House Floor Test Ground for Tax Plan

Romney, GOP Aides Agree Point Reached for Action on Reform

From Our News Wires

LANSING — The 10-man Legislative Leadership Committee and Gov. George Romney settled today on the House of Representatives as the initial battleground for testing the modified fiscal reform program.

House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, said he would go to the House GOP Caucus Monday night and ask for support to move the governor's bills from the taxation committee to the floor for debate.

He predicted the request would be supported.

"There still are some amendments to be written, but it's the feeling of some House Republicans that we've reached the point where the program should be sent to the floor," he said.

"However, we will abide by the caucus decision."

EASIER MOVE

Proposed by Green in a meeting of Romney and the 10-member GOP Leadership Committee, the decision apparently was based on the theory that the program could be moved more easily in the House than in the Senate at this time.

"I think we will have enough votes in the caucus to bring the package out in its present form," Green said.

But minority leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, told newsmen he didn't expect the tax reform package, as it now stands, could get many Democratic votes on the floor.

'CAN GET TOGETHER'

The Democratic leader said, however, that he believes House Democrats and Republicans can get together on tax reform eventually.

Green said he would stand behind the income tax-centered program worked out by five leaders from each chamber in meetings the last week with the governor.

But he warned rank-and-file Republican representatives may demand still further changes in the program.

★ ★ ★

One very touchy area, Green said, remains Romney's proposal to exempt groceries from the 4 per cent sales tax.

NO CHANGES

"It's sticky. If we may get more votes for the program one way than another — well, there won't be any major changes, but it could come down with or without the sales tax exemption," Green said.

Sen. Stanley Thayer, R-Ann Arbor, the Senate Republican caucus chairman, said Green "can guarantee passage a little better than I could because of the appropriations committee."

If the fiscal reform program is moved to the House floor, Romney's next worry will be enlisting Democratic support believed needed to pass the bills.

U.S. to Slash Europe Force

IT'S THE GREATEST — Behind this handshake is the biggest donation any employe group has given the Pontiac Area United Fund. Buel E. Starr (left), Pontiac Motor Division works manager, today reported to Earl A. Maxwell, campaign industrial chairman, that Pontiac plant employes have pledged $220,437, well over their quota, for the drive. The gift shatters all previous United Fund donation records.

Donates $220,437 to UF

Pontiac Plant Staff Top Giver

Pontiac Area United Fund campaign today rocketed toward its 1963 goal with the biggest gift received in the drive's 15-year history, $220,437 from Pontiac Motor Division employes.

The record-tumbling gift was announced by Earl A. Maxwell, campaign industrial chairman, who said it will also be the largest single contribution to this year's drive.

Maxwell said Pontiac hourly and salaried workers even went $50,000 above the quota they had been asked to meet for their share of the 1963 goal of $776,000.

Buel E. Starr, Pontiac works manager, who headed the plant solicitation, reports that 90 per cent of Pontiac employes have pledged donations.

The news brought a glow of pride to E. M. Estes, general chairman of the campaign. He is also a General Motors vice president and manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

★ ★ ★

"This is a real shot in the arm," Estes said. "But all of us know from experience that the second half of a fund drive is always the hardest."

TWO-THIRDS OF WAY

Tabulation of the Pontiac employe donation brings current campaign collections to $547,108, Estes said, better than two-thirds of the way to the official goal.

The Pontiac donation is in addition to a previous $145,000 given by General Motors as a corporate gift on behalf of its three local plants.

Total industrial plant and employe gifts so far contributed to United Fund amount to $368,674, or 70 per cent of the division's goal completed.

The commercial division reports it has collected $145,749, or 71 per cent of quota, to date.

Fire Rages Out of Control in Arkansas Forest Land

MENA, Ark. (AP)—A forest fire whipped by 30 mile an hour wind raced over 9,000 acres of the vast Ouachita National Forest in West Arkansas today.

The National Forest Service said the fire was out of control and there were no immediate prospects of bringing it under control.

More than 1,000 men were called into the battle against the raging flames.

Ft. Chaffee, an Army post 50 miles north of the fire area, sent 120 soldiers to help 500 National Forest Service personnel and more than 200 volunteers. Then Chaffee prepared to send 214 more men, plus plows, tank trucks and ambulances.

No injuries or damage to private property were recorded by the forest service. The fire was between Mena and Fort Smith in a very lightly populated area.

Fire plows protected the few scattered houses in the area by digging fire lines around them.

STILL SPREADING

The area burned amounted to about 12 square miles, and the fire was still spreading.

It was the worst forest fire Arkansas has had since the fall drought made forests tinder dry. Hunting has been stopped, and Gov. Orval E. Faubus asked Arkansas to stop outdoor burning.

Two B26 bombers geared for forest fire fighting dropped 12,000 gallons of ammonium phosphate, a forest fire retardent, on the flames last night and returned to action today.

1,463 State Road Toll

EAST LANSING (AP) — Traffic accidents have killed 1,463 persons in Michigan so far this year, provisional figures compiled by state police showed today. The toll at this date last year was 1,336.

Bit More Rain, Mild Weather Predicted in Area

Cloudy and mild with a little rain is the forecast for the Pontiac area tonight.

Tomorrow will be mostly cloudy with temperatures turning a little colder and showers ending in the afternoon. Temperatures will drop to 45 tonight and climb to near 55 tomorrow.

A light sprinkling of rain falling in downtown Pontiac during the night and early morning measured less than .03 of an inch.

Forty-six was the recording in the downtown area prior to 8 a. m. The reading was 43 at 2 p.m.

Moon Agenda Cut 4 Flights

U. S. Hopes Shortcut Will Save $50 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is taking a detour in its space route. It hopes it will be a shortcut to the moon with about $50 million less in toll charges.

It eliminated Wednesday four flights from the Apollo program—flights in which a low-powered Saturn rocket would have carried two astronauts into orbit aboard a stripped-down Apollo spacecraft.

The flights were scheduled to begin in 1965.

★ ★ ★

Skipping this step will mean a nine-month delay in the first orbital flights of Apollo astronauts. The next flights are to be the orbiting of the full three-man Apollo teams in a complete Apollo craft with a more powerful rocket system, Saturn 1B, in 1966.

TARGET DATE

A spokesman said the space agency feels that by concentrating on the stripped-down program, the United States has a better chance of putting a man on the moon by the target date of 1970.

The space agency also said the action would save some $50 million and help it stay within its stripped-down budget for this fiscal year—$5.35 billion.

The astronauts will get their training in two-man Gemini spacecraft.

★ ★ ★

The original plan was to fly two sections of the Apollo spacecraft, the command and service stations, on four earth orbital missions. These stations, with three astronauts in the command section, would have been boosted into orbit by Saturn I rockets.

At Least 5,000 in Regiment Set for Pullout

Withdrawal Involves 2 Pct. of Troops; Major Cuts Studied

From Our News Wires

PARIS — The United States plans to withdraw its first major combat unit from Europe despite German objections, sending home 5,000 and perhaps many more men, it was learned today.

The withdrawal will involve an armored cavalry regiment and will represent only about 2 per cent of the Army's over-all combat strength in Europe. But informed sources said studies are being made which could result in much larger cuts.

U. S. combat strength in Europe reached its peak of 268,000 men at the time of the Berlin crisis two years ago when 40,000 extra troops were sent to Europe. Some withdrawals have been announced since then.

The sources said 35,000 men actually have been sent home, a much higher figure than that mentioned in the announcements.

★ ★ ★

They said the studies could lead to a reduction of a further 33,000 to a figure of 200,000, but the Army may successfully resist such a major cut.

FORCED DELAY

German concern has forced a delay in the plans to pull back the armored cavalry regiment, the sources said, but the move will be made regardless.

The withdrawal in no way conflicts with recent U.S. assurances that the United States will live up to its NATO commitments, because it would leave the force promised to NATO intact.

Another U. S. troop withdrawal was announced today in South Viet Nam by Gen. Paul D. Harkins. Harkins said that at least 1,000 of 15,000 Americans in Viet Nam will be on their way home within two months.

★ ★ ★

Barry Terms JFK Program a Total Flop

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater has called President Kennedy's economic program a 1,000-day flop—and suggested that New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller join him in attacking the Democratic administration instead of other Republicans.

The Arizona senator said Rockefeller's criticism of his stands—which has been concentrated on Goldwater foreign policy views—is not doing the Republican party any good.

He told a news conference last night that Republicans should join in training their sights on Kennedy and the Democrats, not on each other.

★ ★ ★

In the speech that followed, Goldwater said Kennedy's economic leadership has Americans "bewildered, incredibly confused and badly defensive about the basic sources of this nation's historic economic strength."

City Prepares for 'Evil Spirits'

Pontiac was prepared for an invasion of little people for Halloween tonight—Indians, tramps, skeletons and lots of witches.

Emergency preparations took the form of piles of candy, and stomachache remedies for the "trick or treaters" who chomped down too many treats.

In Pontiac and Waterford Township, the children will be on the streets en masse between 6 and 7 p.m.

Residents have been asked to put their porch lights on during that hour as a welcome sign.

Children should go only to homes where porch lights are shining.

★ ★ ★

The annual Mystery Treat Contest, cosponsored by the parks and recreation department, Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce and Pontiac Board of Education, will highlight activities in the city.

SIX PARTIES

Six free parties are being cosponsored by service clubs and the recreation department in Waterford for children in grades three through six.

★ ★ ★

The parties will be from 7 to 8 p.m.

Some 100 "Mystery Treat" prizes will be awarded to children in the Pontiac School District who are home if and when their phone rings.

Contest officials will start calling elementary age youngsters at 9, junior high pupils at 10:30 and senior high pupils at 11.

★ ★ ★

Castro Claims CIA Captures

Says Agents Sent for Sabotage; May Die

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro says his government has captured several agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, including two Canadian pilots.

He said they were sent into Cuba on sabotage missions after Hurricane Flora, and indicated they may face death penalties.

Castro said several prisoners from a CIA ship called the Rex would appear on television to tell their stories. He did not identify them, say when they would appear or give details of their capture.

But he said the Rex was a 150-foot diesel craft flying the Nicaraguan flag and based in West Palm Beach, Fla.

In West Palm Beach, port manager Joel Wilcox said the Rex was tied up in the port of Palm Beach.

In his three-hour radio-television speech last night, Castro accused the CIA of "stepping up" its activities against Cuba in the wake of the devastation caused by Hurricane Flora."

★ ★ ★

Castro accused the intelligence agency of murdering workers, landing weapons and infiltrators in Cuba, hiring saboteurs and using postal packages to send dynamite and other explosives into Cuba.

KIND OF AID

"This was the kind of aid the United States sent to Cuba after the hurricane," he said. "This explains and justifies Cuba's rejections of the U.S. offer of aid."

Assistance was offered by the American Red Cross after Flora killed more than 1,000 Cubans and caused disastrous crop and property damage in Eastern Cuba.

In Washington, the CIA declined to comment on Castro's charges.

Castro said the two Canadians — identified as Ronald Patrick Lee and William David — were arrested in Havana Oct. 24.

MIAMI (UPI)—Havana radio said today the Castro regime executed three Cubans by firing squad in Camaguey last night. The radio did not say whether the men executed were part of the group of "CIA agents" Fidel Castro said Cuba captured.

Incorporation Vote Tuesday

Waterford Candidates Tell Opinions

By JOE MULLEN

Fifteen of 21 charter commission candidates in Waterford Township voiced their opinions at a public information program last night sponsored by the Waterford Citizens Action Committee for Incorporation (WCAC).

WCAC chairman Dr. John F. Nau introduced the speakers on the stage at Waterford Township High School.

Comments were limited to four minutes.

Waterford Township will vote on incorporation Tuesday.

E. Frank Richardson, an insurance agent and past president of the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce, said that incorporation of the township as a city is needed now to adequately provide for the future of the community.

John S. Coleman, teacher at Kettering High School and a township board trustee for the past six years, said he favored a broad, liberal city charter with a realistic taxation limitation.

BOARD TRUSTEE

Loren Anderson, a township board trustee for two-and-a-half years and an insurance agent, cited the township board's formal resolution endorsing incorporation and said the boundaries must be solidified or else the township will be unable to adequately plan its future.

Robert J. Cook, teacher at Dondero High School, Royal Oak, acknowledged several advantages of incorporation already cited by the WCAC. A disadvantage of township government, he pointed out, is that administrators sit on the board of trustees and thus become both judge and jury.

Walter L. Barningham, a long-time resident of Waterford Township and a practicing attorney in Pontiac, said the tremendous growth of the township has created the need for incorporation.

John E. McGrath, justice of the peace and also a practicing attorney in Waterford, said he was a candidate for the commission because he has a profound interest in the township. "My family, my business and

JFK: Rights Not Partisan

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Kennedy told a Democratic rally last night in Philadelphia—where racial tensions and the current election campaign are closely interwoven — that civil rights is not a partisan issue.

He spoke at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner in support of incumbent Mayor James H. J. Tate, who is seeking election Tuesday to a four-year term.

Kennedy, departing from his prepared text, told 11,000 persons in Convention Hall that civil rights "is not a partisan issue or a Republican or Democratic issue. It is a matter of concern to all Americans."

★ ★ ★

Referring to his administration's efforts to obtain passage of civil rights legislation, he added, "And with bipartisan support, and that means Republicans as well as Democrats, we are putting forward legislation which is strong, just, effective, and reasonable, to ensure all Americans the rights and opportunities which they deserve."

CAMPAIGN ISSUE

The civil rights problems in Philadelphia are viewed by many as the key issue in the mayoralty campaign.

★ ★ ★

The showing Tate makes on Nov. 5 will be studied for clues to the effects of the civil rights issue on Kennedy's stature.

Officer on Duty Downtown

Alert for Misconduct at Saginaw, Huron

A Pontiac policeman will be stationed at Saginaw and Huron daily to discourage disorderly persons from bothering shoppers.

Acting Police Chief William K. Hanger said beginning today at least one uniformed foot patrolman will be assigned to the intersection from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

During these same hours there will also be two uniformed foot patrol officers walking in the downtown area.

"This includes the full length of the downtown portion of Saginaw Street," said Hanger.

He said officers who are assigned to patrol cars have been instructed to pass through the downtown area as often as possible.

COMPLAINT REPEATED

"They are to be particularly alert for persons who may be guilty of disorderly conduct of any kind," Hanger said.

At the City Commission meeting Tuesday, Commissioner William H. Taylor reiterated the complaint of other commissioners that there was a lack of foot patrols downtown.

Senators Eye Summons for Bonn Beauty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators investigating the Robert G. Baker case reportedly are considering whether to try to question a West German beauty whose name has been involved in the inquiry.

The rules committee, which is looking into the business affairs of Baker, who resigned under fire as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, is said to be discussing attempting to summon Ellen Rometsch from West Germany.

Mrs. Rometsch, 27, was the wife of a German Army sergeant attached to Bonn's military mission here. Both were sent home last August after an FBI investigation into her conduct here.

Mrs. Rometsch, since separated from her husband and living in a hut on her parents' farm in Germany, has been linked to the Baker investigation by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa.

'End to Local Government Not Part of Home Rule'

Home rule counties shouldn't be allowed to take over duties normally carried out by municipal governments unless requested by a municipality, stated Wayne County Board of Supervisors spokesman John Holland yesterday.

He was explaining to the Oakland County Township Supervisors Association the type of county home rule enabling legislation being sought by the Wayne board.

He avoided discussion of taxation by saying the board's home rule committees haven't proceeded that far with proposals.

★ ★ ★

WON'T BE READY

Oakland County supervisors aren't expected to have their proposals for the legislature ready before the regular spring session.

According to Holland, the Wayne board is seeking legislation to enable Wayne County to solve its problems, but not at the exclusion of other counties.

The legislation should leave it up to individual counties to decide whether they want home rule government, and be general enough to meet their individual needs, he said.

★ ★ ★

"Obviously, the needs of less populous counties are not as extensive as those facing Wayne County," said Holland. "But many of the problems are the same to a lesser degree."

TRADITIONAL TASKS

Counties should continue to perform those tasks that are traditionally recognized by the people as belonging at that level of government, he said.

Holland described these tasks as being in the field of health and welfare, and particularly public works at the intracommunity level.

He said a study of numerous county governments shows more efficient county government could be realized by a small board of supervisors elected from districts and a single county administrator or executive, either elected or appointed, to carry out the policies of the board.

★ ★ ★

The governing body should have the administrative authority to tackle county problems without having to run to the state for permissive legislation, Holland added.

REAL INTENT

Escaping the present need of step-by-step legislation has previously been described by Oakland County supervisors as the real intent of the proposed county home rule.

Following Holland's talk, the 16 township supervisors went on record as opposed to bills that would transfer tax assessment of property from the community level of government to the state or county.

A letter expressing their opposition was directed to Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, in Lansing.

A similar stand also was taken by the legislative committee of the county board of supervisors, which described the bills as a "centralized bureaucratic" attempt to further remove government from the people.

my friends are here," he said.

Mrs. Dorothy Olson, township treasurer for over six years, said that if she is elected she will make every effort to contribute to the drafting of a model charter for the township.

Larry B. Payne, director of news and public affairs for radio station WHFI, said the threat of fragmentation, incorporation from within or annexation from outside, is a real threat.

Elmer R. Fangboner, elected township clerk last April after serving as fire chief, cited his extensive background as a public servant and said he felt his experience would be beneficial if elected.

Charles W. Sayre, on leave of absence as a teacher in Waterford to accept a Mott Foundation fellowship, said he would favor the council-manager form of city government which combines professional leadership with the democratic system.

James E. Seeterlin, township supervisor and former township clerk, said he would favor a tax limitation of 10 mills. He said he favored the elected mayor and commission form of government with elections on an at-large basis.

Mrs. Shirley Ryden, secretary receptionist at Johnson and Anderson Co., consulting engineers said she felt incorporation would not cause a tax increase unless added services were demanded.

★ ★ ★

A former Walled Lake clerk and treasurer, she said she favored a 10-mill limitation with a manager-council form of government.

INSURANCE AGENT

Donald W. Fraser, an insurance agent and resident of the township for 15 years, said he felt his activity in civic affairs and day-to-day contact with people as a salesman has offered him an insight into what people would want in a charter.

Arthur J. Salley, former president of the township Jaycees and a past officer of the state Jaycee organization, cited the need for cityhood because of the area's growth.

Dean A. Salley, immediate past president of the township Jaycees and a businessman, cited three characteristics he felt a charter commissioner required and then said he felt he had all three: a stake in the community, interest in the community and a desire to serve the community.

U.S., Russia: No Air Route

Drop Idea for Direct NY-Moscow Flight

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Russia have quietly shelved the idea of establishing a direct New York-Moscow air service.

Officials declined to say why, but there were hints that neither side was too enthusiastic about it now at the end of the summer tourist season.

The two countries were on the threshold of an agreement on the air route in 1961 when the Soviets built the wall in Berlin, suddenly freezing the international climate.

LAST SUMMER

The issue was revived last summer when, in the wake of the limited nuclear test-ban pact, the administration listed it among the bilateral problems the two countries should seek to solve.

It was proposed that Pan American World Airways and Russia's Aeroflot should have one flight a week.

The decision to shelve the idea caused some surprise, as the air route was one of the promising U.S.-Soviet issues.

Negotiations on the opening of consulates in Chicago and Leningrad and the signing of a consular convention are continuing and progress is satisfactory but slow, informants said.

★ ★ ★

The United States and the Soviet Union have had no consulates outside their embassies in the two capitals since 1948, the year of the Berlin blockade.

Barbers Give Trimming to Pocketbooks Too

CHICAGO (AP)—It's going to cost more to get clipped in Chicago.

The Master Barbers Association announced Wednesday that its members voted to raise the weekday prices of a haircut from $2.00 to $2.25. The Saturday price also was raised 25 cents, to $2.50.

Liquid nitrogen will chill a piece of metal quickly to minus 30 degrees F.

Band to Play in Waterford

The Waterford Civic Band will hold its first concert of the season tomorrow from 7 to 7:30 p.m. at The Mall.

Directed by Earl Somerville, the 30-piece band will play selections ranging from marches to popular tunes. There is no admission charge.

The band, comprised of area adult musicians, is sponsored by the Waterford Township Recreation Department.

All Pontiac Applauds Redevelopment Plan

The announcement of plans for the rebirth of downtown Pontiac is enthusiastically hailed by business interests and citizens alike.

Under a concept sponsored by the Downtown Pontiac Business Association, an electrifying transformation of the area within the proposed "interior circulator" is envisioned. The circulator, "a loop within the perimeter loop" is a one-way thoroughfare that extends Lafayette east to Perry, runs south on Perry to Pike and extends Wayne south to Pike.

Active development of the area will be prosecuted by two experienced developers. An overall blueprint, earlier developed by a firm of planning consultants, calls for the creation of a mercantile mall on Saginaw between Huron and Oakland, to be eventually extended to Pike.

★ ★ ★

The PRESS warmly congratulates the group of civic leaders and municipal officials who have so effectively directed the urban renewal and redevelopment plans from their inception to the fruition now taking shape.

Tom Connally

The death of TOM CONNALLY at 86 ends a life from which brilliance and color shone out like twin lodestars.

CONNALLY

For 36 years the statesman served his native state of Texas on Capitol Hill, 24 of which as a senator. He retired in 1953.

Distinguished by his rolling, stump-style oratory and symbolic appearance and dress, he was known to colleagues as a "Senator's Senator."

As chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, the Senator following World War II had a leading part in guiding difficult legislation into enactment that served to redress the balance on the side of freedom.

Mr. Connally played an important role in the creation of the United Nations, recognizing it as an organization that would contribute much to the cause of world peace, for which he strove so diligently.

★ ★ ★

Sound Views Aired on Negroes' Status

The PRESS heartily applauds the temperate and realistic tone of the address delivered by JOHN F. PERDUE, principal of Bagley School, before the Pontiac Choir Union.

Keynoting it was the proposition that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.

Urging members of the Negro race to meet the challenge of the times, the educator pointed out that the National Urban League "has more job openings than qualified Negroes can fill."

Furthermore, he said, only four of the 208 students from Negro colleges who took the U. S. State Department's foreign service entrance examination in the past four years made passing grades.

In another example, the speaker showed that when a major auto firm recently gave clerk-typist tests to 50 Negro girls, all failed.

He also called for parents and Negro youth to consider seriously the conduct of young persons, saying that their behavior in some cities is creating "a bad image of the Negro."

The schoolman concluded on the reassuring note that Negro youth should take heart and not feel discouraged today, for the opportunities are many for the trained individual.

★ ★ ★

Mr. PERDUE'S incisive philosophy comes at a time when the racial issue is pervaded by too much demagoguery, self-interest and bigotry.

Southern Dems, Time Fight Bill

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy has won the first big round in his attempt to get a civil rights bill through Congress this year. But he may be on the ropes, with no bill passed, before the year ends.

There have been four main steps in this struggle so far, with two more still to come.

MARLOW

1. There was no indication until June 19 that Kennedy intended to ask Congress for a strong, new civil rights law this year. Then in the spring Negro demonstrations, with accompanying violence, built up tensions.

★ ★ ★

On June 19 he presented Congress with a fairly strong program. There was instant opposition from Southern Democrats. Republicans, or some of them, in House and Senate were rather reserved.

LIBERALS DOMINATE

The bill, as a necessary preliminary before it could get to the full House for a vote, went to the House Judiciary Committee. On this committee, headed by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., liberals of both parties dominate.

2. Under the urging of civil rights advocates they decided the Kennedy bill wasn't strong enough. So they scrapped Kennedy's proposal, although retaining some of it, and put together a much stronger one of their own.

Instantly Kennedy was afraid this strong bill was too strong to pass in this overwhelmingly conservative Congress which, although run by huge Democratic majorities, has been less than ecstatic about a civil rights bill at all.

3. He began calling White House conferences of Democratic and Republican leaders to ask them to use their weight to tone down the committee bill. He finally got his way.

4. So Tuesday the House Judiciary Committee voted to scrap the strong bill its members had wanted — instead of Kennedy's original bill—and approved the one manufactured by the administration and the Republicans.

★ ★ ★

At this point time begins to play its vital, perhaps fatal, part in the two big remaining steps.

5. It is now Oct. 31, it will take the Judiciary Committee 10 days or so to draft a report on the bill. Then this goes to the Rules Committee where it may be held up for a week or more before getting to the House for a vote.

APPROVAL CERTAIN

That will mean past mid-November. Allowing for other delays, and the Thanksgiving holiday, it may be Dec. 1 before the Senate will or can start to act even though the House approves before then. House approval seems certain.

But, in order to try to kill the bill altogether, Senate Democrats from the South will filibuster. A filibuster can take weeks. Then the Christmas holidays intrude.

So it will be no surprise if a civil rights bill doesn't pass this year. Maybe it will in 1964.

David Lawrence Asks:

Are New 'Rights' Developing?

WASHINGTON — Are there some "rights" in the making — such as the "right to insult" publicly someone with whom you disagree? Is there a "right" to impeach the integrity of a public official? Is there a "right" to damage private property — all this in the name of "peaceful picketing?"

LAWRENCE

Leaflets and placards were tossed at Earl Warren, chief justice of the United States, Tuesday night as he, with his wife and daughter, left a building in New York City after attending a dinner in his honor.

A cordon of police prevented the picketers from touching the Warrens, but the placards and shouts urged, "Impeach Earl Warren!" Epithets were heard which were hardly respectful.

Theoretically, it is "free speech" to disagree with the opinions or acts of any public official, but is it the right of any group to confront a judge in a public place and fling at him an accusation of malfeasance, such as is implied by the word "impeachment?"

Has picketing no limit nowadays? Groups of citizens — who are not employes — often assemble around a place of business and urge prospective customers of such a business not to buy in a store which allegedly is "unfair" in its relations with labor unions.

Sometimes the store is merely part of a chain, and is itself not involved in the controversy that produced the picketing.

NOT DEFINED

The courts have never defined too clearly in boycott cases just where "free speech" ends and what amounts to confiscation of private property begins.

Certainly, if anybody started a campaign by letter against any business and told people not to buy its products, this would constitute a definite injury to such a business.

It has been recognized that employes may picket their employer, but do persons who are not employed by that business have the legal right to engage in a concerted campaign to damage a private property?

These are questions that have not been fully considered in the many picketing cases which have come before the courts. The tendency of the decisions has been to uphold picketing as a constitutional right so long as no violence is used.

FREE SPEECH?

But would "peaceful pickets" be able to plead "free speech" in a suit for damages brought by a public official who had been accused of dishonesty?

Would a businessman have the right to collect damages from those who attack the integrity of his business operations? If places of business are recognized as serving the public, can customers be alienated and purchases discouraged without compensation to the injured business?

The "right of petition" is specifically granted in the Constitution. There is no barrier against the calling of meetings in any community to denounce or to applaud public policies.

Citizens have a right to petition their representatives in the legislative bodies of government or their chosen executives for the purpose of securing modifications or continuance of existing policies or to propose new policies.

Bob Considine Says:

Russian Letters Prove Radio Liberty Is Heard

NEW YORK — There must be many times when the former Soviet citizens who broadcast for Radio Liberty, the privately endowed free world network aimed at the heart of the U. S. S. R. 24 hours a day, must wonder if anybody in the intended audience is listening OR cares any longer.

CONSIDINE

Former Asst. Secretary of State Howland H. Sargeant, president of Radio Liberty, estimates that the Soviets are spending $1 million a year jamming his and other Iron Curtain-leaping broadcasts.

That being the case, it follows that any open show of listening to such programs, especially those of Radio Liberty which specialize in the 17 tongues of mother Russia, could be dangerous.

Yet, incredibly, many Radio Liberty programs are getting through. The proof rests on such evidence as the known existence of 200 Soviet jamming stations, occasional blasts by Pravda, Izvestia and Radio Moscow and — most dramatically—a steady trickle of letters.

"You genuine Russian patriots!" wrote a Muscovite.

"You honest and incorruptible citizens of our Homeland! It is a joy to know that in the world there are still forces of good that are not taken in by the singing of the false Communist siren."

★ ★ ★

A Leningrad teen-ager was bold enough to write, "In the name of my friends I write you as though you were one of us, someone with whom one could talk about anything one might wish, feeling free to think in my own way, in contrast with the Directive on the Education of the Young in the Spirit of Communist Internationalism."

SOME KNOCKS

Now and then, there's a knock.

"On the whole, you talk a lot of nonsense, and therefore your broadcasts are about as much use as a wolf's howling to the moon," a lady stoutly wrote in.

A man challenged, "I, for example, have a radio-phonograph set, a tape recorder, a television set and good furniture. I am quite well dressed and I am not alone in this. And every day, life is getting better. There are no longer any taxes on our wages or on the TV set. So what else is needed?"

★ ★ ★

But a deflating one-two punch like that is forgotten when, a strained two or three days later, there comes a letter like this:

"I am convinced that there is no truth in the Soviet Union and never will be. I shall never believe the fairy tale about communism. I want to live like a human being and not like a beast."

In Washington:

GOP Out to Win Largest States

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Nine months before the Republican national convention opens in San Francisco, the battle of the presidential candidates is on to capture the 13 largest states.

EDSON

Taken together, these states have 662 of the 1,308 convention votes—seven more than the 655 needed to win the nomination.

Five of the favorite son candidates who are expected to have support from their delegations, on the first ballot at least, come from these big states.

They are Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania (64 convention votes), Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio (58), Gov. George Romney of Michigan (48), Sen. Clifford Case of New Jersey (40), and Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin (30).

When these states start to switch, that's the time to watch which way the bandwagon will go.

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York (92 votes) has the advantage in his own state.

No organization for Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona has yet been announced for the most populous state. But Elmer Well of Buffalo, a former Erie county attorney, recently put out a statement that he would head a Goldwater movement in western New York, which has been considered not too friendly to Rockefeller.

★ ★ ★

California (86 votes) presents a special problem. It has the last primary, June 2, just three weeks before the convention opens in San Francisco. And in the convention, California is the first big state to vote.

Republican efforts to present either Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel or Rep. Glenard P. Lipscomb as California favorite son candidates now seem to have been abandoned.

Both Rockefeller and Goldwater are campaigning extensively in California, though neither seems to want a knock-down drag-out fight there because of the expense.

Goldwater seems to have stolen a march in the state by naming former Sen. William F. Knowland as chairman of his advisory committee of 70 or 80 local California leaders.

★ ★ ★

Pennsylvania will be for Scranton as long as he wants to hold. He has said he would accept a genuine draft, though he does not want to be considered an active candidate.

If by any chance Rockefeller should lose out in key primary states like New Hampshire, West Virginia, Wisconsin or Oregon — or if he should withdraw for any reason, which isn't expected — much of his support might go to Scranton.

Goldwater's organizing efforts in Pennsylvania have so far been limited, and his Hershey, Pa., speech fell flat.

Illinois and Ohio (58 votes each) present contrasting situations. Illinois has no favorite son as yet, and the fact that Rockefeller is his only opposition helps Goldwater in that state.

★ ★ ★

Charles H. Percy, campaigning for the GOP gubernatorial nomination in Illinois, has been expected to support Rockefeller, but he is now reported ready to shift.

Little Rockefeller support has been reported in Ohio, but the Buckeye state is leery of Goldwater because of his support for right to work laws. Republican espousal of that cause resulted in defeat of the whole GOP ticket in 1958.

Romney still insists he is not a candidate. That will be decided when Michigan convention delegates meet in caucus to select the man they will back.

One curious situation developing in Michigan is that former GOP National Committee Chairman Arthur Summerfield may attempt a political comeback as a Goldwater supporter. Romney and Summerfield are not the closest of political pals.

Texas (56 votes), Florida (34), Indiana (32) and Virginia (30) are now considered Goldwater country. New Jersey (40), Massachusetts (34) and other smaller eastern states have leaned to Rockefeller, but might be shifting.

Wisconsin (30) expects agreement from both Rockefeller and Goldwater not to go into the state, to give Rep. John Byrnes a good run as favorite son.

Voice of the People:

'Should Write More Often About Crime in U.S.'

The editorial "Why Isn't U.S. Progressing in Its Fight Against Crime?" prompts this comment: I suggest The Press expand the theme by dwelling on the subject from time to time so that the message will impinge itself on the consciousness of The Press' many readers.

The voices of authority have been drowned out by the voices of inexpediency whereas those same voices claim expedience.

What has happened to the teacher who ruled his class with an iron hand and punished the recalcitrant with a ruler or pointer? What has happened to the parent who took a razorstrap or a belt and the wrongdoer to the woodshed? What has happened to the proud government that stepped in with all of its power to insist upon redress of wrongs committed by another on one of its nationals?

The application of such fundamentals make us strong and proud and the lack of that application has weakened us.

My compliments on a timely editorial.

Continue Debate on Waterford Cityhood

Many of the unsigned letters in the VOP column opposing Waterford incorporation, fall into one of two categories. They come from persons lacking information or are from someone attempting to confuse the voters.

Where have these people been when public meetings were held to inform them on this issue? Could it be that it serves their purpose better to ask the question, and not seek an answer?

I choose to stand with those proven leaders who have given many hours to study this issue and who recommend a "yes" vote on incorporation.

Drayton Plains — Donald W. Fraser

In a fancy brochure the incorporation committee states that incorporation as a city would make financing easier and possibly cheaper for water and sewer systems for Waterford.

★ ★ ★

In none of the meetings I have attended, nor in any printed literature have I heard the incorporation committee mention the Oakland County DPW. This unit of our county government was specifically set up for this purpose. With the approval of the township board as well as the board of supervisors, these services could be had by Waterford. Using this facility no new department or department heads would be needed. In all probability these bonds could be sold as cheap or cheaper than as a city.

Why haven't we heard this side from the incorporation committee?

All voters, let's vote "no."

Alarmed

Waterford Township board members were elected to carry out the will of the people. Therefore, the board does not have the moral right to tell the people how they should vote. Individual members may express their individual beliefs outside the board meeting, but let the people decide on whether or not to incorporate without pressure from the board.

Waterford Twp. Voter

Just a word of special commendation for Bruno Kearns' column about Milt Plum. Bruno expressed the silent thought of many Lions fans and, more importantly, cast some light on the nature of self-confidence and the need for faith.

Coyote Keeps Spreading Out

Animal's Song Heard From N. Y. to Alaska

WASHINGTON — The coyote wages its battle for survival without any help—and comes out easily ahead.

The evening song of the western coyote is heard now from the outskirts of New York City to Miami and from Alaska to the wilds of Costa Rica, the National Geographic Society says.

An old-timer of the prairie described the coyote's solo as a "prolonged wail which the animal lets out and then runs after and bites into small pieces."

* * *

Recently, on a Seattle course, golfers were startled when a coyote bounded onto the sixth green and made off with a brand-new ball.

UNPOPULAR ANIMAL

No one welcomes the coyote, except perhaps the people in an area where it has been hunted to extinction.

Rocky Mountain cattlemen, suddenly aware of ecology, contend that the lawful, purposeful war against predators such as the coyote has turned their ranches into Gardens of Eden for gophers.

The Interior Department has asked an Advisory Board on Wildlife Management to look into the situation. From 1916 through 1962, more than 2.95 million coyotes were slain in the government's predator control program.

* * *

To growers of sheep and poultry, the coyote is Public Enemy No. 1. No other animal has been hunted more relentlessly with gun, poison, trap, and hounds.

Doubtless, if the species were less intelligent, omnivorous, adaptable, and prolific, it could not have spread out from its native West to places as alien as Westchester County.

Today, a few surviving coyotes probably would be loved and vastly admired in the protection of a national preserve.

HEADS RED CROSS—Gen. James F. Collins, commander of U.S. Army forces in the Pacific, will succeed Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther as president of the American Red Cross March 1. The latter retires at 65 after seven years as president; Gen. Collins will step down from his Army post to assume the new duties.

Trucker's Pay Attracts Men From All Over

CHICAGO (UPI)—He who drives a truck rides on the wheels of fortune. He may bring home $15,000 a year.

★ ★ ★

And so do the truck driver's assocites, without whom he'd never get on the road, according to a report by the American Trucking Association, Inc.

The field of trucking absorbs the services of teachers, clerks, engineers, accountants, skilled workers, doctors, lawyers, merchants, firemen and insurance specialists.

Paul E. Moler, personal director of Consolidated Freightways, Inc., said: "We can use people from every field."

Astronauts, Indian chiefs and politicians. And union bosses.

RANKS SECOND

The industry isn't so brash as to claim a larger number of employes than the government, but vows it ranks second. And the industry says a public servant rarely makes a trucking salary.

The association is intent on exploding the theory that trucking is made up of a bunch of hulking tough guys who habitate roadside eating spots.

When it comes to income, many of the long-haul drivers took home more than $15,000 last year, the association claims.

As for the trucker's cultural and educational level, the industry says a driver with a college degree is no longer a rare bird. Opera lovers, stereo addicts and part-time artists are flooding the industry, the industry report said.

COUNTRY CLUBBERS

The truck driver often heads a suburban family, belongs to the country club and sends his children to college.

Truck drivers under major contracts receive a nationwide minimum of $3.03 an hour. Overtime pushes most incomes over $10,000.

Lansing Eyes Fish Sale Dip

By The Associated Press

A committee at Lansing today studied ways to rescue Michigan's fishing industry from the downslide following seven deaths attributed to botulism in smoked fish.

Meanwhile, Charlevoix's commercial fishing fleet was halting most of its operations, adding to some 20,000 worker layoffs that have resulted from a plunge in fish sales.

At Washington, the National Fisheries Institute agreed that, in the future, smoked fish from the Great Lakes will be frozen immediately after smoking and plainly marked "Perishable — Keep Frozen."

The food and drug administration announced the institute's decision. It said, however, its recommendation still stands that all smoked fish products from the Great Lakes area now on grocery shelves or in homes should be destroyed.

TO TAKE STEPS

The committee at Lansing was appointed yesterday by Gov. George Romney. Romney said its aim "will be to make sure adequate steps are being taken to protect public health and to consider immediate and long-range legislative and administrative action."

He said the committee will "make public information as specific as possible so there will be no undue damage to the industry."

"The faster we re-establish public confidence in the products, the faster these people can get back to their jobs in the industry," said Albert Applegate, an aide to Romney.

The committee included officials from state agencies, specials from state agencies, specialists from universities, spokesmen from the fishing industry and officers of the FDA. universities, spokesmen from the fishing industry and officers of the FDA.

One Charlevoix fisherman who is closing operations, John Cross, employed 18 men on two tugs. "I don't know what we'll do," he said. "We're pulling in all our nets and will stop all operations except for perch."

For New Appeals Court

Multijudge Districts Favored

News Analysis

By JIM DYGERT

The pendulum is swinging back toward multijudge districts in plans for a state court of appeals to be established under the new constitution.

A legislative interim subcommittee headed by State Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, is ready to recommend that three appellate judges be elected at large in each of three districts.

Previously considered plans were selecting one judge in each of nine smaller districts, or choosing three at large in Wayne County while electing six individually in the rest of the state.

Earlier this month, Roberts' committee approved a plan for single-judge districts — the one Roberts favors — despite previous wavering because of reports that some State Supreme Court justices preferred the multijudge district idea.

REPORT DUE

Now, according to Roberts, his committee intends to go back to the multijudge districts when it presents its report soon to the full interim committee drafting bills to implement the new constitution. The full committee is expected to concur.

More of the high court justices reportedly have indicated a preference for multijudge districts.

The new constitution does not make it clear which method was contemplated by its drafters, although it mentions organizing into three divisions.

Roberts' committee had contemplated the divisions — Wayne County, suburban and out-state — as only administrative.

IMPORTANT FACTOR

Roberts' own political plans are affected. He has indicated he will run either for Congress or the appellate court next year. The type of court districts was considered an important factor in his decision.

Roberts prefers the single-judge district. The multijudge approach means much more territory for a candidate to cover, but an advantage is that a candidate need only finish as one of the top three vote getters to win.

He would have to be highest vote getter in a single judge district.

* * *

Oakland County was once contemplated as one entire district, but was joined with Washtenaw or Shiawassee in later plans.

In the multijudge approach, the county may be in a district with Macomb County, the Thumb area, and the counties of Washtenaw, Ingham, Jackson, Monroe, Barry, Eaton, Calhoun, St. Joseph, Branch, Hillsdale and Lenawee.

Pontiac is being considered as the headquarters for the suburban district or division.

A suggestion that the state purchase the old county office building at 1 Lafayette for use by the new court has been put forth.

Briton Gains His Revenge— Runs Over Car

SWINDON, England (UPI) — Peter Gould, 20-year-old student, was fined $14 Wednesday for taking mankind's revenge against the auto.

He was, he explained, in the company of a friend who told him: "We've had enough of these cars running over men. It's about time a man ran over a car."

Within minutes, a bobby spotted a trail of footprints leading over a parked car's front bumper, across the hood and roof and down the boot.

The trail stopped at a pair of shoes encasing Gould's feet.

Bomb Kills Eight at Laos Fairground

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Eight persons were killed and more than 100 injured early today when someone threw a hand grenade into a crowd gambling at a concession in a nearby fairground.

* * *

The culprit fled but police picked up one suspect later. The explosion rocked a portion of the That Luang Fairground where annual Buddhist festivities are being held.

* * *

The dead included two policemen and an army captain, but most of the casualties were civilians. Among the seriously injured was a neutralist colonel named Khamsing Nakontap.

Death Takes Motorist

DETROIT (UPI)—Valentine Zagula, 27, of Belleville was killed yesterday in a car-train collision at a Pennsylvania Railroad crossing in nearby Huron Township.

A passenger in Zagula's car, John C. Brown, also of Belleville, was reported in fair condition at Wayne County Hospital.

LBJ Won't Be Dumped--Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today "it is inconceivable" that Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will be dumped from the 1964 Democratic ticket.

★ ★ ★

Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader, described as "unwarranted speculation" reports that he is a possible substitute for Johnson as President Kennedy's running mate in his bid for a second term.

"It is inconceivable that Vice President Johnson will not be renominated," the Minnesotan said in an interview. "He has done a fine job and I am for him."

TO LEAD FIGHT

Humphrey, who is expected to lead the fight in the Senate for Kennedy's civil rights legislation, noted that Johnson supports this measure and has worked and spoken for racial equality.

This activity has diminished Johnson's popularity in the South, where the former senator from Texas helped Kennedy win the presidency in 1960.

★ ★ ★

But Humphrey said he does not think the party would be any better off with some other vice presidential candidate.

"We won't solve our problems by temporizing with them or substituting another candidate for Johnson," he said.

TOLD CONFERENCE

Kennedy told a news conference in May, 1962, that Johnson "will be on the ticket if he chooses to run."

Johnson does choose to run.

"We were fortunate to have him before—would again," the President said. "He is invaluable."

Kennedy's associates said that the renomination of Johnson is such an accepted fact around the White House that the President hasn't even bothered to discuss it with the vice president.

Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey has spoken repeatedly of a Kennedy-Johnson ticket next year. His decision, approved by the President, to switch the customary order of things and have the vice president nominated first at the 1964 Atlantic City convention indicated that no ticket changes are in order.

SLIGHTEST CHANCE

Most politicians think that if there were the slightest chance that Kennedy preferred another running mate, he wouldn't want his own nomination to come as an anticlimax to a possible convention row over replacing Johnson.

Kennedy and Johnson will travel to Texas Nov. 22 for a first-hand look at a state which Gov. John Connally says he cannot truthfully predict will go Democratic next year.

★ ★ ★

After that tour, the Kennedy-Johnson team may have a clearer idea of the difficulties they will face in trying to corral Texas' 25 electoral votes.

LEGAL NOTICE

There will be a special meeting of the Township Board of the Charter Township of Waterford 7 p.m. Friday, November 1, 1963 at 4993 W. Huron Street, Waterford Township, Oakland County, Michigan, to discuss the mechanics of establishing the county as agent in the pending federal water system grant and for any other business that may arise at that time.

By order of the Waterford Township Board.

ELMER R. FANGBONER,
Waterford Township Clerk
October 31, 1963

Castro Asked to Free Nicaraguan 'Spy'

MANAUGA, Nicaragua (UPI) — President Rene Schick is trying to arrange the release of a Nicaraguan opposition leader seized three years ago in Communist Cuba as a "U.S. spy," it was reported today.

Since Nicaragua has no direct channel for communication with Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime, Schick has asked the Mexican government to intervene in behalf of Chester Lacayo, the imArmed Castroite militiamen seized Lacayo when a plane in which he was traveling to New York stopped off in Havana. He was convicted by a Castroite court of being an "agent of the (U.S.) State Department" and sentenced to serve 15 years in prison.

★ ★ ★

His sister-in-law, Graciela Lacayo, said she recently received a letter from him saying he is confined in the isle of Pines political prison, on crutches because of a broken kneecap that needs surgical treatment.

Refugee Rides 'Neath Trains to Enter West

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—A 59-year-old man says he rode the rods of European trains for four days to make good his escape from Communist Czechoslovakia.

Officials said Wednesday the Czech defector was found under a sleeping car by Danish railroad workers and was hospitalized for treatment of hunger and exposure. They declined to identify him.

Police said the man rode the steel supports beneath the carriages of railroad passenger cars and changed trains several times before reaching here. They said he was not aware he was in Denmark when found.

South Carolina's irrigated land area has more than tripled within the period of the last 10 years.

Grass Roots Segregation

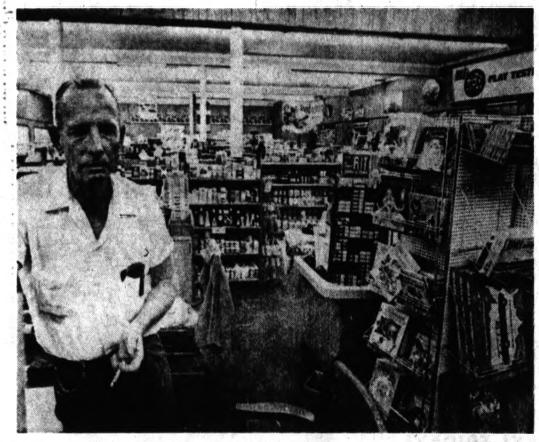
Clinton, La., Typical in Integration Resistance

BACKGROUND OF THE NEWS — AP SPECIAL REPORT



GROCER HURT—H. R. Bond, a grocer in Clinton, La., owns a grocery which has been seriously affected by Negro boycotts. Bond says 50 per cent of his customers are Negro, and most of them quit trading with him. The boycott is part of Negro attempts to end segregation in the small community. AP Photofax

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Don McKee, Associated Press staff writer, visited three small Southern towns facing civil rights drives. This is the second in a series on what he found at the grass roots level.)

By DON MCKEE

CLINTON, La. (AP) — Wide-brimmed, Western-style hat clamped tight on his head, the judge strode toward the ancient courthouse, a landmark of 1838 vintage.

★ ★ ★

Some one spoke to him, but Judge John R. Rarick retorted: "Hell, I'm worried about Negroes—I got no time to talk."

For Rarick and about one-third of Clinton's 1,600 population, there was reason to worry. Negroes, comprising the other two-thirds of the population, had gone to the streets with their grievances for the first time.

Clinton, little more than a cluster of stores around the old courthouse, is typical of the Southern grass roots. Located in a cattle farming area of south Louisiana, it is only 25 miles south of the Mississippi line.

INCONCEIVABLE

Change in racial customs is inconceivable to a large majority of the white minority which controls the economy and the government—as in other southern towns.

A militant Negro group, jolting the town awake to racial issues, raised the threat of change that would leave no small town immune.

★ ★ ★

Perplexity and resentment prevail among the white residents; Negro spokesmen vow to keep up their drive, apparently triggered by a voter purge of six years ago.

The voter rolls of East Feliciania Parish, of which Clinton is the governmental seat, were purged after Henry Earl Palmer became the parish registrar.

SINCE PURGE

At that time there were about 1,500 Negro voters among the 4,100 persons on the parish's poll list. Palmer said that since the purge, 2,600 white persons and 119 Negroes have reregistered.

"We don't discriminate," said Palmer, who operates a dairy. "I enforce the law to the letter. I don't care if a thousand register if they pass the test."

★ ★ ★

Sheriff Arch V. Doughty said that before Palmer took office unqualified Negroes were registered.

"I doubt if some of them could even read," said Doughty. "There were so many of them voting in some wards they gummed up the works. They couldn't work the voting machines."

NEGROES PROTEST

Negro spokesmen protest that discrimination keeps them off the voter list. William Brown, 19, a college student from Tucson, Ariz., and a volunteer worker for the Congress of Racial Equality, said he believed some points in the test are administered illegally to Negroes.

Brown and other CORE workers began holding mass meetings in August to push voter registration. Rarick issued a restraining order against demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

The Negro unrest spilled into the streets Oct. 12-13 when pickets walked in front of four stores. The pickets were arrested.

"Our picketing," said Brown, "is aimed at voter registration—at some communication other than the courtroom."

SPREAD OVER

But, as in similar situations, the Negro drive aimed at one issue then spread over other areas of discontent. With a high unemployment rate, Negroes want better jobs; they want biracial talks.

"The variety store has a Negro clerk," said Brown. "He serves the customer, then the white manager rings up the sale. Negroes aren't allowed to use the cash register."

★ ★ ★

A Negro boycott has hurt business at several stores.

"It's just about knocked my grocery business in the head," said H. R. Bonds Jr., angrily surveying his almost deserted supermarket. About 50 per cent of his business was Negro, he said, and 46 per cent quit trading at his store.

"I'm about ready to go out and stomp hell outta the next pickets," said Bonds. A long-barreled pistol lay on his desk.

White leaders voiced fears of violence if Negroes continue their antisegregation activities.

"I'm just afraid to think of the consequences," said a prominent businessman. "I just don't understand it—we're good to our colored people."

A merchant, I. G. McKnight, said: "At this stage, I'm not going to be surprised at what happens."

What about the outcome? What can the Negroes hope to gain?

NO CHANCE

"There's no chance of changing our customs," said McKnight.

"I don't think there'll be any outcome," said Conner Perry, an insurance agent and a candidate for Congress. "When it's all over, we'll be right where we started."

★ ★ ★

"They aren't going to change anything," said Registrar Palmer.

But Emmett Collins, Negro clerk in a drugstore and the father of the local CORE chapter leader, said most of the Negroes support the drive in Clinton.

"I don't think they'll stop," Collins said.

Giraffe Hunt Provides a Colorful Spectacle

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of the most colorful spectacles in South Africa is catching the giraffe. The giraffe is pursued on horseback and grabbed by the tail.

While one man holds on to the tail, another slips a harness on the giraffe. A mild tranquilizer is then administered and the giraffe, more sleepy than frightened, is led into a waiting van.

Average farm plowing is about six inches in depth.

Fate of Today's Woman

Dress Nice, Lose Reputation

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The fact that an attractive young German woman was forced to return home because of her suspected friendship with unidentified officials here is of little interest to me.

WEST

What I find intriguing is the matter in which the matter came to light.

According to a report I have been reading with beady little eyes, the State Department became suspicious of her conduct because she was "dressing beyond her means."

Presumably, her clothing was more expensive than the wife of a German sergeant would ordinarily be able to buy.

This strikes me as being a rather slim reed upon which to base an investigation. My own wife, for instance, has been dressing beyond her means for years. Or at least beyond my means.

But as far as I know she never caused an eyebrow lifting at the State Department.

If buying dresses that their husbands can't afford is a sign that women are less than virtuous, then there must be a terrific traffic jam along the primrose path.

What I would like to know is this: Who at the State Department has charge of noticing that women are dressing beyond their means? And how do you go about getting a job like that?

* * *

Much of the social life in Washington revolves around the embassy circuit. The dress inspector therefore must be a pretty busy fellow.

HARD WORK

Publicity that the Ellen Rometsch case has been getting, coming on top of the Christine Keeler case in London, undoubtedly will make his work a lot harder.

If I were a socialite, I would be sure I wore last year's dress the next time I attended a party on Embassy Row.

Ladies attending these functions probably will find it more difficult from now on to maintain their composure when they spot some guy giving them the once-over.

* * *

They won't know whether he's admiring her figure, or trying to appraise the cost of her own gown.

WOMEN INSPECTOR

It would well be, of course, that the State Department's dress inspector is a woman.

* * *

That would permit the inspector to feel the quality of the dry goods without risking a punch in the nose.

* * *

Or it could be that the department uses a two-man inspection team, one being a fashion expert and the other an accountant.

As for husbands, the case suggests a rule of thumb that we can follow. As long as our wives' clothing keeps us broke, we can be fairly certain they are being faithful.

$16 Million in Aid Okayed for Greece

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — The United States yesterday signed an agreement to give Greece $16 million worth of agricultural products.

The decision could help former Premier Constantine Caramanlis' party win the parliamentary elections Sunday.

Caramanlis' political opponents have claimed recently he is unable to obtain any more U.S. aid. While premier last year, he advised Greek farmers to curtail production of wheat because it might cause the United States to eliminate agricultural aid to Greece. He advised them to grow other crops.

Caramanlis resigned last summer in protest against the Greek royal visit to Britain. But his National Radical Union still controls the government.

State Okays Funds for MSU Building

LANSING (AP) — The House today approved and sent to the Senate a resolution releasing $450,000 in funds for planning of a new $10-million electric power plant at Michigan State University.

* * *

Construction of the facility is expected to begin in 1965, provided the legislature approves.

* * *

It ultimately will replace the existing power plant on the North Campus, which will be torn down, and another near the Spartan Stadium. The plant would enable MSU to generate all of its own electricity instead of purchasing some of it from public utility firms.

Hope Is Seen for the Bald

LONDON (AP) — A British specialist held out hope today for bald men who dream of winning back their hair — but warned they must hope for a long time yet.

Dr. Peter Borrie, physician to the skin department of London's St. Bartholomew's Hospital reported in the magazine Family Doctor that hair follicles have been transplanted and grown on bald patches.

But he added: "This maneuver is still only in a research stage and cannot yet be recommended as a treatment.

HULA TWIST — Both the hula hoop and the twist have slipped in popularity recently, but how many people master the art of doing both at the same time? Three-year-old Beth Frickle of Savannah, Ga., gives a convincing demonstration.

Allis-Chalmers Hikes Electric System Prices

MILWAUKEE (AP) — An increase of approximately 5 per cent in the prices of electrical systems for the metal rolling industry was announced yesterday by the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co.

A spokesman said the increase, effective immediately, covers main drives, control and associated equipment. Increased costs were blamed for the price hike.

Senate Leaders Face Slugfest Over Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic leaders, confronted by a talkfest against the $4.2-billion foreign aid bill, hoped to start voting today on some of the 40 pending amendments.

The measure authorizing economic and military aid to friendly nations for another year is $700 million more than the House approved but $300 million less than President Kennedy asked.

Opponents of the Senate bill called an early morning strategy session to determine their next moves.

* * *

At issue was whether to press early for a vote on a recommital motion to send the entire bill back to committee for rewriting, or start calling up various amendments.

VOTING TASK

Democratic whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., notified the Senate at the closing hour yesterday that he hoped to begin today the long task of voting on amendments — one by one.

Humphrey's announcement came after the leadership apparently resigned itself to a protracted seige laid by opponents who have assailed the annual aid authorization measure in some of the harshest terms heard in recent years.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., reported yesterday that all efforts by the leadership to reach an agreement on limiting debate had collapsed.

* * *

Mansfield put members on notice to stand by for votes on amendments at any time. He said that senators planning to attend the NATO Parliamentarians Conference in Paris Monday, or any other meetings abroad, had better cancel their plans.

CUT BILL

Critics seek to cut the Senate bill as much as $1.5 billion below its present level.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a leader in the fight against the measure, scheduled another in his series of speeches against the bill.

In his prepared text Morse outlined the purpose of two new amendments he is sponsoring. One would slash by 25 per cent the planned aid for 12 countries, including embattled South Viet Nam.

* * *

The other amendment would cut military aid to India and Pakistan 50 per cent, and economic assistance to these two Asian countries by 75 per cent.

Automotive Checks for Driving in Winter

Treacherous driving conditions lurk not far behind this week's dip to freezing temperatures, warns John C. Bates, general service manager for Pontiac Motor Division.

In a winter driving advisory to area motorists Bates suggests they now begin to prepare their cars and themselves for cold weather motoring.

He offered the following recommendations:

* * *

- Check tires and chains. Good tire treads are essential and reinforced tire chains when necessary.

KEEP CLASS CLEAR

- Keep all glass area clear. There is poorer visibility in winter—early dusk, slush spatter, blinding snow. Make sure heater, defrosters, and windshield washer and wiper blades are working properly.
- Antifreeze should be tested or put in before the first freeze.
- A winter tune-up will help starts and prevent stalls.

* * *

- Cold weather lowers battery power so have it tested.

CHECK BRAKES

- Brakes should be checked and adjusted before the first snow flurry.
- Fumes from a faulty muffler or exhaust pipe can be harmful in winter's windows-up weather. Have them checked for leaks.
- All lights should be in top condition.

Bates also urges all drivers check the "feel" of the road. This means adapting to driving conditions by trying steering, acceleration and brakes at low speed on a safe stretch of road, thus developing the fine touch needed in slippery going.

Are They YOURS? They LOOK Like You

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's ordeals is trying to figure what to say when someone shows you snapshots of his near and dear ones.

BOYLE

No matter how well you know a fellow or how likeable he may be, sooner or later he will put the friendship to a strain by whipping out his wallet.

"Lemme show you a recent pitcher of my ball and chain and all our little leg irons," he will say.

He thumbs through his credit cards, plucks out a color photo of his wife and kiddies, plants it in your perspiring palm and demands, "Well, what do you think of them?"

EGAD!

Well, if you told him the truth he'd break your arm, for the first two things you think are: "These couldn't be real people—they must be dressed up for Halloween," and "She looks like Lon Chaney in a fright wig, and the kids look like vultures."

★ ★ ★

Liar that you must be, you stare at the snapshot as if struck dumb with the beauty of them all, then mumble in a voice husky with emotion:

"Gee, they really make the long voyage home worthwhile, don't they?"

UHHH

A man who wants to remain reasonably honest of soul has to keep silent and make his comment by way of sounds and gestures.

He can smile, chuckle, coo, gurgle or pretend to be so affected he has to wipe away a happy tear—anything to escape telling the full truth.

It does no good, when someone produces a family snapshot, to say lamely, "I've forgotten my glasses." Your persecutor will merely reply, "Here — use mine."

Nothing is worse than that. Looking at another man's family through his own glasses is enough to stir your ulcer up—or startle you into hiccups.

MY WORD!

The safest thing is to resort to the half-truth. Simply say, "Why she reminds me of a movie star." You don't have to add what movie star she reminds you of. Maybe Lassie—or Marie Dressler playing a witches' role.

A real test of savoir faire is what to do when a man pulls out a photo of his mother-in-law. Does he love her or detest her? You're not sure.

It's wise here merely to study the photo carefully then murmur, "Nice contrast there. Did you take it at fiftieth or a hundredth of a second?"

The surest way to become a social outcast in these cases is to resort to humor. It is always out of place.

GUESS WHO!

I recall one time at a cocktail party when a strange woman had been boring me with a collection of family photos, and I had run out of ready answers.

"Bet you can't guess who this is?" she said coyly, holding up a faded snapshot.

"A refugee from the Johnstown flood?" I guessed wildly.

The lady hardly hesitated a second. She reached up and calmly and slowly poured her martini over me. The photo was one of her made in her teens.

I felt rather silly standing there in the middle of a crowded room with a wet olive squarely atop my big square head.

Orchard Lake Warned on Cityhood

AREA NEWS

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — "Township residents are the only first-class citizens left in the state."

Supervisor John C. Rehard's statement was in the form of a warning to Orchard Lake residents now considering cityhood for the village.

At a meeting on the matter earlier this week, backers of the cityhood proposition described township residents as "second-class citizens."

Rehard said yesterday the idea is "erroneous."

* * *

BOARD DETERMINES

The county allocation board determines how much millage the township will collect within the state's 15-mill limit, Rehard pointed out.

However, in a city, the responsibility of determining taxes is delegated to a commission or council, he said.

"A city commission doesn't have to consult the people so long as it stays within its charter limitations," Rehard said. "But the township must go back to the voters for any amount it wants in excess of that allocated by the county.

* * *

"The voter cuts off a chunk of his franchise when he elects someone else to do this for him," he said.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT

Another argument used by those seeking cityhood for Orchard Lake is that the township or a portion of it could hold an incorporation election and, overriding objections by even the entire population of Orchard Lake, convert the area to a city with a majority vote.

Thus, it has been said, Orchard Lake would lose its identity, its uniqueness.

Rehard objects to their "using this as a club."

"The matter (of incorporation) has never been a subject of discussion at any township board meeting," he said, "although it has been discussed on an individual basis.

"West Bloomfield probably will incorporate sometime. In 10 or 20 years it will be forced into it."

However, the supervisor noted that Waterford Township is planning an incorporation election exclusive of Lake Angelus.

An incorporated village cannot participate in such an election unless it votes beforehand to do so.

Rehard said he will remain neutral during the Orchard Lake campaign, but that there are a few points which need to be clarified.

"Who's going to do all these services that the township now performs if Orchard Lake does become a city," he asked. "For example, there's the spreading of tax rolls, tax bills, assessment and allocation.

SEPARATE ACCOUNTS

"There are also the school and county spread. If the schools have five separate bonds, you have to have five separate accounts.

"We have two expensive pieces of machinery and three people here to handle all this."

Orchard Lake's assessed valuation is about $3.5 million, approximately one-tenth of that for the township. Rehard noted that the township spends $40,000 annually for a staff to keep the records straight.

"It would cost Orchard Lake $4,000 even if it could operate as efficiently as we do," he said. "But the smaller your operation is, the more expensive it gets."

Rehard noted that there are many mandatory responsibilities which cities must meet.

"They're laboring under a delusion if they think they can choose the responsibilities they want," he warned.

Rehard said his main concern is that the committee seeking cityhood for Orchard Lake is painting a brighter picture than the facts merit.

"But if they feel the services they require and the entity they hope to maintain are worth the trouble and responsibilities, that's fine," he said.

Workers' Try Fails; Truck, Jobs Gone

WALLED LAKE — It was a frustrating situation for members of Local 100, United Independent Workers of America.

That's why they tried to stop the truck, they said.

The foundation for the irony was laid two weeks ago when the union went out on strike during contract negotiations with Plastray Division of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp.

Members were on strike for 10 days, picketing the plant at 1225 W. Maple.

Then differences were settled Friday. Monday the 80 Plastray employes — 56 of them union members — were back on their jobs with five-cent raises, although they had been seeking 10 cents.

ASSETS LIQUIDATED

Tuesday they were notified that the assets of the company had been liquidated — they had no jobs.

Only a few were at the plant yesterday afternoon when the truck from Detroit Plastic Products arrived to pick up some of the products and equipment the company had purchased.

By the time the truck was ready to pull out, several of Plastray's 52 feminine ex-employes had formed a line across the driveway.

"We just couldn't stand there and let them haul away our jobs," said one.

Walled Lake Police Chief James A. Decker was summoned. He in turn phoned Joseph Franco, the president of the local who has been in the hospital for a week.

The truck went through.

SINCE 1957

The employes had operated machines, set dies, packed and stored at the company which moved here in 1957.

The company has agreed to pay those who lost their jobs vacation pay but not severance pay, according to H. V. Mutter, general manager.

That was another problem.

"I had to work eight more hours to get my full vacation pay," one of the women moaned.

"I just had 14 hours to go," said another.

"It was 50 for me — just a full week's work," a third said.

State Offers Schools 'Too Little Money'

LANSING (UPI) — State Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett accused the legislature and governor today of "offering pennies where dollars are needed" for schools.

Bartlett used the term to describe the proposed revisions in school-related portions of Gov. George Romney's tax program, which were disclosed after Republican caucuses Tuesday.

"The revised program, as it applies to state aid to local school districts, is interesting but completely unrealistic in the face of proven needs," Bartlett said.

* * *

"It does not even begin to alleviate to any extent the pressing financial difficulties with which so many of our schools are faced."

3-YEAR PROGRAM

The revisions called for a 3-year program of increasing school aid from the present $224 to $245 per pupil.

Bartlett said the revised program called for increased aid amounting to $7 million the first year throughout the state.

* * *

He added that needs to cover transportation, special education and problems of distressed school districts alone would cost $11 million — without ever considering other expenses.

* * *

"When we consider the total additional funds needed for the 1964-65 school year, we find some $40.5 million will be required . . . (and) this amount would not provide for any improvement in our education program," Bartlett said.

Rochester Kiwanis Names New President

ROCHESTER — New president of the Rochester Kiwanis Club is Herbert Stoutenburg, 2933 Heidelberg, Avon Township.

Serving with him during the coming year will be George Goble, first vice president; Herman Klix, second vice president; Ronald Featherstone, treasurer; and Louis Watson, secretary.

RECEIVES DESIGNATION—Renna (left) and Avis Hopkins admire the traditional marker their Wixom homestead received from the Detroit Edison Co. after being designated a Centennial Farm by the Michigan Historical Commmission. The farm, 2910 Loon Lake was acquired by Chipman Hopkins, great-grandfather of the women, in 1844. The two-story section of the house was built before 1835 with hand-hewn timbers and wooden pegs. Farming operations ceased in 1960 with the death of their brother, Ora.

Players Plan 'The Gazebo'

CLARKSTON — A comedy-mystery entitled, "The Gazebo," will be staged tomorrow and Saturday at 8 p.m. at Clarkston High School by the Clarkston Village Players.

Designed as family entertainment, the play will be presented in the school's little theater.

Harry Fahrner and Laura Logan will portray the leading roles of Eliot and Nell Nash.

* * *

Plan Dinner in Oxford

OXFORD — The Senior and Junior Youth Fellowships of the Methodist Church here will sponsor a turkey dinner Wednesday from 5 to 7 p.m. in the church's education building, 21 E. Burdick.

Pontiac Press Photo

OVER THE TOP — Mrs. Keith Hallman (left) and Mrs. Richard Kroninger congratulated each other yesterday after it was announced that the Independence Township United Fund drive had surpassed its $3,600 goal by 8 per cent, totaling $3,989. Mrs. Hallman is head of the township's UF women's division. Helping the division go over the top was Mrs. Kroninger, head of the business drive. Her group collected $976, or 137 per cent of the quota.

Fine Leveled on Supervisor

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — After changing a guilty plea to one of no contest, Township Supervisor Loren Evans was fined $500 yesterday for failing to report campaign contributions of that same amount.

Appearing before Macomb County Circuit Court Judge George R. Deneweth, Evans was charged with not reporting five $100 gifts he received from officers of the Romona Land Co. in February.

A bribe charge against the supervisor was dismissed last month. Complainant in both cases was Harold Goldsmith, vice president of the land fill company.

* * *

Yesterday Deneweth ruled that Evans failed to report the contributions without an attempt to deceive and that justice would be served by a sentence requiring forfeiture of the funds not reported.

Committee Gets Equal Job Rights for Negro, White

WASHINGTON (AP)—A quiet revolution in race relations is taking place in the nation's factories and workshops, says the man who runs day-to-day operations of President Kennedy's equal employment program.

In fact, says Hobart Taylor Jr., "we're not talking about race any more. We're talking about human beings."

* * *

Taylor, 42, a Negro lawyer from Detroit, is executive vice chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity.

The committee, which has vast power to stop discrimination in a contract or program involving the federal government, has taken corrective action in about 3,000 cases out of approximately 5,000 complaints so far in its two years of existence.

"But this does not begin to touch the number of people that have been helped," Taylor said in an interview today in his office in the Labor Department.

Taylor likes to cite as an example the committee's success in persuading U.S. Steel Corp.'s Tennessee Coal and Iron Division in Birmingham, Ala., to erase racial lines in promotion and seniority.

* * *

The program caused no racial trouble, Taylor said, even though it began at a time when Negroes demonstrating on other issues were faced with police dogs on the streets of Birmingham.

MANY HELPED

While only about 15 Negroes in the Birmingham plant had lodged complaints, the action helped about 7,000 others who worked there. About 30 per cent of the plant's workers are Negroes.

Taylor, who works under Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, the chairman, and Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, vice chairman, said the committee's work helps white workers as well as Negroes.

"A lot of whites suffer too," he said, telling of a case involving the Chrysler Corp., which reviewed its entire employment picture at the suggestion of the committee and upgraded many workers of both races.

* * *

Taylor, who says he gets a free hand and full cooperation from President Kennedy on down, does not view the committee's work as part of the civil rights movement.

DEVELOP CAPABILITIES

Seeking every individual's right to develop his abilities on the job to full capacity, he said, is more philosophical and "goes right to the bottom of the American spirit."

Taylor estimates the equal employment program applies to some 22 million workers—those working for firms under federal contracts involving billions of dollars a year, and federal government employes.

* * *

Although the committee is the first such body to have enforcement powers, Taylor is proud that it never has had to cancel a federal contract to get compliance.

While most discrimination complaints come from Negroes, the committee also has dealt with complaints by Mexican-Americans in the Southwest, persons of Oriental extraction on the Pacific Coast and Jewish minorities in metropolitan areas.

3 Counts of Kidnaping Leveled at Saginaw Man

LANSING (AP) — Three separate counts of kidnaping face a Saginaw construction worker charged with the abduction and molesting of a 5-year-old girl.

Ironically, John F. Clay, 33, a Saginaw father of four young sons, today started serving concurrent five-day terms for a minor traffic violation.

JOHN F. CLAY

A citizen witness provided the first tip that led to the arrest and charging of Clay — for improper backing of a car and failure to report a property damage accident.

* * *

Police traced down the lead and investigated Clay because he fitted the description given by the kidnap victim, Michelle Moran, 5, daughter of an East Lansing school teacher.

SNATCHED AT LOT

Michelle and her brother, Frank, 8, who saw his sister snatched from a car parked at a Lansing shopping center, furnished the descriptions. The mother had left them briefly to buy Halloween candy.

Clay demanded examination yesterday when arraigned in Lansing Municipal Court. Bond was set for $20,000. Clay, saying he was broke, asked for a court-appointed attorney.

Examination was set for Nov. 6.

Michelle was found Saturday morning, abandoned in a ditch, bruised and abused, a physician reported.

* * *

Ingham County Prosecutor Leo Farhat said three kidnaping counts were listed in the charges because such offenses fit three different sections of the state statute.

FAIR TRIAL

The three counts charged Clay with secret confinement, malicious kidnaping for the purposes of secret confinement and forcibly taking away a child with intent to detain her from her mother.

"It would be improper to characterize anything he said as an admission," Farhat said. "He is entitled to a fair trial, especially after all the publicity about the case. That is why we decline to elaborate on any proofs."

The court appointed John O'Brien, an experienced, 20-year Lansing practitioner and former assistant prosecutor, to defend Clay. Farhat said he also understood Clay's family in Saginaw was talking to an attorney.

* * *

Police Chief Chuck Stragier said Michelle picked Clay out of a line-up as her abductor, clinging to her mother during the ordeal. The brother also gave tentative identification, Stragier reported.

Police and the prosecutor did not want to reveal Clay's record.

1951 SENTENCE

The State Corrections Department reported Clay was sentenced to a term of six months to 14 years in June 1951, for uttering and publishing — cashing no-account checks.

Clay was paroled in November 1952 and returned to prison in May 1953, as a parole violator. He was paroled again in December, 1954, and discharged from parole two years later.

Saginaw police said Clay had a record of 20 arrests in 16 years, mostly for intoxication and traffic violations. No sexual offenses were included.

Succeeds Korth as Secretary

Aide to Go Into Navy Hot Spot

WASHINGTON (AP)—Paul H. Nitze moves Friday out of the relative serenity of a job dealing with foreign military aid into the hot spot of secretary of the Navy.

When he goes before the Senate Armed Services Committee for hearings on his nomination he is almost certain to be asked his views about several controversial disputes involving the Navy.

He succeeds Fred Korth, a central figure in the TFX warplane contract debate and advocate of nuclear-powered carriers, who has resigned.

BANKING BACKGROUND

Nitze, a deceptively mild mannered man with a background in banking, economics and state department work, has been boning up on his next job.

One of the hottest and oldest wrangles involving the Navy and the Defense Department is the subject of aircraft carriers, their current role in strategy, and their probable future role.

★ ★ ★

Although his job as assistant secretary of defense for international security affairs has been outside the daily operational problems of the Pentagon, his work has taken him into various conferences involving strategy and operations. He has accompanied Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on overseas missions to discuss these matters with U.S. and foreign commanders.

2 QUESTIONS

The Senate committee may ask Nitze two questions about carriers: Whether a new carrier should have nuclear power and what the future role of carriers should be.

Nitze can come up with two responses. He can say that McNamara already has decided and ordered that the new carrier have conventional power. And he can say that the Navy has not yet made final recommendations on the future of carriers.

★ ★ ★

Committee members also may sound him out on another subject which has caused anguish to the Navy. McNamara is expected to announce shortly a major revamping of the command structure which will strip the Navy of responsibility in several large geographical areas of the world and turn it over to the new Strike Command —a joint Army-Air Force organization.

HARVARD GRADUATE

Nitze, 56, is a graduate of Harvard. He left as a vice president of the investment firm of Dillon Read and Co. in 1942 to become financial director of the office of coordinator of inter-American affairs. He held a succession of posts in that department, including assignments in international trade offices and policy planning.

He is an original member of the McNamara Pentagon administration, having taken his present job in January 1961, and is rated a firm supporter of McNamara and his defense policies.

One-Third Enlistees Flunk Reading Test

Approximately one-third of those who attempt to enlist in the armed forces here flunk the initial screening test because they cannot read well enough.

This was disclosed yesterday by Pontiac-area recruiters for the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Sgt. Jack Hooper, U. S. Army recruiter, said a 48-question test is given all local candidates for the various branches of service.

★ ★ ★

"If a guy knows his math and vocabulary," Sgt. Hooper said, "he can pass the test."

HALF FAIL

He estimated that up to 50 per cent failed the screening exam.

"I don't know what it is," he added, "but kids just don't know how to read. Maybe it's television."

The Air Force recruiter, Sgt. Warren Smith, put it differently. "I'd say it's understanding AND reading. They don't understand what they read."

Sgt. Smith estimated that his office rejected 35-40 per cent after the screening test.

Chief Quartermaster Robert Huffaker of the Navy reported that about 20 per cent flunk the initial testing exercise. Again, he listed "reading ability" as the primary cause.

"A person with a ninth-grade education should be able to pass this test," Sgt. Hooper said.

★ ★ ★

The test consists of multiple-choice questions. Roughly half the test is made up of general vocabulary questions and reading math problems.

PATTERNS, PICTURES

The other half of the exam consists of identifying block patterns and pictures of tools.

Sgt. Hooper said a total of nine aptitude tests are given to enlistees.

The local recruiters cover the northern end of Oakland County.

Indonesia Promises to Pay for Damages

LONDON (AP) — The Indonesian government promised today to pay for the damage caused to British government property during anti-British riots in Jakarta Sept. 18.

★ ★ ★

A foreign office spokesman told a news conference two notes had been received from the Indonesian government on this subject. Involved is repair of the British Chancellery building, gutted by rioters, about 40 residences occupied by embassy staff and belongings of the staff as well as embassy furnishings.

Tides in Earth's Surface Like Those in the Ocean

WASHINGTON — Even good old terra firma has its ups and downs.

There are daily tides in the solid earth, similar to ocean tides, that cause the ground to rise and fall as much as 18 inches.

The average earth tide at Los Angeles, Calif., surges about 11 inches, according to Dr. John T. Pettit, research associate in the Los Angeles Institute of Geophysics of the University of California.

Earth's inhabitants don't feel the roller-coaster effect because each terrestrial tidal wave lifts so much of the earth at a time. But the movements do cause periodic variations in the earth's gravity field, the National Georgraphic Society says.

Since the ground is elastic, the sun and moon exert the same kind of gravitational attraction as on water. As the earth rotates, its crust heaves and ebbs to the pull of the moon and sun. Thus, every day brings a high and low tide to any given part of the earth.

But there are regional differences. Waves are highest along the Equator where gravitational pull is maximum. Mysteriously, however, tides can vary as much as 10 per cent at places only 65 miles apart.

Differences in composition of the earth's upper mantle, the region below the thin crust, may be the explanation. Daily tide changes may be due to swirlings in the earth's supposedly molten core.

KNEW OF TIDES

Scientists believe early Egyptians knew of earth tides, but they left no known written observations. Pierre Simon Laplace (1749-1827), French mathematician and astronomer, is credited with formulating the first theorems on land tides.

Eighty observation stations around the world are currently measuring earth tides in a program begun during the International Geophysical Year, 1957-58. The stations use gravity meters and horizontal pendulums planted deep in rock.

A two-year study in the eastern United States is being conducted by Dr. Maurice Ewing, director of Columbia University's Lamont Geological Observatory.

UAW Eying Big 3 Car Profits

By CHARLES C. CAIN
Associated Press
Automotive Writer

DETROIT — Impressive profits reports issued by Ford, Chrysler and General Motors in recent days drew a lot of attention at Solidarity House.

That is the international headquarters of the United Auto Workers, which represents over a million members in collective bargaining with the auto companies and key suppliers.

Officially, the UAW had "no comment" at the moment on the nine-month earning statements of the automotive Big Three. But unofficially it was admitted the union's economic experts are going over the reports carefully looking for ammunition for next year's contract talks.

* * *

As one source said, "Oh, what an inviting target those record auto company profits of 1962 and 1963 make."

WILL GATHER

UAW delegates will gather at Cleveland next April to draw up demands for new contracts to replace the current three-year UAW-Auto pacts which run out late next summer.

The delegates will decide whether profit sharing, a shorter work week, pay raises or revised working conditions should be the No. 1 goal in next summer's bargaining.

The subject of working conditions has drawn top attention from the UAW in recent weeks, as a rash of strikes and threatened strikes threatened the industry's drive to get 1964 models out at a record-breaking pace.

* * *

A UAW spot check yesterday showed that strike votes have been taken, or are in the process of being taken, at 11 GM plants, eight Ford plants and three Chrysler plants.

ON STRIKE

Two GM plants—at Doraville, Ga. and Norwood, Ohio — were on strike with about 5,000 workers affected.

Although strike votes have been taken and strikes at individual plants sanctioned by the international UAW, the situation is not considered serious by union officials.

Industry and union sources pointed out that there always is some dissatisfaction by workers each year as new model production begins with resultant changes in production methods and timing.

* * *

"The situation is very fluid," said a UAW spokesman. "It changes from day to day. One day we issue strike authorization, the next day the issues are settled."

SAME ISSUES

The issues, as in past years, are production standards and health and safety factors.

The UAW said some of the difficulties involve the fact, that some manufacturers are assembling a greater mix of vehicles on the same production lines than ever before. This referred particularly to the so-called GM B. O. P. plants, which turn out Buicks, Oldsmobiles and Pontiacs.

Teams of UAW and management representatives have held long sessions in efforts to settle the various local problems before they become companywide.

* * *

Ernest Moran, assistant director of the UAW's General Motors department, said all 12 members of his staff were on the road yesterday visiting trouble spots to try and iron out differences.

"Right now, the troubles are just brush fires and we want to take care of them before they might become a general conflagration," explained a union source.

MODIFIED X15 — This is a model of the new version of the famous X15 rocket plane, which the National Aeronautics and Space Administration says is scheduled to start flying next year. Although it should be able to go eight times faster than the speed of sound, a spokesman for NASA says there's only a 50-50 chance it will ever be called on to go that fast.

Draft Still an Open Question

Romney Bandwagon to Roll West in '64 Nomination Quest

DETROIT (AP) — The movement to draft Michigan Gov. George Romney for president gets rolling this weekend as the "Romney Bandwagon" — a 15-foot housetrailer — takes to the highways and heads west.

Its destination: San Francisco, site of the 1964 Republican National Convention next summer.

The "Bandwagon," loaded with Romney buttons, brochures and bumper stickers, leaves the Detroit suburb of Garden City Saturday. It will stop at 20 to 30 Michigan cities before hitting the westward trail.

* * *

Romney has repeatedly declared he is not a candidate for the GOP nomination and will not become one — although he has dodged the question of a draft.

CHANCES FADING?

Among those closest to the governor in the state capital of Lansing, there appears to be a growing sentiment that Romney's disavowals have had a telling effect and his chances are fading fast.

One highly-placed source, who admits privately he would like to see Romney get the nomination, told the Associated Press:

"I'm becoming more and more convinced that the governor, if he stays in politics, will be running on the state ticket next year for a second term and not on the national ticket."

* * *

At Republican State Central Committee headquarters, incoming mail has shown a resounding lack of interest in the Romney - for - president movement.

Only one letter asking for information has been received in recent weeks, the AP learned.

Sponsors of the Romney-for-President campaign believe, however, that the "Bandwagon" approach may stir up so much grass-roots support among voters that other bandwagons will be launched around the country.

The Romney backers hope there will be a surge of support so strong that it will knock the props out from under the other candidates — presumably including Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

* * *

"Unlike the Goldwater camp, we are not actively seeking to line up delegates directly," explained Henry Nephew, Michigan state chairman of the Romney for President Club.

PEOPLE'S INFLUENCE

"We are taking Romney to the people and getting the people in turn to influence the delegates form their states," he said.

Nephew, a 29-year-old life insurance salesman, is an amateur in politics. So are virtually all officials of the draft-Romney movement.

This includes George Zimmermann of Dallas, Tex., founder and national president of the Romney-for-President Clubs, now formed in some 30 states.

* * *

Zimmermann has never met Romney, but says he has admired him from a distance for some time, mainly for his philosophy in opposing trends toward the flow of governmental power to Washington.

KICKOFF DINNER

A $6-a-plate kickoff dinner for the Romney "Bandwagon" has been scheduled for tomorrow night at the Hawthorne Valley Country Club in Garden City.

Nephew said he expects between 300 and 400 persons to attend from several states, including Georgia, Utah, Pennsylvania and Texas.

Proceeds from the dinner, he said, will be used to help state clubs get on their feet financially in the early stages of organization.

* * *

Memberships are being sold for $3, with the money split among the local, state and national chapters.

NO ENCOURAGEMENT

Neither Nephew nor Zimmermann has received direct encouragement from Romney in their efforts.

Romney said he will not attend the dinner. He turned down an invitation to receive a 10-gallon hat from Zimmermann, who is scheduled to speak at the affair.

None of Romney's staff will be there either, according to press secretary Richard Milliman.

Nephew indicated he is not discouraged by Romney's apparent coolness.

"In case we miss for '64, we'll help Romney in the governor campaign — and then look forward to 1968," he said. "We're organizing for five years."

Romney Cites Trust in State

PORT HURON (AP) — Gov. George Romney said yesterday that the state's healthy economy shows "heightened confidence in Michigan as a place to do business."

Speaking at a Chrysler Day dinner, Romney also noted indications of a weakening in what he said was recently "a strong antibusiness undercurrent."

"One of these developments," he explained, in his prepared text, "is the increasingly cooperative attitude of enlightened union leaders, who recognize that the interests of employers and workers are, in the last analysis, identical.

* * *

"This rational approach to union leadership has played a strong role in Chrysler's comeback, and I want to pay tribute here to those union leaders who helped make this possible," Romney said.

Romney cited a growing cooperative spirit between the Republican and Democratic parties in Lansing and more civic interest in competing for new industry as further indications the antibusiness trend was changing.

Not a Kernel of Doubt

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — Railroad policeman James Carroll arrested a loiterer after he noticed someone had been shoveling corn out of an open grain car. The loiterer denied doing it, but was booked when kernels of corn fell out of his trouser cuffs.

Teens Scare Tourist Trade

CLACTON, England (AP)— Residents of this resort area are trying to enact legislation that will prevent teen-agers on motor scooters from scaring off visiting vacationists.

The youths congregate late at night on the beaches and often camp out overnight.

Hotel owners complain that they bring no business to the community and scare off paying customers who pack up and leave because of their noise.

* * *

The local town council has voted to ask the government to give police wider power in dealing with them.

Only about one woman in 250 is color blind.

New Sound Makes Rats Hit the Trail

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A newly - developed rodent control unit known as the Untrasonic Rodent Sentry generates a high frequency of sound well above the range of human hearing which drives rats from buildings and other areas by literally driving them crazy.

Tests have proven that the unit's noise has no effect in anything except rodents, bats and pigeons.

Bridge Is Highest

The highest suspension bridge in the world spans the Arkansas river in Colorado. It is 1,053 feet above the river. Main span is 880 feet.

Junior Editors Quiz on FAIRS

QUESTION: How did people get the habit of going to fairs?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Fairs are said to have started in the manner suggested by our two top drawings. The tribesmen of ancient days often fought fiercely together, but they couldn't get on by fighting alone.

Trading and exchanging goods was a necessity of their lives. So, in certain places and at certain times, they would come together to buy and sell.

Men who had been enemies might find themselves haggling over the price of a piece of jewelry.

Festivals were held, too; there were huge fairs in Egypt, Greece, Rome. People began to come to have a holiday as well as to trade. For instance, the market fairs of England became an established custom of English life.

In America, the first fairs were patterned after the English ones. But in the early 1800s, farm societies formed to try to improve products, and so the county fair arose.

Prizes were given for the finest cattle, poultry, vegetables, flowers. Housewives sent their best jellies and pickles. The Four-H Clubs added greatly as they focused the activities of young Americans on improving country products.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: The girl who sent us this question lives in Minnesota. The Minnesota State Fair is held in St. Paul in August; there is a Winter Carnival in Winona in January and the Paul Bunyan Carnival is at Brainerd in June. Become acquainted with the interesting fairs going on in your own state.

Car Hits Boy; Ambulance Hits Driver

DENVER (AP) — A driver whose rented car fatally injured a 6-year-old boy was struck by the ambulance taking the child to a hospital.

★ ★ ★

The woman, who had jumped in front of the ambulance waving her arms, was critically injured.

★ ★ ★

Preston H. Smith, walking home from school, was struck Wednesday as he crossed a street in a marked walkway on a green light, Denver Detective Jack Sevier said.

The car that hit him was driven from the scene. Moments later, the ambulance taking the child to a hospital struck Mrs. Marie Chapel, 33.

★ ★ ★

At the hospital Mrs. Chapel told traffic investigators Al Preble and Duane Miller that she drove the car in the accident. Miller said he would seek a manslaughter charge against her.

Cigarette Starts Blast; Two Workers Burned

CHARLESTON, S. C. (UPI) — A cigarette touched off an explosion aboard the drydocked destroyer escort USS Peterson yesterday, burning two shipyard workers.

The Navy identified the injured men as James T. Thornton and Willie Brooks. Thornton was reported to have received third-degree burns over 95 per cent of his body.

Captured by Cong

Copters Search for GIs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Forty-five U.S. helicopters today spearheaded a search for three U.S. military advisers believed captured by the Communists Tuesday in an ambush.

Two of the men, both Army officers, were believed to be wounded.

The condition of the third, an enlisted medical technician, was not known.

* * *

The men were officially listed as missing. Their names were not released pending notification of relatives.

U.N. MISSION

In another development, three members of the United Nations observer mission to Viet Nam left yesterday for the city of Hue in central Viet Nam, where the government's crisis with the Buddhists began last May.

The observers were sent here to investigate charges of religious repression in connection with President Ngo Dinh Diem's crackdown on the Buddhists.

A U. N. spokesman said they will hear testimony from several witnesses in Hue, where government troops fired on Buddhist demonstrators May 8, killing nine.

* * *

Vietnamese government sources said the mission has presented Diem's Interior (police) Ministry with a list of persons it wishes to interview. There was no immediate government reaction.

U.S. PRISONERS

Informed sources said the three missing Americans were last seen walking with their hands tied behind their backs, under guard of Communist guerrillas in a swamp near the scene of the ambush, about 165 miles southwest of Saigon.

A Viet Cong force attacked a government unit and "badly mauled" the Vietnamese, a U.S. military spokesman said.

The unit was one of the Special Forces teams organized by the U.S. military advisers to Diem's army. It was accompanied by advisers, including the missing men.

* * *

More than 400 Vietnamese troops were taking part in the search for the men, in addition to the U.S. helicopters, which can skim low over jungle clearings and rice paddies and cover wide areas.

OTHER CAPTURED

Many other Americans have been taken prisoner by the Viet Cong in the past two years of the guerrilla war.

Attempts have been made to brainwash some of these prisoners, and some have been used for propaganda among villagers.

Envoy Luce Defender of Mme. Nhu

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce charged yesterday that Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu has been treated "as a vicious enemy of our country."

She said that by comparison Soviet Premier Khrushchev had been treated like a public hero during his visit to America.

Writing in the current issue of the National Review magazine, Mrs. Luce defended South Viet Nam's first lady against charges that her government was oppressing Buddhists.

* * *

"The saffron-robed monks were living unmolested by anyone in their own pagodas," Mrs. Luce said, "when one by one they stole forth into public squares, where they squatted in lotus pose, poured gasoline over themselves, applied the match and committed suicide.

FLAG PROTEST

"The monks were protesting because they were not allowed to fly their flag above the national flag above their temples," she said.

"The Buddhist monks in Viet Nam who incinerated themselves not only regained 'face' for the temple, but nirvana or paradise and sainthood for themselves," Mrs. Luce said.

"For at least three of the monks who were over age 70, this must have seemed a rather good deal."

Taking note of American criticism that the Diem family controls the South Viet Nam government Mrs. Luce said that because of the Kennedy administration it amounted to the pot calling the kettle black.

* * *

She said that President Kennedy had put "Bobby in control of our secret police—the FBI" and had engineered the election of his other brother, Teddy, to the Senate.

AS IN CHINA

Mrs. Luce compared events in South Viet Nam with what happened to Chiang Kai-shek and Mme. Chiang in China when, she said, the State Department "pulled the rug from under them" and allowed a Communist takeover.

Kefauver Had Stock in Firm He Probed

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) —The late Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., held $13,000 worth of stock in the nation's drug industry, which was the object of one of his investigations.

* * *

An inventory of his estate revealed Wednesday that Kefauver held stock worth about $300,000 at the time of his death Aug. 10. The inventory was filed in Probate Court by Kefauver's widow, Nancy, who was named executrix of the estate.

* * *

Kefauver's largest single holding was stock worth $22,092 in Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. He held 200 shares in the Rexall Drug Co., worth $7,900, and 51 shares in the Charles Pfizer Drug Co., worth $5,100.

Future Plans (Un)Mapped

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Most chambers of commerce want to put a place on the map. Not the Chelan, Wash., chamber.

The State Highway Commission said Wednesday the chamber had asked to have Ice Caves north of Chelan, erased from the map.

It reasons: No one cares where it is and even if they did it's almost impossible to get there.

Legislator Supports War Veterans Aid

LANSING (AP) — A resolution urging Congress to increase pension payments to veterans of World War I was introduced yesterday in the House by Rep. Edwin Fitzpatrick, D-Detroit.

* * *

Fitzpatrick, who believes he may be Michigan's youngest living veteran of the first world war, proposed that Congress support pending legislation to increase the pensions to veterans and their widows.

* * *

Similar resolutions have been passed by several other state legislatures with the support of all state and national American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars organizations.

Death Due to Crash

DETROIT (AP)— Mrs. Betty Slack, 40, of Detroit was injured fatally yesterday when her car collided with a truck as she was attempting to make a turn on Detroit's East Side.

Jury Rules in Oil Dispute

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Four east Texans owe the state $304,800 because of a well which angled beneath property of other owners and produced oil for a decade, a jury decided yesterday.

It was the first jury trial of about 50 civil penalty suits filed by the Texas attorney general after a slant hole drilling investigation last year.

In this instance, the state asked penalties totaling $3.6 million. Other suits seek more than $32 million.

The District Court jury found that operators violated state laws and rules of the Texas Railroad Commission, which regulates the oil and gas industry, in drilling and producing oil from the well.

* * *

It held that H. M. Harrington Jr. and Charles Lutes must pay the state $117,416 each, Reid Allgood $60,841 and J. W. Baton $9,125. All are Gregg County residents.

London 'Zoo Man' Dies

LONDON (AP) — David Seth-Smith, 88, known to millions of Britons as "the zoo man," died Wednesday. Seth-Smith, for many years curator of birds and mammals at the London Zoo, built up a huge radio audience with a weekly children's program about animals.

NO AGE RESPECTER — Cardiovascular disease can hit the young as well as the aged, Red Cross Gray Ladies Mrs. K. W. Wischman (left) of Pontiac and Mrs. Elmer Koth of Sylvan Lake, explained to one of many visitors to a recent Michigan Heart Association exhibit. Heart Association, a Pontiac Area United Fund agency, also is backed by local unit volunteers engaged in an education campaign.

United Fund Agency

Heart Association Supported

Most of the money contributed to Pontiac Area United Fund is budgeted for local agencies and never leaves Oakland County. But some is used to support important state and national organizations.

One of them is Michigan Heart Association, which receives $11,855, the largest allocation to an agency in this category out of United Fund's current budget.

Most of this will find its way into medical research and heart disease education projects in Michigan and throughout the country.

OTHER DONATIONS

A small amount measured against the high cost of combating disease. It achieves its purpose when combined with similar donations from community fund raising drives across the country.

Cardiovascular disease, a more proper term since it refers to both heart and blood vessel disorders, today accounts for 54 per cent of all deaths in the United States.

In a real sense, the fight against this killer is just beginning. Some of the greatest medical advances against it have been made within the last decade.

★ ★ ★

The local Pontiac area unit of the Michigan Heart Association is already using one of these newfound ideas locally.

RESUSCITATION

Although composed of but a dozen volunteer workers, it has put on several demonstrations of the closed chest cardiac resuscitation method. The demonstrations were for hospital staffs and rescue units.

Dr. Murray B. Levin, unit chairman, explained that the method involves putting pressure on the chest of a previously healthy person who suffers heart stoppage.

Dr. Levin said this method, coupled with mouth-to-mouth breathing, has been very successful in keeping stricken persons alive until they can be moved to a hospital.

★ ★ ★

The local unit has also staged several "heart forums," or public information talks, said Dr. Levin, and plans to schedule more.

He said the unit will broaden its efforts to inform young people about the disease since, contrary to common belief, it is not limited to adults.

Spain Will Update Its Warfare Ability

MADRID (AP)—A plan for reduction and modernization of the Spanish Army to bring it within present warfare needs was announced by the army ministery Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Lt. Gen. Pablo Martin Alonso said it would include creation of powerfully armed brigades as the basis of the army. This probably means divisions will cease to exist.

★ ★ ★

"We have just signed an agreement with the most powerful country on earth—the United States—and along with such a country we want to watch for the defense of the world's peace," the minister said.

Last Whooping Cranes at Wintering Grounds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The first group of the world's last wild flock of whooping cranes has arrived at wintering grounds at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge on the Texas Gulf Coast.

The Interior Department reported yesterday that four of the big white birds were sighted Tuesday at Aransas. There were 26 cranes last spring when they started their 2,500-mile trip to Canada for summer nesting.

Really Help the Poor

BLAKELY, Ga. (AP)—Members of the Blakely High School Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y club will "trick or treat" for a new purpose tonight. They plan to collect used clothing and articles for families in need in the community.

Man Aged 114 Expires of Burns in Home Fire

DALLAS (AP) — Hatton Hall, whose age was listed on hospital records as 114, died Wednesday of burns received when fire demolished his home.

The aged man was rescued by firemen Wednesday night after neighbors had pulled his wife and mother-in-law to safety.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Henrietta Sadler, 103, remained in critical condition at a Dallas hospital.

Chiang Kai-shek Is Confident

TAIPEI (AP) — President Chiang Kai-shek, who is 76 today seems to speak with more confidence than ever of "when we get back."

By that phrase—never "if we get back"—he means a return to the China mainland which the Chinese Communists conquered in 1949.

At a reception the other day Chiang turned to the Associated Press correspondent and said:

★ ★ ★

"I'll never forget you were the last correspondent with us on the mainland and I want you to be the first with us when we go back."

UNQUESTIONABLE

He smiled serenely as he said this, as if his eventual return was unquestionable.

Only the future can disclose whether Chiang's hopes are realized. Chiang has said that events are marching inexorably toward what the Chinese Nationalists term "the supreme goal."

One of Chiang's aides, in assessing the situation, said:

"The Chinese Communists have failed because they have not succeeded, and The Gimo (Generalissimo Chiang) has succeeded because he has obtained a psychological foothold on the mainland."

CHIANG KAI-SHEK

★ ★ ★

"Psychological foothold" refers to the claim here that an explosive anti-Communist force has developed on the mainland ready to be ignited by an external agency—in other words by a Chinese Nationalist counterattack.

IN GOOD HEALTH

Chiang is in apparent good health. He gets up daily about 6:30 a.m. and goes to bed between 10 and 11 p.m.

As has been his practice since he embraced the Christian faith in 1931 (Chiang is a Methodist), he starts and ends the day with prayer and medition.

He shuns tobacco and does not drink wine or liquor except symbolically in exchanging toasts.

Navy Wins Battle Against the Seagulls

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif. (UPI) — The Navy has won its two-week battle with a flock of seagulls for runway space at its Moffett Field base near San Francisco.

The gulls descended on the air strip Oct. 19 and engaged in competition with pilots and planes for landing room. Huge helicopters swept over the runway at regular intervals Tuesday, and the birds departed in search of less hectic surroundings.

Southern Italy's per capita income has been rising steadily about 3 or 4 per cent a year, but the area is still depressed and its income is only 60 per cent of the national average.

The nation's gas industry now ranks as the sixth largest in the country.

Was It Blessing or Curse?

Good Effects of Hot Spell Mix With Bad

By The Associated Press

The fall drought and protracted hot spell across much of the nation had both good and bad effects.

In the areas where forest fires laid waste thousands of acres of tinder-dry timberland there was agreement that the loss was high. But agreement ended there in a poll taken by The Associated Press.

★ ★ ★

Some states and communities reported the hot and dry spell ruined crops, stunted winter wardrobe sales, held tourist travel to a low and chopped damagingly into sales of hunting equipment.

Yet, the poll showed that the same unseasonable circumstances in other states and communities resulted in bumper crops, swelled sales in summer clothing, boosted fall travel to a high and delighted operators of sporting goods stores with increases sales.

Except for a few instances, estimates of losses and gains were tentative and in round figures.

For some unexplained reason, travel agents in some sections said, the protracted heat wave sent record numbers of tourists scrambling for winter cruise reservations.

★ ★ ★

The same hot weather had a reverse, and more understandable, effect on such travel in other areas.

Because of the drought and accompanying hot weather, some states canceled their hunting seasons.

SALES CUTBACK

This brought a cutback in the sale of guns and ammunition and in fees collected for hunting and fishing licenses.

In other areas, the hot weather drove thousands into woodland recreation areas where no restrictions were placed against their use.

The same lack of rain that stunted some crops was a blessing for others.

Alabama state officials set timber losses at more than $500,000 with an over-all loss in economy due to the drought and hot weather of more than $3.5 million. But record yields were reported in cotton, corn and some other crops.

HEAVY LOSSES

Pennsylvania officials reported heavy forest fire and crop losses but declined any estimate. Similar losses were noted in hunting license revenues and gun and ammunition sales when the season was suspended. Travel business was off 40 per cent.

A New York State Agriculture Department spokesman said crop loss through drought and early frost amounted to about $3 million with a "wild guess" of $100,000 in timber losses due to fires.

★ ★ ★

In Colorado, the state agriculture department estimated a $50-million crop loss for the entire 1963 season, much of it attributed to the heat and drought.

The weather brought a bumper sugar beet harvest in Wyoming and prolonged the construction season to help stave off unemployment.

LOSS OF REVENUE

In Detroit, clothing store owners complained of a loss of revenue in winter clothing sales, but most reported the difference was more than made up by increased sales in lighter clothing.

The largest travel bureaus in Michigan reported "unusually heavy rush for winter cruises although such orders normally don't come in until the first cold weather strikes."

★ ★ ★

Parts of Kentucky enjoyed brisk, postseason business at state parks, with one official commenting that "business was almost as good as summer." The weather also helped lengthen the highway construction season.

The camping and swimming seasons in Arkansas were extended when thousands of outdoorsmen flocked to the public parks to enjoy those pastimes.

Teacher Discovers Cache; 'Moldy Stuff' Means Gold

WASHINGTON (AP)—A high school teacher who just had to have another look at the Gettysburg battlefield got the glorious news today—that "moldy stuff" he scooped up one sunny day last June is worth $54,200.

"Wow! Wow! No! No! No! I feel sick. My legs are still shaking. Wow!"

And then, "I'm waiting for some confirmation."

★ ★ ★

This was George C. Rapport's response when told by telephone by a newsman that the cache of mutilated currency he turned in to the Secret Service in New York last July has a redemption value that the Treasury sets at $54,200.

Rapport has been waiting since then to hear from the government. The Massapequa Park N.Y., man said that except for his wife Ruth, he has told nobody else about his find.

'JUST MY LUCK'

"It would just be my luck to run into something and get into trouble," said Rapport, 46, a social studies teacher at a Bellmore, N.Y., high school.

Has he been nervous, awaiting word? "Nervous? I've been in a state of shock," Rapport said.

It began last June 26 when the vacationing Rapports and their two children, Eileen 17, and Jack, 13, visited the Gettysburg battlefield in Pennsylvania.

★ ★ ★

They toured the Civil War site but Rapport said: "You know how it is on a tour. Things go so fast you can't appreciate everything. So we went back."

The next day, Rapport was walking by the Eternal Light Peace Memorial at the Gettysburg National Military Park. His wife and two children were in their car nearby.

PUT IN TRUNK

There in the ground lay a rotted bundle. "There was no one around," Rapport recalls. He picked it up—"I had no idea what was inside"—and placed it in the trunk of the car.

Later, he put it in the cellar of his home.

"I couldn't possibly spend any of it. It didn't look like currency. It was too moldy.

"About 10 days later, I didn't know what to do with it, so I reported it to the Secret Service in New York."

★ ★ ★

At this point Rapport's connection with the money ceased, except that he says he was called to Washington by the Secret Service about three weeks ago to tell his story.

W. T. Howell, deputy treasurer of the United States, said the mutilated currency was forwarded to Washington to see how much was redeemable. Howell checked with the National Park Service to see if it had any claim under law. He was told it did not.

HELD 60 DAYS

When property is turned into the service, it is held for 60 days. Then it is returned to the finder if there is no claimant.

The park service reported no claim had been made at Gettysburg.

Howell then notified the Internal Revenue Service since such findings are subject to federal income tax.

And that is where the matter stands now, Howell said, with the revenue service checking on whether it has a tax claim.

★ ★ ★

Howell said he could foresee no hitches, that once the IRS is through Rapport will be getting his money.

Meanwhile, Rapport waits on Long Island, sure of one thing—how he'll spend the money when he gets it. "I want to send my kids to school. That's enough."

Court Weighs Estes Claim

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals must now decide whether bankrupt farm financier Billie Sol Estes got a fair trial when he was convicted of fraud and sentenced to eight years in a state court at Tyler last year.

Lawyers for Estes claimed yesterday he did not, and asked the court to reverse his conviction.

Prosecutors said he did, and asked the court to dismiss the appeal.

★ ★ ★

John Cofer, representing Estes, charged that the jury that convicted Estes was prejudiced against him; that he was victimized by newspaper publicity and that television reporting of the trial was unfair to Estes.

REVERSE DECISION

John P. Dennison of Pecos, another Estes lawyer, argued that the decision should be reversed because of discrepancies between the indictment and documents offered as proof.

★ ★ ★

Estes also faces 15 years in federal prison on another conviction. He is appealing that sentence, too.

Boy, 6, Shows Gun; Accidentally Kills Pal

BALDWIN, N.Y., (AP) — A 6-year-old boy, son of a State Supreme Court clerk, fatally wounded a 5-year-old playmate accidentally yesterday while showing off his father's pistol, police said.

Brian Schinnerer died on an operating table in a hospital last night. The boy was shot in the temple as he and four other boys stood outside a window of the home of Christopher McDonough.

Stepmother Held in Murder of Girl

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Mrs. Erzsebet Wittner, 39, confessed knife-slayer of her 7-year-old stepdaughter, Beatrice, was held in the Kent County Jail today on a murder charge.

The Hungarian refugee stood mute in Superior Court yesterday to an open charge of murder for the Oct. 22 slaying of the girl.

A plea of innocent was entered by the court. The woman will be arraigned in police court after an attorney is appointed for her.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wittner was released yesterday from St. Mary's hospital where she was treated for self-inflicted wounds with a kitchen paring knife.

Short Railroad Tied to a Beaten Track

BONNEY, Tex. (AP) — This town was named for Joe Bonney who owned and ran a short railroad between Houston and Columbia.

The train is said to have started its trip from Houston Monday morning, and generally found its way back by Saturday. People living nearby jokingly called it the "Try Weekly."

They Didn't Wait for 'Dream Boat'

GUNTERSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Newton didn't wait for their ship to come in — they built it themselves.

Newton, 75, and his 80-year old wife began construction on the 54-foot, 44-ton diesel powered ketch 15 years ago.

In three years and 11,020 man-hours of labor they completed the huge yacht and have since logged nearly 30,000 miles in it.

The former Chicagoans, who now call Guntersville home port, are the entire crew of the ship, which includes a real fireplace and an electric organ. Newton is a retired electrical engineer.

There are about 5,000 cases of typhoid and para-typhoid fever annually in the United States.

India Press Reports Raid by Pakistanis

EGIDRTLHI, India (UPI) — Press reports here claimed today that Pakistani raiders have crossed the cease-fire line in the disputed state of Kashmir and dynamited part of the hydroelectric works supplying a town on the Indian side.

There was no confirmation of the charges from the Indian government.

New Delhi newspapers printed reports from correspondents in Kashmir who said the Pakistanis blew up a dam 1,000 yards inside Indian-held territory Tuesday night near the town of Poonch in southwest Kashmir and drove off repair crews yesterday morning with rifle fire.

Leaders of Foiled Coup to Get Death in Turkey

ANKARA (AP) — A reliable source said today that a Turkish appeals court has approved the death sentences of four leaders of an abortive coup last May.

The four, convicted of the attempt to overthrow the government of Premier Ismet Inonu on May 21, are Talat Aydemir, Fethi Gurcam, Osman Deniz and Erol Dincer.

Apples Are Big Business in Oakland County

WHAT A MOUTHFUL — It's a Spy! No, not a foreign agent, but one of Oakland County's delicious apples. Mrs. S. S. Sloughter of Milford prepares to tackle the big apple.

UP A TREE—Mrs. Leonard Gross, Union Lake, can almost fill her sack with the apples pictured here, so thickly do they grow. This was true in spite of a May freeze, hail in June and the dry weather. Mrs. Gross is a picker on the Bob Long farm on East Commerce Road.

GRADER—Although the grading process is mechanical, someone has to feed apples to the machine. George Hekmen of Milford keeps the fruit rolling. Imagine doing this for 15,000 bushels of apples.

SPECIAL DELIVERY—Mrs. Larry Mainland starts out with a station wagon full of apples to be delivered to a Milford grocer. These apples have been sorted, graded and washed. There's nothing quite like a Michigan apple.

THEY BOUGHT—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dresser decide to take a bushel of Jonathans home with them. As he prepares to load them in the car she samples a large specimen.

PILED HIGH — Larry Mainland, owner of Oakland Orchards on East Commerce Road, checks one crate of apples in the storage room where thousands are placed for later sale. The Mainlands grow apples, peaches, plums and pears on their 140 acres.

Vegetable Rabbit Is New

Welsh rabbit (often called "rarebit") is always popular. But let's try another kind of rabbit. This, of course, is made with cheese, too, but also with vegetables and chives. Cheese combines well with a variety of foods.

Rabbit of Vegetables

2 medium onions, sliced thin
¼ cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup finely chopped green pepper
3 cups diced tomatoes
2 teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
2½ tablespoons white vinegar
2 teaspoons chopped chives
2 teaspoons chopped parsley
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
6 eggs, well beaten
6 slices buttered toast
Parsley or paprika for garnish

Saute onions in butter or margarine. Add green pepper, tomatoes, seasonings and vinegar. Cook until tender, stirring occasionally.

Blend in chives, parsley and cheese, cook 2 minutes. Stir in beaten eggs. Cook, slowly until done (2 or 3 minutes), stirring constantly.

Serve on buttered toast. Garnish with parsley or paprika. Makes 6 servings.

Coconut Frosting Crowns Cake

Chocolate cake with creamy coconut frosting makes a happy ending for a dinner.

Creamy Coconut Frosting

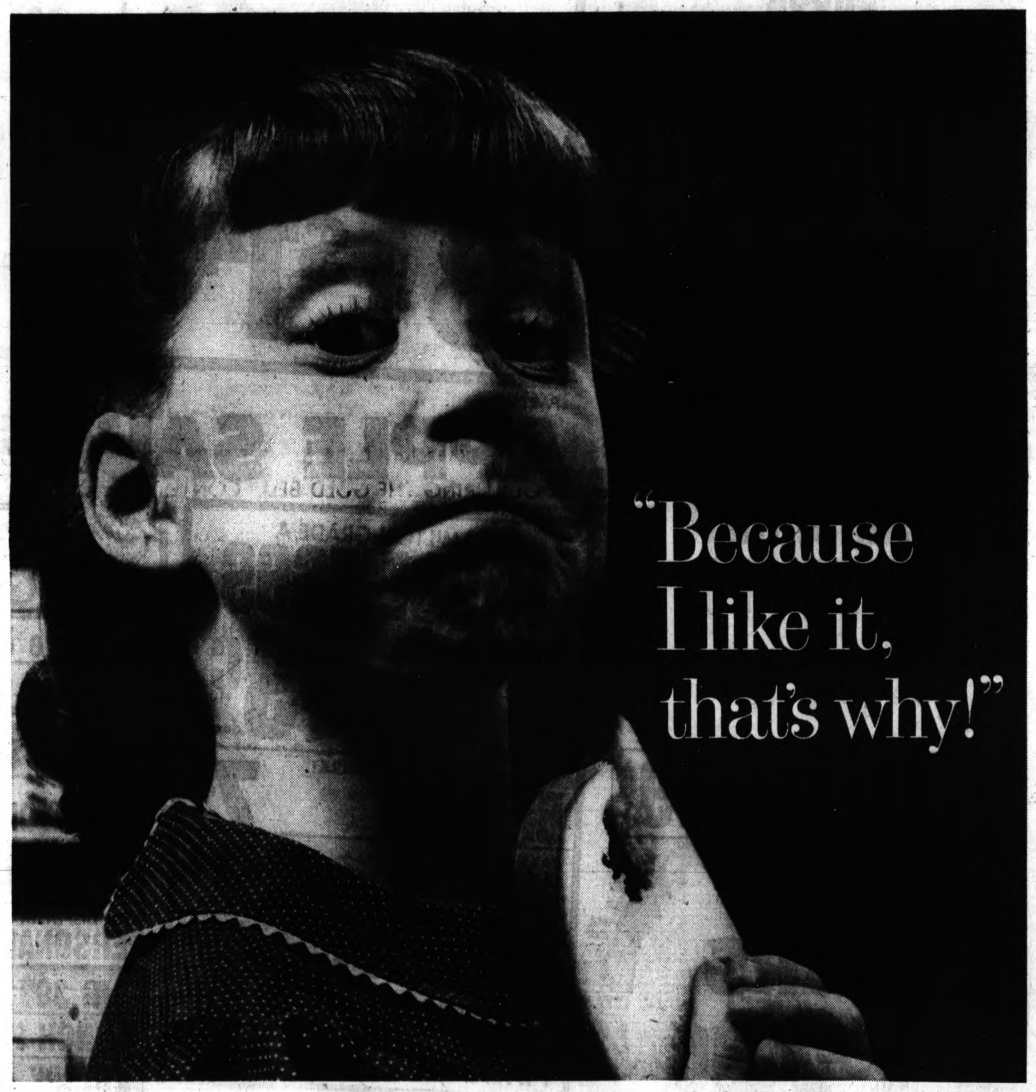
½ cup butter or margarine
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 pound confectioners sugar, sifted
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons (about) milk or light cream
2-3 cup flaked coconut

Beat butter until soft; add salt. Gradually beat in part of the sugar. Beat in thoroughly the egg yolks and vanilla. Beat in remaining sugar alternately with milk until smooth and of spreading consistency.

Makes about 2½ cups. Spread over top and sides of chocolate cake baked in a 13 by 9 by 2 inch pan; sprinkle with coconut.



Without butter, or with butter, or "sandwiched" or toasted . . . any way you eat Jane Parker Bread you like it. That's guaranteed, or you get your money back.

JANE PARKER WHITE BREAD

MAPLE DOUGHNUTS — Delicious hot Maple Whole Wheat Doughnuts can be baked in just 12 minutes. The unbaked dough is made with whole wheat cereal, the kind with wheat germ added, and can be stored overnight in the refrigerator.

Well Chilled Doughnuts Baked and Sugared

Hot doughnuts for breakfast. It sounds mighty luxurious and maid-in-the-kitchenish, doesn't it? But don't stop reading. Delicious maple-flavored whole wheat doughnuts can be baked in about 12 minutes. Yes, we said baked, which makes them unusual preparationwise as well as flavorwise.

Mix the dough the night before using whole wheat cereal, the kind with wheat germ added. Put the uncooked doughnuts on cookie sheets and store in the refrigerator. The next morning, pop them into the oven and you'll have hot maple doughnuts ready for the family by the time the coffee perks and the cocoa is made.

It doesn't seem likely that there'll be any left after breakfast, but should this phenomenon occur, freeze the doughnuts for another morning.

Maple Whole Wheat Doughnuts

4 cups sifted enriched flour
½ cup and ½ cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon salt
4½ teaspoons baking powder
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup instant or regular whole wheat cereal
¾ cup shortening
4 eggs, well beaten
¼ cup milk
1½ teaspoons vanilla
2 teaspoons maple flavoring
¾ cup melted butter or margarine
½ teaspoon cinnamon

Heat oven to hot (400 degrees). Butter 2 cookie sheets.

Sift together flour, ½ cup granulated sugar, salt and baking powder. Mix in brown sugar and cereal. Add shortening, eggs, milk, vanilla and maple flavoring. Stir until well blended.

Roll ½ inch thick on well floured board. Cut with floured doughnut cutter. Place one inch apart on cookie sheets. Chill thoroughly (about 1½ hours).*

Bake 10-12 minutes or until light golden brown. Brush immediately with melted butter. Sprinkle with combined ½ cup granulated sugar and cinnamon. Store in a tightly covered contained.

Yield: about 1½ dozen.

*Doughnuts may be chilled overnight and baked in the morning as directed.

Liquid Smoke Gives Beef New Flavor

For oven barbecued smoke turkey — no need stuff the bird; just brush the cavity and outside well with liquid smoke seasoning; let stand overnight; and just before you put the turkey in oven, brush again with liquid smoke. As the bird cooks, baste frequently with drippings. If stronger smoke flavor is desired add 2 tablespoons to drippings.

Indians Were First

American Indians gathered and used cranberries for centuries. Explorers Lewis and Clark found the Indians, of what is now the State of Washington, picking cranberries. Indians in northwestern Wisconsin are as happy harvesting their cranberry crop as were their ancestors.

Oven Vegetable

Baking a meat loaf at a moderate temperature? You can get asparagus ready at the same time. Just put a package of the frozen vegetable in a casserole with half a cup of water, a tablespoon or two of butter and salt to taste; cover tightly and bake at 350 degrees for about three-quarters of an hour.

Two giant 65,000-horsepower electric motors have been installed at Grand Coulee Dam to pump water for irrigation making the project one of the major ones in the United States.

Coffee Is Essential in 3 Bread Recipes

Coffee and home-made bread have been friends for a long time. In the old days, the coffee pot was set on the back of the stove, ready for action when the first glistening loaf of bread emerged from the oven. Slice off a thick, steaming crust, let butter melt into it, pour a cup of fresh, hot coffee. Ah, those were the days

Since bread and coffee are just naturally harmonious, it makes the best of good sense to combine the two. Here are three unusual and delicious breads, all deserving of your best efforts and all flavored with coffee.

Let's begin with Coffee Panettone, a handsome loaf of Italian heritage, studded with diced fruit and raisins. Both colorful and delectable, it will be perfect to serve with coffee during the coming holidays.

Next, be sure to try Coffee Bran Kuchen, a quick bread with real appeal for the men in the family. Serve it for breakfast on Sunday morning and, strangely enough, you'll have no problem with leftovers!

Our threesome is completed with Coffee Almond Date Loaf, easy to make, even easier to devour. Moist and rich, it can be sliced for an afternoon coffee party, served with cream cheese and jam. Next morning, toast a few slices under the broiler.

Coffee Panettone

1 pkg. active dry yeast
¼ cup warm, not hot water (105-115 degrees)
1 cup strong, warm coffee (105-115 degrees)
2 tablespoons soft shortening
2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon baking soda
3 cups all-purpose flour
1-3 cup seedless raisins
1-3 cup mixed, diced candied fruit
1-3 cup chopped walnuts
1 teaspoon vanilla

Dissolve yeast in warm water. Add warm coffee. Add shortening, salt, sugar and baking soda. Stir until sugar dissolves. Stir in half the flour. Beat 2 minutes on medium speed with electric mixer or 300 vigorous strokes by hand.

Combine remaining flour, raisins, candied fruits and walnuts. Stir into first mixture with vanilla. Cover. Let rise in warm place (85 degrees), free from drafts, until doubled.

Stir down, using 25 strokes. Spoon into 2 greased 1-lb. coffee cans. Cover with kitchen towel.

Let rise in warm place to within half-inch of top of cans. Bake at 375 degrees for 40 minutes or until loaf sounds hollow when tapped.

Frost with thin confectioners (powdered) sugar icing. Sprinkle additional diced candied fruit on top. Makes 2 loaves.

Coffee Bran Kuchen

2½ cups sifted, all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
Few grains salt
2 cups firmly packed brown sugar
1 cup all-bran
½ cup vegetable shortening
½ cup butter or margarine
½ cup strong coffee
½ cup evaporated milk
⅛ teaspoon baking soda
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Whole pecan meats

Mix flour, baking powder, salt, brown sugar and bran. Cut in shortening and butter or margarine with two knives or pastry blender. Reserve 1 cup of this mixture for topping.

Combine coffee, evaporated milk and baking soda. Add to remaining flour mixture; mix well. Add beaten eggs. Spoon into 2 greased and floured 9-inch layer cake pans, filling half full.

Add cinnamon to topping mixture; sprinkle on top of batter. Scatter whole pecans on top. Bake at 375 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes.

★ ★ ★

Coffee Almond Date Loaf

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2-3 cup sugar
1-3 cup chopped blanched almonds
¾ cup finely cut, pitted dates
¼ cup minced candied ginger
1 cup strong coffee
⅛ teaspoon baking soda
1 egg, well-beaten
2 tablespoons melted shortening

Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Stir in almonds, dates and candied ginger. Combine coffee, baking soda, egg and shortening. Add all at once to dry ingredients. Stir only enough to dampen dry ingredients.

Turn into greased loaf pan, 8x5x2-inches or a straight-sided loaf pan, 4½ x 11¼ x 5¾-inch. Let stand 20 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees about 45 minutes.

Freeze Tomato Puree for Winter Cooking

. . . Frozen tomato puree is wonderful to have on hand, ready to use in soups, tomato sauces and casseroles with macaroni or spaghetti.

Using well ripened, tender, choice tomatoes, scald one pound at a time in one gallon of rapidly boiling water. Cool immediately in ice water. Freeze puree in ice cube trays, then remove cubes and pack and seal in moisture- and vapor-proof freezer containers or packages. Leave room at top for expansion.

Ripe Olives Are an Extra

Next time the salad is tossed greens, make the dressing "Creamy French Dressing." It's made in moments but be sure to chill it well before serving. Lending distinction to this salad dressing are small wedges of ripe olives—luscious and palate-alluring.

Creamy French Dressing

⅓ cup ripe olives
1 can (6 oz.) evaporated milk
2 tablespoons wine vinegar
½ cup salad oil
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon onion powder

Cut olives into small wedges. Measure all remaining ingredients into small bowl; beat with rotary beater until smooth and slightly thickened. Add olives and chill. Makes about 1¼ cups.

Honey Ham Glaze

Ever use half honey, half brown sugar for a ham glaze? Moisten the sweetenings with a little vinegar and add a suspicion of dry mustard; or use prepared mustard for the moistening ingredient.

Try Something Different for Topping on Ham Slice

Take a slice of precooked or fully-cooked ham, trim off excess fat and score fat around edge to prevent curling. Then? You have several choices. Brown it in a skillet, top with an orange marmalade mixture and cook, covered, until ham is tender. Or top it with a barbecued flavored mixture of ketchup, honey and chili powder then bake it in the oven. Or think up a topping of your own, perhaps a combination of peanut butter and marmalade.

Orange Ham Slice

1½ lbs. precooked ham steak, ¾" thick
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
1 tablespoon cooking oil
1 cup orange juice
2 tablespoons butter
⅓ cup orange marmalade
⅛ teaspoon ginger
1 tablespoon cornstarch

Trim excess fat from ham and score remaining fat around edge. Brush evenly on all sides with kitchen bouquet. Heat oil in skillet then brown ham on both sides, over moderate heat. Remove ham to serving platter.

In skillet, combine remaining ingredients and cook, over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Return ham to skillet and cook, covered, over moderate heat, until ham is thoroughly heated, about 20 minutes.

Serve immediately cut into 4 sections. Makes 4 servings.

★ ★

Chili-Baked Ham Slice

1½ lbs. precooked ham steak, 1 inch thick
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
2 tablespoons honey
1 tablespoon ketchup
½ teaspoon chili powder

Trim excess fat from ham and score remaining fat around edge. Brush evenly on all sides with kitchen bouquet. Place on heat-proof serving platter or shallow baking pan.

Blend together honey, ketchup and chili powder and spread evenly over ham. Bake in slow oven, 325 degrees, until ham is heated through, about 25 minutes. Transfer to heated platter if desired. Serve immediately cut into 4 sections. Makes 4 servings.

If you bake muffins or cup cakes often, it is worth having on hand paper liners for the pans.

The term "drawing room" is a contraction of the original "withdrawing room."

"How come everybody doesn't eat it?"

Not everybody knows this bread is sold only at A&P. But now you do. We guarantee you'll like it or your money back.

New Casserole of Beans, Tuna

Baked beans and tuna can be combined to make a wonderfully different casserole. This flavorful combination serves as a delightful luncheon or supper feature at any time of the year.

This tasty casserole is easy to prepare.

Baked Bean-Tuna Casserole

1 7-ounce can solid-packed tuna
2 1-pound cans baked beans
4 slices bacon, diced
½ cup sliced onions
½ cup chili sauce
¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 teaspoon mustard

Drain and break tuna into pieces. Combine tuna with baked beans, diced bacon, sliced onions, chili sauce, brown sugar, vinegar, and dry mustard. Turn into greased indivdual casseroles or 1½ quart casserole. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

JANE PARKER WHITE BREAD A&P

WHEAT GERM-ALMOND CUSTARD with fruit sauce is a real pretty dessert — and it's delicious, too.

Wheat Germ, Nuts Add Crunch to Custard

Every now and then we look for what might be called a change-of-pace dessert; something out of the ordinary that's sure to be a palate pleaser.

And today we have one.

It's a wheat germ-almond custard with fruit sauce. It's as pretty and as cool as an ice cream sundae, but it has a distinctively different taste appeal. It's a grand dessert for a small festive dinner or when a few friends are to drop by for lunch.

* * *

The almonds and wheat germ add a pleasing crunchiness to the custard, while the wheat germ contributes its wealth of nutrients, particularly B vitamins and iron. It's good eating that's good for you.

Wheat Germ Almond Custard With Fruit Sauce

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
¾ cup sugar
½ cup finely chopped almonds
½ cup wheat germ
1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
4 eggs, slightly beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
2½ cups milk, scalded
1 teaspoon vanilla
Frozen raspberries, peaches or strawberries, defrosted (if desired)

Melt butter or margarine. Add ¾ cup sugar and almonds; heat, stirring constantly, until almonds are lightly browned. Stir in wheat germ. Spread out in a fine layer on large pan; cool.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine eggs, remaining ½ cup sugar and salt. Stir in milk. Cook in top of a double boiler or in heavy saucepan, stirring constantly until mixture coats spoon.

Stir in softened gelatin and stir until gelatin melts. Cool; stir in vanilla. Chill quickly but do not allow to set.

Spoon alternate layers of wheat germ mixture and custard into 6 - ounce custard cups, starting with wheat germ mixture. Chill until firm.

Turn out into serving dishes and serve with fruit sauce, if desired. Yield: 6 servings.

Red Meat Leads List of Good Bargains

Harvest time somewhere all of the time, modern refrigeration and rapid transportation are reasons why Americans enjoy a variety of foods all seasons. As Michigan's 1963 production season draws to a close the sun is shining and crops are growing in warmer parts of the country.

Retailers report wholesale prices of pork and beef are slightly lower and this is reflected in retail prices. This is the season for very ample supplies of both these red meats and shoppers will find good values, from standpoint of price, each week through the balance of the year.

The District Consumer Marketing Agent suggests that homemakers study the food ads of stores where they usually shop. Know the meat cuts featured for the week, and select one or more if they please the family.

The featured cuts are generally 10 to 20 cents per pound less than the regular price for the same quality meat. For example, this week beef blade chuck ranges from about 40 to 60 cents per pound and blade steaks from about 50 to 70 cents per pound, depending upon the featured or regular price.

Notice that a number of pork cuts are receiving special emphasis. Whether your family prefers fresh or smoked pork there is some of each listed at special prices this week. For an old-fashioned boiled dinner, one may wish a plump fresh picnic at about 30 cents per pound. For that smoky flavor, check all kinds of ham.

FEWER HOGS

A Federal survey indicates that hog raisers plan to reduce the number of pigs in September, October and November. Since it takes 5½ to 6 months for a pig to reach market size, this cutback in pork supplies is expected to be noticeable by early spring.

As predicted earlier, the rains in California have influenced prices of some fresh foods, particularly lettuce and tomatoes. But there are plentiful amounts of seasonal vegetables at relatively low cost.

Lots of crisp cabbage at 5 to 8 cents a pound, or as low as 10 cents a head, is a good source of vitamin C when used raw in salads. Cauliflower is about as low in price as it ever is. White potatoes, sweet potatoes, and squash tempt one to buy each week.

The last of Michigan's apple crop is being harvested at a fast pace. McIntosh apples were completely harvested by the end of September, and about three-fourths of the Jonathans were off the trees.

Red Delicious harvest was nearing completion in the Southwest area and nearly half done in the West Central part of the state. Spy harvest will be finished a bit later. These four varieties make up about 75 per cent of the total crop.

Nursery School Children Enjoy Costume Party

What's new about a costume party for Halloween? Nothing. It's the one time in the year when all children want to get dressed up.

Phil Webb, Pontiac Press photographer, attended his first Halloween party Wednesday morning at Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

The four-year-olds in the cooperative nursery school were having their party.

Phil stayed in the background until the youngsters got used to his presence and ignored him. The pictures he took show children at their best.

No tricks were needed. And the results are all a treat for the reader.

Can't you hear Jane's crow of delight as she displays her finished pumpkin? Jane who dressed as an Indian for a Halloween party at her nursery school is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Myers of Orchard Lake.

After strenuous games a quiet story is in order and nursery school teacher Mrs. James Blain provides it. Not even a camera's flash bulb disturbs the attention of pirate Christian Cooper; tiger Julie Redner; Indian Jane Myers and Kelly Curren. All the children and Mrs. Blain live in Orchard Lake.

Jeffrey Moser who lives at Walnut Lake is in a pensive mood in spite of the jaunty hat he wore to the party. That's a crayon in his hand, not a cigar. Jeffrey is the son of the Charles J. Mosers.

Their Car Pool Is Swamped With Pint-Sized Invaders

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Three other mothers and I are in a car pool. My problem is not with them.

ABBY

It's with a mother who is not in our car pool. This mother has never asked if her children could ride with us.

She just sends them over every morning with instructions to get in the car. We have four children in our car without her two, and it is very crowded.

This mother has a car sitting in her driveway all day. Am I wrong to resent the nerviness of this woman?

How can I put a stop to it without getting a bad name with all the neighbors?

CROWDED

DEAR CROWDED: With a car in her driveway, and lacking the manners to ASK if her children may ride with you, this woman should be asked not to send her children over for a ride because the car is filled to capacity without them.

DEAR ABBY: I was painting my house on the outside and my neighbor's cat (she is one of those mushy types) got paint smeared all over herself.

It wasn't my fault. Now this neighbor thinks I put paint on her cat intentionally, but I didn't.

Should I apologize, or shouldn't she have taught her cat not to bother people when they're painting?

GEORGE

★ ★ ★

DEAR GEORGE: People can't resist bothering people when they're painting, so don't expect more from an animal.

Curiosity has killed many a cat. Your neighbor was lucky. Hers was only decorated for bravery. Apologize.

---

CONFIDENTIAL TO ROG: The difference between a prejudice and a conviction is that you can explain a conviction without getting mad.

Mrs. Williams Heads Sorority Second Year

Mrs. Wallace Williams of Voorheis Road is serving her second year as national president of Sigma Beta Sorority. She was re-elected last weekend at the organization's annual convention in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Williams has been a member of Pontiac's Psi Chapter for 15 years and served as its president prior to running for national office. She has also served as national treasurer, recording secretary and vice president.

THREE DECADES

Sigma Beta was founded 30 years ago in Fort Wayne, Ind. and has since grown to include more than 1,000 members in chapters from Washington, D. C. to Phoenix, Ariz.

★ ★ ★

For a decade it has been providing high school scholarships for Indian boys and girls in Arizona. At the present time $7,500 is contributed annually.

★ ★ ★

The sorority also provides a $7,000 fellowship for the American Hearing Society and two scholarships for students studying in the mental health field.

MENTAL HEALTH

Locally, Psi Chapter contributes both service and money to the Michigan Mental Health Association and the Pontiac State Hospital. It was instrumental in acquainting the students of the junior high schools with career opportunities in the mental health area.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Williams is office manager for the Standard Electric Company and she and her husband belong to both the Viernes and Canterbury dance clubs. She also enjoys summertime recreation with the Business Girls Golf Association.

He Should Drive His Date Home

Q: My son had a party here at home last Saturday night. All the guests were coupled off. At the end of the evening, my son asked a friend to drive his girlfriend home.

She resented this very much and thought it was my son's place to see her home. He has called her several times since the party and she refuses to speak to him. He is very upset over this.

I think she is acting very childish and that as long as she had someone to take her home, it wasn't necessary for my son to leave the house, drive all the way to the other side of town with her, and then back again when his friend lived only a short distance from her and was willing to take her home.

Was he wrong in not personally seeing her home?

★ ★ ★

A: If she had been merely one of the girl guests at the party, it was not at all necessary for your son to take her home, but as his own girlfriend, it is quite understandable that she expected him to do so and resented being sent home with someone else.

On the other hand, if the party was still going on when she left, he could hardly have left his guests to take her home and she certainly should have understood.

Q: Some of the guests who will be coming to my wedding have never met my fiance. Should I introduce him to them as they greet us in the receiving line, and if so, what do I say?

★ ★ ★

A: You introduce him as they come up to you, saying, "John, this is Aunt Mary"; to an acquaintance, "Mrs. Jones, this is John," or very formally, "Mrs. Smith, may I present my husband."

Club Hears Speeches

The November calendar for the Village Woman's Club, Bloomfield Hills, will open Monday at 1:30 p.m. with George Bird's lecture titled "Looking at Architecture."

Mr. Bird is Curator of Decorative Arts at Ford Museum.

The Armchair Travelers of the club will again hear Kathryn Diamond and Sara Lickley, Birmingham teachers. They will show slides and lecture on their trip to Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand, at 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday.

Minor Wine Thomas, Curator of Decorative Arts at Ford Museum will speak on the "Evolution of American Garden Design" at 1:30 p.m. Nov. 18.

Dr. Robert Frehse will speak on "What Women Can Do in the Field of Human Relations" at 10 a.m. Nov. 22.

The purposes of the Village Woman's Club are educational and philanthropic. Lectures are open to non-members.

County Women Help AFS Sale

Oakland County women will assist with a preview sale sponsored by the American Field Service of Metropolitan Detroit, Tuesday, in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. A. O. Thalacker.

Handmade sweaters, baked goods, holiday cards and decorative items, also stocking stuffers, will be sold from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Area officers serving this year on the board of the AFS are Mrs. John Mann, Royal Oak, president; Mrs. John Bagby, Mrs. Roy Pitts both of Birmingham and Mrs. James Carmel, Bloomfield Hills.

Board member from Pontiac is Mrs. Ben Hawkins. Chapter president for Pontiac Northern High School is Mrs. Max Kerns and Mrs. R. S. Nelson for Pontiac Central.

The spring festival, April 18, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, is the annual fund-raising event for the AFS. Proceeds are sent to national headquarters in New York to be used for the scholarship program.

Opera Helpers Have Luncheon

Mrs. Ernest A. Jones of Bloomfield Hills will open her home Friday for a kick-off luncheon for those working on arrangements for the Metropolitan Opera's visit to Detroit next May.

About 35 chairmen and committee members will meet with Mrs. Jones, who is general chairman for the Franklin, Bloomfield Hills, and Birmingham area.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

My Trick AND Treat Diet does just what it says. It tricks about five of your extra pounds and also gives you some treats in food. It does this in just seven days.

* * *

Women have told me over and over again that they really enjoyed this diet because it includes foods which are not usually allowed and has variety.

Many women linger on with about five pounds of overweight. Even this little can make a great difference in a woman's feeling of slimness and zest. In order to enjoy your Thanksgiving dinner without feeling guilty, why not lose those five pounds now?

Since this is a short diet and I have already included quite a few little treats for you it is necessary that you follow the menus exactly as they are planned if you wish to lose five pounds in seven days.

* * *

Here are the menus for Friday:

BREAKFAST

Three-fourths cup dry cereal
Four ounces whole milk
Two teaspoons sugar
One-half banana, sliced
Black coffee

LUNCHEON

Salad (12 5-inch asparagus spears, cut in pieces. Two hard-cooked eggs and six green olives cut in pieces. Two or three tablespoons tomato reducing dressing)
Two rye wafers
Eight ounces skim milk

DINNER

Four ounces of baked fish (brush with just a touch of olive oil flavored with angostura bitters, plus a little lemon juice)
Two-thirds cup spinach (flavar this with a sprinkling of savory, or vinegar)
One small baked potato
One orange

* * *

If you would like to have this complete quickie diet which gives you a rapid loss of five pounds, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Trick AND Treat Diet booklet to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Lost 15 Pounds But Just Can't Continue To Lose."

Decorations Workshop to Be Held

Members of Cranbrook Branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, will conduct a holiday decorations workshop, Monday, in the Michigan Bank Building, Birmingham.

* * *

The hostesses, Mrs. Henry C. Botsford and Mrs. Dean K. Johnson will serve a sandwich luncheon following the morning session which opens at 10 o'clock.

* * *

Past president, Mrs. Harold I. Tanner, attended the recent meeting of the National Council, WNF&G Association, in New York City.

* * *

Attending the Michigan Division fall council meeting Wednesday in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial were Mrs. James Tenney, Mrs. Laurence Herman, Mrs. Walter F. Kuckleman, Mrs. Tanner and Mrs. C. E. Dalton who was a hostess.

Brush Away Stains

You can brush (instead of wipe) stains away with a spray aerosol that leaves an absorbent white powder on the surface of the fabric. It can be used on all delicate colorfast fabrics.

WCTU Meets for Dinner, Talk

The Pontiac Unit of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union gathered Tuesday for cooperative dinner in the Church of the Brethren.

Pastor L. W. Blackwell spoke on temperance as "Opportunity Unlimited."

* * *

Mrs. Eldon Sweazey, Mrs. George Stiles and Mrs. Richard Green presented musical numbers. Also participating in the program were Mrs. J. H. Moon, Mrs. Roy Riley and Mrs. Roy Fosbender.

Tile Covers Walls

Asphalt tile, commonly used for floors, also makes a practical wall covering as it is completely washable.

Fatal Home Fires

More than 6,000 persons die from residential fires and explosions each year, the U.S. Children's Bureau report.

Budget Hard to Set on Uncertain Salary

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

DEAR Miss Feeley: My husband will be getting out of the service soon. With his training and knowledge, he should be able to make at least $100 a week clear, if not more.

MARY FEELEY

This is the problem: How much should we figure on spending for food, clothing and such? Up to now, we have depended mostly on the commissary and PX and also the base hospital for our food, clothing and medical care.

We have five children, ages one month to 7 years. If at all possible, we would like to put some money aside for the children's education. We are paying $19 a month for life insurance (family). Our car, as well as other small bills, will be paid for by the time we get out, so we'll be starting out fresh.

We would appreciate it if you could help us set up a budget in keeping with today's cost of living.

Mrs. A.B.P., San Antonio, Tex.

* * *

Dear Mrs. P.: I'm not going to set up a "probable" budget for you at this point, as I think it would be a mistake to let any income figure get too firmly planted in your mind. You don't actually know just how much income you will have.

Granted that your husband's qualifications should fit him for a $100 plus weekly salary, and that the chances are good that he'll get it. But if you think in terms of a budget organized to fit that sum and then find you have to cut it down all along the line, the psychological effect isn't too good.

You're apt to feel that you won't be able to manage. And your husband might feel that he'd let you down through his inadequacy. It's a literal fact that you could budget a $200 or $300 a week income — and feel perfectly certain that you couldn't cut down anywhere even if you tried!.

So for the time being, just keep in mind that no matter what your husband's income turns out to be, you will want to keep your basic living expenses at not more than 58 per cent of that amount. The basics are food, clothing, and housing. Try to save from 5 to 15 per cent of your income if you can.

* * *

And remember to include car operating costs in any spending plan you set up. It's an easy item to trip over, because so many people never keep accurate account of gas, oil, tires, etc. You're going to have to pay for them anyway, so don't be caught by surprise at the end of the month.

Starting out fresh and debt-free gives you a wonderful advantage — and you'll need it, when those shopping and medical facilities you enjoy now are suddenly out of reach! But since you're taking a sensible approach already to living within your income, you'll manage.

If you like, write me later when you know exactly what the score is and I'll be glad to help you shape a budget that will be realistic.

(You can write to Mary Feeley in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions of widest interest will be answered in future columns).

Special Dress Rehearsal Planned by Will-O-Way

A special dress rehearsal of "My Three Angels" by Sam and Bella Spewack will be presented at 8:30 p. m. Sunday by Will-O-Way Apprentice Theater.

The dramatic trade school is inviting new applicants to view a final run-through of the three-act comedy to be presented Nov. 9 at the Town and Country Club in Southfield.

Reservations for the performance and other appointments can be made by calling Celia Merrill Turner of Bloomfield Hills, director of Will-O-Way Apprentice Theater.

New registrations for adult and children's drama classes are being accepted at the school through Nov. 10.

Children's weekly Saturday classes and adult drama classes on Wednesday and Thursday nights are offered as part of 30 hour courses ending Feb. 23.

Another course trains organists and pianists in the special art of accompanying musicals.

Cozy Slippers Fit All

By URSULA DuBOIS

Each day should be started with planning and exuberance. The excuse of a few more minutes in bed may be used constructively. Make an outline in your mind of chores for the day, which to do first, second, and so on. By having a plan laid out in an orderly fashion, you will be able to accomplish much more.

In this way, there will be additional time to spare for your knitting especially as the holidays are getting closer.

Cold feet are a thing of the past. The boots and slippers that Pat Woodell of CBS Television is displaying are always in demand.

The instructions are for children and for adults. Trim them in many different ways so that no two pairs look alike. Made in a Nylon yarn, they are quite durable and can easily be washed by machine.

The Boots & Slippers Pattern No. 36 may be obtained by sending 50 cents by check, coin or money order to: Ursula duBois, The Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., Box 3307 Van Nuys, Calif.

Buffing Brass Will Help Finish

NEW YORK (UPI)—You can "re-do" dirty or tarnished brass or brass-finish hardware without disturbing any "antique" finish.

First, advises the Cleanliness Bureau here, remove and oil the screws. Then combine vinegar and salt in a ceramic dish and apply this mixture to the hardware with a soft brush.

Finally, suds, rinse, and dry each piece carefully.

Leather Stars in City, Country

Women's leather fashions are paradoxically becoming more "formal" as well as in line with the country-to-city look of leather . . . Antelope, Hermes leather, English calf suede (rough textured), reptiles, alligator, tortoise-shell finished calfskin, all being used for daytime and also for evening clothes. The shape here is tailored but loosely rounded at the back with crosscut section in both the body, skirt and sleevs of the costume.

Wayne-Oakland Championship Bout Tops Slate

Wolves Travel to Northville in Title Scrap

Lakers-Barons Finale Set for WBHS Field; Holly at Milford

One year ago the Wayne-Oakland League was preparing for its title showdown at the traditional West Bloomfield-Bloomfield Hills game.

The battle of the unbeatens at Hills ended in a 19-19 tie and half a championship apiece.

★ ★ ★

Again it is the weekend of the Lakers-Barons clash and the title game in the W-O race; but this time the championship is being decided at Northville where Clarkston will use the visitors' side of the field.

Other final league and season contests will have Holly at Milford and Brighton at Winless Clarenceville.

Clarkston is driving towards its first league title since 1955. In fact, the Wolves have enjoyed very little success in the league since that championship year.

LEAN TIMES

Last season they won only one of nine games all year and fell to Northville, 60-6. (The year before it was 52-6, giving the Mustangs a 112-6 advantage the last two seasons.)

But the young Wolves that coach Ralph Kenyon used last season are ready now. Only a 7-6 surprise at Holly mars their first seven starts.

And they would like nothing better than to balance out the point spread from the previous two seasons.

Northville can match Clarkston's 5-1 league mark but it has a non-league defeat also on its log. The Mustangs "Fly T" formation will present some new challenges for Kenyon and his staff to defense.

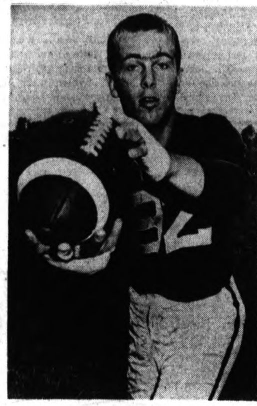
★ ★ ★

Balancing the wide-open plays of the spread formation advocated by coach Ron Horvath at Northville is the power running inside of fullback Ron Rice, a 14-touchdown back this season. Rice ranks third in the county scoring race with 94 points.

★ ★ ★

West Bloomfield and Milford will be favored to win their Friday games and join the Wolves-Northville loser (assuming there isn't another tie) in a second place triangle.

Brighton has been in trouble since it lost quarterback Buzz Davison, but Clarenceville has been struggling without its star runner Monroe Ashley. Neither player figures to be ready for the season finale Friday.



Pontiac Press Photos

SCORING THREATS—Clarkston's Wolves have several threats to score entering tomorrow night's title clash at Northville. The favorite target for quarterback Dan Craven's passes is left end Ken Miskin (82), the team co-captain who also does the punting and plays a corner linebacker slot. Another all-purpose player is running back Dan Jenks (right), who can run power plays inside, take pitchouts and go wide, or catch the short swing pass.

Central Needs Victory to Escape SVC Cellar

Homecoming . . . the last chance for a league win before the home fans . . . and the last game at Wisner Stadium before the annual Pontiac Northern clash!

What could be a better time for Pontiac Central's Chiefs to untrack their defensive and offensive shortcomings and produce a fine gridiron effort!

★ ★ ★

There is no better time in the opinion of PCH coach Paul Dellerba, Central fans and Swamis Vogel and Craig (on the Press Grape Vine football picks).

The Chiefs will entertain Flint Southwestern at 8 p.m. Friday night on the Wisner Stadium turf. The visitors last week produced win No. 1 for the campaign against Saginaw.

In winning they bounced Central into the Saginaw Valley Conference basement for the first time this season, although PCH is winless in the first six games.

Despite the repeated losses in league play by both teams, some relative strength indications have been detected in comparative scores.

HAVE EDGE

The Colts looked better against most league teams, except Bay City Handy. They played a scoreless tie against Handy; while PCH did score once in settling for a 6-6 tie with Handy.

The Colts look strongest on defense, which also is Central's chief attribute this year (along with desire and hustle). PCH has a fair running attack that appears better than Flint's.

Neither team has shown much through the air, although PCH's quarterback Jerry Murphy is a definite threat to become hot one game and cause problems for the opposing defense.

The home team did not play last week and many of the annoying injuries in the backfield have had a good opportunity to clear up.

★ ★ ★

Tackle Dick Northcross has been hampered with a leg injury and will see limited duty Friday. Junior lineman Norm Coates at 205 pounds is expected to fill in.

Carl Williams, Willie Horton and Jim Crump will team with Murphy in the backfield.

"I think we can win this game," coach Dellerba commented after scouting Southwestern's win over Saginaw. "But we can't make any mistakes."

Just how well the young Chiefs have learned their lessons after six weeks in the school of hard knocks should be evident Friday night.

Cannon Expected Back

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Houston Oilers have announced that halfback Billy Cannon will be reactivated in time for the Friday night Oiler-Boston Patriot American Football League game.

Walled Lake Faces Unbeaten Foe

Prep Rating of Vikings at Stake

State ranking and pride will be at stake Friday night on the Walled Lake gridiron when Plymouth arrives for the annual clash with the Vikings.

★ ★ ★

In a situation much similar to two years ago, the Vikings will risk their unbeaten mark against a once-tied visiting foe. The Rocks have a 6-0-1 mark, compared to Walled Lake's 6-0-0 log.

Two seasons ago both were unbeaten and league champions going into their late season joust, and the Vikings rode on, 26-6.

Walled Lake clinched its league title (the Inter-Lakes) two weeks ago; and Plymouth is the kingpin, again, in the Suburban Six Conference.

STUMBLED ONCE

Belleville is the only team not to end up on the short end of the score against Plymouth this season.

★ ★ ★

Last year Walled Lake had only lost once when it journeyed to Plymouth and took a 33-15 beating. The Vikings fumbled seven times and lost the ball every time in that start.

They do not figure to do it this time. The home team wants to protect its No. 8 rating in the weekly Associated Press state Class A prep poll.

Plymouth, meanwhile, is ranked 12th and the Vikings appear to have a solid stepping stone to the top ten.

★ ★ ★

Game time is 8 p.m. at Walled Lake.

Southpaw Koufax Wins MVP Award

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southpaw Sandy Koufax of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers, doesn't think a pitcher works often enough to win a Most Valuable Player award. But just the same he treasured the award today whether he agrees or not.

★ ★ ★

Racking up another of baseball's most honored salutes—he has the unanimous choice for the Cy Young Trophy recently as the major leagues' finest pitcher—Koufax captured the vote as the MVP in the National League.

The 20-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association voted him the prize.

This one wasn't unanimous, but the handsome, dark-haired Sandy beat out Dick Groat of the St. Louis Cardinals by a commanding 237 points to 190.

The Brooklyn-born Koufax, who lives here now, said, "oh, thank you."

★ ★ ★

He added, "I didn't think I was going to win it because I didn't think a pitcher would win. I am especially proud because I believe this is the most important award in baseball."

★ ★ ★

Sandy is only the seventh pitcher to be voted the MVP award in 33 years. The last National League pitcher to win it was Brooklyn Dodger Don Newcombe in 1956.

★ ★ ★

When told of his winning the award, Koufax expressed surprise that Groat didn't get more voting points. Milwaukee outfielder Hank Aaron was third with 135 points and Dodger relief ace Ron Perranoski was fourth with 130.

★ ★ ★

Koufax reportedly got $42,000 in 1962. The figure $55,000 has been mentioned for 1964. If true, this would make Sandy the highest-paid man in Dodger history, exceeding by $10,000 the reported salary of Drysdale in 1963.

Lo, and Behold! The Swami Association has gone co-ed.

The men's football world just isn't safe anymore. That other sex has taken over The Press' football contest and has now demanded equal rights in the Swami Association.

Mrs. William Nesbitt, swami-elect after winning the $500 bond in the football contest, has dared to challenge the swamis this week at the Grapevine.

By a vote of 3-1 by the Swamis (lone dissenter was Swami Vogel who fears his top spot is in jeopardy by a new challenger) Swami Nesbitt, (or is it Swamae) joins the crystal ball gazers.

Lions Defense Still Good; No Offense

DETROIT (AP) —Don't blame the Detroit Lions' defense. It leads the National Football League in defense by a wide margin this week — especially in frustrating passes.

But the offense ranks 12th in the 14-team league. That leaves the Lions about in the middle of the won-lost standings, tied for third in the western division with a 3-4 record.

The Lions are almost 200 yards stingier than any other team in giving up passing yardage. Opponents have passed for just 699 yards against them in seven games. The next best pass defense figure is 885 for St. Louis.

Six teams have better defensive records against rushing, but in the totals, Detroit's 1,570 yards yielded is the best by a 130-yard margin.

The Lions' pass defense is "really amazing," said coach Goerge Wilson. "We've always figured that allowing a team only 100 yards (a game) on the ground was a really good performance. You just don't expect to hold a passing attack down to that figure."

★ ★ ★

The offense, however, is more than 900 yards behind league-leading St. Louis, with only 730 yards gained on the ground and 1,075 in the air.

UNDER-HANDED MANEUVER — Boston's Tommy Heinsohn (15) slips his arm under that of Detroit Pistons' Jackie Moreland to bat away loose ball in least night's NBA game at Convention Arena won by the Celtics, 108-102.

Celtics Dump Pistons; Eye League Win Mark

By The Associated Press

The champion Boston Celtics need 11 more victories to equal the longest winning streak at the start of the season in the National Basketball Association. It's a long haul, but the way the Celtics have been going they might do it.

With Johnny Havlicek and Tommy Heinsohn leading the attack the unbeaten Celtics won their fourth straight Wednesday night with a 108-102 march over the Detroit Pistons.

In other games the Philadelphia 76ers defeated the Baltimore Bullets 111-108, the St. Louis Hawks won their fourth in a row by walloping the New York Knicks 121-104 and Cincinnati beat the Los Angeles Lakers 115-107. The defeat knocked the Lakers out of first place in the Western Division. St. Louis took over.

LONG STREAK

The old Washington club reeled off 15 straight back in November and early December, 1948, to set the record for the longest winning streak at the start of a season. Boston is playing one game at a time and not worrying about any records, but the Celts won 17 straight during the 1960 season, so it isn't something they haven't done before.

★ ★ ★

Havlicek threw in 22 points for Boston and Heinsohn 19 as the Celts pulled away from the Pistons in the second half. Havlicek's four baskets that put Boston out in front 79-71 was the turning point. Bailey Howell had 21 points for the Pistons.

Hal Greer scored five points in the last 27 seconds to give Philadelphia its triumph over Baltimore. In all Greer scored 39 points on 17 baskets and five free throws. Terry Dischinger led the Bullets with 29.

★ ★ ★

Billy McGill played his first game with New York after being traded by Baltimore Monday, but his 15 points weren't enough to stave off St. Louis. Cliff Hagan, with 28, and Bob Pettit, with 24, led the Hawks who turned the game into a rout after a close first period.

★ ★ ★

Elgin Baylor's basket put Los Angeles ahead 89-87 in the last quarter, but Cincinnati rallied to spoil the Lakers' home debut before 14,533. Jerry West of Los Angeles was high for the game with 37 points. Oscar Robertson got 36 and Wayne Embry 30 for the Royals.

Howe 'Hex' to End in Halloween Tilt?

DETROIT (UPI) — If Gordie Howe was a superstitious man, he wouldn't even go on the ice tonight — it being Halloween and all.

He has some mighty good reasons for believing that a hex has been put on him in his attempts to nail down the all-time mark for goals scored in the National Hockey League at 545. And playing on a night given over to witches and goblins is just tempting fate.

The Red Wings play host tonight to the New York Rangers and the Detroit team, made a little uneasy by the pressure of Howe's campaign to write his name indelibly into the record books, has been playing below-par hockey.

The Wings started off fast in the NHL but now are in fifth place because of a Ranger win over the Boston Bruins last night.

★ ★ ★

A crowd of 13,000-plus spectators in Chicago Tuesday night was brought to its feet when Howe shot a whistler from 40 feet out that deflected off the stick of Norm Ullman and sailed into the Black Hawk net. They all thought Howe had made the goal but the official scorekeeper awarded it to Ullman and gave an assist to Howe.

NOT GOAL

Since the start of the season Howe has been saying that the record now held by former Montreal great Maurice (Rocket) Richard, was not the one he was shooting for.

"My main goal in hockey is to be able to play 20 years," Howe said at the beginning of the season. "I hope I can get 35 goals this season because of the bonus arrangement I have with the club."

Olympia tonight will be jammed for the first Detroit meeting this season between the Rangers and Wings.

★ ★ ★

A New York victory would strengthen the Rangers' hold on fourth.

★ ★ ★

Detroit has lost three out of its last five games and much of their stiffness can be laid directly to the pressure of Howe's quest for the record.

★ ★ ★

If Howe doesn't break the record tonight chances are that hometown fans will not see him do it because the Wings' next two games are on the road.

You know that he'll eventually get it just as sure as there'll be wax on your windows tonight, but the suspense is almost unnerving.

MAKES BID — Mary Ann Christoff made a strong bid for a Bowlerama qualifying berth with a 658 series at West Side Lanes last weekend. Her 574 actual pins will be teamed with Don Martell's actual score (when he bowls) in the Mixed Doubles Actuals portion of the tournament.

Girls or Football?

HOUSTON (UPI) — Cullen high school football coach Herman Goldberg believes girls and football do not mix and has warned his players they will be booted off the team if they even speak to the fair sex in school corridors.

The team has lost five of its six grid games this season.

New Target in Bowlerama Doubles

Entrants in the Mixed Doubles Actuals phase of the seventh annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama now are gunning for a notable target.

Last weekend Monroe Moore and his partner Peg Carter, bowling on different days at different keg establishments, rolled a combined actual total of 1259.

This puts them 70 pins ahead of the next highest total, the 1189 rolled by Jerry Gohl and Marvel Ann Szot.

More than 35 teams of men and women have signed up for the doubles competition. A trophy and a cash prize will be given the winners at the special Bowlerama awards dinner the first week of December.

ELIGIBILITY

There are still four weeks for entries to this year's tournament. Men and women who live or bowl in sanctioned leagues in Oakland County are eligible.

All receive a 70 per cent handicap in the individual competition, and are able to bowl in the doubles and house team event at no extra cost.

The female entries in the tournament this year have made a good start toward placing some qualifiers. Topping the women's early scores was the 685 total by Marvel Szot at Howe's Lanes.

Mary Ann Christoff bowled a 658 at West Side Lanes, Helen Smith hit 644 at Collier Lanes, Janice Keiser leads all qualifiers at Maple Lanes with 631, and Peg Carter is in the running at 300 Bowl with a 627.

Qualifying at 12 county keg establishments will resume this weekend. Squads are slated to begin Saturday at the following times and sites:

11:30 a.m. — Airway Lanes; Noon — 300 Bowl; 1 p.m. — Montcalm Bowling Centre; 1:30 p.m. — North Hill Lanes; 2:45 p.m. — Wonderland Lanes; and 4 p.m. — Howe's Lanes.

SUNDAY

Sunday's times and sites include:

11:30 a.m. — Lakewood Lanes; 1 p.m. — West Side Lanes and Huron Bowl; 1:30 p.m. — Cooley Lanes; 2 p.m. — Collier's Lanes; and 2:30 p.m. — Maple Lanes.

Bowlers expecting to bowl at any house this weekend are requested to contact the establishment of their choice in advance to facilitate the administrative arrangements necessary to conduct qualifying squads.

All entrants are reminded to indicate on their entry any house team they are representing or the doubles partner if entering the Mixed Doubles Actuals.

★ ★ ★

First prize in the individual competition is $700, guaranteed by The Press. The top eighth of the total scores at each house will qualify for the Dec. 1st finals at 300 Bowl.

New Haven 'Up' for Title Game

New Haven's hopes for its first outright title since 1955 will rest on a successful 'Rocket' launching Friday night against Anchor Bay.

The Tars will move into New Haven trailing the league leaders by one game. An Anchor Bay win would give both teams a 6-1 mark and a share of the conference crown.

The Rockets shared the title in 1961 and 1962 and are rated fifth among Class C-D teams in the high school prep football poll. The Tars are 15th on the list.

"Our boys are fired up," New Haven coach Ward Young said Wednesday. "They're ready to play tonight."

Friday's Southern Thumb action marks the close of the 1963 season for all teams except Armada. The Tigers close next week against Richmond.

OTHER GAMES

The Thumb lineup for tomorrow has Armada at Brown City, Memphis at Dryden and Almont at Capac.

The New Haven-Anchor Bay tilt could turn into a real fireworks display.

Both teams have high-scoring attacks featuring strong running and passing.

The Rockets have amassed 245 points — 35 a game — in bowling over seven opponents, and the Tars have posted a 6-1 mark along with a 26-point-a-game average.

Anchor Bay's offense is stacked around Al Godin and Tom Stanek, with Godin's 73 points placing him third on the area scoring list.

The Rockets can counter with Dwight Lee, the area scoring leader with 103 points, whose broken-field running and passing have been disastrous for Thumb foes this season.

KC Cancels Minor Pact

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Officials of the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League said Wednesday that the Kansas City Athletics have canceled their working agreement with the Portland baseball club.

MSU FOE — Michigan State defenders will have to stop the hard running of Rick Reichardt, Wisconsin's starting right halfback, Saturday to make it a happy Homecoming at East Lansing. Reichardt is the big man in the Badgers backfield, standing 6-3, weighing 205 and possessing speed.

Wisconsin Working on Passing Attack

MADISON (AP)—It can't be a vintage year for Wisconsin football anymore. Ohio State again took care of that. But the saddened Badgers haven't lost hope of hanging onto their Big Ten conference title.

"We have to win the rest of them and get some outside help in shooing off the Buckeyes," is the way Wisconsin coach Milt Bruhn sized up the rugged job ahead today.

The Badgers found themselves in the same position at this point last season. They bounced back from a 14-7 loss to Ohio State, drove over four remaining opponents, and copped an undisputed championship.

MSU NEXT

Bruhn still was galled by the Ohio State setback as the Badgers drilled for their coming engagement at East Lansing.

He complimented the Buckeyes on their effort but left no doubt that he felt his own troops had shorted him. Some rough practice sessions obviously are ahead.

A revitalization of Wisconsin's passing attack is scheduled as an early order of business. Quarterback Hal Brandt, whose left-handed pitching had been expected to be a major offensive weapon, threw the ball 15 times against the Buckeyes. Only six shorties found their mark. Two others were picked off by OSU defenders.

The running corps that chalked up 263 yards against OSU might have to operate Saturday without halfback Carl Silvestri who is nursing an injured ankle.

Even without Silvestri, Wisconsin is deep in men who can go with the ball. The roster includes Lou Holland, the squad's top rusher; Rick Reichardt, and Ron Smith.

Ups Scoring Record

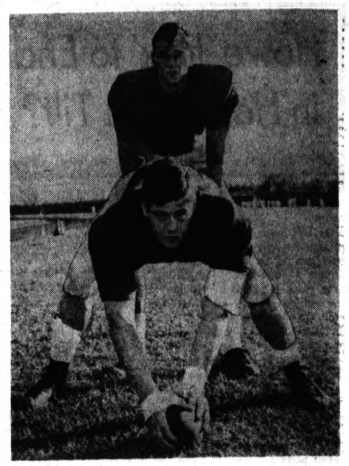
Over the years Fred Glover has scored hundreds of goals to set an all-time record in the American Hockey League.

The 35-year-old veteran, now in his 16th AHL season as player-coach of the Cleveland Barons, upped his goal record to 436 Wednesday night by scoring twice as the Barons edged the Pittsburgh Hornets, 3-2.



AP Photofax

REHEARSE — A good snapback of the football is vital to the start of most football plays and Michigan's Brian Patchen (front) and Bob Timberlake are practicing this art this week prior to Saturday's clash with Northwestern at Ann Arbor. Patchen has moved up to the No. 1 center post with the recent injury to Tom Cecchini, who is out for the season.

2nd Straight for Rudolph?

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Mason Rudolph seemed at the peak of his game today as the 29-year-old Tennessean opened his bid in the $25,000 Alamaden Open to become the first golfer to win two straight PGA events this year.

After capturing the Fresno Open by three strokes at 275 last Sunday, Rudolph fired a six-under-par 66 in the pro-amateur prelude to the Almaden event over a course measuring 7,045 yards.

Only Jerry Steelsmith of Glendale, Calif., did better Wednesday as he carved a 65 for his day's work. Joe Campbell, Don Whitt and Bo Wininger all were at 67 with Jerry Pittman and George Knudson at 69 as par took a beating.

Former Lion Rookie AFL Player of Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Kemp, a $100 waiver steal from San Diego by the Buffalo Bills a year ago, has been named the Player of the Week in the American Football League by the Associated Press.

Kemp, former Detroit Lion rookie, was grabbed by the Bills last season when waivers were asked after he had suffered a finger injury. Although he still has trouble with the second finger on his right hand, Kemp had himself a big night Saturday in Buffalo's 28-21 victory over Boston.

Rangers Move Up on Goyette Goals

By The Associated Press

Phil Goyette and the Boston Bruins go together like ham and eggs.

Goyette, who plays for the New York Rangers in the National Hockey League, equalled a league record with four assists in one period a week ago Sunday when the Rangers beat Boston 5-1 at Madison Square Garden.

★ ★ ★

The Bruins came back to the Garden ice Wednesday night and this time Goyette scored three goals and assisted on Vic Hadfield's winning goal with only 50 seconds left. The 4-3 New York victory boosted the Rangers into a tie for third with the Montreal Canadiens, who lost to the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-3.

COSTLY DEFEAT

The defeat in Toronto was a costly one for Montreal since the Canadiens lost the services of goalie Gump Worsley for at least several weeks. Worsley suffered a pulled hamstring muscle in his left leg in the second period and was replaced by rookie Jean-Guy Morissette.

★ ★ ★

"I felt good," said the modest Goyette, who gave much credit to Andy Bathgate for setting up the scores. "It's a pleasure to play with Andy, we've gotten to know how we will react."

4 ASSISTS

Bathgate got assists on all four New York goals. Goyette rapped the puck home the first time at 11:20 of the second period, the second time at 6:16 of the last period and collected his third at 17:07 before assisting with Bathgate on Hadfield's winner at 19:10.

New York is at Detroit in the only game scheduled tonight.

4 College Powers Face Road Perils

By The Associated Press

The dangers of the road face four of the nation's top ten college football teams this week, and Navy coach Wayne Hardin has turned psychologist in an effort to beat the hazard Saturday at Notre Dame.

Fourth-ranked Navy, 5-1-0, is a favorite over the thrice-beaten Irish, 2-3-0, but the slick-talking coach wouldn't mind if it was the other way around. Underdogs have a way of coming up for these traditional battles.

Probably in the hopes of preventing a letdown by his Middies, following their 24-12 conquest of all-conquering Pitt last Saturday, Hardin has painted a gloomy picture of what it means to be a visiting team playing in the shadow of the golden dome.

"It's a definite disadvantage to play on that campus," said Hardin Wednesday.

"You're looking for the Gipper (legendary halfback George Gippy), Knute Rockne, and others that you know aren't really there. But it still bothers you."

★ ★ ★

"At gametime there are 60,000 people in those high stands. They seem to be sitting right on top of you, and they're all yelling "Notre Dame." It's a lot of pressure to play under."

GHOST WARNING

Having warned his players of the ghosts they'll have to face, Hardin then sent them through a workout aimed at routing the live Irish.

Only a few weeks ago, lightly regarded Southern Methodist tumbled the Middies, 32-28, at Dallas.

Texas, 6-0-0, the nation's No. 1 team and one of the four major college all-winners, faces the same SMU Mustangs in the Dallas Cotton Bowl. Third-ranked Mississippi, 4-0-1, invades the lair of the Louisiana State Tigers, 5-1-0, at Baton Rouge, La., and eight-ranked Wisconsin, 4-1-0, journeys to East Lansing, Mich., for a joust with the resurgent Spartans, 3-1-1.

★ ★ ★

The other six members of the elite top ten are at home this week, and tickled silly the schedule gives them the break.

That's especially true for Illinois, 4-0-1, the No. 2 team which entertains Purdue, 3-2-0; fifth-ranked Auburn, 5-0-0, which has Florida, 3-2-1, as its guest; seventh-ranked Alabama, 5-1-0, which has Mississippi State, 4-1-1, coming for a visit, and 10th-ranked Pitt, 4-1-0, which has plenty of trouble heading its way from the traveling Orangemen of Syracuse, 4-1-0.

★ ★ ★

Ninth-ranked Ohio State, 3-1-1, probably doesn't need the advantages of home cooking against Iowa, 2-2-1, but isn't complaining. Sixth-ranked Oklahoma, 4-1-0, appears to have a softy this year in Colorado, 2-4-0.

Liston, Clay Bout Near

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Champion Sonny Liston and challenger Cassius Clay will sign on Wednesday at Denver for their heavyweight title fight in February at an unannounced city, it was learned today.

The fight will be staged on either of the two Mondays, Feb. 10 and 17, or on one of the two Tuesdays, Feb. 11 and 18.

Cities that will bid for the 15-round fight will include Las Vegas, Chicago, Boston, Baltimore, Atlantic City and Minneapolis.

Head Injury Halts Colt Palmer Pyle for 1963

BALTIMORE (AP)—Offensive guard Palmer Pyle of the Baltimore Colts has been sidelined for the season after an encephalogram revealed the recurrence of a head injury.

Pyle, former Michigan Stater who missed the last eight games of 1962 because of dizziness and fainting spells, was placed on the reserve list Wednesday by the National Football League club.

The four-year pro was given a clean bill of health in training camp, and all examinations were negative until the last one. Doctors recommended he be sidelined rather than risk further injury.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

ROCHESTER, Minn. — Doug McLeod, 154, Grand Rapids, Mich., outpointed Sugar Boy Mando, 158, Rochester, Minn.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Joey Limas, 149½, Albuquerque, outpointed Aman Peck, 152, Tampa, Fla., 10.

Seaholm Eyes EML Crown at Roseville

Maples May End Title Quest Friday

Birmingham Seaholm will invade Roseville Friday evening with a high state ranking and a chance to bring home its first Eastern Michigan League championship in eight years.

Seaholm rode to the top of the EML heap in 1955, and the title-hungry eleven is priming for its showdown with the Wildcats tomorrow night.

The Maples hold the league lead with a 5-0-1 record and hold down the No. 5 spot in the Class A high school prep football poll.

Looking over the EML schedule, Royal Kimball journeys to Ferndale, Mt. Clemens is at East Detroit and Hazel Park entertains Port Huron.

Seaholm needs a win to sew up the league crown. Kimball, at 5-1, could take the championship with a decision over Ferndale if the Maples stumble at Roseville.

But coach Carl Lemle and the Maples could end all speculation with a favorable performance against the rugged Wildcats.

HEFT RETURNS

The return of Ken Heft is expected to bolster the Maples' offense. Heft, leading the team with 67 points, sat out last week's game with a bruised muscle.

The coaching staff said Wednesday that Heft would definitely be in the lineup Friday, and this announcement could be bad news for the Wildcats' defense.

Roseville's defensive alignment was cracked last week with the loss of defensive tackle Jim Griner who suffered a knee injury in the loss to Ferndale.

With the exception of Griner, coach William Sherman said the Cats are in top physical shape.

The Cats' defense ranks third behind Ferndale and Seaholm, giving up an average of 11.1 points a game.

Shouldering the defensive duties are twins Jerry and Larry Matlow, at guard and tackle, along with tackle Augie Gambino.

The Ferndale-Kimball clash is a "must" for both squads, with the loser dropping into third place.

Auto Club Agrees to Use of Emblem

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The U.S. Auto Club, race sanctioning body, agreed Wednesday to sell the use of its emblem to the Detroit Motor Club, with pensions for race drivers as a possible result.

The contract, approved by the USAC directors, will permit the Detroit club to use the USAC emblem and initials and a slightly different name — U.S. Automobile Club. USAC is to get 50,000 shares of its stock and a minimum of $10,000 a year.

The Detroit Club has insurance franchises in 13 states and now operates out of Indianapolis headquarters.

Henry Banks, USAC director of competition, said, "I feel quite certain that our growth and the projection of the USAC image will be stepped up greatly through the Automobile Club's service to the motoring public."

U.S. Net Team Favored in Cup Bout at India

BOMBAY, India (AP) — The tennis court for the interzone Davis Cup finals between the United States and India beginning Saturday has been especially prepared to favor Indian star Ramanathan Krishnan.

Indian sports writers have been saying so for weeks. Since it arrived and began practice last week the American team has agreed.

* * *

Nevertheless, the Americans are favorites to beat India. The winner meets Australia late in December for the battered old silver cup that marks national supremacy in tennis.

The newly built clay court is very slow.

"It would be at the bottom of the list for fast courts if it were in the United States," U.S. nonplaying captain Robert J. Kelleher said today.

Michigan Boxer Wins

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Doug McLeod of Grand Rapids, Mich., scored a split decision Wednesday night in his middleweight bout with Sugar Boy Mando of Rochester, Minn.

There were no knockdowns in the 10-rounder but McLeod, 154, took the nod by showing a bit more aggressiveness. Mando weighed 158.

Homer Sparks Tigers

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Willy Horton smacked a two-run homer in the first inning to lead Detroit to a 4-3 victory over Minnesota in the Florida Winter Instructional baseball league Wednesday.

1934 Pontiac Cycle at Raceway Sunday

A 1934 Pontiac powered motorcycle will compete Sunday at International Raceway on a racing card that also includes super stock cars.

* * *

Last weekend's results saw Gary Springer of Pontiac's Push Button Engineering concern take top stock honors in a 1963 super stock Dodge at 114.70 miles per hour.

Ed Hollis of Oxford was the top eliminator of the day with a 152 m.p.h. clocking.

O-A Battle for Third Tomorrow

Fitzgerald has an easy assignment remaining before tucking away the Oakland A championship, but a possible third-place battle is on tap in Friday night action that marks the end of the 1963 grid trail for four league squads.

Bidding for the third spot will be Troy and Rochester in a match set for 8 p.m. on the Falcons' field.

Other O-A tilts have Clawson at Avondale, Warren Cousino at Fitzgerald and Madison at Lake Orion.

Closing the season will be Troy, Clawson, Madison and Cousino.

Fitzgerald has rolled up a 6-0 league mark and winless Cousino is given little chance of halting the Spartans' title express.

Rochester sports a 3-2 loop record and wins over Troy and Avondale would put the Falcons into third place on the O-A ladder.

★ ★ ★

Halfback Carl Stefanski has sparked the Falcon attack with 60 points, good enough for eighth position in the Oakland County scoring race.

Avondale will probably see a lot of Brodie Burton tomorrow night.

The speedy Burton is second in the county scoring race and needs nine markers to pass Royal Oak St. Mary's Don Wells, the leader with 111 points.

Lake Orion's Dragons can wrap up fifth place in the league with a win over Madison.

Kettering, Waterford in Tuneup Battles

Neither Kettering nor Waterford is likely to look past this Friday's grid foe to their annual clash next week, although some advance planning probably is in the works.

Kettering will observe its first Homecoming at the new varsity football field Friday afternoon against Berkley; while the Skippers will seek Lapeer that night.

Oxford, which shares the Tri-County League title with the Captains, will journey to North Branch for a meeting with an old South Central League opponent.

Romeo, another Tri-County League team, has Lutheran East visiting Friday night for the Bulldogs' final home game.

TOUGH FOE

Berkley has had its ups and downs this season, tying Pontiac Northern for the runner-up slot in the Inter-Lakes. The Bears handed Northern a 21-13 beating two weeks after PNH topped Kettering, 20-12.

But the Captains have improved since that defeat. They ran up the school's biggest victory margin in the key 60-0 win at Mount Clemens L'Anse Creuse last Saturday.

They have a 5-2 mark at present and two closing victories would add icing to a rather happy picture. Last week's triumph assured coach Jim Larkin of his first winning record in Kettering's three varsity seasons.

Waterford coach Stu Thorell, on the other hand, was assured of a losing record when I-L champion Walled Lake blanked the Skippers last week.

LONE WIN

The township team has only a win over Rochester in the second game of the season to show on the plus side. It hasn't scored in the last two games, but did get a scoreless tie with Southfield.

★ ★ ★

Nonetheless, the Skippers could beat Lapeer with a good effort by their offense. The Panthers are closing their season against Waterford, though, and a win would enable them to break even at 4-4.

Lapeer's high point was a 13-7 success against Kettering.

Romeo will be seeking at least a break-even record when it plays host to Lutheran East. The Bulldogs are 3-3 with two games remaining, and must win or tie to have a shot at a winning record for the season.

Last year they toppled Lutheran East, a non-league foe, 14-12.

Oxford has lost only to Clarkston and Kettering this season in seven starts. The Wildcats were playing in the Tri-County League for the first time this season.

The Oxford eleven clashed regularly with North Branch while in the South Central League, including a 20-0 triumph last year. North Branch has a 3-4 mark at present and must beat Oxford to have a chance to finish with a winning record.

Advice Pays Off

MONROE, Mich. (AP) — After Frank Broderick of Monroe bowled a 300 game Wednesday night Pete Rayle, a bowler on the opposing team, sought his advice. Rayle came back with a 299 of his own. Broderick averages 194, Rayle 163.

Journey to Mexico City

U.S. Keg Team Off for World Meet

CHICAGO (AP)—A delegation of the best amateur bowlers in the U.S. heads for Mexico City today to compete in the fourth World Bowling Tournament.

The tournament opens Nov. 3 in the resort city of Cuernavaca. Competition moves to Mexico City on Nov. 7 and the international champions will be crowned there Nov. 10.

No U.S. bowlers have appeared in the three previous World tournaments, all sponsored by the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs. What are the North Americans chances in their international debut?

CHANCES GOOD

Good, if recent record is any indication.

Only last week, Les Zikes, Jr. a member of the U.S. team, won the Chicago match game championship. Jim Stefanich, at 21 the youngest member of the squad, finished second.

Zikes and Stefanich earned their berths on the U.S. team as members of the Old Fitzgerald team of Chicago which won the American Bowling Congress regular team division title last spring in Buffalo, N.Y.

Otto Niehus, captain of the ABC champions, was 16th at Chicago. To hear Niehus tell it, the U.S. team faces tough competition from the 15 or more other nations expected to be represented.

"We're just amateurs," he says. "The guys on my team bowl only about six games a week. I'll bet the teams from those other countries have been getting plenty of practice."

BETTER AVERAGES

Despite Niehus' fears, the records show otherwise. Very few of the bowlers from other nations average over 190. Nearly all the U.S. bowlers on the team average 200 or better.

Other members of the U.S. team include Harry Lippe, Chicago; Andy Hudoba, Youngstown, Ohio; Fred Deleloo, Oneonta, N.Y.; Bus Oswalt, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Pat Porrini, Philadelphia, and Jim Schroeder of Ottawa, Ohio. Ed Kawolics, ineligible to compete because he is a professional, will coach the men's team. All members of the men's team.

All members of the men's team were selected because of their performances in the "amateur" division of the ABC tournament.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. women's team includes Helen Shablis of Detroit; Dorothy Wilkinson of Phoenix, Ariz.; and Ruth Redfox, Ann Heyman and Ruth Southard of Toledo, Ohio. These women were the outstanding performers in the Woman's International Bowling Congress championships last spring in Memphis, Tenn.

Other nations expected to send teams include Great Britian, Venezuela, Puerto Rico, Peru, France, Sweden, Switzerland, West Germany, the Netherlands, Finland, Denmark, Columbia, Chile, Panama, Costa Rica and Mexico.

FIA Approves 13 U. S. Races

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Thirteen U.S. stock car races have been given full international approval by Federation Internationale de L'Automobile.

Approval by FIA makes top drivers from the U.S. Auto Club and Sports Car Club of America eligible to compete in the NASCAR sanctioned events.

This year only NASCAR races listed by FIA were at Riverside, Calif., Charlotte, N.C., and Daytona Beach.

In FIA headquarters at Paris, the following 1964 NASCAR stock car races were listed as full international events:

Jan. 19 — Riverside, Calif., 500 miles.
Feb. 23 — Daytona Beach, 500 miles.
April 5 — Atlanta, 500 miles.
April 19 — N. Wilkesboro, N.C., 250 miles.
April 26 — Martinsville, Va., 250 miles.
May 24 — Charlotte, World 600 miles.
June 7—Atlanta, Dixie 400 miles.
July 4 — Daytona Beach, Firecracker 400 miles.
Spet. 7 — Darlington, S.C., Southern 500 miles.
Sept. 20 — Hillsboro, N.C., 150 miles.
Spet. 27 — Martinville, 250 miles.
Oct. 11 — N. Wilkesboro, 250 miles.
Oct. 18 — Charlotte, National 400 miles.

West Germany's Trio Battling U.S. Riders

WASHINGTON (AP)—A see-saw battle is shaping up between the big U.S. equestrian team and West Germany's youthful trio of international jumping riders in the Washington Interional Horse Show.

Today, thanks to the high riding of Frank Cahpot of Wallpack, N.J., the Americans are out in front.

The Germans, who won on opening night, think its just a matter of luck so far, says Hermann Schridde, 26-year-old 1963 Aachen jumping champion, who is doing all right here too.

DOUBLE WIN

Cahpot, a farmer and leather goods executive, scored a double victory Wednesday, taking the $1,000 Prix Potomac, a high-jumping puissance event, and the bonus point Ecuador Challenge Cup from tough competitors of the U.S., Canadian, Argentine and West German riding teams.

All the scoring in this show is individual but the international aspects prevails, nevertheless.

Chapot, riding San Lucas, was the only one of 17 puissance entries able to leap a 6-foot high wall barrier and a 5-foot-7 wide spread fence.

It boosted his point score to 12. His nearest competitor is the German's Alvin Schockemuehle, 1963 Berlin jumping champion, with eight.

This is the third day of the six-day Washington show and tonight's international jumping—the qualifying round for the coveted President of the United States Perpetual Cup—will find the going tougher than ever.

No Evidence Seen of Mafia in Outstate

LANSING (AP) — The chairman of the Senate subcommittee probing organized crime in the U.S. is quoted as saying there is no evidence to show the so-called "Cosa Nostra" crime syndicate operates in major outstate Michigan cities.

The statement was made public by prosecutor Lee Farhat of Ingham County, who said he asked U.S. Rep. Charles Chamberlain, R-Mich., to inquire whether the committee had evidence to support the claim.

Farhat took issue last month with a remark attributed to Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley that Cosa Nostra operates in "every Michigan city over 50,000, possible except Ann Arbor, whether the authorities know about it or not."

Farhat has demanded that Kelley supply prosecutors with all information he may have to back up the statement, but says Kelley has "refused to answer."

In a letter to Farhat, Chamberlain said he asked Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate subcommittee, whether there was evidence to show Cosa Nostra was active in outstate Michigan cities.

He said McClellan answered:

"This subcommittee has no information bearing on the truth of this statement.

"In pursuit of our study of the field of organized crime, we would be interested to learn if this statement is, in fact, true.

"If anything comes into your possession indicating that this is a fact, I should appreciate your communicating with me concerning it."

Chamberlain said he has written to Kelley, asking his cooperation in making available for the subcommittee any information he may have.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Leon Cohan said the attorney general's office is not prepared to say at this time whether it has anything it might want to bring to McClellan's attention.

"We ordinarily work with the Department of Justice," he said.

Farhat termed Kelley "an arrogant publicist" and said he "has not even given me the courtesy of a response" on supplying information to prosecutors.

Kelley said earlier his remark regarding organized crime in Michigan cities was misconstrued by a reporter.

Farhat's statement, the attorney general said yesterday, is "intemperate and should be read in light of the fact that he nominated my opponent in the last election."

Vatican Debate Is Near on Broader Bishop Power

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council neared today its first debate on proposals to decentralize the government of the Roman Catholic Church.

★ ★ ★

A schema or topic entitled "Bishops and Government of Dioceses" was to come before the 2,200 council fathers. It would set the worldwide assembly of prelates on the path toward practical application of theological principles on bishops' powers already discussed in the schema "de ecclesia."

★ ★ ★

The government schema looks at concrete ways to relieve the Vatican Curia, the church's administrative nucleus, of duties that bishops abroad are capable of carrying out on their own.

★ ★ ★

Test votes Wednesday on amendments to "de ecclesia" showed that more than 90 per cent of the council prelates want that schema to spell out positively the idea that bishops as a body should share in responsibility for the entire church.

DE ECCLESIA

In the new schema the council is taking up the practical applications that flow from the principle contained in "de ecclesia."

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Gregory Baum, an Augustinian theologian from Toronto, said the concentration of power in Rome was a result of the church's medieval struggle to be free of interference from temporal rulers.

★ ★ ★

"We have become so used to considering the Pope sole ruler and teacher of the church that the bishops appear as heads in their dioceses — and nothing more," said Father Baum.

What Song Is Red China Singing Now?

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Some odd sounds have been coming out of Peking lately.

Among them has been the seemingly frank announcement that "it may take a few more years" before China is ready to explode an atom bomb.

NEWSOM

This would suggest a delay until at least 1967, with another 10 years necessary after that for mass production and construction of a delivery system.

Accompanying that disclosure by Red Chinese Deputy Premier and Foreign Minister Chen Yi was the admission that Chinese industry at the moment simply is not up to the job.

It would seem a galling admission of weakness by the normally boastful Communist Chinese leadership, and a question arises as to why make it at all and what is to be gained by it.

But there is more.

Last September, Liu Shao-chi, president of Communist China and chosen successor to Mao Tse-Tung, said in North Korea, "It is impermissible for any socialist country to be the first to use nuclear weapons under any circumstances ..."

On Oct. 1, Peng Chen, mayor of Peking said that a world war could be averted through united effort and "concerted struggle" by the peoples of the world, including the United States.

Together, they seem to add up to a reversal of Peking's traditional stand that force is the only means of settling disputes with the Western world.

Then, in Moscow this week, a Red Chinese delegate to the 13th Soviet Trade Union Congress went even farther.

COEXISTENCE

Red China, he said, favors peaceful coexistence and continued friendship with the Soviet Union. He added that:

"Atomic arms are terrible and for this reason we have to forbid them."

It came close to an endorsement of the partial nuclear test-ban treaty which has been under unceasing Peking attack.

Just what lies in back of the Chinese statements must be a matter of speculation. But there are a number of interesting avenues of approach.

The Red Chinese deputy premier and foreign minister accompanied his admission of Chinese atomic unreadiness with a firm declaration that China never would knuckle under either to Nikita Khrushchev or the United States.

NEW STRATEGY

This would suggest a strategy by-passing Khrushchev and an attempt to promote Sino-Soviet ties on a people-to-people basis rather than through governments.

Chen Yi also disclosed another year's delay in Red China's five - year plan. For it, he blamed withdrawal of Soviet aid, the U.S. blockade and natural calamities.

And therein may be the key to Red Chinese utterances so at variance with past performance.

Chinese agriculture is improving but for both agriculture and industry she needs help which must come other than either Soviet Russia or the United States. And it must come from the west.

Therefore it is to her advantage to play down temporarily both her potential as an atomic power and as an advocate of violence.

'Wheel' to Leave Police Force

The only Pontiac policeman ever credited with tracking down a hit-and-run bicyclist retired today after 35 years with the department.

Sgt. Telton E. Rogg, 58, now laughingly recalls the incident in 1936.

"But it was serious. A 60-year-old man was badly hurt.

"I arrested a 17-year-old boy several hours later, but we ran into trouble in court. There was nothing on the books covering bicycles, so the judge finally ordered the boy to help his mother do the chores."

* * *

Rogg is the last member of the original police motorcycle division to leave the force.

He was assigned to the unit about a year after joining the department in 1928 and continued there until the mid-'30s.

COMEBACK

"I'm a great believer in motorcycles, or 'solos' as we used to call them," said Rogg. "I would like to see them come back and be used on traffic details."

"In a traffic jam, they can get in and out, whereas a car just has to sit there like the rest," Rogg said.

"At one time, it was my specialty to escort the Pontiac Central Band to Wisner Field and then back downtown to let off steam if the team won."

* * *

Just before World War II, Rogg worked out of City Hall and was the investigator for all licensing.

BOOTLEG MILK

"They used to have us check on milk bootleggers, guys who would deliver milk before they were supposed to deliver under the law," said Rogg.

"Milk could not be delivered to a home before 7 a.m. and before 5 a.m. to commercial stores."

Though Rogg leaves the department officially today, he has been using compensatory time since September "to relax and do a little traveling in the state."

When he left, he was the sergeant in charge of the third platoon.

* * *

He said he and his wife Mabel plan to continue traveling, probably across the country, fishing and hunting. They live at 154 N. Genesee.

They have a son, Rodney, a school teacher in Rochester, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Ward of Farmington.

The United States has the shortest public school day among the leading nations of the world.

Frostbite Prevention: Keep Extremities Dry

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

The best way to prevent frostbite is to live in Coral Gables or Beverly Hills. If this is not convenient, the next best way is to keep your feet dry.

If your feet sweat much, it is difficult to keep them dry; but you will get some helpful suggestions from the free pamphlet, "Excessive Sweating."

To get it send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

* * *

Getting the feet wet by stepping into a deep puddle or by walking, working or playing in snow or slush rarely if ever causes frostbite because vigorous physical activity maintains good circulation which prevents both frostbite and blistering. Usually it occurs on the heels and borders of the feet, but sometimes on the fingers, ears and nose.

RUB GENTLY

It is wise to rub the affected skin gently, if at all, because too vigorous friction may cause blistering, which makes infection more likely.

One with frostbite should avoid close proximity to radiator, stove or fireplace. Such heat makes the skin burn and itch intensely.

To prevent frostbite of the feet soft woolen stockings are advisable, or at least woolen feet on cotton, silk or nylon stockings. Do not wear tight stockings or shoes.

* * *

To relieve intense itching and burning gently sop on a lotion made of two-thirds calamine lotion and one-third 5 per cent phenol (carbolic acid) solution — the druggist can sell 5 per cent carbolic acid solution without prescription.

CALCIUM AIDS

It is not just my notion but the belief of various physicians of years past that a suitable dose of calcium daily combats or tends to prevent frostbite. The only difference between the old-timers and me is that they called calcium medicine and I call it food.

* * *

It is well to remember the emergency treatment of frostbite commended by the late Vilhjalmur Stefansson. Place the bare hand under the clothing in the armpit to warm it, and hold the warmed hand on the frostbitten spot for a minute or so.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Opening lead—♥ 2

By OSWALD JACOBY

The holdup in bridge does not consist of putting a gun to the victim's head and demanding his money or his life, but the result may be the same.

JACOBY

East won the opening lead with the king of hearts and returned the three spot to dummy's ace. Declarer played a low club from dummy and East played the eight. This wasn't to show strength, but rather the start of an echo to show a doubleton. West recognized the echo and ducked south's 10 of clubs and the following play of the king.

Nothing daunted South, he led his king of diamonds, but West started a second hold up play by letting that king hold the trick. This time East played the deuce to show three diamonds so West held up again on the queen.

This series of holdups effectively deprived South of his game and is an illustration of fine partnership.

It is also an illustration of poor dummy play. Do you see how South should have played the hand?

It was all right to start the clubs after winning the second heart, but South should have played the king, not the ten. West would still duck, but now South should go right after the diamonds. West could duck the king and queen, but would have to win the third diamond. A heart lead would knock out South's jack, but now South would be able to lead his ten of clubs and overtake with dummy's jack in the event that West ducked also. This would give him his third diamond trick, while if West took the second club South would have access to dummy for both minor suits.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Friday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Time which features change, entertainment . . . opportunity for romance. Full Moon emphasizes need to meet people, to assert yourself—also highlights possessions, budget and potential profit.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Moon in your sign spotlights peak of cycle. You are in the center, can be seen and heard. No time for being excessively shy. Use time, talents wisely. You can accomplish whatever you want.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Understand restlessness with status quo. You want greater knowledge, confidence, advancement. Know this; and realize all cannot be accomplished in a day. Stress PATIENCE.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Full Moon falls in section of chart related to aspirations—your illusions and dreams. Don't be afraid of expressing yourself to friends. Communicate; make social contacts.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Best to complete projects before stopping for entertainment. Watch out for one who promises much, but delivers nothing. Key is RESPONSIBILITY. Handle important details yourself.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 23): Stress originality. Find new methods. Moon highlights curiosity, philosophy. You "meet yourself" today. What you "see" depends on maturity, wisdom.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): If you plan too carefully, dull evening could result. Means welcome surprises, changes, a break from the routine. Enjoy conversation with new friends. Avoid becoming upset over details.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Full Moon spotlights public relations, reactions to your efforts. Personality highlighted. There are some delays indicated; they will be insignificant. You handle these best with a smile.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Previous restrictions can be shoved aside, but you must also exercise diplomacy. Move confidently ahead. You will receive overdue credit. Good time now for relaxation, enjoyment.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Day when you could fall in love with love! Means you are not apt to be ultra-practical. Know this, realize you have defined some relaxation, but don't take yourself too seriously.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Give consideration to request made by associate. You learn through generous approach. Vital suggestion should come your way, if you are alert, you will turn ideas into profit.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Don't be in too much of a hurry. Time best spent in informative conversation, reading. Avoid scattering forces . . . and your nerves. Let others do most of the talking!

Trend Still Low

Blue Chips Moving to Upside

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market weathered some further selling and recovered enough to show a mixed pattern early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional.

★ ★ ★

In the morning, most of the blue chips which fell in yesterday's correction continued to yield ground but, as time went by, many began to climb above their lows and some canceled losses.

Meanwhile a variety of secondary stocks showed considerable strength.

LOWER TREND

The trend remained mildly lower among steels, motors, rails, tobaccos and rubbers. Mail order-retails and chemicals were a bit higher on balance. Oils, airlines and drugs were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .5 at 290.2 with industrials off .7, rails off .2 and utilities off .4.

The price level improved somewhat subsequent to compilation of the averages.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange in quiet trading.

★ ★ ★

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Government bonds steadied after two days of decline. Trading was light.

New Fighting in North Africa

Cease-Fire Agreed for Algeria, Morocco

RABAT, Morocco (UPI) — Fierce new fighting raged today between Algerian and Moroccan forces along their disputed border despite a cease-fire agreement that comes into effect at midnight (6 p.m. Pontiac time) tomorrow.

Moroccan King Hassan II returned home from Bamako, Mali, where he signed the cease-fire arrangement yesterday with Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella.

As he received a wildly enthusiastic welcome and was hailed as "the nation's hero" because Moroccans were told last night that the cease-fire was a triumph for Hassan. The king's government announced the new battles.

★ ★ ★

An announcement said that Algerian troops launched attacks at three points in the western Sahara in the past 24 hours and said fighting is still going on.

BORDER AREAS

The battles took place to the north of Colomb Bechar, Algeria, near the village of Ich; at Djebel El Hammar in the Ksar Es Souk Province 180 miles southwest of Colomb Bechar; and at Ain Char, about 80 miles west of Figiug.

All are points along the disputed border in areas where unexploited mineral resources reportedly have been found.

Government sources said all three attacks were pushed back and that the Algerians suffered heavy losses.

Early Grain Prices Steady to Strong

CHICAGO (AP) — Except for a little weakness in new crop wheat contracts, the grain futures market was steady to strong today during the first several minutes of transactions on the board of trade.

Soybean futures again attracted the most active support and prices moved well over three cents a bushel in spots on buying credited almost entirely to speculators toward establishment of long positions.

Rye gained two cents or more and the feed grains mostly small fractions in a somewhat more mixed trade.

Should Help Balance

Dollar Drain Slowed

BY SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

DAWSON

NEW YORK — The flow of American investment dollars abroad, especially to the European Common Market, is slowing down.

Once hailed as a good thing both for the American and European economies, such spending of late has become a worry to those seeking to cut U.S. deficits in world dealings.

Washington reports that threats of new taxes are holding down sales of foreign securities to Americans keeping such hot money at home and trimming the loss of U.S. dollars and gold.

The big rush of U.S. corporations to build plants overseas appears to have tired. And a larger proportion of such expansion is being financed abroad rather than with additional Yankee dollars.

AUTO FIRMS SLOW

The auto industry seems to have completed most of its European ventures. The chief remaining increase in spending there now is by U.S. chemical firms. The total of U.S. manufacturing expansion in Western Europe this year is a bit below last year, and American firms tell the U.S. Department of Commerce that next year's spending will be down still more.

Part of the slowdown in American business spending in the Common Market may be due to increased opposition there to what they fear will be American domination of their industries.

But part of the lag may be due to the signs that the big growth in the European economy in recent years is peaking out, too.

Most interesting to Washington monetary officials is that this year the worldwide investments of U.S. manufacturing, petroleum and mining companies is calling for only 16 per cent additional funds financed from U.S. sources. The rest of the cost is being borne by earnings and funds generated abroad by previous U.S. investments there.

IMPORTANT NOW

This is important just now because the United States is trying to trim the flow of dollars abroad and to raise the influx of funds from abroad. It has been running a deficit for so many years now that the big piles of dollars held by foreigners threaten U.S. gold reserves and could, if the situation should worsen, cast doubts on the value of the dollar.

But earnings from existing foreign ventures are financing 60 per cent of this year's expansion, and borrowings abroad 24 per cent. Also overseas profits of American concerns returning to this country are helping hold down the deficit.

While the buildup in American investments overseas seem to be slowing now, it is still a sizable figure—an estimated $4.9 billion this year, compared with $3.7 billion in 1959.

But the Commerce Department says that a survey of large companies show they plan to cut back to $4.5 billion in 1964.

SMALLER WORRY

If money generated overseas pays the major share of that expenditure, and if other earnings abroad flow back to the United States, American investments could be a minor worry for Washington officials seeking to hold down the net outflow of dollars.

The major problems would be the outlays for foreign economic and military aid and for maintenance of U.S. military forces abroad, plus the danger of any sudden rush of short-term money to more lucrative markets. Washington has been fighting the last by keeping short-term interest rates high here and by asking Congress for a retroactive tax on sale by foreigners of foreign securities to Americans.

Q) "Would you give me your opinion of the following tax-exempts: Triborough Bridge Authority, Massachusetts Turnpike, Port of New York Authority, New York State Power Authority, New York Thruway, and Florida Turnpike." S. P.

A) You have selected a pretty fair group of tax-exempts.

I believe I should point out to you, however, that all of the bonds you have listed are what is known as special revenue bonds. They are payable solely from revenue derived as a rule from toll charges and are not a charge on the general revenue of a state or city.

Although these bonds have a fine record, it is a fact that the Chicago Calumet Skyway Toll Bridge issue went into default this year, when the revenue failed to meet fixed charges.

For safety and diversification, I would substitute for two of these issues, State of California 3.10s on a 3.25 basis (when issued).

★ ★ ★

Q) "We have $3,000 in a savings account earning 4 per cent, and these are all the savings we have. My husband is presently thinking about going into business on his own. We have three children. Do you think it is wise for me to invest the $3,000 in stocks?" O.S.

A) I suggest that you leave your money right where it is.

If your husband does go out on his own, he may find it necessary to channel nearly all the money he can right back into his own business. Your household income in this instance would be restricted and occasional dips into savings account might be necessary.

If the $3,000 were invested, you would be taking from yourself the one source of funds always fully available in an emergency. And by investing you would be placing your money under risk — because all investments, no matter how good, contain an element of market risk.

Insurrection and Slavery Subjects of Dixie Trials

AMERICUS, Ga. (UPI) — A state prosecutor testified in federal court today that he wrote a letter and made a tape recording in which he indicated insurrection charges against five jailed civil rights workers were brought mainly to stop racial demonstrations.

By United Press International

Slavery and insurrection, anachronisms in 20th Century America, were the subjects today of federal court study in South Carolina and Georgia.

A three-judge court in Americus, Ga., will be asked to halt prosecution of insurrection charges against five young Negroes and whites.

The five have been held in jail without bond since their arrests last August during racial demonstrations in that city.

The slavery charges were ordered placed against Robert Moultrie Cook, a prominent South Carolina tobacco farmer, by a federal grand jury yesterday.

CHARGE THREATS

Federal attorneys charged that Cook used threats to force Max Roy McKenzie to work on his farm for $3 per day and kept half of his pay to "pay off some sort of alleged debt."

The civil rights workers in Americus are charged under a Reconstruction Era statute which provides that death may be imposed for violation of it.

★ ★ ★

The suit seeks immediate release of the five and asks the court to prohibit officials from intimidating or obstructing efforts to demonstrate peacefully.

This second phase of the petition which seeks to halt interference with demonstrations could set a precedent for legal action in civil rights disputes all across the South.

Pontiac Man Bound Over in Rape Case

A Pontiac man charged with raping a 51-year-old woman 13 months ago was bound over yesterday to Circuit Court for arraignment Monday.

Louis Milton Jr., 31, of 404 Bagley appeared before Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum. Milton failed to meet the continued bond of $50,000 and was returned to jail.

A second charge of rape against Milton was to have been heard yesterday, but time prevented it.

★ ★ ★

The preliminary examination on this charge of raping a 31-year-old mother of two after dragging her from her home Sept. 14 was put over until next Wednesday.

THIRD CHARGE

Milton also is waiting trial in Circuit Court on a third charge of rape. He is accused of raping a woman in Bloomfield Township April 13.

No trial date is scheduled.

U. S. Approves Branch of Community Bank

Approval for a new Community National Bank branch in Pontiac Township was announced yesterday by U.S. Controller of the Currency James J. Saxon.

The new branch will be located at Walton and Pontiac opposite Oakland University.

Bank officials say the branch will serve the growing university complex and nearby residential areas.

Hiker Gets Rest for Feet on Return Trip

TOLEDO (AP) — Michigan's hiking grandfather, Marion Perason, gave his feet a rest today as he headed back toward Sault Ste. Marie in a motorcade.

The 64-year-old Grand Rapids businessman arrived at nearby Sylvania, Ohio yesterday, completing a 385-mile walk from the Michigan Soo.

He made the 11-day hike to call attention to the opening tomorrow of the final stretch of the Interstate 75 freeway — a wide ribbon of concrete that will provide nonstop motoring from the Ohio line to the Soo.

Chairman Seen for GOP Plank

Expect Wisconsin's Rep. Laird for Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the 1964 Republican Platform Committee is expected to be Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin who once labeled himself a "creative conservative."

Laird, 41, now serving his 12th year in the House, was vice chairman of the 1960 platform committee headed by Charles Percy of Chicago, currently a candidate for the governorship of Illinois.

* * *

Republican National Chairman William E. Miller is expected to announce the 1964 chairman within a month.

It is understood that Laird's name now is being cleared with Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, and other potential candidates for the presidential nomination, and with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

SHORTER PLANK

If Laird is named, it is likely that the platform presented to the Republican National Convention for approval next year will be far shorter than the 1960 platform which was some 35,000 words in length.

* * *

Laird was chairman of the joint House-Senate committee named in 1962 to write a statement of Republican principle and policy which was later unanimously adopted by House and Senate Republican members and by the Republican National Committee.

* * *

This statement of GOP philosophy was boiled down to some 2,000 words and it is expected that Laird, as chairman of the platform committee, would use this as a basis for the new platform.

'Sin-Bin' in 'Yum Yum' Flick

Latest Films Go Heavy on Sex

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — In its dogged pursuit of the sex-comedy market, Hollywood has been forced to come up with more inventive devices for use in the ancient plot of boy-chases-girl.

1. In "Wheeler Dealers," Texan James Garner drives a convertible that automatically dispenses highballs, including ice and chaser, for his pretty passenger.

2. In "Under the Yum Yum Tree," wolf Jack Lemmon operates a garish "sin-bin" to seduce his female visitors with such gimmicks as double violins that pop out of a chest and play by means of machinery.

THOMAS

The similarity between the two films ends there. "Wheeler Dealers" is a rollicking satire on modern America. "Yum Yum" is one long leer.

* * *

"Wheeler Dealers" takes aim at the world of finance, modern art and other targets. It scores hits with hilarious regularity. Garner epitomizes the sharp operator who can parlay fast transactions, tax breaks and borrowed money into tidy profits.

The plot has to do with his campaign with the Wall Street jungle and with a lady security analyst played by Lee Remick. It is played with such a light touch and at a fast clip that it is a thorough delight.

GATHERS STEAM

Jim Garner continues to gather steam with his family career, playing a character that ironically harks back to his Maverick beginnings. Lee Remick was never more winning, and the stars get brilliant support from such veterans as Phil Harris, Louis Nye and Chill Wills.

Critic Philip Scheuer has raised the question: What is happening to Jack Lemmon's film image? In the last few pictures he has played a dipsomaniac, a cop turned pimp, and a man who allowed his apartment to be used as a love nest!

Now in "Under the Yum Yum Tree" he portrays a lecher and a peeping Tom.

It is true that he has played some of these roles marvelously well. But "Yum Yum" offers Lemmon little to do except to be relentlessly lascivious. The frail plot—about an engaged couple who try to share an apartment platonically—offers a scattering of laughs. The treatment of sex is so heavy-handed as to negate the efforts of such attractive performers as Lemmon, Dean Jones, Edie Adams, Imogene Coca, Paul Lynde and Carol Lynley.

'Old' Modern Masters

Art Sold for $1 Million

NEW YORK (UPI) — A mysterious Midwestern art collector bought five major masterpieces of modern art last night in the $1,121,300 sale of fashion designer Larry Aldrich's "old" modern masters.

Aldrich unloaded 57 of his collection of 260 modern paintings at the Parke-Bernet auction galleries to stake himself to purchases of paintings of younger artists. He said he "no longer was interested" in such "old" painters as Picasso, Chagall and Miro.

"I want to help the new painters who are coming along by buying their paintings," said the slim, elegant fashion leader.

The competition was spirited, but the midwestern collector, who refused to make his name public, paid $271,000 for paintings by Vuillard, Chagall, Gauguin, Kirchner and Miro. The man of mystery paid a near-record $110,000 for Gauguin's "The Washerwomen."

* * *

Top price in the sale was $137,500 paid by department store tycoon George Farkas for Monet's masterful "Water Lilies," for which Aldrich paid a fraction of the sale price in the 1940s.

400 PCT REALIZED

Experts estimated that the fashion designer realized 400 per cent on his investment in the paintings in the sale, all purchased between 1937 and 1951.

The money paid for the Monet will go to the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum in New York. The rest, including $100,000 for Picasso's "Seated Nude," will go into Aldrich's pocket for expanding his art collection along "modern lines."

Music Acquired by the Rochester Civic Orchestra

ROCHESTER — Music, music, music — ranging from classical compositions to Broadway scores — has been acquired by the Rochester Civic Orchestra for its rehearsals this year.

Richard Goldsworthy, director, has issued an invitation to all interested area residents to join the musical aggregation.

Practice sessions will be 7 to 9 p.m. Thursdays in the high school band room, beginning Nov. 7.

* * *

Goldsworthy will explain the orchestra's plans for this year at a tea which follows the group's first meeting.

2 CONCERTS

Last year, the civic orchestra gave two concerts, one in conjunction with the high school choir and community chorus, and the other for Rochester area children.

From pre-Christian days to the 20th century, the mystic unicorn — an animal composed in equal parts of rhinoceros, antelope, goat and fish — has been immortalized in bronze, oils, ivory and marble as well as in tapestries.

Mayors Get College Facts

Two School Backers Explain Their Position

Two supporters of a proposed community college conducted an informal "fact-finding" session last night with 12 south Oakland County mayors.

Thomas H. Atkinson, 4150 Lanette, and Judge Burton Shifman, of Oak Park, visited a nonpublic meeting of the mayor at the home of Mayor Robert J. Huber, 4909 Beech, Troy.

They were delegated to attend the session by the newly formed Community College Citizens Committee.

* * *

The three-hour meeting was primarily a fact-finding session, according to Atkinson.

INTERESTED IN FINANCES

He said the mayors were particularly interested in the finances of the community college. Some of the mayors, he said, were critical of current education systems and wanted to know if the college would be an extension of present systems.

An explanation of the dual-track program vocational and college preparatory training — seemed to make sense to the mayors, Atkinson said.

"They want to see it happen if there is a positive need," he added.

* * *

Although no hard opposition was expressed at the informal meeting, Atkinson said at least one previous opponent appeared to "soften" on the issue.

NOT SELLING

"We told them we weren't trying to sell them, but merely to inform," he said.

Atkinson predicted that the mayors would be a big help in getting out the facts on the community college question.

He indicated this might be all that is necessary, noting that where the millage issue failed it did so by an average of 10 per cent of the total vote.

He called the question-answer session with the mayors "most rewarding."

Both Atkinson and Shifman were candidates for the proposed college's board of trustees in the election last June.

Developer Eyes Land for Building

A Flint land developer has his eye on several acres of county property in North Pontiac for construction of multiple-type dwellings known as town houses, the county board of auditors revealed yesterday.

The buildings and grounds committee of the county board of supervisors authorized the auditors to negotiate with William Donmeyer of Flint through realtor Floyd Kent of Pontiac.

At stake is a vacant 18-acre site south of Kennett and east of Sarasota.

* * *

Donmeyer has indicated he might be interested in paying the county $2,000 an acre if the property can be rezoned for multiple dwellings, auditors chairman John Austin said.

OPTION TO BUY

According to Austin, Donmeyer wants a $600 option to purchase providing the city commission will rezone the land.

* * *

In other action, the committee authorized the board of auditors to auction three county-owned homes in Pontiac Nov. 26 at the courthouse auditorium.

* * *

The homes and minimum acceptable bids are at 52 Franklin Blvd., $11,500; 490 Luther, $2,300; and 238 Mechanic, $5,500.

Nab Juveniles in Vandalism

Two juveniles, apprehended last night on a charge of causing an estimated $200 damage at a Waterford Township residence, were turned over to county juvenile authorities today.

The youths were released to their parents to await a court hearing within two weeks.

They are charged with spraying paint on the house of Robert Dorse, 3880 Maiden, damaging the fender of Dorse's car with a rock and breaking three flood lights in the yard.

Home Fire Damage Estimated at $1,250

Fire damage yesterday to a two-story brick and frame home at 335 Howard McNeill is estimated by fire officials at $1,250.

They said a child playing with a bare light bulb was responsible for starting the fire at the home of George Anderson.

UAW Local Votes to Strike

Tabulation of a strike vote taken by GMC Truck and Coach Local 594, UAW, showed 93 per cent favoring a walkout, local President Andy Wilson said today.

Wilson said 1,987 voters, of the local's approximately 6,000 members, finished balloting yesterday. Main issues are production standards and working conditions, he stated.

Strike results will be submitted to the UAW International for certification, and management will be given an opportunity for negotiations, before a strike occurs, he said.

* * *

Wilson added that 26 local members of GMC Truck Coach Retail Factory Branch, 675 Oakland, last week also voted overwhelmingly in a strike vote.

* * *

Issue at the outlet is confined to adjusting pay levels to those of workers at a similar branch in Detroit, he said.

Arraignment Is Set in Traffic Fatality

Arraignment is scheduled for Monday in Circuit Court for a 17-year-old Pontiac youth charged with negligent homicide in the traffic death of another teen-ager Oct. 18.

Danny L. Farnsworth, 12 Gingell, was bound over after waiving examination yesterday before Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum. He was released on $200 bond.

Pontiac police said Farnsworth was driving with defective brakes when he struck and killed David Levering, 15, of 177 S. Jessie.

* * *

Levering was crossing Auburn near Sanford when he was hit by the car.

Woman Found Dead in Bedroom of Home

A 43-year-old Leonard woman was found dead in her bedroom yesterday of a self-inflicted shotgun wound, according to the sheriff's department.

The body of Pearline Bishop, 5210 Rochester, was discovered by her husband Hillard C. when he arrived home at 4:15 p.m. The coroner said she had been dead about an hour.

Boy, 9, Killed by Youth's Car

ARMADA TOWNSHIP — A 9-year-old boy was killed on Armada Ridge Road yesterday when a car crashed into him and the bicycle he was walking.

Romeo state police said Gary Jackson of 19690 Armada Ridge died instantly after he was struck by a car driven by David G. Medley, 17, of 65960 Wolcott, east of Romeo.

The mishap occurred just west of Coon Creek Road shortly before 5 p.m.

Police said Medley lost control of his car while rounding a curve. Medley and his passenger, 17-year-old Daniel V. Stasinski of 67455 Wolcott, were not injured.

* * *

Cycling with Gary was his 13-year-old brother Michael, who was not injured. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson.

Medley was released pending further investigation.

Janitor Has 'No Side' in Dispute

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Brooklyn high school custodian yesterday refused to comment on a survey which showed his salary during the past 12 months topped Mayor Robert F. Wagner's by $3,000.

When asked to give his side of the story concerning his $53,000 salary, D. Paul Bishop, 66, maintenance head at Bushwick High School, said flatly: "I don't have any side."

The city board of education said not only did Bishop make more than Wagner, but his salary was $13,000 more than that of School Superintendent Calvin E. Gross. It also made him the second highest paid public servant in the nation after the President.

In an attempt to remedy the situation which involves numerous other school custodians who gross more than $40,000, the board planned to begin negotiations tomorrow to readjust the amount paid for school maintenance. It said it hoped to place a limitation of about $25,000 for custodians.

STATE COMMISSION

Also probing the matter is a special commission appointed by Gov. Nelson A. Rockfeller. About 50 custodians have been subpoenaed for questioning by the commission.

Bishop is supervisor of a 15-member janitorial staff at the school, and Eugene E. Hult, superintendent of design, construction and physical plant for New York City, reported last week that Bishop made $43,695. However, a check this week of the contract arrangements uncovered the higher figure, he said.

WRIST-BREAKER — Comedian Jackie Gleason, waiting for a doctor, rests his fractured wrist on a pillow in New York yesterday and watches monitor tape of the scene in which he was injured. The accident occurred when Gleason, as part of the show, in front of a live audience, rode a bicycle down a ramp into a make-believe brick wall. He completed the last 15 minutes of the show with the injury.

Airline Aide Speaks 34 Oriental Dialects

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (UPI) —Powell Pao special passenger representative of an airline, hasn't encountered any language problems in his job of welcoming passengers arriving at Internatinal Airport from the Far East.

Pao speaks 32 Chinese dialects, including 13 of Cantonese, as well as Japanese, Korean and English. His job is to assist passengers during their layover and to aid them in transferring from one airline to another.

Haiti's current population is estimated at three million.

Teen Orgies Shake City in Missouri

ST. CHARLES, Mo. (UPI) — The disclosure of widespread sex orgies among St. Charles High School students shook this city of 21,000 persons today. Officials blamed indifferent parents and teen-agers' car privileges.

"The scope of this thing is amazing," county juvenile officer Edwin Stein said. "I consider this a crisis."

Twenty-five persons have been arrested and three of them remain in jail. A 17-year-old girl, a high school dropout, has been placed in a mental institution.

★ ★ ★

County Prosecutor Donald E. Dalton said a major factor in the growing scandal was the unlimited use of autos by both boys and girls.

16TH BIRTHDAY GIFT

He said many parents have given cars to their children on their 16th birthday.

He said several of the incidents took place at unchaperoned or poorly chaperoned parties during which couples would retire to darkened autos.

Beer was drunk at some of the parties.

★ ★ ★

Dalton said the six-week investigation had turned up some cases of unnatural sex acts. But he said, "I think we caught this before it spread very far."

CHARGES FILED

A court observer said six persons have been charged with statutory rape and four with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Fifteen others have been sentenced for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Stein would not say how many of the high school's 1,365 students were involved.

★ ★ ★

He said it was "well over that figure (25). To say 25 would be very inadequate."

Search for Six Lost in Maine

Caught by Blizzard in Northeast Wilds

MILLINOCKET, Maine (AP) —Relays of rescue teams, hindered by deep snow and severe winter-like conditions, pushed their searches today for six persons lost in Maine's northern wilderness.

The missing persons, including four hunters, were caught by near-blizzard storms that battered the state on two successive days with up to 1½ feet of snow and gale force winds.

★ ★ ★

The ground search for a woman and a park ranger in the rugged basin area of mile high Mt. Katahdin, north of Millinocket, was reinforced by four experienced mountain climbers from the University of Maine.

The missing woman, Mrs. Margaret Ivusic, about 50, Boston, was camping on the mountain in balmy weather last weekend with a companion, Mrs. Helen Mower, Concord, Mass.

SOUGHT AID

Mrs. Ivusic became exhausted Monday and stopped on the trail while Mrs. Mower went to the Baxter State Park camp of ranger Ralph Heath, 37, for assistance.

Heath traced the trail used by the two widows and once exchanged calls with Mrs. Ivusic Monday but could not locate her. He set out again Tuesday just before a heavy snowstorm hit the mountain and hasn't been heard from since.

★ ★ ★

In Van Buren, searchers found a car used by two missing airmen stationed at Loring Air Force Base in Limestone. An air and ground search failed to turn up any other trace of the pair.

Airmen 2.C. Charles Balonis of Weymouth, Mass., and Larry Baker of Charles City, Iowa, were caught in Tuesday's snow while hunting in woods five miles south of Van Burean, near the Canadian border.

RETIRED BANKER

In Edinburg, near Bangor, an estimated 50 searchers covered large sections of woodland without success for Charles A. Jellison, 69, a retired banker and postal official. Jellison has been missing since Monday when he went hunting.

Near Presque Isle a search party set out Wednesday night for John Flannery, 19, Fort Fairfield, reported missing on a hunting trip in the Squaw Pan Lake area.

Northeast Rocked by 2nd Quake

BOSTON (AP) — New England's second earthquake in two weeks has left scientists in disagreement over the likelihood of more tremors hitting the area.

The quake yesterday was described as considerably less strong than one that shook the area Oct. 16. It was centered about three miles off-shore, according to scientists at the Boston College seismograph station in suburban Weston.

The rumbling tremor lasted 5 to 10 seconds at 5:38 p.m.

There were no reports of injury or damage.

SAME AREA

The latest quake was felt in much the same area as its immediate predecessor — an arc from Hampton Falls on the southern New Hampshire coast, west to Framingham, Mass., and south nearly to Fall River.

Many people described it as feeling like a passing truck.

The quake prompted Prof. L. Don Leet, Harvard University seismologist, to predict "We will receive a number of small shocks which will lead up to a big one — although that might not come in our lifetime."

On the other hand, Leet said, "it could happen tomorrow."

NO PREDICTION

"Earthquakes cannot be predicted or forecast, they can only be Monday - morning - quarter - backed," Leet said.

At Weston, seismologists said they don't expect any more tremors.

The Rev. Daniel J. Linehan, director of the observatory, said small quakes are good signs because they relieve the strain on a fault gradually rather than all at once.

Horses Are Coralled as Flu Rides Herd

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — The horse show scheduled for Labor Day weekend at Midland Boarding Stables was canceled because some of the horses had the flu.

Known as Virus X, the ailment is similar to Asian flu in humans. The horse has a slight caugh and its temperature may run as high as 105 degrees. Unlike flu in humans, no vaccine has been found to combat Virus X.

LAKE WALES, Fla. (AP) — When Ken Tibado says, "Go fly a kite," he means a ski-kite.

A professional water - skier, he began using a sail to lengthen his jumping distance in 1954.

Ski-kiting became popular — and so he began making kites for the sport in 1955. His full-scale factory operation got under way in 1957.

Ideal Fish Poison Sought for Carp

A "selective" poison that will kill only carp and no other fish is being sought by the New York State Department of Conservation, Bureau of Fisheries.

Fishermen on the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River have contended for years that carp disrupt black bass spawning and eventually will curtail black bass a

Since biologists recently developed a poison to eliminate the lamprey eel in Lake Ontario, it is hopeful that they also can solve the carp problem.

Kids to Haunt Area for Goodies Tonight

Pontiac was prepared for an invasion of little people for Halloween tonight—Indians, tramps, skeletons and lots of witches.

Emergency preparations took the form of piles of candy, and stomachache remedies for the "trick or treaters" who chomped down too many treats.

In Pontiac and Waterford Township, the children will be on the streets en masse between 6 and 7 p.m.

Residents have been asked to put their porch lights on during that hour as a welcome sign.

Children should go only to homes where porch lights are shining.

★ ★ ★

The annual Mystery Treat Contest, cosponsored by the parks and recreation department, Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce and Pontiac Board of Education, will highlight activities in the city.

SIX PARTIES

Six free parties are being cosponsored by service clubs and the recreation department in Waterford for children in grades three through six.

★ ★ ★

The parties will be from 7 to 8 p.m.

Some 100 "Mystery Treat" prizes will be awarded to children in the Pontiac School District who are home if and when their phone rings.

Contest officials will start calling elementary age youngsters at 9, junior high pupils at 10:30 and senior high pupils at 11.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy Asks Rights Unity

'Not Partisan Issue,' He Tells Dem Rally

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Kennedy told a Democratic rally last night in Philadelphia—where racial tensions and the current election campaign are closely interwoven — that civil rights is not a partisan issue.

He spoke at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner in support of incumbent Mayor James H. J. Tate, who is seeking election Nov. 5 to a full four-year term.

Kennedy, departing from his prepared text, told 11,000 persons in Convention Hall that civil rights "is not a partisan issue or a Republican or Democratic issue. It is a matter of concern to all Americans."

★ ★ ★

Referring to his administration's efforts to obtain passage of civil rights legislation, he added, "And with bipartisan support, and that means Republicans as well as Democrats, we are putting forward legislation which is strong, just, effective, and reasonable, to ensure all Americans the rights and opportunities which they deserve."

CAMPAIGN ISSUE

The civil rights problems in Philadelphia are viewed by many as the key issue in the mayoralty campaign.

★ ★ ★

Negro demands for what they term fair practices in labor and housing have created a steadily increasing pressure which has erupted in recent months into occasional picket-line violence, teen-age slash-and-run attacks, and, just last week, rioting over the fatal shooting of a Negro shoplifting suspect by a white policeman.

★ ★ ★

The showing Tate makes on Nov. 5 will be studied for clues to the effects of the civil rights issue on Kennedy's stature.

Castro Reports Cuba Captures Agents of CIA

Says They Were Sent to Commit Sabotage, May Face Execution

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro says his government has captured several agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, including two Canadian pilots.

He said they were sent into Cuba on sabotage missions after Hurricane Flora, and indicated they may face death sentences.

Castro said several prisoners from a CIA ship called the Rex would appear on television to tell their stories. He did not identify them, say when they would appear or give details of their capture. But he said the Rex was a 150-foot diesel craft flying the Nicaraguan flag and based in West Palm Beach, Fla.

In West Palm Beach, port manager Joel Wilcox said the Rex was tied up in the port of Palm Beach.

In his three-hour radio-television speech last night, Castro accused the CIA of "stepping up" its activities against Cuba in the wake of the devastation caused by Hurricane Flora."

★ ★ ★

Castro accused the intelligence agency of murdering workers, landing weapons and infiltrators in Cuba, hiring saboteurs and using postal packages to send dynamite and other explosives into Cuba.

KIND OF AID

"This was the kind of aid the United States sent to Cuba after the hurricane," he said. "This explains and justifies Cuba's rejections of the U.S. offer of aid."

Assistance was offered by the American Red Cross after Flora killed more than 1,000 Cubans and caused disastrous crop and property damage in East rn Cuba.

In Washington, the CIA declined to comment on Castro's charges.

★ ★ ★

Castro said the two Canadians — identified as Ronald Patrick Lee and William David — were arrested in Havana Oct. 24 as they tried to smuggle in 18 cans of explosives concealed inside foam rubber.

Bit More Rain, Mild Weather Predicted in Area

Cloudy and mild with a little rain is the forecast for the Pontiac area tonight.

Tomorrow will be mostly cloudy with temperatures turning a little colder and showers ending in the afternoon. Temperatures will drop to 45 tonight and climb to near 55 tomorrow.

A light sprinkling of rain falling in downtown Pontiac during the night and early morning measured less than .03 of an inch.

★ ★ ★

Forty-six was the recording in the downtown area prior to 8 a.m. The reading was 44 at 1 p.m.

Moon Agenda Cut 4 Flights

U. S. Hopes Shortcut Will Save $50 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is taking a detour in its space route. It hopes it will be a shortcut to the moon with about $50 million less in toll charges.

It eliminated Wednesday four flights from the Apollo program—flights in which a low-powered Saturn rocket would have carried two astronauts into orbit aboard a stripped-down Apollo spacecraft.

The flights were scheduled to begin in 1965.

★ ★ ★

Skipping this step will mean a nine-month delay in the first orbital flights of Apollo astronauts. The next flights are to be the orbiting of the full three-man Apollo teams in a complete Apollo craft with a more powerful rocket system, Saturn 1B, in 1966.

TARGET DATE

A spokesman said the space agency feels that by concentrating on the stripped-down program, the United States has a better chance of putting a man on the moon by the target date of 1970.

The space agency also said the action would save some $50 million and help it stay within its stripped-down budget for this fiscal year—$5.35 billion.

The astronauts will get their training in two-man Gemini spacecraft.

★ ★ ★

The original plan was to fly two sections of the Apollo spacecraft, the command and service stations, on four earth orbital missions. These stations, with three astronauts in the command section, would have been boosted into orbit by Saturn I rockets.

REVISED PLAN

Under the revised plan, space officials said the Saturn I will provide power only for six unmanned flights of instrumented spacecraft.

IT'S THE GREATEST — Behind this handshake is the biggest donation any employe group has given the Pontiac Area United Fund. Buel E. Starr (left), Pontiac Motor Division works manager, today reported to Earl A. Maxwell, campaign industrial chairman, that Pontiac plant employes have pledged $220,437, well over their quota, for the drive. The gift shatters all previous United Fund donation records.

Pontiac Plant Staff Tops UF Donations

Pontiac Area United Fund campaign today rocketed towards its 1963 goal with the biggest gift received in the drive's 15-year history, $220,437 from Pontiac Motor Division employes.

The record-tumbling gift was announced by Earl A. Maxwell, campaign industrial chairman, who said it will also be the largest single contribution to this year's drive.

Maxwell said Pontiac hourly and salaried workers even went $50,000 above the quota they had been asked to meet for their share of the 1963 goal of $776,000.

Buel E. Starr, Pontiac works manager, who headed the plant solicitation, reports that 90 per cent of Pontiac employes have pledged donations.

The news brought a glow of pride to E. M. Estes, General chairman of the campaign. He is also a General Motors vice president and manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

★ ★ ★

"This is a real shot in the arm," Estes said. "But all of us know from experience that the second half of a fund drive is always the hardest."

⅔ OF WAY

Tabulation of the Pontiac employe donation brings current campaign collections to $547,108, Estes said, better than two-thirds of the way to the official goal.

The Pontiac donation is in addition to a previous $145,000 given by General Motors as a corporate gift on behalf of its three local plants.

Total industrial plant and employe gifts so far contributed to United Fund amount to $368,674, or 70 per cent of the division's goal completed.

The commercial division reports it has collected $145,749, or 71 per cent of quota, to date.

U. S. Expelling Soviet Envoys

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States is expelling three members of the Soviet U.N. delegation after accusing them of a spy plot with another Russian and an American electronics engineer.

Diplomatic immunity prevented prosecution of the three delegation members, but the U.S. government demanded their immediate departure from the country. They were expected to leave today or tomorrow.

The Russian government was expected to protest the expulsion order and reject the espionage charge.

★ ★ ★

The three ordered expelled were Gleb A. Pavlov, 39, an attache; Yuri A. Romashin, 38, third secretary, and Vladimir I. Olenev, 37, identified only as a member of the Soviet delegation.

LINKED THREE

The Federal Bureau of Investigation linked the three with two persons arrested on spy charges in a railroad station parking lot in Englewood, N. J., Tuesday night.

May Question Bonn Beauty

Baker Case Might Require Her Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators investigating the Robert G. Baker case reportedly are considering whether to try to question a West German beauty whose name has been involved in the inquiry.

The Rules Committee, which is looking into the business affairs of Baker, who resigned under fire as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, is said to be discussing attempting to summon Ellen Rometsch from West Germany.

Mrs. Rometsch, 27, was the wife of a German army sergeant attached to Bonn's military mission here. Both were sent home last August after an FBI investigation into her conduct here.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Rometsch, since separated from her husband and living in a hut on her parents' farm in Germany, has been linked to the Baker investigation by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa.

ASKS EXPLANATION

Gross has demanded that the Kennedy administration explain why she was suddenly whisked out of the country and has urged the Rules Committee to include the matter in its investigation.

Various published reports have had her working in a club for lobbyists and congressmen that Baker helped start, of being a visitor at a townhouse he owned and of

5,000 Coming Home; Studies Being Made on More Slashes

From Our News Wires

PARIS — The United States plans to withdraw its first major combat unit from Europe despite German objections, sending home 5,000 and perhaps many more men, it was learned today.

The withdrawal will involve an armored cavalry regiment and will represent only about 2 per cent of the Army's over-all combat strength in Europe. But informed sources said studies are being made which could result in much larger cuts.

U. S. combat strength in Europe reached its peak of 285,000 men at the time of the Berlin crisis two years ago when 40,000 extra troops were sent to Europe. Some withdrawals have been announced since then.

The sources said 35,000 men actually have been sent home, a much higher figure than that mentioned in the announcements.

★ ★ ★

They said the studies could lead to a reduction of a further 33,000 to a figure of 200,000, but the Army may successfully resist such a major cut.

FORCED DELAY

German concern has forced a delay in the plans to pull back the armored cavalry regiment, the sources said, but the move will be made regardless.

The withdrawal in no way conflicts with recent U.S. assurances that the United States will live up to its NATO commitments, because it would leave the force promised to NATO intact.

Another U. S. troop withdrawal was announced today in South Viet Nam by Gen. Paul D. Harkins. Harkins said that at least 1,000 of 15,000 Americans in Viet Nam will be on their way home within two months.

★ ★ ★

The statement was in line with a White House announcement earlier this month.

Barry Terms JFK Program a Total Flop

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater has called President Kennedy's economic program a 1,000-day flop—and suggested that New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller join him in attacking the Democratic administration instead of other Republicans.

The Arizona senator said Rockefeller's criticism of his stands—which has been concentrated on Goldwater foreign policy views—is not doing the Republican party any good.

He told a news conference last night that Republicans should join in training their sights on Kennedy and the Democrats, not on each other.

★ ★ ★

In the speech that followed, Goldwater said Kennedy's economic leadership has Americans "bewildered, incredibly confused and badly defensive about the basic sources of this nation's historic economic strength."

YOUTHFUL SUPPORTERS

A crowd of youthful Goldwater-for-President rooters greeted the conservative lawmaker at a hotel only a few blocks from the governor's Manhattan office.

Waterford Candidates Tell Opinions

By JOE MULLEN

Fifteen of 21 charter commission candidates in Waterford Township voiced their opinions at a public information program last night sponsored by the Waterford Citizens Action Committee for Incorporation (WCAC).

WCAC chairman Dr. John F. Naz introduced the speakers on the stage at Waterford Township High School.

Comments were limited to four minutes.

Waterford Township will vote on incorporation Tuesday.

E. Frank Richardson, an insurance agent and past president of the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce, said that incorporation of the township as a city is needed now to adequately provide for the future of the community.

John S. Coleman, teacher at Kettering High School and a township board trustee for the past six years, said he favored a broad, liberal city charter with a realistic taxation limitation.

BOARD TRUSTEE

Loren Anderson, a township board trustee for two-and-a-half years and an insurance agent, cited the township board's formal resolution endorsing incorporation and said the boundaries must be solidified or else the township will be unable to adequately plan its future.

Robert J. Cook, teacher at Dondero High School, Royal Oak, acknowledged several advantages of incorporation already cited by the WCAC. A disadvantage of township government, he pointed out, is that administrators sit on the board of trustees and thus become both judge and jury.

Walter L. Barningham, a long-time resident of Waterford Township and a practicing attorney in Pontiac, said the tremendous growth of the township has created the need for incorporation.

John E. McGrath, justice of the peace and also a practicing attorney in Waterford, said he was a candidate for the commission because he has a profound interest in the township. "My family, my business and

GOP Decision: Move on Tax?

LANSING (AP) — A decision was expected from Gov. George Romney and Republican legislative leaders today on whether to start the revised tax reform program moving in the House or Senate — and when to do it.

House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, indicated he would propose that the decision be made when Romney met with the 10-member leadership committee today.

"There still are some amendments to be written, but it's the feeling of the House Republicans that we've reached the point where the program should be sent to the floor," Green said.

★ ★ ★

The basic decision would be made on the basis of estimated strength for the tax reform package among majority Republicans in each chamber.

NO POLLS TAKEN

Neither the House nor the Senate GOP caucuses took formal polls yesterday on the package which has been altered sharply in the last week from Romney's original proposal, but still contains state income taxes and other basic points.

In both House and Senate caucuses, the state income taxes and exemption of groceries and drugs from the sales tax appeared to be the main points of contention.

The legislature was to adjourn after today's brief session, but Green indicated a "head count" of GOP strength on the total package would be taken in the House when lawmakers return Monday.

★ ★ ★

"We'll put a call of the House on if necessary to be sure everybody is here," said the speaker.

"It's entirely possible the program could be on the floor of one chamber or the other by the end of next week."

Green emphasized, however, that the House GOP position is that the program must "rise or fall on its own merits, and if it falls, we'd turn to a limited Republican tax reform program."

Officer on Duty Downtown

Alert for Misconduct at Saginaw, Huron

A Pontiac policeman will be stationed at Saginaw and Huron daily to discourage disorderly persons from bothering shoppers.

Acting Police Chief William K. Hanger said beginning today at least one uniformed foot patrolman will be assigned to the intersection from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

During these same hours there will also be two uniformed foot patrol officers walking in the downtown area.

"This includes the full length of the downtown portion of Saginaw Street," said Hanger.

★ ★ ★

He said officers who are assigned to patrol cars have been instructed to pass through the downtown area as often as possible.

COMPLAINT REPEATED

"They are to be particularly alert for persons who may be guilty of disorderly conduct of any kind," Hanger said.

At the City Commission meeting Tuesday, Commissioner William H. Taylor reiterated the complaint of other commissioners that there was a lack of foot patrols downtown.

4th Century Remains Found 'Neath Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The skeleton of a crowned woman, believed to be a Phoenician queen, was unearthed yesterday in a 4th Century B.C. tomb in the Mediterranean port of Sidon, local newspapers reported today.

Laborers digging for the foundations of a school came upon tunnels and large slabs of stone. They alerted the Lebanese Department of Antiquities, which began excavating. The tunnels led to a Roman dome, and beneath that to a Phoenician tomb.

Longer Stay for 3 Miners

PEINE, Germany (UPI) — A mechanical flaw in the rescue rig today condemned three trapped iron miners to spend another night in their air-bubble 262 feet underground.

The mining company manager said the three men who have spent seven days in the flooded mine could not be rescued before tomorrow.

Rescuers originally had hoped to bring the miners to the surface today.

'End to Local Government Not Part of Home Rule'

Home rule counties shouldn't be allowed to take over duties normally carried out by municipal governments unless requested by a municipality, stated Wayne County Board of Supervisors spokesman John Holland yesterday.

He was explaining to the Oakland County Township Supervisors Association the type of county home rule enabling legislation being sought by the Wayne board.

He avoided discussion of taxation by saying the board's home rule committees haven't proceeded that far with proposals.

★ ★ ★

The Wayne supervisors, however, are seeking to introduce a bill for home rule in the current special session of the State Legislature.

WON'T BE READY

Oakland County supervisors aren't expected to have their proposals for the legislature ready before the regular spring session.

According to Holland, the Wayne board is seeking legislation to enable Wayne County to solve its problems, but not at the exclusion of other counties.

The legislation should leave it up to individual counties to decide whether they want home rule government, and be general enough to meet their individual needs, he said.

★ ★ ★

"Obviously, the needs of less populous counties are not as extensive as those facing Wayne County," said Holland. "But many of the problems are the same to a lesser degree."

TRADITIONAL TASKS

Counties should continue to perform those tasks that are traditionally recognized by the people as belonging at that level of government, he said.

Holland described these tasks as being in the field of health and welfare, and particularly public works at the intracommunity level.

He said a study of numerous county governments shows more efficient county government could be realized by a small board of supervisors elected from districts and a single county administrator or executive, either elected or appointed, to carry out the policies of the board.

★ ★ ★

The governing body should have the administrative authority to tackle county problems without having to run to the state for permissive legislation, Holland added.

REAL INTENT

Escaping the present need of step-by-step legislation has previously been described by Oakland County supervisors as the real intent of the proposed county home rule.

Following Holland's talk, the 16 township supervisors went on record as opposed to bills that would transfer tax assessment of property from the community level of government to the state or county.

A letter expressing their opposition was directed to Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, in Lansing.

★ ★ ★

A similar stand also was taken by the legislative committee of the county board of supervisors, which described the bills as a "centralized bureaucratic" attempt to further remove government from the people.

my friends are here," he said.

Mrs. Dorothy Olson, township treasurer for over six years, said that if she is elected she will make every effort to contribute to the drafting of a model charter for the township.

Larry B. Payne, director of news and public affairs for radio station WHFI, said the threat of fragmentation, incorporation from within or annexation from outside, is a real threat.

Elmer R. Fangboner, elected township clerk last April after serving as fire chief, cited his extensive background as a public servant and said he felt his experience would be beneficial if elected.

★ ★ ★

Charles W. Sayre, on leave of absence as a teacher in Waterford to accept a Mott Foundation fellowship, said he would favor the council-manager form of city government which combines professional leadership with the democratic system.

James E. Seeterlin, township supervisor and former township clerk, said he would favor a tax limitation of 10 mills. He said he favored the elected mayor and commission form of government with elections on an at-large basis.

Mrs. Shirley Ryden, secretary receptionist at Johnson and Anderson Co., consulting engineers said she felt incorporation would not cause a tax increase unless added services were demanded.

★ ★ ★

A former Walled Lake clerk and treasurer, she said she favored a 10-mill limitation with a manager-council form of government.

INSURANCE AGENT

Donald W. Fraser, an insurance agent and resident of the township for 15 years, said he felt his activity in civic affairs and day-to-day contact with people as a salesman has offered him an insight into what people would want in a charter.

Arthur J. Salley, former president of the township Jaycees and a past officer of the state Jaycee organization, cited the need for cityhood because of the area's growth.

Dean A. Salley, immediate past president of the township Jaycees and a businessman, cited three characteristics he felt a charter commissioner required and then said he felt he had all three: a stake in the community, interest in the community and a desire to serve the community.

Bright Fall Weather Aids Bloomfield Twp. Project

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The main which will carry Detroit water to Bloomfield Township is rapidly being extended toward about 3,000 waiting township residents.

It now is expected to reach its full 23 miles in length by February.

The three petitions for hearings on special assessment districts which the township board received this week are "only an indication of what's ahead of us," according to Township Clerk Deloris V. Little.

The districts would be established to finance construction of lateral water lines.

RECEIVE PETITIONS

Petitions were received from owners of property in the Woodward-Hunter area, the Oakland Hills Subdivision and the Brookdale, Strathmore and Longmeadow area.

Hearings on the first two districts will be held Nov. 25.

The third hearing is scheduled for Dec. 9.

Several hundred youngsters from seven Birmingham churches have collected $1,058 for the United Nations children's fund.

The annual Halloween solicitation was done through the auspices of the Birmingham Council of Churches.

Ralph M. Hoofnagle

Service for former Birmingham resident Ralph M. Hoofnagle, 69, of Concord will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the Manley-Bailey Funeral Home, Birmingham. Burial will follow in Roseland Park Cemetery, Berkley.

Mr. Hoofnagle died yesterday after a brief illness.

A retired tool manufacturer's representative, Mr. Hoofnagle was a member of the Concord Lions Club and the Men's Club of the Concord Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his wife, Ella; a son, Willard M. of Bloomfield Hills; a daughter, Mrs. Sam Burns of Birmingham; a brother, Clarence R. of Farmington; and five grandchildren.

Norman K. Porter

being friendly with "the Bobby Baker set."

It was learned yesterday that a former friend of hers is expected to tell her story before the committee.

Ingrid Luttert, 24, who had roomed with the Rometsches in their nearby Arlington, Va., apartment, visited the office of Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., and volunteered to testify.

It was Williams' one-man investigation of Baker's activities that triggered the full-scale committee inquiry.

Miss Luttert is a secretary at the World Bank.

Williams declined to discuss her visit.

The Rules Committee is to meet tomorrow behind closed doors to thresh out procedural matters including an effort to figure how big a budget will be needed to finance its widening inquiry.

Lansing Eyes Fish Sale Dip

By The Associated Press

A committee at Lansing today studied ways to rescue Michigan's fishing industry from the downslide following seven deaths attributed to botulism in smoked fish.

Meanwhile, Charlevoix's commercial fishing fleet was halting most of its operations, adding to some 20,000 worker layoffs that have resulted from a plunge in fish sales.

At Washington, the National Fisheries Institute agreed that, in the future, smoked fish from the Great Lakes will be frozen immediately after smoking and plainly marked "Perishable — Keep Frozen."

The food and drug administration announced the institute's decision. It said, however, its recommendation still stands that all smoked fish products from the Great Lakes area now on grocery shelves or in homes should be destroyed.

TO TAKE STEPS

The committee at Lansing was appointed yesterday by Gov. George Romney. Romney said its aim "will be to make sure adequate steps are being taken to protect public health and to consider immediate and long-range legislative and administrative action."

He said the committee will "make public information as specific as possible so there will be no undue damage to the industry."

"The faster we re-establish public confidence in the products, the faster these people can get back to their jobs in the industry," said Albert Applegate, an aide to Romney.

The committee included officials from state agencies, specials from state agencies, specialists from universities, spokesmen from the fishing industry and officers of the FDA, universities, spokesmen from the fishing industry and officers of the FDA.

One Charlevoix fisherman who is closing operations, John Cross, employed 18 men on two tugs. "I don't know what we'll do," he said. "We're pulling in all our nets and will stop all operations except for perch."

For New Appeals Court

Multijudge Districts Favored

News Analysis

By JIM DYGERT

The pendulum is swinging back toward multijudge districts in plans for a state court of appeals to be established under the new constitution.

A legislative interim subcommittee headed by State Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, is ready to recommend that three appellate judges be elected at large in each of three districts.

Previously considered plans were selecting one judge in each of nine smaller districts, or choosing three at large in Wayne County while electing six individually in the rest of the state.

Earlier this month, Roberts' committee approved a plan for single-judge districts — the one Roberts favors — despite previous wavering because of reports that some State Supreme Court justices preferred the multijudge district idea.

REPORT DUE

Now, according to Roberts, his committee intends to go back to the multijudge districts when it presents its report soon to the full interim committee drafting bills to implement the new constitution. The full committee is expected to concur.

More of the high court justices reportedly have indicated a preference for multijudge districts.

The new constitution does not make it clear which method was contemplated by its drafters, although it mentions organizing into three divisions.

IMPORTANT FACTOR

Roberts' own political plans are affected. He has indicated he will run either for Congress or the appellate court next year. The type of court districts was considered an important factor in his decision.

Roberts prefers the single-judge district. The multijudge approach means much more territory for a candidate to cover, but an advantage is that a candidate need only finish as one of the top three vote getters to win.

He would have to be highest vote getter in a single judge district.

★ ★ ★

Oakland County was once contemplated as one entire district, but was joined with Washtenaw or Shiawassee in later plans.

In the multijudge approach, the county may be in a district with Macomb County, the Thumb area, and the counties of Washtenaw, Ingham, Jackson, Monroe, Barry, Eaton, Calhoun, St. Joseph, Branch, Hillsdale and Lenawee.

Pontiac is being considered as the headquarters for the suburban district or division.

Bomb ... at Laos Fa... Burned on Cityhood

VIENTIANE, Laos ... Eight persons were ki... more than 100 injured e... day when someone threw ... grenade into a crowd gami... at a concession in a nea... fairground.

The culprit fled but police picked up one suspect later. The explosion rocked a portion of the That Luang Fairground where annual Buddhist festivities are being held.

★ ★ ★

The dead included two policemen and an army captain, but most of the casualties were civilians. Among the seriously injured was a neutralist colonel named Khamsing Nakontap.

An incorporated village cannot participate in such an election unless it votes beforehand to do so.

Rehard said he will remain neutral during the Orchard Lake campaign, but that there are a few points which need to be clarified.

"Who's going to do all these services that the township now performs if Orchard Lake does become a city," he asked. "For example, there's the spreading of tax rolls, tax bills, assessment and allocation.

EPARATE ACCOUNTS

"There are also the school d county spread. If the hools have five separate nds, you have to have five parate accounts.

"We have two expensive ces of machinery and three ople here to handle all this."

Orchard Lake's assessed valion is about $3.5 million, approximately one-tenth of that for the township. Rehard noted that the township spends $40,000 annually for a staff to keep the records straight.

"It would cost Orchard Lake $4,000 even if it could operate as efficiently as we do," he said. "But the smaller your operation is, the more expensive it gets."

Rehard noted that there are many mandatory responsibilities which cities must meet.

"They're laboring under a delusion if they think they can choose the responsibilities they want," he warned.

Rehard said his main concern is that the committee seeking cityhood for Orchard Lake is painting a brighter picture than the facts merit.

"But if they feel the services they require and the entity they hope to maintain are worth the trouble and responsibilities, that's fine," he said.

Briton Gains His Revenge— Runs Over Car

SWINDON, England (AP) — Peter Gould, 20-year-old student, was fined $14 Wednesday for taking mankind's revenge against the auto.

He was, he explained, in the company of a friend who told him: "We've had enough of these cars running over men. It's about time a man ran over a car."

Within minutes, a bobby spotted a trail of footprints leading over a parked car's front bumper, across the hood and roof and down the boot.

The trail stopped at a pair of shoes encasing Gould's feet.

Trucker's Pay Attracts Men From All Over

CHICAGO (UPI)—He who drives a truck rides on the wheels of fortune. He may bring home $15,000 a year.

* * *

And so do the truck driver's associates, without whom he'd never get on the road, according to a report by the American Trucking Association, Inc.

The field of trucking absorbs the services of teachers, clerks, engineers, accountants, skilled workers, doctors, lawyers, merchants, firemen and insurance specialists.

Paul E. Moler, personal director of Consolidated Freightways, Inc., said: "We can use people from every field."

Astronauts, Indian chiefs and politicians. And union bosses.

RANKS SECOND

The industry isn't so brash as to claim a larger number of employes than the government, but vows it ranks second. And the industry says a public servant rarely makes a trucking salary.

The association is intent on exploding the theory that trucking is made up of a bunch of hulking tough guys who habitate roadside eating spots.

When it comes to income, many of the long-haul drivers took home more than $15,000 last year, the association claims.

As for the trucker's cultural and educational level, the industry says a driver with a college degree is no longer a rare bird. Opera lovers, stereo addicts and part-time artists are flooding the industry, the industry report said.

COUNTRY CLUBBERS

The truck driver often heads a suburban family, belongs to the country club and sends his children to college.

Truck drivers under major contracts receive a nationwide minimum of $3.03 an hour. Overtime pushes most incomes over $10,000.

Orchard Lake Warned on Cityhood

AREA NEWS

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — "Township residents are the only first-class citizens left in the state."

Supervisor John C. Rehard's statement was in the form of a warning to Orchard Lake residents now considering cityhood for the village.

At a meeting on the matter earlier this week, backers of the cityhood proposition described township residents as "second-class citizens."

Rehard said yesterday the idea is "erroneous."

★ ★ ★

"The township is the last vestige of first-class citizenship," he said, "There a man has sole control over his money. If he doesn't like the millage, he doesn't vote for it."

BOARD DETERMINES

The county allocation board determines how much millage the township will collect within the state's 15-mill limit, Rehard pointed out.

However, in a city, the responsibility of determining taxes is delegated to a commission or council, he said.

"A city commission doesn't have to consult the people so long as it stays within its charter limitations," Rehard said. "But the township must go back to the voters for any amount it wants in excess of that allocated by the county.

★ ★ ★

"The voter cuts off a chunk of his franchise when he elects someone else to do this for him," he said.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT

Another argument used by those seeking cityhood for Orchard Lake is that the township or a portion of it could hold an incorporation election and, overriding objections by even the entire population of Orchard Lake, convert the area to a city with a majority vote.

Thus, it has been said, Orchard Lake would lose its identity, its uniqueness.

Rehard objects to their "using this as a club."

"The matter (of incorporation) has never been a subject of discussion at any township board meeting," he said, "although it has been discussed on an individual basis.

"West Bloomfield probably will incorporate sometime. In 10 or 20 years it will be forced into it."

However, the supervisor noted that Waterford Township is planning an incorporation election exclusive of Lake Angelus.

An incorporated village cannot participate in such an election unless it votes beforehand to do so.

Rehard said he will remain neutral during the Orchard Lake campaign, but that there are a few points which need to be clarified.

"Who's going to do all these services that the township now performs if Orchard Lake does become a city," he asked. "For example, there's the spreading of tax rolls, tax bills, assessment and allocation.

SEPARATE ACCOUNTS

"There are also the school and county spread. If the schools have five separate bonds, you have to have five separate accounts.

"We have two expensive pieces of machinery and three people here to handle all this."

Orchard Lake's assessed valuation is about $3.5 million, approximately one-tenth of that for the township. Rehard noted that the township spends $40,000 annually for a staff to keep the records straight.

"It would cost Orchard Lake $4,000 even if it could operate as efficiently as we do," he said. "But the smaller your operation is, the more expensive it gets."

Rehard noted that there are many mandatory responsibilities which cities must meet.

"They're laboring under a delusion if they think they can choose the responsibilities they want," he warned.

Rehard said his main concern is that the committee seeking cityhood for Orchard Lake is painting a brighter picture than the facts merit.

"But if they feel the services they require and the entity they hope to maintain are worth the trouble and responsibilities, that's fine," he said.

Workers' Try Fails; Truck, Jobs Gone

WALLED LAKE — It was a frustrating situation for members of Local 100, United Independent Workers of America.

That's why they tried to stop the truck, they said.

The foundation for the irony was laid two weeks ago when the union went out on strike during contract negotiations with Plastray Division of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp.

Members were on strike for 10 days, picketing the plant at 1225 W. Maple.

Then differences were settled Friday. Monday the 80 Plastray employes — 56 of them union members — were back on their jobs with five-cent raises, although they had been seeking 10 cents.

ASSETS LIQUIDATED

Tuesday they were notified that the assets of the company had been liquidated — they had no jobs.

Only a few were at the plant yesterday afternoon when the truck from Detroit Plastic Products arrived to pick up some of the products and equipment the company had purchased.

By the time the truck was ready to pull out, several of Plastray's 52 feminine ex-employes had formed a line across the driveway.

"We just couldn't stand there and let them haul away our jobs," said one.

Walled Lake Police Chief James A. Decker was summoned. He in turn phoned Joseph Franco, the president of the local who has been in the hospital for a week.

The truck went through.

SINCE 1957

The employes had operated machines, set dies, packed and stored at the company which moved here in 1957.

The company has agreed to pay those who lost their jobs vacation pay but not severance pay, according to H. V. Mutter, general manager.

That was another problem.

"I had to work eight more hours to get my full vacation pay," one of the women moaned.

"I just had 14 hours to go," said another.

"It was 50 for me — just a full week's work," a third said.

State Offers Schools 'Too Little Money'

LANSING (UPI) — State Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett accused the legislature and governor today of "offering pennies where dollars are needed" for schools.

Bartlett used the term to describe the proposed revisions in school-related portions of Gov. George Romney's tax program, which were disclosed after Republican caucuses Tuesday.

"The revised program, as it applies to state aid to local school districts, is interesting but completely unrealistic in the face of proven needs," Bartlett said.

★ ★ ★

"It does not even begin to alleviate to any extent the pressing financial difficulties with which so many of our schools are faced."

3-YEAR PROGRAM

The revisions called for a 3-year program of increasing school aid from the present $224 to $245 per pupil.

Bartlett said the revised program called for increased aid amounting to $7 million the first year throughout the state.

★ ★ ★

He added that needs to cover transportation, special education and problems of distressed school districts alone would cost $11 million — without ever considering other expenses.

★ ★ ★

"When we consider the total additional funds needed for the 1964-65 school year, we find some $40.5 million will be required . . . (and) this amount would not provide for any improvement in our education program," Bartlett said.

Rochester Kiwanis Names New President

ROCHESTER — New president of the Rochester Kiwanis Club is Herbert Stoutenburg, 2933 Heidelberg, Avon Township.

Serving with him during the coming year will be George Goble, first vice president; Herman Klix, second vice president; Ronald Featherstone, treasurer; and Louis Watson, secretary.

RECEIVES DESIGNATION—Renna (left) and Avis Hopkins admire the traditional marker their Wixom homestead received from the Detroit Edison Co. after being designated a Centennial Farm by the Michigan Historical Commmission. The farm, 2910 Loon Lake was acquired by Chipman Hopkins, great-grandfather of the women, in 1844. The two-story section of the house was built before 1835 with hand-hewn timbers and wooden pegs. Farming operations ceased in 1960 with the death of their brother, Ora.

Players Plan 'The Gazebo'

CLARKSTON — A comedy-mystery entitled, "The Gazebo," will be staged tomorrow and Saturday at 8 p.m. at Clarkston High School by the Clarkston Village Players.

Designed as family entertainment, the play will be presented in the school's little theater.

Harry Fahrner and Laura Logan will portray the leading roles of Eliot and Nell Nash.

★ ★ ★

Also in the cast are Pete and Janet Rose, Billie Crowley, Don Bradford, Vince Luzi, Ernest Denne, Lee Moore, Wallace D. McLay, Paul Bennett and Dr. Alfred S. Hamilton.

OVER THE TOP — Mrs. Keith Hallman (left) and Mrs. Richard Kroninger congratulated each other yesterday after it was announced that the Independence Township United Fund drive had surpassed its $3,600 goal by 8 per cent, totaling $3,989. Mrs. Hallman is head of the township's UF women's division. Her group collected $976, or 137 per cent of the quota. She holds one of the U.F. statues given at the luncheon in Pontiac.

Fine Leveled on Supervisor

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — After changing a guilty plea to one of no contest, Township Supervisor Loren Evans was fined $500 yesterday for failing to report campaign contributions of that same amount.

Appearing before Macomb County Circuit Court Judge George R. Deneweth, Evans was charged with not reporting five $100 gifts he received from officers of the Romona Land Co. in February.

A bribe charge against the supervisor was dismissed last month. Complainant in both cases was Harold Goldsmith, vice president of the land fill company.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday Deneweth ruled that Evans failed to report the contributions without an attempt to deceive and that justice would be served by a sentence requiring forfeiture of the funds not reported.

Apples Are Big Business in Oakland County

WHAT A MOUTHFUL — It's a Spy! No, not a foreign agent, but one of Oakland County's delicious apples. Mrs. S. S. Sloughter of Milford prepares to tackle the big apple.

UP A TREE—Mrs. Leonard Gross, Union Lake, can almost fill her sack with the apples pictured here, so thickly do they grow. This was true in spite of a May freeze, hail in June and the dry weather. Mrs. Gross is a picker on the Bob Long farm on East Commerce Road.

GRADER—Although the grading process is mechanical, someone has to feed apples to the machine. George Hekmen of Milford keeps the fruit rolling. Imagine doing this for 15,000 bushels of apples.

SPECIAL DELIVERY—Mrs. Larry Mainland starts out with a station wagon full of apples to be delivered to a Milford grocer. These apples have been sorted, graded and washed. There's nothing quite like a Michigan apple.

THEY BOUGHT—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dresser decide to take a bushel of Jonathans home with them. As he prepares to load them in the car she samples a large specimen.

PILED HIGH — Larry Mainland, owner of Oakland Orchards on East Commerce Road, checks one crate of apples in the storage room where thousands are placed for later sale. The Mainlands grow apples, peaches, plums and pears on their 140 acres.

Vegetable Rabbit Is New

Welsh rabbit (often called "rarebit") is always popular. But let's try another kind of rabbit. This, of course, is made with cheese, too, but also with vegetables and chives. Cheese combines well with a variety of foods.

Rabbit of Vegetables

2 medium onions, sliced thin
¼ cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup finely chopped green pepper
3 cups diced tomatoes
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
1 tablespoon sugar
¾ teaspoon ground nutmeg
2½ tablespoons white vinegar
2 teaspoons chopped chives
2 teaspoons chopped parsley
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
6 eggs, well beaten
6 slices buttered toast
Parsley or paprika for garnish

Saute onions in butter or margarine. Add green pepper, tomatoes, seasonings and vinegar. Cook until tender, stirring occasionally.

Blend in chives, parsley and cheese; cook 2 minutes. Stir in beaten eggs. Cook, slowly until done (2 or 3 minutes), stirring constantly.

Coconut Frosting Crowns Cake

Chocolate cake with creamy coconut frosting makes a happy ending for a dinner.

Creamy Coconut Frosting

⅓ cup butter or margarine
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 pound confectioners sugar, sifted
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons (about) milk or light cream
2-3 cup flaked coconut

Beat butter until soft; add salt. Gradually beat in part of the sugar. Beat in thoroughly the egg yolks and vanilla. Beat in remaining sugar alternately with milk until smooth and of spreading consistency.

Makes about 2½ cups. Spread over top and sides of chocolate cake baked in a 13 by 9 by 2 inch pan; sprinkle with coconut.

Without butter, or with butter, or "sandwiched" or toasted . . . any way you eat Jane Parker Bread you like it. That's guaranteed, or you get your money back.

Nursery School Children Enjoy Costume Party

What's new about a costume party for Halloween? Nothing. It's the one time in the year when all children want to get dressed up.

Phil Webb, Pontiac Press photographer, attended his first Halloween party Wednesday morning at Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

The four-year-olds in the cooperative nursery school were having their party.

Phil stayed in the background until the youngsters got used to his presence and ignored him. The pictures he took show children at their best.

No tricks were needed. And the results are all a treat for the reader.

Can't you hear Jane's crow of delight as she displays her finished pumpkin? Jane who dressed as an Indian for a Halloween party at her nursery school is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Myers of Orchard Lake.

After strenuous games a quiet story is in order and nursery school teacher Mrs. James Blain provides it. Not even a camera's flash bulb disturbs the attention of pirate Christian Cooper; tiger Julie Redner; Indian Jane Myers and Kelly Curren. All the children and Mrs. Blain live in Orchard Lake.

Jeffrey Moser who lives at Walnut Lake is in a pensive mood in spite of the jaunty hat he wore to the party. That's a crayon in his hand, not a cigar. Jeffrey is the son of the Charles J. Mosers.

Their Car Pool Is Swamped With Pint-Sized Invaders

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Three other mothers and I are in a car pool. My problem is not with them.

ABBY

It's with a mother who is not in our car pool. This mother has never asked if her children could ride with us.

She just sends them over every morning with instructions to get in the car. We have four children in our car without her two, and it is very crowded.

This mother has a car sitting in her driveway all day. Am I wrong to resent the nerviness of this woman?

How can I put a stop to it without getting a bad name with all the neighbors?

★ ★ ★

DEAR CROWDED: With a car in her driveway, and lacking the manners to ASK if her children may ride with you, this woman should be asked not to send her children over for a ride because the car is filled to capacity without them.

DEAR ABBY: I was painting my house on the outside and my neighbor's cat (she is one of those mushy types) got paint smeared all over herself.

It wasn't my fault. Now this neighbor thinks I put paint on her cat intentionally, but I didn't.

Should I apologize, or shouldn't she have taught her cat not to bother people when they're painting?

★ ★ ★

DEAR GEORGE: People can't resist bothering people when they're painting, so don't expect more from an animal.

Curiosity has killed many a cat. Your neighbor was lucky. Hers was only decorated for bravery. Apologize.

---

CONFIDENTIAL TO ROG: The difference between a prejudice and a conviction is that you can explain a conviction without getting mad.

He Should Drive His Date Home

Q: My son had a party here at home last Saturday night. All the guests were coupled off. At the end of the evening, my son asked a friend to drive his girlfriend home.

She resented this very much and thought it was my son's place to see her home. He has called her several times since the party and she refuses to speak to him. He is very upset over this.

I think she is acting very childish and that as long as she had someone to take her home, it wasn't necessary for my son to leave the house, drive all the way to the other side of town with her, and then back again when his friend lived only a short distance from her and was willing to take her home.

Was he wrong in not personally seeing her home?

★ ★ ★

A: If she had been merely one of the girl guests at the party, it was not at all necessary for your son to take her home, but as his own girlfriend, it is quite understandable that she expected him to do so and resented being sent home with someone else.

On the other hand, if the party was still going on when she left, he could hardly have left his guests to take her home and she certainly should have understood.

Q: Some of the guests who will be coming to my wedding have never met my fiance. Should I introduce him to them as they greet us in the receiving line, and if so, what do I say?

★ ★ ★

A: You introduce him as they come up to you, saying, "John, this is Aunt Mary"; to an acquaintance, "Mrs. Jones, this is John," or very formally, "Mrs. Smith, may I present my husband."

Mrs. Williams Heads Sorority Second Year

Mrs. Wallace Williams of Voorheis Road is serving her second year as national president of Sigma Beta Sorority. She was re-elected last weekend at the organization's annual convention in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Williams has been a member of Pontiac's Psi Chapter for 15 years and served as its president prior to running for national office. She has also served as national treasurer, recording secretary and vice president.

THREE DECADES

Sigma Beta was founded 30 years ago in Fort Wayne, Ind. and has since grown to include more than 1,000 members in chapters from Washington, D. C. to Phoenix, Ariz.

★ ★ ★

For a decade it has been providing high school scholarships for Indian boys and girls in Arizona. At the present time $7,500 is contributed annually.

★ ★ ★

The sorority also provides a $7,000 fellowship for the American Hearing Society and two scholarships for students studying in the mental health field.

MENTAL HEALTH

Locally, Psi Chapter contributes both service and money to the Michigan Mental Health Association and the Pontiac State Hospital. It was instrumental in acquainting the students of the junior high schools with career opportunities in the mental health area.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Williams is office manager for the Standard Electric Company and she and her husband belong to both the Viernes and Canterbury dance clubs. She also enjoys summertime recreation with the Business Girls Golf Association.

Club Hears Speeches

The November calendar for the Village Woman's Club, Bloomfield Hills, will open Monday at 1:30 p.m. with George Bird's lecture titled "Looking at Architecture."

Mr. Bird is Curator of Decorative Arts at Ford Museum.

★ ★

The Armchair Travelers of the club will again hear Kathryn Diamond and Sara Liekley, Birmingham teachers. They will show slides and lecture on their trip to Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand, at 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday.

Minor Wine Thomas, Curator of Decorative Arts at Ford Museum will speak on the "Evolution of American Garden Design" at 1:30 p.m. Nov. 18.

Dr. Robert Frehse will speak on "What Women Can Do in the Field of Human Relations" at 10 a.m. Nov. 22.

The purposes of the Village Woman's Club are educational and philanthropic. Lectures are open to non-members.

County Women Help AFS Sale

Oakland County women will assist with a preview sale sponsored by the American Field Service of Metropolitan Detroit, Tuesday, in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. A. O. Thalacker.

Handmade sweaters, baked goods, holiday cards and decorative items, also stocking stuffers, will be sold from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Area officers serving this year on the board of the AFS are Mrs. John Mann, Royal Oak, president; Mrs. John Bagby, Mrs. Roy Pitts both of Birmingham and Mrs. James Carmel, Bloomfield Hills.

Board member from Pontiac is Mrs. Ben Hawkins. Chapter president for Pontiac Northern High School is Mrs. Max Kerns and Mrs. R. S. Nelson for Pontiac Central.

The spring festival, April 18, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, is the annual fund-raising event for the AFS. Proceeds are sent to national headquarters in New York to be used for the scholarship program.

Opera Helpers Have Luncheon

Mrs. Ernest A. Jones of Bloomfield Hills will open her home Friday for a kick-off luncheon for those working on arrangements for the Metropolitan Opera's visit to Detroit next May.

About 35 chairmen and committee members will meet with Mrs. Jones, who is general chairman for the Franklin, Bloomfield Hills, and Birmingham area.

Corsages and Indian Oscars went to victorious chairmen of the United Fund women's division. Representing about 500 women workers who attended Wednesday's luncheon at the Elks Temple are (from left) Mrs. William Brace, women's campaign chairman; Mrs. Clark Easley, Waterford chairman; Mrs. Max Kerns, Lake Angelus chairman; and Mrs. William Freyermuth, Pontiac chairman. With them is Stuart Whitfield, master of ceremonies and UF commercial division chairman.

Head Injury Halts Colt Palmer Pyle for 1963

BALTIMORE (AP)—Offensive guard Palmer Pyle of the Baltimore Colts has been sidelined for the season after an encephalogram revealed the recurrence of a head injury.

Pyle, former Michigan Stater who missed the last eight games of 1962 because of dizziness and fainting spells, was placed on the reserve list Wednesday by the National Football League club.

The four-year pro was given a clean bill of health in training camp, and all examinations were negative until the last one. Doctors recommended he be sidelined rather than risk further injury.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

ROCHESTER, Minn. — Doug McLeod, 154, Grand Rapids, Mich., outpointed Sugar Boy Mando, 158, Rochester, Minn.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Joey Limas, 148½, Albuquerque, outpointed Aman Peck, 132, Tampa, Fla., 10.

Michigan Boxer Wins

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Doug McLeod of Grand Rapids, Mich., scored a split decision Wednesday night in his middleweight bout with Sugar Boy Mando of Rochester, Minn.

There were no knockdowns in the 10-rounder but McLeod, 154, took the nod by showing a bit more aggressiveness. Mando weighed 158.

Seaholm Eyes EML Crown at Roseville

Maples May End Title Quest Friday

Birmingham Seaholm will invade Roseville Friday evening with a high state ranking and a chance to bring home its first Eastern Michigan League championship in eight years.

Seaholm rode to the top of the EML heap in 1955, and the title-hungry eleven is priming for its showdown with the Wildcats tomorrow night.

The Maples hold the league lead with a 5-0-1 record and hold down the No. 5 spot in the Class A high school prep football poll.

Looking over the EML schedule, Royal Kimball journeys to Ferndale, Mt. Clemens is at East Detroit and Hazel Park entertains Port Huron.

Seaholm needs a win to sew up the league crown. Kimball, at 5-1, could take the championship with a decision over Ferndale if the Maples stumble at Roseville.

But coach Carl Lemle and the Maples could end all speculation with a favorable performance against the rugged Wildcats.

HEFT RETURNS

The return of Ken Heft is expected to bolster the Maples' offense. Heft, leading the team with 67 points, sat out last week's game with a bruised muscle.

The coaching staff said Wednesday that Heft would definitely be in the lineup Friday, and this announcement could be bad news for the Wildcats' defense.

Roseville's defensive alignment was cracked last week with the loss of defensive tackle Jim Griner who suffered a knee injury in the loss to Ferndale.

With the exception of Griner, coach William Sherman said the Cats are in top physical shape.

The Cats' defense ranks third behind Ferndale and Seaholm, giving up an average of 11.1 points a game.

Shouldering the defensive duties are twins Jerry and Larry Matiyow, at guard and tackle, along with tackle Augie Gambino.

The Ferndale-Kimball clash is a "must" for both squads, with the loser dropping into third place.

Auto Club Agrees to Use of Emblem

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The U.S. Auto Club, race sanctioning body, agreed Wednesday to sell the use of its emblem to the Detroit Motor Club, with pensions for race drivers as a possible result.

The contract, approved by the USAC directors, will permit the Detroit club to use the USAC emblem and initials and a slightly different name — U.S. Automobile Club. USAC is to get 50,000 shares of its stock and a minimum of $10,000 a year.

The Detroit Club has insurance franchises in 13 states and now operates out of Indianapolis headquarters.

Henry Banks, USAC director of competition, said, "I feel quite certain that our growth and the projection of the USAC image will be stepped up greatly through the Automobile Club's service to the motoring public."

U.S. Net Team Favored in Cup Bout at India

BOMBAY, India (AP) — The tennis court for the interzone Davis Cup finals between the United States and India beginning Saturday has been especially prepared to favor Indian star Ramanathan Krishnan.

Indian sports writers have been saying so for weeks. Since it arrived and began practice last week the American team has agreed.

★ ★ ★

Nevertheless, the Americans are favorites to beat India. The winner meets Australia late in December for the battered old silver cup that marks national supremacy in tennis.

The newly built clay court is very slow.

"It would be at the bottom of the list for fast courts if it were in the United States," U.S. nonplaying captain Robert J. Kelleher said today.

Homer Sparks Tigers

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Willy Horton smacked a two-run homer in the first inning to lead Detroit to a 4-3 victory over Minnesota in the Florida Winter Instructional baseball league Wednesday.

1934 Pontiac Cycle at Raceway Sunday

A 1934 Pontiac powered motorcycle will compete Sunday at International Raceway on a racing card that also includes super stock cars.

★ ★ ★

Last weekend's results saw Gary Springer of Pontiac's Push Button Engineering concern take top stock honors in a 1963 super stock Dodge at 114.70 miles per hour.

Ed Hollis of Oxford was the top eliminator of the day with a 152 m.p.h. clocking.

On Stock Exchange

Correction Continues Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market resumed its decline in active trading early today.

Losses of key stocks were mainly fractional, some going to around a point.

Brokers saw it as a continuation of the technical correction which sent the market down sharply yesterday. There was nothing much in the news to stimulate a return to the advancing phase which recently took market averages to a series of peaks.

* * *

General Motors dropped ¾ to 87 on an opening block of 6,700 shares and widened the loss to nearly a point.

BLUE CHIPS DOWN

Du Pont dropped about a point. Other Blue Chips which were cut back by profit taking also resumed a mild downtrend, although here and there some of these leaders were steady or showed small gains.

Yesterday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 1.6 to 280.7.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange and most changes were narrow. Gainers included Data-Control Systems, Occidental Petroleum and Barnes Engineering.

Among losers were Pyle National, Rayette and Felmont Petroleum.

* * *

Corporate bonds were irregular.

Cease-Fire Agreed for Algeria, Morocco

RABAT, Morocco (UPI) — Fierce new fighting raged today between Algerian and Moroccan forces along their disputed border despite a cease-fire agreement that comes into effect at midnight (6 p.m. Pontiac time) tomorrow.

* * *

Moroccan King Hassan II returned home from Bamako, Mali, where he signed the cease-fire arrangement yesterday with Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella.

As he received a wildly enthusiastic welcome and was hailed as "the nation's hero" because Moroccans were told last night that the cease-fire was a triumph for Hassan. The king's government announced the new battles.

* * *

An announcement said that Algerian troops launched attacks at three points in the western Sahara in the past 24 hours and said fighting is still going on.

BORDER AREAS

The battles took place to the north of Colomb Bechar, Algeria, near the village of Ich; at Djebel El Hammar in the Ksar Es Souk Province 180 miles southwest of Colomb Bechar; and at Ain Char, about 80 miles west of Figiug.

All are points along the disputed border in areas where unexploited mineral resources reportedly have been found.

Government sources said all three attacks were pushed back and that the Algerians suffered heavy losses. Moroccans at Ain Bechar reportedly captured 40 Algerian paratroopers.

* * *

The sources said all three battle sites were "clearly in Moroccan territory."

The battle of Ich was 600 miles to the north of Hassi Beida and Tinnjoub, the tiny desert oases which were the scenes of original clashes between the two countries three weeks ago.

Hundreds of Villages Said Hit in Guinea

CONAKRY, Guinea (UPI) — The rebel African party for the Independence of Portuguese Guinea charged today Portuguese jet planes wiped out hundreds of villages with napalm bombs.

* * *

The communique said the scorched earth campaign was carried out in rebel-held areas of Portuguese Guinea. It did not indicate when the attack occurred.

Should Help Balance

Dollar Drain Slowed

BY SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — The flow of American investment dollars abroad, especially to the European Common Market, is slowing down.

DAWSON

Once hailed as a good thing both for the American and European economies, such spending of late has become a worry to those seeking to cut U.S. deficits in world dealings.

Washington reports that threats of new taxes are holding down sales of foreign securities to Americans keeping such hot money at home and trimming the loss of U.S. dollars and gold.

The big rush of U.S. corporations to build plants overseas appears to have tired. And a larger proportion of such expansion is being financed abroad rather than with additional Yankee dollars.

AUTO FIRMS SLOW

The auto industry seems to have completed most of its European ventures. The chief remaining increase in spending there now is by U.S. chemical firms. The total of U.S. manufacturing expansion in Western Europe this year is a bit below last year, and American firms tell the U.S. Department of Commerce that next year's spending will be down still more.

Part of the slowdown in American business spending in the Common Market may be due to increased opposition there to what they fear will be American domination of their industries.

* * *

But part of the lag may be due to the signs that the big growth in the European economy in recent years is peaking out, too.

Most interesting to Washington monetary officials is that this year the worldwide investments of U.S. manufacturing, petroleum and mining companies is calling for only 16 per cent additional funds financed from U.S. sources. The rest of the cost is being borne by earnings and funds generated abroad by previous U.S. investments there.

IMPORTANT NOW

This is important just now because the United States is trying to trim the flow of dollars abroad and to raise the influx of funds from abroad. It has been running a deficit for so many years now that the big piles of dollars held by foreigners threaten U.S. gold reserves and could, if the situation should worsen, cast doubts on the value of the dollar.

But earnings from existing foreign ventures are financing 60 per cent of this year's expansion, and borrowings abroad 24 per cent. Also overseas profits of American concerns returning to this country are helping hold down the deficit.

* * *

While the buildup in American investments overseas seem to be slowing now, it is still a sizable figure—an estimated $4.9 billion this year, compared with $3.7 billion in 1959.

But the Commerce Department says that a survey of large companies show they plan to cut back to $4.5 billion in 1964.

SMALLER WORRY

If money generated overseas pays the major share of that expenditure, and if other earnings abroad flow back to the United States, American investments could be a minor worry for Washington officials seeking to hold down the net outflow of dollars.

The major problems would be the outlays for foreign economic and military aid and for maintenance of U.S. military forces abroad, plus the danger of any sudden rush of short-term money to more lucrative markets. Washington has been fighting the last by keeping short-term interest rates high here and by asking Congress for a retroactive tax on sale by foreigners of foreign securities to Americans.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "Would you give me your opinion of the following tax-exempts: Triborough Bridge Authority, Massachusetts Turnpike, Port of New York Authority, New York State Power Authority, New York Thruway, and Florida Turnpike." S. P.

A) You have selected a pretty fair group of tax-exempts.

I believe I should point out to you, however, that all of the bonds you have listed are what is known as special revenue bonds. They are payable solely from revenue derived as a rule from toll charges and are not a charge on the general revenue of a state or city.

Although these bonds have a fine record, it is a fact that the Chicago Calumet Skyway Toll Bridge issue went into default this year, when the revenue failed to meet fixed charges.

For safety and diversification, I would substitute for two of these issues, State of California 3.10s on a 3.25 basis (when issued).

* * *

Q) "We have $3,000 in a savings account earning 4 per cent, and these are all the savings we have. My husband is presently thinking about going into business on his own. We have three children. Do you think it is wise for me to invest the $3,000 in stocks?" O.S.

A) I suggest that you leave your money right where it is.

If your husband does go out on his own, he may find it necessary to channel nearly all the money he can right back into his own business. Your household income in this instance would be restricted and occasional dips into savings account might be necessary.

If the $3,000 were invested, you would be taking from yourself the one source of funds always fully available in an emergency. And by investing you would be placing your money under risk — because all investments, no matter how good, contain an element of market risk.

Insurrection and Slavery Subjects of Dixie Trials

By United Press International

Slavery and insurrection, anachronisms in 20th Century America, were the subjects today of federal court study in South Carolina and Georgia.

A three-judge court in Americus, Ga., will be asked to halt prosecution of insurrection charges against five young Negroes and whites.

The five have been held in jail without bond since their arrests last August during racial demonstrations in that city.

* * *

The slavery charges were ordered placed against Robert Moultrie Cook, a prominent South Carolina tobacco farmer, by a federal grand jury yesterday.

CHARGE THREATS

Federal attorneys charged that Cook used threats to force Max Roy McKenzie to work on his farm for $3 per day and kept half of his pay to "pay off some sort of alleged debt."

"As far as I know, this is the first case of slavery in the South in at least 40 years," said Assistant U. S. Attorney Klyde Robinson of Charleston. A man was convicted in Connecticut on similar charges last year, he said.

The civil rights workers in Americus are charged under a Reconstruction Era statute which provides that death may be imposed for violation of it.

* * *

The suit seeks immediate release of the five and asks the court to prohibit officials from intimidating or obstructing efforts to demonstrate peacefully.

This second phase of the petition which seeks to halt interference with demonstrations could set a precedent for legal action in civil rights disputes all across the South.

Pontiac Man Bound Over in Rape Case

A Pontiac man charged with raping a 51-year-old woman 13 months ago was bound over yesterday to Circuit Court for arraignment Monday.

Louis Milton Jr., 31, of 404 Bagley appeared before Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum. Milton failed to meet the continued bond of $50,000 and was returned to jail.

A second charge of rape against Milton was to have been heard yesterday, but time prevented it.

* * *

The preliminary examination on this charge of raping a 31-year-old mother of two after dragging her from her home Sept. 14 was put over until next Wednesday.

THIRD CHARGE

Milton also is waiting trial in Circuit Court on a third charge of rape. He is accused of raping a woman in Bloomfield Township April 13.

No trial date is scheduled.

U.S. Approves Branch of Community Bank

Approval for a new Community National Bank branch in Pontiac Township was announced yesterday by U.S. Controller of the Currency James J. Saxon.

The new branch will be located at Walton and Pontiac opposite Oakland University.

Bank officials say the branch will serve the growing university complex and nearby residential areas.
