Boy, 7, 'Doing Fine' After Rescue From Shaft

Voters Will Decide on Hospital Monday

3 Vital Issues on Improvement Facing Pontiac

Hospital Bonds, Parking, Sewage Treatment on 6-Part Ballot

Pontiac voters go to the polls Monday to decide on three vital city improvements, and to vote on funds to finance them. The projects are:

1. Completion and furnishing of the General Hospital addition;

2. Providing a 300-car parking lot for the hospital;

3. New sewage treatment plant and expanding present plant.

These are the chief projects which voters must pass upon Monday. The urgency of the projects may be indicated by expressing them in different language:

Shall the city alleviate the overwhelmingly crowded conditions at the present hospital by voting $1,500,000 to finish the new 200-bed wing?

Shall an ample $350,000 visitors' parking lot be provided where none exists now?

Shall Pontiac voluntarily act to curb its Clinton River pollution or will it be forced to do so by court action?

VOTERS TO DECIDE

Voters will decide Monday, yes or no.

★ ★ ★

There are six separate propositions on the ballot, including three separate bond issues totaling $4,550,000.

Proposition 4 provides $1,500,000 for the hospital.

No. 5 provides $350,000 for the parking lot.

★ ★ ★

No. 6 provides $2,700,000 to help defray the cost of the proposed $3,091,000 expansion of the sewage plant system.

MOST IMPORTANT

Propositions 1, 4, 5 and 6 are considered the most important.

Number 1 probably most concerns voters. Essentially it will

Six Proposals

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

In laymen's language, here are the six propositions facing voters on Monday's special election ballot. After each proposition is described, there are listed. 1—who is eligible to vote; 2—whether a simple majority or a three-fifths majority is necessary for passage; and 3—whether the proposition is tied in with another.

Proposition 1

The vital proposition. It would provide the money to pay for any or all of the bond issues approved. A "yes" vote lets the city levy additional taxes of up to $1 for every $1,000 assessed valuation. No more than 35 cents could be earmarked for the hospital addition and the parking lot. No more than 65 cents could go for the sewage treatment system. Only those bond issues approved could be financed. All registered voters. A majority. This proposition must be approved if either proposition 4, 5 or 6 is to be effective.

Proposition 2

This is one of two minor issues, allowing the city to bring its 1920 charter into line with recent state law governing the mechanics of issuing bonds. It would make things easier for the city, allowing more flexible financing by means of City Commission resolutions, rather than by ordinance, which is the present method. All registered voters. A majority. Its passage would be convenient, its defeat would not affect the other issues.

The same story as proposition No. 2. A "yes" vote here would let the city save money in interest payments, however. It would allow the city to space principal payments, avoiding part of the usual large interest rate at the beginning of the bond period. All registered voters. A majority. Again, its passage would be convenient—and probably profitable. Its defeat would not affect the other issues.

The first of the three general obligation bond issue propositions. A "yes" vote would allow the city to borrow $1,500,000. The money would go to complete and equip the new Pontiac General Hospital addition. Registered voters who are either property owners or spouses of property owners. A three-fifths majority. Can be effective only if proposition No. 1 is passed.

Proposition 5

The second general obligation bond proposition. A "yes" vote would allow the city to borrow $350,000. The money would go towards financing a 300-unit parking lot at the General Hospital. Registered voters who are either property owners or spouses of property owners. A three-fifths majority. Can be effective only if proposition No. 1 is passed.

Proposition 6

The third general obligation bond proposition. A "yes" vote would allow the city to borrow $2,700,000 by issuing bonds. The money would go towards partial financing of a new sewage treatment plant and expansion at the old plant. Registered voters who are either property owners or spouses of property owners. A three-fifths majority. Can be effective only if proposition No. 1 is passed.

Business, Industry to Host 803 Teachers on B-I-E Day

Pontiac's 803 public and parochial school teachers will be guests of the city's businesses and industry Tuesday for Business, Industry and Education Day.

Pioneered in Pontiac, BIE Day is designed to give three vital elements in the community a chance to better know and appreciate each other's function, needs and outlook.

Started in 1949 by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, BIE Day is sponsored this year by its Education Committee, in cooperation with the school systems.

Tuesday, all schools will be closed and the teachers will assemble at 8:45 a.m. in the Pontiac High School auditorium.

SIT IN GROUPS

The teachers will be seated in groups around the standards of the firms they have chosen to visit.

Howard O. Powers, C. of C. president, will deliver the welcoming address, and Elmer C. Rosenberg, education committee chairman, will introduce the 32 host firms.

A board of education member will give the response for the guests and the Pontiac High School Band will entertain.

TRANSPORT TEACHERS

At 10 a.m. buses and cars will transport the teachers to the businesses they will visit. Groups will range in size from 3 to 170.

The rest of the morning will be spent on tour of the hosts' firms, the nature of which will vary with the size and kind of business or industry.

After a noon luncheon, each group of teachers will parley to decide on questions to be asked of the hosts at roundtable discussions to begin at 2 p.m.

At 3:30, the teachers will return to their cars to complete the busy day.

★ ★ ★

Every teacher will be given a program evaluation form on which he can state his opinion of the day and what might be done to improve it.

Paul Michalski Hit by Bullet Fired in Chase

Pal Is Hurt in Crash; Officer Aimed at Gas Tank During Pursuit

DETROIT (AP)—A 16-year-old Berkley boy was killed by a policeman's bullet today while fleeing at 100 miles an hour at the wheel of a stolen automobile.

A companion was injured critically when the car wrecked against a tree a mile further on.

Killed was Paul R. Michalski, a Berkley High School student. Injured was Gerald E. Markey, also 16 and of Berkley.

State Trooper Norman Lee said he fired the fatal bullet as he and a partner, Trooper Robert Ruohonen, chased the fleeing car on Telegraph road near Grand River Avenue about 2 a.m.

Sgt. John Morin of Detroit police said Markey told him the two youths had stolen a car in Berkley "to go for a ride" about 11:30 p.m. and had driven around for a couple of hours with Michalski at the wheel when they heard a police siren.

Morin said Markey told him he yelled for Michalski to stop but that he didn't answer and hunched over the wheel, driving faster.

Lee and Ruohonen said the youths tried twice to to force their police cruiser off Telegraph after they spotted the boys driving 80 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Morin said Lee appeared badly shaken and told him:

"I didn't know he was only 16. I caught a glimpse of him two or three times as we drew alongside and he looked older. When I shot, I was trying to hit the gas tank or a rear tire. But, at 100 miles an hour the slightest bump in the pavement will throw off your aim."

The state troopers said the car went almost a mile after Lee shot before it swerved off Telegraph and into a tree. The careening car barely missed another as it went off the highway.

Morin said a check showed the wrecked car stolen earlier from a neighbor of the Berkley boys. It had been left with the doors unlocked. It was one which Morin said Markey told him "can be started quite easily."

PAUL MICHALSKI

Anerva, he was "going to a movie." His father, Chester, an employe at the General Motors Technical Center, was recovering from a serious operation at Pontiac General Hospital.

Cloudy and Warmer Is Sunday Outlook

Pontiac's weather outlook for tonight is partly cloudy to cloudy with occasional rain ending and a low near 45.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy with a high near 60. The forecast for tomorrow night is partly cloudy and cool, low 42 to 46.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac before 8 a.m. was 42. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 49.

Anxious Hours End in Success

Frightened Parents Wait Long Hours for Rescue

MANORVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—When he fell in, there was lots of confusion and haste and people rushing here and there. Then, for hours there was nothing to do but wait.

At first the boy's mother was hysterical with fright, but later she was able to look down the well shaft at her only son all but swallowed up in fresh-dug sand.

His father called: "Benny, move your arm! Benny!"

★ ★ ★

Little Benny Hooper moved his arm as long as a 7-year-old could. He couldn't know the fear that clutched at his father's throat when the arm moved no more.

The treacherous sand sifted over Benny's arm and hand, blotting it from sight.

After that, Benny's mother sat motionless, staring out the window.

They spread a white sheet over the narrow well where her son had slipped out of sight—perhaps to eternity—Thursday night.

Beyond the sheet, men and machines labored in a pit. She

Michigan Week to Open

LANSING (AP)—A noon religious ceremony Sunday on the steps of the state capitol at Lansing will mark the formal opening of the 1957 Michigan Week celebration.

A minister, a rabbi and a priest will participate and Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart will head the list of state officials in attendance.

On Monday, nearly 400 communities will swap mayors and village presidents. Longest exchange will be between Bessmer and Holly.

Three new members of the Michigan sports hall of fame will be named at an all-sports dinner Wednesday in Detroit.

Winners of new frontiersmen awards — honoring those who have helped in the advancement of the state—will be announced Friday from Ann Arbor.

Schools have been urged to promote the study of Michigan history during the week. Many industries, business establishments and state institutions planned to hold open house in connection with the celebration.

Workers Dig for 24 Hours to Save Youth

Long Island Youngster Eats First Food, Rests, 'in Good Condition'

MANORVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Joyous rescuers pulled little Benny Hooper alive last night from the bottom of a well in his backyard. He was trapped in the sandy pit nearly 24 hours.

An ambulance sped the 7-year-old to a hospital in nearby Mastic Beach minutes after the rescue at 7:10 p.m.

He was reported in fair to good condition at 7 a.m. today, suffering from shock and exposure. He was napping restlessly under an oxygen tent.

"He's doing fine," said the boy's father, Benjamin Hooper.

Hoper and his wife, Borghild, kept a vigil at their son's bedside. "Mommy" was his first word and then he called for "Daddy."

"The boy's condition is good," said Dr. J. H. Kris, the attending physician. "He is able to talk and asked for food. He has taken some food. Everything is on the up and up."

TAKES BROTH

Benny took some beef broth, hot tea with sugar and ginger ale.

He was given antibiotics to guard against the possibility of respiratory infection. His temperature was nearly normal.

Kris said doctors would need to keep a close watch for 24 hours because of the danger of pneumonia in such cases of exposure.

Benny's rescue was a triumph of perseverance for 200 grimy workmen who battled hour after desperate hour to save the boy. They fought with oxygen lines, power shovels, piping, wooden shoring—and sweat.

They fought with the hopes and prayers of millions of Americans across the nation.

They never gave up hope even when it appeared only a miracle would save the boy.

And a "miracle" is just what many of the weary men called it. Cries of exultation burst from their throats when the rescuers heard they had succeeded.

Benny toppled into the 24-foot deep well in the backyard of the

First to Reach Trapped Child

Negro Worker Relates Bringing Boy Out Alive 'Life's Biggest Thrill'

MANORVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—"Bringing the boy out alive was the biggest thrill in my life."

Speaking was Sam Woodson, 39-year-old Negro construction worker, who pulled little 7-year-old Benjamin Hooper Jr. out of what apparently was to be his tomb.

Woodson said he was digging carefully when his shovel uncovered Benny's red jacket, which had pulled up over his head as he slid down the narrow well hole.

"I brushed the sand away from his coat," said Woodson, "and then I caught hold of his hand. It was cold, and he didn't move.

"I kept on scooping the sand away so I could get him out and I heard him whimper.

"Just then we started to cave in. The sand really started coming and I had to yank at him pretty hard.

HEARD BOY CRY

"Then I heard him cry. I pulled the jacket from over his head and he looked at me and started to groan."

Woodson was the lead man in the crew frantically digging to reach the boy. Immediately behind him was John Arambo.

When the cave-in started, threatening to engulf him and the boy, Woodson said, "John yanked me to keep me from letting go or getting buried."

★ ★ ★

Woodson said he was too busy to say anything to little Benny, adding: "I didn't have a chance to talk to him. I talked to God."

★ ★ ★

"Sure I was tired," Woodson replied to a question. "But I kept thinking of my own little girl—she's 11 years old—and it helped me to keep on."

Kathy's Mother Eyed Progress of Rescue Effort

SAN MARINO, Calif. (AP) Among the millions of Americans who followed the painful progress of the Benny Hooper rescue effort few waited for news more intently than Mrs. David Fiscus.

As the mother of Kathy Fiscus, the golden-haired, 3-year-old child who died 100 feet below the surface in an abandoned well pipe in 1949, Mrs. Fiscus knew the anguish young Benny's parents were suffering.

★ ★ ★

"I'm so thankful they reached him in time," said Mrs. Fiscus when word of the successful rescue was flashed across the nation from Manorville, N. Y. "How wonderful!"

★ ★ ★

For Mr. Fiscus and her husband the torment and the terror of waiting lasted 52 hours, starting on a warm evening in April when little Kathy, romping in a vacant field next to her home, suddenly disappeared from the face of the earth.

Kathy had dropped 100 feet down a rusty, 14-inch pipe. After heartbreaking delays the rescuers tunneled through to the spot where she was imprisoned, only to find her dead.

After the tragic event, California passed a law requiring covers on all such shafts sunk in the earth.

"Now it almost happened again," said Mrs. Fiscus. "Maybe now people will do something about covering these terrible traps."

Oklahoma Again Girds for Floods

Area of Danger Shifts to Eastern Part of State as Downpours Continue

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Oklahoma looked for its third straight day of floods today amid Weather Bureau forecasts of more rain.

The danger area shifted to the eastern part of the state with expected record flooding at Tulsa and the small town of Keystone. Creeks and rivers in southern Oklahoma also poured out of their banks on the heels of rains ranging up to almost 8 inches in a 12-hour period.

★ ★ ★

Keystone is near the confluence of the Cimarron and Arkansas rivers.

The Cimarron ran through Dover early Thursday, and dumped water into the small towns of Coyle and Perkins yesterday. Its crest was expected to join the already swollen Arkansas today.

The flood peak of 26 feet is expected to hit the south part of Tulsa around 10 p.m. today. Flood stage there is 19 feet.

★ ★ ★

At least 1,000 persons have evacuated homes on both sides of the Arkansas last night, and Tulsa officials warned all residents in the area to leave "before it's too late."

★ ★ ★

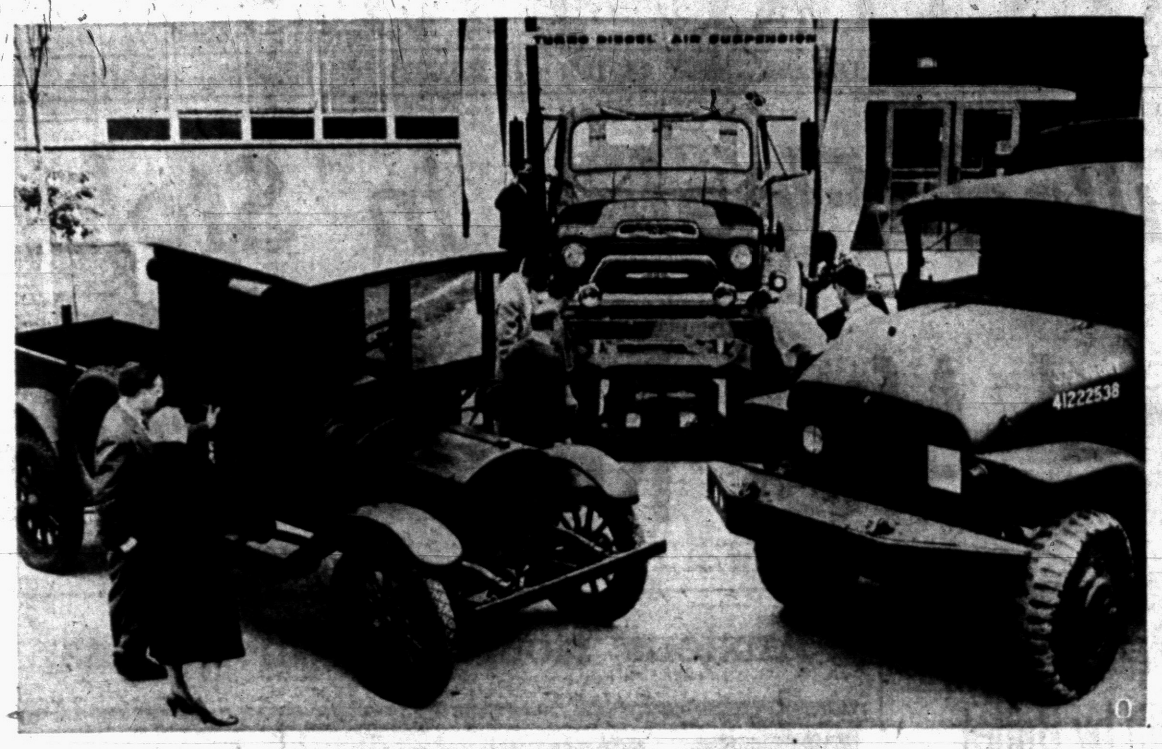

Downstream at Bixby, a lowland Tulsa county community, more than half of the 2,400 residents were being removed.

The Tulsa River Forecasting Bureau warned all areas downstream from Tulsa to the mouth of the Verdigris river near Muskogee to prepare for a record flood.

About 2,200 acres of land at Tulsa are expected to be inundated. If predicted state-wide rains and showers materialize, the crest may be higher and come sooner, the bureau warned.

Pontiac to Get $30,250 From State for Airport

Pontiac will receive $30,250 in matching state funds for its city airport under a bill passed by the House yesterday. The measure, returned to the Senate for concurrence, allocated $385,750 for local airports.

ARMED FORCES DAY EXHIBIT — Nearly a half century of Military vehicle production is represented here in GMC Truck and Coach Division's exhibit at the Armed Forces Day show opening today in the Detroit Arsenal at Eleven and a Half Mile Roads. The old GMC military ambulance at left, built in Pontiac in 1918, was the forerunner of the modern GMC six-by-six military truck at right. In the background is one of GMC's latest civilian trucks —an air suspension vehicle having air bellows instead of conventional steel springs. The free show is open to the public from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. today and Sunday.

15,000 Autos Safety Checked

Volunteer Lanes Close, Gas Stations Continue to Issue Stickers

Approximately 15,000 autos were safety checked this week during the 1957 May Vehicle Inspection Program.

The five-day volunteer safety lane check campaign ended last night by chalking up a total of 8,174 autos which were inspected in the five areas set up throughout the city, according to Capt. Joseph Koren, traffic and safety bureau of the Pontiac police.

Of these, special warning citations were issued to 157 motorists during the week. They will have 72 hours to replace or repair defective equipment and then may obtain the desired safety check sticker.

Motorists issued citations and fail to have the equipment repaired in the specified time are subject to arrest.

The total check lane figure was about 2,000 less than the autos checked in lanes last year Koren added.

OVER 7,000

More than 7,000 autos have been safety checked at the 60 local gasoline and service stations, who are participating in the May campaign, Koren said.

Although the check lanes closed yesterday, motorists will still be able to have autos checked at these stations until the end of May.

The committee's goal of 20,000 safety checked autos is hoped to be reached by then.

★ ★ ★

The inspection program is sponsored by the traffic and safety committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, the Pontiac Police and the Pontiac Automobile Dealers' Assn.

The Day in Birmingham

Officials Complete Plans for Guest Mayors Monday

BIRMINGHAM —Battle Creek and Auburn are the destinations of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills city officials Monday when cities throughout the state exchange mayors.

Mayor William Roberts will be accompanied by his son Billy, on plant and civic-center tours in Battle Creek.

Mayor pro tem Dominic Vittraino will represent Bloomfield Hills at Auburn.

The Battle Creek party coming here will include Mayor and Mrs. Russell V. Worgess, who will be greeted at the city hall by Carl Ingraham and representatives of local groups in which Worgess is active at home.

A luncheon at Northwood Inn with other community leaders, tours and a dinner with City Commissioners and their wives will complete the day.

Boy 'Doing Fine' After Well Rescue

Hoopers' Long Island home at 7:30 p.m. Thursday night. At 7:10 last night the rescuers broke through to his side.

★ ★ ★

The workmen clawed with bare hands through the last few inches of earth.

In a few moments, Sam Woodson, a construction worker, lifted the weakened child from the sandy trap that had held him upright and almost motionless through a night and a day.

The elated Woodson said:

"I was the happiest boy alive when I saw his blue eyes."

Hooper, a 33-year - old truck driver, shouted:

"He's alive, he's alive!"

Then he dashed wildly for the house to break the news to Benny's mother. Mrs. Hooper, 30, a telephone operator, had been almost prostrate with grief and growing hopelessness.

★ ★ ★

The Hoopers' agony began as the sun set Thursday evening. Hooper had just struck water after several days' digging in the backyard of the modest ranch-style home 70 miles east of Manhattan.

He went to get a piece of piping for the well.

Then Benny tried to leap over the foot-wide opening. He landed short of his mark on loose sand.

The terrified boy slipped swiftly down into the pitch-black pit.

Hooper ran to the well. He shouted encouragement to his son and dropped him a rope. The boy tried to hold on. He couldn't.

Hooper started digging frantically with his bare hands.

Then the first rescue workers ran to the scene. They began at once to dig a shaft a few feet from the well and parallel to it.

An oxygen hose was lowered into the well. Enough oxygen for three men continually poured down to the boy.

Peering down into the pit, workmen could see the boy's hands. They heard feeble cries. Then at 11 p.m. there was only silence.

Rescuers feared the worst but they refused to give up. They toiled on under floodlights through the night and into the dawn.

★ ★ ★

When they tried to cut across horizontally from the rescue shaft to the spot where the boy was trapped, they found landslides repeatedly blocking progress.

The workmen thought of abandoning the shaft and attacking the well directly. It would be a last-ditch maneuver. It might cost the boy his life.

★ ★ ★

But late in the day they reverted to their original plan. An ingenious device furnished by the Atomic Energy Commission turned the trick.

The nearby Brookhaven National Laboratory sent four gamma ray shields, each about 4½ feet long. They fit nearly one inside the other and could be expanded and contracted like a collapsable metal drinking cup.

The "cup" served as a tunnel through the treacherous sand to the boy.

Benny's attending physician, Dr. Kris, said that when the boy was first removed he was stiff from the 55-degree chill and the grip of sand at the bottom of the well. His feet had been in water.

Kris said the boy's "jaw was clenched and we could not get it opened at first."

★ ★ ★

The doctor credited the oxygen hose with saving Benny's life. The mouth of the hose was found only about an inch from the boy's mouth.

★ ★ ★

Another helpful factor was an air space created when his jacket slipped over his head.

★ ★ ★

"He got a good oxygen supply at all times," said the doctor.

Armed Forces Day Slates Displays of Military Might

Demonstrations of the nation's military might feature the Pontiac area's observance of Armed Forces Day today.

Open houses are being held at the Army Reserve Training Center, 469 S. East Blvd. Guided tours and exhibitions of various weapons and pieces of equipment are offered to the public.

The big show is out on Opdyke Rd. about a quarter mile north of Auburn Rd. A full-fledged mock battle will be staged, beginning at 1 p.m. The local National Guard unit, and a contingent from Port Huron, will tangle with an imaginary enemy.

The 703rd Tank Bn. from Pontiac is staging a 3½ hour battle royal at the Detroit Arsenal. The unit will join with the Marines' Fifth Infantry Bn. in a mock tank battle and assault on a fortified position. The show runs from 1:30 to 4 p.m. today and tomorrow.

Displays of special weapons are also high on the list of attractions. The Detroit Arsenal Show will include the first showing in this area of the Navy's earth satellite program. The only other display of this nature on Armed Forces Day will be in Washington, D. C.

★ ★ ★

At the Auburn-Opdyke road site, a Nike guided missile will be on display. It will be brought from the 18th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Bn. installation near Rochester.

Rounding out the day's events will be a series of aircraft flyovers scheduled for the Pontiac area. The jets are scheduled to flash over Pontiac at 1 p.m., 2:37 p.m. and 2:41 p.m.

Frogs Begin Qualifying Heats in Jump Contest

ANGELES CAMP, Calif. (AP) — Qualifying jumps in this 31st annual Calaveras Jumping Frog Jubilee began today under a pall of rain clouds — suitable to the frogs, especially the foreigners. They always get here kind of dehydrated."

★ ★ ★

Some 20 frogs from 15 foreign countries are participating. The event is billed as an international frog Olympics. It commemorates Mark Twain's famous story of the "Jumping Frogs of Calaveras County."

Oldtimers are worried about a huge Canadian import, Miss Assignment, the Canadian Broadcasting Co.'s entry. The Canadian hopper makes all other entries look like pygmies.

A foreign entry with hopes of surpassing the existing world record of 16 feet 10 inches, is Won Long Hop, the Free China champion from Formosa, sponsored by China Air Transport — Gen. Claire Chennault's air line.

A French frog, Denise, from the Seine near Paris, was due to arrive by helicopter today. Denise reached San Francisco last night via Trans World Air Lines. A TWA spokesman described her as "rather a petit frog, very soignee."

Ford Opens Big Plant in Indiana Capital

INDIANAPOLIS — Ford Motor Co. has started production in its new $44 million factory on the East Side, although the factory itself isn't finished.

★ ★ ★

Howard Bash said "about 100" workers are operating machines and assembly lines "on a try-out basis."

"Call it a shake-down cruise," Mr. Bash said.

He said the company would hire many more workers "over the next three or four months" and would have 2500 on the payroll by the end of the year.

He said total employment would reach 3500 next year.

★ ★ ★

Production at present is limited to bolts and steering-gear parts. Bolts are being shipped to the Ford plant in River Rouge, Mich.

City to Vote Monday on 3 Vital Issues

add another dollar to the tax structure for the hospital and treatment plant costs. This proposition must be approved to make the others possible.

To this dollar, will be added another half mill (50 cents) for every $1,000 of assessed valuation. The half mill is from an unlevied portion of the 1954 hospital bond vote. One mill was approved then, but only half of it levied.

★ ★ ★

The new $1 levy will be broken down into 35 cents to pay interest and principal on the hospital bonds and 65 cents to cover treatment plant payments.

★ ★ ★

This proposition must pass for any or all of the bond issues to become effective.

To vote for either proposition 4, 5, or 6 without voting for proposition 1 is, in effect, saying to the city: Borrow money, but don't raise any money later to pay the loan back.

All registered voters can vote on proposition 1. However, only registered voters who are either property owners or the spouses of property owners can vote for propositions 4, 5, and 6.

A majority of those voting is necessary for the first three propositions to pass. Sixty per cent majority of property owners voting the bond issues is necessary for approval.

6 ARE SEPARATE

All six propositions will be considered separately to determine passage or disapproval.

Propositions 2 and 3 least concern voters, but they are important to the city. All registered voters may pass on them, but their adoption is not necessary to the effectiveness of any other proposition.

No. 2, if approved, will allow the City Commission to submit bond proposals by resolution instead of ordinance—a handier method.

No. 3 would give the city some leeway in the bond payments. It would make savings in interest payments possible, by allowing a more flexible payment schedule.

No. 4 is on the hospital bond issue. Its passage is vital, a Volunteer Hospital Committee says, because the $3 million bond issue in 1954 has proved insufficient because of design complications and the spiral of rising costs.

No. 5 will provide the parking lot that is required by Pontiac's zoning ordinance. It could be used by staff and employes, as well as visitors.

No. 6 will finance the new sewage treatment plant at Opdyke and Auburn road, giving the city increased facilities ordered by the Michigan Water Resources Commission. The money also would be directed toward enlarging the present East boulevard plant, with the balance of the project to be financed by the issuance of revenue bonds.

★ ★ ★

Polls in the city's 44 precincts will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., and those standing in line at closing time will be allowed to vote.

Tenement Falls; 1 Hurt, Traps 1

4 Other Tenants Sought in Debris of Collapsed New York Building

NEW YORK (INS) — At least one person was trapped today in the ruins of a three-story brick tenement building which completely collapsed on Manhattan's thickly populated lower East Side.

One injured person was removed from the building, which was known to be occupied by five tenants, and was rushed to the hospital.

The other tenants were unaccounted for an hour after the collapse occurred. The injured man was identified as Allan Thompson, 62.

Officials at the scene said there definitely was one person trapped in the building, and perhaps more. Two ambulances and a Bellevue Hospital disaster unit were standing by.

First reports told of a gas leak in the structure, but police said there was no fire, although two alarms were turned in and a fire rescue squad was dispatched to the scene.

Parents Wait Long Hours for Rescue

sat staring at the sheet for hours. Her lips moved silently as if in prayer from time to time.

Benny's father couldn't sit like that. He walked from the house to the pit. He smoked. He drank coffee handed him by someone. He peered down at the men fighting the fine white sand for his son's life.

Mrs. Hooper didn't know just what they were doing. As the clock ticked on, she knew it would soon be too late. Hooper knew what they were doing, but the mounting difficulties and the clock wore him down too.

As Benny's time in his sandy prison ticked close to 24 hours, hope visibly drained out of everyone.

Then special telescoping tubes from the laboratory of the Atomic Energy Commission were pushed through the sand. The crowd was silent, motionless.

A rescue worker clawing away sand with his hands touched Benny. The boy felt dead, he said. Hooper heard that.

"I knelt down and prayed to God as they removed him from the well," he said.

A moment later, Sam Woodson took his turn in the tube and pulled Benny free.

He cradled the little boy in his arms, looked up and shouted, "Lordy, I think he's alive!"

And to Ben and Borghild Hooper it was indeed a miracle when their son looked at them and said "Daddy" and "Mommy!"

Woman, 82, Fractures Hip in Sidewalk Mishap

An 82-year-old pedestrian fracturd her hip last night when she reportedly stubbed her toe on the sidewalk, fell against a pile of flower boxes and then onto the sidewalk at the corner of the Wrigley store at the Tel-Huron Shopping Center.

Mrs. Augusta Quant, who lives with a niece, Mrs. Dorothy Daniell, of 532 Iroquois St., was in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital today.

Stabbing Victim 'Fair'

Charles Hawkins, 44, of 299 Orchard Lake, was in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital today after allegedly being stabbed in the chest. Hawkins told police he did not want to press charges against his assailant.

Mackinac Straits Bridged by Steel

ST. IGNACE (AP) — The stormy Straits of Mackinac now are bridged by steel.

But it still will be November before anyone can drive a car across a 100-million-dollar bridge that will cap a long, long dream of linking Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas by highway.

Steel now reaches from shore to shore, five miles. But there still is no roadway hanging from the bridge's giant suspension cables.

Some three and a half years after they started work on the structure, engineers yesterday clanged a steel beam into the last gap separating land-based spans from the bridge's cable anchor piers—from which the giant suspension cables take off.

So now, there is steel from each cable end to each shore.

The historic linking occurred at 3:55 p.m. on the south anchor block of the one-hundred-million-dollar bridge. Prentiss Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, was on hand to witness the event.

TO OPEN NOV. 1

The huge span, years in the planning, is scheduled to open to traffic Nov. 1 although the final finishing touches won't come until mid-1958.

Built to withstand far more than the hurricane force winds that whip the five-mile straits into a froth and the tons of ice pressure that pile up in winter, the bridge will tower 552 feet above water. It will match by all but five feet the height of Detroit's tallest building—the 47-story Penobscot Building.

From cable anchorage to cable anchorage the structure dwarfs any other in the world. Its span is topped only by San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge.

Concrete anchorage piers reach up 118 feet from bedrock. Half as large as a city block and as tall as a 10-story building they weigh 145,000 tons and take the strains off the thick cables.

The suspension will hang about 155 feet above water.

Soft Drinks Stifle Fire Started by Sun's Rays

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — The fire department reported a fire started in a strange way at the home of F. B. Cole — and was put out in even stranger fashion.

The report said the sun's rays shining through a clear bottle yesterday set a piece of canvas on fire on the back porch. The canvas covered a case of bottled soft drinks.

The bottles got too hot, the beverage exploded and put out the blaze.

Lost Parakeet Gives Finder Owner's Number

DETROIT (INS)—Gerald Kiwak of Detroit found a parakeet on his fence and the bird kept saying over and over: "LUzon 1-4992."

★ ★ ★

Kiwak decided to call the number and discovered the parakeet belonged to Mrs. Vincent Perri, who lived only two blocks away. She said the bird learned to recite her telephone number, then flew the coop two weeks ago.

Report 126,223 Cars Assembled in Week

DETROIT (AP)—This week's motor vehicle output from U. S. plants will total 126,223 cars and 23,577 trucks, Ward's Automotive Reports said.

★ ★ ★

Last week 125,924 cars and 23,198 trucks were assembled. In the like 1956 week output consisted of 105,763 cars and 20,902 trucks. Ward's noted that a few Plymouth and Chrysler Division plants scheduled six day operations this week. It said also that Oldsmobile and Buick returned to five-day scheduling after several weeks of four-day output.

★ ★ ★

The statistical agency estimates this week's Canadian output at 10,100 cars and 2,016 trucks against 9,118 cars and 1,861 trucks last week. In the like 1956 week 11,465 cars and 2,833 trucks were built in Canada.

Winds Delay A-Test

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—Threatening winds forced a third postponement of the atomic test explosion early today. The shot had been scheduled for 5 a.m. The Nevada test organization, in announcing the delay, said merely that the shot "will not be attempted before Sunday."

Tot's Hand Crushed in Hot Roller Iron

SAGINAW (AP)—A 2-year-old girl was in "very serious condition" in Saginaw General Hospital today after she crushed and burned her hand in a mangle (roller iron) in her home.

Hospital authorities said Darlene Walters remained trapped in the ironer "some time" before she was found by her grandfather who was baby-sitting with her.

The child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Walters, were not home at the time of the accident.

It was not explained how the youngster managed to turn on the machine.

Six Juveniles Arrested in Bottle Stealing Case

Six juveniles were arrested by Pontiac detectives yesterday accused of stealing empty bottles from a local grocery store.

Detective Sgt. Raymond E. Meggitt and Detective James F. Bale report that Mike's Grocery Store, 148 W. Walton Blvd., was entered sometime Thursday night after thieves broke a boarded-up window in the rear of the store.

OUT OF THE JUNGLE — These Kayan girls, wearing bronze earrings in their distended ear lobes, are a startling sight indeed at Kuching Hospital, Sarawak, Borneo. The Kayan girl at right, who has been at the hospital for 10 months, teaches recruits from her jungle tribe how to handle and feed a baby. They are taking the special UNICEF course to become midwives.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Can one foretell anything about the weather by carefully noticing the color of the clouds above?

The answer is that only very limited weather information can be detected from observation of cloud colors. The truth is, in fact, clouds have no color. It may be hard to believe but clouds are colorless.

Their apparent color results from reflection. The tiny particles of moisture in a cloud reflect so much light, at so many angles, they give a white appearance. Take away the sun, and clouds become darker in appearance. And clouds can reflect the colors of darker objects on the earth below, too.

★ ★ ★

So, little can be learned from watching the apparent color changes in clouds. Dark clouds on bright sunny days in summer do indicate a concentration of moisture so heavy as to blot out the light of the sun, and may indicate rain. But other color hues may mean only that certain clouds are at the moment reflecting colors from below, on the earth.

Science Aids Weathermen Find Tornadoes

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Thanks to electronics, there is reason to believe that the time is not too distant when weathermen may achieve pinpoint accuracy in forecasting and detecting tornadoes.

Experts here for the American Meteroroligical Society's national conference on severe local storms concluded they still have much to learn, especially about the inner mechanism of the tornado itself. Although its component parts can be listed, weighed and measured, the storm continues to be a spectacular dilemma, an awesome natural force which defies solution.

OPTIMISTIC OUTLOOK

But there was no doubt in their conclusion, gathered from papers read to the symposium, that tornadoes are being more accurately predicted and watched each season.

For example, the forecast of the tornado that stalked residential Dallas 40 minutes last April was off only 30 miles. The general area, however, had been alerted to the possibility.

Some devices and systems of promise are already in use. Three were discussed in detail:

1. The automatic "pressure jump" system set up in the plains states. This records and tracks the sudden, mysterious upward thrusts along a line of air pressure which, under certain conditions, can spawn storms.

2. The use of sferics, short for "atmospherics," whereby lightning flashes within a violent storm cloud are counted electronically. The higher the count, the greater the chance of a tornado.

3. A combination of conventional rain-echo radar superimposed on a sferics counter tube. In this way, the storm is not only observed by radar but is triangulated from three sferics transmitter points for accurate location.

A network of "pressure jump" stations which operated in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas last year had been expanded for this storm season. William A. Hass of the U.S. Weather Bureau in Washington told the meeting.

Each station has an automatic indicator. When a jump in pressure shows, the operator telephones a central point which compares and evaluates similar reports from other stations.

These jumps, or rapid, violent rises of air, follow a low-level line of air pressure sandwiched between two layers of air of different densities. The line is approximately 100 to 200 miles long, and from five to six hours in duration.

"Sometimes it goes along with—"But under certain conditions the line can become a storm front. Then, where the right combination of weather factors is present, say over a farmer's field, a tornado forms."

The pressure jumps, he said, could indicate the possibility of a tornado, although during the Dallas twister they showed nothing indicative.

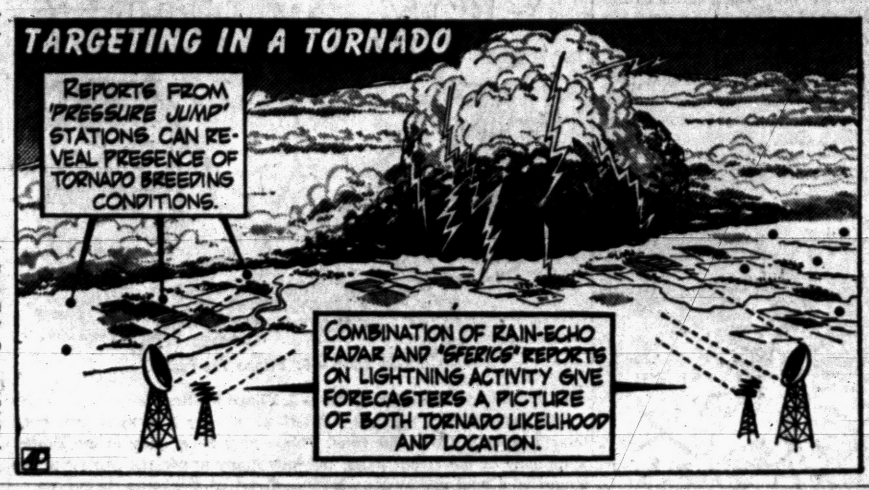

Wilbur H. Paulsen of the Air Force Cambridge Research Center at Bedford, Mass., described the radar-sferics system of tornado detection.

The present setup has sferics transmitters located at Amarillo, Tex., Texarkana, Oklahoma City and Kansas City. Each transmitter can send its pulse, or count over ordinary telephone lines to a plotting center. There the plot on the suspected storm is taken from three of the transmitters and shown on a sferics tube which automatically counts the pulses, or lightning flashes.

BETTER SHOWING EXPECTED

On this is superimposed the radar observation of the same storm, allowing forecasters to follow it accurately while from the sferics count they deduce whether the danger of a tornado is present.

"Tests last year were not conclusive because of bugs in the equipment," Paulsen said, "but these have been corrected and this season we hope for a better showing.

Passport Prank at Bar Session Leads to Trouble

KANSAS CITY (AP)—John Patrick Clifford, who plans to visit his homeland in June, was showing his passport to another Irishman, Randal Kelly.

The place was Kelly's tavern in the Westport area.

"Put a Westport visa on the passport," suggested an onlooker at the bar.

"Sure," said Kelly, reaching ofr his limited supply of rubber stamps.

"Pay to Westport Inn," he emblazoned in red ink on Pages 3, 4, 5 and 6.

For the last page he saved the biggest stamp of all: "For deposit only in Westport Bank, Westport Inn."

Clifford, later beset by misgivings, took the document back to the passport desk at the Immigration Office.

"A friend of mine did it as a gag," he explained.

The man at the desk didn't think it was funny. Clifford had to shell out $10 for a new passport, plus the cost of getting it here from Washington via air mail, special delivery.

Finest Atomic Reactor Claimed by Canadians

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada expects to put into operation soon a plant which its scientists call the world's finest reactor for atomic research.

It will increase production of cobalt 60 and enable this country to boost greatly its output of beam therapy units. Through these the cobalt 60 shoots off gama rays to attack cancerous growths.

The 50-million-dollar reactor also will produce plutonium, used in atomic bombs. This will be sold under contract to the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Haiti Strike Wave Spreads to Lawyers

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Haiti's spreading strike wave has hit the legal profession. In this capital alone some 200 lawyers quit court in protest against a decree by the ruling Executive Council.

★ ★ ★

Another 35 attorneys struck in the town of Gonaives, 110 miles northwest of here, and all courts were reported shut down in the nearby community of Saint-Marc.

Similar strikes were reported elsewhere over the Council's edict which prohibits courts from challenging the governing body's authority. The decree said the Council, empowered to rule pending presidential elections scheduled for June 16, would arrest any judge who questioned the legality of the seven-man body and bring him before a special tribunal.

Anti-government leaders have charged attempts are being made to rig the June elections.

CIRCUS TIME—6. Flippo The Seal

CIRCUS TIME — 6. Flippo the Seal

Flippo the Seal regards himself as a very fine musician, even though he only knows one song. Flippo may never play in the Boston Symphony or the circus band, but how many musicians can swim the length of a pool underwater, balance a set of dishes on their nose or bark like a police dog? Flippo can do all of these things — and lots more — besides playing a tune on his set of horns. And he doesn't mind a bit if they throw him a fish in between numbers. In fact, he looks forward to it. If the audience fails to respond to Flippo's playing, he makes his own applause by clapping his flippers together.

Paste Flippo down on cardboard, color him in all his circus finery — that pretty collar — with your crayons and follow the cutting directions carefully. Start threads through each upper flipper, carry them through the holes near bottom and knot them together, leaving three or four inches of slack. Using these control threads, Flippo will ring down the curtain on our Junior Editors circus by smartly clapping for himself and all the other fine acts.

Satellite Scientists Get Electronic Brain

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scientists working on the earth satellite project have received a huge new electronic brain. It will be used to calculate the satellite's orbit hundreds of miles above the earth.

The country hopes to launch an artificial satellite during the International Geophysical Year which starts in July.

★ ★ ★

Dr. John P. Hagen, satellite project director at the Naval Research Laboratory, said the electronic computer will be used to produce a "celestial timetable" of the satellite's orbit as it swings about the earth at speeds upwards of 18,000 miles an hour, some 200 to 1,500 miles above the earth's surface.

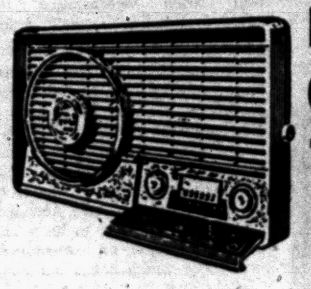

★ ★ ★

The electronic computer was built by International Business Machines Corp. at its Poughkeepsie, N. Y., plant.

The calculations needed to determine the orbit and speed of the first satellite could not be done by the human brain at a speed to make the data of any use.

In Fight Against Mental Illness

Substitute Mothers Enlist

BY EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

CHICAGO (INS) — "Substitute mothers" have been enlisted in the fight against mental illness.

They have been largely recruited through newspaper ads from the ranks of the nation's widows in some 89 cities throughout the U. S.

★ ★ ★

Officially known as The Home-Maker Service, the "substitute mother" program sends the enlistee into those homes where mental illness has hospitalized the mother of small or adolescent children.

The "substitute mother" takes over the sick mother's home-making tasks and the care of the children until father gets home from work to relieve her.

Dr. C. Knight Aldrich, chairman of the department of psychiatry at the University of Chicago, gave his "enthusiastic approval" to the growing home-maker movement in a report today to the American Psychiatric Association meeting in Chicago.

He said the program played a double role in combatting mental illness.

For one, the knowledge that her children are being cared for "contributes substantially" to the rehabilitation of mothers who require or may require psychiatric hospital care."

Secondly, it saves the children from possible emotional and mental harm by "decreasing their insecurities and anxieties" while mother is gone.

Dr. Aldrich based his observations on the pioneering work done by the Minneapolis (Minn.) Family and Childrens Service, a private group. But he said the same was true of the services provided by the 25 public and 102 volunteer agencies in other cities.

Dr. Aldrich said widows have made good substitute mothers because they have had experience in raising families. He said the arrangement is an alternative to assigning the care of children to relatives "who may or may not welcome the job."

Week Polio Toll Reported at 71

Number of New Cases Jumps 31 Over Those in Period Ended May 4

WASHINGTON (AP)—New polio cases last week numbered 71, a jump of 31 over those in the week ended May 4, the Public Health Service reported.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman said an increase was to be expected at this season, but he could not explain why the number of cases last week came closer to equaling those in the comparative 1956 week than has been the case in months. He did note that a year ago there was a slight decrease during the week.

★ ★ ★

The 71 cases compared with 85 in the comparative 1956 week, while the 40 in the week ended May 4 compared with 91 a year earlier.

Since the 1957 polio season started April 1 there have been 256 cases, compared with 479 last year.

For this calendar year there have been 783 cases, in contrast to 1,546 for the 1956 span.

The service noted that during the six weeks since April 1 the number of cases was slightly more than half the total for the same period last year.

"A very favorable aspect of the cases reported since the end of March is the fact that the ratio of paralytic to nonparalytic cases has been about 1 to 1 whereas a year ago there were two cases of paralytic for each nonparalytic case reported," the service said.

★ ★ ★

"While the number of cases has increased in the past three weeks so far there is no indication of a significant rise in any area of the country."

School Leader Retiring July 1

North Branch Principal Served 37 Years; Will Fish and Hunt

NORTH BRANCH—Climaxing 37 years of teaching in the public schools of Tuscola and Lapeer Counties, Albert Stickle, Senior High principal of the North Branch Area Schools, will retire at the close of this school term, terminating also his 20th year in North Branch schools.

After July 1, he will be at his home in Marlette.

He has planned some traveling, and remarked, "expect to be able to do more hunting and fishing in the future than I have been able to do in the past, and oh, yes, you guessed it—probably a lot of substitute teaching in years to come."

Stickle was born at Kingston, where he attended the rural school and graduated from high school, subsequently obtaining his degree from Central Michigan College of Education.

He declares that he found his greatest happiness in the teaching of mathematics and at the present has one of the strongest math clubs in the school. He expresses no regrets in his choice of his life's work, stating that one of the hardest decisions of his life recently was made when he returned his contract for another year — unsigned.

Arsenic Spiked Husband's Beer

'It Was Only a Cure for Drinking Problem,' Wife Tells Police

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A woman who said she had been spiking her husband's beer with arsenic-loaded rat poison for the last four years "to cure him of the drinking habit" was held today on a charge of trying to murder him.

Mrs. Lucy Wireman, 30, of nearby Chelsea, said she learned of the "cure" in Kentucky. She denied she was trying to kill her 36-year-old husband, Oron.

"I didn't want to hurt him," Mrs. Wireman said. "I just wanted to help. I still love him."

Wireman was in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital here with a "severe case of arsenic poisoning."

Mrs. Wireman, a mother of three, demanded examination when arraigned in Municipal Court on the charge yesterday. She was held under $2,000 bond.

Sgt. Roy Tice of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department said Mrs. Wireman told him she bought the rat poison in Salyersville, Ky., in 1953 when she and her husband were visiting there. The Wiremans originally are from Kentucky.

Oron had a drinking problem," she said. "A friend of mine in Salyersville told me if I gave him the stuff it would cure his drinking."

She told Tice she bought two boxes of rat poison and laced her husband's beer with it — a pinch at a time.

Wireman first entered the hospital in December of last year complaining of stomach pains. Hospital authorities diagnosed his ailment as poisoning of an undetermined character. He re-entered the hospital last month and doctors pinpointed the trouble.

Clean-Up! Paint-Up! Fix-Up Week!

J. L. VOORHEES

The greatest satisfaction I know is a clean yard. Winter leaves its tracks with terrible abandon; somehow cans accumulate. Weeds grow. Vicious winds tear and blast; paint cracks. Screens rust. Shingles are missing. Pergolas look like the leaning tower of Pisa. Outbuildings are drab. Fences are askew. Posts are rotted. Boards are gone. These are a few of the things that need your attention.

M. E. SIPLE

Though little, a shabby house I saw, has been transformed from drab into a jewel—with a fresh coat of paint. Debris, bottles, cans were hauled away; leaves ripped from trees were sent into corners; they were raked up and burned. It is unbelievable what a few cans of paint, a hammer and some nails have done.

Clean it! Paint it! Fix it up! There's glowing satisfaction waiting for you.

Early Morning Highway Patrol

People who drive the Dixie Highway or other main roads in the early morning hours witness a winged patrol that is quite effective.

That much maligned and generally hated ebony colored member of the bird family, the crow, is doing a double duty, one purely selfish and the other unknowingly quite beneficial to mankind.

★ ★ ★

He (we are no judge of sex in crows) gets awing at the break of dawn to check the main roads for anything killed during the night.

His eyesight is so keen that he easily detects dead animals and birds that were thrown off the pavement, but feasts first on those in plain sight, lest they be removed in other ways.

★ ★ ★

If the prize is too large for his own breakfast consumption, he will endeavor to drag it out of sight, or break it up and carry it away.

Close observers of the crow's habits claim that they divide up the mileage, and each bird is supposed to patrol only his own strip.

You've seen them whirl and go back at a road intersection or other marking, and to caw vociferously at another crow that might cross the line.

★ ★ ★

After he gets a carcass hidden in the grass, he will go and get his mate to finish the feast, and they'll jointly partake of what he had earlier found outside of the general observance.

In this manner, the crows are our most effective scavengers, and probably do more good than the damage they do in pulling up the farmer's young corn in order to eat the germinating seed.

★ ★ ★

You've probably seen birds or small animals killed by your car whose casualty list numbers far more than those you saw. But you never killed a crow that way.

You never saw a crow take a chance in any respect. He knows you would not hesitate to kill him, and always takes wing long before he is closely approached.

★ ★ ★

He may be picking over a juicy morsel beside the highway, and far out of reach of your car, but he'll take a circle in the air and resume the menu after you have passed. In our opinion he's the wisest of the birds; in fact, he's so wise that he knows his life depends upon his wisdom.

Perhaps we're overstating the wisdom of the crow. But check on him yourself. You'll see him everywhere.

An Oakland County farmer tells me that the crows will congregate in a nearby woods, and quietly watch him plant his corn, and in a few days return when it is good pulling.

★ ★ ★

They'll caw at him from the same woods when he tries to frighten them away, and even roost on the scare crow he has erected, but will make a hasty departure if he carries a stick in the shape of a gun.

In Michigan the crow doesn't have much competition in the clean up squad, but further south the vulture and other birds give him a merry race.

The vulture is a hideous thing and will eat carrion or almost anything else, including a dead vulture.

★ ★ ★

But it is claimed that crows are not cannibals — that they will not eat a dead crow.

However, we doubt that they ever have a chance.

OAS in Action

In a 1906 arbitration by the King of Spain involving a dispute between Nicaragua and Honduras over a coastal region, most of the territory went to Honduras.

Nicaragua never accepted the award but the two countries tacitly agreed to a hands-off policy until last week—50 years later—when traces of oil were found in the jungle. Honduras complained that Nicaraguan troops invaded her territory. The encounter was brief and was little more than a border skirmish in the Indian Village of Mocoran.

★ ★ ★

A five-man peace mission of the Organization of American States (OAS) went into action immediately. The Honduran junta and President Somoza of Nicaragua now have agreed to a cease-fire while the mission attempts to create a buffer zone.

Although this probably means a return of the region to its former status, it also means peace and time to work out an agreement without more bloodshed. The OAS again has come to the rescue.

School Aid Idea

GOP Fund-Juggling Plan Saves the Day in Lansing

By ROGER LANE

LANSING—The big break of the week in the school money picture was like a page out of a legislative fairy tale inserted in "Portia Faces Life."

★ ★ ★

In the context of the problem, it was like finding 24 million dollars on the street.

There was little question that the idea of advancing the distribution time for the first primary interest fund installment took a lot of steam out of the school aid issue.

And the surprise maneuver was handled skillfully by the Republican leadership, particularly as to timing.

★ ★ ★

Probably its most important effect was to cut to about half the size the new-tax-for-schools problem that has given most lawmakers by far their most uncomfortable moments of the session.

MAJOR SOLUTION

When the fund-juggling idea was sprung at a Senate Republican caucus Wednesday noon, the drift appeared increasingly toward a "major" tax solution of the school problem.

★ ★ ★

Most likely, this would have been a levy of about 2 per cent on corporation profits —and the possibility remains although somewhat diminished.

The increase in sentiment for a major tax without delay was being fed to an important extent by the growing evidence that many school districts faced real and imminent financial distress as the result of the scheduled cutback in May state aid checks.

And at the same time, the impending school money shortage and apparent necessity for borrowing in many districts accented the magnitude of the problem in terms of relief through imposition of new taxes.

★ ★ ★

To some senators and representatives who had sized it up as a 15 or 20 million dollar tax problem it began to look more and more like a 40 or 50 million dollar problem that would require heroic measures.

GOVERNOR'S STAND

In general, this is the position Gov. Williams has taken all along.

One Republican senator who came to Lansing in January determined to "hold the line" had reached the point of debating whether himself to offer a corporation tax amendment to the school aid bill, and had it prepared.

★ ★ ★

But, as if by magic, the school aid issue suddenly was reduced Wednesday to what many lawmakers again regarded as proportions manageable by adoption of revenue measures for 20 million dollars or so.

In the political handling of the situation, the Republican majority leadership, having hit upon the fund-juggling device a few weeks ago, had to exercise judgment in when to unveil it.

To do so after sentiment for a major tax had crystallized would have defeated leadership strategy.

To do so too soon might have unduly stiffened resistance in quarters unalterably opposed to new taxes of any description, resulting in a hopeless deadlock in the senate.

Days of All Faiths:

Sunday Is Jewish Lag Baomer

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

"And ye shall count," said God to the Jews, in Leviticus, chapter 23, verse 15. "Seven weeks shalt thou number," He told them, in Deuteronomy, chapter 16 verse 9. And count they do. What they count are the 49 days from the second day of Passover to the Feast of Weeks. These days are known as the Sephira Days — sephira means "counting."

On the first day of this long season ancient Jews brought as an offering a sheaf (an omer) of the newly harvested wheat, and the counting came to be known as "the counting of the omer." Every evening during the seven solemn weeks every man in the synagogue rose and recited a special benediction of the season and then added, "Today is the day of the omer."

Lag Baomer Sunday is the 33rd day of the counting and is the one happy interruption in what is otherwise a time of deep mourning.

Newest of the Jewish religious observances, it actually has its roots in early prehistoric times before Israel had separated its own faith from the folk religion of the heathen among whom the Jews lived. For this one day is undoubtedly related to a pagan spring festival of the forest.

MODERN INTERPRETATIONS

As is always true when an old holiday outlives its original purpose, Lag Baomer has had new meanings attached to it. Two efforts have been made to connect it with some event in Jewish history. One tradition says it is the day the manna on which the Jews fed in the wilderness began to fall from heaven. Another says it was the day on which a plague ceased among the pupils in the school of the famous Rabbi Akiba. Because of this latter explanation Lag Baomer is also known as "the scholars' holiday."

Lag Baomer is classed as a minor festival, which means that it has no elaborate ritual of its own, and in fact, plays no important part in Jewish life. Certainly it cannot mean a great deal to modern city-dwelling Jews.

To the extent that it is now observed, it is seen mainly as a remembrance of the time when Israel was an agricultural nation and as a promise of a future time when the Jews will again have woodlands and a rural life of their own.

PINCHED THE DEVIL

It is a disturbing fact that people tend to remember picturesque legends about great men and forget the important facts about them. That is what happened to St. Dunstan, greatest of all Anglo-Saxon saints.

The famous and diverting legend about him is that once when he was working in his metal shop the Devil appeared in the form of a beautiful maiden and looked in the window, just to keep posted on what the good man was doing.

St. Dunstan, not for one moment, deceived, grabbed the lady's nose with a pair of hot pincers, whereupon the fiend showed his true form and begged to be let go. Not until Satan promised never to tempt him again did the saint release him. Dunstan is always shown in Christian art wearing bishop's vestments and holding pincers in his right hand.

Pleasant as the story is, it has obscured the real character and contribution of this 10th-century giant. His true importance lies in the fact that he was both saint and statesman at the time when England was just emerging into national self-consciousness.

From the time he was only 21 years old, first as Abbot of Glastonbury and finally as Archbishop of Canterbury, Dunstan's brilliant mind was behind the English throne, developing and guiding the country and laying the foundations of unity and integrity that have characterized England throughout modern history.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation —Psalms 91:16.

★ ★ ★

He lives long that lives well, and time misspent is not lived, but lost. Besides, God is better than His promise, if He takes from him a long lease, and gives him a freehold of greater value.—Fuller.

"Let's wait here. Sooner or later someone we know will go in."

Dr. William Brady's Mailbag:

Lady Not Whole, but Wholehearted

"You are the best thing I've bumped into in a long time — preach you to all my friends—Unfortunately didn't meet you until I had lost my spleen, part of my liver, 3 pregnancies, oh, about everything one can have. Your suggestion on eating bananas has helped too — (Mrs. M. F.)"

DR. BRADY

Answer — Well, cheerio, what's left of you. The banana suggestion should interest persons with so-called "mucous colitis" (which is usually just colon derangement) or the constipation or interference habit. It is simply this:

Eat half a dozen to a dozen well ripened bananas every day. If you boggle at this, send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet The Constipation Habit and Colon Hygiene.

"Druggist's wife had an ugly looking wart on her neck. My daughter got rid of a similar wart of long standing by applying castor oil every night for about two weeks. Druggist had no faith in it, but his wife tried it and soon her wart was gone." (Mrs. A. D. H.)

Answer — All I know is that it can do no harm. Castor oil works pretty well even if you have no faith in it, internally, at any rate.

"Read the statement of some one who had been cured of fungus infection of the ear by using the home made ear drops you suggest for chronic running ear. I have fungus infection of the feet. Please send me instructions — (L.M.)"

Answer — The ear drops would do no harm, but better remedies for fungus infection, ringworm, athlete's foot or dermatophytosis are given in the pamphlet titled Foot Itch, for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"My husband and I both eat the daily ration of calcium, vitamin D, iodin and vitamin B complex as you recommend. Doctors weren't giving us any help, only pain pills, and we were getting all crippled up. Now we're both years younger — he can do his work in comfort. Mrs. —"

Answer — Thank you, ma'am. Few go to all that trouble to report how they are doing unless they want further advice. The regimen you and your husband follow (I hope you remember it is food, not medicine) is described in the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatic and booklet Chronic Joint Disability. For both, send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"Is there a drug that is safe and effective in reducing high blood pressure or what the doctors call hypertension? (G.E.D.)"

Answer—I know of none.

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Church Shouldn't Be Slave to Past

Russell Hirschman points out a classical case to show that churches are making progress. But there are still a great many people who are slaves to the past. They have an "antique complex" and think EVERYTHING inherited from the past is sacred. That's a grave error. Jesus did not believe in our being slaves to church ritual! Christ wants open-minded, scientific followers, not serfs!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-384: Russell H., aged about 45, attended my downtown Bible Class recently. He's a leading telephone executive at Indianapolis.

CRANE

Since most of the attendance at my Bible classes consist of visitors, we usually devote a few minutes to having them introduce themselves.

On this particular Sunday we had guests from the Quakers, Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist, Hebrew and a dozen other denominations.

Mr. and Mrs. H. invited me to dine with them afterwards, and our discussion veered around to this greater cooperation among churches nowadays.

"But Dr. Crane, you'll remember it wasn't always like this," Mr. H. added.

"By the way, did you ever hear about the feuding in our Hoosier state between the 'button' vs. the 'hook and eye' folks in a certain denomination?

"Well, the old folks were opposed to any modern innovations. They regarded buttons as evidence of unseemly pride and egotism, so they condemned all buttons.

"But some of the younger generation had purchased some store clothes with buttons. The old folks quickly denounced them and drove them out of the church.

★ ★ ★

"Well, these younger people bought a lot across the street and started a new, 'button' church, which was larger than the old 'hook & eye' edifice.

CHURCH FEUDING

"And because the younger generation had the big families, this new 'button' church had a larger membership.

"Finally, the old 'hook & eye' standpatters decided to build an even bigger church than the one erected by their children across the street.

"So they constructed a large 'hook & eye' edifice directly behind their original church building.

"Dr. Crane, if this wasn't an example of the sin of false pride, what do you call it?

★ ★ ★

"Anyway, the old folks finally realized that their feuding over 'buttons' vs. 'hooks & eyes' was silly, so they invited the younger folks across the street to join them.

"Since the latter had now outgrown their 'button' church, anyway, they reunited.

"Their 'button' church is now used as a storage building and everybody is now happily working together in the new church.

"But I wonder how sad God must feel to witness his supposed religious offspring here on Earth engaging in such silly feuds."

TRUTH MARCHES ON

Medicine and engineering and education and transportation are steadily marching onward, in the light of modern discoveries.

Well, the field of religion is doing likewise. Some old standpatters, however, place an undue halo on technical bits of ritual they inherited from their parents.

★ ★ ★

So they act very unChristian and will still indulge in feuds and actual fighting to maintain the ancient, and often obsolete concepts.

Jesus did not believe in such foolish ecclesiastical red tape.

The clerics of his day attacked Him for eating with publicans. They said Christ let his Apostles pluck wheat on the Sabbath and thresh it between their palms.

So Jesus told them sharply that "The Sabbath was made for man; not man, for the Sabbath."

Some of the old traditions are good, but some are obsolete. Don't become foolish in attaching a halo to illogical church ritual. Be free, like Jesus!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Residents Discuss Issues Concerning City Hospital

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I agree with the editorial which said those who don't pay city taxes should have no right to our utilities, which taxpayers build and maintain, unless they pay an extra assessment.

I agree that many have moved outside the city to escape taxes. The association of downtown merchants should make their program a four-point program and have all city employes move into the city. I don't believe there's another city this size where city employes are allowed to live outside. And they sure shouldn't come under civil service living outside.

I read about a man working for the City of Detroit who was fired because he didn't move into the city within six months, and he lived an eighth of a mile outside.

J. D. B.

How could you possibly say no to a sick baby, crippled oldster, half-dead accident victim or scared young mother? How does a small town like Milford, Walled Lake or Auburn Heights go about building a hospital? It's very selfish to deny these patients use of the hospital, for surely the prices they pay for services rendered are just and fair.

Most hospitalization insurance companies expect hospitals to take each and every one of their subscribers with no prejudice as to race, color, creed or home address. When these outfits blackball your hospital, you'll soon be wishing to get it back on the black side of the ledger.

"Chicago" Frank

Why all the drain on property owners? Renters in this city use the hospital and send their children to school, while property owners have to pay school tax. What is the matter with asking renters to dig in their jeans and help raise some of the money needed for the hospital?

Another "NO" Voter

What would the taxpayer get if he increased the money for the hospital—four more cornerstones? Why bother the taxpayers? They paid their tax increase. You want the fellow with the big head and bright ideas—he came up with a skeleton. Now let him get rid of it. We need a hospital, but not millions in taxes. I say vote "NO."

Farm Wife

We and many others are just as tired as "Patriotic" of critical remarks by our Governor against our President. Both have been given the honor of serving all of the people, so why does the Governor give these disrespectful digs? Rest assured he doesn't represent all of us. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap," so it behooves all of us to be careful in our words.

She is survived by one son, Clarence of South Lyon; a daughter, Mrs. Lillian Hempton of Durand and one brother, Frank Moss of Walled Lake.

MRS. DAVID SWETT

THOMAS—Service for Mrs. David I. (Mabel) Swett, 57, of 3640 Thomas Rd., will be at 2 p.m. Monday from the Flumerfelt Funeral Home, Oxford, with burial in Seymour Lake Cemetery. Mrs. Swett, Oakland County resident for 29 years, died yesterday in Pontiac General Hospital, after three years of illness.

She is survived by her husband; one son, George Hunterfundt of Illinois; a brother and two sisters, including Mrs. Ida Workman of Clarkston.

Deaths Elsewhere

NEW YORK (UP)—Miss Nell V. Beeby, 60, internationally known nurse-editor and executive editor of the American Journal of Nursing Co., who was in the nursing profession 37 years, died yesterday.

White Lake Girl, 16 Dies of Leukemia

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Carol Jeannette Jewell, 16, of 8616 Highland Rd., died of leukemia yesterday at her home. A tenth grade student of Waterford High School, she had been ill since Feb. 15.

Carol, born in Commerce, and an Oakland County resident all her life, is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Jewell; two sisters, Marilyn L. and Billie Mae, at home, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Lane of Clarkston and Mrs. Josephine Jewell of White Lake Township.

Service will be at 1 p.m. Monday from Coats Funeral Home, Drayton Plains, with Elder Alfred Streling officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery, Clarkston.

Seek 5 Bar Patrons Who Beat Up 2 Men

Pontiac police are searching for five patrons of a local bar who beat up two men early this morning with a pool cue and an iron bar following a fracus when one of the victims was refused drinks by the bartender.

★ ★ ★

Both men were admitted to Pontiac General Hospital and were reported in fair condition today.

Darwin Butler, of 882 Emerson St., received several fractured ribs and severe bruises. His friend, Frank Grier, of 1028 Arlene St., has a broken left arm and left leg.

★ ★ ★

The men told police they were followed out of the bar and attacked by the quintet at E. Rundell street and Glenwood avenue after Butler was refused drink and Grier, in anger, broke a glass against the back of the bar.

Did Cave Man Understand Use of X-Ray Cure?

BROOKHAVEN, N.Y. (UP)—Did a physician in the remote Stone Age understand the secrets of using X-rays for treatment of deep-seated ailments? Wall paintings in a cave in Alpera, Spain, suggest that he did.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Marshall Brucer, chairman of the medical division of Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, showed a picture of the cave drawings yesterday at the Inter-American "atoms-for-peace" conference.

★ ★ ★

In serial form, something like a modern-day comic strip, they show a man holding what appears to be an electric eel. In the succeeding pictures he brings the eel close to the body of a man lying on the floor.

★ ★ ★

The last picture shows the "patient," apparently fully recovered, striding briskly out of the cave.

Speeds to Ailing Mother, but Death Wins Race

CHICAGO (UP) — An Air Force sergeant, who said a hunch warned him to speed to his ailing mother's bedside, lost a 5,000-mile race with death yesterday when she died just as he reached the door of her hospital room.

So Sgt. David Hunt Ellis, 28, grasped the handle of his mother's door just 29 hours after leaving his base in Madrid, Spain. At the same instant, hospital authorities said, Mrs. Florence Ellis, 54, died from a kidney ailment.

Ellis said he received a telegram from the Red Cross Thursday telling him his mother had "less than 60 days to live."

Nab Armed Bandits After Hectic Chase

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Two armed men were captured after a 100-mile-an-hour police chase on the Willow Run Expressway yesterday.

Deputies Virgil Harrison and Ed Becker of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department spotted the speeding car while looking for a holdup pair who robbed the Pinckney General Store in neighboring Livingston County of $800.

★ ★ ★

They caught Herchell Bunch, 44, and Ben Leski, 30, both of Ann Arbor after a four-mile chase. Harrison and Becker said they found a loaded sawed-off 20 gauge shotgun and six shells in the car.

Bunch and Leski were identified at the Washtenaw County Jail by Gene Edgar, co-owner of the Pinckney store and Mrs. Charles E. Hewlett, the store cashier, as the men who held them up.

Deputies said Bunch and Leski had outdistanced Bob Ward Pinckney, 18, of Pinckney who had given chase when the men came out of the store.

Bunch and Leski were taken to the Livingston County jail for investigation of armed robbery.

Principal Bans Mohawk, Youths Shave All Hair

WATSONVILLE, Calif. (UP) — What a difference a few hairs make.

Sophomores Bill Roberts, 18, and Pete Baclig, 15, of Watsonville High School got Mohawk Indian-type haircuts on a bet.

Principal Ernest Crook disapproved, but said if the boys had all their hair off they could return to classes.

The boys did.

New Committee to Aid 'Bombed Christians'

NYACK, N. Y.—Episcopal Bishop W. Appleton Lawrence of Western Massachusetts is a member of a newly-formed committee of eight Protestant clergymen "to aid bombed Christians of the South."

A spokesman for the religious organization, formed by the Fellowship of Reconciliation, said the committee will seek funds to help rebuild bombed churches and to aid congregations and groups that have been the victims of "economic and physical reprisals because of their participation in the struggle against segregation."

Solicits Immoral Act, Gets 30 Days in Jail

Od Jackson, 35, of 57 Lull St., was sentenced to serve 30 days in the Oakland County Jail Friday for soliciting an immoral act to a Pontiac woman on the telephone.

Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan gave Jackson the longer jail sentence after he failed to pay a $75 fine plus 15 days in jail.

Jackson had pleaded guilty when he was arraigned May 6 following the arrest by Lt. William Nesbitt and Officer Gerald Navarre, of the vice squad.

No Negroes Show Up at Virginians' Dinner

RICHMOND, Va. (UP) — None of the six or more Negroes inadvertently invited to the all-white affair showed up last night as the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce held its "Distinguished Virginians" dinner.

There was no reference to the incident by any of the speakers.

Chamber officials said the invitations slipped through a careful screening process. They were withdrawn, but the Chamber had promised to treat courteously any of the Negroes who might attend.

Two Pontiac Chapters Entertain at State Convention

Alpha Beta and Alpha Gamma, Pontiac chapters of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, are hostesses at the society's state convention being held in East Lansing at the MSU Kellogg Center this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Members of the chapters are attending and assisting on committees. Alpha Beta representatives, under the chairmanship of Mrs. David Hicks, planned the Founders' Banquet being held this evening, the breakfast this morning and the Sunday breakfast.

The Friday banquet and the luncheon this noon were planned by Alpha Gamma members under the direction of Willamena Ribbink.

Delegates from the 35 state chapters registered Friday evening at the center, followed by a dinner. Catherine Riggs of Saginaw, state representative, presided at the dinner and Dr. Edith Sampson, former representative to the General Assembly of the United Nations, spoke on "Our Global Problems."

★ ★ ★

Chairmen of the breakfast held this morning were Mrs. Theodore E. Wiersema and Mrs. Irene Albright. The Pontiac Choral Ensemble, directed by Mrs. Harold Northon and accompanied by Mrs. Olive Lord, presented several numbers.

Choral members are Mrs. Harvey Bidstrup, Mrs. Albert Kohn, Aldene French, Mrs. Philip Kinsella, Mrs. Lynn Rohrer, Margaret Snyder and Mrs. George Panks.

HONORARY MEMBER

This afternoon, Sarah VanHoosen Jones of Rochester was formally presented with an honorary membership as sponsored by Alpha Gamma Chapter.

The formal banquet honoring the founders and stressing international relations will be held this evening with Margaret Boyd of Ohio, international president, as speaker.

General plans were made for the evening's activities by Mrs. Iva O'Dell, Mrs. David Turo, Frieda Huggett, Mrs. Elsie Welch and Mrs. Thomas Dodson.

Mrs. Kinsella, Mrs. Stanley Olczak and Mrs. Claire Hubbell are cochairmen of the executive board breakfast being held Sunday morning.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Ruth Purslow and Miss Ribbink comprised the steering committee for the convention.

Pontiac Press Photos

Prior to leaving for the annual conference of Alpha Iota State of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, local members rehearsed several vocal numbers presented this morning at a breakfast in East Lansing. Pictured are Mrs. Elsie Welch (left) of Cooley Lake road, Mrs. Harold Northon of Menominee road (at the piano) and Mrs. Albert Kohn of Garland avenue.

Rock 'n' Roll Horrifying for Horror Man Karloff

By LEE BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Horror man Boris Karloff, sometimes referred to as the arsenic in Mrs. Murphy's Ovaltine, has shed his maniacal gleam for a bit of calypso and a spot of rock and roll.

★ ★ ★

Karloff, who's not likely to turn up as a summer replacement for Elvis Presley, gave out with "Mama Look at Boo Boo" and "Little Darling" last night on the Dinah Shore Show.

"They tell me that song, 'Little Darling,' is the No. 2 song in the country," the amiable Frankenstein monster said in amazement. "That's unbelievable, isn't it? I don't know what's happening to the world. It's positively frightening!"

The horror man is horrified at the trend towards rock and roll and scandal magazines.

★ ★ ★

"It's just about the most shocking thing that ever happened," he declared. "What are people thinking of to go in for such things?"

As far as Boris is concerned he'll just stick to the more terrifying, but less scandalous side of life.

HAPPY WITH CAREER

"I'm quite happy about the status of my career," he said. "In films I'm a bogey-man and in television I'm a straight actor with a little light stuff thrown in now and then.

★ ★ ★

"I figure, why should I cry because I'm not playing 'Hamlet' especially when I've completely broken the 'horror pattern' on TV.

Karloff has been known as "the monster" since 1931 when he appeared in "Frankenstein," but his TV roles have ranged from "Rasputin" and the bishop in "The Lark" to "The Man Who Played God," a part that particularly intrigued the actor because, as he put it:

"I never knew I'd grow up to be a stand-in for George Arliss and Liberace!" (Arliss played the lead role in an early motion picture and Liberace did the same role last year in "Sincerely Yours.")

Karloff, who generally sticks to the more dignified side of TV acting, once even managed to kick up his heels on a Donald O'Connor show.

"I guess if I played 'Little Lord Fauntleroy' I'd do a good job, but I doubt that anyone would want to look at it!"

Couple Planning August Wedding in Pennsylvania

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Thomas Smedley of Bryn Mawr, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Lee, to Robert John Ridgway. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Ridgway of Dearborn, formerly of Pontiac.

Joanne is a graduate of Bucknell University and Robert was graduated from the University of Michigan. He served three years with the U. S. Navy as a submarine officer in Key West, Fla.

The couple plans an Aug. 3 Wedding in Bryn Mawr, and will reside in the Philadelphia area.

Couple Exchanges Vows in Rhode Island Service

Married this morning at Notre Dame Church, Pawtucket, R. I., were Doris Elizabeth Messier and David Eugene Sagamang. A reception at the Central Falls Elite Club followed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Ulderic E. Messier of Pawtucket are parents of the bride, and David's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Sagamang of South Shirley avenue.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of nylon tulle with a long torso shirred bodice topping a skirt of ruffles. Her stand-away portrait neckline was underscored with embroidered Swiss organdy flowers.

A crown of iridescent sequins and seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of nylon tulle, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

★ ★ ★

Rosalie Messier and Suzanne Messier were their sister's attendants. They wore ballerina-length gowns of frosted nylon in blue and yellow, respectively. Their flowers were cascade arrangements of pink roses.

James Laurence was best man and Roger Messier, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Messier wore a pink dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Sagamang chose an aqua dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

★ ★ ★

Following a honeymoon trip to New York City, Washington, D. C. and Virginia, the newlyweds will make their home in Norfolk, Va.

Late Hours Wear Out Houseguest

Would It Be Rude for Her to Suggest Going to Bed?

By EMILY POST

A letter tells me: "I am used to going to bed early and when I don't get my proper rest I am miserable the next day. When I am a guest over a weekend in the home of people who never seem to go to bed, could I be considered rude if I suggested going to bed?"

Answer: If it is a house you go to often, and there are no outside guests for you to help entertain, you can perfectly well tell your hostess frankly that you would like to go to bed.

But if your hostess is not a really intimate friend and especially if other guests have come in for the evening, you are obliged by courtesy to stay up until the guests leave. Or if there are no guests, you should wait until your hostess makes a move to go to bed.

"Dear Mrs. Post: For the past several years our high school has been having a Junior Prom at which the girls dress in evening dresses and the boys in informal suits. I contend that this is very incorrect and that either the girls should wear informal dresses or the boys should wear tuxedos.

★ ★ ★

"I would very much like to have your opinion on this. Is there any other type of suit that the boys might wear and still be correct without going to the expense of renting tuxedos?"

Answer: The girls do not have to give up wearing evening dresses because the boys are not wearing tuxedos. It would be quite all right for young high school boys to wear blue suits and white shirts to the dance. Sports jackets and slacks would not do.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When there is no one to introduce the wedding guests to the mothers receiving at the reception room door, should strangers introduce themselves or merely say how-do-you-do and pass on to make room for the others coming?"

Answer: They announce themselves as they shake hands — "I'm Mrs. John Smith," "I'm Henry Jones," etc.

More People Are Seeking Help

Family Service Increases Scope

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Every so often I like to mention the Family Service Association of America in this column because it does such wonderful work in helping people who are in trouble, whether it be illness, domestic or financial problems.

★ ★ ★

It has a highly trained and experienced staff and branch offices are widely distributed in the United States. Counseling and all its services are available free of charge.

Even in this time of great prosperity more people are seeking help from this organization than ever before. In 1955 around a million persons received counseling and help.

Hugh R. Jones, president of the Family Service Association of America, had some interesting things to say about why so many people need help when times are so prosperous. It is apparent that higher incomes do not necessarily mean that there will be fewer family problems.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Jones said that one reason for the increase in the number of people the association helps is simply because it is becoming better known. And, of course, the increase in population in the United States is a factor. The population increased 36 million in the last 20 years.

190 MILLION PEOPLE

At the rate America is growing, in 10 more years there will be around 190 million people. There will be more children and more teenagers and more older folks.

★ ★ ★

In 1955 this association spent 25 million dollars aiding persons as compared to 17 million dollars in 1945.

Counseling is a free service of the Family Service Association.

The Family Service Association of America is having a difficult time getting enough people for a trained staff. It seems this shortage is due to the fact that fewer young people in colleges are enrolling in courses in social work.

Mr. Jones concluded, "Except for withering on the vine, steady, sufficient growth is the only alternative for the family service field in face of the population rise and the increased number of families needing professional assistance with personal difficulties."

Bureau Honors Mrs. Carruthers

Picks Volunteer of Month

Mrs. Grace Dotson Carruthers of Birmingham, selected Volunteer of the Month for May by the Central Volunteer Bureau, spends many hours each week as a motor aide for the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children.

Mrs. Carruthers, a widow, is a full-time employe, so the time she donates to the society as a motor aide is doubly appreciated. She has a son in the service and, according to personnel at the society office, Mrs. Carruthers "never refuses a motor aide request and is always willing to take any assignment."

Pictured with Mrs. Carruthers is Mrs. Edwin J. Lally Jr. of Waterford, president of the Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council and April Volunteer of the Month.

Mrs. Lally has served as a troop leader for five years and as president for two years. She is also a member of the Waterford Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association and the Waterford Civic Music Group.

Lyle Root Jr. to Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sam Davis of Tulsa, Okla., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Beverly Joan, to Lyle J. Root Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle J. Root of Lenox avenue.

Their marriage will be solemnized June 20 in Kirk in the Hills Church. The Rev. Harold C. DeWindt will perform the ceremony.

Conducts Meeting

Mrs. Leon Sirlin was hostess to members of the Women's Auxiliary, Jimmy Dey Post 12 Amvets, Thursday evening in her home on Elsinore drive. Mrs. Silas Sadler assisted the hostess.

Plans were discussed for a money-making project to be held June 1, and members voted a contribution to Saginaw Veterans' Hospital.

Gathers at Temple

Mrs. George Kayga presided at the Wednesday evening meeting of Corinne Sisterhood 184, Dames of Malta, held in Malta Temple. Rose Geigel was a guest at the meeting.

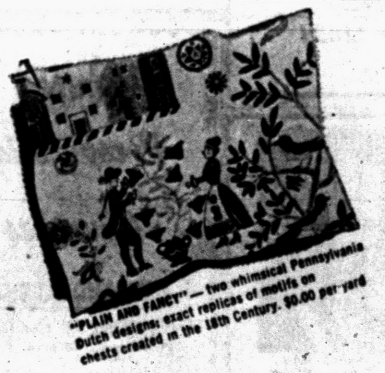

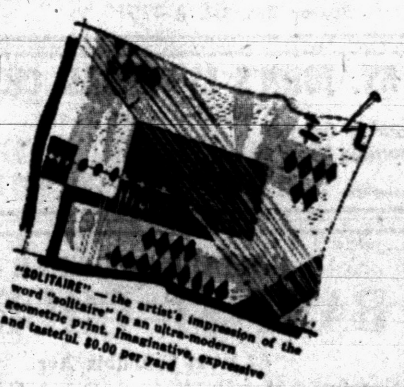

Following degree practice for the school of instruction to be held in Detroit June 6, members enjoyed a social hour.

Waterford Church Has Banquet Tonight

A semi-formal banquet will be held at 6:30 tonight at the Waterford Community Church, in Waterford, sponsored by the King's Disciples'.

"Sunday on the Range" is the film that will be shown and "The National Quartet" will present musical numbers for all young people 14, or over.

Recital at Trinity Baptist to Feature John Leonard

John C. Leonard will give a recital Sunday, at 4 p.m. at the Trinity Baptist Church, corner of Wessen and Maple streets.

The recital is under the sponsorship of the Nestoric Civic League, an organization of the civic-minded colored women of Pontiac.

There will be no admission charge, but there will be a free-will offering in order to add to the funds of the Nestoric Club for its charitable activities.

The group has as its purpose, the raising of funds for scholarships in accredited universities or colleges and to supply funds for school lunches. They have already sent two girls and one boy to college.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leonard of California avenue, John Leonard has sung with the New York City Opera Company. He has studied at the Detroit Conservatory of Music for two years, and has had two-and-one-half years' experience in the Opera Workshop.

Leonard is a veteran of World War II, having served in the South Pacific. A graduate of Pontiac High School, he is a member of the Macedonia Baptist Church.

Those active in the Nestoric Civic League include: Mrs. Nenry Manuel, president; Mrs. Callie Newton Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Garling, secretary; Mrs. Birdie L. W. Long, treasurer; Mrs. Grace Dotson Carrothers, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Eva M. Spears, chaplain.

CUP OF COFFEE—Before leaving the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Davis of 196 Mohawk Rd. for the Missionary Convention at the First Baptist Church, the Rev. and Mrs. Chalmers McDaniel are served another cup of coffee. The McDaniels, missionaries to Japan, are living with the Davis family while attending the conference.

★ ★ ★

Speakers of the evening will be the Rev. David Gotoos, missionary to Venezuela and Dr. Donald E. Hoke, president of Japan Christian College.

The regular Sunday services will be conducted tomorrow morning. From 3 to 3:30 in the afternoon, prayers will be offered. Promptly at 3:30 the program will being with the theme, "Priorities for the Day."

Speakers will be Rev. Vernon Mortenson, assistant general director, the Rev. James A. Savage of Venezuela, the Rev. Delbert A. Kuehl of Japan, the Rev. George A. Holmberg, also of Venezuela and Dr. Donald E. Hoke of Japan.

The evening service will begin at 7 o'clock with speakers, the Rev. Irl McCallister of South Africa and the Rev. David A. Martin of Japan.

Conference sessions have been under the leadership of Dr. David H. Johnson.

The Rev. Donald N. Hulin is director of music and congregational singing; Winifred J. Larson, soloist and Evelyn Dennison, accompanist. Esther Sorenson is publicity chairman.

DISCUSS PROBLEMS

During the week, missionaries have been participating in panel discussions and field reports. They have discussed late social and political developments in their countries as they affect the progress of mission work.

Programs have been planned to provide information on evangelism, education, medicine, publications, radio and audio-visual aids as well as world wide spiritual conditions.

Evangelicial Alliance Mission is an interdenominational society with more than 760 missionaries working in 16 foreign countries

Dr. H. H. Savage, pastor of First Baptist, assisted Dr. Johnson during the convention.

Monthly Program to Be Given Sunday

The Reed Singers of Liberty Baptist Church, 250 Fisher St. will present the regular monthly program at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Guests for the evening will be the "Detroiters" a group of gospel singers from Detroit.

The Rev. S. M. Edwards is pastor and Mrs. Bobbie White directs the singers.

With the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

1st Anniversary to Be Observed May 19-26

Members of St. James Baptist Church will observe their first anniversary with a seven day program beginning Sunday.

The Rev. T. Walter Harris will speak at the 3:30 service tomorrow afternoon. Devotions will be conducted by the officers of Providence Missionary Baptist Church.

Other speakers throughout the week will be the Rev. L. R. Miner of Macedonia Baptist Church on Monday night at 7:30.

The Rev. Ford B. Reed of New Hope Baptist Church will be the Tuesday speaker and coming from Detroit Wednesday evening will be the Rev. T. C. Simmons.

On Thursday, the Rev. William H. Bell of New Bethel Baptist Church will preach and the Rev. Sam Littlejohn of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church will be heard Friday night.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. V. Luther Lewis, will bring a special message on May 26 at 11:40 a.m. and the pastor of Liberty Baptist, the Rev. S. M. Edwards, will bring the sermon at the 3:30 afternoon service.

The choirs and ushers of the churches will serve in the service at which their pastor speaks.

Pastor to Preach Sermon Sunday on Prosperity

"Give Me This Country" will be the subject of the Rev. Edward D. Auchard's sermon Sunday at the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

The sermon deals with the question as to whether or not any civilization can survive prosperity. Music will be provided by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Mrs. Alice Smith.

The Rev. Mr. Auchard with his wife and daughter, Joanne, will be at home from 3 to 5 Sunday afternoon to members and friends of the Orchard Lake Church.

Elders and their wives serving on the board of evangelism will be on the reception committee. Members of the board of deacons will assist with the entertainment.

Bethany Baptist Pastor to Attend Board Meeting

Dr. Joseph I. Chapman, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church, West Huron at Mark, will leave Monday to attend a meeting of the Board of the Baptist Hospital Fund Inc. of St. Paul, Minn.

This fund owns and operates the Mounds Park Hospital, the Midway Hospitals and the Mounds Midway School of Nursing, all in St. Paul.

They are the only Baptist hospitals and school of nursing in the midwest.

Dr. Chapman, a member of the board for several years, was active in the work when serving as Excutive Secretary of the Minnesota Convention of American Baptist Churches.

Confident Living

Man's Act of Faith Cures Severe Migraine Attacks

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

A friend told me recently about a minister in a Connecticut town who helped a man find relief from headaches. Inasmuch as some 65 per cent of Americans suffer from headaches, this may help you.

DR. PEALE

The minister met a member of his congregation on the street and asked why the man hadn't been to church lately.

"I've been having terrible migraine headaches," the man answered. "I can't tell you how I suffer from them. I awaken in the night blinded with pain. I walk the floor. Sometimes I even scream; I can't help myself. I don't know when a headache is going to hit me, so I stay away from church."

"What does your doctor say about your trouble?" the pastor asked.

"I've been to several doctors and they all say there is nothing really wrong with me. One told me I need to consult the 'Higher Power.' I don't know exactly what he means.

"I've read about healings and even seen them on television, but I don't know whether to take stock in them or not. All I do know is that I get these headaches, and I suffer intensely until they pass."

The minister thought for a minute and then said: "Well, if the doctor believes this 'Higher Power' can help you, what do you say to coming along to my study where we can sit down with the Bible and read about the healings it describes?"

READ OF HEALINGS

So these two men sat down together and read about the many marvelous healings recorded in the Bible — the healings of leprosy, of palsy, of fevers and of many other diseases much worse than migraine headaches. And then they came to the words: "But come and lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live."

Suddenly the man looked up at his preacher and said, "I want you to put your hands on my head."

The minister protested: "I'm no healer and I know nothing about healing. There is no power in my hands."

But the man insisted and, finally, the pastor agreed and put his hands on the man's head, saying:

BOTH PRAYED

"Perhaps my fingers can be electrodes to stimulate your faith so that God may draw out of you whatever is causing your system to be out of balance. Then the recreative power of God can flow through you." Then both prayed earnestly.

The man's face brightened as he announced: "I feel better. I believe that something has happened to me."

"Now, don't start thinking that you are healed of headaches," cautioned the pastor. "Don't be disappointed if they return." He did not want his friend to build up his expectations unduly.

But that a form of spiritual healing had come was indicated by the wise and mature observation of the sufferer.

"I know," he answered, "but maybe this will help me to stand them better."

HEADACHES FEWER

A week later he was back to report, "I'm still having the headaches, but they're not so frequent or so intense." And in a few weeks he was able to report that he was quite free of them.

Now whether God healed this man you may judge for yourself. Certainly his attitude of despair was healed. And perhaps his changed thinking helped cure him.

You do not need anybody's hand — that is only a symbol. But the hand of God, received through faith, has amazing power to heal — as many have discovered.

God made you, and certainly He can remake you. But even God cannot heal either mind, soul or body unless we yield ourselves to Him.

Believe — and you may feel His healing hand upon you.

Dr. F. Olen Hunt Dinner Speaker

Central Methodists to Gather for Group Meetings May 20-24

DR. F. OLIN HUNT

Speaking Monday through Friday at 6:30 dinner meetings in Central Methodist Church will be Dr. F. Olen Hunt, superintendent of the department of finance and field service of the Division of National Missions of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Hunt was a staff member of the Board of Mission for 23 years. He attended Ozark Wesleyan, Friends' University and took summer courses at Vanderbilt University.

He was received into the St. Louis Conference in 1925 and served several pastorates.

From May 20 to 24, five dinner meetings will be held to discuss with the membership the building plans of the church.

The hosts and hostesses of all the coming dinner meetings will meet for the Tuesday dinner for instructions from Dr. Hunt.

A nursery will be provided for young children. Reservations may be made at the church office.

Annual Sermon to Be Preached

Jefferson Junior High School Band to Head Procession

The Rev. J. Allen Parker of the Newman A.M.E. Church will preach the annual sermon of the Knights of Pythias and auxiliaries at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Macedonia Baptist Church, Motor and Alton streets.

Music for the service will be furnished by the Macedonia Church Choir.

Members will meet at Rotary Park, Branch and Wessen streets at 1:30 p.m. to form a parade which will march down Bagley street to South boulevard. They will turn right on Franklin road, walk to Ditmar street then to the Macedonia Baptist Church.

The Jefferson Junior High School Band will lead the Pontiac group, 150 Detroit members and several from other cities.

Following the service, dinner will be served to members only at Macedonia Center, 420 Bloomfield Ave.

The Rev. Mr. Allen is Grand Vice Chancellor of the State of Michigan.

Missionary to Speak

The Rev. Marvin Steffins, a missionary to Venezuela the past five years, will be the speaker at noon Monday at Clark's Drive Inn, Baldwin at Montcalm streets. He is a native of Detroit and a graduate of Bob Jones University. The Christian Men's Club is sponsoring the luncheon meeting.

What Makes a Film Star? Personality, Says Zanuck

By BOB THOMAS

MEXICO CITY (AP)—What makes a movie star?

The question has been asked over and over, and I have never heard a satisfactory answer — until now.

It came from Darryl F. Zanuck, one of Hollywood's great starmakers. The producer had just watched a scene with Tyrone Power and Ava Gardner for his "The Sun Also Rises" at Churubusco Studios.

"Film stars aren't a breed apart," said Zanuck, puffing on his eternal cigar. "You'll find they are different types, just as you find different types in every walk of life. But to be successful, stars must have two qualities:

★ ★ ★

They must have pleasing personalities and photograph well.

"They must be able to project."

Do they need to know how to act? It helps, he said.

"The day has passed when a star could get by on looks and personality alone," Zanuck remarked. "A star must have some degree of talent.

★ ★ ★

"Some get their training from the stage, like Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy and Ty. Others learned how to act in pictures; Gary Cooper is a self-made star like that. Today television is giving young players some semblance of the training they need.

"But acting isn't everything. Some of our best actors can never be movie stars because they are not pleasing personalities or can't project."

★ ★ ★

In 30 years of dealing with actors, Zanuck has seen his share of temperament (recent example: Marilyn Monroe.) But he doesn't seem alarmed by it.

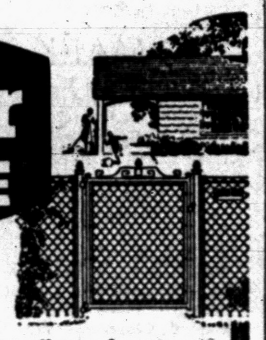

"I don't know of any actress without some share of temperament," he said. "But you find that in any creative field. Writers might think I'm temperamental when I change a scene 50 times.

★ ★ ★

Are there enough stars today?

"There are never enough. The fault lies with the distributors and exhibitors. They are always screaming for new faces. But when you're casting a picture, they say 'get so-and-so,' always an established name."

Of American eyeglass wearers 61.2 per cent use single lenses, 38.8 per cent use bifocals or trifocals.

'57 Cars Offer 'Real Newness'

Major Makers Forced to Put In Innovations, Magazine Says

NEW YORK — Fierce competition among the giants in the automotive industry makes this year's new cars really new including many innovations, reports an article in a recent issue of a national magazine.

The pitched battle, says the magazine, now being waged over the car-buyer's dollar by such companies as General Motors, Ford and Chrysler has resulted in dealers all over the country offering cars with design features that only a year ago were limited to a handful of imported makes.

Now, instead of having to choose among several basically identical cars, the consumer has a choice of several fundamentally different designs.

He can have coil springs, or torsion bars; four barrel and multiple carburetors, fuel injection or supercharging, "cream puff ride" or "crisp cornering."

Most people have become so hardened to the extravagant claims of the automobile advertisements that they are inclined to regard all statements by car companies as sheer exageration.

For example, many potential automobile buyers consider the new "Torsion-Aire" suspension system as just ordinary springs with a fancy name. Actually, however, the adoption of torsion-bar springing is an important step forward in basic auto design.

Another example of the radical changes offered in this year's models, is fuel injection, a major development that has arrived far ahead of the date most car experts would have set a year ago.

Air Force Jet to Repeat Flight by Lindbergh

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force next week will mark the 30th anniversary of Charles Lindbergh's historic nonstop solo crossing of the Atlantic by flying a jet fighter over the same course to France.

The F100 Super Sabre, which will be flown by Maj. Robinson Risner of Tulsa, Okla., will make the 3,600-mile flight in about six hours. It took Lindbergh, flying an early model propeller plane, 33½ hours.

The jet age plane will take off from McGuire Air Force Base, N.J., Tuesday.

Eddie Has Hard Time Trying to 'Loosen Up'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "How's Eddie Bracken working out on 'Masquerade Party'?" I asked a big man just after Eddie took over as m.c. of the popular quiz show.

"Eddie's got to loosen up!" the big man said sagely.

I told Eddie about this the other day—now that the program's going smoothly — and he laughed, maybe just a litle bitterly. The expression, "So-and-So's got to loosen up," is one of the cliches tossed off by all the big brains of TV nowadays. If you believed all that's said, everybody's got to loosen up but Arthur Godfrey, and he's got to tighten up."

Loosening up Eddie hasn't been as easy as it might have been because of the tightening up of Eddie's life. Since he became a star in "Shinbone Alley," with a $13,000 investment, he's been working feverishly and beaverishly to make it a hit. On Wednesday afternoon when he should be studying his TV script, he's got a matinee.

EDDIE

And then to get from the Ziegfield Theater where he does the TV show, to the Broadway where he does "Shinbone Alley," at the height of theater traffic, about the only way to travel quickly is by a scooter—which he recently bought.

"Sometimes I have trouble with taxis," he admitted.

"One cab driver wanted to delay me while I was rushing from one spot to another by insisting that he get on the show.

"I told him, 'We only use famous people.'

"The cab driver said, 'You kiddin'? I'm driving a cab 30 years. EVERYBODY knows me!"

★ ★ ★

Other people figure Eddie must be rich and crash the stagedoor to try to put the tap on him. One B'way character got in and said, 'Pal, it's the gallows. Let me have 200 till my governess send me my allowance."

"Blow, pal," snapped Eddie. "I got five kids, and all I'm trying to do in this world is get even."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Sam Rayburn's autobigraphy, if he ever writes it, will reveal he's still mad at FDR for not making him V.P. instead of Truman—then he'd have been President.

Switch: Red Buttons is now turning down motion pictures . . . Ambassador Chip Bohlen, just shifted from Russia to the Philippines, may shortly resign — to write his story of Russia which could be worth a pile.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Tommy Manville got married 10 times before they found out he wasn't saying he was in love—he merely had asthma . . . That's early, brother.

'Boys, Missiles Same,' Official Tells Convention

DETROIT (INS) — Boys were compared to guided missiles by Ray Eppert, executive vice president of Burroughs Corp. and president of the United Foundation.

★ ★ ★

Eppert, speaking at the conclusion of the Boys' Clubs of America's four-day convention in Detroit, said:

★ ★ ★

"Every American boy can be considered a missile with a warhead ready to explode in one of two ways: Constructively or destructively, unless he has the right launching and guidance."

More than 900 boys clubs leaders attended the conclave.

Lansing Police Wipe Out Reputation as Litterbugs

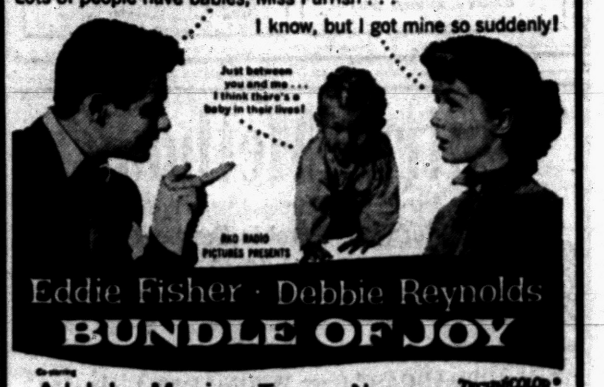

LANSING (AP) — Lansing police have solved their own litterbug problem.

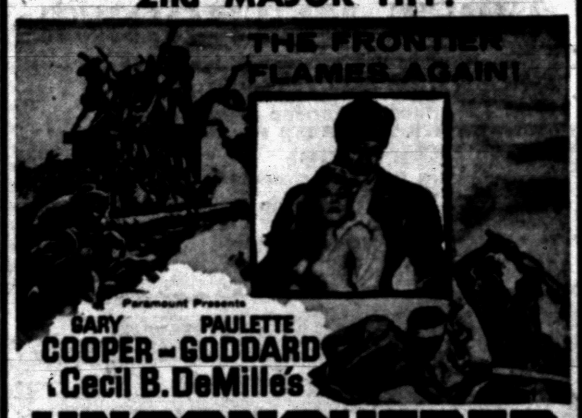

An alderman complained the police were littering the Lansing streets by dropping the carbon copies of their traffic violation tickets.

There were some suggestions that the capitol city police, criticized by the Legislature as overstrict, could solve the problem by writing fewer tickets.

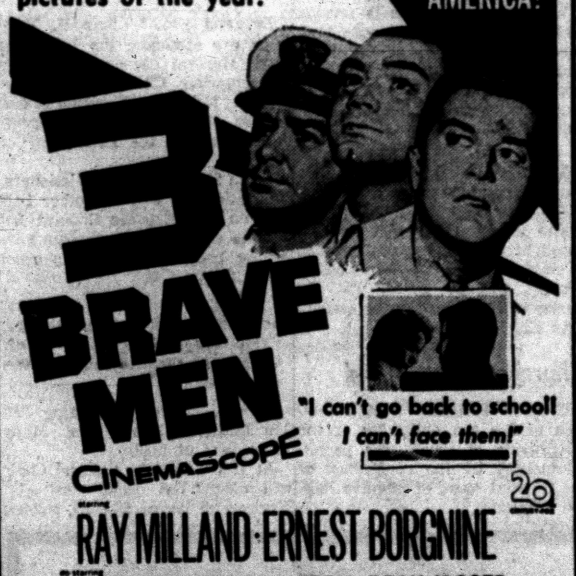

Instead, police came up with a new traffic book that eliminates the necessity for the disposal of carbons.

Waiters and waitresses in 1953 received $450 million in tips.

Army Holds Off Surrender of GI

Japan Charges Soldier With Shooting Woman on Firing Range

TOKYO (AP) — An order from Washington last night held off the U. S. Army's surrender of an American soldier to Japanese authorities for trial on a charge of shooting a Japanese woman on a military firing range.

But Japan's minister of justice told the Diet (parliament) today the young GI will be brought to trial in a Japanese court despite intervention by U. S. Secretary of Defense Wilson. He declared the United States already has waived jurisdiction and said Wilson's order for a review of the case was too late.

If the Japanese gain custody, Specialist 3. C. William S. Girard, 22, of Ottawa-LaSalle, Ill., apparently will be the first American serviceman tried in a foreign court for an offense the United States contends happened while he was on duty. The Japanese want to try him for accidental manslaughter in the death of a woman scrap collector last Jan. 30 after she was warned to get off the military firing ange.

★ ★ ★

The incident has come to be known in Japan as "the Somagahara shooting incident." The dead woman, Mrs. Naka Sakai, was one of several who were trying to salvage scrap metal from the range during a rest period after target practice. She was alleged to have been killed by an empty cartridge case propelled from a grenade launcher after the women ignored warnings to leave the range.

The Japanese were outraged about the case. Amid a wave of anti-U.S. feeling, the Japanese government demanded that Girard be turned over for trial in a Japanese court despite the U. S.-Japan status of forces agreement provision that gives local courts jurisdiction only over off-duty, off-base offenses.

★ ★ ★

After futile arguments, the U.S. Far East Command agreed to surrender Girard. Rear Adm. Miles M. Hubbard, deputy Far East Command chief of staff, said there was no other choice because Japan has the ultimate say on criminal cases where both sides claim jurisdiction. The Japanese contend Girard was resting when the shooting occurred and thus not officially on duty.

Hoeft Gets Long Ball Assist to Win

Homers Account for All Tallies in 4-1 Victory

Maxwell, Tuttle, Kaline Hit Circuit Blows at Yankee Stadium

NEW YORK (AP)—The Detroit Tigers celebrated Billy Hoeft's 25th birthday a little differently than the New York Yankees celebrated Billy Martin's.

The Yanks had a ball at a New York nightclub and somebody got hit in the nose.

The Tigers hit the ball at Yankee Stadium and Hoeft got his first victory of the season.

In fact, the Tigers hit the long ball. For the first time this season they hit three home runs in one game and these accounted for all the runs in the 4-1 triumph.

The outfielders did the honors. Charlie Maxwell hit his third homer of the season as he led off the second inning. Later in the same frame Al Kaline singled and then Bill Tuttle hit his third homer. And Kaline completed the honors with his second home run of the year as the first man up in the fourth inning.

★ ★ ★

Hoeft, the first lefthander to beat the Yanks this season, almost had a shutout. The lone Yankee run came in the seventh when Hank Bauer, who supposedly threw the punch in the nightclub fracas, led off with a single, moved to second on an infield out and scored on Jerry Coleman's single.

This was Hoeft's first start in 19 days. He's been sidelined with an inflamed tendon in his throwing arm. The southpaw gave up eight hits but the Yankees got only two men as far as third base—Bauer when he scored and Bill Skowron in the fourth.

Hoeft, showing no ill effects from his long layoff, walked only one man.

Redlegs Slaughter Giants, 11-1

Tebbetts Holds Magic Wand

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Remember 1954?

Leo Durocher was the manager of the New York Giants and the word around the National League was that all he had to do was wave his magic wand and presto, there was a genie who was ready to grant his every wish.

★ ★ ★

Maybe no one but Durocher could see the genie, but he got results. The Giants won the pennant and the World Series.

Now it's 1957 and the suspicion is beginning to make the rounds that Cincinnati pilot Birdie Tebbetts has borrowed the magic wand and the slightly worn genie who goes with it.

The amazing Redlegs now have won 15 of their last 16 games, including last night's 11-1 slaughter of the Giants. They led the National League today by a game and a half and Tebbets is the new genius of the loop.

★ ★ ★

He needed a lefthanded pitcher with Joe Nuxhall laid up, and along came Don Gross, a young fellow who throws baseballs lefthanded only because he broke his right wrist when he was a little shaver. Gross gave up just five hits in licking the Giants. It was his third start, third complete game and third victory.

It's been that way all through the streak. When the Redlegs must come from behind, out comes the magic wand. When they need a hit, the magic wand calls on a bunch of castoffs from other teams like Pete Whisenant, Jerry Lynch and Art Schult.

★ ★ ★

When Tebbetts needs a pitcher to slam the door, the genie responds with Hershell Freeman, Tom Acker or Raul Sanchez.

And now the genie has come up with Gross. Against the sad-sack Giants, Gross needed very little help. Frank Robinson blasted two homers and Gus Bell one.

In the only other National League game, Robin Roberts pitched the Philadelphia Phillies to a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals despite being clubbed for homers by Wally Moon and Ken Boyer.

★ ★ ★

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox also pulled a game and a half ahead of the pack on edging the Baltimore Orioles, 3-2. The Cleveland Indians moved into a second-place tie with the New York Yankees with a 3-1 triumph over the Washington Senators while the world champions were dropping a 4-1 decision to the Detroit Tigers.

The Boston Red Sox squeezed past the Kansas City A's, 4-3, in the other AL game.

★ ★ ★

The White Sox had no easy time of it. They collected just six hits off Art Ceccarelli and had to overcome a one-run deficit to hang up their sixth straight. Conversely, the defeat was the fifth in succession for the Orioles.

CALHOUN SLIPS — Rory Calhoun slipped to the canvas when he missed with a left thrown at Joey Giardello last night in the Cleveland arena. Giardello won a split decision in the 10-round middleweight bout.

Iron Liege Favored to Follow Derby Win

BALTIMORE (AP) — Iron Liege, once belittled by his own Calumet Farm handlers, took on six other colts in the Preakness today as a probable favorite to further his bid for the ninth Triple Crown in the history of thoroughbred racing.

★ ★ ★

About 30,000 — including Vice President and Mrs. Richard M. Nixon—were expected to attend historic Pimlico for the 81st running of the $100,000-added race over a mile and three-sixteenths.

The weather man said they could expect a cloudy, warm day with temperatures in the 80s and a possibility of scattered showers.

Iron Liege was pegged in the early line at 4-5 to follow up his May 4 Kentucky Derby triumph with victory in the Preakness and thereby set himself up for the June 6 Belmont Stakes. The last of eight horses ever to win these three events, which make up the Triple Crown for 3-year-olds, was Calumet's Citation in 1948.

★ ★ ★

The runner given the best chance of throwing cold water on trainer Jimmy Jones' dream of making history with Iron Liege was Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler, figured at 2-1 in the early odds guessing game.

He ran fourth in the Derby but beat Iron Liege in three previous meetings, and even Jones admitted he "is capable of a better race than he ran in the Derby."

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, the kindly 82-year-old gent who trains Bold Ruler, prescribed blinkers for the fractious son of Nasrullah in hope that they will help him duplicate his victory in the Preakness Prep last Monday. It was the first time he had used "cheaters" in 17 starts.

★ ★ ★

The only other Derby starter to try Iron Liege in this one again was Clifford Lussky's Federal Hill the get-out-and-go offspring of Cosmic Bomb. He broke on top in Kentucky and led for the first mile before winding down and finishing fifth. Clockers called him "the fittest horse in the Preakness," and he was listed early at 6-1.

TAMES YANKS—Tiger pitcher Billy Hoeft had several reasons to celebrate yesterday. He had his 25th birthday, he won his first game of the season, and he was the first southpaw to beat the Yanks this season. Tigers won, 4-1, at Yankee Stadium.

25 Drivers in '500' Trials

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Twenty-five drivers were ready to dare the Indianapolis Motor Speedway's concrete retaining walls today in opening trials for the 41st 500-mile race May 30 —and at least six of them aimed at the pole position reserved for the fastest.

★ ★ ★

Jimmy Bryan of Phoenix, Ariz., 1956 USAC national champion, late yesterday turned in the season's fastest practice lap of 144.5 m.p.h. in his 3-year-old Dean Van Lines Special.

★ ★ ★

Gene Hartley of Indianapolis, whose father Ted, has been racing for 35 years, also joined the small group of drivers who have hit 144 m.p.h. this year with engines cut 10 per cent below last year's maximums. They included Troy Ruttman, 1952 winner; Pat O'Connor, 1956 Midwest sprint champion, and Landy Linden, veteran of six speedway starts.

★ ★ ★

Paul Russo, who has been close to 144 m.p.h. in a rebuilt Novi which crashed while he was leading the '56 race, figured in one of three minor accidents yesterday. He slid sideways 380 feet but escaped injury or damage.

Marshall Teague of Daytona Beach, Fla., pulled out of a double spin successfully. Al Herman, wrecked in last year's "500", veered into the infield when his engine threw a rod, but also regained control.

★ ★ ★

Johnny Parsons of Los Angeles, the only former winner in the field besides Ruttman, was ready to go again after his mechanics worked overtime to repair the Agajanian Special in which he hit a wall last Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Sam Hanks, driving a new ultra-low horizontal engine Belond Special, figured to be among today's faster qualifiers in his 12th bid for the Memorial Day purse. He finished second last year despite a collision.

With the destruction of Giuseppe (Nino) Farina's car in Keith Andrews' fatal crash Wednesday, the 50-year-old Italian champion was out of the race and only American drivers remained.

★ ★ ★

The oldest drivers expected to attempt qualification today are also a couple of the best, Russo of Canoga, Calif., and Fred Agabashian of Walnut Creek, Calif., in a new Bowes Seal Fast Special. Both are 43 years old.

Russo and Agabashian have qualified 10 times each for the Memorial Day race but neither has ever won it.

Outdoor Weekend Lists Fishing, Shooting Meets

ALL OUTDOORS, Mich., (INS) — Promises of good fishing and numerous competitive shoting events battle it out for the attention of Michigan outdoorsmen this weekend.

While there are plenty of skeet, trap, rifle and pistol shooters planning to attend the meets Saturday and Sunday, exciting muskie fishing, promises of delicious walleyes and good perch runs are tugging at the rifleman's coat tails.

Noted muskie guide, Homer Le Blanc of St. Clair Shores says warmer weather is bringing the big ones into Lake St. Clair. In three trips this week Le Blanc was batting 1,000.

Pontiac-area lakes are hot again. George Hellgram of Dearborn took a five pound rainbow trout out of Union Lake this week. He caught the whopper on a cow bell — a string of spinners trailed a nightcrawler harness in about 20 feet of water.

Whittmore and Pontiac Lakes both experimental waters — are continuing to provide "very good" bass fishing. Use plugs in weedbeds for the big ones.

On the other side of the outdoor world, the biggest shooting event is the great northern sectional skeet championship at the Detroit Gun Club today and Sunday.

Nearby, the Birmingham Gun Club will hold its registered trapshoot Sunday. Smallbore rifle shooters will be firing at the Oakland County Sportsman's Club at Waterford in the Great Lakes Steel Annual Trophy match. Ten events are slated.

State pistol shooters will travel to Bristol, Ind., this weekend for their first outdoor match of the year.

Jones Is Still at It — Gets 5 Firsts at Ypsi

Eastern Michigan's Hayes Jones is at it again. In beating Central Michigan, 85 - 46, yesterday, Jones won three firsts outright and tied for two other firsts.

★ ★ ★

In the 100 yard dash if was former Pontiac boys in a 1 - 2 finish. Jones won it in 10 flat and right behind him was Walt Beach, also of Pontiac, now at Central.

Jones took the high hurdles in 15.4, low hurdles in 24.5, tie in the high jump at 6-feet-3 and tie in broad jump at 22-feet-6 and ⅛ inches.

★ ★ ★

Terry Keating of Waterford won the 440 in 50 flat as Eastern took 11 of 15 events.

Fate of M-59 Oval?

BY BILL CORNWELL

The approval or rejection of an asphalt track for the Pontiac Speedway will decide the 1957 fate of the M-59 oval.

Whether the five-year-old track opens its doors to the public for a new racing season or locks up indefinitely hinges on the outcome of a vitally important meeting of the Pontiac Speedway Board of Directors Monday night.

Dick Dewey, manager and promotor of the track since August of 1955, asked for an asphalt-paved surface on the quarter-mile oval when the board met last Wednesday.

A bid from a local company was submitted by Dewey at that time. The board elected to table the request until Monday.

Joe Chevrier, president of the board, said that the proposal was shelved because the stockholders were not satisfied with the bid. "The board wants to study other bids before going ahead with the project," he said.

Dewey expressed regret over the delay and was pessimistic about the project's chances of being accepted. His pessimism is not shared by Chevrier, however.

"The stockholders are definitely in favor of an asphalt track," Chevrier claimed, "but no action will be taken until the best possible bid is received." We expect new bids at the next meeting," the added.

The Board of Directors is composed of 11 stockholders. Chevrier, Bill Buettner and Mike DeLeo form a three-man Board of Control.

Dewey requested the asphalt surface, as he worded it, "to bring to the people of Pontiac the best possible racing." "We can't get the best equipment, best cars or best drivers with a flat dirt track," he claimed.

Dewey indicated that he might resign his position as the track's manager-promoter if the project were turned down.

Before his affiliation with the Pontiac Speedway, Dewey toured the auto racing circuit and drove modified hardtops for five years. A life-long Pontiac resident, Dewey took charge of the track after Don Pike resigned.

The Pontiac Speedway was founded in 1952 by Bob Amos, now a stockholder, who operated the track independently for one year. In 1953 the M-59 oval became a stockholding company. The company's personnel has not changed.

This is the first threatened interruption of racing at the Speedway since its inception.

'Bring Knucks' Says Party Bid in Tigers' Room

NEW YORK (AP)—Posted on the bulletin board in the Detroit Tigers' dressing room last night was the following notice:

"All those who wish to attend Billy Hoeft's birthday party tonight at the Copa sign below. Special curfew 4 a.m. Bring brass knuckles."

This, of course, was anything but a subtle reference to the Yanks' Billy Martin's party which wound up with Hank Bauer allegedly punching a heckler from an adjoining table.

Four Runs in 8th Produce 'M' Win

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Steve Boros smashed a two-run homer in a four-run eighth inning as Michigan defeated Minnesota 7-6 yesterday in a Big Ten baseball game.

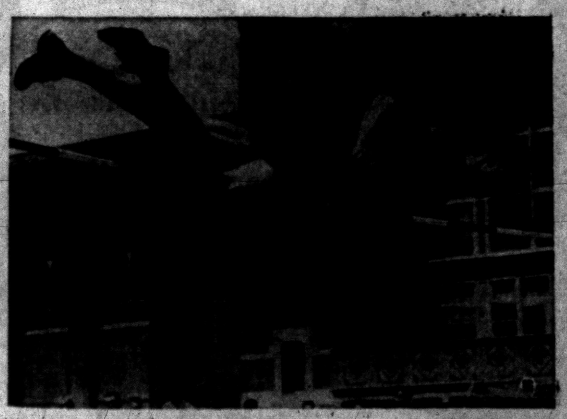

The Gophers piled up a 6-1 lead in the first four innings before reliefer Glenn Girardin stopped them cold.

The victory was Michigan's sixth against three conference losses. Minnesota now is 4-4.

HIGH-FLIERS — Two very strong candidates for top honors in MHSAA title events Saturday at East Lansing are shown above. Top is 5 foot five inch Alex Barge (PHS) flying over a bar at 6 feet or higher; just above is Dan Dropps (St. Mikes) in a near-6-foot leap in Class C. He was 2nd in "C" last year, Barge 2nd in "A."

Giardello Wins Split Decision

CLEVELAND (AP) — Middleweight champion Ray Robinson's manager would "like to see Giardello in the ring with Sugar Ray."

★ ★ ★

George Gainford, Robinson's manager, said that last night in the arena dressing room of Joey Giardello minutes after the Brooklyn Italian had beaten Rory Calhoun on a split decision in a tough 10-rounder.

★ ★ ★

With welterweight king Carmen Basilio in line for a crack at Robinson next, there probably will be at least a six-month interval before the opportunity Giardello made for himself last night will materialize.

★ ★ ★

Accumulating a point edge in the early rounds, Giardello staved off the powerful Calhoun's bids for a knockout in the closing stanzas to become the second fighter who has vanquished Calhoun. The 22-year-old slugger had won 14 of 27 previous fights by knockouts and been set back only once in his three-year career.

Mets Seek Players

The Mets Baseball Club is making plans for forming a team to compete in a Class D league. Anyone interested in playing should telephone FE 5-1023.

Chiefs Shutout Cranbrook, 2-0

An excellent pitching performance by Bob Garrett and the solid hitting of his batterymate Chuck Johnson led Pontiac to a 2-0 victory at Cranbrook yesterday.

Garrett scattered four hits and struck out seven as the Chiefs won their 6th game in 10 starts. Johnson batted in Garrett with the 1st run on a single and later scored the other himself after belting a triple.

The defeat dropped Cranbrook below the .500 mark at 5-6. Freshman Andy Billesdon went the route in defeat allowing five hits. Chuck Grube had two of the Cranbrok safety's.

City Leagues Get Started

The 1957 City League baseball season gets underway Sunday afternoon with a doubleheader at Wisner Field.

Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson and John Abel, president of the Pontiac Baseball Federation, will form the initial battery at 1:20 p.m., just 10 minutes before the start of the 1st game.

Mayor Donaldson will throw the 1st pitch and Abel will be behind the plate to officially open the season.

Griff's Grill and Shaw's Jewelers are scheduled to clash in the opening game. The Jewelers are defending City League champions.

The CIO tangles with the Pontiac Jets at 3:30 in the 2nd half of the twin bill.

Thomas Die & Stamping and the Michigan Giants round out this year's six-team circuit.

Regular weekday league games begin next Tuesday on the Wisner diamond at 5:30 p.m. All contests are slated for the seven-inning route. The public is invited to attend.

Softball Season Opens Sunday With 4 Games

The 1957 softball season gets under way in Pontiac Sunday night with doubleheaders slated in two leagues.

In the National League, Pontiac Select-A-Drink meets the UAW-CIO 563 nine at 7 at Beaudette Park and Oxbow Pavilion plays Louie's Tavern at 8:30 at Northside.

International League action will have Deni's Corner against Dostal Foundry at 8:30 at Beaudette and Pontiac Police vs. Pontiac State Hospital at Northside.

Festival Semifinals Today

Hogan Leads by 1 Stroke

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va. (AP)—The stage is set today in the semifinal round of the Sam Snead Golf Festival for the men —if they're able — to separate themselves from the boys.

Bunched within two strokes of each other at the head of the pack of 47 pros seeking $10,000 in prizes are two 45-year-old topnotchers of the past decades and a pair in their 20s full of promise.

The old terror, Ben Hogan, is the front man going into the last 36 holes with 131 strokes, nine better than par for the 6,497-yard Old White course.

One shot behind him are the hot pro, Snead, being honored for his 20th year at the mountain resort links, and Paul Harney, 27-year-old from Worcester, Mass.

Another stroke back is Billy Casper, 26-year-old from Bonita, Calif., 12th-highest money winner of last year and champion this year at Phoenix and the Kentucky Derby Open.

Harney surrendered the lead to Hogan yesterday and the sub-par shooting should continue hot and heavy. Seventeen of the field are under par after the first two rounds on the mountain course where Hogan tied a world's record of 259 for 72 holes in 1950.

While Hogan is three strokes off that streak, he feels his over-all game is improving although his second round 66 was a stroke higher than opening day.

Harney shot a steady 69 after his breath-taking 63 while Snead had 66 for the second straight time.

Owen and Pace Shine in Michigan Defeat

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's unbeaten track team raced to its ninth straight dual meet victory of the season yesterday in Ohio Stadium, outpointing Michigan, 74-58.

It was the final dual meet of the season for the Bucks.

Ohio State won eight of the 14 events yesterday. Michigan's Dave Owen set a new stadium mark when he put the shot 58 feet, one-quarter inch. It erased the mark of 57-8¼ by Miami's Stan Jones.

Other top performances were the 14-foot, 4-inch pole vault by the Bucks' Stan Lyons and the 9.7-second 100-yard dash by Michigan's Jim Pace.

Waterford Loses 1-0

Waterford just missed an opportunity to turn in the upset of the year in the Inter-Lakes league yesterday bowing to Berkley in eight innings, 1-0.

Loser Chuck Kirken pitched three-hit shutout ball over the regulation seven innings but a walk, two singles and a pair of infield outs meant in downfall in the 8th. Neubrecht scattered four safeties for the Bears.

Oldtimers Practice

Pontiac Oldtimers Baseball practice Sunday afternoons at 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. every Sunday until the opening of the scherule June 2nd at Washington Junior High School field.

OCSC Turkey Shoot

An old-fashioned type turkey shoot has been arranged for Sunday at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club skeet range, to which the public is invited.

Shooting begins at 10 a.m. in this novelty event, which includes luck targets with equal opportunity for both average and expert marksmen. Cash and trukeys are the rewards.

Colleges Bid for County Prep Talent

By BILL CORNWELL

An abundant supply of talented Oakland County athletes will be graduated from high school this spring.

★ ★ ★

What are their future plans? Do they have any hopes of taking a whirl in collegiate sports? Have any of them been offered assistance? What college do they plan to attend?

The rush for outstanding prep athletes by colleges and universities is relentless. It becomes particularly relentless when schools start bidding for the same boy.

The current school year was no more than half over when a few Oakland prep stars found out that their services were desired.

★ ★ ★

Probably the most sought-after high school athlete in Oakland County this year was John Walker, Walled Lake's brilliant fullback. John was approached by both Michigan and Michigan State, to mention a couple.

★ ★ ★

So now it looks like the All-Oakland County and Associated Press Class B All-State fullback will be running for the Wolverines.

★ ★ ★

Another Walled Lake ace, Larry Hughes, was given a basketball scholarship to the University of Detroit. One of the finest cagers in Viking history, the 6-4 Hughes hopes to fit in with coach Bob Calihan's plans for the Titans.

PETERS

LANG

Royal Oak boasted two of the state's top swimmers this year in Ralph Nutter and Dave Gallanders and several schools of higher learning took notice. Columbia University was one of the interested parties.

★ ★ ★

Teammates for the Oaks until now, the boys are destined to become bitter rivals. Nutter has decided to go to MSU while Gallanders is headed for Michigan.

Pontiac High's best swimmer, Dennis Simonson, is being tempted by the Spartans.

IBC in Trouble on New Front

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Boxing Club, already in trouble with the government, today found itself engaged in a battle on another front.

The Callahan AC of Boston, and its promoter, Sam Silverman, is sueing the IBC in Federal Court for nine million dollars in damages. The suit charges the IBC and six of its officers with conspiring to monopolize interstate commerce in the promotion, exhibition, broadcasting and televising of professional championship fights in this country.

The individuals named included James D. Norris, Arthur M. Wirtz, Truman Gibson, John Reed Kilpatrick, Ned Irish and Harry Markson, all high officers in the IBC.

Neither the club nor any of the individuals would comment on the charges, which included entering into agreements with "a substantial number" of leading contenders to box exclusively under their promotion.

Avondale's Ron Elmy has been granted a football scholarship to Indiana University. Elmy, who began his gridiron career at St. Michael, starred as a linebacker for the Jackets and was named to the All-County team last season.

★ ★ ★

Dave Peters, Dave Eldred and Fred Weaver, who formed three-fourths of Rochester's explosive backfield last fall, will seek entrance to Central Michigan, although Eldred has also indicated interest in Michigan State. Peters has reportedly been pursued by the U. of M. because of his track abilities.

Bob Isbell of Birmingham has received a scholarship to Texas Christian. The 6-foot-4 Isbell, basketball and football standout for the Maples, once lived in the Lone Star state and the TCU offer is a welcome gift.

★ ★ ★

Husky Tom Ropers of Shrine presents a different picture. The Knights' star cager is bound for Notre Dame, but he has no athletic intentions at the moment. He was approached by other colleges, but all offers were shunned in favor of the Irish.

ROPERS

WALKER

ELMY

SIMONSON

An outstanding student, the bespectacled Ropers is determined to enroll at South Bend, according to Shrine coach Ron Horwath.

Pint-sized but versatile George Lang of Clarkston may go to Kalamazoo and Royal Oak's Dave Ritchie, amost as small as Lang, is considering either MSU or Georgia Tech. Bill Johnson and Jim Greenlees, both from Avondale, own scholarships to Alma.

★ ★ ★

Clawson quarterback Tom Kollin has been accepted at the new Air Force Academy in Denver, Colo. Herb Smith, head football coach at Wayne, is reportedly impressed with Dick Serfozo, who played quarterback for Ferndale in 1956.

★ ★ ★

Waterford's Lyndon Salathiel is divided between Alma and Northwestern while Don McDonald of Farmington may matriculate to Ferris Institute. Lawrence Tech will get Jim Zaleski and Dave Neiger of Berkley.

★ ★ ★

Other senior athletes have shown interest in college, but are still undecided. They include Bob Holloway and Bob Baxter, Pontiac; Lou Haase, Utica; Jim Samec, Ferndale; Jim Larkin, Waterford and Mel Alldredge, Southfield.

Close Races in Area Baseball Leagues

BY CHUCK ABAIR

First place deadlocks in two leagues and close races in various others make the baseball situation an interesting one around Oakland County and area as the Prep season heads into its final weeks.

Cranbrook, Orchard Lake St. Mary, Madison, Roseville, Almont, Imlay City, Royal Oak St. Mary and Mt. Clemens are still among the unbeaten in loop competition.

Cranbrook heads the Interstate League, Madison and Roseville are unbeaten in the Oakland B but have not played each other yet, Almont is on top of the Southern Thumb pack, Imlay City is kingpin in the South Central Conference, Royal Oak St. Mary leads Orchard Lake by one-half game in the Suburban Catholic and Mt. Clemens has a strong start towards the Eastern Michigan title.

★ ★ ★

The evenly-matched Inter-Lakes and Wayne-Oakland Leagues have no unbeatten aggregations. Southfield and Berkley are tied for the lead in the Inter-Lakes. Clarkston and Milford are tied in the north and Clarenceville is the southern pace setter in the Wayne-Oakland divisional races.

Aggies to Quit MVC for Big 7

Oklahoma A&M Name Changes; Is Accepted Into 'Big 8'

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association, commonly known as the Big Seven, expanded to the Big Eight yesterday with the admission of Oklahoma A. & M., a school that soon will officially change its name.

By June 1, effective date of entering the Big Eight Conference, Oklahoma A. and M. will have changes its name to Oklahoma State University for Agriculture and Applied Science and have traded its long-time nickname of "Aggies" for "Cowboys."

The Cowboys are present members of the Missouri Valley Conference. Detroit leaves the MVC this year, and Houston is known bidding for Southwest Conference admission.

Other MVC schools are Bradley, Drake, Wichita, Cincinnati, Tulsa and Texas Western.

The Cowboys will start competition in the Big Eight this fall with cross country.

Full football competition is expected to start by at least, 1961.

Prep Star Vaults Over 15 Feet in Arizona Meet

PHOENIX, Ariz. (INS) — Jim Brewer, 18-year-old student at North Phoenix High School, set a new national prep school pole vault record last night with a vault of 15 feet, one-eighth of an inch.

He performed the feat at an invitational track and field meet sponsored by the American Legion at the North Phoenix High School stadium.

In his performance last night Brewer broke the new national record of 14 feet, 6¼ inches he set at an Arizona State meet in Tucson last week.

Oxford in Loop Win

Oxford raced to a 5-0 lead in the 1st five innings and held on the rest of the way to whip North Branch in a South Central Conference game yesterday. Fred Liestman hurled 4-hit ball in the 1st Wildcat triumph in two loop starts.

Record Homer Helps State in 6-5 Win

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University collected 10 hits, including a pair of bases-empty home runs, in a 6-5 upset of league-leading Iowa in a Big Ten baseball game yesterday.

The loss, the first of the season for big righthander Don Dobrino, dropped the Hawkeye league record to 5-2. Michigan State is 4-4.

MSU captain Al Luce drilled the first homer in the opening inning, giving him a school record of nine for the season. First baseman Roscoe Davis hit another in the sixth.

Roseville Still Unbeaten

Exploding for three runs in the 9th inning, Roseville remained unbeaten in the race with Madison for Oakland B honors with a 7-4 triumph over Troy yesterday. The victors put together two hits, two walks and an error for the deciding marker.

Record Field of 50 Pros Seek 5 Spots in PGA Test

By H. GUY MOATS

Biggest field for a Michigan Professional Golfers Association qualifying tourney for a National PGA test is set for Monday's trial at Lakepoints Country Club, east of Detroit.

Johnny Dalrymple, former Keego Harbor High athlete, new pro for the host club said this morning that the course is in "fine condition and should provide a real challenge to the record field of 50 of the state's best professionals."

Test for the five places for the national at Miami CC, Dayton, O., in July will be a 36-hole medal round, with the first starters Emerick Kocsis and Don Perne (St. Clair CC) off the tee at 8 a.m. Following this pair is a threesome (rest of the field will play in threesomes), Ralph Yankee, Bill Zylstra and Jack Damon (Flint CC Aide).

★ ★ ★

Other early starters include John Barnum (G. Rapids), Joe Thacker (Knollwood CC), Mike Dietz (Indianwood), Eldon Briggs (unattached), Jimmy Johnston (current state PGA titlist, Farmington CC), Horton Smith (DGC), Bob Gajda (Forest Lake), Warren Orlick (Tam O Shanter), Max Evans (Rochester CC), Dalrymple, who is in the threesome with Orlick and Evans.

★ ★ ★

Al Watrous, Wally Burkemo and Chick Harbert are exempt from rigors of the qualifying rounds. Burkemo and Harbert are former national PGA champions.

★ ★ ★

Other area pros include Bill Graham of Bloomfield, Tommy Shannon of Orchard Lake, Ray Maguire of Birmingham, Bob Warra (former Indianwood pro) and Elmer Prieskorn of Pine Lake.

Orlick (PGA prexy), Lou Powers (secretary) and Don Soper, tourney chairman will conduct the tournament.

U.S. Netters Win Early Advantage

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The United States, with Vic Seixas and Grant Golden wielding potent rackets, was favored to brush aside the British West Indies today and take another stride along the trail leading to the Davis Cup challenge round in Australia next December.

★ ★ ★

Seixas, member of the Davis Cup team ever since World War II, and Bernard "Tut" Bartzen of San Angelo, Tex., gave the United States a 2-0 lead yesterday winning the first two singles matches without the loss of a set.

Bartzen, who stepped aside today in the doubles in favor of young Golden from Wilmette, Ill., looked impressive as he downed Ian MacDonald 6-1, 6-0, 6-1 in 49 minutes. But even that speedy pace was nine minutes slower than Seixas posted in turning back Peter Phillips 6-0, 6-2, 6-0.

Victory in the doubles or one of the two singles matches tomorrow will send the United States into the second round of the American Zone competition against Venezuela.

YOU Want the New Hospital Ready When You Need It.....

...and YOU CAN Be Sure of It's Completion If You

VOTE YES MAY 20

Sickness and accidents never wait until you are ready to have them . . . yet you expect, and want the facilities to give immediate care and relief when they strike you or your loved ones. That is why it is so important, so vital that Pontiac General Hospital be completed as soon as possible. If you must be convinced completely visit any one of the hospitals tomorrow . . . talk with the staff AND the patients. There is no finer way to see the urgent need for more hospital facilities. Critics will bombard you with cries about taxes, management and a host of other claims. And it is good to have critics BUT are they offering constructive answers to our Hospital Shortage Problem . . . or throwing up protective screens for their pocketbooks? Are they giving of their time and efforts, voluntarily to help solve this problem? We ask you to consider every statement. Probe for the truth. We ask you to think of the need of your family and your neighbor. Who or Where will they be cared for if you fail to squarely face the fact that the need is great, the most practical solution of which is the passage of the General Hospital Bond Issue. Other cities receive nation-wide acclaim for the progressive, planned manner in which they finance hospitals, schools, public buildings . . . and in almost every instance they do it in the same manner Pontiac is now asking you to complete YOUR hospital. Vote Monday to provide the equipment and beds to give Pontiac people this much needed hospital expansion.

"READY FOR YOUR COFFEE?" — The coffee pot is always on at the Thompson house in Pontiac Watkins Estates. Mrs. Thompson is pleased with her new kitchen which has space for everything. Cupboards are knotty pine. There is a beige tile splashboard behind the double corner sink. The bamboo-curtained patio door is visible at the right. Plans for an outdoor living area are in the making. The chrome and plastic table and chairs are a sunny yellow.

Your Neighbor's House

They Built in Pontiac Watkins Estates

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

The coffee pot was on. Three-year-old Charisse Lynne was literally dancing in excitement. Prince, the black cocker, made us welcome before his mistress, Mrs. Richard Thompson, opened the front door.

Some months ago we had talked with Mrs. Thompson and had made plans to photograph their new home in Pontiac Watkins Estates. When we made a telephone contact weeks after their scheduled date for moving into the house, it turned out to be just twenty-four hours after they had settled. They've been in now abouut six weeks. Prior to moving they lived in Drayton Plains.

Pontiac Watkins Estates is a subdivision with custom built homes. There's enough difference in the houses to keep the area from looking like a row development. The Thompson house on Hira Street is ranch-type with a two-car attached garage.

On the street side the exterior is yellow Roman brick with aqua plywood and batten strips. The back and sides are painted beige. The house, set on a 100x150 foot lot, faces west.

Cream colored semi sheer draperies with brown, rust and beige figures cover the front picture window. In the window there is a basket chair and a blonde step lamp table. Against the north wall the brown frieze sofa fits nicely. Plump pillows of lemon and orange make a pleasing spot of color. A matching frieze armchair is placed nearby.

The walls are sand color with a drop ceiling of cream. The carpeting is brown and beige tweed. Mrs. Thompson painted the rustic scene above the sofa.

Half of one living room wall is open to the kitchen. A knotty pine breakfast bar, topped with linen weave vinyl plastic in beige serves as eating space, work area and serving counter. At the wall end there are three birch dowels set between counter and ceiling.

Instead of a window near the yellow breakfast table there is a patio door. Floor length matchstick bamboo draperies filter the sunlight and soften the glare. Over the sink there is a window curtained in white with a bright print.

The floor is spatter print vinyl. Ceiling and walls are the same as the living room. The wall behind the table has a knotty pine dado with copper and beige paper above.

Cupboards are all knotty pine with black hardware. Copper-striped paper behind the stove adds an interesting bit of decor.

Besides Lynne, there is Tommy who is six. His room has a cork-tone tile floor and blue walls. His bedspread is red. One of Mrs. Thompson's sewing projects has been bedroom curtains. Tommy's are red, white and blue striped ones. His mother painted his chest of drawers gray with red knobs.

Lynne's room is still a baby's room. It will take on the personality of a little girl as she begins to develop more mature interests. The pink walls and animal print curtains are a good start.

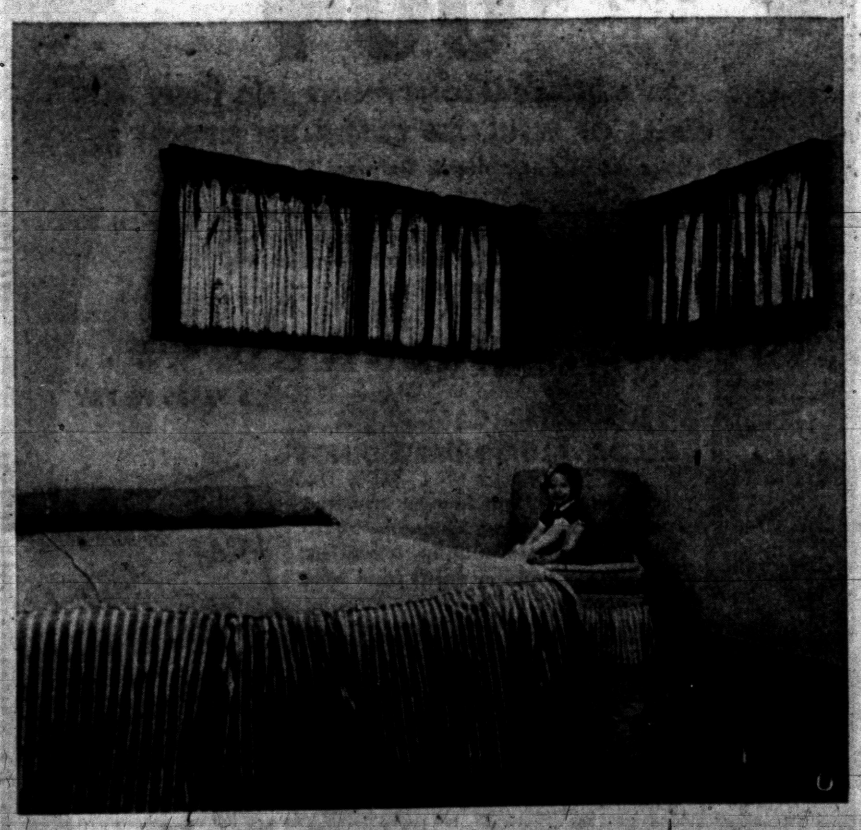

The largest bedroom has apricot color walls. On the short windows there are brown curtains. The bedspread is aqua. An armless chair is covered in the same aqua material. Two pieces of furniture, a vanity and a chest, are due for some refinishing as soon as the lady of the house has the time.

The bathroom is beige and aqua with sand colored fixtures. There is a linen closet in the hall. Under the bathroom vanity there are knotty pine cupboards.

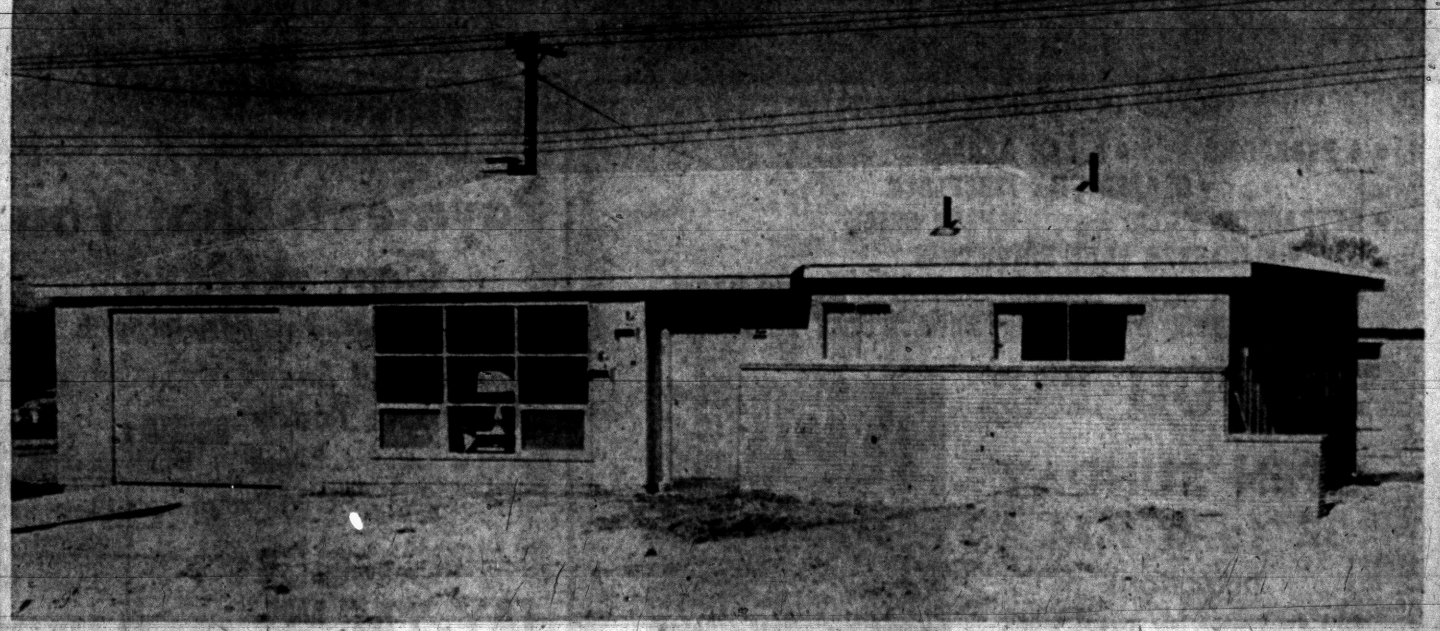

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson did a lot of looking before they settled on house plans they liked. Finally they found a model home in Clawson that fitted their needs. Their builders, Jarrett and Meizer of Ferndale, drew up plans and had the house ready for occupancy in four months.

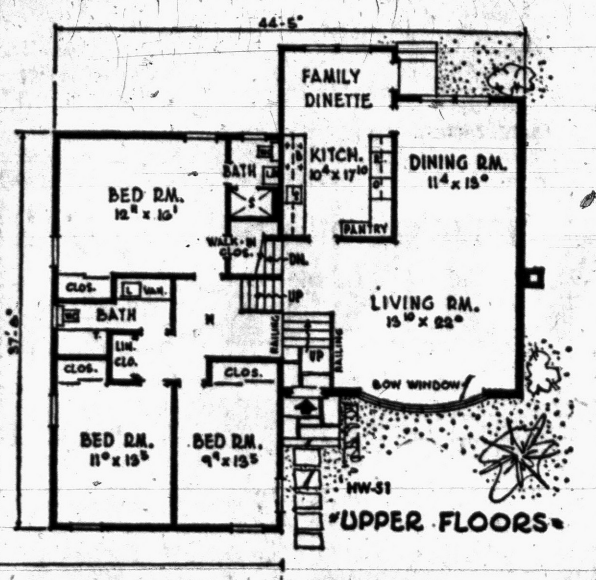

SHADES OF BROWN — When Mrs. Thompson chose the colors for her new home, she decided on brown for the living room. The walls are sand color, the ceiling cream. Carpeting is brown and beige tweed. The modern sofa and armchair are brown with a silver thread glinting in the light. On the sofa an orange and a lemon pillow lend brightness. Draperies have beige and brown in the print. Lamp tables are all blonde wood with brass-tipped black legs. The relation of kitchen and living room is clearly shown at the right of this picture.

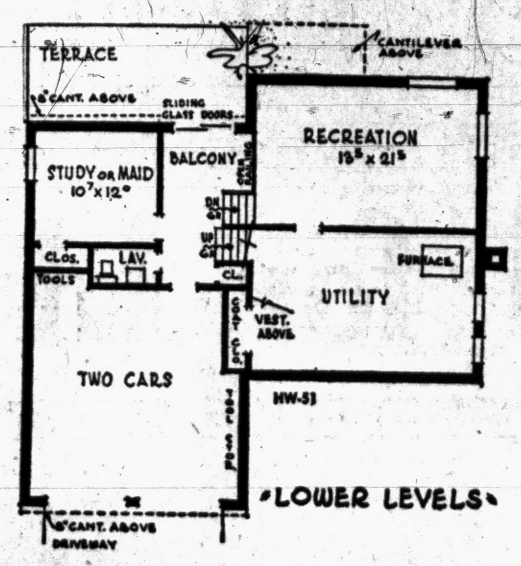

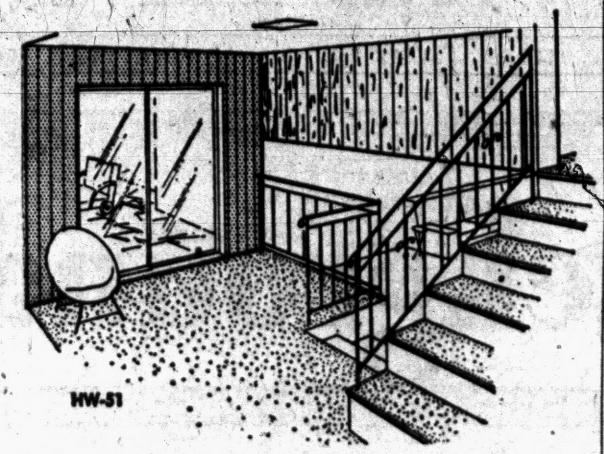

IN MOMMY'S ROOM — Charisse Lynne (called Lynne) sits on her mother's newly covered chair to put on her socks and shoes. This room has apricot colored walls and brown curtains. The bedspread and chair match, are plain aqua with aqua and white striped. The floor is vinyl tile.

PONTIAC WATKINS ESTATES — The Richard Thompsons moved into their home on Hira street about six weeks ago. Inside, the house is complete, and this summer will see the landscaping done. This ranch home has yellow Roman brick trim on the plywood and batten strip exterior. Jarrett and Meizer of Ferndale built the Thompson house with plans from a model in Clawson.

THREE LEVELS VISIBLE — Standing on the balcony in the middle level, one can see the recreation room below open railing. Outside terrace is beyond sliding glass doors.

SMART APPEARANCE — It's hard to beat a smart split level for appearance. An interesting pattern of vertical wood siding combines with brick. Living room windows over the garage have window boxes for decoration.

Four-Bedroom Split Level House Can Be Built With 45-Foot Frontage

BY ANDREW C. LANG

A four-bedroom house . . . with two full baths and an extra lavatory . . . a large living room . . . a separate dining room . . . a kitchen almost 18 feet long . . . a recreation room . . . a utility area . . . and a two-car garage.

All with a frontage of less than 45 feet!

These advantages are all here, in this smart split level House of The Week, Architect Herman H. York has done a superb job of demonstrating a fact well known in the building industry: a split level house, properly designed, provides more living area in less space for less money. This one does just that.

★ ★ ★

Design HW-51 begins, so to speak, with a pleasing exterior, combining brick with an interesting use of a vertical wood pattern.

Either V-joint tongue and groove boards or plywood with recessed vertical grooves produce the desired effect. Both are standard, readily obtainable materials. The window-boxed high front windows over the modern garage doors give just the right contrast to the large, living room bow window.

As you enter, there's an attractive flagstone floor in the foyer, with wrought iron railings on the short stairs to the main level. The 22-foot-wide living room merges into the dining room, providing a front-to-rear expanse of nearly 27 feet.

And here's what the ladies will love — a kitchen you can really move around in. It's nearly 18 feet long and has a family dinette section big enough to prevent the cramped feeling such informal eating nooks sometimes cause.

The kitchen can be entered from the living room, the dining room or a rear door, an excellent traffic arrangement. It has a large rear-view window and a pantry that is handy to the work area.

A few steps up from the living room are three bedrooms and two baths. All three bedrooms have cross ventilation and large closets with sliding doors, and the master bedroom has an additional walk-in closet. The family bathroom has a vanitory, while the master bathroom is equipped with a stall shower.

The fourth bedroom is three steps down from the living room level. It is located next to a lavatory and can be used as a study or a maid's room if desired. On this same level is a balcony, with an open railing overlooking the recreation room and sliding glass doors to the rear terrace.

The recreation room, with windows at the side and back, is large enough (21 feet, 5 inches by 13 feet, 5 inches) to be used for any purpose, including informal entertaining. The location of the furnace in the utility area is such that a fireplace can be built for the living room, either during the original construction or at a later date.

There are extra closets on both the balcony and utility levels. And there's plenty of room for a workshop in the utility section.

Garden tools can be stored along the right-hand wall of the two-car garage and in the rear left-hand corner.

All of which forces us to repeat: for maximum living area in minimum space, you can't beat a well-designed split level house.

Statistics

Design HW-51 first floor (upper) level covers 1,533 square feet

The recreation room on lower level has a floor area of 286 sq. ft., the balcony and study room 306 sq. ft. and the garage 384 sq. ft.

Guess-Timating a Price

This four bedroom split level, HW-51, was built last year in suburban Long Island on a small development basis.

Including appropriate lot, the house sold for approximately $23,000.

The best way to estimate building costs, which vary widely from one community to another, is to send for the study plan through this newspaper and show it to a builder of houses of similar size.

When to Buy Land for Your New House

The time to buy a lot is when you are ready to build a house. Paying taxes for years on vacant land is not always prudent. Hunting for a modern plan to fit land that was subdivided a generation ago is not pleasant.

The trend today is toward larger homesites—more privacy, more elbow room.

Check your local zoning regulations, your title company, or your bank to find out how far you must keep a house from each boundary line.

You can fit a house to its site much more easily and economically than you can grade and fit land to a house. Land planning is part of home planning.

Fireplace Plan Needs Study

A house without a fireplace is hardly a home. In the American scheme of things, at least, family gatherings around the fireplace have been traditional heart-warming ceremonies ever since the days of the Pilgrims.

But a fireplace is also an architectural feature and should not be stuck into a room as an afterthought. If it is on an exterior wall it should be planned to enhance both the exterior appearance of the home and the room in which it is built.

In formal rooms the location of the fireplace is generally the center of a wall. In less formal rooms an off-center location may be desirable because it gives the decorator greater freedom of action.

Material for the fireplace should be selected with care. One of the most satisfactory is stainproof quarry tile. It has several pleasant colors and textures to choose from. Furthermore, it meets the very important qualification of being fireproof.

The home-owner should decide whether he wants a vertical or horizontal effect. When quarry tile is used for its facing, a vertical effect can be achieved by running tile from floor to ceiling. For a horizontal feeling, the fireplace is kept low and the quarry tile facing is extended the length of the entire wall.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps more than any other living room feature, the fireplace is the spot for the family to gather around. Its thoughtful design will go a long way toward making those traditional gatherings happier, friendlier, more full of family fun.

Wallpaper Can Work Wonders

You can achieve many effects with wallpapers.

★ ★ ★

Striped wallpapers, for instance can work wonders with problem walls or ceilings. A vertical stripe can add height to a room if narrow strips in a strong color are used. New thin peppermint stripes are stimulating and offer a variety of colors with which to match fabric colors. Striped papers in a long narrow hallway may shorten and broaden the area, lending a more inviting note.

You don't have to use a small pattern wallpaper in a small room. Many decorators believe the large pattern can give a sense of spaciousness.

A scenic wallpaper can give a room a real face lifting. If you have a long wall against which a series of low cabinets are placed for books, TV or record-player and records, choose a scenic pattern. Or give a garden-like feeling to your dining area with an outdoor mural wallpaper. A mural panel on the wall behind your bed may give a new and fascinating aspect to your bedroom.

★ ★ ★

Brick or stone wallpaper can put charm at your fireplace or in the entrance foyer of your home. Add to one wall of brick paper, three walls of "wood paneling" effect wallpaper and you've really got an arresting combination.

Creosote Fence Posts

Before sinking fence posts, coat the portion to be underground with creosote to prevent rotting. Set the post in a steel pail half filled with creosote and apply the protective coating with a paint brush. Excess creosote will run back into the pail to be used again.

Modernize Your Heating

Take out the wooden baseboard. Replace it with metal baseboard made for heating. Hook up the boiler and controls. That's one of the most practical ways to modernize a hot water heating system.

NEWS VIEWS

The U. S. isn't as sophisticated as it pretends to be . . . if you look at us musically. Forty percent of the popular recorded music sold today is country or hillbilly type. That just proves again that you can take the boy out of the country . . . but you can't take the country out of the boy. In the last 20 years the twanging, foot-stomping type of melody has caught hold like a kid grabbing the brass ring on a carnival carousel. About 50 million hillbilly records were bought by music lovers last year. That's a mighty big shucking of cornfield cacophony.

And it isn't just the country folks who lend an ear to the frantic fiddlers. Big town folks are right along with them. Opera may appeal to some . . . but "Opry" reaches most everybody.

The Federal Trade Commission is keeping an eye on the advertising of tranquilizer pills. Guess the Government doesn't want us to relax too much.

Lots of people have enjoyed relaxing in our modern offices while having a chat with us. And when they leave they can still relax—because they know they can trust us, now and/or in the future, to find the right home, business, farm or investment property for them.

Split Level Can Be Cozy

AREAS where thick mineral wool insulation is important to comfort and fuel economy in a split level house are: (A) ceilings over living and sleeping levels, (B) walls, including the interior walls between the unheated garage and living area and the attic and sleeping are, (C) garage ceiling, and (D) concrete slab.

Big Household Jobs Call for Power Saw

Planning an important spring-time job like a new bedroom in the attic, a new basement recreation room or a garage?

If so, you'll find yourself with a lot more heavy wood cutting to contend with than you've probably had before. You'll be dealing with a lot of 2x4 studs, boards for window headers, flooring or siding, paneling and molding.

You can save yourself effort and costly lumber waste by planning carefully to use stock lengths of wood and paneling wherever possible, according to David G. Collins, handcraft engineer of Thor Power Tool Company. The lumber can be used either at full length, or cut to fit two or more places calling for odd lengths. For example, use a 10-foot stock 2x4 to supply two 5-foot lengths.

If you do not own a power saw, you'll probably discover it's a must after your first arm-weary day on the job. The Thor specialist said a large proportion of power saw sales are made to persons undertaking their first major improvement job.

★ ★ ★

They find that the portable electric tool not only saves elbow grease and time, since it cuts about 14 times faster than by hand, but provides more accuracy, Collins explained.

To aid home handymen with have developed a new portable model constructed strong enough for general purpose trade use by carpenters, but priced at a level $49.95) for do-it-yourself fans.

The 6½-inch model can handle almost any cutting job required for construction projects described, with a straight cutting depth just over 2¼ inches. At a 45-degree angle, it can zip through dressed 2x4s. Its 1¼ horsepower motor churns up 5,400 r.p.m.s and operates on AC or DC current.

Its 12-pound weight is carefully balanced for easy and accurate handling. A telescoping safety guard provides round-the-blade protection.

Rules to Follow When Using a Power Saw

An engineer offers the following tips for use of power saws:

Let the saw do the work by applying only enough pressure to keep the tool steady and in firm contact with the wood.

Keep blades sharp. The power of the motor usually can do a lot of sawing with a dulled blade, but sloppy work can result as well as eventual harm to the motor.

Where perfectly accurate lengths are needed, allow for the fractional "kerf" or wastage due to width of the blade cut. Saw on the "waste" side of the line.

When making bevel cuts, always saw on the "long" side of your measurement, since all portable power saw blades tilt under the body of the saw.

Before sawing, turn on the motor and let it run for a moment or two to build up full speed before applying the saw to wood.

Weight Doesn't Help

Walls of lightweight concrete block will absorb about 50 per cent of the sound in a room. Tests show lightweight units absorb 25 per cent more noise than heavy blocks.

Install Adequate Number of Clean-Outs and Valves

Plenty of clean-outs. Plenty of valves. It pays to provide for both when planning the plumbing system for a new house.

★ ★ ★

This is a good example of how thoughtful advance planning will pay good dividends for years to come in lower repair bills and freedom from the annoyance which comes from having the plumbing system out of commission temporarily.

★ ★ ★

Clean-out plugs should be provided in the waste and drainage pipes every time there is a sharp turn in the direction of the piping. This is where stoppage is most likely to occur.

★ ★ ★

Providing for the installation of an adequate number of clean-out plugs involves only a nominal additional cost when the house is under construction. Failure to provide for them, however, may result in great inconvenience and considerable expense in the future, should stoppages occur.

★ ★ ★

In the same way an adequate number of valves will prove to be a great convenience. There should be a set of valves for each supply circuit to the various fixtures. Then when it is necessary to make repairs anywhere in the house, it will not be necessary to shut off the water supply for the entire house at the meter or master control valve.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the valves on the branch lines, or risers, there should also be individual stops under the lavatories, under the sink, under the bathtubs, and for the laundry tray.

★ ★ ★

Provision of adequate clean-out plugs and supply valves is one of the marks of a quality plumbing system, says the National Association of Plumbing Contractors. In checking the bids of two or more contractors on a proposed installation, the owner should satisfy himself that both have figured on the same quantity and quality of materials.

Design Cuts Cost of Land

Workshop Patterns

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

This big table provides for that big family dinner party; for game hobbies, carpenter work or for dressmaking. When not needed store it in a closet or even behind a door. This is just the table for those bazaars and group activities at churches, clubs and community houses. Stock sizes of lumber are used. The pattern gives a cutting list for the lumber and the hardware needed for one table. All the parts are square cuts made with a hand saw. Order pattern 372 as shown in the sketch, enclosing only 25c; or the table pattern may be ordered with the Sewing Corner Packet consisting of five standard size patterns for $1. pospaid.

Plan Lot Area to Advantage

Today's rising land costs make this modern three-bedroom house ideal for a budget-minded family. The house was designed to make full use of a narrow lot for both indoor and outdoor living.

★ ★ ★

Architect Rudolph A. Matern, of Jamaica, N. Y., combined a low-slope roof of colorful asphalt shingles with natural stone and redwood siding to give the house its modern exterior.

Matern specified asphalt shingles for the roof because this type of roofing is available in a wide choice of colors, is durable, and economical to apply. Houses with low-slope roofs now can have these advantages of asphalt shingles thanks to a recently developed method of application.

★ ★ ★

Inside the house has a family room, two baths, fireplace, sliding glass doors leading to all outdoor living areas, plus many other comforts and conveniences of modern living.

★ ★ ★

One important comfort feature specified by the architect is thick mineral wool insulation throughout. The mineral wool will keep the house warmer and more economical to heat in winter and cooler during the summer months.

Additional information, blueprints and specifications can be obtained from Rudolph A. Matern, 90-05 61st St., Jamaica, L. I., N.Y. Refer to Plan No. 9468.

Bring Storm Cellar Into House for Safety

Many homes are still being built in midwestern states with the idea of adding an old-fashioned "storm cellar" in the rear yard, reports the Better Basement Institute.

"The reason for the storm cellar is understandable enough," the Institute says, "because of the prevalence of wind storms and other natural catastrophes. Modern construction methods make it more desirable, however, to bring the storm cellar into the house.

"Atomic bomb tests by the Civil Defense Adminstration have proved that the basement is the safest part of the house. Basement space has the advantage of being usable the year-'round. When it has an outside entrance, it can be reached from the grounds as well as from the house. In addition, the outside steps from the basement shelter can be covered with a double-leaf steel hatchway which provides protection in any emergency.

Make Survey of Neighbors Before Painting

Color outside the home can be good or ghastly, depending on how you use it.

Three color experts from Martin-Senour paint company worked out a harmony plan for an attractive exterior. They suggest you:

1. Choose a body color to blend or contrast with the roof, the largest single area of unbroken color.
2. Consider the natural materials, such as stone, brick and natural wood. These blend well with neutral colors and also are attractive with contrasting turquoise.
3. Take a look at colors of neighboring houses. Don't repeat the color unless it's white, or don't contrast the color too severely.
4. Choose color for climate conditioning. White or light colors will reflect heat for a cooler home.

ON THE PATIO LEVEL — This furnished home in Rochester (Rochester Parkland II on Tienken road) has an unusual plan with both kitchen and family room on the lower level. Two glass sliding picture doors lead to a 12x22 outside patio. In the all-electric kitchen the cabinets are finished in platinum satin tone. The built-in range and oven are available in colors. Buyers also have a choice of Formica counter tops. Houses start from $17,400. Beverly Construction Company of Detroit are the builders.

Wash—Don't Wax—Tile

Detergent and water is the easiest and best way to clean ceramic tile surfaces. Occasionally the fine cement between tiles may accumulate grime through neglect. The simple remedy is scrubbing with a fiber brush and scouring powder. Avoid coating real tile surfaces with waxes or polishes. Such treatment may spoil ceramic tile's ideal natural walking and maintenance qualities.

Try Sloping Lawn Grade

A wet basement can often be corrected by sloping the lawn grade away from the house so water will drain away from the foundation. Asbestos vinyl tile on the basement floor resists moisture and helps keep the basement dry, say flooring engineers.

Open Up for Comfort

Give heat waves a breezy welcome this summer!

This may mean some window rearrangements, so study ventilation problems right away and combine any changes with other spring remodeling. Comfort and convenience can be achieved at once in window alterations by taking advantage of specially shaped ceramic tiles to create a good-looking but practical planter box or windowsill.

In studying size, shape, number and location of windows for ideal ventilation, keep these three points in mind:

1. The area of the window openings should be at least 10 per cent as large as the floor area of the room. Building codes frequently permit smaller ratios but the smaller the window space, the less effective the ventilation during warm, humid weather.
2. Prevailing wind directions should govern the orientation of the house and its window openings. Air moves because of differences in temperature or differences in pressure. Determine, also, the high-and low-pressure areas created by the shape of your house. The walls in the direct path of breezes moving from high to low pressure areas should contain larger window opening area than the walls paralleling the prevailing wind direction.
3. Ideal window location should facilitate free movement of air across the room and within the range of levels at which occupants sit and move. The first purpose can be accomplished by placing windows away from exterior corners. The second requirement is met by placing in the lower part of the wall windows that cannot direct the movement of air downward. There are four types of windows calling for lower placement: double-hung, horizontally sliding, casement and awning windows.

Tornado Time Revives Interest in Storm Cellars

Return of spring weather to Michigan has revived the threat of tornados and windstorm damage.

Because previous tornadoes have caused loss of life and widespread property damage in Michigan, more interest is being expressed in concrete storm shelters, according to J. Gardner Martin, district engineer for the Portland Cement Association.

Several manufacturers of concrete septic tanks are marketing modified models which can be employed as tornado shelters while other concrete products plants are providing services for cast-in-place storm refuges, Martin said.

Effective protection from storm damage may be obtained by use of reinforced concrete first floor slabs. The slab serves as a strong covering shield for a basement refuge. Often a portion of a basement under a reinforced slab first floor with reinforced walls can also serve as a protective bomb shelter. If only a portion of the basement is used as a storm shelter, the southwest corner usually offers the greatest safety.

Free information on construction of concrete storm shelters may be obtained from the Portland Cement Association, 2108 Michigan National Tower, Lansing 8, Michigan.

Sit-down kitchen sinks are being demanded in new homes by many Southern California buyers.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900 - 1950.

OPEN BALCONY — A 20-foot open balcony with a wrought iron railing is a dramatic feature of the Rochester Parkland Patio Home. At the left a glimpse of the outdoor patio is seen through the sliding glass doors in the kitchen. Three bedrooms open from the balcony on the upper level. The living room and a fourth bedroom or den are on the middle level. This furnished model is open daily on Tienken road, west of Main street in Rochester.

3 Homes Open in Rochester

Rochester Parkland II is now open in Rochester with three new models and ten elevations to choose from. Located on Tienken road, west of Main street, the subdivision is conveniently located near the six million dollar North Hill Shopping Center, slated soon for completion.

★ ★ ★

The Patio Home, a four bedroom, tri-level model, is furnished. Its large living room has a studio ceiling. Opening off this room and separated by folding doors is the den or a fourth bedroom. Three additional bedrooms are on the upper level.

The full bath is on the balcony level, while a half bath is on the lowest level. In addition to the kitchen and family room on this level there is a utility room.

Both the other models — the Terrace and the Wrigley — have three bedrooms and one and a half baths. The Terrace is another tri-level, while the Wrigley has a full basement.

The subdivision has city water and sewers and separate storm sewers. Roads and paved sidewalks are in and paid for by the builder. All lots are seventy feet or wider.

Prices start at $17,400, with VA, FHA and conventional mortgage terms available. Beverly Construction Company of Detroit is doing the building.

Sunporch or Greenhouse

A modernization project can turn into a lifelong hobby. That's the experience of many home owners who have added facilities permitting them to grow tropic plants the year-around. Whether he's a green-thumber planning a full-fledged greenhouse, or just someone thinking about a glassed-in sunporch, the home improver can find his gas heating dealer helpful. Gas is heating an ever-increasing number of commercial greenhouses.

Keep all soil around your foundation from touching wood at any point and you will go far toward keeping termites out of your house.

Learn From TV Set Designer to Create Mood

Take a tip from television if you want to achieve dramatic effects and create moods in your interior decorating scheme.

★ ★ ★

That's the advice of Larry Eggleton, one of the Columbia Broadcasting System's top television set designers. Eggleton, who creates the scenery for CBS-TV's popular hour-long dramatic show.

Studio One, says the key to effective television set designing as well as attractive home interiors is the use of materials which have a three-dimensional appearance.

These include brick and stone walls, interior planting boxes, paneled doors, draperies, textured wall materials, and walls painted with designs.

One of Eggleton's favorite means of obtaining the three-dimensional, or textured, effect so important to his sets is with wood panel doors.

"Panel doors give us interesting texture because of the shadow lines created by the panels," he says. "These break up what would otherwise be a flat, monotonous surface. Besides, certain styles of panel doors also help us achieve mood and authenticity."

New Counter Tops Up Kitchen Costs

The modern kitchen costs more, because it represents more. In today's home the average kitchen involves an investment of $2,500. Eight years ago you could fit out a kitchen for $500.

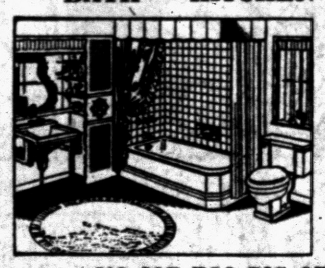

This was disclosed in a recent survey by the United States Plywood and Westinghouse Electric corporations.

It was further estimated that 1,200,000 kitchen counter tops were installed in new homes last year. Another 400,000 were installed in remodeling jobs. Ninety per cent of the total were surfaced in plastics, a large percentage in the popular high-pressure plastic laminate sheet know as Micarta.

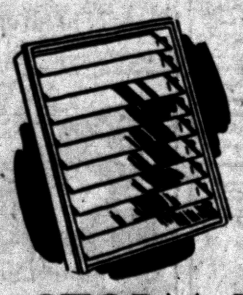

Micarta is made of melamine-surfaced layers of kraft paper molded under high pressure.

Color Aids Safety

Color can be used for purposes other than to bring beauty into your home. Learning from industry that color can be used effectively to promote safety, homemakers have adopted the idea for their own use. Safety in the home can be furthered by painting a bright spot of color behind fire extinguishers, painting treads of stairs to basement or attic, generally poorly lighted, with a light color; and painting floors in dark areas with a vivid reflecting color.

'Part of Her Job' in New Mexico

Woman Acts as Governor

SANTA FE, N.M., (AP)—A veteran lady politician says there is no particular exhilaration to being governor of New Mexico.

★ ★ ★

"It's just an extension of my present job," says Natalie Smith Buck, New Mexico secretary of state, who in the absence of a lieutenant governor takes over as the state's chief executive when Gov. Edwin L. Mechem is out of the state.

★ ★ ★

"It's just a job to do," she says, "just like a housewife putting out a wash."

★ ★ ★

But what does a lady governor do?

The same as a male governor — sign state documents, carry on office correspondence, appoint colonels to the governor's honorary staff, appear at public functions, make presentations.

Nor does the attractive Mrs. Buck think there is anything strange about her being acting chief executive of New Mexico. She was raised in a man's world of politics.

The 34-year-old secretary of state is the daughter of Milton Smith of Carlsbad, former mayor of that southeastern New Mexico city, for 18 years a member of the state legislature and a long-time figure in state political circles.

Mrs. Buck succeeds to the chief executive's job in Mecham's absence by constitutional arrangement following the resignation of Joseph M. Montoya as lieutenant governor. Montoya now is in the U. S. House of Representatives.

Mechem is Republican and Mrs. Buck Democratic.

Senate Defeats Bill on Ferry Boat Study

LANSING (AP)— The senate yesterday killed the House approved bill for continuation of studies on what to do with ferry boats now plying the Straits of Mackinac.

The boats will go out of business after completion of the Straits bridge late this fall.

A special legislative committee headed by Rep. James Goulette (R-Iron Mountain) has been exploring their possible transfer to other lake ferry routes and asked $30,000 to continue its search for a solution.

The Senate cut the appropriation in half yesterday. Today, on a passage roll call, the bill received only 16 favorable votes, two short of the number needed for passage. Fourteen senators opposed the bill.

Security for You

New York Yankees Eligible for SS, Too

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

From B.V. of Los Angeles: "I've been getting a monthly check for Social Security for the past three months. For some reason, I don't get the checks until the fourth day of each month. I think I should be getting the checks on the first of the month. Why don't I?"

Social Security checks aren't mailed until the third of each month. They're mailed on the third rather than the first as an accommodation to the Federal Reserve Banks and the Post Office Department because of their concern with the large number of government and other checks mailed on the first day of each month.

★ ★ ★

From G.E. of Union City, N.J.: "I'm receiving a veteran's pension due to my service in World War I. In order to continue to get it, the Veterans Administration tells me I must not have an income over $2,700. Does my wife's income count in figuring my income?"

No, only your own income counts against the limit.

★ ★ ★

From F.W. of New York City: "Are the New York Yankees covered by the Social Security program?"

Yes, but some of them have a few years to go yet before they can qualify for old age payments.

From N.S.S. of Fredericksberg, Va: "I'm now 67 and drawing monthly social Security payments as a widow. My husband died when I was 60 and I had to wait five years before they paid me. My next door neighbor is only 45 and she told me she is getting widow's payment's. Why is this?"

When a worker dies leaving a widow and children under 18, mother's benefits are payable to the widow while she has children of the worker in her care. These payments stop when the youngest child reaches 18, unless one of the children has been disabled before reaching 18 and continues to be disabled after 18. The widow can again receive payments when she reaches 62.

★ ★ ★

From S.P. of International Falls, Minn.: "My father died when he was 64 years old. He left no widow surviving to collect his Social Security. Who receives his Social Security?"

A lump sum payment will be made to the person or persons who paid his burial expenses.

★ ★ ★

From P.T.E. of Iowa City, Iowa: "I expect to retire June 30. I'm told I can't get Social Security payments this year because I have earned over $1,200. It seems to me that I should get something since I intend to quit work for good."

You'll be eligible for a monthly check for each month after June. No matter how much your total earnings for the year are, you can still receive Social Security for every month you don't work.

★ ★ ★

From O.H. of Detroit, Mich.: "Can any disabled person receive Social Security disability payments?"

No. You must have been in work under Social Security at least five years out of the 10 years before you were disabled, including 1½ years out of the three years immediately before your disability. Also, you must be at least 50 and your disability must have lasted at least six months.

★ ★ ★

Hull Re-elected Head of Typographical Union

DETROIT (AP)—Kenneth A. Hull was re-elected today as president of Detroit Typographical Union No. 18 for a two-year term.

Richard Wonnacott was elected vice president. Merle E. Stiewe incumbent secretary-treasurer, will face Kenneth S. Coburn in a June 5 runoff for that office, since neither got a majority in a three-way race.

TAXPAYERS! VOTE NO ON THE BOND ISSUES

You Ask —

WHO GOOFED or broke faith in the handling of

HOSPITAL BUILDING MONEY?

Was It Our City Commission, the Hospital Board, the Architect, the Special Consultant or . . . ?

You Voted a 3 MILLION Dollar Bond Issue for a COMPLETE HOSPITAL. Now you are asked for about 2 MILLION Dollars more. Should this money be turned over to the same Administration to spend? VOTE NO—NO—NO! AGAINST THE AMENDMENTS.

REMEMBER!

On the second attempt in 1954 to double the size of our Hospital (which was less than ½ occupied by Pontiac people) the Taxpayers reluctantly voted a $3,000,000 Bond Issue to build a 150 Bed Hospital. REMEMBER?

Addition

Now—3 years later—you are told a 202 Bed Hospital addition is being built at a cost nearly twice that 3 Million Dollars—$5,350,000. Why was there such a brazen disregard of the Voters' wishes? Why were we not given a chance to say what we wanted?

NO—instead we are told we must put another Mortgage on our homes and industries (It's called a Bond Issue, but it means the same thing) to finish something Pontiac people didn't need in the first place. An editorial in the Pontiac Press dated May 2nd, 1957, says in part, "We think the voters have been fooled and we hold Hospital authorities accountable for this dilemma."

Our City, under careful and business-like administration in the past years, did the following:

1. Paid off a staggering debt by "pay as you go" financing.
2. Built a $1,100,000 City Hall, also "pay as you go."
3. Built a Library, West Side Fire Station and a $900,000 Public Safety Building—all "pay as you go."
4. Set up a 3½ Mill ($875,000) per year program to build and finance capital improvements on a "pay as you go" basis!

TAXES--TAXES & MORE TAXES

Have We Had Enough? Take a Long Hard Look at Facts and Issues Involved:—

Are taxpayers going to vote another staggering and useless debt and TAX INCREASE to be spent by the same people who got us in this mess? Shall we drive industries from Pontiac because of big tax increases? VOTE NO!

Who needs the Hospital Addition? The folks in the metropolitan area outside Pontiac! Can a City of 80,000 support and build for the needs of 200,000 people who pay no taxes in Pontiac? VOTE NO!

Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer, have you been mousetrapped into a Three Million Dollar benevolence for other folks by a few men who want to control the Hospital and its future operations? VOTE NO!

Do you think the present $100,000 yearly operating loss in running our Hospital will increase or decrease with the Hospital double in size? VOTE NO!

Our Total Tax Rate Has Increased $24.88, or from $20.29 in 1947 to $45.17 in 1957, or 117% including schools

With short work weeks, and mortgage escrow accounts running short, can we afford it? Unless you vote NO, your failure to vote NO will increase your taxes.

VOTE NO and stop further debt and tax increases. They are already talking about $20,000,000.

VOTE NO and let the administration publish a readable balance sheet showing the City's cash and accounts receivable! Even General Motors does this.

VOTE NO and let the administration set up a workable hospital program to spread the cost over all hospital users in the whole area and stop making a political football of our hospital.

VOTE NO and get an exact and certified statement of all Hospital expenditures to date.

Southfield Asks $4 Million Issue; Carver Vote July 8

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—Voters here will be asked to authorize a $4,000,000 bond issue for school building and site purchase in the June 10 election.

Also on the ballot, a three mill increase will be asked for operation and salaries.

Assistant Supt. of Schools, Glenn W. Levey said that, in spite of a large deficit in school funds and the cutback in state aid, there will be no increase in the tax rate, even with the new bond issue.

There are seven candidates seeking the four vacancies on the School Board. Two three - year terms and two four-year terms will be open.

Incumbent Fred D. Leonhard, board president, Charles L. Curtis, Robert H. Logie and Patrick B. Bruder are running for three-year terms.

Seeking four-year terms are incumbent William J. Oliver, board treasurer, William Mikulas, former board member and Philip A. Maloney, who is a member of the Southfield Township Board.

Now that Southfield is a third class school district, candidates hereafter will be elected for four-year terms, Levey said. Voters approved that change last June.

Oak Park

Extra taxes for operating costs will be on the June ballot, the amount to be decided later, said Supt. Dr. James Pepper today.

Candidates for the two vacancies for four-year terms are incumbents John I. McDaid, president, and Abram Brickner, secretary.

Others are Harry L. Thurswell and Seymour C. Smelsey.

Royal Oak

Incumbent Mrs. Margaret H. Williams, secretary, and Clarence Hoeraus are seeking reelection for four-year terms here.

They are being challenged by seven candidates:

Mrs. Wanda Sandler, Bernard B. Gottfreid, Oliver N. Benson, Samuel Stanton, Mrs. Grace K. Perkins, William A. Hassberger Jr. and Harry H. Blair.

There is no other issue on the ballot, officials said.

Madison Heights

For the two three-year terms open here, incumbent Mrs. Elizabeth Carey, treasurer and Auval V. Frazier, board president, are seeking reelection.

Also running are Clifford E. Burch, Edward B. Hall and Robert L. Lazmountain.

Royal Oak Township

The annual election for the George Washington Carver School district will be held on July 8.

Deadline for nomination petitions will be June 9.

There are two vacancies on the school board and an operating millage increase will also be on the ballot, Supt. of Schools Oliver A. Johnson said.

Government Pays Off Billion Dollars on Debt

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government yesterday paid off more than a billion dollars of the national debt.

It now stands at just under 272½ billion dollars, or about $1,593 for every man, woman and child in the country.

This is the lowest point since April 1954 when the debt was 271 billion dollars. A year ago, the debt was about 275½ billion.

The reduction yesterday was more or less forced upon the Treasury, and was accomplished by cutting into its cash or working balance.

It was about like the case of a man with a mortgage on his house and a substantial balance in his checking account. He can draw a check and pay off part of his mortgage but his over-all financial position isn't greatly changed.

In October 1954, the Treasury sold $4,155,000,000 in notes bearing 1⅝ per cent interest and maturing yesterday.

Two weeks ago, the Treasury offered to exchange the maturing notes for new notes bearing higher interest rates.

★ ★ ★

But corporations and individuals holding $1,167,000,000 of the maturing notes didn't want new notes —they wanted cash. Primarily these were corporations, which had earmarked the money for their June tax payments.

So the Treasury yesterday dug into its cash reserves and paid off about $1,100,000,000 when the notes were presented. The remaining 67 million dollars will be paid off in "dribbles" over the next few days, a Treasury spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

The Treasury's cash reserves thus were cut to just under four billion dollars. A year ago—when the debt was 275½ billion—cash reserves were 5¾ billion.

The Treasury says four billion is a "safe" figure and doesn't put it in a squeeze. However, if the balance drops much lower the Treasury will seek to build it up again, either with a new offering of securities or by increasing the size of its weekly offering of 91-day bills.

'EDEN' RETURNS — It's good news for the many James Dean fans in that Warner Brothers has released two of the movie hero's best films, "East of Eden" and "Rebel Without a Cause." The double bill opens Sunday at the Oakland Theater.

16,500 Others Throng Arena

Deaf Mutes in New York Turn Out to 'Hear' Graham

By GEORGE CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP)—High up in a balcony, as Billy Graham spoke, another minister stood gesturing rapidly.

In front of him, sat a section of people, intently watching his hands.

They were deaf mutes, among the crowd of 16,500 which last night thronged Madison Square Garden for Graham's New York crusade.

The Rev. Croft Pentz of Elizabeth, N. J., an expert in sign language, translated the Evangelist's words for those who could not hear.

This is one of the moving aspects of Graham's big-scale appeal to bring more New Yorkers to dedicate themselves to God.

★ ★ ★

Last night, the greatest host of people so far—785 men, women and young folk—threaded to the front of the arena in response to Graham's plea that they "surrender their lives to Christ."

This brought to a total of 1,966 the number that have made such decisions in three nights of Graham's preaching.

★ ★ ★

"I have never in my ministry seen such response so early in a crusade," Graham said. "The Lord is moving mightily in our midst in answer to the prayers of millions.

"This is just the beginning of what I believe is a great spiritual tide that is rising in New York. We can see a renewal of the soul of New York that can affect the whole nation."

★ ★ ★

The turnout, for the third night's rally, climbed upward to 16,500, besting the 13,000 of the previous night. At the opening, 18,500 filled the arena.

The Rev. Pentz, a Seventh-Day Adventist minister who preaches weekly to the non-hearing in New York City's Glad Tidings Tabernacle, is contributing his services to the Graham effort.

★ ★ ★

He said letters have been sent to deaf mutes in the New York area, notifying them he will be at the Graham meetings each Friday, Saturday and Sunday night to translate the sermons.

Graham, for his Biblical text, used Isaiah 61:1-2, a prophecy of a coming Savior, and Luke 4:15-22, the declaration by Jesus that he had come to fulfill that prophecy.

Tennessee School Graduates Negro

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP) — Eighty-eight white seniors and Negro Bobby Cain received diplomas last night in quiet commencement exercises ending Clinton High School's first year of racial integration.

There was no disturbance of any sort and integration was not mentioned once during the 70-minute commencement ceremony. All except one of the white students and 17-year-old Cain filed quietly past the center of the stage to get their diplomas.

Absent was Jerry Shattuck, 17-year-old valedictorian who was hurt a week ago today in a car accident. He received his diploma later in the night at an Oak Ridge Hospital.

Clinton High School admitted 12 Negroes Aug. 27 under orders from U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor. The order climaxed five years' litigation. Admittance of the 12 was followed by violence.

Army TV Proves Big Morale Booster

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Penatgon officer says the 19 television stations operated by the Armed Forces overseas are well worth the money—TV has reduced the AWOL rate and boosted re-enlistments.

Brig. Gen. Carson A. Roberts, director of joint projects, told a House Appropriations subcommittee in testimony published today that the overseas stations get weekly packages of about 50 hours of film.

He said TV also enables commanders to make frequent contact with their troops.

British TV Fans Rate Prince Philip 'Tops'

LONDON (AP) — Prince Philip's TV rating is tops in Britain, boners and all. The Queen's handsome husband talked about his recent world travels and showed movies on a nationwide program that was supposed to be for the kiddies.

He talked 16 minutes too long, talked with his back to the cameras and cleared his throat at the wrong time. But everyone liked it, including grownups. They jammed the television network switchboards appealing for more.

17 Area Oil Dealers Attend Dinner in Flint

Seventeen Pontiac-area dealers of the Pure Oil Co. were among more than 300 persons attending a recent dinner honoring dealers and their wives at Flint's Durant Hotel.

Local dealers presented with plaques showing their years of service were: Al Broome, 32 years; Joe Joiner, 28 years; Larry Zielasko, 25 years; Tom and Ben Maguire, 23 years; John and Carroll Braid, 21 years.

Others were Oliver Cornwell and Erich Kurth, 18 years; Fay Williams and Lewis Renwick, 17 years; Don Herr, Wallace Bitterle and Ken Smith, 11 years; Aldo Smith, 7 years; Julius Feole, 6 years; and Bill Graham, 5 years.

Scott Returns to Los Angeles

Wife-Slaying Suspect Says He's Anxious to Go Back for Trial

DETROIT (AP)—L. Ewing Scott returns to Los Angeles today to face a murder trial in the disappearance two years ago of his wealthy socialite wife.

With Scott are Gordon Bowers, chief of detectives in the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office and Sgt. Ward Hallinen.

The 61-year-old Scott waived extradition yesterday after fighting it since his arrest April 15. He said he was "ready and anxious" to face charges of slaying his wife, Evelyn, 63, and squandering her estate.

The federal fugitive warrant on which he had been held since his capture was dismissed in U. S. District Court. Federal Judge Thomas P. Thornton ordered Scott be given the money that was found in his money belt when he was nabbed at the Canadian end of the Detroit-Windsor tunnel.

MONEY RETURNED

Scott had about $10,400 in $100 and $20 bills. Later $2,500 of the money was returned to him to finance his extradition battle.

★ ★ ★

Scott was under indictment by a Los Angeles County grand jury on nine charges of forgery and grand theft in the handling of his wife's estate when he jumped $25,000 bond and disappeared last May.

Scott, who denies all the charges said he left California because he was convinced he couldn't get a fair trial there.

Knowland Assails Aid to 2 Red Nations

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif) has assailed administration proposals for economic and military aid to two Communist countries because he said such plans would help the Communist world pull out of a crisis.

★ ★ ★

"I do not favor taxing the American people to support Communist economic or political systems aboard," Knowland said yesterday in an Armed Forces Day speech.

Knowland is Senate minority leader and has been a frequent critic of Eisenhower administration policies.

★ ★ ★

He said administration proposals for agricultural aid to Poland and renewed jet aircraft shipments to Yugoslavia would "rescue" the Communist world from an economic and political crisis now facing it.

Traffic Club to Watch Film on Transportation

The operations manager and reservations agent of Capital Air Lines, Lee Busby and Jerry Stevens, will present the film "Mr. Withers Stops the Clock" at the Pontiac Traffic Club's monthly meeting 6:30 p.m. Monday in the Waldron Hotel.

This film deals with a timely subject in the field of transportation. The Traffic Club has invited anyone in the transportation field to attend its meeting.

Reluctant Prisoner Leaps Out Window

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Stanley Tomczyk, 42, up for sentencing on an assault charge, heard the judge say "one year . . ."

That was enough.

"I don't want to go to jail," he shouted as he leaped through a courtroom window yesterday. He found himself on a balcony, facing another 30-foot leap to the ground.

Tomczyk surrendered and was taken to a hospital for his cuts. There he learned that the judge had spoken a few words he hadn't heard — "sentence suspended."

Now court officials are wondering who should pay for the window.

Tyrone Says He Won't Make Up With Linda

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Actor Tyrone Power says there is no reconciliation in the works for him and his former wife, Linda Christian.

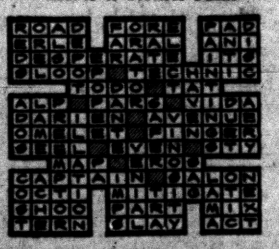

Mrs. Alvarez Amezquita, Linda's mother, said Thursday her daughter is flying home to Mexico from Europe and added that Linda may seek a reconciliation with Power. He is here making a picture, "The Sun Also Rises."

Power said the divorce of May 1955 is "final."

Grocer Pays $25 Fine for Adulterated Meat

A Pontiac market owner was fined $25 yesterday after he pleaded guilty to the charge of possessing with the intent to sell adulterated hamburger and sausage. Charles Giglio, owner and operator of the Three Sisters Market, 608 W. Huron St., appeared before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan after he was arrested on a warrant obtained by James McCollum, Oakland County food inspector for the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

DON'T LEARN the HARD WAY
Some rabid TV fans find their TV set never fails at a convenient time. In their anxiety to see a TV show at night or on Sunday when regular TV shops are closed, they hastily pick out a handful of tubes and rush to the corner drugstore. The "do it yourself" tube checker is there to sell tubes so usually the customer carries home $15.00 to $20.00 worth of tubes, most of which were not necessary. When he finds the picture still does not appear because of a tube he missed or plugged into the wrong socket, it is still necessary to call a Serviceman to restore operations. Save your time and money by calling an OCEA member. He is qualified to give you quick, efficient service at honest prices.
FREE tube testing and technical advice from any Oakland County Electronics Association member.
