Delay East Huron Extension

City officials today reacted with mixed emotions at news that the M59 extension of East Huron Street — one of Pontiac's major highway projects — will be delayed for at least another five years.

The delay was revealed in a State Highway Department announcement of details and a scheduled public hearing on the proposed $13 million M59 freeway between Pontiac and Utica.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said construction of the portion from Pontiac's loop road east to the I-75 freeway, originally planned for the second five-year program (1962-67), would not be placed under contract until sometime between 1967 and 1972.

There will not be funds available for this part of the highway, estimated to cost some $3.8-million, before 1967, Mackie explained.

'DELAY DISAPPOINTING'

City Manager Robert A. Stierer said the delay "is a disappointment for us since we had hoped this could be scheduled before 1967 to coincide with construction of the loop highway.

"However, in a sense, it is encouraging because, until now, the M59 relocation and extension of East Huron had merely been a plan. Now it is definitely part of the state's proposed highway improvement program for this area."

City planners were also disappointed at the delay but added that it shouldn't hurt the loop road which is to go under construction next fall.

"This will mean that East Huron cannot be a major access thoroughfare to the loop for several years after the loop is completed, but we don't see that this will create any immediate block to normal traffic circulation on the

Terrorism Mounts in Algeria

French Settlers Called to Arms by Secret Army

Blood Letting in 1962 Has Left 63 Dead and 140 Injured

ALGIERS (AP) — Fresh blood flowed today in the battle of terrorist groups over the issue of whether Algeria is to remain French.

The new year's toll of clashes between Moslems and Europeans soared to at least 63 dead and more than 140 wounded.

Two Moslems and a European were killed and eight Moslems were wounded in Oran. In Algiers, three Moslems and a European were injured.

The underground French rightist Secret Army Organization called last night for a general mobilization of European settlers for a last-ditch fight to keep the North African territory under France's flag.

Handbills calling on the settlers to prepare to fight were posted as the belief spread that the way was at last open for an agreement between the De Gaulle government and the Algerian rebels to end the seven-year-old war in Algeria.

The handbills gave no further instructions but a pirate radio broadcast earlier in the day predicted victory for the Secret Army in 1962.

Terrorism surged up in most major Algerian cities. The attacks were indiscriminate and followed no particular pattern.

It was believed the Moslem nationalists were making a show of strength to influence the secret talks under way for several weeks between the French and the Nationalists.

And the European extremists appeared trying to foster the idea that France could not enforce an independence agreement against the French settlers' determined resistance.

Three persons were killed and 29 wounded by grenades thrown into a crowd of Moslems leaving a mosque house in Constantine Wednesday night.

2 New Divisions to Be Set Up by End of March

Won't Be Ready for Combat Till 8 Months Later, Say Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two new regular Army divisions are expected to be established by the end of March, but it will take about eight months of intensive training before they can be declared ready to fight.

President Kennedy announced Wednesday he had approved immediate formation of the two divisions, the 1st Armored and the 5th Mechanized Infantry. They will bring the regular Army force to 16 divisions.

Officials said today the term "immediate" was relative. They noted that certain advance arrangements must be made, including the mustering of a framework of officers and noncommissioned officers and housekeeping preparations to receive the troops at Fort Hood, Tex., and Ft. Carson, Colo.

The Pentagon has picked a group of regular armored, infantry and artillery units to become the nucleus for the two divisions. Together, they total about 10,500 men. At full strength, the new divisions will number about 31,000 men in all.

The 21,000 soldiers need to fill the divisions' ranks will be draftees who have finished eight weeks of basic training. Defense authorities said they do not expect to raise draft calls.

After the new outfits are brought up to strength, they will be put through a cycle of advanced individual training, basic unit training, division drills and field maneuvers. Only then will they be considered combat ready.

A Pentagon spokesman said the Army hopes to have the 1st Armored and 5th Infantry in fighting shape before the end of this year.

Will Employ 500 at Pontiac Mall

Wards to Open Store Feb. 1

The eighth full-line Montgomery Ward department store in the Detroit metropolitan area will open Feb. 1 at Pontiac Mall Shopping Center, S. D. Ward general manager of the north central region and D. L. Hershey, retail district manager for the Detroit area, announced today.

Leslie M. Gillam, a veteran of 34 years with the company, will be manager of the new store located in the shopping center at Telegraph and Elizabeth Lake roads.

With a gross area of approximately 145,000 square feet the two-story department store represents the fifth major expansion by Montgomery Ward in the Detroit area in the past three years.

The new Pontiac Mall store will have some 350 full-time employes, 500 including part-time help.

Air-conditioned, the store will be open 9:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. daily except Sunday.

STORE'S FACILITIES

It features escalators, elevators, 15 merchandise departments, including a snack shop with 18 tables and 72 chairs, and a seasonal sales area.

Other features include a diamond department, an optical department and a key shop.

Attached to the store is a 10-car auto service station.

Montgomery Ward will be the first department store to open in the 300,000-square-foot shopping center which will have a completely enclosed mall heated in the winter and air-conditioned in the summer. Parking facilities for 3,000 cars will be provided in the center.

Except for a catalog store which opened in downtown Pontiac in 1941 and then relocated two miles west of downtown in late 1957, Montgomery Ward had no representation in the Pontiac trade area.

The catalog store, presently located in the Tel-Huron Shopping Center on Telegraph road, will transfer its facilities to the new Pontiac Mall retail store Feb. 1, Ward stated.

A large and more expanded catalog order department will be established in the new retail store to handle all catalog sales and accounts.

'GREAT POTENTIAL'

"The decision to open a full line of Montgomery Ward retail store in the Pontiac area was motivated by the growing list of Pontiac area customers who shopped at our other nearby retail stores in the metropolitan area," Ward said.

"The other reason for locating in the Pontiac area was the excellent opportunity and great potential of this expanding and growing community."

Ward further said that during the next 10 years predictions are that Oakland County will grow 33 per cent in population and that Waterford Township is expected to expand 34 per cent.

Gillam's career includes more than 20 years as a retail store manager in six out-of-state cities.

He has been company district manager for over six years in St. Paul, Minn., Green Bay, Wis., and Rockford, Ill. He began his career with the firm in 1928 as manager of fire and auto accessories department in the Miami, Okla., retail store.

Following Montgomery Ward's lead, 50 per cent of the stores at the Pontiac Mall should open by the first week in April, and the rest, including J. L. Hudson Co. will open within the first 10 days of May.

Tshombe Sees U.N. as Wrong

Assembly to Consider Katanga's Peace Pact but Delays Okay

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) —President Moise Tshombe today accused the United Nations of "odious aggression" in a speech at a meeting of the provincial assembly called to consider his agreement to end Katanga's secession from the Congo.

After the president's speech, which took strong exception to two of the agreement's eight parts, the assembly president announced the matter would be referred to a special commission.

Tshombe said "the United Nations' clumsy intervention under U.S. pressure" in Katanga last month had not helped relations with the central government.

"We did not go to NEw York to fight the United Nations, but they came here," he said.

He finally asked for a cease fire "not because we were tired of fighting for our freedom but simply because the Katanga government wanted to put an end to the killings and carnage," he declared.

Only 35 of the assembly members were present.

Nine opposition deputies from the Balubakat party were among those present. There would have been 36 members present, but one stomped out angrily when there was a delay of 90 minutes in opening the session.

The assembly failed to begin debate on schedule Wednesday when only 19 members showed up. If all seats were filled the assembly would have 72 members, including 12 appointed chiefs.

Says JFK to Push Medical Aid to Aged

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., predicted today that President Kennedy will "push very hard" in Congress for enactment of a medical aid program for the elderly.

This prediction by Humphrey, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, coincided with reports that National Chairman John M. Bailey has picked medical care as the top issue to be plugged by party candidates in this year's session.

Humphrey said in an interview that he looks for "tough going" but believes a bill providing health care financed through the Social Security system can be piloted through both houses.

"The President must fulfill his campaign pledge to get this program enacted," Humphrey said. "I think he is going to push very hard on it."

But the Minnesota senator was less optimistic about some of the other major proposals Kennedy is expected to lay before Congress shortly after it convenes next Wednesday.

HOPE FOR UNIVERSITIES

He said he feels it is unlikely that Congress will approve any general aid to education plan. He expressed hope, however, that some assistance for higher education can be obtained.

Asked how he felt about Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's failure to recommend any new civil rights legislation, Humphrey (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Planners Veto 4th Shop Center

Commission to Urge City Reject Request for Rezoning of Area

"Three's company and four's a crowd"—that's the feeling of the city planning commission about shopping centers in Northeast Pontiac.

At their meeting next Tuesday night, city commissioners will get a recommendation from the planning commission that a proposed rezoning of 27 acres at North Perry and Arlene streets for a shopping center be denied.

National Business Brokers of Pontiac had requested that the residential property be rezoned to commercial for a proposed $3-million shopping center, tentatively called Perry Plaza Shopping Center.

More than 100 residents of the area turned up at a public hearing on the proposal at last night's planning commission meeting. Most came to protest the project.

David VanderVeen, of the planning staff, said that a study of the area showed a major shopping center was being planned on Walton Boulevard near Perry and the Glenwood Plaza Shopping Center is now under construction about a mile south of the proposed site at Perry and Glenwood.

In addition, planners explained that there was a smaller shopping center at Perry and East Boulevard.

"There is already enough retail agtivity in this area to handle capably the existing market for 15 years or more. Another center would detract from the property value of existing centers," said James R. Bates, planning department director.

"Because it is near Madison Junior and Pontiac Northern High schools, this property is ideal for residential development," he added.

That was enough for the commission. They voted unanimously to recommend denial of the rezoning proposal.

GMC Announces New Truck Line

Versatility and a high-torque V6 gasoline engine mark the new series of heavy-duty General Motors trucks announced today by Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach Division, Pontiac.

He said the new series and engine version add greater depth to GMC's models for 1962, giving the division the most complete line of trucks and highway tractors in its 53-year history.

"The latest engine brings a new hauling dimension to the GMC line by extending our V6 family into the heavier hauling class," he said.

"Extended coverage of our V6 and V12 models, coupled with a broad line of diesel units, now enables us to offer an extremely versatile line of trucks."

478 CUBIC-INCH ENGINE

The new engine is a 478-cubic-inch power plant, develops 440 pound-feet of torque at 1,400 rpm and 255 gross horsepower at 3,200 rpm.

Tested among fleet users, the 478 is intended to close the gap between other V6 engines and GMC's powerful V12 or Twin Six engine. Other V6 gasoline engines available in light, medium and heavy-duty models are the 305, 351, and 401.

Diesel engines include the in line 6, V6 and V8 units.

Besides offering the highest torque of any gasoline truck engine of comparable displacement, the 478 is the world's largest V6 gasoline truck engine.

New models powered by the 478 are designated as the "6500 Series," scheduled to go into production in February. It will offer three basic cab styles; the 105-inch conventional, 90-inch "B" conventional for operations where over-all length is a vital factor, and the 72-inch steel tilt cab.

Most models in the series have single rear driving axles, but a tandem rear-axle model is available for operations where extra traction, flotation or load carrying capacity are required.

MOSCOW (AP) — Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan left by plane today for an official visit to the West African republic of Guinea and talks with President Sekou Toure.

Features High-Torque Engine

WORLD'S LARGEST — This is GMC's new V6 gasoline truck engine, largest of its kind, developing 440 pound-feet of torque at 1,400 rpm in its 478-cubic-inch power plant. Torque is higher than that of any comparable sized gasoline engine in the trucking industry, GMC Truck and Coach Division, announced.

Against Romney Seeking Office

AMC President Says Directors Don't Want Him to Enter Race

DETROIT (AP) — George Romney said Wednesday that directors of American Motors Corp. have "made it very clear" that they don't want him to run for governor of Michigan this year.

Romney said the board disclosed its sentiments about his possible candidacy at a meeting Dec. 18 in New York.

The meeting was called, Romney said, to bring directors up to date on "the competitive situation and other developments." His possible candidacy was one of "the other developments," Romney said.

"I felt they should know I was considering (running) and that I had not made a decision," the AMC president said.

He added that the board members "certainly were not telling me to run. As a matter of fact, they made it very clear that they would prefer me not to run."

Romney is chairman of Citizens for Michigan and is a constitutional convention vice president. He has promised to decide on his gubernatorial candidacy by Feb. 10.

Soviet Slips Up on Propaganda

Pulls Boner in Picture Against Gen. Heusinger; Reds Admit It

MOSCOW (AP) — A photograph distributed by the Soviet government as evidence in its charges against West German Gen. Adolf Heusinger gave Moscow propaganda chiefs red faces today.

* * *

Foreign Ministry officials declined immediate comment when told a photograph they had distributed—purporting to show Nazi soldiers burning a Russian village at Heusinger's order—was actually one the Soviet government had previously issued of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

BIG SLIPUP

"We will investigate," they said.

It was one of the biggest propaganda slipups in recent years.

The news reached Moscow in the issue of the West German magazine Stern dated Jan. 7. It was confirmed here by reference to the original document.

* * *

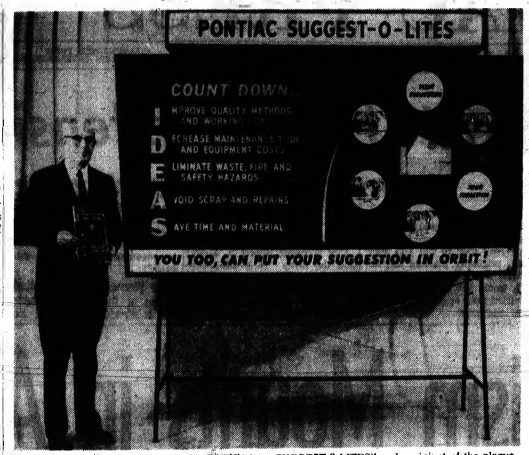

At a news conference Dec. 12, the Soviet government demanded that the United States turn Gen. Heusinger over to the Soviet Union for trial on war criminal charges. Heusinger, 61, was chief of operations of the German general staff until 1944, chief architect of the postwar West German army and now is chairman of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization permanent military committee in Washington.

* * *

The United States denounced the charges as a "crude propaganda maneuver."

At the Dec. 12 news conference, the same picture was displayed as evidence of an atrocity asserted to have been ordered by Heusinger in Western Russia.

AWARDED PLAQUE — Pontiac Motor Division received an honor award plaque for its excellence in Suggestion Plan promotion at a recent convention in Cincinnati from the National Association of Suggestion Systems. Pictured is the award winning display "PONTIAC SUGGEST-O-LITES" and recipient of the plaque, William J. Malinowski, suggestion chairman at Pontiac. During 1961 a record number of over 2,200 improvement suggestions were put into use at the Pontiac Division for which employes received in excess of $170,000.

Sukarno Tells Indonesians

'New Guinea to Be Ours'

From Our News Wires

MAKASSAR, Celebes, Indonesia — "West New Guinea will be included in Indonesian territory this year and no fleet, no army, no force will stop us," President Sukarno declared today.

* * *

Speaking to a huge throng on this Indonesian island, he firmly rejected Dutch proposals for settlement of the New Guinea dispute.

* * *

Sukarno alerted his armed forces more than two weeks ago to be ready to seize the disputed half of New Guinea but has not yet ordered a D-Day. The country has stepped up its arms build-up off the shores of West New Guinea, however.

The army announced that 50,000 veterans of independence fighting against the Dutch are being rearmed on Amboina and other islands of the Moluccas chain some 150 miles off the western tip of New Guinea.

* * *

The announcement closely followed a report from a high government source that Indonesia is willing to promise West New Guinea eventual self-determination if the Dutch agree to let Jakarta take over the territory's administration in the meantime.

'PRELIMINARY STEPS'

Col. Busjiri, military commander of the Moluccas area, declared that the issuance of arms to the veterans and their assignment into combat units are preliminary steps to "the march forward to stop the Dutch-created Papuan state from operating and to hoist Indonesia's red and white flag in the territory."

* * *

Informed sources in Hong Kong said a shipyard in Macao has delivered to the Indonesian marine corps five 60-foot-long motorized barges which could be used in a landing on Dutch New Guinea.

built in the Portuguese colony of Macao over a period of several months and loaded aboard a Danish freighter bound for the Indonesian port of Surabaya last September.

President Sukarno ordered national mobilization last month and said he would invade West New Guinea unless the Dutch handed it over. He gave no indication of an invasion date.

Kennedy Switches Plans, to Leave Florida Friday

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy switched plans today and decided to end his Florida sojourn Friday, a day ahead of schedule. He scheduled weekend conferences at the White House on legislative and security problems.

* * *

The Palm Beach White House said Kennedy will meet with Chairman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee Saturday morning.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said the President also will have other appointments that day, primarily with staff assistants, before flying to Columbus, Ohio, to speak at a fund-raising dinner honoring Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Kennedy has engagements Sunday with director John A. McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, his personal representative in ex-his-laden Berlin.

* * *

Today Kennedy dropped other business and concentrated on weaving together his state of the union message — his accounting to Congress of what shape the country is in and what he thinks should be done about it.

* * *

Kennedy originally had planned to remain in Palm Beach until Saturday afternoon and fly direct to Columbus. Now his timetable calls for taking off by presidential jet Friday at 4 p. m. EST, landing about two hours later at Andrews Air Force Base, Md.

Considers Law for Ski Lifts

Swainson May Propose State Safety Inspection; Comes After Fatality

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson said today he may recommend legislation requiring state safety inspection of all ski lift equipment in Michigan.

Contrary to one report, he said, there was no state inspection of a chairlift at Nub's Nob near Petoskey which went out of control last Sunday.

Larry Orr, 32, Grand Rapids high school teacher, was killed when he was slammed into a building housing the operating mechanism after the lift went into reverse. Several other skiers were injured.

"No state official conducted an inspection of that lift," Swainson told a news conference. "No state agency has authorization or jurisdiction to conduct such an inspection."

The governor said it might be wise for the Legislature to consider enactment of a law requiring state inspection of ski lifts, perhaps by inspectors who now check elevators.

"I would not hesitate to recommend this to the Legislature," he said.

Swainson pointed out that the number of ski areas in Michigan has grown to 87, more than in any other state.

Mercury Plunges in North States; Florida Warmer

By The Associated Press

Temperatures dropped as much as 34 degrees in eight hours today as a cold front pushed into New York State from the north.

The mercury plummeted from 32 above at midnight to 2 below zero at 8 a.m. in Massena, N.Y. It dropped 24 degrees to 14 above in Syracuse and plunged 15 degrees to 21 above in Buffalo.

* * *

A freezing drizzle mixed with snow added more weather woes in New York State. Some schools were closed because of glazed roads.

* * *

Much of the North braced for colder weather. Watertown, N.Y., had 6 below zero early in the day, and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., had 8 below.

But, south of the cold front, the East enjoyed a warm-up. Forecasters predicted highs in the 70s in Southern Florida and in the 60s in Northern Florida as that state's third cold wave within two weeks began to recede.

Report That Son of City Pioneers Appointed Envoy

A son of one of Pontiac's pioneer families, Robert McClintock of the State Department policy planning council, is reported to have been chosen U. S. ambassador to Argentina.

* * *

His mother, Mrs. Christine Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chamberlain met her husband in Pontiac and moved to California after her wedding. The couple raised their family there, where Robert was born some 50 years ago.

However, Robert and his wife and two sons have been frequent visitors of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Farmer, of 2972 Garland Ave., the City of Sylvan Lake.

* * *

Before assuming his new duties, McClintock served as U. S. ambassador to Beirut, Lebanon, and was former ambassador to Cambodia. He served in the diplomatic service in various areas for many years according to his aunt, Mrs. Farmer.

* * *

At one time, Mrs. Farmer explained, the McClintock family owned a great portion of downtown Pontiac including the property of the old court house site, and that the family was one of the first pioneer groups to help establish Pontiac.

Have Mixed Feelings on Delay of Project

loop," said James R. Bates, planning department director.

* * *

The delay will not have any effect on Pontiac's urban renewal program since it had not been tabbed for urban renewal credit.

* * *

The state will hold a public hearing on the entire proposed freeway at 8 p.m., Jan. 11, in the Avondale Senior High School gymnasium in Avon Township.

* * *

Full details will be revealed at the hearing.

As for the Pontiac portion, the proposal calls for the use of Mt. Clemens and East Huron Street four lanes in each direction) to Paddock Street from the loop.

From Paddock east, the highway would become a four-lane divided, limited access freeway. Inside Paddock, Mt. Clemens would be one way westbound, and Huron, one way eastbound.

* * *

Each would require a 100-foot right-of-way, according to Mackie.

The 10-mile section from I-75 to Mound Road would be placed under contract by the end of 1964 if proposed plans are approved by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

Running along the Clinton River, the Pontiac portion could be developed into a scenic parkway — at least this is what city planners have envisioned for many years.

* * *

Mackie spelled out several details not formerly publicized.

Preliminary plans call for interchanges in Pontiac at East Boulevard and Opdyke Road; outside the city at I-75 and Adams, Crooks, Rochester, Dequindre and Mound roads.

Also in Pontiac there will be overpasses at the Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks west of Opdyke and where Mt. Clemens meets the freeway at Paddock.

Other bridges are to be at the railroad tracks between Adams and Crooks roads; at Squirrel, Livernois, Auburn, John R and Ryan roads and South Boulevard.

Pontiac streets which would be closed at the freeway include Michigan Avenue, Jesse, Astor, Midland, Belmont, Tasmania, Ridgeway and Hilldale.

* * *

Oakland County roads to be closed at the freeway include Riegel, Mott and Doris roads; Hazelton, Michelson, Newakwa, Short Ridge and Bishop streets.

Most of these streets, however, would be connected by service drives on the south side of the freeway.

Between Paddock and the railroad tracks west of Opdyke, the freeway would be on a 200-to 300-foot right of way. From there eastward, it would require a 300-foot right of way.

Until the Pontiac section from the loop to I-75 is completed, Auburn Avenue would no doubt remain as M-59 from the city eastward to Opdyke Road, said a highway department spokesman.

Try Lansing Teacher for Obscene Mail

CHICAGO (AP) — A Lansing, Mich. high school teacher was one of two men on trial in U.S. District Court Wednesday on charges of mailing obscene matter as members of a mule pen pal club.

James Poulos, 41-year-old Lansing teacher and Glen D. Wilbern, 58, an Indiana University professor, were among 10 defendants named. The other eight waived jury trials.

Judge Edward B. Austin said he will use evidence presented in the Wilbern-Poulos trial in reaching his verdict for the other eight.

The 10 defendants were among 52 indicted a year ago as a result of a federal investigation into the Adonis Male Club.

R. A. AMBROSE

Named to Vacancy on Education Board

A veteran Oxford school official, R. A. Ambrose, has been named to fill a vacancy on the Oakland County Board of Education.

Ambrose, 66, of 57 N. Washington St., retired July 1 after 10 years as superintendent of the Oxford Area Community School District.

He replaces Ransford Bromley of Lakeville who recently retired from the board for health reasons after four years of service.

* * *

Ambrose was elected by the Board to serve until the spring election.

County Records 1st Traffic Death

Pedestrian, 71, Struck by Car in City, Heads List of '62 Fatalities

A 71-year-old pedestrian who died yesterday after being struck by a car in Pontiac Tuesday evening is Oakland County's (first) traffic fatality of 1962.

Oakland Highway Toll in '62

Last Year To Date: 1

Walter C. Harbin of 166 Beach St., Pontiac, died 11:15 a.m. yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Harbin was critically injured when, according to a witness, he darted into the path of a car at Oakland and North Johnson avenues at 6:15 p. m. Tuesday.

* * *

The driver of the car which struck Harbin, Basil R. Butler of 10 Tregent St., said he swerved but was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the elderly pedestrian. Witnesses said Harbin crossed the street against the red light and ran into the path of Butler's auto. The driver was not held.

Oakland County recorded its first 1961 traffic death on New Year's Day. Pontiac's first traffic fatality last year occurred Jan. 27.

Auto Production Is Estimated at 122,400 for Week

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive News estimated today that domestic passenger car production in the United States this week will total 122,400 units.

* * *

Eight auto plants will work Saturday to make up for some of the output lost on New Year's Day, the trade paper reported.

This week's auto production will be up 61.9 per cent over the 97,204 assemblies in the like week a year ago, and 16 per cent higher than the 105,522 units built in the week ended Dec. 30, 1961.

Production of commercial vehicles will total 17,922 units, up 11.4 over last year's 16,087 but 18.5 per cent under last week's 21,981.

Automotive News said the Studebaker-Packard strike and one-week shutdown of the Willys plant for inventory contributed to the decline from last week's total.

The Day in Birmingham

City Commission Names New Building Inspector

BIRMINGHAM — Commerce Township building inspector Richard B. Schlosser has been named city building inspector by the City Commission.

* * *

Schlosser, 38, of 5738 Berkley St., Pontiac, has held his township post for four years. He will take over his Birmingham duties later this month, succeeding Andrew Butts, who resigned to take a position with a Detroit bank.

A replacement for Schlosser has not yet been named by the township board.

Selected from a field of 12 candidates, Schlosser is a past president of the Southeastern Michigan Building Officials and Inspectors Association.

He also is a member of the Building Officials Conference of Michigan and of America.

The former carpenter is married and the father of three children.

The Southfield planning firm of Vilican-Leman and Associates has been appointed by the City Commission to carry out the work made possible recently by a Federal grant of $22,000 for planning assistance.

A triparty contract between the city, the state, who is the acting agent for the Federal government, and the consulting firm is the next step necessary before the two-year planning program can be inaugurated.

Birmingham's share of the project is about $8,500.

The funds will be used to finance surveys, aerial photographs and topographical maps.

The grant was made under the 701 program of the Federal Urban Renewal Administration.

A film tour of the Orient, similar to the one to be conducted April 18 to May 22 by Oakland Travel, Inc., 730 N. Woodward Ave., will be presented 8 p.m. tomorrow at the travel agency.

Mrs. Adah Gean of Bloomfield Hills, who has lived in Japan 11 years, will lead the 33-day tour.

* * *

The color, sound movie will show major cities such as Tokyo, Nikko and Kyoto and other places that will be visited like Mt. Hiei, Gifu and Takamatsu.

Great Lakes Line May Be Bought by D-C Transit

Great Lakes Transit Corp., the bus line which ties Pontiac to Detroit and serves 20,000 residents of Oakland County, is being considered for purchase by a Washington, D. C. firm.

* * *

D-C Transit Corp.'s First Vice President Morris Fox today said he had approached the parent American Transit Co. in St. Louis about purchase of Great Lakes along with Intertown Suburban Lines, which formerly served 14 downriver Detroit suburbs.

"We are ready, willing and able to move in," Fox said. He indicated negotiations would continue.

Great Lakes Transit runs mainly along Woodward Avenue and has an estimated 85 buses to serve Birmingham, Clawson, Berkley-Oak Park and the Northland Center area in addition to linking Pontiac and Detroit.

* * *

The line was established four years ago when Greyhound Corp. sold out local lines to other interests.

said he thought "there still is much that can be done on the executive front."

"I think the administration has an excellent record of executive action in this field," he said. "Personally, however, I think some of the civil rights laws should be strengthened, particularly in the field of voting, and I will support legislation of this kind."

Army Completes Troop Movement Along Autobahn

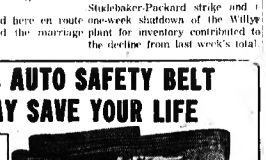

BERLIN (AP)—The U.S. Army completed another troop movement along Berlin's Communist-controlled access highway today. Part of Company A, 3rd Battle Group, 6th Infantry, entered the East German autobahn en route to training in West Germany at 7:50 a.m. and cleared the final Soviet checkpoint four hours later, the army said. No interference was reported from the Communists, who call the movements provocative.

Another group of perhaps 50 men from the same company is scheduled to make the trip Friday.

Grippe Cancels K's Trip

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev is ill with the grippe and has postponed a trip to Byelorussia, informed sources said tonight. During the trip he had been expected to have a conference with Polish Communist leader Wladyslaw Gomulka somewhere near the Soviet-Polish border.

20,000 Pounds of Clothing Goal for School Drive

The annual Pontiac public schools clothing drive is seeking to meet a goal of 20,000 pounds of used clothing this year, Paul C. Allison, director of the drive, announced today.

The drive will be held Jan. 15-19.

All used clothing will be used to benefit Pontiac school children.

Persons having clothing to contribute, who do not have children in school, may call the nearest school. Collection will be made by the school or the neighborhood Parent-Teacher Association.

REGULAR COLLECTIONS

Regular collections are made through each of the system's students. The schools are sending home publicity explaining the drive.

Clothing will be distributed through local charitable organizations.

"There is a particular need for winter clothing of all sizes," Allison said. "However summer clothing will be accepted for use later in the year."

Titov Visits Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Maj. Gherman Titov, the second Russian to orbit the earth in a space ship, arrived Wednesday for a week's goodwill visit to Indonesia. He will accompany President Sukarno on a trip to South Celebes Friday.

Lots of people play dumb; unfortunately too many aren't playing.

Seeks New Postmasters

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Service Commission announced Wednesday it will receive applications for postmasterships in Bad Axe and Clare, Mich., both jobs have annual salaries of $6,255. Applications must be filed with the commission no later than Jan. 30.

'I Don't Want World Should Pass Me By'

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Consider-able thoughts for a new year, on and off the record:

To remain healthy, "Always do one thing less than you think you can do" — Bernard Baruch.

"People are always telling me to slow down, but I'm a firm believer in God, and I feel that God gives no one individual too big a burden. As long as he sees you're breathing and sleeping and walking, he knows it's not too much." — Jerry Lewis.

"Longevity experts seem to agree that man, at the most, can live to one hundred and 10 years, but that not even the miracles of medicine can push us further than that. It is curious (and ironic) that persons with life insurance live longer than persons without it, and that persons with annuities — a small or large income guaranteed throughout life — live even longer." — George Gallup.

"We've reached a height of wonderful confusion. We're a real no-standards civilization. What do we want out of life? We don't know, so we figure it must be money. We're sick — and love is the greatest antibiotic in the business. But everybody's lost the prescription for it." — Sam Levenson.

"Always said, when things look black, send them to the laundry." — Joe E. Lewis.

* * *

"I think the greatest happiness you can have is knowing that you not necessarily require happiness." — William Saroyan.

* * *

"Interesting friends make an interesting life. Say, if you don't have any interesting friends, get in touch. I've got a million of them, hardly even used." — Herb Shriner.

"Life is an exciting business and most exciting when it is lived for others." — Helen Keller.

"What good is money? Lightning once snaked its way through a living room and into a closet where $3,000 in bills were hidden in a metal strongbox. The money burned up, but the home was undamaged." — Public Record.

"To tell you the truth, I never think of money. I shouldn't be very unhappy if I didn't have it. There is so much to do. Science never stands still; there are interesting things to read. Nobody is unhappy who is busy." — Mme. Helena Rubinstein.

"Sure, I put unhappy endings on some of my movies. My particular philosophy is that men never get what they go after. Or when they get it, it's worthless, a hollow husk." — John Huston.

* * *

"All my life I got up at six in the morning. You think I could change? I don't want to sleep my life away, darling, and the world should pass me by . . ." — Gertrude Berg.

"About the world I have a curiosity that is killing. In this way, killing is real living." — William Holden.

"I should say I am frequently frightened (on mountain-climbing expeditions) but fright is a good thing for one. I am moderately religious, but I don't believe in running to religion when you're scared — that's a rather cowardly approach. Overcome it yourself, and feel like a man." — Sir Edmund Hillary.

"Every human being likes to dip his toe in the pool of fear. When they go to see an Alfred Hitchcock film, they are longing to be suspended, frightened, perhaps shocked; they would like, if possible, to scream. We are all born, you see, with fear inside us—and we build up a real liking for it. Isn't that fortunate —in the times we live in?" — Alfred Hitchcock.

"For we are all geniuses — we who live. In fact, it would be almost impossible to live without being one." — Ben Hecht.

Number of Severe Penalties Doubles in Two Years

State Zeros In on Repeat Traffic Violators

LANSING (AP) — The repeat violator who has to be slapped down with heavy penalties is occupying most of the attention of the driver improvement section of the secretary of state's office these days.

A prime example is a young Detroit student with 10 speeding violations on his record.

The statistics tell the facts, says Secretary of State James M. Hare.

In 1959, 25,604 Michigan drivers were handed severe penalties such as cancellations, revocations and suspension of license by the driver improvement division. The total climbed to 32,951 by 1961.

"This means we are now getting after the chronic violators and repeaters," Hare said, "which is all to the good."

Hare said he thinks the drive after accident-prone drivers has a lot to do with the drop in fatalities on the highway last year.

"But it should be pointed out these people account for only about 1 per cent of Michigan drivers," Hare said.

THE CHAMP

To put some flesh on the bare bones of the facts, Hare pulled the file on the section's champion repeat violator.

This is a youthful Detroiter who has been called before the driver improvement section 10 times since 1956 and six times since the point system became effective in 1958.

Through familiarity with his fat file, the division knows him almost as well as his mother does. In fact, they have letters from his mother in the file.

The young man commutes to school. His main violation is speeding. He has 10 separate counts of the charge on his record.

Other violations cited include one of reckless driving, one of excessive speed at night, one of habitual negligence and two of running red lights.

He was involved in only one known accident, a two-car crash in which two persons were injured.

His license has been suspended twice and revoked twice. His record shows he last was allowed to drive on a restricted license, to and from school, with no pleasure riding permitted.

"We haven't heard from him lately," Hare said. "Either he has left the state or learned his lesson, I hope the latter."

Cold Weather Leaving Florida

Temperatures Rising as Third Wave of Cool Air Starts Moving Out

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida's third cold wave—all within the last two weeks—began moving out today after dropping temperatures to record lows as far south as Miami and frosting the state's winter vegetable crop.

Forecasters predicted highs in the 70s in south Florida during the day and in the 60s in north Florida, with partly cloudy and warmer weather in all sections of the state.

'REFRESHING NIP'

The latest cold wave—which Gov. Farris Bryant called "a refreshing nip"—scattered frost as far south as the Everglades and sent the temperature down to 38 degrees at Miami International Airport, lowest of the season and a record for the date.

★

An estimated 2 to 4 million boxes of citrus was lost but industry spokesmen said it merely reduced the record 99-million box orange crop and was no severe blow.

DAMAGE REPORTED

Only scattered damage was reported to vegetable crops in Dade (Miami) County where farmers expect higher prices to wipe out any crop losses.

The governor scoffed at reports that tourists were fleeing the cold weather.

"There is no truth whatsoever to stories that visitors are leaving Florida because of the refreshing nip that currently mingles with our warm sunshine," Bryant said.

★ ★ ★

Airlines, railroads and bus companies reported the usual northbound traffic after the holiday season. Officials said most of those going north had come to Florida especially for the holidays.

Chaplin's Wife Expecting Pair's 8th Child in July

VEVEY, Switzerland (AP) — Comedian Charlie Chaplin's wife Oona is expecting the couple's eighth child next summer, it was announced today.

A member of Chaplin's household at the hillside Du Ban Manor said the birth was expected some time in July.

At that time the former Hollywood idol turned country squire will be 73 years old. His wife, daughter of the late American Nobel Prize winning playwright Eugene O'Neill, will be 37.

They have five girls —Geraldine, Josephine, Victoria, Jane and Annette-Emily — and two boys — Michael and Eugene.

U.S. Military Progress Plays Important Part

The United States military forces are a more effective instrument of American foreign policy because of progress made in the last year, Secretary of Defense ROBERT S. MCNAMARA says in a year end statement.

McNAMARA

Former Ford President MCNAMARA said the possibility of an aggressor attempting another Pearl Harbor is considerably reduced because of increased capability of our strategic forces to survive attack.

★ ★ ★

Among the improvements made during the 12 months were additions to non-nuclear forces, so that the range of military operations open is increased and a 50 per cent increase in strategic bomber fleet on 15-minute alert.

★ ★ ★

He also listed a 50 per cent increase in the Polaris sub force to be reached by the end of 1964, and 100 per cent boost in Minuteman missile production capacity as other improvements.

★ ★ ★

Whatever foreign policy the United States decides upon, we must be able to back it up. McNamara's improvements are of vital importance.

Clinton McGee

One of Pontiac's pioneer and truly stalwart citizens is lost in the death of CLINTON MCGEE.

★ ★ ★

During the larger part of his career, Mr. McGee was an active attorney and participated in a wide variety of civic and community activities. Blessed by the Almighty with a sly sense of humor, he was a splendid companion and added immensely to any gathering that was graced by his presence. With this characteristic went a definite dignity that was always in evidence and the combination led to a delightful personality.

MCGEE

Mr. MCGEE was essentially studious and followed the proceedings and developments of his own profession closely. He was an orator in court and the older attorneys and judges still remember many a court passage-at-arms in which he was engaged. Kindly and thoughtful, a fine figure and a very constructive citizen is lost.

Our Natural Resources Are Diminishing Rapidly

The "interior" over which Secretary of Interior STEWART UDALL presides includes vast reaches wherein lie a substantial part of our natural resources.

It is a domain that belongs to us all.

Under the voracious demands of a swiftly rising population, our already developed resources are shrinking at an alarming pace.

UDALL reminded the Nation recently that we must soon inaugurate ambitious plans if we are to use our reserves wisely and on the scale needed for decent living levels.

Not many will listen to warnings like this.

Most people are too busy these days consuming what is ready at hand. But a country that doesn't worry about where tomorrow's food, water, wood, steel, oil and coal are coming from, may one day wake up poor.

Examination of Books May Prove Profitable

In the continuing battle of the Teamsters Union and the Federal Government, the Teamsters start the New Year down one.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's Local 614 and Jimmy Hoffa's home local, 299, in Detroit have presented their books for government inspection. This is the result of a legal hassle of 11 months following the union's refusal to comply with a provision of the Landrum-Griffin Act.

★ ★ ★

The act empowered the secretary of labor to inspect the books, and MR. GOLDBERG wants a peek. Perhaps such an airing will clear up some of the practices and problems which have marked the union's turbulent history in recent years.

The Man About Town

Conduct a School

Suggestion Made to Our County Road Commission

MAGAZINE: A periodical that devotes almost as much space in telling what's to be in the next issue as is given what's in this.

Our neighbors may well take a lesson from Oakland County in how to maintain their highways in winter. They are failing down on the job.

The most notorious delinquent is Wayne County and its City of Detroit, which border us on the south, at the Eight Mile Road.

On several recent mornings the roads south of that line have been ice ridden and skiddy. But drivers report that north of that line, in Oakland County, everything is OK. The pavements had previously been put in shape to combat the ice menace.

The same is largely true with our other neighboring counties of Macomb, Lapeer, Genesee, Livingston and Washtenaw. It is easy to determine the exact location of the line.

Perhaps the Oakland County Road Commission should offer our neighbors the facilities of a course of instruction. Ask them to come here and learn how to save live.

Perhaps there's something to cogitate upon in a phone call from a woman who wishes to be known only as but who touches upon an important subject. She recently was a guest in an Oakland County village where the merchants are complaining about their people going elsewhere to trade. And there wasn't a store in that village's main business block where the snow had been swept off the sidewalk.

A Careful Observer,

This is a big day in our neighboring Lapeer County. It is the

when the tillers of that kind of soil get together and compare notes. Thousands of acres of formerly useless muck land have been developed there to produce millions of dollars. The same possibilities are with us in Oakland County, but we're too busy with other things to grab them up.

There's consternation among the children in the neighborhood of

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Fearsome of Drayton Plains. Somebody stole Santa Claus who lingered too long on their lawn.

A set of jingle bells that adorned the horse's hames in the pioneer days, owned by

Perry Kozak

of Clarkston, were made and tuned 108 years ago, according to inscriptions which they carry. Each has a distinct tone of its own.

Doesn't Take Much to Make Some Happy!

David Lawrence Says:

Hemisphere Must Halt Red Inroads

WASHINGTON — The United States government has just made public a document telling, in effect, how Communist Russia has taken over Cuba.

LAWRENCE

The facts disclosed show clearly that the Soviet government has completely disregarded the Monroe Doctrine, which for nearly 130 years has warned that no European power will be permitted to establish a new foothold in this hemisphere.

The Monroe Doctrine is no longer just a policy of this country but has been embodied in resolutions passed by the Organization of American States, which is to meet on Jan. 22 to consider the whole Cuban problem.

The State Department's 22-page report, issued just a year after the United States severed diplomatic relations with the Havana government, reveals that upwards of $100 million of military aid has come from the Soviet Bloc countries to the Castro regime.

Castro today, therefore, has the second largest ground army in this hemisphere—exceeded only by that of the United States. The military force is estimated at from 200,000 to 400,000, including militia. This is 10 times what any previous government in Cuba ever had.

Approximately 300 Russian and Czechoslovakian military technicians are in Cuba today training local forces. Russia has agreed, moreover, to train new pilots, artillerymen, ground crews and other personnel.

What will the United States government do about all this? Will it wait for the Organization of American States to adopt meaningless resolutions, or will this country insist on a complete economic blockade of Cuba by all countries of this hemisphere?

WARN U.S.S.R.?

Likewise, will the United States warn the Soviet Union to get out of Cuba at once or risk the severance of diplomatic relations by the United States with all Communist bloc countries that are today aiding Castro with arms and money?

There has been a kind of indifference to the Cuban problem ever since last April's ill-fated expedition of counter-revolutionists was deprived of air support by the United States at the last minute.

But the conditions leading up to the Soviet Union during the past year can no longer be ignored.

Already infiltration has been going on in Mexico, Argentina, Brazil and other countries. Many of these governments abstain from voting in the Organization of American States even on resolutions merely to take up the Cuban question.

The United States, however, can no longer pursue a drifting policy. The planned "Alliance for Progress" promises about $20 billion in the next 10 years for aid to Latin America, about half of which the United States is supposed to furnish.

But there can hardly be any support in Congress for this plan if the major countries in Latin America adopt a standoffish attitude toward the Cuban problem.

FEAR REDS IN MEXICO

Mexico is right next door to the United States, and there is considerable concern now about the inroads made there by the Communists.

Announcement that President Kennedy is soon to confer with President Lopez Mateos of Mexico is a good sign. But such conferences will be of little avail unless the Mexican government is ready to get rid of the Communists and to checkmate the Castro agents who operate inside Mexico today.

The State Department's latest revelations will certainly emphasize to Latin American countries that they face a real crisis. For if the Russians can build an army of 400,000 in Cuba, they can certainly plan today the overthrow of any government in Latin America.

The United States, for its part, can wait only a certain length of time now while the Latin American countries make up their minds as to whether they want to stand by the Monroe Doctrine. If they falter, then this country will be challenged to go it alone to emancipate Cuba from Communist rule.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Iodine Tablets May Aid in Treating Psoriasis

In Little Lesson No. 9, Save Your Skin (35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope), I say:

"Cause of psoriasis? You may search me—and I have searched the medical literature in vain."

I wrote that 20 years ago. Today, I know no more about psoriasis than I knew then, and I believe the rest of the medical profession is in the same boat. In Little Lesson 9, I pass along a few suggestions made by skin specialists, but I point this piece simply because I feel sorry for anybody afflicted with psoriasis and I hope the remedy I now suggest may help some victims of the blemish (being not communicable, not constitutional and without appreciable effect on health, psoriasis is a blemish rather than a disease).

Favorite locations of the silvery, scale-covered patches are back of the elbow, front of the knees, top of the feet, back of the hands, seldom on the face, sometimes the scalp. We don't know a specific cause and so we have no specific remedy.

Evidence that psoriasis is inherited seems questionable. Diet is not of much importance, though some persons seem to benefit from vegetarian diet and others benefit from a few days of milk diet from time to time.

CAN'T HARM YOU

If the remedy I now suggest doesn't work a miracle, as it did in the case to be described, at least it can do no harm.

"Dear Doctor Brady:

"Nearly three years ago, you advised supplementing the diet with a daily ration of iodine as an aid in the easement of psoriasis.

"I started a series of trials which have resulted in a wondrous result.

"Psoriasis has been a source of discomfort and embarrassment for more than 25 years, covering most of the skin surface from ankle to kneecap, also the under part of the forearms and elbows, as well as forming scales in the scalp.

"I consider my present condition positively miraculous, in view of having been told by three dermatologists, I would just have to live with my trouble, since no cure is known.

"Nearly three years ago, I began taking four-iodine tablets daily and noticed after a year an improvement . . . Today my arms and scalp are free from trouble and there is scarcely any sign of scale on my leg and absolutely no more of the maddening itch. The area is gradually returning to normal smoothness and color."

Signed letters, not more than one page in length long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Idioms Can Often Be Dangerous

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-494: George W., aged 8, is a very bright city boy.

One day some friends were visiting him. Conversation veered around to his grandmother.

"Where does she live?" asked one of the guests.

"Oh, she lives in a box house," he calmly replied.

"In a house!" the visitors repeated, in surprise. "You must be mistaken."

DR. CRANE

"No, that's true," George answered. "For Daddy doesn't tell fibs and he said Grandma goes to bed with the chickens."

ENGLISH IDIOMS

We adults are familiar with many of these unique phrases in our language. We call them "idioms."

Obviously, they are difficult to interpret just from consulting a dictionary.

You can guess the puzzlement of a Frenchman or German if he tried to comprehend that idiom about "going to bed with the chickens."

Here in America, it simply means going to bed early. But children and foreigners tend to take language literally. Idioms are not limited to just one language. Germans have their own idioms and so do the French, Russians and others.

So it demands long familiarity with a language to be up-to-date on its idioms.

You may recall my mentioning the Spanish student who entered Northwestern University.

He spoke little English and it was mostly of the "dictionary" sort.

But he was basically tactful, so when he called on a coed to escort her to a formal dance, he appreciated the lovely dress she wore.

He was intuitively a member of the "Compliment Club," so he said:

"How beautiful you look in your nightgown!"

At which her sorority sisters tittered and laughed, showing they had less tact than the Spanish youth.

Later, he grumbled at the freakish nature of English.

"My dictionary says you can use 'night' and 'evening' interchangeably for they are synonyms."

And that is usually true, except in these special idiomatic places.

For we distinguish radically between "Evening gown" vs. "Nightgown" in our popular speech.

MENTAL COMPLEXES

Many mental complexes also develop because children, like George, get the wrong meaning for our idioms.

A little girl named Beth, aged 9, tried to look after her 6-year-old brother when her mother was taken suddenly ill.

Neighbors finally came over later in the day to help out. They admired Beth's efficiency.

She certainly has an old head on her shoulders," added one of the visitors.

That was intended as a compliment. It meant Beth was precocious or more competent than we'd expect in a child of 9.

But Beth visualized a prune faced, wrinkly old hag, and this innocent idiom almost drove her into a divorce in later years. (See tomorrow's follow-up).

So be sure you talk the language of the customer or child or client or parishioner!

Jesus urged that same idea when he said, "Cast not your pearls before swine" meaning, use words they can understand.

Always write to Dr George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

'Why Does U.S. Continue Giving Aid to Yugoslavia?'

I strongly protest the suicidal and disastrous policies our leaders are pursuing in foreign aid. Yugoslavia is a prime example. In 1952-53, I served 16 months with American troops on the border of Yugoslavia. I saw the cleared strips of land that ran miles over steep mountains and through forests and fields, punctuated with towers staffed by watchful police who prevented the populace from free contact and intercourse with the West. Yugoslavia is a typical anti-West, Communist police state.

★ ★ ★

In spite of all this, our government has pumped the invigorating life blood of financial assistance into our mortal enemy to the amount of $2.5 billion.

★ ★ ★

When will Americans rise to their responsibilities and deluge their representatives with the demands that all aid to communism be immediately halted? The world Communist conspiracy has openly declared war and announced their dedicated purpose to erase us and all we hold dear. They have already accomplished two-thirds of their three-point plan for conquering the world. Our time is short! We are steadily losing.

'People Would Enjoy Re-Runs of Movies'

Wouldn't it be wonderful for movie theater managers to bring back old movies? It wouldn't hurt their box offices to show at least one a month.

The movie producers and directors of the 1940s produced such beautiful musicals, comedies and dramas. I know people would enjoy them very much.

Claims It's Possible for Cuba to Be Free

The new guerrilla activities in Cuba depend on supplies. If these forces can establish a firm base of operations, immune to attacks from Communist militia, it may become possible, with time, to establish a freedom government within Cuba itself. The establishment of a firm fighting line against the Castro Reds will also lead to increasing desertions of militiamen, who are reported ready to join any force fighting against Castro. But it must prove its ability to survive.

When a man a load must carry . . . Over hills across the years . . . He has little time to tarry And no time to stop for tears . . . When a man must be a leader . . . For the others courage lack . . . He will scorn the weak conceder . . . And he never will turn back . . . When a man has inspiration . . . To his fellowmen to give . . . He will rise before his nation . . . With a will to fight and live . . . When a man can see the daylight . . . Though the road ahead is dark . . . He will always steer and stay right . . . And not seek a place to park . . . When a man has lived for others . . . For full half a century . . . He will think of them as brothers . . . And as fond of him they'll be.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

You shall be careful to perform what has passed your lips, for you have voluntarily vowed to the Lord your God what you have promised with your mouth. — Deut. 23:23.

Says 'Settlement' Not a Good Deal

Mrs. Russell Blackett should investigate.

★ ★ ★

An insurance company offered my wife's attorney a $600 "settlement." Her bill from just one doctor is $800. There are other doctor bills, the hospital and ambulance bills and the loss of a car.

★ ★ ★

Would you settle for that "pittance," Mrs. Blackett?

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Thursday, Jan. 4, the 4th day of the year with 361 to follow in 1962.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The evening star is Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1854, Sen. Stephen A. Douglas introduced into the Senate the so-called Nebraska bill, containing proposals for the organization of the Nebraska territory.

★ ★ ★

In 1885, Dr. William W. Grant of Davenport, Iowa, performed the first appendectomy in medical history with the patient making a complete recovery.

In 1896, Utah became the 45th state to be admitted into the Union.

In 1948, Burma became an independent republic.

A thought for the day: American humorist James Thurber once said: "Early to rise and early to bed makes a male healthy and wealthy and dead."

Smiles

A doctor says it's dangerous to rub the eyes, but what can you do when the Christmas bills start to roll in?

CHESST IN LOVE—Lisa Lane has told the world she is in love. Unfortunately for top international chess players, this means they are losing the prettiest championship player around. Lisa, 24, quit the international chess tournament in Hastings, England, Wednesday night because she couldn't concentrate on the game and announced Thursday that she is quitting chess and rejoining her beloved, New York newspaperman Neil Hickey. She added that she was discussing her own feelings and could not speak for him.

Activated Divisions Saw Many Battles

5th, 1st Boast Heroic Past

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two Army divisions being revived and added to U.S. cold war strength carry many battle streamers on their colors from past wars.

The 5th Infantry Division, called the "Red Diamond" from its insignia, was first organized in 1917 and saw action in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne operations that helped break the back of the German Army in France in World War I.

In World War II the 5th went ashore in Normandy a month after the invasion and soon was fighting its way across France.

It crossed the German border in December 1944 and within a few weeks was thrown in to help halt the last German offensive of the war in the Battle of the Bulge.

The 1st Armored was born just before World War II and went overseas six months after Pearl Harbor.

It was credited with effective fighting at El Guettar and Gafsa in the North African campaign.

Later the first Armored battled slowly up the Italian boot, dueling the Germans in the Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, North Appennine and Po Valley campaign.

Composer of Pop Songs in Burbank Hospital

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Singer-composer Harry Barris, one of the original Rhythm Boys with Bing Crosby, is hospitalized for major surgery on his hip.

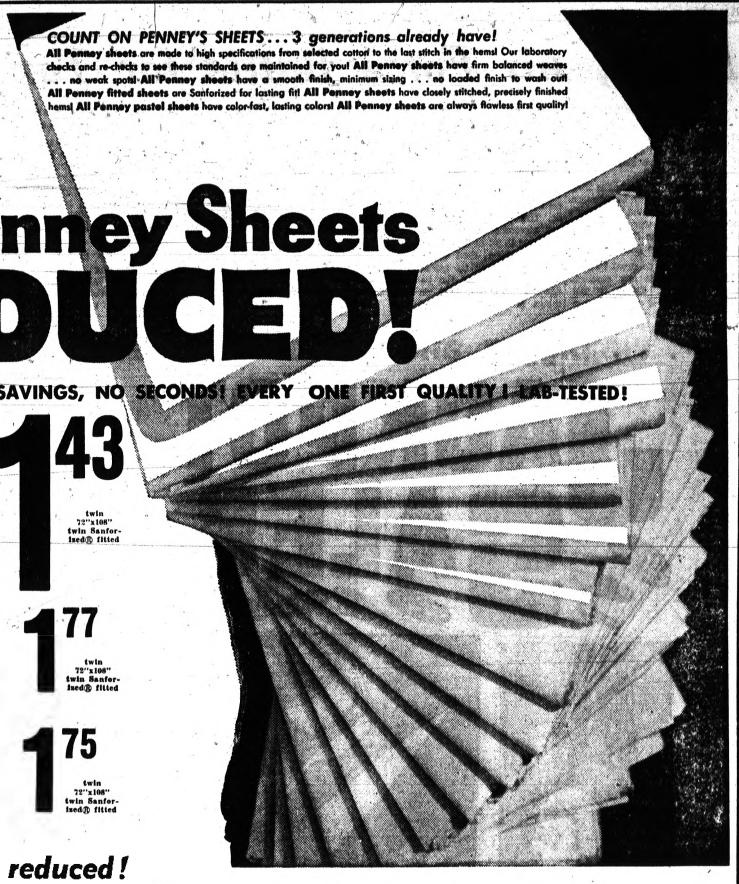

Barris, 55, is the composer of such song hits as "Mississippi Mud," "I Surrender, Dear" and "Wrap Your Troubles in Dreams."

Rivalry Forces Costly Duplication

NASA, Air Force Battle for Tax Dollars

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK—The young general asked, "What good is there in sending a man to the moon if, at the same time, we lose our freedom on earth?"

He was deep in one of the foremost yet least noisy intragovernment battles for the taxpayer's buck—the secret war between the Air Force and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Both sides go to great lengths to deny there is any conflict. But there is. There is not enough pooling of common interests because NASA stands for peace and the Air Force's mission is to use the same realm—space—for defence of the United States and, if necessary, war against the enemy.

The niceties of the two words are resulting in huge costs to the public. There is no duplicity involved, just awesome duplication.

"If we think of space only as a peaceful arena, then the military is an intruder in its research efforts," the man of the ballistics age said. "Yet we must 'do those things necessary for the defense of the U.S.' And so we, too, must go out into space."

In a sense the bromide, 'space is for peaceful purposes' is a kind of a slap at the military, which also has a mission out there. We've spent a lot of money in astrobiological studies, to permit men to live in that hostile clime.

There are probably 1,500 experts in that field in the U.S., and the Air Force has a thousand of them. NASA gets $80 million to build a similar set-up. To operate it, will it have to raid our staff?

"The President has never excluded space as a possible war theater. Gen. Curtis E. Lemay has said, in effect, 'if people ever populate space they'll probably get into some kind of war over it.' But the public prefers to think of it only as a peaceful realm—though it would be through space that we would be attacked in any war involving ballistic missiles.

We should share know-how, each side benefiting from the other's research fallout. We come so close together in some of our programs: manned inspection of objects in space, rendezvous in space—they're as much our concern as NASA's.

Each is tackling those jobs separately. Neither knows how to proceed as of now. And that runs into dollars. When we talk of today's space business you're talking about a business that is twice as big as General Motors. It could be run as efficiently if we worked together."

The attempt to lob Lt. Col. John Glenn into orbit for three trips around the earth is now targeted for the period between Jan. 17 and 24. The man is ready—and has been for a couple of years.

The Mercury capsule is ready (the astronauts cheered its performance during the two-orbit and then aborted flight of the chimpanzee Enos.

The 17 land and sea stations which will track Col. Glenn as he swings around the earth, are in the process of becoming manned or are steaming to position.

The one concern is the Atlas booster. It was 77 per cent reliable last year—but it's "the only wheel in town."

U.S. Jury Subpoenas Dallas Bank Officers

DALLAS (AP) — Officers of seven major Dallas banks have been subpoenaed for a Federal grand jury session in Amarillo Jan. 22.

* * *

U.S. Attorney Barefoot Sanders in Dallas said he was unable to state the reason because of laws governing the proceedings of grand juries.

* * *

The subpoenas ordered the officers to bring correspondence, memoranda and other communications between officers and employes of the banks concerning the changing of service charges for individual and commercial checking accounts and loans to individuals and commercial firms.

Five School Districts Borrow Against Aid

LANSING (AP) — Five school districts borrowed a total of $182,000 against anticipated school aid during the past week, the State Department of Public Instruction reported today. They are:

Brandywine public schools, Berrien County, $60,000; Baldwin, Lake County, $12,000; Summerfield Monroe County, $30,000; Orchard View District 13, Muskegon County, $20,000; Southgate, Wayne County, $60,000.

Malaria is the chief threat to health and life in tropical Africa, causing about one-third of all deaths among tribal Africans.

Luxurious Cruise to Be Cultural Experiment

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — By mixing in a little twist and gobs of sunshine, three Detroiters are betting a quarter-million dollars they can sell culture to fellow Americans.

To prove their point they have chartered the air-conditioned, luxury liner SS Atlantic for a 13-day Caribbean cruise, and to inculcate culture via lecture, seminar and reading they have hired actress Cornelia Otis Skinner; poet John Ciardi and art connoisseur Lloyd Goodrich.

The unique cruise will begin from New York Feb. 16 and end there March 1, after calls at San Juan, St. Thomas, Curacao, Kingston and Port-Au-Prince.

Meyer Davis' orchestra has been hired to furnish music; dancing instructors proficient in the Twist are going along; five bars will be in operation and the ship's theater will show American movie classics starring Charlie Chaplin and W. C. Fields, plus latest first-run films from Hollywood.

PAINTINGS ON BOARD

One hundred original paintings by American artists will be featured in two different shows, and the sponsors hope informal get-togethers "will create a Socratic atmosphere of free and open discussion."

Miss Skinner is an internationally known American actress. Goodrich is director of New York's Whitney Museum, and Ciardi is poetry editor of the Saturday Review.

This cruise, mixing Bach and boogie woogie, is the brainchild of three men, who are respectively president, vice president and secretary-treasurer of the American Cultural Association.

They are Harold O. Love, tax attorney, amateur actor and vice president of the archives of American art; Leonard Kasle, Detroit Board of Education member and vice president of Kasle Steel & Aluminum Co., and Lawrence Fleischman, carpet manufacturer, art collector and an advisor to President Kennedy on White House paintings.

* * *

The idea came to them while they were in Stratford, Ont., for a 48-hour weekend of watching Shakespeare.

They underwrote the $280,000 cruise cost personally, each taking an equal share, "because we didn't feel we could ask any of the institutions with which we are connected to assume the loss — if there is any loss."

'WE'RE NOT CRAZY'

"A lot of people think we are crazy; that people are not interested in cultural entertainment," Love said. "But we think differently. We want to make appreciation of the fine arts part of the normal recreation pattern of enjoyment."

Fleischman interposed: "It is our conviction that American culture, as represented by the theater, art and literature, makes a memorable traveling companion."

To make their cruise as luxurious as possible, the three are limiting reservations to 850, although the ship has a capacity of 900. The prices are scaled from $890 to $350 per person and will average out at about $675. Roughly, there'll be a crew member for each two passengers.

By Christmas, the trio estimated the cruise was 40 to 50 per cent booked, and Kasle said the list they're recommending to those included many nationally known who inquire that they book through travel agents, and they aren't going to ask for concessions from any government.

Actually they hope to make a profit, but they already have plans mapped to spend it — if any. Already past the dream stage is a culture-saturated trip to Peru to follow the history of the Inca civilization."

* * *

It would be nice, they agree, to start the next trip without their having to pledge their own money to make it possible or to be able to shave the prices to attract wider participation.

* * *

Their No. 1 aim, if culture cruises snowball, as they hope, is to make things cultural as popular and as well patronized as bowling men of letters, science and business. Some of the latter, Fleischman said, wrote that they welcomed a chance to enjoy the arts, "away from possible telephone interruptions."

* * *

"We could have picked and got a foreign ship cheaper," Fleischman said, "but we're selling American culture so we got an American flag vessel."

'62 Calendar Crowded With 1,037 Special Days, Weeks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — If Elsa Maxwell wants me to fill in as a fourth at bridge with her and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor anytime in 1962, she'd better name the time and place now.

Even then it's doubtful if I can oblige. My social schedule is terribly, terribly crowded.

Isn't yours? Isn't everybody? My, I've never seen so many worthwhile things that must be observed, attended or celebrated if one is to keep one's head above water in the social swim.

BOYLE

1,037 SPECIAL DAYS

My Baedeker in such matter is Chases' Calendar of Annual Events. This year it lists a record number of 1,037 special days, weeks and months to commemorate—200 more than last year.

★ ★ ★

If one celebrated them all consecutively, it would require 18 years, 3 months, 2 weeks and 6 days. But only the social-climbing riffraff try to celebrate everything.

Those of us who value a real place in society must carefully pick and choose.

EVERYONE APPROVES

Perhaps you'd like to glance at my own schedule for the next six months? I'm sure the late Emily Post would find it fundamentally sound. Everyone in our set approves.

★ ★ ★

Well, I started on the first of January with International Take a Deep Breath Day, as I believe it is the duty of all of us to take a more conscientious interest in world affairs, don't you?

SILENT WEEK

Right now I'm also supporting the University of Detroit's Silent Record Week. The idea: You fight noise by playing a silent record over and over.

All I have down for the rest of the month is Robert E. Lee's birthday and — oh, yes — Large Economy Size Week. The latter will enable those of us at the top to encourage the masses in the virtues of thrifty buying.

February is fairly barren except for Weight Watcher's Week, and the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln, George Washington and Susan B. Anthony. In our set we are overlooking National Kraut and Frankfurter Week—we prefer filet mignon; and Pencil Week—we all use gold ball-point pens.

GIVING BLUE BLOOD

In March we are concentrating on Red Cross Month—we're donating some of our best blue blood; Save Your City Week, and St. Patrick's Day. Some of us are toying with the idea also—just for laughs, mind you — of joining in the festivities of Buzzard Day, March 15th, the date each year when buzzards return to Hinckley, Ohio, to rear their young.

April is a giddy time, what with Make it Yourself With Wool Month, Bike Safety Week, and Honey for Breakfast Week.

May is noteworthy for Correct Posture Week, National Tavern Month — after all Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson drank in taverns; Be Kind to Animals Week, and Self-Denial Week. We may limit Self-Denial Week to a day in our set, as one can overdo this sort of thing.

TO LAUGH IN JUNE

For June our set has decided on a theatre program and will celebrate Sonly Natlogal Ragweed Control Month, Fresh-up Soda Bath Season, and National Humor Week, which we will spend aughing at the common people. Naturally, we would rather go stark naked than be caught observing National Bow Tie Week.

Among the other festivities we are passing up during the first half of the year are Guitar Week, National Loudspeaker Week, National Buttermilk Week, National Peanut Week, Pickle Ways for Lenten Days, and National Welded Products Month.

After all, you do have to draw the line somewhere. And in our set it has to be a firm line—if one is to preserve one's social standing.

But you celebrate what you want to. It's a free country, and there's something for everybody.

Group to Draft New Charter

To Rewrite Constitution of Council for Public Higher Education

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A committee was named here Tuesday to draft a constitution and by-laws for the new Michigan Coordinating Council for Public Higher Education.

The council is composed of representatives of each of the state's 30 tax-supported colleges, junior colleges and the state board of education.

As an official body it intends to make studies and recommendations toward improved planning and organization of Michigan's higher education programs.

Eugene B. Power, a University of Michigan regent, was named temporary chairman and M. M. Chambers, executive director of the Michigan Council of State College Presidents, was elected temporary secretary.

★ ★ ★

Selected for the constitution and by-laws committee were Dr. Eugene Elliott, president of Eastern Michigan University; Marvin L. Niehuss, University of Michigan vice president; Warren Buff, of the Michigan State University board of trustees; Chris Magnuson, of the State Board of Education, and James McCormick, secretary to the Wayne State University board of governors.

★ ★ ★

The proposed constitution and by-laws will be drawn up in time for presentation at a Feb. 12 meeting in East Lansing.

Communist Admission a Question of Timing

Castro Declaration a Warning to Red Bloc

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

When Fidel Castro chose to proclaim himself a "Marxist-Leninist until I die," the immediate question which arose was one of timing. Why had he selected this particular time?

Why also had he chosen to repeat it in terms just as forceful at least twice thereafter?

By openly proclaiming himself a Communist he had cut the ground from supporters who persisted in the belief that he was a high-minded agrarian and industrial reformer and he gave added ammunition to those who at Punta del Esta, Uruguay, on Jan. 22 would seek to label his regime as aggressive threat to inter-American peace.

In his own explanation, Castro said:

"We have a tremendous advantage now. The fact that we can make our revolution utilizing all ideological resources . . .

"Revolutionary theory has been joined with revolutionary deeds."

Except for the most determined of his apologists, Castro many months before had made his course clear when he declared Cuba a Socialist state and abolished free elections.

* * *

To the peasants to whom he addressed himself, the question of whether they lived under a Marxist revolution or a Castro revolution would seem to be mostly academic.

Block committees spied on neighbors. Bus lines broke down for lack of repairs.

As Castro railed against the United States and marched his 500,000-man militia, coffee beans went unpicked and long lines stood outside butcher shops which contained no meat.

MISS TRADITIONAL FEAST

Slaughter of pigs had been banned and no cattle under 10 years old were to be killed.

Cubans went without their traditional Christmas Eve feasts of suckling pig.

Other shortages ranged the field from eggs to glassware.

Since Castro exhibited no fear of any collective action which might be taken against him by the Organization of American States (OAS) at Punta del Esta and since no particular explanation was necessary for his own people, the possibility arose that Castro actually was addressing still another audience.

That audience would be other Communist nations to whom he had allied himself with more than 70 economic, technical and other pacts since 1960.

In effect, he was warning them not to abandon him now.

Including approximately $80 million worth of military equipment, Castro had placed Cuba nearly $400 million in debt to Communist nations.

But he needed more, for as shortages increased so did popular unrest.

Guerilla forces fought against him in the mountains and among the Cuban refugees flowing into Florida were more and more peasants and fishermen, the very ones who were to benefit most under Castro.

There was no doubt that Castro had set his course and it clearly was communistic.

But at Punta del Esta there appeared to be still no chance of collective hemispheric action against him. A resolution might give moral support to those who had broken with him but it would not call for sanctions.

According to the National Office of Vital Statistics, the stings of bees, wasps, hornets and yellow jackets take more lives than the bites of all the poisonous snakes. A survey over a period of several years showed that 85 persons died from insect stings and 71 from snake bites.

HELD IN SLAYING — Mrs. Dorothy Howard, 54, (left) of Brockton, Mass., is accompanied by police matron Mrs. Hazle McNamara as they leave police headquarters. Mrs. Howard is being held in connection with the strangulation of her daughter, Mrs. Gloria Eldridge. Mrs. Howard, wife of a bottling company executive, had been missing since her daughter's body was found Christmas Day. Police said she returned home Monday night and a member of her family notified police.

BLIZZARD HITS BRITAIN — Abandoned vehicles are scattered along Moorland Road between Brough in Westmorland and Bowes in Yorkshire after the big blizzard which blanketed most of Britain over the New Year's weekend. Ice and snow maintained a hold on most of Britain today despite weatherman's promise of a thaw. It is expected the thaw won't come until late in the week.

Portugal's Move No Surprise

U.N. Relations Are Stormy

An AP News Analysis

By MAX HARRELSON
Chief AP U.N. Correspondent

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —Portugal had a tough time getting into the United Nations. Now, after six years of membership, it is talking about getting out.

★ ★ ★

Repeated vetoes by the Soviet Union, starting in 1946, shoved aside the Lisbon government's applications for membership. Admission finally came in 1955—10 years after the organization was set up—as part of a package deal which brought in new members with divergent outlooks.

FEW SURPRISED

The six years of membership have been so stormy that few diplomats here were surprised when Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar let it be known Wednesday that "Portugal will surely be among the first countries" to quit the U.N. He set no date, however.

No nation ever has resigned from the U. N.

A poor relationship between Portugal and a majority of the United Nations virtually ruled out any possibility of U.N. action to help the Salazar government when India seized Goa last month. There was so little sympathy among Asian and African countries that Western leaders felt they would be fighting a lost cause if they tried to take the invasion before the General Assembly.

COULD MEAN BREAK

The breaking point could come later this month when the assembly is expected to condemn Portugal for asserted failure to heed an earlier U.N. appeal for major reforms in Portuguese Angola.

★ ★ ★

In the current assembly session, Portugal was condemned for refusing to give information on nonself-governing territories, as required by the U.N. Charter. The vote was 90-3 with only Portugal, South Africa and Spain voting against it. Portugal's Vasco Vieira Garin denounced the action as a move which would "encourage international lawlessness."

RIFT GROWING

One of the byproducts of differences between Portugal and the United Nations has been a growing rift in the Salazar government's relations with the Kennedy administration. While the United States did take the lead in seeking Security Council action in the Goa case, it had voted for the Angola inquiry last spring. That touched off angry anti-U.S. demonstrations in Lisbon.

The coming assembly debate on Angola is expected to subject Portugal to one of the sharpest attacks ever directed at a member nation. This was foreshadowed last spring when African countries hurled charges of mass slaughter and brutality at the Salazar government and demanded the immediate independence of Angola. Guinea's Diallo Telli called Portugal "the world's defendant No. 1."

THE PROFESSOR — Twenty-year-old Ervin J. Hackett (left) and former Ferris Institute Professor Alfred H. Witten, 35, puff on cigarettes in the Rockford State Police Post before being returned to Big Rapids to face charges of bilking Western Michigan banks and businesses of more than $22,000. They had been picked up in Phoenix, Ariz.

Legislators Girded for Fight Over Money at New Session

LANSING (AP) — Michigan legislators will open a new session next Wednesday faced with the same old problems, most of them preceded by a dollar sign.

It could be a short and comparatively peaceful meeting, but it will not be especially pleasant for lawmakers who set the course on taxes and spending.

Money — where to get it and how to spend it—will be the chief concern of the 1962 Legislature. It also will underlie most of the partisan battles between Republicans and Democrats.

The State Treasury deficit climbed to $71.7 million last July 1 and is still climbing. Most legislative leaders concede that the only way to balance the budget is to increase state taxes this year.

The question is, what to tax by how much.

Gov. Swainson, who saw the Republican majority junk virtually all his 1961 legislative program, probably will try again to push through a state income tax. He maintains it is the only fair way to produce adequate revenue to operate state government.

This year, however, he will abandon his kid-gloves approach in his dealings with GOP lawmakers. In speech after speech for the last six months, he has blamed economy-minded Republicans for inadequate mental hospital and higher education facilities and accused them of ignoring needs in other areas.

"This legislative session will be no love feast," the governor told a recent meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee. "The battle lines are drawn, and frankly I'm looking forward to this battle."

FEELING IS MUTUAL

Republican legislators, toughened by 12 years of verbal slugfests with former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, responded in kind.

"If the governor comes out swinging, Republicans will swing back, and just as hard," said Sen. Lynn O. Francis, R-Midland, GOP Senate floor leader. "However, I think this will be a short and quiet session."

Francis, like most other GOP lawmakers predicts the legislature will re-enact part of a $50 million package of nuisance taxes that expired last June 30. A penny-a-pack tax on cigarettes and a four per cent tax on telephone and telegraph bills, each worth approximately $10 million a year, are most frequently mentioned for revival.

A $1.25 per barrel tax on beer and a four per cent tax on liquor are other possibilities.

Sen. Carlton H. Morris, R-Kalamazoo, heretofore a staunch member of the GOP hold-the-line-on-spending contingent, already has indicated he will sponsor legislative action to finance a $100-million-plus building program at state colleges and universities with some of the nuisance taxes.

Francis thinks Republicans will be more willing to talk about an income this year than last. House Speaker Don R. Pears, R-Buchanan, and a good many others, don't think it has a chance of passage.

Pears says legislators will extend the sales and use taxes to cover services such as dry cleaning and auto lubrication, a $30 to $35 million revenue producer, before they resort to an income tax.

APRIL 20 DEADLINE

The constitutional convention, meeting in Lansing's Civic Center a block from the capitol, probably will influence the Legislature to adjourn on schedule April 20, a deadline set by joint House and Senate rules.

Stormy debates over proposed constitutional amendments, usually an annual affair, won't the things up this year.

Legislative headline hutters will be forced to share the spotlight with delegates to the constitutional convention, and likely will wait to see what the convention proposes before taking action in some areas.

Seat Is Vacant in State Senate

One New Member to Be Sworn In as Lawmakers Convene Wednesday

LANSING (AP) — There will be one vacant seat and one new member in the 34-man Senate when the legislature convenes next Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

The House is expected to have its full 110 members present when the gavel falls.

Republicans again will control both houses with a 56-54 majority in the lower chamber and a 22-11 domination in the Senate.

Harold R. Hughes, R-Clare, is the new member to be sworn into office in the Senate. Hughes was elected to fill the 28th district vacancy caused by the death of the late Sen. Charles T. Prescott, R-Prescott.

Gov. Swainson will have to call a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death Thursday of Sen. William E. Miron, D-Escanaba. He represented the 30th District which takes in Alger, Chippewa, Delta, Luce, Mackinac, Menominee and Schoolcraft counties.

Swainson is not expected to issue the call for the primary for several weeks. A general election will follow and the elections division estimated it will be several months before a successor will take office.

Miron's vacant seat, No. 30, meanwhile was draped with a black ribbon.

U2 Pilot Sleeps; Wants Oysters

Tells Story of Ejection From Disabled Plane, Night in Tree

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—U2 pilot Charles Stratton awoke from a six-hour sleep following a night perched in a cypress tree and asked, "Where can I get some oysters?"

The Air Force captain, 32, seemed more concerned with food than with his reconnaissance plane, whose shattered remains lay in a brush-covered, almost inaccessible part of the Pearl River swamplands on the Louisiana-Mississippi border.

NINE HOURS IN TREE

Although he survived his 40,000-foot fall, nine hours in the cypress tree above the snake-infested marsh and a daybreak rescue with not a scratch, Stratton had been placed in the Keesler Air Force Base hospital for some rest. He had been awake 29 straight hours.

★ ★ ★

Asked about his flight, he said there wasn't much to it. Stratton normally flies the high-altitude U2s on weather detection missions as part of the Defense Department's high altitude sampling program. Tuesday night's flight, however, was a navigational training flight from his home base, Laughlin Air Force Base, Del Rio, Tex., to Birmingham, Ala., and back.

★ ★ ★

"The plane began to malfunction—I think in the electrical system—and I decided not to stay around," he said.

SHOT HIMSELF OUT

Bringing the craft down from about 60,000 feet to 45,000 feet, he flipped the ejection switch and shot himself out at about 9:40 Tuesday night.

★ ★ ★

"Everything happened so fast, I didn't see what happened with the plane," he recalled.

Apparently, Air Force officials said, there was an explosion. Residents of the area reported seeing a bright flash. When search parties reached the crash scene, all that was left of the U2 was a wing, and it was rapidly sinking into the swamp.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force wasn't sure if any salvage attempt would be made.

Stratton fortunately landed in the cypress and braced himself between two limbs.

Using his walkie-talkie, he soon contacted overflying planes and stayed in touch with them through the night. At daybreak Wednesday, a ground rescue party reached him.

Baby Asphyxiated as Dad Fixes Car

HOLLAND (AP) — Pamela Mullins, 6-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mullins of Holland, died of asphyxiation Wednesday night while in her father's car.

Mullins told police the infant and his three other children remained in the auto while he made repairs at a service station.

When he got into the car, Mullins said, he discovered Pamela was unconscious and the other children were drowsy.

Mullins drove to Holland Hospital. The baby was dead on arrival. The other children were treated and released.

Concert Violinist Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Duci de Kerekjarto, 61, a concert violinist, died Wednesday of a heart attack.

Atlanta's Mayor Finds New Job Has 'Moments'

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Atlanta's new mayor, Ivan Allen Jr., is having his share of those embarrassing little moments.

When he arrived at City Hall for his inauguration Tuesday night the parking lot attendant greeted him thusly: "Buddy, I'm full up. Maybe you can find a place down there back of that church."

That little matter was quickly cleared up and Allen got a reserved parking space.

★ ★ ★

Then Wednesday, his first day on the job, he took his executive secretary, Helen Bullard, to lunch. When the check came, the mayor discovered he had no money. Miss Bullard came to the rescue.

One Youngster Writes Note of Thanks to Santa

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — The Columbus Ledger published hundreds of letters to Santa Claus during the pre-Christmas season. But only one youngster sent Santa a note of thanks.

A pen-printed note, addressed to Santa Claus and signed only "Skipper," said: "I have been a good boy. Thank you for everything you brought me Santa Claus. "I love Santa Claus."

Ruling Party of India Warns Reds, Pakistanis

PATNA, India (AP)—The annual meeting of India's ruling Congress party opened today with a warning that Chinese Communists and Pakistanis must follow the Portuguese off Indian soil.

Party President Neelam Sanjiva Reddy was loudly cheered when he declared India is determined to end their occupation of Indian territory within a short time.

GET SKI BUG — Dr. and Mrs. K. L. Bandi, natives of Indore, India, who are presently in medical training at Pontiac General Hospital, were anxious to find out what the sport of skiing was all about. They made a visit to Alpine Valley ski area on M59 and received some instructions on ski equipment from Don Piper. They indicated interest in taking up skiing, but it was agreed that the native dress called a sari wasn't appropriate for wearing on the slopes.

Ex-Ferris Teacher Dazzled Boy?

Judge to Advise Youth Held in Swindle

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — A longtime friend was scheduled to confer today with a Ludington youth held in connection with an alleged $22,500 swindle.

Ludington Municipal Judge Clay Olmsted and Ervin Hackett, 20, were expected to discuss a proposed polygraph test for Hackett. The youth was arrested Dec. 26 at Phoenix, Ariz., with Alfred H. Witten, 35, on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Both are being held in Mecosta County Jail pending examination Jan. 16 in Big Rapids Justice Court.

Witten, former Ferris Institute instructor, was charged with passing a no-account check for $2,500. Authorities say it was one of a long list of goods and services he obtained on the Big Rapids area by fraudulent means.

Hackett left Ferris as a junior after the opening quarter last December and is charged with obtaining $1,481 in merchandise under false pretense.

TWO ARRESTED

The two were arrested by FBI agents and Phoenix police after Hackett talked to Olmsted.

Mecosta prosecutor William A. Harper said Hackett insists he did not know Witten was wanted by the FBI until shortly after midnight of Dec. 25 when the youth called his sister at Ludington.

"He told us his sister advised him to call collect to Olmsted for advice because Witten was wanted by the FBI, possibly armed and dangerous," Harper said.

When Witten left their apartment to "take a ride and think," Hackett called Olmsted who advised him to surrender.

Hackett claimed Wednesday that he had to argue the FBI into arresting him.

The youth told Harper he called the FBI in Phoenix and nearly was brushed off when he said his companion was being sought. Hackett said he then pleaded that his call was urgent.

Hackett claimed he said he was afraid and told the FBI his companion was planning to leave. Finally, he said, they took his name and address.

Hackett told Harper that Witten returned and said it was time to leave. The youth said he was in the process of packing for about an hour and a half before authorities arrived.

Attorney Robert Miles represented the pair at their arraignment Wednesday before Justice Marvin West.

"Our concern right now is whether the boy has done any culpable acts."

"The authorities and I have not yet made up our minds whether he is just an impressionable and impressed young man who was dazzled by big promises and treated to things he never had by this glamour professor. I'm inclined to think that's probably the situation," said Miles.

Rep. Carl Albert Brilliant, Brave

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's a long road from Bugtussle, Okla., to Washington, D. C. and virtually certain election next week as the next majority leader of the House.

Carl Albert, son of a coal miner, has traveled it in 54 years. On the way this product of a one-room Oklahoma schoolhouse won a national oratorical contest, a Rhodes scholarship and a Bronze Star in the Pacific theater in World War II.

Since his election to the House in 1946, Albert's rise in its circles of power and influence has been quiet and sure. The withdrawal Wednesday of his only opponent for the office of majority leader, Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., makes Albert's elevation a foregone conclusion.

For the past seven years, Albert has served as Democratic whip in the House. His effective handling of this chore of rounding up colleagues for important votes put him in line to move up a notch to Rep. John W. McCormack's job as majority leader as McCormack moves up to speaker.

Albert is a self-effacing man. It is said that no one in the House — Democrat or Republican —dislikes him. Yet he is considered an able cog in the House leadership machine.

KENNEDY FAVORITES

Although the White House kept hands off the majority leader contest, President Kennedy made it known that he was equally appreciative of Albert's efforts in getting the administration program through the House last year.

Albert was born in a little coal mining community outside McAlester, Okla., May 10, 1908. It was known in those days as Bugtussle. Today it's known as Ellwerry Mound.

One of Albert's most cherished pictures among dozens on his office walls is a group portrait of his first grade class, given him recently by his first grade teacher at a luncheon back home.

He went to high school in McAlester and was class valedictorian. He won a national oratorical contest and a trip to Europe. After a brilliant career at the University of Oklahoma, he won another oratorical contest and a trip to Hawaii.

RHODES SCHOLAR

In 1931 he won a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford University in England, where he took two law degrees.

It is typical of Albert that the official biography issued by his office says of his military career: "He served in the Army in the Pacific theater in World War II."

What it doesn't say is that Albert enlisted as a buck private before Pearl Harbor, emerged as a lieutenant colonel and won a Bronze Star.

Albert is 5 feet 4 in his stocking feet. His southeast Oklahoma district is called "Little Dixie" and Albert has become famous there as "The little giant from Little Dixie."

He is a favorite with the neighborhood children when he goes home to McAlester. When they see his car parked they come to browse to see him. He and his wife, Mary, have two children, Mary Frances, 13, and David, 6.

As majority leader, Albert can be expected to be an administration stalwart. "I have a progressive voting record," he said Wednesday. "I supported the President's program right down the line last year."

Protection Pamphlet Ready This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department expects the new handbook on fallout protection to reach most post offices and civil defense offices by the end of this week.

It said Wednesday that in a few cases weather or remote locations could cause some slight delay in shipments.

The copies, upon receipt by local offices, are given without charge to citizens.

45 Local Teachers to Join Workshop on Art Techniques

An estimated 45 teachers from Pontiac public schools will roll up their sleeves Jan. 8, 10, and 11 to learn more about modern creative art education techniques.

The Art Workshop, in which the teachers will spend 18 hours of their own time, will be held at Whitfield School, 2000 Orchard Lake Ave.

The workshop is provided free by Binney and Smith, Inc., school art supplies manufacturers.

School officials responsible for workshop arrangements are Miss Marietta K. Spring, principal of McCarroll Elementary School; Mrs. Vida L. Walker, principal of Whitfield Elementary School; and Supt. of Schools Dana P. Whitmer.

Troy Adopts Federal Planning Program 701

1½-Year Battle Is Ended by the City Commission

TROY — A joint meeting of the city and plan commissions broke up in startled applause and smiles last night as the City Commission ended a stubborn 1½-year battle and adopted federal planning program 701.

At the request of Commissioner Robert J. Bargert, a rehearing of the 701 program and related problems was put to a vote at the last commission meeting. By a 4-3 vote, the group decided to hold the special joint meeting.

The 701 program was originally defeated at the commission table by a 4-3 vote, Bargert and Commissioners Vincent J. McAvoy and Wallace B. Hudson voting for the program. Mayor Robert J. Huber voted for a rehearing of the problem at the last meeting.

Under the 701 program, a municipality can hire a qualified planning consultant or firm to produce a "master plan" of its future land use. The federal government would foot 75 per cent of the cost of such a study and the city would pay the rest.

The program is administered by the state, acting as agents for the federal government. A fee of 7 per cent of the cost of the program is charged by the state for this service.

Troy's present planning program, with the firm, of Vilican-Leman & Associates, Southfield, acting as planners, will be stepped up. The additional revenues contributed by the federal government will quadruple the present planning budget of the city.

MUST FACE PROBLEMS

George Villcan, partner of the planning firm, pointed out last night that Troy had to face its planning problems squarely, by budgeting more money for them.

"If you can't afford a good program now," he said, "you'll have to face the problem of repairs later."

"The first decision is whether you want an accelerated planning program. Then decide how to finance it," he told the two groups.

Huber said there was no doubt that the city should have a speeded-up planning program but that Troy, not the government, should finance it. A tax increase to support the planning would amount to about two-thirds of a pack of cigarettes per month for a family, he said.

He objected to federal aid because it was unnecessary financially and might waive some of the city's prerogatives in choosing its own methods of growth through federal control of the program's purse strings.

Alfonse Bajgier, a member of the plan commission, stated that in his study of several municipalities working with the 701 program, he had found no evidence of federal intervention. He said he could cite only two examples of federal pressure on cities receiving grant money.

The commission investigated the possibility of hiring a full-time city planner and found that the applications ranged from $5,400 with little or no field experience to $10,300 with about six years of experience. Under the 701 program, a one-man planning staff must have a minimum of eight years experience to qualify for the federal grant.

In addition, Vilican urged, a one-man staff would be able to spend only about one-fourth of his time working on the master plan itself. The rest of his time would be spent on administrative details and would not be part of the 701 program.

'SOLUTION'

The solution for Troy, Commissioner Roy L. Duncan said, would be to have an experienced man work in the consultant's office on Troy's plan for the length of the 701 program, and then to hire him as the city's full time planner.

The commission passed Bargert's motion to initiate the 701 program by a 5-1 vote. Duncan cast a dissenting vote and Commissioner James F. Carey was absent.

Holly's Top Job Eyed by Oldani

Councilman Unopposed in Race for President on Primary Ballot

HOLLY — Village Councilman John F. Oldani will seek the office of village president in the Feb. 19 primary election here.

Oldani, 34, is unopposed since Aram Krikorian has announced he will not seek a third term of office as president. Oldani has served one year of a two-year term.

Other unopposed candidates for office are incumbents Clerk George J. Patterson, Treasurer Hulda Anderson and Assessor Grant Hulet.

Six candidates, however, have met the deadline for filing petitions for the three expiring council posts, including the incumbents and three former members of the council.

Seeking the two-year council seats are incumbents Allan Kerton, Leo C. Oberheim and John M. Vandensen and former members Samuel Wright, Paul O. Cobee and Clare Hubble.

With the election of Oldani, which is likely unless a sticker or write-in candidate upsets him, the vacancy left on the council would be filled with an appointment.

The village general election will be held March 12.

Two Coin Clubs to Hold Events Early Next Week

Two area coin clubs will meet early next week, one to complete plans for its coming exhibition, the other to have an auction of rare coins.

The Rochester Coin Club will make final arrangements at its meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. for its coming bourse to be held Feb. 4 at the Elks Temple, corner of Third and Walnut streets.

Many area dealers and exhibitors will be on hand for this annual numismatic event, its sponsors said today.

The club meets regularly at Woodward Memorial Library on the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

On Wednesday, the Alment Area Coin Club will hold a special meeting in Romeo at Lock's Cleaners, 111 W. St. Clair St. Feature of the meeting will be an auction of rare coins. The public is invited.

Ferris Requests OK of Record Budget

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — Ferris Institute is asking legislative approval of the school's proposed 1962-63 operating budget which stands at a record $3,547,147.

The request would be $1,013,632 more than granted for the present year. It aims to serve a 27 per cent increase in instructional load and restore curtailments blamed on earlier budget deficiencies.

It would increase the institute's enrollment by 600 students in the three-quarter academic year and restore a fourth-quarter operation geared to serve 1,510 students.

Ferris recently turned away more than 2,000 applicants for enrollment for lack of space and facilities.

Fatal Traffic Accident Involves Area Trucker

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Clare Porritt, 60, of Route 2, Alto was killed yesterday in the collision of his auto and a gravel truck at the U.S. 131-U.S. 16 intersection in suburban Cascade.

Kent County sheriff's men said Porritt and truck driver Arthur C. Budnick Jr., 23, of New Hudson, both apparently had a green light when the northbound motorist turned suddenly in front of the truck.

SCHOOL GOING UP — Construction is well under way on the new West Junior High School in Rochester being built on Old Perch Road, between Avon Road and Walton Boulevard. The main section of the building will accommodate 600 students. Capacity will increase to 900 when a two-story wing is added later. Part of the current $3.1-million building and expansion program in the Rochester Community School District, the facility is slated to be ready for occupancy next September. Schurrer Construction Co. of Pontiac is the general contractor.

Elected to Head Planning Group

White Lake Township Takes Step Toward Replacing Zoning Unit

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Charles Harris, present zoning board chairman, was elected last night to head the recently organized Township Planning Commission.

Other officers named by commission members are Edward Januszko, vice chairman, and Dr. Thomas Nugent, secretary.

Eventually the planning commission will replace the zoning board. This action was approved by voters last April.

Each of the three officers also are commissioners of certain phases of planning—Harris, commercial; Januszko, parks and recreation; and Dr. Nugent, health and safety.

★ ★ ★

The six other members of the planning commission also are responsible for specific areas of future development.

★ ★ ★

The group will meet again Feb. 14, at which time a member of the Oakland County Planning Commission is expected to be on hand to discuss the duties of township planners.

Watkins Sworn In as Captain of Police

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—Former Lt. Edward L. Watkins was sworn in as captain of police here yesterday by Township Clerk Mrs. Artie Gray.

Watkins was promoted to head of the police department by the Township Board Dec. 23. His promotion followed the firing of former policeman Edward A. Wilson, who had only been on the job for three days.

Following the swearing in, Watkins attended a meeting of the South Oakland Police Chiefs' Association being held in Oak Park.

Glenford S. Leonard, director of public safety for Oak Park, said that former Royal Oak Township Police Captain William S. Ware had never been invited to join the Association because of his "unsavory record."

Leonard said he is not yet sure how the other representatives of the 14 South Oakland cities will respond to the township entering the group.

The purpose of yesterday's meeting, the Oak Park official said, was to outline a mutual aid program between Oak Park, Ferndale and Royal Oak Township.

Junior Musicians to Play in Rochester

ROCHESTER — Members of the Rochester Junior Musicale will be guests at the next meeting of the Rochester Tuesday Musicale at the home of Mrs. Leonard Westermann, 433 Wesley St.

The program will be presented at 8 Tuesday evening by the junior club members who will participate in the Southeastern District Festival Jan. 27 at Wayne State University.

Featured will be Anita Zaremba, soprano soloist; Paula Collins, piano accompanist; Susan Letts, flutist; Pamela Cipaldi, violinist; and Margaret Wiggins, oboist.

The executive board of the Tuesday Musicale will meet at 7:30 p.m.

Owner's Back Turned; Cash Register Emptied

ADDISON TOWNSHIP—A sneak thief entered Jim's Grocery, 20 N. Rochester Road, at 7:30 last night and emptied the cash register while the owner's back was turned.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Jennie Fanzini told Romeo State police that a young man came in, ordered a case of beer and when she went to get it he scooped about $36 in cash from the drawer and fled.

To Seek Title of Junior Miss

Patricia L. Lysinger Chosen Walled Lake's Contest Representative

WALLED LAKE — Patricia L. Lysinger, a Walled Lake High School senior, has been named to represent the city in the Michigan Junior Miss Contest to be held in Pontiac Feb. 3.

Selected on the basis of talent, poise and personality, the 18-year-old is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Lysinger of 4538 Borland St.

The talent show was won by Patricia for her rendition of two hit songs from Broadway musicals, "Getting to Know You" from the King and I and "Wouldn't It Be Lovely" from My Fair Lady.

Patricia, who takes lessons from Mrs. Frank Balsam, voice instructor at the high school, plans a singing and acting career following her graduation in June.

SPONSORED BY JAYCEES

The local contest was sponsored by the Walled Lake Chamber of Commerce, with the judging done by Jaycee members Gene Schnelz, Don Parrish and Charles Davis.

The winner of the Michigan Junior Miss pageant in Pontiac will compete for the national title in March at Mobile, Ala.

The first candidate to enter the Michigan finals was Sarah Smith, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Smith of 525 Canal St., Milford.

About 30 winners of local contest throughout the state are expected to take part in the Michigan finals.

Ailing Warner Says He Won't Run for Mayor

TROY — Louis Yanich, campaign manager for Albert Warner, an announced candidate for mayor in the April election, said today that Warner will not run for the office due to his health.

★ ★ ★

Warner, area manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., was taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, on Dec. 15 following a heart attack. He was listed in serious condition by hospital authorities. He is 48 and lives at 2447 Derby Road.

Ex-Clerk Selected

Named Avon Trustee

AVON TOWNSHIP — The township board last night named Mrs. Frances O. Covert, former township treasurer and clerk, to fill the trustee seat left vacant by the sudden death of Trustee Wayne C. Frink Dec. 22.

★ ★ ★

The board voted on a secret ballot but failed to reach a conclusive majority of four votes for the candidate. A voice vote, with Supervisor Cyril E. Miller, Trustee Earl W. Dean and Treasurer Mrs. Helen V. Allen voting for Mrs. Covert, decided the issue.

Trustee Wayne Holman and Clerk Mrs. Thelma Spencer dissented and Trustee Lyle Knapp abstained, Mrs. Spencer explained that her vote was based on an objection to the board's procedure, not to Mrs. Covert.

The new trustee, who lives at 427 Pine St., had been in the township government for 32 years and retired from public service when her term as clerk ran out last April.

In 1930 she was elected township treasurer and two years later she won her bid for the post of clerk, a position she had held until last year.

★ ★ ★

Trustee Dean, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Spencer were named by the board to prepare a memorial to the late Mr. Frink.

Dean will be chairman of the committee which will submit the tribute in the form of a resolution to the board at its next meeting, Jan. 24, for approval and recording in the minutes.

MRS. FRANCES O. COVERT

Township Group Sets Annual Parley

FDA Limits Ads on Air Purifiers

Federal Agency Says Household Devices Not Effective as Claimed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Household air purifiers sold in retail stores are not effective in preventing or treating respiratory ailments, sinus trouble or allergies, the Food and Drug Administration said Wednesday.

* * *

The FDA made the statement in announcing the results of a court action involving the nationally promoted Puritron line of such devices.

A federal court decree filed here drastically limits the health benefits which advertisers may claim for household air purifiers, the FDA said.

The case involved Puritron devices seized in a Washington, D.C., retail store in October 1959, on charges of false labeling and misleading therapeutic claims.

CONTAINED FILTERS

Both contained small air filters with electric fans to circulate air, and ultra-violet lamps capable of producing a small amount of ozone gas, the FDA said.

"Such devices have no significant effect in ridding the air of contaminants and dust and will afford no relief to sufferers of asthma, hay fever, allergies and sinus conditions," the FDA said.

"The Puritron device is similar to many other so-called air purifiers that we have proceeded against."

Promotion literature which the court ordered condemned and destroyed claimed that the Puritron devices would provide adequate and effective treatment for such ailments.

Court Clerk Mistakes Warden for a Convict

TRENT, Italy (AP) — The deputy warden of the city jail received a letter Wednesday ordering him to transfer a convict named Vittorio Napolitano to Milan for trial.

The only Vittorio Napolitano in the Trent City jail is the deputy warden. He grabbed the phone and called the Milan court which sent the letter.

It turned out he was wanted to testify as a witness at a trial in Milan and some clerk just assumed anyone in jail must be a convict.

TIGHT SQUEEZE—This space between two Manhattan apartment houses is only 25 feet wide, but big enough for construction of another apartment near Central Park in New York. The sandwiched building will have 17 stories with a penthouse at the top.

School Annexation Defeated at Alpena

ALPENA (AP)—A proposal to annex the school districts of eight townships in Alpena County to Alpena's school district was rejected Wednesday by voters in all but one township.

★ ★ ★

The plan was defeated by a margin of about 5-to-3 in all but Sanborn Township, where voters gave their approval. Thus only Sanborn will be annexed.

★ ★ ★

Alpena's Board of Education resolved recently that no new high school enrollments from outside the city district would be accepted after August 1963.

Yen for Travel Carries Eagle to Chicago Suburb

CRETE, Ill. (AP)—A golden eagle that apparently flew far afield found himself the guest of a Crete, Ill., couple Wednesday—but not by choice.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steiber said they found the rare eagle caught in a small game trap in their back yard. Steiber stunned the eagle with a stick and offered it to Chicago's Lincoln Park Zoo.

Crete is a suburb about 28 miles south of downtown Chicago.

The natural habitat of the golden eagle is the mountainous regions of North America, Europe, Northern Asia and Northern Africa.

Community Shaped by Good Newspaper

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A good newspaper can do more than any other single voice to shape the future of a community and its citizens, says Gov. David Lawrence.

Speaking Wednesday night at the annual dinner for employes of the Gettysburg Times, Lawrence called a good newspaper the "conscience and leader" of the people it serves.

"It is a critic, a goad, an innovator," he declared. "It reports the news and it comments on the news. It tells its readers not only who has done what, when and where it happened—but it also attempts to explain why."

Sydney, a Koala, Escapes Cage to Nibble Leaves

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sydney, a playful, wide-eyed koala, is back in his cage today with his three wives.

The two-foot long marsupial from Australia, the only male koala among four at the Fleischhacker Zoo, disappeared Monday, perhaps longing for some independence in 1962.

Or maybe he was just plain hungry.

Sydney—not far from his cage at all—was found perched atop a 20-foot eucalyptus tree, nibbling leaves.

Koalas subsist almost solely on eucalyptus leaves.

White Woman's Legs Cause for Whipping

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A Johannesburg magistrate today sentenced a 20-year-old African to be caned because he told a white woman, "My, lady but you've got nice legs."

"I felt very embarrassed," the woman, Faith Jennifer Seaton, told the court. "It's bad enough when my own people say it."

★ ★ ★

Miss Seaton said Alfred Majola made the remark while she was waiting for a train at the Johannesburg station.

★ ★ ★

"I think the punishment is well suited to the crime," the judge told Majola after ordering eight cuts with the rod.

Falls From 3rd Floor, Lands in Snowbank

BOSTON (AP) — A six-foot snowbank probably saved the life of 2-year-old Robert Cook Wednesday.

The youngster toppled from a third floor window of his home at 69 Dix Street, Boston, and landed in the snowbank. He suffered only a fracture of the right leg.

The mother, Elaine Cook, said the boy opened the window while she was in another room.

Sea Lion Flips at Boss

OCEAN CITY, N.J. (AP)—That hungry sea lion who would rather eat free fish than hunt his own arrived for a meal again.

And after gobbling it down, he disappeared Wednesday just as he has three other times along the Jersey coast.

Al Sheridan, the man who thinks the freedom-loving animal might be his former pet, got close enough to the frisky creature to stroke him and offer him a few fishy tidbits, but that w- all.

When Sheridan tried to develop the friendship, the sea lion was off with a wave of his flippers, easily outdistancing Sheridan's row boat. Sheridan then borrowed a jet from the Coast Guard and went to sea again. But no sea lion was found.

Sheridan, an Island Park, N.Y., fisherman and boatbuilder, says his pet sea lion, Candy, departed from home waters two months ago when a family of fish swam by.

Sheridan tried to catch the animal Tuesday when it arrived at the dock of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noone, barking for food. But the sea lion took one glance at Sheridan and paddled away. After his failure Wednesday, Sheridan was disgusted.

The sea lion may be back for another handout, but Sheridan won't be here. He's gone home.

Frustrated Burglars Sought for Bank Try

DECKERVILLE (AP)—Police today sought would-be safecrackers who dismantled the door of the Sanilac County Bank vault here Tuesday night in an effort to reach $40,000 that was stashed away inside.

The would-be safecrackers worked well into the night removing the vault door's hinges and the wheel with which opening and locking bolts are operated.

Five workmen, however, took only 38 minutes to get the door back together again Wednesday and bank President Barney McConnachie reported "nothing missing."

Police theorized daylight apparently drove the burglars away before they could finish the job.

Quadruplets Are Born to Woman in England

ROCHFORD, England (AP)—Mrs. Ronald Meacham, 33, gave birth Wednesday to quadruplets — two boys and two girls.

The infants ranged from 2 pounds 7 ounces to 3 pounds 8 ounces. Mother and babies were described by a hospital spokesman to be "as well as can be expected." The Meachams have one other child, a 7-year-old son.

Montreal is one of the largest of all inland ports.

'Declaration of Rights' Faces Opposition at Con-Con

LANSING (AP) — A proposed "declaration of rights" for Michigan citizens will be reported out today to the constitutional convention, where it appears certain to run into stormy weather.

★ ★ ★

The proposal was drawn up by the committee on rights, suffrage and elections, headed by Dr. James K. Pollock, R-Ann Arbor, internationally known University of Michigan political scientist.

Debate on the "rights" article, which will be scheduled for next week, probably will center around such issues as the separation of church and state, search and seizure, and subversion.

In submitting its package proposal, the committee recommended that the "declaration of rights" become the first article of the new constitution. In the present document, it is article II.

The committee said it believed the liberties of the people are so fundamental to the constitution that they should be declared at the outset.

Some of the recommendations already have encountered opposition in two other committees which have concurrent jurisdiction over certain sections.

The issue of separation of church and state in the schools produced a flareup in the education committee, while members of the committee on the judicial branch objected to several proposed sections.

Pollock said he planned to submit his committee's report whether or not the other committees have concurred.

The education committee voted 11-4 to concur in the section on freedom of worship and banning of the use of public funds for "any religious sect or society, theological or religious seminary."

But delegate Jack Faxon, D-Detroit, one of the four dissenters, indicated that he would submit a minority report arguing that the word "seminary" is not broad enough and suggesting that the words "school or institution" be added.

Minority committee reports may be submitted by any three members.

OBJECT TO WORDING

The judicial-branch committee wrangled over one section that would allow parties to be represented in nonrecord courts by agents who are not attorneys.

Another section at dispute was a proposal to substitute the word "citizen" for "men" in specifying that fewer than 12 persons could constitute a jury in some courts. Committee members said a child is regarded legally as a citizen.

Chairman Robert Danhof, R-Muskegon, said that although the rights committee proposal would go to the floor regardless "we don't have to rubberstamp what it does."

Pollock's committee also proposed a change in the search and seizure section which now authorizes law enforcement authorities to use certain illegally seized weapons, narcotics and other evidence in criminal cases.

The proposed wording said that "evidence obtained in violation of this section shall not be used except as authorized by law."

The committee said its proposal would bring Michigan's constitution in line with a recent United States Supreme Court decision.

"The new provision also obviously has the effect of restoring to the legislature . . . a very large degree of discretion in which constitutes good policy on rules of evidence in relation to search and seizure," the committee declared.

Deletion of an entire section dealing with subversion also was recommended by Pollock's committee, with the explanation that the section appeared to place new limits on the liberties of the people "rather than to guarantee the liberties of the people against their abuse by the power of the state."

The committee added that the present provision was adopted at a time when the people "were momentarily diverted from their historic recognition of the necessity of preserving constitutional rights even for those persons who may be accused quite properly of the most despicable crimes against the public security and safety."

In other action, the convention debated for an hour and a half but came to no decision on a proposal to raise the minimums on property exemptions to debtors faced with forced sale, execution or other court orders.

The debate is scheduled to resume today where it left off.

Gimmicks Feature Dem Dollar Drive

LANSING (AP) — A wallet-size membership card and a donkey comic strip character are the selling gimmicks in a new Democratic drive for dollars.

State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown, chairman of the membership drive, said the party is taking a new approach in the annual effort to broaden the base of party participation. January and February are being stressed as membership months.

"If the first two days are any indication, then the next 60 days should prove the most successful of their kind in the history of the party," Brown said.

CARRIES PICTURES

The membership card is signed by John J. Collins, state chairman, and carries miniature pictures of President Kennedy, the late President Roosevelt, Gov. Swainson and former Gov. Williams.

Democrats are invited to pledge from $2.50 a year to $10 a month.

A smiling donkey on the front page of a promotion booklet is shown typing out "Now is the time for all good Democrats to come to the aid of their party . . ."

Twelve panels of cartoons show the donkey musing on such thoughts as: "I never thought of it before, but it takes a lot of money to keep our Democratic party running . . ." and "There's advertising, newspapers, billboards, radio, TV and other expenses . . ." and "From now on I'm going to really make it emphatic . . . I'll pay my dues and vote straight Democratic."

2 Men Charged in Extortion Plot

Claim Pair Demanded $25,000 for Release of Students Held by Reds

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—The FBI arrested two Santa Ana men Wednesday night on charges of trying to extort $25,000 in return for the release of two American students imprisoned in East Germany.

Intended victim of the plot, the FBI said, was Edgar E. Pankey, a rancher at nearby Tustin, Calif.

Pankey's son, Victor S. Pankey, and his nephew, Gilbert Ferrey, both 20, were arrested by East German police last September. They were shortly afterward sentenced to two years in prison on charges they had tried to smuggle a girl student into West Germany in the luggage compartment of their car.

CHARGED WITH EXTORTION

Charged with federal extortion charges were Dennis Shane Hatrick, 23, and Albert Bruce Dyer, 23. Both are unemployed. They are brothers-in-law.

William G. Simon, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles FBI office, said Pankey received a letter on Sept. 19, 1961, a few days after the two youths were seized by the Communists.

The letter instructed the elder Pankey to deliver $25,000 if he wished to see his son again soon. Simon said the demand was on the basis that a release of the boys would be effected through alleged contacts in West Germany and in East Germany. Simon did not say whether any such contacts had been discovered.

Hatrick had a 22-caliber revolver on him when arrested but offered no resistance, Simon said.

Offers New Course in Symphony Music

A course entitled great symphonic music has been added to the continuing education division winter term at Michigan State University Oakland.

The course, designed to increase listeners' enjoyment and understanding of symphonic music, will be given 7 to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays by Dr. Robert Holmes. The fee is $25.

The term starts the week of Jan. 15, and further information is available by writing to division of continuing education, Michigan State University Oakland.

Top-of-the-world feeling

(His Dad shares the feeling—thanks to the family's new car that's backed by a quality dealer and quality service.)

As appeared in the January 6th issue of The Saturday Evening Post

Tom, Jr. isn't driving a 2-foot-power kiddie car. He's pretending he's behind the wheel of his Dad's spanking-new 1962 convertible and he's having the ride of his life.

Who had the best time—Tom or Tom, Jr.—when they picked out their new car at their franchised new car dealer? Hard to say. Both saw the widest collection of new models ever. Saucy compacts. Glamorous hardtops. Wagons that would hold a power mower, a Great Dane, and a Little League team. And the convertible they couldn't resist.

They saw a lot of other things. The dealer's big building. All the costly equipment he's invested in for the proper servicing of modern cars. Four men in the service department for every man in the showroom. You see, Tom's dealer is a true exponent of the free enterprise system. He's going to be in business for a long time.

To Tom's dealer—and to thousands like him—making the sale is the beginning, not the end, of the transaction. He takes the old car in trade. Arranges insurance and financing. Preconditions each new car. Inspects each car he's sold at regular intervals. Provides a huge inventory of spare parts (for every model, for every year). Stands ready to provide dozens of different services.

No small job, all this. No wonder Tom is feeling happy and satisfied about his new car. He knows his valuable new car is watched over by a dealer who is a respected member of his community—a man who is civic-minded—who is the kind you would want to do business with.

Some day Tom, Jr. will have outgrown his kiddie car, his scooter, and his bicycle and will be ready for the big step up to his own car. The same dealer that sold cars to his father will be there—ready to help and provide complete, dependable automotive service. Once again, Tom, Jr. will feel like he's on top of the world!

To Quiz Suspect in Robbery Case; One Is Released

An alleged assailant of a Pontiac man who was beaten, robbed and thrown from a car Tuesday afternoon will be examined at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in Pontiac Municipal Court.

* * *

George T. Long, 40, 57 Fairgrove Ave., demanded the examination yesterday in his appearance before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum on a charge of unarmed robbery. Long was being held today in the Oakland County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Jerry L. Lemmert, 20, 193 Michigan Ave., who was being held for questioning was released yesterday by Pontiac police.

The robbery victim, Lee Kakoska, 56, of 158½ Baldwin Ave., told police Lemmert did not take part in the robbery.

Kakoska was dumped from a car at Congress and Elizabeth streets after he was robbed of a wristwatch, coat and wallet containing $40.

* * *

Lemmert called police about an hour after the incident occurred and said he had Kakoska's wallet. Lemmert identified Long as one of the assailants. A second man still is being sought by police.

To Reveal Plan for S. Viet Nam

U.S., Asian Nation to Tell of Joint Program to Resist Communism

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and South Viet Nam will announce tonight a joint economic program designed to stiffen South Viet Nam's resistance to Communist subversion.

The new program includes many of the economic reforms recommended last summer by a U.S. mission headed by Dr. Eugene Staley of the Stanford Research Institute.

The program is designed to strengthen South Viet Nam's fiscal operations, eliminate corruption and waste and put more funds into the government treasury to help it finance the expanded campaign agains Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

* * *

The program also calls for joint U.S.-South Viet Nam teams to make recommendations on assistance projects which will increase agricultural production and help provide more communications and more schools.

Horse Jumps Fence, Demolishes Car, Self

[illegible] (AP) — A horse [illegible] car Wednesday.

The horse was killed and the car demolished.

The driver, Paris Kazee Jr., San Francisco businessman, was taken to a Woodland hospital with head cuts and a broken nose.

The big, brown mare's leap cleared a dividing line fence onto Kazee's car as it moved west along busy U.S. 40.

Rescue Freighter Crippled by Leak

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —The freighter Catalina is headed for repair docks in Tampa today after being towed into Tampa Bay with water leaking into her engine room.

* * *

The crippled ship was in danger of sinking in the Gulf of Mexico during the past three days when 10 feet of water flooded her boilers, shutting off power.

* * *

The Coast Guard said a broken plate or sprung seam probably was responsible for the water leakage.

Congress Conservative and Quite Likely to Remain So

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Through most of 1962 politicians of both parties will whoop it up about next November's congressional elections but the outcome isn't apt to make much difference.

This is a conservative Congress and is likely to remain so whether the Democrats retain control and even pick up a few seats or there is an upset and the Republicans take charge.

Congress is divided into three main groups. There are some liberals and reactionaries in both parties. But the big, middle, dominant group in both is conservative.

And just because this is so, the further an individual stands back from American politics and looks at it the harder it is to distinguish a Democrat from a Republican. The Democrats have a big majority in Congress where there are 437 House seats and 100 Senate seats.

This is the score: In the House—258 Democrats to 174 Republicans (with five vacancies in seats which had been held by Democrats); in the Senate—64 Democrats to 36 Republicans.

You might wonder, and justly so with these big Democratic numbers, how large a Democratic margin President Kennedy feels he needs to get Congress to bless all his efforts.

Probably nobody, including Kennedy, could give a flat answer to this and for several reasons.

1. There's always some shifting around on issues but on any single one — when conservative Southern Democrats, about 90 of them, team up with very conservative Republicans against him, Kennedy is in trouble.

And, since the same Southern Democrats got elected repeatedly this balance of power isn't in for a change even if the Democrats gained some new members in November or the Republicans won control.

2. While the final voting is done on the floor of both Houses, the key to much of the success or failure of any administration lies in the committees of both houses and with their powerful chairmen.

And in Congress the conservative Southern Democrats dominate the committee chairmanships. Of the 20 major committees, twelve have Southern Democratic chairmen. In the Senate, with 16 major committees, Southern Democrats are chairmen of nine.

3. On some very important issues the measure of success can depend on how much fight the President has in him for his program.

* * *

In 1961, on some of the most important issues, Kennedy has shown little fight or none. On medical care for the aged and federal aid to education, which ran into opposition inside and outside Congress, Kennedy went a good deal less than all out.

* * *

On civil rights—although he had promised in the 1960 campaign to make this one of the first orders of business if he won—he gave up altogether and didn't even offer any kind of program, mild or otherwise.

If he had, he might have angered the Southern Democrats whose support he wanted on other things.

And this year, before Congress even comes back into session, it seems clear he will bypass civil rights again, perhaps put up a fight for medical care, and may be make only a mild stab at aid to education.

* * *

For six of his eight years President Eisenhower had to deal with a Congress by Democrats. They were conservative congresses, too, and both the programs he offered and those that were passed were conservative.

If Kennedy had to deal with a Republican Congress — since he's been pretty conservative himself—the score would probably be no worse and no better than Eisenhower got from the Democrats.

The general for the Democrats in getting legislation through in the Eisenhower years was the then Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, now vice president.

If he had been president in 1961, instead of Kennedy, judging from the way both men have operated he probably would have handled Congress the way Kennedy did and gotten from it just about the same as Kennedy did.

NO BUS, NO FUSS—This youngster would have been able to skip classes during New York's bus strike if mom hadn't been so ingenious. Stymied when the youngster's usual crosstown bus from Manhattan's West Side to East Side was canceled by the walkout, Mrs. Carol Beichman put her 9-year-old son Charles on the back seat of the family scooter and got him to his private boys' school classes on time.

Glenn's Orbital Flight Delayed Another Week

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., will have to wait at least an additional week before an attempt is made to rocket him aloft as the first American to orbit the earth.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration Wednesday postponed the launching from Jan. 16 to Jan. 23 because of a minor fueling problem with the Atlas booster rocket.

The word came from reliable sources close to the Mercury Project, NASA, which has not announced any date for the launching, declined comment on the report.

The informants said the difficulty could be corrected with only a day or two delay but that NASA officials decided to call a seven-day hold to make a complete check.

Glenn, 40, reportedly was disappointed by the postponement, the second for the launching. He was not available for comment.

★ ★ ★

The Marine lieutenant colonel originally was slated to make the orbit trip on Dec. 20 as the space agency pushed to achieve the flight in 1961, the same year the Soviet Union succeeded in orbiting two cosmonauts. But with pressure mounting and time running out, NASA decided to put the firing off until January.

CRAFT IN PLACE

Glenn's spacecraft, which was placed atop the Atlas Wednesday, is intended to whirl three times around the world in 4½ hours at a speed of 17,500 miles an hour.

A prime factor in the decision for a week's delay was the large fleet of recovery ships to be deployed across the Atlantic Ocean for the launching. Some were to have sailed from Atlantic Coast ports in a day or two so they would be in proper position off the West African coast by the Jan. 16 launching date.

★ ★ ★

NASA, the sources reported, does not want to risk stationing the ships before the Atlas trouble is corrected and then recalling them for re-supply before sending them out again. This could result in a lengthy delay of the shot.

Victim of Holdup Sizes Up Bandit, Then Floors Him

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Charles A. Moore Jr., a chiropractor, was getting ready to close his office Wednesday night when a masked man walked in and pointed a gun at him.

Moore, 45, is 6 feet 2 and weighs 255 pounds. He surveyed the gunman, who looked to be about 5 feet 7 and 150 pounds.

Grabbing for the gun, Moore forced the holdup man to the floor. Gasping for mercy, the would-be bandit relinquished his weapon. Moore called police, who booked Bennie Richard Campbell, 23, for investigation.

Bowling Alley Burns in Detroit

Damage to Red Mill on Woodward Is Estimated at $250,000

DETROIT (AP) — A 21-lane bowling alley in midtown Detroit was destroyed by fire Wednesday night for the second time in six months. Three firemen suffered minor injuries in battling the blaze.

Fire Chief Laurence J. Daly estimated damages to the Red Mill Bar & Recreation at Woodward and Grand Boulevard at $250,000.

He said cause of the fire has not been determined, but added, "however, a "mysterious explosion" preceded the fire—blowing a 50-foot-wide hole out of the rear brick wall of the building.

The combination bowling alley, bar and restaurant was hit by a $200,000 fire last Aug. 29 and was being renovated.

★ ★ ★

Firemen who were injured were Joseph Maazoline, 40, who was taken to Receiving Hospital with an injured right foot, and Richard Ely and Russell Lucas, who were overcome by smoke and treated at the scene.

Three adjoining buildings all suffered minor smoke damage.

The fire was reported at 11:15 p.m. by the owner, Bernard Kambos, who was in the bar at the time with his wife and about 14 customers. Firemen fought the blaze for more than three hours.

Francoise Wants to Teach Girls in U.S. to Caddy

NEW YORK (AP) — Francoise Autiero, the attractive blonde who caddied for Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, wants to teach American girls how to caddy.

Francoise, 23, arrived here Wednesday with her husband, Lucien, a fish market operator. She plans to spend a week in New York and then go to Florida, where she will teach girl caddy candidates at the new Doral Country Club in Miami.

Wearing a chic green dress reaching to just above the knees, Francoise told newsmen that all girl caddies have to remember is to "be amiable and to give advice—and, of course, not lose the ball."

Powell, Allyson Now Reconciled

Dick Says They'll Set Aside Divorce Decree; Children Happy

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"You just can't break up after 15 years," says actor-producer Dick Powell.

The entertainer was explaining to newsmen Wednesday that it's no secret that he and his wife, actress June Allyson, have long since reconciled.

Miss Allyson, 38, was granted an interlocutory divorce decree last Jan. 31 after she charged extreme cruelty and testified Powell, 57, was "always tied up with business."

Powell said the couple soon will file briefs to set aside the decree. California law requires a one-year waiting period before a final decree is granted.

Powell said they have the same home and have been appearing in a public together for several months, since Miss Allyson suffered a throat ailment. The diminutive actress has fully recovered after two operations, Powell said.

Miss Allyson commented: "It was a divorce that never should have been. Besides both of us realized we had made a horrible mistake—that we loved each other. It was the children who brought us together again. Both Pamela (13) and Rickie (12) kept telling us we were both idiots. Dick and I finally got the message."

Insuring of Aged Being Considered by Blue Cross

CHICAGO (AP) — Walter J. McNerney, president of the Blue Cross Association, has proposed that the health needs of the aged be met through a special Blue Cross program aided by the federal government.

McNerney made the suggestion Wednesday at a joint meeting of Blue Cross and the American Hospital Association. The two groups met separately today to consider the proposal.

He said Blue Cross presently serves five million persons 65 years and older with a program giving special rates. Federal help would be needed, McNerney said, if his organization were to cover all 16 million Americans in the over 65 age bracket.

Man Pleads Guilty to Theft in Church

WARREN (AP) — A Warren church usher faces a maximum fine of $100 and up to 90 days in jail today after pleading guilty to charges of stealing from Sunday collection envelopes.

Bernard G. Carter, 46, will be sentenced Jan. 24. He appeared before Warren Municipal Judge Verno Boewe Wednesday on a misdemeanor charge of embezzlement.

Carter was arrested Nov. 5 after a Warren police sergeant hid in the Trinity Lutheran Church balcony and claimed he saw Carter taking envelopes from the collection basket.

Felony charges of larceny in a building and larceny by conversion were dismissed at the request of the Rev. Wilton H. Fluegge, who said Carter had made restitution of $1,500.

13 Mountain Climbers Die on Japanese Peaks

TOKYO AP—At least 13 mountain climbers have lost their lives trying to scale Japanese peaks in treacherous weather since Jan. 1, police reported today.

Another 38 were injured in climbing accidents blamed on blizzards, high winds and avalanches.

Model of Booster Exhaust Nozzle Test Fired OK

NEW YORK (AP)—Avco Corp. announced at Wilmington, Mass., today that scale models of a new type rocket exhaust nozzle being designed for future huge space boosters have been successfully test fired.

Avco designed and built the subscale nozzles for the proposed Nova class of solid-propellant rockets in a project sponsored jointly with United Technology Corp. of Sunnyvale, Calif.

In initial tests at Sunnyvale last week, each of the subscale nozzles was fired successfully for periods of up to two minutes, long enough to confirm their adaptability for Nova booster requirements Avco said.

Nova is being designed for manned flight to the moon.

Swainson Pays Tribute to Miron

Late Escanaba Dem Senator to Be Missed, Says Governor

ESCANABA (AP) — Gov. Swainson paid tribute Wednesday to State Sen. William E. Miron, D-Escanaba, who died here of a heart attack.

"The loss of Sen. Miron's leadership will be keenly felt in the Senate. Sen. Miron compiled a long and distinguished record of public service," said Swainson.

"He was a fine public servant who will be sorely missed not only by his constituents but by the entire state he served so well," Swainson added.

Before being elected to the Senate from the 30th District in 1956, Miron had been sheriff of Delta County 24 years, from 1933 to 1957. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1958 and 1960.

All three of his Senate elections were tight races against Kent T. Lundgren, Menominee druggist and Republican constitutional convention delegate. Miron won twice by less than 125 votes in the district that includes Alger, Chippewa, Delta, Luce, Mackinac, Menominee and Schoolcraft counties.

★

Lundgren praised the legislator as "a great competitor and personal friend."

The silver-haired lawmaker was one of the more taciturn members of the Senate, joining only occasionally in floor debates. He was a member of the committees on agriculture, appropriations and elections.

Miron was born at Chassell in Houghton County Oct. 2, 1888 and was a timber cruiser and soldier in World War I before turning to politics.

More than half of the total area of Oregon is under federal control. This includes 13 national parks and forests, two national park service areas, and grazing acreages.

Dem Liberals Taken to Task

GOP's Sen. Younger Resents Adams', Kelly's Expressed Views

LANSING (AP)—A spokesman for conservative Republicans in the Senate, Sen. Paul C. Younger, R-Lansing, Wednesday said he resents comments by the newly appointed attorney general and Supreme Court justice that they will reflect liberal views in approaching their new positions.

The liberal pledges were made in separate statements by Paul A. Adams, new Supreme Court justice, and Frank J. Kelly, named to succeed him as attorney general. Both were appointed by Democratic Gov. Swainson.

Younger said the views of Adams and Kelly implied that a need now exists in Michigan for spokesmen who will espouse the cause of liberalism.

"There is an implied determination in the statements of the two men to view their responsibilities in important legal positions, from a completely narrow point of view," Younger said.

* * *

"It is inconceivable to me that any man serving in public office would, by any word or action, indicate that his efforts will be directed primarily in behalf of any single segment of the population," he said.

Younger said a member of the state's legal department or the court system "cannot permit himself to become arbitrarily committed to any single cause or viewpoint."

* * *

"In all cases," Younger said, "the public servant acts responsibly only when his decisions are based solely on the merits of each individual case."

There's a Fee for Shooting in Central Park

NEW YORK (AP) — The city has started charging fees for commercial still photographers using Central Park, long a popular setting for pictures used in advertising and similar endeavors.

* * *

Commercial television and motion picture photographers have paid for use of the park for several years.

* * *

A spokesman said the city comptroller's office had ordered the fee for commercial still photographers to offset the cost of processing a large increase in the number of permits issued for this type of photography.

* * *

He said the charge is $10 for 10 or fewer models, $5 for each animal used, $5 for each vehicle and $5 for equipment.

Czech Diplomat Seeks Asylum in W. Germany

NUERNBERG, Germany (AP) — Josef Munzar, a 51-year-old Czech diplomat, has sought political asylum in West Germany, federal refugee officials reported Wednesday.

Officials said Munzar came from Vienna where he was a trade expert in the Czech embassy.

THE DISTORTED PICTURE

Most of us have a distorted picture of our children's physical fitness. We know that today's youngsters are taller and heavier than yesterday's. But what about their strength, endurance, flexibility and stamina?

The facts that our youngsters' physical fitness has slipped — slipped alarmingly. Now's the time to call a halt to the sedentary way of life that's sapping their vitality.

What can you do about it? At your next PTA meeting, you can urge your child's school to adopt a vigorous program for physical development.

Such a program of vigorous, daily exercise has been put into effect in many schools — providing youngsters the opportunity to develop their bodies—and to keep them fit.

Find out whether your child's school has an adequate program. And, if not, why not?

HOMESPUN SOUP — Potato soup with a bonus . . . freshly shredded cabbage, carrots and sliced franks give added nutritional substance to an old-fashioned favorite. Frozen condensed cream of potato soup is the base.

Bake Up Corn Bread for Stuffing

Roast pork is wonderful eating. Particularly when given extra flavor with savory corn bread stuffing with onion and celery in it.

STUFFED PORK SHOULDER
(Makes 6 servings)

1 4-pound fresh boneless pork cushion picnic shoulder, pocketed
Salt and pepper

Stuffing

1 recipe corn bread, crumbled
¾ cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¾ teaspoon poultry seasoning
½ cup melted butter

Heat oven to slow (325 degrees F.). Rub outside of meat and pocket with small amount of salt and pepper. To make stuffing, mix together all ingredients except melted butter and toss lightly to moisten. Lightly fill pocket of meat until pork is well done with no tinge of pink. (Meat thermometer should register 185 degrees).

Do not baste during roasting time. (Bake extra stuffing in greased 1-quart casserole during with stuffing. Close openings with skewers; tie with cord.

Place meat, fat side up, on rack in shallow roasting pan. Score surface of meat, making shallow cuts. Roast uncovered in preheated oven (325 degrees F.) 40 to 45 minutes per pound or last 30 minutes of roasting. Baste occasionally with pork drippings. Makes 6 servings.

Corn Bread

1 cup enriched corn meal
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg
1 cup milk
⅛ cup shortening, soft

Heat oven to hot (425 degrees F.) Sift together dry ingredients into bowl. Add egg, milk and shortening. Beat with rotary beater until smooth, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat. Bake in greased 8-inch square pan in preheated oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Cheddar Gets a Grade

Officially graded cheddar cheese is now available. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's AA shield, used for butter, is now also used for cheese that measures up to certain standards for flavor, body and texture, finish and appearance, and color.

Tuna and Cream Cheese Team Up in New Dip

Because of its delicate flavor, tuna in vegetable oil combines companionably with a variety of foods. This winter, it teams up with cream cheese and comes to the party.

To make Tuna Cheese Dip, combine two 3-ounce packages of cream cheese with two cans tuna in vegetable oil, and season to taste. Stir in 1 cup commercial sour cream and serve the dip with crackers.

Hearty Soup Is Good in Winter

As bracing as a wintry day is the old-fashioned, heart-warming fragrance of a fine soup bubbling on the kitchen range. "Penny-Wise Potato Vegetable Soup", shown here, is of the hearty and sustaining variety, an excellent luncheon partner for all kinds of sandwiches and salads.

* * *

Originating with a can of frozen condensed cream of potato soup, this good and budget-minded dish takes on extra substance and gains nutritional glory through the addition of butter-cooked, freshly grated vegetables and sliced frankfurters. Serve the soup steaming to 3 or 4 hungry persons.

Penny-Wise Potato Vegetable Soup

2 frankfurters, sliced
½ cup shredded cabbage
¼ cup finely chopped carrot
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10¾ ounces) frozen condensed cream of potato soup
1 soup can water

In saucepan, cook frankfurters, cabbage, and carrots in butter until frankfurters are lightly browned and vegetables are tender. Add soup and water. Heat, stirring now and then. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Avocado Halves Hold Tuna Salad

An attractive salad to serve several of your "girl friends" when you ask them to lunch.

Tuna-Stuffed Avocados

1 can (7-ounces) solid white tuna
¾ cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon drained capers
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
2 large avocados
Salad greens

Drain oil from tuna; rinse with water; drain. Flake tuna coarsely with a fork and mix with mayonnaise, capers and vinegar; refrigerate several hours or even overnight to allow flavors to blend.

Cut avocados in half lengthwise; twist apart; remove seeds and skin. Arrange on salad greens; fill avocado cavities with tuna mixture. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Interstate Hams May Have No Extra Moisture

If you choose a ham which has been processed and shipped across state lines, it will not weigh more than when it went into the process of curing and smoking. If you choose a ham processed in Michigan, it could weigh more than it did originally, if the processor added more than 10 per cent moisture before curing.

Beginning November 18, the Secretary of Agriculture placed federally inspected hams under the original ruling of no moisture in excess of the weight before curing. This does not influence hams smoked and sold within states without federal inspection. Food shoppers will ultimately express their preferences by choices at the meat counter.

Sliced Brazil Nuts Add New Taste to Vegetables

If you are looking for an interesting new way to chevy up vegetables, Brazil Nut Sauce is the answer. For four to six servings of vegetables, melt ¼ cup butter, add ½ cup sliced Brazil nuts, and cook over low heat for 5 minutes. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice, heat a moment longer, and serve over green beans, asparagus, or broccoli. Brazil nuts add crisp texture and mellow flavor to sauces.

Lorenzo Low-Caloried

For a delicious low calorie Lorenzo dressing, mix 1 cup low calorie salad dressing with ½ cup chili sauce and ½ cup chopped watercress. Chill thoroughly and shake well before using. Marvelous on a mixed cooked vegetable salad.

Put Asparagus in Open Face Sandwiches

Fix some elegant sandwiches for some "elegant" friends.

Copenhagen Open Sandwiches

18 spears cooked asparagus
⅛ lb. yellow cheese
½ cup milk or light cream
6 hamburger buns
6 slices bacon
6 slices bacon
⅓ cup pimentos

Melt cheese in double boiler with milk. Fry bacon slices crisp; drain and cut in half.

Toast halves of hamburger buns, arrange on hot plate and pour melted cheese over halves. Add bacon strips and arrange asparagus tips on top.

Crisscross pimentos over asparagus and garnish with parsley if desired. Serve immediately with potato chips and pickle.

Canned Peas Can Stand Variation

Green peas served with lamb may be old hat, but they taste good. They're different, too, if you use this simple way to vary them.

Savory Green Peas

2 cans (each 1 pound and 1 ounce) green peas with onions
1 cup thin celery crescents
1 or 2 tablespoons butter (if desired)

Turn peas and onions plus the liquid from just one can into a medium saucepan; add celery. Heat; drain; stir in butter, if used. Makes 10 to 12 servings. (Reserve all liquid from peas and onions for another use.)

Heat Does It

Ever notice that your home-baked bread, rolls or coffee cake have a "yeasty" flavor? This happens, usually, because the yeast dough was allowed to rise in too warm a place.

Cream the Spinach for Fine Eating

Even men who think they don't like spinach, take to it when it is fixed this way.

Swedish Creamed Spinach

1 package (10 ounces) frozen leaf spinach
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
½ cup milk
½ teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon sugar

Cook the spinach according to package directions; drain and reserve ½ cup cooking liquid. Melt butter over low heat in a saucepan; stir in flour. Add ½ cup spinach liquid and milk. Cook and stir until thickened; mix in drained (and slightly chopped) spinach, lemon juice and sugar; reheat. Add more salt if desired. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Add lots of minced parsley to green peas for fresh flavor.

Authentic Recipes From South America Make Lavish Use of Olive Oil

The opening in New York City last year of the fascinating Latin American restaurant, La Fonda del Sol, has made thousands of "Yankees" aware that Latin American cookery is a many-splendoured thing. Now to further the interest in the foods of our Latin American neighbors, Myra Waldo has compiled "The Art of South American Cookery" (Doubleday, $4.95), with recipes for many of the same dishes which have delighted patrons at La Fonda.

It is no surprise to learn that the Spanish influence permeates the cuisines of all Latin American countries except Brazil (colonized by the Portuguese). The surprise is in learning how varied the cuisines are from country to country: Mexico uses fiery-hot spices but Peru is noted for more delicately-falvored cookery and infinite uses for white potatoes (for this was where potatoes originated). Argentine is noted for its meat dishes and Brazil for its fish.

Ever since the Spanish colonizers of the 16th century brought Spanish olive oil to the New World to trade for such products as chocolate and vanilla, olive oil has been a favorite cooking fat. It is used particularly in fish cookery and to baste meats.

At La Fonda, meats are grilled vertically before a "wall of flame," twisting slowly on hooks. This is copied after a broiling wall observed by Frederick Rufe, the restaurant's manager, in an inn of Peru. Besides the joints and steaks revolving before the broiling well, there are always half a dozen stuffed flank steaks tied to look like immense sausages.

* * *

Long before the New York restaurant opened, Mr. Rufe and John Santi, La Fonda's chef, toured each Latin American country in turn, collecting authentic native recipes. The following recipe for Aldilla Rellena (Stuffed Flank Steak) is one perfected by Chef Santi, adapted from a native Argentinian recipe.

It can be broiled on the rotating spit of a rotisserie for a brief time, until the outside is crisply brown; or it can be seared in hot oil in a skillet, then baked slowly for several hours. (Flank steak is tender when rare but toughens with longer cooking, then must be made tender again by cooking in moist heat.)

ALDILLA RELLENA
(Stuffed Flank Steak)

1 large flank steak (2½ to 3 lbs.)
3 or 4 tablespoons Spanish olive oil
1 clove garlic, crushed
½ lb. chorizo or other garlic-flavored sausage
4 scallions, chopped
¼ cup minced parsley
½ cup chopped celery
½ teaspoon salt
1 chicken bouillon cube, dissolved in 2 tablespoons boiling water
1 egg

Lay steak out flat, punch holes in meat with skewer, brush with a little olive oil which has been blended with crushed garlic. Skin the sausage, crumble meat, combine with parsley, scallions, celery, bread crumbs, dissolved bouillon cube, and salt. Add egg, beat to blend well.

Trim edges of meat, spread filling to within 1 inch of edge. Roll up meat, tying tightly with cord from end to end four times around; impale on spit of rotisserie and broil at 400 degrees on rotating spit until outside is crisply brown, brushing occasionally with olive oil.

Or, fold over meat like a pocketbook, fasten edge with small skewers or toothpicks, sear in hot olive oil in heavy skillet until browned on both sides, then remove to heavy duty foil; fold over and crimp edges to seal. Bake at 325 degrees for 2½ to 3 hours. Cut in 12 slices, to serve 6. Serve with its own sauce or a hot chili sauce, seasoned with cayenne.

* * *

GUISADO de PESCADOS

⅓ cup Spanish olive oil
1 medium onion, chopped
1 or 2 garlic cloves, minced
1 can tomato sauce (8 oz.)
6 cups water
½ lb shrimp in shell
Pinch of saffron
1 tablespoons salt, or to taste
1 lb. hallmut, cut in serving pieces
2 small fish, smelts or butterfish, left whole
½ lb. scallops
⅛ cup dry white wine

Slowly cook onion and garlic in ¼ cup olive oil until very soft; add tomato sauce, simmer until well blended. Bring water to a boil, adding salt and saffron; when boiling, drop in shrimp, cook 3 minutes. Remove shrimp; shell. Strain shrimp stock through fine sieve or cheesecloth, add to onion mixture.

In another skillet, saute fish and scallops until golden on each side in ¼ cup olive oil. Add, with white wine, to other ingredients. Cook stew no longer than 10 minutes more, adding shrimp in last 5 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Know Marketing System to Be Wise Food Buyer

This is a new year—a new beginning and the time when many folks resolve "to do better." In the business of food buying, one resolution might be to do a better job of understanding the food marketing system, suggests the Marketing Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. This doesn't sound very useful? Then consider for a minute how much money you spend on food.

For [illegible] the food cost takes 20 to 25 per cent of the income after taxes. Is it possible that you could pend food money more wisely if you had a better understanding of the marketing system that brings food from all corners of the world to your table?

Make understanding easy. Follow the weekly and monthly reports from local consumer marketing information agents. So what about January? Take a look at meat supplies. Total meat supplies for January, 1962 will be about the same as they were a year ago.

Supplies of beef and pork will be about the same as in December. And remember this is the season for increased supplies of both these meats. Broiler supplies will still be large, and because broiler popularity decreases in cold weather, prices will be about the same as in December. Turkey supplies will be more than ample with prices the lowest in recent history.

This first week of the year, shoppers will find some cuts of pork, beef, lamb and fryers featured in many stores. Pork loin cuts, Boston butt, bacon and spareribs are among the pork cuts given such emphasis.

Fresh vegetable supplies are smaller this winter than they were at the same time last year. Recent cold weather in Florida foretells of a still shorter supply which will sell at higher prices.

There is one exception—there are 13 per cent more potatoes than a year ago, and prices will remain about as they have been. Shoppers will find plenty of canned and frozen vegetables to meet the needs of family appetites . . . and it will be to your advantage to check costs of various forms before choosing.

This season's grapefruit production is forecast at 45.2 million boxes, 8 per cent greater than last year and 9 per cent above the faster. January prices will continue below a year earlier.

OTHER FRUIT

Other fruits in good supply include apples and cherries. The latest figures show that the 1961 fall apple crop was 17 per cent larger than the one before and 13 per cent above average. The 1961 pack of frozen red pitted cherries was the largest on record. A large proportion of the canned and frozen cherries were packed in institution size containers which means shoppers will find them at frozen food counters in the form of pies, turnovers, dumplings and in 20-ounce cans.

On the grocer's shelves you will find more jellied and whole cherry sauce, cherry pie mix and toppings, jellies and preserves, and combination cherry products. Bakeries and restaurants will serve plenty of cherry products and dairies will manufacture cherry ice cream.

Agricultural economists at Michigan State University predict that egg prices will be several cents a dozen lower in January than in December. The egg supply for the next six months as determined by the number of layers already available. As the spring progresses, new pullets will be added. By summer, there will be a larger laying flock and more eggs than in 1961.

* * *

A better understanding of the food marketing system . . . changes in the handling and distribution of food from the farm through the retail store can help you do a better job of choosing food for your family and of adjusting to changes as they occur.

Peanut Recipes Keep on Coming

You may remember that time-honored child's song which begins, "Found a peanut, found a peanut, found a peanut just now." Your family will like the discovery of lots of delicious goobers around the house — in everything from nut-bowls to peanut brittle.

The entire family will enjoy this member of the legume family in a variety of ways. After all, George Washington Carver found over 200 uses for the peanut.

* * *

The U.S. Department of Agriculture lists peanuts and peanut products as plentiful. So push yourself out of the plain peanut butter sandwich rut and experiment.

Guests will enjoy these tasty canapes. Just combine cream cheese, chopped ripe olives, salted peanuts and a little milk. Offer as a dip, or spread onto buttered toast squares. And saucy open-face sandwiches can be made by mixing equal amounts of peanut butter and cranberry sauce and spreading on fresh buttered bread.

For sandwich fillings that add variety to school or work lunch-bags, mix lightly ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup chopped pitted dates, 1 teaspoon lemon juice and ½ cup thick salad dressing. Or blend ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup chopped raisins, 2 teaspoons lemon juice and ½ cup milk or cream.

PINEAPPLE COTTAGE PUDDING — Even though it may be called "cottage" pudding, this ever-popular dessert can have elegant flavor if made with prime ingredients and pure vanilla extract.

Pure Vanilla Flavor Betters a Pudding

Next time you're snowbound, with the whole family snuggly at home, wondering how to enjoy their enforced leisure, do make it a festive occasion by preparing a delicious old-fashioned dessert — the kind that has such a tantalizing smell of real vanilla when it comes from the oven!

Pineapple Cottage Pudding, for instance, is an exceptionally good dessert. As you can see from the recipe which follows, a vanilla batter is baked over a rich pineapple and brown sugar mixture in the bottom of a square pan. You could serve it cold, but it's much better — on a blizzardy night — if you serve it while it's still giving off oven warmth and baking fragrance.

Bread pudding is an old favorite that will take on new glamour when made as Vanilla Coconut Bread Pudding. It should come to the table topped with slathers of vanilla meringue. The secret of its unusually good flavor is an age old discovery, but one sometimes forgotten today. It is simply that vanilla extract enhances other flavors; in this recipe, the lemon rind and coconut particularly.

When vanilla was first brought to Europe in the 15th Century, it was so famous as a flavoring for chocolate that, for decades, no one thought of using vanilla by itself. It is interesting that only the natural vanilla or pure extract — made from the pod of an orchid which grows in Madagascar — of vanilla has this property because of its delicate flavor quality.

Pineapple Cottage Pudding

2 cups (1 lb. 14 oz. can) shredded pineapple
¼ cup light brown sugar
1-16 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
1¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup shortening
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
¾ cup sugar
1 egg
2-3 cup milk

Drain pineapple and turn into buttered 8x8x2-inch baking pan. Mix brown sugar with salt and lemon rind and sprinkle over pineapple. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Set aside. Mix shortening and pure vanilla extract and gradually blend in sugar. Beat in egg. Add flour mixture alternately with milk. Spread batter uniformly over pineapple.

Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Serve warm or cold in squares topped with vanilla whipped cream or Vanilla Sauce. Yield: One 8-inch cake.

Vanilla Sauce

½ cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 cup of water
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
⅓ teaspoon pure vanilla extract

Combine sugar, salt and cornstarch in a 2-cup saucepan. Add water. Mix well. Stir and cook 5 minutes or until sauce is clear and it begins to thicken. Remove from heat and add butter or margarine and pure vanilla extract. Serve over Pineapple Cottage Pudding. Yield: 1-3 cup sauce.

Vanilla Coconut Bread Pudding

1 cup soft bread crumbs
4 cups hot milk
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ teaspoon salt
2¼ teaspoons pure vanilla extract
1 whole egg
2 egg yolks
⅓ cup sugar
1 cup angel flake coconut
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind

Soften bread crumbs in 1 cup of the hot milk. Mash well. Add remaining hot milk, butter or margarine, salt and pure vanilla extract. Beat whole egg and egg yolks together slightly. Blend in sugar and add to breadcrumb mixture along with coconut and lemon rind. Turn into a buttered 1½-quart casserole.

Set in a pan of hot water and bake in a preheated moderate oven (325 degrees F.) 1½ hours. Top with Vanilla Meringue. Bake in a preheated slow oven (325 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Serve warm. Yield: 6 servings.

Vanilla Meringue

1-16 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pure vanilla extract
2 egg whites, unbeaten
3 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon pure vanilla extract

Add salt and pure vanilla extract to egg whites and beat until they stand in soft, stiff peaks. Gradually beat in sugar. Yield: 6 servings.

Tuna Casseroles Are a Reliable Standby

Tuna, noodles and ripe olives make a delightful one-dish combination with fresh spinach. You'll have a gourmet dish that will please the most discerning of good fanciers. And, best news for the homemaker . . . it's easy and inexpensive to make yet looks like a million dollars. So, next time you want to put on a real spread, try serving this delectable Florentina Tuna Casserole and see for yourself.

Florentina Tuna Casserole

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ounces medium egg noodles (about 4 cups)
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1 cup vegetable bouillon
1 bay leaf
1 tablespoon chopped onion
½ teaspoon chervil
½ cup heavy cream
2 packages (10-ounces each) frozen spinach, thawed
¼ cup ripe olives
2 cans (6½ to 7 ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked.

Add salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Melt butter or margarine; stir in flour. Slowly stir in bouillon. Add bay leaf, onion and chervil. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove bay leaf. Slowly stir in cream.

Arrange alternate rows of noodles and spinach in greased shallow baking dish. Top noodles with olives, top spinach with tuna. Pour cream sauce over casserole. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 minutes. Makes 6-8 servings.

* * *

Frisco Tuna Casserole

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ounces medium egg noodles (about 4 cups)
1 cup water
1 cup milk
1 package (2¼ ounces) dehydrated tomato soup mix
1-3 cup sliced ripe olives
1 can (1 pound) whole tomatoes
2 cans (6½ to 7-ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked
1-3 cup chopped parsley
1 medium-sized onion chopped
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon celery salt
1 package (8-ounces) sliced process American cheese

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Combine 1 cup water, milk and dehydrated soup mix. Blend soup mixture, olives, undrained tomatoes, tuna, parsley, onion, 1 teaspoon salt, garlic salt, pepper celery salt; mix well.

Turn half of noodle mixture into 2½-quart casserole; arrange 4 slices of cheese on top. Cover with remaining noodle mixture; bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 20 minutes. Arrange remaining slices of cheese over noodle mixture; continue baking 10 minutes, or until cheese melts.

Puffy Topping Broiled on Top of Crisp Crackers

Make them in minutes. On top of about two dozen round crisp crackers on a cookie sheet put teaspoonfuls of: 1 egg white beaten very stiff with ½ cup real mayonnaise folded into it. Some like a few drops of onion juice added.

* * *

Run the sheet under a medium hot broiler and WATCH a moment, until golden brown and puffed. Next time add ¼ cup grated sharp cheese OR 1 teaspoon onion soup mix to the basic egg white and mayonnaise mixture.

Mix Crumbled Cookies Into Pineapple Dessert

This make-ahead dessert is a good, busy day idea. Crumble 12 macaroons or fig-filled cookies and combine with 1 cup miniature marshmallows and 1 cup drained pineapple tidbits. Cover and chill several hours or overnight.

An hour before serving, whip ⅓ cup heavy cream and fold in. Heap in dessert dishes and garnish with chopped nuts. Chill until ready to serve. Makes 4 servings.

Seal It Right

Use a fine quality of penetrating wood seal when you are refinishing a wooden salad bowl because the surface has to combat the effects of the vinegar and salt of salad dressings plus water.

Meat Loaves Have Infinite Variety

MADE WITH CHEESE — This meat loaf not only has a capping of cheese, but some of the same good cheese is mixed right in with the ground beef. This is just one of the many kinds of delicious meat loaf you can serve your family during the winter months.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Ham, turkey, chicken — haven't you had enough of them? Don't you think your family might welcome a good juicy meat loaf some night soon?

Meat loaf can be a so-so food, or it can be as delicious as a more expensive meat. You can vary the taste with the meat you use, the liquid and the binding agent.

If someone in your family has an aversion to "chunks" of half cooked onion in meat loaf, cater to him by grating the onion you use. You may be able to use the prepared dry onion flakes without causing a sensitive person distress.

Here's a tip to mothers who worry that their children don't get enough milk. Add half a cup or more of dry nonfat milk to your regular meat loaf recipe. No change in the taste, but more nutrition. In this first recipe, you can use ¾ cup dry milk, plus one cup of water instead of the cup of milk called for.

This recipe has even more protein with the cheese it includes.

Cheese Stuffed Meat Loaf

1 package (8-ounce) sliced process American cheese
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 pounds ground beef
1 cup milk
1 cup rolled oats, uncooked
⅔ cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper, optional
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon prepared horseradish

Cut cheese slices in half diagonally; save ½ cheese triangles for top of meat loaf. Finely chop remaining cheese slices. Combine chopped cheese with remaining ingredients; mix thoroughly. Press meat into buttered loaf pan (9x5x3-inches). Invert pan onto a foil covered shallow baking pan; fold foil edges up around meat loaf to hold juices during baking.

Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, until meat is done, about 1 hour. Two or three minutes before end of baking time, lay cheese slices over top of loaf, double thickness. Return to oven just long enough to soften cheese. Makes 8 servings.

In our second recipe there are 2 unusual ingredients, shredded raw carrots and ground beef liver. This is a meat loaf you serve without telling the family just what's in it. Lots of vitamin A in this one.

Carrot Meat Loaf

2 tablespoons bacon fat or shortening
1½ cups chopped onion
1½ cups (4 medium) shredded raw carrots
1½ cups (6 small) finely shredded raw potatoes
1½ pounds ground lean beef
½ pound beef liver, seared and ground
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
3 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
1½ teaspoons poultry seasoning
2 eggs, beaten
2 strips bacon

Heat bacon fat or shortening in a saucepan. Add onions and saute until limp. Mix with carrots, potatoes, ground beef, liver, bread crumbs, seasonings and eggs. Turn into a greased 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Arrange bacon strips over the top. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour or until done. Makes 8 servings.

★ ★ ★

Vitamin B plays an important role in a meat loaf made with rolled oats. A small amount of ground ham makes the flavor just a little different. Top each slice with a helping of ruby cranberry sauce.

Ham-Beef-Oat Meat Loaf

1½ pounds ground beef
½ pound ground ham
1 cup rolled oats, quick or regular, uncooked
1 cup milk
1 egg
¼ cup chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine ingredients and mix well. Pack into loaf pan (9x5x3 inches). Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until meat is done, about 1 hour. Serve with the desired Cranberry Sauce. Yield: 8 servings.

Spice Cranberry Sauce

Combine 1 can (1 pound) whole cranberry sauce, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, and ¼ teaspoon cloves; heat and serve with meat loaf.

★ ★ ★

Pineapple-Cranberry Sauce

Combine 1 can (1 pound) whole cranberry sauce and 1 can (8½ ounce) crushed pineapple (1 cup); heat and serve with meat loaf.

Orange-Cranberry Sauce

Combine 1 can (1 pound) whole cranberry sauce and 1 tablespoon grated orange rind; heat and serve with meat loaf.

Grape Dessert Something New

Let "Ruby Drops Bake" cook in the oven while guests are enjoying the rest of the dinner, then serve this dessert hot and in handsome fashion. Halved Flame Tokay grapes are sprinkled with a blend of brown sugar, butter and cornstarch; spooned on top is a biscuit mix perked up with grated orange rind and crested with sliced almonds. Juicy Tokays add lovely color and crisp texture to numerous desserts, salads and entrees, and they are true eaten-out-of-hand treats for children and grown-ups alike.

RUBY DROPS BAKE

2 cups Tokay grapes
1-3 cup brown sugar, packed
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Drop Biscuits
¼ cup toasted sliced almonds

Drop Biscuits

1 cup biscuit mix
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
2 tablespoons sugar
⅓ cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Halve and seed Tokays. Spread over bottom of 8½-inch shallow round baking dish. Blend sugar, cornstarch and butter. Sprinkle over top of grapes.

Spoon Drop Biscuits over grape and sugar mixture. Sprinkle sliced almonds over top of Drop Biscuits. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Serve immediately. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

DROP BISCUITS: Blend all ingredients with a few rapid strokes.

Soup Mix Shortens Time for Making Cheese Pie

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Streamlined recipes are the order of the culinary day. American cooks like to use packaged products to create shortcut versions of classic rules.

Here's the latest recipe of this sort that we have tried. It's a Bacon and Cheese Pie patterned after the famous French Quiche Lorraine.

There are many versions of this dish, and one of them includes onions cooked in butter until golden. No peeling, slicing and sauteeing onions for this recipe—instead packaged onion soup mix goes into the pie's filling.

This robust bacon and cheese pie is conveniently versatile. Serve it cut into healthy portions, for lunch; accompany it with a crisp green salad. Or make the portions small, and offer it as a savory tidbit with a before-dinner drink. Either way it's a taste-winning dish.

Bacon and Cheese Quiche Lorraine

5 slices bacon
½ cup grated Swiss cheese
9-inch pastry shell (unbaked)
3 tablespoons onion soup mix
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1½ cups milk or light cream
3 eggs
¼ cup chopped parsley

Fry bacon until crisp; drain on brown paper or paper toweling and crumble. Sprinkle bacon and grated Swiss cheese in bottom of pastry shell.

With a rotary beater, beat together the dry onion soup mix (just as it comes from the envelope), salt, pepper, milk and eggs. Pour over bacon and cheese. Sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven for 25 to 30 minutes or until custard is set. Makes six servings.

Wonderful Way With Mushrooms

The small button mushrooms used here look particularly attractive; they're added to a favorite marinade and always make a hit.

Pickled Button Mushrooms

1-3 cup sugar
1-3 cup cider vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 bay leaf
1 teaspoon whole mixed pickling spices
1 medium onion (thinly sliced into rings)
2 cans (each 8 ounces) button mushrooms (drained)

Stir together the sugar, vinegar, salt, bay leaf, mixed pickling spices and onion rings in a small saucepan over low heat until sugar dissolves; bring to a boil. Pour over drained mushrooms in a shallow container; cover and refrigerate several hours or overnight. Remove bay leaf and any peppercorns and whole cloves (from mixed spice). Drain before serving.

Ginger Steak

Score flank steak on both sides. Brown in hot fat. Spread both sides with pineapple-cherry preserves mixed with 1 T. lemon juice and pinch ginger. Add water or broth; cover and simmer until tender. Make gravy with pan juice and serve with sliced steak.

Egyptians Ate a Convenience Food — Candy

The marvelous array of convenience foods you read so much about today are not all products of recent development.

One of the very earliest convenience foods was candy. It originated in ancient Egypt about 500 years before the birth of Christ.

Naturally, the candy of 1961 is quite different from those early day sweetmeats. Today's candy consists of varied, highly nutritious ingredients. And candy making has become an exact science.

Candy bars rank as an ideal convenience food in industry. According to The D. L. Clark Co., candy makers, many workers are being encouraged to take a candy break in mid-afternoon.

Reason for this is that candy is known to be a quick energy restorer and contributes to alertness. It is a handy, between meal pick-up food. And best of all perhaps, there is no preparation with commercial candy. Just unwrap it and begin eating.

Put Bright Carrots Into Orange Sauce

A surprise addition to a favorite recipe adds interest and good flavor.

Orange Carrots Frances

1 pound bag carrots
1¼ cups boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cornstarch
½ teaspoon sugar
1 tablespoon cold water
Grated rind and juice of 1 orange
¾ cup currants (rinsed in hot water and drained)

Pare carrots and cut into thin oval rounds — slant knife in cutting. In a medium-sized saucepan rapidly cook carrots with boiling water and salt, covered, just until tender — about 8 minutes; drain.

★ ★ ★

Mix cornstarch, sugar and water until smooth; add orange rind and orange juice. Add orange mixture and currants to carrots; cook and stir over low heat until small amount of sauce thickens. Add salt if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

All Sides Meet in 4-Day-Old NYC Bus Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—All parties in the city's 4-day-old bus strike meet with Mayor Robert F. Wagner today in what has been described as a showdown aimed at getting the buses rolling.

★ ★ ★

In calling the meeting Wednesday, Wagner made it clear it would be the final chance for Fifth Avenue Coach Lines and its subsidiary, Surface Transit, Inc., to accept the city's offer of financial help so they can settle with the Transport Workers Union.

Otherwise, he said, he will go ahead with his threat to seek other operators to take over the Fifth Avenue franchises that have lapsed.

Head-On Crash Leaves 2 Hurt

Brandon Twp. Widow, Waterford Boy Injured Seriously in Wreck

A 16-year-old Waterford Township youth and a Brandon Township widow were seriously injured in a head-on collision last night on the Dixie Highway.

In fair condition today at Pontiac General Hospital are Mrs. Agnes Donaghy, 59, 1830 S. Ortonville Road, and Roger L. Knickerbocker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Knickerbocker of 3555 Brookdale St.

Pontiac state police said the two cars crashed at 8:45 p.m. last night on the Dixie Highway, just south of Sashabaw Road, in Waterford Township.

Knickerbocker was a passenger in a car driven by Robert Winkleman, 16, 4996 Sherbourne Drive, Waterford Township. Winkleman was not hurt.

Winkleman's car, according to police, came around a curve, crossed over the center line and smashed into the front of Mrs. Donaghy's auto. Winkleman told police an unidentified car forced his across the center line. Officers said there were no witnesses.

Mrs. Donaghy suffered a fractured hip and arm. Knickerbocker has possible head injuries, according to hospital authorities.

Orders Montgomery to End Segregation

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A federal judge has given Montgomery until Friday to remove signs from separate facilities at the city airport in compliance with a ruling outlawing segregation there.

The order, however, will be appealed, a city attorney said.

An order by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr., Wednesday specified that white and Negro travelers must be allowed equal access to rest rooms, lounges and the restaurant at the terminal, Dannelly Field.

★ ★ ★

The court prohibited the City Commission, the County Board of Commissioners and Ranch Enterprises, Inc.—the cafe operator, from all forms of airport racial segregation.

Johnson's order resulted from a suit filed by the federal government at the request of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

State Firm Receives Destroyer Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has awarded a $29-million contract to a Bay City, Mich., firm for construction of two guided missile destroyers.

The Navy today informed Sens. Pat McNamara and Philip A. Hart, Michigan Democrats, the contract went to Defoe Ship Building Co., one of 12 bidders.

The Senators said the destroyers will be purchased by Australia through the Navy.

The vessels will have a 4,500-ton displacement, and will be 431 feet long and have a 47-foot beam. They will be equipped with the Tartar missile system.

Lord Home to Make Visit to W. Berlin

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Lord Home will make a 24-hour visit to Berlin beginning the evening of Jan. 9, the Foreign Office announced today.

★ ★ ★

Home's trip to the isolated city is taking place at the invitation of Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin.

★ ★ ★

A Foreign Office spokesman said Home will fly to West Berlin from Bonn after he and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan conclude a conference with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and other West German leaders that day.

Plumber's Helper Surrenders, Ending Search

Hold Man, 22, in Stabbing of Skater

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A 22-year-old plumber's helper was held today in the stabbing of a pretty, 19-year-old ice skating instructor from Michigan.

Joel Lee Saye, the victim's next-door neighbor, surrendered here Wednesday night, ending a widespread hunt. He is charged with assault with intent to kill and burglary.

Saye first contacted a probation officer and stipulated that he would give himself up if he could talk with a columnist for the Charlotte Observer, Kay Gary.

The victim of a knifing attack, Penelope (Penny) Christin Moore, was in serious condition at a local hospital.

She was stabbed four times shortly before dawn Tuesday at her apartment. Police said the attack came a short time after three friends had left.

PENNY MOORE

Gary, summoned from his home, immediately went to meet the young man at a restaurant.

Saye, Gary and probation officer Ted Williams talked for about an hour. Later, Saye walked into the police station and surrendered.

'DIDN'T MEAN IT'

"I didn't mean to do it. I'm sorry about it," Gary quoted Saye as saying.

Saye said he went to a movie Monday night, later drank beer at a pool room and then went to his apartment when the pool room closed, Gary reported.

The columnist related this story: Saye sat in his apartment looking and talking going on next wife and "listening to all the laughing and talking going on nexmt door."

When the party ended, Gary said, Saye knocked on the girl's door and asked if he could come in, but he said Miss Moore told him, "The party's over, and it's late. You'd better go on back."

★ ★ ★

Gary quoted Saye as saying he went in and "made some passes" at the girl, who resisted. He said they "wrestled around some" and then a knife fell out of his pocket.

When the girl kept screaming, Gary quoted Saye as saying, he used the knife.

Waterford to Air Proposal for School Millage Raise

A "town hall" meeting has been set for March 6 in Waterford Township to discuss a proposed five-mill tax increase for school operation.

Sponsored by the Greater Waterford Community Council, the public meeting will be held 8 p.m. at Pierce Junior High School. Members of the board of education will be present to explain the reason for request.

According to the board, the school system is falling short in teacher salary scale, compared to surrounding communities.

This is caused by a decrease in state aid, lack of a large tax base in the township and the increased selectivity of colleges, necessitating better high school and elementary systems, the board said.

Members also said competition for good teachers requires raising the starting salaries $100, and even more for those who have a higher salary base.

Board President Eldon Rosegart has pointed out that Waterford has the third largest school system in the area (Pontiac and Royal Oak are bigger), but there are few districts with smaller teacher salaries than Waterford's.

Quit Pushing, Abby Advises

You Can't Make Him Marry

DEAR ABBY: I am an intelligent girl. I hold down a good job, but need a little help with my love life. I have been going with a very eligible man for several months.

I know he is crazy about me, and he is the man I want to marry. He can give me everything I want in life — social position, financial security, and the works.

ABBY

I am having trouble getting him even to talk about marriage. I have given him all the encouragement a man could want.

I have led this horse to water. Now, how do I make him drink?

ANXIOUS TO WED

DEAR ANXIOUS: You can't — so take off the spurs, sister. This "horse" could turn out to be a camel.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Our son is married to a very peculiar girl. Last month my husband suddenly fell ill and we rushed him to the hospital for an emergency operation. I wrote our son telling him about it, but we heard nothing from him. Finally, when his father was out of danger, I telephoned our son to tell him the good news. He said he didn't know his father had been sick!

Then his wife wrote us a nasty letter saying she never gave our son the letter because she "didn't want him worrying about any of his folks," and, "please not to write him any more bad news." Can you imagine the nerve of that girl! What do two elderly parents do in a case like this?

BADLY HURT

* * *

DEAR HURT: Call your son, person-to-person, and let him know what is going on. If he wants to put up with this kind of censorship from his wife, there is nothing you can do. But if he is interested in knowing of your welfare, ask HIM how you may reach him without any interference.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Once in a while a member of our family will go to bed early to get some much needed sleep. Then someone will drive by, and even though it is as late as 10:00 p.m. they will ring the bell saying, "The lights were still on so we knew everyone was still up." I think this is a whale of a lot of gall. What do you do with callers who don't know any better than that?

JUST PLAIN MAD

* * *

DEAR MAD: Freeze them out with a chilly reception and it will be a hot day in December before they pull that stunt again.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO AMY F., FATHER O'H., and Mrs. D. D. K.: I am returning your money. Sorry, but I do not sell my own books. If your local bookstore doesn't have DEAR TEEN-AGER, ask them to order it for you.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES SCHRAM

The James Schrams of South Marshall Street will observe their golden wedding anniversary at a reception from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday at the Amvets Hall on Oakland Avenue. Their sons are Norman of Bay Street; Orville of Saginaw and Nile of Lansing. The daughters are Mrs. Hobart Gray, Royal Oak and Mrs. George Pellet, Fruitport. There are 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

As Guest, There's No Obligation

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: Is it necessary or obligatory for a house guest to entertain persons who have entertained her at their houses? I contend it would be a breach of etiquette for her to assume the hostess's obligations.

If the hostess returns these courtesies by entertaining at a lunch or dinner party for her friends when they have guests or remembers them in some way to show her appreciation, that is all that is necessary. Am I correct?

A: When you, along with your hostess, are invited to a lunch or dinner party because you are a house guest of hers, the obligation to return the courtesy is your hostess's and there is nothing you need do about it.

* * *

Q: I am a bachelor and plan to give a large buffet supper in a private room at a hotel to repay some social obligations. The invitation will be written on my visiting cards.

I would like the men to wear dinner jackets and will write "black tie" in the lower left hand corner of the invitations going to men alone and also on those addressed to Mr. and Mrs. However, some of these invitations will be going to young unmarried women.

What do I write on the invitations sent to them so that they will not come in street dress? Do I also write "black tie"? This last doesn't seem quite right for a woman.

A: "Black tie" on the invitations you send to women will be quite all right because it tells them that your party will be one at which the men will wear tuxedos and that they too should come in evening dress.

* * *

Q: I find that I can no longer drink coffee late at night as it keeps me awake. When visiting friends in the evening and the hostess serves coffee and cake, would it be permissible to ask her if I may have tea instead of coffee?

A: You should not ask your hostess for tea which she may not even have in the house. All you can do is to say, "No thank you, I find it keeps me awake" and hope that she will offer you something else.

Iraq Unit Meets, Sets Ceremonial

Members of Iraq Caldron No. 20, Daughters of Mokanna, met Wednesday evening in the civics room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

Preparations were discussed for the ceremonial on March 26 when various Caldrons will visit. Tentative plans were completed for a benefit sale.

* * *

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wayne Scott, Mrs. Ray Hierriter and Mrs. T. R. Arnold.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 7.

MOMS Unit 2 Has Luncheon

MOMS of America, Unit 2, gathered for a schoolgirl luncheon and business meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind on South Johnson Avenue. The hostess gave devotions.

Mrs. Amelia Ball of Seminole Avenue will be hostess for the schoolgirl luncheon and afternoon of sewing for Pontiac General Hospital on Jan. 16.

Trips and Parties Keep Hills Folk Quite Busy

By MARY ELLEN MEAD

Nice antidote for those post-holiday blues could be a trip to almost any place, and lots of Bloomfieldites are embracing such a program right now.

Mrs. Maynard R. Andrese, Ridgewood Road, took off today for Bal Harbour, Fla., for what she describes as "mother's respite." While the rest of the family stays home to fight the cold and the damp, she intends to swim and golf for 12 sun-filled days (she hopes).

Mrs. Ralph C. Wilson Jr., of Grosse Pointe, will be her hostess in the Wilson winter home at Bal Harbour with other guests to be Mrs. Jack Tompkins and Mrs. Robert Lynch, also of Grosse Pointe.

* * *

Incidentally, a number of Birmingham-Bloomfield teenagers are still starry-eyed over the "Bye, Bye Birdie" cast party Mrs. Andrese gave during the holidays for her youngsters, Chris, Karen, Adriane and Dolph, and their friends. After all, it isn't often that one's cousin — in this case, Gretchen Wyler — as the star of a hit show, and the Andrese youngsters made the most of it.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Mills, Vaughan Road, will leave Jan. 9 for a two-day stay in New Orleans. It's business for Mr. Mills, but Helen has never been to the famous city, so it'll be sight-seeing for her. They'll return just in time to repack their bags and, on the 21st take off on a 10-day jaunt to Phoenix and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. VanDusen of Bingham Road are already back from their few brief days in the south, having left the day after Christmas to swim and play tennis in Florida. From now until March 31 — which he hopes will be deadline for the Con-Con convention — Mr. VanDusen's traveling will consist of commuting between here and Lansing.

* * *

Gwin Yntema, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O. Yntema of Franklin Road, left Tuesday to return to Duke University where she's a freshman. Come Easter vacation, she will join her family on trip to Puerto Rico.

* * *

The William B. Bachmans Jr., of Oakleigh Drive, are doing their midwinter traveling much closer to home — destination: Otsego. They returned Tuesday, after celebrating New Year's at the resort, and intend to go back again the weekend of Jan. 26.

* * *

Mrs. J. R. Hendry of Fort Worth, Tex., left today for home after spending the holidays with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hendry of West Bloomfield. On Wednesday she was the honor guest at a small luncheon given by Mrs. Lawrence Dantzer of Royal Oak.

Fund Raising Discussed at Club Meeting

The Round Table Club met Tuesday afternoon at the Young Women's Christian Association on Franklin Boulevard.

Mrs. Karl Kreitz, chairman of the ways and means committee, discussed tentative plans for the club's annual fund-raising project which benefits the summer camp fund of Camp Oakland.

* * *

Pink gladioli and matching candles centered the refreshment table where Mrs. William Ford presided at the tea service.

Assisting Mrs. Leon V. Beknap, refreshment chairman, were Mrs. H. Clay Murphey, Mrs. George Crum and Mrs. G. H. Boles.

Announce News at Open House

At an open house Sunday in their Birmingham home, the William J. Bocks announced the marriage of their daughter Tamara to Robert Garrett, son of the Robert C. Garretts of Galloway Court.

The couple, who exchanged vows Nov. 4 in the First Baptist Church, Lake Orion, will live on Cheyenne Street, Waterford Township.

First Philatheans Meet at Church

Members and friends of the First Philathea Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday evening in the educational building of the church.

Rev. Jerry Redman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Drayton Plains, gave the spiritual message and Mrs. Warren Wescott was in charge of devotions.

Mrs. Richard Blue, Mrs. John Dowling and Mrs. Redman, also of the Drayton Plains church, presented two vocal trios. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Philip Adams and her committee.

Dramatic Frame-up for Every Type Face

New Hairdos Terrific-on All Sides

There's more than one "good" side to every woman, particularly when she's wearing a new asymmetrical hairdo. Then, no matter how you look at her, she's doubly glamorous. Each side has its special appeal. It's a dramatic frame-up to make a plain woman blossom into a real beauty, and a beautiful woman more alluring than ever.

According to Frederic Jones, one of New York's most distinguished hair stylists, the smart set of Paris, Rome, Vienna, Madrid, Lisbon and London are wearing off-balanced hair styles. Just returned to his East 57th Street salon after a six weeks' junket to these great fashion centers, Mr. Jones predicts American women will also find a refreshing change and flattery in the new styles.

Says Mr. Jones, "Everywhere we visited by day or evening, we saw this asymmetrical look. During the day the line was on the conservative side but dynamic and exciting. After dark detail was exaggerated, exotic and extreme."

* * *

Still another mood observed by Mr. Jones was the trend toward hair fashion simplicity, with closer more clinging lines. He reports, "There is less backcombing or teasing for high and wide effects; more definite wave patterns and clean lines; and less height at top-front. Even the most casual hairstyles reflect form, line and movement. The new and important accent is the graduated height that hovers at the crown."

Bows, according to Mr. Jones, continue to be unchallenged favorites in the realm of hairstyle ornamentation. These are used with great chic in pairs of one size, singly, or in combinations of two sizes; and in fashion coordinated harmony or contrasting colors at all junctures on the hairdo.

MORE FLATTERING

"Asymmetrical lines are wearable and flattering to more women than any fashion trend in recent seasons," Mr. Jones explains, "because the most beautiful face is seldom perfectly balanced. Slight features or contour irregularities show up when one looks at the profile from left or right if a woman is wearing a balanced hairstyle. There is not enough chance to compensate in design details for the imperfections.

* * *

With the asymmetrical line, however, each side of her face is framed differently. Her structural needs are the prime consideration in arranging the hair about her face. Generally one side is flared or full, the other is close to her head in an effort sophisticated severity. But it can cover her ear in a pretty, soft movement just as well if that is best on her. Likewise, if the features or structure require that the asymmetrical emphasis be on the right or left, the hairdo is designed accordingly. There is great opportunity for individuality."

* * *

Mr. Jones further points out that all the new hairdos require the body that results from clip curl settings. "The hair must have that strong upand-away-from-the-scalp spring that only clip curls can give it."

For your own new look asymmetrical hairdo, try Mr. Jones' basic clip curl setting pattern. Front-top: Three stand up curls at hairline, turned right in winding. Next row, one curl at left turned left; two turned right. Balance of top stand-up curls turned forward. All fastened with double prong pin curl clips. Left Side: Comb hair up and off ear in curved line. One face-wand ringlet near temple. Right Side: Fill in with flat, forward curls. Anchor with double prong pin curl clips. Back: Large flat curls, stem some to right, others to left. If hair is thick, increase size of curl and fasten with queen size clips. Fill in nape area with small ringlets; fasten with single prong clips.

A new and wonderful way to wear your hair when you're determined to captivate your audience is a Paris-inspired asymmetrical style. It spotlights the trend toward height at crown only, deep waves and dancing ringlets. A velvet bow clip nestling beneath the crown crest offers a glamour touch.

They skied at Crystal Mountain near Beulah and Hobday Hills near Traverse City. Joan, a freshman at Western Michigan, returned to school on New Year's Day. Barbara, a senior at U. of M., is now back at Ann Arbor.

Use Mascara in Moderation

(NEA) — Neither the teen-ager nor the mature woman looks well wearing lots of eye make-up. Actually, exotic eye make-up does the most for the young woman in her 20s or early 30s.

Both teen-ager and the older woman should use eye make-up in moderation. Not for them the outline with black pencil, the streak of mauve eyeshadow, the daring green or royal blue mascara, the fancy silver and gold. A little can go a very long way and still look extremely well.

To Play Store

(NEA)—To keep the kids happy on a rainy day, save and wash the cardboard covers from milk bottles. They can be used for "money" with the value marked in crayon, and the youngsters will love "playing store."

'Who Ever Heard of Bobby Vee?'

Teens, Adults in Separate Music Worlds

By EUGENE GILBERT
Gilbert Youth Research Co.

Most households in America today are musically antagonistic.

The parents don't know a thing about the type of music their children like best, and the kids know even less about Mom and Dad's musical favorites.

For instance:

Few adults—parents in particular — ever have heard of Jimmy Darren, Leroy Van Dyke, Bobby Vee, Patsy Cline and Solomon Burke. Who are these people?

Well, at the moment, they happen to be the leading recording artists in the country. Their records outsell the records of Bing Crosby, Perry Como, Guy Lombardo, Lawrence Welk and lots of other better known names — better known, that is, as far as adults are concerned.

It's the kids who buy their records and put them on top of the best selling charts each week. The fact that most adults never heard of them in no way diminishes and may even enhance their popularity with teen-agers.

The gulf between adult and teen-aged musical tastes has become so great that not only do adults know little about teen-aged musical stars, but even the converse is true. Teen-agers, almost out of a sense of poetic justice, know almost nothing about the adult musical world.

The discord between the musical tastes of parents and their teen-aged offspring became apparent in our latest nationwide survey, which was devoted exclusively to finding out just how much youngsters know about the tunes that thrilled dear old Dad.

If parents today never have heard of Bobby Vee, then on the opposite side of the turn table quite a few youngsters never heard of Victor Herbert.

In a coast to coast survey that included more than 1,172 youngsters, only 18 (not 18 per cent—just 18 kids) in the entire survey group correctly identified Victor Herbert as the composer of "Kiss in the Dark."

Perhaps that was going back too far, but matters didn't improve much when it came to the fairly recent and still popular "My Fair Lady." Only 17 per cent of the youngsters queried correctly identified Lerner and Loewe as the composers of this Broadway classic.

* * *

Composers obviously weren't a strong point in the musical knowledge of modern teen-agers. The majority (60 per cent) knew that Richard Rodgers wrote the music for "Oklahoma!," which was both a Broadway and a movie hit, but only 18 per cent knew that Rodgers also wrote "Pal Joey," which also was both a hit play and movie.

Most of those who ventured an opinion attributed "Pal Joey" to either Irving Berlin (33 per cent) or Cole Porter (26 per cent.)

The survey also provided several other musical shocks.

Most of the girls (69 per cent) but less than half of the boys knew that Lawrence Welk played the accordion, and only one out of 10 of both boys and girls knew that Artie Shaw played the clarinet and Jimmy Dorsey the alto sax.

SWINGING OUT ON SWING

Mom and Dad may consider this unforgiveable ignorance, but they can take heart from the fact that half the kids managed to associate Harry James with the trumpet and Benny Goodman with the clarinet.

And, when it came to the hit songs of yesterday, 76 per cent correctly associated Judy Garland with "Over the Rainbow" and 50 per cent linked Bob Hope with "Thanks For the Memories," but only 15 per cent knew that Walter Huston had popularized "September Song."

Moving into the swing era, things went from bad to worse. Less than 4 per cent of the youngsters surveyed knew that "Begin the Beguine" was Artie Shaw's big hit record, although it is still being played in juke boxes across the country.

Only 1 per cent identified "I Cried For You" as a big Harry James hit, and even less than that ever heard of either Bunny Berrigan or his all-time classic, "I Can't Get Started With You."

* * *

Glenn Miller fared somewhat better with "Chattanooga Choo-choo" (15 per cent identified him with the hit), and so did Tommy Dorsey and "Getting Sentimental Over You" (10 per cent).

Given a list that included such names as Frankie Avalon, Brook Benton, George Hamilton IV, Gene Autry, Sam Cooke and Kate Smith, the youngsters were asked which one of these had managed to turn out more than one million-selling record.

Only 8 per cent correctly picked Gene Autry. The rest leaned heavily to Frankie Avalon (40 per cent) and Kate Smith (22.4 per cent).

Making Dollars Out of 'Scents'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Some people are making dollars out of phony scents, the Better Business Bureau of metropolitan New York has found.

"There isn't a reason in the world for anyone to be taken," Hugh R. Jackson, BBB president, said, "if they remember that they get what they pay for and that in the buying of perfumes — as with everything else — they can't get something for nothing."

School Studies 'Old' Problem

BALTIMORE (UPI) — A Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine study of the problem of whether long life is hereditary has received government support totaling $17,583.

The subjects of the researchers are the now aged offspring of 2,081 persons who were over 90 years of age during a related study more than 30 years ago.

Keep Them This Year

Don't Lose Old Thoughts

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

At this time of year I think it's appropriate to list some old, perceptive thoughts that we can keep in mind for the new year.

* * *

"Some people talk so much, you can read them like a book." — Caroline Clark.

"It's all right to hold a conversation, but you should let go of it now and then." — Richard Armour.

"The reason God made woman AFTER he made man was because he didn't want any advice."

"The stars are constantly shining but often we do not see them until dark hours." — Earl Riney in Church Management.

* * *

"To strive with an equal is a doubtful thing to do; with a superior a mad thing; with an inferior a vulgar thing." — Seneca.

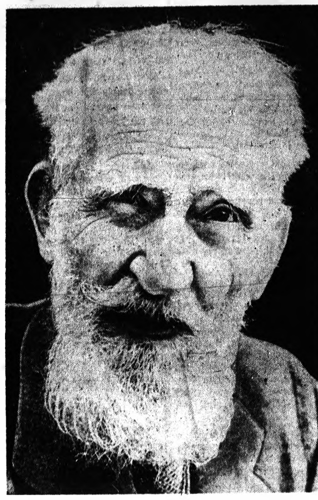

"You are not permitted to kill a woman who has injured you, but nothing forbids you to reflect that she is growing older every minute. You are avenged 140 times a day." — Ambrose Bierce.

"In China, the fifty-first birthday is an occasion of great rejoicing, the sixty-first and seventy-first are progressively happier and grander, while a man able to celebrate his eighty-first birthday is looked upon as one specially favored by the Gods." — Lin Yutang.

* * *

"The grave of love is excavated with little digs."

"Luck is what happens when effort and opportunity meet."

George Bernard Shaw was all George Bernard Shaw enjoyed at the party.

Once when George Bernard Shaw was at a party someone asked him if he was enjoying himself. He replied, "Yes, Madam, and it is the only thing I am enjoying."

"Security is mostly a superstition. It does not exist in nature, nor do the children of men as a whole experience it. Avoiding danger is no safer in the long run than outright exposure. The fearful are caught as often as the bold. Faith alone defends." — Helen Keller, in "Let Us Have Faith."

* * *

Want to start the new year right? Send 10 cents for the "9-Day Diet," booklet. You can lose up to 10 pounds by following directions. Send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the 9-Day Diet booklet to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Leal Emes Unit Has Installation

New officers were installed at the January meeting of Leal Emes Group of First Presbyterian Church Wednesday.

* * *

Florence Schlesser is the new chairman with June Schlesser as vice chairman and devotional leader; Mrs. Paul N. Salter, treasurer; and Eleanore J. Kellogg, secretary.

* * *

Installing officer Anna Marie Predmore presented corsages to the new officers. Mrs. Richard Clark and Martha Leach presided as cohostesses.

Save Enough for Emergency

NEW YORK (UPI) — How much should you save?

Some financial experts recommend that as an adequate reserve, you ought to have from three to six months' salary in your savings account to meet emergencies.

Men Easily 'Cut Off' Voices of Women

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Would a man flying a plane prefer to have a man's voice or a woman's voice giving him routine information and instructions?

An Air Force research study has come up with the answer — and it's a man's voice, of course.

That shouldn't surprise women who know that men have the ability to tune out the female voice at will — an ability little boys seem to develop in grade school when most of their teachers are women and which they perfect all during their married lives.

Once they are married, men begin tuning out their wives whenever their womenfolk start chattering about subjects dear to the feminine heart but less than fascinating to the masculine mind — such topics as fashion, such petty gossip as "What do you suppose he sees in her?" and who said what at last night's party. They quickly learn to tune out the chatter of other women, too, when they find themselves at a social gathering where the conversation is woman-dominated.

So — even if the female voice were as easy to understand as the male voice (which the researchers say it definitely is not still it might not be so good to have women handling routine transmissions for aircraft communications systems.

Just from long habit the men might tune out the feminine controller instead of giving the unexpected attention required.

It's a well-known fact that men tire easily of a woman's voice, and the temptation to mentally cut it off when it persists in talking always is great.

★ ★ ★

Unless, of course, the feminine voice is making such wise and discerning statements as "Tell me more about your work," "You're wonderful" and "You know how much I respect your judgment and value your opinion."

Have You Tried This?

Apple Cake Is Made Without Eggs or Milk

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Several months ago we had a delicious apple dessert at a church group luncheon. We've been meaning to get the recipe for you ever since and finally have it. There are no eggs or milk in this cake which means it will be more welcome to some individuals. Furthermore, it's delicious.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Grady Smith is our cook today. She is a member of the Saybrook group of her church and of the League of Women Voters. She enjoys a good game of bridge.

CHIP APPLE CAKE
By Mrs. Grady Smith

1½ cups salad oil
2 cups sugar
3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
3 cups chopped unpeeled apples
1 cup nutmeats
1 cup coconut

Mix all ingredients together and pour into greased 9x13-inch pan. Bake 40 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream. Makes 15 servings.

Bowling's a Real Ball

BY SHARON KAY RITCHIE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The straight ball is one that rolls directly down the lane, without deviation, to the target.

It is the easiest to control and recommended for the beginner. Don't monkey around with hooks and curves until you have mastered the simple, straight-as-an-arrow roll.

Phyllis Notaro, of the AMF staff of champions, suggests that in rolling a straight ball, you imagine the thumb as one of the hands on a clock dial.

The thumb hole should be at 12 o'clock, with the thumb pointing straight at the objective during the approach.

When the ball is released, the thumb should be still at high noon, lined up with the target. The thumb and fingers, which are directly underneath the ball, should be released at almost the same instant.

For a strike shot, the straight ball should be delivered from the right side of the approach. Most bowlers find it best for the ball to touch down on the lane seven or eight boards from the right-hand gutter.

From this position, it travels straight to the pocket formed by the 1 and 3 pins.

The straight ball will not mix as well as some other rolls, but it is easier to handle and should be mastered thoroughly before you progress to the hook.

Miss Ritchie, a former Miss America, is director of women's activities for American Machine & Foundry Co.

For a strike shot the straight ball should be delivered from the right side of the approach. From this position it travels directly to the pocket formed by the 1 and 3 pins.

Costume Fabric

(UPI)—Jewel note: Wear a necklace covered with the same fabric as your costume.

The idea comes from Pauline Trigere, the designer, who for spring showed a series of necklaces so made. All the "beads" were chunky in size.

The U.S. military academy was opened for the first time in 1802.

Motors Are Briskly Traded

Stock Market Pushes Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued higher in active trading early this afternoon although prices were below their best of the day.

Rails followed through briefly on their strong rally which paced yesterday's market rise, then a number of leading carriers fell victim to short-term profit taking.

Motors were briskly traded and the Big Three showed plus signs. Nonferrous metals, oils, aerospace issues, drugs and selected issues also moved higher. Some of the tobaccos as well as other issues which made big gains in 1961 were subjected to further selling to cash long-term profits.

Steels were mixed. It was reported that producers have given up hope for a price boost in the first half this year, pending settlement of a new labor contract to replace the pact that expires June 30.

Baker Oil Tools, which surprisingly spurted to the role of market pacemaker Wednesday, opened on 10,000 shares, up 1⅛ at 13¾ and halved its gain in later dealings. The company had no new developments to report in connection with the stock's advance but the issue was recommended by an advisory service and has been the subject of rumors.

General Dynamics added more than a point. Interest was spurred in the stock not only by defense contracts but by published reports that the company will be in the black this year and that there may be a change in top management.

Bonds Keep Upward Edge

NEW YORK (AP)—Bond prices maintained their upward edge early today.

Over the counter dealers in U.S. government securities quoted some of the World War II issued 2½s up 4/32. Others intermediates were 2/32 ahead while longer issues held unchanged to up 2/32. Volume was light.

Among corporates traded on the New York Exchange all sections showed small early gains. New York Central Railroad 5s gained 1⅛ at 62 at one time while Texaco 3⅜s were up 1 at 90½.

Fractional gainers included Southern Railway 5s at 101⅛, U.S. Steel 4½s at 101⅝ and Consolidated Edison 3⅝s at 87. Of fractions were Delaware & Hudson Railroad 4s at 98¾, American & Foreign Power 5s at 63¾ and Southern Pacific Railroad 4½s of 1969 at 99¾.

Among convertibles Scott 3s fell 1 at 162⅝ and Northrup 5s added 1½ at 155 at one time.

Canadian Firm Not Optimistic

Chrysler Head Refuses to Predict Bright 1962 for Auto Business

WINDSOR, Ont. (UPI) — The president of Chrysler Corp. of Canada said tonight the outlook for the Canadian auto industry in 1962 was "shrouded in uncertainty."

Ron W. Todgham told a television audience the uncertainty of the next 12 months was due to the delay by the federal government in acting on the Bladen report of 1961.

Vincent W. Bladen, a dean of the faculty of arts at the University of Toronto, was appointed by the federal government in August 1960 to head a royal commission of inquiry into "the situation of and prospects for" the Canadian automotive industry.

His report last June recommended, among other things, exemption of the excise tax on auto parts—which the government implemented in its 1961 budget — and greater control of sales by Canadian subsidiaries from parent companies in the U.S.

The Chrysler of Canada president said if no further action was taken on Dean Bladen's report, "there are no good reasons for expecting peak levels of domestic vehicle sales, lower prices, marked increases in employment levels, or significantly improved profit margins in the industry."

However, he said if the Bladen report was implemented in its entirety "the future outlook for the industry is for marked growth."

Changes End Row Over Portraits of Presidents

CHICAGO (AP)—Bipartisan decor has ended a partisan uproar in a private club in the Merchandise Mart, owned by the family of President Kennedy.

The newly decorated American Eagle Room of the Merchants and Manufacturers Club featured the portraits of 16 U.S. Presidents, 15 Democrats and 1 Republican.

Republicans belonging to the 1,000-member club blew their partisan stacks and the situation was rectified Wednesday by the removal of the portraits of seven unidentified Democrats and replacement with Republicans.

Club manager Frank Klein attributed the situation to a "decorator's error."

Grain Futures Mart Mixed but Steady

CHICAGO (AP) — Trade in grain futures was fairly well mixed and prices held steady to slightly easier today in early transactions.

Except for rye which eased about a cent on the nearby months during the first several minutes, all price changes were with small fractions. Hedge selling and liquidation again were apparent in corn.

ON NEW JOB — S. E. Knudsen, former general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, now general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division, is shown (left) receiving the 1962 Car Life award for engineering excellence presented for the Chevy II. Dennis Shattuck, editor of Car Life, presented the award, describing Chevy II as "a car of reasonable size, adequate performance and simple elegance."

Chevy Reaches December High

'61's Fast Finish Gives Division Top Fourth Quarter in History

DETROIT (AP) — Chevrolet today reported the highest December sales in its history and said it finished the 1961 year with record-breaking fourth-quarter sales.

Semon E. Knudsen, Chevrolet general manager said December retail deliveries totaled more than 147,000 passenger cars and 27,000 trucks. The highest previous December was in 1955 when 143,931 cars and 27,098 trucks were sold. Last year's December sales totaled 140,647 cars and 25,443 trucks.

It was the third straight month since the introduction of its 1962 models that Chevrolet has broken all-time company sales records, Knudsen said.

The record-breaking December left 1961 fourth-quarter Chevrolet car sales at more than 483,000 units, an all-time high and an increase of nearly 16 per cent over the same period last year.

Outlook Remains Favorable

Buyer Confidence Peaks

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Consumer confidence in the U.S. economy, which climbed steadily during the first three quarters of 1961, has leveled off short of an economic boom, the University of Michigan Survey Research Center said Wednesday.

The center, which conducts regular samplings of consumer mood, said the last months of 1961 brought little change from August expectations.

The leveling-off of consumer confidence was blamed "in part" on international tensions but the U. of M. researchers emphasized that the economic outlook "remains favorable."

George Katona, director of the center's economic behavior program, said the survey for the last part of 1961 showed consumers maintaining a confident outlook toward business conditions and personal finances.

Katona said the center received more favorable than unfavorable answers to such questions as whether business conditions are improved over a year ago and whether unemployment has risen or dropped.

In addition, he said, the ratio of people who believe themselves better off financially to those believing themselves worse off has improved.

UNEASY OVER WORLD

"The American people are concerned about international developments," Katona went on, "and although only a small portion think war might break out in the near future, uneasiness and even anxiety about the international conflict has grown greatly."

He said these feelings are reflected in the "leveling-off" of consumer confidence, in part because many people believe international conflict and business upturn are related.

"When a sizable group of people attribute the favorable business conditions to unfavorable and even threatening international developments, absence of a pronounced gain in consumer confidence is not surprising," he said.

Feelings of insecurity and a hesitancy to spend were noted by the researchers.

Some people reported they were postponing plans for large purchases, especially homes.

Katona said consuemr attitudes toward buying cars are still optimistic. He said car purchase plans are one of the stronger aspects of the current economic outlook but added that the data gathered in the report "do not point toward boom conditions.

Howell Industries Buys Factory in Marysville

DETROIT (AP)—Howell Industries of Detroit have announced acquisition of the Marysville plant of Ainsworth Manufacturing Co. which employs 200 and said it will become Howell's fourth division.

Nathan Freedland, Howell president, said the Marysville plant was acquired from Fulton Cotton Mills of Fulton, Ga., of which Ainsworth has been a subsidiary since December 1959. He declined to disclose the purchase price.

Freedland said the Ainsworth acquisition is the second chosen in Michigan in the last six months by his firm "over inducements to relocate in Southern states."

Ainsworth makes windshield frames, gear shifts and steering columns for the automotive industry. Howell has a headquarters factory in Detroit and plants in Lapeer and Howell, manufacturing sliding seat tracks, shock absorber parts and vacuum actuators for automobiles.

★ ★ ★

The Ainsworth plant, on the banks of the St. Clair River, has 90,000 square feet of floor space. Howell's purchase also includes all machinery and equipment.

RESIST PRESSURE

Howell said in a statement issued through its Detroit headquarters:

"Gov. John B. Swainson, who has strongly supported all efforts to improve Michigan's industrial climate, may well find some personal satisfaction in this move by Howell Industries to Marysville, which adjoins Port Huron, the governor's home town.

"Significant to other Michigan manufacturers is the fact that both parties to this transaction have previously decided to continue operations in this state in the face of attractive offers to relocate in the South.

"Ainsworth returned to Marysville in July 1960 after closing out a two-year operation in Springfield, Tenn. At that time a company spokesman said that lower labor costs there had been offset by lower efficiency and difficulty in obtaining skilled labor."

Freedland was quoted as saying he had resisted "incredible inducements" from the Knoxville (Tenn.) Chamber of Commerce to move to Tennessee.

Instead, Freedland acquired a Detroit factory and continued his Lapeer and Howell divisions.

Among reasons for remaining, Freedland listed closer proximity to sources of raw steel, higher degree of skill and efficiency in the labor market and elimination of "prohibitive costs in delivery of finished products."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Seasonal and statistical background market factors, together with a forceful reinvestment demand, suggest that further selective near-term strength will take place, says Kenneth Ward.

On the Dow averages, says the Hayden Stone analyst, there is no change in previous opinion that the next important target area is about 760-770 on the industrials, regardless of any early profit-taking setback.

He thinks rails will cross 150 and reach 160 during the year. Other depressed groups favored by the analyst are machine tools, oils, building materials, coppers, coals, papers, motion pictures, textiles, steels and aluminums.

Walter K. Gutman's industry of the month is steel. He says these stocks as a group are good buys for establishing a cushion of short-term profits in 1962.

Now that 1961 tax selling is over, the Dow Theory Trader says a sharply higher market hitting new highs is indicated during the coming several months.

Unparalleled business activity and the prospect of record corporate profits are favorable influences for the stock market now, says United Business Service. It sees no threat of anything more than temporary shake-outs in the near future.

Spear & Staff, Inc., says recent weakness in the advance-decline ratio indicates that the market may be in for some minor trouble in the period just ahead. It sees no sign, however, that the major upward trend has been halted and it continues to advise the purchase of selected issues.

UAW Strikes Idle 7,000 at South Bend

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI) — More than 7,000 workers were idled here today by United Auto Workers union strikes at auto and farm equipment plants.

The latest strike began Wednesday when 600 members of the union's Local 1095 walked off the job at the Oliver Corp., a farm equipment firm, over a contract dispute.

The workers at Oliver had been working on a day-to-day basis during negotiations for a new contract to replace one that expired Nov. 11. The strike was called when contract renewal talks collapsed.

The strike of 6,500 workers at the Studebaker-Packard plant entered its third day with management representatives and union officials each waiting for the other to make the first move to resume talks.

Farmers' Prices Rise

LANSING (AP) — The index of prices received by Michigan farmers Dec. 15 increased 1 per cent from the month before, standing at 225 per cent of the 1910-14 base, the federal and state agriculture department reported today.

Federal-Mogul Licenses Branch Japanese Firm

DETROIT (AP) — Taiho Kogyo Co., Ltd., of Toyota City, Japan, has been licensed by Federal-Mogul-Bower Bearings, Inc., to produce engine bearings, brushings and thrust washers for Japanese vehicles under patents and processes developed by the American company.

Under the 10-year-agreement, Federal-Mogul-Bower will act as Taiho Kogyo's agent for replacement sales of the licensed products in world markets outside Japan.

PCH and PNH Quintets on Home Courts Friday

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Are you regretting your lack of will power over the holidays? And did you resolve New Year's Day to get rid of those excess bulges caused by that honey cured ham, turkey drumsticks and 65 varieties of goodies?

Bill Blower and Frank Boner, the white-collar muscle beaters over at the Pontiac YMCA athletic club, say this is the busiest time of the year at the club.

* * *

Seems everyone is trying to melt off a few of those holiday pounds with a few finger bends and 15 minutes in the steam room.

"It's surprising how many people around here don't even know this place is here," said Blower, himself a victim of the holidays. He got on the scale a few days before Christmas at 190 pounds and this week he sneaked off the scale after the indicator hit 201.

"That's it," said Bill, "I'm going back on my diet."

This is the diet he advises:

MONDAY: Breakfast—Weak tea; Lunch—One bouillon cube in half cup diluted water; Dinner—One pigeon thigh; three ounces prune juice (gargle only).

TUESDAY—Breakfast — Scraped crumbs from burnt toast; Lunch—One doughnut hole (without sugar); one glass dehydrated water; Dinner—Three grains of cornmeal, broiled.

WEDNESDAY — Breakfast—Shredded egg shell; Lunch—Half dozen poppy seeds; Dinner—Bee's knee and frog knuckle sauted in vinegar.

THURSDAY—Breakfast—Boiled out egg stains from holiday napkin; Lunch — three ground up orange seeds soaked in orange juice; Dinner—Three eyes from an Irish potato (diced).

FRIDAY—Two Lobster antennas; Lunch — One neck joint of a sea horse; Dinner—Rotisserie broiled Guppy filet.

SATURDAY—Breakfast—Four chopped banana seeds; Lunch—broiled butterfly liver; Dinner—Turtle soup (dip the turtle 3 times).

SUNDAY—Breakfast — Poached humming bird tongue; Lunch—Prime rib of tadpole and aroma of empty custard pie plate; Dinner—Tossed clover leaf salad sprinkled with paprika.

(A seven ounce glass of steam is a wonderful beverage to go with dinner.)

* * *

With this diet, Blower advises use of the athletic club facilities—the steam bath, rubbing tables, sun lamp, the shimmy machine, bicycle, heat cabinet and two free sunflower seeds—about three times a week.

Plans are to enlarge the athletic club in conjunction with YMCA expansion program. The YMCA is still short of its goal, but now's the time for all "pleasantly plump" men to help the "Y" goal as well as their waistlines.

Huskie Tankers Win; Groves Beats Bluejays

Pontiac Northern won its third swimming meet in four starts by defeating Warren 57-48 in the Huskie pool last night while Birmingham Seaholm was handing Fitzgerald a dunking by the same 57-48 score.

The Huskies, losers only to strong Thurston, won both team relay events to help their cause. Only Alex Hiller in diving and Lou Ferrell in the breaststroke and John Bilkey in the backstroke were individual winners.

* * *

Warren had five individual winners with Pat McPharlin winning the 200 freestyle and Darryl Kifer winning the 50 and 100 freestyle events.

The Seaholm 200-yard medley relay team of Bob Wolf, Jim Bradburn, Don Spencer and Jack Hoyt did the event in the best time in the state thus far this season—1:47.5.

Keith Brockman set a Fitzgerald varsity and pool record in the 50 freestyle in a time of :23.6 and he also set a pool record in the 100 freestyle in :53.2.

* * *

Fitzgerald's diving ace Mike Reynolds stayed unbeaten since the state meet last year by winning the event with 67.5 points.

Maple coach Corey Van Fleet moved some of the swimmers to different events in order to use his best in the relay events.

In another meet last night, Birmingham Groves surprised Southfield in the Blue Jay Pool, 55-51.

Lee Driver, Groves' fine breaststroker, set a Southfield pool record in 1:05.5 and he won the individual medley in 2:26.9. Southfield took six firsts but Groves showed surprising strength for runnerup points.

Huskies Home, Central Away on Mats Tonight

The second match in three nights for Pontiac Central and a full Inter-Lakes League slate will make up an interesting prep wrestling schedule tonight.

PCH, fresh from its first victory, will travel to Port Huron. The Chiefs will then be idle until the big Jan. 16 return battle with Pontiac Northern.

Northern will host Southfield tonight, while Waterford invades Walled Lake and Farmington vs. Berkley.

Big Ten Invitational for Tankers Saturday

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The annual Big Ten Invitational Swimming Relays will be held here Saturday with only three Big Ten schools entered.

Michigan, Michigan State and Indiana are the only Big Ten schools entered, although U-M coach Gus Stager says Ohio State may compete. Non-conference entries are Wayne State, Toronto and Kenyon (Ohio) College.

Waterford Foe for Northern in I-L Battle

Rams, Lancers Home; Wayne-Oakland Lead Up for Grabs

BY CHUCK ABAIR

High school basketball gets back on an even keel Friday night around this area following the various holiday tournaments and vacation contests.

Heading a long list 1962 loop openers will be a Waterford-Pontiac Northern Inter-Lakes affair at the Huskie gym. Walled Lake will entertain Berkley and Southfield goes to Farmington in other league play.

A full Eastern Michigan slate will have Birmingham Seaholm at East Detroit, Ferndale vs. Port Huron and Mt. Clemens at Hazel Park.

Avondale visits Troy, Lake Orion plays at Madison and Clawson battles Fitzgerald in Oakland A games.

* * *

In the Wayne-Oakland, West Bloomfield tries to pull an upset at Northville. Holly invades Clarenceville. Clarkston and Milford tangle and Bloomfield Hills travels to Brighton.

St. Frederick, one of four city schools at home on the same night, will be host to St. Clement, Waterford Our Lady goes to St. Benedict and St. James vs. Royal Oak St. Mary in Suburban Catholic duels.

Southern Thumb games will include Dryden at home to meet Anchor Bay, Almont at Capac, Brown City at Armada and Memphis against New Haven.

* * *

Elsewhere, Emmanuel will take on Country Day here, Royal Oak Dondero plays at Grosse Pointe, Birmingham Groves is guest of Dearborn Haston, North Farmington visits Southgate Davison, Ortonville entertains Montrose, Farmington Our Lady faces Ann Arbor St. Thomas, Royal Oak Shrine vs. River Rouge Lourdes and South Lyon is at Willow Run.

OTHERS RESUME LATER

Orchard Lake St. Mary, Waterford Kettering, St. Michael, Cranbrook, Rochester, and Oxford are among those resuming activity at later dates.

PNH and Waterford got off to similar slow starts in December and are hoping for things to change soon. Each is one game below .500 in season play including losses in the only I-L tilts. Walled Lake, defending co-champ with Northern, has dropped all six outings. Southfield is 4-3, Berkley 2-4 and Farmington 5-1. The Falcons, Jays and Bear own loop wins.

* * *

Seaholm and Ferndale are 2-2, East Detroit 2-1, Hazel Park 1-3, Port Huron 3-1 and Mt. Clemens 0-3. Port Huron tops the EML with 2-0, Seaholm and Ferndale are 1-0.

Avondale is 1-1 in the league and 2-1 over-all, Orion 0-3 and 0-4 in that order, Troy 2-1 and 3-1, Clawson 3-1 and 5-1, Fitzgerald 4-0 and 5-0, Oak Park 1-3 and 1-4 and Madison 0-2 and 1-3.

The game at Northville will be a battle of W-O leaders. Each is 4-0 followed by Bloomfield Hills 3-1, Holly 2-2, Clarkston 1-2, Brighton 1-3, Milford and Clarenceville 0-4.

* * *

St. Fred, last year's SCL power, has divided two loop starts but has been improving in holiday drills. OLL is 0-2, Royal Oak 3-0, St. Clement 2-0, St. James 2-1, St. Ben 2-1 and St. Rita 0-3.

* * *

Unbeaten Capac heads the Thumb with four others close behind tied for 2nd.

Legal Action Threatened If Dietzel Leaves LSU

BATON ROUGE, La. AP—This may be the day of decision for Paul Dietzel, the dimpled darling of Louisiana State University football fans—that is, until a few days ago—and more recently the man Army apparently expects to return West Point to the greatness of years gone by.

* * *

The big pull in the tug of war over the 38-year-old coach, who guided LSU to the national championship in 1958 and three bowl games in the last four years, came from the South today.

Tom Dutton, a member of the LSU Board of Supervisors which hires and fires football coaches, said he would ask the board to take legal action against Dietzel if he asked to be released from the remaining four years of his contract.

DIETZEL NOT TAKING

There were reports from West Point that Dietzel had asked the board to meet to consider such a request. Not so, said Dutton, the board has not been asked to meet.

As for Dietzel—the tall, good-looking organizational genius who gave the term "Chinese Bandits" to college football—well, he wasn't saying anything.

* * *

"My only comment, for what it's worth, is no comment," he told The Associated Press Wednesday night. He would neither confirm nor deny:

1. If he had asked the board to meet.

2. If he had been approached by military academy authorities.

3. If he would fly to New York this week to confer with Army officials.

* * *

After three straight losses to Navy, the Army felt it was time for a change and gave Dale Hall his walking papers several weeks ago. West Point athletic authorities apparently felt that Dietzel, a one-time aide to former Army Coach Earl (Red) Blaik, was the man with the remedy.

LSU FANS MUMBLING

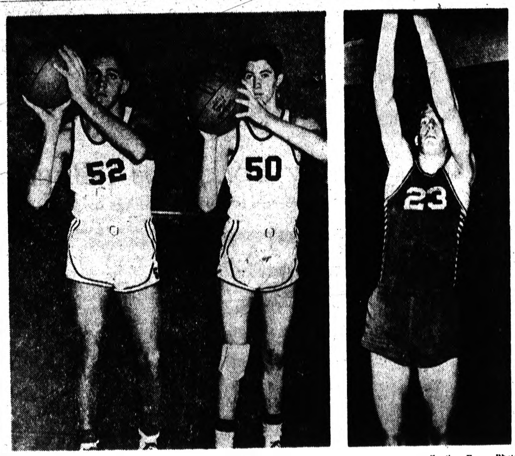

The quick chain of events had LSU sports fans mumbling.

Why, some asked, would Dietzel, or any other coach, want to leave a setup such as exists at LSU? The Tigers, ranked fourth nationally this season and 25-7 winners over Colorado in the Orange Bowl, lose only seven members from the 1961 team that won nine and lost only one.

* * *

His salary is $18,500-a-year with raises almost automatic each year. Bengal backers quickly point out. And Dietzel's forceful personality is such that with LSU's success he has only to make the slightest overture to prep stars and presto! They're in purple and gold uniforms.

Dutton, a member of the LSU board for 21 years, sent telegrams Wednesday to Army Secretary Elvis Stahr, the West Point superintendent and the Army athletic director advising them he would ask for legal action if Dietzel made any move asking his release.

For Senior Bowl Saturday

North and South Defensive Lineups Set

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — It looks like the Southern team in Saturday's Senior Bowl all-star game will take the field with three ends in the line-up.

"I have been so impressed with the fine ends I would like to use them all at the same time," Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts said.

Dave Edwards of Auburn and Gary Collins of Maryland apparently have nailed down starting berths at the end posts, and All-America end Bill Miller probably will be shifted to a starting role as a flanker back.

* * *

But Ewbank and Yankee Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys concentrated mainly on setting up defensive teams for the nationally televised game.

CONTRAST IN TACKLES

Ewbank apparently will be using the largest and smallest tackles on his team for defense. Robbie Osborne of Clemson, 6-foot-4 and 278, is likely to be starting at one tackle and Maryland's 215-pound guard, Bill Kirchiro at the other.

Tackle Bill Rice of Alabama has been converted to defensive end and seems to have captured the starting nod. Mississippi end Ralph Smith probably will man the opposite end.

* * *

Backing up the Southern line probably will be Mike Lucci, 203-pound Tennessee center; Roland Jackson, 203-pound Rice fullback and Ken Hays, Baylor's 204-pound guard.

LOMAKOSKI WILL START

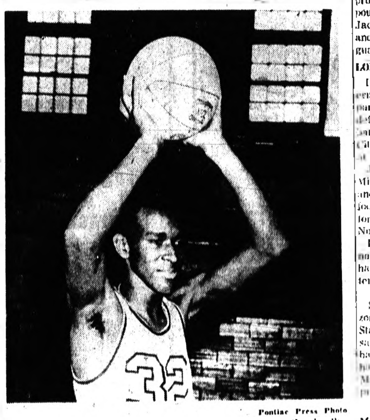

Don Fuell of Mississippi Southern and Jack Collins of Texas apparently will hold down the South's defensive halfback slots, and Alabama's Billy Richardson and The Citadel's Early Eastburn will be at safety.

John Lomakoski of Western Michigan, 6-foot-1 and 241 pounds, and Utah State's Clark Miller, 6-foot-5 and 250, evidently are slated for starting action at tackle for the North.

Landry has been hesitant to name his starters, but he said he has been impressed with his quarterbacks and running backs.

* * *

Signal callers Ed Wilson of Arizona and Mel Melin of Washington State have been throwing well, he said. Steve Simms, Rutgers fullback, Tom Larscheid, Utah State halfback and Bill Tunnicliff, Michigan fullback have impressed him as runners.

THREAT TO CHEMICS—Midland will have to stop the deadly outside shooting of Pontiac Central's Clarence Douglas when the two Saginaw Valley Conference basketball rivals clash tomorrow night at the PCH gym. Douglas has scored 68 points in five games for a 13.6 average to help the Chiefs stay unbeaten.

2 Pistons Added to 'Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Rosters were completed today for the annual National Basketball Association All-Star Game with the addition of six players to the West team. The game will be played at St. Louis, Jan. 16.

* * *

Jack Twyman and Wayne Embry of Cincinnati, Cliff Hagan of St. Louis, Bailey Howell and Gene Shue of Detroit and Frank Selvy of Los Angeles were named to the West squad in a vote of league coaches.

They will join the West's first five, picked in a poll of NBA writers and sportscasters—Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles, Bob Pettit of St. Louis, Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati and Walt Bellamy of Chicago.

* * *

For the 11-man East team Bob Cousy and Tom Heinsohn of Boston, Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia, Dolph Schayes of Syracuse and Richie Guerin of New York were chosen as starters. The squad was completed with Paul Arizin and Tom Gola of Philadelphia, Willie Naulls of New York, Bill Russell of Boston and Hal Greer and Larry Costello of Syracuse.

Red Auerbach of Boston will coach the East team and Fred Schaus of Los Angeles will handle the West.

Lunde Recalled by Red Wings; to Play Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — Len Lunde, 25, has been recalled from the Edmonton Flyers of the Western Hockey League to the Detroit Red Wings' roster. He'll play against the Chicago Black Hawks tonight at Olympia.

Lunde, a center, was recalled yesterday. He ranked as the second leading scorer in the WHL this season with 16 goals and 27 assists for 43 points in 31 games.

A regular with the Red Wings the past three seasons, he failed to stick with the club in pre-season training this fall. Lunde's freshman year with Detroit in 1958-59 was his best in National Hockey League play. He scored 14 goals and added 12 assists. He scored six goals in each of the past two NHL seasons.

Paced by Young Stars

Leafs and Hawks Victors

By The Associated Press

A couple of heralded youngsters—Dave Keon of Toronto and Bobby Hull of Chicago — shared the National Hockey League spotlight today after sparking their teams to victories.

Keon, a 21-year-old center who was rookie of the year last season, scored two goals in the Maple Leafs' 3-1 triumph over the league-leading Montreal Canadiens Wednesday night.

Hull, the league's top scorer two years ago, celebrated his 23rd birthday with a goal and an assist as the black Hawks edged the New York Rangers 2-1.

* * *

With Keon and Hull—both considered potential "super stars"—leading the way, their clubs picked up ground in the races for first and third places. Runner-up Toronto moved to within two points of Montreal while Chicago closed to within three points of the third-place Rangers.

Keon missed a grand opportunity for the "hat trick" as he was thwarted for a possible third goal by Montreal goalie Jacques Plante on a penalty shot in the second period.

* * *

Dick Duff gave the Leafs a 1-0 lead in the opening period and Keon produced his pair in the first two stanzas. The Canadiens' Marcel Bonin spoiled Toronto goalie Johnny Bower's shutout bid on a tip-in goal with just 11 seconds left to play.

Hull's goal, his 15th, came at the outset of the second period on a rebound of Bill Hay's shot. The blond winger then set up Stan Mikita early in the third frame to give the Hawks a 2-0 lead.

Earl Ingarfield of New York ruined Chicago goalie Glenn Hall's try for his second straight blanking with a 15-footer with less than five minutes remaining.

Chiefs Tangle With Midland in SVC Battle

Central Cagers Risk Flawless 5-0 Record Against Chemics

By BILL CORNWELL

Pontiac Central's undefeated basketball squad may receive the "old-fashioned" treatment Friday evening.

A Midland team which has thus far specialized in control-ball tactics and deliberate play makes its first basketball visit to Pontiac tomorrow night for a Saginaw Valley Conference game.

The Chemics, coached by Keith Carey, played in a style that was reminiscent of the hardwood sport 20 to 25 years ago when they met powerful Saginaw High Dec. 22 on the Midland floor.

Carey's forces virtually played catch with the ball for the first three minutes of the contest as they waited for "sure" shots at the bucket in an effort to slow down the racehorse Trojans.

* * *

They were ahead at the end of the 1st quarter, 7-5, but Saginaw's superiority eventually asserted itself and the Trojans won, 58-39.

Carey, former Alma College and Dow Chemical cage star, hinted that the Chiefs might get a dose of the same medicine here Friday.

"We felt that Saginaw would really slaughter us if we didn't try to slow them down to a walk," Carey said. "We overdid the strategy, however, and passed up some good shots we should have taken."

"Saginaw got rolling in the 2nd half and we couldn't hold them off, although we did limit Ernie Thompson to 14 points," Carey said. "Our outlook on the Pontiac team is similar to the Saginaw approach."

Midland's leading scorer is forward Larry Jaster, a 6-2 sharpshooter who quarterbacked the Chemics' talented football club last fall.

* * *

The southpaw gunner has scored 65 points in Midland's four games and is the only returning regular from the 1960-61 quintet.

Completing the Chemics' starting lineup will be 6-0 forward Ray Tucker, 6-3 center Paul Key and guards Frank Jones (5-10) and Dan Jaster (6-1). Dan, a sophomore, is Larry's brother. Jones with 42 points and Key with 30 are Midland's 2nd and 3rd point leaders.

Midland will be putting a 2-2 record against Pontiac's spotless 5-0 mark. The Chemics are 2-1 in Valley competition while the Chiefs share the SVC lead with Saginaw at 3-0.

PCH coach Art Van Ryzin will probably start the same lineup that has been so successful to date.

Rudy Ransom and Ed Williams are slated for duty at forwards, Otto Kennedy will see action at center and Clarence Douglas will team with Roy Couser in the back court.

* * *

Paul Brown and sophomore Alvin Keel are certain to see heavy duty. Brown has been a tower of strength in Central's last two games, both as scorer and rebounder, and Keel has improved steadily at guard.

Game time is 8 p.m., preceded by a junior varsity contest at 6:30.

Sentence Delayed

NEW YORK (AP) — The sentencing of Joseph Green of New York on charges of attempting to bribe a Columbia University basketball player last year has been postponed until Feb. 1.

Good Rally Produces Win on Home Court

Shue, Howell Standouts; Cincinnati and Lakers Also Triumph

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit scored nine points while holding Boston scoreless late in the fourth quarter last night in beating the Celtics 112-103 in the second game of a National Basketball Association doubleheader.

Cincinnati snapped a three-game losing streak in the first game, by defeating New York 122-111.

The Pistons had won only three of their previous 12 games before dealing the Celtics their sixth loss this season.

Early in the final quarter it appeared Boston was ready to pull away from the Detroiters. The Celtics led by as many as eight points before the Pistons pulled to a 103-103 tie.

CELTICS LEAD AT HALF

Then Bob Ferry popped a 20-footer, Ray Scott hit a free throw and Gene Shue followed with a field goal to vault the Pistons into a commanding lead. Ferry and Willie Jones both added two free throws as the Pistons coasted home.

The Celtics had powered to a 56-53 halftime margin.

Detroit was led by Shue's 22 points and Bailey Howell's 17. Tom Heinsohn scored 23 for the Celtics.

The victory kept Detroit in third place in the NBA's Western Division. Boston leads the Eastern Division by eight games.

Cincinnati's victory over New York turned into a rout during the second half. The Royals led by as many as 20 points. Jack Twyman led Cincinnati scoring with 34 points and Phil Jordon had 21 for New York.

In the only other NBA game, Jerry West led the Los Angeles Lakers to a 124-123 victory over Philadelphia. West got 44 points.

Yankee Netters vs. South Africa in Orange Finals

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Teams representing the United States and South Africa meet today in finals of the Orange Cup Junior tennis matches with both singles and doubles on the program.

Clint Buchholz of the United States plays Piet Symman of South Africa, followed by Charles Pasarell of the United States against Clive S. Brebnor of South Africa.

The U.S. team struggled into the finals by defeating Australia and South Africa eliminated Italy in edneaday's matches.

Pasarell, U.S. junior champion from Puerto Rico, beat Australia's No. 2 junior, Anthony Roche, 9-7, 6-1, but Australia's No. 3 junior, Geoffrey Pollard, trimmed Buchholz, of St. Louis, 9-7, 4-1. The U.S. team defeated Australia in the doubles, 8-6, 6-1.

Golfdom's Best Begin '62 Tournament Trail

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Golf's greatest players hit the rich money trail today in a $5,000 professional-celebrity prelude to the $45,000 Los Angeles Open.

★ ★ ★

The 72-hole main show gets underway Friday in this 36th annual winter classic as the pros launch a $2 million dollar tournament campaign for 1962. The setting is again the Rancho Municipal Golf Club which has par 36-35-71 for its 7,000-yard course.

Heading the field are Arnold Palmer, former National Open and Masters champion, and the man who beat him out of the 1961 money-winning title, Gary Player.

Special interest centers on the professional tournament debut of the 1961 Amateur champion, Jack Nicklaus. The ex-Ohio State University star finished second and fourth in the last two National Open championships.

New York Nips T-Birds

By United Press International

New York swept its series with Detroit and dumped the National Bowling League leaders into a first place tie with the Idle Twin Cities last night.

In the only other league action, the Fresno Bombers pounded out a 40-28 victory over Dallas to also make it two in a row over the Broncos and strengthen their hold on third place.

The Gladiators and Detroit's Thunderbirds deadlocked 14-14, but New York was awarded the victory on the basis of total pinfall, 2038 to 2027.

Dallas led 20-14 at the half, but the Bombers raced from behind to overwhelm the Broncos. Bill Bunetta set the pace for Fresno with games of 267 and 257.

★ ★ ★

The league is idle tonight but swings back into action with a trio of three-game series over the weekend Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Detroit and the Twin City Skippers clash for the lead at Minneapolis, Dallas goes to New York and Fresno tackles the Panthers at Fort Worth.

Keg Qualifying Begins Today

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Qualifying begins today in the 21st All-Star Bowling Tournament with 432 men and women competing for $100,000 in prize money.

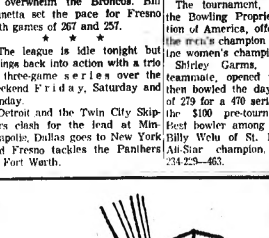

A two-game trial run Wednesday gave bowlers an opportunity to try out the 24 new lanes installed in vast Convention Hall. Women bowlers took the spotlight as Helen Duval of Berkeley, Calif., and Joan Holm of Chicago led for the best score with 483.

The tournament, sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, offers $15,000 for the men's champion and $5,000 for the women's champion.

Shirley Garms, Miss Holm's teammate, opened with 191 and then bowled the day's best game of 279 for a 470 series, giving her the $100 pre-tournament prize. Best bowler among the men was Billy Welu of St. Louis, former All-Star champion, who rolled 234-225—463.

ABL Nears Finish of 1st Half Battle

By United Press International

First half action in the American Basketball League ends next Wednesday and the races in both divisions are still dogfights.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland kept pace with Pittsburgh in the Eastern loop last night by dumping Chicago, 114-104. Both the Pipers and Rens are now knotted at 21-17.

In the Western Division, Kansas City seems to be running out of gas.

San Francisco nipped the Steers 102-99 last night on the last minute heroics of old pro Kenny Sears and Kansas City's lead over Los Angeles was thereby cut to two games.

BREAK GROUND WITH '45s—The Houston Colts of the National Baseball League broke ground Wednesday in Houston for their multi-million dollar domed stadium due to be completed in 1963. Using 45s to break ground are (from left): Craig Cullihan, president of the club; Bill Elliott, Harris County judge; and Paul Richards, the club's general manager.

Doctor Seeks Sportsmanship

Elbow Football Weapon

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "The elbow has become a formidable offensive weapon" in football, a doctor told college and high school athletic officials today.

Dr. Allan J. Ryan of Meriden, Conn., said sportsmanship—not rules—is needed to "help make the injury problem less serious."

He spoke at a meeting of the National Alliance football organization, made up of groups representing small colleges, junior colleges and high schools in 49 states.

Dr. Ryan, a member of the American Medical Association's committee on the medical aspects of sports, said two practices are "being introduced by certain coaches who like to see the play a little more rugged but perhaps are not aware of the extent to which the injury potential is increased."

These practices are "spearing" and "gang-tackling," he said.

A survey of about 7,500 school athletic officials released at the meeting showed that 3,094 thought grasping the face mask of an opponent was a major injury problem, and 2,231 thought face masks contributed to injuries to the wearer.

A little more than 1,000 said the face mask contributed to injuries to the opponent.

Waterford Archers Start Season Tonight

The Waterford Recreation Department Winter Archery League will start its season tonight at the CAI building with practice at 7 and opening matches at 7:30.

Villanova Drops Seton Hall Off Cage List

3 Major Unbeatens Left

By The Associated Press

The battle of the unbeatens wasn't.

Villanova beat Seton Hall in a walk. Or, more appropriately in the case of the fleet Wildcats, a run.

Racing and driving, showing off their quick-handed defenders in their aggressive zone, the Wildcats blitzed the Pirates 99-67 Wednesday night.

Now there are just three undefeated major college basketball teams — Villanova (12-0), Ohio State (10-0) and Mississippi State (9-0).

★ ★ ★

Seton Hall, winner over four lesser opponents, was expected to face an unhappy moment of truth against the nationally fifth-ranked Wildcats—and the issue was never in doubt. Villanova's versatile Hubie White hit on 13 of 20 shots from the floor and totaled 30 points, sophomore George Leftwich scored 22, Jim O'brien had 18, and soph Wally Jones did a dazzling job as playmaker despite a sore shoulder.

DUKE ROLLS

Another member of the top 10, eighth-ranked Duke, smothered Penn State 95-55 behind the gunning of Art Heyman and Jeff Mullins. But 10th-ranked Bowling Green needed a pair of clutch free throws in the waning seconds to shade Western Michigan 73-72 in a Mid-American Conference opener.

Heyman's 36 points and Mullins' 24 were more than the Blue Devils needed against Penn State as they ran their record to 9-1.

Defending champion Texas Tech and the club that appears to be its chief rival, Arkansas, started off the Southwest Conference season with victories. Tall Harold Hudgens pumped in three quick baskets as Tech took the lead for good in the early stages and the Red Raiders cruised over Texas 77-66. Arkansas won its ninth in a row after an opening game loss, beating Texas A&M, 64-59.

THREE TEAMS REBOUND

Garry Roggenburk zeroed in during the second half, powering Dayton (9-1) from behind in a 64-48 runaway against Xavier, Ohio. Roggenburk clicked on nine of 10 shots in the second half, outscored Xavier 19-12 by himself, and finished with 26 points for the night.

Three teams which were members of the elite top 10 before losses skidded them out, came back winners.

West Virginia, back in the neighborly confines of the Southern Conference, blasted VMI 101-79 with Rod Thorn and Jim McMormick getting 22 points apiece. The Mountaineers, now 6-0 in the league and 8-3 over-all, had lost three of their last four.

Jim Hadnot netted five of his eight points in the closing 89 seconds as Providence came out of a four-game losing slump with a 56-54 decision over Brown. And St. Bonaventure, loser of two of its last three, overcame Belmont Abbey 85-68.

In other games it was Marquette 75, DePaul 68, The Citadel 68; Davidson 62, William & Mary 47; Virginia Tech 91, Alabama 67; Maryland 67, George Washington 56; Miami, Fla. 80, Rhode Island 70; Virginia 65, Marshall 63; South Carolina 97, Georgia 72; Pitt 66, Kent State 62; Harvard 72, Carnegie Tech 64; Lafayette 65, Lehigh 64; Houston 67, North Texas 44; Los Angeles Loyola 82, Hawaii 55, and Pepperdine 97, Redlands 70.

Western One-Point Loser to Nation's No. 10 Quintet

By The Associated Press

Western Michigan fought the nation's 10th-ranked major college basketball power to a standoff for most of four quarters Wednesday night before yielding to Bowling Green, 73-72.

The Broncos' upset hopes were squelched, however, when Nate Thurmond dropped in the winning free throw with two seconds left.

The lead changed hands 18 times during the game and WMU led, 42-38, at halftime.

The Falcons tightened their defense in the second half and held WMU center Bob Bolton to three points after he had 17 in the first half.

Bolton's 20 points were tops for WMU and Howard Komives had 21 for Bowling Green. It was the Mid-American Conference opener for both schools.

In other college action involving Michigan teams, Franklin, Ind., displayed a powerful second half attack and swept by Lawrence Tech, 87-79. Tech led 45-44 at halftime. John Bradley had 22 points for LIT.

In an MIAA game, Kalamazoo overwhelmed Alma 96-57. The Hornets led most of the way.

Gordon Rodwan paced Kalamazoo with 22 points and Bill Pendell had 21 for Alma.

Ohio Northern breezed past Olivet, 74-71. The Polar Bears led throughout.

Dick Grouch's 14 points were tops for Olivet and Jim Saunders had 14 for the Ohioans.

Adrian wilted under a torrid Assumption, Ont., attack, 93-64. The Canadians were in command most of the way and were led by Jack Kelly's 23 points. Ron Schult had 16 for Adrian.

Felice Cagers Post City Loop Triumph

Gerry Scherer meshed 23 points and teammate Bill Sekulich added 19 to spark Felice Market to a 58-52 triumph over 300 Bowl last night in a National division City League basketball game at PNH. Gary Holtz and Dave Lafkin made 11 and 10 respectively for the losers.

In another National loop contest the Wallace Cutters trounced Michigan Bell 49-28. Bud Hayward and Bob Becker each had 10 points for the winners.

The Pontiac Police upset Town & Country 43-38 in a National, tilt at Lincoln. John Bridgewater paced the Police cagers with a dozen points while game honors went to T&C's Roger Reynolds who hit 13.

Thorell's 20 Points Pace Lakeland Cagers to Win

With Stu Thorell hitting for 20 points and Tom Nickman 17, Lakeland Pharmacy defeated Tim's Barber 67-50 in Waterford class A recreation league play. Frank Girt and Dick Chambers each had 15 for the losers. Lakeland was behind 31-29 at halftime and Thorell got 15 of his points in the second half.

In a class B game, Nicholie Real Estate had four players in double figures to defeat Hoyt Realty 71-54. Ron Hetherington had 18 for the winners and Wendy Meyer 20 for the losers.

2 Doctors Say Pittsburgh Ace Ready to Hurl

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Vernon Law, ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates' 1960 pitching staff, has been given the okay by two Pittsburgh physicians to resume pitching.

Drs. Albert Ferguson Jr. and Joseph Finegold examined Law Wednesday and said that his injured shoulder has healed completely.

But Joe L. Brown, Pirates' general manager, remains uncertain about Law's status.

"While the report is good we will still know nothing about his future as a pitcher until we see that he can pitch," Brown said.

Gopher End to Lions

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Lions have signed Tom Hall, an end from Minnesota, to a National Football League contract.

Coach George Wilson said "he was one of our draft choices and we'll use him. We're glad to have him with us."

Win Comeback Poll

By The Associated Press

The University of Oklahoma Sooners, for years a terror of the college gridiron, made the greatest comeback of the 1961 season according to sports writers and sportscasters balloting in the annual Associated Press year-end football poll.

College Teammates Foes in U.S. Bowl

WASHINGTON (AP) — College teammates like Arizona halfbacks Joe Hernandez and Bobby Lee Thompson will find themselves on opposite sides of the line Sunday in the U.S. Bowl football game.

★ ★ ★

That's because the teams will be made up of National Football League team draft choices. The East team, coached by Bill McPeak of the Washington Redskins, will be composed of boys drafted by the seven Eastern Division teams of the NFL. Ditto for the West, coached by Red Hickey of the San Francisco 49ers.

★ ★ ★

The Redskins drafted Hernandez while Detroit picked Thompson.

Despite the professional angle, the players will not lose their amateur standing in the NCAA-sanctioned game. Each receives a jacket, a watch, a tour of Washington, and expenses.

ALL SIZES—A big turnout of skiers took to the slopes at Grampian Mt. over the New Year holiday and these crowded ski racks would indicate that there was a lot of activity as well in the Grampian lodge where skiers were enjoying hot beverages and snacks. The two youngsters on the left and the presence of many children's skis in the racks also shows the big interest skiing is receiving from younger tots.

WINTER SPORTS

Good Area Ski Crowds for New Year Weekend

Skiers, do't let the peeking sun fool you. All local ski areas enjoyed a big weekend over the New Year's holiday as main slopes and all facilities were put into action.

An estimated total of 12,000 skiers enjoyed very good skiing conditions at the five most local resorts for the 3 days, Saturday through Monday.

Fresh snowfall up through Tuesday and new powder added by snow machines have given all the areas a good enough base which would not be seriously disrupted by the slight warming spell yesterday and today.

In fact, skiers enjoyed yesterday's weather in much more comfort than the zero temperatures a week ago.

Although the temperature today was expected to reach a high of 39, colder weather has been forecast for the weekend which should enable the machines to add new powder to the slopes.

These were the conditions which prevailed early today at the local ski areas:

ALPINE VALLEY — All slopes, T-bars, tows and lodge facilities are in operation. Skiing is still very good.

MT. CHRISTIE—All slopes in operation along with Pomalift and rope tows. Skiing excellent in new toddler's area which has own slow moving tow. Skiing on beginner's, intermediate slopes very good and on main slope good.

GRAMPIAN MT.—Area is closed this afternoon to make snow but will be open tonight. Good base is available and complete area is covered. Conditions are good to very good.

DRYDEN SKI AREA — More new powder added by nightly operation of snow machines. Entire area including ski bowl is covered with all facilities operating and skiing very good.

MT. HOLLY — Three main slopes, beginner's area and intermediate area all have very good skiing. Tows, T-bar and Chair all operating.

SUMMIT — All tows and slopes are open. Skiing good to very good.

GRANVIEW SKI AREA — All facilities in operation and skiing good to very good.

MT. BRIGHTON — Some new powder and operation of all facilities makes skiing very good.

Other Conditions

WEST MICHIGAN

AVALANCHE—10-16 inches packed base, 4 inches powder, skiing excellent.

Want to Ski? It's Very Easy to Get Started

Want to go skiing for the first time and but don't know how to get started?

It's really not such a problem. Pick up the family or friends, get dressed nice and warm and pick a ski area.

All the local areas have class instructions by certified instructors at given times during the day.

If you want to find out times of the classes call the ski areas: Alpine Valley—887-4180; Dryden —SW 4-8311, Mt. Christie — OA 8-3957; Grampian Mt.—OA 8-2450 and Mt. Holly—ME 4-9281.

★ ★ ★

The rental shop at each area will help with the selection of equipment and for the first time you can join all the other beginners flopping around having fun on the beginner's slopes.

★ ★ ★

At least 3,000 area folks will get the ski bug for the first time this year.

Prep Ski Units Start Schedule

High school skiing begins a competitive weekly schedule for the first time locally Saturday morning at Mt. Holly with a triangular meet involving Bloomfield Hills, Royal Oak Kimball and Waterford Kettering.

A five week schedule has been set up by the eight participating schools.

On February 10th at Mt. Holly all the ski teams will take part in the Southeastern Michigan interscholastic meet, and then follow with one more triangular meet on Feb. 17th.

Other schools competing in the schedule are Waterford High, Walled Lake, Grosse Pointe, Avondale and Beckley.

Learned to Ski at Mt. Christie

Blind Skier Likes Being 'Tomboy'

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Margaret Smith, 22-year-old graduate journalism student at Marquette University, admits she's a tomboy and likes it.

She has been riding horses since she was five, does a lot of year-round swimming, enjoys water skiing and loves snow skiing and ice skating.

At Mt. Christie last weekend, Margaret was home from school for the holidays and she and her Leader Dog made their first visit of the season to a ski area.

"I was real discouraged. Everyone told me I shouldn't attempt it," she said. I decided to call Bob Jackson, manager at Mt. Christie one day, and he said if I had the desire to learn, he would help me get started," she added.

Mt. Christie ski pro Michele Turcotte accepted the challenge to teach the blind girl how to ski and today Margaret gets to a ski area as often as she can.

"Michele was very patient with me. He placed the skis in their proper position for the different basic fundamentals and I practiced each phase by repetition," she said.

Her mother, Mrs. Edwin Smith of Grosse Pointe, driven her to the ski areas. "We are very happy she has taken such interest in sports," said Mrs. Smith, "She has been very brave about it."

Margaret never attempts to undertake a ski slope by herself. She uses only the beginner's or intermediate slopes with another good skier or instructor right along side to give her verbal instructions.

In picking a part of the slope on which to ski, she stays in the same area going downhill thereby learning the contour of the slope by habit.

After graduating from Marygrove College in Detroit, Margaret started graduate work at Marquette University where she will go for another year.

"I'd like to do free lance writing," she said. The first article she wrote a couple years ago was a hot-rod feature and it received good attention from a hot-rod magazine.

★ ★ ★

Living close to Metropolitan Beach, she learned to water ski there with Joe Grimaldi, head of the water ski school, as her instructor.

"I've taken some bumps and bruises in some of the sports, but nothing serious," she said.

What does she plan to do next? "I think I'd like to take a few courses in Judo," she commented.

Ski Movie to Be Shown in Birmingham Tonight

The popular new ski film "Once Upon an Alp" will be presented tonight at 8:30 p.m. at the Birmingham Theater under the sponsorship of the Birmingham Skier's Club.

John Jay, famous U.S. Olympic photographer, is producer of the film which encompasses humor, precision skiing, scenic mountain beauty, and beautiful color.

It is an appealing story of an American farmer who realizes his fondest dream of skiing in the Alps and winds up in a wild ski chase. There's romance when the hero falls in love with a pretty Olympic champion and there's action when the cameras give a closeup of a treacherous two-mile, downhill run on skis.

World's Best Alpine Skiers Take Part in Warmup Meets

GENEVA (AP) — The world's best Alpine skiers meet in Switzerland next week for their first test of strength prior to the world championships.

★ ★ ★

Fourteen nations have entered their elite skiers for the three international events traditionally starting the European racing season—the men's giant slalom races at Adelboden Jan. 7-8, the women's events at Grindelwald Jan. 9-11, and the men's Lauberhorn races at Wengen Jan. 13-14.

★ ★ ★

Even if snow conditions may force cancellation of the Adelboden events, but there is ample snow in Grindelwald and Wengen, and more snow is expected soon all over Switzerland.

★ ★ ★

The outcome of the last two races, together with other major events later this month in Austria, Italy and France, will help determine the starting lists for the World Ski Championships in Chamonix, France, Feb 10-18.

Some 90 competitors were expected in Adelboden while more than 100 will take part in the Grindelwald and Wengen races.

The Swiss events will also be the first major test for the U.S. team, which did not race in Europe last year. The six men and five girls have been training in France since early last month.

Scheduled to start in Adelboden and in Wengen are Buddy Werner, Steamboat Springs, Colo.; Jim Heuga, Tahoe City, Calif.; Bill Marolt, Aspen, Colo., Chuck Ferries, Houghton, Mich., Bill Kidd, Stowe, Vt., and Gordy Eaton, Littleton, N.H.

Entered for the women's event at Grindelwald—where the Nordic races were cancelled this year because of the absence of Scandinavian entries—are Linda Meyers, Bishop, Calif., Joan Hannah, Francestown, N.H., Barbara Ferries, Houghton, Mich., Jean Saubert, Lakeview, Ore., and Nancy Sise, Wellesley, Mass.

Competition from the following nations take part in all three Swiss races: U.S.A., Canada, Sweden, Spain, Norway, Italy, Austria, France, West and East Germany and Switzerland. In addition a Polish men's team is expected in Wengen, and women teams from New Zealand, Belgium and Britain are to compete in Grindelwald.

Sledder Changes Mind

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — Stan Benham, this country's best bobsledder who announced his retirement after last February's world championships, has changed his mind and will lead the United States' quest for a world title next month at the Garmisch-Partenkirchen run in Germany.

Tragedy Stricken Resort Aims for Complete Safety

HARBOR SPRINGS — A drive ongoing ski resort operators to adopt a foolproof safety device on chair lifts is being made by Norman "Nub" Sarns, operator of tragedy-stricken Nub's Nob resort.

Larry Orr, 32, of Grand Rapids was killed Sunday and three other patrons of the resort were injured when the chair lift mechanism failed while carrying skiers uphill.

Sarns today said his resort is installing a giant ratchet-type gear at the hill top end of the lift mechanism. It will be engaged at all times, Sarns said, so the chairs can go only in one direction. If all power on the lift should fail, the gear would hold the chairs in position, said Sarns.

"We'll have the safest chair lift in the country," he claimed. "I have alerted other ski areas and none of us realized the consequences if the (chair lift's) final drive (mechanism) goes out.

At present, we have two braking systems ahead of the final drive and one after it. We will now have three braking systems not connected with the drive."

★ ★ ★

Sarns said he expects similar ratchet safety devices to be installed at resorts with chair lifts similar to those at Nub's Nob.

Bolling Quits Leader Race and Dems Avert Hot Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Withdrawal of Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., from the race for majority leader and tentative approval of a new policy committee have averted a possible session-opening split among House Democrats.

Bolling's statement Wednesday that he would not seek the majority leadership being vacated by Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts left next week's caucuses of House Democrats without a controversial issue.

It cleared the way for unanimous selection of Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma as the party floor leader to succeed McCormack, who has no party opposition to replace the late Sam Rayburn as speaker.

McCormack's election at the initial House session next Wednesday may not even be contested by Republicans. Whether the GOP will go through with the formality of nominating Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana for speaker may not be decided until early next week.

* * *

In any event, Halleck would have no chance of election, the vote traditionally being along straight party lines.

* * *

Bolling had the support of some House liberals when he announced last November that he would seek the majority leadership. However, not enough colleagues rallied behind his standard and he pulled out of the contest.

"Developments in the last few days convince me that I do not have a chance to win," Bolling told newsmen.

NO SOLID SUPPORT

Bolling said he was unable to get solid support in several states with big Democratic delegations. He estimated that at the time of his withdrawal he had from 70 to 80 sure votes and 30 to 40 "possibles"—not enough to win in a caucus of 258 Democrats.

He said he considered his failure to make a winning race a defeat for House liberals. Bolling said that while he regarded Albert a liberal, the Oklahoman had "reservations" when it came to legislation dealing with civil rights and oil and gas.

* * *

Bolling said he was not a candidate for majority whip to succeed Albert and would not accept that position, considered third in the Democratic chain of command in the House. Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana reportedly has the inside track for the post.

* * *

Bolling's withdrawal coincided with reliable reports that Democratic leaders, with White House backing or even prodding, had given the go-ahead to reestablishment of a House Democratic steering or policy committee.

A group of liberals known as the Democratic Study Committee has been agitating for creation of a policy committee to give the liberals more of a voice in party decisions.

* * *

If created, the committee would serve in an advisory capacity to the Democratic leaders but would have no binding authority. Its chairman presumably would attend the weekly White House meeting of congressional leaders.

* * *

The committee would follow the lines of the former Democratic steering commitee with representatives from each of an estimated 18 regions. The old steering committee folded up about 10 years ago after several years of inactivity.

Vatican Willing to Accept Cuban

Move Against Castro Won't Prevent Nod for New Ambassador

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Roman Catholic Church disclosure that Fidel Castro and his top officials have been excommunicated will not keep the Vatican from accepting a new Cuban ambassador, nor will it keep the Cuban government from sending him.

Vatican sources said today Luis Amado Blanco y Fernandez, named by Castro to the ambassadorial post vacant more than a year, would be received in line with diplomatic protocol.

The Cuban Foreign Ministry said in Havana Wednesday after disclosure of the excommunication that Blanco y Fernandez, a Spanish-born dentist and journalist, would leave for the Holy See Jan. 9.

* * *

Blanco y Fernandez' name appears on the 1962 list of diplomatic representatives accredited to the Vatican. Sources said the list took some time in preparation and his name would not have been included if there were plans to reject him.

EXCOMMUNICATED

A canon law expert in the Vatican secretariat of state disclosed Wednesday that Castro and top officials of his pro-Communist regime had been excommunicated.

The action against the Cuban dictator, who was raised a Roman Catholic, apparently was taken some months ago, probably after the expulsion from Cuba in September of Bishop Eduardo Boaz Masvidal and 135 priests.

* * *

The Vatican expert, Archbishop Dino Staffa, said it was automatic under two sections of canon law: for impeding bishops in their work and for using violence against clergymen.

Oakland Employs Expert to Handle College Plans

The Oakland County study for a countywide community college system yesterday hired its guiding expert, Dr. Gerald W. Boicourt, who directed the 1960 six-county study of community college needs.

At the same time, there were indications that Oakland and Macomb counties would integrate their training to meet common needs if and when community college systems are established in both counties.

Oakland County School Board Supt. William J. Emerson said today it now appeared that the Oakland study "in some ways will be tied in with a similar study in the county of Macomb" particularly in regard to technical training.

Macomb County School Board Supt. Harold LeFevre said his office was "considering" making a new community college study. However, he pointed out, Macomb already has established a community college in the Van Dyke School District.

There is no such college in Oakland County.

Co-operation between the two counties will be needed, Emerson said, "because the students' requirements for technical instruction and the employers' requirements for technical help are broader than either the needs of student population or business enterprises to be found in only one county.

"When the survey is made with regard to technical programs particularly, the information will be tied in, we hope, with similar findings in Macomb County, so that more economical and practical solutions will come than otherwise would come up."

* * *

Emerson cited the General Motors Technical Center as an example of an industry which draws its labor supply from both counties and therefore should be considered in establishing technical training programs in both counties.

* * *

Emerson said Boicourt had agreed yesterday to aid the county's study during the next Wayne State semester (February to June), pending granting of a leave of absence from the university.

"Dr. Boicourt is to provide technical assistance for making our community college survey," Dr. Emerson said. "This will include working with some groups of citizens on gathering information in the following fields:

"The probable future enrollment, as well as probable requirements for technical courses of study, for collegiate courses of study, for faculty, for sites, and for buildings.

"He will be in charge of supervising the technical information for a specific and practical blueprint of some things that will be required in Oakland County."

Administration to Push New Bill for School Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new $120-million-a-year federal program to improve the quality of public school education will be proposed to Congress by the Kennedy administration this year, informed sources said today.

* * *

The basic aim would be to provide better trained teachers and the incentive to states to improve their instructional services.

The proposed new program was described as putting together in one package a number of ideas that have been advanced in recent months by Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff.

It also would put new emphasis on at least one proposal which was included in the general school aid bill last year.

* * *

The general aid bill called for $660 million for the first year to aid in construction of classrooms or in paying teacher salaries, or both.

Police Officer Has Fun(?) Chasing Elusive Feline

The life of a police officer isn't free cups of coffee and just riding around in sleek patrol cars.

Sometimes it's frustrating, and downright embarrassing, especially if you're tracking down a wily tomcat. Oakland County Sheriff's Deputy Donald G. Bailey agrees with that.

Somewhere in the county today there is a cat running loose which gave Bailey plenty of headaches Tuesday evening.

It all started out when Bailey was on patrol. He was told to go to a home in Groveland Township. It was a routine call. Mrs. Carl Johnson said there was a strange cat in her attic at 15328 S. Dixie Highway.

* * *

Bailey, upon arriving at the home, found the only entrance to the attic was a small opening in the ceiling. Bailey climbed a ladder supplied by Mrs. Johnson and made his way into the dark attic. He spotted the cat.

The feline fugitive made its way among the rafters of the floorless attic easily. But Bailey, intent on catching the cat, lost his balance.

He bumped his head on the attic roof and his foot went through the living room ceiling, making a 2-by-4-foot hole. The cat got away.

* * *

Somehow the crafty animal got outside. Bailey spotted it on the front porch and quickly put it into the patrol car.

* * *

He then drove it to the Oakland County Animal Shelter in Pontiac. Before Bailey left, however, the cat climbed the wall of the shelter and escaped again.

This time the deputy did not give chase.

Eastern Firm May Buy DSR

Official in Detroit to Study Transit Records; Tells of Interest

DETROIT (AP) — An official of a Washington, D. C., bus firm says his company is interested in purchasing the city-owned Detroit Street Railways transportation system.

* * *

D-C Transit Co. Vice President Morris Fox Wednesday said his firm would "make a million-dollar deposit or anything that would be required to show our serious intent."

Fox added that "we're interested and right now we're studying DSR operating records and financial statements.

"It appears obvious Detroit needs a metropolitan transit system. If something is to be done to meet this need, we're the outfit to do it," said Fox.

D-C IN WASHINGTON

D-C operates the Washington Metropolitan Transit System.

Fox made the announcement of D-C's interest before boarding a plane for Washington.

He met earlier with Detroit officials and representatives of 14 suburbs formerly served by Intertown Suburban Lines, Inc., which went out of business Sunday.

Fox said he would be glad to discuss the proposal with Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh.

* * *

Cavanagh said he "certainly wouldn't turn away without reading any serious prospectus from anyone seriously considering such a thing."

Fox said he could not set a price for the DSR. But the municipally owned system listed a depreciated value of $20,269,248 in its last annual report.

Saud Due to Leave Hospital in Boston

BOSTON (AP)—King Saud of Saudi Arabia was to be discharged today from Peter Brent Hospital after three operations during a six-week hospitalization.

* * *

King Saud, 59, underwent surgery on both eyes to correct cataracts and was operated on for an abdominal condition.

* * *

He will take up residence in a Boston hotel while his son, Prince Mashur Ibn Saud, 8, undergoes corrective surgery on his left hand in Children's Hospital Medical Center. The boy has been without normal use of his left hand since birth.

December Cold Shared by Both Pontiac, Florida

Pontiac and many parts of Florida shared a common problem in December—cold weather.

On all but five days last month temperatures dropped below the 32-degree freezing mark in downtown Pontiac.

The month started out innocently enough with temperatures climbing above 40 degrees on each of the first six days of December.

The month's high reading of 57 degrees was recorded in that period, on Dec. 4, in Pontiac.

* * *

But winter's cold chill set in gradually and the red mercury column edged steadily downward as Christmas shoppers lined downtown streets here.

* * *

On Dec. 29, the temperature plummeted to the month's low of two below zero in Pontiac. On the same day it was colder in Southeast Florida than in some parts of Canada.

AAA BUSY

The Automobile Club of Michigan reported it was from 45 minutes to two hours behind on service calls in the Pontiac area on the morning of Dec. 29 because of the number of motorists with stalled cars.

Snow came down mostly in flurries throughout the month, but the constant chill kept most of it on the ground.

There were 14 times when snow fell on Pontiac during December's 31 days. There were six days of rain, and six days of sunny or mostly sunny weather and five days when it was cloudy or partly cloudy.

The average high temperature for the month was 32.7 degrees and the average low reading was 21.6.

White Paper on Castro Going to Latin Nations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department plans wide distribution in Latin America of a new U.S. White Paper indicting Cuba as a serious threat to hemisphere security and to non-Communist nations everywhere.

The department had one eye peeled on a forthcoming foreign ministers meeting of the Organization of American States as it made the indictment public Wednesday.

It depicted Cuba as so solidly in the Communist sphere that 80 per cent of its foreign trade is with the Soviet bloc and that it has received $60 million to $100 million worth of Soviet bloc arms.

These weapons, the U.S. document said, have enabled Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to support guerrilla operations in other American countries.

SANCTIONS ON AGENDA

The hemisphere foreign ministers will meet Jan. 22 in Punta del Este, Uruguay, to consider possible joint action against Cuba. A two-thirds majority, or 14 votes, will be needed to impose economic or diplomatic sanctions against Cuba. Thirteen American states have broken relations with Cuba. Seven have not.

The White Paper actually is a 32-page booklet that was presented last month to the Interamerican Peace Committee investigating alleged human rights violations and subversive activities by the Castro government.

The committee will report to the ministers meeting on the results of its inquiry.

Among the claims made in the document are these:

Cuba has turned into an armed camp, with a military establishment of 250,000 to 400,000 men, larger than that of any other Latin-American nation.

Castro has built up a Communist-style police state including a massive network of informers.

At least 300 Soviet and Czech military advisers and technicians have gone to Cuba and about 500 technical advisers on nonmilitary matters have arrived from the Communist bloc.

Heparin is used by surgeons to prevent blood clots after operations, according to current medical procedure.

All parcels of land located in Section 5, Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

Please take notice that the Township Board of the Township of Bloomfield has tentatively declared its intention to make the following described improvements:

Construction of sanitary sewer and appurtenances, as follows: Beginning at the terminus Manhole of the Evergreen Interceptor System near the intersection of Franklin and Square Lake Road; thence westerly, with 15-inch sewer, in Square Lake Road 200 feet; thence northerly along the East line of the Standard Oil Company property 180 feet; thence northwesterly 470 feet along the northeasterly line of the Standard Oil Company property to the East line of the Radio Station property; thence northerly 270 feet along said East line, thence beginning with 12-inch sewer and continuing northerly along East property line of the Radio Station 810 feet; thence northwesterly 1,180 feet across Miracle Mile property to an existing Collection Manhole behind the Miracle Mile Stores; thence continuing northwesterly 870 feet with an 8-inch sewer in the Miracle Mile property to the South property line of the Drive-In Theatre, said 8-inch sewer to terminate near the existing Lead from the Drive-In Theatre, Section 5, Bloomfield Township.

and has tentatively designated the special assessment district against which the cost of said improvements is to be assessed as consisting of all the parcels of land set forth above.

Plans and estimates have been prepared and are on file with the Township Clerk for public examination.

Take further notice that the Township Board will meet on January 18, 1962, at 8:30 o'clock p.m., at the Bloomfield Township Hall, 4200 Telegraph Road, in the Township of Bloomfield for the purpose of hearing any objections to the petition, to the improvements and to the special assessment district therefor.

California Socialite Clubbed to Death

PACIFIC PALISADES, Calif. (AP) — An autopsy shows that pretty socialite Doris Bowman, found dead in her bathtub, was beaten to death.

* * *

The woman's body was found Tuesday afternoon, clad in capri pants and a blouse and submerged in a partially filled tub.

* * *

Wednesday, medical investigators said that she was bludgeoned with a club-like instrument and that her lifeless body was then dumped into the tub. No water was found in her lungs, indicating that she did not drown, investigators said.

TV Revue Lampoons Everything From Plumbing to Farms

New Red Hungary Party Line---Laugh at Regime

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Hungary's Communist regime is letting its shortcomings be lampooned sharply in public and joining in the laughs.

The main topic of conversation among Budapesters Wednesday was a 45-hour television revue, seen by an estimated two million people, which relentlessly guyed some of the major failings of Hungarian life.

The revue was televised live from a Budapest theater. And the cameras frequently turned on government leaders in the front row who were obviously enjoying every barbed shaft.

Some Western observers considered it possible that a new soft breeze is blowing in Hungary in the wake of the anti-Stalinism launched at the recent Soviet party congress in Moscow.

AP Photofax

TERRITORY DISPUTE—Shrouded in black on the map is British Honduras which is being claimed by neighboring Guatemala. British plans another rejection of the claim but will offer to discuss a solution to the century-old dispute. Complicating the controversy, Mexico insists that if there is any change in sovereignty over the territory, she should take over part of the country. At present, however, Mexico does recognize British sovereignty over the nation.

In a swipe at shoddy building methods, a plumber in one sketch said: "I read recently that the regime intends to build one million new apartments. Which means that I for one will never be out of repair work."

* * *

Debunking the Communist theory that it will eradicate middle class thinking, the plumber quips: "When I call on a bourgeois housewife I say good morning and never forget to add 'madame.' She likes it.

"When I call on a proletarian housewife, I also say 'good morning, madame.' She likes it even more."

WORK? WHAT'S THAT?

Another sketch showed a radio reporter interviewing a worker on a collective farm:

Reporter—What's your daily program?

Peasant—I read the papers and magazines, read old and new books, listen to the radio, watch the TV and play gramophone records.

Reporter—Where does work figure in your daily schedule?

Peasant—Work? What's that? They tell us it's all done with machinery now.

Reporter—But what about the small private plot of land you're permitted to own on this collective?

Peasant: That's different. My family is out there now working itself to death.

* * *

In a third sketch a professor asked a student what type of commentaries the Voice of America gives on current affairs. The student emitted a loud screech, indicating the effectiveness of the regime's radio jamming apparatus.

PUBLISH "AND"

The latest issue of the usually staid journal Life and Literature took a similar satirical approach.

Regarded by many Hungarians as reflecting neither life nor literature, the journal is often referred to simply as "and."

The editors this week reproduced "and" in the title block in big bold letters. To drive home the point, a black circle was drawn around the word.

In an editorial—printed upside down—the journal acidly commented on the regime's constant exhortations that writers should go to factories and then write about "socialist man."

* * *

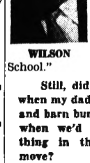

"Let our writers go out into life," the journal said. "Knee-deep in its wilderness they should be able to report reliably on what they see there. We, too, should like to know."

Earl Acts as 'Fall Guy'--Gets Ribbed Roughly

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I was the Fall Guy for the Circus Saints & Sinners Club — but I'll be all right in a week or two.

Such compliments as "When he was born, he was normal," and "His friends are b o u n d e r s — I mean boundless," will gradually quit hurting. I shall even forget that Tex O'Rourke, the roastmaster, referred to these literary cameos that I chisel out every day as my "daily drool."

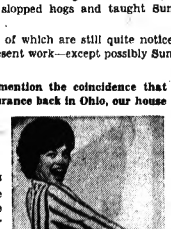

WILSON

They were kidding me (I HOPE!) when Tex, Harry Hershfield and Les K r a m e r brought out in the ribbing that as a boy I milked cows, slopped hogs and taught Sunday School . . .

"All three of which are still quite noticeable in his present work—except possibly Sunday School."

Still, did they have to mention the coincidence that when my dad was selling insurance back in Ohio, our house and barn burned down just when we'd loaded everything in the wagons to move?

Actually, of course, I was tremendously flattered to be Fall Guy—inasmuch as they've had such good guests of honor many times. I didn't even mind when they took me to a reception afterward and yelled, "Hey, Earl, a phone call for you."

JULIET

"Hello!" I said importantly into the mouthpiece—a stream of water spurted into my face. Once a Fall Guy, always.

* * *

We got excited seeing attractive Juliet Prowse at the Copa with a young guy; turned out to be her manager Eddie Goldstone.

* * *

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Bob Hope summed up his future plans: "One show a month, one movie a year, one book every 36 months."

Kim Novak'll go skiing in Europe after her "Boys' Night Out" stint.

EARL'S PEARLS: A bachelor, according to Mike Connolly, is a fellow who carries off all his romances without a hitch.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Robert Weede met a set of twins who are almost identical, except for one thing—he's 49 and she's 39.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The modern housewife considers the perfect household appliance something that her husband can work. . . . That's earl, brother.

TV Commercial Barred as Phony

'Sandpaper Test' Called Fake in FTC Ruling Against Palmolive

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission has barred television commercials involving Palmolive Rapid Shave and a faked "sandpaper test."

Real sandpaper could not be shaved clean in 60 seconds—the length of the commercial—or even if soaked with Rapid Shave for 60 minutes, the commission said Wednesday.

* * *

In ruling the familiar TV commercial deceptive and prohibiting it, the five commissioners unanimously reversed a hearing examiner's finding that the commercial was merely "harmless exaggeration or puffing."

The commission's ruling, based on an opinion by Commissioner Philip Elman, was part of a broad new policy aimed at curbing trickery in TV commercials.

NO FAKE MOCK-UPS

The commission prohibited the use of fake mock-ups or demonstrations of any Colgate-Palmolive Co. product, declaring camera tricks must not be used to fool the public or to get a jump on a competitor.

Colgate and the Ted Bates Advertising Agency conceded that sandpaper was not used on television. Instead, a sheet of clear plastic was coated with sand and made to look like extra coarse sandpaper.

* * *

In the commercial the surface, when covered with Rapid Shave, was shaved clean with a single razor stroke. The purpose: To show Rapid Shave was effective on "a beard as tough as sandpaper."

Fed-Up Bus Driver Walks Off the Job

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Pittsburgh bus driver, fed up with the antics of high school students riding in his bus, halted his vehicle at a busy Pittsburgh intersection Wednesday and walked off the job.

"I can't stand it anymore. I've had it," Frank Seitz told police at the scene.

* * *

Seitz, a driver for the Pittsburgh Railways Co. for 15 years, ordered the students off the bus and then telephoned his office to come and get the bus because he was going home.

"It is too early to say he quit, or whether he will be disciplined," said R. A. Hamilton, manager of rates and services for the bus firm.

'Checkmate' Looked Unwieldy as Its Title

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — Title of Wednesday night's episode of CBS's "Checkmate" was "A funny thing happened to me on the way to the game." It was an unwieldly title on an unwieldly show —but that's the way it's been with "Checkmate" this season.

* * *

Last year, it was a jolly, entertaining series centered on three sleuths. But now regulars, Anthony George, Sebastian Cabot, and Doug McClure have been relegated most weeks to playing bewildered body guards and the plots, such as they are, focus on a guest star.

* * *

Wednesday night, the focus was Jack Benny, playing a comedian pursued by an assassin at a New Year's football bowl game. Even Benny in his usual TV character couldn't make it much of a show.

ABC had a special program about Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. expected to be the first American put into orbit.

It was a disappointing perfunctory portrait painted in glowing words by parents, old friends and neighbors, but it never got below the surface to reveal the man inside the silver space suit.

Unit Sets Hearings on Hospital Problems

DETROIT (AP) — Public hearings into Michigan's hospital problems will be opened Jan. 20 by the governor's commission on prepaid medical care.

This was announced today by Circuit Judge George E. Bowles, commission chairman, who said hearings would be conducted on four consecutive Saturdays, starting at 10 a.m., at the United Foundation Building in Detroit.

Bowles said a fifth hearing would be conducted Thursday, Feb. 22, Washington's birthday, at the same site.

In 1960, the stainless steel industry in Britain produced 220,000 tons compared with 44,300 in 1945.

Father of 15 Gets Help From New Aide, Storck

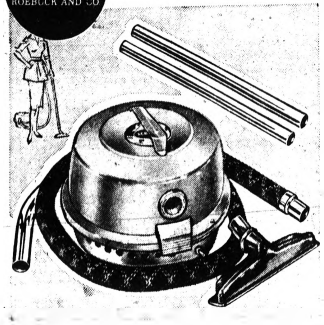

MUSKEGON (AP) — Apparently believing there's no harm in a name, Muskegon County Sheriff Marion J. Calkins has hired a new deputy — William F. Storck.

Calkins reportedly is the national leader among county sheriffs in size of family. He and his wife are parents of 15 children.

2 New Divisions to Be Set Up by End of March

Won't Be Ready for Combat Till 8 Months Later, Say Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two new regular Army divisions are expected to be established by the end of March, but it will take about eight months of intensive training before they can be declared ready to fight.

President Kennedy announced Wednesday he had approved immediate formation of the two divisions, the 1st Amored and the 5th Mechanized Infantry. They will bring the regular Army force to 16 divisions.

Officials said today the term "immediate" was relative. They noted that certain advance arrangements must be made, including the mustering of a framework of officers and noncommissioned officers and housekeeping preparations to receive the troops at Fort Hood, Tex., and Ft. Carson, Colo.

The Pentagon has ticketed a group of regular armored, infantry and artillery units to become the nucleus for the two divisions. Together, they total about 10,500 men. At full strength, the new divisions will number about 31,700 men in all.

The 21,000 soldiers need to fill the divisions' ranks will be draftees who have finished eight weeks of basic training. Defense authorities said they do not expect to raise draft calls.

After the new outfits are brought up to strength, they will be put through a cycle of advanced individual training, basic unit training, division drills and field maneuvers. Only then will they be considered combat ready.

A Pentagon spokesman said the Army hopes to have the 1st Armored and 5th Infantry in fighting shape before the end of this year.

TO REPLACE RESERVES

Kennedy said creation of the two added regular units will permit the return to civilian life later this year of two National Guard divisions ordered to active duty last Oct. 15. These are the 32nd Infantry of Wisconsin and the 49th Armored of Texas.

Officials said there will be some overlap.

Under present law, Kennedy could hold the Wisconsin and Texas divisions in uniform until Oct. 15, but Pentagon officials had been hoping to release the 32nd and 49th by June 30. Some smaller units may be demobilized before then.

Army officers said the two new divisions will need only about 50 per cent of their authorized equipment to carry out training. Only when they are approaching combat readiness will the new divisions need a full complement of modern howitzers, tanks, armored troop carriers and the like.

Will Employ 500 at Pontiac Mall

Wards to Open Store Feb. 1

The eighth full-line Montgomery Ward department store in the Detroit metropolitan area will open Feb. 1 at Pontiac Mall Shopping Center, S. D. Ward general manager of the north central region, and D. L. Hershey, retail district manager for the Detroit area, announced today.

★ ★ ★

Leslie M. Gillain, a veteran of 31 years with the company, will be manager of the new store located in the shopping center at Telegraph and Elizabeth Lake roads.

L. M. GILLAIN

With a gross area of approximately 145,000 square feet the two-story department store represents the fifth major expansion by Montgomery Ward in the Detroit area in the past three years.

The new Pontiac Mall store will have some 350 full-time employes, 500 including part-time help.

Air-conditioned, the store will be open 9:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. daily except Sunday.

STORE'S FACILITIES

It features escalators, elevators, 45 merchandise departments, including a snack shop with 18 tables and 72 chairs, and a seasonal sales area.

Other features include a diamond department, an optical department and a key shop.

Attached to the store is a 10-car auto service station.

Montgomery Ward will be the first department store to open in the 300,000-square-foot shopping center which will have a completely enclosed mall heated in the winter and air-conditioned in the summer. Parking facilities for 1,000 cars will be provided in the center.

Except for a catalog store which opened in downtown Pontiac in 1941 and then relocated two miles west of downtown in late 1957, Montgomery Ward had no representation in the Pontiac trade area.

The catalog store, presently located in the Tel-Huron Shopping Center on Telegraph road, will transfer its facilities to the new Pontiac Mall retail store Feb. 1, Ward stated.

A large and more expanded catalog order department will be established in the new retail store to handle all catalog sales and accounts.

'GREAT POTENTIAL'

"The decision to open a full-line Montgomery Ward retail store in the Pontiac area was motivated by the growing list of Pontiac area customers who shopped at our other nearby retail stores in the metropolitan area," Ward said. "The other reason for locating in the Pontiac area was the excellent opportunity and great potential of this expanding and growing community."

Ward further said that during the next 10 years predictions are that Oakland County will grow 33 per cent in population and that Waterford Township is expected to expand 53 per cent.

Gillain's career includes more than 20 years as a retail store manager in six out-of-state cities.

He has been company district manager for over six years in St. Paul, Minn., Green Bay, Wis., and Rockford, Ill. He began his career with the firm in 1928 as manager of tire and auto accessories department in the Miami, Okla., retail store.

Following Montgomery Ward's lead, 50 per cent of the stores at the Pontiac Mall should open by the first week in April, and the rest, including J. L. Hudson Co. will open within the first 10 days of May.

Against Romney Seeking Office

AMC President Says Directors Don't Want Him to Enter Race

DETROIT (AP) — George Romney said Wednesday that directors of American Motors Corp. have "made it very clear" that they don't want him to run for governor of Michigan this year.

Romney said the board disclosed its sentiments about his possible candidacy at a meeting Dec. 18 in New York.

The meeting was called, Romney said, to bring directors up to date on "the competitive situation and other developments." His possible candidacy was one of "the other developments," Romney said.

"Everybody should know I was ... and that I had not made a decision," the AMC president said.

He added that the board members "certainly were not telling me to run. As a matter of fact, they made it very clear that they would prefer me not to run."

The 54-year-old Romney said last month that he would not necessarily resign as AMC president if he runs.

Romney is chairman of Citizens for Michigan and is a constitutional convention vice president. He has promised to decide on his gubernatorial candidacy by Feb. 10.

Terrorist Bands Clash, Leaving 3 People Dead

63 Are Reported Killed, 140 Injured in Battles Since New Year's Day

ALGIERS (AP) — Fresh blood flowed today in the battle of terrorist groups over the issue of whether Algeria is to remain French.

The new year's toll of clashes between Moslems and Europeans soared to at least 63 dead and more than 140 wounded.

Two Moslems and a European were killed and eight Moslems were wounded in Oran. In Algiers, three Moslems and a European were injured.

The underground French rightist Secret Army Organization called last night for a general mobilization of European settlers for a last-ditch fight to keep the North African territory under France's flag.

Handbills calling on the settlers to prepare to fight were posted as the belief spread that the way was at last open for an agreement between the De Gaulle government and the Algerian rebels to end the seven-year-old war in Algeria.

The handbills gave no further instructions but a pirate radio broadcast earlier in the day predicted victory for the Secret Army in 1962.

Terrorism surged up in most major Algerian cities. The attacks were indiscriminate and followed no particular pattern.

It was believed the Moslem nationalists were making a show of strength to influence the secret talks under way for several weeks between the French and the Nationalists.

And the European extremists appeared trying to foster the idea that France could not enforce an independence agreement against the French settlers' determined resistance.

Three persons were killed and 30 wounded by grenades thrown into a crowd of Moslems leaving a movie house in Constantine Wednesday night.

'JFK to Push Medical Aid to Elderly'

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., predicted today that President Kennedy will "push very hard" in Congress for enactment of a medical aid program for the elderly.

★ ★ ★

This prediction by Humphrey, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, coincided with reports that National Chairman John M. Bailey has picked medical care as the top issue to be plugged by party candidates in this year's session.

★ ★ ★

Humphrey said in an interview that he looks for "tough going" but believes a bill providing health care financed through the Social Security system can be piloted through both houses.

"The President must fulfill his campaign pledge to get this program enacted," Humphrey said. "I think he is going to push very hard on it."

But the Minnesota senator was less optimistic about some of the other major proposals Kennedy is expected to lay before Congress shortly after it convenes next Wednesday.

HOPE FOR UNIVERSITIES

He said he feels it is doubtful that Congress will approve any general aid to education plan. He expressed hope, however, that some assistance for higher education can be obtained.

Asked how he felt about Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's failure to recommend any new civil rights legislation, Humphrey said he thought "there still is much that can be done on the executive front."

"I think the administration has an excellent record of executive action in this field," he said. "Personally, however, I think some of the civil rights laws should be strengthened, particularly in the field of voting, and I will support legislation of this kind."

Humphrey said prospects for enactment of a measure to establish a new cabinet department of urban affairs—an action promised by Kennedy in the 1960 campaign—are being canvassed.

Humphrey said Kennedy would prefer to follow the legislative route but may resort to his governmental reorganization powers if bills to accomplish this purpose are blocked.

If such a department is set up, it is expected to be headed by Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver, who would be the first Negro in the Cabinet.

Reactions Differ on M59 Delay

City officials today reacted with mixed emotions at news that the M59 extension of East Huron Street — one of Pontiac's major highway projects — will be delayed for at least another five years.

The delay was revealed in a State Highway Department announcement of details and a scheduled public hearing on the proposed $13 million M59 freeway between Pontiac and Utica.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said construction of the portion from Pontiac's loop road east to the I-75 freeway, originally planned for the second five-year program (1962-67), would not be placed under contract until sometime between 1967 and 1972.

There will not be funds available for this part of the highway, estimated to cost some $3.8-million, before 1967, Mackie explained.

'DELAY DISAPPOINTING'

City Manager Robert A. Stierer said the delay "is a disappointment for us since we had hoped this could be scheduled before 1967 to coincide with construction of the loop highway."

"However, in a sense, it is encouraging because, until now, the M59 relocation and extension of East Huron had merely been a plan. Now it is definitely part of the state's proposed highway improvement program for this area."

City planners were also disappointed at the delay but added that it shouldn't hurt the loop road which is to go under construction next fall.

★ ★ ★

"This will mean that East Huron cannot be a major access thoroughfare to the loop for several years after the loop is completed but we don't see that this will create any immediate block to normal traffic circulation on the loop," said James R. Bates, planning department director.

★ ★ ★

The delay will not have any effect on Pontiac's urban renewal program since it had not been tabbed for urban renewal credit.

★ ★ ★

The state will hold a public hearing on the entire proposed freeway at 8 p.m., Jan. 11, in the Avondale

City Will Deny Fourth Center

Another Shop Location in Northeast Area Said to Be One Too Many

"Three's company and four's a crowd" that's the feeling of the city planning commission about shopping centers in Northeast Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

At their meeting next Tuesday night, city commissioners will get a recommendation from the planning commission that a proposed rezoning of 77 acres at North Perry and Arlene Streets for a shopping center be denied.

★ ★ ★

National Business Brokers of Pontiac had requested that the residential property be rezoned to commercial for a proposed $3-million shopping center, tentatively called Perry Plaza Shopping Center.

More than 100 residents of the area turned up at a public hearing on the proposal at last night's planning commission meeting. Most came to protest the project.

David VanderVeen, of the planning staff, said that a study of the area showed a major shopping center was being planned on Walton Boulevard near Perry and the Glenwood Plaza Shopping Center is now under construction about a mile south of the proposed site at Perry and Glenwood.

In addition, planners explained that there was a smaller shopping center at Perry and East Boulevard.

"There is already enough retail activity in this area to handle capably the existing market for 15 years or more. Another center would detract from the property value of existing centers," said James R. Bates, planning department director.

"Because it is near Madison Junior and Pontiac Northern High schools, this property is ideal for residential development," he added.

That was enough for the commission. They voted unanimously to recommend denial of the rezoning proposal.

GMC Announces New Truck Series

Versatility and a high-torque V6 gasoline engine mark the new series of heavy-duty General Motors trucks announced today by Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach Division, Pontiac.

He said the new series and engine version add greater depth to GMC's models for 1962, giving the division the most complete line of trucks and highway tractors in its 53-year history.

"The latest engine brings a new hauling dimension to the GMC line by extending our V6 family into the heavier hauling class," he said.

★ ★ ★

"Extended coverage of our V6 and V12 models, coupled with a broad line of diesel units, now enables us to offer an extremely versatile line of trucks."

478-CUBIC-INCH ENGINE

The new engine is a 478-cubic-inch power plant developing 440 pound-feet of torque at 1,400 rpm and 275 gross horsepower at 3,200 rpm.

★ ★ ★

Tested among fleet users, the 478 is intended to close the gap between other V6 engines and GMC's powerful V12 or Twin Six engine. Other V6 gasoline engines available in light, medium and heavy-duty models are the 305, 351 and 401.

Diesel engines include the in-line 6, V6 and V8 units.

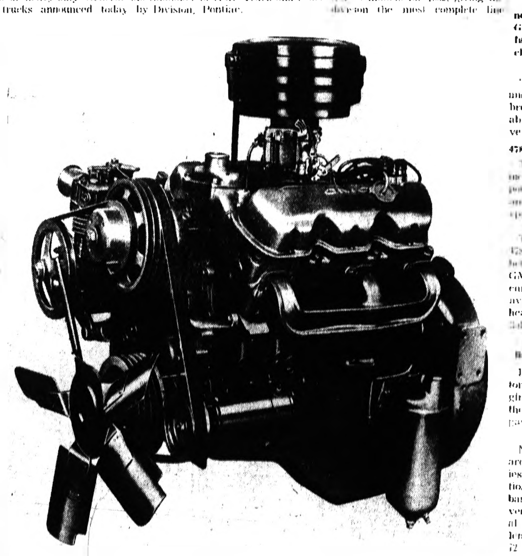

Besides offering the highest torque of any gasoline truck engine of comparable displacement, the 478 is the world's largest V6 gasoline truck engine.

★ ★ ★

New models powered by the 478 are designated as the "6500 Series," scheduled to go into production in February. It will offer three basic cab styles: the 105-inch conventional, 90-inch "B" conventional for operations where over-all length is a vital factor, and the 72-inch steel tilt cab.

★ ★ ★

Most models in the series have single rear driving axles, but a tandem rear-axle model is available for operations where extra traction, flotation of load carrying capacity are required.

WORLD'S LARGEST — This is GMC's new V6 gasoline truck engine, largest of its kind, developing 440 pound-feet of torque at 1,400 rpm in its 478-cubic-inch power plant. Torque is higher than that of any comparable sized gasoline engine in the trucking industry, GMC Truck and Coach Division announced.

Tshombe Sees U.N. as Wrong

Assembly to Consider Katanga's Peace Pact but Delays Okay

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga — President Moise Tshombe today "odious aggression" in a speech at a meeting of the provincial assembly called to consider his agreement to end Katanga's secession from the Congo.

After the president's speech, which took strong exception to two of the agreement's eight parts, the assembly president announced the matter would be referred to a special commission.

Tshombe said "the United Nations' clumsy intervention under U.S. pressure" in Katanga last month had not helped relations with the central government.

"We did not go to New York to fight the United Nations, but they came here," he said.

WOULD END WAR

He finally asked for a cease fire "not because we were tired of fighting for our freedom but simply because the Katanga government wanted to put an end to the killings and carnage," he declared.

Only 35 of the assembly members were present.

Nine opposition deputies from the Balubakat party were among those present. There would have been 36 members present, but one stomped out angrily when there was a delay of 90 minutes in opening the session.

The assembly failed to begin debate on schedule Wednesday when only 19 members showed up. If all seats were filled the assembly would have 72 members, including 12 appointed chiefs.

Snow, Rain Fall in North Areas; Cold in Florida

By The Associated Press

Snow and rain dampened northern sections of the nation from Idaho into the Northern Appalachians today and cold air headed into broad areas from the Rockies into the Midwest and in New England.

CHILLY IN FLORIDA

It was a little chilly again this morning in Florida but temperatures were not as low as Wednesday morning's below freezing readings in many areas.

Light snow or snow flurries hit areas from northern Minnesota and the Lake Superior region and in the Northern Appalachians. Light rain fell in northern Idaho and Montana while showers sprinkled parts of Eastern Texas.

The coldest weather was in the Rockies and the extreme northern sections of the Great Lakes region. One of the lowest readings was 4 below zero in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Temperatures were in the 20s in Maine and in the 30s and 40s in most other sections of the country, with the 50s in the Western Gulf Coast region, Eastern Texas and Southern California.

Pictured is the award winning display "PONTIAC SUGGEST-O-LITES" and recipient of the plaque, William J. Malinowski, suggestion chairman at Pontiac. During 1961 a record number of over 2,200 improvement suggestions were put into use at the Pontiac Division for which employes received in excess of $170,000.

Say Sukarno Eyes Compromise

Indonesia Arming Fast

From Our News Wires

JAKARTA, Indonesia — Indonesia stepped up its arms build-up today off the shores of Dutch-held West New Guinea despite reports that President Sukarno's regime was ready to offer the Netherlands a compromise on the future of the disputed territory.

★ ★ ★

The army announced that 10,000 veterans of independence fighting against the Dutch are being re-armed on Amboina and other islands of the Molucca chain some 150 miles off the western tip of New Guinea.

★ ★ ★

The announcement closely followed a report from a high government source that Indonesia is willing to promise West New Guinea eventual self-determination if the Dutch agree to let Jakarta take over the territory's administration in the meantime.

PRELIMINARY STEPS

Col. Busiri, military commander of the Molucca area, declared that the issuance of arms to the veterans and their assignment into combat units are preliminary steps to "the march forward to stop the Dutch-created Papuan state from operating and to hoist Indonesia's red and white flag in the territory."

★ ★ ★

Informed sources in Hong Kong said a shipyard in Macao has delivered to the Indonesian marine corps five 60-foot long motorized barges which could be used in a landing on Dutch New Guinea.

★ ★ ★

The sources said the craft were built in the Portuguese colony of Macao over a period of several months and loaded aboard a Danish freighter bound for the Indonesian port of Surabaya last September.

President Sukarno ordered national mobilization last month and said he would invade West New Guinea unless the Dutch handed it over. He gave no indication of an invasion date.

TO DROP DEMAND?

But the high government source reported Wednesday night that Indonesia was prepared to drop its demand for immediate sovereignty over the primitive area and to offer the 700,000 Papuan tribesmen there the right of eventual self-determination.

He said the Netherlands in turn would have to give Indonesia administration of the territory. He called the proposal "the most liberal stand" his government could take.

Kennedy Devotes Attention to State of Union Message

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy concentrates today on weaving together his State of the Union Message—his accounting to Congress of what shape the country is in and what he believes should be done about it.

★ ★ ★

There were no engagements on Kennedy's program as he neared the end of his sojourn on Florida's society coast.

Contrary to previously disclosed plans, signs appeared that Kennedy would leave Palm Beach for Washington late Friday. An announcement on his travel schedule was expected today.

FLYING TO COLUMBUS

The President will fly to Columbus on Saturday to address a fund-raising birthday dinner for Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. He may go there from Washington instead of directly from Palm Beach, as originally planned.

While in the capital, Kennedy may meet Saturday with Democratic congressional leaders.

★ ★ ★

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson is due back in Washington on Saturday. He left Palm Beach Wednesday for Johnson City, Tex., after he and the administration's top defense officials conferred with Kennedy on Army reorganization and the strategic outlook for 1962.

Theodore C. Sorensen, special counsel to the President, remained in Palm Beach to assist Kennedy with the State of the Union Message.

Considers Law for Ski Lifts

Swainson May Propose State Safety Inspection; Comes After Fatality

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson said today he may recommend legislation requiring state safety inspection of all ski lift equipment in Michigan.

Contrary to one report, he said, there was no state inspection of a chairlift at Nub's Nob near Petoskey, which went out of control last Sunday.

Larry Orr, 32, Grand Rapids high school teacher, was killed when he was slammed into a building housing the operating mechanism after the lift went into reverse. Several other skiers were injured.

"No state official conducted an inspection of that lift," Swainson told a news conference. "No state agency has authorization or jurisdiction to conduct such an inspection."

The governor said it might be wise for the Legislature to consider enactment of a law requiring state inspection of ski lifts, perhaps by inspectors who now check elevators.

"I would not hesitate to recommend this to the Legislature," he said.

Swainson pointed out that the number of ski areas in Michigan has grown to 87, more than in any other state.

Try Lansing Teacher for Obscene Mail

CHICAGO (AP) — A Lansing, Mich., high school teacher was one of two men on trial in U.S. District Court Wednesday on charges of mailing obscene matter as members of a male pen pal club.

James Poulos, 41-year-old Lansing teacher and Glen D. Willbern, 58, an Indiana University professor, were among 10 defendants named. The other eight waived jury trials.

Judge Edward B. Austin said he will use evidence presented in the Willbern-Poulos trial in reaching his verdict for the other eight.

The 10 defendants were among 52 indicted a year ago as a result of a federal investigation into the Adonis Male Club.

Soviet Slips Up on Propaganda

Pulls Boner in Picture Against Gen. Heusinger; Reds Admit It

MOSCOW (AP) — A photograph distributed by the Soviet government as evidence in its charges against West German Gen. Adolf Heusinger gave Moscow propaganda chiefs red faces today.

Foreign Ministry officials declined immediate comment when told a photograph they had distributed—purporting to show Nazi soldiers burning a Russian village at Heusinger's order—was actually one the Soviet government had previously issued of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

BIG SLIPUP

"We will investigate," they said.

It was one of the biggest propaganda slipups in recent years.

The news reached Moscow in the issue of the West German magazine Stern dated Jan. 7. It was confirmed here by reference to the original document.

At a news conference Dec. 12, the Soviet government demanded that the United States turn Gen. Heusinger over to the Soviet Union for trial on war criminal charges. Heusinger, 64, was chief of operations of the German general staff until 1944, chief architect of the postwar West German army and now is chairman of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization permanent military committee in Washington.

★ ★ ★

The United States denounced the charges as a "crude propaganda maneuver."

Opposite page 8 of the official "History of the Great Patriotic War of the Soviet Union" is a picture showing soldiers watching a burning village. The caption says "Japanese Interventionists Burn a Chinese Village (Shanghai District, 1932)."

At the Dec. 12 news conference, the same picture was displayed as evidence of an atrocity asserted to have been ordered by Heusinger in Western Russia.

Walter C. Harbin of 166 Beach St., Pontiac, died 11:15 a.m. yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Harbin was critically injured when, according to a witness, he darted into the path of a car at Oakland and North Johnson avenues at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

The driver of the car which struck Harbin, Basil R. Butler of 10 Tregent St., said he swerved but was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the elderly pedestrian. Witnesses said Harbin crossed the street against the red light and ran into the path of Butler's auto. The driver was not held.

Oakland County recorded its first 1961 traffic death on New Year's Day. Pontiac's first traffic fatality last year occurred Jan. 27.

Bolling Quits Leader Race and Dems Avert Hot Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Withdrawal of Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., from the race for majority leader and tentative approval of a new policy committee have averted a possible session-opening split among House Democrats.

Bolling's statement Wednesday that he would not seek the majority leadership being vacated by Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts left next week's caucuses of House Democrats without a controversial issue.

ALBERT COMING UP

It cleared the way for unanimous selection of Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma as the party floor leader to succeed McCormack, who has no party opposition to replace the late Sam Rayburn as speaker.

McCormack's election at the initial House session next Wednesday may not even be contested by Republicans. Whether the GOP will go through with the formality of nominating Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana for speaker may not be decided until early next week.

★ ★ ★

In any event, Halleck would have no chance of election, the vote traditionally being along straight party lines.

★ ★ ★

Bolling had the support of some House liberals when he announced last November that he would seek the majority leadership. However, not enough colleagues rallied behind his standard and he pulled out of the contest.

"Developments in the last few days convince me that I do not have a chance to win," Bolling told newsmen.

NO SOLID SUPPORT

Bolling said he was unable to get solid support in several states with big Democratic delegations. He estimated that at the time of his withdrawal he had from 70 to 80 sure votes, and 30 to 40 "possibles"—not enough to win in a caucus of 258 Democrats.

He said he considered his failure to make a winning race a defeat for House liberals. Bolling said that while he regarded Albert a liberal, the Oklahoman had "reservations" when it came to legislation dealing with civil rights and oil and gas.

Bolling said he was not a candidate for majority whip to succeed Albert and would not accept that position, considered third in the Democratic chain of command in the House. Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana reportedly has the inside track for the post.

★ ★ ★

Bolling's withdrawal coincided with reliable reports that Democratic leaders, with White House backing or even prodding, had given the go-ahead to reestablishment of a House Democratic steering or policy committee.

A group of liberals known as the Democratic leaders but would has been agitating for creation of a policy committee to give the liberals more of a voice in party decisions.

★ ★ ★

If created, the committee would serve in an advisory capacity to the Democratic leaders but would have no binding authority. Its chairman presumably would attend the weekly White House meeting of congressional leaders.

★ ★ ★

The committee would follow the lines of the former Democratic steering committee with representatives from each of an estimated 18 regions. The old steering committee folded up about 10 years ago after several years of inactivity.

The Day in Birmingham

City Commission Names New Building Inspector

BIRMINGHAM — Commerce Township building inspector Richard B. Schlosser has been named city building inspector by the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

Schlosser, 38, of 5738 Berkley St., Pontiac, has held his township post for four years. He will take over his Birmingham duties later this month, succeeding Andrew Butts, who resigned to take a position with a Detroit bank.

A replacement for Schlosser has not yet been named by the township board.

Selected from a field of 12 candidates, Schlosser is a past president of the Southeastern Michigan Building Officials and Inspectors Association.

He also is a member of the Building Officials Conference of Michigan and of America.

The former carpenter is married and the father of three children.

The Southfield planning firm of Vilican-Leman and Associates has been appointed by the City Commission to carry out the work made possible recently by a Federal grant of $22,000 for planning assistance.

A triparty contract between the city, the state, who is the acting agent for the Federal government, and the consulting firm is the next step necessary before the two-year planning program can be inaugurated.

Birmingham's share of the project is about $8,500.

The funds will be used to finance surveys, aerial photographs and topographical maps.

The grant was made under the 701 program of the Federal Urban Renewal Administration.

A film tour of the Orient, similar to the one to be conducted April 18 to May 22 by Oakland Travel, Inc., 730 N. Woodward Ave., will be presented 8 p.m. tomorrow at the travel agency.

Mrs. Adah Genn of Bloomfield Hills, who has lived in Japan 11 years, will lead the 35-day tour.

★ ★ ★

The color, sound movie will show major cities such as Tokyo, Nikko and Kyoto and other places that will be visited like Mt. Hiei, Gifu and Takamatsu.

Great Lakes Line May Be Bought by D-C Transit

Great Lakes Transit Corp., the bus line which ties Pontiac to Detroit and serves 20,000 residents of Oakland County, is being considered for purchase by a Washington, D. C. firm.

★ ★ ★

D-C Transit Corp.'s First Vice President Morris Fox today said he had approached the parent American Transit Co. in St. Louis about purchase of Great Lakes along with Intertown Suburban Lines, which formerly served 14 Detroit suburbs.

"We are ready, willing and able to move in," Fox said. He indicated negotiations would continue.

Great Lakes Transit runs mainly along Woodward Avenue and has an estimated 85 buses to serve Birmingham, Clawson, Berkley, Oak Park and the Northland Center area in addition to linking Pontiac and Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The line was established four years ago when Greyhound Corp. sold out local lines to other interests.

All Sides Meet in 4-Day-Old NYC Bus Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—All parties in the city's 4-day-old bus strike meet with Mayor Robert F. Wagner today in what has been described as a showdown aimed at getting the buses rolling.

★ ★ ★

In calling the meeting Wednesday, Wagner made it clear it would be the final chance for Fifth Avenue Coach Lines and its subsidiary, Surface Transit, Inc., to accept the city's offer of financial help so they can settle with the Transport Workers Union.

Otherwise, he said, he will go ahead with his threat to seek other operators to take over the Fifth Avenue franchises that have lapsed.

Have Mixed Feelings on Delay of Project

Full details will be revealed at the hearing.

As for the Pontiac portion, the proposal calls for the use of Mt. Clemens and East Huron Street (four lanes in each direction) to Paddock Street from the loop.

From Paddock east, the highway would become a four-lane divided, limited access freeway. Inside Paddock, Mt. Clemens would be one way westbound, and Huron, one way eastbound.

Each would require a 100-foot right-of-way, according to Mackie.

BLIZZARD HITS BRITAIN — Abandoned vehicles are scattered along Moorland Road between Brough in Westmorland and Bowes in Yorkshire after the big blizzard which blanketed most of Britain over the New Year's weekend. Ice and snow maintained a hold on most of Britain today despite weatherman's promise of a thaw. It is expected the thaw won't come until late in the week.

Legislators Girded for Fight Over Money at New Session

LANSING (AP) — Michigan legislators will open a new session next Wednesday faced with the same old problems, most of them preceded by a dollar sign.

It could be a short and comparatively peaceful meeting, but it will not be especially pleasant for lawmakers who set the course on taxes and spending.

Money — where to get it and how to spend it—will be the chief concern of the 1962 Legislature. It also will underlie most of the partisan battles between Republicans and Democrats.

The State Treasury deficit climbed to $71.7 million last July 1 and is still climbing. Most legislative leaders concede that the only way to balance the budget is to increase state taxes this year.

The question is, what to tax by how much.

Gov. Swainson, who saw the Republican majority junk virtually all his 1961 legislative program, probably will try again to push through a state income tax. He maintains it is the only fair way to produce adequate revenue to operate state government.

This year, however, he will abandon his kid-gloves approach in his dealings with GOP lawmakers. In speech after speech for the last six months, he has blamed economy-minded Republicans for inadequate mental hospital and higher education facilities and accused them of ignoring needs in other areas.

"This legislative session will be no love feast," the governor told a recent meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee. "The battle lines are drawn, and frankly I'm looking forward to this battle."

FEELING IS MUTUAL

Republican legislators, toughened by 12 years of verbal slugfests with former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, responded in kind.

"If the governor comes out swinging, Republicans will swing back, and just as hard," said Sen. Lynn O. Francis, R-Midland, GOP Senate floor leader. "However, I think this will be a short and quiet session."

Francis, like most other GOP lawmakers predicts the legislature will re-enact part of a $50 million package of nuisance taxes that expired last June 30. A penny-a-pack tax on cigarettes and a four per cent tax on telephone and telegraph bills, each worth approximately $10 million a year, are most frequently mentioned for revival.

A $1.25 per barrel tax on beer and a four per cent tax on liquor are other possibilities.

* * *

Sen. Carlton H. Morris, R-Kalamazoo, heretofore a staunch member of the GOP hold-the-line-on spending contingent, already has indicated he will sponsor legislative action to finance a $100-million-plus building program at state colleges and universities with some of the nuisance taxes.

Francis thinks Republicans will be more willing to talk about an income this year than last. House Speaker Don R. Pears, R-Buchanan, and a good many others, don't think it has a chance of passage.

Pears says legislators will extend the sales and use taxes to cover services such as dry cleaning and auto lubrication, a $30 to $35 million revenue producer, before they resort to an income tax.

APRIL 20 DEADLINE

The constitutional convention, meeting in Lansing's Civic Center a block from the capitol, probably will influence the Legislature to adjourn on schedule April 20, a deadline set by joint House and Senate rules.

Stormy debates over proposed constitutional amendments, usually an annual affair, won't tie things up this year.

Legislative headline hunters will be forced to share the spotlight with delegates to the constitutional convention, and likely will wait to see what the convention proposes before taking action in some areas.

Seat Is Vacant in State Senate

One New Member to Be Sworn In as Lawmakers Convene Wednesday

LANSING (AP) — There will be one vacant seat and one new member in the 34-man Senate when the legislature convenes next Wednesday.

* * *

The House is expected to have its full 110 members present when the gavel falls.

Republicans again will control both houses with a 56-54 majority in the lower chamber and a 22-11 domination in the Senate.

Harold B. Hughes, R-Clare, is the new member to be sworn into office in the Senate. Hughes was elected to fill the 28th district vacancy caused by the death of the late Sen. Charles T. Prescott, R-Prescott.

Gov. Swainson will have to call a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death Thursday of Sen. William E. Miron, D-Escanaba. He represented the 38th District which takes in [illegible] counties.

* * *

Swainson is not expected to issue the call for the primary for several weeks. A general election will follow and the elections division estimated it will be several months before a successor will take office.

Miron's vacant seat, No. 30, meanwhile was draped with a black ribbon.

Baby Asphyxiated as Dad Fixes Car

HOLLAND (AP) — Pamela Mullins, 6-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mullins of Holland, died of asphyxiation Wednesday night while in her father's car.

Mullins told police the infant and his three other children remained in the auto while he made repairs at a service station.

When he got into the car, Mullins said, he discovered Pamela was unconscious and the other children were drowsy.

* * *

Mullins drove to Holland Hospital. The baby was dead on arrival. The other children were treated and released.

U2 Pilot Sleeps; Wants Oysters

Tells Story of Ejection From Disabled Plane, Night in Tree

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—U2 pilot Charles Stratton awoke from a six-hour sleep following a night perched in a cypress tree and asked, "Where can I get some oysters?"

The Air Force captain, 32, seemed more concerned with food than with his reconnaissance plane, whose shattered remains lay in a brush-covered, almost inaccessible part of the Pearl River swamplands on the Louisiana-Mississippi border.

NINE HOURS IN TREE

Although he survived his 40,000-foot fall, nine hours in the cypress tree above the snake-infested marsh and a daybreak rescue with not a scratch, Stratton had been placed in the Keesler Air Force Base hospital for some rest. He had been awake 29 straight hours.

* * *

Asked about his flight, he said there wasn't much to it. Stratton normally flies the high-altitude U2s on weather detection missions as part of the Defense Department's high altitude sampling program. Tuesday night's flight, however, was a navigational training flight from his home base, Laughlin Air Force Base, Del Rio, Tex., to Birmingham, Ala., and back.

* * *

"The plane began to malfunction—I think in the electrical system—and I decided not to stay around," he said.

SHOT HIMSELF OUT

Bringing the craft down from about 60,000 feet to 45,000 feet, he flipped the ejection switch and shot himself out at about 9:40 Tuesday night.

* * *

"Everything happened so fast, I didn't see what happened with the plane," he recalled.

Apparently, Air Force officials said, there was an explosion. Residents of the area reported seeing a bright flash. When search parties reached the crash scene, all that was left of the U2 was a wing, and it was rapidly sinking into the swamp.

* * *

The Air Force wasn't sure if any salvage attempt would be made.

Stratton fortunately landed in the cypress and braced himself between two limbs.

Using his walkie-talkie, he soon contacted overflying planes and stayed in touch with them through the night. At daybreak Wednesday, a ground rescue party reached him.

One Youngster Writes Note of Thanks to Santa

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — The Columbus Ledger published hundreds of letters to Santa Claus during the pre-Christmas season. But only one youngster sent Santa a note of thanks.

A pen-printed note, addressed to Santa Claus and signed only "Skipper," said: "I have been a good boy. Thank you for everything you brought me Santa Claus.

"I love Santa Claus."

Ruling Party of India Warns Reds, Pakistanis

PATNA, India (AP)—The annual meeting of India's ruling Congress party opened today with a warning that Chinese Communists and Pakistanis must follow the Portuguese off Indian soil.

Party President Neelam Sanjiva Reddy was loudly cheered when he declared India is determined to end their occupation of Indian territory within a short time.

GET SKI BUG — Dr. and Mrs. K. L. Bandi, natives of Indore, India, who are presently in medical training at Pontiac General Hospital, were anxious to find out what the sport of skiing was all about. They made a visit to Alpine Valley ski area on M59 and received some instructions on ski equipment from Don Piper. They indicated interest in taking up skiing, but it was agreed that the native dress called a sari wasn't appropriate for wearing on the slopes.

Portugal's Move No Surprise

U. N. Relations Are Stormy

An AP News Analysis

By MAX HARRELSON
Chief AP U.N. Correspondent

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —Portugal had a tough time getting into the United Nations. Now, after six years of membership, it is talking about getting out.

* * *

Repeated vetoes by the Soviet Union, starting in 1946, shoved aside the Lisbon government's applications for membership. Admission finally came in 1955—10 years after the organization was set up—as part of a package deal which brought in new members with divergent outlooks.

FEW SURPRISED

The six years of membership have been so stormy that few diplomats here were surprised when Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar let it be known Wednesday that "Portugal will surely be among the first countries" to quit the U.N. He set no date, however.

No nation ever has resigned from the U. N.

* * *

A poor relationship between Portugal and a majority of the United Nations virtually ruled out any possibility of U.N. action to help the Salazar government when India seized Goa last month. There was so little sympathy among Asian and African countries that Western leaders felt they would be fighting a lost cause if they tried to take the invasion before the General Assembly.

COULD MEAN BREAK

The breaking point could come later this month when the assembly is expected to condemn Portugal for asserted failure to heed an earlier U.N. appeal for major reforms in Portuguese Angola.

* * *

In the current assembly session, Portugal was condemned for refusing to give information on nonself-governing territories, as required by the U.N. Charter. The vote was 90-3 with only Portugal, South Africa and Spain voting against it. Portugal's Vasco Vieira Garin denounced the action as a move which would "encourage international lawlessness."

RIFT GROWING

One of the byproducts of differences between Portugal and the United Nations has been a growing rift in the Salazar government's relations with the Kennedy administration. While the United States did take the lead in seeking Security Council action in the Goa case, it had voted for the Angola inquiry last spring. That touched off angry anti-U.S. demonstrations in Lisbon.

* * *

The coming assembly debate on Angola is expected to subject Portugal to one of the sharpest attacks ever directed at a member nation. This was foreshadowed last spring when African countries hurled charges of mass slaughter and brutality at the Salazar government and demanded the immediate independence of Angola. Guinea's Diallo Telli called Portugal "the world's defendant No. 1."

Ex-Ferris Teacher Dazzled Boy?

Judge to Advise Youth Held in Swindle

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — A longtime friend was scheduled to confer today with a Ludington youth held in connection with an alleged $22,500 swindle.

Ludington Municipal Judge Clay Olmsted and Ervin Hackert, 20, were expected to discuss a proposed polygraph test for Hackert. The youth was arrested Dec. 26 at Phoenix, Ariz., with Alfred H. Witten, 35, on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Both are being held in Mecosta County Jail pending examination Jan. 16 in Big Rapids Justice Court.

Witten, former Ferris Institute instructor, was charged with passing a no-account check for $7,500. Authorities say it was one of a long list of goods and services he obtained in the Big Rapids area by fraudulent means.

Hackert left Ferris as a junior after the opening quarter last December and is charged with obtaining $1,181 in merchandise under false pretense.

TWO ARRESTED

The two were arrested by FBI agents and Phoenix police after Hackert talked to Olmsted.

Mecosta prosecutor William A. Harper said Hackert insists he did not know Witten was wanted by the FBI until shortly after midnight of Dec. 2[illegible] when the youth called his sister at Ludington.

"He told us his sister advised him to call collect to Olmsted for advice because Witten was wanted by the FBI, possibly armed and dangerous," Harper said.

When Witten left their apartment to "take a ride and think," Hackert called Olmsted who advised him to surrender.

Hackert claimed Wednesday that he had to argue the FBI into arresting him.

* * *

The youth told Harper he called the FBI in Phoenix and nearly was brushed off when he said his companion was being sought. Hackert said he then pleaded that his call was urgent.

Hackert claimed he said he was afraid and told the FBI his companion was planning to leave. Finally, he said, they took his name and address.

* * *

Hackert told Harper that Witten returned and said it was time to leave. The youth said he was in the process of packing for about an hour and a half before authorities arrived.

Attorney Robert Miles represented the pair at their arraignment Wednesday before Justice Marvin West.

"Our concern right now is whether the boy has done any culpable acts.

"The authorities and I have not yet made up our minds whether he is just an impressionable and impressed young man who was dazzled by big promises and treated to things he never had by this glamour professor. I'm inclined to think that's probably the situation," said Miles.

Rep. Carl Albert Brilliant, Brave

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's a long road from Bugtussle, Okla., to Washington, D. C., and virtually certain election next week as the next majority leader of the House.

Carl Albert, son of a coal miner, has traveled it in 53 years. On the way this product of a one-room Oklahoma schoolhouse won a national oratorical contest, a Rhodes scholarship and a Bronze Star in the Pacific theater in World War II.

Since his election to the House in 1946, Albert's rise in the circles of power and influence has been [illegible]. The withdrawal Wednesday of his only opponent for the office of majority leader, Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., makes Albert's elevation a foregone conclusion.

For the past seven years, Albert has served as Democratic whip in the House. His effective handling of this chore of rounding up colleagues for important votes put him in line to move up a notch to Rep. John W. McCormack's job as majority leader as McCormack moves up to speaker.

Albert is a self-effacing man. It is said that no one in the House — Democrat or Republican —dislikes him. Yet he is considered an able cog in the House leadership machine.

KENNEDY FAVORITES

Although the White House kept hands off the majority leader contest, President Kennedy made it known that he was greatly appreciative of Albert's efforts in getting the administration program through the House last year.

Albert was born in a little coal mining community outside McAlester, Okla., May 10, 1908. It was known in those days as Bugtussle. Today it's known as Flowery Mound.

One of Albert's most cherished pictures among dozens on his office walls is a group portrait of his first grade class, given him recently by his first grade teacher at a luncheon back home.

He went to high school in McAlester and was class valedictorian. He won a national oratorical contest and a trip to Europe. After a brilliant career at the University of Oklahoma, he won another oratorical contest and a trip to Hawaii.

RHODES SCHOLAR

In 1931 he won a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford University in England, where he took two law degrees.

It is typical of Albert that the official biography issued by his office says of his military career: "he served in the Army in the Pacific theatre in World War II."

What it doesn't say is that Albert enlisted as a buck private before Pearl Harbor, emerged as a lieutenant colonel and won a Bronze Star.

Albert is 5 feet 4 in his stocking feet. His southeast Oklahoma district is called "Little Dixie" and Albert has become famous there as "The little giant from Little Dixie."

* * *

He is a favorite with the neighborhood children when he goes home to McAlester. When they see his car parked they come in droves to see him. He and his wife, Mary, have two children, Mary Frances, 13, and David, 6.

As majority leader, Albert can be expected to be an administration stalwart. "I have a progressive voting record," he said Wednesday. "I supported the President's program right down the line last year."

Protection Pamphlet Ready This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department expects the new handbook on fallout protection to reach most post offices and civil defense offices by the end of this week.

It said Wednesday that in a few cases weather or remote locations could cause some slight delay in shipments.

The copies, upon receipt by local offices, are given without charge to citizens.

45 Local Teachers to Join Workshop on Art Techniques

An estimated 45 teachers from Pontiac public schools will roll up their sleeves Jan. 8, 10, and 11 to learn more about modern creative art education techniques.

The Art Workshop, in which the teachers will spend 15 hours of their own time, will be held at Whitfield School, 2000 Orchard Lake Ave.

The workshop is provided free by Binney and Smith, Inc., school art supplies manufacturers.

School officials responsible for workshop arrangements are Miss Marietta K. Spring, principal of McCarroll Elementary School; Mrs. Vida L. Walker, principal of Whitfield Elementary School; and Supt. of Schools Dana P. Whitmer.

School Annexation Defeated at Alpena

ALPENA (AP)—A proposal to annex the school districts of eight townships in Alpena County to Alpena's school district was rejected Wednesday by voters in all but one township.

★ ★ ★

The plan was defeated by a margin of about 5-to-3 in all but Sanborn Township, where voters gave their approval. Thus only Sanborn will be annexed.

Alpena's Board of Education resolved recently that no new high school enrollments from outside the city district would be accepted after August 1963.

Yen for Travel Carries Eagle to Chicago Suburb

CRETE, Ill. (AP)—A golden eagle that apparently flew far afield found himself the guest of a Crete, Ill., couple Wednesday—but not by choice.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steiber said they found the rare eagle caught in a small game trap in their back yard. Steiber stunned the eagle with a stick and offered it to Chicago's Lincoln Park Zoo.

Crete is a suburb about 28 miles south of downtown Chicago.

The natural habitat of the golden eagle is the mountainous regions of North America, Europe, Northern Asia and Northern Africa.

Community Shaped by Good Newspaper

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A good newspaper can do more than any other single voice to shape the future of a community and its citizens, says Gov. David Lawrence.

★ ★ ★

Speaking Wednesday night at the annual dinner for employes of the Gettysburg Times, Lawrence called a good newspaper the "conscience and leader" of the people it serves.

"It is a critic, a goad, an innovator," he declared, "It reports the news and it comments on the news. It tells its readers not only who has done what, when and where it happened—but it also attempts to explain why."

Sydney, a Koala, Escapes Cage to Nibble Leaves

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sydney, a playful, wide-eyed koala, is back in his cage today with his three wives.

★ ★ ★

The two-foot long marsupial from Australia, the only male koala among four at the Fleischhacker Zoo, disappeared Monday, perhaps longing for some independence in 1962.

Or maybe he was just plain hungry.

Sydney—not far from his cage at all—was found perched atop a 20-foot eucalyptus tree, nibbling leaves.

Koalas subsist almost solely on eucalyptus leaves.

White Woman's Legs Cause for Whipping

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A Johannesburg magistrate today sentenced a 20-year-old African to be caned because he told a white woman, "My, lady but you've got nice legs."

"I felt very embarrassed," the woman, Faith Jennifer Seaton, told the court. "It's bad enough when my own people say it."

★ ★ ★

Miss Seaton said Alfred Majola made the remark while she was waiting for a train at the Johannesburg station.

★ ★ ★

"I think the punishment is well suited to the crime," the judge told Majola after ordering eight cuts with the rod.

BOSTON (AP) — A six-foot snowbank probably saved the life of 2-year-old Robert Cook Wednesday.

The youngster toppled from a third floor window of his home at 69 Dix Street, Boston, and landed in the snowbank. He suffered only a fracture of the right leg.

The mother, Elaine Cook, said the boy opened the window while she was in another room.

Barks Only for Food

Sea Lion Flips at Boss

OCEAN CITY, N.J. (AP)—That hungry sea lion who would rather eat free fish than hunt his own arrived for a meal again.

And after gobbling it down, he disappeared Wednesday just as he has three other times along the Jersey coast.

★ ★ ★

Al Sheridan, the man who thinks the freedom-loving animal might be his former pet, got close enough to the frisky creature to stroke him and offer him a few fishy tidbits, but that was all.

When Sheridan tried to develop the friendship, the sea lion was off with a wave of his flippers, easily outdistancing Sheridan's row boat. Sheridan then borrowed a net from the Coast Guard and went to sea again. But no sea lion was found.

Sheridan, an Island Park, N.Y., fisherman and boatbuilder, says his pet sea lion, Candy, departed from home waters two months ago when a family of fish swam by.

Sheridan tried to catch the animal Tuesday when it arrived at the dock of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noone, barking for food. But the sea lion took one glance at Sheridan and paddled away. After his failure Wednesday, Sheridan was disgusted.

The sea lion may be back for another handout, but Sheridan won't be here. He's gone home.

Frustrated Burglars Sought for Bank Try

DECKERVILLE (AP)—Police today sought would-be safecrackers who dismantled the door of the Sanilac County Bank vault here Tuesday night in an effort to reach $10,000 that was stashed away inside.

The would-be safecrackers worked well into the night removing the vault door's hinges and the wheel with which opening and locking bolts are operated.

Five workmen, however, took only 38 minutes to get the door back together again Wednesday and bank President Barney McConnachie reported "nothing missing."

Police theorized daylight apparently drove the burglars away before they could finish the job.

Montreal is one of the largest of all inland ports.

Quadruplets Are Born to Woman in England

ROCHFORD, England (AP)—Mrs. Ronald Meacham, 30, gave birth Wednesday to quadruplets, two boys and two girls.

The infants ranged from 2 pounds 7 ounces to 3 pounds 8 ounces. Mother and babies were described by a hospital spokesman as being "as well as can be expected." The Meachams have one other child, a 7 year old son.

HOMESPUN SOUP — Potato soup with a bonus . . . freshly shredded cabbage, carrots and sliced franks give added nutritional substance to an old-fashioned favorite. Frozen condensed cream of potato soup is the base.

Bake Up Corn Bread for Stuffing

Roast pork is wonderful eating. Particularly when given extra flavor with savory corn bread stuffing with onion and celery in it.

STUFFED PORK SHOULDER
(Makes 6 servings)

1 4-pound fresh boneless pork cushion picnic shoulder, pocketed
Salt and pepper

Stuffing

1 recipe corn bread, crumbled
¾ cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¾ teaspoon poultry seasoning
½ cup melted butter

Heat oven to slow (325 degrees F.). Rub outside of meat and pocket with small amount of salt and pepper. To make stuffing, mix together all ingredients except melted butter and toss lightly to moisten. Lightly fill pocket of meat; until pork is well done with no tinge of pink. (Meat thermometer should register 185 degrees).

Do not baste during roasting time. (Bake extra stuffing in greased 1-quart casserole during with stuffing. Close openings with skewers; tie with cord.

Place meat, fat side up, on rack in shallow roasting pan. Score surface of meat, making shallow cuts. Roast uncovered in preheated oven (325 degrees F.) 40 to 45 minutes per pound or last 30 minutes of roasting. Baste occasionally with pork drippings. Makes 6 servings.

Corn Bread

1 cup enriched corn meal
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg
1 cup milk
¼ cup shortening, soft

Heat oven to hot (425 degrees F.). Sift together dry ingredients into bowl. Add egg, milk and shortening. Beat with rotary beater until smooth, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat. Bake in greased 8-inch square pan in preheated oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Cheddar Gets a Grade

Officially graded cheddar cheese is now available. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's AA shield, used for butter, is now also used for cheese that measures up to certain standards for flavor, body and texture, finish and appearance, and color.

Tuna and Cream Cheese Team Up in New Dip

Because of its delicate flavor, tuna in vegetable oil combines companionably with a variety of foods. This winter, it teams up with cream cheese and comes to the party.

To make Tuna Cheese Dip, combine two 3-ounce packages of cream cheese with two cans tuna in vegetable oil, and season to taste. Stir in 1 cup commercial sour cream and serve the dip with crackers.

Hearty Soup Is Good in Winter

As bracing as a wintry day is the old-fashioned, heart-warming fragrance of a fine soup bubbling on the kitchen range. "Penny-Wise Potato Vegetable Soup", shown here, is of the hearty and sustaining variety, an excellent luncheon partner for all kinds of sandwiches and salads.

* * *

Originating with a can of frozen condensed cream of potato soup, this good and budget-minded dish takes on extra substance and gains nutritional glory through the addition of butter-cooked, freshly grated vegetables and sliced frankfurters. Serve the soup steaming to 3 or 4 hungry persons.

Penny-Wise Potato Vegetable Soup

2 frankfurters, sliced
½ cup shredded cabbage
¼ cup finely chopped carrot
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10¼ ounces) frozen condensed cream of potato soup
1 soup can water

In saucepan, cook frankfurters, cabbage, and carrots in butter until frankfurters are lightly browned and vegetables are tender. Add soup and water. Heat, stirring now and then. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Avocado Halves Hold Tuna Salad

An attractive salad to serve several of your "girl friends" when you ask them to lunch.

Tuna-Stuffed Avocados

1 can (7 ounces) solid white tuna
¼ cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon drained capers
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
2 large avocados
Salad greens

Drain oil from tuna; rinse with water; drain. Flake tuna coarsely with a fork and mix with mayonnaise, capers and vinegar; refrigerate several hours or even overnight to allow flavors to blend.

Cut avocados in half lengthwise; twist apart; remove seeds and skin. Arrange on salad greens; fill avocado cavities with tuna mixture. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Interstate Hams May Have No Extra Moisture

If you choose a ham which has been processed and shipped across state lines, it will not weigh more than when it went into the process of curing and smoking. If you choose a ham processed in Michigan, it could weigh more than it did originally, if the processor added more than 10 per cent moisture before curing.

Beginning November 18, the Secretary of Agriculture placed federally inspected hams under the original ruling of no moisture in excess of the weight before curing. This does not influence hams smoked and sold within states without federal inspection. Food shoppers will ultimately express their preferences by choices at the meat counter.

Sliced Brazil Nuts Add New Taste to Vegetables

If you are looking for an interesting new way to cheer up vegetables, Brazil Nut Sauce is the answer. For four to six servings of vegetables, melt ¼ cup butter; add ½ cup sliced Brazil nuts, and cook over low heat for 5 minutes. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice, heat a moment longer, and serve over green beans, asparagus, or broccoli. Brazil nuts add crisp texture and mellow flavor to sauces.

Lorenzo Low-Caloried

For a delicious low calorie Lorenzo dressing, mix 1 cup low calorie salad dressing with ½ cup chili sauce and ½ cup chopped watercress. Chill thoroughly and shake well before using. Marvelous on a mixed cooked vegetable salad.

Put Asparagus in Open Face Sandwiches

Fix some elegant sandwiches for some "elegant" friends.

Copenhagen Open Sandwiches

18 spears cooked asparagus
½ lb. yellow cheese
¼ cup milk or light cream
6 hamburger buns
6 slices bacon
6 slices bacon
½ cup pimentos

Melt cheese in double boiler with milk. Fry bacon slices crisp, drain and cut in half.

Toast halves of hamburger buns, arrange on hot plate and pour melted cheese over halves. Add bacon strips and arrange asparagus tips on top.

Crisscross pimentos over asparagus and garnish with parsley if desired. Serve immediately with potato chips and pickle.

Canned Peas Can Stand Variation

Green peas served with lamb may be old hat, but they taste good. They're different, too, if you use this simple way to vary them.

Savory Green Peas

2 cans (each 1 pound and 1 ounce) green peas with onions
1 cup thin celery crescents
1 or 2 tablespoons butter (if desired)

Turn peas and onions plus the liquid from just one can into a medium saucepan; add celery. Heat; drain; stir in butter, if used. Makes 10 to 12 servings. (Reserve all liquid from peas and onions for another use.)

Heat Does It

Ever notice that your home-baked bread, rolls or coffee cake have a "yeasty" flavor? This happens, usually, because the yeast dough was allowed to rise in too warm a place.

Cream the Spinach for Fine Eating

Even men who think they don't like spinach, take to it when it is fixed this way.

Swedish Creamed Spinach

1 package (10 ounces) frozen leaf spinach
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
½ cup milk
½ teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon sugar

Cook the spinach according to package directions; drain and reserve ½ cup cooking liquid. Melt butter over low heat in a saucepan; stir in flour. Add ½ cup spinach liquid and milk. Cook and stir until thickened; mix in drained (and slightly chopped) spinach, lemon juice and sugar; reheat. Add more salt if desired. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Add lots of minced parsley to green peas for fresh flavor.

Meat Loaves Have Infinite Variety

MADE WITH CHEESE — This meat loaf not only has a capping of cheese, but some of the same good cheese is mixed right in with the ground beef. This is just one of the many kinds of delicious meat loaf you can serve your family during the winter months.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Ham, turkey, chicken — haven't you had enough of them? Don't you think your family might welcome a good juicy meat loaf some night soon?

Meat loaf can be a so-so food, or it can be as delicious as a more expensive meat. You can vary the taste with the meat you use, the liquid and the binding agent.

* * *

If someone in your family has an aversion to "hunks" of half cooked onion in meat loaf, cater to him by grating the onion you use. You may be able to use the prep[illegible] dry onion flakes without [illegible] the person distress.

Here's a tip to mothers who worry that their children don't get enough milk. Add half a cup or more of dry nonfat milk to your regular meat loaf recipe. No change in the taste, but more nutrition. In this first recipe, you can use ⅔ cup dry milk, plus one cup of water instead of the cup of milk called for.

This recipe has even more protein with the cheese it includes.

Cheese Stuffed Meat Loaf

1 package (8-ounce) sliced process American cheese
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 pounds ground beef
1 cup milk
1 cup rolled oats, uncooked
¾ cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper, optional
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon prepared horseradish

Cut cheese slices in half diagonally; save ½ cheese triangles for top of meat loaf. Finely chop remaining cheese slices. Combine chopped cheese with remaining ingredients; mix thoroughly. Press meat into buttered loaf pan (9x5x3-inches). Invert pan onto a foil covered shallow baking pan; fold foil edges up around meat loaf to hold juices during baking.

Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, until meat is done, about 1 hour. Two or three minutes before end of baking time, lay cheese slices over top of loaf, double thickness. Return to oven just long enough to soften cheese. Makes 8 servings.

In our second recipe there are 2 unusual ingredients, shredded raw carrots and ground beef liver. This is a meat loaf you serve without telling the family just what's in it. Lots of vitamin A in this one.

Carrot Meat Loaf

2 tablespoons bacon fat or shortening
1½ cups chopped onion
1¼ cups (4 medium) shredded raw carrots
1½ cups (6 small) finely shredded raw potatoes
1½ pounds ground lean beef
¼ pound beef liver, seared and ground
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
3 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
1½ teaspoons poultry seasoning
2 eggs, beaten
2 strips bacon

Heat bacon fat or shortening in a saucepan. Add onions and saute until limp. Mix with carrots, potatoes, ground beef, liver, bread crumbs, seasonings and eggs. Turn into a greased 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Arrange bacon strips over the top. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour or until done. Makes 8 servings.

* * *

Vitamin B plays an important role in a meat loaf made with rolled oats. A small amount of ground ham makes the flavor just a little different. Top each slice with a helping of ruby cranberry sauce.

Ham-Beef-Oat Meat Loaf

1½ pounds ground beef
½ pound ground ham
1 cup rolled oats, quick or regular, uncooked
1 cup milk
1 egg
¼ cup chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine ingredients and mix well. Pack into loaf pan (9x5x3 inches). Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until meat is done, about 1 hour. Serve with the desired Cranberry Sauce. Yield: 8 servings.

Spice Cranberry Sauce

Combine 1 can (1 pound) whole cranberry sauce, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, ⅛ teaspoon cinnamon, and ⅛ teaspoon cloves; heat and serve with meat loaf.

* * *

Pineapple-Cranberry Sauce

Combine 1 can (1 pound) whole cranberry sauce and 1 can (8½ ounce) crushed pineapple (1 cup); heat and serve with meat loaf.

Orange-Cranberry Sauce

Combine 1 can (1 pound) whole cranberry sauce and 1 tablespoon grated orange rind; heat and serve with meat loaf.

Grape Dessert Something New

Let "Ruby Drops Bake" cook in the oven while guests are enjoying the rest of the dinner, then serve this dessert hot and in handsome fashion. Halved Flame Tokay grapes are sprinkled with a blend of brown sugar, butter and cornstarch; spooned on top is a biscuit mix perked up with grated orange rind and crested with sliced almonds. Juicy Tokays add lovely color and crisp texture to numerous desserts, salads and entrees, and they are true eaten-out-of-hand treats for children and grown-ups alike.

RUBY DROPS BAKE

2 cups Tokay grapes
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Drop Biscuits
¼ cup toasted sliced almonds

Drop Biscuits

1 cup biscuit mix
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
2 tablespoons sugar
½ cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Halve and seed Tokays. Spread over bottom of 8½-inch shallow round baking dish. Blend sugar, cornstarch and butter; sprinkle over top of grapes.

Spoon Drop Biscuits over grape and sugar mixture. Sprinkle sliced almonds over top of Drop Biscuits. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Serve immediately. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

DROP BISCUITS: Blend all ingredients with a few [illegible] strokes.

Soup Mix Shortens Time for Making Cheese Pie

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Streamlined recipes are the order of the culinary day. American cooks like to use packaged products to create shortcut versions of classic rules.

Here's the latest recipe of this sort that we have tried. It's a Bacon and Cheese Pie patterned after the famous French Quiche Lorraine.

* * *

There are many versions of this dish, and one of them includes onions cooked in butter until golden. No peeling, slicing and sauteeing onions for this recipe—instead packaged onion soup mix goes into the pie's filling.

This robust bacon and cheese pie is conveniently versatile. Serve it cut into healthy portions, for lunch; accompany it with a crisp green salad. Or make the portions small, and offer it as a savory tidbit with a before-dinner drink. Either way it's a taste-winning dish.

Bacon and Cheese Quiche Lorraine

5 slices bacon
½ cup grated Swiss cheese
9-inch pastry shell (unbaked)
3 tablespoons onion soup mix
⅛ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1½ cups milk or light cream
4 eggs
¼ cup chopped parsley

Fry bacon until crisp; drain on brown paper (or paper) toweling and crumble. Sprinkle bacon and grated Swiss cheese on bottom of pastry shell.

With a rotary beater, beat together the dry onion soup mix (just as it comes from the envelope), salt, pepper, milk and eggs. Pour over bacon and cheese. Sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven for 25 to 30 minutes or until custard is set. Makes six servings.

Wonderful Way With Mushrooms

The small button mushrooms used here look particularly attractive; they're added to a favorite marinade and always make a hit.

Pickled Button Mushrooms

1/3 cup sugar
1/2 cup cider vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 bay leaf
1 teaspoon whole mixed pickling spices
1 medium onion (thinly sliced into rings)
2 cans (each 8 ounces) button mushrooms (drained)

Stir together the sugar, vinegar, salt, bay leaf, mixed pickling spices and onion rings in a small saucepan over low heat until sugar dissolves; bring to a boil. Pour over drained mushrooms in a shallow container, cover and refrigerate several hours or overnight. Remove bay leaf and any peppercorns and whole cloves (from mixed spice). Drain before serving.

Ginger Steak

Score flank steak on both sides. Brown in hot fat. Spread both sides with pineapple-cherry preserves mixed with 1 T. lemon juice and pinch ginger. Add water or broth, cover and simmer until tender. Make gravy with pan juice and serve with sliced steak.

Egyptians Ate a Convenience Food — Candy

The marvelous array of convenience foods you read so much about today are not all products of recent development.

* * *

One of the very earliest convenience foods was candy. It originated in ancient Egypt about 400 years before the birth of Christ.

Naturally, the candy of 1961 is quite different from that of that day [illegible]. Today's candy consists of varied, healthy, nutritious ingredients. And candy making has become an exact science.

Candy bars rank as an ideal convenience food in industry. According to The D. L. Clark Co., candy makers, many workers are being encouraged to take a candy break in mid afternoon.

Reason for this is that candy is known to be a quick energy restorer and contributes to alertness. It is a handy between-meal pick-up food. And best of all, perhaps, there is no preparation with commercial candy. [illegible] unwrap it and begin nibbling.

Put Bright Carrots Into Orange Sauce

Orange Carrots Frances

1 pound bag carrots
1½ cups boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cornstarch
½ teaspoon sugar
1 tablespoon cold water
Grated rind and juice of 1 orange
¼ cup currants (rinsed in hot water and drained)

Pare carrots and cut into thin oval rounds — slant knife in cutting. In a medium-sized saucepan rapidly cook carrots with boiling water and salt, covered, just until tender — about 8 minutes; drain.

* * *

Mix cornstarch, sugar and water until smooth; add orange rind and orange juice. Add orange mixture and currants to carrots; cook and stir over low heat until small amount of sauce thickens. Add salt if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Keep Them This Year

Don't Lose Old Thoughts

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

At this time of year I think it's appropriate to list some old, perceptive thoughts that we can keep in mind for the new year.

★ ★ ★

"Some people talk so much, you can read them like a book." — Caroline, Clark.

"It's all right to hold a conversation, but you should let go of it now and then." — Richard Armour.

"The reason God made woman AFTER he made man was because he didn't want any advice."

"The stars are constantly shining but often we do not see them until dark hours." — Earl Riney in Church Management.

"To strive with an equal is a doubtful thing to do; with a superior a mad thing; with an inferior a vulgar thing." — Seneca.

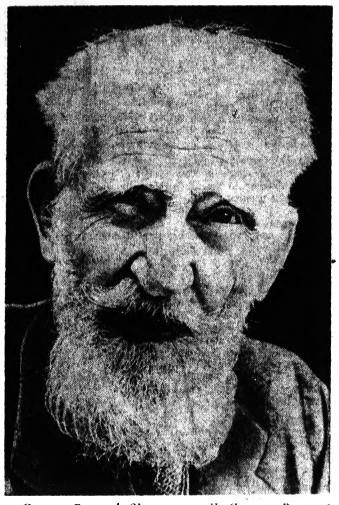

"You are not permitted to kill a woman who has injured you, but nothing forbids you to reflect that she is growing older every minute. You are avenged 140 times a day." — Ambrose Bierce.

"In China, the fifty-first birthday is an occasion of great rejoicing, the sixty-first and seventy-first are progressively happier and grander; while a man able to celebrate his eighty-first birthday is looked upon as one specially favored by the Gods." — Lin Yutang.

"The grave of love is excavated with little digs."

"Luck is what happens when effort and opportunity meet."

George Bernard Shaw was all George Bernard Shaw enjoyed at the party.

Once when George Bernard Shaw was at a party someone asked him if he was enjoying himself. He replied, "Yes, Madam, and it is the only thing I am enjoying."

"Security is mostly a superstition. It does not exist in nature, nor do the children of men as a whole experience it. Avoiding danger is no safer in the long run than outright exposure. The fearful are caught as often as the bold. Faith alone defends." — Helen Keller, in "Let Us Have Faith."

SPORTS

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Are you regretting your lack of will power over the holidays? And did you resolve New Year's Day to get rid of those excess bulges caused by that honey cured ham, turkey drumsticks and 65 varieties of goodies?

Bill Blower and Frank Boner, the white-collar muscle beaters over at the Pontiac YMCA athletic club, say this is the busiest time of the year at the club.

Seems everyone is trying to melt off a few of those holiday pounds with a few finger bends and 15 minutes in the steam room.

"It's surprising how many people around here don't even know this place is here," said Blower, himself a victim of the holidays. He got on the scale a few days before Christmas at 190 pounds and this week he sneaked off the scale after the indicator hit 201.

"That's it," said Bill, "I'm going back on my diet."

This is the diet he advises:

MONDAY: Breakfast—Weak tea; Lunch—One bouillon cube in half cup diluted water; Dinner—One pigeon thigh; three ounces prune juice (gargle only).

TUESDAY—Breakfast — Scraped crumbs from burnt toast; Lunch—One doughnut hole (without sugar); one glass dehydrated water; Dinner—Three grains of cornmeal, broiled.

WEDNESDAY — Breakfast—Shredded egg shell; Lunch—Half dozen poppy seeds; Dinner—Bee's knee and frog knuckle sauted in vinegar.

THURSDAY—Breakfast—Boiled out egg stains from holiday napkin; Lunch — three ground up orange seeds soaked in orange juice; Dinner—Three eyes from an Irish potato (diced).

FRIDAY—Two Lobster antennas; Lunch — One neck joint of a sea horse; Dinner—Rotisserie broiled Guppy filet.

SATURDAY—Breakfast—Four chopped banana seeds. Lunch—broiled butterfly liver; Dinner—Turtle soup (dip the turtle 3 times).

SUNDAY—Breakfast — Poached humming bird tongue; Lunch—Prime rib of tadpole and aroma of empty custard pie plate; Dinner—Tossed clover leaf salad sprinkled with paprika.

(A seven ounce glass of steam is a wonderful beverage to go with dinner.)

With this diet, Blower advises use of the athletic club facilities—the steam bath, rubbing tables, sun lamp, the shimmy machine, bicycle, heat cabinet and two free sunflower seeds—about three times a week.

Plans are to enlarge the athletic club in conjunction with YMCA expansion program. The YMCA is still short of its goal, but now's the time for all "pleasantly plump" men to help the "Y" goal as well as their waistlines.

Waterford Foe for Northern in I-L Battle

Rams, Lancers Home; Wayne-Oakland Lead Up for Grabs

BY CHUCK ABAIR

High school basketball gets back on an even keel Friday night around this area following the various holiday tournaments and vacation contests.

Heading a long list 1962 loop openers will be a Waterford-Pontiac Northern Inter-Lakes affair at the Huskie gym. Walled Lake will entertain Berkley and Southfield goes to Farmington in other league play.

A full Eastern Michigan slate will have Birmingham Seaholm at East Detroit, Ferndale vs. Port Huron and Mt. Clemens at Hazel Park.

Avondale visits Troy, Lake Orion plays at Madison and Clawson battles Fitzgerald in Oakland A games.

In the Wayne-Oakland, West Bloomfield tries to pull an upset at Northville, Holly invades Clarenceville, Clarkston and Milford tangle and Bloomfield Hills travels to Brighton.

St. Frederick, one of four city schools at home on the same night, will be host to St. Clement, Waterford Our Lady goes to St. Benedict and St. James vs. Royal Oak St. Mary in Suburban Catholic duels.

Southern Thumb action will include Dryden at home to Anchor Bay, Almont at Capac, Brown City at Armada and Memphis against New Haven.

★ ★ ★

Elsewhere, Emmanuel will take on Country Day here, Royal Oak Dondero plays at Grosse Pointe, Birmingham Groves is guest of Dearborn Haston, North Farmington visits Southgate Davison, Ortonville entertains Montrose, Farmington Our Lady faces Ann Arbor St. Thomas, Royal Oak Shrine vs. River Rouge Lourdes and South Lyon is at Willow Run.

OTHERS RESUME LATER

Orchard Lake St. Mary, Waterford Kettering, St. Michael, Cranbrook, Rochester, and Oxford are among those resuming activity at later dates.

PNH and Waterford ... standing ... and are ... Each ... 500 in season play including losses in the only I-L tilts. Walled Lake, defending co-champ with Northern, has dropped all six outings. Southfield is 4-3, Berkley 2-4 and Farmington 5-1. The Falcons, Jays and Bear ... loop wins.

Seaholm and Ferndale are 2-2, East Detroit 2-1, Hazel Park 1-3, Port Huron 3-1 and Mt. Clemens 0-3. Port Huron tops the EML with 2-0, Seaholm and Ferndale are 1-0.

Avondale is 1-1 in the league and 2-1 over-all, Orion 0-3 and 0-4 in that order, Troy 2-1 and 3-1, Clawson 3-1 and 5-1, Fitzgerald 4-0 and 5-0, Oak Park 1-3 and 1-4 and Madison 0-2 and 1-3.

The game at Northville will be a battle of W-O leaders. ... 4-0 followed by Bloomfield Hills 2-1, Holly ..., Clarkston 1-2, Brighton 1-3, Milford ... and Clarenceville 0-1.

St. Fred, last year's SCL power, has divided two loop starts but has been improving in holiday drills. OLL is 0-2, Royal Oak 3-0, St. Clement 2-0, St. James 2-1, St. Ben 2-1 and St. Rita 0-3.

Unbeaten Capac heads the Thumb with four others close behind tied for 2nd.

Legal Action Threatened If Dietzel Leaves LSU

BATON ROUGE, La. AP—This may be the day of decision for Paul Dietzel, the dimpled darling of Louisiana State University football fans—that is, until a few days ago—and more recently the man Army apparently expects to return West Point to the greatness of years gone by.

The big pull in the tug of war over the 38-year-old coach, who guided LSU to the national championship in 1958 and three bowl games in the last four years, came from the South today.

Tom Dutton, a member of the LSU Board of Supervisors which hires and fires football coaches, said he would ask the board to take legal action against Dietzel if he asked to be released from the remaining four years of his contract.

DIETZEL NOT TAKING

There were reports from West Point that Dietzel had asked the board to meet to consider such a request. Not so, said Dutton, the board has not been asked to meet.

As for Dietzel—the tall, good-looking organizational genius who gave the term "Chinese Bandits" to college football—well, he wasn't saying anything.

★ ★ ★

"My only comment, for what it's worth, is no comment," he told The Associated Press Wednesday night. He would neither confirm nor deny:

1. If he had asked the board to meet.

2. If he had been approached by military academy authorities.

3. If he would fly to New York this week to confer with Army officials.

★ ★ ★

After three straight losses to Navy, the Army felt it was time for a change and gave Dale Hall his walking papers several weeks ago. West Point athletic authorities apparently felt that Dietzel, a one-time aide to former Army Coach Earl (Red) Blaik, was the man with the remedy.

LSU FANS MUMBLING

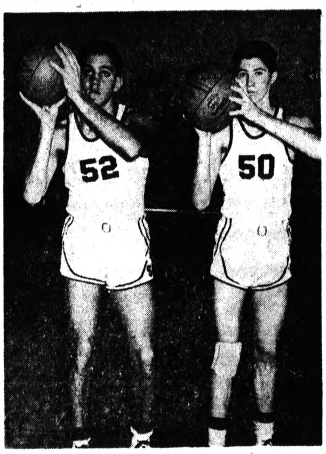

The quick chain of events had LSU sports fans mumbling.

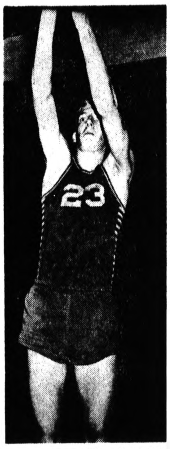

Why, some asked, would Dietzel, or any other coach, want to leave a setup such as exists at LSU? The Tigers, ranked fourth nationally this season and 25-7 winners over Colorado in the Orange Bowl, lose only seven members from the 1961 team that won nine and lost only one.

His salary is $18,500-a-year with raises almost automatic each year, Bengal backers quickly point out. And Dietzel's forceful personality is such that with LSU's success, he has only to make the slightest overture to prep stars and presto! They're in purple and gold uniforms.

Dutton, a member of the LSU board for 24 years, sent telegrams Wednesday to Army Secretary Elvis Stahr, the West Point superintendent and the Army athletic director advising them he would ask for legal action if Dietzel made any move asking his release.

Chiefs Tangle With Midland in SVC Battle

Central Cagers Risk Flawless 5-0 Record Against Chemics

By BILL CORNWELL

Pontiac Central's undefeated basketball squad may receive the "old-fashioned" treatment Friday evening.

A Midland team which has thus far specialized in control-ball tactics and deliberate play makes its first basketball visit to Pontiac tomorrow night for a Saginaw Valley Conference game.

The Chemics, coached by Keith Carey, played in a style that was reminiscent of the hardwood sport 20 to 25 years ago when they met powerful Saginaw High Dec. 22 on the Midland floor.

Carey's forces virtually played catch with the ball for the first three minutes of the contest as they waited for "sure" shots at the bucket in an effort to slow down the racehorse Trojans.

They were ahead at the end of the 1st quarter, 7-5, but Saginaw's superiority eventually asserted itself and the Trojans won, 58-39.

Carey, former Alma College and Dow Chemical cage star, hinted that the Chiefs might get a dose of the same medicine here Friday.

"We felt that Saginaw would really slaughter us if we didn't try to slow them down to a walk," Carey said. "We overdid the strategy, however, and passed up some good shots we should have taken."

"Saginaw got rolling in the 2nd half and we couldn't hold them off, although we did limit Ernie Thompson to 14 points," Carey said. "Our outlook on the Pontiac team is similar to the Saginaw approach."

Midland's leading scorer is forward Larry Jaster, a 6-2 sharpshooter who quarterbacked the Chemics' talented football club last fall.

The southpaw gunner has scored 45 points in Midland's four games and is the only returning regular from the 1960-61 quintet.

Completing the Chemics' starting lineup will be 6-0 forward Ray Tucker, 6-3 center Paul Key and guards Frank Jones (5-10) and Dan Jaster (6-1). Dan, a sophomore, is Larry's brother. Jones with 42 points and Key with 30 are Midland's 2nd and 3rd point leaders.

Midland will be putting a 2-2 record against Pontiac's spotless 5-0 mark. The Chemics are 2-1 in Valley competition while the Chiefs share the SVC lead with Saginaw at 3-0.

PCH coach Art Van Ryzin will probably start the same lineup that has been so successful to date.

Rudy Ransom and Ed Williams are slated for duty at forwards, Otto Kennedy will see action at center and Clarence Douglas will team with Roy Couser in the back court.

★ ★ ★

Paul Brown and sophomore Alvin Keel are certain to see heavy duty. Brown has been a tower of strength in Central's last two games, both as scorer and rebounder, and Keel has improved steadily at guard.

Game time is 8 p.m., preceded by a junior varsity contest at 6:30.

Sentence Delayed

NEW YORK (AP) — The sentencing of Joseph Green of New York on charges of attempting to bribe a Columbia University basketball player last year has been postponed until Feb. 1.

For Senior Bowl Saturday

North and South Defensive Lineups Set

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — It looks like ... at the end posts, and All-America end Bill Miller probably ... day's Senior Bowl all-star game will be ... starting role ... will take the field with three ends in the line-up.

"I have been so impressed with the fine ends I would like to use them all at the same time," Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts said.

Dave Edwards of Auburn and Gary Collins of Maryland apparently have nailed down starting ... as a flanker back.

★ ★ ★

But Ewbank and Yankee Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys concentrated mainly on setting up defensive teams for the nationally televised game.

CONTRAST IN TACKLES

Ewbank apparently will be using the largest and smallest tackles on his team for defense. Robbie Osborne of Clemson, 6-foot-4 and 278, is likely to be starting at one tackle and Maryland's 215-pound guard, Bill Kirchiro at the other.

Tackle Bill Rice of Alabama has been converted to defensive end and seems to have captured the starting nod. Mississippi end Ralph Smith probably will man the opposite end.

★ ★ ★

Backing up the Southern line probably will be Mike Lucci, 203-pound Tennessee center; Roland Jackson, 203-pound Rice fullback and Ken Hays, Baylor's 204-pound guard.

LOMAKOSKI WILL START

Don Fuell of Mississippi Southern and Jack Collins of Texas apparently will hold down the South's defensive halfback slots, and Alabama's Billy Richardson and The Citadel's Early Eastburn will be at safety.

John Lomakoski of Western Michigan, 6-foot-4 and 251 pounds, and Utah State's Clark Miller, 6-foot-5 and 240, evidently are slated for starting action at tackle for the North.

Landry has been hesitant to name his starters, but he said he has been impressed with his quarterbacks and running backs.

★ ★ ★

Signal callers Ed Wilson of Arizona and Mel Melin of Washington State have been throwing well, he said. Steve Simms, Rutgers fullback, Tom Larscheid, Utah State halfback, and Bill Tunnicliff, Michigan fullback, have impressed him as runners.

Lunde Recalled by Red Wings; to Play Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — Len Lunde, 25, has been recalled from the Edmonton Flyers of the Western Hockey League to the Detroit Red Wings' roster. He'll play against the Chicago Black Hawks tonight at Olympia.

Lunde, a center, was recalled yesterday. He ranked as the second leading scorer in the WHL this season with 16 goals and 27 assists for 43 points in 31 games.

A regular with the Red Wings the past three seasons, he failed to stick with the club in pre-season training this fall. Lunde's freshman year with Detroit in 1958-59 was his best in National Hockey League play. He scored 14 goals and added 12 assists. He scored six goals in each of the past two NHL seasons.

Huskie Tankers Win; Groves Beats Bluejays

Pontiac Northern won its third swimming meet in four starts by defeating Warren 57-48 in the Huskie pool last night while Birmingham Seaholm was handing Fitzgerald a dunking by the same 57-48 score.

The Huskies, losers only to strong Thurston, won both team relay events to help their cause. Only Alex Hiller in diving and Lou Ferrell in the breaststroke and John Bilkey in the backstroke were individual winners.

Warren had five individual winners with Pat McPharlin winning the 200 freestyle and Daryl Kiter winning the 50 and 100 freestyle events.

The Seaholm 200-yard medley relay team of Bob Wolf, Jim Bradburn, Don Spencer and Jack Hoyt did the event in the best time in the state thus far this season—1:47.5.

Keith Brockman set a Fitzgerald varsity and pool record in the 50 freestyle in a time of :23.6 and he also set a pool record in the 100 freestyle in :53.2.

★ ★ ★

Fitzgerald's diving ace Mike Reynolds stayed unbeaten since the state meet last year by winning the event with 67.5 points.

Maple coach Corey Van Fleet moved some of the swimmers to different events in order to use his best in the relay events.

In another meet last night, Birmingham Groves surprised Southfield in the Blue Jay Pool, 55-51.

Lee Driver, Groves' fine breast stroker, set a Southfield pool record in 1:05.5 and he won the individual medley in 2:26.9. Southfield took six firsts but Groves showed surprising strength for runnerup points.

Huskies Home, Central Away on Mats Tonight

The second match in three nights for Pontiac Central and a full Inter-Lakes League slate will make up an interesting prep wrestling schedule tonight.

PCH, fresh from its first victory, will travel to Port Huron. The Chiefs will then be idle until the big Jan. 16 return battle with Pontiac Northern.

Northern will host Southfield tonight, while Waterford invades Walled Lake and Farmington vs. Berkley.

Big Ten Invitational for Tankers Saturday

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The annual Big Ten Invitational Swimming Relays will be held here Saturday with only three Big Ten schools entered.

Michigan, Michigan State and Indiana are the only Big Ten schools entered, although U-M coach Gus Stager says Ohio State may compete. Non-conference entries are Wayne State, Toronto and Kenyon (Ohio) College.

THREAT TO CHEMICS—Midland will have to stop the deadly outside shooting of Pontiac Central's Clarence Douglas when the two Saginaw Valley Conference basketball rivals clash tomorrow night at the PCH gym. Douglas has scored 68 points in five games for a 13.6 average to help the Chiefs stay unbeaten.

2 Pistons Added to 'Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Rosters were completed today for the annual National Basketball Association All-Star Game with the addition of six players to the West team. The game will be played at St. Louis, Jan. 16.

★ ★ ★

Jack Twyman and Wayne Embry of Cincinnati, Cliff Hagan of St. Louis, Bailey Howell and Gene Shue of Detroit and Frank Selvy of Los Angeles were named to the West squad in a vote of league coaches.

They will join the West's first five, picked in a poll of NBA writers and sportscasters—Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles, Bob Pettit of St. Louis; Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati and Walt Bellamy of Chicago.

★ ★ ★

For the 11-man East team Bob Cousy and Tom Heinsohn of Boston, Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia, Dolph Schayes of Syracuse and Richie Guerin of New York were chosen as starters. The squad was completed with Paul Arizin and Tom Gola of Philadelphia, Willie Naulls of New York, Bill Russell of Boston and Hal Greer and Larry Costello of Syracuse.

Red Auerbach of Boston will coach the East team and Fred Schaus of Los Angeles will handle the West.

Paced by Young Stars

Leafs and Hawks Victors

By The Associated Press

A couple of heralded youngsters—Dave Keon of Toronto and Bobby Hull of Chicago — shared the National Hockey League spotlight today after sparking their teams to victories.

Keon, a 21-year-old center who was rookie of the year last season, scored two goals in the Maple Leafs' 3-1 triumph over the league-leading Montreal Canadiens Wednesday night.

Hull, the league's top scorer two years ago, celebrated his 23rd birthday with a goal and an assist as the black Hawks edged the New York Rangers 2-1.

★ ★ ★

With Keon and Hull—both considered potential "super stars"—leading the way, their clubs picked up ground in the races for first and third places. Runner-up Toronto moved to within two points of Montreal while Chicago closed to within three points of the third-place Rangers.

Keon missed a grand opportunity for the "hat trick" as he was thwarted for a possible third goal by Montreal goalie Jacques Plante on a penalty shot in the second period.

★ ★ ★

Dick Duff gave the Leafs a 1-0 lead in the opening period and Keon produced his pair in the first two stanzas. The Canadiens' Marcel Bonin spoiled Toronto goalie Johnny Bower's shutout bid on a tip-in goal with just 11 seconds left to play.

Hull's goal, his 15th, came at the outset of the second period on a rebound of Bill Hay's shot. The blond winger then set up Stan Mikita early in the third frame to give the Hawks a 2-0 lead.

Earl Ingarfield of New York ruined Chicago goalie Glenn Hall's try for his second straight blanking with a 15-footer with less than five minutes remaining.

BIG SEASON AHEAD — Another tow goes up at Alpine Valley ski area which will be in its second year of operation this season. The ski area, located on M-59 just 10 miles west of Pontiac, now has 4 T-bars going to the top of the 1,300 foot slope.

AFL All-Stars to Pass Plenty

Kemp of West Thinks Both Sides Certain to Throw Sunday

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Sunday's American Football League All-Star Game will be an aerial battle, quarterback Jack Kemp of the San Diego Chargers says.

Kemp will share hurling duties for the Western Division All-Stars with Cotton Davidson of the Dallas Texans.

"We'll loosen them up with our fine runners," Kemp said. "But the ball will be in the air a lot because of the great receivers we have as targets."

The targets, says Coach Sid Gillman, will be speedy Lionel Taylor of Denver and Dave Kocourek of San Diego.

Keeping the ball in the air for the Eastern Division All-Stars of Coach Wally Lemm will be George Blanda of Houston and Al Dorow of New York.

They'll be aiming at Gino Cappelletti of Boston and Charles Hennigan of Houston.

WINTER SPORTS

Good Area Ski Crowds for New Year Weekend

Skiers, don't let the peeking sun fool you. All local ski areas enjoyed a weekend over the New Year's holiday as main slopes and all facilities were put into action.

An estimated total of 12,000 skiers enjoyed very good skiing conditions at the five most local resorts for the 3 days, Saturday through Monday.

Fresh snowfall up through Tuesday and new powder added by snow machines have given all the areas a good enough base which would not be seriously disrupted by the slight warming spell yesterday and today.

In fact, skiers enjoyed yesterday's weather in much more comfort than the zero temperatures a week ago.

Although the temperature today was expected to reach a high of 39, colder weather has been forecast for the weekend which should enable the machines to add new powder to the slopes.

These are the conditions which prevailed early today at the local ski areas:

ALPINE VALLEY — All slopes, T-bars, tows and lodge facilities are in operation. Skiing is still very good.

MT. CHRISTIE—All slopes in operation along with Pomalift and rope tows. Skiing excellent in new toddler's area which has own slow moving tow. Skiing on beginner's, intermediate slopes very good and on main slope good.

GRAMPIAN MT.—Area is closed this afternoon to make snow but will be open tonight. Good base is available and complete area is covered. Conditions are good to very good.

DRYDEN SKI AREA — More new powder added by nightly operation of snow machines. Entire area including ski bowl is covered with all facilities operating and skiing very good.

MT. HOLLY — Three main slopes, beginner's area and intermediate area all have very good skiing. Tows, T-bar and Chair all operating.

SUMMIT — All tows and slopes are open. Skiing good to very good.

GRANVIEW SKI AREA — All facilities in operation and skiing good to very good.

MT. BRIGHTON — Some new powder and operation of all facilities makes skiing very good.

Want to Ski? It's Very Easy to Get Started

Want to go skiing for the first time and but don't know how to get started?

★ ★ ★

It's really not such a problem. Pick up the family or friends, get dressed nice and warm and pick a ski area.

★ ★ ★

All the local areas have ski lessons instructions by certified instructors at given times during the day.

★ ★ ★

If you want to find out prices of the classes call the ski areas: Alpine Valley—887-4180; Dryden—SW 6-3311, Mt. Christie — OA 8-3957; Grampian Mt.—OA 8-2450 and Mt. Holly—MY 4-9581.

★ ★ ★

The rental shop at each area will help with the selection of equipment and for the first time you can join all the other beginners flopping around having fun on the beginner's slopes.

★ ★ ★

At least 3,000 area folks will get the ski bug for the first time this year.

Prep Ski Units Start Schedule

High school skiing begins a competitive weekly schedule for the first time locally Saturday morning at Mt. Holly with a triangular meet involving Bloomfield Hills, Royal Oak Kimball and Waterford Kettering.

★ ★ ★

A five week schedule has been set up by the eight participating schools.

★ ★ ★

On February 10th at Mt. Holly all the ski teams will take part in the Southeastern Michigan inter-scholastic meet, and then follow with one more triangular meet on Feb. 17th.

★ ★ ★

Other schools competing in the schedule are Waterford High, Walled Lake, Grosse Pointe, Avondale and Berkley.

Learned to Ski at Mt. Christie

Blind Skier Likes Being 'Tomboy'

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Margaret Smith, 22-year-old graduate journalism student at Marquette University, admits she's a tomboy and likes it.

She has been riding horses since she was five, does a lot of year-round swimming, enjoys water skiing and loves snow skiing and ice skating.

At Mt. Christie last weekend, Margaret was home from school for the holidays and she and her Leader Dog made their first visit of the season to a ski area.

Margaret started skiing three years ago. She was determined that being blind wasn't going to force her to sit indoors so she talked to several people about the idea of learning to ski.

"I was real discouraged. Everyone told me I shouldn't attempt it," she said. I decided to call Bob Jackson, manager at Mt. Christie one day, and he said if I had the desire to learn, he would help me get started," she added.

Mt. Christie ski pro Michele Turcotte accepted the challenge to teach the blind girl how to ski and today Margaret gets to a ski area as often as she can.

★ ★ ★

"Michele was very patient with me. He placed the skis in their proper position for the different basic fundamentals and I practiced each phase by repetition," she said.

Her mother, Mrs. Edwin Smith of Grosse Pointe, drives her to the ski areas. "We are very happy she has taken such interest in sports," said Mrs. Smith, "She has been very brave about it."

Margaret never attempts to undertake a ski slope by herself. She uses only the beginner's or intermediate slopes with another good skier or instructor right along side to give her verbal instructions.

In picking a part of the slope on which to ski, she stays in the same area going downhill thereby learning the contour of the slope by habit.

After graduating from Marygrove College in Detroit, Margaret started graduate work at Marquette University where she will go for another year.

"I'd like to do free lance writing," she said. The first article she wrote a couple years ago was a hot-rod feature and it received good attention from a hot-rod magazine.

★ ★ ★

Living close to Metropolitan Beach, she learned to water ski there with Joe Grimaldi, head of the water ski school, as her instructor.

"I've taken some bumps and bruises in some of the sports, but nothing serious," she said.

What does she plan to do next? "I think I'd like to take a few courses in Judo," she commented.

Ski Movie to Be Shown in Birmingham Tonight

The popular new ski film "Once Upon an Alp" will be presented tonight at 8:30 p.m. at the Birmingham Theater under the sponsorship of the Birmingham Skier's Club.

John Jay, famous U.S. Olympic photographer, is producer of the film which encompasses humor, precision skiing, scenic mountain beauty, and beautiful color.

It is an appealing story of an American farmer who realizes his fondest dream of skiing in the Alps and winds up in a wild ski chase. There's romance when the hero falls in love with a pretty Olympic champion and there's action when the cameras give a closeup of a treacherous two-mile, downhill run on skis.

World's Best Alpine Skiers Take Part in Warmup Meets

GENEVA (AP) — The world's best Alpine skiers meet in Switzerland next week for their first test of strength prior to the world championships.

Fourteen nations have entered their elite skiers for the three international events traditionally starting the European racing season—the men's giant slalom races at Adelboden Jan. 7-8, the women's events at Grindelwald Jan. 9-12, and the men's Lauberhorn races at Wengen Jan. 13-14.

★ ★ ★

Poor local snow conditions may force cancellation of the Adelboden events. But there is ample snow in Grindelwald and Wengen, and more snow is expected soon all over Switzerland.

★ ★ ★

The outcome of the last two races, together with other major events later this month in Austria, Italy and France, will help determine the starting lists for the World Ski Championships in Chamonix, France, Feb. 10-18.

★ ★ ★

Some 90 competitors were expected in Adelboden while more than 100 will take part in the Grindelwald and Wengen races.

The Swiss events will also be the first major test for the U.S. team, which did not race in Europe last year. The six men and five girls have been training in France since early last month.

Scheduled to start in Adelboden and in Wengen are Buddy Werner, Steamboat Springs, Colo.; Jim Heuge, Tahoe City, Calif., Bill Marolt, Aspen, Colo., Chuck Ferries, Houghton, Mich., Bill Kidd, Stowe, Vt., and Gordy Eaton, Littleton, N.H.

Entered for the women's event at Grindelwald—where the Nordic races were cancelled this year because of the absence of Scandinavian entries—are Linda Meyers, Bishop, Calif., Joan Hannah, Franconia, N.H.; Barbara Ferries, Houghton, Mich.; Jean Saubert, Lakeview, Ore., and Nancy Sise, Wellesley, Mass.

Competitors from the following nations take part in all three Swiss races: U.S.A., Canada, Sweden, Spain, Norway, Italy, Austria, France, West and East Germany and Switzerland. In addition a Polish men's team is expected in Wengen, and women teams from New Zealand, Belgium and Britain are to compete in Grindelwald.

Sledder Changes Mind

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — Stan Benham, this country's best bobsledder who announced his retirement after last February's world championships, has changed his mind and will lead the United States' quest for a world title next month at the Garmisch - Partenkirchen run in Germany.

Tragedy Stricken Resort Aims for Complete Safety

HARBOR SPRINGS — A drive urging ski resort operators to adopt a foolproof safety device on chair lifts is being made by Norman "Nub" Sarns, operator of tragedy-stricken Nub's Nob resort.

Larry Orr, 32, of Grand Rapids was killed Sunday and three other patrons of the resort were injured when the chair lift mechanism failed while carrying skiers uphill.

★ ★ ★

Sarns today said his resort is installing a giant ratchet-type gear at the hill bottom of the lift mechanism. It will be engaged at all times, Sarns said, so the chairs can go only in one direction. If all power on the lift should fail, the gear would hold the chairs in position, said Sarns.

"We'll have the safest chair lift in the country," he claimed. "I have alerted other ski areas and none of us realized the consequences if the (chair lift's) final drive (mechanism) goes out.

At present, we have two braking systems ahead of the final drive and one after it. We will now have three braking systems not connected with the drive."

★ ★ ★

Sarns said he expects similar ratchet safety devices to be installed at resorts with chair lifts similar to those at Nub's Nob.

Refuses Extradition of Young Detroiter

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson has refused a request by Gov. Ernest F. Hollings of South Carolina for the extradition of John Wesley Stevens, 22, of Detroit.

Stevens escaped from prison in Union County, South Carolina, last July after he had served five years of a 25-year term for conviction of assault with intent to ravish. He was apprehended in Michigan last September.

* * *

Swainson said a hearing disclosed that Stevens, 16 at the time, had attempted to b r e a k up a friendship between his cousin and the cousin's girl friend.

* * *

A scuffle between the girl and Stevens ensued, the governor said, and she brought the charge. The girl later married the cousin and left the state.

Report That Son of City Pioneers Appointed Envoy

A son of one of Pontiac's pioneer families, Robert McClintock of the State Department policy planning council, is reported to have been chosen U. S. ambassador to Argentina.

* * *

His mother, Mrs. Christine Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chamberlain met her husband in Pontiac and moved to California after her wedding. The couple raised their family there, where Robert was born some 50 years ago.

However, Robert and his wife and two sons have been frequent visitors of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Farmer, of 2072 Garland Ave., the City of Sylvan Lake.

* * *

Before assuming his new duties, McClintock served as U. S. ambassador to Beirut, Lebanon, and was former ambassador to Cambodia. He served in the diplomatic service in various areas for many years according to his aunt, Mrs. Farmer.

* * *

At one time, Mrs. Farmer explained, the McClintock family owned a great portion of downtown Pontiac including the property of the old court house site, and that the family was one of the first pioneer groups to help establish Pontiac.

DOUBLE HEADER—A black bass found his eyes bigger than his stomach when he tried to gulp another fish. Mrs. Robert A. Watson of Palestine, Tex., was casting near Huntsville, Tex., when she saw the fish at the end of the pier. Thinking them to be on a stringer, she searched for it. There was no stringer. So, with her rod, she managed to wrap some line around the two fish and land them. The larger fish weighed 2¾ pounds, the smaller one 1¾ pounds.

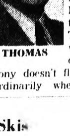

Rumors Fly When He Doesn't

Nobody Gives Tony the Air

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

H O L L Y W O O D—As far as Tony Curtis is concerned, the Wright brothers could have skipped the whole thing.

* * *

THOMAS

Curtis recently returned from locations of "Taras Bulba" in Salta, Argentina. He came back the hard way, via train to Buenos Aires, boat to New York, train to Hollywood. Travel time: two weeks vs. one day by air.

Tony doesn't fly.

Ordinarily when a person doesn't fly, nobody makes much of it. But Curtis is probably the most famous nonflyer in the world, the reason being that he is married to a flying type, a beauteous chick named Janet Leigh.

* * *

"Janet flies, I don't it's as simple as that," says Tony. "Except that it isn't that simple. Whenever we go on a trip separately — whoosh! The rumors start. We had a fight. We separated. We're getting a divorce.

* * *

"Janet usually arrives before I do because she flies. So maybe it's New York and she wants to see some shows, so she calls up a friend of mine to take her out. Whoosh! The tongues start wagging.

1ST 10 YEARS EASIEST

"As a matter of record, we are better off than we have ever been. I don't mean we don't have our differences; we do. But we've been married 10 years now, and as far as I can see, the first 10 years are the easiest."

* * *

Though the rumors fly, when he doesn't, Tony has no intention of giving up his groundling ways.

* * *

"I don't intend to get more than 60 feet off the ground at any time," he remarked. "I guess you might call it a phobia, a fear of crashing. I'll tell you when it started.

* * *

"It was during those early days at Universal, when I made all those personal appearance tours. They'd have me visiting 20 cities in 20 days, flying in any kind of plane in any kind of weather. I figure I used up all my luck in those days."

'Hot Plate Started Fatal Hotel Blaze'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A hot plate has been tentatively blamed for a hotel fire that claimed one life and injured 16 others, one critically.

* * *

Police Lt. George Kelley said the fire Wednesday at the downtown Hale Hotel apparently began from an electric hot plate used as a heater by 73-year-old George Gibson.

* * *

Gibson, a retired longshoreman, narrowly escaped death in his fourth-floor room. Harold J. Lennon, 57, a former furniture store credit manager, was killed.

* * *

Firemen rescued nearly 50 trapped and screaming persons from the upper floors of the hotel, which housed mostly pensioners, some severely disabled. Damage was estimated at $30,000.

Released From Hospital

Reveals Talent on Water Skis

Jackie Skims Over Waves

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)— Jacqueline Kennedy, who likes golf and horseback riding, is pretty good on the water skis, too.

She showed ability Wednesday during a five-minute ride over gentle Atlantic Ocean swells while President Kennedy, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and high ranking defense officials watched from the presidential yacht Honey Fitz.

* * *

Shortly after the yacht left the dock at Lake Worth and pulled into deep water, Mrs. Kennedy started water skiing behind a speedy, black speedboat. At one point she maneuvered perfectly on one ski.

After her performance she climbed into the speedboat and was brought back to the yacht.

JACKET FOR PROTECTION

She had started the trip in pink slacks and a white sweater but quickly changed to a blue and white print bathing suit and a long-sleeved, black rubber jacket used by skin divers for protection. She wore no bathing cap.

The weather was clear and warm as the yacht spent part of the one hour and 55 minutes cruising in the ocean and the rest in the inland waterway.

* * *

The President, wearing sunglasses, a red sweater and slacks, relaxed on the afterdeck with his guests.

Saud Due to Leave Hospital in Boston

BOSTON (AP)—King Saud of Saudi Arabia was to be discharged today from Peter Bent Hospital after three operations during a six-week hospitalization.

* * *

King Saud, 59, underwent surgery on both eyes to correct cataracts and was operated on for an abdominal condition.

* * *

He will take up residence in a Boston hotel while his son, Prince Mashur Bin Saud, 8, undergoes corrective surgery on his left hand in Children's Hospital Medical Center. The boy has been without normal use of his left hand since birth.

December Cold Shared by Both Pontiac, Florida

Pontiac and many parts of Florida shared a common problem in December—cold weather.

On all but five days last month temperatures dropped below the 32-degree freezing mark in downtown Pontiac.

The month started out innocently enough with temperatures climbing above 40 degrees on each of the first six days of December.

The month's high reading of 57 degrees was recorded in that period, on Dec. 4, in Pontiac.

* * *

But winter's cold chill set in gradually and the red mercury column edged steadily downward as Christmas shoppers lined downtown streets here.

* * *

On Dec. 29, the temperature plummeted to the month's low of two below zero in Pontiac. On the same day it was colder in Southeast Florida than in some parts of Canada.

AAA BUSY

The Automobile Club of Michigan reported it was from 45 minutes to two hours behind on service calls in the Pontiac area on the morning of Dec. 29 because of the number of motorists with stalled cars.

Snow came down mostly in flurries throughout the month, but the constant chill kept most of it on the ground.

There were 14 times when snow fell on Pontiac during December's 31 days. There were six days of rain, and six days of sunny or mostly sunny weather and five days when it was cloudy or partly cloudy.

* * *

The average high temperature for the month was 32.7 degrees and the average low reading was 21.6.

Part of SE ¼ beg. at pt. dist. S. 0° 34' 20" W. 323 ft. and N. 89° 55' W. 233 ft. from E. ¼ cor., th. N. 89° 55' W. 1219 ft., th. S. 0° 34' 20" W. 300 ft., th. S. 89° 55' E. 1219 ft., th. N. 0° 34' 20" E. 300 ft. to beg. (8.40 acres).

All parcels of land located in Section 5, Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

Please take notice that the Township Board of the Township of Bloomfield has tentatively declared its intention to make the following described improvements:

Construction of sanitary sewer and appurtenances, as follows: Beginning at the terminus Manhole of the Evergreen Interceptor System near the intersection of Franklin and Square Lake Roads; thence westerly, with 15-inch sewer, in Square Lake Road 290 feet; thence northerly along the East line of the Standard Oil Company property 180 feet; thence northwesterly 470 feet along the northeasterly line of the Standard Oil Company property to the East line of the Radio Station property; thence northerly 270 feet along said East line; thence, beginning with 12-inch sewer and continuing northerly along East property line of the Radio Station 810 feet; thence northwesterly 1,180 feet across Miracle Mile property to an existing Collection Manhole behind the Miracle Mile Stores; thence continuing northwesterly 870 feet with an 8-inch sewer in the Miracle Mile property to the South property line of the Drive-In Theatre, said 8-inch sewer to terminate near the existing Lead from the Drive-In Theatre, Section 5, Bloomfield Township.

and has tentatively designated the special assessment district against which the cost of said improvements is to be assessed as consisting of all the parcels of land set forth above.

Plans and estimates have been prepared and are on file with the Township Clerk for public examination.

Take further notice that the Township Board will meet on January 18, 1962, at 8:30 o'clock p.m., at the Bloomfield Township Hall, 4200 Telegraph Road, in the Township of Bloomfield for the purpose of hearing any objections to the petition, to the improvements and to the special assessment district therefor.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK OUR friends, neighbors and relatives for their acts of kindness and sympathy with floral offerings and money during the bereavement of our beloved husband and father Carl Lebo. A special thanks to Rev. Ritchie, the Jitney Drivers at G.M. Truck & Coach, and the employes at National Twist Drill Co. Signed Yvonne Lebo and daughter and family of Carl Lebo.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LESLIE Winegar, who passed away Jan. 4, 1958.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well;
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.
—Sadly missed by his wife Lina, children and grandchildren.
