Cobo Endorses Van Dusen

Martin Wins in Deadlock Over GOP Second Spot

By LAWRENCE S. MARTZ JR.
Pontiac Press Staff Writer

GRAND RAPIDS—Republican leaders at the GOP state convention conferred at a dramatic 6 a.m. meeting today and broke a deadlock for the secretary of state nomination between Paul Bagwell and John B. Martin Jr.

Bagwell, a Michigan State University professor, announced afterward that he would give up his efforts for the nomination and accept the auditor generalship "in the interest of Republican Party harmony."

Martin, a former state senator from Kent County and auditor general for two years, was reportedly given the inside track because of his home area strength and his support of Cobo in the primaries.

Richard C. Van Dusen, of Birmingham, seemed assured of the nomination to attorney general today following Cobo's endorsement last night of the young Oakland County attorney.

Cobo also picked John P. Simpson of Jackson, and Michael O'Hara of Menominee as his choices to run on the non-partisan ballot as Supreme Court justices.

UNKNOWN SUPPORTED

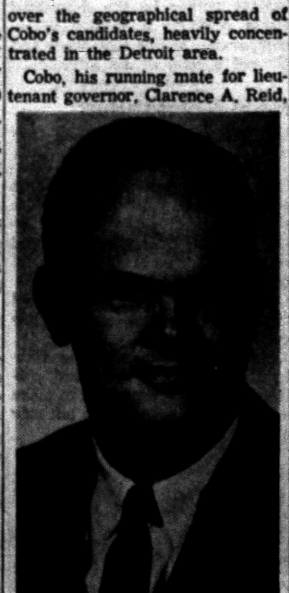

But the largest Cobo pill delegates will be asked to swallow is his backing of Frank C. Padzieski, 47, a politically unknown Dearborn real estate and insurance agent, for treasurer.

Cobo's nod to Padzieski would eliminate John Bellamy of Pontiac, who was regarded last night as the strongest candidate for the post.

Bellamy was backed by delegates throughout the Upper Peninsula and the northern tip of the lower peninsula.

Creligion E. Coleman of Battle Creek, a state senator and last night the strongest candidate for auditor general, would be eliminated from the state ticket by Cobo's possible action.

Some delegates are unhappy

RICHARD VAN DUSEN and Padzieski all are from Wayne County. Van Dusen lives in Birmingham. Simpson represents Jackson, also in Southern Michigan.

WILL TAKE OTHER POST

Bond Changed for Mrs. Wyatt

Mother of 12 Jailed for Five Hours Before $1,000 Is Put Up

A change in bond resulted in the jailing of Mrs. Ada Wyatt, the Keego Harbor mother of 12 who is facing a cruelty charge, yesterday afternoon but she was free again five hours later.

Mrs. Wyatt's bond was changed from a $1,000 personal bond to a $1,000 surety bond by W. Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Deiterle on recommendation of assistant county prosecutor Walter Denison.

Her husband, William, is free on $1,000 personal bond. He is to be charged with neglect.

"The change in bond for Mrs. Wyatt was made because investigation has borne out the fact that we have a stronger case against her than her husband," Denison revealed today.

"As far as we can find out the stepfather (Wyatt) had nothing to do with the burning of Sherry (his stepdaughter). She has told us her mother did it," he added.

Boy Crushed to Death

DETROIT — Two-year-old Robert Japona was pulled partly through the wringer of a washing machine and crushed to death Friday. The boy had been left in the care of his 13-year-old sister, Veronica, who was operating the washing machine. His arms got caught in the wringer when his sister left the house for a few minutes to visit a neighbor.

Two Youthful Bandits Hold Up Pontiac Tavern, Take $2,749

French Troops by Thousands Head for Suez

But Nasser Will Talk With 5-Nation Group in Cairo Monday

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Thousands of French troops boarded ships for duty in the Mediterranean area today while preparations were pushed here for the opening of talks between President Nasser and a five-nation committee on the Suez Canal dispute.

The 30,447-ton French troopship Pasteur sailed from Marseille, France, last night with 4,300 men bound for Algeria.

Twenty-six other ships took on men and equipment at the French port.

Both France and Britain have been building up their military force in the Mediterranean since July 26 when Nasser seized the canal.

The five-nation committee headed by Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies of Australia is to arrive here tomorrow to open talks Monday with Nasser.

The committee is bringing a Western-sponsored plan backed by 15 of the 22 nations which attended the recent London conference on the canal issue.

The plan calls for an international board to operate the canal. The board would be linked to the United Nations and would have Egypt as a member.

Meanwhile, Egypt appears to be having only fair luck in its far flung recruiting drive for skilled pilots to guide shipping through the Suez Canal.

The Egyptian government has run newspaper ads in many nations asking for pilots to take over the delicate and vital posts at Suez and Port Said. Ads have run in places as distant as New York and Tokyo.

Of the European countries, only in France and West Germany were any substantial number of responses reported and there was no indication any pilots had actually signed up.

Weekend Filled

Sports Events Aplenty

DETROIT (INS) — Four pros were tied for first place at the halfway mark of the $20,000 Motor City Open in Detroit today with 140s.

Pressing the leaders with three-under par scores of 141 for the two rounds at Western Golf course were Marty Furgol, Bo Winger and Jack Fleck.

DETROIT (INS) — The 1956 Gold Cup race will be held today on the Detroit River with Shanty I, representing the Seattle Yacht Club, the top favorite.

Shanty I, owned by W. T. Waggoner of Phoenix, Ariz., and piloted by U. S. Air Force Lt. Col. Russell Schlee, won the Harmsworth Trophy last Tuesday and is rated the top speedboat in the race. First heat started at noon.

BATTLE CREEK — Pontiac's GMC baseball team advanced to the 2nd round of the Michigan Baseball Assn. Tournament by winning its 27th straight game in defeating Battle Creek Clarks, 7-1. GMC will play two games today. Other area teams advancing in state tournament play include Drayton Drug in Class C softball at Coldwater; Pulver Tire in Class A Softball at Port Huron and Northside Auto in Class B at Kalamazoo.

Expect 10,000 at Labor Day Speech

Pontiac to Hear Stevenson

An estimated 10,000 persons are expected to pack Murphy Park Monday to hear Democratic Presidential Nominee Adlai E. Stevenson headline a group of state and union officials who will speak at the Oakland County CIO Labor Day celebration.

The afternoon and evening festivities, being held in place of the annual Labor Day parade, is being sponsored by the Oakland County CIO Council. The program will begin at 12:30 with flag raising ceremonies and invocation.

Stevenson is expected to arrive in Pontiac at around 4 p.m. from a Detroit rally. He will give a short speech and depart by 4:30 p.m.

In addition to Stevenson, the council has invited Gov. G. Mennen Williams; Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart; Walter P. Reuther, UAW president; Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the International UAW; William McAuley, director of Region 1-B; August Scholle, president of the Michigan CIO Council; and Senator Patrick V. McNamara.

AMATEUR SHOW

Albert Wilkinson, chairman of the celebration, said registrations will be taken Monday at the park from one until six p.m. for persons wishing to enter an amateur show. Prizes will be awarded in both senior and junior divisions of the show.

Other high points of the program will include a baton twirling exhibition featuring 30 local twirlers and a concert by the Pontiac High School Band.

In addition there will be softball, other games, refreshments,

Waterford Twp. Girl Struck Down by Car

A six-year-old Waterford Township girl escaped with only minor bruises when she was struck down at a Township intersection Friday afternoon.

Margaret Higgins, of 2955 Otsego Rd., was treated and released at Pontiac General Hospital.

Pontiac State Police reported the girl was hurt when she ran in front of a car operated by Katherine Herman, 33, of 2070 Airport Rd., Waterford Township.

and an evening of dancing to follow the amateur contest.

Murphy Park is situated on East Boulevard between Osmond and the Michigan Airline Railroad tracks and adjacent to the Naval Armory.

Lt. Joseph Koren, head of the Pontiac police traffic and safety bureau, reported that an off-street parking lot for several hundred cars will be available at Seward Street and Murphy Park.

PARKING PROHIBITED

He added that parking will be prohibited on the following streets from 6 a.m. Monday until 6 a.m. Tuesday:

Both sides of East Boulevard from Cottage to Midway; both sides of Cottage from East Boulevard to Seward; both sides of Seward from Cottage to Murphy Park; and on both sides of Raeburn Street from East Boulevard to Marshall.

Martha Raye Denied New Divorce Appeal

SEBRING, Fla. (AP)—Entertainer Martha Raye's second Florida attempt to get a divorce from Edward T. Begley was turned down yesterday.

Judge William P. Allen said when the 39-year-old nightclub singer filed her petition Aug. 28 in Highlands County Circuit Court he did not know that another divorce petition she filed had been dismissed in Dade County Aug. 10.

Ike to Aid Adlai

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today President Eisenhower will formally offer Adlai Stevenson, his Democratic opponent, intelligence reports on foreign affairs.

Flies West to Be With Dad

VICE PRESIDENT RICHARD M. NIXON

Dick to Stay Till Sept. 6

Father Nixon Perks Up

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon today resumed his vigil at the bedside of his gravely ill father after flying here from Washington, D. C.

His arrival seemed to spark a slight improvement in the father, Frank Nixon, 77, but Dr. L. N. Kraushaar, the family physician, said the elder Nixon may die "at any instant."

The vice president, who interrupted a vacation with his family at a New Jersey seaside resort to fly here, plans to stay until at least Sept. 6 when he is scheduled to address the American Legion convention at Los Angeles. His wife and two daughters will await his return in Washington.

Dr. Kraushaar said the elder Nixon was "very built up mentally" by his son's arrival but his physical condition remained very weak from the effects of a ruptured abdominal artery, a hemorrhaging stomach ulcer, severe arthritis and arteriosclerosis.

Terrorize, Bind Trio in Bar Before Fleeing

Police Think Same Pair Pulled Similar Stickup Last Month

Two youthful holdup men set down their drinks at closing time in a Pontiac tavern last night and staged a $2,749 robbery.

They escaped after tying up the owner's son, George Killinger Jr., 42; the bartender, George Horton, 25, and a customer, Ernest Fogerty, 116 N. Roselawn Dr.

One man had a revolver and the other a blackjack, Killinger told police. About $2,066 was taken from a cash drawer, $541 from the cash register and the rest from the victims' pockets.

The thugs entered the J & K Tavern at 369 E. Pike St. about 12:30 a.m., according to Killinger, who was managing the place for his father.

They sat down at the bar, Killinger told Detectives Robert Emery and Orville Johnston, and continued to drink beer until Killinger went to the cash register shortly before 2:30 a.m. to count the day's receipts.

Then one man came around the bar, Killinger said, brandishing the revolver and ordered, "Let's go, let's go," motioning towards a rear storage room.

At the same time, the other thug pulled out a blackjack and threatened Fogarty, who was sitting at a table.

The gunman ordered Horton, who was sweeping up, to follow Killinger. In the back room they tore an apron into strips and bound the victims hand and foot.

They wrenched the telephone loose, Killinger said, and left after ordering their victims not to summon police for 15 minutes.

Emery said the pair is believed to have pulled off a similar stickup at a Mt. Clemens bar Aug. 15, where they stole $1,600.

"The method of operation in both cases was the same," Emery said, "even to using an apron to tie up the victims."

One of the men last night was called "Johnnie," he added, which was a name used during the Mt. Clemens crime.

Emery said one man was described as five feet 10 or 11 and his partner about an inch shorter. He said they were about 24 to 27 years old.

The gunman had a high forehead and protruding teeth, Emery said, and his partner, who was hatless, had brown hair. Both were dressed in sport coats and slacks with sport shirts open at the collar.

Killinger, of 892 Emerson St., said the men took his wallet and $80. Horton, of 3070 Churchill Rd. in Auburn Heights, was robbed of $57. Fogerty lost his wallet and $4.

The tavern is owned by George Killinger Sr., of 23 Parkhurst St.

Warm Weather, Clear Skies Seen for the Weekend

Gray skies and a cool streak greeted Labor Day weekenders today. A brief rain before noon sent the mercury down to 66 degrees. The weatherman saw the possibility of more showers today, but hoped for fair weather tonight and tomorrow. The outlook for Monday was mostly fair and warmer.

Weekenders wondered if all the good weather was used up yesterday. The skies were clear and sunny and the temperatures up in the high 80s.

The mercury may go down to about 50 degrees tonight before bouncing up to Sunday temperatures of 72 to 78 degrees.

The weather outlook throughout the state was much the same, but cooler in the north.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 70 degrees. By 1 p.m. the mercury reached 88 degrees.

But Nation's Count Climbing

No County Traffic Deaths So Far

Oakland County survived the first 18 hours of the Labor Day weekend traffic rush without a fatality but there was a possibility the record would be changed before the day is over with two persons on the critical lists at local hospitals from early morning accidents.

The slow local start was similar to that of the entire nation as traffic officials were keeping their fingers crossed that motorists would retain their apparent caution until the 72-hour danger period is over.

Twenty-eight had died on highways across the U. S. up to 9 a.m. today. The overall accident toll was 35.

The National Safety Council has predicted that 490 persons would lose their lives on this only long weekend of the year. If the prediction holds true, it would be a record for Labor Day.

Only four injury accidents were reported from Pontiac and the entire county between 6 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. today but in them a Detroit service man and an Oxford Township resident were critically hurt.

Weldon L. Wolf, 20, Specialist Third Class, suffered a fractured skull and serious hand injuries when his car went off Golf drive across the fifth green of the Pontiac Municipal Golf Course and struck a tree. He is being treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Wolf is a member of the 18th AAA Battalion stationed at Wyoming and Pembroke in Detroit.

Ten Airmen Killed in Alaskan Crash

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A four-engine Air Force weather plane crashed on a tiny island in the Susitna River and exploded yesterday. Ten of the crew were killed and the other is believed dead.

The island, 50 miles northwest of Anchorage, is so small that helicopters were forced to land on a mud bank a quarter mile away. A rescue team sifted through the wreckage of the B-50 and reported that 10 of the crewmen were killed and the other was believed dead.

Names were withheld.

In critical condition at Pontiac General Hospital is Lester F. Daigle, 39, of 5747 Lakeside Rd. He suffered injuries to both legs, internal injuries, and multiple cuts when he was struck by a car and thrown against an oncoming vehicle in Orion Township just after midnight.

Delta Theta Phi Farm Party Set

Planning for Sept. 8 at Glackmore Farms, Near Rochester

Annual farm party of the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity will again be held this year at Glackmore Farms, on Silver Bell road near Rochester, Saturday, Sept. 8.

As in 1955, William Henry Gallagher will be host to the members.

Dean J. Henry Canfield has appointed A. Patrick McIntosh to act as chairman for the event. He will be assisted by members Maxwell Wallace, Harry C. Pratt, Willard E. Munro, Alexander Middleton, Robert C. Murphy, Paul Roth, Nathan B. Goodnow, Lawrence E. Eaton and John D. Phenev.

This year's party will honor the 40th anniversary of the founding of Honorable Senate at the University of Detroit.

Many members of the local and state branch and bar expect to attend, McIntosh has announced.

County Births

Rochester
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shepard Jr. of East Lansing announce the birth of a daughter, Tessa Kay. (Grandparents are the Keith Hamiltons and the Clarens W. Shepards.)

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Moore Jr., 3174 Midvale, are parents of a son.

DRAYTON PLAINS—A simile to the people of Israel looking for their promised land is set up by the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, which is moving into its third temporary home while it awaits completion of its permanent church.

The congregation will hold its final meeting in a converted theater building on Dixie Highway tomorrow with Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and Chapel Corporate Communion, choir and valedictory service at 10 a.m.

Then, says, the vicar, Rev. Waldo E. Hunt, the congregation will make Labor Day a "moving day," with a caravan of trucks and station wagons loaded by members starting the move at 9 a.m. Leader will be chapel warden W. E. Whitmer of Clarkston.

New temporary home will be the Pontiac Lake School, 2515 Williams Lake road.

Coming of a new Kroger Supermarket being built by the Harold Sarko Enterprises, Detroit, forces the move. The theatre building will be razed, starting Tuesday, for a parking lot adjoining the market.

The congregation has been given permission by Sarko to dispose of all "inside salvage" including air conditioner, furnace, and building materials. In charge of this sale is John Sterling, who may be called by prospective purchasers.

Sept. 9 will see first services in the school, with the regular summer schedule continuing.

Church school enrollments will be Sept. 16, when records will begin. But until the new church is

New Library Sets Acquaintance Day

NEW HUDSON — The New Hudson Library will have a get-acquainted Day Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Special invitation is issued to parents of school children to attend, and view the new library and the extensive line of books on hand.

MOMS Officers to Be Installed

METAMORA—New officers of the local chapter, MOMS of America, will be headed by Mrs. Cleve Raymond as president.

Other officers will be Mrs. Earl Stone, first vice-president; Mrs. Clarence Skellenger, second vice-president; Mrs. Harry Whittaker, financial secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Miller, recording secretary; Mrs. Lily Hayden, corresponding secretary.

Best, intermediate, junior and senior departments will attend church services with their parents. Separate Sunday school sessions for pre-school, kindergarten and primary are planned.

Completion of the new church home, which will become an educational building and parish hall when a later church with 300 to 350 seats is built, will be usable in time for Oct. 7, E. L. Walker, chairman of the building committee, says.

The Oct. 7 service, on world wide Communion Sunday, will see start of threefold services, 8 a.m., 9:15 and 11 a.m.

The new building will include nine education rooms and the boiler room on ground level, a sanctuary, multi-purpose room, where additional worship seating will be placed, a kitchen and the vicar's office will be on second floor.

Because of the "bargain" purchase price for the Dixie Highway site for cash, with refinancing aided by All Saints Parish, Pontiac, and the Diocese of Michigan, and the phenomenal growth of the area, the congregation has realized a profit from its sale.

With pledges, contributions, bequests and project income, the church hopes by Oct. 1958, when pledges mature, to be free of indebtedness. Then, the building of the church proper will be possible. The educational building is costing $30,000.

It was designed by Stephen Page of Odell, Hewlett and Lockenbach Assns., of Birmingham.

Arms May Ache in Rochester for Few Weeks

ROCHESTER—Students may be loaded down with books in this city for school officials advise that steel strike delays have prevented installation of school lockers.

Also, the new high school's cafeteria dining room will not be done by the time school opens on Sept. 10. It might, officials say, be necessary for students to carry lunches until the kitchens are opened.

Bus routes have been worked out for students in the village to ride to the newly-located high school. Five steps have been designated, at which any student may board, with a permit card.

Other school bus schedules are undergoing little change from last year. Three new buses will replace three older ones. Junior and Senior High classes start Monday at 8 a.m. and elementary schools at 8:45 a.m.

NEW FRANKLIN CHURCH — Four services in September will consecrate this church that recalls the charm of New England villages for residents of Franklin. It overlooks the tree-shaded village green, where a potluck dinner will follow one of the church services slated.

Tell Schedule for Schooldays in Four Towns

FOUR TOWNS — School commences at Four Towns on Wednesday and Thursday.

Registration for children in grades 1-6 will be on Wednesday along with kindergarten children with the initials A to K. Those with initials L to Z will register Thursday.

Regular school sessions for all grades will be on Friday.

Bus schedule will be the same this year as last year, but kindergarten children will be told at enrollment whether they will have morning or afternoon pick-up by bus.

To Vote on Liquor Issue

ROYAL OAK — Royal Oak voters will be asked Nov. 6 for the third time in 19 years to back liquor by the glass sales in the city. Owners of 17 taverns have circulated petitions for three months to get some 8,573 names to put the issues on the ballot.

Five Granges Plan Meeting at Holly

ORTONVILLE — Oakland County Pomona Granges, which include Lone Pine, Holly, Rose, Groveland and Brandon units, will meet Sept. 6 in the Holly VFW.

The convention is announced by Mrs. Ann Primus, secretary of the Pomona Grange here. Meeting time is 8 p.m.

Delegates will be chosen to attend the state Grange meeting at Petoskey in October.

Installing Officers in Auburn Heights

AUBURN HEIGHTS—Mrs. Glenn Funck has been installed president of Auburn Heights MOMS Unit 13.

Other officers are Mrs. Letus Wright, first vice president; Mrs. Zella Norris, second vice president; L. R. Naugle, recording secretary; Mrs. Etna Arnold, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bernetta Hardin, treasurer and Mrs. Bertha Sprague, chaplain.

Worship in Colon Charm

FRANKLIN — In a setting reminiscent of New England Villages, Church will be consecrated with special services on four September Sundays.

With its steeple rising gracefully more than 100 feet above suburban Franklin's village green, the structure is a marked departure from the trend of erecting churches of contemporary design.

The Sanctuary, seating 300 in the nave and 30 in the chancel, is authentically and charmingly Colonial. A church school wing offers ten classrooms of a multi-purpose nature as well as a social hall, church office and pastor's study.

The steeple's attractive lighting has already attracted many evening visitors.

On Sept. 9, young people of the Church will assist the pastor, Robert J. Searis, in the 10 a.m. worship hour, and will sponsor a homecoming vesper service at 5 p.m.

At that hour former pastors and community leaders will bring greetings, youth and junior choirs will sing and guided tours will be offered.

Bishop Marshall R. Keeg will consecrate the church on Sept. 16 at the 10 a.m. hour, assisted by District Superintendent Benjamin F. Holme.

Preceding the service will be a 7:45 communion service and a "stand-up" breakfast. For Ecumenical Day on Sept. 23, Dr. G. Merrill Lenox, executive secretary of the Detroit and Michigan Councils of Churches, will preach.

The final September Sunday will be marked by receiving into membership the largest adult class in the church's history. The Sacrament of Baptism will be celebrated and a family potluck dinner will be held on the green at noon.

The church was organized in 1840 and has worshipped since 1861 in a building two blocks east of the new structure.

But some areas, such as Rochester still have teaching vacancies to be filled. Rochester has three jobs open, according to Supt. Donald C. Baldwin.

That area's schools have 34 newcomers joining the faculty, 12 for the junior high, three in senior high, three at Avon, seven at Brooklands, two at Goodison, one each at Hamlin, Harrison-Central, North Hill, and two at Woodward.

Supplementary art teacher will be Maeta Nieman, while Beth Hohelsel, who last year taught art at three grade schools will teach in the junior high this year.

In the Huron Valley school system 20 new teachers have been hired to take care of increased enrollment.

More than 1,000 pupils have enrolled in the Huron Valley school system, Superintendent Harold Hansen said.

In Imlay City, 11 new teachers will appear on the faculty on opening day.

They include new kindergarten, second, fourth and sixth grade teachers, one each for Sandhill and White schools, and new coach, Carl Mortland.

Also, new will be four high school teachers.
