Based on State's Figures

Tax Levy Is Set for Pontiac

Commissioners Put '63 Total at $4,483,852

Would Require Hike of 79 Cents Per $1,000 of Assessed Valuation

By DICK SAUNDERS

The City Commission last night set the city's tax levy at $4,483,852 for 1963.

A resolution was unanimously approved, ordering City Assessor Edward Bloe to establish a tax rate which would produce the levy based on the city's total assessed valuation as equalized.

★ ★ ★

A tax rate of approximately $14.65 per $1,000 of assessed valuation would be required to raise the tax levy specified in the resolution.

This would be 79 cents per $1,000 higher than the 1962 city tax rate.

Last year's rate was $13.86 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

FIRST TIME

The move marked the first time in Pontiac's history that city tax assessments will be figured on a state-equalized valuation.

In terms of dollars and cents, the tax rate would amount to an increase of $3.95 in the city tax bill for a home with an assessed value of $5,000.

The equalization factor is included in the $14.65 rate.

★ ★ ★

An amendment to the annual budget-appropriation ordinance will be prepared for a public hearing at next Tuesday's commission meeting.

The amendment will officially establish the 1963 tax rate and spell out changes in the original appropriation ordinance adopted in January.

The tax levy is some $169,612 higher than the $4,314,240 tax levy approved in January.

The $169,612 is to be set aside as a surplus which may be used for two purposes:

1. To cover a drop in the city's total tax base which might occur if any or all of a $32-million tax appeal from General Motors Corp. is granted by the State Tax Commission later this summer.

2. To abolish the annual reappropriated surplus appropriation in the interest of sound fiscal policy.

★ ★ ★

The resolution, in addition, points to a need for such a cash surplus to be raised in future years so that the city can eventually realign its Jan. 1 budget with the July tax collection.

Trial Delayed Until June 18 in Mall Killing

Judge Nixes Motion Asking Transfer of the Proceedings

The trial of two 22-year-old Pontiac men accused of murdering a Kroger store comanager is still scheduled to begin in Oakland County, but not until June 18.

Circuit Judge William J. Beer today denied a defense motion that the trial of Adoise White, 79½ Wall, and Charles E. Hodges, 174 Prospect, be transferred to another county.

Beer rejected defense attorney Milton R. Henry's argument that notoriety and publicity about the case made it impossible to get a fair and impartial jury here.

Beer also ordered the trial, originally set for yesterday rescheduled for June 18 because of "force of circumstances."

Although denying another motion by Henry for a postponement of the trial, Beer noted that the jury panel was scheduled to recess today and return June 18.

★ ★ ★

White and Hodges are charged with first-degree murder in the March 16 slaying of Robert A. Greene, 22, of 122 Summit.

Greene was killed after he was forced to open a safe containing some $1,500 at the Pontiac Mall Kroger store. Police said he was stabbed 42 times and shot once in the head.

EXAGGERATION CLAIMED

Henry claimed that the brutality of the crime had been exaggerated by newspapers and television. He contended this prevented an impartial jury.

Judge Beer said the "only way to determine whether or not it is impossible to obtain in Oakland County an impartial jury to hear this case is by beginning to do it.

"It is only right and proper that we try to impanel a fair and impartial set of jurors to try this case before concluding it can't be done."

The judge also denied a third defense motion that statements by White and Hodges admitting the crime not be admitted in evidence on the ground they were obtained through "illegal pressures."

Prosecution and Defense Switch Roles

It was defense counsel on the attack and prosecutor on the defense this morning in Oakland County Circuit Court.

The defense — the prosecution, that is—prevailed.

It was during arguments before Judge William J. Beer on Defense Attorney Milton Henry's motion that the first-degree murder trial of his clients, Adoise White and Charles E. Hodges be held outside the county.

Henry contended that information given newspapers, magazines and television by authorities went "far beyond what the law contemplated."

It made impossible the selection of an impartial jury in Oakland County, Henry said.

"At no time have I given any statements about this case," Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor replied, adding, "I am not able to control the press and television."

After an off-the-record conference, Henry apologized to Taylor in open court.

On Integrating South

JFK Asks Executives to Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked a number of business executives to meet with him next Tuesday to give "serious and immediate attention" to the issue of integrating public facilities in the South.

The White House announced today that telegrams went out to about 75 business executives, from the North and the South, inviting them to the White House.

The purpose of the meeting was described as a discussion of "some aspects of the difficulties experienced by minority groups in many of our cities in securing employment and equal access to facilities and services generally available to the public."

★ ★ ★

Additional telegrams may be sent today to 25 other businessmen.

Those from the North are officials of firms which do business in the South. The executives have responsibilities in ownership or management of such commercial enterprises at theaters, hotels, variety stores and drugstores.

WILL BE REVEALED

Names of the executives receiving telegrams were not made public but White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said they would as acceptances come in.

★ ★ ★

Salinger declined comment when asked whether the conference with businessmen engaged in interstate commerce was a prelude to legislation requiring such businesses to desegrate.

While the matter of additional civil rights legislation is under study within the administration — Kennedy said so last week — Salinger said he expected nothing to develop on the matter this week.

Three of the group were beaten by whites, others were manhandled and all were doused with catsup and mustard.

Early today, a firebomb was thrown into the carport of the house of Medgar Evans, state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), who has been directing the Jackson integration campaign.

Evers' wife and children were in the house but no one was hurt and there was little damage.

President Is 46 Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy reached his 46th birthday today and his wife, Jacqueline, planned an extra-special party to mark the occasion: an evening dinner cruise on the Potomac.

★ ★ ★

Weather permitting, Mrs. Kennedy and about 25 relatives and friends will serenade the President with "Happy Birthday" aboard the 104-foot Navy yacht Sequoia.

Except for the evening party it was business as usual for Kennedy. He lined up a full schedule of activities running from 9:30 a.m. until late afternoon.

Kennedy's weight is 173 pounds — a loss of about seven including a weak back that requires pampering, he has missed only two days of presidential business because of illness.

After 28 months in "the toughest job in the world," Kennedy is little changed physically. He has lost some weight through dieting, picked up a few gray hairs, and acquired a few more lines in his youthful looking face.

70 Escape Death as Airliner Crashes

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—All but six persons aboard escaped injury yesterday when a chartered four-engine airliner crashed and burned while landing with 64 soldiers and a crew of six. None were seriously hurt.

Standard Airways of Burbank, Calif., operator of the craft, a Constellation, said, "unidentified loss of power in one engine" caused the crash.

The plane made a normal approach but suddenly fell into a wheat field, bouncing and skidding along, until it came to rest about 50 feet short of the runway at Municipal Airport.

The fuselage was filled with smoke and the wings were burning, passengers said, but there was no panic.

Using regular exits, an emergency exit, windows and even a hole where a wing was ripped from the fuselage, soldiers and crew cleared the plane in less than a minute.

★ ★ ★

Nick Dellere, airport manager, said there was time for some of the men to dash back inside for personal effects.

DESCRIBES ACCIDENT

"I was sitting by a window above the right wing," Lt. William C. Bryant, officer in charge of the troops, said.

★ ★ ★

"The first thing I noticed was the right wing kept going down and down and down. It struck the dirt and peeled off. Then I looked across and noticed the left wing come off."

Sgt. Joshua Hill, 34, Thomson, Ga., one of the injured, said he saw the landing gear fly by. He escaped with a bruised leg.

The plane was one of three returning troops to nearby Ft. Riley from two months of training at Camp Irwin, Barstow, Calif. The soldiers were 4th Cavalry tank crewmen.

★ ★ ★

In Burbank, Robert E. Fraley, attorney for Standard Airways, said the plane was destroyed "due to a lack of fire-fighting equipment at the Manhattan Airport."

Rusk Demands Boats' Release

2 Tuna Vessels Held by Ecuador Navy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk telephoned the foreign minister of Ecuador today and asked for immediate release of two U.S. tuna boats held by Ecuadorian naval vessels.

★ ★ ★

Rusk offered to send officials to Quito to negotiate a settlement.

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-Calif., reported he had information direct from the tuna fleet that an Ecuadorian gunboat had fired across the bow of the tuna boat "Hornet," apparently as a result of a misunderstanding when two of the vessels were about to be taken toward a port.

The Congress member, who comes from San Diego, home port of the tuna boats, also said that Ecuadorian foreign minister Benjamin Peralta had promised that the two boats in Ecuadorian custody would be taken to some port other than Manta, where Americans have encountered hostility in the past.

★ ★ ★

The tuna tempest stirred a wave of excitement around the state department as word of a shooting incident spread.

Deputy undersecretary of state U. Alexis Johnson called in Ecuadorian Minister Eduardo Arosemena and protested against any shooting.

★ ★ ★

Van Deerlin, who had been conferring with state department officials, then announced to newsmen that Rusk personally had intervened in the dispute which has a history going back several years.

To Up Patrols in South End

Complaints Increase; Commissioners Move

The city is going to increase police surveillance in the south end of Pontiac.

Announcement of the move came at last night's City Commission meeting in response to growing concern over an increase in serious crimes and rumored illegal operations in the area.

★ ★ ★

"We are taking immediate action to increase police patrols in communities where trouble exists," said Mayor Robert A. Landry.

"In some areas, we will initiate foot patrols on a 24-hour basis." He said the problem would be solved "with all possible speed."

The action came after commissioners received a full police department report on the rate of serious crimes and the status of vice operations in the south end.

Although the report showed a crime rate increase, it stated also that "the existing, known vice traffic in the south end does not warrant it being affixed the title of 'wide open.'"

5 PER CENT INCREASE

Figures in the report showed that the rate of serious crimes increased 5 per cent in the section south of Orchard Lake and Auburn, and decreased 5 per cent in the northern sector last year compared to the year before.

However, compared to figures six years ago, the report indicates that city wide, serious crimes have nearly doubled and traffic accidents nearly tripled, while the present police force numbers four men less than it was six years ago.

The lack of necessary manpower is repeatedly blamed in the report for failure to cope with an increasing crime rate. Pontiac currently has a ratio of 1.6 police personnel to each 1,000 population.

The national average is 1.73 per 1,000. Detroit's ratio is 2.8 per 1,000.

VICE SURVEY

Reporter's Wife Comforting in Aftermath of Traffic Tragedy

By JOHN J. CROWLEY
City Editor

It was the night before, say, Memorial Day.

The reporter's telephone jangled in the kitchen.

"John, there's a bad one at Wildermuth and State roads."

As the newspaperman hung up the receiver and prepared to cover another accident, his wife asked if she could accompany him. It was the first time she had ever asked. And the last.

CROWLEY

She would be needed that night.

At the accident scene, violence had torn up the darkened countryside with an angry hand. Two cars that had tangled like mad dogs lay spent and brooding beside the road as deputy sheriffs probed the darkness with flashlights.

A frightened little girl was helped into the second of two ambulances that screamed from the scene.

The reporter checked with deputies.

* * *

"This is where the woman was found. The boy was pinned under this car. The girl was still in the back seat. The baby was over there."

Dead: an infant and a 12-year-old boy. Hurt: the children's mother and her 6-year-old daughter. The other driver wasn't hurt.

Following the ambulances to the hospital to check on injuries, the reporter found only one person in the shiny, tiled hall outside the emergency room — the girl.

The ambulance drivers had placed her in a wheel chair, alone in the corridor. She wasn't injured. There were others who needed more help.

The reporter saw another need. He called his wife in from the car.

* * *

As the young woman gathered the little girl in her arms, all that happened burst out in loud sobbing from the child's lips.

"Everything's going to be all right, all right," the woman kept saying.

INJURED MOTHER

But the girl saw her mother being wheeled out of the emergency room into the elevator headed for surgery. The girl was wide-eyed and silent. She struggled weakly to get out of the wheel chair.

The reporter's wife gently held her back.

"Well honey," she said as she tossed her hair back from her face, "what's the matter here?"

"I want my mommy," the child cried and waved a freckled arm toward the elevator. There was a moment of awkward silence.

Then the child settled back in the chair and looked around at the strange, clean, frightening corridor. The raggedy doll she had rescued from the car was crushed in her arms.

The reporter's wife tried to start a conversation that would keep the girl occupied. Sometime soon, she thought, a relative must arrive.

She shook the foot of the doll.

"Did Santa bring you that nice doll?"

"Yes, but really Aunt Dorothy did. And she made a ballet dress for her just like mine."

Suddenly she leaned forward on the young woman's shoulder and cried again. "Will my mommy get better?" she asked.

"They've just taken her upstairs," the woman said, "They're going to put her in a nice soft bed and wash her hands and face . . ."

"And feet?" asked the girl. She had seen that her mother's feet were black and blue as she was wheeled to the elevator.

"Yes, and her arms and back —just like she washes you before you go to bed. Then they'll give her a little pill so she'll sleep real good and feel real good tomorrow."

"I'll come up and see her tomorrow," the girl said.

CONVERSATION CHANGES

Guided by the reporter's wife, the conversation galloped into the wonderful world of school and learning to read and who was in the child's dancing class.

Suddenly the hospital door swung open and a young woman stepped hurriedly inside. She glanced frantically up and down the corridor until her eyes fastened on the child and relief swept across her face.

The reporter's wife thought: Aunt Dorothy has arrived."

The child jumped up from the wheel chair and ran, her arms outstretched, to the distraught aunt. She was caught up and smothered in familiar warm arms as she sobbed out her terrible story.

"We were going to Aunt Louise's," she cried, "when we had an accident."

Abruptly her voice was harsh: "That man should have looked where he was going."

Then: "Why haven't they brought my brother in?"

AGONIZING TRUTH

The aunt glanced up questioningly at the reporter's wife. The young woman bit her lip and shook her head.

"Was John with you?" the aunt asked.

"Yes," cried the child in despair. "He was under the car. The car was laying on him. I think his shoes were off."

"How did he get out of the car?"

"He filed out the door. But it doesn't matter about the shoes. He has school shoes."

"The baby was hurt, too."

"Was she?" the aunt asked in sudden alarm. A glance at the reporter's wife confirmed the child's report.

The false but comforting thought that someone probably took her brother home crossed the child's mind.

* * *

"I don't mind if he's in my bed," she said.

The aunt suggested: "He can sleep in your bed and you can sleep in his."

"I won't mind if he's in my bed," the child repeated, "Daddy will take care of him and mommy, You can help if you want."

The reporter and his wife drove home silently.

* * *

In the apartment, he said, "Honey, write down everything you and the child talked about.

"Maybe it'll do some good some day."

Test Depths in Commerce

Try to Vindicate Lake Dredging

By PAT McCARTY

A handful of men yesterday afternoon took a barge across Long Lake in Commerce Township, doggedly testing water depths as they went.

The man whom they had planned to impress with their findings was not present.

County Drain Commissioner Daniel Barry said he and his aides spent the day with federal inspectors in another part of the county.

"My office isn't at all concerned with Long Lake," Barry commented. "There isn't any reason why we should have gone."

Those involved in the Long Lake dredging project, reportedly the first of its kind in the nation, were of a different opinion.

"We're being judged by people who haven't been out here and won't take time to come out," contractor Don O. Rutter said.

* * *

Yesterday's tests were conducted in an effort to justify the contractor's claims that the Long Lake project was worth while.

PRINCIPLE 'VALID'

Although some Long Lake residents are still complaining, Rutter said the principle he tested there is valid.

The lake, which was 1 and 2 feet deep except for a couple of holes two years ago, now has an average depth of 8 feet.

The project is to be completed if the Long Lake General Council can raise another $33,000 to add to their original $74,000 contractural price.

* * *

But the issue now at stake between Rutter, who says he's arguing for a principle, and Barry, who says he's not arguing, is the possible dredging of Wolverine Lake.

TO SUPPORT REPORT

Preliminary engineering reports on Wolverine Lake indicate the project would cost $995,000 and therefore be unfeasible. Barry has said he will support this report wholeheartedly before the drain committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Wolverine Lake residents have objected to Barry's refusal to consider the cheaper Long Lake project.

With the work done there as a basis, they have been told the Wolverine Lake renovation could probably be done for $500,000.

* * *

They are now talking about hiring another engineer to write a contradictory report.

"There is no connection between the two lakes officially," Barry said.

Connection or no, the Wolverine Lake citizens committee working on the project has scheduled a public meeting for June 17 to set its strategy.

The drain committee was briefed yesterday by engineers from Hubbell, Roth and Clark of Birmingham, who did the preliminary study.

Pope 'Clearly Improved,' but Still in Grave Condition

By EUGENE LEVIN

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII rallied today. The Vatican announced the Pope showed a clear improvement in his over-all condition after a restful night, but it was clear he remained in grave condition.

The 81-year-old Roman Catholic pontiff spent "a night of tranquil repose, during which he did not need assistance," a communique said, and he looked better in the daylight hours.

The communique, published by the Vatican paper L'Osservatore Romano, said the Pope's doctor left him after an examination at 10 a.m., and did not plan to return until evening.

The communique said Pope John's mind was clear and that he never was unconscious, "even in the acute moments of crisis."

It was the first time the Vatican ever said officially that the Pope had gone through a crisis. Apparently he has gone through several in the past six months, the worst Tuesday.

It was the first time the Vatican ever said officially that the Pope had gone through a crisis. Apparently he has gone through several in the past six months, the worst Tuesday.

A blood transfusion then enabled him to survive hemorrhaging caused by an abnormal stomach growth that has bothered him for a year.

After that harrowing day, the word from inside the Vatican was: "Only a miracle can save him."

In advance of today's communique, the Vatican press office said Pope John spent a good night and felt slightly better this morning.

City Officials Rally Round for New Flag

City Commissioner Dick M. Kirby's golfing ability may be questionable, but not his patriotic spirit.

At last night's commission meeting, Kirby staunchly called for the city to "get a new American flag" to replace what he claimed is "that poor old tattered and torn rag at Pontiac Municipal Golf Course."

Administrators pondered where they'd get one.

"Contact a congressman. They love to give away flags," Kirby said.

"Hmmm. Then it becomes a political issue," said City Manager Robert A. Sllerer.

"I don't know why," Kirby replied. "We have two kinds, don't we?"

Administrators allowed that they might consider contacting someone from both parties for a flag.

possibility of further racial demonstrations in Jackson existed.

A demonstration at Tallahassee, Fla., last night almost erupted, into violence when 50 whites chased 250 Negroes past the capitol. Police broke up the gathering but made no arrests.

JANUARY SUIT

Tied in with the Alabama decision, the Justice Department filed suit in January seeking to integrate schools in federally impacted areas.

Judge Grooms used as precedent an identical suit filed in Mississippi which was dismissed last month.

"I am of the opinion that the United States is without authority to maintain this action, and further that the complaint does not state a claim upon which relief can be granted," Grooms said.

As late as May 13, 1963, the judge said, the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals refused to hold that the United States could sue under the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

I did, however, reaffirm the principle that the United States is not a person under the 14th Amendment, he said.

Madison County School Board attorneys had argued that the Justice Department could not bring such suit on behalf of individuals.

"This court will not presume to take upon itself the removal of landmarks which are so plainly established," Grooms said.

The action was brought seeking to enjoin the school boards from segregating any dependents of military personnel or civilian employes in the public school system.

PICKET THEATERS

More than 400 Negroes marched and picketed two segregated theaters at High Point, N.C., last night.

About 1,500 whites gathered to watch and heckle the demonstrators. Some rocks were thrown and one Negro was slightly injured.

Police arrested two whites.

In Raleigh, more than 300 Negroes marched down a rainswept street to protest segregation and were left pretty much to themselves.

A spokesman for the Knoxville Hotel-Motel Association said yesterday that four hotels and a national motel chain have voted to desegregate their facilities.

The Knoxville News-Sentinel said that at least 2,300 persons have signed petitions urging that facilities catering to the public be desegregated.

Mayor of West Berlin to Visit, Speak in U.S.

BERLIN (AP) — Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, is to visit the United States next month, his office announced yesterday.

School Board's Meeting Touches Varied Topics

BIRMINGHAM — Everything from transportation to teaching machines and philosophy to finance was discussed at last night's board of education report to the people.

Speakers focused their attention on the last three years — specifically the time since a five-mill construction bond issue was voted in 1961.

Statistics were used for comparison.

* * *

For instance, Kenneth M. Nagley, director of personnel, said the present 9.4 per cent teacher turnover marks a notable decrease from the 11.5 per cent in 1961.

The school system's goal is to have 60 per cent of its teachers with four to seven years experience and 60 per cent with masters degrees.

Current rates are 30 per cent and 43.8 per cent respectively.

Daniel A. Nesbitt, deputy superintendent for curriculum, and William S. Corliss, director of elementary education spoke on curriculum changes.

They emphasized the need for time and coordination in altering programs.

Nesbitt cited as examples of progress the addition of subject area coordinators for all grades and grouping for differentiated study.

* * *

He said Birmingham schools now offer a greater challenge to students of superior ability through accelerated courses and other means.

Lloyd Van Buskirk, director of finance, noted that 74.5 per cent of the budget is used for teachers.

Van Buskirk said $315 per student is used for teachers' salaries and $407 per student for the total instructional program.

* * *

Others to speak were Dr. Otis M. Dickey, superintendent of schools; Walter J. Piel, administrative assistant; and James O'Neil, supervisor of buildings and grounds.

Approximately 100 persons attended the meeting in the little theater of Seaholm High School.

Teen, Boy, 5, Die in Traffic

Area Children Hit by Cars in 2 Mishaps

An Orion Township teen-ager was killed last night when he was struck by a car, and a 5-year-old Bloomfield Hills boy died this morning from injuries suffered yesterday when he ran into the side of a car.

William G. Kaubisch, 14, of 3928 Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaubisch, was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital with a skull fracture.

Fatally injured was Michael Painter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Moran, 2290 Quarton Road. The youngster died at 2 a.m. today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, nine hours after the accident.

Last Year To Date 38

The Kaubisch boy was walking on Baldwin, a half mile north of Gregory, at 9:38 p.m. when he was hit by a car driven by Ronald R. Greening, 38, of 341 Indianwood, Lake Orion.

Greening told sheriff's deputies that he hit the youth as he pulled out to pass another car. The teenager, according to witnesses, was on the traveled portion of the road, about two feet from the shoulder.

The Bloomfield Hills accident occurred on Quarton, about 100 feet west of Cranbrook, near the boy's home.

Michael ran into a car driven by Mrs. Ann K. Sawyer, 54, of Detroit, as she was traveling west on Quarton, according to Bloomfield Hills police.

The fatal accident was the first in Bloomfield Hills this year.

Mrs. John P. Blanton

Service for Mrs. John P. (Lois P.) Blanton, 60, of Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Hills, will be 11 a.m. Friday at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home, Pontiac. Burial will follow in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Mrs. Blanton died yesterday after a one-week illness. Memorial service will be 8 p.m. tomorrow at the funeral home under the auspices of the Rebekah Lodge of Detroit.

Mrs. Blanton was a housekeeper at Kingswood School.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Prescilla O'Keefe of New York City, N.Y.; a son Patrick of Fremont, Calif.; a sister and a brother.

"Street prostitutes in the area of Bagley and Wessen are probably the most offensive element of all vice conditions . . . as far as the general public is concerned," the survey reads.

"During the profitable night hours, it is not uncommon to observe as many as six prostitutes working the corner simultaneously."

* * *

STRIDES MADE

While it states that strides have been made in keeping prostitutes out of bars and that several have been arrested through the cooperation of citizens, completely effective enforcement again requires "many man hours restricting our presence directly to the area in question."

The report states there is "much yet to be accomplished in deterring vice activity and enforcing associated laws in both the north and south sections of the city."

'Happy' Chandler Beaten in Kentucky Primary

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Edward T. Breathitt Jr. may have sounded the last hurrah for former Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler by shattering his dreams of becoming Kentucky's only three-term governor.

The unheralded 38-year-old Hopkinsville attorney won a smashing victory over the seasoned 64-year-old politician in Tuesday's Democratic gubernatorial primary.

★ ★ ★

With 2,696 of 3,005 precincts reporting, Breathitt had 299,621 votes to 239,784 for Chandler.

For the flamboyant Chandler, once a U.S. senator and national baseball commissioner, it signaled the twilight of a political career that spanned three decades.

Chandler won his first four-year term as governor in 1935 at age 37. Breathitt said that as a boy he helped put up election posters for Chandler, then his hero.

Chandler's second term came in 1955.

BEATEN BY BARKLEY

Only once before has he been defeated. The late Alben Barkley turned the trick in the 1938 senatorial primary—helped by personal appearances of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Flashing a victory sign at his jubilant headquarters Tuesday night, Breathitt said: "I never felt we would lose it, though I knew we were beind at one stage of the race."

A somber mood fell over Chandler's home at Versailles. The smile that earned him the nickname Happy was gone.

"I'm going to bed and when I wake up I'll make a statement," he said.

Breathitt will face Louie Nunn of Glasgow, another 38-year-old attorney, in the November election. Nunn, winning over token opposition Tuesday, counting on thousands of disaffected Democrats to help him become Kentucky's first Republican governor in 20 years.

BITTER CAMPAIGN

The Democratic campaign was as ferocious and bitter as any since the party's cleavage during the Civil War. Breathitt, embarking on a drive to heal the scars, called for unity immediately after his victory was apparent.

Breathitt's platform is much the same as that of Gov. Bert Combs, who lifted him from obscurity a year ago and picked him as likely successor: retention of the 3 per cent sales tax imposed in 1960, expansion of various state services and construction of toll roads when necessary.

★ ★ ★

Chandler campaigned on a pledge to exempt food, medicine and clothing from the tax. He flailed at what he called administration scandals and reckless spending.

On television Breathitt was the soft-spoken "new image of progress" for Kentucky. Around the courthouses he was as folksy and colorful as Chandler. He invaded the schools and courted the vote of high school seniors. Kentucky gave voting rights seven years ago to 18-year-olds.

★ ★ ★

Breathitt, a former state representative, served in two appointed state posts under Combs.

In the lieutenant governor's race Harry Lee Waterfield, allied with Chandler, defeated Atty. Gen. John Breckinridge, an independent Democrat who leaned toward Breathitt.

Cuba News Revealed in 'Good Faith'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a House committee says that after questioning Pentagon information chief Arthur Sylvester he is convinced the Kennedy administration sought in good faith to keep the public informed during the Cuban crisis.

"I cannot now say that during that period it would have been possible to pursue a course that would have produced more information," Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., said Tuesday.

Moss said he and other members on his Government Information Committee feel that newsmen should have been permitted to go to the Guantanamo Naval Base at Cuba and to be with the fleet carrying out the arms blockade.

★ ★ ★

Sylvester appeared before the House group at a closed session and Moss said the assistant secretary of defense underwent four hours of "the most detailed questioning" about information policies during the crisis of last October.

He said Sylvester assured the subcommittee that in any future crisis, the Pentagon will make every effort to give reporters access to the hot spots involved.

JFK, Dem Governors Hash Out Woes at Lunch

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, who likes to exchange views at a long, leisurely luncheon, has a batch of Democratic governors in today for a discussion of mutual problems.

No one seems sure what those mutual problems are, but Gov. Karl Rolvaag of Minnesota pretty well summed up the gubernatorial reaction.

★ ★ ★

Reached just as he was leaving his office for Washington, Rolvaag was asked what he and Kennedy would talk about.

"I don't know," Rolvaag said. "He hasn't told me yet."

But since all governors at the luncheon are Democrats, it's a good guess there will be some talk of federal-state frictions and a lot of talk about politics.

1ST OF SERIES

This is the first of a series of luncheons for governors and for mayors, and White House press secretary Pierre Salinger says it's just a coincidence that all of the guests are Democrats.

It may be just a coincidence, too, that some of the states whose governors are here today will be critical battlefields in the 1964 presidential election, when the President undoubtedly will try for a second term.

Minnesota, for example. Kennedy beat his Republican foe, Richard M. Nixon, by only 22,000 votes. Rolvaag gave an even more dramatic illustration of how evenly the state is split. After months of recounting, Rolvaag finally won —by 91 votes.

★ ★ ★

Or take Illinois. Out of 4,750,000 votes, Kennedy squeaked through, thanks to big Chicago majorities, by less than 9,000 votes.

Or Tennessee. Once a shoo-in for Democrats, this border state has been going Republican in presidential elections, even though its governor and both senators are Democrats.

Launch Lake Orion Campaign on School Needs

By ROGER SRIGLEY

LAKE ORION — A campaign to inform school district residents of the need for school expansion was kicked off at a special meeting of the school board and a citizens group last night.

Some 50 persons gathered to hear Schools Supt. A. A. Reed, Board President Richard A. Young and Schools Survey Committee President Dr. Kenneth W. Brown explain the plight of the schools.

On July 15, voters will be asked to approve a $2 million package for school expansion.

That date will be six months after voters rejected a similar request, 833 to 732.

Again this time, the major project planned in the building program is a new junior high school, to be located on a 20-acre site adjacent to the high school.

Sketches of the $1.1 million school were also presented at last night's session. Covering 80,000 square feet and accommodating 900 students, the building will contain 30 classrooms.

"This building will be filled when it is built," Reed told the meeting last night.

* * *

He said that if the proposal is again rejected, "it is expected that practically every elementary school in the district will be on half-day sessions in 1964."

Reed added that already there are nine rooms in elementary schools with 45 pupils in them.

Area-State News

Some 100 seniors will have to go on half days next year regardless of the election outcome, he said.

Two propositions will be on the ballot. One will seek approval of a $2-million bond issue to finance the proposed building program.

The second will ask voters to okay a hike of four mills for operation of the planned building and additions.

The total millage required for the whole program is 9.5 mills, Reed said. He explained, however, that only 5.5 mills will be required for the bond issue.

* * *

This is possible because of the reduction of two mills on the present debt levy and cancellation of two mills in the current building and site fund.

* * *

Besides the new junior high, additions and remodeling are planned for the existing high school, junior high and elementary schools in the district.

At last night's meeting it was also decided how information on the present school situation and the ballot propositions would be disseminated to the public.

* * *

In the next six weeks, board members will speak at PTA and other civic group functions and PTA members will stage coffee sessions with their neighbors to answer questions on the proposal.

Peter Tarapata of Tarapata, MacMahon Associates, Inc., school architects, explained the layout of the school expansions planned.

* * *

To be constructed in face brick and cinder block, the junior high will be a combination one- and two-story structure.

* * *

Tarapata said that flexibility was considered in the planning so that any future changes could be made without extensive cost.

* * *

"It is a very compact structure and takes advantage of the site," the architect added.

Ask Dems to End Recount

Doing No Good, Opponents Say

Little Change in Vote as Tallying Continues

LANSING (AP) — The recount of the April 1 vote approving a new state constitution continued today while opponents put pressure on Democrats to call it off.

* * *

No public purpose is being served by continuing the recount, stated Dewey Barich, chairman of the Coordinating Council for the New Constitution, which filed a counter-petition to the Democratic demand for the recount.

"Eight days of checking have shown only that there is no trend and that the final tab will result only in a most insignificant change in a meaningless number of votes," Barich said.

"Now is the time to call off this fruitless recount."

POLITICAL HAY

Democrats have said they will not call off the recount. They stand to lose the money posted anyway unless the vote of approval is upset and hope to make political hay out of any change in the margin.

With 1,285 precincts recounted there was a loss of 182 "yes" votes and a gain of 122 "no" votes. This cut only a net of 304 from the original 7,829 vote of approval.

Yesterday, after picking up near 100 votes in two Wayne County precincts, Democrats had shaved off 313 votes, but then lost a few.

* * *

Recounters planned to work today and then take off the Memorial Day holiday. Very few counties planned to recount Friday so the check won't pick up full steam again until after the weekend.

Dr. E. Dale Kennedy, executive secretary of the Michigan Education Association, (MEA) earlier branded the recount a "scavenger hunt and said the MEA would withdraw its volunteer workers as of today.

There were some 140 volunteers working, Kennedy said, mostly retired teachers or wives of teachers.

He cited the fact that checking of totals so far has brought a total change of less than one-quarter vote per precinct, although four votes per precinct would be required to reverse the outcome.

ATTACK

In a speech to a Republican meeting in Paw Paw, GOP State Chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. attacked his Democratic counterpart, Zolton Ferency, for "inferring that Michigan elections might be tainted with dishonesty."

'Others Must Assist State for Economic Renaissance'

BAY CITY (AP) — Gov. George Romney says government was helped to open the way for an "economic renaissance" in Michigan — but what happens next is the responsibility of others.

In a speech to a chamber of commerce meeting here, the governor said government "cannot do the job alone . . . but can only lay the foundation for economic growth. The superstructure must be built by others."

The consumer, he said, "holds the throttle of economic growth," because it is he "who decides whether he will buy products made in Michigan or those made in other states."

Romney said "enlightened and imaginative" management, labor leaders and community leaders all have a role in Michigan's economic future.

'CAN'T BE IMPOSED

"The revitalization of Michigan's economy cannot be imposed by government; it cannot be plotted and schemed by a committee of economists meeting at one of the universities; it cannot be ordained separately by management, or separately by labor," he said.

* * *

The governor said a sound governmental program must be complemented by "responsible citizenship, greater community concern and cooperation, individual dedication to excellence of workmanship, and genuine industrial teamwork."

He said government thus far has laid the foundation by the legislature's passage of a economic expansion permitting local units of government to issue bonds to help industry, and appropriating $750,000 for college research on job-creating activity.

He cited the enactment of the Ford-Canton strike benefits bill as "perhaps the most important" of the lawmakers' actions in the economic field, because it will prevent employers from being forced to finance strikes against themselves.

* * *

The new constitution has given Michigan "a head start on tomorrow, with a handle on the future," said Romney, "and we have begun the gigantic task of thorough revision of the state's fiscal and tax structure."

OKs Extension on Sewer Plan

Federal Unit Extends Deadline for Oxford

OXFORD—The Village Council learned last night it had been granted a second 90-day extension on its deadline for submission of a sewage system plan to the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

* * *

It also considered an alternate solution to the sewage problem from the village's consulting engineers, Johnson and Anderson, Inc., of Waterford Township.

The council had requested the alternate plan at its last meeting, when the engineers presented a scheme for a unique spray irrigation treatment system.

The second set of drawings shows the layout of a proposed joint project with Lake Orion.

JOINT MEETING

Both plans will be taken up with the councilmen on Monday when they, along with representatives of Lake Orion and Oxford and Orion townships, stage a joint meeting at the Orion Township hall.

Also represented at the session will be officials of the county and the village's engineering firm, as well as men from Lake Orion's engineering consultants, Hubbell, Roth & Clark, Inc., of Birmingham.

It is expected that formal acceptance of Oxford's two sets of preliminary plans will be given at the June 11 session, after the problem is discussed with other communities.

* * *

Funds for the planning come from an $8,000 loan granted to the village by the federal government.

For Farm Bloc Rebirth

Bill Possible Base?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several senators from the North and South said today the new wheat-feed grains farm aid bill conceivably could become the foundation for rebuilding of the once powerful bipartisan Senate farm bloc.

The measure, tossed into the legislative hopper, would supplant both the Kennedy administration's wheat program which was rejected by wheat growers in last week's referendum and a controversial feed grains price support bill just signed into law by the president.

It proposes price supports for both wheat and feed grains, plus a new system of payments somewhat similar to the old soil bank program to encourage the voluntary retirement of more acreage from production.

The bill was introduced by Sens. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., a former secretary of agriculture; George D. Aiken, R-Vt., senior Republican on the Senate Agriculture Committee; Spessard Holland, D-Fla.; and Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa.

The sponsors said they figured they had something going that has a chance to be enacted.

There was no immediate word from Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., the Senate Agriculture Committee chairman. He was out of the city.

There was some talk of hooking cotton farm aid legislation onto the measure, which Aiken said "clearly would better our chances."

As for the possibility of a reconstruction of the badly shattered farm bloc, none seemed more than cautiously hopeful.

The bill in question follows lines recommended by the Farm Bureau Federation.

It would establish wheat price supports at the average world market price, an estimated $1.40 to $1.45 a bushel, and price supports for corn, oats, rye, barley and grain sorghum at 90 per cent of the average price received by the growers in the preceding three years.

To encourage acreage reduction, it would establish a "cropland adjustment program" somewhat like the old soil bank.

Farmers would be invited to submit competitive bids for participation in the "rental payments" for withdrawing land from production.

Youth Implicates 3 Men in Burglary at Church

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — An 18-year-old Farmington youth has implicated three men in the Christmas night burglary at a Detroit church.

James L. Morris, 18, of 30030 W. Eight-Mile Road, walked into the Farmington Township police headquarters and told his story to officers Monday.

Two of the men he identified have been apprehended, and one is being sought.

Police said Morris told them he waited in a car near Westminster Presbyterian Church while the other three men entered the building.

* * *

An estimated $8,000 was stolen from the church.

Harold G. Schuh, 30, of Detroit and Andrew J. Schwartz, 22, of 21545 Powers, Farmington, are being held on warrants authorized by the Wayne County prosecutor.

Police are still seeking James A. Schuh, 28, of 23110 Pulane, Farmington.

Morris, who is awaiting trial for a Washtenaw County break-in, was not charged in the church burglary.

Novi District Step Closer to High School

NOVI — The community school district here is one step closer to having its own high school.

The State Municipal Finance Commission has approved a $985,000 bond issue to begin construction of the building.

Accepted by the property owners at the polls April 1, the issue will finance the first of two building phases.

Classrooms for grades seven, eight and nine are to be ready by September 1964, the date set by Northville educators to no longer accept Novi ninth graders.

* * *

Second stage of the building project calls for classrooms for the upper three grades.

Completion of the program would cost an estimated $400,000.

The high school is to be located on an 80-acre site at Taft and 11-Mile roads.

TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY — Highland residents Mr. and Mrs. George S. # Ubiquitous Niven Takes Oscar All Over

HOLLYWOOD — With David Niven, it's a case of have Oscar, must travel.

After making seven films in seven countries, the ubiquitous Britisher has settled down to make a movie in Hollywood, of all places. And you can jolly well bet that his Oscar—"Separate Tables," 1958—came along with him.

THOMAS

"Why, of course," he remarked on the set of "King of the Mountain." "Wherever I go, it goes. I'm not one of those people who treat it casually as a bookend or something like that. I'm damned proud of it."

Niven has been gone from his Hollywood haunts for more than three years, but he said it wasn't for tax reasons or any such rot. In these days an actor must go where the work is, and his work has taken him far afield to such filming grounds as Israel—"Two Enemies"—Spain —"55 Days at Peking"—and Italy — "The Pink Panther."

Like all top stars, Niven goes where the good scripts are. But he confessed that isn't his only yardstick. He has what might be called the Niven sliding scale for his film pay.

'MUST WORK'

"It's like this, old boy," he said. "One really must work, I suppose, but it's a shame to let your work interfere with play.

"There are certain times of year when I will work if necessary, but my price goes up. The early part of the year is bad, because that is my skiing season. If any work interferes with than, oh, dear—that really costs the producer.

* * *

"July and August are terribly expensive. That's when we like to go up to Sweden and eat lots of fish, and I spend a lot of the summer under water in the Mediterranean, skin diving. We have our house at Nice, and it's awfully hard to break away for work, really.

"Christmas is another expensive time to hire me, because we like to spend it at home with the whole family. Actually, the times when I am cheapest is late spring and early fall. I'm an absolute bargain then."

SWISS RESIDENCE

Besides the villa on the Riviera, Niven maintains a residence in Switzerland —"a cuckoo clock, really; the kind of place you just turn the key and give it to the local policeman when you leave."

With the death of Dick Powell, Niven and Charles Boyer are taking more part in policy decisions at Four Star Productions.

* * *

"We will have two hour shows on the air next season," Niven reported. "We are branching into the feature field with a picture Martin Manulis will produce for Warner Brothers. We have gotten into electronics and our syndication department is phenomenal. This is hard to believe, but our man actually sold the Gertrude Berg show to Egypt."

MORE FREQUENT

Niven hinted that his Hollywood filming may be more frequent.

"I think the studios are disenchanted with location shooting," he said. "It makes sense to send a second unit for backgrounds and film the major part of the film here, where you can control costs.

* * *

"That's the way Mike Todd made 'Around the World in 80 Days.' He made everyone believe it was filmed all over, but it wasn't. He told me, 'Once the audience believes you up in that balloon, they'll believe anything.'"

Railway trackage with ordinary use may last for about 20 to 25 years.

Mail Heavy for Romney to Run in '64

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. George Romney acknowledged yesterday he is receiving heavy mail from all over the nation from people encouraging him to seek the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

"I have had a lot of letters from around the country on that general subject," the governor said at a news conference.

"In each instance," he added, "they've been discouraged and told I was not interested in their doing anything of that type."

Romney, ever since winning election last November as Michigan's first Republican governor in 14 years, has disavowed any 1964 presidential ambitions.

Last weekend, Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., the chairman of the House GOP Caucus, told a Green Bay, Wis., audience Romney should be nominated as Michigan's favorite son at the next Republican National Convention.

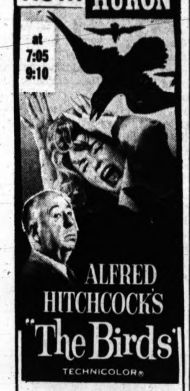

Romney said, "Such expressions are very complimentary, but they've been made by individuals on their own and not as a result of encouragement from me.

"Expressions of that type are sobering, but this doesn't mean the individual involved has changed his purpose or dedication to his present responsibilities."

For the immediate future, Romney said, he is dedicated to the position of governor.

He added, however, he has made no decision on what he will do beyond 1964.

Avoid That Tragedy—Have a Safe Holiday

Ahead lies Memorial weekend.

For many it represents a four-day respite from toil with prolonged indulgence in pleasurable pursuits interwoven with the solemn observance of the holiday itself.

★ ★ ★

But because so many present-day recreational activities are related to highway use and water advantages, Memorial Day is darkened by the threat of tragedy for those who disregard the rules of safety.

★ ★ ★

The casualties that go hand in hand with periodic upswing in the use of Michigan's pleasure facilities are reducible to statistical projection.

As automobiles on the highways exceed the average and more than the normal number of pleasure seekers take to the water, the accidental death rate increases.

★ ★ ★

Tragically, a large share of these fatalities could be avoided by the simple application of the time-honored basic rule of safety: STOP — LOOK — LISTEN.

Along with the best wishes of The Press for a safe, enjoyable and rewarding holiday goes the somber avowal that while Memorial Day honors the dead, it should not hold death and sorrow for the living.

Government Concerned About Debt Ceiling?

Secretary of the Treasury DOUGLAS DILLON appeared before a Senate committee in support of a debt limit bill that just squeaked through the House by six votes.

★ ★ ★

The bill would raise the debt ceiling from the present $305 billion to $307 billion immediately and to $309 billion on July 1.

★ ★ ★

"If the Nation is required to operate through August under the present debt ceiling," the secretary said, "it would no longer be possible to handle the finances of the United States Government in a prudent and responsible manner."

Since when has that praiseworthy economic doctrine been of concern to the Federal administration?

Community College Would Benefit Area

Some pretty good points favoring community colleges for Oakland County were set forth in a recent letter in the Voice of the People column about the June 10 ballot issue.

We agree with the writer and feel that perhaps some of his ideas need further explanation.

★ ★ ★

It is a well-known fact that all of our schools of higher learning are overcrowded. For this reason alone it would seem sensible to set up a two-year community college program for Oakland County.

With the prospect that many of our own county high school graduates will be unable to attend the already-established state schools because of insufficient finances or crowded conditions, this program should fill a desperate need.

★ ★ ★

All living costs are going up, and this certainly includes attending college away from home. One of the concepts behind the community college program is to keep education expenses within reach of everyone.

School authorities point out that dormitories and living quarters are falling far behind the influx of students expected in the year just ahead.

★ ★ ★

State tax money to increase living space at our state schools will be hard to come by. Since crowded conditions are bound to exist, it would appear that the community college program for Oakland County would be a natural.

Under the June 10 propositions, if we approve the measure, we would be assuring our own county youngsters two years of college while living at home.

★ ★ ★

Then, if they desire to continue on in higher education, they could transfer to one of our state schools where ordinary attrition would have opened up more living accommodations.

Education of our young people is the backbone of our future. We can't afford to let them down.

Dixie Segregation in Triple Squeeze

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Racial segregation in the South is being smashed in a triple squeeze by the Supreme Court, the Kennedy administration and Negroes themselves demonstrating against discrimination.

MARLOW

The court Monday dealt a deadly blow to exclusion of Negroes from parks, playgrounds or other public facilities. And it clearly showed it is getting tougher about delays in desegregating public schools.

Only a week ago the court banned any attempt to exclude Negroes from places catering to the public — like restaurants or department stores — when the exclusion is imposed by state or city law or official orders.

★ ★ ★

The court has not yet ruled on whether proprietors of places catering to the public can — on their own and without compulsion from laws or officials — keep Negroes out.

More and more this year Negro demonstrations are persuading white segregationists in the South to remove their racial bars.

PUSHING HARDER

The Kennedy administration has been pushing harder. For example: sending troops into Alabama to be used, if necessary, to prevent riots in Birmingham.

The same troops can be used next month to enforce a court order — that two Negroes be admitted to the University of Alabama—if the governor, George C. Wallace, tries to carry out his threat to defy the court.

★ ★ ★

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy met with owners of Southern movie theaters Monday to tell them to begin solving their desegregation problems by working on them on a town-by-town basis.

Monday the Supreme Court put the finishing touches on Gov. Wallace's appeal to prevent Kennedy from using troops in Alabama. The court unanimously rejected his request.

TOUGH

The court's ban on segregation in public facilities — written by Justice Arthur J. Goldberg — was as tough as anything the court has said on the racial issue since it banned public school segregation in 1954.

The case happened to involve Memphis parks and playgrounds and swimming pools. But it applies equally to all cities. Memphis has desegregated only some of its facilities.

★ ★ ★

It wanted to wait until 1971 to desegregate them all. The court said: Do it now. Memphis had argued that desegregating all the facilities at once might cause racial strife and riots.

The courts said that argument isn't good enough. It said "the compelling answer to this contention is that constitutional rights may not be denied simply because of hostility to their assertion or exercise."

NO EXCUSE

To put it another way, the court was saying: the fact that white people might resent desegregation isn't enough excuse.

The Supreme Court had previously declared: "Law and order are not to be preserved by depriving Negro children of their constitutional rights."

★ ★ ★

And, the court said in effect, a city can't postpone desegregation of parks and playgrounds with the argument that Negroes have enough of these facilities to meet their needs.

"It is segregation by race that is unconstitutional," the court said.

It added this about the Negroes' desegregation efforts in Memphis: "The rights here asserted are, like all such rights, present rights; they are not merely hopes for some future enjoyment of some formalistic constitutional promise.

"The basic guarantees of our Constitution are warrants for the here and now and, unless there is an overwhelmingly compelling reason, they are to be promptly fulfilled."

In this last sentence the court was saying that there may be some situations involving a city's facilities which were so unusual that the court might permit delay in desegregation —but they'd have to be extraordinary.

Verbal Orchids to—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin of Novi, 68th wedding anniversary.

The Real Leader Into Outer Space

David Lawrence Says:

Race Issue Shows Lack of Law

WASHINGTON — There's worry about the image of America being created abroad nowadays. Secretary of State Dean Rusk attributes it to the controversy over racial discrimination.

But Mr. Rusk doesn't tell the whole story — that part which is conveniently overlooked by almost everybody because it's easier to do so than face the facts.

LAWRENCE

The facts are that not a single law has ever been passed by Congress requiring desegregation or integration of public schools, restaurants or hotels, and not a single law has been adopted prohibiting discrimination in employment.

America's racial controversy today points up another omission in the field of law. The Supreme Court of the United States, consisting of nine men, is not a legislature.

It cannot lawfully substitute its will for that of Congress. But it has done so.

Also, two presidents of the United States—in 1957 and 1962, respectively — have used Federal troops to secure the enforcement of court orders relating to school integration, but no laws covering the subjects have been passed by Congress.

This creates abroad an "image" of Dictatorship tactics.

The Fourteenth Amendment itself makes no mention of schools or private or public employment, but declares all citizens have a right to the equal protection of the laws.

This same amendment says explicitly that Congress is given the power to pass laws to enforce the provisions of the article. No laws dealing with desegregation in the schools have ever been passed by Congress.

This truth is beginning to be recognized at last by some leaders in Congress who, this very month, have introduced bills setting forth what racial discrimination covers and what shall be prohibited.

The United States has always been portrayed abroad as a free republic. America, it has been emphasized, has a government of laws—not of men.

But foreign observers have noted that an oligarchy of nine men—who hold office for life—has attempted to write the laws.

Thoughtful students of Democratic government abroad have been amazed at this departure from the very words of the Constitution, and this tends to hurt the image of the United States as supposedly a free republic governed by a written constitution.

Has America learned anything in 100 years about how to deal with the race problem?

In the three years after the War Between the States ended in 1865, a faction in Congress arbitrarily deprived several states of their seats in both houses here, imposed military rule on the South, and sent in troops with bayonets to compel state legislatures to ratify the Fourteenth Amendment as the price of membership in the Federal Union.

It was an example of lawlessness about which most Americans prefer not to read, though the facts are indelibly written in history books.

The way out of all this is to follow the procedure stipulated in the Constitution—to submit in a lawful manner a new Fourteenth Amendment which will specify school integration and anything else that two-thirds of both houses of Congress and the majority of the people in three-fourths of the states of the Union want to declare as the law of the land.

It is never too late to right a wrong—even one committed 100 years ago. If, as is widely assumed, an overwhelming majority of the American people would support such an amendment to the Constitution, this process need not take long.

The twenty-first amendment repealing prohibition, for example, was adopted in only nine months.

The image of America abroad would then truly be portrayed as a government of laws — not of men.

British Stalling Kennedy on NATO Ocean N-Force

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration's plan for a seaborne nuclear missile force within the Atlantic Alliance has run into trouble again—this time with Britain.

If Britain's reservations about the plan can be cleared up in the next two or three weeks, however, the resulting accord could lead to a meeting between President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan during Kennedy's late June swing around Western Europe.

HIGHTOWER

Macmillan has been reported pressing for a meeting with Kennedy. Agreement on principle on British participation in the proposed force would supply practical, even urgent, reason for a get-together.

★ ★ ★

If British questions about the Polaris nuclear force cannot be satisfied, Britain's refusal to participate might result in abandonment or radical change of the project.

The heart of the proposal provides for construction of a fleet of 20 to 25 warsaips armed with a total of about 200 Polaris missiles and manned by joint crews of the participating nations.

The cost over a period of 10 years has been estimated at $5 billion, to be split among the participants.

★ ★ ★

Officials said today the United States still believes the entire nuclear striking force should be based on surface ships.

There has been discussion in Germany of the possibility also of creating a NATO land-based missile force.

The first strong objection to the U.S. plan came earlier this year from West Germany.

★ ★ ★

The Germans argued the missiles should be based on submarines rather than surface ships.

The United States insisted that surface ships would be cheaper, quicker to build and little if any more vulnerable to enemy attack.

Bonn finally agreed a surface force would be acceptable.

★ ★ ★

Next Tuesday Adm. Claude Ricketts, vice chief of naval operations, will fly to London for what is described as a 'nuts and bolts" discussion of the Polaris proposal with British naval authorities.

★ ★ ★

Other countries the United States hopes will participate in the project are Canada, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands, Greece, and Turkey. None has made any firm commitments.

'Cats Should Be Restricted Just the Same as Dogs'

Stray cats wander through neighborhoods and are a menace to the children. Not long ago a neighbor's cat devoured a young dove and a nest of young robins.

★ ★ ★

I hope someone is interested in preventing this constant nuisance and menace of roaming cats.

Residents Disagree With Lake Story

As residents of Williams Lake we say there was no attempt to "filch" water from Maceday Lake.

★ ★ ★

The culvert in question between Maceday and Williams Lake was sealed illegally.

★ ★ ★

We were merely trying to open the culvert again, as it used to be, and thereby raise the water level.

Ezra and Freda Mason
6990 Hatchery

Williams Lake residents do not wish to borrow water from Maceday Lake. All they want is their own legal water supply and they were breaking no laws in attempting to obtain the same.

The only illegal action was taken by the Oakland County Road Commission when it sealed the stream bed with a cement plug.

R. M. Gorman, Secretary
Williams Lake
Water Level Committee
2950 Orange Grove

I wish to take exception to the words "filching" and "borrowing" and I am sure other Williams Lake residents agree.

We were not "filching" or "borrowing"; merely taking back something that was taken from us illegally years ago.

Mrs. Arthur C. Arnold

(Editor's Note: We accept "filch" as a substitute for taking illegally. The digging was at the lakes, not in the courtroom.)

★ ★ ★

Says Conservatives 'Have Done a Lot'

There is no question that the conservative movement has accomplished many things.

How about our traditional policy of isolation? These people demand that we stop communism and yet they have consistently advocated a policy of isolation which would keep us absent from a world that cannot survive without our help.

★ ★ ★

There is also the bleak record of conservative American businessmen in Asia, Latin America and Africa, who have consistently exploited these people at the expense of their country's prestige.

★ ★ ★

I've often wondered what life was like in the late 19th century when people worked seven days a week for practically nothing. Was it the conservative who proposed legislation to cure this disgraceful condition? The answer is told in American history. Conservatives have never proposed a thing that would take a single penny from their grimy pockets.

Reviewing Other Editorial Pages

Older Citizens

The New York Times

The White House, having issued several calls to action recently in behalf of unemployed youth, is now letting people at the other end of the age spectrum know it has not forgotten them.

★ ★ ★

A report by President Kennedy's special council on the aging says the lot of Americans over 65 has been getting better in recent years but not enough better to rule out the danger that they will become second-class citizens.

★ ★ ★

No new suggestions are offered on how to keep this from happening. The Presidential aides confine themselves to endorsing Mr. Kennedy's own proposals of last February for medical care, housing, expanded employment opportunities and other special legislation.

Since no one in Congress seems very excited about these measures, the reaffirmation of White House interest may rescue a few from the circular file.

★ ★ ★

The number of people past their 65th birthday increases by 1,000 every day. The present total of more than 17.5 million is expected to grow to nearly 25 million by 1980. Many, of course, are well-provided for, but many are not.

The average annual income received by aged couples is half that of younger couples. Almost half of those over 65 living alone receive $1,000 a year or less; three-quarters receive less than $2,000.

Much more needs doing to assure that the accomplishments of science in extending the life-span will be translated into years of dignity and fulfillment.

Candidates

The Chattanooga News-Free Press

The Republican party is having a tough time with its prospective presidential candidates for 1964, showing very little promise when the fumbling of the Democratic incumbent should be inspiring optimism.

★ ★ ★

If ever there were a record of failure to run against with the promise of improvement, the Republicans can find it in the Kennedy ineptness that coddles Communism in Cuba and runs up huge deficits while imposing dangerously depressing influences on the nation's economy.

★ ★ ★

But the Republicans aren't doing much good bringing forth a man who offers the kind of leadership the country needs.

Goldwater flatly declares he isn't running for President, which suits many of the "me-too" Republican liberals.

Trying to drum up new personalities, the GOP has run into denials by Gov. George Romney who has his hands full in his own state, and from Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania.

That should leave too-liberal Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in fine shape. Admittedly, he is (unfortunately) the GOP front-runner.

★ ★ ★

If it's a Kennedy-Rockefeller choice, many voters are going to prefer uninstructed electors favoring neither the GOP candidate nor the present Administration.

Ship Travel

The Washington Post

Old-fashioned travelers — and some not so old-fashioned — will be glad of a statistic recently released by the French Line that the queen of its fleet, the "France," grossed $22.7 million during the first year of operation.

This graceful liner of 66,348 tons, the third largest in the world, made 44 crossings of the North Atlantic during its first year, besides several cruises, and she brought untold pleasure to thousands of passengers who still look upon a sea voyage as a great adventure, as indeed it is.

★ ★ ★

A few gourmets like to eat their way across the Atlantic; a cholesterol - haunted friend, about to sail on the "France," observed a few days ago that he did not intend to go to sea on so fine a ship and live on spinach.

A few years ago we heard that the days of the great passenger liners were numbered. Older people would fly it was argued, and young people who wanted to go to sea would require cheap accommodations.

★ ★ ★

One promoter even went so far as to plan a floating dormitory with a cafeteria. Although useless extravagance in ocean travel is undoubtedly growing rare, comfortable travel at a moderate price is here today.

A large proportion of the "France's" customers traveled in tourist class. We are glad that progress so - called has not eliminated the graceful liner from the seas, or from profitable operation that will encourage others to build and operate passenger ships.

The City Commission last night approved cost estimates and a public necessity resolution calling for a $76,249 blacktopping and curb repair project on 1.72 miles of Orchard Lake Avenue.

★ ★ ★

The proposed street improvement would stretch from the point where the Clinton River runs under Orchard Lake just west of Cass, to Telegraph.

Of the total estimated cost, about $45,205.17 would be paid by the State Highway Department with the city picking up $31,043.83 as its share.

About $8,265.35 of the local share would be raised through special assessments and the city would pay the remaining $22,-780.48 from gas and weight tax reserves.

TENTATIVELY APPROVED

The proposed improvement had been tentatively approved by commissioners at the request of the highway department several months ago.

It is part of the state's program for improvement of Orchard Lake prior to dropping it as a designated state trunkline.

In other business, commissioners formally approved a contract with Michael Haroutunian of 111 Douglas, Bloomfield Hills, for mobile food and beverage concessions at city parks this summer.

★ ★ ★

The concessions contract had been awarded to Haroutunian at last week's meeting. He was the only bidder for the contract, offering to pay the city 12 per cent of his gross sales for exclusive food and beverage concession rights in the parks.

An ordinance to rezone 24 acres of county-owned land was introduced and scheduled for a second reading and public hearing at the June 18 commission meeting.

The property is bounded by the Grand Trunk Western Railroad's belt line, Oakland, West Boulevard and Kennett.

★ ★ ★

The county had requested that it be rezoned from residential to manufacturing prior to sale to parties wishing to build an automobile dealership and service facility on the land.

Final approval of the rezoning is contingent on the owner agreeing to pay assessments to defray the cost of running water and sewer lines to the land.

The property has remained vacant and undeveloped over the years because it lacked water and sewage facilities.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners accepted a petition from property owners requesting the city to blacktop Tacoma and widen its entrance off Baldwin as part of the 1963 street improvement program.

Cost estimates for the job will be prepared for presentation at a future meeting.

Previous proceedings and hearings on a proposed resurfacing project on Waldo were rescinded and deleted from city records by a special resolution approved last night.

REVISED ESTIMATES

The resolution ordered the city engineer to prepare revised estimates for the project which would include storm-sewer replacement on Waldo.

Commissioners received and filed for further study a request from owners of the Gridiron Bar & Grill, 93 Montcalm, asking that the commission approve upgrading their tavern license to a Class C liquor license.

Approval was granted a resolution to drop proposed resurfacing and curb repair projects on portions of Boston, Dakota and Illinois from the 1963 street improvement program.

★ ★ ★

Plans for the projects this year were deleted at the request of affected property owners on the three streets.

★ ★ ★

A public hearing on the special assessment roll covering blacktopping and curb repairs on Mohawke was scheduled for the June 11 commission meeting.

Public hearings were completed on rolls for paving of parts of Harvey, Howard, Inglewood, Stanley and Third.

Work will now proceed on those projects as soon as the contract is awarded for this year's street paving program.

ALREADY COMPLETED

The special assessment roll for an already-completed curb reconstruction project on Mill between Huron and Mt. Clemens was confirmed in one payment.

In the interests of public safety, Commissioner Milton R. Henry requested that legal action be considered to alleviate what he considered were hazardous conditions existing at Sam Allen & Son Inc., 22 Congress, a scrap metal firm.

Henry complained that the scrap iron was stacked too high, the fence around the junk yard didn't meet requirements in city ordinances governing such enclosures and that junk was being dragged into the yard in a manner that was damaging asphalt on a city street.

City Manager Robert A. Stierer said that the owners of the firm had already taken action to correct some of the conditions and he would have a report on scrap yard conditions in general for commissioners in the near future.

"We are studying the problems with several scrap yard operators with thoughts of improving similar situations in other areas and possibly updating our ordinance controlling such yards."

★ ★ ★

Commissioner Winford E. Bottom asked Stierer to see if railroad crossings on Montcalm and Walton could be repaired to correct existing holes and uneven grades.

Cab Quota Set at 89 Licenses

Number Established by City Commission

The City Commission has established a total quota of 89 taxicab licenses in Pontiac — the same number as requested by cab companies — for the 1963-64 license year.

★ ★ ★

A resolution, approved by a 6-1 vote at last night's meeting, also set the quotas for individual cab companies at the number of 1963 licenses requested by each licensee.

Yellow Cab Co. will get a maximum of 58 licenses, Chief Pontiac Cab Co., 17, and Oakland Cab Co., 14.

Oakland had 12 licenses in the year just ending and had asked for two more for the new license year which begins Monday.

★ ★ ★

The others are getting the same number they were issued last year.

There was considerable discussion over the resolution, with emphasis on a clause in the city taxicab control ordinance which empowers the commission to revoke any license if it is not used on a daily basis.

FAVOR LIMIT

Mayor Robert A. Landry and Commissioner Milton R. Henry strongly favor limiting the issuance of cab licenses only to companies which can prove they have the same number of cabs in daily use.

Their chief bone of contention is that Yellow Cab Co. holds 58 licenses but operates less than 40 cabs on a daily basis except in peak periods of bad weather.

"I don't care how many licenses a firm has," Landry noted, "if they don't use them they shouldn't have them."

Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr. cast the lone vote against the ordinance last week and the quota - setting resolution last night.

★ ★ ★

He based his vote on the contention that the city is "attempting to interfere with competition" by reserving the right "to limit licenses for one company and not the others.

★ ★ ★

Henry argued that "We are acting in the public interest when we attempt to assure our citizens adequate taxicab transportation."

County Gains in Millage Fight

Recommended Figure for School Unit Cut

By DICK HANSON

Oakland County government wrested the second of three falls from the County School Board yesterday in bidding for larger shares of the 15-mill local tax levy.

Whether the monetary victory has any lasting effect will be learned Monday when the County Tax Allocation Board sets final rates for distribution of the 15 mills.

Allocation board members, acting as a committee, yesterday recommended 5.19 mills for county government, .10 for the county school board, between 8.31 and 9.71 for school districts and approximately 1.15 mills for townships where applicable.

★ ★ ★

The recommendation will be acted upon when the board reconvenes in the County Health Department auditorium Monday at 8:30 a.m.

★ ★ ★

The board previously set preliminary rates that were the same for school districts and townships but would give the county government 5.16 mills and the county school board .13 mills.

SAME MEMBERS

The same members serve on the allocation board as serve on the committee.

★ ★ ★

The shifting of .03 mills from the school board to county government was recommended by the committee in a 4 to 2 vote.

County School Board Director William J. Emerson has indicated that he will appeal to the State Tax Commission if the school board doesn't get at least .13 mills.

He said the school board has the right to expect anything it asks for up to four mills, providing the amount is required by the general education budget.

★ ★ ★

Emerson originally requested .16 mills to finance a proposed $370,832 budget next year.

County government asked for 5.94 mills toward a proposed $17 million budget in 1964.

The committee's recommendation would give townships the same millage they got last year and the 30 school districts in the county .04 mills less. The difference would go toward the County School Board's allocation.

This is the first year the school board has submitted a separate request. Previously its financial needs were included in the annual budget for county government.

Firemen Help Finance Station

Pontiac fire fighters will play a hand in expanding their own facilities by loaning funds to build a new branch fire station.

The City Commission last night approved borrowing $150,000 from the Police and Fire Pension Fund for constructing and equipping a fire station on property adjacent to Sno-Bol, Inc., 25 W. Walton.

★ ★ ★

The Police and Fire Retirement System had already authorized the loan to be paid back in two installments of $75,000 each plus 4.5 per cent interest.

The installments are due Sept. 1 of 1964 and 1965. They are to be made from capital improvement funds.

About $120,000 of the total will go into construction of the new fire station serving the north side. The remaining money will be used for equipping the station.

Approval of last night's resolution also signaled the opening of a drive to recruit new fire fighters to fill several immediate openings and to staff the new station when it's completed.

City officials hope to have construction completed by the end of the year.

Young men between the ages of 21 and 28, with the equivalent of a high school diploma, are being sought.

★ ★ ★

Interested parties should apply for further information at the personnel department in City Hall, 35 S. Parke, before June 28.

★ ★ ★

A civil service examination will be given applications July 13. Salary of fire fighters starts at $4,983 and progresses to $6,049 in a three-year period.

Fears Mix-Up in College Vote

John W. Brook is afraid voters in the Oakland County community college election June 10 might mistake him for John C. Brooks, and vice versa.

Brook of Hazel Park has asked the board of education for a designation on the ballot to distinguish him from Brooks, of Birmingham.

Both men are candidates for the six-man board of trustees.

The Hazel Park Brook has asked that he be permitted to use an occupational designation of "educator" underneath his name on the ballot.

Brook said the ballot tag would avoid confusion. He said a similar occupational designation would be appropriate for the Birmingham Brooks.

William J. Emerson, county school superintendent, said the issue would be turned over to the school board, but that many of the ballots were already printed.

The matter could require a special meeting of the county school board because it is not scheduled to meet until after the June 10 vote.

Attorney Leaving Police Trial Board

Pontiac attorney H. Malcolm Kahn last night resigned from the Police Trial Board.

Kahn, in a letter to the City Commission, said he was resigning because he is moving outside the city. Trial board members must be Pontiac residents.

Kahn was appointed to the board in 1957 and reappointed last year. His present term runs until 1967. A successor will be appointed to the vacancy in the near future.

★ ★ ★

A former chairman of the board, the attorney was praised by Mayor Robert A. Landy as a board member "who served the city faithfully and well."

Let Bride Have Her Day!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I used to think some of the letters in your column were too ridiculous to be true, until I found myself with a problem that probably appears just as ridiculous.

ABBY

My husband's sister is 58, and looks every day of it. She taught school for 33 years and never married. This summer she "fell in love" with a widower who must be 60. They will marry in September.

She wants a big church wedding, with a white gown and veil, and she's asked my husband to give her away! Now really, Abby! The minister says she is entitled to it. But picture a gray-haired "bride" walking down the aisle on the arm of her brother who is 16 years her junior!

We'll be the laughingstock of the community. If we can't talk her out of it, I intend to get a "sick headache" the day of the wedding and stay home. Or am I the one who is crazy?

SISTER-IN-LAW

DEAR SISTER-IN-LAW: Don't be so concerned about what the "community" will think. It's the bride's day.

Let her do as she wishes. And out of respect to your husband, take two aspirin and go with him.

DEAR ABBY: I would like your opinion of stretch pants.

CHARLIE

★ ★ ★

DEAR CHARLIE: I think they are more fitting than proper.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Betrayed" to continue to accept the pies and sweet smiles of her neighbor, as before.

If the relationship of her husband and this neighbor had gone further than it should have, her husband would never have breathed a word of it to her.

He no doubt got the brush-off and is now trying to save his ego.

Wash Stuffed Animals

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Do you or any of your readers know how to wash or clean stuffed animals? I would like to know as my baby loves to play with them but they get so dirty. Mrs. J. T. D.

DEAR POLLY — A lot of teenagers read your column, so here is one for those who have stuffed animals that are a bit dirty.

Make suds with a detergent in warm water and add some powdered bleach. Dip in a brush in the suds and rub it briskly over the animal.

After it is clean, toss the animal in the air a few times to fluff up the fur, then let dry. — J. J.

* * *

DEAR POLLY — With seven children in our family, the garage was always cluttered with bikes, wagons, doll buggies and other big toys.

I emptied the garage and painted lines similar to those in a parking lot on the floor.

In each block I wrote a child's name. Now they each park their own equipment in place instead of dropping things just inside the door. Order has been restored to our garage. — E. R.

* * *

DEAR POLLY —I hate to have my coat dragging on the floor at the theater. I sew two pairs of dress snaps inside the bottom of the front facing of the coat, snap them together and the coat stays off the floor. — M.S.

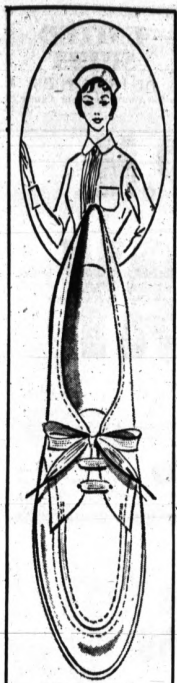

* * *

DEAR POLLY — If you are going to fill in nail holes in new woodwork, cabinets, etc., save some of the sawdust from the same wood.

Mix with wood glue and use a paint or paring knife to fill the holes. After a coat of shellac or varnish is applied, it all blends in perfectly.

This works better than using a putty pencil which often does not match the wood as perfectly as the sawdust does. — Mrs. G. L.

Junior Editors Quiz on STARLIGHT

QUESTION: How can light move between the heavenly bodies in space?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: In 1666 Sir Isaac Newton decided that a light ray was made up of tiny particles called corpuscles. Christian Huygens, the Dutch physicist, also studied light and decided that light travels in waves.

Much later it was found that both men were really right. It was found that light rays were made up of tiny packets of energy called photons but that these seem to travel in waves.

Light waves are different from sound waves, because sound waves must have some substance, like air or ground to travel through. But the little photons of light rays, which are electric in nature, can race through space without any air to help them.

The speed at which they move is said to be the fastest possible speed by which anything can travel. Our artist has tried to symbolize this speed with the little dashing figures of the Roman god Mercury who is supposed to be carrying a beam of light at the amazing speed of 186,282 miles per second, which modern measurements give as the speed of light.

The picture on top was made to show how enormous the distances in space really are. Just suppose we could get to the star Rigel and could somehow pick up earch in a telescope, the earth light we saw would have started from each in 1492, the year Columbus discovered America in the Santa Maria.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: We hear so many stories about space travel that it would be interesting for you to memorize this: if it is ever possible to travel in a space ship at the speed of light, it would take us over four years to get to the nearest star, Proxima Centauri.

Blind Girl Wins Damages From Actor

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Superior Court jury has ordered actor Dana Andrews to pay $5,000 damages to a blind girl injured in a traffic accident involving Andrews' car.

★ ★ ★

Diane Ward, 18, of Woodland Hills, Calif., had sued Andrews for $100,000.

She said she suffered head injuries Dec. 28, 1956, when a car in which she was riding was struck by Andrews' auto in suburban North Hollywood.

Andrews admitted liability and did not appear during the trial.

Ex-Solon Convicted on Support Charge

DETROIT (AP) — Former State Rep. O. Roosevelt Diggs was convicted of nonsupport by Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat yesterday. Diggs' estranged wife, Lee, brought the charge.

Judge Groat placed Diggs, 37, on a year's probation and ordered him to pay $40 a week through the court toward support of his wife and two of their children.

Jones Solid Favorite to Win 500-Mile Race

Turns 'Indy' Over 150 MPH in Final Test

Defending Champion Ward in New Car; 3 Novis Ready

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)— Parnelli Jones, the race driver's race driver will start Thursday's 47th Memorial Day classic as the most solid favorite since Billy Vukovich took the 500-mile event for the second straight year in 1954.

Jones not only set new qualifying standards in the one-car-at-a-time trials but he practiced, with the Indianapolis Motor Speedway full of cars, at speeds greater than the other drivers made in qualifications.

The quiet-voiced, 29-year-old Torrance, Calif., driver turned four laps at more than 150 miles an hour in the final carburetion tests Tuesday afternoon. He had one at more than 151 in his pearl, red and blue Agajanian special.

Jones was the only one of Thursday's 33 starters who reached 151 over the 10-mile trials. A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., the 1961 winner, was second best a 150.6, but he qualified on the second day and will start in eighth place. Parnelli has the No. 1 pole position.

Both Jones and Foyt have cars powered by four-cylinder Offenhauser engines. Foyt was running at 150 in the final practice session.

Rear-engined Lotus-Fords, driven by Grand Prix racers Dan Gurney and Scotland's Jimmy Clark, ran smoothly at 148 in the final session.

They rate a chance to win even if they can't maintain the probable record pace of the American chargers because they may get by with single pit stops. The Offys probably will need three or four.

Jones has been rated a strong contender since he first appeared at the old track two years ago. A faulty magneto spoiled his chances in 1961 and he lost his brakes last year after setting a record pace at the start.

★ ★ ★

Jones will share the front row in the flying start, about 11 a.m. EST Thursday, with Jim Hurtubise of North Tonawanda, N.Y., former qualification record holder, who qualified a supercharged Novi at 150.3, and veteran Don Branson, Champaign, Ill., who is a teammate of Rodger Ward, Indianapolis, two-time 500 winner.

Branson qualified Ward's 1962 winning Offenhauser at 150.1 and Ward earned a second row berth in a new Offy at 149.8.

The 42-year-old Ward, the U.S. Auto Club's national champion last year, will be starting his 13th straight 500. He will have Clark, who was No. 2 in world road racing standings last year, beside him. Jim McElreath of Arlington, Tex., who finished sixth last year in his first 500, will start on the outsident of the second row.

Gurney put his Lotus-Ford in 12th place, the outside of the fourth row. Eddie Sachs of Detroit, who charged from 27th to third last year, will be on the inside of the same row in the No. 10 position.

WIND PROBLEM

Strong gusty winds throughout the qualifications, as well as assorted engine troubles, scattered noted pilots throughout the lineup and the original order probably won't last long. Troy Ruttman of Dearborn, who became the 500's youngest winner in 1952 at the age of 22, will start in last place because of a late qualification.

The Novis will be the only three-car team in the field and the 700-plus horsepower brutes evidently have been tamed by owner Andy Granatelli, who bought the unique racers two years ago.

They failed to qualify for three years. With remodeled engines, Hurtubise, rookie Bobby Unser of Albuquerque, N.M., and rookie Art Malone of Tampa, Fla., got into Thursday's lineup.

Two of Mickey Thompson's tiny, turtle-shaped cars made the program. Drivers are 50-year-old Duane Carter of Indianapolis, starting his 11th 500 from 15th position, and Al Miller, a balding 39-year-old speedway rookie from Roseville, who will start in 31st.

Play Starts Tomorrow

Preps Set for Tourney

There is no clear-cut favorite in the lower bracket of the high school baseball tournament beginning tomorrow at Jaycee No. 2 diamond.

★ ★ ★

The four teams have all had their ups and downs this season. Pontiac Northern has the best record of the group, 10-2.

Avondale and Kettering are on hot streaks, while Clarkston has been hot-and-cold most of the season. A determining factor could be the tough schedules encountered this week.

Most of the local teams are closing their diamond seasons this week and key games were planned for all four squads.

PNH defeated Waterford and Pontiac Central Monday and Tuesday. Clarkston lost to Milford Monday and will play Northville this afternoon.

Kettering beat Waterford Tuesday and will play tough Romeo today. Avondale, fighting for the Oakland A title, will journey to Oak Park today.

The Yellow Jackets have won seven straight games and could be the dark horse of the Pontiac Press-Parks and Recreation Department's second annual tournament.

ONE TWO PUNCH

Lynn Thorpe and Dennis Acker have proved a potent one-two mound punch, and lately sophomore Mike Meyers has given them added depth with good showings.

The youthful Yellow Jackets lack tourney experience and consistent hitting.

They will meet Pontiac Northern at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow under the lights in what could be the top game of the day.

The Huskies have been beaten only by Berkley this season. They have won seven of their last eight games. Mike Marcum has been over .500 most of the season at the plate.

Marcum, Mike Burklow and Roger Hayward form a strong hill staff. Burklow is hitting around .400.

Kettering started very slowly but now has won seven of the last nine games. Bob Bogert is carrying much of the pitching burden with some assistance from Dale Manning and Rick Pankey.

★ ★ ★

Clarkston has depended heavily on Johnny Williams' (7-2) pitching in building a 9-4 log this season. The Wolves have only one senior on the team.

Leading the hitting are Jon Gary, .400, Ken Miskin, .366, and sophomore cleanup hitter Gary Pearson, .334.

Clarkston will play Kettering at 5:30 p.m. The winers of the two lower bracket games will meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the semifinal round.

In the upper bracket are Pontiac Central which will meet defending champion Northville at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow, and powerful Royal Oak Kimball which will play Rochester at 3:30 p.m.

KEYSTONE CUTOFF — Leading 2-0 in the top of the fifth yesterday at Pontiac Northern, PCH attempted to sacrifice leadoff runner Dick Bushey (sliding) to second base. Mike Marcum made a good throw to shortstop Mike Burklow (stretching for throw) to nip the lead runner and take the Chiefs out of a possible big inning. Umpire George Gary made the out call. Central lost, 7-3.

PNH Pulls Even With Central, 7-3

By JERE CRAIG

Pontiac Northern pulled even with Pontiac Central in baseball yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies rallied for a 7-3 victory that squared the annual diamond series between the two arch rivals at 4-4.

The winners registered a big five spot in the fifth inning yesterday on their home field, and then iced the decision with two more markers in the sixth.

Mike Marcum singled in the two runs that put PNH ahead to stay with two out in the fifth. Had the Central infield converted the made-to-order double play grounder on the previous batter, there wiuld have been no runs scored in the decisive frame.

★ ★ ★

But the Chiefs only retired the batter, permitting the first Northern run to score; and Marcum then put the Huskies ahead, 3-2, with his single. Roger Hayward followed with a booming home run to deep right-centerfield for two more runs.

TWO MORE

The winners led off the bottom of the sixth inning with three straight singles, and although the next three batters couldn't get one out of the infield, two insurance runs came across.

Marcum replaced Mike Burklow on the mound for the Huskies at the start of the fourth inning and picked up the victory. He permitted only a fourth-inning single and an unearned marker in the last inning.

The Chiefs had all six of their hits in the first four innings, but left six runners stranded during that time. Craig Zadosko tripled as the first hitter to face Marcum, but was left on third base three outs later.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs left 10 runners on base in the game, and PNH had five base runners left on the sacks.

Lolich Gives Tiger Hurling Welcome Shot

Beats Los Angeles, 3-1 as McAuliffe Hits HR; First Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP)— The Detroit Tigers—long suffering in the pitching department—got a welcome shot in the arm Tuesday night as rookie lefthander Mickey Lolich pitched the Tigers to a 3-1 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

The triumph before some 7,000 fans at Chavez Ravine was the first major league victory for the 22-year-old Lolich, who had four losing minor league seasons.

★ ★ ★

In addition to Lolich's pitching, Dick McAuliffe contributed a decisive margin of victory for the Tigers with a two-run homer in the sixth. It was his fourth of the season.

Lolich, who was making his first start against the Angels, had a three-hit shut-out going into the sixth inning of the three-game opener.

The Tigers scored their first run in the third on a single by Billy Bruton, a walk to Rocky Colavito and Norm Cash's single.

McAuliffe's homer into the right-center field stands scored Cash, who had been hit by a pitched ball.

The Angels lone run come in the sixth on a walk, a single by Leon Wagner and a throwing error by McAuliffe which let Billy Moran score.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Polo players are a loyal and hardy lot.

They are so confident that the renaissance of polo in this area is so near that they continue to lend their active influence even though their counter-parts in other fast moving sports have "retired" to the golf courses.

Who are these men whom we refer to as "they?"

The "ring-leader" is Detroit businessman, Ben Levinson, who keep his polo ponies in a stable in Commerce Township.

Names like George Benjamin, Rich Gibson, Wendell Smith, Tom Young, Len Foley, Gordon Miller, Merle Jenkins, Harold Garian, Franklin Levinson, Chuck Grant and Bob Jubelt comprise the most active echelon in polo in this area.

Several of these including Miller, who has his stables in Rochester; Smith in Birmingham, Young in Lansing, Benjamin of Bloomfield Hills and Levinson, all admit to being past 50.

VERY ACTIVE

Some of the others are within range of the age, yet this doesn't stop them from vigorously swinging the mallet in a dozen or more chukkers a week. (A chukker is a period of 7½ minutes).

When the Ivory Polo Rangers disbanded their site several years ago on Eight Mile Road, the sport began hurting for competitors and sites.

Only thing left for the poloists were the impromptu matches at any available field, many right here in Oakland County, before a handful of spectators.

MATCH PLAYED

Last weekend at State Fair Coliseum in Detroit, polo proudly waved its colors in an annual benefit match for the Amvets and more than 2,000 turned out to watch.

The result showed the Amvet All-Stars defeating Miller's Rochester Rockets, 9-8, and the audience applauded approval of the six chukkers played.

"It was a definite sign that polo is still alive," said Gibson, who spends much of his spare time teaching the finer points of the game to younger students at Bloomfield's Hunt Club.

One of the youngest active players competing in men's highly competitive matches at the Royal Palm Polo Club in Boca Raton, Fla., is Franklin Levinson, who at 17 has 10 years of riding behind him.

"We've got to introduce more boys like Franklin into the game," said Gibson, the veteran Birmingham rider, and I think polo can make a big comeback in Michigan."

With the names already mentioned plus names such as Ivory and Stefani among others, Michigan does have a proud history in polo.

This is why the Millers, Smiths, Levinsons, Gibsons are still playing polo instead of taking to less strenuous activities. They are trying gamely to keep the dust from collecting on Michigan's polo archives.

Palmer Will Play Area Benefit Match

Two nationally famed golfers, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player, will compete in an exhibition match this summer at Orchard Lake Country Club for the benefit of Camp Oakland.

The golf match, is scheduled for Tuesday, August 6.

Sponsored by the Women's Committee for Camp Oakland, the benefit will be open to the public. Tickets will be available through members of the committee.

The rivalry matches date back two years. Player is currently one up in 31 matches.

Camp Oakland conducts five separate programs for children and youth on its 300-acre lakeside site. Largest of the program is one in which 500 under-privileged children are given two weeks of free camping every summer.

Hazel Park Re-Opens

HAZEL PARK (AP) — Racing will resume tonight at Hazel Park Raceway following a two-day shutdown. The track was forced to close Monday and Tuesday for the second time this season because of a virus that has hit horses at Hazel Park and other tracks.

Shutouts in City Softball

Two shutouts marked play in the recreation softball leagues last night.

In the city's Class A league, Monicatti whitewashed Martin Associates, 1-0, and Arro Realty made it two straight by blanking Elks 810, 4-0.

Other games saw Harvey's Colonial House remain atop the "A" circuit by beating Howe's Lanes, 5-2. Bud & Lou's Bar stopped Pontiac Millwork, 10-3.

In Waterford Township recreation "C" ball, Dinky's Hideaway took Rockcote Paint, 8-4, scoring seven runs in the fifth and sixth innings; and Haskins Chevrolet whipped Dixie Bar, 12-6, aided by an eight-run fourth inning.

Lee Sherby wielded the calcimine brush for Monicatti and Bob Sherman's sacrifice fly tallied the lone run. Harvey Avesian hurled a three-hitter and scored the only run he needed on Bud Hayward's single in the third inning for Arro Realty.

Harvey's won its third staight by pounding nine hits, including a triple by Jim Long and a double by Gene Shell. Bud & Lou's tallied nine times in the fourth inning on only three singles to win its non-league game.

Hot Kettering Tops Skippers on Diamond

St. Mike's, Kimball Post Triumphs; Rain Dampens O-A Race

Waterford Kettering surprised arch rival Waterford High School yesterday on the home team's diamond to feature the thinning prep baseball card.

The Captains posted a 4-1 victory behind Bob Bogert's three-hit hurling. Other scores were St. Michael 4-1 over Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, and Royal Oak Kimball apparently clinched the EML title with a 13-0 win at Birmingham Seaholm.

The two key Oakland A League contests, Avondale-Madison and Clawson-Oak Park, were postponed by wet grounds.

Kettering snapped a 1-1 tie with two unearned runs in the fifth inning. Rick Pankey and Ray Hedding both tripled to account for the winners' other two runs.

The win was the Captains' seventh in the last nine games and squared their record at 7-7. Waterford is 7-9. Larry McGuffey was the losing hurler, despite a four-hit effort.

Kimball's Steve Wilson pitched a no-hitter at Seaholm and was backed by a 16-hit attack for the winners. Helping his eight-strikeout cause were home runs and triples by Gary Weckerly and Gene Muenchausen.

Kimball is 13-0 this year, and 7-0 in the EML with a protest by Roseville still pending.

St. Mike's evened its record in the final game of the season as Gary Kraft hurled a two-hitter against FOLS. Both hits were triples in the losers' two-run fourth inning.

The Mikemen pushed their win total to five aided by three unearned runs in the first inning on no hits. They added an insurance marker in the fourth.

Milford Golf Team Completes Best Season

Milford completed the most successful golf season in the school's history yesterday by defeating Ypsilanti High 337-346 at Washtenaw Country Club.

The Redskins, who finished with a 17-3 record, were paced by Tim Barnes' 82. Bill McCormick had an 84.

Bald Mountain Ace

Raymond Davis of Pontiac yesterday fired the third ace in four days at Bald Mountain golf course. Davis holed out a nine-iron shot on the 170-yard No. 17. He had a 38 for the round.

Lord Gordon Popular

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP)—Lord Gordon is favored to win the $85,663 Realization Trot at Roosevelt Raceway tonight.

THE PALMER METHOD
FOLLOW ON THROUGH AFTER IMPACT

Allowing the left arm to collapse and moving the clubhead up in too abrupt an arc after impact causes both a loss of distance and an off-line shot. Remedy this by swinging the clubhead toward the target for as long as possible after impact.

With my right palm and the back of my left hand facing the target (see illustration #2), I'm swinging the clubhead low to the ground as it "follows" the ball after impact. You'll also notice that both arms are extended naturally.

Halfway through the finish (see illustration #3), my arms are still extended. My left arm has not collapsed, although it's just beginning to bend. My right arm, however, is absolutely straight. If, at this point, I took the club away and pointed my right index finger, it would be aimed directly at my target.

Rally Nips Talbott

Collision Team Triumphs

The M. G. Collision team punched across two runs after two were out in the final inning last night to defeat Talbott Lumber, 6-5, in a city Class A baseball game.

★ ★ ★

Still short of "A" quality, the recreation league had its most exciting game of the season last night as the lead changed hands three times aided by shoddy fielding.

Gilbert Trevino laced a double to the left field corner to score the tying and winning runs after the first two men had been retired in the final inning.

A dropped fly, a walk by losing hurler Dean Duffey, and then Trevino's second hit of the night killed Talbott's hopes for a come-from-behind victory in the league opener for both teams.

★ ★ ★

The winners jumped into a 3-0 lead in the first inning, but Talbott fought back with two runs in the second and third innings, and a single marker in the fourth while holding M. G. scoreless.

Tim Conway came in to relieve Dick Lamphere after the fifth run by the losers and stopped the lumbermen with two hits to gain the win.

There were 12 walks and nine errors in the contest, with the losers receiving eight free passed but commiting six of the miscues.

The next Class A contest will be 8 p.m. Sunday night at Jaycee No. 2 between the Barbers and Huron-Airway.

Paces Orioles to Win

Smith Finds New Home

By The Associated Press

The latest member of Baltimore's hero-a-game club is Al Smith, a 35-year-old veteran who latched onto the brass ring after stepping off a merry-go-round.

Smith tagged a three-run homer that capped a four-run fifth inning uprising as the Orioles ran their winning streak to nine games and ballooned their American League lead to 3½ lengths by defeating Kansas City 4-2 Tuesday night.

★ ★ ★

Acquired in an off-season trade with the Chicago White Sox, Smith has found himself in an unusual role with the Orioles. He has been playing only one position instead of commuting between the infield and outfield as in most of his 11-year major league career.

The move has paid off for the Orioles, with the talented handyman settling in as an outfield regular and concentrating on his hitting. During the Orioles' streak he has hit at a .381 clip, raising his average to .293 with seven homers and 17 runs batted in.

LONGEST STREAK

The Orioles' latest victory—marking the longest winning streak in the majors this season—also was their 14th in 15 games and increased their edge over the second-place New York Yankees, who were belted by Boston 11-6.

Minnesota's Twins also continued their winning march, rolling to victory No. 8 in a row and reaching the .500 level for the first time by beating Washington 6-3 on Bob Allison's three-run homer with two out in the last of the ninth.

★ ★ ★

In other AL action, Cleveland edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2 and rookie Mickey Lolich won his first game in the majors as Detroit whipped the Los Angeles Angels 3-1.

★ ★ ★

Smith's decisive homer followed a run-producing double by shortstop Luis Aparico, traded to th Orioles along with Smith in the deal that sent pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, outfielder Dave Nicholson and infielder Ron Hansen and Pete Ward to the White Sox.

Smith's blow off loser Ted Bowsfield also handed the victory to Robin Roberts, who stayed on to pitch against the A's despite the death of his father Sunday. Roberts, bringing his record to 4-4, had a two-hit shutout for seven innings but needed relief help from Dean Stone and Stu Miller to get the victory.

YANKS BOMBED

The Red Sox got the job done against the Yankees with a 15-hit explosion. Gary Geiger hit his fourth homer in as many games and Lou Clinton chipped in with another two-run shot while Ed Bressoud singled home two runs in a four-run second inning, tripled home a run in a three-run third and singled to start a four-run sixth. Bill Monbouquette was the winner, with Bill Stafford taking the loss.

Allison's game-winning shot off Ron Kline followed a double by Lenny Green and a walk to Vic Power and snapped the Twins' slugger out of an 0-for-15 skid. The Senators, losers of nine of 10 and 15 of their last 17 games, had tied the score in the top of the ninth on Chuck Cottier's run-scoring single and a two-run homer by Don Lock.

Koufax Takes Cue From Sinatra

By The Associated Press

Sandy Koufax obviously is taking his cue from Frank Sinatra, who once played the part of "The Man with the Golden Arm." It was about a poker player who rarely lost while dealing.

And that, of course, is the story of the Los Angeles Dodgers' Man with the Golden Arm. When he's dealing he doesn't lose.

He was dealing well enough Tuesday night, blanking Milwaukee 7-0 on six hits, his fourth shutout of the season, and pitching the Dodgers to within one game of National League leading San Francisco.

The Giants suffered a rain-interrupted 10-6 bombing at Cincinnati. St. Louis closed to within three games on the strength of a 10-inning 8-7 conquest of Houston, Chicago's surprising Cubs moved into fourth place by beating the New York Mets 5-2, and Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh 5-1, all in night games.

LOWERED AREA

Koufax, who was on his way to a fantastic season last year before he was sidelined with a circulatory ailment in the index finger on his pitching hand, lowered his earned run average to 1.52 with the shutout of the Braves.

The Dodger lefty, author of two no-hit games, had to work harder than the score would indicate to win his seventh against two defeats. He was locked in a scoreless struggle with Milwaukee lefthander Denny Lemaster until Frank Howard stroked a 3-2 pitch over the left field wall with one out in the seventh.

It was only the fourth hit of fthe hard-luck Lemaster, who was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh and has only a 2-3 record to show for a gaudy 1.47 earned run average.

Jim O'Toole got the benefit of Cincinnati's free-swinging attack on San Francisco and became the first pitcher in the NL to win eight games. He has lost three.

SS Neversail Floats on Sand

Pontiac Lake Project Launched Yesterday

The good ship SS Neversail was launched yesterday — into a berth of sand.

And true to its name, the vessel is doomed to remain in the same place on the sandy beach at Pontiac Lake state park 50 feet from the water.

The 17-foot ship is for the youngsters to use when they are on the beach. The first crew is expected to report aboard tomorrow.

"If anyone gets an idea that the Neversail will float, and tries it," said Marc E. Meyer, assistant manager of the Pontiac Lake recreation area, "he is going to be in for a dunking. I don't think it would get 30 feet from shore before capsizing."

Paul Wigg, area manager, credits Meyer "with initiating the boat building project and carrying it through."

The reason the Neversail is not seaworthy, according to Meyer, is because heavy oak planking was used and "the boat was designed as we went along."

"The wood we used came from an old barn on state property," he explained. "In fact, everything on the boat is salvage material. The actual cost was only $11."

WINTER PROJECT

Wigg said the ship was constructed inside the maintenance garaged uring the winter.

"The men worked on it when the weather was too inclement to work outside," he said.

When building the Neversail, the workmen followed the curve of the planks, which had become warped over the years, to shape the hull. Water pipes were used for the hand rails. The "flying bridge" contains a steering wheel and automobile dash instruments.

The Treasure Unlimited chapter of the Michigan Skindivers Assn. cleaned the Pontiac Lake state park beach Saturday.

"They started at one end, out in the water, and went to the other," said Wigg. "A lot of debris was picked up, some of it could have been dangerous for swimmers."

Bass End Annual Holdout Saturday

Michigan's last fishing holdout of 1963, the blackbass, will be forced into signing an agreement with the anglers Saturday.

★ ★ ★

This doesn't mean the large and smallmouth varieties will be any more cooperative than they have been in the past.

A contract means nothing to the largest member of the sunfish family.

The season will officially get under way at 12:01 a.m. Saturday. It will end Dec. 31. All inland waters and the Great Lakes will open Saturday. Canadian Great Lakes waters open the same day.

The size limit remains at 10 inches and the creel limit is still five.

The St. Clair flats, particularly on the Canadian side will get a heavy play the first weekend.

But the inland lakes in Oakland County will receive a lot of attention from anglers. Silver, Union and Pine will be at the head of the list.

★ ★ ★

Because of the cool spring, many bass have not moved onto spawning beds. This also holds true for bluegills.

Nightcrawlrs, both live and artificial, will be the preferred bait by anglers Saturday. Used with spinning equipment, this combination can be deadly when bass are on the prowl.

During the early morning hours, before dawn, many fishermen will plunk away with surface lures.

Cass Lake will get a good play from the smallmouth specialists. They will use minnows and crawfish in deep water.

Trout fishing continues to be sporadic in the area.

★ ★ ★

Bluegills are about as consistent as the weather. Pike have shown signs of improvement.

Heavy powerboat traffic on the lakes during the Memorial Day weekend is expected to keep many anglers away. Those who venture forth will probably confine their fishing to the early morning and evening hours.

Darrel Copeman, 7, of 54 S. Ardmore got his first big fishing thrill Sunday at Houghton Lake. While fishing with his father, Harold; and grandfather, Charles Driscoll of Houghton Lake, the youngster landed a 20½-inch northern pike and a 19½-inch walleye.

Lakeville Lake Stocked With 1,000 Legal Trout

Lakeville Lake has 1,000 new residents this week.

Businessmen in the Lakeville area, foiled in an earlier attempt to stock the lake with jumbo Lake Huron perch, solved the problem with another specie of fish.

The new additions are rainbow trout.

Purchased from a commercial hatchery near Harrisville, the legal-sized trout were placed in the lake Monday afternoon.

This ended a growing feud between the State Conservation Department and residents and businessmen of Lakeville.

"We have the permit from the Conservation Department this time," said Ray Bromley. "It took a little doing, but the permit is properly signed."

The department's refusal to issue a permit earlier this spring so that the perch could be released in the lake resulted in hard feelings between the townspeople and department officials.

The department's slow action on rejecting the perch permit resulted in the fish being ordered and arriving at the lake the same day the businessmen were told there would be no permit.

WORM PROBLEM

Department officials cited too many small panfish already in the lake and a red worm problem with perch from Saginaw Bay as the reasons for turning down the application.

The owner of a private lake near Lakeville purchased the perch so no money was lost in the venture.

The businessmen then found out that the department had classified the lake as being all right for rainbows.

Fishing Sites Studied

A full - scale review is being made of Michigan's public fishing sites by the Conservation Department to determine where camping may be continued without creating health problems within these areas.

Poaching Triggers MUCC Action

Grounded Geese Slain

LANSING (UPI)—The recent wanton slaughter of 14 Canada geese in the eastern Upper Peninsula has shocked Michigan United Conservation Clubs into action.

The MUCC is trying to raise $280 from interested sportsmen or citizens to replace the 14 birds, which had been transplanted in the U.P. wilds in an effort to start a new colony of geese. Cost of each bird is $20.

Two men, reportedly armed with 22 caliber rifles, poached on the land and killed the 14 helpless geese.

They were part of a 62-bird transplanting project in a spot so remote an air force helicopter had to fly them in.

Included were 12 three-year-old birds and 50 two-year-olds, whose wings were clipped to prevent them from flying elsewhere to nest. New feathers grown after the summer moult would enable them to migrate south in the fall.

MUCC executive director James L. Rouman said Canada geese have a strong tendency to return each year to the area of their birth. It is assumed the young birds, and their goslings hatched this year, will return to the wild marshland where they were planted. Other new goose colonies have been launched successfully this way.

Authorities doubt the slaughter will ruin the project but Rouman hastily adds "it certainly jeopardizes the program to provide better hunting for U.P. and other sportmen."

FEDERAL LAW

The Canada goose is a migratory bird and, as such, is protected by federal law. State and federal officers are working on the case but Rouman feels the MUCC "should accept the moral and financial burden of rectifying the act. After all, even the arrest of these men will not bring back the birds."

The geese were purchased with sportsmen's dollars from the state's fish and game fund at a total cost of $1,240.

"We feel the MUCC, as representative of the true sportsmen in Michigan, should take the lead in replacing the birds and removing the onus of this disgrace from all outdoorsmen," Rouman said.

Archery Course for Instructors Set June 17-20

An archery instructors' workshop will be held June 17-20 at Twin Springs Camp near Berrien Springs.

The workshop is sponsored by the outdoor education project of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

It is designed for teachers and leaders in schools, colleges camps, recreation departments and volunteer agencies. All phases of archery will be covered.

Additional information can be obtained from Julian W. Smith, director, outdoor education project, College of Education, Michigan State University.

Life History of Trout Received by Fisherman

LEWISTON (AP) — A fisherman friend was quite tickled recently to receive a life history of a brown trout he caught in the North Branch of the Au Sable River.

The fish had been tagged by the Institute for Fisheries Research of the State Conservation Department. Following instructions the friend sent back the tag.

In return, he received a report on the trout from the Hunt Creek trout research station at Lewiston. The fish, he learned, was one of 48 wild brown trout tagged and released during spring population studies.

The 9.1 inch trout grew zero inches and moved zero miles between the times of release and catch, the report said.

Attempts at fish marking apparently date back to before the times of Isaac Walton. In "The Compleat Angler", published in 1653, Walton mentions having heard of fish that were marked by tying ribbons to their tails.

Young salmon were marked with silver wire as long as 100 years ago. The State Conservation Department started marking fish with clip tags as early as 1927. Experiments with trout marking were particularly successful.

"The purpose of marking trout is to get some idea of the survival rate and to find out how fast they grow and whether they cover a wide or fairly restricted range," said A. B. Cook, head of the department's fish division.

STAY NEAR HOME

Brook trout rarely travel far in a stream, studies showed. Brown trout, although they move around a bit more, also tend to stay near their home, tagging experiments showed.

Rainbow trout are great wanderers, however. Rainbows released in a tributary stream of one of the Great Lakes have been recovered in another Great Lake tributary.

Trout released in a top quality stream—one with good feed available—will grow to be as large in two years as trout released in a poor stream do in four years, studies showed.

The rate of recovery of tagged fish is better in lakes than in streams. It is also believed that the survival rate is better.

A small metal or plastic tag is clipped to the jaw of the trout. The trout are still able to feed and the tag also allows for growth.

Most fishermen who catch a tagged trout cooperate by returning the tag.

Kensington Beach Open Memorial Day

Swimming facilities in Kensington Metropolitan Park south of Milford will open at both Martindale and Maple beach sites along Kent Lake starting Memorial Day through Sunday, June 2.

Showers, dressing rooms, first aid stations and food service will also be in operation at the two beach sites with swimming permitted from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and only when lifeguards are on duty.

After this four - day holiday, swimming will continue on weekends only until daily use begins on Saturday, June 7 at Martindale Beach and Saturday, June 14 at Maple Beach.

The Island Queen, a 60-foot sternwheel excursion boat, will open the 1963 season with 45-minute tours around Kent Lake starting Memorial Day. Tour hours are noon through 6 p.m. daily.

Trading Moderate

Industrials Push Market Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, motors and other industrials moved higher in moderate trading early this afternoon to give the stock market a fairly substantial gain.

★ ★ ★

Advances of most key stocks were fractional, some going to around a point.

The quiet trading was normal for a pre-holiday session. The Exchanges will be closed tomorrow, Memorial Day.

NO JITTERS

Ability of the market to pass the anniversary of "Black Monday's" plunge without having the jitters yesterday was a psychological advantage and, meanwhile, business news remained reasonably good.

Even a cut in refined sugar prices while a Congressional investigation was starting into the recent leap in sugar prices did not disturb the sugar stocks. Most of them showed moderate gains.

★ ★ ★

Most chemicals, oils, rails, utilities, and nonferrous metals also moved higher, but with no particular excitement.

Chrysler, under a renewed state of buying, paced the automotive issues with a jump exceeding a point. General Motors, yesterday's most active gainer, added another fraction. Ford also nudged higher while American Motors and Studebaker traded about unchanged.

The American Stock Exchange prices moved irregularly higher in moderate trading.

Know Where They Stand

Teens Really Want Firm Rules

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Junior high school girls and boys just starting into their teens, are pulled between conforming to their peer groups and pleasing their parents.

DR. NASON

Although here is where they begin to move away from their families, the process is a long one and does not occur in one day or a month.

The routines and standards of their families, if insisted upon, give them the security of knowing exactly where they stand. The first appearance of undesirable behavior is the best time to show firmness.

Children need and, in many cases, welcome parental help in bucking the fads of their group which may actually be distasteful to them.

At such times, decision should not be left to teen-agers. They may realize that should they adopt the actions of the group it would embarrass them at home.

But it takes more courage than they have at their age to stand on their own and say "I don't want to do this."

One example of such a situation is the extreme hair styles of both girls and boys which begin to appear at this age.

In discussing this problem with me recently, a father said: "My junior high school boy had started to let his hair grow longer than his mother and I felt he should. He said the other boys were doing it and he wanted to be like the rest. I had heard stories of gangs of boys with long hair and did not want our son to be identified with groups of this caliber.

"After a short discussion with the boy, when he said 'Other boys let their hair grow longer. Their parents don't object,' I told him 'Your mother and I are not other parents. We are our family. This type of appearance is associated with actions of which we disapprove. Go to the barbershop and have your hair cut short and trim, and DO IT RIGHT NOW.'

"My tone of voice and positive statement left no room for argument. My son said 'Yes, sir!' and left with a grin. He was relieved to have me take the responsibility for a move he really wanted to make himself."

And a group of young adults recently were reminiscing about their junior and high school years.

One after another, statements of this type were made: "My mother laid down precise rules that often were a help to me. After a dance if the gang said 'Let's go on to another place,' I could calmly say 'My mother won't stand for it, You'll have to take me home first.'

"I didn't want to go in the first place, but it was easier to blame it on my mother than to admit to the group that I didn't want to go."

Other parental rules mentioned in the discussion that actually brought comfort and security were prohibitions against riding four in the front seat, in old jalopies, or with boys without proper drivers' licenses.

Those who were the strongest supporters of carefully drawn limits also mentioned the consistency with which the rules were enforced — the inevitable and immediate unhappy results which followed any breach.

And they recalled the complete agreement or solid front their parents presented to them in matters of discipline.

★ ★ ★

All these young people agreed their teen-age years were made happier through the definite limits on behavior insisted upon by their parents.

How do you go about planning your play at three no-trump? You have eight top tricks and possibilities of a ninth trick in each of three suits.

JACOBY

A squeeze is indicated and your problem is to lose four tricks to set up the squeeze.

You duck the first heart and win the second. Then you lead a third heart and West is back in the lead. Unless West is almost superhuman he will laugh happily and run off his last two hearts.

This play will constitute the so-called suicide squeeze. West will laugh, but East will have to make three discards. He will probably let two diamonds and a club go. Meanwhile you will discard a spade and club from dummy and a club and diamond from your own hand.

Now West can lead anything he wishes. It won't matter to you. If he leads a spade you win in dummy and cash the aces and kings of diamonds and clubs. East will have to discard on the second club.

If he lets another diamond go and you have been paying attention you will know that dummy's seven of diamonds is good; if he lets a spade go all your spades will be good.

Elliott Blasts Zolton Ferency

Democratic Chairman Called Irresponsible

PAW PAW (UPI) — Republican State Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., rapped his Democratic counterpart Zolton A. Ferency in a speech here last night, calling Ferency "the most irresponsible public figure in this state."

Elliott, addressing a meeting of GOP 4th Congressional District leaders, said the Democratic state chairman is "a man who chooses to live by a double standard.

"Recently, he (Ferency) has been inferring that Michigan elections might be tainted with dishonesty, and he indicates he will seek changes in the election laws," Elliott said.

"Yet at the same time, (Ferency) believes it is morally proper for his party to keep a $1,300 campaign donation which the attorney general said was illegally given."

Elliott was referring to a $1,000 donation to Democrats by owners of a Roseville bar and another contribution of $300 which allegedly wound up in the campaign fund of a Macomb County Democratic candidate. Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley and the state police are investigating the case.

"It would seem to me that a firm understanding of right and wrong would return the questionable money to the senders — no matter how much it helps (Ferency's) party's financial situation," Elliott asserted.

Elliott said Ferency's charge that "it would be easy to rig" a Michigan election "rates him a special Emmy award for being the most irresponsible public figure in the state."

The GOP chief charged Ferency's attack on the state's election system "directly insults thousands of honest, dedicated" election workers and "undermines and destroys citizen confidence in our election processes."

Union Hopes for Accord in Bell Telephone Talks

The Communications Workers of America (CWA) is hopeful of reaching a new contract agreement by Saturday with Michigan Bell Telephone Co. which will set the pattern for the rest of the industry.

CWA president Joseph Beirne said he was optimistic about chances of signing a new contract in the next few days for the 15,000 Michigan Bell employes represented by the union.

Also optimistic of an early agreement was David K. Easlick, Michigan Bell vice president in charge of personnel.

"We are always willing to meet the union halfway," he said.

* * *

Saturday is the day Beirne must leave Michigan Bell contract negotiations to attend the CWA's annual convention in Kansas City.

It is known that he had hoped to have a "pattern setting" agreement to present to the convention.

Chances for a settlement brightened considerably Monday when the company included in its offer partial payment of health insurance for CWA workers.

* * *

"This is the first time in CWA's history of bargaining with the Bell system the company has proposed payment of health insurance coverage," Pontiac Local 4012 president Robert J. Parker noted.

He termed the coverage "inadequate — but at least a step in the right direction."

The company's health insurance offer included $50 deductible hospitalization, 75-25 surgical benefits, in which the insurance pays three-quarters and the employe one-quarter of the hospital bill above the deductible. The company would pay one-quarter of the employe's premium.

* * *

Pontiac Local 4012's primary objective in the bargaining sessions — town reclassification — was not contained in the company's offer to the union.

Citizen Participation Plan Gets County GOP Support

By JIM DYGERT

A movement started by a group of Birmingham-Bloomfield area Republicans to put citizen participation in the GOP on a year-round basis has the blessing of the Oakland County Republican organization.

* * *

County GOP Chairman Charles L. Lyle said yesterday he hopes that the rest of the county follows the lead of 3rd Legislative District Republicans.

"The 3rd District has traditionally been the stronghold of Republican activity," said Lyle, who recently returned from a three-week vacation in Arizona.

The district includes Troy, Keego Harbor, half of Wixom and the townships of Avon, Commerce, Milford and West Bloomfield, as well as the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

* * *

The movement, based on Gov. George Romney's urging, was launched by 3rd District Republicans last week under leadership of district director Robert Lowry.

* * *

"It seems to us an active effort to put citizen participation on a year-round basis instead of just election-time crash programs," Lyle said.

UNOFFICIAL CAUCUSES

Lowry and other Birmingham-Bloomfield area Republicans plan to hold unofficial caucuses every three months to maintain enthusiasm for citizen participation in party affairs between elections.

Lowry also hopes that citizens can exercise more control and influence over what their elected officials and representatives do by maintaining interest, communication and knowledge through organization.

He also is reorganizing his district to give citizens a greater voice in the party through a 24-member district council and a committee to seek out qualified candidates for public office.

Lyle said, "I'm just as anxious not to have to rebuild precinct organizations every two years."

He said he didn't think the activity in the 3rd District was generated by dissident elements.

Lowry and many of his supporters in the new drive were backers of John A. (Jack) Gibbs in Gibbs' unsuccessful bid for the GOP state chairmanship in February.

Lyle supported former Oakland County GOP Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. for the state chairmanship.

Elliott won the post by acclamation at the Republican State Convention after Gibbs, his former assistant in Oakland County, withdrew from the race.

Lyle said he did not consider the 3rd District movement a challenge to his leadership of the county GOP. He pointed out that he had appointed Lowry district director.

No One Seriously Hurt

Docked U.S. Destroyer Hit by Flash Fire

PORTLAND, Maine (UPI) — A flash fire broke out in the boiler room of the destroyer USS Blandy today less than one hour after the ship arrived here to participate in Memorial Day exercises.

* * *

Most of the 323 men aboard jumped or walked down the gangplank from the destroyer to the Maine State Pier where it was tied up. A handful of sailors remained aboard to help civilian firemen in putting out the blaze.

Two sailors were overcome by smoke while fighting the fire. No one one was seriously hurt.

A Navy spokesman said the fire was touched off by lubricating oil which came in contact with a spark or a hot pipe after the oil gauge line broke.

ALERTNESS

Five sailors were in the boiler room when the fire erupted. The Navy said it was the alertness of one of them, boiler technician J. D. Mitchell of Mountain Grove, Mo., that probably prevented a more serious blaze.

He quickly turned off the flow of the oil and sealed off the boiler room from the rest of the ship by closing the entrance ways, the Navy spokesman said.

The fire slightly damaged the equipment in the boiler room and scorched the paint. The blaze did not spread to other parts of the vessel.

Firefighters used steam and foam in extinguishing the blaze. A Portland fire boat pulled up alongside the Blany but its hoses were not needed.

The Blandy was scheduled to hold open house for visitors today and tomorrow, Memorial Day. Today's public visiting might be canceled, the Navy said.

* * *

The entire crew returned to the ship at mid-morning, less than two hours after the fire started.

To Stand Trial Next Month for Murder

Manuel Barris, 45, of 24050 Condon, Oak Park, will stand trial for first degree murder June 14 before Oakland County Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore.

The trial was originally set for yesterday but was adjourned when Barris' attorney, David Pence of Pontiac, indicated he would waive a jury trial. The case was then scheduled after the current jury term ends.

Barris is accused in the fatal shooting of his partner in a laundry machine business, Leo Brodsky, 46, of 24531 Seneca, Oak Park.

The shooting occurred in the Oak Park office of an accountant who told police Barris and Brodsky were discussing the dissolution of their business, the Hughes Laundry Machine Co. of Dearborn.

Attorney Pence has filed notice that he will plead temporary insanity as Barris' defense.

Two of New Amendments Aim Directly at High Court

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Chief Justice Earl Warren has called for a great national debate on three proposed constitutional amendments. In this last of three articles, Associated Press staff writer Stanley Meisler discusses the two amendments aimed at Warren's Supreme Court.)

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren has chided America's lawyers for their silence about three proposed constitutional amendments.

★ ★ ★

Warren's irritation is not surprising. Two of the amendments are aimed right at his court.

"For the bar of America to be as inactive as it has been in this situation," he said recently, "is almost an abdication of its responsibility to the public."

CONCERNED

As head of the Supreme Court, Warren did not take a position on the amendments, but he clearly was concerned that, with little or no debate, 16 state legislatures had approved at least one of the three amendments.

★ ★ ★

If any amendment wins support from 34 states, Congress must call a national convention to accept or reject it.

The proposed amendments would:

1. Make it possible for the states to propose and ratify constitutional amendments completely on their own.

2. Wipe out federal jurisdiction over the apportionment of seats in the state legislatures.

3. Make it possible for certain decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court to be overruled by a states-controlled "Court of the Union."

STATES RIGHTS

The first amendment generally would help the cause of states rights, but the other two, while also concerned with states rights, directly touch the heart of the Supreme Court.

The amendment about legislative apportionment, in fact, would reverse a historic decision of the court in March 1962.

In the decision, the court ruled that citizens could seek relief in federal courts when unequal representation of state legislatures violated their constitutional rights. This was a blow to many rural-dominated legislatures that had refused to reapportion themselves to meet population changes of the 20th century.

PROPOSED

The proposed amendment would say, first, that no provision of the Constitution can restrict the apportionment of a state legislature, and, second, that the federal courts have no jurisdiction over any suit relating to the apportionment of state legislatures.

Speaker Robert D. Hasse of the Wisconsin House says that nothing short of this amendment can stop the federal government from interfering in reapportionment — which he considers a basic right of the states.

But Prof. Charles L. Black Jr. of Yale University Law School says "this proposal, if passed, would constitute the first diminution, since our history began, of any federal constitutional guarantee of liberty, justice or equality."

The board of governors of the American Bar Association, which opposes the other two amendments, has withheld action on this amendment.

12 STATES

The amendment has been proposed by the legislatures of 12 states: Arkansas, Idaho, Kansas, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Washington, Wyoming and — although its resolution is worded somewhat differently from the others—Utah.

South Carolina will make the total 13 as soon as it completes some minor details on its resolution. Nebraska would have made it 14 but Democratic Gov. Frank Morrison vetoed the proposal after the legislature voted for it.

LONGER

The "Court of the Union" amendment is longer and somewhat more complicated than the others.

Under this proposal, a "Court of the Union" would be made up of the chief justices of the 50 states, but it would not be active all the time. The court would be convened upon request of the legislatures of any five states without a common boundary.

★ ★ ★

The Court of the Union would have only one function. It would decide whether a particular decision of the U.S. Supreme Court was constitutional.

But the Court of the Union would not have complete jurisdiction over Supreme Court decisions. The Court of the Union could rule only when the decision involved powers of the states or the people. If the Supreme Court made a ruling about war or foreign commerce or coining money or any other power reserved to the federal government, The Court of the Union could not decide whether the ruling was constitutional.

TO REVERSE

The agreement of 26 justices on the Court of the Union would be needed to reverse a decision of the Supreme Court.

Rep. Warren L. Wood of the Illinois House says this amendment represents the first and only attempt to do something about the drift of state power to Washington instead of just talking about it.

★ ★ ★

Wood says the amendment would help make the Constitution work as it did "when the United States grew to be the greatest nation on earth."

But Prof. Black says this amendment would destroy "the powerful and life-giving idea that our Constitution is law, and that its character as national law can only be upheld by giving its final interpretation into the hands of a national judiciary."

DISAPPROVAL

The American Bar Association's board of governors—too long silent in Chief Justice Warren's view—decided last week to announce its disapproval of this amendment because it was "inconsistent with the constitutional concept of our court system."

The amendment has been approved by four states: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Wyoming. South Carolina will make it five as soon as it completes some minor details on its resolution.

Sinatra Being Sued by Writer Odets

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank Sinatra is being sued by playwright Clifford Odets for $762,500.

Odets, in a Superior Court action, charged Tuesday that because of Sinatra he lost a commitment from MGM to purchase a story called "The Actor."

MGM, Odets alleged, indicated interest in the work but Sinatra told the studio he would buy the literary rights and resell them to the studio.

The complaint charged that Sinatra later refused to go through with the deal.

Julie London Has Twins

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP) — Recording artist Julie London gave birth to identical twin boys Tuesday at Valley Presbyterian Hospital.

They are the second and third children for Miss London and her musician husband, Bobby Troup. They have a daughter, Kelley, 1.

Miss London has two other children by her first husband, actor Jack Webb. They are Stacy, 13, and Liza, 10.

Weathermen's Day Wet

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn. (UPI) — The forecasters at the U.S. Weather Bureau reluctantly predicted rain showers for today—the day for their staff picnic.

Record Travel Is Expected This Weekend

LANSING (AP) — If the weatherman cooperates, Michigan's summer travel season should get off for a record start over the five-day Memorial Day weekend, says the State Highway Department.

Highway commissioner John Mackie predicted motorists will drive an estimated 628 million miles on Michigan highways between tonight and Sunday night.

The previous traffic record for a Memorial Day holiday was established in 1960, when motorists logged 591 million miles in the state. The holiday fell on a Sunday that year.

★ ★ ★

"No serious traffic tie-ups are expected anywhere on the state highway system," Mackie said. "Since last memorial day, more than 200 miles of freeway have been opened to traffic and freeways now carry traffic around all major cities in Michigan."

VICTIMS — Princess Maria del Pilar (right), daughter of pretender to the Spanish throne Don Juan, assists a nurse aid in caring for injured at scene of railroad station roof collapse in Lisbon, Portugal, yesterday. The princess is a trained nurse.

48 Are Killed as Roof Falls

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Tumbling concrete slabs and steel girders from a collapsing railway station roof crushed 48 persons to death and injured 36 other Portuguese in a holiday crowd Tuesday.

The tragedy forced cancellation of further celebrations marking the 37th anniversary of the revolution that brought Premier Antonio Oliveira Salazar to power. There were reports of sabotage and police began an investigation.

★ ★ ★

Passengers returning from nearby beaches had just stepped out of a train when the roof of the Cais de Sord Station, built about two years ago, began to crumple. Huge blocks of concrete and stones trapped the victims, some of them children.

Priests administered last rites to the dying. Doctors gave blood transfusions to the critically injured.

Rescuers dug through rubble to reach the victims. Cranes were brought from a nearby bridge construction site to help hoist up the blocks of rubble. Parents searched frantically for their children.

★ ★ ★

An emergency hospital was set up as thousands of people crowded the square in front of the station. Police strengthened patrols to prevent rioting.

President America Thomas visited the station during the evening. Princess Maria del Pilar of Spain was among the nurses sent to the scene from the Lisbon Hospital.

There was no immediate explanation for the collapse or any indication how foes of Salazar might have sabotaged the roof. A police spokesman said, "We are still investigating."

Teacher Strike Settled in Gary

GARY, Ind. (AP)—Gary school teachers agreed to go back to their classes today after a one-day strike that won recognition of the Gary teachers union as bargaining agent for its members.

★ ★ ★

About 1,300 union teachers boycotted classes and picketed the city's 42 public schools Tuesday, forcing them to close.

The executive committee of the union, Local 4 of the American Federation of Teachers, and the Gary School Board met Tuesday night with Hogert Butler, state labor commissioner, and reached agreement on six points raised by the union.

The board and the union issued a joint statement saying the strike had been settled. They declined to disclose the terms immediately but union spokesmen said they included recognition, the key issue.

Salary scales were not under discussion and will be negotiated later.

Big U. S. Supply Helps to Lower Sugar Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Agriculture said yesterday its assurances that the United States has plenty of sugar available has helped bring down domestic sugar prices.

Under Secretary Charles S. Murphy in a letter to Rep. Leonor K. Sullivan, D-Mo., chairman of the House subcommittee on Consumer Affairs repeated these assurances and added:

"Since this fact became known Friday morning, it is reasonable to believe that it was a major factor in bringing about the price decline on Friday and yesterday (Monday) which resulted in the domestic stock price falling to those two days by $1.40 per 100 pounds."

Mrs. Sullivan's subcommittee is investigating the sharp advances in sugar prices.

Hearing Set in Girl's Killing

To Determine Sanity of Suspect in Slaying

A 20-year-old Dearborn Township youth accused of first-degree murder in the Dec. 20 hammer slaying of an 11-year-old Novi girl faces an Oakland County Circuit Court hearing to determine if he should be committed as a criminal sexual psychopath.

★ ★ ★

James G. Gostlin, charged with the murder of Shirley Husted at her family's home at 2299 Austin, is to be examined by three psychiatrists appointed by Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

The doctors will file reports on their evaluations and testify at a court hearing as to whether Gostlin should be sent to Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane as a sexual psychopath.

The examination and hearing was requested in a petition by Gostlin's attorney. Gostlin, said the petition, "has for a number of years . . . committed assaults on minor female children."

★ ★ ★

After the slaying last December, Gostlin told police he had raped his 11-year-old niece, who was baby-sitting near the Husted home, before attacking the Husted girl and her parents, Wesley, 40, and Rita, 33, with a hammer.

If Gostlin is found to be a criminal sexual psychopath, the murder charges against him would be dropped, according to the county prosecutor's office.

Simple Improvements

Inventors Usually Put New Twists on Old Themes

By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Most famous inventors merely took another man's idea and improved on it. You do not have to come up with something entirely new to get a patent.

The Wright brothers invented the airplane after reading about the work of Otto Lilienthal, a German who manufactured gliders.

Galileo did not invent the telescope because of a sudden inspiration but because he had heard about experiments with lenses performed by a Belgian named Hans Lippershey.

Even the most simple thing can be improved upon and patented. The other day patent No. 3,085,272 was granted to Laverne M. Cowan of Covington, Ga., for a tooth brush.

His idea was to set the bristles into the handle in the form of an X.

To apply for a patent you make a drawing of your invention, write a letter describing it and mail them, along with $30, to the U. S. Patent Office.

★ ★ ★

Wheel Was the Greatest

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Most inventors agree that the greatest one of them all will never be identified.

He was the man who found a round, flat stone, knocked a hole through the middle of it and invented the wheel.

Second place usually is accorded to a cave man who put a stick into a hole in a piece of wood and twirled until friction produced fire.

★ ★ ★

The basic inventor of all weapons was the man who tied a sharp piece of flint to the end of a pole to make a spear which rendered the cave man's club obsolete.

Your application will go to one of the patent office's 1,000 examiners who will determine whether you have come up with a novel idea.

If the application is granted, you have exclusive rights to your invention for 17 years, but only in the United States and its territories.

After that, the invention goes into the public domain. Unless you get a patent in every country in the world, anybody in a foreign nation can take your idea and go into business without paying you anything.

Patience is a virtue which every inventor must cultivate. It frequently takes 20 or 30 years to develop his idea to the point where it becomes commercially feasible and profitable.

The zipper, for instance, is in such widespread use today that most persons assume it was an instantaneous success.

Actually, the basic idea was patented in 1891 by Whitcomb L. Judson who called his idea "a clasp locker and unlocker for shoes."

It was made of hooks and eyes with a sliding clasp and Judson soon extended the idea to women's dresses and sold his product for 35 cents.

Complaints began rolling in immediately. There was no way to lock the first zipper and when women sat down, their dresses popped open. Judson could not devise a solution to the problem and died without cashing in on his invention.

In 1913, Gideon Sundback began improving on Judson's basic idea. He devised metal teeth for the zipper instead of using hooks and eyes and eventually worked out a means of locking the device after it was zipped up.

By 1930, the zipper not only was widely used for women's clothing, but was a common feature of men's trousers and sports jackets. Sundback got some patents in 1917 and in 1934 all of them expired. That left the field wide open and now there are a dozen companies manufacturing zippers.

Every inventor builds on the ideas of his predecessors. Color television, for instance, utilizes the work of at least 52 men and corporations going all the way back to Benjamin Franklin who identified positive and negative electrical charges in 1752.

It was a long, uphill climb to 1953 when the Radio Corporation of America recorded color and monochrome signal on magnetic tape.

A momentary discomfort or irritation frequently results in an invention. Patent No. 6,469 was issued to Abraham Lincoln because on a trip down the Mississippi river his boat got stuck on a dam.

He devised a set of bellows placed just below the water line of the hull, and the idea was that when the bellows were pumped up the boat would float free.

There is no record that his invention ever was put into production, and a few years later he became preoccupied with larger matters.

Mark Twain ran out of glue one day when he was pasting items into his scrapbook and immediately put aside literary matters to concentrate on the problem.

The result was that he got patent No. 121,992 for what was described as a "self pasting scrapbook." It was simply a series of blank pages coated with paste, and he sold 25,000 of them.

Miss Lillian Russell's theatrical activities made it necessary for her to stay on the road most of the time, and she invented a trunk which would carry all of her costumes and could be readily packed and unpacked.

Max Carey, one of the great base stealers in the history of baseball, invented sliding pads to protect his legs and hips when he hit the dirt.

The late Harry Houdini, magician and escape artist, holds patent No. 1,370,316 issued in 1921. It is a diver's suit designed to enable the wearer "to quickly divest himself of the suit while being submerged and to safely escape and reach the surface of the water."

Few persons have heard of Alfred E. Ischinger of Mount Penn, Pa., but he is a famous man in the U. S. patent office.

In 1937 he set a record for the largest documentation of an invention — 170 sheets of drawings and 146 pages of specifications. His machine was for "the uninterrupted knitting of shaped fabrics."

Tomorrow: strange ideas that flow into the patent office.

'No Clemency for 2 Gangsters'

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney will refuse clemency for two Prohibition Era gangsters serving life sentences for their roles in the Collingwood Manor apartment massacre, the governor's legal aide said yesterday.

Harry Keywell, 53, and Raymond Bernstein, 58, were sentenced to Marquette State Prison for the Sept. 16, 1931, shoot-out in which Joseph Sutker, Joseph Lebovitz and Herman Paul were killed.

Romney's legal adviser, Richard Van Dusen, said there is no question Romney will follow the parole board recommendation that "more years of imprisonment are needed" before the two attain commutation status.

Bernstein was convicted of being the "fingerman" who lured three hoodlums to the Detroit apartment building. Keywell and Irving Milberg, who has since died in prison, were also at the apartment.

At a signal from Bernstein, the other men in the building gunned down the three, who owed the famed Purple Gang $3,000 for illicit alcohol.

Bernstein and Keywell had sent requests for clemency to Romney, but the state parole board rejected the idea in a short note to the governor.

"We are not going contrary to the board's recommendations," Van Dusen said.

Order Rate Fixed

Tax Levy Set by City

Commission Puts 1963 Total at $4,483,852

See as Needed Hike 79 Cents Per $1,000 of Assessed Valuation

By DICK SAUNDERS

The City Commission last night set the city's tax levy at $4,483,852 for 1963.

A resolution was unanimously approved, ordering City Assessor Edward Bloe to establish a tax rate which would produce the levy based on the city's total assessed valuation as equalized.

★ ★ ★

A tax rate of approximately $14.65 per $1,000 of assessed valuation would be required to raise the tax levy specified in the resolution.

This would be 79 cents per $1,000 higher than the 1962 city tax rate.

Last year's rate was $13.86 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

FIRST TIME

The move marked the first time in Pontiac's history that city tax assessments will be figured on a state-equalized valuation.

In terms of dollars and cents, the tax rate would amount to an increase of $3.95 in the city tax bill for a home with an assessed value of $5,000.

The equalization factor is included in the $14.65 rate.

★ ★ ★

An amendment to the annual budget appropriation ordinance will be prepared for a public hearing at next Tuesday's commission meeting.

The amendment will officially establish the 1963 tax rate and spell out changes in the original appropriation ordinance adopted in January.

The tax levy is some $169,612 higher than the $4,314,240 tax levy approved in January.

★ ★ ★

The $169,612 is to be set aside as a surplus which may be used for two purposes:

1. To cover a drop in the city's total tax base which might occur if any or all of a $32-million tax appeal from General Motors Corp. is granted by the State Tax Commission later this summer.

2. To abolish the annual reappropriated surplus appropriation in the intererests of sound fiscal policy.

★ ★ ★

The resolution, in addition, points to a need for such a cash surplus to be raised in future years so that the city can eventually realign its Jan. 1 budget with the July tax collection.

Trial Delayed Until June 18 in Mall Killing

Judge Nixes Motion Asking Transfer of the Proceedings

The trial of two 22-year-old Pontiac men accused of murdering a Kroger store comanager is still scheduled to begin in Oakland County, but not until June 18.

Circuit Judge William J. Beer today denied a defense motion that the trial of Adoise White, 79½ Wall, and Charles E. Hodges, 174 Prospect, be transferred to another county.

Beer rejected defense attorney Milton R. Henry's argument that notoriety and publicity about the case made it impossible to get a fair and impartial jury here.

Beer also ordered the trial, originally set for yesterday rescheduled for June 18 because of "force of circumstances."

Although denying another motion by Henry for a postponement of the trial, Beer noted that the jury panel was scheduled to recess today and return June 18.

★ ★ ★

White and Hodges are charged with first-degree murder in the March 16 slaying of Robert A. Greene, 22, of 122 Summit.

★ ★ ★

Greene was killed after he was forced to open a safe containing some $1,500 at the Pontiac Mall Kroger store. Police said he was stabbed 42 times and shot once in the head.

EXAGGERATION CLAIMED

Henry claimed that the brutality of the crime had been exaggerated by newspapers and television. He contended this prevented an impartial jury.

★ ★ ★

Judge Beer said the "only way to determine whether or not it is impossible to obtain in Oakland County an impartial jury to hear" this case is by beginning to do it.

"It is only right and proper that we try to impanel a fair and impartial set of jurors to try this case before concluding it can't be done."

The judge also denied a third defense motion that statements by White and Hodges admitting the crime not be admitted in evidence on the ground they were obtained through "illegal pressures."

On Integrating South

JFK Asks Executives to Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked a number of business executives to meet with him next Tuesday to give "serious and immediate attention" to the issue of integrating public facilities in the South.

The White House announced today that telegrams went out to about 75 business executives, from the North and the South, inviting them to the White House.

The purpose of the meeting was described as a discussion of "some aspects of the difficulties experienced by minority groups in many of our cities in securing employment and equal access to facilities and services generally available to the public."

★ ★ ★

Additional telegrams may be sent today to 25 other businessmen.

Those from the North are officials of firms which do business in the South. The executives have responsibilities in ownership or management of such commercial enterprises at theaters, hotels, variety stores and drugstores.

WILL BE REVEALED

Names of the executives receiving telegrams were not made public but White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said they would as acceptances come in.

There were indications from a high source that Kennedy plans similar conferences later with public officials and clergymen from Southern states.

The list of businessmen includes a number who already have met with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. He has been meeting with proprietors of Southern hotels, department stores, variety stores, theaters and restaurants.

The attorney general also has been in telephone contact with businessmen and officials in a number of Southern cities.

An official said he is devoting "just about full time" to a wide range of problems in the field of civil rights.

This intense activity at the Justice Department is a result of developments rising along the whole

Negroes kicked off a planned series of demonstrations yesterday at Jackson, Miss., with a sit-in at a white lunch counter by a biracial group of nine persons.

Three of the group were beaten by whites, others were manhandled and all were doused with catsup and mustard.

Early today, a firebomb was thrown into the carport of the house of Medgar Evans, state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), who has been directing the Jackson integration campaign.

Evers' wife and children were in the house but no one was hurt and there was little damage.

WALK AWAY — An unidentified Army private walks with his arm around his sobbing wife from the runway where a nonscheduled airliner carrying 64 passengers and a crew of six crashed. Families of the 4th Cavalry Division soldiers watched in horror as the plane crashed and burst into flames.

70 Escape Death as Airliner Crashes

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—All but six persons aboard escaped injury yesterday when a chartered four-engine airliner crashed and burned while landing with 64 soldiers and a crew of six. None were seriously hurt.

Standard Airways of Burbank, Calif., operator of the craft, a Constellation, said, "unidentified loss of power in one engine" caused the crash.

The plane made a normal approach but suddenly fell into a wheat field, bouncing and skidding along, until it came to rest about 50 feet short of the runway at Municipal Airport.

The fuselage was filled with smoke and the wings were burning, passengers said, but there was no panic.

Using regular exits, an emergency exit, windows and even a hole where a wing was ripped from the fuselage, soldiers and crew cleared the plane in less than a minute.

★ ★ ★

Nick Dellere, airport manager, said there was time for some of the men to dash back inside for personal effects.

DESCRIBES ACCIDENT

"I was sitting by a window above the right wing," Lt. William C. Bryant, officer in charge of the troops, said.

"The first thing I noticed was the right wing kept going down and down and down. It struck the dirt and peeled off. Then I looked across and noticed the left wing come off."

Sgt. Joshua Hill, 34, Thomson, Ga., one of the injured, said he saw the landing gear fly by. He escaped with a bruised leg.

The plane was one of three returning troops to nearby Ft. Riley from two months of training at Camp Irwin, Barstow, Calif. The soldiers were 4th Cavalry tank crewmen.

In Burbank, Robert E. Fraey, attorney for Standard Airways, said the plane was destroyed "due to a lack of fire-fighting equipment at the Manhattan Airport."

Elliott Blasts Zolton Ferency

Democratic Chairman Called Irresponsible

PAW PAW (UPI) — Republican State Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., rapped his Democratic counterpart Zolton A. Ferency in a speech here last night, calling Ferency "the most irresponsible public figure in this state."

Elliott, addressing a meeting of GOP 4th Congressional District leaders, said the Democratic state chairman is "a man who chooses to live by a double standard.

"Recently, he (Ferency) has been inferring that Michigan elections might be tainted with dishonesty, and he indicates he will seek changes in the election laws," Elliott said.

★ ★ ★

"Yet at the same time, (Ferency) believes it is morally proper for his party to keep a $1,300 campaign donation which the attorney general said was illegally given."

REFERS TO DONATION

Elliott was referring to a $1,000 donation to Democrats by owners of a Roseville bar and another contribution of $300 which allegedly wound up in the campaign fund of a Macomb County Democratic candidate. Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley and the state police are investigating the case.

★ ★ ★

"It would seem to me that a firm understanding of right and wrong would return the questionable money to the senders — no matter how much it helps (Ferency's) party's financial situation," Elliott asserted.

Elliott said Ferency's charge that "it would be easy to rig" a Michigan election "rates him a special Emmy award for being the most irresponsible public figure in the state."

The GOP chief charged Ferency's attack on the state's election system "directly insults thousands of honest, dedicated" election workers and "undermines and destroys citizen confidence in our election processes."

To Up Patrols in South End

Complaints Increase; Commissioners Move

The city is going to increase police surveillance in the south end of Pontiac.

Announcement of the move came at last night's City Commission meeting in response to growing concern over an increase in serious crimes and rumored illegal operations in the area.

★ ★ ★

"We are taking immediate action to increase police patrols in communities where trouble exists," said Mayor Robert A. Landry.

"In some areas, we will initiate foot patrols on a 24-hour basis." He said the problem would be solved "with all possible speed."

The action came after commissioners received a full police department report on the rate of serious crimes and the status of vice operations in the south end.

Although the report showed a crime rate increase, it stated also that "the existing," known vice traffic in the south end does not warrant it being affixed the title of 'wide open.'"

5 PER CENT INCREASE

Figures in the report showed that the rate of serious crimes increased 5 per cent in the section south of Orchard Lake and Auburn, and decreased 5 per cent in the northern sector last year compared to the year before.

However, compared to figures five years ago, the report indicates that city wide, serious crimes have nearly doubled and traffic accidents nearly tripled, while the present police force numbers four men less than it was five years ago.

The lack of necessary manpower is repeatedly blamed in the report for failure to cope with an increasing crime rate. Pontiac currently has a ratio of 1.8 police personnel to each 1,000 population.

The national average is 1.73 per 1,000. Detroit's ratio is 2.8 per 1,000.

Included in the report is a vice squad survey devoted to gamb-

City Officials Rally Round for New Flag

City Commissioner Dick M. Kirby's golfing ability may be questionable, but not his patriotic spirit.

★ ★ ★

At last night's commission meeting, Kirby staunchly called for the city to "get a new American flag" to replace what he claimed is "that poor old tattered and torn rag at Pontiac Municipal Golf Course."

Administrators pondered where they'd get one.

★ ★ ★

"Contact a congressman. They love to give away flags," Kirby said.

"Hmmm. Then it became a political issue," said City Manager Robert A. Sierer.

"I don't know why," Kirby replied. "We have two kinds, don't we?"

Administrators allowed that they might consider contacting someone from both parties for a flag.

President Is 46 Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy reached his 46th birthday today and his wife, Jacqueline, planned an extra-special party to mark the occasion: an evening dinner cruise on the Potomac.

★ ★ ★

Weather permitting, Mrs. Kennedy and about 25 relatives and friends will serenade the President with "Happy Birthday" aboard the 104-foot Navy yacht Sequoia.

Except for the evening party it was business as usual for Kennedy. He lined up a full schedule of activities running from 9:30 a.m. until late afternoon.

Kennedy is proud that despite a variety of ailments, including a weak back that requires pampering, he has missed only two days of presidential business because of illness.

After 28 months in "the toughest job in the world," Kennedy is little changed physically. He has lost some weight through dieting, picked up a few gray hairs, and acquired a few more lines in his youthful looking face.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's weight is 173 pounds — a loss of about seven pounds since he moved into the White House.

Salinger says Kennedy, who is 6 feet tall, was overweight following the 1960 presidential campaign and has resorted to dieting several times.

Reporter's Wife Comforting in Aftermath of Traffic Tragedy

By JOHN J. CROWLEY
City Editor

It was the night before, say, Memorial Day.

The reporter's telephone jangled in the kitchen.

"John, there's a bad one at Wildermuth and State roads."

As the newspaperman hung up the receiver and prepared to cover another accident, his wife asked if she could accompany him. It was the first time she had ever asked. And the last.

CROWLEY

She would be needed that night.

At the accident scene, violence had torn up the darkened countryside with an angry hand. Two cars that had tangled like mad dogs lay spent and brooding beside the road as deputy sheriffs probed the darkness with flashlights.

A frightened little girl was helped into the second of two ambulances that screamed from the scene.

The reporter checked with deputies.

★ ★ ★

"This is where the woman was found. The boy was pinned under this car. The girl was still in the back seat. The baby was over there."

Dead: an infant and a 12-year-old boy. Hurt: the children's mother and her 6-year-old daughter. The other driver wasn't hurt.

Following the ambulances to the hospital to check on injuries, the reporter found only one person in the shiny, tiled hall outside the emergency room — the girl.

The ambulance drivers had placed her in a wheel chair, alone in the corridor. She wasn't injured. There were others who needed more help.

The reporter saw another need. He called his wife in from the car.

★ ★ ★

As the young woman gathered the little girl in her arms, all that happened burst out in loud sobbing from the child's lips.

"Everything's going to be all right, all right," the woman kept saying.

INJURED MOTHER

But the girl saw her mother being wheeled out of the emergency room into the elevator headed for surgery. The girl was wide-eyed and silent. She struggled weakly to get out of the wheel chair.

The reporter's wife gently held her back.

"Well honey," she said as she tossed her hair back from her face, "what's the matter here?"

"I want my mommy," the child cried and waved a freckled arm toward the elevator. There was a moment of awkward silence.

Then the child settled back in the chair and looked around at the strange, clean, frightening corridor. The raggedy doll she had rescued from the car was crushed in her arms.

The reporter's wife tried to start a conversation that would keep the girl occupied. Sometime soon, she thought, a relative must arrive.

She shook the foot of the doll.

"Did Santa bring you that nice doll?"

"Yes, but really Aunt Dorothy did. And she made a ballet dress for her just like mine."

Suddenly she leaned forward on the young woman's shoulder and cried again. "Will my mommy get better?" she asked.

"They've just taken her upstairs," the woman said, "They're going to put her in a nice soft bed and wash her hands and face .. ."

"And feet?" asked the girl. She had seen that her mother's feet were black and blue as she was wheeled to the elevator.

"Yes, and her arms and back —just like she washes you before you go to bed. Then they'll give her a little pill so she'll sleep real good and feel real good tomorrow."

"I'll come up and see her tomorrow," the girl said.

CONVERSATION CHANGES

Guided by the reporter's wife, the conversation galloped into the wonderful world of school and learning to read and who was in the child's dancing class.

Suddenly the hospital door swung open and a young woman stepped hurriedly inside. She glanced frantically up and down the corridor until her eyes fastened on the child and relief swept across her face.

The reporter's wife thought: "Aunt Dorothy has arrived."

The child jumped up from the wheel chair and ran, her arms outstretched, to the distraught aunt. She was caught up and smothered in familiar warm arms as she sobbed out her terrible story.

"We were going to Aunt Louise's," she cried, "when we had an accident."

Abruptly her voice was harsh: "That man should have looked where he was going."

Then: "Why haven't they brought my brother in?"

AGONIZING TRUTH

The aunt glanced up questioningly at the reporter's wife. The young woman bit her lip and shook her head.

"Was John with you?" the aunt asked.

"Yes," cried the child in despair. "He was under the car. The car was laying on him. I think his shoes were off."

"How did he get out of the car?"

"He flied out the door. But it doesn't matter about the shoes. He has school shoes."

"The baby was hurt, too."

"Was she?" the aunt asked in sudden alarm. A glance at the reporter's wife confirmed the child's report.

The false but comforting thought that someone probably took her brother home crossed the child's mind.

★ ★ ★

"I don't mind if he's in my bed," she said.

The aunt suggested: "He can sleep in your bed and you can sleep in his."

"I won't mind if he's in my bed," the child repeated, "Daddy will take care of him and mommy. You can help if you want."

The reporter and his wife drove home silently.

★ ★ ★

In the apartment, he said, "Honey, write down everything you and the child talked about.

"Maybe it'll do some good some day."

Test Depths in Commerce

Try to Vindicate Lake Dredging

By PAT McCARTY

A handful of men yesterday afternoon took a barge across Long Lake in Commerce Township, doggedly testing water depths as they went.

The man whom they had planned to impress with their findings was not present.

County Drain Commissioner Daniel Barry said he and his aides spent the day with federal inspectors in another part of the county.

"My office isn't at all concerned with Long Lake," Barry commented. "There isn't any reason why we should have gone."

Those involved in the Long Lake dredging project, reportedly the first of its kind in the nation, were of a different opinion.

"We're being judged by people who haven't been out here and won't take time to come out," contractor Don O. Rutter said.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday's tests were conducted in an effort to justify the contractor's claims that the Long Lake project was worth while.

PRINCIPLE 'VALID'

Although some Long Lake residents are still complaining, Rutter said the principle he tested there is valid.

He claims he's confident the people will be satisfied once their beaches have been cleaned.

The lake, which was 1 and 2 feet deep except for a couple of holes two years ago, now has an average depth of 8 feet.

The project is to be completed if the Long Lake General Council can raise another $33,000 to add to their original $74,000 contractural price.

★ ★ ★

Council President John L. Hyland siid he has collected $17,000 in cash and has commitments for another $10,000.

★ ★ ★

But the issue now at stake between Rutter, who says he's arguing for a principle, and Barry, who says he's not arguing, is the possible dredging of Wolverine Lake.

TO SUPPORT REPORT

Preliminary engineering reports on Wolverine Lake indicate the project would cost $995,000 and therefore be unfeasible. Barry has said he will support this report wholeheartedly before the drain committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Wolverine Lake residents have objected to Barry's refusal to consider the cheaper Long Lake project.

With the work done there as a basis, they have been told the Wolverine Lake renovation could probably be done for $500,000.

★ ★ ★

They are now talking about hiring another engineer to write a contradictory report.

"There is no connection between the two lakes officially," Barry said.

Connection or no, the Wolverine Lake citizens committee working on the project has scheduled a public meeting for June 17 to set its strategy.

★ ★ ★

The drain committee was briefed yesterday by engineers from Hubbell, Roth and Clark of Birmingham, who did the preliminary study.

Barry said a hearing would be held at the convenience of persons who would be subject to taxation should the project develop.

Pope 'Clearly Improved,' but Still in Grave Condition

By EUGENE LEVIN

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII rallied today. The Vatican announced the Pope showed a clear improvement in his over-all condition after a restful night, but it was clear he remained in grave condition.

The 81-year-old Roman Catholic pontiff spent "a night of tranquil repose, during which he did not need assistance," a communique said, and he looked better in the daylight hours.

The communique, published by the Vatican paper L'Osservatore Romano, said the Pope's doctor left him after an examination at 10 a.m., and did not plan to return until evening.

The communique said Pope John's mind was clear and that he never was unconscious, "even in the acute moments of crisis."

It was the first time the Vatican ever said officially that the Pope had gone through a crisis. Apparently he has gone through several in the past six months, the worst Tuesday.

A blood transfusion then enabled him to survive hemorrhaging caused by an abnormal stomach growth that has bothered him for a year.

After that harrowing day, the word from inside the Vatican was: "Only a miracle can save him."

In advance of today's communique, the Vatican press office said Pope John spent a good night and felt slightly better this morning.

Tied in with the Alabama decision, the Justice Department filed suit in January seeking to integrate schools in federally impacted areas.

Fatally injured was Michael Painter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Moran, 2290 Quarton Road. The youngster died at 2 a.m. today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, nine hours after the accident.

The Kaubisch boy was walking on Baldwin, a half mile north of Gregory, at 9:38 p.m. when he was hit by a car driven by Ronald R. Greening, 38, of 341 Indianwood, Lake Orion.

Greening told sheriff's deputies that he hit the youth as he pulled out to pass another car. The teenager, acording to witnesses, was on the traveled portion of the road, about two feet from the shoulder.

The Bloomfield Hills accident occurred on Quarton, about 100 feet west of Cranbrook, near the boy's home.

Michael ran into a car driven by Mrs. Ann K. Sawyer, 54, of Detroit, as she was traveling west on Quarton, according to Bloomfield Hills police.

The fatal accident was the first in Bloomfield Hills this year.

To Up Patrol in South End

ling; illegal liquor operations, narcotics and prostitution in the south end.

While all elements are under close surveillance, prostitution appears to be the biggest problem; narcotics the smallest.

"Street prostitutes in the area of Bagley and Wessen are probably the most offensive element of all vice conditions . . . as far as the general public is concerned," the survey reads.

★ ★ ★

"During the profitable night hours, it is not uncommon to observe as many as six prostitutes working the corner simultaneously."

★ ★ ★

STRIDES MADE

While it states that strides have been made in keeping prostitutes out of bars and that several have been arrested through the cooperation of citizens, completely effective enforcement again requires "many man hours restricting our presence directly to the area in question."

★ ★ ★

The report states there is "much yet to be accomplished in deterring vice activity and enforcing associated laws in both the north and south sections of the city."

Wash Stuffed Animals

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Do you or any of your readers know how to wash or clean stuffed animals? I would like to know as my baby loves to play with them but they get so dirty. Mrs. J. T. D.

DEAR POLLY — A lot of teenagers read your column, so here is one for those who have stuffed animals that are a bit dirty.

Make suds with a detergent in warm water and add some powdered bleach. Dip in a brush in the suds and rub it briskly over the animal.

After it is clean, toss the animal in the air a few times to fluff up the fur, then let dry. — J. J.

* * *

DEAR POLLY — With seven children in our family, the garage was always cluttered with bikes, wagons, doll buggies and other big toys.

I emptied the garage and painted lines similar to those in a parking lot on the floor.

In each block I wrote a child's name. Now they each park their own equipment in place instead of dropping things just inside the door. Order has been restored to our garage. — E. R.

* * *

DEAR POLLY — I hate to have my coat dragging on the floor at the theater, I sew two pairs of dress snaps inside the bottom of the front facing of the coat, snap them together and the coat stays off the floor. — M. S.

* * *

DEAR POLLY — If you are going to fill in nail holes in new woodwork, cabinets, etc., save some of the sawdust from the same wood.

Mix with wood glue and use a paint or paring knife to fill the holes. After a coat of shellac or varnish is applied, it all blends in perfectly.

This works better than using a putty pencil which often does not match the wood as perfectly as the sawdust does. — Mrs. G. L.

Trading Moderate

Mart Moves Irregularly Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels and motors displayed a string of small gains as the stock market showed an irregularly higher trend in moderate trading early today.

Gains of most key stocks were fractional.

Having passed yesterday's important first anniversary of the famous "Black Monday" plunge, Wall Street had scaled an important psychological barrier, analysts said.

But exchanges will be closed for Memorial Day tomorrow and preholiday sessions are usually quiet.

A routine three-point jump by IBM was the only wide move in early trading. Usually volatile Polaroid and Xerox were fractional gainers.

* * *

The news background was bolstered by raising of the U.S. debt limit and expansion of steel and aluminum facilities.

American Sugar cut the price of refined sugar and its stock showed no immediate reaction, trading fractionally higher.

Fractional gains were shown also by American Crystal Sugar and South Puerto Rico Sugar.

U.S. Smelting was off nearly a point. Litton Industries gained a fraction.

* * *

Other fractional gainers included Chrysler, Youngstown Sheet, Republic Steel, American Smelting, Anaconda, Kennecott, Eastman Kodak, Chesapeake & Ohio and Liggett & Myers.

Sugar Bubble Seems Burst

Top Refiners Start Cut in Hiked Prices

NEW YORK (AP) — What an Agriculture Department official had termed a speculative bubble in sugar prices has apparently burst.

★ ★ ★

The nation's two leading refiners—American Sugar Co. and National Sugar Co. — today rolled back a part of the 1963 rise in prices. A Gulf firm, Southdown, Inc., in New Orleans, La., earlier had reduced the price.

Other refiners were expected to follow soon.

The price reductions were the first in the wholesale price of industrial grades of sugar since October 1961. The last time wholesale prices for grocery grades declined was Feb. 16, 1962, and that was temporary.

★ ★ ★

The new Northeast price is $15.50 per 100 pounds, off 80 cents. The price at the beginning of the year was about $10.

The reduction follows a reversal in the price of raw sugar that set in Thursday. The wholesale price had risen from about 10 cents at the first of the year to almost 17 cents.

The price of five-pound bags of sugar in grocery stores also had risen, from about 55 cents to 80 cents in the East. Some candies, desserts and other sugar-using items also advanced in price.

Name Kennedy Father of Year for Leadership

Senator of Nebraska Endorses Goldwater

WASHINGTON — Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona was endorsed today for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination by Sen. Carl C. Curtis, R-Neb.

Curtis announced his position in a statement in which he also said he would seek a place as one of Nebraska's 16 delegates to the GOP National Convention.

Goldwater has insisted he is not a candidate for nomination.

Union Hopes for Accord in Bell Telephone Talks

The Communications Workers of America (CWA) is hopeful of reaching a new contract agreement by Saturday with Michigan Bell Telephone Co. which will set the pattern for the rest of the industry.

CWA president Joseph Beirne said he was optimistic about chances of signing a new contract in the next few days for the 15,000 Michigan Bell employes represented by the union.

Also optimistic of an early agreement was David K. Easlick, Michigan Bell vice president in charge of personnel.

"We are always willing to meet the union halfway," he said.

★ ★ ★

Saturday is the day Beirne must leave Michigan Bell contract negotiations to attend the CWA's annual convention in Kansas City.

It is known that he had hoped to have a "pattern setting" agreement to present to the convention.

Chances for a settlement brightened considerably Monday when the company included in its offer partial payment of health insurance for CWA workers.

★ ★ ★

"This is the first time in CWA's history of bargaining with the Bell system the company has proposed payment of health insurance coverage," Pontiac Local 4012 president Robert J. Parker noted.

He termed the coverage "inadequate — but at least a step in the right direction."

The company's health insurance offer included $50 deductible hospitalization, 75-25 surgical benefits, in which the insurance pays three-quarters and the employe one-quarter of the hospital bill above the deductible. The company would pay one-quarter of the employe's premium.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Local 4012's primary objective in the bargaining sessions — town reclassification — was not contained in the company's offer to the union.

Citizen Participation Plan Gets County GOP Support

By JIM DYGERT

A movement started by a group of Birmingham-Bloomfield area Republicans to put citizen participation in the GOP on a year-round basis has the blessing of the Oakland County Republican organization.

★ ★ ★

County GOP Chairman Charles L. Lyle said yesterday he hopes that the rest of the county follows the lead of 3rd Legislative District Republicans.

"The 3rd District has traditionally been the stronghold of Republican activity," said Lyle, who recently returned from a three-week vacation in Arizona.

The district includes Troy, Keego Harbor, half of Wixom and the townships of Avon, Commerce, Milford and West Bloomfield, as well as the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

★ ★ ★

The movement, based on Gov. George Romney's urging, was launched by 3rd District Republicans last week under leadership of district director Robert Lowry.

★ ★ ★

"It seems to us an active effort to put citizen participation on a year-round basis instead of just election-time crash programs," Lyle said.

UNOFFICIAL CAUCUSES

Lowry and other Birmingham-Bloomfield area Republicans plan to hold unofficial caucuses every three months to maintain enthusiasm for citizen participation in party affairs between elections.

Lowry also hopes that citizens can exercise more control and influence over what their elected officials and representatives do by maintaining interest, communication and knowledge through organization.

He also is reorganizing his district to give citizens a greater voice in the party through a 24-member district council and a committee to seek out qualified candidates for public office.

Lyle said, "I'm just as anxious not to have to rebuild precinct organizations every two years."

He said he didn't think the activity in the 3rd District was generated by dissident elements.

Lowry and many of his supporters in the new drive were backers of John A. (Jack) Gibbs in Gibbs' unsuccessful bid for the GOP state chairmanship in February.

Lyle supported former Oakland County GOP Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. for the state chairmanship.

Elliott won the post by acclamation at the Republican State Convention after Gibbs, his former assistant in Oakland County, withdrew from the race.

Lyle said he did not consider the 3rd District movement a challenge to his leadership of the county GOP. He pointed out that he had appointed Lowry district director.

flash fire broke out in the boiler room of the destroyer USS Blandy today less than one hour after the ship arrived here to hold open house for visitors today and tomorrow, Memorial Day. Today's public visiting might be canceled, the Navy said.

The entire crew returned to the ship at mid-morning, less than two hours after the fire started.

Most of the 323 men aboard jumped or walked down the gangplank from the destroyer to the Maine State Pier where it was tied up. A handful of sailors remained aboard to help civilian firemen in putting out the blaze.

Two sailors were overcome by smoke while fighting the fire. No one one was seriously hurt.

A Navy spokesman said the fire was touched off by lubricating oil which came in contact with a spark or a hot pipe after an oil gauge line broke.

ALERTNESS

Five sailors were in the boiler room when the fire erupted. The Navy said it was the alertness of one of them, boiler technician J. D. Mitchell of Mountain Grove, Mo., that probably prevented a more serious blaze.

He quickly turned off the flow of the oil and sealed off the boiler room from the rest of the ship by closing the entrance ways, the Navy spokesman said.

The fire slightly damaged the equipment in the boiler room and scorched the paint. The blaze did not spread to other parts of the vessel.

Firefighters used steam and foam in extinguishing the blaze. A Portland fire boat pulled up alongside the Blany but its hoses were not needed.
