Fourth-of-July Weekend Toll: 30 in State

720 Lives Lost in U.S. During 102-Hour Period Starting 6 P.M., July 3

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan's long Fourth of July weekend traffic toll, apparently held down in closing hours by slow-moving traffic on jammed highways, totaled 19 today as traffic returned to normal for the first time since Wednesday.

But sultry weather which beckoned thousands to water led to 11 drownings.

State police said although traffic was heavy Sunday night with vacationers returning home, no major snarls developed.

No deaths due to Sunday traffic accidents were reported.

State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs had predicted 35 persons would die accidental deaths during the weekend which started at 6 p.m. Wednesday and lasted through midnight Sunday.

More than 700 persons were killed across the country in violent accidents during the long Independence Day holiday period. Traffic deaths, far below the predicted 535, led the staggering toll.

The count for the 102-hour period from 6 p.m. July 3 to last midnight showed 423 persons lost their lives in motor vehicle accidents.

Drownings took 205 lives and miscellaneous accidents 99, for an over-all total of 727.

Later reports were expected to boost the total.

The highway fatalities compared with the record traffic toll for a Fourth of July period of 491 set during the four-day holiday in 1955.

The National Safety Council, in a preholiday statement, had estimated this year's toll would reach 535.

The over-all total compared with 805 accidental deaths in a three-day Fourth of July holiday observance in 1955, a record for the period. The all-time record in accidents of all types is 884, set during a four-day Christmas holiday period in 1956. The total included 706 traffic fatalities, also an all-time high for any holiday.

The traffic toll for the one-day observance last Fourth of July was 137. Seventy-seven persons drowned and 39 others were killed in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 253.

This year's traffic total compared with 378 recorded during a nonholiday period last month, covering 102 hours from 6 p.m. Wednesday, June 19, to midnight, Sunday, June 23.

Six-Inch Rain Swamps State, Flattens Crops

Detroit Suffers Worst Traffic Jam in History; 14,000 Phones Dead

Torrential rains that measured up to six inches all but swamped sections of Lower Michigan today after a night of violent thunderstorms and 50-mile winds.

Crops were flattened by wind and hail in much of the storm-hit area which extended from Grand Rapids to Bad Axe and south to Kalamazoo and Toledo.

Detroit suffered what was described by police as its worst traffic jam in history. Rain flooded underpasses and blocked the Motor City's expressways, trapping more than 100,000 cars.

Thousands were late to work and unable to call in as telephone service was disrupted by soaked underground cables.

Civil Service Board Promises Police Probe

The controversial affairs of the Pontiac Police Dept. will be investigated "within the month," Theodore O. Carlson, chairman of the Civil Service Commission said this morning.

He said such an investigation has been delayed pending drafting of civil service regulations to govern city policemen. He said the hearing of suspended Patrolman Louis Romeos has also been a factor in the delay.

Carlson agreed that there is a need for a probe of the department. "We (civil service commissioners) will perform the investigation to satisfy the public as to what is wrong, if anything," he said.

Carlson stressed that the Police Officers Assn. has not submitted any formal charges against Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Association members since May have been sparking a drive to remove Straley from the office he has held since 1951. They charge there are irregularities in the performance of his duty.

Both Straley and the association said they would welcome an investigation.

In an editorial a week ago, The Press called for such a probe. It was the concensus of city commissioners and City Manager Walter K. Willman that such a probe should rest with the newly appointed Civil Service Commission. Pontiac voters in April approved civil service for city policemen.

Carlson said he agreed with Willman that most of the squabbling between Straley and the association stems from a "clash of personalities."

"I agree also that there seems to be some incompatibility among the officers and some lack of efficiency in the department," the chairman stated.

Was One of the Most Gracious First Ladies

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge Dies at 78

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—Grace Goodhue Coolidge, 78, widow of Calvin Coolidge, 30th president of the United States, died early today at her home.

A physician said heart disease and a general weakening condition was the cause of death.

Mrs. Coolidge had been in a hospital twice in the past year, returning home last March 7.

Her son, John, was at her residence when she died at 12:50 a.m. He had stopped there last night while en route from Vermont to his Farmington, Conn., home with his family.

After taking his family to Connecticut, John returned to be with his mother who had been under constant nurses' care for months.

BURIAL IN PLYMOUTH

Burial will be in Plymouth, Vt., where her husband and a son, Calvin Jr., who died at age 16, are interred.

The former first lady was termed by her friends and admirers as the most self-effacing first lady ever to occupy the White House.

Born Grace Goodhue in Burlington, Vt., on Jan. 3, 1879, Mrs. Coolidge earned the affection of the White House.

Her father was a Democrat, Capt. Andrew I. Goodhue, who was appointed by President Grover Cleveland as Lake Champlain steamboat inspector.

She was graduated from the University of Vermont and then went to Northampton, Mass., where she taught three years at the Clarke School for the Deaf. All her life she kept up her interest in the activities of the school.

While in Northampton she met young Calvin Coolidge, also a native of Vermont. He had come to Massachusetts to study law at Amherst College and had stayed to open a law office in Northampton.

While he was struggling to get a legal toehold, he found time to be a steadfast wooer. His father, Col. John Coolidge, approved the match, and so did Capt. and Mrs. Goodhue, then living in Burlington, Vt.

MRS. COOLIDGE

It was a quiet home wedding in Burlington on Oct. 4, 1905. Only a few friends attended the Congregational ceremony. She was 26; he was 33.

Mrs. Coolidge later used to tell with a chuckle about their honeymoon. It was supposed to have been a two-week trip to Montreal, but "Silent Cal" cut it in half so he could rush back to Northampton to participate in a political campaign.

10-ROOM HOME

They moved into a furnished house in Northampton. Later, they set up housekeeping in half of the double house on Massassoit street, which they occupied until the purchase of the 10-room brick home

Tigers' Bunning All-Star Choice

Manager Casey Stengel Names Detroit Pitcher Tuesday Starter

ST. LOUIS (INS) — Manager Casey Stengel today named righthander Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers as the starting pitcher for the American League in tomorrow's All-Star game.

National League manager Walter Alston designated Philadelphia Phillie southpaw Curt Simmons as his league's opening choice to thwart the AL's heavy-hitting lefty swingers.

The wily American League skipper said he picked a righthander because of the heavy concentration of righthanded power in the National League lineup.

The 25-year-old Bunning has a 10-2 record with the Tigers this year while Simmons has an 8-4 mark with the Phillies.

Stengel said he was likely to follow Bunning with righthander Billy Loes of the Baltimore Orioles and use southpaws Billy Pierce of the White Sox and Bobby Shantz of the Yankees for "spot" work.

Additional Rains May Tax Drains, Officials Fear

Severe Electric Storm Batters County Early This Morning

Additional rain since the barrage of lightning and hail lashed the area from 4 to 5 a.m. this morning was swelling drains to a dangerous point, officials feared, as reports of flooded basements began mounting towards mid-morning.

Today's downpour was falling on top of 2.5 inches of rain recorded by 8 a.m. this morning. In addition, there were predictions that a new thunderstorm attack late this afternoon or tonight would bring additional rain to the water-logged area.

Throughout the area streets were flooded, power and telephone service disrupted, and basements leaking.

★ ★ ★

Lightning caused minor damage to several homes, none in Pontiac. No serious injuries were reported, although one Farmington man was injured when lightning struck his bedroom.

★ ★ ★

Traffic was snarled early this morning on Dixie Highway as several inches of water slowed cars between Drayton Plains and Pontiac. In Southfield Township, heavy traffic floundered in water in the Southfield road - Telegraph road-Eight Mile road area.

Flooded basements were reported in about 25 Pontiac homes, located mostly along the Pontiac Creek and the Clinton River near Paddock street.

Lightning and steady winds up to 50 miles an hour felled numerous trees, some of them blocking traffic on county roads. No tornadoes were reported.

The storm was part of a huge electrical display that covered all of Southern Michigan and most of the Upper Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes region.

Lightning that stabbed at the area between 4 and 4:30 a.m. started two home fires in Farmington and three in Bloomfield Township.

WIRES DOWNED

Pontiac firemen were busy as Detroit Edison wires were downed in three places, at Brooklyn avenue and Stanley avenue; Oakland avenue and the Grand Trunk Railroad viaduct and on Fourth street.

Lightning caused scattered damage to telephone and power lines. Bell Telephone estimated about 500 homes were affected. Detroit Edison said disrupted service was concentrated in Pontiac, but there was no estimate yet of the number of homes without power.

Mackie Must Decide on Major Highways

While most citizens think of traffic problems in terms of a few minutes lost in a traffic jam, newly elected State Highway Commissioner John Mackie is faced with a multi-million dollar traffic headache right here in Oakland County.

Mackie must decide whether the toll road or free state highway plan for connecting the Detroit and Pontiac areas with northern Michigan will get the green light—and then to convince Oakland county residents that the move is the right move.

South Will Talk Bill to Death

Rights Filibuster — What It Means, How It Works

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is an ABC on the Southern filibuster shaping up in the Senate against the civil rights bill which the Eisenhower administration says is intended to protect Negroes' voting rights in the South.

Southerners say it is so "cunningly" written it could be used to force racial integration. A filibuster's purpose is to prevent passage of a bill by talking against it until its supporters give up.

Southerners can make two filibusters: (1) against a motion to bring up the bill and, if they lose on this, then (2) against the bill itself. They will probably make their main pitch on the second. It's less exhausting.

There are two ways to break a filibuster:

1. By keeping the Senate in session around the clock until the Southerners are worn out. They could keep going for months if they were allowed to go home every night at 5 o'clock.

2. By invoking cloture, which means voting to shut off debate. This can be done only on a two-thirds vote of the full Senate: 64 of the 96 members. It's hard to get. Some of those outside the South may want to filibuster someday.

WARMUP FOR A WEEK

For perhaps a week, as a warm-up, Southerners may filibuster against a motion to bring up the bill. You can see why this, if the Southerners tried to go all-out, is exhausting:

On a filibuster against a motion each senator is limited to two speeches. About 20 Southerners are expected to take part in the filibuster. If they wanted to talk against the motion itself for weeks then—

Each in turn would have to talk until he was literally ready to drop, not once but twice. And all the time he talked a senator would have to be on his feet. If he sat down to rest he'd lose the floor and his speech would be over.

If the Southerners try a full-blown filibuster against the motion, Sen. Knowland of California, Senate Republican leader, may try to kill it by wearing them out in around-the-clock session.

He could probably force such a session, since it requires only a majority vote and not the hard-to-get two-thirds vote which is necessary to shut off debate.

If, under the punishing pressure of endless sessions, the Southerners abandoned their fight against the motion to bring up the bill, then the bill itself would be up for debate.

A brand new filibuster — this time against the bill itself—could start. From a physical standpoint this could be easier on the Southerners for a number of reasons.

Any senator could offer as many amendments to the bill as he wished. Each amendment is debatable. And each senator is allowed two speeches on each amendment.

The amendments don't have to be germane — that is, they don't have to deal with civil rights. But the Southerners will probably offer germane amendments, dozens of them.

They want the bill killed. Failing that, they want it so amended it will have no teeth and be practically meaningless. Supporters of the bill couldn't hope to shut off debate on a single amendment merely by a motion to do so.

Debate on an amendment can't be stopped except by unanimous consent. One Southern "no" would finish such a move. But there is another way to end debate on an amendment: that's through a motion to table it, or shove it aside.

★ ★ ★

That requires a simple majority vote. Before there could be a vote, a quorum of senators would have to be present. A quorum is 48. So there'd have to be a quorum call. Senators could use up a couple of hours drifting in to answer this call. More time would be used in voting.

Many Areas in County Hit by Flood Waters

In the Washington Park area, electric current was cut off between 4:20 a.m. and 6:30 a.m.

Several residents of the Whitfield subdivision, off Williams Lake road in Waterford Township, vacated their homes by row boat this morning. Township firemen said 15 homes in the area had been flooded.

All available pumping equipment was being used to remove flooding waters from the low area, they said.

Elsewhere in the township, water was backing up into basements. Overloading and flooding were reported in the Huron Gardens subdivision on Elizabeth Lake road.

PLANT FLOODED

The sewer pumping plant in the Lorraine Manor subdivision was flooded, although pumping was not affected.

The storm knocked out power in the Cherokee Hills subdivision at Elizabeth Lake and Scott Lake roads.

The Farmington man, Arnold Chapala, 19, of 20941 Dunkirk St., was reported in good condition at Detroit Receiving Hospital. He suffered temporary partial paralysis when lightning struck as he was closing his bedroom window to keep out the rain about 4:30 a.m.

Chapalla said he was thrown across the room by the impact, his head striking a hole in the wall opposite the window.

Lightning killed eight cows of a farmer, Ferris Walker, who lives about two miles west of Davisburg.

In Lake Orion, all the windows in the home of William Gatlon, 4351 Lakeview St. were smashed as a lightning bolt struck nearby with such force that Gatlon's front cement steps were jarred four feet away from his home.

An Orion Township man, Rex Cobb, of 4901 Jamm Rd. reported a freak accident when the storm caused the lights of his tractor to turn on as it was standing unused in the middle of a field.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a. m. was 65. At 2 p.m. the mercury registered 74.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

What is a line squall? What is the difference in a line squall and a front? What weather can be expected to follow a line squall?

A line squall, weather talk the early sailors used many years ago, is in reality a front, or the outer edge of an approaching cold front. The line squall cloud, as it's properly called, is not the source of the rain and lightning which may follow, but the product of the tall cloud behind it.

The line cloud in front of a front is formed by the warm air which is drawn up vertically as the cold air mass approaches. As it reaches the cloudform line, it turns into the line squall cloud. On the ground, or at sea, you might notice that the wind under this line squall cloud is from a different direction than under the cumulous cloud that follows it.

If you face into the wind just before the squall line moves over you, you can guess the direction of the wind, in the storm behind, pretty well—it will be from your right. A line squall brings short rainy, stormy weather and then clearing weather. The cold front, you will recall, passes through quickly, unlike the rainy warm front, which moves slower.

Moscow Warning to West: Don't Expect Concessions

LONDON (AP) — Western diplomats looked to the London disarmament talks, continuing today, for evidence of a possible shift in Soviet policy in the wake of the shakeup in the Kremlin. But Moscow radio warned the West not to expect concessions.

"If anyone in the U.S.A. thinks that the U.S.S.R. is going to make concessions to the West and that Washington need do nothing except to accept or reject them, he is mistaken," said the Soviet broadcast, just before the talks were to resume after a weekend recess.

"The U.S.S.R. has gone far enough in meeting the U.S.A. in the matter of disarmament to hope for some concessions in return," the broadcast declared.

The broadcast said the purge of V. M. Molotov, Lazar M. Kaganovich and Georgi Malenkov and the emergence of Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev as undisputed Russian strong man would have no effect on the negotiations because the ousted leaders did not determine Soviet policy.

Moscow radio said it is still up to the Western powers "to make some move to meet the U.S.S.R. on the disarmament issue."

Stassen has pictured the U.S. plan for an arms reduction treaty as containing concessions to the Russians. Still to be presented this week is a revised U.S. offer for aerial inspection designed to guard against surprise attack.

In the past two weeks, the U.S. delegate put forward proposals for reduction of conventional arms and troops, a 10-month suspension of nuclear tests, an eventual halt in production of nuclear arms and the dismantling for peaceful use of a portion of the present U.S. and Soviet nuclear weapon stockpiles. The proposals are coupled with an inspection system to prevent violations, with each dependent on acceptance of the others.

★ ★ ★

The Russians had already presented their own proposals for reducing the levels of the major powers' armed forces and nonnuclear weapons, although the numbers involved and the methods to be used are different. They have not given any indication, however, that they are willing to end production of nuclear weapons and accept the inspection system deemed necessary by the West.

On Civil Rights

Debate Opens

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate squares away today for a long, wearing, politically explosive battle over President Eisenhower's civil rights program.

Southern foes of the legislation, passed by the House last month, stood ready to attack the moment Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California moves to take it up for consideration.

They could try to talk his motion to death, but indications were that they would hold back their powerful filibuster weapon until the bill is actually before the Senate.

Knowland said he hopes for a vote on his motion before the end of this week, although he expects debate on the bill itself to run on for several weeks and delay adjournment of Congress until mid-September.

Sen. Ervin (D-NC), scheduled to lead off the debate for the Dixie forces, disputed Knowland's contention that it would be reasonable to expect action on the motion within a week.

He said he and other Southerners wanted to try to make clear "what is in this bill."

Two persons were injured in Detroit, one of them 19-year-old Arnold Chapala of Farmington who was struck by lightning. Another man, Omar Ferguson, 76, was found unconscious floating in three feet of water in Ecorse Township. He was reported in critical condition.

The weather bureau said the rain would be followed by cooler weather. It said the rain would end tonight.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reported 14,000 phones were out of service, 5,000 alone in the Saginaw area and 6,000 in Detroit.

At Flint, 3.3 inches of rain fell up to 7 a.m. and was expected to go over four inches by noon. Basements were flooded and streets blocked in the city. Lightning knocked the Consumer Power Co. substation at Lake Fenton out of service for several hours.

At Mt. Pleasant, streets were flooded curb to curb. Ambulances had to take roundabout back road detours to reach the city's hospital. Traffic on U. S. 27 was rerouted between Clare and Mt. Pleasant by washouts and flooding.

Truman Library Opened Briefly; Closed for Work

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—The Truman Memorial Library and museum, opened briefly yesterday to the public after Saturday dedication ceremonies, is being closed until Sept. 1.

"There is still the task of cataloguing Mr. Truman's official papers," Dr. Wayne C. Grover, government archivist, explained. Additional exhibits are to be set up, some finish work remains to be done in the Oval Room and there is landscaping left to do, he said.

An estimated Sunday throng of 6,000 sauntered through the half-moon-shaped structure, transferred to government stewardship by a group of donors who built it at a cost of 1¾ million dollars.

Former President Harry S. Truman, in whose name the library was dedicated, acted as host at Saturday's ceremony, attended by 10,000 persons.

Contents of the library and museum, including several historical documents, are valued at 21 million dollars.

Truman said in a television interview that future historians would uncover some surprises among the 3½ million papers that record his eight years in office (1945-52).

★ ★ ★

Many of them, he explained, are being withheld from public scrutiny because "we don't want to do harm to anybody."

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge Dies in New England

Mrs. Coolidge got along with one maid at the Massassoit St. house where her sons, John and Calvin, were born. She helped with the family housework and mended the family clothes.

While Coolidge was governor of Massachusetts (1916-1919) Mrs. Coolidge remained at home looking after her two growing boys. John is now an official of the Hartford Railroad. Young Calvin died while the Coolidges were in the White House.

In Washington, while Coolidge was vice president and the official "diner-outer" for the Harding Administration, Mrs. Coolidge won her way into the hearts of Washington people.

The former Massachusetts school teacher lived easily in her exacting role. Then came the tragic death of President Harding, and the Coolidges moved into the White House.

She was happy in Washington. "I would be content anywhere in the world," she once said.

She did not care much for the movies or the theater, but loved to read. She also was a strong rooter for the Boston Red Sox and every year received a season pass.

After her husband's death she attended games in Boston and several World Series games in New York until 1952, when she suffered a serious heart attack.

In later years she sold "The Beeches" where Coolidge died Jan. 3, 1933. She purchased a smaller white brick home nearby and gave it the name "Road Forks."

Mrs. Coolidge often was asked if the legends and anecdotes about her husband were true, and she replied: "The best stories are true."

FAVORITE STORY

The story she liked most was about his report of a sermon he heard one Sunday when she had been unable to go to services.

"I asked him," she recounted, "if he heard a good sermon. He replied 'Yes.' 'What was it about?' I asked. 'Sin,' said the late President.

"What did the minister say about it?" I persisted.

"My husband replied, 'He was against it'."

Mrs. Coolidge said the ex-President in his final years grew worried about the future course of the world. She admitted he once remained silent for two months, explaining:

"For almost a quarter of a century she has borne with my infirmities and I have rejoiced in her graces."

Two Teenagers Injured in Scooter Accident

Two Waterford Township teenagers were injured Saturday when the motor scooter they were riding ran off the road, hitting a guard rail.

Thomas Dion, 15, of 3540 Dill Rd., told deputies the scooter was going too fast and he lost control, leaving Sashabaw Road about one-half mile north of Walton Boulevard, in Waterford Township.

Dion, and his companion, Delores Kay Grant, 14, of 3836 W. Walton Blvd., were treated for minor injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Billy's Crusade Taken to Park

Listeners Hear Graham and Relax in Shade or Along Sunny Mall

The evangelist returned to Madison Square Garden in the evening for his regular service. He spoke to a capacity audience of 19,200, including 700 standees.

★ ★ ★

There will be no service tonight so Graham can get some rest.

In Central Park, Graham's listeners sat in the hot sun in the mall or stood in the shade under the trees during the hourlong program.

His sermon was on the theme of love and God. His text was: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

★ ★ ★

More than 200 persons filed to the bandstand after the sermon to make "decisions for Christ."

At the Garden later, Graham spoke on the subject: "Is the World Coming to an End?"

Before the regular service, Graham spoke outside the Garden to 3,500 persons who were unable to get in.

★ ★ ★

Last night's crowd increased attendance since the start of the crusade May 15 to a total of 911,000. There were 534 "decisions for Christ," bringing the crusade total to 28,761.

List Enticement as Major Factor

Supreme Court Seeks to Determine Whether Girard Lured Woman

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government told the Supreme Court today the Japanese woman fatally injured by GI William S. Girard on a firing range in Japan was enticed to come forward and pick up scrap metal.

Solicitor General J. Lee Rankin said "enticement and inducement" had an important bearing on the government's decision to turn over Girard for trial in Japanese courts on a manslaughter charge.

Rankin, however, told the court Girard himself has denied he induced the woman and other Japanese to come forward to gather scrap.

The eight justices, hearing arguments which will determine whether Girard will be tried by Japan, showed considerable interest in this question: Was there, as Chief Justice Warren phrased it, actually an invitation for the Japanese to come forward "and pick up scrap."

★ ★ ★

Warren indicated the court might decide to unseal an affidavit submitted by the general counsel of the Defense Department reciting facts in the case, including the charge that Japanese scrap scavengers had been lured onto the range.

The affidavit is in the court's possession.

As the government has done throughout the case, Rankin conceded that Girard was on official duty when he fired an empty cartridge casing from his grenade launcher last January, fatally injuring the Japanese woman.

★ ★ ★

The courtroom was packed and crowds filled outside corridors as the government led off in the stormy dispute over whether Girard should be tried by Japan.

The Day in Birmingham

Slate 6 Public Hearings for City Commissioners

BIRMINGHAM — Six public hearings will come before city commissioners this evening. Three will be on necessity including the Lake Park Storm Sewer, Elm street sidewalk and an alley to service business places in the Maple-Bates area.

The other three hearings will be a zoning question on the Rosso property at the southwest corner of Pierce and Frank streets and the special assessment districts for the access drives at 14 Mile road and Pierce street and a light oil supplement to the regular road-oiling program.

City Manager Harold K. Schone will give the report on the study made on Pierce Street parking between Brown and Frank streets. He will also report on progress for the north Evergreen interceptor and review the aid sent from here to Huntington Woods following the July 4 tornado.

City commission also will hear the report of Clark Hagstrom, city accessor, on his appraisal for the former Derby well site at Derby and Eton roads.

Birmingham police department will be honored by an outstanding achievement award from the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Achievement awards are based on performance evaluation of 90 per cent or higher for states and 85 per cent or higher for cities as rated in the police traffic supervision section.

A total of 55 building permits were issued by the city last month with a $500,860 estimated construction costs. This is the year's second highest construction estimate.

The report includes new residences, alterations, one church alteration at $344,000 and the construction of a private swimming pool.

Birmingham came through last night's storm and following flood conditions with only minor damage reports. A few limbs were blown from trees and isolated cases of fallen wires were reported.

Basement flooding was common throughout the city and in several sections including Maple avenue, Woodward avenue and Eton road traffic delays were observed from flooded conditions.

To Vote on Bonds

JACKSON (AP) — Residents of the Portage Township school district will vote July 29 on a proposed $2,350,000 bond issue to finance expansion and renovation of school buildings. The program would cost taxpayers about $1 a year more per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

India Eases on Taxes

NEW DELHI (AP) — The Indian government will ask Parliament later this month to give an income tax break to foreign banks and other firms who give India good terms on loans or purchases of capital goods.

Such banks and firms would no longer have to pay income tax on the interest India pays them, the Finance Ministry says. The idea is to encourage long-term loans and deferred-payments for capital goods needed in India's second five-year plan.

NEW APPETITE CONTROL TABLET FOR EASIER, FASTER REDUCING

Clinically tested and used by doctors with remarkable results on many patients in treatment of obesity. Works automatically to depress appetite. Lose weight you want to take off—safely, rapidly, more comfortably. Get positive results or money refunded.

Yes, now you can take off pound after pound of unwanted fat simply by taking a tiny TRIMET tablet that depresses your appetite so that you eat less. And you can do it without the physical and mental torture that otherwise accompanies cutting down on food.

Doctors who have tested the appetite control drug contained in these tablets report obese patients lost substantial amounts of weight—10, 20, 30, even up to 40 pounds. And because of the convincing medical evidence we dare to make this ironclad guarantee:

You decide how much weight you want to lose. Then take TRIMET tablets as directed. They must produce the results you desire or YOU PAY NOTHING!

How Trimet Helps You Lose Weight Faster, Easier than Any Reducing Aid You've Ever Tried

Your doctor will tell you there is only one sure way to reduce and that is to limit your calorie intake. In plain English: eat less. Nobody has to tell you that takes a lot of will power if you find it hard to resist sweets, butter, gravy, rich desserts and other high calorie foods.

You've probably tried so-called reducing capsules, bulk producing pills, fad diets, exercise—in fact anything that promised to take off those unwanted pounds. As you know from sad experience, they did little or nothing for you.

Now here at long last, is a reducing aid that will really work for you—TRIMET, a tablet that attacks your problem according to a basic physiological principle essential to safe, rapid, effective reducing—APPETITE CONTROL.

TRIMET tablets contain no bulk producing ingredients, nothing to irritate your stomach, nothing to upset your normal routine of living. They do just one thing: control your appetite.

You take one tiny tablet—smaller than an aspirin—a half hour before meals. At mealtime, while you enjoy every mouthful, you quickly notice that your appetite does not seem to be so ravenous. Without hardly realizing it, you stop eating before you have consumed your usual quantity.

Within a short time, you'll discover that TRIMET makes it easier to cut down on fattening foods. You'll feel better, work better, sleep better while losing weight. And as you see the astonishing results day after day, you'll enjoy a renewed zest for life.

MEDICAL PROOF!

Doctors prescribed the basic appetite-control drug found in Trimet in varying doses for their obese patients. A few typical case histories as reported in medical journals:

Miss K. P.—Treated by other drugs and placed on a 1500 calorie diet. Complained of appetite and was switched to Phenylpropanolamine (the basic drug in Trimet). Four days after she had

Lost 8½ pounds

Mrs. R. S.—Weighed 176 lbs. on Jan. 4. Placed on 1600 calorie diet and treated with Thyroid and Pituiturin. On Jan. 23 complained of severe appetite. Switched to Phenylpropanolamine. Jan. 29 reported no appetite and weight as being 161 lbs.

Lost 17 pounds

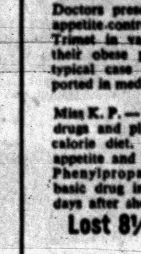

Mrs. J. B.—Stated: "I have enormous appetite, eat all the time". Advised to take Phenylpropanolamine 20 minutes before each meal. No diet was prescribed. Started treatment April 12 and by June 23 had

Lost 20 pounds

These medical results prove that you, too, can lose weight safely, more easily, thanks to the appetite depressant effectiveness of TRIMET Tablets.

after so many past failures. But do give yourself one more opportunity. Start taking TRIMET tablets today. Let results convince you this is the product you have always dreamed about.

TRIMET must do more for you than any reducing aid you've ever used. You must agree TRIMET is the easiest, fastest, most effective appetite depressant you've ever tested, or you may return the unused portion and get a full refund.

14 Members Fly Club Plane

Davison Group Orders Second Craft to Serve Air Enthusiasts

DAVISON (AP)—The attendant at a gasoline station here picked up the telephone.

"This is Glen Pierce of the Davison Flying Club," the caller said. "I'd like to reserve the plane for 9 until noon Monday."

There was a pause while the attendant checked a list.

"You're all set," Pierce was told.

The brief conversation is typical of the way the Davison Flying Club operates to provide small plane service for the 14 airplane enthusiasts who make up its membership.

The service station is paid for the trouble it takes to provide a booking agency. The particular station was chosen because it opens 24 hours a day.

For members who want to use the club's plane, it is first come, first served.

The club, formed in 1955 to give its members access to an airplane for about half the price of renting one, owns two planes. One is yet to be delivered.

Eugene Paxton of Flint is president of the club and Glen Pierce is secretary.

The club's initiation fee is $200. Members are charged a minimum of $10 a month. Flight charges are $2 an hour, plus the cost of gas and oil.

The plane is available for flight instruction for members who are not qualified pilots, with the club retaining approval rights on the instructor. The club itself does not provide instruction.

Pierce, now a qualified pilot, learned to fly since the club was formed with him as one of the charter members. Paxton still is taking flight instruction.

WAREHAM, Mass. (INS)—The cranberry sauce with the Thanksgiving turkey may be in short supply this November.

Nasser Strengthened by Red Submarines

As Secretary of State Dulles sees it the Soviet sale of submarines to Egypt is a studied effort to maintain tension and danger of war in the Middle East.

Until the present time no nation in that area had any underwater craft and the delivery of three to the Egyptian navy is disturbing. President Nasser is much pleased with his new acquisitions and naturally the Israelis are alarmed.

In the latter part of June three Soviet navy ships passed southward through the Suez Canal and six USRR warships moved through the Dardanelles into the Mediterranean. All this adds to Middle East tension and emboldens Nasser.

★ ★ ★

The submarines could be used to smuggle arms to Arab forces in North Africa and also to block the Gulf of Aqaba. The one solid achievement of the Israelis in defeating Nasser last November was free passage in that waterway. Egypt had maintained batteries at the entrance to the Gulf thus cutting off the Israeli port of Elath 100 miles to the north. Israeli warships now patrol the Gulf and U.N. Emergency forces guard the shore line.

★ ★ ★

The United States has affirmed the right of free and innocent passage in the Gulf and that no nation has the right to interfere with peaceful shipping. But Nasser may attempt to use these submarines to shut out Israel and there are reports that the craft have moved through the Suez Canal into the Gulf. If he thus defies the United Nations, there is likely to be trouble.

Kishi's Visit to U.S. Beginning of New Era

To the American people the announcement of our ground combat troop withdrawal from Japan was the highlight of Premier Nobusuke Kishi's visit to this country.

The Premier feels that Japan is capable of taking over its own defense responsibilities. As a matter of fact this has been under discussion for some time although the move came as a surprise. Our Air Force and Navy will remain in Japan but their duties will gradually be taken over by the Japanese.

At his press conference Secretary Dulles said that Mr. Kishi's visit had opened up "a new era in our relations with Japan which will be much more on a basis of cooperation than of the exercise by the United States of unilateral rights."

Premier Kishi spoke before Congress on the problems of Asia as a whole as well as his own country and was well received. While tactful and friendly he admitted that Japan hoped soon to regain political control of Okinawa and to increase trade with Red China.

★ ★ ★

In Japan reactions to the visit are mixed. The extreme nationalists and Communists are loudly critical and tend to discount any improvement in U. S.-Japanese understanding. The Premier may have a hard time convincing his countrymen that his talks here have done much to establish a new basis for future relations.

Take Care Sun Bathing

This is July.

It's the month of the hottest sun.

Every year, thousands and thousands of bright men and women of all ages in the great State of Michigan prance gaily into the sunshine and remain too long.

Then they pay.

Nearly everyone can take a full day of sunshine if he works up to it over a period of time. This is absolutely necessary. You cannot burst into the open and stay there long until you have "worked up" to the requirements. If you're fair skinned and not too accustomed to the outdoors, thirty minutes in the middle of the day is enough.

Weekends are especially challenging periods and the number of pinkish people that show up for work each Monday is mute proof that old Sol is always all powerful and favors no one.

A healthy tan is a blessing but a pink and peeling epidermis is neither sightly nor comfortable. The Press urges everyone to exercise caution. Remember, you can't stay in the sun the first time until you "get red." That's too late. You must watch the clock instead of the color of your skin.

There's health in the sun. Enjoy it. But use prudence and common sense.

Recent hot weather in New York caused a drop in attendance of Billy Graham's meetings. It seems quite a few New Yorkers are more concerned in avoiding the heat here than hereafter.

It is strange that the Japanese girl who tried to commit suicide by throwing herself in front of a train, but was unhurt, although all her clothes were ripped off, didn't achieve her objective by dying of embarrassment.

It Isn't So Bad

The Weather Offers Alibi for Passing of the Buck

Several of our farmer readers have written or phoned that they refuse to admit that they are greatly suffering on account of the weather, too much rain, or lack of it, or anything else to make this a bad farming year. Their sentiments are quite nicely summed up in a letter from who says he never tries to blame the weather or any of nature's alleged shortcomings for his own.

Mrs. Arnold Inskeep

"We do not have any success in growing tree roses," phones
Mrs. Millicent Holtforth
of Rochester. Neither does MAT who started a prolific one last spring, but it has only six roses, beautiful—but stingy in number. Have you any suggestions for Mrs. Holtforth or myself?

"See? I'm Starting to Disarm Already"

Rights Bill Means Military Force

WASHINGTON — What is the real point at issue in the battle over "civil rights" now being waged in the Senate?

It is the possible enactment of a law threatening the use of military force in order to obtain a conformity of viewpoint on social problems. It is the substitution of a program of compulsion and coercion for faith in the voluntary processes of reason.

LAWRENCE

It involves not solely a means of assuring voting rights—for many Negroes do vote in the South and several have been elected to city councils there—but a question of reaching into the whole social order in the South with laws authorizing the use of military power to secure "obedience" to the Supreme Court's decision on school "integration."

Yet the court itself admitted in the same decision that it was influenced primarily by sociological doctrines rather than constitutional precedents.

For the school question and the voting problem are interwoven in the "civil rights" controversy and, curiously enough, the remedy proposed would take away the civil right of a citizen to a jury trial the principle of which is imbedded in the Constitution.

Just because there have been a few instances of racial prejudice in some jury trials in the South, it now is argued by various members of Congress and executive officials in their speeches that none of the tens of millions of people in the South can be trusted to give an impartial trial by jury.

INDICTMENT AGAINST AMERICANS

This is a blanket indictment more severe than ever has been leveled in America against a substantial number of fellow-citizens by the representatives of another segment of the nation.

For the proposal implies that because the processes of reason are beset with difficulties there must be resort to the theory that "the end justifies the means."

This same thing happened once before in perhaps the most shameful chapter in American history when, after the war between the states had ended and a general amnesty had been proclaimed, military units from the North were sent into the legislative chambers of the Southern states.

At the point of a bayonet, ratification of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution was compelled in 10 states after each had rejected it. Southern members of Congress, thereupon were arbitrarily disqualified from voting in either the House or the Senate, notwithstanding the fact that previously the Southern members and their legislatures had in due form approved the Thirteenth Amendment abolishing slavery and this action had been accepted as legal ratification.

No historian of standing in either the North or the South disputes these facts.

TRUCE WILL BE BROKEN

For 90 years there has been a virtual truce in the Northern and Southern conflict as to the scope of the Fourteenth Amendment, and the racial problems it presumably covered. Meanwhile, there has been nevertheless a gradual evolution with tremendous progress toward a better understanding between the races.

The doctrine of "separate but equal" facilities in public schools which was upheld as the "supreme law of the land" until 1954 was a kind of "modus vivendi"—a compromise between apparently irreconcilable viewpoints yet one that actually encouraged more and more flexibility through the years.

Now the truce has been broken and, instead of trying to adjust conflicting viewpoints by letting each state or each community within a state decide for itself how it shall move toward the solution of its own social problems—a basic American concept of self-government — the confusing court decisions and the threat of coercive "civil rights" legislation are retarding progress.

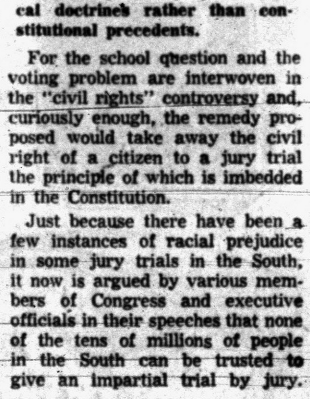

Impatiently the doors are opened to bitter resentments which will grow in intensity because compulsion is the wrong way to deal with social problems in a democracy. Inevitably also there will be revived the whole controversy over the unmoral and illegal way by which the Fourteenth Amendment itself was forced into the Constitution in the first place.

"I speak in a spirit of great sadness," said Senator Russell of Georgia, Democrat, the other day in the Senate. "If Congress is driven to pass this bill in its present form, it will cause unspeakable confusion, bitterness and bloodshed in a great section of our common country.

This comes, ironically enough, at a time when spokesmen for the United States in the world at large are appealing constantly for the "renunciation of the use of force" as a means of dealing with human friction.

Country Parson

"It's a lot easier to conceal from others what we are than what we are not."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Never Trouble Trouble Till Trouble Troubles You

A reader writes:

"We are constantly urged to enter the hospital or go to a clinic for a thorough checkup . . . but where or how can one get such . . .

a visit to two doctors has discouraged me. They listened to my heart, had me breathe, say ah, do some deep knee flexions . . . but such an examination could hardly discover that I might be harboring a tumor a cancer or . . .." (W.M.).

If you're looking for trouble, ma'am, there are plenty of "clinics" where you can find enough to satisfy your morbid appetite — if you have a substantial bankroll!

BETTER GO BOWLING

In your place I'd snap the rubber bands on my roll, put it back in my hip pocket and go bowling. The opinion and advice of those two doctors who "discouraged" you would be worth more, in my judgment, than all the costly data and reports the medical merchants could compile for a well-heeled customer in a two week's fishing project.

In any case the opinion and advice of a doctor who knows you from year to year far outweighs the cold, impersonal report rendered by the head man at the so-called hospital or clinic.

Darn few doctors undergo a "thorough checkup" just on the off chance that they may be harboring a tumor or a cancer. Even though the monkey business costs a doctor little or nothing, he'd rather devote his spare time to some more enjoyable recreation.

Cancer, diabetes, tuberculosis, CVD (heart or artery trouble, rheumatiz, apoplexy (stroke)—it's time to worry about any such trouble sneaking up on you when you have some symptoms, something to complain of when you consult the doctor.

To run to the doctor or "go through the clinic" when you have not any symptoms to complain about is my notion of any easy way to make an ass of yourself.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Explains Development of Atheist

If you ever meet an atheist or a Communist in America, use the French motto: "Cherchez la Femme." That means, look for the underlying motive. When you learn the full facts about Alex, you can more easily understand his mania to deny God. Discuss this case in Sunday School classes.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Alex has a great deal of talent," admitted one of his colleagues, "but he has a mania to argue with his students about God.

DR. CRANE

"A cousin of mine happens to be taking a course under Alex and she says hardly a week passes that he doesn't go out of his way to ridicule religion and boast of his disbelief in God.

"Dr. Crane, what makes an atheist, anyway? It seems to me that no intelligent modern man could logically deny the existence of a Creator."

HOW ATHEISTS DEVELOP

Atheism is often a transferred dislike of a domineering parent who has forced religion down the throat of his child.

And Alex was a typical case in point. He had been reared in a parsonage. His father, however, was the old-fashioned type of male parent who ruled with an iron hand.

So he compelled Alex to spend four hours in church every Sunday. And he likewise made the boy attend various evening meetings during the week.

The father likewise looked on high school athletics as sinful, so refused to let Alex play basketball.

Indeed, Alex was not even permitted to attend an athletic event in which his school participated.

As a result of this rigid "overfeeding" of religion, Alex grew hostile. But his dominant father was too strong for Alex, so the boy kept reasonably mum while at home.

TRANSFERRED HATRED

As soon as Alex was away at college, however, he began to show his dislike for his father by attacking that which his father personified, namely religion.

★ ★ ★

It is thus not an intellectual matter but an entrenched emotional bias.

But his whole case is based on emotional antipathy. He is venting a grudge against his father which he wanted to put into words 20 years earlier, but was afraid to do so.

HOW COMMUNISTS DEVELOP

American Communists often develop along this same line. Their espousal of communism is not a logical matter, though they also try to rationalize their inner grudge.

★ ★ ★

Maybe their father was a millionaire business tycoon. He didn't try to persuade his son to the American viewpoint by deft logic.

No, the father railed at anybody who didn't think exactly as he did and wouldn't permit even a question about the other side of the issue.

So his son grew incensed at his dad though he feared to oppose him during the teens.

But in college, especially if taught by a red-tinged professor of economics, he soon championed communism. So use the motto "Cherchez la Femme" whenever you meet an atheist or a communist.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Autographed Pictures Are Contradiction of Clean-Up'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Still vivid in my mind is a little girl savagely attacked and murdered by a sex maniac in Detroit, and the cause of such brutality was laid to the suggestive and obscene pictures and literature which is so readily available at every bookstand and drug store, even the supermarket magazine rack.

So recently I noticed a darling picture of Jayne Mansfield, very sensibly attired, autographing 50 pictures of herself for a 14-year-old Boy Scout, the pictures to go to the National Jamboree to be used as barter.

How many mothers and fathers (if fathers could take eyes off her) looked farther into the picture and noticed the pictures she was signing? They were sexy poses and exposed limbs, wonderful publicity for the glamour girl, but what a place to pass them around—at a Jamboree where there will be 50,000 Boy Scouts, aged 12 to 17. Seems to me we're pressing our luck. On one hand, we say clean up the reading material for our kids' sake, then on the other, we pass around these pictures and say "Here, boy, learn to appreciate the finer side of life." Glamour is fine in its place, but not here.

Catholic Mother of Six Future Scouts

'Could You Cook as Well Then?'

If you love your daughter-in-law and show your affection by giving small gifts once in a while, you're "trying to buy their love." If you don't go to see them or call, "you hate them." So what is a poor mother-in-law to do?

As for the mother-in-law who complained about the son's wife's cooking, do you remember when you were first married? Could you cook and clean as well as you can now? That's something we all learn to do better as the years go along.

I'm sure your son is very happy with his wife, and I only want true happiness for my children and the love of my grandchildren. I want to be loved not because it is due me, but because they have learned to love through me.

Modern Mother-in-Law

Says We're Near Great Tribulation

It could well be that God is giving the world a slight preview of what's going to happen when He pours out His wrath on this Christ-rejecting world during the seven years of the Great Tribulation. All signs point to the fact it isn't too far in the future. Doubting Thomases might read the 24th chapter of Matthew.

Earthquakes are killing hundreds in the Middle East, hurricanes with tidal waves are killing a great amount in Texas, tornadoes are so numerous they cannot be counted in the Southwest. Conditions such as these are similar, but to a very minor degree, to what will happen during the Great Tribulation. The Bible says if God didn't limit the period there wouldn't be a living human left on earth. As it is, there will be only about 25 per cent left.

Scoff if you like. They thought old Noah was crazy in the days before the flood.

Ellender Very Proficient at Filibustering in Senate

By International News Service

Sen. Allen J. Ellender feels he could filibuster against the civil rights bill until the oceans freeze over. Be that as it may, one thing is certain—he will not run out of material about which to talk.

The fiery little Louisiana Democrat could take the Senate around the world for days and weeks by drawing on the stack of reports he has compiled on his trips abroad.

Nearly every fall for the last 10 years, he has made a personal inspection of how the foreign aid programs are working overseas and the amount of notes he brings back astounds his colleagues and friends.

There is no limit on the subject matter a senator may use in his talks and during a filibuster, the range is wide indeed. Ellender might relate how he "talked turkey" to the leaders in the Kremlin on one of his recent overseas trips.

Another of his favorite subjects of which the Senate has heard a great deal in the past has to do with what Ellender calls the unnecessary reports compiled by attaches at the various U. S. embassies.

He contends they send back voluminous reports which wind up in some dusty pigeonhole of a Washington bureau, unread, unsung and unmissed by anyone.

Ellender, who will be 66 on Sept. 24, is a one-time protege of the late Sen. Huey P. Long (D-La) of filibuster fame.

Elected to the Senate in 1936, Ellender proved while still a freshman his own ability to engage in a filibuster. He held the floor for six days, speaking on and off for a total of 40 hours during the 1938 filibuster against an anti-lynch bill.

The Louisiana senator is an entertaining speaker. His voice rises as he warms into a subject and his gestures add to the emphasis.

His wife died in 1949. He lives in a one-bedroom Washington apartment that is filled with pictures, small figures and other interesting objects he has brought back from his tours. He loves to cook and frequently has six to a dozen friends out to his apartment for a creole-shrimp dinner he has prepared entirely himself.

Builds Own Railroad

IRON MOUNTAIN (AP) — A new railroad, the "C, G and M," has gone into operation in Iron Mountain. The initials stand for the names of Craig, Gary and Mark Swanson, sons of Wallace Swanson who built the miniature train on a 200-foot track beside his home. The one-horse-power engine pulls the six-pasenger train at a speed of 10 miles an hour.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Pola-Cola Wins, Soft Drink OK'd for Warsaw

WARSAW (AP)—Pola-Cola, finally has triumphed over official charges that it endangers health.

★ ★ ★

Said a spokesman of a Warsaw cooperative:

"We've been given the green light."

"Pola-Cola soon will be on the market. But we've decided to change the name to Extracola."

Pola-Cola was to have been on sale two months ago. But Warsaw's Health Department complained that its caffeine content might bring heart trouble.

The department finally yielded to press criticism. Papers contended 160 million Americans could not be wrong and Warsaw needed relief from its only other soft drink, a fizzy yellow substance called Fructovit.

This correspondent attended a Pola-Cola tasting session organized by the management of Warsaw's Hotel Bristol.

AUTOMOTIVE PIONEER — Mrs. M. S. Loomis, 81, is shown at the wheel of a replica of the first gasoline engine car built in Detroit which she drove in 1900 on a test run. The car is an Oldsmobile. Although she has never had a driver's license, she was the first woman to drive a gasoline car in Michigan. Her husband, a young Michigan State graduate, was hired by Mr. Olds to help design the car. The replica was built by her son, Howard, of Davisburg. Mrs. Loomis now runs a china shop in Waterford Township.

Russian Youths Ship Out

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

In the Soviet Union 300,000 young people are packing their bags and boarding trains for central Asia and central Siberia to help get in the harvest.

★ ★ ★

They'll return in the fall to their schools or jobs — but not until the grain has been reaped and delivered to government procurement stations from millions of acres of new lands put to the plow under Nikita Khruschev's virgin lands scheme.

The mobilization from European Russia is becoming an annual event. Success of the eastern harvest depends on it in large degree.

The youths, drafted through the Communist party and particularly the Young Communist League, are called volunteers. Most of them actually have little choice about going. The party tells the Young Communist League to deliver 300,000 — and they're delivered.

A lot of them may enjoy it. The work is hard and continuous, but it's in the fresh air and only for the summer. That makes these young people luckier than the youths drafted in 1954 and 1955 to go east and settle.

The young farmhands get free transport out and back and board and lodging. They also get paid extra in grain and cash. Some who work on state farms, as distinct from collective farms, receive a minimum of 12 rubles cash—equal at the official exchange to $3 a day.

Those young people who get leave from jobs to go east also receive 50 per cent of their base pay at home all they time they are gone.

Music Fills Palace

TOKYO (AP)—The Imperial Palace is a musical place. Crown Prince Akihito is taking cello lessons. He already plays the guitar and piano. Empress Nagako and the crown prince's brother Yoshihito both play piano. A palace spokesman said they are interested in Western classical music.

The Great Lakes have an estimated 95,000 square miles of deep water.

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAID'S great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONAID'S stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Python, Not Engine

BULAWAYO, Southern Rhodesia (AP) — Truck driver Michael Schoeman figured it was engine trouble. But it was a 10-foot python that caused the truck to stop. The snake had curled itself around Schoeman's engine and tangled with the fan blades.

Harbor of Refuge Eyed for Thumb

PORT AUSTIN (AP)—Construction of a harbor of refuge to serve a 60-mile expanse at the top of the Michigan thumb will begin at Port Austin Aug. 24, it was announced by Harold F. Finan of the Michigan Waterways Commission.

Steel for a 1,921-foot breakwater wall, to be capped with asphalt, is scheduled to begin arriving July 24. The breakwater is expected to be completed in late November.

Finan said dredging of the 27-acre harbor would start next spring and be completed by July 1.

The harbor will cost $1,269,100, of which $1,097,000 will come from the federal government and $172,000 from the commission.

'Easy' Keynotes Styles in New York Previews

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

As New York designers today opened a hectic week of fall showings for 200 members of the nation's fashion press, it became evident that "easy" is going to be the most overworked word in the fashion vocabulary this year. Easy shoulders, easy waistline, easy fit —the trend-setters chant a chorus.

It's true that the predominant silhouette for fall is the unfitted sack, with the belt added merely as surface decoration and probably at the hipline. But things aren't as bad as they seem. On the tall, string-bean woman, the sack looks good. And for her shorter, more rounded sisters, there are plenty of outfits with conventional waistlines, but not squeezed in to the point of suffocation, as has been true in the not too distant past.

Biggest news in the fall collections lies in color, fabric and a record crop of fur trimmings. Everything from chiffon dance dresses to town suits come with their own fur accents this fall. The dance dress may have a fluffy fox border, like a hemline ruff. The suit may have a leopard jacket, or an ermine sailor collar. Fur hats, bags, belts and scarfs are all over the place, and in all pelts.

There's also news in daringly new exposures in after-5 fashions. Bolder designers, such as Ceil Chapman, Oleg Cassini and Luis Estevez, slash the neckline to the waist on some of their slithery black crepe dinner dresses with long, tight sleeves making them seem even more startling. These, of course, are worn with built-in bras.

Slender, draped, peg-top sheaths, usually in crepe, also may have hemlines trailing the floor in back but slashed about the knees in front. The cult of the uneven hemline reaches its peak in the fall fashions of Estevez, the handsome young Cuban designer whose frankly sexy gowns have captivated the imagination of American women.

The reporter notes a comeback of long-haired furs, notably fox in all colors, throughout the collections. Pauline Trigere lines short circle coats with red fox. Loops of black or silver fox may border a low-draped armhole on a jacket. And fox collars and borders are numerous.

Newest-looking among suit silhouettes is the long, tubular jacket suit, with straight, slender skirt. Completely unfitted, the jacket reaches to below the hipline and may either have long notched lapels or button up to a collarless cardigan neckline. This is seen in the collections of Ben Zuckerman, Monte Sano and Pruzan and Pauline Trigere.

Brownells to Escape Busy Life

To Take Six-Week Car Tour Through Italy's Lake Area

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — The Attorney General and Mrs. Herbert Brownell Jr. are getting away from the hub-bub on a six-week motor tour through Italy's lake region, visiting spots Mrs. Brownell hasn't seen for 20 years.

★ ★ ★

"We've rarely had a moment to ourselves since last December," Doris Brownell told me. "In recent weeks we've touched home base only about two times, and then just briefly.

"It used to be I had a chance to lie flat on my back and read, even when all four children were home and I had most of the housework to do. Now I read sitting up."

The Brownells are flying to Vienna to pick up a car after attending the American Bar Assn. meeting in London in July.

They can't quite get far away from Washington at that. Many of their friends will be sailing on the Queen Mary with them.

Then they will be stopping off for visits with their former neighbors, the U. S. Ambassador to the Netherlands and Mrs. Philip Young, and old friends in Brussels, the new U. S. Ambassador to Belgium and Mrs. Clifford Folger.

CHILDREN AT HOME

Their daughters, Joan, married last December to Pfc. Thomas Beagan Jr., stationed in San Antonio, and Anne, 18, a Swarthmore College student and debutante of last December, expect to tour Texas.

"They'll visit my five sisters and millions of cousins," Mrs. Brownell said. "Anne, who wants a job, oughtn't have too much trouble with all these contacts."

Sons Tom, 17, who attends the Orme Ranch School in Mayer, Ariz., and Jim, 14, who goes to St. James School in Maryland, will "batch it" at home in Washington, where both also have plans to work this summer.

Attractive, youthful - spirited Doris Brownell says most of the traveling she's done up to now has been accompanying her husband on commencement speaking engagements.

★ ★ ★

She thinks he makes a first-rate commencement speech. So do the young high school and college graduates.

Tiny Tarts Filled With Goodness

Mrs. Richardson's Pastries Have Nuts, Raisins and Coconut

By JANET ODELL

Some of the best tarts we ever ate were served to us by a young homemaker, Mrs. Delwin Richardson. They combined raisins, nuts and coconut. Simply delicious!

A homemaker of three years, Mrs. Richardson loves to cook and to entertain. She has one small son. The Richardsons are active in their community club and enjoy all kinds of sports. Living, as they do, on a lake, they are able to indulge in water sports the year around.

FRUIT TARTS
By Mrs. Delwin Richardson

1 egg, beaten
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup seedless raisins
½ cup nutmeats
½ cup coconut
1 tablespoon vanilla
Pinch of salt

Mix all ingredients together and fill 12 tart shells. Bake 20 minutes at 425 degrees. Reduce heat to 375 degrees and continue baking about 10 minutes more, or until tarts are browned on top.

★ ★ ★

The bride's daughter, Diane Allen, was the maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of pink nylon with an empire waist, a pink garland in her hair, and a blue and white corsage.

The bridegroom's son, Amos J. Wilmot III, was the best man.

★ ★ ★

Fall Clothes to Reflect U.S. Prosperity

Royal Visit Inspires Fashion Pomp

By OLGA CURTIS
INS Women's Editor

Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip of Britain are scheduled to come to the U.S. next fall, and American fashions are previewing the luxury of royalty.

The ultra-casual suit, the free-and-easy shirt dress and the informal dance frock are no longer tops in style. Designers are now playing up to our love of pomp and circumstance with rich fabrics, formal styles and fancy trimmings.

PREDICTIONS MADE

This "regal look" keynotes the fashion predictions made today by the Couture Group of the New York Dress Institute for Fashion Press Week.

Clothes will reflect America's own prosperity, too. A woman will look expensive from hat to shoes, and even hat and shoes are apt to match her dress for a "custom costume" effect.

Silhouettes will be a matter of choice, with the eased sheath still leading the parade of styles in dresses.

Coats, however, are getting rounder in the middle for the new "cocoon" shape, which is also being described as the "balloon," "melon" or "egg" shape. All indicate a coat that's narrow at shoulders and hem but wide around the body.

Three-quarter and seven-eighths length coats will be popular. So will cape-back coats, especially with big fur collars. Suits will be mostly belted, somewhat wider in the shoulder, with back interest.

★ ★ ★

Sumptuous fabrics, in brilliant colors such as red, blue, green and violet. Also much brown and black.

★ ★ ★

Belts at natural waistlines, under natural bosoms.

New back interest — deep plunge necklines and barred backs in addition to bloused backs, floating panels, draped back skirts.

Fancier trimmings — like satin, beads, jewels and ruffles. The fanciest: fur. The newest place for trimming: At the knee or hemline.

Fur will be the big winter eyecatcher in fashions, being used on dresses as well as on suits and coats.

Gary's Announce Daughter's Birth

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Gary (nee Christine Agorgianitis) announce the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Ann, June 20 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Season for Flannel

Today flannel knows no season. Both woolen and worsted flannels come in various weights—lighter slacks and suits for summer, as well as heavier apparel for fall and winter. Flannel suits now emphasize striped patterns instead of solid dark gray tones of past seasons. However, gray wool flannel sports slacks are still popular.

Does the Car You Drive Match Your Personality?

Columnist Agrees With Grocery Boy: She's the Sensible 'Blanko Type'

By RUTH MILLETT

"You're driving a Blanko, aren't you?" asked the young man who was getting ready to carry my sack of groceries from supermarket to car. He had named a medium-priced car.

★ ★ ★

"No," I said, "I'm not driving a Blanko now, though I did several years ago when I used to trade here."

And then I asked, "How do you remember what make of car a customer drives, anyhow?"

He told me that was easy. Most of the ladies for whom he carries groceries drive cars that match their looks and personalities.

★ ★ ★

"Now you're the Blanko type," he told me earnestly. "So I may have trouble remembering the kind of car you're driving now — because I'll always think 'Blanko' when I see you."

NOT THE FANCY TYPE

But suddenly I knew what he meant. I'm not the foreign-car type, nor the Rolls-Royce type, nor the fancy sports-car type.

I might sometimes wistfully wish I were. But such cars take living up to. They're not the housewife-chauffeur who uses a car to haul groceries, kids, small appliances that need fixing, clothes for the cleaner and so on.

They're not for the woman who has time only to dab on a little more lipstick before jumping in her car to get to school between classes to deliver a notebook Sis or Junior forgot in the morning.

Come to think of it, maybe, as the young man said in such a consoling voice, there's really nothing wrong with being the Blanko type.

It's a stage of life when you aren't trying to be different or flashy or when you regard an automobile as a becoming background.

It's a stage of life when you want comfort, durability and service and when you can smile at being so easily catalogued as the suburban housewife—Blanko type.

Couple Speaks Vows in Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Watson of East Walton boulevard announce the marriage of their daughter, Tommalee, to Norman Becker. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sonja Becker of Chicago.

The couple exchanged vows Saturday in a ceremony performed in Chicago. A reception was held Sunday in the home of the bride's parents.

Generally, the man-made fibers take permanent pleating better than the natural fibers. The reason for this is that the man-made fibers can be easily set by heat.

Tufted Carpets Are Favorites

More people today are buying tufted carpets than any other single type of carpeting. Consumers like the looped look so much that tufted carpets represent 43 per cent of the total produced, as against six per cent five years ago.

According to Edward F. Skinner, vice president of a factoring and textile financing firm, the annual total output of all varieties of tufted fabrics rose from 21,000,000 square yards in 1951 to more than 76,000,000 square yards last year.

Skinner attributes the taste for tufted to high quality achieved through the use of maximum of yarns and the development of color-fast techniques.

"New designs and new textures are now truly 'run of th e mill,'" he said, "and with the wide use of synthetics, tufted products are constantly taking on added features that have special appeal to homemakers."

White Still Favored as Gas Range Color

Gleaming white continues to be a high style favorite in gas ranges, although a wide range of shades is available. Manufacturers report that no one color seems to predominate.

One of Finest, Most Healthful Exercises Possible

Get in the Swim for More Summertime Fun

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

"The old swimming hole" certainly has been glorified in recent years. Many people in fairly modest circumtances now have a small pool in their yard while others have highly glamorized swim pits. Children splash about and even learn to swim at home in one of the large rubber versions.

★ ★ ★

This is all to the good because swimming is one of the finest, most healthful exercises possible, and is one of the few sports you can take down the years with you. If you have been missing it because you do not know how to swim, or because you have dropped the habit, remedy the situation this summer.

Swimming has so many advantages! In the first place it is a cooling experience. After a swim you will feel comfortable for a long time even on a hot day. Then, too, swimming often is allowed when more strenuous sports are prohibited.

It is wonderful for those who are nervous and tense. Nothing is more relaxing. It will put pounds on the underweight person. Since the body weight is supported by water, pregnant women, women with heart disease and those in the older age bracket often are allowed this activity.

Of course, in these latter instances you should follow your doctor's advice. As you know, water exercises and swimming are also used extensively in reconditioning after polio.

DIVINE EXERCISE

So far as the figure is concerned I would say that swimming is a divine exercise. It firms the body and beautifies the silhouette. It tends to bring the measurements into proportion.

★ ★ ★

Learning a new sport or activity is also good for the soul. It gives the spirit a new sparkle because it open up new horizons. When one conquers even one small fear this provides a big lift to the spirit and reinforces self-respect and self-confidence. I have seen this happen over and over again when teaching swimming to middle-aged groups.

If you are one of those who is afraid of the water, begin getting rid of that handicap right in your own bathroom. Fill the bowl with water. Take a deep breath, close your mouth and eyes and submerge your head in water. Hold for a few minute, raise your head and blow the air out of your nose. This will clear the nostrils of any water.

After becoming accustomed to this, do the same thing but blow the air out of your mouth, while your head is underwater, making bubbles.

Many women have written to me to tell me that they learned to swim with the help of my leaflet. If you would like to have it, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the leaflet "Learn to Swim," No. 22. This leaflet alo helps those who swim improve their strokes. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

WHY NOT ELIMINATE THAT COAT OF FAT?

You wouldn't wear a fur coat all summer, would you? Well, since you have put your furs and heavy clothes in mothballs, why not throw away that coat of fat? Every organ in the body must work harder to support those pounds you do not need.

★ ★ ★

Overweight is especially uncomfortable in hot weather. There is the problem of chafing and prickly heat. Also, the heavy woman must pass by the cool, light undergarments designed for summer because she requires more rigid figure control.

Shorts and pedal pushers are out of the question. She often gives up swimming because swimsuits are too revealing.

Summer is the perfect time to reduce. Our appetites are not so whetted by cold weather, and there is such an abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables. Many women's winter clubs and civic responsibilities drop off so that members can find more time for exercise and also for outdoor life with their families.

★ ★ ★

Foods can be deceiving. We are likely to judge a food's cooling ability by its temperature. Certainly cool foods are more refreshing when the thermometer soars, but whether or not an item is actually cooling depends on its calorie count. Calorie-packed foods are heating.

LOW IN CALORIES

This is another reason why hot weather is a splendid time to drop extra pounds. Fruit juices, skim milk, hard-boiled eggs, lean meats, seafood, green salads, fresh fruits, lots of fresh vegetables and sliced whole wheat bread are tempting, healthful and low in calories.

A few more aids to summer comfort: Stockings are very hot. If your legs are not brown enough to look attractive without them, use one of the leg makeups.

Also, your hairdo can make a big difference. Either have your hair cut shorter than usual or arrange it in a manner which will be cool. This means get it off your neck!

Cut Ironing Fatigue These Simple Ways

An ironing board should fit the lady who is ironing. A board that is either too high or too low can cause needless fatigue.

If you stand to iron, stand on a heavy pad. This eases the weight on your feet. If you can iron seated, pick a chair whose height will give you the same ironing movement you have when standing.

Do You Ask 'What's in It for Me?'

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"What's in it for me?" is an expression we hear a good deal these days, but it's one that sets my teeth on edge.

★ ★ ★

It has been my experience that the really successful people never ask that question.

They do what they feel like doing, or what needs to be done, for the sake of doing it and without figuring to the last drop exactly what specific benefits or rewards they will get from it. As a result, their reward is fabulous, and usually unexpected.

Meantime, the what's-in-it-for-me type will be moaning and grumbling that, "Some people have all the luck."

I thought of this the other day, when a stenographer I know got a wonderful promotion.

HELPS ON MAGAZINE

She works for a big company in the department that puts out a magazine for employes. The house organ is a good little magazine, and it goes to several thousands of the company's workers.

She has wanted for some time to be given some reporting or writing to do, but was stuck with nothing but typing and shorthand.

So she did the best she could, took a course at night and went about living her life.

"Somebody told me," she said, "that there was a letter-writing committee which wanted people to send letters abroad. I decided it might be a good idea, so I applied.

"The plan is called "Letters Abroad" and it's really a lot of fun. I was given the name of a girl in Denmark, who is just my age and who has the same kind of job."

WASTE OF TIME?

Some girls would have said, "Waste time writing letters to a total stranger? What's in it for me?"

However, our friend kept on with her job, continued taking courses and writing letters to her Danish friend.

"Would you believe it," she told me, "the house organ was preparing an article on Danish cooking for a recent issue. When it was dictated to me, I discovered there were a couple of mistakes in it—not bad ones, but bad enough.

"My Danish friend had been telling me about Danish recipes, which were the most popular and which part of the country they came from and so forth.

★ ★ ★

"When I told my boss—after he had finished dictating, of course—about the mistakes and how I happened to know about them, he was quite impressed. I also told him about the course in layout that I'm taking.

A LITTLE EDITING

"Finally, he said if I wanted to do a little editing, he thought it would be a good idea. And now I got a raise and they call me an editorial assistant!"

It just goes to show, nothing you ever learn hurts you!

★ ★ ★

If you'd like to write a letter to somebody in another country, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll tell you how to go about it.

Doll-Washing Time Can Provide Fun

It's nearly doll-washing season. This can provide hours of fun — and all a little girl needs are her doll, doll clothes, an old washtub, a scrub brush, that washboard you don't use any more, and a supply of soap or detergent. Dig out the props, and have them handy for the first warm days.

George M. Cohan offered Elmer Rice $30,000 in cash for his first play, "On Trial." Rice, then working as a $20-a-week law clerk, grinned nervously and refused the offer. The play later netted Rice a quarter-million dollars in royalties.

Second Wife Wants to Go to Wedding

Should She Attend the Nuptials of Her Husband's Son?

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it out of order for a second wife to go with her husband to the wedding of her husband's son? This would necessitate seeing the first wife and also her relatives, who might resent the second wife even though she had nothing whatever to do with the rift.

"The wife in question feels that her place is with her husband on this occasion. Under the circumstances, would it be proper for the second wife to go with her husband or should they both stay home or should the husband go alone?"

Answer: If the parents have remained friendly, it would be entirely proper for the bridegroom's father and his present wife to go to the church and the reception too.

If they have not remained friendly and their appearance at the wedding would cause distress to the bridegroom's mother, they would go to the church only, where they would both be seated in the third pew on the bridegroom's side of the church.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been invited to a wedding the end of this month. I have a beige Chantilly lace dress with a scoop neckline trimmed with mink about one-half inch wide. The dress has short sleeves and they also have a narrow band of mink trimming.

"Will it be proper to wear at this time? I have had so many pros and cons about it because of the fur trim that I have decided to write and ask your opinion about it."

Answer: Fur trim now is out of season but if you wear this dress because it is very becoming to you, I don't think anyone will criticise you.

Yvonne de Carlo Speaks Up Boldly

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—I've always felt sorry for lady movie stars—and even sorrier for those who were not ladies. During interviews with reporters, they are required to reveal absolutely nothing about their private lives and make it sound passionately sincere.

How clear is the recollection of one blonde starlet, on the fringe of the red carpet treatment, who was just learning the art of evasiveness. Asked if she would wed this swain or that, she stopped in mid-sip of a dry martini and returned glass purposefully to tablecloth.

"Please," she said softly, as her eyes fell and shakily addressed the olive, "don't ask me that question . . . anything else."

In the hands of a typical and competent movie artist, even a "no comment" must have flair.

★ ★ ★

Miss Yvonne de Carlo, then, is an oddity. Unlike the lady movie stars who dramatize in quiet tones, and the unladylike movie stars who say nothing, but in brash lingo for added emphasis, Miss de Carlo speaks up boldly and often and says what's on her mind.

SHE'S SURPRISED

"I'm pregnant," she says, "which may not surprise anybody else but it certainly surprised me.

"The last half of the last picture I made ('Band of Angels,' co-starring Gable) I had to hide behind tables and things—I hope nobody who's wagging the flag for motherhood will object to that—but we got finished just under the line."

Miss de Carlo, wife of film stunt man Bob Morgan and mother of an 11-month-old child, was for several years billed as the spinster holdout of Hollywood. She describes a typical day's thinking process in that bachelor-girl era:

"I think I'll go off to France . . . no, too cold . . . Rome, I'll stay here and give a party . . . that's no fun . . . what then?"

And now. "I'm as tranquil as a Miltown, and make decisions like that. Ask anything, I talk openly."

★ ★ ★

Proceeding to do precisely that Yvonne confessed that although motherhood is renowned as a glorious adventure, "and believe me, I love having children," the actual period of pregnancy can be difficult for a movie star.

"Take now," she says. "I am in New York scheduled to appear glamorous. But do I appear glamorous to anyone but my husband?

"Right now I'm at that in-between time—you know, the time when people don't say 'Congratulations,' they say 'Boy, have you put on weight! Better give up those midnight champagne suppers, kid.'"

Yvonne let go one of those fiery-slave-girl glances for which she is famous. "Just because I now feel a very natural urge to eat hamburgers for breakfast," she remarked, "should they think me a glutton?"

Dressed in a voluminous pink chiffon skirt and a straw hat the dimensions of a small playpen, Miss de Carlo described what she believes to be the best grooming and timing techniques for expectant movie queens.

"For the first three months, have a last fling in your size 12 dresses. When you begin getting plump, stop trying to wear size 12 and buy or make yourself some full-skirted size 14's, always being careful to powder your nose oftener than ever.

"When you are obviously in the knitting stage, leave off that popular expectant-mother habit of wearsmocks, and put yourself into the most flowing, graceful dresses you can make or buy. Don't try to hide the truth—glamorize it.

"Of all life's experiences, this is the one that most surely calls for accentuating the positive."

Chou Says Photos Much Too Boring

HONG KONG (AP)—Publicity-conscious Chou En-lai has chided Red China's newsreel cameramen for taking the same old boring shots of him.

The official New China News Agency, reports from Shanghai that the Peiping Premier made one of his periodic visits to the film-making industry and complained of a "boring monotony and dullness of newsreels about the China scene."

Chou said shots of himself were "too often confined to speech-making and handshaking."

"Why so many rules and taboos? Nobody has banned the shooting of this scene or that scene," Chou added.

Won't Sell Old Jets

OSLO (AP) — Norway's air force decided to give 34 obsolete jet fighter planes to technical schools rather than sell them. It put the planes up for sale and found the only customers were "strawmen or speculators ready to deliver the planes to countries which the Norwegian government does not want to sell war planes to." The countries weren't named.

New Highway Chief Must Settle County Turnpike-Freeway Battle

By PETE LOCHBILER

One of the biggest road decisions facing new State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie lies in Oakland County.

Nearly everyone agrees there has to be a new, north-south traffic artery running through the heart of the county sooner or later, probably sooner.

But that's about the only point on which there is agreement. When specific road proposals are mentioned, the battle starts raging. It's a three-sided war.

Mackie has to decide which side wins.

Two of the combatants have come up with proposals. One camp wants a turnpike, on which drivers must pay tolls based on how far they travel.

Opposed to this is the other camp which favors a free, limited-access expressway.

County Communities Object to Proposals

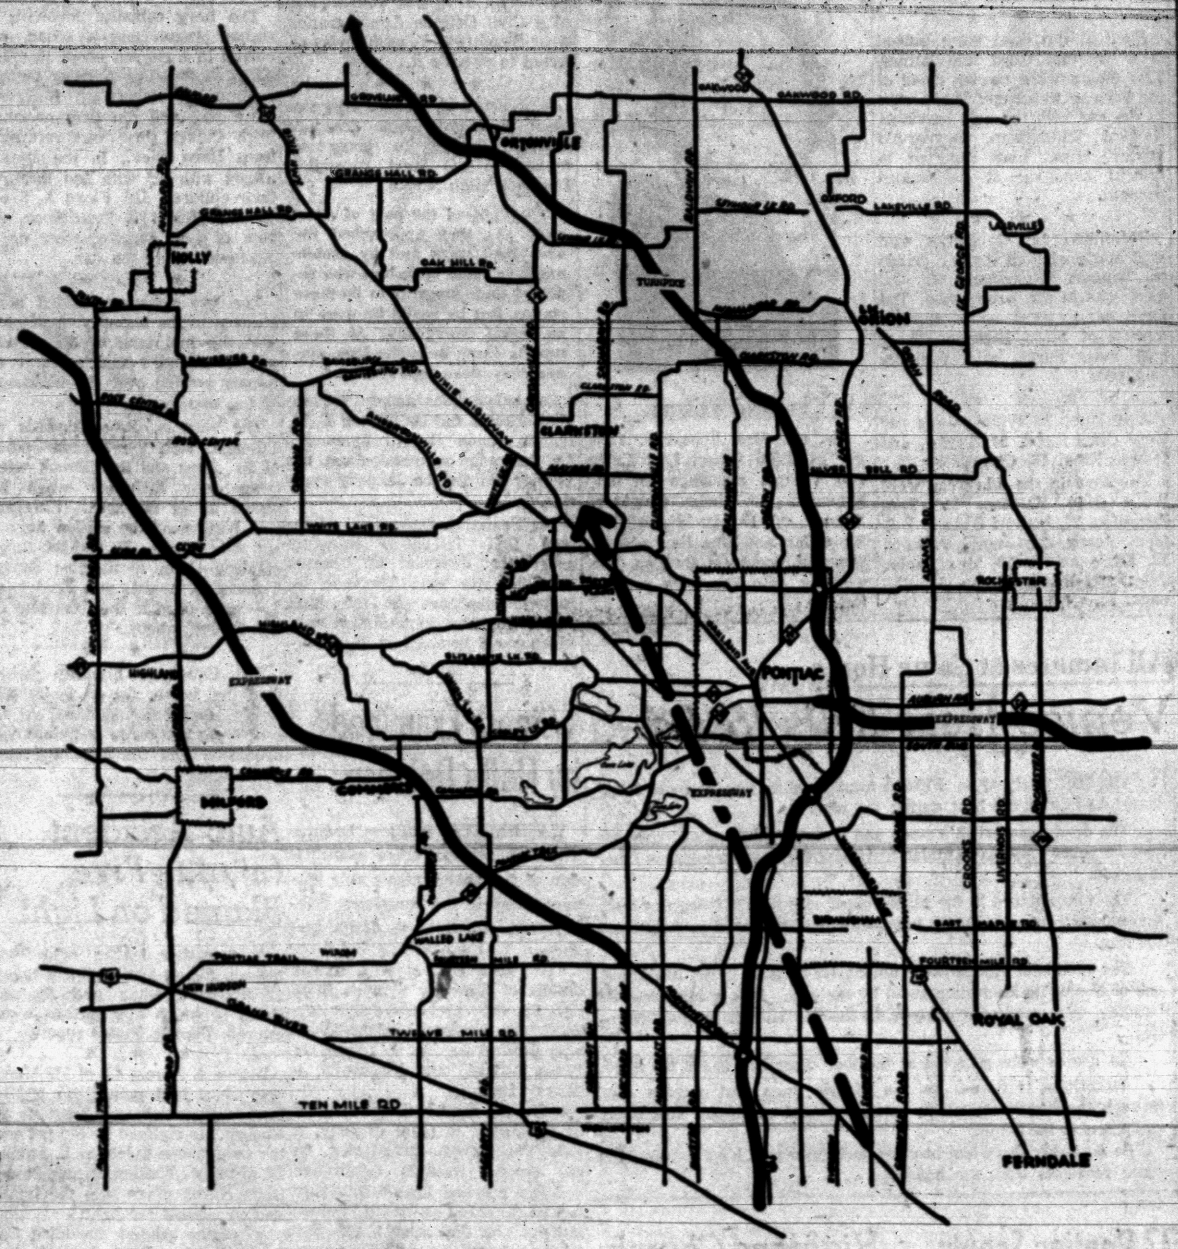

The turnpike is a project of the Michigan Turnpike Authority, headed by George N. Higgins, of Ferndale. The free highway has been championed mainly by former State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

The third combatant is the group of Telegraph-Southfield road communities, through which the new highway—whether a free road or a turnpike — supposedly will pass. Residents there don't want a big road in their backyards.

The battle over the two roads can be described as a life-or-death struggle. If the toll road were built, and in operation, there would be a howl over unnecessary expense if the state later attempted to lay down a free road next to it.

And if the free road were built first, it would draw so many potential customers and their fees away from the toll road that it would be doomed to financial failure.

Because of this, potential turnpike backers have held off committing their money until, they hope, Mackie decides a toll road fits into Michigan's highway plans.

HIGHWAY CONTROVERSY — This map shows three important road proposals that would profoundly affect Oakland County traffic. Which of the roads will be built is a decision that new State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie is going to have to make. At the left is the extension of Northwestern highway as a limited-access expressway, a project on which both the county and the state have already agreed. In the center is a dotted line representing the Southfield Expressway, a free road that the highway department has planned as the Oakland County link in the north-south interstate defense highway system. Near the Southfield Expressway and running from Telegraph road in the south to near Ortonville in the north is the controversial toll road proposed by the Michigan Turnpike Authority. Also shown, but not affecting the other three roads, is the proposed relocation of M59 as a limited-access highway from Pontiac east to Utica.

Gas Tax Money Given to MTA

The legislature, while not coming out in favor of a toll road, recently provided a cushion of up to $3 million a year from gas tax money, to be used to pay off interest and principal on bonds if tolls fell short of expectation. This money would have to be repaid.

As Higgins conceives it, the turnpike would be about 76 miles long and cost roughly $165 million. It would cover the distance from the Detroit Industrial Expressway near Telegraph road to the southeast edge of Flint.

Turnpike Would Parallel Telegraph

Heading north, it would pass through the northeast corner of Pontiac and then swing northwesterly in a direction paralleling Dixie Highway.

The free highway (shown in the map as a broken line) is known in its planning stages as the Southfield expressway. Although its exact route through Oakland County has not finally been determined, most planning has it paralleling Southfield road from Eight Mile road to a point south of Birmingham.

Then it would swing west, running along Telegraph to about Long Lake road. The road would head northwest then towards Drayton Plains.

From there it would hook on to another expressway project that would parallel Dixie Highway to Flint over much the same route as the turnpike's.

Mackie Must Choose Between 2 Proposals

These are the two proposals and Mackie must choose between them unless he wants to scrap both and come up with a third idea.

Higgins likes a toll road because it wouldn't take up any tax money. Right-of-way from Detroit to Pontiac would be a highly expensive proposition, he points out.

The turnpike would be financed solely by toll revenues, allowing the state to spend its tax money on roads in less costly areas, where taxpayers would get more road for their dollar, he says.

Higgins also believes that the toll road would be eligible for designation as part of the interstate defense highway system, on which the federal government is spending $9 for every $1 of the state's.

Although the turnpike itself would not be eligible for federal funds, he says, the state would be credited by the federal government with 90 per cent of the turnpike's cost. The money could be used on other state highways, Higgins says.

Ziegler Says Pike Was a Good Idea

Ziegler concedes that the turnpike was not a bad idea when it was originally planned several years ago. At that time, public funds for roads were relatively scarce.

Since then, he points out, the state has earmarked a much higher proportion of tax money for roads. Nowadays, Michigan roads are a $200 million-a-year program.

Therefore, says Ziegler, the state is bound by duty to the public to put a free road through Oakland County, giving motorists a good road at no extra charge.

Ziegler sees the Southfield expressway as part of the interstate route from the Ohio line north to Sault Ste. Marie. At Flint, it would join the U.S. 23 by-pass to Saginaw and Bay City.

★ ★ ★

To the south, it would join a Wayne County section that parallels Southfield from the intersection of the DIE and the nearly-finished Detroit-Toledo Expressway.

Asked for Plans on Wayne Road

Higgins sees this move as a final attempt to scare off buyers of turnpike bonds. As far as he's concerned, Ziegler's announcement means very little.

It's still up to the new highway commission to decide whether or not to build the Wayne County road, Higgins says.

Higgins admits that if the Wayne County road were built, it would leave the southern 15 miles of the turnpike useless, as far as motorists are concerned.

★ ★ ★

Ziegler planned to build the Wayne County road as far north as Nine Mile road and Northwestern. As he figures it, north-south traffic could then use Northwestern until the Southfield Expressway is extended as far north as Drayton Plains.

Until the Drayton Plains-Flint section is completed, traffic could use Dixie highway, he says.

Would Northwestern Take Pike's Traffic?

There remains the question whether too much traffic would be drawn away from the turnpike by Northwestern, if it is built and the Southfield Expressway isn't.

Higgins doesn't think the turnpike would be significantly affected and bonding officials tentatively agree with him. They would prefer, however, that Northwestern be extended only as far north as Commerce or M59.

This would give Western Oakland County residents a good road for travel to Detroit, they say, and at the same time insure that profitable Detroit-Flint traffic would use the turnpike.

Higgins points out that Pontiac area residents would be well serviced by the turnpike, since one of its three interchanges would be within the city limits.

★ ★ ★

While granting this, Ziegler argues that the toll road would not adequately serve the majority of county drivers, since the interchanges are few and far between. For instance, he says, there is no interchange planned between Pontiac and Flint for North Oakland County drivers.

Mackie Given Hints About Final Decision

Higgins hopes for a meeting with Mackie late this month. In the meantime, the new highway commissioner has given only two hints about his final decision.

He's asked the Attorney General if the $25 million in bonds already floated by the state and Oakland County for the Northwestern project could legally be spent elsewhere. The Attorney General has said no. And Mackie has said that the Wayne County section of the Southfield Expressway will be built only if he approves it.

Mackie has had a good eal to say, though, that was of interest to the Telegraph-Southfield road communities.

A Democrat, he charged during the spring election campaign that Ziegler's Republican administration was deliberately stalling Southfield Expressway plans in order not to alienate voters in the strongly Republican area.

And he's claimed that since his election three months ago, the outgoing highway administration has continued to stall in order to place the onus of a final decision upon the Democrats.

Groups Take Steps to Keep Road Away

While the new road is delayed, several communities have taken steps they feel will help in the fight to keep the road away.

The little village of Westchester, on Maple road west of Birmingham, has incorporated and an election will be held in September to incorporate all of Southfield Township.

One big reason many residents have for incorporation is to vote disapproval of a new road.

A DOPE KILLING — Pontiac Police vice squad members made their yearly check last last week of a marijuana field, behind 735 Portland St., which they have been trying to kill for the past four years. The field, cut and sprayed yearly, is now down to a plot of approximately 20 by 20 feet, or one eighth the original size. L. J. Christian, Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, sprays the "weeds" with a deadly poison as Patrolman Richard A. Navarre, Detective Eugene Hendren and Patrolmen Gerald A. Navarre and Dallas Flesher witness the "kill."

Inspection Begins for Violators

Weed-Cutting Pace Brisker This Year

Pontiac's perennial weed headache is slackening this summer, according to Seymour M. Gold, weed "czar" of the city Parks and Recreation Dept.

★ ★ ★

Since the deadline last week for cutting all obnoxious weeds from lots in the city, Gold has begun a block-by-block inspection for violators.

★ ★ ★

"Although only about 40 per cent of the entire city has been cut," said Gold, "this is a great deal ahead of last year's program."

Beginning today, he said, city mowers will move into weed infested plots to cut. Owners will be charged 20 cents a front foot for the work.

★ ★ ★

Gold attributed increased awareness of the annual problem to advance notice of the deadline in The Press, plus personal letters to all who last year violated a 1955 city ordinance requiring that weeds be cut.

★ ★ ★

The city official warned property owners one cutting won't last all summer.

The success of this year's program, instituted by David R. Ewalt director of the city department, pleased City Commissioner Floyd P. Miles into commenting last night:

"On my trip out Baldwin I saw only one lot not cut between down town and Walton."

SOME CALL THIS "GRASS" — If you happen to see an unusual plant such as this growing in your yard, instead of calling the garden club, call the police. This is marijuana, which matures from three to 15 feet tall and commonly grows wild. The leaves grow in a cluster, always an odd number from five to eleven and are prickly.

60,000 to Gather at Valley Forge

Scouts Head for Camp

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP)—Jamboree City, a man-made temporary community built for Boy Scouts only, is ready today for the greatest gathering of American youth in the nation's history.

The Scout troops begin moving in tomorrow on the hallowed, historic rolling hills made famous by George Washington's Revolutionary War army.

Nearly 60,000 Boy Scouts and their adult leaders, ready and anxious to show off in-the-field scouting accomplishments, pour into this city of 25,000 tents in the next three days. On Friday the day-and-night program of the fourth National Jamboree officially begins. It ends July 18.

The 3,000-acre canvas city, when fully occupied, will become Pennsylvani's 16th largest city.

Jamboree City has everything for comfortable living — and camping.

Besides the tents — the sleeping ones hold two Scouts each—there are roads and hospitals, water, power and telephone lines, post offices, snack bars, an intercamp bus line and a daily camp newspaper.

O. B. Evenson, responsible for stocking the jamboree with provisions, says, "Never in modern times, even by the military, have 60,000 camped in one place and in a totally temporary city."

Eight miles of pipe carry 1½ million gallons of water daily . . .

509,000 eggs will be consumed, washed down by 559,252 quarts of milk . . .

300 tons of charcoal briquets will be burned in cooking . . .

And 9½ million pieces of paper goods — cups, plates, spoons, napkins — will be used in the eating.

Thieves Follow Earp to Grave

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lawman Wyatt Earp has been followed by lawbreakers even beyond the grave.

San Franciscans immediately suspected the tombstone was headed for Tombstone, Ariz. That's the last place Earp battled Western bandits and there's been talk of taking Earp's remains there.

The gunslinger's marker was stolen Saturday night from a cemetery at Colma, just south of San Francisco.

Morris Colton, superintendent of the Hills of Eternity Memorial Park Cemetery, said the thief tried unsuccessfully to unearth Earp's ashes and added that recently he had several phone calls from unidentified persons asking if the Earp ashes were to be transferred to Tombstone.

Earp came to San Francisco in 1891 after an Arizona murder warrant was issued for him. He had shot down three men he believed responsible for killing his brother Morgan in a billiard hall.

His career in California was comparatively sedate. He married a San Francisco girl and did well in real estate. He died at Los Angeles in 1929.

Clinton Issue Reflects Rights Controversy

Segregationist Goes on Trial

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The history-making trial of the "Clinton 15" and segregationist John Kasper opens today in an atmosphere electric with the whole vast controversy over civil rights.

Lawyers—and the city is thronging with them—pointed to these implications in the case:

1. It is the first great test of the federal government's power to enforce the Supreme Court's order to the public schools to act with "all deliberate speed" to end segregation.

2. It may throw some light on the question of whether white jurors will convict persons involved in civil rights cases—an issue now being debated in Congress.

Constitutional questions and the boundaries of federal and state authority also will be debated in the trial in U.S. District Court.

"We are going to fight this out to the bitter end," said Ross Barnett of Jackson, Miss., a defense attorney. Barnett is former president of the Mississippi Bar and a twice-defeated candidate for governor.

"If you don't want an oak tree to grow, pluck the acorn out of the ground," said Judge George Washington Williams of Baltimore. A former federal district judge and ardent "states' righter," Williams argues that the Supreme Court decision is "not absolute," and can be reversed.

They are 2 of the 22 lawyers whose names are associated with the defense.

Kasper and 15 other persons, including two women, are charged with criminal contempt.

The charge grew out of disturbances at Clinton, Tenn., last autumn and again in November and December, when Negro students were brought into the previously all-white high school.

Clinton, 20 miles from Knoxville, is a town of 4,500. There were 12 Negro students originally seated among 800 whites. By the end of the year, however, five Negro students had dropped out. They said they had been intimidated.

Kasper, born in New Jersey, was accused of fomenting the disturbances in August, when the Negro students were first admitted to the high school. He was convicted of criminal contempt for violating Federal Judge Robert L. Taylor's injunction against interfering with the integration of the school.

Taylor sentenced him to a year in prison and a fine of $1,000.

During the most critical period of the disturbances in Clinton, 100 state police were sent to the little town to keep order. The following day, 667 Tennessee National Guardsmen and six tanks rolled in to reinforce the police.

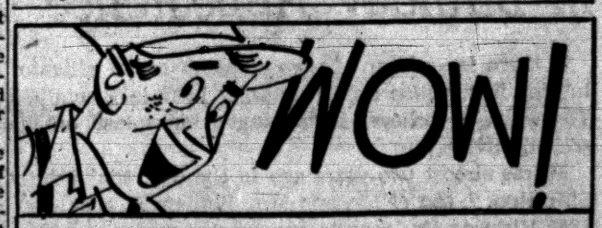

Federal agents arrested the 15 on Dec. 5 and 6. They are free on bail ranging from $1,000 to $12,000.

Under federal law, they can be sentenced to six months in jail or fined $1,000, or both.

Runaway Boat Hits Own Driver, Breaks His Arm

Billy Joe Jones, 28, of 3088 Whitfield Dr., Waterford Township, excaped serious injury yesterday when he was run over by his own speed boat on Maceday Lake.

According to witnesses, Jones' boat made a sharp turn throwing him into the lake. The boat circled returning to run over him.

He was rescued by witnesses, Richard Weaver, Leo Kupawa, and Leonard Fireney, all of River Rouge. He was treated at the scene by Dr. J. R. Hoyt and taken to Pontiac General Hospital with a broken right arm and severe lacerations to the right shoulder.

Waterford Township police said that the boat continued to run in a circle until it was out of gas 50 minutes later.

Jones is reported in satisfactory condition this morning.

9 Die as 2 Cars Crash in Flames

CD Display a Success at West Bloomfield High

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Civil Defense is no joke to a large number of the residents of this township. For more than two years John Warren, director, and his wife, Virginia, his assistant, have been working industriously to assemble workers who are trained in the event of disaster whether it be due to weather or other causes.

YVONNE YEAGER

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Yeager of 28000 Sunset Dr., Lathrup Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Yvonne, to Gunnar Hemstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hemstrom of Stockholm, Sweden. The wedding date has been set for Oct. 19.

Last January they put on an exercise to test their facilities and methods. It was well attended by Civil Defense authorities from the state.

Because of this exercise, when the National Federation of Business and Professional Womens' clubs were planning their national convention in Detroit and requested a Civil Defense demonstration, West Bloomfield Township was selected to provide it.

It occurred on Sunday afternoon when the Ford Motor Company provided busses to bring 400 women to the West Bloomfield Township High School.

They played the part of evacuees. As they approached the area they were met by mobile amateur radio operators who reported their progress to the base station just as would be done in an actual emergency. As these reports came in to the base station they were tape-recorded.

Communications deputy William M. Duckwitz and Dr. Wilson E. M. Pacific made the arrangements for the radio communications net as they did for the January exercise.

The Pontiac branch of the Michigan Bell Telephone company under the direction of Charles Brouillet and Earl Thornton installed telephones in the high school for the various agencies which were involved in the exercise.

Accident Kills 7 in California

5 in 1 Family, 2 Others Die in Fiery Collision Near Saugus

SAUGUS, Calif. (UP) — Seven persons, including five members of one family, were killed yesterday in one of the worst auto crashes of the holiday weekend.

The fiery collision, involving a station wagon and a sedan, occurred in a canyon about 18 miles north of this Los Angeles County community. Robert M. Burleson, 48, a tool and die firm operator from Culver City, was returning from Reno, Nev., in the station wagon with his wife and three of their children. Dr. Floyd A. Svec, 40, and Henry G. Smallbrook, 68, both of Los Angeles, were on a business trip in the car.

The two vehicles collided near a curve in the highway. A witness said the fuel tank of the station wagon exploded and a sheet of flames swirled over the wreckage of the two cars.

The witness, Ray Edwards of Tujunga, said the burned bodies of Dr. Svec and Smallbrook were lying near their car when he pulled up at the scene. Burelson was lying near the station wagon. His wife Lucille, 25, and the three children—Juley, 9 months; Brynn Francis, 5, a girl, and Fred Lee, 2 — were piled in the front seat of the station wagon.

The California highway patrol said the sedan, driven by Smallbrook, apparently skidded out of control on the curve and slammed broadside into the oncoming station wagon.

Man Threatens Three With Gun

Shoots Up Waterford House, Chased by Police Before Being Caught

A Detroit man, Philip Nowland, 29, of 1251 Glynn Ct., ran wild at a Waterford Township party early Sunday morning, threatening the lives of three people and leading sheriff's deputies on a chase before being apprehended.

McNary jumped up and tried to take the gun from him, but Nowland freed himself, then firing two rounds into a wall in the hallway, according to reports.

After threatening other guests, Nowland ran to his car and drove away. Deputies, after answering the call, patrolled the area watching for a car of the description given by the McNarys.

They spotted him at Cooley Lake Rd. and Tanfield St., in Waterford Township and chased Nowland back to the scene of the party, where they placed him under arrest on charges of felonious assault.

Deputies found the gun and a total of 127 shells on him, including three in the gun. Deputies said he had been drinking.

Set Stage to Try 3 Deposed Reds?

New Charges Leveled at Molotov, Malenkov and Kaganovich

LONDON (INS)—The stage apparently was being set today to try the newly ousted Kremlin leaders for complicity in Stalin's bloody purges of the 1930s.

As the hate campaign against V. M. Molotov, Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich shifted into high gear, the deposed officials were accused of violating "revolutionary legality" during the "period of mass repressions" — the days of the bloodbaths in which thousands were executed.

Former Soviet Premier Nikolai M. Shvernik leveled the charges against the former ranking members of the Moscow hierarchy at a mass meeting in Leningrad Saturday.

In the text of his speech released Sunday night, Shvernik said the majority of the alleged victims of the three men had been reinstated in the party.

GRAVE CRIME

Violation of "revolutionary legality" is a grave crime under the Soviet constitution. The charge could open the way for criminal proceedings against the ousted trio.

Reports of speeches and newspaper articles reaching the Free World also said the three close associates of Stalin were being accused of organizing the purges and opposing measures "to liquidate" the consequences of the Stalin "personality cult."

The newly reappointed member of the Communist Party Presidium declared the trio had "used factionist methods to recruit supporters, held secret meetings behind the back of the party presidium and posted cadres with views to seizing power both in the party and country."

The three had been expelled from the party's Central Committee and its ruling presidium on charges of organizing an "anti-party" plot.

Shvernik also condemned Malenkov for taking an "active part" in the notorious Leningrad case in which several top party leaders were framed and executed in 1949.

3 Bodies Recovered; Trio Drowned July 2

Benzie County Sheriff's Deputies today discovered the bodies of three persons who drowned in Green Lake near Traverse City last Monday.

The search, beginning when a resident of Green Lake reported seeing a boat carrying three persons overturn in what sheriff's deputies described as "50 feet of very black, cold muddy water," disclosed the bodies of an engaged couple and the man's cousin.

Dead are Wallace Harrington, 27, father of three children, of 2841 Gerald Rd.; Mrs. Dorothy Brown, 26, of the same address, and mother of one child; and Harrington's cousin, Melvin Gill, 33, of Mesick, northwest of Cadillac.

Lake Alligator Returns in Birthday Appearance

If there is such an elusive creature as an alligator lurking in a lagoon off Lower Long Lake in Bloomfield Township, he believes in making a big splash on his second birthday.

It was almost two years ago to the day, that Danny Singleton, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Singleton, 1341 Kirkway Dr., reported seeing a long-snouted 'gator.

Reluctantly, the Singletons disclosed over the weekend that the mysterious thing returned to haunt them Friday night about 11:30.

"I woke up to hear a disturbance in the lagoon which sounded like two things fighting. The splashing was furious and lasted for about ten minutes.

"One of the things was making a sound like a dog being attacked," said Mrs. Singleton, who has never given up her belief that there is an alligator.

"I awoke Bill and we both ran to the lagoon. Apparently we made the mistake of turning on the flood lights because the fighting ended," she continued.

FOUR FEET LONG

"But we did see this reptile about four feet long making for the direction of Lower Long Lake." William Singleton said. For several years skeptical of his wife and son's tale, Singleton said he too now believes the beast exists.

And to prove it, he said a rope with a noose still hangs in the garage as it has been since 1955—just in case.

All Inmates at Same Home

Venice Heat Kills 15 Aged

The dead included 13 women and 2 men. All were of "very advanced years" and were under treatment for heart trouble or other ailments.

The tempearture in the humid canal city hit 100.4 degrees after a weeklong heat wave which has been one of the worst in Italy since the war.

The aged heat victims were among 470 inmates in the institution, one of five of its kind maintained by the city. It is a rambling old building, once used as a convent, in the San Lorenzo quarter of the city.

No deaths were reported at the four other homes for the aged.

Authorities, alarmed as the elderly men and women died through the sweltering night, rushed special additional ventilating equipment to the home.

So far today there had been no decision whether to move the other residents from the building.

Witness Examined by Hoffa Defense

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense attorneys resume cross examination of the government's star witness today in the conspiracy-bribery trial of James R. Hoffa and Hyman I. Fischbach.

They were expected to ask details of how the witness, John Cye Cheasty, prepared written reports on telephone conversations with Hoffa, the No. 2 Teamsters Union official, and Fischbach, a Miami attorney.

Hoffa and Fischbach are accused of conspiring to plant Cheasty, a New York lawyer-investigator, on the Senate Rackets Committee.

Today marked Cheasty's eighth day on the stand as the trial moved into its 12th day after a four-day staff to funnel secret information to them during the committee's probe of the Teamsters Union.

Auto Accident Injuring Five Blamed on Light

A defective traffic light was blamed for an auto accident today at Auburn avenue and Sanford street in which five persons were injured, Pontiac Police report.

Walter J. Nurek, 42, of 339 Michigan Ave. told police the traffic light was stuck on Sanford at Auburn. He claimed he did not see the auto driven by Orval L. Lakin, 18, of 609 W. Wattles, Birmingham, when Nurek drove into the intersection against the light.

All of the injured, including the two drivers, were treated for minor injuries and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

The injured passengers in Lakin's auto were Jean F. Mayer, 18, of Clawson; Lillian R. Sutherland, 20, of Royal Oak, and Charles E. Johnson, 20, of Utica.

77 Pontiac Scouts Touring Capital

Area boy scouts are en route to the Fourth National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America today.

Before the 77 arrive Wednesday at the site of the mammoth camp at Valley Forge in Pennsylvania, the local group will spend today and tomorrow touring the nation's capital and nearby historical landmarks.

Holiday Crowds Fail to Overload County's Roads

Evidently the major portion of Independence Day vacationers didn't stay for the weekend. At least this is what Oakland County law enforcers believe.

As the long weekend drew to a close yesterday, traffic proportions remained less than expected. In fact, many county roads carried less traffic than that of the previous weekend.

Neither the state police nor sheriff's department reported any major tieups. The Redford State Police Post reported that Grand River Ave. was "tied up during the homeward rush, but not any worse than on a normal Sunday."

Both the sheriff's department and Pontiac state troopers said that the traffic was heaviest in the areas of Dodge State Park No. 4, on Cass Lake, and Pontiac Lake Park, but traffic was not backed up, as on previous Sundays.

"While traffic was heavy on the main thoroughfares, it kept moving at a steady pace," reported state troopers. Authorities believe that, aside from the fact that the major portion had already gone home, forecasts of afternoon and evening thundershowers may have accounted for fewer people at parks and on the highways.

3 County Residents Injured in Accidents

Two accidents early today sent three county residents to Pontiac General Hospital, Constance Lane, 16, of 5471 Elizabeth Lake Rd., Waterford Township, was treated for minor injuries and released after being involved in an accident on Scott Lake Rd. near Elizabeth Lake Rd., in Waterford Township.

Injured in a collision on Auburn Rd. at John R. Rd., were Charles Keith, 33, of 790 Robinwood St., and Richard Thompson, 21, of 3130 Gerald St., Rochester. Keith suffered multiple head cuts while Thompson was admitted with fractured ribs and a fractured wrist.

Stolen Safe Recovered With $3,000 Intact

A half-ton safe containing approximately $3,000 in cash and checks stolen from a market over the weekend, has been recovered unopened in a Bloomfield Township vacant lot, Pontiac Police report.

The robbery from Guzman's Market, 263 Franklin Rd., is the second safe theft occurring in the city within eight days.

The safe stolen from Furtney Drug Store, 450 E. Pike St., containing approximately $4,000 in cash and $1,453 in checks a week ago Friday, was found the next day empty.

Wet Brakes Cause Car-Bus Collision

Emma P. Smith, of 341 Branch St., was in fair condition, a hospital spokesman said.

Pontiac Police report the Pontiac City Lines bus, driven by Clarence Fournier, 56, of 50 Ellwood St., was stopped on Saginaw at Lawrence streets about 6:40 a.m. to pick up passengers when the Smith car ran into the rear of the bus. The woman told police the brakes failed because they were wet.

West Huron Carries Bulk of Traffic Through City

If you get snarled up in a traffic tie-up in the vicinity of West Huron and the railroad tracks, don't bother tooting your horn or shaking your fist at the guy in front of you. You're fighting the heaviest traffic in Pontiac.

A recent survey conducted by City Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel revealed that for a typical 12-hour period more vehicles enter and leave downtown Pontiac via West Huron than by any other routes.

The survey, called the Cordon Count, was conducted to determine the most used entrances and exits to the business district. Men, provided by the Department of Public Works, were stationed at 15 points.

BUSY ROUTES

The seven other most traveled routes and the number of vehicles using them were:

Saginaw at Patterson—12,436
Oakland at Lafayette—10,073
Perry between School and Millbourne—7,066

★ ★ ★

Cass north of Orchard Lake—6,509
Pike east of Mill—5,754
Pike at viaduct—3,377
Lawrence at viaduct—2,947

The survey, the official said, will be used for planning purposes. Similar ones will be taken each year at approximately the same date to show fluctuations in traffic at the same 15 intersections.

The study showed that a total of 85,532 vehicles entered and left downtown Pontiac by these 15 routes from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Busiest hours proved to be 8 a.m. the report showed.

During the 12-hour period, automobiles accounted for 87 per cent of the vehicles coming and going from the business district. Trucks made up 11 per cent of the total, while buses were fairly scarce at a little over one per cent.

AL Pitching Must Offset NL Slugging

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Casey Stengel may pin his hopes on his own New York Yankees as he seeks to end his mid-summer jinx here tomorrow when the best of the American and National Leagues clash in the Silver Anniversary of the All-Star game.

The grizzled Yankee pilot may have had just that in mind when he selected six members of his own team to the squad to go along with the two Yankee starters picked by the fans. Casey has a profound respect for the awesome power of the National League, which has defeated Stengel-led teams five times in six games.

The odds - makers apparently have the same respect for the Senior circuit sluggers. They've established them a 6-5 favorite to capture their seventh in the last eight All-Star Games. The American League leads in overall games, 13 to 10.

Starting pitchers for both sides were still a mystery. Neither Stengel nor Walter Alston, the Nationals' manager, has given any hint regarding their opening nominees. The logical choices, however, would be Billy Loes, 9-4, of Baltimore or Jim Bunning, 10-2, of Detroit for the American League against either Curt Simmons, 8-6, of Philadelphia or Johnny Antonelli, 7-7, of New York.

One thing appears almost certain. The American League will open with a righthander and the National with a lefthander. Righthanders Loes and Bunning and lefthanders Simmons and Antonelli are the most rested.

Simmons last worked Thursday, July 4. The other three haven't pitched since Friday. Loes and Bunning have had no previous All-Star experience. Simmons and Antonelli have appeared in three games, and Antonelli stopped the American Leaguers cold last year.

★ ★ ★

A capacity crowd of some 31,000 Busch Stadium fans is assured for the game, which will start at 1:30 p.m. (EST). Millions more will view it and hear it on NBC radio and television. Sixty per cent of the total receipts is earmarked for the players' pension fund. In the event of rain, the game will be rescheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow night. If again postponed, it will be rescheduled for 10:30 a.m. Wednesday and again, for 1:30 p.m. the same day.

★ ★ ★

As it was last year, the National League team will be dominated by the Cincinnati Redlegs, who will have five players in the starting lineup. They are second baseman Johnny Temple, shortstop Roy McMillan, third baseman Don Hoak, left fielder Frank Robinson and catcher Ed Bailey.

Stan Musial, who has played more All-Star games than anyone, will be at first base, in his 14th game. The St. Louis star has hit five home runs and has made 15 hits, both records, in All-Star competition.

★ ★ ★

The American League will have four southpaw swingers and four righthanded hitters if the National starts with a lefthander. Mickey Mantle, the center fielder, bats both ways, of course. Left fielder Ted Williams will be competing in his 12th game.

The American League holds a comfortable pitching edge over the National. Its seven selectees own an aggregate 65-27 won-lost record compared to 52-34 for the National.

Billy Pierce of the White Sox, with a 12-6 record, has the most victories. He is followed by Early Wynn, Cleveland, 11-9 and Bunning, 10-2. Loes is 9-4, Bobby Shantz of the Yankees 9-1, Bob Grim, also of the Yankees 8-3 and Don Mossi of Cleveland 6-2.

Jack Sanford of Philadelphia, 10-2, and Larry Jackson of St. Louis, 10-4, lead the National League pitchers in victories. Simmons is 8-4, Antonelli 7-7, Lew Burdette of Milwaukee 6-6 and Warren Spahn, also of Milwaukee is 8-7.

Pennant Races at Midway Point

Yankees, Cards Hold Leads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

You can skip "who's on first" guessing game in the National League for most of this week anyway. It's the St. Louis Cardinals by 2½ games as the majors headed into the All-Star game break with no pennant action scheduled until Wednesday night.

Judging by the Cards' five game winning streak and nine out of 10 surge, they may be in first place a lot longer than that. They could go all the way, too. Anyone who has been waiting for the Cards to play dead had better take a look at the standings.

★ ★ ★

The Cards and Dodgers each hit the 77-game halfway mark of the torrid race simultaneously Sunday with the Cards in front and the champion Dodgers in fifth.

That should prove it's a different year for the National. The Brooks haven't been out of the first division at the midway point since the 1948 season.

The Dodgers whirled out of the first division in a dizzying reshuffle of the standings from second to fifth place. The Cards belted the Cincinnati Redlegs twice, 3-2 and 9-6, Philadelphia blasted Brooklyn 2-1, and 5-3, and Milwaukee whipped Chicago, 4-2. This sent the Redlegs from second to fourth, the Braves from third to second, the Phils from fifth to third, and Brooklyn from fourth to fifth.

Pittsburgh even got into the act. The Pirates, with Frank Thomas and Dick Groat on a homer binge, whaled the New York Giants, 10-6 and 8-1, and moved out of the cellar. The Cubs dropped in.

In the American League, the New York Yankees also held a 2½ game edge over the Chicago White Sox in the two-team race. The Yanks whipped Washington, 7-5, but lost a half game to the White Sox who bounced Cleveland twice, 9-8 in 13 innings, and 7-2. Baltimore beat Boston 8-4 on Bob Nieman's four runs batted in.

The Cards' two wins gave them a sweep of the four-game set with Cincinnati. A St. Louis crowd of 30,516 cheered as young Joe Cunningham kept the Cards blazing with six hits—three in each game—to boost his average to .391. The 25-year-old outfielder from Saddle Brook, N. J., hammered home all three runs in the opener, the first two with a homer, and the winner with a single in the 10th.

Milwaukee drew 33,616 customers to become the first club in the majors to hit the million mark in attendance. This is becoming a Milwaukee tradition. The Braves have drawn 1,008,980. The big crowd in County Stadium went home happy as Lew Burdette spun a six-hitter for his first victory since May 18. Wes Covington and Frank Torre climaxed a three-run first inning with successive triples and that did it for Lew.

Yogi Berra's three-run double off Chuck Stobbs was the big blow of a four-run rally in the eighth inning which carried the Yanks to their victory over Washington. The poor Senators dropped their sixth in a row.

Fair Continues Record Busting

Pontiac Racer Stages Close Run With Katlin at M59 Track

Pontiac's Joy Fair contined his record breaking times by setting a new record in the 30-lap feature at the Pontiac Speedway yesterday afternoon in 8:31.87.

Katlin also set a record in the time trials. He finished ahead of Fair in :16.53.

In the Australian pursuit, won by Katlin, Hank Grilliot of Flint, hit the retaining wall and demolished his car. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where the extent of his injuries were to be determined following X-rays this morning.

Indianwood and Elliott Win in Little League

Indianwood Homes and Elliott Furniture garnered close triumphs in Little League play while Junior League power Spencer Floors romped to a 17-6 win over Nubrite Plating in Waterford softball action Saturday.

Don Gilchrist flipped a one-hitter as Indianwood triumphed 4-2 over Elizabeth Lake Estates and Elliott Furniture tallied once in the 7th to nip Rogers Electric 3-2.

Skipper Rapped on Noggin

Errant Boom Hits Kreitz

Karl Kreitz, skipper of the thistle-class Kreitz Kraft of Watkins Lake Yachting Association, had a close call from an unexpected ducking, but got a bang on the noggin, instead, in Sunday's races at Watkins Lake.

Karl was sailing along when the boom swung around suddenly, rapped him on the head. The incident went almost unnoticed by the rest of the fleet. Kreitz finished 3rd in the race, won by Tar Baby, sailed by Harn Gillam, crewed by Paul Saghy. Ed and Jack Nelson's boat was second.

Byaes, sailed by Chuck Morris and Frank Fleck won the snipe race. G-Wiz was 2nd, skippered by Guy Duffield, with Nancy Duffield crew. A new boat, Peanuts, skippered by Don Glossip, crewed by Hemming, was 3rd.

Dave Greene's lightning won this class. Joe Greene and John Shermire crewed. Glenn and Jo Fries in Jo-Dee placed 2nd and Golden Dragon, with John Noble skipper, crewed by Tom Cochran and Bob Redick was third.

Pennant Not Heat Has Warmed-Up St. Louis

Cardinal fans — cheerless since the Red Birds finished second in 1949 — are once more talking pennant and even of a World Series victory in more extensive moments.

Yesterday the largest St. Louis crowd in seasons — 30,516 — crammed into Busch Stadium and watched the Cardinals strike down Cincinnati 3-2 and 9-6.

The double victory over the Redlegs meant a two and one-half game lead in the constricted National League race for St. Louis.

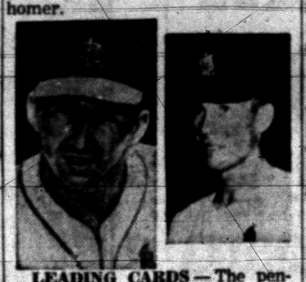

Two and one-half games isn't much but it's the biggest margin achieved since Cincinnati held a like lead over Philadelphia June 5.

The most recent one it an 18-year-old Oklahoma bonus pitcher Von McDaniel, who has recorded for four straight victories since joining the team at the end of May. Only 11 runs have been scored off of him in 38-plus Major League innings.

Then there's Joe Cunningham who failed before with the Cards and came back — or spunk. Joe has muscled into the Red Birds outfield and yesterday knocked out six hits in eight at bats. In the first game he made a loser out of Redleg Brooks Lawrence with a 10th inning single and a two-run homer.

LEADING CARDS — The pennant fever in St. Louis is due to a pair of youngsters, Joe Cunningham (left) and Von McDaniel. Cunningham had six hits in eight trips yesterday as the Cards defeated the Redlegs twice. McDaniel, just out of high school, has won four straight for the Cards.

Hoad May Sign $125,000 Net Contract Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Only the formality of signing his contract remained today—and Lew Hoad was a professional tennis player.

While it has been known for two days that Hoad was ready to sign with Kramer for the highest guarantee ever given a player—$125,000 for two years—it wasn't until yesterday at takeoff time for London that Hoad admitted he would join Kramer's troupe.

The Aussie Davis Cup ace, fresh from his second straight victory at Wimbledon, said he hadn't officially signed with Kramer, but "the chance of my turning it down are about 1 in 100."

4 Michigan Netters in Jaycee Nationals

DETROIT (AP) — Four young Michigan tennis players have qualified to play in the National Jaycee tennis tournament at Santa Monica, Calif.

They are Ray Senkowski, Francisco Castillo, and Jerry Dubie, all of Hamtramck, and Dick Colby of Kalamazoo.

Senkowski won the Michigan Jaycee junior tennis singles crown yesterday by stopping Dubie, 6-3, 6-0, 6-3, in final play at the Neighborhood Club in Grosse Pointe. All reaching the finals automatically were assured of berths in the national tourney.

Seixas, Hard Seeded 1st in West Tourney

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A pair of Wimbledon stars, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., are seeded No. 1 respectively in the men's and women's singles of the Western Open Tennis Tournament slated to begin here today.

A total of 64 men and 32 women are entered in the seven-day tournament that will be played on the new courts of the Town Club. Seixas, the nation's No. 3 player will see his first action tomorrow.

New Long Term Seen for Frick

Majors Also Act on Renewal of Major-Minor Pact

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Re-election of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick for seven more years was expected today at the joint meeting of the major leagues.

Frick, who receives $65,000 a year as commissioner, was elected for a seven-year term in 1951. His term does not expire until Sept. 21, 1958 but under baseball law the leagues must reveal their intent a maximum of 18 months or a minimum of 12 months before his term expires.

Both leagues also will vote on renewal of the major-minor league agreement under which organized baseball operates.

The leagues will hold separate meetings in the morning. The National League will reconsider a proposal by Milwaukee to make a ¾ vote necessary before a franchise can be moved.

As it is now, a unanimous vote is required.

Muskegon Boat Wins Lake Michigan Race

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — The 40-foot cutter Romahajo of Muskegon won its second race in four days Saturday when it edged a field of 18 other boats in the Lake Michigan Yachting Regatta.

The cutter, owned by Harvey Nedeau of Muskegon, took advantage of a fresh breeze to skim over the 12-mile course in the corrected time of one hour, 41 minutes and 24 seconds.

1st Negro Wimbledon Champion

Gibson Home With Dream Fulfilled

NEW YORK (AP)—Althea Gibson, bags, tennis racket and gold plate presented by Queen Elizabeth returns late today to the first court she ever played on—West 143th street in Harlem—and for once she can smile and know there won't have to be a year-long wait for "another chance."

The long-limbed, 29-year-old Negro fulfilled her self-admitted goal to win the Wimbledon crown—and did it quickly and methodically in disposing of Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., 6-3, 6-2.

For Althea, it was the culmination of seven years of domestic and international tennis play, all given its genesis on the asphalt of Harlem's streets.

★ ★ ★

Miss Gibson's mother smilingly recalls how Althea used to grab a solid wooden paddle and a couple of well-worn tennis balls. Then she would go out to look for an empty brick wall or anyone who cared to match her in this almost unheard of game, in a land where "stickball" rules the streets of New York during the warm weather months.

★ ★ ★

Quite often, the brick walls in the neighborhood furnished her with her opposition, but they had the distinction of being the only ones never to fail to return one of Althea's bullet-like serves or her ferocious volleys.

While the tour down the tennis road to supremacy has been a long and arduous one, it has not been without its rewards and distinctions.

In 1950, she was the first Negro ever to play in the national tennis championships at Forest Hills and it took an act of nature in the form of a violent squall to bring her from the brink of victory over Louise Brough to a heart-breaking loss the next day when the match was resumed.

In May 1951, her heart did a series of tumbles when she received an invitation to compete in the Wimbledon matches. This was her World Series, and she blew her first chance in the third round against Beverly Baker. But she still carried home the distinction of being the first Negro ever to compete in this hallowed affair.

★ ★ ★

Her national stature was recognized in December, 1954, when she became the first Negro ever to be named one of the top 10 tennis players in the country. A few days later, the Eastern Lawn Tennis Assn. named her the number one women's player in their ranks.

Last year, she lost in the quarter-finals at Wimbledon to Shirley Fry, but still salvaged a part of the doubles crown.

There's No Room for High Jinks in Motorboats

There's no room for hijinks on the water. Hot-rodding and careless operation of small craft are as welcome as a hatful of herring. Courtesy and adherence to the rules of the road are the mark of a good skipper. Here's a breakdown of basic rules of the road, each a contribution to safety and good boating:

1. When two craft approach each other head on, each should bear to the starboard (right) so as to pass port (left) to port.

2. When one boat is overtaking another, the craft doing the overtaking should use discretion in selecting the passing side which will allow for the most clearance.

3. When a boat is passed from the right, the boat being passed is required to yield the right-of-way and should alter its course and reduce speed to come under the stern of the passing boat.

4. Boats leaving slips, wharves, and piers have no rights until they have cleared the area entirely. The rule calls for proceeding slowly with maximum caution.

5. Fishing boats, whether anchored or underway, always have the right-of-way. Always slow down and keep a good distance when passing fishing boats.

Yacht Champion May Miss Race

PORT HURON (AP) — The Gypsy, defending cruising Class A champion, is not expected to enter the Port Huron-to-Mackinac Island yacht race this weekend because needed repairs couldn't be made in time.

Joe Schoendorf said in Milwaukee Saturday that his 52-foot sloop received several cracked ribs when bilge water froze during storage last winter.

Another Watrous a Pro

The 22-year-old golfer said he was in "a hurry to get started as a pro" and planned to join his well known golfing father Al Watrous as an assistant pro at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Young Watrous said he planned to bow in as a pro in such events as the Michigan Open and the Michigan pro-am tourneys.

He is 22 and is engaged to be married in September to Joann Ransom of Royal Oak. They hope to make the winter pro tour as a honeymoon.

Tommy graduated from the University of Detroit last month. He captained the Titan golf team and his 75.02 average was second only to Bob Babbish in the school's golf history.

1st 'Lefty Ace' Scored at Tam During Weekend

What is believed to be the first hole-in-one by a lefthanded golfer in the Pontiac area, this year, was carded Sunday at Tam O'Shanter. The "southpaw" slugger who hit the ace was Dr. Bert Solomon of Detroit. It was Tam's 1st "lefty" ace the first hole-in-one for Dr. Solomon.

Playing with two other Detroiters, the Tam O'Shanter member banged his driver tee shot to the 205-yard No. 11 green. The ball hit well on, rolled a few feet into the cup. Dr. Solomon is one of the club's good golfers.

Tigers Even at All-Star Time

DETROIT (AP) — The annual break for the All-Star game finds the Detroit Tigers all even in wins and losses.

Paul Foytack's pitching and the hitting of Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell pulled the Tigers even at 39-39 yesterday as the club whipped the Kansas City Athletics 5-2.

Just past the halfway point in the season with 76 contests remaining, the Tigers—though considerably better off than at the same time a year ago—are not in the contending position everyone assured they would be.

They are 12½ games out of first place and just one game ahead of the sixth-place Baltimore Orioles. The Tigers are off for the All-Star game for three days and resume their home stand Thursday against Boston.

Foytack, given early batting support by Kaline and Maxwell, was coasting on a five-run lead into the ninth inning when Lou Skizas singled to left and Tim Thompson planted his fifth home run into the upper deck in right.

This is the same Thompson that Detroit manager Jack Tighe tried to lure away from the Athletics in the trade that sent Ned Garver and Virgil Trucks to the A's last winter. The A's refused to part with Thompson, who has hit four of his five roundtrippers in Briggs Stadium —three of them in the last days.

Kaline, who hadn't driven in a run in six games and only 31 all season, accounted for three of the Tiger scores with his fifth home run and a pair of doubles. He doubled home Frank Bolling, who had singled, in the third inning.

Maxwell, blanked in four trips against the A's Saturday night, crashed his 18th home run into the lower left centerfield deck in the first inning following Bolling's single. It was the first time the Paw Paw slugger had hit a "wrong-field" home run at Briggs Stadium.

"It may sound a little weather-beaten by now," said Tighe after the contest, "but I still think we can be up there pretty high in the standings."

★ ★ ★

A year ago after 78 games the Tigers had 35 victories and 43 losses. They were in fifth place—right where they are now—but they were 18 games off the pace.

★ ★ ★

Despite the Tigers' tremendous surge in the late going in 1956, it is significant that they came from sixth place to fifth place on July 29 —and never changed positions from there on in.

Rain Hits Jaycee, Publinx

The Jaycee Junior golf tournament and the state qualifying for the National Public Links were both hit by rains today.

In the Jaycee meet at Grand Rapids, where Pontiac, Waterford and Birmingham teams are entered, officials were still hopeful of getting the first round played today even after delaying morning action.

The publinx tourney at Birmingham and Plum Hollow was postponed until next Monday with the same starting times in effect.

Plan Elimination Series

Moore's Title Now Vacant

NEW YORK (AP)—Archie Moore, the graybeard light heavyweight champion of the world, is no more.

Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission and newly elected president of the World Championship Committee for Professional Boxing, said no meetings, no formalities, no talks are necessary to declare the light heavyweight title vacant.

"At the World Championship Committee meeting in Paris last month, it was decided that Moore's title would be automatically vacated if he failed to sign for a championship fight with Tony Anthony by July 7," Helfand said.

Unless he has decided to keep it a secret, Archie has not signed to fight Anthony. The other day, Frank Sinatra's business manager, Hank Sanicola, said he and the singer hoped to promote a bout between Moore and Anthony in Los Angeles in September. He added that he's supposed to meet with Archie today.

"The National Boxing Assn. was represented at the Paris meeting," he said. "And concurred in our decision. If Moore had signed by July 7 he would have had until Aug. 30 to go through with the fight.

"We have set up plans for an elimination series. Anthony, as the No. 1 contender, can fight either Harold Johnson of Philadelphia or Yolande Pompey of Trinidad. The winner will be recognized as the world champion provided he fights the other within 90 days in defense of the title."

It remains to be seen whether the committee can make stick its decision to strip Moore of his title. He failed to go through with a date with Anthony in defense of the title June 7, and the NBA announced it would take his title away from him.

It is almost a certainty that Moore, who hasn't defended his title since he knocked out Pompey 13 months ago, will challenge the authority of Helfand, the committee, the NBA and anyone else who tries to force him into fighting against his will.

Milford Nails 1st-Half Title

Wins 7th Straight in Legion Loop; Berkley Trips Rochester

Milford clinched first half honors in the 18th District American Legion Junior baseball loop, Sunday afternoon, with a 5-2 win over Clawson. Game was played in Clawson, and gave the unbeaten Huron Valley outfit its seventh straight victory with only two more games in the 1st half schedule (Wednesday and Sunday) 2nd place Rochester can't catch Milford.

Rochester ran into a bit of tough luck, Sunday at Birmingham, when Berkley grabbed a 10-inning victory 4-3. After Larry Laforge had hurled a one-hitter up to the 8th, and led 1-0, Berkley combined an error, a single, hit batsman (to fill bases) and Aldrich's double for three counters. Rochester had scored one in the 3rd, came back in the 9th to tie the score at 3-3. Howe walked, Hill singled, Hummell tripled, to score the tying runs.

Clawson led Milford to the 6th (2-0) when Milford got its first talley. Huron Valley added two in the seventh and two in the 8th.

Unbeaten Heavyweights Meet in Bout Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In an era when boxers can move from the amateurs to a title fight without a pro match, tonight's meeting between two unbeaten young heavyweights at St. Nicholas Arena in New York must be considered important.

Alex Miteff, the Pan American games champion who has won all nine pro starts, four by knockouts, returns to action against Fernando Fala of Philadelphia. Fala, making his first New York appearance, also has a perfect 17-0 record with 12 knockouts.

BIGGEST BASS — Biggest black bass of the season, reported from an Oakland county lake, was the 6-pound-one-ounce large mouth above, taken by Ronald Topolewski, 8255 Whitcomb, Detroit. It was 22½ inches long, hit a "wounded minnow" plug in Bullard Lake, near Milford, early Saturday. The lucky angler is not eligible for The Pontiac Press "big fish derby," but offers a mark for eligibles to shoot at. The big one was Topolewski's only fish of the day for him, and the largest bass he ever caught.

With Good Putter

Harney Wins at Montreal

MONTREAL (AP)—The free lessons Paul Harney, 27-year-old golf professional, received from his father, an amateur, have been worth $10,000 within the last two weeks to the Bolton, Mass., power hitter.

"When I failed to qualify for the U.S. Open, I went home and consulted my father," said the slim youngster who posted a 72-hole score of 278 yesterday for $3,500 first money in the $29,000 open golf tournament at the Islesmere Club.

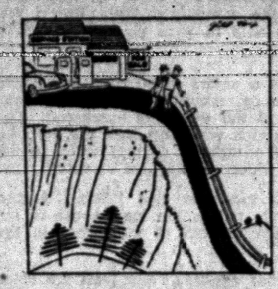

"My father's a wonderful putter," he said. "After watching him I found out I had been lifting my head too soon after hitting the ball. I concentrated on keeping head down and my putting picked up."

Harney, who won $5,700 first money in the Flint, Mich., Open two weeks ago and picked up another $1,000 in the Western Open at Detroit, showed on the 18th green that he learned his lesson well.

The 140 pounder from New England sent his drive 270 yards down the middle of the fairway. But his second caught the edge of the green and left him a "mile long" putt—actually a 35 footer. Harney surveyed the putt for a few minutes, then with his head down he lagged the ball 2 feet past the cup. He sank the short putt without hesitation, picked up his check and headed for the Canadian Open at Kitchener later in the week.

$1600 Awaits Right Answer for Pot-O-Gold

Old Pot-O-Gold's about ready to burst its sides. It's filled to overflowing and aching for someone to come along with the right answer to this week's puzzle. In that case, the result will be $1,600 in the winner's pocket. How'd you like to have that burning a hole in your pocket? If you're interested, try the puzzle below.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Don't Become Your Burglar's Chief Assistant.

Don't advertise your absence by letting newspapers pile up on the front lawn. Notify the newsboy to stop delivery for the length of your vacation.

Don't leave a note to prospective guests — "Key in mailbox—make yourself at home"—because a burglar will do just that. In fact, it's a pretty good practice not to leave the key around at all — a burglar knows all the hiding places.

Tell neighbors when you will be gone so they can keep a lookout on the house. If you have an outside mailbox, be sure and ask close neighbors to pick up the mail for you — or the local mail station will often hold mail for you until your return.

Leave window shades up so that your house won't look so deserted, and so neighbors can see in if necessary.

Junior Editors Quiz on FAMOUS WOMEN

QUESTION: Whose face and whose jewels launched great ships?

ANSWER: In Greek legend, the beautiful face of Queen Helen of Sparta sent a thousand ships to war. In history, the jewels of Spanish Queen Isabella launched three ships that discovered a new world.

The Greek legend tells of the war between Sparta and Troy that began because a Trojan man named Paris stole Helen from her husband, King Menelaus of Sparta. The war lasted a long time and many men were killed.

Queen Isabella had taken an interest in an Italian explorer named Columbus who believed that the world was round. Columbus convinced her that he could sail around the ocean to China and bring back great riches for her. The Queen turned over her jewels to pay for the voyage.

FOR YOU TO DO: Trace on a globe the voyage of Columbus and the voyage of the Greek ships bound for Troy. You won't find Troy on a modern map, but your librarian can help you find where it was in Asia Minor. You will also be able to find many interesting Greek myths in your library about the world a long, long time ago.

Send your Junior Editors suggestion to this newspaper and you may win $10. Tomorrow: Who carved totem poles? Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures.

U. S. to Test DEW System

North Alarm Network to Detect Approach of Enemy Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S.-Canadian dewline — a 3,000 mile electronic alarm system designed to detect the approach of enemy bombers—is expected to be put into test operation sometime this month.

The Distant Early Warning (Dew) line's main portion runs from Point Barrow, Alaska, to Baffin Island, facing Greenland. It is the farthest north of three such systems guarding the trans-polar air approaches.

Main construction phases of the 400-million-dollar system have been completed. Final installation of the complicated electronic and power equipment is expected this month.

Supplemental materials still are being moved into locations in which Dewline personnel will maintain their vigils.

"Operational status" may be attained by fall or early winter. In operation, it is intended to give three to four hours' warning to areas in southern Canada and the Northern United States.

★ ★ ★

The U. S. Air Force, which built and will operate Dewline, now is training civilian crews recruited here and in Canada to man the stations under Air Force supervision.

American funds are being used for Dewline with Canada providing the land and some of the transportation.

Forms Ready for Volunteers in Waterford

Between 40 and 50 Waterford Township men have been notified that application forms for volunteer Civil Defense Auxiliary police are available, according to Supervisor Elmer Johnson.

The men had previously offered their help to boost police protection in the area and some offers came from men in other townships, including Milford.

The Civil Defense program is a fairly new project in Waterford Township and the police protection plan will probably be patterned after nearby White Lake Township, Johnson said.

All applications for police work will be screened, Johnson added, and the Michigan State police have indicated they will train the men who are selected.

Nation's Farmers Turning to Industrial Techniques

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A discordant clank brings a lumbering harvesting machine to a halt in a lush field of string beans. The operator calls to the field foreman. He checks and then makes a service call by radio-telephone to a maintenance base a half mile away. Shortly a repair crew arrives.

The farmer gets more like an industrial engineer every year. He has to.

A generation or two ago the talk was about the mechanized farm. That's old hat now. Today's talk is about the industrialized or factory farm.

One reason is the trend to larger farms. Another is the trend toward factory-like specialization in one product. Still another is the fight against increasing costs—and factory methods and research raise yields.

Complex engineering and exhaustive technology make new demands on today's farmers. Their magazines devote sections to repair and maintenance, to welding and wiring. They look like the shop sections of industrial magazines report an increasing number of farmer subscribers.

Makers of plastic pipe used to sell to mines, coke processors, chemical plants, and oil fields. Today their largest single customer is likely to be a farmer of the irrigated southwest who buys as much as 150 miles of pipe at a time. The pipes, for example, carry water from the pumps to irrigation ditches.

Makers of farm machinery say interchangeability of parts on their wares is becoming as important a factor with farmers as with factory engineers. J. I. Case has service clinics to teach farmers how to do their own maintenance, just as factories do.

Equipment turning up on the factory farm in the last 20 years include: mechanical barn cleaners, manure loaders, forage harvesters, forage blowers, self-tying pickup balers, power driven stalk cutters, elevators, power post hold diggers or post drivers.

The nation's feed mills last year sold 35 million tons of prepared feed for a total of 3½ billion dollars. Farmers turn to these prepared feeds to cut costs by increasing yields and speeding growth. In 1930 it took 15 pounds of feed and 15 weeks to produce a three pound chicken. Now 7½ pounds and 9 weeks do the trick. Then a hen ate 50 pounds of feed to produce 77 eggs. Today 50 pounds produce 112 eggs.

Thinks His Wife Wasn't Grateful for Fire Rescue

OMAHA (AP) — "My wife didn't even seem grateful," said Jess Romaine, 85, after he had carried his 98-year-old semi-invalid wife to safety from their burning apartment yesterday.

"I carried her from the bed to a window, removed the screen and tossed her out on the fire escape," he continued. "All she said was 'You should have waited for me to dress.'"

Romaine suffered only minor burns and his wife was treated at a hospital for bruises and released.

Mrs. Ann Clowser, 62, found by firemen inside the doorway of her apartment next door to Romaine's, was dead on arrival at a hospital. Her husband, Bert Clowser, 51, suffered second-degree burns.

90 Handicapped Children Start Building Fund

The 40 staff members put sweaters over the children's pajamas and carried or led the youngsters from adjacent cabins. The youngsters range in age from 5 to 15 years.

Fire fighters from South Royalston, Royalston Center and Athol teamed to keep flames from spreading to the nearby main camp building and staff recreation hall. Both structures were scorched. The camp is run by a Greater Boston charitable agency.

★ ★ ★

The youngsters, many of whom are hospitalized most of the year, told camp director Edward M. McCarty they would save their spending money as a fund to rebuild the recreational building.

Move to Overthrow Chinese Red Rule?

TAIPEI (AP) — The official Chinese Nationalist Central News Agency reported today that university students in different parts of mainland China have started a movement to overthrow the Chinese Communist regime.

There was no way of confirming the report, which was carried under a Hong Kong dateline. The agency did not give the source of the report, but it claims to have private contacts in Red China.

Students at Fuh Tan University, in Shanghai, have demanded the resignation of Communist boss Mao Tze-tung, the agency said.

Cleveland Bomb Scare Grounds Detroit Plane

CLEVELAND (AP) — Flight 303 of Northwest Orient Airlines, with 36 passengers aboard, was delayed more than two hours today when a male voice told a telephone operator "There's a bomb on 303."

That was a few minutes before the craft, westbound from Washington via Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Detroit, was to take off. The call was traced to a pay telephone booth at Municipal Airport. Passengers and baggage were removed while the plane was isolated and searched. Nothing was found.

Surprise Rally Boosts Wheat

CHICAGO (AP)—A somewhat unexpected rally pushed wheat futures prices ahead more than a cent in some cases today on the board of trade.

Traders said there was nothing in the overnight news to cause strength in wheat. Buying was considered partly a technical reaction after losses late last week.

Near the end of the first hour new style wheat was 1¼ to 2¼ higher, July $2.11⅝, corn was ⅛ higher to ⅛ lower, July $1.31⅜; oats were ¼ to ⅜ higher, July 67⅞; rye was 1¾ to two cents higher, July $1.25¾; soybeans were ⅝ to 1⅛ higher, July $2.39¼; and lard was three cents a hundred pounds lower to three cents higher, July $13.17.

Begin Wide Search for Society Woman

CHICAGO (INS)—A nation wide hunt was underway today for an elderly Chicago society woman who has been missing since June 28 when she left her home saying she intended to drive to Florida.

Servants at her Chicago home told police that Mrs. Ernest R. Graham, 73, a former opera singer, was on her way to visit her son at Vero Beach, Fla.

However, the son, William Graham, 47, said he had seen or heard nothing of his mother and he expressed fear she may have met with an accident or "foul play."

Graham said she had a habit of picking up hitchhikers although members of her family often had cautioned her against it.

The Illinois license number of her cobalt blue Cadillac has been radioed to state police across the country and local law enforcement officers have been alerted to the case from Chicago to Florida.

Graham said there had been no lead as to her whereabouts although the alarm has been out almost a week.

Swedish Ship Burns, Sinks Off Brazil Coast

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The Swedish passenger-cargo ship La Plata burned and sank off the central Brazilian coast yesterday. All passengers and crewmen were taken off safely.

Officials in Salvador said they did not know how many people were aboard but that all had been taken off by the Brazilian tanker Bittencourt Sampaio and a ship of the Moore-McCormack Line.

Bergman, Daughter Meet After 5 Years

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

After 12 minutes mother and daughter emerged and burst into smiles. However, smudged makeup and reddened eyes showed that both had been crying.

Miss Bergman returned to the French capital last night after a hurried visit to her 5-year-old daughter, Isabella Rossellini, who underwent an operation for aprendicitis in Rome. It was feared the child had developed peritonitis, but the actress said she now was recovering rapidly.

Heads Fruehauf Unit

Stocks Moving Above Peaks

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved higher early today in moderate trading.

Prospects for an upturn in steel production and of further cutbacks in copper output to iron-out the price difficulties in that field were encouraging items.

Other gainers in about the one-point range included International Nickel, Douglas Aircraft, Goodyear, Allied Chemical and Southern Railway.

Steels were unchanged to slightly higher with Youngstown Sheet ahead a fraction. Motors were firm. Chemicals and leading rails were mainly on the upside.

Some specialists did well. Newmont Mining rose more than three. Zenith more than two and Lee Rubber a point or so.

Smaller gains were made by Schenley, Chesapeake & Ohio, Dow Chemical, American Cyanamid, United Aircraft, Goodrich, American Telephone and International Paper. Phelps Dodge and U.S. Gypsum were off slightly.

CBS Will Film Sen. Kennedy's 'Profiles in Courage'

'Tonight' Sinks on NBC July 26

Ella Fitzgerald Signed for Jazz Spectacular Next Season

By JACK O'BRIAN

It's now official—"Tonight" sinks on all NBC's channels everywhere July 26 . . . The Jack Parr show stars July 29 with Perry Cross producing . . .

Ella Fitzgerald has been tapped already for next season's jazz spectacular, "Crescendo," which sounds no more than proper . . . Ella being the best all-style songstress in the popular trade . . .

Budget on the show is supposed to be $400,000, or about what Rodgers - Hammerstein's "Cinderella" cost . . .

Paramount Pictures (already its biggest stockholder with 20 per cent) will increase its holdings in DuMont TV . . . Meaning another transfusion of real show biz intelligence for TV . . .

SUBSTITUTE FOR ILKA

Jackie Cooper's "People's Choice" was renewed for another NBC season . . .

Ozark Jubilee has lost a little of its pure hillbilly flavor and has glamorized itself enough to change its title to "Country Music Jubilee" in a brand new ABC-TV production and talent lineup.

Don Lounsbery, former producer of the Hit Parade, has draped the whole new concept around its star, Red Foley, with more straight popular music scheduled instead of all barnyard beguines.

The entire present cast of "Lassie" except for the doggie will be replaced, slowly . . . Jan Clayton leaves at the end of this go-round, plus several of the cast . . .

EYES COMEBACK

If the Hawaiian music trend follows the declining calypso noise, Haleloke, Godfrey's former songstress, may try a show biz comeback . . . Meanwhile, Hale hasn't much to worry about—she saved and invested her Godfrey-gotten gains wisely . . .

Mamie Van Doren's option to star in "The Shape, the Face and the Brain," a TV series, was dropped . . . So's the show, probably . . .

Open Moslem Feast Amid Calls for Unity

CAIRO (AP)—Millions of Moslem faithful today began the five-day Bairam feast amid calls for Arab unity to face the "mounting threat of imperialism" in Algeria and the disputed Gulf of Aqaba.

The call came as more than 500,000 worshipers from all over Asia and the Middle East massed in the Holy City of Mecca, Saudi Arabia, to observe the great pilgrimage or Hajj—one of the five pillars of Islam required of all Moslems able to make the journey.

The holy occasion prompted messages from Moslem leaders in Syria, Saudi Arabia, Jordan and other Arab states assailing the common Israeli foe.

Syria's President Shukri Kuwatly appealed in a broadcast from Damascus for "reinforced Arab unity." He assailed U.S. policy on both the Algerian and Aqaba issues.

Scientists Meet on Atom Living

Represent 11 Nations Standing on Both Sides of Iron Curtain

PUGWASH, N. S. (AP)—Twenty-four of the world's leading scientists assembled in this little Nova Scotia fishing village today to discuss ways to prevent man from destroying himself with atomic weapons.

The scientists are guests of Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist, at his family home here. They include A. V. Topchiev, general scientific secretary of the Soviet Academy of Sciences; Chou Pei-yuan, vice rector of Red China's Peiping University; Prof. Leo Szilard of Chicago, who helped set up the first nuclear chain reaction; Dr. Hideki Yukawa of Tokyo, Nobel Prize winner in physics; and Prof. J. Rotblat of London, vice president of the Atomic Scientists Assn.

With them are physicists, biologists, chemists and other scientists from Australia, Austria, Canada, France, India and Poland.

At a preliminary session yesterday, the group decided the talks would be private. To ensure this, they agreed that no one should be interviewed.

Rotblat told reporters the scientists are meeting "for private and informal discussions about the problems raised by the development of nuclear weapons."

"Our aim is to exchange ideas about the new importance of science in public affairs, and to think of a way in which scientists could help in avoiding a catastrophe to mankind through the use to which scientific achievements may be put," he added.

Eaton's talking-and-thinking sessions for groups of leaders in various fields are annual events.

Adoption Ruling Expected Today

Foster Parents to Find Whether They Can Keep 6-Year-Old Hildy

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A long legal struggle by the foster parents of 6-year-old Hildy McCoy was expected to end today with a Circuit Court ruling on whether they can adopt the cute, freckle-faced child.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ellis have had Hildy with them almost from her birth. The 45-year-old foster father and his wife, 35, are Jewish. Hildy was born to a Roman Catholic mother.

A Massachusetts law provides that children shall be raised in the faith of their natural parents. Both the state and Mrs. McCoy served notice last week that they would be represented in court today.

The Ellises six weeks ago won a momentous round in their fight to keep Hildy when Florida Gov. Leroy Collins refused to extradite them to Massachusetts to face technical charges of kidnaping.

Ellis gave up his business in Boston and fled Massachusetts with his wife and Hildy more than two years ago rather than comply with court rulings that he must give up the child.

The couple lived in Maine and New York, with Ellis working at a variety of jobs to support the three.

★ ★ ★

Last year Massachusetts authorities learned the Ellises were living at Miami Beach. The couple's arrest followed but they were allowed to retain Hildy while the extradition issue was threshed out.

Gleason's Lost Weight, Jessel's Been 'Fired'

NEW YORK—Well, sir, a lot of strange things were happening in Our Town!

Jackie Gleason lost so much weight at Fred Waring's Shawnee, Pa., golf spot, in his effort to get ready for Hollywood, that he asked his sec'y, Lee Reynolds to rush him his "skinny clothes."

We saw Georgie Jessel's ex-gal, Karen Hanson, with comedian Marty Allen and asked about her busted romance with Jessel. "Oh," she breezily replied, "I fired Georgie!" George says he's announcing his engagement tomorrow with blonde Gail Sheldon. "What time tomorrow?" we asked George, who answered, "Well, I'm asking her tomorrow."

Fire Engine, Plane Crashes Kill Six

SINGAPORE (AP)—Four persons were killed in the crash of a British jet fighter today and two others died in the collision of a motor truck with a fire engine speeding to the crash.

An RAF Venom on a training flight crashed into an airman's home at the Tengah air base near Singapore, killing the pilot and two women and a child in the house. The plane went down soon after taking off for a routine training flight.

Hollywood Headlines

Plans for 'Deluxe Tour' Include Spectacular Cast

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Not since Mike Todd dazzled the world with his million dollar cast and locations for "Around the World in 80 Days" have such ambitious plans been outlined as Darryl Zanuck and his co-producer, Robert Jacks, gave me for Frederick Wakeman's "Deluxe Tour."

The cast the boys have in mind includes William Powell as the sophisticated art critic and Jayne Mansfield as his voluptuous wife; Bette Davis for the traveling society grandmother, and Gilbert Roland to play the Latin adventurer she picks up on her travels.

Others being paged are Lauren Bacall, Robert Stack, Broderick Crawford, Ginger Rogers, Don Murray, Dean Jagger and Marjorie Main. Clifton Webb will be asked to introduce the film as special guest star.

Sequences will be photographed in Lapland, Tangiers, Luxor, Syria, Istanbul and the North Pole by Paul Mantz, who did the aerial photography for "Seven Wonders of the World."

A telegram from Dorothy Collins tells me she has just signed for her first movie, "Mr. Boston," based on Mayor James Curley's autobiography, "I'd Do It Again," which Harold Robbins and Richard Day will produce, and which will be shot in New York and Boston starting in mid-September.

"I am doubly thrilled," says Dorothy, "for it is a straight acting role, and Mary Herlihy Curley, the Mayor's wife, and my husband, Raymond Scott, will do the background music.

"In the meantime I am looking forward to appearing for three weeks at the Thunderbird in Las Vegas, where I open Thursday, and do so hope to see you while I'm there."

DOUBLE CELEBRATION

The 19th anniversary of Fieldsie and Walter Lang and the birthday of John Haskell were celebrated in great style at the party Barbara Stanwyck gave in honor of the Langs.

Her home is beautiful and Barbara is a wonderful hostess. I could hardly believe it when she whispered to me that it was the second party she's ever given in her life.

She had thoughtfully invited guests who were old friends of the Langs over the years and I was happy to be one of them. June Haver, Fred MacMurray, Virginia Grey, Nancy Sinatra, Hugh O'Brian, Dorothy and John Haskell were among those gathered around the piano singing to Jimmy McHugh's accompaniment.

Cesar Romero did some fine dancing steps. Ann Sothern told me she was leaving next day for Sun Valley where she has opened a shop.

Also at Barbara's party, I had a nice talk with Mai Zetterling, who was with Tyrone Power, of course. She is a graduate of the Royal Theater in Stockholm where Greta Garbo, Marta Toren and Ingrid Bergman received their dramatic training.

I told Mai I had visited her school when I was in Stockholm, watched some of the young students work, and was very impressed.

Big Budget Cut Seen as Possible

But Rep. Cannon Claims Senate Is Weakening on Reduction Demands

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the House Appropriations Committee said today Congress still may cut five billion dollars from presidential money requests this year "if the Senate and the public stand firm."

That was the goal of budget cutters when the present session started six months ago and President Eisenhower said he wanted $73,300,000,000 in new appropriations.

But, Cannon said in an interview, there are signs that the Senate is weakening in its earlier stand against increasing amounts voted by the House in appropriations bills. He suggested that the public continue insisting on sharp reductions.

Fourteen regular and special money bills have been passed by both branches of Congress. The Senate has cut 71 million dollars an added $1,066,000,000 to amounts originally voted by the House for a net boost of close to a billion dollars.

Largest Senate-voted increase was 972 million dollars in the defense appropriation bill, which now is before a Senate-House conference committee.

Pat Boone Escapes Tie-Scalping Effort

As singer Boone addressed a crowd of about 1,000, an overeager fan with a yen for souvenirs stepped forward with a razor. A state police detective intervened in time to save Boone's tie, getting a cut hand in the process.

Congress Eyes Relief to States' Absentee Ballot Mixup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alleged violations and legal challenges of absentee voting laws and ballots in several states have started moves in and out of Congress to try to improve the situation.

Legal authorities say the primary relief must come from the states although Congress could amend the federal statutes to remove any conflict with state laws as far as federal elections are concerned.

The most recent developments involve indictments in Kentucky, a decision that a Rhode Island law was in violation of the state constitution and a Maine congressional election contest involving absentee ballots.

Samuel Still Jr., attorney for the Library of Congres American law division and for a House elections subcommittee, is making a detailed study of laws and court decisions affecting absentee voting on both the federal and state level.

SOLON REQUESTS

He is making the study at the request of Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), chairman of a Senate elections subcommittee. Mansfield requested the research particularly because of many letters received on the Rhode Island situation. For one thing he wants to know if any changes are necessary in federal laws on the subject.

The Rhode Island Supreme Court last Jan. 1 held that the state law permitting absentee votes to be cast before election day violated the state constitution. The ruling invalidated 4,954 civilian and shut-in absentee votes in the Nov. 6, 1956, governor election and thus swung a close race to the incumbent Democrat, Gov. Dennis J. Roberts. The absentee vote had given Republican Christopher del Sesto an apparent victory by 427 votes.

Gov. Roberts since has named a commission to recommend a revised state law. One of its members, Alfred H. Joslin, has written attorney Still saying the commission is considering a proposed state constitutional amendment to authorize absentees to cast ballots "on or before election day" as 41 other states are now believed to allow.

Joslin, however, said there was some doubt whether the state could authorize casting of absentee votes for presidential electors, senators and representatives on any day except that specified in federal law. Still has written Sen. Green D-RI) that to clear up this doubt it might be wise to amend the federal law to read:

"Absentee ballots duly authorized by the state law shall be deemed cast on this date (first Tuesday after the first Monday in November), whether executed or voted prior to this date."

The League of Women Voters also is interesting itself, nonpartisanly, in the Rhode Island situation. Its voters' service chairman here, Mrs. Clarence E. Fisher, and her associates helped New Jersey revise its absentee voting law several years ago. She says New Jersey now has an excellent law that "protects the state against fraudulent voting yet makes it possible, even easy, for civilians away from home to vote."

Commenting on last month's indictment by a Kentucky grand jury of six Jessamine County officials for absentee voting irregularities in May 28 primary, Still said an investigation by his House subcommittee in 1955 showed that almost 95 per cent of fraudulent absentee voting in some elections was the results of ballots "getting into the hands of unauthorized persons."

★ ★ ★

State absentee voting laws vary widely as to when such ballots must be received by the issuing officer back home, how they are to be marked and notarized, and when they may be counted. California for example allows such ballots to be counted if received the 16th day after the election.

GOP Speaker to Tour State

Rep. Van Peursem Will Shower Michigan With 'Republican Story'

LANSING (AP) — House Speaker George M. Van Peursem (R-Zeeland) starts this week to carry "The Republican Story" to every corner of Michigan."

Financed by contributions to a special fund, his speaking tour will take in county fairs, political meetings, professional groups, civic clubs, labor groups, high school and college assemblies and a variety of other gatherings.

Rep. Charles A. Boyer (R-Manistee), chairman of the legislative campaign committee which laid out the tour, said Van Peursem is booked from now until Christmas for an average of several appearances a week.

The speaker's talks will be angled to "point up Republican legislative accomplishments," Boyer said in a letter sent to Republicans throughout the state.

At the same time, he added, he will be prepared to make non-partisan talks on state affairs and state government where non-partisan talks are indicated.

"George is doing this as speaker of the House and not as a candidate for any office. He represents all of us in the Legislature as well as the Republican party."

Van Peursem is the top Republican elective state officer since Democrats swept to power in the last two elections. The party's state central committee endorsed the speaker as official spokesman and got behind raising a fund for the tour, reported to be $10,000.
