30 Killed as Airliner Cracks Up in Missouri

Cool Air Mass Due to Plunge Mercury

Temporary Heat Relief Promised Area Tonight

Temperatures Expected to Return to 90's by Sunday, However

Temporary relief from the heat wave which has gripped the area since July was predicted for tonight. But the tropic temperatures are slated to return Sunday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau says it will be partly cloudy through tomorrow with scattered thundershowers tonight and tomorrow. The heat is to ease tomorrow after climbing into the 90s today for the 22nd day since July 1 and the seventh day in a row.

Saturday's high will be in the 84-88 degree range, the weather bureau says.

But the temperatures will go steaming back to the 90-degree mark 24 hours later. Sunday's outlook is for fair, hot and humid again, exactly like yesterday when the mercury hit 96 in downtown Pontiac.

The relief will be borne on a cool air mass moving down through the Northern Plains and just extending into the area from eastern Lake Superior southwest to northwestern Iowa.

WIDESPREAD HEAT

The long string of 90-plus days has covered the area extending from the interior valleys of California and Oregon eastward to the Atlantic coastal and southern New England states. At least 61 deaths across the nation have been attributed to the heat.

So prologed has been the heat wave that Lake Michigan water registered 81 degrees at Grand Haven yesterday. It was the warmest since a similar hot spell sent the usually cool water to 83 degrees in 1948.

Yesterday's low thermometer reading in downtown Pontiac was 76 degrees. At 8 a.m. the mercury stood at the 80-degree level, rising to 94 degrees by 2 p.m.

Pontiac Auto Sales Smash 10-Day Marks

Pontiac dealers sold more new cars during the last 10-day period of July than in any 10-day period in the history of the division, R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac general manager, announced today.

A high daily rate of sales, which exceeded Pontiac's daily production rate by 27 per cent during the period, brought new car sales for July 21-31 to a record-breaking total of 21,636.

Deliveries of new Pontiacs during the last 10 days of July this year, 209 per cent of sales for the July total to 50,003 new units. Pontiac produced only 48,298 cars for domestic sales during July, Critchfield said.

Used car sales by Pontiac dealers hit a new high for the month of July. The total of 83,066 used cars which were delivered, surpassed any previous used car sales record by Pontiac dealers.

Downtown L.A. Busy

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Nearly 1½ million persons enter and leave downtown Los Angeles daily, the City Traffic Department reports. The exact figure, determined by a check from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., is 1,380,421.

Meet Has Big Take-Off

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Michigan's 90-plus temperatures were welcome in at least one spot yesterday. That was at Sunshine Gardens, where 200 midwest nudists opened a three-day meeting.

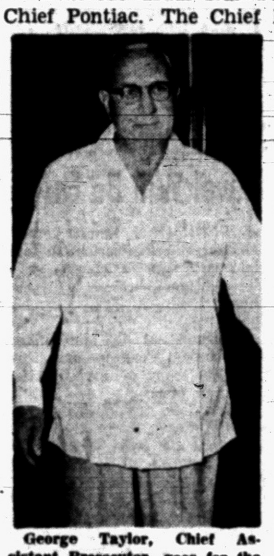

Chief Pontiac Speaks:

If Warriors Can Be Cool Squaws Can Stay Cooler

Attention, all males!

Questions have arisen in connection with Pontiac's new idea of going without neckties when the mercury passes 90.

With our usual zeal we referred these matters to Chief Pontiac. The Chief has just been unanimously elected president, executive vice president, secretary-treasurer and chairman of the administrative committee of the Necktie Emancipators. He is also chairman of the "We Ain't Gonna Sweat No More" Society.

George Taylor, Chief Assistant Prosecutor, goes for the new Pontiac fashion in a big way. George found this in Cuba and he swears you can wear it down there at night as a formal garment. (How in Sam Hill did Desi ever win Lucy in one of these?)

Query from Little Lord Fauntleroy of Auburn Heights: "May I leave off my necktie and unbutton a regular shirt?"

The Chief's Official Edict: "I favored that but one of my board, a Mr. A. Lapides, voted 'no.' Said Mr. Lapides (and I now quote from the minutes): 'We should make them buy sport shirts. That distinguishes the gentleman from the gentleman's gentleman. The fact I own a couple of clothing stores hasn't anything to do with it . . . well, not much'."

A query from the Rev. C. George Widdifield says: "Some of my most radical communicants (and we have very few radicals in the Episcopal parishes) want me to appear Sunday morning with an open throat. Should I comply? This is a dubious ecclesiastical precedent and I want to quote your reply at the next diocesan convention."

Chief Pontiac says: "You can quote me at length and in complete detail. NO."

A query comes in signed Bird Watcher, which asks: "How can I tell when I leave for the office whether it will be 90 that day? If I wear my sport shirt and it only gets up to 89.3 will I be subjected to social ostracism by my compatriots?

The Chief's ruling: "Whenever the Press says it will be 90 the next day, you can wear your sport shirt without jeopardy. Also if the morning radio report says 90, you are privileged."

And the final question that we have selected out of the 32,865 that came in the first mail, says: "If my husband, Herman, wears an open throat down to his office, isn't it a feminine prerogative to wear one that is quite a bit more open." Signed, Anxious Annabelle.

And the Injine replies: "Yes, indeedy. If you haven't heard the latest on plunging necklines, call me. And how about a few frosty martinis and a spot of lunch tomorrow noon at some nearby wigwam."

In the meantime the Press is threatened with a suit. "I want you to know," phones Monroe Osmun of Osmun's, "that the Amalgamated Necktie Association of the Greater Western Hemisphere is considering an all-out suit against you for restraint of trade."

Well, of course, we are scared to death, but we'll try and balance that off against the big check we confidently expect from the Sports Shirt Institute of Three Continents.

Search Wreckage After Airliner Crashes in West

11 U.S. Airmen Tokyo-Bound

Fliers on Way Home Satisfy Appetites for Steak, Freedom

MANILA, (AP)—Eleven U.S. airmen, joyfully satisfying appetites for freedom and steaks, flew tonight to Tokyo on their way home after 2½ years as Red China captives.

The fliers, freed yesterday at Hong Kong, were scheduled to arrive this morning at Tachikawa Air Base near Tokyo.

In a news conference Sunday afternoon, Col. John Knox Arnold Jr., Silver Spring, Md., and his 10 B29 crew members are expected to give a fuller account of their ordeal of months of grim questioning in Red Chinese prisons. Far East Air Forces headquarters announced delay of the meeting originally set for tomorrow.

In a brief news conference at Hong Kong, Arnold emphatically declared the B29 was 35 to 40 miles south of Red China's borders when MIG fighters shot it down Jan. 12, 1953, in the Korean War.

Arnold spoke bitterly of the "trial" last November in which Red China convicted them as "spies" and asserted the leaflet dropping plane had "violated" Communist China's air. They were given 4 to 10-year sentences.

Of their life in the 21 months between capture and trial, Maj. Ralph Bryant, FEAF public information officer, said they reported it was questioning "for weeks and months on end."

In the overnight stay at Clark Field near Manila they relaxed happily in their new freedom, underwent medical checks and relished American-style food.

Sgt. Howard W. Brown, St. Paul, Minn., ate seven steaks within three hours.

Lt. Col. James N. Davis, St. Louis, said medical checks showed them "physically and mentally well—really doing fine."

Need for Road Projects Shown in Traffic Study

Some 44 miles of expressway construction in South Oakland County are recommended in the findings of a 2-year Detroit Metropolitan Area Traffic Study, according to Oakland County Plan Commission Highway Engineer Robert A. Larson.

The survey included Oakland south from a line running between Long Lake Road on the east and Farmington Road on the west. Recommendations were made only for roads within the survey area.

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler has said the survey, now completed, was necessary before future road building in Oakland could be planned.

The seven recommended expressway-sections include:

Guard Units Leave Saturday

Two Pontiac Companies Heading for Training at Grayling

The nearly 200 officers and men of Pontiac's two National Guard units will leave tomorrow for Camp Grayling to join more than 8,700 other members of Michigan's "Iron Fist" Division for two weeks of intensive field and combat training.

Both Company M, 125th Infantry, and the 107th Ordnance Company will leave Pontiac during the early-morning hours in two convoys of five and 10 vehicles.

The 107th, commanded by Capt. Carl G. Yarling, will make up the first convoy while Company M, a heavy weapons unit led by Capt. A. J. Largent, will leave an hour later. Both units are scheduled to arrive at the northern Michigan camp by noon tomorrow.

While at camp, all units will receive training in all phases of warfare, including simulated combat conditions which will make up the main part of the million-dollar training program.

Recruits will be given training in basic Army requirements, including marching, drilling and practice on the rifle range.

Medalist Beaten, Babbish Winner

Joe Grace Jr., medalist in Thursday's qualifying round of the Detroit District Golf Association tournament at Orchard Lake Country Club, was eliminated in the 1st round of match play today by Wally Smith. Smith downed the 19-year-old youth, who plays out of the Detroit Golf Club, 2 and 1.

In other 1st round matches today, Dave MacHarg trimmed Dan Larkin, 4 and 2; Bill Artman defeated Lou Wenger, 2-up; Gene Woodard downed Chuck Menefee, 2 and 1; Bob Billig defeated George Linklater, 1-up; Sam Kocsis beat Jim Smith, 3 and 2; Skip MacMichaels beat Steve Purdo, 4 and 3.

Woman Killed in Auto Crash

Ten Others Are Injured in Headon Collision on M59 Last Night

One woman was killed and 10 other persons injured in a 2-car headon crash last night on M59 at Milford Road, 15 miles west of Pontiac.

She was in a car driven by her employer, Mrs. Merle W. Lybeck, 42, of Lower Straits Lake, Commerce Township. Mrs. Lybeck was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with a broken leg, ankle and ribs.

Her son, Douglas, 13, was admitted with a broken nose and severe cuts. He is reported in fair condition and his mother's condition was satisfactory.

Also injured were the driver of the other car, Mrs. Rose Mary Caswell, 37, of Milford, her six children and a neighbor girl.

Mrs. Caswell was treated for a chest injury while her 14-year-old daughter, Patricia, was admitted with a broken pelvis bone. Her condition was reported as fair. Another child, Norwood, 7, was admitted with severe face cuts and is reported in poor condition.

The neighbor girl, Martha Small, 11, along with Mrs. Caswell's other children, Jan. 5, Jack, 2, Norene, 11 and Charlene, 8, were treated for cuts and bruises and released.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Caswell, driving a westbound station wagon, made a left turn onto Milford Road into the path of Mrs. Lybeck's westbound auto.

Both cars, heavily damaged, were impounded pending further investigation by deputies.

3 Area People Listed Among Crash Victims

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Royal Oak man and two other Detroit area persons were among 30 who died yesterday afternoon in an American Airlines Convair crash near Ft. Leonard Wood in Missouri.

They were Tilson J. Garough, 206 N. Connecticut, Royal Oak; Herman Schmyser, Detroit, both employes of Vickers, Inc., and Mrs. Howard Rohleder, Garden City.

Mrs. Rohleder's husband, Dr. Howard Rohleder, was waiting for his wife at Willow Run airport when told of the crash.

The plane has a 40-passenger capacity and carries a crew of three.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol reported the Convair crashed in flames.

The pilot kept his crippled plane aloft for more than 30 miles in a desperate bid for a safe landing but crashed just short of his goal. All 30 persons aboard were killed.

"Just a little more and he would have made it," said an eyewitness, Lt. A. J. Brewster of Ft. Leonard Wood. "The plane came in very low over a housing area, then banked steeply and headed for the post airport.

Most of the bodies in yesterday's crash were burned too badly for quick identification.

The twin-engine Convair, with 27 passengers and three crewmen, was only half a mile from the post's Forney Airport when it lost its right wing and plummeted into a heavily timbered gully. Hours later the wreckage was still smoldering.

Numerous eyewitnesses at Lieber Heights, where some 6,000 people live, saw the plane streak overhead in sunny weather at an altitude estimated variously at from 200 to 500 feet.

Chief Short Changes Force on Uniforms

ST. LOUIS (INS)—Police of St. Louis — where humid 90 degree weather is common in the summer —agree with Mayor Raymond Tucker on the need for more appropriate hot weather uniforms. But they don't agree 100 per cent.

The mayor in a letter to Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell suggested a sports shirt (open at the collar), a sun helmet and Bermuda shorts.

Only the sports shirt and the sun helmet have met the approval of the officers.

Drayton Firm Hoping to Construct Water Pipeline for Entire County

Nearly all Oakland County could be supplied water by a pipeline from Lake Huron which the Lafayette Engineering Co., of Drayton Plains, hopes to construct, the firm's assistant Treasurer Anthony W. Sulak said today.

"We would expect to serve 12,000,000 people within the next 12 years in Southeastern Michigan," he stated.

R. R. Stitt, vice president of the firm, outlined the scheme at a meeting of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee in Detroit yesterday.

The committee including Oakland, Wayne, Washtenaw, Macomb and Monroe Counties, was organized last September to launch a coordinated attack on region-wide problems such as water and highways.

SERVE 3 COUNTIES

The line would serve Macomb, St. Clair and Oakland Counties and perhaps areas to the south, Stitt stated.

Three 11-foot tubes would be built extending 55 to 65 miles along a 500-foot right-of-way to a point near Pontiac, Stitt explained.

He said his company already has a tentative agreement for use of 50 miles of right-of-way.

Stitt did not disclose what right-of-way would be used, but another source said the water line would parallel the Grand Trunk Railroad track from Port Huron to Pontiac.

He said engineering has been underway for two years on the project and is complete except for minor details. Stitt estimated the system would cost from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 and could be built in about 30 months.

USE EXISTING SYSTEMS

The firm would contract with communities to bring water to local pumping stations for distribution by the communities through existing systems, said Sulak.

After the firm has operated the pipeline for 25 years it would revert to the communities it serviced, he added.

Bond issue financing from New York "is pretty well set and we expect a definite answer within a few days."

At least three investment and bonding firms are said to be interested in financing the project. All are reported to have hired engineering firms to study feasibility of the plan.

The firm will submit its proposal in writing to the Water Sub-Committee of the Inter-coun-

Suspect Young Housewife Slain

Police Discover Bloody Clothes; Fear Kidnap or Murder

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A blood-stained automobile containing the ripped and bloody clothing of a wealthy young housewife was found abandoned on a busy thoroughfare early today and police theorized the missing woman had been kinaped and slain.

* * *

Mrs. Wilma Allen, 34, wife of William Allen Jr., North Kansas City Chevrolet dealer, and mother of two small boys, has been missing since she left a beauty parlor yesterday noon.

Her 1955 convertible was found parked under a viaduct near 22nd and Broadway, by the Union Station, at 2:10 a.m.

* * *

Maj. Eugene Pon, chief of detectives, said the rear seat and floor of the car were saturated with blood and that all of Mrs. Allen's clothing—lingerie, skirt, blouse and shoes—was stuffed into the trunk compartment. There was blood streaked along the chrome trim on one side of the car and on the rear bumper.

Her purse was missing. Pond said, however, the attractive brunette had cashed a $30 check at the beauty parlor, paid $5 for services there and that because of the small sum she apparently carried, robbery was not believed to have been a motive.

* * *

Police were proceeding on the theory that Mrs. Allen had been kidnaped yesterday afternoon, driven to some isolated spot, slain and her body disposed of, and the car then driven to the spot where it was abandoned.

Mrs. Allen is the mother of two sons, Billy, 11, and Bobby, 8.

Police said friends described the Allens as a model couple.

The scholarships, each of $1,320, memoralize Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, founders of Cranbrook; Eliel Saarien, Finnish architect who was first head of the academy and James Scripps Booth, academy trustee.

Farmers Price Index Sees 2-Point Rise

LANSING (AP) — The index of prices received by Michigan farmers rose two points during the month ending in mid-July, the Federal - State Crop Reporting Service said today.

Higher prices for milk, eggs, cattle and some vegetables more than offset declines reported for hogs, small grains, potatoes and sour cherries.

The livestock and products index was up three points while the all-crop index was the same as a month earlier.

Compared with mid-July of 1954, the all farm products, all crops and all livestock indexes were down 10, three and 20 points, respectively.

Wixom Youth Held on Charge of Rape

Robertson, 19, of Wixom, was accused of attacking the girl Aug. 2, State Police of the Pontiac Post said. He appeared before Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

State Bar Elects Adams District Head

Donald E. Adams, of 2711 W. Walton Blvd., of Waterford Township, has been elected a district commissioner of the bar, the Michigan State Bar announced today.

Maurice A. Merritt, of Royal Oak, an incumbent and Edward P. Barrett, of Pontiac, were defeated in the 18th District by Adams. The vote was Adams, 90, Merritt, 75, and Barrett, 54.

Davy Crockett and Superman at Fort Knox

FORT KNOX, Ky., (AP)—The battle of the century may be shaping up at this Army post.

On one side is Davy Crockett; on the other Superman.

All that's needed to spark this bout into a decisive contest is another song—about Superman—to tickle the fancy of youngsters and jangle the nerves of oldsters.

* * *

As a starter, the ballad maker might try this:

Nor was he born in Tennessee.
He was born on a mount of Mars.
And spent his youth among stars.
A citizen of outer space
He sped with lightning grace
From Dorado to Scorpio, or Diablo to Capistrano.

* * *

It is high time, doubtless, to explain that Davy Crockett and Davy Superman are soldiers at Fort Knox, and getting plenty of attention because of their names.

A descendant of the famous pioneer, Crockett is a native of Fonthill, Ky., while Superman, who arrived last week, is a native of Springfield, Mass.

Ex-Arkansas Residents Invited to Picnic Here

Former Arkansas residents are invited to an all-day picnic at Oakland Park Sunday.

There will be rides for the youngsters and contests for children and adults, according to Albert Wilkinson, president of the organization sponsoring the yearly affair.

Picknickers will bring their own lunches, which will be eaten at 2:30 p.m. at a "mile-long" table, Wilkinson said. Some 2,000 persons are expected.

Lewis M. Wrenn, city engineer, will be acting city manager until Willman returns Aug. 15.

California, popularly known as the source of a large part of the nation's fruit, shipped vegetables which were double the volume of her fruit production in 1954.

Ike Expects to Continue Talks With Soviet Russia

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower held the door open today for continuing negotiations with Soviet Russia on an international aerial inspection system to control armaments.

The chief executive told his news conference yesterday that he did not believe Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin had flatly rejected the U. S. Geneva "Summit" conference proposal for an inspection system.

Bulganin told the Supreme Soviet in Moscow that Mr. Eisenhower's "open skies" proposal for international air patrols was not acceptable. He also termed the plan for exchanging blueprints of military establishments of "no real important value."

President Eisenhower said he understood Bulganin was arguing that the Russian inspection plan was "more realistic."

He told newsmen: "Speaking informally at Geneva, I said if they trusted that kind of an inspection system, it was all right with us; we would adopt both. And I proposed, let's take them both."

The chief executive indicated that talks on the problem are only in the preliminary stage.

He declared: "Now, these are matters that take long examination by experts, I don't understand that the Premier (Bulganin) closed the door, and I merely say we are ready to accept and examine any kind of system that looks fair to us and to both sides."

The President also told newsmen that he plans to spend next week at his Gettysburg farm signing the flood of bills passed by Congress in its adjournment rush. When that chore is finished he will make a brief visit to Washington before flying to Denver on Aug. 14 or 15 for an extended work and play vacation.

He has to return to the east coast for a speaking engagement in Philadelphia on Aug. 24 before the American Bar Assn., but after that he will return to Denver.

The chief executive will again maintain his office at Lowry Air Force Base, putting in several hours of work each day there before taking off for the golf links or a fishing stream.

The Constellation Leaves Boston for Last Home

BOSTON (AP)— The USS Constellation, world's oldest warship afloat, quietly departed Boston today at sunrise for Baltimore, where she was launched in 1797.

Few saw her leave. Only a tug of the Ross Towboat Co. on old T Wharf gave her a salute. This was acknowledged with three brassy blasts, which put sea gulls into uneasy flight.

Navy officers estimated the towing job would require four or five days. At Baltimore, the Constellation will be placed in a snug bed of masonry, at the expense of Marylanders who put up $100,000 for the job.

* * *

Constellation is riding high in the ARD16, a floating drydock such as puzzled the Japanese in the last war when the Navy made it possible to return damaged vessels quickly to commission. A powerful Navy diesel-electric tug furnished power, as the ARD has none of her own.

In her prime, the Constellation twice humiliated French naval forces and soundly trounced the Tripoli pirates. She also participa-

Death of Detroit Couple Ruled Murder, Suicide

DETROIT (AP)—Police today reported as murder and suicide the death of George Davey, 48, and his wife, Maxine, 47.

Gas Tax Boost Nets $3,425,571

State Secretary Says $9,210,787 Is Realized From Regular Levy

LANSING, (AP) — Michigan's cent and one half gas tax increase, which became effective June 1, has yielded $3,425,571 so far, Secy. of State James M. Hare said today.

The amount is credited to a special highway construction fund to be used in building a network of four lane arterial highways and state trunklines.

In addition, the state collected $9,210,787 from the regular four and one half cent a gallon gas tax during Juy. This compares with $8,718,149 collected in July of last year, Hare said.

Hare said 3,148,806 vehicles were registered in the state during the first six months of 1955 compared with 2,957,289 during the same period of 1954.

He said it is apparent that the state will have registered some 3,565,000 vehicles by the end of the year—729,000 more than in 1952, only three years ago.

City Officials See Shopping Area Plans

Mayor William W. Donaldson and two city commissioners flew to Columbus, Ohio, yesterday to view the model of a proposed multi-million dollar shopping center at Telegraph and Square Lake Rds.

Donaldson, Commissioner Floyd P. Miles and Commissioner John E. Carry flew to the Ohio capital and back with Bernard Edelman, developer of the local center. The city paid the three official's fare although Edelman offered free transportation.

"I was very much impressed," Donaldson said, "and I think the others were too." Columbus has three identical shopping centers, he said, and a fourth is under construction. All are like the proposed one here.

Drayton Firm Hopes to Build Pipeline

"The plan looks good upon first examination," said Kelley. "There are many legal problems involved, but I think they could be overcome."

TO STUDY PLANS

If the project is done with public funds, as the committee first planned, it would probably take at least five years, he added. "We will meet to study the plan as soon as full details are available," Kelly said.

Bernard Kalahar, chairman of the Macomb County Board of Supervisors, said "It seems like the only way to get an adequate supply of water.

"It shouldn't cost the public too much because the Public Utilities Commission will set the rates."

Red Cross Evolves Plan for Bloodmobile Workers

Persons whose time is limited now can participate in volunteer activities, and if enough workers can be recruited, one six-hour day per month per worker will keep the mobiles well staffed.

According to Mrs. John Logan of Royal Oak, service group chairman, less than a day of training late in September will qualify volunteers for work on the winter's schedule.

In the past, except for mobile registrars, personnel had to be in one of the Red Cross service groups, and longer training periods were required, Mrs. Logan said.

Duties on the mobiles include the reception and registration of donors, and assistance to nurses.

Meanwhile, members of the Blood Advisory Committee have voted to put more responsibility on area mobile chairmen. During the coming months, their job will be to study the blood needs in respective areas, schedule mobiles and recruit donors so that 100 pints of blood per mobile can be reached.

Future bloodmobile visits are: Aug. 23, Methodist Church House, Lake Orion; August 29, Pontiac Elks Temple; Sept. 12, VFW Hall No. 3890, Oak Park, and Sept. 13 to 14, GMC Truck and Coach in Pontiac.

Chrysler Sales Best in History

Sell More Cars in First Half of '55; Dividend to Stay 75 Cents Share

NEW YORK (AP)—Chrysler Corp. fighting hard to overcome a 1954 slump sold more cars and trucks in the first six months this year than in any other first half in company history. Its profits for the first six months were more than 3½ times larger than in all of 1954.

Progress of Chrysler's 1955 comeback was recounted by K. T. Keller, chairman, and L. L. Colbert, president, after a quarterly meeting of the board of directors yesterday. Despite the glowing sales and earnings reports, the directors failed to raise the dividend. They declared the same dividend of 75 cents a share that had been paid in the four previous quarters.

These were the report's highlights:

Earnings —$70,010,642 for the first half, equal to a whopping $8.04 a share. That compares with $15,791,660, or $1.81 a share, for the first six months of '54. It's more than 3½ times the $18,517,000 Chrysler earned in all of last year.

Sales — $1,884,638,006 against $1,085,382,902 in the first half of 1954. The gain of nearly 800 million dollars was achieved despite a sharp drop in government defense work from 155 millions to 70 millions.

Auto and truck shipments—an all-time high for any first half-year at 900,546 units. That's nearly double the 471,036 vehicles shipped out of Chrysler Corp. factories in the first six months last year. Including those built last fall, the company by mid-year had delivered more than 1,100,000 of its re-styled 1955 Plymouth, Dodge, Desoto, Chrysler and Imperial passenger models.

The 75-cent dividend is payable Sept. 13 to stockholders of record Aug. 15. There had been some expectation in financial circles that the dividend might be raised. It was cut to 75 cents just a year ago when Chrysler sales were ebbing. The previous rate had been $1.50 a share.

The report stressed the improved ratio of profits to sales volume. Earnings in the first six months this year amounted to 3.71 per cent of sales; a year earlier the percentage was only 1.45.

It also laid heavy emphasis on the big capital outlays Chrysler has budgeted for new plant and equipment. Such expenditures for the first six months totaled nearly 53½ millions. New plants, new machinery and new facilities will have to be coordinated into the corporation's production planning this fall, and as a result some Chrysler Corp. plants may shut down longer than usual while changing over to production of 1956 models, the report said. It specifically mentioned a new Plymouth engine plant, plus new equipment at plants of its Chrysler, Dodge, Desoto and automotive body divisions.

As a further expansion move, the report noted, Chrysler Corp. is going ahead with plans to acquire the plants, equipmept and inventories of Universal Products Co. of Dearborn, Mich., an important supplier of drive shafts, universal joints and other purchased parts. The sale depends upon approval by Universal stockholders "and certain other conditions," the report said. Purchase price is estimated between 3 and 3½ million dollars.

No mention was made of published reports that Chrysler Corp. was negotiating for the purchase of Electric Auto-Lite Co., big manufacturer of ignition systems and other automotive components.

Anxious Woman Causes Postal Clerk Confusion

OMAHA, (AP)—Postal clerk Joe Weber says nobody has to believe it but it did happen to him.

A woman walked up to his counter yesterday and tendered a $5 savings certificate to be cashed in. Weber told her it would cost a dime because the certificate hadn't been held for a month.

* * *

"I don't have a dime," the lady exclaimed and hurried away before Weber could tell her he could take it out of the $5.

Soon she was back with a dime.

"I borrowed it," she smiled.

Weber took the certificate and the dime and pushed out a $5 bill.

"Please change it. I have to pay back the loan," the lady said.

Cool Jobs Wait, New York Told

NEW YORK (INS)—Hot weather note: The New York State Employment Service advertised today seven real cool jobs open in Iceland, Greenland and Labrador. The vacancies are for civil, mechanical and construction engineers and superintendents. Temperature during August ranges from 45 to 50 degrees.

Tourist Trade Is Cited

ESCANABA (AP) — The tourist trade accounts for 10 to 18 per cent of the retail business of some Escanaba stores during peak vacation months, Secretary Hugh Grow of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce said after a survey.

Recreation Board Plans Three-Way Co-ordination

BIRMINGHAM—In the only formal action taken at a special meeting last night, the Recreation Board re-elected its slate of officers, and took steps to help determine future operation of the city's recreation program.

Members agreed to invite the City Commission and the Board of Education to attend a joint session probably to be held in the fall, to bring about a closer co-operation in the expanding program.

Meanwhile, a three-man committee appointed by Mrs. William Jackson, recreation board chairman, was named to plan the future meeting. The group will explore the board's history and its current standing.

POINTS TO GROWTH

"It is only natural with our great growth that periodic revisions should be made to provide ultimately for a more efficient operation of the program," said Mrs. Jackson.

Some form of a recreation program has existed here for about 20 years, Mrs. Jackson said, and the present setup had its beginning in 1947.

Appointment of a recreation director by the recreation board, to work with two advisers appointed respectively by the city commission and the school board, was suggested recently as a possible step forward by City Manager Donald C. Egbert.

The suggestion was contained in a committee report sent to all parties involved.

10 YEARS IN OFFICE

Now serving her 10th year on the board, Mrs. Jackson was last night re-elected as chairman, a post she has held for the past three years. Reese again will be vice chairman, and Spence retains his job as secretary.

* * *

All but two portions of the Recreation Board's summer program will end today, with the closing of the day camp at Springdale Park and the Adams, Pembroke, Torry, Pierce and Quarton School playground activities. The junior sports program at Birmingham High School also is finished.

A high point of their week's stay came over the weekend, when the boys held an evening ceremonial and presented Scoutmaster Joseph R. Beckley with a plaque commemorating the occasion. They branded the plaque in his presence.

Scout awards also were presented. The boys made strides in first and second class advancement. B-12 is one of the city's newer troops.

* * *

Assessments were reviewed and approved by the City Commission this week for mat and seal road oil treatment for portions of Cedar, Catalpa, Southlawn, Westchester Way and Purdy streets.

The same method was approved to be done on parts of Arden Lane, Hillside, Fairway and Golfview and Greenlawn boulevards, all in Golfview Heights Subdivision.

William Pitcock, 58, of 947 Bennaville, was released on $500 bond yesterday on a morals charge involving minors. He demanded examination and will appear Aug. 26 in Municipal Court.

John C. Hilty

John C. Hilty, 44, a former longtime Birmingham resident, died suddenly Thursday at his home in Ft. Wayne, Ind., where he had lived for seven years. He was an industrial engineer with the U. S. Rubber Co. there.

He leaves his widow, Dorothy S.; one daughter, Susan; one son, John Jr.; his parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. K. Hilty, all of Ft. Wayne; and a brother, Robert, of Traverse City.

His body will arrive at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Sunday afternoon, with service to be held Monday at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Roseland Park Cemetery.

Says Future Space Travel Will Be Easy

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — Traveling through space 50 years from now will be easy — "just like changing trains at Times Square."

* * *

A scientist at the International Astronautical Congress made that prediction today and explained how it will be done:

"First, we establish manned space stations above the earth. That will be easy. Then rocket ships designed to push through the earth's atmosphere land on the space station which is traveling around the earth at 15,625 miles an hour.

* * *

"The rocket ship, besides carrying passengers in specially designed suits, will carry prefabricated space ship parts and the space ship will be assembled near the space station.

The passengers get off the rocket ship and into the assembled space ship, which will take off at the same speed as the whirling space station. It will be the same thing coming back."

NOTICE OF TAXES CITY OF PONTIAC

1955 City and School taxes will be due and payable at the office of the City Treasurer August 8, 1955, through September 9, 1955, without fees.

Payments made by mail must be postmarked not later than September 9, 1955, to avoid penalty.

September 10, 1955, a collection charge of one per cent (1%) will be added and one per cent (1%) additional each month thereafter any unpaid City and School Taxes.

All 1955 City and School Taxes remaining unpaid as of March 1, 1956, will be payable at the County Treasurer's Office, subject to additional penalties as provided by State Law.

State Reveals U.S.-23 Project

Fenton - Saginaw Link Planned in Arterial Highway Program

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department states it expects to complete by February the plans for the new U.S. 23 west bypass of Flint.

The project will be a four lane, divided limited acess route over a new right-of-way for 34 miles and will cost $18,500,000 exclusive of the right-of-way.

The Department said the Flint bypass is part of a planned expressway connection from the John Lodge expressway in Detroit and the Northwestern super highway, bypassing Pontiac and Flint on the west, Saginaw on the east and Bay City on the west to join the four lane highway northwest of Bay City.

The Department said the project will start at the South Genesee County line southwest of Fenton and go northerly west of Torrey Rd. to Cook Rd., thence northerly east of Torrey Rd. to M-121, thence northerly bypassing Flint on the west and northerly to the North Genesee County line between Jennings Rd. and Linden Rd. west of Clio, thence northerly to a temporary connection with existing U.S. 23 and U.S. 10 approximately five miles north of Clio.

The Department said there will be 33 stretches on the section, including two bridges over rivers, one over a river and a highway, 16 grade seperations over roads and streets, one railroad grade separation, one combination railroad and highway separation and 13 traffic interchanges.

Construction on the section between M-121 and M-78 was started in 1951. Four structures are either completed or under contract and paving has been completed from Bristol Rd. to Rabley Rd.

Money Order Processing to Be Expedited

The daily task of processing a stack of paid postal money orders which weigh about three and a third tons will be speeded up by Oct. 1, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today.

A single money order accounting office, capable of handling approximately 360,000,000 orders which are purchased annually, will be set up in Kansas City, Mo.

The office will replace the 12 now in operation, Summerfield said.

After Oct. 1, the 36 federal reserve banks and branches will ship money orders deposited with them directly to the Kansas City center. The process will eliminate more than one fourth of the Route which the orders now go through.

"The new Kansas City Accounting Headquarters will be well equipped to handle the enormous amounts of money orders which pour in from all parts of the country. Key personnel will be transferred from other offices to make certain the operation runs efficiently," Summerfield explained.

Immigrant Aids Hospital to Show Appreciation

* * *

It'll be there because Max R. H. Treu, a native of Johannesburg, South Africa, feels just like that.

Treu, a wholesale beer distributor came to America in 1910. He was naturalized in 1915, started his business during the depression on a shoestring and prospered.

Treu gave $5000 in the campaign to add 122 beds and two new wings to the 81-year-old hospital.

"America was good to me," said Treu. "I can't think of a better place than a hospital to let people know."

Area residents are being asked to contribute 1½ million dollars to the building fund. The Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent De Paul who operate the hospital will provide an additional two million dollars.

Flying Farmers' Wives Will Compete for Title

EAST LANSING (AP)—Wives of Flying Farmers from 48 states will compete for the title of "Flying Queen" at the annual meeting of the National Flying Farmers Association Aug. 15-19 at Michigan State University.

More than 1,000 delegates and some 500 planes are expected for the 10th annual meeting.

Drowns Helping Friend

WHITE CLOUD (AP)—Carl Jones, 16, of White Cloud, drowned in Hardy Pond on the Muskegon river Thursday while helping a younger swimming companion to shore. Sheriff Robert Dougan said Jones became exhausted while helping David Burkholder, about 10, of White Cloud to shallow water.

New Atomic Reactor Site Set in New York City Area

NEW YORK (INS) — Plans to construct an atomic reactor in the New York area have been announced by eight major corporations.

The firms, whose interests range from cigarette manufacturing to can making, expect the reactor to be devoted solely to research.

The corporations joining in the project are AMF Atomics, Inc., subsidiary of American Machine and Foundry; American Tobacco Co. Continental Can Co. Corning Glass Works; International Nickel Co.; Chas. Pfizer and Co.; Socony Mobil Oil Co. Inc., and United States Rubber Co.

Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, president and board chairman of AMF Atomics which will build the project, said options have been taken on two sites, each within 50 miles of New York City. The atomic facility, scheduled to be started in the fall and ready for use in a year, will cost between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

Operation of the laboratory will be directed by a university and part of the reactor's operating time will be made available for medical research.

$2,000,000 Sweepstake Bill to Be OK'd Today After Previous Defeat

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—The State Senate yesterday approved a measure establishing a state-operated sweepstakes to raise two million dollars annually on two horse races to be run at Rockingham Park. The House has approved the bill and Gov. Lane Dwinell says he'll sign it.

* * *

Sponsors, estimating annual revenue at two million dollars, tacked it onto a $350,000 school construction bill but the Senate killed an amendment to earmark all income for education.

The proposal, defeated in the Legislature for the past three or four years, calls for two special horse races a year at Rockingham Park in Salem. The State Racing Commission would control operation of the sweeps.

* * *

No plans have beenannounced to show how the scheme would work, but its sponsor, House Minority Leader Laurence M. Pickett, a Republican from Keene, suggested tickets be priced at $5 and that the top prize be $25,000.

Ride the Rods—No Sir He Rides in Style!

NEWARK, Ohio, (AP)—A Columbus man, Numroe Artis, 64, charged with shoplifting 75 cents worth of ham, appeared before Municipal Judge Harvey J. Alexander yesterday.

The judge fined him $10 and strongly suggested he leave town.

"Yes, sir, your honor, sir, judge, sir," said Artis, "I'll catch the first freight out tonight."

Alexander reminded him it was illegal to ride the rods.

"Yes, sir, yor honor, sir, judge, sir, but I ain't riding the rods; I'm riding in a boxcar," said Artis.

President Should Order Special Highway Session

No one knows better than President Eisenhower that the Nation's highway needs are critical.

Nor is anyone more aware that the Democratically controlled Congress has walked out on its obligation to do something about those needs.

It could have been no surprise to Mr. Eisenhower, therefore, that Michigan's Governor Williams has joined Detroit's Mayor Cobo in asking that Congress be called back into a special highway session. Both the Governor and the Mayor realize what a disaster for Michigan was the failure of Congress to enact a Federal aid highway program.

★ ★ ★

For Michigan it means that the State's recently approved $35,000,000 a year trunkline expansion program will have to be curtailed for lack of increased Federal aid. For Detroit it means paralysis of that city's long range billion dollar program of expressways construction.

There are sharp differences of opinion as to the proper financing of a Federal aid highway program. But there is no disputing the need for it.

★ ★ ★

The tragic consequences here of Congressional dillydallying also will be felt in many other states and in hundreds of traffic congested areas like Oakland and Wayne Counties.

We therefore urge, Mr. President, that you act soon and favorably on the request for a special highway session of Congress.

$1 Minimum Wage Voted

Completing Legislative action the House has approved and sent to the White House the conference report on the bill which would raise the minimum wage to $1 an hour March 1.

The President had taken the position that increased living costs justified only a 15-cent rise to 90 cents in the hourly pay of some 2,000,000 workers now getting the minimum. Besides these, some others now earning $1 or more an hour expect to benefit because of wage differentials on the basis of skills.

It was last June 8 that the Senate shouted approval of the $1 minimum rate. But the upper chamber's bill was given January 1 effect. Because the effective date of the House measure is March 1, the difference had to be adjusted in conference.

★ ★ ★

While the lawmakers overrode the President on this issue, it's a fairly safe bet that he will not veto the bill. This reasoning is based on the White House statement that Mr. Eisenhower would consult Labor Secretary Mitchell before deciding the measure's fate. Mr. Mitchell is known to favor Executive approval.

Engineers and Education

The decreasing number of high school students taking basic mathematics and science courses is worrying the National Society of Professional Engineers.

In a letter to the Press, Allison C. Neff, society president, warns that if this condition isn't corrected it will have a "grave impact on the future security of our Nation." The society shares industry's often expressed alarm over the fact that we are falling behind in the production of graduate engineers.

At present, writes Mr. Neff, only 25 per cent of high school students study algebra. Only 12 per cent study geometry. There are many small and even some large high schools in which students' lack of interest in physics and chemistry has caused these basic scientific courses to be discontinued.

Happily there is no need here for the society's plea for help from educators in impressing on students the importance of algebra, plane and solid geometry, chemistry and physics. College preparatory students have to take basic math and science and their value is impressed on other students even at the junior high school level.

As a result, Francis P. Staley, principal of Pontiac High School, says the city is holding its own in the number of students taking these courses. It might be well, however, to remind parents of the contribution they can make to national welfare by encouraging their children to become interested in these subjects.

★ ★ ★

The society is on sound ground in contending that the future of American industrial achievement will be largely dependent on the engineering skills which can be developed from the generation now in high school.

The Man About Town

City's Centennial

Less Than Six Years Away, Celebration Is Suggested

MAT proposes to periodically keep Pontiac mindful that the city's centennial arrives in 1961, and should be suitably celebrated. The centennial celebration of our neighboring city of Flint now is in progress, and they are doing a good job. However, I have inside information that they got a late start in the preparations, and thus are unable to properly carry out some of their projects. Such an event requires years of preparation, and it is none too early for Pontiac to be giving the matter some thought, both in an official way and otherwise. It was on March 15, 1861, that Pontiac became a city by special act of the State Legislature. Its first mayor was and on its first roster of other officials I find the names of Hixson, Going, Patterson, Woodward, Linabury, Prall, Griffing, Peck, Bowman, Beach and Beardsley. Descendants of several of these men now are numbered among our prominent residents. Let's do something big in 1961.

The office calendar watcher calls attention to the fact that August has fewer holidays and notable anniversaries than any other month.

that only 30 years ago a pack of wolves inhabited a woods on Elizabeth Lake Road, just outside the present Pontiac City limits. They killed the farmers' poultry and sheep. Jack killed the last of the pack and collected the bounty.

We Get a Better View of Things From This Point

David Lawrence Says:

Poor Record of Congress Bears Out Ike's Prediction of 'Cold War Politics'

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower's prediction before last year's congressional elections that, if the Democratic Party were given control of Congress, "a cold war of partisan politics" could ensue has been borne out by the record.

Though Eisenhower did not refer to the speech of Oct. 8, 1954, delivered at Denver, urging the American people to elect a Republican Congress, the President at his press conference on Thursday of this week made almost the identical points in revealing his disappointment over the Democratic Party's behavior.

There has been an impression that Eisenhower in his Denver address—which was made before a Republican Precinct Day rally—had reference to a "cold war" solely in foreign affairs. Actually his fears concerned almost entirely a "cold war" in the field of domestic legislation. This is exactly what the President said in his 1954 address:

"We must continue to foster the growth of a free economy to provide more jobs and higher living standards.

"We must continue our efforts to cut the cost of government, so we can cut taxes still more.

"We must continue each year to improve our peacetime farm program.

"We must have a vast new highway program.

ASKS MORE TRADE

"We must expand our foreign trade and American investment abroad. We must expand markets for America's farms and factories, if we are to keep prosperity within our own land.

* * *

"We must write into law a national resources program.

"We must help our people meet their critical health and medical needs, while repudiating socialization of medicine.

"We must find ways to encourage communities to provide the schoolhouses they need, and to improve opportunities for their school teachers.

"We must build a new and effective reserve program for our armed forces.

"We must begin to unravel the confused relations between the federal, state and local governments, and make still more improvements in the organization of the federal government.

HAWAII STATEHOOD

"We must drive through partisan obstructions to achieve statehood for Hawaii, to lower the voting age in federal elections, and to make our promised changes in the labor-management laws.

"We must continue our historic advances in the vital area of civil rights.

* * *

"We must vigorously push all constructive measures for promoting world peace, always strong and secure, but always fair and conciliatory.

"Now, my friends, a cold war of partisan politics between the Congress and the executive branch won't give us these goals.

You cannot have efficient federal government when the Congress wants to follow one philosophy of government and the executive branch another.

"In our system of government, progress is made when the leaders of the executive branch and the majority party of the Congress are members of the same political party. The unsurpassed record of the 83rd Congress (Republican-controlled in both houses) is shining example of this truth. Moreover, in no other way can Americans hold one party and one group of people responsible either for success or lack of success.

"History shows that when the executive and legislative branches are politically in conflict, politics in Washington runs riot. In these conditions, the public good goes begging while politics is played for politics' sake."

The Denver prophecy came true.

America has had an irresponsible government. This means that the American people are unable today to fix the responsibility upon either major political party for the whole governmental operation. But in 1956 the electorate will be asked to remove this barrier and elect either an all-Democratic or an all-Republican team, with one party doing the driving instead of two.

Wolfson Shows New Side in Capital Transit Strike

By MERRYLE RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

It is different when former adventurers, who seek to become operators through winning proxy battles, become insiders.

Louis E. Wolfson, in his Montgomery Ward fight, put in his arsenal the weapons of seductive words. He described his struggle earlier in the year in Montgomery Ward as an evidence of "corporate democracy."

* * *

But as an insider in Capital Transit in Washington, D. C., he appears as a less glamorous figure. The company and the union have been at loggerheads in respect to labor terms, and the patrons in periods of extraordinary heat have either stayed home or walked to work, hitch-hiked, taken cabs and driven in their own cars. Toward the end of last week, the corporation, which Wolfson controls, offered to have its franchise canceled and to liquidate.

The public relations of the industry have emphasized that private operators were motivated by a sense of public service.

Simultaneous with the traction tieup in the nation's capital, Patrick B. McGinnis, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, who won his spurs by coming out on top in a proxy fight against Frederic C. Dumaine, the former chief executive, in April 1954, has been receiving a bad press. The commuter reaction has been so vocal that McGinnis recently hired as public relations man one of his commuter critics.

NOVEL EXPERIENCE

It must be a novel experience for the glib idea-man McGinnis to be drawing complaints. Mr. McGinnis is quoted as saying: "I inherited equipment 30 years old. They have four-ton air conditioning and it ought to be twenty."

Certainly McGinnis is handicapped by the inheritance of obsolete equipment, but he asked the shareowners to put him in control.

* * *

Without regard to personalities, it seems to me that there is a public interest in the outcome of corporate internal battles.

Maybe instead of standing on the sidelines as neutrals, national organizations interested in the good name of the private enterprise system ought to begin to set up standards or criteria for judgment.

If the legitimate spokesmen for the business system are to be silent and to approve backsliding whereby adventurers capitalize technical property rights, while ignoring the social aspects of business, such apathy would be harmful.

In the long run, under the competitive system, operators, whether hitherto outsiders or not, will be judged by accomplishments — by deeds—and not merely by propagandizing words.

Retrieve Fallen 'Meteor' but Not for Museum

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

The sounds of boys' voices crying, "Look, a meteor must have fallen into the water," drew crowds of neighbors to the Cass Lakeside Subdivision bridge last night. An eerie light shimmered through the water as they gazed down, and to verify it, a burnt section on the side of the canal showed where it must have hit before rolling into the water.

One had wanted to go get his aqua-lung and capture the prize, perhaps to sell it to a museum. Billy Winkelman, the Pontiac Press newsboy finally put a net down and was surprised how easily the "meteor" was retrieved.

It turned out to be a large flashlight which Bobby Kent had dropped in, and with the aid of Broox Barr and Don Larven, the burnt area was deliberately set to make it more realistic.

A Reader

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Ask the brisk businessman of medicine—trick specialist or "clinic" racketeer—to define "the common cold," and you will learn that everybody knows what a "cold" is. By word or manner the charlatan implies that you must be nutty to ask such a silly question, and advises you to keep well under the covers and be careful not to take more cold.

Just relax, take a balanced diet of nourishing but easily digestible food and sufficient aspirin or barbiturate to dull your sense of discomfort or danger, you fathead.

It sounds impressive when a doctor talks about a "balanced diet," but it is useless to try to find out just what he means. It sounds scientific, sort of, and the leading exploiters of popular credulity have been getting away with it for donkey's years. In fact it is nearly as useful as another impressive though meaningless, phrase that occurs constantly in medical literature—"lowered resistance."

* * *

"I have never been sure what a 'balanced' meal is, but it appears to be one consisting of such a large number of foods that a dab of most of the body requirements is supplied at one time . . . To me the concept of such a meal seems wrong, nutritionally and otherwise. Large meals are expensive . . ."

I quote this from a chapter on the nutrition of the pre-school child in that fine book "Let's Have Healthy Children," by Adelle Davis (Harcourt, Brace & Co., $3).

Some years ago a medical friend (believe it or not) persuaded me to attend a symposium on diet and nutrition arranged by the medical staff of a hospital. At one point a young woman rose and spoke briefly but effectively—and her modest remarks made the doctors who had hemmed and hawed tiresomely seem absurd.

Then I learned that she was not a physician, but a consulting nutritionist, Adelle Davis, A. B., M. S. I still give another of her books, "Let's Cook It Right" (same publisher) a preferred place in my working library, for I have found one can rely on anything Adelle Davis says as good sound nutrition.

"Large amounts of water, coffee, beer, soft drinks or any liquid washes these (B) vitamins out of your body. On very hot days when B vitamins are lost in perspiration" (called sweat in the Bible) "your need for these vitamins is tremendously increased."

I quote this from "Let's Eat to Keep Fit," by Adelle Davis, published last year by the same publisher, $3. Gives a good idea of how sound and practical the books are. I recommend them to physicians who are still uttering banalities about "balanced diet."

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Schoolmates Make Fun of 11-Year-Old Who Stumbles Through Reading Class

Benny was called "dummy" at school. So he developed a defeatism complex and was failing. But his mother used the strategy outlined below and in six weeks had zoomed his grades and pepped up his morale. Every good parent should help his child in this manner when needed.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Last term he almost failed in his school subjects," his mother confessed.

"And his chief defect is the fact he can't read well. We thought maybe his IQ was low, but the school psychologist says he is OK on that point.

* * *

"Benny is miserable, however, and so are we. He says the kids call him 'dummy' and he has what you call a defeatism complex.

"Isn't there anything we can do to help him? I'm willing to try anything."

FAMILY TEAMWORK

Yes, it often requires family team work to bring a failing child back up to the average of the class.

And this is essential, for a child who is called "dummy" and who gets soured on education during grammar school, obviously will not look forward to attending high school or college.

It is far better insurance for college, if you deftly teach your child to like school, than to set aside a fund for his later university career. For a child who hates school work will never want to go to college, anyway.

* * *

"One thing scientists have discovered," says Thomas Dreier, "is that often-praised children become more intelligent than often-blamed ones.

"If some of your employes are a bit dumb, perhaps your treatment of them is to blame. There's a creative element in praise."

Similarly, Dr. H. H. Goddard, our pioneer intelligence tester, says parents will accomplish far more with a child with compliments than with caustic criticism.

"If a child misses 19 words out of 20 in his spelling test," says Dr. Goddard, "it doesn't help to read the riot act to him when he gets home and shame him again by pointing to those 19 misspelled words.

* * *

HOME TUTORING

So be liberal with praise. Be good press agents for your child's correct deeds, instead of parental sleuths trying to find fault.

Next, give him 15 minutes of sugar-coated tutoring each night. Mother can thus make flash cards, which are strips of white cardboard on which she prints the words from his current reading book.

Place one word on each card. Hold it up and explain what the word means. Then do the same for a second card. Now shuffle them and see if he can identify each card.

When he knows them instantly, add a third and a fourth, etc. Then get daddy to compete. But have Daddy pull his punches, so to speak, for a child needs to win 3 times out of 4 to maintain its morale.

DAD PULLS PUNCHES

So have daddy go a little slow in his identifications. Hold the cards up and the first one to name the word, gets it for his stack of cards.

And the fellow with the larger stack, wins the game. For variation, you can have the child place the "noun" cards on the objects which they name, as "chair," "table," "floor," etc.

And the verb cards can be acted out, such as the verbs "sleep," "jump," etc.

* * *

Vary the game so you spend but five minutes on any one part, with a total time of about 15 minutes. Don't make the sessions boring. Keep them fun.

OTHER USES

You can also prepare flash cards with the multiplication tables, etc. And to encourage more reading aloud, let your child take his choice of helping with the evening dishes or reading aloud to mother from a comic book, such as the popular "Classics, Illustrated" which depict our great literary novels in color comic book format.

For further advice on this critical problem, send for my booklet, "How to Tutor a Child at Home," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Bob Considine Says:

Little-Known Scientist Sired Space Rocket

WASHINGTON (INS)—Dr. Robert Hutchings Goddard, almost forgotten father of the rocket types which will lift a man-made "moon" into space in the near future, died a decade ago still hopeful that his tremendous machine would be an instrument of peace.

The sensitive physicist suffered from the same complex as beset the Wright brothers, when the military applications of their fun machine began to take shape. Nuclear physicists who created the atomic bomb experienced similar pangs of remorse.

Goddard's work, financed for years by small funds contributed through the ancient Smithsonian Institution, was directed only at building a rocket which could reach up through the heavy layer of air that sits 50 miles deep upon the earth and enter into the thin emptiness of the ionosphere.

A man at Smithsonian told me today that the highest altitude ever reached by a Goddard rocket was seven miles. But he recalled that the first flight of the Wright plane was less than the wingspread of today's B-36.

GODDARD PRAISED

Jimmy Doolittle, whose standing as an aeronautical engineer often is lost sight of in view of his exploits at the controls of speed planes and bombers, says of Goddard:

"He laid down a practical bazooka as far back as 1918. He was the first with a rocket engine and liquid fuel. He built the first rocket to exceed the speed of sound, the first that could be steered by gases flowing over grilles at the rear, and he designed the first step-rocket."

A two-step rocket will carry the little "moon" up 250 miles, at which point the second step, before falling away, will shoot the satellite away—on a parallel with the earth—at a speed of 18,000 miles per hour.

Doctor Goddard discovered that a rocket can operate in a vacuum; that it needs nothing to push against to provide its momentum. He was first to lay down laws that Willi Ley and Werner von Braun were to follow in the construction of the V-2.

There's a cutaway of one of Dr. Goddard's rockets on display at the airplane shed behind the Smithsonian and it is an almost exact miniature of the great "flying telegraph poles" that came down noiselessly and unseen on London in the last months of the war and exploded with the shattering force of a ton of TNT.

MOVES WORK

But the man was a man of peace. After an unnerving experience in his native Worcester, Mass., where he was ordered never again to fire a rocket, he moved his experiments to the forlorn New Mexico desert, to be sure nobody would be hurt. He gave the Navy everything he knew.

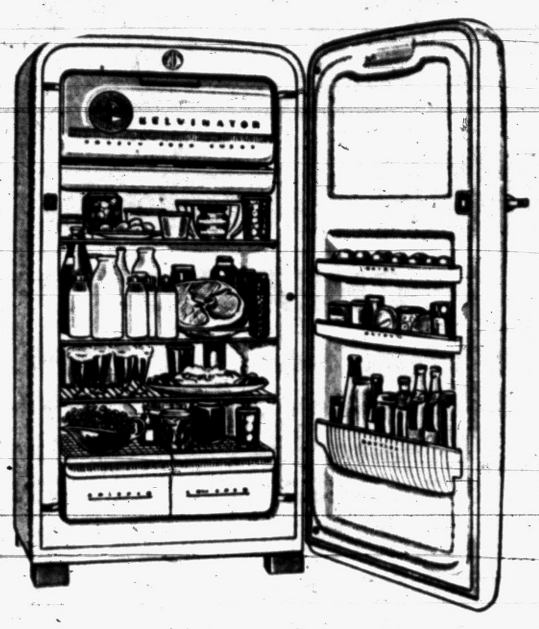

Dreaming of a peaceful product, much secrecy was forced upon him. At one stage in his research he delivered a rocket to old and trusted friends at the Smithsonian and told them to put it away as a kind of progress report. He called it a "tangible deposit." It is there today in the exhibition that obscurely honors one of the great engineering pioneers in history.

Our great cities and industrial areas are protected today by the Nike, a supersonic child of a Goddard dream-child. The Regulus, Honest John and several other rockets and rocket-type missiles can carry the A-bomb. The "intercontinental ballistics missile" could carry the H-bomb. But Dr. Goddard, whose name hardly got into print when the President announced the determination to go ahead with an earth satellite, wanted none of these. His real dream is taking shape, too late for him to see, but taking shape. That, to the modest man, would have been the important thing.

Only One Woman Objects to Cool Subway Project

NEW YORK (INS) — Amid the current New York heat the Transit Authority announced plans for an experimental air-conditioned subway car to be delivered by Sept. 1.

Sweltering "subway sardines" generally thought it was a fine idea. But not one woman.

She wrote the Chairman Charles Patterson of the Transit Authority today:

"Dear sir: I do hope you do not go through with this. It would cause colds and discomfort to have to ride in the cold after coming in hot and perspiring. Use the money for painting the washrooms and stations and for good lighting instead."

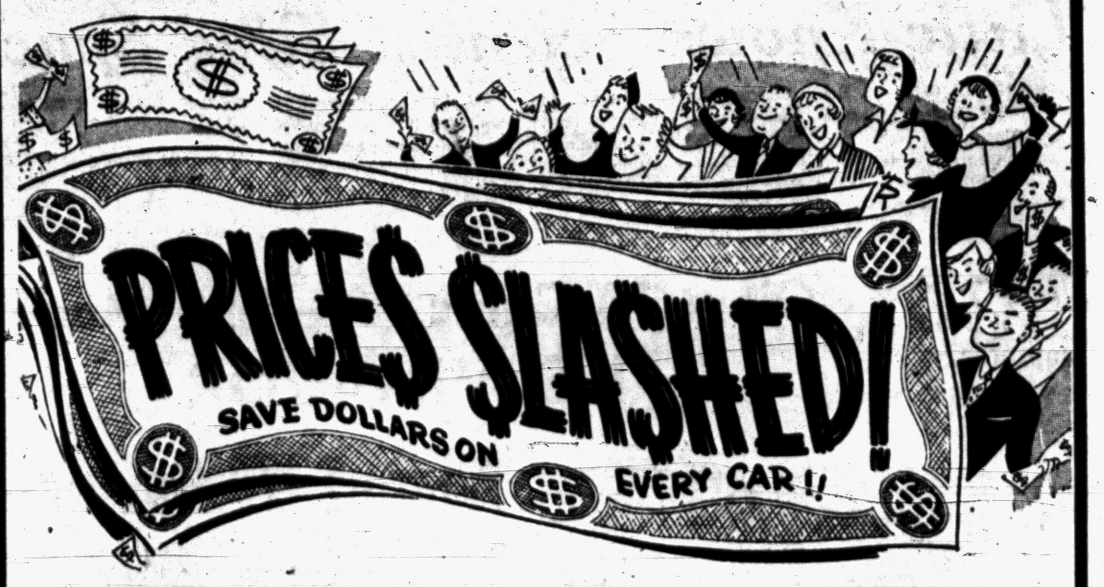

German Ship Arriving

GRAND HAVEN (ip) — The German ship Nordelhorn is expected Aug. 14 in Grand Haven harbor where it will discharge 1,450 tons of cement. Stephen Roskiewicz, Grand Rapids contractor, said a third of the cargo already has been assigned.

Arrested on 5 Warrants

Pontiac Police arrested Henry Hogan, 52, of 14 Duke St., yesterday on five traffic warrants.

Police said that Hogan ran a stop street, carried no operator's license, made an improper turn and was driving against traffic on a one way street.

Hal Boyle Says:

Whisky Taster Doesn't Swallow Samples

NEW YORK (AP) — Just imagine having to — ugh, shudder — taste samples of whisky, in the bright pearl of your manhood, merely to earn a living

Perhaps even subject 50 or more different whiskies to the double test of your nose and palate in a single week!

This is the horrid ordeal of Walter Seid, who at 33 is still bearing up manfully under his assignment after seven years of stern salutes to duty.

Many million Americans enjoy a nip of bottled bounce now and then, ordinarily carefully spaced between breakfast and midnight. Other millions of Americans would, rather than profane their lips with liquor, choose instead to drink the same number of glasses of raw lye. Well, as the fellow says, that's what makes this country great — difference of opinion.

Wally Seid is the man in the middle. His task is to see that people who do want liquor don't get something that tastes like lye.

There are maybe only a couple hundred guys in the whole United States who have the chore of sample testing whisky. The job, depending on a man's prejudice, is neither as satisfying nor repulsive as a fellow might think.

For one thing, it isn't as much fun — if you're the happy-go-lucky type — as being married to a girl who owns a liquor store and gave you a gold key to the front door as her dowry. It has more responsibility.

Seid, a youthful and scholarly looking assistant vice president of "21" Brands, Inc., who also oversees his firm's production of domestic whisky, made one point about whisky testing painfully clear.

"You don't swallow the samples," he said loud and firmly and businesslike.

Well, having busted any dreams of idealism an amateur might harbor about the job, let's go on to the serious problems.

* * *

"The trend in America today is toward a light-bodied blend that still retains character," said Seid dryly, standing in the middle of a small laboratory crowded with 700 bottles of imprisoned spirits.

"A blend may have from 20 to 30 different whiskies in it, and as the product of each distillery may vary with each new batch, each must be checked. The flavor of whisky from the same still will vary depending on whether the barrel has been stored on an upper or lower floor of a warehouse."

* * *

"The real old-timers in Kentucky were satisfied with putting a few drops in the palms of their hands, rubbing them together and sniffing deeply. The nose can detect more variety than the sense of taste.

"But I think flavor is important, too. I like to test it both ways."

He takes about a tablespoonful of whisky in his mouth, swishes it around, then spits it out — and tastes the remanant as it evaporates.

Fortunately, Seid has to put his taste buds to commercial use only a couple of times a week. Other days he enjoys a highball with water.

Road Officials Award Project to Detroit Firm

The Campbell Construction Co. of Detroit, has been awarded a contract to build the first two structures in the Oakland County Road Commission's new quarters on Pontiac Lake Road just west of the present farmer's market.

Cost will be $270,535, according to Leon V. Belknap, road commission engineer - manager. Construction is expected to start within a week.

One building will be 90 feet by 322 feet and 23 feet high. It will house trucks and other equipment plus a repair shop.

The other, a one-story, 160-by-100 structure will include a stock room and offices. Facilities will be expanded in the future when money is available, said Belknap.

The move was made necessary by planned construction of the Telegraph Rd.-Orchard Lake Ave., relocation which will require right-of-way through the present buildings at 550 S. Telegraph in Pontiac.

Ice Star Sets Date

OTTAWA (AP)—Barbara Ann Scott yesterday said her wedding to publicity agent Tom King, will take place the first week of September and be followed by a one-day honeymoon.

Walter Promises Battle to Get Kids Citizenship

WASHINGTON (INS) — Rep. Francis E. Walter (D) Pa., states he will urge Congress in January to grant U.S. citizenship to between 300 and 500 children born to American GI's overseas.

Included in the group will be four-year old Jane Edith Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thomas of Dayton, Ohio. The child and her family have been engaged in a continuing battle with immigration authorities, who claim she must go to Canada and reenter the U.S. legally, if she is to be granted citizenship at this time.

The Walter proposal would apply to youngsters born to American service personnel serving abroad between Dec. 31, 1946, when the World War II emergency ended, and Dec. 24, 1953, when the McCarren-Walter Immigration Act went into effect.

The estimate that between 300 and 500 youngsters may come under the Walter plan was made by the State Department. Walter's bill would make provisions of the McCarran-Walter Act, which he co-authored, applicable to such children.

GI'S ONLY

The Congressman explained that only sons or daughters of service personnel who were born abroad and who failed to get a non-quota visa to enter the U.S. fall under the provision.

He said that if Jane Edith and others like her had entered the country with a non-quota visa, they could now be citizens.

The Pennsylvania Democrat blamed the U.S. consul in Venice for failing to grant Jane Edith a non-quota visa.

The youngster's mother is Italian-born, and her father had not resided in the U.S. long enough before the girl's birth to qualify her for citizenship.

Walter pointed out that during the war, legislation was in effect which would have made her a citizen automatically. The same provision later was incorporated in the McCarren-Walter bill.

The Pennsylvanian won House approval of a private bill last week which would have made Jane Edith a citizen as of the time of her birth, but the measure ran into a legislative jam as Congress raced for adjournment.

Boat Basin Finished

PENTWATER (AP)—A new 225-foot Marina, designed for pleasure boats on Pentwater Lake, will be dedicated Sunday in ceremonies which feature Secretary of State James M. Hare as principal speaker. The ceremonies will be the highlight of a three-day centennial homecoming and water festival which begins Friday.

GM Highway Picture Available to Clubs

As part of its contribution toward a nation-wide better roads program, General Motors is offering a motion picture pointing up current highway problems and suggesting possible action to alleviate the conditions.

Filmed to help bring the plight of motorists, including hazards of driving on many existing roads, to the attention of civic, service, fraternal, farm and other groups, "Give Yourself the Green Light" shows what already has been accomplished in some areas. It is a 26-minute 16-millimeter sound picture in full color.

Prints are available for use by any group, free of charge, from General Motors' film libraries in Detroit, New York and San Francisco.

IN THE DAYS OF DAVY CROCKETT — Told by an Old Scout

New Houston, who had served his nation and his state, faithful and honest, got fed up with the scheming ways of those who envied him. So he just chucked up his job and went west to visit his old Cherokee foster father, Oo-loo-te-ka, and the rest of his Indian friends.

The old chief and his tribe made Sam welcome. They knew he was their true friend. Houston would like to have stayed there permanent but he'd heard there'd likely be trouble for the Americans who'd settled in Texas so he decided to give things a look-see.

Sam didn't get there any too soon. Trouble sure was brewing. The Texans were ready to fight for independence. Liberty-loving men like Sam, Davy Crockett and Jim Bowie came pouring into the state to help. When war came, the Texans made Sam their general.

One day an old scout name of Deaf Smith galloped into camp with terrible news. The Mexicans had massacred the defenders of the Alamo! Houston got so roaring mad he vowed to hunt down the enemy and wipe them clean off the face of the earth!

Bankers Move to Forestall Inflation

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, (AP)—In a business boom it's hard to spot the point where soundness ends and excess begins. The ordinary man never notes inflation in its wind-up stage. He becomes aware of it only after it beans him with a rise in his cost of living.

But the nation's monetary leaders think they've spotted inflation warming up and are moving today to forestall its hurling a bean ball.

That's why they are boosting interest rates, tightening the supply of credit, taking some of the extreme ease out of mortgages, and frowning on any tendency to runaway speculation in the stock market.

What the administration and banking leaders seem to fear isn't price inflation, now showing up in industrial materials, but credit inflation. Times are good and if business doesn't cross the line where soundness ends and excess begins, times will stay that way.

The Federal Reserve banks are raising the rates at which they'll lend money to member banks, and at the same time are keeping a tight rein on the supply of money available for banks to lend to business.

The commercial banks are raising the interest rates on their loans to business — and just at the time when the volume of such loans is starting to rise toward its usual fall peak.

* * *

The Federal Reserve frankly says its aims are to "discourage excess borrowing and protect the buying power of the dollar."

Businessmen these days are concentrating attention on all the proofs that times are good.

The nation's output of goods and services is at a record high. So are the totals of personal income and consumer spending — and consumer borrowing.

Business is expanding its plans to build more plants and buy more equipment. The total volume of personal savings continues to rise — although the rate of saving has dropped. The traditional Summer slump in business is unusually mild this year.

All this adds up, in the minds of most businessmen, to a sound economic situation. They leave it to the bankers to worry about the point where soundness ends and excess begins.

Army Secretary to Visit State Guard at Grayling

GRAYLING (AP)—Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker will visit the encampment of the Michigan National Guard (46th Infantry Division) at nearby Camp Grayling next Wednesday.

Brucker, a former Michigan governor, will be accompanied by Frank G. Millard, former Michigan attorney general and now general counsel for the Army.

Crops Cooking on Vine

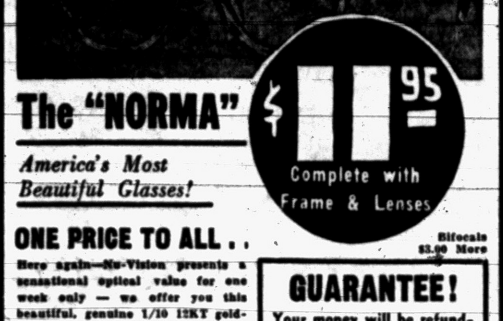

NILES (AP)—Extended drought and hot weather are expected to cause thousands of dollars in loss to Berrien County's fruit and truck garden crops, backbone of the county's rural economy. Clifford Conrad, fruit specialist at the county extension office, reports "tomatoes and cucumbers are cooking on the vine."

C. of C. Hires Manager

CHEBOYGAN (AP)—The Cheboygan County Chamber of Commerce has hired Robert L. Foster, of Columbus, Ohio, as its first full time secretary-manager.

Cobo Runs for Governor, Depends on Cooperation

DETROIT (AP)—Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit has hinted his decision to enter the 1956 gubernatorial race depends on the "cooperation" he would get if elected and "voter interest."

Cobo said yesterday he hadn't made up his mind to run on the "if I could get the co-operation Republican ticket. But he said, necessary to accomplish progress in the state and if enough people are interested in me for the job, then I would think longer and more seriously about running for the office than I presentl yam."

Historians to Convene

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP)—The Upper Peninsula history conference for 1955 will be held Aug. 12-13 at Sault Ste. Marie. Dr. Louis Beeson, executive secretary of the Michigan Historical Society, said the program will feature the Soo Locks Centennial.

Sunny's Home--Pop Figured Out No. 21

"We should never have dozed off," wailed Mrs. Smith who had frantically searched half the beach for her missing son.

"Ah, shaddup, will'ya, and let me figure out the kid's message," retorted her husband as he puzzled over the waxed paper message he had found in his shoe.

Finally Smith exlaimed:

At home, Smith proudly showed the Mrs. how he figured out his boy's note. He filled in the spaces like this:

NO SUN UNDER THIS UMBRELLA.—It's SUN rather than FUN, because the note goes on I WANT TO GET A TAN. The story clues mentioned that Junior had been "cooped up, recovering from chicken pox," so that he would be pale, and eager to start getting a TAN. This is more to the point than I WENT TO GET A MAN (or CAN or PAN or any other word here). I SAW—Instead of SAW, the phrasing is I SAT AND PLAYED WITH A CASTLE AND BOAT AND SAIL. A sand CASTLE is usual, in playing on a beach, but MOAT (a water-filled ditch around a castle) would be an unlikely word for Junior to use; since the word is BOAT, then SAIL is more logical than PAIL.

MET A KID ON A BIKE.—HIKE would not fit so well here. Since this is a public beach, and there is mention of a lunchroom, we can assume that there is a built-up section, with concessionaires, and probably a boardwalk where bicycle riding would be allowed. HIS DAD'S LUNCHROOM HAS FINE PIES.—There is a lot of food mentioned in the following sentences, so that PIES is more valid than PIER.

HE OFFERED ME A FUNNY FISH—not a TUNNY FISH, for a TUNNY is a large and heavy game fish, not a likely offering from a small boy. A FUNNY FISH could be a boyish description of a seahorse or a starfish, caught with a net rather than HOOKED. So the wording is not A FUNNY FISH HE HOOKED, but HE COOKED A HOT DOG, a logical report on a visit to the LUNCHROOM. AND I HAD TWO COKES.—This is more suitable than TWO CONES: the boy would be thirsty after his play in the sun on a hot day, and having already had lunch and the HOT DOG, and sampled the PIES, he'd be apt to go for COKES rather than CONES.

AND SOME GUY GAVE ME A SANDWICH.—This is preferred to AND SOME GUM, followed by the exhortation SAVE ME A SANDWICH. The piece of wax paper on which the boy wrote was specified as "left over from a sandwich wrapping," and the implication is that the Smiths had eaten up all their sandwiches. Moreover, we were told that the boy "made friends easily," so it is logical that SOME GUY GAVE him a sandwich.

FOUND A CURVED PIECE OF SHELL, GOOD FOR MY SET is more appropriate to the beach setting than a CARVED PIECE OF SWELL WOOD, as a collector's item for the boy.

TO FIND ME, FACE TOWARD INLET.—FACE is a more likely fill-in than PACE here. And INLET, a fairly usual recess in a shore line, is better than ISLET, which a boy would be apt to call a "small island." YOU'LL SEE THERE A BIG YELLOW TOWEL ON A RAFT.—In the teeming mass of beach parties over an expanse of sand, the boy has found something conspicuous to use in giving these directions. THERE fits the sense better than WHERE. The phrasing YOU'LL SEE WHERE A BIG FELLOW TOWED IN A RAFT is not tenable; such information would not be useful as a direction for finding someone. Nor is it a YELLOW TOWER ON A RAFT—an unusual place for a TOWER to be; "diving platform" would be more descriptive if that was what the boy meant. But a YELLOW TOWEL ON A RAFT, down by the INLET, would be an excellent landmark to give Smith, Sr. his bearings.

As a further direction, there is a GANG OF TEN BATHERS. A group of MEN BATHERS or TEN FATHERS would be unusual phrasing here. But a group of TEN BATHERS would be easily spotted. GATHERS is not a word a ten-year-old would use. For the same reason, he would say BACK UNDER UMBRELLA rather than BASK UNDER UMBRELLA.

And again the boy picks out something distinctive to guide his father—WITH ROPES PAINTED ON IT. The umbrella was clearly a very special one, with a large design, which made the boy think of it as being PAINTED rather than PRINTED ROPES, of course, could be part of a nautical pattern, and therefore more probable for a beach umbrella than ROSES.

I'M PLAYING WITH SOME BOYS. — He's already described his play with TOYS earlier in the note, so that it is fairly obvious he has found SOME BOYS to play with.

His signature is not SONNY. His family has called him by this diminutive, but at the ripe age of ten he'd like to get rid of it. As appropriate to this occasion, he has signed himself SUNNY.

State Police to Query 'Peeping Tom' Suspect

A 50-year-old Pontiac man, arPontiac Pollice early this morning, was turned over to State Police authorities today for further questioning.

George H. Hensel of 90 Chamberlain St., signed a complaint this morning in Municipal Court against Frank Howard Hecht of 26 Sheridan St. Hensel told police that he and a companion caught Hect in the act of window peeping in the driveway at 90 Chamberlain St.

According to Pontiac Police Hecht will be arraigned in Municipal Court Aug. 8 after questioning by State Police.

Lutheran Synods Meet in Saginaw for Decision

SAGINAW (AP)—The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Wisconsin meets in Saginaw next week to decide whether to sever altar and pulpit ties with the big Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Both churches — the 325,000-member Wisconsin Synod and the 2¼-million-member Missouri Synod —traditionally have been wary of worship with other Christians, or other Lutherans, whose creeds differ.

Both have members in states other than Wisconsin or Missouri.

Speed Trouble? Speedometer Is Probably Slow

BOSTON, (AP)—When the policeman says you were speeding and you insist you weren't, chances are you're both right—because your speedometer probably is wrong.

That's the opinion of Robert S. Kretschmar, executive secretary of the American Automobile Assn., in Massachusetts.

"On newer cars," he said, "more than 50 per cent of those checked had speedometers that were "slow."

Kretschmar advised motorists to have their speedometers checked at least once a year because "even the most accurate of them begin to get 'fast' or 'slow' after 15,000 or 18 000 miles."

Turnstile Nabs Culprit

LOUISVILLE, Ky., (AP)—Mrs. A. W. Sarbo and six men had to rescue Mrs. Sarbo's daughter Jeanette, 4, after she tried to enter a swimming pool by the exit. Her head got stuck in the bars of the locked turnstile. Her mother had forbidden her to go near the pool because she was too young.

Couple Marries in Wheel Chairs

Meet in Vet's Hospital; Paralyzed Pair Will Study for Art Career

Carl Dean Jensen, 29, a former paratrooper, and Gracie Wilson, 35, are both partially paralyzed. They met while undergoing treatment at a Veterans Administration hospital four years ago.

Today they obtained a marriage license in their auto, because they couldn't get into the county clerk's office in their wheel chairs. Their handicaps, however, couldn't keep them from rolling down the aisle later at the Wee Kirk o' the Heather wedding chapel, where they were married by Justice of the Peace John Mendoza.

* * *

The couple said they'd return to Long Beach, Calif., where Jensen now lives, to look for an apartment.

Jensen, formerly of Ogden, Utah, and his bride, formerly of Springfield, Mo., hope to study art and become professional artists.

Jensen's paralysis was caused by injuries suffered in an auto accident and Mrs. Jensen's by a fall during World War II Air Force training.

Trade Survey Request Is Rejected by Williams

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has rejected a request for $5,000 to help finance a foreign trade survey of Michigan. He said he did not have the money available.

The request came from a committee which reported that $14,000 of the $34,000 cost could not be covered by the sponsor, the Library of Congress.

Ford Local President Sued for Divorce

DETROIT (INS) — Carl Stellato, President of Ford Local 600 of the CIO-United Auto Workers, the world's largest union local, was sued yesterday for divorce by his wife, Virginia.

Mrs. Stellato charged her husband continually left her home alone because of his union activities. She said he would freely discuss union affairs but avoided domestic problems.

The controversial president of Local 600, who has weathered several attempts by the International Union to oust him from his post, was reported away on vacation and not available for comment.

'Bonanzagram'

Have Fun! Win $100!

"Bonanzagram" is an exciting new puzzle in which the Pontiac Press offers both fun and a $100 cash prize. BUT before you try your hand at "Bonanzagram" be sure and read the rules at the bottom of this page. Solution will appear in the Press Aug. 12.

CLAIM CHECK

Below is a duplicate of the "Bonanzagram" entry you send in to contest headquarters. It is ESSENTIAL that you fill it in and save it until the correct solution to "Bonanzagram" No 22 is published Friday, Aug. 12. Unless you do so, you will be unable to collect the prize if you should send in a winning solution. Check the rules below for further details.

Bonanzagram No. 22

Story Clues

Charles H. Ecker was president of General Conveyances, one of the Big Three manufacturers of special automotive vehicles. While vacationing in the White Mountains, he heard that Metropolitan Motors was developing a sensational new competitive design, and he promptly dispatched Bruce Mifflin, his trusted personal assistant, to Metropolitan's home city with instructions to get the lowdown on the new design at any cost. Mifflin, a husky young man not long out of Cambridge Tech, was both resourceful and enterprising, and soon had acquired some interesting information. He dictated a preliminary report by long distance phone to the office, but the connection was not a good one. The substitute secretary, when she had hung up, realized to her dismay that she had not gotten all the words. Knowing the importance of the matter, she sent the message along to C. H., explaining that this was all she could get. The president was able to piece it together from his knowledge of the details of Mifflin's mission. Can you, too, fill in the missing letters and complete the message?

How to Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 9. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, Aug. 9 for Bonanzagram No. 22. Address "Bonanzagram," % Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p.m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." This letter must reach the Press not later than 5 p.m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly Bonanzagram. If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

China Students Free to Return

State Department Says Paid Plane Ticket Will Take All to Hong Kong

WASHINGTON (INS) — The U.S. has assured Red China that any Chinese student in this country may return — simply by buying an airline ticket to Hong Kong.

Officials said that all obstacles barring any Chinese citizen from leaving for home have been removed. Such assurances have been given Wang Ping-Nan, Communist representative at the Geneva talks, by U.S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson.

Some of the students have already returned to Red China.

However, although some 5,000 are in the U.S., only about 50 have indicated any current desire to return to China.

State Department officials are now beginning a new check of the entire group to determine again whether any wish to return. This is an attempt to satisfy the Peiping government demand that India—as a third party nation—should be permitted to determine the students' willingness to go home.

One reason is that when they left China to study in the U.S., their homeland was ruled by the Nationalists. Many fear that reprisals might be taken against them if they return now.

Found along the Atlantic seaboard, horseshoe crabs are more closely related to scorpions and spiders than to true crabs.

Brink's Thief Lauds Guard

Bandit Calls Man Who Foiled Him 'Too Brave' for His Job

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—The guard who foiled a holdup of a Brink's armored car carrying half a million dollars is "too brave to be protecting just money," one of the captured bandits says.

* * *

Sylvester Mazzella, seized with a companion Wednesday after a dramatic gunfight, said yesterday that guard Eugene Clohessy "should be protecting lives, which are something you can't replace."

Clohessy, 27, alerted police despite a shoulder wound he suffered when a trio of masked men cut loose with a submachinegun at Brink's garage.

* * *

Mazzella, 46, of the Bronx, and Anthony Pattinato, 39, of Baltimore, traded shots with swarms of police but were caught within an hour.

Their loot of $150,000 was found abandoned.

The third bandit fled. A 14-state alarm was issued for Jimmy Sheridan, alias Jimmy Salemerio, of New York City. Canadian police were alerted after a report that Sheridan might have fled across the Peace Bridge.

* * *

Detectives discounted theories that the gunmen were involved in the biggest cash haul in the nation's history. That was the $1,219,000 Brink's holdup in Boston Jan. 17, 1950.

"We wanted to hurt nobody," Mazzella told police. "It's ironic that we're here because of one man's courageous act."

Truck in Hole Alarm Is Tot-Sized Event

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — Police really leaped into action yesterday when they received a telephone call from a motorist reporting "a truck in a hole."

* * *

Police cars rushed to the designated spot. The Water Bureau was alerted in case a main had been snapped. The fire rescue squad was told to stand ready for a call.

There was a hole in the street all right. And there was a truck—about eight inches long and four inches high.

* * *

The 8-year-old owner, Charles Tarutz, said he didn't know anything about a report to police. He was just playing with his toy truck around that hole in the street.

"Maybe the heat got one of the citizens," theorized a cop.

JUNIOR EDITORS' HOME ZOO—6
A Puppy

Many people think there is no finer pet in the world than a dog. If you pick a dog for a pet, you have a wide choice. You can have a big dog, a little dog, a long-haired dog or a short-haired dog. There are more than 100 breeds, not to mention all the dogs of mixed breeds.

Talk it over with your parents. A very large dog needs plenty of room, and a city apartment isn't the best place for one like that.

Whatever kind of a dog you get, remember that you will have to use great patience in training and caring for him. As soon as possible, a puppy should be housebroken.

You can either buy a purebred dog or adopt a homeless puppy from an animal welfare shelter. When he's a year old he will need a license to show someone is responsible for him.

Be sure your dog has a clean bed. He needs plenty of fresh water. Feed him meat and dog biscuits, but no candy. Never give him chicken bones or any small bones that will splinter.

For your puppy, cut out the two halves of this picture and paste them on cardboard. When dry, color him like some puppy you've seen. Then trim the edges carefully. Fold forward the end with the feeding dish and fold back the end with the ball. Now your puppy will stand up.

Couple Hosts Rehearsal Bridal Dinner

Honor Bride-Elect, Lynn M. McCallum at Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Green of Lansing were hosts at the rehearsal dinner Thursday evening for Lynn Mildred McCallum and Edward Morris Green who are exchanging nuptial vows Saturday evening at Christ Church Cranbrook. The dinner was held at Carrie Lee's in Birmingham.

* * *

Guests were Judge and Mrs. Cecil McCallum, C. Leland McCallum, Mrs. William McCallum of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lyon of Ferndale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Morley of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Ashley.

Mrs. A. J. Wittenbach Jr. of Wichita, Kansas, Thomas Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hewes and Mr. and Mrs. George Van Buren Jr. of Lansing completed the list.

On Wednesday, Mrs. William McCallum entertained at a spinster luncheon in Lynn's honor. A miniature bride surrounded with corsages of pink roses and carnations centered the luncheon table.

The corsages were later presented to the guests who included Lynn's mother, Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Lyon, Mrs. Ashley and Mrs. Wittenbach.

A swimming party and luncheon was given Sunday for Lynn and Ed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyon in Ferndale. Four couples were guests.

Patti McInnes Announces Bridal Date, August 13

Patti McInnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McInnes of Birmingham, has announced that Aug. 13 will be the date of her marriage to Gerald Neil Moody.

* * *

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Johnston of Lester court.

Among the recent parties given for Miss McInnes have been a supper and linen shower given by Arlene Verville of Berkley, a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. David Sharkey of Royal Oak, and a kitchen shower hostessed by Mrs. Ernest Cuthbertson of Detroit.

Mrs. Richard Hindley and Mrs. Charles F. McCarthy of Birmingham will honor Patti with a luncheon and around-the-clock shower Tuesday afternoon.

* * *

The rehearsal dinner will be given at Jeri's in Detroit by Mr. and Mrs. Johnston on Thursday evening.

Both Patti and Gerald attended Michigan State University.

Avoid Unhealthy Fad Gimmicks

Hair styles go wild among the teen-agers in many towns. If the boys aren't cutting their hair like Indians or completely flat on top, the girls are bleaching theirs or operating with kitchen shears.

* * *

Being in the crowd is a good feeling. And fortunately, expressing in-ness by hair styles is never too permanent.

Parents who are horrified by white "skunk locks" in the middle of their daughter's bangs often forget how quickly hair grows.

Even the disastrous results that some teeners obtain by trying to bleach certain shades of brunette hair and having it turn green won't last forever.

There are other ways of expressing in-ness, however, that are not so transient. Adhesive tape in the boy friend's initials can come to be quite embarrassing by September, when the tan won't fade and the boy has.

* * *

As soon as a scab grows, it's scratched again and pretty soon there's a scar spelling the current flame's initials.

Perspective is something to keep in mind if this unappetizing habit takes hold in your town. Just imagine trying to explain to your own child who "J. H." was, when the child knows you've always loved his father.

Rayon Is Often Used in Blends

Spun rayon takes many forms in children's clothing fabrics. Blended with acetate, for example, it is woven into the soft flannels that are so popular in girls' overblouse and pleated skirt styles.

* * *

In lustrous gabardine weaves, it is especially adaptable to the fashionable shirtwaist dress style. The simplicity of the princess style dress plays up the elegance of novelty weaves of spun rayon-and-cotton, enlivened with brightly colored silk slubs.

* * *

Boys' worsted and tweed-type suiting fabrics are popular uses of spun rayon, too. Many of these fabrics boast complete washability. And spun rayon's characteristic affinity for dyes makes possible color depth and luster impossible to duplicate in any other man-made fiber.

Even the youngest camper must learn how to handle a one-man saw in the process of cutting and gathering firewood. Here Donna Anderson of Middle Straits Lake demonstrates her skill as she takes her turn at the Girl Scout Day Camp at Proud Lake.

It's Vital to Say What We Mean

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A traveler who had mistaken his way met an aged Quaker. He stopped to ask in his careless way, "This is the right road to St. Ives, isn't it?"

The disciplined old Quaker said, "Young man, first thee tells a lie; then thee asks a question." And without further comment, moved quietly on.

* * *

The traveler, who had grown used to making other people decode his meanings for him, ran after the Quaker. This time, he made his meaning clear. He said, "How can I find the road to St. Ives?"—and got his information.

As crooked talkers abound in this world, it's a fine idea to teach children early use of the phrase, "What do you mean?"

Just before a young friend of ours left college for this summer's vacation, her English teacher gave her some news. She told Ann that the English faculty had chosen her to write next year's Senior Address. Then she said, "I insisted that you deserved this honor."

Ann did not say, "What do you mean, Miss Parsons?" Instead, she spent a resentful week trying to decode Miss Parsons' meaning. Then she asked me to unravel it. She said, "Did Miss Parsons mean that she had to fight all the other faculty members to get me this honor? If she did, I don't want it. It will be a lot of extra work as well as honor. What do you think Miss Parsons could have meant, Mrs. Lawrence?"

DECODING LENGTHY

I said, "I have no time to give to decoding Miss Parsons' meaning, Ann. As you've earned the right to relax this summer, I see no reason why you should be bothered with its mystery, either. Miss Parsons is an adult as responsible for her own meanings as she is for keeping her face washed. So I suggest that you write her a letter asking her to decode this one for you . . ."

Crooked talkers are the bane of young life. They say, "There's your bike ir. the drive again" when they mean "Put your bike away." They say, "Don't you think your mother may be worrying about you?" when they mean, "Go home now; we want to eat supper."

* * *

So we must teach children to learn to ask, "What do you mean?" The fact that the scared or lazy talker may not come through with his honest meaning is not important. What matters is that Joe and Nancy know that it is right to hand back the muddled meaning to the person it belongs to—and happily refuse to fuss over it themselves.

There is brotherly love in asking the crooked talker to take responsibility for his own straightness—as the wise and disciplined old Quaker well knew.

Suzanne Daly Heads Club

SUZANNE DALY

Suzanne Daly was elected president of Keloa Klub when the group met Wednesday evening at the home of Joyce Whitfield on Oakwood street.

Others elected were Deanna Bradley, vice president; Joyce Whitfield, recording secretary; Nancy Nicholson, corresponding secretary; Betsy Bradley, treasurer; Judy Learned, historian; Marsha Stapp and Chris Selden, publicity.

Named to the telephone committee were Fran Glisky, Jill Manecck, Sally Maier, Ann MacDonald and Chris Selden.

Duties of sergeant at arms will be the responsibilitiees of Fran Glisky, Judy Learned and Marilyn McLain.

Jobs Daughters Meet for Picnic

Pontiac Bethel 40, International Order of Jobs Daughters, were guests of Sandra Clark, Wednesday evening.

Couple Married in Kentucky

Clayton McIlhargie of Markle street and Mrs. Everett Fisher of Joyce road announce the marriage of their daughter, Nancy Irene McIlhargie, to Corporal John Ivan Copeman, son of Mrs. Walter Copeman of East Tennyson street.

The couple exchanged vows in a military wedding July 15 in the First Presbyterian Church, Fort Campbell, Ky.

Picnic Honors Carter Family

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carter and son, Dean of Fullerton, Calif., were entertained at a picnic dinner given by the Berean Fellowship class of the Oakland avenue Presbyterian Church Wednesday. The picnic was held at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar MacNutt on Elizabeth lake.

* * *

Suds Out Mascara

Since mascara is soluble in water, such stains usually come out of towels during the regular hot sudsing routine recommended for all towels.

Oily rags and those used in painting are fire hazards when thrown into uncovered piles. Spontaneous ignition can result. For safety, place such rags in a galvanized steel pail.

Personal Shower Fetes Bride-Elect

Former classmates and friends of Gail Putnam, bride-elect of Robert Squire, honored her at a personal shower Wednesday evening at the home of Jerry Simpson on Orchard Lake road. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Lynn Rickel and Marlene West.

* * *

Gail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Putnam of Grassland avenue, and Robert, son of Mrs. Blanche Coggins of Voorheis road, will exchange nuptial vows Aug. 20 at Orchard Lake Presbyterian Church.

The bride-elect chose this occasion to announce her wedding attendants. Ruth Ann Putnam will serve her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Ruth Render, Marlene West and Nancy Coggins, sister of the bridegroom. Jeree Bachelor and Mary Colette Hamlin will act as flower girls with Carl Putnam Jr. ringbearer.

Robert Collins will serve as best man and seating the guests will be Harold Render and Dale Richmond.

Volunteer Work Dispels Boredom

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I was in business all my life," a man writes, "and when I retired last year, I almost fell apart. The pace had been so fast. Then, after a lifetime of deadlines, there was no deadline at all.

* * *

I had been in sales and, on top of everything else I missed the contact with people. I got in my wife's way and life was pretty miserable.

"Finally, the doc said I'd have to get some kind of activity. We have enough money to live comfortably, so it could be anything at all. But that was bad, too, because I couldn't think of anything.

"One day I was sitting around, trying to figure things out, when my wife came into the room all dressed to go out.

It was her afternoon for the hospital—she does some kind of volunteer work there. She looked so happy, so sure of what she was doing, that I decided to go to the hospital with her and see if there was anything I could do.

HAD ROUGH TIME

"My wife introduced me to the lady who assigns work to the volunteers. At first, we had a rough time. I couldn't think of much I could do for them and the things she suggested didn't ring a bell.

* * *

"Then a man came in to talk with her about some pictures for the paper and we got talking. It seems he was a professional fund-raiser.

The hospital needed financial aid desperately in order to continue to service the community and paid this man to raise the money. Quick as a flash, I volunteered to help him. After all, I'm a good salesman, if I say so myself, and I knew I could sell the community on the idea of giving money for such a worthy cause.

FIVE HOURS A DAY

"It worked out fine," he concluded. "I work five hours a day, five days a week. I call on business and industry leaders and sell them on making contributions to the hospital. I don't take a cent, but it's the most satisfying work I ever did.

"If any of your readers are in the spot I used to be in, tell them their hospital can probably use them!"

Clubs Select New Officials at Meeting

When Business and Professional Women's clubs of District I held their board meeting and President's council at Rotunda Inn, Thursday evening, Mrs. Eva Dyer of Pontiac was appointed Parliamentarian for the district.

* * *

Sixty members, representing 26 clubs in the district enjoyed a smorgasbord dinner prior to the business meeting. The invocation was given by Mrs. Dyer.

District chairman, Mrs. Charlee Leaf, of Keego Harbor, presided over the business session and reported on the state board meeting held July 16-17 at Traverse City and outlined the 15 points of the state presidents program for the coming year.

"Honor the President, Past and Future," is to be the theme of District I for the coming year.

Final arrangements were made for the regional convention to be held at French Lick, Aug. 18-21. The small business clinic, conducted by the Michigan federation will be held at Michigan State University October 29-30.

Representing the Pontiac club with Mrs. Dyer were Mrs. John Kish, and Mrs. C. William Salton, president.

Shower Fetes Barbara Kruger

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kruger of Drayton Plains and Gilbert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Clair Decker of Hamilton street.

Guests at the shower were Mrs. Harold Kruger, Mrs. C. Clair Decker, Mrs. Lewis Doyle, Mrs. Carl Fifield, Mrs. Vance Davis, Mrs. Charles Blair of Detroit and Karen Kruger.

These hot summer days aren't so bad when you have a large, shady backyard to play in. John Adams and his sister, Susan, find the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Sterling Saunders, of Bloomfield Hills, just the right place to be. They are photographed with their mother, Mrs. Richard D. Adams who brought them on the visit from their home in Oklahoma City. During their stay here, Mrs. Saunders accompanied her family to Menonqua Beach near Harbor Springs for a week. The children's pet is Fritzi, a dachshund.

Sorority Plans Meetings

Plans for future meetings of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority were discussed when new officers and committee chairmen met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Rose on South East boulevard.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Alex Morris, president. A civic project for the coming year, rushing plans and the possibility of forming a sister chapter were among the points discussed. Each member was urged to concentrate on pledging a new member.

Mrs. Morris was hostess for the evening and was assisted with refreshments by Mrs. Rose.

An August party will be held at the summer cottage of Mrs. Ralph Wilson on Big Lake.

Mrs. Raymond Smith Honored at Shower

Dwight Adams Honored at Tea

Members of the Community Chest Agencies gave a tea for Dwight S. Adams Thursday at the YMCA. Mr. Adams is leaving Pontiac after serving more than four years as director of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

He will leave Aug. 15 to direct the Des Moines Iowa United Campaign. A farewell gift was presented to Mr. Adams.

Sails as Delegate to IAU

Dr. Robert R. McMath, past president of the American Astronomical Society and director of the McMath-Hulbert Observatory at Lake Angelus, has been appointed by the Secretary of State to be an official delegate of the United States to the ninth General assembly of the International Astronomical Union to be held in Dublin, Ireland Aug. 29 to Sept. 5.

The IAU is an international organization of astronomers from some 56 countries, meeting every three years to exchange ideas, report on research and strengthen the bonds of friendship and unity arising from the common interest of their profession.

The United States is sending 37 delegates, eight of whom are official (voting) delegates. Other official delegates besides Dr. McMath are Dr. Jason Nassau, director of the Warner and Swasey Observatory in Cleveland, Ohio, and Dr. Ira S. Bowen, director of the Mount Wilson and Palomar Observatories in California.

Dr. McMath, accompanied by Mrs. McMath of Lone Pine court is sailing today on the S. S. United States for England. They will be joined in London Aug. 14 by their daughter, Madeleine, who is flying over.

The family will visit several countries before returning to the United States.

Moulded Pie Is Cooling and Tangy

Mrs. Fred Troeger Whips Canned Milk Into Lemon Gelatin

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Hearty desserts have no place on summer menus. The ideal end-of-a-meal for hot weather is something light, airy and preferably cool. Mrs. Fred Troeger's Lemon Gelatin Pie fits that description perfectly.

Mrs. Troeger is a young homemaker with a five-year-old son. She enjoys sewing and knitting classes at the YWCA during the winter months.

LEMON GELATIN PIE
By Mrs. Fred Troeger

1 box lemon gelatin
1½ cups boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons lemon juice
3 tablespoons grated lemon rind
¾ cup sugar
1 can evaporated milk
9-inch graham cracker crust

Whip chilled milk in an iced bowl. Blend in the congealed gelatin and beat the two together well. Pour into the graham cracker crust and return to refrigerator. Serves 6-8.

Lawsuit Bogs Huron Valley School Site

Supreme Court Appeal Filed

Property Owner Asking Ruling on Condemnation at $612 Per Acre

MILFORD — With the name chosen, the money approved, and the architects working on plans, all the Huron Valley School district needs is a site for the school. There may be quite a wait for that.

The owner of property condemned for the $1,250,000 building has decided to carry her appeal of the condemnation suit to the State Supreme Court.

Notice of the appeal has been filed with Oakland County Clerk Lynn D. Allen.

Months of delay loom ahead as Capt. Genevieve Larges, owner of the 42-acre plat on North Milford road, exercises her right to attempt to set aside the Circuit Court ruling.

The condemnation jury set a price of $612 per acre for the tract, and the board of education voted to purchase the land for that price.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty denied a motion for a new trial, when the point of whether the jury could recommend an alternate site was raised.

Basis for the appeal to the State Supreme Court is that the jury was not allowed by the judge to find in their verdict whether the particular property in question was necessary for a school.

Voters of the school district went to the polls March 22, and approved a 3.5 mill tax increase to finance the new building.

They also voted on an advisory ballot concerning the name of the new school. The name "Milford High School" was favored over "Huron Valley High School" by the voters in the 100 square mile district.

"This delay is unfortunate as it is a time-consuming thing," Harold Hansen, superintendent of the Huron Valley school system, said. "We are rapidly approaching the time when the architectural plans and specifications will be ready for taking bids from contractors."

The Board of Education owns 17 acres on the south side of Milford, but Hansen said that building a new high school on that site is out of the question as it is reserved for an eventual elementary school. The board had considered other properties, but decided that the North Milford road property was the best due to location and contour of the land.

Lions Will Aid CD, Serve as Host Club

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Lions Club will participate in two community activities, it has been announced.

At a recent meeting, it was decided to:

1. Appoint a civil defense committee to work with the local civil defense director and with other village organizations.

2. Establish the local club as host club for the Leader Dog League, and to provide welcoming and arranging services for organizations visiting the league. Past presidents will serve on the committee.

The club also agreed to sponsor a Tulip Bulb Sale as in other years.

Waterford Club Will Give $250 Scholarships

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The Waterford branch of the National Farm and Garden Club voted yesterday to give an annual $250 scholarship to a Waterford Township high school senior interested in conservation or some phase of agriculture.

Both boys and girls will be eligible, and the first scholarship will be awarded next spring.

Requirements will be based on the recommendation of the national organization, and selection of the student will be made in consultation with the high school principal and counsellors.

In other business, plans were made for entries in the Aug. 27-28 Inter-Garden Club Flower Show, to be held in the CAI Building.

Buffington Suit Begins Monday

Ousted School Head Seeking Carver Post After Dismissal

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—The suit of ousted school superintendent Walter Buffington against the George Washington Carver board of education will begin in Oakland County Circuit Court at 9 a.m. Monday.

Buffington is seeking to regain his job. He was fired July 2 by the board, on charges brought by Otis Eaton, chairman of the Citizens Imporvement League.

The suit is another development in the stormy history of the school district which has seen fist fights at board meetings, disputed elections, and picketing of the school.

In his suit, Buffington charges that at the private hearing given him by the board June 21, only two of 14 witnesses testified against him.

Buffington was given a three year contract at a salary of $8,980 annually at a meeting of the board in April, but the meeting was later declared illegal because the public had been kept out.

Cancer Victim Fund Campaign Hits $258 Total

OXFORD—The "Johnny Bushey Fund," begun last Saturday in Oxford, has reached a total of $258, according to Mrs. Daniel Sipley, chairman of the committee to aid the five-year-old cancer victim.

A community candy and bake sale held Saturday netted $115, and other contributions from Pontiac and the vicinity have been continuing. Canisters will be left in Oxford stores until Monday for those who wish to donate.

Assisting Mrs. Sipley are Mrs. Floyd Thomas and Mrs. Charles Darling of the Four Winds Club, that started the fund drive.

Johnny, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bushey, 865 Gill St., continues in critical condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He has suffered from the malignant disease for the past 18 months.

Patricia Wigle to Wed James H. Showecker

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Wigle of Leamington, Ont., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Corinne, to James Herbert Showecker.

Miss Wigle has been a music teacher at Auburn Heights for the past two years. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Campbell of Bellville, Ohio, and is a school principal at Lindsey, Ohio. The couple will be married in a 3:30 p.m. ceremony Aug. 27 in the United Church of Canada at Leamington.

$3.5 Million Bond Issue Subject of Southfield Vote

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—The board of education has called a September 12 election on a $3,500,000 school bond issue, and has indicated that no increase in taxes will be necessary if the issue is approved.

The bonds would finance new school construction, along with additions to several existing buildings and a $310,000 swimming pool for the high school.

The $3.5 million issue replaces a $2,500,000 bond issue announced earlier by school officials.

Superintendent of School Glenn Schoenhals said that the increasing assessed valuations of the growing township would probably allow a tax reduction next year, although the bond issue would cost 2.2 mills of the total school millage.

Present plans for the issue call for 2.2 mills the first two years, with 3.5 mills after that.

The bond issue will be for 25 years, but indications are that it could be retired much earlier than this, with the tax base of the school district growing with each new home or factory built in the area.

Included in the building program is a combined elementary-junior high school on the south side of Nine Mile Road, between Southfield and Evergreen roads. Cost of the elementary structure has been pegged at $425,223, rising to nearly $1,000,000 with the later addition of the junior high section.

Also slated are additions to the McKinley, Angling Road and Brace schools.

Included in the three year program of expansion is a new elementary school near Southfield and 12 Mile Roads.

The present Angling Road school will get six additional rooms plus a multi-purpose room, and the Brace School will get five more rooms and a multi-purpose.

The present McKinley school will be doubled from five rooms to 10 with the addition of a west side wing, and also a multi-purpose room.

"The board of education is especially anxious to provide full day sessions for the boys and girls of Southfield, as soon as possible," Schoenhals said. Approximately 500 students are on half day sessions now.

"The board is conscious of the fact that there is a need for school sites, and they are concentrating now on securing between six and eight sites for future buildings," he added. Funds for the sites are included in the bond issue.

Ford Constructing Huge Proving Ground

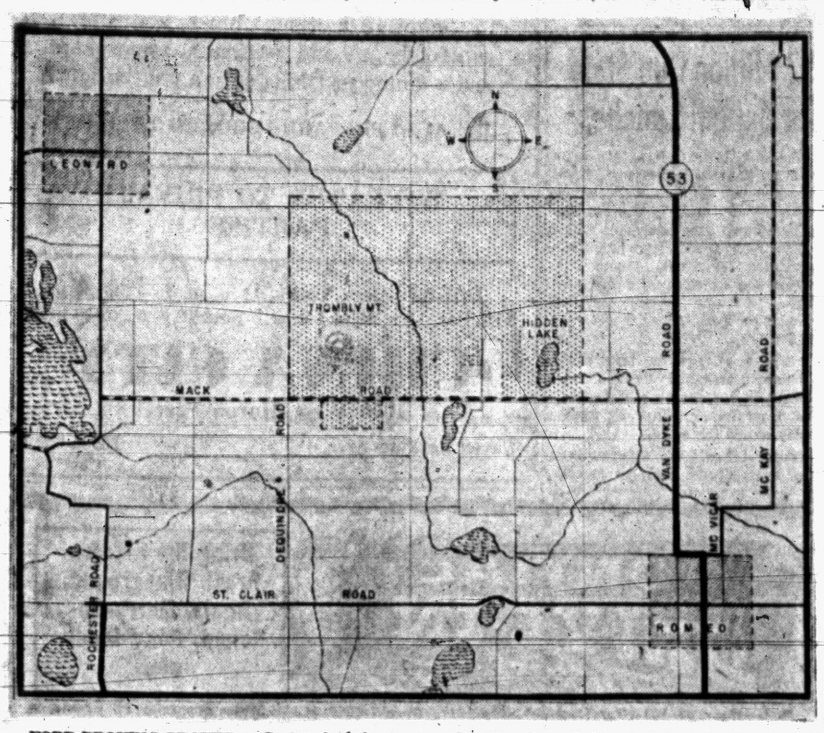

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

Construction of Ford Motor Co.'s 4,000-acre Michigan Proving Ground, 25 miles northeast of Pontiac, officially got under way yesterday with a tour of inspection by Ford executives.

The multi-million dollar test area, located between Romeo and Leonard in Macomb County, is slated for completion in the fall of 1956, according to Earle S. MacPherson, vice president in charge of engineering.

It will be 10 times larger than the company's Dearborn testing facility and about the same size as the nearly completed Ford desert proving ground near Kingman, Ariz., said MacPherson, who headed the executive delegation.

Construction actually began two weeks ago when the S. J. Groves & Sons Co., of Minneapolis, moved in 90 big earth-moving machines and a large crew of construction workers.

FORD PROVING GROUND — Center shaded area indicates the nearly 4,000 acres in Macomb County where the Ford Motor Co. is constructing its Michigan Proving Ground. Located between Romeo and Leonard, the test area is scheduled for completion by fall, 1956.

16-HOUR SHIFTS

Already, 298,000 cubic yards of earth have been moved by the men, working in two 10-hour shifts. Another 3 million yards must still be shifted.

Ford products will be run through their paces on a 5-mile high-speed oval track, a 2½-mile straightaway and 29 miles of concrete, blacktop and gravel roads. In addition, there will be test hills running from a moderate 7 per cent incline to a steep 60 per cent grade.

A 153,000-square-foot operations building will include office space, a cafeteria and five separate garage areas.

MacPherson said approximately 400 persons will be employed in the testing operations.

8,000 ACRES

The new site will give the company's engineering staff more than 8,000 acres of vehicle-testing area, providing, Ford says, the largest and most extensive such facilities in the automobile industry.

"These extensive testing operations guarantee quality for today's car and truck buyer and are part of our constant search for improved means of transportation," MacPherson stated.

Accompanying MacPherson were J. A. MacAlarney, director of the plant engineering office; Robert W. Gaines, proving grounds manager, and W. G. Cookman, field engineer.

The proving ground property, which has two sizeable hills, is located in Bruce Township, approximately 45 miles from company headquarters in Dearborn. Included in the purchase, which was completed just over a year ago, was the 2,500-acre farm formerly owned by Edward F. Fisher.

Lake in Clinton County Ruled Unfit for Bathers

BATH (IP)—Park Lake in Bath Township, a popular Clinton County swimming area, has been declared unsafe for swimming by the Township Board of Health.

The Board of Health said State Health Department sampling showed pollution in the lake from drains carrying waste materials.

TEST TRACK TAKING SHAPE — Construction workers, with the aid of massive machines, are converting 4,000 acres of rolling northwest Macomb County hills into a huge testing ground for Ford Motor Co. cars and trucks. Above, the northern leg of the 5-mile high-speed oval test track begins to take shape. Work has been under way for two weeks.

GOP Doomed Ike's Program

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, (IP)—Several Senate Democrats challenged President Eisenhower today to line up Republican support if he wants Congress to pass programs he terms vital to the nation's well-being.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday, "It would be completely futile on my part to say that in this . . . domestic field . . . we have been as successful in this past Congress as we should have been."

* * *

He said he has not dismissed the possibility that a special session might be needed to deal with highway legislation, but that he has made no decision.

* * *

When Congress quit Tuesday, most GOP leaders were discounting the likelihood of a special session. Eisenhower's plans to be out of Washington for most of the next month or more, announced shortly after his news conference, indicated there would be none before fall if then.

He said it was "absolutely vital" that the legislators act when they do return to Washington on school construction, health, highway and water resources legislation.

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) said that if the President had been able to enlist Republican support he already would have on his desk measures calling for an expanded highway program and for federal aid in construction of school buildings.

* * *

"Any time he will get half the Republicans on the line, Congress will pass a health program," Kerr declared.

* * *

Kerr and Senators Monroney (D-Okla) and Humphrey (D-Minn) condemned yesterday's action of the Federal Power Commission in granting the Idaho Power Co. permission to build three dams which would flood the site of the proposed Federal Hell's Canyon project on the Idaho-Oregon border.

All three called this action a blow to water resource development and suggested in separate interviews that Congress may act to rescind the order.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD) agreed with Eisenhower that the Democratic-controlled Congress did not act on many of the proposals the President made.

* * *

"There is no question that the Congress gave better support to the President on foreign policy than on domestic matters," Mundt said. "About the only foreign policy issue on which he was not supported was his request for construction of an atomic-powered demonstration merchant ship."

Eisenhower told newsmen there had been "a complete appreciation of the need for bipartisan approach" to foreign policy. He said he thinks the whole record of the past two Congresses in that field "has been commendable, and certainly I for one am deeply grateful."

As for the domestic picture, he declared:

* * *

"America is today enjoying almost unprecedented prosperity . . . Now, if we are going to keep that kind of thing moving, it means that there must forever be action, not only in the economic and industrial field on the part of the individuals in our system of free enterprise, but government as well . . ."

* * *

Pulling out of his pocket a list he had read to newsmen a month or so ago, he noted that he had then urged Congress to act before it quit on 13 subjects. He said only four of these had been enacted—military reserves, housing, foreign aid and minimum wage.

Chicken's Part in Art Is Subject of MSU Talk

EAST LANSING (IP) — "The chicken in art and literature" is the intriguing title of a lecture to be given in connection with the national meeting of the American Poultry Asso. Aug. 9-12 at Michigan State University.

Mrs. Leonora C. Hering of Los Altos, Calif., will give an illustrated talk tracing the contributions poultry has made to painting and literature through the ages.

Labs Seeking Milder Vaccine

Surgeon General Hopes for Less Danger in New Polio Serum

CHICAGO (IP)—Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele said today that several laboratories are working on the problem of finding a milder but still effective antipolio vaccine.

He said the Salk vaccine used in field tests last year and given to larger numbers of children this year contains "the Mahoney virus strain, a strain of Type 1 virus that is highly antigenic but is also highly invasive."

* * *

A less invasive strain that still could produce sufficient antibodies to combat the polio virus would provide an additional margin of safety, he said.

At present, the polio virus in the Salk vaccine is killed by a powerful chemical. When dead, the virus still is capable of producing antibodies, without causing polio in the patient.

However, any live virus present in inadequately treated vaccine is capable of causing polio.

* * *

Writing in the Journal of the American Medical Assn., Scheele said other problems under study for combatting polio are:

1. The combination of the Salk vaccine with other disease-fighting agents, just as diphtheria and tetanus toxoids are now administered together.

2. Development of vaccines based on different principles than those employed in the Salk process.

"Although we can expect further research and observation to lead to improvements, the vaccine is, at present, our most useful weapon in the prevention of paralytic poliomyelitis," he said.

Hiroshima Maidens Well Integrated Among Helpful Neighbors in America

By JACK LOTTO

NEW YORK (INS)—Ten years after they were hideously disfigured and crippled by the first A-bomb dropped in war, 25 "Hiroshima maidens" are being "reborn" in America.

Plastic surgery—and hot dogs—have helped create a new zest for life and rekindled hope within the young women who have led spiritless existences since Aug. 6, 1945.

In just three months after their arrival here for free treatments, these wonders have occurred for the girls who lived as virtual hermits for a decade:

Once-useless hands and feet are beginning to vibrate with life.

A walk in the street, once an ordeal, has now become a relaxed stroll.

Eyes that could not be closed because of radiation wounds are now shutting.

Cherished dreams of useful employment and eventual marriage cast aside as hopeless after the bomb exploded are being revived.

Twelve of the A-bomb victims, aged 19 to 32, have already undergone successfully their first of a series of year-long corrective surgery operations. The first operation performed at Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York was described as "the most challenging."

TOUGHEST FIRST

The maiden chosen was one who couldn't move her right arm or fingers. Five days after her operation physicians found her staring at her bandage-encased hand, fascinated by the movement of her fingers which stuck out of the gauze.

Another girl now is able to shut both eyes when she goes to sleep. One eyelid had been burned away.

"They have beautifully integrated into the American community," declared Norman Cousins, Saturday Review of Literature editor. "They now like to walk in the streets, go shopping for a pound of butter and stop to talk with people in the community."

He added:

LIKE HOT DOGS

"I recently had a picnic for them. Two tables of food were set—Japanese and American. They went right for the American food.

"They can't get enough of hot dogs. They just love them. In fact, one of the girls got sick in New Jersey, probably from eating too many hot dogs. She was rushed to Mt. Sinai, where her appendix, which was about to burst, was removed. A few days later she was back home."

A recent television program devoted to the project brought in a shower of $50,360 from 23,000 persons, Cousins said.

The doctors on the project will be aided by two Japanese physicians, Drs. Goro Ouchi, and Tomin Harada, brought over by Cousins to study the latest plastic surgery techniques of th top experts.

The girl who led the way in the first operation was asked whether she wanted to do anything or say something.

Child Suffering Sleeping Illness Is 3 Years Old

PARK RIDGE, Ill. (IP)—Debbie Ann Hadfield, who has suffered from sleeping sickness for nearly nine months, is 3 today.

* * *

There are ice cream, birthday cake and party favors at her home in this tree-shaded Chicago suburb—and, for the first time in many months, the laughter of small children.

Debbie cannot taste the cake. And it is doubtful that she will hear the voices of her playmates.

* * *

The little girl fell ill with sleeping sickness last Nov. 13. Released April 29 from Billings Hospital in Chicago, she lies in a semiconscious state at home. She is cared for by her mother Mrs. Jean Hadfield, 24, and two nurses.

Mrs. Hadfield and her husband William planned the party in the hope that the voices of Debbie's friends might reach through the child's coma.

* * *

"Maybe my child will react to the other children. Maybe God will grant her the power to see the children," Mrs. Hadfield said.

Although Debbie's eyes are often open now, she does not see. But Mrs. Hadfield thinks the party might awaken a flicker of interest.

Instructor at St. Mary's Soon Will Become Citizen

A Polish priest who spent four years in Soviet prison camps soon will become a U. S. citizen, after months of preparation by a Michigan state representative.

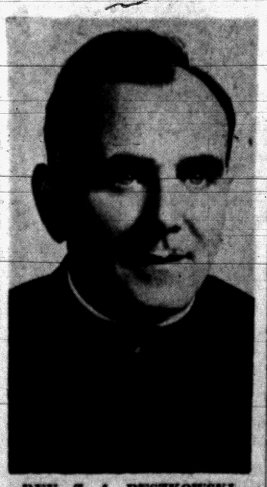

The Rev. Zdzislaw A. Peskowski, a former lieutenant in the Polish Free Army, is a faculty member at SS Cyril and Methodius' Seminary at Orchard Lake.

After a session at Oxford University, he came to the U. S. in 1950 to study for the priesthood. Since he entered the country as a student, he could not be granted permanent residence for the purpose of acquiring citizenship.

Rev. Peszkowski was ordained in June 1954 and is now attending summer school at the University of Wisconsin, working toward his masters degree.

In 1939, when Hitler launched his historic march through Poland, Rev. Peszkowski was a lieutenant with the Polish army. Soon after, he was taken prisoner by the Russians when they invaded Poland from the east.

He was liberated in 1943 to join the Polish army, which was then controlled by Communist leaders. Fleeing Russia via Iran and India, he ended his military career in England.

Rep. Thaddeus Machrowicz (D-Mich.) of Hamtramck introduced the special bill to Congress on his behalf.

U.S. Proposes That U.N. Collect Atomic Data

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (IP)—The United States has proposed that the U. N. collect and publish information on the effects of atomic radiation on human health.

* * *

Presumably most of the data would come from the United States Britain and Russia—the only nations known to have conducted atomic tests—and from Japanese scientists who studied the Lucky Dragon victims of the Bikini fallout last year.

In a letter and memorandum delivered yesterday to the office of Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. urged that the next U. N. Assembly vote the study. Lodge had announced June 22 at the U. N.'s 10th anniversary meeting in San Francisco that his government would make such a proposal.

Governors of All States Invited to See Michigan

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has invited the governors of all the states to visit Michigan at the end of the governors conference in Chicago Aug. 12.

Williams told them that Michigan is celebrating two big centennials this year—the 100th anniversaries of the opening of the Soo Locks and of the founding of Michigan State University.

He noted that during the week of Aug. 15-20, MSU will be conducting its centennial of farm mechanization show.

Hollywood Headlines

By DOROTHY MANNERS
For Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Guy Madison's most ambitious venture will be Nathaniel Hawthorne's "The Marble Faun" in which he'll star for King Vidor in Italy after Vidor finishes "War and Peace."

It will be a co-production deal between Vidor and Buckshot Productions, Guy's independent company, and Jeff Bailey is already at work on the script.

Speaking of Guy, an "irate fan" asks, via airmail, "What do you mean he hasn't had much luck outside his Wild Bill Hickok roles? He was a smash in 'Charge at Feather River' and 'The Command' — both boxoffice hits." Touche.

There will be tears shed aplenty by all the young actresses tested for "Carousel" to learn tomorrow morning that the role of Carrie goes to Barbara Ruick. Frank Sinatra and Shirley Jones are the stars but this is far and away Barbara's best opportunity.

Pretty smart, those 20th Century-Foxers. Before she was signed for "Carousel," the studio obtained Barbara's release from her five year TV contract which she had inked just this year.

You can always bet that when a studio gives a big part to a young actress, it's going to have her tied up on an "exclusive."

Good old conservative Philadelphia all but rang the Liberty Bell feteing Grace Kelly when "Catcah a Thief" opened. The festivities kicked off with a very small family dinner party given by Grace's parents.

But the top brass got into the act at the after-the-theater reception when the mayor and the governor of the state stood with Grace and Cary Grant in the receiving line.

The gossip hounds, hoping to get a line on any possible new romance in Grace's life on this, her big night, were doomed to disappointment. The local belle who made good in a great big way was escorted by her good friend, and co-star in the Hitchcock thriller, Cary Grant.

By setting back the starting date on "Where Men Are Men," by 60 days, Paramount has removed the terrifying possibility of an immediate showdown between Martin and Lewis. The theory must be, "If you can't join 'em—postpone 'em."

DEAN DOES TALKING

It's ominous now that with Dean doing more and more talking about how much he wants to make up and forget the whole thing, Jerry gets more and more silent.

HOLLYWOOD IN SHORTS: When Burt Lancaster was introduced to Gina Lollobrigida, his leading lady in "Trapeze" for the first time, in Paris, he tongue-in-cheeked, "pardon me, I didn't catch the name." He'll learn it better on those salary checks he's writing for her.

From London Guy Mitchell cables: Opened at Palladium last night. No butterflies at all. Seagulls instead. Regards.

Good heavens—doesn't seem possible that Penny Singleton's and Bob Sparks' daughter, Dorothy, was celebrating her 20th birthday at Eldorado the other night.

That's all today.

$2 Million Due State for School Lunches

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan will get $2,193,304 from the federal government during the coming school year to help support the school lunch program.

The Agriculture Department apportioned $67,100,000 among the states and territories for this purpose—the same amount as last year. New York led all others with $3,847,754.

The law requires that each dollar contributed by the federal government be matched by at least three dollars by agencies within the state.

Federal funds are appointed on the basis of the number of children of school age and the need for assistance as indicated by individual income averages in the states.

About half the best one-fourth of high school graduates do not go to college, says the U.S. Office of Education.

Sound Alert for Girls Passing Fake Currency

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Bank tellers are on the alert for a redhead with a pony tail hairdo and a brunette who ask for paper money in exchange for rolls of quarters.

Six banks here and one in nearby Walnut Park have discovered that rolls so exchanged contained 40 place of 40 quarters.

Police said the girls, with a smiling, smooth approach, so far have collected $700.

Martha Raye Refuses to Shed $10,000 Mink

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—The wife and I are dieting again. We have to nag each other into it. I told her my back hurt and she said, "Maybe you lifted something heavy."

"What could I have lifted heavy?" I asked.

"Yourself," said she.

'Twas real hot when Martha Raye planed in from Las Vegas. But she wouldn't shed her new $10,000 silver mink. "Won the loot at crap tables and I'm gonna wear it!" she announced . . . Forgot to tell you that Evelyn (Treasure Chest) West did put on something to wear at that nudist wedding. Yep. False eyelashes.

MARTHA STEWART

Christine Jorgensen asked for the Jane Kean role in "Ankles Aweigh." Particularly wanted to sing one song: "His and Hers."

Lois Andrews was talking about a German city she'd visited with her husband, Maj. Leonard Kleckner, of Los Angeles. "I was there when it fell," spoke up ex-war correspondent Mike Stern. "It didn't fall far enough!" snapped Lois.

Don Ameche asked curly-top Phil Harris, the Linton, Ind., boy who made good as a Southerner, how he's getting along with Jack Benny and Bing Crosby. "Great," said Phil. "They think if they're nice to me, I might sell 'em some hair."

Joey Adams' record-busting at the Latin Quarter has won him a 5-year, 8-weeks-a-year contract with Lou Walters. Joey, Bill Bailey and Patti Ross are carrying the show with Al Kelly still sick and Betty George out ill. Joey has this one: "My favorite song is 'Hymie's Hideaway' " . . . "It's 'Hernando's Hideaway' " . . . "I'm sorry, it's 'Hymie's Hideaway.' Hymie bought him out."

Unpaid Government Jobs to Be Probed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Asst. Atty. Gen. Stanley N. Barnes says his Antitrust Division has started a new probe into the kind of unpaid government jobs held by businessmen.

He coupled the announcement to a House Judiciary subcommittee yesterday with disclosure that an oil company official had been removed as head of an Interior Department advisory group on foreign oil supplies. Barnes said such cases involve "a borderland of law and ethics."

Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission, appearing before the same subcommittee, said three other businessmen on loan from their private companies had been found in "operating" positions where they should not have been.

He said these were the only three cases of the kind found under the Eisenhower administration and "all three were corrected voluntarily when called to the agencies' attention by the Civil Service Commission."

Jap Government Asks Aid for U.S. Base Plan

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government today issued an unusual statement asking the people's cooperation in expanding five U. S. air bases "because the plan is not for making them atomic weapons bases."

The plan is largely to extend runways for use by jets.

The project has been held up many months because of fierce opposition by Japanese living in the areas.

Margaret O'Brien Starting Career as Adult Star

Besides aging all of us a little, that news accentuates the fact that the movies haven't really had a box office child star since little Maggie won an Oscar in 1944.

Maggie O'Brien is probably the best advertisement for a Hollywood upbringing. She is a high school graduate although she never spent a day of her life in a regular school.

* * *

"I don't feel any different than other girls my age," she reveals. Margaret, one of the most talented of all child stars, is back before the cameras again at RKO where she's making "Glory."

Does she do her specialty with the tears?

Alleged Attack Is Cited in Suit Against Singer

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—A $50,000 damage suit has been filed against Jimmy Wakely, singing and guitar-playing cowboy, by the mother of 18-year-old Anita R. Hayes, charging an attack "with force and violence."

Mrs. Thelma R. Hayes said the alleged attack occurred April 25 while Miss Hayes was "lawfully in Wakely's Hollywood office," that it was unprovoked, and that it caused serious injury and mental shock.

Ike to Study Bills at Gettysburg Farm

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower leaves today for his Gettysburg farm. He plans to remain there most of next week to study and act on bills passed by Congress.

The White House said yesterday he will return to Washington briefly and then fly on to Denver Aug. 14 or 15 for a vacation "longer than several weeks."

Mrs. Eisenhower plans to accompany the President to the farm today and remain there until Eisenhower returns briefly from Denver to address the American Bar Assn. in Philadelphia Aug. 24. She will join him then for the return to Denver.

To 'Sell Malaya' to U.S.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—A Malay with a mouthful of name left by plane today for Washington to "sell Malaya" to the United States. He is Raja Ayoub Bin Raja Haji Bot. Officially designated as Malayan colonial attache to the British Embassy, he will make a six-month lecture tour.

Testing engineers have learned that the total number of typing operations performed by the average typist each year is 14,745,000.

'Mail Must Go Through' Fails to Soften Judge

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — When John R. Hill, driver of a government mail truck, found his vehicle ticketed for double parking, he appeared in court to argue the case with Municipal Judge James Demopolos.

"I've been doing it for two years and have never received a ticket before," argued Hill. Besides, declared the postal people, remember the axiom, "The mail must go through."

"The mail can go through without double parking," declared Judge Demopolos, ordering the post office to pay a $5 fine.

Hill paid.

Lucky Tune Is Sung at Gambler's Funeral

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A soloist sang the "Wabash Cannon Ball" at funeral services yesterday for gambler Tony Cornero, 54 who died Sunday of a heart attack while shooting craps in Las Vegas.

Cornero considered it his lucky song.

A crowd of more than 1,000, closely surveyed by police, attended the services in a mortuary chapel. Cornero once did a multi-million-dollar business with a fleet of gambling ships off the coast of California.

Dems Assail Dam Approval

FPC's OK on Private Hydro Financing Is Hit by Senators

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)— Democratic senators assailed bitterly today the Federal Power Commission's action in approving a privately financed hydroelectric project in the Hell's Canyon area.

The Democrats indicated they intend to make a national issue, if possible, of the commission's grant to the Idaho Power Co. of authority to build three power dams. These would flood the site of a proposed federal Hell's Canyon dam on the Snake River border between Idaho and Oregon.

* * *

Public power advocates have been trying unsuccessfully for years to have Congress authorize a single, high-level dam in the canyon as a federal project. They have contended the private development would not make full use of the potential.

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) predicted that by the time the Democratic-controlled Congress gets through with it the commission's order "will be corroding in the same graveyard where the Dixon-Yates contract reposes."

Sen. Magnusen (D-Wash) called it "a complete sell-out of God-given resources to the private power lobby."

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said in a separate interview the FPC action announced yesterday "is just another example of the fact that this administration waits until Congress is away to uncork its special interests packages."

Democrat on GOP Group to Suggest Poll Topics

WASHINGTON (AP)—Outgoing Undersecretary of Defense Robert B. Anderson, an Eisenhower Democrat in 1952, has taken on a chore for the Republican National Committee.

He was listed by GOP headquarters today as one of six on a committee to suggest topics and draft questions on public issues to be used in opinion polls beginning this fall.

Seven-Point Buck Killed by Car South of Bad Axe

BAD AXE (AP)—Arnold Ackerman, Harbor Beach, struck and killed a 7-point buck that wandered onto M 53 about 17 miles south of Bad Axe early yesterday.

The deer flew up and landed on the hood of Ackerman's car, causing extensive damage.

Ackerman was not hurt. The deer's body was claimed by State Conservation Department agents.

Barkley Challenges Chandler's Fitness

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Sen. Alben W. Barkley, making a belated appearance in the Democratic primary fight, has accused A. B. (Happy) Chandler of deserting him when Barkley sought the presidential nomination.

Barkley also challenged Chandler's fitness to run for governor on the party's ticket, claiming he frequently deserted the Democrats to support other candidates and other causes.

Returning to his home state from Washington last night, Barkley spoke in behalf of Bert T. Combs, who is battling Chandler for the gubernatorial nomination.

TOMPATO PLANT? — Mike Clyde, 11, of Leavenworth, Kans., doesn't know just what to name the unique tomato-potato vine which he grew in the family garden plot. In Mike's right hand are three of the small, green tomatoes which grew on the vine. At the other end of the stalk he found two large potatoes. He reports finding three such plants, bearing both potatoes and tomatoes, in his garden.

Herb Garden Carries Scent of Old Legends

By WILMA GREENWAY

Herbs not only hold a special place in the esteem of the discriminating chef—they also play an important part in the legend of man's undertakings and aspirations.

Sesame, a symbol of immortality to the Brahmins, is used as a password in the tale of "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves." Thyme used to be considered a source of courage. Indian peasants at one time wore sprigs of basil to enlist the sympathy of their beloveds.

As intriguing and interesting as the aromatic odors of its hundreds of herbs is the garden of Mrs. Max H. Fruhauf in Bloomfield Hills. Born in Kent, England, Alma Fruhauf brought the tradition of the English herb garden to her home on Brookside drive—but on a much grander scale.

CLEAN-LINED PATHS

Neat pathways cut clean lines around the center plot and point up the curving forms of the four outer beds. A well-placed sundial lends atmosphere.

* * *

Most any kind of herb you care to mention can be found here. The tiny pink flowers of sweet lemon thyme grows alongside the blue star-blossoms of borage.

There is difficult-to-raise tarragon, fragrant southernwood, basil and purple basil, chives, bitter rue. Mint, lemon balm, sage, chervil, pinks, marjoram, rosemary, savory, tansy — all have a place.

Alma does all the gardening on the four landscaped acres of the five-acre Fruhauf estate. To Max, her attorney husband, she relegates the position of "official taster" when her herbs appear in their final state as the tantalizing savor in a prized recipe. The Fruhaufs have five sons, ranging all the way from Ennis, 11, to Michael who is married.

What does Mrs. Fruhauf do with such an abundance of herbs?

"I put them to a wide use," she says, "in my own home, of course, and wherever it seems they will do some good or bring pleasure."

The 500 lavender plants will yield a bountiful harvest, for instance, and when dried will make hundreds of aromatic lavender bags. Mrs. Fruhauf gives lavender to friends, to the women's club of Christ Church Cranbrook for use at bazaars, and to various groups in which she is interested.

Other herbs will be combined in a secret English recipe for herb vinegar, and bottles of this also will help bring funds at her church bazaar.

There are a host of interesting traditions connected with herbs, and Mrs. Fruhauf knows many entertaining stories of their use. She tells, for instance, of how in ancient English courts a piece of rue always was placed on the judge's table when a prisoner was about to hear his sentence.

"The rue has a bitter odor," she says, "and ostensibly it was placed there to take away the 'odor of the prisoner.' "

Herbs are not too difficult to raise, this gardener says. They like heavy dry soil and will grow only in unshaded plost.

Most of them are perennials and will come up year after year. They are resistant to disease and require no spraying—but be relentless about clipping them back to avoid crowding, she warns.

Not only Mrs. Fruhauf's family and friends find her garden enchanting. Among its ardent admirers are the unusual fowl that make their home there and lend added beauty to the place.

Many a visitor has caught his breath in wonder at the sight of the swan-like Chinese geese, the mallard and Peking ducks, and the blue muscovies. They, too, live in Cobble Court, and keep up a firm friendship with the ornamental chickens, the several cats and the two Dalmatian dogs that make up the Fruhaufs' family of pets.

ENGLISH HERB GARDEN — An English herb garden — but located in Bloomfield Hills and scaled to the bigness of America — is a special attraction at "Cobble Court," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Fruhauf on Brookside drive. Above, Mrs. Fruhauf stands on the fringe of the central circle, focal point of the garden. It contains hyssop bordered with English lavender and, around that, an outer border of germander. Except for grass cutting, Mrs. Fruhauf, who was born in England, does all the garden work on the four landscaped acres of their five-acre estate. And her herbs add that extra tang when used in prized family recipes.

Thin, Divide Perennials, Sow Seed for Annuals

Perennials which bloomed before real summer weather set in should be, if necessary, divided and transplanted in the fall so they may be established in time to produce bloom next year in their new and refurbished locations.

Hardy annuals—larkspur, shirly and California poppy, alyssum and calendula — seed may be sown where they are to bloom next year.

Rules to Help You Grow Beautiful Iris

(A) Newsfeature

Summertime is iris time—not iris bloom time, but the time to get ready for next year's bloom.

A question often asked at this time of the year is, "My iris did poorly and gave very little bloom in June. What's the matter and what should I do?".

The iris is a simple plant to grow. Yet, if placed improperly in location or planting and with unsatisfactory soil and drainage conditions, it will fail to give the colorful and majestic bloom for which it is loved.

There are just a few fundamentals to follow:

First, the plantings should be located in full sun. They should be unshaded by nearby growing shrubs, trees or fences.

The location should be well drained. An easy way to achieve good drainage is to set the bed or spot for clumps a few inches higher than the surrounding soil.

The soil itself should be good garden loam. If you don't have this, obtain some compost and work it in well along with a sprinkling of bone meal.

Should you have heavy clay soil, work in some sand to loosen it up. You can fertilize if desired, but be sure to work the plant food well down into the ground where it will be available to roots, but does not come in direct contact with the rhizomes.

Whether you plant in clumps or border beds, you must hill so that the rhizome is atop the soil and the trailing roots go down the sides. Rhizomes will rot if they are under the soil surface.

Picture a W made by taking two slanting cuts in the soil. Plant the rhizome atop the center of the top of the W. Fill in soil to the outside tops of the W, anchoring the roots and keeping the rhizome firmly atop the ground level.

Pleasing results can be obtained by planting rhizomes in a triangle, setting plants about eight inches apart. A good display in rows can be obtained by setting plantings 12 to 16 inches apart.

If you are resetting plants after bloom, trim the leaves of the fans about 6 to 7 inches high. Plant as above. Water in well, but not over the rhizomes.

Should the old rhizomes in the garden be rotted or diseased, throw them away. If part of the rhizome is rotted or diseased, the bad part can be cut away, and the good retained.

Good quality plantings of last year's growth should be fed with fertilizer in a ring around them. Be careful to keep the plant food off rhizomes and leaves. Water well after feeding.

In the fall, cut leaf fans down to about seven inches. Then they will not get packed down or broken by fallen leaves or snow.

Iris now are ready for purchase. Modestly-priced plants will give you excellent display if they are purchased from reputable firms.

Kill Poison Ivy With Chemicals

Midsummer Best Time to Start Spraying; Heat Discourages Regrowth

Poison ivy is for the birds. Our feathered friends have a penchant for the berries of this weed. They enjoy the white or cream colored berries as a delicacy, one of the main reasons this noxious pest is lushest along fences where birds are likely to roost.

State highway departments are now using chemicals in an effort to eliminate the plant. The homeowner having valuable trees, shrubs and flowers should go all out at this time, too, to rid his grounds of the ivy.

Midsummer is ideal to start the war of complete eradication. That's because the dry heat from now on discourages regrowth, after application of weed killers.

Extreme caution should be used in applying the chemical eradicators. They should be mixed in minimum quantities according to manufacturers directions and sprayed directly on the offending ivy.

Roots often survive a single application. Complete eradication will require two or more sprayings before the growing season is over. Since no one really is immune to poison ivy, those who attempt hand pulling of roots as a final resort should be properly dressed. This means wearing high top boots, leather gloves and adequate clothing.

Keep Vegetables Coming by Re-planting New Crops

NEA Feature

All vegetable garden space should be growing some crop from early spring to late fall. Harvest of an early crop of peas, radish, lettuce, or other quick - maturing vegetables is not a signal to stop or take a rest.

It leaves space for another planting, says Prof. E. E. Wittmeyer, garden specialist of Ohio State University.

As soon as the early crops are harvested, apply two pounds of complete garden fertilizer per sq. feet of garden area. Loosen the soil to make a good seed bed, then replant the area.

Beans, broccoli, cabbage, Chinese cabbage and carrots can be planted until mid-July. Crops which do not require a long-growing season, such as kale, spinach, beets, lettuce, may be planted later.

If a second crop is not planted after the early one is harvested, the gardener is advised to seed the area to a soil-improving crop.

Cover crops help to keep down weeds, add valuable organic matter to soil, conserve plant food nutrients and reduce erosion. Because the soil is usually dry, summer plantings of most vegetable seeds should be deeper than spring plantings.

An aid for quicker germination of seeds planted in dry soil is to soak the bottom of the furrow before planting. Then mulch or shade the newly sown row until the seedlings are up. Mulch should be removed just as seedlings emerge.

Transplanting vegetable plants also requires a little more care during summer than in spring and fall. It is best to set pants in the evening when temperatures are lower.

Try to keep as much soil on the roots as possible, then put one or two cupfuls of water in the transplant hole. Allow the water to soak in thoroughly before filling the hole with dry soil—lightly firmed.

Shading plants for a day or two will help assure a living plant.

Fight Results

Sam Piliarik, (162) Saginaw, TKO over Floyd Brooks, (160) Detroit, at 32 seconds in 3rd round of scheduled 6-rounder

"Kid" George Moore, (210) Detroit, decision over Gene Jackson, Cleveland (192), 4 rounds.

By H. GUY MOATS

Pontiac's battling postman made his point stick, last night, with a decision over rugged Al Andrews of Superior, Wis., before a big audience in Wisner Stadium. Some 4,758 watched it.

Gene received a split decision, with one judge and referee Johnny Weber voting in his favor and the other judge giving Andrews the nod.

After the bout, capstone for Linscott's comeback effort to this point, co-managers Don Frayer and Chuck Richards said they had been given the "go-ahead" by promoter Julius Piazza to sign Gene with the winner of the Aug. 22 Chuck Davey-Pat Manzi fight at Saginaw.

"And we're going to bring the bout here to Pontiac" Frayer announced this morning.

The Linscott-Andrews scrap highlighted a six card program in which three of the preliminaries were settled by TKOs.

There was no lack of action in the 10-round main go. But there also wasn't too much in the way of solid punching. Neither Gene nor his rushing opponent threw anything, except an occasional stiff jab that could be tagged as hard hitting

Probably the best round was the 5th, when Gene, stung by several short right-hand jabs by Al, forced the fighting and slammed Andrews' midsection with the fight's only really hefty punch. It hurt Al, but the stocky battler came back with a rush.

Gene was constantly making Al do the leading, and slipped many a good-looking punch. He suffered a bump and a "mouse" on his right eye from a head bump, during a rough scuffle on the ropes in the last round.

The decision was a popular one. Gene, Pontiac boy, making his "big stand," was given a nice round of support. Andrews later said he felt he won the bout and his manager, Ike Bernstein and trainer Danny Spunt also were loud in the protestation over the verdict.

Linscott, on the other hand, said he felt he had the fight in hand as early as the 3rd round. "Al fought just the way we figured he would," said Gene. "And Gene followed our plan of battle to the letter," Frayer added.

Victory was Linscott's 6th straight in his comeback.

Frayer said today he would lay claim to the Michigan middleweight title, now vacant.

In the prelims Buddy Harris' win by TKO over Nap Ludy was a wild one. Buddy swarmed all over the hapless Ludy, who still wouldn't go down. Referee Lou Jalkos stopped it.

Middleweight Rocky Volpe of Chicago displayed a sharp attack in putting Willie Barnes of Detroit out of action in the 1st round on a TKO. A terrific right to the face fractured Barnes' jaw and he was sent to a hospital for treatment.

Third bout to end in a TKO was the Sam Piliarik (160) of Saginaw and Detroiter Floyd Brooks. The husky, blonde Piliarik blasted Brooks with everything he had in the 3rd to end the fight at 54 seconds of the round. A solid right hander turned the trick.

Piazzi said the fight grossed $9,903.20 and $8,242.70 net, of which sum, Iraq Grotto here will get $824.27. The Grotto and Motor City Fights sponsored the card.

At ringside along with other officials was state boxing commissioner Floyd Stevens who commented very favorably on the show.

Major Prospect Ends Career in Hospital Room

Dave Williams, Giant 2nd Baseman, Told to Quit Baseball

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—A short-lived baseball career that started in the Dallas, Texas, sandlots ended this week for New York Giants second baseman Dave Williams in a consultation room at the Mayo Clinic here.

* * *

Talking in his third-floor hotel room, Williams, 27, said last night he is accepting the advice of doctors to quit baseball because of a back ailment.

Williams, who rose from Class B ball at Pensacola, Fla., through the Southern Assn. at Atlanta and the American Assn. at Minneapolis, said the specialists' pronouncement "came as quite a shock."

Mets Meet Undefeated Griff's as Youngster Tournament Continues

CLASS F
Dick & Wes 3, East Siders 1

Tigers 8, Senators 3

Lynn Wright pitched a sparkling three-hitter to pace the Mets to a 3-0 verdict over Rosebud Market in Thursday's Class D playoff tilt as the city's Junior Baseball Leagues ended their 3rd day of post-season competition.

Wright's pitching feat came at a convenient time as far as the Mets were concerned. His triumph eliminated the Market nine from the playoffs in their "best of three" series, which went to the limit. Mets will now face undefeated Griff's Grill in the championship finals.

Wright, who fanned 11, also collected a pair of hits, as did Joe Vernot, to lead an eight-hit attack against loser Art Harrison.

Lunsford Market scored two runs in the 6th inning to break a 3-all tie and post a 5-3 decision over Cass Ponts. The Class E game dropped Cass Ponts from the tournament picture. Lunsford's crew now tangles with Boys Club. Joe Tinson scattered eight hits to get credit for the win.

Ron Bunch and Harry Van Metre locked horns with a pair of four-hitters in a Class F battle between the East Siders and Dick & Wes. Van Metre and Dick & Wes came out on top by a 3-1 margin. Van Metre fanned seven batters and picked up two hits as Dick & Wes removed the East Siders from competition.

Tigers rapped eight hits to eliminate the Senators, 8-3, in yesterday's Knothole playoff game. Losers managed only four hits off Ron Burnstrom, one a 5th-inning home run by Bob Pierson. Chris Cucksey banged out three hits and Dave DeMilner got two in the Tigers' winning cause.

Fageol May Not Drive in Gold Cup at Seattle

Dean of Drivers Is Bruised During Run First of Week

SEATTLE, (AP) —The possibility existed today that Lou Fageol, dean of the Gold Cup speedboat jockeys, may not hold down a driver's seat in Sunday's hydroplane classic on Lake Washington.

Fageol, of Kent, Ohio, last year's winning driver who takes time out from the presidency of a large business to pilot the 2-mile-a minute craft, suffered a severe leg bruise when the Seattle Slo-Mo-Shun V hit a rough spot of water Monday.

He tried to drive again Tuesday and his doctor said he undoubtedly aggravated the injury and ordered him to stay out of action at least until today. Directors of the Twin Coach Motors Co., his firm, also asked him to pass up this year's racing.

Stan Sayre, owner of the defending champion Slo-Mo V, then delayed its qualifying runs and arranged for Marion Cooper, Louisville, Ky., an understudy, to handle the throttle if necessary today.

Seven of the big field of 13 boats still needed to pass the 85 m.p.h. qualifying test.

In the falling dusk yesterday, the Gale V and Miss Cadillac, both from Detroit, and the pride of Norfolk, Va., the Rebel Suh, spun over the course to qualify and join the two Seattle boats, the Slo-Mo-Shun IV and Miss Thirftway, and the Tempo VII, New York Guy Lombardo's entry, which did so Wednesday.

Lee Schoenith, son of owner Joe Schoenith, piloting the Gale V, turned in the respectable average time of 112.782 m.p.h. Lt. Col. Ross Schleeh, of Norfolk, brought the Rebel Suh home with a 106.187 miles average and Bud Saile Jr., Detroit owner and pilot, was timed in the Miss Cadillac at a 96.222 pace.

Under Fire!

Little League Activities Hit by Iowa Medic Body

DES MOINES (AP)—The "Little League system," of baseball for small boys, is the object of editorial criticism in the August issue of the Journal of the Iowa State Medical Society.

* * *

1. It makes demands for which boys 8 to 12 are not equipped.
2. It is of dubious value as a means of preventing juvenile delinquency.

* * *

The editorial notes that about 350 years ago "the aristocrats of London" became tired of such customary amusements as bear-bating and cock-fighting and "hit upon the novel idea" of child actors whose ineptness proved highly entertaining.

* * *

"The Little League system, in which 8-12 year olds are being introduced to chapionship-competition baseball, is little more than a repetition of what happened in the first Queen Elizabeth's time."

GMC, Old Timers in Sunday Tilts

Coach Club Ends MSBL Against Grand Rapids; Pontiac vs. Toledo

Pontiac's Old Timers and Generql Motors will provide area baseball fans with three games Sunday afternoon on two city diamonds.

Old Timers clash with Toledo in an International Old Timers League contest at Wisner Field at 2 p.m. Pontiac "oldsters" are still looking for their 2nd win of the summer. They have lost their last five starts, including one to Toledo, after whipping London of Ontario in the season-opener.

GMC will wind up its Michigan State Baseball League season with a double-header against Grand Rapids on the south field at Columbia-Joslyn. First game starts at 1:30 p.m. Twin bill was originally scheduled June 12, but rain forced its delay. Coachers are mired in the loop cellar with a 4-14 mark while Grand Rapids occupies 4th place in the six-team circuit.

Manager Paul Parks requests all General Motors players to meet at South Boulevard and Opdyke tonight and Saturday at 5 p.m. Meetings pertain to the Class A City baseball League playoffs beginning Monday.

Gidcomb Pitches One-Hit Shutout as Lions Win

A 5th inning single with two out was the lone hit garnered off Gidcomb's offerings. The Lions' pitcher struck out 10 batters. Ray Conley was nicked for four hits in a losing effort. Victory kept the Lions in 1st place in the hectic Waterford League pennant chase.

Washington 9 Bids for Printers' Title

DETROIT (AP) — Unbeaten Washington, bidding for its third straight title, meets New York today in the semifinals of the Union Printers National Baseball Tournament.

'Giant Killer' Youth in Front

Sommer pulled the upset of the tournament yesterday, a 4 and 3 victory in the third round over 16-year-old Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md. Beman was the youngest qualifier in the National Open this year.

Allen Gaibergr of Santa Barbara, Calif., pro-tournamnt favorite, as 1954 runner-up, was matched with Les Raymond of Toledo. Gaiberger had a 20-hole squeak past Robert Robinson of Meridan, Miss., in the second round but came thruogh the third round with a 5 and 3 decision over Eugene Francis of Sea Cliff, N.Y.

Joe Grace DDGA Medalist

By H. GUY MOATS

There was the 2-under par medal round fired by 19-year-old Joe Grace of Notre Dame University, playing out of Detroit Golf Club.

Then there was the human interest angle that involved Steve Purdo of Meadowbrook CC, one of the district's active tourney shooters.

Only a few besides Grace cracked the course par of 72. Grace fired a neat 70. Back of him were veteran Dick Whiting of Red Run and Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile, with 1-under 71s.

There was a playoff for the last 8 places, with 10 players involved after tying at 77. Sam Kocsis, this year's National Publinx champion was one of the survivors.

Back to Steve Purdo.

Steve was just leaving the 16th tee when Caddymaster Pat Brazil got a phone call. Pat hustled to the tee, called out, "Say, Mr. Purdo, your wife has just had a baby." Purdo continued the round, parring out for a 74 to qualify, then hurrying home. The baby was the Purdo's 3rd daughter.

Now about Don Dykstra.

Dykstra's 2nd hit the big trap guarding the front of the green before he got out he had piled up 5 strokes, and wound up with a big fat 10. But he came back to hit a very sharp 76 for the round.

Bob Babbish, Red Run ace, so many times the DDGA champion that they call the event "Babbish Own", took a whirl at the course although he did not have to qualify. Babbish is the defending champion. He fired a good 74.

Par out	453	444	345	—36
Grace out	453	344	344	—34
Par in	445	354	344	—36—72

Among the top qualifiers were William Artman of Twin Beach, Frank Connolly of Gowanie, and Harold Brinke of Blythefield, Grand Rapids, all with par 72s.

Grace met veteran Wally Smith of Royal Oak, Johnson drew Ralph Ellstrom of Dearborn and Whiting was matched with Tom McMahon in featured matches today.

Pete Mihay hurled a 5-hit shutout to lead the Knights of Columbus to a 5-0 victory over Ashland Flying Octane in a men's American League softball game Thursday night at Beaudette Park.

K. of C. nine wrapped up the contest with four runs in the 2nd inning on a pair of safeties by Ciro Bellisario and Paul Harworth plus a walk and an error. Bellisario's triple and a fielder's choice tallied the final run in the 4th.

Ashland threatened to score in only two innings, the 4th and 7th. Mihay did not walk a man and struck out five of the opposition.

Wolverine Hardware of Southfield whitewashed Riteway Softwater, 11-0, in an exhibition contest at Beaudette. Bossory tossed a 3-hitter at the Riteway nine while his mates were collecting 11 hits in their assault on two pitchers, Cal Atwood and Roger Reynolds. Bossory walked one and fanned three.

Avondale's girls scored a run in the bottom of the 7th to edge Gingellville, 6-5, at North Side. The losers had tallied three in their half of the 7th to knot the count before two errors and Laura Mead's single ended the scrap. Win enabled Avondale to remain in 2nd place in the girls' league standings.

Shaw's Jewelers downed GMC, 3-1, in the girls' nightcap at North Side. Jackie Thrasher pitched 3-hit ball to gain the verdict over GMC's Claudia Wasik, who also allowed only three safeties. All the scoring was in the 4th inning.

Hopman firmly says "no" but his words hardly ring true today with his action in benching the blond Sydney ace for the second straight week in Davis Cup competition.

As in the American Zone final against Canada last week, Rex Hartwig, regarded as the No. 3 member of the team, was named for one of the singles assignments against the Japanese in the inter-zone matches starting here today.

Hartwig was sent against Kosei Kamo, 23-year-old Japanese exporter, in the second match of the day. In the first, starting at 1:30 p.m. (EST), Ken Rosewall, the Australian champion, was pitted with Atsushi Miyaga, who holds the national title in his country.

Hoad, however, was nominated by Hopman to team with Hartwig in Saturday's doubles against Kamo and Miyaga. If the Aussies clinch by then, as expected, Hoad may substitute in Sunday's meaningless final singles.

* * *

Most tennis observers saw significance in the second straight slight given to Hoad, the powerful hitter who has been the team's leading star the last two years.

Hopman insisted, nevertheless, that his action in this case did not mean that Hoad would not face the Italians in the inter-zone finals at Germantown, Pa., next week or the Americans Aug. 26-28.

Hazel Park Opens 53-Day Meeting

Racing returns to the Detroit area today with the opening of a 53-day meeting at Hazel Park, a five-eighths mile track in Detroit's northern suburbs.

The current heat wave is expected to hold opening day attendance down to around 12,000.

The feature race will be the $5,000 Premiere Handicap, a six-furlong event with a field of 11 including Tom Devereaux's Greatest, winner of the $50,000 Michigan Mile at the Detroit Race Course last month.

Chicago Cubs' Ernie Banks May Take Place Among Great Hitting Shortstops

Wagner, generally conceded the best all-around shortstop in baseball history, during the early 1900s led the National League in batting eight times and over 21 years had a batting average of .329.

* * *

Of course there's no comparing the two, since Banks is only a sophomore in the major league ranks, but it appears hard to find a shortstop who can stand up to Banks' early feats at the plate.

The nearest is Vern Stephens, and Banks with 36 homers so far seems a sure bet to pass Stephens' major league season record for shortstops of 39.

* * *

Banks drilled three homers out of Wrigley Field against Pittsburgh yesterday to drive in seven runs and lead the Cubs to an 11-10 victory.

This brought his total RBIs for the year to 87, surpassing the record of 85 for Cub shortstops made in 1950 by Roy Smalley, now with the Phillies.

Banks, a right-handed batter, already has broken the National League record for home runs by a shortstop in one season. On July 8 he hit his 23rd, passing the high of 22 set by Glenn Wright of Brooklyn in 1930.

* * *

Yesterday's homers also made it five for the five game series with the Pirates and tied him with Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the major league home run leadership.

In his first full season with the Cubs last year, Banks hit 19 home runs, had 79 RBIs and a .275 batting average.

When the boyish-looking Negro hit a bases-loaded homer last Tuesday it was his fourth grand slam this year, enabling him to share with 10 other players the record for grand slams in one season.

Concensus of Writers Gives Nod to Swaps in 'Match Race of the Century' Against Nashua

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It will be Swaps over Nashua in their great match race of the century at Washington Park, Chicago, Aug. 31, a nationwide poll of sports writers and sportscasters showed today.

With 319 ballots from every state in the union, Rex C. Ellsworth's California star received 184 votes, while Nashua, eastern hope of William Woodward Jr.'s Belair Stud, got 135.

* * *

The match race, for $100,000 winner-take-all, over the mile and one quarter route, is acclaimed as one of the great naturals in sports. There has been a terrific clamor for a return duel between the two speedy 3-year-old colts since Swaps beat the favored Nashua in the Kentucky Derby May 7 by a length and a half. Swaps then ret ed West, while Nashua mopped up in the Preakness, Belmont and other eastern classics.

* * *

Swaps is now in Chicago, under the watchful eye of Trainer Meshach Tenney, preparing for the $100,000-added American Derby on the grass course at Washington Park. Nashua is in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where Trainer Sunny Fitzsimmons will put the Belair bullet back in serious training next week. Nashua won't go in the American Derby, but awaits the match race.

Of all the voters in the poll, one foresaw a dead heat between the two. This was the prediction of Dick Huston of the Lincoln (Ill) Evening Courier.

* * *

Jim Purser of WMIX, Mount Vernon, Ill., declared the race "will not be run," while G. H. Scherwitz of the San Antonio (Tex) Light picked Swaps, but offered to bet "they never get to the post."

* * *

As expected, the Californians are sticking to Swaps just like they did when he scampered down the Churchill Downs stretch and turned back the late bid of the New York-owned colt in the derby.

Micelli's Southpaw Wins Against Aragon

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Joe Miceli, 149½, New York City, left-handed his way to a one-sided victory over Art Aragon, 149, Los Angeles, in the 10-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium Thursday night.

Despite his record, which is thickly studded with impressive names, Miceli entered the ring a 2-1 underdog. He won like a 10-1 favorite.

THURSDAY'S HOME RUNS

Mrs. Loopey Winner

Silver Lake Golf Club's weekly tourney for women resulted in top spot going to Mrs. Gene Looney. Bea Mallory had a 36 low net and Donna Richards had best ball on the blind hole, No. 3.

Arrangements have been made to hold the annual husbands' party Aug. 28, with golf followed by dinner at Old Mill Tavern.

Elizabeth Lake Yields 22-Inch Rainbow Trout

Only fish he landed Wednesday night while fishing in Elizabeth Lake was a 22-inch, 3½-pound rainbow trout, Joseph L. Osha reports. Osha, who lives at 996 Charest road, Elizabeth Lake, caught the fine trout, while trolling in 80 feet of water with a flatfish and a cowbell.

Tribe Trails White Sox 2 Points in Title Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The surging Cleveland Indians, battling to retain their American League title, today were only two percentage points back of the pace setting Chicago White Sox today after attaining their highest rating since they held the lead on May 20.

The New York Yankees seeking their sixth pennant in seven years, are only a game out of first place, but since July 4 they have been marching steadily backward while the other contenders have been advancing in near-perfect unison.

* * *

On the morning of July 4, a little more than a month ago, the Yanks had a 6½-game lead. Today, in third place, they not only are looking up to the White Sox and Indians but have only a one-game bulge over the fourth place Boston Red Sox and 5½ over the fifth place Detroit Tigers.

* * *

Cleveland's 6-3 victory over the Yankees yesterday left the New Yorkers with a sickly 11-18 record since Independence Day. The Red Sox, who started the Yanks' slide with a doubleheader victory on July 4, have a 20-9 record since then after a 7-3 romp over the White Sox. Jackie Jensen, discarded by the Yankees in 1952, drove in four runs with a triple, single and sacrifice fly.

* * *

Despite the loss, Chicago has a 20-12 record since July 4, while Cleveland is 20-11 and Detroit 21-13 even though they goofed yesterday by dropping a 9-6 verdict to Washington.

Adding to Stengel's cup of woe, ex-Yankee Ed Lopat whipped Kansas City 8-1 yesterday in his first start since leaving New York.

Most of the noise in the National League came from the booming bat of Chicago shortstop Ernie Banks, who walloped three home runs in the Cubs' 11-10 victory over Pittsburgh.

* * *

Catcher Roy Campanella relieved Snider of the home run hitting burden as he walloped a ninth-inning three-run homer that brought the Brooks an 11-10 victory over Milwaukee and a lead of 15½ games over the Braves, their biggest margin of the season.

Relief pitcher Joe Nuxhall of the Cincinnati Redlegs started a double play with the bases loaded to preserve a 4-3 victory over Philadelphia and Tom Poholsky of St. Louis stopped New York on only four hits for a 3-0 victory.

* * *

Vic Wertz put over the crusher for Cleveland with a three-run homer, while Al Rosen blasted four hits in as many times at bat. Mickey Mantle of the Yanks took the league lead with his 24th home run in the ninth but the slugger, who had struck out twice previously, was booed as he trotted around the bases.

Jimmy Piersall, the third man in Boston's outfield with Jensen and Ted Williams, contributed a home run, double and single, while Norm Zauchin also had a homer. Ancient Ellis Kinder, making his 30th relief appearance of the season, retired the final five batters on 13 pitches.

* * *

Eight home runs were hit in the Chicago-Pittsburgh game, which had 30 hits. Eight pitchers toiled in that game. Banks won it with his last homer, which came off Dick Littlefield with a man on base in the last half of the eighth.

Nuxhall's pitching and fielding gave the Redlegs their eighth victory in nine games. Wally Post chipped in his 26th homer and later scored the winning run on Bob Thurman's single.

MICKEY KNOWS — Mickey Mantle, right, poses at Yankee Stadium with 19-year-old Bobby Richardson, second baseman bought by the Yanks from Denver of the American Association in a deal that saw shortstop Billy Hunter optioned to Denver. Mantle was just a kid himself when he hit the big time of baseball. Richardson has been batting .302 for Denver.

Yanks Face Chance of Loss of Series

NEW YORK, (AP)—For the first time since Casey Stengel took over as manager in 1949, the New York Yankees are faced with the possibility of losing a season's series.

The Indians lead the Yanks 10-7 with three games remaining to be played in Cleveland two in New York. With the White Sox they stand 9-9 with two remaining at Yankee Stadium and two in Chicago.

They lead the Boston Red Sox 6-4 with 12 games to be played and with Detroit they have split 14 games.

Sugar, 3 Aides Put Under Ban

Must Pay for Bout Canceled March 5 at Boston Garden

BOSTON, (AP)—The Massachusetts Boxing Commission has suspended Sugar Ray Robinson and three of his managers until they reimburse the Callahan AC for expense money in a March 5 canceled bout, scheduled for Boston Garden.

The commission took action Thursday. The expenses totaled $2,500 when Robinson made a last-minute withdrawal from a match with Georgie Small of Brooklyn. The managers include George Gainford, Ernie Bracca and Vic Maarsala.

Though Robinson said he was ill when he canceled, the commission doctor said he found no evidence of sickness or injury.

THURSDAY'S STARS

BATTING — Ernie Banks, Cubs, walloped three home runs and a single, batting in seven runs in Cubs' 11-10 victory over Pittsburgh.

Three Tied for Tam's Lead

CHICAGO (AP)—The weather may switch on Tam O'Shanter's sun-scorched acres today, but lower temperatures or not, a wide-open second-round scrap looms in the $25,000 All-American Golf tourney.

The weather prediction is for a little cooler weather. A prediction on who will break the three-way tie for first between Wally Ulrich, Arnold Palmer and Ted Kroll was much harder to get.

They were deadlocked at 68, four under par. Only a stroke behind were seven players, including 1955 PGA champion Doug Ford. Other 69 openers were Al Mengert, Tom Talkington, Jay Hebert, Bo Winniger, George Bolesta and Walker Inman Jr.

* * *

Two strokes off the pace in the chase for the $3,420 first prize were eight players knotted at 70. In all 43 players betered or matched Tam's 6,915-yard par 72.

Withering 96-degree temperature browned the fairways and made the greens bumpy yesterday. Yet, the pace was fast, not only in the men's pro division, but also in the concurrent men's amateur and women's pro and amateur competition.

* * *

Actually, the All-American battling is merely a warmup for the $100,000 "World" tournament—with a $50,000 cash first prize—coming up here next weekend.

That may explain why defending All-American champion Jerry Barber eased off to an opening 71; why Slammin' Sammy Snead took a 72; why 1954 "World" winner, Bob Toski, placed at 73, and why the 1955 U.S. Open champ, Jack Fleck, produced an anemic 77.

* * *

Fleck's wobbly start may even bounce him out of the All-American after today's second round. Only the top 76 scorers, plus ties, will be eligible for the final 36 holes Saturday and Sunday.

Among nine players notched at 71, three strokes off the pace, were such name shooters as Peter Thomson of Australia, British Open champ; Robert de Vicenzo, the Argentine now registered from Mexico City, and flamboyant Jimmy Demaret.

Pennsylvania's Governor Retains Ban on Pro Fights

HARRISBURG, Pa., (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader Thursday announced he would continue his 90-day ban on professional boxing in Pennsylvania until a new athletic code has been written into law.

The governor's action could extend the ban, originally scheduled to end Monday, until Aug. 29.

The measure has been approved by the House and is expected to be approved by the state Senate late tonight.

* * *

The ban grew out of the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos fight of May 6 in Philadelphia. The state athletic commission said Johnson, who was unable to answer the bell for the third round, had been drugged prior to the fight.

Leader ordered the ban several days after the fight and directed the state athletic commission to investigate the bout and draw up a new boxing code.

Major Leagues Lack Heckler Like This One

HOBBS, N. M. (AP)—This southeastern New Mexico oil community claims utter superiority in the field of baseball heckling.

Thurman Tucker, manager of the Carlsbad Potashers in the Class C Longhorn League, says there is no better rider than Hobbs in the major leagues.

3-Way Battle for Army Golf Title

FT. MEADE, Md., (AP)—Three, possibly four, servicemen appeared in position to capture the open division championship of the All-Army Golf Tournament today as the final 18 holes began.

Pfc. Dick Goerlich, 4th Army representative from Beaumont, Texas, and Spec. 3.C. W. J. Williamson, a 3rd Army golfer from Charlotte, N.C., were tied for the lead with scores of 215.

Pfc. Dan Sikes of Jacksonville, Fla., representing 2nd Army, had a 217 total and Sgt. 1-C Murray Jacobs of Baton Rouge, La., 2nd Army golfer, had 219.

Boston Whips Chicago, 7 to 3, to Stun League

White Sox Percentage Lead Cut to 2 Points as Bosox Pull Up

BOSTON (AP)—The insaitable Boston Red Sox have the American League agog and first place Chicago groggy after pulling to within two games of the top.

Boston's well-balanced unit, which has proved it can belt the opposition from any direction, whipped the White Sox 7-3 yesterday in the rubber game of their three-game set and cut Chicago's AL lead to two percentage points.

* * *

Boston's 42nd victory in its last 56 games put it closer to first place than at any time since the first two weeks of the season.

"Beating the Indians two out of three, the Tigers three out of four and the White Sox two out of three is just the proper pace for this stage of the race," commented Boston Pilot Mike Higgins after yesterday's conquest."

* * *

The Red Sox want to beat the best there is and yesterday the incentive was terrific to pin a defeat on Chicago's All-Star pitcher, lefty Billy Pierce.

In three innings Boston had three earned runs against a guy who had yielded only one earned run in his previous 35 2-3 frames.

Jackie Jensen, his right arm heavily bandaged from a slide last week, drove in four runs with a triple, a single and a sacrifice fly. His two-run double had beaten Chicago the preceding day, 6-4.

Filly Stakes Finale for Grand Circuit

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—The Grand Circuit winds up a 5-day stand at Good Time Park today with 3-year-old filly trotters and pacers clashing in the two divisions of the Breeders Filly Stake.

The equine Misses, who were not considered good enough for last Wednesday's Hambletonian or Geers Stake, will have to step to keep up with the fast times turned in the first four days by other Grand Circuit performers.

Set Aug. 13 as Qualifying Day for Medal Test

City Men's Tourney Fixes New Rule for Medalist Award

Pontiac area's top amateur golfing contenders are expected to line up for the 1955 City Medal Play Championships, Aug. 20-21 at the 18-hole Municipal Course.

Qualifying rounds will be played Aug. 13, over an 18-hole distance. Top 20 and ties will join past champions and last year's five top players who are exempt from the preliminary test, in the title race.

Parks & Recreation Department, directing the championships, has announced a change in rules concerning award of honors for low scorer in the qualifying test.

"We have felt that in the past permitting former champions and the top 5 from the previous to play for the medal, has kept many others out. So, this year, none of the top players, as mentioned, will take part in the qualifying. They qualify automatically."

It is expected that last year's champion, Paul Bada, and runner-up Joe Gaines will be back. Gaines was medalist, Bada runner-up in qualifying. But Paul won the title after losing to Gaines in the medal playoff. They tied at 71. Last year's field had 56 players.

Tedd Kluszewski, Cincinnati's tree-sized first baseman, fielded the ball and raced to the bag. Little Amoros was clearly out by a half step.

Archie Changes Diet

NEW YORK—Archie Moore is a vegetarian when not training, but with Rocky Marciano on tap, he is eating steak.

Balanced
Everything it takes to be "TOPS"
STANDARD GASOLINES
...balanced for top power, economy, and all 'round performance ... and raised to the Highest Octane levels in our history
Most modern high compression automobile engines call for increased octane to assure smooth, efficient, knock-free operation . . . and that's what they get with STANDARD WHITE CROWN and RED CROWN Gasolines, raised to the highest octane ratings in our sixty-six year history. But octane alone is not the whole answer. Good gasolines must be carefully balanced too—to take care of all the requirements of your car's engine, regardless of age or type. Standard Gasolines are balanced to give you controlled volatility—the right gasoline for the right season with no vapor lock even in the hottest weather; and to give you all 'round smooth, efficient, economical performance.
Fill up and find out what a difference these fine gasolines can make. Stop at Standard today!
Are all gasolines pretty much the same?
NO, THEY'RE NOT. Standard's research brings you the best in gasolines. And we guard their quality from refinery to your car through exclusive terminals, lake tankers, river barges, pipelines, tank cars and trucks. No gasolines arrive at or go out of our terminals but Standard Gasolines. That's why they are distinctly different!

Al Lopez Aims at 98 Victories in Pennant Race

Admits Indians May Still Come Out on Top With Only 95

NEW YORK (AP)—Al Lopez, with his Indians closer to first place than anytime since May 20 when they occupied the top spot in the American League, will be satisfied if the Tribe wins 98 games. He thinks that will keep the pennant in Cleveland.

"And if you really press me I will admit there's more than a fair chance we can do it with 95," said the Cleveland manager after taking a 6-3 decision from the New York Yankees and moving within two percentage points of the front-running Chicago White Sox.

* * *

To reach 98 victories, 13 under their league record of 111 hung up in winning the 1954 flag, the Indians would need take 34 of their remaining 48 games. That's a .708 pace, considerably faster than the .645 gait they've been travelling since July 4.

The White Sox, who have a .625 average since Independence Day, would have to win 35 of their remaining 50 to hit 98 triumphs on the head. The Yanks would need 35 wins and the Red Sox 36 in their remaining 48 to reach the figure Lopez thinks will win the pennant.

One thing that made Lopez a little more confident today after beating the Yanks two out of three and heading for Washington where Sal Maglie will get his first chance in a Cleveland uniform, is the hitting of Al Rosen.

* * *

Before yesterday's game Lopez admitted he didn't know why such players as Rosen, Larry Doby and Bobby Avila are not hitting.

"Pretty dreadful," he said. "But I admit I don't know the answer.

Merchants, Jets Battle to Draw in 'A' Baseball

Darkness Halts Game After Seven Stanzas; Merchants Blow Lead

Auburn Merchants blew a six-run advantage Thursday night at Wisner Field and were forced to settle for a 6-6 tie with the L. C. Anderson Jets in a Class A City after seven innings because of darkness.

Merchants held a seemingly comfortable 6-0 lead entering the bottom of the 5th stanza. But the Jets jumped on starter Hud Johnson for four hits, all singles, to score five runs; then combined Judge Booker's single and a triple by Fletcher Davis to deadlock the count in the 6th frame off reliefer Rod Beckett.

Jim Williams hurled the distance for the Jets and yielded two runs in each of the 1st, 4th, and 5th innings on a total of eight hits, two less than the Jets garnered. Williams struck out eight opponents and walked three.

A walk, Arky James' single and a two-base error sent two runners home for the Merchants in the 1st inning. Three singles and a base on balls tallied another pair in the 4th, and a brace of singles and fielder's choice scored two more in the 5th. Then came the Jets' uprising before darkness intervened.

Tigers Faces Yanks, Stumble Against Nats

NEW YORK (AP)—Contenders or pretenders — the next three days may tell for the Detroit Tigers.

They move into Yankee Stadium tonight for the start of a big four-game series with Casey Stengel's Yankees, who are still seething over losing three straight to the Tigers in Briggs Stadium last month.

Few observers consider the Tigers genuine pennant threats but another such sweep over the Yankees — although seemingly impossible — would give a tremendous boost to Detroit's stock.

The Yankees have been stumbling all over the American League since the All-Star break. They've blown a five-game lead on 1st place, and currently are listed in the 3rd spot.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Tigers, who'd rather beat the Yanks than any other club, will open the four-game set with young Jim Bunning, who has compiled a 1-2 record since being recalled from Buffalo.

Stengel, who is desperately trying to bring the flag back to New York, will counter with Don Larsen, the pitcher who was optioned out at the start of the season, but recently brought up from Denver when things started getting rough. Larsen is 2-1.

The two teams play a single game Saturday and wind up with a doubleheader Sunday. After that, the Tigers will head back West again for a series against Cleveland and return to Briggs Stadium Friday night against Chicago.

As a matter of fact, in the next few weeks the Tigers will play more than 20 consecutive games against 1st division teams.

With a chance to gain ground yesterday, Tigers themselves stumbled and dropped a 9-6 decision to the lowly Washington Senators.

It was a tough one for Detroit to lose, the Tigers having tied the score 6-6 with a three-run burst in the 8th. But the Senators snapped right back and scored three times in their half of the 8th, pelting relief pitcher Joe Coleman for four hits in the inning.

Washington won the game on a walk and singles by Jose Valdivielso, Pete Runnels, Clint Courtney and Roy Sievers. The Senators, in all, collected 15 hits off four Detroit pitchers.

Ned Garver opened for the Tigers, but he wasn't very good. The Senators stoned him for four runs in the 2nd, and Harris used a pinchhitter for Garver in the 3rd.

Tigers finally caught up in the 8th inning on a two-run triple by Ray Boone and a sacrifice fly, but lost out only moments later.

Rain Stops Plans for Writer's 'Birdseye' Look-See at Mackinaw Straits Bridge

By JACK PATTERSON

MACKINAW CITY—It is often said that a day begins badly ends well. This one ought to end real good. We can hardly wait. Rain was the problem. The rain that everyone hereabouts has been looking forward to so eagerly didn't strike us as being necessary at all. One reason was that we neglected to put the car top up for the night and this morning we had, for awhile, what was probably the only self-propelled bath tub in northern Michigan.

PATTERSON

The other reason was that the rain interferred with the use of a light float plane which we had planned to employ as a vantage point from which to make a photographic comment on progress on the Straits bridge. The round the clock construction, incidentally, is a sidewalk superintendent's delight, particularly if the s. s. is equipped with some 7x optical aids. Maybe we can get airborne yet.

Heard local fishing was only so-so and decided there might be two ways to find out. Ask the fishermen and try it. So, first of all, we sought out a rookery of Birmingham people near Harbor Springs who have been known at one time or another to be fishermen of consequence.

Ran into Otis and Isabel Thompson and son "Dunc," the Lou Dibbles, the Bob Buick's and their three boys, Jack and Barb McBride, Ron and Beth Jenkins and their two lads and brother Dick Patterson and family.

No need for individual opinion on the fishing. Poor was the word. Oh, the younger Pattersons and Buicks caught some pan fish in nearby Lark's Lake but nothing frightening in size.

Even doughty bass fishermen Jack and Billie Sanders drew a blank when it came to Lake Michigan smallmouths. Didn't hear of any record catches by the Charlie Dean family, either.

Asking the fishermen didn't bring up any promising material so figured we'd better give it a go at Waugoshance Point. A local conservation officer volunteered the information that the fishing was splendid, though the fish get smaller every year.

Maybe that's the trouble. They got so small we couldn't see 'em. Likewise with other fishermen we talked to. The story is the same out at the islands. Some fish but they come hard. And in this heat anything that is hard ain't worth doing.

* * * *

Saw a good one leaving the point. A car, for no apparent reason had missed a bridge and stood on its nose in the creek, no traffic problem. Nothing else on the road. Asked a police officer how a silly thing like that happened. "Woman driver," he replied tersely, as though that explained everything, which, of course, it did.

U.N. Gives Exchange Bill to Communists

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)— The U.N. Command today handed the Communists a $361,428.49 bill, covering part of the cost of bringing troops here from India to oversee the prisoner exchange at the end of the Korean War.

* * *

The Allies said travel costs for the Indians ran to $2,617,057.39, of which the Indian government paid $1,894,200. Both sides have taken steps to repay India that amount, the U.S. said.

Today's bill was for half of the $722,857.39 borne entirely by the United States in behalf of the Allies when the originally agreed amount proved too small.

The U.N. Command asked American dollars or "acceptable negotiable instruments."

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (AP) — Reichhold Chemicals, Inc. has announced the opening of a new plant on an eight-acre site in Kansas City, Kan.

Grains Dip Low on Trade Board

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grains headed lower in fairly active dealings on the board of trade today. Wheat again was under considerable pressure, selling at the lowest prices of the week.

Soybeans acted better than anything else. While mostly lower at the start, they quickly reversed their trend. The September future, primarily an old crop month, led this upturn. New crop months followed.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅛ to ⅝ lower; September $1.96¾; corn ¼ to 1⅛ lower, September $1.36¼; oats ⅛ to ¼ lower, September 60½; rye unchanged to ¾ higher, September $1.01; soybeans ¼ to ¾ higher, September $2.29¼, and lard 8 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $10.55.

Mixed Market Turns Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market recovered from a mixed start today and moved higher in early dealings.

The turn ahead carried prices up between 1 and 3 points while losses were small.

Strength in the market was lodged largely in individual stocks rather than in groups. Aircrafts, a strong point in yesterday's weak market, were active and higher today.

Du Pont, off 6 points yesterday, regained nearly half that amount today in early trading. Standard Oil (NJ), also down 6 points yesterday, was able to regain around a point today.

Chrysler, off sharply yesterday and down abruptly today at the opening on disappointing dividend news, steadied itself quickly and began to climb up from its low.

Yesterday's market dropped sharply, but in an orderly manner, after the federal reserve and commercial banks tightened up on credit by raising interest rates. It was a slap at inflation.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held by the Pontiac City Commission in the Commission Chamber, City Hall, 35 S. Parke Street on Tuesday, August 30, 1955 at 8 o'clock p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the proposed vacating of portions of Vernon Drive, Crescent Drive, Court Drive and Pontiac Drive in Assessor's Plat 13, in accordance with resolution adopted by the City Commission July 26, 1955 as follows:

"By Comm. Dugan, supported by Comm. Lutz, Whereas, the City Engineer and Secretary of the City Plan Commission have recommended the vacating of the following described streets,

Therefore be it resolved, that a public notice be given in accordance with Section 2, Chapter XIII of the City Charter of the proposed vacating of portions of Vernon Drive, Crescent Drive, Court Drive and Pontiac Drive, more particularly described as:

1—Vernon Drive from Crescent Drive to Victory Drive

2—Crescent Drive from Court Drive to West line Assessor's Plat 13

3—Court Drive from Delco Drive to Pontiac Drive

4—Pontiac Drive from West line Court Drive to Victory Drive

Be it further resolved, that a public hearing be held on the proposed vacating of the above mentioned portions of streets on Tuesday, August 30, 1955, and

Be it further resolved, that final action on the vacating of the aforementioned streets be withheld until the streets in the proposed plat of "Pontiac Knolls Subdivision" have been deeded to the City of Pontiac, with a stipulation that all streets on the plat of Pontiac Knolls Subdivision will be dedicated with the plat."

By order of the City Commission
Dated: August 1, 1955.

ORDINANCE NO. 1289
Adopted August 2, 1955
Effective August 12, 1955

An Ordinance to Add Section 8A and to Amend Section 13 of Ordinance No. 1119 Entitled "An Ordinance to License and Regulate Hacking and Peddling in the City of Pontiac and to Prohibit the Peddling of Certain Food Products."

The City of Pontiac Ordains:

Section 1.

That Section 8A be added to Ordinance No. 1119, said added and amended Section to read as follows:

Section 8A. It shall be unlawful for any person peddling wrapped frozen ice cream bars, frozen ices known as popsicles or other forms of ice cream products from vehicles to make sales to minors under the age of sixteen (16) years unless such person so peddling and vending is accompanied by an assistant eighteen (18) years of age or over whose principal duty shall be the protection of small children from traffic hazards who are attracted to such vehicle.

Section 2.

That Section 13 of Ordinance No. 1119 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 13. It shall be unlawful for any licensee to vend or peddle any merchandise in the City of Pontiac when such licensee has attached to his vehicle from which the peddling is carried on, any bell, chime or other noise making device for the purpose of attracting persons to buy the merchandise said licensee has for sale provided that this prohibition shall not be construed to exclude the customary horn required under the Motor Vehicle Law of the State of Michigan. It shall be unlawful for any licensee to call out or make any noise of any kind whatsoever, or to use a bell, horn or other noise making device with a view of attracting persons to buy the goods said licensee has for sale.

Atomic Age Dirigible Air Travel Predicted

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Max Pruss, skipper of the ill-fated zeppelin Hindenburg, predicts giant dirigibles will one day return to the Atlantic air lanes with with atomic engines as their power plants.

"The atomic age," he said in an interview with an Overseas weekly reporter, "will soon bring back transatlantic zeppelin air travel.

"The dirigible will be the first craft to use the atomic engine in the air because it is the only structure capable of carrying the weight."

Scores Writers on 'Cleverness'

'Trilby and the Blonde' Miscast, Misguided and Misused, Critic Says

By JACK O'BRIAN

"Tribly & the Blonde" Saturday evening on NBC was pretty awful, for an awful lot of unpretty reasons. The George du Maurier original was used as a punching bag for some shallow, modern, hip purposes.

* * *

In apologizing for the savage slugging du Maurier received, even Ethel Barrymore as narrator was exposed to the general mayhem inflicted by Charles Gayner (who provided vaguely functional music & lyrics) and Alan Handley, who received credit for the flogging. In warning of the approaching upending of the original play, Miss Barrymore was given such classical clatter to mutter as: "I think you will dig it nonetheless." The major trouble was that the authors did not quite dig even what they were attempting.

The creaky old melodrama itself undoubtedly couldn't have stood on its own antique legs, so instead of bolstering the senile plot and lines, our literary interlopers simply heaped heavier burdens on the 90-minute vehicle. At its very core was the casting of Carol Channing as "Trilby."

Trilby is a role which shrieks for the wispiest of ethereal ingenues. Miss Channing, a comedienne constructed along heroic lines, looked as if she could stand up to her leading man—Russell Arms—in any athletic contest including wrestling. Unfortunately, therefore, she is about as ethereal as Yogi Berra, if somewhat prettier.

CLOBBER SVENGALI

We're certain she could have clobbered Svengali himself and brought that skinny, skulking dustcatcher to the mat in straight falls. Miss Channing also was victim of her character in the play, which had her acting with elaborate archness and sounding her sibilants with all the young-lady-like lisps at her command.

Miss Channing has been a proficient comedienne in several Broadway shows, but no one ever has accused the lass of being Trilby.

The original play's mood, of course, was reversed. Svengali and the blonde were ribbed, kidded, spoofed until there was no suspense; but the ribbing didn't elevate to any consistency of wit or humor.

Russell Arms was fine; or would have been in a production fashioned with some skill and wit. Miss Barrymore's contribution gave her the chance to prove she was a "good sport," meaning cheaply jazzy monologues and gambits in complete contrast to the customary Barrymoresque acting diversions; but here, too, we were reminded of John Barrymore when he lowered his standards and taste to appear in "My Dear Children" during the decline and fall of his personal empire. Miss Channing was savagely done wrong by at the hands of whomever dunked her in such an outrageous opus.

* * *

Subordinate characters had the same phony jollity as secondary jokers in ancient Shubert operettas. Basil Rathbone as Svengali was a low comedy travesty of a villian.

The final fillip was even borrowed from the Ethel Barrymore legend, with the Grande Dame announcing: "That's all there is, there isn't any more." It sounded abjectly apologetic.

Soviet 'Pioneers' Lack Necessities

MOSCOW (AP)—Many of the thousands of pioneers the Soviet government has sent to farm in Central Asia and Siberia are not getting enough shelter and living conveniences. This is reported in Trud, organ of the Soviet Trade Unions Council.

These people have been packed off to the far reaches of the Soviet Union to push Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev's drives for more grain, more meat, more butter, more of everything edible.

Apparently many of the "new farmers" have been complaining. There also have been periodic reports in the press of people who have abandoned their jobs on the frontier lands and returned home despite Khrushchev's edict that they should settle down and raise families for the motherland.

Soldier Wants to Vote but Ballot's All Wrong

The elder Clay, who seeks the GOP gubernatorial nomination, said his son became 21 after entering service and wasn't registered by party affiliation.

TV Performers Now on Strike

Basic Dispute Whether Actors Will Get Paid in Films' 2nd Run

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The actors, singers and announcers who work on television's entertainment films went on strike early today.

Officials of the Screen Actors Guild said its members will not work on any filmed shows except those of five producers who have signed new contracts with the guild.

* * *

Under the old contracts between the guild and the Alliance of Television Film Producers and the Association of Motion Picture Producers, actors got residual payments for the third to sixth showing of films.

The actors' group said that the new contract signed by five of the producers provided actors with minimums increased from $70 to $82 for day players and from $250 to $287.50 for weekly free-lance players.

In addition, it provided for payment of 75 per cent of the minimum salary for the second run of a television film, 50 per cent for the third and fourth runs combined, 25 per cent for the fifth run and one final payment of 25 per cent covering the sixth and all subsequent runs.

* * *

Most producers say that they expect to feel few effects of the strike immediately, since most of the big film shows — including Dragnet, Burns and Allen, I Love Lucy and Medic — have most of their films for the season completed.

Alcohol Fumes Down 65

BURBANK, Calif., (AP)—Alcohol fumes accidentally released at an electrical plant yesterday sent at least 65 workers to the hospital. Twenty-six remained in the hospital after treatment but none were considered serious. An official of the Advance Relay and Electric Co. said the fumes escaped when industrial alcohol was being transferred from a large container to several smaller ones.

Experts say the best way to remove a tick which has become embedded in your skin is to put lighter fluid, nail polish remover, chloroform or ether on him.

Why Don't More Yanks Settle in Alaska?

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

FAIRBANKS (INS) — Considering that Americans are lovers of beauty, freedom and bargains, it seems incredible that more people are not snapping up the no-charge, no-strings-attached real estate in Alaska.

* * *

The remarkable fact is that Alaska, which is roughly one-fifth the area of the U.S., has a population of less than 250,000. Which is fewer people than trundle the uncrowded streets of my home town of Dayton, Ohio.

That leaves something like 360-million acres of Alaskan territory just lying there untended, with nobody to water the flowers and herd the potential reindeer steaks.

Anyone with $10 and a sincere desire to build himself a life in Alaska can take up to 160 acres of this spectacular mountain view lawn and call it his.

TAXES SMALL

Under the homesteading provisions of the U.S. government, all he needs is to give up $10 (this is the fee for recording a notice of settlement), and prove he can improve his property and make a living on it. After three years of proving himself, the land-lubber takes complete ownership of the land, and starts to pay taxes on it.

* * *

"I honestly don't know what you crazy city people are waitin' for," muses a homesteader here for two years. "But I'm not complainin' either. Too many cooks, or whatever it is, spoils the broth." And too many wandering newcomers from the States might spoil the carefree, live-and-let-live disposition of Alaska.

On the surface, this homesteading business looks like the greatest bargain since bank night at the "Bijou." However, to get the straight facts, we went to the territory's Bureau of Land Management, and a spokesman clarified the puzzle of why more Americans haven't more enthusiastically taken the territory up on its offer of free squatting.

"Alaska has vast natural resources—minerals, fish, game, water power," he explained, 'but you can't take it for granted you'll be a successful settler simply because these resources exist. You also need a pioneering spirit—and that isn't said poetically, but rather literally."

PROBLEMS LISTED

1) A prospective homesteader needs money aplenty to take care of clearing and preparing his land, constructing necessary roads and buildings and equipment to make it pay off, and feeding himself and family. Costs for food, equipment and labor are higher in Alaska than in the States.

* * *

2) Extreme care is needed in selecting land which might prove productve in cultivation. A "few soil surveys" have been made—but not nearly enough.

And even these are inconclusive. "There is no single indicator of good land" in Alaska, the bureau states.

3) The weather requires flexible good nature. Depending on what section the territory a settler selects, he—and his business—may suffer from 70-below cold up to 100-above heat. In any case, he must face short, agreeable summers and long, often disagreeable winters.

4) It is not a woman's world. Even in the "big cities" of Fairbanks, Anchorage and Juneau, the bridge clubs are rare, the plush hotels are non-existent, the shopping centers dull and costly.

So look the situation over carefully before selecting a free site, warns the bureau. It's the most beautiful land in the world—if you like it. It can be the grimmest—if you love the soft life.

This must be the reason more Americans haven't headed here. Even more than bargains, the American hunts ease, luxury, the push-button life . . . and Alaska hasn't one-square mile's worth of these things to sell. Much less to give away!

Inject Two Names to Succeed Talbott

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two new names were injected today into the speculation over a successor to Harold E. Talbott as secretary of the Air Force.

* * *

The Kansas City Star said in a dispatch from Washington that David S. Ingalls' appointment to the post is expected before President Eisenhower leaves for a Colorado vacation about 10 days hence.

The Rocky Mountain News, published at Denver, said in a copyrighted story that former Colorado Gov. Dan Thornton, 44, can have the position "if he wants it."

* * *

Talbott resigned Monday, effective a week from tomorrow. He said he did so lest the Eisenhower administration be embarrassed by publicity about his outside business interests.

Driver Faces 6 Counts

Arrested on six traffic warrants by Pontiac Police Wednesday was Hubert L. Hanserd, 26, of 330 Franklin Rd.

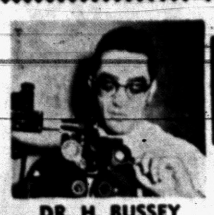

Police charge that Hanserd had no operator's license, was blocking traffic, ran a stop street and was speeding 40 m.p.h. in a 25 m.p.h. zone.
