To 'Advise' Premier

Is Malenkov in Hungary?

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES
BUDAPEST — Former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov was reliably reported today to be in Budapest to bolster the government of Russian-installed Premier Janos Kadar.

An excellent source, who asked not to be quoted by name, said Malenkov, now a deputy Soviet premier, arrived in the Hungarian capital, Nov. 23.

This source said it was Malenkov who advised Kadar to change his lenient attitude and resort to harsh measures against still striking Hungarian workers.

This was the explanation given for Kadar's two sharp speeches broadcast Sunday and Monday in which he reversed his former conciliatory attitude in conferences with leaders of the workers' council of Greater Budapest.

In the meantime, at the United Nations in New York, Dag Hammarskjold renewed pressure on Hungary's puppet government today to admit himself and other U.N. observers into the ravaged country.

Meanwhile, there were strong hints that the Soviet U.N. delegation had assured the Indian delegation that the secretary general would be able to leave for a Budapest visit within two days.

Hammarskjold was expected to give the U.N. assembly today an answer to Cuba's request for a progress report on Hungary's official position on the several assembly resolutions relating to the revolt.

Among these are one demanding that Russia stop deporting Hungarian patriots and another that Russian troops withdraw promptly from the Soviet satellite.

A third asks that the U.N. chief or his representatives be admitted to the strife-torn country to organize relief and observe conditions after the Russian rampage.

Dec. 11 Hearing Slated for Rash

Charge Rochester Man With 1st Degree Murder in Wife's Shooting

A Rochester man, who confessed Monday to killing his wife with a shotgun, demanded an examination at his arraignment Tuesday on a first degree murder charge.

L. J. Rash, 52, of 313 Woodward Ave., was remanded to the Oakland County Jail without bond following the hearing before, Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green.

The examination was set for Dec. 11.

Rash, the father of two children, stated he killed his wife, Nina, 48, early Monday when she returned to their home with friends after an all-day drinking spree.

He was represented in court yesterday by Rochester Attorney Wilson Severance.

Gets Permission to Fly Man Weighing 1,041

CHICAGO (INS)—Slick Airways, authorized only to haul freight, has received special permission from the Civil Aeronautics Board to fly one passenger to New York.

Passenger airlines did not object because the one man Slick will transport is Robert Earl Hughes, 30, of Fishhook, Ill., who claims to be the heaviest man in the world at 1,041 pounds. He can't squeeze through the cabin doors of passenger planes.

Scraper Ready? Forecast Snow or Freezing Rain

Snow flurries or a freezing drizzle is the forecast for late afternoon and tonight, with the thermometer registering a low of 20-24 degrees.

Thursday and Friday will be partly cloudy with scattered snow flurries and cold. Saturday will be a little warmer with Sunday and Monday colder again. Snow is predicted about Monday. The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 23 degrees. The mercury rose to 31 degrees at 1 p.m.

Madison Heights Justice Accused

Ferndale Girl Charges Immoral Proposals Were Made to Her

Charles O. Williams, associate justice of the peace in Madison Heights, yesterday was accused of making immoral proposals by an 18-year-old Ferndale girl.

The girl, Patricia Dawn Slate, told Madison Heights police chief Robert E. Richardson she went to Williams' home Monday night to ask him to let her friend out of jail.

She said Williams proposed she accompany him to a motel, and offered to pay her $10 and cancel the balance of the boy friend's $100 fine.

Miss Slate said she agreed, left Williams' house on a pretext, and called police, who suggested she accompany Williams to the motel and promised police would follow in unmarked cars.

Richardson said Williams and Miss Slate drove to a Bloomfield Township motel, where Williams registered under a false name and the girl "ducked out."

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today Miss Slate will take a lie detector test today in Lansing. If the test bears out her story, Taylor said, he will begin removal proceedings against Williams.

Meeting informally last night, the Madison Heights city council drafted a demand for Williams' resignation which they plan to submit at tonight's formal meeting.

Williams, who was asked to make a statement to Taylor yesterday afternoon and to appear at the informal council meeting, failed to show up for either session.

CLAIMS STORY FALSE

Contacted yesterday, he said Miss Slate's story was "completely false" and said she threatened to "get him" when he refused to free her boy friend, Larry Seigfried, 18, of Ferndale.

Seigfried and his brother, James, 19, were sentenced to fines of $100 and 15-day jail sentences by Williams Nov. 20 for stealing gasoline. Non-payment of the fines would result in 45-day sentences, Williams said.

Tension Growing in Arab States of Syria, Iraq

Bitter Charges Hurled by Both Nations in New Mideast Crisis

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UP)—The drumhead tension between Syria and Iraq mounted today. The feeling grew that some sort of break—either in Damascus or Baghdad—might come within days.

Informed circles saw the likelihood of an open coup by the army clique that has taken control of Syria in recent weeks. The army faction, pro-Soviet although non-Communist, is led by Col. Aboul Hamid Saraj.

The Syrian-Iraqi crisis built up in a continuing exchange of bitter charges. Jordan's decision to cut its ties with Britain and consider closer relations with Russia underlined the possibility of deeper Soviet penetration into the fermenting Middle East.

Iraq accuses Syria of conducting a subversive campaign against the government of Iraqi Premier Nuri Said, an opponent of Soviet moves to extend its Middle East influence.

Syria charges Iraq with seeking to destroy the governments of both Syria and Jordan.

The latest blast came in a Damascus radio broadcast which claimed a delegation of Iraqi politicians had called on King Faisal to dismiss Nuri Said's government. The official Syrian radio said the delegation urged Faisal to appoint a government "responsive to national demands concentrated on the withdrawal of Iraq from the Baghdad Pact."

There was no confirmation from Baghdad of the report. Both Iraq and Lebanon previously have accused Syria's radio and press of airing false stories and spreading untruths designed to alienate Iraq and Lebanon from the West.

The Baghdad Pact, prime target of Syria, Egypt and Russia, links Iraq, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan and Britain in an alliance designed to meet the threat of Communist aggression.

The Soviet Union, which is reported to be pouring arms into Syria, kept up its role of protector of Arab nations antagonistic to the West with a charge that the United States is trying to provoke Turkey and Iraq into an attack on Syria.

The Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda declared all "peace loving nations" would support Syria in defending her freedom and independence.

Adding to Western fears of another explosion in the crisis-ridden Middle East was the announcement from Jordan that it planned to end its alliance with Britain and consider closer relations with the Soviets.

Britisher Tells Kiwanians

Nations Look to U.S. for Mideast Solution

The countries of Europe look toward the United States to solve the problem in the Middle East, according to Edward W. Hughes, British exchange professor at the University of Michigan.

Hughes, a political scientist from King's College in Newcastle, spoke at the Pontiac Kiwanis Club meeting at the Waldron Hotel yesterday.

"Britain is split over the intervention of England and France in the Middle East crisis," said Hughes.

Termed by many as a 'monstrous mistake' and 'Eden's folly,' the act was not a needless one.

"England's two objectives were to stop the fighting between Israel and Egypt and to protect the Suez Canal from damage."

"Some Britishers feel that our intervention was acted on with too little evidence. Possibly the biggest mistake was that the government did not take the people into its confidence. We also lost the faith of the Middle East."

But the real reason, that England did not disclose until later, said Hughes, was the Soviet threat to extend her influence. The threat was made clear, he said, when Russian arms were supplied as fuel to the Middle East tinder box.

"The countries of Europe can't cope with the problem," said Hughes. "England now has to tread lightly with the newly formed Arab states. They are highly nationalistic, and although we have given

Tory Resolution Hits U.S. Policy in Middle East

But Other Two Parties Call for Reconciliation With United States

LONDON (UP)—Anti-American feeling soared to new heights today in Britain. Cartoonists lampooned President Eisenhower mercilessly. A denunciation of U.S. policy introduced by more than 100 Conservatives was before Parliament.

Other voices, however, called for renewed efforts to heal the breach with the United States caused by the British-French dilemma in Egypt.

In Parliament, the opposing views were spelled out in motions of the minority Labor and Liberal parties urging reconciliation with Washington and by an

LONDON (INS)—The diplomatic rumor mill in London worked overtime today with stories about an alleged breakdown in Anglo-American relations.

Among the rumors were these: President Eisenhower refused to speak via telephone to Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden.

Dorsey's Death Still Investigated

Case Revolves Around Genuine Note Left by Bandleader

GREENWICH, Conn. (UP)—Greenwich police haven't closed their investigation into the death of bandleader Tommy Dorsey, and Police Chief David W. Robbins says a note the famed trombonist left his wife "is important to our case."

The statement from Chief Robbins came even after the medical examiner, Dr. C. Stanley Knapp, signed a death certificate which listed the death as accidental asphyxiation.

The note Robbins referred to was not one given out by Dorsey's personal manager, Tino Barzile, shortly after the body was found in the palatial Dorsey home here Monday.

Robbins said the note Barzile released never was written by Dorsey.

"Barzile told me he didn't find any note in Dorsey's bedroom," Chief Robbins said. "Barzile said he released his statement to newsmen to relieve the pressure on Mrs. Dorsey."

The purported note read by Barzile was affectionate in tone, Barzile said it was addressed to Mrs. Dorsey.

In New York Barzile declined comment on Chief Robbins report of the note.

Chief Robbins refused to disclose what Dorsey's actual note to his wife said.

Lakes Not Yet Safe for Skating, Fishing

Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons directed a warning to youngsters today of the importance of ice safety on the lakes as winter sets in.

"The beginning of winter is the most hazardous time of the year for ice drownings," said Irons. "Youngsters tend to rush the season and skate on the lakes before they are safely frozen over. It is especially dangerous now when there is a deceiving layer of thin ice on the surface."

"Adults have to be reminded of the importance of ice safety as much as the kids," said Irons. "Last year our department issued an average of 35 tickets per month for reckless driving on the ice."

"And one fisherman died needlessly when he was overcome by fumes from a gas burner in his shanty. The man drowned when the burner melted the ice beneath him."

U.N. STOPS MAKE OVER Await Orders

Port Said Marks Time as British-French Delay Troop Withdrawal

PORT SAID (INS)—The limbo between the invasion of British and French troops and their withdrawal is keeping Port Said in a bizarre half-life.

The city is marking time and so are its people, its invaders and its U.N. protectors.

Three weeks after the ceasefire, the city still is in passive resistance to the Anglo-French.

One week after the arrival of U.N. police troops there still are no instructions on how their job should be done.

One result of the passive resistance is block after block of closed shops and block after block of idling Egyptians.

A result of the lack of U.N. instructions is that 200 Norwegian soldiers spend each day basking in the sun or marching in their underwear several blocks for a swim in the Mediterranean.

(A U.N. spokesman in Cairo said the Norwegian troops would be joined today by 350 Danish soldiers from the Abu Suweir staging area.)

Once the British and French pull out, the city will begin to return to normal. But even then it will be a long process because the canal, which is the city's biggest employer, is blocked. Until it is operating, several thousand workers will be laid off.

Getting the canal into operation is a key problem for Port Said, for although it is a city of 200,000 persons its whole economic life depends on the canal. There really isn't any other reason for its existence.

Car Backs Off Dock; Alpena Girls Drown

ALPENA (AP)—Two teenage girls drowned yesterday when the car they were riding in backed off a Lake Huron dock and flipped into 40 feet of water.

They were Rosemary Gorski and Dorothy Beaubien, both 15, of Alpena.

The driver of the car, Anthony Santey, 22, a Great Lakes seaman whose home is in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was hospitalized with severe shock and exposure.

Police said Santey, a crewman aboard the cement freighter Wyandotte, was backing the car along the Huron Portland Cement Co. dock at 3 a.m. when it hit a piling and plunged into the icy water.

Crewmen on a freighter at the dock saw the accident and managed to rescue Santey, who escaped through a window. The girls were trapped in the car and their bodies recovered an hour later.

President Picks Dr. L. G. Derthick as U.S. Commissioner of Education

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower today picked Dr. Lawrence Gridley Derthick, now superintendent of schools at Chattanooga, Tenn., to be U. S. Commissioner of Education.

In the education post, Derthick, who will be 51 Dec. 23, succeeds Dr. Samuel M. Brownell, brother of Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell. The job has been vacant since Sept. 1, when Samuel Brownell resigned to become superintendent of schools at Detroit. It pays $14,800 a year.

The President's choice of Derthick, announced at his vacation headquarters here, is a recess appointment subject to Senate confirmation when Congress reconvenes in January.

The selection of Anderson as a White House liaison man with Congress is an outright Presidential appointment which does not require Senate confirmation.

Derthick, a native of Hazel Green, Ky., is a former principal of the City-County School at Clarksville, Tenn., and he was superintendent of schools at Nashville, Tenn., from 1939 to 1952.

He has been school superintendent at Chattanooga since 1942.

Anderson is a former Republican member of Congress from California. He served in the House from 1939 through 1952. He will work with retired Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons, who heads up the Presidential staff dealing with Congress.

The position Anderson fills has been vacant since Fred A. Seaton was named Secretary of the Interior earlier this year.

Selection of Derthick and Anderson was announced as Eisenhower started the second full day of a golf-and-work vacation.

The President flew here Monday afternoon for up to two weeks of relaxation while still keeping a watchful eye on the tense international situation.

His headquarters announced yesterday that Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles will review that picture at a conference Sunday. Dulles will stop at Augusta for a few hours en route to Washington from Key West, Fla., where he has been recuperating from an operation for intestinal cancer.

Was Donor of St. Hugo's Mrs. Theodore MacManus Is Taken by Death at 86

Funeral service will be held Friday in Bloomfield Hills for Mrs. Alice Holdridge MacManus, widow of Theodore F. MacManus, nationally famous former Detroit advertising man.

Mrs. MacManus died yesterday at Stonycroft, the family estate in Bloomfield Hills, after a brief illness. She was 86.

Mrs. MacManus, who died in 1947, was a co-founder in 1934 of the firm of MacManus, John and Adams.

Active in church affairs, Mrs. MacManus in 1934 was given one of the Catholic Church's highest honors, the "Pro Ecclesiastica Pontificia" medal, by Pope Pius XI.

With her husband, she built St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church on Opdyke Road as a wayside shrine to house the body of her son, Hugo, who died in 1929. The church was later deeded to the Archdiocese of Detroit as a parish church.

Born in 1870 in Lima, Ohio, Mrs. MacManus was married to her husband in 1901.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Margaret Zaun, of New York City; two daughters, Mrs. Alexander Toluboff, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. William Fox, of Indianapolis; two sons, John R. and Theodore, both of Bloomfield Hills; and 15 grandchildren.

The body will lie in state at Stonycroft from noon today. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Thursday.

A Requiem High Mass will be sung Friday at 11 a.m., with burial in the family crypt at St. Hugo of the Hills.

The Rev. Fr. Francis Stack will officiate.

Reporter Scoops Up Huge Eagle by Detroit River

DETROIT (INS)—A proud golden eagle was recovering at the Detroit Zoo today from an icy bath in the river and a recent chastening by a porcupine.

Along with announcement of that engagement, the President moved to heal the rift with Great Britain and France over the Suez crisis. A White House statement yesterday said U.S. differences with its two chief western allies "in no way should be construed as a weakening or disruption of the good bonds that have so long joined our nation with the United Kingdom and the Republic of France and our other allies in assuring that peace, justice and freedom shall prevail."

The eagle, nicknamed "Guinevere," was found near the Detroit River yesterday by Detroit newspaper reporter Robert Maher and photographer Jim Savage, who had answered a tip that a huge bird was grounded near the water.

Maher captured the mighty bird after a brief chase, tucked it under his arm and took it back to his news city room, where he marched in petting the eagle's ample head.

Some reporters beat a hasty retreat upon sighting Guinevere's large beak and evil-looking talons. Her wingspread measured eight feet.

The bird, shivering and with two porcupine quills imbedded near her beak, was wrapped in a blanket and taken to the Detroit Zoo, where a vet removed the quills.

Zoo authorities said the eagle apparently had tangled with a porcupine while on a migration flight, then stumbled into the water and got covered with oil slick.

Guinevere was fed a guinea pig and locked up, strangely enough, in an empty porcupine cage, to keep her from a plump white rabbit she eyed hungrily.

U.S. HAS SAME PROBLEM

"The same problem confronts the United States as well as the free countries of Europe. Our populations won't stand for drastic action. Our only course is to be soft with the Arab countries and to offer them more than the Russians do."

"Europe looks to the United States as the only country powerful enough to intervene or outbid the Soviet Union in the Middle East."

Hughes pointed out that Britain's aggression initiated action from the United Nations with the establishment of a workable police force. Secondly, he said, large scale hostilities were stopped, preventing what could have developed into a third world war.

"Only the future can tell if we were successful there," Hughes said.

New Diphtheria Victims

DETROIT (AP)—Three new diphtheria victims, all in the same family, have brought the year's total in Detroit to 89 cases, including five deaths. Last year the city had 13 cases, including one death. The three new victims, a mother and two children, live in an east side area where one other case was reported.

Anti-U.S. Feeling Increases in Britain

Eden government's backers in Commons. Seldom in history has so large a segment of the British government party undertaken an attack in this fashion on an allied nation. It said:

"This House congratulates the foreign secretary (Selwyn Lloyd) on his efforts to secure international control of the Suez Canal, and deplores both the resolution of the (U.N.) General Assembly calling for immediate and unconditional withdrawal of British and French troops from Egypt and the attitude of the U.S.A., which is gravely endangering the Atlantic Alliance."

Four separate U.N. resolutions have called on Britain, France and Israel to pull their troops out of Egypt. The United States supported them. The endorsement of the resolution by nearly a third of the Conservative membership of the House promised grave trouble for the government if it began a complete withdrawal.

If the Conservatives hold ranks, they could easily adopt the motion. But the party itself has been split by dissension over the British-French intervention in Egypt, although they closed ranks behind Prime Minister Eden Nov. 23 when he left for Jamaica suffering from overstrain.

Opposition motions urging the Conservative government to try to restore the close understanding of previous years with the United States were filed by a group of Laborites and also by the tiny, middle-of-the-road Liberal party.

FRENCH ATTACKS

In France, too, public opinion mounted against the United States as a result of the Suez crisis. The United States was blamed for not moving faster to supply Europe with petroleum to replace the cut-off Middle East supplies.

But French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau said: "Despite our bitterness, we cannot renounce American friendship nor the Atlantic Alliance."

The London Daily Mail said Britain may buy oil from the Soviet Union.

In Ottawa, Canadian Foreign Minister Lester Pearson told Parliament both the Atlantic Alliance and the British Commonwealth were badly split by the British-French Suez action. He said that the United States might have better understood Europe's vital interest in the Suez Canal if the issue had been related to something closer to home like the Panama Canal.

Train and Truck Crash Kills 3

Locomotives and Cars of Freight Derailed as Fuel Explodes

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP)—Two trainmen and a gasoline truck driver died yesterday in a wreckage-melting fire of gasoline and diesel fuel after the tank truck derailed a freight train at a crossing on U.S. 20.

Two locomotives and 10 cars of the 65-car Chesapeake & Ohio train were derailed by the collision at the crossing three miles southwest of Michigan City.

Brakeman Bernard Terhorst, 31, Holland, Mich., suffered burns as he tried to drag the engine and the fireman from their overturned locomotive before the intense heat drove him back. He was brought to Doctors Hospital and was reported in fair condition.

The lead engine overturned, trapping the engineer and fireman, after the truck had struck the second engine and knocked it crosswise on the track. Five freight cars burned with the locomotives and truck. One of them was believed to contain explosive chemicals, but there was no explosion.

State police stood by for hours waiting for the fierce blaze to burn out so they could approach the wreckage and the remains of the trapped victims.

Seven hours after the crash, a plane pilot flying over the scene said he could feel the heat waves at 2,000 feet.

The train was Chicago-bound from Grand Rapids, Mich., carrying mostly auto parts, scrap and salt. One of the burned cars was loaded with new automobiles. State police estimated the damage at a half million dollars.

The derailment tore up 50 feet of track, but other tracks were available for rerouting trains. Police were able to divert traffic from the busy highway without serious jams.

State police identified the engineer as Ray Powers, 55, and the fireman as Robert H. Johnson, 38, both of Grand Rapids.

The truck driver was identified through markings on the truck cab as Charlie Wilson, 50, Mishawaka, Ind., a driver for the Circle Oil Co., Elkhart, Ind. A son, Hargis, made the identification.

Women Voters to Hold Debate on Area Pollution

Members of the Pontiac League of Women Voters will meet at the YWCA, 22 Franklin Blvd., at 7:30 tonight to discuss the extent of pollution of Oakland County water resources.

Pollution is a subject the League is studying throughout the state.

An open discussion at the public meeting is scheduled to follow speeches by Mrs. Barney Habel, Mrs. T. S. Diehm, and Mrs. C. B. Tolle.

The Day in Birmingham Parking Lot 3-A to Open Saturday; Set Ceremony

BIRMINGHAM—Parking Lot 3-A is completed and will be opened to the public in ribbon-cutting ceremonies at 9 a.m. Saturday morning.

Costs of the lot are being estimated at $20,000.

The lot, north of Hamilton street, may be entered from Park and Ferndale streets, and will provide 175 car parking spaces.

The Chamber of Commerce is marking the opening of its Yule shopping season with the ceremony opening the lot, and merchants especially in the East Maple avenue area are looking forward to receiving customers' rewards for their assessments paying for the lot.

Mayor James Allen is being asked to cut the ribbon, and Chamber of Commerce officials to be in attendance will be headed by Arthur Blakeslee, president, and Donald Cummings, chairman of the off street parking committee.

Their group has worked with city officials over the long months of planning, court sessions for condemnation of lots, moving of homes, uprooting of trees, and talking over rights-of-way for accessways to the lots.

Cost was estimated originally for $335,000, according to James Juhl, city coordinator, but land costs were up about 30 per cent after condemnation was necessary to acquire four of the ten lots.

A total of $170,000 was paid for land, and $45,000 for construction of the lot.

Other expenses have been for forestry department and DPW work, moving of power lines, and yet to be billed for engineering, and attorneys fees and court costs, the latter two expected to run about $3,000.

Foretelling a boost of business on Hamilton, which now has mainly service-type buildings, merchants look also to the two-week-old Hamilton-Hunter crossover, which is allowing north-bound Hunter traffic to turn left into the street.

First two cars entering Lot 3-A Saturday morning will be presented gifts, first of which if following a tradition begun with Lot No. 1. It will be a roll of nickels.

Residents to the north of the lot are being spared the glare of headlights in their windows by a five-foot high brick fence, which is to also shield them from noise.

Paying for the lot are bonding moneys from the city's plan, (60 per cent) and the residents in the area the city has termed to be benefited (40 per cent of the required money.)

To mark its 135th anniversary on Dec. 9 the First Methodist church has asked the Rev. James Wright of Mt. Clemens to be guest preacher. He is a former associate minister here.

The church has slated a MYF Teen Party for Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship hall, and an orientation class Sunday at 3 p.m. for those to join the church on the following Sunday.

Adults as well as classes are visiting Baldwin Library this week, taking advantage of Book Week displays to gain gift suggestions. Also on display in the library's showcase are books and figurines of Peter and His Friends, done by Beatrix Potter, originator of Peter Rabbit.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Francis Hall

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Francis (Eva) Hall, 94, of 3071 Platt Rd., Ann Arbor. She died Monday at the Frey Convalescent Home in Delta, Ohio after a long illness.

Mrs. Hall was born in May, 1862 at Lake Odessa to Aaron and Elizabeth Knapp Shellenbarger.

A former resident of Pontiac, she was a member of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church and a past noble of Welcome Rebekah Lodge No. 246 of Pontiac. She left Pontiac to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. G. E. Bentley of Ann Arbor eight years ago.

Surviving are a son, Harry Aldrich of Roscommon; her daughter, Mrs. Bentley; three grandchildren; five great-grandchildren and one brother, Cap Shellenbarger of California.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Friday from the Stevens & Bush Funeral Home, Ypsilanti. The Rev. Gordon Speer will officiate with burial in the Highland Cemetery. Mrs. Hall's body will be at the funeral home Thursday morning.

Leslie Smith, 57, of 21½ S. Saginaw St. died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital. He was ill two weeks.

Born in Hungary on July 25, 1899, he was the son of Mike and Julia Jacob Smith.

Mr. Smith had made his home in Pontiac 11 years, coming here from Deford.

Besides his mother, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Julia Theis of Dearborn, a sister, Mrs. Irene Gage of Deford; two brothers, Clarence Smith of Owosso and Mike Smith of Detroit.

Mr. Smith's body is at the Pursley Funeral Home where service will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday. The Rev. Paul T. Hart of the First Methodist Church will conduct the service with burial following in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Tree Decoration to Be Featured at Cranbrook

An exhibition of Christmas tree decorations made by Katherine Mack, science professor at Wayne State University, will be the December feature at the Cranbrook Institute of Science. It was announced today.

The imaginative decorations are made from gilded and painted seed pods, leaves and other parts of plants.

Also featured at the institute beginning Dec. 10 will be an exhibition of photographs taken by staff members in the course of their work.

When nitroglycerine explodes, the volume of gas released thereby is said to be approximately 10,000 times greater than that contained in the original explosive agency.

Correctly Colored Kitchen Cheerful, Not Chore-ful

By HOWARD KETCHAM
Color and Design Engineer

Since the housewife spends more time in the kitchen than anywhere else in the house during the day, it should not only reflect her personality, but it should be a bright and pleasing place in which to work. This can best be achieved by the judicious use of color for the background and for equipment, appliances and accessories.

Today, when the home owner is planning a new kitchen, colored appliances to match or contrast with the walls, cabinets, and other fixtures are given the greatest consideration.

In some instances, manufacturers are matching the colors of their appliances with the colors of other equipment, although standardization has not yet reached the ideal stage. Much more has to be done to bring about coordinated colors for the kitchen in the appliance industry.

Waterford Revokes License for Controversial

Seek High Walk at Farmington

Lawmakers Also Detach Site for County Building

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Meeting in regular session here, the Township Board revoked the license for the dump which was to be located at 1280 Crescent Lake Road.

The project had aroused considerable protests from nearby home owners.

New Lake Unit Eyes Standards

East Oakland Groups Studying Dam Care, Property Use

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Committees of the newly-organized Lake Oakland (East End) Civic Assn. are beginning sessions to discuss and decide on action to maintain and improve their area's standards.

A committee investigating maintenance of the Lake Oakland Dam includes Mike Chersack, Clarence McAllister and Leo Knisely.

Checking on property restrictions is a group formed by Leon Cheyne, Mrs. Grant McDonald and Albert Best.

The new officers of the association, which adopted a constitution and by-laws on Monday night at Jayne Adams school, are Grant McDonald, president, Lewis E. Whitehorn, vice president, Mr. Robert Ferrier, secretary, and Mrs. Leo Knisely, treasurer.

Next meeting will be at the Jayne Adams school Jan. 23 at 8 p.m., when all property owners in the area are asked to attend and other committees will be formed.

Publicity for the group is being handled by Mrs. McDonald, and refreshments for meetings will be arranged by Mrs. Clarence McAllister, Mrs. Whitehorn and Mrs. Ralph Mettetal.

St. Paul Men Ask Polonchek for Dinner

ROCHESTER — Johnny Polonchek, Michigan State football coach will be the featured speaker at the new St. Paul's Men's Club dinner and program tomorrow at 7 p.m. at the Avon Park pavilion on Ludlow street.

Also featured will be moving pictures of State games this year.

The Rev. Douglas Parker has announced that a short session will be held to hold election of officers and the organization of committees. There will be real spirited men-type singing led by Frank Irish, and the discussion of proposed service projects for the year.

Members are to bring special guests. Devotions will be led by John Rutter and his committee.

Car Skids Past Stop; Minor Injuries Result

Jean W. Edgin, 25, of 52 Florence Ave., suffered minor head injuries when her car skidded through a stop sign into another car yesterday, Pontiac police said.

She was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

The other driver, Dale D. Nance, 17, of 155 Euclid Ave., was not injured. The accident was at Florence and Norton avenue, police said.

Hobby Fills Carnes Home

Ceramics Answers Vase Need

By VIOLA GRILE and DOROTHY JEAN ZACK

FOUR TOWNS — A ceramics hobby that began with a need for inexpensive flower arrangement aids, now fills a new ranch home with shelf loads of handmade pottery and its basement with dozens of busy art students.

Mrs. A. N. Carnes, who 20 years ago decided that a larger variety of vases within her limited budget was reason enough for beginning ceramic work, now is considered a local expert on clay and glaze work.

She'll talk to former neighbors and fellow guild members when the Elizabeth Russell Guild of the Four Towns Methodist Church gathers at the church at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Many members of the guild were also members of her classes when she and her husband lived on Lochlin road at Union Lake.

A few months ago the Carnes moved her kilns and pottery supplies, his amateur radio equipment, with other items to a year-old home at 1000 Suggen Rd., Millford Route 2, near Bogie Lake.

"Moving with all these breakable plates, figurines and nick-knacks would have been horrible, except that my ceramic classes helped me move," says Mrs. Carnes. "It took us a full week."

MARIAN VIRGINIA CHEAL — Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Cheal of Lake Orion announce the engagement of their daughter, Marian Virginia, to Marvin Middleton, Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Middleton, also of Lake Orion. A summer wedding is planned.

BELLS FOR YULE — Mrs. Frank Zimmerman, at left, adjusts the metallic-bow on bells she and Mrs. Paul Hagan, right, and Mrs. Richard McCarius are making for the annual Christmas bazaar of Our Lady of the Lakes parish in Waterford. For use indoors or outdoors, the metallic decorations are among the many items to be sold that include handmade linens, stuffed toys, gifts, cards and wrappings, food-stuffs and candies. The sale, at the church on the Dixie Highway in Waterford, is set for Saturday and Sunday, under chairmanship of Mrs. Zimmerman.

Melvin Ousnamer Takes Rule on Spouts Ruth Laizure as Bride

ORTONVILLE — Ruth Ann Laizure and Melvin Ousnamer repeated their vows before the Rev. Perry Dayarmond at the Baptist Church here in evening rites last week.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James C. Laizure of Brawley, Calif., and the bridegroom is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ousnamer of Ortonville.

Approaching the altar on the arm of her uncle, Roy Hecht of Rochester, the bride wore a pale pink waist-length gown of silk and pale blue hat and shoes. Atop her white tulle was a white orchid, tied with streamers knotted with lilies of the valley.

Mr. Robert Shelton of Pontiac was matron of honor, wearing a waist-length gown of blue taffeta. Ralph Stites of Ortonville served as best man.

East Michigan PCA to Meet in Lapeer

LAPEER — The Eastern Michigan Production Credit Assn. will have its annual stockholders meeting here at the county center at noon Dec. 7, with Andrew Lampen, newly-elected president of Production Credit Corp. of St. Paul, Minn., as speaker.

Lampen, who will talk on "What Is a Cooperative," following luncheon served by Lapeer Farm Bureau Women, was born in Beaverton, Mich., and held position with credit groups since 1937 in field, supervision and executive capacities.

President of the PCC since April, 1955, he was a few weeks ago elected president to head the merger between PCC and the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Paul.

Entertainment by 4-H club members and financial reports by Larry Wisniewski, secretary-treasurer of the East Michigan group and association directors are planned, as well as an election to fill the vacancy of the Expiring term of Alvah Howes of Davison.

County Deaths

WARREN D. SQUIRE — Service for Warren D. Squire, 51, of 262 Atwater, will be at 2 p.m. Thursday, from Allen's Funeral Home, with burial in East Lawn Cemetery. Mr. Squire, lifetime resident of Oakland County, an inspector for Pontiac Motors and a member of the Methodist Church here, died in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital on Monday.

He is survived by his wife, Hilfred Ford Squire; two daughters, Mrs. James Davert of Lake Orion and Marian at home; three sons, Gordon B., David L. and Gale; a sister, Mrs. Ben Cole of Dearborn and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Grace F. Upton — Mrs. Grace F. Upton of South Pasadena, Calif., has been received here of the recent death of Mrs. Grace F. Upton of South Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Upton was formerly a resident of Rochester and was the widow of the late Charles W. Upton, a former Rochester lumber and coal dealer for many years.

She was a former secretary of the South Pasadena Welfare Service, for many years active in American Red Cross, an officer in the Community Chest and a past president of Chapter AX-PEO. She was a native of Grand Rapids.

Mel Fred Samples — Service arrangements for Mel Fred Samples, 66, of 3104 Dixie Highway, are pending at Coats Funeral Home, Drayton Plains. Mr. Samples died in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital on Tuesday.

He is survived by his wife, Edna and a nephew, Ralph L. Samples of St. Louis, Mo.

Roy Gene Barber — Service for Roy Gene Barber, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Barber of 8015 Rattalee Lake Rd., will be at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Sharpe Funeral Home here, with burial in Lakeview Cemetery. The baby was dead at birth Monday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Surviving besides his parents are sisters, Amy Sue and Coy Ray Barber and Barbara Ann Miller, at home; also two brothers, Harvil and Lewis Barber, both of Troy Township.

DETROIT — Mrs. Mary DeWeese, 48, died Tuesday of burns suffered in a fire at her apartment several hours earlier. Police said she apparently fell asleep while smoking in bed.

County Calendar

FOUR TOWNS — Home room mothers of four towns school will meet at 10 a.m. Dec. 5 at the home of Mrs. Peter Acetelli, of Lochlin lane.

Portable Farm Elevators Can Collapse; One Kills

EAST LANSING — Warning that portable farm elevators can and will collapse and when one does it can become serious, has been issued by a Michigan State University farm safety specialist.

One Michigan farmer was recently killed when his elevator fell, reports Richard G. Pfister, urging caution for farmers, he described the accident.

The farmer wanted to relocate his elevator. He lifted the lower end in order to move it to a new location. As he held it, his elevator was in near-balance.

Pushing the elevator toward the new location, the wheels rolled into a small depression and upset the balance. The wheels rolled backwards with the elevator up.

ending and giving the farmer no chance to protect himself. The blow he received was fatal.

Pfister points out that this hazard is extreme where long elevators are used. It's also most likely to happen when elevators are set for highest delivery position.

South Oakland Wins Slum Aid

U.S. Grants $57,374 to Royal Oak Township for Clearance Plan

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — This community and Mt. Clemens yesterday were awarded at Washington, D.C., federal grants totaling $57,374 for slum clearance and redevelopment studies.

The township and Mt. Clemens are to use the funds to formulate detailed plans for new developments.

The government will pay two-thirds of the redevelopment costs if the final plans are approved by the Federal Urban Renewal Administration.

Royal Oak Township, which waited two years for the grant pending the Madison Heights area's withdrawal into a city, will receive $57,374 in the urban renewal program.

The area to benefit occupies about two square miles, and stretches east of Wyoming Street to the Ferndale boundary, between Eight Mile and North End roads. It also includes a strip one block west of Wyoming.

The remaining Federal Housing unit in the area west of Wyoming will be redeveloped by the township by 1958, according to plans.

State Approves School Drainage at Kendallwood

FARMINGTON — The State Department of Health has approved the use of the Kendallwood sewer system for both the junior high and elementary schools in the new area, the Board of Education learned last night.

Approval from the state was required because of limited size of the system. School Trustee Douglas Hammill said, "If there are not too many students outside of the Kendallwood area attending the schools, then the sewer will be adequate." The schools will enroll about 400.

The Kendallwood Assn. has approved the school use of its water system.

Library Board Sets Saturday Bakesales

WALLED LAKE — The Community Library Planning Board here will hold a bake sale at two different business locations at 10 a.m. Saturday to raise money for current and future expenses.

Baked goods will be sold by board members at Van's store in downtown Wall Lake City and at Anderson's Pharmacy in the shopping center on Maple road. The baked items will be donated by residents of Wall Lake and Commerce Township.

Operated and maintained by volunteers, the Library has been open since Aug. 1 at 121 Pontiac Trail, on the second floor of the Ramsey Dry Goods building. Serving persons living in Wall Lake and the surrounding area, it is open from 7 until 9 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6 until 9 p.m. Fridays and from 2 until 4 p.m. each Saturday.

Family Sleeps; Firemen Arrive to Fight Flames

UTICA — Residents of a blazing home were still asleep this morning at 4 a.m. as firemen rushed to extinguish the flames.

The Richard Russell family escaped the fire, which firemen later blamed on faulty wiring, but their home was a total loss.

The building, at 2661 West Utica Rd., housed ten people, but it was a woman at the nearby Dequindre Inn that alerted the fire department. Battling the flames with the local group were units from Rochester, and Shelby and Brooklands Townships.

Owned by Albert Poplawski, the Russell family rented the home.

Rochester Lutherans Plan to Honor Teacher

ROCHESTER — Members of St. John's Lutheran Church will join with Home and School League members to honor Lois Wehmeier at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Fellowship Hall.

Miss Wehmeier, a bride-elect, is a fourth and fifth grade teacher at the church's Christian Day School. A sound-film "The Service of a Deaconess" will be presented by Beth Anderson.

Slate Play and Party

FOUR TOWNS — The Sunday School Christmas party and play is set for 7 p.m. Dec. 16 at the Four Towns Methodist Church.

GAIL HOFMEISTER

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hofmeister, 8436 Cascade Drive, White Lake Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail Hofmeister, to Raymond McLeod. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McLeod, 9917 Rutland St., Detroit. Miss Hofmeister has not set the exact date for an early spring wedding.

Commerce Church Sets Member Tea

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Seventeen new members will be welcomed into the Commerce Methodist Church membership at a tea scheduled for 5 p.m., Sunday, at the church.

Representatives from the various church organizations will form a welcoming committee, and guest soloist will be Mrs. Larry Ridley.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Terry Snideco and Mrs. Kay North.

Your PTA Is Planning:

Dinner at Commerce; Brookland-Avon Meet

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Parents, teachers, children and persons interested in Commerce Elementary School are invited to a pot luck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the Multi-Purpose Room. No admission charge will be made.

Sponsored by the PTA, the event will take the place of the regular monthly meeting. No business session will be held.

Persons planning to attend the dinner are asked to bring their own dishes and one plate or tray of food to be passed around the table. Milk and coffee will be available at the school.

Program for the evening will include concertina music by Charles Gillian of Pleasant Ridge and a Christmas movie furnished by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

On display at the dinner will be a silver tea set owned by the Union Lake Elementary School PTA.

Arrangements for the dinner were made by Harry Cwikiel, father vice-president of the PTA.

Brooklands-Avon

Brooklands-Avon PTA will hold its November meeting at Brooklands School tonight at 8:00 Richard Huizenga, assistant superintendent.

Firemen's Wives Set Sale for Saturday

UNION LAKE — The Ladies Auxiliary of Union Lake Fire Department will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. in the Four Towns Methodist Church basement. It will benefit the firemen's building fund.

Probe Hostage Rumor

PORT SAID, Egypt — A British official has appealed for a Red Cross investigation of reports that the Egyptian secret police are holding one member of each Jewish family in Port Said hostage.
