Outlook Good for UF Drive

Campaign Head Sees Success for United Fund

Frank S. Lyndall Says Outlook Good for Drive Which Starts Tuesday

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

"Prospects for success in the 1954 Pontiac Area United Fund drive look good," Campaign Manager Frank S. Lyndall said today.

The annual campaign in factories, stores and residential areas in Pontiac, Waterford Township and Pontiac Township will begin next Tuesday running through Nov. 4.

"The high interest and enthusiasm of volunteer workers in all divisions should certainly make it possible for our UF fund to reach its $525,823 goal," Lyndall stated, "even though that goal is slightly higher than last year's.

"It's also gratifying to note the cooperation of hundreds of other volunteers.

"They are not solicitors but they are distributing campaign literature, putting up posters, showing the UF movie, helping set up displays, assisting at campaign headquarters in the Hotel Pontiac and countless other jobs."

This year's mark is $38,623 above 1953's, an increase of 7.75 per cent. But it is only 3.7 per cent greater than the amount raised in last year's drive.

Some 55 agencies will benefit from UF funds this year, two more than in 1953.

The new organizations are the Michigan League for Nursing and the state division of the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

The time-proven objective behind the effort is to marshal community resources in one campaign to supply funds to help operate local, state and national service agencies during 1955 operations.

Thus about 2,500 volunteers have been and will give their time to

Rhode Island Has Family of Eagles

HIGHEST SCOUTING HONOR — All four sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. DeBlois LaBrosse of Central Falls, R. I., have achieved Eagle rank, Boy Scouts highest honor. Chief Executive J. Harold Williams said it may be the only four-Eagle family in the history of scouting. Each of the boys entered scouting as soon as he was old enough to become a cub and reached the top rung at the age of 15. Left to right: Andre, 21; Marc, 19; Luc, 15 and Paul 22.

Lake Street School Site Gets Education Board OK

Neither race, nor color nor creed will play any role in determining the location of new school buildings or additions for the Pontiac Public School System.

Thus read a formal resolution adopted Wednesday night by the Pontiac Board of Education when they approved plans for the construction of a primary school on the Lake Street site.

"It is the policy of this board to locate facilities on the basis of the nearness and accessibility to the children to be served," concluded the statement.

Summarizing several months of study revolving around the controversial Lake Street site, the board said it is their obligation to serve the best interests of the child.

This, they explained, should be in schools near the home centers for primary children from the kindergarten through the third grade. Lake Street school is planned to offer a primary school program.

Memebers of the local and state National Association for the Advancement of Colored People have opposed the placing of a school at this particular site.

They have charged that it will be in essence, a segregated school because the neighborhood

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Asst. Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson flew back to the United States today, leaving this Nationalist China capital buzzing with speculation on the reason for his brief visit.

In a prepared statement handed to newsmen at the airport, Robertson said he had "examined the situation throughout the Far Eastern area and exchanged views as to means of coping with various problems in the region."

He added he would report the views of Nationalist officials to Secretary of State Dulles in Washington

Despite the secrecy surrounding his one-day visit, most Chinese were convinced Robertson came to urge the Nationalists not to attack the Red mainland in any manner that might provoke strong retaliation.

Local newspapers have used the expression "Yalu River Sanctuary" in describing the restraints which the United States is reported to have placed on President Chiang Kai-shek's forces, comparing them to the limitations imposed on United Nations forces in Korea when they were not permitted to attack the Reds north of Korea's Yalu boundary with Manchuria.

Russia Agrees to Trieste Pact

Approval of Settlement Takes Western Nations by Surprise

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Russians surprised the West again last night by giving an approving nod to the Western-sponsored Trieste settlement. The Soviets had been expected to blast the agreement.

Soviet recognition of the Oct. 5 London Accord dividing the Trieste territory between Italy and Yugoslavia was conveyed in a letter from Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky to the 11-member Security Council.

Noting the agreement was reached as a result of an understanding between Italy and Yugoslavia, Vishinsky said it would promote the establishment of normal relations between them and thus contribute towards a relaxation of tension in that part of Europe."

Blames Slow Arrest for Career of Crime

MANILA (AP)—Amado G. Manlapaz blames the police for his career of crime.

"Had I been arrested earlier, I never would have had the chance to commit so many crimes," he told Judge Bienvenido A. Tan. Manlapaz' police record lists 24 crimes.

The judge wasn't moved. He sentenced Manlapaz to eight years imprisonment for a $250 robbery committed in August, 1952.

Bomber to Fly at Super Speed

Convair Has AF Order for Faster-Than-Sound Medium-Weight B58

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has ordered "initial production" of its first faster-than-sound bomber—and possibly the world's first—the Convair B58.

Some experts say the B58, a medium-weight successor to the medium Boeing B47 and the heavy B52, may be the last of the piloted bombers before long-range strategy turns to the intercontinental guided missile.

The first B58 is still under construction behind a high wall in a closely guarded section of the mile-long Convair hangar at Fort Worth, Tex., where the giant B36 heavy bomber was produced. B36 production ended there last summer.

In disclosing its B58 order yesterday, the Air Force also announced an initial production order for the Lockheed F104 lightweight fighter, which also flies faster than sound. Lockheed said an undisclosed number are already being assembled at its Burbank, Calif., plant.

Unofficial reports are that the thin, straight-wing aluminum fighter has flown faster than 1,000 miles an hour. It reportedly is only half as heavy as currently operational fighters and twice as fast.

Fighters now in operation exceed the speed of sound—760 miles an hour at sea level—in dives but not in level flight.

Details of the B58 are still a military secret. The plane is said to have a delta-shaped wing and four jet engines, as compared with six for the B47 and eight for the B52.

It is believed the engines will be twice as powerful as any in operation in the United States.

Careless Bossy Spatters Mud on Dem Speaker

The Ohio Democrat was discussing agriculture problems with a farmer in Geauga County while movie cameras recorded the scene.

At a cameraman's suggestion, several cows were lured into the background with stalks of corn to add authenticity.

Then one cow departed unexpectedly from the script. She tried for a new grip on a particularly bothersome stalk and swished it over the ground, splattering Burke from head to toe with gooey, barnyard mud.

London Traffic Near Standstill as 12,000 Strike

More Busmen Join in Wildcat Walkout; Docks Remain Paralyzed

LONDON (AP) — Bus service in vast, sprawling London neared complete disruption today as the number of drivers and conductors out on a wildcat strike shot over the 12,000 mark.

The normally bustling Thames dock area came to a standstill, meanwhile, under the impact of the continuing three-sided walkout of stevedores and ship repairmen. More than 29,000 of the dock force were idle and 132 ships could not move.

Labor Minister Sir Walter Monckton prepared a strike survey for Prime Minister Churchill's Cabinet.

In government quarters an impression prevailed that the dislocation to life and business had not yet reached a critical stage, but use of troops will be considered if essential services are threatened.

About half the state-owned transport system's 7,100 buses were idle in garages. Service was at a standstill, or skimpy, on 164 of London's 200 bus routes.

George Haines, secretary of the passenger group of the Transport and General Workers' Union, appealed to the bus men to return to their jobs, saying: "We must have ordered negotiations or chaos must follow."

Subway trains were jammed with extra riders. Additional automobiles and bicycles swelled the usual downtown traffic jam.

Officials of the state-owned system estimated 2,200 of the city's 7,100 buses did not leave their garages.

Strike leaders called further meetings during the day in an attempt to persuade more of the 43,000 unionized bus operators to join the stoppage which stems from a long-standing demand for higher pay and better working conditions. Union officials oppose the walkout.

There were signs the dock strike might spread to other British ports, further imperiling the nation's badly needed food and coal supplies and holding up the shipment of vital export goods.

Kyes Is Honored for Work With Future Farmers

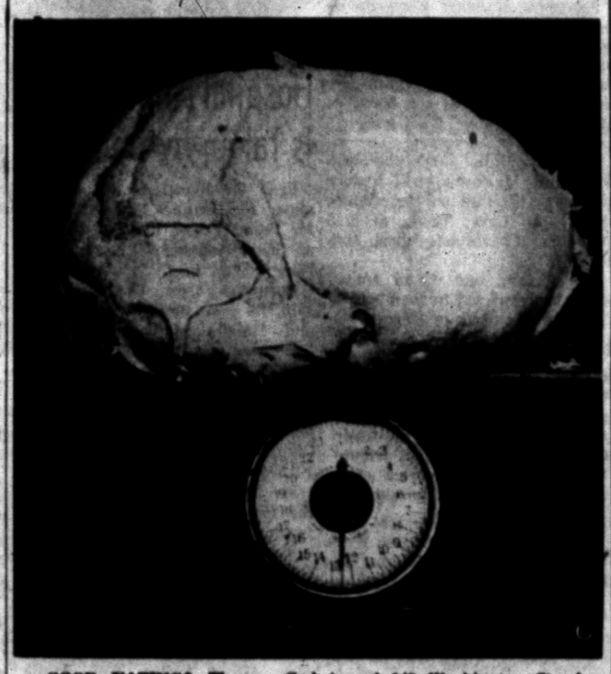

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Roger M. Kyes, a vice president of General Motors, and former deputy secretary of defense, was presented a plaque last night at the Future Farmers of America convention in recognition of his work as a former chairman of the FFA Sponsoring committee.

A 17-year-old Virginia youth who restored 144 acres to productivity received a national award for soil and water management.

Wilbur Lawrence, Ashland, Va., was given a $250 check for winning the national FFA contest.

He reclaimed the land by clearing off scrub trees, bulldozing part of it, setting up a drainage system and fertilizing. The land now furnishes pasture and hay for 42 head of cattle.

Bumper Puffballs Appear

GOOD EATING?—Thomas Godwin, of 145 Washington St., has the steak to fry with this giant puffball, if someone can convince him they are good to eat. He found the 12½-pound whopper while running his bird dog in Springfield township yesterday. Charles E. Morris, of 223 Whittemore St. topped Godwin's find later in the day, when he lost his white pointer, and walked up to an 18 pound 10 ounce puffball. Morris, who made his find just off South Boulevard, agreed with Godwin that the heavy rains probably accounted for the large sizes. As for the eating, Morris prefers mushrooms with his steaks.

Raps Misinterpretation

Wilson Regrets Dog Story; Defends Record on Labor

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson said last night that he was sorry about his bird dog remarks that stirred a political storm this week.

But he claimed they were "distorted by our left-wing opponents," and he offered to match his "labor record with anyone in this nation."

He told a $100-a-plate Republican party fund-raising dinner that "I admit that I made a mistake — bringing up those bird dogs at the same time I was talking about people."

But he said his remarks, made Monday at a Detroit news conference, were "picked up and exaggerated all out of proportion" by the Democrats, who nearing the November election, are engaged in a "a campaign of desperation, of deliberate misrepresentation, of hitting below the belt."

Wilson made his controversial remarks in Detroit while under questioning about unemployment.

He cited an instance of a delegation which, in asking for defense contracts, told him there were 100 jobless youths in their community as a result of changes in their draft status. He commented:

And I've got a lot of sympathy for people where a sudden change catches 'em—but I've always liked bird dogs better than kennel fed dogs. You know, one who'll get out and hunt for food rather than sit on his fanny and yell."

This allusion to dogs during the discussion on unemployment brought a storm of protests from labor leaders and political figures of both major parties.

President Eisenhower backed up the 64-year-old Cabinet member. But Gov. William G. Stratton, Illinois' top Republican, earlier yes-

Rainfall in City at All-Time High

7.66 Inches Fall in Area So Far for October; Average Is 2.36

An all-time record for Pontiac's monthly rainfall has been set and the month isn't half gone.

Last night .67 of an inch fell and brought the total to 7.66 inches, as compared to the previous record of 6.86 in April of 1947. The earlier record for October was 6.76 inches set in 1890.

October's normal monthly average is 2.36.

To add to that, the U. S. Weather Bureau says there are more showers in store for the area tonight and tomorrow.

The forecast is for cloudy, damp and much cooler weather with the high Friday expected to be from 56 to 60 degrees.

Yesterday the high in downtown Pontiac was 74, the low 56. At 8 o'clock this morning the thermometer reading was 66, rising to 72 by 2 p.m.

Warns Against Fruit Too Young or Too Old

LANSING (UP) — State marketing officials warned fruit growers today against attempting to sell green and over-ripe fruit.

"Too many people are trying to peddle green apples that never will get ripe and over-ripe fruit that never will be eaten," Miles A. Nelson, state marketing enforcement chief, said.

Storm Swirling With Top Winds Up to 130 MPH

Warnings Raised From the Virginia Capes to Charleston, S. C.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Weather Bureau raised hurricane warnings in the North Carolina Capes area today and predicted Hurricane Hazel would pass near there late tonight.

The massive storm's top winds have built up to 130 miles an hour, and its forward movement in a north-northwest direction increased to 23 miles an hour.

Northeast storm warnings were ordered up from the Virginia Capes to Charleston, S. C.

The Bureau said the hurricane was centered about 300 miles east of West Palm Beach, Fla., at 11 a.m.

Walter R. Davis, acting chief storm forecaster, said Hazel would move "very close" to Cape Hatteras but the center probably would pass to the west or landward side.

Davis said there must be a "wait and see" attitude at the moment concerning possible threats to the mid-Atlantic and New England coastal areas.

Forward movement of the violent storm is expected to accelerate to 30 to 35 m.p.h. the next 24 hours, the forecaster added.

The Weather Bureau's advisory said the 130-mile top winds were found in a "small area near the center" but hurricane winds extended outward 80 miles to the north and 40 miles to the south. Gale winds 39 to 75 m.p.h. extended approximately 175 miles to the north and east, and 75 miles to the south and west.

Today Hazel's 130-mile top winds made it the most powerful storm among the eight Atlantic hurricanes reported this year.

Meanwhile, relief operations began in the storm - stricken Caribbean island republic of Haiti, to which hurricane Hazel dealt a mighty blow early Tuesday in its course from the Caribbean northward to Atlantic waters.

First reports from the U. S. aircraft carrier Saipan, whose helicopters were landing doctors and medical supplies at the ravaged town of Jeremie, indicated the loss of life in Haiti's hard-hit southwest peninsula might be much lighter than was first feared.

Supreme Court Buckles Down

Justices Begin Work of New Term Saddened by Jackson's Death

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court buckles down to the work of its new term today, delayed and saddened by the death of Justice Robert H. Jackson.

Jackson's chair and the place where he sat at the bench in the court chamber were shrouded in black.

The court's first real business session was originally scheduled for last Monday, but the court adjourned until after the Jackson's funeral service and burial. Jackson, 62, died of a heart attack last Saturday.

Yesterday, at Frewsburg, N. Y., the eight justices stood by as honorary pallbearers while the body of their late colleague was laid to rest in a small cemetery near his home.

As its first business today the court arranged to admit lawyers to practice and then make public a long list of orders. In its orders it announces whether it has granted or denied hearings on the many appeals filed since the last term ended last June.

Cases which are granted hearings will be scheduled later for oral arguments.

After disposing of orders, the court starts listening to the first arguments of its new term—cases in which the justices last spring granted hearings. The argument sessions will continue this week and all of next week.

American Family Returns From Europe, Is Ready to Kiss Homeland Soil

By BILL BECKER

LOS ANGELES (AP)—To an American family returning from a year abroad, the United States is overwhelming.

Skyscrapers, supermarkets, watermelon, pie a la mode, the endless cavalcade of huge, powerful automobiles, the general bustle of things being done by people who apparently delight in getting things done—all these fit into a kaleidoscope, dazzling, bewildering, sometimes banal, hardly ever dull.

After junketing by auto around Europe, the Becker tribe came back the easy way, in a 19-hour flight from Copenhagen to New York. From there we returned to California in the doughty little Hillman which had taken us 7,000 miles through 12 foreign countries. We had shipped it across two weeks before.

Driving down 5th Avenue and Broadway was a major treat for all the Beckers during a three-day stay in New York. But tourists should be advised that parking problems make taxis a better bet, especially when five can ride as cheaply as one.

Incidentially, our $20-a-day budget was knocked into a cocked chapeau in New York and Washington. You can't see much in those towns unless you get right downtown, which costs money. Elsewhere in the United States a family of five still can stay under or close to $20 per diem, we found, especially in the Midwest.

The Washington agenda included visits to the Capitol, Lincoln Memorial and the White House. The family voted the Blue Room most impressive, although the White House rooms generally seemed tiny after some of the immense, ornate reception halls in European castles. The ordered beauty of Washington's parks, boulevards and monuments was reminiscent of Paris.

Heading west, we began to feel we were almost home when near Nappanee, Ind., up popped a sign as indigenous to Western highways as the Burma Shave legends. "Take the route," it said, "that leads to Harold's Club in Reno." That was the route we took, all right, but only because California lay at the other end of it.

At Lake Geneva, Wis., shopping for luncheon supplies in a supermarket, we were staggered by row upon gleaming row of canned foods, the solidly packed frozen food displays, the towering stacks of soap flakes and detergents. Here was probably a year's supply for an average European neighborhood.

Coming south through Minnesota reminded us of Europe, if only for place names like New Ulm and New Prague. While the plumbing in these places indubitably is better than in their old world counterparts, their charm is considerably more elusive.

Hotels in the corn belt are making their last stand against motels by offering free lodging for all kids under 14. Except in the large cities, though, we stayed at motels all the way across the country. The average was $9 a night for the five of us.

We knew we were West once we reached the hills of Wyoming and got a good Cheyenne breakfast under our belts. The grades began rising steadily, the air became thinner and the skies were almost as azure as those of southern France.

As we rolled across the California line west of Reno, our backseat rooting section—Karen, Christine and Marilyn—let go with a full-steam chorus of "California, Here We Come." Rae shed a tear or two, and suddenly a little mist appeared on my windshield.

The red earth of Grass Valley, our first stop in California, looked good enough to kiss.

Comparisons, of course, are dangerous and a matter of personal taste, but, putting 7,000 miles of travel in Europe against 4,000 and past experience in the United States, Rae and I think only Paris and the south of France have a shade on California, synthetic though some parts may be.

The kids? You'd have a tough time convincing them there's any place like the home of the double-malted and the land of the deep freeze.

The Day in Birmingham

Commissioners Will Debate Off-Street Parking Monday

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—Now a familiar subject to most Birmingham residents, the proposed off-street parking ordinance will take the limelight at next Monday's City Commission meeting.

Commissioners made this decision last night after a closed-door session was held to study possible revisions of the proposal which has been tabled since this summer.

Some changes will be found in the ordinance which requires new or expanding businesses to provide parking spaces on a prescribed floor-space ratio.

Debated last night and to be presented Monday night is a change which would exempt buildings of less than 1,000 square feet in size from providing any off-street parking at all.

Another possible revision taken up was:

Where parking has been provided by an approved access drive, even though the access is a public right-of-way and not legally owned by the property owner, commissioners felt it might be reasonable in some cases to allow for the inclusion of this area as part of the required parking space.

Still on the parking subject, but in another vein, the lawmakers heard further revisions from city assessor Elmer Haack on an assessment formula to defray costs of constructing a $250,000 parking lot at the southeast corner of Merrill and Pierce Sts.

Haack was again asked for further simplification and revision before the intricate formula is presented to the public.

City Manager Donald C. Egbert said yesterday the parking lot behind the S. S. Kresge building will open under city operation and control on Saturday instead of today, as previously announced. The 19-car space area has been leased to the city for five years and will now become a metered lot.

This is a big month for the congregation of Our Shepherd Lutheran Church. Not only is the church celebrating its fifth anniversary, but ground-breaking ceremonies have been held for the new $80,000 educational unit.

Each Sunday in October is commemorating a different area in church work. Oct. 3 honored the Sunday school staff, and brief ground-breaking ceremonies were conducted this past Sunday for the construction that is expected to be finished by Easter Sunday.

Besides housing the Sunday school, the building will contain meeting rooms, an assembly hall, an overflow room for the church sanctuary, a nursery and offices.

Work of all the church councils in the five-year history of the church will be commemorated this Sunday.

Funeral for Charles Raymond Toth, 16, of Brambles Dr. will be Saturday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Patricks Catholic Church. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery. Rosary services will be Friday at 8 p.m. in the Melvin A. Schutt Funeral Home.

Toth died in Pontiac General Hospital Wednesday morning following an automobile accident.

Born in Vanvore, Pa., Dec. 12, 1937, he was the son of Louis and Mildred Jones Toth. He came to Oakland County four years ago and was employed at Spadafore Beverage Co.

Besides his parents he is survived by four sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Ethel Rasel of Marianna, Pa., Louis, Mrs. Dorothy Bubnes, Phillip, Rose Marie and Sandra Lee Toth of Pontiac and Cpl. Franklin Toth with the U. S. Army in Germany.

China City Opens on West Huron

New Restaurant Will Specialize in Oriental Type Food

Chinese and Cantonese foods will be offered the guest attending the open-house grand opening Friday of China City—Pontiac's newest restaurant.

The new eating place is located in the Huron Centre Building, 1070 W. Huron St.

Featuring authentic Chinese and Cantonese cuisine, the dining room will accommodate 90 persons. Paved parking space is available nearby for over 100 cars.

The interior of the new restaurant is tastefully decorated with Chinese motif wallpaper and pictures, with a deep, gold wall-to-wall carpeting. Light blue bamboo drapes cover the front window and blue-and-beige upholstered booths line the walls. Beige tables and chairs occupy the center dining area.

The manager, Custer S. L. Hong, is the son of Yick Hong who has had the Mandarin Gardens restaurant on Cass avenue in Detroit for 17 years.

Chief chef is Wing Hong, cousin of the manager, who has worked in Chinese restaurants in San Francisco and Detroit. Entire staff will be Chinese.

Family dinners and business lunches will be offered, and private parties can be arranged by appointment. American food and carry out service are also available.

Carrying out the Chinese motif, chopsticks will be available as well as Western service.

Service temporarily will be from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

37-Year-Old Mother Is Eleventh Polio Case

BIRMINGHAM—No. 11 in the city's polio cases for this year was reported today by City Health Nurse Anyce Gillette.

The 37-year-old mother of two children is suffering a non-paralytic type, Mrs. Gillette said, and is at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

Driver Pays $75 Fine

BIRMINGHAM—Pleading guilty to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor when he appeared before Justice John J. Gafill yesterday, Roe F. Lawton, 56 of Grand Rapids, paid a $75 fine. His driver's license was automatically revoked for 90 days.

New Driver Gets Expensive Test, but No License

BIRMINGHAM — If you must have an auto accident, don't have it in front of the police station and with a police officer sitting in the front seat with you.

This is the probable advice of a 16-year-old girl here, who confidently applied for her driver's license yesterday, and started out to take her road test with Patrolman Lawrence Winkelmann.

Her troubles began early. She was just pulling the car out of a parking space in front of the station when her auto scraped the rear bumper of the car parked ahead. Damages to the car of Mrs. Henry H. Jackson, 630 Pilgrim Rd., were estimated at $40.

School Board OKs Lake Street School

immediately adjacent is populated with Negro citizens.

Citing psychological harm to a child's educational experience as their reason, the NAACP recommended two other sites.

One was on the Golf Drive (not now connected to Lake Street by a thoroughfare) and the other where the present City dump is being filled. This, said the board, would not be ready for several years for construction.

"Schools have to be built now. Another school must be ready by the fall of 1955 to relieve our already overcrowded conditions at Bagley," said Glenn Griffin, board president.

Griffin pointed out that children at Bagley are now being housed in "undesirable temporaries" and the 1955 enrollment promises well over 100 more students.

The Lake Street School will be similar in plan to that now being drafted for the Daniel Whitfield school. Plans are being drawn by Beyster Associates, an architectural and engineering firm.

Coffee Shop Closed by Health Inspector

BIRMINGHAM — Health Inspector Henry Johns reported to police yesterday he has closed the Bloomfield Coffee Shop at 355 S. Woodward until existing unsanitary conditions have been remedied.

Johns earlier had issued a warning to the shop, but not all his instructions had been carried out, he said.

U.S. Handles Housewife Woe

Government Bureaus Deal With Problems of Child-Rearing, Cooking

WASHINGTON (UP)—The U.S. Government, the world's biggest business, is small enough to worry about the everyday problems of the housewife.

Almost any information the homemaker needs is available from Uncle Sam—if the housewife knows whom to ask. The best sources are the Women's Bureau and the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics and the Children's Bureau, sources of everything from cooking shortcuts to bringing up baby.

The Women's Bureau, Labor Department, deals with the problems of the estimated 19,000,000 women who work—keeping tabs on where they are needed and the opportunities such jobs offer.

Sometimes it gets a question out of its realm, such as the couple who write to ask, "what can we do about mothers-in-law?"

One letter from a man demanded:

"Why isn't there a man's bureau?"

The Children's Bureau of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, is concerned with family problems. One booklet alone, "Infant Care," has passed the 31,000,000 circulation mark. Another, "Pre-natal Care," has gone through several reprints with more than 10,000,000 copies distributed.

Sometimes children write the bureau. One eight-year-old New York boy wanted to know the proper bedtime for him, since he had to be up for school at 8 a.m. The bureau advised him to "get a good night's sleep."

The bureau also received this letter—on referral:

"Dear President Ike," it said. Should I run away from home now or wait until I'm 18. I'm only 14 now and my parents treat me like a one-year-old. They dislike me and punish me all the time."

The bureau didn't disclose its reply.

One of the busiest departments, so far as the housewife's problems are concerned, is the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Home Economics and Nutrition. It has studied and is studying every facet of housework—how to make it easier and more efficient. Available booklets tell the best methods of home canning, home freezing meat for thrifty meals, how to buy a sweater, make a dress or slip covers, prevent mildew, and what pots and pans do the best job in the kitchen.

Salmon Noses Decorate Japanese Supper Table

MOUNT VERNON, Wash. (UP) —One tone of tasty salmon noses—that is tasty if you like salmon snouts—has been purchased from a LaConner, Wash., fisherman by a Japanese firm.

The fish heads will be used at special banquets according to Japanese custom. Vernon Moore obtained the order while touring Japan recently. He will cut the noses from the fish heads and salt them away before shipping them.

Driver Stops Big Semi to Pick Up Girl's Shoe

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Several little girls ran across Richmond's main street (US 40) en route to school. A little shoe flew from one foot in the middle of the busy highway. But the girl couldn't stop because of the heavy traffic.

The driver of a big semitrailer stopped, got out as other traffic sped by, picked up the shoe and carried it to its little owner, waiting anxiously on the curb.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Jules Verne Outdone

History was made when the Navy's new craft Nautilus, the world's first atomic powered submarine, was commissioned at Groton, Conn.

In fact this pioneering submersible far outdoes that fictional Nautilus conceived by Jules Verne in his classic story, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea."

This amazing fighting machine with its 11 officers and crew of 85 has everything and can do everything. For example, it can circumnavigate the globe without surfacing. It can go for months without refueling.

The underwater speed of the Nautilus, about 20 knots, is greater than the surface speed of conventional submarines. It also can dive deeper, stay submerged and at sea indefinitely and has no revealing snorkel. Actually the only limitations on operations are the stamina of the crew and the amount of food and oxygen carried.

Without batteries or diesel engines, the Nautilus has the first power plant of its kind ever built. The turbine which turns the two propellers gets steam from the atomic furnace. This is heavily shielded to protect the health of the crew against dangerous radiation.

The furnace is fueled by a chunk of uranium no larger than a golf ball and weighing two pounds. The heat from it does the work of 460,000 gallons of fuel oil or 3,000 tons of coal.

Though one wouldn't suspect it from looking at the Nautilus, it is one of the deadliest weapons ever devised. This revolutionary submarine is the first unit of what eventually will be an entirely new kind of navy.

Victory on Two Fronts

There is good news from both Paris and Bonn regarding the rearming of West Germany.

Favorable votes in the National Assembly and Bundestag not only approved the principle of the nine power London pact but measurably improved chances of ultimate ratification by both countries.

At Paris Premier Mendes-France staked the life of his government on his demand that the Assembly approve German rearmament in principle. Thanks to the Premier's own moderate Radical Socialist Party, De Gaullists and Socialists, the vote was overwhelming. The unofficial count gave the Premier some 50 votes more than the necessary majority.

Similarly the earlier vote in the Bundestag concerned only the principle of the London agreement. As advices from Bonn emphasize, this vote was only the first step on the road to parliamentary ratification. Nonetheless it was a victory for Chancellor Adenauer and the idea of European solidarity.

From the outset the Social Democrats have fought the Chancellor's every effort for alignment with the West. They have made it clear that they will fight the London agreement just as fiercely as they opposed EDC.

What the Social Democrats say they want, of course, is unification before rearmament. As before, they are urging negotiations with Russia but have no new arguments since they failed to win support for their opposition to EDC.

Beyond doubt there will be further opposition in both houses. The important fact is that Dr. Adenauer's coalition appears strong enough to win final Parliamentary approval.

Because German rearmament is the paramount goal of our European policy, these votes at Paris and Bonn were victories for the West.

Insurance Warning

A timely warning against certain kinds of hospital insurance being sold here by mail has been sounded by the Better Business Bureau of Pontiac's Chamber of Commerce.

Purchasers of the policies pay $5 to $10 a year or $1 a month. They are led to believe, says John Hirlinger, assistant manager of the Chamber, that their policies will be honored by hospitals.

Instead, policy holders who go to the hospital find they have to pay the bill themselves and then try to collect from the insurance companies. In nine out of 10 cases there are so many exclusions in the policies that they don't get their money anyway.

"These mail order insurance companies operating from another State," said Mr. Hirlinger, "cannot be forced under present Federal laws to be licensed in Michigan. Our State laws, therefore, offer no protection."

The results are lack of proper control over these firms and the loss of thousands of dollars in premium taxes which are paid by all companies licensed in the State.

As the Bureau emphasizes, there is a sure way to guard against this kind of insurance. Anyone considering it should consult a reputable local agent. The Bureau's advice "before you invest, investigate," is sound.

Innovation in Coon Dog Field Trials on Sunday

Tomorrow: When we expect to do yesterday's work that was put over until today.

What Recreational Activities Are Offered Girls in Other Schools, Asks a Reader

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I would like to know if the other schools around the Pontiac area have as little recreation for girls as our school, Roosevelt High School in Keego Harbor.

We have only two groups for girls. They are cheerleading and Triple Trio. There are only fifteen girls who have any recreation and that is a very poor percentage of the girls in the school.

All of the other girls have no form of recreation other than 9th and 10th grade gym classes twice a week.

I would really appreciate having some comments on what the other schools offer in this line. Please write to the address below.

Relative to our new courthouse, I have lived here for 40 years and I say have the new one where the old one is now.

A nice new one would make our city downtown area more beautiful. I would be in favor of having it out Huron across from the high school where all of those trees are, rather than out in the country.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Husband, Wife With Platonic Marriage Find They've Fallen in Love Once Again

Eileen and Charles agreed, though reluctantly, to follow my prescription for rebuilding a dead marital romance. They were Doubting Thomases, but because I had told them they owed it both to themselves and their children, to make a happy home, they tried. Notice their reports below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case M-339: Eileen and Charles are the married couple whose love had degenerated into a platonic union.

Their college son and daughter disliked coming home because they sensed the coolness between their parents.

After a long conference with Eileen and Charles, I finally got them to promise that they would faithfully follow the prescription which we psychologists and marriage counsellors offer. Here it is:

(1) They were to pay each other a sincere spoken compliment at least once per day and more often if they could force themselves to do so.

(2) They were to smile at each other, even though the grin was forced.

(3) They were to go to a movie together twice per week and re-enact the procedure which they followed during their original courtship.

This meant stopping at a soda fountain for a soda or soft drink and turning on a juke box so they could listen to music as they chatted.

(4) They were to get up on Sunday morning and attend church together, and also go to a church supper together if such were scheduled during the week.

(5) They were to write letters simultaneously to their children away at college and enclose both their letters in the same envelope.

(6) They were to apologize if they should quarrel during the afternoon or evening and never go to sleep on a quarrel.

(7) They were to kiss, even though it was partly an act, and go through the motions of being sweethearts.

This involved prolonged, movie-type of kisses, instead of perfunctory or cold little pecks on the cheek.

And they were to keep up this routine for a full month, after which they were to report back to my office on the results.

Sure enough, at the end of the month, they came into my office. Charles gave his report first.

"Dr. Crane, I felt rather foolish at the start," he began. "It was like trying to be an actor without an audience looking on.

"In fact, I felt embarrassed, especially about taking Eileen in my arms to kiss her, for we had drifted so far apart a kiss seemed unnatural.

"But I remembered your insistence on my kissing her as if I really meant it, so I mechanically went through the motions.

"Well, it wasn't long until I began to feel a tingle and respond to her kisses.

"And now I'll let Eileen finish the story."

"Dr. Crane, I really didn't think your prescription would work," Eileen began.

"Like Charles, I felt rather foolish trying to act romantic when I was indifferent to Charles and maybe a little hurt by all those years of inattention.

"But when he would kiss me and hold me tight, I began to feel a vague stirring of my emotions and my heart began to beat faster.

"It wasn't long till I knew something was happening. About two weeks after the start of your prescription for us, we attended a movie and stopped at the drug store for a soda.

"It was a lovely moonlit night. And Charles parked on a side road and added a little original petting that you hadn't prescribed.

"Well, I knew I was succumbing to his appeal, and he admitted that he felt the same way.

"So we have fallen in love all over again and it's so wonderful!"

Aunt Het

We're supposed to be smarter than other animals, but you'll notice that birds have sense enough to push their young out o' the nest when it's time to fly.

David Lawrence Says:

Democrats Make Capital Twisting Wilson's Words

WASHINGTON — Demagoguery knows no party line, and anybody who has been angered in recent months over the extremes of political denunciation in speeches by certain United States senators on the Republican side is invited in all fairness now to wax indignant over the palpable distortions by the Democrats.

Thus, there is more than meets the eye in the alleged faux pas made by Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense, when he spoke some blunt words about the indolent and the lazy and uttered words of praise for those who react to unemployment by diligently trying to find a new job.

Hardly had this off-the-cuff interview been reported in abbreviated fashion in the press dispatches when the mimeograph machines at Democratic headquarters began to be oiled up as statement after statement of shocked surprise was drafted to be issued under the name of this or that Democratic senator who happened to be handy to sponsor them.

Today the nation is being told, in effect, that Mr. Wilson compares the unemployed to dogs, or that he is a business man without a heart, or that the Republican administration hasn't any humanitarianism in it. What Mr. Wilson actually said about the zeal of a bird dog as compared with the kennel-fed dog, hasn't been fairly interpreted at all, but the customary twist of misinterpretation is given which twenty years of demagoguery under the Democratic administration has made commonplace.

Even some Republicans fell for the misinterpretation and hastened to criticize Secretary Wilson instead of emphasizing the real point.

The word "bird-dogging" is established today in our vocabulary as a mark of merit in searching out the answers to unsolved problems. But if the Democratic party comments on the Wilson statement are accepted, it is politically unwise today to say that a man who loses one job is expected to try to find another. He isn't supposed to "bird dog" his way out, but to sit on his haunches and wait for someone to come and feed him.

It is considered politically wise to say only that the government owes every man a job, whether he deserves it or not. It is considered proper, moreover, to say that unemployment compensation isn't enough and that the taxpayers who are employed must be taxed to subsidize those who will not work.

There are, of course, unemployed persons who can't find jobs in their own area or in the occupation in which they are trained. Many of them will not leave their homes to find jobs elsewhere but prefer to wait till things get better in their own localities. This is their prerogative but in any overall survey of unemployment these varying factors have to be taken into account and the want ads in the newspapers of many cities every day are pleading for persons to come to work.

Mr. Wilson is naive enough to believe that you can discuss all phases of the unemployment problem frankly. He didn't know that he couldn't speak with affection about four-legged animals without offending the two-legged. He apparently overestimated the dog-lover vote in this country. He might have known that in free America anybody is free to twist and distort and play the demagogue.

Politics has been considered heretofore to permit the saying of almost anything. Hence the wise candidate says as little as possible of a definite nature lest his words be distorted by his opponent. Mr. Wilson is one of those honest-minded individuals who says what he thinks, which, of course, in politics is a mistake. Hypocrisy evidently pays off better.

For 20 years now the philosophy has been preached—as indeed it is in the Communist world—that the persons who have acquired property are villains whose success is due only to their mastery of the art of exploitation of the poor. The CIO talks that way all the time. Class warfare is its stock in trade.

The usual contention, moreover, is that the successful must part with sizable percentages of their incomes to pay for the mistakes of the unsuccessful.

Nobody with an ounce of charity in his system objects to paying large taxes for relief. But during the '30's the made-work on relief projects of WPA proved fruitless. In the end, only when the war boom came was the nation able by a heavy-goods program to give the unemployed the jobs they needed.

There is a right way and a wrong way to relieve unemployment, and the Eisenhower program is based on sound principles.

Certainly it is most unfortunate for anybody to be without a job and nothing that Charles Wilson said could have been properly construed as a lack of sympathy for a person who has lost his job through no fault of his own, or a disparagement of anyone who hasn't been able to get a job despite every effort. The administration's program of economic help for so-called "distress areas" negates any charges of neglect on that score.

But this is not what the Democratic Party demagogues have been saying or will be saying about the Wilson comment. They will make political capital out of distortion because many voters will never hear the rebuttal. It's a good example of how distortion succeeds because men of ability and good education in the leadership of the Democratic Party, selfishly seeking votes at any price, know how to play on the emotions of the uninformed.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

(International News Service)

Every too often those government fractioneers gild the decimal point. This time they have reduced the cost of living by two per cent of the realm.

Two per cent isn't muchness. But every little helps as the old lady said when she shook the tablecloth out of the window.

This two per cent is not something you notice right away. If you didn't wear spectacles you would never know you had a pimple in the back of your ear.

Twenty years ago we wrote: "In spite of the high cost of living it's worth it."

We still feel the same with accrued interest. Even though it is not now so expensive the reasons for living balance up. The calibration does not show on wall maps, thermometers or on welcome mats. It's just like a crowded bus stopping to pick up another passenger.

Novices Are Advised to Take Off Shoes When Turning Somersaults in Morning

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

I don't care how old you are. Let me feel your pulse (not count it), watch your step and put you through a few simple calisthenics and I'll know how old your body is.

So you can't roll a somersault on the floor, eh? How in hades did you ever get into such a decrepit state?

No physical education in school?

I feel sorry for any old stiff without a handicap who doesn't roll a few on the bedroom floor each morning just to keep young, and I mean keep young.

There was a news film exhibited in 1926 — Luther Burbank rolling somersaults on his lawn on his 75th birthday anniversary. Poor fellow, he turned up his toes not long afterward. After all, as I seem to recall, he finished his roll sitting down. That's not according to Brady.

Mind, now, I do not advise anyone to attempt somersaults. I merely say I do 'em myself, believe they are good for me. If any old stiff thirty, forty, fifty or sixty chooses to try and breaks his fool neck, it is not my concern.

On written, signed request, accompanied with stamped self-addressed envelope, I'll send the Somersaultauqua pamphlet which tells how and why everybody should roll 'em. But in no circumstance will I advise any one whether he or she should or should not roll somersaults. In self defense perhaps I should mention here that when I roll somersaults I do not lose contact with floor or ground — no matter what Noah Webster says.

The fundamental effect of rolling somersaults is equalization of the circulation. This, I think, accounts for nearly all the other effects enumerated in the Somersaultauqua pamphlet. Call it "improving the circulation" if you wish. Anyway a lot of flabby creatures whose physical education has been neglected report that somersaulting corrects poor circulation, warms up cold and sallow complexion. Not at two o'clock next week but in the course of the first year.

Right now I'm wearing some new shoes that are not yet broken in. I just got up from my scrivening to turn a few on the floor behind my desk. I discovered the shoes are a good deal heavier than I had realized.

They held back so that I didn't quite finish on my feet — had to take no less than four tries before I got it right. So I advise novices to take off their shoes for somersaulting.

Somersaulting counteracts the influence of sedentary habit, physical inactivity, upon the circulation. Not adequately, but to a considerable degree. Too many of us in business, profession, white collar or desk jobs get into the habit of riding when they should walk, watching professionals play when they should be playing their own game. What these sedentary people need is physical activity—such as a brisk few miles on the hoof—by way of recreation, and not a grandstand seat or a hundred mile traffic fight.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Institute to Help Iron Out Viennese Sex Problems

VIENNA (INS) — Vienna, the city which was the birthplace of Sigmund Freud and modern psychiatry, is once again launching a new medical idea.

It's a plan for combatting the problem of sexual offenders, which has shown a sharp increase in the Austrian capital.

The plan, in the form of an institute where troubled Viennese can go to get advice on sexual problems, will be set up through an Advisory Office on Sexuality.

It's the brainchild of Dr. Wilhelm F. Brix, foremost Vienna neurologist, who hopes the office can be opened to the general public late this year or early in 1955.

The office will not only comprise doctors but also lawyers, police officials and other people concerned with sex influence on modern society, Dr. Brix said.

Before the opening of the office, according to the doctor, the newly-founded Austrian Society for Sexual Research will compile all the material required to be able to give good advice to people in need.

The Society is also Dr. Brix's idea. In it are psychiatrists, psychologists, various other physicians, members of the Supreme Court, police officials, lawyers, members of parliament and church officials.

Dr. Brix said the next step will be the creation of an Institute for Sexual Research where every type of material on sexuality will be evaluated.

After an all-comprising Austrian Kinsey report will be obtained from such places as the hospitals, individual doctors, social institutions, and courts, its findings will be used to help people in trouble.

It will be then, said Dr. Brix, that the Society will open the Advisory Office to help all people whose sexual life is either unsatisfactory or who ran afoul of the various laws on sex offenses.

He added:

With our project, we hope we can help all those people who are unhappy because of a troubled sex life. We also hope we will be able to reduce considerably the number of sex offenses.

Debate on Israel May Be Blocked

Report Move Afoot in U. N. to Hold Up Talks in Dispute Over Suez

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A strong move was reported afoot today to block Security Council debate on Israel's latest charge of Egyptian interference with Suez Canal shipping until the U.N. Mixed Armistice Commission completes an on-the-spot check.

Chief Israel Delegate Abba Eban planned to submit to the council today a lengthy claim of Suez violations by Egypt—with emphasis on what he termed the "illegal arrest and detention" of the 500-ton freighter Bat Galim Sept. 28.

But informed sources said Lebanon, sole Arab member of the 11-nation council, would spearhead a West-supported move to postpone discussion of the case until the armistice commission turns in its report on the Bat Galim incident.

Egypt asked the commission to investigate the case last week after Israel had called for a Security Council meeting to air her complaint. Israeli officials labeled this a maneuver to pigeonhole the issue and urged the commission to take quick action.

Some observers speculated that Britain particularly might welcome a chance to hold off debate on the touchy issue because of her current delicate negotiations with Egypt over the Suez Canal zone.

Sources close to the American delegation said the United States also feels little could be gained by debating the issue before the armistice commission reports.

Leaders Approve 2-Church Merger

CLEVELAND (AP)—Top executive groups of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church yesterday approved merging the two denominations into the United Church of Christ.

The joint session yesterday set 1957 as the date for forming the new body, expected to have a membership of more than two million.

No further legislative action is required, a spokesman for the two groups said.

The Congregational Christian group has 1¼ million members in 5,573 churches and the Evangelical and Reformed has 760,850 in 2,735 churches.

Originally approved a number of years ago, the merger plans were blocked by court action. Then the New York Court of Appeals last March overruled lower courts and gave approval to the union.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Fan dancer Sally Rand filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday listing among her $950 assets four used fans valued at $25 each. She reported liabilities totaling $2,047,380.15.

Her lawyer, Dave Zenoff, said most of the liabilities involved a two-million-dollar suit against her growing out of a corporation dispute.

Odd Livestock Inhabit Farm in Madrid, N. Y.

MADRID, N. Y. (UP)—There's a farmer in this upstate New York village who's bored with the conventional farm animals, and he's done something about it.

Instead of cows, sheep and goats, Fay Middlemiss keeps an African lioness, Japanese deer, snakes and other non-conventional animals on his farm.

Middlemiss is proudest of his lioness, Minnie, who eats more than 20 pounds of meat a day.

He exhibits his collection in a fenced-in enclosure. Middlemiss also owns an Oregon black bear, a pair of Australian peacocks and a South American toad.

Tire Mystery Solved

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UP)—A St. Louis motorist found out why his tires went flat so often while his car was parked at home. His small son confessed he had figured out a way to inflate toy balloons from the tires.

School Friends Chip In to Help Fire Victim, 12

JARBALO, Kan (UP) — Paul Schmutz, 12, lost his eyeglasses when fire destroyed his home.

Schoolmates raised $29.50 to buy him a new pair, but the doctor who fitted the glasses refused to take the money when he learned of the circumstances.

Paul's schoolmates didn't want the money back either. So they bought him other articles needed to replace those lost in the fire.

Fan Mail Too Late

PUTNAM, Conn. (UP)—A radio station received a letter addressed to Israel Putnam, a Revolutionary War general who died nearly 200 years ago.

Virginia Plans to Build Two Super Toll Roads

RICHMOND, Va. (UP) — Two toll roads—multi-lane, limited access, divided super highways will be built and financed with revenue bonds. One will bypass Richmond and Petersburg on U.S. route 1. Another will go across southwest Virginia from a point near Bluefield, W. Va., to Mount Airy, N. C., as part of a Lakes-to-Florida turnpike.

Voters' Minds Divided

WALLINGFORD, Conn. (UP)—Voters in two recent referendums overwhelmingly rejected proposals for building a new high school but approved having the state share a part of the building expense.

Forfeits $35,000 Account

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP)—Could you forget a $35,000 bank balance? A San Diego woman abandoned that amount in a Los Angeles bank more than five years ago.

Under the law the money, with 129 other "dead" accounts totaling $319,000, was forfeited to the State.

Edison's Development of Electric Light to Mark Diamond Anniversary Oct. 21

WASHINGTON—Thomas A. Edison's development of the first commercially practical incandescent lamp will soon mark its diamond anniversary.

Seventy-five years ago on Oct. 21, a little gathering of observers focused attention upon a small glass blub which the inventor had devised after many trials. It gave off a gratifying glow. But the question in everyone's mind was: How long will it cast its light?

Edison, then only 32, said: "If it can burn 40 hours, I can make it last a hundred." It did last 40 hours, and the electric light as a world-wide benefactor of mankind was born, says the National Geographic Society.

A year later 35,000 lamps were sold in the United States, at $1.25 per 60 watt bulb. Today annual sales, at a fraction of that cost per bulb, are counted in the hundreds of millions.

This year a 75,000-watt incandescent lamp bulb was manufactured, more than 171,428 times brighter than Edison's first lamp. At the other extreme in size, bulbs for illuminating instrument panels are now made no larger than the head of a kitchen match.

Seldom if ever do great inventions spring full grown from the inspiration of a moment. Nor are they often entirely the work of one man. The electric light bulb was no exception.

As prolific as was Edison in contriving new devices, he built on the achievements of other men. This was particularly so in the case of his light. The direct evolution of the incandescent lamp goes back at least to 1820. That year the French scientist De La Rue put together a lamp, enclosed in a glass tube, with a coil of platinum wire as a burner.

In 1840 Sir William Robert Grove demonstrated an incandescent lamp before the Royal Society. The next year a patent was granted in Great Britain. In 1859 Moses Gerrish Farmer started studying lighting possibilities in New England and succeeded in illuminating his parlor with a series of lamps supplied by current from a wet cell battery. In 1860 Sir Joseph Wilson Swan introduced the carbon filament.

In 1878 a group of financiers with J. Pierpont Morgan organized the Edison Electric Light Co. to finance Edison's experiments. They soon found they had not backed the wrong man.

In 1879 when an electric current shot through Edison's "red hairpin" — a carbonized cotton filament—in his first practical lamp, it also sent a spark of life into the 3,000, one-hundred-dollar par value shares of the company's stock. In 1880 they zoomed to $500 each and were even to reach such dizzy heights as $5,000.

On the last day of 1879 a public demonstration of Edison's light was held at Menlo Park, N. J., his famed laboratory. Railroads ran special trains for the event.

Soon Edison's name added a new luster as his lamps shone brighter and brighter, partly as a result of a search for better light-producing filaments made of paper, bamboo, silk and thousands of other materials.

By 1882 a major milestone was reached. Edison opened the Pearl Street Electric Power plant in New York City where each of six "jumbo" dynamos lit 800 incandescent lamps. Within 14 months the station listed 500 customers using 12,700 lights.

Judge Feels Clothes May Make the Criminal

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — County Judge George T. Namme says there's a connection between juvenile offenders wear zoot suits zoot suits.

It must be more than just coincidence that a high average of juvenile offenders wear zoos suits with ankle-tight trouser cuffs, long flared coats with plunging lapels and king-sized ties and shirt collars."

Zany apparel, he said, gives juveniles a false sense of courage and self importance that can lead to delinquency.

Bows to Progress

VERONA, Wis. (UP)—The streets here are going to have official names at last as the town fathers bow to progress. Until now the streets have been identified only by the names of old families linked with them.

HOBBY WHISTLES—Louis (Schlitz) Daniels of Manistee has made a hobby of collecting old steam whistles. Daniels is a former chief engineer aboard a Great Lakes vessel. He now works on the old whistles in the basement shop where he has an air compressor to operate them.

Big Appetites Receive Attention on Modern Ships

NEW YORK (UP) — The best place for a big appetite is aboard a modern passenger ship, according to United States Lines.

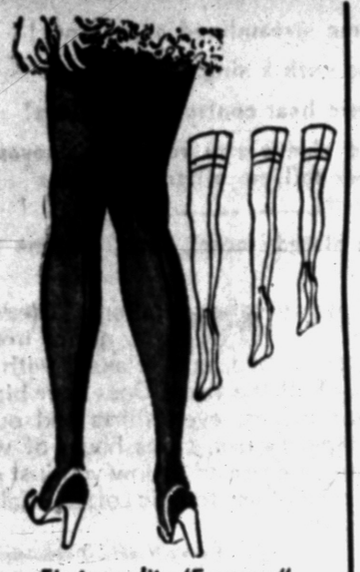

The company reports that the 1,536 passengers and 1,000 officers and crew members aboard a recent nine-day round trip of the superliner United States did away with 64,654 pounds of prime fresh meats and 20,512 pounds of poultry.

That works out to about two and four-fifths pounds of meat a day per person, or six times higher than the national per capita consumption of under half a pound.

A mound of drumsticks piled up as each passenger averaged about 14 ounces of chicken daily during the same voyage, about nine times the national intake of one and one-half ounces a day.

Starfish pull oyster shells apart, using suction cups on starfish arms and then turn themselves inside out to absorb the flesh of the oyster.

U.S. 'Cowpokes' Invade the Holy Land to Start Ranches for Meat-Short Israel

TEL AVIV (UP)—"Cowboys" have come to the Holy Land to stay.

Meat is almost worth its weight in gold to the treasury. A meat ration for the whole population means a boat-load of frozen beef from Abyssinia or on the hoof from Yugoslavia—another dose of foreign currency spending to send up the temperature of an unhealthy trade balance.

Thus meat-rations (100 grams per head) arrive only on festivals and Independence Day. The rest of the year, a small minority of well-to-do families eat local beef at seven times the price of the rationed. The overwhelming part of the population does without.

Tourists hardly notice the acute shortage of meat because hotels serve mutton for lunch and cutlets at dinner. The motto is "give the tourists all you've got."

A hope for the return of meat to middle-class tables is now within sight. A major project undertaken with United States' grant-in-aid is the improvement of natural pasture and the creation of beef herds.

"Operation Cowboy" has just begun to get into stride. On the American side, its organizers were Wayne Miles of Illinois and Albin (Bud) Molohon of Montana. Both grew up on the range and managed land-improvement schemes and taught stockbreeding.

They were "loaned" to Israel under the program of U. S. technical and economic aid which at present has 45 technicians spurring the progress of enterprises in the complete field of Israeli development.

Molohan's ideas on stock-raising coincided with a pet peeve of the agriculture ministry—that countless acres of grazelands were being wasted for lack of ranchers to manage the cattle. Travel around Galilee, and you will see rolling hills covered with fine grasses which once fed Arab herds. The new immigrant farmers don't know how to raise cattle.

Holohan gave generously of his experience to help the Galilee peasants grow beef. He started the same project in Jordan where centuries of cattle-raising by father-to-son methods have lowered the quality of herds and eaten the grazing bare.

The first step in "Operation Cowboy" was to launch a grass farm, the first in the Middle East. Hired labor all over the country collects grass seeds for planting at the farm. Native Harding grass, tough and drought-resistant, forms the main crop.

When Australian soldiers were billeted in Palestine during World War II, they saw Harding grass grow man-high with two inches of rainfall and took home as much seed as they could carry. Today, Australia exports Harding seed to the United States for planting in arid pastureland.

Re-seeding of some 80 per cent of Israel's total grazing ranges has been scheduled for the next few years. The fodder yield from hill territory must be supplemented in the dry summer by hay and cattle cake. Irrigated pasture has therefore become an essential part of the mixed farm.

The next problem was the training of "cowboys". The U.S. operations mission and the ministry of agriculture jointly planned a big ranch on the northern shores of Lake Tiberias, near Capernaum, where there is lush grass and enough spring-water to irrigate pasture.

During 1954, a herd of 2,000 sheep and 300 American heifers will be introduced gradually to the range after acclimating and quarantine. Farmers from settlements anxious to raise stock will train for a year on the ranch.

They have begun to re-seed, fence and fit up a homestead from a deserted hospice on the shore. The plane typifies conditions to hundreds of villages whose lands can't be used for anything but grazing.

The Arab strains of cows and sheep, which withstand tick-fever and blazing sun, will be crossed with the imported stock to increase the wool and meat yield. Sums invested in the ranch must be repaid out of profits, for the idea is not only to equip a field pilot-plant, but to prove the feasibility of livestock production.

Paints Pop in Garage

NORTH FAIRFAX, Vt. (UP) — Dorian MacGowan, an art student at Pratt Institute, decorated the garage at his parents' home here with a 50-foot mural in which his father, Charles, was the central figure.

BIG HELP TO MOM—Before mother leaves the house she can now leave instructions for her children, husband or maid, by using this disc recorder which also doubles as a phonograph. One disc can be erased and use over again some 10,000 times. It's on display in New York City.

Will Pay for Ignorance

Turkeys Are Too Stupid to Lose Weight Worrying

OWOSSO (AP)—If turkeys weren't so stupid they'd be losing weight from worrying these days, but they're stupid and six weeks from now they'll answer for it.

Eldon Barrett, who farms the 68-acre Cra-Jan Turkey Farm near Owosso, says he's happy his feathered flock are nincompoops.

"If it wasn't for that they wouldn't be 'kings for a day' when Thanksgiving rolls around," says Barrett.

Barrett started raising 4,800 turkeys in March. Some 800 already are gone—some frozen, some victims of their own ineptness.

Here's one of Barrett's shining examples of the latter:

Barrett put up a test stretch of electric fence to control the herd and turned on the juice while the ground was sopping wet.

One gobbler put a foot on the wire and left the other on the wet ground. "He shook and shook while the amps tore through him but he didn't move a claw," says Barrett. "He just stood there and shook."

Thoroughly demoralized, Barrett took down his fence.

"You'd think the stups would get wise and organize or something," says Barrett. "Instead they just reach the proper weight—usually 26 pounds with toms and 15 with hens—and off they go for dressing."

Not only are turkeys miserable to the hatchetmen, they even hate each other, says Barrett.

Let one bird go down or look a little sickly some Monday morning, and bang, the flock's on him, Barrett says. "Doesn't pay to show a hangover in that gang."

Barrett says he has statistics showing 10 years ago 1 person in 10 ate a whole turkey that year in the United States.

Now, he says, 1 person in 3 eats one annually.

Future Pianists Won't Be Able to Pound Ivories

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — When a pianist plunks out a tune on the piano of tomorrow he'll no longer be pounding the ivories. He'll be pressing the plastics.

That's the word from the Wood & Brooks Co., one of only two firms in the country now making piano keys.

Veteran personnel remember when the tusks of some 1,000 elephants were shipped to the firm every year to be made into fine ivory keys for the country's piano manufacturers.

But now 90 per cent of the keys turned out by the Buffalo firm are made from plastics.

The company recently honored three members of a fast disappearing clan—ivory craftsmen—each of whom had been with the firm for 50 years.

Charles H. Wood, III, grandson of the firm's founder, said only the very expensive pianos have ivory keys nowadays.

French Send Normandy Stone in GIs' Memory

BEDFORD, Va. (AP)—The French government has sent a two-ton stone quarried near the Normandy beaches as a memorial to Company A, 116th Infantry, which had 96 per cent casualties on the Normandy beaches in 1944. It will rest in the courthouse yard here and will be marked with the names of 24 Bedford men who were among the casualties.

MENTIONED—Richard J. Cushing, Catholic archbishop of Boston, Mass., may become a cardinal, according to Vatican City sources. It is reported Pope Pius XII is considering the creation of one American and two Italian cardinals to restore the College of Cardinals to its full strength of 70.

Can't Break Army Habit

OMAHA (AP) — Military habits are hard to shake. A visiting Army officer found a note in his hotel box to "Call Mr. Smith AT 0300." Not acquainted with Omaha telephone exchanges (AT stands for Atlantic), he interpreted the messages in military language as meaning to call at 0300 hours — or 3 a. m. So he called Mr. Smith at 3 a. m..

NAAWP Seeks to Oust Official

Segregationists Tackle Attorney Gen. Young of Delaware

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The National Assn. for the Advancement of White People has struck back at its chief antagonist, State Atty. Gen. H. Albert Young.

In a telegram to Gov. J. Caleb Boggs yesterday, the NAAWP's Delaware chapter demanded Young's removal from office.

The attorney general has initiated legal proceedings to revoke the NAAWP's charter, which was issued in Delaware. He also appeared in court Tuesday to plead in behalf of 11 Negro pupils who were ordered back to a segregated school after a brief and stormy attempt to integrate them in the high school at Milford, Del.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People had filed suit to have the 11 pupils restored to the Milford school.

No decision has been reached in the suit.

The NAAWP telegram said Young "has misued his office by refusing to represent the Milford special school board" in the Tuesday court hearing and "in turn, used (his) state office to file, as friend of the court, on behalf of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, an organization which is not a part of the Delaware state government."

"In view of these acts," the telegram continued, "we strongly urge you to suspend the attorney general from the duties of his office and prosecute him for malfeasance in ullest extent of theglhenofficettof office to the fullest extent of the law."

Sister-Slayer Asks 'Mercy of Oblivion'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 28-year-old World War II hero, who had pleaded guilty to murder of his half-sister, asked a panel of judges for mercy yesterday—"the mercy of oblivion."

Andre L. Paschedag stood before the three-member panel in Quarter Sessions Court and said that "against the advice" of his counsel "I would like to ask for mercy. That is, the mercy of oblivion, by awarding the death penalty. That is the only thing."

But Judge Peter F. Hagan leaned forward and told the defendant:

"You will be confined to the Eastern State Penitentiary for the rest of your life."

The defendant, who received the Bronze Star in World War II, was tried by the three-man court as required by state law since he had pleaded guilty to the April 8 strangulation of Sonia Niehorster, 22. In the one-day trial he offered no defense nor explanation of the crime.

The jurists found him guilty of first-degree murder.

Old Razor Blades Used

OAKLAND, Me. (UP)—A new use has been found for old razor blades. The North Wayne Tool Co. has designed a grass trimmer with a cutting edge of old or new razor blades.

Shaped like a sickle, the tool's outside bar is slotted to hold nine blades. A fold-up guard gives safety-razor protection—and there is no need for lather.

The Mayas were geniuses at astronomy and temple building but produced no practical inventions.

Stump Is Triumphant

OLD SAYBROOK, Conn. (AP)—Having failed three times to burn out a pesky tree stump, Col. Roger Whitman piled automobile tires around it and set another blaze. The flames were so hot they scorched a nearby tree and ignited a utility pole, but after the smoke had subsided the stump was found still intact.

To keep the birds Japanese fishermen use to catch fish from swallowing the prize, a metal strap is looped tightly around their necks.

Cat Adopts Squirrel

WARWICK NECK, R. I. (UP)—Mommy Girl, a 10-year-old cat owned by Mrs. Thomas DiMeglio, took out adoption papers on a young squirrel.

The owl cannot move its eyes in their sockets.

SURIN
RELIEF OF RHEUMATIC-ARTHRITIC PAIN*

*SURIN is a fast, effective treatment for pain relief—not a cure.

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT — but rely on the published medical report on SURIN, which proves its effectiveness in relieving arthritic-rheumatic pain! SURIN was tested for months by doctors in a famous clinic . . . tested on chronic rheumatic patients with these significant results.

DOCTORS FOUND — that when SURIN is applied at the point of pain, its unique ingredient, acetyl beta methyl choline penetrates quickly, deeply to step up the action of the analgesic drug in 3 out of 4 cases . . . speeding pain relief in minutes! Clinicians who tested it stated that with an increased period of effective relief at point of pain, patients often experience increased freedom of joint movement. This is the substance of solid facts published in a medical journal.

SURIN IS SWIFT—DIRECT! No matter how long you've suffered arthritic-rheumatic pains, do try SURIN! It works without stomach upsets which can be caused by internal dosing...you just smooth on SURIN at the point of pain...because it starts to act as fast as you apply it...bringing relief in minutes!

A NEW KIND OF CREAM OINTMENT! Don't expect SURIN to look or act like other "rub-on—rub-in" salves or liniments. It is not harsh or blistering. SURIN gives the skin a pleasant, mild, cooling sensation to overcome the local heat caused by congestion. SURIN is pure white—pleasant to use—goes on smoothly, washes off quickly and is harmless to clothing!

BLESSED RELIEF OR COSTS NOTHING! Get a jar of SURIN today. Get blessed relief in minutes—or druggist must refund money—no questions asked.

FREE SAMPLE! Try SURIN at our expense. Get a free trial jar today at your druggist. If he doesn't get it, send name of druggist and 10c to Surin, Inc., P.O. Box 1448, Bridgeport, Conn.

Wife Accepts Husband's Invitation to Go to Jail

DANVILLE, Va. (UP) — Sgt. A. W. Wiggs of Danville police called on a friend and to open the conversation in a jocular mood asked him if there was anybody there he wanted sent to jail.

"I don't believe so," the friend replied.

"Go on . . . Go ahead,' shouted his wife from an inner room.

The puzzled pair found that the wife thought her husband was being invited to go fishing.

Cancer is not contagious.

Former Nazi Refugees Open Home to Koreans

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (UP) — A German-born family, well-acquainted with the meaning of fear and a lost homeland, has made a Korean mother's dream of peace and safety come true.

Mrs. Kim Yoo Nam, 32, and her sons, Sung Nam, 7, and Soo Yang, 10 have come from war ravaged Trejon to live with Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Frelan in this upstate New York village.

The Frelans fled Hitler's Germany 16 years ago. Their elder son, Nicholas, met Mrs. Kim while he was serving with the Army Medical Corps in Korea. He offered to share his family's American haven with her.

The Mayas figured out a calendar with an error of only one day in 6,000 years.

Old Mule Earns Reward

SHELBY, Miss. (UP) — Dolly, a mule, is 44 years old roughly the equivalent of 150 for a man — and very few mules ever had it so good — no work, green pastures and corn on the cob twice a day.

Her owner, D. N. Ray, 69, explains:

"She's helped me make my living since 1912 and to raise my three children and put them through school. The least I can do is feed her as long as she lives."

Hogs and deer often kill snakes by trampling them.

Sidewalk Gets the Blame

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — Ralph W. Martin was finde $100 for assault and battery, despite his explanation that he hit the victim "but it was the sidewalk that knocked him out."

Wolfson Fights Ward Bylaws

Threatens Court Order for Yearly Election of All Directors

CHICAGO (AP)—Florida financier Louis E. Wolfson says he will go to court if necessary in his effort to gain control of Montgomery Ward & Co., the world's second largest merchandising firm.

In a letter to the nine Ward directors yesterday, Wolfson asked repeal of company bylaws under which directors are elected to staggered terms. If this is not done by the board, he said, he will seek a court order requiring that all directors stand for election each year.

He wrote that the current provision for staggered terms is illegal in Illinois.

Wolfson, who with associates has been buying heavily into Ward stock in recent months, hopes to win control of the 700-million-dollar mail order and retail firm at the April 1955 election of directors.

Under present bylaws the terms of three directors—including the 80-year-old chairman, Sewell Avery—will expire in April, three more in 1956 and the remaining three in 1957.

Wolfson, who has opened an office in Chicago, where Montgomery Ward maintaints its headquarters, said at a news conference yesterday that he, his wife, children, other members of his family and friends now have "in excess of 500,000 shares" of Ward's common stock.

He said he would begin in January a nationwide tour to seek promises from other stockholders of proxy votes at the April directors election.

Ward has 6,502,378 shares of stock outstanding.

Power Lines Require Odd-Looking Equipment

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Vehicles operated for power line maintenance include some odd looking contraptions. "Sno-cats" transport power line maintenance men and materials over mountainous snow packs. Amphibious "weasels" navigate marshlands and open water in patroling transmission lines. Tank trucks with 50-foot telescopic towers enable maintenance men to wash the dust periodically from insulators atop power line poles.

India Diamond Syndicate Seeks Soviet Mine Gear

BOMBAY, India (AP)—An Indian diamond syndicate is negotiating with the Soviet government for mining machinery which Soviet experts say will make possible an annual yield of diamonds worth 25 million dollars.

The experts reported today their estimated output from the Vindhya Pradesh mines in Central India should continue for 25 years at least.

Bandleader Artie Shaw Dislikes Being a Curiosity

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

NEW YORK (INS)—"I won't talk about my personal life," bandleader Artie Shaw recently told Hollywood reporters. "There's been entirely too much curiosity about us."

That was just before the Marilyn Monroe-Joe DiMaggio blockbuster turned the world's attention elsewhere, and what the miffed Mr. Shaw was referring to was a possible divorce between him and his seventh wife, actress Doris Dowling.

The latest communique on the Shaws, however, indicates a reconciliation and here's hoping we may hear the same harmony soon from Marilyn and Joe.

But in the meantime, I keep right on finding Artie Shaw's phrase drum - drum - drumming through my brain.

"Entirely too much curiosity about us" is what the man said, and reconciliation or no, I do wish the famous 44-year-old clarinetist would clarify that for us.

Exactly what would have been the right amount of curiosity about a possible seventh divorce? What would be just a leetle too much curiosity? What takes it over the line into Mr. Shaw's "entirely too much"?

I ask all this with some seriousness, frivolous though it sounds. Mind you, I'm not saying a word about the right or the wrong of any divorce or any reconciliation—not of one divorce, two divorces, three, four, five, six or even seven divorces.

Furthermore, I respect everybody's right to privacy, but I do think there's a whole lot of fancy nonsense spread around constantly on this subject.

I notice, thank heaven, that neither Joe nor Marilyn tried on any plaintive little tone of disapproval about the amount of public interest and curiosity there was over their unhappy front page news.

And on that score, my hat is off to both of them for behaving like good hard realists about being celebrities.

There's never been any federal statute forcing folks to become famous and I'm sure Artie Shaw knows that. I'm sure he also knows that if you're in the public eye, the public is sure going to eye you from time to time.

Most celebrities got that way by being sports idols or movie stars or bandleaders, big shots of the arena, microphone or candelabra.

There are others who attain fame by the sheer magnificence of unusual numbers. The old man with 104 birthdays, the woman with 47 grandchildren, the family with four sets of twins, those with six or eight or ten divorces—

All thse have achieved the splendor of arithmetic.

To some of these, if not to all, the day may come when a brand new slate would seem a real blessing—without one uncomfortable or embarrassing total entered upon it in the glaring chalk of life.

But nice fresh slates don't come a dime a dozen, and we all have to get reconciled to that fact sooner or later.

It's easier for those of us who live our lives out at some distance from the klieg lights and the flash-bulbs of the press and movie cameras.

But even the others have to accept the scarcity of those innocent writing surfaces.

There's no sense getting miffed at the slate itself just because it reveals the truth that two and two make four. Or that six and one make seven.

Courtesy Box Eliminates a Trip to Police Station

WAUKON, Iowa (UP) — If you get a parking ticket in Waukon, don't rush to the police station to pay the fine. Patronize one of the city's courtesy boxes.

The boxes, painted yellow, are attached to the parking meter posts. Parking tickets are placed in envelopes before they are stuck under the windshield wiper. The motorist places a dime in the envelope with the ticket and drops it into the box.

The famous Kahn test for syphilis was developed in Michigan Department of Health laboratories.

Frees Skunk Trapped With Head Inside a Jar

When Margie Williams investigated strange noises behind her house, she found a skunk with its head caught in a jar. The skunk was trying to shatter its glass mask against a rock wall.

Margie called the skunk like she would a kitten. It came to her and she broke the jar with a hammer.

Fans at Salt Lake Get Uranium Stock

SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—A new wrinkle in drawing baseball fans is to give them uranium mining stock.

Ten fans of the Salt Lake Bees got 1,000 shares each as gifts in a drawing. Eddie Leishman, president of the Bees who won the Pioneer League pennant, said that none of the winning fans asked for the Brooklyn Bridge instead of uranium stock.

A uranium boom is on in the west, he said, and uranium stock is selling for pennies a share. He wouldn't say how many pennies was the value of the stock given to the loyal fans of the Bees. He did specify pennies as the value, not dollars. But, the fans will always have their Bees.

REPAIRS BIKES, CAN'T RIDE THEM — Bicycle repairman James S. Bosma of Grand Haven has been fixing bicycles for 25 years and still doesn't know how to ride one. At 62, he doubts now that he'll ever learn. Known as "Jim," he works a 10-hour day, keeping every bike in town in repair.

Fixes Bikes for 25 Years But Still Can't Ride Them

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Some day, a 62-year-old bicycle repairman who's been in the business for 25 years may take time out to learn how to ride one of the infernal machines.

But right now James S. Bosma, who operates Jim's Bike Shop here, is too busy unbending spokes, fixing flats, and doing all the other jobs it takes to keep Junior on wheels.

Jim got in the bike repair business when the pay was only 20 cents an hour. Ten years ago he bought a shop and built up a brisk trade.

"I had just $100 to start with," he recalls. "We've sold more than a hundred bikes this year."

You want to know how to keep your bike in top running condition? Jim is the man with the valuable tips.

For one thing, he says, the best policy for keeping a bicycle in top shape is to have it stripped and overhauled every year.

Oiling? Jim thinks most bikes are oiled heavily enough—but in the wrong places.

"Take the chain, for instance," he says. "Why, a few squirts of oil doesn't lubricate one. The chain should be soaked in oil for a couple of hours to do any good."

Jim says there are more requests to repair punctures and blowouts in recent years and feels there is a reason — free air at service stations. "Sometimes the tire gauge shows 60 to 70 pounds of air. Just about double what's needed," he says.

Bouncing bikes up or down curbs, he says, does most damage to wheels, rims and spokes.

Despite hours spent repairing worn-out coaster brakes, broken chains and tire punctures, Jim thinks today's bicycles are better made than when he started out in the business.

And, he says, they're a good buy for the money — the price hasn't doubled in 25 years.

Jim says the idea of riding a bicycle doesn't appeal to him right now. Some day, one of his six grandchildren might take him aside and teach him.

Until then, there are plenty of twisted spokes and bent frames to keep him occupied.

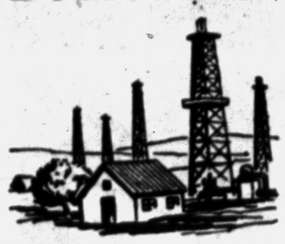

The first home of sugar cane is uncertain, but many students believe it first appeared in India.

The Eddie-Debbie Story:

Career Respect Keynotes Show Business Romance

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth article on the Debbie Reynolds-Eddie Fisher Romance.)

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — As I started to write this, Eddie Fisher telephoned to tell me that he was coming to California to see Debbie Reynolds.

There were rumors when Eddie flew out that they would announce their engagement, but when I mentioned it, Debbie said, "Why can't we be left alone, let us be engaged if we want without telling the whole world. Can't we have a little time together in peace? We both believe in knowing each other before we take any steps as serious as marriage."

I want to tell about Eddie first. He's 26, four years older than the girl he loves. He's one of seven children, with four sisters and two brothers, ranging in age from 13 to 33.

Eddie's father, Joseph Fisher, told me that, although his son was named Edwin Jack Fisher, when he was a little boy they called him Sonny Boy after Al Jolson's song.

"He always liked to sing," said his papa, to whom "Oh, Mine Papa" was dedicated.

But in his youth it wasn't all singing. He helped his father first in the grocery store and then when Fisher Sr. had a pushcart with vegetables and fruit, it was a common occurrence in South Philadelphia to hear Eddie singing out, "Fresh watermelon, red, ripe tomatoes, fresh corn."

When he was 13, Eddie won an 18-dollar-a-week job on a local radio show.

Eddie's big break came on Labor Day, 1949, at a big show at Grossinger's Resort in the Catskills. Eddie Cantor suddenly pranced out on the stage, patted the youngster on the back, and announced to the audience, "This kid, and I never saw him before, sings better than anyone I've heard in years, and I've heard them all."

Cantor then invited Fisher to accompany him on a tour and the lad won the audiences wherever they appeared. Cantor is as proud of young Fisher as if he were his own son.

Another big break came in 1950 when Fran Warren was taken ill. Eddie substituted for her at the Riviera in New Jersey and won great praise.

Since those days, Eddie has become a favorite TV star. He has sung to Princess Margaret Rose in England, to thousands of GIs when he was in the Army for two years and on special Christmas entertainment tours, to President Eisenhower, and to untold millions in appearances for charity.

You could look the world over and not find two such talented young people as Debbie and Eddie. Each admires the other's work.

Eddie has seen "Susan Slept Here" three times, and Debbie listens to Eddie every Wednesday night when he's on TV. Her favorite Fisher record is "How Do You Speak to an Angel." Debbie also likes "I'm in the Mood for Love," "Anytime," "Wish You Were Here" and "Lady of Spain."

Eddie always said he would never marry a career girl; he wanted a wife who would devote all her time to him.

"How do you feel about it now?" I asked him.

"Well, Mom, Debbie's got so much to offer the world I would never be selfish enough to ask her to give up what she's worked so hard to achieve, her successful life as a motion picture actress. She could still make pictures and have time enough for me."

Next: Miss Parsons concludes her story of Eddie and Debbie.

Rename Officers for Blue Shield

Dr. Robert H. Baker, Pontiac, Secretary of Medical Service

DETROIT (AP)—For a 13th successive year Dr. Robert L. Novy, Detroit heart specialist, will serve as president of the Michigan Medical Service (Blue Shield).

The Blue Shield board of directors re-elected Dr. Novy last night while also retaining Dr. Wilfrid Haughey, Battle Creek throat specialist, as vice president for a 15th term.

Dr. Haughey, editor of the journal of the Michigan State Medical Society, has been vice president since Blue Shield's inception in 1940. Dr. Novy has been president since 1942.

The board also re-elected Dr. Robert H. Baker, of Pontiac, president of the Michigan State Medical Society, as secretary. Dr. Baker, a surgeon, has served on the Blue Shield board since 1942.

Waldo I. Stoddard, senior vice president of the Michigan National Bank at Grand Rapids, was re-elected treasurer. Stoddard has been a board member since 1949.

6 New Officers in Guard Include Royal Oak Man

LANSING (AP)—The appointment of six new officers and the promotion of seven others in the Michigan National Guard was announced today by Brig. Gen. George C. Moran, the adjutant general of Michigan.

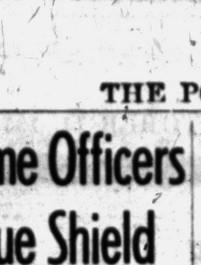

The new officers included 1st Lt. Russell J. Cameron of Royal Oak.

Uranium Hunt Stirs Memories of California Gold Rush

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A rush which at times has brought memories of the California gold rush of a hundred years ago has scattered uranium claims across Utah and other Western states.

It has been marked by feverish searching for the A-bomb metal, with a modern Geiger counter replacing the old-time pan; by a surge of stock sales that took an estimated 14 million dollars from hopeful get-rich-quick speculators.

The fever largely is gone but the boom continues.

And Milton H. Love, director of the State Securities Commission, says he is confident that a permanent, well-established uranium industry will result.

Love provides the estimate of 14 million dollars in stock sales. He predicts that 20 per cent—one in five—of the companies which have sold stock will prove profitable. But he emphasizes that it is still too early to speculate on their probable profit, with most still engaged in exploration and development work only.

There have been two phases to the uranium boom in Utah.

The first was the rush of prospectors—many of them amateurs—to the barren hills and valleys, principally in southeastern Utah.

The second was the marketing of stock by new companies formed to enter the uranium field.

There are no accurate figures as to the number of prospectors. The Atomic Energy Commission says the peak came in the spring and early summer when literally thousands tramped the area in search of a strike.

Interest has waned somewhat but the AEC exploration office here says it still is receiving up to 300 inquiries a month from persons wanting to try their hand at prospecting.

What are their chances of hitting? There is no sure answer. One AEC official said, "Maybe one in a thousand."

Lure for the prospectors is a $10,000 bonus offer. The AEC says it will pay that amount to anyone discovering and developing a mine producing 20 tons of ore of 20 per cent uranium content.

So far no one has earned that bonus.

But the AEC, which at present is the only legal purchaser of uranium ore, says that ore of as little as two tenths of 1 per cent uranium can return the producer a profit. Payment for the ore is based on the uranium content.

The stock sale surge came in early summer. Brokerage offices at times had to lock their doors to control the flood of prospective customers. Stock issues often were oversubscribed before certificates were issued. Sales boomed to as high as three to five million shares per day.

Now brokers say volume is a third to a half the average of the early summer boom. Purchasers are asking for information on a company's prospects before they buy.

Much of the buying now is by mail, particularly from residents living in the East and Southwest.

McCarthy Sees GOP Imperiled

Believes Party Hurt by Farm Program; Slams Jersey Candidate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R - Wis) says Republicans have "been hurt a lot" by the Eisenhower administration farm program in the fight to retain control of Congress and that "whether we still can slip through I don't know."

McCarthy also told newsmen yesterday he is supporting all GOP candidates except Clifford P. Case seeking the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ). Case's Democratic opponent is Rep. Charles R. Howell.

"If I were living in New Jersey," McCarthy said, "I'm afraid I would be in the position of not being able to vote for U.S. senator."

A faction of the New Jersey GOP has sought to pin a "too liberal" tag on Case, a former congressman who has said that if elected he would vote against continuing McCarthy as chairman or as a member of the Government Operations Committee the Wisconsin senator heads.

Case said he had no comment on McCarthy's remarks. He has the endorsement of President Eisenhower.

McCarthy said he is getting "tremendous calls" for speaking engagements in behalf of Republican candidates in the current campaign but is saying "no" to all of them.

SIGN OF 'INFLATION' — Sprawling rubber tubes are inflated by three members of the Army's "aggressor" force at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. An automatic compressor unit filled the tubes so that they achieved their full form of a 105-millimeter howitzer. Some 600 Army officer-students watched the display of special training equipment which included simulated gun bursts and recorded sounds of field pieces firing.

Complete 2nd Section of Anatomy Atlas

PALO ALTO, Calif. (INS)—A Stanford University medical professor and a research engineer from Portland, Ore., announced completion today of the second phase of an enormous photographic atlas of human anatomy, to be done in three-dimensional color.

The two men have just finished a two-year task of photographying 238 dissections of the human central nervous system alone. It will take six to eight years and some 2,000 dissections and photographs before the stereoscoptic atlas is completed.

Dr. David L. Bassett and William B. Gruber believe their painstaking effort is well worth while. When completed, their seven-section atlas will offer medical students and physicians a view through the stereoscope of almost unparalleled clarity and wholeness in anatomical structure.

Key to the project is a modern sterescope invented by Gruber and termed the "view master." With the use of the "view master" the pair will offer users three-dimensional views of anatomy either through a compact hand viewer or through special glasses when the forms are projected on a large screen.

Gruber's invention is the result of a long-time hobby of stereoscopy and photography. He began experiments with anatomical photography under the urging of Dr. W. K. Livingston of the Oregon University Medical School.

In 1948, Gruber and Dr. Bassett met and began talking over plans for the huge atlas. Gruber experimented with his equipment in Dr. Bassett's laboratory at Stanford, while the doctor devised new dissecting tools and prepared specimens.

13-Acre East Side Site Faces Condemnation Suit

Educators Want School in Area

Officials Claim Boom in Housing as Cause for Action

A 13-acre piece of unimproved property on Victory Drive faces condemnation proceedings by the Pontiac Board of Education.

It is located between Mt. Clemens and Perry streets, and intersects East Boulevard.

This step, said the board, was resorted to following many attempts to purchase the property. The owner, they said, had been told by the board's real estate agent that the property was needed for construction of an elementary school.

Housing developments shooting up in this section prompted the board to find a centralized site which would provide classrooms for the new population of school-age children.

"We are going to be in serious difficulty next fall if we aren't ready to meet the needs that these new homes are bringing. Facilities in that area are already filled to capacity and an elementary school will have to be located there," the board said.

The site is almost in the center of the district to be served.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac Schools, was directed by the board to institute immediate action which would pave way for condemnation steps.

The board also authorized the naming of William Wright, principal of Whittier School, to head Pontiac's special education program for this school year. He will be in charge of the sight saving, orthopedic, hearing consultant, speech correctionist, visiting teacher and mentally handicapped departments of this program.

"This is Mr. Wright's special field and he has done a fine job in the past on his own time to coordinate this program. I feel that we need his services to coordinate and administrate this work if it is to be effective.

Wright will also continue his work as principal of Whittier.

The board adopted the specific boundaries for Eastern Junior high school, Jefferson Junior high school, Lincoln Junior high school, Washington Junior high school and the Wever Junior high high school.

Elementary school boundaries they said, would be established at the next meeting.

No changes were made in those lines existing during the past two years, they pointed out.

Confronted with the problem of setting a tuition rate for a post-graduate student, the board resolved that no tuition fee would be charged. This, they said, was provided the student was sincerely interested and maintained good scholastic standing in class.

Rocky to Visit in State

HOLLAND (AP) — World heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano plans a weekend visit with friends at Holland. Marciano will be guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Cheff during his stay. The champion, who trained at Holland for his title fight with Jersey Joe Walcott nearly two years ago, is on tour as a guest fight referee.

WANT ONE?—Capital Policeman Dix C. Boone prepares to run up a new flag on the pole at the U. S. Capitol building in Washington. During a busy season, capital police find themselves running flags up and down every few minutes. It seems the practice of distributing worn out flags that flew over the nation's capitol building, initiated some years ago, has resulted in receipt of so many requests to congressmen that the supply of worn out flags is never equal to the demand. Now, so they can truthfully tell school, veteran or civic organizations that the flags they provide flew over the buildings, congressmen purchase standards and sent them to the capitol architect who arranges for them to be flown for a few minutes.

Jap Wife Buried Wrong Husband, Real One Claims

NARA, Japan (AP)—A flabbergasted Japanese woman got a telegram from her husband today—two weeks after she had rushed to the scene of the great Hakodate ferry disaster, identified a body as his and had it cremated and buried.

Eitei Iwaki, 45-year-old jeweler, had gone to Hokkaido Island where the typhoon overturned the ferry Toya Maru, killing nearly 1,000 passengers.

Mrs. Iwaki had identified a body by dental fillings and an operation scar.

Iwaki heard of his "funeral" and wired: "Iwaki safe."

"If you are alive, come to Nara immediately," replied his wife.

Mrs. Iwaki said she couldn't believe it.

The jeweler identified himself in Hakodate to reporters of the newspaper Asahi.

Then he started home.

Engineer's Tragic Suicide Stirs Storm Inside Churchill's Conservative Party

LONDON (AP)—Edward Alexander Pilgrim hanged himself in his garden shed two weeks ago—and touched off a storm inside Prime Minister Churchill's Conservative party.

Pilgrim, a 49-year-old engineer, killed himself in despair because he was running into debt paying for a plot of land condemned for municipal housing.

He paid 450 pounds for the site adjoining his bungalow four years ago. Then the local Council stepped in and took over. They paid Pilgrim 65 pounds for the site—but he had to go on paying 55 pounds a year to the land loan society on his mortgage. Pilgrim was earning 10 pounds a week. (The pound is officially worth $2.80.)

* * *

After battling with the Council for increased compensation for more than six months, Pilgrim gave up.

"It was a kind of gesture," his widow said at the inquest. "Getting payment for the land became an obsession with him."

The story exploded in the British press as an example of the worst kind of government action. Thousands of letters were written to newspapers asking, "Is an Englishman's home no longer his castle?" Lord Beaverbrook's mass circulation Daily Express made "the Pilgrim case" a front page issue and engaged a lawyer to seek a review.

Other newspapers cited the case in demands for reforms in the government's condemnation powers.

At last week's Conservative party conference, speaker after speaker lambasted the government for "state brutality."

Housing Minister Harold Macmillan explained it was liable to a "development charge" instituted by the Labor government, under which the state collected revenue on land improved by building.

* * *

"The tragedy of this man," he said, "is that by bad advice, or through being misled, he bought something at a value far above what it stood in the market under the law as the law then stood."

The development charg escheme was later dropped by Churchill's government.

Macmillan said he is making certain such a case could not occur in the future. He has introduced legislation revising the state's takeover powers and providing compensation clauses for special cases.

Detective Hunts Coffee and Finds Missing Cars

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Detective L. W. Rucker of the Police Department's auto theft division took two coffee breaks early yesterday and recovered a stolen car with each cup of coffee.

He drove past a downtown corner at 4:10 a.m. and spotted a stolen car in a parking lot. It belonged to a Dallas resident.

Three hours later, he left his desk in care of another policeman and went for another cup. This time he found a parked car stolen from a dealer.

2 Dems Renew Fight Against Dixon-Yates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Democratic congressmen have renewed their opposition to President Eisenhower's plan to move private power into the TVA system, but Vice President Nixon says criticism of it is "loose and generally erroneous."

Representatives Holifield (D-Calif) and Durham (D-NC) said yesterday they will oppose an administration request for prompt clearance of the plan, popularly called the Dixon-Yates contract.

Nixon, in a statement issued at Los Angeles, disputed statements that the contract was secretly arrived at. And he termed "a phoney charge" the contention by many critics that there was no competitive bidding for the award.

The contract was negotiated "according to the standard procedure for obtaining additional supplies of electric energy," he said.

Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell of the Democratic National Committee, who has called the contract a "raw deal," commented on Nixon's statement: "He's just as wrong as usual. What we want are the facts."

President Eisenhower has directed the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) to contract with a private power group known as Dixon-Yates for electricity to be generated at a new steam plant at West Memphis, Ark. The power would be fed into the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) system, replacing electricity with TVA now furnishes to AEC plants.

The Senate - House Atomic Energy Committee is scheduled to meet here Nov. 4 to review the contract terms. It has no authority to modify them, nor to veto the contract.

The law provides, however, that such contracts must be subject to review by the committee for 30 days while Congress is in session, unless the group okays an earlier effective date. The administration has asked the committee to act earlier.

Holifield and Durham, both on campaign tours, commented after the St. Louis Post - Dispatch, in a copyrighted dispatch Tuesday, said the still-secret draft of the contract would give Dixon-Yates "a virtually risk-free guarantee of earning 9 per cent of invested capital of 5½ million dollars."

"I am opposed to the whole thing," Durham said, "and against the whole contract. I am not going to vote for anything that will put that contract into effect."

Holifield told newsmen that "it's a steal, pure and simple, and will oppose" any move to speed the effective date. He added that the government is bound on most points, "but Dixon-Yates has a number of escape clauses, especially on rates."

Nixon said that the profit to Dixon-Yates will be one "which disinterested business and government experts agree is reasonable."

As for statement that there was no competitive bidding, the vice president declared:

"This is a phoney charge because under established procedures electric power is not procured by competitive bidding. Both industry and the government normally negotiate power contracts with suppliers which have the capacity and geographic suitability to provide it."

Four-Month Ocean Odyssey Nearing End for Man, 61

PAGO PAGO, American Samoa (AP)—The balsa raft Seven Little Sisters, on which 61-year-old William Willis set out from Peru last June 22 with a parrot and a cat, was reported sighted 20 miles off Pago Pago.

The governor of Samoa said he and a party would go out on the Manua, a telecommunications ship, and tow Willis to port, ending an odyssey of drifting on currents used by six Scandinavians on the raft Kon-Tiki seven years ago.

While Willis bade goodbye to his wife Bess at Callao, Peru, and set forth on the Humboldt Current in his 35-foot, twin-masted craft, he said he expected his ocean wanderings to cover around 11,000 miles in eight months. His purpose "To show that a lone man can conquer the ocean . . ."

He made the journey in less than four months, presumably by shortening the course. He had steering apparatus on the raft.

In New York City last night, his wife, informed of the sighting of the raft, exclaimed:

"I'm so very happy. All I care about is that everything is well." Willis carried wild Peruvian corn, brown sugar, some emergency rations and a water tank. For shelter, he had a small cabin.

Mrs. Williams' Talk Compares Party Philosophies

Addresses Area Democratic Women

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

"Republican philosophies have hurt Michigan," declared Mrs. G. Mennen Williams when she addressed approximately 150 members of the Pontiac Democratic Club and the Waterford Democratic Women's Club Wednesday at the CAI building.

Continuing, Mrs. Williams said that "the Republicans have a wonderful attitude of saying that a problem does not exist until it grows into a crisis—then it often is too late to act."

Citing an example, Mrs. Williams pointed to unemployment in Michigan which, she said, the Republicans refuse to recognize.

"We, as Democrats resent that the Republicans have said for a long time that it does not exist.

"They refuse to accept definite signs of the times. It is this same sort of solution to government problems that we have been fighting in Michigan for some time."

Pointing to road conditions in Michigan, Mrs. Williams said the Republicans refused to admit there was a problem here.

She said the governor asked for a pay-as-you-go plan, which the Republicans did not accept as they "did not want to tax large corporations."

Consequently, Mrs. Williams said, "we did not get this action for the first two years.

When the governor asked the legislature to appropriate money for more schools, he met with defeat, the speaker noted, but the people took the matter into their own hands and more schools were added.

If the governor had not been turned down by the Legislature, there would be no half-day sessions today, she said.

It was through the governor's message in 1949 that the Children's Hospital at Northville came about, declared Mrs. Williams, and she added, "the Republicans fought this move for five years."

Approximately 5,000 mental health beds have been added in the past year, and 4,000 general health beds in 48 different localities throughout the state are now available.

These medical facilities, she added, are the results of efforts of the Democratic party.

In conclusion Mrs. Williams said, "The philosophy of government behind the two parties is the most important to us. We want a kind of government that will attempt to solve a problem when it exists.

"As Democrats we have confidence that we are part of something that is making our state better for future generations." As women we should keep ourselves informed and work for something we know should be done—and think of what is best for our children and the future."

Mrs. Donald E. Adams, president of the Waterford Democratic Women's Club, introduced Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Philip Hart, wife of the Democratic candidate for Lt. Governor.

Mrs. Clark J. Adams and Mrs. Donald Adams received the guests.

Pre-Awards Dinner Held at Hospital

Members of Pontiac General Hospital Auxiliary were honored Wednesday evening with a pre-awards dinner. The dinner was given by Lauretta Paul, hospital superintendant.

Mrs. Guy Bevington, Mrs. Leo J. Heenan and Mrs. Gwendall Purkiss, members of the awards committee, announced that awards will be made at the next meeting of the auxiliary.

Speaker for the evening was William F. Maybury, a member of the board of trustees of the hospital. Miss Paul thanked committee chairmen and members for their work during the past year and a half.

Committees for the talent party to precede the auxiliary's show to be held on Nov. 10 and 11 welcome anyone who wants to participate to come to the talent party on Oct. 22 at Webster School. Tickets for the show may be obtained from Mrs. M. D. Shelton.

Tiny Filled Puffs Make Special Treat for Party

Want something special for a party? Serve canape puffs! Make up a standard cream puff paste and put scant teaspoons of it at least an inch apart on a greased cooky sheet.

After the tiny puffs have baked cut a circle from the top of each and fill with chicken or seafood salad. Put the cut-out circles back on top of the filling and serve.

One-half cup nonfat dry milk contains nearly all the calcium and riboflavin needed daily by the average adult.

MOMS Convene in Hotel Statler

Mrs. William Jones and Mrs. Edgar Thomas of Unit 2, MOMS of America attended the 13th annual convention held last weekend in Hotel Statler, Detroit.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind were elected to state offices, chaplain and director, respectively.

Try Country Casserole to Use Leftover Ham

Country Casserole makes the meal. This dish begins with diced, cooked ham remaining from dinner the day before.

Combine a cup of diced ham with 3 cups soft bread cubes and 1½ cups milk and two beaten eggs. For zest, add chopped onion, green pepper, prepared mustard and prepared horseradish, to taste. Bake in a greased 1-quart casserole in a 350 degree oven for one hour.

From France comes the fabric for this dressy suit by Lilli Ann of California. Of a mohair and silk combination, the fitted jacket is collarless in back, but carries high, notched lapels in the front.

Ike Marks 64th Birthday in Midst of Political Battle

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower is 64 today and is "enjoying excellent health" in the midst of a tough political battle which could help determine whether he seeks a second term.

Colorado golfing companions arranged a birthday luncheon for the President at Denver's Cherry Hills Country Club, and his wife invited a small group of close friends to a quiet celebration dinner tonight at a downtown hotel.

On the menu was one of the chief executive's favorite dishes—charcoal-broiled steak.

Scores of gifts have been arriving at the Denver White House from all over the nation. Mrs. Eisenhower has one for him too, but she kept it a secret.

Today's luncheon is an old friends' farewell as well as a birthday party.

Eisenhower will end an eight-week Colorado work-and-play vacation tomorrow and head back to Washington by plane, stopping in Indianapolis for a major address in the evening on the administration's controversial farm program.

Aides said Eisenhower is more relaxed than he has been at any time since taking office 20 months ago—and that he is going back to the nation's capital full of pep.

Just six weeks ago the President had his annual physical checkup at the Army hospital here, and the White House said the outcome indicated he was in excellent health.

The campaign has been occupying more and more of his time during the last month and he is planning at least three more major political speeches between now and Nov. 2, election day.

The outcome of the election may be a big factor in whether he bids for a second term in 1956.

The President's chief assistant, Sherman Adams, said in Washington several weeks ago that loss of control of Congress to the Democrats might contribute to a decision by Eisenhower not to run again.

The President told a news conference a few days later he had not even given any thought to the possibility of seeking another term.

When removed from the glass it should retain its shape and quiver. When cut it should be tender, yet firm enough to retain the angle of the cut.

Activities Told by Women's Club

Women of First Congregational Church have announced their activities for next week.

On Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. Fireside Forum will hold a cooperative dinner in the Chamberlain street home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bennett.

Mrs. Stanley Kipp will be hostess in her Doris road home on Wednesday at 8 p.m. for a meeting of Plymouth group. Members of Mary-Lyon group will be their guests.

Also scheduled for Wednesday is the Detroit Association Women's Fellowship meeting at the Birmingham Congregational Church.

"Friendly Service" will be the theme for the program when the Women's Fellowship meets Friday for luncheon. Members of Pilgrim group will serve.

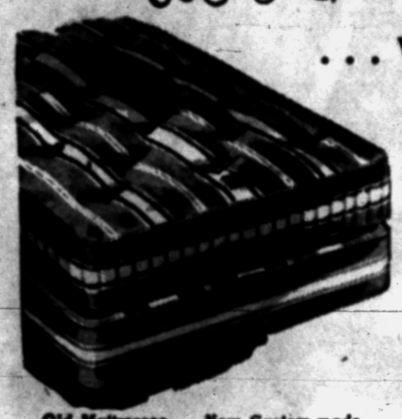

Blend Flour and Fat to Avoid Lumps in Sauce

If you want to be absolutely sure that your white sauce will have no lumps, blend the melted fat and flour together over low heat, then remove from heat and gradually stir in the milk. Take care to see that you have stirred the mixture smooth before putting it back on the heat.

Cook and stir the sauce over moderately low heat until thickened and bubbly.

Educational Facilities Are Revealed

Speech and Hearing Consultants Tell of Work Being Done

There are special educational opportunities within the Pontiac School system.

In an effort to point out these hidden treasures of learning and assistance, a discussion was held Wednesday evening at Daniel Whitfield School with William Wright, principal of Whittier School as moderator.

Mrs. Wilson B. Roback, speech correctionist, told the more than 200 parents who attended that children who need help in this field can be assisted most effectively if difficulties are detected and treated at an early age.

The work that is being done with hearing problems was discussed by Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk. She pointed out that each child in Pontiac is given a hearing test automatically every third year.

Mrs. Lamar Pepple informed the group that mentally handicapped children are often capable of holding responsible places in society after having special assistance and training at an early age.

Eleanor Traut, physiotherapist for orthopedic treatment, said that pupils in Pontiac orthopedic groups receive training in an atmosphere similar to a one room country school.

These children are urged to participate in normal classroom activities where it is physically possible.

The latest in international styles will be shown by Hilda of Birmingham and Northland. Professional models as well as members from Bay City, Flint, Detroit and Pontiac will appear. Mrs. John Londick and Mrs. William C. McRath are Pontiac models.

Pontiac members working on committees are Mrs. Robert Dunham of Sigma Gamma chapter, Mrs. Leon Skelley of Iota Eta chapter and Mrs. Richard Fox of Sigma Zeta chapter.

Mrs. R. O. Schultz Will Be Speaker

An open meeting of the League of Women Voters will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in room 102 of Pontiac Senior High School. Mrs. R. O. Schultz of Lansing, state taxation chairman for the League, will be speaker. She will base her talk on "The Sales Tax Division Amendment," which is better known as the Conlin Plan.

Mrs. John Borszoid will be chairman of the meeting.

Auxiliary Has Installation

Bemis-Olsen Amvets Auxiliary, Post 113, held an installation of officers when it met Tuesday evening at Griff's Hall.

Mrs. Charles Butler will serve as president, Mrs. Malcolm Oswalt as secretary and Mrs. Glen Best as chaplain.

Mrs. John Olsen will serve as child welfare chairman; Mrs. Robert Harrell, hospital chairman; Mrs. Charles Butler, Americanism chairman and Mrs. Milton Stockwell, SOS and membership chairman.

Plans were made for a Halloween costume party to be held Oct. 26 at the home of Mrs. Albert Olsen of Argyle street. Plans were also discussed for a New Year's dance to be held in conjunction with the Amvets.

After the meeting a candlelight luncheon and farewell party was held for Mrs. Stella Masalski, who is moving to Grand Rapids.

Apple-Flavored Breakfast Cake Whets Appetite

Variety is the key to keeping breakfast appetities keen. Serve different kinds of fruit in season. Alternate between cooked and ready-to-eat cereal. Use a variety of toasts and tempting hot breads.

Here is an an Apple Breakfast Cake that will discourage breakfast skimping in your home.

Apple Breakfast Cake

1½ cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
⅓ cup sugar
⅔ to ¾ cup milk
1 egg
3 tablespoons shortening
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 cups chopped apples
¼ cup sugar

Sift together, flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine egg, milk and melted shortening. Add liquid to flour mixture, mixing only until flour is moistened.

Melt butter or margarine in bottom of 8-inch square pan. Add apples and sugar. Pour batter over apples and bake in moderately hot oven 400 degrees 25 minutes. Makes one coffee cake.

Builder Is Right About the Party

Housewarming Is Good Because He Did Work Himself

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband built our house himself with a little help now and then from others. We moved in before it was finished and now, after living in it for over a year, it has finally been completed.

My husband wants to have a house-warming but I think too much time has elapsed to make the giving of such a party proper. Will you give me your opinion?

Considering the fact of his having built the house himself I think a house-warming party would be especially appropriate.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been married secretly for over two years. For business reasons this could not be made public. I would like to announce my marriage now but do not wish to disclose the real wedding date. Will you please tell me if this would be proper?

I think you will build up a great deal of distress and confusion for yourselves if you do not frankly announce the true wedding date. It does not matter how long ago or how lately it occurred. This detail should not be kept secret.

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon. I am a widow in the late 30's and will be married in church. I would like to know if it would be in good taste for me to have two bridesmaids in addition to the attendant of honor. I have been told that only one attendant is proper at a second wedding.

According to best taste you have been told what is true.

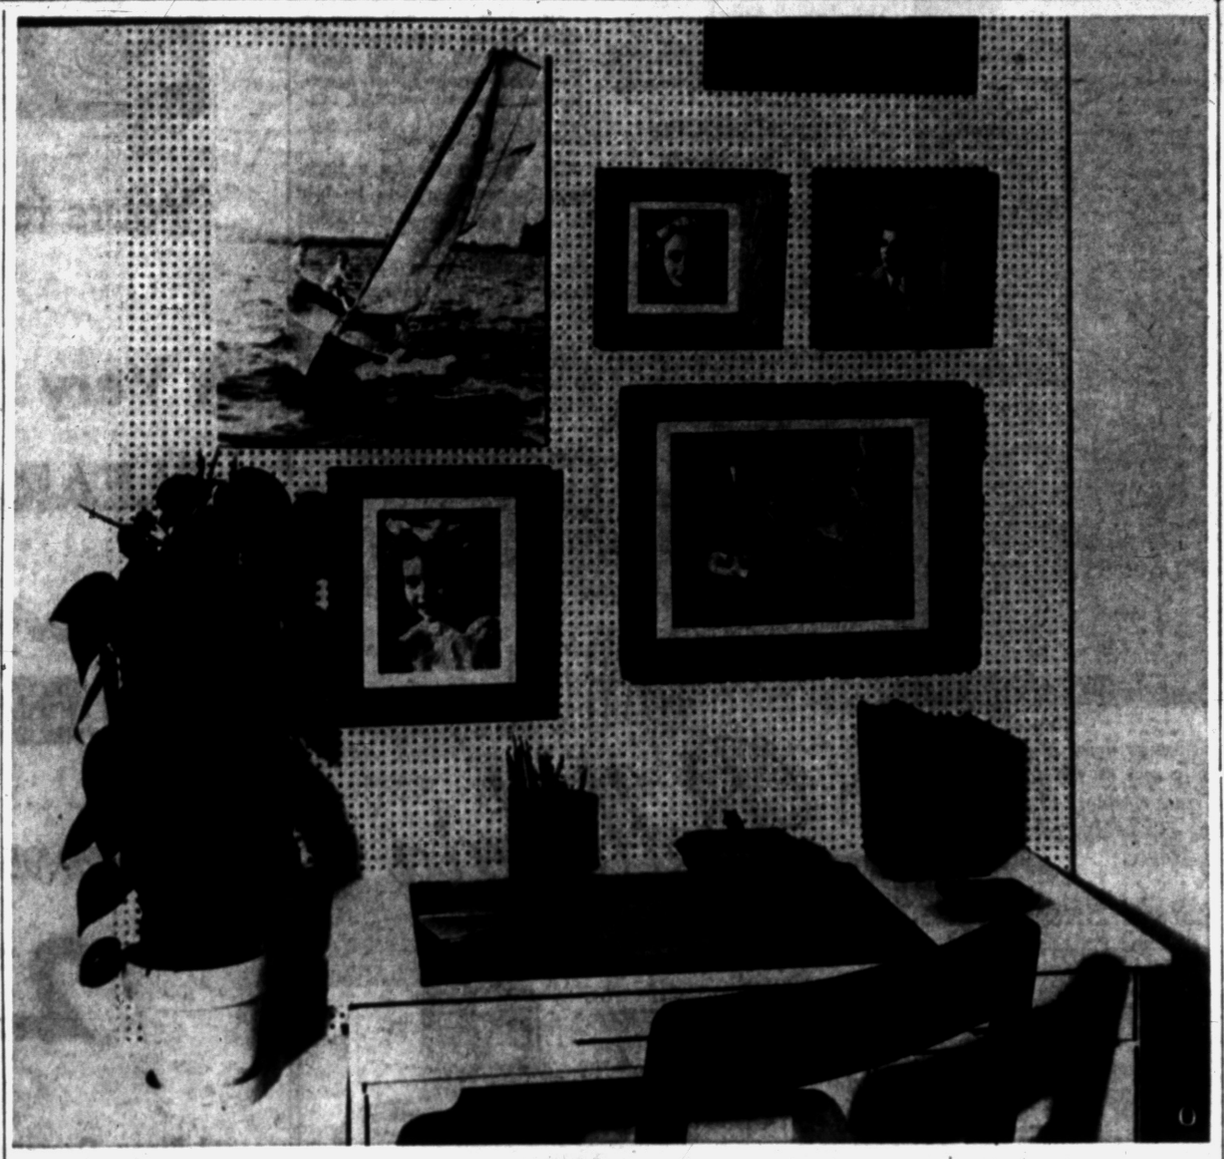

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper, or not, for a man to include his wife's name when sending postcards from his travels to business friends of his who don't know her at all? This has caused much discussion in our office and we would like to hear what you have to say about this.

He should send these in his own name alone.

Meaty Tomatoes Best for Preparing Juice

Canned tomato juice separates when the pulp settles out of the water in tomatoes. If you prepare juice from a solid, meaty variety of tomato, you will have less separation. Avoid adding water to the tomatoes as you simmer them. Press all of the tomato pulp through a sieve or food mill.

Juice prepared in this way will not separate as much as a thinner juice. Juice that shows separation, however, is all right to use—just stir it up.

A new and dramatic home decoration is based on striking new ways of arranging portraits of members of the family. These settings, demonstrated recently in Chicago demonstrated that the average do-it-yourself householder could reproduce similar portrait displays easily and inexpensively. A pegboard panel like the one pictured makes an effective background for a photograph gallery. Pegboard makes it possible to rearrange and add photographs without wall damage.

'Mr. and Mrs.' Is the Best Title for Friend's Folks

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've been going with Bill for two years now, and on occasion we go out with his parents. I never know how to address them. Would it be proper to call them by their first names?"

Unless Bill is one of those unusual sons who call their parents by their first names, Mr. and Mrs. will have to do for you. It is conceivable that you might follow Bill's pattern, if it's first names or very special nicknames for him.

But you're just his girl friend. You can't call them Mother or Father as he does. Your position in Bill's life doesn't give you liberty to make free with nicknames of your own. Show your respect for them by calling them by their proper names.

"Dear Miss Woodward: We love each other very much and want to become engaged before he goes into the service. I don't want to date other boys and that is quite okay with Mother. But she says getting engaged means that I can't associate with boys at all.

"She says I'm not to skate with a boy at the local rink, or even talk to my friends who are boys. I agree that I shouldn't date, but is Mother right in saying I must break all associations with boys?"

Your mother is offering you a very strict alternative to putting off an official engagement until your young man comes back from his period in the service. She's saying, in rather restricting terms, that you're going to have to live a strictly nun-like life with your fiance away. She's painting the next few years in the blackest of colors.

It is in a form of a warning to you. She's serving advance notice that you can't be engaged to a boy who's far off somewhere and at the same time play around as usual with boys you know. She's perfectly well aware that skating, talking, dancing with other boys can create problems for you.

In themselves, such activities can be perfectly innocuous. But some girls let small beginnings mount up into situations. She wants you to avoid such.

You're not free when you're engaged. You can't put on the same friendly front as though you weren't. Other boys aren't supposed to give you the slightest ruffle.

If you can't stand the thought of closing your mind and your eyes to associations with boys while your boy friend is away, you oughtn't to get engaged to him before he goes.

Have an understanding, if it will make you both happier. That's not official or public. You will have your private weapon to use against boys who want to date you or show you special attention, while you're still free to enjoy their company in the most casual and impersonal way. Could it be that's what your mother wants for you?

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

When you have several guests for dinner, tell them just where to sit. Don't say, "It doesn't matter, folks, just sit anywhere."

The purpose of the gathering is to enjoy dinner, not to play "musical chairs." It's your duty as a hostess to seat the guests.

Chilly Evening Is Perfect Time for Oyster Stew

Oyster seasons come and oyster seasons go, and many are the delightful recipes concocted for the "R" months. But nothing can top popular oyster stew — easy to make, delectable to eat, especially on a chilly evening.

When you make your stew, remember that to retain the delicate, distinctive flavor of oysters they should not be cooked too long, just enough to heat them through, leaving them plump and tender.

Oyster Stew

1 quart oysters, fresh, canned or frozen
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 quart milk
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon paprika
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Melt butter, add drained oysters, and cook three minutes, or until the edges curl. Add milk, salt, pepper and liquor from oysters and bring almost but not quite to the boil.

Serve at once, dusted with paprika. Serves six.

Play Safe and Ring Him

By MARY MARGARET MCBRIDE

It's a shame to expose an excellent technique of my own sex, but I can't resist commenting upon the good business sense of brides who insist that their grooms should also wear wedding rings.

Ten years ago only three out of every 20 couples were being married with a double-ring ceremony. Now the figure is nine out of 10.

This very shrewd trend is sponsored almost entirely, I suspect, by the female. Up to now, there has been no way by which a married man could be told from the unmarried man, and I imagine, if it were left to them, that's the way most gentlemen would prefer it. Perhaps not with any sinister motives — to start with — but just because they like to feel free.

But feeling free sometimes leads to all kinds of troubles. I remember one man's defense when he was being sued for divorce. He explained about the other woman:

"She mistook me for an unmarried man and I someway just couldn't find words to tell her she was wrong. There in the hotel lobby she smiled, and I smiled back. We got to talking — it was near dinnertime, I took her to dinner . . ."

Now if the wife in this case had just had the forethought to stick a conspicuous gold band on the third finger of his left hand, there might be one more unshattered home today.

A wedding ring — which I imagine was a woman's idea in the first place — has always constituted a neat little advertisement on a female's finger that her affection, loyalty and time are occupied. It is, to most women, a possession that she treasures above any other. I'm sure it must have bothered many a wife in the past that she wasn't able to fasten on her husband some similar silent warning to marauding members of her own sex to keep hands off.

I don't know exactly what methods they used and it undoubtedly was a long pull but brides have finally made the double-ring ceremony the accepted one. It would take an unbelievably independent bridegroom to refuse, on the threshold of a new life together, to put just a small slim band on the important finger—particularly when most of the other benedicts he knows are donning the same badge of—shall we say?—fidelity?

And once the ring has been slipped on, it will be as hard for the wearer to get it off as it is for a bull to detach the ring from his nose — a pretty good simile when you come to think about it, because both rings are there for roughly the same reason: to make the wearer more tractable.

Wire Fence Gets Paint, Says Cobb

By HUBBARD COBB

One of the best ways to keep children and pets in a yard and unwanted persons outside the yard is to surround the yard with a wire fence. Only trouble is that some types of wire fences become rusty after being exposed to the weather for a few years. Our project today is to repaint said fence.

The first job you have to tackle is removing the loose rust and while this can be done by hand with a stiff wire brush, you'll find the job much easier and faster if you use an electric rotary wire brush.

If you have an electric drill you can get a rotary wire brush attachment for a few dollars. It's a worthwhile investment, too, because it can be used for many other projects about the house.

After you have the loose rust out of the way, wipe the metal down with a rag dampened in turpentine or benzine. Now you are ready for the paint. About the best way to apply the paint to this particular surface is with a paint roller. You want a rather wide roller and it's important that it have rather long nap as the longer the nap the greater the coverage.

If all goes well with the roller you'll only have to cover the two sides of the fence—the long nap of the roller will get in and coat the sides of the wire.

Needless to say, even with a rotary wire brush and a roller this job isn't fun so it will pay you to use a good grade metal primer and exterior paint that will give several years of service.

Boil Almonds to Loosen Skin for Easy Removal

A new crop of almonds will soon be available in your grocery stores. Slivered almonds dress up vegetables and casseroles, add crunchiness and richness to cookies and fancy desserts.

Here is how you remove the brown almond skins so that you can use blanched almonds in many of your favorite recipes: Cover shelled almonds with cold water and bring to a boil. Drain. When they can be handled, slip off skins by pressing between thumb and forefinger. Place on absorbent paper to dry.

Jean Warnock Meets Clan Chief in Scotland

By MARILYN SHEARER

There is absolutely no doubt in the mind of Jean Warnock, who resides on Mark avenue, that the people of Scotland and England are friendly.

Jean left New York several weeks ago for an exciting tour of England and Scotland with the Campbell Clan.

MARILYN

The Campbells of America arrived at Inveraray Castle in two cars, one upholstered in the Campbell tartan, and were met by the head of their clan, the Duke of Argyll.

While his guests at luncheon they ate salmon, chicken and haggis, a meat dish traditionally served to celebrate the birth of the poet, Robert Burns, as they were entertained by the Duke's pipers.

Miss Warnock is a native of Scotland who arrived in America at the age of three. Her birthplace was in Aye and her mother was a Campbell from Taynuilt.

Edinburgh Castle, Holyrood Palace and John Knox's House were just a few of the places visited by Miss Warnock and her eight companions in Edinburgh.

While in Braemar they attended the famous Braemar Gathering which is always attended by the Royal Family.

An excursion by steamer was taken out of Oban to Iona, with its ruins of the fifth century Monastery of St. Columban, where Christianity began in Scotland.

At outpost Dunoon, last of the Argyll country before you travel to the lowlands, an American Flag was flying over the hotel where the tourists stayed.

Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of Shakespeare, and the ancient university town of Oxford are just two more of the exciting places never to be forgotten by Miss Warnock.

Among her proudest possessions today is a Coronation pin of Edward the 7th, which was mailed to her by a 74 year old woman who traveled to visit with her before she left Scotland. The pin was passed on to her because she is named Jean Warnock, a name which has been passed on for the past eight generations.

Another pin owned by Miss Warnock is made of Highland Cattle horn. A stranger, with whom she stopped to chat, casually took the pin from her own clothing and fastened it to Miss Warnock's coat, expecting nothing in return.

It is just one of the many ways in which the people of this country across the Atlantic welcomed Miss Warnock.

Her relatives in Argyllshire reported that the weather has been so cold that they have not worn cotton dresses all year! Needless to say, Miss Warnock did not let the cold, rainy weather interfere with anything she had planned.

The sights in London included Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey, the Houses of Parliament and the Tower of London..

Lip Color for Fall Is a True Red

With the entrance of sparkling fall colors and beautiful suits and dresses in vivid autumn shades, most women are making their inventory of lipstick, powder, rouge and other make-up items.

It is at this time of year that you want to present your brightest self, well-groomed and attractive as you can be.

Checking over your lipsticks, do you own the all-important basic lipstick? In other words, do you have one lipstick that can be worn with practically every color in your wardrobe without clashing.

Sometimes a woman gets into a lipstick "rut." Day after day, she reaches for the same shade. Then, one day she realizes, to her horror, that she's wearing a pink lipstick with a bright red hat.

The lipstick color for fall is a true, clear red. This shade looks well with brown, blue, gray, green and almost any color you can name.

An important factor to consider in choosing a lipstick is its texture. No woman should risk her lip beauty by using harsh lipsticks that dry and tend to irritate her lips.

One firm has a new, true red lipstick which, they say, contains a new healing ingredient that soothes the lips and thus provides this lipstick with a cream texture.

Its makers also say that a new process was used in making this lipstick to give greater intensity of color, so that it remains on the lips hours after application.

Leftover Ham, Chicken Team Up With Potatoes

A little leftover ham and chicken will make a fine luncheon dish this way: Scoop out baked potatoes and mash with butter or margarine, a little hot milk or cream, salt, pepper and minced parsley. Now dice the chicken and ham fine and add.

Pile the mashed potato back into the shells, sprinkle with grated cheese and reheat in the oven under the broiler.

Instant Coffee Makes Goodies Extra Delicious

Pecanese Pretties

'Swonderful what a gal can do with store-bought bakery goods and her own ingenious toppings. One of the finer toppings is a praline type for halved toasted English muffins that can be whisked under the broiler for that bubbly finish.

This is perfect for that coffee break, or to serve as dessert with coffee, or to make a different sort of snack.

To make the topping, combine and let stand 15 minutes, 1 tablespoon instant coffee, 2 tablespoons boiling water and one-third cup shredded coconut.

Then blend well one-fourth cup butter and one-half cup light brown sugar, firmly packed. Add 3 tablespoons chopped pecans and the coconut mixture.

Now spread the topping on four English muffins, halved and toasted. Broil until bubbly, about two minutes.

Coffee Hard Sauce

There is no combination America likes better than apple pie and coffee. Each does something for the other as far as flavor is concerned.

Now as new crop apples amble back to market, you'll want to make a marvelous new sauce for apple desserts. It's Coffee Hard Sauce, ambrosial with apples. Serve it with apple pie, apple dumplings or Brown Betty. Using instant coffee, Coffee Hard Sauce is about the easiest thing to make.

Just blend in 2 teaspoons of instant coffee, dry, with the butter, when you're making your favorite hard sauce recipe. That teaspoons does just right by about three-fourths cup of hard sauce.

If you like brandy in your hard sauce, blend 1 teaspoon of it into the butter at the same time that you're adding the instant coffee.

Add a quarter teaspoon of curry powder to a medium white sauce and serve over broiled fish fillets.

Importance of Khrushchev to Russia Now Apparent

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

An interesting feature of the new agreement between Russia and Communist China is that it was negotiated, on Russia's side, by Nikita S. Khrushchev.

The Chinese negotiating team was headed by Chou En-lai, who is both premier and foreign minister of the Red Peiping government.

Khrushchev, who led the Russian delegation, is not even a member of the Soviet Cabinet — he is the first secretary of the Russian Communist Party, which means that theoretically at least his position is political and not governmental.

The fact that Khrushchev was selected to go to Peiping is fresh evidence of his importance in the Soviet set-up.

Before Josef Stalin's death, Khrushchev ranked far down the list of the Kremlin's top men. Even after Georgi M. Malenkov succeeded Stalin as premier Khrushchev was no higher than No. 4 man.

Now Khrushchev seems to share the leadership equally with Malenkov. They are sort of co-chairman of a committee which rules Russia.

But Khrushchev's rise has been so rapid, his prestige is so great and his position as the Communist Party boss is so important that the day may come when there is a struggle between him and Malenkov for supreme leadership.

The Kremlin got such a big dose of dictatorship under Stalin that it does not seem to want a strong man right now.

But dictatorship is natural in a country like Red China. Unless one man can make himself the unquestioned boss, there is always an inner struggle for power.

As first secretary of the Communist Party, Khrushchev is in a good position to make himself No. 1 man in the Kremlin some day.

Stalin was dictator for years as secretary general of the party. He made himself premier only in 1941, when World War II was on.

Whatever is going on inside the Kremlin, Khrushchev seems to be the most forceful man in the leadership. He is a "second generation" Bolshevik, having joined the party in 1918 after the revolution.

He first made his name in his native Ukraine after World War II. That area of 40,000,000 people is strongly nationalistic — or was. Its people did little to fight the Germans in the war. Khrushchev was sent into clean it up, and did.

He became No. 2 man in September, 1953, six months after Stalin's death, when he was made party first secretary. His prestige has increased steadily since then.

At 60, he is white-haired, fat and unimpressive personally. But the man who runs the Russian Communist Party runs the machinery with which Russia is run.

'SLAVING' FRESHMEN—Laurel-wreathed Dave Hefferman, an upperclassman at George Washington University, in Washington, D. C., is carried by four "slaves." It's all part of the university's freshman week. The "slaves" were purchased for 50 cents apiece, the money going to the Student Council fund. Freshmen are, clockwise, from top right: Tom Weis, Ernie Enzien, Greg Rossie and Henry O'Connell.

ORDINANCE NO. 1258

An Ordinance to Amend the Building Zone Map of Ordinance No. 944, Known as the "Building Zone Ordinance."

Adopted October 12, 1954
Effective October 22, 1954

The City of Pontiac ordains:

Section 1. The building zone map of the Building Zone Ordinance is hereby amended to provide that the land in the description hereinafter set forth, be classified as Residence 2.

Lots 20 and 21 Crystal Lake Subdivision.

Section 2. The change in the building zone map in the above area to Residential 2 is made pursuant to the recommendation of the City Plan Commission and said Commission is hereby appointed to make a final report upon this amendment to this Commission previous to the public hearing to be held before this amendment is adopted, pursuant to Section 4 of Act No. 207 of Public Acts of 1921, as amended.

Section 3. That not less than fifteen (15) days notice of the time and place of the public hearing on the final passage of this amendment shall be given in a newspaper of general circulation in this city; that such public hearing is hereby fixed at October 12, 1954.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect ten (10) days from and after the date of its passage by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac.

Made and passed by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac, this 12th day of October, A.D. 1954.

2 Halves Make 1 Drunk

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The man, arrested for drunken driving, pleaded he'd only been drinking "half and half medicine."

"What are the halves?" asked city Judge Charles Kelly.

"I used a pint of whisky," the defendant said.

"What was the other half?"

"A quart of whisky."

Church Building at Peak in U. S.

Religious Shrines Have Played Important Part in Nation's History

WASHINGTON (UP) — Today, more than ever, the United States stands as a nation of churches, old and new. Religious shrines of all faiths have followed the course of America's history from early colonization to the present day.

Among the oldest still standing are the rustic parish churches of Virginia and the adobe structures of the early Franciscan missionaries of the Southwest and Far West.

The most aged of these churches is San Miguel in Santa Fe, N. M., whose history reaches far back into the early 17th Century.

The early churches of Virginia and Boston were linked closely to events of the Revolution. The lanterns that signaled Paul Revere to start on his famous ride were hung in the tower of Old North Church, Boston, erected in 1723. This tower was toppled by one of the early fall hurricanes.

The rafters of St. John's in Richmond, Va., rang with Patrick Henry's "Give me liberty or give me death!"

Washington, George Mason, Thomas Jefferson and Richard Henry Lee met there in public meetings.

The oldest known Jewish house of worship in the United States, Touro Synagogue at Newport, R. I., has in its files a letter from George Washington that states in part, "happily the government of the United States . . . gives to bigotry no sanction. . . ."

Today, church construction is at an all-time high. Churches are going up this year at a record $500,000,000 rate compared to last year's construction valued at $472,000,000.

Church Provides Room for Mothers, Children

GARDNER, Mass (AP) — The Sacred Heart Roman Catholic church has installed a soundproofed room to permit mothers of young babies to attend mass while caring for their offspring.

A window facing the altar permits mothers to follow the services.

Eddy Duchin Considered Strangers Just Friends He Didn't Know Yet

By EDDIE CANTOR

People in show business will tell you that, without a doubt, the nicest musician ever around the "Big Street," was nimble-fingered, sensitive, Eddy Duchin.

Before he became a member of Mr. Petrillo's Union, he was studying to be a pharmacist, and while he never did get behind the counter of a drugstore, he had a surefire prescription for happiness: A way with the piano—and a way with people. He did the kindest things for everybody, and everybody, in turn, wanted to do things for Duchin.

I'll always remember my twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. We celebrated at the Waldorf-Astoria. Eddy and his orchestra were playing on the Starlight Roof atop the same hotel.

Our party had just begun when the headwaiter brought me a note: "Can you use a good piano player at your party tonight?—salary no object—wearing tuxedo—have already eaten." It was signed, "Eddy Duchin." Ida and I agreed the most memorable incident that night was when Eddy played for us.

When he became lieutenant-commander in the Navy, in World War II, I brought down my radio show to entertain Eddy and his men. When he introduced me to the audience, I said: "Men, you may not know this, but when I was a youngster, I enlisted in the Navy. I was so good they gave me my choice of ships."

With a twinkle in his eye, Duchin interrupted me. "Which did you choose—the 'Monitor' or the 'Merrimac?'" Duchin got quite a laugh.

At that point, I started to sing. I did every number I ever knew. I never sounded so good! And no wonder! How could you miss with an accompanist like Duchin?

One time I met him in Chicago. He was opening that night at the Palmer House—the last engagement of a sock success tour. I looked around the jammed room. Supper crowds in a hotel aren't always the best audiences, but Duchin had them in the palm of his hand.

I asked Eddy his secret for turning cold hotel crowds—a new set of strangers in every town—into "devoted Duchinites." He flashed that warm, dazzling smile of his and said, "Eddie, you used the word, 'strangers.' I've always figured 'strangers' are just friends you don't know yet."

I miss the man, Duchin, and every once in a while I play his records. They reflect so much of his warm, sparkling personality and great artistry, that for an hour or so, I almost feel him in the room with me.

Civil Service Head to Report on Loyalty

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Philip Young, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, says his "white paper" report on loyalty investigations will be ready for the House Civil Service Committee by Oct. 20.

Young told newsmen last night that Oct. 20 was the deadline suggested by the House committee chairman, Rep. Rees (R-Kan). Young is in Massachusetts for a series of speeches.

He said the report will set forth, as requested, "what constitutes subversive actions which are the basis for separation of federal employes under a security program."

The 1953 eruption of Kilauea volcano in Hawaii lasted 136 days. It was the third longest eruption in recorded history, says the National Geographic Society.

Dogs Hunt Convict, Find Three Others

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Thre convicts trying to escape from a work detail ran smack into the Kilby Prison dog trainer, who had his bloodhounds out searching for a prisoner who made off in a previous break.

Clyde Carpenter and his bloodhounds had been hunting for a Negro who escaped Tuesday when a radio alarm went out for thre white convicts who had just taken off in a state truck from a work detail.

A few minutes later, Carpenter spotted the stolen truck and gave chase in his truck. The convicts abandoned their vehicle, and Carpenter soon rounded all thre tp with his bloodhounds.

Phenix City Racketeers Try to Avoid Vice Juries

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—Phenix City racketeers have started bargaining for negotiated prison terms rather than face trial before vice cleanup juries which have yet to acquit a defendant.

Seven indicted gamblers, including retired slot machine kings Hoyt Shepherd and Jimmy Matthews, pleaded guilty yesterday and drew penalties ranging from two months in prison and a $300 fine to 30 months imprisonment.

Others still awaiting trial were reported to have sounded out state prosecutors for possible settlements today, including perhaps Godwin Davis Sr. and his tough-guy son Godwin Jr., who once masterminded a $15,000-a-day lottery syndicate.

The panic took seed a week ago after gambler E. L. Cook, who had gone unprosecuted for more than three years, was given life imprisonment for murder. Eleven of the 12 jurors reportedly voted for the death penalty on the first ballot.

Yesterday, the negotiations quickly gained momentum.

Safecracker John Benefield, who has spent 18 of his 44 years under prison sentences and who has been tagged by the National Guard as a "professor of burglary" teaching others his trade, was convicted of possessing burglary tools.

He was fined $100 and sentenced to 12 months, the maximum imprisonment under Alabama law for that offense.

Twenty-four hours earlier, gambler H. C. Harden Jr. entered the first guilty plea of the vice trials and drew a $300 fine and a nine-month prison term.

Harden's abrupt withdrawal of his plea of innocent came after defense attorneys had failed in repeated attempts to get a new jury list for the antirackets trials or get them postponed or transferred to another county.

7 Cubans Charged With Election Plot

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Seven persons have been charged with plotting a terrorist attempt to disrupt Cuba's scheduled Nov. 1 presidential elections.

The seven, accused yesterday, were among hundreds rounded up by police following the discovery of bombs and other explosives in the medical dispensary of a public school building. Police said the nationwide arrests were continuing.

Police officials named Rafael Garcia Barcena, a University of Havana professor, as leader of the plot. They said Barcena left Cuba Monday for the United States.

Felons Pick Lock, Take $10, Buy Whisky, Return

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — The two young men were trusties at the Monroe County Jail, which meant that sheriff Fred Davis expected them to be there when he got back from investigating a wreck yesterday.

They were, but the irate sheriff still filed petit larceny charges against them.

He said the two, Arnold Fox, 20, and Kenneth Morris Jr., 22, picked a lock on the jail safe, took $10, went out and bought whisky and came back and got drunk before ehe returned.

General types of agencies included in the 55 are: 1. The "rescue" type which provides emergency food, clothing or shelter, sponsors medical aid for the needy or conducts research to help furnish care for those stricken with certain diseases.

2. The "preventive" kind working with children to solve juvenile problems and prevent development of problems in later life.

Biggest share of the fund, $306,997, will go to the Community Chest of Pontiac.

Chest agencies include Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts; Northern Oakland Council, Girl Scouts; Pontiac Boys' Club; Pontiac Council, Camp Fire Girls; Catholic Family Center; Family Service of Oakland County; plus Michigan Children's Aid Society.

Others are Pontiac Day Nursery, Salvation Army, Urban League, Visiting Nurses Assn., Pontiac YMCA and YWCA and Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic.

Another $51,000 is slated for the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross. The Northern Oakland Branch of the American Cancer Society will receive $8,000.

The United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan including 36 state and national services plus the United Defense Fund will benefit by $30,000.

Other groups and amounts they will receive are St. Joseph Hospital Clinic, $4,300; Oakland County YMCA, $1,900 and West Bloomfield Community Chest, $2,625.

Also benefiting are the Rheumatic Fever Clinic at Pontiac General Hospital and a special therapy class for children with cerebral palsy at Whittier School.

This year's goal was set last August by citizens serving on volunteer budget panels.

The member agencies originally requested a total of $608,754. The final approved sums were considered the least possible in order to maintain adequate service to residents of this area.

No increase was made this year for UF administrative expense and the goal figure includes reserves for emergency needs and collection losss.

Savings Stamp Albums Available at Post Office

Pontiac's Acting Postmaster Leslie H. Dean today announced that U. S. savings stamp albums are now available free at the local post office, Huron and Perry Sts., and branches.

"With the opening of another school year the post office," said Dean, "is prepared for a brisk demand for U. S. Savings Stamps by thrifty students and their parents."

"Albums," he said, "are exchangable at a bank for U. S. Series E Savings Bonds."

Father Turns in Son on Breakin Charge

A 17-year-old Davison youth faces a breaking and entering charge today with his brother and a cousin after his father, Lionel Ingram Sr., turned him over to state police Wednesday.

The youth, Joseph Ingram, 8414 Briston Rd., fled when his brother, Lionel, Jr., 23, and cousin, David, of Flint, were caught during a breakin Monday night at an Ortonville filling station. Joseph also escaped but was arrested at his home later by Flint Post State Police.

Joseph sepnt the night walking about 10 miles through fields to his home after station owner Stewart Owen discovered the trio in his station. He was turned over to authorities when he arrived home in the morning.

Police said the trio have admitted four other breakins in county schools and a gas station.

Boosts State Population to Prove Colds Common

LANSING (UP) — To prove its point that the common cold is serious, the State Health Department sort of expanded Michigan a bit today.

The department estimated in a press release that seven million people will catch colds in Michigan this winter.

The state's population was 6,300,000 in the last official census.

terday suggested that Wilson's Chicago speech be canceled.

However, amicable relations were established between the two shortly before Wilson's appearance and Stratton introduced him at the dinner as "a man big enough to fight against odds of misunderstanding and partisan attack when he believes he is doing what is best for his country."

The governor, asked later about reversing his attitude, denied there was any intervention by the President and said he thought Wilson's speech was "a very fine job in clearing up any misunderstanding."

The audience of 1,500 gave Wilson an ovation when he was introduced and applauded 36 times during his speech.

Wilson declined to comment when asked to account for the harmony between him and Stratton, and when asked if the President had anything to do with it, said that he hadn't talked to the President yesterday.

In Denver, a White House aide also denied the President had any hand in resolving the impasse posed when Stratton took his position about canceling Wilson's speech.

Wilson, prefacing his address with an off-hand reference to the bird dog controversy, lightly commented the dinner "received a great deal of advance publicity that wasn't planned." The audience, which contributed an estimated $150,000 to GOP campaign coffers, laughed.

The secretary acknowledged Stratton's friendly introduction and then praised Stratton for "doing quite a job of house cleaning in the state of Illinois that was necessary because of the shortcomings of his predecessor (Adlai Stevenson)."

He conceded that what he called "incomplete press reports" of his Detroit remarks "disturbed even some Republicans—including your illustrous governor"—but that in "fairness" he would use the occasion to set things straight.

"There are times when my remarks get me into trouble—especially in political matters, and I seem to be in trouble now. The way my remarks were distorted by our left-wing opponents certainly looks terrible in print. I admit that. So right here, right now, I want to say to the American people that I am sorry I made inept remarks which were subject to misrepresentation.

"But there is one thing that I will not do, one thing that I know you would not want me to do. It is this: I will not let our political assailants get away with the charge that I am unsympathetic with the problems of workmen or that the vicious interpretation they have put on my statements represent in any manner my feeling for or philosophy toward the working men and women of this country."

Wilson recounted his record at General Motors and said the five-year pact the firm signed with the UWA (CIO) still served as a model in the industry and for other industries.

Among Wilson's sharpest critics were CIO President Walter Reuther and AFL President George Meany.

Rep. Crumpacker (R-Ind) suggested Wilson ought to resign and Rep. Auchincloss (R-NJ) sent Wilson a telegram saying Wilson had outlived his usefulness.

Sen. Ives (R-NY) a candidate for governor of New York, said "I wholly disapprove" of Wilson's bird dog reference and that Wilson's statement "indicates a lack of understanding of conditions as they are ... It was most unfortunate."

Some 35 pickets paraded before the hotel where Wilson spoke. They had three dogs on leashes and carried placards chiding Wilson for his Detroit remarks.

Lambs to Yearlings—There's a Difference

LANSING (UP) — Farmers taking animals to market were advised today to bring along a dictionary.

Miles A. Nilson, state marketing enforcement chief, said one farmer was apprehended for false advertising because he called his product "yearling lamb."

"Once a sheep becomes a yearling it no longer is a 'lamb.' It's 'mutton,'" Nelson said.

Royal Oak Woman Critical Following Crash

A Royal Oak Township woman is in critical condition in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today following a two-car crash last night at Twelve Mile and Groveland roads in Royal Oak Township.

Mrs. Howard McDonald, 50, of 27344 Hales, suffered a compound fracture in the collision.

Mrs. William Wimble, 38, of 28833 Groveland Rd., Royal Oak Township, driver of the car in which Mrs. McDonald was riding, told police she was struck by a car driven by Eunice Harmon, 21, of Hamtramck, while waiting to make a right hand turn into Groveland road.

Judge Frees 2 Convicts on Pledge to Cast Votes

DETROIT (UP) — Two Detroit House of Corrections inmates had their freedom today on condition they vote in next month's elections.

John Corcoran, 48, and Fred Hood, 41, were serving 90-day terms for drunkeness. They wrote Recorder's Judge O. Z. Ide asking that their sentences be shortened so they could vote Nov. 2.

Ide approved their immediate discharge.

State Surplus Cattle Sale Brings $12,470

LANSING (UP) — The Michigan Department of Agriculture received $12,470 during a recent sale of surplus registered dairy cattle from the state's institutional farms, it was announced today.

The sale, held at the Traverse City fairgrounds, brought an average of $215 per head for the 58 Holsteins auctioned.

Dies of Explosion Burns

DETROIT (UP)—Mrs. Reba Stayner, 38, of Detroit died Wednesday of burns suffered Sunday in an explosion in the basement of her home. Police said Mrs. Stayner and her husband were cleaning tools with a naphtha soultion when fumes were ignited by the pilot light of a hot water heater.

Hurricane Churns Toward Carolinas

about 71,000 people, put the toll there at 200 dead and 350 injured.

The Saipan message that hurricane Hazel had destroyed 80 per cent of Jeremie, a town of 11,000.

"The town of Jeremie is reported to be 60 per cent destroyed," said Claude Kartchner, 36, of New Orleans. Kartchner arrived here with his wife Olita and infant daughter from Port-au-Prince.

"Radio service and telephone service at Port-au-Prince are out. Airplanes did not land there from Monday until Wednesday afternoon and the roads leading out of the capital are gone.

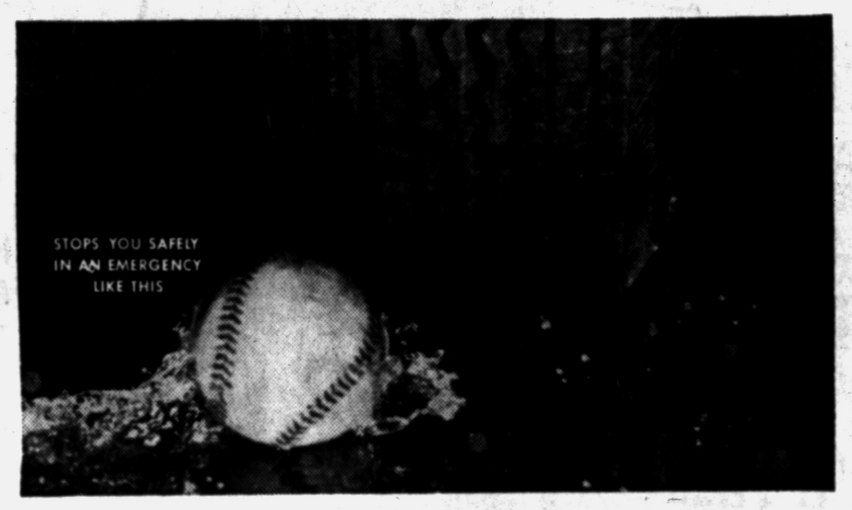

"Two rescue missions tried to get through to San Marc by automobile. One was washed away and destroyed and the other was forced to turn back."

Kartchner said in an interview that Port-au-Prince was spared although "we had 45-50 mile an hour winds" but that relentless driving rains caused scores of serious accidents on the city's streets and hampered rescue activities.

B.F. Goodrich
NEW SAFETYLINER TUBELESS
is the new-car Tubeless with the 6-year lead,
COSTS NO MORE THAN REGULAR TIRE AND TUBE

Car Manufacturers' Adoption of Safetyliner Tubeless climaxes 6 years of single-handed B. F. Goodrich Tubeless Tire development.

SAFETYLINER GIVES PATENTED PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS, REVOLUTIONARY PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDS

B. F. Goodrich announces a new Tubeless—the B. F. Goodrich SAFETYLINER—that puts Tubeless Tire safety in the regular tire-and tube price range!

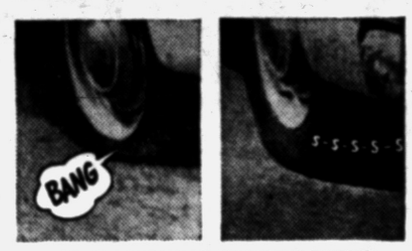

Engineered exclusively for today's streamlined new cars, this streamlined Tubeless Tire is the choice of many car makers for new 1955 cars.

It has no inner tube to blow out. Instead it has a patented inner liner, part of the tire itself. In case of a bruise-break, cause of most sudden blowouts in tires with tubes, the SAFETYLINER does not blow out. You merely get a gradual loss of air—a safe s-s-slowout that gives you time to stop safely.

17% Better Skid Resistance

A new tread design gives the B. F. Goodrich SAFETYLINER greater skid resistance than previous new-car tires. In locked-wheel stopping tests on smooth, wet pavement, SAFETYLINERS stopped in 17% less distance.

It is designed for modern highways, and the new powerful cars. It practically eliminates squeal.

CHANGES BLOWOUTS TO S-S-S-SLOWOUTS

On curves, it's almost silent. It rides smoother. Yet the SAFETYLINER costs no more than a regular tire and tube.

The Tubeless Tire was invented, patented and perfected by B. F. Goodrich. Over 3,000,000 B. F. Goodrich Tubeless Tires have been sold since the first one was announced in 1947. They have been proved by over 50 million miles of use. Only B. F. Goodrich has 30,000 Tubeless Tire retailers trained to serve you and backed by 6 years of Tubeless Tire know-how.

B. F. Goodrich SAFETYLINER Tubeless Tires fit standard wheels.

THERE ARE MORE B. F. GOODRICH TUBELESS TIRES IN USE THAN ALL OTHER MAKES COMBINED

An Easier Way? Here's How

Demonstration Kitchen to Be Shown Here Next Week

Ever wonder how you can plan your kitchen to save steps? Simplify routine daily tasks? Make the room in which you spend so much of your time a more pleasant place to work?

Next week Consumers Power Co. will show you, when a specially built kitchen housed in an immense van will be displayed and demonstrated here.

The mobile display, known as the "Easy Does It Kitchen" will be located at West Huron street and Telegraph road, on the Tel-Huron Shopping Center grounds, Tuesday through Thursday, Oct. 19-21.

Hours will be from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. The public will be admitted free to the exhibit during those hours.

Designed to give the homemaker a wealth of ideas on how her kitchen and homemaking problems can be simplified with improved cabinet and appliance design, the "Easy Does It" van has received the unanimous acclaim of homemaking experts from all over America since its introduction at Michigan State College.

The exhibit holds special interest for homemakers with some physical handicap or disability. Many of the ideas the trailer embodies can be put into use in any home with only minor alterations in existing kitchens, according to Marjorie A. Bettesworth, Consumers' general home service supervisor, who is in charge of the exhibit.

Home economists from Consumers' staff will be in the trailer during the public showings to explain its functions to visitors.

Built after considerable research in a number of leading colleges and universities, the "Easy Does It" kitchen is not one to be copied exactly. It is a demonstration kitchen into which the company has tried to bring as many ways of saving time and energy as practicable.

According to the company's home economists, it was planned in the hope it would stimulate today's housewife to think toward ways to make her kitchen and laundry into a better workshop—to save her health as she works.

Marilyn Throws a Curve to Pair of Sharpshooters

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two men were sued yesterday for $92,500 damages as a result of rifle practice in which, incidentally, they used a picture of Marilyn Monroe as a target.

Sheldon Burman and Herbert Levy explained that they considered the movie beauty's curves a more interesting target than the conventional bull's-eye.

The plaintiffs, Fred and Peter Kassler and Alfred Rich, allege they suffered shock and bruises getting out of the way of shots they said came through the wall of their refrigerator shop.

Because the complaint failed to state the nature of their injuries, they were given additional time to amend it.

For every mature oyster, a million or more are killed in immature stages, says the National Geographic Society.

HAZEL A. KUSCHINSKY

ORRIN McQUAID

Know Your Candidates

McQuaid, Kuschinsky Run for Register of Deeds Post

This is the seventh in a series of articles on political candidates in Oakland County. Orrin McQuaid, Republican incumbent, is opposed by Democrat Hazel Kuschinsky for the office of Register of Deeds. Short biographies on the two candidates and their statements on how they will perform their duties follow.

Hazel A. Kuschinsky

Candidate for register of deeds on the Democratic ticket, Hazel A. Kuschinsky, 47, resides at 3360 Kilmer Rd., Birmingham.

She attended schools in Port Huron and took special business courses. She is married and is vice-chairman of the Troy Township Democratic Club.

Her statement:

"The office of register of deeds is the only county office which is wholly self supporting. Credit for this situation cannot be claimed by the head of this office because the monies collected are from fees paid by the public for the registering of deeds, mortgages, chattel mortgages, photostats and miscellaneous papers.

"To be honest and efficient are the main attributes in holding this office. I am sure no one can deny my honesty. I have a background of bookkeping and stenography which should be helpful and a long and varied experience in shop work.

"I cannot condone an act of certain members of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors in raising the salary of the register of deeds $1,500 per year at this time when so many are unemployed or working part time. A breakdown of this yearly salary increase to weekly amounts is nearly $30, more than some are getting for unemployment compensation for 26 weeks.

"The Democratic Party believes in and supports FEPC. I, too, am for the continuance and improvement of FEPC in this office.

"If I am elected as register of deeds, I will devote all my tim to the scheduled hours of this office, thereby earning the salary this position offers.

"In other words, I have no private business to divert me from the duties of register of deeds.

"Should I become your register of deeds I promise I shall not try to hold it for the rest of my life because I do believe in the youth of our nation and they definitely should be given their chance."

Orrin McQuaid

Seeking his ninth term as register of deeds is Orrin McQuaid, 49, of 225 N. Berkshire Rd., Pontiac.

McQuaid attended Pontiac schools, was graduated from Ferris Institute and attended the University of Detroit. He is a registered land surveyor.

The incumbent candidate is a World War II veteran. He is married and the father of one daughter.

His statement:

"My office protects records by guaranteeing prompt return of recorded documents to owners, retaining a photostat copy for public records and a microfilm record for maximum security.

"Maps and plats of all county lands are furnished for public use. Our tract index system, devised by me, is unique in Michigan, giving quick reference to information so replies can be given by phone rather than visits to the office.

"Recording fees are alike in all 83 counties. Our system provides lower cost per document recorded than any Michigan county making it possible to return to the county this year about $130,000 over our operating costs. The office carries its own load and provides money to operate other county functions.

"Consolidating recorded documents into one set of books and other changes fostered by me have been made state law. We pioneered the 60 per cent record reproducing method representing $12,000 yearly savings.

"One-page deed forms common today were designed by me and first introduced here. Their use spread over Michigan. Many other states have changed laws to include their features allowing reduced fees and deed recording costs.

"Recently we installed time recording devices providing a more perfect record and saving several hand operations. An improved name index for chattel mortgages allows phone replies to questions.

"I have tried to demonstrate that knowing the job and continuity of effort pay dividends to our county in excellent records, friendly service and economy. I seek re-election on this basis."

Unionist Pays $50 Fine for Square D Disorder

DETROIT (AP)—Philip Saba of Philadelphia paid a $50 fine Wednesday on a disorderly conduct charge growing out of the Square D Co. strike in Detroit.

Saba, a representative of the Independent United Electrical Workers, was given the choice of the fine or a 30-day jail term. He still is awaiting trial on a charge of felonious assault.

A process server charges that Saba attempted to run him down with a car as he sought to serve an injunction prohibiting mass picketing during the strike.

Bear Shot in Soo Limits

SAULT STE MARIE (AP)—Police Chief J. Willard Welsh shot and killed a bear Wednesday night after the animal invaded the city limits. The 205 pound bear was first sighted in the western part of the city. A motorist notified police. Welsh killed th ebear with a single rifle shot. The antimal was fat an dapparently not hungry enough to have attacked humans.

Dems in Alaska Widen Margins

Lagging Candidate for Labor Job Pulls Ahead of GOP Rival

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Democratic margins over Republican candidates widened steadily today in Alaska's weathervane election and the one Democrat who had trailed in a bid for a territorywide office moved ahead of his GOP opponent.

Late Anchorage returns which gave heavy boosts to all Democrats moved H. J. Lannen ahead of the Republican incumbent, Henry Benson, in the race for labor commissioner. Lannen had trailed through most of the early vote counting.

Lannen's new total from approximately 180 of the territory's 263 precincts was 10,258, compared to 10,006 for Benson. Lannen had been eating steadily away at a lead of 450 votes once held by Benson.

Meanwhile, E. L. Bartlett, incumbent delegate to Congress, stretched his lead to nearly 3-1 over his Republican opponent, Mrs. Barbara Dimock.

Democratic candidates for the Legislature strengthened their hold on 26 out of 28 seats at stake in three of the four divisions, which correspond to congressional districts in the states.

In the remaining far northern area, returns for five legislative seats were not conclusive.

Democrats, relying heavily on the theory that "as Alaska goes, so goes the nation," claimed the landslide win—a direct reversal of the 1952 election — indicated the party would sweep into control of the nation's Congress next month.

In Washington, however, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, Leonard W. Hall, discounted such claims and said "reading any significance into that election is not justified."

Half of the 21,000 Americans killed by accidental falls each year are more than 75 years old.

Funeral Canceled for Want of Body

BOSTON (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Svendsen has had to cancel the funeral arrangements she made for her brother, George F. Aldus, 26.

Aldus was lost when the ore-laden freighter Mormackite capsized last month.

Mrs. Svendsen said she received word a few days ago that her brother's body was being shipped home from a Norfolk, Va., funeral home.

She engaged the services of a funeral director and arranged for her brother's burial.

When the body failed to arrive yesterday she inquired and learned that her brother's body had not yet been recovered. The body in the Norfolk funeral home was somebody else's, mistakenly identified.

More than seven million dollars in parking meter fees was collected in New York State communities in 1953.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The late Phyllis Astaire, wife of dancer Fred Astaire, left most of her estate in trust to Fred Jr., 18, and Phyllis, 12, with the income to go to the dancer for the children's benefit.

Mrs. Astaire, 46, died of cancer last Sept. 13.

Piano Is Co-respondent in Wife's Divorce Suit

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. Charlotte S. Prescott yesterday named a baby grand piano as the "No. 1 co-respondent" and was granted a divorce from J. Carter Prescott, 39.

Mrs. Prescott, 40, told Judge Samuel H. Silbert that her husband's "first love was that baby grand. He neglected his work to play it and was up at all hours of the night with it."

Children's Car Is Real McCoy

Little Red Convertible Powered by Gas, Goes 15 M.P.H.

MIDLAND (AP)—To the younger members of the LeRoy Hubbard household, the family car is just another dustcatcher in the garage — and it had better stay out of the way of the little red convertible.

Five-year-old Rodney and 7-year-old Linda Hubbard probably do more driving in the little convertible than Pop does.

The car is an oversized toy some 6 feet long and 32 inches wide. It goes 15 m.p.h., has a three-speed transmission and is gas-powered.

Hubbard, a carpenter at the Dow-Corning chemical plant in Midland, built the red convertible from odds and ends.

Hubbard's children — along with as many neighborhood pals as can fit — zoom through the spacious fields surrounding the Hubbard home in nearby Sanford.

The main body of the car is made from wood, shaped on a band saw.

Its solid wood yellow wheels are faced with thick rubber from auto tires. "That makes for a ride that isn't exactly air-cushioned," says Mrs. Hubbard, "but there aren't any flat tires, either."

The car goes when a pedal is pushed and stops when foot pressure is let up.

The young Hubbards aren't quite old enough for a driver's license, but when they are they shouldn't have any trouble passing the test.

For cattle and sheep in the Highlands of Scotland, heather often offers the only winter forage.

Hit-Run Motorist Tangles With Plane

ATLANTA (AP) — A police radio dispatcher sent out this call last night:

"Late model sedan wanted for hit and run with an airplane."

Patrolman Mallory Mann said half a dozen persons saw a Negro maneuver his automobile onto the field at Municipal Airport.

Before anybody could stop him he put the car in reverse and backed into a Civil Air Patrol plane. Then he drove rapidly away.

Mann said the tail assembly on the plane was damaged.

Among U. S. wearers of eyeglasess about 56 per cent are women and about 44 per cent men.

Two Face Circuit Court in Statutory Rape Case

Two men, both charged with the statutory rape of a 14-year-old girl, were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Wednesday following their examination before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Miguel Venezuela, 52, of 270 Franklin Rd., and Jose Rodriquez, 19, of 34 Hillside Dr., were ordered held in Oakland County Jail, pending their arraignment Monday. They failed to post bonds of $5,000 each.

Soviet Halts Radio War Against Tito's Regime

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslavia's Communist organ says the Russians have halted their six-year radio war against President Tito. The action is part of the Soviet bloc's current campaign for better relations with its former partner.

The Yugoslav party newspaper Borba said last night Moscow had stopped jamming Radio Belgrade's broadcasts in Russian and the Kremlin's anti-Tito Radio Free Yugoslavia stopped its broadcasts from Moscow two weeks ago.

False Alarmist Wanted Police to Frighten Kids

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say a man accused of turning in a false alarm yesterday gave this explanation:

Deserters Loose in U.S. Enough to Make 1 Division

WASHINGTON — Enough deserters from the U.S. armed forces are walking the streets—21,310 of them—to more than make up a full Army combat division. From 85 to 90 per cent of these deserters will be apprehended soon but there will be others to take their places.

While the number appears large, it is less than 1 per cent of the armed forces.

The desertion picture is not considered alarming at the Pentagon. As one official said: "No other armed force in the world can point to such a record. We are not proud of it, but it is some satisfaction that it is better than anybody else's."

Still, there is for the armed forces the nagging question of why a man deserts.

Capt. William R. Perl, an Army psychologist at the disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., wrote in a report on a study of desertions:

"In working with military offenders one is struck by the large numbers of individuals who are at a complete loss to accept and assimilate that enlistment and draft are not a private contract resulting in a job which one quits if one does not like it."

Perl said 60 per cent of the inmates at Leavenworth were there for desertion and that 78 per cent of them had no juvenile criminal record and 65 per had never been arrested—good clean kids on the surface.

Perl said that in his studies of desertion he often ran across such expressions as "I didn't like it so I took off," or "I wasn't paid on time so I quit—no pay, no work."

The chief reason for peacetime desertion lies in large measure, Perl feels, in the public's attitude toward military service as something unnecessary until immediate danger threatens.

At the Pentagon there is some reluctance to discuss desertion, but one colonel said. "Much of our problem comes from men who simply do not want to serve and who will do almost anything to avoid it.

"Too, there comes a time when a guy either can't take Army life any more or something happens at home which, in his estimation, provides an overriding motive. Maybe his wife, his mother or someone close is sick, or they are having financial troubles. Once he gets home, fear of punishment often keeps him away."

Apparently fear had some bearing during the Korean War too. Desertions climbed from 35,071 for the Army in the fiscal year 1950 to 68,062 in fiscal 1951.

They dropped to 28,906 in fiscal 1952, when the Army announced a policy of shipping deserters to Korea, and fell off another 7,700 in fiscal 1953.

While a man may be classed as a deserter, it does not mean that he will be convicted of the charge. Only 1,921 men, for example, currently are serving prison sentences for quitting.

A man is in technical desertion in peacetime when he has been absent without leave for 30 days or more. In combat, however, a man can be considered a deserter if he is gone an hour, depending on the circumstances.

Since desertion usually carries with it a dishonorable discharge, the armed forces seek to rehabilitate their men and restore them to duty. Such a discharge deprives a man of his veterans' rights. It forbids federal employment ever. In addition, most private employers are reluctant to hire men with such discharges.

Probably no other armed force in the world goes to such great lengths to combat desertion, especially among troops overseas. One whole section—the special services branch—is set up to keep the troops happy. There is also troop information and education section, which tries to combat desertion by explaining that the Army really isn't oppressive.

Even with all this, said one Pentagon colonel, "They still take off. We do everything we can. We'll hold their hands if they want and nurse maid 'em generally, but once you say 'no' to some of these guys, they think you're riding them."

LAYAWAY FOR THANKSGIVING

You can make light of your laundry with an automatic washer and all

Make certain of wonderful washes this easy, modern way. Use all, the patented "controlled suds" detergent approved and prescribed by automatic washer makers themselves.

YOU'LL BLESS THE DAY you discover how clean and soft and fresh new "controlled suds" all gets your clothes.

If up to now you've held the notion that thick suds are a washday "must," you're in for a real surprise.

Millions of women now know the opposite is true. They've found that all's "controlled suds" (almost no suds) not only get clothes far cleaner than ordinary soaps and detergents but also are safer to use in any automatic washer.

You don't wash clothes on top of the water

Suds are filled with air. They float around on top while the dirty clothes sink out of reach. But all doesn't let its washing power foam away on the surface. Instead, all dives down under to get the dirt and then hangs onto it till it flushes down the drain.

Wise words from washer repairmen

Here's what experts who fix washers say: "If automatic washer owners would use all, they would have fewer repairs to pay for. Most washer troubles happen when a woman smothers her machine with suds."

all helps a washer work the way it's meant to. all lets the clothes swirl and tumble through the wash water in order to get all the dirt out.

The proof is in the rinsing

You've probably been impatient, time and again, waiting for the bubbles to break down and the suds to rinse out of your bathroom basin. The very same thing happens in your automatic washer when you use an old-fashioned suds-making soap or detergent.

Thick suds take their time about disappearing. But all's "controlled suds" flush out immediately with the rinse water. There's no possibility of a sticky suds film clinging to the clothes to get them dull and dirty all over again.

all is so different from other detergents, it's actually patented for your protection (U. S. Patent Nos. 2550691 and 2594453).

We guarantee you'll notice the big difference in the looks and feel and freshness of your clothes . . . or you can get your money back.

Put all on your shopping list right away. Try it on all your clothes, from grimy work clothes to filmiest lingerie. all is unconditionally recommended for the new miracle fabrics Acrilan, Orlon, Dynel and nylon.

If you don't agree all outwashes anything you've ever used in your washer, just report to your dealer, and he'll refund your full purchase price.

Now two types of all... both prescribed for automatic washers

Here's why there's now a new kind of all at your grocer's. CONDENSED all in the blue box has become the washing favorite of millions. But thousands have asked for a less concentrated all that could be used not only in washing machines but also in the kitchen and for basin washing of stockings and lingerie.

This new type—EXTRA FLUFFY all—is the same patented formula as CONDENSED all. It comes in a bright red box, only one-third the weight of the CONDENSED all box—and costs only one-third as much. Monsanto Chemical Company, St. Louis, Missouri.

Cranberries and Nuts Dot Bread

Teatime Treat Keeps for Days

Orange-Flavored Loaf Also Good to Serve for Breakfast, Snacks

Now that the cranberries are picked and in the markets, it is time to make such delicacies as cranberry bread.

It bakes to a golden brown on the outside with bits of fresh cranberries and finely chopped nuts dotting the inside. Add to that just a hint of orange flavor.

You'll find it's best if sliced the day after baking. It keeps moist and good tasting for days. Serve it with butter, but it's just as delicious without. You'll want to make it often.

Cranberry Festival Tea Bread

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 cup sugar
1½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 orange (juice and grated rind)
2 tablespoons melted shortening
Boiling water (about 2 tablespoons)
1 egg, well-beaten
½ cup chopped nuts
1½ cups fresh cranberries, halved

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda and salt. Pour orange juice into measuring cup. Add grated orange rind, melted shortening, and enough boiling water to make three-fourths cup.

Combine orange juice mixture and well-beaten egg. Stir liquid into dry ingredients (only until dry ingredients are dampened). Add chopped nuts and cranberries.

Pour into greased (9x5x3-inch) loaf pan. Push batter up into corners of pan, leaving center slightly hollowed.

Let batter stand 20 minutes in pan before baking. Bake in moderate oven (350) 50 to 60 minutes. Remove from pan. Cool. Store overnight for easy slicing.

CRANBERRY FESTIVAL BREAD—This special-cranberry tea bread is perfect for cranberry harvest time. Bright ruby red cranberries are on the markets so try this bread often. Serve it for breakfast, tea or snacks. Good anytime!

Cookie Crust Holds Apple-Raisin Filling

So pretty to serve are individual tarts! And so special, too, when they hold an apple-raisin filling. Make it by simmering together a can of sliced apples, and a half cup each of raisins and orange juice. Mix a tablespoon of cornstarch and a few of your favorite spices into a half cup of sugar. Add to the apple mixture, and cook until thickened, stirring.

If you haven't time to make tart shells, line dessert dishes with sugar wafers or small cookies, and put the filling over these make-believe "shells." Chill to serve.

No Baking Needed for Bread Pudding

Here's a modern recipe for popular old-fashioned bread pudding. It's a quickie, for there's no baking whatsoever. The secret is using prepared pudding and pie filling mix.

No-Bake Bread-and-Butter Pudding

4 slices buttered bread, quartered
½ cup sugar
1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
3 cups milk
½ cup raisins
½ teaspoon nutmeg

Place buttered bread quarters in a baking dish. Sprinkle with one-fourth cup of the sugar.

Combine remaining sugar, pudding mix, milk and raisins in a saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil.

Blend Rice, Raisins

Add finely cut raisins to steamed rice and serve with curried lamb or chicken. Be sure to wash the raisins well in boiling water before using; this trick makes them pleasantly plump.

Prepare Your Feast Now for Easier Thanksgiving

Now is not too early to start preparing your Thanksgiving dinner, many home freezer owners will tell you.

The advantages of the early start are that you can select the various items when they are at the peak of quality and at seasonally low prices, and you can prepare the meal in easy stages rather than in one exhausting marathon.

Precooked, partly cooked and ready-to-cook foods all can be stored safely and satisfactorily for weeks at zero temperature in a home freezer.

To show what a complete Thanksgiving feast might be prepared ahead of time and frozen, a home economics institute has planned the following meal for the holiday—everything stored in the home freezer:

Fruit and vegetable juices, cranberry salad, roast turkey, giblet gravy, scalloped sweet potatoes, buttered peas, mashed rutabagas, parker house rolls, butter, mince pie and assorted holiday confections.

Since the turkey, or other holiday fowl, is the main expense as well as the main dish, it is the most important item on which to watch prices, buy at lowest cost and freeze.

Turkey or other poultry may be frozen without cooking or it may be roasted before freezing to reduce preparation time on the day of the big meal.

For best results if the turkey is to be roasted in advance, home economists recommend only partial roasting before freezing.

They advise heating the bird until it reaches 160 degrees according to a meat thermometer and then freezing it.

If the turkey is wrapped in freezer foil, the foil may be left on for completion of the roasting before serving. The foil is loosened and the turkey heated until it reaches 190 degrees.

Giblets should be wrapped separately from the fowl. Dressing should be prepared on the same day it's served and should not be put into the turkey for heating unless the turkey is completely thawed first, whether or not the bird is precooked.

Drench Asparagus With Cheese Sauce

Asparagus and Cheese Sauce on Toast

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper
Canned asparagus
Toast
Paprika

Melt butter in saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Add milk and cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened and bubbly.

Over low heat stir in cheese until melted. Add Worchestershire sauce, salt and pepper to taste.

Heat canned asparagus in its liquid; drain well; arrange on toast; pour cheese sauce over; sprinkle with paprika.

Good Spice Collection Insures Fine Flavoring

Luxury flavors come easy in the kitchen which has a good collection of spices. Popular stew seasonings are marjoram, thyme, basil, savory, rosemary, dill seed, caraway seed and garlic. Along with onions, salt and pepper, of course.

For curry pot roast, sprinkle meat with curry powder and sugar before browning (1 tablespoon curry and ½ teaspoon sugar). For Swiss steak, add a little Worcestershire sauce and some sugar to the tomatoes.

For the snack tray, cut red apples into bit-sized cubes. Do not peel. Serve with colored toothpicks for spears.

Make Candle Salad for Halloween Party

Halloween salad that doubles as a decoration at the youngsters' party is made by cutting broad-shouldered red apples in half crosswise. Core the halves and sprinkle apple meat with lemon or pineapple juice to prevent darkening.

The candles are halves of bananas standing upright in the core cavities of the apples. Top the banana with mayonnaise and light the candle with a maraschino cherry.

Crunchy Apple, Tender Pancake Offer Contrast

A quick breakfast treat to serve on chilly mornings is waffles or griddlecakes.

Make them with fruits and serve with piping hot pork sausages or bacon, milk and plenty of butter or margarine for a hearty meal to keep those active youngsters going until lunch time.

Here is a recipe for Scandinavian Apple Pancakes. The crisp apple gives crunchy contrast to the tender pancake.

Scandinavian Apple Pancakes

1 apple
¼ cup sugar
1½ cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 egg, beaten
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted shortening

Core and peel apple and cut into thin rings. Sprinkle with one-quarter cup sugar and let stand while mixing batter. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine egg, milk and melted shortening. Mix well. Add liquid to flour mixture and mix thoroughly.

Pour 1 tablespoon batter on hot griddle or skillet. Put apple ring in center and top with another tablespoon batter. When bubbly, turn and brown.

Pudding Mix Sauce Tops Off Desserts

Using prepared pudding and pie filling, you can easily make this warm chocolate sauce for ice cream or puddings.

Chocolate Sauce

1 package chocolate pudding and pie filling
¾ cup sugar
¾ cup milk
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Combine pudding mix, sugar and milk in saucepan. Mix well. Place over low heat and cook until all the sugar is dissolved, stirring constantly.

Continue cooking until mixture comes to a full boil. Boil two minutes.

Grapes Make Flavorful Relish

Did you know that records of the European grape go back almost 600 years? The ancient Egyptians, Greeks and Romans all cultivated grape vines and made wine from the fruit.

Even way back then, they planned ways of keeping the subtle good flavor of the juicy grape, and today, of course, one of the best ways to do this is to make grape jelly.

Just look for those large Concord grapes that are even now purpling on the vines and beginning to come into the market places all over the country. This variety of grapes makes a perfectly delicious grape jelly.

Don't let those flavorful Concords come and go without putting a few into homemade sweet spreads. Your family will enjoy grape jelly with pancakes or bran buns next winter and the vigorous flavor of grape relish is a wonderful complement to steak or roast beef—you'll be wishing you put up more!

Grape Relish

4½ cups prepared fruit
7½ cups sugar
½ cup vinegar
½ bottle liquid fruit pectin

First, prepare the fruit. Slip skins from about 3¼ pounds fully ripe Concord or other loose-skinned grapes. Bring pulp to a boil and simmer, covered, five minutes.

Sieve to remove seeds. Chop or grind skins and add to pulp. Measure 4½ cups fruit into a very large saucepan. Add ½ to 2 teaspoons each cloves and cinnamon, or any desired combination of spices.

To make the relish. Add sugar and vinegar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard one minute, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and at once stir in liquid fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for five minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit.

Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover at once with one-eighth inch hot paraffin. Makes about 12 medium glasses.

Save Vegetable Liquid

Don't throw away those nutritious liquids from canned or home-cooked vegetables! Use them for diluting evaporated milk when making creamed dishes. Use them, too, for diluting condensed soup.

Plums Team With Cheese and Grapes for Fall Salad

When is a plum not a plum? When it's a prune.

There is a great confusion existing as to what are plums and what are prunes. Botanically speaking, prunes and plums are synonymous.

A prune as we know it is a variety of plum which can be dried without fermenting when the pit if left in. A fresh prune has a firmer flesh and a higher sugar and acid contest than fresh plums.

It can be separated from the seed when broken open, much in the same manner as a freestone peach. A plum cannot be opened in this way.

It really matters not one whit whether they're called plums or whether they're called prunes. They make delicious eating and are prime favorites this time of year.

Plums run the full gamut of colors. Yellow, green, crimson, purple or black, the color depends on the variety. The Italian prune is almost black, while the green gage, as its name implies, is almost chartreuse in color.

Fresh Plum and Grape Salad

10 fresh clear seeded plums
8-ounce package cottage cheese
Fresh seedless grapes
½ head lettuce
Mayonnaise

Wash plums. Split in half and remove seed. Pile cottage cheese on five halves, top with the remaining halves. Arrange on lettuce with fresh grapes. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes five servings.

Budget Gets Helping Hand From Macaroni Products

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

We just received a thin little recipe book from a macaroni products company. That led us to look through the past byline articles to see whether we had ever done one on the various pastes, as these products are called.

All cooks know what an ideal meat stretcher any of the macaroni products is. Most children are fond of these dishes, which helps the budget.

The only thing they are not helpful to is the waistline. Half a cup of cooked macaroni or Spaghetti contains 100 calories. If you limit yourself to that, you may enjoy casserole dishes with an easy conscience.

Good quality macaroni and spaghetti break evenly without splintering. An 8-ounce box will make eight servings.

Cooking instructions are to be found on each package. Remember just one thing: Don't overcook. Boil for less time when the cooked product is to be further baked.

If your meal is unavoidably delayed and you want to keep spaghetti and macaroni palatable, follow this procedure. First rinse with warm water and drain, then mix lightly with small amount of butter which will melt and form a protective coating.

Keep buttered spaghetti warm by placing in a colander and setting over a pot of boiling water. The steam which rises will keep spaghetti warm without giving additional cooking. Cooked noodles may be buttered and placed in a casserole, covered and kept in a slow oven.

Be sure to use a large enough kettle when you are cooking the pasta. Both macaroni and spaghetti tend to double in volume with cooking. Noodles are approximately the same volume before and after cooking.

We're printing several recipes from the interesting little booklet sent to us, hoping they will lighten your cooking labors. The first one is for a macaroni salad to which shredded cabbage adds crunchiness.

Elbow Macaroni Salad

1 package elbow macaroni (8 ounces)
1½ cups diced celery
1½ cups finely shredded cabbage
2 pimientos chopped
1 green pepper chopped
½ cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Cook macaroni according to package directions, rinse with cold water, drain and chill. Mix mayonnaise with lemon juice and seasonings and combine with chilled macaroni and chopped vegetables.

Blend thoroughly, chill and serve on crisp lettuce leaves with radish roses and lemon wedges. Makes six-eight servings.

Chicken is an excellent buy right now. You might try the following way of saving it.

Neapolitan Chicken

1 package spaghetti (8 ounces)
4 tablespoons butter
1 onion chopped fine
1 clove garlic minced
1 cup sliced mushrooms
4 tablespoons flour
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 cups chicken stock or bouillon
2 cups diced cooked chicken
2½ cups tomatoes
1 cup grated sharp cheese

Saute onion, garlic and mushrooms in butter until soft, blend in flour and seasonings, add stock and cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Mix in chicken, tomatoes and cheese.

Cook spaghetti according to package directions and arrange in alternate layers with chicken mixture in a baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs and brown in 375-degree oven. Makes six servings.

A small amount of boiled ham or leftover baked ham may be combined with noodles in a quick, easy dish.

Fried Ham and Egg Noodles

1 package egg noodles (8 ounces)
3 slices boiled ham, or left-over ham
4 tablespoons butter
Pepper

Cut ham into one-half-inch squares and saute in butter until crisp. Cook egg noodles according to package directions and mix immediately with ham and pan drippings. Turn out on a hot platter and sprinkle with pepper.

Any green vegetable, such as broccoli, makes an ideal accompaniment. Makes six servings.

Cut Kitchen Clutter

Mix waffle batter right in a jumbo-size measuring cup, then pour the batter right from the measure onto the hot waffle iron. This trick helps to do away with kitchen clutter when you are serving waffles for breakfast.

Succotash Salad Gives New Look to Your Dinner

Succotash Salad

1 10-ounce package frozen succotash
½ cup water
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons olive oil
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
Freshly ground pepper
¼ teaspoon sugar
3 teaspoons minced parsley
2 tablespoons thin onion strips
Salad-greens
1 tomato

Cook succotash according to package directions, using one-half cup water and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Drain; reserve liquid for use in soup or sauce.

Put olive oil, vinegar, one-eighth teaspoon salt, pepper to taste and sugar in small bowl; mix well. Add drained succotash, two teaspoons minced parsley and onion strips; mix well.

Refrigerate for at least an hour to blend flavors. Line serving dish with salad greens or use individual salad plates; spoon marinated succotash into center.

Peel tomato by blanching or rotating over flame; cut into four slices; sprinkle each slice with one-fourth teaspoon minced parsley. Top succotash with parslied tomato slices.

Serve at once. Makes four servings.

The Pennsylvania Dutch serve ripe tomatoes thickly sliced and sprinkled with cinnamon and salt!

Serve cottage cheese with tart jelly and use to spread on crisp crackers or fresh thin toast, for dessert.

Apple Spice Bread Full of Fall Flavor

After dad's Saturday afternoon raking leaves and junior's energetic Boy Scout hikes, by the time evening rolls 'round you're bound to encounter some brisk fall appetites.

The perfect accompaniment for any autumn meal is apple spice bread. It's tangy and spicy, made with cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves.

Blended with those delicious apples which are now overflowing grocer's bins and crunchy nuts, apple spice bread is the essence of autumn. This bread made with baking soda is quick and easy to prepare and it's feathery light.

Apple Spice Bread

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cloves
½ cup shortening
⅔ cup light brown sugar, (firmly packed)
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup grated raw apples
2 tablespoons vinegar plus water to make ½ cup
½ cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, soda, salt and spices. Cream shortening, blend in sugar, add eggs one at a time and beat until smooth. Add vanilla extract. Add flour mixture alternately with grated apple and liquid. Stir in nuts.

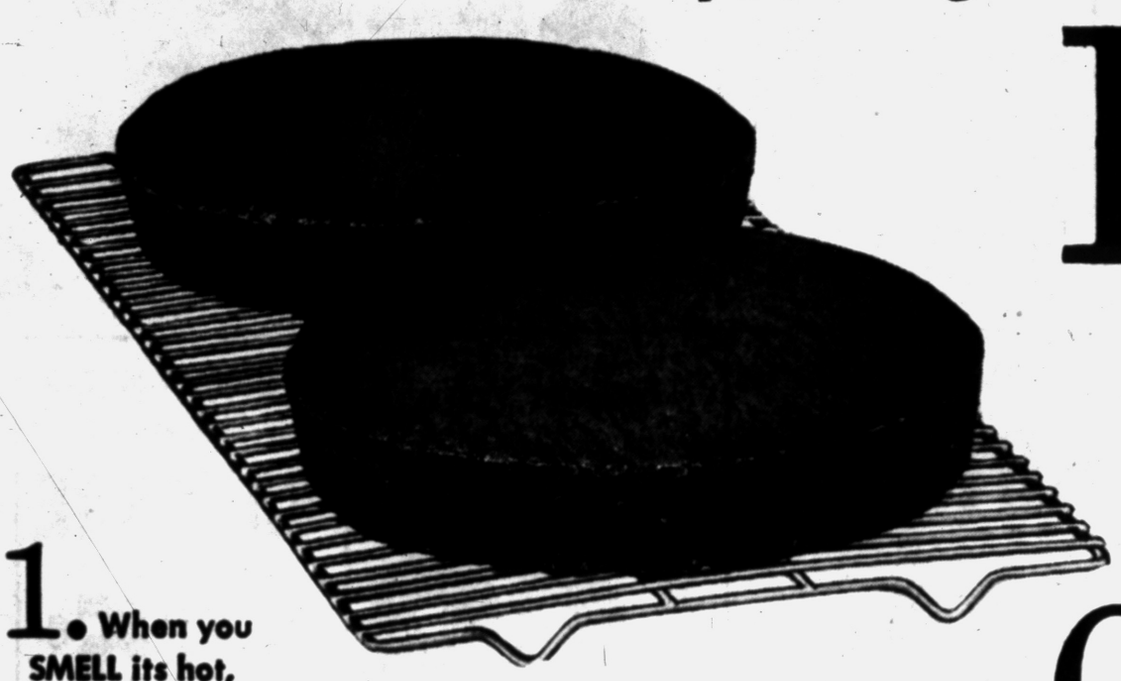

Turn into greased 8¾ x 4½ x 2½-inch loaf pan and bake at 350 degrees (moderate oven) one hour or until done.

Hock-Kraut Dinner Will Tempt Family

Surprise your family with a new one-dish dinner! This combination of pork hocks, sauerkraut and potatoes gets added zest from caraway seeds and tart apple.

Pork Hock-Sauerkraut Dinner

4 pork hocks
2 teaspoons salt (omit if hocks are smoked)
1 large can sauerkraut (3½ cups)
2 medium potatoes, cubed
1 tart apple, diced
2 teaspoons caraway seed
¼ cup brown sugar

Cover hocks with water, add salt and simmer, covered, until tender, about two hours. Remove meat and skim fat from surface of stock.

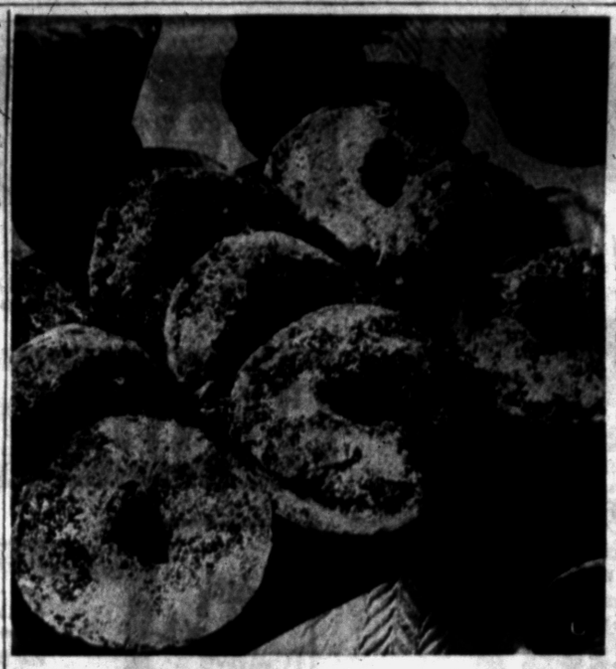

Pour off all but 1½ cups of stock; add remaining ingredients and mix well. Top with hocks. Cover and cook 30 minutes or until potatoes are tender. Four servings.

Refrigerate Stuffing

Young turkeys of any size may be roasted. Stuff turkey just before roasting. Stuffing prepared in advance must be refrigerated to prevent danger of food spoilage, caution MSC food specialists. Allow one cup of stuffing per pound ready-to-cook weight.

Fall, Fragrant Doughnuts Always Belong Together

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Inevitable as the fall of leaves at this season of the year is our universal custom of serving cider and doughnuts.

It is believed that a tribe of prehistoric Indians in the southwestern part of the country originated doughnuts, as excavations have revealed among other relics petrified fried cakes with holes in them.

Let's make our fried cakes, or crullers, or Bismarcks so tender and delicious that they'll disappear like magic.

With the increasing use of automatic deep fat fryers, more of you will probably be making your own doughnuts. Follow the instructions that came with your fryer for the best results.

I'm giving you two doughnut recipes today, one with baking powder, one with yeast. No one will guess what the surprise ingredient is in the first recipe. It makes a spicy doughnut, wonderfully different.

Make some now to try; then make up a big batch for Halloween beggars.

Halloween Doughnuts

6 cups sifted flour
2 tablespoons baking powder
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
¼ cup melted shortening
1 can (1¼ cups) condensed tomato soup
Fat for frying

Sift dry ingredients together. Beat eggs and sugar until thick and fluffy; add shortening and tomato soup. Stir into dry ingredients until well blended.

Turn the rather stiff dough onto floured board; roll to one-half-inch thickness; cut with doughnut cutter. Slip doughnuts into 360-degree fat and fry about two minutes on each side. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes about 40 doughnuts.

The following yeast doughnut recipe may be used for Bismarcks or filled doughnuts. Cut the dough with 2½-inch cookie cutter lightly dipped in flour. Allow to stand five minutes.

Place about one-half teaspoon jam or jelly in center of half the rounds and place a second round over the top of each, sandwich fashion. Seal the entire edge firmly by pressing with a fork or between the fingers. Let rise about 45 minutes.

Fry in deep fat at 350 degrees until brown and crisp on both sides, about five minutes. Turn once during cooking. Drain on unglazed paper.

Yeast Doughnuts

2 packages yeast, compressed or dry
¼ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1 cup milk
⅓ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
¼ cup shortening
5 cups sifted enriched flour (about)
2 eggs
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind (if desired)
½ teaspoon nutmeg
Fat for frying

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Add flour to make a thick batter. Mix well.

Add softened yeast, eggs, lemon rind and nutmeg. Beat well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl, cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1½ hours).

When light, punch down. Let rest 10 minutes. Roll out one-half-inch thick. Cut with doughnut cutter. Place on lightly floured baking sheets and let rise until doubled (about one-half hour).

When light, fry in deep hot fat (365 degrees) turning frequently, until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper.

When cool, roll in granulated sugar, or spread lightly with confectioners' sugar icing.

Makes about 3 dozen 3-inch doughnuts.

There are ways of dressing up doughnuts, whether you make your own or buy them from the corner bakery. The two suggested below come from the American Institute of Baking.

Apricot Pecan Doughnuts

½ dozen plain doughnuts
¼ cup apricot jam
1½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 tablespoons chopped pecans

Slice doughnuts in half, crosswise. Combine apricot jam and lemon rind. Spread a teaspoon of jam mixture on each doughnut half and sprinkle with one-half teaspoon pecans.

Heat in a shallow pan in a hot oven (400 degrees) for five minutes. Makes 12 doughnuts.

Butterscotch Cream Doughnuts

½ package butterscotch pudding, 3 ounces, approximately
¾ cup milk
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
4 plain doughnuts
4 teaspoons shredded toasted almonds

Prepare butterscotch pudding by combining it with three-fourths cup milk and cooking according to directions on package. Chill and then fold in whipped cream.

Slice doughnuts in half, crosswise. Spread 2 tablespoons butterscotch mixture between halves of each doughnut. Top each doughnut with 2 tablespoons butterscotch mixture and 1 teaspoon almonds.

Oatmeal Adds Zest to Sugar Cookies

A new version of making sugar cookies is to add oatmeal to the recipe. These crispy rolled cookies will make a hit with the children.

Oatmeal Sugar Cookies

¾ cup shortening (soft)
¾ cup granulated sugar
¾ cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup raisins (washed and drained)
3 cups uncooked rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned).

Measure shortening, sugars, vanilla and eggs into mixing bowl; beat thoroughly. Sift together flour, soda, salt, and cinnamon and mix well with shortening mixture.

Stir in raisins and rolled oats—dough will be quite stiff. Sprinkle a board or pastry cloth with extra granulated sugar.

Roll out dough to about one-fourth inch thickness; sprinkle with granulated sugar. (About one third cup sugar is needed for rolling and sprinkling on top.) Cut with large round cutter.

Bake on greased cookie sheets a few inches apart in a moderate (375 degrees.) oven 12 to 15 minutes.

Fruit and Peanuts Flavor Yam Puffs

Here's something different to serve with chicken, turkey or pork roast. Use canned yams that are firm and colorful and very tasty.

Cranberry Yam Puffs

1 can yams
½ cup drained crushed pineapple
¼ cup chopped salted peanuts
¼ cup cranberry sauce
4 tablespoons butter
1 beaten egg
Salt, pepper and nutmeg to taste
Cranberry sauce for top

Mash yams with fork. Add cranberry sauce. Stir in pineapple, nuts and butter. Gently stir in the beaten egg. Season to taste.

If mixture seems too dry, stir in one-fourth cup evaporated milk.

Divide mixture into four or six well-buttered custard cups. Dot top with butter and a spoonful of sauce.

Bake in 400-degree oven 45 minutes or until set. Loosen with spatula and turn out around roast. Makes four to six servings.

High-Score Butter Has Best Flavor, Texture

Low-score butter doesn't rate as high in flavor and texture as butter with a higher score. The original quality of cream—sweetness or sourness and absence or presence of food flavors—determines the butter score.

Sweet cream butter scores 92-93, while sour cream butter scores are lower. The value, however, is the same regardless of the score. All butter sold must contain 80 per cent butterfat.

CHILI CON CARNE PIE — Here's a perfect main dish for a fall buffet supper. It's chili con carne with a crusty topping of cornmeal pastry or an interesting mashed potato crust. Serve this new version of an old favorite, sure to please everyone.

Satisfy Hearty Appetites With Chili Con Carne Pie

Chili powder is the only true American spice. This reddish powder is a blend of the spices chili pepper, oregano and cumin, plus garlic and salt.

The blend, as we know it today, was developed by early English settlers in the Southwest.

Using spices which grew wild in neighboring Mexico, they developed a seasoning blend along the same lines as the beloved curry powder their ancestors had made in India. The result was a handy spice for flavoring Mexican-type dishes.

Chili and beans seem to go together. Cornmeal and chili are also soul-mates. Chili powder blends well with all types of beef.

Chili Con Carne Pie With Cornmeal Pastry

1 pound ground beef
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon shortening
2 cups (16-ounces) canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons chili powder
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
2½ cups (20 ounces) canned red kidney beans
Corn meal pastry

Brown meat, onion and green pepper in the shortening. Add tomatoes and seasonings. Cook until thickened (10 to 15 minutes). Add kidney beans. Heat thoroughly. Turn into a 1½-quart casserole.

Cover with cornmeal pastry rolled one-eighth-inch thick. Trim, turn under and flute edge. Cut a gash in the top to allow for escape of steam. Bake 20 minutes or until done in a hot oven (425 degrees). Yield: Six to eight servings.

Cornmeal Pastry

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
½ cup cornmeal
¾ teaspoon salt
½ cup shotening
About 4 tablespoons cold water

Sift the first three ingredients together. Add shortening and cut it in until the flour-coated particles are the size of dried beans. Sprinkle water over the top.

Toss the mixture lightly with a fork. Turn out onto a pastry board. Form into a ball. Roll to one-eighth inch thickness, 1 inch larger than the casserole.

Potato Pastry

1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
¾ cup cold mashed unseasoned potatoes
1 tablespoon milk

Sift first three ingredients. Add shortening. Mix until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Stir in milk.

Chocolate Chip Tortoni Is Quick, Easy Dessert

For a quick and easy dessert—try Chocolate Chip Tortoni. Fold one package semi-sweet chocolate pieces and one teaspoon almond flavoring into one quart softened vanilla ice cream.

Spoon into paper baking cups and sprinkle with chopped toasted almonds. Freeze until firm. Garnish each with a Maraschino cherry.

Spaghetti and Sauce Will Please Crowd

Have you thrown a party recently? After the lazy summer months, now's the time to invite your friends to a buffet supper.

A main dish which always goes over with the crowd is spaghetti with meat sauce. Here's the kitchen-tested recipe for an especially delicious meat sauce for spaghetti.

Spaghetti Meat Sauce

2 pounds ground beef
4 tablespoons fat
1 cup chopped onions
2 cloves garlic
2/3 cup coarsely chopped green pepper (optional)
2 No. 2 cans tomatoes (5 cups)
2 cans tomato paste
1 bay leaf
4 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
2 teaspoons chili powder
Salt, pepper, sugar
2 (8 oz.) packages spaghetti
Parmesan cheese

In a heavy deep pan, heat fat and in it lightly brown onions. Push to one side, add beef and sear thoroughly.

Add minced garlic, green pepper, tomatoes, tomato paste, bay leaf, Worcestershire sauce, chili powder, 2 teaspoons salt, one-half teaspoon pepper and 2 teaspoons sugar.

Cook, covered, over low heat for 1½ hours, stirring occasionally and adding a little water if needed. Remove bay leaf and add extra salt, if necessary; serve over hot cooked spaghetti.

Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Eight servings.

Try Bean Sandwich

Spoon heated canned baked beans over buttered toast and top with thin rounds of frankfurter and finely chopped onion for a lunch or supper sandwich. Heat the frankfurter rounds in a skillet for the open sandwich.

Salad Rings Topped by Cottage Cheese

Cottage Cheese Cranberry Rings

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
3 cups whole cooked cranberries and juice
1 cup finely diced celery
1½ cups creamed cottage cheese
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ cup slivered, toasted almonds
Lettuce

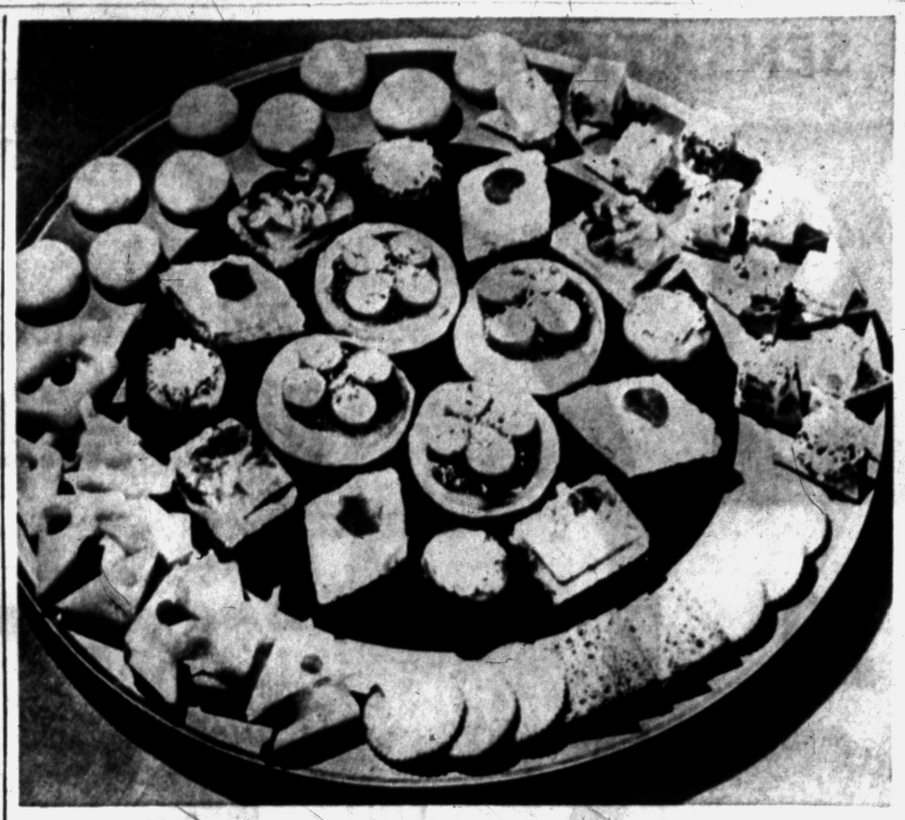

Dissolve gelatin in hot water; cool until partially thickened. Fold in cranberries and juice, and celery.

Turn into six individual ring molds rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp green lettuce cups.

Fill centers with cottage cheese, seasoned with salt and lemon juice. Top each ring with slivered, toasted almonds. Serves six.

Freeze Them Fast

Freeze fruits and vegetables soon after they are packed. Put them in the freezer, a few packages at a time, as you have them ready. Or keep the packages in the refrigerator until all you are doing at one time are ready. Then transfer them to your freezer.

HOT CHEESE APPETIZERS — You'll rate tops with your party guests when they enjoy tasty morsels from the appetizer cheese tray. The center portion of the tray shown in this picture is removable—use it under the broiler, then insert it in the tray for serving.

Keep some buffet size cans of onions on hand; add them to green beans, peas or carrots when you want to give cooked vegetables flavor variety.

Oranges Spark Yam Casserole

Southern Yam and Orange Casserole will be a real conversation piece as well as a delicious accompaniment to ham, turkey or chicken at your next company buffet supper.

A dish of distinction, the casserole combines alternate layers of thinly sliced yams and unpeeled oranges. Each layer is dotted with butter, sprinkled with brown sugar and bathed in a honey-wine sauce.

Southern Yam and Orange Casserole

3 pounds yams
2 unpeeled oranges, sliced paper-thin
½ cup (firmly packed) brown sugar
¼ cup butter or margarine
½ cup muscatel, sweet sherry or other dessert wine
¼ cup strained honey
¼ cup fine, dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon melted butter

Scrub yams. Boil, covered, in their jackets for 20 to 30 minutes, or just until tender. Drain. When cool, peel and cut crosswise in thin slices.

Arrange alternate layers of yam slices and orange slices in a greased 2-quart casserole, ending with a layer of yam slices.

Sprinkle each layer with some of the one-half cup brown sugar and dot with some of the one-fourth cup butter. Mix wine and honey; pour over contents of casserole.

Mix crumbs, the 2 tablespoons brown sugar and the 1 tablespoon melted butter; sprinkle over top, cover and bake in a moderate oven (350) for 50 minutes; uncover and continue baking 15 minutes to crisp the top. Serves eight.

Serve Broiled Kebabs

Pair Puffy Cheese Balls With Hot Tomato Cocktail

It's time to serve cheese.

This statement applies whenever it's time to eat and enjoy good food. Perhaps you think you've already served cheese in some way at all the many times it's appropriate. But have you tried a hot appetizer cheese tray for the party crowd?

Here's how to make attractive cheese appetizers—

Cheese Appetizer Balls

½ cup butter, softened
2 cups shredded sharp cheddar cheese
1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon paprika

Cream butter and blend in cheese. Add flour and seasonings and mix well. Roll into balls about three-fourths inch in diameter. If the dough is too sticky to handle, chill for several hours.

Place balls on a greased cookie sheet about 2 inches apart. Bake at 350 degrees for 10 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet while still warm. Makes 3 dozen.

Cheese and Bacon Strips

Cut lightly toasted bread into strips about 2 inches long and spread with chili sauce. Cover with a slice of sharp cheddar cheese, then a partially cooked strip of bacon. Broil until the cheese is bubbly and the bacon is crisp and serve at once.

* * *

Broiled Shrimp Appetizers

1 cup shredded sharp cheddar cheese
2 teaspoons cream
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 4½-ounce can shrimp, shredded
½ cup mayonnaise
2 teaspoons grated onion

Melt cheese in a saucepan over very low heat. Add cream and Worcestershire sauce and mix well. Remove from heat and add shrimp.

Spread on toasted bread cut in rectangles and brown under the broiler. Serve at once topped with small pieces of pimiento if desired. Makes enough for about 2 dozen small sandwiches.

Baby Pizzas

6 small English muffins, split
12 slices sharp cheddar cheese
¾ cup chili sauce
3 frankfurters, sliced crosswise
Salad or olive oil
Oregano
Grated Parmesan cheese

Top each English muffin half with one slice of cheddar cheese, 1 tablespoon of chili sauce and four small slices of frankfurter. Drizzle on salad or olive oil, then sprinkle with oregano and grated Parmesan cheese.

Broil until the cheese is bubbly and serve at once. Makes 12 appetizers.

Cheese-Stuffed Mushrooms

Medium sized fresh mushrooms
Softened butter
Shredded sharp cheddar cheese

Remove stems from mushrooms and rub the outsides with butter. Fill them with the shredded cheese and broil for about five minutes or until the mushrooms are cooked and the cheese bubbles.

Rich Drop Biscuits Made With Cheese

Here is a rich drop biscuit flavored with cheese.

Easy Cheese Biscuits

1 cup sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon sugar
½ cup grated cheddar cheese (lightly packed)
¼ cup heavy cream
¼ cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into mixing bowl; stir in cheese. Stir cream and milk together; add to dry ingredients; stir just until dry ingredients are moistened.

Drop in 10 mounds on small ungreased baking sheet. Bake in a very hot (450 degrees) oven about 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve at once.

Star Casserole at Buffet Supper

Why not plan a Sunday night buffet soon? Casserole dishes are especially suited to buffet serving, and this delicious Chicken Macaroni Medley can be popped into the oven half an hour before the guests arrive.

Toss a salad of escarole or lettuce, with cucumber slices and onion rings, tomato wedges or strips of pimiento.

Serve fruit ambrosia, with orange, pineapple and banana slices topped with coconut for dessert.

Complete the tempting meal with hot coffee served in paper cups. Then sit back and enjoy your own party, secure in the knowledge that there's quick and easy clean-up after your guests have gone.

Chicken Macaroni Medley

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
2 cups elbow macaroni (8 ounces)
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup minced onion
¼ cup all-purpose flour
2 cups chicken bouillon
1 cup cooked peas
2 canned pimientos, cut in thin strips
2 cups diced, cooked chicken
Salt and pepper to taste
¼ teaspoon thyme

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Melt butter or margarine over low heat. Add onion and saute until tender. Add flour and blend. Gradually add bouillon and cook until thickened, stirring constantly.

Add macaroni and remaining ingredients to sauce. Turn into greased 2-quart casserole. Bake in moderate 350-degree oven 25 to 30 minutes, or until bubbly. Makes six servings.

FROZEN POULTRY STIX—Here's a preview of a new food product to come, Frozen Turkey and Chicken Stix. Well-seasoned chicken and turkey meat in a smooth sauce is molded into finger-length pieces similar to the now popular fish sticks. Watch for them in your frozen food cabinets.

Apple Juice Welcomed

Keep plenty of apple juice chilling in the refrigerator for the high school crowd. It's a drink that teenagers welcome with gusto. It's sweet but not too sweet. Crackers spread with peanut butter go well with it.

Poultry Sticks to Bow In Soon

Here's the latest convenient food item that will be pleasing to the family and popular with the cook! It's frozen sticks made of chicken and turkey meat—ready to heat quickly in the oven or thaw and eat without further ado. What could be easier?

Not only will you have pre-dinner time to spend with your family but you will also be borrowing the know-how of one of the country's leading chefs.

The recipe for these new frozen poultry sticks was developed by Gerhard Knaak, supervising chef de cuisine for the world famous El Mirador Hotel, Palm Springs, Cal.

Choice turkey and chicken meat delicately seasoned is combined with Spanish onion in a smooth, rich sauce. Then this mixture is shaped into finger-length sticks.

They are already cooked. All you have to do is place them on a cookie sheet and pop them in a preheated hot oven (400 degrees) for 10 minutes.

Besides enjoying them at regular meals your family will love them for night owl snacks or party hors d'oeuvres. They come eight to the package.

This new 8-ounce frozen food product will be distributed to outlets in the next few months. You will want to add this to your list of good things to come.

It's easy to plan menus around these quick-to-fix poultry sticks:

Frozen Poultry Stix
Parsley Buttered Potatoes
Broccoli with Hollandaise Sauce
Tossed Green Salad
Hard Rolls Butter
Chilled Fruit Bowls
Coffee Milk Tea

Store Fruit-Filled Squash to Brighten Winter Meals

Supplying yellow vegetables for the family's diet to help meet essential vitamin A needs is a problem to many homemakers, for there are fewer vegetables in this category than almost any other. It takes much planning to avoid monotony.

Therefore, the homemaker would do well to bolster her menu repertoire with acorn squash, which is now on the market in harvest-season abundance. She can brighten menus for a year ahead by making quantities of a selected squash dish and storing it in the home freezer.

Glazed acorn squash, with tasty accents of apricot, lemon and orange flavors, is a special dish developed and tested by the home economics institute of a freezer company.

Here is how the dish was prepared in the test kitchens:

Wash, halve, remove fiber and seeds of six acorn squash. Arrange in baking pan, cut side down. Add one-fourth cup water. Cover. Bake in preheated 400-degree oven 30 minutes, until just tender when pierced with long-tined fork.

Cook until soft one 10-ounce package dried apricots. Chill. Force through food mill. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons frozen orange concentrate and a dash of salt.

Fill squash cavities with fruit. Freeze on cookie sheets. Store with cut sides together, separated by double cellophane disks. Assemble in family portions in poultry-size polyethelene bags. Freezer storage life: 12 months.

To thaw and serve, remove from bag and separate. Heat, cut side up, in preheated 350-degree oven in covered casserole 45 minutes. Remove cover for last 15 minutes to glaze fruit.

Glazed squash is delicious served with baked veal chops and tossed salad.

Pastry Tube Versatile

There are a number of ways you can use your pastry tube decorating set. It not only does a festive job of frosting for cakes and cookies, but it will make delightful mashed potato borders for casseroles, fancy toppings for canape spreads and whipped-cream decorations for chiffon and other pies.

Doukhobors Going to School

Classes Start to Tell on Youngsters of Jailed Sectarians in Canada

NEW DENVER, B. C. (UP) — Twenty-two Dukhobor children taken from their imprisoned law-breaking parents and placed in a special school here are beginning to show signs of shedding the practices of the fanatic Sons of Freedom sect, officials said.

The children started school after their parents were given jail terms for nude parading at Perry's Siding, 30 miles south of this interior British Columbian town, last November.

The school is a former sanatorium, and is retained under the provincial government's new policy in dealing with the Freedomites.

When their schooling started in December, the children showed a rebellious streak. Protests, damage to buildings, stripping and hunger strikes became part of the daily routine.

Gradually, however, the children are settling down, according to their teachers, and in most cases, outside interests are taking the place of demonstrations.

Older teen-agers, who knew better the intricacies of the Freedomite religion, and spurred the younger ones on, have been weeded out. Those remaining are following the guidance of Welfare Supervisor Robert Ross of Vancouver and School Inspector J. J. McKenzie.

Their teacher is Mrs. A. M. Stevens, who says they "act like any normal children" in the classroom. She adds, however, that the children are still unsure of themselves.

A special school program has been drawn up by McKenzie. The curriculum avoids violations of their religion, especially militarism, the biggest block to their acceptance of Canada's laws.

Judge's 'Hot Rod' Gives No Trouble to Troopers

FALLS CHURCH, Va. (UP)—State and county police, who keep an eye peeled for "hot rod" drivers, aren't wasting any time watching a certain "Maust 540" which is the envy of hot rod fans in the area.

The Maust 540 was built by County Judge Albert Maust from $85 worth of parts from five makes of cars. It took the judge, who is also a flyer, 540 hours to build it.

The milk output on United States farms in June, 1954, totaled 12.7 billion pounds, the second highest production for the month in 25 years.

If He Tries Too Hard, He'll Be Out of Work

COULEE DAM, Wash. (UP)— A.W. Empie has been appointed administrator of this government-owned town and one of his main jobs is to work himself out of one.

Property in the town of 1,400 is to be sold to the residents or other private buyers. The government founded the town at the start of construction of Grand Coulee Dam on the Columbia River 20 years ago.

Forty Five in a Roe

NORTHFIELD, Minn. (UP) —Every year since 1900 when Imbert Roe enrolled at St. Olaf College there has been at least one Roe registered at the school. Alfred Roe of Montevideo, Minn., who entered St. Olaf this year, is the 45th member of the family to become a student there.

The number of one-room schools in the United States has shrunk from 196,000 in 1917-18 to 45,000 today.

Dean Among Bartenders Has Never Taken a Drink

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP) — He's into his 67th year now as a bartender, and he's never taken a drink nor smoked.

At 81, he boasts of putting in eight hours behind the bar six nights each week and says he won't even think of retiring for at least four or five more years.

That's Eddie Gerber, a bald man, five-foot-six, 130 pounds, who moves with the speed and grace of one many years his junior.

Eddie claims the title of "dean of American mixologists." He says he has been a bartender all his working life, having learned the trade as a boy in his father's saloon in Monroe, Wis.

Eddie was 15 years old then, back in 1887. That was long before most of his colleagues in the trade were born.

"When I develop a habit, I stick with it," he said.

Perhaps that accounts for the fact that he has voted the straight Democratic ticket for 60 years.

"I'm not about to change," he said.

Eddie recalls two incidents most vividly, as he looks back on his long service to America's drinkers.

"I remember sitting on John Ringling's lap in my father's saloon when I was a boy," he said. "And I remember very well, too, listening to John Callahan tell about how he ran Carry Nation out of his place with a siphon bottle. She got soaked and never did come back."

Eddie said it was no accident that he never did take that first drink. He credits his father.

"He used to swell me up in his own place, boasting to crowds of people: 'That's my boy, Eddie, never took a drink in his life.'

"He bragged about that so much, I just knew he got real pleasure telling people. I just couldn't take a drink."

Standard Army Posture Unhealthy, Doctor Says

RICHMOND, Va. (UP) — If the Army listens to Dr. Alvan L. Barach there'll be no more of this "throw out your chest" posture. The same goes for the movie queens in Hollywood.

"You're a lot better off if you walk around in a slouch like a gorilla," said Dr. Barach who is professor of clinical medicine at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons in a lecture here.

"Never stand erect," he added. "It's not healthy. Your lungs stay filled up. The position the Army teaches is vicious. We should all learn to breathe with our diaphragms — like singers do."

Bob Considine Says

Boy Hunter Gets Pheasant With 2nd Shot of His Life

NEW YORK (INS)—Ben Wright, my idea of a sportsman, knew the place to go—the Suffolk Lodge Game Preserve, at Brookhaven, Long Island, N. Y. Gil Robb Wilson, one of the great men of American aviation, had the gun. I still don't know the name, gauge and caliber of the gun involved, for I am not of this sport.

But a boy knew, making me understand all over again that you never know about a kid.

One day this boy said, "please, Pop, I don't want nothing else as long as I live . . . just a gun—the kind you go hunting with."

You never know. You feel that because it isn't in you it isn't really in the kids you're hanging around to raise, and that they'll forget about it soon and get interested in things like the New York Giants, and flying machines, politics, the bomb, the fight against disease, good books, good food.

This one with the gun fixation didn't change, and made known his steadfastness night and day. So it came up Columbus Day, which was a holiday in his school, and the aforementioned Messrs. Wright and Wilson were kind enough to help.

The Suffolk Lodge Game Preserve used to be one of those great private affairs stretched out to sea along Long Island and connected with the rest of that province by a fine old toll road built by a Vanderbilt.

Now the lodge raises pheasants from the egg, sets them loose in extensive fields before a shooting party arrives, charges $5 a bird whether it is bagged or not, provides a dog and guide, and does its best to simulate conditions which must have existed from the earliest days.

The experts, Messrs. Wright and Wilson, told this boy he had a lifetime of shooting before him, if he was truly that interested. (He had pestered the patient men on the way to the preserve by asking them about types of guns whose names I had never heard. But they did not seem pestered.)

So, they said, he was not to worry about all of the misses he would have. The pheasant, they explained, was hardly distinguishable from the lowslung and and often thick vegetation, never flew as expected, and could go like a bat out of a belfrey when flushed.

Ben Wright walked beside the boy through the panorama of autumn, reminding him of the position of his safety device on the gun, reminding him that Mr. Wilson was on the other side of the hedgerow. A wonderful Pointer named June, head sometimes held as high as a grande dame, swept back and forth ahead of us like a fine and busy center fielder.

And then an incredibly beautiful creature thrust itself into the air from an impassible thicket and streaked away. Wright flicked off the safety device on the boy's gun. The kid wheeled, fired, and there was a confusion of feathers and a heavy thud against the adjoining tapestry of fall.

June was off with a yip and brought the bird back to the boy's feet. It was the second time in his life he had ever fired a shotgun, and the first one was a practice job against the sky.

His eyes widened. He was oblivious to the bravos of the experts. "The poor thing," he said. "I should've given her more of a chance." Then he slipped another shell in the gun. "Let's go," he said . . . and always will.

John Roosevelt to Stump for Florida Republicans

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — John Roosevelt, son of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, will campaign for Republican candidates for Congress in the 1st and 7th districts.

Roosevelt was scheduled to arrive here by plane then go to Lakeland with GOP candidate E. B. Sutton of the 7th District. Tonight he will speak at a Republican rally in Sarasota.

Tomorrow, he speaks at St. Petersburg and Tampa for William C. Cramer, running in the 1st district.

The first free school in the New World was probably established in Dorchester, Mass. in 1639, says the National Geographic Society.

Auto Graveyard Guards Shoreline of State Resort

SOUTH HAVEN (AP) — A South Haven tourist resort owner has turned his Lake Michigan frontage into an automobile graveyard. It's a five-year experiment to combat erosion.

Allen T. Chesebro, 72, inventor and collector, designed the weird breakwall for his Evergreen Resort. He says the scheme is working well and keeps his fingers crossed for continued success.

It protects a row of six tourist cottages lined along the top of a 30-foot cliff which drops to the beach.

Chesebro got 15 discarded auto bodies from the South Haven city dump.. He placed them with several huge uprooted trees and anchored everything with steel cable.

His problem, he says, was to find inexpensive material heavy enough to withstand the continuous pounding of Lake Michigan's waves. Apparently it's done the trick.

But the breakwall is only one of a list of curious sprinkled generously about the Chesebro resort: A World War II cannon from the Battle of the Bulge; odd bits of driftwood shaped into small animals; the "world's largest mailbox;" an abandoned lead mine and an office built from spars off the wrecked City of Green Bay, which sank nearby in 1887.

The mailbox is an awesome thing. Chesebro built it in 1933 after passing motorists had mowed down his standard roadside mailboxes five times. Eight feet tall on its 15-inch steel beam frame, the cylinder-shaped container was copied from a blockbuster bomb. It rests on a 16-ton concrete base.

About the tourist business itself, the sprightly resort operator has a gloomy outlook.

"We had our best years back in 1925-26 and 1927, before the crash. We used to have as many as 1,700 guests here in a season," he recalls.

"We only took care of around 350 this summer. Sightseers do not appreciate things like they used to," he concludes.

But if he grows slightly disconcerted over the tourist trend, Chesebro cheers himself with new inventions. That's where he shines.

Women drivers were involved in about 2,200,000 auto accidents in 1953 says the National Safety Council.

Research May Better Fishing

U-M Professor Studies Habits of Marine Life Near Bermuda

ANN ARBOR—New ideas to help solve the problems of Michigan's commercial fishing industry may come from a University of Michigan professor's recent research in Bermuda's subtropical waters.

John E. Bardach, U-M assistant professor of fisheries, has just returned from an eight-week stay on the island where he was studying, at the government's request, Bermuda's commercial fishing possibilities.

As part of his study, Prof. Bardach spent much of his time sitting on the ocean bottom, equipped with an aqualung, observing such fish habits as reactions when trapped and peaks inactivity to determine best trapping times.

"A fish's short attention span can well be made use of in commercial fishing," he says. "For example, when caught in a chamber-type trap, the fish will try to escape by nosing around the edge, but only in short spurts, changing location often," he points out.

"Because of this indeterminate behavior," the professor continues, "it is strictly an accident when the fish finds the chamber opening through which he can escape."

According to Prof. Bardach, fish often follow the trap wire right up to the opening and then stop and turn to another area. This knowledge could be useful when designing or modifying traps or nets.

South Africa to Pick Malan's Successor

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — The dominant Nationalist party's members in the South African Parliament will meet here Nov. 30 to name a successor to Prime Minister Daniel E. Malan, it was announced yesterday.

The choice is expected to fall on Deputy Prime Minister N.C. Havenga, 72, who advocates a fairly moderate course for race-troubled South Africa. He would also serve as leader of the Nationalist party.

Malan, 80, an uncompromising advocate of white supremacy, announced yesterday he would retire at the end of November. No reason for his decision has been announced, but it is generally believed due to failing health.

One of every two homes in America will be struck by cancer, according to estimates of the American Cancer Society which is seeking $20,000,000 for cancer control this year.

Birds' Migratory Instincts Still Puzzling to Science

WASHINGTON—Birds of land and water are winging south again, urged by inner clocks and following mysterious compasses that science still scarcely comprehends.

From arctic tundra where ice now films the sloughs and bays the long range navigators come—Canadian geese, green headed mallards, and the amazing Arctic terns that fly all the way to the tips of Africa and South America, the National Geographic Society says.

Migratory waterfowl — wild ducks, geese, and brant—have had a good year on northern breeding grounds. Along the great flyways of the United States, average or better-than-average numbers of birds will soon be running the gauntlet of hunters' guns, according to United States Fish and Wildlife predictions.

Four such broad aerial rivers channel a majority of all migrating water birds down across the continent: the Atlantic Flyway, the Mississippi, the Central, and the Pacific.

Since the earliest Americans watched huge flocks honk by in "V" formation, such birds have followed the same natural shorelines and river systems north and south with the seasons. But men still do not know exactly what impulses set birds to flying, and what instincts guide them to the same nesting and wintering grounds year after year.

Dr. Arthur A. Allen, Cornell University ornithologist, writes both of inner physiological controls and intricate "releasers" from the outside environment, telling birds when it is time to migrate, to stop migrating, to sing, to fight, to mate. He summarizes man's findings in his recent book, "Stalking Birds with Color Camera," published by the National Geographic Society.

Different species of birds start their annual journeys at different times. Robins, the early birds of spring, stay north relatively late. Egrets and eagles, like wrong-way Corrigans, often fly north instead of south in early autum until winter turns them back.

For many kinds of birds, amateur watchers scan the night skies to see them pass. Often only the rustle of thousands of wings, or shadows crossing the face of the harvest moon, reveal the flight of the warblers and vireos, the thrushes and tanagers, and the other land birds that travel by night and feed by day.

How do they find their way? It may be by the sun, or by some little — understood rotational force from the spinning earth; by polarized light, or magnetic influences. No one really knows.

But fly they do, sometimes tremendous distances non-stop over open ocean, then return in the spring to the same spots but by different routes. The Pacific golden plover travels 2,400 miles each fall from Alaska to Hawaii, without one speck of land between the two.

The Arctic tern, long-distance champion, surpasses this trip by far. From as far north as there is land, on islands rimming the Arctic Sea, these birds sometimes cross the Atlantic to Europe, wing south over all of Africa, recross the ocean by way of Antarctic islands, and return in the spring via South America and the Caribbean — matter of some 22,000 miles in a year's travel.

The nation's largest post office serves only two of New York's five boroughs—Manhattan and the Bronx. Yet it earns a tenth of United States postal revenue and every day dispatches an average 17,000,000 pieces of mail.

Susan Hayward Can't Take Sons to Hong Kong

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Susan Hayward, denied court permission yesterday to take her twin sons on a movie location trip to Hong Kong, says she won't go without them.

The actress had said from the witness stand: "I don't think a mother should be away from her children for long, and the trip would help broaden the boys' education." She won custody of 10-year-old Timothy and Gregory in a bitterly contested divorce trial last May.

Superior Judge Herbert Walker sustained the contention of her former husband, actor Jess Barker, that Hong Kong is not a safe place for the children. Barker's lawyer, S. S. Hahn, argued that Hong Kong is "a dangerous place infested with Communists and disease."

Studio officials, who testified the boys would be given first-class accommodations if allowed to go, had no comment on Miss Hayward's assertion she wouldn't leave without them.

Notice of Intention for grading, graveling and related work on Pleasantview Drive from Hillsmont Avenue to E. line Lot 181 Woodward Estates Sub.

You are hereby notified that at a regular meeting of the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan held on the 12th day of October, 1954, by resolution it was declared to be the intention of the City Commission for grading, graveling and related work on Pleasantview Drive from Hillsmont Avenue to E. line of Lot 181 Woodward Estates Sub. at an estimated cost of $973.78 and that the plan, profile and estimate of said improvement is on file for public inspection.

Hopi Indian Placed Second in 1912 Olympic Race at 40

NEW YORK (AP)—Louis Tewanima, a wrinkled Hopi tribesman who in his youth was one of America's greatest distance runners, has decided he doesn't want to live in New York.

"Too many no-Indians here," explained the octogenarian racer, after two days of sightseeing amid Manhattan's tall stone tepees.

Tewanima prefers the mighty mesas of Arizona, where his people have dwelt as peacefully as the outside world would let them for more than 1,000 years.

This was his first visit here in 42 years, since he returned to the reservation after placing second in the 10,000-meter race in the 1912 Olympics at Stockholm—at about the age of 40. It was one of only three races in his career he failed to win.

Recently he was named a member of the all-time U.S. Olympic track and field team in a poll conducted by the Helms Athletic Foundation. He came here to attend a fund-raising dinner for the 1956 Olympic team, and the old fellow was quite touched to be remembered after all these years.

Running is natural to him, as it is to all Hopi Indians. Through an interpeter—he speaks halting English—82-year-old Tewanima explained:

"It is part of our religion. The body is our temple, and we must keep it well."

As a boy Louis, who is now a high-ranking Hopi priest, trained by running to earth jackrabbits, wild horses and antelope. He ran them down on foot.

"Catch jackrabbit in few minutes," he said gravely. "Antelope take half a day. Not so long to catch horse. Horse get tired."

To prove he had reached manhood and was entitled to become head of a family, Tewanima ran 150 miles in a day at the shuffling lope peculiar to his tribe.

"If no run fast," he said, "can run for long time."

Tewanima can still travel 10 to 20 miles a day easily. He takes care of his own herd of 100 sheep and tills his own garden. Here is his recipe for living long and staying healthy:

"Eat good, keep sheep, keep garden."

The subway—"Ugh!"

After climbing the steps inside the Statue of Liberty—"It's a big woman."

Asked what he thought about the atom bomb, Tewanima looked puzzled, then asked with complete dignity:

"What that mean?"

To that question what answer can anyone give? Who knows?

Tewanima, who wears his hair long as his forefathers did, worships the same gods they did. He gets no pension from the great white father, and in his 80s is still as independent and free as the winds that blow across the mesas where he lives.

The Hopis have always believed in peace and brotherhood. Tewanima brought with him a handwritten message "from my people" as moving as it is ungrammatical:

"—We shall not be ashamed of ourself as being who we are, but to stand firm on our own foundation, to walk along together as brothers and sisters, holding fast to our identity to receive grand and glory at the end."

Do you know of a better short sermon than that on faith and tolerance?

Marie McDonald Gets Custody of 2 Children

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actress Marie (The Body) McDonald has been awarded custody of her two children by wealthy shoe store owner Harry Karl, who will pay $500 monthly for their support. Court approval was granted yesterday.

The 4-year-old children, Danice and Harrison, were adopted by the couple, who separated two months ago. The youngsters will share in a trust fund set up by Karl's father and receive equal rights with any children Karl himself may father in the future.

Air Force Offering Enlistees 'Vacation'

Young men of the Oakland and Macomb county area enlisting in the Air Force will now be given a ten day "vacation" at the end of their basic training, Master Sergeant Francis H. Casey announced today.

Sgt. Casey, in charge of the USAF recruiting office at 53½ W. Huron St., added that this policy will become effective with classes graduating in December, 1954, for Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., or Sampson AFB, N.Y.

This ten day "delay en route," as it is known in military terms, will be granted all basic military training graduates, prior service airmen and AFROTC enlistees from the above bases. Ordinary leave is granted airmen graduating prior to effective date of the new policy.

Bondless Bondsmen

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—Officers found they were unable to collect a $2,500 bond Judge Willis McGregor ordered forfeited when the defendant in a burglary case failed to appear. One of the bondsmen was serving a federal prison term.

Calls for New Party

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—John Borden of Spring Lake, a retired financier, Wednesday called for the creation of a new political party. He told a meeting the new party could rally around Sens. Knowland (R-Calif) and Johnson (D-Tex). He said the new party should demand the United States quit the United Nations and oppose universal military training favored by President Eisenhower.

Before the 16th Century, sugar usually was used more as a medicine than a food.

School Tax Reduced

LUDINGTON (AP)—The Ludington School Board has reduced a special school tax imposed for the school debt retirement fund. The tax was cut from 6 mills to 4½ mills. Board spokesmen said revised property evaluations would provide sufficient funds for the levy to retire bonds for the recently built junior high school.

Constant Runnerup Chataway Comes Into Own

By MILTO MARMOR

LONDON, (AP)—Britain's sports-loving millions today cheered the name of Chris Chataway, a runner who was second no longer.

The former Oxford athlete last night conquered Russia's great distance star, Vladimir Kuc, as 40,000 went wild at White City Stadium.

Red haired Chris turned in one of track and fields most masterful performances in the 5,000 meters with an almost unbelievable world record time of 13 minutes 51.6 seconds.

Chris edged out world-record holder Kuc by a yard in a race that will take its place among the very greatest in trackdom's lore.

Until last night, it seemed the 25-year-old Chataway was destined to run second in all the world record races of 1954.

He was second to Dr. Roger Bannister's first 4-minute mile.

He was second to John Landy's now world mile mark of 3:58.

He was second when Freddie Green of England set the 3-mile mark.

And he was second when Leningrad sailor Kuc won the European 5,000-meter chapionship at Bern this August in previous world-record time of 13:56.6.

But not last night under floodlights as Moscow's track and field men and women piled up easy team victories over London squads.

This 5,000 meters was Chataway's revenge.

He had made the mistake of trailing Emil Zatopek of Chezchoslovia at Bern while Kuc moved far in the van where he never could be headed.

Kuc started out last night with Chataway on his heels and they passed the mile in the very fast time of 4:24.4.

Then came one of those moments in track history.

On the sixth lap Kuc poured it on, and almost sprinted a quarter mile in 62.5 seconds.

But he never got away from Chataway.

They settled down to pass two miles in 8:54.6, and the other runners in the race lagged far behind.

Nothing changed until the final 10 yards.

With reserve born of desperation Chataway forced himself home first.

Another world mark went by the boards when Juriy Lituyev of Russia, who at 32 had been considered about finished, smashed the 400-yard hurdles record of 51.6 established two years ago on the same White City track by America's Charlie Moore, the 1952 Olympic champion.

Lituyev turned the tables on Antolij Yulin who defeated him in the European championships this year. Lituyev was clocked in 51.3.

Moscow took the men's meet by 103 to 56 points and the women's by 56 to 32.

Pontiac High will face one of the highest scoring prep football teams in the state Friday, when Bay City Central comes here for a Saginaw Valley Conference battle.

Central's Wolves have piled up 130 points in winning three of its four starts. Their top scoring effort was a 51-0 rout of cross-town rival Handy two weeks ago.

Two hard running backs, left half George Stevenson and fullback Namon Smith, have accounted for 13 of the Wolves' 20 touchdowns. Stevenson has scored four TD's on short runs and four more on passes for quarterback Jim Chesney.

The fleet 165-pound senior is the squad's top runner, with a 7.9-yard average in 48 tries. Smith, probably the state's smallest fullback as 132 pounds, has averaged 6.1 yards in 67 plays.

Directing Coach Elmer Engel's T-formation is junior Jim Chesney, who boasts an amazing passing completion mark of .812 per cent. He has completed 13 of 16 attempts for 313 yards and five touchdowns. Stevenson has been Chesney's favorite target, taking seven of the tosses.

Central's big line will outweigh Pontiac 20 pounds per man. Three huskies—225-pound guard LaVere Roseberry, 20-pound tackle John Gower and 215-pound tackle Bill Grein—boost the Wolves' average to 190 pounds. Pontiac's biggest men are end John James and center Wayne Pyke, a pair of 180-pounders.

On the other hand, Pontiac's backfield goes 176 pounds as compared to a 155-pound average for Bay City.

Athletic Official Says AL Put Pressure on Mack

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Tommy Richardson, president of the Eastern League and a director of the Philadelphia Athletics, charged last night that the American League "put the pressure" on Roy Mack to agree to sell the A's to Arnold Johnson.

Richardson, who also entered a bid to rthe franchise, said he "felt we got a bad deal in Chicago."

"The meeting was called to give Roy an opportunity to buy out his brother Earle's stock," Richardson declared, "and while there were a lot of people there . . . the only one to offer a cashier's check was my man, Charles O. Finley."

Finley, a Gary, Ind., insurance man, submitted two checks totaling $450,000, the price set for Earle's 163 shares of stock. He said he would shift the Athletics to Minneapolis-St. Paul.

"The checks he brought in were made out to Roy Mack, and the idea was for him to endorse them and take possession of Earle's stock," Richardson said.

"But we were not prepared for the league to go as far as it did, and I am sure Roy left with the understanding that he had until Monday to decide whether he would sell. My understanding is that he is committed only to let Johnson have his stock—if he sells at all.

"They were throwing a lot of pressure on Roy. Frank Lane (Chicago general manager) was quoted as saying, 'Kansas City or bankruptcy.' Well are we going to let the sheriff take the club away from us to Kansas City?"

SETS RECORD — Russian hurdler Yuriy Lituyev bettered the listed world mark for the 440-yard hurdles yesterday by winning event in 51.3 seconds in Moscow-London track meet in London. His time was 3/10 of a second better than world mark set by America's Charlie Moore in 1952.

You Be the Quarterback

By Warren Geer
Head Football Coach
Drake University

You are behind 6-0 with eight minutes to go in the 3rd quarter. Your T-formation Miami team has completed a long pass to a halfback, who has raced to the Mississippi State four-yard line.

Then, on 1st down and four, a quick opener with the left half carrying failed to gain. A quarterback sneak made one yard.

Now you, the Miami quarterback, are faced with a 3rd down and three situation. The Maroons are meeting you with practically an eight - man line as the 5-3-3 defense they have used previously has been modified for the goal line stand.

Rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4 as the Miami quarterback:

Off tackle slant
Quarterback sneak
Pitchout around end
Fake buck and short pass

Gridiron Feud Is Shaping Up in Southwest

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — There is quite a show of gridiron bulldogging in prospect for the Southwest Conference in this season's football race.

The Texas Longhorn, who tied with the Rice Institute Owls to lead the conference race last season, will find the Owls again their most threatening co: tor. Also the Longhorns will find the Baylor University Bears a rival with a strong team which is coming back for revenge.

Texas beat Baylor last season by the slim margin of 21 to 20.

Robinson May Make Comeback

Sugar Ray to Reveal Plans at Conference With Press

NEW YORK (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, who has been talking about making a comeback to the ring, will announce his plans at a press conference tomorrow and the rumor is that he'll be back fighting before long.

Less than a week ago, his manager, George Gainford said Sugar Ray, former two-division champion, might come back to earn enough money to sponsor an around-the-world song and dance show. Robinson has spent the last 28 months in show business.

Asked what he had in mind, Robinson hedged:

"The conference is in regard to a comeback that has been reported. I don't say I'm going to fight again. I'm not at liberty to say what will be announced."

Dillard Wins Feature

JACKSON (AP) — Matt Arnold drove Chuck Dillard to victory last night in the featured Saugatuck Pace at the Jackson Harness Raceway.

Pressed by Cardinal Abbe and Brady's Shoelace, Chuck Dillard posted a fast 2:06.6 for the mile pace.

Gordie Sparks Wings to Win

Howe Bags Goal, Two Assists as Canadiens Are Beaten, 3-2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Red Wings today held undisputed possession of 1st place in the National Hockey League with a clean record of three victories and no defeats.

Detroit nipped Montreal 4-3 in the only league game last night as the Canadiens dropped to 2nd place with an early season record of two victories, one loss and one tie.

Gordie Howe, the NHL's leading scorer for the last four seasons, notched a goal and made two assists as he scored his 1st goal on Montreal ice since the 1952-53 season.

Dutch Reibel and Ted Lindsay counted the others for Detroit and Jean Beliveau and Maurice (Rocket) Richard scored for the Canadiens.

Bullough Joins Star Back on MSC's Injured List

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP)—"I guess I just don't live right," said Coach Duffy Daugherty.

The Michigan State football coach waved his hand at a group of players warming up before they started on the afternoon practice session.

"Before the season," Daugherty said, "If you had to pick out the two guys that would leave us hurting most if they were injured, who would you pick?"

"Bolden and Bullough," he said, answering his own question.

Hank Bullough, the big guard from Canton, Ohio, has joined LeRoy Bolden on Dr. James Feurig's team of cripples. The two have almost identical knee injuries.

"Bullough should straighten out before the game—with a little luck," said Dr. Feurig. "Bolden is still a tossup. We probably won't know if he can make it until the coaches pick the traveling roster some time late Thursday."

Daugherty said Norm Masters, the 6 foot 2 inch, 210 pound guard from Detroit, would sub for Bullough if the injury kept him out of the Notre Dame game.

"But against Notre Dame," Daugherty said, "we need all our forces."

Daugherty skipped scrimmage Wednesday and there was no contact work scheduled for today's session.

Houghton Lake Projects to Boost Duck Hunting

LANSING (AP)—Houghton Lake is being ringed with a series of flooding projects to make the whole area more attractive to ducks.

Conservation department game men said today that a series of marshes close together and adjacent to the state's biggest inland lake is expected to produce more local ducks than the same number of marshes would scattered over a wider area.

The ring of marshes around the lake is also expected to make the whole region more attractive to migrating ducks.

AP Wirephoto

Musial Fails in Quest for 7th Batting Title, but Finishes First in Fielding

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

NEW YORK, (AP)—Stan Musial, renowned for his hitting prowess rather than for his defensive skills, failed in quest of his seventh batting crown in 1954, but wound up instead with the best fielding average among National League outfielders for the second time in his career.

The St. Louis Cards' ace finished with a .990 fielding mark, committing but three errors in 287 chances. In 1949 Musial, who occasionally has seen service at first base, led the outfielders defensively with .991.

Fielding figures compiled by the Associated Press disclosed that the Cards in the National League and the Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators in the American League captured individual laurels by placing two players each among the leaders.

Besides Musial, the other member of the Red Birds to top his position afield was catcher Bill Sarni. The only rookie among the leaders, Sarni recorded a .996 mark behind the plate.

The White Sox and the Senators dominated the American League infield stalwarts. Chicago's Nelson Fox and Chico Carrasquel comprised the keystone combination. Mickey Vernon and Eddie Yost were the Washington representatives to distinguish themselves afield.

Fox, in setting the pace at second base for the secodn time in his carer, fielded .988. Carrasquel repeate d his 1953 superiority at shortstop with a .974 mark. It is the third time he has led.

Vernon, an old hand at gaining fielding honors, edged Joe Collins of the Yanks at first base .9924 to .9915. He has been tops at his position three times and has been tied for the lead once. Yost displayed his fielding supremacy among third baseman with a .970 average.

Rounding out the American League defensive leaders were Cleveland catcher Jim Hegan, .994 and Detroit outfielder Jim Delsing, .996.

Wisconsin Is Given Nod Over Purdue on Saturday

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Zuppke, one-time Illinois coach, once described a football as a prolate, leather spheroid filled with crazy bounces. And a Cornell president once indicated the game as employing 22 healthy athletes to agitate a bag of wind.

After studying last week's predictions and results, there is general agreement with both definitions. There were 36 correct picks hidden in last week's list of 51 games. That's an average of only .706.

This week's picks:

Oklahoma over Kansas. Orange Bowl and Big Seven champs should romp through this one.

Wisconsin over Purdue. Probably the day's most violent struggle.

Duke over Army: Cadets saved their 1953 victory in spectacular fashion. This time the Dukes get the Duke.

Notre Dame over Michigan State. Too much of everything at Notre Dame.

Navy over Pittsburgh: Coach Red Dawson's illness may inspire the Panthers but the Sailors appear too good.

UCLA over Stanford: UCLA's ground attack has averaged 263 yards a game in its first four starts, all of them victories.

Ohio State over Iowa: Buckeyes have the backs.

East: Rutgers over William and Mary, Temple over Bucknell, Yale over Cornell, Princeton over Brown, Harvard over Columbia, Boston University over Syracuse, Colgate over Dartmouth, Holy Cross over Marquette, Penn over George Washington.

Insurance Covers 37,000 Gridders

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn's group insurance program for the 1954-55 school year will cover nearly 37,000 college athletes.

Walt Byers, NCAA executive director, said today 170 colleges and universities have enrolled a total of 36,943 athletes. This represents an increase of more than 5,000 each year since the program started in 1952-53.

A total of 123 institutions and 24,714 athletes participated in the first program and 149 institutions enrolled 30,401 athletes last year.

Injured Bruin Gridder Reported Improving

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Physicians attending injured Brown University football player Lester Peavy, 20, of Bridgeport, Conn., say his condition continues to be encouraging.

Dr. G. Edward Crane, Brown team doctor, said yesterday Peavy was taking nourishment by mouth and getting more normal sleep. He said the youth's chance of recovering from a severe brain injury suffered last Saturday in the Rhode Island game are "better every day."

Layne Always Busy

DETROIT (AP) — Bobby Layne, quarterback for the Detroit Lions, is a busy man during the football season. But he is just as busy during the off season. Layne led the Lions to the National Football League championship in 1952 and 1953. During the off season he travels around Texas dealing in oil leases.

Coach Augie Galan of the Philadelphia Athletics played 154 games in 1935 for the Chicago Cubs without hitting into a double play. This is a major league record.

'Vote Not Final'

Griffith Is Not Sure A's Will Move to Kaycee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Calvin Griffith says the American League clubs have not yet decided finally on shifting the Philadelphia Athletics to Kansas City.

"A vote was taken, but the Washington club and others do not consider it final," said Griffith, vice president of the Washington Senators, just after returning yesterday from the league meeting in Chicago.

Griffith challenged the league's announcement there that official approval had been voted for a shift of the ailing A's franchise to Kansas City.

"It was misleading to announce that Kansas City was favored by a unanimous 7-0 vote," Griffith said in an interview.

"Detroit's vote was never counted despite the fact that Spike Briggs left his proxy with the meeting and ordered it to be cast as a firm 'no' against Kansas City.

"The Washington, Boston and Detroit votes are enough to stop any move to Kansas City and that may still be done."

Six clubs must approve the shift before it can become official.

Griffith said he would lodge an official protest against the league's announcement that Kansas City had been okayed by the unanimous vote of the club owners. He also indicated there would be an attempt to reverse the announced vote.

The Nats vice president said the Washington team made its position clear that it favored another year in Philadelphia for the Athletics; that its second choice was a move to Los Angeles and that its third preference was for a shift to Kansas City. He said the Red Sox stipulated the same conditions.

Harridge Sure Roy Mack Will Sell to Johnson

Delay Was Requested to Talk Situation Over With Family

CHICAGO (AP) — Will Harridge, president of the American League, today said he was confident that Roy Mack will go through with his pledge to sell his Philadelphia Athletics' stock to Arnold Johnson.

After league club owners and representatives voted Tuesday night to approve a shift of the A's franchise to Kansas City, Roy Mack was given until 11 a.m. EST Monday to complete sale of the club for $3,375,000 to Johnson, Chicago industrialist.

"He (Roy Mack) asked me to get approval of the league for transfer of the franchise to Kansas City so that he could sell out to Johnson," Harridge said. "He requested the delay in order to talk it over with his family.

"His decision in the matter was recorded in the minutes of the meeting and I do not believe Roy will go back on his word.

"Roy did not want to sell. He wanted to keep the club so that he could turn it over to his son, Connie Mack III.

"I convinced him that it was in his best interests to sell for two reasons: First of all, by the time his son was ready to take over the club there might not be anything left of it.

"Secondly, I pointed out it wasn't just an individual club matter. The entire welfare of the league was at stake, because it was obvious that the situation was hopeless in Philadelphia."

Frank Lane, general manager of the Chicago White Sox and chairman of the American League Realignment committee, praised the enthusiasm of Kansas City citizens on the league's vote to shift the franchise.

Joost Hopes to Keep Job With 'KC Athletics'

Plans to Contact New Owner After Transfer Becomes Official

BURLINGAME, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Joost, field manager for last season's Philadelphia Athletics, says he hopes to keep his job if the A's become next season's Kansas City Athletics.

Joost, who will be 39 next June, succeeded Jimmy Dykes as field manager of the A's this year.

"I'm sitting right in the middle and don't know which way to go," he said. "But I'm going to wait until this thing (transfer) becomes official next week. If I don't hear from the new owner by then, I'll contact him myself. I certainly don't want to quit."

Joost still believes he can manage the A's successfully. If he doesn't get a crack at that, he thinks he'd be valuable to a major league club as a utility infielder.

Sulky Ace Gets 136th Winner of Turf Season

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP) — Sulky driver Bill Haughton turned in a triple at Yonkers raceway last night to boost his national harness racing record for the most victories in one year to 136.

He scored with Cherry Hill $18 in the fourth race, Earl's Ensign $6.40 in the feature sixth pace and Willis L. $17.70 in the seventh.

Lang's 2nd Half Tallies Win for Clarkston Team

Wolves Victors, 13-12; Romeo-Lapeer Play to 0-0 Deadlock

Clarkston High School won its 3rd Wayne-Oakland League contest in 4 starts and made its season record 3-2 Friday with a 13-12 victory over Clarenceville.

A pair of 2nd half touchdowns by George Lang and Roger Johnson's conversion after the 1st brought the Wolves through.

Ed Hints' team fumbled 5 times in the 1st half, but escaped with a 0-0 tie. In the 3rd quarter, Clarkston marched 85 yards with Lang going over from the 2.

Lanny Leak recovered a stray Clarenceville pitchout on the Trojan 40 and Lang raced 35 yards to score. Rushing attempts for the extra point following both Clarence-ville TD's were stopped.

Several other games played Wednesday as a result of the shortened school week. Lapeer and Romeo battled to a 0-0 tie, the 2nd straight for Lapeer. Fitzgerald routed Troy, 32-0, to take at least temporary possession of 1st place in the Oakland B. Avondale can tie by winning Friday.

Lakeview handed Warren its 1st loss in 15 games, 13-12, in the Bi-County loop and South Lake topped Eastland, 19-13. Utica recovered fumbles to set up 3 touchdowns in its 28-10 win over Lake Shore. Ernie Malzahn tallied twice.

Fire at Track Kills 6 Horses

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Fire which destroyed a barn at the Lexington Trots Breeders Assn. track and killed six valuable standard-bred horses Wednesday night caused a loss estimated at $200,000.

Cause of the blaze was not determined immediately.

The six horses killed belonged to L. J. Buck's Allwood Stable, Fall Hills, N. J. Trainer Joe Lighthill estimated theeir value at $162,000.

He said they were Gosling, star of the meet which closed at the local track last week, valued at $55,000; Moose, brother of the famed Kimberly Kid, $35,000; Simpson Hanover, $25,000; Hills Hanover, $20,000; Battleway, $20,000, and Shining Way, $6,500.

No one was reported seriously hurt in the fire.

Michigan Fans Look for Top Eleven in '55

ANN ARBOR (AP) — There is much support on the Michigan campus and elsewhere in the state that Michigan will have one of the nation's top teams next season.

This is the year, they say, when Michigan will get the experience it needs. This is the year, too, when the Wolverines are waiting for help, already seen, from the freshman squad.

Foiles May Become No. 2 Tribe Catcher

CLEVELAND (AP)—Hank Foiles, a 25-year-old catcher who batted .330 in the American Assn. last year, may serve as understudy next season for the Cleveland Indians No. 1 backstop, Jim Hegan.

Foiles appears the best prospect of three players purchased by the Tribe yesterday from its farm club, the Indianapolis Indians.

Outfielder Rocky Colavito and infielder Stan Pawloski were the other two players purchased.

Manila Offers Rocky $300,000 for Title Bout

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Manila is the latest city to bid for a championship bout featuring heavyweight king Rocky Marciano.

Al Weill, Rocky's manager, said a representative of the Philippine government had offered Marciano a $300,000 guarantee to defend his title against Cuban Nino Valdes "or any one else" in Manila next February.

Kansas City Athletics May Bring Financial Boom to American League, According to Prexy Harridge

CHICAGO (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics were pictured today as bringing the same financial boom to the American League as Milwaukee has done in the National League

Painting this rosy scene was Will Harridge, A. L. president, and the overwhelming response of the Kansas City citizenry to the league's vote to shift the franchise from Philadelphia supports his enthusiasm.

"Kansas City has the same sort of people and the entertainment picture is similar to Milwaukee," said Harridge. "There are no other competitive sports that could cause distraction from baseball such as in cities like New York and Chicago."

Harridge said the overall general welfare of the league was a big factor in persuading Roy Mack to pledge to sell his Philadelphia Athletics' stock to Arnold Johnson and make way for the move.

"With Kansas City about to replace Philadelphia," he added, "the league once again will be in good balance with chances of a profit everywhere."

Some experts, however, point out that moving the A's to Kansas City is not exactly like moving the Braves from Boston to Milwaukee.

Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, cautions:

"Kansas City is certain to be a tremendous improvement over Philadelphia as an American League base . . . (Kansas City) will support their team in 1955 because it is the medium by which the area can be classed as big league rather than bush league territory . . .

"Thereafter, the club must produce . . . Johnson and his associates are not unmindful of that fact . . .

* * *

"Many cities look at the remarkable success Milwaukee has attained and think they can do as well . . . They must remember, however, that Milwaukee has a fine team, one that has been a contender for the National League pennant both seasons . . ."

Monday Deadline Set for Transfer of A's

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Arnold Johnson is going to defer naming a general manager and field manager for his new Kansas City Athletics until he officially gains possession of the franchise.

The formal shift in ownership from the Mack family to the Chicago financier is supposed to take place sometime before 10:30 a.m. Monday. The deadline was set by the American League owners Tuesday when they approved the move from Philadelphia to Kansas City.

"I don't know just what the procedure will be," Johnson admitted in an interview late last night in a suite atop a midtown Manhattan hotel (Warwick) which he owns.

"I assume the Macks will get in touch with the league and that the league will get in touch with me so that I can give somebody the money, Johnson said. "I notice someone said they'd never seen anybody have so much trouble spending $3,000,000. It's been just as hard to spend the $375,000 that goes with it."

* * *

Discussing the Chicago meeting Griffith said:

"A vote was taken, but the Washington club and others do not consider it final. No ention was made of specific provisos we entered and any announcement that we favored Kansas City is full of misunderstandings."

Griffith said the Washington, Boston and Detroit votes are enough to stop the move "and that may still be done."

Johnson flew to New York from his Chicago home last night with two other executives of the Automatic Canteen Co. of America, of which he is vice - chairman.

"I didn't realize what a job it would be to buy a ball club," he declared. "When I bought Yankee Stadium and the stadium in Kansas City I had no intention of buying a baseball team. Ernie Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City into the team deal. He wouldn't let me alone."

* * *

"But now that I'm in it, I'm in it to stay. You have only to look at my business record. Of all of the varied companies I've bought into I have yet to sell out my interest in any one."

Wildcats Hope to Avenge Last Year's Loss to UM

By JOE MOOSHIL

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Northwestern coach Bob Voigts, fully aware that Michigan's Wolverines are toughest in Big 10 games, is hoping his Wildcats will rise Saturday and avenge last year's 20-12 defeat.

"Our scouts tell us Michigan got off to a slow start but rose to the occasion in beating Iowa,' Voigts said. "Michigan on other occasions has let down and then come up for the blue chips. We're expecting a lot of trouble."

Northwestern has been beaten by Southern California and Minnesota after winning its opener against Iowa State.

Voigts is hoping he'll have more depth for the Michigan game than he has dared employ thus far this season.

"I was afraid to use my 2nd and 3rd teams after the Iowa State game," said Voigts. "Every time I sent them in, Iowa State scored."

However, against Minnesota, Voigts put in the reserves after the Gophers had taken a three-touchdown lead and they held Minnesota scoreless for 23 minutes.

Voigts said he's afraid of Michigan's passing, particularly in the case of end Ron Kramer.

Kramer has been Michigan's No. 1 pass target. Michigan has fired 46 passes this year with 19 going to Kramer. He's caught seven for 120 yards and one touchdown.

Race Fans Have Jargon

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A girl watching an outboard race on the Connecticut River remarked: "my boy friend's got a hog in his boat; he hit a sleeper and dug in." To an inquiring reporter she gave this translation: Hog, a buckling in the planks. Sleeper, an unexpected wave. Dig in, bow plowing into the water instead of riding above it.

Trabert and Llamas Battle for Net Title

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Davis Cup ace Tony Trabert of Cincinnati et Mexican champion Mario Llamas today for the men's singles championship of the 13th Pan American tennis tournament.

Two other finals matches also are scheduled.

Trabert paired with U.S. national champion Vic Seixas of Philadelphia against Sweden's, Sven Davidson and Lennart Bergelin for the men's doubles championship.

Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Dorothy Chaney of Santa Monica, Calif., tangled with Mexicans Maria Roldan and Martha Hernandez for the women's doubles trophy.

Michigan States edged Wisconsin by one game for the 1954 Big Ten baseball championship. One of the Spartan stars was relief pitcher Bill Mansfield, son of Wisconsin coach Art Mansfield.

Trout Training Will Continue

LANSING — Psychological training of trout will be carried on in Michigan on an experimental basis for another year, the conservation commission decided at a recent meeting.

The commission approved a second year-long contract with Psychological Research Services, the independent group that has been carrying out experiments at Oden state hatchery for the last year.

Also, the commission authorized purchase of the following lands: A fishing site on Lake Charlevoix in Charlevoix county; a fishing site lease on Lake Medora in Keweenaw county; a total of 128 acres in Houghton Lake and Pigeon River state forests; 270 acres under the Pittman-Robertson program; and part interest in 80 acres to be added to southeastern Michigan's Holly recreation area.

Lists of conservation law violators will also be provided qualified members of the press "indefinitely," the commission decided. For the last nine months, the lists were provided under three three-month trial periods.

A policy statement, covering state parks, was given final approval by the commission. The brief statement sets forth rules of procedure to guide the course of present and future state park policy.

Teen-Age Gal Plucky Veteran in Trapshooting

COMPTON, Calif. (AP)—Diane Williamson, pert and pretty, is a cautious champion. And she is a sports veteran at 14.

Recently she won the women's Grand American trapshooting championship for the second straight year at Vandalia, Ohio.

The 14-year-old says she practices on the range of her Compton, Calif., home "only about once a month." She thinks too much practice "might overdo it."

She won her second year' championship with a tape bound tightly around her right wrist. But she had a legitimate excuse for this handicap in her title trapshooting trials.

"I fractured it when I was playing baseball at school," she explained.

Higgins Optimistic Over Bosox Chances

Better Than Birdie

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—A high wind picked up a chair the other day from the porch of the New London Country Club and sent it sailing 200 yards down the fifth fairway on this Connecticut storm swept landscape. One golfer, reporting from the safety of the clubhouse, said that the chair traveled on "a slight hook, with plenty of topspin."

Nation's Pass Snagging Leader Has Low Total

Oregon Fullback Paces Receivers, Snaring 16 Throws

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the strangest developments in this strange football season has been the unprecedented manner in which major college passers are scattering their fire.

Dick James, the little Oregon fullback, is the pass - catching leader having snared 16 throws, but it is the lowest figure a pacesetter has had in the past decade at this stage of the season, according to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Fourteen others are within six catches of James and the general volume of passes being completed isn't any smaller than usual. The main reason that James holds the lead is that his partner, George Shaw, is the nation's leading passer.

They'll both be on view Saturday when they play Southern California in the NCAA's television game of the week. Southern Cal, incidentally, has a pass-catching leader of its own. He is Linden Crow, who has caught only four, but has carried them a fantastic 213 yards for a 53.3 yards-per-catch average.

Ted Rohde of Kansas leads in punting average with a 45.2 mark; Art Luppino of Arizona heads the field in scoring and kickoff returns with 57 points and 356 yards, respectively, and Dick McNamara of Minnesota is the No. 1 man in punt returns, lugging six of them back 161 yards.

Bob Iverson, a junior quarterback from Washington State, is the top pass interceptor with four.

TWO CRISLERS—Michigan has a new father-son combination in football. Athletic director Fritz Crisler's son, Prescott, whose nickname is Scotty, is a sophomore end who has reported to the varsity squad for first time. Fritz (right) played end for Alonzo Stagg at the University of Chicago and never weighed more than 170 pounds. Scotty is six feet, four inches, and weighs 220 pounds.

Attendance in SW Same as Last Year

DALLAS (AP) — Attendance in Southwest Conference football is virtually the same as last year. The difference is a bare 105, meaning 1953 drew only eight more per game.

A survey of the conference schools showed 12 home games drew 368,299 last year and the same number of games have pulled in 368,194 this year. Rice, Texas, Southern Methodist and Baylor had gains, Rice has 9,500 more, Texas 8,700, Southern Methodist 500 and Baylor 100.

New Kansas Coach Turns to Machines

LAWRENCE, Kans. (AP)—Chuck Mather, a new head coach of the University of Kansas eleven, makes good use of slow motion films and cards in an automatic business machines to judge candidates for his football teams.

Coach Mather is using the same system that was of such advantage to him when he coached the Washington High squad at Massillon, Ohio, to win 57 while losing only three.

Poisonous Snake Ruins Fish Dinner for Angler

STUART, Fla. (AP)—While fishing the other morning W. D. Anderson pulled in a one and a half pound catfish. He figured this would be plenty for breakfast when mived with a little bacon grease and a corn pone on the side. He changed his mind about his mneu for breakfast a few minutes later when he opened the fish and out fell a 2-foot poisonous water moccasin.

New Manager Plans No Talks With Williams

'Pinky' Lists Zauchin Among Top Prospects for '55 Club

BOSTON (AP) — Michael Frank (Mike) Higgins has opened his regime as manager of the Boston Red Sox on an encouraging keynote by stating flatly at his first news conference that he is "optimistic about the club's chances for 1955."

The 45-year-old Texan impressed a gathering of 50 baseball writers, radio and TV men yesterday at Fenway Park as being just as advertised—a solid, serious-minded student of baseball with a good insight into human nature.

"I'm optimistic about the team's chances next season," he said.

The Red Sox, in a surprise announcement Monday, named Higgins to replace Lou Boudreau, who had piloted the Boston club into fourth place the last two seasons.

Higgins said he hopes the team can improve on its 1954 showing when it clinched fourth on the final day but still wound up 42 games back of the pennant-winning Cleveland Indians.

It wasn't long before the eager, question-loaded writers got around to slugger Ted Williams—who has announced he is quitting baseball.

The query came in this form: "Mike, what about left field?"

Higgins, who rose through the managerial ranks of the Red Sox farm system—finally leading Louisville to the American Assn. and Little World Series crowns this year—grinned at that one.

"Well," he parried, "Faye Throneberry (Red Sox outfielder now in the Army at Fort Jackson, S. C.) plays left field pretty well."

Then he got serious and said: "I don't plan to talk with Ted. After all, he knows what he wants to do. Of course, he may get that baseball itch come spring."

If Ted does decide to come back, Higgins said in answer to a question that he would use him in the No. 3 or 4 batting spots, "never in the No. 2 slot."

Higgins also announced he'll bring former Red Sox pitcher Dave (Boo) Ferriss along with him from Louisville.

First Base Coach Del Baker and batting practice pitcher and Coach Paul Schreiber will be holdovers, but Coaches George Susce and Colonel (Buster) Mills are out.

Higgins listed pitchers Ike Delock and Al Curtis, catcher Pete Daley, first baseman Norm Zauchin and outfielder Gene Stephens as good prospects to make the permanent hop from Louisville to Boston.

Broken Hand Doesn't Slow Missouri End

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Pete Corpeny, star end for the Missouri football team, played most of last season with a broken hand. Despite this handicap he caught 12 passes, two of which went for touchdowns.

This season Corpeny's broken hand is healed and he has increased his speed by slimming his weight from 200 to 160 pounds.

Jinx Continues to Pursue Derby Winner Determine

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — The jinx that has been pursuing Kentucky Derby winner Determine caught up with the little grey colt yesterday to knock him out of the International turf race at Laurel, Md. Nov. 3.

Trainer Willie Molter announced his champion had popped a splint in the shin bone in training this week.

Determine had been working out at Bay Meadows here. The Alibhai colt had been in light training since he had been selected by a committee of turf writers as one of two horses to represent the U. S. in the $65,000 mile and one half test on the grass.

Bad luck dogged Determine since he won the derby last May 1. Shipped back to the Coast, he raced three times at Hollywood Park, winning one stakes and running second and third in others.

A blood infection set in during the first week of the Del Mar meeting in July. The cause was not determined but his trainer leaned toward the belief he had been bitten by a spider.

Adding to the woe was the fact his owner, Andy Crevolin, was suspended until Oct. 30. It put Determine on the inactive list so far as racing was concerned.

Saffell Making Fourth Bid for Pirate Position

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Outfielder Tom Saffell of Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League was purchased by the Pittsburgh Pirates today on a conditional basis.

The sale price was not disclosed. Hollywood in return gets outfielder Gail Henley, who batted .224 with the Pirates' New Orleans club in the Southern Assn. this year.

This is Saffell's fourth tryout with the National League club. He was up in 1949, 1950 and 1951. He led the Coast League in stolen bases with 48 and hit .279 this year.

QUARTERBACK —Bob Lauter (above) is Northwestern's quarterback, and he'll be a threat to Michigan when its football team plays at Evanston, Ill., Oct. 16.

Ballplayers Have Season-End Woes

NEW YORK (AP)—The September days" in a baseball season give veteran players additional worries—mainly their jobs for next season. Willie Miranda, shortstop of the New York Yankees, summed it up when his team was trying to overtake the Cleveland Indians in the final days of this season's race.

"I am going good now," he said. "I stop grounders with my teeth. And my snap throws clip runners off first.

"But, everytime I walk off the field I see a new group of youngsters coming on for a tryout. And 99 times out of a hundred, it seems to me the youngsters are trying out for shortstop."

Villanova's Coaches Former Grid Stars

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Villanova University boasts a star-studded coaching staff for its football team.

Head coach Frank Reagan was an All-America halfback at Penn and then played pro ball with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles.

End coach Ken Kavanaugh was an All-America end while at LSU and was later named to three All-National Football League teams while playing with the Chicago Bears.

Backfield coach Bob Snyder was a quarterback with the Bears and then became head coach of the Los Angeles Rams.

Line coach Otis Douglas was a mainstay of Eagles' championship teams and was head coach at the University of Arkansas.

Coach Juggles Unbeaten Navy Starting Lineup

Quarterback Weaver Moved to Left Half by Erdelatz

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Eddie Erdelatz, coach of Navy's undefeated football team, nonchalantly announced "we've made a few changes" and tolled off four for Saturday's game at Pitt.

The starting left tackle underwent its third personnel change in two weeks. Pat McCool, a substitute all last season and for the first three games this year, moved into the slot.

He replaced Hugh Webster, the starter there last season. Webster returned to tackle last Saturday because John Hopkins was hurt after being switched to guard.

Hopkins is one of four Navy gridders on the injured and inactive list. The others are Bob Davis, first-string center, John Honse, another tackle, and Ken Holden, an end.

Probably the most startling of Erdelatz' nonchalant switches concerned Jack Weaver, a quarterback since he entered the academy in 1951.

Weaver was sent to left half after being second-string quarterback two years.

The move solidifies Dick Echard, a jayvee of the last two seasons, as first-string quarterback. He took over from George Welsh who was out of the Dartmouth and Stanford games with a torn rib muscle.

The Navy coach has been making changes, both voluntarily and of necessity because of injuries, ever since the season started. They continued to win.

"It's easy to make changes when the boys really want to play football," he said. "When it's suggested, all they want to know is if it will give them a chance to play more."

Dodgers Get Southpaw

BROOKLYN (AP)—Joseph Bayno, a 20-year-old lefthanded pitcher from Florida, N. Y., was signed today by the Brooklyn Dodgers and will report to the Fort Worth farm club in 1955. Bayno was an all around high school athlete and has had no professional baseball experience.

Oxford-Orion Clash Features Prep Card

By JACK SAYLOR

A contest between a pair of traditional rivals, playing this season without league affiliation, steals the spotlight Friday from the area conference games.

Lake Orion and Oxford, longtime foes in Tri-County League days, clash at Oxford with the Wildcats' undefeated record at stake. Matched will be Lake Orion's strong defense, which has yielded only 4 touchdowns in 4 games, and Oxford's smooth-working offense, averaging 4 touchdowns in every game.

Both teams are operating under new coaches this fall. Jean Harkness is handling the Oxford eleven, while Ted Sela has the reins at Orion. Close games are the rule between these teams. Following a 13-13 deadlock in 1951, Orion grabbed 13-12 and 18-13 victories the past 2 years.

Oxford, sparked by a fine backfield unit, has scored successive wins over Milford (21-0), Clawson (27-14), Flint Dye (27-20) and Ortonville (35-12). Mike Benedict directs the running of Clyde Groves, Dale Spier and Larry Spencer for the 'Cats.

Despite its defensive mark, Orion lost 2 of its 1st 3 games from a lack of scoring punch. After edging Clarkston (7-6), the Dragons bowed to Avondale (6-0) and Lapeer (7-0).

Sela's club snapped out of it by handing Romeo its 1st loss last week, 12-6. Line sparkplugs are co-captain Floyd Behl at end, tackles Dick Scribner and Ray Parker

Orion's running standout is co-captain Ed Leach, who scored both touchdowns and turned in several long runs against Romeo. Dick Johnson and Lynn Hazelett team well with Leach in the Dragon backfield.

In league competition, Waterford and Walled Lake take shots at the co-leaders of the Inter-Lakes Conference. Skippers entertain Van Dyke, which has wins over Walled Lake and Farmington, while the Vikings host Berkley, winners over Farmington and Southfield.

Keego's Wayne-Oakland leaders are at Brighton, while Milford goes to Holly in another loop game. Big one in the Oakland-B brings Roseville to Avondale. A scoreless tie with Lapeer is the only blot on the Avon record.

The South Central Conference championship probably will be decided Friday when North Branch, seeking its 3rd straight title, goes to Imlay City. The North Branch eleven boasts the finest record of any team in the area in past seasons.

The Broncs have not tasted defeat in their last 21 games. A 0-0 tie with Ubly in 1952 and a 13-13 game with Capac last fall are the only mars. Phil Daubert replaced Frank Thomas as coach this season and is working on a 5-game winning streak as well as the unbeaten skein of 21 starts.

The schedule:

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

Buffalo Nichols at Cranbrook.

SUNDAY

St. Michael's at St. James; St. Clement at St. Fred's; OL St. Mary at RO St. Mary; Shrine at St. Patrick's.

Boston Player Sidelined

BOSTON (AP)—Winger Real Chevrefils of the Boston Bruins will miss tonight's National Hockey League game with the New York Rangers at Boston Garden because of strained knee ligaments.

Richmond Players Help Youngster Win Contest

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Gary Williams won a contest with the help of the Richmond International League baseball team.

Braves Defeat Jefferson 6-0 in Key Contest

Whitlock Scores Game's Only TD; Washington's Defense Shines

Defending Junior High League champion Washington defeated dangerous Jefferson 6-0 yesterday in what may prove to be the key game in this year's title race.

Sparked by a trio of 185-pounders—guard Willie Duncan and tackles John Thompson and Al Brewer—the Washington front wall limited Jefferson to only 37 net yards from scrimmage. Washington backs Alex Whitlock, Willie Shaw, Bill Lamson and Lessie Watkins piled up 208 yards.

Whitlock, Braves' quarterback, accounted for the game's only touchdown when he went 24 yards through the center for a 4th-period touchdown. An earlier Washington score on a Whitlock-to-Shaw pass was nullified by a penalty in the 2nd period.

UM Soph Star Maddock Gives Credit to Linemen

By JOHN BARBOUR

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan sophomore Jim Maddock generally has been given much of the credit in the Wolverines' upset victory over Iowa.

What does he think?

"You should have seen that line play," he said. "Why, Ed Meads, Ted Cachey, Art Walker and Dick Hill — everyone — was just terrific. They were hitting very hard."

Maddock, as quarterback in the T formation plays, was the closest man to the line. "They are all that's between me and a messed up play," he said.

Where did Maddock come from? Was he a surprise?

Earlier this season, when Maddock had not yet appeared in a game, backfield coach Don Robinson said:

"He and John Greenwood are both excellent quarterbacks. Maddock is the more poised and confident right now."

Greenwood has come a long way, too, since the time he rated less poised and confident than Maddock. He probably will see much action soon. He should be as impressive as Maddock.

You Be the Quarterback

(Answer)

4. Sneak. Not much chance of scoring, especially since the middle was strong on the last two plays.

3. Pitchout. Might go all the way or it might lose a yard or two. Not a bad gamble though.

2. Fake buck and pass. Rather easy to complete if end can step through the eight-man line and turn around. A slight nod over the pitchout.

1. Off tackle slant. Should be good for one to three yards every time. This play has power.

THE ANTIQUATED FREEZE

can turn the hottest ideas to ice

The FREEZE is an executive who inhabits aging firms. Sometimes is found perched on legal departments, or hovering over comptrollers' offices.

One blink of his eye can paralyze the best idea, and a waggle of his tongue can freeze an enthusiasm.

He long ago reconciled himself to the fact that a certain amount of the company's funds must be "frittered away" on token advertising . . . but turns thumbs down on any program that would really work — because programs that work cost money.

Fortunately the FREEZE is a rare creature.

The wise executive realizes that advertising is part of the flesh and blood of a throbbing, prosperous enterprise. And all he asks is that the advertising work.

So he insists on newspaper advertising because newspapers are basic — the foundation of an intelligent ad schedule.

Because only the newspaper reaches just about everybody in every community. Because only the newspaper carries the sense of urgency — "If it's advertised today, I'd better go down and get it quick."

No wonder advertisers invested twice as much money in newspapers last year as in any other medium!

All business is local . . . and so are all newspapers!

$350 in Bag on Sidewalk Disappears in a Hurry

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Robert Schananski, co-owner of a Dallas tavern, told police he set a sack with $350 down on the sidewalk while he unlocked his car yesterday morning, then drove off and forgot the sack.

WENT SQUIRREL HUNTING—Three-year- old Donnie Hutchison decided to go squirrel hunting and stayed five and one-half hours before volunteer firemen searching the woods found him sitting in a hollow stump at Zanesville, Ohio. Here Donnie holds his dog Lucky which gave his hiding place away. Firemen saw the dog circling the stump and on investigation found Donnie.

Court Upholds Squirrel Honor in Damage Case

ATLANTA (AP)—There is nothing noxious, mischievous or disgusting about a squirrel, says the Georgia Supreme Court.

The justices ruled in effect yesterday that squirrels are not vermin. The dictionary defines vermin as noxious, mischievous or disgusting animals.

Bessie W. Mercer of Savannah sued the North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. for damages done to furniture by a squirrel.

The company maintained it was not liable because of a clause in the policy which excluded vermin.

A trial jury said squirrels were not vermin and awarded Mrs. Mercer $179.50 damages and $50 attorneys fees.

Raising Burros Is Good Living

Texan Sells Donkeys Chiefly as Gentle Pets for Children

LAREDO, Tex. (INS) — The gentle little Mexican donkey has been good business to Antonio Cavazos for the past 50 years.

Cavazos, who lives at Laredo, Tex., on the Mexican border, imports the donkeys and sells them to donkey baseball teams, for use in the mountains, for hunting or for sheep-herding.

But mostly the gentle animals are sold as pets for children, and Cavazos is most proud of letters he received from parents telling what fine pets they make for crippled children.

Importer Cavazos got the idea of going into the donkey business 50 years ago when he was still a school student.

"I started by placing an advertisement in Billboard magazine offering burros for sale, he recalls. "Since then I have gradually become more experienced both at advertising and selling."

He now ships approximately 2,000 donkeys a year to various parts of the U. S. Many are birthday gifts, he said, and the demand is always heavier before Christmas.

"Greatest demand is for the baby burro, which is shipped at the age of two or three months," he revealed. The baby burro is only 28 inches high, no larger than some dogs, and can easily go in the back seat of a car.

When the first train rolled into Chicago on Grand Trunk's own steel three quarters of a century ago, it fulfilled the dream of the pioneer railroad builders who set up the first 13-mile section, 41 years before.

In the years since, Grand Trunk has inaugurated many improvements in railroading, while spreading its network of rails wider and wider to serve the growing needs of the Middle West.

The spirit that drove the road's founders still lives in the people of the Grand Trunk. The same forward thinking that activated their forebears shows in the magnificent new equipment recently ordered by the Grand Trunk—Canadian National at a cost of $58,000,000.

When next you travel to Chicago or to anywhere in Canada or New England, relax in the new kind of travel living this new equipment offers you . . . featuring modern coaches, new type bedrooms, roomettes, parlor and dining cars . . . enjoy Grand Trunk's superb cuisine, the hospitality of the railroaders who man this friendly line.

AMAZING OFFER BY THOM McAN

Men! Come to your Thom McAn store—and choose the shoes you like best. Wear them for one week. Then get your money back if they don't feel as comfortable—and look as good—as shoes costing twice the price.

Get a pair of Thom McAns today—and wear them for one week.

We guarantee to pay back every last cent of your money if you're not convinced that Thom McAns feel as comfortable and look as good as shoes costing twice the price.

In the whole history of the shoe business, there's never before been such a guarantee made! No strings attached. We put this daring challenge to you straight, and simply ask you to play straight with us—by giving Thom McAns an honest test.

Why we make this offer

Inspired changes have been made at Thom McAn. A triumphant spirit of "newness" has been surging through our business. With astonishing results.

Exciting new styling, new lasts, new leathers—new skills and new quality standards—these are the reasons why today's Thom McAns give you better value than ever. In comfort. In looks. In long wear.

We now make you this amazing offer because we believe that one week of wearing Thom McAns will convince you as no mere words of ours could do.

So please examine every detail of their workmanship. Feel and smell their mellow leather.

Then put them on, and put them through their paces. Walk in them. Dance in them. Jog round the yard in them. Wiggle your toes in them—and feel how well they fit.

How long will Thom McAns wear?

Over a two-year period, an independent research company tested Thom McAns and other shoes in actual use—under the most trying conditions.

Thom McAns were proved to wear as long as shoes costing twice as much (thus giving double the wear per dollar).

How does Thom McAn do it?

How can Thom McAn give you this top-grade quality at such a down-to-earth price?

Today, we are by far the largest maker-to-wearer shoe business in America—with sales actually four times greater than those of the next biggest maker-to-wearer brand.

Our shoes are made in our own factories and sold in our own stores—more than 600 of them from coast to coast. The sheer size of our streamlined operation lets us save money all along the line, without ever cutting corners.

A huge range of styles

So act now! Remember—you risk nothing!

For we'll refund you every penny you paid if your Thom McAns don't look and feel as good as shoes costing double the price. And, what's more, we promise to give to charity any pair of shoes we do get back.

No argument. Your word's good enough for us. So step up—and step out in style!

Rochester OKs Sewer Request

Will Lay Lines to Site of First Congregational Church Property

ROCHESTER—A request by the First Congregational Church to have water and sewer lines extended to the church's new site between Glendale street and village limits was approved by the Rochester Village Council this week.

The council agreed to lay water and sewer lines to the property line with an assessment of $100 on the sewer, on condition the church give a 60-foot easement.

In other action, the council named John Dahlmann and Paul Hoffmeister, councilmen, and Edwin Kage and Robert Werth, village employes, as delegates to the annual Municipal Employes Retirement meeting, scheduled for Oct. 21 in Detroit.

Village Manager Robert Slone was appointed municipal administrator by Council President Clarence Burr.

Neighbors Rebuild Price Home

People Have Warm Hearts, Burned-Out Family Learns

By WILMA GREENWAY

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — "People are wonderful."

That's the opinion of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price and their two little daughters who stood by Sept. 22 and watched helplessly as fire razed their home at 389 Timberloft Trail, sweeping away all their possessions.

"Sometimes disaster has to strike before you learn how much warmth and genuine unselfishness people can display," Mrs. Price said.

When the Prices lost everything, friendly neighbors were quick to act. They took up a collection, made gifts of food and clothing.

Their story in the Pontiac Press brought in a flood of calls offering bedding, clothing, furniture, groceries, even playthings for the tots, and again the neighbors responded by making pick-ups of the donated materials.

The Goodfellows pitched in with toys and clothing, and the Gingellville Baptist gave a "white elephant" shower.

Not satisfied with a half-way job, however, the neighbors began planning how the Price home could be rebuilt. Eight men, most of them strangers to Price before the fire, promised to get together for a building bee and put up a shell home. Meanwhile they've been coming over evenings, helping to clear rubble, pump the water out of the basement, and get the preliminary work done.

Not to be outdone by their dads, the four sons of Donald Parmeter organized a group of their compatriots, aged 8 to 13, and formed a clean-up detail.

Ignoring the inducements of football and baseball being played at the school, the kids worked every day until dark, as well as Saturdays and Sundays, and together cleared away seven truckloads of rubble.

Another man, Frank Hillis of Clarkston, a fellow worker at Fisher Body Division where Price is employed, has been coming over each day to help him lay blocks for the foundation.

With the money he got by selling his hotrod car—hotrod racing was his hobby—Price has purchased lumber to put up the shell. As soon as the weather permits, the work will go ahead full speed, neighbors say.

Meanwhile Price had only one request.

"If you're writing a story for the Pontiac Press," he told this reporter, "Won't you put in a personal note from me?"

"Just say how much we'd like to thank the wonderful people who have helped us. The only way we can do that is through your newspaper, because that's how most of them got the story and we don't know their names."

2 Killed in Blaze Near Bay City

Tots Perish, Five Others Homeless; Firefighters Hunt Cause

BAY CITY (UP) — Firemen poked through the gutted remains of a two-story home near here today in an attempt to determine the cause of a fire that killed two small children and left five other members of the George Nelson family homeless.

The blaze raged through the house Wendesday in Kawkawlin Township, about six miles north of here, claiming the lives of Karen Nelson, 3, and her sister, Linda Sue, 19 months.

Three other children, George Jr., 6, Deborah, 3 months, and James, 4, were saved by the parents.

Mrs. Nelson was almost trapped in the burning home when she tried to save Karen and Linda Sue. She managed to reach a window before she was overcome by smoke.

Bangor Township firemen aided Kawkawlin volunteers but they were unable to save the house.

The upper story, of wood construction, was destroyed and the lower floor, of concrete blocks, was left a shell. All furnishings and clothing were lost.

The Nelsons said they had no idea how the fire started. Everyone was on the second floor at the time.

Southfield Acts on Drain Crisis

Township Board OKs $500 to Start Survey of Flooded Area

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Township Board members Tuesday evening agreed that Leonard Lamb, water commissioner of the township, should check water source on property for which a building permit has been requested before the building department OKs issuance of said permit.

This is to insure that future home owners in the township do not build their home, and then find they have no access to water.

Building permits will not be issued if water is not available on the property, as city water lines and the township-owned well supply is already overtaxed. The Southeastern Oakland Water Authority will go into effect in the township in about one year and will relieve much of the shortage throughout the northeastern portion of the township.

Township Supervisor William Roeser was authorized to check into the legality of disconnecting downspouts on all old homes where drainage problems create water in basements, causing expensive damage. He will also study not permitting attachment on new houses when connected to sanitary sewers.

A delegation of approximately 75 people were present at the board meeting to protest conditions in the Artesian Heights subdivision, where new home basements were flooded and yards under water.

Roeser advised residents complaining of drainage problems and flooded basements to disconnect their downspouts at the ground, and make sure they discharge their water onto a splash block large enough to carry the water away from the foundation.

Roeser added that the storm flow overburdens the sanitary line maintained by the township in the subdivision. He also answered numerous questions about the distribution of tax dollars, and what is being done to alleviate drainage problems.

The township board approved making a $500 deposit with the Oakland County Drain Commissioner's office, to begin a survey of the problem.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan were granted permission to tap into the township-owned water main which now runs within 100 feet of their newly completed home. It is now boarded up for lack of water service. The move was made with the approval of all the water users on the line.

Forsythia Fooled by 'Spring' Rain, Bursts Into Bloom

DAVISBURG — Maybe the torrents of rain have fooled Mother Earth herself. At any rate forsythia has started blooming profusely for Pontiac Press correspondent Mrs. Emma M. Garrison, of 222 Davisburg Rd.

The delicate spring flowers make a unique contrast with the autumn foliage, since the leaves of the forsythia bush already have started changing color.

Mrs. Garrison reports the flowers are attracting attention of neighbors and passers-by who claim it's the first time they have seen such a phenomenon.

MR. and MRS. LOUIS P. DI BIASE

Shirley Johnson Speaks Saturday Wedding Vows

ROCHESTER—Shirley Elizabeth Johnson exchanged wedding vows with Louis Paul Di Biase Saturday morning in St. Andrew's Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Johnson, of 344 Griggs. Mr. and Mrs. Antionia Di Baise of Hazel Park are the parents of the bridegroom.

Sister of the bride Geraldine Johnson was maid of honor. Elaine Pfluge and Christine Buchan were bridesmaids.

Best man was Joseph Mullen, with Norman Chaloult and William Ryan also attending.

First Big Snowfall Blankets Rockies

DENVER (UP)—The first general snowfall of the autumn season in the Rocky Mountains blanketed wide areas of Colorado and Wyoming yesterday, and created hazardous driving conditions over mountain passes.

The snowfall was confined mostly to higher elevations in Colorado, but swept across the plains of eastern Wyoming. Scattered flurries were expected again today.

Leadville, high in the Colorado Rockies, reported four inches on the ground. Frazer, President Eisenhower's favorite fishing spot during his Colorado vacations, also reported heavy snowfall.

Channels Are Too Slow for Atomic Attack Form

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Army has issued a new form for notifying higher headquarters of an atomic, biological or gas attack.

While the form is going through channels, however, the Army suggests it might be a good idea to send headquarters a "flash report" first.

Flooded Indiana Fears Showers

Rivers Now Dropping; Damage Estimated as High as $10 Million

HAMMOND, Ind. (UP)—A forecast of showers today worried flood fighters and 4,000 homeless persons in this area and at Plymouth, 70 miles east.

The flooded Little Calumet River here and the Yellow River at Plymouth dropped slowly, but more rain could again send them surging over residential areas.

Hammond's Mayor Vernon Anderson called the Red Cross back to active alert status last night and alerted all police and firemen. However, 18 truckloads of 5th Army personnel returned to nearby Chicago, subject to recall if needed.

Damage estimates in this area alone ranged as high as 10 million dollars.

While the Red Cross maintained 12 feeding centers in Hammond and nearby Highland and Munster to take care of flood fighters, its field men moved in to set up a rehabilitation center.

The Little Calumet flood crept toward the new guided missile installation at the west side of Gary, and workers built sandbag dikes to protect it.

Residents of Shelby and Schneider, at the other end of Lake County, were warned to expect a flood crest on the swollen Kankakee River by Saturday morning.

Officials at Plymouth felt the main threat was over. A guard force of 90 men was maintained there to stop looting in the flooded scetions.

Acquit Builder of FHA Charge

Royal Oak Township Contractor Freed in Loan Fraud Case

DETROIT (UP) — Fred B. Collier, a Royal Oak Township builder and attorney, was acquitted of alleged fraud of the FHA yesterday in a 1½-million-dollar loan.

A federal court jury which deliberated seven and a half hours over a period of two days found Collier innocent.

The government had accused Collier of making false financial statements in obtaining the loan to build a housing cooperative in Royal Oak Township. He was indicted in August of last year.

Collier is plaintiff in a 3-million-dollar civil suit against the FHA in which he charges defamation of character. He filed his suit a month after he was indicted on the fraud charges.

The fraud case jury of eight women and four men returned its verdict in the court of Judge Ralph M. Freeman after deliberating two hours Tuesday and five and a half hours yesterday.

Collier was charged with offering FHA as partial collateral $45,000 which he described as owing him in attorney fees from the First Michigan Co-Operative Housing Assn.

Collier applied for the 1¼-million dollar loan in 1950 and the government said he then already had been paid the $45,000.

He was indicted on two counts. The jury held the government failed to prove a case in either.

In his suit Collier also demands two fees totaling $141,124 which he alleges the FHA has withheld from him.

He charges that FHA representatives solicited him to sponsor the Royal Oak Township cooperative by falsely leading him to believe Army veterans could buy project homes without down payments.

In Oakland County Circuit Court Collier was acquitted, last May, of charges of embezzling $50,000 from the Second Michigan Co-operative Housing Assn., a nonprofit group.

Judge H. Russel Holland held there was insufficient evidence. Collier was accused of disposing of property and converting it to his own use.

Historical Group Gets Municipal Court Records

Pontiac Municipal Court civil and criminal dockets dating back to 1880, when the local court was under county jurisdiction, will be lifted from complete obscurity when they are turned over to the Michigan Historical Commission's state records center in Lansing probably next week.

Leo F. McDonald, court clerk, said he received a letter today from the center's records administrator, Vernon L. Beal, saying the commission will accept the court's records dating up to 1911.

Such records are collected from Michigan courts, explained McDonald, and placed on file as future references in the center. The records may be used by anyone requesting the information.

"The old dockets have been stored in the basement of the court for many years, taking up a lot of space and collecting inches of dust," said McDonald.

The center's letter also informed that other records dating to 1946 will be considered at a future date.

Walled Lake School Board Sets Date for Special Meeting on Bond Issue

WALLED LAKE — A special meeting of the Walled Lake Board of Education has been set for Monday, Oct. 25, when the board will attempt to determine the size of the bond issue needed to adequately house the district's children, and to set an election date.

Also under study at that time will be a tenure proposal, as submitted by a committee of teachers at a recent board meeting.

Presenting the tenure proposal were Ivor Penhale, Joseph Wetmore, president of the Walled Lake Michigan Education Assn., and Fred Chamberlain.

Present at the recent meeting was architect Walter Anicka, who discussed the completion date of the new high school, tentative plans for additions to the Glengary and Commerce elementary buildings, and revisions in the drain field of the Twin Beach school, to insure satisfactory operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Swen Wahamaki, representing the Wixom PTA, petitioned the board to assist with furnishing stage curtains for the Wixom building. The board agreed to underwrite half of the cost.

An application was signed requesting an advance of $150,000 of state aid money.

2 Ionia Trusties Flee From Work Project

IONIA (UP)—Two trusties escaped from the Ionia State Reformatory Wednesday night while working on a detail outside the prison walls.

The escapees, Gerald Francis Berger, 21, Center Line, and Marquis D. Dauber, 23, of Adrian, made their break while doing repair work at the home of Deputy Warden George Kropp.

Warden Garrett Hoyns said the two overpowered a foreman, tied him up and fled. Berger was sentenced from Macomb County Jan. 20, 1953, to a 5 to 10-year term. Dauber was serving an 8-month to 10-year term for robbery armed.

Ferguson Slates Visit to County October 21

Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich) will visit Oakland County Oct. 21, according to Edward Wilson, county Republican chairman.

The senior U.S. senator will speak before the Pontiac Rotary Club at noon and tour Southern Oakland County in the afternoon.

Romeo Youths Organize Hot Rods With Police Aid

ROMEO — With the assistance of Police Chief Gordon Osgood and resident Maurice Carlton, young men of Romeo and surrounding area have organized a hot rod club.

The 37 youths from Armada, Almont, Rochester and Romeo call their group the Romeo Rod Neckers. Carlton, president of the Pontiac Piston Poppers, a similar organization affiliated with the Michigan Hot Rod Assn., is a permanent advisor to the group.

Legal, safe driving is an important part of the club's creed, according to president Walter Goedecke, of Rochester.

Any member getting any traffic ticket which he does not report to the club may be expelled. Violators are subject to demerits in the point system which measures the member's interest in safe driving, and work toward this goal.

George Yoshihara of Almont is vice president of the group; Frank Linneburg of Romeo is secretary, Richard Hobbs of Romeo, treasurer and Thomas Ashton of Romeo, sergeant at arms.

Young men interested in joining the organization have been invited to the next meeting, to be held at the home of Maurice Carlton, 244 E. Gates St., Romeo, Oct. 18.

Asks Courthouse in County Annex

W. S. Downes Claims Additional Floors Can Solve Problem

W. S. Downes, 1801 Opdyke Road, today suggested that Oakland County add three or four additional stories to the old Masonic Temple building instead of building a whole new courthouse. His statement follows:

"Oakland County is a big county and today its governing body, the Board of Supervisors, has grown to 87. Of this 87 only 25 are elected by taxpayers. All the rest are political appointees of the different cities.

"Under this present system the following cities control the Board of Supervisors: Royal Oak, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Huntington Woods, Clawson, Berkley and a few others in the southern part of Oakland County.

"These are the people who are fostering the new courthouse and who want to move it. No one can deny we need more office space. The county got the present old Masonic Temple building for taxes, paying a small amount to the city of Pontiac and the School Board.

"This is one of the most costly and strongest buildings ever built in Oakland County. Three or four more floors could be added that would not cost the taxpayers anything like the amount the Supervisors wish to spend.

"If this were done, the courthouse could be used strictly for court purposes. They could then clean it up if they wished to and make same a credit to Oakland County.

"Mr. Merrit may be right in his interpretation of whether the county could give a merchantable title to the courthouse property, but there are other capable attorneys who says the opposite.

"Why do the Supervisors wish to go against the will of the people? The people have already refused the money to build this new courthouse and I am sure they will turn it down again.

"Are the Supervisors wishing to build a monument or are they looking after the taxpayers' dollars? If they did not own the old Masonic Temple that would be something else, but they have it and parking space is no problem.

"If the Supervisors wish to utilize the land on Telegraph road why not build a new city-county hospital? We surely need this more than a new courthouse, and the present city hospital couldn't then complain about having to take care of county patients."

Lillian Gish Is 55 Today, Back in Films

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I'm always critical of my family. Whatever they do, I want them to be only the best."

That was Lillian Gish's explanation of why she is sometimes considered a critic of the film industry. She considers it a part of her family, and that isn't too far fetched. She certainly grew up with it, and it with her.

Miss Gish, whose tender, innocent face is remembered by anyone who lived through the silent film era, is back in Hollywood after a considerable absence. She is playing with Shelley Winters and Robert Mitchum in "Night of the Hunter," which is being directed by Charles Laughton. She marks her 55th birthday today, but her skin is smooth and she still has the loveliness that mature film fans recall.

She began on the stage at 5 and played in her first movie at 12. She became a star with "Birth of a Nation" and was associated with many of the great D. W. Griffith films that raised movies from infancy to adulthood.

Judy Feels Just Great ---Here's Reason Why

By EARL WILSON

The B. W. and E. W. discovery for '54—blonde, beautiful Genie Stone, 19, of San Francisco—just made her debut as new dancing partner of the Blackburn Twins out at the Boulevard.

We saw Genie singing production numbers out at the Las Vegas Sands in July, and said, "This gal's got it." Before we could do much about it except write a few lines, Comedian Jack Carter recommended her to the Blackburns, and she flew in and began rehearsing.

GENIE STONE

She sings and dances well, and considering that Janet Blair and Vivian Blaine were once with the Blackburns, Genie could be another Marilyn Monroe—she's surely got the proper geography.

Marilyn Monroe phoned Eleanor Sann, 15-year-old daughter of the editor Paul Sann Friday night—just to say hello.

Marilyn's pal, Columnist Sidney Skolsky, had asked her to phone Eleanor, a student at Roosevelt High School in the Bronx, on her skirt-blowing trip to N. Y. But with Joe DiMaggio being here with her and also not being with her here, Marilyn was too busy. Back in Hollywood, with Joe no longer around, she had time to phone her, and did.

Marilyn—I hear—can get her own Fort Knox if she'll accept offers to endorse a line of dolls, dresses, etc. One B'wayite said it would probably consist of "a Marilyn Monroe skirt, blouse, negligee and a Marilyn Monroe no-bra."

State Highway Dept. to Award Contracts for Trunkline Projects

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department today determined low bidders on eight trunkline construction projects including two bridges each on the Toledo-North expressway and the John C. Lodge expressway in Detroit.

The projects and low bidders:

Bridge to carry La Plaisance road over the Toledo-North expressway, 1.2 miles southwest of Monrie, E. C. Nolan, Centerline, $218,411.

Bridge to carry Erie road over the Toledo-North expressway, eight miles southwest of Monroe, Joseph Plozai, Inc., Detroit, $173,705.

Grade separation to carry Glendale avenue over the John C. Lodge expressway in Detroit, Sugden and Sivier, Inc., Oak Park, $203,497.

Two pedestrian bridges to carry Muirland and Alden avenues over the John C. Lodge expressway in Detroit, Sugden and Sivier, Inc., Oak Park $107,781.

Bridge to carry the relocation of M60 over U. S.31 and U. S.33, three-quarters of a mile south of Niles, Lyons Warner, Whitehall, $169,873.

0.904 of a mile of surfacing with concrete curb and gutter on U.S.25 and M142 in Harbor Beach and in Sand Beach Township, Huron County, Canonie Excavating Co., Covert, 082,234.

0.480 of a mile of surfacing with concrete curb and gutter on M53 and M142 from Woodward street to the north city limits of Bad Axe, C. R. Hunt, Cass City, $27,960.

6.349 miles of surfacing on M53 and M142 in Port Austin, Harbor Beach, Bad Axe, and in the townships of Sand Beach, Verona and Colfax, all in Huron County, Wright Construction Company, Lansing, $319,911.

'Don't Glamorize Me,' Anna Warns Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Italian actress Anna Magnani, here for her first American movie, says Hollywood can dispense with any idea of glamorizing her.

Miss Magnani, one of Europe's top film attractions, said yesterday she has no interest in clothes, and as for romances: "Alas, I have none."

Yvonne de Carlo Gives Warm Welcome to Aly

MUNICH (INS)—Moslem playboy Prince Aly Khan flew into Munich from Paris today and was greeted warmly—as might be expected—by an American screen beauty.

The lady in question this time was Yvonne De Carlo, who is starring in a film being shot in Munich and based on the life of composer Richard Wagner.

Aly, who apparently prefers actresses, is the ex-husband of the glamorous Rita Hayworth and the ex-escort of the sophisticated Gene Tierney.

"Running Scared?"

FRED ELIAS

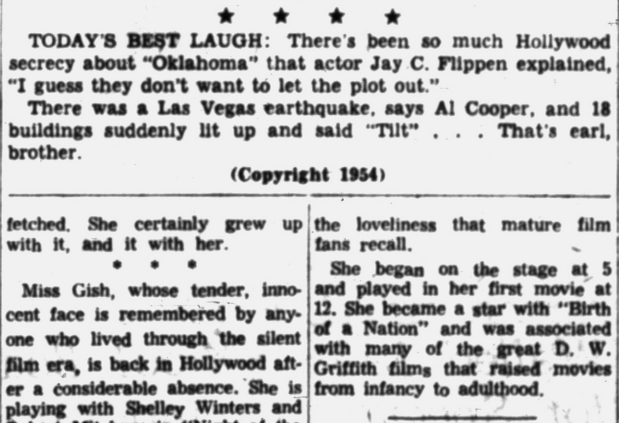

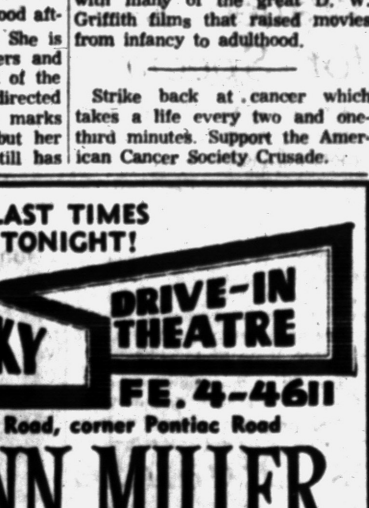

Not this man. And the reason is locked in his own conscience and the hearts of clear thinking Oakland County voters.

The only time a candidate "runs scared" for public office is when he or his party is bothered by its own shortcomings. It, or the candidate, knows the voters are getting wise to double talk, no action, or deeds that help one group to the injury of another.

Fred Elias, a hard-working businessman dedicated to fair play for all the people of Oakland County, is running proud with head high and confident he has the backing of farmers, workingmen—and businessmen—small ones, that is, who rightfully fear they have been shortchanged by candidates "Running Scared."

A Vote for Fred Elias as State Senator is a vote for security.

Paid for by non-partisan friends of Elias for State Senator on the Democratic ticket, November 2nd

Mammoth Caverns May Underlie Earth Near Alpena

ALPENA (AP)—Caverns approaching the size of Kentucky's Mammoth Cave may lie beneath the ground not far from this Lake Huron city.

Geologists believe a series of "sink holes" 15 miles northwest of Alpena may point to existence of caves. The pits are as large as 150 feet in diameter and 100 feet in depth.

Walter P. Nickell of Cranbrook Institute of Science says the sink holes were formed in the same manner as caves, except that they don't have roofs.

Nickell, Dr. Marion T. Hall, also of Cranbrook, and Peter Hill, a University of Michigan graduate student, have descended by rope into the deep pits.

At the bottoms, they found an exotic world of centuries-old logs, a thick growth of vegetation, and ferns found only in much cooler regions.

The scientists concluded that lower Michigan became too warm for the plants when the world's ice cap began to recede 10,000 years ago. The only place the plants could survive was at the bottom of the pits.

You shiver at the bottom of the holes even on hot days, say the scientists. They found the temperature on the floor of the pits was 20 degrees cooler than above. Nickell said it was so chilly at the bottom that insects which got into the pits were numbed and silent.

Nickell said rain water containing carbonic acid will eat out holes when it seeps through limestone rock. If the holes have roofs, they are caves. Otherwise they are like the sink holes near Alpena.

One thing puzzles the scientists about the holes. They noted rain and melting snow disappeared at the bottom of the pits. What happens to it?

The scientists hope to find out by dumping water colored with dye into the upper holes and spotting where the water comes out by flying above the area.

If the hunch of the geologists proves correct—and the caves do exist—the tourist business at Alpena could easily boom. Hundreds of tourists trek to the sink holes already, and they're much less spectacular than a cave.

Wool Subsidies Raised Sharply

Growers Will Receive Direct Payment; Thus Prices May Dip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary Benson announced this week a sharp increase of about one-sixth in the Agriculture Department's price support for next year's wool crop.

Growers will be guaranteed an average return of 62 cents a pound, grease or raw basis, compared with 53.2 cents for this year's crop.

This boost will not be passed along in consumer prices of woolen products. In fact, it is possible that prices which manufacturers pay for wool will go down and that corresponding reductions may show up in woolen products.

A new wool act passed by the recent Congress authorizes the department to use production or incentive payments as a means of assuring growers the promised price. Market prices of wool will be free to move up and down under influence of supply and demand.

Heretofore, the department has sought to put a floor under market prices at the support level. It has done this by making loans to growers on wool they held off the market, or by means of outright purchase at the support prices.

These activities have made it necessary for buyers to pay the support rate for any domestic wool they bought.

Under the new system, if market prices average less than the 62-cents-a-pound support level, the department will pay direct subsidies to growers from funds the government collects on imported wool and woolen products.

The annual output of California grapes is valued at about 200 million dollars.

German Army Adds Up to 750 Volunteers Daily

BONN, Germany (AP)—Germans are joining the new army at the rate of up to 750 a day, former Gen. Adolf Heusinger said today.

He spoke at a meeting of the Foreign Press Assn. at which Theodor Blank, the West German defense commissioner, disclosed a move was under way to find another word for the army to supplant the term "Wehrmacht."

Blank said his office had agreed on "Streitraefte." Both words mean approximately the same thing—a fighting force. Blank said he thought Wehrmacht had "guilty" associations stemming from the last war.

Heusinger said the rate at which Germans were volunteering for military service had jumped enormously since the London agreement to bring rearmed West Germany into the North Atlanticx Treaty Organization.

Eddy Sets Deadline for Deer Permit Requests

LANSING (AP) — Conservation director G. E. Eddy today extended until midnight, Nov. 1, the deadline for mailing applications for permits to hunt in the Dec. 1 any deer season.

Applications for the 81,000 permits to be issued totalled 51,000 under the earlier Oct. 10 deadline. Eddy said that if the full number of applications is reached before Nov. 1, the department will stop accepting them.

In the Dec. 1 special shoot, permit-holders who have not shot deer in the regular Nov. 15-30 gun season or in the archery season will be able to shoot any deer they see in part of the northern third of the Lower Peninsula.

Likes Relief Work

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Johnny Hetki, relief pitcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates, figures it's good to be on relief. After making 50 relief appearances for the Pirates during the past season, Hetki was given a starting role against the Cubs. He lost 4-1.

Buying Sends All Grains Up.

CHICAGO (AP) — A moderate buying movement sent all grains higher in fairly active dealings on the Board of Trade today.

The upturn was general with no one grain standing out, although, as usual, soybeans provided the most activity. But even wheat, which has been lagging for some weeks, suddenly came to life on the upside.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅝ to 1⅛ higher, December $2.16⅞; corn ⅝ to 1 cent higher, December $1.54⅝; oats ¼ to ⅝ higher, December 80½; rye 1 to 2¼ higher, December $1.35¼; soybeans 2 to 2¾ higher, November $2.81½, and lard 7 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $15.75.

Bloodmobile Ready in Milford Tuesday

MILFORD—In a drive to replenish a depleted Huron Valley blood bank, the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be stationed at the Methodist Church here Tuesday from 2 to 8 p.m.

Urging residents to give their support to the program, Mrs. Frank Torrance, local chairman, said: "Our bank has provided 350 pints of blood to persons needing it in this area. Now we need more, a maximum effort is necessary or vital blood may not be available when sorely needed."

About 35 groups, comprising clubs, churches and other organizations, now make up the blood group, she said.

Requests for blood are filled through the Oakland County Red Cross Chapter without charge.

Flurry of Sales Lowers Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market ran into a selling flurry today that packed enough force to send prices sharply lower.

Losses went from 1 to around 3 points in many instances. When the excitement passed, prices began a recovery from their lows.

There was no immediate cause assigned for the selloff. The market all week has been nervously lower. Yesterday only strength in a handful of railroads kept average prices higher.

At the opening today, there was a higher trend in evidence that soon gave way to a mixed price picture.

Defense Begins Case in Manslaughter Trial

The defense began presenting its case today in the manslaughter trial of Edward R. Duncan, 19, of 163 W. Yale Ave., under way in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Duncan is accused of driving under the influence of liquor when his car collided with one driven by Clyde E. Stewart, 34, of 61 Mechanic St., who later died.

Witnesses called late yesterday by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem stated they had accompanied Duncan to several bars prior to the accident at Montcalm Ave. and N. Perry St.

Mutilated Dog's Owner Found

Authorities Still Seeking Fiends Who Cut Up and Burned Animal

The owners of a small black and white dog slain and mutilated last weekend have been found, but authorities are still seeking the animal's body and the slayers.

Albert Sundell, Oakland County humane officer, said today the owners were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coleman of 480 Third St.

Mrs. Coleman called the Animal Welfare Society yesterday after reading a report of the brutal slaying in Tuesday's Pontiac Press.

After being killed, the dog was hacked up, burned and thrown on the roof of a portable building at the LeBaron School on East Beverly. The body was discovered Sunday night, but disappeared by morning.

"I was shocked," said Mrs. Coleman. "Although we had only had the dog less than three weeks we had come to love him.

"He was a stray and a little boy in the neighborhood was trying to find its owner. My husband and I agreed we would take him. He was awfully cute."

She said the animal was a male, mongrel pup, and had been missing since Wednesday.

The Coleman's have no children of their own, but Mrs. Coleman is expecting a child in December. Coleman is employed at Pontiac Motor Division.

Sundell said his agency and the police are continuing to canvass the neighborhood for information and a clue to the whereabouts of the body.

"We haven't turned up anything yet," he said. "The body may be in a dump and swamp at the end of Columbia street.

Th water is so deep there now from the rain, if it is in there we might not find it for months."

The society has offered a $50 reward for information leading to the conviction of the dog's killer or killers.

ORDINANCE NO. 1289
Adopted October 12, 1954
Effective October 22, 1954

An ordinance to amend the title and Section 16 of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the building, maintaining and repair of sidewalks in the City of Pontiac, to license and require the furnishing of a bond by all sidewalk builders and to repeal all ordinances in conflict herewith." Approved May 2, 1921.

The City of Pontiac Ordains:

Section 1. That the title of the ordinance providing for the building, maintaining and repair of sidewalks in the City of Pontiac be amended to read as follows:

An ordinance to provide for building, maintaining and repair of sidewalks in the City of Pontiac, to provide for curb openings, construction of cement surfaces leading to sidewalks in the public highway, to provide for an appeal from the decision of the administrative officials to the City Commission and to license and require the furnishing of a bond by all sidewalk builders in the City of Pontiac.

Section 2. That Section 16 of the ordinance providing for the building, maintenance, and repair of sidewalks approved May 2, 1921, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 16. For the purposes of this ordinance the following definition shall apply. (a) The term "sidewalk" as used herein shall deem to include any sidewalk, crosswalk or driveway adjoining any public street or alley and abutting or adjoining any private property, except that on all sidewalks there shall be a space of one foot (1') between the private property line and the sidewalk maintained at all times. (b) Driveway Approach: An area, construction or facility between the roadway or curb of any public street and private property intended to provide access or egress and ingress for vehicles from roadway or curbing of a public street to private property. (c) Outside Sidewalk Line: A line parallel to the property line lying along the edge of the sidewalk nearest the curb or street roadway; or where no sidewalk exists a line in the street right of way parallel to and six feet (6') from the line of private property. (d) Curb and/or Gutter Line: The face or line of curb and/or curb and gutter line constructed in any street farthest from the private property line or where no curb and/or curb and gutter, a line in a public street right of way farthest from the private property line where curb and/or curb and gutter would be located as determined by the City Engineer. (e) Corner: The point of intersection of the line of two streets or faces of curbs extending into the street until they intersect. (f) Parcel of Land: A lot or lots or a tract of land officially shown by City Assessors Records in one ownership. (g) Curb Return or Radii: That part or portion of a curb and/or curb and gutter constructed around a corner which includes the radius of curvature to the end of radius or to the point where same becomes tangent.

Section 3. That Sections 16a, 16b, 16c, 16d, 16e and 16f be added to said ordinance, said added and amended sections to read as follows:

Section 16a. General. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to construct, alter, extend any driveway and/or curb or curb and gutter without first obtaining a permit and making deposit, if required, for same at the office of the City Engineer on prescribed forms and only after plans submitted for same have been approved for size, location, etc. for same has been checked by sidewalk inspector and traffic officer and approved by City Engineer. (b) This ordinance shall be deemed to be supplemental to other parts of sidewalk ordinance and/or other ordinance regulating the use of public streets. (c) All permits granted for the use of public streets under the terms of the ordinance shall be revocable at the will of the City Commission. (d) Where it is necessary to remove an existing curb and/or curb and gutter, a cash deposit of one dollar ($1.00) per lineal foot to be removed shall be deposited with the City Engineer's office before a permit is issued. Said deposit shall be returned to depositor upon completion of work and final inspection and approval; provided however, if any public property such as sidewalks, paving, trees, etc. are damaged during course of construction of driveway approach the entire deposit or so much of it as is necessary to repair said damage shall be retained by the City of Pontiac. (e) Where no curb and/or curb and gutter has previously been constructed or is being constructed permits will not be issued to construct driveway approaches and any owner constructing same does so at his own risk that it will fit properly when curb and/or curb and gutter is constructed and shall repair or alter same at his own expense when curb and/or curb and gutter is constructed to grades established by the City Engineer.

Section 16b. Width, Location of Driveway Approaches. (a) No driveway approach for business purposes shall exceed 40 feet as measured along face of curb, nor exceed 25 feet as measured along outside sidewalk line, except in exceptional cases due to street corners where streets intersect at acute or obtuse angles City Engineer may permit some variation in above maximum widths as provided by Section 9. (b) No driveway approach for residential purposes shall exceed 20 feet as measured along face of curb and 10 feet as measured along outside sidewalk line. No more than two (2) driveway approaches shall be allowed to one parcel or ownership of land nor more than two (2) driveway approaches shall be allowed for one street frontage unless frontage exceeds 200 feet. The sides, edges, or curbs of driveway approaches shall be at right angles to street curb or curb line and curbs on each side of driveway shall have a perpendicular face varying in height from 0 inches at outside walk line to height of existing or future curb at curb line. (c) Distance between driveway approaches and/or corner. No portion of a driveway approach shall be constructed, except the curb return, within 4 feet of the intersection of the inside of property side of sidewalk nor nearer than 4 feet of the end of any street, curb return or radii nor closer than 3 feet to any property line extended. Where more than one driveway approach serves a single parcel of land or street frontage there shall be at least 20 feet between nearest edges of approaches as measured along face of curb. (d) Street structures. No driveway approach shall interfere with municipal or utility facilities such as street lighting poles, utility poles, traffic signal stands, street sign poles, catch basins, fire hydrants, cross walks, bus loading zones, underground pipes or ducts, trees or other necessary street structures. Nor shall any driveway approach be constructed nearer than 4 feet to any of the above mentioned street structures. The removal of the above street structures may be permitted by the City Engineer but at the sole expense of the property owner concerned.

Section 16c. (a) Construction of driveway approaches between curb line and walk shall be constructed of concrete not less than 4 inches thick for residential driveways and not less than 6 inches thick for commercial or manufacturing driveways, or they may be constructed of 6 inch hot mix asphaltic concrete laid over a 6 inch compacted gravel base—one-half inch premoulded expansion joints shall be laid between edge of paving, back of gutter or curb and outside sidewalk line and driveway approach. Where existing curb and/or curb and gutter are constructed and it is necessary to remove same for driveway approach, the entire curb and/or curb and gutter shall first be removed, curb and/or curb and gutter replaced first to level of top of driveway approach before the balance of approach is poured. In cases where no sidewalk exists, sidewalk shall first be laid before balance of driveway approach is constructed. In the case of unpaved or unimproved or paved streets without curbs and/or curb and gutter, driveway approaches shall not interfere with ditch or gutter drainage; however, they may be constructed provided a culvert not less than 10 inches in inside diameter and not less than 16 feet in length is placed in ditch or gutter at proper grade before balance of driveway approach is constructed which may be gravel surface construction at least 6 inches compacted thickness. The construction of any driveway approach or sidewalk in connection therewith shall meet with all the requirements and current specifications of the City of Pontiac.

Section 16d. Building Division Cooperation. Any plans submitted to Building Inspector for approval which includes or involves driveway approaches shall be referred to sidewalk inspector and traffic division of Pontiac Police Department and City Engineer for their approval before building permit is issued.

Section 9. Unusual Conditions. The City Engineer is hereby authorized to grant in writing variances from the strict application of the provisions of the ordinance, provided he first determines that the following conditions are present. (1) That the exception or variance desired arises from a peculiar condition not ordinarily existing or due to nature or operation of business. (2) That exception or variance desired is not against the public interest, particularly safety, convenience or general welfare. (3) That the granting of a permit for an exception or variance will not adversely effect the rights of an adjacent property owners or tenants. (4) That the strict application of the terms of this ordinance will work an unnecessary hardship on the property owner or tenant concerned.

Section 16e. Vacant parcels or revision of existing driveway openings in curb. When constructing curb and/or curb and gutter on a public street driveway openings in curb will not be left in front of vacant parcels or lots except on the written request of the property owner, which written request shall state the purpose or reason for curb openings and assuming complete responsibility that requested curb opening for a driveway approach will be properly located for future use when property is developed. Such written request shall be filed with permit. In the case where driveway curb openings or driveway approaches have been previously constructed and an owner desires to abandon, relocate, change, enlarge or decrease, the same shall be approved by City Engineer and all costs necessary to restore curb and/or curb and gutter or parkway to conformity with existing curb and sidewalk shall be assumed by property owner.

Section 16f. Appeal. An owner may appeal from the decision of the City Engineer through the City Manager to the City Commission.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect within ten days after the passage thereof by the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan.

Made and passed by the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan, this 12th day of October, 1954.

WM. W. DONALDSON,
Mayor

ADA R. EVANS,
City Clerk.

DON'T BE MISLED!

Those dollars come hard. Anybody can make big claims — "No payments for umpteen months" — "Guaranteed forever" — "Nothing down" — "We sell all the cars in town"—etc., etc. Our big used car advantage remains in the fact that Buick is having a most sensational year. Our used cars are all trade-ins. WE DO NOT BUY THEM TO MAKE A PROFIT. WE HAVE 70 USED CARS. THEY ARE NOT ALL IN PERFECT CONDITION, JUST MOST OF THEM. OUR SELECTION IS GOOD, OUR MANNER IS HONEST. WE HAVE 22 YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL DEALING WITH SATISFIED CUSTOMERS. DROP IN AND SEE US TODAY FOR THE CAR OF YOUR CHOICE.

Quit College to Join Band

Crooner May Act Lazy but He Has a Stiff Schedule

NEW YORK—Bing Crosby was born in Tacoma, Wash., the fourth of seven children. He was christened Harry Lillis Crosby. The Crosby family, including brothers and sisters Larry, Everett, Ted, Catherine, Mary Rose and Bob, moved with their parents to Spokane when Bing was a grammar school pupil.

Bing's first job was a vacation stint in the Spokane pickle factory where his father was employed. Afterward, he had other ways of picking up a slow buck—he had a newspaper route, was a janitor in a men's club, drove a grocery truck, ushered at boxing matches, stamped mail at the post office, labored on a farm, and did lumberjacking.

Bing attended the Webster School in Spokane and from there went to Gonzaga University, where he was a member of the freshman football team, the varsity baseball team and the Glee Club, while he studied to be a barrister.

Bing dutifully pursued his law studies and even worked as a clerk in the offices of a Spokane legal firm in off hours, until he chanced to meet Al Rinker, pianist and leader of a dance band which had no drummer.

Crosby solved that by purchasing a set of traps on the installment plan and installing himself as Rinker's drummer. That was the end of his legal career.

The band broke up in 1925. Crosby and Rinker decided to go to Los Angeles where they hoped the latter's sister, the late Mildred Bailey could put them in touch with theatrical bookers.

Miss Bailey got them an engagement at Mike Lyman's Tent Cafe. Billed as "Crosby and Rinker—Two Boys and a Piano—Singing Songs in Their Own Way," they went back to vaudeville. At a matinee in San Francisco, Paul Whiteman caught their act, liked it, and signed them.

During a sojourn in Hollywood, Bing met a young actress, the late Dixie Lee. They were married on September 29, 1930.

About this time the film colony felt Bing would probably never amount to much. But, appearing in the Los Angeles Ambassador's famed Cocoanut Grove, the Rhythm Boys were a hit. Crosby began to attract plaudits as a soloist.

Bing's second fling at films came in a series of educational short subjects produced by Mack Sennett. This led to phonograph recordings. Crosby records became best-sellers almost immediately.

About this time, brother Everett decided to cease being a truck salesman and take over as Bing's manager. Everett put his newly-acquired client aboard a train for New York, where Bing immediately was signed to a contract.

At this writing, he has completed his 45th picture, "White Christmas." In 1944 he won an Academy Award for his "Going My Way."

Since he does everything with an indifferent nonchalance and an effortless ease, the idea spread that he must be the laziest man in the world. Actually, he maintains an arduous schedule which would wilt most men.

During the war, Bing crisscrossed the country making hundreds of personal appearances in service camps, responded to requests to take part in war bond and Red Cross drives, and similar activities on the home front. He went overseas, made an extensive entertainment tour through the European war theater. He made countless government-sponsored broadcasts to aid the war effort.

Bing has four sons: Gary Evan, 21; twins, Phillip Land and Dennis Michael, 20; and Lindsay Harry, 16.

"The Groaner" is the owner of a 25,000-acre cattle ranch near Elko, Nev. He is part owner of three baseball teams, the Pittsburgh Pirates, Hollywood Stars and a Billings, Mont., club. He also owns a share of the Los Angeles Rams, professional football team.

As every caddy knows, he's crazy about golf.

CELEBRATION TIME. Eddie Fisher marks his fifth anniversary as a recording artist. He has had 18 consecutive hit records since his first, "My Bolero," in 1949.

Foul Play Suspected

PORT HURON (AP)—An atopsy has been ordered in the death Wendesday of William Lathrop, 40. Lathrop's body was found under a bed at his home 16 miles south of Port Huron. Sheriff's officers said bloodstains on the floor indicated possible violence.

Alcohol Center Set Up

JACKSON (AP)—Th eCity Commission has approved an alcoholism center to be operated by the City Health Department. The center, said to be the first of its kind in the state, will provide information to alcoholics and their families. It will be financed jointly by the city and the state.

Shiawassee Ups Pay

OWOSSO (AP) — The Shiawassee County Boar dof Supervisors has approved salary increases of $100 to $700 a year for virtually all county employes. The board also aapproved a county budget of $484,825—a reduction of $12,800 over the 1953 budget.

TV Swearing Denied by Nixon

Remark Starts Uproar Among Video Viewers in California

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Thousands of television viewers watching Vice President Richard M. Nixon deliver a political speech last night heard at its conclusion the words: "Who the hell did that?"

mmediately telephone switchboards at station KTTV and Los boards at station KTTV and Los Angeles newspapers were swamped by persons demanding to know if Nixon uttered the sentence.

"It wasn't me. Iused no such language," the vice president told newsmen later.

Bob Aiton, a petroleum products dealer here, and Patrick J. Hillings, Republican congressman of Arcadia, Calif., said they were certain Nixon made no such remark.

James E. Bassett, director of public relations for the Republican National Committee, said Aiton put the blame on a member of the TV technical crew.

"This fellow said: 'Who the hell did that?' when someone in the audience knocked over a monitor microphone," Bassett quoted Aiton.

But a KTTV spokesman denied this. "This was an experienced crew," he said. "These fellows do 20 and 30 of these remote telecasts a week and they know their stuff. They were startled to hear the words 'Who the hell' and immediately faded out the audio.

"Apparently someone in Nixon's party was giving him the time lapse and he wound up his prepared speech well in advance of the time limit. He began speaking extemporaneously and apparently didn't know when he was off camera.

"The station doesn't know who made the remakr, but it was not a member of the ITTV crew. The remark could have come from one of three spots—the speakers' platform, the area immediately adjacent to the speakers' platform, and the first row audience."

It was a local telecast only of a meeting at Valley Junior College.

The vice president said that when the Eisenhower administration took over in 1953 "we found in the files a blueprint for socializing America."

"This dangerous, well - oiled scheme contained plans for adding 40 billion dollars to the national debt by 1956. It called for socialized medicine, socialized housing, socialized agriculture, socialized water and power—and perhaps the most disturbing of all, socialization of America's greatest source of power, atomic energy.

"With the execution of this monstrous blueprint, thousands of new bureaucrats would have been added to the federal payrolls."

Nixon left Los Angeles shortly after midnight by plane for Houston, Tex., where he speaks today.

U-M Will Continue Radio Show for Rural Children

Making up the largest "class" in Michigan, an estimated 30,000 of the state's rural school-children will continue a part of their education this month when the University of Michigan begins its fifth year of "Radio Classroom" broadcasts.

This year's series, created by the University's Broadcasting Service and distributed to 25 stations throughout the state, will include programs about Michigan Indians, documentary tales on the history of communication and shows on vocal music instruction.

$3,400 Voted for Clinic

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — The Grand Traverse County Board of Supervisors has voted $3,400 for northwestern Michigan child guidance clinic serving nine countries of this area. Other counties are expected to contribute their share in cost of the clinic.
