Deny Holding 3,404 POWs

Reds Say They Never Captured Most Lost Men

U. N. Rejects Answer as Communists Demand Accounting for 98,742

PANMUNJOM (AP) —The Communists said today they "never captured" most of the 3,404 Allied troops for whom the U. N. Command has demanded an accounting and the Allies angrily called the reply "totally unsatisfactory and unacceptable."

At the same time, the Communists demanded an accounting for 98,742 North Koreans and Chinese they said were captured by the Allies and are missing.

The long-awaited Red answer was to the Sept. 9 Allied demand that the Communists produce the 3,404 men—including more than 900 Americans—or disclose what happened to them.

"Most of them have never been captured at all," said North Korean Lt. Gen. Lee Sang Cho at a meeting of the Joint Military Armistice Commission.

U. S. Maj. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, senior Allied delegate, promptly replied:

"Your statement. . . is totally unsatisfactory and unacceptable. None of the people listed has been repatriated. None has been reported by you as having died or escaped. Based on statements emanating from your side, all were in custody at some time . . ."

The men on the list were neither released nor reported dead, the U. N. Command said.

The Communists charged that the Allied roster was "crudely manufactured without having been carefully checked at all."

They said 519 men already had been returned to the Allied Command and 380 have long been accounted for in rosters submitted to the Allies as "released at the front, escaped or dead."

As to the rest, the Communists said, some refused repatriation

Lions Sell Flanagan

DETROIT (AP)—The National Football League Champion Detroit Lions sold veteran linebacker Dick Flanagan to the Pittsburgh Steelers today for an undisclosed amount of money.

It brought Detroit's total player list down to 38 with the deadline for cutting the list to 33 set for 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Sets New Swim Record

ASHORE IN AFRICA — Emerging from the surf on the African coast after swimming the Strait of Gibraltar yesterday, Florence Chadwick steadies herself on the rocks. The plucky San Diego girl, twice-conqueror of the English Channel, broke all records by swimming the strait in five hours, six minutes. She entered the water at Punta Marroqui, Spain, ending the swim at Punta Lanchones, Spanish Morocco.

Officials Here Skeptical

Beria Reported in Hiding, Hoping for Asylum in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government officials took a highly skeptical attitude today toward a report—under investigation by Senate agents—that Lavrenty Beria, deposed Soviet secret police boss, has escaped from Russia and hopes for political asylum in the United States.

These were developments in what would be, if true, one of the most sensational cloak-and-dagger incidents of generations:

1. Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) publicly acknowledged for the first time that his senate investigations subcommittee has received a report that a mysterious figure, in hiding in a non-Communist country, claims to be Beria.

He said "I am not convinced" and declined to say what his subcommittee is doing in the matter.

2. A Senate source said a subcommittee agent who would know whether the man is in fact Beria has gone to contact him and should make a report in a couple of days.

This source said the man who calls himself Beria had been contacted by agents of McCarthy's subcommittee and had sought political asylum in the United States in exchange for disclosure of Russian secrets.

Locate Market in County Center

Will Be Part of Farm Activities Group on West Boulevard

Site for Oakland County's new farmers market was shifted to the county service center when Oakland County Board of Supervisors met today.

The board, which had formerly settled on an Oakland Avenue site, decided today to locate the market on county land which straddles Pontiac's West Boulevard city limits line.

The change was suggested by the board's market committee, headed by Troy Township Supervisor Norman R. Barnard, who said the agricultural extension and buildings and grounds committees also had approved the move.

Barnard explained that market planners hope for a farm center including the market, agricultural extension and 4-H activities.

At Barnard's suggestion, supervisors authorized the committee to spend $1,356.69 to design a market at the service center.

New Courthouse Plans Await Court Ruling

Muskegon Decision May Clear Way to Finance Proposed Building

Planners of Oakland County's new courthouse have finished preliminary work and are awaiting a Michigan Supreme Court decision on a Muskegon case before hiring an architect.

This progress was given to Oakland County Board of Supervisors today by H. Lloyd Clawson of Royal Oak, chairman of the board's special building committee.

Clawson said, however, that Pontiac city and Waterford Township have not reached any agreement about annexing county service center property to Pontiac.

The service center, which straddles Pontiac's West boulevard boundary line, has been chosen as the site for the $4,500,000 building.

The Muskegon case being watched by county officials is essentially a test case to try out Michigan Act. 31 of 1948.

This law lets a county board of supervisors pay for a new courthouse by creating a separate "authority" to handle financing. Under this law, the authority issues revenue bonds, constructs the building, and charges the county departments rent to pay off the bonds. No vote of the people is called for.

Clawson said he has been told the case will be considered shortly after the Supreme Court starts its October term on Oct. 6. A decision is expected about Nov. 6, he added.

Clawson's committee already has narrowed down some 24 architects' applications, based on a survey of space needs, to a "comparative few." He said his committee will recommend an architect shortly after the Supreme Court decision is made.

Ten Are Killed in One Smashup

Wedding Party, Truck Driver Die in 3-Vehicle Crash in California

BAKER, Calif. (AP) — A flaming three-vehicle crash on a desert highway yesterday wiped out a wedding party in a crowded sedan and left a toll of 10 dead in one of the worst traffic accidents in California history.

All nine persons in the wedding party were killed, including a young couple bound for Las Vegas, Nev., to be married. The driver of a truck laden with gasoline was killed and a sailor hitchhiking a ride with him was injured. The driver of another truck escaped without injury.

* * *

The crash created a ghastly scene of burning wreckage and bodies and tied up traffic on U. S. Highway 91 more than three hours. The accident occurred on the principal route between Los Angeles and Las Vegas, east of here.

Deputy Coroner Edward P. Doyle said the dead were identified tentatively as: Thomas Graham Jr., 24, and his intended bride, Jean Lindsey, 21; Claude Lindsey, about 45, driver of the car; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lindsey, about 25 and 23; Linda Lindsey, 4; Virginia Lindsey, 2, and Joyce Lindsey, 14, and the driver of one of the trucks, John J. Jones, 44, Las Vegas, Nev.

Another body in the sedan has not yet been identified.

* * *

The sailor hitch-hiker in the truck was Howard Heiffus, Valleyheart Dr., Sherman Oaks, Calif., who suffered head injuries and had his clothes burned off. The only other survivor of the crash was Walter C. Pope, 28, El Monte, Calif., driver of the other truck.

Huge Toll Lists 27 Dead in State

Wife of Rep. Herbert, Michigan Farm Board Member Killed

By THE UNITED PRESS

At least 27 persons, including a a newly-appointed member of the State Agriculture Commission, were killed in one of Michigan's most awesome non-holiday weekend traffic death tolls.

The toll—only two under that recorded during the long Labor Day weekend—also included Mrs. Earl Herbert, 48-year-old wife of State Rep. Earl Herbert of Ecorse.

In addition, three Michigan residents were killed in an Indiana highway crash.

State police headquarters at East Lansing said wet highways and poor visibility contributed to the rash of accidents.

John J. MacInnis, 66, who was named to the Agriculture Commission by Gov. G. Mennen Williams only two weeks ago, drowned at noon Sunday when his car crashed through a guard rail in his home town of Sault Ste. Marie and plunged into a canal.

State police said he apparently was trying to park his car when it backed through the rail and fell into the 25-foot-deep canal.

MacInnis, the only Upper Michigan member on the commission, was a member of the Upper Peninsula State Fair board of managers for 14 years and served two years as the board's secretary-manager.

Mrs. Herbert was killed late Saturday when a car in which she was riding crashed into the abutment of a bridge over the Rouge River. She was returning from Willow Run Airport, where she had accompanied her husband who boarded a plane for a New York convention.

Killed near Angola, Ind., were Mrs. Rosanna Tuesdell, 28, of Linden, Mich.; her son, Raymond, 6, and her mother, Mrs. Celeste Troxwell, 45, of Jackson. Indiana State Police said their car ran

Mystery Snake Is Identified by Taxidermist

Farmington's mystery snake was identified Saturday as a boa constrictor by a taxidermist, Marvin Guntzvieller, at Ten Mile and Taft roads.

Guntzviller said there was no doubt as to the identity of the large, brown-checkered snake which was killed Friday night at the Rainbow Park Motel.

He said boa constrictors are usually kept indoors in wintertime because they easily catch cold, and this particular snake evidently escaped from a carnival.

The snake, seven feet long and weighing 10 pounds, was killed by Donald Cox, 18, a nephew of Mrs. Vance Kefgen, part-owner of the motel.

Mrs. Kefgen said two men whom she believed were carnival employes stayed at her motel while the Michigan State Fair was in progress.

Russia Proposes U.N. Ban on Making of A, H Bombs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia called upon the U. N. today to impose an unconditional ban on the production of atomic and hydrogen weapons without delay.

The Soviet proposal was laid before the 60-nation General Assembly during a major policy declaration by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

The Soviet delegate also served notice that Russia was ready to make a vigorous fight to get the Assembly to revise its earlier decision barring neutral countries as representatives at the Korean Peace Conference. The Communist demands on this, he said are justified and must be met.

The Soviet proposals on atomic control included hydrogen weapons by name, but otherwise followed closely Soviet disarmament resolutions of previous sessions.

Vishinsky assailed the United States as the real cause of world tension, charged Western policy in Germany threatened to touch off a new war and declared the North Atlantic Treaty organization was aimed at weakening the U. N.

Youth Burned During Pillage

Boy, 10, Dies in Fire Accidentally Set While Wrecking School

NEW YORK (AP)—A 10-year-old boy died today of burns suffered yesterday when he and another youth pillaged a Bronx school building.

The boy, Richard T. Smith, and his companion, Raymond Graham, 13, were rescued by firemen after a large can of rubber cement exploded and spattered the two with burning liquid. Raymond is in a hospital in critical condition.

The boys apparently held the can too close to a flame during their tour of vandalism through the four-story building.

Police said that the boys after breaking into the building, closed for the weekend, had left a trail of broken desk drawers, overturned furniture and smashed equipment in a dozen classrooms.

Firemen were summoned when neighbors heard a blast, saw heavy smoke pouring from an art classroom and next observed the boys climb out on a narrow ledge.

When help reached them, the boys had huddled back into a corner of the room, screaming hysterically.

Mother of Six Dies in Accident

Orion Woman, Friend Perish as Auto Rams Tree on M-24

A Lake Orion mother of six children and a Detroit man were killed early Sunday as their car went out of control and hit a tree on M-24 just south of Lake Orion.

The victims were Mrs. Grace Varty, 32, of 2005 Bald Mountain Road and Mathew F. Carroll, 23, of 1065 Chalmers St., a friend of Mrs. Varty and her husband, Bernard.

The bodies were taken to Allen Allen's Funeral Home, Lake Orion, where arrangements are pending.

Mrs. Varty, whose first husband, Chite S. Lee, was killed in an auto accident, was part-owner of Lee Engineering Co., Detroit.

Surviving besides her husband are her six children, Patricia, Jeffery, Gordon, Judith, Lawrence and Sharon; her mother, Moona Mark of Melvindale; a brother, Paul J. Yee, also of Melvindale; and a sister, Mrs. John Fatt of Detroit.

North Korean Says He's Tired of Communism

$100,000 Reward Still in Effect; First Fighter Plane to Be Studied

SEOUL (AP) — A daring North Korean officer today flew a MIG jet over to the Allies and a Seoul newspaper said the plane was one of the latest models, a twin-jet MIG17.

A Fifth Air Force spokesman, asked to comment on the published report, said the Air Force "cannot confirm anything that the Seoul press reports."

Far East Air Force Headquarters had announced it was a MIG 15, the swift, mass produced type which carried the brunt of the fighting for the Red Air Force during the war.

The newspaper, Tong-A Ilbo, said the MIG was a 17 with two 37mm cannon and two 20mm cannon. It quoted an officer who had seen the plane speed in, but did not identify the officer.

It also reported that the pilot was a North Korean captain named Noh Keum Suk, and that he flew from an airfield at Sunan, about 10 miles north of the Red Korean capital of Pyongyang.

The MIG 17 is radar equipped and is believed to be faster than the MIG 15. It has been reported stationed in Europe but there never have been any indications it was in the Far East.

It was the first MIG to fall into Allied hands in Korea. The Russian-built, swept-wing fighters never left their own air over Red territory during the war.

The U.N. Command said the $100,000 reward offered for the first MIG to bolt to the Allies is still in effect.

There was no quick reaction from the Communists.

At first the Allies refused to identify the flier, but later in Tokyo, Gen. O. P. Weyland, Far East Air Forces commander, said he was a North Korean.

Weyland announced:

The jet was from a "North Korean air unit." It is being studied by U. S. Air Force officers.

The pilot's name will not be revealed unless he personally consents.

The North Korean will be granted asylum if he wants it.

Cool and Cloudy Is Weather Forecast

Partly cloudy skies and cool weather are forecast for tonight and Tuesday after weekend rains doused the Pontiac area with .69 of an inch of water.

A low of from 40 to 44 degrees tonight and a high of from 63 to 67 degrees Tuesday are predicted by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The mercury climbed from a low of 55 to a high of 75 degrees here Sunday. Today's temperature was 51 degrees at 8 p. m., and 60 degrees at 2 p. m. in downtown Pontiac.

President Tells Americans to Study U.S. Government

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that Americans must give serious thought to the soundness of their system of government at a time when it is "threatened by the godless philosophy" of communism.

Speaking informally before a capacity crowd of 6,000 persons in the coliseum at the Eastern States Exposition, the President said that no nation had a "greater responsibility than to preserve our form of freedom."

The President told the crowd which filled every seat in the main fair building, the coliseum, that "if we are imbued with the spirit of cooperation," such as he said was the foundation of the 4-H Club movement, "then 160 million Americans have nothing to fear."

The President came to Massachusetts today to make a major political speech billed unofficially as the opening of a White House drive to strengthen Republican control of Congress in next year's elections.

His speech in Boston Garden tonight will be a major address in which he may reply to criticism of his administration by Adlai E. Stevenson and former President Truman.

Eisenhower flew here from Washington after a weekend at the White House. He returned to the capital Saturday night from a six-week stay in Colorado.

Eisenhower will speak at a Boston Garden rally from 8:30 to 9 p.m. (EST). Radio and television scheduled the speech to be carried directly, while later rebroadcasts were arranged.

In advance of the speech, aides would say only that Eisenhower intends to outline the role he believes the Republican Party should play on the American political scene.

But it seemed likely the President, in speaking at such a big party rally, would take some note of criticism fired at the administration during a Democratic get-together in Chicago last week by Truman and Stevenson, who was the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee.

Meany Hits Ike's Policies in Speech at AFL Parley

ST. LOUIS (AP)—AFL President George Meany today delivered a broadside attack against Eisenhower administration policies and told the AFL convention "our political activity must be stepped up."

Meany used a piece of literature from the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM)—a pamphlet which the AFL chief said he received in an envelope mailed free from the White House—to tee off on his charges.

Meany said he received the NAM document, which generally praised the administration policies, in an envelope under the government's free mailing privilege accorded to federal agencies.

It included a note from Walter Williams, assistant secretary of commerce assigned to the White House, Meany said.

Meany read phrases from the NAM document—praising the administration policies, then commented that in each case they were against the interests of workers.

The AFL chief thus sharply criticized administration action in ending controls, in housing legislation, taxes, and failure to suggest amendments to the Taft-Hartley Law.

Previously the powerful council favored merely suspending the ILA, accused of harboring hoodlums and racketeers on the New York and New Jersey piers. If the convention kicks out the ILA, a rival AFL union will probably be established.

Two unions competing for members on the New York waterfront could lead to trouble. Complicating the situation is the fact the ILA's contracts with East and Gulf Coast shippers expire Oct. 1.

Derby Road Sewerage Up for Possible Solution at Commission Meeting

(From Our Birmingham Bureau)

BIRMINGHAM — City Manager Donald C. Egbert will outline a possible solution to the sewerage problems on Derby road at tonight's City Commission meeting.

At a meeting of officials last week, Troy Township Board members agreed in substance to a proposal calling for separate storm and sanitary sewers to serve both Birmingham's future Pembroke school and Troy Township.

An informal hearing on revision of the W. E. Reid Development Co's. proposal for development of the Porritt property on Adams road is also scheduled for tonight.

Egbert will also report on Rouge River pollution. The State Water Resources Commission has ordered the pollution stopped and Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Southfield and Bloomfield Townships have been working together to solve the problem.

Korean Pilot Delivers Russian MIG to Allies

Air Base was closed to everyone but authorized military personnel.

A psychological warfare colonel near Seoul said American Sabre jets met the MIG over the southern boundary of the demilitarized strip across the Korean peninsula and escorted the Red fighter to Seoul.

However, the MIG apparently caught Kimpo Air Base by surprise.

A crowd scurried out to the runway after the plane stopped.

The pilot was described as short and black-haired.

* * *

An American pilot who met him said the flier pulled a picture of a girl from his blue flying suit and tore it up. The American pieced together the shreds of the picture, which he said "looked like a North Korean."

* * *

Col. Don P. Hall of Kingsville, Tex., commander of the 4th Fighter-Interceptor Wing, said the pilot was "smiling and very happy it was over with."

* * *

Hall said the MIG pilot got out of his plane and immediately saluted Capt. Cipriano F. Guerra, Mission, Tex.

"The captain was quite surprised," Hall said. "He got out of his Sabre jet and walked over to the MIG15. A crewman threw sandbags under the wheels.

"The MIG pilot shook hands with all the men.

* * *

"The captain pointed toward the gun on the MIG and the MIG pilot turned off the switch. Air police immediately surrounded the plane and the MIG pilot accepted cigarettes that were offered to him by those milling around."

* * *

Asked why the pilot brought the MIG, Hall quoted him:

"I'm happy to leave communism."

"It is believed he knew of the reward," Hall said.

The pilot's first words were reported to be "O.K." His only other word in English was "no."

Hall said his clothing was "nondescript. . . . a blue-colored flying suit, a leather jacket and light colored shirt and flying boots."

* * *

The pilot was armed, but he turned over his loaded pistol to Guerra.

Hall said the Red pilot is about 25 years old and an officer.

Asked what the Air Force planned to do with the MIG Hall explained:

"I do not know if we will fly the MIG but we will get the most out of it. We definitely will go over it from all angles in a thorough examination."

Hall said the plane may be taken to the United States for testing but indicated this had not been decided.

* * *

A spokesman said the Air Force has made pictures of the plane but they will not be released.

The MIG pilot was escorted into wing headquarters and given sandwiches and coffee.

Lt. Gen. Samuel Anderson, 5th Air Force commander, and other top officers sped to talk with him.

The pilot reportedly declined to meet newsmen.

The MIG was placed in a hangar by itself, ringed by armed air police.

* * *

The $100,000 offer was beamed by radio to the north for days in February with instructions on how to proceed. Leaflets were dropped over North Korea.

* * *

There were no takers then.

The MIG is not the first to fall into Western hands—two others were landed in Denmark by bolting Polish pilots—but it is the first ever taken in Korea and the first the West can keep for a thorough testing.

The two MIGs flown to Denmark were damaged in landing. They also had to be given back to Poland.

Apparently the MIG surrendered in Korea will be considered a war prize.

25 States, Alaska Share $24 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-five states and Alaska are to receive $24,115,374 as their share of 1952-53 receipts totaling $66,845,762 for the administration of public lands by the Bureau of Land Management.

Announcing this today, Secretary of the Interior McKay said the principal source of revenue was from mineral leases and permits, chiefly for gas and oil. The states' share is $17,255,526.

The next largest source was from sale of timber in Oregon. Payments to individual Oregon counties will total $6,447,026.

Amounts to be distributed include $6,928 to Michigan.

4 Are Injured in 3-Car Crash

Rochester Auto Meets Another, Is Shoved Into Path of Third

Three Rochester persons and a —Leonard man were treated at Pontiac General Hospital Saturday night or injuries received in a three-car accident on Rohester road one mile south of Avon road, according to State Police of the Romeo Post.

An auto driven by Carlton Gardner, 45, of 223½ Main St., Rochester, collided with an oncoming car while passing and was shoved into the path of a third car which ran off the road and hit a telephone pole, police explained.

The hospital reported Gardner in "good condition" today suffering from a fractured left arm and head cuts.

Robert F. Steward, 20, of 1458 Courtland, Rochester, was driving the car which collided with Gardner's, police said.

A passenger in Steward's car, his sister, Katherine, 17, was discharged Sunday, the hospital reported, after being treated for cuts and bruises.

Shirley Fanson, 19, of 3137 Hickory Lawn, Rochester, also riding in Steward's auto, was treated for fractured legs and released Sunday, the hospital said.

According to the hospital, Jerry M. King, 26, of 2561 Rohester Road, Leonard, was threated for cuts. His car hit the telephone pole, said police.

Dispatch U. S. Agent to Confirm Report of the government said they knew nothing which would lead them to believe Beria, former head of the Russian secret police, has managed to get out of Russia. At the same time, it was made clear this government would be glad to receive any man who knows as many of the Kremlin's secrets as Beria does.

So far as is known in the West, Beria was last seen in public in Moscow on May 1. Soviet Premier Malenkov denounced him as a traitor July 9 and ousted him from his posts as home minister and first deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers.

His name had not been mentioned in the Russian press or radio in recent weeks, and there has been no recent mention of any trial. This has led to some speculation here that he may already have been executed.

The Senate source said an agent of McCarthy's subcommittee had flown to a "neutral, non-Communist country" in Europe and, after talking with the purported Beria, reported he is convinced the man is who he says he is. It was then, he said, that another agent who could identify Beria was sent.

This source predicted that the State Department would issue a statement about the whole matter shortly. But a department spokesman said he did not know anything about the Beria case.

The Senate source said the man representing himself as Beria said he had escaped with three aides in a plane and that, if given refuge in the United States, will talk only with McCarthy or Vice President Nixon. The source said McCarthy's agents have been in touch with him about a month.

The source added that, unless the story proves to be a hoax, there is a good chance the man will be brought to this country.

Pickpocket Suspect Nabbed in Cathedral

NEW YORK (AP) — Hundreds of churchgoers at St. Patrick's Cathedral yesterday witnessed a hair-pulling contest between a woman detective, who fired two warning shots, and a frantically struggling woman pickpocket suspect.

Detective Mary A. Shanley finally subdued the suspect after resorting to fisticuffs.

The woman, identified as Estalla Gonzalez Diaz, 26, here on a visitor's visa from Mexico, flailed at the detective, pulling at clothing and hair and beating her about the head.

An alleged male accomplice of the woman escaped during the fight.

Miss Shanley had been assigned to the cathedral after six thefts totaling more than $1,000 were reported by parishioners last week.

Two Are Injured in Saturday Crash

Robert Lewis, 30, of 458 Franklin Rd., was issued a violation ticket for driving without an operator's license Saturday afternoon when he was involved in an accident on Branch street near Hess street, in which two passengers were injured.

Treated at Pontiac General Hospital for cuts and bruises were Lewis' wife, Margaret, 25, and his sister, Martha Ann Lewis, 18, of 21 Walnut St.

Pontiac Police said the other driver, James Scruggs, 43, of 71 Orton St., and Lewis both told them that neither could avoid the collision.

out of control while passing a truck on U.S. 27 and overturned.

Four of the Michigan crashes killed two persons each.

Joseph R. Parent, 21, Flint, and Mrs. Mary Teeples, 40, Farmington, were killed on U.S. 10 about 10 miles south of Flint. Genesee County sheriff's officers said a car in which Parent was riding made a U-turn in front of a car driven by Mrs. Teeples' husband.

Mrs. Grace Varty, 32, Lake Orion, and Mathew F. Carroll, 28, Detroit, were killed near Lake Orion early Sunday when their car hit a tree along M-24. Claude E. Smith, 28, Mikado, and Theodore Rzepka, 43, Harrisville, died instantly Sunday night in a head-on collision two miles north of Mikado on M-171.

Carl Meese, 19, Rochester, and Mildred Allen, 19, Peck, were killed Sunday when their car missed a curve two miles south of Capac in St. Clair County.

James H. Saph, 40, Mt. Clemens, was killed Saturday when a car in which he was riding rammed the rear of a bus in St. Clair Shores. Police said the impact shoved the parked bus 90 feet forward and three of its 10 occupants were given first aid.

Six-year-old Kelvin Duford Jr., Flint, was killed Sunday when a car driven by his father, Kelvin Duford Sr., collided with a bus at an intersection in downtown Flint.

A crash involving three cars and a motorcycle killed Mrs. Alice Spaulding, 35, Flint, late Sunday.

Police said a car occupied by the victim was parked along Dixie Highway 11 miles south of Saginaw when it was struck by a second car. A third car and a motorcycle piled into the wreckage.

Other victims included:

Duncan Veston, 19, Ann Arbor —whose car ran off a Washtenaw County road and hit a tree.

Frederick M. Allmendinger, 35, Royal Oak—who was riding in a sports car which spun out of control and collided with an auto in Detroit.

Ernest Halter, 35, Highland Park —whose car ran off U.S. 25 seven and rolled over four times.

John A. Petersen, 18, Detroit —who was riding in a car which missed a curve and struck a tree east of Belleville.

Raymond Mudgett, 26, Grand Rapids—whose charred body was found in his burned-out car near his home Sunday morning. Police said the car apparently left a Kent County road Saturday night and caught fire.

David Woodrow, 20, Traverse City—who was burned to death when his car burst into flames after hitting a tree along a Grand Traverse County road.

Arthur A. Beatty, 36, Lake Orion —whose car hit a detour barrier on M. 29 south of Lapeer.

George Hunt, 55, Auburn Heights—who died Saturday of injuries he suffered Friday night when he was struck by a car while walking across a street near his home.

Woodrow W. Hunter, 41, Marcellus—whose car ran off a Cass County road and rolled over several times.

Stanley E. Zawislak, 36, Flint —whose car hit a tree along US-23 near the Flint city limits.

Henry Deruyver, 74, Eaton Rapids—struck by a car while driving cattle across a road in Ingham County near the Ingham-Eaton county line.

Fred W. Schultz, 76, Belding — whose car collided with a dump truck near his home.

Gerald Jasper, 15, Bronson — killed in a collision near Coldwater.

Victor Vandersteen 68, Detroit — struck by a car while crossing a Detroit street.

Flushing Man Missing in Atlantic B29 Crash

HAMILTN, Bermuda (AP) — Airman 2.C James Brenton Henderson of Flushing, Mich., was identified by the Air Force today as one of seven men still missing after the crash of a B29 in the Atlantic Saturday.

Officers at the Kindley Field Base here said the seven are feared to have gone down with the converted four-engine bomber. They added that a search is continuing.

Pontiac Deaths

Ronnie Lee Hodges

Ronnie Lee Hodges, infant son of Amos and Hubener Lawnes Hodges of 517 Harvey St., died in the Pontiac General Hospital today after an illness of three days.

He was born here May 13, 1953. Surviving besides his parents are a sister and brother, Joyce Ann and Amos Beny Hodges, both of Pontiac.

Prayer service will be held from the Frank Carruthers Funeral Home Tuesday at 11 a.m., with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. The Rev. S. M. Edwards of the Liberty Baptist Church will officiate.

Robert J. McGarvey

Services for Robert J. McGarvey, 67, of 25505 Hopkins St., Inkster, who was killed in an auto accident Sept 17, will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Voorhees Siple Chapel, the Rev. Herbert E. Ryan of the Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church officiating.

Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Detroit.

McGarvey was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital following an accident at Middlebelt and Lone Pine Rds.

He as born in Detroit on Nov. 8, 1884, the son of Joseph and Hannah Jessop McGarvey. He married Eva Mae Ashby who died in 1935.

Surviving is a son Joseph W. McGarvey of San Jose, Calif., two brothers, William and Ernest McGarvey of Inster, and two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Pickering and Mrs. Martha Zahn of Pontiac.

subject since the death of Stalin and the accession of Georgi Malenkov to power — had four points:

1. Immediate and unconditional prohibition of atomic and hydrogen bombs with the security council — where Russia has the veto— to supervise compliance.

2. Immediate one-third reduction by the big five—the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and China — in their armed forces with a conference shortly afterwards to discuss reduction of the armed forces of other countries.

3. Dismantling of military bases maintained in foreign countries. That was an obvious reference to the United States for Vishinsky had denounced U.S. bases overseas earlier in his speech.

4. Condemnation of propaganda tending to stimulate warlike psychosis.

Hit-Run Car Strips Pedestrian's Clothes

DETROIT (AP) — A hit-run car struck down three persons yesterday, dragging one of them for five blocks and stripping him of his clothes.

Police searched today for the driver.

The victims, Noble Massey, 28, who lost his clothes, his brother, Warren, 30, and Richard McNatt, 25, were not seriously hurt. The car knocked Warren Massey and McNatt to one side, but hooked Noble Massey under the front bumper.

When the car stopped, Massey climbed out from under with all but a few shreds of his underclothing torn away. He borrowed an apron from a nearby druggist and took a taxi home.

The driver fled.

Birds Settle by Thousands in Iowa Town

WALCOTT, Iowa (UP) — Residents of this little town waited longingly today for winter winds and surcease from a mass bird invasion that may drive some townspeople to call for the moving van.

Until cold weather comes along Walcott has no hope of driving off the birds, untold thousands of them.

Each day at twilight the birds — sparrows, starlings and black birds — swoop into this community of about 600 persons 10 miles northwest of Davenport, blacken the shade trees and set up a din.

They've been getting worse every year.

"If the birds keep up like they are, getting worse every year," said Walcott resident Arthur Dietz, "We might as well plan on moving out of Walcott in another four years or so."

Dietz said that he and some friends killed more than 1,000 birds with shotguns in less than a half hour in trees near his home one night, but is did no good.

The town has also planted stuffed owls around town, but the birds practically snuggled up to the predators.

Some persons collected tin cans zealously and string them through trees and bushes, but the birds cackled contentedly among the makeshift noisemakers.

Then residents tried firecrackers, which entertained Walcott's small fry but didn't scare the birds.

Finally, the fire department rigged up a high pressure hose and tried blasting the pests out of shade trees with water, but the wet, bedraggled birds circled and came right back.

Dietz was asked what Walcott planned next.

"We wouldn't know what to do," he said sadly.

"They go away when it gets real cold," he said hopefully. But then there's always another spring.

Canadian Plane Rescues Two Stranded Americans

BLIND RIVER, Ont. (AP) — An Algoma Airways plane Saturday rescued John Rhodes and Richard Bauer of Detroit from the bush north of nearby Iron Bridge. The American hunters were a week overdue on a canoe trip from Biscotasing to Iron Bridge. They lost their canoe about 40 miles north of their destination.

Stolen Cars Abandoned

BIRMINGHAM—Four Detroit juveniles were arrested last night after abandoning two stolen cars at Fifteen Mile and Stephenson Highway. One car was taken in Highland Park and the other from Charles Staples of 1366 Yosemite.

Reds Deny Capture of Most Lost Allies

"but most of them have never been captured at all."

By persistent demands, Bryan got from the Communists a promise to furnish by nationalities the number of Allied prisoners the Reds hold who refuse repatriation.

The Communists previously had informed the U. N. Command that they hold more than 300 South Koreans and more than 20 non-Koreans, but never have given a breakdown by nationality.

At the close of the meeting, Lee promised the breakdown but did not say when.

The Reds are scheduled to deliver the Allied prisoners to Indian troops in the demilitarized zone Thursday.

At Indian Village five miles south west of Panmunjom in the buffer zone, the Allied delivery of anti-Communist prisoners to the Indian custodial force neared an end.

During the day, the U. N. transfer of 500 North Koreans and 1,635 Chinese swelled the total delivered so far to 20,028. Fewer than 2,500 more are to be turned over by Wednesday.

The Allies plan to delivery 1,479 North Koreans Tuesday and between 750 and 1,000 sick and wounded North Korean and Chinese prisoners on Wednesday, the final day.

Vote Date Set by Supervisors

Franklin Residents Cast Ballots on Nov. 3 on Incorporation

Special elections on Franklin's incorporation as a village and a Royal Oak annexation move both were set for Nov. 3 when Oakland County Board of Supervisors met today.

Oakland County Clerk Lynn D. Allen also was instructed to take a census of a one by six mile strip across the bottom of Southfield Township. Some residents of the area have asked its incorporation as a city.

Petitions for the incorporation were filed some time ago, but action was deferred pending results of an election to decide annexation of part of the area to Oak Park.

Recommendation for the Nov. 3 election date came from the board's boundaries of cities and villages committee, headed by William A. Ewart of Pontiac.

Residents of the northern Southfield Township community informally known as "Franklin Village" filed petitions some time ago to officially incorporate the area.

Royal Oak annexation affects a narrow strip of land about two miles long lying along the city's eastern edge in Royal Oak Township.

New Hospital Sought for Vets

Request for 500-Bed Unit Will Be Made to Legislature

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—A request will be made to the State Legislature for an additional 500-bed hospital for the Michigan Veterans Facility at Grand Rapids.

The board of managers, in a weekend conference here, drew up a 1954 budget of $1,1001000 to submit to the State Legislature and mapped plans for requesting the new hospital unit. The new hospital would be constructed within five years under the proposal.

Carl H. Minster of Manitou Beach., chairman of the board, said a study by the board showed the additional 500-bed unit would be needed to supplement the 250-bed hospital which, is constantly overcrowded.

About $100,000 of the proposed budget would be for remodeling present buildings and providing a sprinkler system to allow for 80 or 90 more beds immediately.

The new budget is approximately $1,500,000 more than the current budget.

Accused of Aiding Anti-Commie Poles

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The Swedish foreign office said today the first officer aboard the Swedish ship Gunnel had been arrested at Gdansk (formerly Danzig), Poland, on charges of helping Poles flee their Communist-led homeland.

The announcement said Einar De Joung, the officer, had been arrested Saturday after two Polish citizens had been found hiding aboard the 3,015-ton vessel.

Sweden has been the refuge for a considerable number of Poles who have fled from the Communist regime.

The foreign office said De Joung denied charges that he hid the Poles on the ship after others helped get them aboard. The ship was permitted to leave Gdansk after a delay of 24 hours but De Joung remained in custody.

Air Raid Alert Gets Rochester Folk Up Early

ROCHESTER — Some local residents were headed for their cellars early Sunday morning when the fire siren's long wail signaled an air raid alert.

Police were deluged with calls at about 4:20 a. m. from worried residents wanting to know the nature of the raid and Fire Chief George Ross had to explain that it was only an electrical short.

According to Ross, the regular signal for a fire is a series of short blasts on the siren. Sunday's mishap caused a long, steady wail — the signal for an air alert.

Repairs on the faulty wiring were being made today.

Emmet County Gets a Tornado Scare

PELLSTON (UP) — High winds and dark clouds threw a tornado scare into this Emmet County community Sunday evening but a check showed it was only a severe storm.

State Police from the Cheboygan Post were dispatched to the scene when a Civil Air Patrol weather observer at the Pellston airport reported seeing a "funnel-shaped" cloud over the woods between here and Lake Michigan.

The onslaught, although not a tornado, uprooted several trees. No injuries were reported.

Speeding Limit Changes While Ex-POW Is Away

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — Lots of things happen while a soldier is in prison.

Cpl. Donald Vaughan, just home from 33 months in a Korean POW camp, told the judge in city court that a 35-mile speed zone had been established here while he was away. He paid a $5 fine for speeding.

Report Reds Captured 230 Vietnamese Troops

HONG KONG (AP)—The Communist radio in Indochina said yesterday that Ho Chi Minh's rebel forces captured more than 230 Vietnamese soldiers in an attrack in the Red River Delta area Aug. 23.

The broadcast, heard here, said military supplies and two radio stations were also captured.

Items From Ike, Others Enrich Church by $140

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—The building fund of the Congregational Church of the Chimes here is richer by $140, thanks to a boost from President Eisenhower, Vice President Nixon and California's Gov. Earl Warren.

At church members' request, each sent an item that was auctioned sight unseen Saturday night at the church's Golden West Fair.

An etching of the White House, sent by the President, sold for $100. An etching of the Capitol, from Nixon, brought $20, as did a box of stationery sent by the governor.

Rep. Joe Holt (R-Calif), who represents a San Fernando Valley district where the church is locate was the auctioneer.

Dr. Hicks to Be Head of Kalamazoo College

KALAMAZOO (UP) — Dr. Weimer K. Hicks, 44, president of the Wayland Academy at Beaver Dam, Wis., will take over as president of Kalamazoo College June 1.

Hick's appointment was announced during the weekend by Dr. Richard U. Light, president of the college board of trustees. He succeeds Dr. John Scott Everton, who became the Ford Foundation's educational director in Burma last January.

Pay Raise Suggested for Top AFL Leaders

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The AFL's top leaders should get a pay raise, the union's executive council says.

No specific amount was mentioned, but the council's report, prepared for the national convention which opens today, said the salaries "do not meet present day standards and conditions."

George Meany, AFL president, now receives $25,000 a year. Secretary-Treasurer William Schnitzler gets $22,000.

Group Seeking Lights for Field

Clarkston Committee Wants High School to Play Games at Night

CLARKSTON — A recently formed citizens' committee will attend the meeting of the Clarkston School Board tomorrow night to seek the purchase of lights for the Clarkston High School football field.

The football team plays all games but one away from home because there are no lights for night games.

The citizens' committee was formed last Tuesday to investigate means of financing the lighting project.

Members are Charles Rochwell, chairman, Edmund Gunter, Don Pringle, Jim Glennie, Dave Stewart and Ralph Kreger.

Gunter has issued invitiations to parents in the school district to join the group. An open meeting on the subject for all parents in the district is scheduled for Thursday night at the school.

Mrs. Nicholas Rossi of Bridge Lake road was named chairman of the group which met at the home of Mrs. Charles Carr in Clarkston. Mrs. George N. Higgins, also of Bridge Lake road, was named secretary-treasurer.

Objective of the group will be to sew for the San Juan Church and Hospital for Indians at Farmington, N. M. Meetings are to be held the first Tuesday of each month.

2-Car Crash Fatal to Royal Oak Man

ROYAL OAK — Frederic M. Almendinger, 35, of 215 Hawthorne Ave., Royal Oak, was killed Saturday as the sports car in which he was a passenger skidded into the path of another car on a Detroit street.

Driver of the car, Richard E. Harms, 24, of Huntington Woods, was held by Detroit police for investigation of manslaughter.

Driver of the other car, James J. Bird, 39, of Oak Park, and his wife, Mary, 36, escaped injury.

Almendinger was a teacher in Grusel Intermediate School, Detroit. His funeral will be 1 p.m. Wednesday at Spiller Funeral Home with burial in Oakview Cemetery.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Almendinger, a sister and a grandmother.

MRS. EMMA L. FURMAN

Pioneer Dies in South Lyon

Mrs. Furman Was 103, One of Area's Oldest Residents

SOUTH LYON — One of this area's oldest and most beloved women is dead.

Mrs. Emma L. Furman, 103, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James B. Calhoun of South Lyon.

Born in Novi Township, April 19, 1850, she married Wilmarth Furman, a former Detroit policeman, May 12, 1875.

At 17, Mrs. Furman taught school at Novi and later at Wixom and Stone Schools.

Active all her life, she maintained her own household here until a few years ago when she lived at home only during the summer months. Last summer was the last she spent in her own home.

She sewed much of her own clothing and made several quilts in the years immediately preceding her death.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church here, Mrs. Furman had been a resident of this area since 1915. Her husband died in 1930.

On her 100th birthday she received congratulatory messages from former President Harry S. Truman and Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Neighbors say she cast ballots in every election since women were given the right to vote by the 19th amendment.

The daughter was her only survivor.

Service will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. from Phillips Funeral Home with burial in Wixom Cemetery.

George H. Hunt

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Service for George Henry Hunt, 65, of 30 S. Squirrel Rd., will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. from Dudley H. Moore Funeral Home, Pontiac, with burial in White Chapel Cemetery. He died Saturday of injuries sustained in an auto accident Friday at Auburn road near Squirrel road.

Surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Fred Schultz, Mrs. Amy Meloling and Mrs. Dan Fitzpatrick of Auburn Heights, and Mrs. Gladys Jones of England; and a brother, Alfred, also of England. His mother, Mrs. Sophia Hunt of South Wales, England, also survives.

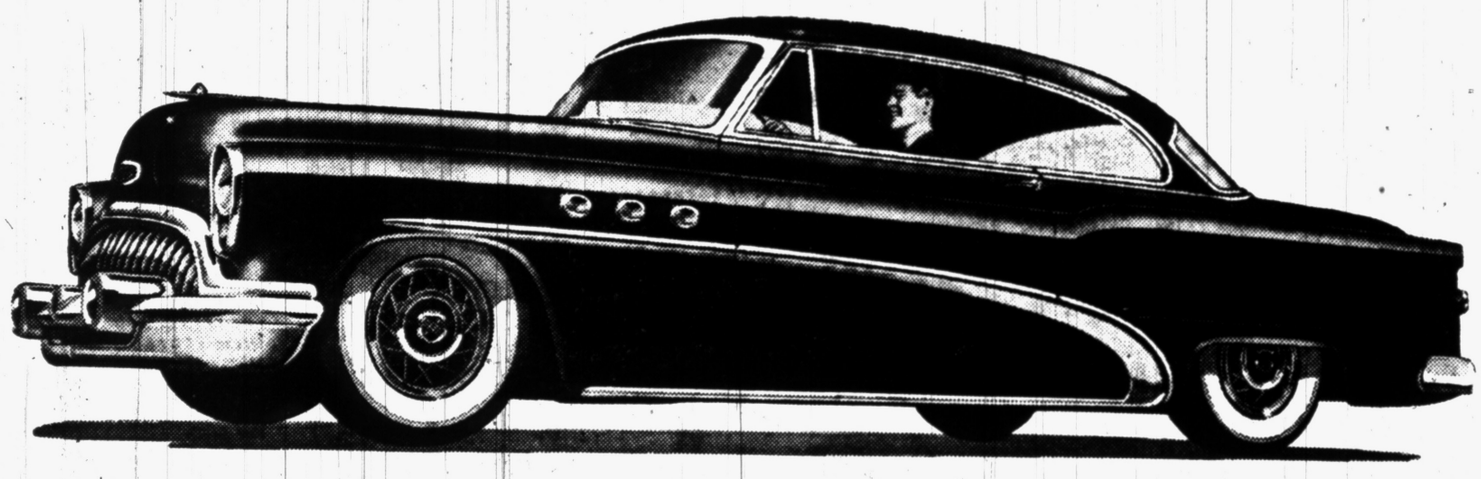
Buick moves up in Michigan—

Now outsells all cars except 2 of the "LOW-PRICE 3"



For years, the top sales leaders in the automobile industry have been the Big Three of the lowest-priced field.

For years, Buick has been crowding them—outselling all other cars except these three—and, in some areas, even outselling the third of this lower-priced trio.

Now—Buick has moved into Michigan's Big Three. Figures for the first seven months of 1953 show Buick in third place in sales in Michigan.

What accounts for Buick's big upsurge is not magic, but value.

Yes, value—because people are finding that there's a lot more fun and room and power and comfort and style to be had in Buick for just a small step-up in price.

Maybe you ought to look into a Buick and see what's to be had here for just a few dollars more.

Maybe you ought to sample the highest horsepowers in Buick history—the instantly responsive getaway and infinite smoothness of Twin-Turbine Dynaflow* —the marvelous Million Dollar Ride that so many smart buyers just won't do without.

We'll be happy to arrange matters—and show you merit that's making history. Why not drop in on us this week?

4 From Pontiac Hurt in Crash

Three-Car Smashup at Auburn, John R Injures Father, 3 Sons

Four members of a Pontiac family were treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital yesterday for injuries received in a three-car crash at Auburn Ave. and John R Rd., Oakland County sheriff's deputies said today.

Treated for cuts and bruises, according to the hospital report, were Sven O. Blomberg, 43, of 2767 Grant St. and his sons, Stanley, 12, Steven, 6, and Sherman, 4.

Their auto collided with one driven by Harriet Schmid, 17, of 19790 Eastwood, Harper Woods, and another operated by Harold E. Watson, 31, of 144 N. Merrimac St., deputies said. Neither Miss Schmid nor Watson were reported hurt.

Miss Schmid told deputies she had stopped for a sign on John R and thought she could cross Auburn in front of Blomberg's car. Watson told deputies that Blomberg's auto was pushed into his by the first collision.

Farewell Dinner Honors Fireman at Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Keith Riley, a volunteer fireman, was honored Saturday night with a surprise, farewell banquet given by the Waterford Township Firefighter's Association at the CAI building.

Riley, employed by Fisher Body Division of General Motors Corporation, has been transferred to a new plant at LaGrange, Ill. He and Mrs. Riley have purchased a new home at 1808 Fifty-fifth Pl. in LaGrange.

Lloyd Sage, president of the association, expressed the regrets of the group in losing Riley as a volunteer fireman. Riley had been a member of the Township Fire Department since it was organized in 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley were presented with gifts. Dinner was served by the Women's Club.

Driver in Hospital After Hitting House

Julius T. Polk, 39, of 14 Duke St. is in Pontiac General Hospital with a possible skull fracture today after his auto crashed into a home at 486 Nevada Ave. Saturday night. He is reported in "good' condition.

Pontiac Police, who issued Polk a violation ticket for driving without an operator's license, said the force of the impact moved the home about 6 inches off its foundation.

Owner of the home, Horace Scott Jr., said the crash dropped plaster in the living room, shattered two windows and broke several steps on the front porch.

Police quoted witnesses as saying the auto hit the right curb, swerved to the left and struck the home. No one in the home was hurt.

TOO MUCH SERVICE — This diner in a Berlin restaurant received more service than he bargained for when he called for a waiter. The help is in training for the annual Waiters' Race, and tables and chairs make an ideal obstacle training course for waiters.

Youth Injured as Car Runs Into Moving Train

Louis Grinnell, 17, of 375 Coates Rd., Lake Orion, was injured when his auto hit the second car of a moving freight train Saturday night on Indianwood road, east of Baldwin avenue, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

He was treated for cuts and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital.

Deputies said Grinnell's car came to a stop after bouncing off the side of the train.

Detour-Sign Crash Fatal to Motorist

Arthur A. Beatty, 36, of 1355 Harding Dr., Lake Orion, was killed Saturday night when his car hit a detour sign on M-24 at Broecker Rd., according to Lapeer County sheriff's deputies.

The auto rolled over twice and dropped into a deep ditch, landing on top of Beatty who had been thrown clear, deputies said. Beatty had resided in Lake Orion for the past 12 years and was last employed by Pontiac Motor Division. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are a son, Arthur, and a daughter, Ruth Anne, both of Lake Orion; his father, William Beatty of Moorehead, Minn.; four sisters and six brothers. Arrangements are pending at Allen's Funeral Home in Lake Orion.

Drayton Man Injured When Car Overturns

A Drayton Plains man was reported in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital after his car ran off the road early this morning at 3039 Airport Rd. and rolled over several times, Oakland County sheriff's deputies said today.

Gerald B. Gobler, 25, of 6216 Lanman St., was thrown clear of his car, which was demolished, said deputies.

Dulles Puts Reds on Spot

Secretary Dulles' statement on foreign policy was a high minded and effective document.

Though he was speaking before the U.N. General Assembly, he was talking directly to the Kremlin. His words were blunt and clear and well suited to the Administration's new and bolder approach to foreign policy problems.

★ ★ ★

Pointing to the world crisis, Mr. Dulles made it clear there could be no lessening of tension until the Communists contribute to a better climate by changing their policies. Accusing the Reds of delaying tactics in regard to the Korean truce, Secretary Dulles said:

"We are forced to doubt that the Communist side really wants to comply with the armistice and face up to the problem of withdrawing their forces from Korea and creating a united and independent Korea."

He outlined a five point program he said Russia must implement to convince the world that Malenkov really meant it when he talked about coexistence of capitalism and Communism.

These are unification of Korea, peaceful solution of the Indochina problem, settlements in both Germany and Austria and action permitting Russia's neighbors to enjoy independence. He called on Russia to abandon its goal of violent overthrow of independent governments.

★ ★ ★

Assuring Russia that the United States would do nothing that needlessly would aggravate world tension, Secretary Dulles emphasized the necessity for control of atomic arms.

"The destructive power inherent in matter must be controlled by the idealism of man's spirit and the wisdom of his mind," warned Mr. Dulles. "They alone stand between us and a lifeless planet."

★ ★ ★

Secretary Dulles stated a truth Communism mistakenly ignores but which will not be lost on the free world, when he said:

"Governments which exert themselves without reserve to the creation of ever more powerful methods of mass destruction . . . and which are dilatory, evasive or negative toward curing the situation which could bring these destructive forces into play, cannot but stand morally condemned."

Top Issues in 1954

While members of Congress are busy sounding out constituents' views on major issues, it is interesting to find out what they consider the top issues in the 1954 election.

To do this Congressional Quarterly polled all members of the House and Senate. More than 40 per cent of the membership answered, leaving no doubt that the majority of these rate the Korean situation, tax reduction and economy in Government on top in that order.

★ ★ ★

A breakdown by party affiliations, however, showed some differences from the combined opinion. Republicans rated Korea first, but scored economy in Government in second spot, followed by tax reduction, budget balancing and tax revision.

Democrats also gave top priority to Korea, but selected tax reduction next, farm and livestock prices third, farm price supports fourth and economy in Government fifth in importance.

As a group the Representatives and Senators placed Social Security in sixth place, followed in order by aid to Europe, farm price supports, tax revisions, tariffs and reciprocal trade.

In all the lawmakers were questioned on 40 different issues. Their answers placed Taft-Hartley revision 14th on the list, with credit policy, aid to small business, aid to schools and hospitals and Far East policy also excluded from the first ten. St. Lawrence Waterway placed 34th.

Reflector Stop Signs

A recent survey gives rise to the belief that the familiar yellow and black highway stop signs are on their way out as a part of highway warning equipment.

For years safety engineers have been seeking a material for reflector signs that would glow at night. On the theory that red is the traditional sign of danger, their goal was a sign in that color. But no satisfactory pigment could be found. None of the reflector reds would show up brightly enough.

Now all that is reported changed by a new type sign made of 30,000 glass beads to the square inch. The word STOP is white on a background of red and is visible in headlight beams for a quarter of a mile.

New York and Chicago officials have announced that the new type signs will be used in their cities. A survey reveals them in use in 28 states. This sounds like an important step forward in traffic safety equipment worth studying for possible use in Michigan.

Someone asks the conductor of a column on health how to avoid getting up in the morning with a headache. One way would be to remain in bed.

The Man About Town

3,064 in Contest

Make Predictions on the Outcome of Eleven Games

Daffynition

Football: A game that goes to the head at this season.

A total of 3,064 good sports made entries in the 1953 Man About Town football contest that were in good order and received on time. This is a larger number than was received in any previous contest. Last year, 2,679 entries were received.

First on the list of the eleven games was that between Texas A. & M. and Kentucky Saturday night. The contestants were almost equally divided in their predictions, 1,459 picking Texas and 1,472 Kentucky, while 133 predicted a tie game. Texas won by a 7-6 score, so those 1,459 are carried forward to the next game. The other 1,605 are eliminated with our best wishes for better luck next time.

A reader of this column has a skunk problem. He raises bees and the young skunks in his neighborhood eat them. He would like to know what to do about it. If you have any suggestions send them to Man About Town.

When a million people come to an Oakland County park in one week end, it would indicate that the crowds are coming our way, wouldn't it? But I am informed by

Supt. David Laidlaw

Otter Drive Resident Asks Why Sylvan Lake Level Cannot Be Kept Constant

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature).

I was gratified to see a short explanation in the Press of the workings of the dam in Beaudette Park. However, nothing was said of the dire consequences to Sylvan Lake residents every time the dam is opened or closed.

Most of the boat wells around Sylvan Lake are dry land now. Why isn't it possible to maintain the level of Sylvan Lake year around? Sylvan seems to go up and down like an elevator.

'Stolen' Car Towed Away as Owner Exercised Dog

I hope everyone appreciates the fast action of the sheriff's department.

Sept. 17 I went to the state land on Teggerdine road to exercise my dog. I parked my car on the side of the road so when the right door was closed weeds from the ditch were in the bottom of the door.

There was plenty of space for cars to pass two abreast. When I returned the car was gone. Only one hour had elapsed.

I called the state police. They contacted the sheriff's department which informed me my car was at a garage on M-59. The garage proprietor told me the car was towed in at 10:40 or 50 minutes after it was parked on Teggerdine road at least six miles away.

When I was paying the garage man a towing charge of $5 a deputy came in and told the garage man it was a stolen car. The garage man told him I was the owner. Then it was a different story.

Later in Pontiac a deputy told me it was unlawful to park a car with any portion on a traveled road. If all cars parked like mine are to be towed in, I'm in the wrong business.

T-H Act, Solid Through 4 Dem Years, May Defy Any New Secretary of Labor

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is shopping around for two men to fill a couple of important jobs and, if he had to run an ad for them, this might be about it:

Wanted: One man, very thick-skinned, to be secretary of labor, salary $22,500; another, expert on injured feelings, as Chief Justice of the United States, salary $25,500. No clock-watchers need apply.

* * *

The new secretary of labor will have a busy year ahead of him, with long hours of work and no assurance that all his efforts won't end in smoke. He's almost sure to be a target for criticism.

* * *

Long hours go with the job of chief justice. After his day on the bench, in his office, in conference with the other justices, he has to take his work home with him.

The late Justice Vinson was an extraordinarily well-rounded man, with experience in Congress, in the executive branch and as judge in the U.S. Court of Appeals before he took over the Supreme Court's top job.

But he had an added virtue which was badly needed when former President Truman picked him: He was good at soothing injured feelings. At the time Vinson took over, there were differences among some of the other eight justices—personal as wel las juridical differences.

* * *

It was a tribute to his ability as a doctor of personality that no more internal explosions were heard after he moved into the court.

* * *

The new man will have that old problem to consider since Vinson probably didn't remove the ailment—just reduced the inflammation.

In other years the job of secretary of labor was a kind of mild occupation, particularly during the war years when Frances Perkins held it.

In that period President Franklin D. Roosevelt set up the War Labor Board, under William H. Davis. It controlled wages and labor disputes, and thus Mrs. Perkins was left on the sidelines.

* * *

In the last years of the Truman administration, then Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin was overshadowed by John R. Steelman whom Truman brought into the White House as his labor adviser. Tobin made speeches. Steelman pulled the strings.

* * *

Unless Eisenhower also gets a string-pulling labor adviser, the new secretary will have his hands full from the start.

He'll have to work with Congress, unions, management and the White House in trying to change the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act. On that subject he can't please everyone.

It is almost certain the new secretary won't come from organized labor, as did his predecessor, Martin P. Durkin, president of the AFL Plumbers' Union. That would make him suspect by organized labor from the start.

Eisenhower said during the presidential campaign and in his February State of the Union message to Congress, that there was need for T-H Law changes.

* * *

But anyone who knew Washington and politics and the intense feeling over T-H—in Congress, unions and business—would have been surprised if any changes had been made this year.

T-H was passed in 1947 while the Republicans controlled Congress. In 1948 Truman won election on a platform promising to blast T-H. For the next four years the Democrats were in charge of Congress. But they didn't, or couldn't, blast T-H.

* * *

During his eight months as secretary, Durkin worked to find changes which Congress, unions, business and the White House would approve. He acted like a man who thought he was getting some place.

* * *

Then he quit, voicing frustration. The White House, he said, had broken an agreement reached with him to back 19 proposed T-H chages.

Durkin's successor will need a thicker skin.

* * *

The AFL, which seemed fairly restrained about administration delay in suggesting T-H changes while Durkin was on the scene, has now officially exploded at Eisenhower.

* * *

AFL President George Meany last week accused Eisenhower of being a weak leader unable to stand up under big business pressure.

In view of what hasn't been done to change T-H through four years of Democratic administration and one of Republican, it should come as no surprise if no changes are made in 1954, either.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Typewriter Ideal Mental Plaything for Children

Note how the 7-year-old Gomes boy faithfully practiced at the typewriter for 2 solid hours! But he considered it play. Parents, be sure you have the five tools for your child's mind which are listed below. They are worth more to a child than a college insurance policy, for they will help make him a top scholar.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case H-391: Mildred Gomes, aged about 30, follows this column daily in her San Jose newspaper.

"Dr. Crane, we have three boys aged 7, 9 and 10½," she told me.

"And since I read your column faithfully, I was interested in your recent advice to parents about buying an old typewriter.

"So I got one for their birthdays. And they have been fascinated by it. I have been teaching them the touch system.

"The youngest and the oldest are especially enthusiastic. Why, our 7-year-old spent 3 solid hours the other day practicing the first lesson in my old college typing book.

"He wouldn't even stop to watch television: And our 10½ year-old sometimes gets up extra early in the morning to practice his typing before he leaves for school.

"So this typewriter has served not only as a stimulating birthday gift, but is helping them in their lessons, too."

A typewriter is an ideal gift for children. It serves as a mental plaything.

But it also has valuable by-products of an educational sort. For when children use a typewriter they pay more attention to the internal make-up of words. So it improves their spelling.

For example, suppose they are typing the words "believe" and "receive." Even if they use the "hunt & peck" method, which I employ in writing these daily Case Records, they are more likely to notice that the letter "i" precedes the "e" in "believe" but is reversed in "receive."

Notice how Mrs. Gome's 7-year-old actually worked for 3 solid hours at the typewriter. But he thought it was fun.

For the difference between "work" vs. "play" is chiefly our mental attitude. If we like a job and work at it by preference, then that is play.

But if we are forced to labor at it, and meanwhile maintain a protest in our mind against such effort, then that is work.

Typewriters make ideal gifts, not only for children but for clergymen, school teachers and contest fans.

Moreover, when business firms try to trade-in their office typewriters on new models, they receive only $15 to $25. Yet those typewriters are easily worth $50 to $75 to the average person who uses one only moderately.

So why don't you businessmen give your used typewriters to clergymen or Sunday school teachers in your area. Or parcel them out to good workers who have children.

This typewriter which I am using today for typing this Case Record wouldn't rate $10 on the market. For I have had it over 30 years.

I wrote my love letters to Mrs. Crane on it, and composed my 812-page college textbook on it.

Meanwhile, I have also written over 2,000,000 words of newspaper copy on it and it is still in pretty fair working order. But a typewriter company would junk it immediately, if they ever got hold of it.

For sentimental reasons, however, I'll never junk it. But it still does good enough work for me, so it certainly would be adequate for a school child's work.

Parents, you can thus pick up very serviceable used typewriters for not over $25. So be sure you furnish your child these five tools for his mind, namely, a typewriter, encyclopedia, dictionary, atlas and Bible.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 3 cent stamped, addressed envelope and a dime to cover printing and typing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.)

Baering Down

Recent Democratic chinfest in Chicago ratifies the aim of the boys to do something for their country in the city.

And proves the Democrats are magnificently patient. They waited over twenty years to rap the administration.

They adopted a resolution stating the country is going to rack and ruin. They would like to rack 'em up again.

The Chicago rendevouz was an off-beat project to remind the boys this is still the land of opportunity. And that the government of the people, for the people and by the people, is in the hands of the wrong people.

The meeting was an effort to sew a button on the custom-made shadows of coming events. It will be three more years and four more months before they're out of the calaboose.

Right now the Democrats are chain smokers on borrowed cigarettes.

Brady Willing to Substitute Cardamom or Orange Tincture to Please Druggists

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

First it was Iron and Amonium Citrates (U. S. P.) in thin, transparent, garnet red scales, that the druggists could or would no longer sell to my readers who wanted to mix up their own chaly eate (iron blood medicine).

Next readers began to report that their druggists would or could no longer sell 'em citrate of soda to whip up a batch of fool proof cough medicine, following the recipe and directions in Little Lesson No. 5, Call It Cri.

The druggists had somehow learned that it is dangerous stuff for a dumb layman to monkey with. Yet sodium citrate was popularly used in the modification of cow's milk for infant feeding — a grain or two to each ounce — in the days of the 12-cylinder car.

And now they are after dear old boric acid, charging that it is poisonous and I don't know what all.

I haven't made people buy more than 10 or 15 tons of boric acid in the past decade, I'm sure.

* * *

Not more than a million readers, surely, have in that time followed my instructions to put two or three drops of a solution of 10 grains of boric acid in one fluid ounce of pure grain alcohol in the ear each night and morning, for chronic running ear, using a blunt dropper and always warming the solution to a comfortable degree by standing the vial in hot water for a while before using.

* * *

You know, I don't mind so much having boric acid taken away from us. After all, as an "antiseptic" boric acid is not much.

Now I'm getting a great many complaints from young people who elicit the no-such-thing reaction when they ask for one of the five ingredients of the lotion I recommend for "enlarged pores," "blackheads" or excessively oily skin, in the pamphlet on Acne available on written request (no clipping, please) if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The one ingredient at which the druggist boggles is one fluidounce of compound tincture of lavender.

When I was an honest doctor compound tincture of lavender was official in the United States Pharmacopoeia under the title Tinctura Lavandulae Composita.

Oh, well, if the druggists must be so techy about it I'll withdraw the compound tincture of lavender and use instead one fluidounce of compound tincture of cardamon.

If they haven't that in their dinky little medicine cabinet, then how about one fluidounce of tincture of sweet orange peel?

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Overpopulation of Italy Is Cited

Mrs. Luce Looking for Solution to Immigration and Trade Problems

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce said today the United States could strike "an incalculable blow" at communism by helping Italy and other European countries solve the problem of overpopulation.

"My job would be easier—and Italy' future brighter — if some answers could be found to this question of overpopulation," Mrs. Luce said.

"And secondly, there is the question of the U. S. liberalization of trade with other countries. If Italy could trade on more favorable terms in the U. S. markets, it would naturally help her economy.

"Immigration and trade—these are the two fields where I think the American people could insist on action at home, and by doing so make a notable advance in American foreign policy."

Mrs. Luce expressed these views in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report. She was interviewed in Rome.

She returned again and again to the question of overpopulation, which she described as Italy's greatest problem, and said that contrary to popular belief in the United States it does not stem from an excessive birth rate.

"The birth rate of Italy is lower than that of France," she said, "and considerably lower than that of the Netherlands or the United States."

She said Italy has made great progress in building up her defenses since World War II. But that because the country is poor in natural resources, it cannot solve the economic problem of overpopulation without outside aid.

NEW YORK (AP)—A college newspaper editor and two former ones were on their way to Moscow today for a two-week visit in the Soviet Union.

The three, who left by air yesterday, are Daniel Berger, 21, of Great Neck, N. Y., editor of the Oberlin College (Ohio) Review; Mark Edmond, 25, of Boulder, Colo., former editor of the University of Colorado Daily, and Zander Hollander, 22, of Brooklyn, former feature editor of the University of Michigan Daily.

Four other student editors also applied for and were granted visas by the Soviet embassy in Washington but decided later not to make the trip.

The departing editors said Russian officials had told them their travel in Russia would not be restricted and that they would be free to photograph everywhere.

Clerk in Tokyo Gets Fair Pay -- the Hard Way

TOKYO (AP)—Mitsuyuki Ehara, 21, a clerk at the Tokyo Education Board, got his two weeks pay Saturday and didn't like its size—3,000 yen (about $8).

Police who arrested him today said this is what happened to the disgruntled clerk:

He went to a bar. By midnight the 3,000 yen was gone. But not Ehara's anger.

He returned to his office, broke open the safe and took 13,000 yen ($36).

"I thought it fair for my salary," he was quoted by police.

Endure Pest of Flies as Caterpillar Curb

ST. PAUL (AP)—Northern Minnesota residents are enduring one kind of pest on assurances from entomologists that it will mean relief from another next spring. Parasite flies, described by State Entomologist T. L. Aamodt as "so numerous as to be temporarily unpleasant" invaded the northern areas on the heels of tent caterpillars.

The caterpillars appeared in greatly reduced numbers this year, largely because of a well-organized campaign. And Aamodt says the parasite flies will invade cocoons the caterpillars spin this season, killing the caterpillars.

The flies, incidentally, are harmless. The caterpillars live off fresh young vegetation, denuding trees. But Aamodt says they do little permanent damage because they appear early enough so trees can grow another set of leaves.

Wild boars imported from Europe by sportsmen now run wild in Tennessee, North Carolina and California.

Hal Boyle Says:

Watch a Baby Age If You Think You're Getting Old

NEW YORK (AP)—If you think you are growing old too fast, take a look at a baby sometime.

Nothing ages so quickly as a baby growing up. It is positively alarming—the speed with which they expand and change.

I am now the 8-week-old adopted father of a 3-month-old girl. At first I called her "Little Jughead," but now Frances makes me call her "Trace"—short for Margaret Tracy Ann Kathleen.

"This baby is not going to grow up hearing herself referred to as 'Little Jughead,'" my wife said firmly. "And that's final, Musclehead."

On the other hand, I'm not too sure how Tracy will react when she is a little older and learns she was named after a tugboat. For years Frances and I have loved to look out at the busy, merry little tugboats chugging up and down the East River. Each has "Tracy" painted on its smokestack.

But just in case "Little Jughead"—I mean Tracy — doesn't share our admiration for the sound of the name and its sturdy symbol, we gave her three more names she can pick from if she chooses.

I've always thought the fair thing to do is to insert an "X" in every child's birth certificate. The "X" would stand for any name she might want to insert later, a name she herself might decide upon.

It's an odd experience, suddenly finding yourself a new-born parent at the threshold of middle age. Many more mature, wiser parents say:

"You think she's fun now. Wait until she can walk and talk. Then they really begin to be wonderful."

The funny thing is, we aren't at all anxious for her to grow older. After she learns to walk, she might walk out of our lives, leaving them empty. When she learns to talk, she might look around and say, "I don't know why I chose to adopt you two as parents. If I hadn't been rushed, I might have done better."

We would rather like to keep her small and helpless and changeless forever. The only thing we really like to change about her is her diaper.

But each morning when we wake her up, we see fresh signs of time upon her. She is springing up like a dandelion in spring. She weighed only 11 pounds when she came to us. We have no scales yet, so the other day we asked the butcher if he would weigh her for us, a service he performs for many young parents in the neighborhood.

We spread a cloth on the scales, put the baby on it tenderly, and told the butcher to keep his thumb off the scales—we wanted a fair weigh.

"That'll be $17.46," he said after a quick glance at the scales, "Shall I wrap her up?" And then—for some reason this favorite joke of his with new parents always falls a bit flat—he added quickly:

"She weighs 14 pounds and 3 ounces — best-looking baby we've weighed all morning."

Now there's an honest butcher! At least when he's weighing babies.

This morning Tracy woke up rubbing her lower gum hard. Her first tooth is trying to sprout. She had more hair on her head, too—hair that she really doesn't need yet at all—and her old man could use very well.

I went back and told the baby: "Take it easy, kid. Don't you know that every day you grow up, I grow that much down?"

And Tracy just looked up and smiled—the smile of victory all young things have over age.

Convict Leaps Within Prison Via Parachute

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Convict Barney Thurman flies over the Texas Prison walls as easily as inmates singing "The Prisoner's Song" dream about it. Then he jumps back inside—from 1,500 feet up.

He'll do it four times next month, with the warden's approval, as a stunt for the Texas Prison Rodeo.

The 22nd annual show will be held each Sunday in October. As usual, all performers in what is billed as the roughest rodeo in the world will be convicts.

Thurman, 28, arrived at the prison from Kilgore, Tex., last November on a forgery rap. About a month ago he became a trusty in the prison store.

* * *

Then he sent word to prison Gen. Manager O. B. Ellis that he knows nothing about riding broncs or Brahaman bulls but he sure would like to stand the customers' hair on end at the rodeo by making a parachute jump into the arena.

* * *

Thurman said that besides being a former welder and baseball pitcher, he's an ex-paratrooper who has made 37 military jumps, plus one at a county fair, since leaving the service.

Ellis liked the idea of the rodeo jumps. He got approval from the Civil Aeronautics Authority. Thurman signed a waiver to protect the prison system in case anything goes wrong in his weekly leaps from 1,500 feet.

Thurman made a practice jump yesterday—his first in two years. He'll make another next Sunday.

Door Handle Pierces Man's Arm in Crash

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP)—Richard C. Hardin, 29, was cruising down U.S. Highway 64 yesterday with his arm out the window.

Suddenly, his auto and another sideswiped. The door handle from the other car pierced Hardin's arm. The impact tore the handle from the door and stuck in his arm until Hardin finally stopped his car.

Trooper Gordon Schulze said a motorist stopped to aid Hardin and the injured man fell out of the car when the door was opened. The door handle dropped from his arm to the pavement.

He was hospitalized in serious condition.

Lag in Housing Concerns U. S.

Government May Take Direct Action Unless Credit Is Available

WASHINGTON (AP)—Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole said today the government may take "direct action" unless private mortgage credit is available to sustain reasonably high home building activity.

Cole's address, prepared for the American Bankers Assn. at its 79th convention here, was the first official acknowledgment of government concern—and surprise—over the housing slowdown. Many builders have blamed a shortage of credit.

* * *

New home starts in August, Cole reported, were down to a rate of 970,000 a year, not seriously below the 1,127,000 in 1952. But a sharper future decline is indicated by a drop in current applications for Federal Housing Administration (FHA) mortgage insurance, he said.

This may mean some difficulty next year, the head of the Housing and Home Finance Agency went on, in keeping residential construction up to a level consistent with a sound economy. He told the bankers:

"I submit to you the very serious reminder that if we are unable to maintain a reasonably high continuing volume of home production—which means an adequate continuing flow of mortgage credit—we may be required to resort to some means of assistance to avoid unnecessary wrenches to our entire economy. . . .

* * *

"On this somewhat sober note I suggest in sincere candor that the bankers weigh carefully the problem they share with housers. Together you have the opportunity to demonstrate that private industry can and will handle the job without a return to direct government action in the housing field."

In harmony with the "sound money" polity of the Eisenhower administration, Cole said, the housing agency increased interest rates on FHA-insured and Veterans Administration loans and took other steps to free the mortgage market from federal intervention.

America Awaits Last POW Ship

Final U. S. Repatriates Dock at San Francisco Wednesday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Gen. R. L. Howze, ninth and last of the freedom ships returning liberated American POWs to their homeland, docks at Ft. Mason Wednesday, concluding the greatest emotional binge the San Francisco waterfront has seen in years.

It started when the transport Gen. Nelson M. Walker sailed through the Golden Gate with 328 repatriates Aug. 23. It continued with the hospital ship Haven, the Gen. W. F. Hase, the Marine Adder, the Gen. John Pope, the Marine Phoenix, the Gen. William Black and—yesterday—the Gen. A. W. Brewster.

Delirious, unrestrained joy has been the keynote. Soldiers once given up for dead have stood at the rail, yelling, laughing and crying at the sight of their loved ones on the dock. Mothers have fainted and fathers have sobbed openly.

* * *

But maybe it's like Capt. James C. Williams said when he left the Brewster yesterday:

"Happy? I'm near crazy with happiness. I was a POW 33 months. I haven't seen my wife and kids in three years. I'll see them tomorrow. I'm so happy I..I..I just don't know what to say.

"But I hope all these families, and all these soldiers don't get so happy they forget what caused the misery in the first place.

"You've heard of death valley. I was there. I saw hundreds of men die for lack of food, for lack of any medical care whatever. See my nose? A chinese smashed it with his rifle butt after they captured me.

* * *

"I saw them throw hand grenades at the wounded. I saw them open the doors of ambulances and fire inside with their machine guns.

"We walked 34 miles the first day. Some of the men had no boots. We got no water and no food for four days.

"You've heard all these stories. They've been told before. It doesn't mean much to anyone who wasn't there. I had it no worse and no better than many of the men. At least I pulled through.

"But I'd hate to think everybody was going to forget all that now, just because some of us came home on a ship. There are many American soldiers buried in Korea. They won't be coming home like this."

The captain, of Kansas City, is only 32.

End 2-Month Survey of Uranium Deposits

MANILA (AP) — Two members of the U. S Atomic Energy Commission have concluded a two-month survey of possible uranium deposits in the Philippines, Mines Director Benjamin Gozon said today.

The experts—Howard S. Stafford and Harry Puttock—centered their activities on a reported uranium field near Los Banos, south of Manila.

Gozon refused to disclose their findings.

Earlier this year, Eric G. Huzenlaub, a Texas chemist, and his wife reported they found an extensive uranium field near Los Banos, a hot springs resort about 32 miles from the capital.

Mental Patients' Drawings Offer Key to Disorder

NEW YORK (UP) — Robert Roche, a young American painter, fights insanity every day with his art.

The handsome artist, who is readying a winter exhibit here, has his own buttons firmly fastened. But he has a deep interest in those who haven't and does what he can to help.

"I have not brought art to the insane and the mentally disturbed as a therapy," said the Stamford, Conn., painter "Others have done that for 30 years. My contribution is to make art an aid to the psychiatrist."

Roche believes drawings and paintings done by mental patients are one of the psychiatrist's most useful tools in determining exact mental climate at any given time and in charting a patient's progress. Sometimes they can reveal the cause of insanity.

For the past three years Roche has worked in cooperation with handling slightly disturbed patients. He keeps his patients' work and passes it on to their psychiatrists for analysis.

Roche said the most demented usually have powers of concentration superior to the sane. He described their minds as "direct channels" to the drawing board, undisturbed by the harassments of everyday life. The hand follows the mind, he said, mirroring tensions on paper and canvas with terrifying realism.

Fearing License Loss, Youth Logs 9 Violations

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—W. A. William, police accident investigator, said he chased a teen-ager through the city at 75 miles an hour yesterday, logging nine traffic violations.

Two cars collided at an intersection trying to avoid the speeding vehicles and a third driver jumped a curb to get out of the way.

Williams, police accident investigayouth at gunpoint and asked him why he tried to flee.

"I was told that if I got one more ticket I would lose my license," the youth replied.

Egypt Arrests 14 Ex-Bigwigs

Former Premier, Wife Among Those Held by Naguib Regime

CAIRO (AP)—President Mohammed Naguib's government arrested former Premier Mustafa Nahas, his wife and 12 other onetime Egyptian bigwigs today. All 14 face trial before a special court created to deal with "traitors" to the revolutionary regime and corruption during the time of ex-King Farouk.

No specific charges were announced against any of the 14. It also was not known when they would appear before the court.

The roundup came as the three-man special tribunal prepared to begin trials of alleged plotters. The court hearings were scheduled to open later today and to remain in session throughout the three-year "transition period" — proclaimed last January — in which Egypt is operating under a provisional constitution. Political parties have been banned during that period.

* * *

Those arrested today included leaders of two once powerful political parties, several close advisers of Farouk and other persons previously accused of corruption under the monarchy.

* * *

Nahas, premier of the Wafdist government that governed Egypt from 1949 to 1952, his wife, and Hafez Affifi, former chief of Farouk's Royal Cabinet, were put under house arrest.

The other 11 were taken into custody by military police. They included:

Ibrahim Abdel Hadi, a leader of the Saadist party and premier during the 1948 Palestine War.

Ibrahim Farag, former cabinet minister and a spokesman for Nahas' Wafdist party.

Ex-Prince Abbas Halim, Farouk's second cousin previously acquitted of charges in connection with Egypt's notorious Palestine War arms scandal.

Karim Tabet, former press adviser to Farouk, who last June was stripped of political rights for 10 years and ordered to refund 5,000 pounds ($14,400) in hospital funds an anti-graft court said he acquired illegally.

Dr. Ahmed El Nakib, former director of El Mouassa Hospital tried with Tabet and banned from holding public office for five years.

Ismail Almiligy, brother of Saadist party chief Abdel Hadi.

* * *

Lt. Col. Saad Eldin El Sumbati, former police officer previously acquitted of charges of torturing members of the Moslem Brotherhood.

* * *

Hamid Godo, former vice chairman of the Saadist party.

Mahmoud Suleiman Ghannam, former Wafdist commerce minister.

Could It Be That Wife Distrusts Own Cooking?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It may be the sergeant's wife lacks confidence.

When Sgt. 1 C. Henderson L. Woolever of Exeter, Calif., debarked from the transport Gen. A. W. Brewster yesterday his wife looked hard at the repatriated prisoner of war and declared:

"He looks a little peaked to me. . . He needs some of his mother's cooking."

Exchange Vows Astride Their Favorite Horses

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The wedding was strictly a "horsey set" affair.

Miss Doris Eileen Froff and Earl C. Enck, of nearby Ronks, exchanged vows yesterday while astride "Falem" and "Smokey," their favorite horses. They've loved horses as long as they can remember, they explained.

The best man, the matron of honor and the bride's father also attended on horseback.

Accuses Pentagon of Selling Policies

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National council against conscription has accused the armed forces of endangering democracy through "military press agentry."

In a report released yesterday, the group siad:

"After a military decison has been rached it is to be sold to the public almost as it would be in any non-Democratic state."

The council siad the Pentagon gets across "the military point of view" through articles and speeches as well as 146 army newspapers in the United States, 22 in Europe and 84 in Korea.

It said the general purpose of military publicity is to sell Congress and the people on Pentagon policy. A second aim, it said, is "to get the American people psychologically ready for war."

General Dean Coming Back on Regular Flight

TOKYO (AP)—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, the prize prisoner of the Communists for more than three years, left today for the United States with 10 other Americans on a regularly scheduled flight.

Eight of his fellow passengers were also prisoners of the Communists who were returned in Operation Big Switch. The other two were soldiers whose illnesses required medical care in the United States.

"It was a regularly scheduled flight," an officer said. "The general wanted it that way."

The 54-year-old Medal of Honor winner said goodbye at the airport to Gen. O. P. Weyland, Far East Air Forces commander, a long-time friend.

Also at Tokyo's international airport was Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, U.N. deputy chief, who signed the armistice agreement that preceded Big Switch.

Giant Plane Suffers $5 Million Damage

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Howard Hughes has disclosed that a break of an earth dike at the harbor has caused damage of more than five million dollars to his gigantic wooden flying boat, the world's largest airplane.

The flying boat has been under experimental construction more than 10 years under a government contract. It has a wing span of 320 feet and is 219 feet long. The plane weighs more than 200 tons and its tail is as tall as a two-story building. It is designed for a passenger capacity of 700.

The earth dike had been constructed by a dredging company to retain material pumped from the harbor bottom.

The hangar of the eight-engine plane was flooded with thousands of tons of mud, silt and water.

Truman Sees U. N. Creating World Peace

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says that eventually there will be complete understanding among all free nations "and the United Nations will be the means to create peace in the world for future generations."

"People have always been attracted by an ideal," he told an NBC Television audience yesterday. "We must make the ideal of democracy increasingly brighter and more real."

Pentagon Braid High on Upkeep

Gold Splattered Boys Squawk About Tarnish on Uniforms

WASHINGTON (NEA) — With cold weather just around the corner, Washington's annual "battle of the gold braid" will soon be underway.

Summer truce deadline expires when winter uniforms come out of hiding. Then it's the season for the gold-splattered boys to start squawking—first about the high cost, second because of the upkeep headache.

Of the two, "operation tarnish" is probably the more exasperating. It's the problem of how to keep gold lace (stripes) scrambled eggs (hat trim) and fire hoses (aide's aiguillette) from looking like regulation breakfast toast.

The custom for plenty of officers, including Waves and Navy nurses, has been to replenish the gold braid on a uniform every two or three years. But this habit, they agree, is mighty expensive, even on an admiral's pay.

Not counting the cost of his uniform, a top-stripe-wearer in the Navy forks out about $32.50 just for braid.

Multiply that by three winter "blues" and the admiral has a gold lace investment of around $100, which ends up being scuttled because of tarnish.

It takes about $55 worth of braid to keep a lieutenant commander looking shipshape. Even a lowly ensign sinks nearly $30 into the same disheartening deal for lady officers.

In party-conscious Washington, Army, Marine and Air Corps officers also run into the braid sanfu, since it's got to be tacked to formal evening attire.

When a leatherneck captain goes high society he starts right off with a $40 gold braid bill.

Probably with both budget and tarnish in mind, the Army has announced that the latest blue dress uniorms will substitute gold-colored nylon for gold lace.

Back in 1947 the Navy tried the nylon but it didn't go over. Rumor was the old salts decided it made them look too much like movie ushers.

Recently one of the town's uniform emporiums claims it has found a cleaning fluid which puts quite a bit of the old sparkle back into tarnished braid. They figure it might even keep an officer's trim intact five years or so.

But braid will turn almost over night, cautions this gold lace merchant, if left in a manilla bag or anywhere near a moth-preventative.

Some of the Waves here have a system which they think helps keep the shine a little longer. They coat the gold with colorless nail polish.

But the problem is not just confined to the Pentagon. You should see the gold braid some afternoon at an embassy party.

An estimate given a Chinese diplomat recently by a uniform outfit here was $400 on a new full dress job. Of this $250 was for braid alone. The shop is still waiting for his answer.

Organ Music Plus

MANSFIELD, O. (UP)—The dedication of the new organ at the Church of God in nearby Ridgeway was unusual. Investigation of un-organ-like sounds disclosed a mother cat had deposited five recently born kittens inside the organ.

Crime Trend High in U. S. This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says that, statistically, the trend is toward a record amount of criminal activity in the United States this year.

Statistics on the first half of 1953, compiled from police reports throughout the country and released Saturday in the FBI's semi-annual 'Uniform Crime Reports,' showed a total of 1,047,290 major crimes committed.

The total of all of 1952 was 2,036,000.

Other statistics for the first half of 1952; a major crime every 14.9 seconds; one murder or negligent homicide every 40.3 minutes; one rape every 29.4 minutes, one robbery every 8.8 minutes.

Retired Publisher Ford Rowe Dies at Kalamazoo

KALAMAZOO (UP) — Services will be held today for Ford F. Rowe, owner and publisher of the Kalamazoo Gazette frm 1899 to 1922.

Rowe, 91, died at his home here Saturday after a long illness. He had been bedridden since last February. He will be buried Tuesday at Rockford, Ill.

Circulation of the Gazette increased from less than 600 to more than 30,000 during Rowe's 23 years with the newspaper. H bought out three other competing Kalamazoo newspapers during that time, leaving the Gazette the only daily in the city when he sold it in 1922.

Rowe bought the Gazette at the turn of the century for a reported $13,000 most of which he borrowed. He sold it to Booth Newspapers, Inc., owners of a chain of eight Michigan newspapers, for close to $1,000,000.

Rowe was born March 19,1862, at Mineral Point, Wis. after graduating from Mineral Point high school, he attended Beloit College but left to take a job in a Des Moines, Ia., bank.

He then became a bookkeeper and managed a circus for five years before joining the advertising department of the Rockford, Ill., star. From the star, he moved to Kalamazoo and bought the Gazette.

Dem on Trade Job for Policy Freedom

WASHINGTON (AP) — Stephen J. Spingarn, a Democrat ending three years on the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), says the agency should be free of presidential domination or should be abolished.

In a statement yesterday, Spingarn urged Congress "to restore to the commission the independence free from presidential domination necessary for it to carry on effectively the anti-monopoly job which Congress has assigned to it."

Otherwise, he said, the Department of Justice could take over its tasks and the commission abolished.

John W. Gwynne of Iowa succeeds Spingarn Friday, giving Republicans a majority on the commission.

Noted British Composer Roger Quilter Dies

LONDON (AP)—Roger Quilter, well known composer, died today after a lingering illness. He was 75.

His "Children's Overture" was a favorite in Britain for many years. A number of his songs also have been popular with concert singers here and in America.

North Korea to Get Help From Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has announced that it is giving North Korea financial and material help to speed reconstruction of that war-torn Communist country.

The aid was disclosed in a communique yesterday following nine days of negotiations between Soviet leaders and a North Korean delegation headed by Premier Kim Il Sung.

At a dinner for the North Koreans the night before, Russian Premier Georgi Malenkov compared the struggle of Asian peoples for independence to the American revolution but accused "powerful American circles" of gross interference in internal affairs of eastern nations.

Continue Hunt for Missing 7

9 From Plane Found, Coast Guard Searches Atlantic for Others

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — The search for seven missing members of a B29 hurricane hunter plane which crashed into the Atlantic Friday was continued today by the Coast Guard.

Meanwhile, 15 survivors, nine of them from a rescue plane which was damaged by rough seas as it attempted to pick up survivors of the B29, were scheduled to arrive in New York today on the cruise ship Nassau.

* * *

Nine men were rescued from the B29, which survivors said "suddenly burst into flames" while on a flight. Three of them were brought to Charleston yesterday. The others were aboard the Nassau.

Survivors of the B29 brought to Charleston were Airman 1. C. Norman Prosser of Bruckner, Mo.; Airman 1. C. Paul L. Dion, 24, Boston, Mass., and S. Sgt. Edwin H. Sischo, 26 Neillsville, Wis. Prosser was burned severely and placed in the Charleston Naval Hospital. The others were taken to Hunter AFB by automobile following an examination.

* * *

Dion said he jumped from the plane at 5,000 feet after it "suddenly burst into flames."

He said he and Sischo then spent 18 hours in a rubber life raft. Both said they had to sit with their knee folded under their chins on the tiny raft. Most of the time, they said, a six-foot shark circled about them.

The three were picked up by the Seatrain Georgia and transferred to a Coast Guard cutter which brought them here.

Chinese Risk Death by Daubing '4' on Walls

The entries took the gold and silver awards, the two top prizes of the show.

Separated Siamese Twins Out of Danger

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Louisiana's famed Mouton Siamese twins are "out of danger", barring infection, Dr. L. L. Weissmiller, Foundation Hospital director, says.

Weissmiller added last night that the twin daughters of Mayor and Mrs. Ashton Mounton of Lafayette, La., are now completely bottle fed and their condition "looks good." The twins were separated last Thursday in history-making surgery.

Carolyn Anne and Catherine Anne, who will be two months old tomorrow, were given nourishment through their veins following the operation. Saturday the two babies were given formula for the first time, but also fed intra-veinously until yesterday.

Solons Spending Second Trillion

Half of Appropriations Have Gone to Military Since 1872, Files Show

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is working on its second trillion dollars in appropriations in the last 82 years.

Since 1872, when the House Appropriations Committee started keeping year - by - year statistics, Congress has appropriated $1,162,000,000,000, well over half of it to the military.

More than half the staggering total was appropriated during the last 10 years, although the all-time high was the 147 billion dollars allotted in 1942, the first full year of World War II.

Only once during the last 10 years have annual appropriations exceeded 100 billion dollars. That was in 1951, when the threat of World War III became real and Congress shelled out 101 billion.

Congress didn't start thinking in terms of billions, much less trillions, until 1908. Appropriations soared that year past the billion dollar mark for the first time. They totaled $1,006,431,726.

They haven't dipped below the billion mark since.

In 1917 and 1918, with the United States involved in World War 1, appropriations took a big jump —to $18,800,000,000 in 1917 and 27 billion in 1918. The following year they dropped to $6,400,000,000.

They remained at a comparatively low level until Hitler started World War II in 1939. In that year Congress appropriated $11,400,000,000 as the United States started preparing for war.

The real big spending started in 1941, the year the Pearl Harbor bombing brought the United States into the war. Appropriations in 1941, the year the Pearl Harbor bombing brought the United States into the war. Appropriations in 1941 totaled $57,700,000,000 and soared to 147 billion in 1942 and $114,500,000,000 in 1943.

In 1944 and 1945 they dipped to $67,600,000,000 and $69,800,000,000 respectively.

Appropriations in 1946, the first year after the war, were $35,700,000,000. They rose slightly, to $35,900,000,000 in 1947.

A child born of American parents living in Alaska is elibible for the presidency of the United States when he grows up.

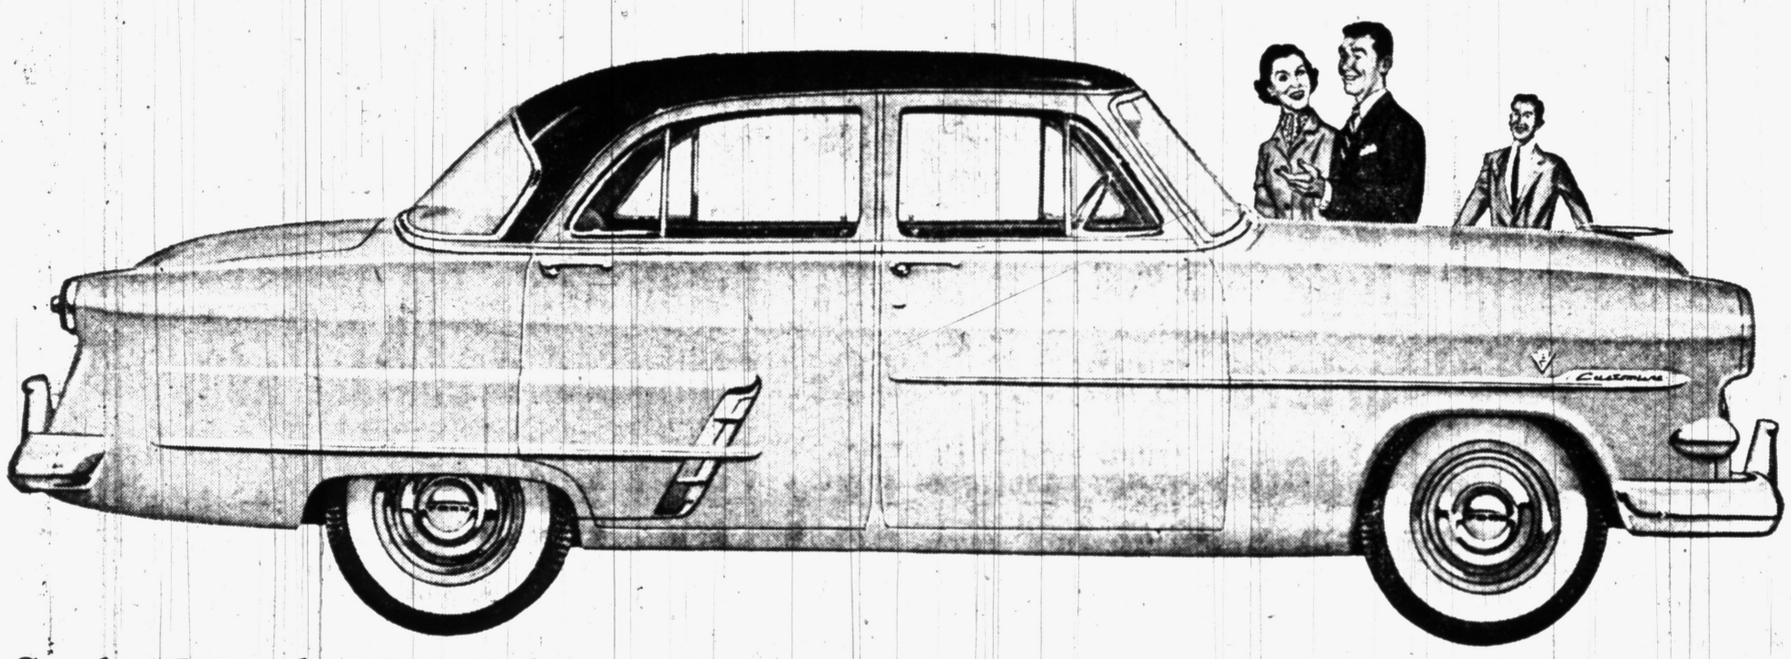
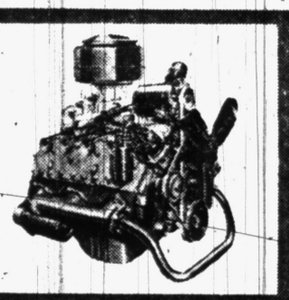
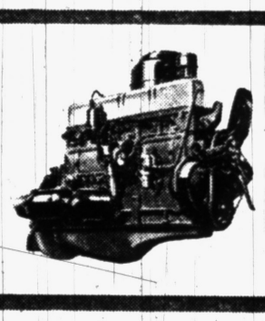
Ford delivers the most for the money!



Such "Worth More" features as Ford's gas-saving Automatic Power Pilot, suspended pedals, foam-rubber cushions on all seats and tailored-to-model front springs are standard with all Fords. You don't pay one cent extra for them! And only Ford in its field has them.



Ford's V-8 is the only V-8 in the low-price field, the same type powering the costliest cars.



Ford's Six is America's most modern . . . yet it's priced with the ordinary (and outmoded) sixes.*

A Fordomatic Ford is the lowest-priced car you can buy with a completely automatic transmission.

Ford Master-Guide is the last word in power steering. It's so easy to operate, so economical to own. Does up to 75% of the work for you—yet costs up to $40 less than any other power steering in the low-price field.

Ever wonder why you see so many new Fords on the road? The answer is simple. Plenty of shrewd folks these days know that Ford delivers the most for the money.

For instance, compare Ford's fine-car build and Full-Circle Visibility with any car at any price. Then Test Drive a Ford. Give it the "works" . . . rough roads, steep hills. Feel how smoothly Ford's new ride irons out the bumps. Feel the way your Ford high-compression engine takes grades with a hushed purr you can scarcely hear. Then compare the prices.

And here's your final proof that Ford offers the most for the money: a survey of used car prices shows that year-old Fords hang onto their value better than any other cars!

Test Drive America's "Worth More" Car

Actor Busy Over 2 Years on 'Treasury Men' Shows

NEW YORK—Since April 5, 1951, tall, authoritative-looking Walter Greaza has been portraying the "Chief of Bureau" in TV's dramatizations of authentic cases taken from the closed files of the U. S. Treasury Department, titled Treasury Men in Action.

It would appear to be ideal casting for the white-haired broad-shouldered, 195-pound six-footer. In a long and distinguished career on stage, screen, radio and TV, Greaza has often been cast as a cast as a leading exponent of the forces of law and order.

Not that Walter Greaza has necessarily been type-cast during a busy life devoted to Thespis. His Broadway credits have included varied histrionic assignments in such popular theatre pieces as "Ceiling Zero," "Wallflower," "Wednesday's Child" and "Room Service."

Walter Greaza was born on Jan. 1, 1897, in St. Paul, Minn., the son of Canadian parents. After graduating from high school in his native city, he entered the University of Minnesota to pursue a law career his parents had planned for him,

However, musty law books had far less appeal for the young collegian than the smell of grease paint, and Walter decided to major in dramatics, instead.

After receiving his degree, Walter accepted a job offered to him as a newspaperman, but before long, he left it to do a hitch in the Navy in World War I.

With the end of hostilities, he returned to his Fourth Estate assignment, but he was destined to remain with it for only two hours. During his lunch hour, he instinctively found himself headed for the nearby Shubert Stock Company in Minneapolis, where he was auditioned for a part and hired on the spot.

The year was 1919 and Walter presumably is still officially on that lunch hour! Many years of stock in the country's leading cities followed, before eventual stage and screen triumphs in New York, Hollywood, and on radio and TV.

Walter is a devotee of baseball and boxing. He loves music and is a competent pianist.

Poetry and versifying is another esthetic interest. Whenever time permits, he is on a busman's holiday, directing stock companies.

Greaza was formerly married to Mary Young, who died in 1947. His present wife is Helene Ambrose an actress, with whom he resides in Forest Hills, Long Island, N. Y.

Korean War Veterans Get No State Bonus

Newly discharged veterans are in error when they expect a service bonus from the state, according to Floyd E. Cremer, assistant director of the Oakland County Veteran's Service Office.

"Many returning veterans say they were told to expect a Michigan bonus," Cremer explained. "Although there was such a law for veterans of World War II, our office has not been informed of any like provisions made for men discharged since the outbreak of the Korean War."

Shipments of TV Sets 38 Pct. Ahead of 1952

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Assn. reported today that shipments of television sets to dealers during the first seven months of this year were nearly 39 per cent ahead of the same period a year ago.

For January through July, reports to the association showed shipments of 3,335,262 receivers compared with 2,406,747 over the same months in 1952.

Second Oil Pipeline Completed at Straits

ST. IGNACE (UP) — Laying of a second 20-inch oil pipeline across the Straits of Mackinac was completed Sunday.

The job of pulling the line into place across the four-mile Straits was completed in 65 hours, compared to a week for the first one which was finished Aug. 15.

The double line will be a link in a cross-country pipeline which will bring crude oil from the Canadian oil fields in Alberta to refineries at Sarnia, Ont. Workmen began laying the second line Thursday afternoon.

GUARDS AGAINST INTERFERENCE

In the studio—under controlled conditions—cameras pick up perfect image. Diagram represents television wave pattern as it appears on engineer's oscilloscope.

But outside interference—a passing truck, a neighbor's vacuum cleaner—can distort TV waves. Such interference scrambles the wave pattern like this.

Crosley Picture-Sentry (an advanced electronic circuit) controls TV wave pattern; guards against scrambling. The image on your '54 Crosley stays clear, sharp . . . as in the studio.

Exclusive Picture-Sentry wipes out roll-over . . . streaks and flutter . . . automatically gives you true-to-life pictures.
Has your enjoyment of television been interrupted by pictures that roll, jump or tear—even though you just had your set serviced? Well, that won't happen on a new Crosley, thanks to the amazing Crosley Picture-Sentry that automatically wipes out the cause of these annoyances.
Before you put down one penny for a television set—go see the new Crosleys. Turn the dial on a Crosley, take a good long look at the picture. See how clear it is . . . how it almost breathes.
You won't see a better picture anywhere because only Crosley has the Picture-Sentry. And look at all these other Crosley features:
Crosley's built-in UHF reception gives you all 82 channels—other UHF-VHF combinations optional. Crosley prices include Federal excise tax and full-year warranty on picture tube as well as 90 days on chassis parts. Permanent pinpoint focus . . . no dial fussing. All rich wood cabinets, not metal, not plastic. Super picture power—ideal for fringe areas. Removable picture window so you can clean window and tube face yourself. Brightness and tone controls in front, in easy reach. Illuminated dial on Custom sets . . . no more squinting. When and if color comes, your '54 Crosley will receive in black and white all programs broadcast through the compatible color system being developed by the television industry.

Nab ROK Newsman for Aiding Commies

SEOUL (AP) — South Korean defense Minister Sohn Won Il said today a well-known South Korean newsmen has been charged with espionage and with collecting and contributing $139,000 in war funds to North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung.

Sohn identified the man as Chung Kook Eun, one-time correspondent in Japan for the South Korean daily "Yunhap Shinmoon."

Sohn charged that Chung collected a total of 50 million Japanese yen (about $139,000) through the "Haebang Yunmaing (Liberation) Association," a Red organization in Japan.

Chung, 36, was arrested by the South Korean counter-intelligence corps Aug. 31 on charges of espionage.

HAVE YOU TRIED WONDER BREAD LATELY?

Made With Even Better Quality Protein Flour To Give You A Better Loaf Of Bread

Surveys Show 1 Out Of 2 Children Fail To Get The Recommended Amounts Of Food-Energy For Normal Weight And Growth Gains.

In Just 7 Days Start Your Child Growing Again With Wonder Bread!

The Bread That Helps Build Strong Bodies 8 Ways!

Note How Wonder Bread Compares With Meat, Milk, Fish and Eggs—See Chart

Children go for Wonder Bread because it's Doubly Fresh!

An average boy of 10 should gain about 6 pounds in one year.

Which is at the rate of ½ pound per month; or less than 2 ounces each week.

But any time your child fails to gain puts her or him that far behind.

Why Lack of Food-Energy Causes Weight and Growth Loss

Carbohydrate and fat supply food-energy. Protein supplies the "building blocks" of growth.

Now Nature cannot use carbohydrate and fat alone for growth, but it can use protein for energy.

Thus, when your child fails to get enough carbohydrate and fat food-energy, Nature uses the protein for food-energy instead of growth.

The result: Your child's growth is stunted.

Wonder Bread Helps Your Child Grow Bigger and Stronger 8 Ways

A well-balanced diet calls for meat, milk, eggs, fruit and both yellow and green-leafed vegetables. And carbohydrate food for energy. Like Wonder Bread.

Because not only does Wonder Bread supply food-energy but protein. Study the chart and see how Wonder Bread helps build bigger and stronger bodies 8 ways.

To encourage your child to eat a well-balanced diet and 8 slices of Wonder Bread each day, show him or her this ad. Because it shows how any boy or girl can grow bigger and stronger 8 ways—which is what they want to excel in their favorite sports.

Measure your child in the doorway. Make a pencil mark now. Then in 3 months and 6 months—watch the mark shoot up!

Get Wonder Bread Today

Wonder Bread is a wonderful food. Because it helps build strong bodies 8 ways.

And Wonder Bread has a wonderful flavor. Because it is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it and fresh when you eat it.

Get Wonder Bread fresh from your grocer today. And—start your child growing again in just 7 days.

"I Went Down in a Sub"

Press Publisher Tells of Trip Under Atlantic Ocean

Describes How Torpedo Is Fired

Watches Target Drills Where Men Never See What They Shoot At

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Pontiac Press Publisher

(Editor's Note — This is the first of two articles. The second will appear in Tuesday's Press.)

I just spent eight exciting hours at sea in a submarine, and a quarter of the time we were completely under water.

The ship was the Grenadier — really the Grenadier the Second — as the original was lost at sea in World War II after a gallant record against the Japs in the South Pacific.

We headed out Atlantic way from the magnificent submarine base at New London, Conn., and before the day was over, the Grenadier made four dives that ran from thirty to forty minutes apiece and fired four torpedoes at a moving target ship. The results were impressive.

The sub scored three absolute hits on this 175 foot craft and one "near miss" which the Navy manfully forbears from counting. "We'd have shot the propellers right off her stern," said Lieutenant Commander Dozier, "but the boys can't take credit for that."

Obviously, the Grenadier's torpedoes weren't loaded and these rakish "fish" passed beneath the hull of the target ship, but after they were fired, I preferred to be aboard the submarine.

Gunners Never See Their Target Ships

Just to challenge your credulity, you must know that these torpedoes were fired by men who never saw the target ship at any time in any way. They did it "by instruments" and the closest "fish" was fired at slightly over a half mile and the furthest at just over a mile. If you doubt this accuracy, I go along with your viewpoint readily, but that's the way it happened.

More men and more machinery are packed in a submarine than in the same number of cubic feet anywhere in the world. By comparison, the humble sardine enjoys the unfettered and untrammeled luxury of wide open spaces. The men sleep in the smallest bunks in recorded history but an observant and thoughtful Navy recognizes this privation and in return the submariners are the best fed military personnel in the world.

And they draw bonus pay.

The Grenadier is 307 feet long, distinctly on the skinny side and she rides low in the water when she surfaces. Normally she carries a compliment of 70 men and the ingenious architects and designers have crammed in machinery, gadgets, dials, engines, motors, pumps, compressors, lethal gimmicks, red lights, green lights, yellow lights, wires, tubes and even a streamlined freezer that disgorges tasty chocolate ice cream.

When we cast off, there were about five of us on the bridge and to my amazement, the youngest officer aboard began barking orders, and backing this formidable thing out into the river and swinging her around to face the open sea.

"Do you mean the only life I have is in the hands of someone as young as that?" I asked an officer.

He nodded.

"How old is he?"

"Well, he graduated from Annapolis a few years ago and I'd estimate he was about 25."

Youth Pilots Vessel Through Busy Sound

By this time we were right out in the stream which was dotted with other naval vessels and a whole host of lesser fry. Our young John Paul Jones handled that great hulk the way you would a nice, new Pontiac. He tooted and booted some of the incidental traffic out of the way, recognized the rights of others and added one gray hair over a crazy sail boat which has sea going rights over everything—including the Grenadier.

The boy was good.

He had it.

He was twenty five years of age and yet he was king of a mighty submarine which obeyed his every whim and which he handled with consummate ease and dispatch.

Finally we passed a couple of light houses, headed into the Sound and soon the forward deck was awash with some light seas from the Atlantic.

The Grenadier had a nautical rendezvous with a target ship which was off against the horizon and it was our job to work in without being seen. At this juncture one of the older officers stepped up and said:

"Mike, I'll take her down on the first dive."

But now I needed no relief. I'd have gone clear down to Davey Jones' locker with Mike and spit in Father Neptune's eye. Father Neptune was slightly outpointed once in a minor tiff with Minerva, but the deal must have been rigged against him for he handled about everything else. Still, I'd take on Neptune and his brother Jupiter if they'd spot me this 25-year-old kid.

Lieutenant Commander William C. Dozier conducted a tour of inspection. He was the boss — the head man.

The sub is a series of hatches, ladders and small apertures through which you duck, dodge, creep, climb and (in my case) frequently stumble. You can't turn around without looking over your shoulder to make sure you aren't knocking off an important dial or stepping on the toes of three sailors.

The skipper asked me if I wanted to see the batteries which provide the power when the sub's submerged and by this time I wanted to see everything, so we went down through another eye in a needle and were in a compartment so cramped that you couldn't possibly stand up. Actually, the captain of this great underseas craft and your humble reporter at large sat with our legs straight in front as we reviewed the interminable battery of batteries.

'Impossible' Is Easy With Lives at Stake

"You now," said he, "are at the bottom of everything. Below this is nothing but the hull and a whole lot of Long Island Sound."

"How do you repair anything down here?" I asked wonderingly.

The skipper looked solemn. "You lie flat on your belly and you hunch along to the right place. Then you go to work right there on your tummy."

"It looks impossible."

"My friend," said Dozier simply, "when you're under attack and your own life and those of 70 pals depends on what you do, you'd be surprised how fast and far you can crawl and how desperately well you can use tools — both here and in a hundred other 'impossible' places."

Sub Crews Must Make Lightning Repairs

The records of the Navy show that submarine crews have done miraculous and incredible work at lightning speed after they've been hit in the stress and strain of deadly combat or suffered mechanical breakdowns. Subs have limped painfully home and almost crept back torturously on the bottom of the sea as the result of ingenious repairs and men have performed work that seemed humanly impossible.

When life hangs in the balance, people discover a power and a genius that transcends normal limitations.

Submarine crews are volunteers. You can't be drafted into sub duty.

After the original request they under go an intensive study and schooling, for 150 feet below the surface is no place to crack up mentally or fail to survive the rigors of a tempestuous existence in combat exigencies. Hence there is an esprit de corps and a comradery in the submarine service that submariners believe excels any other branch of service.

When a submarine is on the surface, she proceeds with Diesel engines, but when she dives, she goes to batteries as there's no longer an adequate supply of air. If all the batteries failed and an attempt was made to travel with the Diesels, the air supply would be exhausted in a minute or so.

The Grenadier is equipped with a snorkel which was a war development. The snorkel is a hulking piece of something that extends above the deck behind the bridge and which allows the Diesels to breathe. It is comparatively short and not too high; hence in heavy weather with rain or a fog or at night, the sub can come close to the surface and proceed on the Diesels and charge the batteries.

Possible detection is reduced several hundred per cent as the snorkel is insignificant in size in proportion to the portion of the sub that shows when she is riding the surface.

The Grenadier had a group of students who had been to school and who were now aboard to see how class room theory applied to the actual ship. They were observers on the first three dives and were scheduled to handle many of the controls on the fourth. Once when we were proceeding to our location for the next assault on the target ship, two asked permission to visit the bridge. This the captain granted and then added in an undertone:

"When they've been here long enough we'll give 'em the drill." I didn't know what that meant but everyone else did, including the students. When the time came, the captain called out crisply:

"Clear the bridge for action."

These two blue jacketed submariners dove for the hatch like frightened rabbits and slid down the ladder one atop the other. The skipper turned to one of his officers.

Speed Is Essential After Order to Dive

"Not fast enough. Those drills aren't satisfactory unless somebody has bloody knees or trampled fingers." In other words, when a submarine cites troubles and prepares to go below, it's instantaneous action accompanied by headlong dives instead of merely normal procedure stepped up. When the boss man says "skat" he means "SKAT."

The expulsion of the torpedo from the submarine and the subsequent developments are slightly beyond Rube Goldberg's zaniest concoctions. The torpedoes are swung into the tubes, the front compartment is opened, and they await word from the conning tower. The actual firing is usually done from the conning tower itself, although the boys stationed at the tubes can fire if necessary.

Ship Reclaims Air Used to Propel 'Fish'

The torpedo is expelled from the submarine by air pressure, but this poses another problem. Should this air go to the surface of the ocean, it would produce a tremendous bubble which an enemy ship could spot and instantly understand. Thus it becomes necessary for the sub to reclaim this air, and at the imminent risk of going down in your private note book as Oakland County's clumsiest liar, I hereby assert that this is precisely what happens.

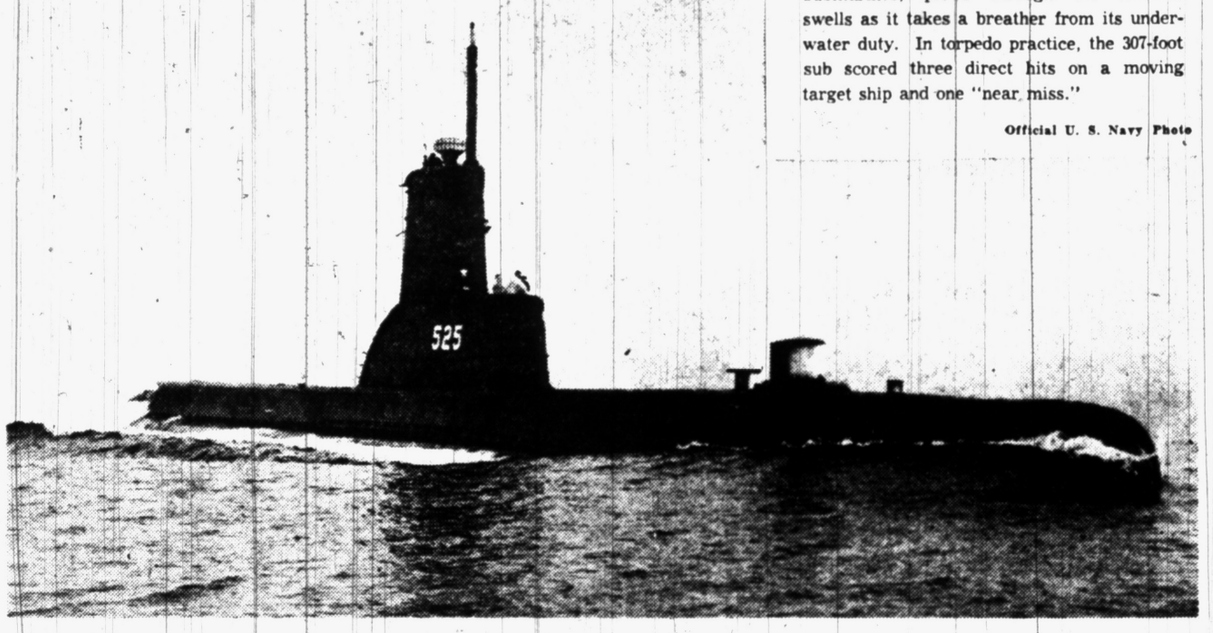
Remember, they generate sufficient power down there in the firing tube by compressed air to drive out a huge and weighed torpedo. Then immediately, another unbelievable piece of apparatus reclaims this same air which is sucked back into the submarine proper. It couldn't return to the tube for it would require tremendous compression; therefore they draw it back into the under-sea ship itself; and so help me Hannah, you can actually feel it come. Those who prefer to doubt this will find me in complete accord and sympathy with their skepticism.

But it happens.

As the torpedo leaves the sub, a trip starts the torpedo's power plant and just to raise this dispassionate essay into the realms of Alice in Wonderland, I set down now that the power plant of this departing sub which has been completely inert, now springs into action and it consists of — hold your breath — a steam engine.

Everyone in the world above the age of ten has "gotten up steam" at some time or other, but our torpedo does it instantly and is winging its merry way under water at the rate of a mile a minute. It can't wait. In practice runs, when the torpedo has gone its course, further apparatus starts to function and the whole thing now comes to the surface and floats, nose up, until it can be retrieved by another Navy ship which is taken to sea for precisely this purpose.

Second article appears Tuesday.



TAKES BREATHER — The USS Grenadier, one of Uncle Sam's hard-hitting submarines, plows through the Atlantic swells as it takes a breather from its underwater duty. In torpedo practice, the 307-foot sub scored three direct hits on a moving target ship and one "near miss."

Neighbors Neighborly Even on the Atlantic

This may constitute the height of nautical coincidence.

When your reporter at large was on the Submarine Grenadier, Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Ward and their three daughters, Virginia, Elizabeth and Ann were returning from Copenhagen via Norway.

As their ship approached Long Island Sound on the late afternoon of precisely the same day, they watched a submarine on the surface. The peculiarity in this lies in the fact that your reporter and the Wards live next door to each other in Pontiac.

Dems Charge GOP Cutbacks Hurting State

DETROIT (AP) — The Democratic State Central Committee claims that defense cutbacks by the Eisenhower Administration are costing Michigan $7,000,000 a week in purchasing power.

The committee set forth its claim in a resolution adopted here yesterday.

It estimated Michigan unemployment has increased from 43,000 in May to 115,000 and said "more layoffs are pending."

The resolution pledges the state's Democrats to work for unemployment compensation equal to 50 per cent of the average weekly wage of $86.23 earned by hourly rated workers. The average unemployment compensation check now is $27.21.

The committee said that jobless compensation amounting to 50 per cent of the average weekly wage not only would provide a better life for the idle but would insure continued prosperity through higher purchasing power.

The committee, meanwhile, reaffirmed its support of the veto which Gov. Williams placed on a bill earlier in the year to extend the period of unemployment compensation payments.

Williams and Democrats in the Legislature argued against provisions of the bill which would have reduced contributions of some employers. The veto was sustained.

A verbal punch was taken at the Republican-controlled Legislature for what the Democrats said was "repeated refusal to pass civil rights legislation."

And Rep. Sen. Homer Ferguson was assailed for "answering by epithet constructive endeavors on behalf of farmers."

But on one point the Democratic Committee agreed with its Republican counterpart. It favors a Republican-sponsored movement to alter the law on selection of county committees outstate.

Now county committee members are named by party nominees for county office. Republicans propse to have county committeemen chosen in county spring conventions, and the Democrats said they would go along.

Hiking Sheriff Hopes to Be Back on Wheels

JASPER, Tex. (AP)—Jasper County Sheriff Thomas M. Mixon hopes to have an automobile again Saturday.

The county commissioners sold the sheriff's car about a month ago in an economy move. They said they would allow eight cents a mile expense money but from now on the sheriff would hate to provide his own car.

Mixon said he didn't have money to buy a car. But businessmen here started a fund-raising campaign to get the sheriff back on wheels.

5 Hurt in Collision on Auburn Avenue

Five persons were treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital fora minor injuries Saturday night following a two-car collision on Auburn avenue near Opdyke road.

Treated were Peter E. Tysick, 23, of 659 Boyd St.; his wife, June, 21; and Earl Morgan, 22, and his wife, Delores, 21, both of 31 Grand St. All were riding in Tysick's auto.

Driver of the other car, Pedro Rios Malaves, 30 of 23 Paddock St., also was treated. Witness told Pontiac Police Malaves was about to make a U-turn when the accident occurred.

Aunt Frieda Works Out Way to Handle Kinsey

By BILLY ROSE

My Uncle Charlie stopped in to see me at my office this afternoon.

"I'm breaking up with your Aunt Frieda," he announced.

"What happened?" I said.

"What happened is Doctor Kinsey," said my uncle.

"I don't follow you," I said.

"Kinsey," said Charlie, "is proving that 26 per cent of all married ladies is having—you should pardon the expression — extra-marital relations."

ROSE

* * *

"Act your age and consider Frieda's," I said. "She's over 60."

"Kinsey is also stating," my uncle went on, "that a lady of 60 is a peppy individual."

* * *

"Peppy or not," I said, "I'm sure my aunt never looked at another man."

"In this life," said Charlie, "a man can only be sure of death and taxis."

"Have you got anything definite on Frieda?" I deadpanned.

"Now that I am looking," said my uncle, "I am finding. Take, for instance, the meat. You're eating in our house. So how's the meat?"

"First rate," I said.

"Well," said Charlie, "for years Frieda is buying the meat from Schlagel, and what she is bringing home is so tender you could cut it with a toothpick.

"But when I'm eating by the Plotkins, the Friedmans, the Goldfarbs, the meat, also from Schlagel's, is like a old mattress."

"That proves nothing," I said, "except that Frieda's a better shopper."

"Shopper, schmopper," said my uncle. "This Schlagel is handsome like Clock Gable. Besides, butchers always make a hit with the ladies. Could be the way they slap meat around all day. . . ."

I finally got Charlie out of my office and telephoned Mrs. Myerholtz who runs the candy store on my uncle's block. She called Frieda to the phone.

"Charlie was here," I said. "He's worried sick about you."

"So let him worry," said my aunt. "It's good a man shouldn't take his wife for granite."

"He's worried about something in the new Kinsey book," I said.

"Oh, that tattle-tittle," said my aunt. "A couple years ago one of his question-askers is in the nelghborhood, but only Mrs. Feldman, the loudmouth, is agreeing to talk with him. But when he is asking how many times she is double-timing her husband, Mrs. Feldman is hitting him in the mouth with a four-pound carp."

"Charlie thinks the butcher is sweet on you," I said, "because you get the best cuts of meat."

"Schlagel is treating everyone likewise," said Frieda. "Only I am not cooking likewise."

"I'll be down for dinner," I said to my aunt. "See if you can't straighten things out. . . ."

Along about 7 when I arrived at their Rivington street flat, the atmosphere was as convivial as Panmunjom.

The main course at dinner was a specialty of Frieda's — a casserole of meat balls, glazed carrots, pearl onions and a red wine sauce. Charlie, a martyred look in his eyes, nibbled at a carrot, then speared a meat ball and bit into it. There was an audible click as molar met meat.

"This is meat?" said my uncle. "To a German police dog I wouldn't give such meat!"

I sampled one of the midget hamburgers. Charlie was right — it tasted like a cutlet cut out of King Kong.

"Where are you buying this meat?" asked Charlie softly.

"From Schlagel as always," said Frieda. "Aint no good?"

"Is good for patching a tire," said my uncle.

"That bum of a Schlagel!" stormed my aunt. "Tomorrow I'm buying in the supermarket."

The look of relief on Charlie's face was a pretty thing to see. "For a week I ain't slept a blink," he said as he got up from the table. "Maybe now I'm taking a little nap."

"Come clean," I said to Frieda as soon as my uncle was out of the room. "Where'd you buy this meat?"

"From Schlagel."

"But he always gives you the best," I said.

"He still gives," said my aunt, "but the marriage it should last another 40 years, tonight I am cooking the meat half a hour less."

Say Bingo Ban 'Killing' Clubs

Townsend Groups Send Resolution Against Curb to State Officials

PETOSKEY (AP) — The Townsend Clubs of Michigan today told Gov. Williams and Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard that the state ban against bingo was "threatening to kill" their clubs.

A resolution adopted at the clubs' state convention here Sunday called on the state officials to lit the bingo ban.

Mrs. Starr Fenne of Kalamazoo, offered the resolution which was unanimously approved.

"I think it is positively wicked to refuse to let us play bingo and at the same time let those big time gamblers to throw their money away at race tracks in Detroit," Mrs. Fenner said.

Mrs. Fenner said the clubs, composed mainly of old agers, used bingo games to raise funds to pay for their meeting places and social activities.

"We're nothing but lonely old men and women," she said.

Mrs. Fenner, 63, said that the more than 100 Townsend Clubs in Michigan were "about to die" because of the enforcement of anti-gambling laws.

"Most of our membership is in the cemetery now," Mrs. Fenner said "It (bingo) was the one piece of recreation we had to look forward to."

Physicists Seek 6D Law

KYOTO, Japan — (AP) — If length, breadth and thickness add up to three dimensions, where do you get numbers 4, 5 and 6?

That's a fair question, but there's no simple answer.

The conception of six dimensions came in a brilliant new theory proposed here Saturday at the International Conference on Theoretical Physics by a Dutch-American Prof. Abraham Pais, only 35.

Pais proposed what he calls "a higher dimensional frame of reference"—he says this means six dimensions in his theory—to explain some recent peculiar discoveries in the atomic nucleus.

The discoveries—all since the atomic bomb was developed in 1945—are that nearly two dozen tiny particles called mesons exist in the nuclei of atoms.

Science has the uneasy feeling that the only reason it has not discovered more is that it hasn't been looking long enough.

One of the aims of this conference, which has drawn 54 scientists from 14 countries to meet with their Japanese equals, is to seek a law explaining the mesons.

Target for Tomorrow:

Earth Invaders May Be Only Living Things on Barren Wastes of Martian Planet

Editor's Note:—This is the last in a series of articles on plans now under way for man's first rocket flight to Mars.

By JOHN GEIGER
International News Service
Science Writer

NEW YORK — The only "Martian invaders" will be the men from earth who invade Mars, and not vice versa.

The only men on Mars will be the Earth-men who get there.

And on all of Mars' 52 million square miles, they may be the only living thing of any kind.

Biologists given modern aser planet have made these asserplanet have made these assertions flatly—for life as we know it. It is possible, they admit, that some totally unknown life-process, based on silicon, for example, instead of oxygen, exists in the solar system. But scientists leave such speculation to the fiction writers.

Yet, even from 50 million miles away, there is disturbing evidence of what may be life. Every Martian spring, a wave of green is seen through Earthly telescopes to spread southward from Mars' polar ara to the equator, turning yellow and then brown as the planet drifts slowly through its long summer.

In "the red and green planet," biologist Hubertus Strughold offers an explanation — an explanation that may have to stand until "The Mars Project" becomes a reality and man can take a first-hand look.

First of all, he concludes, it's safe to say there are no man-like creatures on Mars—which has only a trace of oxygen if any. "At the very least, the oxygen required for human development is a hundred times the greatest amount that could occur on Mars."

And for other warm-blooded creatures—monkeys, dogs, cats, guinea pigs, rabbits and birds — the necessary oxygen level is about the same. That rules them out, too.

What of the cold-blooded creatures, the reptiles, worms, fish, frogs and other more primitive beings? Earthly evidence shows that they, too, need more oxygen than could be found on Mars.

Plants also need oxygen — but they can make their own, thanks to chlorophyll and photosynthesis. To do so, they need sunlight. Mars has it. They need carbon dioxide. Mars has it. And they need some means of storing the little oxygen they produce — and some earthly forms of life have that, too. They need water, in the form of water vapor, and there seems to be a bare minimum available

If life can exist in the borderlands around the Earth's arctic, or under the snow-line of very high mountains, it is possible that the same kind of life can exist on Mars.

The answer: Moss. And perhaps lichens.

These plants—among the lowest forms of plant-life—have a system of internal chambers, in which they might store the little but vital amounts of oxygen they produce. Thus there could be oxygen enough, though it would not enter the atmosphere in appreciable amounts.

The night-and-day cycle thus might follow our own Earthly seasonal pattern, as Earthly vegetion is intermittent with respect to winter and summer.

And so, on Mars every evening is perhaps a little autumn and every morning another spring.

This is the world to which some 70 bold men might journey by rocket before this century is done.

The trip—as outlined by rocket scientist Wernher Von Braun — would take three years, cover nearly 100 million miles.

But in another sense, it might be a far longer journey, a voyage backward through billions of years in time.

For mosses and lichens (and perhaps, a few bacteria) are themselves pioneers. By secreting organic acids, they can slowly transform dust and rock into soil fit for more advanced plants. The more oxygen will be produced, and gradually there may be enough in the atmosphere to sustain still higher forms of life, perhaps eventually man-like life.

The men who reach Mars will have ample time for study, for exploration.

And then—449 days after they reached the "red and green planet," it will be time to leave. A few days earlier, they will board their "landing boat rockets" and soar 1,000 miles up to the 10 circling space-ships that carried them from Earth.

They will re-board seven of them, the passenger vessels, and at the proper moment, with a precisely timed rocket thrust, roar off on the long tangent toward Earth.

Behind them, circling forever like a ghostly memorial of their journey, the three cargo ships — abandoned — will drift endlessly, empty, about the planet.

The homward trip, like the outbound voyage, will take 260 days. There will be a moment of arrival at a space-station 1,000 miles above Earth; a transfer to ferry rockets equipped with wings for a landing; a long glide downward.

And then, for the first time in nearly three years, the space-pioneers will be home.

Prison Inmate Accused of Killing Fellow Felon

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—A State Prison inmate serving a 99-year robbery sentence is charged with murder as a result of a fatal stabbing at the Wynne State Prison Farm yesterday.

The charge was filed against Charles G. Dobolow, 44, after the death of Marcus Lewis Dennard, 59, Fort Worth.

Dennard, serving 12 years for burglary from Tarrant County, was stabbed with a homemade knife in one of the tanks (domitories) set aside for the physically handicapped or ailing.

Columnist Worries About the Reaction of Youngsters to Kinsey's Sex Report

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Sex is like atomic energy. It can serve us or destroy us.

When a physicist gets a new slant on atomic energy, his university asks him to use discrimination. It doesn't allow him to confide his findings to anyone who might use them destructively against the community. He is required to consider loyalty to people as well as loyalty to his science.

I find this sense of social responsibility lacking in the university that employs Dr. Kinsey.

Just how does this zoologist think immature or troubled youngsters will react to his announcement that pre-marital sex experience makes good marriage?

Has he ever looked into the eyes of a 12-year-old girl charged with prostitution? Or talked to an unmarried mother just before her baby was born? I have. So I am shocked at the irresponsibility of Dr. Kinsey's treatment of his findings.

Mary is not a laboratory rabbit. She's a complex organism into which we have built sex needs that extend beyond physical release into the release of her contentment, tenderness and pride.

In the girl I have known who have broken their society's sex codes, these things have not been released. But anxiety, revulsion and hate have been. Their names were Mary, Anne, Sue — not Moana of the South Seas.

If our young people object to their society's sex codes, there's only one thing to do. That's to protect themselves by self-control until they reach voting age; and then use their political power to change the codes.

They can get together to pass a law prohibiting marriage until everyone gets bored shopping about with their sex impulses and wants to start a home with them.

Then nobody will develop the panics that fill our mental hygiene clinics with people whose nervous systems have cracked under society's anger at breaking sex codes.

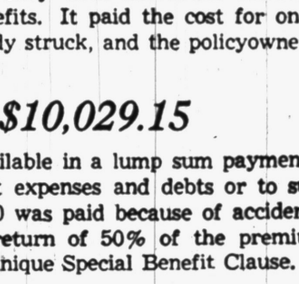
Until this change is made, premarital sex adventure, like any other uncertain and furtive defiance, can arouse such vindictive and defensive feelings as to disqualify us for the self-trusting and trustful commitment required by a creative sex relationship.

I am delighted to say that I grow weary of the sensations that keep detonating from this nation's laboratories. I am sick of dodging psychological dynamite thrown by absent-minded professors who expect us to deactivate it.

I am tire dof abstract people who are too fascinated weighing glib statistics and the magnitude of stars to compute human capacity for shock.

If our scientists can't tear themselves away from equations long enough to consider their possible effects on the worried people they live among, I wish they would move their laboratories to Mars—and give the rest of us a chance to recover from the blows already administered by their passion for arithmetic.

As to Dr. Kinsey, he'd better wait to change this society until we're sure we can keep it unfissionized.



Some girls are willing to go through anything for a man—including his bankroll.

Kosher Dill Pickles Are Good Eating

Put Them Up Now, Following Recipe by Mrs. McCann

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Ice-cold kosher dill pickles make wonderful eating, winter or summer. Put up a supply of them now for future enjoyment. This recipe was sent to us by Mrs. Lawrence McCann.

A talented musician, Mrs. McCann enjoys teaching children to play the piano. Her many friends enjoy her excellent cooking and her gift of pleasant entertaining.

Mrs. McCann also likes gardening and fishing, especially ice fishing.

KOSHER DILL PICKLES
By Mrs. Lawrence McCann

Select cucumbers 2 to 3 inches in length. Scrub and pack in sterilized jars. For each quart add the following:

1 large clove garlic
1 small hot pepper
1 teaspoon mustard seed
1 teaspoon dill seed
Few bay leaves
1 teaspoon mixed pickling spices

Cover with a brine made from 1 cup vinegar, 2 cups of water, 1 tablespoon kosher salt and ½ teaspoon powdered alum. Seal. Let stand several weeks before using.

Tent-Types Not '53 Winter Style

NEW YORK (INS) — It won't be stylish to look like a tent in your new coat this winter.

The new 1953 coats take all shapes and several lengths, from the new pencil columns to the fitted princess shape. There are still plenty of full coats, but they are slimmed down from the tentlike look of past seasons.

One of the new season's most flattering outlines is a blend of back fullness with a slim front.

For the smoky midnight look that eye shadow is supposed to give you and for eliminating that line of color that gathers on your lids minutes after you have applied too much shadow, apply your eye shadow by patting it on with a sponge or pat over the shadowed area after you have applied the color with your finger.

Girl Loses First Ring, Then Boy

She Should Phone Him to Smooth Out Their Troubles

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: While I was away on vacation I lost my boy friend's ring while swimming. Naturally I was worried about what he would say and dreaded having to tell him.

"When I got back home I found that two jealous buddies of his had told him I didn't like him any more—which explained to me why he didn't come around to see me.

"I was afraid to get in touch with him, but finally he came over and the first thing he asked for was his ring! I told him what had happened and he got mad and drove off without letting me make any apology or explanation.

"I haven't heard from him since, and I'm afraid I'll never see him again. So what shall I do?"

You have a rumor to contradict and a little matter of a lost ring to replace—so you'd better get to the phone fast and get working at both jobs.

Start off by telling him that you haven't seen him long enough to have five minutes of conversation and there is much you want to tell him.

First of all, tell him how you lost his ring, how much it meant to you, how much you know it means to him, and offer to replace it for him. He may say that it doesn't matter—but you can find out easily enough where it came from, how much it cost, and make good the loss.

Then go into what you heard he'd been told — and how false the rumor is. If you can keep him on the line long enough to hear you out, you may get things patched up with him, after all. But waiting for him to call you won't do it. You call him.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I recently moved to this town, and much to my surprise was popular from the very beginning.

"I've dated quite a few boys, lately a boy who is also new in town, and everything was fine until last week. Suddenly he quit asking me for dates.

"In fact, he doesn't even bother to call anymore. We didn't have a fight, so what could be the matter?

"This new boy doesn't know too many kids and my crowd has accepted him with open arms, but he'd rather be by himself and for this reason my gang thinks he's snobbish.

"He has a wonderful personality and is quite good looking, but these qualities aren't going to help him make friends if he isn't friendlier. What should I do about him?"

It's possible that this new boy has stumbled onto the news that there are other crowds in town besides yours.

Through you he has met some nice kids—and with you he has enjoyed their company. But he just may have met some other girl who is the pivot of an entirely different group with whom he is busy getting acquainted.

His silence hasn't gone on so long that you couldn't call him up to invite him to something with your family. If he's fed up with your crowd, it doesn't necessarily rule you out. Make such a guesture to him and see how he reacts.

Some Lampshades Easy to Care For

Some lampshades are a snap to lauder because they actually snap on and off. Cunning billowy skirts of eyelet embroidery, dotted swiss, organdy, lace, and taffeta flounce out over a plastic shade body. The body itself can be washed with a damp soapy cloth.

The pretty overskirts can be changed as often as you like to go with different color schemes or just to add a fresh touch to a room.

They're so small you can unsnap them and swish them through soapy lather in a wash bowl. If you machine launder them, be sure to protect them in a laundry bag.

HOW $58.30 Became $43,829 in Just 45 Days...

This Check...

...for $58.30 was written on April 9, 1953, by a man of 37, married and with 2 children. Because he was in good health, this small amount bought him a $10,000 Virginia Protector Insurance Policy with additional accidental death and family income benefits. It paid the cost for one quarter of the year. Then tragedy struck, and the policyowner died in just 45 days.

This $10,029.15

...was available in a lump sum payment to his widow to take care of last expenses and debts or to supplement her income. The $10,000 was paid because of accidental death. $29.15 represents a return of 50% of the premium under the Life of Virginia's unique Special Benefit Clause.

$100 Each Month...

...for 238 months, or nearly 20 years, will be paid to his widow and children. It, together with Social Security benefits, will meet living costs until the children are grown.

A Second $10,000...

...will be paid to his widow at the end of 20 years to assist her in growing old gracefully and independently...to be a burden to no one.

The Virginia Protector Policy...

...is a low-cost life insurance contract which provides maximum protection at minimum cost. Sample rates for the benefits described above are:

- Age 25 — $39.64 Quarterly
- Age 30 — $45.80 Quarterly
- Age 35 — $56.28 Quarterly
- Age 40 — $74.24 Quarterly

IF you feel too tall—

Because of the importance of slim skirts, slim dresses, slim suits, the short coat rather than the full length narrow, because you're tall.

Proportions Big Thing in Suit Buying

NEW YORK (INS) — Buying the right suit is "all a matter of proportion," says suit designer Ben Zuckerman, who offers some guiding rules.

If your shoulders are narrow and hips are wide, choose a suit with deep armholes and soft shoulders. The jacket should be short and simple with no pockets or fuss at the hipline. For this figure type, a single breasted jacket with high narrow lapels or a small collar is best.

If you have wide shoulders and narrow hips, you can wear the straight tubular suit with detail at the hips and either wide or narrow lapels.

If you have a tendency to a "rubber tire," use the French woman's technique of fitting the jacket slim and tight at the waistline. In some mysterious way, this is more becoming than to attempt to cover up the roll of fat.

If your legs are short, be careful to select a short jacket and a skirt with some flare at the hemline.

If you have to watch your weight, then choose a thinner flat-textured fabric or a light weight tweed with a three-dimensional look of depth in its weave.

Test Colorfastness

If you're not sure about the colorfastness of fabrics, merely snip a piece from the seam or hem and wash. Then press between white cloths.

If a stain appears you know the fabric must be washed separately.

Longer Stay for Shorter Hair

NEW YORK (INS)—If you have a short hairdo, ma'am, don't worry about letting it grow to be stylish.

Short hair styles will prevail throughout the fall and winter. Hair stylists predict somewhat longer hairdos for next spring. But say short hairdos will stay popular for the coming months because the newest millinery designs are intended for short hair.

Besides women with short hair right now won't be able to have it grow out to long hair length until the spring.

Pontiac YW to Dedicate Hobby Shop

Public Is Invited to Crafts Exhibition on Wednesday

Mrs. John Kinzler, chairman, has extended an invitation to the public to attend a crafts exhibit and dedication of the new hobby shop Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the YWCA on Franklin boulevard.

The "before and after" story of the hobby shop is made possible by the efforts of many volunteers. Mrs. Frederrick Poole led the conversion of the one-time garage in the back of the YWCA building.

She was assisted by Mrs. William Herrman, Mrs. John Thors Jr. and Mrs. Eugene Wellman.

Financial support came from the Junior Pontiac Women's Club, Elks Lodge, Pontiac Exchange Club, Opti-Mrs. Club, Better Home and Garden Club, Pontiac Council of Pi Omicron sorority and Alpha Chapter of Beta Theta Phi.

A legacy from the late Elizabeth Allen plus gifts from other YWCA friends made possible the completion of the project.

The garage, formerly used for storage, is now attractively decorated and completely equipped for craft work, along with provisions for dancing and other recreation.

Daytime and evening instruction is open to teenagers, homemakers and employed adults. There are classes in painting and sketching, metalwork and toleware. Enrollment is also open in bridge, sewing and dressmaking.

Assisting Mrs. Kinzler with the exhibit will be class instructors Byron Arkles, Celia Crouse, Mrs. Raymond Ellsworth, Mrs. Herrmann, Mrs. Arthur MacFayden and Mrs. Eleray Thomas. Mrs. Fred Haushalter, YWCA president, will lead the service of dedication.

Governor Speaks at Gold Star Parley

Gov. G. Mennen Williams addressed 185 members and guests of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., Friday in Detroit at a session of the state convention.

Mrs. Williams also extended greetings to the group and Mrs. Joe Doyle was elected state historian at the convention.

The Pontiac chapter received the award presented anually for the most interesting history book.

Those attending from Pontiac besides Mrs. Doyle were Mrs. Sybella Stevens, Mrs. Lola Erb, Mrs. Edna Olmstead, Mrs. Lauretta Stockwell, Mrs. Verdie Weatherbee, Mrs. Stella Masolski and Mrs. John E. Bray. Attending from MOMS of America was Mrs. Duncan McVean.

Avoid Extremes in Men's Buying

NEW YORK (INS) — Ladies, please don't go over-board in picking clothes for men from the new, gayer men's fashions.

Women have gone slightly overboard in their zeal to encourage men to comfort and gaiety in clothes.

The change from drab monotony to brightness in men's fashions is fine. Women are urged to keep in mind three points when buying items for men:

1. Leave 3-D pictures on the screen and keep them off male chests — buy nothing violently colorful or pictorial.

2. Look for staccato note — the sharp accent on a tie or shirt, not florid, elaborate designs.

3. Good shirt-and-tie design, like good conversation, says little but means a lot.

Designer Wants 'Explosive' Look

PARIS (INS) — Fashion designer Jacques Heim wants women to have a "highly explosive silhouette" in 1954. He is showing dresses with a fully rounded bust, enlarged shoulders, tight midriff and skirt to prove his point.

Another Heim way to emphasizing the positive is with deep, square necklines, or the new neckline called the "cradle decollete," which is an oval that is both comfortable and appealing. These necklines can be covered with "shutters" for the demure approach.

Many of Heim's slim dresses are worn with high, corselet belts to stress the "dynamic bust" dimensions.

Hostess to Group

Mrs. Charles Clark of Parke place was hostess Thursday afternoon to the Queen Mary Section of the Needlework Guild.

Clean Heating Pad

If you're buying a heating pad, remember to select one with a removable and washable cover. When used so many times — and especially in a sick room — it's very important to keep cleanliness in mind. There's nothing like soap and hot water for germ chasing.

Myrtle J. Owen Married

Speaking their vows Saturday afternoon in the home of her parents were Myrtle Jacqueline Owen and Harry Dean Long. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Owen of Spokane drive, and the Charles Longs of Walled Lake are his parents.

The Rev. Milton H. Bank of Central Methodist Church performed the 4 o'clock ceremony.

RUBY THOMPSON

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Ruby, to Robert W. Haire are Mrs. Henry Snyder of East Tennyson avenue and C. A. Thompson of Prall street. Robert is the son of the Eugene L. Haires of West Huron street. No date has been set for the wedding.

A white knit dress with a jeweled neckline was chosen by the bride. She complemented her costume with gray accessories and carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Gladys Owen, the bride's sister, attended her wearing a teal blue knit dress with a beaded collar and carrying a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. The bridegroom's brother, Charles, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Owen wore a dress of taupe satin with an orchid. A purple dress with black accessories and an orchid was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

After a dinner at Hotel Waldron, the bride changed to a brown suit with matching accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet for a honeymoon trip to northern Michigan. The newlyweds will reside in Walled Lake.

Shirts Wear Longer When Worn Less

Tell you husband that if he would wear a clean shirt each day, his shirts would wear longer. That means ironing for you, but there's a trick for speeding through that too.

After a quick wash and a 15-minute drying in your clothes dryer, just add a small cake of blue-wax-like ironing aid to each quart of hot starch you make for the collars and cuffs.

Attar Not Liquid

Attar of roses has approximately the consistency of butter and is never found as a liquid in the very warmest weather.

Picnic Marks Constitution Day

Members and guests of the New Citizens League of Pontiac and Janice Antona's citizenship class gathered at Cass-Dodge Park Sunday afternoon for the 15th annual Constitution Day picnic.

A dinner featuring foods from many foreign lands was followed by comments from the special guests, Congressman and Mrs. George A. Dondero; Judge and Mrs. George B. Hartrick, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn D. Allen, Mrs. Lee Hill, Mrs. Joseph Potter and Mrs. Harold Potter.

To Mark Birthday

The 60th birthday of Col. Raymond Chenault, veteran of many years of service in the Panama Canal Zone, will be celebrated Sunday from 2 until 6 p. m. with an open house at his home on Park street, Birmingham.

And in Lounging Wear, Too

But Femininity Still Rules at Parties

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP) — One man forecasts that 50 years from now it will be hard to tell grandmother who went to Wellesley from grandfather who went to Harvard when we look in the family photo album.

The man was referring to items like matching spats and vest and boyish blazers which the college girls are wearing this fall.

"I hope," added designer Pembroke Squires, "that the spats will be restricted to wearing with slacks." His company has vest and spats sets in bright yellow felt.

One cotton tweed blazer designed for coeds has a matching vest. Gay red and black striped rep also is made into matching blazer and vest sets. The coeds seem to be copying from young men's fashions of 50 years ago.

One of the favorite shirts for campus outfits is a man-tailored white shirt with French cuffs and rounded collar. Some of the shirts make a bow to feminine tailoring by having raglan sleeves, but the collars are as small and neat as a man's.

Khaki slacks and cowhide belts are coed fashions too. And the newest handbag is the "tote bag" which is sort of a combination briefcase and carpet bag.

As in other fashions adopted from the men, the tote bags get a feminine touch with unusual fabrics and colors. There are even polka dot wool jersey carryalls and ribbon knit woven in two tones to give a checked effect.

It's the fad to be extra-feminine in some of the lounging outfits, maybe to make up for the sturdy qualities of outdoor sports clothes. Lounging slacks made from upholstery brocade, for instance.

Sweater tops or sophisticated wool jersey blouses with attached hoods make the top half of most of the leisure outfits.

The fuller the skirt, the better the girls like it, according to one designer. That's a nighttime fashion, although even some tweed skirts are made to be worn over petticoats now.

And the short party dresses are as bouffant as they were in the first of the petticoat fever two years ago.

"When the girls get used to those full skirts," a college shop buyer explained, "they don't think it's a party dress unless a full skirt goes with it."

High-waisted shirts are the newest, so that the empire waistline seen in so many one-piece dresses can be duplicated with separates. In satin, tweed, velvet and fleecy wools, these skirts are strictly feminine—even if they're worn with spats!

1st Rush Party Slated Thursday

Alpha Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha has announced its first rush party will be Thursday evening. Other plans for the rush season were discussed when the group met Thursday evening at the YMCA.

Celeste Jalosky is rush chairman. A report was given by Mrs. Robert Earl on the Joan Walls Memorial Fund.

Mrs. Edward Hummell was named chairman of the annual dance to be held in December. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Carl Rose and Mrs. Marshall Rose.

Young Mother Wants to Make Stuffed Toys to Ease Yuletide Expense

Bread Basket Fashions Into Stylish Purse

ATLANTA (INS) — Georgia college girls are making their own handbags out of anything from a refrigerator box (the clear plastic type) to a bread basket (straw, of course).

For particularly dressy occasions, the girls choose a concoction of artificial flowers, a refrigerator box of clear plastic, a piece of gold or silver belting, and a tube of plastic cement.

They use the cement to stick violets, daisies or roses in an attractive arrangement on the top of the box. The belting becomes hinges and handles, also stuck on with cement.

A bright silk scarf inside the clear plastic box finishes the pocketbook.

To convert a bread basket into a pocketbook is almost as simple. The girls simply whip up a pouch type top of gingham or broadcloth and whip it on to the upper edge of the basket. A double cord closing at the top completes the purse.

More ingenious girls are dreaming up individual ideas for handbags made of denim, scraps of nylon, old plastic seat covers, grocery string — and even corn shucks.

The American flag first was hosted in Alaska at Sitka on Oct. 18, 1867.

"Featherwarms" (left) are a fashion in feeling: As soft to the touch as a kitten's ear. This one with flowered embroidery is ruffled sheer brushed nylon. Nylon tricot lingerie has all the learned style of fashion plus the conveniences of fast drying, no-ironing-needed nylon. A ruffled neckline is featured (right) with pearl buttons to the waistline—and it's designed especially for junior figures.

Recommended Book Will Assist Her in Creating Delightful Children's Gifts

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"Every year at Christmastime," a young mother writes, "I get a temporary sales job in our local department store.

"I usually work from Oct. 15 to Dec. 15, and in this way make the extra money needed for the family's Christmas presents.

"My mother-in-law comes and takes care of our three small children, and it works out fine.

"Now, however, I find that I am going to have another baby and so won't be able to take outside work.

"I know it seems a little early to be thinking about it, but I have decided that I must learn how to make our Christmas presents this year.

"I don't mean that I must learn how to make all of them, of course but there are about 16 children to whom we as a family always give presents.

"Both my husband and I come from large families, and you can well imagine what an expense it is to buy so many toys for children ranging from new babies to 11 and 12-year-olds.

"I am quite good at sewing and have often thought how attractive some of the stuffed toys are. would it be possible, do you think, for me to learn how to make stuffed animals and dolls and other toys?"

I think that is a wonderful solution to this young mother's problem, and that she deserves a lot of credit.

Many women as busy as she is would feel full of self-pity at having to make any extra effort toward Christmas.

There is an excellent book called "Dolls and Stuffed Toy Making," which I think would be just right for her purpose and which costs only 60 cents.

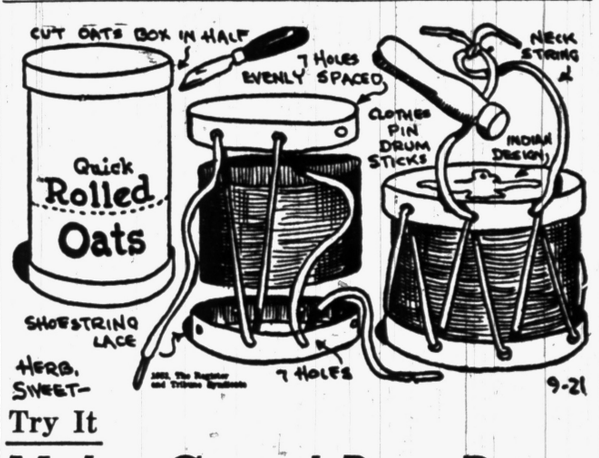
Written by Rosemary Brinley and edited by Marjorie O'Shaughnessy, it tells everything about making all kinds of dolls and stuffed toys.

There is a chapter on simple toys for babies, and another on toys for toddlers, which includes a charming rag book as well as many enchanting rag dolls.

There are several interesting chapters on making animals of every kind—rag teddy bears, elephants, penguins and ducks.

This book takes it for granted that the reader is a beginner, and so all the instructions are precise and simple.

The illustrations are so good, and the toys look so cuddly, that I am sure this young woman can take care of all the youngsters on that long Christmas list.



Try It

Make Cereal-Box Drum

Here is a new use for an oatmeal box. We have had many uses for these wonderful boxes, but this is new to me—and I hope to you.

David Miller of Colby, Wis., sent this in to Try It so that you Try-Iteers could all have fun with it.

Take a round oatmeal box and cut around it a little less than halfway down. Perhaps you will even want to take a ruler and measure up an even number of inches all around, so that when you make the cut it will be even.

After this has been done, place the top on. If you made an even cut, you will find that it fits perfectly.

Remove the bottom carefully and measure off alternating holes in the top and bottom. You will find that seven holes in each is about right. Put these in with a paper punch or an ice pick.

Paint the middle part in a bright color and also the lids. After they are dry, replace the top and bottom and string as shown in the drawing. Use heavy cord or shoelace for this.

Leave enough cord to hang it around your neck. Paint on Indian designs and use clothes pins for drum sticks. Fun?

Girl Suffers With Allergy to Perfume

Disturbed by Scent Which Co-Worker Wears in Office

By EMILY POST

A girl tells me: "I have a perfume allergy and whether imaginary or not, when I come in contact with a fragrance I am made very uncomfortable and break out in a rash.

"The company for which I work recently hired a new girl and she is in the same office as I am. She is a lovely person but she uses a very heavy perfume and a large quantity of it, and it really makes me ill.

"I hate to be unpleasant, but something has to be done as it is affecting my work. Can you offer a tactful solution to this problem?"

Answer: The only thing to do is tell her exactly what you have told me and hope that she will be willing to consider your affliction and not use perfume in the office.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been asked to be the maid of honor at a friend's wedding. I have been told by another friend that the maid of honor is expected to give a shower for the bride-to-be.

I hadn't counted on giving one as my finances are limited and I can just about manage to pay for my wedding clothes. However, I want to do what is expected of me and if this is an obligation, I will try to meet it.

Answer: There is no such obligation. All of the attendants, whether maid of honor or bridesmaids, are expected to buy their own wedding clothes, but that is the only "must!"

If they can give the bride a present, they do so, but when supplying their wedding clothes is all they can afford, this is not required.

Dear Mrs. Post: At my parent's golden wedding anniversary dinner, being given for them by all of their children, how are they seated at the table and who is seated in the places nearest to them?

Manners

MAKE FRIENDS

Ever hear someone say that a businesswoman has a "good telephone personality"? Well, having one is a decided asset for any woman. The way to improve your own is to be sure you speak not only distinctly—but with expression in your voice—that you know how to get to the point instead of rambling along, and that you are every bit as courteous to a voice over the telephone as you are when you meet a person face to face.

You'll never be a wrong number if you keep those telephone tips in mind.

Old-Time Dusters Making Comeback

Old-fashioned feather dusters (ostrich, that is) are playing an encore. They're wonderful for corners, crevices, or Venetian blinds because they're so soft and pliable they reach down into all the crannies and lift out the dust.

Suds your duster out after every dusting and it will go on doing its good work indefinitely.

Roller Towels Keep Bathrooms Neater

If you're tired of picking soggy towels off the bathroom floor after the youngsters wash up—why not make them roller towels?

It's easily done by sewing snap fasteners to the corner of bath-towels, then snapping them closed around the rack. It's a novelty for the children—and it certainly makes for a tidier bathroom.

Cleans Combs

Clean combs and brushes go hand in hand with hair beauty, and here's the solution. Wash them in two tablespoonfuls of baking soda mixed in a quart of warm water and allow them to dry in the sun.

Altar Society Makes Plans

Card Party Set Tuesday

Tickets, tallies, prizes and committees are filling the thoughts of the women of St. Vincent de Paul Rosary Altar Society as the date of their benefit card party draws near.

The party is scheduled for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Vincent hall.

Chairman of the annual fall event is Mrs. Delmo Chapdelaine, assisted by Mrs. L. W. Humphreys.

Committee members include Mrs. James McGuire and Mrs. William B. Dean, tickets; Mrs. S. J. Cloonan, Mrs. N. J. Dean and Mrs. Joseph Spadafore, prizes, and Margaret O'Connor, refreshments.

Cards and tallies are under the supervision of Mrs. Oral Fugitt and Mrs. Edward Verhanovitz, and Mrs. Arthur Crawford is handling the publicity.

Proceeds will be used to meet the expenses of linens for the altar.

Tiny Velvet Hat Always Good

NEW YORK (INS) — Gilbert Orcel, a milliner whose hats are hallowed in Paris, said yesterday that a small hat in velvet or satin is the best "day and night-right" bet of the season.

Orcel, pausing briefly in New York en route back to Paris today, said small velvets with or without trimming and shimmering pillboxes of turbans in satin are "highly recommended" as ideal for wear from lunch through dinner . . . with everything from suits to evening frocks.

Elaborating on his hat ideas for '54, the handsome milliner pointed out that the smartest look is the tiny, head-hugging hat "to be worn—as all small hats should be—on the back of the head."

A good little hat never hides a lady's hairline, he added.

The only excuse for a woman wearing a veil this year, he implied, was a poor complexion, and even then, the veil should be a simple, lightweight silk one. Perish, he said, the sequin and the velvet dot!

Head-Huggers

Fall features hats and more hats — excitingly-fashioned leathers, elegant pastels in velour and velvet, and all manner of blacks, browns and grays.

The newest styles are shallow and small or gaily-detailed coverups, near and dear to the head and tailored to short, casual hair styles.

ARDITH ANN PAYNE

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Ardith Ann, to W. Robert Wood are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Payne of Winton drive. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Wood of Michigan avenue. The couple has not set a wedding date.

First Methodist Circles Gather in Local Homes

Several circles of First Methodist Church met recently in members' homes.

Mrs. Clarina Wright was hostess in her Cottage street home to the Phoebe Circle Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Cooris led devotions and Mrs. Sigmund Chmiloski was in charge of the program topic, "Abundant Life for Rural People."

Couple Wed in All Saints on Saturday

Joyce Cowie and Gary Hetherington Exchange Vows

Wearing a gown of white Chantilly lace etched with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, Margaret Joyce Cowie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. D. Cowie of Lanette road, became the bride of Gary Larnard Hetherington Saturday evening in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hetherington of Shoman drive.

The Rev. C. George Widdifield read the 7 o'clock rite before 200 guests.

The bride's gown featured pointed sleeves on the bodice and a skirt of nylon tulle with a peplum effect and a medium-length train. Her headpiece, made of lace, held a three-tiered fingertip veil and she wore a single strand of pearls. Her bouquet was composed of a white orchid with stephanotis and ivy on a prayerbook.

Preceding the bride down the aisle as maid of honor was Stephanie Linabury wearing a gown of aqua nylon tulle and taffeta featuring a strapless bodice and tulle jacket with an aqua satin cummerbund and matching headpiece. She carried a crescent cascade bouquet of cream-colored glamellias.

Other attendants were Sharon Hetherington, sister of the bridegroom; Joyce Phipps, Joan Juett, Virginia Freebury, Patricia Morris and Mrs. William Cross. They wore matching gowns and headpieces in shrimp color and they carried bouquets that matched the honor maid's.

Janet Thomson, the bride's cousin, wore a dress of aqua taffeta featuring a hoop skirt for her duties as junior bridesmaid. Margaret Thomson, another cousin, was flower girl wearing a dress identical to that of the junior bridesmaid.

Margaret carried a nosegay of Johanna Hill roses in a color matching her gown. Janet's flowers were the same as the other attendants'.

Dean D. Hetherington, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Seating the guests were the bride's brother, Charles, Bob Coonfield, Lynn Wyckoff, Dick Radtke, Art Weiss, Howard Rummell and Laine Hetherington, another brother of the bridegroom.

A gray lace dress with pink accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids was chosen by Mrs. Cowie for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hetherington wore a dress of iridescent taffeta with a lace overskirt and black accessories. She complemented her costume with a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

A brown and white knit suit with melon accessories was donned by the new Mrs. Hetherington for the honeymoon trip to northern Michigan after the reception in Knights of Pythias Hall. The newlyweds will reside on Murphy avenue.

MRS. GARY L. HETHERINGTON

All Saints Episcopal Church was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Margaret Joyce Cowie and Gary Larnard Hetherington. The William K. D. Cowies of Lanette road are the bride's parents and Gary is the son of the Roy Hetheringtons of Shoman drive.

Musicale Workshop Held in Clarkston

The growth of musical form from the classical to the modern is the course of study for the Tuesday Musicale Workshop.

One phase of this theme, the development of piano techniques from Bach to Liszt, was developed by Mrs. Addison Oakley Tuesday when the group met at the home of Mrs. V. E. Campbell in Clarkston.

Mrs. J. W. Wignall, Mrs. Paul Eliasop, Mrs. C. D. Wright, Mrs. Orlo Willoughby and Mrs. M. J. Wagner assisted the hostess, who served a picnic luncheon.

The remainder of the meeting was spent rehearsing the workshop choral group under the direction of Mrs. George Putnam.

Home, Garden Club Meets

Mrs. Alfred Rothweiler of Webster School and Mrs. David Ruelle of Covert School reported on their trip to Higgins Lake School of Conservation at the Thursday meeting of the Better Home and Garden Club.

Mrs. Fred Jackson was hostess to the group at her home in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Clyde Hadden, Mrs. Basil Meidlein and Mrs. William Maxfield were appointed to the nominating committee.

The group voted to contribute to the Federation of Garden Club's fund to send seeds to free Asia. Mrs. Ray Field and Mrs. Howard Fairman were accepted as members, and announcement was made of the Gingellville Flower Show being held Saturday.

Mrs. Dewey Allen was chairman for the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Lynn Carmer, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. J. L. Slaybaugh and Mrs. D. E. Heller.

WCTU Unit Elects 4 Officers Friday

Mrs. Elva Ashley was elected president of the Frances Willard Unit of WCTU when members and guests gathered Friday for a cooperative luncheon at the home of Mrs. Burton Hewitt on the Romeo Simpson Park Camp Grounds.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Leroy Shafer, vice president; Mrs. Ann Messell, recording secretary and Mrs. Orla Mason, treasurer.

Mrs. Mary Woods led devotions and Mrs. Mabel Wiser and Mrs. Harold Hayes entertained with musical selections. Officers installation was conducted by Mrs. Eleah Patten. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Little on Franklin road.

OES Group Headed by Mrs. Ralph Gix

Mrs. Ralph Gix was elected president of Group Four OES, when the group met Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Hooper on Cooley Lake road.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Frank Parks, vice president; Mrs. Bryce Rockwell, treasurer, and Mrs. Vernon Haire, secretary.

Mrs. Peter Hanlan and Mrs. William Galbraith assisted the hostess.

Party Honors Uncle

A recent surprise birthday party and luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chojnacki of Stanley avenue honored Mrs. Chojnacki's uncle, Stanley Kryzanowski. Fourteen guests were present.

Lanolin Plus Does Wonders For Your Skin

Your Hands Will Look Lovelier . . . Feel Softer With Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion

You can't imagine what beauty you have in the palms of your hands until you use LANOLIN PLUS HAND LOTION. For Lanolin Plus, containing the right amount of lanolin with its valuable esters and cholesterols, penetrates your skin and helps to replenish essential oils that your hands need to make them feel and look smooth as silk.

It's no wonder that Lanolin Plus is so effective. Years ago on the plains of Australia, during sheep-shearing season, the hands of the men were dry and calloused. But almost immediately an amazing phenomenon occurred. Their hands became softer and smoother. The secret? Lanolin, the closest duplication of the natural oils of our human skin is found in the fats and oils of the sheep's wool. As the men sheared the sheep, lanolin was absorbed into their skin. And gradually their hands became softer and smoother. Today chemists have found a way to blend a fabulous amount of lanolin into Lanolin Plus. The formula holds an exclusive United States patent.

Treat your hands to this entirely new feeling of petal-freshness and softness. LANOLIN PLUS HAND LOTION works quickly, then disappears like magic. Only one dollar, plus tax, at all cosmetic counters.

Your Skin Wakes Up to New Beauty and Exquisite Softness with Lanolin Plus Liquid

One of the most serious beauty problems women face is premature wrinkles, due to excessive dryness or climatic conditions. The longer this dry condition exists, the deeper and more permanent the premature wrinkles become. Now with LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID, you can help replenish oils that are so essential to a smoother, more youthful-looking complexion.

Ordinary harsh cleansing removes the skin's natural lubricants—esters and cholesterols—and in many cases, may further dry out your skin. All you have to do is soften the skin and premature wrinkles become less apparent. Try this wonderfully refreshing facial with LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID at night before you go to bed. Your face will feel relaxed and refreshed—and you'll feel a glowing kind of youthful vitality in your skin. And when your skin feels this good, you just know it looks radiant and exquisitely smooth!

Hold a hot washcloth to your face and neck for about a minute to open pores. Notice how refreshed and relaxed your face feels.

Warm the bottle of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID under hot water tap. Briskly massage into face and neck until skin begins to tingle.

After a few minutes, wipe your face petal-fresh.

Rinse your face and neck with cold water. Then gently massage a few drops of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID into your skin before retiring. Its gentle, thorough action will work while you sleep . . . and you'll awake next morning to find new radiant beauty in your skin. There's no need to let premature wrinkles make you look older. Use LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID faithfully every day. You'll find it at all cosmetic counters for only one dollar, plus tax.

Make Your Skin Softer, Smoother "All Over" . . with Lanolin Plus Body Lotion

From the time of the early Egyptians, women who have longed for loveliness have tried to keep their skin soft and smooth with various fragrant oils. Now for your everyday enjoyment, there is a heavenly body lotion, enriched with lanolin to keep every inch of you "petal-soft." No matter what the weather, this creamy-smooth liquid penetrates, and protects your skin from the drying effects of sun, wind and dry air.

Never before was there such a luxuriant lotion—so delicately scented, so gently effective, as LANOLIN PLUS BODY LOTION. You'll love the way it helps replenish oils, dried out from frequent bathing. A superb blend of protecting, softening oils and lanolin, this new body lotion makes you feel refreshingly relaxed, lovely all over!

It takes so little . . . spreads so easily . . . and is so economical that you'll want to use it faithfully. Don't let a day go by without using your LANOLIN PLUS BODY LOTION. You'll find the generous twelve-ounce bottle only $1.50 plus tax, at all cosmetic counters.

You owe it to yourself to discover the wondrous things Lanolin Plus products can do for you. When you use them faithfully, you'll have the key that brings forth skin and hair beauty, you may never have realized you had!

Lanolin Plus Agrees with Your Skin . . . Makes It Feel Better . . . Look Softer, More Youthful

The lovely, smooth skin of a baby is naturally soft and supple because Nature's inner lubricants keep it that way. But as time goes by, these natural oils become less plentiful and, in addition, are removed by sun, wind, dry indoor air and ordinary harsh cleansing. Years ago it was found that the wool of sheep contains a substance known as lanolin, which, because of its rich base of beneficial esters and cholesterols, is most similar to the natural oils of our human skin.

The chemists who created LANOLIN PLUS planned their formula to include highly refined lanolin and other skin beautifying ingredients. Because of its thorough action, it helps to maintain the proper lubricating balance both for complexions that are too dry or too oily. It also supplies normal skin with the priceless softening influence it needs to stay soft and silken-textured.

With your very first touch of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID, you'll see for yourself how exquisitely soft and fresh your skin can feel. Words can't describe that feeling, but once you know it, you'll never want to lose it. If you use LANOLIN PLUS faithfully and regularly, you'll find that harsh dryness will disappear . . . premature wrinkles due to excessive dryness or climatic conditions become less noticeable.

Use LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID to pamper your skin overnight while you sleep . . . use it as a cleanser to make your face feel cleaner, fresher than ever before. And you'll find it does wonders by helping to lubricate your skin after natural oils have been removed by sun, wind and harsh cleansing. If your heels, insteps or toes are calloused or rough, a relaxing foot bath, followed by a LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID massage will soften and soothe the dried out areas.

The most feminine desire in the world is to STAY lovely and youthful looking. Now — with the softening qualities of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID—ALL women can help to achieve this desire. For this almost-miraculous Liquid replenishes the oils that help to deter dry skin with its devastating effects.

Take a long, objective look at your complexion. Is it everything you want it to be? Or would it welcome a chance to absorb some of Nature's own kind of lubricants? Lanolin is the closest duplication of these natural skin oils. So don't wait another day to discover the wonders of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID. One dollar* is such a tiny price to pay for the glorious feeling of having skin that now is soft and caressable, and more youthful-looking than you ever imagined! *plus tax

Skin Feels Cleaner—Fresh-As-a-Daisy with Lanolin Plus Liquid Cleanser

The fresh, clean feel of your skin after its first cleansing with this creamy liquid will make you promise yourself that you'll never again bother with ordinary harsh cleansing. For LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID CLEANSER penetrates your skin and softens as it cleanses, with never a harsh, drying effect. Instead, it offers the wonderful lubricating influence of lanolin itself that combats drying conditions due to lack of natural oils.

There's good reason why lanolin is so beneficial to your skin. Lanolin is obtained from sheep's wool and is most similar to the natural oils of our human skin. So when Nature's own lubricants are so closely duplicated, it's no wonder that your skin responds quickly and eagerly.

LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID CLEANSER should be a "must" in your daily skin care. It's amazingly effective . . . delightfully refreshing . . . and so economical! Only one dollar plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

There's New Softness for Dry Skin with Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream

Time was when there wasn't much that women knew about retarding a dry skin condition that promoted premature wrinkles. But now that Lanolin Plus has come into the beauty picture, you can keep your skin softer and lovelier than you ever imagined! For LANOLIN PLUS CLEANSING CREAM FOR DRY SKIN is compounded to soften your skin as it cleanses it. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream containing a superabundance of Lanolin Plus, with its rich base of esters and cholesterols, penetrates your skin and helps to replenish oils that deter the dryness that promotes premature wrinkles.

You'll love the feel of this velvety cream while it works its wonders on your skin. And you'll love the fresh, clean feel your skin has after you've tissued away the dirt of the day.

If your skin is dry, don't wait another day to give it the wondrous help of Lanolin Plus. You'll find softness and beauty you never knew were there. LANOLIN PLUS CLEANSING CREAM FOR DRY SKIN is so economical, too. Only a dollar plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Reveal Your Hair's Natural Loveliness with Lanolin Plus Hard Water Shampoo

Perhaps you are one of the many women who are at a loss to know how to keep their hair and scalp scrupulously clean, yet preserve the natural oils that are essential to soft, glistening hair.

Now, LANOLIN PLUS HARD WATER SHAMPOO answers this problem for you. For this is the shampoo that contains a super abundance of lanolin, the nearest duplication of nature's own skin oils. It not only helps lubricate scalp and soften hair, but at the same time it lathers beautifully in the hardest water. Its rich, lanolized suds thoroughly whisk away dirt and grime so that the hair is left soft and silken and gleaming, as it should be. Just as the shampoo cleanses, its oil pampers the hair.

It's economical, too, because it's fast-acting, and ordinarily only one application is needed each time you wash your hair.

All cosmetic counters can supply you with LANOLIN PLUS HARD WATER SHAMPOO for only a dollar. You'll never know how really clean, soft and manageable your hair can be until you use this thorough shampoo, containing such a generous supply of lanolin.

Your Hair Will Be Lovelier, More Manageable, If It's in Good Condition

All the new "hair-do's," rinses, permanents and bleaches in the world can't make your hair look prettier if it isn't in good condition. Simple basic care of your hair is your first step toward hair beauty. And LANOLIN PLUS FOR THE HAIR should be your first thought.

If your hair is dull, dry and unmanageable, it will surely welcome the refreshing, softening influence of Lanolin Plus. For lanolin is the closest duplication of Nature's own skin lubricants. Too often the gleaming highlights and lovely softness that Nature meant for your hair to have are taken away by various kinds of harsh hair treatment, water, and the drying effects that come from exposure to sun or wind. When that happens—and even before it happens—look to LANOLIN PLUS FOR THE HAIR to supplement precious, natural oils and bring out sparkling highlights.

Give your hair a chance to look its best. Get LANOLIN PLUS FOR THE HAIR soon. At all cosmetic counters, only a dollar plus tax.

Handy Dispenser Comes with Each Bottle of Hand Lotion

A few drops of Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion applied several times during the day will do much to keep your hands lovely to watch—lovely to touch.

The handy pump dispenser, which comes with each bottle of Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion, makes regular application a simple task. LANOLIN PLUS HAND LOTION with PUMP . . . $1.00 plus tax. At all cosmetic counters.

Plane Hits Tractor, Passengers Jostled

BOSTON (AP) — Thirty-seven passengers and crewmen were shaken up last night when a four-engine Trans-World Airline plane from Madrid, Spain, crashed into a tractor at a Logan Airport landing strip.

Among the passengers aboard the plane was the wife of the United States ambassador to Spain, Mrs. James C. Dunn of New York, and her two grandhcildren.

No one reported injuries.

James B. Denning of Saugus, operator of the tractor, leaped from the vehicle before the plane's propellor tore the huge wheel off the tractor and tossed it several feet.

Passengers were taken from the crippled plane and transferred to a domestic plane for the remainder of the trip to New York.

Only the plane's propellor was damaged.

Maryland Preparing for Civil Defense Test

PIKESVILLE, Md. (AP)—Preparations were completed in Maryland today for "Operation Check-up," first comprehensive civil defense alert since the blackouts of World War II.

The test alert will begin with the wailing of sirens at 2:01 p.m. (EDT) tomorrow. It is expected to virtually halt traffic movement in the state for six minutes until the all-clear is sounded.

During the alert, some 50 airplanes will fly over the state's principal cities to observe the effectiveness of the test.

Three-D Movies Uncover Many Eye Troubles

DETROIT (UP) —If you suspect your eyes aren't all they should be, go see a three-dimensional movie, advises a Chicago oculist.

Dr. T. R. Murroughs, speaking yesterday before the first session of the three-day Michigan Optometric Association convention said 3-D films are helping eye doctors in many ways.

A variety of fairly minor eye ailments have been uncovered, Dr. Murroughs said, because people who fail to get the impression of depth at 3-D films seek advice.

More important, unsuspected cases of glaucoma, the greatest cause of blindness for persons over 40, have been found the same way, he added.

Three-dimensional films also have helped oculists in their work with crossed-eyes that need exercise.

"We used to have an awful time getting the kids to take the exercises," Dr. Murroughs said. "Now we send them to the movies. It's wonderful."

Sharks, barracudas and other dangerous sea animals seldom attack divers, although they may attack surface swimmers.

Inquest Slated in Deaths of Two

Detroit Commissioner to Hear Policemen's Report on Shootings

DETROIT (UP)—An inquest was scheduled for today into the deaths of two men killed by police bullets on Detroit's Skid Row.

Killed in the Saturday night incident were Willard Lott, 25, and William Schafter, 65.

A police report said Patrolmen Arthur Wilks, 34, and Francis Elpers, 29, were ordered to investigate a report that Lott was threatening another Skid Row resident with a gun.

The report said Lott fled after Wilks took an unloaded .22 caliber pistol away from him.

When Lott ignored warnings to halt, the report said, Wilks fired two shots. Lott died at the scene, of a bullet in the chest. It was discovered later that Schafer, a by-stander, had been struck and killed by a bullet to the head.

Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard was to receive a complete report on the case today from homicide detectives. He said no action would be taken until an investigation is completed.

Transit Line Strike Is Nation's Longest

OAKLAND, Calif. (UP) — The key System Transit Lines strike entered its 60th day today to become the longest public transportation shutdown caused by a labor dispute in American history.

The company provided bus and rail transportation in Oakland and 10 other East Bay cities for 127,000 daily riders, including 27,000 bay bridge communities.

The State Public Utilities Commission scheduled a hearing today on a petition by several affected cities that Key be required to renew operations immediately.

Dean Martin's Wife Gives Birth to Boy

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UP)—Mrs. Dean Martin, wife of the comedian of the Martin and Lewis team, gave birth to a 7-pound son last night.

A spokesman said mother and son were doing fine but "papa's not so good; he's worn out."

The Martins have another son, Dino. 2.

Jean Peters Won't Become a Sexy Siren

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—No matter how hard her press agents try, they can't make a sexy siren out of Jean Peters.

The former Ohio State coed just won't go for it. And that's despite the fact that she recently scored her biggest screen success as the pocket-picking siren in "Pickup on South Street."

"Okay, so the picture was fun to do," she admitted. "It also was fine for my career. But that doesn't mean I'm going to put on a tight sweater and skirt and slither around. I'm just not the type. On Marilyn Monroe it looks good. On me it would just look silly."

Of all her tributes, Jean is proudest of words from Director Jean Negulesco: "Jean is the kind of girl you would want on a desert island—but not for the reason you think. You'd want her because you know she could make the best hut, rustle up some food and carry on a fine conversation."

* * *

Jean backs up her notions by refusing to pose for the usual run of studio cheesecake pictures. She'll do fashion layouts and occasional bathing suit shots, but she puts her dainty foot down on the traditional leg art. You know, the shots where the gal is popping out of a pumpkin for halloween or holding up a shamrock for St. Patrick's Day."

* * *

While Jean doesn't think herself the physical type, her studio has other ideas. She thought that thinking had changed when she was cast in "We Believe in Love."

"When I heard Dorothy McGuire, Clifton Webb and Maggie McNamara were going to be in the picture," she observed, "I thought that I would finally have the kind of role that suited me. They sounded like smart, sophisticated company.

"But when I got to Italy and read the script, I discovered I was going to be an earthy kind of girl again. The script had me nearly being killed in a runaway truck. After hoping to meet a rich Italian, I fall for a poorer young man. We make love in an apple tree."

Capsule Review: "The Actress" is scarcely more than a vignette. A sentimental remembrance of Ruth Gordon's struggle to become an actress, it has charm and humor, but not enough plot to last a full-length movie. The principal value is in the portrayal of Spencer Tracy as Miss Gordon's formerly seafaring father. He gives a sterling performance, well shaded with comedy. Teresa Wright is an excellent foil as his wife, and Jean Simmons is properly intense as the budding actress.

State Medics to Meet in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — New techniques in detection and treatment of disease will be discussed in forum panels during the four-day meeting of the Michigan State Medical Society opening Wednesday.

About 2,500 physicians are expected to attend the society's 86th annual session.

They will see numerous medical displays, including one featuring the operation of a mechanical heart used to maintain blood circulation in persons undergoing heart surgery.

Fluoridation of drinking water to prevent tooth decay also will be discussed with Dr. John W. Knutson, assistant surgeon general and chief dental officer of the U. S. Public Health Service reporting on the success of a fluoridation program in Grand Rapids.

The only layman to address the convention will be Sen. Homer Ferguson. The Michigan senator will speak Wednesday night.

Syria Starts Fight on Israeli Project

DAMASCUS, Syria (UP) — Syria asked the mixed armistice commission today for quick action to halt an Israel hydroelectric project which, this country charged, will dry up 12,000 acres of Syrian land by diverting the waters of the River Jordan.

The Syrian government asked the commission's chief observer, Gen. Vaguen Benneke for a decision within three days on the controversial project begun by Israel four weeks ago at Kasr Attra. Benneke was informed of the Syrian objections when he visited here last week.

The protest said the Israeli project, designed to draw water into a nine-mile canal starting at the River Jordan and ending in an artificial lake 220 yards below sea level, would damage some of Syria's most fertile lands along the river's east bank.

The Israeli project would enable that country to harness the rapidly falling waters in the man-made canal to generate electrical power as well as provide irrigation.

Early A. M. Riser Finds Live Snake on Kitchen Table

NEW YORK (UP)—It's bad enough to get up at 6 a.m.—without seeing snakes.

Sigmund Hauser walked sleepily into the kitchen of his fifth floor Manhattan apartment early today but became fully awake in a hurry. On the table was a four-foot brown snake.

Hauser, 63, grabbed a broom and started swinging. His wife, Paulina, called police. By the time patrolmen got there the reptile was dead.

The species could not immediately be identified. Hauser is a stock clerk in a Yonkers, N. Y. knitting mill.

U. S. Sales Tax Opposed by Pair

Republicans Ferguson, Mason Speak Against Proposed Measure

WASHINGTON (UP) — Two Republican members of Congress came out against a retail sales tax over the weekend.

Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the GOP Senate Policy Committee, said he had "never heard any responsible person in the administration say there would be such a proposal," he added that sales tax suggestions were "straw men" thrown up by the Democrats.

Rep. Mason (R-Ill.) a member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, said in an interview he has "very reliable" information that the treasury plans to propose a 5 per cent national retail sales tax.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey has said a sales tax is one of about 40 tax proposals being considered. A treasury spokesman said Saturday night that no decision has been made on whether to recommend such a levy.

Mason said he would oppose a retail sales tax, but would sponsor a sales tax of 8 per cent at the manufacturers' level. He said it "would be the easiest tax in the world to collect and the cheapest to administer. It would soon be forgotten, because it would be hidden."

Ferguson, appearing on an NBC television program yesterday, said that, if a retail sales tax is offered, he will oppose it.

"I'm personally against a sales tax," the senator said. "I don't think we should lok for new ways to raise revenue. We should be looking for ways to save money"

South Korean Assembly Meets in Capital Again

SEOUL (UP) — The South Korean National Assembly today met in Seoul for the first time in three years.

One hundred ten assemblymen of the 182-man legislature attended the first session held at the war scarred capitol since the outbreak of the Korean War in June, 1950.

President Syngman Rhee did not attend or send a message.

An assembly spokesman said today's meeting was "only the continuance of the 16th session and there is not much new."

The legislature met during the war years in the provisional capital of Pusan.

5,000 in Lansing Listen to Graham Talk About Sin

LANSING (UP) — Evangelist Billy Graham believes that if any force can destroy this country it is sin—not Russia or the hydrogen bomb.

"If we turn from our sins," he told a crowd of 5,000 in front of the state capitol Sunday, "God will perform the miracle to save America."

Gov. Williams introduced the famed revival speaker as Graham opened his series of Michigan meetings. He will be in Detroit Sept. 27 to start a month-long group of revival sessions from a specially-constructed auditorium at the State Fair Grounds.

The crowd that heard Graham braved threatened rain.

"Michigan not only builds automobiles but also is a state of churches," the evangelist told his listeners. "There are three million Michigan people who are members of churches, and one and a half million go to some church every Sunday."

Puts All Money in One Basket, but Gets It Back

BALTIMORE (AP) — George Gerczak, who put all his cash in one basket and then sold the basket has his $3,278 back thanks to the honesty of a farmer.

The 63-year-old Gerczak had reported last Friday the money was in a bag on a pile of bushel baskets in his produce store and apparently was left in one of 33 baskets he sold to a stranger.

Fred Schlaile, Randallstown, Md. farmer, showed up at a police station with the bag of money shortly after reading of Gerczak's plight. He said the cash was among the basket and then sold the basket, and he figured the man who lost the money would tell the newspapers.

So he watched the papers—and Gerczak got his money back.

Seven Die in Weekend Storms, Floods in Italy

ROME (AP)—At Least seven persons died in storms and floods that swept Italy over the weekend. Property damage was heavy.

The toll included four workmen buried under a landslide in Genoa, two persons drowned when the Trebbia River overflowed its banks at Rivergaro, near Piacenza, and one man killed in an earth cave-in near Bergamo.

At least 27 villages in north Italy were isolated by high water.

Ask Law to Hit Red Printing

Senate Committee Seeks Tighter Security Rules to Curtail Propaganda

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate probers have called for tighter security laws to plug loopholes they say permit Communists to flood America with propaganda in peacetime and set up underground presses for use in war.

One step they urged is designed to force Reds to disclose printing equipment they allegedly have stored away for use in case the Communist party is outlawed or a war with Russia breaks out.

* * *

Another would require diplomatiic and consular officers putting out political propaganda in this country to register under the foreign agents registration act—thus labeling any propaganda they dispense.

The proposals were advanced by the Senate internal security subcommittee yesterday in making public 336 pages of secret testimony taken in a probe of Communist underground printing facilities and illegal propaganda.

Chairman Jenner (R-Ind) said the closed-door hearings clearly showed "that loopholes in our security laws allow the Communist conspirators to flood the United States in peacetime with tons of propaganda and to prepare secret printing plants for continuing their propaganda activities in case of war."

Ex-Communists and former government undercover agents in the Communist party testified at the hearings. They said the Reds have set up secret printing plants and have hidden away other printing and photographic equipment for propaganda work in case the party is outlawed.

* * *

Sen. Welker (R-Idaho), who headed a three-member subcommittee task force to conduct the investigation, said in an accompanying statement:

"We learned that the Communists have spent thousands of dollars in buying printing equipment ranging all the way from linotypes and cylinder presses, offset presses and photographic equipment, to mimeograph machines and other types of duplicating devices which have been hidden away for future needs."

Welker said that "huge quantities of paper and other supplies also were purchased and hid away."

GOP Diners Will Keep 'I Ate With Ike' Trays

BOSTON (AP)—Not everyone will get a seat at a table tonight when President Eisenhower addresses a $100-a-plate Republican dinner at the Boston Garden, but those that have to balance trays on their laps will get a souvenir.

The diners who will be seated in box and stadium seats will eat off trays like those used by military personnel.

They will keep the trays inscribed. "I ate with Ike at the forward-to-'54 dinner, Sept. 21, 1953."

American airmen attending special survival schools are taught to ward off starvation by eating such strange fare as snakes, worms, lizards, locusts, lichens, seaweed and lemmings in the event of forced landings in isolated places.

New Grid Rule Brings Varied Reactions

Big Ten Grid Season Opens Next Saturday

MSC Goes to Iowa to Make Conference Debut

CHICAGO (AP) — A pair of corking conference battles and six intersectional games will open the 1953 Big Ten football season Saturday.

Michigan State, rated No. 1 nationally in 1952, will try to stretch its winning streak to 25 games by beating Iowa at Iowa City in their Big Ten football debut.

This contest is the week's big game. Iowa has been pointing for an upset as Hawkeye coach, Forest Evashevski, meets up with a bitter rival, the Spartans' Biggie Munn.

Evashevski used to be Munn's assistant coach and it's no secret there is little love lost between the two.

Other conference contest sends improved Indiana, boasting its best reserve strength and finest sophomore group in years, to Ohio State.

Other Big Ten elevens face some rugged intersectional tests.

Minnesota plays at Southern Cal., Nebraska at Illinois, Purdue at Missouri, Washington at Michigan, Penn State at Wisconsin and Iowa State at Northwestern.

Purdue will meet a Missouri team bristling after a 20-6 loss to Maryland Saturday. Michigan should find Washington fighting mad after being edged 21-20 by Colorado. Southern Cal. will go all out to make Minnesota its second straight victim after trimming Washington State 29-13.

Nebraska's ire will be up against Illinois as the Huskers try to recoup from a 20-12 upset by Oregon.

In other attractions, Notre Dame opens its campaign for national honors at Oklahoma in Saturday's No. 1 engagement and Marquette is host to Cincinnati in a night contest.

Victims Insist Regulation Not Upset Factor

First Weekend of Play Brings Series of Form Reversals

By BOB HOOBING

NEW YORK (AP) — Football coaches' attitudes toward the new substitution rule ranged from enthusiasm to disapproval today following its first major weekend test, which produced a series of form reversals.

But the victims of the biggest upsets insisted limited substitutions had noting to do with the results of their games. Red Drew, whose Alabama eleven sustained an eye-opening 25-19 setback by Mississippi Southern Friday night, claimed he was simply outplayed.

"I don't think the rule had any principal effect," Drew maintained. "We were beaten by a very fine football team. It was as fair to one side as the other." Stanford's Chuck Taylor felt the same way after College of the Pacific surprised the Indians 25-20.

Don Faurot of Missouri believed his Tigers were as well off with one platoon as they would have been with two and made about as many substitutions in losing to Maryland's powerful Terrapins 20-6.

Coach Bill Glassford of Nebraska insisfed it was mistakes and not the substitution rule which hurt the Cornhuskers against Oregon. Ducks capitalized on some Nebraska miscues to defeat the midwesterners 20-12 in the NCAA television game.

Baylor's George Sauer was one of the most outspoken proponents of the new rule after his team gave a polished, mid-season performance in blanding California 25-0.

After Georgia outscored Villanova 32-19 before 97,802 in Philadelphia, opposing coaches Art Raimo and Wally Butts didn't praise the one-platoon game but said they thought they'd fit into it.

Georgia Tech ran all over little Davidson, 53-0, and in similar game, Tulane overwhelmed The Citadel, 54-6; Mississippi romped against Chattanooga, 39-6; Marquete stopped South Dakota State, 46-13; and Kansas State whipped Drake, 50-0.

In other surprises, Colorado tripped Washington, 21-20; LSU stormed past Texas, 20-7; and William & Mary edged Wake Forest, 16-14.

In other major games it was USC 29-13 over Washington State; UCLA 41-0 over Oregon State; Duke 20-7 over South Carolina; Texas A&M 7-6 over Kentucky; Cincinnati 14-7 over Tulsa, and Rice 20-16 over Florida.

Detroit's Split With Cleveland Indians Assures at Least Seventh-Place Finish

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — Fred Hatfield squeezed the ball and made it a successful season for the Detroit Tigers.

The Tiger second baseman had just taken a throw from third baseman Ray Boone. He stepped on second for a game-ending force out. It clinched Detroit's 8-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the first game of Sunday's doubleheader.

More important, it made it impossible for the Tigers to finish in last place again. Victory moved them six games ahead of the last place St. Louis Browns with only five games to play.

So it didn't make too much difference that Detroit dropped the nightcap to Cleveland, 6-3. It meant sixth-place Philadelphia pulled to within a game and a half of the Tigers but the Tigers are out of the celar—and that makes it a good season.

There was a time, if you recall, back in June when the Tigers were in last place, eight full games behind the then seventh-place Brownies. It looked as though they were doomed to finish last, possibly with the worst record in American League history.

But the Tigers kept plugging. They finally got the best of a trade by getting Ray Boone from Cleveland. Pitching straightened out somewhat and Hatfield filled the second-base hole.

The Tigers bounded past St. Louis and Philadelphia in quick order, playing near .500 ball for the last half of the season.

In Sunday's doubleheader against Cleveland they displayed some come-from-behind ability in the opener. Early Wynn had them stopped cold for 6½ innings by a 4-0 count.

Then Detroit's home run bats—rather silent all season went to work. Steve Souchock slammed two homers and Jim Delsing and Jerry Priddy one each and the score was tied 6-6 going into the bottom of the eighth.

That's when Detroit won it by slamming 20-game winner Bob Lemon for four singles. Pinch-hitter Johnny Pesky and Harvey Kuenn started the rally with back-to-back singles. Boone knocked in one run with a single and Bob Nieman another with another single.

In the nightcap, the Tigers fell victim to Mexican Mike Garcia's seven-hitter. But it was a successful day for Detroit, anyway.

Aussie Cup Hopes Rise With Rosewall's Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Australia's hopes of hanging on to the treasured Davis Cup, dimmed a bit by conquest of Americans in the Wimbledon and United States championships, took on a brighter view today.

The No. 1 Aussie hope, Ken Rosewall, was the main reason. Wimbledon champion, Victor Seixas of Philadelphia, to win the singles title of the Pacific Southwest tennis tournament Sunday.

It was Rosewall's second conquest in as many days over an American star. Day before he beat Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, the newly crowned United States champion.

Eighteen-year-old Ken defeated Seixas, 6-4,1-6, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4, in a 2 hour 10 minute struggle at the Los Angeles Tennis club. His scores over Trabert were 1-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Australians then completed their sweep of the men's finals when the team of Rosewall and 18-year-old Lewis Hoad defeated Seixas and Trabert, 17-15, 6-3, 6-2.

Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., ended the 24-hour title dreams of Shirley Fry of Akron, O., who hit the headlines with an upset triumph in the semi-finals over queen Maureen Connolly Saturday, 6-2, 7-5.

Miss Hart won the women's title with a 1-6, 6-3, 6-4 victory over Miss Fry.

Detroit Pin Teams Appear in Exhibition

Two top Detroit bowling teams, Goebel girls and the Michigan Boiler & Engineering men's squad, appeared in an exhibition match at the Cooley Lanes Saturday.

Men's team spotted the girls a 75-pin handicap, but still won the match, 2825 to 2787. High game for the match was turned in by Doris Knechtges, who rolled a 217.

Team members remained after the match to offer instructions to youngsters in the Youth Bowling League.

Slo-Mo-Shun V Winner of President's Regatta

WASHINGTON (UP) — Slo-Mo-Shun V, driven by Lou Fageol of Seattle, Wash., carried away top honors in the annual President's Cup regatta on the Potomac River Sunday, but there was a share of glory, too, for Such Crust III.

Slo-Mo-Shun V captured first place in the motorboat classic by winning the opening heat on Saturday and the second heat on Sunday.

The Such Crust III, piloted by Chuck Thompson of Detroit, scored an upset by taking the third heat as Slo-Mo-Shun V finished second.

Marciano Sharp for Title Bout

Expects to Wipe Out Blemish of Disputed Win Over LaStarza

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP)—Rocky Marciano, at the peak of his career, expects to erase the only disputed fight in his record Thursday night at the Polo Grounds against determined Roland LaStarza.

"I'd like to clear that up," said the heavyweight champion after yesterday's sizzling workout. "It's the only fight there ever was any argument about. I always figured I'd fight him again.

"He's a strong guy, one of the strongest I ever fought—at least as strong as Joe Walcott. But he doesn't hit like Walcott.

"I think I've improved an awful lot since the first fight with LaStarza. After all, that was 3½ years ago."

Marciano won a split decision from LaStarza March 24, 1950.

The champ looked sharp as he went four rounds with Mike Fisher of Boston, Toxie Hall of Chicago, Willie Wilson of Providence and Bob Golden of Denver.

"That was the best I ever saw him in training," said Manager Al Weill.

Garver Enters Hospital for Operation on Knee

DETROIT (AP)—Pitcher Ned Garver of the Detroit Tigers entered Henry Ford Hospital today for surgery on a trick knee that has bothered him all season.

The righthander, whose left knee was injured originally back in his minor league pitching days, suffered a torn cartilage while running out a ground ball on the first day of the 1953 season.

City Team Second in MRA Golf Test

Pontiac finished in the runnerup slot over the weekend in the annual Michigan Recreation Association state medal play golf tournament at Lansing's Grosbeck Municipal Course.

City team fired a 782 total to wind up 14 strokes behind champion Lansing in the 34-hole affair. Other finishers, in order: Grand Rapids 806, Saginaw 813, Dearborn 816, Redford 821, Livonia 841 and Alma 877.

Comprising the Pontiac team were Mike Andonian (150), Stan Savage (155), Ron Rothbarth (157), Glen Harding (159) and Paul Barnum (161). Andonian was 2nd to Lansing's Skehan, who had 148, for medalist honors.

Fair Wins Feature at M-59 Speedway

Joy Fair of Pontiac returned to the Pontiac M-59 Speedway Sunday and promptly won two races, including the 25-lap feature of the afternoon program. Feature was marked by two collisions involving seven cars. Only eight finished the race.

Fair also won the first heat, while other heat winners included Butch Marshall, Bruce King, Jerry Foye and Carm Ragatez. Harman Wilcutt won the pursuit, Chuck Partello took the trophy dash, and George Rhyndress won the semi-final.

Wings Blank Flyers, 7-0, in 1st Exhibition

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—After a sharp showing in their exhibition opener, the Detroit Red Wings were preparing today for a test of National Hockey League competition before the week is out.

The five-time NHL champs skated all around their Edmonton farm club and shut out the Flyers 7-0 before 1927 fans Saturday night.

They have another test against Edmonton coming up Wednesday, and then take on Chicago's Black Hawks at the end of the week.

Coach Tommy Ivan watched approvingly as four different lines went into action and each produced at least one goal. Outstanding rookies who saw action were center Earl Reibel, forward Bill Dineen and defenseman Al Arbour.

During his major league career, Walter Johnson of the Senators pitched 38 wins by 1-0 margins.

Berths Open for America's '54 Cup Team

National Amateur Test Will Influence Picking of Squad

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The United States Golf Association now has the annual task of picking a "cup" team for men's international play. And, from the results of the 1953 National Amateur Championship, some players who defended the Walker Cup against Britain early this month may be in for a surprise when the team is chosen to play Mexico and Canada for the Americas Cup next summer.

* * *

There's no question, of course, about the new champion, Gene Littler. He's in any time the Navy will let him out to play golf.

This rather shy Navy airman from San Diego, Calif., probably is the best amateur golfer today.

He plays the same kind of steady, thoughtful golf as Ben Hogan.

The hitch in Littler's case is that he still has 15 months to serve in his navy enlistment.

* * *

Dale Morey, whose biggest ambition now is to make the Walker Cup team, hardly can be overlooked for next year's lesser cup competition. He matched Littler, hole for hole, before losing the tense 18th.

* * *

After these two, there's no telling how the other successful players in the 53rd championship will stack up a year from now. The others Don Albert of Purdue and Bruce Cudd of Portland University, Ted Richards Jr., the national public links champion; Bobby Kuntz, Larchmont, N. Y.; Angelo Santilli, East Greenwich, R. I. and Ray Palmer, Detroit.

Rams Batter Holy Cross, 18-0, in Season's Opener

By BILL MARTIN

St. Frederick's Rams made Charles Talbot's high school football coaching debut a marked success Sunday afternoon by trouncing an outmanned Marine City Holy Cross squad, 18-0, in Wisner Memorial Stadium.

Led by fullback Mike Murray and halfback Ted Reaver, Fred's running attack ripped the Crusader defense to shreds. Murray piled up 89 yards in 12 tries and Reaver added another 77 in 13 plays as the Rams rolled to 315 yards in rushing. Holy Cross, which had possession of the ball for only 30 plays, was held to a minus-13 yards on the ground and never penetrated deeper than the Rams' 40.

Opening-game jitters cost St. Frederick 120 yards in penalties, mostly for offsides and backfield-in-motion infractions, and produced five fumbles.

Rams scored their 1st touchdown on the opening play of the 2nd quarter, with Tom Monroe driving over from the 2-yard stripe on a quarterback sneak. Reaver's conversion try was low. Scoring march had started on the Holy Cross 35, where the Freds had taken over after a Crusader quick-kick.

Reaver intercepted Russ Holcombs pass near midfield a few minutes later to start the Pontiac eleven on its 2nd touchdown drive. Murray set up the score with an 18-yard gain, and Reaver knifed over from the three. Extra-point kick again fell short, and the Rams led, 12-0.

St. Frederick drove to the Crusaders' 10-yard line later in the period, but lost the ball on downs.

Rams' 3rd and final marker came late in the 3rd quarter. Southsiders marched 56 yards in nine plays and sophomore flanker Don Cox went the final nine yards on an end-around play. Reaver's kick was blocked for the point after.

Cox broke loose 57-yard scoring jaunt on another end-around in the 4th period, but a clipping penalty nulified the touchdown.

St. Frederick plays host to Highland Park St. Benedict in Wisner Stadium next Sunday afternoon.

Pontiac Motor Division Wins Babcock Cup

Pontiac Motor Division won the annual Babcock Trophy golf competition Sunday at Pontiac Country Club with a four-man team total of 298 strokes. Baldwin Rubber edged out General Motors, 312-313, for second place.

Fisher Body was fourth at 321, one stroke better than American Forge.

Stan Savage paced the winning team with a 72, but shared medalist honors for the tournament with GMC's Mike Andonian. Other members of the winning foursome were Jim Hanes (73), Tom Balliet (73) and Rube Wideman (80).

Tied at 73 with Hanes and Balliet were George Wright of Fisher's and Charley Barker of GMC.

Kelly Starts 3rd Year

Kenneth A. (Bill) Kelly begins his third year as head coach at Central Michigan College. Taking over in 1951 he posted a 5-3 record, and last year the Kelly-coached Chippewas racked up a 7-2 mark. They won the IIAC crown on six straight wins.

Williams' Showing After Return From Service Stamps Him Greatest Hitter

By JOE REICHLER

BOSTON (AP)—There is still only one Ted Williams.

There simply can't be another. If there were, Williams wouldn't res until he had outstripped his rival.

* * *

This tempestuous figure, this colorful and controversial personality, this perfection-minded individual, this tremendous slugger has proved conclusively that he stands out all alone as the greatest batter in baseball today.

And there are many, particularly among the Cabots and Lowells and Murphys of New England who will tell you that this tall slugger of the Boston Red Sox is one of the most remarkable, if not the most remarkable, hitter the game ever has known.

Greater than Babe Ruth? Perhaps not. But the observations of Joe Cronin, the Red Sox general manager, are worth listening to.

"Ted Williams is the greatest figure in sports today," says Cronin. "He has proved beyond a shadow of doubt that he belongs in special class of hitters with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. In my book he is as great as the Babe and Lou were, when it comes to combining batting average with slugging.

* * *

"I'm not saying Williams is as great a home run hitter as Ruth was. But Ted's lifetime batting average is higher. And Ted strikes out less often. You must remember that Ruth, as well as Gehrig and all the other great sluggers played in parks that best fitted their special talents. The right field fence in Yankee Stadium, for instance, measures only some 300 feet. It can never be said that Fenway Park, with the most distant right field in the majors, was built for Ted Williams.

The cold statistics of Williams' work in his second post-war return to baseball borders on the fantastic but it doesn't tell half the story.

Who else but Williams could crash a home run as a pinch hitter in only his second time at bat, exactly a month after he landed in the United States after flying jet planes over Communist territory in Korea?

Who else but Williams could saunter up to the plate, his wrist swollen, his elbow sore, his hands blistered, body too tired to permit him to play regularly, and wallop a pinch hit homer on the first ball pitched to him?

Who else but Williams could hit an amazing .400 and pound out a dozen homers in his first 75 times at bat—one in every 6—after 16 months in the service?

All these things Ted has done.

Rochester Top Independent

Ed. Note: This is another in a series discussing the 1953 football prospects for Oakland County area teams.

By JACK SAYLOR

With the Tri-County League out of football operation this fall, its former members will campaign as independents. Gene Konley's Rochester eleven appears the best of the group, which also includes Romeo, Lapeer, Lake Orion and Oxford.

Rochester faces a rugged schedule, but has seven starters from its undefeated 1952 team. Lapeer, also unbeaten last year, has only one starter back, but Jack Fitzpatrick also counts 14 letter winners on the squad.

Orion and Oxford should be improved and Romeo should be just as strong. Position switches will be the key to success.

Konley has picked ex-center Roger Forbush for his T-quarterback job. Working with him will be veterans Max Powell and Jerry LaBarre. Paul Dellaire and Don Robertson, a pair of speedy halfbacks, are bidding for the spot vacated by all-stater Ed Church.

Loss of ace tackle Bob Missel in Friday's 26-6 loss to Grand Haven hurt the Falcons, but good line talent is still available in ends Gil Witsoe and Earl Kitchen, tackle Walt DeBaene, and guards Bob Schilke, George Kleino and Gary Quick. Junior Dick Gray will be at center.

KONLEY

YEDINAK

Lapeer has moved blocking back Erwin Merritt to fullback to team with senior halfbacks Norm Hill and Jim Frazer.

Fitzpatrick is counting on another Wilson to quarterback this group. Tom, freshman brother of Johnny and Pat, gets the call. Don Brown, 175-pound guard is the Panthers' top lineman.

Jim Hoag has all but three of the 1952 regulars back at Lake Orion. Ed Leach, all-Tri-County end has moved to halfback, while fullback Joe Mendoza and halfback Jerry Laidlaw are switching positions. Jay McCaughna is at quarter.

Another change moved tackle Dick Chambers to end. Other returning linemen are Jerry LaMothe, Ray Parker, Jim Arnold, Floyd Behl and Bob Van Wagnor.

Mike Yedinak also is doing some juggling at Oxford. Center Duane Wildey goes to end and end Dale Spiker and guard Larry Spencer shift to tackle.

Guard Phil O'Dell, top Wildcat lineman last year, has quit school and Bob Hamilton and Pete Earp are currently sidelined with injuries, complicating Yedinak's work.

Bill Jarrett, Larry Allen and Doug Crawford are experienced in the line, while backs returning are Jim Van Wagoner and little Marvil Smith. Two transfers, Jim Lister of Allen Park and Bob McFarland of Tennessee, also figure in the backfield.

Dan Barnabo at Romeo still has two-time all-leaguer Bernie Carter in addition to Bob Griffin and Jim Lothrey in the backfield. Dick Marshall at end, center Don Komraus and 200-pound tackle Don Bates. Two sophomores, Paul Pawloski and Bill Stade, will help.

Milwaukee Shatters NL Attendance Record

By JOE REICHLER
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Attention, American League club owners!

When you convene next Sunday to discuss the Browns' proposed transfer, it might be well to adopt the following slogan.

* * *

"Rember the Braves!"

It is doubtful if this amazing story—the Braves shift from Boston to Milwaukee and the tremendous loyalty of the baseball-happy Milwaukee fans—will ever be forgotten.

In its first major league baseball season in half a century, Milwaukee established a new National League attendance record when 1,826,397 cash customers came out to root their beloved Braves into second place.

Although yesterday's games had no bearing on the final standings, a capacity crowd of 36,011 — one person for every seat in County Stadium—watched the Braves split a doubleheader with Cincinnati. Rookie Joey Jay, making his first major league start, shut out the Redlegs 3-0 in an abbreviated seven-inning nightcap after Cincinnati had won the opener 5-3.

The doubleheader, which concluded the club's home games for the year, enabled the Braves to shatter the old league attendance mark of 1,807,526 set by the pennant winning Dodgers of 1947.

* * *

With the pennant races decided days ago, attention was focused on individual performance yesterday. Virgil Trucks became the fourth American League pitcher to win 20 games this year when he hurled the White Sox to a 5-2 victory as Chicago swept a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns.

Bob Keegan, 32-year-old righthander, pitched his second successive three-hit shutout 4-0 in the opener.

Gus Zernial walloped homers Nos. 40 and 41 to help Philadelphia win two games from Washington 13-9 and 4-3. Zernial wrested the American League lead from Cleveland's Al Rosen.

Billy Martin's three-run homer highlighted a five-run sixth inning that gave Eddie Ford his 18th victory and the New York Yankees a 10-8 slugfest victory over Boston.

* * *

Stan Musial, battling against long odds to retain his batting championship, cracked out a single, triple and his 28th home run in four times at bat to lead the St. Louis Cardinals to an 11-6 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The pennant winning Dodgers divided a twin bill with Philadelphia, winning the opener 5-4 and losing the second 2-1.

Cal Abrams hit a grandslam home run that gave Pittsburgh an 8-4 triumph over the New York Giants.

Eagles 11 Rated NFL 'Darkhorse'

Pre-Season Exhibitions Indicate Good Year for Pro Clubs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Professional Football League campaign which gets underway next Sunday could be one of the best in years, if you can believe results of the pre-season exhibitions.

The resurgent Philadelphia Eagles loom as the dark horse for the 1953 campaign on the basis of their 4-1 exhibition record which included a come-from-behind win over the world champion Detroit Lions.

To earn a shot at the world championship, the Eagles must first, however, dethrone conference champion Cleveland. Browns also won four and lost one, but they played to a 24-24 standstill with the Lions.

Rams handed Paul Browns' perennial champions their only defeat, 27-9. Browns defeated San Francisco, Baltimore, the Bears, and Green Bay Packers.

The Western Conference, league champion Lions had a 3-1-1 record against League teams.

But the big story could be the Colts. Back in Baltimore after a dismal season in last place in Dallas, they broke even in six tight exhibition games. They edged the Cards, 10-7; Steelers, 13-6; and the Redskins, 9-3; while dropping close ones to the Eagles, 10-7; Browns, 23-21 and Giants, 10-6.

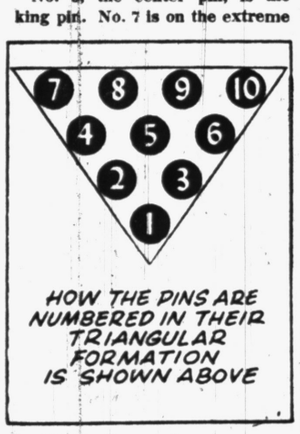
Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

CASE—Position of Pins Obscure.

CURE—Of importance to the beginner is "know your pins." No. 1, at the front of the triangular formation setup of 10 pins, for example, is termed the head pin. Opening between the 1 and 3 pins is the strike pocket.

No. 5, the center pin, is the king pin. No. 7 is on the extreme back-left side of the formation, and the No. 10 is on the back-right side.



Knocking all 10 pins down with one ball (first delivery) is a strike (marked X on the scoresheet), and that "cleaning the deck" with two balls is a spare (marked /).

Also: Observe the foul line. To touch it with your foot, or to go beyond it, sliding or falling, nullifies the ball. How to avoid the line, to stay behind it, requires know-how—proper coordination of swing and footwork—which will be outlined later. But first—know your pins.

East Is Seen Assuming Prominent Grid Spot

By FRANK LEAHY
(Notre Dame Football Coach)

Since Friday's column will have us into a discussion of our own game and team we would like to take a brief look around the nation to see where the 1953 football strength lies before getting into our weekly chats about current contests.

It appears as if the East is about to assume a very prominent position in the national football scene this fall.

Pittsburgh, Navy, Princeton, Army, Pennsylvania, Penn State, Syracuse, Yale, Villanova, Holy Cross, Boston College and Fordham all loom as strong teams and chances are pretty good that at least one of these teams will be bowl bound by January 1st.

In the South, Maryland and Duke appear to have things pretty much their own way with Wake Forest and North Carolina pushing them.

Georgia Tech is still the big name in the Southeast. Last year's Sugar Bowl Champions are out to move up a notch from number two to number one in the national ranking. Their greatest competition at home should come from Alabama with Tennessee, Mississippi State and Georgia pressing them. Florida is definitely the darkhorse in this section and a good start could make them a top contender.

Big Ten co-champions, Purdue and Wisconsin, will face serious problems as freshman member Michigan State becomes of age in conference competition. From experience we know the Spartans are capable of handling the Big Ten's best and will give these two teams trouble. However, Ohio State may provide them all with much concern.

The team which has been in our mind for quite some time now appears headed for their sixth consecutive Big Seven Championship. Oklahoma is the team to beat in that area.

Houston looks tops in the Missouri Valley Conference but the team to watch is Tulsa.

Rice and Texas will be battling for the Southwest pennant with Baylor and SMU providing the most competition.

OCSC Field Archery Meet Held on Sunday

More than two dozen bow-and-arrow enthusiasts competed in the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club field archery championships at the club's range in Waterford Sunday.

Free style winners included Sid Stark, 692 in EBA Class; Tom Adams, 510 in Bowman Class; Ed Kuder, 469 in Archer Class and Helen Orr, 462 in Women's Class.

In instinctive shooting, Rusy DeRausha's 398 topped Archers; Bill Carland fired a 557 to lead Bowmen; and Theobell Payne took top honors among women with 259.

OCSC broadhead championships will be held next Sunday.

Davey-Andrews Rematch Seen

Grand Rapids Writer Claims Ex-MSC Boxer Isn't Retiring

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The Grand Rapids Herald said today that Chuck Davey, who jumped from the Michigan State College campus into a losing fight for the world's welterweight title and last week took a drubbing from a one-time sparring partner, isn't retiring.

Since Davey's decisive beating by Al Andrews at Saginaw, Mich., last week there had been published rumors he likely would retire.

Andrews, a former spar-mate of Davey's, won the 10-rounder by a wide margin. Davey lost by a TKO to champion Kid Gavilan in their title bout.

Charlie Clapp, Herald sports editor, quotes Hec Knowles, Davey's manager, as saying Davey will fight in Detroit's Olympia Stadium Oct. 28.

Knowles and other Davey handlers met with the fighter in Chicago Sunday, following a checkup on a kidney ailment which has been bothering Davey.

"His physicians say he will be 100 per cent O.K.," Clapp quoted Knowles as saying.

Davey, Knowles said, was committed to the Olympia fight before Andrews whipped him, and the opponent was to have been Billy Graham, the welter contender. But now, Knowles reported, Olympia likely will rematch Davey and Andrews.

County Athletes on Broncs Fall Squad

Oakland County athletes are members of Western Michigan College's fall teams, while Alma College's first football foe will be quarterbacked by a county player.

Jerry Ganzel of Milford is running as third-string quarterback on the Broncos' varsity grid squad, while Ron Kaser of Pontiac is a newcomer to the Western cross country team.

Alma meets Anderson College of Indiana in its opener. Anderson's passing ace is Ronald Patty of Royal Oak.

Allie Reynolds of the Yankees woud like to win two more World Series games before he retires. He has won six.

Bob Considine Says:

Otis Never Got to Go West but Found Gold in Elevator

NEW YORK (INS)—One regret that Otis never had was that he invented the elevator.

Just 100 years ago today a master mechanic named Elisha Graves Otis opened shop in Yonkers, N. Y., determined to build two "safety hoisters" that had been ordered by a New York City furniture factory to carry freight between floors.

Otis gave up his intention of joining the California gold rush, and with regret. But he was prospecting in a gold mine of undreamt-of yield.

The big cities of the country were beginning to grow up, as well as grow out. Real estate values were kiting.

Building owners, hard pressed for money enough to buy sufficient frontage, looked up into the free air above—and sought ways of building into it.

But the public was hard to sell. To prove that people would not be dashed to death in his contraption, Otis installed one in the Crystal Palace Exposition in New York and had himself hoisted to the ceiling.

Then he ordered the rope cut. The lift stayed where it was, and Otis had to take repeated bows from the cheering spectators.

The first passenger elevator, imbedded in a New York department store, traveled 40 feet a minute.

Today's fastest Otis elevators and similar makes move 1,400 feet a minute.

About 26,000,000,000 passengers travel on elevators every year, and the up-and-down mileage amounts to about 550,000,000 miles.

There could be no skyscrapers without them, no modern apartment buildings, hotels, hospitals, etc., etc., etc.

And, wonder of wonders, most of them are still made in 1-story buildings.

Ev Holles, the broadcaster, has a favorite phrase to describe the unexpected peace-fest that was the Democratic meeting at Chicago, "creeping harmony,"— a paraphrase of the Republican cry, "Creeping Socialism."

Bill Lawrence mentioned it to Adlai Stevenson last week and it showed up in a Stevenson speech. Went over big, too.

Holles promptly wired his friend Lawrence: "Would you call that 'creeping plagiarism?' "

The speakers who "briefed" Republican women at Chicago the other day on how to get out the vote probably meant well. But they provided the Democrats with a beaut of an opportunity to slam back when one of them said:

"Try to line up Mrs. Smith, the woman on the other side of the tracks with five dirty-faced kids, as well as Mrs. Jones, who lives on the hill with the three maids."

A lot of Mrs. Smiths who voted Ike into office will wonder about that, what with dirt being an impartial resident on both sides of the tracks.

Adlai Stevenson's big problem—and it's a problem for the Democratic party, too—is to keep himself green in the memory of the independent voter until 1956.

Tom Dewey could always go back to running the most important state in the United States, and from that vantage point could always make news, and stay alive.

Stevenson needs a job, rich man that he is. He needs something important to do. His trip around the world is done, and it was something less than momentous.

He can't "join 'em," as Wendell Willkie once did. And he won't go for the fire-and-brimstone type of oratory and campaigning that fits Truman like a glove. He's a problem.

"Little Boy Lost," Bing Crosby's new picture, has its premiere on Broadway tonight for the benefit of the Overseas Press Club.

In this touching, heart-warming picture, Bing plays a foreign correspondent who is separated from his family at the time of Dunkirk, loses his wife to a Gestapo firing squad, and their baby drops out of sight.

He gets a clue about the boy nine years later, and the movie revolves around his efforts to prove his relationship to the little French boy who may or may not be his son.

Great stuff, for a great cause. The Overseas Press Club is building a clubhouse here in memory of the 60 correspondents who lost their lives in World War II and World War two-and-a-half, Korea.

Grains Higher, but Draggy

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains moved higher after a shaky opening on the Board of Trade today.

Despite the upturn, dealings were rather slow. Corn was the first cereal to start the upward climb, led by the September contract. Trading in all September contracts ends today.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¾ to 1½ higher, September $1.88, corn was ¾ to 2 cents higher, September $1.61¾, oats were ⅜ to ¾ higher, September 72⅝, soybeans were 1½ to 3 cents higher, September $2.62½, and lard was 60 cents a hundred pound lower to 12 cents higher, September $16.25.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Thirty-four building permits totaling approximately $138,500 were issued last week, according to Lloyd Anderson, township supervisor.

Stocks Insisting on Looking Up

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market was higher today despite several areas of softness.

Gains in some instances went to between 1 and 2 points, but the great majority of plus signs were small. Losses extended to around a point at the outside in significant areas.

Business was on the quiet side with the pace around a million shares for the entire day. Friday's market accounted for 1,190,000 shares.

Railroads were far out in front of the rest of the market while the automobiles were laggard.

Bankers, Builders at Odds Over Mortgage Financing

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Bankers and home builders are at odds today over whether there's enough money around for mortgages.

And government officials are expressing concern over the mild slump in home building and hinting of pump priming if private mortgage credit can't carry the load.

A slowdown in production is reported by some firms supplying builders.

The start of National Home Week today finds spokesmen for the builders charging that mortgage lenders are "returning to horse-and-buggy financing, with high down payments, high monthly payments, higher interest rates and second mortgages."

The president of the National Association of Home Builders, Emanuel M. Spiegel, presumably speaking for its 26,000 members, asks: "Are we to repeat the pattern of the twenties and the bitter years that followed?"

The president of the American Bankers Association, W. Harold Brenton, however, says there's plenty of mortgage money. At the opening of the association's annual meeting in Washington, the Des Moines, Iowa, bank president says he sees no need for government agencies to liberalize mortgage terms.

Mortgages will cost home builders more than they did two or three years ago, admits Charles L. Clements, president of the United States Savings and Loan League. The typical non-veteran borrower will pay around 5 to 5½ per cent and down payments are higher.

But Clements says mortgage money is in ample supply to meet a healthy demand — within the scope of the administration's "sound money" policy. Higher interest rates have followed this move to harden the dollar and halt inflation.

Home building has slackened off some this summer. Housing starts reached a peak in April of 111,000 units. In August privately-owned housing starts dropped to 93,000, although for the first eight months of the year their total was still running ahead of last year.

What seems to worry the administration, however, is that applications for mortgage insurance by the Federal Housing Administration have fallen off fairly sharply. This might mean that by next year home building would drop to a level the administration considers unhealthy.

So Housing Administrator Cole is telling the bankers' meeting today that the government may have to "resort to some means of assistance" again.

Some months ago interest rates were raised on FHA-insured and Veterans Administration-guarantee mortgage loans. The slowdown in home building that followed, however, is more than was expected, Cole admits.

He wants the bankers and the home builders to get together on the mortgage money question so that there need be no "return to direct government action in the housing field."

Camp Oakland Gets Legal Tag

Is Labeled 'Temporary Detention Home' to Stay Within Law

Camp Oakland was tagged a "temporary detention home" today to legalize that location as a year-round home for wards of Oakland County Juvenile Court.

Oakland County Board of Supervisors took the action at the suggestion of its juvenile committee, headed by Mrs. Helen P. Roberts of Ferndale.

Mrs. Roberts emphasized that the camp, the 310-acre former Lafer farm near Oxford, will still operate a summer camp for underprivileged children. Public-spirited groups already have raised $80,000 toward the total purchase cost of $110,000, she said.

The committee chairmen explained the county's facilities for homeless and wayward youngsters will soon be outgrown again, despite addition of two cottages at Oakland County Children's Home.

Some 20 or 30 boys will move to Camp Oakland soon to take part in the permanent farm program there, she said.

Mrs. Roberts said Harry J. Merritt, county corporation counsel, pointed out that supervisors must designate Camp Oakland as a temporary detention home — to be conducted as a probate court agency — in order to comply with Michigan law of court employees are used there.

This designation, she said, would leave Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore free to appoint a superintndent of matron and other employes or use present court personnel to staff the year-round project.

Master of ceremonies will be Eugene K. Wellman, vice president and general manager of the Detroit City Ice and Fuel Co. A movie, "Power Behind the Nation," will be shown. It depicts the movement of coal from mines to the consumer.

Fractures Shoulder in 2-Car M-59 Crash

Harry Green, 44, of 11330 Woodmont, Detroit, was treated for a fractured left collar bone at Pontiac Gneral Hospital yesterday following a two-car crash at M-59 and Hillside Rd., according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Green told deputies he was making a left turn onto M-59 when he collided with an auto driven by Henry B. Williams, 49, of 10039 Mettetal, Detroit.

5 Italian Fishing Boats Held in Yugoslav Waters

LONDON (AP)—Belgrade radio today said five Italian vessels were seized Saturday in Yugoslav territorial waters and accused of fishing without licenses.

The broadcast said the vessels were taken into custody near the island of Palagruza and escorted to the Island of Hvar in the middle Adriatic.

Benson at Agriculture Meet

Illinois Farmer Snatches Plowing Crown 2nd Year

AUGUSTA, Wis. (AP) — A 47-year-old Illinois farmer, Graeme Stewart, is the national plowing champion for the second straight year and 41-year-old R. C. Cummins of Lewistown, Ohio, defeated his younger brother to become the contour plowing king.

Their performances in the national plowing matches, a speech by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, two million dollars' worth of farm machinery and other features drew an estimated 68,000 persons to a big agricultural carnival Saturday near this Eau Claire County community.

Stewart, who has a 325-acre farm near Blainfield, Ill., became the first man ever to win a national plowing match two consecutive years since the contest began 15 years ago.

With 74 points out of a possible 100, he held a one-point edge over Lyle Mason of Meriden, Iowa.

"Bus" Cummins scored 76 points to dethrone his 38-year-old brother, Martin, who won the contour last year.

In his speech, Benson said the administration will do everything in its power to "enhance farm prices in 1953-54 with the implements at hand."

A dozen deputy sheriffs were stationed around the speakers platform, which was separated from the audience by a snow fence and heavy barbed wire.

There had been rumors that farmers might create a disturbance to indicate displeaure with the administration's farm policy, but no trouble developed.

Business Briefs

Attending the 79th annual convention of the American Bankers Association in Washington this week are Pontiac State Bank President Milo J. Cross, and Community National Bank assistant vice presidents, John P. Niggeman and William E. Cashin Jr.

Meeting through Wednesday the association will hear talks on the government's fiscal, monetary and farm support aims by administration officials including Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey and Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson.

Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association reported today that shipments of domestic gas ranges continued to increase this year, with 1,431,400 units shipped in the first eight months. This is a 4.4 per cent gain over the 1,371,100 units shipped in the corresponding period last year.

Driver and Passenger in Hospital After Crash

Willie Simmons, 71, of 13365 Riopelle, Detroit, and Alice Johnson, 63, of Oakland, Calif., were treated for cuts at Pontiac General Hospital Saturday after a two-car accident at U.S.10 and Williams Lake Rd., according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Simmons told deputies a car driven by Roger H. Murphy, 21, of 721 Cortwright St., made a left turn in front of him and he was unable to stop. Miss Johnson was a passenger in Simmons' auto.

In Memoriam 1

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear daughter and sister Emma G Butler who passed away Sept. 22, 1951
Gone is the face, we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sadly missed by Mom, Dad, sister and brothers.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF EMMA G Butler, who passed away Sept. 22 1951.
A wonderful mother, wife and aid,
One who was better, God never made.
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true
One in a million that mother was you.
Just in your judgment, always right
Honest and liberal, ever upright.
Loved by your friends and all whom you knew,
Our wonderful mother, that mother was you.
Sadly missed by loving husband, and children Emery O. Sr., Emery I, and Evelyn Sue.

GENEROUS WALT BELIEVES:

That everyone should drive an automobile. After checking his stock of used cars, he selected a group of them that he feels will appeal to people with no cars and a small amount of cash; and also to the owners of older cars that would like to drive a newer and better car. With that thought in mind, he offers the following cars for your inspection.

Neighbors Miss 'Taps' by Trumpet Student

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Over a period of several weeks Dickie Cooper, a trumpet-studying school boy, stepped out on the porch of his home and played the military bugle call "Taps" each night at 9 p. m.

He and his family were relieved that the phone didn't jangle with protests. Then Dickie went away for a weekend. Neighbors called to inquire if he was sick. They missed the Taps. Some said they'd lost sleep lying awake waiting for it.

Eager Beaver Crook Rips Into Stores Hondily

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — The prisoner was known as "the Beaver," police told the judge, because of his talent for ripping his way into stores with his bare hands. He admitted tearing a hole in a jewelry store roof with his hands, climbing out again with $5,500 worth of watches.

"Well," said the judge, "let him try his talent on some steel bars. Ten to eighteen years."

The digging of the Suez Canal took 10 years, from 1859 to 1869.

Australia Prepares First A-Bomb Shelter

CANBERRA (AP) — Australia soon will have its first shelter for protection against atomic blast and radiation. The shelter will be the sub-basement of the Commonwealth Secretariat building in Canberra, 300 yards from Parliament House.

Its sub-basement, 25 feet below ground, will provide a store for tons of Commonwealth records and also will provide a shelter from an atomic attack for thousands of people.

Which Knoxville?

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP)— When a professional bondsman, Bob Kernell, bailed out a man for drunkenness, he asked his address. The man replied he lived on Route 4, Knoxville. Then Kernell received a letter from the man with money for the bonding charges. The return address: "Route 4, Knoxville, Ia."
