City Buys Waterford Lot (That's Right) for Renewal

Pontiac has made its first property deal of the urban renewal project by buying a $1,400 lot in Waterford Township.

The purchase, approved by the City Commission last night, reflects the city's interest in the home and land of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Carby, 10 Bliss St.

Located across Hill street from City Hall, the Carby's property is slated for acquisition and clearance as part of city center expansion.

But it's not scheduled for acquisition until later this year.

TAKE OPTION

At the time, City Manager Walter K. Williams reported last night, the elderly couple has taken an option on a $1,400 corner lot on Fremont street in Huron Gardens Subdivision, Waterford Township.

They intended to pay for the lot with the money they got from the city for their Blis street house," Williams explained.

But the urban renewal plan has moved slower than they expected and now the option is running up.

Impressed by the Carby's cooperation in relocation, commissioners followed Williams' advice and picked up the option for them.

"We'll buy the land, hold it for them, and when we take their Pontiac property we'll be in a position," the manager explained.

Carby is a retired machinist. The Blis street bungalow in which the couple has lived for many years is one of the first properties scheduled for acquisition under the urban renewal program.

STUDY ANOTHER PHASE

City commissioners took another phase of the urban renewal program under study last night.

This is the proposal by the administration to hire the Michigan State University Institute for Community Development to prepare a soon plan to encourage rehabilitation of private properties within the renewal area.

The plan would call for block groups and a neighborhood council to spur private investment in the area and raise land values generally in the project area.

Summer Chill Sends North Under Blankets

By The Associated Press

A mid-summer chill sent Americans in the north-central states under blankets and into sweaters today while Gulf Coast residents turned up their air conditioners.

Temperatures dropped into the 40s in the Lake Superior area this morning, the coldest of the previous day's chill that set record lows in some communities from New York to Montana.

St. Louis, however, readings went no lower than the 50s during the night and another day of sixties was in prospect. Sultry readings also predominated in the Southwest and Pacific Coast states.

small curbs and gutters on Rensselaer street, Sanford to Baxter, at an assessed cost of $3,300 and city cost of $417.

Another is on proposed widening and repaving of Edison street, Russell and Montclair, at an assessed cost of $3,061. The city share at $3,581. The city share is big because most of the frontage is Oakland Park.

Two assessment rolls will be given a public hearing, covering proposed curbs and gutters on Clifford and Russell streets, Auburn to Osman.

On motion of Commissioner Robert A. Landry, a hearing covering the same work on Seward avenue in the same area was delayed because of anticipated objections by property owners.

The assessment rolls for curbs and gutters on Arlene avenue, Second to Columbia, were considered.

Two rezoning requests were sent to the Planning Commission for study.

One was a request from a real estate firm for rezoning from residential to light manufacturing of 1,500 feet of frontage on the east side of Woodward avenue, south of South boulevard.

The other was for rezoning from residential to commercial of eight lots at the northeast corner of Cass avenue and Waverly street. A petition for the rezoning was signed by 55 per cent of the affected property owners.

Commissioner Winford E. Bolton called for traffic signals at the corner of Cass and Waverly streets and Commissioner Wesley J. Wood renewed complaints of speeding cars, particularly on Michigan avenue.

Approved was the transfer of ownership of the S2D-S2M liquor license at 45 Elizabeth Lake Rd. from the estate of the late Paul F. Ellen to Ellen F. Ellen.

Referred to the manager was a request from the St. Basil Novitiate for a directional sign on right-of-way at Walton boulevard and Giddings road.

Oakland Candidate Offers Powers Aid

ROYAL OAK (AP)—Joseph Kadane of Detroit, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in Michigan's 18th district, has written to President Eisenhower and volunteered to defend U.S. pilot Francis Powers at his espionage trial in Russia.

Kadane, an attorney, said he has specialized in international law. The Virginia Bar Assn. has named three lawyers to defend Powers and they are awaiting visas to enter Russia. Powers is a resident of Virginia.

Wayne Town Becomes City as of Last Night

WAYNE (UPI)—The village of Wayne became the city of Wayne last night.

The Village Council met for the last time, adjourned and resumed its session as the City Council. The change doubles Wayne's population and increases its population from 35,000 to 21,000.

Pontiac is the fourth such for this group which left Minnesota June 28. The previous stop was Rogers City, with Akron, Ohio, the next point on their itinerary when they leave tomorrow morning.

Highlight of their visit to our city was a tour of the Pontiac Motor plant this morning. The rest of their visit is a matter of personal choice on the part of their hosts.

Most Pontiac families had some form of picnic activity in mind for their young guests. Visits to Cranbrook, the Detroit Museum of Art, metropolitan shopping centers and Canada (barring entry complications) are planned.

At least one young man who arrived fishing pole in hand will be introduced to the bounty of Oakland County's waters by his hosts, also ardent fishermen.

Details of arrival and departure were in the capable hands of an efficient committee of area teenagers, headed by Sue Koprince of 319 W. Iroquois and Sherry Fink of 4130 Quoniam Rd. Bloomfield Hills.

The Birmingham Police Department was informed last night of the plan to help make Oakland County's Court of No Record for teenagers a success.

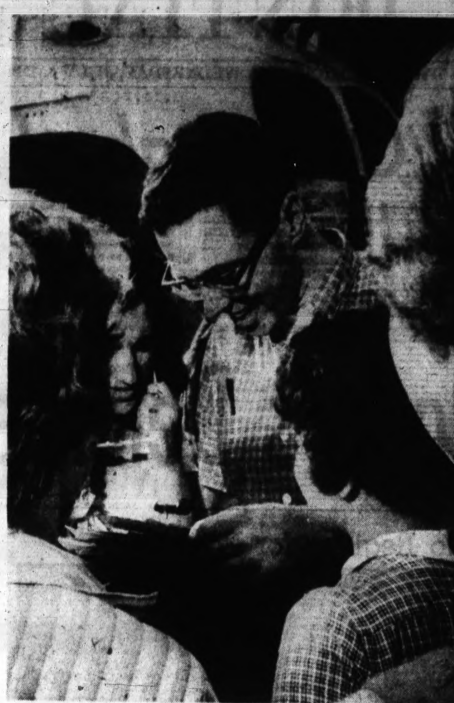

Presenting the plan to Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley at the City Commission meeting yesterday was County Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

In the Court of No Record, teenagers involved in minor offenses are placed on probation, but have no police record.

The Birmingham Police Department has handled some 1,000 cases in the No Record Court.

"MAIL IT'S HERE"—The universal response to mail call is a yell of delight and a moment of apprehension. No exception occurred when the first mail of their journey caught up with a busload of 35 AFS exchange students from 19 countries who arrived Tuesday evening in Pontiac to spend 26 hours as guests in Pontiac homes while touring the area. Chaperone Brian Whipple above has the happy chore of distributing letters.

Local Families Open Hearts

Host Exchange Students

Pontiac opened its doors and its hearts to 35 teen-age exchange students Tuesday evening.

Sponsored by the American Field Service International Scholarship Program, the group that arrived in Pontiac on bus 13B represented 19 countries.

It was difficult to decide who was most eager—the smiling host families lining the curb at the bus stop or the alert 16- to 18-year-olds who would spend the next 26 hours sharing their own customs and heritage with kind strangers.

The students Pontiac is hosting have spent the past school year in Minnesota and North Dakota as seniors in American high schools.

With 1,500 others from various parts of the country, they are converging by bus on Washington and New York, seeing points of interest in the geographical areas in which they have lived.

Although there were no language problems—all of the students have many years of English study in their own countries—a smile was still the common bond for students and "temporary parents," and the Greyhound station was swarming in smiles Tuesday evening.

Doctor Moore Nearing NYC

British Hiker Finally Limp Into Sight of Empire State Building

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (UPI)—Limping but triumphant, Dr. Barbara Moore strode within sight of the Empire State Building and a record for sheer guts today on the very last lap of an 85-day trek from coast to coast.

By noon the steel-solded vegetarian from Britain had reached Rahway, 20 miles from the Hudson River. She was under five hours hiking time to Times Square if he hitch developed.

One was possible, even at this last moment of a 3.50-mile walk from Pacific to Atlantic. Her planned route to the Hudson was via the Palisadi Skyway, an elevated highway without pedestrian lanes.

It remained to be seen if she could take this shortcut into the Holland Tunnel and thence up Manhattan to Times Square.

Dr. Moore who had run into worse problems, crossing the nation, remained in high spirits.

Often sharp-tongued, she declared today she had fallen in love with the United States and might settle here when her hiking days are over.

Her smiling face gave no hint of the pain in her swollen feet as she hiked through Manhattan, peering at last over the Jersey Palisades.

Commission to Let Bids on Sidewalk Repair Plan

BIRMINGHAM — Construction bids will be sought immediately for a downtown sidewalk repair program approved by the City Commission last night.

Estimated cost of the project is approximately $200,000, with city paying $5,000 and property owners, $195,000.

Completion of the project is expected before Labor Day.

In another action, the Commission approved plans for a parking lot on Island View road, to be constructed at a cost of $46,000.

The municipal parking lot will provide spaces for 141 cars.

The Commission also instructed the city attorney to start condemnation proceedings on several parcels of property not already purchased by the city but needed for the completion of the parking lot.

City Manager L. R. Gare was authorized by the Commission to make a study of the proposed widening of East Maple road from Adams to Coolidge road.

The widening is proposed with the paving of Coolidge road from 14- to 15-mile road by the county in a year or two.

Gare will negotiate with the Board of County Road Commissioners and the City of Troy on the possible widening project.

Traffic is congested in the morning and afternoon when employees from plants east of the city come on their way to or from work, Gare said.

The Birmingham Police Department was informed last night of the plan to help make Oakland County's Court of No Record for teenagers a success.

Presenting the plan to Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley at the City Commission meeting yesterday was County Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he was prepared to ban on nuclear weapons test explosions during the remaining months of his administration.

He said he hoped negotiations with Russia at Geneva over a test ban treaty would show enough progress and honest intention on their part so that the United States can stand a few more months without testing.

The President held a news conference — his first since before the summit conference at Paris May 16 — that he has made sure the Soviet Union is ready any time to take part in talks on disarmament, nuclear testing and other issues.

He was responding to a question in which the reporter said Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had defied East-West leaders to "get the talks back on the track," during his administration.

Eisenhower avoided any predictions about new high level or top level negotiations with the Russians prior to January when he leaves office.

He simply said that he had decided and made sure that the Russians have a clear understanding of U. S. readiness to talk at any time on major issues.

The last critical negotiation still going is that involving nuclear tests. The United States, Britain and Russia are participants. Eisenhower recalled that the U. S. and Britain were to hold a series of tests — in which the three powers would take some joint part — in order to develop a detection system for very small underground explosions.

THE RUNNING START

As a driver approaching a green signal sees it change to yellow, and instead of stopping, tries to clear the intersection before it turns to red, he relies on the motorists on the cross street, starting from a dead stop, to give him a safety factor. If you are on this cross street and hit the green on the run, you may get out into the middle of the intersection before he is out of the way.

Cadillac Has Record First Half in 1960

DETROIT (AP)—Cadillac said today it set an all-time sales record in the first half of 1960 despite a June sales pace which was the slowest of the year.

General Manager Harold G. Warner reported domestic retail deliveries of 78,509 cars. The division's previous high was 77,138 last year.

June sales of 12,996 were at the rate of 461 per selling day. Sales in May totaled 11,974 but the daily rate was 473 because of one less day during the six months was 343 in Sunday at Arslani Naval Air Station southwest of Tokyo.

Pontiac Realtor Clarkson Reports:

Home Repairs Average $540 Per Job

When you see your neighbor or a friend down the street repairing the roof of his home, enclosing the breezeway with glass joiners, or adding a room, have you tried to guess how much the work cost?

If you multiply your neighbor's expenditures by millions of other home repairs and additions, you'll come up with a substantial outlay.

"In the aggregate it is estimated to exceed $10 billion last year," James Clarkson, president of the Pontiac Board of Realtors, said on the basis of figures supplied by the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

"This is a larger amount than the cash expenditures for purchasing newly built houses."

"A recent survey by the University of Michigan revealed that some 20.2 million families made additions, improvements and repairs to their homes in 1959, spending an average of $540 on each project," Clarkson said.

The $10.75 billion spent for such repairs and additions was $2 billion more than the previous year. The sum exceeded the $9.77 billion mortgage debt recorded for the purpose of new houses in 1959, and almost reached the $11.52 billion debt for the purchase of used houses, the survey revealed.

The survey of 2,700 families in the 48 older states showed that about 65 per cent of the retired persons own their homes, which is above the proportion for all families.

The equity that a retired person has built up in his home is one of the best investments that he can make, Clarkson said. The great number of such owners is an indication of the wisdom of home ownership, he added.

Closely related to home ownership is the age and life cycle stage of the family head, the University of Michigan survey disclosed.

When studying families whose heads, or breadwinners, are under 45 years of age, "it is clear that owning a home is very definitely associated with the presence and age of children in the family," the survey stated.

The Pontiac Board of Realtors is affiliated with the National Association of Real Estate Boards whose "Build America Better Program" is aimed at gaining the maximum of livability, safety, health, convenience and attractiveness in every neighborhood.

Macmillan Denies Unknown U2 Flights

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan denied Tuesday that American U2 spy planes have been flying from British bases without his knowledge.

He declined, however, to tell the House of Commons whether the British government has given the United States approval for such flights—or whether it has been made.

Macmillan was sharply questioned by members of the opposition Labor Party, who complained bitterly about his replies.

Laborite W. N. Warbey asked whether the British government has the right to forbid the use of U.S. Air Force bases in the United Kingdom "for actions of provocative or risky character."

Replied Macmillan: "I think we have sufficiently close relations with the United States to cover the point Mr. Warbey has in mind."

The average annual bill for rat damage on a farm is $10 a year.

A plea of innocent was entered today for the Troy father who has admitted the fatal shotgun shooting of his 12-year-old stepson after a quarrel over a nickel's worth of candy.

Paul F. Henley, 35, of 2680 Wisconsin St., appeared before Circuit Judge William J. Beer and stood mute to a charge of first-degree murder.

He was returned to the county jail without benefit of bond.

A factory machinery repairman, Henley has told Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor "I don't know why I did it. I have a nasty temper."

Killed June 25 as he returned home with a bagful of candy, bought with money given him by his stepfather, was Mitchell (Mickey) Steele.

The shooting took place following a quarrel Henley had with his wife, Gaynell, 37, over five cents worth of candy she had purchased earlier for Henley's natural son, Fritz, 3.

Taylor said Henley probably won't be tried until the September term of Circuit Court. A jury might be impaneled this summer to handle some criminal cases such as Henley's, according to Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert D. Long.

India Announces Industrial Plan

Big Aid From U.S. to Help 5-Year Fivefold Economic Project

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru's government Tuesday took the wraps off an ambitious 21 billion dollar five-year plan aimed at giving this nation of 400 million a self-sustained economy.

It is India's third five-year plan and will cover the 1961-66 period.

It has a fivefold goal: To achieve self-sufficiency in food grains; raise the national income by 5 per cent annually; expand basic industries such as steel, steel and power; boost employment; and achieve equitable distribution of wealth and income.

Parliament and 15 legislatures will examine the plan, due to begin April 1, 1961. They and various development councils will put it in final shape.

Here are some of the highlights: The plan envisages a total investment of 102 billion rupees, $27,420,000,000. Outside aid was estimated at 22 billion rupees with the United States the principal contributor.

Highest priority is given to agriculture production in order to meet the food needs of a population expected to hit 400 million by 1966. Present food grain production is 75 million tons, 19 per cent short of basic requirements.

It envisages a target of 10, 20,000 tons of steel ingots and 1.5 million tons of pig iron by 1966. Present finished steel production is 2,600,000 tons, compared with a million in 1950.

U.S., Soviet, West German and British aid figured in the raise.

Coal production target is 37 million tons, compared with the 60 million tons being produced annually now.

Total power generating capacity was set at 11,800,000 kilowatts, compared with 5,800,000 now.

In the social fields the goal is to establish free and compulsory education for the 6 to 11 age group, and to provide drinking water and a school in each of India's 360,000 villages.

Freight will be moved in capsule containers through the pipelines of the future, says J. L. Burke of Tulsa, president of the Service Pipe Line Co., and passengers may eventually travel that way too.

FOR MINUTEMAN — Tests are carried out on a "prototype" model of a rail car designed for shock-free transportation of the Minuteman ICBM at Berwick, Pa. The American Car and Foundry Co. builder, says its vehicle can launch the Minuteman from rails anywhere in the country. Technicians are checking loadings of a steel tank and bones containing sand, concrete and water to simulate weights of actual missile and launching gear. After tests at Berwick, the car will be road-tested by the Air Force.

Canada May Get Industry Study

UAW Asks That Group Probe Cause of Sick Auto Business

OTTAWA (AP)—A lively, banner-carrying delegation of 200 members of the United Automobile Workers (UAW) Tuesday won Prime Minister Diefenbaker's interest in a full-scale royal commission investigation of Canada's ailing automobile industry.

Diefenbaker told the UAW delegation in a crowd commons committee room that the idea of a government inquiry into the problems of the auto industry was "worthy of the most serious and immediate consideration."

"I'm with you if there's action that can be taken," said the prime minister, who met the Union leaders together with Revenue Minister Nowlan and Labor Minister Starr.

After the cabinet ministers left, the UAW's Canadian director George Burt told the group that chances are good for a special investigation. He said Revenue Minister Nowlan whispered to him after Diefenbaker's remarks:

"Well, George, it looks as if you're going to get your royal commission."

The Union brief-bolstered by impromptu speeches by Union leaders from key centers in the automobile and auto parts industry—portrayed an ailing industry hampered by foreign car imports and hurt by growing unemployment.

It also kicked off the auto industry itself for not meeting small-car foreign competition with a smaller, cheaper Canadian model of its own.

While rejecting any suggestion to "take over" the auto industry, Diefenbaker told the delegation: "I will not give any support or tolerance to any industry that does not have regard for the public interest."

He also indicated that Canada plans to revamp some of its obligations under the general agreement on tariffs and trade when it comes up for discussion in September.

Madison Heights Man Sentenced on Bad Check

Raymond McPhee, 34, of 2516 John R. Rd., Madison Heights, yesterday was sentenced to 4 to 14 years in Jackson Prison for passing worthless $95 check at a hardware store.

McPhee, a roofer and painter, pleaded guilty June 20 to uttering and publishing.

Circuit Judge William J. Bear sentenced McPhee, who police said had passed seven other worthless $95 checks.

W. Reich Idle Toll Off

NURENBERG, Germany (AP)—The number of unemployed in West Germany dropped to another postwar low last month with only 134,382 persons jobless against 133,161 in May, the Federal Labor Office reported today.

Charles Shears Gets 34 Years in Arson Case

Charles R. Shears, who set fire to his home in retaliation for his wife's divorce suit against him, yesterday was sentenced to 34 years in Jackson Prison.

Shears, of 70 Carpenter Ct., Waterford Township, pleaded guilty June 20 to arson. He was sentenced by Circuit Judge William J. Bear.

The 38-year-old unemployed man had been drinking last month, township police said, when he started a fire in the Shears' small home. Mrs. Shears and her four children were visiting friends at the time.

The Chigwell Art Society in England has recommended to the Chigwell Urban Council that a memorial be erected to named sculptor Sir Jacob Epstein at nearby Epping forest, where he once lived.

Bogus Check Writer Gets Her Sentence

A Ferndale mother of six children, who admitted writing bogus checks to buy groceries, yesterday was sentenced to the Detroit House of Correction for 1 1/2 to 2 years.

Ruth E. McDuffy, 37, of 2306 Maplewood Rd., was sentenced by Circuit Judge William J. Bear. She pleaded guilty June 20 to issuing a $25 check without an account.

Zone Rulings Await Board at Waterford

Still in the midst of zoning problems, the Waterford Township Board last night referred a zoning request back to the township zoning board for modifications, and set a hearing date for another site change.

The zoning board will be asked to re-consider its previous decision to rezone four lots on Elizabeth Lake road near Lockhaven road from residential to light commercial.

The township board acted on advice from the Oakland County Zoning Committee which said that the change would be "spot zoning."

Another five lots on Williams Lake road and Hatfield street were approved, and a hearing date was set for Aug. 1.

A preliminary hearing date was also set for July 25 for the installation of sewers on Tilden street from Novarra to West Huron street.

Board members approved a sewer permit to connect a house from Myrtle street through an easement to West Huron street for sewage facilities for a new Elias restaurant to be constructed there.

Four bids were opened for constructing 1,800 feet of roadway on Winding drive from Brookdale to Elmhurst. The A. & A. Asphalt

Deed, Mortgage Business Down for Period

A decline in fee-producing deeds and mortgages meant $1,219 less in business last month by the Oakland County Register of Deeds Office compared with the same period last year.

There were 13,883 papers, producing $20,046 in receipts, recorded last month. This compares with 14,381 papers and $21,385 for June 1959.

A comparison of the two months shows 2,675 deeds and 1,088 mortgages recorded this year and 3,976 deeds and 1,440 mortgages in 1959. There also was one less chattel mortgage recorded—6,388 in 1960 and 6,387 in 1959.

Daniel T. Murphy Jr., county clerk-register of deeds, also reported that there were 12 new plats recorded during June of 1960.

Cruelty to Children Jails Flint Mother

FLINT (U)—A Flint mother was sentenced to 18 months to four years in prison yesterday for cruelty to her four children.

Her estranged husband was ordered to serve the first 90 days of a three-year probation term in jail.

Sentence on Mrs. Charlene Baxter, 39, and her husband, Newton, 36, was passed by Genesee County Circuit Court Judge Dona D. Parker.

The couple was convicted of leaving their children, whose ages range from nine months to two years, alone in the Baxter home last January without food or heat and in need of parental and medical care.

Police said they found the four children living in squalor and suffering from scabies.

Mrs. Baxter, who is expecting a fifth child, was lectured by Judge Parker. He said she appeared to lack a "normal instinct of both people and animals—to care for your young."

The word MORMON is a combination of the English word "more" and the Egyptian word "mon," which means "good"—thus, "more good."

Malaya Bars S. Africa Goods

Import Nix Believed Strongest Move by Any Land After Race Riots

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—The government today announced it is banning imports of all South African goods effective Aug. 1.

It is believed to be the strongest action so far of any nation protesting South Africa's racial segregation policy.

Prime Minister Tengku Abdul Rahman said this young South-East Asian nation is "declaring economic warfare" on South Africa and invited other countries of the world to join.

Rahman told a news conference he thinks that all Asian and African nations plus possibly the Scandinavian countries will follow Malaya's action.

Ousted Teacher Defended by Parents at Hearing

The hearing for ousted Pontiac elementary school teacher Isa M. Vogel dragged through its fourth and next-to-last session last night, bringing the testimony already presented to almost 400 pages.

The Board of Education heard six witnesses present their cases for Mrs. Vogel, fourth grade teacher at Herrington School, who is appealing her dismissal on charges of refusing professional assistance and of poor relations with parents.

All those testifying for Mrs. Vogel had signed a petition bearing 31 signatures in favor of retaining her as a teacher. Asked whether he would change his decision in light of the petition, Superintendent Dana P. Whitmer said an emphatic "No."

He said that Mrs. Vogel not only had difficulty in analyzing problems with children and parents, but that she also had difficulty seeing the problems in the first place.

Whitmer said that she "showed a lack of judgment," and "an unwillingness to accept supervision from her principal (Mrs. Effie Mitchell)."

Mrs. Edward A. Gallant of 484 Bay St., a Vogel supporter, said her son Mark, 16, one of eight children segregated from the class, had suffered no ill effects whatsoever from the disciplinary measure.

Many of those testifying for Mrs. Vogel said she had stimulated the intellectual awareness of her children and had helped raise their grades considerably.

The next and last session will be held Monday at 7 p.m. in the Board's office, 40 Patterson St.

Indifference Is Enemy of Today's Christianity

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI)—A University of Vermont Protestant discussion group came to the conclusion that "it is harder to be a Christian in Burlington than in Africa."

"We have a harder job to be effective Christians in the midst of plenty, where a Christian is the accepted thing. Indifference is harder to combat than criticism or even persecution."

President Andrew Jackson, when a lawyer, liked his cockfights as well as his legal battles.

Japanese Emperor To Get New Home

TOKYO (AP) — Construction on a new home for Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako began Tuesday after Shinto rites on the moated Imperial Palace grounds near Tokyo's business center.

Completion is scheduled in October 1961.

The emperor and empress now live in a remodeled bomb shelter built during the war. Their palace was destroyed by American B29s in 1945.

The new residence will be two stories, of concrete and of modern design incorporating features of Western and Japanese architecture.

Negroes to Skip Trips Downtown in Knoxville

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Negroes, in a switch of tactics, have begun a stay-away-from-downtown movement which they say will last until "conditions improve for all."

For several weeks—until Tuesday—Negroes had conducted sit-in demonstrations at various downtown stores in an attempt to get service at all-white lunch counters.

Property owners have been urged to include a guarantee against "smothered trees" in any construction contract. Ohio tree expert Marlin L. Davey Jr. warned that many trees are killed by soil deposited on their roots during excavating and grading operations.

Polish Chief in Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz of Poland has arrived in East Berlin with a large delegation for official celebrations today of the 10th anniversary of the Polish-East German treaty fixing the Oder-Neisse line as Germany's permanent eastern frontier. AMERICAN NAZI — His unruly hair did not edge down over his high forehead, but the arrogant shooting of this self-styled American Nazi leader served to remind his Washington audience of another Nazi leader. George Lincoln Rockwell is shown in three close-up shots during his harangue addressed to a party assembly in the capital's Judiciary Park. He was heckled a great deal by the crowd he drew, but no violence resulted, as was the case on the previous day on the grounds of the Smithsonian Institute.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Mallor, D.V.M.

Question: Our canary is losing its feathers. Is this an indication of illness?

Answer: This melodious little bird is justifiably proud of his beautiful, variegated coat. He bathes and preens himself daily, but during the moulting season (July to November) it is natural for him to lose his feathers.

He may even give up singing. You can aid him through this period with good bird vitamin and one of the many fine "moulting" foods on the market.

At any other time of the year, moulting is false and can be dangerous. Lice or mites could be the cause. If you detect this, disinfest his cage immediately and spray your canary with a bird lice killer or powder before returning him to it.

Misbandaging can also be a factor; keep him quiet, add a few drops of wheat germ oil to his food and watch closely for signs of illness. If this condition persists, consult your veterinarian.

London Paper Hits at Our Election Orgy

LONDON (AP) — The London Daily Mail suggested today the United States ought to change its "dog-eat-dog election pattern."

The mass circulation newspaper said in an editorial that the extended U.S. election campaign put the government "virtually on ice for the better part of 12 months."

"If it concerned only the Americans no one would complain," the editorial said. "But this is no longer so. Columbia is a big girl now. She has become a great power and what she does affects mankind."

The newspaper said America will not willingly relinquish one franchising drum major, one too of a trombone, in this ritualistic orgy.

South Viet Nam Relaxes Visa Rules for Tourists

MANILA (AP) — South Viet Nam announced today that it is relaxing visa regulations to attract more tourists.

Opening a conference of government tourist officials from South-east Asian countries, Ho Quynh Phuc said hitherto Vietnamese consulates abroad can grant tourist visas without referring the applications to the Interior Department in Saigon.

For American tourists who don't stay more than seven days, he said, neither entry nor exit visas are required.

Saginaw County Plan Cited

Wiser Use of Probation Could Save Tax Dollars

LANSING (AP) — More and wiser use of probation save taxpayers upwards of a million dollars a year if a pilot demonstration in Saginaw County is any indication, the chairman of the Michigan Crime and Delinquency Council said today.

The percentage of convicted men sent to prison was cut in half—from 34 to 17 per cent—during the three year experiment with probationary techniques, said John B. Martin.

Martin cited a report by the National Council on Crime and Delinquency predicting that Michigan will have to spend 10 million dollars on new prisons in the next decade unless ways are found to reduce the number of men sent to prison.

In Saginaw County, he said, probation was recommended for 68 per cent of the criminal cases. A 7 per cent increase. The number of persons who violated probation and had to be sent to prison was cut from 32 to 17 per cent, in comparison with a previous record, Martin said.

The council's staff estimated that every person kept out of prison saves taxpayers about $3,000 a year. In support of the inmate and his dependents.

On this basis, he said, the council estimated the Saginaw County pilot project cut prison costs between $60,000 and $80,000 in each of its three years.

Applied statewide, the savings would have been $1,800,000 a year, he said.

"Michigan must take immediate steps to duplicate as nearly as possible in every circuit court in Michigan the high caliber probation services provided so effectively in Saginaw County," said Martin, who is also Michigan's Republican national committee.

"We must take steps to reduce our crime problem, and this is one way to do it."

Corporations in the United States shelled out $137 million in 1958 for support of higher education as compared with $10 million in the previous year. Overall corporate donations to philanthropies hit a record $50 million, up from $418 million in 1956.

Air Force to Check Atlas Site Delays

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reported delays in construction of launching sites for Atlas missiles will be checked by the Air Force, Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates has told the Air Force. He wants a detailed progress statement this week, a Pentagon spokesman said Tuesday night.

The check apparently relates to at least two major projects, the ICBM sites at Offutt Air Force Base, Omaha, and Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo. The inquiry will cover the status of work at various missile bases, schedules of materials used, quality of construction work and other factors.

Pakistan's wheat production for a recent 12-month period was 3,863,000 tons, according to official estimates. This is a 5.8 per cent increase over the previous year from 1.7 per cent greater average.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscle of your colon will also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shriveled that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulk and mousters may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and grip the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new Colonoaid gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) Colonoaid moisturizes dry, shrunken waste for easy passage with out pain or strain. (2) Colonoaid's unequalled relaxing action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And Colonoaid acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate "peristalsis" of your lower colon.

Colonoaid relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And Colonoaid won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get Colonoaid today! Introductory size 45¢.

Supporter Sees Late Win

Stevenson's Nomination
'Unlikely but I'm Moved'

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson has a "sufficient beach" Stevenson had kind words today head of first-ballot votes to win for other Democratic hopefuls on a later ballot, and called it "possible but not probable" that he would get the presidential nomination for a third time.

Stevenson, in a taped Chicago interview seen on the NBC "Today" show this morning, dismissed many times that I thought I was cited himself from a statement head, and then when I wake up by a California supporter, James in the morning and find I am alive, it is a matter of delight, I must confess," Stevenson said.

Doyle said Tuesday in Los Angeles. "You must understand that all goes that neither Sen. Lyndon of the candidates are my close B. Johnson of Texas or John F. Kennedy, and I have admiration Kennedy of Massachusetts could and respect for all of them." Stegert the nomination and that Stevenson said.

Oklahoman Makes
Primary Comeback

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A surprising comeback by former Rep. Victor Wickersham, Mangum, highlighted Oklahoma's primary election Tuesday.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr and the state's five other congressmen were nominated without runoffs.

Wickersham apparently edged incumbent Toby Morris of Lawton to win the Democratic nomination in western Oklahoma's 6th District.

With all but 3 of the 635 precincts counted, Wickersham held a 30-vote lead. The unofficial tally was 40,515 to 39,852.

This was the fourth race between the two men. Wickersham won eight years ago. Morris ousted him in 1956 and held his seat by an 81-vote margin two years ago.

Rep. Carl Albert of McAlester.

the House whip, and Rep. Page Belcher of Enid, lone Republican in the state delegation, had no primary opponents.

Susan B. Anthony, pioneer leader for women's rights, was the second of eight children.

County School Chief
Attends Study Session

County School District Supt. William J. Emerson of 512 W. Iroquois St. is among 49 school superintendents attending a 10-day meeting of the Advanced Administrative Institute of the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

The school officials will consider case studies of problems of changes taking place in education. The theme of the Institute is "Administrative Leadership for a Decade of Change."

Stock buying by individuals for long-term investment rose by 17 per cent and reached 64 per cent of total share volume this year while trading transactions (stocks held 30 days or more) dropped to 23 per cent, according to a New York Stock Exchange survey.

There's Just No Dessert Like Ice Cream

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Ice cream is listed by the USDA as a plentiful food during July. From what I've seen of the way people eat ice cream, it doesn't have to be pushed.

However, there are always new ways of serving it.

Unsulphured molasses is milder in taste than its cousin, sulphured molasses. It can be used right from the jar as a sundae sauce; or you can make a praline or butterscotch sauce.

Molasses Pecan Praline Sauce
1 tablespoon butter,
1/2 cup pecan halves

1/2 cup water
1 cup unsulphured molasses
Melt butter in saucepan over medium heat. Lightly brown pecans in butter. Stir in water and unsulphured molasses. Cook 10 minutes. Serve hot or cold over ice cream. Yield: Approximately 1 1/2 cups.

Molasses Butterscotch Sauce
In the Praline Sauce recipe, omit pecans, stir in 1/2 cup evaporated milk upon removing from heat.

Have you ever served Birthday Ice Cream Cakes—or Ice Cream Nougats? They're sure to appeal to the young set.

Fill flat-bottomed cones with your favorite ice cream, placing a large scoop on top. Using pastry tube, flute edge of cone with whipped cream. Stick small candle in top of ice cream and light just before serving.

ICE CREAM NOSEGAYS
Slip small paper doily around large part of cone. Place scoop of any flavored ice cream onto cone. Press candy gum drops all over ice cream.

There are still some strawberries on the market. With half a cup you can make an interesting ice cream sauce.

Strawberry Marshmallow Sauce
Combine 16 marshmallows, cut in pieces, with 1/2 cup crushed fresh strawberries and 2 tablespoons light corn syrup in the top of a double boiler. Cook over hot water, stirring until smooth and thoroughly melted. Remove from heat and stir in 1 cup sliced fresh strawberries. Cool. Serve over ice cream. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

This ice cream dessert mixes everything with the ice cream. It's too rich to need a sauce.

Mocha Bananas Romanoff
1 pint vanilla ice cream

1/2 pint heavy cream
1 tablespoon instant coffee
1 banana
2 tablespoons optional
Custard or curacao (optional)

Place ice cream in a mixing bowl and let soften slightly at room temperature. Combine heavy cream and instant coffee, then whip until cream holds its shape. Cut bananas into thin diagonal slices. Lightly fold together softened ice cream, banana slices and whipped cream. Transfer to a serving dish and garnish top with a sprinkling of additional instant coffee.

If desired, sprinkle split ladyfingers with coumadin or curacao and place in individual dessert dishes before spooning in the whipped banana mixture.

Let's make some of our own ice cream. Sweet cherries are in good supply and are delicious in ice cream.

Cherry Carnival Ice Cream

2 cups chopped fresh sweet cherries
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup heavy cream
2 teaspoons vanilla

Wash cherries; pit and chop coarsely; measure; set aside. Beat eggs, adding sugar gradually, until thick and lemon-colored. Blend in salt and milk. Pour into freezing tray and freeze until just firm.

Whip cream, adding vanilla. Place frozen mixture in chilled bowl and beat until creamy. Fold in whipped cream and cherries. Return to freezer until firm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Nice nibbles: unblanched almonds fried in olive oil, drained and sprinkled with salt.

Frankfurters Are the Bigger Ones

Hi there! Have you ever wondered what the difference between wieners and frankfurters? Size is one difference, says the Consumer Marketing Information Agent, Josephine Sawyer.

Frankfurters are the biggest, usually about an inch thick and 4 inches long. Wieners might be called the "smaller cousins" since they are 1/2 of an inch thick and 4 to 5 1/2 inches long. Frankfurters and wieners are good wholesome meat products.

Michigan food laws are very strict and products called "meat" must be "meat" or until browned in a 325-degree grade frank and wieners are oven.

more than half lean beef and the rest is pork and seasoning. Some cereals are added to the lower grades, but in Michigan they're still mostly meat!

Whether you choose wieners or franks, you are sure of getting wholesome meat for your family.

Cauliflower and Ham

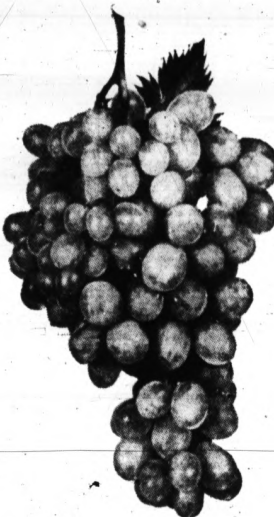

NEW YORK (UPI) — This casserole makes good use of leftover ham. Mix 2 cups each of cubed cauliflower and cooked cauliflower with 1 can of undiluted cream of chicken soup and 1 cup of grated cheese. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs and bake 30 to 35 minutes.

HOLD CONSTITUTION — The general synod of the United Church of Christ convenes today to consider the constitution of the new church, which is being formed by a union of the Council of Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reform Church. The United Church's copresidents, Dr. Fred Hoskins of New York, left, and Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia, are looking over the new draft.

Sen. Symington, Gov. Lawrence See No Rigging

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, and Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania say they don't think the national convention has been rigged.

Symington made an unexpected visit to Harrisburg Tuesday to call on Jackson Boyd, Mrs. Symington's stepfather. Boyd is a patient at a Harrisburg hospital.

Symington, who is seeking support from Lawrence, chairman of Pennsylvania's 81-vote convention delegation, sat with the governor during an interview. Lawrence has remained neutral in the nomination race.

RESIGNS — Jose Miro Cardona, Cuba's ambassador designate to the United States, resigned Tuesday and took asylum in the Argentine Embassy in Havana. Cardona, one of Cuba's oldest statesmen, was the first prime minister under Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime. He was regarded as friendly to the United States and has been unopposed with the leftist direction the regime has been taking.

City to Spring From Desert

Ads on Sun Valley Site 21 Miles From El Paso Draw World Response

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI) — The Butterfield Trail, which took settlers west through the deserts of the United States, soon will bisect a proposed "dream city" near El Paso.

Real estate developers already have laid out Sun City, a 25-mile long city along U. S. Highway 8, some 21 miles east of El Paso.

If their plans reach fruition the city will rise from desert land that has been used for grazing sheep and cattle and little else.

Developer Harlan E. O'Leary of the O'Leary Land Co. claims hundreds of his have already been sold by mail, and response to worldwide advertising of Sun City has come from Berlin, Tokyo, London, Stockholm and other foreign centers.

O'Leary said the city would emphasize orderly planning in contrast with the "better-sketched expansion that used to account pany river growth."

The 32,000-acre city would have few traffic lights or major intersections by virtue of a major freeway extending the 25-mile length of the city.

O'Leary said design emphasis would include scenic planning of industrial and residential areas. Much of the city is expected to be devoted to parks and recreation.

His plans call for ground clearing to begin July 1. Workers will lay out 150-foot-wide boulevards, make a site for a 300,000 plot cemetery, and outline residential districts enclosing a 3,000-acre industrial site.

"Our industrial area will be as scenic as the city's parks," O'Leary said.

More than 2,000 acres of commercial and business sites are planned along the main freeway, O'Leary said.

Con-Con Signature Drive on Final Lap; State's Adlai Backers Defend Truman

By The Associated Press

A final drive to get the question of a constitutional convention on the ballot; an apology for Former President Harry S. Truman said a blast at election officials by Dr. Eugene C. Keyes highlighted political activity in Michigan Tuesday.

Leaders of the several groups pushing for a constitutional convention met at Detroit Tuesday night to announce that their petition drive had secured 281,748 signatures—22 per cent more than legally required.

However, they said they wanted to get 300,000 signatures by Friday's deadline and urged all citizens "who have not signed to take this final opportunity to get on the record now for better government in Michigan."

Rosenfeld, a Detroit builder and chairman of the Michigan Committee for Stevenson, also said Stevenson supporters think the convention will be deadlocked between Sen. Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) and that Kennedy then will throw his support to Stevenson.

Rosenfeld said 16,000 signatures have been collected in Michigan for Stevenson draft petitions.

At Lansing, Dr. Keyes said state officials were "deliberately stalling" his efforts to win a place on the Aug. 2 primary ballot as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor.

STALLING CHARGED

Keyes, at a hearing on the sufficiency of his nominating petitions in Ingham County Circuit Court, said State Elections Director Robert M. Montgomery and the state attorney general's office were "deliberately stalling this thing."

The State Supreme Court ordered the hearing after Keyes was ruled off the ballot on grounds he did not have enough valid signatures on his nominating petitions. The State Board of Canvassers held that Keyes, who was elected lieutenant governor as a Republican in 1952 and 1956, needed at least 501 additional signatures to obtain the minimum 12,700 required for a place on the ballot.

Meanwhile, Edward Connor, a Detroit city councilman and one of three candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor, was endorsed by the Macomb County Central Labor Council.

The council represents 6,000 union members in 25 locals. Other candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination are Lt. Gov. John Swainson and Secretary of State James Hare.

Camp Style Rice Dish Cooked in a Skillet

When the family dines out-of-doors, good dishes that "stick-to-the-ribs" are the order of the day. Rice Casserole, Camp Style, is just such a dish. Rice and beef, with vegetable seasonings, combine to make a complete meal, and one that everybody likes. You can prepare this skillet dish in the kitchen and bring it out-doors for service. Or you can really cook it "hobo-style," at the picnic site, by heaping coals around the top and sides of the skillet.

In preparing it, note that the rice is partially cooked before the tomato mixture is added. This retains its tender, fluffy quality. A combination of seasonings — tomato juice, chili sauce, steak sauce, and garlic — give Rice Casserole, Camp Style its zesty flavor.

Rice Casserole, Camp Style
3 pounds beef round, cut into 1 inch cubes
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup onion, chopped fine
1 cup uncooked rice
1 cup tomato juice
1/2 cup chili sauce
1/2 cup steak sauce
1 tablespoon steak sauce
1 tablespoon salt

Season pepper
1/2 cup green pepper, cut in rings
When purchasing beef from your meat man, have him run meat through a tenderizing machine or pound it until tender.
Melt butter or margarine in heavy skillet which has a cover. Add meat and onion and brown well. Add rice and cook for 3 or 4 minutes.
Combine tomato juice with water, chili sauce, steak sauce, salt, pepper and garlic and bring to a boil. Pour over rice meat mixture. Top with pepper rings. Place lid on skillet.

Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Or heap coals around sides and on top of skillet lid and cook until meat and rice are tender. Makes 6 servings.
Colorful vegetable plate: baked stuffed tomatoes, green peas or asparagus, candied sweet potatoes, water cress.

Add Liquid Smoke to Baked Beans

Smoky Beans are a winning dish whether you serve them hot or cold, indoors or out. When convenient, make them a day or two ahead and let the savory flavors blend.

Smoky Beans
1 pound Michigan Navy beans
1/2 cup olive oil
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup liquid smoke (see formula)

Boil beans, garlic, onion stock with cloves, bay leaf and thyme in water to cover till beans are tender. Drain and reserve liquid. Soak the chopped onion and pepper in butter till onion is lightly colored. Add tomato puree, parsley, salt and liquid smoke. Then add 1 cup of the reserved bean liquid and simmer 5 minutes.
Four mixture over beans, adding

Start With Apple Sauce

Canned apple sauce is wonderfully handy for making quick relishes for meat. Mix it through with any one or two of the following and you have a relish both sloppy and easy. Chopped green jackolins, mint leaves, diced celery, chopped pickles, or chopped pimientos.

OLDTIME FARMER — Clark Hess still farms his 72 acres in the heart of busy Waterford Township with a team of horses rather than high-powered farm tools. His 1,600-pound working pets are King on the right and Dan, both 10 years old.

Farmer Hess Sticks With Team of Horses

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Sixty-one-year-old farmer Clark Hess of Waterford Township, who has been fenced in by new subdivisions, is probably the only man in Oakland County who farms exclusively with a team of horses. There is no high powered tractor, fast-packing hay baler, or automatic corn picker on his neat 72-acre farm at 6821 Pontiac Lake Rd.

"There is an old fashioned moving machine, a spring tooth plow, and a grain binder, all about 30 years old, that is in perfect working condition — for horse power only."

"I can save a lot more money with a good team of horses, and my old tools, than a lot of these young men with all their high-falootin' power machinery," he said.

And, a happy man is bachelor Hess. He claims that he hasn't a worry in the world, living as he does with his mother. He describes her as "the best cook in the world."

"Another thing," he added, "I've got the best kind of life, because I'm my own boss out in the open air with nobody looking over my shoulder telling me what to do."

Clark's mother, Mrs. Julius Hess, 84, does all the cooking on an

Arson Destroys Housing Units

Vacant Buildings Burn Quickly in Royal Oak Township Project Area

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—Four vacant housing units slated for removal here as part of an urban renewal plan were destroyed by arson over the weekend, it was learned yesterday.

Township firemen were called out early Sunday morning to struggle unsuccessfully with flames in the first building at 2087 Emery Ct. It burned to the ground in a matter of minutes.

Then, in rapid succession, two more of the frame units burst into flames, at 1878 Fox Ct. and 2185 Mandala St. These too were quickly destroyed.

"The fourth fire was discovered Monday evening at 10:01 Darlow Ct. It also consumed the building as firemen managed to save nearby units, which were occupied from spreading flames.

Fire Capt. Sam Mitchell said he found signs and papers had been found inside the walls of the burned buildings and soaked with an inflammable fluid.

The units, built during World War II to provide temporary housing were to be torn down for re-development of the area beginning later in the summer.

Novi Vote to Decide Trailer Park Issue

NOVI — A referendum vote will be asked of voters here in the Nov. 8 election on whether the Village Council should repeal a rezoning change that would allow a trailer park within the village limits.

The Council rezoned a 108-acre parcel at Pontiac Trail near 11 Mile road, owned by Glenn Buffmeyer, 6945 Pontiac Trail, at a public hearing May 9 to permit locating of a trailer park.

However, villagers protested and asked that a referendum vote decide the issue.

Buffmeyer requested the rezoning from agricultural to mobile homes in early spring, but when villagers protested the change he wrote the Council stating that he did not want to create any trouble and the property could revert back to agricultural.

Instead of reverting themselves however, the Council decided last night to put the issue before the people.

Out-of-Town Float Wins Third Place

LAKE ORION — The Castle Gift Shop float from Pontiac, that won third place honors in the Homecoming Parade Monday in Lake Orion, was the only out-of-town entry.

It was a garden scene featuring a miniature rickshaw and large piece of driftwood covered with ribbon bows. Riding in the rickshaw was Stacy Lynne Furgerson, 2½, of Pontiac.

California has become the 46th state to impose a cigarette tax, leaving only Colorado, North Carolina, Oregon and Virginia without a state levy on tobacco products.

Political Rally Slated for Area

White Lake Twp. Unit Invites State and Local Candidates to Speak

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A giant political rally with both Democratic and Republican candidates for state and county offices will be held July 15 at the Odor Lake Pavilion, 9451 Elizabeth Lake Rd. Invitations have been sent to 75 candidates, seeking nomination in the Aug. 2 primary to speak at the 7:30 p.m. meeting.

The rally, expected to be one of the largest in the county before the primary, is sponsored by the White Lake Township Citizens.

All congressional and state candidates will be limited to five minutes, and county candidates will be limited to two minutes in presenting themselves and their platform on a nonpartisan basis, according to Township Supervisor Edward Chazy.

No posters will be allowed in or on the premises, said Chazy, but other literature pertaining to the candidates is permissible.

Gubernatorial candidates Paul D. Bagwell, James M. Hare, John B. Swanson and Edward Connor, along with candidates for Congress, state senator, state representative, prosecutor, sheriff, clerk-registrar, treasurer, drain commissioner and surveyor have all been asked to attend the public meeting.

Nancy Kovack Shines as Entertainer

Ex-Peach Queen Wins Fame

By LEE WINBORN

Five years ago, Nancy Kovack of Flint was chosen queen of the Romeo Peach Festival.

Little did she dream then that a week after her reign ended, doors would open leading to a career on the Broadway stage, in television and now in Hollywood.

The fairy tale story of the 26-

Local Boys Sign for Alaska Trip

Four area boys have signed up for the fourth annual excursion to Alaska with Hazel Park High School social studies teacher Edward J. Kuhn.

The boys, Chip Dixon, 15, of 2100 Haggerty Rd., Walled Lake; John Shuler, 11, of 2140 Wellington Ct., Orchard Lake and James Edwards, 11, of 4837 Waterway Dr., Waterford Township, are part of a group of nine boys getting set to leave Detroit at 7:45 a.m. Thursday for 15 days.

Kuhn is carrying on a tradition set by philanthropist George E. Buchanan nearly 40 years ago.

A Detroit lumber and coal dealer, Buchanan, before his death, had taken more than 500 boys on the annual trip to Alaska.

The purpose of the trip is to teach boys to "save for things worthwhile in life," Kuhn explained.

"Any boy who is willing to learn and save at least a third of the cost by his own efforts has been eligible to go."

For boys 11 years old and under, the cost for the trip is $420 and for those older than 11, the cost is $660. Kuhn pays his own expenses.

Beauty Contest Set in White Lake Twp.

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A beauty contest will highlight the annual festival of the Cedar Island Home Owners Assn. Sunday in the Cedar Shores Subdivision here.

Ten girls between the ages of 15 and 17 are competing for the title of Miss Cedar Shores of 1960, with the winner chosen by a penny vote.

The contestants are Sherry Bates, Jackie Boggs, Sandy Chopp, Joann Gibson, Dolly Hill, Sharon Jones, Sandy Lincoln, Carol Landberg, Carol Slopek and Karen Weber.

The festival, starting at 1 p.m., will have three bands alternating throughout the day for dancing. Games will be provided for children and adults, including potato sack races, three-legged races, shoe hunts and fish ponds.

There also will be display booths for exhibits of various types of merchandise for use in the home, according to Mrs. Robert Wilson, festival chairman.

year-old chorister began in 1955 when Nancy won her first title, that of Miss Page One in Detroit.

She went on to win two other titles, one in her hometown of Flint making her eligible to compete for the Romeo Peach Queen crown which she also won easily over 100 other titleholders.

In addition, she was runner-up in the Miss Michigan contest that year in Muskegon.

Right after her reign in Romeo, Nancy went to New York City to visit friends and recuperate from her whirlwind three days in the heart of the peach country.

The friend with whom she was staying told her tryouts were being held for the Jackie Gleason television show, and urged her to audition.

Nancy was a spot in the pretty girl revue, her first break in the national television limelight.

She went on to do commercials on leading network shows, including the Patti Page Show, the Perry Como Show and the United States Steel Hour.

REFUSED PRESLEY DATE

She received nationwide publicity when she refused a date with Elvis Presley when he was at the peak of his success before going into the Army.

The Flint beauty was mentioned a couple of years ago in Earl Wilson's column as being versatile in changing her hairdo to fit the stage parts for which she was applying.

She did get a bit part in the Broadway play, "The Disenchanted," and while she was doing TV commercials and beating a path to producers' doors, she also modeled facelifts.

Her latest successes include a role in the movie, "Strangers When We Meet," and regular appearances on Dave Garroway's TV Show.

Nancy is especially delighted with the Garroway show because she is permitted to talk.

"On other TV shows, my mouth's been taped for years," she said. "It also appears on 'Beat the Clock' regularly and recently had a movie offer from Glenn Ford."

Her success comes as no surprise to her mother Mrs. Michael Kovack.

"Her whole career from childhood has been outstanding," she said today.

"She always was far ahead of the other children in her achievement and poise."

Nancy entered the University of Michigan at the age of 15 and she entered her first queen coronation was graduated four years later. It test and began her climb up the was right after her graduation that ladder of fame and fortune.

RIISING YOUNG STAR — Nancy Kovack of Flint is making a name for herself on Broadway, and before television and motion-picture cameras. Here the Flint beauty, at 18, poses for a picture after her selection as Romeo Peach Queen in 1955. It was the week after the reign in Romeo that she got her first "break" in New York that led to present success.

Walled Lake to Stay Clogged

Weed Cleanup Drive Fails

Walled Lake will not be cleaned this year, it was reported today with the announcement that a fund drive to rid the lake of weeds failed.

Treasurer of the West Shore Community Assn., promoters of the project, Roy Crites said today that the fund raising campaign was unsuccessful in raising the full amount of the $3,000 needed for the project.

"The money collected already is being returned," Crites said. "Every penny received is being returned by the collectors."

Only $4,000 of the $3,000 needed was collected from residents in the area, he said. The fund drive had called for lake front property owners to donate $20 and residents with lake privileges, $10.

"Solicitors worked hard and residents for the most part were enthusiastic about the project, but it was the business people who failed in coming through when the campaign bogged down," Crites said.

"Many of the merchants were generous but the majority of them didn't show any interest."

"In the long run it would be the merchants who would have benefited from the cleanup program since they derive a big share of their business from the summer trade using the lake."

The association had proposed the weed clearing program June 21 before 255 area residents at a public meeting at the Novi Community Hall.

SHOWS PHOTOGRAPHS

Claiming the weeds in the lake were the worst they have ever seen, the association displayed aerial photos showing 72 acres in the center of the 667 acre lake were completely encased with the rust-colored weeds.

One official said that if some-

Teen Needs Inner Strength, Says Abby

Must Want to Shake Cigarette 'Monkey'

ABBY: I never thought I'd see the day when I'd write to a newspaper for advice, but here I am. Our problem is our 16-year-old son. He has become so addicted to cigarettes that if he doesn't have one he gets jittery and his hands shake.

Say Vows at Trinity Lutheran

Shirley Bain and Richard Kruscha Are Wed

Shirley Ethel Bain of Drayton Plains became the bride of Richard Maurice Kruscha of Milford in a candlelight ceremony in St. Trinity Lutheran Church.

Vows were repeated to the Rev. Guy Bragdon Smith, pastor of St. Steven Lutheran Church, Drayton Plains, June 25, before an altar banked with white carnations.

The Elmer Henry Bains of Tubbs road, Waterford Township, hosted their daughter's reception in the Fisher Body Union Hall on Baldwin avenue. Receiving with them were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt of Milford, parents of the bridegroom.

A pearl drop necklace, gift of the bridegroom, accentuated the modified scoop neckline of the bride's gown of white crystal tulle. Iridescent sequins and pearls trimmed the fitted bodice and fashioned the Juliet cap which caught the fingertip of silk net.

Red sweetheart roses centered the bride's cascade of white carnations.

Attending the bride were her sisters, Mrs. Viola Yvonne Siders of Drayton Plains, matron of honor, and Bonnie Louise Bain of Waterford Township, bridesmaid.

Casades of white and mint green carnations complemented their identical frocks of mint green organza over polished cotton.

On the esquire side were the bridegroom's brother, Paul Travis, and ushers George Wilson of Milford and James Berry of Southfield.

Returning from a honeymoon in Port Huron, the newlyweds will reside in Milford.

Mrs. Bain chose a sheath dress of beige lace for her daughter's wedding, and mother of the bridegroom wore blue perle silk with white accessories. Flowers for both mothers were pink carnations and rosebuds.

Just Superstition

NEW YORK (UPI) — The presence of orange blossoms at weddings is a superstition said to insure a happy and fertile marriage.

every way possible, but it hasn't helped. He's gone without lunches to buy cigarettes, and if he has no money to buy them, he'll beg one. Now what can we do?

PARENTAL FAILURES

DEAR PARENTS: If a 16-year-old boy is to overcome the cigarette habit, he must do it the same way other cigarette slaves do. First, the boy himself must sincerely WANT to stop smoking. If he wants to badly enough, his own determination will create the inner strength it requires. Without it—all else is futile.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for four months. A baby is on the way. My husband and I were not meant for each other and divorce is the only way out. Believe me, I am certain this marriage cannot last for reasons I would rather not mention here. My parents tell me that I shouldn't consider divorcing my husband until after the baby is born. I am living with him now only for appearances, but I am definitely going to get rid of him as soon as I have this baby. What I want to know is, can I get my maiden name back?

MATTER OF TIME

DEAR MATTER: This is a matter for a lawyer. Under the circumstances, the court (or judge) usually tries to dissuade a mother from resuming her maiden name because it could reflect on the child. Think it over.

DEAR ABBY: The man I am going to marry has been married and divorced. I am 24 and he is 34. He has two daughters, 7 and 9, and his ex-wife uses them for all they are worth to keep in close touch with their Daddy. She coached the girls to ask him if they could be flower girls at our wedding. When he suggested it, I hit the ceiling. I feel that his daughters and their mother do not belong in the wedding party. Some of my friends think I am being small and narrow-minded. My fiancé says it is up to me. May I have your opinion?

BEA-WILDERED

DEAR BEA-WILDERED: I am in your corner. Your fiancé's children do not belong in your wedding party. Furthermore, it is very poor taste for a discarded mate (and/or the children) to attend an "ex's" second wedding.

Honeymoon Couple Visits West

Timothy Earl Agar and his bride, the former Suzanne Elaine Brummett, left for Yellowstone National Park and Grand Canyon following their marriage Saturday afternoon in First Methodist Church.

Cathedral candelabra, palms and white gladiolus graced the chancel where the Rev. Paul T. Hart read the double-ring ceremony.

Receiving some 200 guests in the church parlors were the Mertout W. Brummetts of Canterbury drive and the Robert Fishers of Boyd street, parents of the newlives.

Finger tip silk illusion veiling, billowed over the bridal gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta. Styled with sabrina neckline and short sleeves, the molded bodice extended into a bouffant skirt with chapel train of tiered ruffled lace.

The bride also wore a single strand of pearls and held a cascade of white roses.

Maids of honor, Susan Kay Webster, appeared in ballerina-length pink organza over taffeta, with matching headpiece. She held a basket of pink and white carnations.

In identical ensembles were bridesmaids Dianne Agar, sister of the bridegroom and the bride's sister Beverly.

Melody Fisher in white floor-length organza, was flower girl and Dwayne Hight, ring bearer, at their brother's wedding.

Daniel Chandler was his cousin's best man. Ushers were the bridegroom's brother Robert Agar, Elwin Beatty, Larry Mattingly, and Eric Price.

The couple will live on State street while the bridegroom completes his studies at Michigan State University Oakland.

Mrs. Brummett's dusty pink lace ensemble was trimmed in matching organza. A blue hat complemented Mrs. Fisher's dress of light blue Chantilly lace. White roses and miniature carnations comprised the mothers' corsages.

Tell Talker in Rear Seat to Hush Up

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Is there anything one can say to a "back-seat" driver without offending or seeming rude? I have come up against the problem many times and it is most distracting and nerve-racking, to say the least, to have to listen to someone tell me when to stop and when to go and to watch out for the car on the right, etc.

I have, up to now, kept my temper as I did not want to be discourteous to a passenger in my car, but my patience is wearing thin. Have you any suggestions as to how to tactfully handle this situation?

Answer: You might try explaining politely, that to be told to look out for a car that you have already seen makes you nervous for fear that there actually is another car to be avoided that you have not seen.

Dear Mrs. Post: Must an engagement ring be a solitaire setting? Also, is a diamond the only accepted stone? My mother left me several sapphires and some small diamonds, and I would like to have these stones set in a ring which is to be an engagement ring, but I want to be sure about it before going ahead.

Answer: Although it is true that a solitaire diamond is the generally accepted emblem of an engagement, other rings have always been—and still are—considered not only correct but preferred by many. Sapphires are, as a matter of fact, particularly suitable because of this stone's symbol of faithfulness. In any case, whatever the man can afford and the girl likes is suitable for an engagement ring.

The detail of greatest importance which is often overlooked is the becomingness of the ring to her hand. That is, a very tiny ring on a big hand or a very heavy one on a slender hand should be avoided.

Dear Mrs. Post: The sister of a boy I know is going to be married—next month—and I have been invited to the wedding and reception. I met his sister only once, very briefly. I would like to know if I am obliged to send her a wedding present.

Answer: It would be proper if you would like to, but it is not an obligation.

Dear Mrs. Post: I will be retiring soon and I feel sure that the office will present me with a present the day I leave. Will you please tell me how I can show my appreciation?

Answer: Nothing more than your sincere thanks warmly given when you say goodbye will be necessary. After all, you have surely contributed your share to prosperity for retiring employees in the past, and now it is your turn to benefit from the generosity of those you are leaving.

Singing and Skin Diving Are True Kinfolk

(UPI)—With waistslines dropping slightly, belts follow suit. They're pleated, cuffed and softly sashed. One belt particularly suited to the lowered waistline is the suede band or the firm leather belt with a soft chamome tie in front to be adjusted by the wearer.

Editor's Note: The author is a young Hawaiian man, just making a name as a rising young star of opera, concert and television.

By CHARLES K. L. DAVIS

Skin diving and singing seem worlds apart, but whether below the surface of the ocean or behind the footlights of the stage, both activities have an element in common—breath control.

A diver learns to control his breath in order to stay under water. A singer does the same so that he can remain on "top."

All of us breathe, but the diver and the singer learn to breathe in a very special way.

Learning to skindive as a child is a wonderful way to develop strong lungs and fine physical coordination. Most youngsters on the mainland—as we Hawaiians call the 48 states—take naturally to batting a ball around at an early age. But we in the 50th state learn to swim when practically knee-high to a ball bat.

Moreover, it's a year-round activity in Hawaii, for the weather and water are warm and clear just about every day. The water is our friend almost before we can walk, and the ocean bottom is a thrilling realm to be adventurously explored.

I feel that every youngster should learn the healthful joys of skin diving. However, like many athletic endeavors, it should be approached seriously.

Novice divers, young or old—however capable as swimmers—should never skindive alone. A qualified instructor should always be around. It would be well, too, for the would-be skindiver first to be "checked out" for the sport by his physician.

There are two forms of skin diving. First is the natural dive without breathing equipment. A scuba mask and rubber fins for the feet are all one uses.

Just as the Sherpa mountaineers are proud of their ability to climb to heights in the Himalayas without the aid of special breathing equipment, we Islanders pride ourselves on the length of time we can stay under water.

A simple spear and your own physical adroitness and endurance gives the fish a sporting chance. This is the most exciting way Hawaiians feel, that the sportsman should go spearfishing.

Requirements Pretty Stiff

You Pass for Skin Diving?

Skin diving has become one of our most popular sports, but only those who have better than average health should participate.

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

As one recent press party I had a chance to meet some outstanding aquatic performers. Bobby Knapp was one of the famous ones.

As you may know he is holder of the National Long Distance President's Cup as well as the National and New York State Individual Medal Champion records. His list of accomplishments and honors is too long to give completely.

I came back from this party with a great deal of information about swimming and skin diving, two most popular sports. Did you know that in America alone some 6,000,000 people have taken up skin and scuba diving?

More than 500 clubs have been organized and recently the Underwater Society of America was formed.

THEY ARE DIFFERENT

Now I know the difference between scuba and skin diving! The scuba diver takes a tank of air underwater with him, while the skin diver breathes surface air. Because skin diving has become so popular, and is getting more so all the time, I want to pass along some information to you.

Not everyone should take up this sport. Only those in better than average health are qualified. You MUST have a thorough physical examination in order to be safe.

For instance, those with any respiratory or cardiovascular disease or with diabetes should not indulge in skin diving.

The following requirements come from the Conference of National Cooperation in Aquatics.

1. Be able to tread water, using feet only, for 30 seconds.
2. Swim 500 yards without fins.
3. Tow an inert swimmer 40 yards without fins or pushoff.
4. Float for 15 minutes without accessories.
5. Swim under water 15 yards without fins or pushoff.

It also is important to get expert training in the use of underwater equipment. You can get this at a local YWCA or YMCA, or the Red Cross, which often has classes.

Speaking of equipment, there is a special type of scuba which will be helpful in skin diving and looks like a lot of fun in just plain swimming. These are rubber gloves trained in a flexible design. With these you can SPEED through the water.

PACK SENSIBLY

You may well be a well-seasoned traveler or a career girl on her first two-weeks-without. Either way, plan well in advance of your trip, the wardrobe you will need for the place you are going.

Let it not be void of your favorite things for it is fun to have something that makes you feel special.

But taking your whole closet of clothes is naive and results in taking unnecessary space or weight, across any borders to death and shakes extra work.

Plan your type of fan and the clothes that will do double duty. Eliminate any accessories as possible, take one very special outfit that you enjoy. Everything doesn't have to be brand new; your acquaintances won't know anyway.

Sandra Baker, L. C. Blanton Wed

A double-ring candlelight ceremony Saturday in the First Church of the Nazarene united Sandra Lee Baker and Lawrence Charles Blanton in marriage.

The Rev. J. E. VanAllen officiated before an altar banked with baskets of white gladioli, palms and candelabra. Four hundred guests witnessed the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Edward Baker of North Marshall street, approached the altar wearing a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and scalloped Sabrina neckline embellished with sequins. The skirt of the dress was detailed with an apron effect over appliqued nylon tulle.

A sequin headpiece secured her fingertip illusion veil, and she held a cascade arrangement of white carnations and a white orchid and ivy leaves intertwined with long satin streamers. Her double strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Sally Dee Schroeder, maid of honor, wore a yellow embroidered taffeta sheath dress enhanced by a nylon tulle scalloped overskirt secured to a pleated cummerbund. Her flowers were blue carnations in a cascade arrangement.

Bridesmaids Margaret Cates and Sandra McDowell were gowned in pale blue embroidered taffeta dresses featuring nylon tulle overskirts. Each carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Flower girl Jill Riddle, wearing a short white frock, carried a yellow satin basket of white flowers. In her hair were yellow feathered ornaments.

The bridegroom asked Glenn Huettner of Birmingham to be best man. Seating the guests were Joseph Anderson of Birmingham and William Foster of Madison Heights. Junior ushers were Dennis Blanton, the bridegroom's brother, and Floyd Baker, brother of the bride.

MRS. LAWRENCE C. BLANTON

Thomas Gerjekian attended as ringbearer. Receiving guests at a reception in the parlor of the Central Methodist Church, Mrs. Baker wore a pale blue lace over taffeta sheath dress with white and blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of yellow rosebuds.

A beige organza sheath dress with beige and blue accessories were Mrs. Blanton's choice for her son's wedding. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

When the newlyweds left on a trip to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Blanton was wearing a pale blue sheer dress with white embroidered trim and white and blue accessories. The white orchid from her bridal bouquet completed her traveling attire.

It Was the Law

NEW YORK (UPI)—According to ancient Roman law, ten witnesses had to be present during the nuptial ceremony. Otherwise, the marriage wasn't legal.

MRS. WARREN G. MIEDKE

An organza rose petal headpiece secured the fingertip silk illusion veil. White roses and lilies of the valley comprised the bridal cascade.

Mute on Charge in Car Death

Say Unlicensed Driver From Springfield Twp. Crossed Center Line

Willie B. Perry was arraigned in Circuit Court Tuesday on a charge of negligent homicide in the auto collision death last month of a Cary woman.

Perry, 38, of 3386 Ormond Rd., Springfield Township, stood mute and a plea of innocent was entered for him by Circuit Judge William J. Begg.

No date was set for this trial. Mrs. Thelma Barriger, 49, died June 13 as the result of injuries suffered in a head-on crash on Ormond road near White Lake road in Springfield Township.

According to Assistant Prosecutor Richard P. Condit, Perry's car traveled over the center line, hitting the one driven by Mrs. Barriger.

She had four passengers. Condit said Perry had no driver's license and there was evidence of drinking.

PAIR OF KINGS — King Phumiphon of Thailand is on mighty good terms with Benny Goodman, the King of Swing, right, in Goodman's New York apartment. Touring King Phumiphon, who received a gift saxophone from Goodman, got in plenty of hot licks at a jam session Tuesday night. He and the King of Swing stood toe-to-toe for almost an hour and tooted "Honey-Suckle Rose." "On the Sunny Side of the Street" and other such tunes. And the starstruck Goodman band eagerly joined the royal pair.

Doctors Experiment, Prove Noise Can Drown Out Pain

NEW YORK (U.P.)—It's true that noise can and does "drown out" pain, says two scientists who have been experimenting with dental patients and other persons in painful situations, and what's more, it is natural because of the way the brain is hooked up.

Nine dentists have performed more than 5,000 operations with noise rather than novocaine or gas deadening the pain.

Physicians have removed toe nails and delivered babies using only noise as the painkiller. By and large, the patients felt little or nothing and were delighted.

Scientists J. C. R. Licklider and A. Z. Weisz and Dr. Wallace J. Gardner, all of Cambridge, Mass., made a definitive report to the American Association for the Advancement of Science on experiments which have attracted fascinated attention over the past few years.

For the first time they offered an explanation—a theoretical one—of how it's possible for noise to drown out pain. They didn't say so, but it was also an explanation of a phenomenon which many persons, especially musicians, experience of discordant, unpleasant noises causing pain.

They noted that in the networks of brain fibers there are several places where the nerve pathways conveying noise and pain could impinge.

They assumed the noise fed into the sound pathways pushed down the "pain" which a tooth extraction (or other painful stimuli) was feeding into pain pathways.

If this is so, it could work in reverse, that is, discordant or other unpleasant sounds fed into auditory pathways could react in the pain pathways.

This has especial interest because the scientists used two kinds of sound—music and rumbling noise, like a water fall in their experiments.

The dental patients, the surgical patients, the women in labor all wore headphones and held a little box with knobs on it. With one knob, they could turn up the music; with the other, the water fall. The music, the scientists said, served principally to relax the patient.

When he or she anticipated pain or felt a twinge of pain, he or she turned up the noise knob and the pain was "drowned out." The dental patients enjoyed having control over something, the scientists reported, and when both music and noise were turned on, they had to concentrate in order to hear the former through the latter which diverted them from the dentist.

The experiments began several years ago in Dr. Gardner's office. Some 1,000 of his patients who always before had required novocaine or gas, have now been given noise instead and it was fully effective in 65 per cent.

In 25 per cent it was effective enough in that they could endure what they felt. With no other painkiller, Dr. Gardner extracted over 200 teeth "without encountering any difficulty or report of objectionable pain."

Since there was the possibility that Dr. Gardner's personality played a part in the result, eight other dentists have used noise as the pain-debender in 4,000 operations, and it worked in about 90 per cent of them, the scientists reported.

Physicians then were asked to experiment with it. The number of minor surgical procedures and deliveries in which it was used, was not specified but it was "effective in over two-thirds" of them. When it wasn't, the scientists said, "the patient was not

15 Men in Prison for Life Adopt Hong Kong Girl

WALPOLE, Mass. (U.P.)—Fifteen convicts, all serving life for murder and other assorted crimes, have "adopted" a 7-year-old Hong Kong girl.

The young life of Chan Pui Chun has been almost as unfortunate as those of the 15 Walpole state prison inmates who have agreed to send her clothing, medical supplies and $8 a month in cash.

The girl lives with her mother and sister in a room hardly bigger than a Walpole cell. The last word from her father came in 1959 when he was confined to a Communist forced labor camp on the mainland.

Prison officials said the convicts would remain anonymous, that the idea was their own and that the funds would come from the money they earn in inmate wages.

They formed a foster parents unit, as part of the New York, charitable agency which has arranged for similar "adoptions" of 94,000 youngsters.

Predict Mart Due for Uptrend

Bureau Believes Blue Chips Soon Will Make Better Showing

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Despite the failure of the market to make much headway during most of June, the prospects for an extension of the rally are still favorable, according to the International Statistical Bureau.

The markets in the coming weeks, it says, will be aided by a slightly more favorable general business trend, by more encouraging earnings comparisons with 1959, especially in the third quarter, and by a further decline in money rates.

There is a strong possibility that many of the blue chips and those of leading industries will make a slightly better showing than during the recent advance, the bureau believes.

Although results for companies ending their second quarters on June 30 are not yet in the earnings, trend still most likely to be down, according to a study by Spear and Stettin. The study, based on returns from 31 firms ending their quarter on May 31, shows aggregate share earnings at $17.25, down 11.9 per cent from the 1959 period.

Investors Research Co. says that appearance of a bullish attitude on the part of the public is reflected in the odd-lot index, could be taken as an indication that the general market has experienced a sound bottoming phase with substantial improvement due in the months ahead.

Murder Parolee Admits 4 Other Killings to Police

NEW YORK (AP) — An upstate New Yorker, out on parole for one murder, has told police he committed four others over the years, ranging from a teen-age slaying in 1936 to a double killing last week.

Details of the gruesome history unfolded Tuesday night and today as Frederick Wood, 48, related his tale of murder with sexual overtones.

He told of poisoning a teen-age sweetheart with arsenic-filled cream puffs, beating to death and stabbing a woman he never knew and mutilating two elderly men because one allegedly made an indecent proposal.

Leading to the break in the case were two notes left in the Queens apartment where the

Security Officers Mull Report Japanese Killed Aviatix in 1937

LOS ANGELES AP — An Air Force officer says security officers are evaluating what he believes to be conclusive evidence that the Japanese executed aviatix Amelia Earhart.

Miss Earhart and navigator Fred Noonan disappeared in July 1937 while crossing the Pacific on a projected round-the-world flight.

Capt. Paul Brand Jr. said Tuesday that an Air Force officer has photographic evidence and affidavits from 72 eyewitnesses to the capture and execution of Miss Earhart and Noonan.

And, said Brand, Capt. Joseph Gervais wrote him he had found, on the prewar Japanese mandate island of Saipan, "the original and only burial site of Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan."

Gervais' investigation was not an official Air Force inquiry. It was the second time in five days that unofficial investigators have claimed finding evidence that the Japanese killed the U.S. fliers.

Brand is author of a book titled "Daughter of the Sky" in which he proposes a theory that the Americans landed far off course at Saipan and were executed to keep them from telling the world that the Japanese were secretly fortifying the island.

But in Tokyo a former imperial navy captain denied that such an execution occurred.

Zenshiro Hoshina was in 1937, chief of the section of the Naval Affairs Bureau handling executions.

Frankie, Elvis After Prowse Attention They're Dancing to Juliet's Tune

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Juliet Prowse, born in Bombay and brought up in South Africa, has managed to beguile both Frank Sinatra and Elvis Presley.

She is 23, but wise and witty beyond her years. She has a puckish pretty face and a dancer's disciplined frame. Although she has been in America only 18 months, she can speak the lingo equally well with Presley's mount-to use Frank's phrase, she's a pro.

Producers and critics seem to think so, too. She drew raves for her work in her first Hollywood film, "Can-Can." "That flower because I had so little to do in it," she said.

She did enough to win the lead opposite Elvis in his comeback film, "GI Blues." Inevitably, his interest became more than professional and they did some dating. This was while Sinatra, who had been escorting her regularly, was on a trip to the Orient.

AND FRANK RETURNED

Whenever Elvis and Juliet had heart-to-hearts on the set, jokers would warn them: "Here comes Frank!" It got to be a running gag.

A couple of weeks ago, a Presley lieutenant shouted "Here comes Frank!" and got a jeering reply from his leader. But surprise—there came Frank.

"It was a panic," Juliet recalled with a giggle. "I never in the world thought that Frank would ever visit me on the set."

All of which demonstrates the pull of the chestnut-haired charmer. It's also a tribute to her diplomatic skill that she managed to avoid a clash between the two singers and is able to juggle both dates without conflict. Until lately, everybody considered her Frank's girl.

"I'm not going steady," Juliet said. "I see Frank quite a bit. We go visit the Peter Lawford or some other friends; as you know, Frank doesn't like to go out in public."

SHE'S GOT PROBLEMS

"I've also had problems with Elvis. We went to the movies twice and once to the cloisters to see Tony Bennett. I like quiet dates. I hate night clubs and I hate parties."

Her only problems now are money — "I get paid practically nothing and I'm broke by the time I pay my taxes and expenses"—and her citizenship. "India has only a small quota and I need an act of Congress to stay here."

Congress had better act or it will hear from two of the nation's biggest taxpayers.

297 Michigan Golfers Shoot at Port Huron

Only 63 Will Survive 2-Day Trials; Stevens to Defend Title

PORT HURON—A red-hot battle for survival was under way here today in the first of two days of qualifying for the annual Michigan Amateur Golf Championship.

There were 297 of Michigan's finest amateur golfers competing for 12 positions in match play, which runs Friday through Sunday at Black River Country Club.

Eighteen holes of qualifying were scheduled today and another 18 on the deck tomorrow at both Black River C.C. and nearby Port Huron Golf Club.

The low 63 qualifiers at the end of tomorrow's 18-hole round will join defending champion Bill Stevens of Western Golf and Country Club in match play elimination Friday.

Two 18-hole matches are slated daily Friday through Sunday until Michigan's 1960 State Amateur champ is determined.

A 16-man pack was touring the Port Huron Golf Club today with the remainder of the giant field tramping around the Black River course.

The two groups will swap courses Thursday to complete the 36-hole qualifying test. Stevens is exempt from qualifying.

Stevens, perhaps the longest hitting player in state amateur circles today, conducted a practice round yesterday at Black River, where match play is scheduled.

Among the entries are Flint's Gene Hunt, who won the State Public Links last year and went to the finals of the Michigan Amateur tournament before bowing to Stevens.

Detroit's John Kurach, State Amateur runner-up in 1953 and runner-up in 1957 when Paulie's Lloyd Syron won the title, shot a 74 yesterday at the Port Huron links. Syron is not entered this year.

Also shooting for a qualifying spot and considered an outstanding contender for Stevens' honors is Glenn Johnson, four-time State Amateur champ from Grosse Ile.

Johnson's fiercest competitor, anxious to regain his throne. He won the title in 1954, 1955 and 1956, then Syron broke his reign at Port Huron.

He regained the crown in 1958 before relinquishing it again last year at Black River to the long-time hitting Stevens.

Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., still holds down third place in the money list with $30,500.

However, Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C., climbed into fourth place with $29,400 to replace Gary Barber of Los Angeles. Barber dropped into fifth place with a total of $29,300.

BOSTON — Al Kaline, a frequent performer, and Frank Lary, a newcomer who wondered why he was left out, were the only Detroit Tigers selected for next week's two All-Star games.

They were among the 22 players selected to round out the American League squad by manager Al Lopez, the defending champion Chicago White Sox.

The team which meets the National League next Monday at Kansas City and again July 13 at New York, was announced yesterday by Al. President Joe Cronin.

Kaline will be making his sixth All-Star appearance. He homered in last year's first game at Pittsburgh. Lopez picked Kaline, who's batting only .240, when Cleveland asked that their tantrum-throwing center fielder, Jimmy Piersall, be left off the squad.

Lary, making his All-Star debut, had been annoyed at being left off the team in recent years when Casey Stengel managed the All-Stars. Last year he was highly critical of the New York Yankee manager after being snubbed. Lary, of course, is the league's No. 1 Yankee killer—a fact which didn't seem to impress Stengel.

The eight starters were chosen previously by a poll among all players, managers and coaches in the league.

To fill out the team, Lopez named in addition to Kaline and Lary:

Pitchers Gary Bell and Dick Sigmund of Cleveland; Jim Coates and Whitey Ford of New York; Red Dylek, Kansas City; Chuck Estrada, Baltimore; Bill Monbouquette, Boston; Camilo Pascual, Washington; and Gerry Staley and Early Wynn of Chicago.

Catchers Elton Howard, Yankee, and Sherm Lollar, White Sox, to back up starter Yogi Berra, also on the team.

Reserve infielders Luis Aparicio and Nelson Fox of the White Sox.

Also shooting for a qualifying spot and considered an outstanding contender for Stevens' honors is Glenn Johnson, four-time State Amateur champ from Grosse Ile.

Pirates Increase Lead as Friend Saves It, 5-4

By The Associated Press

The way the top clubs are using starting pitchers in relief these days, you'd think it was the final week of the pennant race in the National League.

Even the first place Pittsburgh Pirates have fallen into the trend, calling on Bob Friend for a save last night as they beat Milwaukee 5-4 in 10 innings on Rocky Nelson's second home run for a 44-game baluge over the second place Braves.

The Pirates, shut out for eight innings, hadn't called on their relief pitcher in relief all season. But it's nothing new among the Braves or the third place San Francisco Giants.

Manager Charles Dressen of the Braves has used Warren Spahn, Lew Burdette and Bob Buhl a total of 11 times, in starts and relief, in the past 13 games. And Mike McCormick, Johnny Antonelli and Jack Sanford have made 11 appearances among them in the Giants' last eight games under Clarence Sheehan.

Ironically, the handling of pitchers was one of the ruses against each of the guys Dressen and Sheehan replaced — Fred Haney the Giants, and McCormick, making his fourth appearance in six days, was no match last night for southpaw Jimmy Poirer, who allowed just four hits as Los Angeles whipped the Giants 8-0. St. Louis defeated Chicago's Cubs 3-2 and Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 2-0 behind a four-hitter by Robin Roberts.

Poires (3-6) struck out seven and walked two while beating the Giants for the sixth time in seven decisions over the past two seasons. He ended Willie Mays' hitting streak at 19 games in this one for a 21st and second shutouts over against San Francisco this season.

It was the seventh victory in nine games for the fifth-place world champions. And it was the ninth defeat in 15 games for the Giants under "interim" manager Sheehan — who yesterday was named boss for at least the rest of the season.

An eighth-inning triple by Bill White broke a 2-2 tie for the Cardinals, who knocked off Don Cardwell (4-6) in their first recent since he beat them with a no-hitter May 19. Both clubs had five hits this time.

Cardwell (4-6) walked one, struck out one and retired 19 in order. Dave Wilson of Kalamazoo, 61-62, in the second.

Some of the reluctance may hinge on prize-money. Wimbledon is regarded to be firm in its feeling that prestige, plus some modest monetary reward, should be enough for the pros if they are to play.

And if, so on what terms? The question of open tournaments is on the agenda of the two-day meeting and will have to face a vote.

Another proposal up for discussion would create a class of "authorized players," a hybrid group who would be permitted to take money and still play with the amateurs. Jean Borotra, France's old-time star, is pushing this idea to get rid of what he calls the hypocrisy of the present situation.

The tennis biggest have been informally battling these revolutionary ideas around during the two weeks of the Wimbledon tournament. The consensus seems to be that open tournaments of some kind will be admitted on an experimental basis. But the proposal for authorized players seemed to be doomed, and it may be withdrawn before a vote if preliminary discussion seems overwhelmingly against it.

Some of the pre-meeting talk has been that permission would be granted for the big four national championships — Paris, Wimbledon, Forest Hills and Australia — to accept professional entries in an open tournament.

The French federation is anxious to open the doors. There have been hints, however, that Wimbledon and Forest Hills are happy with the present arrangement and see no reason to change.

Earlier we noted that a full turn should take the shoulders around to the point where the back was turned to the target.

That is true, but the same thing can be brought about by turning until the tip of the left shoulder grazes the chin. And I think the latter method gives the golfer an easier way to check on this point.

Although about 8-6, Drayton Drug defeated Lakeland Pharmacy, 7-4, in another American pool contest. Bill Gould hurled the distance for Drayton, Lakeland's Wayne White and Vern Keough made two hits apiece.

Virgil Back With Tigers

DETROIT — Anybody remember a fellow named Ozzie Virgil? For those who don't, he was the first Negro to play with the Detroit Tigers, coming up in 1938 and bashing out five hits the first time he ever played in Briggs Stadium.

That was in June 17, 1938, and Virgil skidded after that promising debut and after playing in 49 games for Detroit that year he was returned to the farm system.

Well, the Tigers have decided to give Virgil another chance. The versatile utility man was called up yesterday from the pen by manager George Wilson.

Virgil was scheduled to arrive in Detroit before the Tigers open a five-game series tonight with the Kansas City Athletics.

To make room for him, the Tigers sent infielder Casey Wise to Denver. Wise, who was acquired by Detroit in a preseason trade with Milwaukee, was hitting only .137 in 30 games.

Bavarians, Scots Play Exhibition for BH Clinic

Residents of the area today were invited, without cost, to witness an exhibition soccer game Thursday, between a pair of top international league squads.

Detroit's Bavarians and St. Andrews Scots will give a demonstration at Bloomfield High School football field at 7 o'clock tonight, as part of a recreation feature arranged by the Eastover, Wing Lake and Pine Lake recreation groups.

Children from the three areas will have a part in the program, one of several similar clinics arranged for the summer vacation period. It is hoped to hold a tennis clinic for the next demonstration.

However, Bud Brown of Birmingham, Mich., won the 12-gauge division grand champion title from Scherer when the two had a shoot-off after both scored a perfect 160 in regular competition in the final day of the meet.

Dan Niederer, of Elmhurst, Ill., won the 10-gauge and 20-gauge division titles.

Ken Sedelky of Baldwin, Mich., won the AA championship in the 12-gauge division and Ten Hamford of Highland Park, Mich., won the championship of the 12-gauge division.

Wildlife Service which is also cooperating in the project. This marks the first time that such a program has been undertaken to record and report fish losses on a national scale and officials of the Public Health Service foresee it as being instrumental in determining the effects of pollution on the country's water resources, as required by the Federal Water Pollution Act.

The federal agency will publish quarterly and annual reports of fish kills, listing losses, locations and causes when known. These reports will be distributed to cooperating agencies, organizations and individuals who request them.

'Recreational Boating' Popular With Families

By The Press Outdoor Editor

There's probably no more rapidly expanding and family - popular summer - vacation outdoor activity than recreational boating. And in Oakland county with its many fine lakes, this family boating fun is big business — in more ways than one.

Take for instance the picture at Dodge Park No. 4 on Cass Lake. Weekends and holidays find the boaters out in force, the several launching sites scenes of orderly confusion.

There's action and speed, thrilling to watch from a jandlubber's point of view, more so from the place behind the wheel or in the seats of spray-tossing speedsters, scores of which will be towing single and double water skiers.

But that's not the side that struck this observer as one of the most enjoyable facets of boating.

BRINGS BOATERS TO OTHER ATTRACTIONS

Here and there, scattered about the inshore waters, near the big bathing beach, were outboards of all sizes, anchored, their occupants stretched out on decks or seats, just taking the sun and thoroughly enjoying the situation.

From several boats that carried three, four or five persons, an interesting procedure was noted. Husky boatmen, in swim attire, simply picked up clothed youngsters and in many instances, adults, carried them to shore, where they could sit and enjoy the colorful panorama of an exciting beach.

When the boating spectators had enough of the beach they were carried back to the waiting boat. The point is that this sort of boating is a real adjunct to most enjoyable recreation — and there's plenty of it available in this lake-dotted area. Mobility of the water transportation is the factor that makes all this possible. If the boatman doesn't like one spot he just ups anchor and moves to another more pleasant or inviting location.

MOST VISITORS APPRECIATE PARKS

Area parks have been getting a terrific play from seekers after relaxation. Even during midweek when normally the parks would be expected to be comparatively slack in attendance, the beach and wooded areas showed hundreds of bathers and picnic parties.

Most persons making use of the great privilege of resting and playing in these fine waters, fields and woods appeared properly appreciative. One incident, however, occurred at one park, where picnickers had left their lunch, clothing and other possession on a table, covered by a cloth, while they walked down to the beach.

When they returned a short time later, everything was gone.

The disappointed and angry family searched for several hours, finally found some of their possessions. But the lunch was gone.

This sort of piracy is rare, say park people, but it really stresses the fact that most all who visit these fine outdoor spots are considerate and appreciative.

Gordon Tate, Pontiac Motor plant worker, exemplifies the good old idea that to get a boy interested in his dad's recreation, start being a pal early. Tate is an avid angler. 50 young Darryl James, 7, goes fishing often, is keen about the sport, particularly since he battled and landed a 11-inch calico bass during the weekend (see accompanying photo). Dad and son took their limits of rock bass, calicos, perch and bluegills, on Voorhees lake.

Darryl will be in the Carpenter school (L.O.) 3rd grade this fall. The Tates live at 925 West Greenfield road, Lake Orion.

BIG GOLDFISH WOMAN ANGLER'S PRIZE

A rare piscatorial prize has been taken by a Pontiac feminine angler. So unusual is the fish that Mrs. Ella (Asabel) Hopkins took from Lake St. Clair, during the holiday, that she plans to have it mounted. The trophy is a 12½-inch, 1-pound, 12-ounce goldfish. "It's such a beautiful fish we've decided to get it mounted," says Mrs. Hopkins of 3635 Crooks Rd.

More Land Provided for Natural Area Preserve

LANSING — Combined efforts of three conservation-minded groups will add 80 acres next week to the recently-dedicated Natural Area Preserve on South Mainline Island.

Mrs. E. Genevieve Gillette, president of the Michigan Parks Association, will present the Conservation Commission with a deed to the lands during its July 7 meeting at the Higgins Lake conservation school.

During its May meeting, the commission established three natural areas of 1,680 acres on the Lake Michigan island, including the preserve.

For the first time, British seamen may wear the "Seadog" emblem on their ties when ashore. The emblem is an ancient heraldic device, and may be worn on ties and badges.

Conservationists OK Fishing Law Changes

LANSING — Conservation Department officials will recommend approval of five liberal changes in commercial fishing regulations by the Conservation Commission during its meeting today and Thursday at Higgins Lake conservation school.

The recommendations are based on requests made by the Michigan Fish Producers Association following 10 meetings held throughout the state in May by the Department.

One proposed change would allow commercial fishermen under special permit to use gill nets with less than two and one-half-inch mesh for taking chubs, herring, alewife, and smelt in those southern Lake Michigan waters where trawling for these so-called "industrial fish" became legal June 12.

The number of Americans covered by medical insurance has risen from 12 million in 1940 to 127 million at the end of 1959.

No Cinch for Yankees Yet—Lead Cut to One

By The Associated Press
Maybe this isn't going to be such a cinch pennant for the New York Yankees after all.

Not when they use three starting pitchers in one game and get beat. And not when they lose two in a row for the first time in more than a month, but find their American League lead whittled to one game.

That's what happened when they were held to three hits by Pete Ramos and Chuck Stobbs, beat a 3-0 lead and lost 5-3 in 10 innings at Washington Tuesday night. Art Ditmar, who had won five straight, was tagged for the loss after following Ralph Terry and Bob Turley to the mound.

After dropping only eight of 30 games in June, the Yanks now have lost two of five in July. That's not exactly a total collapse, but both leagues were to the sixth-place Senators and New York now leads second-place Cleveland, idle Tuesday, by just one game.

They're also just two lengths ahead of the third-place Baltimore Orioles—who rapped Boston 9-4 in the only other game scheduled in the AL—going into the opener of a two-game set at Baltimore tonight. The Indians, meanwhile, play six games in five days with Chicago's fourth-place White Sox, beginning with a two-game series at Cleveland.

A two-out single by Reno Bergolia and Bob Allison's follow-up 10th homer beat the Yankees and Ditmar 7-4. The Senators, who defeated New York on a bases-loaded walk with two out in the ninth Monday, scored in each of the first four frames, tying it on Faye Thurnberry's pinch single off Turley with two out in the ninth.

Stobbs (6-2), the long abused southpaw, won his third in a row with two perfect innings of relief for his 10th victory in a 14-year career. Only 31, he's lost 122 in that span and hasn't had a winning season since 1953.

All of the Yank hits came in the first five innings off Ramos, who gave up a two-run homer in the first by Roger Maris, the major league leader with 26. The Nat's controversial right-hander, tagged a spitball pitcher by Baltimore Manager Paul Richards and White Sox boss Al Lopez, was handed an automatic fine when he received a baseball warning after hitting Mickey Mantle as he led off the fourth inning.

In the Senators' third Jose Valdivia charged Terry with "duster" shouts and had to be restrained by Plate Umpire John Flaherty.

Baltimore picked up three unearned runs in the second inning at Boston against loser Tom Brewer (5-7), then clinched it with two runs in the fourth on singles by Marv Breeding, Jackie Brandt, Gene Woodling and Jim Gentile. Brandt was 3-for-3 and had three RBI.

Chuck Estrada (9-4) was the winner. He gave up just five hits and struck out seven, but walked nine and was tagged for two run homers by Vic Wertz and pinch-hitter Pumpie Green.

NEW YORK (AP) — Is the inflexible U. S. policy of qualifying for the Olympic track and field team showing signs of cracking?

Down through the years, the rule always has been: Finish 1-23 in the final Olympic trials or stay home—no exceptions, no appeals, no discussion.

There has been discussion, all right, in the past, because many a top athlete has been left off the team because of the rule.

In 1956, there was considerable hand-wringing because Dave Sime, who had just set a world record of 20 seconds flat for the 200 meters and 220 yards, pulled up lame and couldn't compete in the final trials.

So Sime read about the Games in the papers.

This time, the case of Johnny Kelley is causing a lot of head-shaking and soul-searching on the part of the Olympic big-wigs.

Kelley, a 28-year-old school teacher in Grotton, Conn., is the best marathon runner in the United States, and the only one with even a chance of winning the grudge in the Olympics.

Earlier in the year, the Olympic Track and Field Committee announced the sum total of the performances of the runners in the Boston Marathon and the National AAU Marathon would determine the three team members.

Kelley had to drop out of the Boston Marathon because of blistered feet, but won the Yonkers run. Where did that leave him? Off the team, according to the rules.

But Pinky Sober, chairman of the Olympic (and National AAU) Track and Field Committee, saw things in another light. He announced that Kelley, indeed, would be placed on the team because of his fine showing in the AAU run.

Kelley won that in 2:20:15.6, faster than the Olympic record of 2:23:02.2 set by Emil Zatopek of Czechoslovakia in 1956.

This is an almost unbelievable departure from character by Sober, who always has been one of the staunchest defenders of the 1-23 or out rule.

As things turned out, Sober was overruled by the rest of the track and field committee and Bobby Cons of Culver City, Calif., was given the third spot.

But Sober is not finished yet. "I know the rules said that a runner had to score in both the Boston and AAU marathons," said Sober today. "But personally I THINK there should be a change in the rules to allow a little leeway."

Why leave our best marathon runner home because of a technicality?

The latest report is that members of the executive board of the Olympic committee are not happy at the idea of leaving Kelley off the team. Ordinarily, the executive committee follows the recommendation of the track and field committee. But the word is that the executive committee will meet shortly and possibly turn the selections back to the track and field committee for "further study."

The report that two Los Angeles congressmen went to bat for Cons, a purple heart veteran, drew a blast from a Congressman Jim Hensley (D-N.Y.), a former Penn. quarter-miller who serves as a timer in meets all over the East.

"If congressmen and senators selected our teams," he observed, "we couldn't beat Luxembourg in a dual meet."

Dodger Pitcher Fined $50 for Beating Spencer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Larry Sherry was a bit unhappy when informed he had been fined $50 for beating the Cards' Darrel Spencer with a pitch Monday at St. Louis.

The fine was automatic because he had been warned by umpire Gus Peiskoudas.

proclaiming his innocence Tuesday, the Dodger right-hander said:

"It's a lousy rule, that automatic fine gimmick. I suppose the next thing they'll do is put bigger helmets on the batters so they'll be bigger targets."

Mixed Two-Ball Event Saturday

Scotch Foursome Golf Tournament in Annual Run at City Links

One of the most popular golf events sponsored annually by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, the Mixed Two-Ball Four-some, will be held this Saturday at Pontiac Municipal golf course.

The 18-hole Scotch Foursome tournament will begin at 12 o'clock noon. Play is conducted on an alternate shot medal play basis by the two partners.

Mrs. Zedah DeBolt, six-time City Women's Medal Play champion, and partner Stan Savage will be back Saturday to defend their 1959 title.

Also among the entries are Mrs. Chris Tate, one half of last year's runnerup team, and Russ Hickson, her new playing partner this time.

Entries this year will probably exceed last year's 26 teams if present interest continues, according to course manager Cresse Barner.

Pairings and starting times will be posted only for those teams filing entry before 6 p.m. Thursday. Post entry will be accepted.

Say what you will about women drivers but, in Connecticut at least, they make better pedestrians.

Merry Mixture in Softball

There was a merry blend of good pitching and solid hitting last night in the four-game City League softball program at Beaudette and Northside parks.

Marv Fuller of O'Neil Realty twirled a two-hit shutout at Beaudette as the real estate squad defeated Huron Bowl 4-0.

In a National League game at Northside, Fred Cox spun a two-hit shutout as Phillip's Sporting Goods walloped Universal Oil 10-0.

Herik's Auto Parts and Blue Star Drive-In each collected eight hits in National division action at Northside, but the Blue Star boys made better use of their safeties plus four Herik errors for a convincing 10-5 triumph.

Dick Cork of Blue Star and Herik's Don Quackenbush had three safe blows apiece.

Langdon's Bolt Livery downed First Presbyterian, 6-4, in a National loop game on the Beaudette diamond. Red Morgan made two hits for the winners.

Just Plain Ole Smith

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Johnny Smith, of Los Angeles, knocked out Cheto Hernandez, of Mexico City, Tuesday night with a right to the jaw in 1:38 of the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout.

Smith weighed 153, Hernandez 160.

Some Industries to Flourish

Plants to Slide Low Through July

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — July is starting with every sign of being the year's low point in industry. Some think August will see a good recovery. Others say we'll have to wait until September for much of a gain.

The recreation and travel industries will boom this month and the suppliers of gasoline, tires, clothing, food and recreation equipment for hordes of vacationists will flourish.

But in many mills and factories output will be sharply cut—some because of vacation shutdowns of their own, but more because of a drop in incoming orders.

Steelmen fear that the ratio of oil men concentrate on how to re- of a sizable upturn in the fall. output to capacity this month may dip into the 40s and average somewhere in the 50s.

The trade publication, Iron Age, says all hopes have faded for setting a record in production this year to top the 117 million tons of 1959. When 1960 started, most steel executives were confidently predicting a record this year of 125 to 130 million tons.

Mills must operate at an average of 70 per cent in the second half of the year if tonnage is to go to 114 million and Iron Age says that 113 million tons is the absolute best that most hope for now.

While orders lag, many steel mills will halt operations this have been by the auto makers' month for needed repairs and re- the best pickup in orders by the building. Nikita Shortens Austrian Visit

Report Leaders There Tense About Red View of Nation's Neutrality

VILJACI, Austria (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev cut a day off his tour of the Austrian provinces today as Austrian leaders reportedly grew anxious about the Soviet view of this country's neutrality.

Khrushchev plans to return to Vienna tonight, skipping visits to several factories in provincial Styria.

The program was changed, Austrian sources said, to give Austria and Soviet leaders more time to talk. Khrushchev is expected to leave for Moscow Friday.

Austrians were alarmed by Khrushchev's statement two days ago in Salzburg that the Soviet Union "will not remain idle if Austrian neutrality is violated."

CALLED HALF-THREAT

Politicians and newspapers in Vienna described that as a unilateral guarantee that contained a half-threat.

Chancellor Julius Raab may ask Khrushchev what the Soviets would consider a violation of neutrality.

Austria considers itself neutral only in a military sense, not economically or politically. All of its interests are pro-Western.

Dems Face Very Sober Convention

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Democrats, who take pride in belonging to the party that repealed prohibition, are faced with a crisis of vital proportions.

As convivial a bunch of two-fisted drinkers as any other political party, the Democrats won't even permit the party of the barons to buy a beer on the premises.

RAFT OF RESTRICTIONS

A raft of restrictions imposed by the state-countycity commission that runs the Sports Arena, site of the 1960 convention.

And when they go next door to the huge outdoor Coliseum for the final session and the Democratic presidential nominee's acceptance speech, it will be a time for sober reflection. The same rules apply there, too.

Local Amvet Auxiliary Wins Comedy Trophy

The woman's auxiliary of the Michigan Amvet's Jimmy Day Post No. 12 took first place recently in the county's division of the Amvet parade during their state convention in Saginaw.

The auxiliary won the Ernestine White traveling trophy for the third consecutive year, which gives them permanent possession of the prize.

CONVENTION PREVIEW—Warming up for the Democratic show in Los Angeles next week, backers of Adlai Stevenson hoist huge banners and Launa Pickard of Burbank, Calif., struts around before them. He is whipping up enthusiasm for his candidate at the hotel in Los Angeles that will be the convention headquarters. James E. Doyle, director of the Stevenson campaign committee, said Tuesday that it would be a numerical impossibility for either Sen. Kennedy or Sen. Johnson to win the nomination on an early ballot.

Congo Soldiers Pull Off Rally

Demand White Belgian Officers Quit but Mob Disperses Quickly

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo. (AP)—About 200 soldiers of the Congo army demonstrated for several hours today in front of the infant African nation's Parliament building, demanding removal of all their white Belgian officers.

Other soldiers mutinied Tuesday night in Thysville, 75 miles southwest of the capital, and imprisoned their white officers.

The demonstrations in Leopoldville at one point reached up to the barracks of the Belgian commander, Gen. Emile Janssens, and seized his pistol.

They finally marched back to their barracks after speeches by Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba and other government ministers.

The demonstration was confined largely to the Parliament building and the barracks. Other life in the capital continued much as usual.

There were reports that the rebellious soldiers also want higher pay.

The mutinous soldiers were armed only with their heavy belts which they carried in their hands.

The force is Lumumba's only means for maintaining order and authority in the Congo. It has been trained by white officers and is one of the strongest military forces in Central Africa.

In recent days the force has patrolled the main areas of Leopoldville putting down intertribal fighting. The soldiers have worked long hours, and officers said that many of their men had been complaining.

The force has no commissioned Congo officers. It has been invaluable to the Belgians in maintaining order in this nation where intertribal quarrelling and killing have existed for years and have flared again in the political uncertainties of independence.

The Belgian officers are renouncing their positions at the invitation of the Congo government.

Hulan Jack Trial Goes to Jury Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The case of Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack goes to the jury today after a charge by General Sessions Judge Joseph A. Sarat.

Defense and prosecution summations Tuesday gave widely varying pictures of Jack, highest ranking Negro municipal officer holder in the nation.

Jack, 32, is charged with violating the conflict-of-interest provisions of the city charter by accepting a $4,000 apartment remodeling job from real estate operator Sidney J. Ugar at a time when Ugar was doing business with the city.

Jack also is charged with conspiring to obstruct justice by concealing the facts of the $4,000 deal from a grand jury.

Conviction could bring Jack one year in prison and a $500 fine on each of four counts in the indictment. He also would automatically lose his $25,000-a-year job from which he suspended himself pending outcome of the trial.

Age Is No Problem for 'Junior' Rooney

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—You've seen him a lot on TV and marveled. Apparently you'll see him a lot more.

Snowy-haired, but still "Junior," Pat Rooney celebrates his 80th birthday this week with a midnight celebrities' dance contest at Roseland—and he promises to outfoot all the 70-year-olds and even kiddies like Jackie Gleason.

"I'm the oldest guy in show business and been in it the longest—70 years," says Pat... who indeed did start at 9... singing a song from a balcony of the old Sam T. Jacks theater in Chicago for a salary of a few cents.

"I never worry—that's why I feel so good," Pat "Junior" told me while having dinner—of consomme, coffee and ice cream.

"I never upset myself," he explained. "If a guy wants to argue, I say, 'O.K., buddy, you're right.' Maybe I don't have another job booked. My wife'll moan, 'What do we do now?'"

"Don't worry, I'll say. That's my agent up there." He thumbs ceiling-ward. "Before the day's over, the phone'll ring."

Gus Edwards and Al Tolson were "young kids" to Pat. He knew Sophie Tucker when she was a teen-ager.

Pat trains on cigars—about 12 a day—but gave up drinking.

"I was sort of a handshaker at the old Rogers' Corner on 8th Ave. One morning I looked in the mirror and said, 'What the hell am I drinking for?' I quit."

Scientific Whodunit Fails to Pass Close Scrutiny

By FRED DANTZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—I roll up the sleeves of my lab coat, push aside some test tubes and place Diagnostic Unknown under my little old microscope.

My finding: This one-hour mystery-detective series, which opened on CBS-TV last night with a story called "A Case of Radiant Wine," suffered from an overdose of informality, people, detachment and plot-padding.

The series, a summer replacement for Gary Moore's variety hour, aims at showing how civilian pathologists, working in a well-equipped laboratory, can help the police solve tricky cases through science.

It's probably a gripping real-life occupation but in last night's show, there was too much evidence that curlicues were inserted simply to kill time, display cuteness and, I suppose, to hype the story. What came out was a long, drippy hum of molasses.

The star of the show is Dr. Daniel Coffee, played by Patrick O'Neal who sports a little league-scaled Fidel Castro beard, speaks softly, ambles around with impressive authority, has a pleasing smile and a quiet sense of humor. And he's a handy mit der dukes, too.

He is assisted by the pretty young lab assistant, played by Phyllis Newman; Martin Hudson as a teen-ager who does odd jobs in the lab and comes on like Kookie; and Cal Bellini as an "exchange pathologist from India named Muttal Mookerjee. There's also Detective Capt. Max Ritter, played with authority by Chester Morris.

These five comprise the regular cast and in last night's story the five regulars were provided with enough material to slow down the story substantially. Five's a crowd, I'm afraid.

The cast is, however, made up of attractive performers. And the videotaped production managed to include some outdoor scenes—once in an auto-wrecking lot, then to a highway for a variation of the "chicken" game, and to a rambling suburban-type lab. This attribute of the show gave it a fresh, unusual look.

The Secret of Freedom, the TV play by Archibald MacLeish that last week won awards from seven educational organizations, including the National Education Assn., is being repeated on NBC-TV Saturday, July 16, in the "World Wide 60" slot.

Drumbeater, a western comedy series that was to have starred Tony Randall in the role of a frontier press agent, has been shelved.

Silents Please, a series presenting clips from silent film classics, will replace the vacationing Ernie Kovacs' Thursday night show on ABC-TV starting Aug. 4. Ernie's panel show returns Oct. 27.

Red Skelton has canceled a projected overseas tour that would have seen him taping shows in Tokyo and Moscow.

'Truman Pushes Kennedy Right Into Nomination'

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Cleveland Press, in a page-one article Tuesday said: "Kennedy is in Truman put him there during the weekend. Truman didn't, of course, intend it that way. The ex-President both miscalculated his strategy and overestimated his influence."

"He waited purposely until almost the eve of the Los Angeles convention to try to knock the young Massachusetts senator out of the race."

"He may have hit the July 4 free but it was Jack Kennedy who really set it off. Truman simply gave Kennedy the perfect nationwide audience from which to do a masterful last-minute job of campaigning."

In 1936 Truman sank the rich New York governor's presidential chances at the convention by being for Averell Harriman. This time in reverse, he virtually cinched Kennedy's nomination by being against him.

Plant to Leave Lexington, Plans for Marysville

PORT HURON (UPI)—Great Lakes Products Co., which manufactures fishing equipment, announced today it plans to move its operation from Lexington in San Francisco County to Marysville in St. Clair County.

At the same time the firm said it has sold its Lexington building to two Grange Pointe men, J. H. Nolan and G. R. Root, for about $150,000. Nolan and Root are leaving the plant to the Duncan Manufacturing Co., of Roseville.

Great Lakes said it expects to begin operating at Marysville by Oct. 1. It employs about 150. The Duncan firm, which makes metal auto moldings, expects to begin limited operations in the Lexington plant this month.

Old Theater to Be Renamed Brooks Atkinson

NEW YORK (AP)—A Broadway theater is being renamed the Brooks Atkinson in honor of the New York Times' recently retired drama critic.

The theater, formerly called the Mansfield and used as a television studio in recent years, is at 236 W. 47th St. It will be refurbished for a Sept. 12 opening as a legitimate theater.

Atkinson said the naming was a great honor not only to me but to the profession of drama criticism. But, he added, "It's a lucky thing that since I am now a retired critic, I shall never have to review a play in a theater that bears my name."

Calls for Labor Talks With Kelsey-Hayes Unit

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Federal Mediator William Rose has called for a resumption of contract talks between the Heintz Division of Kelsey-Hayes Co. of Detroit and the striking United Auto Workers.

The strike involving 1,300 production workers, began June 25 after the UAW won an NLRB election as bargaining agent at the local plant and then was unable to agree on a contract with the company.

Rose, in issuing the call for talks today, said Heintz held more than 10 million dollars in defense contracts with the Air Force and Navy in the missile fields.

Cuban Cabinet OKs Grab of All U.S. Property

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's President Osvaldo Dorticos or the Cabinet today authorized him to prime minister to take over any expropriate all American property owned by U.S. companies in Cuba and pay for it only if it is citizens in Cuba "when the United States buys sugar—not deemed necessary in the national interest—Cuban sugar—at premium interest."

The law also provides for expropriation of companies in which the U.S. citizens may have "interest" beyond midnight, authorized or participation.

An example is the British-Dutch Shell oil refinery whose operations—along with the U. S. Esso and Texaco refineries—was taken over by the government last week.

The Cabinet said the expropriation was authorized because of the "constantly aggressive attitude" of the U.S. government and particularly the authority given President Eisenhower by Congress to reduce Cuba's sugar sales to the United States.

Underlying the retaliatory nature of the action, the decree promised compensation for the expropriated property directly to American sugar purchases.

It said—the American owners would be paid in 2 per cent, 30-31,000,000 tons, and sugar industry sources in Washington expected Eisenhower to cut it perhaps 700,000 tons. That would put American purchases 600,000 tons below the figure at which the first dollar, would go into the expropriation fund.

The decree also put a super-premium price on Cuban sugar before the American owners can be repaid. The United States has been paying about 3 1/2 cents a pound, or about 2 1/2 cents above the world market price.

The decree specified that expropriation edicts could not be applied.

It also contained what appeared to be a retroactive clause stating that it annulled all "legal dispositions and regulations that are opposed to the application of this law."

It was assumed that under the provision payment for the vast American holdings in sugar and cattle lands previously seized would be a retroactive clause stating (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Coolant Leak Shuts French Atom Pile

The accident occurred at the Marcoule installation in southern France. No one working at the plant suffered any radiation and there was no danger, officials said.

Lyndon Backers Eye Nomination by Fifth Ballot

Concede They'll Have Big Task Overtaking Sen. Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's campaign forces said today they aim to land the Democratic presidential nomination for him no later than the fifth convention ballot. They conceded that overtaking the pace-setting Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts represents a large-sized order. But Oscar L. Chapman, co-chairman of the Citizens - for - Johnson campaign organization, issued the flat prediction that "we'll make it."

The Kennedy drive, Chapman said, "has gone about as far as it can go," adding that this is short of the 751 votes necessary to win the nomination.

Johnson formally announced his long-known candidacy only Tuesday and told a televised news conference "I expect to be nominated."

The Texas senator said his backers have told him a third-ballot victory is possible, but he added he felt no one can predict with certainty of which ballot the decision will come.

Chapman said the third ballot "will be crucial," and added in an interview: "That will be the key vote. The break in Kennedy's strength will begin to take place on the third ballot."

He said the fourth or fifth ballot should bring a Johnson victory, depending on the sharpness of what happens on the third.

Johnson himself said he does not know how many first-ballot votes he will have, but "my friends tell me I will have in excess of 500 and my leading opponent will have less than 500, and I believe this is correct."

The latest Associated Press poll of delegates shows Kennedy with 54 1/2 votes as the front runner, and Johnson next with 231. Others are uncommitted or spread among the big haul housing the reactor, dates.

Line Up to Register for Primary

BEAT THE DEADLINE — Here're some of the hundreds of Pontiac voters who registered yesterday at the Saginaw-Huron street booth. Hundreds more signed up at City Hall. There were 73 potential voters in line at City Hall at 8 p.m. — deadline for registering for the Aug. 2 primary. All were allowed to register.

Rejects Charge U.S. Position Deteriorated

Also Accuses Nikita of Crude Attempts at Political Interference

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today rejected New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's contention that America's military strength has deteriorated.

At a news conference, the President also accused Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev of very crude attempts to interfere in this country's presidential campaign.

Eisenhower voiced confidence that neither Democrats nor the Republicans will find the Kremlin leader's advice of any value.

As for Rockefeller, Eisenhower was reminded that the Republican administration has been critical of the administration in the economic as well as military fields, and has contended that U.S. military strength has declined while the Soviet Union's has increased.

Since 1953 he has sent eight bridge bills to Congress. Five, he said, were ruled by Congress and three increased in each case in election years.

The President said that, by and by (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Hayes Jones Given Hero's Welcome

Hayes Jones, Pontiac's Olympic contender, received an impromptu hero's welcome last night.

The modest, friendly young athlete received a round of applause from the City Commission and plaudits from Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

"Pontiac is exceptionally proud of you, whether you win or lose in Rome, and we're convinced you'll win," said Rowston.

In the Olympic games, it was noted Jones will be representing: 1. Pontiac — his hometown; 2. Michigan — Jones is the only member of the U.S. Olympic team from Michigan; 3. And the U.S.

Jones was accompanied to City Hall by Postmaster William W. Donaldson.

Jones, a Pontiac native, qualified for the team Saturday in Palo Alto, Calif., when he placed third in the 110-meter hurdles.

Jones began his track career at Pontiac Central High School and continued it at Eastern Michigan College in Ypsilanti, where he is a senior.

WILL WED SATURDAY — Jones, 21, and Miss Odene Turner, 22, of Baldwin, will be married Saturday evening in Idlewild. The bride, a graduate of Eastern Michigan College, is a teacher in Detroit.

The couple plans to return to Pontiac before leaving for Eugene, Ore., July 23. The Olympic training camp is there.

Jones will leave for Europe early in August for further training in Switzerland prior to the start of the games Aug. 25.

Jones is no stranger to Europe. National Amateur Athletic Union sent him there in 1957 after his Pontiac Central graduation and again in 1958. On the 1958 trip he visited Russia.

Jones wants to teach in Detroit for a semester after his college graduation in February.

The couple plans to move to California next summer.

Sealed In for 'A-Attack' Surge at Close

Sect Expects to Be Only Survivors

BEAVER, Ariz. (AP) — Members of a small religious sect apparently are barricaded in their sealed homes and church awaiting an atomic attack from which they expect to be the only survivors, a sheriff's officer reports.

Known as the Full Gospel Assembly, the group is believed to include about 20 families. Their homes and church are close together on the outskirts of the small southern Arizona town.

"It's like a bomb down there," Deputy Sheriff Ray Coffey said Tuesday night. "There isn't a soul around, not even a dog. They don't answer their telephones or their doors."

In the past couple of weeks they've bought at least $30,000 to $50,000 of food. I saw some of them load about $25,000 worth into a truck at a wholesale house in Tucson myself.

"The neighbors tell me they carried the food into their homes until, after midnight Monday, they then they have sealed themselves in because they sure aren't around now."

"All of the windows and doors on the houses are covered with newspapers and tape. They've even covered their evaporative coolers and plugged keyholes. I guess they're afraid of radiation or something."

From what I gather, they figure they'll be the only ones left after this attack."

Authorities became aware of the situation Tuesday when Warren Burke of Benson complained that his wife and four children were missing.

Burke, who is not a member of the sect, told officers his wife recently had talked vaguely about the church, the world's end and atomic attacks.

Coffey was sent to investigate, but when he tried to get a response by knocking on the church and the homes no one answered.

"I don't think there's anything we can do about it," said Coffey. "We've had no trouble with them in any way. And, after all, it's their business."

Pocketbook Issues Push Ahead for Dem Platform

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Domestic "bread and butter" issues may overshadow foreign affairs in the coming campaign, a number of Democratic platform drafters predicted today.

A canvass of resolutions committee members indicated a "majority feel" the voters would be intensely interested in issues relating to:

Medical care for the aged, farm aid, housing, aid to education and economically depressed areas, unemployment and other pocketbook proposals.

This was true, most agreed, despite public attention paid recently to the U2 plane incident, the collapse of the summit conference, the withdrawal of President Eisenhower's invitation to visit Japan and an intensification of the Cold War.

The committee is meeting in advance of the convention to weigh the pros and cons of various issues before coming to grips with the task of writing a party campaign document for presentation to the presidential nominating convention next week.

It is difficult to dramatize foreign issues, said Carl Rice, veteran Kansas Democratic leader.

At Tuesday's opening session of the committee the domestic issues had the better of it. Committee members debated at times with some heat—with spokesmen of the American Farm Bureau Federation and the American Medical Association on their proposals for farm and medical care plans.

The Farm Bureau urged the committee to put the party on record as promising to do away with the high farm price supports and crop controls.

Weather'll Be Good, but Showers Loom

It'll be mostly fair with little temperature change tonight and tomorrow, the weatherman says. A low of 54 degrees is expected tonight. Thursday the mercury will climb to 80.

Temperatures will average about three degrees below the normal high of 83 and low of 62 for the next five days. A slow warming trend beginning Friday will continue over the weekend.

Precipitation will average about one-tenth of an inch in scattered showers Sunday or Monday.

North winds at 10 m.p.h. at 10 p.m. this morning will increase to 15 miles, diminishing again this evening.

Fifty-one degrees at 5 o'clock was the lowest temperature recorded with the high farm price supports and crop controls.

Philip's Opinion of Picasso Art: 'Ha, Ha, Ha'

LONDON (AP)—Prince Philip, a buff for science, cricket and polo, spent 32 minutes surveying the 65 years of artist Pablo Picasso's career Tuesday night and 15 minutes at the show table that accompanied it. "Ha, ha, ha," was the major comment on the art from the husband of Queen Elizabeth II. What he thought about the food—just Spanish hash of chicken and rice called paella—was not reported.

The prince was the honor guest at the opening of the Tate Gallery's summer show of Picasso's

The 268 paintings and other works from private and public collections in 12 countries, are the biggest showing of the noted Spanish artist's work ever assembled. The artist stayed home at his chateau in France, keeping up the prodigious output which has made him a millionaire at 73.

1st New Red Test Rocket Travels 8,000 Miles

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets have started their new series of long-range rocket tests to pave the way for attempts at Mars, Venus or putting a man into space.

The first of the new rockets was fired into the central Pacific Tuesday, traveling 8,000 miles "in exact accordance with the present program," the Soviets said.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the shot "marks the beginning of the testing of new types of powerful, multistage carrier rockets for space exploration." It made no mention of the rocket's military potential as an intercontinental carrier for nuclear weapons.

The final stage of the rocket—a dummy of the instrument or man-carrying chamber that would be used in a space probe—reached the water surface in close proximity to the target, Tass said.

The range claimed was 850 miles more than that reported for the rocket the Soviets test-fired into the central Pacific in January. The Soviets said that one came within a mile of the target.

The United States holds the distance record for rocket shots. A U.S. Atlas ballistic missile traveled 9,000 miles on May 20 from Cape Canaveral into the Indian Ocean. The Defense Department said the Atlas fell in a pre-selected target area.

Of the latest test, Tass said the rocket's dummy last stage had been "adapted for passage through dense layers of the atmosphere." This could indicate that the Soviets are preparing to try to bring back and recover a nose cone from outer space, a necessary preliminary to sending a man into space.

As in the first Soviet Pacific rocket test, this series was announced well in advance. Tass repeated previous warnings to ships to stay out of the impact area until the shots are concluded by July 31.

The target area is a 50,000-

Real Old Indian Dugout Found in Michigan Lake

KALAMAZOO (UPI)—A 100-year-old authentic Indian dugout has been presented to Michigan State University by Kalamazoo City museum director Alex Praus. The coffin, carved out of a log 17 feet long and 30 inches wide, was discovered last week by Thomas Chudsk, Kalamazoo, a laboratory technician for the Upjohn Co.

Chudsk was fishing at Big Sugar Lake when he discovered the waterlogged dugout. He presented it to director Praus who, confirmed its age, then offered it to MSU, because the Kalamazoo museum already has a dugout canoe.

Louisiana VIP Dem Faces Drunk Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Louisiana's Democratic National Committee member Camille Gravel faces a jury trial on a intoxication charge.

Gravel, arrested when he stepped off an airliner that brought him here Saturday for the Democratic National Convention, pleaded innocent Tuesday in municipal court.

The nattily dressed committee man told reporters:

"The matter is being investigated. It was a mistake. I feel confident that will be shown conclusively at the proper time."

Police were waiting for the airliner after the pilot radioed that someone had taken a box of ready-mixed martinis. The stewardess said Gravel's unidentified seat partner took the six small bottles of liquor but shared them with Gravel.

Gravel, free on $21 bail pending trial July 13, said he has made a strong protest to the airline. He said he was cold sober when he got off the airliner from Dallas.

Addison's Illness Afflicts Glands, Usually Fatal

NEW YORK (UPI)—Addison's disease, which has been introduced into the current political campaign, is an affliction of the adrenal glands which is usually fatal. The disease is characterized by a brownish discoloration of the skin, emaciation, progressive anemia, low blood pressure, gastrointestinal disturbance and extreme debilitation. It usually is tubercular in origin.

attacking disturbing the production of the internal secretions of the suprarenal, or adrenal, glands. It is commoner to males than to females.

The most widely used medication for Addison's disease is cortisone and hydrocortisone, according to a Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center spokesman. Treatment includes promoting the general state of health plus medication.

Financier Bernard Baruch got 25 cents a week allowance while a student in College of the City of New York; 10 cents extra for care in bad weather.

They said also that it may have been in expectation of a slightly bearish crop report to be released later today.

All losses were limited to minor fractions during the first several minutes. In the first export business of any consequence in several days, India took about 5 1/2 million bushels of wheat.

Adlai In on 7th Vote, Says Sen. Monroney

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney, scoffing at doubts about Adlai Stevenson's "electability," said yesterday that the two-time presidential candidate can win the Democratic nomination again.

The Oklahoma Democrat, here to drum up delegate support for Stevenson, predicted a Kennedy between Sen. John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson—and a possible Stevensonbury on the seventh or eighth ballot, as the Democratic National Convention.

3 Record Distributors Accused of Payola

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Trade Commission today accused three more record distributors of giving payola to radio and TV disc jockeys and other employees of broadcasting stations.

Named in separate complaints were the B&H Distributing Co., and the ARC Distributing Co., both of Detroit, and the General Distributing Co., Inc., of Baltimore.

The complaints alleged each company made payoffs for the purpose of increasing sales of its records through broadcasting.

The records were given 30 days in which to answer the complaints.
