Disagree on Moore's Sanity

Judge Orders Accused Killer to Stand Trial

Says Jury Must Decide If Defendant Is Insane During Hearing

Howard Wayne Moore, accused sex killer of three-year-old Martha Little in Lake Orion, must stand trial, Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick ruled today.

After a two-day sanity hearing in which one psychiatrist said Moore was insane and two others said he was not, Hartrick ruled the question of sanity must be determined by the jury.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem tentatively set trial for Oct. 12.

Dr. L. Jerome Fink, Pontiac psychiatrist, testified yesterday he believes Moore has no real remorse for the crime and has been insane for the past 5 to 10 years.

But Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, and Dr. Philip N. Brown, superintendent of Northville Sanitarium, testified today they examined Moore and found him sane.

Moore, 23, was arrested shortly after Martha, his Lake Orion neighbor's child, disappeared July 27. Her body, bludgeoned to death and sexually assaulted, was found the next day in a field near Clarkston.

Moore confessed when the body was found, but has since said he doesn't remember what happened between the time he left his house and his arrest about two hours later.

Testifying yesterday, Fink recommended "a battery" of clinical tests for Moore, but said he wouldn't change his diagnosis if the tests indicated Moore was sane.

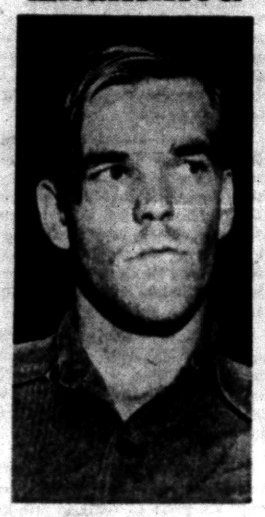

During interviews Moore was "sullen and uncooperative," Fink said. He seemed "bored," and at one point said he was "tired of answering all these questions."

LaCore said today he had found Moore cooperative and helpful during the first interview alone with him Aug. 31, but that Moore's attitude had changed when the two doctors interviewed him jointly.

Brown agreed with LaCore, but said he had only had one interview alone with Moore Sept. 19.

Dems to Hear Sen. Humphrey

Solon Is Main Speaker at Fund-Raising Dinner for Paul Sutton

Oakland County Democrats tonight will hear Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota Democrat, as principal speaker at a fund-raising dinner for Paul Sutton, County Congressional candidate.

The $10-a-plate dinner starts at 7 p.m. in Waterford Township's Community Activities Building. Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, and George Edwards and Talbot Smith, Democratic candidates for the non-partisan office of Supreme Court Justice, are expected to attend.

Humphrey was a candidate for the vice presidential nomination at the Democratic National convention in Chicago.

First elected to the Senate in 1947, he is a member of the Senate Democratic Steering Committee, and of Senate committees on Agriculture and Forestry, Small Business and Foreign Relations.

He had been elected mayor of Minneapolis in 1945 after serving as federal administrator of the War Training and War Manpower programs.

Decorations for tomororw's dinner will be provided by the Southfield Democratic Women's Group.

The Minnesota senator also is scheduled to be main speaker at tomorrow's Williams Day dinner, in Highland Park.

Users Parley on Suez Canal Runs Into Snag

Diplomats Can't Agree on Words for Challenge to Egypt

LONDON (AP)—The 18-nation Suez conference ended tonight with a hint from Pakistan, a holdout, that it might join the Western-sponsored Cooperative Association of Suez Canal Users, already assured majority backing.

LONDON (AP) — Last-minute snags today delayed final agreement among foreign ministers and envoys of 18 nations considering joint action to challenge Egyptian control of the Suez Canal.

There was no indication of the precise nature of the difficulty except that it involved drafting of tricky political passages in two documents the conference was to issue.

Experts of 17 of the nations agreed on the form and timing of an approach to the United Nations.

They hammered out the accord after the final touches to a plan setting up the "Cooperative Assn. of Suez Canal Users" (CASCU) to protect the rights of the maritime nations in the canal Egypt took over July 26.

Only Pakistan, of the 18 nations in conference here since Wednesday, stayed away from the experts' meeting.

The Pakistani delegation which regards the majority approach as too much like an ultimatum to Egypt, said it could not attend without instructions from Karachi.

However, Japan also came out against the users project as it stands and three other conference nations — Sweden, Denmark and Iran—called instead for an immediate approach to the U. N.

Ethiopia's position remained to be announced.

Indications were that all the rest

Princess Meg- Leaves England for World Tour

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret flew smilingly off today on a five-week official visit by plane and ship to British territories in the Indian Ocean and East Africa.

Queen Mother Elizabeth waved farewell as the giant, four-engine Argonaut lifted her 26-year-old daughter into the overcast sky over London for the trip into the sunny tropics.

Queen Elizabeth II and her family were not on hand. They are vacationing at Balmoral Castle, in Scotland.

The five-week tour is the princess' most important official function since the breakup last October of her romance with Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

The handsome, divorced air ace is himself soon to leave for Africa—by jeep on a round-the-world trip.

Margaret's plane headed first for Britain's Mediterranean rock bastion of Gibraltar. From there the royal route lay through Kano, on the edge of the Sahara, and Entebbe, in Uganda, to Mombasa, the Keya port where the princess tomorrow afternoon will board the royal yacht Britannia, her home for the major part of her trip.

Adlai Pushing H-Bomb Curbs

Dem Candidate Says President Hiding Facts of Global Conditions

WASHINGTON (INS) — Adlai Stevenson has served notice he will continue to argue for curbs on the hydrogen bomb "horror"—despite objections from President Eisenhower.

The Democratic standard bearer charged last night the chief executive "does the nation a disservice" by trying to foreclose debate on "matters of such grave concern."

Stevenson hit back at the President's Wednesday night radio-TV address in a 45-minute talk at nearby Silver Springs, Md.—the longest campaign address yet made by the Democratic nominee.

He argued the President told the American people "only half of the facts" about the state of the world and what he called an "ominous" threat to peace in the Middle East.

Today the former Illinois governor plans to work intensively on a new series of speeches and statements. Aides indicated the principal targets would be Eisenhower's conduct of foreign policy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon's candidacy.

Tomorrow the Democratic nominee takes off for Newton, Iowa—where Eisenhower appears today—in a bid for the nation's farm vote. The Iowa stop for Stevenson is the first on a 9,000-mile flying campaign swing that will take him through 11 states.

Numerical Lead

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Stevensons are leading the Eisenhowers, Kefauvers and Nixons in Louisville — as far as the new city telephone directory is concerned. Just off the press, it lists one Eisenhower, five Kefauvers, 24 Nixons and two columns of Stevensons.

Snow in Summer? — Bet Your Life!

OH NO, NOT YET! — The calendar still says summer, but two members of the Chautauqua County Highway Dept., New York, are coldly viewing their snowy writing on the blade of a plow they'll be using soon. Similar scenes have taken place in Northern Michigan during the last couple of days as unseasonal snow flurries made residents wonder if maybe the world was coming to an end.

Mercury Drops as Snow Covers Sault Ste. Marie

Furnaces Still Burning on Last Summer Day; Frost Kills Crops

Today was the last full day of summer and chilly autumn weather already moved in over most of the eastern half of the nation.

Frosty air extended from the Great Lakes and the lower Mississippi Valley eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

For the second straight night, Michigan shared in 30-degree temperatures recorded over the entire region. In some places, it was below freezing.

The cold wave was bringing a weird Michigan summer to a crazy end.

Kids were throwing snowballs this morning on the way to school in Sault Ste. Marie. There's two inches of snow there.

The last flowers of summer were frosted over in Gladwin half way up the Lower Peninsula, where it registered 28 degrees.

The weather was warmer in southern Michigan. But furnaces are still turned on in Pontiac as the cold wave brings summer to a chilly end tomorrow.

Fall officially starts at 8:36 p.m. tomorrow night.

The weatherman predicted that gradually warming weather might usher in the first weekend of the new season.

After a summer when Oakland County outdoor-lovers saw rain nearly every weekend, the weatherman had this to say about the last Saturday of summer:

It may rain again.

Bardley Field, Conn., with 32, and Providence, R. I., with 34.9, had the lowest readings ever recorded so early in the season.

Mount Washington, N. H., had a temperature of 15 above and an inch of snow on the last full day of summer.

A half an inch of snow fell during the night in the western foothills of the Adirondacks.

The temperature went down to 29 at Falmouth, Mass., to 27 at Lebanon, N. H., to 29 at Newport, Vt.

A not-so-severe cold wave remained in the central part of the nation. Temperatures from Texas north were in the 40s and 50s.

The mercury in sunny Florida, however, was languishing in the mid-70s. The cold air did not go that far south.

Today's high may reach 66 degrees here, it was predicted. Tonight's temperatures will be in the mid-40's, with a possible high tomorrow of 70 degrees.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 37 degrees. At 2 p.m. the mercury was up to 60 degrees.

Peaches Leaves $50,000 Estate to Mother

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Attorneys estimate that Frances B. Willson, 46, the famed Peaches Browning of the 1920s, left an estate of approximately $50,000.

Her will, filed here for probate, left her estate to her mother, Mrs. Carolyn M. Heenan, of nearby San Carlos.

Peaches won fame when she married Edward (Daddy) Browning, 52-year-old New York multi-millionaire, at the age of 15.

Ike to Address Iowa Farmers

Stevenson Gets Chance to Make Reply Saturday at Plowing Contest

BOONE, Iowa (INS)—President Eisenhower argues the Republican case for the farm vote before a critical audience of Iowa farmers today in the heart of the corn-and-hog country.

He makes his opening bid for what could be the pivotal farm-belt vote at the National Plowing Contest near Newton, Iowa.

What Eisenhower says today will be weighed against the words of his Democratic rival, Adlai Stevenson, who appears before the same audience tomorrow.

Eisenhower will be making his first appearance in the farm belt since his veto last spring of a Democratic-sponsored bill which would have restored supports on basic farm crops to the 90 per cent of parity level.

AIDES OVERRULED

He vetoed the bill against advice by some of his political strategists who felt the action was certain to cost the GOP the farm vote.

Cheering crowds turned out in every little town along the way and farmers stopped work in their fields to wave a greeting to the presidential motorcade.

$85,000 Grant OK'd for General Hospital

A federal grant of $85,000 has been tentatively approved for Pontiac General Hospital, the Board of Trustees announced last night.

The money, to be used for outpatient facilities, has been approved by the State Office of Hospital Survey and Construction but federal approval is pending, William P. Babcock, chairman of the Board said.

Willis M. Brewer, chairman of the building committee, said he expected federal okay within four weeks.

Babcock told Board members he intended to apply for additional federal aid in the future from the Hill-Burton Federal Aid Fund.

Going to UM? Here's How

Football fans attending the University of Michigan-UCLA game a week from tomorrow will be able to use a new bypass on U. S. 12 around the south side of Ann Arbor.

Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, said the bypass will open at 11 a. m. that day, from U. S. 23 southeast of the city west to Saline road.

The rest of the bypass from U. S. 23 west to U. S. 12 will open the following Saturday, in time for the Michigan State-Michigan game.

Another alternate route recommended for Pontiac fans by the Automobile Club of Michigan is Telegraph road (U. S. 24) south to U. S. 12 and west into Ann Arbor.

Lee O. Brooks, chairman of the Oakland County Road Commission, said because of road construction work around South Lyon on Pontiac trail, he recommends taking Huron (M59) west to U. S. 23 and then south into Ann Arbor.

Car Rams Truck; Driver Is Killed

Detroiter Decapitated When Auto Hits Stalled Steel Trailer

A Detroit man was killed instantly early this morning when his car crashed into the rear of a stalled steel truck in Madison Heights.

The victim, Brooke W. Hauter, 42, had his head sheared off. The impact tore his car in half.

Truck driver Zena A. Hosner Jr., 34, of Benton Harbor, and his companion, Ernest E. Shaff of St. Joseph, were not hurt. Both were standing outside the truck when it was rammed.

The accident occurred on Dequindre between 12 and 13 Mile roads, according to the Madison Heights Police Dept.

Hosner told police his truck, which was loaded with more than 15 tons of steel, had no rear lights when rammed by Hauter.

He said the line for the lights and a brake line were broken when he made a sharp U-turn on Dequindre causing the vehicle to stall in the traffic lane.

Hosner said he and his partner were inspecting the damage when the trailer was hit.

To Dedicate Health Center

The new $309,000 Oakland County Health Center at 1070 N. Telegraph Rd., will be dedicated Sunday afternoon, Dr. John D. Monroe, county health director, announced today. Work on the project began in August, 1955. The center opened unofficially Aug. 10.

★ ★ ★

Twelve hundred visitors are expected to view the new quarters during the open house from 2 to 7 p.m. Displays and exhibits will be open for inspection that day.

Cyril E. Miller, chairman of the Health Committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, will be master of ceremonies at the dedication program at 4 p. m.

Representatives from the State Department of Health and the Department of Hospitals, who helped in construction of the building, will be on the program along with remarks from Delos Hamlin, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors.

THANKS FOR MONEY

Hamlin will give special recognition to Rep. George A. Dondero and Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart for the assistance they provided with state and federal funds.

Representatives of the construction firm will present keys to the center to Harry W. Horton, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee of the Board of supervisors.

The building is a far cry from the crowded Courthouse Annex at 15 W. Huron St., used as a health center for 14 years. The annex will be used for county prosecutor's office as soon as necessary changes are made, Monroe said.

The health center is constructed largely of glass and aluminum. Air conditioning is one of the dominant features of the modern structure which is 48 by 216 feet.

A total of 40 rooms house a complete tuberculosis control clinic, medical treatment rooms, waiting room, play terrace for children, office facilities and a large assembly room.

In the basement are a mimeograph room, two large storage rooms and a future laboratory. The department still is using the laboratory at the Oakland County Contagious Hospital.

U. S. FUNDS USED

Federal funds paid for 34 per cent of the building. The funds were made available under the Hill-Burton Act and administered by the state Office of Hospital Survey and Construction.

The structure was planned by Monroe and Dr. John S. Lambie, medical coordinator for the center.

State Drain Bill Wins House OK

Senate Action Delayed on Measure to Aid Sale of 12-Town Bond Issue

A bill to facilitate sale of $38 million in bonds for the Twelve Town drain passed Michigan's House of Representatives yesterday, but Senate action on it will have to wait until the Legislature reconvenes Nov. 8.

The bill is also intended to aid similar projects in other Michigan counties.

According to State Sen. William S. Broomfield, action on the bill was delayed because Upper House representatives left Lansing shortly after acting on it.

"There isn't any opposition to the bill in the Senate," Broomfield said. "It was just that without being able to talk to the House about it, Senators felt they should wait before acting on it."

The bill contains two amendments to the State's drain act. The first permits the Drain Board to adjust annual installments so that municipalities will pay equal total amounts of principal and interest each year.

Under the existing law, principal payments would be equal every year. Interest, because the principal declines over the 30-year bond period, would be greater in the first years than when the issue is nearing its call date.

The second amendment was requested by Blythe and Co., New York bonding firm, to insure that the bonds will not be callable at the discretion of the drain board.

Under this amendment, the drain board would be authorized to regulate advance payments from member municipalities instead of taking payments any time during the year in which they fall due.

Canal Users Agree to Take Case to U.N.

of the conference nations, an even dozen, could be counted on to join as soon as their governments at home gave formal approval.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, planned to fly back to Washington tonight.

The experts' meeting ran long overtime, causing postponement of the expected final plenary session of the 18.

Sir George Young, British Foreign Office spokesman, said the experts' session was "harmonious and cooperative and that it drew up two documents:

1. A paper dealing with the formation of the association, some points of which still have to be ironed out by the foreign ministers and other delegation chiefs.

2. A draft resolution, which is understood to include a condemnation of Egypts nationalization of the canal; a reaffirmation that international control of Suez should be the basis of a final settlement, and an announcement on the form and timing of an approach to the U. N.

Agreement to set up the association did not commit any nation actually to join it. But most of the 18—representing more than 90 per cent of the shipping using the Suez Canal—are expected to do so and some conference sources speculated that only two or three ultimately would stay out.

Those already on record in favor with or without reservations, were the United States, Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Netherlands, West Germany, Italy, Turkey, Norway, Portugal and Spain.

Far Below National Average

Infant Death Rate Down, Study at Hospital Reveals

Infant mortality rate at Pontiac General Hospital is "far below" the national average, Dr. Harold A. Furlong, chief of staff at the city hospital, told the Board of Trustees last night.

Furlong submitted a report on the recently completed survey of the hospital by a team of Minneapolis hospital consultants showing the mortality rate climbed to 1.9 per cent last year after yearly decreases since 1952.

Furlong reported between July 1 last year to May 31 this year, 2,770 births, not including stillborn infants, were recorded at the hospital.

Included in the total were 50 "newborn deaths," the chief of staff said. "Twenty-nine of the 50 infants weighed less than 2.2 pounds at birth," he said.

"These infants are so premature and fragile that there is little hope of saving their lives, although every effort is made to do so," Furlong emphasized.

"Because of this, our rate should be corrected to allow for these deaths which we could hardly expect to prevent," he added.

This corrected infant mortality rate would be 10.4 per thousand or 1.04 per cent.

Furlong reported that a 1954 U. S. Public Health Service national rate was 2.05 per cent.

Consumers Plans Refunds

Customers Can Expect Money Back by Jan. 1 in Rate Changes

LANSING (AP)—Consumers Power Co. today outlined plans for refunding an average of $3.70 to ordinary household gas users and $10 to $16 to space-heating customers.

* * *

The refund, totaling $4,171,000, represents charges collected after Consumers bulk supplier, Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co., raised its rates in 1952.

Panhandle later was ordered by federal authorities to rescind the rate increase and to rebate revenues derived from it.

Under the federal order, Michigan Gas Storage Co., a Consumer subsidiary, has been refunded $7,232,650 by Panhandle.

TELLS HOW

The utility's plan for passing on the refund to its customers in Michigan was described to the State Public Service Commission by John W. Kluberg, Consumers controller.

Kluberg said of the amount received by Michigan Gas Storage, $276,165 will go to Consumers for gas it purchased from February to December, 1952, when it did not charge its customers the higher rate.

About $250,000 will go to the storage company for gas it purchased but did not sell to Consumers and $4,469,991 is available for customers—less $298,900 to be deducted for refunding costs.

* * *

Kluberg said about 360,000 domestic and space-heating customers will get back $3,547,200 and commercial and industrial users $713,000.

Kluberg said it will be six or seven weeks after approval is received from the commission on refund plans before checks start going into the mail.

He said he hopes the process can be completed by Jan. 1.

Consumer Prices Show Slight Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer prices dipped two-tenths of one per cent last month from the all-time high recorded in July, the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported today.

* * *

Ewan Clague, BLS commissioner, said a sharp seasonal drop in fresh food prices caused the decline. Other items in the index generally rose.

Clague said an expected rise in meat, apparel, automobile and other prices may offset the still-falling fresh food prices in the September index, and added:

"The September index could equal the all-time high."

Moore cooperated then, Brown said.

Fink had testified Moore's lack of interest in his questions, under the circumstances, was an indication of insanity.

Other indications, he said, were Moore's incapacity to feel "genuine emotions," although the doctor said he "understood his position intellectually," and his apparent faith in "magic" to "get him out of this."

Fink also said he thought the fact that Moore has not held a job for more than three months is a symptom of his insanity, as is his apparent inability to think abstractly in spite of the fact he is "a very intelligent boy.".

GM's Roger M. Kyes, of Bloomfield Hills, will be awarded the Navy's highest civilian decoration, the Distinguished Public Service Award, at a noon ceremony in Washington, Tuesday.

* * *

The presentation, by Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas, will be in recognition of Kyes' service as deputy secretary of defense during the first 15 months of the Eisenhower administration.

Kyes, General Motors vice president, is group executive in charge of the GMC Truck & Coach and Dayton Divisions. He recently was awarded the Air Force's Exceptional Service Award.

C. E. Wilson, secretary of defense, is expected to be among those attending the ceremony.

State Awards Three Xway Bridge Bids

Contracts for the final three bridges on the Brighton-Farmington Expressway have been let, the State Highway Department said yesterday.

* * *

All three are in Oakland County.

Low bidder on a bridge to carry Orchard Lake road over the expressway, which is the relocation of U.S. 16, was E. C. Nolan and Jarvick Construction Co. of Center Line, with a bid of $120,827.

* * *

Contract for a bridge to carry Wixom road over the expressway was awarded to H. R. Boyd and L. W. Fitch of Dearborn, with a low bid of $33,902.

* * *

A bridge carrying the expressway over an access road to the Kensington Park area will be built by W. H. Harvie, Inc., of Detroit, with a low bid of $137,743.

Appoint 3 Associates at Pontiac General

Three appointments to the associate staff at Pontiac General Hospital were announced last night by the Board of Trustees.

Appointed were Dr. Joseph H. Chandler, Dr. David M. French and Dr. Edwin S. Peeke.

Chandler will work with the internal medicine section, French will work in surgery and Peeke will be an associate staff member of the general practice section.

Associate staff members hold the positions for at least a year. Then they may apply for regular staff membership.

City Board OKs Hiring Skating Leader for Eton

BIRMINGHAM — A supervisor to work full time at Eton Park Skating Rink and plan special events and parties is to be hired by Charles Gale, of the Forestry and Parks department.

The idea of having such a supervisor of skaters at Eton Rink was discussed by the Recreation Board last night, after its suggestion by Gale and Recreation Director Robert Girardin.

The supervisor's work is to plan skating hours and guide special programs according to the board's plan. Dale Rolph will continue in charge of the park, its activities and its maintenance.

Girardin will attend the 50th anniversary, international congress of the National Recreation Assn. in Philadelphia the week of Oct. 1 at recreation board expense. Also attending will be board chairman, Mrs. William H. Jackson, who is planning a trip to Vassar College that week as well.

The board also learned that the survey on desired recreation facilities would start in the city this week, and that a repeat on last Friday's dance at the High School is being considered. The event drew about 100 teenagers for dancing to "combo" music. School officials will be consulted before a repeat is planned.

Swimming classes are full in the elementary divisions, but a waiting list will give priority for next term, Girardin says. Openings in advanced and intermediate classes are still open.

The Rev. Arthur Kreinheder, Oxford resident who has just returned from six years of study in Sweden and Europe, will be guest speaker at next Thursday's meeting of the Ascension Lutheran Altar Guild.

The program at 1:30 p.m. at the church will be open to guests, but is of especial interest because of the Rev. Mr. Kreinheder's collection of vestments and sacramental vessels handcrafted in Sweden. The guild's main project is providing its own church with ornaments and vestments.

Girl Scouting is under way here, with from 25 to 30 new troops being formed in the third-grade levels and with leaders signing up for leadership training courses that start the end of this month, according to Birmingham District Chairman Mrs. John Keene.

She entertained leaders of the 14 neighborhoods on Monday at her Evergreen road home for a preliminary planning session.

Next meeting will be Oct. 8, when further planning for the district's over 100 troops will be discussed.

Homer's Odyssey was chosen for the first book discussion of the Great Books Group for its next meeting Oct. 3, when the group organized with 45 members on Wednesday. Membership is up slightly.

The Anthony Ripleys will be discussion leaders for the coming meeting at the library.

Elbert Clark Green

Funeral service for Elbert Clark Green, of Dallas, Texas, former Detroiter who died suddenly at the home of a niece, Mrs. Burton Smith, 1520 Ruffner, will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit.

Among survivors are his wife, Mary Edith; three sons, two in service; and a sister, Mrs. Lee Grigsby, of Birmingham.

Post Office Deliveries to Be Extended in City

U.S. Rep. George A. Dondero announced today the U.S. Post Office Department is ordering city delivery service in Pontiac extending along Kettering, Emerson, Cameron, Melrose and Kenilworth streets.

The new service will benefit 249 families, Dondero said, and will start "within the next day or two."

Vietnam Wants Ownership

Freedomland in Pacific Recruiting New Residents

MANILA (INS)—Tomas Cloma, Filipino adventurer who stirred a hornet's nest last spring by staking claims on a group of islands in the China Sea, has called for "co-existence" with other claimant nations stung into action by his move.

Most recent nation to send an expeditionary force to the disputed Spratley Islands is the Viet Nam government. Nationalist China also has claimed them.

But Cloma has reacted calmly. He maintains that each claimant has a "legitimate" right to make his stand "until the question of ownership shall have been adequately decided."

Cloma has made direct representations to the Philippine foreign office to recognize his ownership of the islands which he renamed "Freedomland." But the government has remained unmoved and refuses to back up Cloma.

Cloma discounts possibility of "untoward incidences" because he says both the Chinese and Vietnamese Nationals have "equal regard for the basic human rights of justice and fair play."

"No provocation will come from my men," Cloma reiterates. "They have been instructed to behave themselves in a manner reflecting the finest traditions of the Filipino people and commensurate with our high culture."

Cloma insists that from the very beginning of this international dispute, he has always advocated "peaceful co-existence pending settlement of the question over the islands."

Cloma's younger brother, Capt. Felimon Cloma, is "administrator" of Freedomland. He has been given specific instructions to "contact" Chinese and Vietnamese Nationals in the islands "and offer them the goodwill and friendship of the provisional government of Freedomland."

The younger Cloma has also been directed to "discuss" with Chinese and Vietnamese officers there the possibility of what Cloma terms "international settlement" of Freedomland by "friendly nationals."

Cloma recently returned from brief trips to Japan and Hong Kong where he claims he received favorable support in his efforts to develop an international settlement in Freedomland. In fact, unless present plans do not miscarry, the first batch of alien settlers is due to arrive in the islands by the end of October.

About 12 per cent of the total U.S. potato crop in 1955 was put on the market in the form of potota chips.

Mitch Miller Tactics Shown

Sinatra Tells Probers He Had No Choice When With Columbia

NEW YORK (AP) — Entertainer Frank Sinatra yesterday blamed one of the recording industry's top men for the tailspin in his career a few years back.

Sinatra complained that Mitch Miller of Columbia Records forced inferior songs on him and that his career went into eclipse until he switched to Capital Records.

Miller replied Sinatra should not blame music for his decline, but rather his own hectic love life at the time. Sinatra's marriage to Ava Gardner was breaking up when he switched recording firms in 1953.

Sinatra recorded his criticism in a telegram to a House Judiciary Subcommittee hearing into the television industry. It was read by Committee Chairman Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY).

The gist of Sinatra's telegram was a plea for antitrust action against restraints on an artist's "creative freedoms."

He wired:

"Before Mr. Miller's arrival at Columbia Records, I found myself enjoying a freedom of selection of material, a freedom which I may modestly say resulted in a modicum of success for me.

"Suddenly Mr. Miller, by design or coincidence, began to present many, many inferior songs, all curiously bearing the BMI label."

BMI is Broadcast Music, Inc., a licensing organization set up by approximately 600 broadcasters. Sinatra said he preferred material from the American Socley of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP).

After Sinatra's wire was read at the congressional hearing, Miller commented to reporters:

"It's a hell of a way to run a hearing when they accept telegrams as evidence.

"If they want to examine the record, they will find that under my aegis at Columbia Frank Sinatra recorded 95 per cent or more ASCAP songs and five per cent or less of BMI. It is a matter of record."

Rare Steer Horns In, Sorority Girls Beef

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (INS)—The big question on the Purdue campus today was who put the steer in the Chi Omega's living room?

The 1,200 pound steer, named "Curly," was taken from the Purdue barns where it was being groomed for the International Livestock Show at Chicago.

Overnight, the steer did $2,000 damage to the carpet and newly decorated walls.

Here Are Pot-O-Gold Answers

(Editor's Note: The following are the answers for Pot-O-Gold Puzzle No. 15 which appeared in last week's Pontiac Press.)

PUZZLE NO. 15

1. BIT is right. Nobody knows better than a jockey that even a good Bet has some element of doubt. But if he has a good BIT (an amount of money, or a nice job), he can feel pretty secure.

2. TOP is right. There is no reason to be careful if you wish to Tip a performing waiter, since giving a Tip is routine procedure. However, anyone may have to be careful if he wishes to TOP such a waiter—that is, to hurl witticisms at him in an effort to outclass his humor. All performers are prepared with material to crush such hecklers, and if the waiter is a comedian, you may well have to be careful when you wish to TOP him.

3. SNAP is right. A cook is not a dishwasher so it is most unlikely that any job in the kitchen is just Pans to him. If the job is very arduous, as in a big place, it certainly will be no SNAP, or easy job.

4. LOUT is right. Dealing with Loot covers so much territory that we can't absolutely claim it tends to create a feeling of mutual distrust. For instance, the police deal with loot (stolen goods), but no distrust because of loot is due the police. People evade or fear the police because of crimes they have committed. People who wish to recover loot must trust the police. A LOUT, a sullen brutish person, can never inspire confidence in himself and certainly, by his nature, has no confidence in other people, LOUTS or not. Dealing with such a person tends to create this mutual feeling of distrust.

5. SLUM is right. A slim diet can be rather trying without being monotonous, or drearily the same. There are an infinite number of such diets. A SLUM diet would be a repetitious diet of SLUM, or stew, and thus monotonous.

6. BOAST is right. There is nothing that calls for forgiveness in a Boost. A home-town boost is some effort made to better the financial circumstances of a town, or to make a town a better place to live in. A BOAST, however, is annoying to many people, but a home-town BOAST is readily understandable and usually quite forgivable by strangers, who are quite likely to be just as proud of their own home towns.

7. BIB is right. There is no doubt at all (the word "likely" implies some doubt) that a Bob, or fishing weight, is useful to a fisherman. With this element of doubt you should choose BIB as the right word. A BIB, or apron, is likely to be useful to a fisherman who cleans and prepares his catch.

8. STAGE is right. A guardian of the Gates, which means any guardian, can well be a dog, as on some estates, in which a dog is trained to repel strangers. You can be sure that a guardian of the STAGE (an employe who is privileged to give or deny access to the premises or to the actors) is a human being. A human can ask to see a pass or credentials before granting admission to the STAGE or backstage to a stranger.

9. HEAT is right. A calorie is a thermal unit or measurement of an amount of HEAT needed to perform a job either in the body or in physics. Meat can be estimated as a source of calories, but is far inferior to sugar in supplying them, so we cannot say it has a prime association with them.

10. SAIL is right. Mail, in the sense of carrying it, is important in some seafaring, but in the sense of its communication value, it is commercially and personally important in all seafaring. Bail, a bucket to empty water out of a boat is important in all seafaring. Most apt is SAIL, for some seafaring. SAIL is outmoded as a commercial means of seafaring (though not completely), but is one of the principal means of pleasure and racing yachts. Seafaring is the following of the sea for commerce or recreation, and SAIL fits our limited statement.

11. COUNT is right. Not all juries are Court juries. Some juries judge beauty contests, others judge works of art, etc., and must award a prize. Whether in court or in a competition, the jury must estimate its collective opinion by COUNT, thus determining a majority.

12. PRONE is right. If a fork PRONE to bend (disposed to do so) is what you have, it is undeniably made of flexible material. A fork Prong to bend may be made of such material; if it is not, it won't bend unless enough force is used to make it bend. If force must be used, the fork is not of flexible material. So it is a fork PRONE to bend that must be of such material.

13. THORN is right. Person who feels Shorn, in the sense of having had his hair cut, need not be uneasy. If he feels shorn (deprived of strength or money), uneasy is far too light a term to describe his feelings. If a person feels a THORN, actually or figuratively, then he can be decidedly uneasy. A definite source of unease is present, a THORN.

14. BUG is right. In the sense of a concealed microphone, "BUG" would be redundant, of course. But in the sense of a defect in an apparatus (any apparatus, which could include a new war weapon), BUG fits very well. No one wants enemy agents to know a country's secrets, even if these secrets have a defect which must be ironed out. Concealment of a Bag is not strong enough. It is not a mere bag (dispitch case or brief case) which must be concealed, but documents and information.

15. SLOT is right. Because a coin may be given up for Lost in the home or office we cannot state absolutely that the owner won't see it any more. There is a possibility that it may turn up, however remote. If he drops a coin in a SLOT, he won't see it any more, nor will he be its owner any more. If he finds a coin he gave up for lost he is still its owner.

16. DRUDGE is right. This is a worker with a dreary, long monotonous job. Such circumstances tend to promote the "general atmosphere of unpleasantness at all times." Both on the job and off, the DRUDGE would experience this general atmosphere. A Grudge creates a special atmosphere of unpleasantness, rather than a general one, being a special hard feeling for a particular cause.

More Potent Gas

As if American motorists weren't confused enough already, the oil companies are about to multiply their confusion.

★ ★ ★

The newer, high compression automobile engines have brought keener competition to the oil companies. Each one has striven to attract new customers, to make its product stand out from the others. Each has sought to provide more potent gasoline, the better to serve the higher demands of the new engines.

Recently Esso has gone to a third, higher rated gas. This has meant building and operating pumps handling three different qualities of gas at each station. Now there will be regular, extra and "100 plus" gas, the latter offered in "golden" colored pumps.

Sun Oil is experimenting with a plan to offer drivers a choice of five different qualities through mixing a special "octane concentrate" with a single basic brand. Other companies are watching these experiments and pushing their own offerings under as catchy phrases as they can think up.

The Ethyl Corporation estimates that the octane count of the average premium gasoline has risen more than five points in its octane rating in the past three years, from 91.9 to 97, and that the average regular gas now has the same rating, 90.1, as premium gas had in 1950.

The motor companies are forcing the oil men to keep on their toes to meet the changes made in automotive engines.

Bright Prospect

Dr. PHILLIP WERNETTE sees a bright future ahead of the United States economy. Speaking before the Economic Club in Detroit recently, he said America's national income will rise forty per cent every ten years in the foreseeable future.

★ ★ ★

He added that, while there undoubtedly will be periodical fluctuations, these will not be one-fifth as severe as the depression of the 1930's.

Prof. Wernette warned that increasing prosperity would bring new problems. These, he said, would include increasing crime, lack of interest in public affairs, and neglect of the underprivileged.

The first two already are plainly to be noted. It is more difficult to realize the last because of the great emphasis placed on the needs of the underprivileged by political candidates and speakers. That probably is one of the reasons back of Prof. WERNETTE'S prediction.

As the government does more and more for the needy family, it would naturally follow that the average individual would give less thought to the financial condition of his neighbor. People will tend to take it for granted that everyone should be doing all right since so much is being done to aid those who need it.

Prosperity has led to the decay of nations and even of whole civilizations in past ages. Prof. WERNETTE'S forecast may well be regarded as a challenge to our national leaders.

★ ★ ★

All three subjects today are attracting widespread interest and attention. Young people particularly are showing more interest in government. Such an interest may well lead to effective influence on the correlative problems mentioned.

Good Fishing at Sea

A Long Beach, California fisherman has come through with one of the tallest fish stories to be carried on Associated Press wires in many a moon. PETE PETERS, skipper of a sport fishing boat, reports shooting a dove forty miles off the California coast.

The dove landed on the rail of his boat, reports Peters, and he shot it with a gun he keeps in his cabin. He brought the bird home to prove his story. Whether it does that completely, however, depends on your credulity.

PETE didn't think the dove was an unusual hunting trophy for a seagoing sailor. Last year he says he shot a rabbit some fifteen miles at sea. The rabbit was on a kelp bed that apparently had floated away from shore.

★ ★ ★

Stop to think of it, the sailors are not the only ones who come up with tall tales. A lot of good fish stories come out of the hunting camps each fall.

"CIVILIZATION is a failure," says a sociologist. Hold on there, fellow; don't condemn something before it has been fairly tried.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haider

of 84 West Chicago Ave. continue to be this area's most intensive fruit raisers They have peach, pear and apple trees so heavily laden that a prop is necessary under every limb. The fruit touches each other and is actually piled on the drooping branches. It makes a sight that demonstrates conclusively that Michigan can far outdistance any other state in fruit production, as well as in several other respects that make it the best place in the world in which to live. Starting from scratch, Mr. and Mrs. Haider now are reaping the rewards of 18 years of diligent work and know-how.

It's Like Living Over a Mad Chemist

David Lawrence Says:

Adlai Gains by Ike's First Speech

WASHINGTON—From the standpoint of political effectiveness, President Eisenhower's first address of the campaign must be given a low "rating."

The address was over the heads of the audience. It attempted to cover too much ground and didn't explain any one point adequately. It was written for the eye and not for the ear. It dealt with generalities and did not deal with the consequences to the voters.

There are so many millions of persons who like President Eisenhower personally and who have faith in his integrity, his earnestness and his devotion to duty that it seems regrettable that 25 minutes of valuable TV time should have been taken up with so many abstract sentences. These were difficult for many listeners to grasp and the President failed to ask pointedly for support of the Republican ticket at the polls.

As for the vocabulary used, the speech was unfortunately directed to a group of theoretically equipped with a better background on public affairs than the average listener possesses. How many persons in the audience, for example, understood the meaning of the word "unilateral"? How many persons knew the background of the controversy over atomic tests in which the President used the term and which he didn't explain? His implicit references in answer to the viewpoint on this topic expressed by the Democratic nominee were too vague to be effective.

MUST CHANGE STYLE

Eisenhower by the style of campaigning he apparently has adopted cannot win enough votes to overcome the organization work that will be done against him, particularly in the large cities. His only tactic, therefore, is to simplify the issues, center on a few and not try to "cover the waterfront" in every speech. His Wednesday night address also violated some of the fundamental rules of political combat. One good rule is never to fall into the trap of spending your time just defending yourself against the other fellow's arguments. For that means your opponent has the initiative.

A case in point is the issue developing out of Stevenson's call for an "ending of the draft." Stevenson was politically clever in raising the issue. It's elemental. It means a great deal to millions of voters, particularly mothers. But the President tried to answer it only by saying it isn't practicable to end the draft now. Stevenson gained on this exchange because many uninformed voters will think he is really for ending the draft while Ike isn't—and that this is all there is to it.

The logical way to handle such a situation is not to go on the defensive but to take the offensive. Ike should have pointed out how dangerous his opponent's views seemed to be and how military weakness could actually invite war. He should have stressed that ending the draft now could mean that, if war came, many millions of boys would have to be sacrificed on the battlefield because they wouldn't be trained to fight. Death in war is more to be dreaded than a peace time draft.

Likewise, instead of talking about a "unilateral" ending of atom-bomb tests, Eisenhower had a chance to ask the American people if they wanted to stop developing new weapons—all weapons—while letting the enemy develop them and destroy us. By the time the argument was concluded, the listener should have been properly worried about the great risk involved in putting into the White House someone whose policies would cut down the manpower of the armed services at the same time that he favored a one-sided abandonment of experiments with the most powerful weapons needed to match the enemy if war comes.

Eisenhower has some good speechwriters who can write for the ear as well as the eye. And it isn't necessary to call names or to take "the low road" when going on the attack. But it is necessary to simplify and to explain clearly what the score is in words that a relatively uninformed audience across the country can understand.

The voters aren't moved by lectures on international affairs, with references to remote areas which they can't even locate on the map. They are interested in the direct consequences to them and their families if there is a change in the White House.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Have Chronic Arthritis? Then Go to Physician Only

When a Yankee Wiseacre asks patronizingly what I know about arthritis, my thoughts go back to Osler who opined, when I was a boy on Chapel street in Canandaigua, that "Chronic rheumatism comes on insidiously in persons who have passed the middle period of life . . . it is most common among the poor, particularly washerwomen, day laborers, and those whose occupation exposes them to cold and damp."

From Dr. Osler my thoughts skip to our gardener—well, no, not ours but the gardener who divides his time among numerous residents in the neighborhood. And of the cleaning woman who does housework for a number of families. They come to work in fine cars. What's more they own their cars.

No doubt the washerwoman and day-laborer association has had a good deal to do with the popularity of "arthritis" among snobs and Yankee Wiseacres, and among their exploiters the trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers who soak the cash customers $7.50 per "shot" of the latest miracle medicine. By the time the victim begins to realize the miracle medicine is going to do no good, a still newer one is heralded by the "science writers," before the real doctors can find out about it, and the game goes on as long as people continue to believe "arthritis" is a specific disease which should be amenable to some miracle medicine or other.

Not that arthritis doesn't happen. Acute inflammation of one or more joints occurs as a complication of tonsillitis, pharyngitis (sore throat), quinsy (abscess around tonsil) or other respiratory infection. It occurs as a complication of septicemia (acute blood poisoning) from Streptococcus, Staphylococcus, Pneumococcus, Brucellosis, Tuberculosis, Typhoid, Meningococcus and other specific infections we need not mention here.

But chronic arthritis, that is, joint inflammation of more than a year's duration, is so rare that the wise physician hesitates to make such a diagnosis. The chances are 100 to 1 that joint disability so labeled will eventually prove to be rheumatiz—physical degeneration, not inflammation.

The management of any kind of acute arthritis is for the attending physician only. Especially the kind now called rheumatic fever, formerly called acute multiple infectious arthritis or inflammatory rheumatism, which occurs in young adults and in children 10 to 15 years of age, as a complication or consequence of tonsillitis, quinsy, sore throat or other respiratory infections.

It is this rheumatic fever (Streptococcus infection in most instances) which involves the silent danger of endocarditis (inflammation of heart lining) and consequent roughening or distortion of heart valves.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Recall American Heritage With Constitution Week'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

In our busy modern life, there is a growing tendency to depart from proper and traditional observance of our religious and patriotic holidays.

Therefore, the President of the United States has proclaimed this week, Sept. 17 through Sept. 23, Constitution Week, so we may pause and remember that on Sept. 17, 1787, this great document was signed.

The faith of our forefathers gave them the strength to plan for the ages. May we with equal faith guard our birthright and hand it down to succeeding generations as their most precious heirloom . . . Liberty.

Moscow Gains Foothold in Mideast at Low Price

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Soviet pilots now ride the Suez Canal, striking evidence of the ease with which Moscow policy has penetrated deepy into the Middle East.

It was just a year ago when Moscow's hand came pretty much into the open although old nationalist hatreds and "colonialist" policies paved the way years before that.

A year ago Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser made his $200 million arms deal with the Soviets. The big target then in Cairo eyes was to wipe out Israel. This goal has receded now in the larger Egyptian canal dispute with the Western allied nations.

Nasser has mortgaged Egypt's cotton crop for years in advance to pay for the arms coming from the Communist bloc.

He has eliminated prospects of further Western capital investment in his battle for sole control of the canal. His sterling balances that Cairo normally draws on remain frozen in London.

ECONOMIC WAR

Nasser also faces the long-term prospect of an economic war with the Western allies. He accuses the West of "boycotting" the canal. The latter prefers the term "bypassing" the big ditch rather than submit to Nasser's terms.

All the political and propaganda advantages obtained by Russia have cost Moscow very little. Nasser has consulted Soviet Ambassador Evgeni Kisselev every step of the way in the fight with the Western allies.

Announcements and attitudes in both Cairo and Moscow have shown very clearly that the two men work closely together.

Soviet Russia has little shipping that uses the canal from which Nasser hopes to obtain riches to finance his pet project, the Aswan Dam which would irrigate more acreage for Egypt's fast-mounting population.

Britain, France and other Western European nations are the ones whose shipping agents have paid more than 90 per cent of the transit fees in the canal.

American financial backing will aid the Western nations if they desert the canal and have their ships take the longer route around the southern tip of Africa.

Rich Arabian leaders of oil-producing nations who have supported Nasser's nationalization of the Suez Canal Company probably will begin to have some second thoughts once the oil flow is reduced and Western Europe gets more oil from the Western Hemisphere wells.

Nasser himself faces the prospect of seeing the Suez Canal deteriorate unless he compromises.

That is, unless he can get vast aid from Russia which thus far has won its penetration cheaply.

Explains Cause of Off-Color Talk

Tom's case is very common, for when a teenager fills his mind with filthy stories and lewd jokes, he may embarrass his family in his old age. Salicious story-telling usually indicates maladjustment, as outlined below. You wives can often stop this evil habit by using the strategy in the booklet mentioned today.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-371: Tom G., aged 62, is a former prominent professional man.

* * *

"Dr. Crane, I am embarrassed by father," Tom's married daughter told me.

"Father has lived with us the past six years. And we have been happy to have him.

"But the last year or two he has begun to grow somewhat senile. And he now tells the most vulgar stories.

"His mind seems to dwell on sex matters and lewd jokes. I never dreamed that father ever paid attention to such salacious tales.

* * *

"Isn't it tragic that in old age a person will thus degenerate and live in the gutter, so to speak, when he should be uplifted by noble thoughts and inspirational ideas?"

WHY LEWD JOKES?

Did you ever wonder why people delight in telling off-color stories?

At a party, men may gather in a corner and in hushed tones tell dirty jokes. Why?

They don't lower their voices and swap recipes for new delicacies at the dinner table, do they?

They don't laugh gleefully at new medical discoveries or chemical data.

Beginning in the teens, however, males will often tell vulgar jokes and pass them along from one social group to another. Why?

* * *

And when they pass the age of 45 to 50, many supposedly brilliant professional men will make a hobby of collecting lewd jokes. Why?

WISHFUL THINKING

In many cases, it is due to wishful thinking. The younger males have been impressed by older men into believing that sexual escapades indicate rugged masculinity.

That is definitely false.

The Don Juans who boast of their feminine conquests are usually small men with inferiority complexes who have a mania for sex conquests to try to prove their own virility.

It isn't the brave person who whistles in the dark. It isn't the virile male who keeps talking about sex almost chronically.

No, it is the sexual weakling. That's why so many males past 45 make a hobby of telling lewd jokes.

For they themselves are nearing the impotent stage. And their boastful tales often demonstrate wishful thinking.

Moreover, these vulgar jokes and excessive interest in scantily clad female figures or pornographic pictures, also indicate an attempt to fan the smoldering coals of dying sex passion into more ardent flame.

ADVICE TO WIVES

Wives, when your middle-aged mates keep talking excessively about sex matters, that is an evidence they fear they are about to sing their swan song as virile males.

So employ the booklet below to banish much of their salacious talk. A man doesn't need constant prodding in sexual matters if he is assured.

Alcoholism is described as a psychological fire escape from a burning building. It indicates an emotional crisis that is so hot the drinker flees into a drunken stupor.

* * *

Well, vulgar story telling is also an evidence of maladjustment. So send for my booklet, "How to Prevent Impotence," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Use it to banish the vulgar jokes that otherwise may characterize your husband's speech.

And encourage every boy to fill his mind with inspirational gems so in old age he does not disgrace his family, as Tom is now doing.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Sees End of Segregation

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — Gov. Dennis J. Roberts (D) says that changes in the state's public housing policy "will rapidly eliminate any remaining evidence of segregation and produce total integration."

It Takes a Woman to Pull One Like That

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—As Dep. U.S. Marshal Joseph A. Gilliland Jr. was searching a neighborhood for a probation violator, he showed his card — bearing his photograph —to a Norfolk housewife to identify himself.

She studied the picture closely, then shook her head.

"Cap'n," she said, "I don't believe I've ever seen that man around here."

9 Alabamans Quit Draft Posts

Resignations Come on Heels of Postponement of Negro's Induction

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Strong feeling against postponement of Army induction for a young Montgomery Negro attorney has brought nine resignations from the Selective Service system in central Alabama. More resignations were being considered today.

The Fred D. Gray case has also provoked several telegrams and letters to Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national Selective Service director, who recently postponed induction of Gray indefinitely.

* * *

The resignations, which started here Monday with three members of Gray's draft board, were all with comments that Hershey had improperly overridden the authority of the local board. Some were accompanied by criticism at what was termed "political influence" that reached into the White House.

Local 51 classified Gray 1-A after he had become prominent as legal spokesman for Negroes in the nine-month-old bus boycott here. The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People obtained a review of the case and the classification was sustained by the highest appeal board.

Then after Gray was ordered to active duty Hershey asked that the case be reopened. He said he had been informed that the 25-year-old attorney was now full-time pastor of a Negro church, replacing the absent minister. Ministers are draft-exempt.

The local board took the stand that it was too late to introduce new evidence and refused twice to reopen the case. Three board members walked out with bitter comments of "NAACP pressure" when Gray didn't go into the Army Monday as they had ordered.

* * *

Next day the Barbour County board and appeal agent resigned in protest over the case. Wednesday Gov. James E. Folsom, a Democrat, said the case had been made "a political football by the Republican White House." That day too J. M. Stanton of Greensboro, member of the Hale County board, quit in protest.

Another resignation came yesterday, from J. Stuart Yow of Selma, appeal agent for Dallas County. He wired Hershey objecting to what he said was "evident outside pressure."

Weather Delays A-Test

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—The opening blast in Britain's on again-off again atomic test series at the Maralinga Proving Ground in South Australia was postponed again today. Bob Considine Says:

Russians Let U.S. Scoop Their Own Tass

WASHINGTON (INS) — Just as well there were some people at work at the Atomic Energy Commission on Labor Day, on which holiday it was announced by the AEC that the Soviet Union had detonated the third bomb in a series of fission and probably fusion blasts.

* * *

The phone rang noisily in AEC's information office, jarring the holiday calm.

"I'm a reporter," a brusque voice said. "Is it true that the U.S.S.R. has detonated another bomb?"

"Yes," the AEC man answered. "May I inquire who is calling?"

"Tass," the unhappy voice replied. It was the mourn of a man who had been scooped.

* * *

P. S. — AEC does not service Tass, the official Soviet news service, on the same basis as legitimate news media.

GUEST OF RUSSIANS

Bob Garst of Garst and Thomas, hybrid corn developers from Coon Rapids, Iowa (50 miles west of Des Moines), was one man the visiting Russian farm experts wanted to see. He and others had perfected ways and means of doubling the per acre yield.

* * *

The Russkies enthusiastically invited him to visit the Soviet Union, and Garst said okay — so long as he was permitted to sell seed corn over there.

Garst was in Russia for five weeks with U. S. government approval. He was given a special train. Russia now has, in its new five-year plan, a program for planting up to 75,000,000 acres of hybrid corn.

"Do you think we'll ever sell any more of our surplus corn overseas?" asked a man from the Commodity Credit Corporation.

* * *

"Or any at the regular price?" he further asked. "We've got a fat chance of competing against hybrid corn raised by slave laborers."

JET DEVELOPING

Donald Douglas Jr. was telling us the other day that his company's first four-jet DC8 will be ready in the spring of 1958. Douglas expects it will get its "ticket" — CAA certification — by the fall of 1959.

The company will continue building DC8s during the exhaustive trial period so that when the design is approved it will have produced as many as 40 of the huge 550-600 m.p.h. airliners.

This means that several competing airlines will be able to start such service more or less simultaneously. The company did the same thing with the DC7.

The DC8 will be fitted for both American and British engines, have separate entrances for first and second-class passengers, be cheaper to operate than a DC8.

* * *

"We'll keep the airplane in the ballpark," the progressive son of the revered pioneer builder said, when asked whether existing airports would accommodate these enormous craft.

He suggested that something more be done right now about expanding fields. Most of them became obsolete with the DC7 and its competitive counterparts, he suggested.

There will be no abrupt switch from propellor craft to jets. The Lockheed prop-jet Electra is coming. The British will sell millions of dollars worth of Viscounts and Britannias in this part of the world before the age of the pure jet.

* * *

Matter of fact, Lockheed's long-range piston engine job is still to come, as are most of Douglas's DC7s and longer-ranged DC7Cs.

Ford to Dedicate Office Sept. 26

14-Story Unit to House Administration Workers at Auto Firm

DEARBORN (INS) — The new Ford Motor Co. administrative office—a 12-story building on a 90-acre site in Dearborn — will be dedicated Wednesday.

The modernistic, air-conditioned structure provides office space for 3,100 Ford employes. It is one of the nation's largest buildings housing offices of a single company.

Insulated porcelain-glazed floors of offices, a two-story penthouse for service equipment and executives and a connecting three-level employe service annex.

A three-level garage, 625-seat cafeteria, kitchens, dining rooms, sandwich shop, 500-seat auditorium, lounge, barber shop, photo studios and "housekeeping" facilities are in the service unit.

Parking space for more than 2,300 cars is provided in three lots and the indoor garage.

Insulated porcelain-glazed steel panels, aluminum framing and tinted, heat-absorbing glass make up the "curtain wall" exterior of the building. Vertical steel columns are encased in concrete and sheathed in sheet aluminum.

Nearly five acres of glass were used for the exterior and interior of the building.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Doctors administered Salk polio vaccine to almost 10,000 airmen at Lackland Air Force Base yesterday. Maj. Gen. John H. McCormick ordered the shots for all military personnel after five officers were stricken with paralytic polio. The general was one of the first vaccinated.

Steel Czar Wins $10,000 Raise

USW Chief McDonald Boosted to $50,000; Dues Up $2 a Month

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The United Steelworkers of America have given President David J. McDonald a $10,000 present in the form of a salary raise to $50,000 a year.

The USW convention, in its stormiest session, also voted yesterday to raise dues $2 a month for the union's 1,200,000 members.

* * *

Dues were hiked from $3 a month to $5 after an hour and a half of heckling debate in which one spokesman from the floor, Len Taylor of Kokomo, Ind., told McDonald: "I don't think you need the $10,000."

"I'm not worth it," McDonald snapped tartly. "The last contract proves it."

* * *

The irony was not lost on the majority of delegates and the $10,000 increase was overwhelmingly approved. The contract McDonald referred to won the steelworkers an average 46-cent hourly pay boost over three years.

The vote on the dues increase was much closer, with three votes being taken, one by voice, one by raising hands and finally, a standing vote. McDonlad rejected a motion for a roll call and declared the measure passed.

Backers of the dues increase proposals said half of the $2 will go to local union treasuries.

All Filled Up but That's the Idea

Midland Likes Its 'Small' School

MIDLAND (AP) — A plush four-million-dollar high school just opened here already is nudging its 1,800 capacity.

"We have an enrollment of 1,720 and the school is only built to hold 1,800," said School Board President Everett Luce. "And that's the way we planned it."

The school, designed by contemporary Architect Alden B. Dow, was built so it could not be enlarged. Why?

It was started when Dr. Howard A. Dawson, director of rural education for the National Education Assn., visited Midland. He told educators:

A school holding more than 1,800 students gets big and cumbersome. Students lose their individuality and social contacts which are of prime importance to a well-rounded education.

ONE NOW, ONE LATER

Acting on his advice, the board proposed the school be built immediately and another planned for the near future.

"We hope to have another high school just like it within four years," Luce said.

Sprawling over 60 acres, the three-story building employs 87 instructors.

Dow, an architect of international stature with an experimental flare, developed the clean lines with an expanse of aluminum paneled glass windows.

A massive cafeteria, designed to feed 1,700, spreads over an area 180 feet long and 82 feet wide. It is divided by a folding door and is splashed with vivid colors ranging from yellow to red and green.

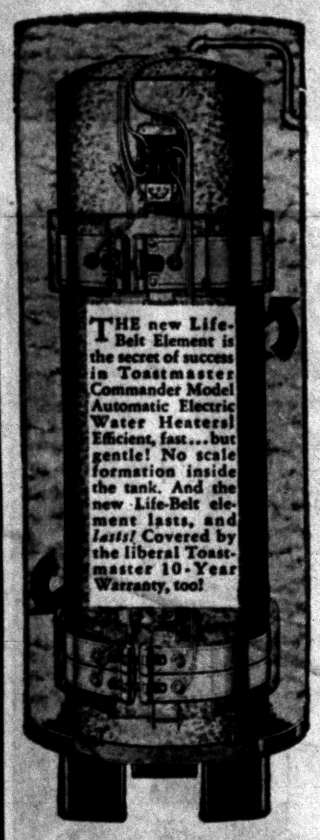

When the census was taken in 1950, Midland had 14,285 citizens. Since then, the gigantic Dow Chemical Co. has expanded at such a rate the population has swelled to 25,223 and still is rising rapidly.

With this in mind, voters already have approved a $100,000 appropriation for architectural fees on another high school.

Area School Boards Juggle Problems

LAFF-O-RAMA ATTRACTION — The circus-type entertainment being staged by the Lake Orion Lions club, Laff-o-rama, will star local citizens in such roles aimed for hilarity as those taken by, from left to right, Richard Gaeckel, Mrs. Harry Shoup and James Sheldon. Three rings will be outlined on the football field for the performances at 8:13 tomorrow night, and at 2:13 and 8:13 p. m. Sunday. Over 500 tickets have been sold to see the 100-cast that includes civic leaders. Musical score of famous recording circus bands and Les Paul and Mary Ford, along with costumes were provided by Laff-O-Rama, Inc., who sent director Lis Rouhar in for a week's rehearsals. American Legionaires will lead a parade, including Saddle Club members on "Silver" and other Lone Ranger horses, the Royal Oak 40 and 8 train, and the Rochester Fun-Car. Land-O-Lakes dancing majorettes, Sue Barkey, 10-year-old Michigan Champ of 1956, and Sandra Sheldon, and Milford's Barkar sisters, will perform at 11 a. m. at the main corner of Lake Orion. Gilbert Tallman is chairman. Other chairmen are Harold Field and E. J. Haddon, tickets; Chester Bushman and Joe Farrell, refreshments, and Mrs. Don Burleigh, makeup. The new Civil Air Patrol, Lake Orion band, local Scout groups and others will participate in the event.

Chilly Classrooms

Pupils In, Then Out Again

GINGELLVILLE — Six rooms of school children in Proper School returned home after reporting for classes yesterday morning because it was impossible to circulate hot water in the building's new $15,380 heating system.

It involved 227 students who were back in school today with the difficulty solved.

The check valve in the circulation device in the automatic system was not functioning, according to Principal Clinton Galbraith.

The heating system was installed this summer and this was the first day it was to be put into use. It replaced a system including two furnaces in the five-year-old addition that had been judged not safe.

* * *

Furnace room installation of the single furnace and piping system saves the space of the two furnaces which had been in classrooms.

Enrollment Up at Avondale

Six Per Cent Increase; Temporary Measures Alleviate Crowding

AVONDALE—Led by a 21 per cent increase in the high school, Avondale School District shows a total increase of 6 per cent this fall over last spring, according to figures released by Supt. Raymond N. Baker early this week.

* * *

Avondale High School has a record 633 enrollment at the present time, an increase of 108 students over the 525 in school in June. The district's total enrollment this fall is 2,577.

* * *

While awaiting the construction of the additional rooms voted for in the June bond issue election, certain temporary measures have been taken to alleviate the crowded conditions.

Most of the members of the freshman class are attending classes in both the high school building and the junior high building. Three sections of 9th graders use three rooms in the junior high in the morning, and three other 9th grade sections from the high school change places with them after lunch.

* * *

The reason for moving the students back and forth between the two buildings, according to high school principal Rosco Crowell, is that this is the only way to give all the freshmen an equal opportunity to take the regular high school elective courses. The junior high does not have the facilities for classes in shop, homemaking, etc.

Eye New Pupils of Subdivision at Rochester

ROCHESTER — With 3,501 pupils already enrolled in Rochester Community Schools, the Board of Education is worrying how many more will be enrolled in weeks to come, with the new North Hill subdivision nearing completion.

* * *

The new total was announced by Supt. Donald C. Baldwin, who says overcrowded classes at Harrison-Central School and Woodward School have presented problems.

At Harrison-Central, a third fourth-grade class was formed, with the board trying to keep 30 pupils in a class. At Avon School, 21 pupils in first grade who originally were transferred from Brooklands School will be sent back to Brooklands and distributed in a number of classes there.

Fourth grade classes at Harrison-Central have 45 to 46 in classes.

Woodward School has 45 in classes, and its enrollment may increase with North Hill bringing in new families to the area.

Enrollment in senior high school is 582; junior high, 800; and elementary schools, 2,109.

FUN WITH SHADOWS — 5

The Bird

Today's suggestion for your shadow theater shows how a simple cut-out can be used with your hand shadows to give special effects. As you develop the shadow art you will be able to think out your own cut-outs.

For instance a little hat and pipe cut from cardboard might give an amusing effect to some shadows. If you are more ambitious, you can cut little cardboard figures, joint them, and use them on strings like marionettes.

In this case, by pasting pointed curved pieces of paper over the thumb nails to look like a beak, as shown, you can make this shadow look like a bird in flight.

To make the show more interesting you can open the beak and make small cooing and chirping noises, and you can flutter the wing feathers.

(First to submit this idea was T. McGuire, Pontiac, Mich. If you have an idea send it in care of this newspaper and it may be worth $10 to you. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Plan to Widen M78 From Lansing to Flint

LANSING (AP) — Details of plans for converting 41 miles of M78 from East Lansing nearly to Flint into a four-lane divided highway were announced today by the State Highway Department.

The route is a two-lane, 20-foot wide pavement most of the way.

The department said a 24-foot wide roadway will be laid parallel to the existing pavement for 29 miles stretching from East Lansing to near Durand.

The old pavement over this route will be widened from 20 to 24 feet, resurfaced and in some areas completely rebuilt.

On the 12-mile stretch from near Durand to Swartz Creek, a new four-lane divided roadway will be built.

Plans call for placing the southwestern portion of the project under contract this fall or winter for construction in 1957.

Rotary Club Calls Off Reed City Dawn Patrol

REED CITY (AP)—Rotary Club officials today said they hope cancellation notices have reached pilots planning to attend Reed City's second annual Dawn Patrol.

The event, announced for Sunday, was called off when road construction near the airport left the runway intact but took away most of the field's aircraft parking space.

The meet drew 347 planes last year.

DETROIT (INS)—Public hearings on proposed marine laws will be held in Detroit Oct. 3-4 by the Legislature's Interim Study Committee on Marine Affairs.

Embarrassing Bite

NILES (AP) — A Niles policeman will have to eat standing up for a few days. He was nipped during a scuffle while attempting to arrest an unidentified man.

Generous Cat Lets Frogs Share Meals

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Several months ago Robert, a generous cat, allowed Oscar, a hungry frog, to share a plate of hamburger.

Robert didn't know what he was getting in for. Oscar continued to come around to the home of William Harrell to take pot luck with Robert.

Now grown fat and sassy on cat food, the frog has brought a crop of young ones.

At mealtime the frogs line up on the back steps until the food appears. And Oscar isn't above dealing Robert a thumping kick with his strong legs if the cat gets in the way.

Sues Sausage Makers for Stealing His Secrets

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A man who says he has sausage-making know-how ground out a $250,000 breach-of-contract suit against a local meat processing firm.

John Richt alleged that the Klarer Provision Co. terminated his services last month after other employes learned his secret technique for making sausage. He said he entered the sausage trade 37 years ago and that the firm hired him last September. Richt claimed he was to receive $150 weekly for life plus one-fourth of a cent on all production over 50,000 pounds a week.

Church Expert to Key Retreat

Teachers to Prepare for 1,000 Students in October

DRAYTON PLAINS — Dr. John Gerstner, professor of church history at Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary, will address the evening session of the Fall Planning Retreat of the Bible School staff at Community United Presbyterian Church Saturday.

* * *

Harold McAllister, general superintendent of the school, says the retreat precedes the opening of the church school in October and is set up to acquaint new staff members with their responsibilities and provide inspiration for all.

Afternoon session will begin at 3 p. m., followed by dinner at 6. Dr. Gerstner will address the group in the sanctuary at 7 p. m., and also be guest preacher at the 11 a. m. worship service Sunday.

Enrollment of the church school classes is more than 1100 and a staff of more than 100 has been appointed to teach the classes. They range from cradle roll to the adult department.

Choir Rehearsal Resuming at Waterford

DRAYTON PLAINS — Choir rehearsals begin this week at the Community United Presbyterian Church, according to Charlotte Baird, director of music for the church.

* * *

The two children's choirs began their season Monday under the direction of Mrs. H. R. Thexler. Mrs. Edward Krem is the accompanist. Sunbeam choir for children through the third grade meets immediately after school.

The Junior choir, for children in grades 4-6 have their rehearsal following the Sunbeam choir. Membership in the two groups totaled approximately 60 last season.

A new choir for junior high youth meets for the first time Thursday at 6 p.m. at the church. Miss Baird will direct, assisted by Mrs. Bruce Andress as accompanist.

Adult choir meets for rehearsals at 8:30 p.m. each Wednesday.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM H. SHEPARD

Bright Colors Accent White Gown of Bride

MILFORD—Bright colors in her attendants' dresses complemented the white embroidered tulle wedding gown of Gaye Phillips as she recently spoke vows with William H. Shepard at Christ Lutheran Church in Waterford.

A softly-draped bertha collar and a ruffled apron gathered into a bustle were features of the gown. She wore long gauntlets pointed at her wrists, a Danish tiara with rhinestones and pearls, and an illusion veil. Loveknots hung from her rose bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, 85 Oxbow Lake Rd., while the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Marguerite Shepard.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Dale Helgemo of Pontiac, her sister, Loa Ann Phillips; and two cousins, Frances Phillips, and Debbie Worsham of Cincinnati, Ohio, as flower girl. Their street-length dresses were bright tones of red, blue, gold and purple, respectively.

Best man was Lloyd Gidley of Pontiac, and ushers were Dale Helgemo of Pontiac and Jerry Wern of Clarkston.

After a reception in the bride's home, the couple left for a Niagara Falls honeymoon. On their return, they will live in Berkley.

Farmington Area Seeks Petitioners

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Floyd A. Cairns, township clerk, reports that 30 new signatures have been added to petitions for a water system.

Cairns says persons living in the dry areas of the township who wish to join the proposed system, can now sign petitions at the township offices.

Last winter, Water Committee members circulating petitions obtained 1,048 signatures, but many property owners in the area were not contacted at that time.

Many persons were reluctant to sign special assessment petitions to obtain water from a system supplied by wells. Since that time, Detroit has agreed to supply the area with water, and the proposed system is to be financed on a revenue bond issue rather than a special assessment basis.

Sylvan and Edgefield Sewer Bids Asked

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Bids on the Sylvan Lake and Edgefield sewers will be opened Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. at the Waterford Township Hall, Supervisor Lloyd Anderson has announced.

The township board authorized the Johnson and Anderson Enginering Firm to advertise for the bids earlier this week.

Ask Bond Issue in New Hudson

Seek School Addition and Levy for Equipping New High School

NEW HUDSON—A bond issue of $225,000 will go to school electors of the New Hudson school district on Oct. 29, according to a recent resolution of the board of education.

The bonds would bring funds to build and equip a seven-room addition to the school, with architects fees included.

For a direct levy for the building and site fund, the board is also asking approval of a two and one-half mill tax for five years.

The revenue would replace the fund of about $30,000 which has been used over a two-year period out of operating funds to buy equipment and furnishings for the new high school, for constructing the driveway, and other items. It will also buy more furnishings and finance purchase of additional sites in areas where it seems certain additional building will be needed.

One course, "Methods of Teaching Reading in the Secondary Level," began Monday. It is taught by Eugene Guarino. More students may enroll when it meets again Monday.

Each of these courses is taught at Lincoln Junior High School one night a week from 7 to 10 and each carries three term credits of graduate or undergraduate credit.

MSU is expanding its off-campus courses throughout the state to provide educational services to the residents, Dr. Hatch said. The courses taught by the many different colleges on the MSU campus are coordinated thrugh the Continuing Education Service.

Further information may be obtained from the service, Dr. Hatch added, at Kellogg Center, Michigan State University, or from local school officers.

Carpet Sweepers Keep Right on Sweeping

NEW YORK (AP)—Guess what common household article, invented 80 years ago this week, is enjoying its greatest boom ever?

* * *

Well, sir, it's the old-fashioned carpet sweeper, now thoroughly glamorized.

"This should be the best year in history," said Melville R. Bissell III, 35, dominant manufacturer in the field. "World output may reach 3 million units this year and that figure may double by 1961."

* * *

An attack of hay fever led to the invention of the carpet sweeper, the biggest improvement in home cleaning since the first cavelady improvised a broom by gripping together a handful of twigs to brush the debris from her den.

The hay fever victim was Bissell's grandfather, Melville R. Bissel, 32-year-old owner of a crockery store in Grand Rapids, Mich.

* * *

"The crockery came packed in straw," recalled Bissell, "and the dust raised when they swept out the straw made Grandpa sneeze something awful. He decided he had to do something about it."

The result was the first practical carpet sweeper, patented Sept. 19, 1876, by the original Bissell, who soon began to manufacture it.

* * *

He died a few years later, however, and it was wife, Anna, who really put the carpet sweeper over. She hired a governess for her five children, took over the factory, remained in power in the industry until her death in 1934 at 88.

When the electric vacuum cleaner came along, everyone predicted it would do to the carpet sweeper what the auto did to the horse. But it no more hurt the sale of carpet sweepers than carpet sweepers did the market for brooms. Housewives still find they can use all three.

* * *

"We may have made a mistake in not going in for vacuum cleaners," admitted Bissel. "As a matter of fact we did, when they first came out. But the early vacuum cleaners required a lot of repairs. We were afraid a gadget that had to be fixed so often would ruin our reputation, so we dropped it.

"That's one of the troubles with carpet sweepers. They practically never wear out. People occasionally bring us one that is 50 to 60 years old and want us to rebuild it. Now we have adopted a policy not to tinker with any over 25 years old."

* * *

How far will a carpet sweeper go? Bissell said they put a pedometer on one in a hotel, and it was still wheeling along strong after 9,000 miles.

The first carpet sweepers were cumbersome affairs of wood and cast iron weighing up to 15 pounds and selling for $3 to $4. Today they are made of lighter metals, weigh about 7 pounds, can be adjusted to different rug thicknesses, have the wheels in the center so they can handle wall-to-wall carpeting, average $12.95.

* * *

Bissel dispatched one of his deluxe $19.95 models, designed as a wedding gift for brides, to Queen Elizabeth to help her "neat up" Buckingham Palace.

He is proud of the varied uses to which his granddad's invention has been put.

* * *

"Indian ladies have bought them to tidy their tepees," he said. "They've kept the White House clean under both Democratic and Republican administrations, and they've even been used on the St. Andrew's golf course in Scotland to fluff up the greens."

The carpet sweeper industry has never undergone a long depression, and Bissell sees a prosperous future for it as long as people use rugs.

* * *

"Maybe even longer," he remarked. "We're working on a new model now that'll sweep bare floors."

Medical Society Tea Held

Sponsored by Auxiliary to Area Unit

New Members Get Welcome at Annual County Affair

Pontiac Press Photos by Eddie Vanderwarp

More than 100 attended the tea sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. P. McConkie. Three new persons welcomed into membership were (left to right) Mrs. George Lechner of Thorpe street, Mrs. Joseph Brown of South Johnson avenue and Mrs. Roy Landry of Drayton Plains.

The annual membership tea sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. P. McConkie in Birmingham.

Chairman of the tea was Mrs. N. E. Durocher, with Mrs. A. J. Zujko as cochairman.

Serving on the committee were Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. C. P. Mehas, Mrs. Earle Spohn, Mrs. Arnold Brown, Mrs. Richard E. Olsen and Mrs. Vincent P. Russell.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg, Mrs. John P. Williams, Mrs. Ralph Fox, Mrs. Robert Segula, Mrs. Palmer Sutton, Mrs. Robert Baker, Mrs. Ivan A. LaCore, and Mrs. Spohn.

Mrs. Williams, president of the auxiliary, welcomed new members as they arrived for the affair.

Men Take Plunge!

The plunging neckline has jumped from the field of women's cocktail dresses into the area of men's undershirts. The latest style is a T-with-a-V-shirt — a T-shirt with an open neck that prevents the undergarment from showing under open-collared shirts.

Photographed as they talked over future activities of the auxiliary were (left to right) Mrs. M. G. Prosser of Orangegrove avenue, Mrs. J. P. McConkie of Birmingham, hostess to the group, and Mrs. John P. Williams of Commerce road, president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Dale Drew of Royal Oak, a new member of the Auxiliary to Oakland County Medical Society, was served refreshments by Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg of Watkins Lake. Mrs. VandenBerg is immediate past president of the auxiliary.

Chairman for the annual membership tea was Mrs. N. E. Durocher (right) of Old Orchard drive. She is photographed with Mrs. A. J. Zujko, of Illinois avenue, her cochairman.

Dean Makes Great Movies Before Death Ends Career

Temperamental, Brilliant, Unstable— He Sets Mark, Dies in Headon Crash

(This is the last of five articles on the life of the late actor James Dean.)

By JOSEPH R. MARSHALL
(INS Staff Writer)

The building of the James Dean myth was well under way by the end of the first few weeks that the young actor spent in Hollywood.

Professionals were talking about two things — Dean's attention-getting bad manners and temperament, and his tremendous talent. Actors, directors and executives crowded the "East of Eden" set to watch him work.

Before camera time, Dean would talk to himself, run around, jump, shadow box, wave his arms — "I try for relaxation before acting," he explained. He came to learn, in his words, "The camera doesn't let you get away with anything . . . very truthful medium."

He reacted to the spectators by temperamentally asking for a closed set. Kazan agreed.

Warner Brothers men whose job it was to engender his fame—and he was still unknown to the public—looked for a "Hollywood romance." Working nearby on "Silver Chalice" was the young Italian star Pier Angeli.

FELL IN LOVE

Dean's friends finally persuaded him to wander across the lot and meet her. That began perhaps his only love.

* * *

By this time, too, Warners realized they had a "hot" property. They signed Dean to make "Rebel Without a Cause" for $15,000.

They broke a long-standing rule by letting him live — with bongo drums, records and books —in the dressing room apartment once used by such stars as Bette Davis and Errol Flynn.

He went everywhere, when not working, with Pier Angeli. The costume department fitted him out as a matador and for hours she watched as he whirled his cape before imaginary bulls.

He had brought a horse, "Cisco," and the two often rode along the beach. Pier alone could persuade him to buy a few suits.

Other times he held late hour bongo-drum, beer or wine drinking parties at his apartment. The studio changed its mind about permitting him to live in. But when they moved his things, including a closet full of dirty pants and T-shirts, to an off-lot apartment, Dean ran from the set and threw himself on the bed. From under the sheet he took his money.

* * *

"East of Eden" was a sure hit. He went to New York for some television work and back to Hollywood to make "Rebel."

He had his drums, books of all kinds that he read voraciously, records — from Beethoven and Schoenberg to African chants — his horse, and now, with new earnings, he bought the $7,000 Porsche sports car in which he died.

He had mellowed only enough to give promise of future mellowing, still disdainful of journalists and press agents, still seeking attention. He was persuaded to talk with a few reporters, captivated a top woman columnist with boyish charm. Yet his friends were youngsters, not studio greats.

* * *

And hanging from the ceiling of his apartment was a hangman's noose.

Unfortunately, eccentric, T-shirted James Dean was not the kind of man an old fashioned mother would like for her daughter. He returned Pier Angeli home late one night.

Mrs. Pierangeli chastised him, remarking that such behavior is not permitted in Rome. Dean reportedly made a crack about, "When in Rome do as the Romans do, when in Hollywood . ." A few weeks later Pier Angeli announced her plans to marry crooner Vic Damone.

Dean stood sullenly watching the church from across the street. He said later, "I don't see how any woman could put up with me, now, anyway."

STARTED RACING

Within four months of the time he started auto racing, he won meets at Palm Springs and Bakersfield, Calif. Wilson Springer, Los Angeles sports car enthusiast said, "Everybody figured it was just a publicity stunt. But Dean went crazy. He went out front and left everybody. He was blasting . . . going like a bomb."

In "Rebel" Dean had portrayed a teenager. Release of the film made him the teenagers' idol. He seems to have felt his own kinship with the adolescent set, for he said, "That was the most harrowing picture I ever made."

His $100,000 agreement for the movie "Giant" stipulated no auto racing. On location in Texas he portrayed a cowhand grown millionaire, making the transition from a young man to a 50-year-old tycoon. He was nicer to people, and was always nice to children and fans who wanted autographs.

* * *

He studied music composition with his friend Lennie Rosenman, the guitar under Monte Hale, roping with former Texas cowboy Bob Hinkle. He took pictures with his own camera, asked questions of top men in the businesses.

BOUGHT HOME

Dean purchased a home in the San Fernando Valley. He went out with plenty of girls, mainly bit players, but refused to talk about them. He had put about 250 miles on the Porsche, driving around Hollywood during the final filming of "Giant."

As soon as the picture was completed and he was released from his contract, he set out for auto races at Salinas.

He was ticketed at 3:30 p.m. for speeding 65 miles an hour outside Bakersfield.

He stopped later at Blackwell's Corners for soft drinks.

CRASHED HEAD-ON

About 10 miles west of the Corners is an intersection. Donald Turnupseed was making a left turn. Dean smashed into him head on. That was 5:30.

Dean had averaged 75 miles an hour over the 150-mile route from Bakersfield. He must have hit 90 to 100 most of the time.

Almost every bone in his body was broken and he died quickly. Both the mechanic who was riding with Dean and the student recovered.

* * *

Dean, just 24 years old at death, was buried at Fairmount, Ind. But the legend of James Dean lives on.

Electrical outlets on a porch or patio should have metal coverings to protect them from damp weather and from the inquisitive hands of small children.

Mrs. Edward M. Gates (left) of Ortonville was photographed as she chatted with Mrs. Arnold L. Brown of Cooley Lake road. Mrs. Brown served on the committee for the tea.

Exercised One Day—No Results!

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I have been doing the exercise you put in the paper on June 15 but have not improved my legs. I have large knees and I cannot seem to develop the muscles below my knees. "Please tell me about some exercise to do which will not develop my knees but will develop my calves."

A. Your letter is dated June 16th. I am not a magician! Give me a little more than a day. Continue with the exercise of rising high on your toes and then slowly lowering the heels to the floor. This will increase the calf but not the knees. You should do this about 30 times morning and 30 at night each day. In a few weeks you will begin to notice a difference.

Rise high on the toes and then slowly lower the heels to the floor. This will increase the calf but not the knees.

Q. "I am 14 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall and weigh 113 pounds. My bust measures 32, waist 26½ inches and hips 32½ inches. Do you think I am underweight? If so, how much? Should my bust be larger than 32 inches?"

* * *

A. You are underweight, but only about five or six pounds. Your figure is normal for your age. Your bust will increase as you grow older.

Q. "Should I sleep in my bra?"

A. No.

BUILD PECTORAL MUSCLES

Q: "What do the pectoral muscles do for the bust? My bust is practically disappearing.

A. The pectoral muscles lie underneath the bust. Therefore when you develop the bust, your measurement increases. It is like wearing falsies underneath the bust instead of on top of it.

* * *

Q. "Does nursing one's baby have any adverse effect on one's bust?"

A. It often does. However, I know women who have nursed their children who have beautiful breasts. Always lie down when you nurse the baby and wear brassieres which are especially designed to support the increased weight.

Q. "I am 14 years old and had my first menstrual period over a year ago. I thought that once you begin this your skin clears up, but I still have some pimples and they are worse at that time of month."

* * *

A. The glands are very active all through adolescence. This is why teenagers often have skin trouble. The skin usually is oily at this age. Therefore it is important to wash your face several times a day with soap and water. Blackheads often lead to pimples. If the condition is severe see your physician or a skin specialist.

Work Free for Summer, Gain Experience

Student Volunteers Help Hospital

A total of 423 volunteer hours was accumulated this summer by high school students Charlotte Pankner and Janet Johnson.

The students worked for two months in the campaign office at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, assisting with the clerical work connected with a fund raising project.

Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Whitfield drive and Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pankner, also of Whitfield drive, began their volunteer work in response to an article in The Pontiac Press stating the need for workers in the campaign office.

The girls, both students at Waterford High School, expect to do secretarial work upon graduation. They took the summer job for experience in their field, working five days a week from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and often staying until the office closed at 5 p.m.

VARIED DUTIES

Their duties—the typing of pledge cards, checking on names, addresses and businesses by car, and the telephone contact with the public, afforded them the opportunity of learning correct office procedure and operation of various types of office machinery.

Mrs. Barbara Kinney, campaign supervisor, summed up her summer's work with the girls as "very enjoyable." Though neither girl had office experience, Mrs. Kinney felt they were willing workers and quick to learn the work and procedures.

"We are hoping others will follow suit and offer their time and talents," Mrs. Kinney said.

Other high school students contributing their time during the summer were Ann Barnett of Norton street, Shirley Conlan of Eileen drive, Susie Johnson of South Berkshire drive, Sally Lawlor, Chris Lewandowski and Sandra Wagner of Bloomfield Hills and Suzette Gagnier of Bloomfield Hills, now of South Carolina.

* * *

Several housewives also assisted with the work when they were able. Of the students, a number are planning to return next summer.

This fall low-priced furs, designwise, are just as attractive as the higher-priced furs. Car-coats to opera coats in moderately priced fur.

College girls who have not been too enthusiastic about owning a fur coat, will find the new three-quarter length can be worn for all occasions from campus to theatre and muskrat has the same styling as mink and sable for the first time.

Should Girl Let Friend Pay Fare?

Yes, Since Boy Is Taking Her on Trip to His Parents

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My boy friend invited me to spend the weekend at his house. His mother also wrote me to urge me to come with him. We will go together on the train.

"I believe that properly I should pay my own train fare, but how can I do this without embarrassing him when we are going together and he will no doubt go up to the ticket window to buy the tickets? Would it be better to let him buy both tickets and then give him the money afterwards, or just how is this handled?"

Answer: Under the circumstances you describe you may properly let him pay your fare.

"Dear Mrs. Post: "The other evening I, along with several other friends, was invited to another friend's house to play cards. After we finish playing the hostess usually serves coffee and cake.

"As it was getting close to midnight and the next day happened to be a fast day, I mentioned it to the hostess and suggested we have refreshments before 12 o'clock and finish the game afterwards. One of the girls hinted later that I was out of order to make such a request. I would very much like to know if I was wrong."

Answer: Taking it for granted you knew the hostess very well, it was quite all right.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Last evening I answered the telephone and the call was for my sister who happened to be out. I asked, "Who is calling?" The person at the other end said, "I'll call again," and refused to leave her name.

"I thought her reply very rude and in my opinion was the same as saying, "None of your business." Isn't it bad manners not to leave your name when asked, "Who is calling?"

Answer: Not necessarily. The name might have meant nothing to your sister.

16 Words, $100 Offer Challenge to Puzzle Fans

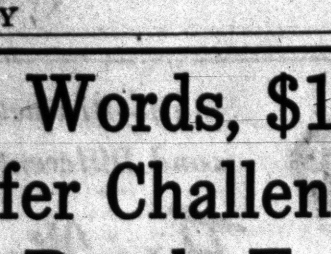

....If you feel sorry for old Pot-O-Gold, and would help it reduce its bulging waistline, pick up your pencil and earn yourself some money with the puzzle below. It's worth at least $100 plus worlds of fun and mental stimulation. Read the clues carefully and then take a good look at the rules before filling in the empty spaces. It can mean money in your pocket.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

Feathered Friends Find Protectors in City

New Yorkers Prove They're for the Birds

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — A bird becomes a wild, lost, crazy thing when his instinct for following his beak happens to land him in New York City.

• • •

There is little to interest him here — birds being notably indifferent to the theater and apathetic toward nightclubs. There are scarcely any trees for him to scratch his toenails on, little grass to nose around in, few neighborly birds to bat the breeze with.

The city people's crumbs are efficiently disposed of in great, chomping incinerators, and their worms are bought and horded for weekend fishing trips, so a bird naturally is faced with a food problem on top of everything else.

In fact, a bird is real foolish to come here at all, much as the Manhattan dweller loves to see him occasionally flipping around his rain troughs or perching thoughtfully on his fire plug.

• • •

And yet — because New York City is directly on a route called the "Atlantic Flyaway," running from Canada and New England to the Southern birdlands — they are all the time dropping in.

OFTEN MEET DEATH

Frequently, in dropping in, they have dropped over dead. Unaccustomed as they are to buildings that come as close to heaven as some in New York do, the winged lovelies go full speed ahead and dash themselves to death in a thrall of curiosity.

• • •

On one autumn day last year, a flock of more than 300 perished as a result of their frenzied attraction for the Empire State Building.

New York people proved this week that they are genuinely for the birds, in the strictest sense. They extinguished the stationary beacon light on the Empire State to prevent a repetition of this mad tragedy.

The National Audubon Society announced that the darkening of the top of New York's most famous landmark may save the fragile lives of hundreds of sparrows, thrushes, warblers, towhees, woodpeckers, woodcock and snipe who are winging down for the resort season.

• • •

We think this is proof positive of our long-held theory that New Yorkers, from bird watchers to girl watchers, are kind and sentimental and not as they are pictured by the more cynical deriders who hint that we not only live in concrete, but mold our hearts in it.

A deceased bird lying on 34th street in this city is more of a tragic figure than it would be in Centerville, Ohio. By the very rarity of it, by the smallness of it, by the big city hearts unaccustomed to fragility, it would be mourned.

• • •

A small, helpless bird, unable to cope with this most rigorous city in the world, gets a sympathetic and sensitive reception.

Young Lovers Given Roads for Romance

RETFORD, England (AP) — Maj. Gen. Sir John Whitaker has a fierce bushy mustache and a steely martial glint in his eye.

But he's got a soft heart for young lovers who on summer evenings wander through the secluded woodland paths of his 3,000-acre estate here.

When the Nottinghamshire County Council decided to open up three of the most romantic lanes on the estate as public rights of way, the general sounded the call to arms.

"Gad, sir, busy roads are no places for young sweethearts," he snorted as he filed official objection to the plan. "I used to like to find a quiet spot when I was courting. I don't blame sweethearts trying to get away from crowds."

"What a charming thought," commented Mrs. Joyce Hogg, chairman of the Town Council. "We will back the general against the County Council, and it is almost certain the paths will stay private."

By JACK HENDRICKSON

A very enthused group met in the school cafeteria after classes Tuesday to join the Pontiac High School Boosters Club which works to further school spirit.

The group sponsors all the banners displayed around the halls, aside from selling programs at the games, and working with the cheerleaders on the pep rally assemblies.

Principal Francis Staley was on hand to assist Donald McMillen, club advisor. Staley warned the group about "growing too fast." He stated that many clubs failed from trying too many big things at first.

Growing from fifteen last week to over a hundred this week made him "very proud," Staley concluded.

New officers of the group are: Carl Code, president, Barbara Monteith, vice president; Mary Cowan, secretary and Martha Cowan, treasurer.

The activities were planned. They include decorating the stadium and the school for Friday night's game. Dances after the football games and half time entertainment were also mentioned.

Dale C. Harris, PHS Band conductor, announced the band personnel this week.

Managers for this semester will be Richard Dembinski, William Scribner, Richard Lantz, and Joel Thome.

Lantz and Thome will also be band librarians along with Richard Bimm, Robert Wiles and Jery Crossman.

In charge of the equipment will be Robert Harroun, Roland Williams, Tom Osler, Richard Dembinski and Delmar Benson.

Playcrafters, with Mary Parrish advising, will stage their annual Children's Theater production in October.

Tryouts were held Tuesday and Wednesday for this year's play, "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves." The Children's Theater is sponsored by the Association for Childhood Education.

Matinees are scheduled for the children, and one evening performance on Oct. 18 for acults.

A regular debate class is now offered in Pontiac High, and there is an after-school session for those who cannot work it into their schedule. Advisor Walter Smith had over fifty join his club last year and hopes for more this season.

The debators will enter the Saginaw Valley Tournament about the middle of October. From November to January they will also be in four other tournaments.

This season's National Debate Question is "Resolved that the Federal Government should support the prices on major agricultural commodity at ninety per cent parity."

The Hi-Y spent their first week planning for their sales at the football games this year, and installing their new officers. They are: Ken Bogart, president; Ed Ketzler, vice president; Allen Higgins, secretary; Melvin White, treasurer.

Three Teachers Join St. Fred's

By MARGARET DRAKE

Students of St. Frederick High School welcomed three new faculty members this year. Sister Emily Joseph is in charge of the senior class; Sister Alexine, is junior class head and Sister Ann David is in charge of the freshman class.

Lay teachers Gene Wright and Chester Lichodziejewski returned this year and have conducted interesting discussions on various events and projects for the school year.

The busiest students around St. Frederick's this year are the seniors. The staff for the 1957 year book is being selected from their ranks, and the Dramatic Club is concentrating on them for the annual senior play.

Senior Ardith Green was elected captain of the cheerleading squad. Their class election also took place this week with Mike Malloy being the popular choice for senior president. Beverly Malinowski was vot vice president of the class, William Price, treasurer and Marjorie McHugh, secretary. And two seniors topped the election for Student Council.

Those named to serve the 1956-57 Student Council term are: president, Edwin Kast; vice president, Betty-Jo Fitzpatrick; treasurer, Martin Koenig; recording secretary, Marie Lewandowski; corresponding secretary, Ingrid Soderberg. Beginning Monday, the Student Council presides at the weekly assembly sessions.

Robert Ashby, a member of the graduating class of 1956 addressed the history class Monday. He is on furlough from Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Junior class elected Brian Dirker, president; Maureen Drake, vice president; James Devereaux, treasurer; Mary Duerr, secretary.

Junior Achievement activities get under way at St. Fred's this week with a record enrollment.

New Clubs Top News at Junior Highs

Officers were elected, clubs organized and the year's parties planned at the junior high schools in the area this week.

AT EASTERN

This week's activities at Eastern Junior High School centered around the organization of forty-two clubs.

One of the highlights of the week was a special 9A assembly on Wednesday welcoming the new 7B's to the school.

The program was opened with an introduction by Student Council President Judy Haroutunian. Karen Oxley, with the help of the 9A Vocal Music Class led in singing the school song, "Maroon and Gray." Vocal solos were sung by Sandra McDowell, Mike O'Berry, and Diane Myers. Margaret Cates and Susan Summerville gave a piano duet and Judy Haroutunian a piano solo.

Tuesday, homemaking classes enjoyed a cooking school put on by Joanne Frederick and Mrs. Marjory Burchuk of Consumers Power Company, Home Service Department.

AT ISAAC CRARY

The Service Club at Isaac E. Crary Junior High School began its year's activities this week.

Organized of 67 students chosen for their high standards of leadership, citizenship, academic achievement and personal grooming, the club members welcome and guide new students and school visitors.

AT MADISON

Madison students chose their one club activity this week.

Some of the clubs which students joined were the Bachelor's Club, a club for boys who want to learn to cook; Camera Club, Social Dancing Club, Games Club, Newspaper and Archery clubs and Girls and Boys Glee Clubs.

AT WASHINGTON

Sixty-seven hopeful boys turned out for positions on the Washington Junior High School football team. Seven of the group were returning lettermen.

Washington plays a five game schedule this year. On Sept. 26 they meet Lincoln Junior on the gridiron; Oct. 3, Rochester; Oct. 11, Eastern; Oct., 17, Jefferson and Oct. 25, Madison.

New ninth grade homeroom presidents elected this week at Washington include Sharon Young, Allan Campbell, Carol Cotterman, Robert Teague, Gary Bramble, Dick Jackson, Linda Dorris and Diane Pickford.

AT ROCHESTER

Monday morning for the first time in Rochester's history, a junior high school football team was organized.

School days are somewhat strange for Rochester students who only attend half days. Senior high students attend from 8 to 12 and junior high schoolers go to school from 12:15 to 4:45.

Waterford Football Team to Play Under New Lights

By SANDY WHITE

All eyes will be on the gridiron tonight when the Waterford Township High School Skippers go into action against Lapeer for the first home game to be played under the long-awaited football lights. Game time is 8 p.m.

Last year, Waterford students and faculty, alike, under the guidance of Student Council, put forth a tremendous amount of work and campaigning to secure the football lights.

By June of '56 the lights were erected in time for graduation exercises. A record crowd is expected this evening to view the game and to hear the dedication.

A special feature during half time will be presented by the combined forces of the Junior and Senior High School Band, under the direction of Bruce Orr.

To celebrate a hopeful victory, there will be a dance held in the gym directly after the game.

Yesterday, Student Council held its first meeting informally for purposes of organizing the business at hand. Student Council is composed of officers and representatives chosen from each of the 31 homerooms to represent the students.

This year's council officers are: Rodney Evans, president; Marlene Lazenby, vice president; Carol Soules, recording secretary; Jane Martini, corresponding secretary; and John Hetherington, treasurer.

Casting for the Dramatics Club play, "Divine Flora," to be presented Oct. 19 and 20, was made final this week. The leads include: Diana Craig, Ted Collom, Jerry Nelson and Virginia Valentine, supported by a large cast of sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Newly chosen officers for the Quill and Scroll Honorary Journalism Society are: Barbara Tallerday, president; Karla Stoddard, vice president; Margie Neubeck, secretary; and Marlene Noe, treasurer.

Their first main project is to publish and distribute programs for football and basketball games.

Varsity cheerleaders sponsored a roller skating and sock hop party at the Rolladium Monday. It was open to all students.

Football, Bands, Play Tryouts Lead Lists of Activity

Play tryouts, football games, the marching bands, clubs and a thousand other activities combined with classes to keep area high school students hopping during the past week.

AT AVONDALE

Top event at Avondale this week was the senior play tryout held yesterday. The play, "Books and Crooks," is scheduled Nov. 7, in the high school gym. Cast selection will be announced next week.

Avondale's marching band, which performed impressively at the St. Michael football game last Friday, is sporting five new majorettes this year. Marching behind leading majorette, Junior Nancy Riggle, are: Juniors Pat Jones and Beverly Strong; freshman Pat Spock, Nancy McReynolds and Star Linda Featherston. Nancy will be marching for her second year.

The football team, after its win over St. Mikes last Friday, travels to Troy this week for the first league game.

Activity cards will go on sale next week for the first time in the school's history. Following the plan laid out by the Student Council last year, the cards will cover all home athletic events, Student Council sponsored dances, the school paper and the yearbook. Cards will sell for $7 per year, and approximately 400 students have ordered cards.

Plans for Avondale's first homecoming celebration are being started this week. Homecoming will be observed Oct. 12, when the Yellow Jackets are host to the Roseville football squad.

The student body will elect a homecoming queen from among the junior and senior nominees, and the lucky lady will be honored in a half-time parade which will feature floats built by different groups.

Invitations are being sent to all alumni to join in the evening's festivities, which will be climaxed by a homecoming dance.

AT LAKE ORION

Plans for the year are being made in the eight clubs offered as extra curriculars at Orion. The Y Teens, Hi-Y; Camera Club, FTA, FHA, Pep Club and O Club all met for the first time this week and selected their representatives at the Youth Center and the Student Council.

Class elections determined these representatives for the nine through 12 grade group.

Queens from each of the top four grades are being elected to compete for the crown at the homecoming game and parade, Sept. 28.

Much secrecy surrounds the plans of various clubs and classes as they build their floats for the homecoming parade.

Encouraged by their victory over Clarkston the ticket sales for the game with Madison today are boosted. The Clarkston game was the best attended in the past two years.

The Planning Committee for the new High School PTA meets next Monday at 8 p.m. in the school study hall to complete plans for the first meeting in October.

AT ST. MARY'S

The Junior Class of St. Mary's Orchard Lake, held its first meeting of the 1956-57 scholastic year with the Rev. Francis Zdrodowski, moderator pro tempore.

Officers were chosen as follows: President, Eugene Cord; vice president, Karl Otto; secretary, Roy Selenske; treasurer, Gerard Peplowski; sergeant at arms, Dennis Mutrynowski; historian, Roy Selenske, sports manager, Art Goisdzinski; and mission representative, Edward Maciejewski.

Class ring sizes were taken by a representative of the jewelry company and the first Sunday in February was selected for the presentation of the rings.

A tentative project for the class is the cleaning of the campus grounds along Commerce road.

A convention for Student Council candidates was held by seniors at St. Mary's. Richard Oszustowicz, introduction chairman, and the Rev. Francis Zdrodowski, moderator, supervised.

* * *

Edward Krason was chosen permanent chairman and outlined the convention rules: 1. Convention is a Senior class meeting due to the gravity of it; 2. Roll call, 3. No limit for nominees, 4. Roll call before voting begins, 5. Two nominees with highest vote totals will be candidates. Rules apply for election of treasurer and secretary.

President Thomas Gardocki, secretary Casimir Krasowski, treasurer Thomas Bomber are new officers.

AT WALLED LAKE

"Have you signed a petition yet?" This is the question that has been heard in Walled Lake halls all week.

Campaign managers and their assistants were hustling to obtain enough signatures to meet today's deadline for filing petitions for class officers.

The Student Council reports its roster for this year is now complete. Jan McBroom and John Walker were elected secretary and treasurer at the first meeting. They join Laurie Passmore, president, and Bill Brown, vice president, who were elected by all classes last spring. Sponsor is Oliver Rose.

Other representatives of the senior class on the council are Barbara Baker, Jim Donovan, Marilyn Glowacke, George Havermahl, Wendall Power, and Mary Stuart.

Junior homerooms have selected as council members Kay Armstrong, Ann Churchill, Fran DeSormier, Ralph Goddard, Bill Hosley, Dennis McClelland, John Muth, Mary Anne Riley, Matthew Shoemaker, Larry Vander Velde, and Anne Weeks.

Getting acquainted with council procedure are the spohomores who are Carol Beneto, Sally Colins, Steve Campion, Judy Freeman, Janice Howland, George Kelsey, Eleanor McClure, Susan Merkle, Louann Pirtle, Rita Robertson, Bob Smith, Martha Thibideau, and Roberta Welch.

Slate Sockhop at SMH

By JUDY NIEDJELSKI

Students at St. Michael High are going to shed their shoes tonight long enough for a Sock Hop which is being sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization from 8:30 to 11.

There will be less dancing come next Friday's Freshman Welcome Dance. The "freshies" are already bowing in awe of the almighty seniors who are awaiting the evening to make them bosses for the night . . . The freshman dance!

Some 114 high schoolers attended the hayride at Hayride Lodge in Rochester a few weeks ago.

Between hayflights and hayrides there was dancing, ping pong, and shuffleboard to liven the party. Refreshments were plentiful to end the perfect evening.

St. Michael will have its first home game Sunday at Wisner Stadium when the Shamrocks match skill against St. Benedict.

John Ford Makes Plans to Direct Thriller Movie

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—My good friend John Ford confided that he reads on an average of three mystery stories a week, but he has never directed one of these thriller chillers.

Now, however, John feels the urge to bring to the screen as spine-tingling a film as Alfred Hitchcock ever made. He has chosen for his debut in the thriller field "The Judge and the Hangman," a German novel with a setting in Italy and Austria.

Who will play in this terror tale John says is up to Duke Wayne, who will be the producer. They have discussed it while they were doing "Wings of Eagles" and believe me, when John Ford comes out with him under mystery, it really will be something.

The very minute "The Little Hut" was finished in Rome, Ava Gardner took off for Spain accompanied by Italian actor Walter Chiari. They headed for Costabrava for a cruise with a party of friends.

Chiari, who is a very important actor in Spain and who is called a young Maurice Chevalier, accepted a very small role in "The Little Hut" just to be near Ava. He is the only man she is seeing, but somehow I can't feel this is "it."

A few other friends do not share my skepticism. Chiari is very handsome, 31 years old, and very much in love with the glamorous Ava. They met when she made "Barefoot Contessa" in Rome.

BOWS TO ROCK 'N' ROLL

If you can't beat 'em, join 'em seems to be Buddy Adler's idea in the rock 'n' roll department. He says it's not only sweeping the country here but it's beginning to sweep Europe, so 20th has signed Fats Domino and his rock 'n' roll orchestra.

This is the group that recently caused an audience in San Jose, Calif., to get so worked up they had to call out the riot squad while the orchestra sneaked out a side entrance.

The band will play in "Do Re Mi," and in keeping with Adler's orders there will be 16 rock 'n' roll numbers in the picture.

Elizabeth Taylor is taking her romance with Mike Todd so seriously that she is planning to rent a New York apartment, which will be her home between pictures in Hollywood.

Says Liz: "I felt so much freer to go places in New York than I do in Hollywood whereyouactually live in a goldfish bowl."

Come, come Elizabeth—I can't believe that you mean this seriously. With your beautiful home and your two children, why should you want to give up all this just on a moment's impulse?

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The Jack Lemmons will discuss a property settlement when Jack returns over the weekend. Too bad there seems no chance of a reconciliation.

Racquel Torres has been having dates with Jon Hall, but it's to talk about Racquel's return to show business.

Floyd Simmons, second to Bob Mathias in the Olympic decathlon competition for two straight years, will marry Shirley De Burch, 20-year-old English girl born in India, as soon as he returns from personal appearances with Esther Williams' "Unguarded Moment" for U-I.

The clamor of fans for Jeff Donnell to play George Gobel's wife will now start again. Jeff is not going back to the Gobel show this fall.

That wonderful little actor Michel Ray in "The Brave One" arrives in New York tomorrow on the Liberte for three months of personal appearance tours.

Rhonda Fleming and James Hill, of Hecht, Hill and Lancaster, are an every night twosome. They were at Sportsmen's Lodge with Rhonda's young son, Ken.

A citation goes to Bud Abbott and Lou Costello on Oct. 3 at a Washington, D. C., luncheon. It's presented to them for their many tours in connection with the payroll savings plan.

Mackinaw Backtracks, Drops Demand for Docks

MACKINAW CITY (AP) — The Mackinaw City Council has given up trying to get the state-owned Straits of Mackinaw ferry docks without paying for them.

The Council also withdrew its threat to forbid use of city approaches to the Straits bridge unless the state handed over the docks in 10 days.

Instead, the Council voted to ask the state for first chance in bidding for or leasing the docks when ferry service is abandoned next year.

A Name for the Baby —'Tis a Princely Problem

NEW YORK (INS) — Prince Rainier and his beautiful princess, the former Grace Kelly, still are playing the prospective parents' game of "What will we name the baby?"

* * *

A spokesman for Rainier said today "they change their minds every week. They pick some they like and then they decide they like some other name better.

Rainier and Grace get about a dozen letters a day suggesting names for the baby, due in February, "and read them all."

"The main problem is to pick a name that sounds good in both English and French," the spokesman pointed out. "Something like Louis or Marie, which are the same in both languages."

Rainier and Grace are considering family names, it was stated. These include Albert, Louis, Charlotte, Antoinette and Pierre in Rainier's family, and John, Margaret, Elizabeth, Ann, Walter and George in the Kelly clan.

"It's possible they'll use family names for the baby's middle names," the spokesman reported. "But to be honest, they're not really worrying about a name yet. They've got quite a while to go before it becomes important. Right now, they're just trying to have a little fun alone."

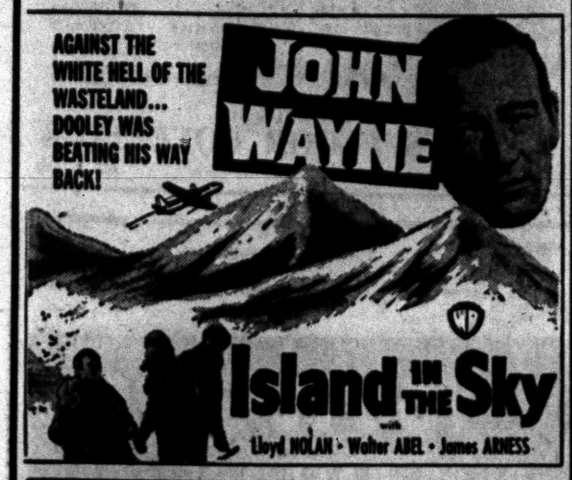

Hotel and restaurant keepers in Western-super-Mare, England, offered $140 to anyone who could explain a passage in the law relating to renting rooms. They said that it contradicted itself and the Ministry of Housing would not interpret it.

Adlai Will 'Make the Best' of Truman Support to Keep Peace in Dem Party

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON (INS) — Adlai Stevenson's top strategists have revealed that the Democratic presidential nominee has decided to "make the best of" former President Truman's sometimes damaging campaign efforts and will not attempt to muzzle him. He would prefer, however, that Truman "just go away."

* * *

Stevenson, in a series of secret huddles in Washington this week, has mapped a grueling speech-making schedule for himself and running mate Estes Kefauver that will break all previous records for mileage and personal appearances in a presidential race.

The candidate has decided to hold himself aloof from any campaign plans of Truman's, but has given the national committee a green light to okay whatever the former President may want to make.

The "new" Stevenson, emphatically the captain of his own team this year, has become convinced by his stiff primary fight with Kefauver that there is "no substitute for person-to-person, handshaking appearances" to woo voters.

WHISTLE STOP TOUR

Beginning around Oct. 1, Stevenson will hop aboard an old-fashioned, whistle-stopping train to address any and all comers at railway sidings in heavily populated areas of the east, New England, Pennsylvania, Ohio and the West Coast.

According to present plans, he will remain on the train for only two or three days at a time—breaking the long journey with airplane and motorcade junkets to widely scattered areas. This week marks his last breather until election, if he is able to stick to the back-breaking new schedule.

Adlai has told top advisers that he considers "Joe Smith" the luckiest break thus far in his campaign. He said the "slip" made by house GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin during the Republican convention "has enabled me to drive home to the American voter — without using the condescending term 'common man' — that the Democratic Party is the champion of the Joe Smiths of the Nation."

* * *

Private polls conducted by the Democratic national committee disclose that President Eisenhower is "still very popular," but an aide said Stevenson is counting on that popularity to be so "passive" that it will not reflect itself at the polls on election day.

Adlai's present strategy will be to identify Ike so closely with the Republicans that the superior voting strength of the Democratic Party can pay off in presidential votes for himself.

GOP Pays Up for Ike's Costs

National Committee Picks Up Tab for Trips, Food, All Expenses

WASHINGTON (INS)—The White House has announced that the Republican National Committee will repay the government for all of President Eisenhower's expenses while traveling as a political candidate.

The national committee made out a check for $5,071 to the U.S. Treasury yesterday to cover the cost of flying Eisenhower to Des Moines in his four-engined Super Constellation, the Columbine III.

White House News Secretary James C. Hagerty said all White House officials, from the President down, are billing their telephone calls to a special account when they are of a political nature. The calls are paid for by the national committee.

The White House aide disclosed that the party paid out $200 last week for the use of Army Signal Corps equipment when Eisenhower addressed a GOP rally at his Gettysburg farm.

The national committee will pay the expense bills in advance, whenever practicable. The cost of flying the Columbine is figured at the same per mileage rate charged for the chartered airliner used by newsmen on presidential trips.

An extra $50 was paid into the Columbine food fund to cover the cost of meals served the President and Mrs. Eisenhower and White House aides making the trip to Des Moines.

The national committee paid the government approximately $15,000 for the President's recent trip to San Francisco to accept a second term nomination. This covered both the flight in the Columbine and such travel items as hotel bills.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Musical director Edwin L. (Buddy) Cole's wife has divorced him, charging that Cole's previous wife dominates him. Mrs. Clare R. Bucs Stop Braves' Rise, 2-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Are the Braves breathin'?

Like a man with asthma.

They have to roll a seven to hold any real hope for the National League pennant. And after losing 2-1 to Pittsburgh in 10 innings yesterday, even winning all their seven remaining games won't guarantee a thing for the Braves—who have been able to win as many as three in a row only once in the last two weeks.

* * *

Even by winning all seven, Milwaukee can't gain as much as a tie for the pennant unless Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers lose two of their remaining nine. The Brooks, beginning to hear the jingle of another World Series payoff, have won nine of their last 11 and took a full game lead while idle yesterday.

* * *

Third-place Cincinnati, though mathematically "in" on the fight, is four games behind with only seven left to play.

The Braves' defeat at Pittsburgh had been a sword over their heads since August 30 in Milwaukee. That's when Bob Friend and Bob Buhl battled along to wind up in a 1-1 tie when rain fell with the Pirates at bat in the ninth. It was the Bucs' last visit in Milwaukee this season and so the re-play was set for Pittsburgh.

This time the Braves again had to battle from behind against Friend, who gave just four hits but almost missed his 16th victory when two errors on one play by first baseman Dale Long gave Milwaukee the tying run in the ninth. Then Roberto Clemente, an ex-Dodger farmhand, incidentally tagged reliefer Ray Crone for a two-out single Billy Bruton, just couldn't get to in center field and Bill Mazeroski scrambled home with the winner.

The only hits off Friend, winning his first since August 26 and defeating the Braves a third time this season, were fifth and 10th-inning singles by Johnny Logan, Hank Aaron's single and Bobby Thomson's double, both in the seventh. Logan's first single came with two out—after Friend had retired the first 14 men in order.

* * *

Buhl was in on this one, too. He gave up three hits, one Jack Shepard's seventh home run in the seventh, before being lifted for a pinch-hitter in the ninth.

Going into a four-game series at Pittsburgh tonight, the Dodgers now are 3-1 favorites to win the pennant. It's 8-1 the race won't end in a tie.

It's Sal Maglie (11-4 against Ron Kline (13-16) tonight with Sal seeking his seventh straight success and third in Brooklyn's current surge which has brought it to the top from a third-place, two-games behind deficit two weeks ago.

WARMING UP — Pitcher Bob Buhl of Milwaukee (left) and Bob Friend of Pittsburgh needed some extra warmth in yesterday's lone Major League baseball game at Pittsburgh. The temperature was 50-degrees, and it chilled the Braves chances to gain on Brooklyn as the Pirates took a 2-1 decision in 10 innings. Milwaukee is now one full game behind in the National League race.

Fight on Fat Making Gains at Colorado

Even Coach Peels Off Excess Weight in Reducing Drive

COLORADO SPRINGS (AP)—Robbie Robertson, coach of Colorado College's football team, is making progress in his campaign for players who are "mean and lean."

Seven players have peeled off big chunks of excess weight during twice-a-day practice.

Tackle Bill Smith of Telephone, Tex., tops the list with a reduction of 26 pounds down to 204. Another tackle, Bob Stevens of Oklahoma City, has dropped 20 pounds to 198.

Some other reductions: Sam Risk, Wayne, Pa., 187 to 172; Ralph Beard, Alta Vista, Va., 195 to 180; Bob Boge, Bloomington, Ill., 205 to 187, and Cecil Jackson, Durango, Colo., 200 to 184.

Robertson himself has joined the reducing parade. He went from 175 to 163.

THE POWERHOUSE

By Jimmy Powers

If the Dodgers win, it may turn out to be the cheapest pennant ever bought. They paid $12,500 to the Indians for Sal Maglie.

Certain heartsick Cleveland rooters suggest if there is a victory parade in Flatbush, a seat in the lead automobile be reserved for Hank Greenberg . . . Hank needs a little briefing on public relations.

★ ★ ★

At the Sigma Delta Chi luncheon, he downgraded Al Rosen, a good competitor and a loyal team man who was painfully injured while hustling on the base paths. Hank said the Ohio fans were down on Rosen and this hurt the player's effectiveness in his new home.

It's just not good business to blast a product before you go out on the road to peddle it.

A quiet deal backstage would have been better for Rosen, Hank and the Indians . . . Larry MacPhail unquestionably is one of the best all-around promoters in sports.

He has a keen business mind, too, and was quick to realize that only in capital gains can a man make any important money these days.

Larry kept 75 per cent of his tremendous profit on the Yankees. Tax wise he is smart in selling his breeding farm. Belair is also on the market and there are reports of another big Blue Grass property shortly to post a For Sale sign.

MAGLIE A GOOD CHOICE

Here is a solid vote for Sal Maglie as Most Valuable Player. Sal wins it in my book not only for his clutch—which subtracted from the team total would leave the Dodgers sadly out of contention—but mainly for his inspirational quality.

Sal, more than any other Dodger, appears to have that magnetic drive which stimulates and improves all players down to the lowliest utility man.

Jake Mintz wired "my humble apologies" but was still slapped with a suspension and a $100 fine by the Washington Boxing Commission for taking a quick peek at the ballots before Jimmy Lake, the 77-year-old announcer, had a chance to clear his throat and announce it.

I went into the dressing room and asked Jake why he did it . . . 'I just couldn't stand the suspense. I have a bad ticker."

"It floored me in Comiskey Park the night Charles fought there. These fellows take so long to add up two simple columns of figures. Everyone stands around and muscles into the TV spotlight, the judges, the commission deputies, the assistant deputies."

★ ★ ★

"They add once, then they add again, then they confer some more. I felt I was going to blow a gasket. I did wrong. I said: 'Let's see who won. My heart's racing like a runaway sewing machine!' It was a close fight. I was excited. What's the use of being in a business unless you can get excited about it?"

Wildcats Seek to Topple Tech

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky which twice in three games trampled Georgia Tech to enrich Wildcat football stock, primed its charge today for a possibe spoiler role against the favored Engineers.

* * *

A darkhorse in Southeastern Conference evaluations, Kentucky opens tomorrow against Tech, No. 4 nationally in The Associated Press pre-season poll and choice to capture the SEC title. The nationally televised duel, NBC at Lexington is scheduled for 2:30 p.m., EST.

* * *

Kentucky, in its top effort two seasons ago, pulled a 13-6 upset that derailed Tech's possible tie or the league title and turned the Wildcats' so-so record into a winning season. In 1950, Kentucky captured its only conference championship and a 28-14 victory over Tech was a vital ingredient.

Open Series With Tribe

Tigers Bid for Fourth

DETROIT (AP) — With ears cocked for a New York - Boston score, the Detroit Tigers enter a nine-game stretch drive tonight that may bring them a fourth, third, or even second - place American League finish.

* * *

The Tigers begin their battle in Briggs Stadium by throwing Billy Hoeft against the second - place Cleveland Indians and Early Wynn. Both Hoeft and Wynn are after their 19th victories.

It's the beginning of a three game series with the Indians which will be followed with another homestand against the third-place Chicago White Sox and then a final three games against Cleveland in Cleveland.

If the Tigers could win all nine games, their chances of finishing second in the league to the New York Yankees would be good.

* * *

The Tigers could move within half a game of the upper division by defeating Cleveland tonight with help from the Yankees against Boston.

By winning all of their remaining games with Cleveland, the Tigers could leave the Indians with at least 69 losses. By defeating Chicago, the Tigers could leave the White Sox with 68 losses at the season's ending.

Since the Tigers also have 68 losses now, Chicago and Detroit could be deadlocked for second place with 86 victories and 68 losses.

A month ago, the idea would have been ridiculous but the Tigers have won 12 of their last 13 starts and in the past month have won 23 games and lost seven.

Now Hoeft and Frank Lary are pushing on toward 20 victories and Paul Foytack is beginning to live up to expectations.

Pick Travelers in Saturday Test

Game - Type Drill to Settle on Squad for Stanford Opener

EAST LANSING (AP) — A final, game - condition scrimmage in Macklin Stadium Saturday will help decide who gets the plane tickets for Michigan State's football opener with Stanford—just a week away.

Big Ten rules limit the traveling squad to 38 players and more than 80 still are slugging it out for spots on the Spartan roster.

Also under the conference rules the training table will be cut back to 55 players as of Monday. That means the rest will have to buy their own meals.

The intra-squad afternoon showdown will be played under strict game conditions. Kickoffs and extra points will be added and referees will be policing every play.

Coaches will take movies of the performance to help decisions on the 38-man traveling squad, the equivalent of three elevens with five extras.

Dispute Threatens to Hit Olympic TV, Film Coverage

NEW YORK (AP)—Unless current difficulties are ironed out, there may be no television or newsreel coverage of the Olympic Games in Australia from Nov. 22 to Dec.8.

American, British, Canadian and European television networks and newsreel companies said yesterday it will be "impossible" to cover the 1956 games at Melbourne in view of restrictions imposed by the Australian Olympic Committee.

* * *

Paul Talbot of New York, agent for commercial handling of films of the games, replied that the games would be open to all accredited TV and newsreel organizations.

* * *

Olympic officials in Australia termed the stalemate a "boycott" of the event.

TV and newsreel spokesmen say the Australians will allow only three minutes of daily coverage, whereas at least nine minutes of time had been sought. The spokesmen also assert they will not have a free hand in editing the material for showing throughout the world.

Talbot, in a statement yesterday, said:

* * *

"What it boils down to is—is it freedom of the press if you use nine minutes a day or is it not freedom of the press if you can use only three minutes."

Talbot said the coverage "is open to all accredited newsreel and television newsreel organizations for filming by these organizations' own cameramen, using their own editorial discretion and without payment of any kind."

All the organizations have formed a pool to cover the Olympics. They contend their agreement calls for three-minute maximum coverage of any single event but that the total should be nine minutes daily.

Pace Is Rated UM's Speediest

Triple - Threater Has Old Grads Talking in Ann Arbor Drills

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan coaches acclaim halfback Jim Pace as the fastest man on the squad and most likely in the Big Ten.

The junior tailback from Little Rock, Ark., is one of those football rarities—a genuine triple threat. Pace can pass and he can kick. But it's his shifty breakaway dashes that produce most of the murmuring from the old grads lining the field during practice.

Time after time in scrimmage, they see him pile into the line, his legs churning and suddenly he explodes into the secondary and he's off.

What his backfield coach Don Robinson likes about him most is his attitude. "He's working all the time to improve himself," his coach reports.

Oosterbaan's reluctance to use Pace regularly last year was explained by his feeling that the young Arkansan was lacking in defensive know-how. This year, Pace is playing behind Bob Ptacek, a sophonore from Cleveland, and Pace is one of Ptacek's biggest boosters.

Miss Gunderson in Quarter-Finals

17-Year-Old Continues Title Bid

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—All former winners, including 1955 champion Pat Lesser of Seattle, were missing today in the semifinals of the Women's National Amateur Golf Championship, but Washington State still had two battling teenagers in the field.

Jo Anne Gunderson, 17-year-old Viking from Seattle, met 34-year-old Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone, former professional and four-time Iowa state champion, in the first quarter-final match.

Jeanne Quast, 19-year-old University of Washington sophomore and Western Amateur champion, was matched against 22-year-old Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, Ont., American intercollegiate, Canadian Open and former British titlist.

Miss Gunderson made the shot of the day yesterday in the quarterfinals match she won, 2 and 1, from Mrs. Helen Sigel Wilson of Philadelphia, 1949 Western champion. After driving into the rough on the 420-yard 13th, Jo Anne banged a 4-wood shot over a pond and chipped in from a measured 65 feet for an eagle.

The tireless, nerveless junior champion was even with par for the 73 holes she had played. She's the youngest player to reach the quarter-finals since Marlene Bauer in 1949.

Miss Quast was eliminated in this tourney when she was 15 years old, by Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex. She paid back Polly yesterday in the quarter-finals, 2 and 1.

With Miss Riley's defeat, the semifinals lacked a Curtis Cup team member as well as a former champion.

Miss Gunderson beat Mrs. Philip Cudone of Montclair, N.J., in the fourth round, 4 and 3, with 2-under par golf.

Wanda Sanches of Baton Rouge, La., amateur division winner of the Tam O'Shanter "All-American" Tourney, evened her quarter-finals match with Miss Stewart after being 2 down at the turn, only to take four putts on the long, narrow 17th green.

Miss Stewart and Miss Gunderson had the best nine holes scores of the quarterfinals, 1-under-par 35s.

Afternoon sunshine warmed up the 6,340-yard, par 74 Meridian Hills course after a chilly morning in which 1951 champion Dot Kirby of Atlanta and 1955 runner-up Jane Nelson of Indianapolis were eliminated.

Mrs. Wilson defeated Mrs. Kirby 5 and 4, and Miss Sanches Eliminated Miss Nelson, 3 and 2.

In other fourth-round matches, Polly Riley defeated Mrs. John Pennington of Buffalo, N.Y., 1 up; Mrs. Johnstone eliminated Miss Leona of West Chicago, Ill., 3 and 1 and Mrs. William Hartson of San Francisco defeated 17-year-old Clifford Ann Creed, Western Junior champion from Opelousas, La., 3 and 1.

60,000 Fans to See Bear, Brown Battle

CHICAGO (AP)—More than 60,000 fans are expected to turn out at Soldier Field tonight to watch the undefeated Chicago Bears meet the 1955 National Football League championship Cleveland Browns in the 11th annual armed forces benefit game.

Bears will be trying for their 6th straight pre-season victory.

Browns have dropped five straight exhibitions since their 26-0 victory over the College All-Stars at Soldier Field Aug. 10.

Dozen Teams Remain in Softball Series

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A dozen of the original 23 teams in the Amateur Softball Assn.'s World Series were still in the running today.

Last year's champs, the Raybestos Cardinals of Stratford, Conn., haven't been defeated. Neither have last year's runners-up and the 1954 titlists, the Clearwater, Fla., Bombers.

Bill Simpson, chairman of the board of Raybestos Manufacturing Co., Bridgeport, Conn., enlivened things yesterday by demanding that the Redwood City, Calif., merchants be tossed out of the association.

Coast Guard Units Search for Baltimore Bonus Star

BALTIMORE (AP)—Air-sea rescue units today joined an extensive search for Tommy Gastall, Baltimore Oriole bonus catcher, who radioed late yesterday he was in distress on a solo airplane flight from Harbor Field here.

* * *

The 23-year-old former Boston University three-sport star was last heard from at 6:21 p.m., EDT. He had taken off alone about 90 minutes before with fuel enough for five hours of flying.

When he contacted the tower he got across to the operator that he was in serious trouble.

* * *

"The static and interference from other speakers was bad," Control Tower Operator James J. Wellner said, "but I thought I heard the word 'fire' and he said "I'm going into the water.'"

"I tried to get his position," Wellner added, "but he either did not know it or was too excited to give it."

Two 40-foot patrol vessels of the Coast Guard searched without success.

* * *

Pilots of two airplanes which joined the search saw what they thought might have been signs of a crash. One reported an oil slick about four miles south of Sparrow Point and about 10 miles south of Harbor Field.

Another pilot saw what he said he thought was an airplane seat cushion. Both pilots reported rough water made definite identification difficult.

* * *

Coast Guard vessels sent to check found nothing.

Gastall, a native of Fall River, Mass., was one of the most sought after college athletes when he signed with the Baltimore Orioles June 20, 1955, reportedly for a bonus of $40,000.

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Ellis (Cot) Deal, Rochester's prime playoff pitcher, confronts Toronto's Eddie Blake tonight as each team tries to nail a 2-1 lead in the International League's Governor's Cup playoff final.

Rain postponed the third game in the best-of-seven series last night. Rochester, last year's cup winner by way of a four-game sweep over the Maple Leafs, squared the current series at a game apiece by winning 6-4 in 13 innings at Toronto Tuesday night.

Yanks Buy Pitcher From Montana Club

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—The New York Yankees have purchased pitcher Clay Bryant Jr., Missoula General Manager Nick Mariana announced yesterday.

The 21-year-old Bryant won 12 and lost 11 for the Missoula Timberjacks in the Class C Pioneer League this season. He had an earned run average of 3.6 and starred in several extra-inning games.

The Cincinnati Redlegs believe they have the best home run attack in baseball in Ted Kluszewski, Frank Robinson, Ed Bailey, Gus Bell, Wally Post and Ray Jablonski.

Prep Gridders in Full Swing

By BILL CORNWELL

High school football throughout the Oakland County area swings into its second round today, with a host of stellar attractions helping to increase the tempo of action.

Among today's headline offerings are the traditional Cranbrook-Birmingham battle on the Maple field, Lapeer's invasion of Waterford, Walled Lake's visit to West Bloomfield and the Bloomfield Hills—A. E. Smith game at Bloomfield.

Also highlighting the grid menu will be Avondale's trip to Troy this afternoon and tonight's Lake Orion-Madison struggle at Lake Orion as the Oakland B League race gets underway.

The Wayne-Oakland title chase begins tonight, with Milford entertaining defending champion Clarenceville and Clarkston journeying to Brighton.

Falcons will be fighting it out on both sides of the line when Farmington faces Gene Konley's Rochester squad at Farmington. The host school should prove a tough customer for Rochester after last Friday's 13-0 upending of Clarenceville.

The Romeo Bulldogs, whose offense sputtered to a 12-6 win over Richmond last week, hope their attack shifts into higher gear when they go to Fraser.

The annual rivalry between Birmingham and Cranbrook will resume for the 14th time since 1928 in what is expected to be another offensive affair.

* * *

Ortonville, which sparkled offensively but displayed a sluggish defense during its hectic 27-26 triumph over Goodrich a week ago, tackles Hartland at home.

Imlay City's veteran team is expected to breeze past Capac, while Oxford, which blew its season opener against Milford in the last minute of play, should be at least an even match for visiting North Branch in a South Central Conference game.

The race for honors in the Southern Thumb opens tonight, with Dryden traveling to Brown City for the most important league meeting. Dryden showed a well-balanced attack last week in its easy 34-0 disposal of Flint Hoover.

Southfield's impressive victory over Birmingham last Friday makes it a prohibitive choice to repulse Notre Dame of Harper Woods, while Berkley warily awaits the arrival of upstate Alpena.

In other games, East Detroit's powerhouse invades Roseville and Royal Oak starts its 1956 season at Hazel Park.

GO BY AIR — West Bloomfield will pin its chances of upsetting Walled Lake tonight on the throwing arms of its two quarterbacks Larry Hollister (left) and John Lucadam. The Lakers lost the opener to Waterford with Lucadam throwing for two touchdowns and Hollister scoring the other.

Open Home Season Tonight

Chiefs Seek 2nd Win

By H. GUY MOATS

Everything, including the weather, was promising today for the first home football game of the season for Pontiac's prep Chiefs.

There's promise of a really red-hot gridiron battle on the turf of Wisner Stadium, starting at 8 o'clock. Lansing Sexton, coached by a former Michigan State University line star who took over this fall, renews its long-time friendly gridiron rivalry after a lapse of two years.

Carl (Buck) Nystrom's Big Reds hope to reverse the decision of the last meeting, in Lansing, when Ed Graybiel's eleven bumped the Big Red club 26-6.

Nystrom has effected a general line shuffle for this test, after his team lost its opener a week ago. He's hoping for his 1st win.

Chiefs will shoot for their 2nd victory, to add to that compiled at Wyandotte last weekend (39-7).

And they are a confident, top-conditioned crew, according to their coaches.

There are still plenty of good seats, although faculty manager Herb Sanford said this morning he expected a "full house". All of Section D, in the west stands is gone. Student Union ticket sales were heavy and only Section C on the Cass avenue side remains. These seats will be on sale only at the stadium, beginning at 4 p.m. at regular ticket windows.

Only change in Chiefs' starters from last week is the previously announced assignment at fullback for Lessie Watkins. Jimmy Shorter was definitely named today for the starting quarterback post, but Graybiel said this morning that Dick Whitmer, 180-pound No. 1 signal-caller who missed the opening game because of illness, would be in the game tonight.

"These boys are willing, eager to play," said Graybiel, "and they have the confidence growing out of their win over a reputedly bigger Wyandotte outfit. They've got a lot of spirit."

* * *

A special pep meeting was held at the 3rd period in the school assembly room today, with both players and coaches taking part. A special half-time program will mark the 1st appearance of the fine PHS band for the season.

In other games this weekend, involving Saginaw Valley schools Flint Central will be at Muskegon High; Muskegon Heights will play at Bay City Central; Midland is at Arthur Hill; Grand Rapids Union at Flint Northern and Bay City Handy is at Saginaw High. The Midland-Arthur Hill tilt is a Saturday engagement, all others scheduled for tonight.

NEW YORK (AP) — A total of $32,415 in prizes for 124 events and 23 championships will feature the 68th National Horse Show, Oct. 30-Nov. 6 at Madison Square Garden.

The U. S. equestrian team will compete against Canada, Ireland, Mexico and Chile.

Schmidt Former Fullback

DETROIT (AP) — Joe Schmidt, captain of the Detroit Lions and one of the National Football League's better linebackers, was a fullback in his college days at Pittsburgh before two-platoon football brought him honors as a defensive specialist.

ST. PAUL—Minnesota's fish harvest averages 80 pounds per acre of water in lakes and streams. The total annual catch is estimated at 20 million pounds.

Eaglets Open Against Rams; Mikes Meet Bens

The battle for championship honors in the Suburban Catholic League gets under way this weekend, with all eight member schools swinging into action.

Headlining the four-game card will be Saturday night's struggle between St. Frederick and Orchard Lake St. Mary and the St. Michael-Highland Park St. Benedict clash Sunday afternoon. Wisner Stadium is the scene of both games.

Father John Rakocsy's Eaglets, who swept through everything in sight a year ago, open defense of their SCL crown tomorrow night and inaugurate their 1956 season at the same time.

It's a new season for the Eaglets, but they still have some of the old look for the coming campaign. Strongly favored to repeat as league champs, the Orchard Lake squad will confront St. Fred with a largely veteran lineup.

Leading the Eaglet attack will be halfback Paul Franckowiak, a dangerous runner. The starting forward wall will average 190 pounds, headed by end Pete Madelans, a talented pass receiver, and tackle Tom Gardocki.

Four returning regulars will see action for St. Benedict when the Ravens tangle with St. Mike Sunday at 2:30.

The lone holdover in the backfield is Larry Gacki, a touchdown threat from any spot on the field. End Art Clark, who saw some service at quarterback last year, tackle Francis Zoch and guard Mike Gendich are the other returning starters.

In remaining SCL attractions, Royal Oak St. Mary meets Hazel Park St. Rita at Royal Oak and Ferndale St. James goes to Center Line St. Clement, both on Sunday.

The Knights of Shrine face Detroit St. Gregory this Sunday at Royal Oak in another parochial contest.

Gary Is Lightest Penn Freshman

Former Cranbrook athletic star George Gary is a member of the University of Pennsylvania freshman football squad. George is a husky, 180-pounder. But he's the lightest player on the Quaker 1st year roster, according to word his dad, George, 17 Prall street received the other day from Philadelphia. Gary is enrolled in the liberal arts college.

Young Gary, who won four baseball, three football letters and one cage letter at the Bloomfield Hills school, became a Quaker freshman a week ago, on a ROTC scholarship. He immediately went out for the frosh grid team.

Baseball is his top sport, however, and Gary has had offers from a half dozen pro outfits, with the Chi Cubs the most interested. He is a catcher. However, Gary says his education comes first.

2 Pontiac Race Drivers in 100-Lap Hardtop Test

DETROIT—One of the classic auto races of the season will be staged Saturday night when Promoter Andy Barto holds his annual 100-lap hardtop championship feature at Motor City Speedway.

Mickey Katlin, defending his 1955 championship, is the pre-race favorite.

Such drivers as Joy Fair and Rusty Kelley of Pontiac, Roger Vroman of Wyandotte; Jack Goodwin, Roger Yates and George Cooper of Detroit; Lloyd Wismer of Richmond; Bill Kourt of Brighton and Leon Blachura of Royal Oak will be in the lineup.

Puerto Rico Open Golf

SAN JUAN, P. R. (AP) — The Puerto Rico Golf Assn. will hold an open golf tournament at the Berwind Country Club. It will be a four-day event beginning Jan. 31.

Lions Obtain Seven Bonus, Draft Picks

DETROIT (AP) — Seven members of the 1956 Detroit Lions were either No. 1 college draft choices or National Football League bonus selections.

Bobby Layne was the Chicago Bears' No. 1 choice in 1948 and he's now with the Lions. Jug Girard was Green Bay's No. 1 pick in 1948 and Harry Gilmer was the bonus pick of the Washington Redskins the same year.

In 1950 Detroit made Leon Hart of Notre Dame its No. 1 choice; Harley Sewell was No. 1 in 1953; Dave Middleton was No. 1 in 1955, and last year it was Howard (Hopalong) Cassady of Ohio State.

Tangle With Marquette Tomorrow

Titans Favored in Opener

DETROIT (AP)—The University of Detroit and Marquette will depend heavily on untested youngsters when they kick off their 1956 football season tomorrow at U. of D Stadium before an expected crowd of 20,000.

The Titans will be slight favorites to make it two straight over the Warriors, who will be playing for the first time under head coach Johnny Druze.

* * *

With only 54 candidates remaining of the 105 who reported in the spring, Druze reports his squad has no speed, no depth and no experience. Thirty-two members of the club have had no previous varsity experience, and only 10 of them are monogram winners.

One of the midwest's leading ground gainers of 1955, halfback Lee Hermsen, again will lead the Warrior offensive. The 185-pound senior led his team in nearly every department last season.

Sophomore Johnny Cornell, a former Wisconsin prep star, probably will run the split-T system Druze installed at Marquette. A 185-pounder, Cornell is a hard runner and a good passer.

The Detroit squad, coached by Wally Fromhart, has suffered several setbacks in injuries and also must string along with several sophomores. One of them, service returnee Steve Piskach, will start at quarterback.

The Titans, who posted a 5-3-1 mark last season and tied fo rthe Missouri valley conference title, will go with untested performers at two other backfield posts. Only halfback Billy Russell was a letter-winner last season.

* * *

If he recovers in time from a hip bruise that has kept him out of contact work for nearly 10 days, little Bill Dando will get the nod at one of the halbacks. The 185-pound sophomore speedster from Ashland, Pa., is another ex-Marine.

A doubtful starter is Detroit's ace pass receiving and Perry Richards who was out this week with the flue.

The Detroit-Marquette rivalry dates back to 1920 and since that time Marquette has won 12 contest and Detroit nine. Two games ended in ties.

ON DOUBTFUL LIST — Top pass receiver Perry Richards is listed as a doubtful starter for the University of Detroit when the Titans meet Marquette tomorrow afternoon in the season opener. Richards was stricken with the flu this week.

Featherweights Battle Tonight

Berrios - Chestnut Bout on TV Launches Boxing Season in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Featherweight contenders Miguel Berrios and Ike Chestnut launch Detroit's fall fight season at Olympia Stadium tonight in a nationally televised 10-rounder.

* * *

Both are confident of the outcome. Each is gunning for a knockout.

Berrios, a crowding 5-foot-2 Puerto Rican, currently ranks sixth among the 126-pounders. Chestnut, a New Yorker, is ninth.

Although Chestnut enjoys a 3-inch height advantage and a correspondingly longer reach, the bout shapes up as a take-your-choice affair.

* * *

Berrios is fast and strong. He has a thick chest that suggests he can throw a stiff punch. He likes to work inside with hook combinations.

There over-all records are: Berrios, 18-6; Chestnut, 22-5-3.

The bout will be televised, NBC at 9 p.m. EST. Michigan scores on the point system.

Mystery Hangs Over UCLA 11 for First Game

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 1956 college football season opens here tonight on a note of mystery as the defending Pacific Coast Conference champion Bruins of UCLA tangle with Utah from the Skyline Conference.

The mystery concerns the strength, or lack of strength, of the Bruins, a team well stripped of experienced men, in the summer purity purge of the PCC.

The other question is whether Coach Jack Curtice's Redskins from Salt Lake City are still good enough to lower the boom on the crippled Bruins.

The teams have met only once before, in 1933, and UCLA won, 22-0.

LOS ANGELES—Tombstone Smith, 146¼, Los Angeles, outpointed Dave Johnson, 146¼, San Francisco, 12.

Milwaukee Isn't Alone

Dodgers Next for Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Bobby Bragan promises his Pittsburgh Pirates will feed Brooklyn some of the same bitter medicine that dropped Milwaukee one full game off the National League pace.

* * *

"We're ready to give Brooklyn more of the same," said Bragan after yesterday's exciting 2-1 victory over the Braves in 10 innings. "We ought to beat them at least three out of the seven games."

* * *

Ronnie Kline faces Sal Maglie in tonight's Forbes Field opener of a four-game series here. The Pirates will folow with Vern Law against Carl Erskine or Roger Craig Saturday afternoon.

* * *

In the Sunday game, which will be watched by a sellout crowd of 35,000 plus on "Gift Day", Bragan will call on the veteran Red Munger to face Don Newcombe, the Dodgers' 25-game winner. The Pirate pitcher Monday night will be Bob Friend who beat Milwaukee yesterday with a magnificent four-hitter. The Dodgers aren't set for a Monday pitcher.

* * *

The Pirates hold the key to the pennant race. Brooklyn must play them in seven of its remaining games, including the final three next weekend in Brooklyn. The Dodgers' other games are at home with Philadelphia Tuesday and Wednesday.

Harrier Schedule Nearing Completion

With eight matches already settled, and several more in sight, Pontiac High School's cross country squad is assured an active season against good competition.

"I'm now trying to line up a match with Livonia Bentley for the last of October, and also hope to get one with Royal Oak, as well," says Mike Andonian, new Chief harrier mentor.. Big event here is the Valley meet, Oct. 18 at Beaudette Park.

* * *

Chiefs have run once, a practice test with Waterford earlier this week. Wyandotte's squad comes to Beaudette park next week (Sept. 27) and the first Saginaw Valley run is set for Oct. 9 at Flint Central.

Present schedule:

Sept. 27—Wyandotte here; Oct. 2 at Birmingham; Oct. 9 at Flint Central; Oct. 12 at Flint Northern; Oct. 18 SVC meet here; Oct. 20 Albion invitational at Albion; Oct. 27 MHSAA regionals at Trenton; Nov. 3 MHSAA meet at Ypsilanti.

NEW YORK (AP) — With 19 seasons of baseball, plus three years in the service, behind him, 40-year-old Enos Slaughter of the New York Yankees is looking into the future.

"I'll bet all my stuff hasn't been together in 15 years," says Slaughter. "There's some in St. Louis, some in Bellville, Ill., some at my mother's place in North Carolina and some in Kansas City."

"One of these days I'll build a place in North Carolina on the farm I own and put all my stuff there."

Major College 11's to Start

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Whether the nerve-numbing National League pennant race needs—or wants—company, college football bounces into the sports scene Saturday with its first major program of the new season.

* * *

Actualy the busy weekend gets underway tonight with Utah at UCLA. Then no less than six teams listed among the top 10 in preseason estimates will be in action Saturday, among them Notre Dame and Georgia Tech, Nos. 3 and 4, respectively, in The Associated Press' poll.

* * *

Notre Dame, with few veterans but a usual number of eager sophomores, meets Southern Methodist in a night game at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Georgia Tech's experienced squad plays an afternoon game against Kentucky at Lexington in the television game of the day, NBC 2:30 p.m., EST.

* * *

Notre Dame is rated a 13-point favorite over SMU, Tech 7½ over Kentucky.

Others of the anticipated elite making their season's debuts will be sixth-ranked Maryland against Syracuse at College Park, Md.; Texas Christian, No. 7, against Kansas at Lawrence, Kan.; Paul Bryant's ninth-ranked Texas Aggies entertaining Villanova at College Station, and Pittsburgh, No. 10 and rated tops in the East, against West Virginia, a coal-country rival the Pathers spilled from bowl consideration late in the 1955 season.

* * *

Stanford and Southern California, left with the most after the Pacific Coast Conference shakeup, play the features among the far western contenders. Stanford is at Washington State and the Trojans at Texas in night games.

* * *

Jim Tatum's return to North Carolina is launched against top rival North Carolina State and Vanderbilt meets Georgia at Nashville in important southern games.

Most of the midwestern powers and top-rated Oklahoma wait another week before joining the fun.

Other major games include:

SOUTH — Virginia vs. VMI, Wake Forest vs. William & Mary, The Citadel vs. Newberry, Duke vs. South Carolina, Mississippi State vs. Florida, Tulane vs. Virginia Tech.

MIDWEST — Cincinnati vs. Dayton, Marquette vs. Detroit, Nebraska vs. South Dakota, Kansas State vs. Oklahoma A&M, George Washington vs. Miami, Ohio, Louisville vs. Toledo, Oregon State vs. Missouri.

SOUTHWEST — Arkansas vs. Hardin-Simmons, Texas Tech vs. Texas Western, Alabama vs. Rice (night), New Mexico A&M vs. New Mexico.

FAR WEST — Oregon vs. Colorado, Baylor vs. California, Denver vs. Utah State, Nevada vs. Idaho State, Washington vs. Idaho, College of Pacific vs. Colorado A&M, Arizona State, Tempe, vs. Wichita, Montana State vs. North Dakota.

Wins Little Brown Jug

Pace Goes to Noble Adios

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Two years ago Chicago auto dealer Paul Wixom paid $34,000 for a yearling pacer at the Hempt Farm Auction at Mechanicsburg, Pa.

* * *

Yesterday the same bay colt, Noble Adios, paid him back $29,492.97 for 4:01 4-5 minutes work as he won the 11th annual $52,666.05 Little Brown Jug Classic for three-year-old sidewheelers at the Delaware County Fairgrounds half-mile track.

Noble Adios, son of Adios and Helen Win, did it in straight heats just as his full brother, Adios Harry, did two years ago.

Noble Adios added yesterday's stirring win to his victory in the $71,000 William H. Cane Futurity at Yonkers, N.Y., for a two-year return of $93,453.

Bachelor Hanover, chestnut colt owned by Hazel Rubin of Charlton, N.Y., and driven by leading driver and money winner Billy Houghton, was an odds-on choice in both heats but finished four and fifth as Noble Adios, expertly handled by Johnny Simpson of Orlando, Fla., came home to win in 2:01 and 2:00 4-5.

Adioscot, owned by Walter T. Chandler of Decatur, Ga., took second money of $8,426.56 with a 3-2 finish, and Adioway, from the S. A. Camp Farms of Shafter, Calif., was third with 2-9 for $5,266.60. Canny Scott, from the Castleton Farms of Lexington, Ky., was third and fourth in the two heats for $5,266.61 and fourth place. Bachelor Hanover ran 4-5 for fifth place and $3,159.98, while Buckeye won sixth place and $1,053.33 for his 5-6 finishes.

Indians Nip Denver

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indianapolis Indians came from behind with three runs in the 9th inning to nip Denver 7-6, and take a 2-0 lead in their American Assn. final playoff last night.

Chips Clash With Broncs

KALAMAZOO (AP) — High scoring Central Michigan meets revamped Western Michigan here tomorrow in what could be a football thriller.

Central, with flashy Jim Podoley totaling 247 yards on offense, took Bradley 38-33 last Saturday night, but appeared weak on defense.

Western, which opens its season against Central, has what coach Jack Petoskey describes as "a few surprises to dish out."

"If we can contain Podoley with any degree of success maybe we can throw an upset in opening the season."

Maryland Race Revenue

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The state of Maryland in 1955 received $4,899,105 in tax revenue from the three mile tracks at Pimlico, Laurel and Bowie. The state received an additional $1,783,493 from nine harness and half-mile tracks.

Refuge Sought for Small Craft

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — Poor docking facilities on Mackinac Island could force a chage in the termination point of the Port Huron-Mackinac Island yacht race, army engineers were told last night.

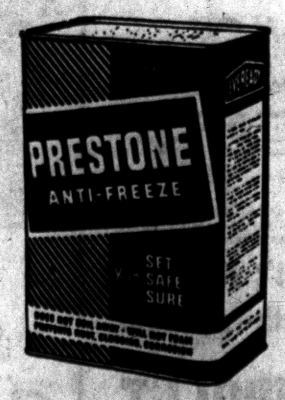

Robert C. Benkert, commodore of Bayview Yacht Club which has sponsored the race for 32 years, spoke at a meeting attended by some 50 persons interested in a small boat refuge harbor at Mackinaw City. The army corps of engineers would build the major part of the refuge.

The representatives from various state and local groups proposed a 3,600-foot breakwall into the Straits of Mackinac at a cost of 500,000 to the federal government.

Bow Hunters Prepare for Start of Season

LANSING (AP)—The twang of bowstrings will soon punctuate the fall air to signal the start of another deer season for archers, Michigan's fastest-growing group of sportsmen.

The State Conservation Department says some 41,000 bow and arrow hunters will take part in this year's season, which opens Oct. 1 and ends Nov. 5.

That's an increase of more than 3,000 over last year's bow hunting group, when 37,965 hunters killed an estimated 2,300 deer.

Back in 1937, the first year Michigan had a bow and arrow season, only 200 hunters participated. They shot four deer.

What accounts for the mushrooming growth of archery? In the words of G. A. Ammann, conservation department game specialist and a dedicated archer himself, it's "more of a challenge."

Ammann, who began his archery career at the age of 10, has killed seven deer with bow and arrow in the last 15 years—a record that many a gun hunter could envy.

Success with the bow and arrow is a combination of luck, woods experience and skill with the weapon itself, Ammann says.

"The average deer killed by archers is shot at about 30 yards, although a man in Utah killed a buck at 178 yards," he says.

"In that case, the archer shot high in the air and the arrow fell into the deer's spine. A falling arrow has just about as much lethal power as one shot straight."

* * *

Ammann suggests sportsmen who want to try their hand in this fall's archery season get a copy of the department's bulletin on the coming special seasons.

* * *

The bulletin describes the areas where the special seasons will be held. It is in those areas that there are the most deer.

Poor Pheasant Hunting in Ontario Is Forecast

PELEE ISLAND, Ont. (INS) — Poor pheasant hunting this fall was not only the forecast for Michigan but also for Pelee Island, Ontario, where 1,400 hunters bought Canadian licenses and got their limit last year.

Only 500 licenses will be sold this year since the Ontario department of lands and forests and residents of th eisland sadly predict "this will be one of the poorest pheasant hunts in years."

A heavy stocking program carried on by residents and conservation officers has failed to bring the bird population up to last year's figures. Teh latest population report is about 70 per cent less than it should be.

The Pelee Island pheasant story is an interesting one. Conservation officers relate how at one time pheasants became such a nuisance on Pelee Island that farmers bulldozed their land to destroy bird nests and kill off the birds which were ruining crops.

* * *

The island which is located a few miles south of Kingsville is oneof the most southerly points of Canada and only a short drive from the Detroit area.

There are no predators on the island. This fact, coupled with excellent food for the birds, makes it a pheasant paradise. However a wet spring this year raised hob with the spring crop of birds and floods destryed hundreds of pheasant nests.

As the Ontarior lands and forest department put it:

"Some bright soul conceived the idea that the pheasants could provide as valuable a cash crop as anything on the island could produce—thus the pheasant shoot was born.

* * *

"The shoot lasts for two days and, under strict supervision, thousands of hunters flocked over from the mainland to find some of the best shooting n the continent . . .

"The hunt became increasingly popular and the demand for licenses grew. The number issued has always varied from year to year. In good years as many as 1,500 licenses were issued, declining to perhaps 400 in poor years . . ."

Unknowingly, Pelee Island hunters changed the economy of the place. By coming in to hunt, they eliminated some of the crop-destroying birds, they spent money as travelers, they provided added income for the farmers and provided revenue which helped kep taxs down for the farmers.

Toski Leader in 'Scramble'

Fires 68 at Oklahoma City; Michigan's Bill Nary Gets 69

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Scramble seemed to be the byword in the $15,000 Oklahoma City Golf Tournament today as a field of 135 sought to master par over the tough-playing Twin Hills Country Club course.

Gusty winds, slick greens and difficult pin placements made par hard to achieve in yesterday's first round, and the same situations faced contestants today.

Holding a one-stroke lead was 29-year-old Bob Toski, of Holyoke Mass., who shot a four under par 68 yesterday in what he described as his "the best scrambling round" in his golf career.

A good example of his sensational play came on the four par-3 holes. He hit only one of them in regulation, but was still three-under par for those holes. He chipped in from 15 and 30 feet, and sunk a 10-foot putt on the hard 14th which measures 183 yards with traps to left and right.

Two solid performances came from Bill Nary, Wayne, Mich., and Billy Caspar, Chula Vista, Calif., with their three-under par 69s.

In all, 26 players equaled or bettered par. The field was to be cut to the 60 low-scoring professionals and 10 low amateurs after today's second round.

Ford tandem axle BIG JOBS are rated to carry more payload than comparable tandems of any of the leading manufacturers. T-800 model has max. GVW of 45,000 lb.—GCW is 65,000 lb.

Ford's F-100 Custom panel is one of the top load carriers in its class. It provides 155.8 cu. ft. of cargo space in a smooth, fully lined interior and hauls up to 1,535 lb. of payload.

The hardest-working, biggest-saving "two-tonner" of them all is the Ford F-600. Only Ford offers a Short Stroke Six and three Short Stroke V-8's in this field. Max. GVW is 19,500 lb.

FOR BIG JOBS . . . SMALL JOBS . . . ALL JOBS

Ford Trucks cost less

Ford's F-100 pickup with the 8-ft. box is the biggest in the half-ton field—up to 19 cu. ft. more loadspace than the others. Regular 6½-ft. box with a full 45 cu. ft. capacity also available.

And low first cost is only your first saving

Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value: what you get and what it costs. You'll like what you see.

Look at the costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life. And a 10-million truck study proves Ford trucks last longer.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more for your money in a Ford. For example, more horsepower per dollar—proved by a comparison of factory-suggested list prices and net horsepower of all truck lines. You get more comfort with a Driverized Cab, and more safety with Ford's exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully...consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

Trading Active in Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP)—Trading activity quickened from the previous session's very slow pace and prices tilted lower on the Board of Trade today.

Losses never ran very far and in some cereals a rebound developed. Expansion of the corn and soybean harvest, fairly large receipts of cash oats and hedging pressure in wheat combined to send the market down.

The market received support from resting orders and there also appeared to be some short covering prior to President Eisenhower's farm speech tonight.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅛ lower to 1⅛ higher, Dec. $2.28⅝; corn 1⅛ to ⅝ lower, Dec. $1.36¾; oats ⅜ to ⅞ lower, Dec. 74⅞; rye ½ to one cent lower, Dec. $1.51½; soybeans ½ to ⅞ lower, Nov. $2.33⅝ and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, Oct. $11.50.

Pivotal issues went ahead from fractions to around 2 points.

The Market was higher from the start in active trading. Prices improved and the turnover increased.

Steels, motors, rails, coppers, oils and chemicals made good gains.

After declining for nine of the past 11 sessions the Market had ample technical justification for a rebound. The performance was a follow-through from late yesterday's improvement. News of the government loosening credit on housing was part of the encouraging background.

Gains of around 2 points or more were scored by Bethlehem Steel, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, Kennecott Copper, Allied Chemical and Gulf Oil.

Advances of a point or so were made by U. S. Steel, Youngstown, Goodrich, Boeing, United Aircraft, Union Carbide and Royal Dutch.

Smaller gains were posted by General Motors, Chrysler, Caterpillar, Radio Corp., and American Telephone.

Among the opening blocks were U. S. Steel up 1 at 67½ on 5,000 shares, Gulf up 1⅝ at 117 on 3,000, Santa Fe up ⅛ at 27½ on 3,000, and International Nickel up 1½ at 104 on 1,800.

THE ENVY OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

DESIGN R234 — Here is another large brick veneer ranch home it has an exceptionally nice living-dining area with an L-shaped arrangement, which takes in the entire end of the house; for convenient traffic circulation, the angular front entrance hall will lead you into either the living area or directly to the kitchen-bedroom area. An enchanting fireplace, open on 2 sides, serves both the dining and living areas; if you will closely inspect our plan, you will notice how this arrangement lends itself to good furniture placement. You will also observe the 3 entrances from the terrace, you will be able to visualize the beauty of your lawn and garden area as seen through the rear window of this spacious living area; or a look through the front picture windows will show you a unique ledge-rock planter with its vertical trellis arrangement extending to the roof. All this, built on your lot of ours for the low price of $15,275.

NEW QUALITY
BUILT HOME
This large, attractive, 3 bedroom brick ranch home, uniquely designed with a beautiful ledge rock front wall fireplace, surrounded by two exceptionally large picture windows in living room, is outstanding with its combination of brick veneer, glass and wood. The floor plan is well arranged to meet the spacious requirement of the most particular family. The front entrance hall, as well as the center hall, is so designed that it will allow you to go from one room to another without passing through the other rooms. It has two beautiful fireplaces, one in the living room and one in the recreation area in the basement. The tiled ceramic functional two bath is new, unique and yet extremely practical. A 12x14 master bedroom with 2 closets and built in vanity. The big kitchen has a large window (almost a picture window) and grouped around it is an unusual amount of birch U-shaped cabinets. There is plenty of space for dining. Full basement, gas perimeter heat and large 2-car plastered garage. Custom built on 2 large lots with a Y-type turn around drive so that you can head into your garage and head out onto the main highway. This truly must be seen to be appreciated. Priced low for this opening. Ask salesman at house for details. Come to 2470 Walton Blvd., just past Silver Lake Rd.

Prosecute, Owners Told, to End Shoplifting

EAST LANSING (INS) — Michigan merchants have been told they must prosecute all shoplifters in order to halt the practice which costs them millions of dolars each year.

A film pointing out different shoplifting techniques also was shown at the fifth annual Michigan Hardware Management Conference at Michigan State University.

Danger Still Exists, Red-Buster Warns

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Federal Judge Harold R. Medina, who presided at the 1949 trial of top U.S. Communists in New York, says the nation's drive on Communists has cleaned out "only the fellows on the fringe."

"The really dangerous ones in the hard-core center have simply changed their strategy," Medina said. "It would be a very grave mistake for America to become less vigilant."

Here for a state bar convention, Medina also told interviewers:

"I'd rather see every Communist go scot free than abandon, dilute, or diminish a single one of our constitutiontl freedoms — and that includes the Fifth Amendment."

Trio of Rotating Stars Will Perform Against Foreign Settings

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — As the idea men of television hunt through various American ways of life for material, it was inevitable that some one eventually would hit on a newspaper wire service.

* * *

Someone has. On Oct. 4 ABC-TV will launch a weekly series of hour-length filmed dramas—at 8 p.m., EST — fittingly titled "Wire Service." Then everybody who ever saw a teletype printer can sit back and criticize the technical details.

The sparks for "Wire Service" were struck by the man who ignited "I Love Lucy" and a dozen other popular TV programs. His name is Don Sharpe.

* * *

Three stars — George Brent, Dane Clark and Mercedes McCambridge—will rotate on the series as wire service feature reporters who go to distant places and become involved in strange situations as they seek the news behind the news.

Producing 39 hour-length films is almost the equivalent of the annual production of a major Hollywood studio, and a majority of the shows will be shot on location in such places as Paris, London, Munich, Rome, Mexico.

* * *

The opening show, titled "Blood Rock Mine," was shot on location in the Mojave Desert in 124 degree temperature. It's a story of greed and the relationships of people who believe they are on the verge of great wealth in a possible uranium strike.

Lee Cooley has terminated a successful run as producer of Perry Como's NBC-TV show to devote himself to "high quality" children's shows for ABC-TV.

* * *

"It's time that we stop offering second class entertainment to our children," he says. "As it is now, the kids—with a few notable exceptions—get old films, mostly cowboy, and a whole lot of crime and violence.

"Yet it isn't so much what our children get now, as what they don't get. There's so much worthwhile that can be done. We think our first job is to convince sponsors and advertising agencies that it is to their own interest to expend on children's shows a budget at least comparable to that of the grown-up shows."

* * *

On Oct. 6 he will present on ABC-TV the "Red Goose Kiddie Spectacular" — (10 a.m. EST) a 90-minute fantasy starring Alene Dalton.

Cooley has in mind a prospective television series for children based on stories from the Bible.

Tickling Trout Illegal

DERBY, England (INS) —Tickling trout in the Trent River will be illegal from now on. The Trent River Board warned fishermen against trout tickling and explained: "The fish stays still and the tickler can easily lift it out of the water."

Army Reactivates 101st Airborne for Atomic War

FT.CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP)— The Army shows off today its new atomic-age fighting outfit, the 101st Airborne Division, brought back into existenct from its famous days of World War II.

* * *

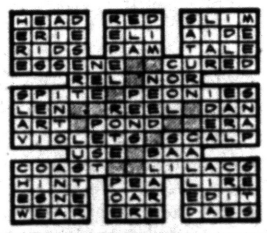

It arranged elaborate ceremonies and demonstrations by its paratroopers and their missile and atomic era weapons to mark formal reactivation of the Screaming Eagle Divison — the name coming from the shoulder patch worn by the 101st.

Not only are many of the weapons and techniques of battle new for the division, but its size and organization differ drastically from the outfit which drifted down into battle in Normandy, in Holland and at Bastogne.

* * *

Against the 17,500-man strength of standard infantry divisions, and the 13,000 or 14,000 men of other airborne divisions, the 101st has 11,500 men. Instead of the traditional three-regiment core of combat strength, the 101st is made up of five "combat groups" — smaller, more flexible, but with heavy firepower and high mobility in tht air and on the ground.

Wire Is Super-fine

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Platinum wire so fine it is invisible to the naked eye is used sometimes as crosshairs in microscopes and telescopes. Its diameter is as small as four hundred thousanths of an inch. In its fabrication a larger platinum wire, surrounded by a heavy silver jacket, is drawn to the desired diameter. Then the silver is dissolved away, leaving the minute platinum-wire core.

Furrier Appeals Term for Staging Fake Holdup

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Albert Teitelbaum, 42, Beverly Hills furrier, is at liberty on $5,000 bond, pending a ruling on his appeal from a one-year county jail sentence for staging a fake holdup of his salon.

Teitelbaum was convicted of grand theft and filing a false insurance claim in connection with the alleged holdup last Dec. 27, in which he reported a large quantity of furs taken.

Actress Bordeaux Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Virus pneumonia has claimed the life of Nanette Bordeaux, 38, stage and screen actress who recently returned from Paris and London. The Quebec-born actress became ill a few days ago and died yesterday in a Los Angeles hospital. She began her career on the New York stage and later appeared in Hal Roach and Columbia Studios films.

Polio Upsurge Noted in Nation

956 Cases Last Week, Highest Record Given Public Health Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of new polio cases rose to at least 956 last week, the highest weekly total for the year.

* * *

The Public Health Service said no reports had been received from Utah and South Dakota for the week ended Sept. 15, but without these there was a rise of 101 cases over the 855 in the week ended Sept. 8.

"There is no reason for alarm and there were no reports of any localized outbreaks such as occurred in Chicago," a spokesman said.

The previous weekly high for 1956 had been 943 for the week ended Aug. 25.

* * *

The 956 cases already listed for last week were less than half of the 1,949 cases in the comparable 1955 week. The total continued to run lower than for any comparable week since 1947. That year the peak was reached at 958 in the second week in September.

The spokesman said there were some indications delayed reports of cases may have boosted last week's total in one or more states.

He ventured a guess that would stand as the high week for the year.

Illinois was the only state reporting more than 100 cases last week, with 107. California had 95, up from 57 in the week ended Sept. 8; Michigan had 71, up from 48; New York 64, up from 42; and Missouri 54, up from 29.

* * *

For the disease year which started April 1 there had been 9,659 cases through Sept. 15, compared with 19,084 a year earlier.

The calendar year total had been 10,726 compared with 20,147.
