

Enthusiastic Audience Greet Fernald Premiere

By PAT McCARTY

A lustrous capacity crowd — studded with stars of Michigan society — last night enthusiastically welcomed the state's first professional resident theater company to Oakland University.

The gala $100-a-couple affair advanced the first 21-week season of the John Fernald Com-

ple," the more than 600 theatergoers attended a champagne afterglow at Meadow Brook Hall.

Hostesses for the reception were the honorary cochairmen of the community leadership committee for the theater, OU's "first lady" Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson and Mrs. George Romney, wife of Michigan's governor.

Among other dignitaries attending the event were multi-millionaire philanthropist C. S. Mott, UAW President Walter Reuther and high-echelon representatives of the Big Three in the auto industry.

The premiere preceded tonight's public opening of the first of five plays in the season.

Speaking before the performance last night, Charles F. Adams noted the theater "wasn't even an idea six months ago."

Adams, who with his wife

serves as general chairman of the community leadership committee, reported almost 6,000 season tickets thus far have been sold for the initial season.

This represents about 40 per cent of the total capacity for all performances in the 608-seat auditorium of Matilda R. Wilson Hall.

The theater and the 22-member company were established after the July announcement that OU had attracted John Fernald, former head of England's Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

Art Worth $7 Million Is Recovered Intact

LONDON (AP) — Eight paintings worth $7 million, stolen five days ago in the world's biggest art theft, were reported today recovered intact.

Three of the old masters were found in what was believed a professional robbers' den and others in a parcel behind a clump of bushes not far from London's Dulwich Gallery where they were stolen, police informants said.

Scotland Yard announced the recovery of the paintings but declined to give details. Detectives were still questioning some men in connection with the theft, the Yard said.

The paintings—three Rembrandts, three by Rubens and one each by Gerald Dou and Adam Elsheimer—were reported to be in good condition despite exposure to frosty air.

Some of the paintings were damaged slightly, officials said. Scotland Yard insiders said three of the paintings were found Monday at a hideout which contained a hoard of other stolen property and some weapons.

TELEPHONE TIP

They said an anonymous telephone call last night led detectives to Stratham Common, about four miles from Dulwich Gallery in South London, where the remaining five paintings were found in some bushes.

Scotland Yard would say officially only that the works of art had been found in the Stratham Common area and that some men were being questioned.

Police circles indicated, however, that the thieves, after their remarkably timed break-in and getaway, realized the enormity of the theft and that probably there never would be a market for the well-known works.

One of the Rembrandts was the "Girl at a Window," said to be worth $2.8 million. All the Rembrandts and the works of Rubens were world famous.

Time Running Out on Hoffa

Teamster Chief Busy Mapping Pact Goals

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa, with time fast running out for his final legal efforts to stay out of prison, busied himself today in shaping up nationwide trucking contract demands.

"I guess that's how he stays sane," said a close associate about the gruelling work pace maintained by Hoffa despite the eight-year jury tampering sentence hanging over him.

Hoffa kept aides working long hours wrapping up final details on wage demands he said will range from 5 to 7 per cent for some 500,000 teamsters, employees of 12,000 trucking firms.

Contract talks start in Washington Jan. 17, but unless successful in winning a new Supreme Court hearing or a new trial, Hoffa could be in prison before the March 31 contract deadline.

The Supreme Court has already rejected his appeal.

Some Teamsters sources expressed concern that the trucking negotiations might bog down if Hoffa is not around to complete them, but the 53-year-old union chief expressed confidence that a settlement will be reached without a strike.

Hoffa added that some trucking firms might have to raise their rates to pay the new labor costs.

FIRST BABY OF THE YEAR — Mrs. Thomas L. Wallis of 2775 Deland, Waterford Township, holds her daughter, Michelle Lynn. The 6-pound, 14-ounce girl was the first 1967 baby born in the Pontiac area.

Area's 1st Baby of '67 Is Born on Sidewalk

Michelle Lynn Wallis was born on the sidewalk outside Pontiac General Hospital.

"She was in a real hurry," related Mrs. Thomas L. Wallis, mother of the Pontiac area's first baby of 1967. The 6-pound-14-ounce girl, born at 12:19 a.m. Sunday is the winner of the first baby of the year contest sponsored by The Pontiac Press and the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

The parents and daughter will receive gifts ranging from bonnet and booties to dinners for two from 30 area businesses.

Mrs. Wallis of 2775 Deland, Waterford Township, was driven to the hospital by her husband, a traffic department clerk at Fisher Body plant. They left home at 12:10.

"I didn't even have time to sit down on the sidewalk by the hospital," Mrs. Wallis said. "The baby was born as my husband lowered me to the ground."

Hospital attendants ran out and placed the mother and baby on a cart, according to Mrs. Wallis.

The Wallis' have a daughter, Margaret Ann, 3, and a son, Timothy, 1.

Among the gifts are money to start a savings account, a bond, shoes, dry cleaning certificates, milk, food, and baby clothing and equipment.

Any baby born to married parents living north of 14 Mile Road in Oakland County after midnight, Dec. 31, 1966 was eligible.

Concession on '68 Car Safety Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The stage is set for some give-and-take between the automobile industry and the federal government over safety features to be included in 1968 model cars.

The four major U.S. producers and many foreign manufacturers notified the Commerce Department yesterday of their inability to meet all 23 safety standards proposed for next year's cars.

They indicated some could be met immediately, but requested a modification of some proposals and a delay in putting others into effect to allow for design and production changes.

Dr. William Haddon Jr., administrator of the National Highway Safety Agency, withheld judgment on the thousands of pages of comments he received from manufacturers and suppliers.

But there already were indications the differences would be negotiated.

EVALUATION TIME

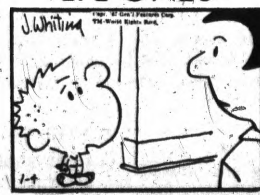

Haddon said it will take two weeks just to evaluate the industry comments. He said he won't know until that time whether negotiations will be held on possible modification of the 23 proposed standards.

Under law, his agency must publish by Jan. 31 its final standards for 1968 model cars, a time schedule Haddon said he intends to keep.

But the administrator already has voiced a willingness to modify the substance and timing of the proposed standards if necessary. And Alan S. Boyd, undersecretary of commerce for transportation, has said the department doesn't plan to be hard-headed about its proposals.

The domestic manufacturers asked yesterday for a meeting with Haddon. They will likely get it since it has been the agency's policy to keep an open door.

Ruby Returned to Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Jack Ruby, who grew up on Chicago's tough West Side, returned home in death today after gaining international notoriety as the slayer of President John F. Kennedy's accused assassin.

He will be buried beside his parents.

The plane carrying Ruby's body landed at O'Hare Interna-

Parkland Memorial Hospital — the same hospital in which Kennedy and Lee Harvey Oswald died.

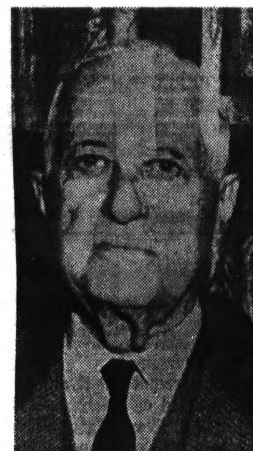

His death from a blood clot in the lungs forever clouded the international doubts surrounding the assassination of president Kennedy. Until the end, Ruby insisted he acted alone in fatally shooting Oswald.

Ruby, 55, had extensive cancer, but Dr. Earl Rose, the Dallas County medical examiner, said it was a massive blood clot that would probably have killed him even if he had not been weakened by cancer.

Rose said, however, that cancer would be listed on the death certificate as a contributing cause.

ORMOND E. HUNT

GM Pioneer, Developer Is Dead at 83

Ormond E. Hunt, a pioneer in automotive engineering and a leading developer of technical facilities for General Motors Corp., died last night following a long illness. He was 83.

Service will be 11 a.m. Saturday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Cremation will follow, with interment in Forest Hill Cemetery, Ann Arbor.

Surviving are his wife, Maude; three daughters, Mrs. C. W. Graham Jr., Mrs. Virginia Berry and Mrs. James Goss; and one son, Dr. Homer H. Hunt.

Also surviving are three sisters, Vera, Suzanne and Mrs. Agnes H. Parke; a brother, John; and 10 grandchildren.

Hunt, of 1650 Rathmoor, Bloomfield Hills, was an executive vice president of GMC at the time of his retirement in September 1949.

Frederick G. Donner, board chairman of GM, described Hunt's contributions to the company and the automotive industry as "many and great."

"He was a pioneering leader in the industry during its tremendous early growth period and has continued to maintain an active interest in its affairs as a member of our board of directors."

"We shall miss him as a friend and as a counselor."

Hunt was born in Saranac, attended the University of Michigan and entered the automotive industry in 1909, two years after his graduation.

Shortly after being hired by the Packard Motor Car Co., he was named chief engineer of that firm's car division, a position he held until 1918.

Missile Veers Toward Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — An unarmed Air Force missile fired in a test from Florida has veered off its scheduled course into the Gulf of Mexico and presumably soared over Cuba, the Pentagon said today.

A terse Defense Department announcement said the surface-to-surface air-breathing missile carried no warhead.

The weapon, undergoing research and development tests, was launched at 10 a.m. from the Air Force proving ground at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., the Pentagon said.

"The research vehicle took off on an unprogrammed course that would cause an impact at 11:21 a.m. EST, about 100 miles south of the southwest coast of Cuba," the Pentagon statement said.

The Pentagon gave no other details.

Soviets Will Double War Aid to Hanoi

LONDON (UPI) — The Soviet Union will double its assistance to Communist North Vietnam this year with increased supplies of planes, rockets and radar installations, diplomatic sources reported today.

The reports said Russia's East European allies are to share in an increased military and economic aid program agreed to in a series of recent bilateral exchanges between the Russians and North Vietnamese leaders.

The Russians were understood partly motivated by Communist pressure to outdo Red China, which recently claimed to be supplying 70 per cent of all military aid to North Vietnam.

East European nations have been drawn into the discussions between Moscow and Hanoi and have had to agree to participate in the expanded aid scheme.

All arrangements were said to be on a bilateral basis with Hanoi.

The idea of a joint, Russian-led agency to coordinate and channel aid to North Vietnam apparently has been dropped, partly because of resistance from some of the smaller Communist nations, notably Romania, to any "supranational" organization in which Moscow could order its allies what to do.

Red China has been supplying the bulk of small arms to Hanoi as well as made-in-China MIG 19 jet fighters.

Peking also is doing much of the repair work in North Vietnam with the help of a "technical army" estimated at some 40,000 men who repair railway tracks and are building strategic supply roads from Red China into North Vietnam.

Peking also is supplying some of the food for Hanoi.

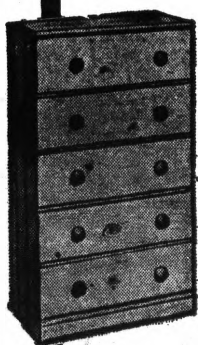

Russia is the chief source of supply of sophisticated weapons. She has given Hanoi anti-aircraft rockets, supersonic MIG 21's and radar equipment, all for use against American bombers.

The reports suggested that the Russians plan to increase the supply of these items — notably to ship more Surface to Air Missiles (SAM) and more MIG 21's — seven of which were shot down in a dogfight with American jets Monday.

Russian training facilities to teach Vietnamese pilots to fly the MIGs and use the rockets are also to be extended.

Petitions Are Filed for Elections in 3 Villages in Lapeer

Nominating petitions have been filed in three Lapeer County villages. Primary elections will be held in Almont and Metamora on February 20, according to village clerks.

No primary is scheduled in Dryden due to a lack of a contest for the village offices, clerk Mildred Gray announced.

Almont

Republican candidates which last year held the positions of Almont village president, clerk, treasurer and assessor are this year seeking to add three of four open trustee positions.

George Juhl has announced he will run again for president; Verne Messer for clerk; Mrs. Nellie Veness for treasurer; and Donald C. Burley for assessor.

Gordon Gould, a Republican trustee appointed to fill a vacancy, has announced that he will run again with Democratic incumbents, Walter Orlovski, David Prescott and M. J. Liblong. Their positions are long. Their positions are sought by Republicans F. O. Maxwell, Thomas Eastman, Lyle Yoder and Homer McBeam.

Messer reported a primary will be necessary to settle the trustee situation. The voter registration deadline is Jan. 23.

Metamora

In Metamora, a primary is thought to be necessary, according to Mrs. Margaret Brauer, clerk, despite the fact that only the Progressive Party has filed nominating petitions.

Incumbents have filed for the offices of president, clerk, and treasurer and four candidates, including two incumbents, seek three two-year terms on the council, Mrs. Brauer related.

Percy Clark will run again for president; Mrs. Brauer, clerk; Mrs. Florence Ray, treasurer; and Edward Hinton has signified his willingness to run for assessor since Victor Maslin announced a decision to retire from the job.

Richard York and Richard Roe are the incumbent councilmen seeking reelection. They will be challenged by William Wills and Frank Andler. Sammy Ray has chosen not to run again.

Dryden

In Dryden, Mrs. Mildred Gray, clerk, expects a write-in vote will have to fill the position of assessor. Kenneth Chapman did not file a nominating petition and there were no other takers.

Oliver Braidwood has filed to retain the position of village president and Mrs. Gray, clerk. Mrs. Jean Mulholland, appointed treasurer in September, will run again.

The incumbent trustees have no opposition. They are Irvine Talmage, Glenn Fletcher and Raymond Stevens.

Mrs. Gray announced that Jan. 23 is the deadline for voter registration.

TRAFFIC PUZZLE — The right hand road is a one-way road and the left hand road is a two-way road and the signs are right — they're just confusing, according to motorists. It's the new entrance to Oakland University where it branches off Mount Clemens.

Signs Muddle Motorists

Drivers Driven to Confusion

It's only a temporary measure according to Oakland County Road Commission traffic technician Robert Grady, but it still may be confusing to motorists.

The newly opened quarter-mile access off Mount Clemens to Oakland University is marked with traffic signs all right, but some motorists say there are "too many."

Driving northeast on Mount Clemens a driver reaches a sign which states "Oakland University traffic keep right—Rochester traffic keep left."

He proceeds down the road and comes face to face with a double arrow in the middle of the "Y" intersection.

To confuse a hesitating driver further, a one-way arrow has been affixed to the top of the double arrow and this points in the direction of Oakland University.

Grady said the sign means you can drive to Oakland University on the right hand route, but you can't come back the same way.

8 in Holly File Vote Petitions for Feb. 20 Primary

HOLLY — Eight persons, all but one of them incumbents, filed nominating petitions yesterday for the seven offices to be filled in the Feb. 20 primary election.

The only competition is for the office of president. Incumbent Clarence Lester will be challenged by Russell Alexander, 182 Bevins.

For other offices, Hulda Anderson will seek reelection as treasurer, Betty Oliver as clerk, and Grant Hulet as assessor.

Incumbent trustees Aaron Ganshaw, Richard Riddle and Dr. James Gregg all filed for reelection to the village council.

Burglars Steal $400 From Safe

ROCHESTER—Muscular burglars with a flair for a professional job were blamed for the theft of an 800-pound safe from Davey's Market at 1002 N. Main.

Police Detective, William Wohl said the safe yielded about $400 in change.

It was found stripped open in a field by Wohl and Officer James Pratt, who reported they had to get a wrecker to remove it.

Meeting Is Scheduled

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Rochester Ridgecrest Baptist Woman's Missionary Union will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the church, 1181 Harding.

There are four strings on a ukulele.

Walled Lake Authorizes Sewer Pact With County

WALLED LAKE — Anticipating approval of a federal grant, the City Council last night authorized signing a contract with the Oakland County Department of Public Works to take bids on a sanitary sewer system.

City Manager Royce Downey estimated that it will take about 90 days after that to award a contract.

Hopefully by that time, he said, the city will have received word on its application for a $1,117,000 federal grant to cover its share of a joint sewer system with the village of Novi.

News of the Area

Downey said he has been assured by the DPW that Novi is ready to go ahead with its portion of the project.

The two communities are considering a joint sewage treatment plant, a trunk line sewer and an internal sanitary sewer system.

Downey pointed out that the federal grant will not cover the cost of the treatment plant but that 35 per cent of it might be financed by state funds.

The state water resources commission has given the city until June 1, 1969 to correct its water pollution problem.

Downey said the city is about six months ahead of schedule.

In similar action last night, the council agreed to enter into a contract with the Oakland County DPW for construction of its proposed water system expansion.

Downey explained that the county will pledge its full faith and credit for the system and when it is paid for will turn it over to the city.

The county, he said, can get a cheaper interest rate and it will not affect the city's bonded indebtedness.

Walled Lake Fills Vacancy

WALLED LAKE — The City Council last night appointed Harry Carlson, 1111 Minda Court, to fill out the unexpired term of the late Councilman E. V. Mercer who died two weeks ago.

A former planning commission member, Carlson is administrative assistant for the Walled Lake Consolidated Schools.

He was formerly principal of the Walled Lake Junior High School.

The council also appointed councilman Marshall Taylor to replace Mercer on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Taylor formerly served on the board of supervisors for about six years.

Construction Climb

WALLED LAKE — New construction last year has increased the city's assessed valuation 25 per cent over the previous year. New construction amounted to $2,296,319 during 1966.

Romeo Election to Be a Real Contest

ROMEO — What looks like one of the most interesting village elections in some time took shape yesterday with the filing of nominating petitions here.

The Feb. 20 primary election will feature a three-way race for the Republican nomination for village president.

Byron Nichols, incumbent president, is being challenged by Trustee Merlin Kerr and a political newcomer, Sherman C. Parker Jr. Former village president Wayne Black filed nominating petitions for the job but later withdrew them.

With Kerr running for president, only two incumbent trustees — Donald Mosher and Stanley Holmes — are running for the three two-year openings.

CHALLENGED

For clerk Norman L. Engel, incumbent, is being challenged by Mrs. Marian Shepley.

Mrs. Elaine Hosner, the incumbent treasurer, will have no competition, nor will Fred Ebeling, the incumbent assessor.

In the library race are Reva Moskow, Harold Williams, James Burk and Robert Ramsey. Burke is the Democrat.

The schedule for the Romeo election is Jan. 23 — deadline for voter registration; Feb. 20 — primary election; and March 13 — general election.

Almont Ups Employee Pay

ALMONT — The four regular employees of the village received assurance last night that things are looking up.

The Village Council adopted a base pay of $2.25 an hour plus regular 5 cent an hour increases — upped the salaries of those now employed — regulated vacation and overtime pay — and moved in the direction of providing hospitalization.

The council also raised the tap-in fees for village water and sewer. Minimum cost sewer tap-ins have been upped from $40 to $50 and water tap-ins from $65 to $100.

Judge Is PTA Guest

ROCHESTER — Municipal Judge Keith J. Leenhouts of Royal Oak will discuss "Citizens and Rehabilitation" at 8 p.m. Monday at the North Hill School PTA meeting.

An open invitation has been extended to residents of the area to hear Judge Leenhouts' description of Royal Oak's new probation system.

Fritz Kreisler, noted violinist, was only 10 years old when he gave his first concert.

IMLAY CITY — The Head Start program here got no boost from Lapeer Circuit Judge James T. Churchill.

He dismissed both suits brought against the Imlay City Board of Education in regard to its announced policy of discontinuing the program.

The suits were filed by the Imlay City Federation of Teachers and by Wilson Nickels, Federation president.

Churchill's ruling was based on briefs filed by attorneys for both sides.

The federation had contended that the board's failure to continue the Head Start program constituted a violation of its contract with teachers.

The cited passage reads, "The board will take advantage of federal funds available for special and remedial programs at all levels."

Delay Hearing on Services

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A hearing scheduled for yesterday to determine the city of Farmington's right to provide water and sewer service to a recently annexed area has been postponed until Jan. 18.

Township Attorney Joseph T. Brennan is seeking a declaratory judgment in Oakland County Circuit Court to determine the rights of both the township and the city.

He is also seeking an injunction to stop the city from extending its own water and sewer lines to the area and bypassing the systems presently there.

The township wants residents of the city's recently annexed 457 acres to continue to pay their fair share of water and sewer service for which township residents voted a tax increase in 1963.

If the city were to carry through with its plans to bypass the present system, the township stands to lose about $800,000 in connection fees.

Library Levy Eyed

TROY — Commissioners last night passed a resolution which would give them authority to levy a half-mill tax for library purposes if voter approval is obtained in April.

The resolution calls for an amendment to the charter, which must be approved by residents of the city. The Commission, with such approval then can levy up to the half-mill.

"Valid aeronautical reasons" as to why the Jim Robbins Co. Airport should not be allowed public usage were presented last night by attorney Stanley Burke.

His reasons included traffic interference from planes using landing fields at Big Beaver and Berz Airports in Troy and the interference caused by instrument landings at Detroit City Airport.

Burke also cited the field's proximity to I-75 and to major county roads. These objections will be presented at a Michigan Aviation Commission hearing later this month he said.

Appointments to the city's various boards were carried out despite a previous commission question regarding the method of such appointments.

City Manager Paul York

said it has been his practice to ask former members of such boards if they would care to run again and submit those names to the commission for approval.

The commission felt that, in the future, it would like to do the entire job with no soliciting on the part of the manager.

Nevertheless, William Jenkins and Warren H. Smith were appointed to the election commission; James Tracey to the traffic and safety committee; Lynn D. Patterson and Ellis Allen to the liquor committee; and Ernest Brandt to the building authority.

An Academic Dream Comes True

Tuesday marked the 10th anniversary of one of the most significant events in the history of Oakland County. For it was on Jan. 3, 1956, that Oakland University was born.

It was born of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. ALFRED G. WILSON. An interest in education and young people inspired a grant of 1,400 acres of their beautiful Meadow Brook estate together with an endowment of $2 million to found, in conjunction with Michigan State University, this dream school of higher education.

The dream has abundantly come true, far beyond the vision of its creators. It has grown from an opening student enrollment of 570 to today's 3,142—expected to reach 4,000 in the future.

Needless to say, this fantastic evolution of the dream did not materialize without brick and mortar to give it reality and dedicated academic leadership to give it character.

The first was underwritten by the flow of public and private funds that saw the institution spread from its modest two-building start to its present complex of 18 halls of learning and auxiliary structures.

The second found expression in the fortuitous appointment of DURWARD B. VARNER, Vice President of Michigan State University at the time, as Chancellor of OU. "Woody" has seen his initial faculty grow from 22 members to its 1967 complement of 175.

But the undying spirit of its gracious, 83-year-old benefactress, Mrs. WILSON (now widowed), will forever be a venerated presence animating the educational dream of the century.

The Press extends its warm felicitation to this gentlewoman on the 10th birthday of the institution she cradled.

Inaugural Address Blueprints a Better State

In his inaugural address for a third term as governor of Michigan, GEORGE ROMNEY outlined many long-term objectives for the well-being of the State's citizenry.

Stressing that the groundwork for great progress had been laid during the past four years, he pointed to many areas awaiting expansion or innovation.

Chief among them are:

● A climate wherein individuals could flower to full capacity aided by broadened state programs conducive to social, educational and economic advancement.

● The erosion of urban centers and the need to rehabilitate them, with emphasis on meeting demands for new concepts in public transportation.

● Rebirth of moral values among the people and strengthening of the fabric of family life, and a vigorous attack on the lawlessness that is gaining a foothold nationally and locally.

Gadget Seen Ruling on Drivers' Sobriety

The decision as to whether a person is sober enough to drive home after drinking, something that is the source of many a postparty argument, may be taken out of human hands entirely.

Writing in the New England Journal of Medicine Dr. CARL S. ALEXANDER suggests that a drunkometer could be linked directly to a car's ignition system. To start the motor, the driver would first have to breathe into the drunkometer, which would measure the alcoholic concentration of his breath.

If it were above a fixed level, the meter would not permit the ignition circuit to function. Such a device, says the doctor, would take the decision to drive or not to drive away from the drinking person, whose overconfidence is often directly proportional to his overimbibing, and insure that the car be operated only by a sober driver.

Most Foreign Policy Is Successful

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — With the exception of Vietnam, the Johnson administration is generally optimistic about America's foreign relations in the new year.

Washington policymakers hope for notable progress in the negotiations with the Soviets for a treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons.

They figure the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has survived the initial shock of its military divorce from France and, from its new headquarters in Belgium, will reshape its policies to meet new realities.

They expect that the years of Kennedy Round tariff talks will wind up in mid-1967 in agreement on a significant reduction of trade barriers.

They find the Latin-American scene so heartening that President Johnson plans to journey to Uruguay for a summit meeting in mid-April.

Red China's potential threat to the outside world is still submerged in her internal turmoil.

Prospects from African and Middle East areas are mixed, but there is no great power crisis.

The biggest blot in the picture, from the U. S. diplomatic standpoint, is Vietnam. And it could cloud prospects elsewhere.

Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk both view the inability to achieve peace in Vietnam as a prime failure in 1966. They blame this on the Communists.

Without a diplomatic settlement, the Vietnam conflict promises to go on far beyond this year. Neither the U. S. military commander there, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, nor the top civilian, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, is predicting by what year the Reds will be quelled.

Very cautiously, Lodge forecasts enough headway on the military, political, economic and pacification programs in South Vietnam during 1967 to see "light at the end of the tunnel."

Washington's foreign policy will take more pounding from non-Communist critics who disapprove of U.S. actions in Vietnam.

American diplomats freely acknowledge that they must focus on the continuing Vietnam question, until peace comes. It is much effort that they would rather devote to furthering U. S. policy in other areas of the world.

MORRIS

—For Good Behavior!

David Lawrence Says:

Presidential Burden Is Too Big

WASHINGTON — Maybe it's more logical to look ahead—instead of retrospectively—in choosing a "man of the year."

As 1967 begins, unquestionably "the man with the burden of the year" is Lyndon Baines Johnson. While he is the President of only one country, he has on his shoulders the weight of a troubled world.

Even if the domestic problems were not so complex, an awesome responsibility still is imposed today on a chief executive as he strives to prevent the big war which might come suddenly or seeks to make the big peace for which mankind yearns.

Are the tasks of the presidency too much for one man?

The answer is at least one respect is obvious. No single individual can be expected to handle the presidential burdens by himself.

Since two or more heads are better than one, it would be a good thing to set up a cabinet group with five of the best qualified persons in America to act as a day-by-day advisers on foreign policy.

NONOPERATIONAL

They would not have the job of operating any of the regular departments. Their nominations, moreover, would be submitted to and confirmed by the Senate so that they would be responsible to Congress as well as to the president.

In domestic affairs, the same formula could be applied. The problems of the United States—both at home and abroad—are important enough to require the concentrated attention of at least 10 outstanding individuals serving alongside the president.

They could meet daily, as the executive committee of the board of directors of many a large corporation does nowadays.

Under the suggested supplement to the existing system, the routine business of government could be managed by career personnel, and these administrative managers of the different departments and agencies would report periodically to the president through a cabinet committee.

NOT ONLY WEAKNESS

Insufficient help at a president's side, however, is not the only weakness. There is, unfortunately, a tendency to let so-called political judgments rule the day.

It was the late President Kennedy who said in his inaugural address: "Ask not what your country will do for you—ask what you can do for your country."

This is still the doctrine which should motivate a president as he asks himself not what a particular decision will do for him politically, but what it will do for the country.

If Mr. Johnson decides in favor of all the people, he could become the "man of the year" not merely in 1967 but on election day in November 1968.

Bob Considine Says:

Friend and Foe Are Alike to Medical Missionary

NEW YORK—Jim Turpin is probably the only medical missionary ever launched on his mission by a racetrack.

His zeal and achievement have improved the breed. Of missionaries and doctors, if not horses.

John Alessio, who operates Agua Caliente, CONSIDINE cranked up Turpin with a round trip airline ticket to Hong Kong.

Dr. Turpin had become interested in needy Mexicans. He didn't come in contact with very many of them in his $50,000-a-year practice in Coronado, Calif., so he spent a day a week working in Tijuana.

It gave him a yearning to see and attend to even graver human need. And so his friend Alessio sent him on his way. That was 1961.

It resulted in a pure chain reaction. Suffice it to say that now his organization, Project Concern, operates two floating clinics among the teeming and sorely neglected Chinese inhabitants of the Aberdeen section of Hong Kong, has clinics elsewhere in the crown colony, including the notorious walled city of Kowloon, and has moved on to Vietnam to perform unique tasks in that tortured land.

DARING INNOVATIONS
Project Concern's work in Vietnam is characterized by daring innovations.

Its doctors, nurses and technicians are from a dozen nations. It moves into regions in Vietnam where not only angels but heavily armed troops fear to tread.

It gets along without the firepower of armed security. It treats wounded Vietcong as readily as it treats the friendlies.

It is giving the enemy, and families of the enemy, a totally new view of the free world's great heart and honorable intentions.

"I'm no do-gooder," Dr. Turpin said. "I was restless, ill at ease, all the time that I was doing so well in Coronado."

"I need the people we now help. They need me. "Trouble with us, over the years, is that we've often been haughty about what we've done for people who have less than we have.

"We haven't gotten through to them and said, 'I need you, too.'"

"I need you to enable me to understand that my children will not be properly fed until your children are: That they won't be truly healthy until your children are."

"John Donne said it all: 'Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind.'"

Handy Gadgets

Bay City Times

One of the big attractions at the modern supermarket is something the proprietor doesn't even advertise—the grocery cart.

So irresistible is the lure of this handy gadget that each year almost 1,000,000 supermarket shoppers craftily stow the cart into their car along with the groceries they have just bought and head for home. Such mass dishonesty is appalling.

The result is that the grocery cart is fast emerging as the top all-purpose item of the space age.

Outdoor diners have discovered that it makes a wonderful portable charcoal grill.

Service stations use it for battery-testing equipment, and building custodians for hauling cleaning supplies.

Gardeners ingeniously line it with plastic sheeting and have a wheelbarrow. And housewives couldn't get along without it for laundry or as a planter.

Young mothers adore it as a stroller for baby. (Baby likes it, too, because it's nice and shiny.) And if dad is a do-it-yourselfer, he knows nothing can beat it as a mobile tool chest.

Voice of the People:

'United States Must Fight to Win War in Vietnam'

Some of our clergy may well go down in history as the modern Benedict Arnolds. We all pray for peace but not at the price of a Communist takeover. If we were right to go into Vietnam then we owe it to the ones who died or are prisoners to fight with every weapon at our command, and fight to win.

The Communists are wily, they place their supplies amid civilians for the purpose of making the U.S. seem cruel, and misguided civilians hamper our generals in their fight to win. If the Communists win they will show you no quarter even if you wear a sign saying you are a civilian and were in favor of their takeover. No one trusts a traitor.

This country was born on the battlefield of freedom and I'd like to believe my grandchildren will enjoy their heritage.

FIGHT OR SWITCH

Reader Is Disillusioned by Recent Events

What a sad state of affairs when an honest man like Edward Cheyz can be indicted by a one-man grand jury, lose his job and reputation as a result, suffer four weeks through a jury trial during which the prosecution couldn't produce any evidence, just because someone thought a business letter "looked fishy." Only those responsible for ruining this man's life know the reason this tragedy occurred. Are they to go unpunished for their misdeeds?

DISILLUSIONED

Wants Simpler Method of Collecting Taxes

Most taxpayers realize the need for extra monies in the local, state and federal treasuries and would be willing to pay this extra if it could be quietly taken from our payroll without filing long forms and the intimidation that follows, such as the Federal government's present policy to file by a certain time and be called in for investigation. Certain classes could be examined but the average payroll deduction without long forms would be far more acceptable. The motto could be "quick and easy."

TOO MUCH RED TAPE

Suggests We Listen to Current Rumblings

There is a tendency to blame all violence and crime on public apathy.

There is a rumbling arising against the judges who so nobly assess $5 fines, coddle hoodlums and search dilligently for legal loopholes to free criminals. There's a rumbling against clergymen who preach sedition—love thyself and protect thyself first and foremost and let the country go hang. There is a rumbling against beatings and stabbings that go unpunished.

Listen for it—you'll hear it.
GREAT GRANDMA

Question and Answer

What do I do when I put money in a parking meter and it doesn't work? If I get a ticket, do I have to pay?
CITY DRIVER

REPLY

Call the violations bureau and report it. They keep a record of the number of the meter and the time it was out of order. Then if you are ticketed during that time, the ticket will be voided.

To an important degree, this soaring ascent of domestic-civilian spending is attributable to federal programs which benefit the states and localities and couldn't be terminated without evoking a tremendous howl from the governors.

Thus it isn't the prospective tax increase which is getting in the way of the proposed turnback of federal tax collections. It's the proliferation of federal programs which require ever-increasing federal spending.

The impending tax boost is an effect of the increased spending rather than a cause of anything.

If the federal government turned tax money back to the states while increasing its domestic-civilian outlays it simply would increase its deficits which it then would have to wash out in quickening inflation.

Copacabana: Latin America's Swingingest Beach

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Down here, with the seasons reversed, tropical summer with all its torments is settling onto the famous beach called Copacabana.

More than 350,000 persons packed into the strip of land behind a crescent of sand will sweeter and curse the heat, the noise, the dirt and the lack of public services.

But most of them wouldn't move. If they did, thousands more are waiting to move into what may be the most crowded suburb in Latin America.

Cariocas — as Rio residents are known — don't seem to mind that the beach grows dirtier as the summer moves along, or the constant din of traffic choked into Copacabana's narrow streets.

TOAST IN SUN

Nonresidents flock to shop in its boutiques and its 53 art galleries, to play in its 52 major bars and nightclubs, or just to toast in the sun on the beach.

They also scrimp and save so that some day they may move there.

Copacabana is built on a narrow strip between sea and mountains. It is 2½ miles long and seldom more than five blocks wide. Residents and visitors jam its 2.4 square miles.

Those who live there pay as much as $1,500 a month for a beachside apartment. This doesn't guarantee them either water or electricity. Both have been in chronic short supply in Copacabana.

MODEST HOUSING

More modest housing is available behind the beach. Families of five or six crowd into tiny two-bedroom apartments just for the status of a Copacabana address.

More than a quarter of Copacabana's residents live in the squalid shantytown "Favelas" precariously perched on hills overlooking the beach. They have neither water nor sewage facilities, but the view is great.

The eight per cent of Copacabana residents who earn more than $500 monthly give the area its glitter.

Copacabana boasts Rio's highest traffic accident rate, a rapidly growing crime rate, and one of the city's highest noise levels.

SHORT ON SCHOOLS

It is short on schools, and residents complain that the city is cutting into already inadequate parks and squares to build a tourist information center and other public buildings.

Recent surveys focus attention on the suburb's attractions and shortcomings.

"The entire area should be transformed," said architect Marcos Konder Netto, a Copacabana resident. "Obsolete buildings should be replaced with parks, and garage buildings should be put up."

Dramatist Carlos Heiter Cony, another resident, says Copacabana is simply "a large and comfortable slum."

SPIRIT NEGLECTED

Benjamin Moraes, a Protestant minister who is state secretary for education, feels the spirit is neglected in Copacabana.

"Books are used to decorate shelves," he says.

For whatever it may take away from the spirit, Copacabana more than makes up to it for the flesh. Its beach is almost always covered with bronzed beauties in bikinis.

Its sidewalk cafes are a magnet, and its night clubs are the city's liveliest. Samba and yeye mix freely in swinging discotheques. Prostitutes swing in other ways along its mosaic sidewalks and the bars of half a dozen joints.

NOT ALL SUN, PLAY

But Copacabana is not all sun and play.

It has 10 public elementary and three high schools, and a thriving fishing colony of 42 men. Its department and specialty stores are among Rio's best and many of the city's leading restaurants are within its border.

In fact it's a city within a city, richly endowed by nature and embodying within a small area the best and worst of a residential community, a resort, a business center and a slum.

Most of the Copacabana boom has happened during the last 25 years. What was once a suburban area of houses and sand dunes has assumed all the problems of rapid urban development. Public services have never caught up to the housing boom.

SPACE FILLED IN

With all available space filled in, Copacabana is slowly giving way to other areas as "the place" to live.

Ipanema and Leblon, just beyond it, are beginning to follow in its path, single-family dwellings are giving way to tall apartment houses.

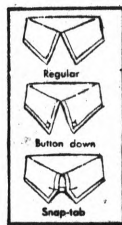

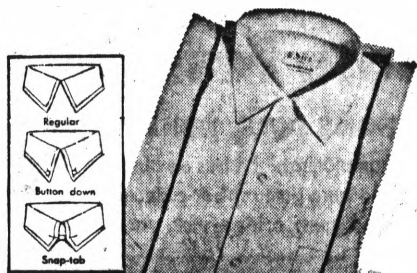

But the swinging life is still in Copacabana, and that's where the Carioca goes to have fun, and where he would like to live — if he could afford it.

Rodeos are not permitted in Great Britain because they are considered a form of cruelty to animals.

LBJ to Ask Extra Funds for Viet War

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson will ask Congress this month for extra funds to cover Vietnam war costs totaling $1 billion to $4 billion more than originally indicated last month.

The bigger price tag on the Vietnam supplemental appropriations bill may come as a surprise to many. But Johnson—troubled by what his critics call a "credibility gap"—may not necessarily be to blame.

At a Dec. 6 news conference at the LBJ Ranch, it was reported that Johnson said the supplemental bill would be between "$9 billion to $10 billion."

Now, however, administration officials say it will be more. The best congressional estimates place the price tag at between $12 billion to $14 billion.

Why an announcement of $9-$10 billion when the figure will end up larger?

BIG JOLT

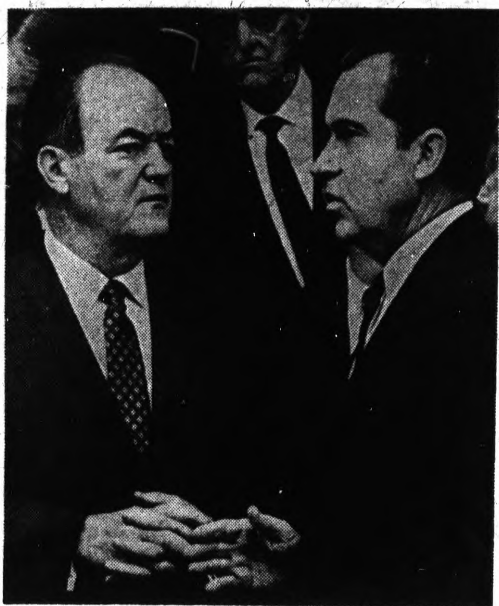

According to one administration source, it was thought the $9-$10 billion figure was "enough of a jolt."

Others say newsmen should have spotted the distinction the President made at his news conference.

What Johnson said was: "We expect to submit a supplemental budget. The precise amount will be given in the state of the union message, but it now appears that it will be somewhere between $9 billion and $10 billion additional for fiscal 1967 in expenditures."

The key to that statement is in the last six words. Administration officials contend that Johnson was talking only about spending during the current fiscal year—not the total of the entire supplemental appropriations bill.

Anything beyond the $9-$10 billion would be used during the next fiscal year, beginning July 1.

No Decision Made Yet on Troop Aid to Viet---Thai

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Deputy Premier Praphas Charusathien said today that the Thai government has not taken a final decision to send combat troops to South Vietnam.

Praphas told his weekly news conference his government may decide to send fighters to South Vietnam "today, tomorrow or next month, but at this moment the decision has not been taken yet."

He added that the National Security Council is now considering the matter and is taking into account the Communist threat to Thailand before reaching a decision. Praphas is deputy chairman of the council and commander in chief of the Thai army.

The government-controlled Bangkok radio said Tuesday that Thailand would send about 1,000 combat troops to South Vietnam. The text of the commentary was published in local papers today with additional comments attributed to Thai officials incorporated in it.

An unnamed high military officer was quoted as saying the government was "making preparations" to send a combat force to South Vietnam. But he added: "As to when we will send our team, this will depend upon consultations with the authorities of South Vietnam and the United States." He said a formal request from the Saigon government for Thai troops was awaited.

Praphas said the National Security Council is considering whether it would be better to concentrate on preventing Communist insurgency from spreading within Thailand or help put down a Communist uprising outside the country before it reaches Thailand's borders.

Vital Statistics Reflect County Growth Trend

A total of 6,736 marriage licenses were issued during 1966 by the Oakland County clerk-register of deeds office, and 2,278 final divorce judgments were recorded.

This compares with the issuance of 6,292 marriage licenses in 1965 and 2,103 divorce judgments.

Births and deaths recorded by the clerk-register of deeds office also show increases in 1966 over 1965.

Full year birth and death totals in 1965 were 13,334 and 4,856, respectively.

The available totals as of Dec.

1, 1966 for an 11-month period of last year are 13,654 births and 4,908 deaths.

FINAL TALLY
A final 1966 birth and death tally is expected by Jan. 15 when reports from all local clerk's offices in the county should be filed with the office of Clerk-Register of Deeds John D. Murphy.

Increases in births, deaths, marriages and divorces also were recorded in 1963 and 1964 over prior year figures.

The 1964 birth count was 10,682 compared to 10,326 in 1963 and 10,193 in 1962. Deaths in 1964 totalled 4,330, with 4,067 in 1963 and 3,791 in 1962.

A total of 5,849 marriage licenses were issued in 1964. This compared with 5,150 in 1963 and 4,555 in 1962. Divorces were 2,000 in 1964, 1,763 in 1963 and 1,603 in 1962.

The 1962 birth tally of 10,193 was below the 1961 figure of 10,885 and the 1960 count of 10,573.

Both the 1961 death and marriage totals dipped below the 1960 levels before beginning a continued upward swing in 1962.

Total deaths in 1960 were 3,801 compared to 3,629 in 1961 and the 1960 marriage license count was 4,298 compared to 4,230 the following year.

The number of divorces dipped to 1,507 in 1961 from 1,614 in 1960 before taking an interrupted upward pattern.

No 'Society' for Romney

By The Associated Press
There's Lyndon B. Johnson's "Great Society."
Nelson A. Rockefeller opened his third term as Governor of New York with a call for a "Just Society."

Ronald Reagan took office as governor of California with a plan for a "Creative Society."

George Romney started his third term as governor of Michigan without, so far, any society of his own. But he put in a plug for something which could develop into one: "A new Generation of Progress."

False Fire Alarms Set New Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Firemen in the nation's capital responded to 9,595 alarms in 1966. More than half — 5,353 — were false, officials said today.

The old record for such acts, which occur largely in areas of low-cost housing with heavy concentrations of children, was 4,237, set in 1965.

Bus Profit Down

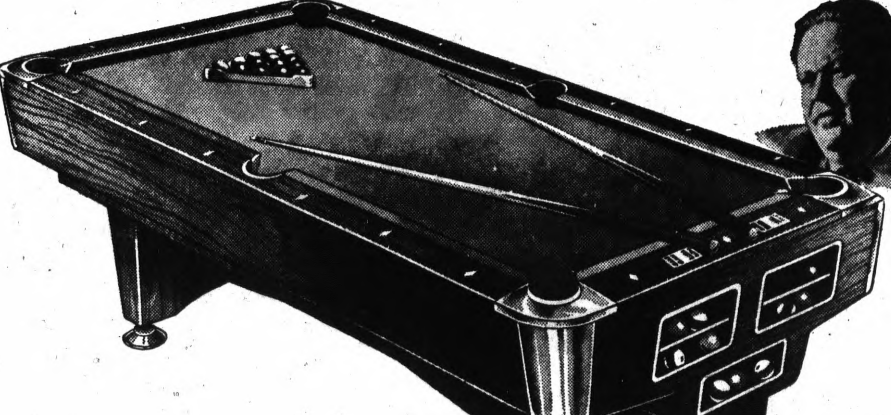

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit buses carried 750,000 more passengers in November, 1966, than in the same period of 1965, but profits for the month were down to $11,614, as compared with $74,648 for November, 1965, the bus company said Tuesday.

'Opening Night' at Meadow Brook Puts Localites in Bright Spotlight

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

When Oakland University puts on a "gala", it is done in top style. Tuesday's opening of the Meadow Brook Theatre was no exception.

Guests at the premiere performance of the John Fernald Company in Bertold Brecht's "The Caucasian Chalk Circle" came in formal gowns and tuxedos. It was a glittery evening.

VARNERS, HOSTS
Chancellor and Mrs. D. B. Varner entertained at dinner in Vandenberg Hall preceding the play. It honored not only the new performing arts project of the university, but also the 10th anniversary of its founding.

The charm of a Texan when he puts his mind to it is equaled only by someone who has kissed the Blarney stone. And Woody Varner was in his usual good form Tuesday evening.

After a brief review of how OU came into being and the ensuing 10 years, he paid special tribute to Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, who with her late husband gave both land and money to start the school.

Mrs. Wilson has been the "first lady" of the University since the charter class entered. To mark this 10th year, she was presented with a gold charm — the seal of Oakland University set with 10 diamonds.

"The diamonds are small, Mrs. Wilson," said Varner, "but many carats of affection come with them."

Other charms went to Mrs. Ben D. Mills for her chairmanship of the Meadow Brook Music Festival in 1966 and to Mrs. Charles Adams, co-chairman of the Meadow Brook Theatre.

FROM VIRGINIA
Among special guests at the dinner was Helen Marie Taylor of Richmond, Va. who was responsible for persuading John Fernald to come to OU and establish a repertory theatre.

After the play — which extends her visit — Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stoutt (Jane Schimmel) of South Pasadena, Calif. were with her parents, the Louis H. Schimmels of West Iroquois Road over the holidays.

Mr. Stoutt has returned home and his wife is extending her visit through this week.

Schedule Vows
A wedding in May is being planned by Corina Mary Garcia and Peter T. Wells. Their parents are the Jose Garcias of East Columbia Street and Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Wells of Strathdon Way.

started late and ended near midnight — most of the audience went to Meadow Brook Hall for an afterglow. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. George Romney were cohostesses.

The mansion never looked lovelier. There were flowers everywhere — hundreds of roses, carnations, lilies, tulips, chrysanthemums, blue flags and even white lilacs.

Refreshment tables were set not only in the enormous dining room where the Stuart portrait of George Washington overlooks the party, but also in the ballroom on the lower level.

Fires burned in all the fireplaces, a cheering sight on a snowy evening.

CAST ARRIVES
The cast of the Fernald Company joined the guests at Meadow Brook.

There were both long and short gowns and more color than neutrals.

Mrs. Varner was in green crepe; Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald in black with beaded bodice. Mrs. Walter Reuther's auburn hair was complemented by her turquoise and gold sari gown.

Mrs. John Fernald was in rosy red and Mrs. Harry Wieting who headed the ticket committee with her husband, was in beige lace with matching coat.

Mrs. Robert Critchfield wore emerald green; Mrs. Virgil E. Boyd and Mrs. S. E. Knudsen both wore midnight blue; Mrs. Wilson had on a gown and coat of green and gold brocade; Mrs. Mills wore a pink beaded gown. And Mrs. R. Jamison Williams had on a black lace cage over a beige shift.

As we said, it was a gala glittering evening.

Urge Preparation for Loss

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: My sister has a 12-year-old son who was born with one deaf ear and about one third hearing in the other ear. His doctors have informed my sister that in the very near future the boy will be totally deaf.

Don't you think the mother is being extremely unfair to hide the truth from her son? She is a college graduate and a prominent socialite and she seems almost ashamed of her son's handicap. She said she couldn't bear the thought of his wearing a hearing aid or studying lip-reading so young.

She thinks highly of your advice, Abby, so please answer.
DEVOTED AUNT
DEAR AUNT: That mother is doing her son a shocking disservice. The boy should start preparing immediately to live in a silent world. It will be much more difficult for him to learn after he has suffered a total hearing loss.

Urge your sister to talk to her son's doctors and to follow their recommendations. And I hope for the boy's sake she acts at once.

DEAR ABBY: I am 13 and a boy I know who is 14 asked me to be his girl and I said yes.

Then he asked me if he could kiss me on the lips. Abby, I told him that I had never let a boy kiss me on the lips and I wasn't going to let him either. Well, then he said he was sorry, that he guessed he was just a little bit more grown up than I was, and he would have to find someone more grown up to be his girl.

Well, I didn't really care that much about him, so there wasn't too much heartbreak. But, Abby, I am still confused. SHOULD I have let him kiss me on the lips?

PRIVATE NAME
DEAR PRIVATE NAME: I think you used excellent judgment.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is dead and I had two enlarged pictures of him nicely framed and I keep them in my living room. The other day a neighbor came in and saw them and she said personal pictures did not belong in the living room.

Abby, I haven't had much education and I would appreciate it if you would tell me if I am wrong to keep his pictures there.

I get a lot of pleasure out of looking at his pictures in the living room, but if they really don't belong there I suppose I could put them somewhere else. Thank you.
JUST DUMB

DEAR JUST: Personal pictures should be enjoyed. And they "belong" where ever they afford the most pleasure.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WITS END WIFE": Yours is the curse of being married to a man who appears to be younger than his years and also younger than his wife. Don't for goodness sake, try to let people know in some "subtle" way that he is really older than you. It is bound to create the opposite impression.

SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Sydney J. Harris Will Be Speaker at Town Hall

Noted newsman and author, Sydney J. Harris will speak at Thursday and Friday's Birmingham Town Hall on "The Search for Values in an Affluent Society."

A product of London, England, Harris began his journalistic career as a copy boy. He later joined the editorial staff of the Chicago Daily News as a reporter and then drama critic, a post he still holds.

Harris who has authored four books is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, the Headline Club, Chicago Press Club, and Arts Club.

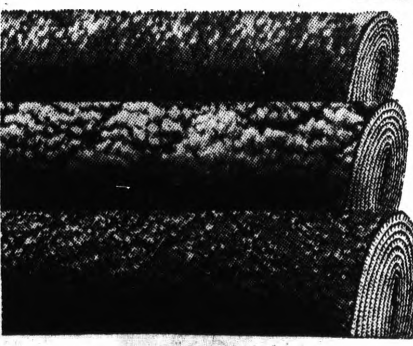

Luncheons will be held on both days in the Bloomfield Open Hunt. Birmingham Town Hall begins at 11 a.m. in the Birmingham Theatre.

Oakland University Theatre Premiere Gala Event

Karin Fernald (left) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fernald, came from London to spend the holidays with her parents and stayed to attend the opening performance

Tuesday evening of the John Fernald Company. With her are Edgar A. Guest III, of the Meadow Brook Theatre staff and Mrs. Fernald.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Schimmel, West Iroquois Road, were guests at the dinner preceding the performance of the opening play in the Meadow Brook Theatre. Schimmel is a member of the Oakland University Foundation.

Gov. and Mrs. George Romney came to Meadow Brook Theatre directly from a dinner at the Kingsley Inn where the engagement of their son, Scott, to Ronna Eileen Stern was announced. Mrs. Romney was cohostess with Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson at an afterglow in Meadow Brook Hall.

Winter Look, a Velvet Glow

The look this season is velvet. When a dress is styled in the classic, unadorned, Empire style it depends largely on the fabric for its after-dark romantic look. Rich velveteen is shadowy under dim light, shimmery under bright light, and ravishing in any light.

About 8,000 children are born each year to mothers 14 years old or younger.

Willing Workers

Volunteer 'Institution'

That pleasant older woman working at the information counter in the YWCA and the young woman making up a hospital bed "just for the sake of doing something useful" are more typical than many believe.

Studies cited suggest that one out of four women who have the time to spare want very much to spare it in behalf of a worthy cause.

Moreover, the instinct to serve the community as a volunteer worker is neither fleeting nor frivolous.

A survey of women volunteers recently completed in Pennsylvania for the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women found that the average volunteer is likely to have been serving for from 10 to 20 years.

The nation has always relied heavily upon the volunteer for many of its social services. More than 100 years ago the French observer, Alexis De Tocqueville, commented on the ubiquitous role of volunteers as something of an American institution.

'PECULIAR' AMERICANS

"These Americans," marveled De Tocqueville, "are the most peculiar people in the world. You will not believe it when I tell you how they behave. In a local community in their country a citizen may conceive of some need which is not being met. What does he do? He goes across the street and discusses it with his neighbor. Then what happens? A committee comes into existence and then the committee begins functioning on behalf of that need."

Americans are still "peculiar" in this respect.

But with community needs expanding rapidly, several agencies have made attempts to draw a more exact profile of the average volunteer, aiming at better recruitment practices and better utilization of the average volunteer's talents.

The report to the Pennsylvania Governor's Commission is among the more recent.

Although men are frequent volunteers in the social service field, the study focused on women as offering a potential that is not yet being fully utilized.

Here is what investigators found:

Most volunteers, it developed, come not from the ranks of idealistic youth. Volunteers are likely to be more mature, nine out of ten of them over 35, most of them married and many of them from homes that have attained some degree of financial security.

The study found that while volunteers in general represent most shades of income, the largest group among them came from homes with incomes of $10,000 or more.

Better than one in ten of the women was going to business as well as working as a volunteer.

COMMON BOND

One thing most common among volunteers: their children are usually well along in their school years.

But if the statistics suggest that women volunteer to work for the community just to fill in free time, the statistics are telling only half the story.

The Pennsylvania report uncovered an almost universal aspiration among volunteers to be doing something of value for the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuther arrive for the premiere performance of "The Caucasian Chalk Circle." The first public performance of the play is scheduled for tonight at 8:30.

Polly's Pointers

Improvise a Mirror

DEAR POLLY — In order to be able to see the back of my head while staying in a hotel or motel, I take the mirror from my overnight case and put it on the bathroom wall with four pieces of florist's clay.

It can be held in position long enough to find the right spot and then be securely fastened. If the rest of the box of clay is put in the case where the mirror was it will serve as a reminder to remove the mirror from the bathroom and return it to the case.—LAZETTA

DEAR POLLY — The drawers to our desk stick when the weather is damp and humid. We had almost decided to discard the desk but are waiting to find out if any of the readers can tell us how to fix it so the drawers will not stick.—MRS. E. H. D.

DEAR POLLY — It has been suggested that I write to you regarding a safety measure we have adopted for our family. Having seen five people killed in three accidents started me thinking about the safety of our own family when on the highways.

We have taped a buff-colored envelope to the lower left hand side of the car's rear window (where many cars display emblems of places they have visited). We typed "Emergency Information Enclosed" on the envelope. It is readable from the outside of the window.

In the envelope is a sheet of paper which gives our names, ages, blood types, nearest of kin, doctor, minister and all necessary addresses and telephone numbers, as well as our job phones.

In case of an accident and inability of injured persons to give such information, the authorities would have it right at hand. This gives us greater peace of mind as we know that regardless of the seriousness of an accident our loved ones could be summoned immediately and medical help might be given en route to the hospital if necessary.

We feel it would be wonderful if automobile manufacturers would provide a standard place in or on automobiles where such information could be kept. We chose the rear of the car as we thought this part is more often left fairly intact after an accident.

We trust this information will never have to be used, but if it must we will feel better for having taken this precaution. — KATHRYN

DEAR POLLY — I want to tell Mrs. E. M. that I also had a rug with the rubber back crumbling off little by little. I took a stiff brush and brushed loose as much as I could and then I sewed a piece of foam rubber, about 1/4-inch thick, to the back of the rug.

Machine stitching does not work so this must be done by hand. I tied the new backing in place just as one ties a quilt to the backing. This made it nonslip and firm again. — MRS. I. E.

Sea Gypsies Use Unique Wash Idea

The Tucker Thompson family of Hawaii, which lives and travels abroad a sailing ship, handles its laundry in a ship-shape way.

Take Vows in Recent Ceremony

Kathleen Nyanne Lewis and Philip Earl Campbell exchanged recent vows in the Perry Park Baptist Church. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Gene Hamman of Coldwater and the late Ira Lewis and the Evert B. Campbells of Oak Hill Street.

White peau de soie fashioned a gown for the bride whose honor attendant was Mrs. Harold James. Mrs. Robert Sherman and Mrs. Fred Osborn were bridesmaids with flower girl, Delora Burnett.

Standing for the groom was best man, Douglas Johnson with groomsmen, Kirk Lewis, William Liddy, Harold James, Dennis Dunn and ring bearer, Philip James.

A reception in the church parlors followed immediately after.

Classes Being Offered for Expectant Parents

Once again, the Oakland County Department of Health is offering Expectant Parents classes in three area locations during January.

The first class will begin Jan. 9 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Health Department facility on North Telegraph Road and will run until Feb. 27.

ROYAL OAK

The second set of classes begins Jan. 11 and 12 (Wednesdays and Thursdays) at the same time in the Health Department's South Office located in Royal Oak.

The third set will be held in the Health Department's Birmingham offices located in that city's Municipal Building on Mondays and Tuesdays beginning Jan. 16 and 17. These classes will also begin at 7:30 p.m.

There are eight individual classes in the series covering topics: "Mental Health of the Family Unit"; "Growth and Development of the Baby Previous to and Immediately After Birth"; "Labor, Delivery, Care and Feeding of the Infant."

All classes will see films and be instructed through the use of audio visual aids.

There is no charge but registration must be made before or at the first class.

Advance registration may be secured by contacting the Oakland County Health Department on North Telegraph Road. Classes will be limited to 25.

Host Party for Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Davidson of Huntington Park Drive were hosts recently for a celebration honoring her parents, the Elbert Padgett of Linton, Ind. on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Also present for the event were the Padgett's other daughters and their families, the Simon Zubals of Rochester and the Robert McClures of Linton.

One more daughter, Diana Padgett also of Linton, was unable to attend. There are nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Skin Cleanser Removes All

There is a new rinse-off cold cream that is a highly effective cleanser. It softens skin, yet rinses off completely with water. It is designed to leave the complexion clear and moist without a trace of sticky residue on your face or washcloth. It even removes eye make-up and mascara.

Fringe benefits for the skier who's also a knitter are apparent in these sweaters. At the left is a snappy fringe-trimmed ski turtle-neck, a perfect topping to ski pants. Use Germantown knitting worsted. (Pattern KD 66-3). At the right is a handsome snowflake patterned ski sweater, also with a turtle-neck line. Bulky yarn makes for speedy knitting (Pattern KD 66-2). For free patterns, send long stamped, self-addressed envelope to National Hand Knitting Yarn Association, 15 East 26th Street, New York City, 10010, Room 1806 DSN.

Ski buffs will enjoy being ribbed when it's on their outfit, not their form. Here, to knit themselves is a nifty ribbed ski sweater, its vertical ribbing emphasized by horizontal stripes also in the ribbed pattern but in a contrasting color. Worked in a Germantown knitting worsted, the sweater is knit on easy lines. (Pattern KD 66-1). Send to above address for free pattern, women's sweater only.

Hart Urges 30 Pct. Increase in Corporation Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart proposed today financing "Great Society" programs with an increase in corporation taxes from the current 45 per cent to 75 per cent.

But, the Michigan Democrat declared in a statement, income taxes on individuals should not be increased.

"If I thought a general tax increase would have a significant effect on high prices, I might be for it," he said. "But it wouldn't..."

"So why hit consumers, already hard pressed by high prices and high interest rates, with another punishing blow in the form of a tax hike when it won't have the desired result anyway?"

CITES STUDIES

"And why sacrifice essential domestic programs — such as the war on poverty — to an economic theory which in many cases is not applicable."

Hart, chairman of the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee, said studies by that panel had convinced him that steadily rising prices were in large part the result of economic concentration in the business world.

"This lock-step pricing," he said, "means that price competition is not at work to force the sharing of high profits with the consumer in the form of lower prices.

"American industry is riding the crest of the greatest profit boom in history. At one time, a 10 per cent return on net worth was considered good. Now 20 per cent is not uncommon.

"Yet prices go up, very often in industries that are operating far below productive capacity, indicating that the price hike is not in response to an overwhelming demand exceeding an insufficient supply."

Hart said after-tax corporate profits jumped 88 per cent in nine years while manufacturing labor costs have risen only 2½ per cent.

In the same period, consumer prices have climbed 14 per cent, he added.

The senator said if a tax increase proves necessary, he would urge a graduated corporation levy of up to 75 per cent on firms with a very high profit rate.

"This would have the effect of encouraging firms to share high profits with the consumer in the form of lower prices rather than turning them over to the government," he said.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth suffer embarrassment because their plates drop, slip or wobble at just the wrong time. Don't live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the non-acid powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortable. Checks denture breath. Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly. Get FASTEETH at all drug counters.

Watch Out! Computers to Check Returns

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service says its computers will be used this year to verify completely all aspects of 1966 income tax returns.

The IRS reported Tuesday the computers verified only the mathematics of the 1965 returns. This alone, it added, turned up about $19.1 million which otherwise might have gone undetected.

In its annual report, the IRS also said its computers have frightened taxpayers into reporting voluntarily about $6 million in previously unreported taxes since Jan. 1, 1962.

But, the IRS said, its electronic brains also turned up more than 9,000 delinquent returns on which $2.6 million in taxes had already been paid through withholding from paychecks and mailing of estimated tax payments. Of these, another $600,000 in taxes was still due, but other taxpayers had $400,000 in refunds coming to them.

TOTALED $128.9 BILLION

The report also said tax collections during the last fiscal year totaled a record $128.9 billion from 104 million returns of all types filed. This compared with the previous year's collections of $114.5 billion.

The IRS said about half of the last fiscal year's collections came from individual income taxes, one-fourth from corporations and the remainder from other sources including excise, employment, estate and gift taxes.

The report also said 82 per cent of the 5,273 moonshiners stills it seized during fiscal 1966 were discovered in the Southeast, long an area of entrenched moonshining.

Cave Explorers Saved in Alps

ANNECY, France (UPI) — Six shivering and exhausted young cave explorers were rescued today from "Farewell Cavern" in the French Alps where a rain-swollen underground river threatened to drown them.

Underground rescue teams found them huddled in a tiny passage where they had fled to escape the water's wrath after getting lost in the gloomy mazes of the deep grotto Sunday.

Melting snow and ice from the Alps had swollen the torrent which roars through "Farewell Cavern" to twice its normal size.

The explorers, three Frenchmen and three Belgians, were not reported missing until Monday. They ranged in age from 15 to 25.

It took veteran spelunkers nearly two days to work through the tortuous passages and icy streams before finding the youths in the passage behind a rock cave called "Grand Cascade."

There are some 4,595 museums of every sort in the United States.

Junior Editors Quiz on MARK TWAIN

QUESTION: How did Samuel Clemens get the name Mark Twain

ANSWER: Samuel Langhorne Clemens was a famous American humorist and writer who lived between 1835 and 1910. Mark Twain was the pen name he used when writing books and stories. Clemens was brought up near the Mississippi River and became a river pilot.

Later he began to write stories, he used much material from the colorful river life he had seen at close hand. He adopted the pen name of Mark Twain because this reminded him of happy river days. The words meant two marks on a steamer's lead line, which indicated a depth of 12 feet, or "safe water."

Twain's most famous book, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, tells how his boy hero and Huck's friend Jim, drifted down the Mississippi on a raft, having wonderful adventures as they went. The raft gave Huck a sense of security. With it, he could always escape the entanglements of the shore.

Twain's writing style—direct and vivid—influenced American writing toward greater observation of reality.

Almost as well known as Huck is Twain's other boy character Tom Sawyer, who, in a famous episode, tricked some of his friends into whitewashing a fence he was supposed to do himself.

FOR YOU TO DO: Get to know Tom and Huck even better than you do now. You'll laugh at them—love them, too.

Five Dems First to Ask for State-Owned Autos

LANSING (UPI) — Five state senators, all Democrats, have during the final days of the 1966 become the first legislators to ask for state owned cars under legislative session last month passed resolutions authorizing new legislative rules.

However, George Washington, director of the State Department of Administration, yesterday said he is holding up ordering new cars for the lawmakers until more requests are made.

"If we start buying individuals' cars, we'll have to pay a higher price," Washington said in explaining the delay.

"I'm hoping we'll get into it (the purchase of state cars for lawmakers) on a group basis so we can get the best price available," he added.

Washington said he was requesting more of the 148 legislators to let him know shortly after the new Legislature begins its session Jan. 11 whether they want the use of state cars.

Grand Haven OKs Land Deal

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—The Grand Haven City Council Tuesday approved a $66,375 property purchase from the Grand Trunk Western Railroad.

The deal, which had been six years in the making, includes nearly three acres of waterfront property in downtown Grand Haven which the city plans to use as a parking area and for harbor beautification and development programs.

Besides paying the agreed upon sum, the city also said it would build Grand Trunk a new depot and pay an estimated $5,100 for relocating tracks several blocks northeast.

The Loutit Foundation of Grand Haven has offered the city $90,000 to pay for improvement including purchase of land and other expenses connected with the transaction.

2 Die in Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon said Tuesday that two Michigan soldiers were among 72 listed as killed in action in the Vietnam War. They were Army Pfc. James W. Pawlak, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Pawlak of Detroit and Army Pfc. Robert G. Petrimoulx, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Petrimoulx of Belleville.

China Labor Union Part of Internal Strife

TOKYO (AP) — Conflicting reports from Communist China indicate Mao Tse-tung and Lin Biao have struck a possibly crippling blow at President Liu Shao-chi through the big Chinese labor movement.

The Soviet news agency Tass and the Czech news agency Ceteka both have announced that the 21-million member All China Federation of Trade Unions — ACFTU — has been dissolved and its official newspaper shut down.

A later report from Japanese correspondents in Peking said the ACFTU had not been disbanded but that its leadership had been taken over by a new Mao-Lin oriented group called the All-China Association of Red Revolutionaries — ACARR.

If either report is true, it means Liu has lost a critical round in his fight to survive mounting pressure against him.

LIU, who made his niche in Red China as a labor organizer and was formerly ACFTU chairman, is believed to have heavy trade union support in the present confrontation with Mao and Lin.

Though it is a labor organization, the ACFTU's primary function is to carry out the party's orders on production. As such, it is the link between the party and the nation's 26,250,000 industrial workers.

Mao's young Red Guards have encountered resistance from workers in many parts of the country where Liu presumably continues popular.

The name of the new labor group suggests that it is on the Red Guard model, probably made up of a minority of nonunionists who follow Mao and Lin.

PROTEST MADE

On Dec. 30 — three days after the reported move against the ACFTU — the official New China News Agency reported that the Chinese union had issued a statement protesting the decision of the Soviet-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions barring it from its Dec. 8 general council meeting in Sofia, Bulgaria.

This suggested that the reports the ACFTU has been taken over, rather than abolished, are true.

Headed by Liu Ning-yi, who has been attacked by Red Guards in recent weeks, the ACFTU was founded in 1925 as the All-China Federation of Labor.

Since 1949, all trade unions have been affiliated with it. Its executive committee — composed of high party officers — wields total control of all labor union functions.

NOT ELECTED

The New China News Agency said the Russians opposed seating of the Chinese delegates on the ground they were not elected members of the general council. It said the regular members "could not leave their posts at home due to pressure of work."

Induction Due Corps Critic

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A Seattle Peace Corps volunteer, who protested being pulled out of the Philippines for the draft, is scheduled to be inducted next Tuesday.

The volunteer, Fred Lonidier, 24, wrote to the Manila Times after receiving his induction notice and said it was a waste of time and money to train Peace Corps volunteers and then draft them. He also termed the Peace Corps a political gimmick.

He joined the Peace Corps after he was classified 1A in the draft.

Lonidier and his wife, Paullette, 23, who was a Peace Corps volunteer with him in the Philippines, returned to Seattle after visiting her parents in California.

Mother Dies; Third Death in Past Week

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Daniel W. Davis' wife, mother and only child have died in the past week.

Davis' wife, Katherine, 57, died last Friday after a short illness.

A few hours later a Marine Corps officer arrived at the family home with word that the couple's son, Pfc. Edward Davis, 19, had been killed Dec. 28 by an enemy explosive device in Vietnam.

Davis was in Decatur, Ill. for burial of his wife Tuesday when word was received that his mother, Ludie Sanders, 86, died of pneumonia in Bell, Calif., Sunday.

Training Slated

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department will take applications through Jan. 23 for a new three-year technician training program. Those selected will be given on-the-job and classroom training in such fields as highway drafting, design and survey. The department will select 100 students for the training.

Board Will Consider Final School Plans

Final plans for construction projects at two Waterford Township elementary schools will be considered for approval tomorrow night by the board of education.

Some $587,000 is budgeted for the improvements at Williams Lake School, 2525 Airport, and Drayton Plains School, 3000 Sashabaw.

The $312,000 Williams Lake project will provide the school with a gymnasium-multi-purpose room complex, a library-instructional materials center, two classrooms, a lounge and restrooms, boiler rooms, parking lot improvements, classroom sinks and counters and equipment and furnishings.

Estimated to cost $275,000, the Drayton Plains undertaking will furnish that school with generally the same features.

Two existing rooms at Drayton Plains School will be converted into an instructional materials center.

PROJECT DESIGNERS

The projects were designed by Denyes and Freeman Associates, Inc., of Pontiac.

In other business at tomorrow's 7:30 p.m. meeting, the board will consider awarding a contract for site development work at Waterford Kettering and Waterford Township high schools.

Submitting the apparent low base bid of $117,531 at the board's Dec. 22 meeting was Sterling Garrett Contracting Co., of Commerce Township.

In still other business, the board is expected to name a new food service director to replace Mrs. Shirley McCoy, who resigned recently to accept another position.

down south—way down yonder in south Manchester.

High above the hotel flies a tattered Confederate flag. In the main ballroom is the Lone Star flag of Texas. A miniature Confederate flag decorates every table in the dining room. Above the bar is another burgee with the stars and bars of the Confederacy.

Why? "I'm probably the only middle-aged, South-loving, frustrated English cowboy you've ever met," explained John Ridley 45, "and I'm the proprietor of the Southern Hotel."

"I like the South. I like the Southwest. I've been fascinated by everything Southern and Southwestern since I was a child. But, it was just pure luck when I got the Southern Hotel. You see, it had been named that before I got it. I suppose it's because it's in south Manchester."

IMPORTED THEME

Ridley emphasized that he brought in the Confederate theme.

"I wrote to President Lyndon Johnson asking him for permission to fly the flag," he said. "I don't know what happened, but I received a reply from Gov. John Connally of Texas."

"Gov. Connally sent us the large flag and some smaller ones and a tremendous amount of literature on Texas and the South in general. Let me tell you, sir, I'm proud to fly the Southern flag."

The man was all but talking with a Southern accent.

QUICK-DRAW CLUB

In addition to being the proprietor of the Southern Hotel, Ridley is also an official of the Quick-Draw Club in Blackpool. "We started the club four years ago," he said. "I practice in my cellar, get through about 1,000 rounds of ammunition every week."

Then the members own guns? "Loads of them. I've got a single-hand rig and a twin-rig. The twin-rig is for the two-gun man. I confess, I'm a two-gun English cowboy."

REAL RIFLES

"Oh, yes, we've got horses. Not only do most of us have horses, but we have rifles, real American Western rifles and for that matter, handmade leather holsters."

But isn't all this very costly? "You're right it is. Just ask my wife. She's giving me hell about it, pardner."

Ridley said he wanted to get one thing definitely understood. "I like all Americans," he insisted. "I just happen to favor the South."

GOT TO TALKING

"During the war in Italy, I was in a hospital in Caserta. It was my birthday and they let me out on crutches."

"I met up with some of your boys in a little cafe and got to talking and I said I'd met American men, but I'd never even seen an American girl."

"A big sergeant said, 'We'll fix that.' Do you know, those American soldiers picked up my crutches and they picked me up too and they took me to a place where your WACs were stationed."

"Well, sir, those soldiers knocked on a door and we all went in and sat around for a few minutes being entertained by two delightful American girls."

'CRIED LIKE A CHILD'

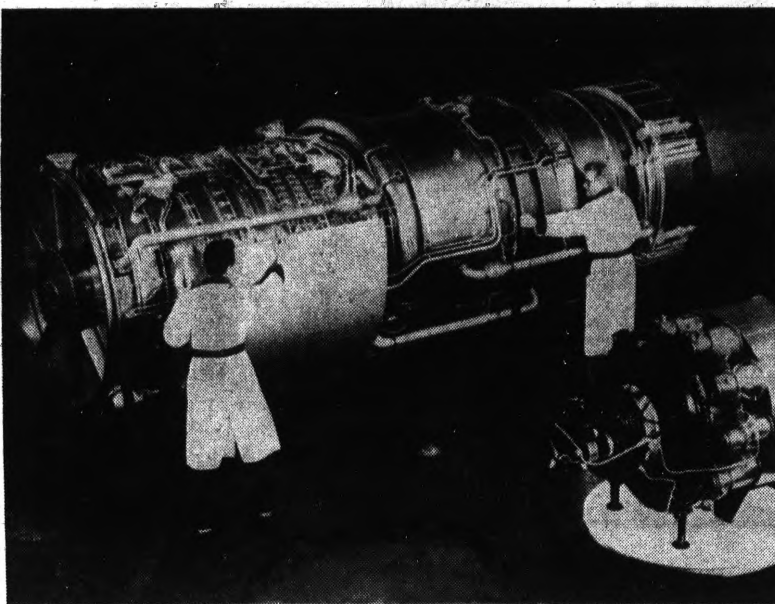

"The sergeant was a fellow named McDonnell from Texas. Well, he disappeared and after a while I began to get embarrassed at taking up so much of these girls' time."

"Just then some sliding doors opened and I saw about 20 or 30 of these American girls. They were standing around their dining table and on the table was a cake and on the cake there was some candles. They began singing 'Happy birthday.'"

"I cried like a child," said Ridley.

Have any Americans ever been in the Southern Hotel? "Not that I know of," he replied, "but I'd be proud to welcome them."

And if they were Southerners? "The first Southerner who comes in here, or for that matter, the second or the third one, well, if he wants to drink I'll promise he can drink all he wants to—and it won't cost him a penny. Why, I'd be honored, Suh."

Soapy Considers the Ministry

DETROIT (AP) — Former Gov. G. Mennen Williams said today he has considered becoming an Episcopal priest.

"The ministry certainly is a very worthy vocation," he said. "I had thought about it casually."

But Williams, 55, who was defeated in last fall's U.S. Senate election by Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., added:

"As of this moment, I haven't given serious consideration as to any steps in my future career."

JUST STAYING HOME

The former six-term governor of Michigan said that for the time being "I am just staying home with my family and taking care of some of my family affairs and keeping up associations with the Democratic party."

Williams, a member of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit, has been an Episcopalian since childhood. He attends church every Sunday. When serving as assistant secretary of state for African affairs, in 1964-65, he often began each day by attending early communion at an Episcopal church near Washington.

The Very Rev. Leslie Warren, rector of St. Paul's, said "I'm sure he would be welcome."

ed" if Williams sought ordination as a priest.

Amendment to Pass Soon

To Cover President in Emergency Cases

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 25th Amendment — to cover emergencies arising when a president is unable to handle the duties of his office — should be written into the Constitution within a few weeks.

A total of 31 states already have ratified the amendment, which was passed by Congress in July, 1965. Seven more states will bring the number to 38, three-fourths of all states, the number needed to make it a part of the Constitution.

States that have ratified the amendment are: Nebraska, Wisconsin, Oklahoma, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Arizona, Michigan, Indiana, California, Arkansas, New Jersey, Delaware, Utah, West Virginia, Maine, Rhode Island, Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas, Vermont, Alaska, Idaho, Hawaii, Virginia, Mississippi, New York, Maryland, Missouri, New Hampshire and Louisiana.

Fifteen of the state legislatures that have not yet acted on the amendment are convening this month. Since it has not run into any serious opposition so far, it appears to face a smooth ride once the legislatures are cranked into motion.

FIRST TASTE — This Vietnamese boy's first experience with ice cream proved a happy one. The treat is being served by his sister at a party given at the Sacred Heart orphanage near Da Nang by U.S. Marines of a helicopter unit stationed nearby.

Joint Return Usually the Most Economical

By RAY DE CRANE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There are rare instances where separate returns by a husband and wife may produce a greater savings than on a joint return.

But in the great majority of cases, a joint return — because of its lower tax rates — is the more economical.

Exceptions to the general rule occur where husband and wife each have income and where there may be unusually high medical expenses or capital losses.

Since medical expenses for taxpayers under 65 are not deductible until after they exceed 3 per cent of income, it is apparent that a separate return by the party having a lower income and relatively high medical expenses would produce a bigger medical deduction.

It must be remembered that when one spouse itemizes his deductions on a separate return the other must also itemize instead of taking the 10 per cent or the minimum standard deduction.

MEDICAL DEDUCTION

When a medical deduction is claimed on a separate return care must be taken to see that payment of the medical expenses is made by the spouse's own funds.

Payments made by check on a joint checking account, for instance, will be assumed to have been paid one-half by each spouse.

The only way to make sure of a savings on separate rather than joint returns is to try both methods and then file the one which saves you the most money.

Where separate returns are made, each partner must list all of his own income.

COMMUNITY PROPERTY

The exception is in so-called community property states where all earned income and all income received from property acquired after marriage is treated as community income with half belonging to each spouse.

If a husband and wife each had capital losses on investments last year they may be able to obtain greater advantage of their losses on separate returns.

On a joint return they must first use the losses to offset capital gains and if any loss remains they may apply $1,000 of it as a write-off against other income.

On separate returns they each could get full advantage of the $1,000 reduction against other income after first reducing their gains.

A lesser opportunity for savings on separate returns occurs where a husband and wife each had income under $5,000 and use the automatic tax tables instead of itemizing deductions.

Sometimes the combined tax on separate returns using this method is less than the tax on a joint return. In such instances the savings generally is less than $5.

(NEXT: What income is taxable, what isn't.)

It's 'Smokers Anonymous' at Lansing Clinic

LANSING (AP) — A clinic in a Lansing hospital is helping smokers ditch the habit with a program of medical advice, support from fellow sufferers, and "post-graduate work" and a heavy cost for failure — $50.

Of the first 14 clinic members, 13 have managed to quit smoking. The other one has promised himself and others he will report for the hospital's next clinic.

The smokers anonymous idea is a key part of the program. "I was getting to the point where I was feeling awfully frustrated and frantic and yet I just couldn't seem to make it on my own," said Carol Knaggs, who had smoked for 30 years.

GOOD RESULTS

Results are better than expected, said Dr. Richard C. Bates, chief of the alcoholism treatment program at Sparrow Hospital and consultant for the anti-smoking clinic.

Smokers who enroll in the clinic pay a $50 fee — lost money if the smoker relapses. But, Dr. Bates said, the money is easily made up for the person who quits with just a few months of not buying cigarettes.

"If we could get 50 per cent of them to quit smoking permanently, we would consider it a good record," he said.

PORK WITH ORANGE — Here's a lean and luscious Roast Loin in Pork a la Orange — just right to serve plain to home folks or prettied up with a flaming sauce and fruit spears if guests are coming.

Thread small wedges of fresh or canned pineapple and orange slices, lime slices and strawberries or maraschino cherries on long bamboo picks or skewers. Use as a platter garnish or, if desired, serve one with each serving of pork.

Lower Temperature for Pork

There's a bit of magic in any dinner centered around a lean, handsome, pork loin roast.

But when pork is roasted crispy brown, deliciously coated with a spicy glaze and served with orange sauce and fruit spears, it's certain there's been a bit of magic at work in the kitchen. Flame the sauce and really impress your guests.

Great things have been happening to pork — have you noticed? It's now leaner than ever and takes less time to cook. Great news for our modern, busy, weight-conscious homemakers.

Authorities now suggest pork loin roasts be cooked to an internal temperature of 170 degrees rather than the 185 degrees previously recommended. This means a shorter cooking time, finer eating and less shrinkage.

ROAST LOIN OF PORK A LA ORANGE

4 to 5 pound pork loin roast
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon ginger
¼ cup orange sauce (recipe below) or orange marmalade, as desired
Fruit spears (directions below), optional
Mint or watercress, optional

Place roast, ribs down, on rack in shallow baking pan. Rub meat with a mixture of salt and ginger. Place in slow oven (325 degrees) until thoroughly done, 2¼ to 3 hours or to an internal temperature of 170 degrees. Insert meat thermometer into center of thickest part of muscle.

Brush ½ cup orange sauce or marmalade over roast 30 minutes before end of roasting time. Arrange on serving platter; garnish, if desired, with fruit spears and mint or watercrass. Serve with sauce, if desired. Yield: 8-10 servings.

Orange Sauce

1 cup orange marmalade
1 cup orange juice
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
2 tablespoons cornstarch
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ginger
1 cup seedless grapes, halved
½ cup Cointreau or orange-flavored liqueur, optional
Combine first 6 ingredients in saucepan; mix. Heat, stirring constantly, until thick and clear. Reserve ½ cup of sauce for glazing pork roast. Just before serving fold in grapes; heat.

If desired, stir in 2 tablespoons liqueur; pour remaining liqueur over sauce and ignite. Allow flame to die before spooning sauce over meat servings.

Coconut Rice Is Good With Duck

Coconut Rice

1 cup long-grain or converted-type rice
2 tablespoons butter
½ cup flaked coconut, packed down
¼ cup raisins (preferably golden), rinsed in hot water and halved

Cook the rice according to package directions, using the amount of water and salt called for. With a fork, lightly mix in the butter, coconut and raisins. Makes 6 servings. (A kitchen scissors will do a good job of halving the raisins.)

Lentils Have New Importance

The U. S. has become one of the world's major exporters of lentils in recent years, Europe being the principal market. Lentils are also growing in popularity in the many areas of the United States as their many uses are discovered.

Lentils, an age-old food, cook quickly and make excellent soups, whole meal and vegetable side dishes, and salads. They may be used as additives and stretchers in meat products.

How About Pretzels?

Of all snacks, the pretzel has the least calories and the least fat content of those who may be concerned about their diet. And they are comparatively high in protein.

'Prayer Saved Me'---Human Grenade

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A patrol which had been ambushed and that he thinks he saw the Communist guerrilla who fired the rifle grenade at him.

Escalera is being treated at San Diego Naval Hospital for wounds suffered in a battle near Da Nang Dec. 20.

He said Tuesday his patrol had been sent out to help another

"He was on the other side of a stream beside the road," he said. "I didn't shoot at him because he was wearing an American-style helmet."

WAS HELPED

Escalera, 20, of Los Angeles, was helped by two hospital corpsmen after being hit in the throat and the leg.

"I just lay there choking and tried to keep breathing. I thought I wouldn't make it. I thought I would choke to death. But the corpsman told me to pray to God and I did," he said.

Escalera said he waited about four hours before an evacuation helicopter removed him to a hospital in Da Nang, where the grenade was removed. He said he didn't know at the time he was carrying a live explosive in his throat.

"When I woke up from surgery and found myself sitting there I was so happy that right away I gave the doctor and his staff the biggest thank-you I could—I was so glad to be alive," he said.

MADE OPERATION

Lt. Cmdr. James Chandler of San Francisco was the surgeon who removed the grenade from Escalera's throat. A demolition team exploded the projectile.

They said it probably would have killed everyone in the operating room had it exploded there.

Escalera is now breathing through a hole in his throat. His jaws have been wired together as part of the repair job. To speak, he places his finger over the hole in his throat to direct air past his vocal cords.

"I'm feeling pretty good now," he said.

Charge Yank Who Fled U.S.

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A Hartford man who was featured in a recent magazine article on Americans who flee to Canada to avoid the draft has been charged by a federal grand jury with draft evasion.

Gregory R. Garach, 23, was pictured with another young American in Life magazine's Dec. 9 edition. The article said they were among 400 to 1,000 Americans now in Canada to avoid compulsory military service.

The federal grand jury said Tuesday that Garach had used the name Gregory Roman in Canada. He was described by the magazine as a graduate of the University of Illinois.

A bench warrant was issued for his arrest and his bond was set at $5,000. However, the warrant cannot be served in Canada, which has no draft laws and no extradition for draft offenses.

James K. Polk was the only speaker of the House ever to have been elected President of the United States.

Baton Laurels for Area Girl

A 14-year-old Waterford Township girl won the military strut division and finished second in three other divisions in the World Twirling Association's World's Most Beautiful Major-ette Contest held recently at Atlantic City, N.J.

Sue Lynn Robinson, a ninth School, was runner-up in the twirl division fancy strut and the queen division in which she modeled a party dress and military uniform.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson of 7463 N. Shaker, Sue Lynn was sponsored by Hi-Mill Manufacturing of Highland Township.

So Earl Can Remarry

Change in Royal Law Urged

LONDON (AP)—Three London newspapers today urged Parliament to repeal George III's royal marriage law so Queen Elizabeth II won't have to decide whether her first cousin can marry the mother of his illegitimate son.

The Royal Marriages Act of 1772 was denounced on all sides as a museum piece of royal spite. It was brought to public attention again by the Earl of Harewood's announcement Monday that he is being divorced for adultery and wants to marry a former model who bore him a son 2½ years ago.

The 43-year-old earl is 18th in line of succession to the throne.

His 40-year-old wife is expected to bring her divorce petition before the courts next month.

Under the ancient act, all members of the royal family descended from George II must have the monarch's permission to wed. This means that, technically at least, Harewood must seek the queen's consent before marrying Patricia Tuckwell, a 39-year-old divorcee from Australia.

As head of the Church of England, which opposes the remarriage of anyone whose partner is living, the queen would face clerical pressure to refuse her consent.

The Conservative Daily Mail, the Laborite Sun and the Evening Standard, a Beaverbrook newspaper which takes an independent line, all urged repeal of the act as did Cyril Hankinson, former editor of De-Brett's Peerage.

Calling the act a "frowsty piece of legislation pushed through Parliament by George III," Hankinson said the king who later went mad after England lost her American colonies "was furious at secret marriages made by his brothers, the dukes of Cumberland and Gloucester, to commoners."

January Food Is Change From Holidays

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Stale remnants of Christmas cookies are ready to be put in the bird feeder.

There isn't any leftover holiday turkey to use up, because we were out of town.

We're ready for food that has no overtones of the recent holidays.

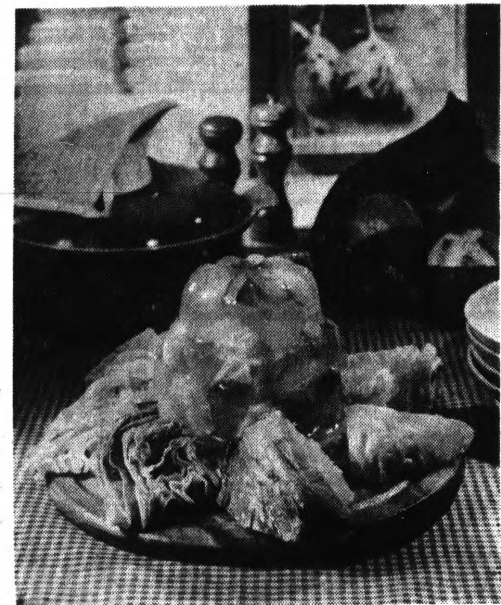

How about you?

Meatballs made of ground beef chuck go well with a medley of vegetables to make a hearty winter casserole.

MEATBALL-VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

2 lbs. ground beef chuck
1 egg
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons steak sauce
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1/4 cup water
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup dry white wine
1 can whole tomatoes (large)
6 carrots, pared and sliced
12 small white onions
6 medium potatoes, pared and sliced in half
1 tablespoon minced parsley

Mix together meat, egg, salt, pepper, steak sauce, crumbs and water. Shape into 12 balls, brown on all sides in shortening.

TROPICANA JELLIED SALAD

Transfer to casserole. Add remaining ingredients.

Cover and bake in 350 degree oven for 1 1/4 hours, or until vegetables are done. Serves about 6.

Lettuce is lower in price than it was a while back. At this time of year, the quality is excellent. Serve it plain with your family's favorite dressing or use it in an interesting jellied salad.

TROPICANA JELLIED SALAD

2 heads western iceberg lettuce
1 large California orange
Water
2 packages (3 oz. each) orange-pineapple gelatin
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon tarragon, crumbled
1 avocado

Core, rinse and drain lettuce; chill in disposable plastic bag. Pare and section orange, catching juice. Add water to make 1 cup.

Dissolve gelatin and salt in 2 cups boiling water, then stir in orange juice mixture, lemon juice and tarragon. Chill until mixture begins to thicken.

Meanwhile, slice 1 head lettuce crosswise then cut enough into bite-size chunks to yield 2 cups. Pare and halve avocado; discard seed and skin. Dice avocado to get about 1 1/2 cups. Cup up orange sections.

Fold lettuce chunks, avocado and orange pieces into gelatin mixture. Turn into 5 1/2-cup mold and chill until firm. To serve, unmold onto serving platter.

Cut other head of lettuce lengthwise to make 4 narrow wedges; halve wedges and arrange around mold. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Dessert is warm upside-down apple cake served with a delicate rum-flavored sauce. You'll have the oven going for your main course.

BOTTOMS-UP APPLE CAKE

2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups peeled thinly sliced cooking apples (2 medium)
2 cups sifted regular all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup (1 stick) butter, slightly softened
3/4 cup milk
1 egg, beaten

Rum Sauce:

1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup water
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
1 tablespoon rum extract
1/2 teaspoon salt

In a 9-inch square baking pan melt 2 tablespoons butter in oven; mix brown sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle over butter. Arrange apple slices in rows in bottom of pan.

Into a large mixing bowl

BOTTOMS-UP APPLE CAKE

Glaze may be substituted for the Rum Sauce. Omit cinnamon in cake recipe. To prepare Glaze: Spread 1 cup dairy sour cream over warm cake; sprinkle 2 tablespoons light brown sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon over sour cream.

Place under broiler 2-3 minutes until sour cream is glazed and sugar begins to bubble. Serve immediately.

Put Diced Turkey in Macaroni Salad

One cup of diced, cooked turkey is enough for a macaroni salad that makes 6 servings.

Combine 2 cups of cold, cooked elbow macaroni with 2 tablespoons each of salad oil and instant minced onion, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1/2 teaspoon of ground black pepper, 1 tablespoon of cider vinegar and 1/2 teaspoon of ground sage.

Toss lightly to blend. Cover and refrigerate for 2 or 3 hours.

Just before serving, add the cup of diced cooked turkey, 1/2 cup of chopped stuffed olives, 2 tablespoons of chopped pimiento, 2 hard-cooked eggs, diced, and 1/2 cup of mayonnaise. Toss well.

Serve on bed of lettuce with tomato wedges for garnish.

Tri-Color Lamp

For a new look spritz cookie divide the dough in three parts — color with three different colors. Form each color into a roll and fit side by side into cookie press.

Commission Adopts $1.8-Million Sewer Bond Ordinance

A sewer bond ordinance, calling for $1.8 million in revenue bonds to finance two major trunk sewers, was adopted last night by the City Commission.

The proposed sewers are the $1.1-million Galloway Creek line and a $700,000 trunk sewer from the treatment plant south to Square Lake Road.

Last night's action by the commission will permit city officials to make application to the State Municipal Finance Commission for the latter's approval to issue the bonds.

The ordinance was passed unanimously with Commissioner Wesley J. Wood absent due to illness.

In other action, the commission tabled for two weeks a motion to have Pontiac municipal employees go under provisions

OPINION-SPLIT

Although commission opinion was split on making the move, the matter was tabled to permit further study.

The reciprocal system permits municipal employees to transfer to other units of government under the same plan and retain their pension rights with the city.

The matter is being considered now, according to city officials, because of the pending transfer of Pontiac Municipal pal Airport to Oakland County. Seven employees — five on pension plans — are to go along with the switch in airport ownership.

The commission also officially received a deed to a lot on Crescent for future widening of that street. The deed was secured nearly 10 years but never officially received by the city.

A public hearing was held last night on necessity for constructing a sanitary sewer in Durant, Pershing to Inglewood. The special assessment roll is to be presented Jan. 10.

A hearing was held on assessments for a sanitary sewer in Durant from Pershing to 250 feet northwest.

Two reappointments and an appointment were made last night to the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee. Reappointed to three-year terms were Raymond Baumgras, 105 Dresden, and Melvin Boersma, 1286 Locke. They represented District 4 and 5, respectively.

Appointed to a two-year term on the citizens' committee was Henry Hardy of 57 S. Merrimac, representing District 4. In related business, the commission received notice of new officers elected by the advisory committee, including Baumgras as chairman, Fred Beedle, 689 E. Pike, vice chairman, and Mrs. James Aldrich, 55 Mohawk, reelected secretary.

Viet War Produces New Slang, Like Beanies in the Boonies

SAIGON (AP) — The Green Beanies came out of the boonies last week for Bob Hope's show and the word for the Hollywood round eyes was "something else again."

Like all the rest of America's 20th-century wars, the Vietnam conflict is producing its own GI slang.

Foot soldiers who were doughboys in World War I and dogfaces in World War II are grunts or ground pounders in Vietnam.

The wild blue yonder types of 1941-45 and the jet jockeys of Korea are zoomies or Steve Canyons here.

Casualties are seldom killed; they are zapped, waxed, get their plows cleaned or get schnitzed. They may be dinged but rarely are wounded.

Atomic age troops in Vietnam prefer affirmatron or negatron to yes or no.

The American buildup in Vietnam began with retreat argot from previous wars. Boondocks described the bush or any obscure location. It later became boonies and now shows signs of reverting to World War II's tules.

Some twisting of the language grows out of boredom with repetition. A few GIs prefer balloon to platoon and corpse to corporal. Drinking water is referred to as potable, as in "give me a glass of potable."

crashes by the jet fighter-bomber earned it the title thud. The two-seat model is known as double thud.

The most widely used single phrase is still "sorry 'bout that." Heard here for almost two years, it is stenciled on caps and shirts, used as explanation or apology and is the title of a book of war humor.

Custom Autos Await Display

DETROIT — The 15th annual International Autorama, world's biggest custom car show, will be held in Cobo Hall for three days starting Friday, Jan. 20.

The annual show here attracts custom car builders from across the nation. They will bring their most imaginative creations here to contest for honors. Among the displays will be the Batmobile.

Custom, rod, motorcycle, antique, sports car, hand-built, classic, drag boat, pickup, go-kart, mini-bike and model car are the classifications and hundreds of futuristic show cars will be on display.

Some feature bubble tops, fur interiors, 40 coats of paint, tape recorders, TV sets, cars electronically operated and custom cars capable of 150 miles per hour.

10th Satellite Rings Saturn, Say Experts

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Astronomers have discovered a 10th satellite circling Saturn just outside the rings that are its trademark.

The satellite apparently is the closest to the planet and the rings, collections of particles that reflect light.

The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory, a clearing house for information about celestial discoveries, confirmed the discovery Tuesday night.

A spokesman said the satellite is between 100 and 200 miles in diameter, but not visible to the naked eye on earth.

SATURN'S RING

Saturn, about 71,500 miles in diameter, is some 886,700,000 miles from the earth. Its largest ring is 170,000 miles in diameter.

Dr. Audoin Dollfus of the Paris Observatory reported to the Smithsonian Tuesday that he had discovered the satellite Dec. 15, but confirmation was withheld until a second sighting was reported.

That came from R.L. Walker at the U.S. Naval Observatory in Flagstaff, Ariz., who said he spotted the satellite on a photographic plate taken Dec. 18.

PRE-TEST REHEARSAL—The Washington State Cougars will meet top-ranked UCLA and its 7-1 sophomore sensation Lew Alcindor Saturday in a Pacific 8 Conference clash. Coach Marv Harshman is acclimating the Cougars' defense (left) by putting 6-6

Dick Watters on a stool in front of 6-9½ Jim McKean, and on offense (right) they have to shoot over 6-7 Dick Jacobs who has the added advantage of a paddle to use in blocking the field goal tries.

Blue Devils Win With Subs

By the Associated Press

"A position of leadership," said Vic Bubas, Duke's basketball coach, "is a lonely one and I have been lonely for the last couple of days."

Bubas got lonelier later. That was after he had temporarily suspended nine players including four starters for training violations and left himself with only seven players — two on the bench and five on the floor — for Tuesday night's game against Penn State at Durham, N. C.

Bubas would give no details on the suspensions, which hit starters Mike Lewis, Bob Reidy, Dave Golden and Tim Kolodziej and reserves Tony Barone, Warren Chapman, Ron Wendell, Jim Liccardo and Joe Kennedy.

The coach would say only, "it is a privilege, not a right to play college basketball."

Fred Lind, C.B. Claiborne, Steve Vandenberg and Stu McKaig joined Verga in Duke's starting line-up. Lind and Claiborne never had scored a point before for Duke but produced 22 between them with Claiborne getting 13.

NEVER PLAYED

Vandenberg, who had been averaging 3.4 points per game, led the subs-turned-starters with 16 points. McKaig scored eight. Bob Francis, who had never played a varsity minute for Duke before, came off the sparsely populated bench and scored five points.

Duke built a lead as wide as 18 points, shot 48 per cent from the floor, had a 61-34 rebound edge and dominated play. Jeff Persson led Penn State with 27.

Louisville, ranked second in The Associated Press' Top Ten, overcame a strong individual performance by Tulsa's Eldridge Webb and beat the Hurricanes 76-62 in a Missouri Valley Conference game refereed by high school officials.

The regular MVC officials failed to show up for the game, which had been rescheduled from Jan. 7. "It was just the breaks," said Tulsa Coach Joe Swank. "Of course I'm not very happy."

Tulane set a school scoring record and New York University's hot-shooting Mal Graham established an individual mark in other games.

HOT SHOOTING

Tulane shot 66 per cent from the floor and ripped Yale 118-106 with Al Andrews pumping in 34 points. The 118 points was two more than the school record set against Northwestern earlier this season.

Graham, a 6-foot-1 guard, poured in 48 points, one more than the school mark he set last year, as NYU walloped Wagner 100-74.

Charles Beasley, who finished with 30 points, dropped in a 20-footer with two seconds left in overtime, lifting Southern Methodist to an 85-83 victory over Baylor.

In a doubleheader at Philadelphia's Palestra, Catholic University surprised St. Joseph's of Philadelphia 76-72 and Temple downed Pennsylvania 74-66.

Shamrocks Pin 46-35 Setback on St. Fred '5'

Waterford Our Lady Roms; Holy Cross Downs St. Rose

By JERE CRAIG

St. Frederick and St. Michael played a double-overtime game in their first basketball meeting and Tuesday's return encounter was also a major struggle—to find their shooting eyes.

The Mikemen completed a two-game sweep of the regular season's meetings by tripping St. Fred, 46-35, to extend their winning streak to seven straight games.

The unbeaten Shamrocks moved the contest to the Pontiac Northern High School court, then had a frustrating time outdueling the Rams for the privilege of unlocking the "lids" on the hoops.

Waterford Our Lady of Lakes dumped Richmond St. Augustine, 52-36, and Marine City Holy Cross trimmed St. Rose, 80-41, in the other Macomb Catholic League contests last night.

The opening quarter was particularly rough on St. Mike and St. Fred. It took two minutes before Al Peltier of St. Michael made the game's initial basket.

The Rams forced a tie at 3-3 and it remained that way until their J. C. Bard hit a field goal with 45 seconds remaining in the opening period. Gary Roediger added a two-pointer for a 7-3 spread at the buzzer.

TAKE CHARGE

The taller Mikemen then asserted their rebounding superiority in the next two periods with burly center Bill French being particularly effective.

The 6-5 Mikeman pivotman grabbed 15 of his 25 rebounds and made 8 of 14 shots (during a 10-for-21 evening). He had streaks of seven straight points in both the second and third quarters.

Making a significant contribution, also, was reserve forward Tom Richards. He entered in the second quarter and played his best game of the season. His eight points (four-for-six shooting) helped St. Mike to an 18-17 halftime lead.

The lanky substitute finished with 11 points and 12 rebounds, and like French, did all his damage underneath the hoop.

St. Mike had a big backboard advantage at game's end and took 15 more field goal tries. Although both teams hit around (Continued on Page D-2, Col. 2)

Noted Driver Dies in Crash

CONISTON, England (AP) — Donald Campbell, Britain's most noted speedster on land and water, crashed to his death at 310 miles an hour today in an attempt to break his own world water speed record.

His jet hydroplane Bluebird leaped from the surface of Lake Coniston, exploded and sank. Frogmen were searching for his body hours later.

The 45-year-old Briton realized a life's dream in the last few seconds before he died. He had said he would quit when he topped 300 miles per hour.

His two-year-old record was 279.33 miles per hour.

Witnesses abandoned hope for Campbell almost as soon as they saw the crash.

Wreckage from the boat was strewn on the water. Campbell's oxygen mask and bits of his clothing were found floating.

He had completed one run along the measured course on Lake Coniston and was on the return run when the Bluebird crashed. He needed to complete the course both ways to set a record.

LAST WORDS

His last words by radio were: "I'm giving her full power. I can't see much. I'm going."

A great cloud of spray hid Bluebird's last agonizing moments. When it cleared, Bluebird and Campbell were gone.

There was little to be seen except hundreds of little plastic bags floating on the surface that had come from Bluebird's buoyancy tanks.

Campbell had set the land speed record of 403 miles per hour in June 1964 at Lake Eyre, Australia.

Campbell's land speed record stood for wheel-driven cars until Nov. 13, 1965, when Bill and Bob Summers of Ontario, Calif., broke it at 409 m.p.h. in their four-engine Goldenrod racer on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah.

While playing cards with friends on the eve of his record attempt he turned up the ace of spades followed by the queen of spades and remarked:

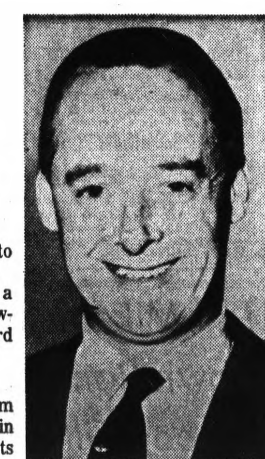

"Mary, Queen of Scots, turned up the same combination of cards and knew from it that she was going to be beheaded. I know that one of my family is going to get the cop. I pray to God it is not me."

Campbell appeared in a cheerful mood this morning, however, as he got set for his record attempt.

FAMOUS FATHER

He was the son of Sir Malcolm Campbell, who gained fame in the 1930s for his racing exploits on land and water. The younger Campbell took pride in being known as one of the "fanatical Campbells."

Packers' Poise Provides Big Edge---Wally Lemm

NEW YORK (AP) — Kansas City may have super personnel, but the outcome of pro football's world championship game very likely could depend on how superbly the Chiefs match the Green Bay Packers in poise.

That's the opinion of Wally Lemm, one of only three active head coaches who have served in both the American and National Leagues.

Lemm coached the Houston Oilers of the AFL in 1961, then left for the NFL and four years with the St. Louis Cardinals before returning to the Oilers this past season.

"Kansas City has fine personnel, which many consider the finest personnel in pro football," Lemm said Tuesday night in a telephone conversation from his home in suburban Chicago.

"But Green Bay has the savvy — just like the old New York Yankees. They have that championship game experience. That's a definite advantage. If there's any real difference, that's it."

CAN LOSE

"A team like Green Bay isn't going to make many errors, and they're not going to choke up. When a team doesn't have that experience, like Kansas City, let something go wrong and they can lose their poise and have trouble."

The Packers, who meet the Chiefs in Los Angeles Jan. 15 in the first meeting between the two leagues, have won four NFL titles in the past six years and have played in five title games in the past seven seasons.

The Chiefs, on the other hand, have only two championship games on their side, both of which they won.

Aside from those facts, Lemm doesn't see much difference between the Super Bowl teams.

North Works on Air Attack; South Silent

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — South Coach Otto Graham is being closedmouthed about his plans for Saturday's 18th annual Senior Bowl football classic as North Coach Norm Van Brocklin asserts his team will play a passing game.

Graham, of the Washington Redskins, didn't verbally indicate what his strategy would be, but Tuesday's workout preparation appeared to be both in the air and on the ground.

Van Brocklin, of the Minnesota Vikings, said his squad "will definitely play a passing game" against the South.

One Senior Bowl official termed the North's practice as "one of the hardest workouts in at least 10 years here." The South squad worked on passing and running while emphasizing the old-fashioned draw up the middle.

Sidelined for the practice was Alabama's All-America end Ray Perkins who has signed a contract with the Baltimore Colts after catching nine passes for 159 yards against Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl.

Struggling Wings Look Ahead

DETROIT (UPD)—The National Hockey League season is almost half over for the Detroit Red Wings and until four days ago the Wings were the farthest team in the league from the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Chicago invades Olympia Stadium tomorrow night.

The Wings, last year's Stanley Cup runnerup, dawdled away 30 games of a 70 game schedule before they escaped the NHL cellar, nosing their way up to fifth place with back-to-back wins over Boston and Montreal during the past New Year's weekend.

"The weekend has done a lot to help us," General Manager Coach Sid Abel said. "But we know we're not out of the woods yet. It's a long fight yet and we've got to tie something together."

But one fact can't be denied. There are two new faces in the Wings lineup who are adding punch to the attack.

And the presence of the new faces is allowing the old reliable Norm Ullman, Gordie Howe and Alex Delvecchio to play with a little less pressure on them.

The two are Paul Henderson, a young 22-goal leftwinger last year, who missed half of the first 30 games this season with a bronchial infection, and Howie Young, the one time roughneck terror of the league, who is showing Abel's faith in him wasn't just a pipe dream.

"With Henderson back we're a lot stronger," Abel said. "And with Young playing as well as he has he's helping us."

"He (Young) can shoot real well and he can pass the puck. He's just rough enough to make it interesting and he's minding his business," Abel said, in reference to Young's new-found self-discipline both on and off the ice.

Henderson, playing his first two games since returning from an Arizona vacation which baked the infection out of his chest, and Young were the difference in the wins over the weekend.

But the Wings must still prove they can play on the road.

So far they have only one point outside of their own ice. That was a 4-4 tie with Boston. They have lost 15 games on the road.

Nine of the next 14 games will be played in Detroit before playing 14 of their last 24 games on the road.

Cold Oxford Bows to Flint St. Michael

Everybody has an off night now and then and Oxford coach Lee Nofz is hoping that's what happened when the Wildcats traveled to Flint St. Michael last night.

The team can't afford many nights like that one.

St. Michael welcomed the Cats like long lost cousins and mauled them, 74-36, leaving Oxford with a 3-2 mark for the season.

A tight man-to-man press and aggressive rebounding, coupled with numerous Oxford mistakes, made it an easy victory for St. Michael.

The Wildcats led briefly in the first period, 4-3, but trailed after one period, 17-14, and 36-26 at halftime.

TEAM COOLS

Oxford scored only one field goal in the second half and only 10 points.

With the Wildcats unable to hit, St. Michael posted a 22-4 advantage in the third stanza and closed with a 16-6 edge in the final period.

Oxford's 6-4 center Roger Miller collected 16 points, his second lowest total of the season, and he picked up eight of those in the first quarter.

Tom Hresko led a balanced Warrior team with 17 points. Steve Manville tossed in 16 and Charles Haux and Mike Milito added 10 apiece.

Flint '5' Hands Imlay's Spartans First Loss, 77-69

Imlay City's unbeaten record was marred Tuesday night when Flint Holy Rosary outlasted the Spartans, 77-69.

The visiting Imlay quintet stayed right with Holy Rosary until personal foul trouble cost it most of its rebounding strength late in the game. The score was 59-58 for Holy Rosary after three quarters.

John Donovan's 15 points paced the losers (4-1) who had three other players also in twin figures. Holy Rosary had a four-point advantage in both field goals and free throws.

Packers Post Cage Victory

Amigos Take Forfeit Win as Loop Opens

The Packers' fast start easily overcame Local 653 last night as they opened the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's National League men's basketball race.

Ken Carpenter hit 20 points and Cecil Jones 15 to lead the winners who had 10 players hit the scoring column. Jones had 11 of his points in the winners' 38-20 first-half spree.

Dale Craft and John Schapman each notched 18 for Local 653 but didn't have the supporting cast boasted by the Packers.

The other scheduled game was a 2-0 forfeit victory for the Amigos' Club over the Unbeatable.

Another National League twin-bill is slated for Lincoln JHS tonight, and Waterford Township's Class A men's league begins play at Mason JHS.

WATERY START—Action opened yesterday in the first of 53 days of racing at Bowie race track in Bowie, Md., and this was the scene as the first race got under way. It was a wet day for horses and jockeys. Blue's Trouble, wading out in front at right, splashed home first with Oswaldo Rosado in the saddle.

Big Boost in 1966 for County Facilities

By DON VOGEL

The Conservation Department is pointing toward coho salmon fishing and water pollution abatement measures as the big stories of 1966, but some little publicized moves gave a big boost to outdoor recreation in Oakland County.

The parks division finally has aimed its major programs toward improving existing facilities and acquiring additional lands in Southern Michigan.

It took the parks people in Lansing a long time to recognize that the bulk of the outdoor activity in Michigan takes place near where most of the people live — namely Southeastern Michigan.

A major assist came from Rep. Arthur Law who was responsible for initiating and guiding several key appropriation bills, aimed at improvements in Oakland County recreation areas, through the legislature.

Former Sen. Carl O'Brien's investigation of the parks also helped.

County lakes used to be shunted to the background when it came time to parcel out money and man hours for improving the fishing. This came to an end when the Pontiac Lake district office was opened two years ago and major strides were made in 1966.

Several small lakes on state lands were treated to eliminate the existing population of fish and single species restocked — usually rainbows. However, single species bass and bluegill lakes were established, too.

If problems in financing can be worked out, the department fisheries people will move to larger lakes in the area this year with an eye to thinning out overpopulations of panfish.

HYBRID TROUT

Splake were stocked in Maceday last fall. This hybrid trout has proved successful in Cass. Other lakes will be checked to see if they are suitable for splake and possible tiger muskies.

Game habitat improvement work continued at a strong pace in the Holly and Ortonville recreation areas. The long overdue move into the Pontiac Lake and Highland areas will be made this year.

And these areas aren't being managed just for rabbits as some hunters seem to think because of the easily visible brush piles. Lands are being managed with plantings and cover toward improving pheasant, grouse, squirrel, waterfowl and fur bearing animal habitat.

Although new officers were assigned to the district last year, this is one phase where the department continues weak on a statewide basis.

The problem is made even greater in Southeastern Michigan because the large population means high incidents of violations and nuisance complaints.

Officers sometimes spend more time getting raccoons and squirrels out of attics and skunks from under porches than they do in enforcing hunting and fishing laws.

FEEDING FOWL

One problem area where the department is losing ground and probably will continue to suffer a setback, revolves around the feeding of waterfowl.

The department is trying to educate people to the fact that wild ducks and geese aren't going to starve regardless of the weather. Geese, particularly, have a habit of becoming semitame while being fed with the result they are easy prey for hunters when the season rolls around.

Hard feelings between hunters.

Ice Fishing Goes Thud; Rabbit Hunters Connect

Ice fishing in the Oakland County area started the New Year with a thud.

Unstable ice conditions continue to keep anglers off many lakes and those waters with safe ice have been generally unproductive.

Even Kent Lake, normally an old standby, hasn't been producing its usual high catches of bluegills and crappies. Panfishing is very slow.

Pike, however, have been active on some lakes. Fair catches are reported at Orion, Tan, Pontiac and White lakes.

For the second straight weekend perch fishermen were out in large numbers at Anchor Bay, but failed to come up with any good catches.

Saginaw Bay in the Sebawaing and Bay Port areas continues good for perch.

Rabbit and fox hunters had good success Sunday and Monday, but the grouse season ended Saturday on the down side. Trappers report that the price on muskrat and fox furs continued to decline, although mink pelts are up slightly.

TOP STORIES — The successful run of coho salmon and the resurgence of steelheads (top left) highlighted the conservation program in Michigan last year. Buoyed by the apparent success of cohos, the Conservation Department is introducing king salmon and modernizing hatcheries (upper right) to handle the new species. The water pollution fight is being carried to the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair and could mean cleaner beaches (lower left). The pulpwood industry had another good year.

TV Husband Over-Used

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—After three consecutive days of televised college and professional football bowl games, this want ad appeared in Tuesday's issue of the Nashville Tennessean:

"Husband and TV set. Cheap for quick sale."

PKC Deadline Is Jan. 10

The deadline for entering the Pontiac Kennel Club's all-breed dog show will be Tuesday, Jan. 10, at noon.

Scheduled for Jan. 22 at the CAI Building in Waterford Township, the show is expected to draw 600 entries. The Pontiac Press will award the best-in-show trophy.

Entries can be submitted to the Bow Dog Show Organization, 9999 Broad Street, Detroit, 48204. There is a 650-entry cutoff.

There will be no obedience because of space limitation. Two other dog events have been scheduled during the next two weeks.

SHOOTING DOG

Sponsored by the National German shorthaired pointer Club of Michigan, the trial will get under way at 9 a.m. and feature gunning on pheasants.

The third annual unusual dogs of the world exhibit will be Jan. 12-14 at Northland.

Three Pontiac residents will participate.

Miss Marcia Stolze will show vislas; Mrs. John Pearson, Afghan hounds and Yorkshire terriers; and Tom Rutherford, American water spaniels.

Although the wild turkey is able to fly, it prefers to escape pursuit by running.

Fish Division Names Jacob Planning Chief

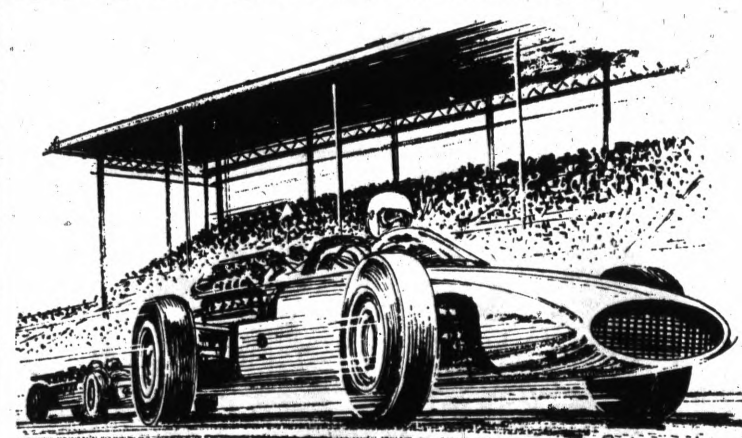

The Department of Conservation has named Buddy Jacob to plan and supervise Michigan's stepped up warm water fisheries program designed to improve inland lake fishing.

Jacob, the department's district fish biologist at Mio since 1959, will assume the new position Jan. 9.

The position he will fill, a department spokesman said, gives balance to the three major arms of the fish division's species management section which also supervises Great Lakes and commercial fishing.

Fisheries Chief Wayne H. Tody said Jacob will be responsible for determining needed changes in fishing regulations, hatchery production, pike and marsh projects, lake improvement priorities, and bluegill control.

Teen Dies as Car Buried by Steel

MONROE (AP) — James P. Patton, 18, of Grand Blanc was killed Tuesday when the car he was driving collided with a tractor-trailer truck southwest of Monroe and the truck's 6,000-pound load of strip steel shifted and crushed the car.

John M. Snyder, 16, of Flint and Michael Arnold, 16, of Grand Blanc were trapped for more than an hour in the car wreckage with Patton's body, but neither apparently was injured seriously.

Killing 'Justified'

DETROIT (AP) — The chief assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Tuesday ruled that a deputy sheriff's slaying of an intruder who broke into his home was justifiable homicide. The deputy, George Merriweather, 31, shot Booker R. Mitchell, 43, as Mitchell was fleeing from Merriweather's home last Friday.

Lawsuit Faced by Waterford

Former Policeman Demands Job Back

A Waterford Township policeman who was fired in November for refusing to sweep floors filed a suit yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court asking for reinstatement.

The suit was started by Ronald Freeman, a patrolman with seven years on the department.

Freeman is requesting the court to order the township board to give him back his job and to pay him back wages.

A hearing is scheduled for 9 a.m. Jan. 23 before Judge William J. Beer.

Freeman contends that the procedure followed by the township officials in discharging him was improper.

STATE STATUTE

A veteran of World War II, Freeman says that the charge of insubordination for which he was discharged is not proper grounds for the dismissal of a veteran under a state statute.

He was fired Nov. 10, three days after disobeying an order to clean the police station floor.

The dismissal was ruled justified by the township Civil Service Commission last month and several days later by the township board.

Woman Held Without Bond in Slaying

A Detroit woman is held without bond at the Oakland County Jail following her arraignment yesterday in the fatal shooting of a Pontiac bar owner.

Mrs. Margaret Overton, 39, a former city resident, demanded examination at her appearance before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

McCallum set hearing on the charge of first degree murder for Jan. 10.

Mrs. Overton was taken into custody by Pontiac police detectives late yesterday after being arrested by Detroit police at her home Monday.

Foster, owner of Foster's Bar at 335 Wessen, was found early Sunday, shot once in the chest with a 22-caliber pistol.

Witnesses told investigators they saw Mrs. Overton flee Foster's apartment at 379 S. Paddock following an argument between the two.

Former Head of Rubber Union Is Dead at 72

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP) — Leland S. Buckmaster, 72, former international president of the United Rubber Workers Union, died Tuesday in Henderson where he had been visiting his two sons, Buckmaster, of Largo, Fla., served as president of the union with headquarters in Akron, Ohio, from 1945 to 1960.

Buckmaster, who had suffered from cancer in recent years, was active in organizing the union in the 1930s.

Hanoi Officially Rejects Britain's Peace Proposal

TOKYO (AP) — North Vietnam's Foreign Ministry today officially rejected the British proposal for talks to stop the fighting in Vietnam today as a new appeal from London was on its way to Hanoi.

The British call for the U.S. and North and South Vietnamese governments to meet at once had been accepted by the United States and South Vietnam. North Vietnam denounced it as "an impermissible vicious act."

In an official statement, a North Vietnamese Foreign Ministry spokesman called the British proposal "an act full of malicious intention aimed at serving the dark designs of the U.S. aggressors."

Despite earlier rebuffs from official Hanoi newspapers, the British Foreign Office appealed

Classes Start March 6

OCC Police Academy to Begin

The first class for the newly established Oakland Police Academy of Oakland Community College will begin March 6 at the college's Auburn Hills Campus in Pontiac Township.

Upwards of 50 police officers representing 18 communities are expected to enroll in the six-week program which offers six hours of college credit.

Agencies who are cooperating with personnel of the academy include the Michigan State Police, Secretary of State, Liquor Control Commission, Michigan Department of Education and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The establishment of the academy for the training of county law enforcement officers stems from a recommendation made by a committee appointed by the County Board of Supervisors Sept. 16, 1965, to study law enforcement problems in the county.

Royal Oak attorney John B. Osgood was chairman of that committee and members were attorneys John S. Slavens and Robert A. Frye, Ralph Moxley, Birmingham police chief; William Hanger, Pontiac police chief, Sheriff Frank W. Irons and Prosecuting Attorney S. Jerome Bronson.

TOOK POSITION

Slavens later assumed the chairmanship of the committee when Osgood resigned to accept a position as a member of the County Board of Auditors.

After several meetings with law enforcement officers, it became apparent to the committee that if long-range training was to be made available to members of municipal police agencies additional training facilities would be needed.

Last August Slavens, Hanger, Moxley and Frye met with representatives of Oakland Community College to discuss the possibility of a training program at the college.

Confident that the police science program being conducted by associate professor Eugene M. Freeman was of the caliber needed and that the college could provide the necessary facilities, it was the decision of the committee to establish the academy at OCC.

A curriculum committee, chaired by Hanger, met with Freeman to draft a curriculum and help provide instructors for the academy.

The six-week session will consist of a five-day, 40-hour week and will deal primarily with fundamentals of police operations and principles and applications of criminal law. It will also include other police and related subjects.

This basic police training program is designed to provide new police officers with a firm understanding of the application of sound law enforcement practices.

According to Moxley, the committee hopes to expand the program in the future to offer intensified training in courses of one or two weeks duration covering such topics as police supervision, crime investigation, police administration, accident investigation, riot control and in-service training.

AREA OFFICERS

Expected to enroll in the March 6 course are police personnel from Pontiac, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Farmington, Farmington Township, Huntington Woods, Keego Harbor, Madison Heights, Milford, Oak Park and Pleasant Ridge.

Others are personnel from Rochester, Royal Oak, Royal Oak Township, Southfield, Troy, Waterford Township and the Kensington Park Rangers.

Plans are under way for a second course of study to begin in October, Freeman said.

Local Shooting Victim Showing Improvement

The condition of a Pontiac woman shot in the stomach early Saturday has improved to a satisfactory according to a spokesman at Pontiac General Hospital.

Mrs. Luther Henderson, 39, of 55 Cottage was originally listed in serious condition after she was assaulted on the front porch of her home.

Pontiac police jailed two men following the shooting, but charges against the pair are still pending, according to investigators.

Randolph Hammond, 58, of 430 Irwin; and Gerald D. Williams, 27, of 263 1/2 Franklin Road remain in police custody.

Site Suitable for Land-Fill ---Planners

The Waterford Township Planning Commission last night submitted a favorable recommendation to the Township Board regarding a proposed sanitary land-fill operation west of Maceady Lake Road near the White Lake Township line.

The commission decided the location is suitable for a land-fill operation.

Donald Freeman, president of the Waterford Processing and Reclaiming Co., has asked the township to issue him a permit to open the land-fill operation on a 50-acre site behind Ward's Gravel Pit.

The Township Board will hold a public hearing on Freeman's request at its Jan. 30 meeting.

Last night, Freeman, his engineers and county health department officials answered questions asked by planning commission members.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, the planners discussed plans for their Jan. 22-28 program at Pontiac Mall.

To be exhibited are several graphic displays and reports reflecting the township's comprehensive development plan which encompasses the future through 1980.

Planning Director Vernon Wiggins said three films have been obtained and will be shown on the mall's concourse when the program is staged.

A representative of the planning department will be on hand to answer questions between the hours of 10 a.m. and 9 p.m. each day.

City Youth Pleads Guilty to Charge

Facing a charge of armed robbery, a Pontiac youth yesterday was allowed to plead guilty to a reduced charge of falsely obtaining credit.

Charles Threkeid, 19, of 10 Utah is scheduled to be sentenced Jan. 18. He entered the plea to the lesser charge before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

Threkeid, previously held in the Oakland County Jail in $5,000 bond, was ordered released pending his sentencing.

TV Camera to Hunt Vessel

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A team of underwater specialists will send a television camera to the bottom of icy Lake Huron in a few days, hoping to confirm the final resting place of the ore carrier Daniel J. Morrell.

The Morrell broke in two and sank Nov. 29 at the peak of the season's worst storm. Twenty-eight seamen lost their lives.

The U.S. Coast Guard investigation into the sinking will resume at 9 a.m. Tuesday with testimony from a former master of the Morrell, William L. Hull. The search also may get underway Thursday.

The underwater specialists, from Ocean Systems, Inc., of Arlington, Va., were en route to Port Huron, Mich., today. The team began shipping an underwater television camera and a video tape recorder Tuesday from a Detroit airport to Port Huron. The video recorder will tape what the camera sees.

Ocean Systems, Inc., was the prime contractor in the successful search last year for a U.S. hydrogen bomb lost off the coast of Spain.

The firm is positive its cameras can find the remains of the Morrell.

Thieves Busy in Bloomfield Twp. Lately

Thieves have been busy in Bloomfield Township lately.

In a two-day period they broke into four homes and stole valuables totaling more than $6,300.

More than $5,000 worth of jewelry was taken from the home of Vincent Van Fleet, 1019 N. Cranbrook, between 7 p.m. Saturday and 2:25 a.m. Sunday.

About 12:40 a.m. the same day, $1,000 worth of coins, watches, records, a radio and a television were taken from the home of Gordon James, 5770 Snowshoe Circle.

Sunday evening, radios, a tape recorder and a television worth a total of $300 were stolen from the home of Arvin Webster, 7200 Parkhurst.

An undetermined amount of furs, cameras, money and sterling silver was stolen about 5 p.m. Monday from the home of Sam Carman, 1650 Lone Pine.

Woman's Purse Grabbed in City

Three teen-age youths stole a Pontiac woman's purse yesterday and made off with $280 in cash, it was reported to city police.

Mrs. Margaret Erickson of 161 Summit told police she was in the parking lot of a grocery store on Glenwood when the youths grabbed the purse from her shopping basket and fled on foot.

In Memoriam

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY HUSBAND, PHILIP ENGLEMAN, who passed away January 3, 1966. Sadly missed by wife Helen, sons and daughters.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. CHARLES Simpson who passed away 8 years ago Jan. 6.

As dear she was to us in life. So in death she will always be. A hope and inspiration.

To come closer God to thee. Sadly missed by daughter, Mrs. George Killen and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF RUDOLPH M. OLSON, who passed away January 4, 1964. Sadly missed by wife Mae and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY daughter, Kimberly Lynn Conway, who passed away Jan. 3, 1965.

It broke our hearts to lose you, But you did not go alone. For part of us went with you. The day God called you home.

Sadly missed by mother, brothers and sisters, and family.

BOB HOPE THEATER, 9:00 p.m. (4) "Code Name: Heracitus." Part I of a two-part thriller in which a man is returned from the dead and "rebuilt" as an espionage agent, devoid of memory, conscience or emotion. Leslie Nielsen, Sheree North, Signe Hasso, Kurt Kasznar featured.

MUSIC CANADA, 9:30 p.m. (9) "A Ceremony of Joy" — The Toronto Symphony performs Beethoven's Ninth Symphony under the direction of Seiji Ozawa.

I SPY, 10:00 p.m. (4) Scott's fondness for a young and lovely revolutionary is used by a Communist leader as a wedge to split the friendship between Scott and Kelly. Leslie Uggans plays a straight dramatic role. David Opatoshu is featured.

ABC STAGE 67, 10:00 p.m. (7) "The Trap of Solid Gold" depicts the nightmarish plight of a young couple on the road to success who have played the status game to the brink of bankruptcy.

Occult Look at 1967 Taken by Our Seer Without Peer

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Here we go with our fearless forecasts for 1967... George Hamilton & Lynda Bird won't get married in '67, nor will Ann-Margret and Roger Smith (both couples could even break up), nor will Jackie Kennedy... But comedian Joe E. Lewis, who will work again, might possibly trip to the altar with Lynn Palmer whom he gave a big gold ring for Christmas.

Jane Fonda, who's naked about 1/4 of the time in "The Game Is Over," will establish herself as the nudest U.S. actress... A top entertainer who has four or five bodyguards will worry himself sick about being messed up by parties he owes $250,000... Cary Grant will be telling old friends he'd see them more often, "but I don't want to leave my lovely baby and my darling wife."

Paula Prentiss' husband Benjamin will be acclaimed for his stage role in the "Star Spangled Girl." Paula will be equally acclaimed for her décolletage... The football Giants may win as many as two games, the Mets'll be the Mets, and the '67 sports hero could be Lew Alcindor, U.C.L.A.'s basketball star.

Eddie Fisher will prove he's serious about still being married to Liz Taylor by swearing it's true in a deposition or at a hearing. (So how can he be thinking of marrying Connie Stevens right now, as we keep hearing?)... Melina Mercouri'll be the Angela Lansbury of '67 in "Ilya, Darling" which'll make Orson Bean a star. Florence Henderson'll work cafes and become a big night owl money-maker.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

Bearded Maestro Colin Romoff married beautiful Peggy Connolly, ex-wife of Comedian Dick Martin... Joey Heatherton, appearing in Viet Nam with Bob Hope, was booked — via long distance phone — for a Dean Martin TV'er... Barbara Streisand's husband Elliott Gould will star on Broadway in Alex Cohen's "Little Murders"... Sybil Burton Christopher OK'd an Arthur duplicate for Chicago (with others to follow elsewhere)... Mike Nichols, last year's Cue Award winner, will fly in to present it to '66 winner Barbara Harris.

Paul Anka asked songwriter Sammy Cahn to see him off to Puerto Rico — then "shanghaied" him at the airport and took him along... Warren Beatty will produce and star in a film called simply "Hair"... Nancy Sinatra'll write a book titled "My Father"... Ursula Andress invested in a Swiss beauty parlor — for men.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Heavyweight comic Jackie Vernon figures some guy could get rich inventing a scale that takes off five pounds for good intentions.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The average fellow keeps squawking that his girls wears too much make-up — till the day he sees her without any.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "A college education is one of the few things a person is willing to pay for and not get." — William Lowe Bryan.

EARL'S PEARLS: Yesterday's nest egg can barely buy today's birdhouse.

Sammy Davis Jr. told a jam-packed Copa audience, "I've done three command performances in London — and have yet to be invited to the ranch!" That's earl, brother.

Marine Corps Recalls Actor Glenn Ford

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actor Glenn Ford, a commander in the U.S. Navy Reserve, has been called to active duty with the Marines and will leave Thursday for a special assignment in Vietnam.

A Marine Corps spokesman would not divulge the nature of Ford's assignment, but said it would last "approximately 30 days."

He said Ford would report to the commanding general, 3rd Amphibious Force, Vietnam. The 50-year-old actor took the assignment voluntarily, he added, and would be able to tour Vietnam on a flexible schedule and visit any area he chooses.

Ford, who was married to actress Kathryn Hays, 32, last March, enlisted in the Marine Corps on Dec. 13, 1942.

First 1967 Infants Near-Neighbors

DETROIT (AP) — Two couples who live on the same street and less than a mile apart on Detroit's North Side shared honors in the city's 1967 New Year's baby derby.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Loberg at 12:01 a.m. and the first twins of the year were born to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Earl shortly after 7 a.m.

Onetime Boy Wonder Returns

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Five years ago Darryl F. Zanuck was producing movies as an independent in Europe, and 20th Century-Fox, the company he had fashioned into a giant, was tottering. Today Zanuck is the No. 1 man at Fox, and Fox is the biggest grossing studio.

By BOB THOMAS
 AP Movie-Television Writer
 NEW YORK — The jackals of Hollywood, ever ready to pounce upon a fallen lion, were saying in 1962 that Darryl F. Zanuck was washed up.

The onetime boy wonder from Wahoo, Neb., they said, was more interested in wooing young European actresses and waging fortunes at chemin de fer than he was in making movies.

THOMAS
 at chemin de fer than he was in making movies.

"Zanuck is finished," said executives and agents who had sought his favor when he was one of the half-dozen most powerful men in the film industry. They pointed out that Zanuck's five films as an independent producer had run a deficit of $4 million.

The critics reckoned without the driving force that had elevated Zanuck from a script writer for Rin-Tin-Tin to studio boss. His energies revived, he abandoned independent production, returned to 20th Century-Fox, and in four years drove it from the edge of bankruptcy to the top grossing film company in the world.

PROVIDED SOLVENCY

One movie alone — "The Sound of Music" — could have provided solvency that other studios would envy. But under Zanuck's presidency, 20th Century-Fox produced a string of winning films and the most successful television operation in Hollywood, including such a series as "Peyton Place" and "Batman."

The fall and rise of Darryl Francis Zanuck dates from 1957, when he shocked the film world by stepping down as production chief of 20th Century-Fox. Movie moguls relinquish power only by dying or being deposed. No one could figure why Zanuck would voluntarily abandon control of the domain he had ruled.

DARRYL F. ZANUCK

imperiously for the 20 years after he had merged his tiny 20th Century Co. with the giant, ailing Fox. A wiry, nervous man with a brush mustache, he established his foot-long cigars and polo mallets as trademarks on the Hollywood scene.

"Darryl enjoyed power as much as any studio boss," says an intimate. "But he was 55, and he felt his life ebbing away. His marriage had gone sour, and he wanted the excitement of living in Europe. He also figured he could do a better job of making two or three handcrafted films a year instead of supervising 40."

That proved to be an error. Zanuck's independent films, some starring then girlfriend, Juliette Greco, were failures. An associate analyzed: "Darryl was like a great muralist who turned to painting miniatures."

REALIZED ERROR

Zanuck realized his error and began work on "The Longest Day," a panorama of D-Day at Normandy.

At the time, 20th Century-Fox was coming apart at the seams. Three production chiefs in four years had failed to combat the falling market. Ebullient, Greek-born Spyros Skouras presided as company chief in New York, but he was ailing, and his hold was unsure. Wall Street men on the board began assuming more power.

Stockholders were growing restive, and with good reason. Skouras had put most of the company's eggs into one basket: "Cleopatra." The Rome-made epic was spending money at a furious rate, and other 20th-Fox releases were performing dimly.

TIDAL WAVE

The tidal wave of red ink began in 1961: a deficit of $22,532,084. In 1962: $39,796,094.

In one year the company's stock plummeted from 55 to 15 points. Darryl Zanuck was profoundly affected; he and his family owned more than 100,000 shares, more than any other stockholder.

BROUGHT PRESSURE

Board members began bringing pressure for sweeping economies. One target was a film based on the best-seller about a sex survey, "The Chapman Report," to be produced in Hollywood for the Zanuck company by Richard Zanuck, Darryl's son. Ten days before the start of filming, a message was sent by a board member to the elder Zanuck: "We are canceling 'The Chapman Report.' If you want to sue, sue. But the production is canceled."

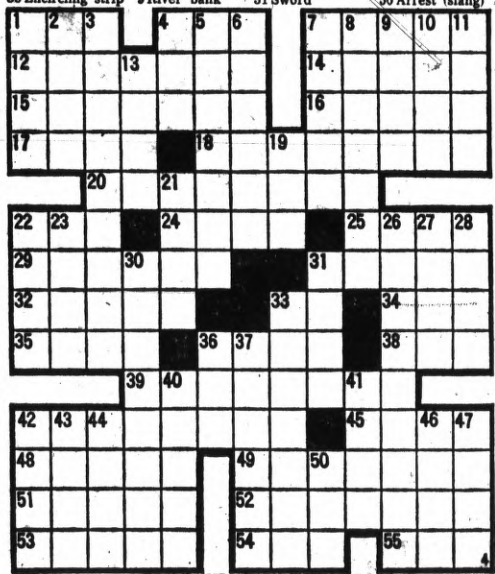

Darryl Zanuck considered this unnecessarily abrupt for a man who had devoted two decades of his life to building a bankrupt company into an enterprise worth $240 million. He began to think about returning to leadership.

Next: Zanuck decides to enter the fray.

Revise Your Photo Habits

By IRVING DESFOR
 AP Newsfeatures
 With the start of a new year, an opportunity to begin better photo habits presents itself to camera fans.

Like opening a new book of accounts, it's a logical time to start fresh, to keep things neat and orderly and to attend to photo details currently, like filing negatives and identifying slides and pictures, instead of letting them accumulate to "attend to later."

By itself, each new batch of picture taking isn't hard to deal with normally. First eliminate the faulty ones as you come across them... now!

This raises the caliber of your picture taking greatly and people never miss what they don't see.

Then sort the remainder in storytelling order, date and identify them for future reference, and put them in a place of their own. Prints belong in albums, slides in trays or magazines, movies on a larger reel and negatives should be filed in uniform envelopes in a file box.

PREVIOUS FORAYS

Success in dealing with current pictures might inspire you to tackle some of the accumulated results of previous photo forays.

Certainly, the sooner you try to make some headway with it, the better are your chances of remembering dates, names and events.

Another New Year resolution to make and live up to, is to follow through on picture promises. We all make promises to relatives, friends and our picture subjects to send them prints or duplicate slides... "later."

At the moment, our intentions are perfectly sincere. But with the passage of time, good intentions become diluted and tend to evaporate.

DUPLICATE PRINTS

One way to overcome this is to order duplicate prints or slides immediately on first seeing them... when your thought of sharing good pictures is strongest... and sometimes even before you promise prints.

If you get a batch of pictures from a camera store, follow your impulse and leave the negatives for duplicates then and there.

If you make prints in your own darkroom, make duplicates of the pictures you like while you're working on them. Both methods are a headstart to guarantee your good intentions will be followed through.
