Summit League Basketball Tournament Update – Watch party planned!

Oakland University's No. 1 seeded men's basketball team will be competing in the Summit League tournament championship game tonight at 9:05 p.m. EST. They will face No. 2 seeded IUPUI.

The Oakland University Alumni Association invites all alumni, friends, faculty and staff to gather together and cheer on the Golden Grizzlies! The watch party will begin at 8:30 p.m. at Buffalo Wilds Wings in Rochester Hills at the corner of Livernois and Walton. Buffalo Wild Wings will feature wings specials and also late night happy hour specials after 10 p.m.

For those alumni and friends who are unable to join us at Buffalo Wild Wings, the championship game will be televised on ESPN2.

The winner of the Summit League Championship earns an automatic NCAA Tournament berth. For the most up-to-date information on all post-season play, visit the OU Athletics website at www.ougrizzlies.com.

For more information on tonight's watch party, please call Erin Sudrovech, assistant director of alumni relations, at 248-364-6136 or email sudrovec@oakland.edu. Watch our website at www.oualumni.com for more details.
