Work on New Junior High To Start in June

Pontiac Army Depot Contract Awarded

Near $2-Million Building Slated to House Tools

Warehouse Is Planned for Site on City's South Boulevard

A Detroit construction company, Darin & Armstrong, Inc., has been awarded a $1,966,600 contract to build a giant machine tool storage warehouse here for the Army.

Announcement of the contract awarding was made yesterday by Col. Arthur C. Nauman, head of the Detroit district office, Army Corps of Engineers.

The structure, to be erected on East South boulevard, a half-mile from GMC Truck & Coach Division headquarters, will have a dehumdified atmosphere in order to preserve the defense production tools stored there with a minimum of individual wrapping.

It will sprawl over most of a 32-acre site the government purchased from GMC.

Construction is expected to take about a year.

Housed in the 500,000-square-foot "dried air" vault will be government-owned tools and machines formerly used and still located at the GMC, Pontiac and Oldsmobile divisions of General Motors Corp.

The dehumidifying equipment will keep constant temperature and humity levels, preventing rusting and corrosion.

The tools and machines will be covered only with a light preservative oil and a special rust inhibitor powder.

The huge building will be the third and largest in Michigan. Others are at Grand Blanc and Livonia and serve the same function as the new one will.

Total cost of the project, when first announced in January, was reported to be $2,942,000, including land and building.

The project is part of the Defence Department's $100,000,000 reserve tools and facilities program.

FRANCIS STALEY

Francis Staley Named Principal at Pontiac High

Succeeds John Thors Jr. Retiring in June After 25 Years

A 45-year-old veteran of the classroom—from an eight grade one-room rural school to a large city junior high school—has been selected as principal of Pontiac High School beginning next September.

Francis Staley, principal of Pontiac's Eastern Junior High School for the past 13 years, was named to this new post Thursday night at a meeting of the Pontiac Board of Education.

He will succeed John Thors Jr., who has served this community as high school principal for 25 years, and who retires this June. He first came to the Pontiac system in 1921.

Other administrative appointments made by the board include the naming of Thomas Dodson as director of physical education, recreation and athletics. He is presently employed as a pilot with General Motors and has had long experience in athletic work.

Warren W. Abbott, now principal of Crofoot school, was named assistant at the Washington Junior high school. He will assume this new role in September.

Richard Fell becomes the new director of vocational education. He is now with the Fitzgerald public schools near Detroit.

Wisconsin Man Named

Placed as coordinator of secondary education was Dr. Russell Curtis of Janesville, Wis.

Staley was born in Yale. He had one formal year of education on the campus, and one summer, at Ypsilanti State Normal College before he went into his first rural school teaching job with a three-year limited certificate.

Through extension courses and summer school he obtained his bachelor's degree at Ypsilanti and continued his graduate work from the University of Michigan until he received his master's degree. He came to Pontiac in 1941.

A sports enthusiast, he has played football and semi-pro baseball.

Will Be Vice President

He will be vice president in September of the Southeastern Michigan Secondary School Round Table and is a member of the Michigan Education Association and the National Education Association. Staley is also a member of the National Secondary Principal's Association.

Parents of three children, Frederick, 12; James, 4 and Lois Anne, three months, Mr. and Mrs. Staley make their home at 843 Glendale.

T-Men, Sheriff Hit County Still

Operator Is Arrested for Violating Federal Liquor Laws

Raiding Treasury agents and Oakland County authorities destroyed a bootleg whisky still in Groveland Township late yesterday and arrested its operator on charges of violating federal liquor laws.

* * *

The still, complete with nearly 400 gallons of corn mash, copper tubing for distilling, barrels and jugs, was located in a thickly-wooded gully in the Holly recreation area, about 20 miles north of Pontiac off Grange Hall road.

* * *

Operator Ben Ford, 47, of Detroit, arrested at the scene, was being held in Detroit today.

Sheriff Frank Irons said Ford had the makeshift distillery in operation when he and agents George Fritz, C. N. MacFadden, Fortino Gutierrez and C. A. Johnson staged their raid at about 4 p.m.

Irons stated the agents, members of the Treasury Alcohol and Tobacco Division, have had the secluded still under observation for several weeks.

Admitted Operation

Ford, who Irons said only had a small amount of distilled bootleg whisky made when the raid took place, admitted to have been operating the still for about two weeks.

* * *

After taking samples of the finished product, Irons and the T-men destroyed all the 50-gallon drums of mash, more than 40 foot of copper tubing and other equipment.

Plan to Resume Polio Shots Here

Inoculations Scheduled Saturday; Clearance of Vaccine Expected

Going on the assumption Parke, Davis & Co.'s Salk vaccine will get the government stamp of approval today, Dr. John D. Monroe rescheduled the polio inoculation clinics originally set for last Saturday for tomorrow morning.

Dr. Monroe, Oakland County health director, made the announcement after Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele told Congress "nothing has developed to threaten ultimate success of the vaccine program, and its suspension will be lifted for the Parke, Davis vaccine."

Scheele said the government has completed its safety check of vaccine at the Parke, Davis plant.

An estimated 9,500 first and second graders in the county will get the shots tomorrow, providing the approval announcement is made.

Clinics will be conducted beginning at 9 a.m. at the same places as originally scheduled in Pontiac, Waterford Township, Birmingham, Southfield Township and Ferndale.

City School Candidates Must File by Saturday

Saturday at 4 p.m. is the deadline for filing Pontiac Board of Education petitions at the office on Patterson street.

Election will be June 13 and the last day for registration of qualified voters is June 3.

One vacancy will occur on the board with the expiration of Ferd Thiefels' terms. He will not seek relection, he announced recently.

Kidnap-Rape Trial Here Moves Into Fourth Day

The trial of four men accused of kidnaping and raping a Pontiac mother of three went into its fourth day before Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland today.

Some 12 police officers, who were involved in arresting and questioning the four, were called to testify yesterday by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and his chief assistant, George F. Taylor.

All the officers denied they had mistreated the defendants in any way or seen them physically abused.

Ziem was expected to conclude his case today by calling Dr. Walter Olson, of Pontiac, who examined the accused quartet following their arrest.

The four are Oscar Chavers, 26, of Gary, Ind., his brother, Richard, 23, of 38 Lake St., Joe Williams Jr., 22, of 38 Lake and Winston Johnson, 25, of 312 Hughes St.

Defense attorney William Brustar, of Detroit, is then scheduled to begin presenting his proofs.

The defendants are charged with forcing the woman into their car after Oscar Chavers allegedly pulled her from a mud-mired auto near South Blvd. while her escort was absent summoning a tow truck.

All four criminally assaulted her during an hour-long ride through Bloomfield Hills and Pontiac, she charges.

PLAYING IT SAFE—Little Margaret Emerson is taking no chances today. The 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Emerson of 572 W. Iroquois Rd. throws salt over her left shoulder and crosses her fingers as she keeps a wary eye on "Puss-in-Boots," the Emersons' black cat. House Raises Business Tax

Measure Would Hike Levy From 4 to 7 Mills for Most Firms

LANSING (UP) — The House today passed by a 56-49 vote a bill to increase Michigan's business receipts tax from four to seven mills for most businesses.

Sponsors said the revision would raise the tax yield from 31 million dollars to 62 million dollars annually.

The bill now goes to the Senate, which has already approved a measure to hike the tax to six mills, yielding an additional $22,500,000.

The vote on the business receipts tax increase in the House followed party lines exactly. Democrats lost a two-hour battle to swing enough Republican votes to pass Gov. Williams' five per cent corporation profits tax.

The House version of the business receipts tax increase would raise the levy on public utilities from one to two mills. In addition, businesses whose expenses are largely in the form of payrolls could get a 60 per cent blanket deduction instead of the present 50 per cent.

Five Killed, 171 Injured in Traffic Mishaps Here

Pontiac Police traffic and accident bureau today reported five persons killed and 171 injured in traffic accidents during the year's first quarter here.

This compares with two deaths and 151 injuries occurring during a similar period in 1954, when a total of 448 auto accidents were reported during the four-month period.

Friday the 13th? Phooey!

1955 Shows True Colors of Business Superstitions

NEW YORK (AP)—Friday the 13th may be a good time to look at some business traditions many people believe will be shown up this year as merely superstitions.

So far 1955 has turned in a number of surprises and may well test a lot of economic theories. Here are a few:

Traditionally people aren't supposed to buy new cars in any volume until spring makes them restless and eager to get on the highway. However, people began buying new cars this time while they still were shopping for a Christmas tree. Cold weather buying set records.

Another tradition is that new car sales drop sharply after June. Will that too turn out to be a superstition?

* * *

In the building industry, tradition has it that the sale of new homes bears a close relation to the marriage rate. This year the building of new homes is well in excess of the number of marriages. Tradition isn't working in 1955, builders say, for these reasons:

Families are having more children than used to be the fashion, and need larger quarters. Many families have larger incomes and feel they can afford the monthly mortgage payments. Mortgage terms are easier too.

There is a tradition about the economy in general that is up for a test just now. It is the business cycle theory.

* * *

A bust always follows a boom, according to the history books. So far, the postwar boom has had only two upsets, both relatively mild. One was the inventory recession of 1949-50. The other was the adjustment of 1953-54. The much-feared bust isn't in sight.

At the moment, business is so good that a number of businessmen are calling it "too good to be true." Traditionalists say that sooner or later a real downturn will come along. But more and more businessmen — whether just whistling in the dark—are proclaiming that idea as just a superstition.

There are traditions too about price changes from month to month in the commodity and stock markets. And these are up for testing this year.

The traditional "February break" in commodity prices was a very mild affair this year. The traditional spring rise in prices has been almost as unnoticeable.

The stock market hasn't been following any of the "calendar rules" for some time now. Will the historical "summer slump" and "fall recovery" come along on schedule? Or is that another superstition that doesn't fit the facts of 1955?

Way Is Cleared for Conventions During August

WASHINGTON (AP)—Major party officials said today that as far as they know the last legal bar to holding presidential nominating conventions in August next year has been removed.

* * *

The Republicans had fixed Aug. 20 for their convention in San Francisco, and the Democrats Aug. 13 in Chicago. Both said these dates were more or less contingent on some states changing their laws providing for certifying nominees for the ballot.

* * *

Six states with certifying deadlines that interfered with those tentative convention dates have now amended their laws calling for later filing times.

* * *

Both parties historically have nominated their presidential tickets in June or July, but next year they are aiming for shorter campaigns.

Will You Win $900—or Will It Be $1,000?

Will the Bonanzagram jackpot go to $1,000?

This depends on whether anyone has submitted a correct answer to puzzle No. 9. The answer appears today on page 28. If a winning claim is presented by 5 p.m. Monday it will be worth $900.

If not, the $100 for puzzle No. 10, also appearing today, will be added to the unclaimed prize money, boosting the total to $1,000.

Don't forget rules are relaxed starting with puzzle No. 10. Punctuation, while helping solve the puzzle, will not be counted in determining a winner. Turn to the current puzzle on page 28.

Manpower Cuts OK'd by House

President's Program Also Expected to Win in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Overwhelmingly approved by the House, President Eisenhower's program to cut military manpower during the new fiscal year headed today for a new fight in the Senate.

* * *

Despite outspoken criticism from some senators, advance indications were that the President would be upheld also by the Senate when it gets around to voting on the subject some weeks hence.

The House yesterday passed 382-0 the bill to give the Defense Department $31,488,206,000 in new funds for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Amendments which would have boosted the bill's money total and maintained military power during the new year at levels projected for June 30 of this year were beaten on voice votes.

* * *

The program, approved without change, calls for an over-all cut of 102,300 from this year's figure by June 30, 1956. The Army will be trimmed 87,000, the Navy 8,300 and the Marine Corps 12,000 and the Air Force increased by 5,000.

$43 Billion for Defense

The new funds, if approved by the Senate, would give the Defense Department about $43,081,000,000 for the coming year.

Board Asks Bids on $1 Million School Project

600-Capacity Building to Occupy 130-Acre Perry Street Site

Bids for Pontiac's new million dollar junior high school will be asked May 16. These bids are due from competing contractors on June 7 with the Board of Education slated to make the contract awards on June 8.

Dr. Otto Hufziger, in charge of building for the district, says work should start soon after June 8.

The first large school building to be undertaken by the Pontiac school district in many years, the new junior high will be located on the 130 acres owned by the district on Perry St. near the Grand Trunk viaduct.

It is part of the $9,000,000 school expansion program endorsed by voters in the summer of 1954.

"The 600 pupil capacity junior high school will run in the neighborhood of $1,150,000 for total construction costs. We are hoping, however, after making a survey of contractors now doing similar building, that the contract can be let for around $1,080,000," said Henry Haberkorn, of Beyster & Associates, architects for the building.

Fits Land Contour

With a school plant designed to fit the contour of the hilly land of the Perry site, the architect has made full use of the natural terrain by placing the cafeteria below the school gymnasium on a slope.

The remainder of the school will be one-story construction, and has been designed for future expansion.

George Yansen, now principal at Wever Junior high school will head the new school.

Haberkorn said that students could probably be moved into the classrooms by February of 1956, with the gymnasium and cafeteria areas to take a little longer in construction.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools, said that specifications had been written so that the academic areas of the new school would be ready first.

Weatherman Sees Mild Weekend Here

At 8 a.m. today, the mercury in downtown Pontiac stood at 62 degrees, rising to 74 by 2 p.m.

Citizens League Holds Meeting

Hoover Commissions at City and State Levels Urged by Speaker

Little Hoover Commissions at the city and state level were urged last night as an answer to the growing cost and increasing complexity of government.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Oakland County Citizens League at the Birmingham Community House, Thomas R. Reid, director of civic affairs for the Ford Motor Co., recommended appointment of citizens to the same type of specialist task forces presently considering federal government problems.

He endorsed the appropriation of funds by local legislative groups for the citizens commissions' staff and research work.

Reid praised the work of the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, headed by former President Herbert Hoover, and cited its accomplishments in improving the efficiency and economy of the federal government.

Would Increase Interest

Little Hoover Commissions could increase citizen interest and participation in local and state governmental problems and eventually save taxpayers billions of dollars, he asserted.

"Visualize the impact on runaway state and local government of analytical review by the top citizens of our towns and states chosen from the ranks of business, labor, the professions and education.

"The head of such groups would be provided, by legislative action, sufficient funds to employ staff and conduct research with the time limit of approximately six months to a year set to complete their tasks and issue specific recommendations.

Support Needed

"For states and larger cities the central commission should be supported by individual task forces of citizens on traffic and parking problems, water and sanitation questions, industrial development, slum clearance, and finance and accounting, for example."

State and local governmental officials must take the initiative in encouraging citizen participation in government affairs, Reid said.

Where citizen participation in civic affairs is strong, "you always find a bustling, live-wire community, with vigorous civic pride," Mr. Reid said.

"Where it is weak, you often find general political apathy and costly, inefficient government."

The League elected five new directors, Joseph Savery, of Ferndale; Fred Beckman, of Milford; Robert G. Silbar and C. Theron Van Duesen, both of Birmingham, and Henry S. Booth, of Bloomfield Hills. The directors will meet later to elect officers.

Deadline Near to File Petitions for June Elections

Deadline for submitting nominating petitions for June 13 board of education is tomorrow in many school districts throughout the county.

Petitions may be secured at the board of education office of each district.

Petitions should be signed by not less than 50 nor more than 75 qualified registered voters of the district.

South County Barbers to Vote on Price Hike

Southern Oakland County barbers will vote next month on a proposal to increase the price of haircuts, 25 cents.

A spokesman for local 55, State Barbers Assn., said Oakland County hasn't had a price increase in 3½ years.

Beginning Monday, prices go up 25 cents in Detroit.

Ike Nominates Chief of Army

Gen. Maxwell Taylor to Take Over June 30 When Ridgway Quits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today nominated Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor to be the new chief of staff of the Army.

He will succeed Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway on June 30.

* * *

Taylor commanded the 8th Army in some of the bitterest fighting of the Korean War. He is now serving as commander in chief, Far East command, and commander in chief, United Nations command.

* * *

His appointment as chief of staff is for a term of two years.

Ridgway will retire on leaving as chief of staff.

Ridgway has not seen eye to eye with the Eisenhower administration's decision to cut back Army manpower.

Ridgway has contended repeatedly that atomic and other new weapons would require more, not fewer, ground forces because of a necessity for dispersal.

Taylor is a tall, lean man with graying hair, soldierly in appearance.

He speaks more than a half dozzen languages, is a student of philosophy, and likes to spend his leisure time reading Greek tragedy.

Among fellow officers, Taylor is rated as a great tactician, especially in the application of modern arms to the battlefield.

Police Trial Board Completes Hearing

Pontiac's Police Trial Board last night completed hearings of a trial in which Patrolman James B. Sexton is charged with "conduct unbecoming an officer" and said it would render a decision by June 1.

Thurlow L. Harsen, chairman, said the board's decision was delayed last night pending the return of another board member now out of the city.

Sexton was suspended from the police force by Capt. Vance Hanger, head of the patrol division, April 1 after the officer reported he had been beaten up by John L. Shaw, 30 of 70 Houston St. Sexton suffered a broken jaw and head fractures.

Shaw later was sentenced to 60 days in the Oakland County Jail and placed on a year's probation on a charge of assault and battery.

The Day in Birmingham

Ban on Lawn Sprinkling Goes Into Effect Sunday

BIRMINGHAM — A sprinkling ban goes into effect here Sunday.

City Manager Donald Egbert said the restrictions will remain in effect until "modified or rescinded."

Under the plan, outlined on postcards sent to all homeowners, persons living in houses with odd numbers will be permitted to use water for lawn sprinkling on odd numbered days of the month. Even numbered houses may use water for sprinkling on even numbered days of the month.

Egbert said all sprinkling shall be prohibited for a period of two hours when the Fire Department sounds a series of 12 blasts on its siren.

It is the earliest date that sprinkling restrictions have been put into effect since 1953, the first year they were used here. However, city officials said there was no significance in the early announcement.

"We are starting the program early this year so homeowners will become familiar with the plan before an actual dry period sets in," they said.

To Avoid Confusion

During one week last summer over 5,000,000 gallons of water was pumped from city wells daily, a record number.

"To put a sprinkling procedure into effect at that time would have created a jumble of confusion," one official said. "By starting early every one will know just how the plan works.

"During peak pumping loads, however, there always has been sufficient reserve in our storage tanks for use in case of fires," he added.

The scarcity of water during summer months may be a thing of the past next year. Birmingham is one of several communities which have joined together and formed the Southeast Oakland County Water Authority to purchase water from the city of Detroit.

To Use Detroit Water

Jack Walker, assistant to the city manager, said Birmingham "will definitely" be using Detroit water to some extent in 1956. At present a firm is making a study to determine just what amount of Detroit water can be mixed with water from Birmingham's eight existing wells.

Walker allowed the cost of water to residents would be increased when Detroit starts supplying the city with water.

A-Heat for Sale on West Coast

AEC Seeks Buyers for Byproduct of Reactor Research

WASHIGTO — Some "atomic heat" is for sale in Southern California.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced today if is inviting proposals to buy the heat produced in experimental operation of a reactor now being built 30 miles northwest of downtown Los Angeles.

Southern California Edison already has offered to buy the heat and install equipment needed to convert it into electricity. Further proposals are being sought, however, since AEC is required by law to give preference to public bodies and cooperatives in contracting for the disposal of heat energy.

The new reactor, being built by North American Aviation under contract with AEC, is intended chiefly for research. The heat is a byproduct and won't be in constant supply.

AEC said, however, there will be enough to generate some 7,500 kilowatts of electricity and "it is believed that valuable operating experience can be gained by generating electric power."

The experimental reactor is of the sodium graphite type and is one of five reactor systems being tested by AEC in its search for power that can be produced as cheaply and efficiently as conventional kinds.

Guy Who Bought It Was the Only Nut

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — They tell this story about the late Wilson Mizner, noted wit, during the Florida boom of the '20s when Wilson and his brother Addison were promoting real estate at Boca Raton:

A purchaser hauled Mizner into court on a charge of misrepresentation, and told the jury, "He told me I could grow nuts on the land."

"I said he could go nuts on the land," Mizner defended.

Students Present Cadillac to Show Esteem for Dean

AMES, Iowa (AP)—An Iowa State College dean, praised for having the "student interest at heart," was honored with a new Cadillac by his students last night.

M. D. Helser, dean of student affairs and a member of the faculty here for 40 years, received the automobile in a surprise ceremony before 8,000 persons in the football stadium.

* * *

The car was purchased by donations of students and friends in response to criticisms that coaches receive valuable gifts while professors are overlooked.

A fund also has been established in the name of the 65-year-old dean to provide scholarships for worthy students.

* * *

The presentation was made by Ronald Moss, president of the student body, as the college opened its annual three-day Veishea festival.

Robert Goodale, general chairman of Veishea, said the fund drive was started about two months ago and more than $4,500 was raised in a month. The student-led drive apparently was kept secret from the dean.

* * *

"I just can't believe it," he said. "I just can't understand how anything like this could have been going on at Iowa State without my knowing it."

"Students are more important to him than anything," said his wife. "He is not like many men. He wants to go to the office."

Baldies May Have Last Laugh on Gals

DETROIT (AP) — Ladies don't laugh at the poor baldheaded man. You too can suffer from alopecia.

Dr. Alice E. Palmer, dermatology teacher at Wayne University Medical College, told an alumni group yesterday that 9½ per cent of American women suffer from baldness to some extent.

"Women sometimes lose their hair in patches when they think they're going to lose their husbands," Dr. Palmer added.

As for men, Dr. Palmer reported 43 per cent suffer from alopecia.

Ad Agency Acts as 'Salesman'

Commission System Is Favored by Publishers; U.S. Sees Restraints

NEW YORK (AP)—The commission system the government objects to in its antitrust suit today against publishing and advertising associations works like this:

* * *

A manufacturer wishes to place a $1,000 advertisement of his product in a newspaper or magazine. If he places it himself, he pays $1,000 at the regular national advertising rate.

If he places it through an advertising agency "recognized" by the publishers, he still pays the $1,000, to the agency, but the agency pays the publisher $850 and keeps $150 as its 15 per cent commission.

Why is the publisher willing to take only $850 from the agency when he insists on the full $1,000 if he takes the same ad from the manufacturer directly?

Serves As Salesman

He explains that it is because of the bulk business he gets from the agency, which serves, in effect, as an advertising salesman for the publication.

The publisher's position is that he cannot possibly hire sufficient salesmen to go to every potential advertiser to solicit ads.

The government contends this practice places an unreasonable restraint on trade and commerce.

* * *

Publishers contend the effect is exactly the opposite. They argue that payment of the commissions stimulates the quantity of advertising business, while the advertiser pays the same rate as if he had placed his advertising directly.

Good Credit Required

"Recognized" advertising agencies are those with good credit ratings and who do business on a larger than local scale.

The American Newspaper Publishers Assn., for instance, as a national organization, recognizes agencies operating on a similar national scale.

There are several thousand advertising agencies, many of them local. The ANPA recognizes 1,036. The Justice Department, is drawing up its suit, gave the number as about 900.

4 Egypt Reds Go to Jail

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt's high military court has sentenced four members of a regional Communist committee to prison terms ranging from 3 to 10 years.

Born in 1835, when Halley's comet was visible, Mark Twain prophesied that he would die in 1910, during the comet's next appearance, and he did.

Presidential Pensions Approved by Senators

Our guess is that the unanimous Senate vote in favor of $22,500 a year pensions for ex-Presidents will get widespread public support.

It also is our belief that the $10,000 a year pensions voted widows of ex-Presidents will win similar public approval.

We are not so sure that other provisions in the bill are wise. These would give former Chief Executives a clerical staff at a cost of $42,000 a year plus office space and free mailing privileges.

There might not be any objection to providing an office in a Federal building. But there certainly is doubt as to the wisdom of financing a staff equivalent to that given a Senator.

As to the merit of the two pensions, however, that is beyond dispute. The world's richest country has been strangely tardy in making sure that its ex-Presidents never will lack the funds necessary to live in the dignity and security their former office suggests.

This is a matter that hasn't been of grave concern to former President HOOVER, who is independently wealthy. But there will be others like HARRY TRUMAN, men of modest means, to whom the pension would be more than welcome. Mr. TRUMAN'S only pension amounts to $112.56 a month as a retired colonel in the Army Reserve.

We believe the House should follow the Senate's example in approving these pensions. At the same time we hope the questionable provisions of the bill will be subjected to further searching study.

State Holds Leadership in Public Health Fields

The 7,000,000 people of this great Commonwealth have many reasons to recall with pride during Michigan Week May 15-21 the great progress made here in recent years.

This is especially the case in the field of public health where credit for several firsts belongs to Michigan. As a result, State Health Commissioner HEUSTIS points out that noteworthy health advances have been made for all age groups from newborn to grandparents.

For example, Michigan was the first State to distribute blood plasma to hospitals and physicians for civilian use. The State also leads in its program of providing decay fighting sodium fluoride for treatment of children's teeth.

Back in October, 1940, the State Health Department put into service the Nation's first mobile chest X-ray unit for the detection of tuberculosis and other lung abnormalities. The department also was the first in the country to pioneer in statewide screening of school children for defective vision.

There is strong vital statistics support for Dr. HEUSTIS' statement that Michigan's public health outlook is bright. Last year's birth rate of 27.2 per 1,000 population was the highest in history while the death rate of 8.6 was the lowest on record. This means that for every Michigan death there were about three births.

THE reason there are so many weddings in June is that women take advantage of men's greater vulnerability to romance in the Spring and rush them to the altar before they have time to recover from their daze.

Every American Child Promised Salk Vaccine

In his mid-week press conference President EISENHOWER took a stand on SALK polio vaccine we believe will have the Nation's wholehearted support.

The Chief Executive expressed himself as firmly opposed to Federal controls over distribution of the vaccine. For this there is mounting pressure in Congress.

After discussing the vaccine's safety and in answer to a question the President said it is considered wise to proceed with the inoculations. Then he pledged that there never will be a child in the United States denied protection against polio because of inability to pay.

The PRESS believes this stand will have the overwhelming endorsement of the Nation's parents. It is a pledge in perfect harmony with the spirit which moved the American people to back the long fight against this dread crippler.

Beyond doubt those whose dimes and dollars financed Dr. Salk's research would feel a deep sense of injustice if any child were denied the benefits of this discovery for lack of means.

The tulips, rivaling anything of this kind in the entire nation, are for the free inspection of the public, and all can be seen without leaving your car. Drive into the park at the main entrance on East Long Lake Road, and keep to the right on all of the driveways. He Changed His Mind, He's Not Buying at Present

David Lawrence Says:

Dulles' New Diplomacy Pays Off in Understanding

PARIS — There is something very impressive and of incalculable value about the new-fashioned diplomacy which brings the secretary of the United States to Paris for informal talks with the foreign ministers of France and Great Britain as well as with the top men of other countries which comprise the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

* * *

Critics may say the head of the state department should not travel around, but it is difficult to imagine how any progress could be made any other way in solving present-day problems among the Allies.

Unfortunately, lots of mischevious rumors and some distorted reports reach back home to the parliament and to the American Congress. It is not always easy to overcome the handicaps that interference, even by American legislators, sometimes brings.

But if the members of Congress who are so reckless with their comments on world affairs, especially the carping critics among the Democrats, could attend a press conference held here by the the secretary of state, they would come to realize how delicate and complicated are most of the questions tackled by the foreign ministers.

Diplomats Talk Frankly

This last week has seen many important conferences, but they are not unlike several meetings held here before. They are all significant. The modern way is for the top representatives of the Allies to sit down together and thresh out their differences behind closed doors. They talk frankly and at times heatedly, but they come out of it as a rule with a clear understanding of the viewpoint of their respective countries.

Perhaps the most ticklish of all the questions this week was the problem of Indochina. Neither the French nor the American government could afford to place itself in the position of trying to settle the internal affairs of South Viet Nam, as this would only intensify Communist propaganda there.

But certain parallel or common policies were agreed upon which may help to bring stability to the situation in the southern part of Indochina. For, although the desire is to see some form of democratic government chosen, it is not easy to establish at once an electoral machinery such as exists in a European parliamentary system.

South Viet Nam Goal

Out of the turbulence of these last few weeks, however, may come a representative system for South Viet Nam, and that is the objective now.

Despite the newspaper reports about a grave crisis in the relations between France and the United States over the Indochina question, it is a fact that both governments recognized all along how important it is to reach an understanding and not allow the Indochina dispute to impair their working arrangements on many other questions of far greater importance to both.

The American people can rest assured that Secretary Dulles handled himself very creditably here. Not withstanding some garbled impressions that came to certain senators, there was no mistake made here by Dulles in talking firmly where firmness was necessary.

Dulles Answers Spaak

Those who heard his reply, for example, in the North Atlantic Council meeting to Foreign Secretary Spaak of Belgium on the Formosa question said it was an excellent rebuttal to a statement that completely misconstrued the American position.

Nor is Dulles stampeded or pushed around by the Soviet tactics. He was clear-cut in his announcement here that he wouldn't go to Vienna until the Austrian treaty provisions had been finally set down on paper ready for signing.

He is equally determined not to become involved in a protracted discussion in Vienna about the details of the forthcoming four-power conference.

There is a restraint and a forbearance about Dulles' manner in these top-level negotiations, and at the same time such an earnest reflection by him of the truly American viewpoint in international affairs, that the American people can well be proud of their itinerant secretary of state.

Resident Says He Painted First Fruehauf Trailer

Reading the article about August Fruehauf trailer idea, I found several errors in the write-up.

August Fruehauf's blacksmith shop was located at Gratiot and Concord avenue, and Gratiot was not a dirt street, but paved.

The first trailer was not built for F. M. Sibley. I painted the first one long before 1915, a crude trailer made for two brothers to haul sod. I painted the body a dark green and the large iron wheels black.

I hope Roy and Harry Fruehauf read this.

'God's Teachings Needed to Combat Delinquency'

Why is juvenile delinquency in our land, called a Christian nation, increasing? The reason should be clear. Our modern parents are not interested in bringing God into their homes, but instead have money, cars, TV and many other luxuries as their God.

Our Lord tells us, you and me, young and old: "Come unto me and I will in no wise cast you out." He also tells you about your children, saying: "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God."

There is no other way or law but God's law and teaching to combat this evil of today's society.

Guaranteed Wage Seen as Threat to U. S. System

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

In the hope for survival on a global basis of the human privilege of freedom of choice, America's unparalleled capacity to make things efficiently and abundantly is of decisive importance.

A fresh interpretation of the nature of America's productivity in terms of human well-being is presented in a book entitled "Balancing America's Productivity," by Robert R. Updegraff, authority on the social aspects of the modern corporation.

Updegraff makes it clear that the American-Machine-for-Good-Living, instead of merely producing goods and services, turns out four additional products.

The third is jobs; the fourth, profits or savings; the fifth, leisure, and the sixth, economic security.

Updegraff explains that price is the governor of this productive mechanism and is the medium through which individual customers express their preference. He decries rigidities which interfere with the opportunity of the customer freely to express himself.

Cites GAW Problems

Relating the abstract discussion to the warm realties in three separate bargaining sessions currently being held in Detroit between the United Auto Workers-CIO and GM, Ford and American Motors, on the guaranteed annual wage, the author declares:

"The latest threat to the balanced operation of our mass production-distribution machine is the demand for a guaranteed annual wage for industrial workers. We should not ignore the serious danger of suddenly throwing this new load on the machine before the difficult economics of such a guarantee have been worked out.

"It is devoutly to be hoped that the day will come when the machine can turn out this form of security for all wage earners; but the load will have to be taken on gradually if it is not to jeopardize the production of all six products.

"Management and labor may sign 'contracts' guaranteeing a wage of any amount, to run for a period of months or years; but these contracts will not be worth the paper they are written on unless Mr. and Mrs. Consumer approve them—and can afford their added cost."

Management Silent

While Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO and the UAW, spoke freely to me about his views on guaranteed annual wage, GM and Ford declined to break their silence.

The attitude of the leading motor makers thus is an enigma inside of a riddle. For, as innovators, the motor makers do not like to assume a merely negative role in controversial matters.

Another deterrent to premature discussion of management reactions is the intense rivalry between Ford and Chevrolet for first place, and there is a disinclination to do anything to give an advantage to the major competitor.

Smiles

Tricky

He had taken a taxi, only to discover as he neared his destination that he had no money in his pockets. He shouted to the driver, "Stop!" and jumped out. "I just want to get some matches in this store so I can locate a $20 bill I dropped on the floor of the cab." And just as he had expected the cab sped away when he entered the store.

A Strain

One of the freshmen took in a strip tease last summer and the next day went to an oculist to have his eyes treated.

"After I left the show last night," he exclaimed, "my eyes were red and sore and inflamed."

The doc looked him over, thought a minute and then remarked, "After this try blinking your eyes once or twice during the show—you won't miss much."

Misunderstood

The courtroom was crowded as the judge finished his lecture to the defendant in a divorce case. "So, I've decided to give your wife $50 per month," were his last words.

The husband's face lit up as he smiled. "That's fine, Judge. I'll try to slip her a couple of bucks now and then myself."

High Prices

In a grocer's shop several people were waiting to be served. Suddenly the cash register went crazy, clicking wildly and ringing up the same amount twice, after which it spun out the tape without a pause.

The assistant stared in amazement, and one customer exclaimed, "Heavens! Prices are too much even for machinery now!"

Rather Dull

A man took his daughter on a trip to London. They went to one of those plays that made father blush a bit.

"I'm sorry, Dorothy, that I brought you here," he said. "This is hardly a play for a girl of your age."

"Oh, that's all right, Dad," replied the girl. "Perhaps it'll liven up."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Woman Craves Good, Hard Spanking as Prelude to Husband's Love Making

Marjorie thinks she must have an abnormal attitude regarding sex. She has a secret that she has never told her husband. Many other wives have the same desire which Marjorie admits. So study her case and send for the booklet mentioned below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-329: Marjorie M., aged 33, is very happily married.

"But I have a problem which I am afraid to confess to my husband," she began.

"He is wonderful and I am simply crazy about him. And we have two lovely children.

"We are ideally mated and madly in love, even after 10 years of marriage.

"He is gallant and thoughtful, too. But I have always had a strong craving for him to give me a real, blistering spanking, especially before he loves me.

"What makes me feel this way, Dr. Crane? Am I perverted in my sexual life somewhere?

"He would probably be horrified if I were to mention this to him. I have playfully tried to get him to give me a sound spanking on my birthday, but he wouldn't think of hurting me.

"I have no guilt complexes that I know about, so is my abnormal desire just a feminine wish for more complete domination by the male?"

This is not an unusual type of problem for many wives come to us marriage counsellors with this same query.

They actually want their husbands to spank them as a prelude to love making.

Sometimes it is productive of far more emotional warmth on the part of the wife if her husband will accede to such a whimsical desire.

For example, both the female as well as the male may cherish from childhood various "fetishes" or symbols of romantic idealism and love.

Regardless of how they originally evolved their attachment for such symbols, the latter may produce magical results when utilized.

After a long interview with Marjorie, I learned that she had been addicted to self sex practices in her youth.

One day her father and mother detected her in the process, and mother demanded that her father give her a severe spanking.

So he administered a blistering paddling. And all through the intervening years, Marjorie has subconsciously associated a spanking with erotic exhilaration.

Marjorie never had admitted this childhood episode to her husband.

In fact, she said she had forgotten it throughout the years until I uncovered it by tactful questioning.

But its effect has been so strong on her wifely conduct that she has been trying to tease her husband into repeating the punishment which her father administered 20 years earlier.

There is nothing abnormal about Marjorie's complex for it is no different from other forms of childhood conditioning.

For instance, a mother's method of serving corn beef and cabbage to her children may cause them to demand the same recipe throughout their entire adult life or they do not enjoy this dish fully.

And the same childhood conditioning often alters one's ability to relish erotic situations, too.

Send for my booklet "Sex Differences Between Men & Women," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

It helps explain the different outlook of male vs. female and thus promotes far more harmony in marriage.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Don't Mistake Rheumatiz for Plain Old Arthritis

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Our family enjoys reading your short items . . . many a chuckle over your down to earth remarks, writes Mrs. N. C. G. I'm sure that what my doctor thinks is "arthritis" is really rheumatism, because it acts so much like what my mother had before the days of arthritis . . . (Mrs. N. C. G.)

Mrs. G. is not quite so patronizing as a good many others who are mildly amused by my remarks concerning chronic joint disability, but she makes it plain that she doesn't take my teachings or advice seriously.

The lady informs me that she "tried" some capsules for two whole weeks and could not see that they did any good. Evidently she assumes I recommended the capsules. I didn't.

This is a bowling day, so I'm not going to call anyone knucklehead, wiseacre, geek or any other improper name—unless perchance some character on the green should get out of line. I must say, however, that Mrs. N. C. G's endeavor to humor me puts me out of humor—until I notice the lady refers to my short items. That may account for a good deal of the trouble with you poor souls.

When I submit my daily item, article, lesson, piece or contribution it is from one-half a column to a column long. If there's only a wee bit of space available, the office boy clips off the overlap and tells 'em to start the presses. No wonder my teachers are not easy to understand. There's a difference between what I write and what you read. And this makes me feel red in the face, for all the names I have called you long-suffering . . .

Well, now, let's forgive and forget and keep our fingers crossed and hope that this and the next paragraphs will be printed. The distinction between what I call rheumatiz and what most joint disability patients and their doctors call arthritis is this:

Rheumatiz is physical degeneration and arthritis is inflammation of the joint. In most instances of joint disability of more than a year's duration there is no evidence of inflammation, hence it is a mistake to treat it as arthritis (joint inflammation.)

Now, please, if you are subject to joint disability, don't assume that I recommend a remedy. I don't. Instead of "trying" something which you believe I recommend, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz.

I do not mean to say all chronic joint disability is rheumatiz. In a minority of such cases the trouble is really joint inflammation (arthritis) due to one or other specific infection—streptococcus, pneumococcus, staphylococcus, gonococcus, tubercle bacillus, syphilis germ, etc.

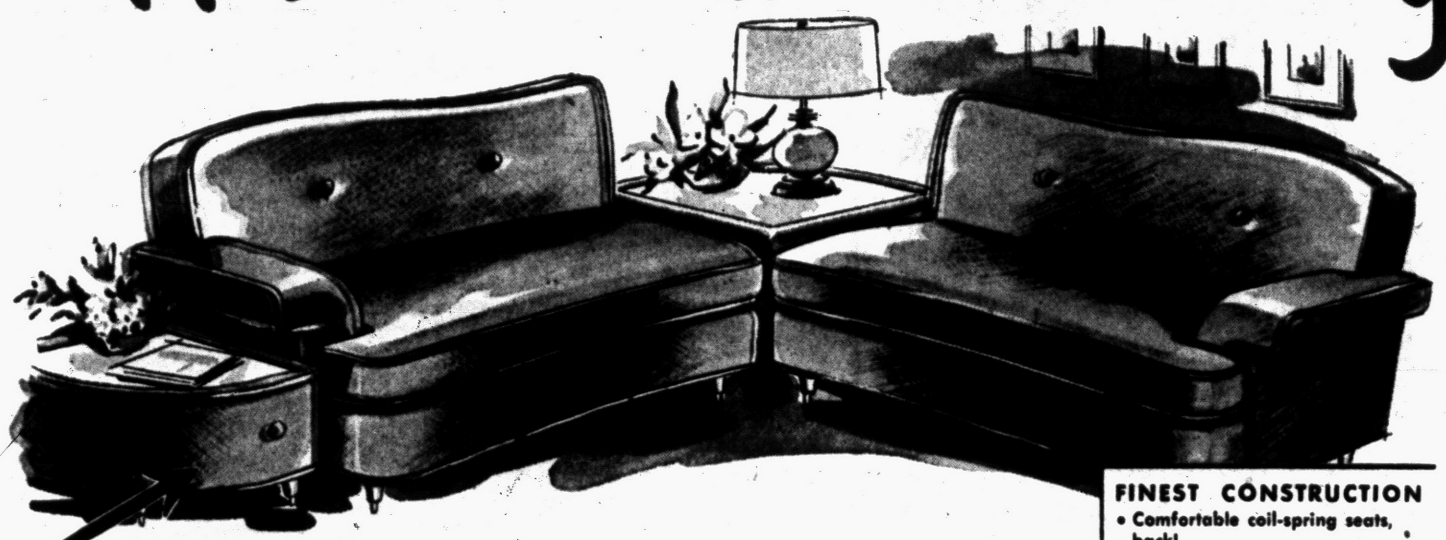

I do mean to imply that if your physician calls your trouble arthritis and proceeds to give this or that treatment without further effort to find out what ails you, he's just stringing you along.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Percy Always Rises With Sun

It's No Chore Because He's a Pyrheliometer With Mechanical Brain

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Getting up with the sun is no chore for Percy—he's a pyrheliometer hitched up to a mechanical brain. If Percy is one of the up-and-at-'em sort, its because his father, Dr. A. Richard Kassander of the University of Arizona's Atmospheric Physics Institute, is such a lazy fellow.

"With the increase in interest in using solar energy," Kassander said, "it was logically within our duty to begin recording the sun's energy. We didn't have much time to spend on it, so, strictly out of laziness, we made it automatic."

The device lives at the top of a pole, like many others of its kind throughout the nation. What makes Percy different is the fact that he's hitched to an adding machine. Kassander says its the only hookup of the kind in the world.

As the sun rises each day, Percy springs into action without a yawn. The device at the top of the mast catches the sun's rays, and sends down an electrical impulse that is converted by an electronic device into neat figures on the adding machine.

Every two minutes the adding machine totals up the amount of solar energy, then it marks a subtotal at the end of 20 minutes.

At the end of the day Percy total's the day's solar energy and turns in for the night.

Does such a devoted worker get a vacation on a cloudy day?

Not a chance, because the sun's energy comes through the clouds anyway and Percy is on the job measuring it.

U. S. production of aluminum grew from 164,000 tons in 1939 to 250,000 tons in 1953.

Keep Fingers Crossed, It's Friday the 13th

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Today is Friday the 13th, a day on which almost no one — except babies, lunatics and people who can't read calendars—seems able to act quite like himself.

Instead, he tends to act more like a baby, a lunatic or a person who can't read calendars.

Generally speaking, the population divides itself into two camps for celebrating Fridays the 13th. Or is it (this day I always get rattled) Friday these 13th?

First, there's the blow-hard, ho-ho ha-ha, you believe that old guff? camp. These are the people who go out of their way, poking around garages and new houses, in search of ladders to walk under.

When occasionally, a ladder drops on a ho-ho man, he explains that it was mere coincidence. This calls for admiration, as coincidence is a difficult word to get out, when prone.

The other big camp is the don't-call - me - superstitious - pal - but-no - sense - lookin' - for - trouble-is-there? group. These are the honest ones who face facts as good-naturedly as possible, and usually come out of the day with job and body intact, and only a mild case of indigestion.

Two Other Species

At either end of this group are two other species, both extremely rare: Those who cling to their beds in self defense, on Friday the 13th, and those who forget altogether what day it is, usually owing to extreme pressures from business or a member of the opposite sex.

There is only one person I know personally who can be classed with no other citizen on this particular day. She is a woman who positively rolls on the floor, laughing, when you mention the potential woes of the 13th. That agile, she is, and that amused.

Her name is Claudia De Lys, and she's the country's big 'expert on superstitions—the whys, wherefores and whodunens. The origin of Friday the 13th, she says, poking around in her gigantic file of dizzy dogmas, is about the silliest ever.

"The best-known theory on why Friday is an ill-fated day," she explains, "is that that is supposed to be the day Eve tempted Adam with the fatal apple. Now, honey, do you believe that?" Well, I said, now. . .

"There is also the story that Friday was named after Frigg (or Frigga), the Norse goddess of marriage. Later he was confused with the goddess of love, Freya, who in turn became identified with Friday," Claudia went on.

"When the Norsemen and Germanic tribes became Christians, Freya was supposed to have been banished to the mountains as a witch, and Friday came to be called 'Witches' Sabbath.' For it was believed that on this day each week, 12 witches and the devil met — 13 evil spirits, holding clubby little sessions on Friday.

"There you are," she said. "do you go for that?"

Miss De Lys further pointed out that the number 13 as an ill omen was even more loosely come by. The chief theory is: When man first learned to count, he added up his fingers, and counting his feet as two units, he came up with the number 12. Beyond that lay the vague, mysterious unknown—in the form of the number 13.

"Consider," said the expert, "what would have happened if men would have counted in their toes in that deal, instead of just their feet. Then 21 would have been the unknown, unlucky number.

"Just a matter of happenstance and ignorance, dear," she concluded. "Forget it."

Yeah, yeah, I told her, but what if Eve did give Adam the apple on a Friday?

Miss De Lys made as if to crack a mirror over my head, changed her mind because it was a good mirror, and led me to the door. "Keep your fingers crossed now," she said—and shoved.

More than 800,000 standard box cars would be required to load the annual U. S. production of paper and paperboard.

State Tourist Trade Expected to Improve

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's tourist season this summer should be better than last year, Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council, said today.

A slight drop in the tourist dollar volume was noted in Michigan last year.

Furlong said that at least 10 per cent more tourist inquiries have been received by the council than were received at this time last year.

Furlong said the success of the tourist season will depend a lot on two important factors.

One is the weather. Last year, he said, bad weather kept many early-summer tourists away.

The other factor, Furlong said, is the threat of a prolonged factory work stoppage.

"A spell of either," he said, "could result in a sharp drop in Michigan's 1955 summer business."

Bob Considine Says:

Did Bronx Citizen Inspire Raid on Tokyo?

NEW YORK (INS)—A recent note here to the effect that Jimmy Doolittle did not know the circumstances under which his historic bombing of Tokyo and other Japanese cities was inspired, except that the idea originated in the Navy Department, brings the following response:

"As you know, Pearl Harbor was attacked Dec. 7, 1941. I believe every red-blooded American was highly incensed at the havoc and destruction inflicted by this sneak attack. It remained for some plan to be formulated to retaliate as quickly as possible.

"Approximately two weeks later I conceived two plans which at first I hesitated but was enjoined to send to Washington. I hesitated because I felt the notes might be classified along with those from crackpots and be buried in a wastebasket.

"Plan one—two carriers were to be used, escorted by destroyers and cruisers. The destroyers were to encircle the carriers as they did when escorting convoys to Europe.

"One carrier was to advance to a point as near Japan as possible, launch its planes and withdraw immediately. After the planes left their calling cards they were to fly to the deck of the second carrier, at a pre-ordained spot.

From Sea to Land

"Plan two—the same maneuvering but for the exception that it was to be executed from sea to land, with the cooperation of a friendly nation. As you know, this phase was the one adopted.

"Even at the time of the raid I didn't think for an instant that my plan had been used. But when I saw the film 'Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo' I began to wonder, and I'm still wondering whether I might have conceived the operation.

"I sent two letters which contained this plan. One went to President Roosevelt and the other to Secretary Knox. I registered these at the post office. Mr. Stephen Early signed for the President and Mr. Knox himself signed the other receipt.

"A short time later I received a stereotyped letter from the Navy stating my plan was a good one but considered impracticable by Adm. Rice, who signed it. I never heard anything from the President.

'Might Have Been Mine'

"You must realize that up to this point I always felt the brass in our armed services were brilliant and could think up a plan as simple as this. Perhaps they did. I never did inquire whether it might have been mine.

"Your notation that Gen. Doolittle remains in the dark as to the origin of the raid plans prompts this letter. I would feel very proud if I only knew it was my very own plan which gave birth to the idea. My contribution to the war effort would certainly make me happy and proud."

The letter is signed Edward Leavy, 2472 Grand Ave., the Bronx, N.Y.C.

Who knows?

George Melas, Greek ambassador to the U.S., entered the diplomatic service of his country in 1915, was wounded in Asia Minor while fighting as a sergeant with the Greek army in 1921, was a delegate to the League of Nations, a member of Parliament from Athens, fought in the underground during the Nazi occupation, exposed the Communist murderers of George Polk, CBS commentator, and is a great friend of the U.S.

The other night at a reception at the Overseas Press Club Melas said, "People overseas have a fallacious and erroneous conception of the American people. They are convinced that there is too much concentration here on the dollar. I have found just the reverse here in this great country.

"High and low, your people are animated by spiritual qualities that seem to me unparalleled. To my mind, the ancient Greek ideals of democracy have found their most dynamic expression in the United States."

On John Daly's "Who Said That?" Groucho Marx told of asking his youngest daughter what she did all day in kindergarten. "We paint and go to the bathroom," the young lady replied steadily.

Sees Closed Circuit TV Aid in Teacher Shortage

DETROIT (AP)—The University of Detroit's president says closed-circuit television may offer a solution to skyrocketing college enrollments and a shortage of teachers.

"As realists," says the Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S.J., "we must be convinced that we will never be able to cope with the challenge of swelling enrollments ahead if we adhere to present conventional teaching methods. There simply won't be enough competent teachers."

No Shave for Shaver

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—Felix Vaughn got a haircut, then very seriously told R. A. McGee, the barber, "I don't want a shave." Felix is 3.

Convicted Tax Chief Critically Ill in Hospital

MANHASSET, N.Y. (AP)—Joseph D. Nunan Jr., 57, former boss of the nation's tax collectors, who is under a prison sentence as an income tax cheater, was on the critical list at Manhasset Hospital today. The nature of his ailment was not disclosed. He was admitted May 6.

Tennessee Girl Turns Out to Be Own Grandma

GREENEVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Thirteen-year-old Betty Louise Willis became her own grandmother recently—with her parents' consent.

She married Ed Earley who gave his age as "over 50." The girl's father and mother, Paul Willis and the former Mrs. Paul Willis, were divorced and then married, respectively, a daughter and a son of Earley.

So the bride became the mother-in-law of both her parents and, technically, her own grandmother.

In accordance with Tennessee law, the child's parents signed the license which made possible her marriage to Earley.

500 Delegates Attend Sessions

'Go Forth to Teach' Is Theme of Convention at First Christian Church

The Rev. Floyd A. Emshwiller, state president, gave the opening address last night at the 87th Annual Convention of Michigan Christian Churches being held at the First Christian Church.

Speaking on "Go Forth to Teach," he placed great emphasis on Christian Education. He stated that six million more people were born since the close of World War II than had been predicted and that men and women were living longer. Because of this, more and more workers are needed to teach and train this expanding population.

From "religious illiteracy" he added, comes such poisons as juvenile delinquency, immorality, broken homes, lack of purposeful living, emotional breakdowns, selfishness, strife and war.

To meet and overcome these needs, a live program must be developed, not just to destroy hate and prejudice but to build and plant love, brotherhood and the Spirit of Christ.

Prelude music was played by Mrs. Paul Colton and Francine Brown on the organ and piano, preceding the evening program.

The Rev. Duncan D. McColl, pastor, wellcomed the 500 delegates and the First Christian Choir provided special music.

Mrs. E. N. Boyd of Detroit, vice-president, presided over last night's assembly. Other state officers are Frank O. Kruger of Dowagiac, secretary and Lorand Anderson of Grand Rapids, treasurer.

Besides the morning and afternoon meetings today, the J. Frank Green Fellowship Dinner will be held at 5:30 at the Bethany Baptist Church to honor Mr. Green's 80th birthday and his 50 years of service to the Christian Church. The dinner will also honor others who have served 25 years in Michigan churches.

Ferndale Police Seek Knife-Wielding Man

A state-wide teletype was sent out by Ferndale Police for a knife-wielding motorist who attempted to rob another motorist returning home from work at 3 a. m. today.

Alerting other police departments for a red bottom, black top auto with two men, Detective Lt. Glen Silverthorn quoted the victim William Wilson, 52, of Detroit, as saying he beat off one of the men with a flashlight and sped away.

An information about the men, said Silverthorn, should be phoned to the Ferndale Police at LIncoln 1-3650. Police say the man is wanted for questioning about other similar robberies.

Friday the 13th Doesn't Worry Idaho Postman

ROBERTS, Idaho (AP)—Friday the 13th unlucky? Ha! says Leo Chehey, a mail carrier in Roberts.

He lives on 13th Street. He was married on Friday the 13th. After 13 years of marriage, he became a father. He was in the 13th Division during World War I.

His car license number is 13. He is a former president of the District Wildlife Assn., which embraces 13 eastern Idaho counties. And in a roundabout way, he was named for Popep Leo XIII.

During the period 1920-1950, the population of the United States increased 42 per cent.

Water Study Bill Out of Committee

A bill to enable the Oakland County area to obtain state financial aid for a water-resource study was reported out of the House State Affairs Committee yesterday.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), has already passed the Senate. House debate on the plan was expected to start late today.

"It should allow Oakland to join with other counties and the state in conducting a ground and surface water study which would be the first step in solving long-range water needs," said Broomfield.

Dulles in Vienna to Sign Austrian Independence Treaty

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dulles arrived in jubilant Vienna today to sign the Austrian treaty of independence. It was a gratifying moment for the American diplomat, who had insisted the ambassadors of the Big Four powers reach agreement on treaty terms before the foreign ministers meet for the actual signing.

Late yesterday, the Russians accepted a compromise solution offered by the West on a key issue of economic concessions, and the way was cleared for the signing on Sunday of a treaty to give Austria's seven million people full freedom after 17 years of military occupation.

In an airport statement, Dulles said:

"I have traveled to many capitals on many missions. Never have I felt more satisfaction than I now feel in coming to Vienna to sign the treaty which at long last will make Austria free and independent."

Some Viennese Celebrate

Some Viennese began to celebrate last night. But most of this Alpine nation's seven million population reacted slowly after 17 years of military occupation—7 under the Nazis and 10 under the wartime Allies.

Within three months of the treaty ratification, the 70,000 occupation troops of the Big Four will be withdrawn and Austria's freedom will be complete.

• • •

East and West haggled for years over the treaty. As late as Monday the Russians precipitated a last-minute deadlock by refusing to write into the treaty reparations concessions they had promised earlier. Last night they finally yielded to Western insistence.

The treaty provides for Austrian independence and sovereignty and the withdrawal of occupation forces. It sets the nation's boundaries at those existing before the 1938 Anschluss, the forced union with Hitler's Reich.

The economic concessions Moscow finally agreed to put in the treaty include return of the great Zisterdorf oil fields and the Danube Shipping Co. to Austria. As reparations, Austria will supply Russia with a million tons of oil annually for 10 years. She will also pay the Soviets 150 million dollars in goods, instead of cash for 300 concerns which, like the oil fields and the shipping company, were seized by the Nazis and taken over by the Soviets at the end of World War II.

In the daily negotiations by the four powers' ambassadors, under way here since May 2, the Russians also agreed to take out of the treaty a clause which would have permitted teams from Communist countries to enter Austria at will to persuade refugees from communism to return to their homelands.

Three Ministers in Paris

All three Western ministers have been in Paris for the NATO Council meeting welcoming West Germany to the Atlantic Alliance. Dulles originally had planned to come to Vienna yesterday, but delayed his departure when the ambassadors still were deadlocked on the reparations clause. Many observers believed the Russians finally gave in because they feared the American secretary wouldn't come at all otherwise.

• • •

As Dulles departed for Vienna, Macmillan and Pinay scheduled separate plane departures.

Molotov is scheduled to arrive in Vienna Saturday from Warsaw, where the East European Communist states are setting up a unified military command to counter the Western defense alliance.

The four ministers are expected to have a dinner meeting Saturday night. Observers said it was likely they would bring up then the proposed meeting of President Eisenhower and the government heads of Britain, France and Russia.

The ministers while here, may decide where—and when—to hold the top-level meeting. They are also due to take up the possibly thorny question of guaranteeing Austrian neutrality, which the ambassadors sidestepped in their talks.

Plan Nationwide Festivities

Today the Austrian government planned nationwide festivities to accompanying the historic signing in Vienna's Baroque 18th Century Belvedere Palace.

• • •

Flags will fly from public buildings. Every homeowner throughout the land was asked to decorate his house.

Vienna's Lord Mayor Franz Jonas asked every orchestra in the city to play the national anthem at the hour for the signing. He planned to muster all the bands for the biggest concert ever in the capital's main square that night.

Communism's Iron Hand Clutches Vietnamese

Vietminh Take Over Haiphong

New Existence Code Immediately Goes Into Effect

HAIPHONG, North Indochina (AP)—The iron hand of communism clamped down on the lives of 13 million Vietnamese in North Indochina today.

Vietminh troops took over control of the seaport of Haiphong from the French — their last big territorial gain under the Geneva peace settlement — and a new code of existence immediately went into effect.

Sound trucks broadcast an order that all who had helped and supported the French and Vietnamese must report at once to the nearest police station.

• • •

The chill order, an abrupt change in an apparently lenient Vietminh attitude before the march into Haiphong, started hundreds of Vietnamese in hurried flight to the docks.

• • •

Other stern Vietminh orders followed quickly over blaring sound truck speakers.

Haiphong's people were instructed to stay in their homes until 8 p.m.

They were told when they could walk on which streets.

They were instructed to go to banks and change their Vietnamese piastres into Vietminh dong, at 40 dong for one piastre.

They were ordered to appear Saturday for the "victory parade" and instructed to cheer.

They were told of taxes they must pay.

• • •

They were told French colonialism was dead forever and that the people's great enemy now was "American imperialism."

• • •

The sound trucks, moving ahead of grim soldiers shouldering rifles with fixed bayonets, blared the first chilling order:

"Every person who collaborated with the French and Vietnamese forces must report immediately to the nearest police station."

News of the order, first heard in the northwest part of the city, spread quickly. Hundreds of Vietnamese streamed to the Haiphong docks in a last-minute rush to flee Red rule.

Most were Vietnamese who apparently had wavered on making their choice to flee or to try to live under Red rule.

The Vietminh order threatened imprisonment or death for thousands. If they did not denounce themselves, they could never know when others would.

• • •

Thousands of Vietnamese had worked and helped in dozens of ways while Haiphong was the wartime port of entry for mountains of U.S. war supplies sent to the French—before the fall of Dien Bien Phu and the surrender of North Viet Nam at the Geneva conference.

Some 8,000 French troops were massing on the Do Son Peninsula, southeast of the port. The last French foothold in North Indochina, it must be evacuated by Monday. Withdrawal of these troops will complete the Vietminh occupation of all North Viet Nam.

There had been cheers in Haiphong when the green-clad Vietminh troops started into the city.

But fear was in the faces of those who decided quickly to flee. Walking or pedaling bicycle carts, they lugged what they hastily scraped together—food baskets, clothing and household furniture.

They were leaving centuries-old homes and rice lands.

• • •

At the docks there were joyful shouts from those boarding landing craft in escape from fear. The French-manned landing craft took them eastward to Do Son Peninsula. There U.S. Navy transports waited to take them to South Viet Nam.

In the shift from French to Vietminh rule, Haiphong was under a strict French curfew to prevent looting.

BEAT THE HEAT — As the first hot days of what promised to be a long summer arrived in Dallas, Tex., one dairy decided it was time something should be done for their route delivery men to help spare them some of the misery the heat brings. The result: Bermuda shorts and knee-length socks, modeled here for Dallas housewives Mrs. Tom Grimes and Mrs. F. F. Kennedy by milkman Cal Hager.

Founders Day Ceremonies Set Sunday at Cranbrook

Founders Day ceremonies held annually by the six Cranbrook institutions in memory of the late newspaper publisher, George G. Booth, and his wife, Ellen Scripps Booth will take place this Sunday.

The day-long observances will begin at 11:15 a.m. with a special re-dedication service in Christ Church Cranbrook.

At 12:30 p.m. William Schultz, Jr., head of the Cranbrook School Science department, will name the arts and science building in memory of the late Dr. Rudolph Lindquist, in a short observance which his widow, now resident of Santa Barbara, Calif., is expected to attend.

Dr. Lindquist, nationally-prominent educator for many years, served as headmaster of Cranbrook from 1938 to 1943. During this period he initiated plans for construction of the school's art and science building.

A luncheon for officers and board members of the Cranbrook Institutions and their husbands and wives is scheduled for 1 p.m., in the Cranbrook Institute of Science.

At 2:30 p.m. an outdoor program on the plaza north of Brookside School will honor Michael Vettraino, gardener, who has completed fifty years of service in helping to create and maintain the beauty of Cranbrook grounds.

Special guests expected to attend the latter ceremony are The Hon. Antonio Carioni, Italian Consul in Detroit, and James Holden, prominent local philanthropist.

A Founders Day tea for the graduating groups of Kingswood, Cranbrook and Brookside Schools and the Academy of Art will be held at 3 o'clock in Cranbrook House.

Home, Garden Club Battles 'Litterbugs'

Pontiac's Better Home and Garden Club, long active in helping to make the city a greener place, has now begun a campaign to eliminate "Litterbugs," those characters who strew litter about the streets.

"Don't Be a Litterbug" signs and posters appearing on bulletin boards and on city cars were distributed by the club.

According to Mrs. Fred Bohlman, 298 S. Anderson St., club president, purpose of the campaign is to:

1. Create a public awareness of litter and of the individual's responsibility for it.

2. Stimulate widespread public participation in cleaning up existing litter.

3. Prevent future litter by a combination of education, public opinion pressure and law enforcement.

The club's newest endeavor coincides with the Junior Chamber of Commerce's "Clean-up, Fix-up, Paint-up Week," now in progress.

Over the past 10 years, the club has spent $1,400 for shrubs and plants which the City Parks and Recreation Dept. has planted on South Woodward boulevard.

Pontiac Guardsmen Plan Field Training

Members of Pontiac's 107th Ordnance Company, National Guard, will spend Saturday and Sunday on a field training problem at the Detroit Sportsmen's Congress Horseshoe Lake grounds near Oxford.

Spokesmen for the unit said the men will be given training in field sanitation, first aid, preliminary rifle instruction, general bivouac procedure and mess operations.

The company will leave the Water street Armory at 3 p.m. Saturday in the unit's vehicles and are scheduled to return at about 3 p.m. Sunday.

Southeastern Michigan Junior Achievers Hold Annual Celebration Thursday

Some 3,800 Junior Achievers from Southeastern Michigan last night were urged to tell other youngsters the lesson they had learned from their JA activities: "Each individual can shape his own future."

Noble D. Travis, vice president of the Detroit Trust Co. and president of the JA board of directors, who gave the advice, also congratulated the young achievers at the Future Unlimited celebration which ended the year's JA activities.

"This is a big business," he said. "You tackled a big job and did it well."

Travis said JA provided a place where youngsters could learn "it is not a sin to make a profit."

System Misunderstood

"Our economic system has been grossly misunderstood and attacked," he continued. "Our economy can and must survive but it cannot continue without support from all and respect for it."

Travis called upon the high school-age youngsters to pass on to non-JA members the lesson that "each individual can shape his own future with his own two hands."

"I am sure," he concluded, "you will grow into men and women who will exert a positive force for tomorrow."

Pontiac Firm Honored

One Pontiac JA firm and two from Birmingham were among the first place local industry award winners.

Receiving the plastics division award for Plastico, sponsored by GMC Truck & Coach Division, was Larry Decker, 17-year-old company president, who lives at 267 Elizabeth Lake Rd.

Wee-Ma-Kit, a Birmingham company sponsored by Detrex Corp., won the award in the chemical field. President Dick Martin, 18, of 533 Bennaville, Birmingham, accepted the honor.

Top area company in the advertising field was the J-Ad Company, sponsored by the Birmingham Eccentric. The award was presented to company head Ted Donay, 18, of 374 Ferndale, Birmingham.

City Youngster Wins

A Pontiac youngster, Ed Bonner, of 59 Delaware Dr., was winner of a junior executive award. He is president of the Sojac Company, sponsored by the Standard Oil Co.

A dozen JA companies operated in Pontiac this year and all made money.

Last night's wind-up affair, held at the Masonic Temple, was under the chairmanship of Ross Roy, president of Ross Roy, Inc. advertising agency.

Junior Achievement began in Southeastern Michigan in 1949 with 630 members and 63 companies. This year, there were 4,700 members and 236 companies.

Business and industry have raised $215,000 for next year's program in which between 5,000 and 6,000 youngsters are expected to operate 325 JA firms.

PRESSing Questions:

City Residents Recall VE Day 10 Years Ago

Ten years ago today, the earth shattering roar of cannon had ceased—machineguns and rifles stood silent—death-dealing bombers and fighter planes no longer roamed the skies in search of industrial and human targets—the war was over in Europe. It was VE day plus five.

For the first time since the United States was drawn into armed conflict to preserve the American way of life, mud-spattered GIs, pilots, engineers, sailors and civilians could look to the future, make plans—could see the end of the war.

Now the tremendous Allied armed might could be launched against tottering Japan.

What were the thoughts of Americans at this hour? What was the spontaneous reaction to the best news from the war front in years?

Here is what a few Pontiac residents, all involved in the conflict, the uncertainty, the heartaches in man's greatest war, were doing.

MRS. MAZZA

All of us now know the courage each fighting man must muster when he is called upon to defend his home. Some of us perhaps forget the role of the mother, wife, and other loved ones who wait at home.

One such person was Mrs. Veronica Mazza, whose husband, James, now 33, was serving with the Army Corps of Engineers in Europe when the German forces surrendered.

"I was so happy, I nearly cried," Mrs. Mazza recalled. "I was in New York State when I heard the news. At the time I was driving Army trucks from Pontiac to other spots in the country. My husband had been away for about two years, and I was really happy to hear that at last he was coming home," she said.

The Mazzas live at 627 E. Madison Ave. She is a discount teller in a downtown bank.

WELCH

Bruce M. Welch, of Keego Harbor, a fingerprint technician at the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept., recalled he was aboard a Navy attack transport in the Pacific Ocean when the news blared from one of the ship's inter-communications systems.

"We had just left Iwo Jima with a load of wounded Marines en route to another island—when that news came over the box, at least 15,000 hats went sailing overboard. Needless to say everyone aboard was overjoyed," Welch concluded.

STONE

Navy Chief Hospitalman Stanford Stone, veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict could only say "that's only half of it" when he and his wife, Burdeen, heard the news at the Portsmouth, Va., Navy Yard.

STRAIT

Stone, currently serving with the Navy as one of the local reserve unit's stationkeepers, had just arrived back in the States after serving at Guadalcanal, Tulagi and New Brtain as a Marine medical corpsman.

"I had only been home two days from flying for the Army Air Corps Air Transport Command when the news came through," Noyce Strait Jr., 31, Pontiac insurance executive said, recalling that he was "stunned but happily so" at the news.

Strait, who lives at 412 W. Iroquois Rd., had just completed an 18-month tour in the Pacific theater.

A spot check of veterans here found many in hospital beds recovering from wounds, others on remote but peaceful islands, still others were being trained in camps here and abroad.

These then were the reactions and thoughts of some who were close to war a decade ago.

The Bride Wore Levis...

Garbed in identical cowboy costumes, a young Dodge City, Kan., couple was married in a unique Western-style, horseback wedding. Several thousand spectators at Dodge City's sixth annual Boot Hill Free Fiesta watched, heard the ceremony over the public address system and applauded the newlyweds. They were Harold Worthey and the former Dorothy Beck. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. B. B. Hinkson, who recalled how, in pioneer days, it was the traveling preacher who rode horseback to various western communities, before churches were established in them, who frequently married frontier couples. A cowboy band played the wedding march.

"WITH THIS RING . . ." says Harold Worthey as he slips the wedding ring on Dorothy Beck's finger. At left is Del Shroyer, best man. Officiating, at right, is Rev. Hinkson.

THOUSANDS CHEERED as smack of the nuptial kiss was heard over the microphone in Dodge City's McCarty Stadium.

Embroiders Ike Medieval Style

Spanish Artisan to Give Unusual Portrait on Silk to President in Person

SAN SEBASTIAN (INS)—A Spanish woman, expert in an almost forgotten medieval style of embroidery, will present President Eisenhower a portrait containing millions of stitches.

The artist, Miss Maria Luz Albisu, stitched 13 hours a day for six months to complete the portrait. It is now on exhibit in San Sebastian.

The circular portait gives the President an unusual grin, but otherwise is lifelike.

The sea, fields, the Statue of Liberty and symbols of American industry appear in the background. On the gold and velvet border there are the 48 stars and the shields of the United States and Spain.

"Millions" of Stitches

The portrait is of Iranian silk woven in Paris.

Although the embroidery measures only one foot in diameter, Miss Albisu calculates it contains "millions" of stitches. She said she spent about 1,950 hours working at it.

One of Franco, Too

Miss Albisu had made a similar portrait of Generalissimo Francisco Franco. This was seen by Mrs. Nina Berrosteguieta, an American citizen resident in San Sebastian.

Mrs. Berrosteguieta, a friend of the President's wife, told Mrs. Eisenhower of the Franco portrait and brought back from Washington a photo of the President and a request to copy it.

Miss Albisu, a 35-year-old teacher of sewing in Villafranca de Oria, a small industrial town, hopes to go to Washington to present the portrait in a month.

Hal Boyle Says:

Zest for Living Radiates From Burl Ives

NEW YORK (AP)—"Man, there are so many things to do, I'd like to live 10 lives," said big Burl Ives, contentedly unrolling a battleship signal flag.

The red and white flag was as tall as Ives, the folk singer who became a dramatic star as "Big Daddy" in the Pulitzer prize play, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof."

* * *

Burl, who doesn't own even a rowboat at present, bought a complete set of battleship flags at a sale of government surplus supplies. Wrapping one of the flags around his 290-pound bulk, he said cheerfully:

"I've always wanted a set of ship signal flags, although I really don't need 'em battleship size. Now I got 40 of 'em. Do you think maybe I could get a seamstress to turn some of 'em into sport shirts?"

The huge old-fashioned apartment in which Burl and his wife Helen, live with his 6-year-old son, Alexander, is crowded with souvenirs of his travels.

"Isn't this a wonderful thing to split a head open with?" inquired Burl, holding up a Maori war club from New Zealand. "And how do you like these parade drums I picked up for 12 bucks apiece? Gonna make 'em into lamps. Got 'em at another government surplus sale. You can't beat those surplus sales for bargains. Never can tell what you'll be able to pick up."

* * *

Burl walked over and patted on the head two drowsy looking wooden ship figureheads.

"This one is Vasco da Gama, and the other is Pocahontas," he said. "Seen a lot of salt water, these babies. Got 'em both in England during my last concert tour.

"I bring junk home from all over the world. Helen complains about it, but after it's here a while she gets so she likes it as much as I do."

* * *

Burl settled back comfortably in a big overstuffed couch. The phone rang.

"Let it ring," he said. "I don't like to talk on the phone."

The phone bell died into silence.

"I like sailing," Burl said. "If I didn't have to earn a living I'd spend the rest of my life riding around on a boat.

"That's the trouble with this world. Life is too short. You're lucky if you can get one thing done, let alone all the things you want to."

* * *

"I've got all kinds of hobbies," he went on. "I like to write books, and I've always wanted to own a dude ranch. I was going to buy me a Western ghost town some years back, but there turned out to be too many on the market. Couldn't make up my mind.

"I'd also like to own a goat cheese farm. I had 28 goats once in California. They call 'em eating goats there, and they use 'em to clear the land. They'll eat practically anything that grows.

* * *

"I got so interested in those goats I even wrote a novel about them. You know most animals can be disciplined through fear.

"But the buck goat is an exception. He'll fight you until he dies. You have to win him by affection.

"I could sit among those goats for hours doing nothing but watching them.

* * *

"But the Indian is the only man civilized enough to find happiness just sitting and watching goats eat. I'd like to get me some Indian herders and some goats and really go into the goat cheese business. I'd get me some electric milking equipment and put it on a jeep, and milk the goats from the jeep."

Burl is a happy fat man who says he has no fears, few worries, and keeps so placidly busy he rarely finds life boring.

"People are the only thing that can ever bore you if you keep your mind busy," he said.

* * *

Ives says he has only two major theatrical goals left now. He'd like to play Falstaff sometime, and he'd like to make a world tour with a cameraman and soundman and record all kinds of national folk music and dances.

"But right now I'm learning to ride a new Italian motor scooter. It's more fun than a Rolls-Royce."

There may be somebody on Broadway who gets more zest out of living than Burl Ives. If there is—he's keeping it to himself.

Pastor Collects 20 Items From Weeds to Buttons

COOPERSVILLE, Mich. (AP)—They say every man should have a hobby, but consider the Rev. J. Lawrence Ward—he has 20 hobbies.

The Rev. Mr. Ward keeps pretty busy as pastor of the Coopersville-Ravenna Methodist Churches. But in his spare time he collects things, all kinds of things.

He has weed seeds, alligator eggs, rough and polished rocks, Indian relics, birds' eggs, old and new money, minerals, stamps, butterflies, moths, spiders, beetles, buttons, matchbook covers, milk bottle caps, antique dishes, poster stamps, sea shells, music, bird feathers and bird-banding equipment.

But the Rev. Mr. Ward doesn't collect just for the sake of collecting. He believes his hobbies help in his life's work as a minister.

He explains:

* * *

"I am often asked how I find time to work at so many different hobbies. Part of my explanation lies in the fact that from my nature studies I have developed several good object lessons for teaching spiritual truths."

Fish Offers Example

As an example, he cites a large jar containing the Portuguese Man O' War fish.

"With its a beautifully colored floating bubble on the surface and poisonous tentacles below the surface," he said, "it easily becomes a symbol for sin."

The pastor was only a small boy when he began collecting feathers. Then came related hobbies—birds' eggs and nests and bird-banding. He has banded 3,000 birds of 79 different species and has 70 settings of birds' eggs.

While wandering on his father's farm, he found a gravel pit and picked up some interesting looking stones. Soon he was cutting and polishing stones for jewelry settings.

He also found some Indian relics and now has 500 items in that collection alone.

Over 7,000 Buttons

In one of his newest collections, the Rev. Mr. Ward has over 7,000 different buttons.

* * *

He believes young people might be interested in weed collection. He recommends it as a beginning hobby because free government pamphlets are available to help in classifying and "it's cheap to maintain."

Building Deer Ramps

EPHRATA, Wash. (UP)—The state game department will build escape ramps from Columbia Basin irrigation project canals for deer which accidentally fall in while drinking water. Last year 97 deer were known to have drowned in the canals and another 14 escaped, usually with human help, after falling in.

UM Expands Scope of Phoenix Project

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Twelve additional research studies in the University of Michigan's Memorial-Phoenix project have been announced, pushing the total of such projects over 100.

Among the new projects, all of them dealing with the peacetime uses of atomic energy, will be one by Dr. Robert J. Bolt, assistant professor of internal medicine and research associate of the Institute of Industrial Health.

Dr. Bolt will investigate "ration of blood volume." What he hopes to find are means to tag the blood with slightly radioactive substances in order to trace the blood.

"It is hoped," Dr. Bolt said, "that the method will afford an accurate appraisal of the amount of blood loss in cases of (internal) bleeding (from ulcers and cancers)."

Doctors could then determine accurately how much plasma, red blood cells and total fluid must be replaced, he said.

Other projects are planned into tissue culture sterilization, radiocarbon dating and anemia.

Hottest news in Hardtops is the 4-Door Riviera

Why take anything less than the sensation of the year?

WHEN you learn what's been done in the automobile pictured here, you can easily see why this beauty is winning rave notices coast to coast.

Buick engineers took the hardtop body design that has been growing tremendously in popularity over the past six years—and gave it four doors instead of two.

Simple? Sure—to all outward appearances.

But it took a brand-new kind of body with wholly new structural principles to do it—to bring this long-awaited new kind of automobile to the public in volume numbers and at popular prices.

For this is a true hardtop—with the sleek and racy look of a Convertible, because there are no center posts in the window areas on either side.

And now it has front doors for the front-seat passengers—and rear doors for the rear-seat passengers—plus room increased to the size of a full Sedan.

(It took some special kind of engineering magic, you can be sure, to hinge all four doors at their forward edges for greater safety, and more ease of entering and exiting.)

So it looks like Buick has scooped the industry again—and come up with the hottest news in hardtops since Buick originated the very first two-door hardtop six years ago.

HOTTEST NEWS IN AUTOMATIC DRIVES IS VARIABLE PITCH DYNAFLOW

It's the world's first transmission with the switch-pitch principle of the modern airplane's variable pitch propeller. You get better gas mileage in cruising. You switch the pitch just by pressing the gas pedal—and get lightning-like response for getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of accelerating power. It's the performance thrill of the year. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Series at no more extra cost than earlier versions of this wonder drive.

And you can have it now—in the low-price SPECIAL or the supremely-powered CENTURY—and either one at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door.

Drop in on us today—this week, for sure—and see how easily and how quickly one can be yours.

Frisky Elbe Vets Shock Moscow

Guards Stand Gghast as Visiting GIs Clamber Over Kremlin Shrine

MOSCOW (INS)—Former American GI's shocked their Soviet hosts yesterday by clambering upon the pedestal of a Kremlin landmark—czarist at that—to pose for photographs.

Startled Kremlin guards stood open-mouthed when six of the nine veterans of the historic Elbe River linkup in 1945 climbed four feet up the pedestal of the 20-foot Czar bell which is never rung and which has a nine-foot crack in it.

A security officia accompanying the party, which included a group of Soviet veterans and Russian journalists and photographers, gasped and started to motion the Americans to get down from their perch.

Then they shrugged and refrained but this correspondent heard mutterings of "ni kulturny," ("not cultured").

It was obvious that the Russians did not know quite how to take the exuberance of the touring Americans in the Kremlin, which is a Soviet historical shrine which few Russians get a chance to visit.

When Russians do get inside they speak in hushed tones amid the relics of past Russian glories.

Later the Americans were to meet the highest-ranking Russian they have yet visited, chief of staff Mikhail Sokolovsky who arranged a reception for them.

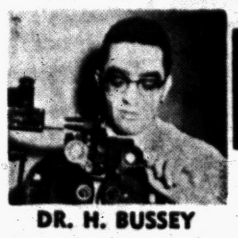

Adjust to Consumer, Farmers Advised

EAST LANSING (UP) — Improved marketing is one of the solutions to farm problems but a marketing system "cannot work magic," a federal agricultural official believes.

William C. Crow, of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, told a marketing clinic at Michigan State College Wednesday, "Marketing cannot produce outlets for products people don't want.

"Determine what the consumer wants and adjust production to his wants, and improve grades and standards so they reflect consumer preferences," he said.

Scelba Battles Strife in Party

Italian Premier Stays in Office When President Rejects Resignation

ROME (AP) — Premier Mario Scelba set about clearing up strife in his party today to save his 15-month-old government.

His stay in office was continued last night when the new Italian President, left-inclined Giovanni Gronchi, rejected his resignation. By custom, premiers always submit a resignation to a new president.

* * *

Gronchi's election April 29 rocked Scelba and his center coalition government. Although the new President is a member of the Premier's Christian Democratic party, he advocates bringing more leftists into the government. Scelba had backed another candidate.

* * *

Scelba's retention of the premiership was assured by statements of continued support Wednesday from the two minority parties in his coalition, Vice Premier Giuseppe Saragat's Right-Wing Socialists and the Liberals.

Husband Gets the Bird to Lure Estranged Wife

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A Navy shipyards worker got the bird and his wife seeks a divorce, but neither is exactly happy.

George Michael wanted the bird, Pretty Boy, a parakeet, but he says he also wants his wife, Betty-Jo, who accused him of mental cruelty.

* * *

"I figure that if I can keep the bird she'll come back to me," he told Superior Judge Joe Raycraft yesterday. "She loves that bird."

"I love Pretty Boy, but if I went back to George for the sake of the bird, it wouldn't be saying much for me," his wife replied.

Mrs. Michael was granted visitation rights at the predivorce hearing.

Poetic Junk Dealer Spurs Court Action

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — The following advertisement appeared in a Baltimore suburban newspaper May 12:

"The law don't allow no junk yard here
But we don't care what the law don't allow
We run a junk yard anyhow."

The Anne Arundel County Board of Commisisoners, taking note of the advertisement, voted to ask for an immediate ruling from the Court of Appeals on whether or not Henry J. Lacque Jr., the junkyard operator, was guilty of violating the zoning laws or not. Lacque's appeal of a zoning law conviction has been pending with the Court of Appeals for some time.

Prom Preparations Are Keeping Committeemen Going in Circles

All of the year's most important activities seem to be taking place now or to be coming up in the near future. Added to the anticipation of these approaching affairs was the distribution of awards and certificates this week.

Recently all the St. Michael students, grades 7 to 12 inclusive, spent time writing essays for the A.D.F. Essay Contest which is held annually in all Catholic schools in this area, the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Faculty and students alike are proud of Louis Schneider, grade 8, who succeeded in winning a $25 prize in the junior divison of this contest.

The senior division writers of the best essays, here at St. Mikes, and winners of Rosaries are seniors Marcee Hill, Mary Ann Meyer, Daniel Pruente, David Smith, and Robert Anderson; juniors Patricia Lane, Mary Ann Lane, Michael Clever, and James Brucker; sophomores Annette Couture, Charles Brown, Cecilia Page, Kenneth Rogers, and Patricia Martin.

Junior division winners of Rosaries included Jacqueline Lambert and Betty Cronan, both freshmen; Michael McCulloch and Elaine Farrell from the eighth grade and Blaine Hiscock and Marilyn Biallas, grade seven.

We are equally proud of all these students who were able to produce essays worthy of recognition.

The Junior-Senior Prom, which is to be held Wednesday, has the juniors in a whirl of last minute preparations. As always there seems to be more to do than time will allow but the skillful hands of our juniors on the decorating and refreshment committees are swiftly overcoming all obstacles.

Members of these committees are Mary Hubarth, Jean Shaw, Joan Wiegandt, Mary Lee Tunny, Mary Ann Lane, Rosemary Haak, Janet English, Colleen McEnery, Gloria Vizza, Patricia Lane, Patricia Schertzer, Dolores Cook, Frances Hayes, Jeanette Ganje, Margaret Bateman, Marcia Kramer, Ruth Coleman and Judy Marentette.

Shirley Fox, Pat Hayden, Rebecca Vitasinski, Pat Seass, Elaine Neussendorfer, Mary Singles, Janice Sears, Miriam Harrington, Ronald Mead, James Daugherty, Tom McIsaac, William Bookie, Dennis Carroll, James Fitzgerald, and Rose Weishaar.

From now on any one hurt unexpectedly should come to any biology student who will now be capable of caring for him. Sixty juniors received certificates from the American Red Cross upon completion of the standard course of instruction in First Aid to the injured.

Time to Order Caps, Gowns

Rushed Students Leave Sunday for Camp-Out; B.I.E. Day This Week

Seniors the latter part of the week breathed a sigh of relief as preliminary final exams were finished Wednesday. Now, busily ordering caps and gowns, brains buzz with thoughts of what to wear and who to take as the senior prom is sneaking up on them.

Worn blue jeans and sweat shirts will be the thing as aspiring PHS campers leave Sunday for Sleeper State Park. Fifty-three students bid the confines of PHS good-by for a week and take to the outdoors. A number of the faculty will go along too, acting as counselors, and getting to know the students better and vice-versa.

Next Tuesday students will be taking a minor vacation due to B.I.E. Day (Business, Industry, and Education). Teachers will tour local places of business, while students take (what they believe) a well-earned rest. On B.I.E. Day members of the Tomahawk staff are planning a picnic to Cass-Dodge.

May 7, 48 Latin students traveled by bus to "Anchor Lee," cottage of Latin instructor, Miss Iama C. Hook. There they spent a full day hiking, swimming, and eating, returning home late Saturday evening.

More clubs and organizations are the annual affair June 1 at the planning picnics, as has the Future Nurses Club. They will hold home of adviser, Mrs. Agnes Buckley, on Cass Lake. There, graduating seniors will be honored. Heading committees will be Audrey Tinkis on foods, with Lois Bartles taking care of transportation.

Plans are also in the air for a picnic to be held by the Projectionists Club sometime in June. Recently the club held their monthly meeting with president Dick Gavette appointing a nominating committe for next year's officers. The committee consists of Gary Montgomery, Martha Machnauer and Bruce Reh.

The Lab Assistants will take a vacation from test tubes and sulfuric acid as they hold their annual picnic June 2.

The Radio Workshop next week will present on Monday "Plants Are Really Factories," with Dick Ramsdell announcing, and cast including Esther Diem, JoAnn Van Tassel, and Beverly Carrie. On Wednesday on "It's Story Time," the story of "The Biggest Bear" will be presented.

Barbara Kenny will be story princess, with the cast including JoAnn Van Tassel, Jackie Pyle, Charles Williams, and Ken Lenigan. Sound will be handled by Jackie Pyle, Cecille Dumbrigue, and Donna Brosted, with Sharon Holland providing the music.

Members of the Linnean Society, PHS biology club, will attend the annual state science fair of the Junior Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters at Hillsdale College. Those atending and submitting projects are Saida Tuttle, Darlene Strange. Constantene Sousanes, Gary Van Ryzin, Melvin White, Bill Hertel, and Douglas Bartlett.

Names of Fame at PHS

A number of PHS students have won for themselves fame in recent days. Suzanne Danner, junior, recently was chosen queen of the 3rd annual skate queen contest at the Rolladium skating rink.

Senior Harold Richards took top honors in the all-city senior high schools division of the annual American Legion Essay Contest, winning for himself the tidy sum of five dollars.

In the 9th annual Walker Poster Company, John Larson, junior, beat out other contestants with his poster on the subject of Sucrets, it was announced at an awards assembly held Tuesday. He received $25 for his efforts. Anton Sumpson, also a junior, received $15 for his poster advertising Chevrolet, with E. Thyme Safford on E-Z Pop popcorn winning $10. Six other students received cash awards of $5 for honorable mention.

Wednesday Night Dance Club Holds Final Event

Many gathered for the final dinner dance of the season held by Wednesday Night Dance Club at Oakland Hills Country Club. Seated at the table (left to right, foreground) were Mrs. Jack Strait of Mohawk road, Mrs. Edward Barrett of Ottawa drive and Mr. Barrett. In the background (left to right) are Mr. Strait, Mrs. Robert Glenn of Preston avenue and Mr. Glenn.

Gathering Follows Patriotic Theme

Junior Pontiac Women's Club didn't need the excuse of the Fourth of July to honor Janice Antona for her citizenship class.

The club carried out a patriotic theme at its recent meeting at the YWCA on Franklin boulevard, right down to the speakers who represented Miss Antona's class.

It was Miss Antona who was appointed by Mayor William Donaldson to attend the Conference of Good Citizenship held last summer in Washington, D.C.

For the past 20 years she has conducted her class for newcomers to this country and especially to Pontiac, acquainting them with fundamentals of a democratic form of government, and making them feel welcome.

* * *

Among visitors from her class who spoke at the meeting was Flora Grimaldi, who described her home town in Italy. Her years as a refugee in Russia, India, England and America were compared by Cecily Dubis of Poland.

Tells of Leaving Ecuador

Reasons for leaving Quito, Ecuador, to make a home here were given by Malque Vargas, who came to Pontiac with her husband.

Other future citizens who related experiences to the group were Helen Schwetta of Paris and Inger Madsen of Bergen, Norway.

* * * *

Miss Antona was introduced by Mrs. Carroll Porritt. Program chairman was Mrs. Max Sells.

Mrs. Jay T. Ford and Mrs. Albert E. Kohn poured at a table, decorated in the patriotic motif.

Mrs. Fred Sytz, chairman of the social committee, was assisted by Mrs. Albert Games, Mrs. Richard Bashore, Mrs. Ralph Derragon, Mrs. Russell Auten, Mrs. Ronald Mountain, Mrs. Marjorie Cotterman, Mrs. Claire Hinckley and Mrs. George Morrow.

Officers Elected by Newcomers

Newcomers Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jay T. Ford of Gateway road. Cohostesses were Mrs. Adolph Magnus, Mrs. J. Edward DeGroot and Mrs. Clifford Wilcox.

New members welcomed into the group were Mrs. Paul Thomas and Mrs. Edward Christian.

Officers elected by the members include Mrs. Grant McDonald, president; Mrs. Mert Jennings, vice president; Mrs. William Merritt, secretary; Mrs. Norman Pattison, treasurer, and Mrs. Morton Bacon, historian.

Mrs. John McCulloch was speaker for the evening. Her topic was "Good Grooming."

Man Learns Etiquettes in Elevator

Unless It Is Filled He Should Move, Let Women Out First

By EMILY POST

The following letter comes from a man, who asks: "Does etiquette require a gentleman to step aside in an elevator so as to permit a lady (not with him) to leave first?"

If there is plenty of space, a gentleman does let a lady go ahead of him.

But if he is standing directly in front of the door and the elevator is crowded, he is certainly not expected to become an immovable obstacle blocking the way of those who want to go past, and in this case it is best that he clear the way, by leaving as quickly as possible.

Dear Mrs. Post: My wedding is to be a very simple one with only about forty guests present.

I am going to write my own invitations but am not sure just how these should be worded. Will you please be good enough to give me a sample wording?

Also, will you tell me the correct stationery to use?

Answer: Plain white quite heavy notepaper marked with a house address is most suitable.

You would write something like the following: "Dear Mrs. Jones, as you perhaps know, John Doe and I are to be married here at home on Saturday, the fifth of June at four o'clock and of course we want you and Mr. Jones to come. Looking forward to seeing you. Sincerely, Mark Blank."

Dear Mrs. Post: When my husband and I have another couple in to dinner, who pulls out whose chair when we are being seated? There is no one to wait on table.

Answer: The host should, of course, pull out the chair for the visiting lady. If he is courteous, the other man will pull out the chair for the hostess.

Otherwise she sits down by herself. In other words, she does not stand helplessly until her husband goes around the table to pull her chair.

Spread with paper towel or rag. Rinse thoroughly. Wipe off. Result: a sparkling bathroom in a very few minutes.

When Should a Mattress Retire?

HOW TO KNOW WHEN YOUR MATTRESS AND SPRINGS NEED RETIRING

- The BUMP TEST — Run your hand over the entire surface of your mattress—Is it lumpy at any spot? The filling or spring may be worn down.
- The LEVEL TEST — Bend down and look at your mattress at eye-level—Is it absolutely flat or does it have depressions, hills, valleys?
- The BORDER TEST — Are the borders uneven or sagging? A broken border is a symptom of an ailing mattress.

Reputation Won't Rub Off Unless Crowd Lets It

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: Jane has broken up our crowd. She lives about a mile away and always comes down into our respectable neighborhood and is giving us a bad name.

"She's only 13 but she acts much older and faster than the rest of us do. The girls have told her in a nice way but she doesn't take the hint.

"Now she comes all the way from her home, and doesn't even call for us, but goes right to where the boys hang out.

"She's an awful show-off, and we don't know what to do about her. Can you help us out?"

Kids as your age run around in a crowd for moral support. You want that blissful feeling of being lost in a crowd.

In a group you find courage to be gay and witty and have fun.

But just as a chain is made up of a series of links, your crowd is composed of various individuals.

And no one of you is ever quite concealed by the group. Each of you is responsible for his or her own behavior. One girl's antics doesn't necessarily blight the whole crowd.

* * *

Jane's actions, attitude and behavior are her own affair. And her own reputation is at stake. She can't break up your crowd if you don't want her to.

You don't have to have anything to do with her if she's proving uncongenial.

You girls obviously resent the way she's taking things in her own hands and trotting after the boys without you. You figure she's broken the good old chain by playing it "lone wolf."

And you're more than a bit scared that the boys are going to spend their time with her when she's around, and not be too cordial when you show up.

Well, wait quietly and watch the situation without relaxing your friendliness to the boys. The rest of you girls should stick together and set an example by your own well-controlled behavior. Plan things together and leave Jane out.

* * *

Sooner or later, she'll ask to be included again and will try to conform to your pattern. Or the boys will get fed up with her.

They're not blind. They'll notice that she's not with you girls any longer and will draw their own conclusions.

Your crowd will take on Jane's coloration only as long as you copy her style, or act as though you approve of it. If the rest of you are quiet and well-behaved, her reputation won't rub off on you.

And no crowd is broken up until all its members have scattered to the four winds.

So long as the rest of you girls stick together, you have a crowd and you'll have fun.

Sound Tracks Put in Books

A new children's book can be played on the phonograph. It's the "Magic Talking Book," which has a sound track impressed on its washable cover. Four stories with records are available—"The Singing Mother Goose," "The Singing Happy Birthday," "The Speedy Little Taxi" and "Noah's Ark."

A hole has been drilled through the printed matter and pictures contained inside the cover so that the book will fit on a phonograph. The covers have been rounded for the protection of children.

It was the first of what is hoped will become annual affairs, and was sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to the hospital. Jaycee Auxiliary Slates Formal Dance June 11

Plans for a semi-formal dance, "Artistry in Rhythm" were discussed when members of the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary gathered recently at Wilkins for a dinner meeting.

June 11 is the date set for the dance to be held at Hotel Pontiac. Proceeds from the affair will benefit Camp Oakland.

Members invited their husbands to the dinner at which officers were installed.

Mrs. Donald Anderson is president; Mrs. James Wilkinson, vice president; Mrs. Dale Carney, recording secretary; Mrs. William Brown, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Leslie Langford, treasurer.

Delegates Elected

Mrs. Leonard Buzz and Mrs. Robert Nordman will serve as delegates to local meetings.

The dinner commemorated the 10th anniversary of the auxiliary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cole Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. James Insco.

Plans were discussed at the meeting for a cooperative dinner to be held during June at the home of Mrs. John Napley. It was announced that the auxiliary has joined the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs.

Nut Bread Goes With Any Salad

Mrs. Robert Watson Bakes Quick Loaf for Sandwiches

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

May time is party time and nut bread sandwiches are perfect to serve with salad. Mrs. Robert Watson of Cedar Island Lake has an excellent Date-Nut Bread recipe which she shares with us today. You may make one large loaf or preferably two smaller loaves.

Like many mothers of several young children, Mrs. Watson feels she isn't getting all the things done she would like to do. She manages to be a room mother at Dublin school and attends the PTA there. Whenever possible, she sews and works on her hooked rugs. She is also a member of the Martha society of her church.

DATE-NUT BREAD
By Mrs. Robert Watson

1 package dates, chopped
¾ cup hot water
1 teaspoon baking soda

Dissolve soda in hot water and pour over dates. Let stand.

1 cup sugar
½ cup shortening
3 eggs

Cream shortening, add sugar and eggs and beat well. Add dates to this mixture. Sift together:

1 teaspoon baking powder
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt

Add to creamed mixture, mixing only until all flour is stirred in. Add 1 cup chopped nuts. Pour into 2 greased and floured bread tins. Bake at 375 degrees for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and bake another 50-65 minutes.

Automobiles in 1925 averaged only about 22,000 miles before they were scrapped. Now the age at which motor vehicles are deemed useless has risen to an average of 85,000 miles.

Athletic Banquet, Choral Event Looming at St. Freds

St. Freds seventh and eighth grades are still talking about last week's Parent-Teacher Meeting. Dancing highlighted the evening's entertainment. In keeping with "Hospital Week" seniors made a tour of St. Joseph Hospital Thursday afternoon, the day set aside for people interested in the Medical profession or its allied fields. The tour was handled by Dr. C. Smith, member of the St. Joseph Hospital medical staff.

Two buses represented St. Freds at the U. of D. Stadium last Sunday, May 8th for the Marian Day services. A very fine tribute to our Blessed Mother for her month of May.

The attention of the juniors, these days, is centered around preparations for the soon to occur Junior-Senior Banquet. No clues to the "What-When-and Where" of the thing is being given out by juniors.

"I get in a lot more fishin', now that Elsie has a car of her own"

"They called me 'Big-Hearted George,' when I got the Rambler for Elsie. Sure, she was tied home when we had only one car. But so was I. She had to have the car for shopping on week ends, and taking the youngsters places. That Rambler freed us both."

Every woman should have a car of her very own!

There's a Rambler to fit her needs . . . and your pocketbook, too!

It's hard to believe that the smart, new-idea Rambler is the lowest priced of all American-built cars, model for model . . . and that you get up to 30 miles on a gallon. But those are the happy facts. At that rate, practically every family today can enjoy the freedom of two cars.

With children to drive places, it's good to know that they're twice as safe in a Rambler. Its Double Strength Single Unit car construction . . . exclusive on American Motors cars . . . is twice as rigid, twice as strong, as ordinary car construction. You get three times the riding comfort with the new Deep Coil Spring Suspension. With Airliner Reclining Seats, you ride restfully relaxed. And Twin Travel Beds are wonderful for children's naps and low-cost vacation trips. Drop in at your Hudson dealer's right away. Give Plants Shot-in-Arm With Fertilizer Solutions

Want to give those house plants, or those vegetables in your home garden a shot-in-the-arm? Starter solutions — concentrated fertilizers in water—may be the thing to use.

When fertilizers are in solution, they can be taken up by the plants immediately and used to grow new roots and tops.

John Bray of the Oakland County Extension Service observes that when starter solutions are used on plants a day before transplanting, more of the plants stay alive.

Bray says starter solutions are handy for gardeners who forget "how much a handful is." When using dry fertilizers, many garden enthusiasts tend to over-fertilize.

Most of the common fertilizers to be diluted for starter solutions can be purchased in most Oakland County garden and farm supply houses. Still others are available in smaller packages, bottled, or even in tablets—useful to the home owner of a few shrubs or potted plants.

But Bray warns, watch the price. While these solutions are all right for small operations, the cost will be too high for the commercial gardener.

A home gardener, however, may find the solutions to his liking, and even cheaper, if he has no tools to work the dry fertilizers into the ground in his garden and around his shrubs. Attachments for hoses are available. They make it easy to apply the solution along with the usual watering

Folder F-194, "Starter Solutions," is available at the county extension office, 1260 West Blvd., Pontiac.

Poor Farm Closed

JAMESTOWN, N. D. (UP)—The Stutsman County poor farm has gone out of business. Officials said there were not enough residents to make it profitable.

REWARD FOR HARD WORK — "Don't build a rock garden if you're not willing to work," is the advice of Mrs. Eldred Mathes, shown above clipping a few blossoms from her rock garden at 2674 Sylvan Shores Dr., Waterford Township. The garden, now a riot of color, includes 150 feet of terraced rock walls that curve with the contour of the land, as well as 18 fruit trees. Mr. and Mrs. Mathes started the project in 1942. Their hard work paid off in a garden that has become the showpiece of the neighborhood.

Rock Garden Is Colorful

By WILMA GREENWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Mathes of Waterford Township aren't nonchalant about their garden. They're dead serious when they say that turning a 100x175 foot weed-covered plot into a showplace rock garden is no mean trick.

"If we had it to do over again, we'd never dare start," said Mrs. Mathes with a proud twinkle in her eye.

The Mathes garden at 2674 Sylvan Shores Dr., takes in over 150 feet of rock walls built up in a series of terraces to accommodate an 18-foot slope.

Now at the height of their blossoming period, the rock walls make a colorful picture, planted as they are with a host of plant varieties.

The spectacular display includes alyssum saxatile in splashes of bright yellow, creeping varieties of phlox in shades of crimson, lavender and blue; white rockcress; and tulips, daffodils and hyacinths in groups of color.

Mrs. Mathes, a former kindergarten teacher at Lambert School, and Mr. Mathes, an accountant at Baldwin Rubber Co., Pontiac, started their garden in 1942 when garden, the Mathes have a large vegetable garden and some 18 fruit trees. Peach, apple, pear and cherry trees are in bloom, and there are also plum and apricot trees as well as grapes.

In addition to the preliminary they purchased their white frame home.

"There wasn't a bush or flower when we took over," says Mrs. Mathes, "and the place was covered with weeds."

Now, in addition to the rock work of setting out the rock walls and planting, Mr. and Mrs. Mathes spend much time maintaining the property. Weeding, fertilizing, pruning and trimming take many hours a week.

"There's a tremendous amount of spraying," Mrs. Mathes said. "We spray every four days at this time of the year.

"I've never kept track of whether we spend more money in spray than the fruit would cost to buy, but it's possible.

"But there's one thing we couldn't buy—the joy of picking fresh fruit from our own trees. That's when we really get our reward!"

Improving Soil Helps Garden

Limestone, Organic Matter Will Break Up Non-Porous Earth

Few home owners have an opportunity to select sites which have soil good for a garden. But since the areas involved are comparatively small, it is usually practical to improve the soil.

The first improvement, in most cases, is to make the soil more porous or less so. Sand may be too porous, allowing all water to run through it quickly and plant food to leach away. Clay may not be porous enough, blocking the escape of excess water, excluding air, and being difficult to till.

Air is as necessary to the roots as to the leaves of plants, but it cannot penetrate soil which is flooded with water.

Attempts to improve clay soil by adding sand, or sand by adding clay, may result in a concrete-like mixture harder than the original clay. Soil conditioners which make clay porous are expensive.

But limestone screenings, obtainable in most localities, at low cost, have a chemical effect on clay which coagulates the fine particles into larger grains, between which water and air can pass freely.

There is little or no danger of applying too much limestone to clay, because it breaks down slowly, and the clay has a buffer capacity which prevents the calcium in limestone from making the soil alkaline, even when large quantities are used.

Limestone does not have the same effect on sand. Though often beneficial, it should be used on sand with caution to avoid making the soil alkaline.

To both clay and sand decayed organic matter such as peat moss, black peat (muck), compost, sewage sludge, decayed manure, and leaf mound, shold be added in liberal amounts.

In sand it holds moisture and plant food for the roots to use, and in clay it also improves porosity and makes the soil easier to work. Annual additions of organic matter will help keep the soil in top condition.

When the garden is watered, the thirst of soil particles which have the ability to hold water is first satisfied. Both clay and humus hold this water in storage, while allowing the free entrance of air at the same time.

Sufficient water should be applied at each watering to fill this storage capacity to considerable depth. Use a sprinkler which applies water so slowly there is no run-off, and no flooding.

3,000 Students Work in Woods for U. S.

Last summer some 3,000 college students were employed for the summer by the U.S. Forest Service in what a magazine calls a "wilderness finishing school." It's a "10-week course" which leads to a degree in general self-reliance.

Every summer the Forest Service takes on a number of boys in the 18-years-and-up group as "seasonal crew-member employes." They handle rugged jobs done under close supervision in 10 Forest Service regions, and do not require any previous forest experience.

Inquiries on this fascinating school that can net a student as much as $600 for his next college year should be addressed to Personnel Officer, U.S. Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Hints on Cutting Flowers

Flowers cut in the afternoon on a bright day last longer. After cutting the flowers, plunge them into warm water until they freshen up. Then, store them in a cool place until you are ready to use them.

Prune Shrubs, Place Branches in Living Room

The flowers that grow in the spring are just as pretty in the living room as on the bush that grew them.

And what's more, you assure yourself of continuing bloom for next year and a healthy bush by picking them—provided you do a pruning job while you are picking.

This is true of a great number of spring flowering shrubs — they should either be pruned while in bloom, or immediately after they go out of bloom if you want to leave the main display out of doors.

Shrubs in this category include many of the spring favorites—Cytisus, Deutizia, Exochorda, Forsythia, Philadelphus, Spiraea, Wigela and Kerria.

These plants flower on last year's growth so the way to ensure long flowering branches next year is to prune last year's growth back hard.

Prune each branch separately by looking close to the ground for signs of a new side shoot. Then make the cut just above that side shoot.

In many cases, a second bud will develop where the side shoot is located and this too will grow into a long flowering branch for next season besides developing a more compact plant to show green the remainder of this year.

Another aim in pruning is forestalling nature — preventing the flowering shrubs from making seeds. The forming of seeds is the reason that the flowers come into being but, by preventing this, the energy that would have been expended in forming the seeds goes into making new branches.

Dead wood is important to cut out at pruning time as diseases start on dead wood.

Woodland Path Scene of Beauty

Wildflowers, Songbirds Reward Observer, Says Park Supervisor

May is a beautiful month whether one lives in the city or the country. It is the month of returning color to woodland and garden.

If you have not yet observed nature's brilliance this spring, why not make it a point to drive down almost any of Pontiac's residential streets or take a trip into the country on a sunny day?

Here's the advice Raymond Keller, parks supervisor with the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation, has to offer this week for residents of beautiful Oakland County:

Travel one of the small byroads and stop alongside a woodland stream for awhile. It will not take long to find some of nature's most brilliant flowers in their natural setting.

You may see marigolds along a marshy bank, bloodroot along the roadside, trillium and dogtooth violet in a woodsy area along with the unique jack-in-the-pulpit, wood anemone, spring beauty or maybe even a rare yellow lady's slipper.

Spring Flowers Flourish

Spring flowers are so numerous along all of our roads and byways that space will only permit mentioning a few. But they are there for the naturalist to enjoy in their native surroundings, along with the singing of the birds and the ever-present hum of myriads of insects.

Native wildflowers and shrubs make very poor cut flowers for they will soon wilt, and die once they are pulled. They are meant to be enjoyed right where they are; and besides there is a law prohibiting the picking of any wildflowers in their native habitat.

In addition to the flowers some of nature's brilliant flowering shrubs can also be enjoyed.

One should never miss seeing the dogwood in full bloom on a woodland hillside, or the serviceberry and chokecherry dotting both field and woodland. About this time the pines, spruce, and fir are beginning to shoot their candles, adding their green freshness to the wilderness scene.

Missed By Many

And yet how many folks will drive right by all this natural beauty with scarcely a thought given to it. Even in the city beauty abounds.

Have you seen the lilac so beautiful as it is this season? Or the wondrous color of the flowering almonds and cherries?

Get out this weekend and enjoy May's beauty while it lasts. Next year is a long way away.

Tender Crops Need Protection

Plant Covers Encourage Early Growth, Bring Quicker Yield

Oakland County gardeners wishing early melons, cucumbers, squash, and similar tender crops may find it advisable to use plant protectors.

Hot-caps and other types of plant protectors—such as hat-shaped, especially treated paper plant covers, or even paper or cloth cones covering single plants or entire rows—serve to protect the transplanted plants from wind, sun, and cold in early spring.

By using such protectors, it is frequently possible to set plants in the open a week or two before it would be safe to do so otherwise. The added protection will also enable the plant to establish itself better and hasten its early growth.

If paper cones are used, it is well to punch a small hole in the top to provide for the escape of moist air, especially after the weather starts to warm up.

Faithful to the End

NILES, Ohio (AP)—Almost every day for the two years since his wife died, 66-year-old Ralph Zuzolo went to her grave. On his final visit he had a heart attack and died.

Various Legumes Will Add Interest to Summer Meals

As long as you are planting a garden, try some different vegetables. Home-grown spinach, for one, is really a sweet tasty vegetable when planted early and harvested before hot weather.

Plant seed thinly—two or three to an inch—and only ¾ of an inch deep. Plant American or Long Standing Bloomsdale and keep it a couple feet away from your other vegetables. It will be ready to eat by June 1, if you give it a pound of 12-6-6 nitrogen fertilizer per 50 feet of row.

Try planting some beets early for greens or baby beets for buttering or pickling. Again, don't sow too deeply. When the plants are six inches high, thin the crop to one plant every two inches. The thinnings make an excellent cooked vegetable.

Perhaps you will want a few rows of early potatoes. Plant them about a foot apart in 30-36 inch rows. Work the ground deeply. Use Irish Cobbler, Chippewa or Kennebec varieties. For potato beetles, later dust with DDT.

Remember backaches will start soon, as there will be thinning, weeding, hoeing, and cultivating to do as the weather turns warm. Make an early start in keeping the weeds down and it will save time later when the hot weather makes the work seem harder.

Acerola Juice Added

Acerola juice, probably the world's richest source of Vitamin C, is now contained in apple juice for babies. The acerola plant is a native of Puerto Rico. The fruit looks like a cherry but is not related to it.

Hiss Worse Than Bite

WAHOO, Neb. (AP)—Joe Hanis, 44, a section hand, was walking along the Union Pacific tracks when a snake's hiss frightened him. He jumped, landing on the tracks, and was hit by a freight train. He suffered internal injuries, broken ribs and severe head cuts.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON—2

Stevenson once drew a map of an imaginary treasure island. It so fascinated him that he decided to write a wonderful adventure story, "Treasure Island." This is how it goes:

Young Jim Hawkins lived in his father's lonely inn on the English coast. One day, an old pirate with a mean temper and terrible manners came to stay at the inn. When the pirate died, he left behind a big sea chest. As Jim started to look through the chest, he heard a gang of pirates beating at the front door. He grabbed an oil-skin packet from the chest and escaped out the back way.

Jim took the packet to his friends, Dr. Livesey and Squire Trelawney. Inside it they found a map locating a hidden pirate's treasure. They decided to search for the gold themselves and bought a schooner called the Hispaniola.

The Squire, unknowingly, signed up as ship's cook a one-legged pirate named Long John Silver. His constant companion was a parrot who would scream out "Pieces of eight! Pieces of eight!" Long John arranged to have his pirate buddies hired as shipmates.

One night, Jim hid in a cracker barrel and overheard Long John and the pirates planning to mutiny. But before he could warn his friends, the ship reached Treasure Island.

Color the picture of Long John and his parrot. Cut out the parrot and slip it through the slit in the pirate's shoulder.

Tomorrow: Adventure on Treasure Island.

NUCLEAR FASHION — All her school chums laughed when Nancy Hancock placed her hand on the high-powered Van de Graaf generator at the Marion, Ind., County Health Fair. Nancy, 13, joined them when she looked in the mirror and saw what the generator, normally used to study the structure of atoms, did to her hairdo.

Helen Hayes in UM Drama Next Week

ANN ARBOR—Helen Hayes, beloved first lady of the American theater, will reign over the second week of the University of Michigan Drama Season, May 16-21, in an exciting new production entitled "Gentlemen, the Queens." Performances will be given Monday through Saturday evenings at 8:30 and Thursday and Saturday afternoons at 2:30, in Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre.

This new work, which Miss Hayes prepared especially for the festival, will consist of a series of portrayals of four of the most famous monarchs in both actual and literary history. The program will include selections from Bernard Shaw's "Great Catherine," Shakespeare's "Macbeth," Maxwell Anderson's "Mary of Scotland" and Laurence Housman's "Victoria Regina."

In the last two mentioned plays, Miss Hayes has scored two of her greatest acting triumphs, with "Victoria" being considered by many critics the greatest performance in the history of the theater.

Tickets for the production are still available at the box office in the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater. Box office is open daily, except Sunday, from 10 a.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Baby Girl Breaks Spell

NEWPORT, Ky. (UP) — Charles Melville Jr. says his granddaughter, born yesterday, is the first girl born in the Melville family in over 400 years. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melville III, of Fort Thomas, Ky. The grandfather said a genealogical survey backed his claim.

Debbie Will Start Work on 'Tender Trap' in June

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Debbie Reynolds will start work on "Tender Trap" June 15, much sooner than she had expected. Frank Sinatra will be through with "Guys and Dolls" by that time, and today David Wayne was signed for the third role.

I asked if David would do "Teahouse of the August Moon" and I was told that Marlon Brando has it all wrapped up. David was simply wonderful on the stage, but then, Brando will be equally good, I know, on the screen—he's good in everything.

Debbie leaves Saturday for Korea, and when she told me she was going to do "Tender Trap" in June, I thought she'd made a mistake.

The first casting for "The View From Pompey's Head," Hamilton Basso's best seller, is Dana Wynter. She's the British actress who was brought here by Walter Wanger for "Body Snatchers."

She has the beauty of a young Vivien Leigh and was signed by Darryl Zanuck on a term contract.

Dana will play the role of Diana, the young girl who is in love all her life with the hometown boy who goes to the big city and makes a name for himself.

Kathleen Case Signed

Pretty Kathleen Case, one of the new actresses at Universal-International, who has been kept in wraps for over a year, now gets the lead in "The Girl in the Cage."

Kathleen's first picture was "The Second Greatest Sex," but she had just a small role in that.

Although the invitations from Charles Boyer, John Farrow and John Tuoy to meet Abbe Pierre, the 43-year-old French priest, definitely stated that it was not to collect money, many contributions were made. They were voluntary, inspired by the slides shown of the work done by Abbe Pierre.

Helps Poor Children

There is such a humility about this fine man, who has done so much for the poor children of France. Many priests and nuns, as well as other important Catholics, were there. Our own Monsignor Patrick Concannon greeted many of his parishioners—Maureen O'Sullivan Farrow, Mrs. Charles Boyer, the John Savages, etc.

In real life Fess Parker talks just like he does as Davy Crockett. He went to Wil Wright's ice cream parlor to pose for some pictures and took with him his best girl, Marcie Rinehart.

One of the customers asked Fess when he was going to get married. His answer was: "Don't know. Still shopping."

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Anne Bancroft goes into court to legalize her name. She's Italian-born and proud of it, but she thinks Bancroft is easier to remember than Italiano, her real name.

Jane Wyman Amazed

Jane Wyman sends word from New York that she's amazed how many writers want to make appointments to sell her TV scripts. She's in New York for "Miracle In the Rain."

Audrey Hepburn's asking price for a movie is now $300,000—and she didn't sign for "War and Peace" until she was guaranteed a percentage as well as a flat salary.

Went to La Rue for dinner with Father Thomas English and Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers after the reception given Abbe Pierre.

Sitting at a nearby table were Joan Caulfield and her husband, Frank Ross, dining with Dusty and Jean Negulesco.

Mario Lanza will not do the Chrysler TV show June 9 because he wants to make his picture, "Serenade," first. He's been rehearsing every day on an aria from "Othello," which he will sing in his picture.

Eddie O'Brien's nephew, Eddie Watters, a young lieutenant in the Navy and a recent graduate from Fordham, has been added to Red Skelton's writing staff.

The 18-year-old daughter of Fay Wray and Bob Riskin, Susan Riskin, is studying drama at UCLA and plans to become an actress.

Mrs. Burt Lancaster has been living up to her civic duty since she returned from Europe by doing jury duty.

War Censor Completes Spy Message

The censor was successful in completing the message on wartime espionage by inserting missing letters in the copy he received.

This is the way in which he interpreted the missing letters:

PICTURES OF FORTS COMING BY COURIER. BY LUCKY STROKE, HAVE FOUND TRACES OF BAND TRAINED AND READY FOR USE. DUMPED ARMS BEING CULLED OVER. BORDER GUERRILLAS CONTENT TO REMAIN AROUND WAITING SIGNAL. SITUATION WITH TRIBES TOO SHAKY TO BE TRUSTED; CANT PROBE IT NOW. NEED MONEY FOR PAYOFF, SHY SIX THOUSAND. WILL DO AS TOLD. A MOB IS NECESSARY TO GAIN JOINT SUCCESS HERE. EAGER THAT ACTIVITIES FAN OUT. SHOW DOING FINE. I CANT SPEED TOO MUCH AS PER SCHEME FOR CLEARING UP ISLAND PROBLEM. HINDERED BY EFFORTS TO CRACK LEADER. SENDING REGARDS.
QWERTY

PICTURES OF FORTS is more to the point than PORTS here; FORTS are military objectives and photographs of them would be part of a spy's work. SORTS would not fit so well.

* * *

BY LUCKY STROKE is better than BY LUCKY STRIKE; STROKE means an action having an immediate and pleasant effect, whereas STRIKE is a sudden success mainly in regard to winning a large financial return.

HAVE FOUND TRACES OF BAND TRAINED AND READY FOR USE. This is better than TRACTS OF LAND DRAINED AND READY FOR USE; the clue to the BAND appears later in the letter, where the need of a MOB is mentioned.

DUMPED ARMS BEING CULLED OVER (that is, picked over in order to select the good ones) is better than phrasing PULLED OVER THE BORDER. The BORDER GUERRILLAS are the subject of further information — CONTENT TO REMAIN AROUND WAITING SIGNAL. If there had been imminent action to report here—that is, CONTEST TO REGAIN (or RETAIN) GROUND, the spy would surely have reported more fully on it, would indeed have put it at the beginning of his message instead of giving it third place.

Rushed for Time

SITUATION WITH TRIBES TOO SHAKY TO BE TRUSTED — this is more meaningful phrasing than BRIBES TOO SHADY. And CAN'T PROBE IT NOW would not tie in so well, with either TRIBES or BRIBES; a wartime spy would probably not be expected to PROVE his points.

NEED MONEY FOR PAYOFF is fairly obvious; LAYOFF would not fit. SHY SIX THOUSAND means that he is lacking six thousand of the amount he has to pay, and is better than the vague SAY SIX THOUSAND.

SPY FIX. THOUSAND WILL DO would not be logical. The message goes on, WILL DO AS TOLD: this is more informative than WILL DO AS BOLD A JOB, for he has evidently had some special instructions, and confirms them with this statement.

A MOB IS NECESSARY TO GAIN JOINT SUCCESS HERE. The idea of the needed MOB ties in with the BAND mentioned at the start of the report, and GAIN JOINT SUCCESS HERE is more logical than MAIN POINT — SUCCESS HERE.

The BAND, the GUERRILLAS, the TRIBES and the MOB all add up to a JOINT SUCCESS. DUCHESS HERE would be an extraneous idea, for there is no indication of the presence of another person in the picture.

EAGER THAT ACTIVITIES FAN OUT has more meaning than the casual statement WAGER THAT ACTIVITIES PAN OUT. The spy's activities are fanning out in many directions, as detailed in his message. Therefore, SLOW GOING is not logical for the next phrase; all the news up to this point has indicated speedy work, rather than slowness. SHOW DOING (a better idiom than GOING) FINE is his report.

At the end comes the only indication of lack of progress. I CAN'T SPEED TOO MUCH AS PER SCHEME FOR CLEARING UP ISLAND PROBLEM.

SPEED is better than SPEND TOO MUCH, we may be sure, from his demand for money above, that he would not be worried about spending too much. PER is right, and not HER, since the DUCHESS has been ruled out. CLEARING UP a problem is better phrasing than CLEANING UP. As for the ISLAND, the spy has already covered the INLAND problems in the earlier portion of his message. His activities could well FAN OUT to include an ISLAND problem.

* * *

He goes on to explain one of the reasons for not being able to SPEED TOO MUCH. He is HINDERED BY EFFORTS TO CRACK LEADER. CRACK LEADER — that is, make him break down and come across with information, or promises—is more logical, for failure to do this would be a real hinderance. EFFORTS TO TRACK LEADER would not be a hinderance; they would be more apt to represent active progress toward CLEARING UP the problem.

Sign-Off Signature

SENDING REGARDS is the sign-off, and not PENDING REWARDS. The latter phrasing would not have much meaning in this situation. And the signature is not the obvious TWENTY, which might be the number that spies traditionally use to identify themselves. It is, however, a selection of letters familiar to a great many people, and stems from the typewriter mentioned in the story clues. The signature is the first six letters of the standard typewriter keyboard —QWERTY.

Considers Tax on Church Land

Argentine Senate Sure to OK Peron's Latest Anti-Catholic Move

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A bill to tax property of the Roman Catholic Church was before the Argentine Senate today. Considered certain of approval, it was the latest move by President Juan Peron in his six-month fight with the church.

The introduction of the bill yesterday coincided with the resignation of a Peronista party member from the Chamber of Deputies in protest against the government's antichurch campaign.

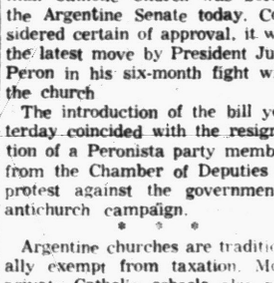

* * *

Argentine churches are traditionally exempt from taxation. Most private Catholic schools also pay no taxes because they give free education to poor children. Private schools that charge tuition pay real estate taxes ranging from 1-3 to 2-3 of the normal taxes.

The bill to end the exemption was introduced only a day after the Senate approved a measure abolishing Catholic religious education in the public schools. Congress also is considering a Peronista plan to abolish Roman Catholicism's position as the state church. Peron's supporters hold all the Senate seats and all but a handful of those in the lower chamber.

Bonanzagram No. 10

The Explorer Scouts were in trouble. A sudden, huge rockslide had penned them in the main canyon of a range they were exploring. After some worried consultation, Scout leader David Borden decided it was best to divide the group into two parties. He assigned one to their Indian guide and took the other himself. Using their maps and compasses, they set off in opposite directions in search of a "forked patch" which, according to Indian legend, provided the second means of escape from the canyon. After two foggy and strenuous days, Borden's group found the way out, but meanwhile lost contact with the others. That night one of the boys on night watch picked up a code message from a distant flashlight. He had missed some of the letters, but Borden was able to decipher it and form a plan for reuniting the two groups. Can you, too, figure out what happened to the others?

How To Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message. Clues may also be found in the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonanzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit Entries

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p. m. Tuesday, May 17. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, May 10 for Bonanzagram No. 10. Address "Bonanzagram, % Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and, if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p. m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person, he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." Postmark on this letter must be not later than 5 p. m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

Dodson Named to Direct Pontiac High Athletics

By H. GUY MOATS

First major change in the Pontiac High School athletic setup for several years was announced today.

A new regime in control of the school's varied sports affairs is due some time late in the summer when Tom Dodson, handsome physical education instructor at Eastern Junior High School, takes over the reins as athletic director.

Dodson, former air force officer, still in the army's air force reserve, last night was named to head the athletic program. He was selected after a long deliberation by Board of Education to fill a vacancy that had existed since the resignation of Hercules Renda.

There were several candidates for the place, but the board decided on Dodson because of a number of reasons.

Dodson told the Pontiac Press this morning that he would assume his new duties some time in August, in advance of the fall season. "I probably will call a meeting some time before school is out this summer to get organized," he said today.

The new physical education head is a product of Columbia, Tenn., public schools, Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn., and holds a Bachelor of Science and Master's degrees from the University of Michigan. Both are physical education degrees, completed respectively in 1948 and 1949.

His sports experience was gained entirely in high school, where he lettered in football.

Dodson served in the air force during 1942-46 and in 1951-53. He is at present attached to the 439th fighter-bomber wing at Selfridge Field, flying jet aircraft.

He is operations officer for the 93rd Squadron, and will be on active duty this summer from July 31 to Aug. 14, at Selfridge Field.

Dodson is 33, married and his wife Mildred is also a teacher in the public schools (Whitfield). He met her in San Antonio, Tex., while in the air force and was married in 1944. They reside at 310 Tilden.

Homers Account for GMC's 9-7 Dearborn Loss

Swindell Bags 5 Hits, but Hurlers Fail; Twin Bill Set Saturday

Its record leveled at 1-1, Pontiac's General Motors baseball team prepares for a weekend trip to Battle Creek and a Saturday double header with that city's entry in the Michigan State Baseball League.

Pontiac dropped its return match with Dearborn last night, 9-7, on the Dearborn diamond.

Three GMC pitchers gave only 6 hits to the Heating nine, but 2 of them were home runs with 2 men on base.

After the Coachers had accumulated a 5-1 lead, Offerman belted a 3-run homer off starting pitcher Don Stone in the last of the 3rd. Dick Goldsworthy was on the hill in the 4th when Vanderbar duplicated Offerman's feat of the previous inning.

It gave Dearborn an 8-6 lead and tagged Goldsworthy with the defeat. Dan Keating worked the final 3 innings and yielded the last run.

Alex Ropek went the distance for Dearborn for the victory, although he was touched for 11 hits. Bob Swindell had the best luck against the ex-Dodger farmhand. The veteran GMC infielder cracked out 5 straight hits, including a pair of doubles.

Pontiac threatened with 2 out in the 9th when a pair of walks and Don Ernst's pinch single drove home one run, but the rally died.

For Saturday's twin bill at Bailey Field (5:30 and 8 p.m.), Paul Parks will likely use Herman Bishop, who won GMC's opening game, and Ernst.

PHS Points for 8th Win, Regional Crown

Eight Oakland County high school track teams, including unbeaten Saginaw Valley champion Pontiac High School Chiefs, Saturday battle for MHSAA regional honors at Ypsilanti.

This test will determine the qualifiers for the state meet next weekend at Lansing.

Chiefs and Waterford's Skipper are in Class A, competing against the other five in a 7-team field. Walled Lake, Milford, St. Mary (Orchard Lake), Clarenceville and Farmington are in the heavy, 48 team Class B contest. South Lyon is the only county entry in Class C.

Most of the regional interest, however, will be centered on the performance of the Pontiac thinclads, who have hung up a string of seven straight victories, including the indoor and outdoor meets at Central Michigan College and the SVC title trials.

Coach Wally Schloerke's squad is a top-heavy favorite to mark up its 8th straight win.

Schloerke said today he had entered Freeman Watkins in the broad jump in hopes of picking up some additional points. Others are Hayes Jones, and E. J. Harris, both of whom are capable of bettering 21 feet.

For the remaining 12 events Schloerke's entries are:

Medley relay—Archie Brooks, Willie Wilson, Charles Spann and Jim Shorter (Valley and CMC champs).

High hurdles—Jones and James Taylor.

100-yard dash—Harris, Marv Cagle and Len Humphrey.

Mile run—Perry Williams (2nd in SVC), Eugene Cretal and McDonald.

440-yard-dash — Charles Robinson, Norris Jackson, and Patrick.

Low hurdles—Wilson, Jones, Taylor.

220-yard-dash—Harris, Humphrey and Frank Whitlock.

Half mile run—Bill Douglas, Rod Treais and Len Briscoe.

Half mile relay—Wilson, Shorter, Robinson and Spann (CMC and SVC champions).

Pole vault—George Thrasher, Ted Munger, Frank Whitlock.

High jump—Hudson Ray, Jones and Alex Barge.

Shot—Herb Butler, LaMotte and Cocking.

The field against Pontiac includes Waterford, whose chief strength is in the dashes with Gary Wideman in the hurdles with Laine Hetherington and mile, Gale Wigner. Other "A" teams are Allen Park, Lincoln Park, Wayne, Wyandotte and Ypsilanti.

A record entry of more than 900 is listed for the combined event, George Marshall, MSN track coach and meet director, said today. Marshall said preliminaries will start at 9:30 a.m., finals at 1 or 1:30 p.m. Shot and vault finals are set for the morning session.

Richard Ernst of MSN is chief starter; DeGay Ernst, MSN, is referee; Chief judge of finish is George Mead, Detroit; Clerk is Leighton Boyd of MSN and Lloyd Olds is chief timer.

Stroh Bowlers Flunk Bid for Honors in ABC Test

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — An American Bowling Congress team championship today remains about the only title which has escaped the current edition of Stroh's Beer of Detroit.

The Stroh's made their annual team bid last night and posted only a 2,934 series, which doesn't even put them in the top 10. Stroh's won the ABC championship in 1954 but with an entirely different roster.

* * *

Stroh's got off to a fast start with a 1,043 game but faded to a 934 and closed with a 957. Only Tom Hennessey managed a 600 series. He rolled games of 225, 181 and 223 for 629.

Lee Jouglard, who holds the ABC singles record of 775, hit a 575. Ed Lubanski hit 582. Tony Lindemann rolled a 595 and Buzz Fazio produced a 553.

Stroh's was the last name team to put in a bid. This makes the 3,136 with which Pfeiffer's Beer of Detroit has led the tournament with for three weeks appear bigger than ever. Pfeiffer's has won two previous team championships.

Swedish Team Rated Europe Zone Favorite

LONDON (AP)—Sweden's veteran squad headed by Sven Davidson and Lennart Bergelin is favored again to win the European Zone Davis Cup tennis competition.

The Swedes met Switzerland at Montreaux today in the second round.

All second-round matches must be completed by next Tuesday. The rest of the schedule is: Italy vs. Germany; Britain vs. Austria; India vs. Egypt; South Africa vs. Denmark; Argentina vs. France; Chile vs. Hungary; Czechoslovakia vs. Belgium.

BLUEGILL KABOBS

The outdoor cooking season is here and one of the really tempting dishes which you can prepare on campfire or backyard grill is barbecued bluegill kabobs.

Make a barbecue sauce by blending 1 cup cooking oil, 1 cup catsup, 5 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 small onion finely chopped, 2 teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon pepper and ½ teaspoon red pepper.

Clean and scale bluegills, then split and cut into pieces approximating 2-inch squares. Marinate these in the barbecue sauce 2 hours.

Thread kabob skewers or green sticks alternately with pieces of fish, slices of onion and squares of bacon cut ¼-inch thick. Broil over charcoal, basting frequently with the barbecue sauce in which the fish was marinated.

Revives Memories

Jones' Feat Recalls 'Double No-Hitter'

CHICAGO (AP)—Sam (Toothpick) Jones' no-hit triumph for the Chicago Cubs yesterday brought memories of that historic May 2, 1917 "double no-hit" struggle between the Cubs and Cincinnati.

The legedary pitching battle matched the Reds' 235-pound Fred Toney against Chicago's 220-pound Jim (Hippo) Vaughn. For nine innings the two hurled hitless ball, but Cincinnati finally won in the 10th, 1-0 when Vaughn yieded two safeties.

* * *

And, it was the great Jim Thorpe who drove in the Redlegs' winning marker.

Larry Kopf, second Cincinnati player up in the 10th, singled between first and second, Greasy Neale was retired. Prince Hal Chase was safe on an error and Kopf took third.

Then Thorpe bounced one to Vaughn who elected to try to nail Kopf at the plate instead of trying to get the speedy Thorpe at first. But Cub catcher Art Wilson did not expect the play and missed Vaughn's toss.

The Cubs went out in order in the 10th. Toney struck out Larry Doyle, Fred Merkle went out on a fly and Cy Williams fanned.

Until Jones tossed his brilliant job yesterday the Cubs-Reds battle of 1917 was the last no-hit game in the Cubs' Wrigley Field, then named Weeghman Park.

Record Mutuel Turnover Marks Racing's Start

More Than $366,228 Wagered by Audience of 9,517 Fans

DETROIT (AP) — Held up three days by a horsemen's strike, the harness racing season opened in Michigan last night with a crowd of 9,517 feeding $366,228 through the mutuel machines at Hazel Park Raceway.

This was a new opening night record for betting.

The old record was $353,300 wagered last year by a slightly larger crowd of 10,253.

Chief's Star, a 4-year-old brown gelding driven by Joe Lighthill, rallied to take the opening dash of the featured $5,000 Dr. Stanton pace in 2:04, 2-5. He paid $7.20 and $3. Bonnie Pete, who finished second two lengths behind paid $2.60. There was no show betting because of the small field of five.

Chief's Star also took the 2nd heat covering the mile in 2:03. He paid $4.20 and $2.60, Ducklin, in 2nd place, paid $3.60.

The crowd saw driver Tommy Winn take two races. Winn won the 5th race in 2:08.4 with Anna Kathryn Merit and the 8th with Abbedale Direct in 2:05.

Sherry Song and Beware in the daily double paid $17.20.

The meet will continue through Saturday, June 18.

PITTSBURGH — In the last five years, the Pittsburgh Pirates have finished in the National League cellar four times. They were seventh the other time.

More Trout, Inc. Asks State Aid in Its Work

LANSING (UP)—The state conservation commission yesterday agreed to consider a request from More Trout, Inc., for $13,200 a year for three years to continue fish conservation operations.

More Trout, Inc., is a non-profit organization of sportsmen who privately have financed a trout conservation project in the east branch of the Au Gres river.

Amos Rheaume, president of the organization, told the commission the project keeps trout in Michigan rivers but "we are on the verge of having to discontinue this work for financial reasons."

The project uses a dam in the river to prevent trout from going back in to the Great Lakes after they have entered the river to spawn. The fish receive supplementary feeding from More Trout, Inc. workers.

British Scribes Stunned by the Power of Rocky

Concludes Cockell Has Little Chance in His Try for Title

LONDON, May 13 (AP)—Three British sports writers, stunned by the spectacle of Rocky Marciano at work, concluded today that Britain's Don Cockell has little chance of beating the heavyweight champion next Monday night.

Gerard Walter of the News Chronicle, fresh from a visit to the champion's camp at Calistoga, Calif., said flatly:

"I would be doing less than justice to Cockell and to myself if I attempt any longer to disguise my conviction that the British and Empire champion cannot win this fight.

* * *

"This Marciano is a man of iron. They do not call him the 'Rock' for nothing."

Desmond Hackett of the Daily Express cabled back:

"I would call it slightly legalized destruction. I feel depressed, appaled. No man could live with this ruthless mauler who tears up the rules book as viciously as he rips up anyone who challenges his right to share the same fight ring."

Peter Wilson of the Daily Mirror said, "I do not think Don Cockell has the remotest fair chance of beating Rocky Marciano here Monday night in their world heavyweight title fight.

* * *

"There is no common denominator between above-average boxing—and I stress the word as we English understand it—of Cockell and the all-tactics of Marciano.

"It's like a bowman of Olde England trying to combat a Sherman tank."

The three writers all said American interpretation of the rules will let Marciano get away with roughhouse tactics.

"This could be the dirtiest fight of all time," wrote Wilson.

"This is no way is to be construed as retirment from big-time golf," he said. "Next year I hope to be back, trying to qualify for another shot."

Sarazen won the Open in 1922 and again in 1932 at Fresh Meadows, N.Y. He won the PGA three times, the British Open and the Masters. He now breeds cattle at Germantown, N.Y.

Young Golfers Tied for Lead in White Sulphur

Souchak, Finsterwald, Thomson Shoot 64s to Set Links Pace

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Youth—represented by Mike Souchak, Dow Finsterwald and Peter Thomson—was having its golfing fling today going into the second round of the White Sulphur Springs Open.

The trio who shot 64s to be six strokes ahead of par after the first round yesterday were in sharp contrast to their closest pursuers.

In back of the trio by one stroke were stars of two decades ago, John Revolta and Henry Picard. The 44-year-old Revolta won the PGA in 1935 and 48-year-old Picard won the title four years later.

* * *

At that time, by contrast, Souchak was just trying to swing a golf club although he was only five years old.

Souchak, former Duke University football end from Berwick, Pa., started playing golf for a livelihood just three years ago and is making it pay. He has won three tournaments and $14,000 so far this year to lead the dollar division.

Finsterwald and Thomson are 25 years old, three years younger than Souchak who was 28 this week. Finsterwald, also a former collegian from Ohio State, is making his first full swing of the pro circuit after getting out of the Air Force eight months ago.

* * *

Thomson, the British Open champion from Melbourne, Australia, is making his second tour of the United States golf trail.

While Revolta and Picard did yeoman work to keep in sight of the youngsters, two of the game's most recent greats, Sam Snead and Ben Hogan, were back among the also-rans.

They were among nine who were five strokes behind although they beat par 70 by one stroke. In all, 27 of the 47 who teed off for the 72-hole tourney were under par.

Fair, Hardtop Champ, Due for '55 Start in Weekend

Joy Fair of Pontiac, who won the 1954 hardtop championship at Pontiac Speedway, is scheduled to make his 1st start of the season Sunday at the M59 oval.

Highlighting the 50-car program are a 25-lap feature race and 2 special 4-lap championship match races.

In a winner-take-all affair, Fair will race against Gene Lock, the 1954 Motor City Speedway champion; George Cooper, '54 titlist at Flat Rock Speedway; and Mickey Katlin, who was a championship winner at Jackson Speedway.

Another 4-kapper will match 4 outstanding "Powder Puff Derby" champs including Vicki Wood of Detroit, NASCAR regional women's champ last year; who set a speed record at the recent "speed week" at Daytona Beach.

Others are Freda Herrmann, Gladys Hood and Betty Wilcutt, women's champions from Motor City, Flat Rock and Pontiac Speedways, respectively.

These special events are in addition to the regular 9-race program of a dash, pursuit, semi-final, feature and heat races. Drivers expected, besides Fair, Lock Cooper and Katlin are Ronnie Duman, Felix Brooks and Wild Bill Naida.

Time trials are scheduled at 12:30 p.m. with the first race at 2:30. Track is located 3 miles west of the Pontiac Airport on M59.

Spartans, UM in Key Series

MSC Could Spoil Big Ten Title Hopes for Wolverine Nine

CHICAGO (AP) — Michigan State's defending Big Ten baseball champions meet an ancient state foe, Michigan, in a three game series this weekend that may clobber the Wolverines' 1955 title hopes.

Michigan, currently tied for 1st place in the conference race with Minnesota, each with a 7-2 record, oppose the Spartans in a single game at Ann Arbor today before moving over to East Lansing for a twin bill tomorrow.

Michigan State, tied for fourth place with Northwestern (5-4) now ranks as the No. 1 slugging unit in the Big Ten with a .339 average. Michigan is runnerup with .311.

In a single game at Minneapolis today, Minnesota takes on 3rd place Ohio State (4-2). Gophers then play host to Indiana (3-4) in a double header tomorrow.

Track Record Bid Lures Fans to '500' Qualifying

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A probable track record may produce a crowd even bigger than usual tomorrow for opening qualifications for the 500-mile auto race May 30.

Police have estimated the last two crowds for the first time trial sssions at 75,000 to 120,000, giving the Indianapolis Motor Speedway a claim to the world's best attended "preliminary event."

Drivers will go one at a time for 10 miles, four laps around the 2½-mile track, with the best time earning the race lineup's pole position. That's the inside position on the front row, although track record holder Jack McGrath of Inglewood, Calif., prefers the outside.

* * *

McGrath set the qualifying record of 141.287 miles an hour for one lap and 141.033 for four laps last year in the same Hinkle Special he will drive tomorrow.

He has been over 140 in practice, with no pressure, but so have Bob Swikert of Indianapolis, driving a new Kurtis-Kraft owned by John Zink of Tulsa, Okla., Sam Hanks of Burbank, Calif., the 1953 National AAA champion in a '54 Kurtis-Kraft, and Pat O'Connor of North Vernon, Ind., in a new Kurtis-Kraft.

Bill Vukovich of Fresno, Calif., Indianapolis winner the last two years, and Troy Ruttman of Houston, Tex., who took the lead in the last 20 miles when Vukovich's steering failed two years ago, also are pole contenders.

* * *

Vukovich was clocked at 141.2 in a practice lap yesterday.

Vukovich's winnig Keck Special has been retired and he is driving a similar car owned by Lindsey Hopkins of Miami. Howard Keck of Los Angeles has loaned Hopkins his master mechanics, Jim Trevers and Frank Coon, for the trials and race. The team will be back with Keck next year to handle a supercharged V8 now under construction.

Ruttman has the supercharged V8 Novi Special which may be the fastest car among the 51 entries. It has been the only contender not powered by an Offenhauser unsupercharged four in recent years.

Controversy Exists

Rules, Size of Gloves, Size of Ring for Title Bout to Be Debated Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The managers of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and his English challenger, Don Cockell, appear today before the California Athletic Commission to debate the issues of rules, the weight of the gloves and the size of the ring for the 15-round title fight Monday night.

No one looked for any bloodletting. But there was every reason to anticipate enough oratory to fill the Congressional Record.

Briefly presented, as the fighters themselves remained in their respective camps to train for actual combat, the issues involved:

* * *

The use of eight-ounce gloves, as California law requires for all divisions over 147 pounds, instead of the six-ounce gloves common in other states for title matches.

Marciano's manager, Al Weill, roared disapproval of the eight ouncers. John Simpson, for Cockell, expressed displeasure, although he was not as vociferous as Weill. After all, Marciano is noted as a knockout puncher.

The state law was expected to prevail by unanimous decision.

Then there was the size of the ring. California law says it can be anywhere between 16 and 24 feet wide.

* * *

Promoter Jimmy Murray has already installed a 16-foot ring in Kezar Stadium. It is, he says, more adaptable, especially for the many news cameramen who will photograph the fight.

* * *

The 16-footer is quite all right for Marciano. If Cockell has any plan of running, there will be less room to run.

Simpson said he wanted to compromise.

"We feel that a 24-foot ring would be to the advantage of Cockell and a 16-foot ring favorable to Marciano. So we propose a compromise of 20 feet."

Simpson, to the amusement of most of the writers, both American and British, said he would carry his appeal, if necessary, to the highest sources—starting off with President Eisenhower and dropping down a bit to Gov. Goodwin Knight of California.

Cockell himself, rather unconsciously honest, merely said:

"I have no opinion. As long as the ring is there, I'm there and the other fellow is there, that's all there is to it."

Spotlight on Michigan in Big 10 Relays

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Although there is no team title at stake, a big field of 243 performers will compete tomorrow in the 2nd annual Big Ten relays.

However, Michigan, the conference indoor track champion, has entered teams in al six relays and rates as a strong contender in each. In addition to the six relays, there will be five field events and five individual races.

Two unusual events highlight the relays. They are the 100-yard weight men's dash and the 1½ mile runs. The former is open to men competing in the discuss and shot put and sophomore Joe Savoldi of Michigan State is favored to win the event.

To spotlight the Big Ten's bumper crop of outstanding sprinters, the Big Ten relays has added a 100-yard dash to the prgoram. Northwestern's Jim Golliday, who turned in a :09.5 performance last week, was heavily favored to snare his specialty. Golliday recently returned from two years of Army duty.

Illinois will go for sweeps in both the low and high hurdles, with Willard Thomson, the National Collegiate high hurdle titleholder, and Abe Woodson.

Relay races on the 16-event program, which was inaugurated last year at Illinois, are the 440, 880, one mile, two mile sprint medley and distance medley. Illinois, which won the 440, one mile and sprint medley last year, will defend only its sprint medley tomorrow.

Michigan's Ron Wallingford the Big Ten indoor two mile champion, will match strides against Earl Jonsson, an Illinois sophomore from Sweden in the 1½ miles run. Wallingford leads all conference two milers with a 9:16.6 clocking outdoors. Jonsson's time in the two mile was 9:28 and 4:24 in the mile.

Other key Wolverine runners include Pete Gray, indoor 1,000 yards and 880 champion and John Moule, one mile titlist.

Michigan State's strength is centered in the half mile and sprint medley relays, both of which will display Kevan Gosper, Big Ten 600-yard king and Ed Brabham, runnerup in the conference 300-yard dash.

Indiana's strong one mile relay team of Jim Ely, Len Robinson, Milo Cusick and Don Ward is favored to repeat.

Minnesota, winner of the 440 yard relay at the Drake Relays, is strongly favored in that event with Harry Nash, Bill Garner, Burrie Carmichael and Jack Dryer carrying the baton.

Ralph Fessenden, conference 300-yard indoor champion, is the only returning member of Illinois' sprint medley championship team of 1954. The Illini quarter will be rounded out by Henry Cryer, Woodson and Jim Neal.

The 120-yard high hurdles field includes Woodson; Les Stevens and Jack Matthews of Iowa; Ken Toye of Northwestern; Milt Campbell of Indiana; Savoldi, and Thomson the conference indoor titleholder.

Tiny Chihuahua Is Big Heroine in OCKC Show

Wakens 2 as Flames Hit Home; Record List for May 22 Event

Tiniest candidate for "hero dog" designation in the annual contest held by Oakland County Kennel Club, ever to be presented, has become one of the biggest winners.

Slick little Geannie, a smart Mexican dog, owned by Mrs. Raleigh P. Bailey, 27029 Hampden, east of Stephenson and 11-Mile roads was named this week by a panel of sports writers, as the top hero or heroine of 1954's dogdom. She will be a feature of the annual OCKC all-bred show, May 22, at the Detroit Artillery Armory on 8-Mile road.

A record entry of more than 850 dogs was reported today by J. P. Moses of the club. Largest class is the boxers, with 70 entries. Other large groups include: collies, 67; shephards, 48; cockers, 45; Boston terriers 39; Great Danes 38; one Dandy Dinmont and five Affenpinchers.

The feat that Geannie performed is credited by her owner with saving the lives of Mrs. Bailey and her brother-in-law, Boyd Bailey. Fire started in the home on Feb. 15 and made strong headway before the little dog leaped on the owner's bed and wakened her. Flames damaged the home to the extent of $5,000.

Geannie is a real blueblood. She was purchased about a year ago for $100. Now she's priceless.

Watrous in Race for Missouri Valley Title

Tommy Watrous, former Shrine High School golf star and now a student sophomore player at University of Detroit, is among the leaders in the race for Missouri Valley Conference links honors at Tulsa.

Watrous shot 74-76—150 for the last 36 holes of the 54-hole conference tourney, but is in 6th place, 6 strokes behind the pace-setting Bob Goetz of Oklahoma A&M.

Other UD scores included Bill Tiefke, 157; Ray Conlon, 160; Ray Maisevich, 162; and Ron Stetler, 164.

Jim Ewell, trainer of the Kansas City Athletics, was once the batboy for the Norfolk Tars in the Piedmont League.

1,400 Athletes Compete in West Coast Relays

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Hot weather and an expertly conditioned Ratcliffe Stadium arena are in prospect for nearly 1,400 athletes tomorrow in the 29th West Coast Relays.

World, Plympic, Pan-American and national record holders—an assortment that adds up to 23 champions — will enjoy perfect competitive conditions in their efforts to break records. The spotlight is likely to be stolen by a long-legged miler and an eager ironman.

* * *

The big show for most will be Wes Santee's try for the 4-minute mile. Santee, who has come within a second of the goal three times, will have an unscarred track and strong competition from Art Dalzell, his ex-teammate at Kansas; Len Simpson of the San Francisco Olympic Club; Jim Hunt of San Diego State and Gene Jones of the Santa Clara County Youth Center.

* * *

The ironman is Rafer Johnson of UCLA, who next year will bid for the world decathlon championship. Johnson, winner of the Pan-American Games decathlon, is entered in four events against several of the world's best. He'll participate in the javelin, broad jump, discus and 120-yard high hurdles.

Nine world records face possible alteration. They are the 20-year-old broad jump mark — oldest men's track record still standing, the mile, javelin, shot put, high hurdles, hop, step and jump and the distance medley and two-mile relays.

Jones' No-Hitter Stays With Recent Tradition

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's getting so that only sometime guys, castoffs and sore arms pitch no-hitters in the major leagues anymore. The big name pitchers just come close.

Toothpick-chewin' Sam Jones, a 6-4 righthander who Cleveland gave up on because of a sore arm, added to the trend by handcuffing Pittsburgh's Pirates without a hit in a 4-0 victory for the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

Among other things, it was the first no-hitter since last June 12 in Milwaukee when Jim Wilson stopped Philadelphia cold 2-0 for the Braves. Wilson had been with the Boston Red Sox, St. Louis Browns and the Philadelphia A's before joining the Braves in Boston in '51. Now he's with Baltimore.

* * *

The most recent no-hit success before Wilson's was the 6-0 job a lad named Bobo Holloman hung on the Athletics for the Browns in 1953. Bobo did it in his first start for the St. Louis club, but won only two more that season while losing seven. From there he trailed off to the minors.

You have to go back to 1952 before you find names like Virgil Trucks and Carl Erskine on the no-hitter list. Since then, the big guys in the majors have just missed.

* * *

Over the past two seasons Trucks has had two one-hitters. So have Robin Roberts and Bob Porterfield. Others, like Lew Burdette, Warren Spahn, Mike Garcia, Bob Lemon, Billy Pierce, Whitey Ford, Curt Simmons, Billy Loes and Erskine, have pitched single one-hit games.

* * *

Most recently, it's been Bob Turley, Bob Feller and Don Newcombe, all with one-hitters. Newcombe's was a near masterpiece as he faced just 27 Cubs only last Tuesday at Chicago.

It was on the same mound at Wrigley Field yesterday that Sad Sam made it, although hardly matching the brilliance of Newcombe's job But you can't knock a no-hitter.

Jones made it tough on himself, and the scant 2,918 fans, by walking the bases full with none out in the ninth.

Then he dug deep and threw just one more pitch outside the strike zone while fanning Dick Groat, Roberto Clemente and Frank Thomas to become the first Cub to hurl a no-hitter in 40 years and the first Negro ever to do it in the majors.

The lone other National League game also was spectacular. Del Crandall broke it up in the 12th with a home run off Ed Roebuck —his first hit in 24 at bats—that gave Milwaukee a 2-1 victory over Brooklyn. The Dodgers now have lost two straight, a real slump after winning 22 of 24.

* * *

In the American, Maury McDermott and Washington broke Cleveland's winning streak at six games by a 3-0 count, beating rookie Herb Score despite only two hits off the lefty in six innings. Chicago beat Baltimore 6-2 with four runs in the ninth and Boston whacked Kansas City 12-7. Detroit and New York were idle.

At Milwaukee, Gene Conley went all the way for the Braves, hooking up in a duel with Carl Erskine for 11 innigs. Erskine was lifted for a pinch-hitter and Roebuck came on in the 12th Crandall smacked his second pitch.

Conley, now 4-1, gave six hits to Erskine's nine. Hank Aaron's second-inning homer and Sandy Amoros' blast in the fourth took care of the only other scoring Cleveland couldn't do much of anything against McDermott, who granted just four hits. He struck out nine.

* * *

Score fanned seven, tying the Yankees' Bob Turley for the major league lead with 57, but walks got him in trouble. Mickey Vernon singled home the first run after a walk and a wild pitch. A walk, stolen base, Ed FitzGerald's infield single and an error scored another in the fourth. The third run came off Art Houtteman, who replaced Score in the seventh.

The leading active major league consecutive-game streak came to an end in the game as Eddie Yost, Washington third baseman with a string of 838 straight games, was sidelined by tonsilitis

The White Sox moved to within two games of the first-place Tribe on a walk, three singles and Jim Rivera's two-run double in the ninth inning. Harry Dorish was the winner, checking Baltimore over the last three innigs with Mike Fornieles after relieving starter Jack Harshman. Saul Rogovin lost it.

* * *

Boston kicked up its first real storm in a long while, smacking 15 hits off three A's pitchers. Vic Raschi, attempting a comeback, was jarred for seven runs in the first two innings. Gene Stephens and Jackie Jensen homered for four of Boston's five runs in the second. Gus Zernial's ninth and 10th homers and Bill Renna's fourth accounted for the A's runs as Ike Delock won it with help from Tom Hurd.

Governor Was Forewarned

Politics Plays Important Role in Running of Boxing Activities in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ever since the appointment of the first Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission in 1923, politics has played a role in the administration of boxing in the Keystone State.

Members of the commission are appointed by the governor and must be approved by the state Senate. Through the years these appointments have very often been political plums. And last fall, Gov. George M. Leader, a Democrat, pledged in his campaign that his party would clean up what he described as Republican misrule of boxing in Pennsylvania.

* * *

It was no surprise to most persons connected with the sport when the governor chose the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos fight fiasco as the spark to kindle a full fledged investigation of boxing. He termed the official report that Johnson was drugged before the bout "shocking" and banned boxing for 90 days pending results of the probe.

* * *

Warned last January by State Sen. Benjamin Donolow (D-Phila) of an impending scandal in boxing, Leader appeared to be most careful in his selection of a new commission. He chose men who for the most part were not identified politically—a racket busting attorney, a nationaly known football star and coach, and a newspaperman. The governor apparently was preparing himself for trouble.

* * *

The commissioners, Alfred Klein, an attorney who served with the Kefauver Senate Crime Investigating Committee; Chairman James Crowley, member of Notre Dame's famed Four Horsemen, and Paul Sullivan, veteran Pittsburgh sports writer, have been working quietly to eliminate alleged unsavory characters from the boxing scene.

Klein, a soft spoken man who can wield a big stick effectively, won't name names, but claims the commission has refused to renew a number of licenses of managers unable to meet standards established by the commission. He is confident that, given time, boxing can and will be cleaned up enough to warrant public confidence in the sport.

The many questionable fights here to which Philadelphia fight fans and national television audiences have been exposed are not the only reasons for the investigation and suspension of boxing. Donolow and others have charged that certain managers they say are unfit to be in sports are favored because of political connections. Charges, as yet unproven, are being made that incompetent judges and referees are used and that boxing in Pennsylvania is controlled by racketeers and gangsters.

The job of the investigating committee would seem to be to get documented evidence to prove or deny such charges. It appears to be more a job for detectives than athletic commissioners.

Delay Boxing Inquiry Until Next Monday

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvaia Athletic Commission has put off until Monday the start of its probe into boxing, currently suspended in the state for 90 days.

Public hearings were scheduled to start today, but Commissioner Albert Klein said further investigations were needed before the probe could begin.

The suspension of Boxing for 90 days by Gov. George M. Leader followed the drugging of No. 1 light heavyweight contender Harold Johnson prior to his nationally televised fight with Julio Mederos here last Friday.

Three-Way Battle Looms on Potomac

WASHINGTON (AP)—The prospect of a close three-way race shapes up for the 10th annual Intercollegiate Spring Rowing Championships on the Potomac River tomorrow.

Navy, the 1952 Olympic champions, won in each of the past three years while sweeping through 31 straight crew victories, the greatest winning streak in rowing history.

But Navy was beaten last week by Pennsylvania and has been seeded second to Penn for the Potomac regatta's varsity event. There are others who think that Cornell, seeded third, is the crew to beat.

Pitching Is Key to Tigers' Great Start

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Bucky Harris admitted today he was "just as surprised as is everybody else" over the spectacular pitching performances turned in by the Detroit Tigers' staff this season.

Pitching was the Tigers' biggest mark, according to the veteran pilot's own pre-season evaluation. So what happened?

In Detroit's first 26 games, no fewer than 17 route-going performances have been turned in by Detroit pitchers. No other club even comes close. The Cleveland Indians, with such illustrious names as Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia, have only 11 complete games.

* * *

"I've got to hand it to them," Harris said today just before his team engaged the New York Yankees in a battle for third place. "Those pitchers are doing better than I expected. Furthermore, from what I've seen, I feel they'll continue pitching well and maybe even improve.

"Except for Steve Gromek (5-1) and Ned Garver (3-4), who are the mainstays of the staff, it is a young pitching staff. Kids like Billy Hoeft, Frank Lary, Duke Maas and Bob Miller are bound to get better."

During spring training Harris constantly voiced the hope that his young team might break into the first division. Now, after a month of action, he is confident it will.

* * *

"We've got a real good shot at one of the first four spots," he said. "From what I've seen so far we should make it. Of course, it's hazardous to go out on the limb with a club that's as young as ours is. Anything can happen. It can wilt but it also can start rolling at such speed that would be hard to stop."

Like everybody else, Bucky is high on Al Kaline, the brilliant young rightfieder who has been hitting and fielding in sensational style from opening day.

"Of course no one expects him to keep up his .390 hitting pace," Harris said, "but he is one of the finest all-around young players I've ever had the pleasure of managing. He can do everything and do it well. I look for him to have a great future.

"I'm not predicting any pennants," said Harris, "but this is the kind of club that could surprise a lot of people this year and go on to win a championship in another year or two."

Hurons Extend Track Mastery Over Central

YPSILANTI (UP) — Michigan Normal continued its outdoor track dominance over Central Michigan last night by defeating the Chippewas, 72-59, to remain unbeaten by Central in outdoor competition.

Jim Podoley of Central paced all competitors by amassing 27 points with three firsts, one 1st place tie and two seconds.

Podoley won the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the low hurdles, tied for 1st in the broad jump, and placed 2nd in both the high hurdles and the high jump.

Clawson 9 Nears Oakland-B Title

Clarkston was still trailing Clarenceville in the Wayne-Oakland League, while Clawson was a big step nearer Oakland-B title following Thursday's games in the county area.

Clawson tripped Madison, 7-6, to keep its Oakland-B record clean and give Madison its first loss. The teams play only one round this season.

In the Wayne-Oakland, Clarkston edged Milford, 4-3, but could gain no ground on Clarenceville, which downed Northville, 6-3. West Bloomfield nosed out Holly, 5-4. Clarkston's Bob Yahnke and Dan Lancaster of Milford each gave only 3 hits, but 3 Milford errors and Dick Johnston's single in the 7th broke it up.

Roseville handed Avondale a 15-5 trimming, scoring 7 runs in the 2nd inning. Fitzgerald slipped past Troy, 6-5, in extra innings.

Inter-Zone Davis Cup Finals to Germantown

NEW YORK (AP)—The inter-zone Davis Cup tennis finals, matching the European and American zone champions, have been awarded to the Germantown Cricket Club in Philadelphia. The dates are Aug. 12-14. Frank Shields, chairman of the U. S. Davis Cup Management Committee, made the announcement yesterday.

Rookie pitcher Karl Spooner of the Dodgers hurled two no-hit games in the minor leagues.

Experts Wonder if Bengals Are 'Over Heads'

Gromek to Face Ford as Detroit Meets Yanks in New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Are the Detroit Tigers playing over their heads in the first month of the season? Or is the American League a little better balanced this year than any of the experts dared to expect?

The pre-season opinion virtually was unanimous that the Cleveland Indians, New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox would run away and hide from the five also-rans, just as they did last year.

But along comes Al Lopez, boss man of the defending champion Indians, with a prediction that 95 victories will be enough to win the pennant this time around.

Suppose for a moment he's right. Ninety-five victories in a 154 game season works out to a .617 percentage.

Now consider the Tigers' average in the 1st four weeks. Bucky Harris' fuzzy-cheeked phenoms have won 15 and lost 11, a .577 percentage projected through 154 games this pace would find the Tigers with an 89-65 record at the end of the season. And if 95 victories were good enough to win it all, 89 triumphs would leave the Tigers only six games out of 1st place at the end of September—quite a contrast to their 43 game deficit of a year ago.

Unfortunately, perhaps, for the Tigers, baseball performances can't be forecast accurately with statistics. Sore arms, injuries, streaks and luck defy the percentages.

But the Tigers are off to a surprisingly sound start. They've met the Yankees, Indians and White Sox a total of 12 times so far and they stand 5-7 with last year's powerhouses. In 1954 the Tigers won only 24 of 66 games from these three clubs

Prime factors in the spring success of the Tigers have been the hitting of Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn and the pitching of veteran Steve Gromek.

Kaline and Kuenn currently stand 1-2 among the league's leading hitters. Gromek won five of his first six starts.

After a da yoff yesterday the Tigers moved into Yankee Stadium today for their 1st visit with the Bronx Bombers. Gromek was due on the mound against Whitey Ford.

Detroit meets the Yankees again tomorrow, then moves to Boston for a Sunday doubleheader.

THURSDAY'S STARS

PITCHING, Sam Jones, Cubs—Walked the bases full in the ninth, then fanned the next three batters to register the first no-hitter of the season and the first by a Negro in the majors, beating Pittsburgh 4-0.

HITTING, Gus Zernial, Athletics—Belted two home runs, taking the major league lead with 10, drove home four of the A's runs in a 12-7 defeat by Boston.

4 'Seeds' Stay in Net Contest

Opening-round matches were played Thursday in the Michigan State Open tennis tournament for girls 15 or under at the Kingswood School, Cranbrook, in Bloomfield Hills.

Four seeded players, three from Hamtramck, were winners. Phyllis Saganski, of Hamtramck, 2nd seeded, downed Shirley Miller, 6-0, 6-0; Virginia Heese, also of Hamtramck, beat Helen Connolly, 6-1, 6-0; Nancy O'Connell, Chicago, eliminated Mary Heinrick, 6-0, 6-1; and Virginia Dykes, another Hamtramck entry, won by default.

Kalamazoo's top-seeded Sue Hodgman sees action today, as do the other seeded entries. All remaining first-round matches will wind up today. Thursday's results:

Annn Manzoni def. Maude Cooper, 6-0, 6-0; Barbara Kelly def. Carroll Crawford, 6-1, 7-5; Carol MacArthur def. Joan Akers, 6-0, 6-0; Bonnie Ellis def. Linda Wessels, 7-9, 6-3, 6-3; Virginia Hesse def. Helen Connolly, 6-1, 6-0; Susan Flint def. Carol Pearce, 6-0, 6-4; Julie Magnuson def. Gale Hummel, 6-3, 6-4; Nancy Baker def. Molly Marshall, 6-2, 6-1; Karen Henderson def. Mandy Matthews, 6-3, 10-8.

Susan Schiecte def. Lynn Dawson, default; Phyllis Saganski def. Shirley Miller, 6-0, 6-0; Joyce Kowal def. Cynthia Adams, 6-0, 6-2; Starr Walker def. Nancy Ebert, 5-7, 6-1, 6-1; Nancy O'Connell def. Mary Heinrich, 6-0, 6-1; Sally Menge def. Kathy Kyes, 7-5, 6-1; Nancy Daubenmeyer def. Shirley Marker, default.

Lucy McEvans def. Mary Love Russell, 6-0, 6-0; Sally Roman def. Linda Rakas, 6-1, 7-5; Suzanne Zvocht def. Diane Richardson, 5-7, 6-3, 6-2; Virginia Dykes def. Mary Boyland, default.

Sam Snead's Golf School

As today's illustration shows our player has started the last important action of the downswing. This is the uncocking of the wrists. This action should not start until the hands are hip-high in the downswing. From there on, you pour the power stored up in the cocked wrists into the shot, accelerating smoothly into the ball. Thus, at impact, the clubhead will be traveling at its maximum, rhythmic speed. If you uncock your hands higher up in the downswing the speed they should add to the clubhead will have been expanded in the air and not on the ball. Club speed counts only at impact. There's a world of golf in today's picture.

Williams Due to Sign With Bosox Today

Cronin Leaves Playing Decision Up to 'Splinter'

Orlando Has All Ted's Equipment Ready for His Return

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams was due to arrive from Miami today to sign his Boston Red Sox baseball contract and begin conditioning workouts.

How soon he gets into action depends on Ted alone according to General Manager Joe Cronin and field boss Mike Higgins.

"I can't even guess when he'll be ready," Higgins said.

"Ted is the only one who knows," Cronin adds.

* * *

Higgins put it this way:

"We'll have to wait until he tells me he's ready and when he does, I know he'll mean it. He's that kind of a ball player. He has to get used to seeing the ball thrown. It'll take him some time. I don't know how long, to get so he can follow the ball again. That takes a little doing."

The last of baseball's .400 hitters (he batted .406 in 1941) with a .348 lifetime average, made his decision to return to the game at the time a divorce settlement was completed in Miami.

* * *

Williams said he is 15 pounds over his 195 playing weight. He'll be working hard on toughening his hands for hitting and on running to condition his legs.

Clubhouse chief Johnny Orlando has 12 uniforms, 16 bats, wrist exercisers, golf gloves and other items in readiness for his arrival.

Bob won three letters (football, basketball, baseball), and Georgiana lettered in girls' basketball and cheerleading. Rev. Roman Narhun made the presentations at the spring sports banquet.

Old-Timers Drill

A practice session for members of the Old-Timers Baseball team has been set for Sunday. Manager Bud Leslie says work will start at 9 a.m. on Washington Junior High field and run to noon. Any others wishing a tryout, should report early.

Rookie pitcher Lynn Lovenguth of the Phillies is nicknamed "Little Giant" because of his 5-feet-10-inch, 170-pound frame.

After 13 Years St. Fred Again Enters Links Field

Pontiac St. Frederick, competing in golf for the 1st time since 1942, made its return a success by trimming St. Mary of Orchard Lake, 387-414. The 18-hole meet was played Thursday afternoon at Edgewood Country Club.

Dick Doyon, versatile Ram athlete, was medalist with 41-46—87. Teammate Ed Kast was runnerup with 46-47—93. John Janczorek and Lou Coppage had 99 and 108, respectively.

Pat Ryan led the Eaglets with 49-45—94. Remaining St. Mary scores were Dick McClean and Ken Lerczak, 99 apiece, and Don Horka, 122.

St. Fred's 1st links squad in 13 years is a combination of both experience and inexperience. Doyon was successful in two tournaments here last year, winning the Hearst tourney and placing 4th in the Junior Chamber of Commerce test. Kast won the 1954 caddy tournament. Janczorek and Coppage are untested.

Coal Al Serra's prospect, Jack Morse, qualified in the 1954 JCC tourney here. Morse was absent from Thursday's meet.

Serra plans to enter his Rams in the forthcoming Pontiac Press Prep Golf Tournament. They may also compete in district play prior to the state high school tourney.

Lausse Picked Over 'Tiger'

Argentine Middleweight Seeking 28th Straight Win in NY

NEW YORK (AP) — Eduardo Lausse, the Argentina knockout artist, is a 2-1 favorite to score his 28th straight victory tonight when he faces strong-jawed Ralph (Tiger) Jones in Madison Square Garden.

The swarthy, 27-year-old middleweight contender has a .740 kayo percentage for 65 pro fights but he hasn't been hitting in the Jones' league. The Tiger has fought the best 160-pounders around and none have been able to drop him for the count. The only one to stop him was Henry Burroughs more than four years ago.

NBC will telecast and broadcast at 9 p.m. (EST).

Toronto Maple Leafs Seeking Newhouser

TORONTO (AP) — Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League are interested in Hal Newhouser.

General manager Rudy Schaffer of the Maple Leafs said yesterday he had talked with the one time great leafthander released Wednesday by the Cleveland Indians.

Schaffer said Newhouser told him he would make a decision after talking over the idea with his wife. Newhouser has returned to his Detroit home.

Northerners Win Their Own Sports Tournament

HOUGHTON (AP) —Michigan Tech monopolized its own sports tournament yesterday, taking all the big prizes.

Tech won its 6th annual Michigan Tech Invitational track meet and also a golf tournament and a dual tennis meet.

Setting three new meet records, Tech won the track tourney by running up 109 7-12 points to 60 for runnerup Soo Tech. In tennis Tech beat Soo Tech 7-0. In golf Tech won by 36 strokes, with Soo Tech again runnerup.

Oriole Pitcher Spurns Minors

Southpaw Bill Miller Threatens Visit to Commissioner Frick

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lefty Bill Miller who says "I'm not going to pitch in the minors again," was to learn today what his baseball future will be. He has threatened to take his case to Commissioner Ford Frick if he doesn't find out.

The 27-year-od Minersville, Pa., native, a by-product of the big Yankee-Oriole swap last winter, was dropped from the Baltimore roster Wednesday, just a few hours before the cut-down deadline. General Manager Paul Richards announced only that Miller had been cut, "pending assignment."

"I'm not going to pitch in the minors again," Miller said. "I'm ready to pitch, and I know there are some big league clubs who would like to have me. Yet, I can't pitch. Paul Richards won't let me."

In 1927 when Babe Ruth hit his record 60 home runs, 20 of them were hit off left handed pitchers.

Wheat Futures Show Decline

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures were lower in early Board of Trade dealings today on liquidation which include profit-taking on the advance of the previous session.

Traders said there also was some switching in which dealers sold the May contract and purchased the July delivery.

Corn, oats and soybeans also were easy, although losses generally were fractional.

At the end of the first hour wheat was ½ to 1 cent lower, May $2.20½; corn was unchanged to ½ down, May $1.44⅝; oats were unchanged to ¼ lower, May 73¾; rye was off ¼ to 1 cent, May $1.01¼; soybeans were unchanged to ¾ pounds lower, May $12.22.

U.N. Blames Reds in Attack

Accuses Chinese With Unprovoked Agression in Fight With Sabres

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — The U.N. command charged today that Communist MIGs made an "unprovoked" attack on American Sabre Jets Tuesday "over international waters" of the Yellow Sea. Peiping radio declared the Sabres had "intruded over northeast China."

Peiping's broadcast a few hours after the U. N. command's protest to the Military Armistice Commission quoted the Reds' official People's Daily as declaring "Tuesday's incident was a premediated act of aggression."

The U. N. protest and Peiping radio also disputed on losses in the eight-minute air battle.

The U. N. protest said the Sabres, attacked "some 55 miles southwest of Sinuiju . . . were obliged to defend themselves and in so doing destroyed two or more MIG aircraft while sustaining no losses."

In the protest the U. N. Command charged the Reds were "endeavoring to utilize" Korean bases as a "privileged sanctuary."

Area Trade Survey Rejected by Schools

By unanimous vote the Pontiac Board of Education Thursday night declined to endorse the distribution of a merchandising survey via the school children of the city.

Maurice Croteau, trustee, said that the board should maintain the policy it had established in the past and only send home materials with children that had direct bearing on the educational program.

"We will be opening the door for other requests if we accept this one," he pointed out.

The survey, in the form of a questionnaire, was formulated as an instrument to determine the types and amounts of products bought in this area, buying source and customer reaction to service and displaying methods.

Modes of travel to and from shopping centers were included in the survey which was to be used by the Oakland County Planning Commission.

Stocks Reverse Falling Trend

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market advanced today in early dealings in a reversal of the sharp fall of the past two days.

Gains went to between 1 and 2 points in most sections of the list while losses usually were small and seldom passed a point.

Trading was brisk but not especially pronounced, and there was no particular concentration of buying.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks yesterday was down 90 cents at $161.80 and it was off $1.20 the previous day. Trading in both sessions was below the daily average so far this year, although the pace quickened yesterday.

Among the better performing major divisions today were steels, motors, aircrafts, radio-televisions, railroads, oils, and some chemicals.

Monsanto Chemical was up between 1 and 2 points following news that directors had recommended a three-for-one stock split. The high-priced stock has been moving widely for the past week in either direction with the accent on the higher side.

Stocks gaining ground included U. S. Gupsum, Paramount, Eastern Airlines, Royal Dutch Petroleum, Union Pacific, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, General Electric, Parke Davis, Textron American, RCA, Distillers Corp., General Dynamics, Boeing, Montgomery Ward, Chrysler and Bethlehem Steel.

Newspapers Spearhead New Chrysler Drive

Newspapers have been chosen to spearhead a $100 million dollar ride demonstration program, reports Burton R. Durkee, director of Chrysler advertising.

This plan to have 1,000,000 people drive 1955 cars during May and June is being supported primarily by an advertising campaign in 3,700 newspapers, Durkee said.

"We are inviting everyone to phone their nearest dealer for one of our 1955 cars," said Mr. Durkee, "whether they're planning to buy a car or not because our experience proves that to drive a 1955 Chrysler is to become a booster for this fine car."

Two Persons Are Hurt in Motorcycle Accident

Two persons riding on the same motorcycle were admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital last night when their vehicle was struck by an auto at M59 and Elizabeth Lake Rd. in White Lake Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Dept.

Donald E. Baumgras, 33, of 2269 Mann Rd., driver, suffered a broken leg and bruises, and his wife Beverly, 33, received a broken rib and a broken leg. Both are reported in good condition.

Deputies quoted Baumgras and the other driver, W. C. Adams, 47, of Ann Arbor, as saying the motorcycle attempted a left turn in the intersection when the accident occurred.

Wolfson Wins 3 Board Seats

But Reshuffle of Votes May Give Him Only 2 Ward Directorships

CHICAGO (AP)—Louis E. Wolfson apparently landed three placed on Montgomery Ward's nine-member board of directors, a tabulation of votes cast at the April 22 election showed today.

Wolfson received proxies for 1,793,398 shares of Ward stock. The Ward management slate received proxies for 4,033,481 shares.

This totals up to 5,826,879 shares. To obtain three directors Wolfson would need 30 per cent of the total vote cast plus three shares. That would be 1,748,067.

However, stockholders attending the annual meeting in person also cast votes for individual directors. These votes could conceivably provide a margin of difference between two and three seats on the board for Wolfson.

* * *

After the inspectors of the election announced the tally, Wolfson said he definitely had elected three directors. These would be himself; Alexander Pittmaster III, New York business consultant; and Bernice Fitz-Gibbon, New York advertising consultant.

A management spokesman said, "we know we have six directors but we can't say definitely if we have six or seven until the recumulation is completed."

* * *

By recumulation he meant the allotment of nine votes per share among nominees so as to elect the greatest number of nominees.

After the announcement the meeting adjourned until 10:40 a.m. tomorrow when the recumulation of votes will be announced and the full slate of elected directors will be made known.

Only half of the 250 seats in the auditorium of the Ward's headquarters building were filled for the meeting today. Wolfson attended with Rittmaster and Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach and one of his lieutenants in his long drive to capture control of the big mail order and retail merchandising concern.

Three Silver Beaver awards, highest honor given by the Council, were presented by William P. Pascher. Award winners were: Harry M. Boorn, Theodore Pearson Jr. and Ray D. Baker.

William Heimbuch, Troop 51 Scoutmaster, was given the Scouter Key Leadership award by Van Braidwood, Pontiac district executive.

Besides Churchill, other officers elected were: Ken Sanderson, Ralph Randolph, D. B. Eames, Frank Chapman, all council vice presidents. Treasurer is Stanley J. Filkins; John Hunt was named Council Commissioner.

Troop 244, sponsored by Grace Lutheran Church, presented a prologue in the form of a precision drill accompanied by drum corps, directed by Dr. Jack Bell.

Edward Leland, executive director, was introduced by Bennett and gave the annual report.

Harry K. Eby, director of school relations of the national staff, Boy Scouts of America, was guest speaker and discussed the appeal and the objectives of scouting throughout the nation.

Many agencies for the handicapped are incorporating scout programs into their work, Eby explained. He said that he knows of 450 scout units whose entire membership consists of handicapped boys, either physically, mentally or financially.

A California unit carries on many activities, even though every boy is confined to an iron lung, he said. Seventy five units are listed by state correctional schools as an integral part of rehabilitation programs, Eby added.

Elby concluded by saying older members of the scout organization, which has been in existence 45 years, now are becoming valuable through the training they have had as scouts.

Brooklyn Firms Hit by $2 Million Fire

NEW YORK (AP) — Fire destroyed two lumberyards and three buildings last night and the flames threatened the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn.

A fire official estimated damage at two million dollars.

Four hundred firemen and 70 pieces of apparatus raced to the scene. Eighteen firefighters were injured, none seriously.

The fire started when a sawdust blower exploded in a one-story frame planing and moulding plant adjoining one lumberyard. Two employes fled to safety.

Flames engulfed another lumberyard, and a bolt and screw factory on the same block also was destroyed. A paint store across the street from one yard suddenly burst into flames.

Young Walgreen Hurt in Ohio Crash

TOLEDO (AP) — The 19-year-old heir to the Walgreen drugstore chain was seriously injured yesterday when his car crashed into a utility pole in downtown Toledo.

Charles R. Walgreen III of Winnetka, Ill., was admitted to Mercy Hospital here. His companion, Robert H. Burns, 20, of Dearborn, is in critical condition in the same hospital.

Young Walgreen is the son of Charles R. Walgreen Jr., president and general manager of the national drug chain.

He told police that he and young Burns, both University of Michigan students, were here on a date with two Toledo girls and were on their way home when the accident occurred.

Police cited the Walgreen youth on charges of operating without due regard for safety and without an operator's license.

RIVERTON, Conn. (UP)—When Mrs. Carl Thomsen looked out her window she saw two things — a robin and a thermometer that read 10 below zero.

Solons Oblige Women With Full-Dress Debate

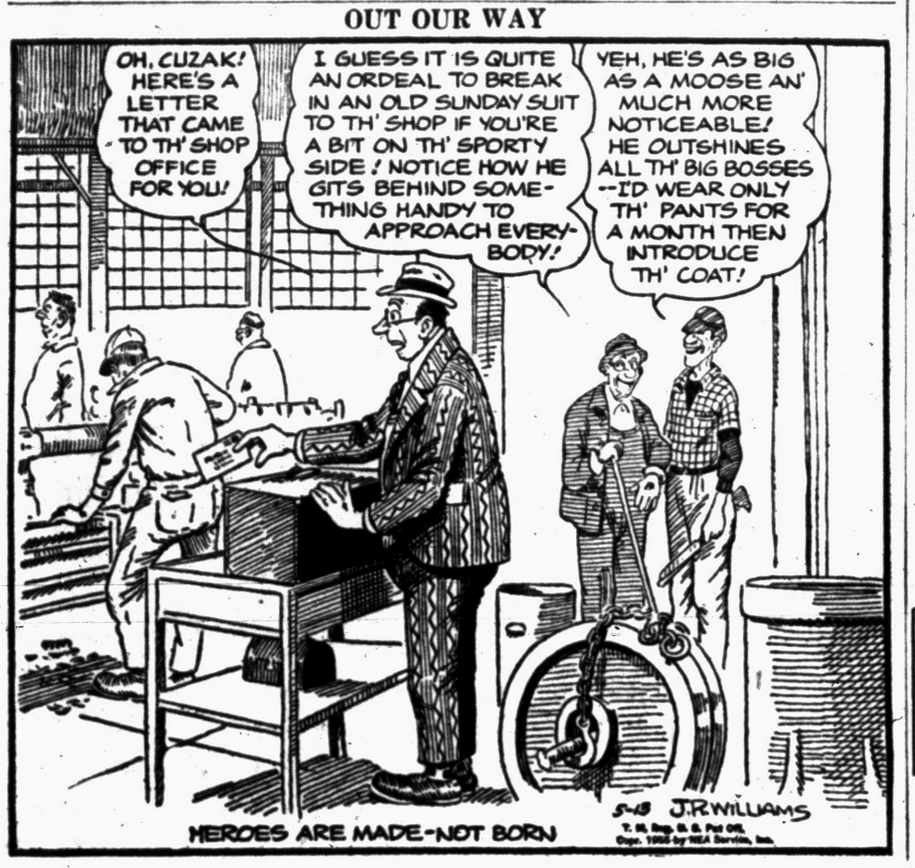

BOSTON (UP) — Massachusetts legislators have proved that chivalry isn't dead yet.

Wellesley's League of Women Voters arrived breathlessly at the State House here and explained they had come to hear a debate.

The lawmakers weren't in a debating mood—what with a lot of routine business—but they put on one anyway. For a short while there was furious action on the Senate floor as legislators argued over a minor state matter.

"We wouldn't have wanted them to go away without hearing a debate," said Sen. John Power.

Thirtyish Blonde Glad She's Starting to Get Wrinkles

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I just met a beautiful woman who claims to be glad she's getting older.

(Here, here, now! You mustn't talk that way about women. Ssssh! Bite your tongue or something.)

"I'm not worrying about these wrinkles—in fact, I welcome them," this woman said. "They bring me one step nearer to what I want to be."

(Quiet! Yeah, yeah, but not so loud.)

"What do you want to be—dead?" I asked her.

"Not yet. I want to be a character actress," she said.

(See? She might be sincere about it. Quiet!)

★ ★ ★ ★

The woman—or girl—was blonde Shirl Conway, the leggy, 6-foot comedienne in "Plain and Fancy," who is a former Powers model. She's in what I call a girl's early thirsties," though Shirl doesn't happen to be a drinker. She remembers when Tommy Manville came every night to see Eddie Cantor's "Banjo Eyes," in which she was a chorus girl, in case he might want to marry somebody in it. Virginia Mayo and Adele Jergens, both of Hollywood, were chorus girls then.

SHIRL

"If you're young and have 'regular features' you can't get anywhere being a comedienne," Miss Conway told me.

"Somebody says 'Oh, now, quit. You've a pretty face and pretty body, and you don't want to be a clown!"

"But maybe you've a heart that laughs. Maybe you don't mind a cocked leg or a hip out of place. Well, you have to wait till you get older before they'll try you!"

She's brilliant in the show. Perhaps her best laugh is when her beau looks at a young Amish girl and says: "She's 22. She has a very girlish quality."

"Well, at 22, what's the trick?" demands Shirl.

★ ★ ★ ★

Shirl, who's from Franklinville, N. Y., used to work in a Buffalo bank days and in a hotel cocktail lounge nights. One night the bank prez came into the lounge, heard her, and fired her. She came to New York promptly.

"I don't think anyone's been around as long as I have," she says. "These wrinkles . . ."

"You haven't wrinkles!" I said.

"Honey, I'm loaded with wrinkles. Only pretty soon I can call them 'character lines'."

Back Tax Sale Concluded Here

Delinquent Charges on Oakland County Land Bring $61,651.30

Back taxes on 2,063 pieces of Oakland County land were sold for $61,651.30 during a 10-day tax sale concluded yesterday, according to County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks.

The taxes were delinquent for years up through 1952, he explained.

Owners of the land now have 12 months to redeem the taxes and clear title to their land by paying the sums to persons who purchased the taxes during the sale, Sparks stated.

Owners must pay 1 per cent interest to the tax purchasers for each of the 12 months they remain unpaid. If the owner redeems after 12 months he must pay 50 per cent interest to the tax purchaser plus a $5 filing fee.

At the end of 18 months the tax purchaser can pay the back assessments himself and take title to the land.

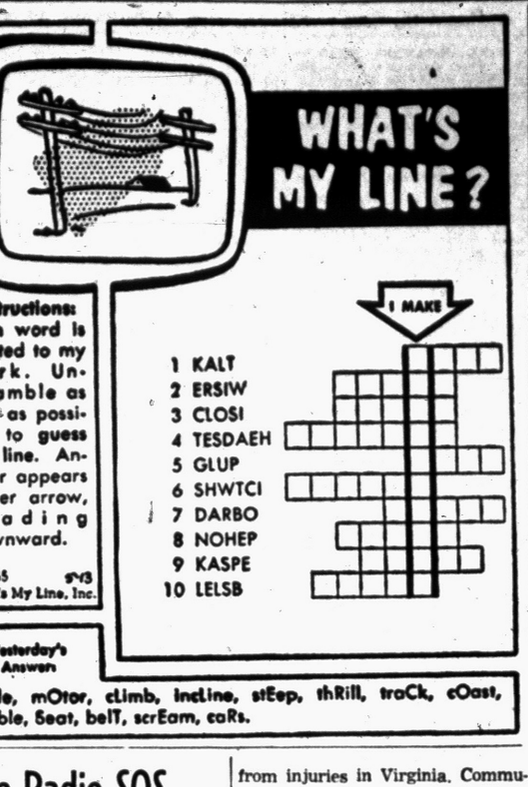

"Most of the purchases were made by professional buyers who hope to get interest on their money," said Sparks. "One individual made two-thirds, or $40,000 worth, of the purchases."

Back taxes not bid on are automatically turned over to the state. After 12 months they are put up for auction by the Conservation Department.

Plane Radio SOS Spans 3,000 Miles

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — It's about 3,000 miles from Big Bear Lake, Va., to Big Bear Lake, Calif. but a small plane radio transmitter spanned the distance and set off an emergency Air Force search.

March Air Force Base told the story here yesterday.

* * *

When Lawrence Harsh of Annandale, Va., crashlanded in the mountains of Virginia on May 5, his distress call was heard by a Los Angeles ham radio operator, Robert W. Wellett. "Two miles north of Big Bear Lake" meant only California to Wellett and his call brought out a fruitless search of the local mountains.

Meanwhile, Harsh is recovering from injuries in Virginia. Communications experts said an atmospheric freak caused the long transmission. The normal range of Harsh's radio sender is about 100 miles.

Marciano Fight Telecast Goes to Theaters

Fans Must Pay or Tune Radio

Link 80 Odd Theaters in Nationwide Show of Title Defense

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Television Viewers will receive a sharp reminder Monday night that not all big telecasts go to home sets.

There will be a nationwide telecast of Rocky Marciano's defense of his world heavyweight boxing championship against Don Cockell in San Francisco, but it will go only to theaters.

* * *

Boxing fans who want to see the telecast will have to pay about $3 on the average at one of the 80-odd theaters being linked for the event by Theater Network Television. Those who stay home can tune in a radio broadcast.

The event points up the widespread but relatively unpublicized use of closed circuit TV for entertainment, sports and business and industrial meetings.

It's the 12th theater telecast of boxing by TNT, the last previous one being the second Marciano-Ezzard Charles fight.

* * *

TNT and the rival Box Office Television both have done numerous closed circuit telecasts of nationwide sales conferences for industrial and business concerns.

BOT has done two theater telecasts of Metropolitan Opera performances, one in 1952 and the other last fall, and several of Notre Dame football games.

The big broadcasting network companies also have staged numerous closed circuit telecasts not transmitted over the air to home sets.

Participating theaters have found some of the boxing bouts and football games profitable, some not so. One entertainment event that didn't do well on closed circuit TV was the telecast in March of a special show by American National Theater and Academy to 33 theaters. Only one theater was a sellout and many had more seats empty than occupied.

Farming Aids Church

ORANGEVILLE, Mich. (AP)—People in Orangeville have gone back to the land for means to support the St. Francis Episcopal Mission. The congregation owns a 40-acre tract. Last year there was a crop of beans and corn for a net profit of about $1,000.

Woman Motorist Really Lives Up to Her Reputation

DETROIT (AP)—A motorist (feminine) was blamed by police yesterday for:

1. Running into the rear of four cars stopped for a red light at a busy Detroit intersection, Clairmount and Woodward.

2. Setting up a chain collision that damaged the four cars.

3. Backing up, swinging around the line of cars and driving through the red light across Woodward.

4. Losing control midway across Woodward and going over the curb and striking a 15-year-old boy, Patrick Brieley.

Picks Up Rider

5. Carrying the boy draped over a fender, through a plate glass window of a drug store.

6. Showering a soda fountain clerk, Mary Cecil, 19, with glass.

The car stopped inside the store amid a shower of falling merchandise. The store manager estimated damage to the stock at "some thousands of dollars." The boy and the soda clerk were treated at a hospital for cuts.

Patrolman Thomas Springsted of the accident prevention bureau quoted the motorist, Mrs. Asenath V. Brown, 56, as saying she "got excited."

She was ticketed for reckless driving.

President Can Raise Tariffs in Emergency

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—At least part of that rapidly growing giant, the chemicals industry, sought half a dozen changes in the administration's tariff-cutting bill while declaring support of "gradual, moderate, selective and reciprocal" tariff reduction.

The bill, as passed by the Senate last week, empowers the President to cut tariffs 15 per cent over a three-year period. But it also authorizes him to curb imports by quotas or higher tariffs when he finds an industry is being damaged by foreign competition in a way that imperils national security.

* * *

This was a point raised frequently by spokesmen for chemical and other industries in hearings before the Senate Finance Committee.

Of paramount importance, a chemicals witness said, is an extension of the peril point and escape clause provision of the bill to cover any industry which is found by the Office of Defense Mobilization to be part of the industrial base for mobilization.

That would take in about 250 industries.

Lead and zinc, always scarce in a defense crisis but a languishing industry, since Korea, asked for a 3-cent-a-pound excise tax on imports whenever prices drop below levels "sufficient to maintain an adequate mobilization base."

* * *

But the administration prefers to charge defense measures against defense appropriations when possible instead of mixing them with foreign economic policy. Last year the government set up an auxiliary stockpile, into which it funnels lead and zinc when sagging prices threaten to cause mine shutdowns.

Another vigorous demand for protection came from the electrical manufacturing industry. This Industry complained it is being undersold by 30 to 40 per cent in world markets and sought tariffs high enough to protect its home market.

* * *

Gwilym A. Price, president of Westinghouse Electrical Co., said reliance on what he called inferior foreign equipment, built at wages of one third to one tenth the U.S. average, "entails a national risk of the first magnitude." He added:

"Yet the procurement policies of the federal agencies are based almost entirely on price and do not take these defense factors into first consideration."

He was answered by Charles P. Taft of Ohio, brother of the late senator, who testified that this country is a huge net exporter of electrical machinery. Taft said the industry's testimony overlooked "the matter of economy to the U.S. government."

* * *

Last year's successful appeal of the jeweled watch industry for more tariff protection touched off a long controversy.

The four American producers of jeweled watches—Waltham, Elgin, Hamilton and Bulova—convinced an Office of Defense Mobilization committee in 1954 that their declining production, in the face of Swiss competition, was a national defense hazard.

The industry makes shell fuzes and other military timing devices. According to the Commerce Department, its working force dropped from a World War II peak of 12,000 to about 9,500 last year.

The ODM committee decided that further decline of the industry would mean a scattering and loss of skilled precision workers. After hearing several high defense officials, the Senate Armed Services Committee reached a similar conclusion.

* * *

Meantime, the Tariff Commission had sent recommendations for tariff relief to the White House based on "serious injury to the domestic industry." Accordingly, President Eisenhower, on July 27, boosted the tariff on Swiss movements.

The White House cited, as an "important collateral effect," the maintenance of a "satisfactory industrial mobilization base" for U.S. production of watch movements and "other precision devices necessary for national defense."

* * *

Switzerland threatened to retaliate with tariff boosts against U.S. exports. Other nations having trade agreements with the U.S. sent in alarmed inquiries. The 400 American firms which import Swiss movements and assemble them here—they employ many more workers than the four domestic manufacturers—started a campaign for withdrawal of the tariff hikes.

The case is now undergoing its annual review by the Tariff Commission.

This spring the Defense Department, after long urging by the importers, released its original confidential report to the ODM commitee, dated April 29, 1954.

* * *

To the joy of importers, this report said "no special or perferential treatment for the industry is necessary" for defense reasons. It said that all the military timing devices needed for mobilization were being, or could be, produced by camera firms, instrument makers and others.

Some observers have questioned whether tariffs are, in all cases, the best way to protect strategic industries. The Committee for Economic Development, influential businessmen's organization for economic research, recently proposed other methods.

It suggested, for military items, standby contracts to sustain small-scale production and research; for raw materials, stockpile buying; for some other products, direct or indirect defense subsidies such as sustain the merchant marine.

Crashes Into Building, Flunks Driver Exam

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Etta Higbie, 63, flunked her driving test before she took it when her car crashed into the license bureau building an hour before it opened. She arrived early to prepare for the test.

Aside from her shaken nerves, there was little damage and she says she will try again. They didn't tell her that the official who gives the driving tests didn't show up that day anyway.
