City in Command of Own Destinies

Effective Planning Keeps Pontiac in Wonderful Position

At a recent noon luncheon on Pontiac United Fund activities, Robert M. Critchfield, General Manager of the Pontiac Motor Division asked the Publisher of the Press what Pontiac was doing currently in regard to city planning. Mr. Critchfield is chairman of the 1955 United Fund Drive and has been interested and active in city affairs since his arrival here.

Matters at hand precluded a definite reply then, and we have written Mr. Critchfield to summarize the situation.

Thinking the facts will be of interest to the community in general, we are printing it herewith.

Dear Bob:

The other noon when we were discussing the United Fund, you asked about municipal planning.

We have a local planning commission and it has been active and effective. Certainly it compares favorably with those of neighboring communities.

★ ★ ★ ★

However, I am constrained to suggest some even more important features. I asked a man from the First of Michigan Corp. whether any city has better credit than Pontiac. His answer was an emphatic "no." And then he added that Pontiac's financial history is marvelous. Our outstanding debt is so small we command the lowest interest rate on bonds. Furthermore, and here is an astonishing fact, this debt is completely covered by cash and investments. Not many cities can say that.

★ ★ ★ ★

We just opened a new City Hall which cost more than a million dollars and it was all paid before the dedication ceremonies took place. The money had been laid aside slowly over a period of years in anticipation. Not many municipalities are that forehanded. I believe we have the best City Manager in the country in Walter K. Willman.

★ ★ ★ ★

Under the leadership and guidance of Louis J. Schimmel, one of the national municipal school and bond authorities, our school district enjoys top rating. No school districts have done better and only a scattering handful as good. Our development program is well formulated, the building program proceeding on schedule and we are currently abreast and even ahead of requirements. Few fast growing cities can say this. Expanding cities are normally those that are in debt the most.

★ ★ ★ ★

Also, we have been especially active in the past with paving streets and are currently moving forward on better parks and libraries.

Drainage is a pressing problem in this whole area and Pontiac has been giving the matter especially close study and attention. We're more than abreast of this big problem.

Water is an increasing hazard to most cities in Southeastern Michigan. Perhaps we are slightly better off at the moment than most of them, but this is a grave matter and we are studying the problem closely in conjunction with neighboring communities. Eventually Pontiac will probably get its water from Lake Huron.

★ ★ ★ ★

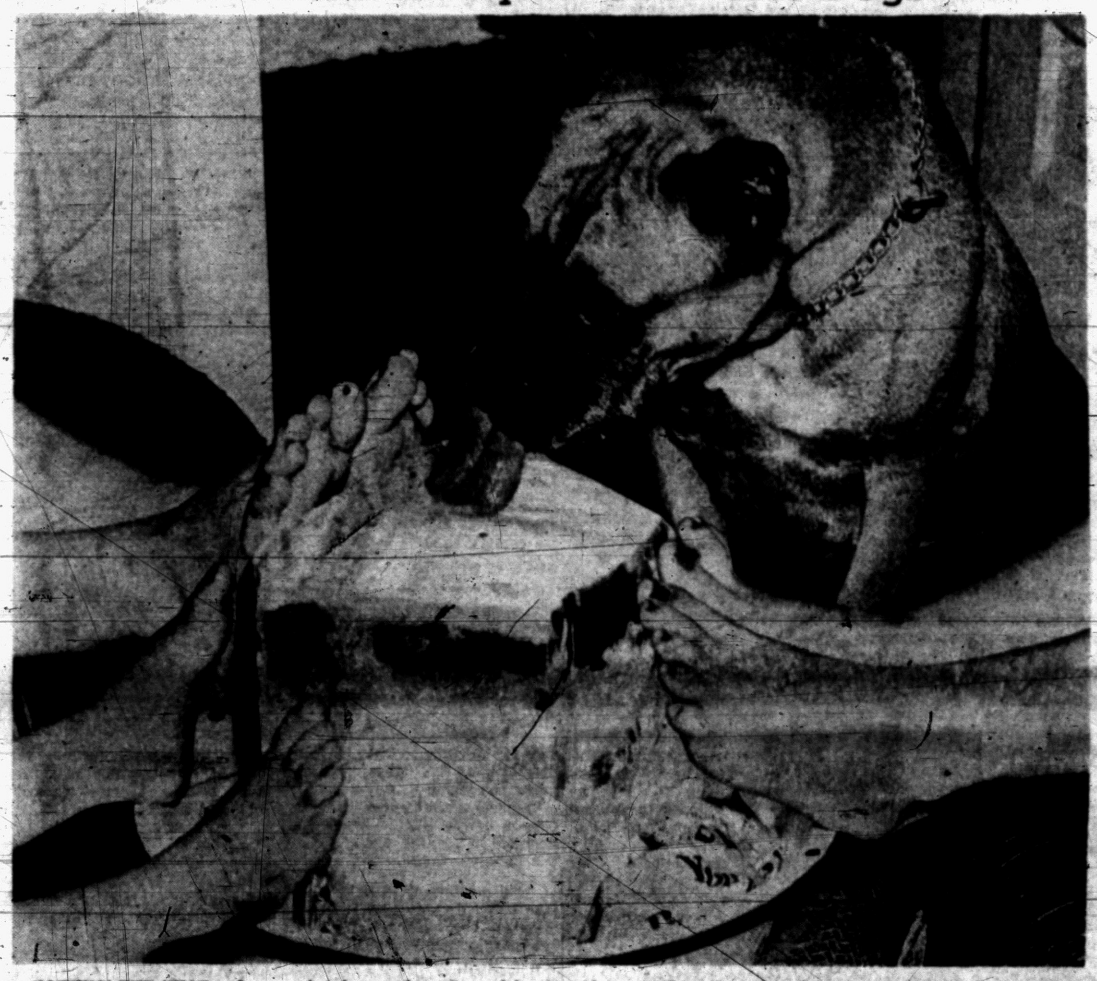

Not many cities in America have handled their personal problems as well as Pontiac. We have been prudent, frugal and yet aware of prime necessities. I doubt whether General Motors operates in a city that is in as complete command of its own destinies and which has paid its own way as carefully. For the most part we have enjoyed good City Commissioners and capable Mayors. The City is well run today.

★ ★ ★ ★

We have never had any consequential grants from industry or private citizens. I could give you a long list of lesser civic achievements, but the things mentioned here are the most basic and fundamental. You asked me the direct question at lunch: "What is Pontiac doing about present and future planning."

My answer seems to prove that we're right on the ball. Bob, we can all be proud of our home town.

Here's One Way to Cool 'Hot Dogs'

'LICKING' THE HEAT — Ice on a hot day can be quite useful as a reliever of the heat. If you're a dog, you can lick it, as "Dixie," a four-year-old Boxer is doing above. If you're people, you can cool your own "dogs" on it, as the humans are doing. The weatherman says the torrid wave will continue through tomorrow, at least. So if you've got a cake of ice handy you might try something similar. If you've just got cubes, you might try them in a glass—immersed in some sort of liquid or another.

Mercury Breaks Record

11 U.S. Airmen Given Freedom by Red China

Release Order Comes Prior to Geneva Talks Over Far East Tension

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping radio said tonight Red China had ordered the release of 11 American airmen who have been sentenced on charges of "spying."

The airmen were captured in the Korean war.

Peiping's announcement, heard here, came as the United States and Red China opened talks at Geneva on the ambassadorial level.

The 11 and their sentences are:

Col. John Knox Arnold Jr., Silver Springs, Md., 10 years.

Maj. William H. Baumer, Lewisburg, Pa., 8 years.

Capt. Eugene John Vaadi, Clayton, N. Y., 6 years.

Capt. Elmer F. Lellewellyn, Missoula, Mont., 5 years.

Lt. Wallace L. Brown, Banks, Ala., 5 years.

Lt. John W. Buck, Armathwaite, Tenn., 4 years.

Sgt. Howard W. Brown, St. Paul, Minn., 4 years.

Steven E. Kiba, airman 1.C., Akron, Ohio, 4 years.

Harry M. Benjamin Jr., airman 2.C., Worthington, Minn., 4 years.

John W. Thompson III, airman 2.C., Orange, Va., 4 years.

Daniel C. Schmidt, airman 2.C., Redding, Calif., 4 years.

President Eisenhower said Red China's freeing of the American airmen is a cause for nationwide relief and joy.

The White House issued a statement by the President less than an hour after Peiping radio broadcast word that the imprisoned fliers had been ordered freed.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the government had received advance word, early this morning, from the British military attache at Peiping that the announcement might be forthcoming.

Secretary of State Dulles had indicated, even before Hagerty's statement, that the United States had received direct word from Peiping prior to the Red broadcast which gave the news to the world generally.

Dulles was met by reporters as he entered the State Department auditorium, where he spoke briefly to representatives of 35 governors

Pontiac Tot Drowns in Shallow Basin

Two-year-old Diana Lyn Zeman, of 115 Augusta Ave., drowned last night after she fell into a shallow boat basin while playing in the yard of her grandmother's Lake Orion home.

The victim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zeman, was found lying in a foot of water by a babysitter, Shirley McDaniel, 13.

The grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Zumstein was in the house and the parents were fishing.

Efforts by the Lake Orion Fire Department to revive the child were fruitless and she was pronounced dead at the scene. The body was taken to Allen's Funeral Home in Lake Orion where service was set for Tuesday at 11 a.m.

Elizabeth Taylor Sick

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor was reported in good condition at St. John's Hospital where she was admitted for treatment of a superficial infection of her right leg. Dr. Robert Buckley said the actress will remain in the hospital several days.

Surpasses 1935 Record for Date With 97 Reading

Temperatures Expected to Remain Around 90's Through Tuesday

10 p. m.	82	8 a. m.	83
Midnight	80	10 a. m.	90
2 a. m.	78	Noon	95
4 a. m.	77	2 p. m.	97

August took up today right where the hottest July in history left off as the thermometer soared to a record 97 degrees at 2 p. m. today. And tomorrow it will be the same.

The previous high for this day was established in 1935 when the mercury registered 96 degrees, also during a lengthy hot spell.

Today's mercury high-jinks followed a hot, muggy night which made sleep nearly impossible for hundreds of thousands of persons across Oakland County, the state and the nation.

The temperature did not fall below the 76-degree reading during the night.

The official forecast is for partly cloudy skies, hot and humid, with scattered thundershowers today, tonight and Tuesday. The mercury is expected to range into the 90s again tomorrow.

SUNDAY'S HIGH 97

Yesterday, the downtown thermometer registered a high of 97 degrees in mid-afternoon.

Millions of Americans, already on the ropes from the prolonged heat wave, could only take a "sweat and bear it" attitude as torrid temperatures continued to be the fashion in most of the country.

And in the south, weathermen kept a wary eye peeled for a tropical storm centered 80 miles southeast of the mouth of the Mississippi River. It is expected that "Brenda," as the storm is dubbed, will begin a slow movement west, northwest after being stationary last night.

Storm warnings are up between the mouth of the Mississippi and Galveston, Tex.

At least two cases of heat prostration were treated at local hospitals.

A Flint man, traveling on Telegraph road, was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, after being overcome and a Garden City man was treated in the Pontiac General Hospital emergency section for heat prostration.

General officials reported more than 200 emergency cases yesterday, including many persons who complained of inability to breathe. Several sunburn cases also were treated.

Skilled Trade Society Meets

Speaker Blames Union Threats in Resignation of Three Leaders

A member of the newly formed Society of Skilled Trades of North America revealed at an organizational meeting here Sunday that three leaders of the new group resigned after the UAW-CIO International Board threatened their expulsion from the union unless they withdrew from the splinter movement.

Frederick Cronk, a skilled tradesman at Chevrolet Motor Division in Flint, told 150 men at Lincoln Junior High School, that the was one of seven members of the society who appeared before the 24-man international board last Thursday night.

"The proposal was that we resign from any or all activity or business we were conducting in the society or we would be tried before the international UAW and be expelled," Cronk said.

He added that the seven were

'Ens. Willie Keith' Killed in Fiery Plane Smashup

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—A flaming crash of a private airplane last night killed three persons, including actor Robert Francis, 25, who starred as Ens. Willie Keith in the movie version of "the Caine Mutiny."

Officers said the body of Francis was found strapped in the pilot's seat. Other victims were Mrs. Audrey Ann Dosch, 24, who had some minor motion picture roles under the name Ann Russell, and George Meyer, 38, a business partner of actor Joe Kirkwood, the "Joe Palooka" of the films.

Francis was considered one of Hollywood's most promising young stars. He graduated from Pasadena, Calif. City College in 1947 and served two years in the Army before stepping into film parts.

He was a virtual unknown when signed for the leading part of a maturing young naval officer in "The Caine Mutiny." He subsequently had leading parts in "the Long Gray Line," "They Rode West," "I Was a Prisoner in Korea," and "Bamboo Prison."

Although the plane belonged to Kirkwood, he was not aboard.

Witnesses said the single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza had landed at Lockheed Air Terminal here and just taken off again when the engine began to sputter.

ROBERT FRANCIS

Francis appeared to turn in an attempt to avoid Sunday crowds at a nearby cemetery. The plane stalled, went into a spin and crashed into an unused parking lot.

Seek State Aid in Water Needs

Fact-Finding Committee Is Sought to Consider Problem Here

Oakland County's State Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) and Secretary of State James M. Hare have joined in asking state help toward solving the critical water shortage facing Southeastern Michigan.

They suggested Saturday to Governor Williams that a fact-finding commission be set up.

The commission could help coordinate efforts of local and county groups to create a district with the aim of piping water from Lake Huron.

The Supervisors Inter-County Committee now has a survey under way including Oakland, Wayne, Monroe, Macomb, Washtenaw and St. Clair Counties.

Genesee and Lapeer Counties might also wish to join a water district, said Broomfield.

36-Hour Hurricane Warning Is Now Possible in U.S.

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Weather Bureau said today that improved facilities will permit it to give 36 hours' notice to any area threatened by hurricanes.

By the early warning and a closer watch on sea-borne storms, the bureau hopes to trim sharply the human casualties and property damages which occur when hurricanes strike land.

At the present time, weathermen are scanning the skies rather anxiously and wondering where the hurricanes are this year.

The season began officially on June 16. By this time last year two tropical storms already had roared inland out of the Gulf of Mexico.

By the end of the season on Nov. 30, there had been a norm of eight hurricanes. During a memorable seven-week period, Aug. 30 to Oct. 15, three of them — the well known Carol, Edna, and Hazel — had played havoc with Atlantic states from the Carolinas northward.

In the United States alone, the 1954 hurricanes caused 800 million dollars in property damages and claimed 200 lives, mostly by drowning.

This year got off to an early and rare start when hurricane Alice spawned 200 miles east of Puerto Rico Jan. 2 and blew itself out 200 miles southeast of the island two days later.

Weathermen said Alice served one good purpose — it vindicated Christopher Columbus, after 462 years.

Columbus reported he had weathered a hurricane on his return voyage from the West Indies in early 1493. No one believed him because a hurricane never before had occurred that early in the year — and didn't again until 1955.

When the first seasonal hurricane blows up — it will be named Brenda — the Weather Bureau will bring into play a series of improved facilities and techniques for tracking it and forecasting its course.

Observational data will be obtained from a new radar station at Cape Hatteras on the eastern tip of North Carolina.

In addition, military bases along the coast will train their radar on approaching sea storms to provide weathermen with information useful in determining the storm's position and rate of movement toward land.

PLANES AID

More frequent and detailed aerial reconnaissance flights into storm centers by Navy and Air Force planes will help forecasters locate, analyze and track any hurricane that may occur in the Caribbean, Gulf of Mexico and north Atlantic Ocean.

Twelve new stations have been added to the hurricane teletypewriter network which now connects 45 cities from Brownsville, Texas, to Portland, Maine. Thirteen stations will receive from Washington 60 weather charts every 24 hours by instantaneous facsimile reproduction.

For alerting the public, emergency warning centers have been established at all major points along the Gulf and Atlantic coasts. Additional personnel will fly in from inland stations as needed.

Weight-Watcher Ike Uses Sugar Substitute

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower uses a synthetic sweetener in his coffee.

New City Bureau Handles All Municipal Complaints

Beginning today, all municipal complaints and service requests will be routed through a new city agency, known as the Citizen's Service Bureau.

The agency may be reached by dialing the City Hall phone number, FE 3-7131 and asking for the bureau.

Purpose of the bureau is to provide faster service for the citizen phoning in the complaint, and to reduce the number of calls being routed into the various departments, according to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Complaints and service requests such as garbage or rubbish collections, holes in streets, plugged sewers or catch basins and damaged tree limbs will be handled through the agency.

The bureau will transmit the message to the proper department for service, cutting down the time the complaintant formerly spent in trying to locate the correct department.

Under the new arrangement, all complaints and requests will be followed up by a return post card asking the citizen to report on the services rendered.

"The bureau should result in the prompt handling and satisfactory disposition of service requests and complaints," Willman said. "It will also provide a method for measuring the city's services through the comments received on the return post cards.

"In addition, compliments for courteous and efficient service should boost employe morale. On the other hand, justified criticism by the public will point up the need for change in an employe's attitude."

Turnpike Chief, Aide Visit City on Route Tour

Michigan Turnpike Authority Chairman George N. Higgins, of Ferndale, and authority member Carl Smith, of Bay City, stopped here this morning on the first leg of a trip over the southern portion of the proposed toll road route.

The survey is the initial step in Higgins' program aimed at ironing out complaints by residents and communities along the turnpike path from Pontiac south to Rockwood.

The MTA previously approved the general layout of the route from Bridgeport near Saginaw to the northeast outskirts of Pontiac.

Higgins said he has received only two minor complaints over approval of the Bridgeport-Pontiac section, "and these can be straightened out with little difficulty."

The chairman repeated his previous statement that he will seek an immediate settlement of the conflict between MTA plans and those of the State Highway Department.

Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler said last Thursday he intends to press construction of a north-south freeway which would parallel the turnpike route and make the toll road impractical.

Higgins contends that failure of Congress to pass an increased federal-aid bill makes it necessary for Michigan to utilize toll-road financing in order to secure an adequate highway program.

Unsold Autos Worry Senate

Car Industry Insists Alarm Is Groundless, Business Good

DETROIT (AP) — Auto industry spokesman today viewed as groundless a Senate Interstate Commerce Subcommittee's concern over the backlog of unsold new automobiles.

* * *

The Senate group said yesterday it was "greatly concerned" over the "record number" of unsold new models on the market. It added that many new car dealers are "in economic difficulties."

Spokesmen for General Motors, Ford, Chrysler, American Motors and Studebaker-Packard, however, denied emphatically there was an abnormal jam of unsold cars or that the financial position of dealers was anything but strong. Inventories, they said, are below what they should be at the current sales volume.

"When you are doing the business that dealers are doing in this record sales year, it is demanding that the inventory be higher," said a Studebaker-Packard spokesman. "Our dealer profit margin is the best in years."

* * *

A GM representative described the current market as "healthy, competitive . . . and rather a good one for the customer."

He said GM dealer turnover was especially low for the first six months of 1955 and unsold cars were below normal, percentage wise.

Chrysler took the same stand saying, "Our dealers are making profits and their stocks are barely adequate in the present market."

"Ford is happy, the dealers are jubilant, the buyers overjoyed," declared a Ford spokesman. "It seems like the only unhappiness is among committee members."

Armada Crash Kills Three

Edward Serwatowski, R. A. Gamm, E. F. Blay Dead After Headon

ROMEO—Three men were killed in a two-car collision on North Avenue, south of Armada, Saturday night.

Victims were driver Edward T. Serwatowski, 24, 21680 Center Rd., Armada; the driver of the second car, Richard A. Gamm, 22, also of Armada, and his passenger, Earnest F. Blay, 22, who lived at the Armada Hotel.

State police of the Romeo Post reported the north-bound Gamm car, rounded a sharp curve at a high rate of speed, crossed the center line, into the crash.

The southbound vehicle, driven by Serwatowski, was hit almost head-on.

Summoned to the scene were the Macomb County Sheriff Department, Armada Police Chief Earl Robb, officials of the Romeo Police Department and State Trooper Milton Jury. All aided in the removal of the bodies to the Tiffany Funeral Home in Armada.

11 Airmen Freed by Chinese Reds

at a meeting on the refugee relief program.

Addressing the meeting, Dulles apologized for being late, and said: "I was delayed by the fact that 11 fliers of the U.S. Air Force being held by Red China are being released today."

The 11 were in a B29 which was shot down Jan. 12 1953, on what the Far East Air Force called "a routine leaflet dropping mission over North Korea."

Red China charged they flew over Manchuria on a mission for "the U. S. secret intelligence service." A Chinese military court last November sentenced them on espionage charges.

The airmen left Peiping yesterday and will arrive in Hong Kong Thursday to be turned over to the United States.

Meanwhile in Geneva, the United States and Red China today agreed to concentrate their private negotiations first on the problem or repatriating civilians, including about 40 Americans detained by Peiping.

This was announced in a joint communique after representatives of the two countries had met for 45 minutes in the opening round of their negotiations on ways to ease tension in the Far East.

Two Pontiac Persons Injured in Accident

After crashing into two parked cars at Saginaw and Whittemore, Ezel and Elizabeth Gandy, both of 569 California, were treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital for minor injuries.

Police stated that Gandy's car, driven by Mrs. Gandy, struck two parked cars early this morning, causing minor lacerations to both occupants.

Colonel From Pontiac Ends 30-Year Military Career

A native of Pontiac ended a 30 year military career yesterday when honored at a dress parade and review at Grandview Air Force Base, Mo.

Colonel Donald J. Bailey, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Bailey of Pontiac, retired from his latest assignment as commanding officer of the Central Army Antiaircraft Command after a brilliant career in the AAA branch.

Bailey, holder of the Silver Star and Oak Leaf Cluster and many other decorations, organized the Department of Army's Air Defense Panel which along with the Army Antiaircraft Command and Air Force make up this country's air defense team.

Bailey was assigned as executive officer of the Western AAA Command on October 4, 1950 after joining the parent AAA Command at the request of its commanding officer.

In 1951 the retiring officer joined the Central AAA Command in Kansas City as its first commanding officer.

POINT GRADUATE

Bailey's military career began after his graduation from West Point in 1925. Prior to his West Point education Colonel Bailey had graduated from Pontiac High School and Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind.

Bailey was twice awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action against the enemy in the European theater.

The retiring officer also holds the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star with two Oak Leaf clusters, the Commendation Ribbon with Oak Leaf cluster and the Purple Heart for wounds received in Belgium.

During his command of the 12th AAA Group, this organization was credited with the destruction of more than 300 enemy aircraft and many missions against enemy ground troops and installations.

After the war the U.S. Twelfth Army Group rated Bailey's command as its top AAA group in combat results as well as in administration and operations efficiency.

The Baileys have been living in Kansas City, Mo.

Felonious Driving Probe Faces Man Involved in Two-Car Collision

A 23-year-old Detroit man is being held by Pontiac Police for investigation of felonious driving after a two car head-on crash yesterday at Joslyn and Walton Rds. which caused injuries to five persons.

Police said that a car driven by Jack Rains, of 12930 Kercheval, Detroit, struck a car driven by Bill E. Goins, 36, of 5931 Maybee Rd., Clarkston, after Rains' vehicle veered over the center line.

In fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital is 7-year-old Judy Giles with a possible skull fracture. The youth was a passenger in Goins' car.

Mrs. Eva Louise Goins, 36, wife of Goins, is listed as in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital with a concussion, multiple face lacerations and a fractured right leg and arm.

Goins was released from the hospital yesterday after treatment for face lacerations. Another passenger in Goins' car, Cheryl Newbigging, 10, of 5360 Franklin, was treated for multiple lacerations to the face and arms and released.

SAID TO HAVE FLED

Witnesses stated that after Rains was helped from the wreckage of his car, he fled from the scene of the accident. Police later apprehended Rains at a tavern on Saginaw Street after a tip from a taxi driver that had driven the injured man to the tavern.

During treatment at the hospital for lacerations to the right leg and arm, Rains denied any knowledge of the accident and told police he received the lacerations from playing with relatives.

Later last night Rains admitted to police that he was the driver of one of the cars involved in the crash.

Police said that Rains definitely had been drinking and that a bottle of beer was recovered from the automobile he admitted driving.

Area Supervisors Meet Tuesday

Board, Cut in Size by State Law, Holds Session

A number of faces will be missing when the Oakland County Board of Supervisors meets tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the office building at 1 Lafayette St.

The board is assembling for the first time since a state law signed June 28 by Governor Williams reduced its size from 91 to 68.

Only city supervisor strength was cut. The township total remains at 25. The law, to streamline the board, was drafted by a committee of township and city supervisors.

Business is expected to include a report from the Road Committee on a meeting July 28 with Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

The board June 27 asked the Road Committee, road commission and plan commission to meet with Ziegler in an attempt to discover just what highway-building projects are planned for Oakland during the next few years.

SCHEDULE BID REPORT

The Building and Grounds Committee is scheduled to report on bids taken July 26 for construction of the planned county health center on North Telegraph Road.

The committee is also slated to report on a Board of Education request for more office space at its new location in the former contagious hospital.

Progress of several projects being pushed by the Inter-County Committee is expected to be outlined.

Discussion is planned on filling two vacancies on the plan commission created by the resignations of Drain Commissioner Ralph A. Main and Assistant Civil Defense Director Ransford Bromley.

Dicker Over 3 Major Bills

Solons Try to Adjourn but Get All Snarled Up

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Congress' adjournment plans were snarled today by disputes over public housing and pay raises for its own employes. Other major legislation was also pending.

Leaders in both branches fixed tonight as their new goal for quitting.

The House kept working Saturday night until 7:38 p.m. and the Senate until 10:45 p.m. but neither cleared the way for adjournment in advance of the July 31 deadline set up in the 1946 Reorganization Act.

MAY LAST 2-3 DAYS

Some lawmakers said privately the session might last two or three more days.

* * *

Others, however, said it might be hard to round up a quorum by midweek. Many senators and representatives already have left town for home or on trips. A contingent of senators sails from New York today for Europe.

* * *

Three key measures tied up in Senate-House conferences make up the bulk of the remaining work load, although lawmakers interested in numerous other bills will make last-ditch efforts to get them through. The three are:

1. The housing bill, on which Senate-House conferees met until almost midnight Saturday and then broke up in a sharp disagreement on public housing.

2. The Defense Production Act, to extend several powers requested by President Eisenhower in the mobilization program. Almost the same conferees are involved in this as on the housing bill.

3. The 92-million-dollar legislative appropriations bill, final money measure of the session. Conferees failed to reach agreement on this Friday, did not meet Saturday.

HOUSING BILL TO HURDLE

The housing bill, vital to continuance of boom conditions in the nation's home-building industry, may well be the biggest hurdle to adjournment tonight.

In the haggling Saturday night, Senate Democratic conferees offered to compromise on 50,000 units for one year. But the House group refused to accept this, holding out for no more than the 70,000 units over a two-year period asked by the President. They said they would have no chance to get any more through the House.

The conferees reported tentative agreement Saturday on the other provisions of the bill extending such important government housing programs as FHA home mortgage insurance.

The possibility of a special session later this year to act on highway legislation was mentioned by Rep. Martin (R-Mass), the House minority leader. The House killed a plan to expand road construction after failing to agree on how to pay for it.

State Weekend Death Toll 27

18 Die in Car Crashes Only 5 Drown Among Throngs of Swimmers

By The Associated Press

Twenty-seven persons lost their lives in Michigan accidents over July's final weekend.

Traffic accidents killed 18, one in Berrien County accounting for four deaths.

Despite sweltering heat, only five persons drowned in the state.

Four died from miscellaneous causes. Two of these were a little brother and sister trapped and suffocated in a steamer trunk in their attic.

Killed in traffic accidents were:

Mrs. Alexander Miller, 60, Detroit, Sunday, in Oakland County.

Mrs. Benson Marvin, 41, Portland, Sunday, west of Portland.

William Bruce Lynd, 52, Detroit, Saturday, near Lapeer.

Schack Rutledge, 30, Jackie Rutledge, 31, and their father, Perry Rutledge, 75, all of Buffalo, N. Y., and Deborah Cork, 4-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cork of Chicago, Saturday, in Berrien County.

Albert Schaufelberger, 55, Detroit, and George Donahue, 56, of near Detroit, Friday night, in Osceola County.

Edward Serwacowski, 24, Richard E. Gamm, 22, and Ernest E. Blay, 22, all of Armada, Saturday, in Macomb County.

Mrs. Verna H. Johnson, Alpena, Saturday, near Alpena.

William R. Revel, 20, Cincinnati, Friday night, at Sault Ste. Marie.

Gerald Locke, 25, Muskegon Township, Saturday, in Muskegon County.

Maurice R. Helmes, 52, Hamilton, Ind., Sunday, near Coldwater.

Robert Pearson, 31, Detroit, Sunday, in Detroit.

Robert Preston, 53, Detroit, Sunday on U.S. 10 seven miles south of Grand Blanc.

DROWNED WERE:

Floyd Mahlich, 30, of Gowen in Montcalm County, Sunday, in Sand Bottom Lake near Rockford.

Joseph Carl Allen, 5, of Muncie, Ind., Sunday night, in Thornapple Lake near Hastings.

Frank Powers, 60, of Belleville, Sunday, in Belleville Lake near Romulus.

Diana Lyn Zeman, 2, Pontiac, Sunday in Lake Orion boat canal.

James Carl Wood, 18, Flint, Sunday night in gravel pit near Durand.

OTHER ACCIDENTS WERE:

Richard Mallory, 16, of Sanilac County, Sunday, when hit by lightning near his home in Birch Beach.

Lary Walter Rollenhagen, 6, and his 4-year-old sister, Linda Lee, when they crawled into a steamer trunk in the attic of their farm home near Ravenna, and suffocated.

Thomas Bauer, 24, of St. Clair Shores, who was electrocuted Saturday while using an electric machine drill on a home construction job in St. Clair Shores.

NW Detroit Takes 2nd Babe Ruth Title

Northwest Detroit trounced Grosse Pointe Woods, 12-5, at Southfield High School Sunday to gain its 2nd straight Babe Ruth League state baseball championship.

Detroiters now journey to Terre Haute, Indiana, where they will tangle with the Illinois state titlist on Friday.

In the tournament semi-finals at Southfield, the champions trimmed Huron Valley, 7-2, and Grosse Pointe Woods downed Bessemer, 11-9.

The Day in Birmingham

Commissioners to Hear Defense in Sewage Suit

BIRMINGHAM — A highlight of tonight's City Commission meeting will be the presentation of the city's defense in a circuit court suit brought against Birmingham and other surrounding communities on complaint of the Michigan Water Resources Commission.

The suit revolves around the charge that Birmingham failed to meet water commission orders to clean up the sewage-polluted Rouge River.

Skilled Tradesmen Hold Session Here

told, however, "they couldn't take our jobs."

MEETING DISCLOSED

Cronk's disclosure of Thursday's hitherto secret meeting followed a question from the audience asking why John Gall and John Galerno, officials of the society, had resigned, as reported in Saturday's newspapers. Cronk did not say who the third man was.

(A check today showed that Bill Tardy, of Flint, was the third man to resign. He was not an officer but also a member of the 26-man organizing committee, which the seven represented.)

At the meeting, 21 delegates were chosen to represent the three local General Motors plants, American Forging and Socket Co. and the Ford and DeSoto Dearborn plants on a Pontiac unit of the society.

The 21 will meet at some undetermined time to lay concrete plans for a local chapter, it was indicated.

In reply to a query that the society was formed because tradesmen were dissatisfied with contracts negotiated by the UAW with Ford and General Motors, Cronk said:

"We are not against any agreement. Our membership will tell us what we are for or against.

"We have not presented anything to the UAW International Board and we won't until we know what the members want. Wages are not most important. First and foremost, we want the right to make our own decisions. The wage question was the straw that broke the camel's back."

GOAL IS STATED

The society's goal, he said, is to gain separate bargaining rights for skilled tradesmen, who are a minority within the UAW.

He said the organization's ranks are open to non-journeymen as well as journeymen skilled workers. A skilled trade was defined as an "apprenticeable" craft.

As for breaking with the UAW or operating as an independent organization within it, Cronk said:

"We will operate either within or outside of the UAW. We will be operated under the National Labor Relations Board.

"We don't want to fight with the UAW. We only want recognition for our members. We will go hand in hand with the UAW."

Referring again to the men who resigned, Cronk said, "They were good men. They had family obligations.

During the five years just prior to 1954 a half million harvesting combines were manufactured in the United States.

Bids for surfacing and concrete construction work necessary for Parking Lot No. 1 are expected to be awarded, after lawmakers decide whether to include construction of a wall around the lot. The funds expended for the lot to date will also be reviewed.

A financial report will be given on Springdale Park and additional sidewalk construction will be included in the 1955 repair program.

Hearings scheduled to review assessments for the current road oiling program includes one for a mat and seal treatment of certain streets in the Golfview Heights subdivision and light oiling of Grant street from Catalpa to Fourteen Mile road.

Assessments will be reviewed for the mat-seal program on portions of Cedar, Catalpa, Southlawn, Westchester Way, and Perdy. Under the light oil treatment assessments will be reviewed for Hazel, Bowers, and Haynes streets between Columbia and Eton.

A Danish folk tale, "The Foolish Lad," and Hans Christian Anderson's "The Emperor's New Clothes" are on the reading list for tomorrow's story hour at Baldwin Public Library.

Children's librarian Kathleen Pickett said the half-hour reading period begins at 10:30 a.m. Attendance so far this summer has averaged out to 39 pre-schoolers through sixth graders at each Tuesday session, she said.

What happened to young Bill Allen was really peanuts compared to those he was on his way to buy on Saturday.

It was while he was on his way to the store that he found $160, and no other identification, crumpled on the sidewalk in front of the police station.

With no qualms, 10 year old Bill carried his find to police officers, "who told me if no one claimed it in 90 days, it'd be mine!"

Minutes after that, an excited Lawrence C. Hobart of 1481 Suffield, retraced his steps to the police department, where he had just had his daughter in for her driver's license test.

After claiming the money, Hobart sought out Bill, who was visiting with his grandparents, of 556 West Maple.

Bill, who is the son of City Commissioner and Mrs. James C. Allen of 1108 West Maple, was rewarded with $10, which he hasn't "made up mind what to do with yet."

Mrs. Charles Krueger

Service for Mrs. Charles Krueger (Magdalena M.) 86, will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home with burial in Acacia Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Krueger died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert L. Telfer, 780 Greenwood, with whom she had lived since 1937. Mr. and Mrs. Telfer are the owners of the Cheer Shop.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Krueger is survived by one son, Dr. William C. F. Krueger of Pleasant Ridge.

Bavarian Throne Heir Prince Rupprecht Sick

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, 86-year-old claimant to the Bavarian throne, is seriously ill.

Members of his family said he was stricken two days ago and is in serious condition at the family seat — Leutstetten Castle near Starnberg. The nature of his illness was not disclosed.

The only surviving German field marshal of World War I, he was honored at his 85th birthday celebration in 1954 by 5,000 nostalgic Bavarians shouting "Heil, our king, heil."

Nationalists Watch Geneva

Chiang Factions Worried Over 'Two Chinas' Idea

The Chinese Nationalists apprehensively await the results of the direct American-Chinese Communist talks beginning in Geneva this week.

To Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's men on Formosa — the most powerful anti-Communist military force in Asia between Turkey and Korea—the very word Geneva smacks of appeasement and surrender.

Nationalist Premier O. K. Yui says the Communist aim to dominate the world never will change. He says the Russians participated in the Geneva conference to gain time.

The anti-Communists on Formosa, or Taiwan, apparently do not expect an imminent attack by the Red despite the steady Communist build-up along the mainland.

In fact, reports from Taipei indicate that the Nationalists would welcome an attack. That would mean action and erase the long suffered political fears of the Nationalists.

Nationalist fears of American policy changes are understandable. Reports from Western European capitals show that leaders there believe, and hope, that the American-Chinese Red conversations in Geneva will lead to eventual entry of Red China into the United Nations.

'PRACTICAL MATTERS'

The United States makes it clear that the Peiping regime must release the 51 American citizens it holds behind the Iron Curtain before the talks go on to "other practical matters," presumably meaning the status of Formosa.

It would be no hardship for the Chinese Reds to give up the Americans. They seized them in the first place as hostages, as pawns in their political game.

If Peiping frees the American prisoners, then follows through with acceptance of a formal cease-fire arrangement in the Formosa strait it would imply factual recognition of an independent status for Formosa.

European allies of the United States are represented as believing that it will be then only a matter of time—and not too long a time—before Red China gets into the United Nations.

The Nationalists of course vigorously are fighting this "two Chinas" conception.

Grisly Pun Comes True

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Porter Atony Byzos, 26, was carrying a heavy oak coffin down the street. A neighbor asked him whom it was for.

"For me," he quipped.

A few minutes later he slipped, fell and was crushed by the weight of the coffin.

All That Work Wasted

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Ralph Muthardt's farm has well-watered weeds. When a few thistles peeked through the grass in one of his hay fields he started his tank truck, dousing the weed thoroughly. Several thousand gallons later he discovered he had failed to add weed killer to the water.

STRINGY IDEA — There seems to be music in the hair when British Actress Margo Lorenz is in London. But it's only her hat shaped like a violin. Done in chartreuse felt, black velvet and white cord, the novelty hat—which doesn't make music — is a Madge Chard creation.

Summer's dog days get their designation not because of their effect upon dogs but because, in the ancient Greek world, the dog star rose during that period, although it rises at a different time today.

Arkansas Transit Line Officials Claim Union Uses 'Murder' Threats

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Because of what company officials termed "first-degree murder" attempts against nonunion drivers, bus service after 8 p.m. has been suspended in Little Rock and North Little Rock.

Eugene Warren, attorney for Capital Transit Co., announced the curfew last night. He said it would remain in effect "until proper authorities can restore safety of night travel on public thoroughfares."

* * *

Warren said the decision to withdraw the company's nonunion drivers "from the line of fire" came after six separate incidents of gunfire aimed at the city buses were reported to police Saturday night.

Officials of the AFL Motor Coach Employes Union, whose 178 drivers and mechanics left their jobs June 22, have repeatedly denied company charges that the union was behind the violence.

B. Beryl Bland, president of the striking union, said that the transit company was using reports of violence as "a golden opportunity to discontinue at night when profits are small."

Saturday night's incidents, which followed three weeks of scattered violent acts, involved four buses on runs in both cities. The driver of one bus said the vehicle was struck three times.

* * *

The nonunion drivers were employed shortly after the walkout.

Police reports show that weapons used against buses have included shotguns, powerful pump-type air pellet guns, pistols and .22-caliber rifles. Saturday night, air pellet guns were used.

So far, the only injury has been a scalp wound suffered by a nonunion driver when a rock hit his head.

The labor dispute involved the selection of a third member of an arbitration committee to rule on union demands, including a 14-cent increase in the $1.31 to $1.61 hourly wage.

Wildcat Walkout Again Shuts Studebaker Plant

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — The Studebaker auto plant was closed down again today by a walkout of about 55 final assembly workers, although the union voted Thursday to return to work.

About 9,000 employes who showed up for work were sent home. Today's walkout is the 10th in 11 working days. A dispute over seniority has caused the walkouts.

91st Camp Meet Held at Romeo

Public Service to Be Aug. 4-14 With Pastors From Across U.S.

ROMEO — Simpson Park Camp Meeting, held annually in the Romeo area, will begin its 91st year of services on Aug. 4 and continue through Aug. 14, according to its directors.

The camp is situated one mile west and one-half mile north of Romeo at the corner of Camp Ground road and Gates street.

Three services will be held daily; at 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Participating ministers include: Dr. C. W. Butler, evangelist and pastor of the Holiness Tabernacle, Detroit; the Rev. Andrew F. Gallman, pastor of the West Park Methodist Church, Jackson, Miss., and Dr. S. H. Tuberville, evangelist of the Methodist Church, Winter Park, Fla. Singers will be "The Singing Sheppards" (Charles and Jeanette) from Wilmore, Ky. Joe Hollis will be the organist.

Tuesday, Aug. 9, will be "Missionary Day," with representatives from three missionary organizations supplying the speakers. Dr. Lela G. McConnell of the Kentucky Mountain Holiness Association will speak at 10 a.m.; Nellie Thum from Honduras, Central America, at 2 p.m.; and Dr. Eugene A. Erny will represent the Oriental Society at 7:30 p.m.

In addition to these services, the camp has planned a daily youth schedule with Gertrude Cooper of Findlay, Ohio, as children's evangelist.

Registration time is at 1 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 4, in the Youth Tabernacle.

Services are open to the public, and facilities are available for board and room. Inquiries concerning reservations may be made by contacting the Rev. Blanche Francis, 2521 Morgan, Saginaw.

Fire Destroys Area Landmark

Blaze Sweeps Through Lake Orion Dance Hall Early Sunday

LAKE ORION — One of Lake Orion's landmarks was destroyed early Sunday morning when fire of undetermined origin swept the old dance hall and tavern on Park Island.

An unidentified phone call at 3:30 a. m. brought the Lake Orion fire department to the scene, where they found the flames were already bursting through doors and windows.

For three hours the fire department fought the blaze. While unable to prevent total destruction of the hall, they kept the fire confined to the one building.

Oxford fire department was also called to stand by when one of the Lake Orion trucks broke down. But the remaining equipment was able to keep the fire under control, according to Del Rose, Fire Chief.

The frame building, which had been operated for the past few years as a tavern and dance hall by Sterling Scharr was one of the oldest structures on the island and had survived a fire which swept the original dance hall some 15 years ago.

An immediate estimate of the loss was unobtainable.

Compromise Reserve Bill Far Short of Ike's Goal

The military reserve bill just passed by both House and Senate falls far short of President Eisenhower's objective.

Even before the final action in both Houses, advocates of an adequate reserve measure called the bill a compromise with compromise. In fact, Defense Department officials have said the changes Congress made in the measure may set back the President's manpower goal at least two years.

In the form it reached his desk, the bill fails to meet his ideas in two important respects. It eliminates present servicemen from compulsory reserve training. They may cut their active duty by volunteering for reserve service.

It doesn't give the President authority to draft youths into the program if there is not a sufficient number of volunteers. But it does provide for six months' active training for up to 250,000 pre-draft age youths each year to be followed by seven and a half years in the ready reserves. President Eisenhower's aim was a combat ready reserve of 2,900,000 men by mid 1959.

★ ★ ★

The major burden of responsibility for weakening the Administration's plans belongs to those Congressmen who opposed it in fear that it would be an opening wedge for universal military training.

Despite the extensive modifications to which the measure was subjected, however, it still has the merit of providing the Nation with the first legislation making reserve duty compulsory.

Moreover, there is every indication that it is all Congress was willing to authorize at this juncture. On that basis the President is wholly justified in his reported intention to give it his executive approval.

Retreat for Thinkers

On August 1 Cleveland industrialist Cyrus S. Eaton will open his boyhood Nova Scotia home for a unique purpose.

Located in Pugwash, a north coast village of some 900, Eaton's birthplace will become a "retreat for thinkers." Emphasizing the unusual nature of the project, the first distinguished guests will include a head of a university, a railway president and a British scientist.

★ ★ ★

Other guests will be Dr. John A. Wilson, University of Chicago archaeologist; Dr. Julian P. Boyd, Princeton University professor; James R. Wiggins, executive editor of the Washington Post and Dr. Henry S. Commager, professor of history at Columbia University.

★ ★ ★

The meeting of these distinguished men is the first result of an idea announced by Mr. Eaton last Christmas. At that time the chairman of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway said he would turn over his family home to give men of learning a place where they could relax, think and exchange ideas.

If pleasant climate, fine beaches, nearby trout streams and a picturesque tidal harbor can stimulate creative thought, many noteworthy ideas may come from this beautifully situated village.

Worth Trial in Michigan

Minnesota's legislature has enacted a law embodying a means of keeping off its roads drivers whose licenses have been revoked.

If such motorists are caught driving after revocation, the new law provides that they shall be deprived of their car plates. To avoid hardship in certain cases, special plates are issued for the car so other members of the family may drive it.

★ ★ ★

The problem of "grounding" Michigan drivers whose licenses have been revoked is a growing and increasingly difficult one. Detroit Automobile Club officials estimate that 50 per cent of such motorists continue to drive and seldom are caught.

★ ★ ★

This makes all the more understandable Secretary of State James M. Hare's enthusiastic endorsement of the Minnesota statute. We agree with him that a similar law to keep these "revoked" drivers off the roads is worth trying in Michigan.

Perhaps Molotov decided not to go on TV for an interview by American newsmen because it occurred to him they might ask some embarrassing questions, as, for example, "Has Russia stopped being aggressive? Answer yes or no."

Early Log Houses

Gave This Area Its Start; Very Few of Them Remain

Riches: Not acquired by what the world gives, but by what it cannot take away.

The log house of the past century was the symbol of the early history of the Pontiac area. It was the habitation of our first white settlers. It was the first building to be erected in Oakland County, in 1817 on the present site of Rochester. It was the first building in Pontiac, in 1818 on the present site of the Oakland Theater. Many of our first business places and our first court house were built of logs. MAT would like to know if any of these original log houses are now occupied. Yes, he'd like to learn of any reader of this column, in this county or otherwise, who was born in one of these log houses. Let me hear from you.

On account of our stepped up manner of living, it is computed that the energy consumption of the residents of the U. S. is ten times that of 100 years ago. Petroleum, then unknown, is the source of about two-thirds of present day energy.

Lesson for Red Delegation:

U. S. Farmer Tills 8 Times More Land Than His Counterpart in Soviet Russia

(Editor's Note: Tom Whitney, writer of the following article, is a former Associated Press correspondent in Moscow. Now assigned to the AP foreign desk in New York, he is accompanying the Soviet agricultural delegation on its American tour.)

By TOM WHITNEY

DES MOINES (AP)—If Petr Svechnikov's big Soviet collective farm were to be cut up into small Iowa-type farms and farmed with Iowa efficiency it could be operated with less than one eighth of the people it takes to work it now.

This is one of the outstanding lessons of the Soviet farm delegation's visit here.

If Petr Babmindra's giant state farm were to be broken up into small Iowa-type family farms and farmed with Iowa efficiency it could be worked by no more than one quarter of the people who work it now.

* * *

Of course, as the chief of the Soviet farm delegation, Vladimir Matskevich, has made abundantly clear there is not going to be any breaking up of Soviet state farms. The Russians are going to stick to their socialist farming system.

Yet the figures are plain enough.

Delegation member Svechnikov runs one of the more efficient collective farms of the U.S.S.R. It is called the Kuban collective farm and is devoted in considerable part to the raising of wheat.

* * *

Here are the statistics: the farm has 35,000 total acres; it has on it 1,700 families furnishing 2,700 workers. Each family in effect "farms" about 21 acres.

In Iowa, as the Soviet delegation has seen, a typical farmer is likely to be farming 160 acres without outside help and without the women doing work in the fields.

The contrast becomes even more devastating when it is taken into consideration that: (1) on the Kuban farm mechanized work is not done by the members of the farm but by a machinery and tractor station which must be paid for its services; and (2) women work alongside men in the fields.

* * *

Or let's take Petr Babmindra's fine Gigant state farm. Babmindra is also a delegation member.

The Gigant has 115,000 acres approximately and 2,700 staff workers (with another 900 hired during harvest). Thus each full-time worker farms on the average about 42 acres.

And, it must be remembered, the farms of Svechnikov and Babmindra are probably far more efficient than the average Soviet collective or state farm.

Soviet farmers, though they no doubt work hard, simply farm on the average very little in comparison with American farmers. This is one of the basic reasons for Russia's low standard of living.

* * *

The worker on the Kuban collective farm not only farms less than one eighth of the land that an Iowa farmer does; he also farms less efficiently. Thus his over-all production is even less than one eighth of the Iowa farmer's. And out of this he has to provide his own consumption needs. Thus the surplus which he has left to send in one form or another to nonfarm folks is a smaller fraction still.

* * *

No matter how hard the government may squeeze the Soviet farmer, it cannot get what isn't there. Because of poor productivity there is simply less to eat and wear for both farm and nonfarm consumer.

The Soviet farm leaders here in the delegation realize this to some extent because this theme has been harped upon in statements by Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev.

The Russian farm leaders are looking for methods of improving labor productivity on Soviet farms.

But they have some curious blind spots.

* * *

For instance they insist on equating labor efficiency on farms with size of farms. They think that the larger a farm the higher the labor productivity on it is likely to be.

A professor at Iowa State College pointed out to the Soviet group that under Iowa conditions a 240-acre farm already got the maximum advantage from mechanization of agriculture and that any additional increase in size of a farm added nothing to its innate efficiency.

The Russians who heard this statement simply refused to credit it. They passed it by with a declaration that this could not refer to Soviet conditions.

* * *

Of course, it would be quite unfair to criticize the present group of Russian farm leaders now here in America in this regard.

There is nothing they can do about changing the Russian farming system. They've got it. They're practical men and they've got to try to make it work. Maybe they can.

Talbott Inquiry Rekindles 'Conflict of Interest' Issue

By MERRYLE RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The recent airing before a Senate committee of the private business affairs of Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbott has raised anew the important and delicate topic of possible "conflict of interest."

Obviously, as a high public official, Secretary Talbott, like Caesar's wife, should be above suspicion. He will be judged by existing law and ethics—not by changes which may come in the future.

In view of its widespread importance, this subject should be explored with utter candor.

In a complicated economic society, the person without individual interests in non-existent.

Even if with the zeal of financial Puritanism, the public office-holder divests himself of all holdings of securities of private corporations and puts such worldly goods as remain in government bonds, he does not automatically become a disinterested observer.

* * *

On the contrary, his self-interest, in such circumstances, is in lining up with the creditors, instead of the debtors including the share-owners of corporations with debt. Such a person, with all of his funds in high-grade bonds, tends to develop a bias in favor of "sound money," with no tolerance for inflationary tensions.

INTEREST CONTINUES

If the purist goes a step further and divests himself of all securities, including government bonds, and puts the resultant cash in the bank, he continues to have a self-interest in holding the line rigidly in maintaining the purchasing power of the dollar.

In connection with the taking of a Federal job, the statute, as well as ethics, must be complied with. But Congress could review whether the conflict of interest statute has become unduly harsh in light of the fact that many businessmen who take federal office are not individual proprietors, but have diversified investments in many corporations, some of which, in the nature of things, do business with the government.

Since it is always a problem to attract first-rate men to federal service, the sacrifice required should not be excessive.

Unless the subject is approached with broad statesmanship, the technical inhibitions may do more harm than good. For inherently honest men act with restraint, forbearance, and ethics, irrespective of statutes, and their tendency to follow the spirit and letter of the latter adds to the burden of accepting public office.

* * *

On the other hand, shysters and chiselers have little scruples in trying to find ways and means to get around statutory law.

For the most part, the federal government still pursues the penny-wise, pound-foolish policy of underpaying federal executives, while at times perhaps being liberal with routine employes. Where complicated governmental affairs require executive ability of the highest caliber, it would be true economy for the Federal Government to pay the market rate of such services.

Otherwise, the choice will be, to too great a degree, limited to wealthy men, on the one hand, and to opportunists, who take public office only as a stepping-stone to private jobs, on the other.

'Old Resident' Questions Road Commission's Work

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

I wonder if the Oakland County Road Commission is doing enough in Lansing. They can't expect to sit in their offices here and have roads assigned to us. Nothing happens that way.

Everything in life seems to be a battle. Perhaps they are right on their toes and have been in contact with Zeigler several dozen times already. I hope so.

We must find out where the trouble is and who is at fault.

Dr. Brady Says:

Clinic Racketeers Abhor Fee Splitting, Accept Gifts

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

The businessmen of medicine who give customers the run-around, within their own coterie, whenever the customers can be pushed around—which is usually—abhor fee-splitting, paying commissions for new business, receiving percentages from firms whose products they prescribe and all that sort of shenanigan.

The trick specialists and clinic racketeers, who have taken over medicine, body and soul, or what soul there was left, solemnly affirm that it is unethical to accept rebates from pharmacists, druggists, spectacle fitters, appliance dealers and the like.

However, it is nobody's business if Dr. A. betokens his admiration of Dr. B., at the end of a prosperous year, by presenting Dr. B's wife with a mink coat or a pair of stainless steel earrings, according to the number and wealth of the patients Dr. B. has referred in the past year.

An instance in which I had inside information: The professor of medicine in a medical school gave an associate on the faulty as a Christmas present a new car of expensive make.

CHANGES ORDER

When the recipient received the gift, he had to act quickly to stop delivery of a new car of less expensive make he had intended to give the professor and increase his contribution by about $1,500 to save face At that, they were both prosperous businessmen.

Sodium citrate (citrate of soda) was commonly used to prevent formation of large curds in modification of milk for infant feeding. when I was a barefoot boy on Chapel Street in Canandaigua with patches on my pants—not that I minded wearing patches, but mother was a poet of sorts and my patches were round, oval, crescent or heart shaped whereas square or oblong patches were in fashion.

About two grains of citrate were added to each ounce of milk used to prepare the feeding formula. This fairly indicates that sodium citrate is as dangerous as orange juice.

Besides its use in infant feeding, sodium citrate still is used in the same way—two grains in each ounce of milk—to keep the milk liuid in the stomach, in peptic ulcer cases.

HELPS IN TRANSFUSION

Sodium citrate is used in what is known as the citrate method of transfusion of blood to prevent clotting—enough of it is added to the receiving vessel to make a solution of approximately the strength of the milk solution for infant feeding.

* * *

It has various other medical uses, details of which are beyond the scope of a health column. Suffice to say that citrate of soda is a milky alkaline diuretic (promotes excretion of urine), diaphoretic (promotes excretion of sweat) and expectorant (promotes secretion from mucous membranes lining air passages and facilitates expulsion of such secretions from the bronchial tubes or chest).

So, for at least twenty-five years followers of this independent (to put it mildly) column have been using with a good deal of satisfaction the homemade foolproof cough remedy describe in Little Lesson No. 5, Call it C R I (for a copy send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope).

The principal ingredient of the medicine is citrate of soda. I should say it was the principal ingredient. Unfortunately for you poor souls, this home remedy is no longer so freely available as it was before the homemade foolproof cough medicine became popular. The trick specialists, "clinic" racketeers and fast-buck pharmacists decided that the item was not only unprofitable but the use of such medicine at home was not good for their business. So, if you ask for an ounce or two of citrate of soda today—well, I've warned you. How you'll take the cross-examination, ridicule or insults your request entails is your own affair.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

James Marlow Says:

Eisenhower-Dem-Congress Honeymoon May End in Election Year Arguments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Honeymoon is an overworked word. But the relationship between President Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress has been a political honeymoon—this year, at least.

* * *

There is no certainty the honeymoon will end next year either although 1956 is a presidential election year and the Democrats will need issues to win. They've created very few in 1955.

Congress, ending its session this week, has given the President much of the legislation he urged and with a minimum of fuss and fury. There were two things unusual about that:

1. They had been expected—after winning control of Congress in the 1954 elections—to go out savagely after the Republicans who had been berating and denouncing them for years.

* * *

2. When they took over in January they were expected to start building toward the 1956 election campaign by creating issues.

Instead of abusing and trying to hamstring the Republicans, the Democrats generally cooperated with Eisenhower. On foreign affairs they gave him more support than his own Republicans. And they went along with him, more or less, on most of his domestic programs.

As for issues, the Democrats found or tried to create only a few. Two examples of where they went after the administration were the Dixon-Yates power deal and the financial affairs of Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbott.

* * *

Since the Democrats acted contrary to expectations in 1955, they may continue their honeymoon with Eisenhower through 1956 when they still will be in control of Congress.

Why the political good will this year and the possibility of more of the same in 1956?

For one thing, Eisenhower's personal popularity. It makes opposition politicians wary about teeing off on him on minor issues. And Eisenhower has been astute enough not to give them many major ones.

For another, in foreign affairs Eisenhower was really following the program laid down by his Democratic predecessor President Truman. Since that was a Democratic program the Democrats are committed to support it.

On domestic policies Eisenhower followed a moderate course. But so did the Democrats. The times called for moderation at home, not for extreme experiments in economics or social welfare.

* * *

Eisenhower took over a prosperous country in 1953. It has become even more prosperous under his leadership. People have jobs. There are no demands for radical remedies.

The moderation of Eisenhower and the Democrats was simply a reflection of the moderate mood of the country.

Eisenhower looks like a good bet to run again, and win overwhelmingly. Perhaps the Democrats are reconciled to that and hope only that in 1956 the voters will let them keep control of Congress.

If that's their modest goal, then they have prepared a talking point for themselves by their conduct in 1955: they've acted soberly and constructively, backing Eisenhower often more solidly than his Republicans.

Alaskans Resist Regimentation of Bedtime

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (INS) — Since the glow of the summer sun never leaves the sky, there is considerable confusion in Alaska on the subject of when to go to bed.

* * *

The tendency among many is to sleep only when utterly overcome by exhaustion — the theory being that the sunless winters were made for sleep and the summers for play. This habit is frowned upon by the city government, however, as snoring sourdoughs look unsightly when strewn around curbs.

To discourage this sort of activity, therefore, there are signs on downtown Alaska city streets which read: "No parking, 2:30 to 5:30 a.m., Mon. thru Sat."

This is a hint, say the local officials, that a man should be home in the sack between those hours on those nights.

The signs help somewhat but, actually, most of the Alaskans with the inclination to take fullest advantage of the laws of nature (play when you want to, fall over when you must) are not much affected. They do not own, nor do they care to own, cars.

* * *

These are the dog-sled, fishing-pole, ski-shoe and tugboat people . . . the true, unaffected Alaskans.

BUSINESS IN WINTER

In the summertime, they fish, raise vegetables, hunt small game, and enjoy nature, and the distilled juices thereof, of a summer eve. In the winter, they hitch their huskies and take off for the serious business of living.

* * *

A sparse few of the oldtimers still pan for gold, though the U.S. has frozen the price of gold to make it scarcely worthwhile to scrape up, they say, except as a hobby.

But, like the Artic area Eskimos who are believed to be the happiest, most unaffected race on earth—the pioneer Alaskans live placidly with the natural resources God gave them.

They live alone, hunt alone, face physical danger with much less loathing than they face so-called civilized regimentation . . . and ask only the privilege of being allowed to eat, sleep, live and die when they good and well feel like it.

Evidence of this feeling can be seen everywhere in interior Alaska. Even around Anchorage, the most modern little city in the territory, there are no mansions or fine private clubs. In Anchorage, even the wealthiest residents live in frame houses that would be considered "lower middle-class" in the States.

PHONIES UNWELCOME

"People are too busy enjoying life to accumulate wealth," explained one Fairbanker. "And when a sharp operator from the States comes up with a greedy look in his eye, he doesn't find it too comfortable here. In among the honest and friendly people around here, a phony can be spotted almost instantly, and he does not stay long."

* * *

Nobody forces him out of town understand. He just doesn't get any cooperation, and finally he leaves. "Maybe the mountains make him see how small he is —and no operator likes to feel small."

Until the war, the local men insist, there was no such thing as crime in interior Alaska. Nobody locked the doors to their shacks, nobody seemed to get sick ("everybody just died in their sleep or got ended by some force of nature bigger than themselves"), and there was no worry about when to sleep and what to eat and whether you should put your money in a bank.

With the war came two military installations near Fairbanks, some energetic businessmen, and thousands of dissatisfied Stateside souls looking for easy money or escape from problems of their culture.

Gradually, modernization is setting in. There's a fancy new airport, blue mirrors and multi-colored juke boxes in the bars, canned stuffed artichokes in the groceries, and an alarming jump in illness and insanity records.

But so long as the sun stays down most of the winter and up most of the summer—nobody's going to rob the pioneer Alaskan of his right to rise and fall as nature tells him to.

BUSTLE'S BACK—What seems like a cushion attached in case of falls is really a huge bustle bow on this fall cocktail dress by Italy's Fontana sisters. The bow is the only ornament on the red faille sheath dress.

Man Advises Thieves but Alas, to No Avail

MINNEAPOLIS (INS) — George Wilharm posted a sign in a window of his drugstore advising hold-up men they would not get much in another raid when his burglary insurance was cancelled after three robberies in as many years.

But a bandit who apparently doesn't believe in signs held up the store anyway and fled with at least $1,000.

Tropical Storm 'Brenda' Moving Into Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Tropical storm Brenda was 25 miles off the mouth of the Mississippi River early today and the New Orleans Weather Bureau said if it continues its current movement it would move inland tonight along the Louisiana coast between Grande Isle and Point Aufer.

The storm is not of hurricane force. The Weather Bureau said its highest winds are estimated at 50-60 miles per hour near the center. Gales extend out 50-100 miles to the east of the storm center.

Storm warnings are displayed from Galveston, Tex., to the Mississippi River.

Bob Considine Says:

Hurry, Mother, It's Time for Parish Picnic

NEW YORK (INS)—Dear Mom:

What was that nonsense on the telephone the other day, when I checked in with you after getting back from Geneva? You said you don't feel as young as you once did.

Why, you won't be 85 until Sept. 17! It must have been the heat in Washington. Don't fret. You'll feel chipper again when it cools off there about Christmastime.

Matter of fact, right now (a few years back, but still fresh in all our minds) you'd have been too busy to sit down and think whether you were feeling fine or just middlin.'

You'd be getting us and the basket ready for the annual outing at Marshall Hall, Md., of the people of St. Aloysius Parish. It was held every Aug. 1, and it became a golden day in our lives and will be as long as any of us live.

* * *

I remember one year somebody at the rectory goofed and scheduled the boatride for July 31. Rained cats and dogs all day, which meant that the death-defying roller coaster (at least it seemed so at the time) had to be closed. A tragedy indeed.

There were mutterings that it was at least a venial sin to try to hold the outing on any day other than Aug. 1.

PLENTY OF STARCH

You seemed to go in for a lot of starch in those days, Mom. The girls made crackling noises when they walked. The boys' shirts were hard to move about in until we broke down the Argo, or whatever it was you put in there.

But, as you used to say, you wanted us to look "nice!" as we boarded that proud old sidewheeler the "Charles MacAlister" and churned down the river.

One or two years there was cold fried chicken in the basket. Pop must have struck it rich. Mostly, I remember, there were baloney sandwiches and mustard and sugar sandwiches, hard-boiled eggs, and tomatoes that we ate whole.

They were the best tomatoes I ever tasted: Cold and firm and we first licked the top of them so that the salt would hang on until we bit into them. Sometimes they squirted over our shirts, but it didn't matter much by then. We had looked "nice" boarding the "Charles MacAlister."

Oh, and always bananas, too. And you'd bring along a pint of lemon juice and pour a little into each cup or glass and we'd go off to the pump in the shaded picnic grounds and fill the cup or glass with the odd but wonderful taste of cold pump water, and that would be our lemonade.

People didn't seem to demand ice as much as they do now, is that right, dear?

Remember, the boat always stopped first at the pier of Mount Vernon, but I don't remember ever getting off there. We'd look up the green hill at the mansion and try to picture what it was like when Washington lived there.

WOULD HE LIKE IT?

Did he always wear his wig about the house? What would he say if he knew we were now going to cross the Potomac to what had been part of the estate of his old friend John Marshall, and ride on the roller coaster, take chances on things, and if worst came to worst go for a tame gallop on the merry-go-round? And above all, eat?

* * *

I suppose we must have come home pretty early, as hours are measured today. But back in those days it was a real adventure to have darkness fall and remain fallen for several hours, while one was still away from home.

There was always a vague fear of becoming detached from the others, of seeing the boat steam off without you. But you always got us on.

We were as if drugged, once you put us all together in the collapsible canvas chairs. The night air bore on our eyes like weights. I remember once stretching out on two chairs and feeling positive I would sleep forever, as you spread some newspapers over me as a blanket.

* * *

Then I was nudged awake as the old tub nuzzled to its Seventh street pier. There was the drosy walk to the streetcar, the yawns and attempts to go back to sleep once thereon, and at least home . . . home from a voyage which has made all others since seem an anti-climax.

* * *

So hurry. The basket is empty and I think I hear again the moo of the "Charles MacAlister." Don't you, dear?

Governor Mason's Body to Be Buried in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit has decided to keep the remains of Stevens Thompson Mason, Michigan's first governor, and to rebury them in its Capitol Park, site of the state's first capitol.

City council so voted today in rejecting an appeal by legislators that the remains be removed to Lansing and entombed in the State Capitol.

The remains recently were removed from beneath Mason's statue during renovation of Capitol Park. They currently are in the Wayne County Morgue.

Mason was Governor from 1835 to 1838.

Scrap of Wood May Help Settle Father's Estate

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—A small piece of wood may bring about settlement of an estate hanging fire legally since the death of Stephen Kurac in 1944.

The Delaware County register of wills office said yesterday it had been asked to admit to probate Kurac's will in the form of the small board, two by eight inches, with a spike through it.

* * *

On the board was written in Slavic: "This house bought by Stephen Kurac in November 1943. It belongs to the children, Anna and Vincent."

The estate of Kurac, a Pennsylvania Railroad worker, was valued at the time of his death at $3,600 including the house.

The register of wills office said if the signature on the wood is confirmed by a bank or some other competent witness the "will" can be admitted for probate.

Feature Hopping Event at Village Celebration

SAUGATUCK (AP) — A "World Champion Hopping Contest," with the finals scheduled Aug. 5, is listed as a feature of the three-day celebration next week of Saugatuck's 125th anniversary.

Officials said the contest was inspired by a newspaper account of a similar event held during the village's 1870 celebration.

The relic newspaper story told of a contestant named Wilkerson, described as a "renowed hoppist," who set a record by hopping a half-mile in 7½ minutes.

Contest preliminaries will be held next Wednesday and Thursday.

Mars Trip Insurance Has Tricky Stipulation

LONDON (INS)—An American woman with a desire for extensive traveling took out insurance from a British company in anticipation of her first trip—to Mars, that is.

There was one catch in the interplanetary picture, however, since the company insisted on a special clause in the policy stipulating failure to return to earth "is no proof of death."

Seems that any policy holder lost in the stars would be too far out of this world to collect his money.

Isle Plans Homecoming

ST. JAMES, Beaver Island (AP)—Plans have been completed for the 55th annual Beaver Island Homecoming, Aug. 14, which brings former residents back to America's "Emerald Isle," some 34 miles offshore from Charlevoix. Officials have scheduled a homecoming dinner, a parade, the traditional blessing of boats and a homecoming dance as celebration highlights.

The number of married men in the United States gained 470,000 in 1954 compared to a gain of 614,000 in 1951.

IN THE DAYS OF DAVY CROCKETT

Told by an Old Scout

Most of his life Davy Crockett was pretty much his own boss, which is fitting for a freedom-loving patriot like he was. But there was one man Davy was proud to serve under. That was General Sam Houston, who came from Tennessee to gain Texas independence.

When Sam, who was born in Virginia in 1793, lost his father, a captain in the Revolutionary war, the Houston family moved to Tennessee. Sam, a boy of 13, loved this new land from the start. It was the real frontier. Best of all a friendly band of Indians lived nearby.

The Indians were Cherokees and Sam liked nothing better than going swimming, fishing and hunting with his young new friends. I'm afraid Sam wasn't much of a student. He hated ciphering and such studies but he liked to read and could spell down half the county.

When Sam was 15 his older brothers, James and John, got him a job in a store. The boy hated it. Every time he heard the call of a wild turkey or saw a deer dart into the trees he got homesicker than ever for the great green woods. So he decided to run away.

Hal Boyle Says:

Here's Heat Wave Advice for Humid Beings

NEW YORK (AP) — Hot enough for you?

Millions of Americans, sweltering under heat waves that have gripped most of the nation, have been complaining they felt more like humid beings than people.

But it's really your own fault if you let rising temperatures get you down.

Why suffer from ready-made weather? Why not build your own climate? Any do-it-yourself fan should find it easy.

Here are a few hints on how anyone can breeze through a heat wave:

* * *

1. Quit using the English language. Learn bop talk. Then everything will be "Cool, man, cool."

2. If you are bald and don't wear a hat, tie some moistened grape leaves around your head — first being sure, of course, to remove the grapes. If you are afraid people will stare at you, put on some Bermuda shorts, too. Then they'll stare at your shorts, and never even notice the grape leaves.

3. Think only cool thoughts, such as: "Shouldn't I be buying winter chains for my car?" or "I wonder what Santa Claus is doing right this very minute — trying to keep warm?"

* * *

4. Whatever you do don't fall to brooding about red-haired girls or how many bills you owe. This only heats up the blood.

5. If you must quarrel with your wife, take off your shirt first. Then you can't get hot under the collar.

6. Keep your shoes overnight in the refrigerator, and be sure to take two pairs to work. Ask the nearest restaurant owner to let you put one pair in his icebox. Then, every two hours, you slip down to the restaurant, take off the shoes you're wearing, put on the cool ones, and slip the heated pair into the icebox.

* * *

7. If the restaurant owner adopts a snooty attitude toward this reasonable request, make up your mind each morning that before nightfall you're going to ask the boss to double your salary. This'll give you real cold feet.

8. Don't merely cut down on your food intake. Quit eating altogether. Soon it will be impossible for you to feel hot. All you'll feel is hunger.

* * *

9. An old Boy Scout trick on the march in hot weather is to keep a pebble in the mouth. Why stop with one? Use several. But be sure to cool them periodically at the office water fountain. One of your fellow hired hands may quip, "Look, he's got rocks in his head." Pay him no heed. People always jeer at pioneers. They used to laugh at Davy Crockett, but now he's earning more money than Lassie — which is pretty good considering they call these "the dog days."

10. It is better to avoid alcoholic beverages in hot weather, but if you must drink, then you might try martinis. Martini drinkers rarely know what century they're in, let alone the season.

As a last resort, you can lie down on the office floor and start crawling around aimlessly. When someone asks what you're looking for, you reply indignantly, "Why, four-leaf clovers, of course — what else?"

The boss is sure to send you home for the day — perhaps even in an air-conditioned ambulance.

Heat waves? Anybody can whip 'em with a little gumption and a bit of that old Yankee ingenuity.

Nobody's ever get crazy with the heat if he'd even just do one thing. Keep cool!

Wine glasses should be only partially filled so that the fragrance of the wine can gather in the empty space.

Our respect for your belief is genuine and sincere...

Sunburn Pain Disappears Smooth Tan Emerges Without Peeling or Blistering

Science Discovers New Ointment That Instantly Stops Pain of Sunburn... Turns Redness Into Comfortable Tan

New York, N. Y. (Special): A leading research institution has discovered a new medical substance that instantly stops pain of sunburn... and prevents blistering or peeling, so angry redness may turn to handsome, comfortable tan.

Doctors know that sunburn affects skin just as any ordinary burn does. They also know the body needs oxygen for healing burns. The secret of this new substance is its astonishing ability to draw healing oxygen and nutrients directly from the bloodstream into the sunburned area. Thus, the sunburned skin heals completely and, except in unusual cases, smooth tan emerges.

This substance is known as Sperti® Ointment. Sperti Ointment does not sting or stain. It is now sold at all drugstores for 98¢ a large tube. Buy Sperti Ointment with the amazing guarantee that your sunburn will turn to a handsome tan, or your money is refunded.

Baby Boy Born to Polio Stricken Mother Dies

DALLAS, Tex., (AP) — Michael Edward Schwartz, the baby born two weeks ago to Mrs. Edward J. Schwartz while she was in a critical condition with bulbar polio, died last night.

The mother was hypnotized during the six-hour labor period.

Doctors said the circumstances of the birth may have contributed to the infant's weakened condition but polio itself was not involved in the death.

Chileans Flee Before Erupting Volcanoes

VALDIVIA, Chile (AP)—Three volcanoes continued violent eruptions in southern Chile's lake district today, sending hundreds of weary and terrified persons fleeing from their homes.

Pilots flying over the area 470 miles south of Santiago reported a third volcano, Mt. Choshuenco, had joined Nilahue and Rinihue mountains in spewing ashes, white hot stones and poisonous gases over a wide area.

Two persons have been reported dead, since the eruptions began Tuesday. Thirty-four others, previously feared asphyxiated by the poison fumes, were sighted in a forest alongside the Nilahue River. Army rescue patrols set out for them.

Thirty-five persons were believed trapped without food in another area of heavy gas concentration.

Salk Shots OK'd for Private Use

Public Health Service Will Release Vaccine This Month

WASHINGTON (AP)—Private physicians and public health agencies will start getting Salk polio vaccine this month for inoculation of children 5-9 years of age.

The Public Health Service announced yesterday it has allocated enough for 846,000 shots. That amount will become available as soon as individual states report how much is to go to health agencies and how much to physicians.

More vaccine will be apportioned as it is manufactured and cleared for use.

* * *

The distribution is the first under the department's voluntary program for placing the vaccine where it is most needed. Except for limited supplies which moved into commercial channels last April, the vaccine is the first to go to private physicians.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has received almost all the vaccine manufactured to date for use in its free immunization of first and second-grade schoolchildren. It reported Saturday its current needs have been met, although it said three million cubic centimeters more will be necessary to complete its program this fall.

* * *

Apportionment to the states was based on the number of children each has in the 5-9-year age group not included in the free vaccination program.

That age group is most susceptible to the disease.

Older and younger children will become eligible later when more vaccine is available.

Plan White House Repairs Due to Tramping Visitors

WASHINGTON (INS)—So many tourists have tramped through the White House since it was rebuilt three years ago that the executive mansion must now be closed for repairs.

* * *

Nearly three million Americans have viewed the historic White House public rooms, sometimes at the rate of 10,000 a day in the two hour morning interval in which the White House is open to the public.

The White House said today that this tremendous traffic has nearly worn out some of the new hardwood floors and has wreaked havoc with the wall decorations and paint.

In order to repair this wear and tear, the White House will be closed to the public for about six weeks from Aug. 15 through Sept. 30.

The White House gave some astonishing figures on the number of visitors that have viewed the East Room, the Red, Green and Blue Rooms, State Dining Room and historic marble foyer since the White House was reopened after being rebuilt in April 1952.

The number of visitors during that period, through noon Friday, total 2,992,704.

10,000 DAILY

White House aides said up to 10,000 persons daily have had a look at the ground floor and the first floor, which is the portion of the White House open to the public. The ground floor contains the Deplomatic Reception Room, the room from which the President makes many of his TV and Radio broadcasts, the original White House kitchen.

* * *

On the first floor are the historic East Ballroom with its huge antique glass chandeliers and portraits of George and Martha Washington, the Blue, Red and Green Rooms, the paneled State Dining Room and the white marble foyer.

The President and his family occupy private quarters on the second floor, and this area is never open to the public.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said of the nearly three million visitors:

* * *

"This heavy traffic has made it necessary to refinish some of the floors and repaint some of the walls of the rooms on the ground and first floors.

"In order to do this, the mansion will be closed for the necessary period of time."

Soviets Advocate Increase of Open Market Practices

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda came out today for a sharp increase in the Russian version of private enterprise—the sale of food by peasants on the open market.

An editorial in that Communist Party newspaper pointed out the sale of surplus collective farm produce in the cities "plays a considerable part in supplying the urban population with milk, meat, potatoes, vegetables and other foodstuffs." It called for more of the same.

* * *

Such surpluses usually are grown by peasants on their private plots after they have finished their tasks on the collectives. However, the word also could refer to produce retained by collectives after government quotas have been delivered.

Just last fall the Soviet press complained that peasants were devoting too much time growing things for personal profit while they should be working for the collectives. Apparently the main emphasis now is on getting food to city populations even if it means some unspecified concessions to the peasants.

Pravda urged local Communist Party, government and trade union organizations to "expand still more the sale of surplus collective farm produce on urban markets."

TV Facts Forum Probe Canceled

Civil Liberties Union Finds Complaint Basis About Pressure Groups

NEW YORK, (AP)—The American Civil Liberties Union says it has found some basis for at least one complaint about pressure-group activity against Facts Forum but nothing worth a full-scale investigation.

Hardy Burt, producer of radio and TV shows for Facts Forum, had asked the ACLU last November to check on what he called "an incredible campaign of vilification" aimed at forcing Facts Forum off the air.

* * *

In a report to Burt yesterday, Patrick M. Malin, executive director of the ACLU, said there was some basis for its complaint against the National Issues Committee. Malin said that organization, which has since been disbanded, pressured the Mutual Broadcasting System to drop Facts Forum's "Reporters Roundup" program by threatening a Federal Communications Commission investigation of the network's programing policy.

The disputed program is still carried by some Mutual stations. MBS had no comment on the ACLU report.

Grandmother, 57, Weds Youth, 18, in 'Love Match'

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—News of the wedding of a 57-year-old grandmother and a youth of 18 was made public today.

The bridegroom, shy Colin Dempsey, said to a reporter, "When you love each other as much as we do, age doesn't count."

His wife is gray-haired Mrs. Hannah Bessie Branklin, who has seven children and twelve grandchildren. She and Dempsey were married in the Sydney suburb of Guilford Friday.

Colin hugged his bride today as he said, "It was a quiet wedding. We both knew what we were doing. All we know is that we have loved each other since we first met and that's why we got married."

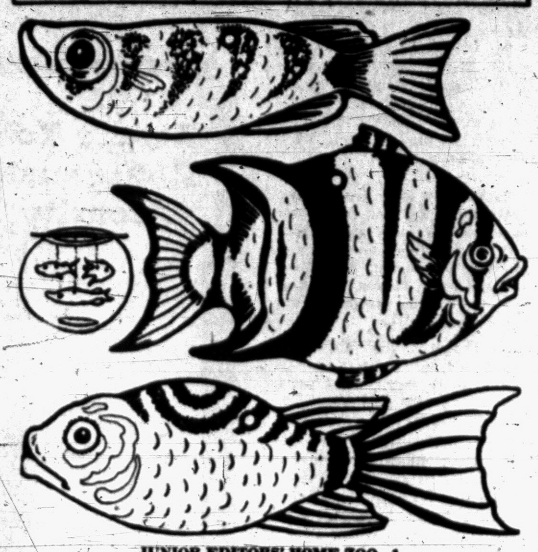

Mrs. Dempsey said, "I love him. Age doesn't count."

Mrs. Dempsey was first married in 1929. Her husband died some years ago.

The Aquarium

Almost everyone wants to have some kind of a pet. It's fun to take care of small living creatures and to watch them eat and sleep and play.

If you plan to have a pet, first talk it over with your parents. They can help you decide what kind of pet is best suited to your home. If you live in the country, or in a small town or suburb where you have a back yard, you have a wide range to choose from.

But even living in a city apartment you can have pets. One of the best choices is an aquarium. It's neat and compact and decorative in a room. And you will have pleasure watching the fish swimming about.

Get your fish at a reliable pet store and get all the information the dealer can give you. He will also have the right packaged food for your fish.

Perhaps the best fish to start with are the common variety of goldfish. They're hardy, and if they live the first three months you have them they're likely to live five years with good care.

Here are three little fish for you to color. Mount them on stiff construction paper in some bright color and then color them with crayons. Put strings through the holes on the top of their backs and tie the string to a stick. Lay the stick across the top of an empty goldfish bowl or deep glass dish and let the fish hang down inside. See the small drawing above. They look as if they're swimming, don't they?

Curves Are in Fashion Once More

Paris Emphasizes Well Fitted Waist, Bust Lines

PARIS (AP)—Curves came back to Paris fashions this morning, thanks to a woman's preference.

In the Genevieve Fath collection, hips, waist and bust are all well fitted and right back where they belong.

* * *

When this became apparent, a fashion press audience — largely feminine — gave a sigh of relief and began to applaud.

How women look when sitting down is the chief concern of Mrs. Fath this season.

* * *

"The bosom comes in for constant emphasis," is how she put it," because women are so often seated at dinner or night club tables."

The bosom is emphasized all right, but always discreetly and with good taste. Neither stuffed nor flattened, it is ornamented with drapery and small details. For late afternoon and dinnertime onwards there are wide-open necklines, baring the view in a big square or low V.

* * *

The new Fath fashions, though designed for sitting down, also look good standing up, passing by or however you want to look at them. They are handsome and dignified without being in any way sensational.

A "lightening" theme in the collection is carried out in zigzag and crisscross lines, diagonal buttoning and pleating, and other symetrical effects. Some coats d jackets are buttoned so slightly off-center that it looks like an accident.

* * *

There is no padding in the Fath shoulders, which are left natural and sloping. A low setin sleeve gives a slightly widened effect. For cocktail time there are some huge lantern sleeves, ending above the elbow, which result in an exclamation point silhouette.

De-emphasized skirts (who sees them when you're sitting down) are gently bell shaped. Many creations still follow the princess line —slim in the body and flaring at the hem.

* * *

In the midsummer heat, one mannequin presented a reversible mink coat—white mink on one side and brown on the other. There were several woven gold and silver coats that looked fabulously rich and staggeringly heavy and stiff.

Coat dresses are the biggest innovation. Made of materials as thick and warm as overcoats, they are trimmed with upstanding fur cossack collars and cuffs. Their fur trimmings are non-detachable, and obviously not for indoor wear with central heating.

* * *

There are a few false tunic effects on coats and dresses, sometimes in front and sometimes in back, but no real tunics at all. The old standby — suits with blouses—is disappearing so rapidly that only one example was seen in the whole show.

Black, dark forest green, mink browns, red and a new coral called "venevieve pink" for Mrs. Fath, made up the color palette.

* * *

Suit sleeves have a graceful flare just at the wrist, often with fur lining. Another cute trick is bracelet cuffs, moved up halfway between wrist and elbow. Green-dyed Persian lamb and white beaver are fur novelties.

The Fath show was interrupted midway to announce postponement of a rival collection; Balenciaga will show Wednesday instead of Monday. The Maggi Rouff collection tonight will be followed by Dresses tomorrow, Dior and Ga-main Monday, and Griffe and Chanel Tuesday.

DAV Auxiliary Holds Picnic-Swim Party

The Disabled American Veterans' Auxiliary 16 held a picnic and swimming party at the home of Mrs. Joe Hicks on Lake Oakland recently.

Arriving with baskets were Mrs. Jack Riley with children, Gregory, Jenny Lyn and Ricky; Mrs. Irving George and her youngsters, Karen, Cathy, Jimmy and Caroline.

Others attending were Mrs. Morris Cucksey and children, Virginia and Joni; Mrs. Lyle Smith and her granddaughter, Diane; Donna May Chancey, Mrs. Manzy and Mrs. Don Williams.

Mother's Role Relieves Tension

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Before Peter was born, his mother lived a very efficient life as secretary to a large corporation's executive.

To do her job, she had to develop a supreme interest in What Comes Next. With a time clock on her mind as What Comes Next, she learned to gulp her breakfast without tasting it. With that important letter on her mind as What Comes Next, she learned to dash through this one with speed that was the envy of her colleagues. Her files were miracles of order to deal with demands upon them that had not yet been made. The skill with which she was always prepared for what hadn't happened was a source of self-respect and considerable income.

It bores Peter to death.

At four he is an expert dawdler. Originally, his dawdling was interest in What Comes Now which children share with great sages.

Then this kind of thing began to happen:

On the way to the store with his mother, Peter would stoop over a hairy, brown caterpillar crawling across the sidewalk. Lost in the fascination of the moment he was living, he'd be jerked out of it by a cross voice saying "Leave it alone, I said. Come on. I can't spend all afternoon going to the store."

Later on the way home, the low brick wall fronting a neighbor's lawn would suggest another joyous experiment in What Comes Now. Again the cross voice would deny it. "Get down from that wall!" it would say—and begin to talk about ironing to do, dinner to get and all the other What Comes Next items.

Gradually, Peter's innocent interest in What Comes Now got corrupted. It got poisoned by rage at his mother's speed and pressure. Today, Peter dawdles, not only because he enjoys watching a caterpillar but because he enjoys annoying his mother.

CORRECT SPEED

The answer is correction of speed and pressure.

They are masculine, not womanly qualities.

Peter is fighting for his mother's womanhood. To see it will replace resentment at his dawdling with gratitude. His mother will begin to live the moments that compose her feminine life.

She'll be able to linger over lunch with him, tasting her food instead of gulping it. She'll be glad to go out to the yard to peer at the ant hill he's discovered. She'll be able to put aside anxiety over What Comes Next.

Instead of battling him because he wants to turn her back into the woman she was born, she will begin to cooperate with him.

Women are relievers of tension, not makers of it. Until they know it, motherhood can be very hard on them.

Tub Bonnet Ribbons

The ribbon ties on baby's bonnet need washing more often than the rest of it. This can be done quickly and easily by rubbing down the length of the ribbon with a soapy cloth.

Rinse with another cloth wrung out in clear water and press while still damp.

Date Others Before Settling Down to One

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: Jack and I have gone together for two years and we love each other very much. He's 19 and I'm 16½. We want to get engaged, and married when I finish school. But my folks won't let us. In fact they simply refuse to listen to us.

"We have our rings and everything, and they made me give mine back to him. First, they said I should go with more than one boy. But I've gone with four other boys, and I know I love Jack. But they won't hear of it. Please give me your advice."

Answer: Your family is all too well aware that in the short span of your dating life you've been monopolized by Jack most of the time. You've dated four other boys sporadically when you were even younger than you are now. Your feelings about them were just tentative. They don't count too deeply.

Jack is the only boy who has really aroused your interest. And here you are wanting to settle down with him before you've even looked around. Your family is thinking that there are 40 other boys you should meet first, and of course, so do I.

You and Jack have already made up your minds that you should finish school before you can do anything definite, anyhow. So why not wait until then to make definite commitments to each other? Why not keep on being best friends, but wait and see what these next few years bring to you?

How 'bout Jack's military service? Separation for any length of time might solidify your devotion to each other—or it might snap it off. You might meet someone new whom you don't even dream of at the moment!

You're full of resentment right now because your family won't take you and Jack seriously, and make your relationship official. All right, if they won't, they won't. And there's nothing for you to do but wait until they think the time is right.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 13 and my parents both object to my liking a boy who is 15. I just met him last week and we both started liking each other right away. He came over to my house a few nights ago and he is very polite and nice.

"My family think he's too old for me and absolutely don't want me to see him again. I like him very much. Do you know what I could do?"

Answer: What you really want is an argument or two to use on your family. Well, frankly, it seems perfectly normal to me that a certain type of mature, well-organized girl of 13 should like a certain type of wholesome, conservative 15-year-old boy.

He's not too old for you. So long as the activities he thinks up aren't too old for you. And with an interested set of parents to keep the activities in hand all should go well. An early movie, a party or two, a spot of watching television together—that's not a big and regular-dating deal. It's just occasional fun. I'm all for it.

Don't Refuse Guests Kind Gift Offering

Send Visitors Note Saying Thank-You for Money

By EMILY POST

A letter today explains: "A neighbor had an overflow of guests (family) and I offered my spare bedroom which was accepted. They were no trouble. Since they left I have found on the dresser a nice thank-you note and a small sum of money with a request that I buy something for myself. Should I return this money?"

Answer: Nothing could hurt their feelings more than to have their kind intentions misunderstood. You really cannot do other than follow their request and write a thank-you letter

"Dear Mrs. Post: I received an invitation to a kitchen shower for a young housewife who is a close friend. I also had planned to give this friend a shower in the near future, but now I find that the guests I had intended to ask have been invited to this party.

"Would it be proper for me to invite these same people to a second shower, or must I give up the idea?"

Answer: It would be impossible to give her a shower in the too near future.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I are somewhat confused as to the proper usage and meaning of Jr., 2nd and 3rd. Would you be good enough to explain this to us. Also, I would like to know if this rule applies in cases where the middle name is different.

Answer: The name must be identical. "Jr." means that the son or grandson is being given his father's or grandfather's name. 2nd and 3rd would be nephews.

Surprise! Pie Has Two Layers

Mrs. B. B. Roush Uses Peach Halves Adds Sugar 'n' Eggs

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Have you bought any fresh peaches yet? When you do, be sure to save some of them to use in this recipe for Peach Pie Surprise, given us by Mrs. B. B. Roush.

As civic leader and club woman, Mrs. Roush is well known in Pontiac. She is, of course, the only woman member of the General Hospital board. Benefiting from her executive talent are two other organizations whose boards she assists: the Red Cross and the Pontiac Symphony.

As a club member Mrs. Roush attends meetings of the Maple Leaf Club, the Jr. Child Study Club and the Tuesday Musicale.

PEACH PIE SURPRISE
By Mrs. Beryl B. Roush

Pastry for one crust
6-7 large peaches, halved
2 eggs
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour

Line a pie plate with crust and cover bottom of crust with halved peaches turned cut side up. Beat eggs well and add sugar, flour and butter. Pour over peaches. Bake about 15 minutes in 425-degree oven. Lower heat to 350 degrees and bake 45 minutes or until silver knife comes out clean. Serve plain or topped with whipped cream.

If peaches are exceptionally juicy, more flour may be needed.

British Hemlines Dropping

LONDON (INS) — The long-torso ballgown may make its appearance at the British court this year.

Norman Hartnell, the London designer who often creates clothes for Queen Elizabeth, is featuring the low hipline on his decollete and strapless formal ballgowns.

He makes them with long fitted tops and enormous skirts that drop from the fitted hip. The skirts are richly embroidered; some literally "drip" with jewel ornaments over satin or lace. Typical is a gown in two tones of seagreen satin, heavily embroidered in dangling pearls.

There is also a new look for the stylish tailored suit from London. Designer Mattli has revived the 1920 silhouette with a lower 1955 hemline.

Mattli is featuring the "narrowness of the 20's" in suits that set a new low in hemlines — 14 inches from the floor. This is two inches lower than skirts are being worn in London right now. (It's an inch or half-inch lower than current American hemlines.)

The Mattli suits are high-bosomed and narrow-hipped, with semi-fitted jackets and slim skirts. In coats, the three-quarter or seven-eighths length is favored, and Mattli has revived the cocoon-shaped wrap of the days when "It" was a spicy word.

Patricia Grace Gray became the bride of L. Michael Bradley Saturday evening at First Congregational Church of Rochester. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gray of Rochester, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bradley of Sheridan street.

MRS. L. MICHAEL BRADLEY

Patricia Gray Is Married in Rochester

L. Michael Bradley Exchanges Vows Saturday

A gown of crystallette with billowing tiered skirt and chapel length train was worn by Patricia Grace Gray Saturday evening when she became the bride of L. Michael Bradley.

* * *

The bodice of the gown was fashioned with shirred off-the-shoulder neckline. A headpiece of lace, embroidered with seed pearls, secured her finger-tip veil and she carried a bouquet of lilies and stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gray of Rochester and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bradley of Sheridan street.

The Rev. E. John Yuells of the First Congregational Church of Rochester performed the 7:30 ceremony before 200 guests. The altar of the church was decorated with palms and arrangements of white gladioli.

Mrs. Charles F. Gray of Ann Arbor attended the bride as matron of honor wearing a nile green gown of embroidered organdy. She wore matching accessories and carried a nosegay of pink flowers.

Bridesmaids were Marcia Ballagh, Shirley Reschke and Beth Williams. They wore identical gowns of embroidered pink organdy and carried nile green nosegays.

MINIATURE DUPLICATE

Penny Gray was gowned in a miniature duplicate of the bride's gown for her duties as junior bridesmaid. She wore pink accessories and carried a pink nosegay.

* * *

Richard Ervin served as best man and seating the guests were Kent Webb, Charles F. Gray of Ann Arbor and John Reschke of Rochester.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors. The bride's mother wore a gown of aqua Italian faille with white accessories and a corsage of pink lilies.

Mrs. Bradley chose a gown of champagne lace with pink accessories for her son's marriage. Pink lilies formed her corsage.

When the couple left for a tour of northern Michigan and Wisconsin the new Mrs. Bradley was wearing a pink linen suit with accordian pleated skirt, patent leather accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return the couple will reside in Rochester.

Dior Introduces "Y" Line Bringing Back the Bosom

PARIS (AP) — Christian Dior brought back bosoms today, only a year after abolishing them. His new silhouette is the Y, and here's why:

* * *

The bustline blossoms out, tapers to a slim tight waist in its natural place, and contnues in a hipless stem-tight skirt.

Out — by order of the master — are his own pets, long waists and jackets, loose waists and hats so small as to be nearly invisible.

* * *

In their place are a tiny, high waistline, often belted, short jackets that are really more like boleros, and big bulky hats that, when done in fur, look like a Davy Crockett coonskin cap, minus the tail.

Camisole or underslip dresses are straight and skinny with shoulder straps on a straight-across decolletage. Caftan garments, based on the Eastern Jewish costume, are slit up to the bustline, hanging in flat, straight panels.

* * *

For after dark, Dior upends his Y for huge parachute skirts on slim bodices. The Oriental influences comes out in dazzling embroideries, Persian rug prints, turkist trouser skirts, and Eastern turbans.

A baby's undershirt has been borrowed as the model for Dior's guimpes — short jackets that reach to just above the waist and wrap and button diagonally behind. They have a back-to-front look, and must require assistance to get into and out of.

* * *

Skirts are shorter only by a hairline. For evening they are floor length, or ankle length in front and trailing in a train behind. There are also slinky satin sheaths with boat necklines that bare the shoulder blades.

Turkish or harem skirts on cocktail dresses are gathered under at the hem or draped in a loop from hip to hem. Deep Cleopatra necklaces are of blindingly brilliant stones of the moonstone and agate family. Some evening shoes have diamond heelcaps.

* * *

The three-piece suit is a dead letter, having given way to severely tailored dresses with their own short jackets.

Black is the predominant color of the collection. Chaldean browns, Persian blues, Syrian yellows and Turkish greens, as well as Dior (ruby) red come in for cocktail and evening.

* * *

Dior hats, something between a cloche and a toque, have something of the pre-World War I period about them. They give a big-headed silhouette. Naturally enough, Dior decrees "no more boyish haircuts" with these.

All the dressmakers this season have a knock-your-eye out approach to embroidered formals. The richness of embroideries and lames, all in the Oriental trend, have probably never been equalled.

LORRAINE C. BISHOP

Mrs. May McClelland of Farmington is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Lorraine Carole Bishop, to Danny Wilson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wilson of Palmer street. They are planning an Oct. 2 wedding at the Riverside Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

Keep Bright Sparkle on Cloudy Mirrors

When the heat and humidity descend, make a special point of keeping all the mirrors in your home bright and sparkling.

Dampness clouds them over, but a quick wipe of a sudsy cloth, a rinse, and a rub with a clean cloth will produce a shine in a jiffy.

Panel Is Versatile

Louvered panels are a coming rage. Cut to about half the door height and fastened halfway up each side, they make charming swinging doors for a decorative kitchen or alcove.

They can also be used as inside shutters (in place of curtains) for a room that can take rough-and-tumble.

Provide Softer Bath Lights for Visitors

For your own bathroom, you may want a strong, harsh light to work on yourself. But your guests don't want to see themselves that much.

If you have a guest bath, use soft, flattering light, or install two sets of lights in your own bath.

Beware of the Glare

Watch out for the sun and the wind, even early in the season. Use a good sun screen lotion when you're in the sun. Don't forget lips. Consistent glare can raise a sore on unprotected lips. A lip pomade can ward off same.

Remark Starts New Baking Career

By ANNE HEXWOOD

Last week, while visiting in the country, I met a very interesting woman, who has a successful home business. The remarkable thing about her story, however, is the way it all began.

* * *

"It started really," she told me, "with a remark my mother-in-law made, which really hurt my feelings. She's a nice woman, but she's very old-fashioned. She comes from Sweden and is a wonderful cook, especially at baking.

"We have two children and I never did seem to have time to bake anything myself. Mother Swenson used to visit us a good deal and she'd look askance at the bakery coffee cake I served on Sundays.

One day she said that in her house they always had wonderful homemade coffee cakes on Sunday. She added that they certainly did set the day apart and that it was too bad her son couldn't have this treat.

That hurt my feelings and I had it out with my husband. He admitted that his mother's coffee cakes were something special. Then, like the nice guy he is, he offered to take the kids all day Saturdays if I wanted to try making cake the way his mother did.

SWEDISH RECIPE

"I took him up on it and got Mother Swenson's recipe. I must say I'm a pretty good cook myself, given the time. The first week, my coffee cake was very good and by the second or third time it was out of this world. It was kind of fun, too, and a change from baby-sitting. Of course, it was good for the children to have the day with their father.

* * *

"That was only the beginning," this young mother continued.

"Pretty soon the word about my baking got around and friends and neighbors began wanting my Swedish coffee cakes. I got a permit from the health department for baking on the premises and began to sell an occasional coffee cake

"Now my Saturdays are really something! I have added to my equipment, and I turn out several dozen coffee cakes each Saturday, on special order. I use the very best ingredients, charge plenty and yet my list of customers is growing all the time.

I now have two women who help me out on a part-time basis, and I'm really a business woman — Saturdays only!

"You never know what wonderful things a casual remark can set off!"

To Stay Cool Take a Tip From Dixie

ORLANDO, Fla. (INS)—If you want to keep cool in hot weather this summer, do as they do in central Florida:

Wear a short-sleeved cotton dress open at the neck, avoid stiff petticoats and leather belts, and stick to featherweight jewelry.

Most women in Orlando, largest city in central Florida, favor a short-sleeve version of the cotton shirtwaist or an airy blouse and cotton skirt. Both outfits are worn with straw or cloth belts, which are cooler than leather, or without any belts.

The sunback dress with jacket also is popular, but always with jacket for street or office wear, in spite of the average daily high of 84 degrees.

Orlando women who were questioned report that soft washable fabric for underskirts is cooler in hot weather than the fancier but more starched slips and petticoats.

The women who live with warm weather most of the year don't discard jewelry. In fact, lots of spice summery cottons—but all this jewelry is of the lightweight metal or plastic type.

Foam Toys Are Fun

Fun for baby's bath is a terry foam rubber-stuffed duck. It won't float, but baby enjoys holding it and squeezing the water out. It's a good way for him to learn to soap himself for it's easy to grasp.

IF full face—

Rounded contours are featured in fall hats. Bonnet type emphasizes roundness. Split brim curves play down fullness.

A feeling of roundness in high crowns of cloches and pillboxes, the smooth undulation of sidewide brims is present in the new hats. Subtle brown tones, soft blues, beige and charcoal grays are outstanding colors.

Powder goes on beautifully when the "over-30" skin has been prepared properly —cleansed, stimulated and covered with a film of this hormone lotion. As the maker points out, the lotion works to benefit the complexion throughout the day, helping it retain a fresh glow. The face powder is hypo-allergenic, which simply means it's a good choice for a sensitive skin. If your skin is beginning to lose the freshness of youth, now is the time to start a treatment as outlined.

The Camera at the Beach Doesn't Lie

OOOH, those beach snapshots from last year!

They make one feel as if she ought never to go to the beach again. Squinting eyes, pot stomach, enormous feet, open mouth — the results are awful.

* * *

But surely everyone who can will go swimming again this year and there will be pictures again. Trying to make them as attractive as possible is an important part of beauty.

First of all, if you're standing up for a "mug" shot, stand equally on both legs. Resting on one hip produces a very distorted picture.

It's easier to avoid this problem altogether by having your picture taken doing something. Pictures of people standing, just standing, make monotonous fare in an album.

GET IN THE ACT

Be in the act of putting on a swimming cap or unpacking the lunch and the picture will seem more natural.

Posture for snapshots should be a compromise between a West Point ramrod back and a slumped look. Try to lift the head and neck out of the shoulders. This will pull the back into line without hunching the shoulders.

If you're sitting down, try to keep the torso as upright as possible. Comfortable, floppy sitting positions photograph like Cleopatra with indigestion.

As for squinting, there's lots of light and reflection around the water and there's no need for you to be looking right into the sun when your picture's taken.

A decade is a 10-year period of time that leaves a woman five years older.

Old Candy Boxes Organize Drawers

Candy boxes still make about the best organizers for the top drawer which is full of lipstick, stockings, gloves, combs, earrings, pins and a dance program.

They're sturdy, pretty and shallow enough for the job.

Summer Essential: Many White Gloves

White gloves are practically the uniform for summer. Whether they're leather, crocheted or cotton fabric, keep them clean all day.

If in doubt, carry a reserve pair in a business envelope in your handbag.

A towel bar may be used as a holder to keep trays upright in a cupboard.

Age Helps Prints

Those colorful India prints actually improve with age. Because the register of the color is not intended to be sharp—as a flower print on a background is—the small amount of bleeding these fabrics do when washed enhances their handcrafted 'look.

Make use of ham trimmings, ham bone and fat as flavoring for soups, stews, baked beans, rice, potatoes, cabbage and many casserole dishes.

Bandits Kill 18 Soldiers

MANILA, (AP)—Eighteen soldiers were killed and 19 wounded in a clash Saturday with Moro bandits on Jolo Island, Chief of Staff Lt. Gen. Jesus Vargas said today. Four or five bandits were reported slain.

Brazil has about seven million horses.

Miss Universe Begins Class in Acting School

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hillevi Rombin, the college-educated Swedish beauty who was crowned Miss Universe 10 days ago, went back to school today—learning to be a movie actress.

The 5-foot-7 blonde from Uppsala signed a contract with Universal-International Studios starting at $250 a week. She's guaranteed work for six months. If she shows promise, U-I said, she has a contract for seven years with options.

Miss Universe will appear as a teen-ager in "The Benny Goodman Story."

Eggs will deteriorate as much in four weeks at room temperature as in four months in cold storage.

Hollywood Headlines

Jim Stewart, Grace Kelly to Team Again in Movie

By DOROTHY MANNERS

(While Louella O. Parsons is on vacation her column will be written by Dorothy Manners).

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — James Stewart, no less, will be Grace Kelly's co-star in "Designing Woman" which MGM puts the story about the fashion designer who marries a sportswriter into production in January.

It's the first time Jimmy has been on the MGM lot in four years when he made "The Naked Spur." But he's worked with the cool Miss Kelly before in "Rear Window," remember?

Reason for the delayed starting date is that Jimmy has first to finish his Lindbergh role in "The Spirit of St. Louis" and Miss Kelly, "The Swan."

One of the highlights of "Designing Woman" is the wardrobe Helen Rose is designing for Grace, a veritable fashion parade running through the love story.

Look who's turning casting director! Bob Hope cabled Don Hartman that if Katharine Hepburn doesn't get "Gertrude Lawrence as Mrs. A" somebody's crazy,—and it isn't Bob.

Apparently, while he's vacationing at Lake Como with Dolores and the children, Mons. Hope has been seeing some movies. Among them, "Summertime," la Hepburn's latest.

Bob swears his enthusiasm for Katie has nothing to do with the fact that she is doing "Not for the Money" with him. "She's just plain wonderful," he opines, "and the perfect star to play Gertrude Lawrence." So there.

Hollywood in shorts: Greer Garson and Buddy Fogelson sent their private plane for Merle Oberon an Dr. Rex Ross which started the rumor that Merle and the doctor would be wed at the Fogelson ranch in New Mexico. Merle says it isn't true,—she and Rex are just weekend guests.

George Stevens and Henry Ginsberg entertained Edna Ferber at luncheon at Warners. Miss Ferber is more enthusiastically interested in "Giant" than any other story of hers ever filmed.

Jerry Lewis has an offer to do a Broadway show that doesn't include Dean Martin. And I, for one, hope he doesn't accept.

Dolores Del Rio's hair, which used to be raven black, is now auburn which seems to make her even more beautiful, if possible.

That's all today.

Fisherman Lands Pike

JENISON (AP) — John Kornelis, fishing on Payne Lake near the Yankee Springs Recreation area, reached out of his boat to recover someone's bobber apparently adrift —and pulled in a 12-pound northern pike.

Kornelis said the 37-inch prize, which had made off with another angler's line and bobber, battled for 20 minutes before he boated it.

To Try Ex-Prisoner in Red Camp Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Army Sgt. James C. Gallagher, Brooklyn, accused of collaborating with the Reds while a prisoner in Korea and of "murder without premeditation of fellow American prisoners of war," goes on trial today.

Gallagher, 23, is believed to be the first American soldier ever ordered to stand a court-martial trial for a prison camp death by his own hands. However, others have been said to have caused deaths by informing on fellow prisoners.

The formal charge, issued last May, does not give details of the alleged deaths or say how many there were. Gallagher is also accused of maltreatment of and informing on fellow captives.

Just So It's Someplace

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Airport attendants say this really happened:

A man rushed up to the window and asked for a ticket.

"Where to, sir?" he was asked.

"Anywhere, son," he said. "Anywhere. I've got business all over."

Larrupin' Ted Williams Still Tigers' Nemesis

BOSTON (AP)—If the Detroit Tigers lose out to Boston in their fight to escape the 2nd division this season, they'll be able to point their finger at the one man most responsible.

The Red Sox normally put nine men on the field but it's terrible Ted Williams who is the chief Tiger tormentor.

Williams is never better than when he's playing against the Tigers, And he was at his best in the four game set Detroit concluded here with two defeats yesterday.

The Tigers bowed 8-3 and 3-2, making it three out of four losses in Beantown.

First game was all over in 4th inning. With Boston ahead 3-2, Williams came to bat with the bases loaded. Pitcher Ned Garver sagged noticeably as Williams powdered the 1st pitch foul into the stands. The count worked up to 2-2 and Williams slashed a drive into the Detroit bullpen for his 1st grand slam home run since 1951.

Boston fans cheered, but nobody was surprised—lease of all the Tigers. It almost was as if when Boston's No. 9 steps to the plate, anything short of a homie run is a disappointment.

Williams didn't hit any homers in the 2nd game. He drove in one of the three Boston runs. And he robbed Billy Hoeft of a hit in the 2nd inning with a sensational catch against the left field wall.

Absence of a Williams homer run made the 2nd game different from the other three. He raised his season's total from 16 to 19 during the Tiger visit.

Detroit managed only four hits off Frank sullivan in the opener. They collected 11 safeties in the nightcap but left 12 men on base in the 1st seven innings. Victory went to relief pitcher Frank Baumann, making his 1st major league appearance when he relieved Ike Delock in the 4th.

Baumann, who was given an $80,000 bonus by the Red Sox, just rejoined the club after military service. He allowed only four hits, struck out four and walked one in 5 2-3 innings.

Tigerz almost lost the services of Al Kaline in addition to the two ball games. Kaline was struck on the elbow by a Sullivan pitch in the 1st inning of the opener and rushed to a hospital for X-rays. It turned out that though he missed the 2nd game he'll be ready for action against Washington tomorrow night.

The double loss left the Tigers 7½ games out of 1st place and 4½ games out of the 1st. division.

Ellstrom-Schwab Win

By H. GUY MOATS

A seasoned campaigner in the area's best-ball tests, teamed with a newcomer to the district Sunday afternoon gathered in the championship award for the Birmingham Country Club's 5th annual Invitational Best-Ball Tournament.

Elmer Ellstrom Jr., of the Birmingham club and young Pat Schwab, lately of Toledo, stopped the veteran Perry Byard and Ed Ervasti team, 2 and 2.

First nine was a nip-and-tuck battle. Ellstrom and Schwab drew 1st "blood," with a 4 on the 2pd where Byard and Ervasti took 5, after both parred the 1st hole. Teams halved the next three holes, then Byard-Ervasti dropped a 4 on the 6th to square the match. They took the lead on a birdie 2 on the 7th, but Ellstrom-Schwab evened things again with a 4 to their opponents bogie 5 on the 9th green.

Ellstrom took the 10th with a birdie 3 to go 1-up. They halved the next pair of holes, then the Ellstrom-Schwab combination grabbed the 13th with a 4 while Byard and Ervasti were taking 5. Teams halved the 14th, but the Ellstrom-Schwab paid parred the 15th, to another bogie, to make the count 3 up. When both took par fours on the 16th it was all over.

Title round cards:

Par out	443	444	354—36
Elistrom-Schwab out	343	545	344—37
Byard-Ervasti out	353	544	345—37
Par in	434	443	445—35—71
Elistrom-Schwab in	334	443	4
Byard-Ervasti in	434	544	4

New champions disposed of Bob Holden and Robert Nelson 1-up; Bob Babbish and Jim McCormick 1-up on the way to the semifinals, Sunday morning. They took on Floyd Burdett and Jim Lock for the 18-hole preliminary to the title round and won 2-up.

Byard and Ervasti turned back Tommy Watrous and Skip McMichael, young collegians, 1-up in 19 holes, then in order defeated Angelo Lotti and Tony Lopucki 4 and 3; and Rollie Weyand and Dick Whiting (who eliminated Art Olfs and Wally Smith, 1954 champs), 2 and 1.

Play in the fourney was held up Sunday afternoon nearly an hour, when a thunderstorm drenched the course. The downpour caught many players in the half dozen flights, playing off their final rounds.

Orioles Send Swango Away, Sans Regrets

Richards Says Waivers Sought for $36,000 Rookie Pitcher

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles said goodbye yesterday to John Bruce Swango, bonus youngster from Oklahoma, and—without much apparent regret—to the $36,000 they promised him.

Manager Paul Richards said, "we have asked waivers on him for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release."

The 18-year-old righthanded fireballer from Welsh, Okla., never pitched a ball in major league competition. But he has a guaranteed income of $12,000 for the next three years; that's how the bonus was to be paid.

* * *

When Richards signed Swango, sight unseen but on the unqualified recommendation of scout Claude Dietrich, his fast ball was compared with that of Bob Turley, ex-Oriole now with the New York Yankees.

However, he couldn't master the curve ball, attempts to develop a slider gave him arm trouble, and his fast one was erratic. His teammates were reluctant to step into the batting cage against him in batting practice.

* * *

"It became obvious," said Richards, "that Swango was not going to make a pitcher sitting on the bench. It was an injustice to the boy to make him waste two years sitting in the dugout. It also was an injustice to the ball club."

And if the Orioles lose $36,000—they would get out of paying some of it in the unlikely event that some other major league team claimed him—"it is just another example of the lengths to which the owners of this ball club are willing to go to give Baltimore a winner," said Richards.

Breaks 3-Mile World Mark; Chataway Eyes Mile Record

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Chris Chataway, who established a world's three-mile record Saturday, today set his sights on the classic mile standard held by the Australian John Landy.

* * *

The 25-year-old Chataway, known on the continent as the "Red Fox," likes a race more than a record. He'll have his opportunity for both on Aug. 12 in the Britain-Hungary track and field meet.

Then he runs the mile against Sandor Iharos in what may well prove the race of 1955. The other Hungarian entry is expected to be Istvan Roszavogi. Both Hungarians have run the metric mile of 1,500 meters in times comparable to 4 minutes or better for a mile.

* * *

A few days ago Army Leitenant Iharos broke Landy's 1,500 world mark by one second in 3:40.8. That is roughly equal to a 3:57 mile and Landy's world record set in Turku, Finland, in June, 1954, is 3:58.

Chataway showed his immense power reserve Saturday in the Germany-Britain dual meet when he poured on a final 2:04.6 half mile to regain for Britain the world three-mile record.

The smiling brewer's time of 13 minutes, 23.2 seconds nipped 3.2 off the listed world mark set by Russia's Vladimir Kuc in Prague on Oct. 23, 1954.

Sylvan Lake Water Skiers Show Stealers

Lions' share of medals and trophies in the big Metropolitan Beach water skiing championships Saturday were gathered in by Sylvan Lake Water Skiing Club.

Five performers on the tricky boards brought back seven top honors in addition to a number of other awards.

Mrs. Alice Brace (Floyd) Shotwell was top feminine skier. She took the jumps with leaps of 42-43 feet. She won the slalom and trick riding and wound up with the overall championship with 500 points.

Brother Jerry Brace won the men's slalom, was 3rd in trick riding and 2nd overall. Bud Fuller of Walled Lake won the men's overall and men's jump and was 1st in trick and 2nd in the slalom.

Marilyn and Marcia Hickson SLWSC members, were also in the winners lists. Marilyn won junior slalom, was 2nd in jumping and 2nd overall; Marcia was 2nd in truck riding and slalom. Tommy Kindig, 15, won junior jumping.

Riders reported the water was very rough and a number of spills took place but none was serious.

5th Straight for Little Leaguer Rice

Puertas Service won an extra-inning game Saturday over Union Lake, 4-3 in 9 innings. But the big story out of that victory was the fact that Gordon Rice hurled his 5th straight win, fanned 12 on the way.

A single and 3 straight walks in the 9th gave Puertas its win. Score had been tied at the end of the 7th 3-3.

Jack's Service (formerly Dell's) defeated Pete's Service 12-4 in another Waterford Township Little League tilt, to put it two in front of Jack's in league standings.

Maceday Gardens took a forfeit from Waterford Village in a 3rd scheduled league contest.

Waitkus Eyes Phillies

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Eddie Waitkus, first baseman on the Philadelphia Phillies' "Whiz Kids," who won the National League pennant in 1950, says he will sign again with the Phils.

Waitkus, who lives in Albany, was released recently by the Baltimore Orioles.

All-Stars Beat Stadiums Twice

GM Winner in Loop Play; Other Tilts Are Exhibitions

Stadium Inn was dumped twice in exhibition games and General Motors racked up a league victory in men's city softball play Sunday night.

Stadium Inn was edged by the Fisher Body All-Stars, 3-1, in the opener at Beaudette; then took a 15-4 trouncing from Louie's Tavern. Spears out-pitched Ed Miller in the 1st game, although Stadium outhit Fisher Body, 5 to 4. Louie's pounded out nine hits in the nightcap to score an easy win as Claude Trimm and Walt Saddler combined to pitch three-hit ball.

GMC came from behind to defeat Riteway Softwater, 5-3, in a re-scheduled American loop contest at North Side Park. Riteway took a 3-0 lead in the 2nd stanza, but GMC erased the deficit with four in the 3rd and one more in the 5th. Lynus Grant and Doug Hall shared mound duties for the Coachers, the latter getting the win. Roger Reynolds and Chuck Nichols hurled for Riteway.

Escanaba Legion Nine Wins State's Crown

YPSILANTI (AP) — Escanaba is the 1st Upper Peninsula team in history to hold the American Legion state baseball championship.

Escanaba defeated Theatrical Post of Detroit, 5-3, in the finals yesterday. The game was called at the end of eight innings because of rain. Detroit had beaten Adrian, 11-0, in the semi-finals.

Escanaba will represent Michigan in the four-state regional tournament opening Aug. 12 at Benton Harbor.

Detroit Printers' 9 Seeks Tourney Upset

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit seeks to upset defending champion Washington today in the opening round of the Union Printers International Baseball League tournament.

St. Louis, runner-up in last year's tourney, plays Chicago.

Baltimore plays Pittsburgh, Boston faces St. Paul and New York goes against Cincinnati.

NICE CATCH — Pontiac's Art Sofial (above) was the proud owner of two large lake trout Thursday after a fishing outing on Lake St. Clair near Lexington. Sofial, 4887 Ross Drive, nabbed the trout early Thursday, employing a spinning rod, 20-pound nylon test line, and silver spoons. Joe Van Holland of Detroit was his angling partner. Larger of the two specimens measured 33 inches long and scaled 12¼ pounds. The smaller trout was 28 inches long and weighed seven pounds.

Goshen in Carnival Garb for Pre-Hambletonian Fete

GOSHEN, N.Y. (AP) — This little capital of light harness horse racing donned its annual carnival garb today as the five-day Grand Circuit meeting opened with the names of at least 11 3-year-old trotters expected in the entry box for the 29th renewal of the $95,000 Hambletonian.

A check of the barns at Good Time Park, where some 20,000 fans are expected to gather Wednesday for the Sulky Derby, showed Scott Frost, 1954 2-year-old champion, had scared away all except two stablemates and possibly eight others.

The reduction of the money distribution from six to four places also made some owners think twice before paying the $1,000 starting fee. The winners gets 60 per cent of the purse, the second place horse 25, third 10 and fourth 5.

* * *

One name was already in the entry box—Flemington, an outsider owned by Arthur Brown of New York who was entered Saturday. Entries close at noon EST today.

* * *

Scott Frost, who trotted a mile in two minutes last year and matched that time last week at Vernon Downs, N.Y., is the prohibitive choice. Accompanied by Butch Hanover and Home Free as the entry of Sol Camp of Shafter, Calif., the son of Hoot Mon may go postward for the first of three heats at 2 p.m. (EST) at odds as low as 1 to 5.

All-Stars Begin 2nd Week of Drills

CHICAGO (AP)—The College All-Stars open their second week of drills today for their Aug. 12 game against the Cleveland Browns at Soldier Field.

Joining the team yesterday was Mal Hammack, a 200-pound linebacker from the University of Florida. Hammack completed a six-week stint in an ROTC camp at Fort Benning, Ga., and announced he's ready for scrimmage.

Laffner Wins First Feature at Gay Day

Gerald Laffner won his 1st feature race of the year Sunday night at Gay Day Speedway. Johnny Wallace finished 2nd and Kenny Schon took 3rd.

Semi-feature was won by Bill Dillard, chased by Len MacAbee and Chuck Allen. Kenny Schon won the pursuit race and set a new track record in the qualifying run with a clocking of 21.52. Johnny Wallace captured the four-car dash.

Heat races were won by Bill Gabert, Russ Heikle, Marvin Main, Benny Howell, and MacAbee.

Hoosiers Mail Blanks

Approximately 70,000 football ticket brochures and order blanks to Indiana's 1955 games were mailed.

Katlin Takes Three Events on M-59 Card

Mickey Katlin of Howell was the "big noise" Saturday night at Pontiac M-59 Speedway. The heavy-footed driver won the feature, pursuit and dash. Joe Doyle of Pontiac and Bill Kourt of Brighton were 2nd and 3rd in the feature.

* * *

Dave Coppersmith won the semi-final, and heat winners, in order were: Bill Gabbert, Glenn McAbee, Dorris Sanders, Chuck Partello and George Schooley.

Sunday's thrill show by the Canadian Dare-Devils drew a big crowd, and gave fans a real evening of exciting features.

Ransom Victor in Rubber City Golf Tourney

Former Pine Lake Pro Beats Three Rivals in Playoff

AKRON, Ohio, (AP)—In a finish as close as they come, Henry Ransom, a rancher from Edge, Tex., who plays golf's pro circuit only part time, won the $15,000 Rubber City Open yesterday in a sudden-death playoff with three rivals.

* * *

Ransom holed a 12-foot putt for a birdie three on the first extra hole. The 72-hole contest, which started Thursday, wound up with four sharpshooters tied at 272, or 16-under-par for the 6,700-yard Firestone Country Club Course.

* * *

PGA Champion Doug Ford of Klamesha Lake, N.Y.; Jack Burke, also of Klamesha; and Jackson Bradley of Houston had the 272s along with Ransom and went into the playoff for the $2,400 first prize.

* * *

On the last hole of regular play, Bradley missed a five-foot putt and took a 68. Burke burned up the course in the final 18 with the hottest round of the tournament, a 64. And Ford dropped a 30-foot putt on the 18th for a 69 which enabled him to match the 272 total. It was his high score of the four rounds. He had stayed at the top Friday and Saturday with scores of 68-66-67 for the first three rounds.

* * *

On the play-off hole all four got off long drives down the narrow fairway and followed with excellent approaches that left them within 18 feet of the pin. Ford's 18-foot putt rimmed the cup; Burke's 15-footer failed to drop; Ransom holed his 12-footer; and Bradley's 10-footer stopped just short.

* * *

Ransom, who finished fourth among the money winners in 1950 when he played the pro circuit on a major scale, earlier this year won $650 in the Hot Springs Open in his first time out this year and later picked up $1,000 in the Kansas City Open.

Sal Maglie Back in the 'Big Town' Once More This Time as an Indian, Against the Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—Sal (The Barber) Maglie came back to the big town today. This time, though, he returned as a visitor—at 38-years-old starting out all over again as a pitcher on the Cleveland Indians.

Maglie, who helped pitch the New York Giants to two National League pennants and one world championship, will be in the uniform of the Tribe tomorrow night when they open an important three-game series against the New York Yankees.

* * *

Dealt to the Indians for a reported $25,000 yesterday after he was waived out of the National League, Maglie packed his belongings and cleared out of Milwaukee as soon as the Giants finished their game with the Braves. Although he rarely flies, he took a plane here from Milwaukee to get his affairs in order before joining the Indians.

"I'm not disappointed at leaving the Giants," said Maglie. "although it sure is tough breaking my long-time associations with some of my pals."

While he didn't say so, it was generally known that there was no love lost between "The Barber" and Manager Leo Durocher. Only a month ago, Durocher accused Maglie of loafing on a field play.

"The Giants have been my only club," Maglie commented, "but I'm happy to go to Cleveland. I know most of the Indians' players. I shouldn't have any trouble in the American League. The hitters don't have a book on me."

Asked about the condition of his arm—he hasn't pitched a complete game since June 22 and was knocked out in the first inning against the Braves last Saturday—Maglie said:

* * *

"My arm is perfectly OK. I don't think I'm following through right. I've experienced trouble like this before and I'm sure I can work it out. I'll try to get loosened up by pitching a lot of batting practice."

He also said the hot weather had knocked him out.

Manager Al Lopez of the Indians was cautious in his comment about his newest hurler.

"I'll have to see him throw before I decide how I'm going to use him," said Lopez, whose club is just one game out of first place, "but we're glad to have him."

* * *

With two fine young relief pitchers in Don Mossi and Ray Narleski and a strong front-line staff, the best guess is that Maglie will be used as a spot pitcher, getting the call against certain foes. He also will require considerable rest, so he won't be able to take a regular starting turn.

Out for Season

Pitched Ball Fractures Arm of Braves' Adcock

MILWAUKEE (AP)— Milwaukee's Joe Adcock and New York's Jim Hearn don't agree on where the pitch that broke Adcock's right arm yesterday was aimed, but there's no question about what Hearn's high, hard one did to jolting Joe.

* * *

Adcock's out for the season. Dr. Charles Lacks, Braves team physician, said that the hulking first sacker will be wearing a cast on the arm for six weeks, and couldn't get back into shape for a couple of weeks after that. The season has ondly about seven weeks to go.

Sitting on a bed in a Milwaukee hospital last night after the arm was set by Dr. A. C. Schmidt, Milwaukee orthopedic surgeon, Adcock said of the pitch that struck him in the second inning of the Braves-Giants game at County Stadium:

* * *

"I don't know whether Hearn threw at me, but I know he knocked me down three times the last time he pitched against us here.

"The pitch was behind me, going for my left shoulder. I moved to my left and raised my right arm to block my head and it hit me."

Adcock had a few words with Hearn right after he was hit, but Milwaukee Manager Charley Grimm and Coach John Cooney hustled him away.

Hearn said he tried to apologize to Adcock.

"I never throw at anyone, believe me," big Jim said. "All I wanted to do was try and jam him on the fists. But the pitch got away from me."

Kalamazoo 9 Wins 2 From GM

Sutherlands Take 8-3 and 10-5 Victories in State Loop

League-leading Sutherland Paper of Kalamazoo racked up 8-3 and 10-5 victories over General Motors in a Michigan State Baseball League double-header at Kalamazoo Saturday.

Coachers were never in either contest. Kalamazoo spotted them two runs in the 1st inning of the 1st game, then scored three in the same inning to take a permanent advantage.

Marriott hurled for the Sutherland nine with some assistance from Topp. Dick Goldsworthy started for GMC, but gave way to Hruska who finished.

Kalamazoo bombarded starter Jack Hruska for five runs in the 1st inning of the nightcap and was never headed. Highlight of the 2nd contest for GMC was Al Barkeley's three-run homer. Curtis went the route for Kazoo.

GMC	200 010 0—3 8 3
Kazoo	300 131 x—8 7 2

Goldsworthy, Hruska and Roberts; Marriott, Topp and Young.

GMC	020 000 3—5 8
Kazoo	500 320 x—10 10

Hruska, Thomas and McGlashen; Curtis and Possen.

Ol' Satch Effective in 3-Inning Effort

CHICAGO (INS)—Satchel Paige may be anywhere from 40 to 60 years old, but his pitching arm is still young.

The ageless wonder, who formerly hurled for the Cleveland Indians, went three innings without allowing a hit yesterday as the Negro American League's West All-Stars beat the East, 2 to 0, before 11,257 fans at Comiskey Park.

"Hurricane" Underdog for Wednesday Bout With Ez

Despite the latest rankings that list Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson as the No. 3 heavyweight contender and ex-champ Ezzard Charles as No.6, the Hurricane is a 2 to 1 underdog against old Ezzy Wednesday night at Syracuse, N.Y.

The 10-round match, one of the most important heavyweight bouts held in upstate New York in years, will be carried on radio and TV (ABC) starting at 9 p.m. (EST).

* * *

Tony Anthony, a New York Golden Glove grad, either wins or gets knocked out, according to the 23-3 record he takes into tonight's scrap with Bobby Boyd of Chicago, who has a 33-6-2 mark.

Anthony has flattened 18 opponents but all three of his defeats were by knockouts to Willie Troy, Jacques Royer and Miguel Mendevil.

The 10-round match at St. Nicholas Arena in New York will be carried on TV (Dumont).

Trabert's Loss Hits U.S. Davis Cup Hopes Hard

Tony's Back Ailment Aggravated; May Be Sidelined a Week

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — The United States once bright Davis Cup hopes were rocked into a state of gloom today by a mysterious backache which sent the country's top tennis ace, Tony Trabert, to the sidelines for at least a week—possibly longer.

There is no certainty the 24-year-old Wimbledon champion from Cincinnati, the one man who might save the trophy, will be ready for the challenge round Aug. 26-28 at Forest Hills, N.Y.

Tony, plagued by the back ailment all week, reached high to hit a service in the final match of the Meadow Club Tournament here yesterday and felt, he said, a sharper pain run up his back.

* * *

So, after consulting with officials, he defaulted the championship match to Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N.J., who led 1-0 in the fifth set. Trabert had lost the first set 3-6, won the next two 6-2, 8-6, and then dropped the fourth 6-8.

In quick order, he conferred with Bill Talbert, Davis Cup captain; pulled out of Eastern Grass Courts Championships opening today at South Orange, N.J., and made arrangements for intensive treatments of the disorder this week in New York.

No one knows when he'll be ready to play again. American Davis Cup big wigs were thrown into a dither by the development.

Alrick Man Jr., a top executive on the cup selection committee, said:

"This is a terrific blow to us because we just don't know how badly Tony is hurt. We can only wait and hope for the best."

* * *

Talbert, the captain, said:

"Naturally we aren't going to be too pessimistic until we get the full picture. But anything that might slow up Tony's play is bound to be a disheartening break for our side. This we know—our prime concern is having him ready for the cup matches."

Parker Starts Lions on Hard Grind

YPSILANTI (AP) — Detroit Lions settle down to the routine, but bruising, business of preparing for the renewal of the pro football wars after today's round of posing for press pictures.

After the camera session ends the blue and silver game uniforms will be put away until the Detroit team meets the Philadelphia Eagles in their 1st exhibition game Friday night, Aug. 19, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

During the interim, coach Buddy Parker will put his behemoths—veteran and newcomer alike—through a head-bumping two drills a day grind.

Parker, a shrewd Texan, is not a man to take defeat lightly. He'd like nothing better than to erase the humiliating defeat the Lions suffered in last year's championship game when the Cleveland Browns clobbered them 56-10.

That was the worst defeat suffered by a Parker-coached Detroit team. It still rankles. So, Parker is expected to give his charges the full treatment while pointing them again for the National Football League championship. Lions won the title in 1952 and 1953.

He'll have the help of able veterans. Quarterback Bobby Layne is back. So are halfbacks Doak Walker, Bob Hoernschemeyer and Lew Carpenter; defensive backs Jack Christiansen, Jimmy David, Bill Stits and Carl Karilivacz.

Parker also has a flock of veteran linemen to work with. They include Joe Schmidt, Andy Miketa, Lou Creekmur, Leon Hearl, Dick Stanfel, Dorne Dibble, Harley Sewell and Jim Cain.

Parker and his assistants have been working with a batch of rookies for a week. From them they hope to get additional depth on the line and some backfield help, especially on the defensive platoon.

The Detroit pilot wants to give David a chance at carrying the ball if he can find adequate replacements among the rookies.

Layne also needs some backstopping. And Parker hopes either Paul Held or Hary Gilmer, both pro veterans obtained in trades will fill the bill.

When Tom Dublinski bolted to the Canadian league, it left the Lions with only Layne to handle the passing.

From this array of proved and untried talent Parker hopes to weld a championship unit. But he faces a long, hard job since the other western division teams seem tougher than ever.

11-Run Explosion

League Leaders Crush All-Stars Crew by 19-6 Count in Amateur Day Game

General Motors erupted for 11 runs in the 4th inning, then went on to crush the City Baseball League All-Stars, 19-6, in the Pontiac Baseball Federation's annual "Amateur Day" tilt Sunday afternoon at Wisner Field.

A total of 15 batters strolled to the plate in the mammoth stanza and six hit safely as the roof collapsed on the "stars." Bob Fell doubled and Wes Robert tripled to highlight the wild stanza, which also saw three walks and an error.

BECOMES PRO—Dick Goldsworthy, ex-PHS player, and a Pontiac sandlotter, will be playing pro baseball come another spring and summer. Dick (above) was signed recently to a Baltimore Oriole farm club contract. He is currently pitching for General Motors in the Class A City League.

Four pitchers worked for the Coachers and held the opposition in check until the damage was done. Herman Bishop, Jim Wagner, Dick Goldsworthy and Jack Hruska combined to limit the All-Stars to six hits, with Bishop getting the win.

All-Stars used five pitchers in a futile attempt to throttle GMC. Hud Johnson, Jim Williams, Steve Kebler, Russ Lothery and Dick Womack all took their turns. Williams, star hurler for the Anderson Jets, was tagged with the loss.

Bob Fell sparked the winners' attack with three hits in five attempts, two of them doubles. Les Stone and Bob Swindell each garnered two hits. No All-Star got more than one safety.

In two preliminary Junior League games, Boys Club edged the North Side Aces, 4-3, as Darrel Thorpe hurled a four-inning no-hitter to feature the Knothole play; and Boys Club shut out the East Siders, 1-0, in Class F, with John Lucadum giving up only one hit.

Boxing Dead in N'Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Millionaire sportsman Blaise D'Antoni tolled the count over his Louisiana Boxing Enterprises his dream of making New Orleans a world boxing center knocked out by poor box office and charges of racket infiltration.

The dynamic 54-year-old former amateur boxer said he would recommend to LBE stockholders and bondsmen on Aug. 3 that the group disband Nov. 1 after meeting contractual obligations to light heavyweight Willie Pastrano of New Orleans.

D'Antoni's sudden announcement to end the venture came last night following attacks by crime prober Aaron Kohn and assistant police superintendent Guy Banister. Both Kohn and Banister questioned some of D'Antoni's associations, particularly those with gambling king Frank Costello and boxing figure Frankie Carbo.

Carbo is public relations chief for Lincoln Beach, a Negro amusement park owned by D'Antoni. Costello's brother-in-law, Bonny Geigerman, serves as matchmaker for LBE.

Mexican Takes Title

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Estaban Reyes of Mexico City defeated Art Andrews of Iowa City, Iowa, 6-4 6-1, 6-2, in a best-of-five set final yesterday to win the 40th annual United States Junior Tennis singles championship.

He is the 1st foreign player ever to win the title.

Former Titlist Regains City's Medal Crown

Edith Wright Winner in Extra Hole, Over Mrs. DeBolt

Mrs. Edith Wright won the annual City Women's Medal Play golf championship Saturday at the Pontiac Municipal Golf Course to reclaim the title she held in 1953.

Mrs. Wright captured the crown after a "sudden-death" playoff with Mrs. Zadah DeBolt, the defending champion. Both women finished the regular 18-hole, par 75-layout with identical scores of 43-41—84.

Mrs. Wright ended the match on the 1st extra hole with a par four, while Mrs. DeBolt bogied. Both winner and runner-up were awarded trophies for their efforts.

Three other well-known golfers finished in a triple tie for 3rd place with cards of 88. Lucy Everett posted rounds of 47-41, Betty Sue Syron had scores of 44-44, and Phyllis Boyer shot 45-43.

Holmes Veteran Mentor

David L. Holmes, Wayne University's athletic director and head coach of track, will be starting his 39th season at Wayne University this September. The 67-year-old track mentor came to Wayne in 1917 when the school was known as Detroit Junior College and coached all sports. Holmes is scheduled for retirement in June, 1958.

National dues for the Women's International Bowling Congress have been raised from 25 cents to 50 cents per member effective Aug. 1. In summer leagues, however, the raise is effective immediately.

Donovan Rests After Operation

CHICAGO (AP) — Dick Donovan, Chicago White Sox ace righthander, was resting comfortably today following an appendectomy late Saturday night.

Donovan, who has a 13-4 record, was rushed to Chicago's Mercy Hospital from Washington when doctors advised an operation following the big righthander's complaint of a stomach ache.

Dr. John B. Claridge, team physician, said Donovan had an inflamed acute appendix which was near the rupturing point.

"A few hours delay and it might have been critical," said Dr. Claridge.

"I look for Donovan to recuperate in about four weeks but it may be a while longer before he can pitch."

Sandy's Much Simpler

Sandy Consuegra of the White Sox baseball club is legally known by the longer name of Sandalio Simeon Consuegra.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

As the clerk said to the women at the bargain counter, "Keep your elbows in!"

Notice today's player's stance is slightly open, his grip correct. Notice that both arms are still virtually straight although he has just started his backswing. Because his left hand is at the top of the shaft, his left shoulder is still slightly higher than his right as the top dotted line indicates.

Our player is bent over in an approximately correct position for an upright swing. He has started his backswing with the sort of all-together-movement (club, hands, shoulders, arms and hips). So his hands will pass back, around and up, close to his body, until his club shaft is horizontal at the top.

Then his left shoulder will be under his chin, his elbows fairly close together and his hands will be under the shaft. This player will see to it that his right elbow is kept in close to his body so that his right forearm is under the shaft — not sticking out to the right — at the top of the backswing. Good!

Moon Scoffing at Soph Jinx; Ted Slumping

NEW YORK (AP)—Wally Moon, the shining light of the St. Louis Cardinals who won National League Rookie-Of-The-Year honors last year, is laughing at baseball's sophomore jinx. The speedy outfielder is leading the Cards in batting with a .313 average, fifth highest in the circuit. Moon has hit 13 homers, one more than in 1954 when he finished with a .304 mark.

Ted Williams, the Thumper of the Boston Red Sox, is in one of the worst hitting slumps of 'is illustrious career. Williams, who was batting .413 on July 8, has had only 13 hits in his last 63 at bats (a .206 pace). The 17-game famine has dropped Ted's average to .329.

One of the reasons for the improved showing of the Cleveland Indians this month has been the home run resurgence of Larry Doby. The hard-hitting outfielder has hit 10 four-baggers in July. He had had only seven before that.

Harpooned Swordfish Escapes—Minus Sword

SHELBURNE, N.S. (AP) — The skipper of the longliner Bonnie Gail said today a harpooned swordfish charged his boat two days ago, thrust its bill 18 inches into the planking and forced him to return from a fishing trip to the Grand Banks.

Captain Lester Thorburn, 23, said the sword broke off but fortunately jammed tight in the three inch hole and kept out the water.

Yanks, Tribe, Bosox at Chisox Heels

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Take it from the Yanks and Indians, you just can't trust those A's and Orioles any more.

While Chicago was whipping Washington in a doubleheader yesterday to open a one-game lead in the American League, New York and Cleveland were running into trouble with Kansas City and Baltimore. Both contenders had to settle for splits.

As a result of the weekend's furious action, the Yanks and Tribe today were tied for second as they drew battle plans for their three-game series at Yankee Stadium opening tomorrow night. Boston, a double winner over Detroit, 8-3 and 3-2, is only three games behind the White Sox, who invade Fenway Park for three games, also starting tomorrow.

Chicago had to press hard to take Washington 3-1 in 11 innings when a Senators' relief pitcher, Pedro Ramos, hit one man and walked another with the bases loaded. Then they had to hold on tight to ride out a ninth inning Washington threat to save the second game 6-5.

The recall of Don Larsen from the Denver farm looked like just what the Yankees needed as he threw a four-hitter at the A's in the first game for a 5-2 victory. Then the A's, who humbled New York Saturday 12-2, rose up to score five in the ninth and take the second game 7-1. Gus Zernial's two-run homer in the eighth gave the A's the lead. The clubs tied a major league record with nine double plays in the second game.

Cleveland saw a three-run lead melt away as Baltimore scored four in the eighth to win the first game 4-3. The Indians needed a triple play and a six-hit shutout by Art Houtteman for a 6-0 verdict to get even for the day.

Brooklyn continued to pour it on its National League rivals, opening up a 13½ game edge on Milwaukee by bombing the St. Louis Cardinals with 14 hits, 12-2. Don Newcombe breezed in with a five-hitter to make his record 18-1 for the season. Roy Campanella's 200th homer of his career was one of four hits by the Dodger catcher.

* * *

The New York Giants, 17½ games back and so discouraged that they sold Sal Maglie, their old "Dodger Killer," to Cleveland, broke Milwaukee's six-game winning streak 7-3. Willie Mays hit home run No. 33 for the Giants.

Chicago swept two from Philadelphia 7-1 and 6-5 with Warren Hacker pitching a five-hitter and Ernie Banks hitting his 31st homer in the opener. Dee Fondy won the second with a two-run homer.

* * *

Cincinnati won a pair from Pittsburgh 7-4 and 6-5. Gus Bell had four hits, including two doubles, in the opener and Ted Kluszewski won the second with a bases-loaded single in the last of the ninth inning. Kluszewski hit his 35th homer earlier in the game.

American League Casualties

The American League popped up with a couple of developments that could decide the race. Dick Donovan, Chicago's ace righthander, was carted off to a hospital for an appendectomy and will be lost for "at least four weeks" at a vital stage.

Canadian Nine Blasts Pontiac on 3-Run Rally

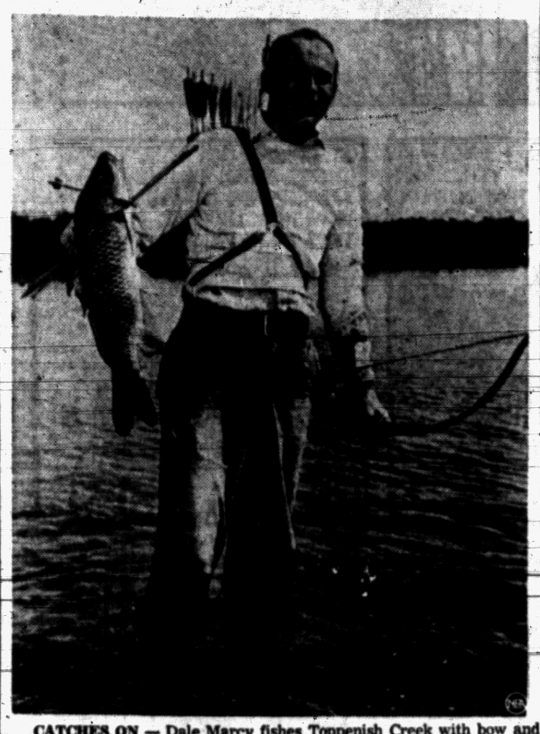

St. Thomas Club Wins Second Time, 8-5, in Sunday Encounter

St. Thomas of Ontario chased seven runs across the plate in the 3rd and 4th innings to defeat Pontiac's Old Timers, 8-5, in an International Old Timers League baseball game at St. Thomas, Sunday. It was Pontiac's 4th loss in five starts.

Pontiac jumped off to an early lead in the 1st inning with two on a walk, a double by manager Bud Leslie and a single by Bill Darby. Doubles by Al Servoss and Leslie tallied another in the 3rd before St. Thomas bombarded Lew (Lefty) Wolf in the same inning for four runs to take the lead permanently. The Canadians added three more in the 4th to cinch their 2nd win over Pontiac.

All the scoring was garnered in the 1st four innings. Then pitchers Wolf and Murphy settled down to a scoreless duel. Pontiac Old Timers collected six hits off the Canadian hurler while St. Thomas picked up a dozen safeties off Wolf. Leslie paced the Pontiac nine with three hits in four times at bat.

Italian Cuppers on Way to Test Skill in States

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Italy's surprising Davis Cup team flies to New York Wednesday to test its tennis skill in America after mopping up competition in Europe.

The rising young Italians finished their conquest of the European Zone yesterday by beating Sweden 4-1 in the finals. Altogether they downed Germany, Denmark, England and Sweden, winning 19 of 20 matches.

* * *

Skinny Fausto Gardini and Tiny Giuseppe (Beppe) Merlo, two unorthodox players best known for their retrieving ability, beat everyone they faced. So did the brilliant doubles team of Orlando Sirola, a 6-7 giant, and Nicola Pietrangeli, 21-year-old stylist with a bright future.

* * *

The only loss came yesterday when the Italians, with a place in the interzone competition already assured, put Sirola in the singles match against Sweden's top ranking Sven Davidson. He lost 6-2, 8-6, 6-4.

The Italian team will move against sterner opposition, however, in the U.S. It will meet the winner of the Australia-Japan series at Germantown, Pa., Aug. 12-14. And unless there is a great upset it'll be Australia, which meets Japan at Glen Cove, N.Y., this weekend. The Aussies will be heavily favored after their 5-0 sweep over Canada.

SUNDAY'S STARS

BATTING — Ted Williams and Jim Piersall, Red Sox, Williams hit his first grand slam homer since 1951 to help win first game 8-3; Piersall led off ninth with homer to down Detroit in second game 3-2.

PITCHING — Jack Harshman, White Sox, held Washington to two hits, none in last 8 1-3 innings, to win 11-inning first game of doubleheader 3-1.

Packers Trim Six Off Training List

STEVENSP OINT, Wis. (AP) — Green Bay Packers trimmed six football players from their training roster as they put five rookies on waivers yesterday and listed another under voluntary retirement.

The five on waivers are Sammy McWhirter, Houston halfback; Lauren Hargrove, Georgia halfback; Bob Sais, Tulane fullback; Ron Clark, defensive back from Nebraska, and Robert Carter, a tackle from Grambling college in Louisiana.

Ed Godzak, defensive back from Tennessee, was put on the voluntary retirement list.

Bev Hanson Wins Battle Creek Test

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., (AP) — Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., the only player to break par on all three rounds, won the Battle Creek Women's Open Golf Tournament yesterday with a 220 total.

Miss Hanson linked rounds of 74-74-72 on the 6,520-yard par 75 Battle Creek Country Club course for $1,000 first prize money.

Dublinski Is Handed Another Injunction

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Tom Dublinski, Detroit Lions' passer, took a hand-off from U. S. District Court over the weekend in the form of an injunction forbidding him to play Canadian football until after May 1, 1956.

It was the 3rd such court order against the former Detroit quarterback who bolted to Canadian football after the 1954 season.

The Lions have charged the one-time University of Utah star was guilty of breach of contract when he left the United States to seek a spot on the roster of the Toronto Argonauts.

UM, State Games on TV Color Next Fall

NEW YORK (AP)—Michigan and Michigan State will participate in two of four football games to be televised in color by the National Broadcasting Co. next fall.

Games will be the 1st out-of-door athletic events to be televised in color on a network basis.

The games:
Sept. 17—Georgia Tech vs Miami
Oct. 15—Michigan State vs Notre Dame.
Oct. 29—Michigan vs Iowa.
Nov. 26—Army vs. Navy.

BPA's Past Prexy Jack Hagerty Dies

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Jack Hagerty, one of the organizers and a past president of the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, died last night at his home after an illness of several weeks. He was 78.

Cards Hold Tryouts

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals will conduct tryout camps in three Michigan cities next month, Cardinal officials announced today.

Players 17 to 23 years old will be screened at Monroe on Aug. 1-2, at Port Huron Aug. 4-5, and at Battle Creek Aug. 8-9.

Kansas Wins Colorado Test

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) —Jim English, Topeka, Kan., won seven of the first nine holes and breezed to an 8 and 7 victory over Milt Hicks, Palm Springs, Calif., Sunday in the finals of the 34th annual Broadmoor Men's Invitational Golf Tournament.

English, who was nine up at the end of the 18-hole morning round, coasted during the afternoon. He closed out the match on the 29th green with a par four to Hicks' bogey five.

The new Broadmoor champion also is a former Trans-Mississippi, Kansas and Nebraska amateur titleholder.

Hurt Jockeys Get Aid

Jockeys' Guild in 1954 paid out $46,232 for financial and medical aid to injured jockeys, the report shows.

Baseball Brass Confers Today

Bonus Rule Is Among Important Matters at Chicago Confab

CHICAGO (AP) — Baseball's bigwigs hold their annual summer meeting at the Blackstone Hotel today with guns trained on the present bonus rule.

Leaders of both the American and National Leagues are believed ready to eliminate the ruling which requires a team to carry a bonus player for two years and include him within the 25-player limit.

Scheduling matters also will be up for discussion as will be requests made by the players at the All-Star game in Milwaukee.

* * *

The players have asked that the minimum salary be raised from $6,000 to $7,200 and all restrictions be lifted from playing winter baseball. In connection with the bonus rule, the players have suggested that each team be limited to two bonus players and the two should not be counted within the 25-player limit.

Kocsis, Riggan Lose to Kazoo Teen-Agers

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Two Kalamazoo teen-agers won the Kalamazoo Country Club invitational baseball golf tournament yesterday, upsetting defending champions Chuck Kocsis of Detroit and Tyler Riggin of Kalamazoo.

Jim Rock, 16, and Brooks Godfrey, 19, dumped Kocsis and Riggan, 2 up, in the 18-hole championship match.

Rock and Godfrey were last year's runners-up.

Pirate pitcher Wilbur Cooper started two triple plays in 1920.

William White, a Cincinnati pitcher in 1878, was believed to be the first major leaguer to wear glasses.

In four seasons of Big Ten baseball, Michigan State 1st baseman Chuck Mathews compiled a .353 batting average.

Paper Reports Space Satellites Now Being Built

LOS ANGELES (INS)—The Los Angeles Herald-Express says that actual construction of space satellites is already underway in southern California.

The newspaper said that as long as six months ago preparation for these missiles was going on at secret development sites in the southern California area.

The Herald-Express story said:

"Just how far work on satellites has progressed was not revealed but an informed source said southern California plants are 'building satellites at this moment' in this area."

The story said that it was logical that southern California should be the center of activity on satellites. The area is the world capital of astronomy, so vital to a satellite project and is the location of the Palomar Observatory and the California Institute of Technology.

Here Is No. 22

'Bonanzagram'

Have Fun! Win $100!

"Bonanzagram" is an exciting new puzzle in which the Pontiac Press offers both fun and a $100 cash prize. BUT before you try your hand at "Bonanzagram" be sure and read the rules at the bottom of this page. Solution will appear in the Press Aug. 12.

CLAIM CHECK

Below is a duplicate of the "Bonanzagram" entry you send in to contest headquarters. It is ESSENTIAL that you fill it in and save it until the correct solution to "Bonanzagram" No 22 is published Friday, Aug. 12. Unless you do so, you will be unable to collect the prize if you should send in a winning solution. Check the rules below for further details.

Bonanzagram No. 22

Story Clues

Charles H. Ecker was president of General Conveyances, one of the Big Three manufacturers of special automotive vehicles. While vacationing in the White Mountains, he heard that Metropolitan Motors was developing a sensational new competitive design, and he promptly dispatched Bruce Mifflin, his trusted personal assistant, to Metropolitan's home city with instructions to get the lowdown on the new design at any cost. Mifflin, a husky young man not long out of Cambridge Tech, was both resourceful and enterprising, and soon had acquired some interesting information. He dictated a preliminary report by long distance phone to the office, but the connection was not a good one. The substitute secretary, when she had hung up, realized to her dismay that she had not gotten all the words. Knowing the importance of the matter, she sent the message along to C. H., explaining that this was all she could get. The president was able to piece it together from his knowledge of the details of Mifflin's mission. Can you, too, fill in the missing letters and complete the message?

How to Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 9. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, Aug. 9 for Bonanzagram No. 22. Address "Bonanzagram, %, Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p.m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." This letter must reach the Press not later than 5 p.m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly Bonanzagram. If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

Corn Market Lifted by Heat

CHICAGO (AP) — A little timid buying in corn, based largely on continuation of dry weather, lifted that grain fractionally on the Board of Trade today.

Soybeans also were up, gains running to around a cent in some contracts. But the rest of the market could not show any strength. Dealings were slow in all pits.

Corn got off to a very confused start. December corn was up a cent. A couple of other contracts were lower. As trading progressed, this disparity was evened out.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, September $1.98⅞; corn ⅝ to ¾ higher, September $1.36¼; oats ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, September 61½; rye ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, September 99½; soybeans ½ to ¾ higher, September $2.27¾, and lard 3 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $10.65.

Weather was the main factor in the grain market. It produced an argument as far as corn was concerned. Some grainmen insisted this was just the kind of weather —hot and humid—corn needed for best growth.

Six Persons Injured in Telegraph Crash

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A Pontiac woman was hospitalized yesterday, following a two car collision on Telegraph Rd. at Golf Drive, which injured five other persons.

In good condition at Pontiac General Hospital is Mrs. Emma Gilmore, 65, of 385 Prospect.

A passenger in a car driven by Mrs. Viola G. Allison, 46, 543 South Sanford St., Pontiac, she suffered a fractured left arm and six broken ribs. Mrs. Allison received minor injuries.

Others who received first aid were Alice Karagozian, 27, of Detroit and her parents, Michael, 76, and Aznes, 62.

They were passengers in an auto driven by Vincent E. Pellerito, 38, of Detroit, who was also treated.

Mrs. Allison told police her west-bound Golf Drive auto was stopped, waiting for traffic, when a driver on Telegraph stopped and motioned her through. She said she did not see Pellerito's car, which was traveling north on Telegraph Road.

Meeting Is Called to Discuss Bonds

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem has called a meeting for 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Oakland County Jail to discuss a new method of setting bonds on persons charged with misdemeanors.

County police chiefs will attend, as will Sheriff Frank W. Irons.

The new system was devised on recommendation of Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan to provide more rigid control of bond amounts.

Jimmy Roosevelt Named at Gas Dealers Speaker

Cash B. Hawley, vice president of the National Congress of Petroleum Retailers, and general manager of the Retail Gasoline Dealers Association of Michigan revealed that Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif) will head the group of speakers slated to address the NCPR at its 9th annual session to be held at Detroit's Sheraton Cadillac Hotel Aug. 21-26.

Hawley disclosed that approximately 500 delegates representing most of the 48 states and such distant points as Hawaii and the Philipines will attend the 5-day session—the first NCPR meeting in Detroit since it was organized here in 1947.

The new Straits of Mackinac Bridge will cost 100 million dollars to complete.

Kalkaska Choice as New Jet Base Irks Thompson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Ruth Thompson (R-Mich.) is seeking an interview with President Eisenhower to protest the Air Force's selection of Kalkaska County as the site for a multimillion dollar jet fighter base in Michigan.

The Air Force picked two sites in Miss Thompson's district before finally settling on Kalkaska County, which is in the district of Rep. Knox (R-Mich.) In the first instances House committees vetoed the locations, but have approved Kalkaska.

Miss Thompson said she had asked for a White House appointment, and in addition to protesting the Kalkaska site would recommend that Air Secretary Talbott be fired.

Bulgars Deny Report Jets Shot Airliner

ATHENS, Greece—Israel diplomatic representative here has denied reports that the Israeli airliner shot down in Bulgaria was downed by jet fighters.

Bulgaria previously had admitted that her antiaircraft gunners downed the four-engine Constellation near the Greek border Wednesday. Fifty-eight persons, including 12 Americans, died.

* * *

Joel Balki, an El Al Israel Airlines executive, was quoted in reports from Salonika yesterday as saying, "The downing of the airliner obviously was the outcome of a murderous attack perpetrated with beastly coldbloodedness by two Bulgarian MIG-type fighters." Balki, who had just returned from an inspection of the wreckage, reportedly said he noted machine-gun riddled fragments of the plane.

The Israeli diplomat here, Ben Jacov, said the Salonika report was "completely unfounded."

Belgian Turncoats Want Return From Red China

NEW DELHI (AP) — Two Belgian soldiers who picked life in Red China and then decided they wanted to leave have now asked to be repatriated to Belgium, Indian Red Cross officials said today.

One Belgian, Roger Devriendt, originally asked to go to the United States. The other, Louis Verdyck, wanted to go to Laos, Indochina.

The Indian Red Cross — which has been acting as liaison between the Communist Chinese Red Cross and other Red Cross societies — said the Belgians changed their minds about their destinations before arrangements could be completed.

Some scientists believe that lichen, or some similar plant must grow on Mars, says the National Geographic Society.

Market Mixed in Early Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market was mixed today in early dealings.

Most changes were in the smaller fractions, and only a few stocks added or lost more than a point.

Almost all divisions were mixed or steady. Major Motors were higher.

There was a lack of definiteness about the market, and trading was quiet in early stages.

Among initial blocks were Chrysler 1,500 shares up ⅛ at 90½, General Electric 1,600 unchanged at 51¼, Loew's 1,300 up ¼ at 24½, New York Central 1,400 up ¼ at 48½, American Export Lines 1,500 up ⅜ at 19¼, Dow Chemical 1,000 off ⅝ at 53¼, General Dynamics 1,000 unchanged at 57⅞, and General Motors 1,800 up 1⅜ at 138.

The stock market on Friday was slightly lower with the dip coming in the final hour. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 30 cents at $175.50.

Pakistani Money Value Drops in Sterling Worth

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistan has cut the value of its currency, the rupee, almost a third. Formerly valued at 30 U.S. cents, it was marked down yesterday to 21 cents.

The change brings the rupee down to par with currencies of most of the other sterling bloc countries. When Britain devalued the pound in September 1949, Pakistan's exports to the dollar area were booming and the Karachi government did not go along with other Commonwealth members.

A government press note on the change explained the Pakistanis hope to pick up more foreign customers for their increasing production of manufactured goods.

Resume Contract Talks

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers resume contract talks today after the first weekend session since they started June 27. Company and Union negotiators, reportedly anxious to settle well ahead of the Aug. 31 deadline, met Saturday but no developments were reported.

Detroit Teenager Saves Baby's Life by Quick Action

DETROIT (AP) — Four-year-old Peggy Jenno playfully pushed out a second story window screen in an apartment house yesterday and plunged to the sidewalk.

But before she landed, Barbara Powroznik, 18, broke the little girl's fall with her outstretched arms. Barbara, returning from a store, had noticed that Peggy was about to fall and had shouted to her to "get back."

But when Peggy ignored her warning, Barbara dropped a shopping bag full of bottles of pop and dashed beneath the window. Little Peggy suffered only a cut on the forehead.

Barbara modestly accepted credit for saving the child's life and a promise of a police citation for heroism.

Summerfield Predicts 1955 as 'Great Year'

PINCONNING (AP) — Postmaster General Summerfield predicts 1955 will go down as "the greatest year in the history of our national economy."

"This peacetime prosperity is a platform from which to advance rapidly and far," he added Saturday at the dedication of a new post office in this Saginaw Bay community—his birthplace.

Summerfield, whose father was Pinconning's first rural mail carrier, also said a 500 billion dollar national economy for 1956 as planned by the administration "is only a minimum goal."

Southfield Votes Out of Twelve Towns Drain District

Board Accepts County Proposal

Storm Waters Will Be Diverted Westward to Evans Drain

SOUTHFIELD—Southfield Township board members, after discussing the Southfield drain system with Oakland County Drain Commission members in a recent special meeting, voted to accept the proposal of the Oakland County Drain Commission.

This would take Southfield out of the Twelve Towns Drain District, except for a small area, and Southfield storm waters will be diverted westward to the Evans Drain.

Drain commissioners Hon Ringler and Bill Pemberton pointed out that the cost of providing relief for 3775 acres in the proposed drain would cost $1,081 per acre, whereas the cost to the township in the Twelve Town Drain district would approximate $1,950 per acre, providing relief for only 1450 acres.

The accepted county drain would cost Southfield $4,080,775 for 3775 acres, at the $1,081 figure.

Also, in the special meeting, Howard DeMeyer was named to fill the vacancy on the Southfield Township board, left when Eugene Swem was named supervisor after the death of William Roeser.

Another resignation on the board, effective today, is that of Mrs. Margaret Bradbury, who is moving to Florida. This vacancy will most likely be filled at the next meeting, Fannie Adams, township clerk and board member said.

Chrisman - Omey Rites Held at Orchard Lake

ORCHARD LAKE—Robert Dale Chrisman claimed Carolee Omey as his bride in a service at the Orchard Lake Community Presbyterian Church Saturday.

The couple exchanged their vows in an 8 p.m. double ring ceremony before 300 guests, with the Rev. Barney D. Roepcke officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Omey of 3551 Shady Beach Blvd., West Bloomfield Township. Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Chrisman of 2921 Auburn Ave., Auburn Heights are the parents of the bridegroom.

A floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over bridal satin was the bride's choice for the ceremony. The lace bodice was studded in iridescent sequins and pearls, with a crystal pleated rounding neckline.

The skirt of iridescent sequins and pearls swept into a cathedral train. A tiara of sequins and pearls held a fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Janet Sue Omey, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Harold Londy, sister of the bride, Mrs. James Omey, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Carl Chrisman Jr., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids.

Carl Chrisman Jr. served his brother as best man, and Louis Freeman, James Omey, brother of the bride, Robert Dodd and Jack Herrington were ushers.

Approximately 300 guests attended the reception which followed the ceremony at the West Bloomfield Township hall.

After a trip through western states, the couple will live at Lake Orion.

Summer Program Closes With Picnic

AVONDALE—The summer recreation program closes here Thursday after nine weeks of operation with a picnic - swim at Walled Lake Park, from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

Program Director Lawrence Scharer said three buses will make the usual stops in picking up the children. About 2,000 youngsters have been taken to lakes since June 10, Scharer said. Not one injury or accident has been reported during the nine-week period.

California farmers raised 9,998,999 turkeys in 1954—more than any other state.

Plant at Vassar Resumes Work

Foundry on Liquidation's Brink Is Producing as Workers Take Pay Cut

VASSAR (AP)—The Eaton Manufacturing Co.'s iron foundry resumes limited production today after teetering on the brink of liquidation.

The company had threatened in May to close the plant because of labor costs. Eaton said its $2.67 average hourly wage was out of line with the area foundry average. The company board of directors approved liquidation but rescinded the order when plant workers offered to take a wage slash.

To save their jobs—and the economy of this small Tuscola County community (pop. 2,530)—525 AFL United Auto Workers agreed to a 62½ cent hourly pay cut.

Only 210 workers had orders to report today. Paul Olson, assistant general manager, said another 90 will be called back next week. The others, on layoff notice, will have to wait for business to grow, he said.

The plant, which makes castings for the automotive industry and other heavy manufacturers, has been shut down since June 30 for what the company called "annual vacations and business readjustments.

The foundry pours an estimated five million dollars a year into Vassar's economy.

Owner to Avoid Glutting Market

O'Neil of General Tire Announces Plans for Theater Films

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Many years ago in Africa a man was tipped to the existence of gold on the lands of a coffee plantation. He bought the land and ascertained the gold was there. People were surprised when he continued to grow coffee and proved in no haste to mine the gold. But there's money in coffee. And the gold was still there.

Something like that has happened in the sale of RKO Radio Pictures to General Tire and Rubber Co. through its subsidiary General Teleradio, Inc., for 25 million dollars.

* * *

General Teleradio is a potent organization in radio and television. It owns the Mutual Broadcasting System, the world's largest radio network; two influential regional networks, the Don Lee System on the West Coast and the Yankee Network in New England; five TV stations, six major radio stations, and a highly successful film subsidiary. When it acquired RKO, everybody agreed its purpose was to mine the gold: a rich lode of several hundred films which it could sell to television outlets at a handsome profit.

* * *

Now the president of General Teleradio and new board chairman of RKO, tall, broad-browed Thomas F. O'Neil, says, in effect, that he'll continue growing coffee on the ROK plantation.

At a news conference a couple of days ago he said RKO will continue to produce—and even increase its production of motion pictures for theater release. And what about that lode of 800 RKO films for television release? Eventually that will be tapped, he said.

* * *

"By eventually," he said, "we mean we won't push as hard toward TV as we expected at first."

O'Neil's basic reason in going slow appears to be simply good business sense. He's goin to unload those films slowly, taking care not to glut a valuable market. For the law of supply and demand operates as inexorably in the movies-for-TV market as everywhere else.

Canadian Teener Youngest Person to Swim Channel

DOVER, England, (AP)—As fresh as she had just completed a dip in her neighborhood pool, Marilyn Bell, 17-year-old Toronto schoolgirl, basked in the limelight of the British Isles today.

* * *

The youngest person ever to swim the English Channel, Marilyn stumbled out of the surf yesterday to be greeted by Florence Chadwick, who holds the women's time record for channel crossings.

"I'm very happy," she said.

None the worse for wear, she simply seemed tired and was placed under the care of a physician.

* * *

Marilyn never was in trouble, although thousands of spectators moaned in unison when she was caught by the tricky current a few miles from Dover.

Her time was 14 hours 36 minutes. Brenda Fisher of England holds the east-west record of 12 hours 43 minutes. Miss Chadwick, who already has swum the difficult stretch of water three times, holds the west-east mark of 14 hours 42 minutes.

The channel is only 21 miles at the narrowest spot, but the tides are treacherous.

Readers Fail to Supply Wilson With Similes

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD—"I am disappointed in your readers," a fellow said to me in Dave Chasen's last night.

"They are the smartest, handsomest, beautifulest readers in the world," I replied, proudly. "Sometimes!"

"My beef is that they've not sent you in very many good smiles," this fellow continued. "You've printed some very milk-soppy ones."

And he mentioned some real smiles: "Happy as a 3-year-old kid with a bottle of mucilage," by Don Marquis; "Husbands are like motor cars: all are good the first year," by Channing Pollock; "Sad as the sunless sea," by F.P.A.; "Quiet as a woman the first day and a half after she's married," by Beaumont and Fletcher; "Pretty as a diamond flush," Alfred Henry Lewis.

"But those are classics," I said. "You can't hardly get them kind no more."

"Now you're knocking the modern writers," he snorted. "Saying they can't write decent smiles!"

"I didn't say that," I retorted. "Maybe they don't want to."

JOKES

"Now you're knocking Francis Bacon!" he said. "He had a good one 'Money is like manure; of very little use unless it be spread.' But they don't have to be funny, you know. One I remember—can't recall the author was 'Light as fairy footsteps.'"

And he added, "Then there was one by LaGalliene, 'As monotonous as mutton.'"

"Not bad," I admitted. "Howabout these: 'He slept like a night watchman'? 'His kisses were like tonsillectomies.' 'As neat as a cuspidor at the Elks.' 'About as wild as having a date with your sister.'

I paused for him to appreciate them and added that they'd been sent in by some people I knew rather well.

"Very bad," replied my friend. "Where'd you get such a collection of nothing?"

"Just some things that came in in my heavy fan mail," I said. "I sort of liked them."

"Sounds like something you might have written," he said.

Now how did he know?

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Steve Allen is being asked by Universal to make a straight dramatic film in New York in the fall . . . Simone Silva, who took those pictures with Rob't Mitchum, turned down a $3,500-a-week bid to become a stripper . . . Is United Artists talking about buying RKO's studio facilities?

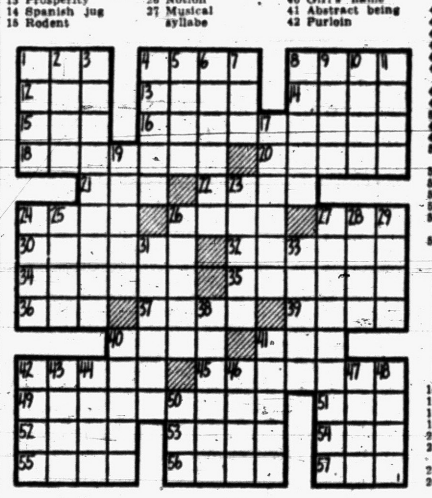

PEGGY ANN

Julius LaRosa, who moved into a swank Sutton Place apt., filled it with recording equipment . . . Peggy Ann Green, a dancer, joined the big show at The Versailles.

Margaret Truman's escort at Ella Fitzgerald's big Basin Street opening was Harold Arlen . . . Ethiopia will get its first race track this winter, for its trade fair . . . Edith Piaf, a hit in Hollywood's Mocambo, has a slim wardrobe—one black dress at $28 . . . The Ted ("Is everybody happy?") Lewises mark their 40th ann'y this fall.

Johnnie Ray spent his day off singing for free at the Concord's bar . . . A new hillbilly tune is called, "Who Will Princess Margaret Marry?" That's earl, brother.

Doll Manufacturer Sends Ike Apologies

NEW YORK, (AP)—Doll manufacturer David Rosenstein has sent apologies to President Eisenhower for a protest over the President's purchase of Swiss dolls for his grandchildren.

* * *

Rosenstein, president of the National Doll Manufacturers Assn., said yesterday the complaint, sent out under his name, was the work of an overzealous press agent. Rosenstein said he had not authorized the publicity release, and his personal feelings are exactly opposite to what it said.

The release sent to news media had quoted Rosenstein as saying the entire American doll industry was "shocked" by the President's purchase of Swiss-made dolls while in Geneva for the Big Four conference.

* * *

Actually, Rosenstein said, he was flattered by the President's choice of dolls as gifts and he himself had bought dolls at the same shop in Geneva during one of his visits there.

Allied War Maneuvers Begin Off Greek Coast

NAPLES, Italy, (AP)—Air, land and sea forces of the Atlantic Allies began large-scale exercises today to test the defenses of northern Greece and adjacent sea areas.

NATO Headquarters for Southern Europe here announced that at dawn the defense test began against "enemy" forces from the north.

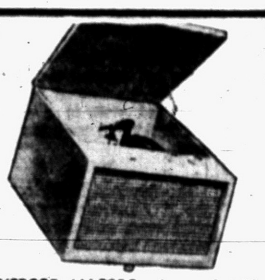

Northern Greece is a strategically important area since it borders Communist Bulgaria and Albania. It was just across that sensitive border that Bulgarians shot down an Israeli airliner last week, killing all 58 persons aboard.

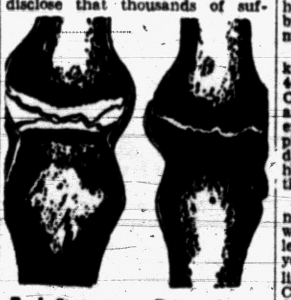

The Berbers of Morocco, who regard the bitter flesh of the argan as inedible, press the pits for cooking oil. Goats, which enjoy the olive-like argan, often climb 20 feet into a tree to reach the fruit.

Burglar Chased Away by Irate Governor

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—California's Gov. Goodwin Knight frightened off a burglar he caught prowling in the Miramar Hotel cottage in which he and his wife were sleeping yesterday, police reported.

Knight told reporters the prowler fled through an open door when he shouted, "I'll get you."

Mrs. Knight said she awoke to see a "round white face about four feet away." She called police while her husband jumped from the bed.

The Governor said nothing was missing. The only damage was an overturned chair and a drinking glass which was broken by the prowler on his way out.

Stassen Plans Halt in Making Atomic Weapons

NEW YORK, (AP)—The New York Times said today Harold E. Stassen, President Eisenhower's special assistant for disarmament, has drafted a radical new plan calling for a halt in the making of atomic weapons.

* * *

The Times dispatch from United Nations headquarters said Stassen is trying to overcome objections to his plan by the Pentagon and State Department so he can present it to the five-nation subcommittee of the U.N. Disarmament Commission. The subcommittee resumes sessions at the U.N. Aug. 29, under a directive issued by the Big Four at the summit talks in Geneva.

A complete halt to the production of atomic and hydrogen bombs as well as to further H-bomb tests.

* * *

Simultaneous establishment of an "early warning system," with international inspectors stationed at the world's leading ports, airfields and other centers.

Reduction of nonatomic forces under a schedule still to be completed by Stassen and his aides.

Papa Delivers Son on Mama's Birthday

DETROIT, (AP)—Sunday was Mrs. Bernadine Reed's birthday and she got the surprise of her life—a daughter.

Mrs. Reed wasn't expecting until about Thursday. But things happened so fast she made it only to the front porch of her home. She knew it was too late to make it to a hospital so her husband, William, 23, carried her back inside and put her on a sofa.

Reed called the doctor. His borther-in-law, Allen Kraffa, then took over the telephone and relayed instructions to Reed, who delivered a six-pound, ten-ounce girl.

There were no complications.

"My wife said it was the easiest birth she has had," Reed boasted. The Reeds have two small boys.

"I think every father should be able to see his child born," Reed commented. "But I wouldn't recommend that he deliver it."

Herbert Hoover Canceled Meetings to End Abuses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover says that in trying to cut down on the amount of his official handshaking he took a step which turned out to be "very foolish."

He was always of the opinion that a president has too much handshaking to do, he said in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report.

"I carried out two revolutions in that direction," he said. "George Washington established the unfortunate habit of giving a New Year's reception to the entire population.

* * *

"He is said to have shaken hands with about 120 people at his first reception. I had 11,000 come to my first New Year's reception. Therefore I decided that reception had to be abolished.

"President Theodore Roosevelt had established the custom that at 12 o'clock each day he would shake hands with anybody who'd come. That only involved a few people at the start, but it rose to 2,000 in my time.

"That is quite a handshaking job, and it was right in the middle of the work day. I took several immediate steps. One of them was very foolish.

* * *

"I ordered that these callers must have an introduction from a congressman, a senator or some responsible person. Immediately the congressmen and senators used it as an occasion to entertain their guests from home.

"So, I had to abolish that reception. I do not believe presidents have those two fixed affairs any more."

U.S. Farmers Ask for More Tours in Russia

KRASNODAR, U.S.S.R., (AP)—The touring American farmers are having a hard time convincing their Russian hosts they came to see the Soviet Union's farms, not to eat and drink to overcapacity.

* * *

Worn out from the huge quantities of food and vodka with which they have been entertained everywhere, the Americans asked on arrival in the Koban farm lands Saturday that they be spared the vodka. They got champagne instead.

Yesterday they amazed their hosts by insisting they be shown some farms instead of making a scheduled visit to a champagne bottling works and another long lunch.

* * *

The Russians finally agreed and the 12 Americans toured several neighboring collective farms. The visitors reportedly found these farms less impressive than the ones at which they've been expected.

Zhukov Tells Troops to Evacuate Austria

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov has ordered 44,000 Russian occupation troops to leave Austria by Oct. 1 — a month ahead of their deadline.

* * *

Marshal Zhukov, wartime friend of President Eisenhower, announced the decision in an order of the day yesterday. He also said Russia's huge armed forces would be reduced by the number pulled out of Austria, in keeping with a Soviet proposal at the summit conference that all four occupation powers cut their forces by the number evacuated from Austria.

* * *

The Russian order came just four days after the effective date of the Austrian Independence Treaty. Under that pact, all four occupying powers — the United States, Britain, France, and Russia — are required to remove their troops within 90 days.
