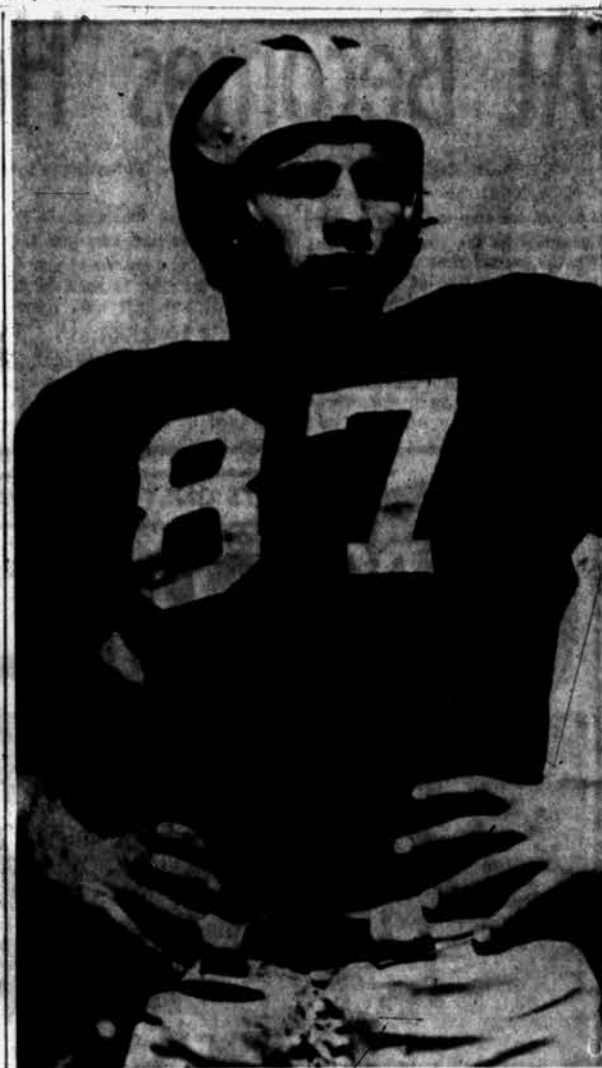

Varona, Andrews Sign for Nov. 10 Contest

CHICAGO (P)—Welterweights Chico Varona of Havana and Al Andrews, Superior, Wis., have signed to meet in a 10-round bout at Chicago Stadium, Nov. 10.

Varona defeated Johnny Bratton in New York Monday night and Andrews recently scored a third-round knockout over Gil Turner in Chicago.

Brothers Share Marks

CHARLESTON, S. C. (P)—Both the professional and amateur records for the Charleston Country Club are shared by two sets of brothers. Henry and George Picard set the record for the pros with scores of 62. Frank and Drayton Ford, Charleston amateurs, each has netted a ribbon winning 65.

FINE SOPHOMORE END—There's considerable talk at Ann Arbor over the future of Ron Kramer (above). Michigan's fine sophomore end, Kramer is being mentioned frequently as a future All-America possibility. The 6-3, 19-year-old 210-pounder from East Detroit has been a standout, offensively and defensively with Michigan's Big 10 current co-leaders.

Adams Praises Rangers After 5-2 Wing Loss

Camille Henry Paces NY Win as Blueshirts Tie Detroit for 2nd

By The Associated Press
It's been a long time since anybody has had some kind words for the New York Rangers.

So it comes in the nature of a surprise when Jack Adams, general manager of the champion Detroit Red Wings calls the Rangers "the most improved club" in the six-team National Hockey League.

"Based on what I've seen of them so far," Adams said, "This may turn out to be the best team the Rangers have had since before the war."

Adams' praise came after the Rangers had thrashed the Red Wings 5-3 last night to move them into a 2nd place tie with Detroit.

Camille Henry, league's outstanding rookie last season, tallied two goals. Larry Popen and Ron Murphy got one each and Lorne Worsley was magnificent in the nets as he held the champion Wings scoreless until the final period.

"It's a young, spirited, speedy team, perhaps the fastest in the league," Adams said of the Rangers. "What's made this possible is the fine showing of their youngsters."

Earl "Dutch" Reibel and Ted Lindsay scored Detroit's goals on fast shots past Worsley in the final period.

Spartans 'Mad' for Minnesota

Wilson Running First String Backs; Bolden May Go at Fullback

By ROBERT E. VOGES
EAST LANSING (P)—"We're real mad," said coach Duffy Daugherty as his Michigan State team prepared to leave today for Minnesota.

But the trouble is there must be some ruffled feelings at Minneapolis too after the Gophers took a 34-0 pasting from Michigan.

"I'm awfully tired of getting beat," Daugherty admitted. "We're real mad and will do all we can to get the second mad too. We want to win as badly as they. We'll do anything inside the rules to win this one."

One of the things Daugherty has been doing is reshuffling his backfield.

Pat Wilson, sophomore quarterback from Lapeer, has been getting a crack at directing the 1st backfield.

Gary Lowe, junior from Trenton, Mich., has been running at fullback, where depth is needed since Jerry Plautius has been carrying the load despite a hip injury.

LeRoy Bolden also has appeared at fullback in the signal drills and may be used at the position as a change of pace.

Taking Golf Clubs Along 'Babe' Zaharias Has Dinner Date With Ike

FORT WORTH, Tex. (P)—The mighty Babe, caught here by an unexpected White House invitation, has her $10,000 wardrobe, had a dinner date with Ike and the Missus today.

But Mrs. Babe Dikrikson Zaharias boarded an American Airlines plane Wednesday night with a hurriedly-bought bag of clothes and a claim she had no idea why President Eisenhower asked her to Washington.

The Associated Press, Woman Athlete of the Half-Century added: "I'm taking along my golf clubs."

Speculation here is that the President is either to give her an award or just wants to play a round of golf with his friend, the Babe.

Mrs. Zaharias' courageous comeback in golf after an operation for cancer was one of 1953's most heart-warming stories. Last April she helped the President open a drive against cancer.

She withdrew from the Women's Texas Open golf tournament here when she got the President's engraved invitation. Talking like any thrilled housewife she vaulted over an airlines counter like a teen-ager at International Airport here to pose for a picture with her golf clubs.

She said she had $10,000 worth of new dresses at her Tampa, Fla., home "but had to do some quick shopping in Fort Worth" for her Washington trip.

Houston Girl Teams Play Fast Volleyball

HOUSTON, Tex. (P)—If it's volleyball you play, you can get real competition from Houston girls. That goes for the men, too.

They really take the game seriously here. Last May two Houston teams were in the finals of the national women's volleyball tournament at Tucson, Ariz. The Houstonettes beat the Houston Red Shield team for the title.

Manager Mickey Finley admits her girls wouldn't stand much chance against a top-notch men's team but she says the Houstonettes have notched victories over some better than average guys in the sport.

Wayne Faces Indians, Animals in '54 Slate

Indians and animals have the lead in the list of team nicknames of the 194 Wayne Football opponents. Michigan Normal is known as the Hurons, Bradley as the Braves and Omaha as the Indians.

The Bisons of North Dakota State, the Bears of Washington and the Bulldogs of Drake are also represented. Others are the Dais of Hillsdale, Blue Streaks of John Carroll and the Cardinals of Louisville.

Arizona's Art Luppino Already Has Piled Up 100 Points With Five Games Still Remaining to Play

NEW YORK (P)—Arizona's Art Luppino already has accomplished what no major college football player was able to do all last season—score 100 points.

The 21 points Luppino tallied against New Mexico last Saturday gave the sophomore speedster exactly 100 points according to NCAA Service Bureau statistics released Thursday. He has five games remaining.

Luppino, who also is the No. 1 ball carrier in the country, has scored 15 touchdowns and added 10 extra points. At that rate he'll far surpass the fewer than a dozen who have scored 150 in a season of major competition.

His pace has wiped out all semblance of competition in the scoring race. The second man, Denver's Rusty Fairly, has only 60 points on 8 touchdowns and 12 conversions.

Luppino also is the national leader in kickoff returns even though he hasn't had a try for two weeks. He has covered 356 yards compared to 329 by North Carolina's George Marinkov, the runner-up.

Other leaders are California's Jim Hanifan in pass receiving, Colorado's Carroll Hardy in punting, UCLA's Sam Brown in punt returns and Washington State's Bob Iverson in interceptions.

Hanifan has caught 26 passes to lead Stanford's John Stewart, who has grabbed 22. Oregon's Dick James has 19 and Columbia's George Seitz and California's Jim Carmichael 17 each.

Hardy moved ahead among the kickers by averaging 48.5 yards on four kicks against Nebraska. That brought his season average to 44.3 yards for 12 attempts.

Better Than Last Year

West Virginia's Football 'Orphans' Seem Headed for Unbeaten Record, Bowl Bid

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (P)—They feel they're the "orphans" of college football and West Virginia's big, tough Mountaineers are out to prove Saturday they rightfully belong among the sports heavyweights.

Unbeaten and seventh-ranked nationally, they play rebounding Pittsburgh Saturday in their top traditional rivalry. If they win, the Mountaineers appear headed for a certain perfect season and a post-season bowl bid.

No one would be happier than Coach Art Lewis, a rawboned son of a West Virginia coal miner, who must be fed up at hearing that his football team is overrated.

"They say we got our national ranking because we don't have a tough schedule," he said today, "and we still haven't heard the last of that 42-19 shellacking we took from Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl last year."

"But we're sort of orphans in this football business anyhow, I guess. When we play in the South, they call us Northerners, and when we play in the North we're Rebels. We're neither West nor East. We're in the Southern Conference but they list us with Eastern teams."

"All I know is we had a good team last year and we have a better one this year—win or lose against Pittsburgh. We have a bunch of boys I wouldn't be ashamed to put against anybody."

"As for the schedule, we have beaten South Carolina, which licked Army, and we have taken Penn State, which beat Illinois. This week we play Pitt which has beaten Navy and Northwestern on successive Saturdays.

"We play the best schedule possible. We'd make it tougher if we could. But do you think Ohio State would play us? Or Michigan? Or those schools? They won't because they figure they have nothing to gain."

Left halfback Danny Cline is 2nd in returning kickoffs, behind Michigan State's John Matscock, and 5th in returning punts. Cline has returned four kickoffs for 100 yards, an even 25-yard average. He has returned five punts for 48 yards—a 9.6-yard average.

But you have to look long and far in the Big 10 statistics to find one Michigan player ranked among the offensive leaders.

Only fullback Fred Baer, with a 4.1-yard average per play in conference games, is in the rankings at all. He is 15th in total offense and eighth in rushing.

This is an indication of why the Wolverines are the 6th-rated offensive team in the conference. Ohio State is first.

But it does show an amazing improvement from last week, because of Michigan's 34-0 upset of Minnesota. Wolverines were 9th in offense and 5th in defense going into the Minnesota game.

Actually Michigan players showed in the other statistical departments. Sophomore end Ron

Queen's Horse to Arrive in Maryland Today

LAUREL, Md. (P)—Four more horses, including Queen Elizabeth's Landau, were due to arrive here today for the $65,000 Washington International.

Two French horses and one American racer were already on the grounds for the colorful Nov. 3 event.

An Army band from Ft. Meade, Md., was slated to be on hand to greet Landau and the other thoroughbreds as they arrived by air Thursday. Television and movie cameramen planned coverage of the arrival.

Another English horse, King of Tudors, and Ireland's Northern Gleam were scheduled to land at Baltimore's Friendship International Airport this morning.

King Ranch's High Gun was the American entry due here for the race.

Pontiac Horse Winner

Pastime Ellen, a 6-year-old mare owned by Henry Lobeck of Pontiac, won the 4th race at the Jackson Raceway last night. Ellen negotiated the C Trot mile in 2 minutes 13.6 seconds.

Stewart is the yardage leader with 352 but Drake's Jerry Mervette is a yard back. Lou Hettinger of Holy Cross and Corky Tharp of Alabama are the only receivers who have caught four touchdowns passes.

But for average gain, nobody is close to Army's Don Hollender and Southern California's Lindon Crow. Hollender's figures are 4 caught, 223 yards, 2 touchdowns, 55.8 yard average. Crow's are 6 caught, 270 yards, 3 touchdowns and a 45-yard average.

Hardy moved ahead among the kickers by averaging 48.5 yards on four kicks against Nebraska. That brought his season average to 44.3 yards for 12 attempts.

AL Becomes 'House Divided' on Athletics' Issue

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—The American League became a house divided Thursday as the club owners met for the second time in two weeks to decide the fate of their white elephant, the Philadelphia Athletics.

Ostensibly the meeting was called by League President Will Harridge to vote on acceptance or disapproval of the Athletics' sale to an eight man Philadelphia syndicate. At a late hour Wednesday night, it was learned however, that Harridge probably first would call for a vote on whether to shift the beleaguered franchise to Kansas City.

At an Oct. 12 session in Chicago, the league approved the sale to Arnold Johnson, Chicago financier, and voted to move the franchise to Kansas City, contingent upon Johnson completing the deal with Roy Mack, executive vice president of the Athletics.

Since then, however, the House of Mack, Connie and his two sons, Roy and Earle, signed papers for the sale of their stock to a Philadelphia syndicate in a deal involving approximately $4,000,000. Both the Macks and the Philadelphia group are awaiting league approval.

al. Six of the eight clubs must approve a new owner.

As the meeting got under way, it was known that at least two clubs favored the sale of the A's to the Philadelphia group and two wanted the Philadelphia franchise moved to Kansas City.

Here is the way the clubs are believed to be lined up: Those definitely for the sale to the Philadelphia group—Detroit and Washington.

Those probably for the sale to the Philadelphia group—Chicago and Boston.

Those definitely for the transfer to Kansas City—New York and Baltimore.

On the fence—Cleveland. On the spot—Philadelphia. Dan Topping, president of the Yankees and a leader in the fight to shift the A's to Kansas City, was expected to put up a stiff battle against the proposed sale to the Philadelphia group.

He said, "The situation as it stands is intolerable. For the good of the league, the club should be transferred to another city. On the basis of Philadelphia attendance figures for 1953 and 1954, a transfer would appear to be inevitable." Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, head of the Tigers, was just as adamant to keep the Athletics in Philadelphia.

"I came to this meeting to cast my vote to keep the A's in Philadelphia," he said. "I am heartily in favor of the sale of the club to this Philadelphia syndicate. I don't intend to have the Yankees, with their high handed methods, dictate to us."

Clark Griffith, the elder statesman from Washington, said he definitely was for the sale to the Philadelphia syndicate.

Connie Mack, who arrived here from Philadelphia early this morning, said he would ask the seven other club owners to approve the sale to the Philadelphia group.

Oklahomans Fly to Denver for Colorado Tilt

Sooners Arrive Early to Become Accustomed to Climate

DENVER (AP)—Oklahoma's No. 2-ranked Sooners fly into Denver today to sniff the chilly, thin mile-high air before their important Big Seven football game Saturday at Boulder with Colorado's unranked Buffaloes.

The talk around town is that the Oklahomans are not taking any chances with the ever-dangerous Buffs and want to become accustomed to the climate before the kickoff.

But Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson discounts that interpretation of the Sooners' early arrival.

"Our going to Colorado early has nothing to do with the altitude bugaboo," Wilkinson said before leaving Norman. "The better team will win whether the game is played at Boulder or Norman."

"We went to California on Thursday for our game there this season and the arrangement worked out nicely," Oklahoma won 27-13. The Sooners have scheduled a late afternoon workout at the Denver University stadium. Another drill is booked there tomorrow. The team will go by bus to Boulder Saturday.

Del Flanagan Drops Split Decision to Coast Welter

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Maurice Harper is a good welterweight prospect, but champion Johnny Saxton will beat him because Harper doesn't have enough experience.

That's the way Del Flanagan, of St. Paul, the world's No. 2 contender, sized up Harper after he dropped a 10-round split decision to the little known boxer in their nationally televised fight last night.

Harper, of Oakland, Calif., weighed 146½, Flanagan 150. Flanagan decided Saxton, the newly crowned champion, before he won the crown.

Last night's fight was not thrilling. The two clinched, wrestled and butted many times. There were no knockdowns and neither boy was in trouble or suffered any damage.

Petty Tops NASCAR, Thomas Cash Leader

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Lee Petty won the 1954 championship in the NASCAR Grand National Auto Race circuit but Herb Thomas won the most money.

Petty, 40-year-old driver from Randleman, N.C., had 8,649 points for the year, President Bill France of the National Assn. for Stock car racing said yesterday.

Thomas, a fellow North Carolinian from Sanford, finished second with 8,366 points but his money winnings amounted to $38,160. Petty's winnings were $26,706.

Ganzel Leads Passers in Mid-America League

Quarterback Jerry Ganzel of Western Michigan College has taken the lead among the Mid-America Conference passers, according to statistics released from the league office in Oxford, O.

Ganzel, who played at Milford High School, has completed 29 passes for 413 yards, both league-leading figures.

'Old College Try' Back of Steelers' Top-Rated Play

By JOE BRADIS
PITTSBURGH (AP)—What's happened to the Pittsburgh Steelers? They lost six of seven exhibitions. Now they're tied for the Eastern Division lead in the National Football League.

"It's team spirit," comments Coach Walt Kiesling. "I've never coached or seen a team with more spirit. And it's all voluntary. Nothing forced."

Kiesling gave the Steelers a two day holiday from practice after their 17-7 revenge victory over the Philadelphia Eagles last Saturday night.

"You'd think they'd take advantage of a well-earned rest," said Kiesling. "But what do they do? Why more than half of the team turns out for a spontaneous practice session. You can't beat that for team spirit."

Kiesling, an assistant coach, took over the coaching duties from balding Joe Bach, who resigned after the Steelers lost three straight exhibitions.

The Steelers, rated no better than fourth in pre-season polls, have beaten Green Bay, Washington, lost to Philadelphia, then bounced back to whip Cleveland and Philadelphia.

Statistically, the Steelers haven't got a single man on the top rung on any department in the NFL. Pat Brady is second in punts, Jimmy Finks is fifth in passing and Ray Mathews is sixth and eighth, respectively, in pass receiving and scoring. They don't show a single man in the top 10 in punt returns, kickoff returns or leading ground gainer.

What is it then that makes the Steelers click?

"Football is 75 per cent heart," says Asst. Coach Nick Skorick. "We've got 80 per cent heart. Kiesling's got the other 20 per cent."

It's Time Out!

"Wind-up windows? Gridley U offered me one with push-button windows."

Ex-Collegiate Sensation 'Bevo' Plays Here Sunday

Clarence (Bevo) Francis, who will appear here with the Boston Whirlwinds against Shaw's Jewelers at Pontiac High School Sunday night, apparently has made the transition from a sensational college performer to a solid pro in good shape.

Abe Saperstein, owner of the famous Harlem Globetrotters and the Whirlwinds, declares he's perfectly satisfied with the $30,000 deal which brought the 6-foot 9-inch star and Newt Oliver, his Rio Grande (O.) college coach, into his fold.

Francis was the center of a swirling controversy since he started playing for Rio Grande in the 1952-53 season.

He scored 1,954 points in 39 games for a new record, but the NCAA refused to recognize the mark, claiming there were not enough 4-year colleges among the opposition.

Last season, Oliver arranged a much stiffer schedule. Bevo broke loose to kick over a number of records. He scored 1,255 points in 27 games for an average of 46.5 — a new record for small college players. This time the NCAA recognized the feat along with a flock of other new marks for Bevo, including most field goals (444), most free throws made (367), most points in one game (113), most field goals in one game (38) and most free throws made in one game (37).

Bevo and his Whirlwind teammates will play a 20-minute exhibition against the Jewelers and then will meet the Western team of the Harlem Globetrotters in a 30-minute exhibition. Another 20-minute game between the Jewelers and the Trotters completes the program. A variety floor show also is planned.

Program, scheduled for 7:30 p. m., is sponsored by the GOYA club of St. George's Greek Orthodox Church. Tickets may be obtained at Calbi's Music Store, Griff's Grill and at many neighborhood grocery stores.

Unbeaten Marks, Loop Titles on Line

By JACK SAYLOR

Oakland County's prep football spotlight Friday falls on games at Auburn Heights, Oxford and Berkley with 2 conference championships and 3 undefeated seasons hanging in the balance.

In an afternoon contest, Avondale entertains Fitzgerald. Both are unbeaten and will be battling for the Oakland-B title which they shared last year. Avondale downed Fitzgerald, 12-0 a year ago, but a loss to Roseville cost the Yellow Jackets sole possession of the league crown.

This game shapes up as a battle between Avondale's running power and Fitzgerald's aerial game. Don Van Gilder is the Spartan thrower. Main receiver is Ted Cuno, a highly-rated end. Putting pressure on Van Gilder and stopping the Spartan running is the job of Bill Johnson, Jerry Fisher, Jack Greenlee and the Hill brothers, Albert and Alfred. Handling Cuno and the other pass targets falls to Marv Evans, Toby Aldrich, Dick Gronski and Ray Boyd. Aldrich and Evans also are Avondale's offensive keys.

Also bidding for an unbeaten campaign is Oxford, winners of 6 straight. Since 1945, Wildcat football has been in the goldrums, but coach Jean Harkness has led the "gravel capital" team out in a big way this fall.

John Abel directed Oxford to an 8-0 record in 1941 and the Wildcats were undefeated in both 1944 and 45 under H. B. Johnson, now Oxford's principal. With stars like Steve Lockwood, Bob Quayle, Art Schultz, Cliff Marsh and Guy Kessler, Oxford had a winning string of 18 in the Johnson era, but since then it has had trouble reaching .500.

Clarkston and St. Mike's bar the path to a 9-0 mark. The small, but speedy Wolves will be in Oxford Friday night with upset on their minds.

At Berkley, Waterford poses a threat to Berkley's bid for an undisputed Inter-Lakes title. Southfield still holds hopes of tying Berkley.

Since dropping 3 of its 1st 4 games, the Skipper 11 "jelled" for impressive triumphs over Van Dyke and Farmington. Improved defense and Tom Bryce's passing are the main reasons.

Waterford will be without regular linemen Al Nestor and Jack Fearach. Nestor, a 220-pound defensive star, is out with a face injury, while Fearach has moved to West Branch. However, Ben Beedle is a capable replacement for Nestor, and Ben Kind takes over for Fearach.

Beedle, Merle Charboneau, Chuck Shack and Dick Cloutier have their work cut out against the big Berkley club. Offensively, the Skippers supplement Bryce's throwing with the running of Laine Hetherington, Jim Holton and Dave Larkin.

Versatile end Jerry Kruskie is Bryce's pet target, but Hetherington, Jerry Harnack and Lindy Salathiel also are fine receivers.

Other leading games Friday send Milford to Keego, Birmingham to Port Huron, Romeo to Rochester and Walled Lake to Farmington.

Irish Football Teams to Play in New York

Even Christy Ring on Hand to Greet Gaelic Grid Outfit

NEW YORK (AP)—Little Irishman, Big Irishman. Wiry Irishman. Pudgy Irishman. All were on hand to greet the hurlers and Gaelic football players from County Cork and County Mayo.

There was Tommy McDonald and Sean Flanagan. Paddy Barry and Eddie Moriarty. Matt Fohy and Davey O'Leary. And then there was Christy Ring, himself, the greatest of them all.

They speak in awe when Christy's name is mentioned for he is the only man ever to win an all-Ireland medal as a hurler in eight of his 12 years of competition.

Meeting Christy, at the headquarters of the Gaelic Athletic Assn. of New York, you wouldn't take him for an all-time great. In his middle 30s, he is slightly baldish, of stocky build. They say he can handle a hurley like a drum major handles a baton.

"He's the greatest hurling man I ever saw," said Dr. Pat O'Keefe, director of the touring teams that arrived by chartered plane from Shannon yesterday morning.

Gerry Schumacher called him "the Babe Ruth of hurling" but Gerry can be excused because he is a tub thumper for the baseball New York Giants and the Irish teams play Sunday at the Giants' Polo Grounds.

These hurlers and football players are strictly amateurs, taking time off from work for a game on a Sunday afternoon. Many of their former teammates have moved to America and will be playing against them on their tour that includes games in New York and Boston.

Hamilton Fires Trio From Pitt Grid Squad

By GIB STALEY
PITTSBURGH (U)—Capt. Tom Hamilton, who learned strict discipline in the Navy, grimly went about his coaching duties Thursday, after firing three players from his Pitt football squad.

Hamilton, doubling in brass as athletic director and coach, dismissed a first stringer, a second stringer and a reserve halfback Wednesday night. He said they failed to show up for practice for two consecutive days.

Cut loose in the action were first-string guard Ed Stowe of Somerville, N. J.; second-string guard Joe Los and halfback Gene Steratore, both of Washington County, Pa.

The three, all juniors, are roommates, but they couldn't be located for comment.

After issuing a prepared statement announcing the dismissals, Hamilton declared:

"This is the worst experience I have ever had in athletics." Asked if there had been any friction on the Pitt squad, Hamilton replied with an emphatic "no".

In his prepared statement, Hamilton was just as grim as he was several hours later. The statement, released by graduate manager Frank Carver, quoted Hamilton as saying:

"I fail to understand an athlete who can break faith with his teammates. He does not deserve to wear a Pitt uniform."

Hamilton, who came to Pitt after several years in the Navy and a tour of duty as both athletic director and football coach at Annapolis, said he didn't know what affect his action will have on the squad. The team is preparing for a rough game Saturday at Morgantown, W. Va. with undefeated West Virginia University.

"There was simply no alternative to my action," Hamilton said.

Carver said the case is closed and the is no chance the trio will be reinstated this season, or next.

The dismissals marked the second such case for Hamilton who took over as head coach for ailing Lowell (Red) Dawson after Dawson was hospitalized with a minor heart ailment. About two weeks ago Hamilton fired halfback Lou Cimaroli. The only reason given was that it was a "disciplinary" measure. A source close to Pitt indicated the friction had developed between Cimaroli and an assistant coach.

Since Hamilton has taken over as coach, Pitt has upset Navy 21-19 and beaten Northwestern 14-7.

Rawls Favored at Fort Worth

McKinnon, Dodd, Hicks Also Advance in Texas Women's Open

FORT WORTH, Tex. (U)—Defending champion and medalist Betsy Rawls was rated the player to beat Thursday as the 19th annual Women's Texas Open golf tournament moved into its second day of match play.

The Spartanburg, S. C., entry carded a decisive 6-4 victory over Dallas' Mary Nell Weathered Wednesday in first-round play to establish herself as favorite among the play-for-pay golfers.

Miss Rawls moved ahead on the third hole and stayed on top all the way in taking the match.

Other pros taking easy decisions included three who won by 9-8 scores—Betty McKinnon of Savannah, Ga., who beat Mrs. Charles True of Dallas; Betty Dodd of San Antonio, who defeated Mrs. A.R. Hancock of Gladwater, Tex., and Betty Hicks of Manhattan Beach, Calif., who downed Mrs. Gene Harding of El Paso, Tex.

Princeton 'Polishing Up' for Colgate Game

PRINCETON, N. J. (U)—Princeton Football Coach Charlie Caldwell optimistically scheduled a "polish up day" for his weather-beaten gridders today in preparation for Saturday's invasion by unbeaten Colgate.

With his three star backfield men out because of injuries, Caldwell shifted his available men around Wednesday and tried to find the right combination which might halt the potent aerial and ground attack of the Red Raiders from New York.

Racehorse Breaks Leg Near the Finish Line

NE WYORK (U)—Precession, a 10-year-old horse sired by Bull Lea and winner of more than $100,000 was destroyed on the Jamaica racetrack Wednesday after he fell and broke a leg a few yards short of the finish in the third race.

Jockey Bob Stovall was thrown, but escaped serious injury.

MSC, Michigan Grid Audiences Ahead of 1953

DETROIT (U)—Attendance at Michigan's home games is far ahead of last year.

In three home games, Wolverines have attracted 203,722 spectators. This is 58,125 more than saw Michigan's last three games last season.

Michigan State also has shown an increase, although it is only a slight one.

Spartans have drawn 103,513 for two home games, compared to 102,792 for their last two games last year. Figures were compiled by the Detroit News.

University of Detroit, plagued by rain, has drawn 63,500 to five home games. Last season, 79,950 saw the Titans' last five games at home.

Wayne University, playing on its own field, has drawn only 4,630 spectators in four games—an average of 1,158 per game.

The state's biggest single college crowd has been 70,500, which saw Michigan defeat Minnesota last Saturday. Smallest was 647, which watched Wayne defeat North Dakota State last Friday.

The 19-year-old quarterback however, has hurled 13 touchdown passes in five games and is shooting for a collegiate all-game record.

Watkins tops Big Ten rushers, according to official statistics, with a net gain of 309 yards. But Wisconsin's Ameche has piled up 242 and has an edge over Watkins in gains per game of 81 yards to 77.

Leggett is No. 1 in total offense with a four-game net of 371 yards against 363 for Earl Morrall of Michigan State and 351 for Wisconsin's Jim Miller.

Top pass receiver is Michigan State's Jim Hinesly with 11 catches. His teammate, Johnny Matsock, leads in all kick returns with an average of 29.5 yards for kickoff runbacks and 26.0 on punt returns.

Minnesota's Gino Cappelletti has a slight edge in punting among those who have kicked eight or more times with an average of 40.6.

Northwestern's Jim Troglis has the best rushing average with eight yards in 17 carries.

Michigan is No. 1 on defense with a three-game yield of 202 yards per game.

Bobby Avila Honored as Best of Indians

CLEVELAND (U)—Bob Avila, the American League's batting champion, was elected the Cleveland Indians' Man of the Year last night by unanimous vote of the Cleveland chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

The 28-year-old Mexican second baseman batted .341 for the Indians last season.

Owner, manager and player on the Mexico City Reds in the Mexican Winter League, Avila is also a candidate for the American League's Most Valuable Player award.

Johnny Mize hit 350 home runs as a major leaguer.

'Shoe' Boosts String With Four More Wins

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (U)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker boosted his 1934 victory string to 347 at Tanforan race track yesterday, piloting home four winners for the second day in a row and the sixth at the meeting.

Shoe now has a lifetime mark of 2,014 victories. He scored yesterday aboard Marsh's Turk $4.10, Miss Music $7.90, Sahib $2.70 and Manheim $7.70.

Party Awaiting 400 Teenagers

Waterford CAI Ready for Masquerade on Saturday Night

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — More than 400 teenagers are expected at the masquerade dance and Halloween party at the CAI building Saturday night.

The evening of dancing, games, and contests with prizes galore will be sponsored by the Community Activities Center and the Waterford Township Recreation Department. A costume grand march at 9:30 p.m. will be featured.

All township teenagers from grades 8-12 have been invited, and a band will furnish dance music from 8-11 p.m.

The Drayton Rotary Club is sponsoring an elementary school Halloween party at the Drayton Plains school, for children from 8-11 years old. This party will feature a costume parade, movies, refreshments and games, and will be held from 7-8:30 p.m.

The Township Recreation Department has suggested that parents limit their children's "meet and treat" door-to-door campaign to from 6:30-7:30 p.m. Friday, and encouraged subdivision groups to cooperate with this plan.

Invite Parents of First Graders to Open House

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Parents of all first grade students of the Donelson School have been invited to an open house at the school Monday. Principal Mrs. Iva O'Dell will comment on a movie to be shown, entitled "Skiing and the Three R's," depicting the adjustments a young boy must make in school life.

Three of the first grade teachers, Mrs. Marie Walsh, Mrs. Ruth Starkweather and Mrs. Ella Kirby will give a reading demonstration, and explain the children's workbooks. They will also answer questions on teaching methods in the first grade.

Arizona Doctor May Be Called

Defense Lawyer Says Physician May Testify on Sheppard's Injuries

CLEVELAND — Testimony from a medical doctor now living in Phoenix, Ariz., may play a major role in the defense of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, on trial for his life in the bludgeoning death of his pregnant wife.

This was reported yesterday by William J. Corrigan, chief defense attorney for the young Bay Village osteopath after the eighth day of the trial had passed with one jury seat still unfilled.

Corrigan, talking to reporters after the session, said he planned to call on Dr. Charles W. Elkins, formerly chief neurosurgeon at Lutheran Hospital here to "prove the extent of the injuries Sam Sheppard suffered at the hands of the man who killed his wife."

Dr. Sheppard was taken from his jail cell by a deputy sheriff last night for a brief visit at the bier of his dead wife's grandfather, Harry P. Blake.

Blake died Tuesday at the age of 84 and Dr. Sheppard had requested permission to attend his funeral today. The visit to the funeral home, conducted without advance notice, apparently was the sheriff's answer.

Northville Banker Dies at Wheel of Car

NORTHVILLE — John A. Boyce, 62, president of the Depositors State Bank here, collapsed and died while driving his car Wednesday night.

Oakland County Deputy Coroner Theodore W. Lind said Mr. Boyce suffered a heart attack and probably died before his car went off the road and struck a tree about 7:30 p.m. on Novi road near Eight Mile road.

Mr. Boyce, who lived at 204 Randolph St., had headed the bank 22 years, becoming president when two Northville banks merged. Before that he had been an attorney in Redford.

He was a member of the Northville Rotary Club and of several Masonic organizations in Detroit. Two brothers and a sister, all living in California, survive.

Nag Didn't Have Chance

MONTREAL (UP) — Milkman Gil Couture was asked in court Wednesday why he didn't chase three men after they robbed a tavern keeper. "They were in a Cadillac," Couture said. "I only had a horse and wagon. You can't follow a Cadillac in a horse and wagon."

Joan Wassell, Edward R. Webb

Wed Saturday

KEEOG HARBOR — Joan Marie Wassell became the bride of Edward R. Webb in the presence of 100 guests at the Orchard Lake Community Church Saturday.

Joan is the daughter of Nick Wassell of Keego Harbor and Mrs. William J. Donnelly of Cass Lake. Edward's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroeder of Redford.

The bride's white strapless gown of lace and tulle was floor length and worn with a jacket of illusion net. A small white velvet hat held her tulle veil of waist length. She carried white carnations on a white Bible.

Delores Jean Schroeder, the bridegroom's sister, was her attendant. Frank Schroeder Jr., was his brother's best man.

A reception attended by 200 guests was held at the Westacres clubhouse, before the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Charlevoix. They are residing here.

False Arrest Trial Recessed to Dec. 2

The third session of the Pontiac Police Trial, hearing charges against four officers accused of false arrest and assault and battery, heard four more witnesses Wednesday night and postponed the hearing until Dec. 2.

The five-man board is hearing the charges entered in a bill of complaint by Oliver Tadmey, 49, of 268 W. Wilson Ave., who claims he was beaten Sept. 26 during an early morning raid on an illegal liquor place near his home.

Tadmey, charged with drunk and disorderly conduct after police said he attempted to enter the home during the raid, is scheduled for trial today before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Milton R. Henry, Tadmey's attorney who made an opening statement at a previous session, was not present at last night's hearing.

South Oakland Set to Vote on Liquor, Taxes, Zoning

Local issues in seven South Oakland cities will be decided by voters at November 2 election.

The sale of liquor-by-the-glass which has been defeated four times in Clawson again will be on the ballot. If approved it would permit three Class C licenses, but if it fails it cannot legally be placed on the ballot again until 1958.

Liquor-by-the-glass is also an issue in Oak Park. The city council can award three more Class C liquor licenses if approved by the voters. If the issue is defeated the one bar in the city will lose its license.

Two other proposals will be on the ballot in Oak Park. One is to amend the zoning ordinance to abolish future multiple zoning and the other is to rezone all land from multiple zoning to single residence.

Hazel Park voters will be asked to approve a charter amendment to raise the pay of the mayor, councilmen and justice of the peace. If approved the mayor would receive $2,500 per year and each of the five councilmen $1,500. The justice of the peace would receive $6,000. The mayor now receives $750 per meeting and councilmen $5 each.

Four proposed amendments to the city charter will be decided on in Royal Oak. The first pertains to the election of three members to the Board of Review. The second would require a refund to special assessment taxpayers when special assessments collected exceed the full cost of the improvement by more than five per cent.

The third is to permit payment of taxes within 30 days of filing the tax roll and the payment of special assessments and penalties involved for non-payment. Fourth is the payment of the city employee's retirement fund and allowance to a beneficiary.

In Pleasant Ridge is a charter amendment permitting the resurfacing of streets when needed with the cost to be levied as a special assessment against the adjacent property.

In Southfield Township, voters will ballot on a $1,707,772 township share of the proposed Evergreen Interceptor Sewer, which will serve Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, the city of Lathrup Village, and Bloomfield. Troy and Southfield Townships. If approved, the money will be raised by a one-mill tax increase in 1955-59, and a two-mill increase in 1960-74.

Troy Township voters have before them a two-mill tax increase, for five years, to provide $30,000 for police, fire and year-round recreation work.

Both the proposal to increase the tax limitation and one to spread the tax must be approved before the tax goes into effect. It would increase the average resident's payment about $9 annually, according to Township Supervisor Norman Barnard.

Tracing education in the country which has given over 3,000 years of culture to the world, Sellinas said illiteracy in his country is only about 2% although compulsory education is only for the elementary grades.

Special emphasis on physical education gives each child one hour per day of this training in both elementary and high schools, he said.

A centralized ministry of education administers the school program.

Teachers' salaries in Greece, he pointed out, are higher than the average wage earners and public schools pay more than private schools. There is no teacher shortage, he stated, as there are about 3,000 waiting for appointments to public school positions.

Presiding at the meeting was Ross Crowell, president of the group. He is principal of Avondale high school.

Speaking briefly was Miss Ellen Solomonson, president of the Michigan Education Association. A member of the Sault Ste. Marie teaching staff, she has been given a year's leave of absence by her board of education to enable her to travel throughout the state speaking before various MEA groups.

Program chairman for the event was Mrs. Mildred Williams of Lake Orion. She is with the special education department of the county education office.

Ask Cooperation in Farm Census About to Start

LANSING — Cooperation with the farm census about to get under way was urged today by Carl E. Buskirk, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

"Michigan has just launched a new program in marketing research to aid farmers in moving their products to market," Buskirk said. "This program must be based on accurate agricultural information."

"The agricultural census every five years produces information that is important to the business of farming. Many programs operated by county agricultural agents are keyed to figures in this report."

Buskirk emphasized that information given by any farmer is confidential and is pooled with those given by all the others.

"Whenever flood or drought conditions make it necessary to classify an area as distressed, the amount of the appropriation needed to provide loans for farmers in such areas is based on census figures," he said.

Waffle Battery Costs Memphis Cook $16 Fine

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — J. M. Burpo, 27, a short order cook, paid a $16 fine on a disorderly conduct charge.

Dan Wexler, 29, said he ordered a waffle, waited 40 minutes for it, and then was struck by Burpo. Burpo said when he finally served the waffle, Wexler declared, "I don't want that one." Burpo pleaded no defense.

Egyptian to Speak

DRAYTON PLAINS — Mrs. A. Dunlap of Assuit, Egypt will speak to the combined meeting of the Kellersberger and Teenage Missionary Groups of the Community United Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m. today in the church.

Ortonville Girl Becomes Bride of Clarkston Man

CLARKSTON — Waterford Community Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Florence Yvonne McGaughey and Lawrence Thomas Beach Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Rufus McGaughey, of Ortonville. Clarkston residents Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Beach are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was dressed in a white floor-length gown of nylon tulle over satin, with a lace puffed skirt and a Peter Pan collar. She carried a white prayer book with white roses and carnations.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Joan McGaughey, with Evelyn Austin of Ortonville as bridesmaid.

Harold Baldwin of Pontiac was best man, with Chuck Rose, also of Pontiac, as attendant. George Kostin and Stan Thompson were ushers.

A reception followed at the Auburn Heights Community Club.

U of M Survey Planned to Find Voting Reasons

ANN ARBOR — Why do John and Mary Doe, American citizens, vote the way they do?

A group of social psychologists at the University of Michigan campus are trying to find the answers to this and other similar questions involving national reactions.

In some 45 sections of the country, picked at random, Americans are being polled on their political stands in the light of the upcoming elections.

Gerald Gurin, staff social psychologist at the survey research center on the Michigan campus, explains that no sectional or individual information will be available from the survey.

"It won't even be of any consequence since the group of citizens polled in any area will be so small," he adds.

Actually, staff members explained, the 45 areas are scattered across almost 35 states. In some instances they are a group of counties in a metropolitan area. Usually they are only one county from which a sampling of rural and city residents is chosen.

However, the amalgamate results of the study will not be available until after election time. Gurin claims that the final picture will represent a good cross-section of America.

However, he adds, "we're interested in a scientific approach to this matter. We want to know why people vote the way they do. We are not doing the survey to make a prediction as to how they will vote. We would rather not be involved."

The survey research center is an independent unit, sponsored by the University but financed by grants — which are usually made for a special project. Gurin says, however, that the current project is being made by the center from accumulated funds.

Arms Talks Get U.N. Approval

But Veteran Diplomats Believe Disarmament Still Far Off

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — The U.N. Political Committee took a day off today after unanimously approving a call for five-power talks on disarmament. The resolution was supported by both Russia and the West but veteran diplomats warned any real arms agreement was a long way off.

The vote, taken after two weeks of debate on the arms issue, came last night. It brought expressions of hope that the rare Soviet decision to join with the West in backing a common proposal might indicate a new era of cooperation.

The general air of satisfaction was marred somewhat by Soviet Delegate Andrei Vishinsky's statement that the disarmament talks might be doomed if the West insisted on using American proposals as a basis for discussion by the five powers.

Vishinsky wants the British-French proposal on which his own disarmament plan is based to serve as the foundation for negotiations.

The Soviet warning served as a reminder that East and West are still sharply split on fundamental points of disarmament. There is no indication the Soviets intend to relax their position despite recent gestures of cooperation.

Boychoir School Adds Fourth 'R'

Rhythm Is New Element for Boys, 9-14, Studying in New Jersey

PRINCETON, N. J. (UP) — Students at an unusual school in this central New Jersey community of culture study the "four Rs."

Rhythm is just as important as the traditional reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic.

The boys, aged nine through 14, are admitted to the non-profit school only if they have unusual musical ability which can be parlayed into profits by recordings, films and public appearances in concerts and on radio and television.

The advanced half of the student body travels about 25,000 miles a year in a special bus that is their classroom on wheels.

Founded in 1937 in Columbus, O., by a Presbyterian minister, the Rev. Herbert Huffman, the school moved here in 1950. It is non-denominational, and the student body is composed of boys of more than 20 faiths.

Although music has an important role in the curriculum — the school has its own recording and filming facilities — Rev. Huffman claims the students are about two years ahead of their public school opposites.

Despite the predominance of cultural training, Huffman says the students are "real boys" and not above normal childhood "ranks."

One of their traditions is dunking a boy's head in a pail of water after his first solo. It prevents the well-known malady known as a "swelled head."

Fights Fires Indoors

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (P) — A manufacturing plant here has made a small, three-wheeled fire truck for indoor use. The truck, the company says, is small enough to pass through a standard doorway and squeeze through narrow aisles. It carries a 210-gallon water tank and four firemen.

The area of the Pacific ocean is about the same as the combined area of the Atlantic, Indian and Arctic oceans.

Red Menace Is Kept Out of Strategic West Africa

LEOPOLDVILLE (UP) — With communism entrenched as the West's No. 1 threat in Asia, the four European powers administering tropical Africa are working hard to keep the Red menace out of this strategic colonial region.

According to informed sources here, Communist proselytizing among the some 100,000,000 Africans south of the Sahara so far has been slight.

The main Cominform campaign has been along Africa's Mediterranean fringe.

Officially, the sole Iron Curtain agent is a lone Czech consular representative in this booming European-type city of the Belgian Congo.

A survey of centers in west-central Africa—including Accra on the Gold Coast and Luanda, Portuguese West Africa—also failed to turn up any important traces of Communist propagandizing or infiltration.

However, the authorities obviously were trying to head off conditions which might breed communism in a strategic area rich in uranium, cobalt, manganese and other vital minerals.

As the king-pin of the latter-day industrial revolution hitting tropical Africa, Belgium is leading the way among colonial legions in lessening the vast gap between the education, pay and housing of blacks and whites.

Although free of the festering racial troubles of Kenya and the Union of South Africa, West Africa faces problems stemming from the awakening nationalism and low standard of living of the Africans.

Economically, for example, it is estimated the per capita yearly income of the tropical African is $50. Much of the farming is on scant subsistence level. The only independent countries on the coast are Liberia and the Union of South Africa.

To ease the slum-like congestion of the "Belge," Leopoldville native quarter where more than 200,000 Africans live under a 9 p.m. curfew, the government now is putting up more than 20,000 prefabricated concrete bungalows on the outskirts of the city.

Families may buy the houses for as little as $2 per month. Two industrial schools and an art school are supported by the government and are run by male religious orders. There are cheap or costless health services.

The huge private companies of the Belgian Congo are also contributing to the welfare of their native employees.

At present, it has all added up to a point where the African in Leopoldville is healthy looking, reasonably well-dressed, hard-working and usually the proud possessor of a bicycle.

Just Call Him Colonel

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — When you call Alfred Waddell "colonel" you have to specify which one. He's a colonel in the Civil Air Patrol and also holds the title on the governor's staff of Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Gold Holding Own for Eyewear Use

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP) — The United States has never gone off the gold standard so far as eyeglasses are concerned. This nation probably is the world's greatest user of gold in eyewear manufacturing.

Gold is considered essential by eyewear makers because of its non-tarnishing qualities, durability and cosmetic value, according to stylists of a local optical (Sharon) company. Alloyed with other metals, it can be colored in several flattering shades and it is virtually indestructible.

Most types of American eyewear use some gold. Today, gold filled frames are staging a comeback in stylish glasses for both men and women, the experts report.

Grains Sell Off in Early Trade

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains sold off in early dealings on the board of trade today.

There was a little hedging pressure in corn, reflecting cash corn receipts of 249 cars. This was the first cereal to head downward.

Weather was mostly favorable for completion of the soybean harvest, creating a cautious attitude among potential buyers in beans. July wheat was under pressure in view of an improving outlook for next year's winter wheat crop.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1/2 lower, December 22 1/2, corn 1/4 to 1/2 lower, December 15 1/2, oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, December 8 1/2, rye unchanged to 1/4 lower, December 13 1/2, soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 lower, November 22 1/2 and 1/2 to 1/2 cents a hundred pounds lower, November 14 1/2.

First Disney Show Has Promise, at Least

Ran Too Slow Till Second Half

Program Combination of Live Host, Cartoons Looks to Color TV

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK (AP)—After it gets a couple weeks older the new Walt Disney Show, all on film, should be going great.

But the opening show in the TV series seemed rather slow. Too much time—exactly one-half of the hour—was used in presenting the Disney studios, some of the equipment used there and members of the staff.

It wasn't until the second half, when Mickey Mouse—the character who sent Disney on his way—showed up, that things began to hum.

These were my observations after a special preview of the new show.

The hour, all filmed in color in anticipation of future TV re-runs when color-TV is more universal, is one of the most expensive regular weekly series yet. The $100,000 talked of as the cost of production is declared to be the minimum, with indications that some programs will run higher. While the films are in color, the transmission is in normal black-and-white.

The plan is to use approximately 60 per cent old material and 40 per cent new the first year, reversing the process for the second season.

Both animated and live characters are woven together, with Disney serving as his own host. The animated images help on some of the commercials.

Disney said his intention is to divide the programs into four sections, covering stories of frontier days, of adventure, of fantasy and of tomorrow.

Kennedy Land Fraud Trial Now Under Way

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Opening statements were made yesterday in the conspiracy trial of Ronald V. Kennedy, 43, ousted State Highway Department land buyer.

Kennedy is charged with conspiracy to defraud the state of $600 in right-of-way purchases for M 21 near Hudsonville.

A jury of 10 men and two women is hearing the case in the court of Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith.

The prosecution indicated G. Palmer Seeley, former chief right-of-way buyer for the highway department's Grand Rapids district, will testify during the trial.

Seeley is serving a 2½ to 5 year prison term at Southern Michigan Prison for a similar conspiracy charge.

Waukegan Fisherman Predicts Mild Winter

WAUKEGAN (INS)—A Waukegan fisherman, who makes a "fishy" annual weather prediction, said the winter will be mild—at least until Jan. 1.

Mathon Kyritsis said he found perch in his nets four to six miles off shore, but none were caught in nets 10 to 13 miles off shore. Kyritsis says perch know—when they stay near shore the winter is going to be mild.

Plan Soo Locks Stamp

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield Wednesday announced the post office plans to issue a 1955 stamp honoring the observance of the Soo Locks centennial next year at Sault Ste. Marie. The date of issue for the stamp will be set later, Summerfield said another commemorative stamp will be issued for centennial celebrations at Michigan State College and Pennsylvania State University.

Prince Charles' Boxing Lesson Today Canceled

LONDON (AP)—Maybe Buckingham Palace figures Prince Charles needs a couple of warmup fights before they toss him in there with that heavyweight champion from America.

Anyway, a scheduled boxing bout at the palace today between the prince, who is almost 6, and Stephen Rutter, who already is, has been canceled.

"I had a call from the palace to tell me that Stephen would not be needed," said the Yank brawler's father, Peter, who is second secretary at the U.S. Embassy. "I don't know why."

The Duke of Edinburgh, polo-playing husband of Queen Elizabeth II and father of the prince, reportedly decided the future king should learn to box.

Draft-Dodging Family All in Jail

Last of Middlers Taken Hiding in Home; Parents Face Contempt Charge

DETROIT (INS)—The last of the draft-dodging Middel family wound up in jail yesterday along with his parents in a surprise raid staged by federal authorities in Detroit yesterday.

Edward Middel, 29, is scheduled to appear in federal court today on draft evasion charges and his parents, James, 74, and Jessie, 68, are accused of contempt of a grand jury indictment ordering that they reveal their son's whereabouts.

Middel was trapped yesterday when deputy marshals scaled a seven-foot cyclone fence around the family home and found Edward hiding in a 4-by-8-foot space beneath the basement stairway.

Edward is not the only Middel son to become entangled with draft laws. David, 41, served two years in a federal penitentiary for failing to register for the draft in World War II. He also received a $10,000 fine which is unpaid.

Other Middel boys, Patrick, 39, and Paul, 33, were handed 3½ year prison terms in 1942 as draft dodgers.

The senior Middel settled in Detroit in 1925 and was also cited for failing to register during World War I.

Senator Asks Account of U.N. Expense Tabs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—The United States criticized today excessive salaries and expense allowances for top U. N. officials and urged an accounting of all compensations for living and entertainment.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), speaking in the U. N. administrative and budgetary committee, warned that payment of "unvouchered" allowances was "an invitation to abuse."

3 Firemen Die, 23 Hurt in Blast

4,000-Gallon Chemical Tank Explodes in Philly Factory Yard

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Three firemen were killed and 23 were injured, five of them seriously, today when a 4,000-gallon chemical tank exploded in the rear of a North Philadelphia factory.

The dead included Battalion Chief John J. News who headed the firemen summoned to the scene when neighbors in the area complained of chemical fumes.

Deputy Fire Commissioner George Hink said that the firemen responding to the alarm approached the two-story brick plant of the Charles W. Berg Laboratories, manufacturers of chemicals and oils, from the rear.

Hink said the fumes were so heavy that the firemen could not determine their origin immediately. News dispatched half of his men to the front of the building and led the remainder into a rear yard about 150 feet long and 60 feet wide.

The firemen were approaching a rear door of the building when the huge tank, about 15 yards away from them exploded.

The tank, which had been set on a concrete base at one side of the yard, was hurled nearly completely across the yard and crashed against one of the other buildings which surrounded the enclosure.

The group of firemen and several policemen were enveloped in the blast. Windows in the area were shattered and drums of solvents stored in the yard were hurled about the enclosure.

Another huge chemical tank in the yard, similar to the one which exploded, was not damaged, however. One of two trees nearby was toppled by the blast.

5-Day Week Restored

MUSKOGEE (AP)—J. O. Ostergren, president of the Lumber Foundry Corp. of Muskogee, said Wednesday his company has resumed a five-day-a-week operation schedule for the first time in many months.

He said the plant's present 830-man work force will be expanded to 1,500 by Dec. 15. The company manufactures engine heads and blocks for automobiles and trucks.

Seaway Plans Call for Opening in Spring of '59

BUFFALO, N. Y. (INS)—Lewis G. Castle, administrator for the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp., disclosed today that plans call for the opening of the 182-mile waterway for shipping by the spring of 1959.

Speaking at a Buffalo Chamber of Commerce luncheon, Castle said completion of all navigation work is scheduled for late in 1958.

The first contract will be let next month for initial navigation projects. The corporation is under the U. S. department of Defense.

The seaway, which will cost upward of 600 million dollars, will run from the Atlantic Ocean to the Great Lakes.

Castle predicted that 36 million tons of cargo will pass through St. Lawrence River channels and locks the first year of operation. Toll rates will be fixed on a "reasonable" basis, he said.

Drive Exceeds Goal

PORT HURON (AP)—The Port Huron-Marysville Community Chest drive ended Wednesday with contributions and pledges totaling $208,250. Drive officials said it was the third straight year the campaign has exceeded its goal. This year's goal was $205,555.
