Kennedy Sets Sights on 2nd Ballot

Officials Have a Look at Annual Frolic

Will Fall Short on 1st Roll Call, Backers Admit

Report Gov. Freeman Offered No. 2 Position in Deal for Votes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Realistic supporters conceded today they can't put Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts over on the first ballot for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Instead, these strategists concentrated on a second roll call blitz they believe will deliver the prize in the party convention opening Monday.

And if they can't snag the gold ring on the second go-around, they were saying they can outlast any of the other contenders even if a half dozen countdowns are needed.

This possibly significant change in tactics indicated that Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and those attempting to draft Adlai E. Stevenson may have won the first skirmish in what is developing into a fratricidal contest of major proportions.

In their pitch for Minnesota's vital bloc, the Kennedy forces were said to have held out the bait of a vice presidential nomination for Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, Humphrey's best political friend.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's outriders appeared to have enveloped a majority of the powerful 81-vote delegation from California. There were disputed reports that Gov. Edmund G. Brown will lower his favorite son flag in favor of Kennedy's candidacy.

PENNSY VOTE?

Kennedy's lieutenants were said to have penetrated the Pennsylvania delegation with the result that he might get a sizable share of that state's 81 votes on the first ballot.

Competent observers said Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago would be ready to deliver all but about 14 of Illinois' 69 votes to Kennedy. The Massachusetts senator was credited with about 100 of New York's 114.

★ ★ ★

But when they added up all of these victorious forays, Kennedy's staff strategists agreed they had not destroyed the main body of the enemy represented by his rivals for the nomination.

Specifically, they seemed to have made no headway in their attempt to win over three favorite sons—Govs. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, Herschel C. Loveless of Iowa and George Docking of Kansas. There are

One Step From Death

ATOP BUILDING — John Wolfe, a 20-year-old unemployed Pontiac man, threatened this morning to plunge to his death from atop the Pontiac State Bank Building because of a broken marriage.

Threatened Leap Horrifies Downtown Crowd for Hour

An intended suicide victim horrified a crowd of more than 2,500 in the heart of downtown Pontiac late this morning as he clung precariously near the top of the 14-story Pontiac State Bank Building for nearly an hour.

At 11:46 a.m., a police officer and a psychiatrist talked the man out of leaping to his death and he returned to the roof voluntarily.

The man, John Wolfe, 20, an unemployed laborer, was sent two hours later by Prosecutor George F. Taylor to St. Clair Hospital in Detroit for psychiatric observation.

A broken marriage had led Wolfe to the top of the tallest building in Pontiac.

Sometime between 10:30 and 10:45 a.m. Wolfe had ridden the public elevator to the 13th floor and walked up a flight of stairs to the roof entrance.

★ ★ ★

His perch on the southwest (Saginaw street) side of the building was atop a top-shaped masonry spiral a few feet away from the building's face.

There was barely room for his two feet. His body at an angle, he clung to another, taller piece of nearby masonry.

This was Wolfe's position when he was spotted from below by police officers, who already had been alerted of the suicide possibility.

Wolfe had left a suicide note at the home of his mother Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, with whom he has lived since a separation from his wife Margie, 17, two months ago.

Mrs. Johnson, 42, of 278 Oakland Ave., was at her job as a machine operator at Pontiac Motor Division when she received a telephone call from a baby sitter at her home, who found the note.

In the note, Wolfe said he intended to leap to his death from a high building "because I cannot live without my wife!"

★ ★ ★

But he didn't say which building.

Alerted by Mrs. Johnson, police began scouring the downtown area and sighted Wolfe on his lofty perch through a telescopic device used on pistols.

In their rush to the roof, police were joined by Dr. L. Jerome Fink,

'Look Me Right in the Eyes'

★ ★ ★

"Look me right in the eyes—I have something very important to tell you."

★ ★ ★

The words of psychiatrist L. Jerome Fink reached the despondent 20-year-old youth perched atop spires of the Pontiac State Bank Building.

He stared back at the psychiatrist and Patrolman Harold Hayden.

So began the three-way conversation on which hung the life of John Wolfe.

'WHAT'S THE USE?'

"What's the use of living? My wife won't listen to me. She doesn't want to save it," Wolfe said.

"Have you tried a marriage counselor?" Fink asked.

"She won't go," the youth said.

In tears, Wolfe kept glancing at the street. He smoked cigarettes, clutching a spire with one hand, his body suspended in midair.

"Keep looking at me," Fink said.

"Maybe you were both too hasty," the psychiatrist pleaded. "We'll do all we can to get you back together."

'WON'T BE ARRESTED'

"I promise you won't be arrested," Hayden said.

Wolfe listened.

"No matter what happens you won't be watched 24 hours a day," the psychiatrist said.

"If your marriage can't be saved, you can still do something rash."

★ ★ ★

"You have fifty years to live," the psychiatrist said. "There's still much happiness ahead for you."

The youth shook his head negatively. He listened, however.

For almost an hour, Wolfe listened to the two men, a scant 10 feet away from him.

"We'll walk away. We won't grab you—you'll be treated as a man."

The youth paused, nodded his head in agreement.

HEAD FOR DOOR

The pair headed for the roof door.

Still crying, Wolfe stepped off the spire and followed them.

Calm Restored in Leopoldville

New Congo President Negotiates With Army to Halt Mutiny

BRUSSELS (AP)—President Joseph Kasavubu took over today as commander in chief of the Congo army, restoring calm to that new born state's capital of Leopoldville, the Belgian Radio said in a special newscast tonight.

"Negotiations between the Congolese premier, Patrice Lumumba, and the Congo troops have succeeded," the broadcast added.

The radio said the army chief of staff will be a European officer and the important army base in Leopoldville will be commanded by a Congolese noncommissioned officer.

No further details were immediately available.

Reports from former French Congo, said thousands of panic-striken whites, many women and children wearing pajamas, rushed out of the newly independent Republic of Congo today, fearful of assault and rape.

Mutinous Negro soldiers were reported for some hours to be in effective control of Leopoldville, capital of the former Belgian Congo.

The city lies directly across the Congo River from Brazzaville.

The Belgian Embassy in Leopoldville reported partial calm was restored after President Joseph Kasavubu personally addressed the mutinous soldiers.

But it was apparent the situation in the captial remained dangerous with the white population alarmed at reports of assaults and rapes of white women.

Truck Sales Up 16.5 Pct. for GMC

Domestic retail deliveries of GMC trucks for the first six months of 1960 total 43,969 units up 16.5 per cent over the corresponding period a year ago, it was announced today by Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the GMC Truck and Coach division.

For the month of June, GMC dealers delivered 8,219 trucks, a 22.5 per cent increase over the 6,707 units delivered in June 1959.

Werner said GMC market penetration had gone up steadily this year in all weight classes.

"GMC trucks have recorded this increase in consumer acceptance while truck industry deliveries have remained steady at last year's level," Werner said.

"The outstanding feature in our 1960 line that has attracted this increasing number of truck buyers is the new V6 gasoline engine.

"This power unit has now definately proved in many million miles of useful service that it is an engineering development of top-most significance to truckers."

State Without Facilities for 1,000

Child Mental Aid in Doubt

The outlook appears dim for more than 1,000 mentally retarded Michigan children seeking admittance to state hospital facilities, the Michigan Mental Health Commission declared yesterday at Pontiac State Hospital.

The director of the Mental Health Department, Charles F. Wagg, said 1,117 children were on the waiting list for mental facilities which do not exist and which would not be completed in the immediate future.

Wagg outlined the situation from a letter sent to Gov. Williams July 5 which was read at the mental health commission's monthly meeting yesterday.

The crisis, according to Wagg, approaches that of 1956 when a special legislative session was called to examine the problem.

2,055 BEDS ADDED

The number on the waiting list hit 1,315 in January 1956.

By early 1957, the list was whittled down to 650.

To date, 2,055 beds have been added but about half of these are in leased facilities which must eventually be evacuated, Wagg said.

Michigan must add at least 500 beds a year to keep from falling behind as the number of mentally retarded children increases yearly, he said.

Plans for approximately 600 more beds have been authorized by the State Legislature, but construction has not gotten under way yet.

★ ★ ★

The expansion program provides for 440 beds at Plymouth State Home and Training School, 75 beds at Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School, and use of 75 beds at Howell Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

★ ★ ★

The mental health commission also outlined a plan which may help alleviate the present crisis.

It called for keeping the child in his local community setting until state facilities become available.

Parents and private care under state supervision would be utilized until the children can be admitted to state hospitals.

★ ★ ★

"Since the state has failed to meet the need of adequate space, the least it can do is give other forms of assistance," Wagg asserted.

Democrats Taking Over Old City of the Angels

By JOE HAAS

LOS ANGELES—The name of this western metropolis of smog, freeways, crazy drivers and celluloid is said to mean "City of the Angels." But it is being taken over by the Democrats.

They're arriving by plane, train and bus. Some even took the chance of driving their own cars. The speed limit on the freeways is 65, and if you lag along at 60 you'll get a ticket for blocking traffic.

You can easily identify a Democratic politician. Two Republican administrations in succession have made them look hungry.

The emblem of the party, the donkey, is everywhere in evidence in life sized cardboard models. There's also a model of a Republican elephant on Wilshire boulevard. It stands beside a donkey and bears the scar of a hoof, where the donkey has kicked it.

HAAS

A delegate from the desert rode a live donkey into town, and created a greater sensation than the arrival of any of the favorite sons. The animal will have a front stall at the convention.

Speaking of favorite sons, there're almost as many as there are states. If laid end to end, together with their publicity men and other hangers-on, they'd almost extend from the convention site to the corner of Hollywood and Vine.

★ ★ ★

If their alleged supporters back home were added to the line, it would further extend to the corner of Saginaw and Huron.

In fact, so many favorite sons have already arrived that everybody who smiles or wants to shake your hand is suspected and condemned as one.

One who nearly amputated my arm with his handshake and almost knocked out my false teeth with his slap on my back, I found to be only a guy trying to sell a lot of Stevenson banners, left

Con-Con Drive Goes Over Top

317,000 Signatures Are Turned In Today With 51,917 From Oakland

LANSING (AP) — Backers of the petition drive to put the constitutional convention proposal on the November election ballot were in a jubilant mood today as they filed more than 317,000 signatures in the elections division of the secretary of state's office.

Today was the deadline for filing the petitions. Only 231,218 valid signatures are needed to give the voters a chance to express their opinion on the proposal to revise the State Constitution.

Representatives of major sponsoring groups exchanged congratulations while declaring that the last minute load of signatures more than put the drive over the top.

Delivery of the big bundle of petitions showed the drive was most successful in the most populous Southern Michigan counties. There were 134,636 signers from Wayne County, 51,917 from Oakland, 19,319 from Washtenaw and 13,406 from Macomb.

Oakland County delivered 5,319 petitions.

Mrs. Howard Lichterman, of Huntington Woods, president of the Michigan League of Women Voters, called the response to the appeal for signatures "overwhelming."

"Now the real campaign begins," commented Dr. Fred Vescolani, president of the Michigan Education Assn., another major sponsoring group "getting voter approval of our proposed amendment in November is the most important goal."

Sponsors said they expected still more petitions to be filed with the secretary of state's office before the day is over.

Donald M. Oakes, executive director of the Citizens for Michigan, arrived at Lansing late Thursday in a small moving van hauling the 13 boxes of petitions weighing about 500 pounds.

Kalkaska was the only county no represented but was expected to show up in late returns today.

There were 16 organizations contributing to the drive with the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Michigan Education Assn. other major supporters.

You Want to Know About Convention?

A "Midsummer Night's Madness" is gripping Los Angeles, a town rarely known for normal doings anyway.

News Flashes

Accusations of police brutality from a 20-year-old youth are being investigated by Ferndale Police Chief Neil J. McGillis.

The youth, Alvin E. Barnes, 20, of 151 Vester St., Ferndale, appeared earlier today in Municipal Court, his face covered with dried blood.

He pleaded not guilty to a charge of loitering and was released on $50 bond pending trial Monday at 2 p.m.

Ferndale police said Barnes broke loose when brought into the station for questioning on a disorderly charge and was re-apprehended shortly afterwards.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Former President Harry S. Truman has reconsidered and will arrive for the Democratic National Convention sometime Monday, Missouri Gov. James T. Blair announced today.

NEW YORK (AP)—Two so-called "warmup" men on the onetime Jan Murray "Treasure Chest" television show were arrested today on charges of splitting winnings with friends they put on the program.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Mexican ambassador was asked today to explain a Mexican congressional leader's vocal backing of Cuba in its dispute with the United States. The explanation was not immediately made public.

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—A Bomarc-B interceptor streaked 170 miles over the Gulf of Mexico today and intercepted a supersonic missile simulating an enemy attack. It was the third successful flight at Eglin for the long range air defense missile.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Adlai Stevenson pledged today that if drafted for a third Democratic presidential nomination he will campaign "with vigor and a sense of real purpose."

We'll Ditch the Chill at Least for Weekend

Weekend weather will be mostly fair and warmer with temperatures averaging about two degrees above the normal 83 high and 62 low, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau report.

A cooler trend is expected Monday, but it'll be warmer again Wednesday. Precipitation will average about ¾ inch in showers or thundershowers Sunday and again about Wednesday.

Tonight's low will be a mild 62. Saturday the mercury will reach a pleasant high of 86 degrees. Winds recorded southwest, at 18 m.p.h. at 10 a.m. today will increase to 20 m.p.h. later.

The lowest temperature reading preceding 8 a.m. was 61 at 2 a.m. By 2 p.m. the mercury had risen to 84.

Navy to Lift Big Blimp From Atlantic Ocean

LAKEHURST, N.J. (AP)—Navy salvagers expected to lift the wreckage of one of the world's largest blimps from the murky floor of the Atlantic Ocean today.

It was thought they would find the bodies of 17 missing Airmen entombed inside.

Kennedy Aides Give Up Winning on First Ballot

88 convention votes represented in this group.

Neither did they have an assurance that Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota would join their camp with the 50-odd votes he still seems to control despite his withdrawal from the nomination contest after two primary defeats at the hands of Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

If there is to be a second ballot, Kennedy's friends said they are ready. It is on this count they hope to crack open the retreating favorite son bloc and to take Humphrey's forces into camp.

This, they figure, will considerably more than offset any desertions they might suffer from the 44-vote Indiana and 64-vote Ohio delegations. They are worried also about possible defections from Maryland's 24-vote group, pledged to their candidate in the initial balloting.

Even if Kennedy fails to reach the magic total of 761 needed for the nomination on this second test, some of his strategists said they don't think any other candidate can come close enough to upset the bandwagon they believe still will be rolling for them on subsequent counts.

National Chairman Paul M. Butler predicted the nomination will come in not more than three ballots.

★ ★ ★

Robert G. Baker, secretary of the U.S. Senate majority and a Johnson backer, expressed confidence the Texas senator will pull within 25 votes of Kennedy on the second tally and take it all on the third.

★ ★ ★

On his way to Los Angeles, Johnson himself said in San Francisco that Kennedy had "lost more votes in the last week than he picked up in the handful of contested primaries he entered."

"I suspect that the delegates are a little tired of having their minds made up for them in the headlines," Johnson said. "This is one bandwagon that is going in reverse."

★ ★ ★

There was speculation that if former President Harry S. Truman changes his mind and attends next week's convention the ultimate beneficiary of this visit might be Johnson.

Truman, who is backing Symington, bowed out as a Missouri delegate and said he would not attend the Los Angeles party meeting because he contended it was rigged for Kennedy.

But House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, plugging for Johnson, told a news conference Truman had hinted he might change his mind and be on hand for the convention.

Supporters of Johnson and Symington have been busy conferring. There were reports that Johnson's men were urging withdrawal of the Missouri senator in Johnson's favor.

BOB APPROVES — Robert Kennedy, right, campaign manager in his brother's drive for the Democratic presidential nomination, inspects a Kennedy button worn by former New York Gov. Averell Harriman in Los Angeles. Harriman was actively supported for the nomination in 1956 by former President Harry S. Truman. This year, however, the two have entered rival camps. Truman has supported Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and has charged that the convention is rigged in favor of Sen. Kennedy.

Chevy Promotes 6 County Men

Wellock Heads New Reliability Program as Others Shift Up

Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors Corp. has announced the promotion of six Oakland County residents.

The changes affect Edward S. Wellock, 1351 Kirkway Rd., Bloomfield Hills; Henry Sandrock, 7037 Meadow Lake Rd., Birmingham; L. Ralph Mason, 836 Waddington Rd., Birmingham; Dale D. Douglass, 1930 Hillwood Dr., Bloomfield Hills; William L. Mosher Jr., 340 Keswick Dr., Bloomfield Hills; and Robert B. Dow, 1710 Cedar Hill Rd., Birmingham.

Wellock will head the division's new product reliability program. Since 1949 he has been manager of the division's 21 manufacturing plants.

As director of reliability, Wellock will be chairman of a committee comprised of executives concerned with design, engineering, tooling, production, assembly and delivery of car and trucks.

★ ★ ★

Robert W. Podlesak of Flint was named director of all manufacturing plants, succeeding Wellock.

Sandrock will be regional manager of manufacturing in Flint, Saginaw and Bay City.

Mason will succeed Sandrock as regional manager of manufacturing in Cleveland and Toledo, Ohio; Indianapolis and Muncie, Ind.; and in Livonia.

★ ★ ★

Douglass will succeed Mason as regional manager of assembly at Willow Run, Atlanta, Ga.; Baltimore, Md.; Bloomfield, N. J.; Framington, Mass.; Norwood, Ohio and North Terrytown, N. Y.

Mosher will succeed Douglass as regional manager of assembly in Los Angeles and Oakland, Calif.; Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo.; Janesville, Wis., and in Flint.

★ ★ ★

Dow has been named regional manager of manufacturing in Detroit and Buffalo, Tonawanda and Massina, N. Y. He was head of the division's productive equipment department.

Telegraph-Maple Crackup Injures 8 in 4 Vehicles

BIRMINGHAM — Eight persons were injured, one seriously, in a four-vehicle accident yesterday afternoon when a trailer truck ran a red light at Telegraph and Maple roads in Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

In critical condition in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with a broken back is Mrs. Henry Koltys, 39, of 960 Lone Pine Rd., Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Koltys, who was driving west on Maple with her two sons, was hit broadside by the truck driven by James F. Frakum, of Monroe, Ind. Norman, 14, suffered a broken shoulder. Henry, 8, was uninjured.

Mrs. Koltys' car was knocked into one driven by Eleanor Prokaw, 50, of 1165 S. Bates St., Birmingham. She suffered a broken shoulder.

BOUNCES INTO ANOTHER

Bouncing off the Prokaw auto, Mrs. Koltys' car spun around, hitting another car going in the opposite direction, driven by Mrs. Betty Humpal, 38, of 363 Westbourne Rd., Birmingham.

She and her sons Tommy, 6, and Mark, 8, suffered abrasions but were released from the hospital.

A passenger in the truck, James Byers, 16, along with driver Frakum, suffered slight head injuries.

No charge has been brought against Frakum yet, Bloomfield Township police said. He was to make a statement at the County prosecutor's office today.

Library fees for nonresidents have increased $1.28 over the past year, according to the Library Board, making a total of $13.80 a year for the use of the service.

★ ★ ★

The new rates compare with what it costs a Birmingham resident to support the library in taxes annually.

Walter H. Desimpel

A Requiem Mass for former Bloomfield Hills resident Walter H. Desimple, 66, of Tucson, Ariz., will be said Saturday at 11 a.m. in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

★ ★ ★

A Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. today at Bell Chapel of William R. Hamilton Co.

Mr. Desimpel died Tuesday in Tucson after a brief illness.

He was founder and president of the Desimpel Building Co. of Birmingham and a member of the Bildors Assn. of Metropolitan Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Surviving are his wife Leontine, sons Walter, James, Robert and Elmer, daughters Mrs. Leontine Lahr and Mrs. Marilyn Fisher, brothers Leonard and Clarence and 16 grandchildren.

Charles C. Serviss

Service for Charles C. Serviss, 71, of 863 Purdy St., will be at 2 p.m. Monday from Bell Chapel of William R. Hamilton Co., with brurial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Serviss died yesterday at Dearborn Veteran's Hospital after a long illness.

He had been a self-employed gardener.

★ ★ ★

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. John Hutchinson of Webb City, Mo., and Mrs. Hilmar Heinsitz of Odessa, Tex.; a son Charles C. Jr. of Webb City, Mo.; five grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. George H. Wright of Birmingham and Mrs. S. E. Littleson, also of Birmingham and a brother at Davison.

Moore-Moore Hassle to State

Berkley Lawyer Asks Attorney General for Ballot Decision

The state attorney general's office has been requested to solve the dispute over whether Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore's name should be on the Aug. 2 primary ballot.

★ ★ ★

Berkley attorney Ralph S. Moore, one of eight candidates bidding for the two nominations for the new two-year term as probate judge, has protested the judge's name being on the ballot because he is unopposed.

His partner in the Berkley law office, State Rep. S. James Clarkson, has asked Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams to determine who is legally correct — Arthur E. Moore or Ralph S. Moore.

The judge, on the bench since 1953 and unopposed for another four-year term, contends it is his constitutional right to be on the primary ballot.

Robert M. Montgomery, state director of elections, wrote Daniel T. Murphy Jr., county clerk-register of deeds, yesterday and ordered him "to refrain" from including Judge Moore's name on the ballot, which cannot be printed until the Moore-Moore tussle is solved.

Murphy said flatly today: "It stays on." He said this was the order of Judge Moore, chairman of the Oakland County Elections Commission, composed of Judge Moore, Murphy and Charles A. Sparks, county treasurer.

Ralph Moore said he was awaiting what action the state would take before deciding whether to file for a writ of mandamus in Circuit Court to order the other Moore's name off the ballot.

Leon S. Cohen, assistant attorney general, said he hoped to have a ruling today.

Sharpen Up, Drivers, to Cut Toll

CHICAGO (UPI) — Safety leaders from eight Midwest states agreed today that "driver attitude" must be sharpened to prevent another deadly holiday like the record slaughter over the July Fourth weekend.

The leaders, members of the midwestern regional of state and provincial safety coordinators, blamed motorist apathy for the 442 fatalities on the nation's highways over the three-day weekend.

Most victims, they pointed out, were killed near their own homes. Eight out of Ohio's 10 fatalities died in their own counties. Only two of Illinois' nine victims were out-of-staters.

Relatively few motorists died in heavy interstate traffic, the safety experts said.

But they urged a sharpened "driver attitude" reflecting year-round awareness to driving hazards.

★ ★ ★

The leaders recommended legislation to make traffic laws, signs and signals uniform among the states and urged interstate exchange of driver records.

PLEAD NEARLY HOUR

Fink and Patrolman Harold Hayden went to the edge of the roof and pleaded with Wolfe for nearly an hour before the young man returned to safety.

Mrs. Johnson, rushing to the roof to aid in the attempt to save her son's life, met him as police were leading him toward the stairwell.

Mother and son threw their arms about each other, tears streaming down both faces.

★ ★ ★

Police had to force the pressing crowd back as the group came out the front (Saginaw Street) door of the bank.

'TOTALLY EXHAUSTED'

After interviewing the intended victim, Prosecutor Taylor said he would follow Fink's advice and have Wolfe examined at the Detroit hospital which usually handles Oakland County psychiatric cases.

"The boy seemed totally exhausted, totally spent from his long ordeal," said Taylor.

While the drama was going on far above Saginaw street, the crowd below grew swiftly.

Police immediately blocked off Saginaw to traffic for the five block stretch from Huron street to Orchard Lake avenue.

Firemen arrived soon after Wolfe was spotted. They said, though, that the building was too high for them to reach Wolfe by ladders or to save him from death by nets stretched near ground level.

Mikoyan Eyes Armament Pact

Americans in Moscow Say He Thinks Both Sides Ready to Sign

MOSCOW (AP) — A group of visiting Americans quoted Soviet First Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan today as saying he believes East-West talks have reached a point where an agreement banning nuclear weapons tests could be signed.

★ ★ ★

The Americans, who talked with Mikoyan for three hours in the Kremlin Thursday, said he added that if President Eisenhower should order resumption of U.S. nuclear tests, the Soviet Union would be obliged to do likewise and the President would "place himself under the fire of world opinion."

Mikoyan has been acting chief of the Soviet government in the absence of Premier Nikita Khrushchev on a visit to Austria.

HORRIFYING PROSPECT

John Crutcher of Hutchinson, Kan., said Mikoyan's main theme was that the prospect of war now has become so horrifying as to make it abhorrent to all mankind, and that thus the Soviet Union is proposing complete and universal disarmament.

★ ★ ★

To be effective, Mikoyan was quoted, disarmament "must surely include (Communist) China as was one of the signatories." He also commented that it was high time the United States recognized the existence of Red China.

★ ★ ★

The American group visiting Mikoyan was led by Jerome Davis, who was head of the American YMCA relief activities in Russia at the time of the 1917 revolution and who interviewed Joseph Stalin soon after Stalin assumed full powers several decades ago. Three years ago Davis and his group had a three-hour interview with Khrushchev.

More Autos Sold in 1st Six Months of 1960, 2nd to Record '55

DETROIT (AP) — Ward's automotive reports says more new American cars were sold in the first six months of this year than in any opening six-month period since the record year 1955.

Compact cars made the difference, accounting for 25 per cent of the 3,253,132 cars sold. Sales in the first six months of 1955 were 3,851,900 compared with 2,936,135 last year.

★ ★ ★

The statistical agency reported yesterday the half-year period ended with a spectacular stretch drive in June. June sales of 593,600 units — a daily average of 22,831 — were the best monthly sales since August, 1955, Ward's said.

Here again the compacts led, taking a bigger than average share — 28.2 per cent — of the June market.

While the compacts were selling 817,915 units, sales of standard-size autos dropped from 2,672,281 in 1959 to 2,435,217 this year, the agency reported.

All-time sales records for the opening six months were set by Chevrolet (including Corvair), Rambler and Cadillac, Ward's said. Pontiac, Dodge and Mercury recorded gains over the first six months last year. Studebaker had a slight gain for the model year, which dates back to last fall.

The standard Ford, Lincoln, Plymouth (without Valiant) and DeSoto were among the makes for which sales were reported down from 1959.

Suit Claims Woman Defrauded Estate

DETROIT (UPI)—A suit was on file in Circuit Court here today charging Anna D. Phillips defrauded the estate of Russell B. Gray, Brighton, of several hundred thousand dollars.

★ ★ ★

Leroy Thompson, executor of Gray's estate, charged the woman posed as Gray's wife and sharcd income from Gary's manufacturing plant from 1944 to 1957.

★ ★ ★

The suit also charged she took money and securities from a safe after Gray died in 1957 and that she sold the machinery and equipment from the tool and die firm last winter.

★ ★ ★

The State Supreme Court threw out a will last July which the woman filed. It claimed Gray left the greater part of his estate to her

West Texans Hope for End to Flood Woes

By the Associated Press

Flood-plagued residents of West Texas hoped today for a break in the unrelenting showers that have dropped up to 15 inches of rain in the area during the past three days.

The Weather Bureau, however, could promise no relief for the sun-seared Pacific Northwest where menacing fires kindled in the dried timber and grasslands.

At Levelland, Tex., 16 families were forced to seek temporary shelter Thursday night when flood waters invaded their homes. Rain continued to fall on nearby Slaton, but 18 families chased from their homes by the previous night were beginning to return.

Truck Runs Over Area 3-Year-Old

A three-year-old twin son of a Madison Heights couple was killed yesterday afternoon when he ran into the side of a trailer truck near his home and was thrown under the left rear wheel.

Larry Kiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kiser, 304 W. Kalama St., Madison Heights, was dead on admittance to William Beaumont Hospital.

Driver of the truck, Melvin F. McCracken, 45, of 687 Davis St. Birmingham, told Madison Heights police that he was traveling about 15 m.p.h. and did not see the child. He was not held.

McCracken was to make a statement in the county prosecutor's office, Royal Oak, today.

Big Keg Foams, Makes 2 Million Pints at Once

DUBLIN (UPI) —What's probably the world's largest "beer keg" has finally foamed into full-scale operation here, turning out 2,246,400 pints of beer at a time.

The "keg" is a fermenting tun, built of stainless steel, installed at the Guinness brewery here. Guinness officials won't say flatly it's the world's biggest, but they don't know of any others half so big.

The warehouse-size tun holds the raw materials of beer while it ferments just enough to give it a proper kick — 7,800 bulk barrels at a time. The whole tun is sterilized after every use.

Landrum-Griffin Act Calls for a Financial Report From All

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department has started checking thousands of financial reports filed by unions under the 1959 Landrum-Griffin Act.

★ ★ ★

Known officially as the Labor-Management Reporting Act, the measure requires unions to file yearly financial reports.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said today both desk and field audits are under way and that in some cases, books and financial transactions of a union will be checked against its financial report to the department.

★ ★ ★

Financial reports must be filed within 80 days after the close of a union's fiscal year. So far, 39,080 international, national and local unions have filed reports. Thousands of additional reports are expected before the end of September from unions whose fiscal year ended June 30.

British Have New Idea, Flying Truck

LONDON (UPI)—A British firm has come up with an idea for a truck that flies. It's been named the "Flying Pig."

★ ★ ★

Bristol Siddeley Engines have submitted their idea to the Ministry of Aviation to meet military needs for machines that can take off and land vertically.

★ ★ ★

A cross between a truck and a helicopter, and powered by jet engines, it would skim down the road and be able to rise vertically to a height of 15,000 feet and cruise at 230 miles an hour.

Democrats Taking Over City of the Angels

over from the 1956 Chicago convention.

L. referred him to Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods. Right now she's Oakland County's "Mrs. Democrat."

NEW ATMOSPHERE

It now looks as though the second ballot will mark the demise of more favorite sons than in any convention of any party in history. The folks back home never witnessed such a cavalcade of also-rans.

There's a vastly different atmosphere here than prevailed at either the 1952 or 1956 Democratic conventions. And it isn't caused by the smog.

Both of these events met in an air of gloom, for a man named Ike was to lead the opposition in a race on the road that ends at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave.

In 1952 the Democrats were faced with the fact that Ike had led the combined forces to victory in World War II, and was a national hero. It was not a matter of politics. It was a personality election.

In 1956 this was further accented by the fact that even quite a number of Democrats were willing to admit that he had made a fairly good president.

These came from all classes, the high and the low. All were concerned about his every heart throb and tummy ache. The colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady both watched the papers for the latest on Ike's health condition.

But this year the party leaders are diligently peddling the theory that Ike now is history. They're even trying to show that his second term is not showing the statesmanship of his first.

★ ★ ★

They go further, and assert that anybody who has been closely affiliated with him has not earned the qualifications of a good president needed in trying times. But did you ever see a presidential election that did not take place when our nation was in "trying times?"

Yes, the Ike glamour that might have rubbed off on somebody else —(as they fear it has)—is claimed by them to be a liability rather than an asset.

This is only a part of a system inaugurated in top Democratic circles soon after the 1956 election, and it has been carried down to the grass roots to the most remote precinct.

HARRY'S CRY

It is that in two elections "we've learned that we cannot win in a spirit of gloom. We must accent the positive."

The war cry has been, "We're going to lick 'em," taking those words from Harry Truman in his acceptance speech at the Philadelphia convention of 1948.

There the unpredictable give-'em-hell Harry, with his wife and daughter at his side, started a campaign that kept him in the White House, although hardly anybody else in the country, including Bess and Margaret, thought it would.

This spirit has been preached diligently to the home folks, including those in Oakland County, at every Democratic meeting that has been held since. And there have been many of these meetings.

My humble opinion today is that the Democrats in the Pontiac area are far better organized than their opposition, and hope to prove it on Nov. 8. Plans to get out their vote have long been under way. The Republican who wins must do it on a personality basis.

★ ★ ★

One never gets very far into Michigan politics without our own Oakland County coming to the forefront. For instance, with Michigan an almost universal Republican state, it was a Democrat who first polled a million votes in it—and he was Oakland County's Murray D. Van Wagoner.

He did it in 1940 when elected governor, and inherited a state deficit of nearly 30 million dollars. He left office two years later with a balance of about the same amount in the state treasury. Compare this with the record of a recent six-termer.

While at lunch with him the other day, Murray told me that at 62 he is out of politics for good, and is not even coming to this convention. He is in favor of Symington as the nominee, feeling that Kennedy will be "all shot" after the early ballots.

★ ★ ★

And this choice of Murray was made before Harry Truman gave his personal endorsement to Symington—whether the Truman endorsement does Symington any good.

★ ★ ★

Oakland County can usually be depended upon to do something different at a political convention —or after. For instance, at the meeting of the electoral college following the 1956 election, Jake Levi of Royal Oak, temporarily representing our county's congressional elector, at first refused to give his vote for Eisenhower and Nixon. It was something new in political history. But Jake dropped into line after he had stirred up the desired publicity.

CHAIRMAN ABSENT

Another out-of-the-ordinary occurrence is the status of the Oakland County delegation at the coming convention here. The county chairman, Carlos Richardson, will not be present. The party will not be represented here by a chairman. Carlos' term does not expire until after the Aug. 2 primary. He is a victim of the party's local revolution, which may not do it any good on Nov. 8.

Nor will the "Mr. Democrat" of our county for several years be here. He is Willis M. Brewer. Absent also will be Art Law and several other of the party's stalwart horses in the Pontiac area.

There's no doubt that Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods is running Oakland County's destinies at the convention. She already has one of the most important state committee appointments.

Perhaps she got there through the help of union labor, but her personality has a lot to do with it. She's not to be swerved by political demand, sticking to Stevenson in spite of Soapy's endorsement of Kennedy. It has been my pleasure to know her many years. She's a good-looking revolutionist.

If history, population, industry or any other leading factor had anything to do with it, Michigan is entitled to a nominee for president. It is 112 years since we furnished the nominee of a major party, and he was defeated. And he was a Democrat.

In this connection, Oakland County again comes into the limelight. That nominee was Lewis Cass who, while not an actual resident of our county, did a great deal for it.

As territorial governor, he steered colonization our way after it had been diverted to Indiana and Illinois because a bunch of lazy federal surveyors had come from Detroit, and finding a swampy section in the present vicinity of Ferndale, turned back and reported that all of Michigan north of the point was a "hopeless morass."

Cass came out here himself and after a ten year delay the settlers were again sent to Michigan. Oakland County felt so kindly toward him that it named its largest lake in his honor, and Elizabeth Lake in honor of his wife.

In view of all these facts, the supporters of our Gov. G. Mennen Williams are claiming that Michigan is entitled to a nominee for president, and that, according to the standards and experiences of the men who seek the nomination, his qualifications are as good as those of anybody else.

However, after attending many of these national powwows, I've learned that any advance publicity has little to do with it. These things are settled in the horse trading before and after each ballot in the convention.

Soapy assures me that he has yet to engage in any horse trading. Perhaps in this age we should call it auto trading—either smells bad.

Anyway, the inside dope is that he hasn't a chance—unless the convention gets deadlocked, and has to hunt for a dark horse. If so, our Michigan governor has the complexion—with shades of Lewis Cass.

Bigger and Better Than Ever

4-H Club Fair Aug. 13-19

Bigger and better than last year has been the byword of the Oakland County 4-H Club Fair since its inception.

And every year, it seems, the local 4-Hers follow their own prophecy giving the county what probably is the biggest and best such affair in the state.

The 18th annual 4-H Club Fair will be held from Aug. 13 through 19 at the county fairgrounds, Walton boulevard and M24, and as always this year's fair promises to be bigger and better than anything preceding it.

An estimated 20,000 people flocked to last year's fair which featured approximately 5,000 exhibits covering nearly all the 4-H activities imaginable. According to Jack Worthington, county 4-H agent, these figures can't go anywhere but up.

★ ★ ★

The five-day show includes a Saturday night program this year for the first time. Up to now the lighted night events concluded on Friday.

Last year's opening day parade through the center of Pontiac will run again with a larger number of floats and participants fully expected.

★ ★ ★

The time consuming parade preparations have been moving at a slow pace, but Worthington expects things to be running like clockwork after the last minute flurry before opening day.

Although not as spectacular as parades or contests but equally important to the success of the fair, the grounds are undergoing a general face lifting.

Bleachers, something lacking in the past, have been installed; also a new water system. The traditional Clean-Up Days have not begun yet, but liberal coats of paint are being applied daily giving the buildings a pre-fair luster.

The 4-H entry deadline is July 30, 10 days before the fair opening. Of course, the entries will be bigger and better than ever—that goes without saying.

Sabreliner Passes First Test Flight

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP) — A new jet capable of serving as a military trainer and a commercial transport has passed its first test flight.

The T39 Sabreliner can carry a crew of two and four passengers at 500 miles an hour, North American Aviation, Inc., its builder, said Thursday.

The Air Force has ordered 42 of the planes, the first to be delivered in September.

Flat Rock-Ohio Run of U.S. to Hurry

LANSING (UPI)—The speed limit on U.S. 24 (Telegraph road) will be increased from 50 to 55 m.p.h. from Flat Rock south to the Michigan-Ohio state line effective July 20, the State Highway Department announced today.

The department said the speed limit increase was authorized because the new Detroit-Toledo Freeway had taken much of the traffic load off the highway.

Once Fled Batista, Now Quits Castro

Jose Miro Cardona Is Man-of-the-Week

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

The man-of-the-week: Jose Miro Cardona, former Cuban ambassador-designate to the United States.

The place: Havana.

The quote: "The ideological divergencies between the policies of government and my conscience are already insoluble."

★ ★ ★

Having thus penned his letter of resignation as Cuba's ambassador to the United States and another resigning as professor of criminal law at Havana University, Dr. Jose Miro Cardona made his way past Cuban policemen outside the Argentina Embassy and at 7:35 a.m. on Tuesday joined another distinguished fellow countryman in political exile.

Both had resigned because they could not effectively fight against Batista dictatorship, but neither now was able to stomach the dictatorship of Fidel Castro nor stomach Cuba's swift passage into the Communist orbit.

★ ★ ★

Rojas has called the Cuban government "in its present form definately Communist."

★ ★ ★

These were not the first among the bearded Castro's former followers to quit his camp, nor would they be the last.

But Miro Cardona's defection probably was the most damaging yet to Castro's prestige.

Miro Cardona had been the Castro regime's first prime minister, resigning without rancor when he found he could not effectively fill his office when policies were being changed minute-to-minute by Castro at the television microphone.

Miro Cardona was, in addition, one of Cuba's most outstanding lawyers and had been dean of Havana University's law school.

His resignation was one more evidence of the stresses within the Castro government, and, for Latin American nations who have viewed with detachment if not with sympathy Castro's assaults against the United States, further proof that Castro long ago had deserted the ideas of the revolution for which Miro Cardona and others had fought.

★ ★ ★

For the quiet, stocky Miro Cardona the decision that led to his resignation was a bitter one. Of Castro, he once had said:

The other man was Sergio Rojas Santamarina, former Cuban ambassador to Britain, who on June 28 sought asylum in the same embassy.

Both men had been dedicated "He is an advocate of the doctrine of Jose Marti (Cuban poet killed while leading a revolt against Spain). That is the doctrine of democracy, freedom, love of fellow man, welfare of the people and Cuban nationalism. He will never become a dictator."

★ ★ ★

Not many months later, he found his differences with Castro "insoluble."

★ ★ ★

And Jose Miro Cardona was back where he had been in 1958.

Then he was a fugitive from the government of President Fulgencia Batista, first in Mexico and then in Miami. Today he is a fugitive from Castro.

U.S. Citizens Live in Congo Unharmed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department said today there are about 700 United States citizens in the Congo. So far there have been no reports of injury to any of them.

The United States has an embassy at Leopoldville in the capital of the newly independent former Belgian colony. A consulate operates at Elizabethville.

The State Department press office said the Americans resident in the Congo are mainly missionaries, business men and government officials.

2 New Baltimore Men Killed in Auto Crash

ALGONAC (AP) — Two young New Baltimore men were killed late last night when the car in which they were riding careened off a road after failing to negotiate a curve and struck a tree about three miles north of this St. Clair County community.

The victims were Donald F. Harrington, 24, and Thomas Barney, 23. A third New Baltimore youth, Russell Wellman, 21, the driver, was taken to Port Huron Mercy Hospital, where his condition was reported as serious. Police said the car apparently was going at a high speed.

LIMP BLIMP—Fragments of the Navy blimp Reliance remained unsubmerged for a short time Wednesday after the tragic plunge into the Atlantic off the New Jersey coast. Caches of helium escaped slowly and allowed the skin to serve as a temporary monument to the death of 18 seamen. A fishing vessel noses up to the monstrous, 403-foot gas bag at the left.

On the Short End

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — City Council recently agreed with City Manager Elgin Crull that the name of "John W. Carpenter Freeway" should be shortened. City street signs, Crull pointed out, were not large enough to accommodate all of the letters.

Airship Champion Calls for Blimp Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Retired Vice Adm. Charles E. Rosendahl has called for congressional investigation of the Navy's attitude toward airships in the light of Wednesday's blimp tragedy.

He questioned the wisdom of building large airships without dividing the gas bag into compartments.

Rosendahl, long a leading advocate of lighter-than-air power and a sharp critic of the Navy on this score, said in a prepared statement that the plunge of the lastest type of blimp into the Atlantic off the central New Jersey coast in ideal weather conditions points to "a grievous situation somewhere in the broad airship picture."

"This is not just another airship accident to be swept under the rug with another condemnation of airships in general," Rosendahl said.

"It is high time that some wholly neutral agency, such as the Congress, undertake a thorough public airing of the deep-seated factors behind the Navy's continued unrealism in airship matters that could pyramid into such a tragedy."

* * *

Rosendahl, the wartime chief of naval airship training and experimentation at Lakehurst, N. J., was the senior surviving officer of the crash of the dirigible Shenandoah in a storm in September 1925. In repeated congressional testimony over a span of years he has accused the navy of neglecting development of lighter-than-air craft.

Rosendahl, now executive director of the National Air Transport Coordinating Committee, New York City, recalled that the Navy commended its blimps last winter for performance during weather which crippled all other flying among the northeast Atlantic seaboard.

He said the lost blimp unquestionably was the victim of some sudden material failure that let the lifting gas escape.

"Apparently the craft was deprived of a great amount of its natural buoyancy with such rapidity as to plunge it into the sea carrying with it 17 trapped men," the admiral said.

* * *

"This loss is undoubtedly related to the questionable wisdom of building such large airships on the noncompartment or blimp principle.

"This in turn stems from the Navy's continued blind refusal to properly evaluate, admit and benefit from the rigid airship lessons of the past, and so build compartmented structural airships for the purposes calling for such craft."

Explain Heart 'Massage' Way

3 Scientists Claim That Pressure on Chest Is Effective Method

CHICAGO (UPI) — The human heart can be massaged without opening the chest, three Baltimore scientists said today.

The action "requires only the human hand," the doctors wrote in the current issue of the journal of the American Medical Assn.

"The real value of the method lies in the fact that it can be used wherever the emergency arises, whether it is in or out of the hospital," they said.

The closed-chest method was described by Drs. W. B. Kouwenhoven, James R. Jude and G. Guy Knickerbocker of the Johns Hopkins University school of medicine.

The doctors said pressure should be applied with one hand on top of the other vertically downward on the patient's breast bone about 60 times a minute. The hands should be lifted slightly at the end of each pressure stroke.

They explained that the pressure compresses the heart, forcing out blood, while easing of pressure allows the heart to fill.

During the past 10 months, they said, the method was used on 20 patients, from 2 months to 80 years old.

All 20 were revived, they said, and "14 of them are alive without central nervous system damage."

Almost two-thirds of America's adult stockholders have incomes of less than $7,500, says a New York Stock Exchange survey.

Congress' Adjournment a Political Maneuver

Time consumed on civil rights and purely obstructionist tactics are the causes of the Congressional adjournment proposed by Democrats for August 8. Republicans oppose this move on the ground that there is still plenty of time to finish Congress' work.

★ ★ ★

After a six months session much major legislation is still to be considered. This includes 10 major appropriation measures dealing with social security, housing, school construction, minimum wage and medical care for the aged.

By calling Congress back after the presidential nominations opportunities for political maneuvering will be multiplied. Democrats hope to have more party discipline and to pass more liberal legislation. In the past few days the House Rules Committee has bottled up several bills on which the Democrats intended to make a record to impress voters.

★ ★ ★

At the same time one Republican presidential candidate — Vice President NIXON — will be protecting his interest from the presiding seat in the Senate. The situation, however, is made to order for political bickering and does not conform to the late Sen. TAFT'S idea that "legislation should be a deliberate process because it does establish permanent policies."

City Commission Helps Couple Purchase Land

Those who feel we live in an era when government is all business should take a look at the city commission's action the other night.

★ ★ ★

A Pontiac couple knew their land was in the area scheduled for the urban renewal project. They obtained an option to purchase a lot in Waterford Township, planning to pay for it with the money they received for their city land, when it was taken by the renewal program.

★ ★ ★

But the renewal program struck some delays, and their option was running out. Because of the couple's willingness to cooperate with the city and its improvement program, the commissioners bought the Waterford lot for the couple.

★ ★ ★

The city will get its money back when the urban program acquires the city land owned by the pair. The idea was City Manager Walter Willman's and we like it.

It shows there is a heart at city hall, and eagerness to help Pontiac help itself.

Africans Must Learn Meanings of Freedom

Several more African nations became independent the first of this month bringing the total to 15. Eighty years of British rule ended for Somaliland and 91 years of domination by Italy were terminated for the southern part of the country. These areas, though impoverished, have merged into a republic with a total population of 1.8 million and some prospect of orderly government.

★ ★ ★

Fear is felt for the richest country in Africa — the Congo — over one-third the size of the United States and with a population of 14 million. Half of the people of its 70 ethnic groups and 200 tribes are illiterate. There is no united national feeling, only intensive tribal loyalties and rivalries.

★ ★ ★

The 1958 riots in Leopoldville were more inter-tribal than anti-Belgian. Warfare between the tribes continues and there is a revival of barbaric customs and cannibalism. Terrified white settlers are fleeing the country because of threats by the blacks to take over not only the government but the whites' houses, cars and wives.

★ ★ ★

Against this background a former postal clerk, Patrice Lumumba, a convicted embezzler of $2,500 in postal funds, has been chosen to be the first head of the Republic of the Congo. Next in command is Belgian-backed and better educated Joseph Kasavubu. At the present time the government had a deficit of $100 million although experts say the economy is sound.

★ ★ ★

Communists, of course, are taking full advantage of the chaos. A Czech diplomat in Leopoldville, the capital, is losing no time in building up a political party in an area heretofore closed to Communists.

Whether he knows it or not the African needs European and American help desperately. He has yet to learn that with freedom comes many responsibilities.

Right Here in Our Own County, Is at Its Best

Pet peeve: The person who says, "I'll bet you don't remember me."

Now in its best viewing of the entire year is the most scenic spot in the Pontiac area. By most of those who've been there, it is considered the grandest view in Michigan.

"The Overlook,"

It is just off Dixie Highway, 17 miles northwest of the Pontiac courthouse, (notice your speedometer). At that point, just at the top of a slight rise, you turn to the right, (entrance plainly marked), into the Holly Recreational Area.

Good blacktop and gravel drives take you through a series of landscapes, but "The Overlook" is rather trickily hidden, so you'd better ask some of the park attendants how to get to its summit, which you reach on a good road, with easy grades.

The view from that vantage point of the lakes, islands, hills and dales is truly magnificent, and quite especially grand around the sunset hour. It is worth a drive from much further than Pontiac.

Some Left OVER?

David Lawrence Says:

It's Time for U.S. to Act on Cuba

WASHINGTON — The time for action on the Cuban problem has come. The patience of the United States Government is not unlimited.

Dealing with an erratic individual like Fidel Castro requires precautionary measures.

So Americans are rapidly getting out of Cuba.

In a little while they may all have been evacuated, though no formal warning to leave Cuba has as yet been issued by the State Department.

Out of the 6,000 Americans living there, nearly 3,000 have already departed with their families.

LAWRENCE

Is all this the forerunner of military action? Not unless Castro provokes such a crisis.

But if he does, he will find no hesitation on the part of the United States to employ its military power to protect the lives and properties of its citizens.

The Castro government has confiscated the property of Americans, British and other Europeans involving hundreds of millions of dollars, and threatens more seizures.

MUST RESPECT RIGHTS

Confiscation in itself is not a basis for military action, but, if the property is actually stolen and nothing but worthless notes are issued in exchange, the American Government is justified in taking over the properties and retaining possession until such time as a free government comes into office which will respect the rights of American and other foreign citizens in Cuba.

The U.S. Government has an obligation not only to its own citizens but to those of other governments.

For ever since the Monroe Doctrine was proclaimed in the early days of our Republic, the U.S. has acted as a trustee for the citizens of other countries.

The Doctrine was designed as a warning to European governments not to seek to establish a foothold in this hemisphere by annexing or dominating territory not previously colonized by them.

The Soviet government, by gaining control of the Castro regime, is today flagrantly disregarding the Monroe Doctrine.

★ ★ ★

In recent years, the Monroe Doctrine has been accepted as an international obligation of all the Pan-American states.

In 1954 at Caracas, Venezuela, the 10th Inter-American Conference, attended by members of the Organization of American States, adopted a resolution which declared:

"That the domination or control of the political institutions of any American state by the international Communist movement, extending to this hemisphere the political system of an extracontinental power, would constitute a threat to the sovereignty and political independence of the American states, endangering the peace of America, and would call for a meeting of consultation to consider the adoption of appropriate action in accordance with existing treaties."

Such a consultation does not require unanimous action.

Indeed, it may be just an intermediate step before a decision is made by the U.S., along with several other countries, to use military force as authorized under Article 51 of the United Nations Charter.

The only requirement is that the United Nations Security Council be given proper notice of the steps taken.

Inasmuch as this is a campaign year, it is quite possible that President Eisenhower will feel impelled to ask Congress for a joint resolution authorizing him to take certain steps to prevent Soviets from getting a foothold in Cuba.

The possible shipment of Soviet arms to Cuba has already been reported.

The U.S. is not anxious to become involved in a military war in Cuba, but there have been hints by the Castro government of possible seizure of the U.S. Naval base at Guantanamo, which is maintained under a Cuban-American treaty of many years standing.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Many Persons Need Supplements to Diets

Those authorities who prate about getting all the vitamins and minerals one needs from a diet which includes adequate proportions of milk, eggs vegetables, meat, greens, and fruit, do not specify which or how much of these foods will supply enough vitamin D for instance. They can't, because no food or foods acceptable day by day will do so.

DR. BRADY

Calcium deficiency, probably the most important factor of chronic joint disability, is perhaps the easiest to prevent or correct — by consuming not less than 1½ pints of milk daily and or enough cheese, egg yolk, leafy vegetables and greens, peas, beans, nuts, and peanuts to insure an optimal daily intake of calcium. Optimal means two or three times as much as nutrition authorities consider the minimum daily requirement.

★ ★ ★

Because the invisible ultraviolet rays of sunlight acting upon the skin generate vitamin D, one who gets sufficient exposure to sunshine or skyshine may manufacture enough vitamin D to maintain good calcium nutrition. But just good calcium nutrition is not enough for a person with rheumatiz. He or she should supplement the daily diet and the daily exposure to sunshine or skyshine with a suitable daily ration of vitamin D in one form or another.

The vitamin B deficiency factor of chronic joint disability is best combatted, I believe, by using plain wheat items in place of refined flour items in the every-day diet.

SOME NEED MORE

This alone might be sufficient to prevent the numerous common ailments which are really manifestations of B deficiency, but that is not enough for the person with rheumatiz. He or she should supplement the very best diet with a suitable daily ration of the main B vitamins.

★ ★ ★

Medical and nutrition authorities believe that almost every man, woman, or child in North America needs more iodin than he or she is likely to get from food or drinking water.

That's why the authorities approve the practice of feeding everybody a minute quantity of iodin to supplement his or her iodin-poor food and drinking-water. The universal use of iodized salt in place of ordinary salt, I mean.

The infinitesimal amount of iodin one may get from iodized salt may be sufficient for some persons — especially persons who happen to have sea food two or three times a week. But it is certainly not enough for one who already has manifestations of iodin deficiency.

Such a person needs an optimal daily intake of iodin, at least for six months to a year.

After that he may thrive on just the minimum requirement.

Appreciates Display Given by Volunteer Firemen

After watching the fire demonstration, water battle and the beautiful fireworks display put on by the Pontiac Township Volunteer Firemen at Auburn Heights this past Fourth of July, I started wondering how many of the hundreds that watched this display fully realize the time, money and effort that it takes to bring this about.

Displays of this nature have typified the Fourth of July for many years, and I think all those who were privileged to watch this owe these men a debt of gratitude. They certainly reminded us once again of our freedom as Americans.

As an interested observer at the last meeting of the City Commission, I am concerned about the public knowing the true facts. It would be a public service and it should be an obligation for the Pontiac Press to print in its entirety the order that Judge Davis gave to re-instate former Chief Straley with full powers and also to print in full the PAS report that the taxpayers have $18,000 invested in.

I am sure that this would clear up some of the confusion that now exists.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Use Strategy to Rebuild Marriage

Jane's marriage was just about washed up. And that would have blighted not only her own happiness, but also have hurt the career of her talented dentist husband. She salvaged their happiness, even at the last moment, by resolutely following the psychological prescription below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE F-411: Jane L., aged 30, is the wife of the dentist whom I quoted yesterday.

"Dr. Crane, what can I do to save my marriage?" she spoke tearfully.

"For Norman says he can't stand me any longer. He wants a divorce. But that would be intolerable to my family, for they don't believe in divorce.

DR. CRANE

"Can't I win him back? Or is it too late?"

REBUILT LOVE

Love can be rebuilt, even if one party to the romance hates the other one! And that is not an exaggeration.

Several times I have described patients in this column who detested their mates, but who were madly in love again within a year.

But one of the two people involved, must use the proper psychological strategy. If the other one is willing to cooperate, that makes the task doubly easy.

But you can win your mate's affection again, even against the latter's wishes.

In Jane's case, I employed the "sandwich method" for giving her reproof regarding her slovenly habits in the home.

This "sandwich" plan means that you start off with an honest compliment. Then deftly insert the "meaty" or critical layer.

It is well to smile tolerantly and use the casual, "I wonder if it wouldn't be better if you tried very hard to be neat around the house. That's especially true since Norman is so meticulous."

I added another honest compliment to complete the sandwich. In this way, you can put across the needed reproof without offending the other person's ego.

So he gets the point, yet still likes you as a friend! And that is the ideal method for teachers and parents to use, too, with children.

Otherwise, the reproved person grows irritable and bitter and dislikes the one who corrected him.

LOVE STRATEGY

Then I urged Jane to be very liberal with compliments for her mate, making it a solemn rule to give him a minimum of THREE spoken compliments every day.

In addition, she was to smile delightedly when he came home, for a smile is a dandy non-verbal compliment.

And she was to kiss him, Hollywood style, and put all the "oomph" into the act that she could muster.

"If you can get him to go through the motions of love," I warned her, "then he will soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions."

For emotions automatically follow the proper motions. You can't control emotions directly. But you can direct your motions, such as words, smiles, kisses, considerate acts, etc.

Well, Jane reported back to me that on the first night, Norman barely kissed her. It was an effort on his part.

But she kept up her role, and never let on that she was hurt by his impersonal attitude and studied aloofness.

"Before the end of the week, he wasn't so impersonal," she exulted, "for I could feel him weakening. And then he finally kissed me back—again as he used to during our courtship."

To further her strategy, I also gave her the bulletin "Sex Problems in Marriage." If you don't have a copy, send a stamped return envelope, plus twenty cents.

For a sexually adjusted married couple rarely will seek a divorce, even when many other glaring faults are present. But, even so, always correct your faults.

Nixon, Percy Talk Platform

Chairman Not Certain if Planks Can Please Both VP and Rocky

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Charles H. Percy, chairman of the Republican resolutions committee, meet today to discuss GOP platform building.

In advance of the scheduled day-long session, Percy said he had "no idea" whether he could come up with a platform acceptable to both Nixon and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

★ ★ ★

Percy said some planks will be more difficult to work out than others — such as medical care for the aged and defense spending, on which Nixon and Rockefeller are in conflict.

But Percy predicted the platform will be one Nixon will be proud to run on. The vice president is considered a sure bet for the GOP presidential nomination.

MEET 3 HOURS

Rockefeller and Percy met Thursday for three hours. The chairman plans later meetings with GOP National Chairman Thruston B. Morton, Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson and other party leaders.

★ ★ ★

Both Morton and Percy told newsmen they did not anticipate difficulty over a GOP civil rights plank. But Morton said there might be differences in the early stages of reaching agreement on an agriculture plank.

★ ★ ★

Morton announced Thursday night that both former President Herbert Hoover and former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will address the party's convention which opens in Chicago July 25. Hoover will address the opening day session. Dewey, who was the GOP nominee in 1944 and 1948, will speak at a time to be announced later.

THE PROMOTER—Steeplejack Jerry Williams takes time out from painting a Columbia, Mo., flagpole to promote a "Yes" vote in a wheat referendum. Wheat growers will decide July 21 whether they favor restricting prices or unlimited production, lower prices.

Venezuela Due Before OAS

Council Expected to Probe Charges Against Dominican Republic

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Organization of American States is expected to move today to establish a committee to investigate Venezuela's charge of aggression by the Dominican Republic.

★ ★ ★

The 21-nation OAS council meets late today to consider the Venezuelan request, presented earlier this week.

Venezuela has asked a special meeting of Western Hemisphere foreign ministers under the terms of the 1947 Inter-American treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) and is expected to urge the immediate setting of a date and place for the ministerial meeting.

★ ★ ★

Other members of the OAS council, however, are expected to take a more cautious approach and approve a resolution under which the OAS council itself would form a provisional organ of consultation.

★ ★ ★

This has been the procedure followed in eight previous applications of the Rio treaty.

★ ★ ★

In the previous instances the OAS council usually has sent an investigatory committee to determine the facts in the situation before actually establishing the date meet. These committees heretofore have been able to resolve the disputes without recourse to the ministers.

Navy Quite Confident Polaris to Work OK

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The Polaris submarine missile has encountered trouble at a critical point in its test program, but the Navy is confident the rocket will meet its upcoming submarine launch and operational deadlines.

★ ★ ★

One of the stubby, 28-foot Polarises went out of control and was destroyed by the range safety officer Thursday seconds after it was fired from a ship steaming about eight miles offshore. The flaming missile cartwheeled into the Atlantic several hundred yards in front of the ship, The USS Observation Island.

★ ★ ★

On Wednesday, another Polaris failed 90 seconds after launch from a land pad because of a second stage malfunction.

Just Like Bobbies

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — Decatur police will carry nightsticks like those used by London bobbies by July 15. Chief James May said today blackjacks will be discarded. Nightsticks, he said, are short, springy, light and effective.

New Building at Frankfurt Post Exchange

GIs to Dress Up for PX Shopping

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — The Bermuda-clad GI walked up to the front door of the Frankfurt Post Exchange and was stopped by a military policeman.

★ ★ ★

When the soldier asked why he was refused admittance to the PX, the MP simply pointed to a sign which read: "Casual civilian clothing is not considered proper dress."

The guard informed the soldier he had been ordered to turn away any personnel not wearing a coat and tie, along with women dressed in slacks, shorts or blue jeans.

This was the scene last weekend at the Post Exchange which has Frankfurt's American community in an uproar.

The ban on casual dress during off-duty hours was instigated by Col. Ellis D. Blake, commander of the Frankfurt Post, who is trying to sharpen up the dress habits of his men and their wives.

★ ★ ★

Blake's prime target is the constant stream of shoppers using the Frankfurt Post Exchange and commissary store.

Sports clothes for men, and bermuda shorts, slacks or jeans for women have been considered normal attire at the PX for years.

But last weekend, MPs were posted at the entrance and they turned away all customers who were not attired according to Blake's standards.

★ ★ ★

A number of them protested vehemently when they were denied admittance. Some GIs even offered to buy a tie inside if the MPs would let them in. But instead, they had to send in a "properly dressed" friend to buy one before they could enter.

★ ★ ★

The same system was enforced at the commissary, where dozens of bobby-pinned housewives were turned away when they arrived to buy their groceries. They were forced to return home to change.

★ ★ ★

The new ruling recalled a similar one five years ago when Col. John H. Dilley, one of Blake's predecessors, put out a similar order.

★ ★ ★

Dilley, who earned the nickname of "Colonel Dior" because of his edict, ruled out lederhosen (German short leather trousers) for men, and slacks, shorts and pin-curlers for women.

The order lasted until Dilley was transfegred from Frankfurt.

14 Days of Uncertainty End for His Wife

Survives Mountain Survival Test

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—"I didn't even know until Wednesday whether he was dead or alive," the wife said of her survival-kit testing husband who parachuted into the cool waters of Burnt Lake, located 9,000 feet above sea level in Wyoming's wilderness area near Pinedale.

That was 14 days ago.

* * *

But rancher Stan Decker informed Mrs. Robert Lindblad of Salt Lake City that he met her 26-year-old husband in the mountains Tuesday and that Bob would reach the ranch Friday and end his 15-day test of a survival kit he developed himself because he decided the military's kits were not good enough.

Lindblad taught survival courses in the Arctic while he was in the Air Force.

* * *

Three years ago he started developing his own kit for flyers, hikers or skiers. He made the test, his wife said, "because he didn't want to sell someone his kit and then have them die in the wilderness because it wasn't the right thing."

Lindblad took only the kit with him, no sleeping bag. But he has a parka. The kit has food concentrates and a booklet that tells you how to go about living in the wilds—after you pull yourself out of the lake.

* * *

He, his uncle and father-in-law hope to manufacture and market the kit if this test turns out all right.

Dems in Top Shape, Williams Writes

DETROIT (UPI) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams, in an article published in this week's issue of The Nation, said he believes the Democratic Party has rarely been "in better ideological shape than it is today."

* * *

Williams wrote that political journalists often complain that "the difference between the (Republican and Democratic) parties is the difference between Tweedledum and Tweedledee — and there is too much twaddle in both parties anyway."

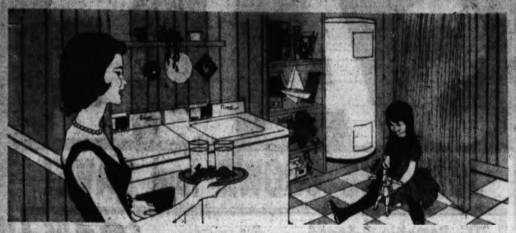
* * *

But he said that "There is an unmistakable, healthy trend toward programmatic liberalism" in the Democratic Party and that "liberals now have a unique chance to characterize the Democratic Party and help determine the destiny of the country for the next decade."

The oldest wooden house still standing in the United States—and in good condition—is believed to be the Fairbanks House in Dedham, Mass., built in 1636.

why there's no water heater like an

ELECTRIC WATER HEATER



INSTALL ONE WHERE YOU LIKE—EVEN IN AN AIR-TIGHT CLOSET. When it's an electric water heater, there's no flame, so no air is needed to support combustion. There are no fumes to be vented. An electric water heater is completely safe.

BUILT-IN QUALITY MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE. Every electric water heater installed on Detroit Edison lines must meet Edison's exacting specifications. Result: long life, high performance for every water heater.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE TABLE TOP MODELS? They're compact, go beneath counters or alongside laundry equipment. Other possibilities—in the kitchen next to sink or dishwasher or in that hard-to-use corner. Upright or table top model, put an electric water heater where you want it.

HOTTER WATER—PLENTY OF IT! An electric water heater is capable of going on and on, delivering really hot water—160° hot—without burning out. And heavy insulation all around keeps the outside shell of the water heater cool to the touch from top to bottom. There's no hot metal anywhere.

8 OUT OF 10 FAMILIES USE THE 50-GALLON SIZE. For less than 15¢ a day (estimated operating cost for this size) you can have hot water for all the family's needs. There are also 80- and 110-gallon sizes for the few families who use more water and may require greater capacity.

Taganka Prison Closed, Moscow Papers Report

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow's Taganka Prison has closed, local papers announced today. It was the third prison shut down recently in the Soviet capital.

The news reports said an apartment house and gardens will be built on the prison site.

Taganka was similar to an American county jail with attached work yards, housing mostly petty criminals and not political prisoners.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Meller, D.V.M.

Q. Our 13-year-old dog has lost several teeth and others seem to be loose. Does this usually happen to older dogs?

A. Like many other adages, "clean as a hound's tooth" is without credence. A dog's teeth are not immune to bacteria, and he has the added disadvantage of being unable to brush after meals.

Loss of teeth in the aged dog is not uncommon. Years of mastication can wear, chip and break the teeth; time produces change in the gum structure that loosens them in the sockets. Infected teeth can poison the dog's system and shorten his life.

After five or six years of age, the animal should have a yearly check-up. Your veterinarian can clean the teeth, remove accumulated tartar, and extract if necessary.

The diet of the older dog does not demand the teeth of his youth, and even if total extraction is indicated, your pet will still enjoy feeding time for his remaining years.

Ike Is Invited, but Refuses, to Exhibit Art

SHELBURNE FALLS, Mass. (AP)—The Bridge of Flowers Artists Guild invited President Eisenhower to exhibit his painting at its arts festival Aug. 19-21 and learned he doesn't stockpile completed paintings for exhibition.

★ ★ ★

In fact, Mrs. Carl Adler, president of the guild, was informed by a White House social secretary that he has given away every work he has finished.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Adler was told the President has made it a policy not to exhibit, since he is an amateur.

Teen-Ager Riding Horse Hits Car, Breaks Ankle

An Orion Township teen-ager was injured Thursday when the horse she was riding ran into the side of a moving car at Joslyn and Brown roads in Pontiac Township.

* * *

Judy Ray, 15, of 691 Brown Rd., was in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with a broken ankle.

* * *

She told sheriff's deputies that she was unable to control the horse as it ran into the car driven by Juanita L. Cocking, 20, of 1940 Queensbury St., Orion Township.

Convention Sidelights

Scotch With Bourbon at LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Convention lowlights:

Maybe it's the weather (mid-70s), but so far the Democrats don't appear to be drinking it up as expected. The Biltmore Hotel, beehive of pre-convention activity, reports business is only "fairly good" in the three public bars and with room-service orders. No breakdown yet on whether the bourbons prefer bourbon or scotch.

* * *

Nor are results in on the battle of the colas. Both big firms are busy here, dispensing free drinks side by side. One had pretty girls handing them out, the other a sexless machine. In an emergency move, the machines were supplemented with pretty girls. Now it's an even match. Sorry can't mention the company names. Payola.

* * *

Evidence that Sen. John F. Kennedy's camp is aiming at egghead following long loyal to Adlai E. Stevenson delegates and newsmen are gifted with paperback copies of the Kennedy tome, "The Strategy of Peace".

Winner of the battle of the buttons: Stu Symington from the great state of Missouri. The buttons handed out at his headquarters are a full three inches in diameter, Runner-up: Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson at 2¼. Alen rans: Stevenson at 1¼; Kennedy a surprising ⅝ths. However, the Kennedy campaign shows no penny-pinching in other matters.

* * *

More than candidates' supporters have been busy. Two CBS correspondents reported their wallets were lifted in local crowds.

The pickets had an active day. A dozen showed up in front of the Biltmore to protest capital punishment — "Let Chessman not have died in vain." The placards were directed at California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who is nowhere around.

* * *

Amid all the political signs is one oddity in the Biltmore lobby: A banner for the Chicago Cubs. What are they running for? To get out of the cellar of the National League. They are also staying at the Biltmore.

* * *

Folks do a double-take to see Florida Highway troopers standing in the California sunshine in front of the Biltmore. They explain they're escorting Gov. Leroy Collins, as required by state law. One trooper, who wore a pearl-handled pistol, was asked how he liked the Los Angeles traffic. "Real rough," he grumbled.

* * *

Everybody's getting into the act. Even Disneyland has a booth at the Biltmore. Delegates are given a choice of campaign buttons pledging them to Tinkerbell, Mickey Mouse or Goofy. Size of their buttons: 2¼ inches, same as Lyndon Johnson.

Death Notices

MRS. PARMER A. HENDERSON

Service for Mrs. Parmer A. (Cora) Henderson, 79, of 2311 Oakdale St., Drayton Plains, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Calvary Presbyterian Church in Flint, with burial in Flint Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Henderson died Wednesday at Pontiac General Hospital following a seven-month illness.

Surviving are her husband; six sons, Carl, Morris, George and Elton, all of Flint, Edgar of Mount Clemens and Elvin of Davison; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Killian of Drayton Plains, with whom she made her home, and Mrs. Helen Ramsey of Flint; 11 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; a brother and a sister.

Her body will be at Dodds-Dumanois Funeral, Flint, until noon Saturday.

Ginger Rogers Falls Off Stage, Continues Show

WARWICK, R.I. (AP) — Movie star Ginger Rogers fell into the orchestra pit from a bicycle during a performance of "Annie Get Your Gun" at the Warwick Musical Theatre Thursday night. She was unhurt.

She rode the cycle off the circular stage during the first act, landing in the lap of a musician.

"I'm all right folks," she called to the audience and returned to the stage.

RAYBURN ARRIVES — House Speaker Sam Rayburn waves a greeting upon his arrival in Los Angeles Thursday to spearhead the drive to win the Democratic presidential nomination for his fellow Texan, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson. He said he thought Johnson's chances were "just fine," but didn't know whether the convention would be an open one.

It was Bias, one of the so-called Seven Sages of Greece about 570 B. C., who gave this advice: "Hear much; speak little."

Mexican Leader Sides With Cuba

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A congressional spokesman for Mexico's ruling political party says the nation is solidly backing the Cuban people against the United States. Senators and deputies gave him rousing cheers.

President Adolfo Lopez Mateos was silent on the statement made by Emilio Sanchez Piedras, chairman of the permanent commission of Congress.

* * *

Sources close to the President said they felt the statement represented the view of a spokesman for the legislative branch and not the executive, which is responsible for Mexico's foreign policy under the constitution. But his speech was billed as an explanation of the basic policies of Lopez Mateos' government, and it seemed most unlikely he would have spoken without consulting top government officials.

Sanchez Piedras told a congressional caucus, "It appears that our northern neighbor (the United States) is closing the doors of its friendship and understanding in the face of the yearnings of the Cuban people to live in liberty and economic independence."

* * *

"We, the representatives of the people of Mexico, repeat to the Cuban people our same attitude of solidarity," he continued, "and we wish to tell them that we are certain that their right to live in social justice and economic liberty will have to prevail in this continent in the hope of peace and reciprocal friendship."

He made no direct reference to Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The congressional leader said he was speaking for the Party of Revolutionary Institutions (PRI), which has an overwhelming majority in Congress and runs almost all phases of Mexican political life. Lopez Mateos is officially the leader of the PRI.

* * *

The statement appeared certain to cause concern on the part of the U. S. government. The U. S. Embassy was expected to ask the foreign ministry to what extent it reflected the Mexican government's official policy.

Sanchez Piedras' statement also was certain to find no favor with Mexico's sugar industry, which hopes to supply the United States between 175,000 and 200,000 tons of the 70,000 tons of sugar President Eisenhower lopped off Cuba's quota for 1960. Mexico's sales to the United States now amounts to about 62,000 tons a year.

Tregoff to See Finch; Strategy Session Planned

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. R. Bernard Finch isn't giving up in his attempts to meet with Carole Tregoff.

* * *

Finch, refused by the State Supreme Court in his plea for a private conference room with no guards present, asked Thursday to meet with shapely Carole in the courtroom during noon recesses.

His attorney, Grant B. Cooper, said strategy sessions between the defendants, attorneys and witnesses are needed. The judge is considering the request.

* * *

Finch, a wealthy surgeon, and Miss Tregoff, his mistress and onetime receptionist, are on trial for the second time on charges they murdered his socialite wife last year. The first trial ended in a jury deadlock.

Midsummer Night's Madness Falling Over LA

'California Will Go for Jack, If..'

Candidate Must First Near 700 Votes, High Delegate Claims

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The key state of California will swing solidly to Sen. John F. Kennedy if the Massachusetts senator is close to the 700-vote mark early in the balloting at the Democratic National Convention.

That is the prediction by one of the high-ranking leaders of the state's 81-vote delegation.

If Kennedy's early ballot strength is only 600-650 votes, said the California source, the Golden State delegation will split four ways, despite the expected endorsement of Kennedy by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

* * *

Browns is a "favorite son" or nominal presidential candidate. The delegation is expected to vote for him the first time around but probably will switch to serious candidates even before the first-ballot results are announced.

* * *

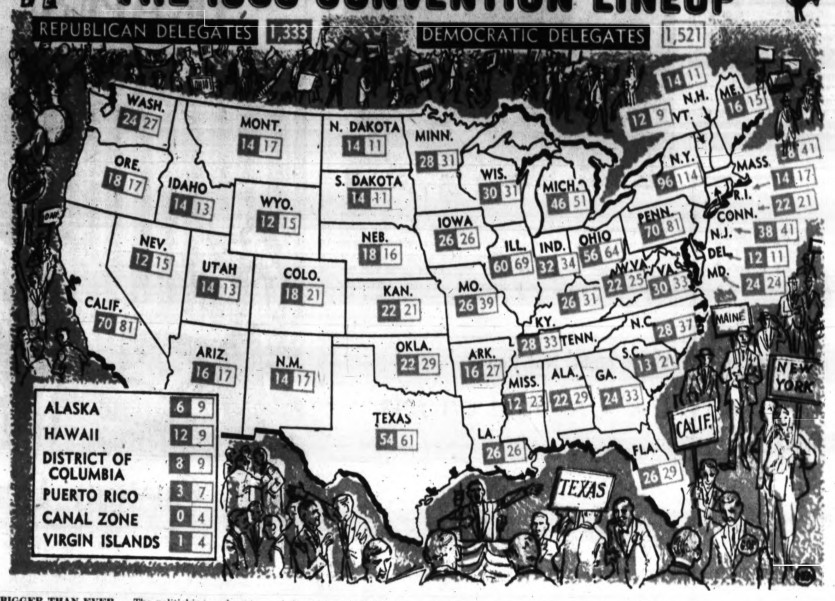
The governor has not yet come out for Kennedy although he has said he is "leaning" toward him.

* * *

Brown is expected to declare publicly for Kennedy when the state delegation holds a caucus next Sunday, the day before the convention starts.

The President may grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

THE 1960 CONVENTION LINEUP



BIGGER THAN EVER — The politicking and oratory of the nation's two major parties will take place before more delegates than ever. Democratic reapportionment, designed to reflect population growth and strength of the party in particular states, has added 149 delegates over the 1956 number. As the Dems open their convention in Los Angeles Monday, each state will have at least one vote more than it had four years ago. New York has the biggest gain, jumping from 98 to 114. California picked up 13, rising to 81 from 68. The Republicans, who'll start July 25 in Chicago, present a contrast. They've decided on a modest over-all increase of 10 delegates. Some states have gained, some have lost. Each party requires a simple majority of delegates to nominate a candidate. The Dems' magic number is 761, for the GOP, 667.

Many Dem Candidates Will Moan 'Et Tu, Brute'

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON—A Shakespearean drama is about to be played to standing room only at the nominating convention in Los Angeles.

So many stellar performers are already beginning to mutter "Et tu, Brute" to their supposed friends that the stage will be assured a full quota of dead bodies before the final curtain drops.

The great Elizabethan tragedian did not invent the line, but few utterances are now more pertinent than the historic watchword: "Protect me from my friends; I can take care of my own enemies."

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler started the possible head-rolling by shedding the garments of neutrality, which his role traditionally requires until a party standard-bearer is nominated.

Through his over-zealous activities in behalf of Sen. John F. Kennedy, he has antagonized so many Democrats that he is giving the youthful front-runner the political shivers.

* * *

Ex-Prexy Harry S. Truman, always short on tact but long on courage, jumped in next to wield the meat ax on Butler and Kennedy. His intention was to further the presidential aspirations of Sen. Stuart Symington, but his sledge-hammer approach may have had the opposite effect.

To a preponderance of informed politicos, it appears that Truman has virtually scuttled his own candidate's chances.

Truman, in turn, has an uncontested right to shout "Et tu, Brute" at former New York Gov. Averell Harriman. Four years ago he crawled out on a hopeless political limb to espouse the presidential candidacy of Harriman.

* * *

When his old pal bit the political dust at the hands of Adlai Stevenson, Truman made this exhibit A in his recent lecture against closed conventions.

You'd think that Harriman would enjoy the martyred hero's role that his old boss assigned him, but no!

Barely had the smiling Truman walked off center-stage than Harriman seized the television spotlight to denounce the former president's blast. Absolutely, positively denying Truman's charges that the Los Angeles convention has been fixed in favor of Kennedy, Harriman said it would be "entirely open." Harriman, of course, is for Kennedy.

NO DIXIE DARLING

Meanwhile, Lyndon B. Johnson has been scowlingly denying that he is the darling of Dixie, and claiming that he's a rough-and-ready westerner.

His southern friends patiently continue to love him, while his new-found western friends flirt outrageously with the youthful easterner whom Johnson patronizingly calls "a nice boy."

Exactly one week before Truman cockily took to the airwaves to bury Jack Kennedy, not to praise him, Robert Kennedy worriedly confided that Butler might be hurting his brother's chances more than he was helping.

It was not ever thus. In preceding weeks, the Kennedy faces had been wreathed in smiles as the national chairman blatantly violated standard rules of fair play by spreading the word that Jack was unbeatable.

* * *

While other Democratic presidential hopefuls writhed at the Butler scene-grabbing in behalf of their chief opponent, delegates merrily stormed aboard the Kennedy bandwagon.

Inevitably, an opposite reaction began to set in. Mutterings of unseemly pressures and high-handed tactics slowed the pace of switching delegates, almost in sight of the goal line.

Bobby Kennedy, defending Brother John, mused aloud: "I'm not sure Butler has helped him. He's probably hurt him, because so many people dislike Butler that they get riled at the mere mention of his name."

* * *

Ah, well . . . all's well that ends well. Perhaps an arena out west in Los Angeles is no place for a Shakespearean drama, anyway.

* * *

The capacity audience will be crying for blood-letting in the grand manner, but in keeping with our own American tradition, it might be better to explain the inevitable mayhem with that classic line:

* * *

"I didn't know the gun was loaded."

Humphrey Now Eying Veep Job?

Seems to Be Taking a Very Long Shot in His Backing of Stevenson

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you believed Sen. Hubert Horatio Humphrey really benched himself after that presidential primary in West Virginia, take another look.

* * *

Humphrey appears still to be running. If so, it is the vice presidency after which he is running, not the Democratic presidential nomination.

* * *

The evidence that Humphrey now seeks the vice presidential nomination is simply this:

—He is aggressively ambitious and has believed for some years that he should be promoted from the U.S. Senate.

—Humphrey has made a long-shot bet on the Democratic presidential nomination, so long that it seems to involve a calculated risk.

No one could be more aware than Humphrey that long shots are hazardous. Long-shot betting involves taking a long chance. Humphrey's long-shot bet is that Adlai E. Stevenson will be nominated for president next month by the Democratic National Convention.

CONTROLS SOME VOTES

Humphrey is estimated to have more or less control over 50 to 60 delegate votes, although it is not at all certain that he can deliver them. However that may be, a mere effort to deliver that bloc of votes to the current leader would assure for Humphrey a star in Sen. John F. Kennedy's record book. Such an effort would be an obvious bet on the favorite.

Stevenson, however, is Humphrey's man. The senator last week telegraphed Stevenson a cheer for a speech just delivered before the textile workers.

The telegram included this enthusiastic query:

* * *

"When are you going to make a direct move for the nomination? Many people are waiting."

* * *

It will occur to any practical politician that Stevenson is the only person with any chance of being nominated for president who could accept a U.S. senator as his running mate.

Having served two consecutive terms of the presidency, Washington refused to run again, thereby setting the precedent of no more than two terms in office. This precedent was broken when Franklin D. Roosevelt, in 1940 and 1944, was elected to office for the third and fourth times.

Religious Issue Dead but Won't Lie Down

By LYLE C. WILSON

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The liveliest political corpse you ever are likely to encounter is the dead and buried issue of Sen. John F. Kennedy's Roman Catholic religious faith.

The issue of religion in United States politics died and was buried, you will remember, in the May 10 West Virginia presidential primary. West Virginia is an overwhelmingly Protestant community.

* * *

Kennedy won that one. He won by so big a margin that his opponent, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), abandoned his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Humphrey had not been regarded as a strong candidate.

West Virginia's religious complexion, however, seemed to offer him an opportunity to benefit from such religious prejudice as might exist there.

When the returns were in, it was logical to conclude that religious prejudice was not much of a factor in U.S. politics —not, anyway, in West Virginia.

Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion, however, seems to survive as a political issue. Americans are talking about it and they are responsible Americans. For example:

Evangelist Billy Graham said in Washington on June 14 that Protestants would have to face unique problems if a Catholic were president of the United States.

Graham believes religion will be an underlying issue if a Catholic is nominated for president.

BUTLER SPEAKS

Chairman Paul Butler of the Democratic National Committee suggested last month to a National Press Club audience that Catholic voters would punish the Democratic Party if Kennedy came to the nominating convention with almost enough votes to win but was rejected by the delegates.

If Butler is right about that, religion certainly is an issue in next week's Democratic Convention.

Ten days after the West Virginia primary, a Miami, Fla., dispatch to the New York Times said:

"Thirteen thousand Southern Baptists unanimously adopted a resolution here today expressing strong fears about electing Sen. John F. Kennedy or any other Catholic as president of the United States."

This Southern Baptists' Convention represented 9,500,000 members. It is the country's second largest Protestant denomination. A United Press International dispatch from Rochester, N. Y., on June 7 said: "American Baptists spoke out strongly today against what they called 'Roman Catholic influence' on political issues. Delegates denounced the Catholic interpretation of the U.S. Constitution and its views on separation of church and state." This was from the American Baptists Convention.

* * *

"The Sign," a national Catholic magazine, devoted much of its July issue to discussion of Catholics and the presidency. The editor, Father Ralph Gorman, C. P., wrote that many Americans have been misinformed by anti-Catholic propaganda.

Dem Davis Needed 103 Ballots in 1924

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Democratic National Convention of 1924 set an all-time record for marathon balloting on a presidential nominee.

It took 103 roll calls for the delegates to settle on John W. Davis, an eminent New York lawyer, as the party's standard-bearer.

The Democrats met in Madison Square Garden, New York, on June 24.

Norman Thomas Asks Platforms Mean Something

NEW YORK (UPI) — Norman Thomas, who ran six times for the presidency on the Socialist ticket, today called upon the Democratic and Republican parties to make their 1960 platforms "mean something" on the issues, particularly those of civil rights and disarmament.

* * *

The Socialist leader sent a 1,500-word letter to Chester Bowles, chairman of the Democratic Platform Committee now assembling in Los Angeles, asking the Democratic position on numerous current issues.

* * *

Thomas said a similar letter will be sent later to Charles Percy, chairman of the Republican Platform Committee which meets later in the month at Chicago.

Pontiac Postal Reserve Unit at Summer Camp

After arriving at the Wisconsin Army reservation Sunday, the unit's training is centered at the camp post office.

Under the leadership of the unit commander Lt. John A. Kish, the reservists are applying the knowledge and skills acquired back at the Army Reserve Center during their weekly drills.

The 401st is part of the VI U. S. Army Corps, with headquarters in Indianapolis, Ind.

E. Ray Cory, president of the Minnesota American Automobile Association, says the ever-confident social drinker can be a greater menace when driving than the habitual drunk.

CAN TAKE HEART—A Los Angeles doctor says the three Rizicka brothers now can expect a normal life span after identical operations to correct congenital defects. Left to right, they are Jerry, 8, Jerome, 18, and Edward, 12. The doctor performed the surgery at St. Vincent Hospital during the past eight weeks. He said it was likely they would not have lived past 30 without the operations.

For Weight, Not Power

Use Uranium on Jets

WASHINGTON (AP) — From now on passengers will be able to ride in jet airliners sporting wings tipped with uranium, the key material of the atomic energy program.

★ ★ ★

The uranium will have nothing to do with propelling the aircraft —and there's definitely no danger of it exploding, even though it's the stuff from which bombs are made. In the form to be used it would be incapable of exploding.

Rather, it's to be used as a counterweight material in wing tips and tail pieces. The aircraft industry, according to the Atomic Energy Commission, says it offers possibilities for better aircraft performance and greater economy than materials presently employed.

Uranium is a good item in the weight department, because it's one of the heaviest metals.

News of its potential new job came to light Thursday when the AEC announced it has amended its regulations to permit the use of uranium in aircraft counterweights without need for a license.

Ike and Mamie Happy to Be in Newport

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — President Eisenhower, happy as a hookey-playing schoolboy, looked forward today to his second round of vacation golf.

The President and his wife arrived in this New England resort area from Washington late Thursday afternoon. They hope to stay a month.

They had vacationed here in 1957-58, so they are anything but newcomers. The reception they received left no doubt about that.

When they got to Ft. Adams, the naval base summer White House, the president and his lady linked arms and walked in the late afternoon sunlight across a spacious lawn to the summer White House on the shore of Narragansett Bay.

★ ★ ★

Ahead of them was a 19th Century frame residence, cream-colored and trimmed in white, where they had enjoyed an Indian summer two years ago.

Appeal to District Court Results in Bigger Fine

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Jacob Zulauf was convicted in justice court on a charge of drunk driving.

He was fined $100 and his driver's license was suspended for 30 days.

★ ★ ★

He though the penalty was too stiff and appealed to district court.

A district court jury found him guilty. He was fined $100, given a 30-day jail sentence and his driver's license was suspended for a year.

Jack Trial Ends in Hung Jury

State May Fight Again in Conflict-of-Interest Manhattan Case

NEW YORK (AP) — The conflict-of-interest trial of Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack has ended in a deadlocked jury. Whether the state will seek a retrial was not immediately announced.

The jury had deliberated 18 hours and 45 minutes before announcing it could not agree. The panel voted 8-4 for conviction on two of the four charges.

Jack, 52, the nation's highest ranking Negro municipal official, would not comment on the outcome.

★ ★ ★

"I have nothing to say at this moment," he told newsmen "except that I am going to church—right now." Jack is a Roman Catholic.

But his attorney said, "Mr. Jack is disappointed that he was not vindicated. But he is very happy that at least there was a disagreement."

★ ★ ★

Jack was accused of violating the city charter by accepting a $4,400 apartment remodeling job from real estate operator Sidney J. Ungar at a time when Ungar was a business client of the city. He also was charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice by concocting a fictitious story that the payment was actually made by his wife, Almira, from her household allowance.

Radium Pellet Intact, Returned to Owners

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP)—A radioactive pellet of radium and beryllium has been found intact and returned to the trucking company that lost it.

★ ★ ★

A heavy lead case housing the tiny pill was discovered on a road outside Carlsbad Saturday evening by Henry Haney, 34, a construction worker, who took it home.

"I thought it was a hydraulic jack that had dropped off a truck," he said.

Officials of Frontier Perforators Inc., the trucking company, claimed it Thursday and said it was unlikely anyone was contaminated. Haney hadn't opened the protective lead case.

★

The pellet, used in oil field work is valued at $15,000. It was lost Saturday from a truck traveling from Texas to Hobbs.

San Francisco's Nob Hill had the original name of Nabob Hill because of the large number of wealthy families building mansions there.

Research to Let You See Atom

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Ever actually "see" an atom; that is, outside a diagram in a textbook?

* * *

General Electric Co. says a new applied science called "cyrogenics" may permit man for the first time to see the elusive, little particles of which the universe is composed. Cyrogenics basically is the science of refrigeration.

GE says it foresees the possibility of a new type of "magnetic" lens, using recent findings in cyrogenics, with the lens applied to an electronic microscope.

At its General Engineering Laboratory in Schenectady, N.Y., GE says it is studying particularly the "strange behavior" of metals near absolute zero.

This is about 460 degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

* * *

At such low temperatures, according to GE, certain metals completely lose their resistance to the passage of electric current.

It is the application of this phenomenon — known as "super-conductivity" — that laboratory engineers believe may make possible a magnetic lens with the enormously increased "resolution needed to behold an atom."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The biggest spender in the world, the United States government is going in for the biggest telephone switchboard on this little planet.

* * *

The General Services Administration (GSA) is putting in a gigantic board capable of handling all the calls for a city of 100,000.

It's being installed in GSA's Washington office and, once completed will handle 45,000 calls per day on an estimated 15,000 extension lines.

All those extensions will be reached by dialing only one number WOrth 3-1110.

Officials say it will take only 16 operators to handle the board, and they'll be there only for information purposes. Otherwise, the setup is completely automatic.

* * *

Right now 9,000 lines are operating out of the board. All 9,000 were cut in to the new board within an hour.

* * *

The switchboard features a dialing system somewhat like direct distance dialing (DDD), yet somewhat different.

The board, with more than 500,000 parts, will occupy 15,000 square feet, which is roughly the size of a plot 110 feet on a side.

Air Force Abandons Search for Plane, Crew

BODO, Norway (AP)—The U.S. Air Force at midnight abandoned its search for a reconnaissance plane and its crew of six missing over the Arctic Sea for a week.

The RB47 plane disappeared last Friday on its way back to Britain after an electromagnetic mapping mission. A spokesman said the 14 search planes "have not made one positive sighting connected with the plane."

Much U.S. Property Awaits Castro's Grab

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fidel Castro has seized a valuable chunk of the billion dollars worth of American-owned property in Cuba and he has his sights set on the rest, ranging from the Cuban Electric Co. to an F. W. Woolworth department store.

Among the major U.S. businesses Castro has grabbed so far are the Texaco and Esso oil refineries, Abbott Laboratories, the Cuban Telephone Co., International Harvester, Otis Elevator Co. and the Havana Hilton and Nacional Hotels.

He also has taken from the American owners thousands of acres of sugar and cattle land.

As far as the State Department can determine, Cuba has not compensated any of the owners for their confiscated property. But none of the owners has asked the department to help them collect, preferring to seek repayment in the Cuban courts first.

★ ★ ★

Among the major U.S.-owned property in Cuba not yet seized by Castro is the Cuban Electric Co., Moa Bay Mining Co., Chase Manhattan Bank, Coca Cola bottling works, Westinghouse Electric Co., a number of tire, cement and glass factories, and the Nicaro nickel plant, owned by the U.S. government.

The Castro cabinet approved a new law Tuesday night giving the government power to seize any foreign-owned property merely by declaring that it was "necessary" to Cuba's national interest.

The Commerce Department estimated in 1958 that Americans owned property in Cuba worth one billion dollars. This figure may not have been accurate because some owners may have made low estimates for tax purposes.

The State Department said that as a "very rough guess" U.S.-owned property seized by Castro so far was worth 700 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

Other American-owned firms in Cuba not yet taken over by Castro include American Express, American Steel Corp., Armour and Co., Bethlehem-Cuba iron mines, Caribbean ferry system, Portland Cement Co., B. F. Goodrich Co., and Guantanamo Sugar Co.

Also Railway Express Western Union, Reynolds Metals, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Standard Fruit and Steamship Co., Swift and Co., Union Light and Power Co., West India Fruit and Steamship Co. and many others.

Join for Bag Business

KALAMAZOO (UPI)—Louis W. Sutherland, founder 43 years ago of the Sutherland Paper Co. here, and his son L. W. Sutherland Jr., long identified with one of the biggest and oldest paper companies in the city, have joined with Robert W. Stewart to form the Stewart-Sutherland Bag Co.

There are an estimated 2,000 trumpeter swan left in the United States, and about half of them are in Alaska, according to the state fish and game department.

2 School Board Elections Monday

22 Seek Posts in Area Voting

Oxford and Lake Orion Slate Balloting to Fill Seven Seats

Fifteen candidates are seeking election to the four posts open on the Lake Orion Board of Education in Monday's regular school election. Two proposals also will appear on the ballot.

In the Oxford School District two are running for the single three-year School Board post open and five for the two newly created four-year terms.

Nine persons are competing for the two four-year posts open in Lake Orion. They are Robert F. Hauxwell, Charles S. Carpenter, Mary Parker, James Basigkow, Gordon Brown, Clare L. Berger, Mrs. Grace Ruebelman, Warren H. Smith and William F. Porritt.

Running for the two 3-year vacancies are Robert A. Strehle, Wilson E. Church, Helen Barnes, Mrs. Stuart E. Williams, Robert Sheardy and present Board Treasurer Richard Young.

★ ★ ★

One of the two issues to appear on the ballot in Lake Orion asks authorization to pay the two new Board members filling the newly created four-year terms each $400 a year, the same amount others now receive.

ASK SALE OK

The other proposal requests permission to sell about three acres of Board-owned property on East Flint street.

In the Oxford district, Mrs. Ruth Erskine and Ralph Curtis are seeking election to the three-year term being vacated by Board President Carl Buechler.

The names of four of the five candidates for the two new four-year posts open will appear on the ballot. They are Stewart Langley, Mrs. Eloise Smith, Dr. Rodman C. Jacobi and James N. Woon.

The fifth, William J. Matus, is a sticker candidate.

THREE ORION PRECINCTS

There are three precincts in the Lake Orion district. Voters will cast ballots at the Village Hall on East Flint street, the Orion Township Hall on South Broadway and the fire station at 3338 Gregory Rd., Orion Township.

The polling places in the Oxford district are in the junior high school auditorium and at Rowland Hall, Leonard.

In both districts the polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Youngsters Enjoy Summer Fun

LAKE ORION—A summer recreation program for local youngsters between five and 14 years of age is under way at Blanche Sims Elementary School here.

★ ★ ★

Some 55 children are taking part in the program which offers every kind of activities both inside the building and on the playground. The play sessions are being held daily from 9 a.m. to noon five days a week through Aug. 5.

In charge of the program are Bonnie Campbell, 19, who is sports director, and Lenore Sutton, 20, who is arts director. Donna Heilman, 17, is the arts assistant.

Among the activities taking place indoors are games, such as checkers and carom, handicraft and painting, drawing, making paper hats and similar projects.

★ ★ ★

The youngsters also use the large sand box, and other playground equipment in the school yard and play such games as volleyball, baseball, soccer, kickball and badminton.

★ ★ ★

The entire program is sponsored jointly by the Lake Orion Village Council, the Orion Township Board and the Board of Education of the Lake Orion Community Schools.

Old Barn to Serve Neighborhood Club

'Monstrosity' Gets New Lease on Life

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The huge two-story building on Green Lake road at Keelson road referred to as the "monstrosity' by many area residents, is getting a new lease on life.

★ ★ ★

Run-down and in need of paint the former Twin Beach Country Club has been purchased by the Middle Straits Community Assn. and will be renovated into a community building for all types of activities.

The face-lifting has already started with the application of exterior white paint which makes unpainted areas stick out like sore thumbs.

"We in the association hope to have the building ready in time for a Holloween dance," said building chairman Louis Brockman today.

★ ★ ★

"All the labor will be done by members of the association to keep cost down."

★ ★ ★

He said the building was purchased for $10,000 from Leon Windsor who bought the property at a tax sale.

Originally, the building was a barn. It was remodeled twice after the Twin Beach association took it over, the last time in 1929.

Two large rooms and a kitchen make up the interior of the building.

★ ★ ★

Recently, a gun club received permission to use the room on the second floor for a rifle range, giving an indication of its size.

★ ★ ★

Funds to purchase the building were raised through donations from members of the Middle Straits group with members giving $50 a family.

"Anyone wanting to join the organization now will have to pay $150," Brockman said.

A heating system, plumbing and a new well will be installed before the rebuilding is complete, he said.

One of the outstanding features of the building is a seven-foot wide fire place on the main floor. In the past, homes of association members have been used for meeting places.

Dentist Analyzes Pen Strokes

HANDWRITING EXPERT — Studying a sample of handwriting is Dr. Norman D. Smith, a Groveland Township dentist and certified grapho-analyst, who has turned his hobby into a second profession by giving expert advice to corporations and insurance companies in their selection of personnel.

By JIM LONG

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP — A skeptic himself three years ago on the wisdom of handwriting analysis, a dentist here has turned the relatively new field into a second profession.

★ ★ ★

Taken up as a hobby in 1957, the study of handwriting has given many hours of enjoyment to Dr. Norman D. Smith, 1233 Thread Valley Rd., as well as providing a reasonably profitable income from large corporations employing his service.

"The method for determining the characteristic traits of an individual is so unorthodox it is difficult for persons to accept it as an accurate means of discovering the emotional make-up of people," Dr. Smith said.

A certified grapho-analyst, Dr. Smith, 58, is hired for the most part by large corporations and insurance companies in selecting salesmen and executive personnel.

'PROJECTION OF BRAIN'

"Handwriting is a psychological projection of the brain," Dr. Smith said in explaining how the system works. "Every characteristic, good and bad, shows up in a person's handwriting."

"The stroke of the pen, the way the letters are written, the pressure of the pen and spacing all go into determining the make-up of an individual."

In addition to his regular working hours, Dr. Smith devotes about two hours a day to analyzing samples of handwriting sent to him by companies wanting information regarding prospective employes and employes already working for the firm.

★ ★ ★

"No names are ever mentioned in the correspondence," he said. "Each handwriting sample is handled in the strictest confidence. Individuals are only known by code numbers."

"While characteristics can show up in just a signature, a full page or two of handwriting is best in giving a complete analysis of a person's thinking habits."

He said a person's handwriting can change with moods and from day to day, but inborn characteristics are always there.

★ ★ ★

"Handwriting analysis for selecting personnel is being more generally accepted by business and professional people now than any time since the science was organized some 30 years ago," Dr. Smith said.

MRS. DAVID E. LOVE

Newlyweds Back From Their Trip to North Carolina

CLAWSON — Now living at Berrien Springs are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. David E. Love following a honeymoon trip to North Carolina.

The bride is the former Joanne Maxine Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster of 357 Tecumseh St. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Love of Fletcher, N. C.

For her candlelight wedding in the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Ferndale, the bride chose a floor-length, taffeta gown with a v-neckline.

Alice Marie Surdahl of Bozeman, Mont., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Jo Flyte of LaGrange, Ill., Sandra Grignon of Pontiac, Mrs. Richard Foster of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Daniel Wilson of Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

A. Raleigh Flint of Columbia Falls, Mont., was best man. Ushers were M. Warren Schlotter of Port Huron, the bride's brothers, Richard and James, and her uncle, Earl D. Foster of Royal Oak.

A reception was held in the church hall immediately following the ceremony.

Kay Jean La Douceur Wed in High Noon Rite

LAKE ORION — Kay Jean La Douceur and Carmen S. Spadaro were united in marriage Saturday in a Nuptial High Mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church here. The Rev. Denis K. O'Regan officiated at the noon ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Henry G. La Douceur of 18 Pontiac St., Oxford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spadaro of Norwich, N. Y.

★ ★ ★

For her wedding the bride chose a traditional princess-styled gown of white silk organza. Scroll designs appliqued on the scalloped scoop neckline and bracelet sleeves were repeated on the bouffant skirt which featured a bustle back and fan-shaped sweep.

★ ★ ★

MRS. CARMEN S. SPADARO

Maid of honor was Mary Jo Meads and her bridesmaid, Joy La Douceur of Detroit, cousin of the bride.

Flower girls were Susan and Mary Jane Di Noto of Bainbridge, N. Y., nieces of the bridegroom.

Attending his brother as best man was John Spadaro and serving as groomsman was Henry G. La Douceur Jr., brother of the bride. Ushers were Edward La Douceur, the bride's brother, and George Humenansky.

Following a luncheon-reception at the American Legion building, the newlyweds left on a month-long honeymoon trip through Northern Michigan, Canada and the New England States.

They will live in Harper Woods where Mr. Spadaro has a position as band director at Harper Woods High School.

Policemen Admire Honesty of Drunken Man

TUCSON, Ariz. (UP)—Tucson police said they had to admire the honesty of a man stopped for drunk driving.

★ ★ ★

"How many drinks have you had?" a patrolman asked. "I'm not going to lie," the man said, "I had six bottles of beer and four glasses of vodka."

RUTHANN L. CARMEAN

Mrs. J. E. Frankenfield of 6340 Pine Knob Rd., Clarkston, announces the engagement of her daughter, Ruthann L. Carmean, to Robert L. Porritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Porritt, 6331 Church St., Clarkston. The bride-elect is also the daughter of E. L. Carmean, 22 Tasmania St., Pontiac. No wedding date has been decided yet.

Miss Oxford Winner to Seek Peach Title

OXFORD—The Oxford Chamber of Commerce will stage a contest to pick the girl who will represent the village in the Peach Queen competition next month in Romeo.

★ ★ ★

According to C. of C. president Jack Reid, to be eligible to vie for the Miss Oxford title, girls must be between 17½ and 21 years of age and never have been married.

★ ★ ★

Those interested are asked to leave their names at the Doris K. Shop by Monday at the latest.

Parks, Forests Jammed

LANSING (UP)—The first long summer weekend confirmed early expectations that new camping records will be set in Michigan this year, the State Conservation Department reported. State parks and national forests were reported jammed by visitors over the Fourth of July weekend.

He Iced the Job

NEW YORK (UPI) — Andy Bathgate's first two attempts to stick with the New York Rangers showed a total of five points in 38 games. The third time, in 1954-55, he scored 20 goals and had 20 assists.

Students Responding to July Library Hours

Pontiac Press Photos by Phil Webb

Carl Valenti, right, of South Tilden avenue and Cindy Jones of North Genesee avenue are looking forward to many pleasant hours as they leave Webster School well supplied with reading material. Mrs. J. R. Jenkins of Wenonah drive, in the background, escorts her son Ricky on a trip to return books.

Webster Elementary School's PTA, whose members have recognized the link between a well-rounded school library program and a sound academic curriculum, is initiating a unique idea to encourage full and frequent use of the library.

For the first time, the school library has summer hours, from 3:15 to 5 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays through July.

Entire families have been encouraged to enroll in the reading program, and librarian Mrs. Orville Gauthier comments, "The PTA's executive board is surprised and gratified at the enthusiastic response." Registrations number well over 100 and participants range in age from two years to 15.

"Some mothers have read 10 or more books to their preschoolers since the program began June 21," reports Mrs. Gauthier. Older brothers and sisters have been contributing to the program's success by reading to younger members of the family.

Story telling, book reviews and films about books make up the youngsters' activity list. Occupying a prominent spot in the library is a book tree upon which children place leaves representing the number of books read or read to them.

At a recent library session Kathy Crew, fifth grader at Daniel Whitfield Elementary School, assisted by several fellow students, directed an original puppet play for the summer reading group.

Webster's PTA has contributed liberally toward the purchase of many new books available to the children this summer.

Realizing that nonbook resources also stimulate learning, PTA members have added to the library's collection of pictures, news clippings, pamphlets, travel folders and exhibit objects.

Resolved to keep up with the racing pace of our times, the PTA is backing the school in a constant campaign to replace outdated books with newer and more authoritative volumes, especially in the science and social studies areas. Reference materials are replaced at regular intervals.

Mindful of our rich literary heritage, the library staff has made sure that an adequate number of attractively bound children's classics are in easy access on the shelves. The latest in juvenile fiction is also available for the junior reading set.

★ ★ ★

Special "easy reading" books allow the slow, beginner or reluctant reader to share equally in the summer reading adventures project.

"An important part of the school's library program is to make its pupils aware of Pontiac's excellent public libraries," emphasizes Mrs. Gauthier.

In a day when education is a free-thinking nation's prized objective and a certain bulwark for survival, here is one small group doing its part to intensify the quest for knowledge.

Children's classics and well-evaluated juvenile fiction abound on the shelves of Webster's library. Astutely making their book selections are Peter Armstrong of Chippewa road and Diane Cheal of Newberry street.

It's service with a smile as librarian Mrs. Orville Gauthier signs out books to eager readers Gregory Watters of Murphy avenue, left, and his brother Charles. One library spokesman reports that the depth of some books the youngsters are reading has prompted their elders to delve determinedly into new reading ventures.

Prenuptial Parties

By RUTH SAUNDERS

The approaching marriage of Sherry Gatley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Warren Gatley of Lahser road, is the incentive for many lovely parties.

Sherry will be married Aug. 26 in a home wedding ceremony to Vaso Medigovich of Akron, Ohio, and a reception will be given at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Medigovich of Akron who will give the rehearsal dinner Aug. 25 at the same club.

★ ★ ★

Among the first parties will be a luncheon and kitchen shower Tuesday when Mrs. Harold Furlong and Mrs. C. T. Ekelund will be hostesses at the Ekelund home on Ottawa drive and a dinner and "Mr. and Mrs." shower at Orchard Lake Country Club July 19 which Mr. and Mrs. Basil Brown will give Thursday for both Vaso and Sherry.

At her home in Ann Arbor Mrs. Harold E. Groves will give a luncheon for Miss Gatley July 18.

Next, on July 19, will be a mother and daughter luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club given by Mrs. Waldemar A. P. John and Mrs. Cyrenus G. Darling and a luncheon and personal shower July 21 with Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald and her daughter Mrs. Paul Connolly as hostesses.

★ ★ ★

Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Riker and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Young will entertain informally July 31 at a swimming and supper party at Orchard Lake Country Club. Guests may wear Bermuda shorts.

Mrs. James O. Wright with her daughter Alice will give a luncheon and linen shower Aug. 2 at Orchard Lake Country Club and Mrs. Alfred C. Girard and her daughter Shelagh will honor Sherry with a luncheon and "Round the Clock" shower at their home Aug. 10.

Aug. 16 is the date of the dinner party at the Walter Appel home on Orchard Lake which Mr. and Mrs. Appel and the Charles F. Delbridges Jr. will give. Mrs. Harry Pryale will entertain at a luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

The gay round of parties will continue with a bridesmaid's luncheon in Battle Creek Aug. 11 at the home of the honor maid Sally Coburn and the spinster dinner at the Metamora farm of Jane Wilson.

The bride-elect's aunt Mrs. C. R. Gatley will entertain the bridesmaids Aug. 19 at luncheon at Pine Lake Country Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard B. Barker will entertain at luncheon the day of the wedding for out-of-town guests and members of the wedding party.

Mrs. John W. Gillette and Mrs. Richard H. Morgan of Wing Lake are driving to Higgins Lake today to spend a long weekend with Mrs. Howard F. Smith at her summer home.

★ ★ ★

Under the sponsorship of the Cranbrook Music Guild, the Severo Ballet will be presented Sunday afternoon in the Greek Theater at Cranbrook. Members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will accompany the ballet numbers under the direction of Valter Poole.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker A. Williams will entertain 30 guests at supper after the performance and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Risdon will also give a supper party.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bordinat's guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Vass, Mr. and Mrs. George Kawamot and Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Skinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson E. Dalton will take their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Youngman who are visiting from Summit, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster will be with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones. The Joneses have recently settled in Birmingham after living two years in Italy.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson will come down from their summer home at Walloon Lake in August to give a dinner dance Aug. 18 for their granddaughter, bride-elect Carol Wilson.

Carol will be married Aug. 20 in Christ Church Cranbrook to Knox Kinlaw Jr. of Lumberton, N. C.

She is the daughter of Mrs. H. Richard Steding of Willow Lane and Edward E. Wilson.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. E. A. Tomlinson of Stratford Lane and Mrs. Gordon F. Hess of Wellesley drive will entertain at a cocktail party Saturday at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

4-H Club Girls Like to Sew

Sewing is one of the oldest skills known to man. A stone needle with an eye at one end was found among Stone Age relics. It is believed that the Chinese were the first to use steel needles more than 1,000 years ago.

But it was not until the mid-19th Century when needles, thread and sewing machines were manufactured in quantity that "home sewing" became a possibility.

★ ★ ★

Among modern day advocates of the make-it-yourself vogue are some three-quarter million 4-H Club girls engaged in a clothing project now in its 20th year.

Carolyn Lowell, an 18-year-old high school senior, won both state and national awards last year. Her 4-H clothing project was dotted with mishaps, she reports, which instead of discouraging her, spurred her on "to make her best better."

★ ★ ★

She recalls the first garment exhibited — a gathered skirt with the placket on the wrong side. But she has come a long way and has improved her skills so that she now does most of the family mending, makes and remodels her own clothes and does alterations for others.

★ ★ ★

And again this year prizes will be $400 scholarships to the top 12 clothing project winners in the nation. They will be selected from among 50 state champions, and will be announced in Chicago the last week in November. Meanwhile handsome gold-filled medals are being claimed by county winners.

For more information about the clothing program or joining a 4-H Club in your community, contact the county Extension agent.

Rome Starts Unveiling Fall Fashions Tuesday

By PATRICIA GREEN

ROME (AP) — Rome's fall fashion show opens next Tuesday in the Palazzo Venezia and for the first time the designers will show their collections under one roof.

In the past, the 11 members that make up the Roman "alta moda" couture houses showed their collections separately and at different locations, making it difficult for out-of-town buyers and fashion writers.

Irene Brin, a pint-sized energetic writer for Italian, Spanish and American magazines, was instrumental in getting the fashion houses together.

LAST 3 DAYS

Miss Brin, with the Roman couturiers, worked out a compact, coordinated package at the Palazzo Venezia. The show will last three days.

Tuesday, boutique and accessory collections will be on view in the mosaic acre that used to be the private office of Benito Mussolini.

The actual showings will begin the following day in an adjoining room, massive with fresco and hung with a mammoth chandelier.

Rumors are rampant that the unfitted-fit is the big news in Italian fashion, and color, long a mainstay, is brighter than ever.

Fernanda Gattinoni and Eleanora Garnett are the feminists of the Roman group. Flouty chiffon, one of Garnett's favorite materials, is in every collection she makes.

Gattinoni, famous for embroidery, always presents glittering examples of jeweling on the most elaborate fabrics.

Hoola Hoop Good Exercise

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "Please tell me if working the hula hoop is a good exercise for my waist and my hips."

A. It is a good waist exercise.

* * *

Q. "I am 32 years old, 5 feet, 4 inches tall and weigh 120 pounds. My measurements are bust 35½, waist 26½ and hips 37 inches. I have small bones. Ten years ago I weighed about 110 pounds. Then after my children arrived I weighed about 115 pounds. This seemed about right for me. But since I have now gained all over, and not just in my hips, I am not sure whether I should lose a few pounds or just concentrate on hip-reducing exercises."

A. You are just the right weight and your measurements are in the allowable ratio for a good figure. However, if you wish to reduce your hips a little, take hip-slimming exercises.

* * *

Q. "Are there any exercises which will prevent or correct sagging under the chin?"

A. Many readers and pupils have found my neck exercises to be extremely helpful. Also remember that good posture plays an important part in keeping the neck youthful. So does daily lubrication. If you (or any of my readers) would like to have these exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 10 "Is Your Chinline a Pain in the Neck?" Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

* * *

Q. "Does boiling milk make it have more calories? How many calories in a cup of boiled milk?"

A. No, it does not increase the calorie count. There are 160 calories in a cup of whole milk, and 80 calories in a cup of skim milk.

* * *

Q. "Some say that exercise develops and some that it reduces. I am puzzled."

A. Exercise tends to normalize the figure. Exercise helps in weight reduction because it uses up energy, and it also is helpful in redistributing weight more attractively.

Mild exercise is also an aid in gaining weight because it reduces tension and increases appetite. You can increase measurements with exercise by building up muscles.

* * *

Q. "Please tell me what causes wrinkles on the instep. My stockings are not loose, my legs are perfect, but the wrinkles destroy my appearance."

A. You can't get a new pair of legs and you do not want to since they are lovely. I suggest that you try another brand of stockings. There is a great difference in their timing.

Josephine Lowman's exercises for the chin are helpful for preventing or correcting sagging under the chin. In this one, turn your head as far to the right as you can; turn toward the front and then to the extreme left. Continue.

Barbecue Plans?

(NEA) — Be sure to keep a box of soda bicarbonate within easy reach of the barbecue grill. Sprinkled lightly on the fire, it keeps coals burning at a slow even pace. Dumped on when the cooking is done, it smothers the fire without the usual smoking and sputtering.

Check Sagging Chin Muscles at First Sight

Sagging chin muscles constitute a serious beauty problem to thousantis of women. While they've been the subject of many a cartoon, they're no joke in reality.

They can start as early as the late twenties due chiefly to the fact that they're often hereditary. The best time to do something about them is before they've become really bad. For they can ruin the contours of an otherwise pretty face and age it rapidly.

Recently, a lightweight, conforming gauze bandage has been found ideal for use as a chine strap. Lighter in weight than an elastic band, the gauze wraps once or twice about the head and stays in place. It is self-fitting and self-clinging. And when it becomes soiled by face creams, you just cut another strap from the gauze roll.

The four-inch width is the one you'll find handiest for making a chin strap. And once you've got those sagging muscles tucked up, remember to stay with the habit. It's a sound one.

Club Installs Officers

Officers were installed in a candlelight ceremony at the Fashion Your Figure Club of Pontiac meeting, Thursday.

Mrs. Park Nique of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department conducted the installation.

Mrs. Edward Bowers was mistress of ceremonies for the program, which was followed by a trophy presentation to Mrs. John Sawyer for losing the most weight during the past week. Mrs. Odes Case was runner-up.

Blanton-Baker Vows Told

Sandra Lee Baker, daughter of the Lee Edward Bakers of North Marshall street, married Lawrence Charles Blanton, son of the Charles Blantons of Walnut Lake road, Birmingham, Saturday at First Church of the Nazarene.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. J. E. VanAllen officiated at the double-ring candlelight rite before 400 guests. Baskets of white gladioli, palms and candelabra banked the altar.

For her wedding Sandra chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace, designed with a fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and scalloped Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins. The skirt of the dress featured detail in an apron effect over appliqued nylon tulle.

★ ★ ★

A sequin headpiece caught her fingertip illusion veil, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and ivy leaves intertwined with long satin streamers, centered with a white orchid. Her double strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

MRS. LAWRENCE C. BLANTON

Sally Dee Schroeder performed her duties as honor maid wearing a yellow embroidered taffeta sheath dress fashioned with a nylon tulle overskirt secured to a pleated cummerbund. Blue carnations comprised her cascade bouquet.

Gowned in pale blue embroidered taffeta dresses featuring nylon tulle overskirts, bridesmaids Margaret Cates and Saundra McDowell held yellow carnation bouquets.

Flower girl Jill Riddle wore yellow feathered carnations in her hair and a short white frock. She held a yellow satin basket of white flowers.

Glenn Huetter of Birmingham attended as best man. Joseph Anderson of Birmingham and William Foster of Madison Heights seated the guests. Junior ushers were Dennis Blanton, the bridegroom's brother, and Floyd Baker, brother of the bride.

★ ★ ★

Thomas Gerjekian assumed the duties of ringbearer.

At a reception in the parlor of Central Methodist Church Mrs. Baker received guests wearing a pale blue lace over taffeta sheath dress with white and blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Blanton's choice for her son's wedding was a beige organza sheath dress, complemented with beige and blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Before beginning a trip to northern Michigan the new Mrs. Blanton changed to a pale blue sheer ensemble with white embroidered trim and white and pink accessories. The white orchid from her bridal bouquet completed her traveling attire.

Dear Abby Says: Good for Hubby!

You Man or Mouse, Lady? Better Get Yourself a Gigolo

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 18 years and up until lately my husband and I got along like a pair of honeymooners. He never worked, but I didn't care because I took in washing.

ABBY

I liked having him around the house. I always knew where he was and he was always around when I wanted him.

Then he went and got himself a job, which spoiled everything. All he needs is a few dollars in his pocket and he is a changed man. He sasses me back and leaves the house without my permission.

He was such a sweet, devoted husband until he started making money. I'd give anything to get him back like he was. Can you help me?

TEARS

DEAR TEARS: The only way you can "get him back like he was" is to make him quit his job. But that would be unfair. Now that he has at last acquired some ambition and self-respect, you should encourage this manly (if belated) change for the better. If you really prefer a man who is jobless and beholden — you want a gigolo, not a husband.

DEAR ABBY: I know a gentleman never shakes hands with his glove on. But is it considered etiquette for a woman to keep her glove on when she shakes hands?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: A lady need not remove her glove to shake hands.

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman, 36. I have never been married but I am not giving up hope. (I'm not desperate and can afford to be fussy.) I have a good position in an office. In fact, I run the office.

My problem is that I have been putting weight on like crazy lately. But now that I have filled myself out, I'm afraid if I lose weight I will have wrinkles where I once had fat.

I was no beauty when I was thinner, but I think I'd rather be fat like I am, than thin and wrinkled.

None of my good clothes fit me any more and people are beginning to tell me ("for my own good") that I am too heavy. What should I do?

FROM SPREADSVILLE

DEAR FROM SPREADSVILLE: Quit rationalizing and start rationing your caloric intake. Let your physician tell you how much you should lose and how to lose it. If you diet sensibly you won't trade fat for wrinkles.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CURIOUS": A rich girl is "well-traveled" — a poor girl has "been around." The net result is usually the same.

Very Rich Fudge Pie Is Baked Without a Crust

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

You've heard of one-crust and two-crust pies. But have you ever heard of a no-crust pie? Today's recipe is called Fudge Pie, but it's all filling!

FUDGE PIE
By Mrs. Roland Redner

2 squares cooking chocolate
½ cup butter
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
¼ cup flour
Dash of salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Melt chocolate and butter together. Beat eggs and add sugar, beating to mix. Add flour, salt and vanilla. Combine the two mixtures and pour into buttered pie pan.

Bake 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve with ice cream or whipped cream. Serves 6-8.

Quick supper: a can of tomato spaghetti sauce (meatless) with mushrooms served over cooked rice and sliced hard-cooked eggs.

CAROL ANN ADAMS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Truman Adams of Irwin avenue announce the engagement of their daughter Carol Ann to Melvin Thomas Wright, son of Lester Wright and the late Mrs. Wright of Howard street. Her fiance served four years with the U. S. Navy. Late August vows are planned.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Ex-Pontiac Central coach Jesse MacLeay hit the nail on the head when he rapped the Michigan High School Athletic Association for the many restrictions put on high school level football.

He points out that in other sports the athletes participate more than once a week, in three times as many events and at any time during the year.

Such is the case in swimming, golf, tennis, wrestling, track and other prep sports.

These athletes can participate in 15 or 20 and even 25 meets during a school year, plus various league, state meets and even city or independently sponsored tournaments.

★ ★ ★

But in football, the limit is nine games. No championship games, no All-Star games are permitted.

The restriction is even silly to the point of prohibiting coaches or officials from participating in any such event. Yet, a coach can assist or officiate in most other sports events.

What is so disgusting about the restrictions is the fact that so many more high school football and basketball stars get college opportunities than from the other sports.

★ ★ ★

Strict limitations are also placed on the practice periods for football and basketball whereas a swimmer can swim all year long, a golfer or tennis player can play in events in March or in October.

It doesn't make sense, of course many of the ancient laws of the Michigan High School Athletic Association lack common sense.

Match Play Begins in State Amateur Tourney

Jackson Youth Holds Pace as Top Qualifier

Zimmerman Is 5-Under 137; Breakoff Point for Qualifying Is 153

PORT HURON — Bob Zimmerman, who has been way ahead of the field for two days, tries to maintain his blazing pace as match play finals begin today in the Michigan amateur golf championships.

Zimmerman, captain of Duke University's golf team, finished brilliantly and took medalist honors in the 36-hole qualifying round. He birdied seven of the last nine holes yesterday and finished six strokes ahead of his nearest rival.

His rounds of 68 Wednesday and 69 yesterday gave him a five-under-par 137.

Jack Zinn of Royal Oak, Cecil Priest of Detroit, Tom Draper of Birmingham and Fred Becker of Kalamazoo were tied for runner-up honors with 143.

Seven golfers tied at 153, the breakoff point for the qualifying round, forcing a playoff for 12 spots. John Jawor of Detroit shot a birdie on the first extra hole and 10 others shot par. Ray Izydowski of Dearborn shot par on the second playoff hole to become the 12th qualifier.

★ ★ ★

For the first time in the 48-year history of the tournament, two players scored holes-in-one. Zinn, 30, got his ace at Black River Country Club on the 153-yard par three seventh hole using a five iron.

Peter M. Ross, 23-year-old free lance automobile designer from Detroit scored on Port Huron's 11th hole, a 175-yard hole, using a three iron. Ironically, Ross failed to survive the qualifying round. He shot 166.

Defending champion Melvin (Bud) Stevens of Detroit faces Dr. Joseph Gadbaw of Farmington when match play begins today at the Black River course. Gadbaw shot 78-82—160 in the qualifying round.

Jets Overpower KC Nine, 8-4

Larry Demrick did some good pitching and slammed a big three-run homer as the Jets defeated the Knights of Columbus 8-4 Thursday in a battle of Class A city baseball powers.

★ ★ ★

Demrock's circuit clout was the only Jet hit in a five-run 4th which snapped a 1-1 deadlock. The Knights were down by seven before putting on a late bid which fell far short.

The Class B League had quite a battle, won finally by Griff's Grill over Elizabeth Lake Merchants, 7-6. Trailing 6-2, Griff's put together four hits, two walks and two errors for five runs in the 5th.

★ ★ ★

Winner Terry Zellhart and Sam Reeve combined to blank the Merchants the last four frames although there were men on each time.

Lyle Fisher, of Chicago, will bring his "Speed Sport Roadster" for match races with Bill Tibboles, of Bellevue, Ohio, and his Class A dragster.

Tigers 'Walk' to Triumph Over KC

COMEDY ACT? — This looks like a two part comedy act as Jim Piersall (right) and John Temple (left) of the Cleveland Indians go after a pop fly ball off the bat of Luis Aparicio of the White Sox. Temple made the catch as the two tried to avoid collision. Chicago won, 9-3.

Defeat Athletics 6-3 on Wildness, Key Hits Early

Mossi Scatters 10 Hits in 6th Victory; Scene Shifts Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — The Tigers "walked" to victory yesterday.

Don Larsen's wildness enabled the Tigers to stroll across the plate five times in the third inning as they breezed to a 6-3 victory over Kansas City behind southpaw Don Mossi's steady mound efforts.

Mossi, recording his sixth victory against as many defeats, was nicked for 10 hits but he scattered them sufficiently to stay out of serious trouble.

The Athletics were blanked on two hits over the first four innings but in the fifth they bunched singles by Pete Daley, Lou Klimchock, Bill Tuttle and Hank Bauer to produce two runs.

★ ★ ★

In the eighth, Bauer slammed a bases-empty homer, his third of the year, for the other Kansas City marker.

Meanwhile, Mossi's teammates sewed up the game in the third when Larsen couldn't find the plate and the Tigers chipped in with a couple of timely hits.

Larsen opened the inning by walking Frank Bolling who quickly scored on Charley Maxwell's long triple to right center. Following a walk to Norm Cash, Max well scored on Al Kaline's infield force out.

Then Lou Berberet and Chico Fernandez walked to fill the bases and send Larsen to the showers. His replacement, Bob Throwbridge, took up where Larsen left off, walking Mossi to force in the third run. Eddie Yost, the ninth man to bat in the inning, then singled to drive in two more tallies.

After the third, the Tigers were held in check by Throwbridge and Ned Garver, who took over in the fifth, until the ninth inning when they scored an insurance run on Maxwell's double and Kaline's single.

Larsen, who has not won this year, suffered his fifth setback.

IN MATCH PLAY—Cecil Priest (above) who fired a 143 total for runnerup honors in the Michigan State Amateur qualifying round, and Tim Baldwin, young Birmingham star who shot a 147, are among those starting matching play in the tourney today in Port Huron. Top qualifier was Bob Zimmerman of Jackson with 137.

Qualifying Needed for Western Open

DETROIT (UPI) — A large entry of 215 players has made necessary a qualifying-round next Tuesday in the Western Open golf tournament at the Western Golf and Country club.

The field in the tournament is limited to 150 professional and amateur players.

Marshall Dann, executive vice president of the Western Open, said that 100 golfers will be exempt from qualifying, leaving about 15 to play the qualifying round for the remaining 50 places.

Dann said this is one of the biggest entries in the history of the tournament, which will run from next Thursday through Sunday.

More Big Calicos

While this fish was not quite as hefty as the 14¾-inch long calico taken first of the week by James Howard of Union Lake, Sim Jones (Waterford) 12¾-incher is a very respectable specimen.

Jones, of 4908 Hillcrest, landed his calico from Green Lake "in my front yard," Thursday. He used a daredevil lure in deep water.

"Never saw a calico as big as this one in many years of fishing," Jones reported. He goes fishing about every day during the summer.

Exhibition Sunday

Pontiac Jets and the Detroit Kemp V-8 baseball clubs will collide here, Sunday afternoon, in an exhibition game at the Bagley-Brush street diamond. Game time is 2:30.

Palmer 5 Strokes Behind Leader

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, trying to stage a rally like that which won him the U. S. Open championship, gained two strokes on a pacemaking Roberto De Vicenzo of Argentina today by shooting a two-under-par 34 on the first nine holes of the third round of the British Gold Championship.

De Vicenzo, who went into today's third and fourth rounds with a seven-stroke margin over Palmer and a two-stroke edge on Australia's Kel Nagle, was even par within 36.

Nagle fired a 35 on the front nine of the historic old course and was only one stroke behind De Vicenzo as they made the turn for home.

Palmer could have been stepping on the Argentine's heels but still was being plagued by putting trouble. He birdied the second hole with an eight-foot putt, but he narrowly missed 25-footers on the fourth and sixth and his 10-footer on the ninth hole rimmed the cup.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the second hole, Palmer also had a birdie on the 567-yard fifth. He had pars on the other seven holes of the first nine.

★ ★ ★

Bill Johnston of Provo, Utah, the only other American in the field of 47 for the final two rounds, was one of the first to tee off in the third round and came in with a two-under-par 35-36—71 for a 54-hole total of 220.

De Vicenzo shot his second straight six-under-par 67 yesterday on St. Andrews old course for a half-way total of 134 that was two strokes better than his closest rival, Kel Nagle of Australia. Nagle shot a 67 for a 136 aggregate.

Palmer, shooting for a golfing "grand slam," missed two and four-foot putts yesterday to card a 35-36—71 that left him in a three-man tie for third place at 141. Peter Thomson of Australia, who has won this tournament four times, and Sebastian Miguel of Spain were tied with Palmer.

★ ★ ★

Jack Isaacs, the pro at Langley (Va.) Air Force Base, shot a 77 for the second day in a row and was among those eliminated after 36 holes.

★ ★ ★

In order for Palmer to take home Britain's most prized golf championship, it would require a comeback like he made to win the two big tournaments in the U. S.

★ ★ ★

The rugged, 30-year-old Palmer shot birdies on the final two holes to win the Masters crown in April. He put on an even more spectacular finish when he came from seven strokes off the lead starting the final round of the U. S. Open last month to win that one, too.

PALMER AWAY — Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., U. S. Open and Master's Champion, watches his drive off the 10th tee today as he tries to win his third major title, the British Open at St. Andrews. Palmer had a 141 total after two rounds, which was seven strokes behind leader Roberto DeVincenzo of Mexico.

Two No-Hitters Among Highlights

Busy Thursday for Junior Tossers

There was plenty of activity for the followers of junior baseball yesterday as 14 games were played in the Parks and Recreation and Pontiac Boys Club programs.

The Cubs won out in a scoring duel 15-12 over Malkim, the Tigers belted the Bears 11-0 and the Little Shamrocks nipped the Aces, 5-4. A 9-run fifth paced the Cubs in a game marred by 18 errors. Frye hurled a one-hitter for the Tigers. The Aces got all their runs in the final frame.

In Class E, Pontiac Boys Club took over first place by tripping the Tel-Huron Tigers, 2-1. Rudy Ransom doubled in one run and scored the other as Tom Zink was fanning 13. Andy Straka singled, stole two bases and scored on an error to give Slankster and Jones a 6-5 verdict over Vernors. The losers had led 4-1 early in the tilt.

Powell Trucking won the lone "D" game 10-6 over Lake Orion featuring a six-run opening round. Bob Porritt's three straight singles sparked a 13-hit offensive. Gary Hunter also had a trio for the losers. Our Lady of Refuge was awarded a forfeit over Oxford.

Don Hayward fired a no-hitter and struck out 13 of a possible 15 as the Tigers bested Baldwin E.U.B., 5-0 highlighting the Widget action. The Wizards romped past the Warriors in another National League affair, 13-5. Tasty Freeze beat Rappy's 11-6. Gary Allison got the Moose nine out in front fast with a homer in the first but the Hudson Hornets bounced back with 10 in the second on the way to a 13-2 breeze. Jim Chase gave up the two Moose hits in that initial frame.

There was American and National play in the Boys Club setup, The AL Orioles stayed unbeaten by whipping the Indians 7-3 behind the steady pitching of Cy Bally. Red McClain socked a two-run homer for the winners.

A three-run homer by Jim Hargraves and the pitching of "Moose" Woodafra enabled the Cubs to upset the Braves, 10-2. Loser Ken Long of the NL leaders had a home run. The Pirates squeezed past the Phils 4-3 on a walk and costly error in the final inning. The Braves played a second game of the day and beat the Cardinals 8-4 with Mike Goran hurling hitless ball.

The Class D standings:

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

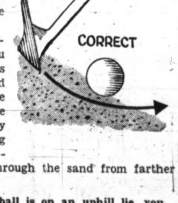
PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "Slanted lies throw me!"

DIAGNOSIS: Proper adjustment lacking.

TREATMENT: Uphill and downhill lies in sandtraps call for changes in the distance behind the ball that the clubhead enters the sand.

If your ball is on a downhill lie, you should let the clubhead enter the sand up to twice as far behind the ball than if the ball were on a level lie.

As the drawing illustrates, the sand divot you will be taking out becomes thinner as the clubhead approaches the ball. Hence the clubhead will move more quickly and easily through the sand, making it necessary that the clubhead start its journey through the sand from farther back.



Conversely, if the ball is on an uphill lie, you must let the clubhead enter the sand nearer the ball than would be called for on a level lie.

This is only logical when you come to think of it. But, I notice that a great many golfers evidently don't come to think of it.

Daley May Be AL Starter Against National Stars

KANSAS CITY (AP)—This city will play host next Monday to baseball's All Star Game amid a growing battle to keep its place in the big leagues.

The first of baseball's big two-game show will be played in a stadium where Kansas City's fandom has proved its mettle by pouring through the turnstiles 5,000,000 strong watching the Athletics in the five full seasons since the club was brought here in 1955 from Philadelphia.

Now, since the death of majority stockholder Arnold Johnson of Chicago last March, the club will be sold to the highest bidder. Whether the Athletics, currently floundering in seventh place in the American League, remain here depends on whether the successful purchaser is a Kansas City syndicate or one outside the city, like Johnson's, willing to operate it here in Municipal Stadium.

This will be the backdrop Monday when the National League's Willie Mays steps to the plate to face the American League hurler, perhaps Kansas City's own Bud Daley, a southpaw who has won 12 games.

The stadium's slightly less than 31,000 grandstand seats all will be filled. There are no bleachers in the park that was hurriedly built in the winter of 1954-55.

★ ★ ★

The playing field, which the players say is the best in the American League, is somewhat confining in the left field and left-center areas where a medium power drive can clear the 20-foot fence for a home run. The distance down the left field line at the fence is a respectable 330 feet but the barrier cuts sharply across to center, making it vulnerable not only to right-handed power hitters but even line drive artists such as Dick Groat, the Pittsburgh shortstop, or Harvey Kuenn, the American League's 1959 batting king now with Cleveland. The right field line is a more distant 353 feet and 387 in right center. A home run drive to the dead center ball pen area must carry 420 feet and clear a 14-foot fence.

Several National Leaguers will be getting their first look at the Kansas City park. American League left-fielders are more accustomed to playing the carom shots off the fence and the six feet of wire netting above it.

For Athletics fans, Daley has been about the only bright light in an otherwise disappointing season. The left-hander has lost only four games although he has been hit harder than usual in his recent starts. The club has no other steady hurler and the hitting has been anemic. The loss of Roger Maris to New York in a winter trade has backfired and left the less stalwart fans disgruntled. Infield troubles necessitated letting Bob Cerv, home run hitting hero of two years ago, go to the Yankees for Andy Carey, a fine fielding third baseman.

Rhoda is the Greek feminine name meaning "a rose."

Havana Franchise Move Probably to Cincinnati

MONTREAL (AP) — The International League has played its last game in Havana, at least for 1960.

Frank Shaughnessy, president of the Triple-A league, announced Thursday night that the Havana franchise will be moved within a few days "to protect our players."

Negotiations are underway for the Sugar Kings to play their remaining between 35 and 40 home games in Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium, Cincinnati and possibly other cities.

★ ★ ★

The Sugar Kings have a working agreement with the Cincinnati Reds of the National League. Havana's next "home" game is July 15 against Columbus.

"We have to protect our players and the only way to do it is to get them out of there," Shaughnessy said. "The league decided last winter that if a situation arose in which there was any danger to our personnel I was to have the authority to move the franchise."

Shortly before Shaughnessy confirmed the reports of the possible transfer of the Havana franchise, Sugar King owner Bobby Maduro said in Havana:

★ ★ ★

"I am not moving the franchise and I am not leaving Cuba. If the other teams feel they have not had more than ample demonstrations of friendliness and courteous hospitality of the Cuban people, they can go ahead and do what they want."

Shaughnessy said he might be able to announce today the sites of the remainder of Havana's home games.

"So far as the Havana management itself, I'm sure no one had any complaints," the IL president added. "But there's no alternative now."

Ever since Castro took over the Cuban government 18 months ago, there has been a rift among IL members concerning play in Cuba. At the league's annual meeting in Montreal after the revolt at least two league members were opposed to continuing play in Cuba because of uncertain conditions.

Maduro, however, was able to convince the owners that no risks were involved. Later two members of the Rochester Red Wings were nicked by bullets at the Havana stadium in a wild celebration marking the success of Castro's movement.

The Sugar Kings won the Little World Series last year and currently are in fourth place, battling for a spot in the playoffs.

Roosevelt Stadium, with a seating capacity of 25,000, is no stranger to International League baseball. It was the home of the Jersey City Giants from 1937 to 1950. Jersey City has been in and out of the International since 1887. In 1956 and '57, the Brooklyn Dodgers played several games in the stadium before moving to Los Angeles.

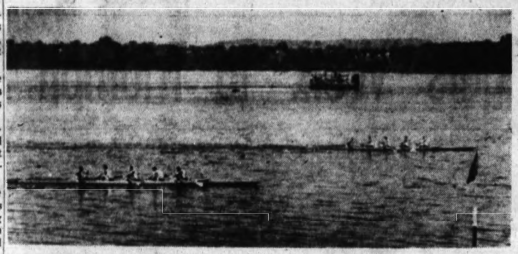
Coast Crews Dominate Rowing Trials



DETROIT BOAT BEATEN — Lake Washington Rowing Club of Seattle finished first in the fours a boat length ahead of the Detroit Boat Club in the Olympic Rowing Trials in Syracuse yesterday. The Trials are being held on Lake Onondaga and the West Coast crews are showing top strength. AP Photofax

Californians Could Sweep Most Events

Washington Club Also Strong in '60 Olympic Trials at Syracuse

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI)—There was a definite Western tinge today to the 1960 Olympic trials in this Eastern rowing capital.

No one could dispute the fact West Coast representatives appeared the ones to beat in most events. And the possibility existed —though small—the Lake Washington Rowing Club of Seattle and the University of California could sweep all seven events to represent the United States in the Rome Olympics.

One probable stopper could be the double sculls, a one-race final set for Saturday afternoon with no preliminaries.

Four entrants, including one from the Lake Washington Club, will get the starter's gun in this event. Favorites are John B. Kelly Jr. and William J. Knecht of the Vesper Boat Club, Philadelphia, who finished first in the 1959 Pan-American games, and the Detroit Boat Club's Bernard (Pat) Costello Jr. and James Gardiner, who represented the U.S. in the 1956 Olympics.

The trials on Onondaga Lake get down to the business of eliminating some of the bulky list of entrants today following a first round of competition in which California won one of the three preliminary heats in the big shell event and the Lake Washington oarsmen captured at least one heat in each of five events. Lake Washington has no entry in eight-oar competition.

★ ★ ★

California had its hands full in edging coach Stork Sanford's Cornell "A" crew yesterday. And today the California eight, which won the recent intercollegiate rowing association regatta here, has drawn the Cornell "B" team as one of its rivals in the semifinals.

The Cornell "A" crew lost out by only 10 feet to California in the first heat when the West Coasters upped their beat to 38-a-minute in the final yards. The Navy "A" oarsmen won the second heat by an even smaller margin, the Cornell "B" crew pressing them right to the end before losing by six-tenths of a second.

The Syracuse alumni rowing association, including six of the nine oarsmen on the winning Syracuse University crew in the 1959 Pan-American games, beat the Navy "B" representatives by about half a length in the third heat.

★ ★ ★

Joining those six crews in semifinal competition late this afternoon will be the two winners in the repechages. Brown, Pennsylvania and The Detroit Boat Club will compete in one heat and Harvard, Washington and the Union Boat Club of Boston will race in the second. They were third and fourth-place finishers in the preliminaries.

27 Decathlon Stars Olympic Hopefuls

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Twenty-seven of the country's finest all-around athletes, headed by Rafer Johnson and Dave Edstrom, opened competition today in the National AAU Decathlon championship.

And to the first, second and third-place finishers among the U.S. citizens competing will go round-trip tickets to Rome for the Olympic games.

"This is the best field ever to compete in a decathlon, including the Olympic games," says meet director Bill Bowerman, track and field coach at University of Oregon. "We expect at least 10 of the men to score above the 7,000-point mark."

The world record for the decathlon is 8,356, held by Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov but both Johnson, former UCLA ace; and Edstrom, University of Oregon, have been close to that.

★ ★ ★

So has K. C. Yang, the Chinese nationalist who is a student at UCLA. Yang is the defending champion, but is not eligible to represent U.S. in Rome because he is not a citizen. Edstrom finished second last year.

Johnson hasn't competed since 1958, when he injured a leg. But he has been training regularly with Yang on the UCLA campus and says he is in tip-top shape.

"I think I'm better now than I've ever been before," says Rafer, 24-year-old one-time UCLA student body president from Kingsburg, Calif. "If my injuries don't come back I'll make it to Rome."

★ ★ ★

Of the 27 competitors, the top dozen in the rankings will start action at 8 p.m. EDT today. The others, those with lesser records, went in the pits on sunbaked Hayward Field at 9 a.m.

★ ★ ★

Among the "big names" in track and field are pole vault stars Bob Gutowski and J. D. Martin. Gutowski won a silver medal at Melbourne in the 1956 Olympics, but failed to make the team this year. Martin, from Oklahoma, is the NCAA champion. He missed out at Stanford, too.

★ ★ ★

Other top stars competing in the late section include Phil Mulkey of the Memphis Track Club; Mike Herman, New York Pioneer Club; Gene Freudenthal, Southern California Striders; Duane McIntyre, Emporia State Teachers; Steve Anderson, former Oregon star; Bob Lawson, one-time Oregon State ace; and Jim Klein, Santa Barbara Athletic Club.

Fires 2nd-Round 5-Under 67

Wall Paces Canadian Open

TORONTO (AP)—Art Wall Jr., a machine-like professional from Pocono Manor, Pa., was the man to watch today as a reduced field headed into the third round of the $27,000 Canadian Open golf championship.

The slim, 36-year-old shotmaker with a reputation of improving under pressure, fired a five-under-par 67 Thursday to seize the lead at the halfway mark in the 72-hole tournament with a 36-hole 133.

★ ★ ★

One shot back at 134 were Toronto's gangling Al Balding, the surprise first-round leader with a brilliant 64 who fell off to a 70 and Tommy Jacobs, a pint-sized pro from Bermuda Dunes, Calif., who racked a brilliant 65 to his opening 69.

But it was Wall, easy-going off the course but grimly efficient when the game starts, who was the player to fear in this 51st open at the 35-37 par-72 St. George's Club layout.

★ ★ ★

A total of 105 players—99 pros and six amateurs — survived the second-round cut. A score of 149 or better was required. The field will be further reduced to the low 60 and ties for Saturday's showdown round.

Former U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt, was all alone at 135. Still very much in contention with 136 were five other Americans—Jay Hebert, Bob Goalby, Paul Harney, Gene Littler, and Sam Snead.

TORONTO (AP) — The second-round leaders in the Canadian Open golf championship Thursday:

Art Wall Jr.	66-67—133
Al Balding	64-70—134
Tommy Jacobs	69-65—134

Pistons Slate Exhibition at Mt. Carmel, Illinois

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons will meet the Syracuse Nationals in an exhibition basketball game Oct. 15 at Mt. Carmel, Ill., it was announced today.

Mt. Carmel is the hometown of Piston forward Archie Dees who starred at Mt. Carmel High School before going on to collegiate fame at Indiana University.

★ ★ ★

Piston general manager Nick Kerbawy said the contest at Mt. Carmel will be one of "eight or nine pre-season games planned for this year."

Hall-of-Famer, Old 'Double-X' Seeks Job Help

GALESBURG, Ill. (AP) — Jimmy Foxx, member of baseball's Hall of Fame who batted .364 and hit 58 homers in his peak year of 1932 with the old Philadelphia A's has applied for Illinois unemployment compensation.

Old "Double X", who reputedly earned $250,000 during his 22 years in major leagues and lost much of it in what he has said wee "bad investments," applied for compensation Thursday which could bring him $35 a week for a maximum of 26 weeks.

Foxx said he was through with the restaurant that bore his name here. Its owners, Nunzio and Tony Mangieri and Joe Donato, offered him the job as manager a year ago after learning he was in financial straits.

Clift Contender for Race Title

Pontiac Driver Threat in Canadian Sports Car Championships

GODERICH, Ont. (AP) — Young Peter Ryan of Mont Tremblant, Que., makes another bid tomorrow to pull even with bus driver Francis Bradley of Toronto in Canada's sports car racing championships.

Ryan, son of a Quebec resort owner, trails Bradley by 80 points. Bradley has amassed 180 points against Ryan's 100 in races this season.

Both drive RS-60 Porsches, the only two new Porsche racing models placed in Canada by the German company this year.

They will have plenty of competition. A record 130 cars have been entered in the mid-summer trophy races at nearby Green Acres sponsored by the London Automobile Sport club.

About half the racers in the eight events are from the United States. Top contenders against Bradley and Ryan include Bob Clift of Pontiac in a 1960 Corvette and Norman Hartman of Dearborn, Mich., piloting the swift Cooper Monaco.

Dark Horse Blondes Pace Trumbell Test

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Two dark horse blondes, neither among the top 15 money winners, held a one-stroke edge today as the $16,000 Trumbull Women's Open golf tourney went into its second round.

Bonnie Randolph of Naples, Fla. who has captured one title in seven years of professional play; and Gloria Fecht of Southern Pines, S.C., who hasn't seen the winner's circle in five campaigns, scored two-under-par 71s Thursday to move out front.

Deadlocked a stroke off the pace were Louise Suggs of Atlanta, Ga. the 36-year-old sweet swinger who has collected $9,562 in purses this year to lead the ladies; Joyce Ziske of Waterford, Wis., the fifth money winner, who has copped the Western and Wolverine Opens; Beverley Hanson of Palm Desert, Calif., 10th in the money list; Marilyn Smith of French Lick, Ind., Blonde Ruth Jessen of Seattle, Wash., and Kathy Whitworth of Jal, N.M.

Local Horses Winningest in Past Michigan Miles

Will history repeat itself next Saturday when the $50,000-added Michigan Mile is run at the Detroit Race Course?

If it does, look for a "homebody" to run off with the first money in Michigan's richest race.

IN THE MILE—One of the top jockeys who will be entered in the $50,000 added Michigan Mile Saturday at the Detroit Race Course will be Jack Fieselman, who last year was up on 1,179 mounts. He won 166 times, finished second 166 times and was third 161 times.

While the Mile has attracted many of the turf world's top handicap stars, the invaders have had little luck in finding their way to the winner's circle.

Only twice in 11 years have horses other than those campaigning at the DRC finished first. In 1954 Spur On was the winner, while Nearactic came down from Canada to pace the field in 1958.

★

Last year, G & K Stable's Total Traffic was the big surprise, taking the measure of such stars as Race-tracker and Plion. Total Traffic's shocking victory was reflected in the mutuel payoff. The chestnut gelding returned $67 for $2, a Michigan Mile mutuel record.

Total Traffic is one of 14 local horses nominated for the mile and 1/16 run. In all, 52 thoroughbreds have been nominated for the race.

Among the top handicap runners expected to be on hand Saturday are such standouts as Manassa Mauler, Talent Show, Top Charger, Amber Morn, Olymar, Racetracker and Ekaba.

★ ★ ★

The Michigan Mile is one of 10 races on Saturday's program. The races will start at 2 p.m. at the DRC, located at Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Roads.

Emil Dolce's Manassa Mauler is a favorite to win.

The Mauler, a rags-to-riches four-year-old, wasn't regarded as much in racing circles until he set those circles on their heads by going into the $88,100 Wood Memorial at odds of 64-1 and winning it, beating such horses as First Landing.

★ ★ ★

Top jockey Bill Boland will be astride the Mauler in Saturday's race. The horse has been assigned top weight of 122 pounds.

Olymar will carry 119, Resolved 118 and Little Fitz 116.

Pierce Handles Tribe as Roadblock to Flag

By The Associated Press

It's getting so everyone apparently has forgotten Billy Pierce except the Cleveland Indians, who wish they could.

The Chicago White Sox southpaw was overlooked as a starting pitcher in last fall's World Series and passed over by his own manager, Al Lopez, when the American League's All-Star staff was named. But he's been a one-man roadblock to Indian pennant hopes.

★ ★ ★

He beat the second-place Injuns for the fifth straight time in a 9-3 decision Thursday night that gave the White Sox a sweep of a two-game series at Cleveland. The defending champs, in fourth place, now have taken six of 10 from the Tribe and Pierce has won four.

This one dropped Cleveland three games behind the first place New York Yankees, who swept a two-game set at Baltimore by beating the Orioles 6-3. The third-place Birds now trail by four games.

★ ★ ★

Detroit defeated Kansas City 6-3, and Washington split a twi-night pair at Boston. The Senators won 6-5, then lost 4-2.

Pierce (7-4) gave up seven hits, one a homer by Jim Piersall, while winning his fourth decision in the last six. He last lost to Cleveland on June 30, 1959, and has won seven of eight from the Injuns in the past two seasons.

Al Smith, who was 4-for-4, and Gene Freese each homered and drove in three runs for the White Sox in a 13-hit attack. Freese's shot, with two on, came in a winning five-run third off Jim Perry (9-4), who has lost only two of his last 10 decisions.

★ ★ ★

A two-run seventh, triggered by Clete Boyer's homer and capped by Tony Kubek's sacrifice fly, brought the Yankees from behind against loser Milt Pappas (7-6). New York was blanked on one hit until the fifth, when pinch hitter Bob Cerv socked a two-run homer. Winner Duke Maas (1-1) and Bobby Shantz shut out the Birds on four hits over the last five innings in relief of Bob Turley.

★ ★ ★

The Senators made it four in a row in the opener in a two-run seventh. Billy Gardner's triple scored the clincher. Camilo Pascual (8-5) won it, but Hal Woodeshick saved it by getting Pete Runnels on a grounder with two on in the ninth. Frank Sullivan (3-10) was the loser.

Billy Muffett (1-1) making only his seventh start in the majors and first since 1958, pitched a four-hitter for the Red Sox in the nightcap for his first AL victory. He struck out six, walked none and retired 18 of the last 19. Willie Tasby, who scored the first two runs, beat Bill Fischer (3-5) with a two-run single in the fourth.

Tom Dublinski Signs Denver Grid Pact

DENVER (UPI)—The Denver Broncos of the American Football League announced yesterday they had signed Tom Dublinski, a quarterback with seven years' experience in the National Football League and Canadian League.

★ ★ ★

Dublinski, a star at the University of Utah, played with the Detroit Lions in 1952, 53 and 54, and then signed with the Toronto Argonauts. He returned to the NFL in 1958 for a season with the New York Giants, and last season was with the Canadian League's Hamilton Tiger Cats.

★ ★ ★

Dublinski, 29, is six-two, weighs 205, and provides the Broncos with experienced relief for former Notre Dame quarterback Frank Tripuka, who signed some weeks ago.

Pittsburgh Last-Inning Victor Again

Dodgers Win 9th in 11 Games

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers have begun to look like world champions again, but they still have a long way to go to catch Pittsburgh's plucky and persistent Pirates in the National League race.

The Dodgers, who trail by 8½ games, moved within a half-game of third-place San Francisco by whipping Chicago's Cubs 7-1 Thursday night for their ninth victory in 11 games and fourth in a row.

★ ★ ★

But the Pirates put away their fourth consecutive success when Bob Skinner, who drove in all their runs, cracked a two-out, two-run double in the ninth inning that beat Cincinnati 3-2. It was Pittsburgh's 11th last-inning victory and pushed the Bucs 19 games over .500.

It also retained their 5½-game spread over Milwaukee's second-place Braves, who defeated Philadelphia 2-0 as Hank Aaron backed Warren Spahn's five-hitter with a home run and sacrifice fly.

St. Louis rapped San Francisco 7-3.

Right-hander Don Drysdale, after winning just two in 13 tries for the Dodgers over more than two months, now has won his last two starts for a 6-10 record. He allowed eight hits and walked four, but struck out eight and blanked the Cubs after George Altman hit his third home run in as many at-bats in the second inning. That's the only run Dodger pitching has allowed in 27 innings.

Duke Snider drove in three runs and tagged reliever Seth Morehead for his first homer off a lefty since 1956. His two-run triple—a high fly that was lost in the twilight at the Coliseum—clinched it for the Dodgers as they scored three in the first off Mark Freeman (3-1).

The Pirates trailed 2-1 with two out and no one on base in the ninth at Cincinnati. Bill Mazeroski got them rolling with a single, his third hit, off reliever Jim Brosnan. Smoky Burgess, just back from a two-day suspension, followed with a pinch single off loser Bill Henry (1-4), who then gave up Skinner's winner.

Mazeroski doubled and tied it 1-all in the fifth when he scored as Skinner, who beat the Reds with an eighth-inning grand-slam Wednesday, hit into a force out. Wilmer Mizell (5-5) was the winner, allowing four hits, one Frank Robinson's solo homer. Elroy Face wrapped it up in the ninth, allowing the Reds' fifth hit as they lost their fourth in a row.

★ ★ ★

Spahn (8-5), left off the All-Star staff, gained his 275th victory and 48th shutout—both all-time highs among NL southpaws—while walking just one and striking out 10, and Bobby Del Greco singled with none out in the ninth for the Phils. But after Spahnie gave up a walk that loaded the bases with one out, Bobby Gene Smith hit into a doubleplay.

Billy Bruton's double and a single by Del Crandall set up Aarons sacrifice fly in the first inning against Chris Short (4-5). Aaron hit his 23rd home run in the sixth as the Bravos ended their loss string at three with their third victory in 10 games.

★ ★ ★

A two-run single by Stan Musial won it for the Cards in the third against Sam Jones (10-8). Larry Jackson (10-8), who had lost three straight after winning eight in a row, beat the Giants for the fourth time. He allowed nine hits, one a homer by Orlando Cepeda. The Giants scored their first run in 31 innings in the third.

Softball Leads Padded in City League Action

Sno-Bol padded its lead in the American Circuit and O'Neil Realty did likewise in the National Loop of the City Softball Leagues yesterday by scoring victories on good pitching performances.

Dick Shell gave up four hits in beating CIO No. 594 3-2 at Northside while Ed Atkinson allowed on two hits in beating Universal Oil at Beaudette Park.

Paul Atkins got two hits for Sno-Bol which got two runs in the 4th inning on couple walks, fielder's choice, and two hits.

In the 5th, Sno-Bol added the other run on a walk, sacrifice and single by Atkins.

Chet Woodmore's double in the first brought about the frist CIO run. A single by Chuck Gavette in the 5th followed by an error and fielder's choice added the other run.

O'Neil Realty collected 14 hits led by Don Kah's double and two singles and a pair of hits each by Dan Dropps, Ed Atkinson, Bill LaRose and Al Levy.

Both Universal hits and lone run came in the first inning, after which Atkinson held them hitless.

Adios Wins Again

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Adios Butler, the $600,000 horse, turned in another sub-two-minute mile Thursday night when he easily won the $25,000 All-America Pace at Yonkers Raceway.

Thriving Garden Can Be Had After Vacation

You can cut down the homecoming shock after your vacation if you make plans now for care of your garden while you're gone. And you don't have to turn the chores over to a friendly neighbor if you do the job right before you leave.

Here's a check-list of reminders from experts at the Antrol Garden Information Center to help you give your garden the right care.

1. Feed. Late-summer and fall blooming plants will probably need a feeding to keep them nourished during your absence. A water-soluble fertilizer is easy to apply when you water the plants. Feed the plants before you leave and cover the soil with grass cuttings, peat or any good mulch to hold most of the moisture.

2. Water. It's important to soak flower beds as well as lawn areas thoroughly so there's enough water below the root level in the soil. When the whole area is deeply soaked, cover it with a mulch to cut down evaporation.

3. Weed. Pull weeds from flower beds and cover the soil between plantings with a good mulch to discourage new weeds from sprouting. To combat broad-leaved weeds, give your lawn a treatment with a 2, 4-D solution.

4. Trim. Cut old blooms from ornamental plants. And cut back any of stems that are likely to send out new shoots while you're away. It's good for the plants to get rid of some blooms occasionally, and since you won't be there to see it this is the ideal time. Then spray or dust all of the flower beds to help prevent serious damage by insects and fungus diseases.

5. Stake. Top-heavy plants such as lillies and delphiniums will develop twisted stalks unless they are braced properly. Tie them loosely to a single stake or put three or four stakes around the plant drawing the stalks loosely into the bundle and tie a cord around the stakes.

Unsightly Ant Hills Can Be Destroyed

Ants are the summertime lawn pest. Because of the different kinds of ants, these insects seem always to get into trouble. As a lawn pest, these sandy mounds are unsightly and create a bumpy appearing lawn.

Chlordane has proven a very good chemical to destroy these colonies. Chlordane is also very effective as a protectant to buildings and lumber from a variety of insect pests. Chlordane can be used as a wettable powder:

Mixed with water at ½ pound of 50 per cent wettable per 1,000 square feet, or the liquid Chlordane (72 per cent) at 4 oz. per 1,000 square feet. In each case, use only enough water to cover the treated area. Some find the 6 per cent Chlordane Dust especially handy for individual ant hills or around the foundation of the house. Granular Dieldrin is available if you want to apply the chemical with a lawn spreader. Dieldrin granules are applied at one and one-third pounds per 1,000 square feet.

Flower Show Entries Must Be Well Labeled

Flower show entries should be labled clearly. Many shows insist on correct labeling of plants and flowers simply to give visitors the opportunity of learning as much as possible about the plants on display. A small card of black waterproof paper is practical and looks good.

Print the full name of the plant in white paint. Set the card into a label holder you make easily by winding copper wire around a broom handle to make a coil. Leave a "stem" of wire to insert into the pot. Then, set the name card into the coiled section.

Hang Up Your Tools

Any gardener who fails to put us tools in safe storage after use is risking a bumper crop of injuries. A wall-storage board for hanging tools with sharp blades and long handles is advisable. Be sure that tools are out of reach and securely clipped to the board so that they cannot be easily knocked off.

Adjust Your Mower

To shade the grass as hot weather starts, raise the cutting height of your mower to 2 inches. Wait until fall to lower the blade for a shorter cut.

Spray Too Late Bugs Will Win

Every gardener knows the importance of understanding and cooperating with the ways of Nature. A good example of this is the problem of combating insects in the garden.

Nature gives the garden pests a head start on the so-called "good bugs" or predators, which are insects that feed on other insects. There's the case of the garden aphid, for instance.

The aphid starts to hatch when the average temperature reaches 50 degrees. But lady bugs, aphid lions and other aphid enemies don't hatch until the temperature averages 60 degrees — usually ten days to two weeks later. It's during this interval that you should be alert.

If you watch for the first sign of insect pests, and spray immediately, you can hold off that initial invasion until the predators have a chance to hatch and get to work. A common mistake made by many gardeners is to begin spraying for insects only when the garden has been completely overrun. This is too late, because the helpful insects will be destroyed along with the pests.

By keeping this time in mind, between the hatching of your garden pests and their predators, you'll be able to get your spraying under way in time to co-operate with Nature's method of exterminating the bugs.

That Ounce of Prevention Found in Proper Spraying

Gardening chemicals can combat plant diseases as effectively as wonder drugs cope with human illness. But like the wonder drugs, the pesticides must be handled properly to perform their miracles.

Dr. Harold Rife, Chief Chemist at the Antrol Garden Products Research Laboratories, points out that proper handling of pesticides is mainly a matter of following common sense rules. He urges gardeners everywhere to exercise these rules of the green thumb:

1. Keep chemicals in their original containers as much as possible and take care to keep labels clean and legible.

2. Store garden chemicals on high shelves in garage or cellar, where they are safely out of the reach of children.

3. Avoid direct skin contact with chemicals and wash hands thoroughly after use.

4. Use preventive sprays. Many garden pests cannot be seen until their damage is done. But you can prevent insect damage by applying multi-purpose sprays regularly.

5. Apply chemicals in the right weather. You'll cut down your spray efficiency if the wind is too strong or if it rains too soon after treatment. Dusts should be applied when the plant is dry or you run risk of injuring plant leaves.

6. Protect ornamental plants. Certain hormone weed killers also are lethal to ornamental plants. Use a simple shield of cardboard made from a grocer's carton when spraying weeds near flowers. These weed killers should not be applied when wind might blow the spray on desirable plants.

7. Check the calendar. You can waste time and money by spraying insects or weeds at the wrong time of growth. Follow the garden pages of The Pontiac Press for timely expert advice on when to apply chemicals.

8. Do a thorough job. Be sure that the chemical covers all parts of the plant. Spray at several levels and on both sides of leaves.

Fire Ants May Doom Selves by Gluttony

NEW YORK (UPI) — The fire ant; insect scourge of the South, may find its fondness for peanut butter a death sentence.

A mixture of peanut butter and a new chemical has given 100 per cent kills of fire ants in field trials at Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

County Horticulturist Tells How to Eliminate Pests

Wayne B. Siefert, County Extension Agent, Horticulture, talks with local gardeners about a number of timely garden problems.

MEXICAN BEAN BEETLE

Mexican bean beetles have a way of finding a bean patch year after year, and will quickly chew up the whole patch, including the pods. Bean beetles are somewhat like potato bugs. It isn't the beetle that does all the damage, but the soft bodied young bug. The bean beetle bug is rather fuzzy and found on the underside of the leaves. If these insects are getting started on your beans, the plants will show brown spots in the leaves.

Control of this pest is just as easy as with potato bugs. Because they are chewing pests, either Methoxychlor or Malathion will offer good control. If you have the wettable powder, either will be effective if you mix two tablespoons of wettable powder per gallon of water. Take care to spray the undersides of the leaves.

During the harvesting season, Malathion is the better choice because it may be used one day before harvest. With young bean plants, Methoxychlor is especially useful because it is longer lasting.

INSECTS ON HOUSE PLANTS

A house plant enjoys a very sheltered existence in more ways than one. But when an insect pest gets established, it enjoys this sheltered existence too.

Red Spider is a very common insect pest on house plants, and seems to prefer foliage and vine-like plants. When these spider mites become serious, lower leaves begin to fade out and all the leaves on the plant have a web-like covering. Close inspection will reveal pepper like specks crawling over the webs, especially on the underside of the leaves near the veins.

Malathion will control this pest, but will require repeated applications to keep the population under control. Two tablespoons of Malathion emulsion per gallon sprayed on both sides of the leaves will be adequate. This program should be repeated every month during the summer season.

Scale insects are another common pest of vines and foliage plants. These insects are brown or gray bumps on the stems of plants, with young scales appearing as gray flecks on the leaves.

Malathion has proven an effective insecticide, especially to control the young scale insects. Thorough coverage of the leaves and stems is suggested every two weeks until the plant is free of the pest.

If only one or two plants are involved, the chemical mixture may be rubbed on the leaves and stems with a moistened cloth. Another method is to mix the chemical in a pail, then dip the leaves and stems in the liquid. If these methods are employed, wearing rubber gloves will keep you protected. Pouring a small quantity of this liquid on the soil will help control springtails and other insects in the soil.

SQUASH VINE BORER

If you have ever had your squash vines suddenly wilt and die, then discover the root all rotted, you are familiar with squash vine borer. When the vines wilt, large grubs are easily discovered in the vine and root.

During late June and early July a large wasp like moth deposits eggs on the vines near the root. The grub burrows into the stem and eventually kills the vine by eating away the center of the vine.

Methoxychlor, used at two tablespoons per gallon, will prevent the development of this insect. Three or four weekly applications just as the plants begin to runner will be adequate. Because squash vine borers occasionally attack pumpkins, cucumbers and melons, these plants are worthy of spraying at the same time.

APHIDS ON CAULIFLOWER

Both cauliflower and broccoli are easy plants to grow in the garden and especially productive when planted early in the spring. Green aphids occasionally attack these plants and spoil the edibility of this early crop. Because the aphids are green, they may not be easily seen. Careful inspection of the young leaves will reveal this pest if it is present.

* * *

Malathion is an effective insecticide, and especially desirable because the plants may be harvested seven days after spraying. Unless it is near harvest, two applications at seven day intervals, using Malathion at two tablespoons per gallon will give effective control.

Pesticides Are Not to Be Handled Carelessly

CHICAGO (UPI)—Like any tool, pesticides must be handled with care, the American Medical Association warns.

Read the label on each container before each use and follow the directions. Store the sprays and dusts in original, labeled containers — out of children's reach. Note warnings and cautions each time before opening containers.

Slugs and Snails Come Out at Night

Slugs and snails are soft bodied animals usually found in moist areas and cool locations. The main difference between these pests is one carries a shell, the other does not. Both hide out during the day, and chew up the lower leaves at night. Wherever these insects travel, they leave behind a trail of slime which dries to transparent shiny trail.

Commercially prepared slug poisons have very successfully controlled these insects under difficult conditions. The bait is a grain product called bran. Metaldehyde is mixed with the bran. The insects prefer the bran to most plants, and are killed by the poison. This combination is sold under various trade names, so look for Metaldehyde as the active agent.

Tells Grim Tale of Labor Camps for Tibetans

DARJEELING, India (AP) — A grim story of life in a Chinese concentration camp near Lhasa has been told by one of the most important religious figures to escape from Tibet.

He says the thousands of Tibetans in Mahchen Tang concentration camp carry heavy rocks 17 hours a day. They are fed two meals of bad rice, boiled wild roots and sometimes roasted barley that Tibetans used to use only as fodder. Laggards are warned twice and then disappear.

Dems Want No '52-Type Floor Jam

Take Great Pains to Foil Convention Badge Fakers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Democratic convention managers are taking elaborate precautions to prevent counterfeiting of credentials to next week's nominating sessions.

★ ★ ★

J. Leonard Reinsch, executive director of the convention, outlined the security plans today and acknowledged that part of the program involves a last minute distribution of badges and tickets—to give counterfeiters less time to practice their art.

★ ★ ★

At the 1952 Democratic convention, realistic-looking ribbon badges were hawked on the streets outside Chicago's International Amphithretre. The result was a traffic jam on the convention floor.

★ ★ ★

Security measures were tightened in 1956 and have been made more elaborate this year.

SECRET MARK

For one thing, the laminated plastic badges which will admit delegates, convention workers and newsmen to the floor will be specially treated so secret identifying marks can be spotted under special lights.

★ ★ ★

The badges themselves will be numbered so "hot" badges that are lost or stolen can be readily identified by doorkeepers and police.

★ ★ ★

There will be two ways of wearing the badges — clipped to a breast pocket or hung on a cord around the neck.

Convention officials also have delayed passing out spectator tickets lest someone try to duplicate them. The design of the tickets has been made more intricate than for past conventions.

SOUVENIRS, TOO

Delegates and alternates to the convention also will be given ribbon badges of the type that caused trouble eight years ago. This will be done to meet a demand for some fancy convention souvenier.

★ ★ ★

There will be several thousand spectator seats available in the Sports Arena — who gets them and how is yet to be announced—but to be sure every seat is taken there will be a large overprinting. So, these seats will be on a first-come basis.

★ ★ ★

At previous conventions, many — sometimes hundreds — of ticket holders failed to show up. These gaping hole in the audience looked worse on the TV screens than junior's two missing front teeth.

Jet Fighter Planes Sent to Greenland

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jet fighter planes are being sent back to Greenland as part of a review of the nation's master defense plan.

The move is an abrupt turnabout. All interceptors were removed from the big arctic base at Thule only four months ago.

The Air Force said late Thursday a dozen F102s and 230 men of the 33rd Fighter Interceptor Squadron, now at England Air Force Base in Louisiana, will be sent to Greenland in August. The 327th squadron was pulled out of Thule and demobilized last March.

The sudden reversal may have been the result of strong protests made by Gen. Laurence Kuter against the removal of fighters. Kuter is chief of the North American Defense Command.

★ ★ ★

The Thule jets would be useful primarily in checking on radar indications of approaching enemy planes.

Thule, designed as a base for strategic bombers, has no bombers now. Staffed by about 5,000 men, it recently has been used mainly as a receiving point for equipment arriving for construction of the ballistic missile early warning system.

Hypnotism Gets More Use Than Is Necessary

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Florence Kent, 15, learned all about hypnotism from a book. Well, almost all.

She successfully hypnotized Sandra Kay Meyer, 15, Thursday —and then found she didn't know how to snap her out of it.

★ ★ ★

Sandra collapsed, Florence screamed for help, and Sandra was rushed to a hospital.

By the time she got there she was just drowsy, however, and a psychiatrist checked the girl and ordered her released.

The ambulance ride, it seems, accomplished what Florence could not.

'Horrible Stench' Results From Dead Rattlesnake

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — State Sen. George Miskovsky of Oklahoma City was plagued by "a horrible stench" every time he got into his car.

"My family wouldn't ride with me," he complained. Then a mechanic checked and found a dead rattlesnake wedged between a panel and the trunk lid.

Hopes for Another Crockett

Disney Trails Along With Daniel Boone

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"Daniel, Daniel Boo-o-o-ne, king of the wild frontier."

The tune is familiar, but the words are outta whack.

Originally the song was about Davy Crockett, but Walt Disney may fix the music to a new set of lyrics now that he's come up with another historical hero for his TV series.

If Walt's luck holds out ole Dan Boone will follow in the same bear tracks as those pioneered on video by Crockett.

Fess Parker, playing Crockett, fought his way through the TV wilderness in 1955 and became a national idol. But Disney's magic didn't hold in ensuing years.

In 1957 he starred Gerome Courtland in "Andy Burnett," which didn't cause any earthquakes. Doubling his chances, he launched a pair of heroic characters in 1958, "Elfego Baca" with Robert Loggia, and "Texas John Slaughter" starring Tom Tryon.

★ ★ ★

While both drew fine ratings, they never measured up to Davy and his coonskin cap. Elfago Baca's name just didn't have a ring to it, nor did the monicker lend itself to a catchy tune.

★ ★ ★

"Texas John" will be back again this season.

Last year Leslie Nielsen starred as Gen. Francis Marion in "The Swamp Fox." But he, too fell short of the Parker-Crockett success.

So it's up to Dewey Martin and Dan'l Boone to start another national frenzy over a long dead hero. But there may be roadblocks. Dewey doesn't want a Boone boom comparable to the Crockett craze.

"Our original schedule calls for four hour-long shows. If they catch on we will do more. But that will be all for next season. I have motion pictures to make for Disney, too."

Dewey added that he will not wear a coonskin hat.

"According to history books Boone didn't wear one," he went on. "And I'm not interested in the merchandising of products in connection with the series. Everybody in TV is out for the almighty buck; and that's what's destroying the movie and TV industry."

Because most of Boone's life in the wilderness took place before the Revolutionary War, television viewers will be seeing new costumes, sets and other trappings of the era—a welcome relief from the usual horse opera paraphernalia.

"He was quite a family man. When not out exploring he was home teaching his three children and ironing out his problems with his wife.

"Some viewers might be disappointed because we dispell some of the misconceptions surrounding Boone's life. But I do kill a bear. And we inject some humor in the man, too.

★ ★ ★

"One time the settlers heard a weird noise outside the stockade and thought the Indians were on the warpath. The next morning they discovered it was Boone singing.

"I have just as bad a voice as Boone did.

"In a way, he had a tragic life. Two of his sons were killed by Indians, and he died in poverty at the age of 86. But the Indians loved him and made him the son of a chief."

Martin is well suited for his new role. He is part Cherokee Indian himself.

★ ★ ★

"Unfortunately," Dewey concluded, "my Indian branch of the family didn't own any oil lands."

American Can Buys 13 Acres at Coloma

COLOMA (UP) — American Can Co. has purchased more than 13 acres of land at Coloma for a 60,000 square foot warehouse believed to be the first step toward a four-million-dollar production facility.

Announcement of the purchase was made Wednesday by Allen Baker Jr., executive vice president of Coloma State Bank, who was instrumental in bringing the firm to his community.

The new facility, expected to employ about 50 persons when its warehouse is ready for occupancy Sept. 1, will be a neighbor of Twin Cities Container Corp. which moved to Coloma from Benton Harbor six years ago.

Meany Looks Ahead

Dem Platform Nailers Hear Jobless Forecast

LOS ANGELES (AP)—AFL-CIO President George Meany predicted to Democratic convention platform drafters today that government unemployment figures will show a "frightening" jump of nearly one million during June.

This increase, he said, would be the largest May to June jump in the jobless total since the end of World War II.

Urging government policies keyed to stimulating greater economic growth, Meany said the country is on the road to stagnation, not to growth.

Other sources indicated they expect the jobless figure will jump from about 3½ million to about 4½ million and the unemployment rate to soar to about 5½ per cent of the nation's work force.

Meany's criticism of present economic conditions was made in testimony for a convention resolutions committee which has indicated it will endorse a plank promising to stimulate the economy.

In similar testimony before the committee Thursday, Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers said economic policies of the Eisenhower administration have slowed industrial growth to a point where the nation's future is threatened by a more rapid Communist expansion in this area.

Meany's unemployment forecast and warnings of possible further downturn took platform attention for the time being from a potentially explosive tussle over a civil rights plank.

* * *

A parade of nearly 40 witnesses appeared before the drafters Thursday to demand that the party pledge itself to use of full powers of the federal government — legislative and executive as well as the courts—to eliminate racial discrimination in schools, employment, housing and other fields of life.

This demand brought a grave but calm warning from Sen. Spessard L. Holland of Florida that a plank of this nature would drive many Southerners from the party. He appealed for moderation, saying the South would never accept coercion or compulsion.

Closely associated with the civil rights controversy were sharp criticisms directed at rules of the Senate permitting filibusters and of the House allowing that body's rules committee to stall legislation.

A move was expected within the committee to write into the platform a declaration that no member of the party should accept a post of responsibility in Congress without being willing to help carry out the platform pledge. But there was doubt such a move would succeed.

In another facet of the economic situation, President James G. Patton of the National Farmers Union called for a farm plank pledging to boost agricultural prices and income. He recommended a return to wartime and postwar government farm price supports and crop controls.

Patton's program — which already had been written into an advisory group's tentative draft of the Democratic farm plank— is in sharp contrast to that of the Eisenhower administration. The latter has worked toward lower supports and fewer controls.

Cuba Retaliates by New Charge

Calls U.S. Malevolent, Rejects Our Protests on Property Seizure

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government Thursday night rejected the U.S. protest against seizure of American and British oil refineries in Cuba and charged the foreign oil companies were trying to "return Cuba to colonial dependence on foreign economic interests."

Foreign Minister Raul Roa accused the United States of being "false, hypocritical and malevolent" in saying the refineries were taken over illegally last week.

Roa also rejected a British protest against the seizure, but only the note to U. S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal was made public.

Bonsal and British Ambassador Stanley Fordham protested on Tuesday against the seizure of the American-owned Esso and Texaco refineries and the British-Dutch Shell plant.

All three refineries had refused to process Soviet crude oil acquired by Cuba under its sugar-for-oil barter agreement with Moscow. The companies said they could not desert their traditional sources of supply in Venezuela.

Some new move against American property in Cuba is expected this weekend in retaliation for the reduction in Cuba's U.S. sugar quota. Castro plans a television speech tonight and another appearance on Sunday before a rally of workers.

Despite the bitter attacks, Cuba turned to the United States twice this week for emergency help to meet serious crop shortages. An emergency order for 150,000 bags of corn was placed in the United States after officials discovered they had less than 10 days of poultry feed on hand. Another 100,000 bags was requested Thursday.

Cuba also signed orders for 800,000 bags of American rice, the full first-quarter allocation of 3,200,000 bags of low-tariff rice imported annually.

Kansas Governor Mum

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Gov. George Docking of Kansas entrained for Los Angeles and the Democratic National Convention last night with the comment he was unable to say what candidate Kansas's 42 delegates would support for the party's presidential nomination. The delegation is pledged to vote for Docking as a favorite son on the first ballot.

Food Bill Nails A-Bomb Hiders

Arizona Sect Fearing Nuclear Attack Faces $11,702 Tab

BENSON, Ariz. (AP)—An $11,702 food bill has caught up with a small religious sect hiding in underground bomb shelters in this southern Arizona town.

★ ★ ★

The sect was charged Thursday with failing to pay for large quantities of food it stockpiled before taking refuge Monday night from an anticipated nuclear attack.

The accusation was made in a civil suit filed in Superior Court at Bisbee by a Tucson wholesale house, which seeks attachment of church property in the amount of the bill.

The Full Gospel Assembly reportedly paid for the food with a post-dated check that a Tucson bank refused to honor. It has 20 days to file an answer to the complaint — or pay the bill.

SUMMONS SERVED

A summons was served on two members of the sect, Glenn Scott and Charles Williams, by Cochise County Atty. Lloyd Helm and Sheriff Charlie Stewart.

★ ★ ★

"Every debt we have we will cover," said Scott. "We've got the money, but we haven't been able to get to the bank since it closed on the 7 July 4 holiday."

Helm said the sect paid $30,000 cash for its church property and most of its members live in new homes and drive new cars.

The estimated 100 men, women and children plan to come out of their subterranean shelters Sunday morning if, as they believe it will, the Soviet Union hasn't attacked this country by midnight Saturday.

Jean Simmons Files for Divorce From Granger

NOGALES, Ariz. (AP)—Actress Jean Simmons has filed for a divorce from actor Stewart Granger, apparently ending what was thought to be another of Hollywood's perfect marriages.

★ ★ ★

Granger was not expected to contest the action, filed Thursday in Santa Cruz County Superior Court. A hearing is expected in mid-August.

Miss Simmons seeks custody of their daughter, Tracy, 3½. The complaint, which charges Granger with cruelty, said property rights had been settled.

★ ★ ★

Granger and Miss Simmons, both born in England, were married Dec. 20, 1950, in Tucson. They own a large cattle ranch in southern Arizona.

Unfamiliar to Many Investors

Over-the-Counter Field Growing

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—As an investor, you watch the daily trading on the nation's stock exchanges. But there's an ever larger market for stocks that many newcomers among stock buyers know little about. It's the over-the-counter market.

And the tremors that shook stock prices this year seem only to have stimulated the growth in the number of new firms in this form of the securities business, in the number of employes of these brokers and dealers, and in the number of stock issues they have to sell.

★ ★ ★

They say they are selling more stocks this year than ever.

The National Assn. of Securities Dealers, self-regulating organization of this business, reports a record 4,372 members, a net gain of 230 since the first of the year, and 354 more than a year ago.

In the last six months 361 new members joined and 131 members left the association. Of the latter nine were expelled by the NASD for rules infractions, and one was expelled by the Securities and Exchange Commission for misconduct.

★ ★ ★

The NASD was set up by Congress in 1938 to regulate over-the-counter brokers and dealers. By law, all such dealers must be members of NASD. But the regulated people pay for the regulation and manage it.

Registered representatives and salesmen for the members now total 90,180, or 5,555 more than at the start of the year. In the last six months 18,236 took such jobs and 12,681 dropped out.

Stock market quavers also didn't discourage the debut of new common stocks. New issues came to 343 in the first five months of the year, compared with 213 in the like 1959 period. More were added in June.

25% INCREASE

For all types of securities, the SEC reports that in the 12 months ending June 30, 1960, there was a 33 per cent increase in registration statements proposing public sale of stocks and bonds. The 1,640 issues were valued at 15¾ billion dollars. But the 1,226 issues in the previous year had a value of 16½ billion. The SEC says that 1,385 of the issues in the latest 12 months period are now effective, compared with 1,055 made effective in the previous period.

All new issues are publicly offered first in the over-the-counter market, where they are seasoned before some of them go on to be traded on the stock exchanges. Most brokerage houses with stock exchange membership have over-the-counter departments and belong to the NASD.

★ ★ ★

Theoretically there are available for such trading some 50,000 issues, many regional in interest or securities of very small companies. Actually, about 5,000 fairly active issues are traded during a year.

Traded are securities of industrial, utility, bank and insurance companies, of mutual funds, of federal, state and local governments.

Stock exchanges are auctions at set places where the broker members take customers' orders and match the orders to buy with orders to sell. The customers set the prices.

★ ★ ★

Over-the-counter dealers have no fixed meeting place. Instead they use telephone, teletype machines and the post offices to keep in touch with fellow NASD members. By these means they supply the stocks, find the customers, deliver the money to the seller or the stock to the buyer. The dealers quote the prices.

NASD rules require dealers to record all transactions, including name of the customer, the name, number and price of securities, and the date and time of transaction. These records must be kept for at least two years. Customers can require members to open their books.

★ ★ ★

A dealer who gets an inquiry about a stock in whihh his clientele isn't ordinarily interested calls upon a dealer who does handle that stock. When dealer sells to dealer, there is an inside or wholesale price. The retail price will include a markup from the wholesale.

Meyner Claims Outside Support

Goes to Los Angeles Today With Plans for Nomination

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Robert B. Meyner, claiming some new support from outside New Jersey for his presidential nomination hopes, boards a jet plane today for Los Angeles and the Democratic National Convention.

★ ★ ★

The governor's heavily discounted chances of getting on the national ticket got a slight boost Thursday when U.S. Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa), chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, announced he will be one of the convention speakers who will second Meyner's nomination.

Waiting in Los Angeles is a "Meyner for President" headquarters already set up by Robert J. Burkhardt, executive director of the state committee, and Salvatore A. Bontempo, New Jersey Conservation Commissioner.

And the governor told a newsman Thursday night that he has the support of a few delegates here and there from other states. He wouldn't say where.

★ ★ ★

Meyner and his aides say his name will definitely be placed before the convention, in spite of pressures by many delegates to endorse Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Bontempo is armed with plans for a floor demonstration when Meyner's name goes in Wednesday.

Kalamazoo City Block Site of $1.5 Million Motel

KALAMAZOO (UPI) — Plans have been announced for a $1.5-million-dollar motel in downtown Kalamazoo, to occupy an entire city block.

The motel, only three blocks from the main intersection of Kalamazoo, will be built by James M. Spencer Jr., of Muskegon, and associates on the site of the General Gas Light Co.

General Gas Light was Kalamazoo's biggest employer for many years, but recently moved to a rural location. The old headquarters of the company is being razed and construction of the 118-unit motel is scheduled to start in September.

The builder said the downtown location was chosen because it is believed a majority of the motel patrons will be salesmen who would prefer the downtown area.

Two-Car Crash at Maple, John R Injures Five

TROY — Five persons were injured in a two-car crash last night at Maple road and John R here.

Hurt in one car were the driver Albert Newton, 24, of 31065 Ryan Rd., Warren, and his passenger, Mrs. Mable Dillman, 48, of 6000 N. Rochester Rd., Rochester.

The driver of the other car, Leticia Aggazzi, 17, of 35405 Ryan Rd., Warren, also was injured as were two passengers, her sister Anna, 22, and Giacinto Filippetto, 30, of Windsor, Ont.

All five were taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. Newton was treated for a cut lip and bruised chest and released. Each of the Aggazzi sisters had a broken pelvis, cuts and bruises and Mrs. Dillman and Filippetto also had cuts and bruises.

★ ★ ★

According to Troy police, Newton failed to yield the right-of-way resulting in the crash. Officers also said he was driving too fast. He was ticketed for reckless driving.

Production of Ford's Compact Cars Dips

CLEVELAND (AP)—Production of Ford Motor Co. compact cars was down to a trickle today as a result of labor trouble at the firm's stamping plant in suburban Walton Hills.

★ ★ ★

The plant, which supplies body and other stampings to all four compact car assembly plants, was struck Wednesday by United Auto Workers Union Local 420. The four assembly plants were idle last night, but one was to reopen today.

New Influences Lacking in Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—New trade influences were virtually absent today and prices were mostly steady to slightly easier in early transactions on the Board of Trade.

During the first several minutes, most contracts were unchanged or only minimum fractions from previous closes with rye showing the only firmness.

Broker said there appeared to be a good accumulation of buying orders in the wheat pit but that the business was not of an urgent character and probably would be done gradually at the lower levels.

Three Arrested in Waterford

All Admit Truck Tire Thefts; 4th Man Held as Receiver

Waterford Township police last night arrested three area residents for allegedly stealing truck tires from the Smith Beverage Co. at 1130 Sylvertis St., Waterford Twp.

A fourth man was held for receiving the stolen property.

Township police on routine patrol duty spotted a suspicious looking car on Seba road near the beverage company, and recorded the license number.

Upon investigation, the police discovered two large tires taken from a trailer parked at the company parking lot.

★ ★ ★

Police checked the license and found the car belonged to Wendell Lovelace, 20, of 110 Union St. Police said he admitted having stolen two other tires and sold them to a Rochester gasoline station owner, Albert Rogers, at 2884 Walsh St.

Lovelace implicated Ronald E. Hook, 5046 Hatchery Rd., Waterford Twp., and Jack W. Pierce, 21, of 596 Columbia St.

All three admitted participation in the tire thefts, plus petty larcenies in the area amounting to almost $1,000, police said.

The three men waived examination in Waterford Twp. Justice of the Peace Patrick K. Daly's court and are in the Oakland County jail with $5,000 bond pending appearance in Circuit Court Monday.

★ ★ ★

Rogers was also held on a $5000 bond, but demanded an examination which was scheduled for July 20. He told police he did not know the tires had been stolen, when he purchased them.

Fights Barn Blaze in Elba Township

ELBA TOWNSHIP — The Elba Township Fire Department last night fought a barn fire that destroyed the building and 250 bales of hay stored inside at 180 S. Elba Rd., just south of M21.

According to Lapeer County sheriff's deputies, Mrs. A. Clawson, who lives on the farm, discovered the blaze when she was cutting grass and noticed the barn roof was on fire.

She theorized a trash fire she had set earlier had spread to the barn, causing it to smolder over two hours before it was noticed.

No estimate of damage was immediately available.

Half of all automobiles in the United States are concentrated in eight states—California, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Texas, Illinois, Michigan and New Jersey.

Key Stocks Up, Continue Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — Key issues nudged ahead on balance as the stock market posted a slight gain early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

Fractional gains among leading issues outnumbered losses in the same range.

More volatile stocks among electronics, vending machine, recreational and selected groups continued to recover from recent sharp losses.

Polaroid rebounded about 5 points.

The market was higher from the start in a follow through to yesterday's rally, the best in a month. As trading faltered some gains were clipped. Brokers said the list was putting on a typical pre-weekend performance.

Steels, motors, rails, aircrafts and utilities were ahead while the pattern was mixed for chemicals, nonferrous metals and tobaccos. Oils were unchanged to a bit lower.

Radio Corp. was a feature among electronics, rising about 2 following news its sales of color television sets were up 300 per cent above year ago totals.

Philco, Raytheon and Sperry Rand showed an easier tendency but Motorola spurted about 4 and Zenith was around 2 points to the good. Texas Instruments was up a fraction.

Universal Match picked up a couple of points and Automatic Canteen more than a point. Kayser-Roth was unusually active and up close to a point.

The major steels gained unanimously, Jones & Laughlin, U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic adding fractions. Brokers continued to feel that the worst of the steel news was behind them.

QUEEN AND "COURT" — Linda Bement, center, an 18-year-old Mormon girl from Salt Lake City, will carry the U. S. colors against 42 foreign beauties tonight in the semifinals of the Miss Universe contest at Miami Beach, Fla. Although she is just one month out of high school, Linda's poise, charm and championship-class 37-23-36 figure captivated the judges and they named her Miss U.S.A. Runners-up are, from left, Nancy Wakefield, Florida; Margaret Jo Gordon, Alabama; Miss U.S.A.; Mary Rodites, New York; and Lyndia Ann Tarlton, North Carolina.

State Jobless Count Higher

Number Will Increase in Detroit Area Due to Car Changeovers

DETROIT (AP)—The number of jobless in Michigan increased by 18,000 from mid-May to mid-June, the Michigan Employment Security Commission reported today.

More than two-thirds of the increase was in the Detroit area. Unemployed in the state June 15 totaled 208,000, or 7.2 per cent of a labor force of 2,900,000.

In its June report on the Detroit area, the commission said, "A gradual decline in the automobile and related supplier industries is expected as the model changeover draws near."

"Some factories will begin the changeover early in July and others will follow later in the month," the agency said. "Employment in other industries may show some seasonal gains but these increases will be insufficient to offset the losses in automobile factories and suppliers of parts and components.

"Unemployment is expected to increase moderately during the next two months because of the decline in employment and seasonal increases in the area's labor force.

Let Kids Help, You Do Them a Favor

EAST LANSING (UPI)—You're really doing junior a favor when you give him household chores to do.

Michigan State University researchers say participation in real work can give children a feeling of personal significance and a sense of achievement that comes in no other way. But they add not to expect perfection from the small fry.

He Shouts Fire, Returns to House, Dies With Family

REMSEN, N. Y. (AP)—Dr. Norman Olsen raced from his burning home, shouted for help and returned to die with his wife and two children he sought to rescue.

"My God, my God! The house is on fire. Get to a telephone," he screamed before rushing to the upper floor of the two-story frame home, where fireman found the four bodies last night.

The fire broke out apparently a short time after Olsen, 42, a prominent researcher, and his wife, Betsey, 39, had retired. Their son Robert, 6, and daughter Allison, 5, had been put to bed earlier.

The house, on a dirt road near this Adirondack mountain community, suffered little fire damage. Smoke filled the dwelling.

Olsen, a former University of Michigan instructor, was assistant director of the Masonic Research Laboratory in Utica, which does research into the problems of the aged.

Criminal Negligence Ruled Out for Arlene

NEW YORK (AP)—Criminal negligence has been ruled out in the death of a Detroit businessman, struck on the head by a falling dumbbell.

The district attorney's office said yesterday the case will not be taken to a grand jury.

The dumbbell was being used to prop a screen in the eighth-floor apartment of actress Arlene Francis and her husband, theatrical producer Martin Gabel, at the Ritz Towers.

A maid accidentally dislodged the dumbbell and it fell, striking Alvin Rodecker, 60, as he strolled with his wife. He died next day, June 24.

Soviets' Multistage Rocket Succeeds

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets reported hitting a bullseye at about 8,000 miles in the second firing of their new multistage rocket.

The Soviet news agency Tass, said the two launchings into the Central Pacific, Tuesday and Thursday, "yielded all data necessary to complete the development of a carrier rocket designed for further conquest of cosmic space." The announcement said the test series was over and the 50,000 square miles of target area were open to shipping.

A U. S. Navy plane sighted the second Soviet rocket, Adm. Harry D. Felt, the U.S. Pacific commander announced in Honolulu.

Wins Highway Citation

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Highway Department has been cited by the National Institute of Traffic Engineers for maintaining a high level of performance in traffic engineering during 1959. California was the only other state to receive a similar award, the institute reported.

BLOWOUT BRAKING

Don't let the sound of a blowout panic you into slamming on the brakes. If you do, the stopping of the wheel on which the blowout has occurred will exert a strong drag which will pull the car off its course. Let the engine slowly brake the car down to a lower speed, and then apply the brakes gently.

Royal Oak Twp. Girl Held in Death of Baby

A 19-year-old Royal Oak Township girl was held late yesterday in the burning and death of her newly born daughter July 4, according to Redford State Police.

★ ★ ★

Detectives said the mother told them she wrapped the baby in a sheet and put it in an ash can behind her home shortly after it was born.

★ ★ ★

She said the infant "was very still," and that she was "scared." Someone burned rubbish in the container later that day, she said. The body was found yesterday.

Card of Thanks 1

STOLICKER, HAROLD L. — We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from our kind relatives, friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father. We especially thank the Rev. E. C. Vosburg, Jig and Fixture Department, Fisher Body Division, Grand Blanc, U. S. Naval Reserve Unit of Flint and Sherman Funeral Home. THE FAMILY OF HAROLD L. STOLICKER.

THE FAMILY OF LUETTA JENNINGS wish to thank all those who were so kind to us in our recent bereavement and for the many cards of sympathy received.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear son and brother, Allan M. Hessell who passed away 5 years ago today July 7th, 1955.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well;
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.
So dearly loved and sadly missed by his mother, Marian Thomas; sisters Doris and Gail; and brothers Charles and Harvey.

Waterford School Job Let Out for $147,600

Six bids for extensive construction work on the Waterford Village School were reviewed at a special Waterford Township Board of Education meeting, and a contract was awarded to the low bidder, the General Constriction Co. of Detroit for $147,600.

★ ★ ★

The construction work involves tearing down the original center structure of the school and converting the entire building into a one-story unit.

The Waterford Village School is the oldest in the district, and throughout the years there have been three additions to the original building.

There will be six new classrooms, a lobby-library, kitchen and several utility rooms added, after the demolition work has been completed.

In other business, Supt. William A. Shunck reviewed cost estimates of the Hudson Covert and Drayton Plains Elementary School addition and alterations,

COST $382,608

The combined costs of the two projects, including architect's fees, was $382,608. This figure was $66,608 more than anticipated,

Shunck also presented a study of the school census reports from 1950 to 1960. In 1950 there were 8,790 children in the district, and the latest report shows 21,345 children from 1 to 19 years old.

Next fall's enrollment in Waterford Township schools is expected to exceed 13,000 pupils, Shunck said.

The School Board approved Shunck's recommendation that James Poteet be named principal of the Lambert Elementary School. Poteet graduated from Ball State Teachers College, Muncie, Ind., and received his master's degree from Michigan State University this summer.

He has five years of teaching experience, his last position being with the Birmingham school system.

Grosse Ile Golf Club Fire Damage $40,000

TRENTON (UPI)—Officials today estimated damages at $40,000 from a fire which started in the kitchen of the Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club.

The blaze spread into an attic and dining room before it was brought under control. Some persons fled the building when the fire was discovered. No one was injured.

Fashion Strip Wins in State Beauty Contest

MUSKEGON (AP) — A beautiful seamstress with a sparkling personality captivated the judges with a one-woman fashion show last night and was named a winner in the Miss Michigan talent competition.

★ ★ ★

Nancy Ann Fleming, an 18-year-old Montague resident competing as Miss White Lake, used what she called a "strip tease" routine to show off clothes she had made herself.

★ ★ ★

Starting with basic dress — a simple sheath — she progressed to formal wear in stages.

Martha Jean Collier, 18, Miss Mount Clemens, was a winner in the bathing suit and evening gown competition. She is 5-foot-8 and distributes her 134 pounds 37-24-37.

In the bathing suit division, Jonna Jean Shepherd, Miss Dowagiac, and Judith Eckhold, a Berkley girl entered as Miss South Oakland County, were close behind Miss Collier.

Adult Swimmers Slow to Enroll in Waterford

Unless more interest is shown by tomorrow's registration, one of Waterford Township's most important activities — adult swimming lessons — will be dropped from the recreation department program, according to Director Thomas Belton.

★ ★ ★

Only three persons have enrolled in the special adult class set up from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturdays at Lake Oakland. Last year, 15 adults were enrolled and the results were very satisfactory, Belton said.

He has urged residents to participate in the swim classes on the Oakland beach located at the north end of Aquarina street off W. Walton boulevard.

Some 600 children are learning to swim at five township beaches in two-day weekly three-hour classes. The swim sites are at Elizabeth, Watkins, Oakland, Pontiac and Lotus lakes. A crew of six experienced instructors and assistants train the children, and the registration fee is $3 for 14 lessons for children and adults.

Methodists Electing First Bishop Today

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Election of at least one bishop among three being sought appeared a sixth ballot possibility today at the North Central Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist Church. Results were expected about noon.

★ ★ ★

After five ballots a trend has developed in favor of two church leaders from Wisconsin and Indiana and a Chicago editor. Voting started yesterday.

Dr. Ralph T. Alton, a pastor at Appleton, Wis., moved to the fore on the fifth ballot with 217 votes—30 shy of election with 370 delegates voting.

Dr. Edwin R. Garrison of Indianapolis, Ind., area administrative assistant, was next with 197 votes.

★ ★ ★

Dr. T Otto Nall, editor of the Christian Advocate at Chicago and a member of the Minnesota conference, slipped to third place with 192 votes. He had moved into a lead with the second ballot and held it until the fifth tally.

AAA Baseball Team Pulled Out of Cuba

MONTREAL (UPI)—The International Baseball League today pulled its Havana franchise out of Cuba and tentatively moved it to Jersey City, N.J.

League President Frank J. Shaughnessy formally announced the decision in a telegram to Havana owner Roberto (Bob) Maduro.

The move came shortly after Shaughnessy told newsmen informally that he was pulling the Sugar Kings out of Cuba to protect ball players against possible anti-American violence there.

Rocky Would Resume Tests

Says Underground Use of Nuclear Shots Step Toward Arms Control

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller wants the United States to resume underground nuclear testing as a step toward armament control.

"The primary necessity for any successful negotiation of arms control is the correction of today's military unbalance in order to make the deterrent force of America truly secure against destruction," the Republican governor says.

"The vulnerability of this force, along with our inferiority to Soviet forces in specific areas, places America near a pasture of appealing, rather than negotiating."

Rockefeller's latest call for a change in administration policy on arms control was made in a 4,000-word statement released Thursday at his office here.

In his statement, Rockefeller urged that the United States create immediately at the highest level of government "a fully staffed agency to inspire and to coordinate all activities bearing upon arms control and inspection."

"The ultimate purpose of all our efforts," he said, "must be to reduce the danger of war and the occasion for aggression. This is not assured by an absence of arms. It can only be assured by a balance and control of arms."

"Peace does not mean helplessness. Stability does not mean nakedness. And both peace and stability are served only by such notions," he said.

Italy Threatens to Crush Reds

Premier Demands Halt to Violence; Charges Power Grab Eyed

ROME (AP)—Italy's pro-Western government today threatened tougher police action unless the Communists halt a wave of violence that has claimed seven lives and injured hundreds.

Premier Fernando Tambroni accused the Reds of using anti-fascism as a front for an attempt to seize power and warned the government would do its "full duty" to restore order.

The Communist-led Confederation of Labor (CGIL) called a nationwide 10-hour general strike this afternoon in protest against "police brutality."

Non-Communist unions charged the CGIL with striking for "political motives" and said they would ignore the call.

The wave of rioting, in which more than 500 demonstrators and 200 policemen have been hurt, began two weeks ago and reached its bloodiest pitch in street fighting Thursday in the northern industrial city of Reggio Emilia. Five rioters were killed and one policeman was critically wounded in an exchange of gunfire. About 20 others were injured.

Rehearing on Rate Increase Is Denied

LANSING (AP) — Opposition petitions asking for a rehearing of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. rate case have been denied by the State Public Service Commission.

The utility contended it received too little and the Michigan Utility Ratepayers Assn. said the firm was given too much. Both asked for a review of the case.

Michigan Bell, which had asked for a 25 million dollar rate increase, was granted a $4,014,223 hike on Feb. 18. The utility said the higher figure was needed to provide for a fair rate of return and needed expansion.

The denial was by an unanimous decision of the three-man commission.

Nightclub 'Interview' With Premier Kishi

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—President Eisenhower isn't likely to get to the Copacabana to watch Marty Allen and Steve Rossi do a spoof of Prime Minister Kishi.

WILSON

I'll send this gag along to Jim Hagerty hoping Ike hears it eventually.

Marty Allen, the fat boy who impersonates a penguin, and Steve Rossi do a burlesque "interview" which includes this:

"Premier Kishi, were you frightened during the Tokyo rioting?"

"Look down my back," says Kishi.

"What for?"

Kishi: "I'll show you where the yellow went."

Allen and Rossi — headlining the Copacabana just a year after forming the partnership which led them already to two Perry Como appearances—will follow Paul Anka, who's 18—who followed Bobby Darin, who's 24.

"So we're the oldest act that's headlined there for a while," brags Marty. "I'm 35, Steve's 28. That's not much, but combined, that makes us 63, or almost as old as Sophie Tucker."

★ ★ ★

Marty, who got the penguin bit from taking a niece and nephew to a zoo in Pittsburgh, was working in Toronto about five years ago. He got friendly with a restaurant owner who invited him home to dinner.

"While we were trying to eat, the man's son, a little kid in a sweater, comes out playing a guitar and singing.

"The father says to me, 'What should I do with him?'

"I say to the father, 'Why don't you put him in the closet?'

"The next time I go back there, four years later, it's 'Paul Anka Day' in honor of that kid.

Husband Seeks Divorce From 'Beatnik' Wife

The cult of the bearded poets and bongo drums has proven too much for a Madison Heights GI.

Gary G. Harvey, 25, of 27634 Brettonwoods St., yesterday filed a divorce suit in Circuit Court charging that his wife, Marilyn, 21, "has become, for the lack of a better name, a 'beatnik'."

Harvey, who is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., said in his complaint that because of her "beatnik attitude of irresponsibility," his wife is "totally indifferent" to the health, welfare and proper care of their two young daughters, ages 2 and 3.

Harvey, in service for six years, seeks custody of the children, who are being cared for by his parents.

The couple, married in December, 1955, separated in June. Mrs. Harvey is currently residing in Los Angeles.

Shunck Gives Tax Rate Data

Waterford Board Sets Discussion of Three Proposed Plans

Waterford Township School Supt. William S. Shunck last night presented basic information on the township's school district tax rate for 1960 to the new Board of Education.

★ ★ ★

Shunck discussed three plans for the establishment of the school tax rate, which the board will study and act on at the July 21 meeting.

Taxes could be reduced from the present rate of 25.50 to 23.71 mills, which includes school operation plus the debt retirement and still meet expense obligations.

The second plan would keep the school tax rate at the same level and allow some leeway in paying for school operation and debt retirement.

The third plan calls for a $2 increase in every $1,000 of assessed valuation as equalized. This debt could be retired much faster with this plan, Shunck pointed out.

Waterford Township residents have voted 10 mills for school building during the last eight years, and the school district is allocated eight mills annually from the county for school operation and maintenance.

The state has increased equalized valuation some 6 per cent, which has been considered in all three plans presented to the board.

The state equalized valuation of the Waterford Township school district which extends into White Lake, Independence and West Bloomfield townships, has been set at $95,374,915.

New State C. of C. OKs Sales Tax Hike

DETROIT (AP) — Leaders of the new Michigan State Chamber of Commerce are supporting a proposal to permit the Legislature to boost the sales tax to 4 per cent.

Robert P. Briggs of Jackson, executive vice president of Consumers Power Co. and Chamber president, announced the action of the board of directors at a luncheon meeting yesterday.

The luncheon was designed to promote the Chamber, which was organized May 1, and attempt to sign up Detroit business leaders as members. More than 500 attended.

Among the guests were L. L. Colbert, president of Chrysler Corp.; Joseph M. Dodge, chairman of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co.; Benson Ford, vice president of Ford Motor Co.; John F. Gordon, General Motors president; Joseph L. Hudson Jr., vice president and general manager of J. L. Hudson Co.; and George Romney, president of American Motors.

Dem Convention Honeymoon for MSU Student

Politics and Cupid are hand in hand for Timothy E. Agar, 19-year-old Michigan State University student and one of four state delegation pages from Oakland County at the Democratic National Convention beginning in Los Angeles Monday.

Agar, of 405 Boyd St., is combining his honeymoon with his work as a page. This past Saturday he was married to Suzanne E. Brummett of 945 Canterbury Dr.

The other three pages from the county who will work with the Michigan delegation to the convention are Linda Ann Reuther of Rochester, Sue Scholle of 2710 Vinsetta Dr., Royal Oak, and Gerald Lax, of 23641 Marlowe Dr., Oak Park.

Nikita Warns About Treaty

Hints He'll Sign With East Germany in Fall —Berlin Next

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev hinted today he might sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany in September. He delivered the warning just before leaving for Moscow after a nine-day state visit in this neutral country.

Khrushchev said he and the East Germans would consider taking action against West Berlin if the West German Federal Parliament meets there in September. He called such a meeting a "provocation."

As he departed, he got a scolding from Chancellor Julius Raab for assailing the West and threatening Austrian neutrality during his visit.

The United States formally protested Thursday to Austria against "slanderous attacks" by Khrushchev during his visit, and asked why this avowedly neutral country did not dissociate itself from them.

Khrushchev had threatened in a speech at Klagenfurt that Moscow would send soldiers into neutral Austria if U. S. rocket bases in Italy were used to attack Communist countries.

In bidding farewell to Khrushchev at the airport, Raab said: "You referred several times to Austrian neutrality. The Austrian Parliament has adopted voluntarily and without force this neutrality after the conclusion of the state treaty, in which you played a substantial part."

"We are fully aware that thereby we have assumed an important international obligation and we expect that all countries, but especially the big powers, will respect and honor this neutrality. The defense of this neutrality is assured by the views and attitudes of our people," Raab said.

Hearing Set for Pratt

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP)—A preliminary hearing July 20 was set for David Pratt, wealthy 50-year-old farmer charged with attempted murder in the April 9 shooting of Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd.

A recently enacted law requires all Italian motorists to carry a foot-high, triangular red reflector in their automobiles for use as a warning in case of a breakdown on the highway. Violators are liable to fines ranging from $8 to $12.

Meany Looks Ahead

Dem Platform Nailers Hear Jobless Forecast

LOS ANGELES (AP)—AFL-CIO President George Meany predicted to Democratic convention platform drafters today that government unemployment figures will show a "frightening" jump of nearly one million during June.

This increase, he said, would be the largest May to June jump in the jobless total since the end of World War II.

Urging government policies keyed to stimulating greater economic growth, Meany said the country is on the road to stagnation, not to growth.

Other sources indicated they expect the jobless figure will jump from about 3½ million to about 4½ million and the unemployment rate to soar to about 5½ per cent of the nation's work force.

Meany's criticism of present economic conditions was made in testimony for a convention resolutions committee which has indicated it will endorse a plank promising to stimulate the economy.

In similar testimony before the committee Thursday, Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers said economic policies of the Eisenhower administration have slowed industrial growth to a point where the nation's future is threatened by a more rapid Communist expansion in this area.

Meany's unemployment forecast and warnings of possible further downturn took platform attention for the time being from a potentially explosive tussle over a civil rights plank.

A parade of nearly 40 witnesses appeared before the drafters Thursday to demand that the party pledge itself to use of full powers of the federal government — legislative and executive as well as the courts—to eliminate racial discrimination in schools, employment, housing and other fields of life.

This demand brought a grave but calm warning from Sen. Spessard L. Holland of Florida that a plank of this nature would drive many Southerners from the party. He appealed for moderation, saying the South would never accept coercion or compulsion.

Closely associated with the civil rights controversy were sharp criticisms directed at rules of the Senate permitting filibusters and of the House allowing that body's rules committee to stall legislation.

A move was expected within the committee to write into the platform a declaration that no member of the party should accept a post of responsibility in Congress without being willing to help carry out the platform pledge. But there was doubt such a move would succeed.

Backers Admit 1st Round Lost; Eye California

Is Gov. Freeman Being Offered Bait in Deal for Humphrey Votes?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Realistic supporters conceded today they can't put Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts over on the first ballot for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Instead, these strategists concentrated on a second rollcall blitz they believe will deliver the prize in the party convention opening Monday.

And if they can't snag the gold ring on the second go-around, they were saying they can outlast any of the other contenders even if a half dozen countdowns are needed.

This possibly significant change in tactics indicated that Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and those attempting to draft Adlai E. Stevenson may have won the first skirmish in what is developing into a fratricidal contest of major proportions.

Kennedy's outriders appeared to have enveloped a majority of the powerful 81-vote delegation from California. There were disputed reports that Gov. Edmund G. Brown will lower his favorite son flag in favor of Kennedy's candidacy.

PENNSY VOTE?

Kennedy's lieutenants were said to have penetrated the Pennsylvania delegation with the result that he might get a sizable share of that state's 81 votes on the first ballot.

Competent observers said Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago would be ready to deliver all but about 14 of Illinois' 69 votes to Kennedy. The Massachusetts senator was credited with about 100 of New York's 114.

But when they added up all of these victorious forays, Kennedy's staff strategists agreed they had not destroyed the main body of

Cuba Retaliates by New Charge

Calls U.S. Malevolent, Rejects Our Protests on Property Seizure

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government Thursday night rejected the U.S. protest against seizure of American and British oil refineries in Cuba and charged the foreign oil companies were trying to "return Cuba to colonial dependence on foreign economic interests."

Foreign Minister Raul Roa accused the United States of being "false, hypocritical and malevolent" in saying the refineries were taken over illegally last week.

★ ★ ★

Roa also rejected a British protest against the seizure, but only the note to U. S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal was made public.

Bonsai and British Ambassador Stanley Fordham protested on Tuesday against the seizure of the American-owned Esso and Texaco refineries and the British-Dutch Shell plant.

REFUSE CRUDE OIL

All three refineries had refused to process Soviet crude oil acquired by Cuba under its sugar-for-oil barter agreement with Moscow. The companies said they could not desert their traditional sources of supply in Venezuela.

Some new move against American property in Cuba is expected this weekend in retaliation for the reduction in Cuba's U.S. sugar quota. Castro plans a television speech tonight and another appearance on Sunday before a rally of workers.

★ ★ ★

Despite the bitter attacks, Cuba turned to the United States twice this week for emergency help to meet serious crop shortages. An emergency order for 150,000 bags of corn was placed in the United States after officials discovered they had less than 10 days of poultry feed on hand. Another 100,000 bags was requested Thursday.

Italy Threatens to Crush Reds

Premier Demands Halt to Violence; Charges Power Grab Eyed

ROME (AP)—Italy's pro-Western government today threatened tougher police action unless the Communists halt a wave of violence that has claimed seven lives and injured hundreds.

Premier Fernando Tambroni accused the Reds of using anti-fascism as a front for an attempt to seize power and warned the government would do its "full duty" to restore order.

The Communist-led Confederation of Labor (CGIL) called a nationwide 10-hour general strike this afternoon in protest against "police brutality."

Non-Communist unions charged the CGIL with striking for "political motives" and said they would ignore the call.

A Red-called walkout flopped in Rome Thursday. But in the Communist belt around Reggio Emilia, Bologna and Modena it brought commercial and industrial activity to a standstill.

The wave of rioting, in which more than 500 demonstrators and 200 policemen have been hurt, began two weeks ago and reached its bloodiest pitch in street fighting Thursday in the northern industrial city of Reggio Emilia. Five rioters were killed and one policeman was critically wounded in an exchange of gunfire. About 20 others were injured.

State Without Facilities for 1,000

Child Mental Aid in Doubt

The outlook appears dim for more than 1,000 mentally retarded Michigan children seeking admittance to state hospital facilities, the Michigan Mental Health Commission declared yesterday at Pontiac State Hospital.

The director of the Mental Health Department, Charles F. Wagg, said 1,117 children were on the waiting list for mental facilities which do not exist and which would not be completed in the immediate future.

Wagg outlined the situation from a letter sent to Gov. Williams July 5 which was read at the mental health commission's monthly meeting yesterday.

The crisis, according to Wagg, approaches that of 1956 when a special legislative session was called to examine the problem.

2,055 BEDS ADDED

The number on the waiting list hit 1,315 in January, 1956.

By early 1957, the list was whittled down to 650.

To date, 2,055 beds have been added but about half of these are in leased facilities which must eventually be evacuated, Wagg said.

★ ★ ★

Michigan must add at least 500 beds a year to keep from falling behind as the number of mentally retarded children increases yearly, he said.

Plans for approximately 600 more beds have been authorized by the State Legislature, but construction has not gotten under way yet.

The expansion program provides for 440 beds at Plymouth State Home and Training School, 75 beds at Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School, and use of 75 beds at Howell Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

The mental health commission also outlined a plan which may help alleviate the present crisis.

It called for keeping the child in his local community setting until state facilities become available.

Parents and private care under state supervision would be utilized until the children can be admitted to state hospitals.

"Since the state has failed to meet the need of adequate space, the least it can do is give other forms of assistance," Wagg asserted.

Democrats Taking Over Old City of the Angels

By JOE HAAS

LOS ANGELES—The name of this western metropolis of smog, freeways, crazy drivers and celluloid is said to mean "City of the Angels." But it is being taken over by the Democrats.

They're arriving by plane, train and bus. Some even took the chance of driving their own cars. The speed limit on the freeways is 65, and if you lag along at 60 you'll get a ticket for blocking traffic.

You can easily identify a Democratic politician. Two Republican administrations in succession have made them look hungry.

The emblem of the party, the donkey, is everywhere in evidence in life sized cardboard models. There's also a model of a Republican elephant on Wilshire boulevard. It stands beside a donkey and bears the scar of a hoof, where the donkey has kicked it.

HAAS

A delegate from the desert rode a live donkey into town, and created a greater sensation than the arrival of any of the favorite sons. The animal will have a front stall at the convention.

Speaking of favorite sons, there're almost as many as there are states. If laid end to end, together with their publicity men and other hangers-on, they'd almost extend from the convention site to the corner of Hollywood and Vine.

★ ★ ★

If their alleged supporters back home were added to the line, it would further extend to the corner of Saginaw and Huron.

In fact, so many favorite sons have already arrived that everybody who smiles or wants to shake your hand is suspected and condemned as one.

Sen. McNamara Won't Attend Dem Convention

By The Associated Press

A key figure in Michigan politics was sidelined temporarily today. Democratic Sen. Patric V. McNamara said he will not attend his party's national convention instead the 65-year-old senator is taking advantage of the congressional recess to undergo surgery for a prostate gland condition.

McNamara, who is unopposed for renomination in the Aug. 2 primary, said he expects to return to Washington when the Senate reconvenes Aug. 8. An alternate will replace him at the Los Angeles convention.

Man Set to Leap Off City Bank

Horrified Crowd Below on Saginaw Street as Police Try Rescue

An unidentified man horrified more than 2,500 persons in downtown Pontiac for nearly an hour late this morning as he perched on a spire atop the 14-story Pontiac State Bank Building, apparently intending to leap to his death.

Three policemen and a psychiatrist apparently talked the man out of his suicide plans after talking desperately with him for more than 45 minutes.

The man left the ledge voluntarily at 11:45 a.m.

He was first sighted high above the downtown area at the southwest corner of the building about an hour earlier. The building fronts on Saginaw.

★ ★ ★

A downtown worker telephoned police at 10:40 a.m. to say that the man had been noticed.

Police blocked off downtown traffic on Saginaw from Huron to Orchard Lake for nearly an hour.

★ ★ ★

Crowds instantly gathered on the street below.

★ ★ ★

Firemen arrived but said the building was too tall to reach the man by ladders or to save him from death by nets near ground level.

The psychiatrist, Dr. L. Jerome Fink, has offices in the building.

Ike Inks Defense Bill Worth $40 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed the $39,996,608,000 defense appropriation bill.

The measure provides $661,608,000 more than he asked. The bill was signed Thursday before Eisenhower left for his Newport, R. I., vacation.

We'll Ditch the Chill at Least for Weekend

Weekend weather will be mostly fair and warmer with temperatures averaging about two degrees above the normal 83 high and 62 low, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau report.

A cooler trend is expected Monday, but it'll be warmer again Wednesday. Precipitation will average about ¾ inch in showers or thundershowers Sunday and again about Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Tonight's low will be a mild 62. Saturday the mercury will reach a pleasant high of 86 degrees. Winds recorded southwest at 18 m.p.h. at 10 a.m. today will increase to 20 m.p.h. later.

The lowest temperature reading preceding 8 a.m. was 61 at 2 a.m. By 1 p.m. the mercury had risen to 84.

Pulls Into Traffic at Wrong Spot; Held by Police

A Florida man who pulled out into moving traffic on Dixie Highway in Springfield Township early this morning is being held by Pontiac State Police today.

The "moving traffic" was a patrol car.

Troopers George Plummer and Gary Powell became suspicious when Kenneth J. Hawkins, 21, of Tampa, was unable to prove the car belonged to him.

In the trunk they found an arsenal of five rifles, two bayonets, a shotgun and pistol. The troopers said Hawkins is wanted in Ohio for investigation of grand larceny, and in Florida for violation of probation.

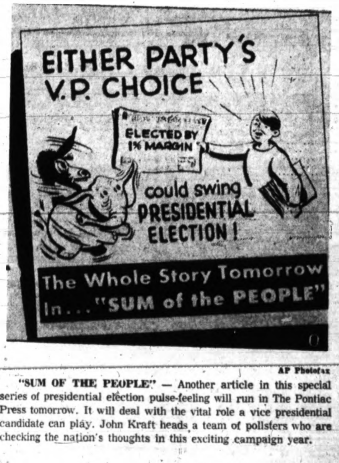
JUST FRIENDS — No political romance is seen in the wind between favorite son Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California, left, and Democratic presidential nomination aspirant Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. Johnson just stopped off in San Francisco en route to the convention in Los Angeles. Gov. Brown is expected to shed his favorite son garb in favor of the Kennedy mantle Sunday at a scheduled news conference. It is predicted he will bring a majority of the 81-vote delegation into the Kennedy camp.



AP Photofax

"SUM OF THE PEOPLE" — Another article in this special series of presidential election pulse-feeling will run in The Pontiac Press tomorrow. It will deal with the vital role a vice presidential candidate can play. John Kraft heads a team of pollsters who are checking the nation's thoughts in this exciting campaign year.

Kennedy Aides Give Up Winning on First Ballot

the enemy represented by his rivals for the nomination.

Specifically, they seemed to have made no headway in their attempt to win over three favorite sons—Govs. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, Herschel C. Loveless of Iowa and George Docking of Kansas. There are 38 convention votes represented in this group.

Neither did they have an assurance that Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota would join their camp with the 30-odd votes he still seems to control despite his withdrawal from the nomination contest after two primary defeats at the hands of Kennedy.

In their pitch for this vital bloc, the Kennedy forces were said to have held out the bait of a vice presidential nomination for Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, Humphrey's best political friend.

So if there is to be a second ballot, Kennedy's friends said they are ready. It is on this count they hope to crack open the retreating favorite son bloc and to take Humphrey's forces into camp.

★ ★ ★

This, they figure, will considerably more than offset any desertions they might suffer from the 34-vote Indiana and 64-vote Ohio delegations. They are worried also about possible defections from Maryland's 24-vote group, pledged to their candidate in the initial balloting.

★ ★ ★

Even if Kennedy fails to reach the magic total of 761 needed for the nomination on this second test, some of his strategists said they don't think any other candidate can come close enough to upset the bandwagon they believe still will be rolling for them on subsequent counts.

National Chairman Paul M. Butler predicted the nomination will come in not more than three ballots.

★ ★ ★

Robert G. Baker, secretary of the U.S. Senate majority and a Johnson backer, expressed confidence the Texas senator will pull within 25 votes of Kennedy on the second tally and take it all on the third.

★ ★ ★

On his way to Los Angeles, Johnson himself said in San Francisco that Kennedy had "lost more votes in the last week than he picked up in the handful of contested primaries he entered."

"I suspect that the delegates are a little tired of having their minds made up for them in the headlines," Johnson said. "This is one bandwagon that is going in reverse."

There was speculation that if former President Harry S. Truman changes his mind and attends next week's convention the ultimate beneficiary of this visit might be Johnson.

Truman, who is backing Symington, bowed out as a Missouri delegate and said he would not attend the Los Angeles party meeting because he contended it was rigged for Kennedy.

But House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, plugging for Johnson, told a news conference Truman had hinted he might change his mind and be on hand for the convention.

Supporters of Johnson and Symington have been busy conferring. There were reports that Johnson's men were urging withdrawal of the Missouri senator in Johnson's favor.

Moore-Moore Hassle to State

Berkley Lawyer Asks Attorney General for Ballot Decision

The state attorney general's office has been requested to solve the dispute over whether Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore's name should be on the Aug. 2 primary ballot.

Berkley attorney Ralph S. Moore, one of eight candidates bidding for the two nominations for the new two-year term as probate judge, has protested the judge's name being on the ballot because he is unopposed.

His partner in the Berkley law office, State Rep. S. James Clarkson, has asked Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams to determine who is legally correct — Arthur E. Moore or Ralph S. Moore.

The judge, on the bench since 1933 and unopposed for another four-year term, contends it is his constitutional right to be on the primary ballot.

Robert M. Montgomery, state director of elections, wrote Daniel T. Murphy Jr., county clerk-register of deeds, yesterday and ordered him "to refrain" from including Judge Moore's name on the ballot, which cannot be printed until the Moore-Moore tussle is solved.

Murphy said flatly today: "It stays on." He said this was the order of Judge Moore, chairman of the Oakland County Elections Commission, composed of Judge Moore, Murphy and Charles A. Sparks, county treasurer.

Ralph Moore said he was awaiting what action the state would take before deciding whether to file for a writ of mandamus in Circuit Court to order the other Moore's name off the ballot.

Leon S. Cohen, assistant attorney general, said he hoped to have a ruling today.

West Texans Hope for End to Flood Woes

By the Associated Press

Flood-plagued residents of West Texas hoped today for a break in the unrelenting showers that have dropped up to 15 inches of rain in the area during the past three days.

The Weather Bureau, however, could promise no relief for the sun-seared Pacific Northwest where menacing fires kindled in the dried timber and grasslands.

At Levelland, Tex., 16 families were forced to seek temporary shelter Thursday night when flood waters invaded their homes. Rain continued to fall at nearby Slaton, but 18 families chased from their homes by the previous night were beginning to return.

BOB APPROVES — Robert Kennedy, right, campaign manager in his brother's drive for the Democratic presidential nomination, inspects a Kennedy button worn by former New York Gov. Averell Harriman in Los Angeles. Harriman was actively supported for the nomination in 1956 by former President Harry S. Truman. This year, however, the two have entered rival camps. Truman has supported Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and has charged that the convention is rigged in favor of Sen. Kennedy.

Report Assaults in New Nation

Whites Panic, Flee Congo

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Belgian settlers today were reported fleeing from the new Republic of Congo in droves.

The Belgian Ministry of African Affairs said the Europeans panicked during the night on hearing reports of assaults and rapes of white women after an army mutiny and began a mass flight across the Congo River to Brazzaville, in former French territory.

The Belgian radio reported that Congolese soldiers controlled Leopoldville, capital of the new African nation which Belgium freed last week, but that the soldiers were allowing Belgians to leave unmolested after checking their identity papers.

★ ★ ★

In an earlier broadcast, the Belgian radio said that the native population was driving all white settlers out of the region around Leopoldville, but the Belgian government's report indicated this was overdrawn.

ASKED TO STAY

A government spokesman, in contact with the Belgian representative in Leopoldville, said just before noon that there was still panic in the Congo capital.

There was no immediate report on the role being played by the new Congo government led by Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba and President Joseph Kasavubu. Both had made repeated appeals to the Belgian settlers, asking them to stay and help the fledgling republic, which is pitifully short of trained administrators and educated personnel.

★ ★ ★

A sweep of Congolese army patrols into the European area of Leopoldville during the night is believed to have contributed to the panic. The troop movements were reported touched off by a rumor that Soviet planes had landed near Leopoldville. The native soldiers reportedly feared they had come to take away their new-won independence.

★ ★ ★

All commercial communications between Leopoldville and Brussels and other European cities were out for a time but shortly before noon were re-established.

A Belgian government spokesman suggested that the break was caused when European operators in the Congo fled.

Compact Cars Make Difference

More Autos Sold in 1st Six Months of 1960, 2nd to Record '55

DETROIT (AP) — Ward's automotive reports says more new American cars were sold in the first six months of this year than in any opening six-month period since the record year 1955.

Compact cars made the difference, accounting for 25 per cent of the 3,253,132 cars sold. Sales in the first six months of 1955 were 3,851,900 compared with 2,936,135 last year.

★ ★ ★

The statistical agency reported yesterday the half-year period ended with a spectacular stretch drive in June. June sales of 593,600 units — a daily average of 22,831 — were the best monthly sales since August, 1955, Ward's said.

Here again the compacts led, taking a bigger than average share — 28.2 per cent — of the June market.

While the compacts were selling 817,915 units, sales of standard-size autos dropped from 2,672,281 in 1959 to 2,435,217 this year, the agency reported.

All-time sales records for the opening six months were set by Chevrolet (including Corvair), Rambler and Cadillac. Ward's said. Pontiac, Dodge and Mercury recorded gains over the first six months last year. Studebaker had a slight gain for the model year, which dates back to last fall, which sales were reported down from 1959.

Chevy Promotes 6 County Men

Wellock Heads New Reliability Program as Others Shift Up

Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors Corp. has announced the promotion of six Oakland County residents.

The changes affect Edward S. Wellock, 1351 Kirkway Rd., Bloomfield Hills; Henry Sandrock, 7037 Meadow Lake Rd., Birmingham; L. Ralph Mason, 836 Waddington Rd., Birmingham; Dale D. Douglass, 1930 Hillwood Dr., Bloomfield Hills; William L. Mosher Jr., 340 Keswick Dr., Bloomfield Hills; and Robert B. Dow, 1710 Cedar Hill Rd., Birmingham.

Wellock will head the division's new product reliability program. Since 1949 he has been manager of the division's 21 manufacturing plants.

As director of reliability, Wellock will be chairman of a committee comprised of executives concerned with design, engineering, tooling, production assembly and delivery of car and trucks.

★ ★ ★

Robert W. Podleski of Flint was named director of all manufacturing plants, succeeding Wellock.

Sandrock will be regional manager of manufacturing in Flint, Saginaw and Bay City.

Mason will succeed Sandrock as regional manager of manufacturing in Cleveland and Toledo, Ohio; Indianapolis and Muncie, Ind.; and in Livonia.

★ ★ ★

Douglass will succeed Mason as regional manager of assembly at Willow Run; Atlanta, Ga.; Baltimore, Md.; Bloomfield, N. J.; Framington, Mass.; Norwood, Ohio and North Terrytown, N. Y.

Mrs. Koltys, who was driving west on Maple with her two sons, was hit broadside by the truck driven by James F. Frakum, of Monroe, Ind. Norman, 14, suffered a broken shoulder. Henry, 8, was unhjured.

Mrs. Koltys' car was knocked into one driven by Eleanor Prokaw, 50, of 1165 S. Bates St., Birmingham. She suffered a broken shoulder.

BOUNCES INTO ANOTHER

Bouncing off the Prokaw auto, Mrs. Koltys' car spun around, hitting another car going in the opposite direction, driven by Mrs. Betty Humpal, 38, of 363 Westbourne Rd., Birmingham.

She and her sons Tommy, 6, and Mark, 8, suffered abrasions but were released from the hospital.

A passenger in the truck, James Byers, 16, along with driver Frakum, suffered slight head injuries.

No charge has been brought against Frakum yet, Bloomfield Township police said. He was to make a statement at the County prosecutor's office today.

Library fees for nonresidents have increased $1.25 over the past year, according to the Library Board, making a total of $13.80 a year for the use of the service.

Con-Con Backers Sure Petitions Count Enough

LANSING (AP) — Backers of the petition drive to put the constitutional convention on the November state election ballot say they are sure they have it made.

Today is the deadline for filing petitions with 231,218 valid signatures needed to give the voters a chance to express their opinion on the proposal to revise the State Constitution.

Donald M. Oakes, executive director of the Citizens for Michigan, arrived at Lansing late Thursday in a small moving van hauling 13 boxes of petitions weighing about 500 pounds.

Oakes said there were 283,904 signatures on the petitions, which were deposited for safekeeping overnight in the elections bureau of the secretary of state's office prior to formal filing today.

Delivery of the big bundle of petitions showed the drive was most successful in the most populous Southern Michigan counties. There were 134,636 signers from Wayne County, 48,960 from Oakland, 19,319 from Washtenaw and 13,406 from Macomb.

Kalkaska was the only county not represented but was expected to show up in late returns today.

JOINT EFFORTS OF ALL

Oakes said the load represented the joint efforts of all the organizations cooperating in the petition drive. He said additional petitions arriving here today should bring the signature total to more than 300,000 — more than adequate assurance of a ballot position it some are found faulty.

★ ★ ★

George Romney, American Motors president and head of Citizens for Michigan, meanwhile issued a victory statement from Detroit, declaring his group put the drive over the top.

"In the past six weeks," Romney said, "Citizens for Michigan has provided the stimulation and the coordination of effort, the necessary financial support and enlisted the vital assistance of press, radio and television.

★ ★ ★

"These factors were among those instrumental in turning the lagging campaign from apparent failure into resounding success.

"The basic conception of Citizens for Michigan as an instrument by which citizens can express their will in matters of state government has been tested and proved to be sound and workful," Romney said.

Oakes gave a major share of credit to the League of Women Voters, saying they did the legwork to round up more than 200,000 of the signatures.

There were 16 organizations contributing to the drive with the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Michigan Education Assn. other major supporters.

Last night, Oakes said, a crash campaign was being conducted in Detroit area stores and supermarkets to pick up more signers.

over from the 1956 Chicago convention.

I referred him to Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods. Right now she's Oakland County's "Mrs. Democrat."

NEW ATMOSPHERE

It now looks as though the second ballot will mark the demise of more favorite sons than in any convention of any party in history. The folks back home never witnessed such a cavalcade of also-rans.

There's a vastly different atmosphere here than prevailed at either the 1952 or 1956 Democratic conventions. And it isn't caused by the smog.

Both of these events met in an air of gloom, for a man named Ike was to lead the opposition in a race on the road that ends at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave.

In 1952 the Democrats were faced with the fact that Ike had led the combined forces to victory in World War II, and was a national hero. It was not a matter of politics. It was a personality election.

★ ★ ★

In 1956 this was further accented by the fact that even quite a number of Democrats were willing to admit that he had made a fairly good president.

These came from all classes, the high and the low. All were concerned about his every heart throb and tummy ache. The colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady both watched the papers for the latest on Ike's health condition.

But this year the party leaders are diligently peddling the theory that Ike now is history. They're even trying to show that his second term is not showing the statesmanship of his first.

★ ★ ★

They go further, and assert that anybody who has been closely affiliated with him has not earned the qualifications of a good president needed in trying times. But did you ever see a presidential election that did not take place when our nation was in "trying times?"

Yes, the Ike glamour that might have rubbed off on somebody else — as they fear it has! — is claimed by them to be a liability rather than an asset.

This is only a part of a system inaugurated in top Democratic circles soon after the 1956 election, and it has been carried down to the grass roots to the most remote precinct.

HARRY'S CRY

It is that in two elections "we've learned that we cannot win in a spirit of gloom. We must accent the positive."

The war cry has been, "We're going to lick 'em," taking those words from Harry Truman in his acceptance speech at the Philadelphia convention of 1948.

There the unpredictable give-'em-hell Harry, with his wife and daughter at his side, started a campaign that kept him in the White House, although hardly anybody else in the country, including Bess and Margaret, thought it would.

This spirit has been preached diligently to the home folks, including those in Oakland County, at every Democratic meeting that has been held since. And there have been many of these meetings.

My humble opinion today is that the Democrats in the Pontiac area are far better organized than their opposition, and hope to prove it on Nov. 8. Plans to get out their vote have long been under way. The Republican who wins must do it on a personality basis.

★ ★ ★

One never gets very far into Michigan politics without our own Oakland County coming to the forefront. For instance, with Michigan an almost universal Republican state, it was a Democrat who first polled a million votes in it—and he was Oakland County's Murray D. Van Wagoner.

He did it in 1940 when elected governor, and inherited a state deficit of nearly 30 million dollars. He left office two years later with a balance of about the same amount in the state treasury. Compare this with the record of a recent six-termer.

While at lunch with him the other day, Murray told me that at 62 he is out of politics for good, and is not even coming to this convention. He is in favor of Symington as the nominee, feeling that Kennedy will be "all shot" after the early ballots.

★ ★ ★

And this choice of Murray was made before Harry Truman gave his personal endorsement to Symington—whether the Truman endorsement does Symington any good.

★ ★ ★

Oakland County can usually be depended upon to do something different at a political convention —or after it. For instance, at the meeting of the electoral college following the 1956 election, Jake Levi of Royal Oak, temporarily representing our county's congressional elector, at first refused to give his vote for Eisenhower and Nixon. It was something new in political history. But Jake dropped into line, after he had stirred up the desired publicity.

CHAIRMAN ABSENT

Another out - of - the - ordinary occurrence is the status of the Oakland County delegation at the coming convention here. The county chairman, Carlos Richardson, will not be present. The party will not be represented here by a chairman. Carlos' term does not expire until after the Aug. 2 primary. He is a victim of the party's local revolution, which may not do it any good on Nov. 8.

Nor will the "Mr. Democrat" of our county for several years be here. He is Willis M. Brewer. Absent also will be Art Law and several other of the party's stalwart horses in the Pontiac area.

There's no doubt that Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods is running Oakland County's destinies at the convention. She already has one of the most important state committee appointments.

Perhaps she got there through the help of union labor, but her personality has a lot to do with it. She's not to be swerved by political demand, sticking to Stevenson in spite of Soapy's endorsement of Kennedy. It has been my pleasure to know her many years. She's a good-looking revolutionist.

If history, population, industry or any other leading factor had anything to do with it, Michigan is entitled to a nominee for president. It is 112 years since we furnished the nominee of a major party, and he was defeated. And he was a Democrat.

In this connection, Oakland County again comes into the limelight. That nominee was Lewis Cass who, while not an actual resident of our county, did a great deal for it.

As territorial governor, he steered colonization our way after it had been diverted to Indiana and Illinois because a bunch of lazy federal surveyors had come out from Detroit, and finding a swampy section in the present vicinity of Ferndale, turned back and reported that all of Michigan north of the point was a "hopeless morass."

Cass came out here himself and after a ten year delay the settlers were again sent to Michigan. Oakland County felt so kindly toward him that it named its largest lake in his honor, and Elizabeth Lake in honor of his wife.

In view of all these facts, the supporters of our Gov. G. Mennen Williams are claiming that Michigan is entitled to a nominee for president, and that, according to the standards and experiences of the men who seek the nomination, his qualifications are as good as those of anybody else.

However, after attending many of these national powwows, I've learned that any advance publicity has little to do with it. These things are settled in the horse trading before and after each ballot in the convention.

Soapy assures me that he has yet to engage in any horse trading. Perhaps in this age we should call it auto trading—either smells bad.

Anyway, the inside dope is that he hasn't a chance—unless the convention gets deadlocked. And has to hunt for a dark horse. If so, our Michigan governor has the complexion—with shades of Lewis Cass.

Much U.S. Property Awaits Castro's Grab

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fidel Castro has seized a valuable chunk of the billion dollars worth of American-owned property in Cuba and he has his sights set on the rest, ranging from the Cuban Electric Co. to an F. W. Woolworth department store.

Among the major U.S. businesses Castro has grabbed so far are the Texaco and Esso oil refineries, Abbott Laboratories, the Cuban Telephone Co., International Harvester, Otis Elevator Co. and the Havana Hilton and Nacional Hotels.

He also has taken from the American owners thousands of acres of sugar and cattle land.

As far as the State Department can determine, Cuba has not compensated any of the owners for their confiscated property. But none of the owners has asked the department to help them collect, preferring to seek repayment in the Cuban courts first.

★ ★ ★

Among the major U.S.-owned property in Cuba not yet seized by Castro is the Cuban Electric Co., Moa Bay Mining Co., Chase Manhattan Bank, Coca Cola bottling works, Westinghouse Electric Co., a number of tire, cement and glass factories, and the Nicaro nickel plant, owned by the U.S. government.

The Castro cabinet approved a new law Tuesday night giving the government power to seize any foreign-owned property merely by declaring that it was "necessary" to Cuba's national interest.

The Commerce Department estimated in 1958 that Americans owned property in Cuba worth one billion dollars. This figure may not have been accurate because some owners may have made low estimates for tax purposes.

The State Department said that as a "very rough guess" U.S.-owned property seized by Castro so far was worth 700 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

Other American-owned firms in Cuba not yet taken over by Castro include American Express, American Steel Corp., Armour and Co., Bethlehem-Cuba Iron mines, Caribbean ferry system, Portland Cement Co., B. F. Goodrich Co., and Guantanamo Sugar Co.

Also Railway Express, Western Union, Reynolds Metals, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Standard Fruit and Steamship Co., Swift and Co., Union Light and Power Co., West India Fruit and Steamship Co. and many others.

Join for Bag Business

KALAMAZOO (UPI)—Louis W. Sutherland, founder 43 years ago of the Sutherland Paper Co. here, and his son L. W. Sutherland Jr., long identified with one of the biggest and oldest paper companies in the city, have joined with Robert W. Stewart to form the Stewart-Sutherland Bag Co.

There are an estimated 2,000 trumpeter swan left in the United States, and about half of them are in Alaska, according to the state fish and game department.

Orion Youngsters Busy at School Play Program

LAKE ORION—A summer recreation program for local youngsters between five and 14 years of age is under way at Blanche Sims Elementary School here.

* * *

Some 55 children are taking part in the program which offers every kind of activities both inside the building and on the playground. The play sessions are being held daily from 9 a.m. to noon five days a week through Aug. 5.

In charge of the program are Bonnie Campbell, 19, who is sports director, and Lenore Sutton, 20, who is arts director. Donna Heilman, 17, is the arts assistant.

Among the activities taking place indoors are games, such as checkers and carom, handicraft and painting, drawing, making paper hats and similar projects.

* * *

The youngsters also use the large sand box and other playground equipment in the school yard and play such games as volleyball, baseball, soccer, kickball and badminton.

* * *

The entire program is sponsored jointly by the Lake Orion Village Council, the Orion Township Board and the Board of Education of the Lake Orion Community Schools.

22 Seek Posts in Area Voting

Oxford and Lake Orion Slate Balloting to Fill Seven Seats

Fifteen candidates are seeking election to the four posts open on the Lake Orion Board of Education in Monday's regular school election. Two proposals also will appear on the ballot.

In the Oxford School District two are running for the single three-year School Board post open and five for the two newly created four-year terms.

Nine persons are competing for the two four-year posts open in Lake Orion. They are Robert F. Hauxwell, Charles S. Carpenter, Mary Parker, James Basigkow, Gordon Brown, Clare L. Berger, Mrs. Grace Ruebelman, Warren H. Smith and William F. Porritt.

Running for the two 3-year vacancies are Robert A. Strehle, Wilson E. Church, Helen Barnes, Mrs. Stuart E. Williams, Robert Sheardy and present Board Treasurer Richard Young.

* * *

One of the two issues to appear on the ballot in Lake Orion asks authorization to pay the two new Board members filling the newly created four-year terms each $400 a year, the same amount others now receive.

ASK SALE OK

The other proposal requests permission to sell about three acres of Board-owned property on East Flint street.

In the Oxford district, Mrs. Ruth Erskine and Ralph Curtis are seeking election to the three-year term being vacated by Board President Carl Buechler.

The names of four of the five candidates for the two new four-year posts open will appear on the ballot. They are Stewart Langley, Mrs. Eloise Smith, Dr. Rodman C. Jacobi and James N. Woon.

The fifth, William J. Matus, is a sticker candidate.

THREE ORION PRECINCTS

There are three precincts in the Lake Orion district. Voters will cast ballots at the Village Hall on East Flint street, the Orion Township Hall on South Broadway and the fire station at 3358 Gregory Rd., Orion Township.

The polling places in the Oxford district are in the junior high school auditorium and at Rowland Hall, Leonard.

In both districts the polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

REFURBISH CLUBHOUSE — The former Twin Beach Country Club, vacant for 25 years, is being remodeled by its new owners, the Middle Straits Community Assn., which recently purchased it for $10,000. The building is on Green Lake road at Keelson road in West Bloomfield Township.

Old Barn to Serve Neighborhood Club

'Monstrosity' Gets New Lease on Life

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The huge two-story building on Green Lake road at Keelson road referred to as the "monstrosity" by many area residents, is getting a new lease on life.

* * *

Run-down and in need of paint the former Twin Beach Country Club has been purchased by the Middle Straits Community Assn. and will be renovated into a community building for all types of activities.

The face-lifting has already started with the application of exterior white paint which makes unpainted areas stick out like sore thumbs.

"We in the association hope to have the building ready in time for a Holloween dance," said building chairman Louis Brockman today.

* * *

"All the labor will be done by members of the association to keep cost down."

* * *

He said the building was purchased for $10,000 from Leon Windsor who bought the property at a tax sale.

Originally, the building was a barn. It was remodeled twice after the Twin Beach association took it over, the last time in 1929.

Two large rooms and a kitchen make up the interior of the building.

* * *

Recently, a gun club received permission to use the room on the second floor for a rifle range, giving an indication of its size.

* * *

Funds to purchase the building were raised through donations from members of the Middle Straits group with members giving $50 a family.

"Anyone wanting to join the organization now will have to pay $150," Brockman said.

A heating system, plumbing and a new well will be installed before the rebuilding is complete, he said.

* * *

One of the outstanding features of the building is a seven-foot wide fire place on the main floor.

In the past, homes of association members have been used for meeting places.

Dentist Analyzes Pen Strokes

Probes Teeth and Writing

Pontiac Press Photo

By JIM LONG

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP — A skeptic himself three years ago on the wisdom of handwriting analysis, a dentist here has turned the relatively new field into a second profession.

* * *

Taken up as a hobby in 1957, the study of handwriting has given many hours of enjoyment to Dr. Norman D. Smith, 1233 Thread Valley Rd., as well as providing a reasonably profitable income from large corporations employing his service.

"The method for determining the characteristic traits of an individual is so unorthodox it is difficult for persons to accept it as an accurate means of discovering the emotional make-up of people," Dr. Smith said.

A certified grapho-analyst, Dr. Smith, 38, is hired for the most part by large corporations and insurance companies in selecting salesmen and executive personnel.

'PROJECTION OF BRAIN'

"Handwriting is a psychological projection of the brain," Dr. Smith said in explaining how the system works. "Every characteristic, good and bad, shows up in a person's handwriting."

"The stroke of the pen, the way the letters are written, the pressure of the pen and spacing all go into determining the make-up of an individual."

In addition to his regular working hours, Dr. Smith devotes about two hours a day to analyzing samples of handwriting sent to him by companies wanting information regarding prospective employes and employes already working for the firm.

* * *

"No names are ever mentioned in the correspondence," he said. "Each handwriting sample is handled in the strictest confidence. Individuals are only known by code numbers."

"While characteristics can show up in just a signature, a full page or two of handwriting is best in giving a complete analysis of a person's thinking habits."

He said a person's handwriting can change with moods and from day to day, but inborn characteristics are always there.

* * *

"Handwriting analysis for selecting personnel is being more generally accepted by business and professional people now than any time since the science was organized some 30 years ago," Dr. Smith said.

MRS. DAVID E. LOVE

Newlyweds Back From Their Trip to North Carolina

CLAWSON — Now living at Berrien Springs are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. David E. Love following a honeymoon trip to North Carolina.

The bride is the former Joanne Maxine Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster of 357 Tecumseh St. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Love of Fletcher, N. C.

For her candlelight wedding in the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Ferndale, the bride chose a floor-length, taffeta gown with a v-neckline.

Alice Marie Surdahl of Bozeman, Mont., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Jo Flyte of LaGrange, Ill., Sandra Grignon of Pontiac, Mrs. Richard Foster of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Daniel Wilson of Pontiac.

* * *

A. Raleigh Flint of Columbia Falls, Mont., was best man. Ushers were M. Warren Schlotter of Port Huron, the bride's brothers, Richard and James, and her uncle, Earl D. Foster of Royal Oak.

A reception was held in the church hall immediately following the ceremony.

Kay Jean La Douceur Wed in High Noon Rite

LAKE ORION — Kay Jean La Douceur and Carmen S. Spadaro were united in marriage Saturday in a Nuptial High Mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church here. The Rev. Denis K. O'Regan officiated at the noon ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. La Douceur of 18 Pontiac St., Oxford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spadaro of Norwich, N. Y.

* * *

For her wedding the bride chose a traditional princess-styled gown of white silk organza. Scroll designs appliqued on the scalloped scoop neckline and bracelet sleeves were repeated on the bouffant skirt which featured a bustle back and fan-shaped sweep.

* * *

A Juliet cap studded with iridescent sequins and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Mary Jo Meads and her bridesmaid, Joy La Douceur of Detroit, cousin of the bride.

Flower girls were Susan and Mary Jane Di Noto of Bainbridge, N. Y., nieces of the bridegroom.

Attending his brother as best man was John Spadaro and serving as groomsman was Henry G. La Douceur Jr., brother of the bride. Ushers were Edward La Douceur, the bride's brother, and George Humenansky.

Following a luncheon-reception at the American Legion building, the newlyweds left on a month-long honeymoon trip through Northern Michigan, Canada and the New England States.

MRS. CARMEN S. SPADARO

They will live in Harper Woods where Mr. Spadaro has a position as band director at Harper Woods High School.

He Iced the Job

NEW YORK (UPI) — Andy Bathgate's first two attempts to click with the New York Rangers showed a total of five points in 38 games. The third time, in 1954-55, he scored 20 goals and had 20 assists.

RUTHANN L. CARMEAN

Mrs. J. E. Frankenfield of 6340 Pine Knob Rd., Clarkston, announces the engagement of her daughter, Ruthann L. Carmean, to Robert L. Porritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Porritt, 6531 Church St., Clarkston. The bride-elect is also the daughter of E. L. Carmean, 22 Tasmania St., Pontiac. No wedding date has been decided yet.

Miss Oxford Winner to Seek Peach Title

OXFORD—The Oxford Chamber of Commerce will stage a contest to pick the girl who will represent the village in the Peach Queen competition next month in Romeo.

* * *

According to C. of C. president Jack Reid, to be eligible to vie for the Miss Oxford title, girls must be between 17½ and 21 years of age and never have been married.

* * *

Those interested are asked to leave their names at the Doris K. Shop by Monday at the latest.

Parks, Forests Jammed

LANSING (AP)—The first long summer weekend confirmed early expectations that new camping records will be set in Michigan this year, the State Conservation Department reported. State parks and national forests were reported jammed by visitors over the Fourth of July weekend.

Policemen Admire Honesty of Drunken Man

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Tucson police said they had to admire the honesty of a man stopped for drunk driving.

* * *

"How many drinks have you had?" a patrolman asked. "I'm not going to lie," the man said, "I had six bottles of beer and four glasses of vodka."

Commie Riots in Italy Follow Jap Success

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP)—The Communist-led rioting that broke out in Italy this week seems to be a followup to the success of last month's riots in Japan.

There is no way of confirming this immediately, but Italian newspapers of independent strain are convinced that orders for Italy's wave of violence came from Moscow.

Italy has the biggest Communist Party outside the Iron Curtain. It has played peaceful since it suffered defeats in street fighting in Italy in 1947-48.

The Japanese riots which kept President Eisenhower out of Japan may have convinced some of Moscow — that a campaign of violent action can overthrow Italy's Christian Democratic government with its ties to the West.

'ONLY AN EXCUSE'

The Reds picture their new demonstrations as protests against the Italian Fascist Party, which polls about 6 per cent of the national vote.

But Interior Minister Giuseppe Spataro told Parliament this is only an excuse — that the Reds led battles with police were planned and provoked.

He said Italy will use every means of force to preserve constitutional democracy.

* * *

The left says that if the government does not get out it will be "a government of civil war."

The threat was backed up by Communist-called general strikes in almost every major Italian city.

In a week of street battles at least 200 police and 300 leftist demonstrators have been hurt, many of them badly. Several were killed.

A dozen years ago the fighters among Italy's two million Communists battled police on streets and squares in almost every major city in an attempt to seize power by force.

They took a beating which brought Moscow orders to the Communist Party headquarters in Rome and almost every other Western European capital to switch to constitutional tactics of the ballot box and propaganda.

WORKS OUT RIOT TACTICS

What gave that sort of a beating to the hard core party of ex-partisan fighters who still have hidden arms caches in caves and basements throughout Italy?

One answer was a tough little Sicilian, Mario Scelba, then minister of the interior and later premier.

He formed the Red Jeep Riot Police and worked out the street battle tactics which broke up the disorders. His methods were tough and successful.

His antiriot shock force was called the "celere." The word means "fast."

In recent years there was seldom a riot the Celere couldn't handle in fast order.

* * *

That is why police were surprised at the start of July when tough, tightly organized squads of Communists burst out with a full-scale riot in Genoa.

The Communists were protesting plans to hold a national Fascist party congress there.

As a result, the Fascists were told they could not hold their Congress in Genoa — security could not be guaranteed. They threatened to withdraw their support from Premier Tambroni's government.

The Communists then demanded that the Fascist Party be declared illegal.

* * *

But the Fascist angle seems only a sideshow to leftist efforts to throw over the Christian Democratic regime.

Man 'Kin' of Wolves? Could Be

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — This may come as a shock to those who think man and apes are near-brothers under the skin, but a University of Michigan zoologist believes man has more behavior traits in common with wolves than with most of the apes.

* * *

Prof. Marston Bates explains that human society has at least three distinctive traits—cooperation between members, association of adult males in groups larger than the family and long-time relationships between members.

Among the great apes, Bates points out, there is little adult male cooperation and groups are not permanent.

"Dogs and men have come to exhibit similar behavior through evolution," says Bates.

He notes that man and wolf are both hunters, while apes are largely vegetarians, also, the adult male human and wolf both participate in child rearing and care. Male "wolves are good family members," Bates contends, while child-rearing is left up to the female among monkeys.

* * *

The biologist says the frequency of caved-in skulls and split bones among Peking man fossils makes it "quite clear that he was killing his fellow man and eating his fellow man."

Apes don't do that sort of thing, according to Bates.

Big Keg Foams, Makes 2 Million Pints at Once

DUBLIN (UPI) —What's probably the world's largest "beer keg" has finally foamed into full-scale operation here, turning out 2,246,400 pints of beer at a time.

* * *

The "keg' is a fermenting tun, built of stainless steel, installed at the Guinness brewery here. Guinness officials won't say flatly it's the world's biggest, but they don't know of any others half so big.

* * *

The warehouse-size tun holds the raw materials of beer while it ferments just enough to give it a proper kick — 7,800 bulk barrels at a time. The whole tun is sterilized after every use.

At 80 fillings a year, the Guinness people say it will produce 179,712,000 pints of stout every 12 months.

BELMAR, N. J. (AP) — Mrs. Viola Haberstick, 42, is saving and slimming at the ocean's edge—by beachcombing.

* * *

"It's fine for the figure," says Mrs. Haberstick after a day of bending down to pick up lost coins, her specialty. Coin combing is best after storms have washed the top beach sand away. In one month Mrs. Haberstick picked up $39.78 in coins, beating husband Bert by just one penny.

Great-Grandma Builds Own Rocking Chairs

GREEN VILLAGE, N.J. (AP)—Grandfather may have his favorite rocker.

But Mrs. Frances G. Ward, 75, a great-grandmother, builds hers.

The elderly woodworking hobbyist has made 19 Chippendale chair reproductions among other articles.

William Howard Taft was the first civilian governor-general of the Philippines, serving from 1901 to 1904.

Two-Car Crash at Maple, John R Injures Five

TROY — Five persons were injured in a two-car crash last night at Maple road and John R here.

Hurt in one car were the driver Albert Newton, 24, of 31065 Ryan Rd., Warren, and his passenger, Mrs. Mable Dillman, 48, of 6000 N. Rochester Rd., Rochester.

The driver of the other car, Leticia Aggazzi, 17, of 35405 Ryan Rd., Warren, also was injured as were two passengers, her sister Anna, 22, and Giacinto Filippetto, 30, of Windsor, Ont.

All five were taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. Newton was treated for a cut lip and bruised chest and released. Each of the Aggazzi sisters had a broken pelvis, cuts and bruises and Mrs. Dillman and Filippetto also had cuts and bruises.

* * *

According to Troy police, Newton failed to yield the right-of-way resulting in the crash. Officers also said he was driving too fast. He was ticketed for reckless driving.

Production of Ford's Compact Cars Dips

CLEVELAND (AP)—Production of Ford Motor Co. compact cars was down to a trickle today as a result of labor trouble at the firm's stamping plant in suburban Walton Hills.

* * *

The plant, which supplies body and other stampings to all four compact car assembly plants, was struck Wednesday by United Auto Workers Union Local 420. The four assembly plants were idle last night, but one was to reopen today.

New Influences Lacking in Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—New trade influences were virtually absent today and prices were mostly steady to slightly easier in early transactions on the Board of Trade.

During the first several minutes, most contracts were unchanged or only minimum fractions from previous closes with rye showing the only firmness.

Broker said there appeared to be a good accumulation of buying orders in the wheat pit but that the business was not of an urgent character and probably would be done gradually at the lower levels.

Three Arrested in Waterford

All Admit Truck Tire Thefts; 4th Man Held as Receiver

Waterford Township police last night arrested three area residents for allegedly stealing truck tires from the Smith Beverage Co. at 1130 Sylvertis St., Waterford Twp.

A fourth man was held for receiving the stolen property.

Township police on routine patrol duty spotted a suspicious looking car on Seba road near the beverage company, and recorded the license number.

Upon investigation, the police discovered two large tires taken from a trailer parked at the company parking lot.

* * *

Police checked the license and found the car belonged to Wendell Lovelace, 20, of 110 Union St. Police said he admitted having stolen two other tires and sold them to a Rochester gasoline station owner, Albert Rogers, at 2884 Walsh St.

Lovelace implicated Ronald E. Hook, 5046 Hatchery Rd., Waterford Twp., and Jack W. Pierce, 21, of 596 Columbia St.

All three admitted participation in the tire thefts, plus petty larcenies in the area amounting to almost $1,000, police said.

The three men waived examination in Waterford Twp. Justice of the Peace Patrick K. Daly's court and are in the Oakland County jail with $5,000 bond pending appearance in Circuit Court Monday.

* * *

Rogers was also held on a $5000 bond, but demanded an examination which was scheduled for July 20. He told police he did not know the tires had been stolen, when he purchased them.

Fights Barn Blaze in Elba Township

ELBA TOWNSHIP — The Elba Township Fire Department last night fought a barn fire that destroyed the building and 250 bales of hay stored inside at 180 S. Elba Rd., just south of M21.

* * *

According to Lapeer County sheriff's deputies, Mrs. A. Clawson, who lives on the farm, discovered the blaze when she was cutting grass and noticed the barn roof was on fire.

* * *

She theorized a trash fire she had set earlier had spread to the barn, causing it to smolder over two hours before it was noticed.

No estimate of damage was immediately available.

Half of all automobiles in the United States are concentrated in eight states—California, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Texas, Illinois, Michigan and New Jersey.

Market Climbs in Brisk Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market pushed further ahead in fairly active early trading today.

* * *

Most key stocks posted small gains. Volatile issues among the electronics, vending, recreational and other groups stretched gains to 2 points or more.

The market was putting on a pretty good follow through to yesterday's rally, the best in a month.

Rails joined in the rally, giving it a healthier look to technicians.

* * *

Steels, coppers, utilities, aircrafts and building materials were up on average. Oils, tobaccos and airlines were mixed.

Polaroid rebounded about 5 points. Up 2 or better were Universal Match, Vendo and Zenith.

Texas Instruments, NAFI and Automatic Canteen gained more than a point each. United Whelan continued very active and up a fraction.

* * *

Western Union eased as the Federal Communications Commission set a deadline for sale of the company's cable system.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer was up a fraction on a forecast of a substantial gain in earnings.

Ahead about a point were Jones & Laughlin and Radio Corp. Moderately higher were such stocks as Ford, United Aircraft, International Telephone, Anaconda, Eastman Kodak, Santa Fe, Baltimore & Ohio, Texaco, Lorillard and U.S. Gypsum.

* * *

Temco, which is to be suspended from trading on completion of a plan to sell its assets, dropped a fraction.

Shunck Gives Tax Rate Data

Waterford Board Sets Discussion of Three Proposed Plans

Waterford Township School Supt. William S. Shunck last night presented basic information on the township's school district tax rate for 1960 to the new Board of Education.

* * *

Shunck discussed three plans for the establishment of the school tax rate, which the board will study and act on at the July 21 meeting.

Taxes could be reduced from the present rate of 25.50 to 23.71 mills, which includes school operation plus the debt retirement and still meet expense obligations.

The second plan would keep the school tax rate at the same level and allow some leeway in paying for school operation and debt retirement.

* * *

The third plan calls for a $2 increase in every $1,000 of assessed valuation as equalized. The debt could be retired much faster with this plan, Shunck pointed out.

Waterford Township residents have voted 10 mills for school building during the last eight years, and the school district is allocated eight mills annually from the county for school operation and maintenance.

The state has increased equalized valuation some 6 per cent, which has been considered in all three plans presented to the board.

The state equalized valuation of the Waterford Township school district which extends into White Lake, Independence and West Bloomfield townships, has been set at $95,374,915.

Dem Convention Honeymoon for MSU Student

Politics and Cupid are hand in hand for Timothy E. Agar, 19-year-old Michigan State University student and one of four state delegation pages from Oakland County at the Democratic National Convention beginning in Los Angeles Monday.

Agar, of 405 Boyd St., is combining his honeymoon with his work as a page. This past Saturday he was married to Suzanne E. Brummett of 945 Canterbury Dr.

The other three pages from the county who will work with the Michigan delegation to the convention are Linda Ann Reuther of Rochester, Sue Scholle of 2710 Vinsetta Dr., Royal Oak, and Gerold Lax, of 23641 Marlowe Dr., Oak Park.

Rehearing on Rate Increase Is Denied

LANSING (AP) — Opposition petitions asking for a rehearing of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. rate case have been denied by the State Public Service Commission.

The utility contended it received too little and the Michigan Utility Ratepayers Assn. said the firm was given too much. Both asked for a review of the case.

* * *

Michigan Bell, which had asked for a 25 million dollar rate increase, was granted a $4,014,223 hike on Feb. 18. The utility said the higher figure was needed to provide for a fair rate of return and needed expansion.

The denial was by an unanimous decision of the three-man commission.

Adult Swimmers Slow to Enroll in Waterford

Unless more interest is shown by tomorrow's registration, one of Waterford Township's most important activities — adult swimming lessons — will be dropped from the recreation department program, according to Director Thomas Belton.

* * *

Only three persons have enrolled in the special adult class set up from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturdays at Lake Oakland. Last year, 15 adults were enrolled and the results were very satisfactory, Belton said.

He has urged residents to participate in the swim classes on the Oakland beach located at the north end of Aquarina street off W. Walton boulevard.

Some 600 children are learning to swim at five township beaches in two-day weekly three-hour classes. The swim sites are at Elizabeth, Watkins, Oakland, Pontiac and Lotus lakes. A crew of six experienced instructors and assistants train the children, and the registration fee is $3 for 14 lessons for children and adults.

New State C. of C. OKs Sales Tax Hike

DETROIT (AP) — Leaders of the new Michigan State Chamber of Commerce are supporting a proposal to permit the Legislature to boost the sales tax to 4 per cent.

Robert P. Briggs of Jackson, executive vice president of Consumers Power Co. and Chamber president, announced the action of the board of directors at a luncheon meeting yesterday.

The luncheon was designed to promote the Chamber, which was organized May 1, and attempt to sign up Detroit business leaders as members. More than 500 attended.

Among the guests were L. L. Colbert, president of Chrysler Corp.; Joseph M. Dodge, chairman of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co.; Benson Ford, vice president of Ford Motor Co.; John F. Gordon, General Motors president; Joseph L. Hudson Jr., vice president and general manager of J. L. Hudson Co.; and George Romney, president of American Motors.

Husband Seeks Divorce From 'Beatnik' Wife

The cult of the bearded poets and bongo drums has proven too much for a Madison Heights GI.

Gary G. Harvey, 25, of 27634 Brettonwoods St., yesterday filed a divorce suit in Circuit Court charging that his wife, Marilyn, 21, "has become, for the lack of a better name, a 'beatnik'."

Harvey, who is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., said in his complaint that because of her "beatnik attitude of irresponsibility," his wife is "totally indifferent" to the health, welfare and proper care of their two young daughters, ages 2 and 3.

Harvey, in service for six years, seeks custody of the children, who are being cared for by his parents.

The couple, married in December, 1955, separated in June. Mrs. Harvey is currently residing in Los Angeles.

Soviets' Multistage Rocket Succeeds

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets reported hitting a bullseye at about 8,000 miles in the second firing of their new multistage rocket.

The Soviet news agency Tass, said the two launchings into the Central Pacific, Tuesday and Thursday, "yielded all data necessary to complete the development of a carrier rocket designed for further conquest of cosmic space." The announcement said the test series was over and the 50,000 square miles of target area were open to shipping.

A U. S. Navy plane sighted the second Soviet rocket. Adm. Harry D. Felt, the U.S. Pacific commander announced in Honolulu.

Wins Highway Citation

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Highway Department has been cited by the National Institute of Traffic Engineers for maintaining a high level of performance in traffic engineering during 1959. California was the only other state to receive a similar award, the institute reported.

Royal Oak Twp. Girl Held in Death of Baby

A 19-year-old Royal Oak Township girl was held late yesterday in the burning and death of her newly born daughter July 4, according to Redford State Police.

* * *

Detectives said the mother told them she wrapped the baby in a sheet and put it in an ash can behind her home shortly after it was born.

* * *

She said the infant "was very still," and that she was "scared." Someone burned rubbish in the container later that day, she said. The body was found yesterday.

Unions Checked by Labor Dept.

Landrum - Griffin Act Calls for a Financial Report From All

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department has started checking thousands of financial reports filed by unions under the 1959 Landrum-Griffin Act.

★ ★ ★

Known officially as the Labor-Management Reporting Act, the measure requires unions to file yearly financial reports.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said today both desk and field audits are under way and that in some cases, books and financial transactions of a union will be checked against its financial report to the department.

Financial reports must be filed within 80 days after the close of a union's fiscal year. So far, 39,080 international, national and local unions have filed reports. Thousands of additional reports are expected before the end of September from unions whose fiscal year ended June 30.

ONE-MAN CAMPAIGN—Lar (America First) Daly, a perennial presidential candidate, is greeted by Jack Paar, left, on Jack's TV show in New York Thursday night. Daly, who campaigns in an Uncle Sam suit, was put on the program by the National Broadcasting Co., following a Federal Communications Commission ruling that he receive "equal time" as a legally qualified candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. Daly, with his three-point platform and his gimmicks, was booed loudly by the audience. The worst booing came when he adversely criticized President Eisenhower. Paar was stopped cold because he was "so ashamed" of the performance. He, in turn, criticized the FCC ruling.

Could Wipe Out Polio by Next Summer: Sabin

CHICAGO (UPI)—The scientist who developed live polio virus vaccine said today the United States could wipe out polio next summer.

Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of the Sabin oral vaccine, said two American drug firms expect to produce the required amount of vaccine by next fall.

"It would be necessary," Sabin said, " . . . To feed the oral vaccine within a relatively short period of time during the winter and spring months to most preschool and school-age children, regardless of the number of doses of Salk vaccine they might have had."

"The relative cheapness of the oral vaccine and the ease of its administration should permit communitywide programs that would make the vaccine available to all without reference to ability to pay," he said in the current issue of the Journal of the American Medical Assn.

★ ★ ★

"The question now remains," Sabin said, "Whether the health authorities and physicians . . . are ready to take the necessary steps for an attempted elimination of poliomyelitis . . . before the summer of 1961 or whether the country will continue to pay the current high price for only partial prevention of the paralytic disease."

★ ★ ★

The government has delayed licensing the Sabin vaccine because it was feared the live viruses might regain power and cause disease.

But Sabin said field tests in Estonia, Lithuania, Hungary, Russia and Czechoslovakia with live-virus vaccine, given orally, indicated an "unprecedented reduction in the incidence of polio in the entire population."

Sharpen Up, Drivers, to Cut Toll

CHICAGO (UPI) — Safety leaders from eight Midwest states agreed today that "driver attitude" must be sharpened to prevent another deadly holiday like the record slaughter over the July Fourth weekend.

★ ★ ★

The leaders, members of the midwestern regional of state and provincial safety coordinators, blamed motorist apathy for the 442 fatalities on the nation's highways over the three-day weekend.

Most victims, they pointed out, were killed near their own homes. Eight out of Ohio's 10 fatalities died in their own counties. Only two of Illinois' nine victims were out-of-staters.

Relatively few motorists died in heavy interstate traffic, the safety experts said.

★ ★ ★

But they urged a sharpened "driver attitude" reflecting year-round awareness to driving hazards.

The leaders recommended legislation to make traffic laws, signs and signals uniform among the states and urged interstate exchange of driver records.

British Have New Idea, Flying Truck

LONDON (UPI)—A British firm has come up with an idea for a truck that flies. It's been named the "Flying Pig."

★ ★ ★

Bristol Siddeley Engines have submitted their idea to the Ministry of Aviation to meet military needs for machines that can take off and land vertically.

★ ★ ★

A cross between a truck and a helicopter, and powered by jet engines, it would skim down the road and be able to rise vertically to a height of 15,000 feet and cruise at 230 miles an hour.

TV News and Reviews

Walter Lippmann Gives Viewers Taste of Class

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Walter Lippmann, perhaps our most distinguished political columnist, made his TV debut on a special CBS Reports program last night shown locally at 11:30 p.m.

Lippmann, called "The Political Conscience of America," has been writing about national and foreign affairs for nearly half a century, so it should be clear immediately that, well, as we say in the TV game, he deserves his own show.

The combination of Lippmann, his clear opinions about leadership and his quiet manner of articulating them made for an impressive TV hour.

Lippmann didn't bother with the rule that says you must look into the camera when you talk. He addressed his interviewer, Howard K. Smith, and we were eavesdroppers.

Lippmann spoke calmly but with feeling. He answered questions with utmost honesty. No shillyshallying. (He's not a candidate for public office and so can afford the virtue.)

He spoke as if he could read about our times from a history book to be written 100 years from today and his quotes were spare, hard and rare for nighttime, summertime, non-Sunday TV.

This leads me to wonder about the reaction of Lippmann's TV de but along Madison avenue. Are the wheelers and dealers saying, "Yes, but it's just a one-shot. He doesn't have any material left for another evening with Walter Lippmann, let alone a full series." Or, "Where were the laughs? He needs new writers."

I'm being facetious, of course, but only because too many of TV's so called creative pursuits glorify the nonsense that Lippmann was putting down last night.

Filmed at Lippmann's Washington, D. C. home and summer home in Maine the camera work was excellent. Occasionally, Smith's questions skipped around too much, but still, it added up to a stimulating hour.

I took another look at Ernie Kovacs' show last night on ABC-TV and decided that it's a mistake to classify it as a panel or game show.

It's a spoof of the two formats, that's what it is. And taken from that approach, it offers more twinkle than it did when Ernie & Co. were taking it more seriously.

Struggling to make sense out of last night's wild but opaque clues were Cesar Romero, Edie Adams and Mort Sahl. They couldn't begin to ask the right questions, of course, and that's where the fun came in.

Last year, CBS let producer Robert Herridge put together a 26-episode series that consisted of special treatments for short stories, playlets, jazz and ballet.

Naturally, the series never saw network exposure. No sponsor would buy because it's a series that wouldn't beat Wagon Train or The Untouchables in the ratings.

One of the shows, "A Trip to Czardis," was presented on CBS-TV's New York station last night (WCBS-TV.) The haunting story about first and last brushes with life was beautifully produced and Mildred Dunnock acted with overpowering feeling.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "The scheduling of Eyewitness to History as a regular Friday night CBS-TV series next fall means Small World is kaput. Person to Person moving out of the Friday night slot, is still expected to turn up as a Sunday evening attraction.

Litigation between American Broadcasting-Paramount Theaters and Walt Disney has terminated with the announcement that AB-PT is selling its 37 per cent stock interest in Disneyland to Walt Disney Productions and Disneyland. ABC-TV will continue to have exclusive rights to the "Walt Disney Presents" TV hour.

Nightclub 'Interview' With Premier Kishi

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—President Eisenhower isn't likely to get to the Copacabana to watch Marty Allen and Steve Rossi do a spoof of Prime Minister Kishi.

WILSON

I'll send this gag along to Jim Hagerty hoping Ike hears it eventually.

Marty Allen, the fat boy who impersonates a penguin, and Steve Rossi do a burlesque "interview" which includes this:

"Premier Kishi, were you frightened during the Tokyo rioting?"

"Look down my back," says Kishi.

"What for?"

Kishi: "I'll show you where the yellow went."

Allen and Rossi — headlining the Copacabana just a year after forming the partnership which led them already to two Perry Como appearances—will follow Paul Anka, who's 18—who followed Bobby Darin, who's 24.

"So we're the oldest act that's headlined there for a while," brags Marty. "I'm 35, Steve's 28. That's not much, but combined, that makes us 63, or almost as old as Sophie Tucker."

★ ★ ★

Marty, who got the penguin bit from taking a niece and nephew to a zoo in Pittsburgh, was working in Toronto about five years ago. He got friendly with a restaurant owner who invited him home to dinner.

"While we were trying to eat, the man's son, a little kid in a sweater, comes out playing a guitar and singing.

"The father says to me, 'What should I do with him?'

"I say to the father, 'Why don't you put him in the closet?'

ALLEN and ROSSI

"The next time I go back there, four years later, it's Paul Anka Day in honor of that kid.

Like a Little Ol' Cool Drink?

It's Dixie Hospitality!

LOS ANGELES (AP)—You can almost smell magnolias and hear the strains of "Dixie" at a tiny Confederate outpost on the Biltmore Hotel's third floor.

★ ★ ★

It's called the Southern Hospitality Room. And the place — open to all Democratic convention delegates and visitors—simply swings with Southern hospitality.

★ ★ ★

It's so hospitable that even a Yankee can feel like Robert E. Lee when he accepts a cool drink from some of the Old South's fairest flowers. A spacious closet is well stocked with any refreshment a visitor's little ol' heart might desire.

In an adjoining room, the Omega Trio from Nashville, Tenn., holds forth with jump tunes and bouncy folk songs.

★ ★ ★

Who's paying for it all?

Charles Shepherd, who describes himself as an Atlanta, Ga., real estate man, says he and a few friends chipped in to assure fellow Southerners of a home away from home. Strictly nonpolitical, he adds.

★ ★ ★

Ask him about rumors that the place is a Southern front for Sen. John F. Kennedy and Charles Shepherd will tell you all about Georgia Tech's football team.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's campaign headquarters staff publicly denies connection with or knowledge of the place.

★ ★ ★

One of the celebrants in the suite is James W. (Taxi) Smith, former mayor of Albany, Ga. Taxi, as he's known to his friends, says he's for Kennedy and consequently quit the Georgia delegation which is voting unanimously for Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

★ ★ ★

Ask him about politics, and Taxi will tell you how he got his nickname. It seems he was a cross-country runner for Georgia Tech many years ago. In a marathon race with the rival University of Georgia, Taxi was faltering until he spotted a taxi. He finished first, thanks to a friendly cab driver, and went on to become mayor of Albany. Or so the story goes.

Don't Shoot Poor Doggy

BENNINGTON, Vt. (UPI)—Dog catcher George Rogers asked town selectmen to buy him a tranquilizer gun for his work because, "It's safer and easier than shooting a dog."
