Social Security Expansion OK'd by House Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee late yesterday approved most of President Eisenhower's proposals for expanding social security coverage.

And today it turned to White House requests for higher benefits, with another okay generally expected.

The committee lined up yesterday behind proposals to make more than seven million persons who are excluded now eligible for federal retirement and death benefit insurance.

The committee obviously was in a mood to extend the system, now covering some 70 million persons, to almost all the nation's working force. The committee so far has voted to add about 270,000 more persons than Eisenhower requested.

Compulsory coverage was voted yesterday for about 3,600,000 farm operators and about 500,000 doctors, lawyers, dentists, engineers, accountants and other professional groups—despite strong opposition by some, notably the American Medical Assn.

Nicaragua Bars Guatemalans

Charges Nation Broke Accord by Spreading Red Propaganda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nicaraguan Ambassador Guillermo Sevilla Sacasa said today his government broke relations with Guatemala yesterday, charging that Guatemala had violated an agreement by spreading Communist propaganda in Nicaragua.

The ambassador's statement confirmed earlier word from other sources here that the diplomatic break was not directly related to a recent arms shipment from Communist Poland which President Eisenhower described yesterday as "disturbing."

But it obviously provided additional backing for the view that the Nicaraguan move would help speed up a showdown on the whole situation in Guatemala, for months the target of accusations of pro-Communist activity.

Sevilla Sacasa told a reporter his government handed passports to the Guatemalan ambassador in Managua at 5 p.m. yesterday, along with a note explaining the action.

Officers' Red Face More Than Skin Deep

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Patrolman S. B. Romero cited rs. Jack Redman for making an illegal left turn yesterday. Mrs. Redman called her husband, a physician. He called police headquarters.

He wasn't complaining. He just wanted to tell police that the two Redman children in the back seat of the car had mumps and the patrolman had been exposed.

Romero has an appointment to take mumps' prevention shots from Dr. Redman today.

Jail Doors Close but Don't Open; Repairs Ordered

Old, worn-out locks have made some prison doors in the Oakland County Jail even more escape-proof.

That was indicated in a report of Fred W. Smith to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

"I understand we got some prisoners in jail and couldn't get 'em out," jokingly said the chairman of the board's ways and means committee.

Although the sticking locks sealed some doors tighter, supervisors decided others might be reaching the danger point.

They set aside $10,000 to have VanDorn Iron Works Co. of Cleveland put in new locks, repair still-usable ones and fix cell doors and install steel mirrors so the turnkey can see the entire main corridor from his office.

British U-Boat Bobs Up OK

Sub Scorcher Earlier Reported in Distress in Channel

LONDON (AP)—The British submarine Scorcher was reported lost for a short time in the English Channel today but came to the surface under its own power and signalled "all is well."

The scare occurred after surface vessels and other submarines lost coptact with the Scorcher in the course of maneuvers off Portland Bill, a cape near Portsmouth.

The signal "sub smash" used when a submarine is in distress, was flashed to ships and naval stations.

Flashing the dreaded signal was a routine precaution, an Admiralty spokesman said.

"Radio contact with the Scorcher was lost while the vessel was submerged," an Admiralty officer said. "Apparently the Scorcher was unable to restore contact immediately. Thereupon, in accordance with prescribed routine, the submarine rose to the surface and reported as quickly as possible that it was in no danger."

The Scorcher, an 814-ton vessel, normally carried a crew of 44. An extremely maneuverable craft, it is capable of swift dives. It participated in the search for the submarine Affray, which sank off the Isle of Wight with the loss of 75 officers and men in April 1951.

Car Output for Week Highest in 9 Months

DETROIT (INS) — Automotive News reported today that new car production this week will reach the highest level in nine months with an estimated output of 126,020 automobiles and 22,385 trucks.

A production gain of 4.5 per cent over last week was attributed by the trade publication to higher output schedules for 10 of the 18 makes of cars.

The big three—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—will account for 95.6 per cent of this week's output compared with 98.3 per cent last week.

Mundt 'Guesses' M'Carthy Won't Boycott Probe

But Wisconsin Senator Still Is Protesting Ike's Secrecy Order

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mundt R-SD. voiced a "guess" today, that Sen. McCarthy will not boycott resumption of the McCarthy-Army hearings now scheduled for Monday.

Mundt had just come from a closed door talk with McCarthy, but he said this had not been discussed between them.

McCarthy himself has left in doubt what course he might follow. He contends his side faces a "stacked deck" situation because of President Eisenhower's ban on testimony from government officials about confidential talks within the administration on the McCarthy-Army row.

Mundt said he plans now to go ahead Monday with hearings and that "I wouldn't anticipate any more recesses" as long as the current week's one.

A reporter asked Mundt about speculation that McCarthy might refuse to participate in the resumption.

"Do you expect McCarthy will be there Monday?" the reporter asked.

"If I were going to guess, I'd guess yes," Mundt said, but emphasized he was not basing that on any commitment from McCarthy.

McCarthy himself told reporters after the talk with Mundt that he still is "at a loss" about his next move.

McCarthy, who calls the presidential order a "gag", said of it: "It is ridiculous beyond comprehension to have the President and the Secretary of the Army say they want all the facts on the

Pontiac Escapes Frost but Some County Areas Hit

Although parts of Michigan shivered under freezing temperatures and heavy frost last night, Pontiac escaped the brunt of the cold snap. Frost damage was reported in some county areas.

The coldest spot in the nation today was Pellston, which recorded a low of 24 degrees. In comparison, Pontiac and Detroit had lows of 38 and 36 respectively. The all-time low for this date is 34 degrees, registered in 1895.

The U. S. Weather Bureau promises only moderate relief from the unseasonable cold, although fair skies will continue.

A low of 40 to 42 tonight is expected to rise to a high of from 66 to 70 on Friday. At 8 a.m. today the temperature stood at 48, but by 2 p.m. in downtown Pontiac the reading was 58.

U.S. Set to End Geneva Parley

Fate of Talks Hinging on Change of Attitude by Reds

GENEVA (AP) — Top diplomats at the Geneva conference held a series of private talks today which may determine the fate of the deadlocked Indochina parley. The United States was reported ready to write off the negotiations as a failure unless the Communists drastically change their line.

Formal negotiations were suspended for the day. The latest snarl was due to continued Red demands that the Communist "resistance governments" of Laos and Cambodia be invited to Geneva.

The Western powers regard these as phantom regimes with no following and no right to representation.

One high Western source acknowledged Western diplomats had given some thought to the question of breaking off the talks. The source said it was impossible at this stage to see any sign the Communists were going to agree to anything.

The U. S. delegation was represented as feeling the Indochina discussions were getting nowhere. The Americans were said to be reluctant to break up the conference, however, until the French feel all possibilities have been exhausted.

Jordan Lodges Protest

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP) —Jordan today complained to the Mixed Armistice Commission of two alleged violations by Israel of the armistice line, a Jordan military source said.

Senate Committee to Scan Allied Trade With China

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Bridges (R-NH) said today the Senate Appropriations Committee will make a "searching inquiry" into the extent to which free world allies have agreed to relax bans on trade with Red China.

Bridges' plan for an investigation of this issue came after Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) told the Senate yesterday it would be "criminal folly" not to cut off U. S. financial aid to nations which ship the "fine sinews of military and economic strength" to the Communists.

McCarthy had barely finished his floor address before Foreign Aid Administrator Harold E. Stassen shot back with a statement that what the senator said was "fantastic, unbelievable and untrue."

Stassen, who has tangled with McCarthy before, said, "We are steadily building for peace under President Eisenhower's leadership." And in an obvious reference to McCarthy's televised tangle with Army officials, Stassen declared, "Sen. McCarthy is frantically reaching for diversionary headlines after the sorry spectacle of his record in recent hearings."

McCarthy, in what he said was a "painful and unpleasant" discussion of Republican "shortcomings," called for the listing by Stassen of "every type of material which we have agreed that our allies can ship to our enemies."

tiac the reading was 57.

Bridges said in an interview today that the appropriations group, which passes on foreign aid funds, "already has taken cognizance of Stassen's statements indicating a weakening of the ban on trade with the Reds."

"We will want to go into this matter very thoroughly and see that the aid we are giving, or its equivalent, is not directly or indirectly filtering into Communist hands," he said.

Stassen's statement said a full accounting of the administration's "successful administration of trade controls" was given in a

JOHN COSTELLO

De Valera Out as Irish Leader

Coalition Takes Reins in Parliament; Costello Sure Winner

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) —John A. Costello's coalition today tumbled Prime Minister Eamon de Valera from power by winning control of the Irish Dail (Parliament).

Nearly complete tabulations of Tuesday's election results showed De Valera's Fianna Fail (Men of Destiny) party had lost any mathematical chance of gaining a majority in the 147-seat Dail.

The latest standings showed De Valera's party had won 61 seats to 74 for the coalition. Four seats went to independents. Of the other eight seats, five remained to be counted and polling for three was put off until May 26, because of the death of candidates.

Fianna Fail polled about 10 per cent fewer votes than it did in the last general election three years ago. Observers attributed this decline to a housewives' revolt against rising prices.

Irish political leaders never concede an election till the last ballot is counted.

Key Delta Town in Near Panic as Reds Close In French Citizens Jittery, Collect Guns as Rebel Threat Becomes Real

HANOI (UP) — The vanguard of Communist Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's victorious Red army approached the outer defenses of the Red River delta today.

Hanoi, the key to French defenses in North Indochina, was near panic.

Corsair fighters ranging west along colonial route 41 said the advance elements of the Communist hordes which crushed Dien Bien Phu have pushed three miles beyond Moc Chau. They are now only 75 miles from Hanoi itself.

These troops were described as the vanguard of four divisions moving eastward after their victory at Dien Bien Phu.

Rumors swept Hanoi that Chief of Staff Gen. Paul Ely had arrived to direct the French evacuation of Tonkin province in which Hanoi is located.

Communist leaflets circulated through the native quarters saying that Giap was about to launch a sweeping offensive against the rice rich delta.

Other propaganda leaflets claimed the Hanoi-Haiphong highway and railroad, which connect this inland capital with the sea, will be cut shortly and the city isolated.

The French population of this city was on edge. Panic was narrowly averted during the night in one night club when the proprietor announced he heard all civilians had to be evacuated from Hanoi within a month.

"Meanwhile," he said, "we are offering free champagne to everyone so the Viets (Communists) won't get it."

Actually no such announcement has been made, but the patrons half believed it.

Business has come to a near stand-still. Contracts are being

Pin-Point Real Estate Deal

Firm Buys 89-Trillionth Share of Business Lot

A Florida company has paid $315 on a chunk of Pontiac business property so small it is scarcely visible. And it stands to profit by the deal.

The Atlantic Municipal Corp. of Miami paid the downtown property's back taxes in a bid to gain only an 89-trillionth share of its ownership.

The transaction was made in the recent tax sale conducted by the Oakland County Treasurer's office.

By law, the county permits those bidding for the smallest share in the ownership in the property to pay its back taxes.

If the original owner fails to pay the back taxes in 18 months, said County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks, the Florida firm will be permitted to seek a title for its pin-point size interest in the land.

If the taxes are paid, the firm will get back its $315 plus interest. The interest rate is 12 per cent for the first year and 50 per cent for the next six months.

The firm apparently wants the interest, as most observers expect the original owner to pay the back taxes on the valuable business frontage.

Travel agencies said they are are swamped with demands for steamer and airplane tickets. Big business firms are seeking to transfer their stocks to Saigon, far to the south.

There was no solid indication when Giap would launch his attack on the delta and on Hanoi.

But the roving French fighters and bombers reported machine-gunning truck columns of troops and mobile 105 mm howitzer batteries which already have passed Moc Chau at the gateway to the delta.

Other Frnch pilots reported leaving lines of trucks in flames farther west in the biggest air attacks since Dien Bien Phu fell.

Several thousand Red troops besieged three vital defense posts in the southern delta itself. And 29 rebel partisans were captured by French union forces only six miles from Hanoi's outskirts.

vote to bring in doctors was 12-8.

And the committee voted to make coverage available for about 3,200,000 state and local government employes who have been excluded because they already have some sort of local retirement system. Under the new proposal, they could have both.

To come under the federal system, a majority of state and local employes in any separate group would have to participate in a referendum, and two-thirds of those voting would have to agree.

Then coverage would be compulsory for all in that group.

The requirement that a majority must participate in the referendum was not included in the administration bill, but administration officials said they did not oppose it. The committee also voted to include firemen and policemen, who were not included in the administration bill.

table in these hearings and then have them support this order."

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said he knows of no way McCarthy could be forced to take the witness stand in the investigation if the senator should decide to walk out.

Mundt called members of the Senate Investigations subcommittee to meet later this afternoon.

Asked whether McCarthy would be invited to attend, Mundt said, "I know of no reason why he should be."

He said the meeting was called to give the other senators a report on his talk yesterday with Atty. Gen. Brownell, and for consultations on whether or how to place in evidence stenographic transcripts of monitored telephone calls between Army officials and members of the McCarthy camp.

Mundt said he expects Army Counselor John G. Adams, one of the principals, will be in the witness chair when the hearings resume, but that Adams may step aside to permit questioning of Secretary of the Army Stevens on one point.

This, he said, would be Stevens' statement yesterday taking sole responsibility for placing charges against Sen. McCarthy and the senator's aides.

Mundt said he believes that after Stevens and Adams have finished their testimony, questioning of other Army witnesses can be completed "in about one day."

Mundt said he believes witnesses from the McCarthy camp then will take over.

Senate to Check Sales to Red China

report to Congress made public Sunday.

In that report Stassen portrayed free world trade with the Communist bloc as a whole as declining in 1953. While commerce with Red China crept up at least temporarily, he said, "the glittering prospect of a vast and lucrative trade" which traders envisioned with the Chinese mainland "was not materializing."

McCarthy told reporters his Senate speech was no "one-shot affair" — that he intends to pursue the subject further.

He said Congress should withhold foreign aid funds until the administration enforces what he said would be a practical "blockade" on the coast of China by telling American allies "they will not get one cent of American money so long as they either ship goods to Red China or allow their ships to be used to carry cargoes to Red China." The United States has barred its traders from shipping to the Chinese Communists.

In response to a question by Sen. Chavez (D-NM), McCarthy said it was "correct" that he was criticizing policies of the GOP administration. He said Eisenhower had "taken many steps in the right direction" but hadn't gone far enough.

Oakland Historical Society Holds Eightieth Luncheon

The eightieth annual meeting and luncheon of the Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society was held Wednesday at the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, with 100 in attendance.

Guest speaker was Howard Peckham of the Clements Library at the University of Michigan.

Drawing from his many years' experience in such work in both Michigan and Indiana, he cited many ways of gathering and preserving historical data in any community. In most of these, the local society is far above the average of other areas.

President Ernest Huthwaite of Pontiac presided at the luncheon and business session. The invocation was by the Rev. Andrew S. Creswell.

Reports of the various officers showed that during the past year some improvements have been made on the Moses Wisner Home, now owned by the society. Also a large volume of historical work has been done, and 832 cards of biographical and genealogical data added to the permanent file.

Officers elected for the coming year were: President, Mr. Huthwaite; first vice president, Mrs. L. L. Dunlap, Pontiac; second vice president, Joe Haas, Holly; secretary, Mrs. N. W. Peterson, Pontiac; treasurer, H. F. Going, Pontiac; historian, Mrs. E. V. Howlett, Pontiac.

Radar Effective Curb on Speed

New Jersey Turnpike Claims Better Traffic Record With Device

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (INS) —Radar is effectively curbing speeders on the New Jersey Turnpike and helping to improve the highway's fine safety record.

During 1953, the first year of radar's use, the accident and fatality rate dropped 32 per cent, to levels far below those of parallel highways in New Jersey, and the nation's highways as a whole.

Radar was responsible for the apprehension of twice as many reckless drivers in 1953 as were apprehended by the entire detachment of State Police assigned to the Turnpike in the previous year.

Scanning approaching traffic from varied positions on the state trooper's car, the rectangular black radar box clocks each vehicle and its speed on a cardiograph-like recording device. When the graph shows a speed violation, the trooper marks the offender's license number alongside and radios a description of the vehicle to troopers ahead who make the arrest.

Troopers say that by the time a speeder has recognized the radar car, it's too late — he's been clocked. Recently, one speeder was flagged down going north and south by the same trooper. "I'll never try it again," he vowed as he pocketed his second summons of the day.

Revenues from all summonses issued by State Police on the Turnpike go to the state, and court costs to the municipality in which the violation is committed. Not one penny inures to the benefit of the Turnpike.

Company Uses Cooking Lesson to Prove Point

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Defending a suit against her husband for failing to pay installments on a set of aluminumware, Mrs. J. C. Davenport in a cross action charged food stuck to the pans.

A company representative promptly whipped out a small stove, picked up a pan and fried an egg in the courtroom. Then he removed the egg and showed the jury a pan with no egg stuck to it.

The jury ruled the company could have both the pans and the money Davenport had paid on them.

Tiny Lamp Perfected

BLOOMFIELD, N. J. (INS)— The smallest lamp in the world— as small as the head of a pin— has been perfected by lamp engineers for use in missile tests. A neon glow lamp only 1/20th of an inch in diameter, it aids in timing photographic records of missiles in action. It also can be used for similar camera work in laboratories where space is cramped.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Ike Right Saying "No"

President Eisenhower rightly has ruled out any probability that he will lift his ban on testimony concerning a Justice Department conference last January 21.

His action followed a one week adjournment of the Army-McCarthy hearing voted by the committee. Aim of the adjournment was to provide time for a committee effort to win modification of the ban.

When he originally refused to permit revelations of what transpired at that meeting, the President cited precedents extending from the Washington to the Truman Administration. In other words, the Chief Executive is standing firm against an attempt at legislative encroachment on the prerogatives of the presidency.

We think that it not only was his right but his duty to do this. We believe with him, too, that it is essential to efficient administration that employes of the Executive branch be completely candid in advising with each other on official matters. Therefore, it is not in the public interest that any of their conversations or communications be disclosed.

For basically similar reasons we believe the Executive Branch is right in ordering that no part of the two and a quarter page resume of an FBI report to the Army be made public. It also is our opinion that the intelligence officer who made this material available to Sen. McCarthy had violated both his oath and the security law.

We disagree with the Democratic members of the McCarthy committee who believe the one week adjournment means the end of the hearing. Republican members insist that the inquiry will continue.

To drop this matter now would be to leave Sen. McCarthy with an advantage not only unfair to Secretary Stevens and the Army, but contrary to the American concept of justice and fair play.

Michigan Farms Modern

One of the reasons why Michigan ranks high among the states is that its farm homes are modern and well equipped.

That condition was made possible by the vision of our farmers and power companies with a considerable assist from the Rural Electrification Administration.

The result, according to REA figures quoted by Sen. Ferguson, is that Michigan leads the Nation with 99.9 per cent of its farm homes electrified. The national average is 90.8 per cent.

One of the big factors in this spread of labor saving electricity has been competition. Consumers Power, Detroit Edison, REA and many smaller plants not only have helped mightily in the process, but have been persuaded by our progressive farmers to extend this invaluable service.

Today almost every Michigan farm home is equipped to use as modern appliances as those which lighten the burdens of urban housewives. Availability of power also has had a tonic effect on the State's economy by greatly expanding the area in which modern industry is possible.

"The entire universe is expanding at an enormous, and perhaps dangerous, rate," declares an astronomer. Inflation seems to be rifle all over.

Segregation Outlawed

First Southern reactions to the Supreme Court decision outlawing educational segregation indicate it will be a long time before white and Negro children will attend school together there.

That the court wisely foresaw the difficulties ahead was made clear in its unanimous decision. It gave notice that it would hear further arguments this Fall on how and when to implement this history making opinion.

The ruling that segregation in schools is unconstitutional is a victory for the Negro parents involved in the five cases under consideration. In it the court reversed the famous Plessy vs. Ferguson decision of 1895 which established the principle of equal but separate school facilities.

It also held that segregation does in fact deny District of Columbia Negroes the due process of law guaranteed them under the Fifth Amendment. The cases from four states were based on the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Marguerite Parrish Says Open House Enlightened Many Visitors to Hospital

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

On behalf of the patients and staff members of the Pontiac State Hospital, may we thank you for your splendid cooperation in making our recent "Open House" a success. We know that the articles your newspaper wrote on our hospital were instrumental in informing the public of our hospital and its facilities.

During the four days the hospital was open, more than five thousand people visited the institution. We feel that many who had misconceptions and prejudices were shown in a true light that they were mistaken and that in the future they will work toward helping the mentally ill.

We wish to thank you again for your cooperation and understanding regarding the mental patient and his problems.

Arrogance of Communists at Geneva Is Shocking, and More War Is Talked

By DAVID LAWRENCE

GENEVA — The talk now is of more war in Indochina instead of peace. There are even hints that a general war in the world is not as far distant as most people believe.

The inscrutable behavior of the Communists here, which outwardly at least reveals a studied arrogance and a contempt for the process of negotiation itself, has shocked the delegates from the Western powers.

This conference is now in a state of deadlock on the main issues, and it looks as if only at the last minute — as the top delegates begin packing their suitcases — can anything in the way of a compromise be expected.

It looks also as if the British may have outsmarted themselves at this conference. Prime Minister Churchill's speeches have had probably the opposite effect from what he intended.

When he said Britain wouldn't make any commitments on a Southeast Asia pact until after Geneva, he doubtless believed that this would remove some complications and enable Britain's delegation to play, as between the East and the West, the familiar role in diplomacy known as that of the "honest broker."

But instead this has encouraged the Communists to stall and stall. For, if the British are to wait for the outcome of the Geneva conference before taking any decisive action, the Communists figure they can use stalling tactics and wait a long time and wear out the Americans and the French.

When Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, head of the American delegation, came here, he was asked by Foreign Minister Molotov — whom he knew in Moscow when he was American ambassador to Soviet Russia — how long he was preparing to stay.

The general replied that he would stay as long as there was a chance of agreement. But since that time it has become apparent that the Communists don't want to make any agreements on either Indochina or Korea, so there is little use of continuing the conference except to let the world learn more and more about the Soviet responsibility for the failure to make progress here.

One thing that may go on for weeks and weeks is the exchange of views on armistice proposals for Indochina.

This looks like another Panmunjom technique of long-drawn-out parleys, and it may develop that a small commission of military men and diplomats of lower rank will be appointed to struggle with the problem through the summer months while the principal delegates go home. Thus the discussions would never actually be broken off.

Meanwhile, measures of a bellicose nature are being canvassed at Paris. The French and American military talks there and in Washington are proceeding, and there are rumors of military preparations in anticipation of some emergency.

It is believed also that the French government's attitude is stiffening and that some bolder plans for operations in Indochina may be revealed soon. Certainly there is to be noted a considerable decrease of defeatism on the French side.

There is something a bit ironical about the protests that swept London a few days ago when news came out about the Franco-American military talks.

For two weeks now London has been telling the world that it doesn't believe in any military action or commitments at this time in respect to Southeast Asia.

Then, when the Americans and French took this seriously and forgot to advise the British about the talks, there was a loud outcry in the London press about how Eden had been snubbed.

The Americans gracefully admitted that it was a "slip up" and assured Foreign Secretary Eden — who had not objected to the talks themselves but to the failure to keep him informed — that he would hereafter be kept fully posted.

Now, fortunately, the British have announced that military men of Britain as well as France and America are to take part in staff talks to begin at once in Washington.

The moral effect of this could be to recover lost ground and to show the Communists — who have been construing Britain's attitude as one of weakness — that the Allies are getting closer together after all. To achieve this has been the main effort of Secretary of State Dulles.

There is no doubt that for some time now the Communists have been depending heavily on the influence of Nehru of India to keep the British government from going along with the Americans.

In fact, some Asians have been saying privately here that they believe Britain could be persuaded to adopt a "neutralist" policy in the next war. Nobody of importance on the American side believes any such thing.

The speeches of Churchill in the House of Commons, however, have generated the fear in many quarters, that, just as before World War I and before World War II the vacillating and indeterminate nature of British foreign policy served as a basis for miscalculation by the aggressor governments, so today a basis for another miscalculation is being laid.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Our Best Friends Are Russia's Satellites

Dr. Nyaradi should address every high school and college audience in America. After you hear his vivid, first-hand account of Communism, you'll be glad to deport every would-be Communist with a one-way ticket to the Kremlin.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case L-310: Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi, aged about 50, is the eloquent former finance minister of Hungary.

He and I shared the lecture platform at Decatur, Illinois, during the winter, as we addressed the teachers' convention there.

"I was called to the Kremlin to be taught how I could co-operate more fully with the Communists," he said.

"For when Gen. Patton was forced to withdraw by orders from Washington, D. C. and let the Russian hordes take Central Europe, they looted my country of all its gold.

"That wasn't enough, so they called me to Moscow. During our conference, a recess was taken, so I pulled out an American newspaper from my brief case.

"One of the Russian dignitaries, who read and spoke English very well, glanced at my newspaper.

"Then he rudely jerked it from my hand and rushed over to the far side of the room, where he cried out in delight to his Communistic colleagues:

" 'Hurrah, America is in open revolution. The insurgents have marched on Washington, D. C."

"Well, Dr. Crane, I couldn't recall having seen any such headline while I was glancing at the paper.

"So when he finally gave it back to me, I scanned it eagerly, and then I saw what had excited him. It was the front-page headline, which read: 'Indians Defeat Senators.'

"He thought the American Indians were in open revolt and had defeated your American Congress. He didn't realize those were simply nicknames of two of your big league baseball teams."

Dr. Nyaradi also explained that there are two iron curtains in Europe. The first is the one between the satellite nations and the outside free world.

"But there is another iron curtain which separates Poland and Czechoslovakia and the other captive nations from Russia itself," he added.

"The best friends that America has are actually those captive people behind the outer iron curtain but shut off by that inner iron curtain.

"For they formerly tasted the wonderful benefits of a capitalistic economy. And they had visited freely back and forth between Europe and America.

"So they know the gross inferiority of Russian merchandise and they rankle under the police state which has been imposed upon them."

Dr. Nyardi then mentioned how a communist mother said the safest toy for her baby was her husband's razor blades — because they were so dull!

Obviously, this may have been sarcasm, but Dr. Nyardi said she was not far wrong in her views.

He then recommended that we send "balloon ambassadors" behind the iron curtain, and attach safety pins, razor blades, pads of safety matches and other American products of slight weight.

"Add a little note of friendship with each one," he said, "for Russia can't prevent the peasants from getting this merchandise. It will be so small in size that they can hide it from the police. And it will show up the inferior stuff that Russia manufacturers."

He then told of a great crowd he saw lined up because Uncle Joe was passing out 2,000 pairs of shoe laces to the workers.

When Dr. Nyardi laughed, a Russian Communist upbraided him severly by saying that "Over in America the workers don't even have shoes!"

Baering Down

Mayor's committee on vehicular population spurned my suggestion to turn Central Park into a trailer colony.

Turning Ninth Avenue into a one-way street is not enough if you let 'em come back on another street.

In 1922 this stack of civic kibitzing said the only way to cross to the opposite side of Fifth Avenue was to be born there.

Just yesterday our traffic maestro checked seven buses northbound in one block. And eight southbound in the same block. Our suggestion is why not use wax dummies instead of passengers?

Better still idea is to take the buses off Fifth Avenue. Which Mike Quill does every chance he gets.

Visitors to Manhattan are requested to park on the Jersey side. Traffic is so bad we have a commissioner of baby carriages.

Making cars shorter does not solve the problem. That only brings them closer together.

The mayor's committee on bad brakes considered my idea of putting sliding doors on taxicabs. Or have cars made on the accordion principle. When they crashed head-on they would play a tune.

Dr. Brady Is Irked O ver Morbid Notion That Calcium Can C ause 'Rheumatiz'

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

A lot of knuckleheads — this is still a free country and no one need acknowledge he is one—still believe I'm nutty on a number of subjects, especially calcium.

I don't mind this. After all, it's their health not mine, that is concerned.

I just keep hammering away on the calcium shortage in this land of cheat foods—and I can say Lord, Lord, I have tried to tell them.

What irks me so much is the way the trick specialists and racketeers keep patients coming for "shots" by telling the poor geeks they may get "calcium deposits" in their joints or arteries if they continue supplementing their diet with optimal daily rations of calcium.

These fast buck boys who have converted medicine into a lucrative business get away with it for two reasons.

First, they know that nearly all laymen are woefully ignorant of anatomy, physiology, hygiene, nutrition and the prevention of disease.

Second, they know that most physicians have forgotten what they learned or should have learned in medical school about pathology.

The morbid notion that "deposits" of calcium in or around joints may cause the joint disability called rheumatiz or, if you must have white sidewalls, "arthritis," or in the artery walls may cause hardening of the arteries, is strictly for the birds.

The deposit of calcium or calification of tissue occurs only too often, but this is a consequence of degeneration, which follows months or years after deterioration has been neglected, or improperly treated.

These statements apply without reservations to the two questions which are so much misunderstood, namely, high calcium diet and the supplementation of the ordinary diet with an optimal daily ration of calcium and vitamin D.

By optimal daily ration I mean two or three times as much as nutrition authorities consider necessary to prevent nutritional deficiency manifestations.

Thus the amount of calcium in 3 pints of milk and the amount of vitamin D in a tablespoonful of standard cod liver oil is an optimal daily ration.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

DEADLOCKED SWIM DOCK—This swimming dock, equipped with pontoons, once used to float in Grand Lake, near Grove, Okla. But it is now landlocked as a result of the severe drought that moved the lake's shore line. The springboards now extend over weeds that grow where the water was once 20 feet deep.

Visiting Bankers Set Off Alarm Bringing Police

SALAM, Mass. (AP)—Officials of the North Shore Bank and Banking Co. were showing their new quarters to a group of visiting bankers yesterday when police rushed up with riot guns and pistols.

Police said the new type burglar alarm which does not sound in the bank had gone off at police headquarters.

Bank Manager T. H. Millea Jr. explained with some embarrassment the visitors probably set it off accidentally.

However, he said he was pleased to learn the alarm worked so well.

Congressmen Seek to Abolish Senate

MANILA (AP) — Angry congressmen sought a constitutional amendment last night to abolish the Senate but Speaker Jose B. Laurel Jr. persuaded them to lay their resolution on the table.

The representatives charged that the Senate had blocked passage of several vital House bills.

"Interlegislative conflicts," the resolution said, "have resulted in the mutilation of legislative measures and in horse trading."

About one half of all injuries and one third of all deaths occur in the home.

Burglar Makes Good Advocate for Errant Wife

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Even though his wife left him for another burglar, John Formby pleaded with the court to be lenient with her, and she got a county jail sentence instead of a state prison term.

Mrs. Dee Formby was charged with robbery and burglary after her arrest with the other man, John Pattison, 27, who already is in prison.

Formby, 28, of Bellflower, told Superior Judge Mildred Lillie yesterday:

"I love her and I'll wait for her and make a home for her, judge."

Formby didn't say how or when. He is due in Long Beach Superior Court next Thursday himself—for sentence on a burglary charge.

Gives Truman Credit for Truth on Soviet

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. (AP) — Here's one Republican who wants to give Democratic former President Harry Truman "credit for tying up the Communists for three years in Korea."

Rep. Walter Judd (R-Minn), chairman of a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on the Far East and a onetime medical missionary in Asia, told the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs convention last night:

"If the Communists hadn't gotten tied up in Korea they would have gone directly to Indochina and, by this time, they would have it. During the Korean War, the truth of communism leaked out."

Most of the water supply of New York City is obtained from the Catskills, 100 miles distant.

Changing Plea at Last Minute Lightens Penalty

OMAHA (AP)—When Esther Brooks of Omaha appeared before County Judge Robert Troyer on a drunk driving charge, she pleaded innocent.

Judge Troyer held trial and found her guilty.

He paused and commented, "In fairness to persons who plead guilty and indicate they are sorry, this case should not merit the minimum penalty."

Defense Atty. Philip Abboud came to his feet fast with a motion to withdraw the innocent plea and substitute a guilty plea. Judge Troyer accepted the motion and put the penalty at $100 fine and suspension of driver's license for six months—the minimum penalty.

RED BACKFIRE—The cigarette-case gun brought to West Germany by a Soviet agent on a death mission backfired on the Russians after the agent turned himself over to Allied authorities. "Paix Et Liberte," an anti-Communist group in Paris, France, erected this huge propaganda sign showing the agent using the gun to kill. The sign reads, "A friendly gesture from the Russians—the cigarette that goes boom."

Marchioness Gets Financial Settlement

NEW YORK (AP)—Counsel for the Marchioness of Milford Haven says she has received a satisfactory financial settlement from the Marquess of Milford Haven, her estranged husband.

The settlement was disclosed yesterday when the attorney, Harold H. Corbin, told State Supreme Court Justice B. M. McNally in a letter that there was no further need to pursue two motions dealing with the couple's countersuits for divorce.

Corbin declined to discuss details. Other sources have indicated the settlement included a five-figure, lump-sum payment.

Southern Soldier Statue Gets White Flag Trim

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — The statue of a Confederate soldier here was draped with a white flag yesterday.

Who did it, or whether it had anything to do with the U. S. Supreme Court's abolition of public school segregation, remained a mystery.

In the last eight years five golfers have won the U. S. Open. They are Ben Hogan, four times, Julius Boros, Dr. Carry Middlecoff, Lew Worsham and Lloyd Mangrum.

S. Korea Elects Assemblymen

8 Million Ballots Cast for National Assembly; Results Not Known

SEOUL (AP)—Koreans from crowded, bomb-wrecked cities and shell-pocked farms trekked to polling booths today to vote for a new South Korean National Assembly.

The election has been called an off-year test of President Syngman Rhee's popularity.

Rhee and his wife were among the first to cast ballots in Seoul this morning.

An estimated eight million ballots were cast before the polls closed at 5 p.m., and it may be two days before complete returns are in. Good weather helped bring out a heavy vote.

Despite cries from the independent and opposition blocs of police intimidation and interference and equally strong denials by government authorities of such activity, the voting appeared to be peaceful. The nation is under an emergency police alert.

Rhee's Liberal party says it expects to win 110 of 203 Assembly seats. The major opposition Democratic Nationalists are pessimistic. They look for only 20 of their men to be elected.

Rhee's forces hope to capture enough seats to gain a working majority in the legislature—something they have not had since 1952.

Candidate Files 3 Times Before Getting on List

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—It took Clarence R. Bristol of Ansley three tries to file for governor of Nebraska before he made it official.

A week ago he appeared at the Statehouse to complete the filing. He misfired that time because he didn't have a receipt for the fee required in a candidate's home county.

Two days later, he mailed in a receipt for a $50 fee. That backfired because $50 is the fee for filing for U. S. senator while for governor it is $10.

On the third try he got it all straightened out and his name officially went among the list of Republican candidates for nomination.

Susan Hayward's Twins Allowed to Go to Utah

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Movie actress Susan Hayward has been granted court permission to take her twin sons with her on location at St. George, Utah, June 4 to July 4.

Superior Court yesterday overrode the contention of her estranged husband, actor Jess Barker, that the boys, Timothy and Gregory, 9, should not be taken from the public school they attend. Miss Hayword told the court she would provide a tutor to keep up their school work.

Men Are Created Equal Moving Nearer to Truth

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
(International News Service)

It's an historic victory, I thought not only for democracy but for science as well.

Psychiatry, psychoanalysis, child psychology—they all played their part, I deeply believe, in taking us toward the great milestone of the Supreme Court's unanimous decision that segregation in our public schools is unconsititutional.

Nearly 60 years ago, when the 1896 court permitted "separate but equal" facilities on trains (and in effect, everywhere else) —little was yet known by science about insecurity, inferiority feelings, the deep and terrible results of feeling unwanted, second-class, beyond the pale.

Now were the opposite sides of those brassy coins properly assayed and evaluated then — the sick results that can come from superiority complexes run wild.

For half a century the new sciences of human personality have studied these intangible dynamos within the mind and heart, and taught us how much destrictive energy they can generate, producing power-mad Hitlers and Stalins on the one hand, and cringing, slavish followers on the other.

Taught us, too, that the damage starts in childhood.

If you've ever travelled "tourist class" to Europe, you know yourself how the barriers and doors shutting you off from "first class" accomodations could frustrate and anger you despite yourself—but that was only for a few days at sea once in a lifetime, and it was a voluntary and monetary choice on your part at that.

School days for children last for years; barriers that clang day in and day out for years make an ominous thunder of inferiority feelings which no soft words about democracy and equality can ever hush completely.

In their historic action this week, the nine justices probably weren't consciously thinking of science, but psychoanalytic truth is imbedded deep in the core of what they said.

To separate children, the decision reads, "solely because of their race, generates a feeling of inferiority as to their status in the community, that may affect their hearts and minds in a way unlikely ever to be undone."

The new ruling which sprang from this truth will affect some 12,000,000 children in at lest 17 of our states and the District of Columbia — but beyond them, it will affect untild millions of children and adults throughout the world.

It is doing so already — though it may be a long while, some say several years, before the difficulties of ending segregation are ironed out and the 1954 ruling put into actual practice.

The Communist propagandists, so busy in Asia, India, Indochina, the Philippines and anywhere else where the skins of men are not pure white — they know already they've lost one of their handiest weapons for attacking the United States and democracy.

"The Voice of America" flashed the news of the unanimous vote in 34 different languages within hours of its announcement, — and those 34 different languages all spoke the common speech of human dignity.

What they said, in effect, was that Thomas Jefferson's "All men are created equal" no longer can mean "separate but equal" in the U.S.A. Just the simple and beautiful word, "equal."

HARVESTING WITH ARMS—Alert armed Ghurka soldiers guard native Malayans as they harvest their crop in the Kuala Selangor rice bowl area. The troops are necessary because Communist terrorists constantly attempt to harass the effort of the natives.

9 Bureaus Use Planes

WASHINGTON (INS) — One of the largest fleets of aircraft in the nation today is operated by nine government departments which, by the end of June, will be using 1,018 planes, ranging from single-engined craft to huge four-engined transports. Planes, official publication of Aircraft Industries Association, says purchases of 69 new civil-type aircraft are planned under the fiscal 1954 budget.

MONKEY MOTHER OF THE YEAR—Tamba, Hollywood's educated chimp gets into practice for her approaching "blessed event." A star of many movies, she has recently retired from the screen to await motherhood.

Boy Clubs Off Coyotes: All in a Day's Work

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (INS)—Ronald Simmons, 15-year-old high school sophomore, was chased up a tree Wednesday by two coyotes. He broke off a tree branch, jumped down, clubbed off the animals and completed his early morning chore of driving in cows from pasture.

When his mother asked him why his shirt and coat were torn he explained his adventure, sat down to eat breakfast and then went to school.

Declares McCarthy Is at War With Ike

NEWARK, N. J. (INS)—Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla), declared last night that Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) has "declared war on the President and the Republican leadership."

Monroney also charged before a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner in Newark that the Republicans plan to spend up to 10 million dollars in an effort to gain control of Congress in the November elections.

New Jersey's Democratic Governor, Robert B. Meyner, and Rep. Charles Howell, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator from New Jersey, also spoke at the banquet.

Monroney described McCarthy as possessing "the tactics and ability of a third-rate assistant detective on a local vice squad."

Lights Scare Burglars

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — A light at night gives burglars a fright, says Maj. George Remer of the state police. "Burglars are attracted to darkened homes," he said. "The best way to keep them away is to burn a few cents worth of electricity.

Bob Considine Says:

How Folks Try for Seats at That McCarthy 'Thing'!

WASHINGTON (INS) —Ham has not been the exclusive property of the senators in the McCarthy-Army rhubarb. A number of lesser inmates at the hearings have studied TV camera angles so astutely that they know exactly where are the "choice" seats. These ar parceled out to favored friends.

At the final meeting before the recess, Perle Mesta was placed in one of the choicer seats, immediately behind acting subcommittee Chairman Karl Mundt, the South Dakota Republican who has done much to keep the thing from getting too rough.

There is a sharper demand also for the seats just behind Joe McCarthy and Roy Cohn than for "Teahouse of the August Moon" and "Pajama Game."

Eventually, somebody is going to bring up the question of "editorializing" with the TV cameras.

Purposely or not, McCarthy is seldom televised alone in these hearings. Nearly every other person's head appears solo on the screen when he is speaking.

A longer shot is usually used on McCarthy, broadening the area scanned by the lens until it encompasses also Cohn, the wispiest whisperer of his time.

There are reports that this inclusion of Cohn has resulted in his receiving mash notes galore. But my mail and what I hear around town impels me to believe that there is widespread criticism of him, too, and of McCarthy for apparently being receptive to sotto voce suggestions, though others in this cage get the same aid — away from the prying eye of TV.

If there's any remaining doubt as to where the President's feelings lie in the McCarthy-Army thing, it must repose in those who were locked in a dark closet when Ike took Robert Ten Broeck Steve with him on a flying visit to Charlotte, N. C.

Air Force personnel had a hard day Tuesday, especially those who watched ABC's vivid "Atomic Attack," starring Phyllis Thaxter — a genuine chiller that made Orson Welles' famed radio account of the Martian invasion sound about as menacing as a DAR convention.

On the selfsame day, the Air Force gave its people a manual which includes handy hints on how to protect themselves against radiological, biological and chemical weapons.

Watch out for "nerve gasses," the air force said, in a manner roughly comparable to a "swat the fly" or "save the dogwood" editorial. "They are quick killers," the manual remarked.

Then, as if momentarily regretting the decisive language, it continued, "Very small amounts result in headache, dizziness, dimmed vision and nausea. They interfere with breathing, and may cause a tightness of the chest, convulsions, paralysis and death."

The manual struck a cheerful note about "mystery germs," the kind of warfare which millions of people behind the Iron Curtain now believe we waged in Korea.

Can't cause a major epidemic, the Air Force snapped, apparently establishing that this is now a recognized form of war. "Even if epidemics are started, we can stop them quickly." It doesn't say how quickly is quickly.

Hat Buyers Go Wild

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Mrs. D. J. Norton will think twice before shopping again for a new hat. She picked up one she wanted, only to have another customer snatch it out of her hands and tell her it was hers, Mrs. Norton turned to look for her own hat and saw another shopper holding it out to a saleslady saying she would take it.

SHANTY TOWN—In Hong Kong can be found these refugee fire hazards.

Red China Escape Tells of Grim Life on Mainland

By GERALDINE FITCH
NEA Special Correspondent

TAIPEI, Formosa — (NEA) — Every escapee out of Red China is like a knothole in the Bamboo Curtain. Through a woman's eyes, especially, these glimpses into mainland China are not pretty ones.

Mrs. Shu P'ing Tsai and her two little sons recently stopped with relatives in Free China before joining her husband in Manila. They came out of Red China via Amoy and Hong Kong.

She was tall for a Chinese woman, and a little too thin from lack of good food. Over her long blue Chinese gown she wore a short coat of darker hue. The ends of her shoulder-length black hair were curled, and she wore pink pearl earrings encircled with rhinestones.

Shu P'ing told me of the lack of clothing as well as food on the mainland now: "Men have no coats and seldom a good shirt; no shoes—only imitation."

Her own good leather (heelless) shoes attracted attention. "I got them in Hong Kong," she said. "Everything I have on I bought in Hong Kong."

"The earrings, too?"

"Yes, of course," she said. "Nobody on the mainland today wears earrings!"

Shu P'ing told how the Communists have promoted a new marriage law; "One feature is the lack of ceremony. Brides have no wedding gowns, and young men stand for the brief wedding with no coat and usually no decent shirt. Traditional family life in China is being changed.

"If a woman is raped that is no crime. But if her husband knows and protests he is punished. More than once I have been told of Communists moving in when husbands are away and saying, 'I am your husband now.'"

There is much bitterness about the lack of food, said Mrs. Tsai. Most people have only one meal a day—thin rice and cabbage or other cheap vegetables. They look ill and underfed.

Shu P'ing described the lack of privacy of the home in Red China: "Petty officials come in at any time—usually at night when the family is sleeping."

"What reason do they give for coming in tthe night?"

"Oh, they say they have just come to tell us how good the People's Government is!" she said.

"There was one bright spot near my home," said Shu P'ing. "It was a Spanish mission and the nuns ran an orphanage. The Communists took it over, deported the Spanish missionaries, taught the orphans that the nuns were bad, thought they had their little brains washed clean.

But the naughty children still persisted in saying, 'the sisters were good; The Americans are good.' The 'Hate America' campaign doesn't fool the older people, either, for Chinese have always liked Americans."

"Do the mainland people heve any hope?"

"Night and day they hope the Nationalists will return!"

Another refugee I'll call Vivian because, unlike Mrs. Tsai, she is the only one of her family to get out of Red China. She is a brilliant painist and majored in music at Yenching University, but felt she would die if she had to live under Communist tyranny.

A fellow student who had managed to get to Hong Kong had told her he would do anything he could to help her escape. So, for a whole year he wrote her love letters; she announced her engagement to him. It was a ruse, and only her mother was in her full confidence.

Finally, she was given permission to go to Hong Kong to be married. Her friend playing the role of the finace, secured the entrance permit from British authories on the same pretext. She didn't get married, so the British officials have told her she must return to Red China.

But the young man has certainly played his gallant part.

The other day he said: "If worst comes to worst, I'll marry her. It might not be a bad solution."

Lost Diamond Returned but Wedding Postponed

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (UP)—Larry Williams lost his wallet containing $160 in cash and a $490 diamond ring he planned to give to his girl.

Some tossed the wallet, which contained Williams' business address, through his office door yesterday. The money was gone but the ring was still there.

But Williams said today he can't marry his girl without any money.

Woman Killed Trying to Avoid Unwanted Kiss

LANCASTER, Pa. (UP)—An attempt to avoid being kissed by her brother-in-law cost Mrs. Dorothy Walton, 24, her life yesterday, said Police Chief Frank Horner.

He said the brother-in-law, Warren N. Sharpe, 31, of Lancaster, was walking Mrs. Walton to her home when he tried to kiss her and she darted into U.S. Route 72 and was hit by a car.

Dist. Atty. William C. Storb exonerated the motorist. Sharpe was arrested on a charge of intoxication.

Ex-Nazi Loses Post as U.N. Observer

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP)—Peter Pfeiffer, criticized in the United States as having a Nazi record, will not become West Germany's observer at U. N. headquarters.

A U. N. announcement last night said Pfeiffer's appointment had been withdrawn. Presumably Dr. Hans E. Riesser, present West German observer, will continue in the post.

The Jewish Labor Committee of New York and Rep. Javits (R-NY) were among those who protested after Pfeiffer's appointment was announced last February.

Pfeiffer held diplomatic posts under the Nazis in Prague, Moscow, Paris and Rome. He was classified after the war as only a nominal member of the party, who joined to hold his government job.

Denver Owes Retiring Detective for Shoelace

DENVER (UP)—Veteran Detective Joe Holindrake is retiring July 1, leaving behind an uncollected claim—5 cents—against the city to replace a shoelace.

While still a rookie cop, Holindrake explains, he used the lace while assisting the birth of a baby before an ambulance arrived.

His expense voucher for 5 cents to buy new laces was turned down by his sergeant on the grounds he "only used one lace."

Fake Orders for Organs Brings Prison Sentence

BALTIMORE (UP)—Robert F. McFarlane was sent to prison for three years yesterday because police said he had a custom of ordering pianos and organs for churches, then selling them without paying the music firms in full.

The 50-year-old defendant posed as a minister when operating his scheme, it was testified.

McFarlane pleaded he had made restitution of all but $800 and was prepared to take care of that.

May Cut Out Blood Program

Red Cross in County Reports Lack of Funds as Subsidies Decline

Oakland County residents may lose the services of the Red Cross blood bank collections due to decreased subsidization by the Department of Defense and the National Red Cross, members of the local chapter's executive committee learned yesterday.

Considering their $82,000 1954-55 budget, members found a $12,000 deficiency of expenses over revenues if the blood program is maintained.

Chapter Chairman Harold B. Euler explained that the Defense Department's needs for whole blood have diminished with the end of Korean hostilities.

He added that the National Red Cross now considers the blood collections as mainly a community service project, and plans to reduce its liberal subsidization of the program gradually over the next few years.

"There are two courses we can follow in the blood program in the coming year," blood program chairman Dr. E. W. Bauer said yesterday, "continue as we have, or get out of the blood collecting business completely. Our budget is greatly above our prospective income.

"If we continue the blood program we need $36,500 to finance it. Our income will allow us to carry it for half of our fiscal year, but we're $12,000 short of running it for the entire year.

"If we discontinue the program, we must return to the hospitals the job of collecting and processing as well as distribution of the blood," Dr. Bauer added.

Plans have been made to send copies of his report to the Oakland County Medical Society, hospital administrators, manufacturers associations, the CIO, and the United Foundations of Detroit and Pontiac, to explain the situation.

These groups will be asked for their suggestions, and the executive committee will meet June 16 to reach a final decision.

The local Red Cross chapter began blood collections in November, 1951. During the past 12 months, 12,266 pints have been collected.

Youth Pays Fine of $50 for Attempted Larceny

Edward W. Smith, 21, of 19 Elizabeth St., pleaded guilty to attempted simple larceny Wednesday before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

Smith, who paid a $50 fine for attempting to take parts from autos in a downtown parking lot early Wednesday morning, eluded police after a warning shot was fired over his head. He was arrested at his home after his car was found near the parking lot on Cass avenue.

Seek to Restrict Voting of Mixed-Blood Citizens

CAPETOWN, South Africa (AP)—Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan's government, pushing its policy of strict racial segregation, asked Parliament last night to change the Constitution to restrict the voting rights of people with mixed blood.

If the measure receives the required two-thirds majority of both houses, about one million "coloreds" would be removed from the common register and placed on a separate roll.

Professors Tip Students on Right Study Method

CARBONDALE, Ill. (IBS) — Southern Illinois University, by shattering traditional professional aloofness, has put into operation a plan for helping students boost their grades.

Directed by the school's office of student affairs, the plan sends professors into all campus dormitories and rooming houses to tell the undergraduates just how to study.

And to supplement the professors' talks, Mrs. Mabel Pulliam, supervisor of off-campus housing, furnishes a list of pertinent correct-study-habits tips, which include:

React mentally to each idea your professor advances.

Catch his introductory and summary remarks — or you are not going to "catch" what he says in between.

Do not get carried away from the main idea(s) by the professor's examples and explanations.

Do not fill reams of paper with notes. On the other hand, do not abbreviate notes so they resemble hieroglyphics.

The "profs" advise discussing lectures with fellow students and asking instructors to clarify any points not readily understood.

650 Families Evacuate Idaho River Floodlands

BONNERS FERRY, Idaho (AP)—Muddy dikes separating Bonners Ferry and its rural farms from the swollen Kootenai River held today as men worked around the clock to patch weak spots.

However, 500 families in the low area of this town of 1,800 evacuated their homes as the river crept steadily nearer the top of the dikes. Another 150 families living on wheat and cattle farms in the rich valley north of town moved to higher ground.

Pontiac Republican Club Meets Here Tonight

The monthly meeting of Pontiac Republican Club will be tonight at 7:45 in parlor "F" of Hotel Waldron according to W. E. Kushman, president.

U.S. Blocking Use of A-Power

Educator Claims Ban on Atom Patents Hurts Economic Progress

DETROIT (AP)— Ten years from now people "quite possibly" may be riding around in atomic-powered planes, trains and ships, says noted atomic scientist Dr. John R. Dunning.

But, Dr. Dunning, Columbia University's dean of the college of engineering, maintains that the real future of atom power lies in its use in the output of electrical power.

The scientist, who helped in the development of the first atomic bomb, adressed a patent seminar in Detroit Wednesday. The seminar was sponsored by the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

Dr. Dunning said if Congress would extend patent protection to atomic inventions private industry would be further encouraged to enter the atomic energy field.

The law currently provides that all inventions become property of the Atomic Energy Commission with the inventor paid a sum of money for his invention.

Dr. Dunning contended that "no company is justified in spending large sums of money for research on inventions that it cannot own."

Before the seminar began, the NAM issued a statement saying that North American Aviation, Inc., of Downey, Calif., had promised to have on hand a "working model" or a prototype of an atom-powered aircraft engine.

The statement resulted in reports that North American was now producing an atomic-powered plane.

However, a spokesman for the company denied that North American either was making or planned to produce atomic aircraft engines.

He said while the company was experimenting with atomic reactors in development of electrical power the work has nothing to do with the powering of aircraft by atomic energy.

Mother of 4 Guilty of Killing Husband

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A 48-year-old mother of four today faces a mandatory life sentence in prison for the fatal shooting of her husband last April 23.

A Superior Court jury Wednesday night returned a first degree murder verdict against Mrs. Fannie McCall, of Grand Rapids The jury deliberated more than five hours.

"May God be my judge," Mrs. McCall cried as the verdict was announced.

She had testified before Judge Thaddeus B. Taylor that she shot her husband, Floyd, 58, in self defense following a quarrel in the kitchen of their home. She said her husband had threatened her.

Five Waterford Township men pleaded guilty to simple larceny before Waterford Township Justice Willis D. Lefurgy yesterday, and paid fines of $10 and $10 costs each.

Involved were Robert Fox, 24, of 688 Lockhaven Rd., Richard Krause, 22, of 1755 Williams Lake Rd., Richard E. Smith, 21 of 7521 Elizabeth Lake Rd., all of Waterford Township, and Norman Knowlton 21, of 6375 Monrovia, and James Frizielle, 22, of 4070 Farner, both of Drayton Plains.

Waterford Patrolmen Charles Whitlock, William Stokes, and Merrille Finkle stopped them in an auto at M-59 and Airport Rds., at 4:30 a.m. yesterday, and said they found three stolen fender skirts in the car.

New Aquamarine Dye to Color Men's Shirts

ALBANY, N. Y. (UP) — Men are turning more and more to using colored shirts for business as well as sports wear, according to a group of dye salesmen who met here recently.

They said the most popular color is going to be a greenish-blue or aquamarine shade.

The new shade was developed from a dye known as "indanthrene brilliant green blue," something akin to a jade green. It took about six years to develop the dye, and it went through the General anline laboratories in Linden, N. J., New York City and Easton, Pa., before being accepted.

Presiding bishop, Henry Knox Sherrill of the Protestant Episcopal Church recently ordained his third son into the priesthood.

Supervisors Still Work on Equalization Values

Fail by One Vote to Pass Figures

Dissenters Want More Sampling and Checking of Locally-Set Reports

Oakland County Board of Supervisors will meet next Wednesday to try again to agree on a set of equalized values for the county's cities and townships.

The figures set up by the board's equalization committee—which put the county's total value for taxing purposes at $967,659,750—failed to pass by one vote yesterday. Members on hand voted for them 43 to 37, but it takes a majority of the board's 87 members—or 44 votes to approve valuation figures.

The opposition charged that the county equalization staff had only sampled about one house in 250—and that wasn't enough checking of the way townships and cities had valued their property to set up a fair equalization.

For the first time this year, the county's own equalization staff had set values on homes and personal property from its own field samples, instead of using the state figures set by Michigan tax staff a few years ago.

Norman R. Barnard, Troy supervisor, asked the board to instruct the committee to take back its report and work up a new one, using the state figures.

Roy F. Goodspeed, Ferndale supervisor, suggested Barnard's referral motion be changed so the committee wouldn't be tied down to using state figures.

Goodspeed's suggestion lost. Barnard's motion lost in a 40 to 40 tie. The vote on the report itself followed. Then the board voted to refer the matter back to the committee for a report next week.

Also up for action next Wednesday will be a proposal to reconsider board refusal to call a special election on annexing part of Troy Township to Clawson. The area, bounded by Clawson's city limits, Stevenson Highway, Fourteen Mile and Fourteen and a Half Mile roads, is owned by only a few people.

Board members last month decided the petitions for election weren't legal. The board agreed to reconsider its earlier action after an hour-long debate yesterday.

SPRAY PROTECTS ELMS—A new $2,700 spraying unit has been purchased by the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation and is in use spraying some 3,000 city-owned elm trees to protect against Dutch Elm Disease. The crew shown is working on S. Marshall street one block south of Auburn avenue.

The operator is Leo Crivea of 667 Wesbrook avenue. Spraying will stop soon to avoid damaging young leaves, but will be done again this summer after leaves are full grown, according to William Aho, city forester.

Will Malayan War Get Hot?

By FRED SPARKS
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—How will French setbacks in Indochina affect the war in Malaya?

For eight years the British have been fighting Communists north of Singapore in jungles that provide rubber for half the cars in the U. S.

The high commissioner, Sir Gerald Templer, fears Communists successes in Indochina might turn Malaya into a major battlefield. This fits President Eisenhower's warning that if Indochina collapsed the rest of free Asia would go down like a row of dominos.

Gen. Templer was to leave Malaya in June, but Her Majesty's Government, studying the Oriental timetable of trouble, might extend his tour.

The Communists have been content so far to keep the trouble small-time. There are only 5,000 active guerrillas. No one doubts that, with Chinese aid, enough citizens with ancient hates against the British can be found to graduate the insurrection into the big time.

The guerrillas have already cost England one billion dollars building plantations into stockades and guarding transport. The Royal Express from Singapore to Kuala Lumpur posts this sign: "In case of firing from the lineside . . . passengers are requested to lie on the floor." Countless acres of rubber trees have been slashed by hoodlums.

Radio Peking continually talks of a Red flag flying over the Cricket Club, next to Singapore's famed Raffles Hotel, one of the few remaining monuments of yesterday's Empire. There is foot traffic from China across the wilds of Thailand into unguarded border strips of Malaya.

Recently, with Thai permission, British officered Malayan soldiers completed an exhausting 122-day patrol in Thailand's aborigine country to destroy Red food dumps. Cutting their way through jungle vines with parangs, they averaged but 12,000 yards a day.

If Indochina should become a Red state, joint defense of Thailand and Malaya would be logical. Manhunting the guerrillas are a 20,000 British expeditionary force (including draftees), 70,000 police and 10,000 native troopers.

The expeditionary force has Sikhs from India who never cut their hair or beards, braiding same into head knots under turbans. Also Dyaks from Borneo, decendants of headhunters, who serve as jungle trackers.

To further prove how closely knit are Asia's troubles, the Malaya Communist GHQ is now believed to be on a Communist dominated section of Sumatra, in Indonesia. From there and Red China itself, ocean-going junks can put men and weapons on lonesome beaches of the Malayan peninsula.

Templer has gained ground in the last three years by combining anti-Red salesmanship with brass knuckles.

American - donated helicopters skim the treetops near outlaw camps broadcasting liberal surrender terms through loud-speakers. And picked parachutists jump into the brush to spray special chemicls that kill rice and tapioca fields feeding rebel units.

This correspondent visited plantations where there is a tommy-gun on every tea table. In one plantation in Perak a barefoot boy, wearing a sarong and black fez, served stengahs in frosted glasses on the terrace while revolving searchlights illuminated well manicured lawns.

A watch tower with two guards stood 50 yards away. The day before the planter's young assistant and four native workers were ambushed and killed while inspecting the rubber trees.

Even the great Singapore naval base, a vital part of any Allied defense of Asia, must be guarded against saboteures. Warships are docked 15 miles inland up a muddy puddle of a river called the Straits of Johore.

Solemn Ritual Installs Bishop Babcock as Catholic Leader of Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The Most Rev. Allen James Babcock, seventh bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Grand Rapids, today assumed spiritual leadership over 120,000 confessors of his faith in solemn and majestic rites in St. Andrew Cathedral.

Climaxing an installation ritual made impressive by the tradition of centuries, Bishop Babcock received the golden crozier, symbol of authority, from his eminence, Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit.

Thus was occupied again the bishop's throne in the cathedral, vacant since the death last Aug. 29 of the Most Rev. Francis J. Haas.

In his sermon, Cardinal Mooney stressed "the beneficient influence of religion in all human activity."

"Bishop Babcock," Cardinal Mooney said, "will be a bishop in the age-old tradition of a church which emphasizes the application of the moral principles of religion to business and industry, to the operations of organized capital and organized labor as well as to the private life of individuals."

More than 300 bishops, monsignors and priests, in cassocks and white surplices, formed the procession of clergy. Bishop Babcock, vested in a gold-covered cape and wearing the mitre, followed the other members of the hierarchy into the church.

Bishop Babcock heard the reading of the papal bull, official document of appointment, while seated on a faldstool.

Former auxiliary bishop of the Detroit archdiocese, Bishop Babcock was appointed bishop of Grand Rapids March 31. A Michigan native of Bad Axe in Huron County, he is 55.

United States Has Five Missiles Ready in Event of Total War

WASHINGTON—Guided missile, push-button warfare has arrived.

If all-out war should come tomorrow the U. S. arsenal would include at least five types of operational missiles ready for instant use against the enemy.

Combined, they add tremendous potential fire-power to U. S. forces on land, sea and in the air.

Their existence already is forcing top-level Pentagon planners to start making some drastic revisions of the traditional roles and missions of the three services. It could change the whole character of modern warfare in this generation.

The best estimate is that 24,000 servicemen are actively engaged, full-time, in some aspect of preparation for possible guided-missile warfare.

Super-secrecy, as rigid as that for nuclear weapons development, has been maintained on every phase of missile development. Tremendous advances in the missile art have undoubtedly been made which have not been revealed. However, this much information has been made public on the subject:

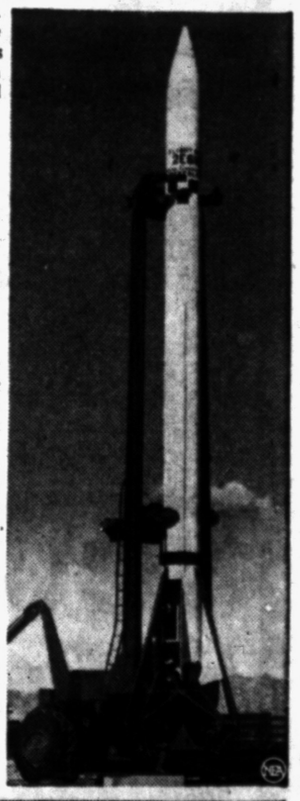

The Army has made the greatest strides in missile warfare with its antiaircraft Nike and artillery-type Corporal.

Nike's first mission is the protection of American cities. It was made to shoot down enemy bombers approaching at high altitudes. It is electronically-guided, powered by liquid fuel, about 20 feet long and one foot in diameter and travels unerringly to its target faster than the speed of sound.

Nike units are under construction near a half-dozen major U. S. cities. And many more are being planned. Plans also exist for establishing Nike units abroad.

The Corporal guided missile is a gigantic rocket capable of carrying a nuclear warhead farther than the atomic cannon. Trained crews exist to fire them in close cooperation with the movements of ground forces. The Corporal travels several times the speed of sound and is extremely accurate.

The most advanced Air Force missile is the Matador. It looks like a small fighter plane, can strike targets 300 miles away and travels about 600 miles-per-hour.

The first pilotless bomber squadron, composed of 600 highly-trained men, is now stationed at Bitburg Base, Germany, near the Iron Curtain. If war should come the outfit would immediately begin firing its missiles at strategic and tactical targets, probably with atomic warheads, if the target was deemed worth it.

Another squadron is already formed and ready to alight at some strategic spot, while several more are being trained at Patrick Air Force Base in Florida.

In the same general category of missile is the whole family of guided rockets fired from planes against enemy planes — the so-called air-to-air missiles.

Both Air Force and Navyplanes are already prepared to fire these in combat.

The Navy missile is called the Regulus and resembles the Air Force's Matador. It can be used against enemy shipping and for shore bombardment. By 1955 two cruisers will be altered to fire several types of missiles, including the Regulus.

Local Naval Reserve Stands Inspection

A "Captain's Inspection" of Pontiac's Naval Reserve Surface Division 9-104 was conducted last night in the Reserve Training Center at 469 S. East Blvd.

The group of 162 men and 11 officers is seeking its third consecutive district championship and the Commandant's General Excellence Plaque in competition with 10 other training centers in five states.

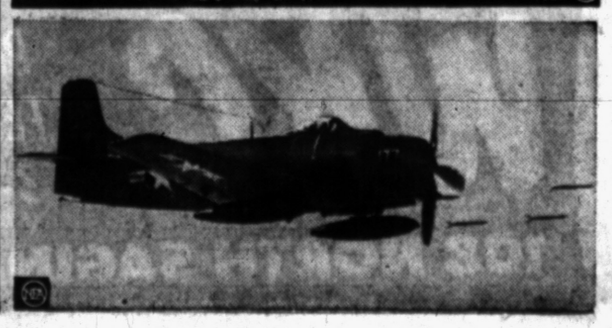

Captain J. S. Champlin, USN, 9th Naval District coordinator, inspected the group with four other visiting naval officers. Capt. Champlin and his party were honored at a luncheon in Hotel Waldron yesterday afternoon attended by about 12 city and civic officials.

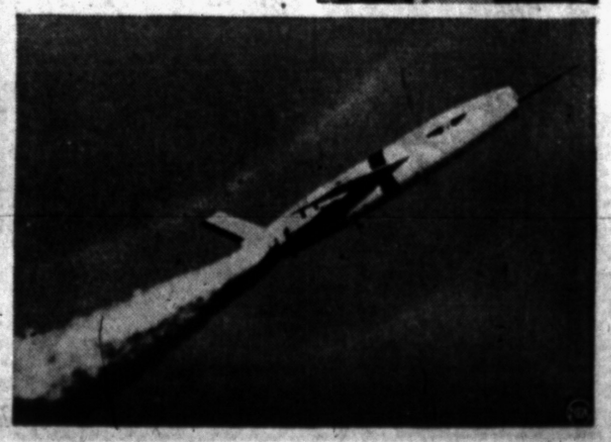

The Pontiac reserve unit received a score of 93.24 in early eliminations' the highest mark of any of the competing divisions.

Lt. Cmdr. Max A. Evans, USNR, commanding officers of the division, announced that the Pontiac group has been leading the nation in the annual James Forrestal Trophy Competition for this year.

The inspection included an evaluation of training, appearance and administration and lasted almost three hours. The 9th Naval District, one of the largest in the country, includes divisions in 13 states.

Township Cash to Be Returned

Police Departments to Get Surplus From Any Court Costs

A series of feedback mechanisms was set up by Oakland County supervisors Wednesday so some of the money collected in townships' justice courts can get back to township police departments.

The proposal, offered by Fred W. Smith, ways and means committee chairman, won full board approval.

Smith explaned that six townships (West Bloomfield, Waterford, Bloomfield, Troy, Royal Oak and Farmington) have their own police departments to enforce township laws on health, traffic and other matters.

The state law specifies that all fines paid by people who break township laws must go to the state library fund. All court costs left over after the justices' fees are paid go to the county.

"We think it's a good thing for townships to have their own police departments," Smith said. "We can return the surplus court costs to them without hurting anyone."

From now on, the townships will turn over all money from surplus court costs to the sheriff's office and file reports every two weeks with the county board of auditors. The sheriff will make township police his deputies.

After the townships' tallies of court costs and surpluses are checked, the county treasurer will take the amounts due them from the sheriff's fund and return it to township treasurers for use in police work.

Old Money Loses Value

RIGA CENTER, N. Y. (UP) — William Cowie recently discovered $18,500 in Confederate money.

Rummaging through the attic of the 130-year old stone house he has lived in for 20 years, Cowie came upon an old paper container he hadn't noticed before. Inside were the bills, ranging from $1 to $500 and dated from 1861 to 1864.

An expert estimated the value of the bankroll to collectors at $18.50.

Girls Found in Refrigerator

Rescued From Death When Parents Return Home

SCOTTSVILLE, Ky. (UP)—Death was only about 15 minutes away when two small girls were rescued from the refrigerator in their home.

Sheriff Arthur Hobdy made the estimate yesterday in telling how Mr. and Mrs. Earlie Lawrence Slaughter returned home and found their 5-and 7-year-old daughters imprisoned in the box.

The girls related a strange man and woman came to the house and locked them up Tuesday, but the sheriff said he wondered if the youngsters weren't just trying to escape punishment with that story.

The parents came in from the tobacco field and noticed some refrigerator shelves and food on the floor. Quickly they opened the box and found their daughters. One girl had a bruise on her back and the other was ill.

The sheriff searched or an old model green automobile in which the girls said the strange man and woman were riding.

Sewage Plant Planned

BOYNE CITY (UP) — Construction of a new $290,000 sewage treatment plant is expected to start late this summer. The city council has approved sale of bonds to finance the new plant.

Banana Workers Nearer Settlement

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UP)—Prospects for settlement of a country wide strike by workers on U.S. owned banana plantations appeared somewhat brighter today following a return to work in the La Ceiba area.

Reports from there said laborers for the Standard Fruit Co. had reached an agreement with the management.

The resumption of work was the first break in a general walkout by 50,000 banana workers throughout Honduras. They are demanding 50 per cent wage increases.

Voters Oppose Red Candidates

Prague Radio Admits Candidates Fail to Get Unanimous OK

VIENNA, Austria (UP)—Weekend local, county and district elections in Communist Czechoslovakia saw some anti-Communist opposition, the Prague radio admitted today.

Announcing the final returns, the broadcast said between five and six per cent of the voters refused to back the Communist lists of candidates. The voters were permitted only to approve or reject the "National Front" nominees.

In the county elections, the radio said, 98.3 per cent of the 8,638,379 eligible voters cast ballots, with the National Front candidates winning 7,946,867 votes, or 93.6 per cent. A total of 516,075 voters—six per cent—did not approve the Red slate.

In the local elections, National Front candidates collected 94.2 per cent of the ballots. Here the percentage of opposition ballots was 5.4.

Communist nominees for district offices racked up 93.8 per cent of the total vote in that balloting, the broadcast said, with 5.9 per cent opposed.

Czech broadcasts previously admitted provisional returns indicated some opposition votes had been cast in the balloting. Westerners here said the percentage could be regarded as a "remarkable admission of Communist failure." In Russia and the Communist satellite nations, the regimes have always claimed around 99 per cent support for Red candidates.

Sees 3 Threats to U.S. Medicine

Head of Illinois Doctors Cites Social Security for Physicians

CHICAGO (UP)— The head of the Illinois State Medical Society says there are today three major governmental threats against medical freedom—including the compulsory social security plan for doctors voted yesterday by a House committee in Washington.

Dr. Willis L. Lewis of Herrin, retiring president of the society, declared also in a convention address last night that many doctors fear the Eisenhower administration's new Department of Health, Education and Welfare "might hasten the movement to socialize medicine."

The House Ways and Means Committee yesterday approved several proposals for expanding social security coverage, including compulsory coverage for physicians, despite some strong opposition.

Dr. Lewis said two other threats against medical freedom, by government, are the federal reinsurance plan for health care costs and an arrangement whereby physicians would certify permanently and totally disabled persons for the federal old age program.

These three proposals, he stated, illustrate the "creeping socialism" which he contends the medical profession has fought for years.

Dr. Lewis said medical science has accomplished much but that "our medical achievements are not enough to save us from political attempts to capture American medicine."

To Plan Alliance Without Britain

U.S. Will Go Ahead on Asian Deal, Hoping for Active English Role

WASHINGTON (AP) — Any initial coalition formed to deal with the war in Indochina probably will be set up without the British, and officials here fear this will impose new strains on American-British relations.

U. S. authorities said today this government would not under any circumstances cease to hope and work for an active British role in the united front which President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles are trying to create.

But present British policy bars any commitments until the outcome of the Geneva conference on an Indochina armistice is known. That may be many weeks away.

The United States, and apparently France and several other interested nations, are not willing to wait that long. If other problems can be solved, it is possible that some kind of informal coalition can be set up in the next three or four weeks.

Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday he thought that a workable united front could be arranged provided the proper Asian nations and Australia and New Zealand would join.

State Department officials are confident those qualifications can be met, once various preliminary events are out of the way.

One of these is the development of an understanding with the French as to the conditions under which the United States might intervene in the Indochina war as a member of an alliance. Another is the forthcoming election in Australia (May 28, American time), after which the Australian government may quickly harden its own policy lines.

Today, after his meeting with the National Security Council, Eisenhower was due to receive New Zealand's foreign minister, T. Clifton Webb, on his way home from the Geneva conference, together with Secretary of State Dulles and New Zealand's envoy here, Ambassador Leslie Knox Munro.

Patient Slashes Mother, Child

Escaped Mental Victim Loose in East; Fled From Army Hospital

GOSHEN, Md. (AP)—A knife-wielding man, believed to be an escaped Army mental patient, was reported today to have held a farm tenant family hostage for six hours before slashing the mother and a child and escaping in a stolen truck.

Montgomery County police said Mrs. Adele Thomas, 32, reported that a man clad only in blue pajama pants and horn-rimmed glasses entered her house yesterday and slashed her across the stomach and chest when she couldn't keep her five children quiet.

She said the intruder also slashed her 5-year-old daughter Barbara Lee above the eyes. Charles Thomas, 33, father of the family, was away at the time. He returned later and took his wife and daughter to a hospital.

Police said they believed the intruder was Pvt. Fred C. Pjerrou, 24, of Silver Spring. Officials of the Army's Walter Reed Hospital in nearby Washington reported that Pjerrou scaled a 10-foot metal fence yesterday morning and escaped from the exercise court of the hospital's neuropsychiatric ward.

Within a short time after his escape, police said, Pjerrou slugged two motorists with a pipe. They said he commandeered a laundry truck after hitting the driver and that he later transferred to a passenger car after slugging its owner into unconsciousness.

America Watches Stettin, Big Export Port for Reds

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

The State Department has just put the spotlight on a port from which Soviet Russia maintains a flow of arms and other strategic materials to Communists all over the world.

Stettin, in the western part of the Baltic Sea, is the port. It is in Polish-occupied Germany but like Poland itself it is under Soviet control. Russia has made it a center for secret arms shipments.

Arms for the Chinese Communists, for the North Koreans, for the Indochinese rebels, for Communist undergrounds in free countries, go out steadily from Stettin.

Reports from West Berlin say that the Communists are sending arms from the great Skoda munitions works in Czechoslovakia, optical and other equipment from East Germany and supplies of all kinds from Russia through Stettin as part of the Kremlin's international operations.

Stettin has been a major port for centuries. It is an important rail center and is the terminus of the Berlin-Stettin canal system.

During World War II Stettin was 45 per cent destroyed by Allied bombers. Its population fell from 375,000 to 73,000. But it has been rebuilt rapidly and now has 200,000 people.

The Russians turned it over to Poland after the war and it has been incorporated into Poland.

The ships which take supplies to Red China from Stettin and other Iron Curtain ports have to run the Chinese Nationalist blockade. Some of them get caught.

Only last week the Nationalist navy captured an 8,000-ton Polish tanker. The Poles accused the United States Navy of helping.

But the shipments which go from Stettin to non-Communist countries also are a matter of concern to the United States.

Crates from Stettin labeled "machinery" may contain arms for Communists in Indonesia, in one of the Middle Eastern countries or a country in the Western Hemisphere.

These shipments usually are addressed to an ostensibly legitimate import company to help get them by customs men. Some are seized. Others get through.

The State Department announcement that "an important shipment of arms" has reached Guatemala from Stettin put the spotlight on these operations.

Guatemala is not a Communist country, though its government has been accused of subjecting itself to Communist influence.

In any event the United States does not want any arms which might reach Communists to be sent to Western Hemisphere countries. The State Department's view of the Guatemala shipment was:

"Because of the origin of these arms, the point of their embarkation, their destination and the quantity of arms involved, the Department of State considers that this is a development of gravity."

There may be more "developments of gravity" from Stettin. A State Department spokesman said yesterday that the Communist shipment of arms to Guatemala could be considered a threat to the security of the Western Hemisphere.

Gambler Acquitted of Kidnaping Charge

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A Circuit court jury decided last night that Jimmy Valentine, 41-year-old gambler, was not the man who tried to kidnap 9-year-old George Brice III last March.

Valentine was declared innocent after insisting it was a case of mistaken identity.

He and four friends testified he was in his apartment at the time the kidnap attempt was made.

Witnesses, for the prosecution had testified Valentine was the man who tried, but failed, to snatch the son of a wealthy Portlander from an exclusive school.

The man had forced the boy's mother and her maid to accompany him to the school. There teachers held doors against him, and the gunman fled.

Seed costs account for about 6 per cent of the total cost of producing corn.

SHADOW—Mrs. Thomas Millard, 56, says she is the head of a secret group of Des Moines, Ia., housewives who have shadowed public officials and others and have found "evidence of communism." The shadows are changed daily to avoid being detected.

Scientists Back Oppenheimer

Atomists' Bulletin Hits Physicist's Suspension as 'Breach of Faith'

CHICAGO (AP) — The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists lashed out today at the government's suspension of the security clearance of Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer as "a breach of faith."

The Bulletin, sponsored by a number of scientists who pioneered development of the atomic bomb, took the unprecedented step of adding 16 pages to its May edition for a thorough discussion of the Oppenheimer case.

Nearly two score of Oppenheimer's colleagues or friends expressed faith in his integrity and loyalty.

Oppenheimer is chairman of the Bulletin's Board of Sponsors.

Oppenheimer, who guided the work of scientists contributing to the development of the A-bomb, was denied further access to classified material on the ground he associated with Communists in the early days of World War II and later opposed development of the hydrogen bomb.

The Bulletin's editorial board said in an editorial:

"It seems to us a breach of faith on the part of the government to call upon a man to assume such heavy responsibilities in full knowledge of his life history and then, after he has demonstrably done his best and given the most valuable services to the nation to use the facts to cast aspersions on his integrity. . . ."

Albert Einstein commented that "the systematic and widespread attempt to destroy mutual trust and confidence constitutes the severest possible blow against society."

U.S. Steel, USW Begin Bargaining

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U. S. Steel Corp. and the CIO United Steelworkers get down to brass-tacks bargaining today as contract talks open with three other basic steel producers.

Getting under way are negotiations with Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. at Pittsburgh, Wheeling Steel Corp. at Wheeling, W.Va., and Crucible Steel Co. of America at New York. Other basic producers begin bargaining later this month.

Headed by President David J. McDonald, USW negotiators met with officials of U.S. Steel for the second straight day yesterday to discuss 1954 contract demands on the nation's No. 1 steel producer.

It is expected the sessions will continue for the rest of the week and then adjourn to permit the company to study union proposals and prepare its answer.

Objectives of the USW include a guaranteed annual wage and an unspecified pay increase for some 600,000 members in basic steel now averaging between $2.14 and $2.24 an hour.

First monument to the veterans of the Confederacy was erected at Montgomery, Ala., in April, 1868.

Hal Boyle Says:

Put Off Unpleasant Things for Your Retirement Days

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you have a simple, fool-proof retirement plan?

If not, I think I have one that may interest you. (Wait! don't run away. This won't cost you anything.)

Here is what is wrong with most retirement plans:

1. A man retires and discovers his pension is really only peanut money. He then has the problem of convincing his wife that peanuts not only taste good but are even more nutritious than steak.

2. Or a man skimps all his life, figuring he will save enough money so that he can retire and do all the fine careless things he dreamed of doing when young. Then he makes the sad discovery that the dreams of youth lose their glamor and become nightmares in old age.

A man nearing 60 put his situation to me this way the other day:

"Retirement looks wonderful to a man in his 30's or 40's, but as you actually get nearer to it you begin to see it as a pitfall.

"Take my case. They tell you to prepare for retirement by developing a hobby. Well, I've tried conscientiously to build an interest in gardening. But—ugh—it simply isn't in me to be a wet nurse for a pansy bed. The only growing things I have a respect for are weeds and poison ivy.

"For years I have been putting away dough so that my wife and I could take a trip around the world when I retire. But lately I've been thinking what a nuisance it would be going through European museums gawking at pictures I don't like being explained to me by a guide who learned his English by reading old copies of the National Geographic.

"Work has always been the real hobby of sensible men. The closer I get to retirement the less my daily routine looks like a rut, and the more it looks like a friendly bomb shelter. I even hate to tear the page off my desk calendar anymore. It depresses me."

This man, it seems to me, has made the mistake of many men who plan for retirement by postponing small present pleasures in order to achieve some greater and more expensive luxury in the distant future.

My modified pay-as-you-go retirement program simply calls for a reversal of these tactics. Instead of squirreling away dough so you can see Africa from a wheel chair at 66, you take a coach plane to Florida while you are still young enough to enjoy a swim and a sunburn. After all, you can always see lions and tigers at the nearest zoo.

The thing to do is to achieve as large a fragment of your dreams as you can while you are young and active, before your dreams turn into wistful regrets. Why not retire your dreams by living them up along the way?

But every sound retirement program requires that you postpone something. My plan is very sound on this point. But instead of postponing your pleasures, you go ahead and do as much of what you want to do as you can—and you postpone doing until retirement all the unpleasant things you feel you ought to do, or the things a well-meaning wife tells you that you ought to do.

I know I ought to get some other hobby besides cigar smoking. I realize I ought to learn to drive an automobile, and, to please my wife, learn some dance step newer than "the turkey trot." I realize also I will never leave an imperishable name in literature until I finish the book I'm working on (so far I've only gotten as far as the title, which is, "The Industrial Uses of the Monarch Butterfly in War and Peace.").

But these things seem to me to be ideal retirement goals. And I know that at 65 they will still look so utterly repulsive that I will tell my wife:

"Honey, most fellows at our office do quit at 65, but in my case the boss said that 10 years more of putting my nose to the grindstone would give my face the polished look it now lacks. But, word of honor, the day I'm 75 I'll start taking dancing lessons."

If the boss does make me quit at 65, forcing me to face the task of making good on all my postponed repulsive promises, my retirement program will solve that, too. I intend to run away from home.

Old Nag Going Strong in Punxsutawney, Pa.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa. (UP)—Tracy T. Pollock's old brown mare ain't what she used to be, but even at her advanced age of 39, she's friskier than a lot of horses many years her junior.

Thirty-nine is an equine age equivalent to a human span of more than 100 years, and Pollock feels his mare, Linda, may be establishing a new record, at least locally.

Pollock said Linda, whose grandsire set a world pacing record of 2:04.5 minutes for a mile, still could outrun her five offspring when she had reached the comparatively ripe old age of 25.

She continued doing her share of work around the 125-acre Pollock farm until she was 31, when two of her sons took over.

President's Son's Papers Bequeathed

WASHINGTON (UP)—The papers of the late Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College and a son of President James A. Garfield, have been presented to the Library of Congress.

The papers, consisting of 58,000 items, date from 1884 to 1952, the year of his death. They include correspondence, reports, diaries, scrapbooks and photographs going from his boyhood and college days through his presidency of Williams College.

Several reports in the collection concern Dr. Garfield's brief term of duty as head of the U. S. Fuel Administration during World War I.

Several photographs and 13 scrapbooks concern the career of President Garfield.

The first permanent theater built in America was erected in Philadelphia in 1766.

Pontiac County Has New Uranium Rush

FORT COULONGE, Que. (UP)—An "important" uranium discovery in Pontiac County has attracted hundred of prospectors to this town in recent weeks.

Dreams of overnight riches drew amateur and professional alike to the area 65 miles west of Ottawa to stake claims at Grand Calumet Island.

The rush started when Raymond Johnson, member of the Quebec legislature for Pontiac County, informed the province's lawmakers that the discovery was "the most important find of uranium in the province of Quebec to date."

Hormidas Chevrier, a veteran prospector and miner, made the initial find. Johnston, said assays revealed uranium percentages of .1 to 4.13. Simultaneously, he said, Chevrier had found thorium ranging from .2 to 20 per cent. Thorium is a radioactive mineral that can be used to produce plutonium when uranium is not available.

Brake Will File Faulty Petitions

Says Printing Error Will Be Excused by Board of Canvassers

LANSING (AP) — State Treas. D. Hale Brake went ahead today with plans to file his petitions as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor despite the discovery of a legal flaw in the petitions.

Brake said that within a few days he would file 30,000 signatures, more than twice as many as needed.

Brake said that it had been discovered only recently that the so-called warning clause on his petitions was printed in 10-point type instead of the 12-point type required by law.

He said he was certain the State Board of Canvassers would accept the petitions, indicating that he had verbal assurances from a majority of the board that the petitions would be held legal.

The copy for the petitions was correct when it was sent to the printers but the type face was changed by an employer of the printing company, Brake said.

Both the Attorney General Office and the Secretary of State Office had approved the form of the petitions before they were placed in circulation last January 11, Brake said.

This was confirmed by Robert M. Montgomery, state election director. Montgomery said the flaw was a technical one and should not bar acceptance of the petitions.

The warning clause on the petitions says: "Whoever knowingly signs more than 1 petition for the same office, except where there is more than one candidate to be nominated, or signs a name other than his own, is violating the provisions of this act (Act 333, P. A. 1947)".

Two Hospitalized in 2-Car Collision

A Rochester man and a Hazel Park youth are in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today following a two-car collision on Long Lake road west of Crooks road last night.

Hans Schiller, 48, of 1425 South Blvd., Rochester, is in good condition, and being X-rayed for injuries. Donald E. Ott, 18 of Hazel Park, has a broken left hip.

According to Troy Township Police, a car driven by Joseph F. Reed, 48, of Detroit, crossed the centerline and struck Schiller's car. Ott was a passenger in Reed's car. Reed is being held in Oakland County Jail for investigation of drunk driving.

30 Pontiac Women Going to Presbyterian Meeting

Thirty women from First Presbyterian Church in Pontiac and other Oakland County women will attend Women's Day at the General Assembly of Presbyterian Churches Friday in Masonic Temple.

The work at Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn. will be presented and the choir from the college will sing. Speakers will include Miss Bernice Damian, a Spanish-American missionary, and Mrs. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, N. Y., who for six years was president of the United Council of Church Women and is at present vice president of Japan International Christian University.

Wednesday Event Held in Waterford High School

By DONNA ANDERSON

A big round of applause is in order for Helen M. Davis who conducted the Waterford Township High School Vocal Music Department in its third annual "Spring Serenade."

The Wednesday evening concert displayed the young vocalists' ability in presentation of various kinds of music from novelty tunes to religious works.

Sandra Clemence accompanied the junior high school Girls' Chorus in several selections which included "Brother James Air" directed by a student conductor, Bonnie Williams.

Larry Rose, Ricky Eriksen, Gene Peter and Johnny Richardson showed their solo talent with the junior high Boys' Chorus. They sang "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" and acted out "I'm an Old Cow Hand" with appropriate gestures.

"Make Believe" was the interlude offering for the freshman Girls' Trio composed of Joanne Giles, Genevie Dovre and Beth Rose.

Margaret Studebaker was accompanist for the combined girls glee clubs and senior high Girls' Chorus. Judy McCullough pantomimed one chorus selection, "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair."

Members of the Boys' Ensemble who sang "Now Let Me Fly" and "Hello Young Lovers" included Jim Holton, Jack Peter, Bob Confield, Bruce Horton, Roland Weber, Bob Durnbaugh, Gary Waltz and Bob Winter.

A hornpipe dance concluded a group of songs by the Boys' Glee Club. Taking part in the dance were Ted Upcott, Dick Hummel, Jim Beebe, Al Lewis, John McKim, Don Sayles, Ron Holland, Ron Kind, Bill Mitchell, Larry Wigner and Dick Eldred, with commentaries by Bob Coonfield. Larry Peck is Boys' Glee Club accompanist.

Next on the program were songs by the "Singshots," Anna Marie Thomas, Anna Mae Secan, Deanna Mielke and Jeanette Pierce. Baritone Gary Waltz sang "I Love Life."

"Rise Up My Love" was the first offering by the A Cappella Choir. The choir also sang "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair," "Country Style," which was acted out with an amusing square dance, and "Star Dust." Jack Peter, tenor, was soloist for "Russian Picnic."

The combined chorus ended the program with Brahms' "Wondrous Cool, Thou Woodland Quiet," Svedof's "We Have No Other Guide" and Leisring's "Let All the Nations Praise the Lord."

Background interlude organ music was played by Bill Terry. Lighting effects were handled by Patty Looman and the stage crew.

Spring flowers from their garden are enjoyed by Mrs. Howard McGregor Jr. and her daughter, Katie, at their farm, Great Oaks, in Rochester.

Dainty Organdy Is Abundant

Delicate, Beautiful Gowns Shown at Thrifty Prices

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

The bride of 1954 may have a pleasant surprise when she goes shopping for her wedding gown.

If she shops wisely she will find that she can have the romantic bridal outfit of her dreams at a price that will not wreck her father's bankroll.

Few of today's brides can afford the magnificence of a custom-made wedding gown, unless they make it themselves or depend on the neighborhood dressmaker.

But the ready-made gowns available in bridal salons of shops throughout the country offer all the delicate beauty any bride could desire, at prices ranging from about $70 to $250 and up. Bridesmaid's dresses may be found at an average of from $25 to $40.

Ideal for the summer weddings are the crisp, sheer Swiss organdies which are in abundant supply in most bridal shops.

These may be had in white or pastels, in plain or embroidered finishes, in lovely embossed effects, in styles for both formal and informal weddings.

One recent bridal fashion show featured a wedding gown in sheer white organdy with bridesmaids in nasturtium and jonquil-colored organdy, with shoes, bags and picture hats in matching organdy.

Another thrifty innovation for the modern bride is the convertible wedding gown, which may be used later as a dance dress either by removal of a jacket or long underskirt, or by switching skirts if the ensemble follows the new idea of separates.

The train often is eliminated from today's wedding gown, except for a large cathedral wedding, and bridesmaids' dresses are planned with an eye to later date and party use.

Newest fashion—easiest sewing! The princess line is summer's most figure-flattering. Best of all, there are no waist seams—stitch it up in a jiffy. Thanks to the curvy bolero jacket, you can bare your back to the sun or cover up on cool evenings. Sew it now.

Pattern 4752: Misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16 dress, 4¾ yards 35-inch; bolero, 2 yards.

Send 35 cents in coins for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for first-class mailing. Sehd to Anne Adams, care of 137 Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., 243 West 17th St., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly name, address with zone, size and style number.

Cotton Duster Is Embossed

The newest fashions in duster housecoats are made in embossed cottons that wash in no time at all and require no ironing.

Terry cloth is popular for spring, too, especially in prints that will look well on the beach later when you use your duster to cover your bathing suit. Whichever the fabric, just suds them out, let them dry, and get right into them again.

The latest trend in dusters seems to be toward easy dolman shoulders, and sleeves that are cut with wide cuffs that ride about the elbow or above—out of the way of your housework.

Big pockets and button-up-the-fronts are, of course, standard equipment.

Summer wedding . . . This charming bride and bridesmaid were photographed on the steps of Christ Church, Manhattan, while curious bystanders look on. The bride wears a cathedral wedding gown of sheer white Swiss organdy over taffeta, priced at about $90. The bridesmaid's dress is matching white organdy over pale pink taffeta, costs about $40. The latter also is available in a full range of pastel organdy colors, over matching taffeta slips.

Beau Should Ride Home With Girl

Wrong for Her to Drop Him Off First, Then Drive Alone

By EMILY POST

A mother explains: "My daughter has her own car, and the man she has been going out with rather steadily has none. Whenever they have a date she takes her car. I have no objection whatever to this, but when it is time to go home, she usually drops him off on the way and drives home alone.

"When I told her I did not approve of this, she said I was old-fashioned and that it made no sense for him to drive all the way home with her and then take the bus, or subway, to his home, when she was perfectly safe in the car. I would appreciate your opinion of this."

If there is a public conveyance that he can take, then I agree with you that he should see her home. If you were living in a country place where he would be obliged to walk a long distance, that would be different.

Dear Mrs. Post: I'm going to be married in a morning wedding with a wedding breakfast immediately following for the members of both families. The same evening there will be a large general reception for relatives and friends.

I will wear a cutaway coat and striped trousers for the wedding ceremony. I would like to know if it would be proper to wear these same clothes at the evening reception. My fiancee insists that I have to change into a tuxedo.

Answer: The clothes you wear at the ceremony may quite properly be worn at the reception in the evening. In fact, if the bride is wearing her wedding clothes, you should also wear what you wore at the wedding.

Dear Mrs. Post: I am a widow and want to have a marker put on my husband's grave. His name was John Henry Wells and I have a son named after him. Will you please tell me if it would be proper to have the marker read John Henry Wells Sr.?

Answer: John Henry Wells is sufficient. The date of his birth and the date of his death establish his generation.

But Girl Should Face, Solve Own Troubles

Mother Wants to Sever Unhappy Pair

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: Nearly a year ago when they started their steady dating, I objected, arguing that they should see each other but continue on with their other contacts.

"I was overruled by both my daughter and the boy, and finally, since they behaved well, I withdrew my objections.

"But now the boy shows signs of wandering attention (to which he won't admit) while my daughter seems to be quite emotionally involved and won't hear of seeing other boys.

"Her friends tell her of having seen her boy friend fooling around with this girl or that, and she is naturally upset, to the point of refusing to go to school for several days.

"She's a brilliant student but I'm afraid that with her mind so diverted she will gradually lose ground in school.

"I think I ought to break this romance up clean, since it is not making her happy in its present state. I know this will create an upheaval here at home because my daughter is not the placid type.

"But she is too wrapped up in the boy to see him casually as just a friend. And I'm afraid she might take to seeing him outside the home, which is not a good situation. What would you advise?"

No mother with any sensitivity can stand by unmoved while she watches her young daughter suffer torments of young love. But do you remember when she was little and had that dreadful earache and you wanted to save her hurt by suffering her pain yourself?

And remember her disappointment in not winning that prize? You felt like crying, yourself. Through the years you've tried to ward off her little unhappinesses, and stand between her and hurt.

Perhaps the time has come to let her exercise her own emotions, even though it's painful to her—and sheer torture for you. It's time she learned to control her own feelings and develop some emotional balance.

You've both been operating on the theory that happiness is a constant state. It's time she found out that life is up and down, hot and cold, sunny and dark—and she must stand firm through these contrasts.

You could step in, wield parental authority and nip off this romance. But would it really end her hurt? She'd hold you forever responsible for a shattered romance. You'd deprive her of the experience of working out the relationship for herself.

But you can help with mellow, understanding detachment. You can tell her that friends can be malicious—they can magnify and dramatize their tattled tales.

You can tell her that his fooling around with this girl and that can be harmless diversion, pleasantry. Her boy friend might even have been the innocent victim of girls who were playing around.

You can give her confidence enough to believe him when he insists his interest has not changed. You can stiffen her pride in her schoolwork.

You can tell her for me that it's soft, silly and undignified to dissolve because of one teenage boy. He's not the whole of life. He's only part of it!

It round-contoured, feminine type—

Tailored clothes through contrast can emphasize your young femininity or, if you prefer, choose little girl clothes.

Miss F. T. — Designers have snatched their inspiration right out of the cradle, and bows, sashes and sailor collars are replacing last summer's sexy Bikinis. But on the other hand there are slim, tailored clothes, often boyish, equally important.

Enthusiam Insures Sales

Love of Silver Pays Off

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"When my husband and I were married, we were very broke. We had only a bed and a card table and a couple of straight chairs."

Elly J., an attractive woman in her late 20's, smiled in a nostalgic way.

"I remember envying the girls who had everything, as the saying goes. Most of all, I longed for silver of my own.

"I think I would have taken silver ahead of curtains or a rug or anything else. But it was out of the question.

"After four or five years, George was doing quite well, and we got our silver. Then, last year he decided he would have to go back to college at night to get his M.A.

"Otherwise, he would never be able to get to the top in his particular field.

"I hated the idea because it meant being alone night after night, and also because paying for his education would put quite a dent in the budget.

"So I decided to take on a sales job, from 7 to 10 every night. I like people, and I've always thought selling would be a lot of fun. But what to sell?

"Suddenly I remembered silver, and how I myself adore it and think every young couple should have it. It's really a lifetime investment, and it makes you feel so good to have a pretty table!

"Well," Elly continued, "I approached a company or two in our town, and finally landed a good job.

"I sell on commission, and since my customers are mostly business girls, the best time to see them is after hours.

"I have a lot of fun, because when you have a product you love, selling it doesn't even seem like work. And there's something so sweet about girls who are engaged to be married—they're always in a good mood!

"The money is more than enough to make up for the cost of George's college course, and I'm getting quite a healthy nest-egg besides!"

The wise woman realizes that her own personal enthusiasms are a very important factor in her life; they are the key to a paying job, or a hobby, or volunteer work.

When you love what you do, you do it successfully, painlessly—and lucratively.

Press Asks for Bridal Information

Data on Weddings Should Be Given in Advance

In order to assure prospective brides a complete and timely wedding story, the Pontiac Press Women's Department has prepared several suggestions for providing the Press with prompt, accurate and complete information.

Wedding forms will be mailed upon request, as well as to those who have announced their engagements in the Pontiac Press.

The wedding blank should be returned at least two days before the wedding as this amount of time is needed for handling such detailed stories.

Those received more than three days after a wedding will not carry details of reception, bridal costumes, etc.

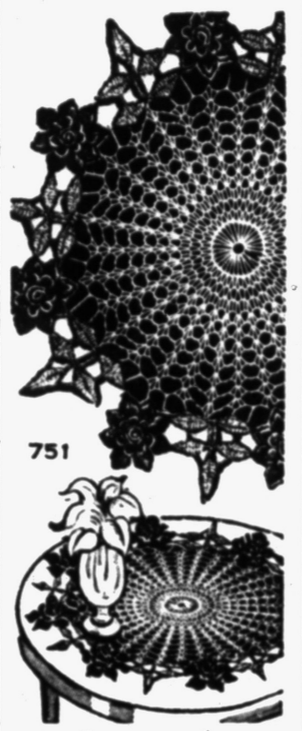

Bedcause of limited space, brides-to-be may submit only one picture (either engagement or wedding) if they are to be married within two months of the engagement announcement.

While it is not always possible to provide the picture with the wedding information, brides are asked to note that the picture cannot be used unless it is in our office before 8 a. m. on the third day after the wedding.

Pictures should be black and white glossy prints, as colored or sepia pictures will not reproduce well.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Inventing Too Scientific in This Era of Cyclotrons

If I'd lived in simpler days, I think I could have been an inventor. I'm sure that once somebody else had found out how to make fire I could have figured a way to roast dinosaur without having to burn down my cave.

And I can't imagine why the law of gravity had to wait around all those years for Newton, in a reflective frame of mind, to sit under an apple tree.

MISS McBRIDE

The reason I don't invent now is that the whole business has become so complicated. You have to be equipped with a cyclotron, or at least a two-horsepower motor, before you even start these days.

Yet a writer on success told me recently that all you need do to think of fresh, startling ideas is "apply imagination properly so that it will create something entirely new from patchwork fragments of the old."

Since there are several items I'd like to have to make my life pleasanter, I immediately put my imagination to work. But I have to confess that I am hamstrung by lack of scientific and engineering background.

The good old days of waking up some morning with a plan, like one for an easy gadget like a wheel, seem truly gone forever. If only I understood how to put together one of those thinking machines that predict the outcome of elections and defeat human opponents at chess, it would be a short step to my dreams of an automatic combination checkbook balancer and overdraft alarm.

Although I haven't figured out how to tailor this contraption, I'm certain about the way it should work—expertly adding, subtracting and carrying over, then sounding a tocsin whenever I attempt to sign a check that would bounce.

There's a fortune waiting for me or anybody who can end dishwashing by constructing pretty, pleasant-to-eat-off-of dishes that you can afford to throw away at the end of every meal. And don't tell me that this has already been accomplished, for it hasn't—at least not to my satisfaction.

Another crying need is for a lazy Susan type of shelf so you can get at the item in the back which are always the ones you want. And when will a benefactor come along to make comfortable corsets that still will restrain the too, too solid flesh, and shoes which have 3-inch heels that don't murder your feet?

I've tried and failed on each of these, but I'm still hopeful about the contraption I've set my imagination to work on now. If successful, it will not only toast my bread a delicate brown, but also spread it with butter right into the corners without lumps, and serve the whole to me smoking hot.

Only then maybe it will be like the broiled potato. I thought I had invented that until I ran across it in an 1863 cookbook. I suppose there really isn't anything new under the sun.

MAKE FRIENDS

When you find yourself using a gift over and over or enjoying its beauty day after day — why not write the giver a second thank-you note. The first one was expected —the one you wrote when you received the gift. But the second — saying how much you are enjoying the gift — will be a real surprise.

Such thoughtful surprises are always appreciated.

People who think young go for all because it outwashes old-style suds by a country mile. Try this wonderful new controlled suds detergent that's prescribed by leading automatic washer makers

TODAY THERE'S A DETERGENT that goes after dirt in a sensible new way. all doesn't splurge its cleaning power in a frothy top-layer of suds. Every ounce of all works under water where your clothes are sloshing around.

That's why all-washed clothes are always brighter looking, sweeter smelling and luxuriously soft.

Millions of young moderns wouldn't trade all's controlled suds for any other detergent in the world. Even leading automatic washer makers themselves say to use all for the cleanest possible wash.

Controlled suds get down to business

If you could look inside your automatic washer after you switch it on, you'd learn a thing or two about suds.

You'd see how a heavy cushion of suds slows down washing action. Suds actually keep your clothes from swimming around freely in the water—keep them from getting completely clean.

But when you wash with all's controlled suds, something entirely different happens. Clothes swirl and swish around with the greatest of ease.

And you know that all the grime is coming out because the water turns so dark. Every trace of dirt rinses down the drain instead of staying in your clothes.

all can't leave a suds deposit

You can easily imagine what a nuisance thick suds are in your automatic washer when you remember how stubbornly they clog up your sink.

Suds glue themselves to fabrics in the same way. It's almost impossible to rinse them completely clean. A dried-up suds deposit is left—and that's what gives clothes a dingy, grey look.

Rinsing is no problem when you wash with all because all makes hardly any suds. There is no film of scum left behind to dull the whiteness of sheets and shirts and towels—or cloud the brightness of colored dresses. And if there's a baby in your family, isn't it a comfort to know that his diapers are hygienically clean and free from residue that might irritate his tender skin!

Machine makers asked for all

Makers of the first automatic washers ran smack into trouble when they tested their machines. Thick suds smothered washing action and wouldn't rinse away. Suds also often overflowed the machine and clogged up the mechanism.

Then and there they asked for a low-sudsing detergent. The suds problem was licked when all was born.

all's controlled suds guarantee smooth sailing for any automatic washer. Clothes come out all-clean instead of half-clean—without a trace of dingy suds deposit.

Today leading washer manufacturers not only approve but actually prescribe all for their machines. They know this team-up will make you really and truly proud of every load you wash.

You'll save money and bother

There's no fussing with bleaches, bluing or water softeners when you use all. all contains everything you need for carefree washing.

Each box of all contains a special whitening agent that's better than a bleach because it's gentler. And a water softener is also blended into all in just the right amount.

You are sure of getting the clean-smelling, fluffy-looking wash your dealer promised you when he sold you your machine.

all makes this guarantee

Try all next time you wash. It's wonderful for the dirtiest work and play clothes, for dainty lingerie, for baby's things. It's recommended unconditionally for the new miracle fabrics like Acrilan, Dynel, Orlon and nylon.

If all isn't the finest detergent you've ever used, your dealer is instructed to refund your money. Monsanto Chemical Company, St. Louis, Missouri.

Chicken Tries an Almond Dip

ALMOND FRIED CHICKEN—Here's one of those recipes you'll want to feature as your "specialty." It's chicken rolled in finely chopped almonds and fried in a covered skillet. Use frozen chicken for quick and easy preparation.

Nutty Specialty Builds Up Fame

Frozen Fowl Pieces Are Tasty, Rolled in Blanched Bits

If you've tried quick frozen cut-up fryers and 1-pound parts of all thighs, breasts, drumsticks or wings, you probably discovered the convenience of having chicken on hand for quick meals. Just keep a few packages in your freezer or refrigerator ice compartment and there'll be no need to go shopping just before you prepare it. For an outstanding good chicken recipe, just try this:

Almond Fried Chicken

1 1-pound package frozen chicken drumsticks, breasts, thighs or wings
2 egg whites
½ cup blanched almonds, finely chopped
½ cup all-purpose flour
1½ teaspoon salt
Fat for frying (half vegetable shortening and half butter or margarine)

Thaw chicken according to carton directions. Dip pieces of chicken in egg whites. Roll in finely chopped almonds; dust with flour and salt. Brown chicken in ¼-inch melted fat.

Then put covered skillet in 350 oven for 45 to 60 minutes or until tender. Remove cover the last 15 minutes of cooking period if you desire a crisper crust.

When a recipe directs that milk should be "scalded," heat the milk until tiny bubbles appear around its edge.

Food Packagers Pay Heed to Person Cooking for One

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

All the recipes we publish, all the food articles we write are slanted toward the woman who cooks for a family, or at least one or two other people everyday. We have shamefully neglected the person who lives alone and eats "in."

In the past few years food manufacturers have suddenly become more conscious of their lone customers. The next time you go to the grocery store look at the canned goods shelves. There are minute cans of practically everything, just enough for one or two servings.

The discouraging thing about cooking for one is that it takes forever to eat up the leftovers. Of course, if you have a freezer as did the author of an article we read some time ago, these leftovers won't bother you. But we're thinking now of the woman without any freezer.

There are interesting items to be had out of the frozen food cases in the store: individual meat or poultry pies, a complete shore dinner, deviled crab, fruit tarts, small cans of frozen berries, waffles, cheese cake, even small rolls of cookie dough.

If you have a refrigerator with a medium size frozen food compartment, you can use ordinary packages of frozen food with little difficulty.

Get one of those saws for frozen food; take, for instance, a package of peas or strawberries; saw it in half or in thirds, depending upon your appetite, enclose the unused portion in a plioflim bag, close tightly, and store in the freezer compartment until wanted again.

Divide a package of frozen fish sticks, keep the unused sticks in a plastic bag. If you like the thin minute steaks, do the same with them. Just be sure that you seal the air out of the part you keep, and keep it frozen.

Some understanding manufacturers of mixes take the trouble to list on the outside of the package how many cups are inside. That makes it easy to make up a portion of the mix. If it isn't listed, you can always measure the entire contents and use what you want.

You can't use half an egg to mix up the cake or hot bread; but you might have a leftover yolk in the refrigerator; or you can beat up the whole egg, divide it and use the rest in some other food.

There really is no excuse for existing on tea and toast just because you have to cook for one person. You are merely the person who shouldn't buy the large economy size.

Simmer Vegetables

To retain as many vitamins as possible when cooking vegetables, bring to boiling point as quickly as possible, then lower to simmering.

Cornhusker Dinner Both Tasty, Filling

Here's a beef dinner that's practically a meal in itself. Chunks of beef are cooked and served in a sauce with potatoes, celery, onions and carrots.

You might complete your meal with a green salad, hot corn sticks and a dessert of apple crisp.

Cornhusker Dinner

2 pounds beef chuck, cut in 1½-inch cubes
2 tablespoons lard
2 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 cups water
1 clove garlic
6 potatoes
3 onions
4 carrots, cut in strips
4 celery stalks, cut in strips

Brown meat in lard or drippings. Season. Add water and garlic. Cover and simmer 2 hours. Prepare vegetables. About 30 minutes before meat is tender, add potatoes, onions, carrots and celery. Remove vegetables. Thicken liquid for gravy, if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Buying Habits Changing With Clear, Pliable Bags

More than half the fresh fruits and vegetables purchased by the U. S. housewife will soon be bought and carried from the market in tough, translucent polyethylene film bags. That's a prediction from T. W. Sharp, manager of the flexible packing division of a plastic firm.

Sharp says the traditional shopping habits of the American housewife are being changed by the increasing use of the polyetheylene film bag to pre-package fresh fruit and vegetables.

Lamb Should Be Pink, Firm, With Fat Streaks

Vary your dinner menus by becoming acquainted with veal and lamb, virtual strangers in many an American kitchen.

Both meats are federally graded and carry the same top three designations as beef: U. S. Prime, U. S. Choice and U. S. Good.

When buying lamb, look for lean meat that is pink, firm, and velvety, with streaks of creamy-white fat. Bones should be reddish.

The outer membrane on lamb, called "fell," should be left on a roasting leg of lamb for quicker cooking and better shape. The "fell" can be removed from chops.

Dressing Makes Asparagus Dish

Fresh asparagus is at its best right now. Serve it often while it's here, for this is one fresh vegetable that really is seasonal!

Asparagus is sold either by the bunch or by the pound. Choose fresh, tender, brittle stalks with close, compact tips. The whole stalk, with the exception of an inch or two of the base, should be green and tender. Plan to get two servings from 1 pound of fresh asparagus.

All of us enjoy buttered asparagus served as a hot vegetable, but fresh asparagus, cooked and chilled, can be a feature attraction in salads, too.

"Dutch" Asparagus Salad

2 pounds fresh asparagus
¼ pound bacon, cut into tiny squares
3 to 4 tablespoons wine vinegar
1 teaspoon sugar
Salt
Pepper, freshly ground, if possible
2 hard-cooked eggs
2 green onions
Head lettuce

Prepare and cook the whole asparagus spears until tender. Chill. Fry the tiny bacon squares until crisp and brown. Remove browned bacon and stir vinegar, sugar and seasonings into the hot bacon fat. Arrange chilled asparagus on lettuce-lined chop plate. Cover with the sliced eggs. Sprinkle with bacon and finely cut green onions. Pour the hot dressing over the salad. Serve immediately.

Cheese Must Be Sealed to Keep From Molding

Your refrigerator is the best place to store cheese to keep it from molding. Since mold grows only in the presence of air and moisture, it is important to keep packages of cheese tightly sealed.

Store your cheese in the original wrapping before opening. After using a portion, the remainder should be placed in a tightly covered container, or wrapped and sealed in a moisture-vapor-resistant wrapping.

Add a handfull of chopped scallions to your scrambled eggs. Tastes wonderful.

Study the French if You Would Be Expert on Herbs

URBANA, Ill. (UP) — The University of Illinois home economics department says women who want to use herbs but don't know how should take a tip from the French.

Begin with the six favorites of French cooks — rosemary, sweet basil, sweet marjoram, tarragon, thyme and chervil.

Rosemary has a spicy odor and peps up poultry, stews and sauces. Sweet basil, which tastes like clover, is a good substitute for pepper in tomato and cheese dishes, and improves the flavor of green salads, shrimp and egg dishes.

Sweet marjoram gives a tang to potato salad, creamed potatoes and string beans. It's also good with veal and liver, in herb butter, on cold roast beef sandwiches, egg dishes and poultry stuffings.

Thyme gives a pungent touch when combined with other herbs for meats, poultry stuffings, gravies and clam chowder. Chervil looks like parsley and taste like tarragon, is used for salads and salad dressings, omelets and stews.

Bacon Flavor Fine at Lunch or Dinner

Old-fashioned New England cooks have the knack of combining bacon and vegetables into savory, full-bodied chowders. They seem to know that good as bacon is as a breakfast item, it serves deliciously in main dishes for luncheon or dinner.

Bacon Chowder

½ pound sliced bacon, cut into ½-inch slices
4 medium potatoes, cut in ½-inch cubes
1 medium onion, chopped
2 cups cooked cream style corn
2 cups cooked whole kernel corn
2 cups milk
2 teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Cook potatoes in a small amount of water until tender. Drain. Fry bacon in a large kettle until crisp. Remove bacon from kettle. Brown the onion in the bacon drippings. Add bacon, potatoes, corn, milk and seasonings. Simmer about 10 minutes. Stir occasionally. Serve very hot. Makes 6-8 servings.

Cauliflower Good Eating Any Way You Serve It

Cauliflower is an old familiar friend at our family meals. Like broccoli it is a member of the cabbage clan. Also like broccoli, it is sensitive to climate and requires cool, moist air.

The coastal areas of California are particularly suitable to the production of both of these fresh vegetables. Weather conditions have been perfect — with the result that markets are being well supplied with snow-white cauliflower.

Selection: Buy one large head (about 3 pounds) of cauliflower for 4 to 6 servings. The flowerets should be white or creamy white, and they should have a fresh green jacket of outer leaves. The head should be clean, heavy and compact.

Preparation: Wash well. Remove the green stalks. Leave the head whole or separate into flowerets.

Cooking: Cook, covered, in 1 inch boiling, salted water. Cook until tender when tested with a fork. Flowerets will require no more than 8 to 15 minutes. A whole head of cauliflower will require 20 to 30 minutes.

Serving: Serve hot with butter or margarine or with a cheese sauce.

Golden Cauliflower

Separate a large cauliflower into flowerets. Cook, covered, in 1 inch boiling, salted water until tender, 8 to 15 minutes, depending on size. Cool.

Dip in beaten egg, then in fine, dry crumbs. Fry to golden brown in butter or margarine.

Cauliflower With Egg Sauce

1 large cauliflower
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
Pepper
½ teaspoon worcestershire sauce
1 cup milk
2 hard-cooked eggs, coarsely chopped
1 cup corn flakes, crushed
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Wash cauliflower well. Remove green stalks. Leave the head whole. Cook, covered, in 1 inch boiling, salted water 20 to 30 minutes, just until tender. Place in serving dish.

Melt butter or margarine. Stir in flour, salt, pepper and worcestershire sauce. Gradually add milk. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add eggs.

Brown crushed corn flakes in butter or margarine. Pour egg sauce over the cooked cauliflower and sprinkle with buttered corn flake crumbs. Makes 5 servings.

Freeze Wafer Crumbs Under, Over Ice Cream

Line a refrigerator tray with crushed chocolate wafers; fill with vanilla or chocolate ice cream; sprinkle more wafers on top.

Oh, That Anchovy Taste!

Shorten Hours in Kitchen by Systematizing Baking

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Just recently I went behind the scenes at a cooking demonstration given by Marguerite Robinson, the area field representative of the American Institute of Baking. She was in Pontiac for one evening during which time she presented some quick tricks for entertaining with bakery products.

Having everything ready ahead of time certainly speeds up the cooking process. Since Miss Robinson was presenting a number of recipes in a short time, she had to have each ingredient at her finger tips for rapid action.

MRS. ODELL

The foods necessary for each recipe were placed together on a tray and covered with a clean tea towel. In that way, the actual preparation time before her audience was shortened.

We homemakers can learn a lesson from this. I believe we can shorten our hours in the kitchen by assembling everything we will need for a particular recipe before we start.

Instead of running to the basement for a can of this, or crossing the room for the egg we forgot when we opened the refrigerator to get the milk, we can stay in one place and complete the dish we wish to prepare. It's a case of using our heads to save our feet.

As her fingers busied themselves with the food, Miss Robinson kept up a continual flow of talk. Among other things, she told her audience that a third of all the bread eaten in the country is in the form of toast; half of the six recipes she presented used toast.

Bread is a medium calorie food, comparable to an orange or a banana in calorie count. It should be included in all diets, even reducing ones.

The fourth largest payroll in the United States today in the food industry is the baking industry. The American Institute of Baking aids the food industry by research and education.

It has worked on such problems as how and why bread gets stale; how to freeze bakery products successfully; and right now, what can be done to make cream fillings in pies and other baked goods safe. A project done with the United States Department of Agriculture was one oh consumer references in bread.

Among the appetizing foods that Miss Robinson turned out during her demonstration was a Pizza Sandwich.

Pizza Sandwich

1 1-pound loaf French or Vienna bread
¼ cup sliced or chopped ripe olives
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon crushed oregano
¾ teaspoon salt
½ tablespoon finely chopped chives or green onions
1 cup (½ pound) ground beef
¼ cup grated parmesan cheese
1 6-ounce can tomato paste
1 8-ounce package ready-sliced process cheese

Cut French bread in half, lengthwise. Combine olives, pepper, oregano, salt, chives, beef, parmesan cheese and tomato paste. Divide meat mixture equally and spread over cut sides of bread. Place on a cookie sheet, spread side up, and bake in a 400 degree oven for 15 minutes.

Remove from oven. Cut cheese slices in half diagonally and arrange 8 cheese triangles by overlapping over top of browned meat. Return to oven for five minutes. Slice each section into 12 pieces and serve hot. Yield: 24 servings.

Keeps Its Strength

Cream of tartar doesn't lose its strength in a short while, so there's no need to buy a new can each time you bake an angel food cake. Cream of tartar should keep for 8 to 12 months if covered and stored in a dry place.

When cooking peas, put in a few of the empty pods. They'll add greatly to the flavor.

COTTAGE CHEESE DROP COOKIES — Cottage cheese is one of the main ingredients in these delicious little tea-time cookies. They may be served warm as they come from the oven, or cooled and decorated with frosting and candied fruit.

Warm Tea-Time Cookies Will Delight Your Friends

Pass these cookies with a cup of tea and your family and friends will be pleased. It's a brand-new recipe, made with cottage cheese. The cheese, combined with margarine as the shortening, helps to give these cookies delightful flavor.

This tea-time treat is easy to make. Just cream the margarine until it's fluffy, blend in the other ingredients until you have a smooth mixture and drop the cookie dough from a spoon. No rolling and cutting!

Serve the cookies crisp and warm from the oven "as is." Or cool them and decorate as suggested in the recipe.

Cottage Cheese Drop Cookies

1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup margarine
½ cup creamstyle cottage cheese
1 cup sugar
1 egg
½ teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon lemon flavoring
½ cup chopped candied pineapple
Confectioner's sugar frosting
Extra pieces of candied pineapple
Sliced candied cherries

Sift together flour, baking soda and salt. Cream margarine until fluffy; blend in cottage cheese. Beat in sugar gradually and well. Beat in egg thoroughly, vanilla and lemon flavoring.

Add sifted flour mixture to creamed ingredients, about one-fourth at a time, mixing smooth after each addition. Stir in ½ cup candied pineapple.

Drop by teaspoonfuls, about 2 inches apart, on greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate 375 degree oven 10 to 12 minutes. Remove to cookie racks and serve warm "as is."

Or cool and decorate with confectioners' sugar frosting and extra pieces of candied pineapple and sliced candied cherries. Makes about 3 dozen cookies.

Lately I've been using margarine in an old Viennese recipe with excellent results. I cream a quarter pound of the margarine with a three-ounce package of cream cheese and a dash of salt; if you have an electric mixer let it do the creaming.

Then with a wooden spoon I work in a cup of sifted flour gradually. I chill the dough and roll it out on a prepared pastry cloth; I also use a floured cover for my rolling pin.

I cut the dough into small squares, put a dab of pineapple preserves, in the center of each and fold over to make turnovers —crimping the edges with a fork.

I bake the turnovers in a 450 degree oven until lightly browned —about 10 to 12 minutes. All my taste-testers are highly approving of these flaky little sweets!

Is your canvas pastry cloth being laundered? Try using a square of white oilcloth as a substitute.

Crushed Candy Sparks Sauce

What's sauce for ice cream is sauce for cake, sauce for pudding, and sauce for Angel Food! It doesn't really matter which of these desserts you may have, it's bound to be more popular when topped with a premium chocolate sauce such as this — with crushed peppermint candy to give it extra oomph!

Chocolate Peppermint Candy Sauce

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
6 tablespoons water
½ cup sugar
Dash of salt
3 tablespoons butter
¼ teaspoon vanilla
½ to ⅔ cup crushed white peppermint candy

Combine chocolate and water in saucepan and place over low heat, stirring until blended. Add sugar and salt. Cook until sugar is dissolved and mixture very slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Add butter and vanilla; blend.

Add crushed peppermint candy to hot sauce and stir until candy is melted. Serve hot or cold. Garnish with additional crushed candy, if desired. Makes about 1 cup sauce.

IT'S TOPS—WITH CHOCOLATE — Be it ice cream, angel food cake, pudding or plain cake, it's better when it's topped with Chocolate Peppermint Candy Sauce. Keep the sauce made up and you'll be ready for party meals at any time.

Try Bacon in Corn and Custard Pudding

Do you know how good corn custard pudding tastes with bacon? Your family will love this combination for a week-day lunch.

Corn Custard Pudding

3 eggs
1 1-pound can cream-style corn
Salt and pepper

Scald milk by heating until film appears over top. Beat eggs with rotary beater (hand or electric) just until yolks and whites are combined. Beat in scalded milk gradually and vigorously. Stir in corn; add salt and pepper to taste. Spoon into buttered individual baking dishes. Bake in pan of hot water in 350 oven about 50 minutes or until set when silver knife inserted near center comes out clean. Garnish with parsley, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

Add Honey to Meringue

Lemon pie meringue gets all the better when you sweeten it with honey. Simply add one tablespoon of honey for each egg white when whipping up the meringue.

You'll have fun watching for the surprised expressions on the faces of the lucky eaters of these really delicious patties—because to discover the hot and creamy rice and cheese inside the oven browned beef patties is an experience in fabulous eating.

Stuffed Beef Patties

1½ pounds ground beef
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1½ cups warm cooked rice
½ cup grated American cheese
2 tablespoons milk
Dash of Tabasco sauce

Mix together the ground beef, salt, pepper and worcestershire sauce. Mix together the warm cooked rice, cheese, milk and tabasco sauce. Shape the meat into twelve very flat and thin patties. Use about ¼ cup of meat to a patty.

Divide the rice and cheese mixture into six portions and spread over six of the patties and top with remaining meat patties. Press together the edges so that the two meat patties completely covers the rice filling

Place on aluminum foil or in a shallow greased baking pan. Bake in preheated 350 degrees oven for 20 minutes. This recipe makes 6 generous servings.

Here are the recipes. Treasure them! They're the key to some wonderful entertaining.

Home-Made Hot Bread Mix

6 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon salt
3 tablespoons baking powder
1 cup shortening

Mix dry ingredients in large mixing bowl or on a large square of waxed or wrapping paper. Cut shortening into flour with two knives or a blender until mixture looks like coarse cornmeal. Store mix in a covered container. No refrigeration needed. Makes 7½ cups mix.

Butterscotch Pecan Biscuits

2½ cups hot bread mix
⅔ cup milk

Add milk to mix. Blend well. Place dough on board or pastry cloth which has been dusted with flour. Knead lightly several times. Roll dough to rectangle ¼ inch thick and twice as long as it is wide.

Brush rectangle with soft butter; sprinkle with ¼ cup sugar mixed with 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Roll as a jelly roll. Pinch to seal. Slice in 1 inch slices.

In bottom of 9 inch square or round pan melt 2 tablespoons butter, add ½ cup brown sugar, ½ cup corn syrup. Heat to dissolve sugar. Sprinkle with ½ cup chopped pecans and ¼ cup raisins. Place cut slices in baking pan. Bake in a 375 oven 25 to 30 minutes.

Waffles

2 cups hot bread mix
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs
1½ cup milk

Combine mix and sugar. Beat eggs and milk together. Add egg mixture to dry ingredients. Blend thoroughly. Do not attempt to remove lumps. Pour batter on hot waffle iron. Bake until brown and crisp. Makes 6-8 waffles.

NEW ORLEANS APPLE TART — An apple tart reminiscent of New Orleans! What makes it so? A mixture of molasses, egg and cream drizzled over the fruit during the baking. Serve this as a farewell to the apple season.

Molasses-Cream Mixture Is Secret for Apple Tarts

Have you ever wondered why creole dishes taste so heavenly—what it is that imparts such a wonderful flavor?

The French and Spanish have a subtle, almost mysterious way with spices and seasonings.

In New Orleans they make a delectable apple tart — one that keeps you tasting and tasting to discover what was used to give the apple such a delightful flavor.

Their secret is a mixture of light molasses, heavy cream and egg yolk, poured over the apples during baking.

You will win honors, and easily, with this apple tart. The rich pastry is pressed, not rolled, into the tart pan. In New Orleans they mix the pastry with their hands, but you may prefer this method, which will give similar results.

Have butter at room temperature and mix it in a small bowl with the egg yolk, sugar, salt and lemon peel; then quickly work the paste into the flour with a fork adding ice water if necessary.

New Orleans Apple Tart

Tart Pastry:
2 cups sifted flour
1 cup butter, cut into pieces
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
Grated peel of 1 lemon
Fruit Filling:
3 lbs. cooking apples
½ cup sugar
1 egg yolk
¼ cup light molasses
2 tablespoons heavy cream

Sift flour onto a board or into a bowl. Make a well in center and add butter, egg yolk, sugar, salt and lemon peel. Mix center ingredients to a smooth paste and quickly work in the flour, adding a little ice water to moisten dough if necessary.

Press dough lightly with fingers or back of spoon to ¼ inch thickness into a shallow round or long pan or onto a baking sheet, turning edges up slightly. Chill 30 minutes.

Pare and slice apples and arrange over pastry. Sprinkle fruit with sugar and bake at 400 degrees 10 to 15 minutes. Combine egg yolk, molasses and cream and pour over fruit. Continue baking at 350 degrees about 35 minutes, or until apples are tender. Decorate with whipped cream. Makes one 10-inch tart.

Avocado Luncheon Perfect for 'Girls'

Festive Avocados

2 avocados
Lemon juice
Salt
⅔ cup sliced celery
1 cup cubed pickled beets
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
3 tablespoons tomato cocktail sauce

Cut each avocado into halves lengthwise, remove seed and sprinkle cut surface with lemon juice and salt. Scoop out avocado halves, leaving 1-3-inch rim. Dice cut-out portion and mix with celery, beets, and salt to taste. Place mixture in avocado shells. Mix mayonnaise and cocktail sauce and pour over filling. Makes 4 servings.

Examinations Set for Friday, 9:30-4:30

Pre-School-Age Children to Be Given Vision Tests in West Bloomfield Hall

Parents with youngsters between the ages of 3 and 5 have one more chance to get their children's eyesight tested.

A vision screening program will offer free examinations to preschool tots tomorrow at West Bloomfied Town Hall, between 9:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

More than 10 per cent of the children in this age group are known to have faulty vision. If discovered before school age, correction is comparatively simple. Unheeded, the trouble multiplies.

For this reason, health and education authorities urge that every parent whose child has not yet received a test bring him in to this final one-day clinic. The test takes only a few moments and no appointment is needed.

The program is sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and has the backing of school heads, doctors and health directors. By means of the Snellen test, a series of "sight games," the children are screened for vision defects.

No attempt is made to diagnose, but where the need is indicated the tots are referred to the family eye doctor for treatment.

In outlying areas where transportation is difficult, mothers are advised to organize block system car pools, or double up on taxi service.

"This program was organized as a community service for the benefit of every pre-school child," Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, vision screening public relations director, pointed out.

"A vision test before the age of 5 may mean for some children the difference between a happy child and a warped personality. Expensive equipment and highly trained personnel are available.

"We hope every parent will take advantage of this final program."

Rochester Women to Meet Tomorrow

ROCHESTER — Annual meeting of the Rochester Women's Club will be held in the Avon Park Pavilion tomorrow, beginning with a potluck luncheon at 12:30 p. m.

On the agenda are reading of annual reports and election of officers.

The club will participate in the Reciprocity Day meeting in Romeo Saturday. The Federation Award-winning play, "A Midsummer Afternoon's Dream," by Mrs. Charles Case will be presented there by Mrs. Case and her cast.

Sergeant Says Interest in Army Schooling Grows

With graduation time just around the corner for Oakland County high school seniors, M. Sgt. Paul J. Smith of the Pontiac Army recruiting station reports increased interest in the Army's Specific Schooling Program.

"Most of the interest seems to be in guided missile fire control system maintenance and atomic weapons nuclear technician courses," Smith said yesterday.

"There are 85 other courses available, also," he added.

Under the program, the enlistee enters the school of his choice immediately upon completing basic training. The enlistment period for the plan is three years.

A high school diploma or letter from school authorities stating that the applicant will graduate is necessary for making application, Smith stated.

The recruting station is at 53½ W. Huron St.

Offer Township Lease on Park

Oakland Supervisors Make Bid to Southfield on Davisburg Area

Springfield Township Wednesday was offered a 20-year lease on the 181-acre Davisburg Park now owned by Oakland County.

The county Board of Supervisors voted to lease the park on Andersonville road to the township for 20 years for $1, letting the township renew the lease for as long as it likes.

Harry W. Horton, buildings and grounds committee chairman, told the board that the park, maintained by the county road commission until now, needed about $5,000 worth of repairs.

"We're not sure whether it's legal for the road commission to spend money on it," he said, "and we don't feel the county should spend that much.

"The township has offered to lease the park—and it would be a good way to solve the problem."

The park was given to Oakland County by the Manley Davis Investment Co. some years ago. The county will keep a half-interest in any oil, gravel or other valuable minerals that might be found there.

The township will hold the other half interest in mineral rights—but any profits from the park must be used for park purposes.

Stevenson to Spend June 17 in Michigan

LANSING (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee in 1952, will spend a day in Michigan June 17, Democratic State Chairman Neil Staebler announced today.

Stevenson will not make any major speeches, Staebler said, but will speak informally at two of the three functions scheduled for the day.

He will speak at a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee on the farm of Leroy Lang, near Davison, at noon. The gathering is intended to focus attention on the farmers' parity-price problems.

Stevenson will be the guest of the Volunteer Democrats, successor organization to the Volunteers for Stvenson of the 1952 campaign, at a party at the home of Ben Goldstein, 85 Judy, Birmingham.

In the evening, a reception will be held in Detroit at the Masonic Temple at which Stevenson will speak.

Rabies Law May Change

Vaccine Under Study May Mean Dogs Need Shots Less Often

Dog owners may soon have to have their pets vaccinated against the rabies only once every three years to get Oakland County dog licenses, county supervisors learned Wednesday.

Winson S. Moberly, chairman of the board's miscellaneous committee, said Michigan health officials are studying a new rabies vaccine which protects dogs against rabies three times as long as the serum used now.

"If the new vaccine is approved," Moberly said, "we would try to have Harry J. Merritt (county corporation counsel) get the law changed so people have to have dogs inoculated only once in three years instead of every year." The board asked Merritt to act accordingly.

Moberly said the prosecutor's office, uncertain for a while whether it could prosecute dog owners who keep dogs on their property without buying licenses, is now armed with a ruling by Michigan's attorney general saying it can.

He reported that this year's $1.50-a-dog rabies vaccination clinics showed a profit of $2,700.

"This money was turned over by Oakland County veterinarians to the national veterinary society, for research in rabies control," Moberly said.

Delay Trial of Lathrup Head

Mayor Harvie Charged With Drunk Driving by State Police

EAST LANSING (UP) — Justice of Peace George P. Hutter today ordered a further postponement of the trial of William Harvie, 55, mayor of the city of Lathrup Village, on charges of driving while intoxicated.

Court officials said the additional delay resulted because attorneys for the prosecution and defense had not yet agreed on a trial date. A conflict in court appearances required by attorneys prevented proceeding with the hearing Wednesday.

Officials said efforts are underway to set the trial on June 2 or 9.

Harvie was charged with drunk driving Dec. 16, 1953, when his car struck the rear of State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Child's limousine near East Lansing.

The commissioner's car had stopped to aid another motorist when the accident occurred. Childs was not in the vehicle but the police chauffeur arrested Harvie.

Harvie denied that he was driving while intoxicated and demanded trial, which has been postponed several times.

Jurist Speaks at Legal Parley

Justice Dethmers of the State Supreme Court Winds Up Institute

About 90 lawyers from seven counties heard State Supreme Court Justice John R. Dethmers urge better relations between attorneys and the public at the wind-up of a day-long legal institute yesterday in Oakland Hills Country Club.

Justice Dethmers said lawyers must accept the role of leaders in keeping the administration of justice in line with the rapidly changing society of our times.

His talk followed a dinner and reception at the country club last night which concluded a three-hour program in Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills.

Attorney James A. Markel of Detroit spoke on "Trial Procedure" at the afternoon session, followed by Lloyd W. Bartlett of Bay City who spoke on "The Organizational Problems of Small Business."

Edgar B. Galloway of the Detroit Bar, assistant vice president and assistant trust officer of the Detroit National Bank, spoke on "Trusts and Estates" at 4 p.m.

Institute Chairman John C. Emery Jr. of Birmingham said Glenn Coulter, first vice president of the Michigan State Bar, represented State Bar President Richard H. Paulson of Kalamazoo who was unable to attend.

Justice Dethmers was introduced by Pontiac attorney Clark Adams, former Supreme Court justice. The appointment of Meredith Doyle of Lansing as administrator for circuit court systems in the state was hailed by Justice Dethmers as a step forward in the modernization of the state's judicial system.

Doyle, whose function is to relieve congestion of circuit court dockets, was recently appointed by the Supreme Court and makes suggestions for improvements to the State Legislature.

One of his duties, Justice Dethmers said, is to effect the transfer of circuit judges to circuits where the dockets have fallen far behind.

In this way, the interests of justice are better served, according to Justice Dethmers, because dockets are eventually brought up to date and matters may be brought before the courts without lengthy delays.

The institute was sponsored by Oakland County Bar Assn. in conjunction with the Michigan Law Institute and the continuing legal education arm of the State Bar of Michigan.

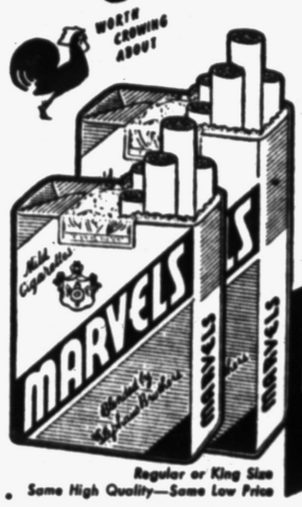

1st Degree Murder Trial Due to Begin

Warner, charged with the shooting of his wife, Barbara, 21, in their home last Jan. 14, will plead temporary insanity according to his attorney.

An attempt to end his own life by firing a bullet into his skull was unsuccessful and after his arrest, police said, Warner admitted the shooting of his wife and said it followed divorce action taken by her.

LABOR-SAVER—Pictured above is a new gadget that promises to take the back-breaking drudgery out of ditch digging for many water pipe installations. It's a plastic pipe layer. In a recent demonstration at Franklin, Pa., 1,000 feet of pipe were buried in less than ten minutes. The device uncovers a narrow trench, lays in the pipe and back-fills in one continuous operation. It is described as a great labor-saver in installing underground water lines from house to barn or other outbuildings or lawn sprinkler systems.

Parks Department Taking Youth Camp Applications

Local youngsters are now registering to attend the seventh annual Frog Hollow Day Camp for five days of outdoor fun, according to David R. Ewalt, Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department director.

The camp is the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area. It is sponsored by the recreation department and Pontiac public schools.

Application blanks have been distributed in all local grade schools. Boys 7 through 13 years old and girls 9 through 12 may register by taking their applications to the recreation department at 35 Hill St.

About 200 youngsters already have paid the $2 fee and only 512 can be accommodated. The fee pays for bus transportation, a Frog Hollow tee shirt and noon meals.

Last year the charge was $1, but campers provided their own lunch and bought the tee shirt as an extra, Ewalt explained.

The seven camp sessions will begin June 28, July 5, 12, 19, 26, August 2 and 9. Buses will leave the County Courthouse at 9 a.m. each day and return at 4:15 p.m.

Activites will include fishing, hiking, campcraft, singing, adventure trips, cooking and woodcraft. "Day to day programs will be planned by the campers and leaders," Ewalt said. "Activities will vary in accordance with age and ability of the campers."

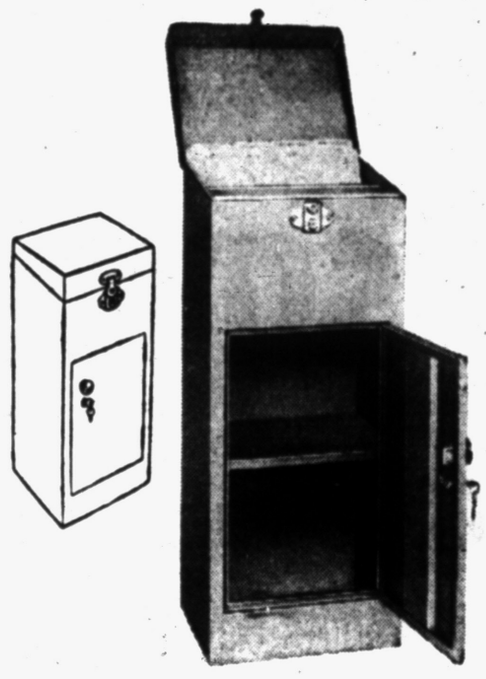

A person skilled in first aid will be available for each unit and a local doctor will be on call, Ewalt said.

"The camp staff is composed of carefully selected, college-trained men and women whose qualifications will prove to be beneficial to the camping program," the recreation director said.

The camp director is Theodore Wiersema, principal of Crofoot School, who will work in conjunction with John Regan, Pontiac Lake Recreation Area director. Other staff members, all teachers or other college-trained persons, inclue, Miss Reva Bailey, Miss Joan Karner, Miss Nancy Emerson, Victor Linquist and Roland Hallquist.

Veteran Writer Has Gimmick—Use Typesetter

DENVER (AP) — If you're an aspiring writer, it may pay you to take a tip from Noel M. Loomis of Minneapolis, Minn., president of the Western Writers of America.

Loomis has a sure-fire gimmick for getting his work printed. He writes it on a typesetting machine.

He told about it while attending a convention of the Western Writers.

Instead of sharpening pencils or removing his typewriter cover, Loomis goes down into his basement and fires the pot on his linecasting machine.

Then, after he shaves and has breakfast, the machine is ready to start work about the same time he is.

Loomis writes this way because he "thinks better," he said. His explanation:

His mind works at about the same speed as the typesetter. Thus he doesn't have to fiddle around searching for the next sentence while the machine stares reproachfully at him.

If a paragraph displeases him, instead of crumping the paper and hurling it into the wastebasket he dumps it back into the metal pot.

But when he's through, Loomis turns his manuscript over to a typist.

"Editors are inclined to look askance at a printed manuscript," he observed, "and selling stories is precarious enough at best."

Loomis actually was born in the composing room of a newspaper. His father and mother operated a weekly in Oklahoma Territory and while he was expected his father moved the galley type into the family bedroom.

"Both issues came out on time," he reports.

Missing Dog Shows Up Under Man's Auto Hood

YPSILANTI (UP)—Ray Packer's neighbor mentioned hearing a strange noise under the hood of his car.

The neighbor and Packer looked inside.

They found Packer's two-year-old boxer dog, Ginger, missing for four days.

The neighbor said the noise had been there for four days — and several hundred miles.

Ginger was hungry and tattered but unhurt.

Indian Relics Recovered

GARIBALDI, Ore. (UP)—Many Indian artifacts, including arrowheads and cooking utensils, are washing up on the sands of nearby Bay Ocean. Oldtime residents believe an ancient Indian burial ground, long covered by waters of the Pacific Ocean, has been uncovered by a change in tidal currents.

Beef, Chickens Are Best Buys

Turkeys Also on List of Food Bargains for This Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There'll be a well-rounded list of good buys in the nation's foodstores this weekend, with the emphasis once again on beef, veal and chickens.

Prominently mentioned as specials in beef were rib roast (down two to five cents a pound from last week), chuck roast, pot roast and round steak. Sirloin steak will sell for about the same as a week ago.

You'll find frying and roasting chickens at featured prices. More stores will be offering turkeys as a weekend special. Meat men consider turkeys a good buy these days.

Butter prices will show little change from a week ago. Eggs will be up two to six cents a dozen in some areas and down a couple of cents in others.

Cabbage, green beans and spinach head the list of outstanding vegetable buys. Reasonable prices also will be found on cucumbers, lettuce, peppers, radishes, potatoes and onions.

Produce men continue to list strawberries as the best buy in fruit. Meanwhile, they herald the arrival of more plums from Texas and cherries from california.

More cantaloupes are rolling to market, the majority coming from Texas and Mexico.

Another good buy, produce men add, is rhubarb, most of it grown locally.

Fruits going higher at wholesale this week included California oranges, grapefruit and apples. Florida oranges are at about the same price as a week ago.

No one raised coffee prices this week, but one roaster said another jump might be necessary in the next couple of months. Meanwhile, American imports of tea soared more than 27 per cent in the first four months of this year over the same period of last year.

Number of Widows Seen Increasing to 8,500,000

NEW YORK (UP) — Cheerless statistics:

The nation now has about 7,500,000 widows and the total has been increasing by 100,000 a year, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. reports. It adds that the yearly increase probably will be even greater in the future, and that by 1960 there may be as many as 8,500,000 widows.

MAKE YOUR VACATION SAFE—Vacation days are here again. It's a time for rest, relaxation, fund and "getting away from it all"—a time to be carefree. The idea is to refresh body and mind and morale after a year of hard work. So go ahead. But make sure that your vacation is not ruined by avoidable accidents, trouble and annoyances. Here are sketched some timely tips for vacationers, culled from the years-long experience of the National Safety Council.

Two Little Words in Title to Land Spell 'Fortune'

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP) — Omission of two words from a land title deed 46 years ago spelled out a fortune today for Anton Turta and his son Nick, who farm in the heart of Alberta's Leduc oil field about 20 miles south of here.

The two hold title to 160 acres of land on which mineral rights have been valued at more than one million dollars.

After a two-year legal fight, the Supreme Court of Canada yesterday dismissed claims by the Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR) and Imperial Oil Ltd. for the oil rights on the land.

Also benefiting from the ruling were the Montreal Trust Co., which holds a lease on Anton Turta's portion of the land, and William Sereda, who holds a lease on the other half.

Turta acquired part of the land in 1911 and the remainder in 1918 from Mike Podgorny, who had purchased the tract in 1908 from the railway. A clerk in the land title office here erred in drawing up Podgorny's title, reserving to the railroad the rights to "all coal" subsequently found but omitting the words "and petroleum."

The error went unnoticed until Alberta's oil boom. In 1943 the deed was changed to read: "Reserving unto the CPR all coal and petroleum."

The CPR leased the land to Imperial Oil in March 1951. Turta went to court.

In May 1952, the Alberta Supreme Court ruled in the farmer's favor.

Justice W. G. Egbert held the land titles office did not have the authority to change the deed.

The Appellate Division of the Alberta Supreme Court upheld Justice Egbert's ruling and the Supreme Court of Canada agreed yesterday.

Meters Impractical

DETROIT (UP) — City officials installed new parking meters in a neighborhood business district but quickly decided it was a bad idea. Alger F. Malo, director of streets and traffic, said thieves and vandals made it impossible to maintain the meters. The meters were removed.

Do You Want to Go North? Try Tour to Pt. Barrow

WASHINGTON — This summer for the first time organized tours will be offered travelers to Point Barrow, Alaska, northernmost point of United States soil.

Travel agencies plan twice-weekly flights out of Fairbanks for three-day tours of Barrow, one of Alaska's largest Eskimo villages, nine miles southwest of the Point Barrow pennsula.

Itinerary highlights include a spectator's seat at a whale hunt and a survey of the Arctic pack ice.

Point Barrow is a bleak, windswept spit of tundra jutting north between the Chuckchee and the Beaufort seas into the Arctic Ocean. It lies more than 300 miles north of the Arctic Circle.

During June and July the sun never sets on the region. Summertime visitors need not worry about the heat, however. The temperature averages a chilly 39 degrees F. in July.

For a few weeks in August the pack ice breaks up, and a lone steamer pays its annual visit to Barrow. To the south, peaks of the Brooks Range wear their snowcaps all year round.

The village of Barrow, visited only by explorers and prospectors until a decade ago, has felt the impact of civilization in recent years.

Wooden buildings rise among old stone and mud huts. A small hospital, movie, church and several stores have been built. Electricity is now available. Population has jumped from about 400 to an estimated 900.

Military activities—mostly tests and research—have been responsible for Barrow's "boom."

Surrounding the community is Naval Petroleum Reserve No. 4, a 37,000-square-mile area set aside by President Warren G. Harding in 1923. When a shortage of oil developed in 1944, a Navy seaborne expedition landed at Barrow and built a base camp north of the village.

By 1949 the Navy settlement numbered 450 men. Scores of Eskimos were employed to assist in oil drilling operations.

Since 1947 scientists also have been working near Barrow in efforts to plumb the mysteries of Arctic life.

Sponsored by the Office of Naval Research and currently administered by the Arctic Institute, the Barrow field laboratory has housed almost 200 investigators from more than three dozen U. S. colleges and institutions.

The research is continuing, but program has ended. For Barrow Eskimos, outside the government payroll, the tourist influx this summer is eagerly anticipated. They look forward to a big business in reinder parkas and whalebone curios.

Poet in 16th Day of Fast to Aid Indochina Peace

GENEVA (AP)—Vo Son Thiet, 45-year-old Vietnamese poet, was taken to a hospital early today in the 16th day of his "death fast" for Indochina peace.

Vo agreed to removal from his tent after police threatened to take him to the hospital by force.

But he announced in a thin voice that he is determined to continue his fast wherever he is taken.

Vo retired into his flimsy canvas tent May 4 and said he was entering a "fast unto death" which he hopes would be an influence for peace in the Indochina war.

Girl, 3, Falls 3 Floors, Suffers Minor Bruises

BALTIMORE (AP)—Darlene Emerson, 2½, fell from the kitchen windw of a third-floor apartment here yesterday and landed on a concrete sidewalk.

After an afternoon of observation at Franklin Square Hospital, she was sent home. Except for a few bruises, she was uninjured.

Chiang Begins His 2nd Term

Leader of Nationalist China Calls for More Outside Support

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek began his second term as president of Nationalist China today with a call for more military and moral support and a strong alliance of anti-Communist Asian nations.

Inauguration day was a festive occasion on this Nationalist Island despite the threat of Communist air attack from the nearby Red-held mainland.

Thousands of exploding firecrackers provided a noisy background as Chiang and Vice President Chen Cheng took the oath of office in a city hall built during the Japanese occupation.

In a brief inauguration address Chiang declared that his Nationalist armies could recover the mainland of China if given a "reasonable amount of moral and material support from the free world and an adequate supply of the implements of war."

He also called on all Asian nations facing a threat of Red invasion to "establish on the Communist periphery a strong collective organization capable of collective action."

Phils' Hamner Hits Back at Club's Action

Terms Use of Private Detective by Owner 'Gestapo Tactics'

(See story on page 52)

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Second baseman Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies demanded a showdown with owner Bob Carpenter today over what he termed the "Gestapo tactics" of having players trailed by a private detective.

Carpenter disclosed yesterday he had hired a private detective to check on the aftergame habits of some of his players. The owner spoke up after a private investigator was arrested Tuesday night when Hamner reported to police he was being trailed.

"I resent this and I intend to do something about it," the 27-year-old player said today. "This stuff of treating me and other ball players like two-year-olds is going to wreck our club. We can win the pennant. We have a better team than in '50 when we won.

"But this uncalled for Gestapo tactic will ruin our chances if they're not cut out right away," Hamner asserted.

The second baseman, who came to the Phillies in 1944 as a 17-year-old recruit and developed into one of the National League's top infielders, was bitter about the incident.

Sitting in his North Philadelphia home with his pretty wife, Shirley, the Richmond, Va., native poured out his feelings about being trailed by a private detective to see if he went to bed on time.

"I'm a ballplayer," he said. "I make $25,000 a year. I've got seven or eight good years ahead of me. I keep myself in shape and never, at any time, has it been necessary to have me followed by a private detective."

"I want to be cleared of the implications and inferences that being followed shows something wrong in a person's private life," Hamner said.

"I know I am of some value to the team. If what I have to say means they're going to trade me, I'm going to speak my piece. I don't like this sort of stuff."

* * *

Hamner already has felt the reaction of the episode. The barbs of sharp-tongued fans and some of the bench jockeys on the opposition —the Milwaukee Braves last night —opened up on him. He went hitless in four times at bat and dropped to second place in the National League batting average race with .365.

Titled Jockey May Not Ride in Epsom Derby

SALISBURY, Eng. (AP)—Sir Gordon Richards may be forced to give up his mount on the Queen's Landau in the Epsom Derby June 2 as the result of injuries suffered in a spill yesterday.

Richards, who at 50 years of age has ridden more winners than any other jockey in history, was knocked out for 30 minutes when his horse, Misty Night, fell during the running of the Devize Handicap.

Doctors said Sir Gordon suffered a severe concussion.

"He really had a bad knock," a hospital spokesman said. "Complete rest and quiet are essential. He might—and I emphasize might —have to rest and not ride for a fortnight. No bones are broken but he has some bad bruises."

Top-Seeded June Stack Advances in Net Test

Hamtramck's June Stack, top-ranked player in the Michigan Open Tennis Tournament for girls 16-18 years at Kingswood School Cranbrook, was the only seeded entrant to see action in yesterday's opening round of play.

Eleven matches were played yesterday, and five others resulted in forefeitures.

Twin Service Golfers Train for Big Event

Twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Keith, 16 Rosshire Court, Pontiac, promise to make some sort of mark in the forthcoming Southwest Command golf tourney, under U. S. army auspices. Just now the boys, Jerre and Harre 20 years old, are in the 3rd Marine Division at Camp Otsu, Japan, and "playing a lot of golf".

As members of the army team, the boys are training for the June 25-29, 72-hole test in Japan. They also expect to play in the summer Japan Open tourney, and hope to be home by Christmas.

During the summer of 1952, the boys were caddies at Tam O'Shanter club, Ben Lulu of the club's pro staff recalled them as "nice golfers . . . enthusiastic players who are capable of shooting in the middle 70s."

Strike Perils Harness Track

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP)—Another attempt was to be made today to settle the dispute between horsemen and Roosevelt Raceway.

The horsemen, represented by the Standardbred Owners Assn., have threatened a strike unless Roosevelt agrees to an increase in purse distribution, which under the present schedule amounts to about 25 per cent of the mutuel take.

The track is scheduled to open Monday with entries for the opening night due today.

Don Millar, executive vice president of the U.S. Troting Assn., met yesterday with representatives of the track and horsemen but no agreement was reached.

Yonkers Raceway, now in operation, recently agreed to a 32 per cent distribution after horsemen refused to enter their horses and shut down the track for one night.

OSU 1st Baseman Leads Big 10 Hitters

CHICAGO (AP)—Don Kelley, Ohio State 1st baseman, leads Big Ten hitters and will try to nail down the batting championship as the conference race ends this week end.

Kelley has collected 10 hits in 20 turns for .500, according to Big Ten statistics released today. Ray Collard, of league-leading Michigan State dropped from 1st to 2nd with .400. Minnesota's Gene Steiger is 3rd with .395 and Purdue's Joe Sexson 4th with .389.

Ed Lindsey, Iowa pitcher-outfielder, leads the sluggers with 31 bases on 14 hits.

Fifteen Tourney Champs Play in Eastern Open

Snead Is Only 1954 Winner to Skip Test at Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—The brightest bunch of stars in its short five-year history began gunning for gold today in the richest Eastern Open golf tournament at the Municipal Mt. Pleasant course here.

Shooting for the $4,000 top prize in the 72-hole, $20,000 event were 107 pros, including winners in 15 of the 18 previous tourneys played this year under PGA sanction.

In this group were three previous Eastern Open titlists—Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., Cary Middlecoff of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., and Dick Mayer, the defending champion from St.Petersburg, Fla.

Sam Snead, the 1952 winner and Master of White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., sat this one out. His 275 is the tournament record.

The hilly, 6,895 yard Mt.Pleasant layout was still soft from recent damp, cool weather, and most of the touring pros agreed after yesterday's practice rounds it played "longer" than in previous tourneys here.

A steady rain last night didn't figure to help those who lean heavily on their long game, either.

After today's and tomorrow's rounds, the field will be whittled to 60 players for the last 36 holes extending through Sunday.

Besides Mayer and Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex., who tied for the Miami Beach four-ball championship, winners of other 1954 scrambles playing in the Eastern included Bob Toski, Livingston, N.J.; Dutch Harrison, Ardmore, Okla.; Herman Scharlau, Boca Raton, Fla.; Fred Wampler, Indianapolis; Shelley Mayfield, Chicopee, Mass.; Bob Rosburg, Chicago; Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N.C.; Chandler Harper, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Fred Haas, New Orleans; Art Wall, Pocono Manor, Pa.; Dave Douglas, Grossinger, N.Y.; Doug Ford, Kiamesha Lake and Johnny Palmer, Charlotte, N.C.

This year's purse was hiked $5,000, with the winner's share increased $1,600 over the 1953 loot.

Kaline's Single in 9th Beats A's 4-3

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers won yesterday's game last year.

Confused? So are the Philadelphia Athletics.

Tigers nudged the A's 4-3 on Al Kaline's run-scoring single in the bottom of the 9th inning, but there an intriguing story behind the rookie's game-winning hit.

This was the situation:

With the score tied 3-3, the Tigers filled the bases without a hit in the 9th. That brought up Kaline to face Alex Kellner, Philadelphia's starting pitcher.

In what seemed like sound strategy, the A's replaced Kellner, a lefty, with Ed Burtschy, a right-hander. It was a fatal mistake. The Tigers had the "book" on Burtschy.

"He throws nothing but curve balls," Bill Tuttle, next Tiger hitter, whispered to Kaline. "That's all he threw when we played against each other in the International League last year."

Kaline walked up to the plate and, on Burtschey's first pitch, he rifled a single between short and third to score the winning run.

"Bill was right," Kaline said. "He threw me a curve and I was ready for it."

This "secret" leaked out in the Tigers' dressing room after the game.

"My, oh, my, don't ball players ever change," grinned general manager Muddy Ruel later in the evening. "We should have kept it quiet about Burtschey. We'll be playing the A's again."

The Tigers won't be playing anybody today. It's an off day. Starting Friday, however, they will open a three-game series in Briggs Stadium with the Chicago White Sox.

Fred Hutchinson, Tiger skipper, has named Billy Hoeft, Ned Garver and Steve Gromek—in that order to face the White Sox in the Friday night-Saturday-Sunday set.

Ralph Branca opened for Detroit yesterday but pitched only 1 1-3 innings. He was followed to the mound by George Zuverink and Dick Marlowe, who retired the A's in order in the 9th to pick up his 2nd win against no setbacks.

Braves Win JH Title

By BILL MARTIN

Washington won three 1st places and scored heavily in five other events yesterday afternoon at Wisner Field to win the Suburban Junior High League track meet for the 3rd straight year.

Braves piled up 52⅞ points to win. Jefferson was 2nd with 41⅛, followed by Eastern's 18, Waterford's 10¾, Lincoln's 8¼ and Wever's 3.

Two conference records fell during the competition.

Most spectacular performance was turned in by Washington's Alex Barge, who cleared 5 feet 10½ inches to better his own record of 5-7½ set last year. Barge's remarkable leap also erased the Wisner Field record of 5-9½ set by another junior high performer, Gene Lawson of Jefferson, earlier this season.

Barge also placed 2nd in the 100-yard dash and broad jump to tie with Jefferson's Archie Brooks for the individual scoring honors in the meet. Brooks won the 75-yard dash and low hurdles and placed 3rd in the broad jump.

The 2nd new record was registered in the quarter-mile relay, won by Jefferson in 50.1 seconds. Former mark was (50.2, set by Jefferson in 1951. Washington finished 1st in the relay in 49.3 seconds, but was disqualified when a runner stepped out of his lane on a baton exchange.

The only other double-winner was Jefferson's Jim Hawkins, who finished 1st in the 100-yard dash and broad jump.

75-yard dash—Brooks (J) 1st; Conley (E) 2nd; Shaw (Wash) 3rd; Anderson (J) 4th; Cooper (Wash) 5th. Time 8.5 seconds.

100-yard dash—Hawkins (J) 1st; Barge (Wash) 2nd; Hope (Wat) 3rd; Martin (J) 4th; Whitlock (Wash) 5th. Time 11 seconds.

50-yard high hurdles—Phlegm (Wash) 1st; Watkins (Wash) 2nd; Pope (E) 3rd; Barube (Wat) 4th; Burkhardt (Wat) 5th. Time 7.95 seconds.

100-yard low hurdles—Brooks (J) 1st; Watkins (Wash) 2nd; Strevel (Wev) 3rd; Burkhardt (Wat) 4th; Hawkins (J) 5th. Time 12.6 seconds.

Broad jump—Hawkins (J) 1st; Barge (Wash) 2nd; Brooks (J) 3rd; White (Wash) 4th; Whitlock (Wash) 5th. Distance 19 feet 4 inches.

Shot put—Hickman (E) 1st; Ramsey (Wash) 2nd; Watkins (Wash) 3rd; Kinney (E) 4th; Jolly (Wash) 5th. Distance 44 feet 5½ inches.

Pole vault—Oates (Wash) 1st; Whitlock (Wash) 2nd; Bolt (L) 3rd; McAnnally (Wash), Herron (J), Lawson (J), Keller (J), Davis (Wat), Willard (Wat), Olson (L), Boomer (L) tied for 4th. Height 9 feet 6 inches.

High jump—Barge (Wash) 1st; Ray (J) 2nd; Lawson (J) 3rd; White (Wash) and Diehm (L) tied for 4th. Height 5 feet 10¼ inches. (New record. Old mark 5-7½, set by Barge in 1953. Also replaces field record of 5-9½, set by Gene Lawson of Jefferson earlier this year.)

Quarter-mile relay—Jefferson (H Martin-W Jackson-A. Hoover-R Anderson) 1st; Eastern, 2nd; Lincoln, 3rd; Waterford, 4th. Washington, disqualified. Time 50.1 seconds. (New record, old mark :50.2, set by Jefferson in 1951).

HIGH-FLYING JUMPER—Washington's Alex Barge is shown above clearing 5 feet 10½ inches in the high jump to set a new record during yesterday's Suburban Junior High League track meet at Wisner Field. The remarkable leap erased Barge's own record of 5-7½, set last year, and helped Washington win the meet for the 3rd straight year.

Miner's Lamp Will Carry Olympic Fire

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—The Olympic flame for the 1956 games will be flown to Australia in a miner's lamp, E. G. Holt, technical director of the organizing committee said today.

Runners will carry the torch from Olympia to a Greek airport where it will be transferred to a miner's lamp and flown to Darwin, Holt said.

From there, about 1,800 runners will carry the flame down Australia's east coast to Melbourne.

Ohioan Picked by Birmingham

Carl Lemle of Toledo Named to Maples' Grid Coaching Post

Replacing Vince Secontine, retiring Birmingham high school football coach, Carl Lemle of Toledo will assume head coaching and teaching duties Sept. 1.

Lemle graduated from Toledo Scott in 1944 where he served as quarterback for four years. He attended Ohio State and the University of Toledo and had four years of college football.

His coaching experience was attained at Port Huron high school as backfield coach under Bob Hayes for four years; one year at Toledo, Waite; and one year as head coach at Holland, Ohio. His war service was spent in the navy.

Mr. Lemle is currently enjoying a perfect coaching record as a head coach. Last year his team won 9 games and lost none. Carl has a master's degree, is married, and has two children.

East Detroit Trackmen Easy for Birmingham

Birmingham High School's track team rested many of its standouts for Saturday's state meet, but had more than enough strength to rout East Detroit, 73½-34½ at Pierce Field.

John Appleford won the 220 and tied for 1st in the high jump for the Maples. Birmingham took eight firsts.

Baltimore Still Trailing Braves' Attendance Mark

BALTIMORE (AP)—Transfer of the St. Louis Browns to Baltimore has paid off in attendance in the first 15 home dates, but the Orioles still trail Milwaukee's home attendance mark, both last season and this.

The Orioles in their first two home stands drew more paid admissions than the Browns did in St.Louis all last season.

Last night's attendance of 29,722, boosted the total to 318,679. The Browns played before only 297,238 all of 1953.

But the Baltimore total left something lacking for Oriole partisans who vowed when the franchise was switched here last fall to beat Milwaukee's million-plus home attendance in 1953, its first year in the National League.

Even this season, with some of the novelty worn off, Milwaukee has drawn 324,615 for its first 15 home dates. That's 11,217 less than the number who saw the Braves play their first 15 games at home last season, but the total is 5,936 better than Baltimore's figure.

The Orioles have responded to the enthusiastic rooting by winning nine and losing seven at home.

The weather for the Orioles' first 15 home dates was anything except conducive to big turnouts. It rained on more than half the dates and only two occasions, last night and Sunday when 46,796 attended, resembled baseball weather.

Moose, Tool Nines Winners in City League

Softball Squads Post Extremes in Scoring in Wednesday Play

Extremes in scoring marked Wednesday night's City Softball League action at Northside Park.

Moose edged Drive-In Cleaners 4-1 behind the 3-hit pitching of veteran hurler Pete Mihay, while Forster Tool blasted Louie's Tavern 20-6 in a 23-hit slugfest.

Foster's York lashed out four doubles in five appearances to spark his team's triumph.

Tonight's league games will be played at Beaudette Park, with CIO 594 taking on Drive-In Cleaners at 7 p.m. and GMC meeting Birmingham Riteway at 8:30 o'clock. Shaw's Jewelers will play an exhibition double-header with two city league teams at Northside, starting at 7 p.m.

Errors Help Spartans Wallop Tartars' Nine

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan State, battling for the Big Ten baseball title, capitalized on three errors yesterday to trim Wayne University 6-2 in a non-conference game.

Spartans, who now have a 15-6 overall season record, combined two hits and a walk with Tartar miscues for three runs in the 4th inning.

Oddest Golfing Tourney Is Tour in S. America

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—Talk about long putts, how about one clear across the equator?

That's one gimmick in the oddest tournament yet devised, a "golf around South America" handicap event. The tour, being organized by Harold Dawson of the Southern California Golf Association, will begin in Mexico City, Oct. 3.

Players will shoot full 18 hole rounds on nine of the best Latin-American courses, but only two holes of each round will count in the tournament. Winner will be the one with the best 18-hole net, using the handicap on the last day of the tournament.

The inter-hemispheric putts will be made on the Quito, Ecuador, Golf Club, where it's possible if you don't over-shoot the green.

Rides 4,400th Winner

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—John (Moneybags) Longden has ridden his 4,400th winner.

The 44-year-old Longden reached that milestone yesterday at Hollywood Park aboard Real Hope in the fifth race. Johnny has been riding for 27 years and has ridden more winners than any jockey in the world except England's Sir Gordon Richards.

Chicago Gloves Titlists Face Europeans Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—Europe's 10 amateur boxers, rated the strongest overseas team since 1948, tonight face Chicago's Golden Gloves champions in the 17th international bouts.

A crowd of more than 12,000 is expected at Chicago Stadium to watch the well-balanced European squad bid for its first victory in Chicago since 1939. The 1948 team tied with the Americans.

The top invading amateurs represent eight countries, England, France, Ireland, Scotland, Belgium, Norway, Finland and Morocco. They will engage the experienced American team in 10 bouts.

The feature bout may be between light heavyweight Bjarne Lingas of Oslo, Norway, and Orville Pitts, veteran Golden Glover, who is in the Air Force and stationed at Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Frank Cooper, Dublin detective, is coach of the European squad and confident of victory. His Irish team defeated the 1952 touring Chicago Golden Glovers in Ireland 6-4, while French, Italian and German teams tied with the Americans.

Alfredo Escobar, bantamweight from Los Angeles, is Chicago's Captain. His opponent will be Antoine Martin of Paris.

Campanella's Injury Brings Pause in Catching Battle With Berra; Their Records Very Similar

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—The hot catcher's battle between Yogi Berra and Roy Campanella, one of the warmest affairs we've seen in some time, now comes to a pause while the Dodger star recovers from a hand operation.

Yogi can keep firing, but Roy faces weeks of inactivity. These are the two best catchers since Bill Dickey and Mickey Cochrane left the scene. Cochrane and Dickey were the two best I've run across. They were only crowded by Johnny Kling and Gabby Hartnett.

Berra and Campanella have been running neck and neck for six years. Berra broke in with the Yankees in 1946, but he only played seven games that season.

Campanella reached Brooklyn in 1948. From 1948 on through to the present campaign the two have had one of the closest battles fans could ask for.

In seven years, up to the 1954 campaign, Berra has batted .295. In six years with Brooklyn, Campanella has batted .292. In his seven years with the Yankees Berra has smacked 159 home runs—Campanella has 158 to his credit. Berra has driven in 665 runs, Campanella is credited with 563.

There has been a general opinion that Campanella has been well ahead in home runs and runs driven in. It is generally forgotten that Campanella has known only two years above the .300 brand. Campanella's best mark was .325 in 1951—Yogi's .322 in 1950.

Both have been fine catchers and useful people to have around. Berra, having emerged from a slump, is now on his way to another big year. Campanella, held in check by a bad hand, got away to his worst start this season and he will still be out for many weeks.

If Berra has a good year he can get a big jump on the Dodger catcher. Unfortunately, as George M. Cohan once wrote—"It isn't what you used to be—it's what you are today."

Campanella will have to have a blazing finish to keep Berra company for 1954.

Loser Is Army-Bound

Fiore Ends Unbeaten Record of Jed Black, Hopes to Meet Ranking Welter

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT, May 20 (AP)—Cy Crisci is a reasonable fight manager, which is something of an oddity.

His belter from Brooklyn, Carmine Fiore, scored a unanimous 10-round decision last night over Jed Black of Janesville, Wis., and not once—not once, mind you—did Crisci clamor: "We want the champ next!"

He merely said:

"Maybe now they'll rank my boy."

This refreshing twist followed an impressive performance by Fiore, who is unranked among the welterweights. Using a solid left, he twice floored Black for eight counts to pile up an impressive margin on the cards of all three officials.

The Army-bound Black was surprised by a wild left in the third round. He was up at the count of two, ready to go, but referee Jackie Swartz said, no, you must take a mandatory eight count.

There was nothing mandatory about the second knockdown, however. In the seventh, Fiore thumped a solid left to Black's head, and the ex-collegian fell over on his side, completely dazed. He rose rubber-legged but before Fiore could file him under "knockouts," the bell ended the round.

Referee Swartz was the most impressed with the bruising Fiore. He called it 96-82, while Judge Bill Appleton had it 93-86 and Judge Joe Greenberg 98-85.

Chopping away with pounding lefts and rights, Fiore turned Black's sides to a tender, beefsteak red. This, of course, didn't show up on the black and white TV screens from coast to Coast.

"But I felt them, and my back and sides still hurt," Black said in the dressing room. It probably was Black's last fight for some time. he will enter the Army Sunday.

Fiore's future is more definite. There's a June 16th date open in Detroit's Olympia Stadium and he'll likely get it against some ranking welterweight.

Fiore weighed 146¼ and now has a record of 26-26-5. Black, 144½, is 28-2-1. A slim crowd of 1,662 paid a gross of $2,645.10.

It's Time Out!

"Well, I wondered when you brought those things home and said the fans gave you a day today!"

Umpire Rules Al Rosen's Bat Is Not Legal

CLEVELAND, May 20 (AP)—Umpire Charley Berry ruled Al Rosen's favorite bat was illegal yesterday after finding that it contained several small nails.

The bat — a 35-ounce, well-weathered Louisville Slugger—became an issue as the Cleveland Indians' infielder stepped to the plate in the fifth inning of Wednesday's game with the Boston Red Sox.

At the urging of Boston catcher Sammy White, Umpire Berry took Rosen's bat, found the nails in a checked section at the heavy end, and tossed it to the Tribe dugout.

"I knew someone was going to catch up with this sooner or later, but I was going to keep it as long as possible," grinned Rosen later. "I've used this one practically all season."

Saginaw Threat to Flint Squad

Maturen Leads Strong Team in Quest of '54 State Track Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Saginaw High, led by a stocky field event specialist named Bob Maturen, poses a genuine threat to defending champion Flint Northern in the Class A track finals at Ann Arbor Saturday.

A check of comparative efforts in last Saturday's regional meets disclosed that Maturen had the top mark in the pole vault (12 feet, 3 inches) and in the broad jump (22 feet, 2½ inches).

No other athlete was tops in two events in the seven regional meets involving 51 Class A schools.

Flint Northern meanwhile, was just as impressive in winning the regional at Ann Arbor. Vikings rolled up 71 points to 34 3/5 for 2nd place Ann Arbor High.

Other regional winners were Lansing Sexton (49½ points), Pontiac (73), Mt. Clemens (51 1/6), Monroe (43 1-10) and Grand Rapids Central (45 2-3).

Regional figures indicate trends but shouldn't be considered decisive.

PACESETTERS—Duane Wildey of Oxford (left) and Paul Dellaire of Rochester were standouts in Wednesday's Tri-County League track meet at Oxford although the meet was won by Romeo. Wildey broke a 13-year-old record in the half mile, winning in 2 minutes, 7.1 seconds. Dellaire won both dashes and just missed tying the 220 record in 22.85 seconds.

Heavy Field Listed in IC4A Track Test

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—A total of 535 individual nominations from 46 colleges have been entered for the IC4A track and field championships here May 28-29, Director Asa Bushnell has announced.

Bushnell said the list of team entries included virtually every major track power in the East plus such standouts as Marquette, Duke and Maryland.

Penn State is favored to wrest the championship from Manhattan, which has held the title for the last two years.

Oxford Edges Rochester for Runnerup Spot

Marshall, Lothery and Dellaire Win 2 Events; Wildey Bests 880 Mark

By JACK SAYLOR

Romeo ran up six first places Wednesday night to win its 3rd straight Tri-County League track meet at Oxford and wind up athletic competition in the venerable circuit, one of the state's oldest.

Romeo's winning total was 54½. Race for the remaining positions was spirited as Oxford took 2nd place with 39½ points, a half point ahead of Rochester.

Lapeer was 4th with 37 followed by Lake Orion with 31. Temperature in the 40s hampered the athletes somewhat, but three records were broken and another tied.

Three individuals were double winners, including Dick Marshall and Jim Lothery of Romeo. Marshall swept the hurdles and Lothery took the high jump and shot put. Paul Dellaire of Rochester won both the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Oxford netted only two firsts to three for Rochester, but edged the Falcons on three 2nds, a tie for 2nd, and five 3rds.

Bill Sullivan of Lapeer outdistanced Oxford freshman Fred Gingell and tied a 19-year-old record in the mile of 4 minutes, 55 seconds. Duane Wildey, Oxford junior, smashed the half-mile standard set in 1941 by turning the two laps in 2:07.1.

Lothery lifted his own high jump mark to an even six feet. Other record was in the medley relay as Ron Shoemaker, Clyde Groves, Larry Spencer and Jack Mosser of Oxford did 2:43.8 to better Romeo's 1953 performance.

Romeo won the half-mile relay and the Bulldogs' Bernie Carter won the broad jump as well as taking 2nd in both dashes. Dick Chambers of Lake Orion and Norm Wiley of Lapeer tied for 1st in the pole vault.

Yanks, One Game Back, Face Tailenders at Home

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The World Champion New York Yankees came home today from a triumphant tour of the West where they beat the strongest teams in the American League on their home grounds 8 out of 10 times.

The champs are one game behind Cleveland at the moment, but now it's the Indians' turn to take on the Western powers. New York is the only team in what the American League calls East—Baltimore is West—above sixth place.

On the invasion just ended New York was the only traveling team with anything like a winning record. Washington won 3 of 9, Boston 2 of 10 and Philadelphia 1 of 8.

The western teams showed their power in the National League, too, but here they were the invaders instead of the home teams. Three of the four broke even or better in the East.

The St. Louis Cardinals jumped from fourth to first with a 6-3 record.

Milwaukee also won 6 of 9 and moved from seventh to fourth. The Chicago Cubs broke even at 5-5. Only Cincinnati faltered, losing 6 of 9.

St. Louis grabbed the National League lead yesterday on the combination of a 3-0 victory over the Giants and defeats for Brooklyn and the Phillies. The Cubs and the Phillies.

The Yankees made it two straight over the White Sox 3-2. Cleveland won its seventh in a row, 5-3 over Boston. Baltimore beat Washington 5-3 and Detroit edged the Athletics 4-3.

Vic Raschi, branded as too complacent to stick with the Yankees this season, pitched his first National League shutout and his fifth consecutive victory for the Cardinals. He retired the last 15 Giants in order after giving up five singles in the first five innings.

Bob Lemon picked up victory No. 6 for Cleveland as he allowed the Red Sox just four hits.

Two errors by Milt Bolling gave the Indians two unearned runs in the eighth. Al Rosen hit his sixth home run in the last five games.

UM Beats MSC Netters

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's tennis team was celebrating a revenge victory over rival Michigan State today.

The Wolverines scored a 6-3 victory in hard-fought matches with the Spartans yesterday reversing an earlier 8-1 defeat inflicted by MSC.

Pepper Rodgers, with four touchdowns, 13 extra points and one field goal for 40 points, led Georgia Tech's football team in scoring last season.

After nine years managing in the low minors, Kerby Farrell moves up to the AAA American Association this season as Indianapolis pilot.

Standout Field Lined Up for Coliseum Relays

O'Brein, Richards, Mal Whitfield Are Among 'Name' Performers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Track and field athletes from far and abroad, many of them internationally renowned, checked in today for final workouts before the 14th annual Los Angeles Coliseum Relays tomorrow night, when world record performances are possible.

Feature events abound on the program, highlighted by the appearance of such stars as shotputter Parry O'Brien, high jumpers Chuck Holding and Ernie Shelton, pole vaulter Bob Richards, hurdler Jack Davis, mile runners Mal Whitfield and Sweden's Ingvar Eriksson and the finest relay teams in the nation.

Upwards of 30,000 fans are expected to witness the meet. The first major event, the 100-yard dash, is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. (10:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time).

O'Brien, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, who recently shoved the shot 60 feet 5¼ inches, has little opposition in this event. He will double up in the discus, which he won at the West Coast Relays last Saturday over the world record holder, Fortune Gordien, with a throw of 184 feet 1½ inches.

East Texas State College's Holding is credited with a high jump of 6 feet 10 inches. Shelton, a Southern California Trojan, high, 6-9¾ 10 days ago.

Crack relay teams from various colleges, each a champion in its section and headed by sprint stars from the University of Texas, arrive today.

State Schools Have Edge on Endowed Institutions

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

EAST LANSING (AP) — Do state-supported universities have a big bulge over privately endowed institutions in athletics?

In the opinion of Duffy Daugherty, Michigan State's new football coach, they do — in football and in every other respect. And he points to Michigan State's phenomenal athletic development as proof.

Daugherty, a product of Syracuse University, is completely sold on Michigan State. It isn't just because his job is here. Duffy is an enthusiastic sort of guy and the words fairly spill over when he talks about the college he has adopted.

Daugherty obviously feels that his own elevation to the head coaching job and Biggie Munn's promotion to athletic director is a sign that Michigan State has reached athletic maturity. Although physically the college still is growing, the struggle for recognition, has ended and with it some of the scramble for athletic talent.

* * *

"We don't have traditions like the Ivy League schools, but we can tell our players they're in the process of building a football tradition," Duffy explained. "After all, Michigan State is less than 100 years old and not so long ago if was just a small agricultural and scientific school. In 1948 it was the 13th largest college in the country. Now it is ninth largest and by about 1960 we expect to have 30,000 students."

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

BATTING—Al Kaline, Detroit Tigers, singled with the bases loaded in the last of the 9th, driving in the winning run as Detroit beat Philadelphia 4-3.

PITCHING—Vic Raschi, St. Louis Cardinals, pitched his first National League shutout and his 5th straight victory, beating New York 3-0.

Clarkston Girl Wins Tri-State Rifle Letter

Ann Barrows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Barrows, 6100 Overlook Drive, Clarkston, only girl on the rifle and pistol team of Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., has been awarded her "T" for participation in rifle and pistol team activities during the past season.

She fired in 60 per cent of the total postal matches shot by the team. Miss Barrows award was presented during the recently held annual sports awards banquet of the college, where she is enrolled in the Department of Commerce.

Two Firsts for Golfer

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Jerry Whittington had two firsts at Meadow Brook Golf club here by making a hole-in-one on the No. 5 hole. It was his first ace and the first one ever made on that hole. Jerry used a 6 iron on the 173-yard hole.

Chisox Star to Fight Chicago Woman's Suit

CHICAGO (UP)—Orestes (Minnie) Minoso, Chicago White Sox baseball star named in a $250,000 breach of promise suit, today offered to submit to a blood test to prove he was not the father of a Chicago woman's infant daughter, according to a friend.

"If the blood test shows I'm the father I will take care of the child, but if it shows I'm not the father I'll file a terrific countersuit," he was quoted as saying.

'Private Eye,' Trailing Major Leaguer Winds Up in Clink on Player's Charges

By TOM BRADSHAW

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The ball club hired a detective to shadow its second baseman and the private eye wound up in the clink.

That could be considered a rather humorous situation except that a lot of people in the business are wondering how long this sort of thing has been going on and how general it is in the baseball world.

The ball club involved is the Philadelphia Phillies of the National League. The second baseman is Granville Hamner. The private eye identified himself as Charles Leland, 36, working out of Wilmington, Del.

The story "broke" yesterday afternoon when it was revealed Leland had been taken in custody on Hamner's complaint someone followed him home from the Phillies' ball park after the Tuesday night game.

And, said Granny, when he parked at home and went into the house, he saw this other automobile round a corner, then drive past the Hamner house once more.

They found a .32-caliber revolver and a .38 target pistol in his car.

Leland said he was employed by the Brandywine Investigation Agency in Wilmington and that the whole situation was a mistake. He said he had been instructed to follow an Air Force man driving a two-tone gray Cadillac in connection with a divorce action.

Leland was arraigned before Magistrate William Hagen and held in $500 bail on a charge he violated the Uniform Firearms Act.

Then, Phillies owner Bob Carpenter exploded a bombshell.

"This was no case of mistaken identity," Carpenter announced in a statement. "It was a case of my employing a detective agency to check on some of my players."

And he added:

"Most major league clubs follow the same policy. Each year I have checked on my players both at home and on the road, so that I could be assured that our rules of midnight curfew after day games, and 2 a.m. curfew after night games would be observed."

Officials of several other clubs, asked to express their views on the subject, declined to comment immediately.

Vuckovich Ready to Bid for Berth in '500' Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Bill Vukovich, 1953 winner of the Memorial Day 500-mile auto race, was back in business today after engine trouble kept him from qualifying for this year's contest in opening time trials last weekend.

A new engine for his fuel injection Special was flown in from the Meyer & Drake plant at Los Angeles, and Wild Bill was clocked unofficially at 139.5 miles an hour yesterday a few hours after it was installed.

Vukovich had planned to shoot for the pole position that goes with the best speed on the first day of qualifications. He had held that spot last year and was never headed except during stops for fuel and tires.

Vukovich won't have much chance to charge into the lead on the first lap this year. Regardless of his speed, in this weekend's qualifications—and he may challenge Jack McGrath's track record of 141.033 miles an hour—he will have to start back of the earlier qualifiers.

Emphasis Is on Stakes Events in 56-Day Meet in Livonia

Before the meeting closes on July 24, some $1,250,000 will have been paid in purses to horsemen, and 700,000 persons will have gone through the gates at Schoolcraft and Middlebelt roads in suburban Livonia.

Track officials have been placing their 1954 emphasis on an enlarged stakes racing program. It has been built around the $50,000-added Michigan Mile on July 10 and will see almost $200,000 spent in purses for 13 separate stakes.

Opening day feature is the $5,000 Inaugural Purse for three-year-olds and older at six furlongs. On Saturday the $10,000-added Motor City Handicap will be run, and it has drawn a nomination list of 28 thoroughbreds.

Santee in Big Seven's Spotlight

By FRANK PITMAN

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—The spotlight is focused on miler Wes Santee of Kansas in the Big Seven track and field championships here tomorrow and Saturday but several other topflight athletes may set new conference records.

Competitors in the meet at mile-high Folsom Field have equalled or surpassed this season, seven of the records on the conference books. Only marks made in the league meet are accepted as conference records.

Santee, fastest miler in U.S. history, has registered better-than-record time in the 880 yard, the mile and two mile. But track experts figure the rarefied air will keep him from setting conference records in the mile and two mile runs.

Santee's best chance, veteran coaches say, is in the 880 yard run. It is in the longer races that the thinner air begins to tell. Glenn Cunningham, another great Kansas distance runner, holds the Big Seven 880 mark of 1:52.2. Santee has been clocked this season in 1:51.5 in an official 880 run and was timed in 1:48.3 as part of a relay run.

Santee holds the Big Seven mile record of 4:06.3. He's stepped it in 4:03.1 this season. The track record at Boulder is 4:25.6 and Frank Potts, Colorado track coach for 27 years, says he'll be surprised if Santee breaks 4:10. The Big Seven two mile mark is 9:19.0. Santee's time of 8:58.0 this season has been submitted for recognition as an official intercollegiate record. Potts believes Santee will be hard pressed to reach the 9:19 time at Boulder.

Aside from Santee there may be new records in the 440 yard dash, broad jump and discus. There's an outside chance the pole vault mark may be lowered. The present records in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, high and low hurdles, high jump, javelin and shot put look out of reach for the current performers.

Neville Price, Oklahoma's senior broadjumper from East London, South Africa, will be defending his 1953 championship when he set a record of 24 feet 11¼ inches. He's jumped 25 feet 2 inches this season.

Oklahoma may have another record breaker in Harry Lee who's been clocked in 48 seconds flat for the 440 yard dash this year. That is the same as the record set in 1942 by Bill Lyda of Oklahoma.

'Raggedy Ann Little Colt' Ring King Opposes Fordmidable Preakness Foes

By GEORGE BOWEN

BALTIMORE (AP)—Ring King, "a Raggedy Ann little colt" even to the trainer who made him whatever racehorse he is, typifies entries being made today for Saturday's Preakness in the face of knowledge that the formidable Correlation and Hasty Road already are down to start.

Trainer Tommy Kelly is full of doubt that Ring King belongs in such a high caliber race as the $100,000 middle leg of the Triple Crown. But there's only one way to find out for certain and that's to try, admits Kelly.

This is the attitude of almost all the others who will pay $500 to enter between 7 and 10 a.m. (EDT).

Robert S. Lytle, owner of Correlation, and Allie Reubens, owner of Hasty Road, entered their favorites yesterday. So did Howard A. Jones with For Free and Sunny Blue Farm's Admiral Porter.

After the first prize of around $90,000 there is $25,000 for second, $15,000 for third and $7,500 for fourth. Mrs. Ada L. Rice put up the equivalent of fourth prize money just to make Ring King eligible and pays another $1,000 to enter and start.

Kelly, a 35-year-old native of Pikesville, Md., became trainer for the Rices last November. In January, they sent him Ring King in Florida and told him "either make him run or break him down."

"I did what the boss told me," relates Kelly. "I made him run. Every time the colt went on the race track I had the exercise boy carry a stick."

* * *

At first nothing appeared to result. Ring King ran three times and failed to win. Then he came north to Laurel and won three straight, including two stakes, the Cherry Blossom and Chesapeake.

He ran for the first time since March 27 in the Preakness Prep on Monday and finished behind Correlation and Hasty Road.

My Greatest Shot

By CHICK HARBERT

After starting the third round of the 1942 Los Angeles Open 5 above par on the first six holes, I birdied the seventh and ninth to make the turn at the Hillcrest Country Club in 39, 3 above.

I pushed my drive on the 10th hole almost out of bounds, found the ball in a large clump of bushes, well to the right, about 90 yards from the green. It was here that I made my greatest shot.

I was left practically an impossible shot, over the bushes, under the branches of a very large tree and over a guarding sand-trap to an exfremely fast green.

Using a 7 iron, I played the ball to within a quarter of an inch of the hole.

The shot helped me to a birdie 3, the hole, a 30 for the back nine and a 69 for the round.

The big thing on that shot—and any other shot— was that I didn't do it all with my hands and arms. I had my feet, legs and hips in the swing.

A good grip is the key to your swing, but you need that firm foundation—feet, legs and hips steady, comfortable and doing their job.

Rain Surprise 'Entry' for Preakness; Boost Correlation Status

BALTIMORE (AP)—A northeastern rain storm was the only surprise entry today for Saturday's Preakness, in which 11 three-year-old thoroughbreds will race a mile and three-sixteenths for prizes totalling $140,000.

The rain was uncalled for in official forecasts, which now declare it will continue at least until tomorrow.

The prospect of a muddy or slow track increased the favorite's role already assigned Robert S. Lytle's Correlation in the second leg of horse racing's triple crown.

Milton Berle Likes Quiet of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Milton Berle is here to finish off his TV season, and he says he'd like to do his shows in Hollywood all the time.

Berle holds the amazing record of 290 hour-long shows on TV. He has been on-camera throughout most of them, and nearly all have originated in New York. Easterners who have watched the westward movement of TV production may be pained to learn that Uncle Miltie favors working on these sunny shores.

"Sure, I'd rather work out here," he says between rehearsals for one of the three shows he will do in Hollywood. "It's better for me. In New York, I don't sleep. You get all the city noises. And you know me—as long as I know Lindy's is going to be open until 4 in the morning, I gotta be there.

"In Hollywood, it's different. There's nothing doing at night, so you go to bed at 10 o'clock."

Berle said he didn't know whether he would get his wish to work out here regularly. It's up to the sponsor, and so far the sponsor likes the New York origination.

"And in the year following, I hope to do only one show a month or even one every six weeks," he announced. "Why should I do more? I can't keep the money."

When I expressed some doubt, he bared his financial picture.

"I get $30,000 a show," he said. "That is my personal salary, for me alone. But I am in a 92 per cent income tax bracket. That leaves what—about $2,400? Of course, that's after expenses. But many weeks I will take up to $5,000 out of my own pocket for special lighting and other effects. You can get only so much out of a sponsor."

Film Life Span Just 18 Months

Deems Taylor Rates Only Three Movies as 'Immortals'

NEW YORK (UP) — Motion pictures, like fruit flies and human beings, have an average life expectancy.

From the day of its release to the last showing in the last neighborhood house, approximately 18 months elapses, durmg which time it is seen by an average of 13,000,000 people.

Thereafter, in the ordinary trade sense, the picture is "dead" and its usefulness as entertainment over.

There are, of course exceptions — movies that enjoy long, prosperous runs and are seen by many millions of people. And there are even a few pictures that apparently live forever.

Deems Taylor, composer, critic and author of "A Pictorial History of the Movies," lists only thre such "immortals" among contemporary films — "Gone With the Wind," "The Best Years of Our Lives" and Walt Disney's "Fantasia."

"All three of these pictures," Taylor said, "have a quality of timelessness that removes them from the class of ordinary films and makes them modern classics that can command new audiences every few years, as each new generation of filmgoers grows up.

"Gone With the Wind," presenting as it does a panoramic picture of the Civil War and its tragic aftermath, can never be dated by events that have transpired since.

"Fantasia" is Disney's inspired animation of some of the world's breat music, which is itself immortal.

"And 'Best Years', although specifically a drama of America in the years following World War II, deals in human values that haven't changed in the last 2,000 years. As long as the motion picture medium itself endures, these films will always prove popular."

Taylor's thesis will be put to a partial test again in February, when Samuel Goldwyn re-releases "The Best Years of Our Lives" after almost five years off the screen. It returns with a record that few other films can match.

"The producer was partially inspired to the move by the use of some clips from the film on one of the "Toast of the Town" programs on television during 1953.

His office received a lot of mail from persons who said they would like to be able to see the film again. Also there was a response from young people who had reached maturity since the film was new. They either hadn't seen it or, as children, hadn't been able to appreciate it properly.

Oliver Hardy Gaining in Bout With Pneumonia

PLYMOUTH, England (AP)—Physicians reported a slight improvement today in the condition of American film comedian Oliver Hardy, ill with pneumonia.

"He is a little better, but is still feeling terrible," his wife told newsmen.

Hardy, partner of Stan Laurel in the famous screen comedy team, had to discontinue an engagement at a Plymouth theater. He plans to return to America as soon as he is able to travel.

Queen Takes Holiday

LONDON (AP)—The Duke of Edinburgh left by plane for Scotland today to join his wife, Queen Elizabeth II, and their two children for a 12-day holiday at the royal castle of Balmoral.

Corinne Calvet in Italy

ROME, (AP) — Corinne Calvet, French-born American movie star, arrived here by plane last night for a brief visit in Italy. She was met at the airport by her fiance, Jeff Stone.

Nicaragua Cuts Off Guatemalan Contacts

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (INS)—Without official explanation, Nicaragua has severed diplomatic relations with Guatemala, just three days after Guatemala received an arms shipment from behind the Iron Curtain.

Relations between the two Central American countries had been strained since February when Guatemala charged that Nicaragua was behind a plot to overthrow the Communist-tinted government of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman.

Nicaraguan President Anastasio Guzman denied the charge and there was a flurry of hot words between the two governments.

Monday, the United States disclosed that Guatemala, which has been accused of being Communist-dominated, had received a shipload of arms from Communist Eastern Europe.

The Nicaraguan announcement Wednesday that relations had been severed, however, did not refer to the arms controversy.

Woman Urges America to Cultivate Indonesians

ABOARD THE S. S. INDEPENDENCE (INS)—An American woman who is about to study the situation at first hand feels that the people in the United States should be taking a much more vital interest in the affairs and progress of the four-year-old republic of Indonesia.

Mrs. Lloyd Signell, Laurel, Md., is joining her husband, Engineer Consultant to the Ministry of Agriculture of Indonesia, in this nation comprising the Far Eastern islands of Bali, Java, Sumatra and Borneo.

Politically the state has tried to maintain a position of neutrality during this period of international pressures.

Rather than viewing this as an antagonistic attitude toward the United States or one of coldness to democracy generally, Mrs. Signell sees it as nothing more than the normal reaction of a country which has just received sovereign status after a costly revolution.

Drawing a parallel with America she asks what her own country might have done if confronted with picking sides in a European war involving global ideologies during the late 18th century.

The possibility of a strong tie between Indonesia and the United States, she explains, is the fact that during the struggle for independence from the Dutch the island forces used as watchwords the philosophies of Jefferson and Lincoln.

According to Mrs. Signell the natural resources of oil, tin and rubber make Indonesia the third richest country in the world.

Just to the north, she points out, the French are fighting a front line war against a Communist army.

Going further than the political reasons for an international interest, Mrs. Signell looks on Indonesia as a country from which Americans "can learn a lot."

A highly sensitive people, she says the Indonesians possess a philosophy of life which could prove a benefit to any race of people.

Despite a high illiteracy rate she says the Indonesians are culturally very much advanced although this attribute manifests itself in ways which are sometimes strange and often misunderstood by Americans.

The Laurel woman contends that the needs of the country now are extremely pressing and that help is necessary.

Blessed with a competent, intelligent leadership, she describes the nation's first need as a more comprehensive and adequate educational system whereby this caliber of governmental offices can be perpetuated.

The lack of numbers of this type official, she states, has created a situation whereby the capable leaders are forced to hold down three and sometimes four different positions of responsibility.

Secondly, and of utmost importance economically, she says the country needs international understanding of its serious internal problems.

Stripped of a great deal of its commercial enterprise by the revolution, Mrs. Signell says Indonesia must learn to administer, control and conduct the financial interests made available by natural resources and which, if properly applied, have the potential of establishing a great, free nation.

Ethiopian School Takes Shape on Paper in U. S.

STILLWATER, Okla. (UP) — Oklahoma A. & M. College architects have finished drawing plans for an entire new college campus —but they'll probably never see the buildings.

The college will be built in Ethiopia under the direction of the Point Four program there, and all plans were drawn by students here.

Construction of the college is scheduled to start May 1, and should be finished by Jan. 1, 1955. An administration building, classroom building and a dormitory to house 200 students will start the new Imperial Ethiopian A. & M. College, but eventually its backers hope it will expand to hold 1,000 or more students.

Hammer Goes Astray

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (UP) — A maintenance worker at a hospital threw a hammer at a flock of birds on the roof. The hammer missed the birds, and shattered a windshield of a nearby automobile.

Tornado Warning System Is Improved

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP)—Oklahoma's tornado warning system will be in better operating condition than ever this year, weather bureau officials predicted.

The twister season extends from February through July, and in past years virtually entire towns have been blown apart by tornadoes, taking a high toll in injured and dead.

Last year the weather bureau set up a network of 250 observers to make tornado reports by telephone, and their information is passed on to radio and television stations for broadcasts.

W. E. Maughan, in charge of the Oklahoma City weather bureau and the state tornado reporting service, said about 130 communities will have spotter systems operating.

The weather bureau itself will supervise special spotting setups near the state's two largest cities, Oklahoma City and Tulsa, Maughan said.

He said it's still impossible to forecast the exact time and place a tornado will strike. The weather bureau can only warn people to take cover.

Electronic Instrument Locates Stray Metal

CAMDEN, N. J. (UP)—The proverbial "needle in the haystack" won't be elusive anymore.

Electronics engineers at the RCA plant have developed a mechanism that will pick out all metal objects concealed in textile materials. The device sounds an alarm, either by a ringing bell or warning light, which automatically stops matchinery.

Gains Showing Slow Turnover

CHICAGO (AP) — With the excitable May contracts out of the way, grain settled down to a slow steady turnover on the board of trade today.

Soybeans and lard, however, softened quickly after a stable start. July beans at one time were five cents lower than the previous close. The contract had been carried more than eight cents up on the 10 cent limit advance on expiring May deliveries.

During the first hour wheat was ¼ to 1/3 cent higher, July $1.95⅝; corn was ⅛ higher to ¼ lower, July $1.54⅛; oats were ⅛ higher to ⅛ lower, July 70⅝, and rye was ¼ higher, July 99¾. Soybeans were 3½ cents lower to ½ higher, July $3.63¼, and lard was 18 to 35 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $17.32.

Presbyterians Open Assembly

Nearly 900 Attending 166th National Meeting in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—The 166th general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States opened here today.

Nearly 900 commissioners, laymen and ministers representing the 256 presbyteries of the church attended the opening session of the assembly at Masonic Temple.

Three candidates had been endorsed by various presbyteries to succeed Dr. Mackay. They are: Dr. Thomas R. Niven, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, Omaha, Neb.; the Rev. Ralph Waldo Lloyd, president of Maryville College, Tenn.; and the Rev. Charles Morton Hanna, of Louisville Theological Seminary.

Dr. Lloyd is chairman of the Joint Permanent Commission of the Denomination on Church Cooperation and Union, and of the Joint Negotiating Committee which prepared the plan of union which will be considered by the assembly Friday.

The plan calls for the merger of the Northern Church (meeting here), the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. (Southern) and the United Presbyterian Church.

Other business scheduled to come before the assembly includes consideration of a controversial "letter to Prebyterians concerning the present situation in our country and the world," which was circulated under the signature of Dr. Mackay last November after adoption by the general council.

The letter was construed by many as an attack on congressional inquiries in dealing with the relation of the church to the menace of communism.

The general assembly will continue in session through May 26.

One Charge Dismissed Against Palmer Seeley

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Charges of conspiracy were dismissed in Municipal Court today against G. Palmer Seeley who had been accused of defrauding two Ottawa County brothers in a highway land deal.

He was listed as co-conspirator, however, as preliminary examination of Ronald V. Kennedy, his assistant, got under way after four postponements. Seeley has already pleaded guilty in Muskegon to a much graver charge.

Supervisors OK Hiring 7 More County Workers

Seven more workers for Oakland County clerk's office and equalization division were approved by the County Board of Supervisors Wednesday.

A heavy agenda topped by this year's report on equalized values kept board members at yesterday's meeting from 9:30 a.m. until mid-afternoon.

Fred W. Smith ways and means committee chairman asked for $3,300 for three temporary workers to help the county clerk's staff re-register some 16,500 assumed names. Local people and companies working under assumed names must register every five years.

The committee won board approval of $7,000 for two more workers for the equalization division, which sets a value on the property in each township and city, for taxing purposes.

Board voted to buy a house and lot at 117 S. Troy St., Royal Oak, for $13,500 to add to the new South Oakland County Office Building grounds.

Supervisors passed a new employes' life insurance plan which will let workers who quit before retiring get back the money they've paid in for group life insurance—or stay on the insurance company's books and let their survivors get it at death.

Workers will pay $1.30 a month; the county, $1.13 a month for each employe. Under the present plan, employes who quit their jobs lose the insurance payments they've made.

The board decided to ask Michigan Conservation Department to give it title to 30 feet of lot 74 in Union Lake Subdivision for an easement to make sure the county can keep up the Maynard Drain.

The board told its road committee to meet with the planning commission and buildings and grounds committee to study a new spot on Pontiac Lake road for road commission offices.

The supervisors' road committee suggested the board put the road commission on 33 acres at the county center—a site with 700 feet of frontage on Telegraph road and 650 on Pontiac Lake road. Committee Chairman Don R. MacDonald said the commission must move "as the Orchard Lake-Telegraph grade separation will take part of its present property."

David R. Levinson moved the matter be referred back to committee so the buildings and grounds personnel would have a chance to look over the site.

The board backed Howard K. Kelley, Royal Oak supervisor, in thanking U.S. Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Mich) for "fostering, nuturing and bringing to fruition" legislation which "made the dream of the St. Lawrence Seaway a reality." Kelley said Dondero did a great deal of the work to get the seaway bill passed.

Democrat Willis M. Brewer of Pontiac joined in the vote to pass Kelley's resolution, and laughingly commented, "Why'd you leave out the two Republican senators?"

Catalog Lists Reactors

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Three types of reactors, the largest providing 1,000 kilowats of power, are listed in the first atomic energy catalog released by North American Aviation. The firm, which has been in the atomic energy field since 1946, says it is prepared to design and build reactors for qualified scientific, medical and industrial groups, subject to approval by the Atomic Energy Commission.

First Program Show of Shows

Star Will Make Debut in Compatible Video on September 12

NEW YORK—Betty Hutton, dynamic musical comedy star of motion pictures and stage, has been signed to open the TV fall series of special color "spectaculars".

The first presentation will be Your Show of Shows Sept. 12 to be produced and directed by Max Liebman, in RCA compatible color television.

Miss Hutton, one of the nation's few outstanding entertainers who have not yet been seen on television, will make her debut in the medium on this date.

As a special vehicle for Miss Hutton, Liebman has commissioned the writing of a musical comedy with an original book.

Liebman will produce and direct two such hour-and-a-half compatible color television extravaganzas each four weeks during the 1954-55 season. One will be seen every fourth Saturday, and the other every fourth Sunday. Liebman's second production in the series will be presented on Saturday, Sept. 25.

The 20 color presentations that Liebman will produce in the series will originate "live" from the new color studio, now being completed in Brooklyn. These modern quarters formerly had housed the eastern motion picture activities of Warner Brothers Pictures.

When the Brooklyn studios are completed they will be the largest color studios in the world.

Miss Hutton's television debut marks a conspicuous TV "first." She starred in the Academy Award motion picture, The Greatest Show on Earth, a production that has become a milestone in musical history.

Her appearances at New York's famed Palace were oustanding successes. A singer, dancer and comedienne, Miss Hutton has been hailed as one of the most versatile stars in show business.

COLORFUL BEAUTY—Although you will probably never see lovely Marjorie Hellen on your TV screens, she is none-the-less a very important figure in the video world. The 19-year-old former model is the "human test pattern" for color television. The attributes which make her singularly outstanding in this field, include red-gold hair, cream complexion and grey eyes. She has been termed the ideal factor in "lining up" the color cameras.

From an engineering standpoint, air is more important than gasoline as a motor fuel because it is harder to get into the engine cylinders.

Liquor Industry Fights New Bill

Airing Its Side Today, Argues for Advertising on TV and in Papers

WASHINGTON (INS) — The liquor industry today branded a bill to outlaw wine, beer and liquor advertising as "a step to the return of national prohibition" in the United States.

The industry's arguments clashed head-on with temperance forces who claim that advertising of alcoholic beverages is "debauching" the nation's youth, and "intruding" in American homes via TV and radio.

The age-old fight between "wets and drys" is being aired before the House Commerce Committee at public hearings on a bill by the late Rep. Joseph R. Bryson (D-SC), an ardent "dry."

Bryson's measure would prohibit the advertising of alcoholic beverages in magazines or newspapers and over radio or television. Radio and television stations restrict beverage advertising to beer and wine.

The legislation, which would ban all alcoholic beverage advertising in interstate commerce has touched off an annual battle before congressional committees.

The first day of the current hearings, which opened Wednesday, was devoted mainly to supporters of the bill. The opponents get their chance today.

Prepared testimony issued by the Distilled Spirits Institute disclosed that the industry is just as firm in its convictions that the proposed legislation is bad as the temperance forces are convinced it is good.

R. E. Joyce, vice president of the institute, said the bill is "a clever attempt to erect a sizable obstacle in the path of orderly sale of alcoholic beverages as a step to the return of national prohibition by a minority who . . . would completely prohibit the manufacture and sale of the product."

F80 Jet Forced Down

YPSILANTI (AP)—An F80 jet interceptor, based at Selfridge Air Force Base, made a forced landing Wednesday at Willow Run Airport. The unidentified pilot was making practice landings when his jet burner failed. The practices had paid off though; he was uninjured.

Senate Group Approves Army Civil Funds Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate appropriations committee yesterday approved an Army civil functions appropriations bill calling for $484,095,500—more than 4 per cent above budget recommendations of the President.

Appropriations for Michigan in the bill included $88,000 in planning funds for the Amherstberg channel in the Detroit river and $125,000 for a special survey study of Great Lakes water levels.

Square D Employes Will Stay With UEW

DETROIT (AP)—Square D Co. employes voted last night to remain affiliated with the United Electrical Workers (Ind).

The employes voted 862 to 261 to defeat a move by the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers to win bargaining rights at the electrical equipment firm.

City Income Tax Now in Effect in 8 Communities

CHICAGO (UP) — Pittsburgh and Cincinnati have joined eight other cities of over 150,000 population in taxing the personal incomes of residents.

Philadelphia was the first city to adopt the tax, according to the Commerce Clearing House, national reporting authority on tax and business law. That was in 1939.

Since then the plan has been followed by Louisville, St. Louis, Scranton and four other Ohio cities—Columbus, Dayton, Toledo and Youngstown.

The Clearing House said that in most cases, surrounding suburbs and townships quickly adopt income taxes similar to those in big cities. In the Pittsburgh area, for example, more than 20 communities have adopted income taxes to retain their share of the levies on their residents who work in Pittsburgh.

The taxes range from ½ of one per cent to 1 per cent. Seven of the larger cities also have income taxes against corporations, ranging from ½ of one per cent to one per cent. These cities are Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Toledo, Youngstown, Louisville and St. Louis.

Police Hunt for Vandals That Stoned Flint Home

FLINT (AP)—Police searched for the unidentified persons who stoned the home of a Flint couple, less than a week after the couple appeared before the House Un-American Activities subcommittee.

Police said the home of Murray and Geneva Borod was attacked Monday night. Windows were broken and red paint smeared on the front porch. The couple were "uncooperative witnesses" before the congressional investigators.

Senator Suggests Plan to Help Foreign Trade

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) suggested today that long-term installment selling by the United States to foreign nations might stimulate international trade as much as would lower tariffs.

Capehart said in a statement this nation might be "missing the boat by concentrating too much on tariffs and such things" rather than "applying the principles of American domestic business to international trade."

Horse-Pull Contest Set

RAVENNA (UP) — The first horse-pulling contest of 1954 will be staged by the West Michigan Horse Pullers Assn. here Saturday. Eighteen teams of horses have been entered in the event.

Speculators Pick 4 Likely to Get Leonard's Job

DETROIT (INS) — Speculation over who will succeed Donald S. Leonard as Detroit police commissioner centered around four prominent persons today, following Leonard's resignation.

Leonard, his eyes blurred with tears, handed his resignation to Mayor Cobo Wednesday, effective June 5. He took the step so he could devote his full efforts to campaigning for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Brig. Gen. Clyde E. Daugherty, city assessor and civil defense director, appointed to both jobs by Cobo.

Dog Catcher Catching 100 Strays Per Month

GASTONIA, N. C. (AP)—City Manager James Carter complained that people are bringing dogs from near and far "to dump them on the edge of the city limits." He estimated Dog Catcher Bob Terrell nabs about 100 stray pooches a month in this city of 23,000.

"The city's stray dog population is growing faster than the dog catcher can catch them," the city manager said.

But worse, reported Councilman A. D. Davis, the dogs now know Terrell and run when they see him coming."
