Claims the Chief Cheated

State's Solons Racing Clock on Cash Proposal

House Kills Williams' Plan for Mortgaging Vets' Trust Fund

LANSING (AP) — Republican senators started a move today for a combination sales tax increase - borrowing plan as the House groped for a final answer to the state's emergency.

From Our News Wires

LANSING — One plan to solve Michigan's fiscal woes was dead, a new one came to life and a third was under consideration today as lawmakers raced the clock to put some solution on the April 6 ballot.

Action today was expected to center on House consideration of a plan to raise the state debt limit.

These were the major developments yesterday on Michigan's fiscal problems:

—The House voted overwhelmingly to kill Gov. G. Mennen Williams' plan to mortgage the Veterans' Trust Fund. Earlier in the day, Williams said the trust fund should be tapped only if all other plans fail.

—Action on a Democratic plan to raise the debt limit was stalled in the House pending study of further amendments.

—Senate Republicans unveiled a plan to tie a one-cent sales tax hike in with a two-year-, 200-million-dollar bond program.

Williams presented his annual economic message which outlined a broad program he said would help provide the state with a million new jobs by 1970.

But the Legislature was too busy with a critical problem of 1959 to pay much attention.

NO SURPRISES

Williams' annual economic message, which contained no surprises, was handed to the House late yesterday during a cash crisis debate. Senate Republicans were in caucus and told Williams' messenger to come back today.

The big questions as lawmakers met again today with time running short were: Will voters be asked April 6 to approve borrowing? If so, will the amount be 50 million dollars, 100 millions, or more—and under what terms?

Tides of Republican-Democratic conflict were running high as legislators retired last night after this sudden and bewildering rash of developments:

Probing Damage to Cables

AP Wirephoto

STOPPED THE RUSSIANS — This is the U. S. S. Roy O. Hale, U. S. Navy radar picket ship which put a boarding party on the Soviet fishing trawler Novorossisk near St. Johns, Newfoundland. The Pentagon said the Hale was investigating recent breaks in transatlantic cables.

Laid 1st Atlantic Cable in 1866

NEW YORK (AP)—The first permanent transatlantic cable was laid in 1886.

A promotion of Cyrus W. Field, it was taken over in 1882 by Western Union, which still operates it.

There now are about 21 cables on the floor of the Atlantic linking North America and Europe.

The cables leaving Newfoundland run along an ocean floor plateau that extends about 150 miles into the North Atlantic at a depth of 900 to 1,200 feet. In midocean the cables are as deep as two miles.

BRITAIN, FRANCE HAVE 3

Britain and France operate three cables. The others, run by three American firms, link New York with Ireland, England, Scotland, and France—either via Newfoundland or the Azores.

Sperm whales, dragging boat anchors, marine termites and corrosion were cited today as the most common cause of breaks in the transatlantic cables that link North America with Europe.

Lt. Cmdr. Ernest J. Korte, 42, captain of the Navy destroyer which put a boarding party on a Soviet trawler off Newfoundland, has been a Navy man for a quarter of a century. He entered the submarine service 25 years ago and switched to destroyers in 1957.

Soviet trawlers have been operating off the Atlantic Coast of Canada for at least four years under surveillance of American and Canadian ships and planes. There have been only occasional run-ins.

Last April the Soviets protested that U.S. planes had buzzed some of its fishing vessels in international waters off Nova Scotia.

In June there were reports from Washington that U.S. planes based in Newfoundland were watching the activities of Soviet trawlers on the Grand Banks.

A crewman from a Portuguese ship had been quoted earlier in Newfoundland as saying he saw six Soviet trawlers near Greenland leaving marker buoys and nets out but they "did not seem interested in fishing."

Unidentified submarines also have been spotted off both the U.S. and Canadian coasts, but outside territorial waters.

Note to Kremlin Held Up Until Navy Reports

Trawler Was Suspect in Ocean Cable Breaks, No Evidence Found

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department awaited a report from the Navy today before communicating with Moscow on the boarding and high seas search of a Soviet trawler by a U.S. Navy team.

In a surprise action, U.S. sailors briefly boarded the trawler in fishing waters off Newfoundland Thursday.

However, they apparently found nothing to link the vessel with recent breaks in transatlantic cables.

A spokesman said the State Department would communicate with the Soviet Union through diplomatic channels as soon as a full report is received.

After searching the trawler, the Navy team reported: "No indications of intentions other than fishing."

REPORT CAME FAST

The quick negative report, issued by the Navy here a few hours after the boarding was announced, lessened the potential impact of the incident on already touchy U.S.-Soviet relations.

There was no immediate indication how Moscow might react. Nations jealous of their sovereignty often resent the boarding of their ships by men of another nation.

The Soviet vessel is the trawler Novorossisk, with a crew of 54 men and women. The Navy reported the captain was friendly and cooperative.

The United States acted under an international agreement which the Defense Department said "authorizes investigations by naval ships of official documents of other ships suspected of damaging and interfering with cables under the high seas." Both the United States and the U.S.S.R. are signers of the agreement.

Hits Safety Awards Given to Pontiac

Eastman Says 'Phony Figures' Used by Straley

Number of Showings of Films Attacked by Safety Director

By MAX E. SIMON

Pontiac won National Safety Council awards last year by using "phony figures," Public Safety Director George D. Eastman charged last night.

Testifying before the Civil Service Commission, Eastman accused now suspended Police Chief Herbert W. Straley of falsifying records on the city's traffic safety program.

"I don't consider the awards significant because they're based on improper statistics improperly compiled," Eastman said.

Eastman called the city's traffic safety program under Straley "ineffective."

"Let's have it understood that the city didn't win Safety Council awards," Eastman said. "Pontiac received certificates of achievement for two phases of its program."

The certificates of which he spoke were for the maintenance of accident records and the public traffic safety education program.

A third certificate of achievement was awarded the city for school traffic safety education.

He said Straley reported to the Safety Council that the police department showed safety films to 409 different clubs or groups, although the actual figure was "fewer than 40."

A check of newspapers showed that Straley's claim of 5,000 column inches in the local press on traffic safety was exaggerated, Eastman said.

"In the first two months of 1957, only 10 inches of traffic safety stories were found," Eastman said. "I had intended to check the entire year, but these figures were sufficient."

The public safety director, who abolished the police force's Traffic Bureau at the end of last year, said all patrolmen would be used in traffic enforcement activities.

Launching Called Success

Fire Jupiter Full Range

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An Army Jupiter missile, with a range of 1,500 miles, hurtled aloft today on the start of a full-range test of the workhorse vehicle. The Army said the flight across the Atlantic was successful.

The 60-foot missile shot skyward at 12:49 a.m. after waiting out a 6½ hour downpour.

It was the 14th launching of the Jupiter, a key rocket in in the upcoming Army moon probe and two other major U.S. space ventures. The latest Jupiter carried nothing alive, military sources said.

The fiery takeoff was a preview of the Pioneer moon launching which is expected this weekend.

Dirksen Asks Solons to Sit Tight on Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) underlined the potential gravity of the Berlin crisis today by pleading for less talk on Capitol Hill while President Eisenhower weighs "the hour-to-hour developments."

Dirksen, the Senate's Republican leader and chief administration spokesman, cautioned in an interview against headline-making speeches or any hasty action that might affect critical negotiations.

Renewed tension over the Berlin situation exploded in the Senate Thursday with Democratic demands for a stepped-up defense program and for alerting the people to any eventuality — including the possibility of a shooting war.

Austerity School Bubget Submitted to Pontiac Board

More austerity and virtually no teacher raises were spelled out in an $8,031,168 operating budget submitted to the Pontiac Board of Education last night.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent, asked the Board to study administration proposals to spend less next year to offset continued cutbacks in tax revenues.

Quality of instruction will take a "slight" dip throughout the school system, he warned; junior high class sizes will be increased a little, and—most important from the standpoint of the physical plant—the program to renovate and repair older schools will remain at a standstill.

Repairs to the Pontiac Central High School swimming pool will have to be postponed once again, Whitmer said; the school's driver training range will remain unpaved for another year and Wisner Stadium will have to get by with its present inadequate lighting system for the time being.

The proposed operating budget is $166,938 more than last year's proposals and $324,379 less than the amount the schools sought—but didn't get—millage approval for from the Tax Allocation Board.

Increased costs and about 400 more pupils account for the increase in the 1959-60 budget over 1958-59's, said Whitmer.

For the second straight year, the schools hope to keep per pupil costs down to what they were the year before, Whitmer said.

If costs can be kept down, the

Hoffa Fights the Governor of Florida

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa, hoping to organize workers in Florida, says it takes more than sunshine to enjoy life.

Replying to criticism—and an invitation to get out and stay out of Florida—Hoffa told Gov. Leroy Collins to "worry more about Florida's working people and their living standards—and less about Hoffa."

Collins had described Hoffa as discredited and said he wished Hoffa "would keep out of Florida."

Hoffa, here for a Teamsters' Executive Board meeting, replied: "I don't think Collins can talk about Hoffa without speaking against the Teamsters and all working people in Florida.

Collins spoke after hearing reports Hoffa planned to organize workers in Florida. The first target is the greater Miami area.

Hoffa lieutenants spoke of organizing all along the Gold Coast of southeast Florida, from Palm Beach to Key West. They also mentioned the citrus belt across the state's midsection.

Hoffa's union gained a foothold in the airlines industry Wednesday when it was certified as bargaining agent for 800 Pan American Airways stock clerks, 268 of them in Miami. Several hundred work at the Missile Test Center at Cape Canaveral.

Giants' Frank Gifford Prays Before Every Game

By FRANK GIFFORD
1956 Winner of The Jim Thorpe Trophy for Most Valuable Player

To handle the tension that comes before every football game, I've worked out a formula. Although quite simple, it is every bit as important to me as making sure my shoulder pads fit securely.

Frank Gifford

I find myself a quiet corner in either the locker room or the training quarters, and take just a few minutes for a silent prayer.

The prayer itself, rather than being a request to perform well, is one of thankfulness that I have been given the physical ability to take part in something I sincerely love to do.

When I was in high school and later in college, I used to be somewhat embarrassed, and would always look for a place in which to offer my prayer as far away from my teammates as possible. Then I discovered that other players were also wandering off to some quiet spot for the same purpose.

NOT TOO BIG TO PRAY

One of the highlights of my football career was being invited to play in the 1954 All-Pro Game (similar to baseball's annual All-Star game) in the Los Angeles Coliseum; I'll never forget an incident that happened before the game.

Players and coaches had finished pre-game discussions, when Abe Gibron and Lou Groza, two stars of the Cleveland Browns, stood up and asked the entire team if they would mind waiting just a moment.

"It's a custom with us to have a moment of prayer together before each game," said Groza.

With that, each of those 250-pound goliaths dropped on one knee and bowed his head.

When one of the referees entered the locker room to tell us we were holding up the game, our whole ball club was kneeling for two minutes of prayer. I have often wondered what he thought then, and later, as we meshed together perfectly to beat the Western All-Stars by a wide margin that day.

You spectators, if you have field glasses, watch the pre-game huddles of professional, college, or high-school games and notice the many players whose eyes are closed and lips moving. I notice it before every game the New York Giants play.

More and more athletes realize today that not only is body conditioning necessary, but also the spiritual conditioning of their minds. In football, as in life, you get knocked down and suffer losses from which you must recover. This takes good physical equipment and the proper mental outlook.

When I first joined the New York Giants back in 1952, I felt I could never be anything but a defensive back, that I could not run, pass or kick well enough to make the team.

LACKED FAITH

I told this to the Giant coach who took me at my word, figuring that if I had no confidence in my offensive skill, he certainly wouldn't. So for several years I played a defensive halfback only.

Then during one of my pre-game prayers, it occurred to me that it was primarily a lack of faith that limited me to one role in football. So I asked God, not to make me a good runner or passer, but simply to help me to use all of the abilities which He had given me in a maximum way.

This prayer changed my attitude. The new attitude was followed by

Homestead Act Revisions Asked

Rep. Broomfield Seeks to Stop Speculation in Alaska Farm Land

To make it easier to settle in Alaska, Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) today proposed several major revisions of the Federal Homestead Act.

Broomfield said he has asked the House Interior Committee to investigate these possibilities:

1. An increase in the present 160-acre allotment for homesteaders who intend to engage in such large-scale activities as cattle-raising.

2. A provision to permit community property and planning to prevent "helter skelter and erratic" community growth in Alaska.

3. Stricter residence requirements to discourage land speculation.

Broomfield said he also has asked the Agriculture Department to report on the feasibility of giving Alaskan homesteaders a year's supply of surplus staple foods.

Most of these points were sought unsuccessfully earlier this year by a group of Michigan residents planning to emigrate to Alaska to form a community on the new state's primitive Kenai Peninsula.

After a series of turndowns, Broomfield told leaders of the group, known as "the fifty-niners," that he would pursue the issue at the federal level.

Broomfield said present homestead residence requirements offer an invitation to land speculation.

"In some cases," he said, "it is possible for a man to acquire clear title to his land after clearing only 20 acres of ground and living there only seven months. Then he moves away and holds the land for speculation.

"Some of the best Alaska farm land simply isn't being cultivated because it is being held to make quick money in the future."

2. The move followed by a couple of hours Williams' announcement that he preferred raising the state's debt limit to mortgaging the trust fund. The governor had straddled on his preference for two weeks.

3. Breaking prolonged silence, Senate Republicans uncorked a plan for a 100 million dollar bond issue tied to a one cent increase in the state sales tax, the tax increase to expire automatically on June 30, 1961.

4. The Democratic governor denounced the Senate GOP proposal as "foolish" 45 minutes before it was formally unveiled, assuring its defeat barring some unprecedented repudiation of his leadership by Democratic lawmakers.

REACH NO AGREEMENT

5. House Republicans, badly split, ended a caucus without agreement on the GOP Senate plan or any other quick money-getting course.

Of overshadowing importance was the need for any debt solution proposal to muster bi-partisan support by early next week, since this is vital to getting it on the spring election ballot for statewide referendum decision.

It was anybody's guess what the outcome would be, especially in the light of yesterday's staccato developments but the hour of decision is at hand.

Expect Arraignment of Three Flint Men

Three Flint men being held by the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept. for investigation of breaking and entering in the nighttime are expected to be formally charged and arraigned today.

Detectives identified the three as George Ahrns, 18; Robert Brown, 25; and Ronald Spees, 19, all of 1003 W. Court St.

Detectives Leo Hazen and Harry Maur said today the three suspects have admitted three break-ins and an attempted break-in in Oakland County Thursday morning.

They also admitted six previous burglaries, five of which were in Genesee County, detectives said.

Sheriff's Deputies Robert MacFarlane and Leroy Young, while on patrol early Thursday, said they saw Ahrns and Brown near Earl's Mobil Station, 2140 Ortonville Rd., Brandon Township, and stopped to investigate.

"Both men took off on foot in different directions and we gave chase," the deputies said.

Ahrns ran out onto Bald Eagle Lake and hid behind a fishing shanty where he was apprehended. Brown ran down Ortonville Road said.

A call for assistance was radioed back to headquarters. On his way to the scene, Sgt. Paul Carpenter stopped to pick up a hitchhiker. The hitchhiker was Brown.

Spees was apprehended later by state troopers from the Pontiac post. He had been driving around after dropping off Brown and Ahrns at the station, deputies said.

NO MIRACLES

It I have learned anything about prayer it is this: when the game is close and I have a chance to score the winning touchdown in the last minute of play, an emergency call to God won't get it for me. What will, is determined by how well I have prepared myself physically and mentally over a period of months.

In other words, I don't see how one can expect miracles from an emergency prayer if he hasn't bothered to develop a closeness to God when things were going all right.

Just as a football player could never amount to anything without physically conditioning himself, so too am I convinced that our prayers will not be effective unless we spiritually condition ourselves through life.

Officer Admits Taking Payoffs

River Rouge Policeman Testifies in Gambling Conspiracy Case

DETROIT (AP)—A River Rouge policeman testified yesterday that he and eight fellow officers took payoffs from a gambling ring.

Patrolman D. C. McCants appeared before common pleas court Judge Thomas A. Kennedy, who is examining six River Rouge police officers and two other persons on charges of gambling conspiracy.

Among those indicted are Frank Schattler, former River Rouge safety commissioner, and Willie Folkes, an alleged gambler. Also indicted but not at the examination is Russell Trilck, alleged downriver gambling czar. Trilck is fighting extradition from Florida.

McCants, who has been named a co-conspirator but is not charged, testified that monthly payoffs to the officers rose from $15 in 1953 to $50 in 1955.

He said the payments dropped to $25 following a 1956-57 investigation into gambling by a grand jury.

Sgt. Bronaugh J. Bridges, also named as a co-conspirator, followed McCants on the stand.

Eastman Charges Figures Are Phony

Straley's attorney, Clarence L. Smith, Eastman said that he received a letter from Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel last week stating that the police department was not reporting 400 to 500 property damage accidents yearly.

He defended the moving of Capt. Joseph Koren to the administration section after Smith pointed out that Koren had taken a nine-months course in traffic safety at Northwestern University. "It was a promotion," Eastman said.

The director shrugged off Smith's statement that Straley was the first chief in Michigan to persuade the Detroit Police Academy to train recruits.

"It's not unusual for a large metropolitan department to train recruits for outside agencies," said Eastman, who favors training new recruits in Pontiac.

Eastman denied that any structural changes were necessary in the Public Safety Building to install a central records system for the department.

He defended his hiring of Berkeley (Calif.) Police Capt. R. T. Sherry to study the police records in December.

One of the conditions under which he signed his contract was that he be able to employ from one to three consultants, Eastman said.

Smith asked the director why he stripped Straley of command Nov. 12 and did not suspend him for three months. He intimated Eastman was "having trouble with the city manager."

Eastman admitted he had asked City Manager Walter K. Willman twice to file charges against Straley, but had been refused.

"But the charges before this Commission are Willman's," he said.

Smith contended Eastman violated the City Charter in not taking an oath of office before late in December. Eastman earlier testified that when he first arrived in the city he was told by Willman "it wasn't necessary."

Eastman said Straley lied to him on two occasions.

He said the chief denied he could listen in to conversations in Eastman's office. A check showed he could, the safety director said.

Eastman said the chief had asked for vacation time, stayed away, and never put down vacation time in the records.

"On this so-called vacation, the records even show that the chief even put in for four days of compensatory time," Eastman added.

The hearing will be resumed Monday evening, with Eastman still on the stand.

Pontiac Board Gets Austerity Budget

schools may have up to $160,000 in uncommitted revenues with which to restore cutbacks in service or to pay out in wage increases, Whitmer said. If costs rise only two per cent, there won't be any money left over for extras, he predicted.

Revenues in 1959-60 are estimated at $9,971,085, with debt retirement claiming a whopping $1,816,098, a quarter million dollars more than 1958-59's bill.

That $250,000 has to be absorbed out of funds that would otherwise go into the operating budget, Whitmer said. It can't be offset by an extra tax levy, the method whereby the schools avoided tapping operating funds to make up a shortage in construction funds last year.

"When we planned the retirement of our short-term construction bonds three years ago, we believed 1959-60 would be the best year financially to make the biggest payments," said Whitmer.

"It's obvious that we guessed wrong."

The only provision for raises — besides the extra $160,000 that might or might not be available — is $193,445 proposed for contingency.

"But with a tight budget, contingency funds are more liable to be put to use in covering unexpected rises in operating costs," Whitmer warned.

Teachers are expected to make pay demands, if they have any, before the board passes on the budget for tax allocation purposes in April.

The proposed budget is based on the glum assumption that the Tax Allocation Board won't restore the .62 mill it cut from the school tax bill last year, he said.

But in case tax officials look more favorably on school needs this year, the administration prepared a supplemental budget of what it would do if the .62 mills were restored. These proposals will go to the tax board along with the proposed budget, said Whitmer.

"It's a shame school officials don't have more control over their tax needs, since they're dealing with the most important product there is — education of our youth," said Glenn H. Griffin, board president.

The other major reason for the tight financial picture—lowering of the state equalized valuation of the school district—has also been taken into account, said Whitmer.

The schools expect to live another year with the tax base trimmed by $15,000,000, he said. But if the state cuts the valuation still lower, the schools will face a deficit year, he has warned.

"We've spread the quality cuts evenly throughout the entire program," said Whitmer, "so that no one phase should suffer too much.

"Our financial and educational position is still enviable from the point of view of other school districts and our standards of instruction will remain very favorable on a comparative basis."

If any department is hard hit, it will be music, where funds for extras have been sharply cut.

In other areas, such items as special textbooks — which help make the difference between superlative instruction and merely good instruction—have been lopped out, Whitmer said.

There won't be any new elementary librarians hired or school nurses, "an extremely regrettable measure from the point of view of service," said Philip Proud, assistant superintendent.

"There are demands for further increases in such auxiliary services as psychological aid and visiting teachers which have not been recognized because of income limitations," he said.

"It was believed desirable to strengthen our instructional program further in library services, counseling services, mathematics, science and language, but monies are not available this year for such improvements," Whitmer said.

"Counselors will have more pupils to work with. Individuals assistance to pupils will be reduced."

Included in the budget were provisions for only 18.5 new teaching positions, including those at the new Square Lake School.

British Papers Rap Nikita

Macmillan Sheds Fur Coat in Kiev

KIEV, U.S.S.R. (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan shed a heavy cold and his fur coat as well today.

The visiting British leader amazed his Soviet hosts by walking around without the fur coat. Although it was mild winter weather, Macmillan was probably the only man in Kiev not muffled up.

One of his aides said the Prime Minister has finally got rid of the cold that has plagued him since he arrived in the Soviet Union last Saturday for a 10-day visit.

British newspapers on both sides of the political fence united today in blaming Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev because prime Minister Harold Macmillan had obtained no concessions from the Soviet in his Moscow visit.

Even newspapers of the Labor opposition conceded Macmillan had done his best.

Macmillan himself had promised only to return with information. He had warned he was going on a reconnaissance mission, "to try to break the ice and get some feeling of the general situation."

British spokesmen in Moscow admitted Thursday, after their chief flew to Kiev for the sightseeing portion of his trip, that the "feeling" Macmillan got was that both the Soviets and the West so far were standing firm on the related issues of divided Germany and West Berlin.

Britons generally had hoped for more. As a result, Macmillan's trip was widely termed a failure.

Baldwin Library Extension Plans to Be Discussed

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners and members of the Baldwin Public Library Board will have a special meeting at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow for another discussion of the library's expansion plan.

Miss Jeanne Lloyd, librarian, said the plans approved by the board will exceed the $75,000 commissioners allocated nearly a year ago.

The new section of the library, according to Lian Smith, architect, would be a one-story wing on the east side of the present building. It would harmonize with, rather than match, the original structure, he said.

If approved by commissioners, the addition will provide space for 80,000 books and double the seating area now offered.

The present building, according to Miss Lloyd, is "woefully" inadequate. "There is not enough space for the 60,000 volumes nor for patrons who use the library for study and research," she said, adding, "The loan desk cannot operate efficiently nor is there proper space for the behind-the-scenes operation of the library itself."

March 13 has been set as the examination date for Preston W. Smith, 19, of Bloomfield Hills who is charged with attempting to pass a worthless check for $60 in a Royal Oak market last week.

Royal Oak police said Smith admitted cashing more than $300 worth of phony checks during the same week. The youth said he needed the money to go to Florida, according to the police. He is the son of Mrs. Charles Otto of 6601 Castle Dr.

The Rev. Dr. Homer J. Armstrong, pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church in Detroit, has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in Birmingham. He will begin his local service April 1.

He will succeed the Rev. Emil Kontz, D.D., who left last November after 11 years here to accept the pastorate in St. Albans, W. Va.

Meeting at the YMCA at 1 p.m. tomorrow, the Young Adults Club will leave for the "Y" camp near Milford for a weekend of sports and recreation, President Marion Cannon announced today.

Mrs. James I. Tucket

Service for Mrs. James I. Tuckett, 62, of 5170 Wing Lake Rd., Bloomfield Township will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Interment will be at White Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Tuckett died yesterday at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, after a long illness.

She was a member of the Sinawik Club in Detroit.

Surviving besides her husband are two daughters, Mrs. Fred W. B. Smith of Farmington and Mrs. Donald A. Robinson of Royal Oak; one son, J. Ronald of Royal Oak; three grandchildren and one sister.

Waterford School Slates Salk Vaccine Clinic

A polio clinic, at which Salk vaccine shots will be administered for a $1 fee, will be set up Tuesday, March 3 from 6 to 8 p. m. at the Waterford Center Elementary School, Airport and Pontiac Lake roads.

The program will be under the direction of Dr. M. G. Prosser, according to Mrs. William Guinn.

in the area off Newfoundland. Fishing vessels of many nations operate in that area and accidental cable damage sometimes occurs in normal deep sea fishing operations.

But the Pentagon said that aerial reconnaissance by American planes "confirmed extended operations of Novorossisk in the area of the cable breaks at the time the breaks occurred."

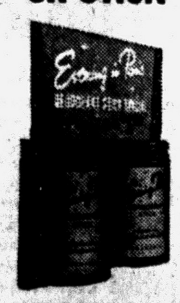

Under orders from the commander in chief of the Atlantic Fleet, Adm. Jerauld Wright, five men from the antisubmarine-radar picket ship Roy O. Hale climbed aboard the Novorossisk at noon Thursday.

The trawler was about 120 miles off St. Johns, Newfoundland, in international waters. Wright ordered the boarding party to make the check under a provision of an 1888 treaty to protect cables. Although it was the czarist government of Russia which originally joined in the treaty, officials here said the Soviet government adhered to it in 1926.

Marilyn's Singing Will Stir Controversy

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—There always will be people who say Marilyn Monroe is a poor actress. Their theory: She is too sexy to be artistic.

These cynics shortly will be joined by a new group, who say that Marilyn couldn't sing her way out of a paper bag.

When she opens in the new film, "Some Like It Hot," in which she sings hot, cool and often, they'll assure you—"Aaaa, she didn't sing them songs. Not her. They hired a voice."

Matty Malneck, the man who wrote and arranged the songs, and then helped Marilyn record them, gets annoyed just at the thought.

"Let me tell you she's a darn fine singer. And she has an especially great knack for interpretation. Show me another girl—among the pop recording stars, say—who can sing and dance and play the guitar at the same time. Every note on that sound track is Marilyn Monroe's. She worked hard on them. But she probably won't get the credit for it . . .

"There'll always be people who think if you're beautiful you've got to be untalented."

It's jealousy. It's human nature. It's something for Mrs. Arthur Miller to think about en route to the bank.

Mr. Malneck's first concern, among glamorous women, was with Miss Clara Bow. That was when Matty—now a top composer, arranger and band leader—was 16. He was hired to play his violin on the set of Miss Bow's first dramatic role, a tear-jerker called "The Keeper of the Bees."

Picture the scene. Miss Bow (he calls her "The Lady Clara") standing alone on an empty set, preparing to shed her first tears for her art.

"Hey, Matty," she calls. "Play me 'The Roses of Picardy'."

Other silent screen stars are said to have used onion juice. Matty Malneck on the violin was the only thing that could make Clara Bow cry.

"It was a combination of two elements that brought on the tears," he recalls modestly. "A sad song, and a bad performance of it."

It is hard to get Matty Melneck to talk about himself, in spite of the fact that for three decades he's been one of the bigs of the Brill Building, and a diamond in the rough racket of Tin Pan Alley. He has written music for dozens of movies.

He talks of himself only as it relates to other people in the business. Like when he says:

"A lot of established song writers who have written standard ballads a long time ago—we've been coasting lately. It's the rock and roll trend, of course. It's hard to crack the trend with a new ballad. So sometimes composers tend to sit back and watch the royalties come in.

"I think fresh new ballads will make a comeback one of these days," he said wistfully. "But right now, let's face it. On the hit parade there now are 11 rock-roll tunes for every one lovely romantic song.

"Thank goodness, I guess we should say, for that one."

Just 107 Tiny Words May Give U. S. Military Edge

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — Aircraft and rocket experts hail 107 little words that may spell a military advantage for the United States.

The words form a simple language which enables electronic brains to plan and supervise the manufacturing of plane and missile parts by other mechanical equipment. The work will be done faster and at less cost.

The language, part of a system called Automatically Programmed Tools (APT), was made public this week at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

APT will enable the U. S. to "build a war machine that nobody would want to tackle," said Lt. Gen. Clarence S. Irvine, Air Force deputy chief of staff for materiel. Irvine told a news conference APT "is perfectly wonderful."

MIT scientists said APT works very simply. An engineer would take a rough drawing of a designed part and use APT language to write out a brief summary of its specifications.

The electronic brain would take the summary and, in a matter of seconds or minutes, plan the part in detail. The brain would then send instructions to an unmanned machine which would turn out the part.

APT will make production both cheaper and less time consuming, researchers said.

Irvine said APT will mean better airplanes and space missiles at no increase in cost. He said APT may even greatly reduce the current cost of national defense.

Ship Smoke Ruling to Bring New Appeal

DETROIT (AP)—Huron Portland Cement Co. said it will appeal a recent State Supreme Court decision affirming validity of Detroit's smoke abatement ordinance covering ships.

Attorneys for the company said the state court decision will be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court on the grounds it is contrary to federal inspection laws and the commerce clause of the U. S. Constitution.

"The Coast Guard inspects our vessels and has approved them," said attorney Ralph Lindbloom. "It then is our opinion that the city has no right to pass an ordinance requiring us to do something we can't do."

Lindbloom said the city ordinance is unconstitutional except in cases where smoke is caused by negligence either in improper firing of the vessel or by the use of improper equipment.

The State Supreme Court upheld a ruling made last October by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge George E. Bowles that Detroit had the authority to enforce the ordinance.

Goldwyn Jr. Gets Wish: He'll Do Huckleberry Finn

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD—Six years ago when Sam Goldwyn Jr. visited Hannibal, Mo., home of Mark Twain, he made up his mind that one day he would do the Huckleberry Finn story.

The time has come now and Sammy told me today that in "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" he plans to get the Mark Twain feeling.

He'll film the picture almost in its entirety this summer on the Mississippi. Sammy has great good luck in that years ago, before "My Fair Lady" and "Gigi," Alan Lerner wrote a beautiful score for "Huckleberry Finn" which was never utilized by MGM and it's been turned over to young Sam.

Sol Siegel is announcing that this is young Goldwyn's first for MGM.

My mind goes back to a summer my daughter and I took a steamboat down the Mississippi and I read the Twain books to her. It was a wonderful vacation.

Dean Martin wasn't as disappointed as his friends that he didn't receive an Academy nomination in the "best performance" category.

He felt the role in "Some Came Running" came too easy for him to be of Oscar statue, but he frankly admitted he has hopes for an award in "Rio Bravo."

"Just to be mentioned as a possibility for a nomination in 'Some Came Running' was flattering enough for me," said Dean.

Catholic Paper Raps Kennedy's Position

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A Catholic publication has criticized Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) for his recently stated position related to church and state.

The Providence Visitor, official weekly newspaper of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Providence, said Thursday that Sen. Kennedy "overstated his case" in answering questions on church-state relations.

The visitor's editorial said the senator was in error in saying that nothing takes precedence over an office-holder's oath to uphold the Constitution, whatever his religion.

"Man's highest allegiance is to God, to his conscience before God," the editorial said, "If anything in a constitution conflicts with what he knows to be his moral duty in conscience he must disregard it."

Preps in Final Pre-Tourney Play

They ring down the curtain on another regular season of prep basketball tonight with coaches in most instances using the games as warmups for the district tournaments coming up next week.

Pontiac Northern will conclude its 1st varsity schedule at home against Hazel Park in a battle of losers. The Huskies have only won four times and the Parkers just once.

League activity will fill most of the slate around the Oakland County area. The Eastern Michigan, Wayne-Oakland and Southern Thumb loops remain to be decided.

INTER-LAKES

Second Waterford-Walled Lake battle at the lake city is featured with the Skippers attempting to stay out of a last place tie and the host team seeking a runnerup finish. Unbeaten Berkley is at Farmington and Southfield vs Van Dyke.

EASTERN MICHIGAN

One of the season's most interesting races will finally be decided with a strong chance of a co-championship. Ferndale can wrap up a share by tripping Mt. Clemens while the Port Huron-East Detroit winner will be assured all or part of the crown. Birmingham can only better its record by downing Royal Oak Kimball.

WAYNE-OAKLAND

Brighton has had some close calls despite being unbeaten but will be heavily favored to clinch 1st by whipping Bloomfield Hills at home. Holly goes to Milford a strong choice but with little hope of grabbing a title tie. Clarkston hosts Clarenceville and West Bloomfield vs Northville in other games.

OAKLAND B

The only race left is for the runnerup slot. The Avondale at Lake Orion duel will match two of the three contenders. The other is Fitzgerald which hosts champion Troy. Clawson meets Madison.

SOUTH CENTRAL

Another battle for 2nd. Oxford, which goes to North Branch, and Millington, host to Ortonville, are fighting for the high finish.

SOUTHERN THUMB

Almont has clinched a tie but must defeat chief threat New Haven for sole possession of the coveted No. 1 slot. Anchor Bay is assured of 3rd regardless of its outcome at Armada. Brown City vists Dryden and Capac entertains Memphis.

OTHER GAMES

Rochester should finish 14-2 by romping at Davison. Cranbrook goes to Nichols, Lapeer takes on Owosso, L'Anse Creuse invades Oak Park, Royal Oak Dondero seeks a repeat of a big early win over Grosse Pointe, Utica is at home to meet South Lake, South Lyon hosts Boysville and Lamphere plays Huron.

Chiefs Win Tuneup, PNH Beaten

Valley, I-L Mat Events Saturday

The climax to the biggest wrestling season in Oakland County begins tomorrow when Pontiac Central competes in the Saginaw Valley meet and Flint Northern and five other local schools battle for Inter-Lakes honors at Farmington.

Good indications of what to expect in the state events starting next week will be derived from these league battles.

Pontiac Central has had a losing season despite sparks of impressive work and will likely be the dark horse in the four-team SVC scramble with defending champion Bay City favored. Flint Central and Northern will be the other participants. The Saginaw schools do not have the mat sport.

Each Valley school will enter one boy in each of the 12 weight classes. The Chiefs top hopes will rest with Duke Relyea, 175-pound runnerup a year ago, and 165-pounder Gerald Reid, who won his last six starts and has defeated boys from Bay City and Northern.

The SVC team champion will receive a rotating trophy while the I-L victors will gain a permanent award. Medals will go to the top two individuals at Northern and the champs at Farmington. Ribbons will be given 2nd, 3rd and 4th placers in the Inter-Lakes.

Preliminaries will be held all afternoon at each site with the consolations and finals at night.

Berkley is the I-L favorite with the host Falcons and Southfield strong contenders. Waterford and Walled Lake have bowed to their foes during the regular season. Van Dyke will be the other participant.

Last night, Pontiac Central defeated Walled Lake 29-16 in a tune-up arranged between the schools as Pontiac Northern was dropping its final regular season test at Flint Northern, 35-11. Cranbrook rallied from a 15-3 deficit to edge Southfield 15-3 and Ruford Black won his 40th straight match pacing Hazel Park to an easy verdict over Melvindale.

Bill Stephens and Henry Smith scored pins and Reid won his 7th in a row to lead PCH. Gary Eskelinen had the only Walled Lake pin. The Chief jayvees won 13-0.

Winford Miracle posted a quick pin and Maurice Lackey, who is unbeaten, and Bill Green took decisions for the Husky points. Several defeats were by close margins. The PNH jayvees triumphed 18-14.

A victory by 175-pound Phil Wisenbarger sewed up Cranbrook's win following pins by Ted Seyfarth and Lee McBride in a string of victories. Dave Butler and Max Oliver had Southfield pins. The Cranes meet Hazel Park today.

McDaniel, Stott County Favorites

Point Title Decided Tonight

The 1958-59 Oakland County individual scoring championship will be decided tonight as all the teams conclude their regular seasons.

Big George McDaniel of Holly, back in 1st now by two percentage points, and Oxford whiz Doug Stott have been waging a torrid battle in recent weeks and are leading candidates for the top two positions.

Toy Palmer of Ferndale at 21.2 and Merv Gallup of Birmingham at 19.9 are the other boys with the best chance of heading the pack. Biggest gainer in the past week was Orchard Lake sharpshooter Chet Wlodkowski. He moved from 11th to 7th with 18.6.

Don Petroff has led the county area all the way and can wrap it up Friday since Jim Ward of Imlay City concluded play Tuesday. Their averages are 21.8 and 19.9.

Michigan, MSU Reject TV Plan

State Universities Vote Against Grid Television Program of NCAA

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The University of Michigan formally turned down the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) 1959 football television plan yesterday and Michigan State University officials also voiced opposition to the program.

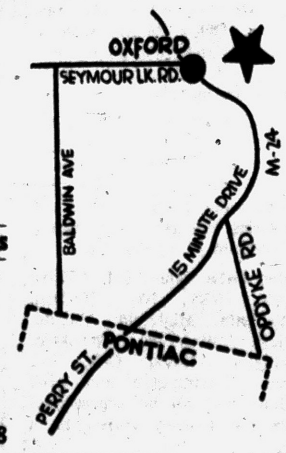

Michigan president Harlan Hatcher cast a negative vote and called for a program with "more flexibility." Dr. Ralph B. Tukey, MSU's faculty representative to the Big Ten, said the Conference is against the limitations of the policy.

The NCAA policy allows the network and sponsors to decide which games will be shown nationally and regionally and also limits the number of times a season that a team can be on television.

"We have consistently supported a television policy with more flexibility than is possible under the NCAA plan. We have urged a greater degree of local control which would permit individual institutions to negotiate for the television rights to their home contests," Hatcher said.

Michigan also voted against the plan last year.

Would Up Cost to Auto Buyers

Ford Official Predicts Result of Proposed Ban on Maker Financing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Car buyers will pay higher financing charges and insurance rates if auto manufacturers are barred from financing their retail sales, a Ford Motor Co. spokesman said today.

The prediction came from William T. Gossett, Ford vice president and general counsel in testimony to the Senate Antimonopoly Committee. The group is hearing views on proposed legislation to divorce the auto manufacturing industry from the financing field.

General Motors now is the only auto firm engaged in retail financing, but Ford has announced plans to re-enter the field.

Gossett called the measures "undisguised class legislation" and said they would deprive the consumer of the benefit of the most effective kind of competition.

The proposals, Gossett said, "seem to have been inspired either by a desire to preserve and protect the present rates and profits of the finance companies, or by a determination to take specific legislative action against General Motors."

Ford views the legislation as "unwise and unnecessary, particularly in view of the broad provisions of the antitrust laws," Gossett said.

Theodore O. Yntema, Ford vice president-finance, said Ford estimates that the General Motors Acceptance Corp., GM's wholly-owned financing subsidiary provides new car financing and insurance service to GM dealers at a cost to the dealer averaging about $65 less than the cost of financing the insurance services offered by other finance companies.

Stocks Move Up in Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved generally higher in active trading today as electronic and missile shares continued to make strides.

Motors turned unanimously to the upside. Airlines as well as selected oils and nonferrous metals also showed improvement.

While gains of key stocks went generally from fractions to a point, some of the "glamor" issues raced as much as 5 points ahead.

A notable casualty was Republic Aviation which dropped 4 points in heavy trading on news of its reduced dividend.

General Tire and Thiokol each rose about 5 points or more while Polaroid added another 3 points.

Raytheon rose more than a point. American Telephone advanced about 2. U. S. Steel was up around a point. Lukens eased back from its large gain of yesterday.

American Motors, up about a point, and Studebaker-Packard, which continued steady, renewed their stand against any further decline on fears of big three competition in the small car field. Meanwhile, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler were all up fractions.

Lorillard, selling ex-dividend, rose a point or more in the wake of its excellent earning report.

Allied Chemical and Air Reduction were ahead around a point. Most leading rails were off.

The ticker tape was late for a 13-minute period at the opening and again very briefly.

Kilowatt-hour sales of electricity were up 12 per cent and cubic-foot sales of natural gas were up 28 per cent, Karn said.

"These increases reflect heightened industrial activity in the Outstate Michigan area," Karn said. "Unusually cold weather also was a factor, especially as to sales of natural gas."

[illegible] to Auto Buyers

Ford Official Predicts Result of Proposed Ban on Maker Financing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Car buyers will pay higher financing charges and insurance rates if auto manufacturers are barred from financing their retail sales, a Ford Motor Co. spokesman said today.

The prediction came from William T. Gossett, Ford vice president and general counsel in testimony to the Senate Antimonopoly Committee. The group is hearing views on proposed legislation to divorce the auto manufacturing industry from the financing field.

General Motors now is the only auto firm engaged in retail financing, but Ford has announced plans to re-enter the field.

Gossett called the measures "undisguised class legislation" and said they would deprive the consumer of the benefit of the most effective kind of competition.

The proposals, Gossett said, "seem to have been inspired either by a desire to preserve and protect the present rates and profits of the finance companies, or by a determination to take specific legislative action against General Motors."

Ford views the legislation as "unwise and unnecessary, particularly in view of the broad provisions of the antitrust laws," Gossett said.

Theodore O. Yntema, Ford vice president-finance, said Ford estimates that the General Motors Acceptance Corp., GM's wholly-owned financing subsidiary provides new car financing and insurance service to GM dealers at a cost to the dealer averaging about $65 less than the cost of financing the insurance services offered by other finance companies.

Stocks Move Up in Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved generally higher in active trading today as electronic and missile shares continued to make strides.

Motors turned unanimously to the upside. Airlines as well as selected oils and nonferrous metals also showed improvement.

While gains of key stocks went generally from fractions to a point, some of the "glamor" issues raced as much as 5 points ahead.

A notable casualty was Republic Aviation which dropped 4 points in heavy trading on news of its reduced dividend.

General Tire and Thiokol each rose about 5 points or more while Polaroid added another 3 points.

Raytheon rose more than a point. American Telephone advanced about 2. U. S. Steel was up around a point. Lukens eased back from its large gain of yesterday.

American Motors, up about a point, and Studebaker-Packard, which continued steady, renewed their stand against any further decline on fears of big three competition in the small car field. Meanwhile, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler were all up fractions.

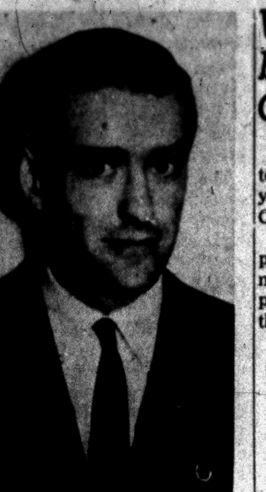

Lorillard, selling ex-dividend, rose a point or more in the wake of its excellent earning report.

Allied Chemical and Air Reduction were ahead around a point. Most leading rails were off.

The ticker tape was late for a 13-minute period at the opening and again very briefly.
