President Feels Reds Inspiring Mob Violence

Says Economic Woes in Latin America Also Partly Responsible

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today mob violence against Vice President Nixon in South America appears to reflect a pattern of Communist inspiration and exploitation.

But, he told a news conference, he believes economic troubles are partly responsible for the anti-American demonstrations in such countries as Venezuela and Peru.

Eisenhower said Communist inspiration seems to be behind the demonstrations in some other parts of the world, but added that the unrest in French Algeria may be caused by something else.

Eisenhower spoke in response to a request for his assessment of the current wave of anti-American demonstrations in South America—particularly what has happened to Nixon and his party in Venezuela and Peru.

A reporter asked whether the President saw any pattern of Communist inspiration or whether it also could be a case of genuine resentment against U. S. policies.

MATTER COMPLEX

Eisenhower called it a complex question. Then he went on to say that he does not believe there is any single cause of the violence in the Latin American countries.

There are, he added, economic factors in the U. S. relationships with such countries as Uruguay, Bolivia, Peru and Venezuela.

In Venezuela—where Nixon and his party were stoned and spat upon yesterday—there have been rumors, Eisenhower said, that the United States is trying to impose quotas on such oil exporting nations. There is no truth to that, Eisenhower declared.

Then he said that U. S. economic aid and world trade are as vital (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Ex-Patient Sues Dr. Sullenberger

Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger and Pontiac General Hospital have been named in a $100,000 suit charging the Pontiac surgeon left a sponge in a patient following an operation.

Cecil J. Harrison, 36, of 269 Seward St. charged the surgeon performed three operations on him for stomach ulcers at the hospital last summer. "Although the condition could have been treated by medication without surgery," Harrison, a factory worker and father of three, said the sponge was left behind during the first operation, July 31. A second operation followed to remove the sponge, he said, and the third was to repair the first incision, which he claimed had been improperly closed.

The suit, filed yesterday in Circuit Court, also names as defendants the hospital board of trustees, its medical staff and the city.

Not yet served with notice of the suit, Dr. Sullenberger indicated he was prepared to refute any charges of malpractice. He and the other defendants have 15 days in which to file an appearance on the charges.

The surgeon and hospital have been at odds since he was suspended from his medical staff Nov. 13. A law suit, in which Dr. Sullenberger sought reinstatement and $250,000 damages, was tossed out of court April 11 on grounds he failed to make a final appeal to the trustees.

Dr. Sullenberger wrote the board of trustees yesterday, requesting a final hearing by its appeal committee. The board may set a date for the hearing at its meeting Thursday.

France Battling General's Revolt

PARIS (INS)—All French troops in Metropolitan France were reported tonight ordered confined to their barracks as a temporary and precautionary move.

PARIS (AP)—The French government today ordered Gen. Raoul Salan to take over command of Algeria from an insurrectionist junta led by a tough paratroop officer. In its first official action since being installed early today, the new Cabinet of Premier Pierre Pflimlin also banned all public demonstrations throughout France and in Algeria.

Salan, commander of all troops in Algeria, was ordered to take full command in the North African colony from paratroop Gen. Jacques Massu.

Massu demanded that President Rene Coty put wartime hero Gen. Charles de Gaulle at the head of a government outside politics. This would be a military dictatorship.

The Cabinet told Salan to maintain law and order in the Algerian capital of Algiers and to guarantee the protection of lives and property.

GIVES POWER
In its emergency session, the Cabinet handed over full power in Algeria to Andre Mutter, the new minister for Algerian affairs. He took over from Robert Lacoste, hero of French rightists in Algeria.

The Cabinet's orders to Salan were designed to bolster his apparent struggle for control with Massu and his so-called committee for public safety.

Crowds of demonstrators finally were dispersed by troops firing over their heads and using tear gas and the flat sides of machetes.

Trippers to See 'Who Was That Lady' New Play on Press List

A sparkling new comedy is now on the list of five top Broadway shows in store for the Pontiac Press theater-trippers who sign up for a week's vacation in New York City June 23-28.

"Who Was That Lady?" starring a popular comedy team, Peter Lind Hayes and his wife Mary Healy, has been scheduled in place of another show, "Fair Game."

The Hayes-Healy production provides a sure-fire laugh every 25 seconds, according to a recent review. Written by Norman Krasna, it's concerned with the droll doings of a college professor and his wife who get mixed up with the FBI.

The other shows scheduled are "Music Man," "West Side Story," "Two for the Seesaw," and "Oh, Captain!"—a package that offers music, laughter and drama.

The trip has side features, too—including tours, an after-theater supper, get-together buffet, fashion show and stock exchange visit. Deadline for reservations for five shows, air transportation and hotel accommodations is May 23.

Bandits Get $31,500 in Sarnia

Michigan Bank Car Robbed Near Blue Water Bridge

SARNIA, Ont. (AP)—Two pistol-shooting robbers took $31,500 today from a Michigan bank messenger at the Canadian end of the Blue Water Bridge connecting Port Huron and Sarnia.

No one was wounded in the gunfire. The messenger was unarmed.

Albert E. Borg, 65, of Port Huron, was en route from the Michigan National Bank of Port Huron to the Royal Canadian bank in Sarnia when the holdup happened. He was alone in a station wagon bearing the bank's name.

Borg, a 10-year Michigan National employee, said the bandits, driving a car with a Michigan license believed to be PK-7701 fired and forced him to a curb at the Ontario Information Center just on this side of the St. Clair river.

The robbers snatched out his auto keys, grabbed the four bags of Canadian currency he was transporting and fled.

The money was to be deposited to the Michigan National's credit in the Canadian bank.

The information center was unmanned at the time of the stickup. Ontario and Michigan police quickly ordered up roadblocks over a wide area.

The holdup car apparently turned north into the first side street, witnesses said, and then headed east toward London, Ont.

Venezuelan Publisher Discusses Nixon Riots

Did We Bungle Diplomacy in South America?

(What was behind the violent demonstrations against Vice President Nixon in Caracas yesterday? The publisher of Venezuela's most influential group of newspapers and magazines gives his answers. Marcos Perez Jimenez last January for refusing to publish a government editorial.)

By MIGUEL ANGEL CAPRILES

CARACAS (INS)—I visited Vice President Nixon at the American Embassy in Caracas and was impressed by his friendliness, good will and understanding. So were the editors of my three dailies, Ultimas Noticias, La Esfera and El Mundo, who accompanied me to the embassy.

Because of Nixon's personality I deplore all the more the incidents to which he was subjected by groups of youths on his arrival yesterday. I shall try to analyze the reasons behind these demonstrations, if not thoroughly at least partly.

The group of newspapers published by me was the leader in a campaign, in the days preceding the arrival of the vice president, for a frank discussion of the problems facing the U.S. and Venezuela.

The main problem was that of the presence in the United States of Pedro Estrada (former security chief) and Marcos Perez Jimenez (exiled dictator).

We called for the open discussion of these problems, in a civil and orderly form, without resort to violence of any kind.

Unfortunately, as Nixon himself told us yesterday at the embassy, young people are impulsive and quick tempered and do not always follow the advice of their more mature elders.

However, I told this to Nixon at the meeting. I have just conferred with the leaders of the three main Venezuelan political parties—Accion Democratica, Democratic Republican Union and Christian Socialists—and the great majority of the Venezuelan public opinion emphatically condemns yesterday's violence as undemocratic.

I am sure the Venezuelan government has expressed these same sentiments to Nixon.

We cannot, however, blame all that has happened solely on communism even though it is true that some of the demonstrators were members of Communist youth groups.

As I have said in my newspapers, many things led to yesterday's violence. These things might be grouped under the general term of errors in United States policy toward Latin America.

Just one calculated step taken by the United States a week ago might have turned Nixon's reception in Caracas into a cheering ovation. This step was to have expelled our hated Security Chief Pedro Estrada from the United States.

People were incensed at the ease with which a permanent resident's visa was granted to Estrada. Other applicants go through a trying and lengthy process to get one. But Estrada got his in a hurry.

Another easy step for the United States to have taken, would have been to have Nixon omit his visit to Paraguay. This would have shown Latin Americans that North American leaders do not visit dictators.

Unfortunately, however, Nixon not only went to Paraguay but, I understand, he praised Dictator Alfredo Stroessner as an "anti-Communist fighter."

Recent threats of restrictions on oil imports did not, of course, contribute to a warm reception for Nixon.

As I once told George N. Butler, who was United States ambassador during the dictatorship, we do not ask that the United States intervene in our domestic affairs.

We ask only that our rich and most influential neighbor should differentiate between the decent people living in the neighborhood and those who are not so decent.

This does not require his meddling in their homes or their domestic affairs. This difference of treatment, namely showing good will toward the good neighbors, can change the whole neighborhood.

UAW Plan Gets Big-3 Rejection

Proposal for Outside Arbitration Meets With Unanimous 'No'

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union returns to the bargaining table with the automotive big three today after getting a resounding unanimous "no" to a UAW proposal that contract differences be arbitrated.

It was the second setback in a month for Walter Reuther's UAW. The big three on April 28 rejected his proposal to extend the current contracts for three months.

The three-year contract with General Motors expires May 29. Similar contracts with Chrysler and Ford run out June 1.

REUTHER SILENT

There was no immediate comment from UAW President Reuther on the rejection of the arbitration proposal he put forth Saturday.

GM took less than five hours to turn thumbs down on Reuther's suggestion which it termed "another publicity maneuver."

Ford and Chrysler took a similar stand yesterday. Ford said "it just does not make sense" to submit the complicated contract questions to outside arbiters. Chrysler, in its statement, rapped the idea as "part of a long campaign to obtain exorbitant and inflationary concessions" from auto companies.

The UAW and GM and Chrysler met in day-long bargaining sessions yesterday. Ford and the UAW met for only half a day.

The UAW, whose members now average $2.40 hourly, has put no estimate on the increases it seeks from the auto firms in wages, pensions, cost of living allowances and other benefits. GM has estimated the UAW package would cost 73 cents hourly, while Ford estimated 70 cents.

Cool on Coasts, Generally Mild Elsewhere

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was a little cool in some eastern and western areas today, but generally fair, mild weather prevailed in most other sections of the country.

Except for showers in parts of central New England and southern Florida, skies were clear in most areas east of the Mississippi River. Cooler air spread from England to the Carolinas and across the Appalachians into Tennessee and the southern Ohio Valley.

There was a warming trend in the Gulf states and Great Lakes region. Biggest temperature advances were in the northern Great Lakes. Readings were in the 60s compared to the 40s yesterday morning.

Cool air moved south and eastward from the northern Rockies during the night and set off stormy weather in the plains and in parts of the upper Mississippi Valley. Rain fell from central Texas northward into Minnesota. Hail and strong winds hit sections of Kansas and Nebraska. Funnell clouds were reported in northeastern South Dakota in heavy rain storms.

Mostly fair and warmer weather was reported from the Rockies to the Pacific Coast.

Thunderstorms roared through the Southeast yesterday and last night with some hail and heavy rains in areas from southeastern Alabama through southern Georgia and most of Florida.

Move to Honor Among Thieves in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—If you ever had any doubt, there is no honor among thieves. Detroit police got proof of it today.

Mrs. Lynne Vivona of Utica lost her $650 mink stole and pocketbook to two Detroit parking lot snatchers.

A woman in a full length coat but without shoes waited nearby as the khaki-clad snatchers fled with her stole and purse containing $20, Mrs. Vivona reported.

A few minutes later, a nurse called police from a nearby hospital to report a fight. Through a window, she said she saw and heard two khaki-clad men and a barefoot woman in a long coat brawling over which was going to get a stole. When police got there the brawlers had vanished.

begin acting more and more like a government. Its members called a new conference.

Massu ordered a virtual mobilization of all European manpower in Algeria and called for more mass demonstrations in downtown Algiers.

Massu committees sprang up in Bone, Philippeville and Constantine, the main cities of eastern Algeria.

But Salan issued a contrary order telling Algerians to go back to work.

Massu's men controlled key points in Algiers. Heavy guards surrounded the Algiers government building and demanded passes from the committee of all persons seeking entry.

Massu's paratroopers were in control of radio stations, airports, railway stations, post offices and other communications points.

In Paris, President Coty issued an unprecedented order to all French forces to obey the new French government. Pflimlin issued a statement saying his government would punish those responsible for disturbances in Algeria.

Four prominent politicians with tough views on Algeria called for Pflimlin's resignation to make way for a national union government. They are ex-Premier Georges Bidault, Andre Morice, Jacques Soustelle and Roger Ducloux.

to this country as is proper defense.

As for the possibility of the riots being Communist inspired, Eisenhower said it is an old story all over the world that the Communists try to exploit any unrest.

He mentioned Burma, Indonesia and South America as examples.

He said it looks like some sort of concerted idea or pattern. Eisenhower then said he was making no direct accusation, but that it looks like a case of a lot of smoke and therefore there is a possibility of some fire.

Explosion in Front of U. S. Embassy Riots Continue in Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The harmless explosion of a bomb in front of the U.S. Embassy this morning began the fifth day of rioting against Lebanon's pro-Western government and its American ally.

The government of President Camille Chammoun was reported standing defiantly against the shooting, burning mobs.

The disturbances that have racked this tiny eastern Mediterranean republic subsided again into sporadic shooting during the curfew last night. With the lifting of the curfew shooting increased and mobs returned to the streets.

The death toll in rioting in Beirut since Monday reached an estimated 20 persons. It was expected to go higher. At least 32 other persons have been reported killed since the trouble began Saturday in the north Lebanese port of Tripoli.

him. He appeared relaxed and spoke coolly.

LOOKS UNWORRIED
He gave no indication of worry. But the U.S. Secret Service men who managed to get him safely into the embassy only by the skin of their teeth looked ahead uncomfortably to this evening's trip to the airport. He is due back in Washington at 10 a.m. (EDT) tomorrow.

They have to drive him back through the same street on which he arrived from the airport, and they fear possible further violence despite the fact the junta gave all assurances that this time the vice president would be adequately protected.

The government seriously underestimated Communist strength yesterday and relied on the word of party leaders that any demonstrations would be "orderly."

Junta members visited Nixon at the embassy yesterday afternoon and advised him not to go outside because of the danger of more violence.

Nixon agreed, but he showed his displeasure with the government for failing to protect his party by canceling a dinner for the junta last evening and refusing to stay in the Venezuelan palace as had been planned.

Senators to Probe Detroit Bombings

DETROIT (AP)—A wave of bombings of small business places recalling the extortion racket violence of Detroit's gang-ridden prohibition days has attracted the interest of Senate investigators.

Staff members of the special investigating committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said yesterday there may be a link between the mysterious dynamiting of small auto wash racks and cleaning and barber shops here and the underworld in New York, Chicago and Miami.

The committee, looking into wrongdoing in the labor-management field, currently is examining evidence that members of the Mafia, secret brotherhood of criminals, has extended its operations from the East Coast deep into the Middle West.

The pattern followed suggests the bombings — the work of experts — may be directed against businesses which have cut prices below prevailing rates.

So far, damage has been slight and no one has been injured.

Monday night's blast at a suburban Hazel Park barber shop, which also was bombed earlier this month, was the 10th since January. The shop charges $1 for a haircut. The union price for a haircut here is $1.75.

senior Republican on the Senate Armed Services Committee, wanted to know if Smithers would "close your eyes" if the Venezuelan government failed to protect Nixon and his wife.

"I for one am for protecting the dignity of the United States," Bridges said. "I am not for turning the other cheek."

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said he thinks it is right to have U.S. troops in position to protect Nixon and other Americans, but hopes they are not needed.

Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind.) said he favors doing whatever is necessary to protect the vice president.

Sens. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), member of the Armed Services Committee, said it was unfortunate that additional troops had been moved into the Caribbean area.

WHERE THEY DON'T LIKE US — Here are four places in the current news where anti-U.S. feeling is running high. Anti-American rioters stoned Vice President Nixon in Venezuela (1); French rioters sacked a U.S. Information Service office in Algiers (2); French demonstrators against government policy toward Algeria threatened to march against U.S. embassy in Paris (3); and rioting continued in Lebanon (4) where two U.S. Information Service libraries were wrecked within the past week.

The Day in Birmingham Lakepark Storm Sewer Installation Approved

BIRMINGHAM — With the outdoor work season getting into high gear, Birmingham City Commissioners approved the necessity of installing a storm sewer on Lakepark drive between Raynald and Redding roads. Plans and cost estimates will be prepared by the engineering department prior to the public hearing on June 9.

Residents at the hearing Monday brought up the question of road paving.

Hearings of necessity have been set for June 2 on the surfacing of Lakeside avenue, Pine street, Midland avenue, Lakepark drive, and Willow Lane in the Quanton Lakes Estate subdivision. The Redding road paving will come up at that time without plans or estimates.

With an easement granted by Mrs. Pussie Robinson Hersey to permit the city to work across private land, the necessity hearing on the Valley View lane storm sewer, is planned for June 9.

Bloomfield Hills city commissioners last night gave tentative approval to a budget of $240,000 for the 1958-59 fiscal year and set May 27 as a date for a public hearing on it.

City Manager Elmer Kephart said the increase, approximately $5,000, is needed to provide salary raises and to pay for street paving.

Birmingham city commissioners have approved the appointment of City Manager L. R. Gare and Assistant City Manager Robert S. Kenning as representatives and alternate for the city on the Garbage and Rubbish Authority. The two will reverse offices as appointees to the Water Authority Board.

Mayor Carl Inghram has appointed William Roberts and William Hutchinson to the Police Trial Board.

"Tag Days" and other street solicitations for benevolent purposes in Birmingham will be limited to one a month in the future, the commission has ruled. Permits will be offered on a "first come, first served" basis, with the stipulation that no request be made before 60 days prior to the desired date.

Police Lt. Robert Schauld said about 1,500 bicycles were inspected by the department with the assistance of the Kiwanis Club last Saturday. About 300 licenses were issued at this time.

Inspection teams will operate again Saturday at Pierce, Baldwin, Pembroke and Holy Name schools, beginning at 9 a.m.

Retailers Anxious to Clear Decks for '59Now's the Best Time to Purchase Car; Dealers Won't Cut Prices Any LowerBy DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — If you need a new car, now is the time to buy it. That may sound like a promotion pitch. It isn't. It's a suggestion that could save you a couple of hundred dollars or more.

WANT TO SELL

Retailers across the country have about 777,000 new cars on hand. They want to sell every one of them before the 1959 models come out. That means they are in a bargaining mood. They will sell at any price that leaves a reasonable margin of profit.

Because of production cuts dealer inventories are declining. There will be further cuts during the remainder of the present model year. The cuts will reduce the dealer inventories to the point where distress selling may be avoided in the final weeks of the model period.

The industry is forecasting a normal cleanup of outgoing models. That would avoid the wild, below-cost selling of other model years.

TALK CONSIDERABLE

There has been considerable talk about the industry holding the price line or even cutting prices on 1959 models. But the talk has been solely among persons who believe they know the answer to most of the industry's problems.

The car makers have said any cost increases, especially in wages, will bring price increases. Aside from production cost increases there is a huge investment, estimated at 1½ billion dollars in new model design, to be amortized.

Business will have to get worse than it is now before there will be any substantial price slashing at the manufacturing level. So, if you are waiting for a price cut amounting to more than the discounts presently obtainable at retail, you are likely to be disappointed.

DEALERS BARGAIN

Most dealers probably will bargain with you too, about the excise tax.

Some intending new car buyers are waiting for 1959 models. They have read that the change-over from current models will begin earlier this year. Indications are most makers will wind up the 1958 model year earlier, but that does not commit them to earlier introduction of next year's cars.

The shutdowns could be extended. They have been in other years. They will be this year if retailers need more time to liquidate outgoing models.

The industry carried approximately 100,000 outgoing models into the 1958 model year. They had to be sold at prices well below those put on the 1958 cars. They competed with the new models for several months.

The industry's self-imposed production control is aimed at avoiding this situation again this year. The first step, of course, is to make sure there is no need for the circus-type of merchandising.

Promotion stunts that offered new cars at "only a few dollars above factory invoice," were common in the 1955 and 1956 cleanup periods. There were some in late 1957. They generally were unprofitable to retailers.

12 Americans Aboard Ship Aground on Reef

KONG KONG (AP)—Twelve American passengers are reported aboard the U.S. freighter President Hayes, aground on a coral reef in the Paracel Islands 400 miles southeast of Hong Kong.

The American President Line ship also carries 59 crewmen under Capt. O. A. Larson, all Americans.

Mother Sees Son, Friend Die in Crash

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP) — A horrified mother stood "dumb-founded and helpless" while her son and another airman crashed in their small plane and burned to death before her eyes yesterday.

"They waved to us when they got about 50 feet in the air," said Mrs. Geneva Allen. "Then, when the plane was about 100 feet up it nosed over and dove right into our field. I could see them in the cabin and I couldn't get close enough to help them because the plane was burning up."

Dead are Airman I.C. Melvin Allen, whose parents the two were visiting near here, and Airman 2.C. Jonathan Lincoln of Great Neck, N. Y., the pilot. Both were stationed at Wurtsmith AFB, Oscoda, Mich.

The platypus, rarely seen outside its native Australia, is duck-billed, web-footed, fur-bearing, water-dwelling, egg-laying, young-suckling and poison-spined.

Red Skelton's Son Eulogized as Friend of Pope

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The body of Red Skelton's 9-year-old son was laid to rest with this eulogy:

"A president (Eisenhower) and a pope were his friends. Hundreds of thousands of men, women and children who had never seen him were his friends. Surely then, this was a special child who had touched so many lives."

Many celebrities were among the crowd of 1,000 who turned out yesterday for the simple Protestant funeral rites for Richard Skelton. The youngster died Saturday night after a 16-month illness of leukemia.

Among those present were Fess Parker, Vincent Price, Hugh O'Brian, Johnny Weissmuller and Max Baer, ex-heavyweight boxing champion. All are family friends.

Pope Pius XII sent a personally blessed crucifix. It was entombed with the body.

The Pope met Richard when Skelton took him on a European tour last summer. The Skeltons are not Catholic.

The eulogy, written by Gene Fowler, was delivered by another close friend of the family, actor William Lundigan.

Skelton broke down when the coffin was lifted into the hearse for the procession to the mausoleum. The comedian who has devoted his life to making people laugh made no attempt to hide his tears.

Commission Orders FEPC to Report

Pontiac's Fair Employment Practices Commission has been ordered by the City Commission to make a routine report on its recent activities.

Manager Walter K. Willman last night was given to City night to pass on to the FEPC chairman, Irving Steinman. No criticism of the FEPC was made, but one Commissioner observed that no formal report had been made by the body in "several years at least."

The Commissioner, Milton R. Henry, said the FEPC's activities "are of great interest to the people in my district and they would like to know what the board is doing."

FEPC members are appointed by the Commission and serve without pay.

2 Ask Examination in Bad Check Case

A former Detroit auto salesman and his woman companion demanded examination yesterday when arraigned before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle on a charge of passing a worthless $50 check in a Drayton Plains supermarket.

In the Oakland County jail because they couldn't post $10,000 and $2,500 bonds, respectively, were John Bradley, 28, and Mrs. Gloria R. Hoover, 26, both of Detroit.

Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Jerome K. Barry Jr. said the pair were picked up in Cadillac this week, where police discovered items for producing fraudulent checks and drivers licenses in the Bradley car.

Barry said seven $50 checks had been passed in the Detroit area last week by the pair, with the one in Drayton Plains included. This one was printed by Bradley on a form bearing the name of a former Detroit Chevrolet dealer he used to work for, Barry said.

"Get rid of Spark Plug 'Miss'—greatest cause of power loss. Put your car in this spot"

TCP adds Anti-Miss to anti-knock

IF YOU'RE LOOKING for the power your engine once had on hills and on getaways, now's the time to make your move—over to the white Super Shell pump.

Super Shell has an aviation "power pack" to provide the higher octane needed to prevent knock. But in today's engines anti-knock alone is not enough.

That's why there's TCP* in Super Shell to restore full power by ending today's major cause of power loss, spark plug "miss." TCP additive does this by neutralizing harmful combustion deposits—and so restores 20 to 30 lost horsepower!

What's more, Super Shell's aviation ingredients provide extra combustion energy that converts automatically to extra miles in every tankful.

Switch to Super Shell with TCP today.
