Gas Pipeline Explosion Kills 17 in Louisiana

Ten Children Included With Blast Victims

Some Still Missing; 9 Hospitalized From Residential Section

NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP) — A natural gas pipeline exploded in a residential area near here early today. Seventeen persons, including 10 children, were killed.

Authorities said two or three other children were unaccounted for. At least nine persons were taken to a hospital, but their injuries were not believed serious.

A deputy sheriff said the dead and injured were residents of the neighborhood, just across Louisiana Highway 1 from a country club.

The blast, occurring 150 yards behind a row of frame houses, created a crater 15 feet deep, 75 feet long and 30 feet wide.

★ ★ ★

Flames from escaping gas soared upward 400 feet or more before Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. workmen managed to stop the flow.

IN VICINITY

Charles Cunningham, publisher of the weekly Natchitoches Enterprise, lives in the vicinity of the explosion. He said the blast looked like a bolt of lightning.

"Then there was a rumble like thunder," he said. "I thought perhaps it was thunder or a sonic boom. Then I went to the window and saw the flames."

The explosion occurred about 6 a.m.

★ ★ ★

State police estimated damage from the blast and accompanying fireball at over a million dollars.

★ ★ ★

Five houses were leveled, with furnishings scattered over 15 to 20 acres. Six cars and three trucks were destroyed. A nearby sawmill was damaged.

Battle Moscow Police, Troops

Reds Riot at U.S. Embassy

MOSCOW (UPI) — A mob of 2,000 students denouncing President Johnson as a "murderer" broke through massed lines of unarmed police and soldiers today and attacked the U. S. Embassy. They were driven back in hand-to-hand fighting which raged for hours.

It was the most violent anti-American demonstration witnessed in Moscow in more than a decade.

As the battle wore on it became clear the fury of the mob was directed as much against police and soldiers as it was against the United States.

Russians and Asians—including Chinese Communists singing the "Internationale"—screamed "Stop protecting the Americans" and "You are worse than the imperialists."

★ ★ ★

They also screamed anti-American slogans and accused Johnson of murdering North Vietnamese.

FIST FIGHTS

Fist fights swirled through the snow and slush in front of the 10-story embassy.

Russian mounted police charged their horses repeatedly into the mob and a number of students, police and soldiers were seen bleeding profusely from cuts.

At one point a Chinese contingent broke through police barrier and attacked police with clubs before being shoved back.

★ ★ ★

Rocks and snowballs knocked a mounted policeman off his horse and he retired, apparently injured.

President Johnson had denounced a lack of police protection during a Feb. 9 attack on the embassy as an "outrage."

Soviet authorities, apparently stung by the criticism, had arranged elaborate precautions today, including steel barricades and lines of snow plows.

But the precautions were not enough. The students, fired up by reports in the Soviet press of American bombing attacks on North Viet Nam, first attacked police and then swarmed over the barriers to the embassy itself.

★ ★ ★

The embassy had been forewarned of the demonstration and windows on the first three floors were boarded up with plywood. But the mob smashed the plywood coverings and used slingshots to break windows on the upper floor where American Embassy workers live in apartments.

CHANTING ABUSE

The students, screaming and chanting abuse at Americans for the bombing attacks, hurled rocks, pieces of metal, ball bearings, ice and ink bottles. The American seal was defaced with splashes of red, black, green and purple ink.

The mob put placards and signs on the iron gates of the embassy, denouncing American policies.

★ ★ ★

When police failed to drive them back troops were called in.

The troops, police, and demonstrators scuffled in the slush, and at last fire hoses were brought into play. The students then retreated under the icy blasts of water.

VIOLENCE CONTINUED

Even then violence continued. About 20 students were arrested and the mobs re-formed on the sidewalk in front of the embassy and threatened to remain there until their arrested comrades were released. Fist fights continued on the edge of the throng.

At least five policemen were reported hurt and an unknown number of students were seen with blood streaming down their faces.

Soviet authorities brought in a mobile first aid truck to treat the injured on the scene.

At one point eight mounted police charged into the demonstrators, knocking one down and trampling him.

LINKED ARMS

Chinese students, clad in light-blue uniforms, linked arms as the horses bore down on them and police veered off at the last second.

The Chinese were the most violent. They engaged in heated arguments with police and were among the first to attack the embassy.

★ ★ ★

Some of them, blood streaming from their faces, were helped to the sidelines by their comrades.

RED POLICE VS. STUDENTS — Russian police clash with students from China and Viet Nam in front of the U.S. Embassy in Moscow. The students staged a protest against U.S. air attacks on North Viet Nam. The protests turned into a riot. The students broke many windows and splashed ink on the building.

Slayer of Three Freed by Judge

Sentence Is Limited to 5-Year Probation

DETROIT (AP) — A sympathizing judge bestowed freedom yesterday on locomotive engineer John H. Frazier in the fatal shootings of his wife, her alleged lover and a second man.

Recorder's Criminal Judge Vincent J. Brennan, declaring Frazier should be allowed freedom in order to raise his family of four children, limited the sentence to five years probation.

"Your friends and the thousands of persons who have sent me petitions in this case have already passed judgment on you and asked that you be shown leniency," Judge Brennan said.

Frazier, 41, permitted to plead guilty to manslaughter, had faced possible life imprisonment on an earlier first-degree murder charge.

Police said Frazier shot and killed his wife, Dorothy, 40, when he found her in the embrace of Clarence Z. DePotie, 47, at a radio announcers' school last Sept. 14.

Then, police said, Frazier also shot to death both DePotie and Pierre Paulin, 51, former Detroit radio announcer who operated the school. A revolver was the weapon. Frazier was arrested at his home later.

★ ★ ★

RAISED FAMILY

Judge Brennan said Frazier was a man of "clean and good moral character" and had raised his family well despite troubles caused him by his wife.

LBJ Is Due to Sign Appalachia Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's top-priority Appalachia aid bill has cleared Congress and is ready for President Johnson's signature.

The House approved the $1.1-billion measure yesterday by a vote of 257 to 165 after 16 attempts by Republicans to amend it were defeated by top-heavy counts and a GOP substitute was rejected 323 to 100.

The Senate passed the bill last month.

The President was expected to lose no time approving the bill, one of the major items in his "Great Society" legislative program and the first to be passed.

Subject to later appropriations, the bill would authorize federal funds for programs intended to bolster the sagging economy of 360 counties in 11 states of the Appalachian area.

These states are Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia. The door was left open for adding 13 New York counties later.

Most of the money, $840 million, would be spent during the next five years to build 3,350 miles of highways and access roads, with the government paying up to 70 per cent of the cost.

Another $252.2 million of government money would be used during the next two years to build health facilities, improve farm and timber lands, restore mining areas, develop water resources and boost federal funds available under existing programs.

Local contributions of from 20 to 30 per cent would be required for the nonhighway programs.

May Expand Hospital Care

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee is considering a plan to expand President Johnson's proposal for hospital and nursing home care for the elderly to include coverage of doctors' bills.

★ ★ ★

The committee has been studying hospital care legislation for the past two months. It is expected to begin voting on a bill sometime next week.

A committee spokesman emphasized that no decisive action has yet been taken on the measure. He indicated that the panel merely asked for cost estimates on a plan broader than that proposed by the administration.

Johnson's health care proposal, sometimes known as "medicare," would involve an insurance plan for persons 65 or over and would provide hospital coverage and nursing home care.

It would be financed by increasing social security taxes.

Rep. John W. Byrnes, Wis., ranking Republican on the ways and means committee, has proposed an alternative program which also would include coverage of hospital bills.

Figures Total $11.5 Million

City School Budget Proposed

An $11.5-million preliminary operating budget for 1965-66 was introduced last night at the Pontiac School Board meeting.

The proposed budget, which School Supt. Dr. Dana Whitmer described as "pointing to where the needs are greatest and the profit will be greatest," is $485,630 more than this year's budget.

The $11,552,056 preliminary budget is subject to revision before final adoption in June.

As proposed, the preliminary budget would not call for a tax increase, school administrators indicated.

Largest increase in the proposed budget is $374,231 for instruction costs.

This figure includes a provision for an approximate 2.5 per cent reserve for teachers, designed to pay increases in salaries.

STILL MEETING

The administration and teacher representatives are still meeting in efforts to set the 1965-66 salary schedule.

A two per cent salary reserve was also provided for noninstructional personnel.

School administrators said last night that this budget increase for salary hikes might not be enough to keep the schools in a competitive hiring position.

Other reasons listed for the increase in the proposed budget were:

REASONS LISTED

- An increase of 103 pupils

Oh, More Snow; What a Blow

Nature doesn't seem to care whether or not we've recuperated from the last snowfall. She's planning more for tonight.

Temperatures will turn colder, also. A low of 24 to 29 is expected.

Snow flurries and cloudy skies are in store for tomorrow. A high of 25 to 30 is forecast.

Saturday's outlook is for partly cloudy skies and continued cold weather.

Today in Pontiac, winds are easterly to northeasterly at 8 to 15 miles an hour. Becoming northeasterly to northerly tonight at 12 to 25 miles an hour, the winds will shift to the northwest at 15 to 25 miles tomorrow.

This morning's low mercury reading was 32. At 2 p.m. the area had a high of 38.

GMTC Division Is Off to Fast Start

GMC Truck & Coach Division is off to the best domestic sales year since 1951, with 18,848 trucks and buses being delivered in January and February.

Calvin J. Werner, a vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division today said the two-month figure is 14.6 per cent ahead of the 16,453 units delivered in the comparable period last year.

★ ★ ★

Last month, 9,591 GMC trucks and buses were delivered. This compares with 7,761 in February 1964.

Viet Toll in February Is Worst

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Vietnamese armed forces suffered their heaviest casualties yet against the Viet Cong during February, U.S. military officials reported today.

The report said 870 men were killed, 1,820 wounded and 1,450 missing. Many of the missing was presumed to have deserted.

The total of 4,140 compared with the previous high of 4,-050 in December 1964.

U. S. officials estimated the Viet Cong suffered 2,065 casualties, a figure equaled in official reports only twice before — in March and December 1964.

Vietnamese figures on Communist losses are usually somewhat higher. American officials here discount them as not backed up by accurate count in the field.

U. S. DEAD

The roll of American combat dead for February totaled 43, also above the monthly average.

Most of these men were killed in the Viet Cong attacks on American installations at Pleiku and Qui Nhon, which prompted retaliatory air strikes at North Viet Nam.

Eight were killed at Pleiku Feb. 7 and 23 in the bombing of a U.S. enlisted men's billet at Qui Nhon Feb. 10.

NEW HIGH

The American report also listed a new high in loss of government weapons — 2,590 — while the Viet Cong lost 655 weapons in combat.

The Communists lost more than 3,500 weapons captured after the sinking of a munitions ship on the central Vietnamese coast.

The ship is believed to have carried the weapons directly from North Viet Nam.

This cache was not counted in the report because the weapons were never in combat.

CONTINUE SEARCH

U. S. Forces continued their search today for an American pilot missing since his jet fighter-bomber was shot down during the raid on Quang Khe.

The pilot, 1st Lt. Hayden J. Lockhart of Springfield, Ohio, was flying an F100 assigned Tuesday to knocking out Communist antiaircraft batteries prior to bomb runs by Vietnamese Skyraiders.

Lockhart was seen bailing out over a wooded area and was presumed to have reached the ground safely.

He has not been heard from since and is the only American casualty that has been reported from the raid.

SAVED 4 OTHERS

American helicopters and amphibious planes rescued four other American pilots and one Vietnamese who were shot down during the raids Tuesday on the

in the school system, creating the need for additional teachers, supplies and equipment;

★ ★ ★

● The additions to Alcott and Frost schools creating some increase in plant operation and service costs;

● A one per cent increase in the cost of supplies and utilities included to accommodate an anticipated increase in the consumer price index;

★ ★ ★

● Provisions for some improvement in educational programs and services.

The 1965-66 budget provides for a per pupil cost of $515.42.

This is $19.39 higher than the present budget, and ranks Pontiac schools 20th among 55 metropolitan schools in the amount of money spent per pupil.

★ ★ ★

Anticipated revenues, which were estimated in June of 1964, fall short of the proposed budget.

WHITMER'S ESTIMATE

Whitmer estimated that the schools would collect $11,409,400 from local taxes, state aid and other sources during the 1965-66 fiscal year.

This is about $150,000 below the proposed budget.

If these estimates are borne out, the schools would be forced to use some of the unallocated reserves which the district maintains each fiscal year to balance the budget.

★ ★ ★

The estimated revenues are based on assumptions which could prove to be inaccurate, Whitmer said, and the schools might have to dig deeper than planned into the reserve funds.

DEPRECIATION SCHEDULE

The superintendent said because of the State Tax Commission's new depreciation schedule for industrial personal property, the state equalized valuation in the school district may drop by $10 million.

This would mean an estimated $190,000 loss in revenue for the schools.

Also, and even more critical, the school's allocated millage may not remain at the present level.

★ ★ ★

Whitmer said the county tax allocation board may choose not to levy a 1.4 mill variable allocation in 1965 unless legislation is adopted which provides for the variable.

1.4 MILLS VARIABLE

This 1.4 mills variable was taken away from one school district in the county last year.

If the millage is not levied here, the schools would lose approximately $550,000 in funds, Whitmer said.

On the bright side, however, were reports that state aid may be increased to schools.

★ ★ ★

Whitmer said if the increase was granted by the legislature, Pontiac schools could gain $123,000 in revenue.

Report U.A.R. Caught Spies

Claim Israel Plot to Kill Rocket Scientists

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UP) — A Cairo newspaper said today the United Arab Republic smashed a spy ring directed by Israel which plotted to kill West German rocket scientists working for Egypt.

★ ★ ★

"Israel found in some German nationals a convenient cover for carrying out her terrorists operation," the newspaper Al Ahram said.

The newspaper said most of the persons arrested last Saturday as members of the ring were West Germans.

The U.A.R. has confirmed only four arrests so far but the West Germany Embassy here said on Saturday that at least seven of its nationals have been arrested.

"It is noteworthy that some of those arrested in the ring . . . lived and mixed with some of the German scientists themselves within the framework of the German community's social elations," Al Ahram said. "That is to say, some of the Germans used to meet those whose task it was to kill them by any means to benefit Israel."

SAID HE CONFESSED

The newspaper said one of the "most outstanding members of the ring" was West German Wolfgang Lotz.

It said he confessed yesterday to sending a booby trapped package to Dr. Wolfgang Pilz, director of the Egyptian rocket program.

Pilz's German secretary lost her sight when she opened the package and it exploded in her face, Al Ahram said.

The paper said Lotz also confessed to booby-trapping a letter addressed to another German expert which was detected at a post office in Maadi, a Cairo suburb where many Germans live.

ON THE TRAIL

Al Ahram said U.A.R. authorities had been on the trail of the ring since the letter was seized.

PARTIES TO FATAL ACCIDENT—Actress Elizabeth Taylor and her French chauffeur, Gaston Sanz, are shown arriving from Paris in London yesterday after the funeral for the chauffeur's son. They then left for Dublin near where a car driven by Sanz and carrying Miss Taylor struck and killed Mrs. Alice Ryan, 76, according to police reports.

Estes Finally Wins in Court

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Billie Sol Estes won what was possibly his last inning in court, but it was too late to keep the one-time captain of farm finance out of prison.

A federal court jury acquitted him Wednesday of fudging in sworn accounts of how much he owed to obtain Commodity Credit Corp. contracts paying more than $5 million a year for storage of surplus grain.

The West Texas promoter, credited with considerable influence in Washington and among some top business executives until he went broke in 1962, nevertheless is bound behind bars.

Estes, 40, was convicted in two earlier trials on state charges of swindling and federal charges of mail fraud and conspiracy, both based on dealings on around $24-million worth of mostly worthless mortgages on farm fertilizer tanks.

★ ★ ★

REJECT PLEA

Only Monday, as his latest trial started here, the Supreme Court rejected Estes' final plea for review of his 15-year sentence in the mail fraud case. He still is appealing an eight-year prison term on a state conviction of swindling.

His wife Patsy, a worried looking blonde, and their son and four daughters listened to closing arguments from a front row bench a few feet behind Estes.

★ ★ ★

As jurors returned after deliberating more than four hours, U.S. Dist. Judge Sarah T. Hughes firmly ordered spectators to refrain from any demonstration.

★ ★ ★

Liz Aids Woman, Dying After Mishap

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — "My God! My God! My God!" cried Elizabeth Taylor, jumping from her Rolls Royce and pillowing the dying Irish widow on a mink coat.

Sobbing hysterically, the film star rushed to aid Alice Ryan Wednesday after her chauffeur-driven car struck the 76-year-old woman. A spokesman for Miss Taylor said Mrs. Ryan stepped into the path of the car.

★ ★ ★

The accident occurred as Miss Taylor and her French chauffeur, Gaston Sanz, were returning from the funeral in France of Sanz' 16-year-old son. He was killed at a shooting gallery under circumstances which have not been clarified.

"I saw Miss Taylor get out of the car," a bystander said. "She was staggering about in the roadway with her hands to her head, crying.

WAITED FOR AMBULANCE

"Then she walked to the dying woman, rolled her mink coat into a pillow and tried to comfort her while they waited for an ambulance."

Miss Taylor followed the ambulance to the hospital where Mrs. Ryan was pronounced dead.

★ ★ ★

Sanz was driving Miss Taylor from the airport to a studio where her husband, Richard Burton, was making a film. Burton was notified and went with the chauffeur to a police station.

Authorities said no charge had been filed.

TERRIBLY DISTRESSED

"Obviously," a police officer said, "the driver is terribly distressed."

A spokesman for Miss Taylor said Mrs. Ryan had walked onto a stretch of road with no speed limit and it was impossible to avoid her. The car skidded 50 yards and came to a stop facing the way it had come. It was badly damaged.

Earlier Sanz had told reporters in London:

"I want the whole world to know what a wonderful woman she (Miss Taylor) is — and what a wonderful man her husband is as well.

TRAGIC BLOW

"My son's death was a tragic blow, but in all that we have gone through, Miss Taylor has helped us by being such a human person."

During the airport interview, Miss Taylor's secretary, Richard Hanley, said jewelry stolen from the star's room in a Dublin hotel Sunday night was worth "much more" than a first estimate of $50,000.

"I will not know how much it was worth until I have checked it against my inventory," Hanley said.

Bring Back, Bring Back My Compact to Me

A prospective used car buyer was so impressed with a car he took for a trial spin yesterday that he kept on driving and hasn't been seen since.

The "customer" inquired about a 1963 Corvair about 1 p.m. at the used car lot of Spartan Dodge Inc., 855 Oakland.

★ ★ ★

Salesman Darrell Thybault suggested he take it for a trial run. He did.

Thybault is still waiting to hear what the man thought of the car, but it's a safe assumption that he was real pleased.

DPW Will End Firm's Contract

Unhappy With Work on Waterford Mains

The Oakland County Department of Public Works has taken action to terminate the contract of one of the construction firms laying water mains in Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

In its notice of termination to Schwab Brothers of Buffalo, N. Y., the DPW which is acting as agent for the township in the water project, cited eight points of noncompliance to the contract.

Donald Ringler, deputy director of the DPW, said the primary reasons for the contract termination were the continuing complaints of inadequate job supervision by the contractor and the firm's failure to pay some of its suppliers, subcontractors and employes.

Schwab Brothers was awarded approximately half of the $7.35 million water system contract. Louis Garavaglia Inc. has the balance.

★ ★ ★

Ringler said that the termination notice was issued this week after the construction firm failed to take remedial action on a previous notice of intent to terminate if corrections were not made.

NOTIFY COMPANY

Ringler said that a letter has been sent to Glens Falls Insurance Co., the bonding company for the water project, advising of the termination action.

The bonding company will have 10 days to appoint a contractor of its choice to take over the job and complete the work, Ringler said.

If the bonding firm doesn't act within this period, the DPW will assume the responsibility of obtaining a new contractor, Ringler said, with the financial backing of the bonding firm.

★ ★ ★

Schwab Brothers has been struck by Teamsters Local 614 for the past three weeks mainly over the issues of health and welfare payments and overtime pay.

HONOR WALKOUT

Honoring the walkout by the five truck drivers were 20 operating engineers and 25 laborers.

★ ★ ★

Kenneth Squiers, superintendent of the Waterford Township water department, said that completion of the water project probably would be delayed two months due to the strike and the change of contractors.

He expects work to be done by August 1.

Queen of Sweden Suffers Heart Attack

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)— Queen Louise underwent a six-hour operation here today after suffering a heart attack.

The king's adjutant, Carl Beck-Friis, said after the operation the queen is "in serious condition but there is still hope."

Birmingham Area News

Programmed Learning to Be Aired Next Week

BIRMINGHAM — Another aspect of the Birmingham Plan—programmed learning — will be presented to local educators next week.

★ ★ ★

Approximately 200 Birmingham Public School teachers, administrators and board of education members will attend a 5:30 p.m. dinner-meeting Thursday at Berkshire Junior High School.

There they will hear experts explain how programmed learning can help teachers meet the specific needs of students.

Dr. Derek Nunney, associate professor of education and clinical psychology at Wayne State University, will open discussion of the field.

★ ★ ★

He will indicate how the programmed learning materials provide more opportunity for individualized instruction.

EXPLAIN MATERIALS

The selection and use of the materials will be explained by Mrs. Florence Striph and Gerald Gould of Garden City Schools.

That system currently is involved in a three-year programmed learning program supported by the United States Office of Health, Education and Welfare.

Schools Supt. Dr. John B. Smith will speak on Birmingham's involvement in a pilot program during 1965-66.

★ ★ ★

SPECIFIC NEED

His teacher plans and organizes materials which are tailored to meet his specific needs.

The program is one of the major projects developed under the five-year Birmingham Plan, aimed at improving the quality of the district's educational program and individualizing instruction.

The Wayne State University Children's Theatre will dramatize "Jack and the Beanstalk" Saturday at the Birmingham Theater.

★ ★ ★

The play based on the famous fairy tale will be sponsored by the American Association of University Women's Children's Theatre Group.

Tickets for the 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. performances can be purchased at the door.

No Communist air activity has been reported during any of the raids on North Viet Nam.

JOHN E. KRONENBERG

Dem Is Named to County Post

Branch manager of the Secretary of State office in Berkley John E. Kronenberg today was named Oakland County deputy clerk-register of deeds.

The appointment was made by Clerk-Register of Deeds John D. Murphy.

Active in the Democratic Party since 1948, Kronenberg, 41, was a candidate for the 68th Representative District seat last November.

He ran for the county clerk post in 1958 and again in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Kronenberg, 613 Sixth, Royal Oak, is also a past chairman of the Royal Oak Democratic Club.

He succeeds Richard H. Terry, 27, who resigned from the $8,000 a year job in mid-February to return to his insurance business in Warren. Terry had held the post a little more than a month.

Lost Bet on Barry: Sailing to Australia

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Last November Robert Ansett told his boss that he had such faith in Republican Barry Goldwater's chance for the presidency that he'd leave the country if he lost.

Early this morning Ansett, his wife, their three children and another couple and their three children sailed aboard the SS Iberia for Australia and a new home.

"My bet just brought the situation to a head faster than it would have been," said Ansett, 31.

"We'd have left sooner or later anyway, with things here the way they are."

THOUGHT IT OVER

Peter Kemmsies, 30, Ansett's neighbor in San Diego and now traveling companion, said they had been thinking about leaving for several months.

"This country has treated us well," said Kemmsies, a construction firm owner. "But we can't live in the past. I have a responsibility to my wife and my kids to make sure that they'll have an opportunity to think for themselves.

"The way the United States is going, government even regulates your personal insurance. There's just no initiative left."

Ansett, a bakery route salesman, said "Australia presently is more socialistic than the United States but the trend there is toward conservatism. It's just the opposite here," he said.

Specifically, Ansett said he objected to the tax structure, Social Security, government controls on commerce and "taking the initiative from the individual."

"There just isn't the opportunity now that there was when the country was young," he said.

★ ★ ★

Kemmsies agreed, adding, "we're not bitter. But if our children want to be independent and think and do for themselves without all the government controls they'll just have to get out of here. It's a great country, but it's not what it used to be."

How did their wives react?

GOT THE WORD

"I came home," said Kemmsies, "and said: 'Baby, let's go to Australia,' She said, 'So . . .'"

Ansett said it took five minutes to convince his wife that the move was a good idea.

★ ★ ★

Each couple has three children, two boys and a girl. The oldest of the six children is 7, the youngest, 2.

"They're all looking forward to the trip," said Mrs. Kemmsies.

SOLD EVERYTHING

Both families sold their homes, cars and furniture to buy their tickets. Both confided that there would be little money left for luxuries.

"There are a lot of jobs available in Australia," Ansett said. "We'll just have to take whatever comes along at first and plan from there."

Pontiac, Mattawan Will Swap Mayors

Pontiac has been paired with the small community of Mattawan for the annual exchange of mayors and village presidents May 17 during Michigan Week.

★ ★ ★

Mattawan, located off I-94, is 11 miles from Kalamazoo near the western edge of Van Buren County in southwestern Michigan.

Its population is about 760.

In other area pairings, the City of Sylvan Lake was linked with Richmond, while Lake Angelus will exchange with Prescott.

2 Fractured Legs Fail to 'Break' Family's Spirit

A Michigan "snow job" has failed to dim the spirits of a warm-weather-bred Westl Bloomfield Township family.

Members of the Leland Connor family were anticipating a "real" winter when they moved into their new home at 4321 Normanwood last summer, after spending most of their lives in California.

The Connor children were completely outfitted for winter sports.

On Jan. 2, Gregory, 15, broke his leg tobogganing.

Deborah, 13, broke her leg Monday while skiing.

"We were going to outfit Denise, who's 8, and get her started," Mrs. Connor said.

"But now we'll wait until next year."

Sad 'Weigh' to Dispose of Anchors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Here was the Navy, awash with fourton anchors. What to do? Build a few hundred extra big ships? Well, no. It was decided instead to sell off the anchors as surplus.

However, the market for anchors of that particular size turned out to be thin. So thin, in fact, that the Commerce Department said the people who make them were already in trouble and might actually founder if the Navy put up 1,000 anchors for sale.

So the Navy sold its anchors with the stipulation they could be used only for scrap. The buyers had to cut them up. Instead of a possible $715,000 recovery, the Navy thus netted only $243,000.

Enter the congressional watchdog — the General Accounting Office (GAO).

The GAO, which recounted this sad sea saga in a report to Congress yesterday, said somebody goofed. It didn't say who but the finger of suspicion appeared to point to the Commerce Department.

It seems Commerce, which includes the Maritime Administration, at the same time was itself getting rid of big anchors, left over from scrapped liberty ships.

GOP May Set Up Panel on Minority Group Roles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders concerned with reclaiming the Negro vote are considering setting up a national panel on minority policies headed by Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said the name of Brooke, who holds the highest elective office filled by a Negro, had been mentioned as a possible head of a panel of this nature which may be set up by the new Republican Coordinating Committee.

★ ★ ★

The committee, composed of GOP leaders of Congress, former party presidential nominees, governors and members of the GOP National Committee, meets here Wednesday to organize.

At that time, Dirksen said he expects panels to be set up to study the fields of economic activities and foreign relations. He said no final conclusion has been reached yet on how to tackle the problems of the nation's minorities but establishment of a panel is under discussion.

RESTORE CONFIDENCE

"We certainly need to restore the confidence of the nation's minorities in the Republican party and this may be one approach to it," he said.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said in a separate interview he favors action by the coordinating group to broaden party contacts with minority voters of all kinds.

★ ★ ★

"We've got to try to establish communication not only with the Negroes but with Spanish-speaking Americans and other ethnic groups," he said.

Dirksen now is working with Johnson administration leaders in attempting to draft a voting rights bill aimed at getting Negroes registered where they are encountering difficulties.

★ ★ ★

Dirksen expects to rally nearly solid Republican support for a measure of this nature in the Senate. If Southern Democrats try to talk it to death, which now seems unlikely, the Illinois senator obviously believes that would serve to emphasize the GOP position.

Income Tax Is Not the Key to Our City's Fiscal Woe

The PRESS opposition to a city income tax is analogous to that of the individuals who protest that "it's not the money, it's the principle."

We are in complete accord with the need expressed by City Hall for more money to run the City in the manner to which the citizenry has become accustomed.

It is our belief that, except for one short regime, Pontiac has been well and economically governed.

★ ★ ★

With few exceptions, the city commission has had members of ability and integrity. Few municipalities have enjoyed the long continuity of trained and competent city managers as has Pontiac.

We include the present commissioners and city executive in this category of excellence.

But we do not believe that the creation of another tax, with additional cost of administration, is the answer to the city's fiscal problem.

Historically, on a national level the country managed splendidly prior to the adoption of an income tax in 1913.

Since then, although the initial insignificant tax rates have been enormously increased, the national debt has steadily climbed to the staggering present level of $300-plus billion.

While granting that fiscal comparison between the national and a local government is inconclusive in some respects, the fact remains that the Federal income tax per se has by no means proved an economic panacea.

In sum, we think that within our present tax-revenue framework lie the sources of adequate money to run Pontiac's city government.

★ ★ ★

It is on that premise that we reiterate our opinion that a qualified study group should be initiated to review the total fiscal and tax structure of the city as the basis for a recommended long term program for solution of its current financial stringency.

Facts of Life Belie Academic Appraisal

A listing in Who's Who is one sign of success in life. Surprisingly, though, many of those who have achieved membership in this rather exclusive circle would never have been voted "Most Likely to Succeed."

A study of 1,072 leaders in business, education and government, made by a professor of education of the University of California, turns up the fact that the majority of these persons—all noted in Who's Who in America—averaged only C-plus to B grades in college. Four per cent were D-minus students.

★ ★ ★

Citing the study, another educator notes that these leaders did only moderately well within the narrow band of the traditional school and college curriculum. But later, "in the wider spectrum of life experience," they blossomed.

"One wonders," he says, "what their schools might have done for them if they had provided more opportunities for individual interest-finding and exploration interests."

Brace Beemer

The Lone Ranger won't ride again.

Death unexpectedly claimed BRACE BEEMER, who for two decades gripped radio listeners, young and old, with his feats of derring-do. Programmed by 200 radio stations across the land, the show ran "live" until 1956.

Astride his horse Silver, the hero of the serialized script was to a great extent personifying the flamboyance of his own life.

A native of Illinois, Beemer was the youngest American soldier in World War I, being but just over 14 when he enlisted. He spent 111 consecutive days in the trenches in Baccarat and was in the last battle of the war at Sedan. He served with the Army of Occupation in Germany until discharged.

Although the Ranger had retired and was making his home in Oxford Township, his multitude of followers had other ideas. In a recent upsurge of radio programming, 32 stations had begun broadcasting recorded Lone Ranger programs — after a survey of interest had brought more than 300,000 calls from devotees.

Countless numbers of friends and fans will mourn the passing of the gallant man on horseback whose "Hi-Yo Silver, Away!" trademarked the adventures that entertained and thrilled millions of Americans.

Burch Leaves Success Formula

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Dean Burch, retiring chairman of the Republican National Committee, has fired a parting shot with recommendations for improving his party's image and explanations for its loss of the 1964 election.

MARLOW

He spread the blame for the loss generously:

The memory of President John F. Kenneoy; the way President Johnson used his presidential power; criticism of Sen. Barry Goldwater by Republicans; loss of the Negro vote; big business support of Johnson; and a few newspaper "pundits."

He never once conceded that perhaps the voters themselves, and on their own, decided they wanted no part of Goldwater after listening to him and examining what he stood for.

Burch, in a 21-page review of the past and survey of the future, concentrated almost entirely on suggesting how the Republicans could set up machinery to regain public confidence.

★ ★ ★

The closest he came to proposing a fresh Republican role was to restate Goldwater positions which, he said, were Republican positions:

BARRY'S POSITIONS

The government is too big; it has too much power; it spends too much on welfare programs; there are too many restrictions on business; and "we need a firmer stand against communism everywhere in the world."

After the election, when Republicans made it clear they didn't want him running their committee any more, Burch agreed to step out next month in favor of Ray Bliss of Ohio.

It was to Bliss that Burch directed his recommendations in a document widely distributed late Tuesday.

Year-round campaigning; intensive research to provide information for party spokesmen; task forces to study problems and come up with programs; a lot of opinion research and polling; an "enormous" public relations and "propaganda" job; a staff of full-time, paid professionals to go around the country instructing Republicans in the "art of political organization."

"Don't Get Us Wrong, Officer, We're Putting Money IN"

David Lawrence Says:

Presidential Trips of Little Value

WASHINGTON — If the American people had a chance to register their opinion, there is every indication that they would express themselves emphatically against a president of the United States leaving the country for any purpose.

On the basis LAWRENCE of mail received here, it is evident that public opinion believes there is more to be lost than gained when the chief executive goes on trips abroad, whether they are to Europe or Asia or in this hemisphere. It isn't merely that risks are believed to be involved, but the actual benefit is questionable.

Theoretically, good relations are established when the head of one state visits another head of state. Monarchs of other times used to go to another country as a manifestation of good will largely because communication through press and radio and television was not available in those days.

About the only value of the visits of presidents or prime ministers today is the impression made on the public by street processions that draw big crowds in a foreign capital.

★ ★ ★

It has often been claimed that a president who visits other countries creates good will, but as a practical matter any issues in controversy rarely are changed by such visits. For nothing can be added to what already has been said, because through ambassadors and exchange of visits by other high officials a nation's viewpoint is fully explained and intensively argued back and forth.

Even the privacy of a direct telephone line overseas now is readily attainable.

There is some justification for a secretary of state traveling to other contries and for Cabinet officers to go abroad when they have particular problems which do not lend themselves to diplomatic correspondence.

But a president of the United States is himself the final authority on governmental business and what he says in conversation with other heads of state becomes a formal and official decision.

If a president stays at home, however, he can receive telephone or telegraphic reports from his secretary of state and ambassadors, and then present the different sides of a problem to the members of his Cabinet and other advisers, who, after thorough deliberation, can reach a conclusion.

There is, of course, an element of personal risk involved when a president goes to foreign countries.

MANY APPREHENSIVE

Many persons who have written in on the subject are apprehensive about this. But the real paradox is that, when a president or vice president has gone abroad, there is little in the way of progress to show for it afterward.

With respect to the Soviet Union, for example, many people in the United States are doubtful that a visit by President Johnson would in any way alter the Kremlin's policy of double-dealing.

When a president of the United States leaves this country, the business of the executive branch of the government for the most part goes on normally.

There is, however, no denying the fact that some decisions are deferred or postponed on major policies which, under other circumstances, would be promptly consummated.

Much talk has been heard recently about how the government suffers when a president is disabled and cannot perform the duties of his office, but there has been very little attention given to the damage to the public interest which arises when a president is absent for two or three weeks in foreign countries.

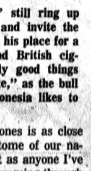

It is true that on urgent matters he can send messages back home, but there is reason to believe that lots of questions would have been more promptly decided if presidents had stayed at home.

Bob Considine Asks:

Wonder if U.S. Envoy Still Cottons to Sukarno?

NEW YORK — Wonder if U.S. ambassador to Indonesia, Howard P. Jones still considers Sukarno "the greatest orator I've heard since William Jennings Bryan"?

CONSIDINE

Wonder what happens when the two meet at the cocktail rounds? Is it still "Howard and "Bung"?

Does "Bung" still ring up now and then and invite the Joneses over to his place for a spot of tea and British cigarets, "the only good things the British make," as the bull peacock of Indonesia likes to say?

Ambassador Jones is as close to being the epitome of our national good heart as anyone I've met in a lot of bumming through the world.

★ ★ ★

Oh, sure, pranksters had broken a lot of windows in the embassy residence, Jones laughingly told us, but neither he nor his wife was home at the time, so it didn't matter, really.

QUITE DECENT

Besides, Bung was quite decent about the whole sticky business. He told those demonstrators a thing or two! And just to show that he had no hard feelings for the U.S., Bung accepted an $18 million aid grant from us, to help his people.

Well, Bung recently seized and will hold the U.S. Information Agency libraries in Indonesia "until the situation settles down."

He also, grabbed the American-financed rubber plantations.

★ ★ ★

Last Sunday 500 Indonesian students invaded the grounds of Ambassador and Mrs. Jones' little sanctuary. With all the compassion and friendliness of Uncle Sam, Ambassador Jones invited 30 of the demonstrators to come into his home and tell him about their complaint.

THEIR COMPLAINT

Their complaint was that the United States had murdered Malcolm X.

We also are guilty of aggression in Viet Nam, not the Hanoi Communists.

One more thing, the group said, while the rest of the mob was tacking insulting signs and slogans around the embassy, the Peace Corps must leave Indonesia. So must Jones, the dearest and most patient friend that crackpot nation ever had.

★ ★ ★

We'll continue to aid Indonesia. The cost is nearly $1 million a month for malaria control alone. It's a good investment in human life, it's a way of "keeping a foot in the door," as they say in our patient foreign office.

Commission Gives Facts on Income Tax

The Voice of the People on Monday indicated the people have a right to know the answers about the proposed city income tax which will be voted on March 18. Your City Commissin has endeavored to present answers as truthfully and factually as humanly possible since coming into office and try to give the facts about the new income tax.

★ ★ ★

● The Citizens Research Council of Detroit prepared an estimate based on the most recent available information. This indicated a gross of $2,200,000 would be realized in Pontiac by adopting the State Uniform Income Tax Act for cities. The City Commission has promised a three-mill property tax reduction which will reduce City revenue by $1,100,000. Thus, the income tax will net approximately $1,100,000 per year.

★ ★ ★

● There is no change in the assessed valuation involved in the tax reform program which the Commission has proposed.

● The City of Pontiac has had a Master Plan for community development for several years.

★ ★ ★

● A pamphlet titled "The Facts Promised by Your City Commission on Why Pontiac Needs an Income Tax" is available at City Hall and has been distributed to almost every club and organization in the community. In it the City Commission has reviewed the great many municipal deficiencies which Pontiac has and selected fourteen as being the most important. Some of them are more adequate police protection, fire protection, street lighting, and library services and hours; rehabilitation of much of our sewer system; the building of odor-free sewers and drains; rehabilitation of our lakes and streams in the City; providing railroad grade separation; and expanding our parks, playgrounds and recreation programs.

If any persons have not received a copy of the folder, telephone the City Hall switchboard, FE 3-7131, and a copy will be sent to you.

Says Guard Officers Are Due Pay

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley ruled Wednesday that two suspended National Guard officers are entitled to their pay from Oct. 8 to Nov. 6 of last year but cannot be paid after that date until their cases are decided.

Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald, the suspended guard adjutant general, and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, former quartermaster general, have protested they should be receiving pay while waiting for a decision on their ousters from Gov. George Romney.

★ ★ ★

McDonald said it was an Army principle that an officer could not be taken off the payroll "until he was convicted or shot."

Kelley advised State Controller Glenn Allen Jr. that the two officers are entitled to pay for the near month-long period but not after Nov. 6 when they were suspended.

DOESN'T HOLD TRUE

While there is a law to the effect that suspended officers are entitled to pay during court-martial proceedings, it does not hold true in this case.

★ ★ ★

Romney removed the two on Oct. 6 but was advised by Kelley he did not have this power. They were ordered reinstated on Nov. 6 and then immediately suspended on the order of Maj. Gen. Cecil Simmons, chief of staff of the military establishment.

★ ★ ★

"These are civil proceedings. Appropriate Army regulations governing the pay of military personnel are therefore inapplicable," Kelley said.

Romney has been conducting a hearing on charges against the officers that they improperly disposed of land at Camp Grayling. The hearings have been recessed until May 9.

Mackinac Bridge Shows Drop in Use

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Mackinac Bridge traffic and revenues were down nearly 8 per cent last month from totals for February 1964, the Mackinac Bridge Authority reported today.

But the month still was the second - best February in the bridge's history, it said.

The authority said 24,175 crossings last month brought in $122,812, compared with 26,183 crossings and $133,378 in the year-ago month, which contained an extra day.

British Unionist Dies

HEATHFIELD, England (AP) — Jack Tanner, 75, chairman of the British Trades Union Congress in 1953-54, died Wednesday after a long illness.

USW Calls Talk Team

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union called together its basic steel negotiations today for the first time in two months to plan the expected resumption of contract talks Monday.

Following the meeting at USW headquarters, the union negotiators were to meet with their industry counterparts to lay the groundwork for resuming talks and to hear industry's arguments for an extension of the May 1 strike deadline.

★ ★ ★

Steelworkers President David J. McDonald made it clear Wednesday night, however, that the union had no intention of granting an extension now.

"Any allegations to this effect are absolutely untrue," McDonald said. "The only thing we have agreed to do is meet with the companies' coordinating committee."

The industry requested the joint meeting earlier this week, saying that mounting uncertainty had already damaged the steel industry and the union by forcing customers, edgy over a possible strike, to turn to foreign markets to build inventories.

★ ★ ★

The industry also cited the harmful effects of stockpiling on the American companies whose mills are overtaxed in trying to meet orders.

Formal negotiations for a basic steel contract started last January but were recessed during the turbulent campaign between McDonald and I. W. Abel, USW secretary-treasurer, for presidency of the union.

The election was held Feb. 9 and Abel led in the unofficial count.

The Chicago Tribune reported Wednesday night that Abel had won by 6,228 votes.

Road System Past Halfway Point, About on Target

WASHINGTON (AP) —Construction on the world's greatest highway program yet conceived — the 41,000-mile U.S. interstate system — is past the halfway mark and just about on schedule.

The program was set up by Congress in 1956 and 1972 set as the target date for completion.

★ ★ ★

It will consist of 41,000 miles of high-speed highways to connect the nation's principal metropolitan areas, cities and industrial centers and to serve as a defense network of roads if needed.

The system generally is designed to take motorists whizzing along without worries about intersections, traffic lights and jammed city streets.

19,018 MILES

Today, a little more than eight years after the program was launched, 19,018 miles are open for traffic; construction is under way on another 5,196 miles, while engineering work or right-of-way acquisition is in progress for another 12,103.

★ ★ ★

The remaining 4,680 miles in the system are listed by the Bureau of Public Roads as in preliminary status or not started.

★ ★ ★

Thus, about 89 per cent of the system is open or under way.

The bureau says the program is about on schedule and that completion in 1972 is possible.

However, time is getting short for the drafting of plans for the unstarted segments, a spokesman said.

URBAN AREAS

The pinch, he said, will be on segments in the urban areas — the roads designed to take traffic through, under or around cities. These portions of the system are costly because of the high value of the rights of way involved and frequently the routes are controversial.

★ ★ ★

When the interstate system was authorized by Congress it called for a network of 40,000 miles of highways to cost an estimated $28 billion. The mileage has been increased to more than 41,000 and the latest cost estimated by the roads administrator, Rex M. Whitton, is $46.8 billion.

The latest estimate represents a $5.8 billion increase over the estimate submitted to Congress in 1961.

Through 1964, a total of $21.7 billion had been spent on the interstate system, roughly $19 billion of it federal money and $2.6 billion state money.

The federal share is financed by highway users through taxes on gasoline, new trucks and buses, tires and tubes and the like.

Kite Almost a Mile Up

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Two high school pupils said they put their 29-cent kite almost a mile into the air before they ran into financial difficulties. Neither they nor sympathetic bystanders could afford any more string.

The pupils, Bobby Vickery, 16, and Jerry Pickering, 15, of suburban Avondale, said their kite reached a height of 5,100 feet yesterday. One youth held the kite while the other kept bicycling to the nearest store for more string.

★ ★ ★

At 2,600 feet they were out of funds and string. Bystanders financed 2,500 more feet.

At that point, the youths retired to a more pressing duty — homework. They left the high-flying kite tied to a sapling.

School Official to Get Award

Dr. William Emerson, superintendent of Oakland County Schools, will receive the distinguished service award Saturday at the fourth annual Alumni-Faculty Clinic of Wayne State University's College of Education.

Dr. Yvonne Lofthouse, president of the WSU College of Education Alumni Association, will present the award to Emerson who received a doctorate at WSU 10 years ago. Emerson lives at 572 W. Iroquois.

The award is for outstanding accomplishment in the field of education.

Also honored will be six WSU faculty members who will receive 15 and 25-year service certificates.

Among them are two professors from Birmingham, both with 25 years service. They are Dr. Earl C. Kelley of 172 George; and Dr. Earl Weiley, of 2494 Pembroke.

Pros and Cons of Master Planning

State Board of Education Hears U-M Flint Expansion Debate

FLINT (AP) —The State Board of Education listened Wednesday to everyone from college presidents to high school seniors debate whether the University of Michigan should expand its Flint campus operations.

Board President Thomas Brennan said the issue "affects education planning throughout the state."

★ ★ ★

Michigan President Harlan Hatcher said it "is not the issue on which we of the university want to see the course of higher education in Michigan established or limited."

The proposed expansion of the campus from a junior-senior to a four-year operation "will fit into whatever master plan finally evolves," he said.

U-M has gone too far to halt the Flint expansion plans, he said.

Behind the Flint controversy are questions of whether college growth is best accomplished by branches of existing schools or brand new colleges and whether the state should exert more control over the 10 colleges and universities it supports.

★ ★ ★

Gov. George Romney has advocated delay of expansion plans until the board has more time for planning.

Brennan said the board would seek more information before recommending to the legislature whether it should provide funds for the proposed expansion.

HEARING CONCLUDED

The hearing was concluded after one day's testimony.

Proponents of the Flint expansion held that the issue is much different from other expansion cases and would provide the state an "incredible bargain."

★ ★ ★

The Charles Stewart Mott Foundation of Flint has provided $2.4 million for capital outlay in the expansion.

Edmund B. Brownell of the Flint Board of Education said "A master plan . . . is not an end in itself, but merely a means to the end of providing the best higher education program for the young people of this state at the least cost in public funds."

OTHER LOCATIONS

Brennan commented after the six-hour hearing that the board also must consider whether another city might provide a better location for a new four-year college in eastern Michigan.

He told Hatcher "the board must be somewhat careful not to make a judgment on the location of a campus based on the generosity of a private citizen."

★ ★ ★

Hatcher agreed, but added "the number of such people (as Mott) is woefully limited."

Among the witnesses were two sophomores at the present Flint Community College.

DIFFERENT NEEDS

Robert Beam, president of the student government, favored the expansion. He said the community college and the four year U-M branch would serve different needs and would be compatible.

David Sanford held, though, that the U-M branch would take the top Flina-area students, undermining the community college liberal arts program.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Lawrence Jarvie, general superintendent of community education, said any downgrading of the liberal arts program would be "over my dead body."

★ ★ ★

Favoring the expansion were Flint Mayor Harry K. Cull, the Flint Chamber of Commerce, the Greater Flint AFL-CIO Council, the Manufacturers Association of Flint and other local groups.

FAVOR DELAY

Other witnesses agreed with Romney there should be a delay in expansion plans until the Board of Education works out a master plan for Michigan higher education.

These included representatives of the community college's faculty and the Michigan Council of Community College Administrators.

Muslims Again Deny Malcolm Killing Guilt; 3rd Suspect Held

NEW YORK (AP) — The Black Muslims have denied anew any guilt for the murder of Malcolm X in the wake of the arrest here of a third Negro accused of the assassination.

But police said the latest defendant, Thomas 15X Johnson, 30, of the Bronx, is a strongarm member of the Black Muslims. He was charged Wednesday with homicide.

★ ★ ★

Johnson is the second Black Muslim to be accused in the assassination of Malcolm X, 39, the black nationalist leader who bolted from the Black Muslims last year and formed his own sect.

Johnson had been indicted last month for first-degree assault in the wounding last Jan. 6 of Benjamin Brown, a Black Muslim defector. Also charged in that case was Norman 3X Butler, 26, described by police as a Black Muslim "enforcer" and the second man accused in the slaying of Malcolm X.

FIVE MEN

Police believe five men in all took part in the attack on Malcolm X as he started to speak to 400 persons at a ballroom rally on Feb. 21. He was felled by 13 shots from a shotgun and two pistols.

The first man charged, Talmadge Hayer, 22, of Paterson, N.J., was shot in the leg by a bodyguard of Malcolm X. He has refused to say whether he had any Black Muslim connections.

In Chicago, just hours after Johnson's arrest, the eldest son of Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad reiterated denial of any Black Muslim blame for the assassination. He said he had never heard of Johnson.

"We (the Muslims) are not guilty of Malcolm's murder," asserted Emanuel Muhammad.

'NOT AGGRESSOR'

"We are not the aggressor," he said. "We want to save our people, not kill them. You must remember, that many whites and many blacks who are not Black Muslims hated Malcolm."

Emanuel said his father has always denounced violence.

★ ★ ★

"I can't understand why they're throwing all of this on my daddy and his followers," he said.

Malcolm, who was buried last Saturday had claimed to have been marked for murder by Muhammad's Muslims because of the formation of his rival sect.

POLICE THEORY

Police worked on the theory that Malcolm was assassinated because of the rivalry, but Muhammad himself was quick to deny blame for the slaying.

Only 35 hours after Malcolm was killed, the Black Muslim's Mosque No. 7 in Harlem was destroyed by an explosion and fire. Police investigated whether this was a reprisal by Malcolm's followers, but no arrest has been made.

★ ★ ★

In another development, Cary Thomas Jr., a Negro in his 20s, was ordered held in $50,000 bail as a material witness in the Malcolm X slaying.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Robert W. McKeever said Thomas had been present during the assassination and had "vital information concerning the identity of the perpetrators."

DEFENDS MALCOLM X

Bayard Rustin, Negro organizer of the 1963 civil rights march on Washington, defended Malcolm X in a speech Wednesday as an inevitable product of injustice.

"Malcolm X did not choose violence," Rustin said. "The violent situation chose him."

★ ★ ★

Rustin said he recalled a recent meeting between Malcolm and Cora King, wife of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., at which Mrs. King tried to persuade him to "join the real movement." King urges nonviolence in his civil rights campaign.

Rustin said Malcolm remarked after a 45-minute discussion: "I'm drifting and I don't know where I'll end up."

★ ★ ★

Rustin spoke to 250 scholars and religious leaders attending the closing session here of a three-day "peace on earth" conference.

Military Losing Trained Men at Serious Pace

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite two military pay raises in as many years, the armed sciences are losing trained officers and enlisted men at a serious pace.

An Associated Press survey showed today that the services regard still inadequate pay, poor housing, prolonged separation from families and eroded fringe benefits as major factors.

★ ★ ★

The inability to hold onto trained men complicates an already difficult military manpower problem. Recruiting has been dropping because of speculation that the draft may be eliminated — something which is now considered unlikely.

The Army reported that more than three out of four junior reserve officers are leaving service after completing their obligated duty. It said about the same 75 per cent of first term enlisted men are declining to sign up for a second hitch.

NAVY'S LOSS

The Navy said that "last year we lost over 70,000 first enlistment men who met the standards for reenlistment," more than 12,000 of them electronics specialists.

It spoke of "serious shortages" of officers in the grades of lieutenant, lieutenant commander and commander, with current deficiencies totaling about 2,700 officers.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force said "our most critical retention problem exists in areas where the skills are in the greatest demand by industry."

Over-all, the first term reenlistment rate of airmen dropped about 6 per cent in two years to a level of only 29.5 per cent in fiscal 1964.

★ ★ ★

Air Force officer retention also was about 7 per cent below what the Air Force said is needed.

The Marine Corps reported that the first term reenlistment rate has declined over the past three years and is still going down. However, the Marine Corps said it has not yet detected a significant drop in officer retention.

★ ★ ★

The AP survey came a day after the new chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., proposed that the pay of the nearly 2.7 million men and women in uniform be raised an average of 10.7 per cent.

★ ★ ★

Rivers calculated his bill would cost an estimated $1 billion a year. It would come on top of $1.4 billion in military pay raises voted by Congress in two stages since 1963.

Under Rivers' proposal, increases would include: Enlisted men and women with less than two years of service, an average of $16 monthly; enlisted with more than two years of service, $28 average; officers with less than two years of service, $55 average; officers with more than two years of service, $42 average.

Rare Blood Flown to Canadian

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A pretty young North Carolina woman with the rarest of known blood types is suddenly one of the four most important people in the world to a Canadian laborer fighting for his life in a Montreal hospital.

Mrs. Earl Link, 23, mother of two daughters, is one of four known persons in the United States and Canada whose blood type matches that of Norbert Huard, father of three. He must have a blood clot removed from his abdomen.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Link gave a pint of her blood Wednesday at the American Red Cross blood center in Charlotte. It was flown to Montreal and St. Luke's Hospital Wednesday night. Today, it will be dripping into Huard's veins in a life-saving operation.

More blood was sought from Louella Wolf of Casper, Wyo., Miriam Wright of San Mateo, Calif., and Robert W. Rushing of Portland, Ore., who also were known to have the rare type.

BLOCKING ARTERY

Huard has a clot blocking a large abdominal artery carrying blood to his legs. Without the operation, he would lose his legs and die, doctors say.

The blood type is A, RH Negative, Vel Negative. The Vel factor is so rare that blood type manuals, listing positive and negative factors, carry the entry: "Vel Positive, 100 per cent."

★ ★ ★

This would indicate there is no such thing as "Vel Negative," but there is.

Montreal doctors found Mrs. Link through the American Red Cross. It had records on her because preparations were made two years ago to give her a transfusion when doctors anticipated a Caesarean birth.

★ ★ ★

"I want to know everything about this man," Mrs. Link said, "and about the others. I want him to get well and I want him to keep his legs. He has those children. And that's what I think about, my children and whether they may have this type."

NY Policeman Beaten to Knees by Schoolgirls

NEW YORK (AP) — A policeman was beaten to his knees by screaming schoolgirls when he tried to break up a gang fight outside a Brooklyn school.

Fifteen of the girls, using sticks, bottles and pipes, were arrested Wednesday after the patrolman's partner came to his rescue and held them at bay with his revolver until reinforcements arrived.

★ ★ ★

About 55 girls, ranging in age from 13 to 15, were battling in the schoolyard as classes let out for the day.

Patrolman Peter J. Buccino, 23, said he tried to separate two of the girls and was driven to his knees by a group of 13 girls who hit him with sticks. He was treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises.

'Pump Theory' Helps Explain Some of New Math

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Want to get the answer to 2 plus 2 equals X? Well, get a pump and a tank and a camera. Let Katie Mueller tell you all about it in the following fourth of five articles on the "new math." At the age of 14 she's been dealing with the "new math" for three years.)

By KATIE MUELLER
Written for Associated Press

Mathematicians have taken pumps and tanks and cameras and projectors and put them together in the "pump theory" to help explain some of the new math.

They're not saying that a pump subtracted from a tank equals a projector. What they actually do with the pump theory is explain very simply why the products and quotients of negative and positive numbers are what they are.

Let's try to explain some of this confusion.

In my previous article I explained the "real numbers" with which the new math deals. That is, the concept that any number less than zero is a negative number and any number greater than zero is a positive number.

TEACHES 'WHY'

I said that negative number multiplied by a positive number always produces a negative number, and a lot of other stuff. But, since the new math was developed to teach the "why" as well as the "how" of certain mathematical procedures, let's turn to the pump theory.

Suppose you had a pump that could pump water into and out of a tank. And suppose, too, that you could take a motion picture of the water level going up or down as the pump worked. And we'll assume that you have a film projector that runs the film both backward and forward.

Now, pump water into the tank, film the water level rising, and run the film forward through the projector. Naturally, on the screen you will see the water level rising — going in a positive direction.

* * *

But let's say you run the film backward. On the screen you would see the water level going down — going in a negative direction.

2 EXAMPLES

These two examples show us that:

1. A positive number — water flowing into the tank — multiplied or divided by a positive number, the film running forward through the projector, equals a positive number. That's the picture on the screen showing the water level going up.

2. A positive number — water flowing into the tank — multiplied or divided by a negative number, which is the film running backward through the projector, equals a negative number or the picture on the screen showing the water level going down.

* * *

If the film was made of water being pumped out of the tank, and the film was run forward through the projector, the screen would show the water level going down. But, if the same film were run backward through the projector, the screen would show the water level going up.

NEGATIVE NUMBER

From this we can see that:

1. A negative number multiplied or divided by a positive number results in a negative number. That is the same as No. 2 right above.

2. A negative number multiplied or divided by a negative number is a positive number.

* * *

If you are confused, think what a job it must have been for those math professors who thought up all this wonderful stuff in the first place.

* * *

In the next article we'll see how 14 plus 14 equals 31. Meanwhile, I've got to get to work — the modern math, unfortunately, isn't yet modern enough to eliminate homework.

Next: 14 plus 14 equals 31

Area Election Roundup

12 Villages Vote Monday

Voters in 12 area villages will go to the polls Monday to elect municipal officers in their annual spring election.

★ ★ ★

In four of the towns the slate of candidates is running unopposed. In the remaining eight areas election contests have been brewing for many weeks.

Following is a roundup of candidates in their respective villages.

Milford

A proposal to rescind a recent charter amendment will appear on Milford's ballot with the names of candidates for village president and three council seats.

The amendment adopted by the electorate a year ago provides that an election be held on the establishment of any special assessment district in the village.

Councilmen are asking voters to cancel the provision which they have labeled "unworkable."

There is competition for each of the three available council positions.

THREE OPPONENTS

Vying for three-year terms are incumbent R. C. Wakefield, incumbent Max Kelley, Norton Caswell of 946 Duke and Hugh P. Davies of 715 Atlantic.

Running for a two-year term are incumbent Merlin Feigley and Archie J. Noon, 405 Hickman.

Feigley was appointed to the council in November following the resignation of Vernon Rounds.

★ ★ ★

Also on the ballot is Wilbur Johnson, incumbent village president seeking election for another two-year term.

Holly

The seven incumbents, all Union party members, have been unopposed in their bids for reelection to village offices.

Seeking one-year terms are Village President John F. Oldani, Clerk Betty Oliver, Treasurer Hulda Anderson and Assessor Grant H. Hulet.

Councilmen making bids for new two-year terms are Clarence Lester, Lott Everly and Aaron Ganshaw.

Wood Creek Farms

For the first time in its seven-year history, Wood Creek Farms has five candidates for two Village Council seats.

Running for the two-year terms are incumbent Benjamin DeCooke; Alvin Albertsen, 28101 Wellington; William Brown, 28427 Beech Hill; Wallace Burrell, 27634 Wellington; and William Smolek, 28900 Wellington.

Candidates for the two-year village president term are incumbent Norman E. Kreider and Herbert G. Ludwig, 29430 Middle Belt.

Polling place for the village election is the Vernon Fisher residence, 28393 Wellington.

Clarkston

In Clarkston, a new president heads the slate of Citizens party candidates selected at a Feb. 15 caucus for presentation to the voters.

Seeking the village presidency is James W. Huttenlocher of 6201 Middle Lake. The term is for one year.

Clerk Artemas Pappas, Treasurer Mary Ann Pappas and Assessor Ralph Thayer, all incumbents, seek new one-year terms.

Seeking election to two-year terms on the council are incumbents Stanley M. Radoye and John L. Witherup and new candidate E. James Mahar of 46 Miller.

★ ★ ★

Robert D. Wertman and Donald E. Cooper both are trying for reelection to one-year terms on the council.

YEAR REMAINS

Another year remains in the term of the sixth councilman, Harold Goyette.

Since the Citizens party is the village's only party, the slate of candidates will automatically be elected unless there is write-in opposition.

Leonard

Citizens party candidates in a one-party election are as follows:

President: Lawson Sheik of 241 E. Elmwood, a former village president and current councilman; clerk: incumbent Mrs. Calvin Shields; treasurer: Mrs. Mary Vore of 225 E. Elmwood; assessor: Trustee Dwight Patterson.

Trustees (three 2-year terms)—former council member Cecil Leistman of 69 Division, Alex Meyer of 4615 Rochester and incumbent Charles Hamilton.

A one-year term, representing the unexpired remainder of Sheik's council term, will be taken by former Councilman Dave Ferguson of 115 W. Elmwood unless write-in or sticker opposition develops.

Dryden

Nonpartisan hopefuls for village office here are:

President: incumbent Oliver Braidwood; clerk: incumbent Mrs. Mildred Gray; treasurer: Mrs. Gladys Harrington; assessor: incumbent Robert Weingartz.

Trustees (three 2-year terms) — incumbents Irvin Talmage and Raymond Stevens, and Glenn Fletcher of 5436 North.

Lake Orion

Three-way competition has developed here, with candidates running on Citizens and Village party slates as well as on a sticker basis.

The hopefuls are:

President: incumbent William V. Shoup (V), Clarence (Bud) Rossman of 543 Atwater (C) and Wallace C. Crane of 462 Algene (sticker); clerk: incumbent Mrs. Mary Parkinson (C); treasurer: incumbent Mrs. Geraldine J. Campbell (C); assessor: Wallace Beer (sticker).

★ ★ ★

Trustees (three 2-year terms) — incumbent Stewart Drahner (V), former Orion Township Trustee William D. O'Brien of 15 Bellevue (V), Richard Goeckel of 273 Lakeview (C), Mrs. Juanita Robbins of 622 Detroit (C-sticker), Dr. Richard McNeil of 44 E. Flint (sticker) and incumbent Robert Hauxwell (sticker).

Robert Swem, a Citizens party candidate for assessor, has withdrawn from the contest.

Metamora

Candidates on Citizens and Progressive party tickets are as follows:

President: Sammie Ray of 56 Barrow (P) and Trustee Edward Haver (C); clerk: incumbent Mrs. Margaret Brauer (P) and LeRoy Yorks of 4088 Pleasant; treasurer: Mrs. Florence Ray of 56 Barrow (P) and C.W. Albertson (C) of 4019 Center; assessor: incumbent Victor Maslin (P) and Harry Snover of Second Street (C).

★ ★ ★

Trustees (three 2-year terms) — incumbent Richard Yorks (P) Richard Roe of 4109 Pleasant (P), Village President Percy Clark (P), Mrs. Mary Ann Smith of 114 High (C), Donald Hardwick of 4090 School (C) and David Hobbins of 134 First (C).

Rochester

Hopefuls for four Village Council seats in a nonpartisan contest are:

Incumbents John Boeberitz and James McCarthy, Village President John O'Donnell, Louis A. Mitzelfeld of 200 Charles, former Police Chief Samuel Howlett of 227 Romeo, Harold Milton of 1002 Mahaffey, Harry E. Byers of 293 North Hill Circle and former Councilman John L. Dahlmann of 265 South.

The three highest vote-getters in the election will serve for two years, the fourth highest for one.

Romeo

The all-Republican slate of candidates is as follows:

President: Byron E. Nichols of 261 W. St. Clair; clerk: incumbent Norman L. Engel; treasurer: incumbent Mrs. Elaine Hosner; assessor: incumbent Fred Ebeling.

Trustees (three 2-year terms) — Merlin J. Kerr of 153 Croswell, Donald R. Mosher of 122 Bradley and incumbent Stanley J. Holmes.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent Village President Edgar Welsch did not run for reelection.

Oxford

Nonpartisan hopefuls for three Village Council seats are:

Incumbents Homer Hight and Edmund Unger, Stanley Schlicht of 29 Ensley, Edward J. Bossardet of 48 W. Burdick and Earl Irwin of 10 Park.

The two highest vote-getters will serve for two years, the third highest for one.

Ortonville

Candidates for village offices here are nonpartisan and all incumbents. They are:

President: Charles Sherman; clerk: LaVerne Borst; treasurer: Mrs. Jennie Saunders; assessor: Ray Long.

Trustees (three 2-year terms) Robert Sutton, Donald Barns and John Teare.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Area Pairings for Mayors' Swap Listed

Pairings for the annual exchange of mayors and village presidents have been announced by the Greater Michigan Foundation.

The officials will visit communities throughout the state May 17 during Michigan Week.

Several of the cities arranged their own swaps without going through the drawings.

Area cities participating in the event and those with which they have been coupled include Walled Lake-Howell, Birmingham-Inkster, Lapeer-Newberry, Troy-Ionia and Lathrup Village-Sterling.

★ ★ ★

Others are Farmington-Ovid, Keego Harbor-Morenci, Wixom-Elk Rapids, Bloomfield Hills-Lake Odessa, Orchard Lake-Elkton, Oak Park-West Branch, South Lyon-Southgate, Utica-Burr Oak and Southfield-Kinde.

★ ★ ★

Area villages sending presidents and the communities they will visit are Milford-Pewamo, Almont-Jackson, Oxford-Manton, Rochester-Augusta, Beverly Hills-Kalkaska, Novi-Kingsford, Metamora-Dewitt, Wolverine Lake-Ostego, Ortonville-Spring Lake, Romeo-Sandusky, Dryden-Wayland and Franklin-Onekama.

Like You Goin' to 'That' Milford Hop-a-Go-Go?

MILFORD — What's "That"?

It's the name of the record hop which the Milford Youth Center is planning for Saturday night.

The dance will follow a "beat" theme.

The scene is Milford High School.

Teen-agers attending the 8-11 p.m. event are requested to wear something black and "shades."

★ ★ ★

Those who have bongo drums are urged to bring them along to accompany the scheduled poetry reading. Yeah.

Father-Daughter Event Set by Romeo Church

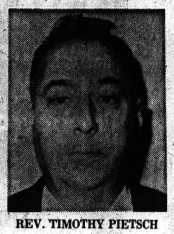

ROMEO — The annual Father and Daughter banquet of the First Baptist Church will be held Friday at 6:30 p.m., at 174 West Hollister.

Speaker for the event will be the Rev. Philip W. Somers, pastor of the Marimont Baptist Church of Pontiac.

Breaks Ankle in Fall

LANSING (AP) — Rep. Edward Michalski, D-Detroit, is another victim of Michigan's storm last week.

Michalski slipped on ice while getting out of his car and broke his ankle. He presently is in Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

REV. TIMOTHY PIETSCH

Church to Hear Talk on Japan

Missionary to Speak in Rochester Sunday

ROCHESTER — The Rev. Timothy Pietsch, a missionary to Japan, will present a report on his work at the Sunday services of the First Baptist Church, 401-409 Walnut.

He will be the guest preacher at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. worship services.

Rev. Pietsch and his wife have been missionaries to Japan for more than 25 years, with their work largely concentrated in Tokyo.

For many years, the Tokyo Bible Center has represented the embodiment of their work, and for the last 14 years, they have had an increasing radio ministry.

★ ★ ★

In September 1964, they began their 14th year of broadcasting the Gospel over the Central Broadcasting Co. network. They now have seven such broadcasts each week in various areas of Japan over 35 radio stations.

BIBLE PORTIONS

During the past year, 42,000 portions of the Bible have been sent out to people upon request.

Recently, Rev. Pietsch started a new Baptist church in a community near Tokyo.

Whether you own a two-horsepower lawnmower or a 12-foot windrower, a good job of preparing the machine for cold weather storage will pay off in longer service and lower repair bills.

For Buildings, Debts

Bill to Aid Schools

LANSING (AP)—Complaining that the state helps local school districts operate, but doesn't help them to build or improve facilities, Rep. Roy Spencer, R-Attica, today prepared legislation for a $122 million state aid building and debt retirement fund.

The measure, to be introduced this week, should be considered as part of whatever fiscal reform package the legislature adopts this year, Spencer said.

★ ★ ★

He also planned to introduce a companion bill setting up a state public school building and bond authority.

The six-member authority's primary objective would be determination of school building requirements around the state.

TO PROVIDE RELIEF

"This bill will provide relief in that debt levies may be reduced and corresponding increases may be made in operating levies," Spencer said.

The bill would allow districts with mushrooming student populations to "hold their debt to a reasonable level," he said, and aid older districts, soon to be faced with extensive remodeling costs.

★ ★ ★

The measure calls for a sliding scale of state participation based primarily on the wealth of a district as expressed in the amount of state equalized valuation per pupil.

Assuming the state average to be $14,000 per pupil, Spencer said, state participation would range from nothing for a district with $28,000 to 85.8 per cent for the district with only $4,000 per pupil.

STATE PARTICIPATION

Assuming an average state capital outlay and debt cost of $60 per pupil, state participation would range from nothing to $51.48 each, he added.

The bill also takes into consideration the local district's efforts, since each year's payments would be based on the previous year's expenditures, he said.

★ ★ ★

"It also prevents 'empire-building' or 'marble-castle' building," he added, by setting maximums—based on the rated capacity of a building, which would have to be determined by the authority.

It further stipulates that cost allowances may not be more than $1,000 per pupil for a building or addition for kindergarten through the sixth grade. The maximum would be $1,500 each for a building housing seventh through 12th grades.

REVENUE INCREASES

Most tax reform talk this season has included references to revenue increases, and many legislators and Gov. George Romney have agreed that much of the increased revenues would have to go into education.

Churches to Mark World Prayer Day

AVON TOWNSHIP — World Day of Prayer will be observed tomorrow by Rochester area churches at 1 p. m. Friday at University Presbyterian Church, 1385 S. Adams.

Four other church groups actively involved in sponsoring the special service are Abiding Presence Lutheran Church, First Congregational Church, St. Paul's Methodist Church and St. Philip's Episcopal Church.

Speaker for the observance will be Rev. Douglas Parker of St. Paul's Methodist Church.

Soloists will be Mrs. Arnaud Marshall and Mrs. George Schukneckt, both of University Presbyterian Church.

Petition Deadline Near in Wolverine Lake

WOLVERINE LAKE — Candidates for village offices have until 6 p.m. Saturday to file their nominating petitions with Clerk Jessie K. Johnson.

The four council terms expiring are those of Village President LeRoy Winkler, Warren Williams, Clara Miller and Arthur Richards.

Border Guards Try to Block Teens Seeking Thrills in Tijuana

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — "TJ," as the teen-agers call it, lies just beyond the double row of guard stations at the Mexican border: Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico.

★ ★ ★

Church youth groups sometimes take outings there, buying curios in the central market place, eating in the good but inexpensive restaurants, trying to sample the tourist flavor of a foreign land.

★ ★ ★

But for other teen-agers the lure is different: goof balls, narcotics, cheap liquor, the wide-open nightclub and red-light districts.

In the first of the two guard stations, San Diego police and border patrolmen match wits with this second group — trying to turn back the youngsters who aren't old enough to cross the border, or who haven't a good reason for wanting to cross. The second guard post is run by Mexican immigration officials.

The city of San Diego, whose boundary extends to the border, decided seven years ago to bar juveniles under 18 from entering Mexico without a parent's consent or an adult companion.

Tijuana has a reputation for sin and crime almost as old as the border itself, and youngsters egging one another on to bolder and bolder adventures can easily meet disaster there. The problem: How can border guards spot the ones headed for trouble?

★ ★ ★

A hidden microphone helps.

Officers send teen-agers to a spot to wait for questioning before they cross the border — and then listen in as they rehearse the stories they are going to tell the authorities.

"We can sit inside and listen to the youngsters out there making up their stories," San Diego Patrolmam M. R. Christian said.

PHONY CARDS

If the youngsters try to offer a forged parental consent or a fake identity card, officers can sometimes surprise them by spotting the card at once — from having eavesdropped on their conversations.

Then what happens?

★ ★ ★

Juveniles are forced to fill out cards giving their true names and parents' names and addresses. Letters are then mailed to the parents, informing them of their children's attempts to cross the border.

"Last year," said Christian, "we got 2,200 thank you letters from parents."

He said 11,373 teen-agers were interviewed at the border check station last year. Only 4,000 got through, he said.

DOME OF ROAMING FOAM — A scary, swelling mountain of "suds," believed caused by soap detergent pollution, hides the Sheboygan River below a dam at Sheboygan Falls, Wis. The foam mountain yesterday was 25 feet high, over half a block long and about 75 feet wide, extending nearly 15 feet beyond the banks of the river.

Tennis Star Is Arrested as Robber

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Tom Falkenburg, once a nationally known tennis player, has been arrested on a charge that he robbed a small Mississippi bank.

He is the brother of Jinx Falkenburg, New York television personality, and Bob Falkenburg, also a noted tennis player.

★ ★ ★

FBI agents met the tanned, 6-foot-4 socialite as he walked off the ninth green at Shady Oaks County Club Wednesday where he was practicing for a tournament that begins today.

Falkenburg, 41, is accused of being the gunman who, wearing a woolen ski mask, took $4,048 from a woman teller at the Bank of Ridgeland, 10 miles north of Jackson, Feb. 25.

CAR IDENTIFIED

The arrest was made on the basis of a green, 1960 model car used in the robbery, said Roy K. Moore, special agent in charge of the Jackson FBI office.

★ ★ ★

Sheriff Jack Cauthen of Madison County said state charges also would be filed against Falkenburg, a native of Spain. Falkenburg was charged with violating federal bank robbery statutes. He waived a preliminary hearing and remained in jail in lieu of a $5,000 bond.

★ ★ ★

Jinx and Bob Falkenburg are the most famous members of the family.

Jinx, once a tennis star herself, is the wife of public relations executive Tex McCrary. Bob, who joined with Tom in 1947 to win the National Intercollegiate doubles title when the two were students at Southern California, now lives in Brazil.

SPORTS WINNER

Tom is well-known in sports, too. He won the Colonial County Club golf championship in Jackson last summer. Last July at Manhasset, N.Y., where his sister lives, he teamed with a fellow Jackson resident to win a national doubles tennis tournament for players 35 years old and older.

Falkenburg moved to Mississippi from Los Angeles in 1949 after marrying Bernice Allred of Hazlehurst, member of a prominent Mississippi family. They have two daughters, 17 and 14.

★ ★ ★

He went to work for an auto dealer in Hazlehurst. A friend, W. E. Hester, said Falkenburg bought out his employer, then left the business and went to work in Jackson for another auto dealer. He later opened his own business in Jackson, but left it, too, and went back to work for the same employer.

Falkenburg often appeared on television in Jackson as a car salesman.

Warns of N-Spread

2nd China Blast May Be Near---Briton

LONDON (AP)—Denis Healey, British defense minister, says Communist China may set off its second nuclear explosion in a few days.

Opening debate in the House of Commons on the new military budget, Healey warned of the possibility of a "rapid chain reaction" that would spread nuclear weapons to all parts of the world.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. State Department said on Feb. 16 that the United States "has reason to believe the Peking regime is preparing for another nuclear test."

Red China joined the world's nuclear club last Oct. 16 when it touched off a primitive, low-yield atomic explosion in Sinkiang Province, western China.

The State Department said a second test would have no more military significance than the first because refinement of Chinese nuclear weapons was a long way off and the Chinese have no system of delivering nuclear weapons.

NEW MOVES

Healey called for new moves toward collective security and eventually East-West agreement on control and reduction of arms.

"If all those countries which might feel themselves threatened by Chinese possession of such weapons declared to seek security for themselves there might be a rapid chain reaction which would not be confined to Asia and which would finally dispose of any immediate hope of stopping the spread of nuclear weapons," he said.

★ ★ ★

"It must be the urgent desire of all who value peace to find other ways of dealing with this problem. The only possible security is collective security."

The call for collective security and arms control tied to a statement that Britain can no longer afford the role of world policeman.

TERRIFYING RATE

"The problem is not just the terrifying rate at which the arms race between the great powers is still proceeding," Healey said, "but the totally unacceptable costs involved from powers like Britain in seeking to keep up with powers like Russia and the United States.

"More fearsome still is the fact that the most modern weapons are now available for sale to any country which thinks it can afford to buy them — perhaps only at a nominal price if the supplying country sees political or economic advantage in disposing of them in this way."

Healey said Britain can solve its own costly defense problems in the next 10 years provided it cooperates closely with its allies. After that, he said, "our problems will be insoluble unless we can cooperate with our political opponents on some form of arms control and disarmament."

"The days of Pax Britannia are over," he said, adding that Britain will have to cut defense commitments unless her allies — and particularly West Germany — take over some of the financial burden.

WILL RAISE PROBLEM

Healy pointed out that British forces in West Germany cost $238 million a year of Britain's scarce foreign currency. He said Prime Minister Harold Wilson will raise this problem with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard when they meet in Bonn on Monday.

★ ★ ★

The defense chief said, "The whole of Western Europe benefits from our contribution to stability in the Middle East. Nearly the whole of Western Europe draws its oil from this area, and if they are not prepared to contribute to this burden themselves, then I hope they will take account of what we are doing when we come to discuss how to share our common burdens in Europe."

Fatal Illness Claims One of Africa Quints

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique (UPI) — One of the Mutangua quintuplets born in Mozambique last November died yesterday.

Doctors said the infant boy developed "a very high fever" but the cause of the fatal illness was not disclosed. The quints — four boys and a girl — were born to Mrs. Clara Mutanga, 32, in a village hospital 300 miles from here.

---

Hospitals admitted 25.3 million people last year. The average patient stayed 7.7 days and was charged a few cents under $300.

Book on 1964 Easy Reading

Chronological Group of Top News Stories

The World in 1964 by The Associated Press

By CORENNA ALDRICH

The new AP book, "The World in 1964," is indeed the year at a glance. A chronological collection of the year's significant news stories and pictures, it's a book to flip through whenever you have a few extra minutes.

You can start anywhere, jump from back to front and read a little or a lot. In no time at all, you can review the year's events or pick up ones you may have missed.

You can read it that way—but probably you won't.

It's the sort of reading you plan to do a little at a time but can't because there's always "just one more" article you want to read before you put it down.

Aside from its obvious journalistic appeal, "The World in 1964" is a very handy reference. At the back, in compact form, are the world's vital statistics for that year. Political results, government and UN officials, recipients of major prizes and awards, deaths of prominent persons, sporting events and economic figures are all included.

INDEX PROVIDED

And if you've ever worked yourself into a small stew trying vainly to remember just when or how something happened, you'll appreciate the index which provides easy access to all the information.

This is a book especially good for reminiscing in years to come. For that reason, it seems a natural for families that had their own special occasions in 1964 — such as weddings or births — and want a memento of events of the times.

Nurses on Scooters Will Conserve Energy

NEWCASTLE-UPON - TYNE, England (UPI) —Nurses at the Royal Victoria Infirmary here will soon be making their rounds on electric scooters.

The infirmary ordered the scooters when the nurses complained they were exhausted after trudging up and down the hospital's 12 miles of corridors.

Fulbright Asks Foreign Aid Revamping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright asked Congress today to make major changes in the Johnson Administration's "single package" $3.38-billion foreign aid bill.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called for a separation of military and economic assistance, greater selectivity in countries and projects to be aided, long-range authorizations and a heavy shift from direct U.S. development loans to multilateral lending by international institutions.

★ ★ ★

But he emphasized he was not criticizing the theory of foreign aid or the size of the administration's request.

In a speech prepared for Senate delivery, Fulbright recalled serving notice on the administration last October he would refuse to lead the fight in the Senate again for an omnibus measure lumping all direct foreign aid into one omnibus bill.

OMNIBUS BILL

The administration, after a declaration by Rep. Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, that he was "unalterably opposed" to separating the legislation, sent up an omnibus bill. The House unit is in the midst of hearings on it.

Fulbright said he has had "a notable lack of success" over the years in attempts to separate the programs.

★ ★ ★

"I had hoped that this year the administration might begin," the Arkansas Democrat said. "I still hope that Congress, on its own initiative, will begin the separation of military and economic ingredients of the package and will put substantially more of the development lending program under multilateral management."

As a starter, Fulbright said he was introducing today as a separate bill one part of President Johnson's $3.38-billion foreign aid request — that dealing with proposed economic aid. It calls for $2.2 billion in appropriations for the fiscal year starting July 1.

NO LEGISLATION

He said he was not introducing legislation to support the White House request for more than $1.17 billion in military aid because of his objection to "mixing military and economic assistance," and his belief that military assistance should be part of the defense budget.

Later, after the Foreign Relations committee starts hearings Tuesday on the foreign aid legislation, Fulbright said he will offer these amendments:

1. Proposing that all economic aid be authorized for "a period of at least two years."

2. To shift more of U.S. bilateral aid into "free world multilateral projects to be administered through the World Bank, the International Development Association" and other institutions such as the Inter-American Development Bank.

'Pass Up Paris Debauchery'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. J. William Fulbright believes U.S. tourists could do their country a real service if, for this year at least, they passed up "the sophisticated debauchery and artistic pocket-picking of Paris" and went to New Orleans instead.

Discussing the nagging balance of payments deficit in a speech on foreign aid today, Fulbright said:

"As a matter of priority. . . I believe a reduction in military forces abroad, in American investments in industrialized countries and tourism should precede a dramatic cut in aid funds.

"It does seem to me that the American people could bring themselves to travel within the United States and spare themselves the sophisticated debauchery and artistic pocket-picking of Paris, at least for a year or so.

★ ★ ★

"Is the patriotism and enlightened self-interest of our people so superficial that they cannot, just this year, go to Las Vegas instead of Monte Carlo, or New Orleans instead of Paris, or Colorado instead of Switzerland or California and Florida rather than Cairo?

"They will find they can do it for half the price, without insults or shakedowns, and perform a real service to this country," Fulbright said.

Girl Is Starting Young to Be 'Woman Driver'

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — The State Insurance Department notified Peggy Jo Bodway yesterday it was suspending her driver's license privileges because of her carelessness in driving her father's car through a garage door.

What the department apparently doesn't know is that Peggy Jo is 3 years old.

U. P. Dems Ask Romney to Second Inaugural

LANSING (AP)—Two Upper Peninsula Democrats have extended their hands in "a friendly invitation" to Republican Gov. George Romney to participate in a second inaugural ceremony in Iron Mountain and Kingsford.

A resolution to that effect, sponsored by Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Naegunee, and James Constanti, D-Iron Mountain, was passed unanimously by the House Wednesday.

Unlisted Numbers Nuisance to Phone Firm

By BILL EASTHAM

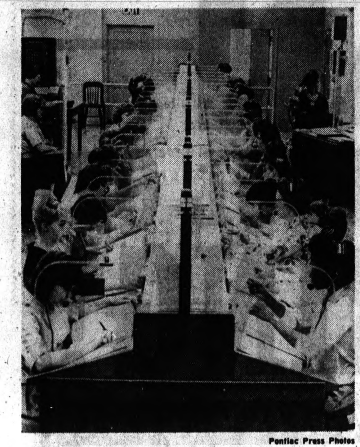

Back in the days when automobiles competed with horses for parking spaces, it was something of a status symbol to have your name in the telephone directory.

But now that parking meters have replaced hitching posts, a lot of people — many with status they haven't even used yet — prefer to be omitted from the telephone company's annual published list of subscribers.

Having an unlisted telephone number is rapidly becoming more popular as a method of avoiding "nuisance" calls — much to the dismay of the telephone companies.

Charles B. Woodhead, manager of the Pontiac office of Michigan Bell, said the local exchange served 63,470 telephones in December 1957.

At that time, Woodhead said, only 3,791 customers, 5.97 per cent, had requested unlisted numbers.

Pontiac Press Photos

'INFORMATION' — As many as 40 operators at one time are frequently assigned to answer information calls at the Pontiac office of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. They handle some 25,600 requests for numbers in an average day.

At this writing there are 82,688 telephones on the Pontiac exchange, 10,925, or 13.2 per cent, of which are unlisted, according to Woodhead.

The telephone company manager listed a variety of reasons why subscribers request an unlisted, or "nonpub" (short for nonpublished) number.

As already mentioned, people of prominence, especially public officials involved in controversial issues, get tired of crank calls that come late at night and wish to make themselves less accessible to the "lunatic fringe."

★ ★ ★

A lot of businesses have adopted telephone soliciting or canvassing as a means of attracting customers.

LEGAL METHOD

This is a perfectly legal method of advertising, but it also persuades a lot of telephone subscribers to request unlisted numbers.

Broken homes sometimes add a number to the "nonpub" list when one spouse bothers the other too much by telephone.

Parents of popular teen-agers sometimes ask for an unlisted number when they decide their youngsters are getting too many phone calls.

★ ★ ★

The problem then becomes one of stopping their offspring from passing out the new number to all their friends and starting the whole business over again.

PESKY CREDITORS

People with a long list of creditors sometimes hide behind an unlisted number to keep from being dunned for overdue payments.

One creditor they can't evade, however, is the telephone company.

Unlisted numbers are a headache for telephone company officials.

They also have numerous disadvantages for the subscriber, which are pointed out by company representatives in an attempt to hold nonpub lists to a minimum.

24-HOUR SERVICE

The local Michigan Bell exchange has 103 information operators who work in three shifts, providing service around the clock. Between 35 and 40 are on duty during the busiest hours.

They handle some 25,600 requests for phone numbers in an average day.

About two per cent of these are for unlisted numbers, which the information operators don't have.

Some callers are insistent that they be given an unlisted number, offering all kinds of reasons why the company should violate its policy of refusing to disclose unpublished numbers.

CALL SWITCHED

If the caller won't take no for an answer, the operator is instructed to switch the call to her supervisor, who must decide if the case is a genuine emergency, as is frequently claimed.

If the supervisor decides the call is important enough, she asks for the caller's name and phone number.

She then calls the party with the unlisted number and gives him the name and number of the person who is trying to reach him.

★ ★ ★

This system gives the initiative to the unlisted party, who can decide for himself whether or not an emergency exists and complete the call at his discretion.

DISADVANTAGE

A disadvantage is that friends or relatives are frequently prevented from making purely social calls which the unlisted party would be glad to receive.

Overly aggressive callers can take up a lot of the operator's time which she could be using to answer routine information calls.

There is no extra charge for unlisted numbers, but Woodhead says the time may come when there is.

★ ★ ★

"As the nonpub list grows, it creates a need for additional operators," the manager said.

"The increased costs will have to be borne by somebody, and the subscribers who request what amounts to an extra service are the logical ones to pay for it."

Woodhead said New York City telephone companies now charge an extra 50 cents a month for unlisted phones.

But the demand for unlisted numbers continues to grow there as it does everywhere else, according to Woodhead.

Pontiac School Affairs

Board Approves $645,000 Bond Sale

The Pontiac School Board last night adopted a resolution authorizing the sale of $645,000 in bonds for building additions, rehabilitation and site purchases.

★ ★ ★

The bond proposal must be approved by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission before the sale can take place.

The planned improvements include a 10-room addition at Frost School and a six-room addition at Alcott School.

The funds also will be used to rehabilitate Whitfield School, to replace a boiler in Wever School and to purchase three new school sites.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac School District is permitted to sell bonds without voter approval under a state provision.

★ ★ ★

This law provides that if a school's bonded indebtedness is less than 2 per cent of its state equalized valuation, bonds may be sold after an authorization by the school board.

At present Pontiac's indebtedness is about 1 per rcent of the equalized valuation.

In other action at the meeting the board heard a brief financial report on the first half of the 1964-65 fiscal year.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dana Whitmer told board members expenditures are following budget appropriations and there are no problems at the present time.

The board also heard a brief report on the enrollment of white and nonwhite students in the schools and the placement of white and nonwhite personnel.

According to the report there are 16,659 white students and 5,643 nonwhite students in the Pontiac school system.

The personnel reported indicated there were 1,293 white persons employed in the schools system and 178 nonwhite persons.

Euromart Making Most Belgians Forget Ties With the Congo

By PRESTON GROVER

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Most Belgians, according to their own officials, have written the Congo right out of their lives — but a small number still fight for interests there.

The Congo is not all that important to Belgium in terms of money. The rising wealth of the European Common Market has begun to take such a huge share of Belgian business that trade with the Congo is only a pocketful by comparison.

★ ★ ★

It is with Belgium and the Congo much as it is with Holland and its former colony, Indonesia. Without it, the Dutch are doing nicely and largely for the same reason, the Common Market.

What is important to Belgium is that the Congo has given it a sort of world outlook. That chunk of Africa is three and a half times the size of Texas, and so rich in resources that 50 years of active development have hardly phased it.

PAYING DIVIDENDS

Today's investments in the Congo don't yield the same sort of income that new investments bring in Belgium itself. Belgium's own factories are paying dividends, producing things for the rest of Europe, including Communist states, and other parts of the world.

Exports climbed from $270 million a month in 1959, the year before the Congo's liberation, to $400 a month in 1963. Exports to the Common Market absorbed about half of this.

By contrast, exports to the Congo fell from $7.5 million a month in 1959 to about $4 million a month in 1963. That is barely 1 per cent of Belgium's exports.

Nevertheless, separation from the Congo hit many people in Belgium. Many Congo stock values have fallen to about one-tenth of what they were in 1960 when the Belgian government announced it was liberating the African colony.

INDUSTRIAL CENTER

Despite the civil war and rebel raiding, the great industrial center around Elisabethville has continued operating effectively, with Belgians running the factories and mines.

Clearly the Belgians are staking their hopes on Moise Tshombe, who was an official in the Congo before the liberation and now is the premier. The Belgians made a financial settlement with him recently that not only gives him added authority and prestige, but money.

★

He knows that his best chance of getting more quick credits is in Belgium. On his visit to Brussels to negotiate, he appealed to Belgian businessmen to continue helping the Congo, not only as a friend but as a brother.

In a talk to a Belgian steel organization he said: "The Congo will remain a market of first importance for Belgian industry which will grow in importance for your industries.

NO REASON

"There is no reason why Belgium should not keep its place as primary supplier, as it has been before and is again now with 37 per cent of the total trade."

But to keep them from becoming overconfident, he continued:

"I won't conceal from you that my government is sought out, almost every day, by foreign groups which hope to get the necessary authorization to install themselves in the Congo."

★ ★ ★

Belgians took that with a grain of salt but knew there was a grain of truth in it.

What happened to many Belgians when the Congo plunged into independence, then into trouble, was pretty rough. Throughout Belgium, thousands of shareholders had put their savings in such stocks as Union Miniere, the big copper, uranium and cobalt mining company, one of the richest companies in Europe. The value of its African stock fell from about $1,600 a share before the liberation in 1960 to $180 on a recent quotation.

NEAR PEAK VALUES

Carlos Van Bellinghan, a Belgian Foreign Ministry official, told a New York audience that if everything were lost in the Congo, it would amount to about $3.5 billion, 8 per cent of Belgium's capital assets. He was citing values near their peak.

What happens to people who have had to leave the Congo is indicated by the story of Raymond Rorive. As a geological engineer in his early 30s he had already achieved an important post in Elisabethville with Union Miniere. In normal times he could have expected to become one of the big shots of the company in a few years.

★ ★ ★

Then came the liberation, the uprisings and the threat to everything. He and his wife decided that good sense called on them to get out with their children.

They live in a new house on the outskirts of Brussels — "it isn't paid for yet," said Rorive.

In the Congo, the company furnished a house, paid for regular return visits to Belgium, provided free medical care and schooling and paid him more than he is getting now, three years later.

"My income now is about half what it was in the Congo," he said.

Rorive has a job with a branch of the German Krupp organization, feels he is doing well, but years are ahead before he can expect to match the take-home pay and position he had in the Congo.

To many Belgians the Congo still represents property, jobs for thousands and national prestige. Some officials say the colony was well lost and Belgium is betted off without it. But businessmen are not giving up.

They would like to get American, French, British and West German support to beat down the present rebellion. One bluntly said that what is needed is an agreement to hire 3,000 white mercenaries to smash the rebellion.

The diamond, palm oil and cotton industries are almost at a standstill. The Congo once exported a million tons of cotton a year but now has to import it.

Some agreement, one major business leader insisted, must be reached to invite new capital — and to protect the old. He blamed the Arab states, such as Algeria and Egypt, for financing and stirring up the rebellion, assisted by Communist countries, including China.

Lay Down Law in Town Where Winston Buried

BLADON, England (AP)—The town fathers have banned hot dog stands, juke boxes, tea rooms and other tourist services in this community where Sir Winston Churchill is buried.

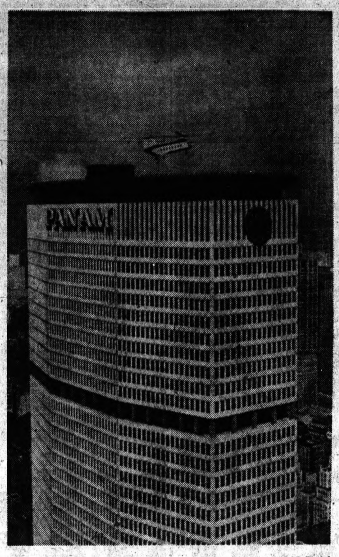

Churchill was buried in January and since then more than a quarter-million people have come to visit his grave in the tiny churchyard.

"We must prevent people from doing to Sir Winston what Stratford-on-Avon has done to Shakespeare. We know what a nauseating place that is," said Councillor Charles French, a factory worker, who proposed a resolution approved last night.

"We do not want tea rooms, or chromium-plated juke boxes."

Challenged Ballots Put Union Vote in Doubt

DETROIT (AP)—Outcome of the March 1-2 union representation election among Checker Cab Co. drivers here remained in doubt Wednesday because of 216 challenged ballots, the National Labor Relations Board office said. Of the unchallenged votes, 454 were cast for the Seafarers International Union, AFL-CIO, and 261 for no union, the NLRB reported.

Nina Appears Inside Kremlin

Mrs. K: We're Leading Normal Lives

MOSCOW (UPI)—Mrs. Nikita S. Khrushchev says she and her husband are leading "a normal, healthy life like other people."

The former Soviet first lady, known to Russians as Nina Petrovna, earlier this week made her first appearance inside the Kremlin since her husband was ousted from power last October.

She showed up at the "Palace of Congresses," the new, modernistic building inside the Kremlin, to hear the opera "Prince Igor." Khrushchev, a devoted opera lover, was not with her.

Accompanied by a woman friend, Mrs. Khrushchev sat in the orchestra through the first two acts, hardly noticed by the audience of 5,000 in the vast theater.

★ ★ ★

But a member of the audience said someone asked her how things were going.

NORMAL LIFE

"We are now living a normal, healthy life like other people," Mrs. Khrushchev replied.

At the end of the second act she left the theater and entered a chauffeur-driven limousine, presumably to return to the Khrushchev country home.

Informed sources said the Khrushchevs recently acquired two new homes and moved out of a luxurious government villa near the village of Usovo.

★ ★ ★

They said the former premier and his wife moved to an equally well-appointed villa in another part of the Moscow provincial district and have taken up residence in a five room apartment at 19 Staro-Koniusheny (Old Stables Street), next door to the Canadian Embassy.

FAVORITE WRITER

One of Khrushchev's favorite writers, novelist Mikhail Sholokhov, has an apartment in the same building but spends most of his time in a Cossack village in the Don Valley.

Residents of the street have reported that the Khrushchevs, assisted by their son-in-law, moved their furniture into the apartment about three weeks ago. The son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, lost his job as editor of the government newspaper Izvestia soon after Khrushchev fell from power.

The neighbors said the Khrushchevs spent several days at the apartment and then returned to their country home.

This apparently explains why Western newsmen, who set up a round-the-clock watch at Staro-Koniusheny, were unable to spot any members of the family.

★ ★ ★

The publicity-loving former premier has not been interviewed — or even seen by a Western newsman — since his political demise.

Grand Rapids C. of C. Backs Airline Service

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Support of a Lake Central Airlines request for authority to begin scheduled service between Louisville, Ky., and here was voiced Wednesday by the Greater Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce. The chamber claimed that federal granting of the request would provide single-plane service eliminating a stopover in Chicago and resulting in lower fares for patrons of the run.

Sec. 3. (1) "Administrator" means the official designated by the city to administer the provisions of this ordinance.

(2) "Business" means an enterprise, activity, profession or undertaking of any nature conducted or ordinarily conducted for profit or gain by any person, including the operation of any unrelated business by a charitable, religious or educational institution.

(3) "Capital gains" and "capital losses" mean the same as defined for federal income tax purposes.

Sec. 4. (1) "City" means the city adopting this ordinance.

(2) "Compensation" means salary, pay or emolument given as compensation for personal services done or performed, in cash or in kind, and includes but is not limited to the following: salaries, wages, bonuses, commissions, fees, tips, incentive payments, severance, vacation pay and sick pay.

(3) "Corporation" means a corporation or association organized or chartered under the laws of the United States, this or any other state, territory or foreign country or dependency.

Sec. 5. "Doing business" means the conduct of any activity with the object of gain or benefit, except that it does not include:

(a) The solicitation of orders by a person or his representative in the city for sale at wholesale to dealers, where such orders are sent outside the city for approval or rejection and, if approved, are filled by shipment or delivery from a point outside the city.

(b) The solicitation of orders by a person or his representative in the city in the name of or for the benefit of a prospective customer of a person, if orders by the customer to such person to fill the orders do not require that they be resulting from solicitation are orders described in paragraph (a).

(c) The mere storage of personal property in the city in a warehouse operated by another person for the owner.

Sec. 6. (1) "Employee" means a person from whom an employer is required to withhold for either federal income federal social security taxes.

(2) "Employer" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or organization, governmental body or unit or agency, or any other entity employing one or more persons within the ordinance, that employs one or more persons on a salary, bonus, commission or other basis, whether or not the employer is in a business.

(3) "Federal income tax code" means the internal revenue code of the United States in effect on the last day of the taxpayer's tax year.

(4) "Financial institution" means a bank, industrial bank, trust company, building and loan or savings and loan association, credit union, pawnbroker, collateral deposit company, regulated investment company as defined in section 851 and following sections of the federal internal revenue code, under whatever organization, and any other association, joint stock company or corporation at least 90% of whose assets consist of intangible personal property and at least 90% of whose gross income consists of dividends, interest or other charges resulting from the use of money or credit.

(5) "Fiscal year" means an accounting period of 12 months ending on any day other than December 31. Only fiscal years accepted by the internal revenue service for federal income tax purposes may be used for city tax purposes.

(6) "Net profits" means the net gain from the operation of a business, profession or enterprise, after provision for all costs and expenses incurred in the conduct thereof, determined on either the cash or accrual method on the same basis as provided for in the federal internal revenue code for federal income tax purposes, excluding items exempted under this ordinance, but without deduction for federal income taxes based on income and without deduction for net operating loss carry-over or capital loss carry-over sustained prior to the effective date of this tax.

Sec. 8. (1) "Resident" means an individual domiciled outside the city.

(2) "Person" means a natural person, partnership, fiduciary, association, corporation or other entity. When used in a provision prescribing a fine or imprisonment, the officers thereof.

(3) "Predominant place of employment" means that city imposing a tax under a uniform city income tax ordinance based upon the city of residence in which the employee estimates he will earn the predominant portion of his compensation from the employer, which percentage is for the year.

Sec. 9. (1) "Resident" means an individual domiciled in the city. "Domicile" means a place where a person has his true, fixed and permanent home and principal establishment to which, whenever absent therefrom, he intends to return, and domicile continues until another domicile is established. A new domicile is established when a person moves to another city with the bona fide intention of residing there permanently or indefinitely. A person has but one domicile. A resident who moves his domicile outside the city during the tax year is a nonresident or vice versa. Taxable income shall be determined separately for each period.

(2) "Taxable year" means the calendar year, or the fiscal year, used as a basis on which net profits and other income subject to tax under this ordinance are computed and is the period of a return for a fractional part of a year, for which a return for which the return is required to be made.

(3) "Taxpayer" means a person required by this ordinance to file a return or to pay a tax.

Sec. 10. Subject to the exclusions, adjustments, exemptions and deductions herein provided, an annual tax of 1% of the following is imposed upon individuals and of ½% on non-resident individuals for general revenue purposes, a like tax imposed as an excise on income earned and received by them after the effective date of this ordinance.

Sec. 12. The tax shall apply on the following types of income to the extent received by individual to the same extent and on the same basis as income is subject to taxation under the federal internal revenue code:

(a) On a salary, bonus, wage, commission and other compensation.

(b) On a distributive share of the net profits of the resident owner of an unincorporated business, profession, enterprise, undertaking or activity as a result of work done, services rendered and other business activities conducted.

(c) On dividends, interest, capital gains and capital losks, on income from estates and trusts and net profits from rentals of real and tangible personal property.

(d) On other income of a resident individual.

Sec. 13. The tax shall apply on the following types of income to the extent a resident individual to the same extent and on the same basis that income is subject to taxation under the federal internal revenue code:

(a) On a salary, bonus, wage, commission and other compensation for services rendered as an employee for which he is paid, whether the same is in the city or outside the city. Vacation pay, holiday pay, sick pay and a bonus paid by the employer is deemed to have the same tax situs as the work assignment or work location of the employee to whom same relates in the normal earnings of the employee for work actually done or services actually performed.

(b) On a distributive share of the net profits of a nonresident owner of an unincorporated business, profession, enterprise, undertaking or activity as a result of work done, services rendered and other business activities conducted in the city.

(c) On capital gains less capital losses from sales of real and tangible personal property, if such arise from property located in the city.

Sec. 14. The tax shall apply on the taxable net profits on a corporate basis of business in the city, being levied on such part of the taxable net profits as is earned by the corporation as a result of work done, services rendered and other business activities conducted in the city as determined in accordance with this ordinance. "Taxable net profits of a corporation" means taxable net profits income as defined in section 63 of the federal internal revenue code but taking into consideration all exclusions and deductions provided in this ordinance. No deduction shall be allowed for:

(a) Net operating losses and net capital losses sustained prior to the effective date of the tax.

(b) The city income tax imposed by this ordinance.

A corporation may deduct income, war profits and excess profits taxes imposed by a foreign country or possession of the United States, allocable to income included in taxable net income, any part of which would be allowable as a deduction in determining federal taxable income under the applicable provisions of the federal internal revenue code.

Sec. 15. An unincorporated business, profession or other activity owned by two or more persons subject to the tax is either a joint venture or partnership and shall not be taxable as such. The proportion of earnings on the unincorporated business, profession or other activity are liable for income tax only in their separate and individual capacities on the following bases:

(a) A resident proprietor or partner is taxable upon his entire distributive share of the net profits of the activity regardless of where the activity is conducted.

(b) A nonresident proprietor or partner is taxable only upon his distributive share of the net profits of the activity which is attributable to the city for the period or periods provided in this ordinance.

(c) If the share of a proprietor or partner of an unincorporated activity, the character of any item of income taxable under this ordinance is changed because of such item were realized by the individual proprietor or partner directly from the source from which it is realized by the unincorporated activity, company, fiduciary or estate, a taxable year; a person who is required to file a return hereunder shall report his distributive share of the net profits for any partnership year ending within the taxable year.

Sec. 16. An unincorporated business, profession or other activity owned by 2 or more persons shall file an annual partnership return which shall state:

(a) The entire net profit for the period or periods covered by the return and the portion of the net profit attributable to the city.

(b) The names and addresses of the owners of the unincorporated activity and the amount of each owner's distributive share of the total net profit and each nonresident owner's share of the city net profit attributable to the city.

Sec. 17. At the election of an unincorporated business, profession or other activity, the entity, on behalf of the owners electing thereto, shall pay the tax due with respect to each owner's share of the net profit of the activity after applying the credits to which each owner is entitled. This election is available only if all owners of the business entities having 2 or more owners regardless of the number of shareholders, and that tax paid by the entity shall constitute all tax due with respect to the distributive share of the net profits of the unincorporated business profession or other activity.

If the unincorporated business, profession or other activity elects under this section to pay the tax, it shall pay the tax on behalf of its owners, the election and filing are deemed to meet the requirements of section 20 for the filing of a return for each owner who has no other income subject to tax, however, a return is required from any owner who has other income subject to tax or whose distributive share of the net profits of the entity. In such case the entire business activity shall be included in the return and credit taken therein for the tax paid by his behalf by the unincorporated activity.

If the unincorporated business, profession or other activity fails to pay the tax on behalf of the owners, then the unincorporated business, profession or other activity, the individual status of a taxpayer and is liable to interest and penalties for failure to pay the tax on the due date, in accordance with the provisions made and provided for unincorporated business, profession other activity.

Sec. 18. When the entire net profit of a business subject to the tax is not reportable for federal income tax exclusively within the city, the portion of the entire net profit, earned as a result of work done, services performed or other business activity conducted in the city, shall be determined by the use of separate accounting or by the use of an allocation percentage, if the taxpayer under either section 19, section 20 to be used.

Sec. 19. The separate accounting method shall be used if such taxpayer regularly maintains books of account which show the gross income and all costs and expenses incurred in such manner as to show with reasonable accuracy the amount of the net profits attributable to work done, services performed or rendered, and business or other activities conducted in the city and such portion of the net profits is used by the taxpayer in his return. If used the administrator may require a taxpayer to report in such manner in which the apportionment is made, in sufficient detail to determine whether the gross income and profits of the city are apportioned with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 20. The allocation percentage method shall be used if such taxpayer does not elect to use the separate accounting method or if the administrator determines the latter method inaccurate. The entire net profits of such taxpayer shall be allocated to the city on the basis of percentages of property, payroll and sales, specifically computed, shall be determined in accordance with sections 21 to 24.

Sec. 21. First, the taxpayer shall determine the percentage which the average net book value of the property owned and the real property, including leasehold improvements, owned or used by it in the business during the taxable period, is of the average net book value of all real property, including leasehold improvements, owned or used by the taxpayer in the business during the taxable period wherever located. Real property shall include real property and tenant. The actual sum of real property" means the actual sum of property without consideration, directly or indirectly, by the taxpayer for the use of such property and includes but is not limited to:

(a) An amount payable for the use or occupancy of property, or any part thereof, whether designated as a fixed sum of money or as a percentage of sales, profits or otherwise.

(b) An amount payable as additional rent or in lieu of rent such as taxes, insurance, repairs or other amount required by the lease or by the terms of a lease or other arrangement.

Sec. 22. Second, the taxpayer shall ascertain the average value of the total compensation paid to employees for work done or services performed everywhere in the city is of the total compensation paid to all of his employees within and without the city during the period covered by the return. For allocation purposes, compensation shall be computed on the cash or accrual basis in accordance with the method used in computing the entire net income of the taxpayer.

Sec. 23. If an employee performs services within and without the city, the following examples are not all inclusive but may serve as a guide in determining the amount to be treated as compensation for services performed within the city:

(a) In the case of an employee compensated on a time basis, the proportion of the total compensation paid which is earned within the city is the ratio of the time he works within the city to the total time he works.

(b) In the case of an employee compensated directly on the volume of business transacted by him, such as a salesman on a commission basis, the amount received by him for business attributable to the city is used.

(c) In the case of an employee compensated on other results achieved, the proportion of the total compensation received which the value of his services within the city bears to the value of all his services.

Sec. 24. Third, the taxpayer shall ascertain the average value of the total revenue of the taxpayer derived from sales made and services rendered in the city is of the total gross revenue from all sales and services wherever made or rendered by the taxpayer during the period.

For the purposes of this section, "sales made in the city" means all sales made, goods, merchandise or property is received within the city by the purchaser, or a person or firm designated by him, in the case of delivery of goods in the city to a common or private carrier for the purpose of transportation, the place at which the delivery has been completed is considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser.

Sales of intangibles are not all inclusive but may serve as a guide for determining sales made in the city:

(a) Sales to a customer in the city with shipments to a destination within the city from a point outside the city by out-of-city location are considered sales made in the city.

(b) Sales to a customer in the city with shipments to the city by out-of-city supplier are considered sales made in the city.

(c) Sales to a customer in the city with shipments from a point outside the city at his regularly maintained and established out-of-city location are considered sales made in the city.

(d) Sales to an out-of-city customer with shipments or deliveries to the customer's location within the city are considered sales made in the city.

(e) Sales to an out-of-city customer where shipment or delivery is made from a point outside the city are considered out-of-city sales.

(f) Sales to an out-of-city customer with shipments or deliveries to the customer's location within the city are considered sales made in the city.

Sec. 25. An alternative method of allocation may be used if the taxpayer or the administrator demonstrates that the allocation percentage provided herein to the city cannot be justly and equitably determined under the accounting method or the business allocation percentage method, or if undue expense would result to the taxpayer from applying therewith because of the taxpayer's peculiar circumstances or methods of accounting. In such case the administrator may, upon application to him by the taxpayer or upon his initiative, may approve or specify factors or methods of determination as are reasonable. Including subsidiaries whose voting stock is more than 50% owned by the taxpayer, if such return will more properly reflect the net profits and activity of the taxpayer in the city. The city may require a consolidated return if necessary to properly determine the net profits of the taxpayer allocable to the city.

Sec. 26. (1) Capital gains and capital losses, other than gains and losses on securities issued by the government of the United States, shall be included in income only to the extent of that portion of the gains or losses which occur after the effective date of this ordinance. In determining the amount of gain or loss, the fair market value of property shall be determined by an appraisal or similar accounting or acceptable fair market value of a security shall be the last quoted price on the effective day prior to the effective date. For a security traded on an exchange, the last quoted price shall be the last bid price on the business day prior to the effective date. A taxpayer may determine the gain or loss on a transaction in the same manner as for federal income tax purposes taking into account any deferred gain or loss applicable after the effective date. The portion of any gain or loss taxable or deductible as taxable income will be the same proportion as the total gain or loss as the period of time the property was held after the effective date of the ordinance bears to the total period the property was held. In any city adopting this ordinance prior to January 1, 1964, the effective date of the ordinance is effect on January 1, 1964, capital gains and losses shall be included to the extent of that portion of such gains or losses which occur after January 1, 1964, the effective date of city income tax ordinance.

(2) Net capital gains exceed capital gains in a taxable years the unused portion may be carried back or forward to the same extent and on the same basis as under the federal internal revenue code.

Sec. 27. Income of an estate or trust subject to tax under this ordinance, except that of a trust which is exempt from federal income tax, shall be taxed as a nonresident individual for purposes of section 11 of this ordinance. Income of an estate or trust described in section 12 is not includable in the return of a resident individual. Section of "income of estates and trusts." A resident individual shall include income from estates and trusts" in his income subject to tax under this ordinance to the extent that it is not the situs of the estate or trust. For this purpose, a resident trust" means: (1) a deceased person during the period of administration or settlement and (2) "trust" means an inter vivos testamentary trust created by an individual who is a resident of the city.

Sec. 28. (1) "Income from estates" and trusts" means the amount of section 643 (b) of the federal internal revenue code, property and income distributed but not in excess of the resident individuals share of the distributable net income of the estate decreased by the amount of depreciation or depletion allowed the resident individual as a deduction by section 642 of the federal internal revenue code, but excluding exceptions hereinafter set forth with respect to trusts are also applicable to estates.

(2) "Income from trusts" means the amount of "income" as defined in section 643 (a) of the federal internal revenue code, distributed or required to be distributed currently and not in section 642 (a) (1) of the federal internal revenue code, decreased by the amount of depreciation or depletion allowed the resident individual as a deduction by section 611 of the federal internal revenue code, with the following exceptions:

(a) Dividends on shares of state and national banks and trust companies.

(b) Interest from obligations of the United States, the state or subdivisions of the United States, the state or subdivisions of government of the states.

(c) Income received by a resident individual from a fiduciary shall retain the character as to the source in the hands of the fiduciary. With respect to trusts where the income is taxed to the grantor or others than the trust, pursuant to the provisions of subchapter J of the federal internal revenue code, no person shall include in his return all items and deductions allowed by this ordinance.

(3) An individual shall include "income from estates and trusts" in his return in the same year as provided in the federal internal revenue code, but with respect to distributions of income from estates and trusts. The amount of income included in the return for the first tax year of a resident individual, with respect to estates and trusts, shall be computed as though the tax year of the estate or trust had been coincident for purposes began on the effective date of this ordinance and ended with the end of the tax year of the estate or trust for federal income tax purposes which ended next after the effective date.

Sec. 31. An individual taxpayer shall be entitled to the following deductions for the full personal and dependency exemptions authorized by the federal internal revenue code. The taxpayer may claim his or her spouse and dependents. Exemptions of the taxpayer and the spouse are both subject to the tax imposed by this ordinance, the number of exemptions claimed by each of them for dependents shall not exceed the total number of exemptions allowed under this ordinance.

Sec. 32. The following payments and benefits received by any person are not subject to the tax:

(a) Gifts and bequests.

(b) Proceeds of insurance, annuities, pensions and retirement benifits. Amounts received for personal injuries, sickness or disability are excluded from taxable income only to the extent provided by the federal internal revenue code.

(c) Welfare relief, unemployment benefits including supplemental unemployment benefits, and workmen's compensation benefits, or similar payments from whatever source derived.

(d) Amounts received by charitable, religious, educational and other similar nonprofit organizations which are exempt from taxation under the federal internal revenue code.

(e) Amounts received by supplemental unemployment benefit trusts or funds which are exempt from taxation and trusts unqualified and exempt under the federal internal revenue code.

(f) Interest on obligations of the United States, the states or subordinate units or municipalities thereof, and gains or losses on the sales of obligations for the following purposes:

(1) For profits of financial institutions and insurance companies.

(2) Dividends received from national and state bank stock.

(3) Amounts paid to an employee as reimbursement for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his job or actual performance of his services and deductible as such by the employee.

(i) Compensation received for service in the armed forces of the United States.

Sec. 33. Ordinary and necessary deductible and unreimbursed expenses paid or incurred during the tax year in connection with the performance by him of services as an employee may be deducted from gross income in determining income subject to the tax. The expenses are limited to the following:

(a) Expenses of travel, meals and lodging while away from home.

(b) Expenses as an outside salesman, away from his employer's place of business.

(c) Expenses of transportation.

(d) Expenses under a reimbursement or other expense allowance arrangement with his employer, where the reimbursement or allowance has been included in his compensation reported.

Sec. 41. A person having a tax liability under this ordinance for any year shall make and file with the city an annual return for that year, on such forms furnished or approved by the city, on or before the last day of the fourth month after the same calendar year, fiscal year or accounting period, as has been accepted by the federal internal revenue service for federal income tax purposes for the taxpayer. An individual liable to file a return required to file an annual return if his income does not exceed the amount with respect to which a personal exemption is allowable to him for the year, or in the case of husband and wife may file a joint return and, in such case, the tax liability is joint and several.

Sec. 42. The annual return shall set forth:

(a) The number of exemptions, place of residence, place of employment and other information necessary or reasonably be required.

(b) The aggregate amount of compensation, dividends, interest, net profit and other income subject to the tax and deductions, credits, gains, losses, net profits and losses from business or income, subject to the tax.

(c) The amount of the tax imposed by this ordinance.

(d) The amount of the tax previously withheld or paid.

(e) Credits provided in this ordinance.

(f) The balance of the tax due or to be refunded.

Sec. 41. (1) A person who anticipates taxable income from which the city income tax will be withheld by his employer, or a declaration of estimated tax on a form furnished by or obtainable on request at a collector's office, shall make and file a declaration on or before each of the dates prescribed by law for the payment of estimated federal income tax by individuals. The declaration shall be for the calendar year or fiscal year, as the case may be, during which the payments of estimated tax are required to be made. The amount of estimated city income tax shown on the declaration shall be paid in four equal installments on or before the dates prescribed for the payment of federal estimated income tax by individuals. Payments of estimated city income tax may be made jointly with payments of estimated federal income tax.

(2) An employer withholding the tax from the wages of his employees shall file a declaration on or before each of the dates prescribed by law for the payment of estimated federal income tax by individuals, showing the estimated amount of city income tax to be withheld from the wages of his employees during the calendar year or fiscal year, as the case may be, for which the declaration is filed. The declaration shall be for the amount required to be withheld from the wages paid during each period for which a payment of estimated tax is required. The declaration shall be signed by the employer or his duly authorized agent.

(3) Any estimate of taxable income or withholding shall be revised by the taxpayer if necessary so that a further declaration or amended declaration shall be filed on or before the next payment date after the taxpayer becomes aware of the necessity for revision. The estimated tax or withholding shall be revised to conform to the facts then known to the taxpayer.

(4) Declarations of estimated tax shall be signed by the taxpayer.

(5) Any taxpayer who has not previously been required to file, the declaration shall be filed on or before the first date for making a quarterly payment which occurs 45 days after the taxpayer has become subject to the requirement to file a declaration. A taxpayer shall file a declaration for the fiscal year or other accounting period that has been accepted by the federal internal revenue service for federal income tax purposes. A declaration shall not be required if the estimated tax, less any credits applicable thereto, does not exceed $200.00. A declaration by a corporation is not required if the estimated tax, less any credits applicable thereto, does not exceed $1,000.00. A declaration by an employer shall not be required if the estimated withholding tax for the calendar year or fiscal year, as the case may be, does not exceed $200.00.

Sec. 42. The estimated tax may be paid in full with the declaration or in equal installments on or before the last day of the fourth, sixth, ninth and thirteenth months after the beginning of the taxable year.

(3) An amended declaration may be filed when necessary and the unpaid balance shall be paid in full with the amended declaration or in equal installments on or before the last day of the remaining payment dates.

Sec. 43. (1) The filing of a declaration of estimated tax shall not excuse the taxpayer from filing an annual return even though there is no tax due on the declared tax liability. An annual return shall be filed by the last day of the fourth month of the year following that for which the return is made or, if a different fiscal year of a taxpayer the administrator may extend the time for filing the return, but not more than six months.

(2) The administrator may require a taxpayer to make a return of estimated tax.

Sec. 44. (1) A penalty or interest shall not be assessed if the return is filed and the final tax paid within the following times after the due date prescribed by law: 1% of the amount of the tax shown due on the taxpayer's return if he has paid a total of 70% or more of the tax shown due on the taxpayer's return on the same amount of income of a nonresident.

Sec. 45. An individual who is a resident of the city and received net profits from a business, profession or activity or rents or tangible personal property, gains from the sale or exchange of real or tangible personal property, gains from the sale or exchange of stocks, bonds or other personal property, or salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation for work done or services performed or rendered, in each case outside the city, on which he has paid an income tax on this income to another municipality imposing an income tax ordinance, shall be allowed a credit against the city income tax for the amount paid to such other municipality, but such credit shall not exceed the amount of taxes assessed on the same amount of income of a nonresident.

Sec. 46. In withholding or in paying the tax due under this ordinance, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to ½ cent or more, in which it may be increased to one cent.

Sec. 71. (1) The administrator may adopt, amend and promulgate rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of this ordinance, subject to the approval of the city governing body. Such rules and regulations become effective upon being published in the official newspaper of the city.

(2) The administrator shall enforce this ordinance and the rules and regulations. He shall receive returns, examine them and make available, to taxpayers, employers and other persons forms necessary for compliance with this ordinance.

(3) The administrator shall collect all taxes and payments due under this ordinance and deposit them in a designated city depository.

Sec. 72. A taxpayer or employer dissatisfied with a decision of the administrator in regard to this ordinance or rules and regulations may petition for a hearing and the administrator all the facts involved and the ruling sought. A taxpayer or employer may appeal from the administrator's order or refusal to the board of review in writing.

Sec. 73. (1) The administrator personally, or his duly authorized agent or a duly authorized city employer, may examine the books, papers and records of any person, employer, taxpayer or his agent or employee relative to, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy and completeness of a return or if no return is filed, to ascertain the tax, withholding, penalties or interest due under this ordinance.

(2) The administrator or his duly authorized agent may examine a person under oath, concerning income which was or should have been returned for taxation under this ordinance, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, papers and records and the attendance of all parties before him, whether as taxpayers or witnesses, and believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

Sec. 74. (1) Information gained by the administrator, city treasurer or any other city official, agent or employee as a result of a return, investigation, hearing or verification required or authorized by this ordinance is confidential, except for official purposes or in accordance with the administration of the ordinance and except in accordance with a proper judicial order.

(2) Any person who divulges this confidential information, except for official purposes, is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine not exceeding $500.00, imprisonment for a period not exceeding 90 days, or both, in the discretion of the court. If the offender is an employee of the city he shall be dismissed from employment and be subject to discharge for misconduct.

Sec. 91. (1) A taxpayer shall furnish, within 10 days following a request of the administrator or of a duly authorized agent, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such reasonable examinations and investigations as are authorized by this ordinance, and shall permit such examinations and investigations when so ordered by the administrator. The taxpayer or order of the administrator or his duly authorized agent may be made verbally. However, a person may require that a request internal revenue be addressed in writing to him, and if he requires that the request be addressed or authorized in writing, no examinations or other payments made to a taxpayer or employee or similar payments from whatever source derived.

(2) Refused by any person to submit to such examination or investigation, when requested or ordered by the administrator, is a violation of this ordinance, punishable by such penalties as are provided in the ordinance.

Sec. 82. (1) All taxes imposed upon taxpayers and withheld by employers under this ordinance and remaining unpaid after they are due bear interest from due date at the rate of ½ of 1% per month until paid.

(2) A person who fails to file a return, or to pay the tax, or to remit withholding taxes to the city shall refund to him, the amount of the over-withholding.

(3) If, in any case, the taxpayer or employer shall notify the city and the taxpayer or employer has failed to pay the city the additional tax due in his annual return.

(4) An employer shall file a return, furnished by or obtainable on request at the collector's office to the city by the last day of the month following the close of each calendar quarter.

Sec. 91. (1) An employer shall file a reconciliation of his quarterly returns on or before the last day of February of the following calendar year in which he has withheld from an employee's compensation. A separate form for each reconciliation is filed. If the employer withheld more than the amount of tax due from an employee's compensation during the year, and the amount of city income tax withheld from the employee's compensation shall refund the excess to the employee.

(2) In addition to the reconciliation the employer shall file an information return for each employee from whom city income tax has been withheld and each employee subject to withholding under this ordinance, setting forth his name, address and social security number, the last known address of the taxpayer during the year, and the amount of city income tax withheld from him. The information return shall be on a copy of the federal withholding tax form furnished or approved by the city. A copy of the information return shall be furnished to the employee.

(3) If an employer goes out of business or ceases to employ persons subject to withholding, he shall file the reconciliation forms and the information returns required by this section within 30 days after the date he goes out of business or the final withholding return and payment are due.

Sec. 92. (1) A person who anticipates taxable income from which the city income tax will be withheld by his employer, or a declaration of estimated tax on a form furnished by or obtainable on request at a collector's office, shall make and file a declaration on or before each of the dates prescribed by law for the payment of estimated federal income tax by individuals. Payments of estimated city income tax may be made jointly with payments of estimated federal income tax.

(2) An employer withholding the tax from the wages of his employees shall file a declaration on or before each of the dates prescribed by law for the payment of estimated federal income tax by individuals, showing the estimated amount of city income tax to be withheld from the wages of his employees during the calendar year or fiscal year, as the case may be, for which the declaration is filed. The declaration shall be for the amount required to be withheld from the wages paid during each period for which a payment of estimated tax is required. The declaration shall be signed by the employer or his duly authorized agent.

(3) Any estimate of taxable income or withholding shall be revised by the taxpayer if necessary so that a further declaration or amended declaration shall be filed on or before the next payment date after the taxpayer becomes aware of the necessity for revision. The estimated tax or withholding shall be revised to conform to the facts then known to the taxpayer.

(4) Declarations of estimated tax shall be signed by the taxpayer.

(5) Any taxpayer who has not previously been required to file, the declaration shall be filed on or before the first date for making a quarterly payment which occurs 45 days after the taxpayer has become subject to the requirement to file a declaration. A taxpayer shall file a declaration for the fiscal year or other accounting period that has been accepted by the federal internal revenue service for federal income tax purposes. A declaration shall not be required if the estimated tax, less any credits applicable thereto, does not exceed $200.00. A declaration by a corporation is not required if the estimated tax, less any credits applicable thereto, does not exceed $1,000.00. A declaration by an employer shall not be required if the estimated withholding tax for the calendar year or fiscal year, as the case may be, does not exceed $200.00.

Sec. 93. The estimated tax may be paid in full with the declaration or in equal installments on or before the last day of the fourth, sixth, ninth and thirteenth months after the beginning of the taxable year.

(3) An amended declaration may be filed when necessary and the unpaid balance shall be paid in full with the amended declaration or in equal installments on or before the last day of the remaining payment dates.

Sec. 94. (1) The filing of a declaration of estimated tax shall not excuse the taxpayer from filing an annual return even though there is no tax due on the declared tax liability. An annual return shall be filed by the last day of the fourth month of the year following that for which the return is made or, if a different fiscal year of a taxpayer the administrator may extend the time for filing the return, but not more than six months. The administrator may require a taxpayer to make a return of estimated tax.

Sec. 95. An individual who is a resident of the city and received net profits from a business, profession or activity or rents or tangible personal property, gains from the sale or exchange of real or tangible personal property, gains from the sale or exchange of stocks, bonds or other personal property, or salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation for work done or services performed or rendered,

Junior Editors Quiz on KILTS

QUESTION: How did Scotchmen come to wear kilts?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The short knee-length skirt called a kilt developed from another item of the traditional Scotchman's garb, the plaidie. Our pictures show the main stages in the kilt's development.

★ ★ ★

(1) shows the Highland garb about 1500. A very long piece of cloth, dyed a bright yellow, was belted around the waist with part of it hanging down to the knee, forming a kind of skirt and leaving the legs bare.

The reason for this was that the Highlands of Scotland were covered with heather which would get very wet in the rain and mist of that mountainous country.

The Highlanders spend much time outdoors tending their animals. Trousers are heavy and uncomfortable when wet.

★ ★ ★

Tucked up during the day, the long cloth, later called a plaidie, could be wrapped around the wearer if he had to sleep outdoors at night.

In (2) the Highlander still wears a belted plaidie, but the bottom is carefully arranged to hang down neatly.

It was only a step from this to the kilt (3), in which the skirt is separate. A bit of the plaidie still is draped over the left shoulder. Notice the tartan design. This shows the special clan to which the wearer belongs.

PICKLE FISH PIE—Fish 'n' pickle days are here! Sweet gherkins season and garnish this sturdy main dish pie containing cod and vegetables. It's a hearty supper dish for serving during Lent.

Pickles Put Zip Into a Tuna Pie

Fish 'n' pickles rate high on the list of Lenten food combinations. Pickles provide a delightful contrast to fish in several ways.

Crisp texture of pickles adds interest to the tenderness of fish. Spiciness of pickles accents the bland sweet flavor which most fish offers.

Fish dishes are more attractive with a perky garnish of pickle strips, fans or slices.

A hearty Picle Fish Pie contains vegetables in addition to cod and sweet gherkins. It needs only a fresh green salad to round out the main course.

Pickle Fish Pie

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of celery soup, undiluted
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons sweet pickle liquid
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon crushed thyme
3 cups cooked, cubed potatoes, (about 1 pound)
2 cups cooked sliced carrots (about ¾ pound)
8 cooked whole white onions (about ½ pound)
½ cup chopped sweet gherkins
1½ to 2 pounds fresh or frozen cod fillets, parboiled, drained and flaked
½ package (10 ounces) pie crust mix, prepared according to package directions

* * *

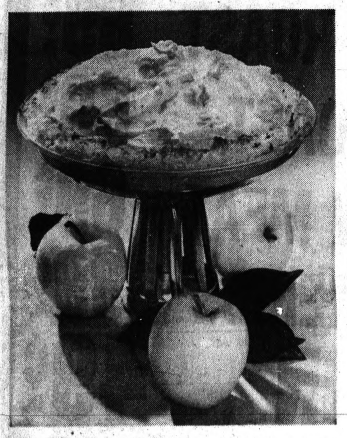

In large bowl, blend soup, milk, pickle liquid and seasonings. Stir in vegetables and gherkins; gently fold in fish. Turn into 2-quart casserole.

Roll out pie crust; place on casserole. Seal edges. Slash pastry to allow the steam to escape.

Bake in 400 degree (hot) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until lightly browned. Garnish with strips of additional sweet gherkins, if desired.

For deeper browning, pie crust may be brushed with cream after 15 minutes of baking time.

The rango was orginally a typsy dance of Spain called the milonga.

Apple Chiffon Pie Has Crust of Coconut

Although the Red Delicious apple is generally used for salads and juicy out-of-hand eating, its beautiful cousin, the Golden Delicious variety, has greater versatility.

* * *

This unique apple, grown in Washington State's famous valleys, is not only sweet and fine-grained for "fresh" uses, but also makes excellent pies.

* * *

Sweeter than the usual varieties one thinks of for this use, the Golden Delicious takes to a bit of lemon juice or a tart fruit, such as cranberries, with natural affinity.

It combines the virtues of two distinct apple types: the "eater" and the "cooker," in a golden thin skin, tinged with pink.

The Golden Apple Chiffon features a light, airy pie in a coconut crust. The apple is coarsely grated into the chiffon filling both for flavor and texture.

GOLDEN APPLE CHIFFON

Crust

1½ cups flaked coconut
2 tablespoons soft butter

Spread 9-inch pie plate with soft butter. Press coconut firmly into butter. Bake at 325 degrees about 10 minutes, or until golden brown. Cool.

Filling

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
4 egg yolks
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup lemon juice
1½ teaspoons grated lemon peel
4 egg whites
½ cup sugar
2 Washington Golden Delicious apples, peeled, cored, and coarsely grated

* * *

Soften gelatin in cold water. Beat egg yolks slightly; add ½ cup sugar, salt, and lemon juice. Cook in saucepan over medium-low heat stirring constantly until thickened. Add lemon peel. Add gelatin, stirring until dissolved.

Cool until it just begins to jell, then stir in grated apple. Beat egg whites until frothy; add ½ cup sugar gradually, beating until soft peak stage. Fold into lemon-apple mixture.

Pile into baked coconut shell. Top with sweetened whipped cream, if desired.

What Kind of Fish Shall We Have?

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

This week, when you go grocery shopping, take a good look at the fish counter. You'll be glad you are a homemaker now.

If you must prepare several meatless meals a week during Lent, you'll appreciate the great variety of fish you can buy.

Think what it must have been like to have only dried fish and the limited canned fish the housewife of 50 years ago had.

Fish fillets are definitely convenience foods.

Ocean perch, a fish almost unknown to the consumer until about 1935, is now available across the country. It is an excellent source of high quality protein, vitamins and minerals.

Try this moderately priced fish in a new way.

Ocean Perch Florentine

2 pounds ocean perch fillets or other fish fillets, fresh or frozen
1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach
¼ cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
Dash nutmeg
¼ cup melted fat or oil
1½ cups milk
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
⅓ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Paprika

Thaw frozen fillets. Skin fillets. Cook spinach as directed on package; drain thoroughly.

Blend flour and seasonings into fat. Add milk gradually and cook until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Add cheese and Worcestershire sauce and stir until blended.

Arrange half the fish in the bottom of a well-greased baking dish, 10x6x2 inches. Combine spinach with ½ cup of the sauce. Spread over fish. Arrange remaining fish over spinach. Pour remaining sauce over fish. Sprinkle with paprika.

Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Serves 6.

Many fine restaurants have achieved their reputation for elegant food with simple recipes. How they serve the dish is half the battle.

Take sardines, for instance. Heated in a savory sauce and baked in scallop shells or small casseroles, they make an unusual fish course.

Coquilles, Down East Style

2 cans (4 oz. each) Maine Sardines
1 cup thick white sauce
Dash tabasco
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 egg yolk, beaten
¼ cup mustard relish, chopped
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
Commercial seasoned bread crumbs

Drain and mash sardines. Combine with all remaining ingredients except crumbs and mix well. Fill scallop shells with mixture and garnish with additional sardines if desired.

Sprinkle with crumbs and bake in hot (400 degrees) oven for 15-20 minutes until hot and bubbly. Serve with lemon wedges and tartar sauce.

Yield: Enough filling for 10 small or 6 large servings.

★ ★ ★

Mexican sandwiches or Chalupas are made with tortillas. Breaded fish portions are the filling. Truly a different way to serve fish.

Fish Portion Chalupas

2 packages (of 6) frozen breaded fish portions or 3 packages (of 4) frozen breaded fish portions
¼ cup cooking oil
1 can or package of 12 tortillas
2 tomatoes, sliced
Lemon wedges
Shredded lettuce (about 2 cups)

Broil, bake or fry fish portions as directed on the packages. Meanwhile, heat oil in skillet and fry tortillas until lightly browned and tender; drain on paper towels.

Place two fish portions and 2 tomato slices between two tortillas to make large sandwiches, or make "open faced" sandwiches by placing a single fish portion on each tortilla and topping with a tomato slice or wedge. Serve with lemon wedges on a bed of shredded lettuce.

Makes 6 large or 12 small sandwiches.

FISH PORTION CHALUPAS

Pie Has Macaroon Topping

Spice-touched canned cling peach slices baked in a pie, then covered with a crispy macaroon topping make wonderful eating.

"Parisian Macaroon Pie" is so easy to make that you'll want to treat the family often to its golden goodness. Serve it warm from the oven and let the folks savor that wonderful fresh-peach flavor and aroma.

Parisian Macaroon Pie

1 (1 lb. 13 oz.) can cling peach slices
Pastry for single 8-inch crust
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
Few grains salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Macaroon Topping

Macaroon Topping

1 egg
1 cup sugar
2 cups flaked or shredded coconut
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup milk

Drain peaches thoroughly. Arrange in pastry-lined pie pan. Sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and salt, and dot with butter.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 10 minutes. Spread with Macaroon Topping, reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and bake 30 minutes longer.

Macaroon Topping: Beat egg lightly. Blend in remaining ingredients. Makes 1 (8-inch) pie.

Bean Relish Has Sharp Tang

Chilled "Quick Green Bean Relish" with its succulent Blue Lake green beans, chili sauce and seasonings is excellent with either fish or meat.

Quick Green Bean Relish

1 can (1 lb.) cut Blue Lake green beans
⅔ cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
2 teaspoons instant minced onion

★ ★ ★

Drain and coarsley chop beans. Combine chili sauce, mustard and onion. Add beans and mix well; chill.

Serve with baked or fried fish, meat loaf or ground beef patties. Makes 2 cups relish.

We're Lucky to Have 'Em

Mushrooms were orginally considered a dish fit only for royalty and the rich.

The pharaohs of Egypt, a thousand years before Christ, monopolized wild mushrooms for their own use because they felt they were too delicate to be eaten by common people. This attitude has prevailed to modern day.

It is only recently that mushrooms have been considered a delicacy to be enjoyed by people of all income levels and food tastes.

What a difference mushrooms make in a dish! Their subtle flavor and smooth texture add a touch of glamour to any recipe, whether it is a casserole, gravy, soup or salad.

No End to Ways of Using Olives

Ripe olives can be tucked into almost any combination of ingredients destined for appetizers, soups, canapes, salads, salad dressings, souffles, omelets, sandwich spreads, breads, sauces, casseroles and other combination dishes.

Both eye and taste appeal of ordinary cooking will be enhanced by a sprinkling of these plump nuggets.

For example, add whole, pitted olives to a macaroni salad for an intriguing contrast in color and shape.

Ripe olives in simple dumplings will add something extra special to stews. Just add chopped ripe olives and parsley to a basic dumpling dough and cook as usual.

Throws Curve at Boyle in Opening Remarks

Gina Takes Look at Well-Known Subject---Herself

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"As with most women, I am not at my best in the morning," said Gina Lollobrigida.

BOYLE

"The day should start at noon. If I am going to have a fight with someone, I have it in the morning. If I have a pleasant romantic rendezvous, I like it in the afternoon or evening."

These opening remarks as we sat down to luncheon left me somewhat in a dilemma. Should I put up my dukes, or recite a love sonnet to Miss Lollobrigida?

* * *

The dark-haired Italian actress is tempestuous as well as beautiful. Critics have said many things about her many-faceted personality. She herself once remarked drily, "I am an expert on Gina."

GOOD FRIENDS

Here, then, is Gina on Gina and on life:

"I live wherever I'm working. I fly so much home is where I am now.

* * *

"I like to have few but good friends. Enthusiasm. My son more than anything else in the world. The color red when I feel good, black when I'm moody. Gardenias, antique furniture and Etruscan vases. I'd rather spend my money on art than jewels or furs.

"I like red wine, Alsatian wolf hounds—the big animals, not little ones — summer, emeralds, reading Sartre, Chekhov, Steinbeck and Faulkner; listening to classical or jazz music, soft lights, the smell of babies, people with strong personalities, Chinese food and shish kebab.

DISLIKES

"I don't like dishonesty, insincere people, ennui, to be late to engagements, the wind, neon lights, sleeping in airplanes and waking to find I don't have my feet on the ground, small insects.

"When I have a nightmare, I dream a bee is going into my ear. The thing I am most afraid of is flies.

"My moods are like an elevator — always going up or down. My biggest fault is that I'm insecure most of the time. I envy people who can think straight all the time, who always know just what they want. I'm not that way.

"To me life is surprise — and I like that. I don't like programs. It's much better to wonder about tomorrow.

BEAUTY IS NOTHING

"Looking for happiness is like looking for big diamonds in a desert. To be beautiful and young doesn't mean anything to me. It is better to be mature and have something to say. But you don't learn too much just looking into yourself. You must look into others.

"In acting it is easy to scream — harder to laugh. If I weren't an actress, I would like to be a painter.

* * *

"In America the women have become stronger. That makes the men look weaker. Women are boss here. Whether they are happy, I don't know.

"European women have not lost the femininity. They remember that, before they are careerists, they are women. You can be stronger by staying feminine. It is not just by saying 'I want this' that you get it.

SIMPLE PHILOSOPHY

"My philosophy is simple. It is this —that tomorrow is a good day.

"Today is important, too, of course, but I never think about the past. It makes me sad. I don't regret what I did. I would make the same decisions again.

* * *

"But when we remember it is like watching a different person, because we are always changing in life.

"I don't want to live behind me.

"Who likes to look at dead flowers?"

Snow Belt Stretches Southward; North's Weather Seems Easing

By The Associated Press

Blustery weather which has buffeted north central areas this week appeared tapering off today as the snow belt stretched southward deep into the Mississippi Valley.

Heavy snow, with gusty winds, hit sections of Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Missouri, Southern Illinois and western Kentucky. Amounts measured six inches in some areas and strong winds caused much drifting. Light snow continued in parts of South Dakota and Iowa and freezing drizzle fell on the heavy snow covering in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Cold air also spread from the northern Midwest into southern areas, with freezing temperatures extending to San Antonio, Tex. Readings were in the tens and 20s in much of the Midwest snow belt, with lower marks in North Dakota.

In Minnesota National Guardsmen were sent into the St. Cloud area by Gov. Karl Rolvaag to help clear streets and highways of snow which piled up to more than 2½ feet since the storm struck Monday.

800 HOMES

Floodwaters in southwestern sections of Minnesota appeared receding. However, overflow of the Root River affected some 800 homes in Rushford, Peterson and Houston. Red Cross workers opened registration centers in the three towns.

Small Yemen War Is Tiresome Affair

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Of the small wars that disturb international tranquility, probably the most tiresome is the war in Yemen.

Neither the Republicans, supported by President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic, nor the Royalists, supported by Saudi Arabia can win nor can either side figure a way out.

NEWSOM

A cease-fire arranged between Nasser and Crown Prince Faisal of Saudi Arabia has broken down and now the signs from Cairo are that Nasser has decided on another all-out effort to drive the Royalists from their strongholds in the Razih Mountains and out of the country.

Since the military coup which overthrew the young Imam Mohamad Al-Badr in September 1962, it is estimated that the cost in dead may be as high as 100,000.

One reason that the war defies settlement is that, as in most other such cases, its underlying causes extend far beyond the borders of Yemen.

YEMEN EMERGED

When Yemeni officers overthrew the Imam, Yemen still was to emerge into modern times. The legendary land of the queen of sheba, unlike the remainder of the Arabian peninsula, has plenty of rainfall to support agriculture.

But, since the departure of the Turks in 1917, it had been ruled by fear under priestkings of the Zeidi Moslem sect. Its borders were ill-defined and it had little sense of national unity.

Today, the Republican government of President Abdullah Al-Sallal could not exist without the support of Nasser's troops.

* * *

Nor could the Iman, supported by Zeidi Moslem tribes, fight back from the mountain fastnesses without the help of arms and money flowing from Saudi Arabia and to a lesser degree from the British - controlled South Arabian Federation.

STEADY FLOW

Further, it is argued, Nasser neither could afford the steady flow of weapons nor maintain his army now raised to 50,000 men in Yemen without the aid he has received both from the United States and the Soviet Union.

Nor could Saudi Arabia afford its aid without the flow of oil.

The United States recognized the new Yemen regime and since has sought unsuccessfully to pressure all sources of outside aid to withdraw their support.

* * *

Nasser chose this backward land for his battleground for several reasons.

CAN'T STAND STILL

First, as leader of a Socialist revolution and as a powerful voice in the Middle East, he dare not stand still.

Also, as a revolutionary leader, he must eliminate the influence of the Saudi Arabians who under Prince Faisal represent tradition and an attempt to bring about reforms through evolution rather than revolution.

Second is Nasser's determination to eliminate British influence in the Middle East. Nasser refers to the South Arabian Federation as the "occupied south." Both Britain and Saudi Arabia are blocks on his way to mid eastern oil.

* * *

The issue is far from settled. If Nasser could free his troops in Yemen, he could then increase his military pressure upon Israel. But he cannot let go.

IMAM COULD WIN

And the Imam still could win. The Egyptians are unpopular in Yemen, and the Imam is seeking support with promises that, once the Egyptians are withdrawn, he will bow to a legislative assembly "elected by the people."

Doctor Hits Theory on Calcium Deposit

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

"Many people suffer from a crippling affliction called arthritis, which is characterized by formation of calcium deposits in the joints," E. E. H. informs me. "If we follow your advice about taking additional calcium every day, would we not be exposing ourselves to the possibility of this extra calcium forming these crippling deposits in our joints? It sounds as if the cure is as bad if not worse than the disease."

I have been taking extra calcium along with breakfast nearly every day for more than 30 years. So far my joints are quite free from "calcium deposits," my arteries are no more calcified or hardened than the arteries of most men half my age.

Thanks to my adequate daily ration of Ca & D (calcium with vitamin D to insure good assimilation and utilization of calcium), I rarely (not more than three or four times in my life) need aspirin or any other analgesic drug for aches, pains or any other misery. I believe the reason why so many misguided Americans take so much aspirin or other pain-killer is calcium deficiency.

The concept of "calcium deposits," in joints, arteries, bursas and other tissues is 19th century hokum. Doctors who warn patients about the "possibility" of "calcium deposits" show their ignorance — ignorance of physiology, pathology and nutrition.

* * *

As recently as March 16, 1963, the Council on Foods and Nutrition acknowledged, in a report published in the official Journal of the American Medical Association, that "medical education and medical practice have not kept abreast of the tremendous advances in nutritional knowledge."

NOISIER PART

Ha! The general medical profession, especially the noisier part of it, has regarded nutrition as a "fad" from the birth of the science right up to March 16, 1963, and, in an effort to nullify the tremendous advances in nutritional knowledge, has reverted to the 19th century method which served the old times so well — arbitrarily pronouncing the teachings of qualified nutritionists strange, freakish or fanciful.

Medical schools, the council's report indicates, have only just begun to include nutrition in their curricula, and maybe in the next thirty years we'll have a formal course in nutrition with a textbook such as Adelle Davis might write.

Far from imagining an optimal daily ration of calcium and vitamin D may cause "calcium deposits" or premature hardening of the arteries (arteriosclerosis, calcification), I believe though of course I can't prove it, that supplementing the everyday diet with additional Ca & D actually staves off or prevents such degeneration, if one follows the regimen faithfully, month after month, from now on.

* * *

In Little Lesson 12, "Chronic Joint Disability," I describe the regimen in detail. In Little Lesson 26, "The Calcium Shortage," I list a number of the common complaints which are actually manifestations of calcium deficiency. For either lesson send me 35 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady. If a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Vaccinations' Due for Elms

To Use Insecticide to Fight Tree Disease

NEW YORK (AP) — Elm trees are going to be "vaccinated" in hopes of halting the ravages of Dutch elm disease.

The vaccination consists of injecting an insecticide to kill elm bark beetles. These insects carry a fungus that infects and kills the trees.

Shell Chemical Co. announced its agricultural chemicals division had received clearance from the Department of Agriculture to market the potent insecticide, Bidrin, after years of field testing.

Company officials said the insecticide had proved to be the most effective means yet of controlling Dutch elm disease, which has killed millions of American of white elms during the last 35 years. The tree blight was first discovered in Holland.

Bidrin will not be sold to the public. Distribution will be limited to foresters, arborists, horticulturalists and tree service experts who complete company-supervised training programs already held or scheduled throughout the country.

PRECAUTIONS

Officials explained elaborate precautions are necessary to protect persons using the insecticide, and that the dosage to the tree must be carefully controlled.

But once injected into the tree trunk, the material is harmless to humans, wildlife or domesticated animals, nor does it then harm the tree, they said.

Injected into trees in early spring, the insecticide circulates through the tree, reaching outermost branches and twigs. It is in those areas that the elm bark beetles do their main chewing and feeding.

* * *

The beetles are a principal carrier of a virulent fungus that spreads through the water-producing tubes of the tree, giving off a poison that causes the tree to produce gummy material that then plugs the tubes, experts explained.

The tree in effect dies of thirst and malnutrition.

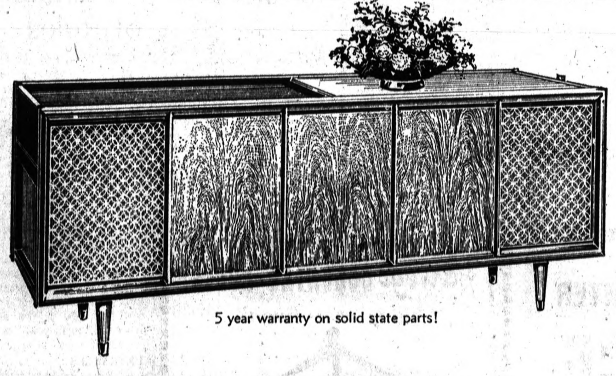

Beetles pick up the fungus while breeding in the winter in dead or dying trees.

Show Ex-Mate Improvement Before You Talk Marriage

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 26, divorced, and have three beautiful children. I still date my ex-husband because I love him very much.

He says he still cares for me, but he refuses to discuss or even consider marrying me again because he can't trust me.

ABBY

I don't blame him because I can't even trust myself. (That is why we were divorced but that's another story.)

Should I stop dating him and quit wasting my time? Or do you think there is some way I can get him to change his mind?

DEAD END IN CONN.

DEAR END: You can't get him to change his mind until you change your ways. If you can't trust yourself, you can't expect him to trust you.

Three children and a good husband are worth straightening yourself out for. You need professional help.

If your "ex" knows you are trying to overcome your weaknesses, your chances may be enhanced immeasurably.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I wish I knew how to answer people who ask me questions that embarrass me. Such as, "Is it true that your boss is cheating on his wife with some girl in the office?"

And, "How come your brother's wife got the children when they were divorced when everyone knows she is the biggest tramp in town?"

* * *

Also, "How much money did your husband get when his old lady passed away?" These questions are nobody's business and, besides, I don't know the answers anyway, but I never know what to say.

TONGUE-TIED

* * *

DEAR TONGUE-TIED: Combine the two facts and reply, "I really don't know. But then, it's not my business."

* * *

Troubled? Write to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Three Sorority Chapters Hold Their Meetings

Mrs. Donald DeVoe was dinner hostess to members of Xi Gamma Alpha chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, Tuesday, in her home on Arizona Street, Avon Township. Secret pals were revealed.

Program for the evening titled "How to Make Friends" was presented by Mrs. Milton Ott.

* * *

Contributions were approved for the YWCA building fund and the Beta Sigma Phi endowment fund.

PHI CHAPTER

Phi chapter has also pledged a contribution to the YWCA building fund and has collected coloring books and crayons to be given to the Children's Center at Easter.

ZETA ETA

New officers of Zeta Eta chapter took over duties at a recent meeting in the Lawrence Street home of Mrs. W. J. Yates.

Mrs. John Ward acted as cohostess.

New officers include Mrs. Jack Barker, president; Mrs. Clifford Wilcox, vice president; Mrs. Yates, and Mrs. Byron Barnes, secretaries; and Mrs. Ward, treasurer.

Final arrangements were made for the theater party on March 16, and founders day banquet on April 28.

Writers' Club Will Work at Meetings

Area members of the Detroit Women Writers Club will attend a workshop and sandwich luncheon Saturday noon, in the Detroit home of Mrs. Otis Winn.

* * *

Chairman for a combined prose and poetry workshop, Tuesday morning in the Women's City Club, Detroit, will be Vera Henry (Mrs. James Henry) of Royal Oak.

* * *

Peggy Cameron King (Mrs. Harold King) of Beverly Hills will present the afternoon program titled "Domestic Humor" which is her field of writing.

Mrs. John Secrist will open her home for a poetry workshop on March 16 and Mrs. King is named chairman for the March 23 workshop in the Women's City Club.

Luncheon Set for Group

The Parliamentary Study Club completed plans for the annual luncheon in Pine Knob Resort at Wednesday's meeting in the Masonic Temple on East Lawrence Street.

Mrs. Richard N. Cogger, leader for the day, explained the lesson which reviewed the eight motions most frequently used, ordinary main motions and privileged main motions.

Mrs. Forbes Hascall, sponsor, and the demonstration group, conducted an annual meeting.

New Duties for Delta Kappa Gammas

Teen Pals Reminded of Rules

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I am 16 and a senior in high school. My mother is very generous about letting me ask boys and girls to come to the house but she insists that they do not stay later than eleven o'clock and says it is up to me to see that they leave.

How can I get them to go home without seeming rude?

A: Tell your friends when you invite them of your mother's eleven o'clock rule.

Then, if they don't leave at eleven you can quite properly say, "I'm sorry, but it's curfew time and if you don't leave, my mother will never let me have you in again."

ENTRANCES

Q: When a man is entering or leaving a building with a woman companion and there is another woman (a stranger) in back of them, does he, after opening the door for the woman he is with, follow immediately behind her, or does he let the other woman go through before him?

A: He follows immediately behind his companion and does not wait for an approaching woman to go through the door before him.

If she is close behind him, he of course holds the door and doesn't let it slam in her face.

BREAD AND ROLLS

Q: When a tray of bread is passed at the table, does one help oneself to a slice with the fingers or does one use a fork?

A: All breads are taken in the fingers.

Clean Stall Shower

DEAR POLLY—I have just made the most wonderful discovery since sliced bread.

I would like to win a Polly Dollar but if I don't get one my discovery is still worth a million dollars to me and will be to others who also live in a humid climate.

To clean your shower stall, simply use a spray bottle filled with pure bleach (do not mix with anything or the mixture may be dangerous).

Spray this on walls and let stand for 10 minutes. Presto! The mildew is all gone.

You do not even have to wash the wall afterward.—JEAN

GIRLS—Do not use this bleach on any aluminum, steel or chrome parts to your shower. I would wash the strong bleach off after the mildew has disappeared.

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY—It took me a long time to learn this but it is a help and time-saver.

Probably all of you have had some paint left over after painting walls, woodwork or furniture. Later you see places that were missed or that should have been painted the same color.

When you think of these, RUN and fasten a note on top of the can with a piece of gummed plastic tape.

The next time you open the paint can you will automatically take care of all these little places at one time.

—JOHN

DEAR POLLY—I suggest that the girls who sew put leftover drapery hooks around the rim of a paper cup and hang safety pins, of different sizes, on the hooks. Thimbles can also hang on them and the cup be filled with odd buttons. This saves time when such articles are needed in a hurry.

—DAWN

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY—I am a high school junior who has found some tips that may help others.

When cleaning my room I put the soiled bed sheets I have just removed over the top of the clean bedspread and sweep the ceiling and window sills free of dirt and cobwebs.

When this is finished I simply remove the sheets from the top of the bed, put them in the wash and the bedspread is spic and span.

I put two old bobby socks over my hands when dusting window sills or other things. They protect my hands and the socks can be thrown away.

—ALICE

Waxed Paper

Your sewing machine needle won't stick when plastic materials (such as those in raincoats or shower curtains) are being sewed, if you stitch a strip of waxed paper into the seam.

When the sewing is completed, the paper is easily torn off, leaving the seam unmarred.

New pots and pans cycle on 1965 undercounter dishwasher by Frigidaire gets casserole dishes, frying or roasting pans gleamingly clean, thanks to vigorous new washing action. Dishes, silver and cooking ware are drenched from every direction with jet-like streams of hot water and detergent. Resilient mounting on new reversible wash-and-drain pump and special insulation allows unit to do big jobs quietly. Dishwasher shown has rated tub capacity of 14 table settings, handles odd-sized, bulky items easily.

Scrub Hamper

Never let germ-contaminated clothes accumulate in a hamper.

If this should be unavoidable at times, then scrub the hamper with hot suds after the contents have been put into the washer.

South of the Border Honeymoon

Touring Mexico on their honeymoon are Ermal Ray Taulbee of Salmer Street and his bride, the former Bridget Elizabeth Noon, daughter of the Archie J. Noons of Milford.

Rev. E. A. Mahoney offered the nuptial Mass for the couple in St. Mary's of Milford Catholic Church.

Historic Botsford Inn was the setting for the evening reception.

LACE MANTILLA

With her gown of white peau de soie and Venise lace, the bride wore a matching lace mantilla and held a white cymbidium orchid.

★ ★ ★

Attending their sister as honor maid and bridesmaid were Susan Ann Noon, and Deidre Joanne Noon, along with Mrs. Andres Kivilaan, Amelia Martinez and Kathleen Lanckton. Teresa Boes was junior maid.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom, son of the Franklin J. Taulbees of West Lake, Ohio, had his brother Myrel Taulbee for best man.

★ ★ ★

Seating guests were Robert Courtney, Tom Harrison, Robert Hocking and Aaron Kahle. Brian Noon carried the rings.

Wool Is Favorite

Wool is favored for active sportswear because it absorbs perspiration.

That is the reason why garments worn next to the skin need to be washed after each wearing.

The engagement of Judith Ann Nick to John B. Sohocki II, son of the John B. Sohockis of Detroit is announced by her parents, the Melvin C. Nicks of Artdale Drive, White Lake Township. She is an alumna of Cleary College, Ypsilanti. Her fiance, a graduate of University of Michigan attends Wayne State University College of Medicine where he is affiliated with Phi Beta Pi fraternity.

Self Made Word Expert

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Ray Werner may be only an 85-pound grandmother with a high school education, but she believes she could pass tests for a theological degree at Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary here.

Her knowledge comes from the fact that she has typed more than 7,000,000 words — mostly in the realm of theology — for about 200 seminary students during the past eight years.

Students in the Schools of Theology, Religious Education and Church Music, have brought her their papers and class notes for typing. Mrs. Werner has kept a copy of each thing she has typed and now has three shelves of material, filed under courses and then under the name of the professor who gave the material.

Remove Locks From Doors

NEW YORK (UPI) — A child crawls into a refrigerator left in an empty house, garage or yard. Child pulls door shut and smothers.

But removal of a few screws that hold the lock stop in place is all that it takes to make unused or abandoned refrigerators harmless.

★ ★ ★

Thomas N. Boate, manager of the Accident Prevention Department of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, said the lives of many children will be saved if the catch or lock stop is removed from the door sill when a refrigerator is stored for future use.

★ ★ ★

L. E. Gartee and Bride Take Vows

MRS. L. E. GARTEE

The First General Baptist Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Dorothy Jean Morris to Larry Earl Gartee, son of the Earl Gartees of Pontiac Lake Road.

Daughter of Mrs. William Whited of West Newport Street, and Lexie Morris of Butler Road, the bride chose a street-length gown of Chantilly lace over white satin.

★ ★ ★

A crystal tiara held her short illusion veil and miniature pink roses were combined with white carnations in her bouquet.

Barbara Hillock, the bride's only attendant, wore emerald green faille and carried orange and yellow carnations.

Gerald Lee Gartee assisted his brother as best man at the afternoon ceremony performed by Rev. Paul Johnson.

★ ★ ★

After a reception in the home of the bride's mother, the newlyweds left for a brief honeymoon in northern Michigan.

Sewing Tip

When making a bedquilt, interline it with a partially worn white cotton blanket.

Not only does it save you from buying cotton for the interlining, but it is easier to quilt through and easier to launder.

Colors of the commercial sponge, when alive, range from a yellowish - grey to almost a solid coal black.

More Settings Fewer Pieces

While the complete six-piece place setting of sterling silver flatware is the ideal gift for the bride-to-be, bridal consultants recommend that parents who are giving their daughter this traditional gift select more settings with fewer pieces if the budget is limited.

That way, she'll have a useable set right from the beginning, and the additional pieces can be added later.

Onion Gone

Rub dry mustard on the hands after peeling onions.

Wash hands and all onion odor will have disappeared.

Imagination Best Guide in Decorating

Have you been wondering what to make for the next bazaar? Are you looking for something attractive, something useful, something novel, that can be made from a discard?

Well, the container for non-dairy creamer of white, unbreakable plastic, shaped like a pitcher comes in three sizes and offers all sorts of possibilities for decorating!

Once the label is soaked off, just add glamor touches with flowers, felt, jewels, fancy pins, paint or spray.

Household glue or cement makes decorative objects adhere ad infinitum.

Enamel-type sprays and glitter paints "take" beautifully on the smooth surface of the pitchers.

★ ★ ★

Make a dressing table accessory for bath powder by attaching a fluffy puff to the lid of the container. Glue a plastic pink rose on the side and there you are!

Cut a styrofoam ball in half and stick to the lid. Cut petals of felt and glue them in place.

USE PINS

Decorate with pearl-headed pins or beads and you have a storage place for thumb tacks.

★ ★ ★

Carve out one side of a pitcher using the seam line as a guide. Spray paint with gold, sparkle with dime-store glitter and insert a gay red cushion for hat pins and needles.

Paint with stripes of complementary colors a pitcher from which you have cut the top.

CAUTION: Do not handle or use pitchers near flame — remember they are plastic.

Women looking for items to make for bazaars are collecting the white plastic pitchers that hold a non-dairy coffee "creamer." Here you see them transformed into a container for bath powder (from left), a storage place, etc.; a pin cushion and a decorated vase or pitcher. In the background is a flower holder.

Young Republicans Attended Convention

Thirty Alma College Young Republicans attended the annual convention of the Michigan Federation of College Republicans at the Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing last weekend.

Jospeh Young, delegate, son of Mrs. Edward Young of Lomley Street, joined some 500 other students representing 32 colleges and universities. He is a sophomore.

TRINITY COLLEGE

Among 220 Trinity College undergraduates named to the Dean's list for first term in the Hartford, Conn. school are two Birmingham area students.

Thomas B. Woodworth, son of the Thomas L. Woodworths of Birmingham, has been named to the Dean's list each semester since his entrance to Trinity in 1962. He is secretary of his fraternity, Alpha Chi Rho and is senate representative on the faculty library committee.

He is majoring in pre-medical studies and English and will enter University of Michigan Medical School in the fall. He will work this summer at University Hospital in the nuclear medicine unit, Department of Internal Medicine.

James S. Emmett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Emmett Jr. of Bloomfield Village is a junior engineering student. He was elected to Sigma Pi Sigma, national physics honorary society and is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha national fraternity.

U of M

Sheryl Valassis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Valassis Jr. of Orchard Lake, recently pledged the Alpha Epsilon chapter of Alpha Xi Delta national social sorority at the University of Michigan.

OHIO WESLEYAN

Debbie Lynn Peterson, daughter of the J. Thomas Petersons of Andersonville Road, has been chosen house manager of her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma, at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, for next year. She currently is a sophomore in the liberal arts college.

On Friday, she will participate in the annual dance recital of Orchesis, national dance honorary, in Grey Auditorium on campus.

She has been given a dancing and singing role in the production of "Fiorello" which the senior class will present in May during Monnett weekend festivities.

Easy Care for Plastic

Many pocketbooks, belts, gloves, jackets, shoes, and coats that look like leather really are plastic.

Even some jumpers and skirts are also made of vinyl plastic.

Plastics are so easy to wash that you will want to do it often — before dirt and stains sink in.

Just sponge the surface with thick soap or detergent suds — paying special attention to seams, pockets, and handles.

Finish up by going over the plastic again with clean water, then wipe it dry.

There are about 60 species of the gardenia.

To Speak on Friday

Members of the Oakland County branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) will gather at the Birmingham home of Mrs. A. D. McLay at 8 p.m. Friday.

They will hear Mrs. Annalee Stewart, legislative and branch liaison of the WILPF. Guests are welcome.

The speaker who is a mother, ordained Methodist minister, lecturer, and lobbyist was president of the U.S. section of WILPF and as national legislative secretary.

She is the only woman in the history of Congress to have served as guest chaplain in the House of Representatives.

* * *

Mrs. Stewart's work has taken her to Europe nine times. She has preached and delivered radio broadcasts in six European countries.

* * *

Since her retirement as national legislative secretary she has worked actively with WILPF branches in Alabama and Mississippi.

Caramelize the Sugar

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Mrs. Claude Helm of Oxford sent in all three recipes that were requested last week. She is the only cook to submit a recipe for Spanish Caramel Cream.

We hope this is the one our other reader is looking for. Thank you, Mrs. Helm.

Spanish Caramel Cream
By Mrs. Claude Helm

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
3 cups hot milk (may be part cream)
3 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon vanilla or rum flavoring
¾ cup white sugar

Dissolve gelatin in ¼ cup cold water.

Place half the sugar in a heavy iron skillet. Heat slowly until sugar caramelizes, being careful not to let it burn. Stir frequently. Pour liquid caramelized sugar very slowly into the hot milk.

Add dissolved gelatin and rest of sugar; mix and pour slowly into slightly beaten egg yolks. Cook in double boiler until mixture coats spoon. Cool.

Beat egg whites stiff. When custard mixture begins to set, fold in beaten egg whites and flavoring. Pour into wet mold. Chill until set.

May be served with a garnish of bananas or berries. Makes 6 servings.

Blue Chips Take Back Seat

Stock Market Turns Jumbled

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of the airlines, color television makers and selected issues were strong in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

Blue chips were taking a back seat and the main interest was in secondary items, some of them in the lower-priced bracket.

The airlines got additional impetus from a report that domestic airline traffic and profits are gaining substantially above the record levels of 1964.

Some of the color TV manufacturers continued to ebb on reports of booming demand for the color sets.

BIG FACTOR

Profit taking continued to be a big factor in the market, however, and this was cutting back even some of the airlines which have shown so much strength lately.

Big Three motors were all firm and the major steelmakers were about unchanged but rails edged off irregularly and most major groups were very uneven.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 336.1 with industrials off .1, rails off .2 and utilities up .5.

Prices were higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. Up about a point were Draper, Elco, Dennison, New Process and Irving Air Chute. Syntex lost 1.

Corporate bonds were mixed in very light trading. U.S. Government bonds continued a firmer trend.

Peking: Junk Nikita Policies

Russia Told Condition for Healing Red Rift

TOKYO (AP) — Peking told Moscow today to junk all of Nikita Khrushchev's policies if it wants to restore unity to the Communist world.

"N. S. Khrushchev has vanished from the political arena, but Khrushchevism is not dead and buried," said the official Peking People's Daily. "A glance at the propaganda in the Soviet press these days makes this abundantly clear."

★ ★ ★

The Moscow-Peking dispute "will never end as long as there are still those who believe in Khrushchev revisionism, who follow it and disseminate it, until the day when it is swept clean away," said the paper.

"Khrushchev was the founder of Khrushchev revisionism," the Chinese party organ said.

REVISIONIST LINE

"When this revisionist line took shape he had dug his own grave. One must wait, if the whole business of Khrushchev revisionism is to be continued, then why oust Khrushchev? Could the continuers really be more able than the founder?

★ ★ ★

Can those who follow in his footsteps reach their destination along the same road that led him up against a stone wall? Can those who believe in Khrushchev revisionism escape the sad end of Khrushchev himself unless they change their ways?"

MEETING CONTINUES

In Moscow sources said the conference of 19 Communist parties — originally expected to end Tuesday — may be prolonged until Friday or Saturday by a dispute over what to say publicly about the Red Chinese challenge to Soviet policies.

Communist sources in Moscow said a Soviet draft for the conference's final communique referred to the Moscow-Peking dispute only in general terms and stressed the need for unity.

★ ★ ★

This reportedly was opposed by delegations from Australia, Brazil and India that have strong pro-Chinese factions to fight at home. They wanted a tougher statement.

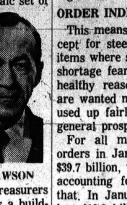

The Italian and British parties, however, want to avoid the subject altogether for fear of worsening the already deep split. The Italians oppose any final communique.

Factory Orders High

Improves Business Outlook

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—One reason that business prospects look so good just now is a very prosaic set of figures kept by factory bookkeepers. They show the ratio of new orders to shipments, to inventories, to unfilled orders.

DAWSON

Of all the indicators of where business is heading the one that corporate treasurers find most convincing is a buildup in new orders on the company books. And if these grow faster than stocks pile up, business prospects look glowing indeed.

★ ★ ★

The backlog of unfilled orders means busy weeks or months ahead for the lucky factories or distributors. And if stocks on hand are increasing at less than a feverish pace, the economy looks that much the healthier.

Latest figures compiled by the Department of Commerce show factory orders have risen to another record high. In many industries, although not all, shipments also have boomed. This tends to hold down the total of unfilled orders. But they are impressive right now, and factory inventories have only edged higher rather than soared.

ORDER INDICATIONS

This means that ordering, except for steel and a few other items where strike threats raise shortage fears, is based on the healthy reason that the goods are wanted now, and are being used up fairly promptly in the general prosperity.

For all manufacturing, new orders in January hit a record $39.7 billion, with durable goods accounting for $21.3 billion of that. In January 1964 durables had $18.5 billion of a total $35 billion.

Unfilled orders on manufacturing books rose to $57.2 billion, compared with $50 billion in January 1964. Durable goods accounted for $54.3 billion of this year's total, against $47 billion the previous year.

While the order books were filling up, inventories also were rising, as is customary in business upswings. This January all manufacturing had $63 billion of stocks on hand, against $60 billion the previous year.

STRIKE THREAT

The threat of a strike in steel after May 1 has inspired much of the attempt to build up inventories, to keep factories running if production of the metal is halted.

Even in steel the buildup in inventories has probably fallen short of users' goals. Steel customers have been using up the metal to meet their own new orders, and stocks on hand are believed to be much lower than in previous years when steel users feared a shutdown in the steel mills.

★ ★ ★

Figures on new orders, shipments, and inventories are also complicated just now by record activity in the auto plants and salesrooms. Sales of cars made in the United States have been running at an annual rate of 9.5 million in the first two months of this year. In all 1964 sales came to 7.6 million.

This year's record sales pitch has kept dealer stocks from rising notably, although the auto plants have been pouring out new cars at a tremendous rate.

Autos and steel probably can't maintain today's pace into the summer. But it's the big buildup in new orders by all durable manufacturing that the economists are watching — and interpreting as guaranteeing prosperity for months ahead.

Senate Unit Urges Laws to Curb Mafia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Investigations subcommittee has urged Congress to consider new laws to strike at the powerful crime syndicate known variously as the Mafia and as La Cosa Nostra.

★ ★ ★

The chairman, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said the legislation is being drafted and will be introduced by subcommittee members.

The subcommittee said in a report to the Senate yesterday that new laws should be considered. The report said Cosa Nostra collects many billions of dollars a year from gambling, narcotics, prostitution and other rackets.

Among the recommendations is one to make wiretapping by police legal if authorized by courts. At the same time all other wiretapping would be outlawed.

Another recommendation would make it a federal crime to belong to an organization dedicated to criminal conspiracies.

PRIVATE POWER

The report said of Cosa Nostra: "This combine has so much power and influence that it may be described as a private government of organized crime."

The subcommittee said one of the syndicate's enterprises is secret infiltration of legitimate businesses.

The subcommittee's findings were based heavily on testimony given in the fall of 1963 by Joseph Valachi, confessed former professional killer for Cosa Nostra.

★ ★ ★

Valachi told about murders and racketeering as he said he had seen them from inside the mob. Its members, he said, were sworn to die rather than to bare its inner secrets.

ACCURATE WORDS

The report said police records "leave no doubt that Joseph Valachi's testimony was quite accurate." It called his testimony an important breakthrough for police.

Valachi, serving a life sentence for murder, named New York gangster Vito Genovese as the syndicate "boss of all bosses" and said he ran it with an iron hand and by remote control from prison, where he was serving time on a narcotics conviction. The senators said they believed this.

The report linked Cosa Nastra with organized crime in Chicago; Detroit; Windsor, Ont.; Tampa, Fla.; Boston; Providence, R.I.; the Buffalo-Niagara Falls-Toronto area; Youngstown Ohio; and California's Mexican border.

★ ★ ★

It called metropolitan New York the main center.

★

Among its legislative proposals, the subcommittee advocated measures to compel testimony from reluctant witnesses in rackets cases by giving them immunity from prosecution and to declare intimidation of witnesses in such cases a federal crime.

By OSWALD JACOBY

The basic idea of the loser on loser play is that you have a sure fire losing card and you would rather lose it early in the play of the hand rather than later on when its loss might embarrass you.

JACOBY

When the reason in back of your quick loss is that you wish to keep a certain opponent out of the lead your loser on loser is also called an avoidance play.

West's failure to bid at all with his big hand was due to the fact that he knew by experience that his partner's preemptive bids were not only inclined to be weak—they were very weak.

North's double is not recommended as regular procedure. It was for takeout and while he did have 16 high card points he had the wrong distribution. However, it worked beautifully this time.

Left to himself East would have probably made three hearts although if South had opened a club and continued the suit later East might have been set one trick.

West opened the king of clubs and continued with the ace and queen. South's first impulse was to ruff that third club. Then he noted that East had opened with three hearts on a jack high suit and surely would have seven of them. In that case it would be important to keep East out of the lead and South had to lose a diamond on the third club and from then on nothing could hurt him.

West could have beaten the hand had he shifted to a diamond at trick two but it is hard to blame West for not being clairvoyant.

3 Accused of Terrorizing Family They Thought Racially Mixed

NORTH HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Three youths accused of waging a campaign of terror against a family they believed was racially mixed had never even met the man they thought was a Negro, police say.

The 16-year-old boys, who called themselves the "Confederation of Connecticut Clansmen," were arrested Wednesday night in this New Haven suburb of 20,000.

★ ★ ★

Police quoted the head of the family as saying the boys "didn't know me face to face."

The family was not identified. Police said the husband is of Portuguese-Italian descent and his wife of French and English extraction. The couple has two young children.

THREATENING CALLS

During the past month, the family has received threatening telephone calls and one abusive letter, police said.

Monday night, a 22-caliber rifle was fired at the family's home, police said.

Police identified the members of the "confederation" as Arthur Johnson, Anthony DePalma and Robert Giaquinto.

Police Lt. Walter Berniere said the boys are from "respected middle-income families."

The youths were charged with assault with intent to commit murder and were released under $5,000 bond each.

Marvyn Jaffe, assistant principal of North Haven High School, said he viewed the affair as "an isolated incident — not indicative of the type of kids we have at this high school."

Police quoted Johnson, DePalma and Giaquinto as saying they "don't believe in mixed marriages."

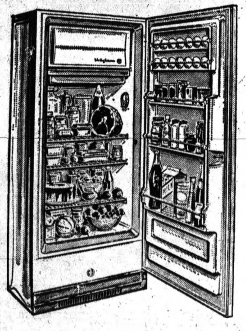

The three youths had told the family in a letter that they had better get out of town by the end of February if they didn't want something to happen to them, police said.

Hayward's Best Can't Avert PCH Win

Northern Ace Registers 39 in 75-61 Loss

Chiefs' Late Spurt Decides Tight Tilt, Oppose Waterford

By DON VOGEL

Pontiac Central overcame the greatest single game performance by Pontiac Northern's Roger Hayward last night to eliminate the Huskies from state Class A district tournament play 75-61.

Hayward, playing his final high school game before a capacity crowd of more than 1,800 in the PNH gym poured in 39 points. This bettered the former school record of 36 he set during the regular season.

★ ★ ★

PCH's third win of the season over its city rival advanced the Chiefs to the district championship game against Waterford Friday at 8 p.m.

On any other night, the 24 points Carl Arnold and Jessie Evans each scored for Central would have given them the limelight. But they had to yield to the 6-4 senior from Northern.

Hayward played pivot, forward and guard during the game.

He hit 16 of 31 shots and led the Huskies in rebounding with 14. In addition, he stole the ball twice from PCH players and intercepted two passes.

But, like Princeton's All-America, Bill Bradley, he received little scoring help from his teammates. Dave Sudbury was getting up a full head of steam with three baskets in the second quarter and was helping Hayward battle the Chiefs fairly even on the boards.

FOUL TROUBLE

Sudbury fouled out with 4:24 remaining in the third period and Northern behind, 37-35. This was a turning point in the game.

Willie Adams, Evans, Clifford Benson and John Hooper took control of the backboards for the Chiefs. This domination, however, didn't begin to show until early in the fourth quarter.

Hayward, whose 17 points carried PNH to a 31-30 halftime lead, continued to bomb away from long range in the third period and Central could do no more than gain a 50-49 lead going into the final quarter.

Two quick one-handers by Arnold and a pair of baskets by Benson pushed PCH to a 62-53 lead. Hayward came back with a pair of jumpers and a free throw and Larry Cushist hit a trio of charity tosses to slice the margin to 67-61 with 2:38 to play.

But the Chiefs stalled out, adding to their margin on free throws. They made 11 of 12 in the fourth quarter and 29 of 40 for the game.

The first half was loosely played with the ball changing hands frequently because of floor violations and poor passing.

The Chiefs took an 8-1 lead by holding PNH without a field goal for the first four minutes. The trend quickly reversed and Carl Arnold's basket kept Central in front 10-8 at the quarter.

Hayward pumped in 14 points in the second quarter as the lead see-sawed. Sudbury's long shot with nine seconds to play put PNH in front at the half.

ONE MAN GANG

But Northern's only second half punch was supplied by Hayward who scored nine of Northern's 11 field goals in the final 16 minutes.

CAPTAIN MANEUVERS — Kettering's Jim Nyberg (33) moves into position for a two-pointer against Milford in district tournament game at Clarkston last night. Trying to halt the senior Captain are Dale Hackbardt (55) and John Griffin (11). In background is Gary Newcomb (41). Kettering won, 64-48.

Clarkston Next for Kettering 5

Kettering gunned down Milford, 64-48, last night at Clarkston to move into the district finale against the Wolves Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Kettering's win was the third of the season over the Redskins and it was Bob Von Bargen who connected on his first seven shots who led the attack. He finished with 16 for the night, of which 15 came in the first half.

The Captains took an early 7-1 lead in the first period and when Dale Manning, playing with a brace on his left leg pumped in six points, Kettering was on top 17-9.

Its biggest margin in the second quarter was 27-17 during which time the Captains' defense held Milford scores for three minutes.

Dale Hackbardt ended the drought for Milford putting in nine points in the third quarter to cut the margin to 45-36 with 1:17 on the clock in the period.

SUB HITS

Ken McLean, subbing for Manning, who reinjured his knee on a collision with John Griffin, added a field goal and a charity toss upping the lead 48-36 at the end of the third session.

When Tim McGrath put in a layup and sophomore Dave Cox added four more points with two outside shots it put the game out of reach for the Redskins 53-42.

Kettering then played possession ball until the good shot came, the Captains made 28 of 59 shots for a fine 47 per cent.

The district championship game should be an interesting contest, since Kettering downed Clarkston earlier this year.

JOUSTING — Chicago's Doug Mohns (2) and Stan Mikita (21) tried to shove the puck by fallen Detroit goalie Roger Crozier in the opening period of game on Chicago ice last night, but Red Wings' Bill Gadsby (4) and Doug Barkley (5) moved in to help Crozier fight off the attack. Detroit won, 2-0.

Dryden Wins 133-35

If tournaments were won on total points, Dryden might take the honors.

The Cardinals poured through 60 field goals and went on to whip Marine City Holy Cross, 133-35 in the class D district at L'anse Creuse.

The losers, who had a 1-14 record for the season, were behind 34-8 after one period and 75-19 at halftime.

★ ★ ★

With five players hitting 16 or more points, led by Ken Kitchenmaster, 31, Dryden wasn't about to show any mercy as it went into the final period holding a 105-24 "edge."

In the other game of the district, Memphis tripped New Baltimore St. Mary 78-75 with Dave Powers getting 23 for the winner. Memphis led, 32-30 at halftime.

★ ★ ★

In Class C action at Port Huron, Almont knocked off Armada in double overtime, 63-61, and Imlay City routed Capac, 64-46. The two meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. for the district title.

Seaholm Surprised; Dondero Bid Routed

An all-Birmingham finale between Seaholm and Brother Rice for the Southfield district championship never materialized last night as the host Southfield Blue Jays upset the Maples 74-71.

This puts Southfield against Brother Rice in Friday's finale.

Meanwhile, at Ferndale district, powerful Hamtramck, looming to be the state's leading challenger to class A champion Benton Harbor, whipped Royal Oak Dondero, 61-39.

Seaholm had a 17-15 lead after one quarter against Southfield but the Jays with four double figure shooters led 36-34 at halftime and stayed at least one point ahead the rest of the way.

Both teams hit 27 field goals and Seaholm was again accurate from the free throw line with 17 of 22 but Southfield had 20 of 29 to hold the advantage.

Ted Simmons led the winners with 19 while Ray Schlaff and Rich Smigielski added 17 and 16 respectively.

John Wilber hit 22 for Seaholm aided by Jim Snider's 16.

ONE CLOSE PERIOD

Dondero stayed close after one period as the Cosmos led 11-10 and it was 27-21 at halftime, giving Hamtramck some trouble with the press. But, to start the second half, the winners scored eight straight points and it was never close.

★ ★ ★

Hamtramck hit on 25 of 52 shots for 48 per cent while Dondero managed only 15 of 63 for the night. The Cosmos board strength showed with a 44-30 advantage. John Brisker led Hamtramck with 22.

Detroit Skaters Tie Montreal for Second

By The Associated Press

Their precarious perch atop the National Hockey League is becoming increasingly slippery for the Chicago Black Hawks, who never have won the regular season pennant race.

★ ★ ★

Detroit's ambitious Red Wings greased the Hawks' skidding nest a little more Wednesday night with a 2-0 victory. Boston battered New York 6-1 in the only other game played.

3 POINTS AHEAD

The defeat left the Black Hawks a scant three points in front of Detroit and Montreal as the NHL season turns into its final month. And, both the Canadiens and Red Wings have three more games to play than Chicago.

★ ★ ★

That gives both a six-point potential that Chicago can't do anything about.

The Black Hawks couldn't do anything about Detroit's rookie goalie Roger Crozier Wednesday night. The youngster kicked out 30 shots and recorded his sixth shutout of the season, stretching Chicago's winless string to three.

Crozier got the only goal he needed from Floyd Smith midway through the second period. Then Roger stood off the Hawks' desperate dashes throughout the third session until Norm Ullman's empty net score at 19:54 wrapped it up.

★ ★ ★

Boston kept its chances for escaping a fifth straight cellar finish by knocking off the fifth-place Rangers.

The Bruins, completing a six-game road trip with their third victory in the last four starts, got two goals and two assists from Murray Oliver and broke the game open with three goals in the last nine minutes of the second period.

The victory moved Boston within seven points of New York.

Bout Winner May Get Shot at Clay's Title

CHICAGO (AP) — Winner of the World Boxing Association-sanctioned heavyweight title bout between Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen Friday night may get a September match here with Cassius Clay, generally accepted heavyweight champion.

★ ★ ★

Sponsors of the 15-round Terrell-Machen scrap at the International Ampitheatre disclosed Thursday that Clay spokesmen approached them concerning the September bout, possibly at Comiskey Park.

Irv Schoenwald, co-promoter of Friday night's fight, said that if Clay chose to fight Terrell or Machen, a better site would be McCormick Place, capable of seating 20,000.

★ ★ ★

"We could get closed circuit television coverage equal to any available elsewhere and it would be better holding the fight indoors for TV purposes," said Schoenwald.

Broncos Defeat Brighton, Gain Berth in Finals

Holly's Broncos galloped into the state district Class B tournament finals at Fenton last night with a 78-60 triumph over Brighton.

Fenton takes on Howell tonight at 7:30 with the winner meeting Holly at 7:30 p.m. Saturday for the title.

Tom Fagan collected 34 points and teammate Mark Phalen added 17 for Holly. Bruce Evenson poured in 18 for the losers.

In another 'B' game at Livonia Clarenceville, Lutheran West topped Garden City West, 78-76. Northville takes on Dearborn Haston at 8 tonight with the winner battling Lutheran West for the title Saturday at 8 p.m.

Holly had little with Brighton, and the victory was the Broncos' third over the Bulldogs this season.

MORE TROUBLE

The Broncos are expected to have a little more trouble with Fenton, the second-ranked team in the state.

Fenton downed Holly in regular season, 72-49, and will be favored to repeat the verdict Saturday.

The winners at Fenton and Clarenceville will join winners from Mason, Lansing Gabriels and Pontiac Central in regional play at Northville next week.

Lions Fill Coaching Staff

DETROIT (AP) — Harry Gilmer, new Detroit Lions coach, completed his staff Wednesday with the signing of former Lion player Carl Brettschneider as defensive line coach of the National League club.

Thus the Lions coaching reorganization was completed within less than three months after the Christmas-time firings of former Coach George Wilson's five aides and Wilson's subsequent quitting.

Owner William Clay Ford, looking for a "fresh start," had ordered the firings of the five and Wilson resigned indignantly a few days later.

Brettschneider, former Iowa State star, was a Lion linebacker in the 1960-63 seasons but spent last year as a scout for the team after being sidelined by a knee injury.

The other members of Gilmer's staff include Aldo Forte, offensive line coach who was resigned after his dismissal with Wilson's other four aides, and John North, offensive backfield coach; Carl Taseff, defensive backfield coach, and Ray Renfro, pass receivers coach.

REBOUND BATTLE — Pontiac Central's Jesse Evans (24) came down with the ball in this battle with Pontiac Northern's Ted Rabaja but he wound up on the floor as Rabaja picked up a personal foul. Play came in fourth quarter on PNH floor.

Two Reach Finals in City Rec Play

The city adult recreation basketball playoffs neared their end last night as the last two finalists were determined in Classes A and B.

Regular season leader Roy White's Unbeatables moved into the "A" finals opposite West Bloomfield Heating by ousting K.D. Television, 64-54, behind Larry Peet's 18 points.

★ ★ ★

Booth Builders eliminated The Packers and qualified to meet Messiah Baptist for the Class B laurels with a 61-51 triumph last night as players hit twin figures.

In junior action, Reds McAleer's 23 points for the Hawks were not enough to offset the balanced scoring of New Hope Baptist in the latter's 85-62 win. The Tams won a forfeit from the Auburn Heights Boys Club Buzzards, 2-0.

One Tiger Missing

Don Wert Sets Goal

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) —No. 3 isn't magic to Don Wert. He was the No. 3 ranking fielder among American League third basmen last season.

This year the young Detroit Tiger's goal is No. 1.

* * *

Wert told Wednesday, as the Tigers officially opened spring training, how he plans to achieve the goal.

"I'll just have to try harder and not allow myself to relax when I'm on the field," he said.

Wert, 26, joined all the other players expected at the opening of training, except outfielder Purnal Goldy who failed to report. Tigers officials said they did not know why Goldy was absent.

FIRST YEAR

Wert, who hit .257 in 1964, his first full year in the majors, wants to hit .280 this season.

"It took me quite a while to learn all the pitchers in the league and that accounted for my slow start," Wert said. "If I can just pick up where I left off I'll do all right."

* * *

He said he'll enter the 1965 campaign with a more confortable feeling since he has proved himself as a fielder and can concentrate on his hitting.

Wert hit nine homers and batted in 55 runs, missing his 10-homer goal by one last season.

He wants to hit 10 homers because "it just looks better on paper than nine.

* * * *

"But I can get the extra base hits at the right time and drive in a few more runs, I will be happy," he added.

Wert spent the winter selling sports equipment.

The Tigers put in a full day of practice Wednesday despite a light rain shower which hit the area at midmorning.

Pistons Notch Fourth in Row

Miles, Dischinger Pace Win Over SF

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons won their fourth straight game and kept their playoff hopes alive Wednesday night by downing the San Francisco Warriors, 110-107.

* * *

Eddie Miles tossed in 28 points, 20 in the first half, and Terry Dischinger added 26 for the Pistons, who won their sixth game in their last eight starts. Nate Thurmond led the Warriors with 29 points and 29 rebounds.

The victory left Detroit 2½ games behind the Baltimore Bullets in the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

* * *

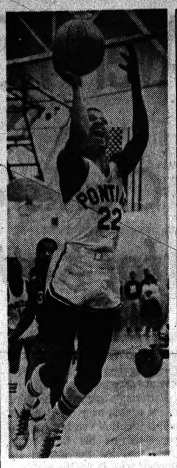

Detroit held a slim one-point lead, 108-107, with 20 seconds left when San Francisco's Guy Rodgers missed an easy layup. With three seconds to play Rod Thorn canned two free throws to wrap up the win for the Pistons.

The Pistons meet the Warriors tonight at Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Titan Quintet Takes Finale

U. of D. Ends Season With 19-7 Mark

DETROIT (AP)—The University of Detroit, completing its third best season in Titan basketball history, bombarded Hillsdale 80-61 Wednesday night in its season finale.

* * *

Detroit roared to a 40-24 halftime lead and coasted the rest of the way to its 19th victory in 26 games. The National Invitational Tournament-bound Titans posted their best season in 1949-50 with a 20-6 mark. They had a 20-7 mark in 1959-60.

Lew Hyatt led Detroit with 21 points. Terry Page added 14 and Dorrie Murrey 13. Bruce McLenna had 18 for Hillsdale.

Cage Playoffs Continue in Waterford Rec

The Waterford Recreation Basketball men's program saw Spencer Floor Covering, Lakeland Pharmacy and Gancia-Cote post opening playoff victories Wednesday.

* * *

Gancia-Cote eliminated regular - season leader Hi & Dri Lounge in the single elimination Class B action, 55-41, as Bob Smith hit 23 points. Dick Blacklaw's 24 led the losers.

Spencer's topped Zilka Heating, 105-91, as three players hit over 20; and Lakeland (the regular season "A" leader) nudged O'Neil Realty, 61-55, by scoring the final six points in the game.

* * *

The two Class A winners will meet at 9:45 tonight, while Zilka and O'Neil play at 8:30 p.m. in the double-elimination action. Lyons-Heaton meets Buckner Finance in the "B" lidlifter at 7:15 p.m.

League Swim Meets in Prep Spotlight

Arthur Hill of the Saginaw Valley and Birmingham Seaholm of the Southeast Michigan League have been the dominant swimming powers in their respective areas for many years, and when their league meets are completed this weekend it is almost certain each will again be on top of the heap.

Pontiac Central plays host to the SVC meet, however it will be held Friday and Saturday in the beautiful natatorium of Oakland University on Walton Blvd.

Nine schools of the SVC led by Arthur Hill and challenged by Flint Southwestern will compete in the 10th annual league meet.

Southwestern may take the greater share of the individual honors with its fine freestyler Mike Castro, backstroker Bob Darby and medley specialist Tom Austin, but Arthur Hill's depth may again be too much for any of the teams to overcome.

Darby rates behind Seaholm's Ted Bates and Kimball's Doug Webster in state backstroke competition.

Arthur Hill's best bet is Mike Steeves in the 400 freestyle and 200 freestyle and the Lumberjacks could pile up a bundle of second places with freestyler Eric Hanson, divers Stan Lewis and Tim Gohm, backstroker Jim Stevens and butterflyer Rick Myron.

PRELIMS

Preliminaries in the 400 and diving take place Friday night at 7:00 p.m. at Oakland University and prelims of all other events are Saturday at 11:00 a.m. The finals of all events start 8:00 p.m. Saturday.

Admission charge at Oakland is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students at all sessions.

AT KIMBALL

At Royal Oak Kimball's pool, the Knights will have a host of individual contenders but like Arthur Hill, Seaholm's depth will be the factor.

Doug Webster, one of the top preps in Michigan, holds state season marks in the 200 and 400 freestyles and is among the top three in the 100 freestyle, 200 individual medley and 100 backstroke.

* * *

Kimball has the best three medley individuals in Adriaan Van Oss, Mike Schoenhals and Webster, and John Johnston in the sprint and breaststroke.

Seaholm's top individual performances should come from Ted Bates in the backstroke, Steve Zimmer in diving, and in the team relays.

This will be the first league meet for the new SML (Southeast Michigan League) and the prelims for all events except diving will be 6:30 p. m. Friday night. Diving prelims are Saturday at 2:30 p. m. and the finals of all events at 7:30 p.m. Saturday night.

PREDICTS SML RESULTS: 1. Seaholm, 2. Kimball, 3. Hazel Park, 4. Ferndale, 5. Southfield.

PREDICTION OF TEAM CHOICES in SVC MEET at OAKLAND U: 1. Arthur Hill, 2. Flint Southwestern, 3. Midland, 4. Bay City Central, 5. Bay City Handy, 6. Saginaw, 7. Flint Central, 8. Pontiac Central, 9. Flint Northern.

INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCES: 200 medley relay — Flint Southwestern (best time 1:47.0); 200 freestyle — Mike Castro (FSW), Jim Ryder (BCC) Mike Steeves (AH); 50 freestyle — Fred Hill (Sag), Ed Chase (PCH), Handson (AH); Individual medley — Tom Austin (FSW), Eurick (BCC), Bill Austin (FC); diving — Jack Duffy (M) (defending champion); butterfly — Bob Hand (Sag) (best time 55.8), Jiankens (BCH); 100 freestyle — Fred Hill (Sag), Castro (FSW); backstroke — Dick Darby (FSW), Steve Stevens (AH); 400 freestyle — Mike Steeves (AH) (best time 4:14.8), Ryder (BCC); breaststroke — Keith Clugh (BCH).

Indiana Cage Position Is Filled by Assistant

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Lou Watson, who has been part of Indiana University basketball 16 of the last 19 years, will take on the rugged assignment of succeeding head coach Branch McCracken and rebuilding the Hoosiers.

★ ★ ★

Watson knew exactly what he faced when he accepted the job Wednesday, effective at the end of the current season. He has been McCracken's assistant since 1958.

UPPING THE SCORE — Dick Miceli (23) of Kettering drove past Milford's Dale Hackbardt to post a bucket for the Captains, who won the district tournament contest, 64-48, on the Clarkston floor.

Saginaw Edges City Rival, 84-80

Saginaw's Trojans, who dropped two regular season games to city rival Arthur Hill, gained a little revenge last night by knocking off the AH quintet in Class A district tournament action, 84-80.

In other 'A' games, East Detroit stopped Harper Woods Notre Dame 78-71, Niles walloped St. Joseph 95-81 to get another crack at Benton Harbor and Farmington whipped Detroit Redford Union, 69-61, for its second straight district victory.

Roy Hinton poured in 34 points in Saginaw's victory over Arthur Hill. Dave Fisher had 25 for the losers.

East Detroit beat Notre Dame with superior foul shooting, notching 26 of 37 at the line to 17 of 29 for Notre Dame.

SPURS FARMINGTON

John Olander, the sparkplug of Farmington's title hopes, netted 28 points in the victory over Redford Union.

Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows remained on the Class C tournament trail with a 59-42 triumph over Detroit St. Agatha on the Ypsilanti Roosevelt floor. Brian Benner led the winners with 17 points and Myles Kearney added 16.

2 Women Golfers Injured in Crash

WILLCOX, Ariz. (AP) — Two women professional golfers were injured Wednesday in a one car accident near Willcox.

Listed in satisfactory condition in a Tucson, Ariz., hospital are Shirley Englehorn, 24, Caldwell, Idaho, and Sandra Palmer, 24, Fort Worth, Tex.

★ ★ ★

Miss Englehorn, president of the Ladies Professional Golf Association, suffered a severe fractured ankle and will undergo surgery Thursday. Miss Palmer was only slightly injured.

Gary Player Hopes to Get Faster Start

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Gary Player officially joined the 1965 pro golf tour today with the first round of the $65,000 Pensacola Open, and he thinks he may get his season off to a good start.

"Here it's not how hard you hit the ball but how well," Player said Wednesday after touring the 6,142-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course in 69.

Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, neither of whom has won a tournament this year, are favored to give defending champion Player the hardest fight.

Focus on Men Skaters

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — A young Frenchman who has been trying for 10 years was rated the skater to beat as men's singles competition began today in the World Figure Skating Championships at the Broadmoor World Arena.

★ ★ ★

Alain Calmat, who was second the last two years, said he feels that this will be the year for him to move up to the championships, won last year by West Germany's Manfred Schnelldorfer, who has retired.

This is the 11th world tournament for the 24-year-old medical student at the University of Paris. "I'm skating at my best," I think, and after being second for two years — well, we'll see," Calmat said.

Nineteen other contestants from 11 countries were entered in the men's division. Other top challengers are Emmerich Danzer, 20, of Austria and two U.S. youngsters, Gary Visconti, 19, of Detroit, and Scott Allen, 16, of Smoke Rise, N.J.

★ ★ ★

The first championship of the world event went to Russia's Oleg Protopopov and his wife, Ljudmila Belousova, who won the pairs competition Wednesday night with an artistic and flawless performance of leaps and lists.

This was the first time any Russian contestant has won a world figure skating title.

A young brother-sister combination from Highland Park, Ill., Ronald and Vivian Joseph took the runner-up spot.

PAIRS FINAL

Carnivals at Local Ski Sites

This is carnival weekend for two Pontiac area ski resorts.

Alpine Valley will inaugurate what it hopes will be an annual celebration with a Spring Carnival Saturday on the resort's slopes all day.

Mt. Holly's third annual such observance will be 2-6 p.m. Sunday.

The theme is fun; that is, more than the usual amount. Costumes are a major means of creating the festive atmosphere so necessary to making the event something special.

* * *

All skiers are urged to create some outfit suitable to the occasion.

SPECIALTIES

In addition, special races are planned. Alpine has listed tray races, a goofy slalom, a one-ski race for women, balloon slalom and a ski jump over water.

Saturday night there will be a torch parade at Alpine to conclude that resort's carnival.

Holly has famous make skis, a weekend at Boyne Mountain for two and other prizes to present during its fun-raising Sunday. The resort is looking for many photographic minded spectators to enjoy the day's doings, too.

Weather Taking Toll, Good Slopes Diminish

By The Associated Press

With spring just beyond the horizon, some of Michigan's ski resorts began to close this week.

But a large number of others report fair to excellent conditions for the winter sport.

Here are ski conditions at a number of resorts, as reported by the state's regional tourist associations:

EAST MICHIGAN

MOUNT MARIA, Hubbard Lake — 20-inch base, skiing good.
SILVER VALLEY, Tawas City — 3-inch base, poor.
SHERIDAN VALLEY, Lewiston — 7-inch base, good.
MT. FREDERICK, Frederic — 8- to 10-inch base, good to excellent.

CABERFAE, Cadillac — Spring skiing fair to good.
CAROSEL MOUNTAIN, Holland — 4- to 6-inch base, will ski with more snow.
ECHO VALLEY, Kalamazoo — Will reopen with colder weather.
HU-LU HEIGHTS, Hudsonville—Closed for balance of season.
MAPLE HURST LODGE, Kewadin — 6- to 8-inch base, good.
MOON RIDGE, Lakeview — 4- to 14-inch base, good.
NUB'S NOB, Harbor Springs — 16- to 30-inch base, excellent spring skiing.
SUGAR LOAF MOUNTAIN, Traverse City — 6- to 48-inch base, very good spring skiing.
THUNDER MOUNTAIN, Boyne Falls — 12- to 18-inch base, very good.
TRAVERSE CITY HOLIDAY — Closed until colder weather.
WALLOON HILLS, Walloon Lake — 12- to 18-inch base, good to excellent.

Bloomfield Hills Skier Bids for National Title

Bloomfield Hills' Geoff Smith was one of five male teen-age ski racers from Michigan selected last weekend for the National Junior Alpine championships at Bend, Ore.

In all, nine juniors from the Lower Peninsula qualified for the 24 places alloted boys and girls from Regions I, II and III.

Included among the 16 boys was Cadillac's Greg Schwartz, last year's national junior slalom champion. Smith was the only southeastern Michigan qualifier from Region III.

The competition at Marquette included slalom, down hill and giant slalom racing. There was also cross country and jumping activity at Munising.

The 16-member team selected there for National Junior Alpine meet in mid-March included three Upper Peninsula boys as the only state representatives.

However, Norwegian exchange student Fred Lorentzen of Bloomfield Hills won the Nordic combined (jumping and racing) event for Class I. He was ineligible for the team.

Pro Skiers Hit Tournament Trail on State Slopes

BOYNE FALLS (UPI)—Some of the world's top professional skiers will compete for $5,000 prize money Friday and Saturday at two West Michigan ski resorts in first competition of the newly formed American Professional Ski Racing League.

The pros, including several Olympic champions, will represent their respective winter sports centers such as Stowe, Stratton and Windham, Va.; Vail and Aspen, Colo.; Sun Valley, Idaho, and Boyne Mountain and Boyne Highlands, Mich.

The entry field includes Stein Eriksen, Anderl Molterer, Christian Pravda, Ernst Hinterseer, Hias Leitner, Othmar Schneider, Pepi Gramshammer, Tony Spies, Otto Weidman, Francois Bonlieu, Gerald Hopfensberger and Marvin Morriarity.

Friday's races will be held at Boyne Mountain and Saturday's competitions will be at Boyne Highlands.

Spartan 6 to Open Playoff Bid Friday

By The Associated Press

Michigan State takes on North Dakota and Michigan Tech meets Minnesota this weekend in the opening round of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association playoffs.

* * *

The Spartans will travel to Grand Forks, N.D., for afternoon games Friday and Saturday. Tech hosts the Gophers at Houghton Friday and Saturday night.

The winners will be decided on total goals scored. The two finalists will meet in a playoff for the McNaughton Trophy, symbol of the WCHA championship.

* * *

Last year's champion, Michigan, went on to win the NCAA championship. But the Wolverines did not make the playoffs this year.

Jumpers Duel This Weekend

U. S. Champion Seeks Honors vs. Japanese

IRON MOUNTAIN (AP) — Dave Hicks, the new U.S. national champion, and a pair of top-flight jumpers from Japan are expected to fight it out for the top shot in ski jumping events on Pine Mountain here this weekend.

Hicks, the 19-year-old Minneapolis lad who took the U.S. title at Berlin, N.H., last Sunday, will be pitted against Japanese champion Yukio Kasaya and Takasha Matsui, the Orient's No. 2 jumper.

* * *

The three have met before. Kasaya, 21, topped Hicks in three of four meets this year, and Hicks compiled a similar record against Matsui.

Other top contenders expected here include the other two new U.S. champions, Billie Olson of Eau Claire, Wis., veterans class; and Adrian Watts of Duluth, Minn., junior class.

Pressing Hicks and the two Japanese stars will be other American standouts, including former Olympians Butch Wedin and Willie Erickson of Iron Mountain, and Gene Kotlarek of Duluth.

Cranes Close With Victory

Cranbrook wound up the basketball season on a successful note last night with a 68-63 triumph over a visiting Western Reserve squad.

The victory gave the Cranes a 12-5 mark for the campaign. Jim Bailey tossed in 30 points to pace the Cranes and teammate Sid Barthwell added 15. Eric Eserhay led the losers with 27.

On the wrestling mats, Western Reserve posted a 28-9 verdict.

People in the News

By The Associated Press

The Rt. Rev. Horace W. B. Donegan, Protestant Episcopal bishop of New York, has proposed a shortening of the 40-day Lenten season to the two weeks preceding Easter—or perhaps to Holy Week alone.

In an Ash Wednesday sermon yesterday, he said the "quiet pace of a 17th century Lent is impossible for people living in 20th century New York."

"The lengthy services with their glorious lessons have become unrealistic for men and women catching commuters' trains," Bishop Donegan said.

Lerner Testifies in Divorce Trial

Lyricist Alan Jay Lerner testified in New York yesterday that his wife barred him from her bedroom 1½ to 2 years after their 1957 marriage.

Lerner testified at the start of a separation suit brought by his Corsican-born wife, the former Michelin Muzzelli Pozzo do Borgo. He has filed a countersuit. She is receiving temporary alimony of $1,500 a week.

Lerner wrote the words to music for "My Fair Lady," "Gigi," "Camelot," and "Brigadoon."

Paar Aggravates Injuries to Knees

Television entertainer Jack Paar has aggravated injuries to his knees, first suffered seven weeks ago in a skiing accident, and has been ordered to rest at his home in Bronxville, N.Y., for two weeks.

A spokesman for NBS said yesterday the rest was prescribed by Paar's doctor in an effort to avoid an operation which may be needed if the severe pain is not checked.

'Man Meant to Master Missiles'

QUOTE OF THE DAY: From Maj. Gen. (Ret.) Benjamin D. Foulois, 85, a former Air Force chief of staff who once flew with pioneer Orville Wright and later organized the air corps with 11 men and $150, in speaking last night to graduating aviation cadets at Waco, Tex.—"Those missiles will never replace the pilot. They (missiles) just haven't got it up here."

King Will Lead 50-Mile March

Seek to Get Alabama Voting Law Changes

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. plans to lead off a 50-mile mass march from Selma to the state Capitol at Montgomery Sunday to dramatize pleas for liberalization of Alabama's voting laws.

King, who delivered a funeral sermon Wednesday for a Negro laborer shot to death during an outbreak of racial violence in Marion the night of Feb. 18, said the march definitely is scheduled to begin Sunday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

King said he plans to head the long procession at the outset but may leave the line after the march begins and return as it nears Montgomery.

The marching Negroes, who King hopes will number from 500 to 800, will seek to get the state voting laws liberalized while the Alabama Legislature is in special session. The session was called to consider Gov. George Wallace's education bills.

SHORT VISIT

King, cutting short a visit to Washington, flew back to Alabama to pay a martyr's tribute to Jimmie Lee Jackson, 26, then left again for New York. The Negro integration leader and Nobel Peace Prize winner was scheduled to speak there today to the women's division of the United Jewish Appeal.

★ ★ ★

In a funeral sermon at Marion for Jackson, a Baptist deacon and leader in the right to vote battle in Perry County, King promised an unending campaign for racial equality in Alabama. "We are going to march through the streets until every Negro can vote," he vowed.

★ ★ ★

After King delivered the eulogy, he led an estimated 700 Negroes on a four-mile march in the rain to the burial grounds in a wooded area a few feet of Alabama Highway 14.

Jackson fell mortally wounded only a short distance from the Zion Methodist Church where mourners gathered 12 days later to pay their respects at the second of two funeral services. The first service for which King arrived too late, was held at Selma.

★ ★ ★

Five other Negroes and three white newsmen were beaten and three law enforcement officers were struck by rocks or bottles in the clash between Negro demonstrators and helmeted state troopers.

BONING UP? — Troubles, a pet spaniel dog on the campus at Emporia, Kan., State Teachers College, quizzically sniffs at this piece of abstract sculpture on display in the art department. It was undecided whether Troubles believed she was viewing an ancient bone of a mastodon or, as instructors in the art department believe, that the dog is truly a lover of art.

Policy on Parking District Okayed by City Planners

Two policy decisions and a pair of rezoning questions were considered last night by the City Planning Commission.

The first policy matter concerned the creation of a "parking district" zoning to provide for off-street parking for commercial districts.

City planners voted to recommend that the parking ordinance be enacted by the City Commission.

The second policy decision resulted in a recommendation that an urban renewal order be followed by the city.

★ ★ ★

The order would require fencing between residential and commercial zoning on Michigan R20 urban renewal lands.

REZONING REJECTED

A rezoning question, referred back to the planning commission by the City Commission, was rejected by planners.

A move to rezone property at 424 Ferry for a truck and trailer repair and service business has met resistance of nearby residents.

The City Commission asked city planners if the business could not be rezoned into a classification higher than the requested manufacturing.

★ ★ ★

City planners voted last night to recommend against a higher classification.

MOTION TABLED

Also, requested rezoning to Commercial-2 for the southwest corner of Perry and East Wide Track was tabled.

★ ★ ★

The rezoning was tabled until a plot plan is available and negotiations are conducted for the purchase of abutting property.

★ ★ ★

The rezoning was sought for the relocation of Scarlett's Bicycle & Hobby Shop of 20 E. Lawrence.

Report Ford Bride Rues Church Ban

MILAN (AP) — The bride of auto manufacturer Henry Ford II was quoted today as saying they were saddened by their excommunication from the Roman Catholic Church and wanted to do something about it.

★ ★ ★

Ford and the Italian-born Christina Vettore Ford were married Feb. 20. A spokesman for Archbishop John Francis Dearden of Detroit later said they had been excommunicated because the Roman Catholic Church considered Ford's first wedding still valid.

★ ★ ★

The Fords now are honeymooning in St. Moritz, Switzerland. The Italian magazine Oggi carried a story by Alessandro Mossotti, who quoted Mrs. Ford as saying she and Ford were "disconcerted and saddened" by the excommunication and wished "to clarify our position as soon as possible." There was no elaboration of how the clarification might be sought.

★ ★ ★

The Vatican weekly L'Osservatore Della Domenica said last week that Archbishop Dearden had warned Ford of the possibility of excommunication before the marriage.

DENIES REPORT

Mrs. Ford denied that Archbishop Dearden had warned them, Oggi said.

★ ★ ★

"How could he have warned us if he did not even know that we could marry?" Mrs. Ford said.

★ ★ ★

Ford became a Roman Catholic to marry his first wife in 1940. His new wife, married once before, also is a Catholic. The Roman Catholic Church does not recognize divorce. Excommunication is the barring of a person from the sacraments of the church.

Smoke Inhalation Suffered in Blaze

Four persons suffered smoke inhalation in a fire early today that caused an estimated $1,200 damage to a three-family apartment house at 25 E. Beverly and an additional $400 damage to contents.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Walter Davis and her twin sons, Troy and Tony, seven months, all were treated and released at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Raymond Tuttle, occupant of the rear upstairs apartment, was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Firemen said the 12:26 a.m. blaze started in the front upstairs apartment occupied by the Davis family when heat built up in a closed register.

Leo Lion Wins Legal Battle

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Leo the pet lion, center of a controversy between his owner, Howard Sautter of nearby Willow Grove, and the Abington Township Board of Commissioners, was on the winning side in court yesterday.

Common Pleas Court Judge Robert Honeyman dismissed a complaint which sought to force Sautter, 54, to give up his pet.

The township, acting under an ordinance passed last December outlawing all wild animals, contended that Leo was a potential danger.

Honeyman called the township's complaint insufficient. He said there "must be allegation of nuisance — including, but not limited, to hazardous or dangerous activities to support the prayer for relief."

★ ★ ★

He gave the township 20 days to amend its complaint.

Missouri Traffic Crash Kills 4 Adults, Child

KEYTESVILLE, Mo. (AP)—Five persons were killed today in a station wagon-truck crash on snow - covered U.S. 24 about three miles west of here.

The victims, not yet identified, were two men, two women and a child. All were in the station wagon, which carried a Kansas license. Also in the station wagon were a boy, about 5, and a girl, about 2 or 3. Extent of their injuries were not learned.

Old Nike Base Bought by OCC

The U.S. Army Nike base at Auburn Heights is now the property of Oakland Community College.

★ ★ ★

George Mosher, chairman of the college board of trustees, announced that the college has completed purchase of the old Nike base.

After existing buildings are converted into temporary facilities, an anticipated 1,000 students will begin classes Sept. 7.

The college paid $247,000 for Nike base property. The money went to a trust from which the federal government had leased the land.

★ ★ ★

The buildings, valued at $26,500, were donated to the college provided the property is used for educational purposes for 10 years.

MOUNT MORRIS (AP)—Harold Franz, 25, of Mount Morris died Wednesday when his car struck an embankment south of this Genesee County community.

Pontiac Teen Is Sentenced

A Pontiac teen-ager, Nolin Carrol of 497 Arthur, was sentenced yesterday to 2-15 years in the state prison at Jackson for violation of probation.

The charge was brought against the 17-year-old after he was found guilty in February of larceny from a building.

★ ★ ★

Carrol was placed on probation in August 1964 for assault with intent to hold up the Clark Oil service station, 382 Orchard Lake.

The prison term was ordered by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

Report Red Leaders to Visit U.A.R. This Year

CAIRO (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev, first secretary of the Soviet Communist party, and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin will make an official visit to the United Arab Republic toward the end of the year, the newspaper Al Ahram reported today.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser will also make an official visit to Russia during the year, the semiofficial paper said. The exchange of invitations took place during recent contacts between Cairo and Moscow, the paper reported.

VOICE BOX — Fuzz, the 2½-year-old Columbus Zoo camel, survived a blow on the neck by another camel when "by all rights, she ought to be dead," the zoo veterinarian said. Here Fuzz wears a proper neck splint and is recovering from severe tendon damage and separation of vertebrae. The spinal cord was only stretched, Dr. Lee Simmons, the veterinarian, said.

Pays Rare Visit to Hollywood

George C. Scott Has No Regrets for Blast at Oscar

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD—The man who shook up the Motion Picture Academy is in town at the awards season, and he remains unreconstructed where Oscar is concerned.

Dynamic George C. Scott paid a rare visit to Hollywood to perform in a Bob Hope-Chrysler Theater show. Several observers believed Scott would be nominated last week for his role as Gen. Buck Turgidson in "Dr. Strangelove."

THOMAS

Scott didn't think so, and it turned out he was right.

"I don't believe I will ever be nominated again," he said flatly. He thinks Academy voters still resent his blast three years ago, when he was nominated as best supporting actor for "The Hustler." He asked that his name be withdrawn on grounds that the Oscar race was a meaningless popularity contest.

NO REGRETS

Does he regret his action?

"Not in the least," he snapped. "My only regret is that I wasn't able to shock the Academy into doing something constructive to clean up the awards structure. The same orgy of trade paper advertisements goes on.

* * *

"And the awards are still voted by all the Academy members, which perpetuates the block voting. The acting awards should be voted by actors alone. If the Oscar were selected by my peers, I would treasure it. But I can't have any respect for an award that is voted on by everyone from gripers to press agents."

Scott, one of the screen's best actors, will likely be nominated again, despite his wishes. He will be seen this year in two new films, both episodic and made in Europe. The modern "Yellow Rolls-Royce" required four weeks; "The Bible" took four and a half months.

PUNISHING

"It was a punishing experience," he said of the biblical epic, in which he plays the patriarchal Abraham. "The makeup required an average of four and a half hours a day to apply — sometimes four, sometimes five, according to who put it on. Each hair was attached individually.

"All this, and then I would report to the set for perhaps one take a day, sometimes none. We experienced every extreme, from 105 degrees in Egypt to 30 in Sardinia."

He grimaced at the thought of it. Many matters seem to contribute pain to him, particularly when he talks of his television series of a season ago, "East Side, West Side."

"The Emmy Award was the one I really wanted," he said grimly. "Especially after I heard (ex-president of CBS, Jim Aubrey, say we weren't supposed to attend. I wouldn't have missed the dinner; I had a speech all ready."

* * *

He didn't get a chance to deliver it. The series, which had been dropped by CBS, won a single Emmy for direction. Needless to say, Scott enjoyed reading of Aubrey's departure from CBS this week.

County Group Names Officer

Pick Temporary Head for Institutions Unit

The Oakland County Board of Institutions yesterday appointed John A. Macdonald as its temporary chairman.

Macdonald is also chairman of the County Social Welfare Board.

The board of institutions was created recently by the board of supervisors to take over administration of the County Medical Care Facility, which is to be remodeled to provide for tuberculosis patients.

The board also appointed George H. Williams, social welfare director, to act as interim administrator of the Medical Care Facility during the transfer about April 1 of patients from the TB Sanatorium, which has been sold to Oakland Community College.

* * *

Williams was instructed by the board yesterday to meet with State Health Department officials in Lansing to expedite final approval of conversion of the Medical Care Facility into a combined institution.

Necking and Driving Don't Mix, Bill Says

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — An antinecking bill was introduced Wednesday in North Carolina's General Assembly.

The bill would make it unlawful for a driver to embrace a companion while operating a vehicle on any public road in North Carolina. It provides punishment not to exceed $15 or 30 days in jail and specifies that such an offense would not add points to the driver's record.

No Ape Will Escape

PAINTON, England (UPI) — Ice on a safety moat at the Painton Zoo in Devon had to be broken up yesterday to prevent apes from escaping on foot from their island home.

Orphans Can Stay Together

British Family of 10 Gets OK on Housing

STOCKTON, England (AP) — The 10 orphaned Mackie children can stay together in their rented home with the blessings of the local housing committee.

And thanks to the generosity of strangers who learned of their plight, the smaller Mackies will have their pocket money doubled to about a shilling (14 cents) a day.

★ ★ ★

The Mackies, ranging in age from 5 to 18, were left on their own when their mother died 10 days ago after a long illness. Their father, Robert Mackie, died of cancer two years ago.

As orphans, the eight sisters and two brothers could have been separated and sent to foster homes, but Irene, the oldest, appealed to local authorities to let them keep their home.

STICK TOGETHER

"We must stick together because I'm sure that's what dad and mom would have wanted," Irene said.

The family lives in a three-bedroom house in a municipal housing development. Government subsidy keeps their rent down to $7.35 a week.

★ ★ ★

Hundreds of other families are waiting for low-rent houses, but the housing committee of the Southam Rural Council decided Wednesday to let the Mackie children stay.

★ ★ ★

"From reports we have received," said Chairman George Todd, "we are confident the children can look after themselves. We admire their pluck, and we will do everything we can to help them."

IN FACTORIES

Irene and Iris, 17, earn a total of $47.60 a week in factories. Linda, 15, runs the home and the others help with the housework.

★ ★ ★

Irene said people in Britain and abroad had sent them a total of about 500 pounds ($1,400) since their story was published.

★ ★ ★

The council also thought about the possibility of marriage. It decided that if Irene weds, the tenancy of the house will pass on to another member of the family.

"I have a steady boyfriend in the village, but I'm not thinking of getting married for some time yet," said Irene.

Open Door Policy Begun

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — After two recent break-ins, one through the front door and the other through the back, restaurant owner Vasil T. Pitro is ready to cooperate with would-be vandals.

★ ★ ★

He put this sign in the window of his restaurant: "To persons that are breaking and entering here — please do not break the doors. Call me up and I'll give you the key. I'm tired of fixing the doors."

Kathryn Grayson Sick With Virus Pneumonia

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actress-singer Kathryn Grayson is under treatment at Santa Monica Hospital where it was reported she has virus pneumonia. Attendants said the 42-year-old entertainer was in the hospital's intensive care unit. They described her condition as good.

★ ★ ★

Miss Grayson sang her way to stardom in a series of musical films after making her screen debut in 1940 in "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary."

Hurt Woman Sues U.S. for $75,000

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — The federal government has been sued for $75,000 by a woman who said she received fractures on three separate occasions because of one fall in a post office.

★ ★ ★

Loraine Lavender said in a suit filed Wednesday that she broke her left hip when she slipped and fell in the Santa Fe Post Office March 17, 1964. She said a vertebra in her back fractured Oct. 29 when she was doing exercises for treatment of the injured hip.

★ ★ ★

The suit asserted that the weakened condition of the hip caused her to fall Jan. 1, breaking her left leg.

You 'Join the Columnists and See the World'—Earl

By EARL WILSON

Miami Beach, Wash'n, and N.Y.—Speed, speed! . . . A columnist's got to be on the wing half the time nowadays.

"And in a few weeks when jets take you to Grand Bahamas to gamble in only two hours, it'll even be wilder," Hugh O'Brian told me at the Little Club this morning. Hugh, who's put some of his pay from "Love Has Many Faces" and other films in Grand Bahamas real estate, thinks that's the Investors' Promised Land. Typically, however, Hugh's off shortly to do a film called "Ten Little Indians"—in Dublin.

WILSON

Jacqueline Kennedy, Caroline and John-John saw "Hello, Dolly!" at a matinee with Marge Champion and her children and went backstage to see Carol Channing, where everybody was impressed "with the children's adult conduct."

I saw Eddie Fisher at a party Morris Lansburgh gave for Jimmy Durante's opening at the Miami Beach Deauville. Eddie, whose cafe show's a big hit now, has controlled his gambling—he even jokes about it. He's going to record an album for Dot in L.A. Ironically, he's trying desperately now to get a hit record which, when he was a kid, came to him so easily, and so often!

Sonny King warned Durante: "When you stand behind me, don't stab me with your nose. Hurt that—and we're all outa work!"

★ ★ ★

I went to the big Mardi Gras Ball at the Sheraton Park in Washington . . . the decolletage of some of those Cabinet members' lovely wives is WOW!

Gov. John J. ("Hep Me!") McKeithan was wearing white tie to be there amid Linda Bird, her escort, Ken Boone, and the magnificently costumed Louisianans. "You look at home in that white tie," I said to the Guv, and he replied, "It's my first time in one, so hep me!"

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Mae West, congratulated by phone after the premiere of "Love Goddesses" (about the movie sex queens), said, "All the rest that followed me were imitations" . . . Duo at Danny's: Henry Fonda and his regular date, pretty stewardess Shirley Adams . . . Frank Loesser wants Lillian Gish and opera star George London in his "Anastasia" musical (with George Abbott directing).

Anna Maria Alberghetti'll soon pay her first visit to the Hawaiian plantation she owns jointly with James Stewart and Ann-Margret . . . A top film star resumed his romance with a Broadway stage favorite during a quickie N.Y. visit. . . . David Janssen said at the Four Seasons someone swiped the plaque he'd won for his "Fugitive" TV'er.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's not easy to be humble—but some of us have no other choice.—Arnold Glasow.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The spoon always seems bigger when you have to take your own medicine."—Anon.

EARL'S PEARLS: Two things bother Bruce Ho. One, that times may never get back to normal; and two, that they already are.

Bob Orben suspects that college football players aren't always picked for scholarship alone. "One guy won his school letter—and the coach had to read it to him." . . . That's earl, brother.

Pontiac Liquor Controversy Continues to Brew

By L. GARY THORNE

Remember when . . .

Snug Harbor was the biggest seller at $1.50 a bottle. And gin was next at 90 cents a bottle.

This was February 3, 1934, and Pontiac had its first state liquor store at 111 N. Saginaw. A crowd was on hand for the occasion.

In fact, some 676 persons purchased $1,400 in liquor during the first day's operation. Some 30 stood in line to do so, despite the cold.

★ ★ ★

Thirsty local residents were buying the first legal bottled spirits offered in Oakland County for several years.

CONTINUING CONTROVERSY

And 1934 just about dates the birth of Pontiac's continuing liquor controversy — excluding possible difficulties during Prohibition or pioneering problems with the Indians.

The "drys" and the "wets" continue to disagree.

Liquor in one aspect or another, has been a factor in city politics for more than 30 years. It is one issue that refuses to die or fade away.

★ ★ ★

At various times, City Commission candidates have been opposed and supported by "wet" and "dry" groups. According to one observer, at least one commission was unseated because of the liquor controversy.

OPPOSING CAMPS

Usually, the two opposing camps in the liquor battle are the church groups and the bar and tavern owners.

However, others are frequently drawn into the skirmish.

Lately, a new facet has been added to the ageless dispute, namely bowling alleys.

★ ★ ★

Bowling proprietors in recent years have constructed complexes, offering liquor, bowling and even billiards within the same building.

PROFITABLE

The traffic in liquor, of course, is commonly recognized as a profitable enterprise.

Elegant, and not so elegant, restaurants have learned to combine food and drink to their own prosperity.

Bowling establishments, it would appear, have discovered this, which disturbs those opposed to alcoholic beverages.

★ ★ ★

A recent move by two local bowling merchants to have liquor served on the concourse areas of establishments went down to defeat when it came before the commission.

A similar fate was accorded a dance permit request recently that would have placed liquor, bowling and dancing under the same roof.

PROPOSAL REJECTED

The continuing liquor controversy also flared up recently when a proposal to begin upgrading tavern licenses was rejected by the City Commission.

A committee had been formed to study and recommend procedures with a major goal: To first determine the most equitable road to follow and then remove it, as far as possible, from politics.

The committee recommended criteria for upgrading taverns to Class C licensed establishments. It even agreed on the number to be upgraded annually within the limits set by state law.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners, however, were faced with a more immediate problem — municipal finance and the proposed income tax.

Then, too, there was the question of who would decide which taverns were to be upgraded when more than the annual "quota" qualified in any given year.

Who would be the decision makers?

★ ★ ★

Elected officials seemed to be the most popular choice for that job, so Pontiac remained a city where a tavern is a tavern . . . indefinitely.

Man Bound Over in Rifle Shot Case

A Pontiac man, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was bound over to Circuit Court yesterday by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum following a preliminary examination.

Free on $3,000 bond is Albert Smith, 24, of 461 S. Edith, who will be arraigned in the higher court March 11 at 9 a. m.

★ ★ ★

Smith was arrested Feb. 21 for allegedly firing a rifle at a car speeding away from 462 S. Edith. Smith earlier that day had been arguing with Sarah McFarland of that address, police said.

Judge Frees Slayer of Three

DETROIT (AP) — A sympathizing judge bestowed freedom yesterday on locomotive engineer John H. Frazier in the fatal shootings of his wife, her alleged lover and a second man.

Recorder's Criminal Judge Vincent J. Brennan, declaring Frazier should be allowed freedom in order to raise his family of four children, limited the sentence to five years probation.

"Your friends and the thousands of persons who have sent me petitions in this case have already passed judgment on you and asked that you be shown leniency," Judge Brennan said.

Frazier, 41, permitted to plead guilty to manslaughter, had faced possible life imprisonment on an earlier first-degree murder charge.

JOHN H. FRAZIER

Police said Frazier shot and killed his wife, Dorothy, 40, when he found her in the embrace of Clarence Z. DePotie, 47, at a radio announcers' school last Sept. 14.

Then, police said, Frazier also shot to death both DePotie and Pierre Paulin, 51, former Detroit radio announcer who operated the school. A revolver was the weapon. Frazier was arrested at his home later.

★ ★ ★

RAISED FAMILY

Judge Brennan said Frazier was a man of "clean and good moral character" and had raised his family well despite troubles caused him by his wife.

Gas Pipeline Blast Kills 15

NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP)— A high-pressure natural gas pipeline exploded in a residential area north of here early today and officials said at least 15 and possibly two or three more persons were killed.

★ ★ ★

Norman Fletcher, Natchitoches Parish (county) civil defense director, said nine of the 15 known dead were children. The two or three persons unaccounted for also are children, he said.

At least nine persons were taken to a hospital for treatment of injuries. Their conditions were not serious.

The blast occurred on Tennessee Gas Transmission Co.'s 32-inch line shortly after 6 a.m., just as residents of area were awakening.

The blast and billowing flames destroyed five frame homes across the street from a country club. Eight automobiles were melted by the intense heat.

Residents said the explosion sounded "like a jet aircraft breaking the sound barrier."

Flames leaped upwards of 400 to 500 feet in the cloudless sky and seared an area about 200 yards square in the vicinity of the five houses. A crater 200 yards wide was created.

One witness described the gassed flames as giving a light brighter than sunshine.

★ ★ ★

Bodies of the victims were taken to the National Guard armory, where Dr. Charles Cook, the parish coroner, began the task of identification.

GRIM HUNT

Rescue crews sifted through the rubble as the flames died out in a grim hunt for more bodies.

Natchitoches is in northwest Louisiana about 100 miles southeast of Shreveport.

LBJ's Signature Awaited on Appalachia Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's top-priority Appalachia aid bill has cleared Congress and is ready for President Johnson's signature.

The House approved the $1.1-billion measure yesterday by a vote of 257 to 165 after 16 attempts by Republicans to amend it were defeated by top-heavy counts and a GOP substitute was rejected 323 to 100.

The Senate passed the bill last month.

The President was expected to lose no time approving the bill, one of the major items in his "Great Society" legislative program and the first to be passed.

Subject to later appropriations, the bill would authorize federal funds for programs intended to bolster the sagging economy of 360 counties in 11 states of the Appalachian area.

These states are Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia. The door was left open for adding 13 New York counties later.

Most of the money, $840 million, would be spent during the next five years to build 3,350 miles of highways and access roads, with the government paying up to 70 per cent of the cost.

Another $252.2 million of government money would be used during the next two years to build health facilities, improve farm and timber lands, restore mining areas, develop water resources and boost federal funds available under existing programs.

Local contributions of from 20 to 30 per cent would be required for the nonhighway programs.

Hospital Care Proposal May Be Expanded

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House and Means Committee is considering a plan to expand President Johnson's proposal for hospital and nursing home care for the elderly to include coverage of doctors' bills.

★ ★ ★

The committee has been studying hospital care legislation for the past two months. It is expected to begin voting on a bill sometime next week.

A committee spokesman emphasized that no decisive action has yet been taken on the measure. He indicated that the panel merely asked for cost estimates on a plan broader than that proposed by the administration.

Johnson's health care proposal, sometimes known as "medicare," would involve an insurance plan for persons 65 or over and would provide hospital coverage and nursing home care.

★ ★ ★

It would be financed by increasing social security taxes.

COVERAGE OF BILLS

Rep. John W. Byrnes, Wis., ranking Republican on the ways and means committee, has proposed an alternative program which also would include coverage of hospital bills.

★ ★ ★

One committee member said, "we are considering the possibility of combining the best of both programs."

Moscow Mob Goes Wild at U.S. Embassy

Students Drive Back Police Before Being Dispersed by Soldiers

MOSCOW (AP) — Anti-American demonstrators attacked the U.S. Embassy with rocks and ink bottles today and drove back police with sticks and slingshots before being dispersed by Soviet soldiers.

More than 2,000 students from Moscow and Lumumba universities were allowed by police to smash windows and smear the embassy walls with red and blue ink for about 10 minutes.

But when mounted police began to push the mob back it turned in fury.

Extraordinary police security precautions, taken after U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler demanded protection for the embassy on hearing a demonstration was brewing, failed to halt the shouting students.

★ ★ ★

Several policemen were beaten by groups of demonstrators armed with sticks and other weapons.

8 IN CUSTODY

At least eight students, including two Russians, one African and some Red Chinese and Communist North Vietnamese, were taken into custody.

Windows were smashed in the 10-story embassy as high as the seventh floor by stones and slingshot missiles.

Multicolored ink stains were spattered all over the facade.

★ ★ ★

The damage appeared to newsmen to be more extensive than a similar attack Feb. 9, like this one, a demonstration against U.S. air raids on North Viet Nam.

BLOODY NOSE

About 300 unarmed soldiers from the Moscow garrison moved into the mob after the students had loosed a barrage of sticks, rocks, snowballs and slingshot missiles that left one policeman with a bloody nose.

Mounted police had used billy clubs and whips to try to drive the crowd from the

Preliminary Budget for Schools Offered

An $11.5-million preliminary operating budget for 1965-66 was introduced last night at the Pontiac School Board meeting.

The proposed budget, which School Supt. Dr. Dana Whitmer described as "pointing to where the needs are greatest and the profit will be greatest," is $485,630 more than this year's budget.

The $11,552,056 preliminary budget is subject to revision before final adoption in June.

As proposed, the preliminary budget would not call for a tax increase, school administrators indicated.

Largest increase in the proposed budget is $374,231 for instruction costs.

★ ★ ★

This figure includes a provision for an approximate 2.5 per cent reserve for teachers, designed to pay increases in salaries.

STILL MEETING

The administration and teacher representatives are still meeting in efforts to set the 1965-66 salary schedule.

A two per cent salary reserve was also provided for noninstructional personnel.

School administrators said last night that this budget increase for salary hikes might not be enough to keep the schools in a competitive hiring position.

★ ★ ★

Other reasons listed for the increase in the proposed budget were:

REASONS LISTED

- An increase of 103 pupils in the school system, creating the need for additional teachers, supplies and equipment;
- The additions to Alcott and Frost schools creating some increase in plant operation and service costs;
- A one per cent increase in the cost of supplies and utilities included to accommodate an anticipated increase in the consumer price index;
- Provisions for some improvement in educational programs and services.

The 1965-66 budget provides for a per pupil cost of $515.42.

This is $19.39 higher than the present budget, and ranks Pontiac schools 20th among 55 metropolitan schools in the amount of money spent per pupil.

Just What We Need—Snow!

Nature doesn't seem to care whether or not we've recuperated from the last snowfall. She's planning more for tonight.

Temperatures will turn colder, also. A low of 24 to 29 is expected.

Snow flurries and cloudy skies are in store for tomorrow. A high of 25 to 30 is forecast.

Saturday's outlook is for partly cloudy skies and continued cold weather.

Today in Pontiac, winds are easterly to northeasterly at 8 to 15 miles an hour. Becoming northeasterly to northerly tonight at 12 to 25 miles an hour, the winds will shift to the northwest at 15 to 25 miles tomorrow.

This morning's low mercury reading was 32. At 1 p.m. the area had a high of 40.

S. Viet February Toll Worst; Cong Casualties Are High

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Vietnamese armed forces suffered their heavies casualties yet against the Viet Cong during February, U.S. military officials reported today.

The report said 870 men were killed, 1,820 wounded and 1,450 missing. Many of the missing was presumed to have deserted.

The total of 4,140 compared with the previous high of 4,050 in December 1964.

U. S. officials estimated the Viet Cong suffered 2,065 casualties, a figure equaled in official reports only twice before — in March and December 1964.

Vietnamese figures on Communist losses are usually somewhat higher. American officials here discount them as not backed up by accurate count in the field.

U. S. DEAD

The roll of American combat dead for February totaled 43, also above the monthly average.

Most of these men were killed in the Viet Cong attacks on American installations at Pleiku and Qui Nhon, which prompted retaliatory air strikes at North Viet Nam.

Eight were killed at Pleiku Feb. 7 and 23 in the bombing of a U.S. enlisted men's billet at Qui Nhon Feb. 10.

NEW HIGH

The American report also listed a new high in loss of government weapons — 2,590 — while the Viet Cong lost 655 weapons in combat.

The Communists lost more than 3,500 weapons captured after the sinking of a munitions ship on the central Vietnamese coast.

The ship is believed to have carried the weapons directly from North Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

This cache was not counted in the report because the weapons were never in combat.

CONTINUE SEARCH

U. S. Forces continued their search today for an American pilot missing since his jet fighter-bomber was shot down during the raid on Quang Khe.

The pilot, 1st Lt. Hayden J. Lockhart of Springfield, Ohio, was flying an F100 assigned Tuesday to knocking out Communist antiaircraft batteries prior to bomb runs by Vietnamese Skyraiders.

Lockhart was seen bailing out over a wooded area and was presumed to have reached the ground safely.

★ ★ ★

He has not been heard from since and is the only American casualty that has been reported from the raid.

SAVED 4 OTHERS

American helicopters and amphibious planes rescued four other American pilots and one Vietnamese who were shot down during the raids Tuesday on the Quang Khe naval base and Xom Bang munitions depot.

Lockhart's father, Hayden J. Lockhart Sr. of Springfield, said the Air Force had informed him search parties had found his son's parachute and helmet. Lockhart's wife is in Alexandria, La.

GMTC Division Is Off to Fast Start

GMC Truck & Coach Division is off to the best domestic sales year since 1951, with 18,848 trucks and buses being delivered in January and February.

Calvin J. Werner, a vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division today said the two-month figure is 14.6 per cent ahead of the 16,453 units delivered in the comparable period last year.

★ ★ ★

Last month, 9,591 GMC trucks and buses were delivered. This compares with 7,761 in February 1964.

Fire Destroys Addison Home

Mother, 2 Children Escape Evening Blaze

An Addison Township mother and her two children escaped uninjured last night as flames gutted their split-level home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fillmore, at 1460 Hosner, was valued at $40,000 to $50,000 according to firemen. The blaze broke out at about 6:30.

Firemen from Orion, Oxford and Addison townships assisted the Lakeville department, and managed to get a metal box containing important papers and some jewels out of the blazing home.

Fillmore, a buyer for J. L. Hudson Co., was in New York at the time and is expected to return today.

★ ★ ★

Firemen theorized that defective wiring caused the fire. The blaze flared up again in the ruins this morning.

★ ★ ★

When she discovered the fire, Mrs. Fillmore had to run half a mile to the nearest telephone, as the blaze burned through telephone lines at the home.

2 Fractured Legs Fail to 'Break' Family's Spirit

A Michigan "snow job" has failed to dim the spirits of a warm-weather-bred West Bloomfield Township family.

Members of the Leland Connor family were anticipating a "real" winter when they moved into their new home at 4321 Normanwood last summer, after spending most of their lives in California.

The Connor children were completely outfitted for winter sports.

On Jan. 2, Gregory, 15, broke his leg tobogganing.

★ ★ ★

Deborah, 13, broke her leg Monday while skiing.

"We were going to outfit Denise, who's 8, and get her started," Mrs. Connor said.

"But now we'll wait until next year."

Report U.A.R. Smashed Plot

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UP) — A Cairo newspaper said today the United Arab Republic smashed a spy ring directed by Israel which plotted to kill West German rocket scientists working for Egypt.

"Israel found in some German nationals a convenient cover for carrying out her terrorists operation," the newspaper Al Ahram said.

The newspaper said most of the persons arrested last Saturday as members of the ring were West Germans.

The U.A.R. has confirmed only four arrests so far but the West Germany Embassy here said on Saturday that at least seven of its nationals have been arrested.

"It is noteworthy that some of those arrested in the ring . . . lived and mixed with some of the German scientists themselves within the framework of the German community's social elations," Al Ahram said. "That is to say, some of the Germans used to meet those whose task it was to kill them by any means to benefit Israel."

SAID HE CONFESSED

The newspaper said one of the "most outstanding members of the ring" was West German Wolfgang Lotz.

It said he confessed yesterday to sending a booby trapped package to Dr. Wolfgang Pilz, director of the Egyptian rocket program.

Pilz's German secretary lost her sight when she opened the package and it exploded in her face, Al Ahram said.

The paper said Lotz also confessed to booby-trapping a letter addressed to another German expert which was detected at a post office in Maadi, a Cairo suburb where many Germans live.

ON THE TRAIL

Al Ahram said U.A.R. authorities had been on the trail of the ring since the letter was seized.

The letter was inside an envelope bearing the letterhead of the National Bank of Egypt, of a kind the bank uses to send statements to clients, the paper said.

Al Ahram also identified Franz Kielsow, a Cairo representative of the Mannesmann Steel Co. of Dusseldorf, as among those arrested.

The newspaper quoted a "responsible intelligence source" as saying it was "puire coincidence that the arrests were made during the critical relationship between the U.A.R. and West Germany.

The crisis was touched off by the Cairo visit of East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht who, before departing, issued a joint communique with U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser that was critical of Israel.

School Budget Is Presented

fall short of the proposed budget.

WHITMER'S ESTIMATE

Whitmer estimated that the schools would collect $11,409,400 from local taxes, state aid and other sources during the 1965-66 fiscal year.

This is about $150,000 below the proposed budget.

If these estimates are borne out, the schools would be forced to use some of the unallocated reserves which the district maintains each fiscal year to balance the budget.

★ ★ ★

The estimated revenues are based on assumptions which could prove to be inaccurate, Whitmer said, and the schools might have to dig deeper than planned into the reserve funds.

DEPRECIATION SCHEDULE

The superintendent said because of the State Tax Commission's new depreciation schedule for industrial personal property, the state equalized valuation in the school district may drop by $10 million.

This would mean an estimated $190,000 loss in revenue for the schools.

Also, and even more critical, the school's allocated millage may not remain at the present level.

★ ★ ★

Whitmer said the county tax allocation board may choose not to levy a 1.4 mill variable allocation in 1965 unless legislation is adopted which provides for the variable.

1.4 MILLS VARIABLE

This 1.4 mills variable was taken away from one school district in the county last year.

If the millage is not levied here, the schools would lose approximately $550,000 in funds, Whitmer said.

On the bright side, however, were reports that state aid may be increased to schools.

★ ★ ★

Whitmer said if the increase was granted by the legislature, Pontiac schools could gain $123,000 in revenue.

PARTIES TO FATAL ACCIDENT—Actress Elizabeth Taylor and her French chauffeur, Gaston Sanz, are shown arriving from Paris in London yesterday after the funeral for the chauffeur's son. They then left for Dublin near where a car driven by Sanz and carrying Miss Taylor struck and killed Mrs. Alice Ryan, 76, according to police reports.

Estes Finally Wins in Court

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Billie Sol Estes won what was possibly his last inning in court, but it was too late to keep the one-time captain of farm finance out of prison.

A federal court jury acquitted him Wednesday of fudging in sworn accounts of how much he owed to obtain Commodity Credit Corp. contracts paying more than $5 million a year for storage of surplus grain.

★ ★ ★

The West Texas promoter, credited with considerable influence in Washington and among some top business executives until he went broke in 1962, nevertheless is bound behind bars.

Estes, 40, was convicted in two earlier trials on state charges of swindling and federal charges of mail fraud and conspiracy, both based on dealings on around $24-million worth of mostly worthless mortgages on farm fertilizer tanks.

REJECT PLEA

Only Monday, as his latest trial started here, the Supreme Court rejected Estes' final plea for review of his 15-year sentence in the mail fraud case. He still is appealing an eight-year prison term on a state conviction of swindling.

His wife Patsy, a worried looking blonde, and their son and four daughters listened to closing arguments from a front row bench a few feet behind Estes.

★ ★ ★

As jurors returned after deliberating more than four hours, U.S. Dist. Judge Sarah T. Hughes firmly ordered spectators to refrain from any demonstration.

★ ★ ★

Liz Aids Woman, Dying After Mishap

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — "My God! My God! My God!" cried Elizabeth Taylor, jumping frim her Rolls Royce and pillowing the dying Irish widow on a mink coat.

Sobbing hysterically, the film star rushed to aid Alice Ryan Wednesday after her chauffeur-driven car struck the 76-year-old woman. A spokesman for Miss Taylor said Mrs. Ryan stepped into the path of the car.

★ ★ ★

The accident occurred as Miss Taylor and her French chauffeur, Gaston Sanz, were returning from the funeral in France of Sanz' 16-year-old son. He was killed at a shooting gallery under circumstances which have not been clarified.

"I saw Miss Taylor get out of the car," a bystander said. "She was staggering about in the roadway with her hands to her head, crying.

WAITED FOR AMBULANCE

"Then she walked to the dying woman, rolled her mink coat into a pillow and tried to comfort her while they waited for an ambulance."

Miss Taylor followed the ambulance to the hospital where Mrs. Ryan was pronounced dead.

★ ★ ★

Sanz was driving Miss Taylor from the airport to a studio where her husband, Richard Burton, was making a film. Burton was notified and went with the chauffeur to a police station.

Authorities said no charge had been filed.

TERRIBLY DISTRESSED

"Obviously," a police officer said, "the driver is terribly distressed."

A spokesman for Miss Taylor said Mrs. Ryan had walked onto a stretch of road with no speed limit and it was impossible to avoid her. The car skidded 50 yards and came to a stop facing the way it had come. It was badly damaged.

Earlier Sanz had told reporters in London:

"I want the whole world to know what a wonderful woman she (Miss Taylor) is — and what a wonderful man her husband is as well."

TRAGIC BLOW

"My son's death was a tragic blow, but in all that we have gone through, Miss Taylor has helped us by being such a human person."

During the airport interview, Miss Taylor's secretary, Richard Hanley, said jewelry stolen from the star's room in a Dublin hotel Sunday night was worth "much more" than a first estimate of $50,000.

"I will not know how much it was worth until I have checked it against my inventory," Hanley said.

Bring Back, Bring Back My Compact to Me

A prospective used car buyer was so impressed with a car he took for a trial spin yesterday that he kept on driving and hasn't been seen since.

The "customer" inquired about a 1963 Corvair about 1 p.m. at the used car lot of Spartan Dodge Inc., 855 Oakland.

★ ★ ★

Salesman Darrell Thybault suggested he take it for a trial run. He did.

Thybault is still waiting to hear what the man thought of the car, but it's a safe assumption that he was real pleased.

DPW Will End Firm's Contract

Unhappy With Work on Waterford Mains

The Oakland County Department of Public Works has taken action to terminate the contract of one of the construction firms laying water mains in Waterford Township.

In its notice of termination to Schwab Brothers of Buffalo, N. Y., the DPW which is acting as agent for the township in the water project, cited eight points of noncompliance to the contract.

Donald Ringler, deputy director of the DPW, said the primary reasons for the contract termination were the continuing complaints of inadequate job supervision by the contractor and the firm's failure to pay some of its suppliers, subcontractors and employes.

Schwab Brothers was awarded approximately half of the $7.35 million water system contract. Louis Garavaglia Inc. has the balance.

★ ★ ★

Ringler said that the termination notice was issued this week after the construction firm failed to take remedial action on a previous notice of intent to terminate if corrections were not made.

NOTIFY COMPANY

Ringler said that a letter has been sent to Glens Falls Insurance Co., the bonding company for the water project, advising of the termination action.

The bonding company will have 10 days to appoint a contractor of its choice to take over the job and complete the work, Ringler said.

If the bonding firm doesn't act within this period, the DPW will assume the responsibility of obtaining a new contractor, Ringler said, with the financial backing of the bonding firm.

★ ★ ★

Schwab Brothers has been struck by Teamsters Local 614 for the past three weeks mainly over the issues of health and welfare payments and overtime pay.

HONOR WALKOUT

Honoring the walkout by the five truck drivers were 20 operating engineers and 25 laborers.

Pontiac Paired in Mayor Swap

Pontiac has been paired with the small community of Mattawan for the annual exchange of mayors and village presidents May 17 during Michigan Week.

Mattawan, located off I-94, is 11 miles from Kalamazoo near the western edge of Van Buren County in southwestern Michigan.

Its population is about 760.

In other area pairings, the City of Sylvan Lake was linked with Richmond, while Lake Angelus will exchange with Prescott.

Programmed Learning to Be Aired Next Week

BIRMINGHAM — Another aspect of the Birmingham Plan—programmed learning — will be presented to local educators next week.

Approximately 200 Birmingham Public School teachers, administrators and board of education members will attend a 5:30 p.m. dinner-meeting Thursday at Berkshire Junior High School.

There they will hear experts explain how programmed learning can help teachers meet the specific needs of students.

Dr. Derek Nunney, associate professor educational and clinical psychology at Wayne State University, will open discussion of the field.

★ ★ ★

He will indicate how the programmed learning materials provide more opportunity for individualized instruction.

EXPLAIN MATERIALS

The selection and use of the materials will be explained by Mrs. Florence Striph and Gerald Gould of Garden City Schools.

That system currently is involved in a three-year programmed learning program supported by the United States Office of Health, Education and Welfare.

Schools Supt. Dr. John B. Smith will speak on Birmingham's involvement in a pilot program during 1965-66.

★ ★ ★

Programmed learning entails the establishment of learning centers or laboratories in elementary, junior and senior high schools where a student can go for special assistance.

SPECIFIC NEED

His teacher plans and organizes materials which are tailored to meet his specific needs.

The program is one of the major projects developed under the five-year Birmingham Plan, aimed at improving the quality of the district's educational program and individualizing instruction.

---

The Wayne State University Children's Theatre will dramatize "Jack and the Beanstalk" Saturday at the Birmingham Theater.

★ ★ ★

The play based on the famous fairy tale will be sponsored by the American Association of University Women's Children's Theatre Group.

Tickets for the 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. performances can be purchased at the door.

have not been given. Quank Khe is 40 miles north of the border with South Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

Fliers in Viet Nam carry small portable radios that can send out a homing beam for rescue aircraft.

STOOD READY

Members of Lockhart's squadron at Da Nang Air Base, 100 miles south of the border, stood ready to launch planes to support any ground rescue operation.

They would spray the area with rockets and machine gunfire to enable rescue helicopters to reach the pilot once he was located.

A report by the Vietnamese air force yesterday that three unidentified planes apparently tried ot intercept Vietnamese bombers returning from Tuesday's raid proved to be a case of mistaken identity.

★ ★ ★

The Vietnamese air force commander, Brig. Gen. Nguyen Oao Ky., said the three aircraft were U.S. Navy planes returning from a mission.

NO AIR ACTIVITY

No Communist air activity has been reported during any of the raids on North Viet Nam.

A terrorist bomb exploded in Saigon last night in front of an electrical shop and bar, killing three Vietnamese and injuring seven persons, including two Americans in the bar.

The Americans, cut by flying glass, were treated and released.

It was the first such bombing in Saigon in several months.

JOHN E. KRONENBERG

Dem Is Named to County Post

Branch manager of the Secretary of State office in Berkley John E. Kronenberg today was named Oakland County deputy clerk-register of deeds.

The appointment was made by Clerk-Register of Deeds John D. Murphy.

Active in the Democratic Party since 1948, Kronenberg, 41, was a candidate for the 68th Representative District seat last November.

He ran for the county clerk post in 1958 and again in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Kronenberg, 613 Sixth, Royal Oak, is also a past chairman of the Royal Oak Democratic Club.

He succeeds Richard H. Terry, 27, who resigned from the $8,000 a year job in mid-February to return to his insurance business in Warren. Terry had held the post a little more than a month.

Lost Bet on Barry: Sailing to Australia

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Last November Robert Ansett told his boss that he had such faith in Republican Barry Goldwater's chance for the presidency that he'd leave the country if he lost.

Early this morning Ansett, his wife, their three children and another couple and their three children sailed aboard the SS Iberia for Australia and a new home.

★ ★ ★

"My bet just brought the situation to a head faster than it would have been," said Ansett, 31.

"Wed have left sooner or later anyway, with things here the way they are."

THOUGHT IT OVER

Peter Kemmsies, 30, Ansett's neighbor in San Diego and now traveling companion, said they had been thinking about leaving for several months.

"This country has treated us well," said Kemmsies, a construction firm owner. "But we can't live in the past. I have a responsibility to my wife and my kids to make sure that they'll have an opportunity to think for themselves.

★ ★ ★

"The way the United States is going, government even regulates your personal insurance. There's just no initiative left."

Ansett, a bakery route salesman, said "Australia presently is more socialistic than the United States but the trend there is toward conservatism. It's just the opposite here," he said.

Specifically, Ansett said he objected to the tax structure, Social Security, government controls on commerce and "taking the initiative from the individual."

"There just isn't the opportunity now that there was when the country was young," he said.

★ ★ ★

Kemmsies agreed, adding, "we're not bitter. But if our children want to be independent and think and do for themselves without all the government controls they'll just have to get out of here. It's a great country, but it's not what it used to be."

How did their wives react?

GOT THE WORD

"I came home," said Kemmsies, "and said: 'Baby, let's go to Australia,' She said, 'So . . . ' "

Ansett said it took five minutes to convince his wife that the move was a good idea.

★ ★ ★

Each couple has three children, two boys and a girl. The oldest of the six children is 7, the youngest, 2.

"They're all looking forward to the trip," said Mrs. Kemmsies.

SOLD EVERYTHING

Both families sold their homes, cars and furniture to buy their tickets. Both confided that there would be little money left for luxuries.

★ ★ ★

"There are a lot of jobs available in Australia," Ansett said. "We'll just have to take whatever comes along at first and plan from there."

Ansett, who quit his job Saturday, said his boss "already has filled my vacancy with a liberal."

U.S. Embassy Attacked by Mob

sidewalk in front of the embassy but were shoved back. Then the soldiers took over.

The disorder was quelled shortly after the appearance of tough-looking infantrymen dressed in heavy overcoats, fur hats and boots.

They carried no arms and simply formed solid ranks that slowly shoved the students back from the embassy.

SHOW OF FORCE

The determined show of force quickly dampened the spirits of the rioters, who had angrily fought the policemen and hurled epithets of "Fascist" at them.

Most of the students quickly drew back and the bulk of the crowd began walking off about 10 minutes after the soldiers appeared.

Most of the students were Red Chinese and Vietnamese.

They marched to the embassy behind a student shouting slogans through a portable loud speaker.

About 500 of the students broke through to plaster the fence in front of the embassy with anti-American placards.

Polly's Pointers

Clean Stall Shower

DEAR POLLY—I have just made the most wonderful discovery since sliced bread.

I would like to win a Polly Dollar but if I don't get one my discovery is still worth a million dollars to me and will be to others who also live in a humid climate.

To clean your shower stall, simply use a spray bottle filled with pure bleach (do not mix with anything or the mixture may be dangerous).

Spray this on walls and let stand for 10 minutes. Presto! The mildew is all gone.

You do not even have to wash the wall afterward.—JEAN

GIRLS—Do not use this bleach on any aluminum, steel or chrome parts to your shower. I would wash the strong bleach off after the mildew has disappeared.

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY—It took me a long time to learn this but it is a help and time-saver.

Probably all of you have had some paint left over after painting walls, woodwork or furniture. Later you see places that were missed or that should have been painted the same color.

When you think of these, RUN and fasten a note on top of the can with a piece of gummed plastic tape.

The next time you open the paint can you will automatically take care of all these little places at one time.

—JOHN

DEAR POLLY—I suggest that the girls who sew put leftover drapery hooks around the rim of a paper cup and hang safety pins, of different sizes, on the hooks. Thimbles can also hang on them and the cup be filled with odd buttons.

This saves time when such articles are needed in a hurry.

—DAWN

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY—I am a high school junior who has found some tips that may help others.

When cleaning my room I put the soiled bed sheets I have just removed over the top of the clean bedspread and sweep the ceiling and window sills free of dirt and cobwebs.

When this is finished I simply remove the sheets from the top of the bed, put them in the wash and the bedspread is spic and span.

I put two old bobby socks over my hands when dusting window sills or other things. They protect my hands and the socks can be thrown away.

—ALICE

Waxed Paper

Your sewing machine needle won't stick when plastic materials (such as those in raincoats or shower curtains) are being sewed, if you stitch a strip of waxed paper into the seam.

When the sewing is completed, the paper is easily torn off, leaving the seam unmarred.

Market Trading Stays Heavy

Scattered Issues Show Strength

NEW YORK (AP)—Scattered issues showed strength in a mixed stock market early today. Trading continued heavy.

Most of the airlines also moved higher, helped by a report that traffic and earnings are climbing well above the record levels of 1964.

Pan American World Airways opened on 10,000 shares, up ⅛ at 34.

KLM Airlines and United Air Lines rose nearly a point.

Thiokol, the volume leader for the past two days, showed further strength as it opened on 25,000 shares, rising ¾ to 17¾ in a drive towards its high.

Texas Gulf Sulphur made a new high with a fractional gain.

Motors were steady, steels very narrowly mixed, rails somewhat lower, with New York Central down about a point following its recent big advance.

Kennecott also fell afoul of profit taking as it lost more than a point.

Some drugs and electronics made small gains.

Opening blocks included:

Texas Gulf Sulphur, up ⅜ at 68⅞ on 7,000 shares; High Voltage Engineering, up ¾ at 23⅞ on 5,000; and Sperry Rand, unchanged at 15⅛ on 4,500.

Wednesday, the Associated Press Average of 60 stocks rose .2 to 336.0.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Senate Unit Urges Laws to Curb Mafia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Investigations subcommittee has urged Congress to consider new laws to strike at the powerful crime syndicate known variously as the Mafia and as La Cosa Nostra.

★ ★ ★

The chairman, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said the legislation is being drafted and will be introduced by subcommittee members.

The subcommittee said in a report to the Senate yesterday that new laws should be considered. The report said Cosa Nostra collects many billions of dollars a year from gambling, narcotics, prostitution and other rackets.

Among the recommendations is one to make wiretapping by police legal if authorized by courts. At the same time all other wiretapping would be outlawed.

Another recommendation would make it a federal crime to belong to an organization dedicated to criminal conspiracies.

PRIVATE POWER

The report said of Cosa Nostra: "This combine has so much power and influence that it may be described as a private government of organized crime."

The subcommittee said one of the syndicate's enterprises is secret infiltration of legitimate businesses.

The subcommittee's findings were based heavily on testimony given in the fall of 1963 by Joseph Valachi, confessed former professional killer for Cosa Nostra.

★ ★ ★

Valachi told about murders and racketeering as he said he had seen them from inside the mob. Its members, he said, were sworn to die rather than to bare its inner secrets.

ACCURATE WORDS

The report said police records "leave no doubt that Joseph Valachi's testimony was quite accurate." It called his testimony an important breakthrough for police.

Valachi, serving a life sentence for murder, named New York gangster Vito Genovese as the syndicate "boss of all bosses" and said he ran it with an iron hand and by remote control from prison, where he was serving time on a narcotics conviction. The senators said they believed this.

The report linked Cosa Nastra with organized crime in Chicago; Detroit; Windsor, Ont.; Tampa, Fla.; Boston; Providence, R.I.; the Buffalo-Niagara Falls-Toronto area; Youngstown Ohio; and California's Mexican border.

★ ★ ★

It called metropolitan New York the main center.

★ ★ ★

Among its legislative proposals, the subcommittee advocated measures to compel testimony from reluctant witnesses in rackets cases by giving them immunity from prosecution and to declare intimidation of witnesses in such cases a federal crime.

College President Dies

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Dr. Frank Cunningham, 53, president of Morris Brown College since 1958, died Wednesday a few hours after he was stricken while on the way to the chapel of the Negro college.

Opening lead—♣ K

The basic idea of the loser on loser play is that you have a sure fire losing card and you would rather lose it early in the play of the hand rather than later on when its loss might embarrass you.

JACOBY

When the reason in back of your quick loss is that you wish to keep a certain opponent out of the lead your loser on loser is also called an avoidance play.

West's failure to bid at all with his big hand was due to the fact that he knew by experience that his partner's preemptive bids were not only inclined to be weak—they were very weak.

North's double is not recommended as regular procedure. It was for takeout and while he did have 16 high card points he had the wrong distribution. However, it worked beautifully this time.

Left to himself East would have probably made three hearts although if South had opened a club and continued the suit later East might have been set one trick.

West opened the king of clubs and continued with the ace and queen. South's first impulse was to ruff that third club. Then he noted that East had opened with three hearts on a jack high suit and surely would have seven of them. In that case it would be important to keep East out of the lead and South had to lose a diamond on the third club and from then on nothing could hurt him.

West could have beaten the hand had he shifted to a diamond at trick two but it is hard to blame West for not being clairvoyant.

What do you do now?

A—Bid four no-trump. You intend to bid a slam if your partner has one ace.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid four no-trump and your partner responds five hearts to show two aces. What do you do now?
